Mi Yin shook her head, looked at Zuo An who looked unhappy behind her, and said, " Goodbye, Zuo An is about to explode, I'll go back by myself. "

As he spoke, Mi Yin lowered his head and added Xue Piao back as his friend, saying, " I'll privately chat with you later. "

Xue Piaorjian had no choice but to withdraw his hand and nodded.

Mi Yin turned around and was about to leave, but she stopped, looked at him, then looked at Zuo An, and said hesitantly : " What you said at that time ... did something happen? "

Mi Yin had asked this question once before when the two of them separated, but Xue Piao Renjian was such a taciturn person that when something really happened, it was impossible for her to get an answer, and in the end the two of them parted unhappily.

At that time, Mi Yin thought that everyone had their own pursuits and there was no way to force them, but now it seems that what Xue Piao is doing is not something he really wants to do.

Hearing this, Xue Piao's brows were tinged with gloom, but he did not explain. Instead, he shook his head and said to Mi Yin: " I will go find you. "

Mi Yin knew that the other party didn't want to talk anymore. When Xue Piao Renjian didn't want to talk, you couldn't get anything out of him even if you asked him until your mouth was dry. Having suffered a loss once, Mi Yin could only sigh and said, " Let's talk about it later. I'm leaving now. Come on. "

Xue Piao Renjian nodded and watched Mi Yin return to the position in Fanxing City. When Mi Yin walked back, he found Xiao Xiao Yu Xia looking at him with a strange look. Mi Yin was confused and asked: " What? "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia hesitated to speak, and finally said: " No, nothing, I just suddenly understood why you explained a certain problem for so long but it was completely useless. "

Miyin: "..... ??? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia cleared her throat and said, " Well, did Xue Piao Renjian say anything to you? " Mi Yin's face became serious, he nodded, and said, " Zuo An has no intention of keeping his promise. Even if Tian Xia wins, we must be prepared to fight back. "

Xiao Xiao Yu said " Oh " and said: " That's it? "

Mi Yin was speechless: "... What's with your tone? Isn't this news important enough? "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said in disbelief: " No, you can tell what kind of person Sun City is at first glance. So when you promised, you thought he would keep his word? "

Miyin: "..."

It was raining heavily and I was shocked.

Mi Yin waved her hand, interrupting Xiao Xiao Yu Xia, and said with a frown: " Since we know that he won't do what he said, why should we agree to it? Isn't this a waste of time? "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia smiled and said, " It is indeed a waste of time, but it is not our time that is wasted, and that is enough. "

Mi Yin was stunned.

Qi Qin had already taken out his guard, and turned his head to Xiao Xiao Yu and said, " I'm on it? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " Wait a minute, Miyin, you went up to fight and lost, don't you have anything to remind the world? "

" Oh! " Mi Yin opened his mouth and was about to talk about skills, but then he remembered what Xue Piao said, smacked his lips, and closed his mouth again.

Xiaoxiao Rain: " ??? "

Mi Yin said with a guilty conscience: " Winning or losing doesn't matter anyway, let Tianxia fight Xue Piao fairly and justly to decide the winner! "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia: "... Excuse me? I sent you up there to incite Xue Piao Renjian to rebel, not to let you be incited by Xue Piao Renjian to rebel! "

Mi Yin forced himself to be reasonable and said, " Bah! What's the point of inciting rebellion or not? You gang leaders are just the core. We masters are all about fair and square victory and defeat. Where does all that nonsense come from? "

Xiao Xiaoyu looked indifferent: " Oh. "

Mi Yin ignored him and prepared to see if Xu Chu was online and discuss the matter of Xue Piao Renjian with him. Xu Chu had previously seen Qi Qin trying to poach him. Although the two had not yet decided who was better, Xue Piao Renjian was definitely better than Liu Tian and Jian Xi Xin Jiu! There was no reason for Xu Chu not to hire Xue Piao!

It has been so long and Xu Chu has not shown any sign of showing up. Mi Yin has always thought that Ge Chu has not woken up yet and is online. However, after opening the friend list, she found that the latter's avatar had already lit up.

Mi Yin was stunned for a moment, and asked Xiao Xiao Yuxia: " What's going on? Xu Chu is already online, why didn't he come to find us? "

Xiao Xiaoyu smiled and said, " How should I know? Xuchu is not under my jurisdiction. Why don't you ask Liutian? "

Mi Yin was speechless and said, " Are you crazy? Asking Liu Tian? Is Xu Chu under Liu Tian's care? "

It's almost time to return to Xuchuguan in six days!

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia shrugged and said, " Anyway, I don't know where he is. It doesn't matter if he's one more or one less. Let's just watch the competition. "

After hearing this, Mi Yin finally put aside the matter of contacting Xu Chu for the time being, retracted her gaze, and looked at the situation on the field.

After Mi Yin refused to expose Xue Piao Renjian's trump card, Qi Qin very consciously walked to the field with his guard. Xue Piao Renjian also looked at this opponent seriously, without any intention of despising the opponent because of his obscurity.

Qi Qin walked up to him, cupped his fists as usual, and said, " Number one in the world. "

After Qi Qin did this, he realized that he seemed a little stupid, especially after he said the name, it seemed that the air was frozen.

However, Xue Piao Renjian's reaction was not the same as others. He did not show any strange behavior because of Qi Qin's behavior and ID . He just nodded silently, and then said: " Xue Piao Renjian. "

Because of Xue Piao's reaction, the silly introduction of himself before seemed to have some kind of inexplicable sense of ritual, and Qi Qin couldn't help but have a better impression of this person.

He nodded to Xue Piao Renjian and said, " Please. "

Xue Piaorjian didn't bother to be polite with him and immediately rode his horse towards him. The knight profession was just an ordinary semi-finished product before it had a horse. Apart from the fact that its damage was decent and it was not despised, it actually had no advantages. Most professions could beat them. But after getting the horse, although the knight's PVE ability was reduced because the target became larger and the skills were linked to the horse, in the world of PVP , it became the top profession of the pyramid. Their defense, mobility, and high damage cycle with the horse gave them a unique position in both team battles and single combat.

At least in the single combat world, the only ones who can fight against the knight, besides the long -range archers with equally high mobility and damage, are the swordsmen, who are also a strength profession.

At least Qi Qin didn't suffer any loss in his career.

Xue Piao Renjian had fought with Qi Qin before and knew that the opponent had good equipment, high defense and damage, so he did not use ordinary gun skills to launch an attack. Instead, he unexpectedly used the knight's latest skill, [Trample] at the beginning .

This skill is a new skill at level 51. Its damage is higher than [Raising Hoof] . The horse raises its front hooves and attacks the enemy three times in a row. Each attack will do more damage than the previous one. If it stomps on the enemy three times, it can kill the enemy instantly. However, most knights will not use this move easily. Not only because it is the skill with the highest damage and needs to be used with caution when it is most needed, but also because it is easy to miss a step if this skill is not well controlled. If the enemy dodges it, it will be very embarrassing.

The fact that Xue Piao Renjian dared to use this move as a starting point fully demonstrated his confidence in his own strength. The people watching around him, whether they understood it or not, couldn't help but exclaim in amazement.

Qi Qin didn't expect Xue Piao Renjian to be so fierce. He started to step on people with his hooves. He was stunned for a moment before he remembered to hide.

However, Xue Piao Renjian's skills were not so easy to dodge. As soon as Qi Qin moved, he immediately noticed Xue Piao Renjian's subtle manipulation of the horse. Almost in an instant, he adjusted the horse's position and locked the direction he was about to dodge. Qi Qin almost didn't need to try it a second time. He knew that no matter where he hid, this person's attack would accurately fall on him.

If this was an ordinary player, even if he could react, the only way would probably be to activate a defensive skill and withstand the attack.

But the one here is Qi Qin. No matter what situation he encounters, the first thing he thinks of is not what skills he can use or how to reduce the damage when hit. In his eyes, there is only the damage that can be avoided and the damage that cannot be avoided.

Qi Qin instantly put the Guardian into his backpack, and relying on his light armor to be flexible enough, he rolled forward and hid under Xue Piao Renjian's horse.

This position is very convenient whether for attack or defense.

Xue Piao Renjian had never expected that someone would put away his weapon directly when being attacked. You know, most players – no, it should be said that most people, when being attacked that cannot be avoided, will never put down the weapons in their hands that can be used for defense. He dared to use [Trample] because he saw that Qi Qin was a swordsman. Although he was wearing light armor, his weapon was too heavy and his mobility was insufficient. With that big sword, no matter which direction he was in, he could not escape his attack range.

Unexpectedly, this person would play by his own rules. Xue Piao Renjian had no choice but to cancel the [Trample] skill effect immediately. As soon as the horse's hooves were raised, he immediately put them down and leaped to the side, letting Qi Qin out from under the horse.

The surrounding knights all sighed with regret.

Canceling a skill after using it will not only cause no damage, but will also put the skill into CD . Although the CD of [Trample] is very precious as a big skill , Xue Piao Renjian's approach is not wrong.

[Trampling] will cause stiffness. After using this skill, the horse will step firmly on the ground with its three feet, no matter it steps on anyone or not, and then it can proceed to the next action. Stepping three times in the air is undoubtedly a very good opportunity to attack the knight's enemies . After all, the knight cannot move at this time and is no different from a target for practicing skills.

All knights know this, but most of them find it difficult to cancel this skill immediately. After all, at the current stage of "Domain", there are really not many skills, and one less skill is one less. What's more, it is a powerful skill like this. Even if you miss it, it seems to make people feel more psychologically comforted than not using it at all.

Therefore, even though they know that this is a flaw, most knights will at least make the first step so as not to feel it is a waste. However, there are some silly newbies who would rather get stabbed than not make three complete steps in the air.

The voices made by the surrounding knights did not mean that they had any opinion on Xue Piao Renjian – they were not at that level to have an opinion on Xue Piao Renjian, they just felt sorry for this skill.

Qi Qin didn't know much about knights, and he didn't know how decisive Xue Piao Renjian's reaction would be, but he did have a certain understanding of Xue Piao Renjian's strength.

After letting him out, Xue Piao Renjian launched a second attack on him without hesitation, and held the knight's gun straight in front of him. Qi Qin also instantly took out the guardian from his backpack and blocked the shot.

For this shot, Xue Piao Renjian used the skill Straight Stab. The force attached by the system was very strong. Qi Qin even had a hard time blocking it with his bare hands without using any skills. His guard was tilted. Xue Piao Renjian shook his hand, and the tip of the gun came out from above the sword, making a sharp scraping sound, and stabbed straight at Qi Qin's brow. Qi Qin immediately fell backwards and dodged this move.

Xue Piaorenjian said " Huh " as if he couldn't understand.

In fact, everything happened in just a moment. Using the sword to block was a conditioned reflex, which is understandable, but the dodge afterwards was too quick a reaction. Not to mention the routine of online game players who habitually use skills, it didn't even seem like a normal person.

Xue Piao Renjian finally realized that the person in front of him didn't seem to be just an ordinary player who was very good at the game.

At the moment when Xue Piao Renjian hesitated , Qi Qin immediately seized the opportunity, picked up Xue Piao Renjian's spear, raised his guard, and pounced towards the opponent.

The most common tactic Qi Qin uses to fight knights is to first knock them off their horses with a sword, and then beat them!

Xue Piao Renjian noticed the other party's intention and rode his horse away, but Qi Qin moved slightly and immediately stuck to him, still guarding in front of Xue Piao Renjian.

Xue Piao Renjian made a " tsk " sound, leaned back and lay on the horse's back, avoiding the guard while using this posture to use the second skill when the knight was still a spearman, [horizontal attack] .

The name of this skill is very similar to the swordsman's initial skill [Sweep] , and its function is similar. There is nothing special about it. The only advantage is that it is a skill and the damage is enhanced by the system.

This blow was swept towards Qi Qin's neck – it was not that Xue Piao Renjian and Qi Qin had any deep hatred, but every move was aimed at the vital points. It was just that Xue Piao Renjian was on a horse, the other was tall, and Xue Piao Renjian was evenly matched with Qi Qin. He could not give up an inch, so he could only hit wherever it was convenient.

Qi Qin immediately stepped back and dodged the shot, and Xue Piao Renjian seized the opportunity, stood up, turned his horse's head, and used his last skill, [Raising Hoof] , towards Qi Qin .

Qi Qin had no way to avoid it, so he held the guard horizontally in front of him to block the attack. He also took several steps back and a layer of skin was scraped off.

The two of them stopped at the same time, and the players around them who had been holding their breath also remembered to breathe and began to gasp for air.

This wave of fighting was like making the online game feel like a martial arts movie, with you fighting back and forth. The onlookers knew that the damage in the game would not be fatal, but they still felt nervous after each move was made.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia couldn't help but say, " Xue Piao Renjian is still awesome. In the past, people who fought with Tianxia were basically knocked down in one encounter, but this time the fight lasted so long, and Tianxia lost some blood first. "

Mi Yin's feeling was more intuitive than Xiao Xiao Yuxia's. To be honest, he had fought with Qi Qin and knew that Qi Qin was very strong, and strong in a completely different sense. However, with his strength, he could not see where Qi Qin's limit was.

It was not until the other party fought with Xue Piao Renjian that he had a rough estimate of Qi Qin's abilities.

At least Xue Piao Renjian will not be a match for Qi Qin.

Xue Piao Renjian is strong in his ability to use skills and various settings in the game. If he could defeat Qi Qin, he would definitely have decided the outcome with the opponent before his skills were used up. But now all of Xue Piao's skills are on CD , while Qi Qin has only lost a layer of blood. From now on, all of Xue Piao's CD time will be Qi Qin's home court. When the rhythm is controlled by the enemy , Xue Piao Renjian can only passively give up skills that cannot form a cycle, until he has no way to avoid it, and defeat is only a matter of time.

Xue Piao Renjian had experienced a similar situation before he grew up. The best way to deal with the broken skill cycle is to hold back skills with the help of teammates. This period may last for more than ten seconds, until the skills in hand can form another cycle, which is the moment to turn the tide of the battle.

When Mi Yin thought of this, he found that Xue Piao on the field also turned around and looked at him at the same time.

In fact, after growing up in Xue Piao Renjian, he has never been suppressed by others, and he has never needed Mi Yin's cover again. When the combination of him and Mi Yin has flaws, it is more likely that Mi Yin will have flaws, and Xue Piao Renjian has become the teammate who helps Mi Yin find his way back.

Although it is nice to have a big thigh to hug, I have to say something embarrassing, but Mi Yin still misses the time when she was a big thigh and when Xue Piao was still a newbie in the game.

Mi Yin nodded to Xue Piao and mouthed, "Come on."

Xue Piao looked at him in silence for a while, then turned her head away.

Xiao Xiaoyu, who was standing by, bumped into Mi Yin expressionlessly, almost knocking the poor little assassin to the ground.

Mi Yin was knocked back and looked at him strangely.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said to herself: "Why did I think you could persuade Xue Piao Renjian to rebel?"

Miyin: "..."

But to be honest, although Mi Yin told Xue Piao to cheer for him, he didn't think Xue Piao had much chance of winning. It wasn't because this was a one-on-one duel and there were no so-called teammates. After all, the skills in the holographic online game could be avoided if the positioning was smart enough – just like Qi Qin, who could hold back skills even without teammates. The point was that Xue Piao Renjian's positioning was not necessarily sharper than Qi Qin's, and even if the latter did not use skills, the power of a swordsman was definitely greater than that of a knight. Without any skills to use, Xue Piao Renjian could be said to have no resistance to Qi Qin's attacks.

However, there is another way to delay the skill in Xue Piao Renjian. Although it is a bit vulgar, it is a very profitable method for professions with high mobility in an unlimited time duel.

That is – walking.

No matter how fast Qi Qin runs, he can't catch up with the horse. As long as Xue Piao Renjian runs on the horse, Qi Qin will never be able to touch a hair of his unless he stops by himself. He can keep walking until his skills are ready, and then he will attack again. If he can't kill the enemy, he will continue to run, and then attack again when he is ready. Although it is very despicable, as long as Qi Qin doesn't catch him and kill him, he can keep doing this until Qi Qin's blood is drained.

Almost everyone knows this method. Although some people get so angry when they encounter it in a fight that they curse endlessly, such as "xxx , if you have the guts, don't run away. What kind of hero or master are you if you can only run away?", everyone has to admit that for highly mobile professions, this is a normal and very profitable way of playing, and there is nothing wrong with it.

But now, for Xue Piao Renjian, whether it is worth it, or whether this style of play should be used, is also something that needs to be considered .

This is a competition and a contest, not a game where you have to win by throwing tantrums. He and Mi Yin can use this style of play when they cooperate in the arena, but when fighting against a master like Qi Qin, it is important to learn the opponent's ideas and fighting methods, or to decide the outcome with a more ceremonial sense. Although riding a horse and walking someone around may not necessarily be despised, and there may be fans of Xue Piao who think this operation is very coquettish, Xue Piao Renjian himself is unwilling to do this.

This was also the reason why he stopped, because he didn't want to run, but he didn't know how to attack at the moment – after all, the opponent could even dodge skills, so ordinary attacks were of course no problem. Hitting him straight up would just be a waste of time and energy, and might even put himself in a passive situation. Once he was forced to use skills with a good CD , the next wave would be over.

Compared with offense, Xue Piao Renjian is more inclined to defense.

But the problem is that for some reason, Qi Qin also stopped.

The two people stared at each other blankly, and the scene was very awkward.

Mi Yin also felt something was wrong after watching for a while. He could guess what Xue Piao Renjian was thinking, but what was Qi Qin trying to do? He had all his skills, and his health bar was only slightly scratched. Now he was staring at her with wide eyes. Did he think Xue Piao Renjian was good-looking?

In Qi Qin's heart, of course there is no one more handsome than Ji Xuanyi. He stopped, of course not because he thought Xue Piao Renjian was handsome, but because Xiao Xiao Yuxia sent him a private message, asking him to delay time as much as possible. This is why he only launched one attack and was on the defensive except for that.

To be honest, compared to the current situation, Qi Qin would rather Xue Piao Renjian ride his horse around and he chased after him with a sword in hand. No matter what, it is definitely better than the current situation where the two of them do nothing and just look at each other!

Xue Piao Renjian looked at Qi Qin in confusion. Qi Qin subconsciously looked at Xiao Xiao Yuxia. Xiao Xiao Yuxia held her forehead with her hand, turned sideways, and waved her hand. Qi Qin: "..."

What does this mean? Ji Xuanyi didn't even try to command him with body language!

Qi Qin couldn't figure out what Xiaoxiao Yuxia meant, so he had to bite the bullet, raise his guard and attack Xue Piao Renjian amid the discussions that gradually rose around him.

As soon as Qi Qin moved, the surroundings immediately became quiet. Everyone watched the battle on the field intently, afraid of missing any details.

Xue Piao Renjian also watched Qi Qin's movements carefully, ready to move at any time.

It was fine when others were attacking, but when it came to his own attack, Qi Qin had no idea how to let go. Every one of his moves was the most concise and efficient killing move , and his attacks were often filled with genuine murderous intent . Xue Piao Renjian did not dare to be careless at all. Not only did he have to move, but he also had to coordinate his attacks with the spear to make the opponent's heavy sword deviate from its original trajectory. Only then did he have a chance to dodge.

But no matter how sharp he was, Xue Piao Renjian was just an ordinary person. He had not practiced for twenty years like Qi Qin. It was okay once or twice, but after doing it many times, even if there was no physical problem, the high mental tension caused Xue Piao Renjian's originally highly accurate intuitive predictions to begin to go wrong.

Several times, Qi Qin's sword brushed past Xue Piao Renjian's arms and legs. Both the one who was hitting and the one being hit were scared and broke out in cold sweats. This fight was very exhausting.

When Xue Piao Renjian's skill cycle was completed, both of them breathed a sigh of relief and fought again, causing the surrounding onlookers to exclaim in surprise.

Just when Qi Qin and Xue Piao Renjian were both exhausted physically and mentally from this protracted battle, Qi Qin finally received a secret message from Xiao Xiao Yuxia.

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : Finish the fight quickly! The more intense the better! Quick!

Qi Qin suddenly became alert, and his offensive movements became sharper. Xue Piao Renjian was originally attacking, but Qi Qin used his skills to directly deflect his spear, and then he attacked him like a hungry tiger.

Xue Piao Renjian's expression started to stern, and he reacted immediately, raising his hand to meet the attack. The moment the contact came, he realized that Qi Qin was really serious at this time.

Qi Qin's attack came towards him almost without stopping. Each movement could attack at least two or three parts of his body. The rhythm was so fast that Xue Piao Renjian felt a suffocating feeling, unable to resist.

Compared with his current state, the so-called high mental tension before was just like a child playing house and was not worth mentioning. Xue Piao Renjian was so exhausted that even the horse under him was forced to retreat continuously by Qi Qin.

He still had two high-damage horse skills in his hands, but he didn't even have time to use them! He felt that if he stopped parrying, he would be killed instantly by Qi Qin !

To be honest, Qi Qin had already made his move seriously, but he did not expect that Xue Piao Renjian could actually hold on for so long. He was indeed the strongest person as they said.

Qi Qin's eyes sparkled, and he said to Xue Piao Renjian: " You are very powerful, indeed you are the most powerful person here. "

Xue Piao Renjian was stunned. Before he could figure out whether Qi Qin was praising him or mocking him, he saw Qi Qin's sword-holding hand flip over. A huge force came, and he couldn't even hold the spear. The weapon was picked up and flew out, and then stuck into the ground with a buzzing sound.

At this time, anyone with eyes could tell who would win. There was an uproar all around. Zuo An roared and cursed: " Fuck! Xue Piao Renjian, you are fucking number one! You can't beat someone who doesn't even have a name, you are just trash! "

Xue Piao Renjian frowned, but before he could respond to his words, he saw Zuo An's face change drastically, becoming even angrier and even a little frightened.

Zuo An looked at Xiao Xiao Yu Xia with bloodshot eyes and cursed: " Fuck! You actually sneak attacked me!!! "

Xiao Xiaoyu nodded seriously: " Yes, come and hit me if you can, hehe. "

Chapter 93

This time Mi Yin really misunderstood Xu Chu.

Apart from the useless duo who returned to Fanxing City , Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xi Xinjiu were on their way to Novice Town, and Xiao Xiao Yuxia and the other two were confronting the Daytime City right in front. The only one who could lead people to launch a sneak attack from the rear was the unreliable Xu Chu who was always mumbling.

In order to avoid the eyes of the Daylight City , Xu Chu used the same old trick and used the time difference method again, escaping with a team of people. It seemed that he had been online for more than an hour in the morning and went around with a group of people . Including the assassins who later stuck to the Daylight City's movements , they were actually people from the team led by Xu Chu.

Although Xu Chu suddenly became reliable for once, it seems that this person can only be on time when doing things.

Zuo An was so mad at Xiao Xiao Yu Xia that he ignored any plan to shift the blame to Fanxing City , let alone care about Xue Piao Renjian who was still between the two groups. Xiao Xiao Yu Xia told him to come and hit him if he had the guts , so he waved his hand violently and commanded the large army to rush towards Fanxing City.

Xue Piao Renjian had just come to his senses from having his weapon knocked away when he saw the troops from Fanxing City rushing towards him at a very fast speed and with murderous intent , with no intention of bypassing him at all.

Piao Renjian, who had worked under Zuo An for so long, must know what Zuo An was thinking . He turned his back to the troops of Day City , sighed softly, looked at Qi Qin, and said: " You are very strong, I lost. "

Before Qi Qin could say anything, Xue Piao Renjian had already turned his horse around and headed towards the team from Dayo City. In the blink of an eye, he was rushed into a beam of white light by the Dayo City knights who had no intention of slowing down at all, and flew back to the resurrection point in Dayo City.

Qi Qin stood there in a daze for a long while.

Xue Piao Renjian's choice had nothing to do with him. Qi Qin was a little slow to realize that the drizzling rain had allowed him to delay time in preparation for a sneak attack on the rear.

But to be honest, Xiao Xiaoyu's provocation just now was not wise considering the current situation. The overall strength of Fanxing City is definitely not comparable to that of Yueri City. Even if they launch a sneak attack, the entire large force must join in the attack to barely gain the upper hand. Xu Chu only brought a small team to go around the back, which actually did not help the situation much. Yueri City could have just dispersed the large force of Fanxing City in front of them, and then turned back to deal with Xu Chu and his team.

It can be seen from the fact that Zuo'an launched an attack on the large army of Star City in front of him without hesitation that he has absolute confidence in the strength of Sun City!

In fact, Xiao Xiaoyuxia was also on edge, constantly praying in her heart that Xu Chu's movements could be faster and faster. Although the large army of Fanxing City would not be defeated in one blow, every extra second would result in the death of countless players, and the power of Fanxing City would be consumed more. Just thinking about it made Xiao Xiaoyuxia feel like her heart was bleeding!

That's right, Xiao Xiao Yuxia's personality is definitely not impulsive, not to mention that he frivolously provoked someone stronger than himself. The reason why he said that just now was to attract Zuo An's attention and create an opportunity for Xu Chu in the rear to successfully complete their plan. But to be honest, couldn't Xu Chu move faster! The large army of Dayo City was about to rush in front of them!

If Xu Chu knew what Xiao Xiao Yu Xia was thinking now, he would probably spit out blood. You were under a lot of pressure before the fight, and you wanted him to complete the plan before they even started. Wouldn't he be under a lot of pressure later? The level of the scattered troops in Day City is higher than the elite troops in Star City that he is leading now! Even if there is no command, it is not so easy to break through!

The knights led by Xu Chu were struggling to charge the defense line of the Sun City's scattered troops. Xu Chu himself was rubbing his head in pain, while he was throwing skills at a knight's horse in front of him, saying: " Can you do it? Haven't you found it yet? "

Young Master Ming was sitting on another knight's horse, looking far into the distance . Hearing this, he sighed and said, " Although Xuanbing cannot be put into a backpack, it is not that big. Besides, it is impossible for the people in Day City to hold Xuanbing on their heads to fight. How can it be so easy to find it? "

Xuchu nodded, and said with an expression that I could understand: " Then there is no other way. If we can't find it, let's all die together. "

Young Master Ming: "..."

Is this something a leader should say?

Xu Chu smiled at him and was about to say something when a clear voice came from the air beside him: " I found it! "

The air was turbulent. Ze Yushishui, who had not appeared for a long time, had sparkling eyes. He ran quickly, trying to catch up with the cavalry's horse's rear end, and said, " Left front! A male priest in a blue robe in the back row of priests is holding a box! "

In the game world, everyone has a backpack, and no one is willing to carry cumbersome things in their hands. Even if the backpack is full, it is better to throw away a useless thing than to hold it in your hands, unless the thing cannot be put into the backpack at all.

Ze Yu Sishui traveled all the way, trekked through mountains and rivers, and overcame numerous obstacles. He finally rejoined the team this morning and reunited with Ming Shao Qingfeng Bufu. He gloriously joined Xu Chu's team and became one of the pathfinders. And he successfully made a contribution and found the location of Xuanbing!

Before Xu Chu could say anything, Qing Feng Bu Fu, who was standing beside him, was already in tears and said with emotion: " Son, you have finally made it! "

Ze Yu Si Shui: "..."

The smile gradually disappeared.

Ze Yu looked at Qingfeng Bufu with dead eyes, teleported to the horse he was on and punched him, then before the horse was too heavy and almost fell over, he teleported to another knight's horse and sat on it, and spat at Qingfeng Bufu.

It was difficult for other people to intervene in the family conflict. Xu Chu pretended not to notice Ze Yu Si Shui's actions and said, " Ze Yu Si Shui's gang points will increase by 100! Everyone, attack to the left front! "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia didn't know that Xu Chu had just found Xuan Bing's location. The large army of Dayo City had already come into contact with Fanxing City and started fighting . In an instant, white lights lit up one after another, some flew towards Fanxing City, and some flew towards Dayo City. However, it was visible to the naked eye that the number of the former was far greater than the latter. Xiao Xiao Yuxia was so heartbroken that she almost vomited blood. After Qi Qin returned to the resurrection point in Xue Piao Renjian, he was the second person to be attacked by the large army of Dayo City. Compared to Xue Piao Renjian, who was still in the Dayo City camp, Qi Qin, as a player from Fanxing City – and a master player who could influence the outcome of the battle, was treated much " better " than Xue Piao Renjian. The main target of some players in the Sun City was still the large army of the Star City, and they just hit him when they passed by him. However, the other players in the Sun City, probably after receiving orders from Zuo An, went straight for him, as if his head was worth a thousand gold.

Even Qi Qin felt a chill in this situation and turned around and ran away. He is indeed an expert, but no matter how skilled he is, he can only fight one against a hundred, not thousands or tens of thousands. Moreover, Qi Qin himself believes that he is not at the level of fighting one against a hundred , otherwise he would have directly challenged one gang at a time during the internal gang war in Fanxing City. Now, let alone the three major gangs, the grass on the graves of the Jianghu people is three meters high.

Qi Qin's current strength has no limit in a one-on-one fight. As for a group fight, even if they are all noobs, the upper limit of the number of opponents will not exceed double digits, not to mention the thousands of well-equipped and high-level players in the Sun City!

Fortunately, Qi Qin was not slow, and with his displacement skills, he quickly returned to the Star City line and mixed with other swordsmen to become the first line of defense against the attack from the Sun City . Now that Xue Piao Renjian had been dealt with, Qi Qin's status was not that high. It didn't matter whether he lived or died. He had to do all the work that a swordsman should do.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia is also a swordsman, but he is the commander, so life and death still matter, so he stands in the third row and does not directly participate in the battle. While he is commanding the battle by shouting heartbreakingly, he is also chatting frantically with Xu Chu, asking him how much longer it will take.

But what kind of person is Xu Chu? When I asked him half an hour ago, he said " right away " . When I asked him half an hour later, he still said " right away " . After asking the same question over and over again, Xu Chu still didn't get impatient to answer, but Xiaoxiao Yuxia started to get impatient to ask.

Xiao Xiaoyu's forehead was throbbing with veins. He didn't understand what kind of magic Xu Chu had fooled him into agreeing to cooperate with such a person to complete a plan. He simply closed the chat channel and decided to fight the people from Youri City!

However, the strength of the frontal troops of Fanxing City was there, and some of the elite soldiers were withdrawn by Xu Chu. Although Xiaoxiao Yuxia had tried her best, Fanxing City still slowly showed signs of fatigue.

Qi Qin was hacking and killing the people from Dayo City with all his might under the cover of other players from Star City. At this moment, none of his so-called moves could be used, after all, he could kill at least three people with each of his swords. Fortunately, the equipment on him was made by Ji Xuanyi with great effort, and the damage alone could hold up the sky. In such a long battle line of Star City, the most white light from Dayo City appeared here, and many players from Star City unconsciously moved towards him.

So when Qi Qin was pushed from behind, he just thought that someone accidentally bumped into him and said without turning his head: "Don't get so close to me, you might get hurt by mistake."

"It's me." Mi Yin said.

Qi Qin was startled, turned around and looked at him, his hands moving without stopping, and asked: "Mi Yin?"

Miyin said "hmm".

Assassins are not a profession suitable for working in a team, let alone commanding them. The power that assassins can provide in team battles is not that much. After all, their main job is assassination. In team battles, almost all enemies have companions behind and near them. Even if they are alone, they would have been eaten by their own large troops long ago, and there is no need for assassins to take action. Therefore, assassins can only play a certain harassment role on the battlefield.

Even for an assassin like Mi Yin, when fighting, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia could only let him move freely and play with his strength.

However, no matter how freely he can play, he should not fall behind his own team. At this time, Mi Yin should look for an enemy who can be left alone on the periphery of the enemy team.

Qi Qin was about to ask him what happened, but suddenly he thought of what happened in Xue Piao Renjian, and he stammered, "Um, yes, I'm sorry, I didn't control myself at the time, was that not a good thing?"

Not only did he win the fight, but he also impulsively knocked the other person's weapon away. Xue Piao Renjian was stunned at the time, not to mention that the man from Zuo'an would instigate others to say something about him.

Mi Yin was stunned for a moment before she realized what Qi Qin meant. She laughed and said, "What are you thinking? It's normal to win and lose in a competition. Xue Piao beat me up like that and she never apologized."

As Xue Piao Renjian's former master, Mi Yin was defeated time and again by his own disciple, and the public opinion he had to bear was much heavier than this.

Mi Yin smiled and said, "I came to you because Xue Piao asked me to tell you not to take this matter too seriously. No matter what others say, you did nothing wrong."

This is what Mi Yin, who was defeated by Xue Piao, said to the other party when the other party was feeling uneasy.

Qi Qin didn't know this, he just vaguely thought, is Xue Piao Renjian so considerate? His personality doesn't seem like that ...

Qi Qin was stunned for a while, then came to his senses, thought for a while, and said: "Xue Piao Renjian is really a good person, but I saw him being killed by the people of Day City. I wonder if he will have any difficulties over there."

Hearing this, Mi Yin nodded and said, "Well, I know, I will solve this matter."

In fact, Qi Qin didn't need to remind her that Mi Yin would appear behind the team because she was having a secret chat with Xue Piao Renjian just now.

When Xue Piao Renjian was turned into a white light by the large army of Yuri City, Mi Yin almost rushed forward, but was stopped by Xiao Xiao Yu Xia. In addition, Xue Piao Renjian sent him a private message immediately afterwards, so he chose to run back and make things clear with Xue Piao Renjian first.

Similar to Qi Qin's reaction, Mi Yin first explained that Qi Qin had no ill intentions, then analyzed how perverted Qi Qin was, and finally comforted him by saying that anyone who faced him would lose, and told Xue Piao Renjian not to worry too much.

However, in fact, Xue Piao Renjian did not care much about this matter. Although he has always been hailed as the strongest, he was actually prepared for the fact that he would be defeated by another person in the future. The appearance of Qi Qin was not a big blow. He was stunned at the time, but he just didn't react for a while. After that, he asked Mi Yin to tell Qi Qin not to mind it.

After that, it was time to prepare to leave Sun City.

Although they had agreed to wait until the matter was over, Mi Yin knew that Xue Piao Renjian was a man who kept his promises. Coupled with his "strongest" attribute, who knew whether he would set some strange conditions with Zuo An, such as solving the problem only after winning once. If Xue Piao still had to hang out with Zuo An after this incident, it would be disgusting.

Fortunately, Xue Piao Renjian told Mi Yin that because of Zuo An's undisguised bad character, he was not stupid enough to set strange conditions with the other party. It was just an ordinary employment relationship. Moreover, after this incident, Zuo An himself would probably dislike Xue Piao Renjian and would want to drive him away.

Mi Yin expressed that she couldn't understand.

It's normal to dislike someone. With Zuo An's personality, it would be strange if he liked anyone. But it's very wrong to drive him away. You know, even if Xue Piao Renjian lost once, he is still the second strongest master. Except Qi Qin, almost no one can defeat him. How sick must Zuo An be to dislike Xue Piao Renjian?

The explanation given by Xue Piao Renjian was also not very clear – it might also be because of his expression problem. It was probably that Zuo An was psychologically dark and couldn't stand other people having good relationships. He loved to sow discord between them, and he was almost successful every time. He had used similar methods to break up a super gang before, but he didn't expect to be defeated by Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian this time. Not to mention continuing to employ Xue Piao, he probably wanted to kill Xue Piao.

He had something to do right now, so he just killed Xue Piao to vent his anger. By the time he had time, Xue Piao would probably become the number one wanted criminal in Day City.

Although Xue Piao is not afraid of these, the employment relationship is almost over, and he is not a masochist. It would be fine if Zuo An was not crazy at other times, but now that he is like this and still sticks to him, isn't he as sick as Zuo An? Of course he would choose to find Mi Yin. Mi Yin chatted in private: "It just so happens that we have someone here who wants to hire someone. The price he offers is definitely higher than that of Zuo'an. If you want to make money, it's the same here."

There was silence for a long time on Xue Piao Renjian side before a reply was sent.

[雪飘人间] : Thank you, but I don't need it anymore.

Mi Yin didn't know what this meant, but she thought that it was not a good thing no matter how she looked at it when something a person wanted to do was suddenly stopped before it was completed.

Knowing that there would be no answer, Mi Yin did not ask any more questions. She just silently pointed the way to Xue Piao and told him to come to Fanxing City first, and then slowly find out after the matter was resolved.

" But to be honest, although it is a normal situation, it is really infuriating to see my apprentice and teammate being beaten to death like this. " Mi Yin said.

Qi Qin was stunned, the sword in his hand was crooked, and he turned around and asked: " What? "

Mi Yin said calmly: " The weather is getting cold, let Zuo An return to life. "

" What? "

Before Qi Qin could react, he saw Mi Yin crouch down and disappear.

Qi Qin: "..."

That's right, Mi Yin went straight to cause trouble for Zuo An.

People like Zuo An who like to play tricks and stir up trouble all day long have no time to practice fighting. They are usually very bad at fighting. So even though the opponent's profession is a knight, Mi Yin did not find it difficult at all. He used invisibility and sneaked in from the side.

At the front of the team are melee professions that are working hard to deal damage. If you go around a little further back, you can see the neatly arranged ranged teams. It goes without saying that people like Zuo An must be hiding in the safest priest team.

However, there are too many people in the Day City, and the formation is very tight. If Mi Yin squeezes in like this, she will definitely step on the feet of the Day City players and be exposed in minutes.

Mi Yin pondered for a moment and suddenly remembered something.

In the team of Sun City, a mage was raising his hands and mechanically throwing skills at the same angle in front of him. All the players of Sun City knew that Star City could not be their opponent. Sun City did not even need to change the formation and could just fight casually. Just when he was so bored that he couldn't help yawning, a voice suddenly came from the air next to him.

" Brother, make way, I want to go in. "

The mage was stunned for a moment, then realized that this was an invisible assassin.

Although he felt like something was wrong, he subconsciously moved aside.

After that, he heard the assassin repeat the same words again, pushing aside the mages standing on his right one by one and walking all the way to the innermost part.

A mage nearby complained, " I said the team is too crowded. You have to raise your hands so high to cast a skill, just like a primary school student in class. Isn't it tiring? If an assassin wants to join a team, he has to shout to everyone to make way. If he walks to the innermost part, he will be so tired of shouting. "

There were echoes from all around, and everyone was annoyed by the boring skill-casting action.

Although the mage was complaining in his heart, he didn't say it out loud. He cast a skill and said, " This is all for the main city. It only happens once in a while. Just bear with it. "

The mages whispered for a while and then fell silent.

After a while, someone suddenly said: " Why do I feel weird ..."

“ I also find it a little weird ...”

“ When you guys mentioned it, I also felt something was wrong ...”

The mage was suddenly stunned and said, " That's not right. Why would the assassins come here? This is the mage group. Even if they want to return to the team, the assassins are in front of them! "

Another person also suddenly realized what was going on and cursed: " Shit! Those are assassins from Star City! Our group is further in and they are the priests group! The leader is there! "

The mage group was in an uproar, some were chatting secretly, some were shouting at the top of their lungs, and they all spread the news that an assassin from Starry City had sneaked in. However, it was too late to discover it. Before the mages could convey the message to Zuo'an, Mi Yin had already found his way into the priest team where they had a more spacious position and ran towards Zuo'an who was riding on a horse.

Zuo An never thought that he would be attacked in the center of the base camp of Day City! In the priest group! Under the protection of thirty layers inside and thirty layers outside!

He didn't react when Mi Yin's knife stabbed him in the back until he saw his health bar dropping. Then he screamed in panic: " Heal me! Fuck! Heal me!!! Someone is hitting me! "

The priests around were frightened by his roar. They turned around and saw Mi Yin stabbing Zuo An frantically in the back, and immediately threw his skills at Zuo An as if they were free. It has to be said that as a rich man, Zuo'an's equipment was not much different from Xu Chu's. As a knight, his health bar was almost as thick as that of a swordsman. It was just that he was a noob, so he was chopped like a wooden stake by Mi Yin's sword.

Mi Yin stabbed him eighteen times but failed to kill him. Even so, Zuo An only realized that there was someone hitting him from behind after his health bar was healed up, and then he remembered to fight back with his gun.

At the same time, the priests also reacted and threw their only skill with damaging effects, Holy Light Balls, at Mi Yin.

Although the damage of the priest at this stage is already very touching for other players, it is still very difficult for so many priests to use their skills on the squishy targets. Mi Yin had no choice but to jump up from the horse on the left bank, use teleport, step on several priests, and run to the pile of mages not far away . With three consecutive attacks, he stabbed a squishy mage to death, reset a teleport, and then immediately became invisible. He teleported a second time and ran to a place where they couldn't find him.

Zuo An, who stayed where he was, was so angry that he yelled, " Fuck! Assassin! Fuck the assassin, how did he get in here? Are you all idiots? "

The mages who let Mi Yin in: "..."

I have to say, the reason for this infiltration is really stupid.

Mi Yin reappeared after running out of the team from Daytime City. When he was sighing that he had really become a loser and couldn't even kill someone by chopping a wooden stake, he received a private message from Xiao Xiao Yuxia, who learned from Qi Qin that Mi Yin had gone to cause trouble for Zuo An.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said that he didn't mind Mi Yin replacing Zuo An, because in that case, the Dayo City would be leaderless and maybe they could fight head - on. But Mi Yin, have you ever considered that your good friend Xue Piao Renjian just died and returned to the resurrection point in Dayo City. He probably hasn't left the city gate yet. Now that Zuo An has gone back, he can't command the Dayo City troops in Chongyan Volcano, but he can free up his hands to deal with Xue Piao Renjian. Besides, it was you who sent him back. Once he is anxious and angry, what can't he do?

When Mi Yin thought about this, he almost broke out in a cold sweat. Now he was glad that he did not succeed. However, although he did not kill the man after stabbing so many times, it left a shadow in his heart. No matter where Zuo An is in the future, he will probably never be able to rest in peace.

Mi Yin's harassment of the left bank was not completely useless. At least it disrupted the rhythm of the mage and priest corps, giving the Star City troops a chance to catch their breath for a while.

But it was just a short respite. Xiao Xiao Yu Xia could fight on, but the other players in Star City might not be able to fight on for long. Xiao Xiao Yu Xia estimated that the players in Star City were almost at their limit, and couldn't bear it any longer, so he whispered in private for the last time: " We can't hold on any longer! How long will it take for you to hold on?!!! "

After a while, Xu Chu sent a reply.

[Xu Chu] : Right away!

[Xu Chu] : This time it's really coming soon!

Xiaoxiao Yuxia: " Bah! "

Although Xiaoxiao Yuxia did not think Xu Chu was reliable, he had no other choice but to continue supporting Xu Chu's actions. If he allowed Yaori City to withdraw its hands and crush Xu Chu's group of people now, all the previous efforts would be wasted!

Fortunately, Xu Chu really didn't fool anyone this time. They had already snatched the Xuanbing and ran away with the box!

In fact, the place where Xu Chu and his team snatched the box was not very far from Zuo An . If Zuo An had just looked back, he could have seen the sneaky Fanxing City team. But unfortunately, at that time Zuo An was still immersed in the shock of being ambushed by Mi Yin among thousands of troops, and did not react at all. By the time others passed the news, Xu Chu and his team had already fled!

Although he snatched the black ice from Youyue City, to be honest, it was only because he felt strange as to why Youyue City had a box in his hand. After getting it, he found that he could not put it into his backpack. Zuo An did not connect this piece of black ice with the mission of Chongyan Volcano, otherwise, Xu Chu and the others would not have snatched the things away so easily – in fact, even after it was snatched away, Zuo An did not react immediately to why Xu Chu and the others wanted to snatch this thing.

Therefore, Zuo'an's first reaction at the moment was still the anger of being ambushed, and his even more resolute determination to wipe out the large army of Fanxing City here.

Even if Xu Chu and his men really did something extraordinary, or obtained some important items, as long as the main force of Fanxing City was wiped out here, the few people Xu Chu took with him would definitely not be able to defeat the mission boss and complete the mission!

Zuo An did not order a pursuit of Xu Chu's small force, but instead mobilized the entire army, regardless of losses, to destroy Fanxing City as quickly as possible!

As a swordsman in the front row, Xiao Xiaoyuxia felt the increased pressure from the attack from Day City almost instantly. Seeing that even Qi Qin was beginning to struggle, Xiao Xiaoyuxia said to Xu Chu in despair: " Not done yet?!!!!!! "

Xu Chu immediately replied: " Okay!!! "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia felt relieved and immediately issued final orders to all the gang leaders and members of the three major gangs.

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: " Everyone!!! "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: " Offline!!! "

The order was conveyed so quickly that in almost an instant, most of the Star City camp was empty. In the blink of an eye, everyone was gone.

Sunshine City player: "... ??? "

What the hell?! Is this the way to play this game? ? ? Everyone in Star City, why the hell don't you go to heaven? ? ? ?

The players of Day City, who had lost their opponents and targets in an instant, looked at each other in confusion. They drew their swords and looked around with a dazed mind . The murderous intent in their hearts was like a balloon, which disappeared in a flash .

This news reached Zuo An's ears after a while, and Zuo An could hardly believe what he heard! People from Star City! All of them! Offline???

Star City, do you guys have any shame? Do you have any shame? ? ?

Zuo An was choking on his breath and nearly vomited blood on the spot. He was so angry that he almost passed out. Then he suddenly remembered that there must be a reason why the main force of Fanxing City was so weak and yet so cautious!

What is the reason?

It was the small group that snatched Xuanbing and ran away! Fuck!

Zuo An gnashed his teeth and shouted, " The fastest knights! Go after that small group of troops! Go now!!! "

The Knights of Day City are also a fully armed elite team. Although the assault force of Star City is also an elite knight group, they are not all knights. They also have many other professions, such as assassins. The knights have more weight, so no matter how elite they are, they can't outrun the Day City team. If we chase them at this time, we may still catch up!

As soon as Zuo An gave the order, the Knights of Day City rushed out immediately. However, the original leader Xue Piao Renjian was gone, and this Knights team did not seem as sharp as before.

After Zuo An issued his command, the person who came to report the news said cautiously: "What about the large army? The people from Star City are offline, we ..."

Zuo An gritted his teeth and said, "Wait! Wait until they come online!"

As soon as this was said, the players in the surrounding Sun City immediately complained in their hearts. Waiting for someone to come online is too stupid! Do you know when he will come online? Others are having fun offline for a week before coming online. Can you wait here for a week without sleeping? Are you sick?

But Zuo An is the commander and the leader of the largest gang in Youri City. No matter how stupid his words are, everyone will still reluctantly obey them for the sake of saving face.

The man muttered to himself, walked back silently and conveyed the order.

On the other hand, the situation of the Knights of Dayo City who were searching for the Star City Assault Team was not very good either.

It hadn't been long since the Starry City troops had run out. When they chased them out, they could still see the horseshoe prints that hadn't been refreshed. After chasing them for a while, they could barely see the shadows of the Starry City team. But after they chased them out for a while, the Starry City assault troops disappeared in a flash ...

The leading knight was stunned for a moment, then cursed: "Fuck! Is there any new tactics? They are fucking offline again. Are all the people in Star City rats?!"

Another knight said, "That shouldn't be the case. Xuanbing can't be put into a backpack, and of course it can't be taken offline. If they leave like this, Xuanbing will definitely fall to the ground. Should we go up and look for it?"

The leader frowned and said, "The people in Star City are not that stupid, they should have guessed that this thing can't be taken offline, how could it fall on the ground?"

Even so, the leading knight subconsciously took two steps forward, then paused, suddenly realizing: "Fuck! We've been tricked!"

Ten minutes ago.

Holding Xuanbing, Xu Chu and the other three were lying on a pile of rocks on the side of the road, silently watching the knights of Dayo City run past them without looking back, raising dust all the way.

Ze Yu Si Shui: "Pooh, pooh, pooh!"

Qing Feng Bu Fu: "Boss Xuchu is still awesome, he can predict the future like a god. Young Master Ming, you just said that his method is unreliable!"

Young Master Ming had an indescribable expression on his face.

Xu Chu said calmly: "It's a small scene. E-sports doesn't require vision."

After thinking about it, he couldn't help but smile and added, "The same is true for holographic online games."

Chapter 94

By the time the Knights of Dayo City finally came to their senses and turned back to look for them, Xu Chu and his four companions had already wandered away for a long distance.

After being lost on the road for a long time and gaining nothing , the Day City Knights had to return empty-handed to report.

Zuo An, who received the news, almost exploded on the spot, and yelled: " Are you fucking blind? Can't you see when they got off the horse? How many obstacles are there on this map? Will you die if you look at both sides when running?! "

Zuo An cursed too harshly , and even though he was indeed at fault, some members of the Cavaliers still lowered their heads with resentful expressions.

After all, this is just a game. Who would like to be scolded like this ? They don't fight back now only because Zuo An is still the leader of the largest gang in Yueri City, Bancheng . It is too easy for him to exclude them and stop them from playing this game .

But speaking of it, the knights' vision problem is indeed quite embarrassing . They are on horseback and seldom look down at the things below. Plus, they are moving very fast , so they need to look straight ahead to observe possible obstacles rather than looking to the sides . Not to mention when chasing people . It would be strange if they would look to the corners on both sides . Even Snow Piao Renjian didn't notice the Star City mage troops lying on the ground .

How could they be forced to do something that Snow Piao Renjian couldn't do?

However, Zuo An didn't care about these things. After scolding the Knights, he also scolded their undercover agents, saying that they didn't even know when the Starry City had separated out the sneak attack troops, and they were useless.

The players in Sun City all listened but didn't say anything.

After a long time, Zuo An calmed down a little, and kept silent with a gloomy face.

No one wanted to offend him, and the team in Day City was quiet.

Zuo An subconsciously looked to the side, but there was no one there. Zuo An frowned, lowered his head, and began to chat in secret with someone.

About five minutes later, Zuo An said with a sullen face, " The Assassins will go out to look for those people with Xuanbing. Everyone else will take turns to stand by and guard here until the people from Fanxing City come online! I must disperse them today and prevent them from being arrogant again! "

The players in Sun City all managed to cheer up, responded, and began to divide into teams under the command of half of the city's senior executives.

The Daylight City was tricked by the Star City's decisive and shameless offline plan and was shrouded in a heavy atmosphere of depression. However, Xu Chu and his four companions who escaped the Daylight City's pursuit had already returned to the Dwarf Ruins.

In fact, after experiencing the baptism of the Starry City demolition troops and the second lava bath, if Xu Chu had not had sharp eyes, no one would have been able to tell that this was once a ruin inhabited by dwarves – only cooled lava and thick volcanic ash were left here. In a few days, grass would have grown out, and I don't know if it would be refreshed again after the world quest is completed.

Ze Yu Sishui stepped on the rock that had become hard under his feet, exclaimed exaggeratedly, and said: " I can't believe how much I have missed! "

Ming Shao didn't feel anything about these things. He just thought of the materials Xu Chu gave him and Qingfeng Bufu, and couldn't help but smile meaningfully at Ze Yu Sishui.

Ze Yu Sishui knew nothing about this. He got goose bumps all over his body when Ming Shao looked at him. He held his chest and said strangely: " Why are you smiling at me like that, you gay ? "

Young Master Ming: "..."

That doesn't exist. The father-son theme will be censored!

Ming Shao said coldly: " If you are gay in your heart , everything you see will be gay . "

Qing Feng Bu Fu also hugged Ze Yu Si Shui and cried, " My son, how did your thoughts become so gay ? There is no future for being gay. Look at you, such a weak little boy ..."

Ze Yu Sishui pushed Qing Feng Bu Fu away and said with a frown: "... Bah! You are the weak one, what a mess. "

Young Master Ming said quietly, " You are the one who brought up this topic. "

Ze Yu Sishui was furious: " Then you can continue to turn it into a group crosstalk?! "

The family of three was quarreling, while Xu Chu, who was standing nearby, was holding Xuan Bing and watching the family drama with great interest. He even wanted to eat some melon seeds.

When they were almost done watching the show, Xu Chu interrupted and said, " That's enough, let's go, we are in a hurry. "

Ze Yu Sishui said: " Didn't they say that Day City couldn't catch up in a short time? "

Xu Chu said quietly, " Please look up at the sky. I mean that Sun City won't be able to catch up for a while, but now it's been a long time. "

This was indeed true. They only discovered the troops from Day City at noon, and the large armies met and fought in the afternoon. It was already past four o'clock now. If they went offline to eat, it would be dark by the time they came back online.

Xu Chu sighed and said, " You guys are fine. If I don't finish the task on time, Ji Xuan will scratch my face when he comes back. "

Ze Yu Sishui imagined the way Ji Xuanyi tickled someone ... Was that tickling? He might have smashed Xu Chu's head.

Ming Shao was also very upset after hearing this, and he didn't waste time arguing with Xu Chu about this, but said: " If that's the case, then let's go quickly. We need to make time to contact Xiao Xiao Yu Xia and the others after we finish the task here. "

Everyone in Fanxing City is offline, and the next online time and tactical arrangements can only be communicated offline. Not to mention the difference in players' offline and online execution capabilities, even the network speed is different for each player. It is not easy to go online at the same time. Xiaoxiao Yuxia has to start communicating at least two hours in advance, and all this time has to be squeezed out from their end.

 " Two hours is not enough, " Ze Yu Si Shui said, smacking his lips, " I think five hours is not enough. "

 " Of course not, no amount of time is enough, " Xu Chuxin said sympathetically, " You will never know how terrible procrastination is. It will completely dominate your body, erode your will, and make you powerless to resist! "

Ze Yu Si Shui and the other two: "..."

Okay, no need to say more, everyone understands, hello Gechu, goodbye Gechu.

Xu Chu touched the goose bumps on his body and sighed, " In fact, I didn't expect many people to go offline. There will still be half of the number of people online. It will be enough. "

The number of people in Star City was constantly decreasing. Due to the map environment, players falling behind, waiting for tasks, friction with Sun City, and everyone going offline, by the time of the final battle, the number of people in Star City was probably only in three digits.

Compared with the huge team that couldn't even fit in the road when they first left the city, it was really tragic.

Young Master Ming sighed and said, " After all, it's a strong enemy like Day City . It's already very remarkable that they have planned to this point. At least now, whether it's the mission or the start time of the battle, all the initiative is in our hands. "

Xu Chu glanced at Ming Shao and raised his eyebrows.

Ming Shao looked at him inexplicably, Xu Chu smiled at him and said, " Okay, let's go, let's go to the dwarf settlement first, hand in the task and have dinner! "

The three of them responded in unison.

Xu Chu used the remains of the dwarf ruins, recalled the direction they had taken to avoid the lava, and led Ze Yu Sishui and the other two towards the cave where the dwarves were hiding. Ever since the last offline counter-encirclement tactic of the Starry City, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia anticipated that this tactic might have to be used again in the future, so he set up an offline chat group early and notified the leader of the Sanren Gang of the situation, telling them not to disclose the news to anyone other than the gang members, so as to prevent spies from the Daylight City from sneaking in offline. Now he began to assign tasks frantically through the chat group.

Although Ji Xuanyi was not very willing, Xiao Xiao Yuxia still gathered this group of non-staff members and several decision-makers from the other three major gangs into a small group to facilitate discussion.

Because the mission has been very busy and everyone is online, this group has not been used in the past few days. It is filled with stupid pictures of Jing Yunhan and Liu Tian, the two gang leaders who returned to the city early, being bored and attacking each other.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia entered the group, ignored all the idiotic emoticons with animals as the main characters, and called out "Qi Qin".

Qi Qin appeared almost immediately. It was obvious that he was also very confused after going offline and didn't know what to do.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " Tianxia, Ji Xuanyi is still offline? "

It seems that Ji Xuanyi has not been offline since he took Jianxixinjiu away last night. At least he was still online when the main force came online this morning. When they went offline just now, it seemed that Ji Xuanyi's avatar was still lit.

All in all, Ji Xuanyi hadn't logged off to rest for at least thirty hours.

Qi Qin replied worriedly: " Yes, I called Xuanyi but he didn't answer. "

Although he himself did not take the initiative to find out, in this era, there are too many news tweets. He has seen many news reports about primary school students dying suddenly from staying up late, middle school students becoming paralyzed from staying up late, and college students becoming bald from staying up late!

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " I don't think I need to worry. I remember that this game cabin is very smart. If his physical condition is not right, he will be ejected directly. "

It's like the drizzle of rain, and when my emotions fluctuate a little, I almost get bounced out. The idiot Liu Tian said in the group: " That's not certain. If there are signs of sudden death, it's still called sudden death. Maybe Ji Xuan died in an instant . No matter how smart the game cabin is, it won't be in time! "

Qi Qin: "..."

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said speechlessly: " No, can you say something nice? "

Liu Tian said very seriously: " I am saying this to express my feelings. Do you understand? " This is where the problem lies, even though what he said was extremely stupid, Liu Tian was actually serious!

Xiaoxiao Yuxia refused to communicate with him.

Qi Qin sighed deeply. Although the events reported in the news were all low-probability events, it was indeed very harmful to the body to keep playing games like this. Not to mention sudden death, paralysis, or baldness, he would feel distressed if Ji Xuan got a cold. He almost wanted to go to Ji Xuan's house and unplug his Internet cable – but if he delayed things, he would definitely be beaten badly.

After discussing with Xiao Xiao Yuxia the time when the online order might be issued and the things to pay attention to, Qi Qin, who was alone with no one to communicate with, was in a state of anxiety, and kept imagining all kinds of things that might have happened to Ji Xuanyi. After imagining this for a while, Qi Qin couldn't help it in the end. He went out and drove to the door of Ji Xuanyi's house.

After Ji Xuanyi moved out of his home, he had been living in a rented house in an old neighborhood, on the sixth floor. There was no elevator, so he had to climb all the way up. Fortunately, Qi Qin had a strong physique and he reached the sixth floor in one breath without even taking a breath.

However, although Ji Xuanyi told Qi Qin his home address and how to take a bus to find him, he did not give Qi Qin the key to his home. After Qi Qin found the correct door, he remembered that Ji Xuanyi was offline and could not hear him knocking on the door.

Qi Qin hesitated for a while, but still didn't want to leave just like that, so he sat down on the dirty mat at the door of Ji Xuan's house like a big dog that couldn't get in.

It was getting dark, and Qi Qin almost fell asleep leaning against the door when he suddenly heard a loud noise in the house, followed by a familiar curse. Qi Qin was frightened and shuddered, then woke up and realized that Ji Xuan had gone offline. He knocked on the door and whispered, " Xuan Yi Xuan Yi, I'm here to see you ..."

The voices in the house paused for a moment. Ji Xuanyi seemed to have only heard the knock on the door, but did not hear Qi Qin's mosquito-like greeting. He shouted impatiently inside: " You knocked on the wrong door. I don't have any express delivery or takeout! "

Qi Qin had never shopped online, but he had ordered takeout. After a moment, he realized that Ji Xuanyi had misunderstood him, so he raised his voice and said, " Xuanyi, it's me! "

Ji Xuanyi's rare confused voice came from the room: " Qi Qin? "

Qi Qin nodded hurriedly: " It's me, it's me! "

As the footsteps approached, Ji Xuanyi opened the door, revealing a somewhat pale face. After all, it was impossible for him to be energetic after staying up late for so long. Ji Xuanyi's hair was a little messy, and there were very obvious dark circles under his eyes. He looked very haggard.

When he found out that the person standing outside was really Qi Qin, Ji Xuanyi was speechless. He let him in and said, " Why are you here? It's only a few hours now and you're offline? "

Qi Qin looked at him worriedly and said, " We had a fight with Sun City today. We logged off early. It was Xiao Xiao Yu Xia and Xu Chu's tactic. I came here at around five o'clock. Are you okay? "

Sun City? Tactics? Ji Xuanyi frowned and tried to think of something, but after staying up all night, his brain was a mess and he couldn't think straight. He had to give up, scratched his hair, and said, " I was kicked offline by the security system. I can't get back online until nine hours later. Tsk, I don't know if I'll make it in time. "

Qi Qin looked around Ji Xuanyi's house. Of course, it was not as big as his own house, and the decoration was also very simple, with two bedrooms and a living room. It could only be said that the ordinary home appliances were quite complete. From the angle where he was standing now, he could even see a corner of the game cabin exposed in the bedroom with the door open.

After Qi Qin came here, he was used to living in a big house. Standing here, he actually felt as if he couldn't straighten his back.

But it was just an illusion. Qi Qin subconsciously straightened his back to offset the illusion. He looked at Ji Xuanyi, frowned and said, " It's okay if we don't have enough time. Since we have nine hours, let's take a break and have some sleep. "

Ji Xuanyi pulled the corner of his mouth nonchalantly, and walked to the bathroom while saying: " Take a shower, order takeout, eat and clean up, at least two or three hours are gone, the remaining time can only make me sleep silly, not let me rest well, tsk, Jian Xi Xin Jiu was probably kicked out, I don't know if he can still be online on time. "

Qi Qin followed behind him, muttering nervously: " It will take time to wash the sword and brew the new wine. How can you stay up for so long? If you go take a shower, I can cook for you. After you take a shower, you can come out to eat and then you can sleep. I will take care of the rest. You don't have to worry about it ..."

Before Qi Qin could say something else, Ji Xuan suddenly turned around and looked at him fiercely.

Qi Qin shuddered with fear.

Ji Xuanyi said with a sullen face: " Are you done? Are you annoying? "

Ji Xuanyi had been through such a long night and his temper was not very good right now, but he had been forcing himself to deal with it because it was Qi Qin who came. If it were someone else, he would have thrown him out long ago, not to mention listening to the other person's nagging.

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi's vicious eyes for a while, swallowed his saliva, and said with great backbone: " Xuanyi, you, you hit me, and then I will cook for you ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi was like a deflated balloon, visibly weakened. He waved his hand weakly, walked into the bathroom and closed the door.

Qi Qin stood in front of the door for a while, not knowing what to do.

After a while, Ji Xuanyi's impatient voice came from inside: " I want noodles with an egg. The food is in the refrigerator. Hurry up! "

Qi Qin was stunned and couldn't help laughing. He said " hmm " and strode into the kitchen.

Qi Qin's cooking skill was taught by his mother. Ever since she knew that Qi Qin liked the bad-tempered Ji Xuanyi, his mother has been worried about him. She often nags him, saying that although the two of you are together and the housekeeper probably cooks most of the time, your loving breakfast, lunch and dinner are also very important and are a great tool for cultivating feelings.

For a while, Mother Qi quarreled with Father Qi over the issue of time allocation between learning to cook and learning to manage a company. One said that to win a man's heart, you must first win his stomach, and the other said how can you support your partner if you can't earn enough money to support yourself? The final solution was that Qi Qin learned to cook while memorizing books, which was also very miserable.

But thinking that it was all for Ji Xuanyi, Qi Qin felt that he could accept any hardship.

Qi Qin cooked two bowls of noodles and topped them with vegetables and poached eggs. Ji Xuanyi just came out of the bathroom. His face was rosy and pink, and his whole body was steaming. He looked warm, as if he would melt on the tip of the tongue if he was licked.

Qi Qin swallowed and pushed a bowl of noodles in front of Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi was washed by the hot water, and his whole body softened. He looked at the noodles in front of him, raised his eyebrows and said: " You learned to cook noodles so quickly? It looks good. "

Qi Qin was praised and couldn't help laughing. He said, " Eat quickly. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't bother to be polite and started eating immediately.

Qi Qin's poached egg was cooked well, with some yellow still on it. Ji Xuanyi slurped it up and ate it in two or three bites. Qi Qin quickly took the one from his bowl. Ji Xuanyi hummed softly and ate it decisively!

Qi Qin felt so hungry just by looking at Ji Xuanyi that he ate one bowl after another just looking at Ji Xuanyi's face, and finally drank up the remaining soup of Ji Xuanyi.

While Qi Qin was packing up the remaining things, Ji Xuan blew his hair dry, looked at the time, and saw that less than an hour had passed, so he simply lay down on the bed.

When Qi Qin put away his things and entered the bedroom, Ji Xuanyi was already lying on the bed in a daze.

Qi Qin looked at the other person's face, which had gradually turned pale after being away from the hot water for too long, and whispered, " Xuan Yi, am I leaving? "

Ji Xuanyi said dazedly at first: " Well, let's go. "

Then he came to his senses, struggled to open his eyes, and said, " Huh? You're leaving now? "

Qi Qin stood in front of the door awkwardly and said, " Is there anything else? Can I help you clean up the house? "

Ji Xuanyi: "... Why the hell didn't you just tell me to install the light bulb or fix the water pipe? " After being a bodyguard, he became a housekeeper. Is this person crazy? ? ?

Qi Qin didn't understand and said, "... what? "

Ji Xuanyi rubbed his face speechlessly, sighed, and said: " It's already late, and it's dark. I'm afraid you'll fall asleep on the way. Why don't you stay here today? Anyway, you get up early, and you'll still have time to go back tomorrow. "

Qi Qin didn't react for a moment, then his face suddenly turned red, and he stammered: " What? Staying here tonight? Isn't that a bit bad ..."

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly.

Qi Qin didn't dare to look at him at all. His eyes were evasive and shy.

Ji Xuanyi was so tired that he didn't bother to talk nonsense anymore. He said directly: " If you don't want to stay here, get out. Don't come here again. If you want to stay here, your pajamas are in the closet. I've left half of the bed for you. "

After saying this, without waiting for Qi Qin's reaction, Ji Xuanyi lay back on the bed and closed his eyes.

There was silence in the room, and after a while, the sound of the closet door being opened was heard.

The air conditioner was on and it was a bit cold. When Ji Xuanyi was half asleep, he felt the mattress next to him sink and a warm thing crawled into the quilt. Ji Xuanyi turned over, pressed against the warm air, and fell into a deep sleep.

Ji Xuanyi's pajamas were a little small for Qi Qin, and the buttons could not be buttoned. Qi Qin lay on the bed on his side with his chest exposed. When Ji Xuanyi rolled into his arms, he could not help but have some random thoughts for a while. However, his biological clock was too strong, and he fell asleep on time at 8:30.

Qi Qin had a messy dream all night. When he woke up at six o'clock, he subconsciously reached out and touched the place next to him. There was still warmth, but it was empty. Qi Qin immediately woke up with a start, and found that Ji Xuanyi was no longer in bed, and the game cabin next to the bed had lit up at some point.

Qi Qin: "..."

I don't know why, but I suddenly felt a strange sense of crisis ...

Qi Qin sat on the edge of the bed, staring at the game cabin in a daze. It took him a long time to come back to his senses and squat down next to the flashing game cabin.

The outer shell of the game cabin is opaque and nothing can be seen.

Qi Qin sighed, lay back on the bed, hugged Ji Xuanyi's pillow and took a deep breath. After a long time, he slowly got up, washed, and changed his clothes.

Just as he was about to leave, Qi Qin turned around and found a brand new, shiny key on the small coffee table in Ji Xuanyi's living room.

Qi Qin stared at the key and swallowed.

Tomorrow morning at nine o'clock is the deadline to reach the HE world line. Except for Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xi Xinjiu who are still running desperately towards the Novice Town, almost all the players on almost all servers are waiting anxiously. Even the Ze Yu Sishui trio who were supposed to be doing the task are waiting in front of the Dwarf King's house with numb faces.

... What's wrong?

That's right, Xu Chu, stood down again.

Last night, the four of them finally reached the entrance of the cave where the dwarves lived after much difficulty. Qingfeng Bufu even fell down, but because they had no way of notifying them directly, the four of them could only crawl inside for a while with their bare hands. It was only after a long time that they were picked up by those who had come following the noise. The stage of riding in the small trailer was not so smooth either. It was the first time in Ming Shao's life that there were three people on his body. Not to mention keeping balance, he almost flipped over.

Fortunately, there were not too many other tests in the process of handing over the items. The group of four successfully reached the underground dwarf town and handed the black ice to the dwarf king.

The Dwarf King is very happy and says that he needs some time to assemble the black ice into the weapon. You can move around freely or notify your companions that it is time to take action. When everything is ready, you can go find him and then everyone can go to defeat the Fire Giant together.

The four of them were discussing how to notify Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others. At this time, Xu Chu said, why don't we go downstairs to have a meal? It would be a good opportunity for me to communicate with Xiaoxiao Yuxia offline, and then we can do the task together online.

Ze, Yu, and Sishui naively agreed. Fanfan went offline to eat, and then hurriedly went online after eating, fearing to waste time – and then waited for Xuchu until twelve o'clock in the evening ...

In the brightly lit underground, the three men belatedly remembered that their deputy gang member had a nickname, called Gechu.

Coo coo coo.

It was already past ten o'clock the next morning, and Xu Chu was still not online. Ze, Yu Sishui and the other two looked haggard.

They discussed it last night. Although Ge Chu was unkind, they could not be unjust. So Qingfeng Bufu took out the playing cards he carried with him and played Landlord until one o'clock in the morning. Only when they were sure that Ge Chu was really not going to play did the three of them log off. They went online again at nine o'clock the next morning and continued to wait for people.

Ze Yu Sishui, who was very excited yesterday and saw the dwarves excitedly saying that the height of this race was very friendly to him, is now so depressed that he doesn't even bother to look at the dwarves anymore.

Ze Yu Sishui said weakly, " It's been another hour. I can't even count how many hours it is. Why hasn't he come online yet? "

Qing Feng Bu Fu also said with a dying breath: " Maybe his house is too big and he got lost? " Ming Shao said expressionlessly: " No, he said yesterday that he was just procrastinating. " Ze Yu Sishui started to cry and said, " This is too much . Is it a big deal to be rich? Can you do whatever you want just because you have money? Can you treat people like this and trample on our dignity just because you have money? "

Ming Shao looked at him with a complicated expression and said, " Wake up, you are the least qualified to say such things. "

When it comes to trampling on dignity for money, before meeting Xu Chu, Ming Shao's clearest understanding was brought by Ze Yu Sishui!

How many times, Ze Yu Si Shui used money to buy his equipment, how many times, Ze Yu Si Shui used money to trample on his dignity!

Ming Shao felt that he could publish a book called Dignity and Money.

Although in most cases, Ming Shao would choose money.

Qingfeng Bufu and Zeyu Sishui did not have much conflict in equipment, so they did not have much feeling about this, but said: " What should we do? Can we just keep waiting? "

Ze Yu Sishui said: " If there was a second way, we wouldn't have played Landlord until one in the morning yesterday. "

This is true. If there was a way to make Xu Chu not cancel his meeting, I would have thought of it yesterday.

Ze Yu Sishui sighed and said, " I miss Xiao Ji so much. Even though he is fierce and cruel, loses his temper easily, and often lets the world bully us—— "

Qing Feng Bu Fu: " If this game had a recording function, you would have been dead, did you know that? "

Ze Yu Sishui glanced at him and said contemptuously, " If this game had a recording function, I wouldn't say such a thing. "

 " Anyway, at least Xiao Ji doesn't let people down. It doesn't matter if he's a little fierce, but being reliable is the most important attribute! "

As soon as Ze Yu Sishui finished speaking, a white light lit up, and Xu Chu appeared in front of them in high spirits, saying loudly: " Hi, everyone, Xu Chu is online on time today! "

There was silence at the scene. Ze, Yu, Sishui and the other two looked at him quietly and haggardly.

Xu Chu said innocently: " What's the matter? Why do you all look like you didn't sleep well? "

Ze Yu Sishui burst into tears and pointed at Xu Chu and Qing Feng Bu Fu and said, Fuck" , I want to hit him! "

Qing Feng Bu Fu quickly patted him on the back and said, " Hold it! Hold it! This is the boss who pays your salary, hold it! "

Ze Yu Sishui sniffed and said resentfully, " Damn rich people! "

Ming Shao: "... Don't scold yourself at this time. Xu Chu is online. Let's finish the task quickly. "

Xu Chu showed an expression of sudden enlightenment: " Oh, right! Where did we finish the mission yesterday? "

Ming Shao sighed and said, " The Dwarf King asked you to contact your teammates and told them to find him when they were done – have you contacted Xiao Xiao Yuxia? "

Xu Chu let out a long " Oh " and said, " I washed up and went to bed after dinner yesterday, and I seem to have forgotten about this. "

Ze Yu Sishui's eyes flashed with ferocity, and he suddenly rushed towards Xu Chu, but Ming Shao quickly caught him.

Qing Feng Bu Fu said sadly, " It's normal for rich people to forget everything after dinner, right? "

Ze Yu Sishui bared his teeth and made a fuss in Ming Shao's arms, roaring angrily.

Xu Chu thought about it and said calmly: " How about this, I'll go offline to contact Xiao Xiao Yu Xia, then have lunch, and come back to do the task-- "

" Please stop doing that! " Ze, Yu, Sishui and the other two shouted in unison.

Qing Feng Bu Fu propped up his face and said, " I can already foresee what's going to happen next. I'll take a nap after lunch, eat dinner after the nap, take a bath after dinner, and then continue to sleep after the bath ..."

Ming Shao: " Why does this plot sound familiar? "

Ze Yu Sishui said: " Because this is the daily life of pigs, except for taking a bath. "

Xu Chu shrugged .

Ming Shao said helplessly: " Anyway, don't log off. Otherwise, when you come back online, the daylily will be cold. If you want to notify Xiaoxiao that it's raining, one of us three should go. "

After that, Ming Shao added: " It would be best if it were as gentle as water or as gentle as the breeze. "

Xu Chu didn't understand and asked, " Why? "

Ming Shao said: " Because if I leave, Qing Feng Bu Fu's power will be too low to stop Ze Yu Si Shui from beating you. "

Xu Chu: "... Okay. "

With Xu Chu's level, it would be more than enough for Ze Yu Sishui to kill him.

Qing Feng Bu Fu said: " Then I'll go, you guys wait for me for a while. "

After saying this, Qingfeng Bufu went offline.

Two seconds later, he was back.

" What are you going to say to Xiaoxiao Yuxia? " Qingfeng Bufu asked in confusion.

Xu Chu: "..."

Xu Chu was speechless: " No, you guys are not going to let me go just like that? I will be online soon. "

Young Master Ming said with a vicissitude: " It's such a simple matter to go online and offline a few more times, let's not waste so much time. "

Ze Yu Sishui nodded in agreement.

Xu Chu: "... Okay. "

In fact, there was nothing special that Xiaoxiao Yuxia needed to pay attention to. Xu Chu had already prepared everything when he made the plan. What he asked Qingfeng Bufu to help convey were actually just two or three possible time points.

Ze, Yu, Sishui and the other two could not understand Xuchu's plan, and Xuchu did not intend to explain it. He clapped his hands and said, " Let's go, it's time to find the Dwarf King. We can set off now. "

In fact, he had been waiting for Xuchu for a long time. When he saw Xuchu and the other three coming back, his first words were: " You are finally here ..."

Ze Yu Sishui couldn't help but say: " Humans and machines are both outraged. We can't stand it anymore! "

Xu Chu, who was used to waiting, didn't care about it at all. He smiled calmly and said, " We are ready. Let's go quickly. "

Chapter 95

The dwarf king brought Xu Chu and the other three outside . In the brightly lit underground town , the dwarves came out of their houses one after another , carrying their weapons , and stood quietly on the roadside waiting.

Xu Chu and his companions walked to the front, where there were two dwarves carrying a huge staff together. However, the top of the staff where the magic gem should have been was inlaid with black ice. This should be the weapon that the Dwarf King mentioned to deal with the fire giants.

Xu Chu and the other three noticed that the staff was inlaid with various high-grade materials, as well as countless magic circles that were difficult to distinguish with the naked eye . The dwarves' perception of magic was not very high. If it was just an ordinary staff, they would not be able to use it . This staff should have the same working principle as the magic circle that ignited the volcano. It did not require people to use it , just fill it with materials.

Xu Chu's habit as a wealthy man came out again . He stared at the staff without blinking and asked, " How much is this? "

Ze Yu Shi Shui and the other two: "..."

Ze Yu Sishui asked in disbelief: " Why does this person only measure the value of everything with money? "

Ming Shao said expressionlessly: " You are not qualified to say this. "

Qing Feng Bu Fu also said: " Ze Yu Si Shui, you know , you have criticized yourself many times today. "

Ze Yu Sishui pretended not to hear and angrily accused Xu Chu: " This is a prop , how can you buy it with money! "

" That's not necessarily true . Strictly speaking, our weapons all come from there. What if there really are weapons of the same model or series? " Xu Chu said to Ze Yu Si Shui seriously: " For example, a magic bow or something. "

Ze Yu Sishui immediately showed an excited expression and asked: " Is this really a series of weapons? How much does it cost to make a bow? "

Young Master Ming: "..."

Qingfengbufu: "..."

The two were silent for a moment , and Qing Feng exclaimed: " It smells so good! " Fortunately , he still had some moral integrity and ignored what Ze Yu Si Shui and Xu Chu said. Instead, he explained seriously, " There is only one piece of black ice. After using this staff three times, the black ice will be completely consumed, and the fire giant will recover its strength after a certain period of time, so you must grasp the opportunity to use it. "

Although he couldn't buy it, it was good to take a look. Xu Chu leaned over and touched the staff, looking uninterested in the so-called timing of use, and asked absentmindedly: " Where is the fire giant? "

The Dwarf King frowned upon hearing this and said, " It's in the volcano. The reason we hid here to forge weapons is because when we first ignited the volcano, it attracted the Fire Giant. In order to avoid it, we had to hide away despite the humiliation. "

It can be seen that the dwarves have tried their best. Compared with the number of elves, the dwarves can be said to be sparsely populated. The tough-tempered dwarves must have sacrificed a lot in the battle with the minions of the evil god. If there was no other way, the Dwarf King would not have taken them to escape.

Xu Chu paused for a moment and said, " If we fight the fire giant in a volcano, it will be very difficult to defeat it, right? "

The dwarf king nodded and said, " Yes, we must lure the fire giant down from the volcano to weaken him. Otherwise, a piece of black ice will not be able to destroy the entire volcano. "

Xu Chu smiled and said, " Can we take care of this task? "

The dwarf king was stunned, and said hesitantly : " This is very dangerous. The dwarves cannot push such a thing to our friends ..."

Xu Chu smiled even brighter and said, " It's okay, leave it to us. It won't be dangerous, and we will definitely be able to complete it safely! "

The Dwarf King wanted to say something, but Xu Chu said, " Don't dwarves trust their friends? " When the dwarf king heard this, he immediately shouted: " Dwarves are the race that trusts friends the most! This mission is left to you! "

Xu Chu revealed a meaningful smile.

The dwarf king reorganized the team and led the dwarves out of the tunnel in a heroic and vigorous manner. Xu Chu and the other four got on the small trailer again and followed the dwarf king.

Xu Chu was held in front of Ming Shao, Qing Feng Bu Fu was held behind Ming Shao, and Ze Yu Si Shui, who couldn't find a place to sit, wanted to ride on Ming Shao's shoulders, but was rejected on the grounds that " he is not a two or three-year-old child " . He stood at the back with grievance, holding Qing Feng Bu Fu, and whispered: " That's my place! "

Qing Feng touched Ze Yu Shi Shui's head lovingly and said, " My boy, he is our boss after all, so please bear with it for a while. "

Ze Yu Si Shui: "..."

Ze Yu Sishui grunted and bit Qingfeng Bufu, making the latter scream.

Ming Shao struggled to maintain his balance and thought, is there anyone who is worse off than me? What the hell did I do wrong?!

After Qingfeng Bufu and Ze Yushishui had a fight, they remembered something very important and said to Xuchu: " Shall the four of us go to the crater to lure out the BOSS ? " said " hmm " slowly .

Qing Feng Bu Fu hesitated and said, " No, the mobility of our two mages is a bit anxious, isn't it? "

The mobility of the BOSS is generally very high. Even agile professions like archers can only move around for a dozen seconds when they have skills. The two short-legged mages will probably be killed immediately when the BOSS comes out.

Xu Chu thought for a moment and said, " I don't know either, but for a mission like this that requires leading the BOSS to a designated location, the BOSS 's speed should be somewhat reduced, right? "

Qing Feng Bu Fu asked anxiously, " Is there a possibility that it won't be weakened? "

" Yes, " Xu Chu said, If there are many people taking .this is a world mission ,After all " ,turns the boss can be led to the designated location without slowing down the speed . That's why I said I didn't know. "

" Ah? " Qing Feng Bu Fu said in confusion: " What if it's the latter? "

Xu Chu said irresponsibly: " I don't know either. We'll tell you when the time comes. "

Qingfengbufu: "..."

Qing Feng Bu Fu looked at Ze Yu Si Shui and said seriously: " Although Xiao Ji is fierce and cruel, often loses his temper, and always lets the world bully us ... but I really miss him! "

Ze Yu Shishui's eyes showed a look that showed that someone finally understood me, and he and Qing Feng Bufu hugged each other and cried bitterly.

Xu Chu still looked very calm, as if the words "there is no way" he said before were not from him at all.

After walking out of the dwarf's underground passage, the dwarves quickly built a rope ladder to climb up the deep pit.

What amazed Xu Chu and his three companions was the way the dwarves built the rope ladder. They actually worked together to throw one of the dwarves up along with the tools, and that dwarf then reinforced the rope ladder on top. The other dwarves then climbed up one by one. To be honest, this method brought back bad memories for Xu Chu, causing his face to turn blue, his vision to go dark, and his waist to ache slightly.

Xuchu, who suddenly lost his ability to move due to his memories, was finally hung on the rope ladder and was directly pulled up by the enthusiastic dwarves. After returning to the ground, Xuchu smiled weakly and said, " Thank you. "

The dwarf king generously raised his hand and patted Xu Chu's waist, saying: " We are all friends! You're welcome! "

So the four of them, together with a group of dwarves, headed straight for the volcano.

The dwarven troops, along with the four men, walked until they reached a place close to the foot of the volcano before stopping.

The dwarf king looked at the volcano not far away , frowned and said to Xu Chu: " We can't go any further. If we go any further, the power of the volcano will affect the strength of the fire giant. We can only set up our ambush here. "

Hearing this, Xu Chu stopped, put his hand on his brow, looked at the volcano in the distance , and said nonchalantly: " Hmm, this distance? It should be okay. "

Upon hearing this, Ze Yu Sishui suddenly became alert and said excitedly: " Ah! It appears! This kind of plot! To be honest, I have always been very curious about how those who plan strategies can see the distance with the naked eye. Can you tell me the trick! "

Xu Chu put down his hand, slowly looked at Ze Yu Sishui, and raised his eyebrows.

Ze Yu Sishui immediately acted cute towards Xu Chu without any dignity: " I am young and don't know much. I said the wrong thing and did the wrong thing before. Don't take it too seriously. Tell me~ "

Xu Chu pulled the corner of his mouth and said, " Who is better, me or Ji Xuanyi? "

Ze Yu Sishui said without hesitation: " Of course it's you! There is no one in the world more reliable than you! Tell me now! "

Xu Chu smiled and said, " It's very simple to measure distance with the naked eye. "

Ze Yu Sishui showed an expectant expression.

Xu Chu said: " As long as you can keep your face calm and talk nonsense, it will be fine. "

Ze Yu Si Shui: "..."

Ming Shao quickly hugged Ze Yu Sishui who had taken out the dagger and comforted him: " Calm down! Calm down! "

Ze Yu Sishui was so angry that he kept yelling. Xu Chu smiled but said nothing. He turned back to look at the Dwarf King and said, " How do we lure out the Fire Giant? "

When the dwarf king heard this, he took out two bright red gems from his dirty leather bag and handed them to Xu Chu, saying, " These two gems are magical fire essences. We only have two of the materials we used to make the magic circle to ignite the volcano. Although they are small in size, the fire magic power contained in them is very terrifying. They are two pieces of fire essence of the best quality. "

" The Fire Giant likes this thing very much. You throw one into the crater to wake up the Fire Giant, and carry the other one with you. After the Fire Giant gets that piece, it will definitely not let it go. It will keep chasing you, " the Dwarf King said seriously, " When the time comes, you just run over here without looking back. We will pick you up. The Fire Giant is all on fire, and his feet are also burning. They often sink into the ground, so their speed will not be too fast. As long as you don't waste time, there should be no problem. "

Hearing this, Qingfeng Bufu, who had always been worried about his mobility, finally breathed a sigh of relief, but Xu Chu looked a little regretful for some reason.

Xu Chu sighed and said, " Running slowly is not exciting at all. "

Ming Shao, who had the highest agility in the team and was most likely to be tasked with attracting monsters, immediately said, " I think it's good to run slowly. Too much stimulation can easily cause a heart attack. "

Xu Chu glanced at him without saying anything, then turned to the Dwarf King and asked, " How do you use the Mystic Ice Staff? "

The Dwarf King said solemnly: " The use of the Mysterious Ice Staff is very complicated . When you are ready and think it is time to weaken the Flame Giant, tell me and I will help you activate the Mysterious Ice Staff. "

Xu Chu said " Oh " , nodded, and said: " I see, then we will leave first, you wait here, we will be back soon. "

The dwarf king nodded solemnly and said to Xu Chu: " I'm counting on you! "

Xu Chu responded and continued to move forward with Ze, Yu Sishui and the other two.

Qingfeng Bufu walked for a while and said anxiously: " Are we really going alone? It feels a bit unsafe. "

Young Master Ming also said, " Why don't we log off first and at least call up the team that raided with us earlier? Anyway, they are not being ambushed by the people from Day City. Although there are not many of them, it is safer than just the four of us. If something unexpected happens during the mission, the four of us will not be enough. "

Ze Yu Sishui also wanted to say something, but he was held under Ming Shao's arm and his mouth was covered, so he could only make humming sounds. However, from his expression, it was clear that he also felt that Xu Chu was unreliable.

Xu Chu looked at them and said, " How come you guys don't have any confidence in yourselves? The four of us are more than enough, okay? "

The other three looked completely unconvinced. Xu Chu said helplessly, " Forget about four people. Two people are enough. "

This is even more ridiculous. Ze Yu Sishui's expression was just about to point at Xu Chu's nose and say he was bragging.

Seeing that they didn't believe him, Xu Chu just spread his hands and stopped explaining. Although Ze, Yu, Sishui and the other two felt that following Xu Chu up the mountain might result in a terrible situation of blood sacrifice, but in the current situation, if they wanted to complete the mission, they had no other way except to trust Xu Chu.

Xu Chu led them to the middle of the mountain and stopped.

Qing Feng Bu Fu asked: " What's wrong? "

Xu Chu thought for a moment and said, " Although I doubt the intelligence of the players in Day City, if they wanted to kill us, they should have expected that we would go to the volcano to complete the mission, right? "

" They should come to this volcano to look for it, right? " Xu Chu asked Ze Yu Sishui and the other two with some uncertainty.

Ze, Yu, and Shishui had no idea about this. After hesitating for a long time, Ming Shao said, " They should be able to find us, right? If they really want to find us, this is the most iconic place on the map. Even if they use this as the starting point and search in circles, it is better than running around the map. "

Xu Chu seemed to have confirmed something and breathed a sigh of relief. He nodded and said, " That's fine. The people in Day City now have nothing else to do except to wait for Xiao Xiaoyuxia and the others underground. They will definitely come to find us. "

Qing Feng Bu Fu said: " If you hadn't mentioned it, I wouldn't have remembered it. If they were to come looking for us, shouldn't we move faster? If we are discovered, wouldn't we be attacked from both sides ? "

Xu Chu smiled and said, " Don't worry, let's rest here for a while. "

Ze, Yu and Sishui were all confused.

Not only Ze, Yu and Sishui were in a daze, but the assassin group sent out from Youri City to look for someone was also in a state of despair.

If they were looking for a large group, it would be fine, after all, the target is large, the team stretches for hundreds of meters, can be seen from a distance , and it is difficult to lose track. But this time the target is only four people in total, and judging by how cunning they are, there is no telling where they are hiding. It would be a hassle to find them.

The assassin team of Day City originally divided into small teams, but they found that they still did not have enough manpower, so they later decided to act individually and inform each other when there was any news.

Jiayi is the team leader of the Day City Assassin Group. He chose this name mainly to match his profession and pretend to be a high-end killer . Although he is often mistakenly called Jiayu, it has to be said that Jiayi's strength is barely worthy of his ID . At least as an ordinary player, his combat effectiveness is still acceptable.

Faced with the current task, although Jiayi did not like it very much, he did not complain like other people. You know, other people who did not receive the task had to stand there like idiots and wait for the people from Fanxing City to come online.

Waiting for people to come online ... I have to say, Zuo An is also quite thoughtful.

Compared to waiting for someone to come online, the needle-in-a-haystack search does not seem so difficult to accept.

Jiayi was originally wandering around like a headless fly, but then he suddenly had an idea and thought of going to the volcano to see the situation. Unexpectedly, when he just reached the halfway point of the mountain, he actually had the bad luck to meet those four people. He was immediately delighted and was about to notify others, but he found that the magician who was the leader of the four people suddenly took out something shiny from his arms and walked towards the archer on the side.

Jia Yi hesitated for a moment, hid himself, and walked over there stealthily.

The mage said to the archer with a serious face: " These two pieces of fire spirit are very important quest items. As long as you throw one of them into the crater, the boss will climb up and chase the other piece of fire spirit all the way down the mountain. "

Jia Yi was stunned for a moment, then realized that these people were discussing the mission, and immediately moved closer, trying to hear more clearly.

The archer frowned slightly. The mage walked up to him and put the two pieces of fire essence in his hand into his hand. He said solemnly: " We have emphasized many times that whoever takes away the BOSS will complete the mission. This thing must not be taken away by the people of Daylight City. We in Star City have worked so hard for this thing for so long, we must not fail at the last moment! "

Jia Yi was startled and immediately looked at the archer. The archer nodded solemnly, held the two fire spirits in his hands, and said, " Don't worry, I will definitely keep them safe. "

The wizard nodded with satisfaction.

At the same time, Jiayi, who was hiding not far away and listened to their entire conversation, also smiled.

Is this the result of Star City's efforts so far? Sorry, since you guys accidentally let me hear it, let's end it here!

Just as the archer was about to put the two pieces of fire essence into his backpack, A teleported out in an instant, snatched the fire essence from his hand, and ran towards the crater with all his strength.

Before leaving, Jiayi took the time to look back. The four people seemed to be unable to believe that such a thing would happen at the last moment. They all stood there in a daze, looking in the direction he left, unable to even react.

Jia Yi smiled slightly, turned invisible again, and started a secret chat with Zuo An.

Although Zuo An has a bad temper and is a little mentally retarded, he is very generous when giving out rewards.

bosses in this map all belong to their Sun City!

Xu Chu and his three companions were indeed shocked to the point of losing the ability to react, but it was not quite the same as what Jia Yi had imagined. They were not shocked and desperate because such things often happened at the last moment, but they were so happy that they wanted to cry because someone finally found them!

As soon as Jiayi left, the four of them hugged each other.

Xu Chu said with tears in his eyes: " I swear, next time I make a plan, I will take the enemy 's IQ into consideration . I thought this routine would fail because no one found us! "

Even Ming Shao couldn't help but be moved and said: " It's damn hard! "

If Jiayi could come earlier, or wait a little longer after listening to Xuchu's words, he would find that the little drama he just saw " the wizard entrusting the archer to keep the mission item " would be performed again from the beginning!

Young Master Ming sighed and said, " If you keep acting like this, I'm going to get embarrassed. "

Qing Feng Bu Fu clapped his hands and said, " No, no, your acting is much better than the first time. If the assassin had come earlier, he might have become suspicious because of your stiff acting, which would have been even more embarrassing! "

Ze Yu Sishui also clapped his hands and said, " Although the Sun City successfully took the things away, are you sure he will really go and lure the BOSS ? You emphasized that sentence so many times, it's too much of a distraction! "

Xu Chu shrugged and said, " What if he doesn't understand if I don't say this? "

Qing Feng Bu Fu said: " I think what Xu Chu said makes sense. After all, it took them such a long time to find the volcano. It's really hard. Now it's time for lunch. "

Xu Chu was stunned and said, " Is it time to have lunch now? "

Ming Shao immediately warned: " I have some barbecue here, eat a few bites to fill your stomach, and don't log off! "

Xu Chu: "..."

So, what kind of psychological trauma did being pigeonholed leave behind ?

As Xu Chu, Ze Yu Si Shui and the other two just walked to the foot of the mountain, they felt a tremor under their feet. Looking up, they saw black smoke rising from the crater again. The assassin from the Sun City must have successfully lured the BOSS out.

Because they were worried that the BOSS would make too much noise and lava would pour down from above, the four of them immediately quickened their pace and ran in the direction where the dwarves were waiting.

Unexpectedly, when they were halfway through the run, the four saw a column of fire spewing out of the crater, accompanied by a small amount of magma overflowing. A huge burning figure crawled out of the crater, raised his head and let out a hoarse roar that shook the earth, and slowly moved in one direction.

" Fuck ..." Ze Yu Si Shui murmured, " This is exactly my childhood dream. I really want a figurine of this BOSS ! "

Qing Feng Bu Fu said with a cold sweat: " This BOSS is so big. Even if I know it runs slowly, I don't want to attract it at all. "

Young Master Ming said calmly, " Don't worry. Even if there are no people from Day City, I will be the only one who can do something like attracting monsters. "

This statement is indeed correct. If the people from the Day City did not show up in the end, Xu Chu would have no choice but to ask Ming Shao, who has long and agile hands, to lure the monsters. However, that would make it more troublesome to fight the monsters in the later stages. After all, the strength of the Star City is greatly weakened now. Even if there is a BOSS to muddy the waters, it would still be difficult.

Now, I guess that stupid assassin will lead the BOSS directly to the Sun City's position, and then ... an unweakened BOSS , hehehe.

Xuchu smiled.

Qingfeng Bufu looked at Xuchu and said, " What should we do now? "

" Now? " Xu Chu shrugged : " We don't need to kill monsters anyway, so we can just go and chat and talk. "

Wait until the BOSS is almost wiped out in Sun City – no, wait until the BOSS is almost wiped out in Sun City, it will still be in time for them to appear.

In order to wait for Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others, Zuo An had not slept for a whole night. When he received Jiayi's private message, he suddenly became alert.

Originally, he just wanted to kill those four people to vent his anger and prevent them from completing the mission. He never expected that he could get the mission directly. Zuo An praised Jia Yi greatly and immediately sent people to support him. He also called all the people who were offline to rest to come online and prepare to fight the BOSS !

Even if those four people went offline and asked the people from Fanxing City to come back online, it would be too late. Organizing people offline is not like organizing people online. They can't just call people together. It takes at least two or three hours to organize a decent team offline. Even if some people come online bit by bit, they will be easily killed by their troops from Sun City, and will not have much impact on the battle situation.

Zuo An waited for a while and found that no one from Star City came online. He guessed that Xiao Xiao Yu Xia might want to wait until everyone was online. He snorted coldly and said, " You are indeed a little smart. You know that it is useless to go online separately. Haha, but you will have no chance by the time you find everyone . Everyone! Prepare for battle with all your strength and end the battle before Star City comes online! "

" oh! "

There were loud responses from the players in Day City all around, and Zuo An showed a determined smile.

When this world mission is over, he will not let go of those people in Star City, those guys who have fooled him for so long. As soon as the world mission is over, he will lead his troops to massacre Star City!

The fire giant took clumsy steps and stumbled after Jiayi. After the knight reinforcements from the Left Bank arrived, the distance between it and Jiayi widened. But even so, it had no intention of stopping and continued to chase after them stubbornly.

Jia Yi looked at the fire essence in his hand, then looked at the persistent BOSS behind him , and couldn't help laughing, saying: " I think those people in Star City are so angry that they are stupid. "

The knight carrying Jiayi was still a member of the Cavaliers team. He laughed when he heard this and said, " This time it's their turn to be dumbfounded. Hahahahaha. "

Another knight said to Knight A: " You are lucky to have encountered such a stupid thing. "

Jiayi raised his eyebrows: " When the evil spirit comes, there is no way to hide from it. "

The knight carrying Jiayi said, " That being said, will this boss be very fierce? I feel like it is burning me all around. "

s a'lt " fire boss , that's normal, " A said, " Anyway, it won't be our Assassins or Knights fighting the boss , so why should you mind it? "

The knight nodded, accelerated once more, and ran hard towards the Sun City army.

The place where the main force of Star City left the line was actually not too far from the volcano , but they were not in the same direction as Xu Chu and his four companions when they walked up the mountain. Otherwise, Jia Yi and his companions would have known what was going on when they saw the dwarves waiting on the road. But unfortunately, they did not pass by the place where the dwarves were ambushing, so they took the BOSS and rushed straight into the Sun City camp.

After seeing the BOSS from afar , Zuo An immediately walked outside and met Jia Yi and the others. He took the bright red gem from Jia Yi and couldn't help laughing: " Hahaha, you have come to this day too. What's the point of trying so hard to get Xuan Bing? In the end, the BOSS is still mine! "

Jiayi immediately said: " Boss, let's go inside, the boss is coming soon. "

Zuo An nodded, smiled at Jia and said, " I'll give you a reward when we get back. Let's go to the back and take down this BOSS first. "

A smiled and said, " Thank you, Boss! "

Zuo An returned to the rear of the team, and looked on with smugness as his own group of swordsmen faced the BOSS 's attack head-on — and then a white light appeared!

The BOSS swung his palm, and a large area of the swordsman group's formation was vacated! Countless swordsman players were instantly killed by the BOSS 's attack and flew directly back to Day City.

Zuo An's smile froze on his face. He came to his senses and roared in shock and anger: "What's going on?! Nanny! Pastor! What are you doing! Nanny!!! "

A female priest nearby said anxiously: " How can we heal them? They were killed instantly. The damage of this BOSS is too high! There is no time to use skills! "

The swordsmen in the front immediately realized that the damage of this BOSS was too high for them to bear, so they scattered to avoid the damage. The ranged team hiding behind them also realized that it was not the time to stand still and output after a lot of deaths, so they crawled away from their original positions. The extremely agile archers were fine, but many unlucky short-legged mages were squeezed together and couldn't move, so they returned to the resurrection point after a slap from the BOSS .

Zuo An was stunned for a long time, and then he heard someone shouting: " It's heading towards the priest group behind, priests, please get out of the way! "

The screams of priests immediately rang out around the left bank, and everyone fled in all directions. Although it was just a game, being killed by this kind of fire-type BOSS was still too hard to accept!

It was not until then that Zuo An realized that he was still holding the fire spirit that could attract the BOSS . He hurriedly took the fire spirit out of his bag and threw it at the BOSS with a pale face.

The BOSS really stopped. It reached out to pick up the small gem that Zuo'an threw on the ground, tilted its head back, and put it into its mouth. Then it burped, and the flames on its body surged again. It roared, and began to attack the surrounding players indiscriminately.

Zuo An came back to his senses at this time, and shouted with gnashing teeth in anger: !Jia Yi " Is this the fucking !Where did that idiot run off to !Fuck !Jia Yi BOSS of the mission ! "

No matter how stupid Jiayi was, he knew that he would be blamed at this time, so he dared not show up. The gangs had all retreated quickly, and Zuoan could not find anyone at all. In addition, he had not slept all night and his emotions fluctuated so much that Zuoan almost felt that his brain was going to explode.

Just when his eyes were red and his mind was confused, and he had no idea what to do, a thin female voice beside him said, " Hey, this BOSS seems to have been weakened beforehand, why bring it here to fight now? How can we possibly defeat it? "

Zuo An immediately turned around to look, and saw a thin female assassin who seemed like she could be blown away by the wind appeared beside his horse at some point, frowning as she looked at the tragic situation not far away that seemed like the end of the world.

Zuo An frowned and shouted, " Yugui?! What the hell is wrong with you! When did Fanxing City send out an ambush team? Why are you so good at being an eye? "

The female assassin who had once met Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, Yu Gui, rolled her eyes speechlessly and said, " Boss, what's the situation now? You are still bringing up this old matter with me. Can we be more sober? "

Zuo An's face flushed red, and after a long while he said, " Okay, let's talk about this later. What do you think we should do now? "

Yu Guidao: " It depends on what you think. If you want to preserve your strength, then think about other things later. Just learn from Star City. Now everyone should log off and wait until the boss leaves before logging on again. "

Zuo An immediately frowned and said, " No! If that happens, the people from Star City will definitely come up while we are online. They have done the preliminary work and know how to weaken the BOSS . They will complete the mission! "

Yugui couldn't help but roll his eyes again. You also know that the prerequisites are in someone else's hands, so why don't you remember that the tasks may also be in their hands!

However, Yugui did not remind him of this, but said: " Then there is no other way. Either we delay the BOSS and wait for Fanxing City to come online, and then kill them all first, or we can just force the BOSS directly . "

After saying that, Yugui smiled and said, " I prefer the latter. Why don't you try it? "

Chapter 96

Yu Guichao Zuo'an smiled and said, " You can't hold off this BOSS . If you wait until the people from Star City come online , it is very likely that you will not send them away, but they will send you away. Since you are unwilling to go offline and avoid the limelight , you can only force the BOSS . "

After thinking for a while, Yugui added: " But you have to consider your own strength. Forcing the boss may not necessarily produce any results. "

Zuo An glanced at Yu Gui, frowned , and said, " Call Brother Yang. "

The full name of the Brother Yang mentioned by Zuo An is " I hang out with Brother Yang " , but no one knows who the Brother Yang in his ID is . Instead , he himself is called " Brother Yang " because his name is too long and it is difficult to come up with a nickname . Although he has explained it many times, everyone has an attitude of " Okay, we get it , you are not Brother Yang , by the way, Brother Yang, where did you go to level up today? " Brother Yang was very desperate , but there was nothing he could do , so he just let others call him that.

why Zuo An would call Brother Yang over at this time is because Brother Yang is one of the best swordsmen in Youri City – not in terms of strength , his strength is just a little bit stronger than that of ordinary sharp players . The so-called best means that he is a leveling maniac.

This person's daily routine is all about leveling up.

Although he is not as awesome as the legendary first person to level up, Yun Zhongjian, he still has great hope of being the second person with his current level. It is very likely that he is lower than Yun Zhongjian, not to mention the bonus of the two plot warm-up BOSSes in Youri City . Brother Yang is now level 60. It can be said that he is the swordsman with the thickest blood and the highest attributes in the entire second server.

And at this time, Zuo An finally received the first good news in two days.

Brother Yang is a swordsman, but he is still alive because he was timid and did not rush to the front.

Zuo An was in mixed feelings for a moment , not knowing whether to praise the other person or scold him.

Yugui could tell what this person was thinking at a glance, and said speechlessly: " Boss, let's solve the problem first, and then you can worry about it slowly, okay? "

Zuo An glanced at her, snorted coldly, and said, " No need for you to remind me, is Brother Yang here? "

Yu Guidao: " Here I am, on the way. "

Brother Yang's equipment is a typical PVE warrior's. It doesn't increase agility at all. Even with all his strength, it's hard for him to chase a monster when upgrading, let alone wading through thousands of troops to find Zuo'an.

Almost five minutes later, Brother Yang appeared in front of Zuo An.

In five minutes, the boss had already killed a bunch of people. Zuo An didn't have time to talk nonsense with Brother Yang. He took out a set of equipment from his bag and threw it to Brother Yang, saying, " Put it on and go tank the monster. "

Brother Yang was stunned. When he saw the orange words on the equipment, his eyes widened. After a long while, he said timidly, Can " you handle it? "

If he died, he would drop a level. The experience gained from level 59 to level 60 is almost eight digits. The blow of losing it and having to start over again would be very terrible for a leveling maniac.

Zuo An cursed: " Whether you can stay or not , you have to go. If you dare to hide, I will kill you until you surrender! "

Brother Yang is already the swordsman with the highest attributes, he must go to tank the monster, if he dies, it means that forcing the BOSS will not work. No matter how reluctant he is, Zuo An must take the large army offline, and the feud with Star City can only be resolved later. But if Brother Yang is not dead, then they can forcibly take the BOSS , and before Star City goes online, perhaps they may be able to go all out, win this mission, and turn the game around.

The threat of killing the enemy until they are forced to withdraw from the server has already been spoken out, and Brother Yang has no doubt that Zuo An will carry it out. No matter how reluctant he is, he can only put on the shiny equipment and run back panting.

Yugui sighed twice and said , " This is the first time I've seen someone wear orange clothes so reluctantly. "

Zuo An snorted coldly and said, " I asked him to do this because I respect him. Others who want to do it don't have a chance yet. "

Yugui smiled and said nothing .

Brother Yang had no way to deal with Zuo'an's orders. He had no choice but to show his real strength when facing the fire giant. In addition, Zuo'an asked all the priests to keep an eye on Brother Yang. With the cooperation of the two, Brother Yang actually held on!

Zuo An finally smiled and said, " Everyone, go all out and defeat the BOSS ! "

The Sun City troops that had been fleeing in all directions finally gathered together again and began to attack the BOSS one after another.

Yugui looked at the slowly decreasing health bar of the BOSS with no expression on his face.

Just when Zuo An thought he could finally finish defeating this BOSS in peace , an assassin from Star City quietly came online behind the large army from Sun City.

He took a look at the fierce battle in front of him and logged off silently. When he came back online, he appeared with a large army of several hundred people from Star City.

It was not until the Knights and Assassins in the rear were attacked that Zuo An realized that the group of people from Star City had quietly climbed up and were shamelessly attacking them from behind.

Zuo An was furious and said, " Prepare to annihilate all the Star City troops in the rear! "

Yugui looked at Zuo An with some helplessness and said, " Besides fighting the BOSS , the strength we can spare to fight Fanxing City may not be enough to completely destroy them. " the BOSS was wreaking havoc previously were extremely severe. In addition, many people lost their energy while waiting for Starry City to come online, so their combat effectiveness is no longer as good as before.

Zuo An said with an unpleasant expression: " We have to fight! "

Yugui smiled and said, " Of course I have to fight. Come on, I'll continue to be your eyes. Call me if you need anything. "

Zuo An said with a gloomy face: " Stop, we don't need you to be our eyes now. Besides, you are an eye that lets people slip away from under our noses every now and then. It's useless to be there. "

Yugui spread his hands and said, " I think I have tried my best, but you are the boss, you have the final say. "

Zuo An said: " You stay here to protect me, so that they won't attack me again. "

He recalled the time when Mi Yin stabbed him eighteen times, and his face turned green.

Yugui said speechlessly: " You think too highly of me ... Yes, I am now a seemingly powerful assassin, but I used to be a healer, and a rookie at that. If Star City sends someone to kill you, it will most likely be a big shot like Miyin. How can I protect you with my head? "

Zuo An snorted and said , " Then you can use your head to protect me . When he kills me, you can just stand in front of him, right? "

Yugui looked at his frail body and said, " Although I think a big guy like Miyin might just stab us both with one knife – but you're the boss, okay, I'll stand in front of you and cheer for myself. "

Zuo An's prediction was indeed correct. The Sun City was not like the Star City. The number of people in the command group was so large that they could not be counted on one hand. If one died, another could take his place. Some people might even be generous enough to use two gang leaders as dispensable bait.

There is only one gang leader and one commander in the Dayo City, and that is Zuo An.

Although Zuo An is really annoying, once Zuo An dies, the Dayo City will basically be in chaos. Now that the resurrection skill has not yet appeared, killing Zuo An will undoubtedly be a heavy blow to the Dayo City.

When there is an assassin expert like Mi Yin who is suitable for assassination , there is no reason for Fanxing City not to target Zuo'an.

Not long after Fanxing City went online and launched an attack on Day City, Zuo An felt a sharp pain in his lower back and shouted, " Return! "

The assassin's form will be revealed when he activates his skill. Without Zuo'an's reminder, Yugui had already seen Mi Yin and instantly appeared behind Mi Yin.

Mi Yin has been a veteran for many years, and this level of sneak attack is like playing house for him. While dodging Yu Gui's attack by leaning sideways, he did not stop stabbing Zuo An – this was the third time he stabbed him!

Zuo An immediately realized the gap in strength between her and Gui and Mi Yin. She really had no way to save herself from Mi Yin's attack, and she couldn't even delay time!

Zuo An gritted his teeth and immediately shouted: " Pastor, grandma— "

" No! " Yugui was struggling with Miyin with all his strength, while interrupting, " The priest doesn't have time to heal you! Brother Yang and the people behind him can't hold on any longer! "

In fact, the priests were indeed trying their best to support others and were completely unable to spare any help. Otherwise, Zuo An would not have said that he would let Yugui protect him. Although Zuo An was more important than anyone else except Brother Yang, his order was interrupted by Yu Gui. After a moment of hesitation , Zuo An was already chopped to pieces by the sudden outburst of Mi Yin. It was too late for the priest to heal him. Zuo An said with a distorted face, " Then let's die together! Brother Yang is going to die too. If he dies, you guys in Fanxing City won't be able to hold on to monsters! It's all over for everyone! "

When Mi Yin heard this, she chuckled and stopped, saying, " You are just wishful thinking. "

Zuo An was stunned and looked up, only to see two figures appear behind the BOSS , an assassin and an archer. The two men were carrying a dwarf holding a huge staff and were running towards this side at full speed.

" He should be almost at the city gate now, right? " Mi Yin muttered something that Zuo An couldn't understand, then stabbed Zuo An, whose face suddenly turned pale, with a knife and said with a smile: " Bancheng Gang Leader, if you want to die, die alone. Goodbye. "

Before Zuo An could react, he saw a flash of white in front of his eyes. When he regained his sight, the building in front of him had become a style that he was extremely familiar with. He was sent back to Daylight City. This time, Daylight City, without its commander, was doomed to fail!

Zuo An glared at the person who was handing him a health-restoring item. He was so angry that he was shaking all over. He slapped the tea bowl in his hand to the ground. Zuo An lowered his head and began to contact the half-city management who had already returned to Day City.

 " Where is Xue Piao Renjian?! Find him! "

He finally remembered the person who could be used to take revenge on Star City. However, it was a long while later that he received a reply from the management.

 " Xue Piao Renjian seemed to have returned from the dead and left. I heard that someone saw him leaving the city. "

 " At his speed, if he didn't rest, he would have reached the gate of Star City by now ..."

At this time, Zuo An's face turned pale, and he finally understood the meaning of Mi Yin's words.

After killing Zuo An, Mi Yin immediately turned his attention to the female assassin who had been harassing him and trying to protect Zuo An. However, it was not until he handed over the dagger that Mi Yin realized that the female assassin named Yugui had no intention of continuing to fight with him. The latter was standing there without resistance, looking at him with a little curiosity.

Mi Yin was stunned for a moment, and before she could speak, she asked Gui: "Are you and Xue Piao Renjian good friends?"

Miyin: "..."

Mi Yin's expression instantly went numb. You know, ever since Xue Piaozhen appeared, few people mentioned this matter to him, probably because they were moved by their sincere friendship! Now that the assassin from Dayo City brought up the topic again, he had forgotten how to explain it!

Yugui saw Miyin's expression, stuck out his tongue and said, "If you don't like me, then you won't ask. Um, Mu Xuanyi..."

Yugui hesitated for a moment, shook his head, and said, "Forget it, let's not talk about this. Just kill me, or Zuo'an will get angry again."

Before Mi Yin could figure out what the assassin meant, Yugui suddenly attacked him. Mi Yin subconsciously fought back, but before he could react, Yugui turned into a beam of white light and flew away without any resistance.

Miyin: "..... ??? "

Mi Yin was confused. Who was that female assassin? What did she do? Was she on the side of Star City? Why did she know Mu Xuanyi? Could it be Xuan Xiaoyi's fan club? Why did the fan club know Xuan Xiaoyi was in Star City? Hmmmmmm???

Mi Yin was still confused, but the situation on the field had gradually changed.

Once Zuo'an died, everything was easy. Although Youri City was still struggling to maintain the battle according to the last order left by Zuo'an, the difference with or without command was soon revealed. Youri City could not detect the breakthrough point and formation changes of Fanxing City in time, let alone respond to it. It was almost powerless to resist. Under the command of Xiaoxiao Yuxia, it was dispersed by Fanxing City with a devastating force.

Countless players returned to the resurrection point and bid farewell to this battlefield and this mission completely.

Just when the players of Day City were about to give up resistance, the map channel started refreshing.

[Xiao Xiao Yu Xia] : Dear friends from Day City! I am Xiao Xiao Yu Xia, the commander of Star City. Although it is a bit strange to say this now, I believe that you will devote yourself to this world mission so hard, and it must not be just for those dispensable rewards!

[Xiaoxiao Yuxia] : I am standing here now, instead of choosing to take the guaranteed mission and leave in shame after knowing that the enemy is the Daylight City, which is stronger than us. It is also because of my friend's request, for the same thing!

[瀟瀟雨下] : Fights between players are understandable, but they are innocent! Players can be resurrected after death, but they will never appear again after leaving! We are at the starting point of this game, and those who have accompanied us through the ignorant period cannot disappear in such a muddled way!

[瀟曉雨下] : Today is the last day to achieve the HE worldline, and it is also our last hope. The battle between the two main cities consumed countless strength. This time, I hope that Star

City and Sun City will unite. Even if you think I am hypocritical or shameless, at least our goals are the same now!

[瀟曉雨下] : From today onwards, we will take revenge on those who have grudges and complain about those who have complaints. Starry City will always be ready to fight with you. But today, everyone, for the sake of a happy worldline, let's make one last effort together!

After Xiaoxiao Yuxia finished speaking, all the players in the Sun City received team-up requests from the players in the Star City. Brother Yang, who was a little overwhelmed by the reduction in the number of priests and was afraid that he would be demoted, immediately clicked to agree. After that, a priest from the Star City immediately started to treat him and stabilized the situation again.

Not only Brother Yang, most of the players in Sun City also quickly or slowly, decisively or hesitantly accepted the invitation to form a team from the players in Star City.

Xiao Xiaoyu's request was indeed a bit shameless, but he was right in one thing. Most of the players hoped to live well rather than get rewards. Before, they could not go against Zuo An's wishes, but now Zuo An had already died thousands of miles away, so they didn't care about these things. They didn't mind teaming up with Fanxing City and saving them together.

In addition, Star City is not so shameless as to call you brothers after the fight. They have made it clear that after today, everyone is still an enemy. You can take revenge if you have a grudge, and you can settle a grudge if you have a grudge. If you want to fight, we are here to accompany you at any time. Many players who prefer PVP can't help but feel that Star City is okay, and they are not so resistant to cooperation.

Suddenly, the scene became extremely peaceful. Players from the two main cities regrouped into a large team for the same goal and began to fight the BOSS in an orderly manner .

In order to catch up with time, Ming Shao and Ze Yu Sishui left the two short-legged mages behind and ran all the way carrying the dwarf king, and finally arrived.

The dwarf king who was being carried was originally confused. After being put on the ground by Ming Shao and Ze Yu Sishui, he saw the huge fire giant in front of him. Immediately, his eyebrows raised, and he was about to swing his staff to fight the fire giant to the death.

Ze Yu Sishui collapsed to the ground as soon as he put the Dwarf King down, and Ming Shao also held his waist and took a breath. Although the Dwarf King was not tall, he had a lot of muscles on his body. Coupled with the weight of the staff, it was an unbearable burden for assassins and archers who were weak and second only to magic professions. So Xu Chu and Qingfeng Bufu were really useless, so Ming Shao and the other two risked their lives to move the Dwarf King over.

Seeing the dwarf king who had finally moved over was about to use his staff to launch a physical attack on the fire giant, Ming Shao quickly grabbed him and said, " Now is the time, dwarf king, please weaken the fire giant! "

Upon hearing this, no matter how reluctant he was, he had to stop and raised his staff towards the BOSS .

A bright blue light shot out from the top of the staff and enveloped the BOSS . The fire giant howled, and the flames on his body weakened visibly, and his entire body shrank by two circles. Brother Yang, who was tanking the monster head-on, breathed a sigh of relief. Now the BOSS

's damage finally returned to normal. He no longer had to worry about the priests' group making a mistake and him being killed by the BOSS and sent back to the resurrection point.

Other players also saw a BUFF icon appear under the BOSS 's health bar , which read [Xuanbing] : weak state, with a significant decrease in attack power and defense.

The duration is fifteen minutes.

The dwarf king shouted loudly: " Now! Dwarf army! Attack quickly! "

Young Master Ming: "..."

Ze Yu Si Shui: "..."

Although the Dwarf King was shouting very excitedly, his dwarf short-legged army was running wildly on the road with the two mages Xu Chu and Qingfeng Bufu, and they had not arrived yet! The lonely figure of the Dwarf King looks inexplicably desolate!

However, he was unaware of this and after shouting loudly, he started screaming and trying to rush forward. Ming Shao and Ze Yu Sishui quickly held him back, preventing him from fighting the monster.

After the first stage of weakness of the BOSS passed, the dwarf army finally arrived at the battlefield with the two mages and joined the battle howling.

All those who should die have died, and all those who should arrive have arrived. This race between players and time has finally gotten on track.

the combined forces of Star City and Sun City were struggling to fight the BOSS , Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xixinjiu, who had been running day and night for nearly three days, were finally about to arrive at Xinmu Town.

Jian Xixinjiu drove the horse and said weakly: " Boss, I beg you, if this happens again, don't look for me. I'm almost 30 years old. If this happens again, I will definitely die suddenly. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Don't worry, I will attend your funeral and take good care of your family. "

" Puh, puh, puh! " Jian Xixinjiu spat a few times and said with resentment, " Forget about the sudden death. Do you know how long I have been lying in the game cabin? It has been three days and I haven't even changed my underwear. I can even smell a sour smell in the game now. Can you understand my collapse? " further away from Jian Xixinjiu , and said, " I don't understand. Didn't you log off once before? Didn't you not take a shower? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said: " No, I fell asleep in the game cabin in a second after logging off. When I woke up, it automatically connected. Before I could react, it was logged in. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

No wonder Jianxi's new wine was launched on time and didn't sneak away while it was offline. So this is what happened!

Jian Xi Xin Jiu sniffed himself again and said with a gloomy face: " Is it none of my business if I send you to the destination? I can log off now, right? I really can't stand it. "

Ji Xuanyi said vaguely: " It's just a little while, don't worry. I'll help you with whatever you want to do after we go back. How about a six-day meal? "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

But what did Liu Tian do wrong?

He couldn't help but feel a sense of grief for the loss of his friend. Looking at Liu Tian, he seemed to see his future self. Perhaps in the near future, Ji Xuanyi would say the same thing to Xiao Xiao Yuxia: " How about a sword-beating meal with new wine? "

How can I not make him sad!

Jian Xi Xin Jiu sighed sadly and said, " Let's beat up Xu Chu as well. I've disliked him for a long time. "

Ji Xuanyi: " Deal! "

The two men and their horse were getting closer and closer to the town in the distance . The setting of different timelines on the same map had been activated. The two had vaguely felt something was wrong since they left the secondary city, and now, the originally peaceful and quiet town in front of them had been shrouded in an ominous black color. This was the appearance of the five elemental novice towns in the timeline they were currently in.

Although Jianxi Xinjiu was not from Xinmu Town, his face changed when he saw the scenery in front of him, not to mention that he was always worried about Ji Xuanyi who was entrusted by August. His face was so gloomy that water could drip out.

At this time, Jian Xi Xinjiu couldn't say anything else and went offline to take a shower and change clothes. He rode his horse directly through the unguarded gate of Xinmu Town, and followed Ji Xuanyi's instructions and ran straight to Madam Harman's medicine garden.

If it weren't for those buildings whose original appearance could be vaguely discerned, Ji Xuanyi really wouldn't have recognized that this was the original Xinmu town. Everywhere was dead silent, with no living creatures to be seen. The surrounding flowers, plants and trees were either withered or exuding an indescribable evil.

However, the plants did not suddenly move and attack them as Ji Xuanyi had imagined. Apart from the fact that the road was empty, the two men reached Mrs. Harman's medicine garden very smoothly.

The herbs in Madam Harman's medicine garden were not in the same condition as the plants outside, except that they were a little wilted. However, Madam Harman did not stay in the medicine garden as before, and there was no one in her cottage.

Jian Xixinjiu swallowed his saliva and said cautiously: " Well, the one you are looking for won't ..."

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said decisively: " No, if the target is already dead, my mission will fail directly. "

Rather than remaining on his parchment as it was now.

However, some tasks will only show failure after you reply to the task sender. But in Ji Xuanyi's current state, Jian Xi Xin Jiu didn't dare to say such a thing, so he could only ask: " Where do you think she will be? "

Ji Xuanyi pondered for a moment, thought of something, and said, " Under the current situation, Mrs. Harman herself will not be affected too much. She should be protecting the residents of the town ... Let's go to the small square and take a look. "

Jian Xi Xinjiu got on the horse without saying a word, pulled Ji Xuanyi onto the horse's back, shook the reins, and galloped towards the small square.

Just as Ji Xuanyi guessed, Mrs. Harman did gather the residents in the small square, and together with the original guards in the town, she used magic circles and potions to create a protective circle to keep the black fog out.

When Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xixinjiu arrived at the small square, Mrs. Harman was feeding a little girl medicine. Ji Xuanyi remembered her. When he was in the Novice Town, this little girl selling flowers would often issue some flower picking tasks and order him to run around.

At that time, Ji Xuanyi always found her annoying, but now, he wished that she could return to her original annoying state. At any rate, it was better than her current state of black face and unconsciousness.

Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xixinjiu walked outside the protective circle built by Madam Harman and stopped.

The first person to discover them was the captain of the Xinmu Town guards. He had accompanied Ji Xuanyi to the thieves' camp to rescue Madam Harman, and he still remembered Ji Xuanyi. He hurriedly dragged Ji Xuanyi into the protective circle and said, " Be careful, don't step on it. This is the protective circle that Madam Harman made for us. As long as we are inside it, the black fog can't get in. "

After Ji Xuanyi walked in, he felt that the scene in front of him was clear as expected. The black fog that had been lingering in front of him disappeared – at least in the protective circle created by Mrs. Harman, the air was normal.

Jian Xi Xinjiu looked at the circle, which was not very large, hesitated for a moment, left the horse outside, and walked in.

Ji Xuanyi saw two people who looked exactly the same sitting side by side in the middle of the protection circle. He still remembered them: one was the mayor and the other was a blacksmith, a pair of twin brothers.

One of them glanced at Ji Xuanyi and said, " Oh, a warlock ... "

This time there was no disdain in his tone. He said seriously: " There are good people among warlocks, like Madam Harman. "

This was the mayor who hated warlocks in the past. His younger brother, Mr. Blacksmith, laughed beside him.

Ji Xuanyi closed his eyes, but still couldn't help but let out a sigh.

Jian Xixinjiu looked at Ji Xuanyi.

Mrs. Harman finished feeding the little girl the medicine, looked up and saw Ji Xuanyi, was stunned for a moment, then smiled bitterly and said: " Ji Xuanyi, why are you here? It's too dangerous here, I can't hold on for much longer, you should leave quickly. "

Ji Xuan looked at her, then at the familiar faces in the protection circle, and finally lowered his eyes and said, " I'm sorry, I'm here to take you away at August's request. "

When these words were spoken, everyone present was stunned.

Now they can survive safely because Madam Harman is maintaining this circle of protection. If Madam Harman leaves, they will all die.

Everyone subconsciously looked at Mrs. Harman, and then at Ji Xuanyi.

Mrs. Harman smiled without surprise and said, " I probably guessed that my father would make such a decision, but I think you should also know my answer. I will not give up on everyone. I have lived here for so long, and they are all my relatives. Although I feel sorry for my father, just like my father was unable to come here in person because he was carrying the comfort of the people of Star City, they are also the responsibility I decided to shoulder. Even if I will eventually die here, I will not give up on anyone. "

Ji Xuanyi certainly understood Mrs. Harman's wishes. Even if he himself faced the same situation, he would probably make the same choice as Mrs. Harman. Although he was not as good as Mrs. Harman, he had walked out of this town and was also familiar with these things. He had done many missions with them. How could he be willing to see them die?

But the problem now is, if something goes wrong on the world mission, even if Madam Harman doesn't leave, everyone here will still die. But if Madam Harman can be taken away, at least Madam Harman can survive, and August won't be heartbroken. Even if the two of them will have conflicts later and it becomes a happy ending that can't be called a happy ending , it is always better than a complete BE .

It seems that this time he is really going to regain his previous bad reputation and has to be a bad guy. Even if it goes against Mrs. Harman's wishes, he must take Mrs. Harman away.

Ji Xuanyi frowned, his eyes darkened, and was about to speak when the chief guard beside him suddenly said, " Madam Harman, please leave with Ji Xuanyi. "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned and looked at the captain of the guards.

The captain of the guard still had that serious expression, exactly the same as when Ji Xuanyi first met him.

He said to Madam Harman, " I know you get up secretly every night to reinforce the magic circle, and there aren't many potions left in your backpack. "

The guard leader looked around and said, " There's more and more black fog outside. Even inside the defense circle, some of it has slowly seeped in. Otherwise, Yina wouldn't have suddenly fallen ill this morning ... Even if you stay, you won't be able to hold on for much longer, right? "

Mrs. Harman's face turned pale. Looking at the gradually gloomy faces of the residents around her, she opened her mouth, not knowing how to comfort everyone.

Because what the captain of the guard said was true, she couldn't hold on for much longer.

The chief guard said, " We are all ordinary people and have no way to leave here, but you are a warlock, so you can definitely follow Ji Xuanyi to a place without black fog. Let's go, Madam Harman. Even if you are the only one left alive in Xinmu Town, everyone will be satisfied. "

Mrs. Harman was speechless and just kept shaking her head.

The mayor, who was sitting with his twin brother, was silent for a while, then he raised his head and said with determination: " Leave here, Mrs. Harman. "

" I already know that there are good people like you among the warlocks. Even if you die now, you will not leave this world in a confused and ignorant way. But if you can live, you must live, " the mayor, who never smiles, smiled and said, " If you die here with us, no one will remember Xinmu Town anymore. As the mayor, I will not allow this to happen. "

After the mayor spoke, others also spoke up, urging Mrs. Harman to leave here quickly and escape to a safe place.

Mrs. Harman couldn't help but moisten her eyes.

A loud sound of blowing nose was heard nearby, which made Ji Xuan, who was originally immersed in the plot, feel a chill.

Although this holographic game would not actually cause players to have snot, Jian Xi Xin Jiu still wiped his nose with a handkerchief, his eyes red.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

The feelings that were just brewing are gone, and I really want to hit this guy!

Chapter 97

Jian Xi Xin Jiu noticed that Ji Xuanyi was looking at him , so he took out another handkerchief from his backpack and handed it to Ji Xuanyi: " Do you want one too? "

Ji Xuanyi looked at him with terrifying eyes.

Sword washing new wine: "..."

Jian Xixinjiu swallowed his saliva , stuffed the handkerchief back into his bag , looked at his nose and his heart, pretending that he didn't exist.

Ji Xuanyi then withdrew his gaze and looked at Mrs. Harman again.

The people in Xinmu Town asked Madam Harman to leave. Even though some of them had red eyes and tears streaming down their faces due to the fear of impending death , they still did not change their words and hoped that Madam Harman could follow Ji Xuanyi to a safe place as soon as possible.

Mrs. Harman's eyes also turned red . She slowly looked at Ji Xuanyi and said softly, " I'm sorry . Please say sorry to my father on my behalf . I can't abandon such a big family ..."

Ji Xuanyi frowned slightly. He had personally interacted with these people , so how could he not be moved by the emotions displayed by everyone ? If the two were reversed , he would of course choose to stay , but as he had said before, it was better for one person to survive than for all to die together.

Ji Xuanyi pursed his lips, took a step forward , grabbed Mrs. Harman's wrist , and wanted to pull her away.

Generally speaking , men are definitely stronger than women, so it should be relatively easy to take Mrs. Harman away by force, but the problem is that this is a game that only looks at data.

Ji Xuanyi stretched out his hand and pulled, but failed. Instead, Mrs. Harman understood what he meant and swung her hand, almost knocking Ji Xuanyi to the ground!

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Although they are all warlocks, their level is obviously higher than Ji Xuanyi's, and they have many more attributes.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu quickly reached out and grabbed the frail Ji Xuan Yi, and then grabbed Madam Harman with his other hand, saying, " I'm sorry, but what everyone said is right, you have to go with us, and whoever survives is the best! "

Although Madam Harman is a warlock, she is definitely no match for the strength of a knight of the power profession.

Mrs. Harman almost struggled to break free from Jianxi Xinjiu's hand, but as a gay, Jianxi Xinjiu had no sympathy for women at all and grabbed her tightly and pulled her out.

Just when Mrs. Harman was about to take out the medicine regardless of the consequences, she felt a gentle pushing force from behind her.

The residents of Xinmu Town stretched out their hands and pushed her towards Jianxi Xinjiu, saying, "Let's go, Madam Harman, let's go..."

Mrs. Harman blinked and burst into tears.

Seeing Jian Xi Xin Jiu made me want to blow my nose again, but fortunately I didn't have any extra hands and didn't ruin the atmosphere.

The tea stall owner remembered something, reached out and took out a bottle of medicine with little left from the cloth bag on Mrs. Harman's waist, and said, "This can prevent the invasion of black fog."

Ji Xuanyi remembered him, and he would often post daily messages about asking Mrs. Harman for advice on pharmacology.

This setting allows him to identify Mrs. Harman's potion now.

He didn't have much potion left in his hand. If he dripped it on the surrounding magic circle, it should be able to keep them going for another day. However, with red eyes and trembling, he opened the bottle of potion and sprinkled it all on Madam Harman. He said to Ji Xuanyi solemnly: "Please take Madam Harman away from here safely."

Ji Xuanyi closed his eyes and nodded to him.

Mrs. Harman, of course, refused to leave. The sobbing and crying behind her made her heart ache, but the residents' hands pushing her away were so steady and heavy that she was almost unable to resist.

Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xi Xinjiu could not bear to watch their deaths. Thinking that something like this might happen to their own Novice Town, Jian Xi Xinjiu could no longer bear it and shouted, "What on earth are those bastards in Dayo City thinking? Are Xiao Xiao Yu Xia and Xu Chu so useless? They can't even complete a world quest! Finish the quest quickly! Finish the quest quickly!!!"

"Ding Dong——"

World Announcement: Congratulations to the players of Sun City, Star City, and Moon City for working together to successfully unite the five major races and complete the world-class main storyline event mission – Assembly Order. The evil god was furious and withdrew the power that was corroding the five elemental towns. Everyone survived. Players from each main city are requested to go to the postman to claim the rewards for the corresponding race.

World announcement: The Sun City Gang [Half City] has made a huge contribution in uniting the Centaurs and the Winged People. Two rewards have been issued. Please go to the General Manager of the stronghold to claim them. The Star City Gang [Earthly World] has made a huge contribution in uniting the Elves. One reward has been issued. Please go to the General Manager of the stronghold to claim them. The Star City Gang [Trampling the Jianghu] has made a huge contribution in uniting the Dwarves. One reward has been issued. Please go to the General Manager of the stronghold to claim them. The Phantom Moon City Gang [God's Children Are Dancing] has made a huge contribution in uniting the Mermaids. One reward has been issued. Please go to the General Manager of the stronghold to claim them.

Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xixinjiu looked at each other in a daze.

After a long while, Jian Xixinjiu swallowed his saliva and said, " Is it voice-controlled? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Is this guy probably mentally ill?

However, regardless of whether the world announcement was voice-controlled or not, it did appear. The moment it was released, the world channel was immediately filled with cheers from players. The speed at which it was refreshed was so fast that Ji Xuanyi could not even see the words on it.

The most intuitive feeling was the black fog that was gradually dissipating around them. They also noticed this and showed expressions of disbelief. It took them a long time to believe that the black fog that threatened their lives was really beginning to fade away!

Before the tears had dried, everyone started laughing in a different tone. Everyone was cheering and crying, celebrating this escape from despair and the life that had been snatched back from the hands of death.

Mrs. Harman also broke free from the stunned sword and washed the new wine, hugged the others and burst into tears.

Ji Xuanyi exhaled in a trance.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu, this fool, raised his head cautiously and said to the gradually clearing sky: " Give me a partner? "

For a long while, nothing happened.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu sighed in disappointment.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

This person has a nice idea!

Qi Qin, Xiaoxiao Yuxia, Xu Chu, and the friends in Green Forest City all sent private messages to Ji Xuanyi, telling him that the world mission had been completed and asking him about the situation over there. Ji Xuanyi, with a rare good temper, replied to them one by one, without missing a single one.

This time, it was all thanks to Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others' efforts, otherwise he and Jian Xixinjiu would have to abandon those people with their own hands.

Ji Xuanyi looked at Madam Harman who was hugging the residents of Xinmu Town, and couldn't help but smile. He looked at Jian Xi Xinjiu who was standing there in a daze, and said compassionately: " Okay, you can log off and rest. Come back tomorrow and see if you can bring Madam Harman back to Star City. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu felt as if he had been pardoned, and hurriedly logged off the line without even having time to respond, for fear that Ji Xuan would go back on his word.

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows, took one last look at Mrs. Harman, and then logged off.

Ji Xuanyi logged off and slept for the whole day. Meanwhile, over at Chongyan Volcano, the players in the two main cities who had gone through so much trouble to defeat the Flame Giant finally breathed a sigh of relief.

The Flame Giant's final rampage phase was so brutal that a large group of players were nearly wiped out. It was only when Qi Qin came out and the double tank Yang Ge from Daytime City pulled the aggro that they were finally able to stabilize the BOSS . Xiao Xiaoyu, who thought the plan was going to fail, almost had a heart attack.

But it was also quite tough. Although he was able to completely dodge physical attacks, Qi Qin was almost burned to death by the fire giant. It was a rare chance for him to be a normal tank who needed treatment .

Fortunately, everything is over now. Xu Chumingshao and Qingfeng Bufu, who received the task, have been upgraded because of the large amount of experience. The surrounding players have also frequently lit up the white light of upgrading because of the experience dropped by the BOSS .

It goes without saying that after the rescue and mission completion, all the players present probably only have one thing in mind – return to the main city and claim the rewards!

However, before that, the rift between the two main cities still existed. Without waiting for the players of Star City to take action first, the players of Sun City had already withdrawn from the team one after another and looked at the people of Star City vigilantly.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia stood at the front, showing a friendly smile and said: " We are indeed still enemies , but you are willing to help us rescue us, so we owe you a favor anyway – please leave, we will not launch an attack. "

The players from Day City stopped and watched the rain for a while, then turned around and left one after another. They had no command, and even their retreat seemed very chaotic. There was no need for Star City to deceive them with such a thing. Even if they were attacked from the front , they would not be able to resist at all.

After seeing off the people from Day City, the players from Star City breathed a sigh of relief, and then there were cheers. They saw with their own eyes how powerful Day City was, and they also understood how much effort it took for Star City to successfully occupy the two missions.

Defeating the strong with the weak is always something to be happy about.

After Qi Qin finished chatting with Ji Xuan, he finally felt relieved when he saw the other's game avatar turned gray. He said to Xiao Xiaoyu who was organizing the team to return to the city: " Xuan is offline, I will also log off and rest. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was halfway through sending a private message when she turned around and looked at him: " Offline now? Then how are you going back? Aren't you going with us? "

Qi Qin scratched his head and said, " Is there nothing else to do on the way back? It should be no problem to walk alone. I am a little tired. If it is night, I will not be able to keep up with the main group without Xuanyi. I will probably fall asleep directly. "

That's true. Large troop operations usually last until around ten o'clock in the evening. Without Ji Xuanyi standing by Qi Qin's side, Qi Qin would have no way of resisting his sleepiness.

Thinking of this, Xiao Xiaoyu looked at the Star City team behind him, and indeed many people showed signs of fatigue.

Fighting a BOSS requires high concentration for a long period of time, not to mention that some people may be called online during their rest time. It is normal to feel tired.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia thought for a moment and said, " There's nothing else to do on the way back. If you know the way or have a map and feel tired, you can log off and rest first, and then you can catch up with yourself. If you don't know the way and don't have friends or relatives in the main city, come with us. "

A weak cheer suddenly broke out in the team, and then patches of white light flashed, indicating that the team was offline. Some people were even more extreme and directly asked their teammates to kill them back to Star City because they could not walk any further.

Xiaoxiao watched helplessly in the rain and shook her head.

" But although everything seems to have been resolved, I always feel like I've forgotten something? " Xiaoxiao Yuxia thought thoughtfully as he gathered the team whose number had dwindled again.

Xu Chu said goodbye to the Dwarf King, and walked back to the team with Ze Yu Shi Shui and the other two, saying, " What did you forget? Why don't you ask Mi Yin, he should remember everything. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia looked at Xuchu and suddenly showed an expression of sudden enlightenment. She quickly pulled out Miyin who was mixed in the team and didn't know what she was doing, and said: " Hurry, hurry, Xuchu is back. "

Mi Yin also reacted instantly and looked at Xu Chu as if he were a savior.

Xu Chu: " ??? "

Xu Chu was confused and said, " No, you guys are so enthusiastic about me all of a sudden, I'm a little uncomfortable ... Is there somewhere else you want to spend money? "

Xu Chu was very aware of his position. He put his hand into the backpack at his waist, as if he was going to take out money.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia's face has become very thick, but Mi Yin showed an embarrassed expression.

Xu Chu raised his eyebrows: " Mi Yin wants to borrow money from me? "

Mi Yin quickly shook her head, smiled, and said, " No, didn't you say before that you wanted a bodyguard or something like that? "

Xu Chu stroked his chin: " It's not that I discriminate against assassins, it's mainly because I'm too lazy to walk, and you can't carry me around the city, it's not appropriate ..."

Mi Yin was so upset that she thought to herself, "Boss, are you hiring a bodyguard or a mount?" But she still explained, " It's not me— "

Xu Chu said instantly: " Okay! How much is it? I'll pay! "

Mi Yin: "... No, I haven't finished my words yet. As long as it's not me, you want it? You are not discriminating against the assassin, you are discriminating against me! "

Xu Chu smiled calmly and said, " I'm not discriminating against you. It's just that I know who you want to talk about. The person who made you beg me is not you, and it can't be Ji Xuanyi. So it can only be Xue Piao Renjian – did you have direct contact when I was away? "

Mi Yin didn't expect Xu Chu to think so quickly. She nodded repeatedly and said, " The leader of the Bancheng Gang in Day City is really disgusting. It seems that Xue Piao was hired by him because he was short of money. Although Xue Piao said before that he is not short of money now, I still think it is better to help him find a long-term employer. Maybe you will be willing. "

Xu Chu touched his chin, looked at Mi Yin, and said, " Xue Piao Renjian. Although I don't play the game that seriously, I have heard of his name. It is of course a good thing to hire him, but I never cheat people. I won't hire him just for the price of a walking horse. It is not a small amount. If you hire him for a long time, you have to give me a discount. "

Although she was skeptical about the so-called "never cheating people", Mi Yin knew that Xu Chu was very generous. Even if she asked for a discount, she estimated that the discount would not last long. She nodded hurriedly and said, "Price is not a problem!"

Xu Chu said: "I didn't say it was a question of price."

Mi Yin was stunned and didn't understand.

Xu Chu smiled and said, "I'll hire Xue Piao Renjian, and you can be a discount gift, how about that?"

Ze Yu Sishui, who was walking with Xu Chu, couldn't help but sigh in surprise when he heard this: "The strongest combination wins everything. They are indeed rich. 666..."

Miyin: "..."

Well, it was originally a very normal thing, but when Ze Yu Sishui said it, it became so obscene! It seemed as if Xu Chu didn't hire two thugs, but bought two male concubines!

What the hell is going on! Mi Yin looked at Ze Yu Sishui's innocent face that looked like a middle school student, and couldn't help but frown.

Even Xu Chu was caught off guard by Ze Yu Si Shui's vulgarity. He shuddered and said, "But this statement is indeed true in a way. You and Xue Piao Renjian are the strongest team together. Is it okay for me to find a way to increase the value of the things I buy?"

Mi Yin said speechlessly: "I don't mind if it's a gift, but you also know that sometimes I disappear for a while, and I may not really have the time to complete the task you gave me with Xue Piao. If you can accept this, I can agree to it on his behalf."

Xu Chu smiled: "No problem, Xue Piao Renjian is also very strong in single combat, it's okay for you to be absent occasionally."

Mi Yin finally let out a sigh of relief and said, "That's good."

"But then again," Xu Chu looked around and said, "Where is my other future bodyguard?"

Miyin: "..."

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Oh no, at this time, Xue Piao Renjian must have already wandered to Fanxing City!

Even if they were not clear at the beginning, as the mission progressed, the players realized that the situation between the three main cities was not so peaceful. At least before the world mission was settled, the three main cities strengthened the identity checks on players entering the city, fearing that spies from the other two main cities would sneak in.

Although they knew it was impossible to completely prevent it, the less people there were, the better. The members of the Tama Jianghu gang guarding the southwest city gate were very dedicated and conscientious.

They were killed and brought back from the front line, and of course they knew that Day City had sent out undercover agents, so they attached great importance to the identity investigation of players entering Star City. In the past two days, they have successively caught several undercover players who are almost level 50 but cannot even pronounce the name of August, the most famous player in Star City.

"Those people in Day City don't find it annoying..."

As he was speaking, another man came over, riding a white horse, looking dusty. When he reached the gate, he very consciously slowed down his pace, and walked in while quietly looking at the two people at the door.

The gangster on the right stopped him and asked, " Are you from Star City? "

Almost everyone who was asked this question would say yes. Some of them really said yes and were let in if they could answer the questions, while some of them lied and were beaten and thrown out if they couldn't answer the questions . These two gang members didn't worry about their own strength. Now all the players in the entire Star City shared a common hatred of the enemy . As long as they shouted that there was an undercover, at least a dozen people would immediately surround them and join the fight.

The two of them had already written the next script in their minds, but they never expected that after hearing their questions, the person in front of them shook his head very calmly and said, " No. "

Two members of the Tamaijianghu gang: "..."

This guy is so damn honest! I didn't know how to respond for a moment. What if he said he was a tourist? Should I let him in? What if he is an undercover agent? What if he is not allowed in? What if he is accused of being inhospitable and discriminating against outsiders?

The two gang members stayed for a long time. Seeing that there were no more problems, the newcomers wanted to go inside again.

One of them came to his senses and hurried over to stop the man, saying, " You are not from Starry City. Where are you from? What are you doing in Starry City? "

The man frowned, as if he was impatient with so many questions, but after a moment of silence, he answered them one by one: " Sun City, looking for someone. "

It turns out that he came here to look for relatives and friends ... but since he came from Sun City, that might be an excuse!

The gang member immediately said, " People from Day City cannot come in. You should know the specific situation. Who do you want to find? If it's someone from the three major gangs, we can notify him for you. If not, you can chat with him privately and ask him to come out to see you. "

The man frowned and thought about it. He probably didn't know whether the person he was looking for was a member of the three major gangs. Finally, he said, " He's not here. I'll look for Mi Yin. "

The two gang members were silent for a while, then looked at each other and burst into laughter: " Looking for Mi Yin?! Do you think you are Xue Piao Renjian? Hahahahaha! " True Snow Falls on Earth: "..."

This situation was really awkward. Xue Piaorjian wasn't very good at talking, so he could only look at the two people quietly and wait for them to finish laughing.

However, before the two of them could finish laughing, they both saw the message sent in the gang channel.

[Xu Chu] : People on gate duty, please pay attention. My future bodyguard Xue Piao Renjian has come to our Fanxing City. I don't know which gate he will leave from. If you see a knight coming from Youri City, please be careful to identify him. If it is Xue Piao Renjian, let him enter the city first and wait for the main force to come back.

" Hahahahahahaha ..." The laughter of the two gang members of Tama Jianghu gradually faded, and then stopped, looking at Xue Piao Renjian with indescribable eyes. Snowfall: "..... ? "

One of them was silent for a moment, then said, " Boss Xue Piao, can you sign an autograph for me? "

Snowfall: "..."

In short, after verifying his identity, Xue Piao Renjian successfully entered Fanxing City and was well received by the people from the three major gangs who had returned to the city – many of whom were his fans.

Although it was mixed with Miyin powder, Xuemi powder, and even Muxuanyi powder and Mumi powder ...

However, it is a happy thing for all the players in Fanxing City that Xue Piao Renjian can join Fanxing City.

The large army from Fanxing City traveled day and night. Although the strange obstacles on the road disappeared, it still took nearly three days to return to the city. After Xue Piao Renjian reunited with Mi Yin, Mi Yin took only one minute to package him and Xu Chu.

Xue Piao Renjian said: "..."

Mi Yin thought he was unhappy and asked, " What's wrong? Did Xu Chu pay too little? That's not a problem, he can pay more. "

Xu Chu protested from behind: " No, it's my money, why are you adding to it so confidently? " Mi Yin pretended not to hear and said to Xue Piao Renjian: " Tell me what's wrong. It's okay. I will help you. There are others too. Everyone will help you. "

Xue Piao Renjian certainly knew that what he said was true. While he was struggling for money, Mi Yin had already made a group of very good friends. Even if they were not familiar with him, this group of people would lend a helping hand without hesitation no matter what happened. But just as he said – Xue Piao Renjian smiled at Mi Yin, then shook his head and said: " No need. "

Because the loved ones who need money to sustain their lives are no longer here.

Xue Piao Renjian is just an ordinary office worker in real life. He came into contact with games occasionally and became a great player in a daze.

It is easy for a gaming star to make money. When the live streaming industry was still very popular, he once started a live streaming out of curiosity. However, he was a man of few words. Although some people gave him gifts, some people said that watching his live streaming was no different from watching a recording. It was simply a " self-service live streaming room . " In addition, Xue Piao Renjian was not short of money at that time, and he himself felt that someone with his personality would be cheating people by starting a live streaming, so he turned off the live streaming.

Until his relative was diagnosed with a serious illness.

Xue Piao Renjian began to be short of money, very short of money. He had spent all his savings and his salary was no longer enough to cover his expenses. He could only turn his attention back to the field he was best at.

But unfortunately, the holographic game hardly supports any systematic way to make money, and his only friend is a pauper like him. Xue Piao Renjian feels that he should not drag the originally free Mi Yin into it, so he has to part ways with his best friend and pursue something that can help him.

But no amount of money could bring back the lives that were destined to be lost, and Xue Piao Renjian's efforts ultimately came to nothing.

Helping Zuo'an to complete the world mission was only the last commission he took on, and he couldn't break his promise, so he went to do it.

The reason he appeared in Fanxing City now was simply because Mi Yin was here and he had nowhere else to go. He didn't really care whether Xu Chu hired him or not, or for any other reason.

It's just that the burden on my shoulders has fallen, and I naturally returned to my original life trajectory.

So Miyin, you are selling it in vain now!

Mi Yin smacked her lips, not knowing whether she should first comfort Xue Piao Renjian about his family, or comfort him that Xu Chu was actually a good employer ... at least better than Zuo An.

In fact, being sold was not a big deal for Xue Piaorean. At least it was sold together with Mi Yin. Xue Piaorean found it acceptable, so there was no big objection.

Xu Chu grinned and said, " Anyway, it's good that you agree. Come on, you two are not free men anymore, why don't you join a gang first? "

Xu Chu opened the guild interface and invited Xue Piao and Mi Yin to join the guild. Mi Yin joined very easily, but Xue Piao Renjian did not even receive an invitation.

Xu Chu looked at the latest news that appeared in the notification bar, was stunned for a moment, and said: " Xue Piao Renjian is not from Fanxing City, and cannot join the gang in Fanxing City-- "

Before he finished speaking, Xu Chu saw the latest notification on the guild channel.

Gang Channel: Gang member [Miyin] has quit the gang.

Xu Chu: "..."

You are too decisive!

It was even longer before Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin returned to Fanxing City.

Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xi Xinjiu almost crossed half of the open world map. Although Qi Qin had less distance to walk than them, he had no horse and was a swordsman, so he couldn't run very fast even with the agility bonus. In the end, they arrived at Fanxing City almost at the same time, and several leaders of the three major gangs came to the city gate to greet them.

The three of them had met before and entered the city gate together.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia saw that after Ji Xuanyi got off Jianxixinjiu's horse, he very gentlemanly helped another woman who looked a bit older off Jianxixinjiu's horse, and couldn't help but glance at Qi Qin who was standing beside him.

The latter did not react at all, but instead stood by, as if worried that the woman would accidentally fall. This made Xiao Xiaoyuxia a little strange. Could it be that the person on the right hand was Ji Xuanyi's mother?

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was about to go up to say hello, when Ji Xuan came over and said, " Move aside, don't block the way. "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

This person is still as cold as ever!

Xu Chu had become much bolder since he hired Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin as bodyguards. He asked directly out of curiosity: " Is this your mother? Is she here to play games? "

Ji Xuanyi: "... Are you blind? This is fucking! "

In fact, it's no wonder that everyone can't see it. This Lady Harman brought by Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xixinjiu, probably because she is a purely mission-oriented person, doesn't have a name on her head. She looks no different from an ordinary player – except that she looks a little older.

In fact, there are players in their 40s and 50s in "Domain" now, but they are not many.

Moreover, many elderly Internet addicts abroad have begun to complain, asking game companies to invent game cabins that can be used by people over 60 years old. They have waited for so many years to see holographic online games and cannot be discriminated against like this.

I heard that the game company has adopted this suggestion and is working hard to improve the safety system of the game cabin.

But that's beside the point. When everyone found out that this was Xinmu Town, they were all surprised, and then they all showed envious expressions.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia couldn't help but say sourly: " Did you receive a secret mission? You hid it so well, without telling anyone? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " This is not a secret mission, it's a favorability mission. "

“ Shh— ”

Everyone booed, not believing it at all. How could someone travel so far to take on a simple favorability mission? In the game Domain, the harder the mission, the higher the reward.

Everyone knows that, okay?

Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " This is a mission to increase August's favorability. After completing it, you will gain an additional 5,000 points and it will be related to the reputation of all forces in Star City. "

“ What the hell?!!! ”

Everyone's exclamations almost broke through the sky. Everyone knew that August's favorability was notoriously difficult to increase. Ji Xuanyi's task cost 5,000?! And it was related to the reputation of all the forces in Star City? ? ? ?

Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian were fine, but the others' eyes were bleeding, they were so envious and jealous!

However, with such a reward, the difficulty of this mission is acceptable, and it is basically not much different from a secret mission.

Jing Yunhan swallowed several times before looking at Mrs. Harman eagerly and said tremblingly: " August's favorability mission? Is she the Hamana that August mentioned? The one with the same name as the flower shop owner in the city? "

Jing Yunhan was the one who reported to August most frequently among the group, so he remembered August's mumblings in the previous period very clearly. He even went to the flower shop Hamanna to buy flowers for August, but was criticized for being uneducated and taking the wrong path, and was put on the blacklist of the Mage Tower for a week.
It's also very miserable.

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Mrs. Harman is August's daughter, from Novice Town. If it weren't for your efforts, it would have been difficult for me to bring her here, and we might have been wiped out. "

Although this form can only follow the plot and cannot understand the player's words very clearly, Mrs. Harman still smiled at everyone.

Xiao Xiaoyuxia and the others crowded up, wanting to help or touch Madam Harman, perhaps to get a little bit of her aura. This was the daughter of August, the biggest boss in Star City! Maybe after touching her, August would treat them better!

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

No, if it were anyone else, their daughter would be approached by a bunch of men with bad intentions, their first reaction would not be to show a good face! Be careful, I will put you all on the blacklist of the Mage Tower, and you will be locked up for seven or eight months!

There were many people in Fanxing City who knew the leaders of the three major gangs. This group of people was eye-catching enough when they walked on the street. There was also a Madam Harman. Many players who came out of Xinmu Town recognized Madam Harman. They looked at them in surprise and followed them subconsciously. By the time Ji Xuanyi walked to the entrance of the Mage Tower, a group of people had already followed him.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Although it was inevitable that Mrs. Harman would experience this effect while walking on the road, Ji Xuanyi still subconsciously put the blame on Xiao Xiaoyuxia and others.

It's all these people's fault! Too ostentatious!

Ji Xuan looked at the people behind him with a bad expression.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia and others looked at the sky and the earth, but not at him.

Liu Tian, the big fool, said dissatisfiedly: " Why are there so many people following? Aren't they too boring? "

Jing Yunhan said: " How dare you say that? Didn't you follow me here too? "

Liu Tiandao: " How can they be the same? I am just picking someone up and walking along the way. How can they compare with me? "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said: " Don't make a fuss at this time. Ji Xuanyi, please go in quickly. There are more and more people standing in front of the entrance of the Mage Tower! "

This statement is true. The Mage Tower is not as deserted as before. Only players who like to be abused come to August to be abused.

After the world quest was completed, the players who returned to Star City were tired of the wild map and didn't want to go out again. They also belatedly remembered the newly opened library in the Mage Tower, and both those who loved reading and those who didn't came to join in the fun.

This was when they just reacted. There were so many people that the mage tower was almost bursting, not to mention that Ji Xuan brought a bunch of people with him.

" It's going to be tough to get in like this, " Liu Tian frowned and said, " This doesn't look like a durable class like a swordsman or knight. What if we get hurt? I'm afraid August will go crazy and use one skill to send all of us to the sky? "

Xu Chu said: " We need to find a way to evacuate the crowd. " newly promoted to " Xu Chu's personal bodyguard whenever he is free ", said: " How do we evacuate? There are too many people here. "

Jian Xixinjiu said: " I think we can throw Xu Chu out there and scatter money. I guarantee that people will leave in a few minutes! "

Everyone thought this was a good idea!

Xu Chu: "..."

What do these people think of him!

Xu Chu laughed and said, " I have another way. Although it's definitely not as good as throwing money around, it should be of some use. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was just about to say that if spending money was useless, then just spend money, when he saw Xu Chu giving Mi Yin a look. Mi Yin raised her eyebrows helplessly, and stood in front of Xu Chu with Xue Piao Renjian next to her, quietly looking at Jian Xi Xin Jiu.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu: "... It's shameful to waste money! What can you do? Tell me! I'm listening! "

So on this day, all the players in Star City knew the secrets of the same three major gangs. Someone shouted in the vast crowd.

" The gay leader of Mengtanggu, Jian Xixinjiu, confessed his love to the deputy leader of Chensi, Xiaoxiao Yuxia, but was cruelly rejected! Now the two gangs are about to fight! In the southwest area! Oh my God! It's so scary! "

Just when everyone was half-believing and half-doubting and hadn't reacted yet!

Map Channel: [Jing Yunhan] : I will protect my brother's innocence! Let's fight! Swords wash new wine!

After a moment of silence.

With a loud " boom " , everyone forgot the purpose of their staying here and started running frantically towards the southwest area!

Being held down by Xue Piao Renjian and Qi Qinlian, and forbidden to speak or chat about maps, Jian Xi Xinjiu had tears in his tiger eyes.

Who will protect my innocence?

Chapter 98

Thanks to Jian Xi Xin Jiu's selfless dedication , the bustling crowds of players outside the Mage Tower have almost disappeared.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu struggled to break away from Qi Qin and Xue Piao Renjian , but found that it was too late . Tears were about to fall: " I don't fucking want to contribute to a place like this! "

If he cooperated with Jing Yunhan, he could barely bear it. After all, he was a cute boy . But Xiaoxiao Yuxia ! It was simply raping his aesthetic taste, okay!

Xu Chu looked at Xiao Xiao Yuxia and couldn't help but say: " Wow, this is so heartbreaking! "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

In fact, Xiaoxiao Yuxia is not that ugly . She has the looks of an ordinary passerby and can be quite presentable after some tidying up . It's a pity that her hobby is far from that of Jianxi Xinjiu . The innocent Xiaoxiao Yuxia is obviously one of the victims and was also despised.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said in despair: " There is no more lovely boy willing to ride a horse with me ..."

Xu Chu said cruelly: " There wasn't one originally. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu couldn't help but burst into tears .

Xiao Xiao Yuxia's forehead was full of black lines . Although he was also one of the characters arranged by Xu Chu, he had no resistance to Xu Chu's method. Being gay was also a way to win people's hearts. As long as it was not too radical , he could accept it. What's more, he had refused Jian Xi Xin Jiu in Xu Chu's script . In short , it was fine as long as he was not the most unlucky person.

However, seeing Jian Xi Xin Jiu's mood , Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said directly: " Alright, alright , the words have been said , let's go in while most people are gone , otherwise it will be a big loss if they find out something is wrong and come back, okay? "

As soon as these words were spoken, everyone rushed into the Mage Tower with Jian Xi Xin Jiu, who wanted to kill himself.

Before entering the Mage Tower, one has to pass through two checkpoints of guards. Everyone who frequently comes to the Mage Tower is used to it. Just as Ji Xuanyi was about to go up, he saw Madam Harman loosening her hand and walking lightly towards the two guards alone.

This is the plot mode. Everyone reacted and held their breath, not daring to make any sound for fear of disturbing them.

The two guards had been standing in the same place since the main city was opened, with a serious expression. Even when Ji Xuanyi, who had a high reputation in the Mage Tower, passed by them, he just nodded slightly. However, the appearance of Madam Harman made the two guards look surprised and happy.

One of the guards shouted in disbelief: " Ha ... Miss Humana! "

Mrs. Harman smiled and shook her head, saying, " I'm already old, and you still call me Miss – Jay, Jack, I haven't seen you for almost 20 years, how are you doing? "

The two guards nodded repeatedly, and one of them said hurriedly: " I will go inform Lord August! "

Mrs. Harman stopped him and said with a smile: " No need, the misunderstanding between us has been resolved, let me go see him myself. "

The guard stopped and looked deeply at Mrs. Hamman. He said, " Ms. Hammana, Lord August has been missing you very much. "

Mrs. Harman's eyes softened, she nodded, and replied softly: " I know, I miss my father too. "

The guard said nothing more, just stood there and watched Madam Harman continue walking towards the Mage Tower.

Ji Xuanyi hurriedly followed, and the guards did not stop him. Qi Qin and Jian Xixinjiu also passed smoothly. When others wanted to go forward, they were stopped by two guards again and had to be checked one by one before they could enter.

While checking the guards, Xu Chu said confidently: " Those three people must have something they didn't tell us! "

Liu Tian urged from behind: " Stop talking, go in quickly after the inspection, or you won't be able to see the plot later! "

Although everyone outside the Mage Tower left because of Xu Chu's explosive news, there were still many players inside the Mage Tower. Most of them were busy answering questions and wanted to go into the library to take a look. They glanced and mistook Madam Harman as a player and did not pay much attention to her. There were also a small number of people, perhaps from Xinmu Town, who still felt that Madam Harman looked familiar after seeing her, although a long time had passed, and kept glancing at her face with puzzled eyes.

However, regardless of whether they recognized Madam Harman or not, when Madam Harman entered the first floor of the Mage Tower, their reactions made all the players focus their attention on her.

The first to react was the guide. The moment she saw Madam Hamana, she left behind a group of players who were waiting for her to open the elevator and ran towards Madam Hamana, almost unable to believe her eyes, shouting, " Ms. Hamana! "

With this shout, the entire first floor moved, and everyone looked over here. August's four apprentices even stood up, including Pusi, who always squatted in the corner. He pushed away the players who crowded in front of him and wanted to ask him for divination, poked his head out, opened his lifeless eyes, and asked in a weak voice: " Hamana? Miss Hamana? "

Judging from the time, August's four apprentices should not have seen Hamana. Perhaps they secretly learned August's secret – in any case, they were all very shocked by this.

After the shock, before the confused players could figure out what was happening, they all moved and wanted to go up and talk to Madam Harman.

However, the guide was the first to react. She went forward, supported Mrs. Harman, and led her to the elevator. She said with red eyes, " You are finally back. Lord August has missed you so much! "

There were players at the elevator door ready to go in, but they were all driven away, leaving space for Madam Harman alone. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were both people who accepted the mission, so they were also allowed in. After that, the elevator ignored everyone else and continued to rise. Jian Xi Xinjiu wanted to squeeze in, but was kicked out mercilessly.

Sword washing new wine: "..."

It's too cruel to doubt that the favorability and reputation you have gained are all fake!

After Mrs. Harman and Ji Xuanyi left, the Mage Tower was quiet for a while, and then suddenly there was an uproar. Everyone was asking who that woman was. Was she a player? Or was she? Why were only three people allowed to enter the elevator? Was there going to be a new plot? Or was it a hidden mission?

However, apart from Jian Xi Xin Jiu who kept silent, no one knew the truth of the matter. Occasionally, someone felt that the name Hamanna sounded familiar, but they couldn't remember anything for a while.

With the help of , Ji Xuanyi finally got rid of the followers behind him and could do his task quietly. Qi Qin reunited with Ji Xuanyi after a few days. He couldn't think of anything and just looked at him stupidly.

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Is there something on my face? " said " hmm " stupidly , then realized what he had said, shook his head repeatedly, and said: " No, no, I just haven't seen Xuan Yi for too long ..." Because I miss it so much, I can't help but like it more and more, and I become more and more fascinated by it.

In fact, the two of them had not been separated for long. They just didn't meet each other for a few days when they were rushing back after the world mission was completed.

Ji Xuanyi laughed for a long time before saying calmly, It takes several days to walk " in the game, but only one hour in reality. Didn't you get the key from me? "

Qi Qin's face suddenly turned red, and he stammered, not daring to speak.

Ji Xuan looked at him and asked curiously, " You didn't think I forgot the key there, did you? " Qi Qin was stunned and his face turned even redder.

Ji Xuanyi smiled and leaned over to say: " Hero Qi Qin, have you become a bad person? You secretly took my house key. What do you want to do? "

Ji Xuanyi stood on tiptoe slightly, very close to Qi Qin's face, almost touching it.

Qi Qin stared blankly at Ji Xuanyi's face. At this distance, he could even clearly see each and every one of his long eyelashes, pale skin, and dark eyes. He could no longer hear what Ji Xuanyi was saying. He just felt dazed and his heart was beating like a drum.

Ji Xuanyi blinked and whispered, " Qi Qin, what are you thinking about? "

Qi Qin took a quick breath and said, " I, I—— "

 " Miss Hamana, we're here. The other two adventurers, please come out quickly! " the enthusiastic guide shouted.

Qi Qin suddenly came to his senses and said cowardly, " I, I, I, I was wrong! I'm sorry! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

I can go to your place!

Ji Xuan's face darkened, but he couldn't vent his anger on anyone, so he blocked Qi Qin in the elevator and beat him up!

Qi Qin: " QAQ ! "

He already apologized! Why did he still get beaten?

Because Ji Xuanyi was the one who accepted the task, although he couldn't wait to meet August, the two of them still waited quietly outside the elevator for Ji Xuanyi to finish beating Qi Qin.

When exiting the elevator, Qi Qin followed Ji Xuanyi pitifully and whispered: " That ... "

Ji Xuanyi: " If you say sorry again, I will break both of your legs today. "

Qi Qin was terrified after hearing this. After a long while, he sniffed and said, " I mean, the key ..."

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " What's wrong with the key? "

Qi Qin mustered up his courage and said cautiously: " Can I keep the key? "

Ji Xuanyi looked at this man helplessly. If you say he is bold, he is always cowardly. If you say he is timid, he sometimes dares to make requests. It's really unfortunate. What did he do in his previous life to deserve such a fool?

Ji Xuanyi sighed, and Qi Qin was shocked and said aggrievedly: " No, is it not possible? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Keep it. It was originally given to you. You can come to play with me whenever you want. You don't have to squat at the door anymore. "

Qi Qin finally breathed a sigh of relief and said with a silly smile: " Yeah! "

Ji Xuanyi didn't have time to teach him a lesson. He led them to open August's door and let the three of them in.

The light in the wooden house was still as dim as before. August was hunched over his desk, concentrating on writing or drawing something. He didn't even look up when someone came in.

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything. Mrs. Harman had already stepped into the room quietly, walked to the magic lamp, and made a light stroke in the air above the lamp with her hand, making it brighter.

" I have told you many times to protect your eyes. Magic can do many things, but it does not include repairing presbyopia and myopia . My warlock potion can do that. If you don't hate it so much now, would you like to try it? " Mrs. Harman said softly.

August, who was leaning over the desk, was trembling all over. He looked up at Mrs. Harman beside the lamp in disbelief. He almost forgot to breathe. After a long while, he said in a trance: " Halmana? Hamana, is that you? Am I dreaming again? "

Mrs. Harman smiled with a distressed look, walked slowly from the lamp to him, and said, " It's not a dream, Dad. I'm back. "

August's eyes widened, and he hardly dared to look away, staring at Mrs. Harman without blinking. After a long while, he suddenly stood up, even ignoring the chair he had knocked over, and took Mrs. Harman into his arms, crying " woohoo " , like a child, saying loudly without any scruples: " I was wrong! I was wrong, Hamana! Dad was wrong! I am an old bastard, I am sorry for you! "

Mrs. Harman's eyes also turned red. She leaned on August's thin shoulders and said, " I was wrong, too, Dad. I was wrong, too. Fortunately, I still have the opportunity to see you again and tell you these words. I have always missed you! "

August sniffed, touched Mrs. Harman's head with tears in his eyes, and said, " Me too. Every time I miss you, I regret it ... It's been twenty years. I missed twenty years of my daughter's life. You've grown taller and fatter, and-- "

August stopped talking, and Mrs. Harman held his hand and continued with a smile: " You are still old. "

August's tears kept pouring out and he was sobbing uncontrollably. Mrs. Harman laughed and comforted him in a soft voice.

The scene of the father-daughter reunion was so touching that Qi Qin's eyes almost turned red. She turned her head and found that Ji Xuanyi had no expression on his face. He lowered his eyes and didn't know what he was thinking.

Qi Qin whispered: " Xuan Yi, what's wrong with you? "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment, then woke up from his thoughts, looked up at him, turned away and said, " Nothing, I was thinking about the mission reward. "

Qi Qin didn't quite believe it and was about to ask when he heard Ji Xuan say, " Ah, the story is about to end. "

Qi Qin was diverted from the topic and subconsciously looked, but did not see Ji Xuanyi's expression of relief.

Mrs. Harman had almost finished talking to August about their reunion, and she smiled softly, " We still have a lot of time to talk. Although there are still many things in Xinmu Town that I miss, the evil god has been repelled and will not come back in the short term. I will not leave so soon. I think we should thank Ji Xuanyi first. "

Mrs. Harman smiled at Ji Xuanyi and said, " Thank you for conveying my and my father's thoughts, and thank you for bringing me back to Starry City, Ji Xuanyi, thank you. "

August also came back to his senses. He rubbed his eyes, looked at Ji Xuanyi gently and kindly, and said: " Yes, thank you, child. You have fulfilled your promise and helped me. I should reward you. "

As soon as August finished speaking, Ji Xuanyi's body lit up with a white light of upgrading. The mission [Separated Father and Daughter] he received before setting out was completed.

Experience points, gold coins and favorability all arrived. Ji Xuanyi directly rushed to level 55. Qi Qin, who received assistance at the side, was also at level 54, not to mention the gold coins. If he had known that August was so generous, Ji Xuanyi would not have had to work so hard to make money.

There is also the favorability issue. When Ji Xuanyi received the task, he was very curious about what would happen if his favorability bar, which was almost full, suddenly exceeded the limit. He took a quick look and found that August's favorability bar had changed from green to gold, and the numerical value displayed behind it had changed to ∞ . The word "intimacy" had disappeared. Ji Xuanyi found that his title had also changed from [August's Guest] to [August's Friend].

Although one can tell at once that the latter is closer, but isn't there a generation gap ... Ji Xuanyi was frowning. Mrs. Harman is not much younger than his mother, and August can be directly regarded as his grandfather, okay?

But it's also a problem of setting. Friends are friends, it's never a bad thing.

The mission was completed. Ji Xuanyi sorted out the gold coins in his bag and was about to say goodbye to August. August waved at him and said, " Although I have lived in vain for so many years, I have also collected a lot of good things. Is there anything you want? "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned. Hadn't the mission rewards been issued? What did August mean? Could it be that the rewards issued in this game and the rewards issued for the missions were calculated separately?

In fact, it is true. For most tasks, the rewards are gone after they are given out, but for some tasks, after certain conditions are met, the system will give out a hidden reward after giving out the displayed task reward. For example, the summoning creature that Wan Ge Naizhi got at the beginning is in the same situation.

However, Ji Xuanyi's attitude was obviously different from that of Wan Ge Naizhi. August really wanted to thank Ji Xuanyi.

What to ask for in this situation?

Ji Xuanyi thought about it and felt that he didn't lack anything. Weapons and equipment were nothing to his profession. Qi Qin had a set of equipment that he made, so he didn't lack anything either. However, Ji Xuanyi wasn't stupid enough to ask August to give him money. After thinking about it, he simply regarded this as a random reward and said to August: "Anything is fine. You decide."

August's face wrinkled when he heard this. This question was too difficult. August complained: "Oh, kid, you are really embarrassing!"

Mrs. Harman smiled secretly.

August glanced at her and laughed too, saying helplessly, "I see. Wait a minute, I'll go downstairs and get that thing up."

August made a cup of tea for Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, asked them to sit down and wait, and then he walked out leisurely with Mrs. Harman.

Ji Xuanyi sat down, took a sip of tea, and felt the familiar taste. Only then did he finally feel like he had returned to Starry City.

"I've been running around outside for ten days and I'm almost going crazy," Ji Xuanyi sighed.

Qi Qin said: "No matter what, everyone is still alive and well, nothing has happened, that's enough."

Ji Xuanyi knew what he was referring to, and nodded. Finally, they reached the HE world line, so it was not in vain for all the hard work over the past few days.

During the days when he took Madam Harman back to Fanxing City, Ji Xuanyi went to the forum to check the situation when he was offline because he was not in a hurry.

About two-thirds of the servers have reached the HE world line, and the remaining one-third of the servers are now in chaos. There have been people posting on the forum attacking the guilds that failed to complete the task or dragged their feet. Many people have also written short essays to commemorate them and cursed the guilds.

I heard that some gangs have already been in danger of disbanding because of this incident. I can't imagine what the situation would be like now if the three major gangs had failed to complete the task and were dragged into the water by the Day City.

The model worker Xiaoxiao might even vomit blood in the rain.

But then again, the Day City suffered a great loss at the hands of the Star City this time, and it will definitely find an opportunity to retaliate in the future. When Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xixinjiu were on the road, they listened to various reports from Xiao Xiaoyuxia and Qi Qin. Although they were not at the scene, they also understood the situation at that time.

It is true that Zuo An, the gang leader of Dayo City, is not very smart, but that does not mean that they can take Dayo City lightly. Even after this world mission, the strength of Star City was not too far behind Dayo City, but in the final analysis, it did not catch up much. Dayo City's strength is still higher than Star City.

If the enemy attacks directly, Fanxing City will not have many factors to exploit and the fight will be very difficult.

When Ji Xuanyi lowered his eyes to think, August had already returned with Mrs. Harman. He placed a one-meter-long crystal box in front of Ji Xuanyi, wiped his forehead and said, " It took me a lot of effort to find this. "

Ji Xuanyi came back to his senses and looked at the box. From the material of the box, one could tell how precious the things inside were.

Ji Xuanyi could see the emerald green object inside the transparent box. The shape looked like a branch, but the texture of the branch was a bit strange. It didn't look like wood, but more like gold or jade.

Ji Xuan put his hand on the box and saw the system description of the item.

[Branch of the Tree of Life] : According to legend, the Tree of Life has the power to bring the dead back to life, but this is just a branch. Although it contains enormous life force, there is no way to release it. It has been kept as a collection by August, the great magician of Starry City.

Ji Xuanyi was silent for a moment, then asked, " How do I use this? "

Judging from the system description, this thing is completely unusable now!

Who knew that August was also very straightforward and said to Ji Xuan directly: " I don't know. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

I'm afraid the increase in my favorability is fake! I want to send Madam Harman back to New Wood Town!

Ji Xuanyi misunderstood August this time. Although August knew everything about Starry City, he really didn't know how to use this branch, otherwise he would not have kept it in his collection for so long.

August said to Ji Xuan, " The Tree of Life has disappeared for a thousand years. It is not easy to find this branch. Although I don't know what it can do for the time being, it should be of some help to you. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

What else could he say? Although it was most likely a rhetoric of reward, August said it would be helpful to him, and he couldn't just say that this one was not good and change to another one. He asked for help to choose, anything would be fine, because he was the one who said it. If you say something out loud, you won't get slapped in the face the next second. Ji Xuanyi sighed and accepted the reward.

Ji Xuanyi put the tree branch of life and the crystal box into his backpack. After saying goodbye to August, he took Qi Qin downstairs.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was no longer waiting for them downstairs. He had a private chat with Ji Xuanyi, saying that he had just returned to Fanxing City, and there were many things in Mengtanggu that needed his attention, so he didn't have much time to hang around outside – these were all excuses. In fact, the main reason was that the news that he and Xiao Xiao Yuxia were rejected when they confessed their love had reached the ears of the Mengtanggu gang. Many people had a private chat with him, asking if there was something wrong with his eyes. For the sake of his innocence and aesthetics, he had to go back and explain.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Jing Yunhan also left because of the same thing. The gang members of the two gangs believed it to be true and almost came to a fight. The onlookers were amazed by the scene.

However, Xu Chuyi and his group, who had started the trouble in the first place, stayed behind. When Ji Xuan came out of the Mage Tower one by one, he saw them waiting outside.

Liu Tian was arguing with Xu Chu again, his face flushed. Xu Chu didn't even look at him, as if to say, "I'm not talking to an idiot." When he saw Ji Xuanyi coming out of the tower, he smiled and greeted him, asking, "Have you completed the mission? The guide of the Mage Tower refused to take us to the top floor, saying that August was too busy to take care of us and it was too crowded inside, so I came out to wait for you."

"Well, it's done," Ji Xuan looked at Liu Tian who was about to explode, and said, "Don't you ever plan to mediate your internal conflicts?"

Xu Chu: "Hmm? Contradiction? What contradiction? There is no contradiction."

Liu Tian was so angry that he yelled: "Xu Chu! Fuck you! I told you, this guy is not from our gang! He is not from Star City! And he killed me once! No! I don't allow you to play with him!"

Snowfall: "..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Forget about the first few sentences. You can also say that you are worried that Xue Piao Renjian will cause harm to Fanxing City. What is the point of not allowing people to play together? Are you an elementary school student?!

Xu Chu calmly ignored Liu Tian and said to Ji Xuan: "Look, there is no contradiction. So what is your mission about? What is the reward? Take it out and let me see it. If you don't need it, I might be interested. I can pay for it."

Six days of being crazy: "Ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh!!!"

Ji Xuanyi: "... You've made him so angry that he barks like a dog."

Xu Chu: "Haha."

With Liu Tian's brain, there was no way he would think of any undercover agent endangering Fanxing City. He just didn't like Xue Piao Renjian. As a fellow knight, he was killed without even interrupting his chat with Mi Yin (?). Now he was hired by Xu Chu as a bodyguard and was in front of him every day, which not only hurt his self-esteem, but also seriously affected the balance of power between him and Xu Chu, which allowed them to hurt each other!

In short, it's just two words: unhappy!

However, Liu Tian's elementary school-like remarks were generally ignored, and it was the same now, no one cared about his feelings at all.

Ji Xuan said: "Don't knights regard masters like Xue Piao Renjian as their idols? Look at Jian Xi Xin Jiu, what's wrong with Liu Tian?"

Xu Chu said: "That's normal, because when he's a bad player to a certain extent, you can't tell the difference between a master and a novice. Anyone can kill him, hehe."

Six days: "Ah ..."

Liu Tian was making a fuss next to Xu Chu, but he didn't dare to do anything to the rich man. He could only attack him with noise.

I don't know how this person figured out that Xue Piao Renjian affected the balance of power between him and Xu Chu. Have you ever had a balance between you and Xu Chu? You hurt each other, isn't it Xu Chu who hurt you unilaterally???

Ji Xuanyi almost couldn't resist the urge to roll his eyes, and it took him a long time to grasp the point and said, " Xue Piao Renjian can't join the Fanxing City gang? "

Xuchu was annoyed by Liutian and was just telling him that he was going to suggest to the game company to add a sound blocking option. Then he and Liutian started arguing, and Miyin saw this and had to speak up: " It's like this. Xuchu failed when he tried to get Xuepiao to join the gang. "

Xue Piao Renjian nodded aside.

Ji Xuanyi thought about it, understood, and said, " There are no factions in Domain. The competition between the three main cities should be equivalent to three different factions. Xue Piao Renjian is a registered resident of Dayo City. Future rewards and other things should also be linked to Dayo City. It is normal that he cannot join the guild of Star City. "

Mi Yin immediately frowned and said, " What should we do? If that's the case, Xue Piao won't be able to get a complete gaming experience in Star City. "

Mi Yin looked at Xue Piao Renjian and said, " Why don't you go back to Day City? When the arena opens, come back when you want to play in the arena with me? "

Xu Chu, who was choking for six days and listening to the noise, said: " I'm still alive, can you ask for my opinion? "

Mi Yin then remembered this matter and smiled awkwardly at Xu Chu.

But before Xu Chu could speak, Xue Piao Renjian shook his head and said, " It doesn't matter. " He didn't care about those rewards. He and Mi Yin were both arena players. As long as there were no restrictions during fights, he didn't care that much about other game experiences.

Ji Xuanyi glanced at Mi Yin and said, " Actually, you don't have to worry about this problem. There should be a function to transfer household registration between the three main cities. " The strength of the main city affects the choices of new players. If the household registration remains fixed, no player will be sober-minded as to choose a weak main city when registering. Without the addition of fresh blood, the weak main city will only become weaker and weaker. The gaming experience will be poor, and some players will quit , and there may even be an empty city.

This is something the official absolutely does not want to see. Although opening the household transfer function may not necessarily make a weak main city stronger, it can at least allow players to not worry too much about their choices. Even if the main city is weak, some of its own characteristics or scenery can attract players to join, and the main city will not be so sparsely populated that it becomes an " empty city " .

" Although there may be flow restrictions, generally speaking, once the power difference between the main cities reaches a certain value, the weaker city is prohibited from becoming stronger. It will take some time for the overall combat power of Fanxing City to catch up with that of Youri City. If the transfer of household registration is really allowed, there should be no problem for Xue Piao Renjian to transfer to Fanxing City. " Ji Xuanyi said.

Mi Yin breathed a sigh of relief and said, " That's good. "

In fact, this is the most basic setting in many games. You will know it after a little practice. However, Mi Yin has never paid attention to anything other than the arena when playing games, so she doesn't know these at all.

Ji Xuanyi finished his explanation and Xu Chu finished his argument. Liu Tian was so angry at Xu Chu that he logged off. Xu Chu didn't even blush or gasp, and even looked more relaxed than before.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but ask: " How did you two get together in the first place and organize the Daming Jianghu? "

He just saw the fight between Xu Chu and Liu Tian, which was already at the level of elementary school students. You may not believe it, but Liu Tian was driven offline by the sentence " You said all my words bounced back " ...

Xu Chu was in trouble too, a primary school student who was so proud of himself for winning an argument. Ji Xuanyi didn't know where he got the courage to entrust the world mission to him in the first place.

I feel like after hanging out with Liu Tian for a long time, your IQ will be contagious.

Xu Chu glanced at Ji Xuanyi and said, " To be honest, I knew he was an idiot the first time I saw him. "

Mi Yin couldn't help but ask, " Then why are you still playing with him? "

Xu Chu said: " My original script was that the deputy gang would usurp the throne, but later I found it too troublesome ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Miyin: "..."

Look at the model worker working in the rain! Why bother!

Xu Chu waved his hands, as if to get rid of Liu Tian's stupidity from his mind, and said, " Let's not talk about that idiot. What mission did you do before, and what was the reward? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " I have been working on the follow-up tasks of the hidden mission for a long time. You don't want to hear the plot, do you? "

Xu Chu really didn't have any feelings about the plot. He just wanted to know where Ji Xuanyi took the mission from. Since it was hidden, forget it.

Xu Chu asked directly: " Is there a reward? "

Ji Xuan nodded. He had originally planned to let Xu Chu take a look at the branch. This person had seen most of the materials and equipment, so maybe he could find something.

After all, it is a reward for completing a task that took so long. It would be a shame to let it gather dust in a backpack. I should try my best to find a way to use it.

Ji Xuan took out the crystal box and handed it to Xu Chu.

Xu Chu looked at it for a long time and said, " This seems to be a material for making advanced enchantments. "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment and said, " No way? Enchanting? The branches of the Tree of Life can only be used for enchanting? "

Enchantments are disposable items, and the materials needed are mostly purple. August gave him the thing so solemnly, and it can only be used for enchantment?

" Ah? What? Branches and leaves? " Xu Chu was stunned for a moment, then suddenly realized, " Oh, sorry, I thought you were asking about the crystal box outside. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Xu Chu said with a smile: " The box outside is also made of rare materials. There must be good stuff inside. Don't worry, let me take a look. "

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly.

Xu Chu opened the box a crack, then immediately closed it again, muttering, " I always feel like this is like a food storage box, so I'd better not open it, lest it go bad. I'll just leave it like this. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Don't say such nonsense. Have you seen it before? "

Xu Chu looked at it for a while, shook his head helplessly, and said, " I haven't seen it. "

Upon hearing this, Ji Xuan immediately snatched the box back from him and put it into his backpack.

Xu Chu said: "... Don't be so stingy, okay? Xuan Xiaoyi, you were not like this before. "

Ji Xuanyi said coldly: " Sorry, we are not like before. "

Xu Chu shrugged and said, " The things in this game are classified into only a few categories: equipment, life skill products, materials, and quest items. The reward in your hand is probably one of the latter two. "

Ji Xuanyi was speechless and said, " Anyone can think of this kind of thing, right? "

Qi Qin, who had been unable to get a word in for a long time, whispered: " I can't think of it ..."

Ji Xuan looked back at him expressionlessly.

Qi Qin: " Yes, I'm sorry ..."

Ji Xuan turned his head back and said to Xu Chu: " Which one do you think it is? "

Xu Chu smacked his lips and said, " It's hard to say. Normally, quest rewards wouldn't be quest items, but this thing has no quality, and doesn't look like a material ... I've never seen a material without quality, not to mention that it's a reward for a quest that can only be completed across maps, so it should be a quest item, right? "

" Items without quality? " Mi Yin had heard almost everything and said, " If there are items without quality, I remember where they are. I used to use a rag at home, but that one was of no quality. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Although this material is really useless, it can't be compared with the rags at home! August must be very sad to have kept it for so long!

Since he couldn't figure out the result of this matter for the time being , Ji Xuanyi put it aside . They had just returned and had not yet received the reward for the world quest because they had to send Madam Harman to the Mage Tower.

" Speaking of this, " Xu Chu said, " the guild rewards have also been distributed. " In addition to the extra rewards given to all guild members , the system also issued guild-exclusive rewards. For example, the reward for Tamajyu was a horse with extremely powerful attributes, with an unprecedently high load-bearing capacity and speed . It was said that many Tamajyu knights almost drooled on the spot when they received the reward.

" But there are restrictions on that horse. Only members of the guild can ride it , " Xu Chu said with great regret, " It's such a good horse , but it's only cheaply given to this idiot Liu Tian. " Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Being attacked like this every day , it's actually not easy to survive for six days . Just be a little stupid at ordinary times, and everyone please be more tolerant of him.

Ji Xuanyi coughed and said, " What is the reward in the mortal world? "

Xu Chu said: " A set of orange equipment can only be used by guild members . Although the equipment attributes are very impressive, it is universal equipment for all professions , so it is actually just that , and it is quite useless. "

" I think Xiaoxiao Yuxia doesn't seem to be very unhappy. " Ji Xuan said.

After spending so much effort , apart from the basic rewards that everyone gets , the extra rewards are so useless . If it were Ji Xuanyi , he might have exploded on the spot.

Xu Chu spread his hands and said, " We are all a guild. In fact, whether it is horses or equipment, the bonus is very average for the entire guild. It can only be said that it is better than nothing. Compared with the real reward, this thing is almost a symbol. "

" It's enough to just hang it there to let everyone know that Chenshi and Damaijianghu have the ability to complete world missions. It won't be used often, just like no one will drink water from the trophy. "

Ji Xuanyi actually knew all this, but he had been alone for too long and was a little confused for a while. After Xu Chu finished speaking, he understood.

" Speaking of which, the most unlucky ones are Mengtanggu, " Xuchu said, " Although I don't know how the points are calculated, they worked just as hard as Chenshi and Tamaijianghu, but in the end they got nothing. "

What is worrying is not the lack of income but the inequality of income. Even if Jian Xi Xinjiu himself doesn't care, the gang members of Meng Tanggu cannot be without any opinions. Xu Chu and Xiao Xiao Yuxia plan to take out a part of the gold coin rewards issued by the system to supplement the gang members of Meng Tanggu.

Although generally speaking no one would refuse money given to them by others, it is hard to say whether Jian Xi Xinjiu would agree given his personality. After all, it was agreed that the reward would be for fair competition, and now he is given a subsidy after he has finished the game. It is not surprising.

Xu Chu said calmly, " If he doesn't want it, then don't give it to him. Just give it to the gang members in Mengtanggu. I didn't pay for it to win him over in the first place. "

Sure, in this way, the three gang leaders of the three major gangs will become just supporting roles.

However, this is the business of the three major gangs. Although Mi Yin has been recruited, Ji Xuanyi is not one of them. He is too lazy to care about these things. After listening to them saying that the matter is almost over, he nodded and planned to take Qi Qin away.

" Ji Xuanyi. " Xu Chu called him.

Ji Xuan turned around: " What? "

Xu Chu rarely showed a serious expression: " Daytime City will not let it go like this. With Zuo An's temper, once Bancheng has gathered its forces, he will definitely attack Starry City directly. "

" It's not over yet. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " I understand. "

Ji Xuanyi played a certain role in promoting the confrontation between Fanxing City and Youri City. After all, at the beginning Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others were prepared to take only a basic reward. Now the two main cities have formed an opposition situation, which has a great impact on him. Ji Xuanyi must take responsibility and resolve the matter.

" I have already discussed this matter with Xiao Xiao Yu Xia, but you and Jian Xi Xin Jiu had not returned at that time, so I just briefly informed them, " Xu Chu said, " Tomorrow at noon, the three major gangs will hold a meeting at the inner city base, and you can come and participate then. "

" It doesn't matter if it's a meeting, but tomorrow at noon? " Ji Xuan said expressionlessly, " I'm afraid you won't be online until the evening? "

Gechu: " Ahem, well, I will try my best to overcome it, really. "

Xu Chu looked at Ji Xuanyi with sincere eyes.

Ji Xuanyi didn't believe the man's lies at all and sneered with disdain .

Xu Chu immediately said seriously: " I swear! I really won't cancel it! If I cancel it, I'll be a puppy! "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Oh, then you do your best. "

After saying this, without waiting for Xu Chu to react, Ji Xuanyi took Qi Qin away.

They haven't received their rewards yet and were just busy chatting with Xu Chu.

Because they came back late, most players had already claimed their rewards. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin did not encounter the same long queues as last time and got their rewards easily.

The rewards for this event were very generous. Several emails were sent out, including random gift package rewards for reaching the HE world line, universal basic rewards for completing world quests, two rewards for conquering the elves, and two rewards for conquering the dwarves.

Ji Xuanyi's luck was average, he was basically just an ordinary Asian, and he didn't get anything good from the random package. However, Qi Qin got a piece of black steel, and he finally completed his full body of light armor.

It seems that one third of Qi Qin's equipment was obtained by him from random packs, and he never failed. If Ji Xuanyi didn't know Qi Qin's true identity, he would have suspected that he was an insider of the game company.

Maybe this is what Europeans are like, I don't understand.

In addition to the random packages, other rewards include experience, favorability of the two races, gold coins, and material packages. There is a low probability of getting equipment. I heard that some people got equipment with special effects, but maybe their luck ran out. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin only got ordinary rewards. Although they didn't make any profit, it wasn't a loss either.

Although the revenge of Day City may come soon, no matter what, the world mission has finally been successfully completed, and Star City has temporarily returned to its usual tranquility.

Ji Xuanyi took Qi Qin around the city a few times in a very ordinary way, leveled up for a day, and then logged off.

Today's offline time can be said to be the earliest one in recent times. Ji Xuanyi sat up from the game cabin and didn't know what to do for a moment. After a while, he decided to go to the forum to read some gossip.

The world quest has just been completed. Although there are still one or two servers with unfinished quests, most of the servers, whether HE or BE , have basically completed the quests. The forum is very lively, with hot posts one after another, and it is impossible to read them all.

Ji Xuanyi was not so interested in the things happening on other servers. He screened the posts on server two, and the homepage could barely fit a few hot posts.

The top post is a detailed explanation of the world quest process of the second server. The person who posted it collected a lot of information, added his own understanding, and compiled it. Judging from the popularity, the person who wrote the post should be quite suitable for writing novels.

Because he missed some things, Ji Xuanyi was still curious about this post. When he was about to click on it, he saw another hot post below it.

[Second Server Gossip] Surprise! Two of the three major gangs in Star City have a relationship dispute! Why are the members of the alliance fighting in the streets?

Ji Xuanyi: " Poof!!! Cough cough cough ..."

Ji Xuanyi almost choked to death on his own saliva. What the hell was this? Xu Chu had just casually said something during the day, but how come it had become a hot topic in the evening!

Ji Xuanyi decisively abandoned the post about the detailed explanation of the world mission and clicked on the post about the emotional dispute between Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Jianxi Xinjiu.

Xu Chu's shout during the day was just to draw the crowd away. Normally, even if there were posts, it should be the onlookers complaining that someone had spread fake news and deceived their feelings! However, when Ji Xuan clicked on the post, he found that the onlookers really ate the melon!

The main problem was that Jing Yunhan shouted out the map in order to increase the credibility of the rumor. The onlookers took it seriously, and the people in the two gangs also took it seriously!

The people from the two gangs were all confused at first, but after thinking about it, they all felt a little panicked.

The gang members in the mortal world don't know that poor Jing Yunhan was cruelly betrayed by his brother during the mission, and now the relationship between the brothers has been damaged. They think that although Jing Yunhan, the gang leader, is a bit unreliable, his protectiveness towards Xiao Xiao Yuxia is real, and he shouldn't do anything rash about such things. It is very likely that Xiao Xiao Yuxia really got into trouble, and was forced by the gang leader of Mengtanggu to accept him (which wasn't the case). At this moment, everyone was excited and took their weapons and walked out.

The people in Mengtanggu were even more confused. They almost all knew that Jianxi Xinjiu was gay and his aesthetic standards. They thought that people like Xiaoxiao Yuxia should not be included in Jianxi Xinjiu's hunting range! It couldn't be that Jianxi Xinjiu suddenly learned to see the inner qualities of others!

No ... Xiaoxiao Yuxia's inner self is not that great!

In the end, everyone agreed that Jian Xi Xin Jiu might have relaxed his standards because he was anxious because he couldn't find a partner ... No matter what, this matter could be true! In order to prevent Jian Xi Xin Jiu from harming the cute boy again – bah! For the life of the gang leader! Let Xiao Xiao Yu Xia, who is not very good at heart, sacrifice himself! The gang members of Meng Tanggu also went out!

At that time, Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Jianxi Xinjiu were still watching the plot triggered by Madam Harman carefully with Ji Xuanyi and others, and did not notice the movement in the guild channel at all. By the time they found out, the people from Mengtanggu and Chenshi had already started fighting!

The onlookers rushed to the place Xu Chu mentioned and saw the members of the Chenshi Gang and the Mengtanggu Gang fighting each other. Since these two groups belonged to the same three major gang alliances, they couldn't really use knives or guns to kill people and send them back to the resurrection point, so they fought with bare hands and rolled on the ground like street thugs.

It looks more like the fight was caused by an emotional dispute!

As a result, by the time Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Jianxi Xinjiu arrived to separate the two groups, the matter could no longer be explained. Everyone had already spread the word, and everyone knew about the entanglement between Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Jianxi Xinjiu where I love you but you don't love me.

When he heard about Jian Xi Xin Jiu, he almost vomited blood on the spot. His emotions fluctuated to the point that he was kicked offline by the security system. He even failed to come online three times in a row. He was deeply shocked and became depressed.

Of course, the above are the truths that Ji Xuanyi guessed after reading the post. In fact, this post described the incident from a completely misunderstanding perspective, but it basically represents the perspective of most people who watch the incident.

The most terrifying part is the part where Jian Xi Xin Jiu was about to be offline. It was described as " Xiao Xiao Yu Xia rushed to the scene and once again sternly rejected Jian Xi Xin Jiu. Jian Xi Xin Jiu felt heartbroken and depressed after trying so hard but still couldn't make the other party fall in love with him. His emotions fluctuated so much that he was forcibly kicked offline by the security system. He even went online three times in a row to try to keep Xiao Xiao Yu Xia but failed. It can be said that anyone who heard it was heartbroken and anyone who saw it cried! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Apart from the two names of the parties involved and the six words " emotional fluctuations are too great " , there is basically nothing that can match the truth of the matter. It's too tragic, really, worse than six days ...

Jian Xi Xin Jiu, at your level, why bother to offend Xu Chu!

Ji Xuanyi could only look at the responses from passers-by who sympathized with Jian Xi Xinjiu and said that feelings cannot be forced. He let out a long sigh, hoping that Jian Xi Xinjiu would not suffer too great a blow.

Ji Xuanyi closed the post about poor Jian Xi Xin Jiu and turned to look at the post about detailed explanation of world quests.

The author of this post made it very clear at the beginning that the information was collected from relatives and friends in various main cities, and he also specifically asked many strangers who participated in the war. Although he can guarantee that the information he compared from multiple sources is absolutely reliable, the details are incomplete after all, and he can only rely on himself to supplement. If there is a discrepancy between the actual situation and the actual situation, friends who know the situation can send him a private message to correct it. For such a large event involving the struggle of multiple forces, he will definitely record it in the most detailed sentences to make this post one of the treasures of the forum!

The ambition is quite big and there are quite a lot of people supporting him. Ji Xuanyi continued to read on.

The author of this post wrote the stories in the order of the main city and completing the map tasks, starting from the most inconspicuous and least noticed place. The very beginning was about Youyue City's attack on the claustrophobic sea realm. It was written in such a magnificent and fascinating way, including the later commander of Youyue City and the leader of the gang [God's Children Can Dance] who thought that the mermaids had mermaids and willingly exchanged his innocence for the mermaid alliance, only to find that the mermaids were all men and then retreated in defeat. The psychological journey of these stories was written very clearly, which made people amazed.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

It is definitely impossible for the author of this post to interview the leader of the [God's Children Can Dance] gang, let alone know what the leader did alone in the mermaid tribe and his psychological activities. The detailed description is all bullshit!

However, quite a few people actually enjoy this nonsense, and they all say it is exciting and awesome, and they hope to keep going!

The ambitions of this OP are totally fake!

But to be honest, apart from the psychological part, what the OP described in a relatively objective way is indeed true. Just as he said, it is the information closest to the truth that has been verified and compared from many sources. Many people said below that although they don't know what the situation is with the gang leader, most of the plot is exactly the same as their experience of completing the task.

For example, the map of the Claustrophobic Sea is all water as soon as you enter it, all the mermaids are men, and the team from Youyue City is scattered like dumplings as soon as they enter the water, and a few people who can't swim almost drink the sea dry ... and so on.

Youyue City was not easy either. Although the BOSS settings were simpler than those in other maps taking the players' own abilities into consideration, the underwater activities alone were very difficult. So Youyue City still organized a swimming team in advance and conducted a week of swimming training and underwater positioning, only then did they manage to complete the task in the last few days.

Unfortunately, they were all killed by the Sun City along the way and were forced back to the resurrection point, with only a few assassins escaping.

After the Youyue City chapter ended, many people expressed their regrets and felt that Youyue City was too pitiful. They had worked so hard and carefully completed only one map's task, but just because they blocked the way of the bully Youri City, they all lost a level in vain. They were simply the weakest among the three main cities in the second server!

How can I say this? This description is actually quite appropriate. This is roughly how Youyue City is positioned among the three main cities.

After finishing writing about Youyue City, the author started writing about Yueri City, which sent everyone in Youyue City back home. The strategies for the Centaurs and Winged People were similar to that of the Elves, so Ji Xuanyi just flipped through it casually. The author's story about Yueri City came to an abrupt end when he wrote about how after they completed two tasks, they set their sights on the second task of Fanxing City, which prompted everyone below to urge for more updates.

The author of the post updated even faster, but did not continue writing about the events in the Sun City. Instead, he turned to write about the Starry City, still starting from the beginning.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Suddenly I had a bad feeling.

" He came walking on the shoulders of the crowd, holding a slender beauty in his arms.

People kept reaching out their hands, trying to grab him, but they couldn't. The beauty raised her hands to hold his broad and strong shoulders, looking at him lovingly. He lowered his head, smiled evilly, and under the gaze of the crowd, he lowered his head and kissed the other person's rosy and soft lips. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi: " ??? "

Who am I? Where am I? What did I just watch? ? ?

Ji · Beauty · Xuanyi, now, immediately, right now, the host of this post must kneel down and apologize!

However, no matter how furious Ji Xuanyi was, he couldn't crawl over along the Internet cable and beat someone up. He could only quietly close the webpage, take a deep breath – take a deep breath – take a deep breath – OK, you can open it and continue watching.

What the hell are these?!

Ji Xuanyi felt like his eyes were going blind!

Ji Xuan watched that segment several times with an expressionless face. He was totally unable to reconcile Qi Qin's image with the so-called "evil smile" in it. The author's writing was too outrageous!

We must strip away all his rhetoric, leaving only one sentence: "One person carried another person and ran over everyone's shoulders." This is the truth!

However, everyone seems to be quite happy to see the author's technique? Everyone is shouting below, wow, so sweet, so cute~

Some people questioned that the original poster had made up too much, saying that such plots were all from TV dramas. Even in a holographic online game, it was impossible to run on someone's shoulders. However, the original poster stated very firmly that this scene was true and many people had seen it. Players from Star City who were present at the time also came out to support the original poster, saying that they had indeed seen it or heard about it. This person also showed up later and was indeed an awesome master. It was normal for him to be able to run on someone's shoulders.

With so many Star City players testifying that such an outrageous plot is true, everyone believes the poster's description even more.

Many people asked the poster below who were the couple kissing in public. Fortunately, the poster said he didn't know and did not post the ID of the beauty Ji Xuanyi. Otherwise, Ji Xuanyi would probably try his best to find the poster and then send him back to the Novice Village.

Someone on the lower floors said that the leaders of the three major guilds should know these two people. Xiao Xiao Yuxia originally said that he would introduce these two people to them after the mission was completed, but after returning, he threw the matter to Xu Chu, and then the poor Star City players were left hanging by Xu Chu indefinitely until now ...

I don't know which city this OP is from, but he has a great passion for Qi Qin and the " beauties " around him! The first two main cities are clearly described well, but when it comes to Fanxing City, it's simply Qi Qin's personal biography, with all kinds of bosses being torn apart with bare hands and stepped on with feet, even more so than Long Aotian, Ji Xuanyi can't even tell that the person he is writing about is Qi Qin!

The others were screaming as they watched. Ji Xuanyi, one of the prototypes, was a little overwhelmed and quickly fast-forwarded the part he knew to see what happened after he left. Not long after Ji Xuanyi left, Fanxing City and Yueri City had a head-on confrontation. The author of this post had previously written about a sneak attack by Yueri City, but Ji Xuanyi's original plan was to prevent being discovered by Yueri City's spies, so not everyone knew about it. The author of this post probably didn't ask, so he wrote it very vaguely, half guessing and half guessing. He only said that after the battle, somehow, Fanxing City's magic soldiers descended from the sky and drove away Yueri City's sneak attack team.

Similarly, the author of this post did not clearly write about the details of Xu Chu's treatment of Yueri City after Ji Xuanyi left. When Yueri City was fighting against Fanxing City, the most important thing he described was the battle between Xue Piao Renjian and Qi Qin, using the style of martial arts novels, and the reunion of Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin.

The only game screenshot in the entire post appears here – Xue Piao Renjian is riding on a horse, leaning down, and Mi Yin raises her head and moves towards him.

A very gay screenshot. The poster even went so far as to add beauty and love effects to it.

"They finally met again, but they were in opposing camps. They couldn't help but be moved, but they had to endure it. They could only stop time at this moment and sigh that things have changed –"

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi decisively closed the entire forum. If he comes in again next time, he will be a puppy! When Ji Xuanyi came online the next day, he had two dark circles under his eyes.

Qi Qin followed him nervously and asked, "Xuan Yi, what happened to you? Are you okay? You look so haggard."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

It's all fucking because of you!

Ji Xuan turned around and beat Qi Qin violently!

Thanks to that post, Ji Xuanyi had a nightmare about Qi Qin's evil smile the whole night yesterday. It was strange that he could sleep well.

Qi Qin, who was suddenly beaten: "QAQ ???"

What did he do wrong again?

Ji Xuanyi had a gloomy face. He took Qi Qin to complete a mission and then returned to the inner city.

Before going to the base for the meeting, Ji Xuanyi also went to the Mage Tower and heard a player inside say that August had become very strange today. He didn't curse anyone, and not only didn't curse anyone, but he also looked very happy! He even answered the question incorrectly, but he actually got a little favorability – this was the first time he got a favorability after entering the city for so long! It was really rare! In addition, a stranger appeared next to August. I don't know if it has something to do with August's change of temperament.

Ji Xuanyi knew as soon as he heard it. They were talking about Madam Harman. It was normal for August to be in a better mood. However, Madam Harman would not stay in Star City for a few days. She would return to Xinmu Town in a few days. I hope these players can seize the opportunity and gain more favorability points ...

After greeting August and his daughter, Ji Xuanyi went to the inner city stronghold. Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Jianxi Xinjiu were already waiting there. Except that the latter was a little listless and sat in the place farthest away from Xiaoxiao Yuxia, there was nothing unusual at the scene. Of course, this normality included Xu Chu's lateness .

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin picked a place to sit down and ate two plates of fruit before Xu Chu finally arrived .

Ji Xuanyi chose a seat and sat right opposite the door, looking at Xu Chu who pushed open the door with a smile.

Xu Chu: "... Woof?"

Ji Xuanyi: "If you can keep talking like this all day long."

Xu Chu touched his nose and said shamelessly: "Isn't there a saying that sometimes, to doff is also a way of not doffing--"

Ji Xuanyi said coldly: " If you don't want to listen, shut up. "

Xu Chu: "... Okay. "

Xu Chu walked in and sat down next to Liu Tian.

Liu Tian looked like he was asking for a fight, and he pulled the corner of his mouth and said to Xu Chu: " What's the matter? Didn't you bring your two bodyguards today? You also know that he is an undercover agent of Day City? Tsk~ "

Xu Chu glanced at him and said, " It's always bad to let confidential information leak out. After all, they are not as safe as you. "

Hearing this, everyone looked over here in shock.

Liu Tian was also stunned for a moment, probably because it was the first time he was praised after being with Xu Chu for such a long time. It took him a long time to react. Just as he put on a smug expression and was about to praise Xu Chu for finally realizing his reliability, he heard Xu Chu smiling and saying, " You are so safe. You wouldn't understand even if I told you a secret right in front of you. "

Liu Tian: "... Fuck you!!! "

Xu Chu: " Stupid. "

Six days: " Uh ...

Everyone withdrew their gazes with peace of mind. Okay, the familiar script, it was the original Xu Chu, and his account had not been hacked ...

After the internal strife in the Tamajang world was over, everyone started the meeting.

It was Ji Xuanyi's first time attending a meeting of the three major gangs. He leaned back in his chair and watched Xiao Xiaoyu carefully pulling out a notebook from her backpack. He said, " The first problem we need to solve today is the possible counterattack that Day City might take, the possible time, location, strategy, and the response methods we need to take. Now, let's start with the time. "

As soon as Xiaoxiao Yuxia finished speaking, Jing Yunhan instantly raised his hand high.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia: "... Okay, Jing Yunhan, you go first. "

Jing Yunhan stood up and said crisply, " We have killed Zuo'an and sent him back home. The strongest weapon Xue Piao Renjian has also joined us. Shouldn't he be hiding in Dayo City now? Who gave him the courage to cause trouble for us? "

Xiao Xiao Yu held her forehead with her hand and said, " I understand. Jing Yunhan's speaking time will be reduced by one. Please sit down. "

Jing Yunhan sat down in a heroic and arrogant manner, looking very impressive, which confused Ji Xuanyi. Before Xiao Xiaoyuxia could say anything, Ji Xuanyi raised his hand and said, " What is the speaking count? "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Xiao Xiao Yu coughed and chatted with Ji Xuanyi privately: " Because Xiao Han and Liu Tian made too many meaningless remarks, but they are the gang leaders and cannot be excluded from the meeting, so they are stipulated to only talk nonsense three times. After each talk, they will be reduced. After the reduction, they will shut up and cannot speak again. "

Seeing Ji Xuanyi's puzzled expression, Xiao Xiao Yuxia added: " Don't worry, they will be able to use up these three chances within five minutes, so they won't waste too much time. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

No, if that's the case, then what on earth is Jing Yunhan so proud of?

Soon Ji Xuanyi found out why Jing Yunhan behaved so awesomely.

Xiao Xiaoyu explained to him with a smile: " In order to ensure fairness in speaking, everyone has three chances to speak. As long as the speech is meaningful and will be included in the scope of the battle plan, one speech will be reduced. "

Jing Yunhan looked at Ji Xuanyi triumphantly.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

If Jing Yunhan ever becomes as stupid as Liu Tian, it must be Xiao Xiao Yuxia's own fault!

Ji Xuanyi waited for five minutes, and Jing Yunhan and Liu Tian finished talking endlessly about the stupid things they wanted to say. Then they sat in their seats without saying anything, with an intoxicated expression as if they were so awesome.

Ji Xuan looked at Xu Chu and found that the latter was almost asleep. Xiao Xiaoyu patted the table and he woke up. He said, " Huh? Has it started? "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was so upset that she said, " It's only been a short while and you've already fallen asleep. "

Xu Chu glanced at Ji Xuanyi quietly and said, " I came early today. "

Ji Xuanyi scratched his ears and said, " Excuse me, what did you say? "

Xu Chu: "... I was late for a shorter time today . "

Ji Xuanyi laughed and stopped talking.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia coughed and said, " Time. "

This time it's a serious discussion.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " It may be after the next update, if Bancheng's appeal is strong enough. "

Updates mean that new systems and functions will be opened, or there may be new plots. Any new one will attract the attention of most players. Just like when the new wild map was opened before, many people ran outside as soon as they came online. The entire Star City almost became an empty city. At this time, it is also the time when the internal defense of Star City is the weakest. Even if the people from the three major gangs can obey orders and assemble, individual players cannot control them.

If you say that Yaori City is coming to attack us, will they come? I listened to you and stayed in the city. What should I do if they didn't come? What should I do if I didn't explore the update immediately and I missed equipment or tasks? Even if I stay and they come, how powerful will the Sanren be?

What's more, there will be some casual people who think that your three major gangs are the largest gangs in Fanxing City, and you have responsibilities after enjoying the reputation. Your responsibility is to protect Fanxing City? If you can't do it, what's the use of you?

Although these mentality are a bit strange, it must be said that the game is free, and it is their own right to play the game whether the individual obeys orders or not. The three major gangs have no right to interfere, not to mention that the defense is so passive, and the three major gangs themselves may not be able to completely If you exert your own strength, what can you ask of Sanren?

The opening of the new system will definitely mean that the power of Star City will be weakened. This is absolutely unavoidable. As long as Zuo An uses his brain a little, he will definitely think of this and then choose this time to launch an attack on Star City.

After Ji Xuanyi finished speaking, Xu Chu raised his eyebrows and said, " This is the disadvantage of not being there. If you had fought with Zuo An, you wouldn't have such speculation. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and looked up at Xiao Xiaoyu.

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia also smiled and said, " What you said does make sense. We need to pay attention to the period after the update, but Zuo An may not wait until then to attack. "

After hearing Xiao Xiao Yu Xia's words, Ji Xuanyi showed a look of realization and said, " This person's personality is not very good. "

Xiao Xiaoyu was ashamed. It was strange to hear these words from Ji Xuanyi's mouth.

Xu Chu said: " Yes, Zuo An is almost a combination of Jing Yunhan and Liu Tian, and his personality is very bad. Hmm ... his temper is a bit similar to yours? "

Ji Xuan looked at Xu Chu expressionlessly.

Xu Chu laughed dryly and said, " No, no, he's more exposed and explosive. Anyway, he definitely doesn't have the patience to wait until the game is updated like you said. "

" I am more inclined to believe that he will rush over to us immediately after assembling the team, " Xu Chu said, " The problem now is that we can't tell when he will finish assembling the team. After all, this involves whether his ultimate goal is to destroy the three major gangs or the entire Lunbai Fanxing City, as well as whether his appeal in Dayo City is strong or weak. "

Xu Chu spread his hands and said, " Actually, anyone who has been in Day City should know the answer to this question. Unfortunately, after discovering that the three main cities are opposites, each city has imposed martial law on the other two cities. They would rather kill the wrong people than let them go, so it is impossible to get in at all. "

After saying that, Xu Chu looked at Ji Xuanyi.

He knew that Ji Xuanyi knew people in Youri City. When Ji Xuanyi was selecting the map for the world mission, he got the information directly from asking. He should be able to do it now.

Ji Xuan didn't even look at him, and said perfunctorily: " I deleted you as a friend, and I can't contact you anymore. "

Of course Xu Chu didn't believe it, but he just smiled and said nothing.

Ji Xuanyi did not delete Wan Shi and Feng Yu as friends. The reason he refused was because he felt that it was a matter of principle to inquire about intelligence.

When he asked about the map before, he wanted to avoid the choice of Day City. The purpose was for the world mission, and the impact was just to delay the time when the two main cities would meet. But this time, if he asked when Day City would attack, it would directly affect the head-on battle between the two main cities. It is not easy to get words from Wanshi Shengyi, but Ji Xuanyi never thought of letting the two of Wanshi Fengyu sell out their main cities and become traitors under such circumstances.

Xu Chu looked at Xiao Xiao Yuxia, spread his hands, and said, " Then there is no way. It is probably difficult to fix the time. After all, we can't guess what people like Zuo An are thinking. "

Xu Chu recalled that he designed the Sun City but no one found them after waiting for a long time. He sighed, " There's nothing I can do. Their brain circuits are not on the same line. It's really too difficult to guess their ideas. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia sighed and said, " Then we can only send a few people who have time to observe their movements outside of Daylight City. It will take more than half a day to march from Daylight City to Star City. With short legs, it will take more than a day, which is enough time for us to take simple precautions. "

Xu Chu thought for a moment and said, " We also need to pay attention to the time point proposed by Ji Xuanyi. Zuo An is such an idiot. It's not easy to organize such a large gang with money alone. I suspect he may have a helper with an IQ above the normal level, but I don't know why he didn't go with him during the world mission. "

" If that person decides to help Zuo An this time, this battle won't be so easy. "

Chapter 100

What they were afraid of was not that they could not guess Zuo An's godly train of thought , but that they really guessed Zuo An's next reaction – that meant that the person behind Zuo An had decided to take action.

Facing the former , although it would be a bit hasty to fight when there is no advance preparation , the level of Zuo An is there . Any one of Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu can drive him and his troops out ten miles. As for the latter, even if you can guess it, the effect of advance preparation will not be much better.

For example, as Ji Xuanyi pointed out, " a period of time after the game is updated " , if the opponent really attacks at this time , Fanxing City will not be able to come up with any good defense plan for the time being.

" If the opponent's appeal is really that strong, and he can lead people to attack Star City during this period of time after the game update , then we will definitely not have the advantage in terms of numbers , " Xu Chu pondered, " We can only make up for it tactically. "

Xiaoxiao took out a charcoal pencil in the rain and wrote and drew on the small notebook.

Ji Xuanyi said: " Without targeted tactics , all efforts will be ineffective. Before we know exactly what actions the other party will take, we can postpone discussing this issue. "

Xu Chu shrugged and said, " It's just a preparatory meeting anyway , just a casual chat. When we have finished discussing the time, either after the update or after organizing the Sun City staff , what is the next question? "

Nowadays, most people use keyboards to write . Handwriting is still difficult , not to mention the players' homemade charcoal pencils . Xiao Xiaoyuxia wrote on the notebook for a long time, sweating profusely, and finally finished writing. He looked up and said, " Next is the location, which is where the first large-scale battle may take place. In which district do you think it may be? "

" Which district? Are you stupid? It must be outside Star City. "

" Tsk, outside Star City. "

Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu said at the same time.

Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu looked at each other, and Ji Xuanyi sneered, " If the first battle takes place in the city, the three major gangs can be disbanded directly. "

Xiao Xiaoyu was startled for a moment, then reacted, smiled helplessly, and said, " That's true. "

Xu Chu said: " Not only the first battle, if we ever bring the battlefield into the city, it will prove that we have reached the most difficult situation. I think it is best to resolve it outside the city. Although the terrain and resurrection points in the city are more familiar to us, God knows whether the buildings will be affected. Even if not, it will be a blow to morale. "

Xu Chu touched his chin and said, " At least I will think that the three major gangs are useless. If someone attacks us at home, then we can save our reputation again— "

" The three major gangs can only lead their people and fight back to Day City, right? " Xiao Xiaoyu said helplessly.

Xu Chu sighed and said, " It's exhausting to travel such a long distance and mobilize so many troops. Let's try to solve the problem in one go outside the city. It would be best if we can defeat that little idiot Zuo An. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu couldn't help but said: " Please don't call that Zuo An a little idiot, okay? It sounds weird. "

Xu Chu smiled and said, " There is no other way. Even if it is that idiot, he can't surpass Liu Tian in the idiot ranking in my mind. "

Six days: "..."

Liu Tian stared at Xu Chu with his eyeballs almost popping out, but the three times he had promised to speak had already been used up. Liu Tian was a man who cared too much about his reputation, so even if Xu Chu pointed at his nose and scolded him, he would try his best to hold back and not talk back.

As if he could win the argument by talking back ...

Xuchu: " Lululu, scold me. "

Six days: "..."

Liu Tian was almost crying because of anger!

The other people present were all frowning. Why did Xu Chu's IQ drop sharply when he was together with others? Could he ever be a normal person?

Xiao Xiao Yuxia coughed and said, " The three main cities form a triangle. If you walk from the main road of Daytime City to Star City, you will generally enter the city from the southwest, which is the area under the jurisdiction of your Ta Ma Jiang Hu. If you want to control the battlefield outside the city, then there is a wild area in the southwest. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu blinked and said, " Isn't that not far from where we had the gang war before ? "

 " But the scale is definitely much larger than that time, " Xu Chu said nostalgically, " This is no longer the same battle between two or three hundred people playing house. I guess that piece of open space now can't even accommodate the people from the three major gangs, right? "

Ji Xuanyi ignored his sudden feelings. What was there to miss about that battle? It was just a random fight. The Wanzhi Gang was annoying enough.

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly, " It's just that the main road leads to the southwest entrance. As for which direction Sun City will come from, it depends on how much they know about Star City and the three major gangs. "

Xu Chu was stunned for a moment, then reacted and said, " You mean the Northwest District? " There are four districts in Fanxing City. The southeast district is guarded by Chenshi, the southwest district is the Jianghu, the northeast district is Mengtanggu, and there is only one northwest district. No gang has ever been stationed there. Even when the Wanzhi Gang was there, all their members were scattered throughout Fanxing City, not to mention after the Wanzhi Gang was disbanded and the alliance of the three major gangs was established. No gang dares to station in the Northwest District in a high-profile manner, because that would mean that they are on the same level as the three major gangs stationed in the other three districts. Although the leaders of the three major gangs do not care about this, in the eyes of other individual gangs, this action is tantamount to provocation, and no one with a little bit of intelligence would do it.

Therefore, until now, there has been no stronger gang stationed in the northwest region, and even there are not many weak individual gangs. It can be said that this is the direction with the weakest defense force in Star City.

At this point, Xiao Xiaoyu wiped her face and couldn't help but say in a somewhat collapsed tone: " When I think about it, it feels like our Fanxing City is full of holes. It's like a fucking sieve, with holes here and there. "

Ji Xuanyi ate a piece of fruit calmly.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu comforted him, " Think positively. Maybe Dayo City doesn't know about this. "

" Oh, oh, " Xu Chu smiled and said, " Wash the sword with new wine, and the number of speeches will be reduced by one. "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

" There's no need to send anyone to investigate this kind of thing. Just think about it and you know that three gangs can't manage four districts, especially when they are allies of three gangs that have fought gang wars before, " Xu Chu said calmly, " The jurisdiction of the fourth district will easily cause conflicts no matter how it is divided. For the sake of internal peace, we can only leave it there and no one will take care of it. "

For some reason, Jing Yunhan, who had been quiet for a long time, suddenly twisted his body excitedly, his eyes shining, and he looked at Xiao Xiaoyuxia eagerly.

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Xu Chu looked at Jing Yunhan with a kind look and said, " Go ahead. If you say this today, you will lose your three chances at the next meeting. "

Jing Yunhan was stunned for a moment, probably because he felt that his discovery was truly shocking. After making a choice, he decided to continue twisting.

Xiao Xiao Yu held her forehead with her hand and said, " You say. "

Jing Yunhan immediately shouted: " Each main city has four districts and an inner city. If our three gangs have one flaw, then they have three! "

Xu Chuqing couldn't help but applaud: " Excellent! "

Xiao Xiao looked at her cousin in despair, wondering why he was so stupid. Could it be that when they were doing world quests outside, he and Liu Tian played together for a long time and got infected? !

Xiaoxiao Yuxia, wake up. Your brother isn't that smart anyway.

But there was nothing he could do. The fool was also his brother. Xiao Xiao Yuxia still managed to smile and said, " Excellent. Then the three chances for the next meeting have been used up. There won't be a next time. "

Although Jing Yunhan felt a little regretful, he was able to contribute his intelligence ... pah, strength to Fanxing City, so he didn't care about competing for so many personal honors.

Of course, the Bancheng Gang would not have three flaws. As it can serve as the representative of the entire Yueri City, it must control the jurisdiction of the entire Yueri City, not to mention the four outer cities, even the inner city belongs to them. In addition to the three major gangs in Fanxing City, the gangs are called Sanren Gangs. Half of Yueri City is full of Sanren Gangs. Xiaoxiao Yuxia even suspects that Bancheng has already established branch gangs.

it would be more accurate to say that the [God's Children Are Dancing] in Youyue City has three flaws.

Xiaoxiao looked at Ji Xuanyi in the rain.

Ji Xuanyi said, " The northwest area is indeed an easy target for a breakthrough, but won't your spies go outside of Sun City to observe the situation? There is no teleportation in this game, so no matter which direction they go, they will be discovered. It all depends on whether we can react quickly enough to make all preparations before they reach Star City. "

" But it is true that the Northwest District needs to mobilize manpower in advance, " Xu Chu said, We can send the Knights to hang out outside the Northwest District entrance whenever " ,Although there are not many of them .we want they are the most powerful profession in PVP right now, and they are also highly mobile, so it's better than nothing. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia thought for a moment and said, " There are two directions. One is the southwest area, which is the shortest distance and suitable for a surprise attack. The other is the northwest area, which is the weakest in defense and suitable for a siege. "

Xu Chu said: " Don't worry too much about the Southwest District. The Daming Jianghu is already the strongest of the three major gangs. We usually pay attention to it. Even if we gather together, we won't be much stronger. There is no need to waste time. Just focus on the Northwest District. "

Although Xu Chu asked for a beating for saying this in front of Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Jianxi Xinjiu, even Jing Yunhan had to admit that Xu Chu was right. With his financial resources, unless Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Jianxi Xinjiu suddenly found out that they were the wandering sons of a Fortune 500 company, Chenshi and Mengtanggu would have almost no chance of catching up with Tama Jianghu's strength.

However, Xiaoxiao Yuxia didn't care about these things at this time. He hoped that the other two gangs would become as strong as possible. There were many loopholes inside and outside the Star City. If any of them could not be plugged, it would be easy for the Sun City to take advantage of them. In this case, it is better to have an ally that is stronger than oneself than an ally that is weaker than oneself.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia wrote down the words in the notebook, and said to Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu: " The last part is the speculation on the attack method of Day City and the formulation of specific corresponding strategies. "

" Didn't I say that? " Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " If you don't know the other party's specific plan, any countermeasures will be ineffective and a waste of time. "

" And I don't think Day City will need any countermeasures, " Xu Chu said, " They are still stronger than us right now. As long as they react quickly enough to the situation, our chances of winning a head-on battle are very low, and we will most likely be forced to move the battle inside the city. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said helplessly: " It's okay to just make a random guess, just like predicting the test questions before an exam. You have to predict whether you will get it right or not. What if you get it right? "

Ji Xuanyi: " Tsk, what a waste of time. "

Xuchu: " No, I'm lazy. "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "... Okay, you guys are awesome, you have the final say. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Instead of spending time guessing in meetings, it would be more useful for you to study the terrain inside and outside the city and the area covered by the resurrection points. "

Xu Chu said: " Or we can practice the coordination of the main force. "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Xiao Xiaoyu looked confused and said, " No, why do all the problems seem to be happening to me again? "

Xu Chu said weakly, " Why don't you ask Jian Xixinjiu for help? If you are not afraid that Liu Tian is unreliable, you can ask him for help. Jing Yunhan ... Forget about Jing Yunhan, he seems useless. "

Upon hearing this, Jing Yunhan glared at Xu Chu.

Xu Chu showed an expression of sudden enlightenment: " Oh! It works! When testing the resurrection point, you can let him and Liu Tian help you die. They are all noobs anyway, so it doesn't matter how many levels they lose. Don't feel bad about it. "

Jing Yunhan: "..."

Six days: "..."

What roles do these two people play in Xu Chu's heart? ? ?

Jing Yunhan and Liu Tian sat in their seats, unable to speak. They could only stare wide-eyed, wishing they could stare Xu Chu to death.

Ji Xuan saw the excitement and said without thinking: " You two can't talk, but you can move. What are you doing? Get up and beat him. Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin are not here. "

Xu Chu's face changed, Liu Tian and Jing Yunhan showed expressions of sudden enlightenment, they took out their weapons and stood up.

Although people always say that these two are noobs, Xu Chu himself is actually not that sharp. Not to mention Jing Yunhan, who is a person at the bottom of the strength scale. Xu Chu and Liu Tian are barely on par with each other, but given their professions, if they really fight, Xu Chu will still be pinned to the ground.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia hurriedly called a halt and said, " That's it for today, that's it, let's adjourn the meeting! "

Upon hearing this, Xu Chu immediately turned around and ran out. Jing Yunhan and Liu Tian chased after him, one after the other. In less than two minutes, the two men came back dejectedly.

Xiaoxiaoyu cast his eyes away, and Liutian said with a sour face: " Fuck, Xuepiaorenjian and Mi Yin are outside. "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Ji Xuan was only there to help with ideas, he couldn't help with specific matters. Even with Qi Qin, his fighting ability was only useful in one-on-one situations, such as when Xue Piao Renjian was still in the Dayo City camp.

When it comes to group battles, Qi Qin's strength can only be reflected in his equipment. After all, he can always hit someone with one slash of his sword, so his moves are not that important. Xiaoxiao Yuxia took a few other people to investigate the resurrection point and terrain outside the city, and Ji Xuanyi took Qi Qin to upgrade.

Xu Chu and Xiao Xiao Yuxia were hoping that Zuo An would bring people over as soon as possible, the sooner the better. Unfortunately, things did not go as they wished, and they had to wait for more than half a month.

Madam Harman left Starry City and returned to New Wood Town. August regained his previous weird temper. Everyone who went to him to improve his favor was scolded. If you are not careful, you will be put on the blacklist and cannot enter the Mage Tower for several days.

As soon as Ji Xuanyi reached level 57, he acquired another new skill that could dispel enemy BUFF and friendly DEBUFF . However, because Qi Qin was too sharp, it was of little use for the time being, just like his other auxiliary skills.

In addition, there are suddenly more and more new players entering Star City recently, and the three major gangs are discussing to form an alliance gang to fill the defense of the northwest area.

At first, Ji Xuanyi didn't quite understand why the number of players in Fanxing City suddenly increased, until Jian Xi Xinjiu stared at him with strange eyes several times and pinned him to the ground and rubbed him before he found out the truth.

became a hit due to its real research, bold speculation, and stimulating writing style !

Since Fanxing City defeated the strong with the weak, it is the main city with the most outstanding performance in the world missions, and Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin are also in Fanxing City. In addition, the author of that post described Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi from all aspects. Almost all new players are full of expectations for Fanxing City, hoping to occasionally encounter the various great players mentioned in the post in this main city with outstanding people and beautiful scenery.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Although no one knew it was him, but thinking about so many people seeing the shocking scenes written by that stupid OP, Ji Xuanyi couldn't suppress his anger and his lungs were about to explode!

Qi Qin was still confused, but Jian Xi Xin Jiu smiled bitterly and consoled him, " You are doing well in the world. At least you don't have a big name, so you are not the worst. "

The worst hit were Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin, and because many new players searched for the second server, Fanxing City, Jian Xi Xin Jiu and Xiao Xiao Yu Xia, which were also pushed up to the top of the gossip posts.

Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin already have a lot of fans, including a large number of fans. When they knew that Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin reunited in Fanxing City, how could they not come to see it!

That day, Xiaoxiao Yuxia said that during recent patrols, he found that many people had the same gang logo. He wondered if a gang of independent people was about to rise. He asked everyone whether they should support it and send it to the northwest area, or to prevent it from affecting the status of the three major gangs, they should just break it up.

The exciting part happened. Everyone went to check out the gang and found out that its name was [Xue Mi] .

Snowfall: "..."

Mi Yin's face turned green!

Although Xiaoxiao Yuxia felt that this gang could be supported, after all, the existence of Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin meant that the execution and trustworthiness of this gang would be very high, but he was also a person who had been rumored to have scandals, so he could understand Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin to some extent. Later, everyone unanimously decided to pretend that they didn't know about this gang and let them go. If they could grow, they would be thrown to the Northwest District, and if they couldn't grow, forget it.

Actually, this is not so bad. After all, Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian are used to this kind of scene. Mi Yin's face just turned green for a moment, and then he sighed and said " let it go " to everyone . What is most intolerable is the match made in heaven, Jian Xi Xin Jiu and Xiao Xiao Yu Xia!

Jian Xi Xin Jiu showed a bitter smile and said, " You know what? Whenever I walk on the street, there are always various boys and girls encouraging me and helping me get out of trouble as soon as possible. The last time Xiao Xiao Yu Xia and I discussed the range of the resurrection point, we were surrounded by people and almost thought we were in love. I had to let Xiao Xiao Yu Xia reject me ' again ', wuwuwu ..."

As Jian Xi Xin Jiu was talking, he covered his face and burst into tears, his sobs mixed with reluctance to give up his own reputation and heartache.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

In this comparison, apart from Liu Tian, Jing Yunhan and Xu Chu, he and Qi Qin are indeed the ones in the best situation.

For the first time, Ji Xuanyi's anger subsided on its own .

Ji Xuanyi patted Jian Xinxinjiu's shoulder and said, " Live strong. "

Jian Xi drank the new wine and burst into tears with a " wow " .

As they waited day by day, the people of Star City welcomed yet another game update. Until this time, Zuo An had not come, it seemed that Ji Xuanyi's prediction had come true. Although the usability of the resurrection point and the surrounding terrain has been determined, the chances of winning should not be too low, but the day before the update was released, Xiaoxiao Yuxia was still praying, hoping that the update would not be too far away from the main city and would not distract the players too much.

Maybe Xiao Xiao Yu's words were too poisonous, and the update released the next day was to open upgrade tasks for the five major wild maps and reputation tasks for the five races.

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Not to mention other individual players, even he himself, after hearing that the updated content is these, would like to check it out as soon as it goes online!

On the day the update was completed and launched, looking at the empty Starry City, Xiao Xiaoyu fell to the ground like a dead person, his eyes were empty, his expression was blank, and he kept repeating: " It's cold, it's cold, it's cold ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

This person probably won't get better.

Jing Yunhan tried to pull his brother up for a long time but failed. He said hesitantly, " It's a new mission. This is the first time that the forces for the reputation mission are clearly marked. Is it possible that the people from Day City also want to do it? Maybe they won't come now? "

Xu Chu touched his chin and said, " That's possible. "

All they know about Zuo An now is that he is stupid, annoying, and hateful. When faced with the new map mission, it is hard to say whether he will put his revenge aside, go and take a look, and then come back to fight after he is done.

Xu Chu looked at Xue Piao Renjian and said, " Do you think he will come? Or will he go to the wild map? "

Xue Piao Renjian said confidently: " He will come. "

Zuo An is a petty person who will never give up on any grudge. Even if he has to stab himself first in order to get revenge, he will not hesitate to take out a 40-meter-long sword and stab himself with it. Not to mention a game update. Even if he is interested in the content of the update, he will never give up the opportunity to take revenge on Fanxing City.

Xue Piao Renjian is a very honest person. Needless to say, from his tone, one can tell what is going on with Zuo An. Xu Chu said speechlessly, " What do you mean? If I provoke him, will he fight me to the point of death? "

Xue Piao Renjian nodded without hesitation: " Yes. "

There was nothing we could do. Since Zuo An would never give up on picking a fight with them unless he was beaten to death ... then they had no choice but to beat him to death.

Xu Chu sighed sadly.

Ji Xuan knocked on Qi Qin's chest armor and asked him to pick up Xiao Xiao Yuxia.

Qi Qin's black steel light armor is now complete. With the properties of the suit activated, his speed and strength have been greatly enhanced. He can basically use normal speed to perform the Guardian Dance sword technique on Ji Xuanyi. The most satisfying thing about this light armor is that the head part is not a stupid helmet, but a headband. When Qi Qin puts it on, he doesn't look so stupid, but rather cool.

Ji Xuanyi said to Xiao Xiao Yuxia: " Since Zuo An will definitely come, we can start preparing. " Xiao Xiao Yuxia was lifted up by Qi Qin and stood up straight. She forced herself to cheer up, sighed, and said, " We don't have enough people. "

Not only is it not enough, in fact, the internal personnel of the three major gangs were also very reluctant to stay in the city after the update. Everyone wanted to check out the reputation missions on the wild map. You know, if you go one second later, the hidden mission that may be triggered by you will have a one-second greater chance of being triggered by someone else first! Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " It's fine if the individual members are uncontrollable, but the members of the three major gangs must not leave at this time. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said: " Of course I know this, but we are all players, no one is nobler than anyone else, so what I say does not count. "

Ji Xuan said: " Then think of a way to make them stay willingly. "

Having said that, Ji Xuanyi and Xiao Xiao Yuxia looked at each other, and at the same time looked at Xu Chu beside them.

Xu Chu: "..."

Well, anyway, every time this happens, he has to pay.

Xu Chu raised his eyebrows helplessly and said, " I understand. "

Individual players are uncontrollable, so at least the main forces of the three major gangs must be mobilized first. The good news is that Xiaoxiao Yuxia's spies reported that there is no movement in the Day City for the time being. No one knows what's going on. They still have some time to make some simple arrangements.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Since the Sun City has waited until this time to come, they would not be so careless as to start the attack from the southwest. They will most likely have heard about the problems in the northwest area and will come from there. Let's go directly to the wild area outside the northwest area. How have you investigated the situation there? "

The group started discussing as they walked towards the northwest area.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia couldn't help but say, " You said before that the northwest area needs attention, so we spent a long time looking at the terrain there, and we also reviewed it every now and then. I almost memorized what the trees there look like. "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly, " Speak to the point. "

Xu Chu waved his hand, pushed Xiao Xiao Yu Xia aside, put his hand on Ji Xuanyi's shoulder, and came over to Ji Xuanyi and said, " Hey, he can't explain it clearly. Let him communicate with the people in the gang, and I will tell you. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia did have a lot of things to do, and when she heard Xu Chu say that, she walked aside and talked to Liu Tian and Jian Xixinjiu.

Ji Xuan shook his shoulders and shook off Xu Chu's hand. He looked at Qi Qin who was staring at Xu Chu calmly and said, " You should also get to the point. "

Xu Chu took his hand back and said with a smile, " Let's talk about it. The wild area outside the northwest area is a grassland, which is very suitable for the Knights to perform. To be honest, after I went there to take a look, I felt that even if there were no flaws in the northwest area, they would probably go there. The terrain over there is really suitable for the Knights. If they launch a charge from a distance , they can probably rush directly into the main city without even opening the gates. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Grassland? Is there anything else? "

Xu Chu said, " Yes, there are a few crooked trees. They have memorized what they look like even in the rain. If you want, you can use those trees as a commanding height to observe the situation. However, I don't recommend doing so. There are not many branches and leaves on those trees. They are tall, but they are easy to be exposed and used as targets. "

Ji Xuan looked at Xu Chu expressionlessly and said calmly, " Do you miss the feeling of flying? "

Xu Chu: "... No, thank you. "

Because there might be a fight later, Xu Chu, who had become particularly lively, suddenly calmed down and said, " In addition to the terrain, there is also the resurrection point you mentioned before. "

Basically, in a war of attrition with a resurrection point nearby, the terrain and location of the resurrection point will become important factors in determining the entire battle situation. Even in a game like "Domain" that has a penalty for leveling down, the benefits of replenishment speed and position transfer are far greater than the attribute bonus of that level.

It can be said that as long as you understand the coverage of the resurrection point and you don't care about those levels, you can even use the resurrection point as the " teleportation " system of this game.

This is also the reason why Ji Xuanyi asked Xiao Xiaoyuxia to find out the resurrection points. If used well, the battle against the Sun City will be much easier.

Ji Xuanyi said: " How is it? Is there a resurrection point that can be used? "

Xu Chu said: " Only one. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned.

Xu Chu rummaged in his backpack and pulled out a crumpled ball of paper. While complaining that his bag had never contained such worthless things, he unfolded the ball of paper and handed it to Ji Xuan to take a look.

The blueprint was a map of the wild area outside the northwest district. Xu Chu had made many messy marks on it. Although it was dirty, it was obvious that Xu Chu had put a lot of effort into studying it. Three of the resurrection points were marked by Xu Chu. Two of them were in very crooked places, and only one was close to the city gate of the northwest district.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and asked, " Only three? "

Xu Chu sighed to the sky, feeling extremely sad: " You know what? Xiao Xiao Yu Xia also said the same thing when we were testing the resurrection point before. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..... ??? "

 " Then he continued to test it dozens of times without giving up, " Xu Chu smiled and looked at Ji Xuanyi: " Although it was not tested with my level, I paid for each level. "

Although many people in the three major gangs wanted to participate in this plan, Xu Chu and his team certainly could not use the actual combat power of the three major gangs to test the resurrection points, and could only hire individual people. Now the gold price and the experience required for upgrading are no longer the same as before. It costs two hundred gold to die once, and the gold Xu Chu bought is not enough, and he almost fell off the list of rich people.

Lian Xiaoxiao Yuxia felt quite embarrassed and took out some money from his private treasury and gang funds to compensate Xu Chu. The latter accepted it all without hesitation, completely giving up his dignity as a local tyrant.

Xu Chu said: " In addition to these two points very far out, there are indeed resurrection points, but they are farther away than these two points , and the area they cover is very remote, so there is no point in using them. "

" That is to say, there is only one spot that can be used, " Xu Chu said helplessly, " and strictly speaking, this usable resurrection point cannot even be completely called a resurrection point in the wild area. "

Ji Xuanyi also realized that this resurrection point was too close to the Star City compared to the two in the distance . Almost one-third of the area covered by it was inside the city gate in the northwest area. In other words, when they thought of using this point, it proved that they had been pressed into the city by the Day City. Only if they died and resurrected in the city at this time could they instantly transfer to the rear of the Day City troops through the resurrection point and launch a surprise attack.

Not to mention that at that time, the Daylight City had already entered the Starry City. Even if they were wiped out, it would easily lead to gossip and they would be forced to enter the city. It is estimated that even if they moved to the opposite side of the Daylight City, it would be difficult to wipe out the opponent in one go. Instead, they might be directly forced to the resurrection point.

Instead of doing this, it would be better to throw away all concerns and move the battle to the northwest city area, using the complex terrain in the city to wipe out the troops of the Sun City bit by bit.

Ji Xuanyi looked at the resurrection point and made a dissatisfied " tsk " sound.

Xu Chu took the blueprint from him, took out a charcoal pencil from his backpack, and crossed out the three resurrection points one by one.

" I knew you wouldn't be satisfied, " Xu Chu said, " I'm not satisfied either, but Xiao Xiao Yu Xia insisted that I waste my time showing it to you. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned, not knowing what he was thinking.

Xu Chu said: " The resurrection point is no longer useful, but if we must control the battlefield outside the city, we can still make use of the terrain. "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Are you ready? "

Xu Chu shook his head and said, " It's only been a short while, and we can't be sure it's really in the northwest area. We can only set aside a little more time and do some tricks. "

Xu Chu smiled and whispered something into Ji Xuanyi's ear.

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly.

Xu Chu smacked his lips and said, " It's an old-fashioned trick. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " It is quite old, and probably not very useful. "

Xu Chu complained: " I know I'm old, but what can I do? I don't have enough time. "

Xu Chu said: " If only I had a little more time, even if all the people in Day City were to go out

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but look at Xu Chu: " Do you know how many people there are in Day City? "

Xu Chu rolled his eyes and counted. It was a bit too much. He coughed dryly and said, " Even if all the people in Day City go out, they have to fill the hole I dug for them before moving forward. "

Ji Xuan applauded him expressionlessly.

The group left the inner city and took a carriage to the northwest district, and then went all the way to the outside of the city. Xu Chu and Xiao Xiao Yuxia, one on each side, pointed here and there to Ji Xuan, one saying, " Look, what's the use of this, what's the use of that " , and the other said , " I think this can be used this way, and that can be used that way " .

Ji Xuanyi was sandwiched in the middle, expressionless for a long time. He felt something was wrong. Turning around, he found Qi Qin looking at him sadly from behind.

Ji Xuan Yi Guang was talking to Xu Chu in the rain and had ignored him for a long time.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi was very upset. He couldn't push Xiao Xiao Yuxia away, so he pushed Xu Chu aside and said to Xiao Xiao Yuxia: " You haven't received the news yet? "

Xiao Xiaoyu was stunned, looked down at the private chat channel, and immediately frowned. It took two hours to walk from the inner city to the northwest district, and then take a carriage from the northwest district to the outside of the city. If Day City wanted to attack Star City, they should have set off by now. Otherwise, by the time they arrived at Star City, it would be midnight. Taking advantage of the empty defense after the update to attack can be said to be seizing the opportunity, but attacking at two o'clock in the morning when no one is online is like being crazy. It's an empty city, are you going to kill to vent your anger and satisfy yourself?

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia stopped the main forces of the three major gangs from rushing over here, and contacted the spies in Day City to ask what was going on. Was he controlled by the Day City forces? Or did he surrender to the enemy ?

The spy replied innocently, "How can there be a place where the salary is higher than Xu Chukai's? He must be crazy to surrender to the enemy . In fact, there was no movement in Day City, and no one left the city at all."

Xiao Xiaoyu told the news and looked at Ji Xuanyi in confusion.

Fanxing City is so empty, and even though it's such a good opportunity, Yueri City didn't come to attack. It can't be true, as Jing Yunhan said, that all the people in Yueri City ran off to do missions, right?

Ji Xuan looked at Xue Piao Renjian in confusion and found that the other party was also frowning. He didn't know what was going on.

The delay in the reply from Youri City lasted for a week, until Ji Xuanyi received a private message from Wanshishengyi and Fengyuqiqi.

All the storms are over, and they both are going to A.

Chapter 101

In the game , the disbanding of gangs and the killing of people are very common things. Having played the game for such a long time , Ji Xuanyi has seen countless such things , and he has even experienced them himself.

The Wanshi Fengyu gang is not a good one to behold. They have done a lot of things to bully men and women. Even though they changed their ways after being defeated by Ji Xuanyi and his gang , they still did the same things they did before. It is very normal for a gang like this , which has many enemies , to be suddenly attacked one day.

But Ji Xuanyi knew that they were a very small gang of relatives and friends with strong cohesion . Even if they were beaten and fled in panic , they would definitely hide together as a group and wait for an opportunity to retaliate. This kind of gang could even cause headaches for gangs that were many times larger than them in gang wars . When facing strong enemies like him and Qi Qin , the attitude of the gang members also showed that they were indeed this kind of gang.

And now, the gang is disbanded.

Wanshishengyi and Fengyuqingqi did not explain the matter in too much detail to Ji Xuanyi . The distance between the two cities also prevented Ji Xuanyi from understanding too much from the cold conversation . He only knew that the two people were indeed exhausted physically and mentally and did not want to play anymore.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and replied, " Although the game is fake, it is also connected to reality. Your friends are real. "

After a long time, Wanshishengyi finally sent a reply.

[May everything go well] : Thank you.

From then on, the avatars of Wanshi Shengyi and Fengyu Qiqi in Ji Xuanyi's friend list never lit up again. However, it was not known whether it was because the people of Wanshi Shengyi were completely A'ed and there was no one left to be entrusted with the task, most of the " legacy " of this group of people was sent to Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, and a small part was sent to the Ze Yu Sishui trio and the Introduction to Art.

Ze Yu Sishui, who has always been very active, was not happy about this sudden " windfall " this time . He was depressed and silent for several days, and it was useless for Ming Shao and Qing Feng Bufu to comfort him.

Actually, they were not very familiar with those guys from Wanshi Fengyu, but no one would not feel sad when someone around them left. Ming Shao and Qingfeng Bufu were fine, but Ze Yu Sishui had not been playing games for long and had not had time to get used to the scene of parting, so his reaction was particularly obvious. You know, even those who were not used to Wanshi Fengyu's Art Introduction in the beginning were very sad for a while when they heard about this.

All the storms are annoying, but they are also part of their gaming experience and even the gaming world, and it is hard to accept that this part left so suddenly.

However, Ji Xuanyi was already used to this kind of thing, and he did not comfort his friends in Green Forest City too much. He just asked them to remember to put their things away and not waste the kindness of those people in Wanshi Fengyu.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin's mailboxes have been overwhelmed. Although the postman in front of them still looks dignified and quiet, standing on the side of the road with his deflated bag and a smile on his face, Ji Xuanyi can tell from the number of mails prompted by the system that if he is not careful when picking up the mail, he might be buried alive by the packages that the postman takes out.

Ji Xuanyi walked up to him cautiously, and the postman smiled at him and said, "Hello, do you need to pick up something? "

Ji Xuanyi asked tentatively: "Can I specify a pickup location? "

The postman said, "Of course you can. You have fourteen gold packages, one hundred and thirty-seven material packages, three equipment packages, and one piece of mail. Which ones would you like to take out? "

"An email? " Ji Xuanyi was stunned and said, "Is it a system email? "

"No, " the postman shook his head and kindly reminded, "Unofficial emails may be scams, please be careful to distinguish them. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned slightly and said, "Please help me get the mail out. "

"Okay, " the postman nodded, took out a letter from the cloth bag around his waist, handed it to Ji Xuanyi, and said, "Is there anything else you need? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head, made way, and let Qi Qin take out the messy things in his mailbox first. He walked aside and opened the mail sent by Wanshi Shengyi.

Although the mail is sent by players, the words on it are all printed. If the player insists on sending his own handwritten letter, it will be forcibly classified into the materials column by the system, including other items that are not equipment mail and gold coins. When mailing, they are all classified as materials.

Ji Xuanyi unfolded the letter and found that the format of the letter was set by the system. The first sentence at the beginning was "My dear partner Ji Xuanyi", which made Ji Xuanyi frown. But this is not the point. The last letter left by Wanshishengyi A was definitely not just to greet him, but to tell him something more important.

As expected, Wanshi Shengyi said, "Originally, I don't want to talk about this anymore. Just let it go quietly. But Brother Ji, I also call you my brother, so I have to remind you of things that may affect you. "

A gang like Wanshi Fengyu would certainly not disband for no reason. In fact, the cause of this incident was even related to Fanxing City.

In the world mission, Zuo An and his confidant who could barely serve as a commander were sent back to the resurrection point by Mi Yin one after another. The Sun City was leaderless and retreated step by step. Finally, when there was no power to turn the tide, they thought that if they could not get the reward, they should at least rescue the people, so they joined forces with the Star City to repel the BOSS.

Many people knew about this matter, including the nonsense post that Ji Xuanyi saw. The poster described the scene of cooperation between the two main cities and highly praised the choice of the players of Daytime City. He believed that they were the last conscience of the domineering Daytime City and they could distinguish the situation and knew when to take revenge and when to cooperate. They were able to be rescued, and the players of Daytime City made an indelible contribution.

Everyone thinks that the players in Day City did a good job, except for one person who disagrees, and that is Zuo An.

In his opinion, the original plot should be that the players of Daylight City fought hard. Even if they could not defeat Star City, they had to kill as many as they could. It would be best if they could make it impossible for Star City to complete the mission and fail at the last minute.

However, the course of events was completely different from what he had imagined.

Zuo An didn't want to care about life or death. He only knew that this group of people betrayed him, joined forces with the culprit Fanxing City who killed him and sent him back to Youri City, and helped them complete the mission.

When the news came that Star City had completed the mission, Zuo An was just resentful. But when the news reached Zuo An's ears that the mission was completed by the cooperation of Star City and the remnants of Sun City, Zuo An was almost furious.

After those players were rescued, they rushed back to their main city and wanted to take a rest. However, they were blocked at the city gate by Zuo An and half of the city's people . Among those people, there were even half of the city's own gang members. Zuo An sneered and kicked them out of the gang one by one. He declared that they were traitors of Daytime City and all of them must be driven out of the main city.

Of course those players will not agree. Who are you, Zuo'an?

That's right, you are the leader of the largest gang in Sun City, and the commander of operations for the entire Sun City, but in the final analysis, you are just a game player. You can use money and power to make players obey your orders, but you are not qualified to drive away innocent players who do not harm others from their own main city!

The players who were blocked outside the city also had their own relatives and friends, and their own gangs. These people would definitely not sit idly by and watch the situation their friends were about to face. The moment Zuo An gave the order, the entire Dayo City was divided into two factions. One faction was the alliance of individual gangs whose relatives and friends had been persecuted, or who had long been fed up with Zuo An. The other faction was the largest gang in the entire Dayo City – Bancheng.

Yes, half of the city was in opposition to the entire Sun City except them.

In an instant, Zuo An felt the panic as the situation got out of control.

Bancheng is indeed very large. In addition to the 500 people in the main gang, there are three branch gangs, which together have nearly 2,000 people. Excluding those who were just kicked out and those who are not online, it is still a behemoth of more than 1,000 people.

But they were facing individual players from the entire Sun City. Even though their mobility was not high, their equipment was not sophisticated enough, and their player strength was uneven, their numerical advantage was enough to crush half of the city, and it was not a waste to fight a hundred against one .

This is also why so many big gangs in the game, even if they are more or less the strongest, are very cautious in doing things and only take action after finding various reasons for themselves. Because no matter what the situation is, only if there is a reason, will people be willing to stand on their side. Once there is no reason and it angers the public, no matter how big the gang is, it will be destroyed overnight.

Zuo An made a very serious mistake. He let the players of Daytime City see him unscrupulously infringing on the interests of ordinary players, and he infringed on a large area at a time. No player or guild could tolerate this.

If there were only one or two people or one or two gangs, it would be fine. They would not be able to defeat the enemy and the fire would not burn them for the time being, so they would have to endure it. But the bad thing is that almost everyone is present. When everyone is of the same mood, the power of half the city will be nothing.

The alliance of individual players organized themselves almost immediately, and countless individual players angrily launched an attack on the Bancheng team, rushing Bancheng into the city and letting in the players who were blocked outside.

No matter what game it is, the gap in combat power caused by the difference in numbers is difficult to make up, let alone the current situation.

Half of the city's troops were dispersed and chased back to the inner city. Zuo An was completely confused by this group of individual players. He didn't know why things suddenly turned out like this. He knew that he was often unreasonable, but this time, he was the one who was betrayed? Why did everyone unite to attack him?

Zuo An's heart was filled with anger and fear. He felt that the players in Day City were targeting him. He didn't want to be innocent. But there was no one who could help him. Even the most useless Yu Gui was not online. Could he just wait for his gang to be disbanded and repeat the same mistakes? ? ?

If the Left Bank had really ended like this, all the storms and troubles would have never gone away.

In fact, the advantage of the Sanren Gang Alliance only lasted for a short time. Before they had the chance to break up Bancheng, they fell apart first. In the battle with Bancheng, they were even beaten back step by step.

After all, a gang of scattered people is a gang of scattered people. After forming an alliance, their cohesion will not be very strong.

Wanshi Fengyu is a small gang of relatives and friends. They can act arrogantly in Green Forest City, but in Day City after the gang system was officially opened, they are nothing. But after all, he used to be the boss, and it is a bit difficult to accept the gap of suddenly becoming an ordinary person.

Wanshi Shengyi discussed it with Feng Yuqiqi and tried to develop the gang in Yueri City. However, in a place like Day City, where half of the city already exists, how far can Wanshi Fengyu develop? It only added a dozen people and became a not-too-big, not-too-small gang. When the gangs formed an alliance, they also mixed in and participated in various activities to eliminate the gang members in Half of the City.

Because they were in an awkward class, although they could not participate in discussions of various actions like the larger individual gangs, they could still vaguely hear some news.

Wanshi Shengyi heard that several large independent gangs were discussing how to distribute the management rights of the main city after breaking up half of the city. A conflict arose due to the uneven distribution of the spoils, which led to the disintegration of the entire independent alliance. However, Feng Yuqiqi, who was able to use his brain a little, did not think so.

If it was just an ordinary split, the situation that would manifest itself would be that each player acts independently and their mobility becomes weaker. Individual players can destroy half the city by relying on their numbers. However, from the perspective of those who are on the front line, the mobility of the individual players has not weakened. They are still fighting desperately like before, but there is a problem with the command. Wherever there is a trap in Half the City, these players are commanded to go there, consuming the strength of the individual players wave after wave, as if they were delivering meat to Half the City.

Feng Yuqiqi was smart for once. He realized that there was a traitor among the top leaders of the Sanren Gang Alliance.

Fengyuqiqi immediately told Wanshishengyi about his discovery, and with Wanshishengyi's character, he did not hesitate to inform all individual players of everything through the map channel.

There is a traitor in the upper echelons of the Sanren Alliance! Everyone should be careful about their own situation. You can fight, but you can't die in vain!

A single stone caused a thousand ripples. All the individual players began to react and wondered why the individual alliance, which was originally in a good situation, suddenly turned into the current situation where they lost no matter how they played. They began to question the top leaders of the individual alliance.

At this point everyone knows the truth. The commanders of the independent players' alliance are unable to refute and can only blame each other, but it is useless. They cannot find the traitor and no players are willing to obey the orders they issue. During the battle, more independent players are more inclined to save their lives, and the momentum of risking their lives to take someone down with them is completely gone.

If in the previous defeat, the scattered alliance could still kill 100 enemies with the consumption of 1,000 people , then the current battle, for the scattered army that has lost its fighting spirit, is just a waste of energy and cannot cause any damage to half the city.

Wherever the Half City troops swept, no matter how many individual players there were, most of them would scatter in a hurry, with no intention of resisting at all.

Individual players have really become a group of scattered sand and a mob.

The individual players went from fighting hard in the beginning to simply gathering together now. Once a team of half the city appeared, they would flee for their lives like a school of fish being chased.

Everyone began to get confused. Why did they gather together? Was the action of resisting Bancheng really meaningful? Running all day without any time to play games, was this what they were looking forward to?

At this time, some people began to stand up and accuse Wan Shi Feng Yu of saying that there was a traitor in the top management. They said that if it were not for them, the Loose Player Alliance would not have become what it is now. It was just a few defeats. They could kill half of the city with their numbers alone. Even if there was a traitor, they should not have pointed it out like this, causing everyone's efforts for so long and the investment of so many levels, money and time to fall through.

Some people even say that there are no traitors at all, and that only those who are in trouble are traitors.

Not to mention those numb Sanren players, even Wanshi Shengyi and Fengyu Qiqi themselves had to hesitate when seeing the current situation. Did they do something wrong? Although the traitors were hateful, it seemed that they were the ones who ruined the Sanren Alliance.

I clearly know that my original idea was just to hope that everyone would not be deceived again, so as not to waste levels in vain, but from my own perspective, I couldn't help but have such doubts, let alone others. Insults, accusations, and attacks flooded towards me.

Wanshi Shengyi and Fengyu Qiqi were the ones who caused this incident. They were panicked and didn't know what to do. Feng Xiaowu and others slammed the table and cursed: " Fuck! I can't stand this injustice! "

Wanshi Fengyu and his gang of rough men really didn't know what to do with the so-called traitor, and telling everyone about it was the only solution they could think of. The result might not be as good as they imagined, but everything they did was without any malice, and they even did it at the risk of being targeted.

However, everything they had done was denied in an instant, and they were even blamed for it. I can't tolerate this!

Feng Xiaowu's scolding woke Wanshi Shengyi and Feng Yuqiqi up.

Being wrongly accused of being a traitor and being blamed by everyone, so what? They were not good people to begin with. They had done all the bad things they should have done in Green Forest City, and they had even been in cahoots with a notorious scumbag like Wu Jian. Even if they were really traitors, so what? !

Who is more afraid of all things? They have brothers and friends. Having these two things in one game is enough!

Wanshi Fengyu broke away from the alliance of independent people that had become a loose sand. They had clear grudges and remembered why they started fighting in the first place, so they did not turn back to retaliate against those independent people who accused them, but formed a small guerrilla force to harass the teams in half of the city.

If we can win, we fight. If we can't win, we will log off. Although there is no milk, some people will be killed instantly if they are slow, or they will be caught red-handed when they go online at the wrong time, resulting in being killed and losing levels. However, those who have weathered all kinds of storms do not regard this as a failure. They will curse at their relatives and friends offline, and then go online to continue playing hide-and-seek with half of the people in the city, and they are still very happy.

Even when all the people in Wanshifengyu had dropped to level 40 or so, they still did not give up on disgusting half of the city and made the people in half of the city very angry.

Until they were noticed by the top brass of Bancheng, and began to really crack down on them. Some methods are really old-fashioned. Ji Xuanyi and the Sanren Alliance also failed because of them.

But the old-fashioned method is very useful to some extent, and everything else has fallen into its trap.

The difference is that Ji Xuanyi has the courage and strength to fight back, and the Loose Alliance doesn't care about these things at all. In the face of all the ups and downs, there is nothing else except the feelings between them.

"It's not a good feeling to be stabbed in the back by someone you trust." Wan Shishengyi said this to Ji Xuanyi in the letter.

Seeing this, Ji Xuanyi could only say to the person who had already left the game, "Yeah, I understand."

However, Wanshi Shengyi did not reveal the name of the person who betrayed Wanshi Fengyu. Perhaps he knew Ji Xuanyi's character very well and did not want him to cause trouble for that person. After all, that person did not consider them as brothers, but their friendship for each other was real.

Due to the betrayal of an insider, Wanshi Fengyu's whereabouts were discovered many times. By the time they discovered that there was a traitor in the gang and found out who that person was, the average level of Wanshi Fengyu was less than level 30. Any quest monster used for upgrading in Youri City could kill them.

Their unwavering trust at the time cost them such a huge price. Even until that person admitted it himself, there were still people who refused to believe it despite all the difficulties.

But what happened has happened and cannot be undone. Even if that person kneels in front of them, crying and begging for his brother's forgiveness, nothing can go back to the way it was. Once there is a crack in trust, there will no longer be that cohesive force that can help us weather all kinds of storms.

Knowing that Wanshi Fengyu was about to cease to exist, Wanshi Shengyi and Fengyu Qiqi didn't even resist and were directly killed by half of the people in the city and were reduced to level 20. They were only let go when they had no more room to die.

Even though Wan Shishengyi, who had already decided to A and let go of many things, couldn't help but curse Ji Xuanyi in the letter: "Zuo An of Bancheng is such a piece of shit, he makes me sick!"

After the people in Wanshi Fengyu discovered that something was wrong, they were not willing to guess that there was a problem within their group. No matter who was confirmed to have betrayed them, it was hard to accept. At that time, Wanshi Fengyu was shrouded in a strange atmosphere. Everyone knew that there was a spies in the gang, but no one was willing to say it or guess. Every day, whether online or offline, everyone was silent.

Wanshishengyi thought back that it was the most frustrating time he had ever had in his gaming career . He had never felt so aggrieved , even when he was accused of being a traitor by individual players and was chased and killed by half of the city's team.

In the end, it was the people of Bancheng who broke it all. As the leader of Bancheng, Zuo'an obviously didn't need to care about a small gang like Wanshi Fengyu, but he deliberately allowed the traitor to openly bring him and a group of Bancheng's troops into the secret base of Wanshi Fengyu, and told them with a smile on his face, yes, you have been stabbed in the back by your own people, look, this is the person standing next to me.

Although they had known it for a long time, the people who had experienced all kinds of things could not control their emotions at all. They quarreled, were angry, accused, felt unbelievable, and frustrated. Zuo An just stood there with a smile, watching them argue until their faces turned red.

Wanshi Shengyi had been impulsive all his life, but for the first time he was so calm and rational. He asked, " Left Bank Gang Leader, is it necessary to resort to such means to fight gangs in the game? "

Zuo An looked at him in surprise and said with a smile: " Of course, the more unhappy you are, the happier I am. Any problem? "

Wanshi Shengyi drew his sword and slashed at him on the spot.

Unfortunately, he was a swordsman with slow hands and feet, and he had to protect Feng Yuqiqi and the others. He was the one who had the most difficulty retreating in the battle with Bancheng. He had already died and was only left with level 20. Zuo An didn't even bother to dodge and was sent back to the resurrection point with a single shot.

" We, Wanshi Fengyu, are not good people, " Wanshi Shengyi said in the letter, " I also know that many people hate us. Maybe this is retribution. Wanshi Fengyu will reach this day sooner or later . "

" I didn't think I would be able to say it so calmly. Feng Yuqiqi even asked me if I wanted to start from level 20. Maybe I could make a comeback. Even though there's a traitor, the other brothers are still here. "

" But I'm really tired, my whole body, every part of my body is tired, and I don't want to play this game anymore. "

" I thought about what you said to me last time, and it's true. After all, this game only provides us brothers with a way to easily meet each other. Outside of this game, we are still friends and brothers. In real life, no matter how far we are, we can still find opportunities to meet. In a few days, I plan to find Lao Feng and organize a party for everyone to come together online. You don't have to worry about us. "

" Oh, by the way, there are these messy things. Now that the price of gold has changed, it always feels not worth exchanging them for cash. Let's forget it. After thinking about it, apart from the guys in the gang who A with us , it seems that only Brother Ji is the most reliable. Although we don't know each other much, I know you are a trustworthy person, so I will leave it to you on behalf of those guys in the gang. "

" Let me think, what else is there ..."

" Oh, by the way, I died earlier and returned to the main city, so I heard some of Zuo An's orders. When he first returned to Day City, he was going to gather people and cause trouble for Star City, but then something happened about you guys cooperating with a bunch of Day City players, so he turned around and started fighting with the Sanren Alliance. But it seems like he has no intention of giving up on seeking revenge against Star City. "

" Before I A , it seems that the Loose Alliance has already begun to be bought by them. The remaining people probably won't be able to hold on for much longer. You people in Star City should be careful. He will definitely not let it go like this. "

" That's all I have to say. A , A. See you again someday. Brother Ji, if you have the chance, help me kill that idiot Zuo An. Thank you . "

" From your dear friend, all the best. "

Ji Xuanyi folded the letter in his hand back.

Ji Xuanyi didn't know what to say about those guys who had gone through so much trouble, but being able to continue to be friends in real life was already a good thing. With similar experiences, Ji Xuanyi's final ending was much more tragic than this. It seemed that the only traitor who was left behind would probably continue to suffer from inner condemnation even if he continued to play. Even if Ji Xuanyi did nothing, the other party would not feel any better. However, what Ji Xuanyi did not expect was that the reason why Youri City had not attacked yet was actually like this.

Zuo An is unexpectedly stupid, and the person behind him is also unexpectedly smart. With Zuo'an's ability alone, it is certainly impossible for him to be smart enough to disintegrate the entire alliance. If I am not mistaken, when the alliance began to suffer setbacks, it was the person behind Zuo'an who started to make efforts.

The so-called traitor does exist, but in the final analysis, it is just a trap. It is not a trap prepared just for Wanshifengyu, but a trap set for all those who might discover the existence of the . traitor

In Ji Xuanyi's opinion, if the other party is just using the existence of the traitor to win the battle, it is a complete waste to instruct the traitor to trip up the enemy again and again in encounters. Even if traps are set in advance in small encounters, the benefits will not be very high. Few people will be killed , but many of Ji Xuanyi's own people will die, and the traitor will be at risk of being exposed.

If you want to win directly, it is better to organize a larger battle. When the huge alliance of scattered people cannot receive instructions so clearly, let the insiders take advantage of the situation to disrupt the formation and orders. With the strength of half a city, even if you are outnumbered , you can wipe out the large army in one fell swoop.

Although they would suffer certain losses themselves, they could defeat all the independent gangs in the entire Day City and tell them that they just couldn't win and there was no need to resist.

However, the person behind Zuo An seemed to think that the internal friction in Day City would cause too much loss? Or maybe Zuo An simply felt that this was not enough to make people happy? In short, he did not choose to do so, but instead adopted a very troublesome method, taking great pains to design battles, so that Bancheng could defeat the Sanren Gang again and again.

This would speed up the exposure of the undercover agent – of course, this was his intention. The Sanren Gang is, after all, just a temporary alliance. Both the mutual trust and the execution of orders are shockingly low. Apart from their numbers, what they rely on is the anger of having their rights and dignity violated.

" One of you is a traitor who has defected to Bancheng, and he is in a management position and can send you to your death at any time. "

As long as the individual players are made aware of this, the so-called alliance of individual players will become a loose sand without even half a city mobilizing a single soldier.

And all the ups and downs in the world are just unfortunate events that just happen to be the pawns that drive all of this forward.

If Ji Xuanyi was in Yaori City, he would certainly not fall for such a trick, but unfortunately, Feng Yu Qiqi was smart enough this time and stepped into the trap set by the enemy , and was pulled and dragged into it with Wanshi Feng Yu and the others.

In fact, Bancheng should also thank Wanshi Fengyu. It was Wanshi Fengyu who helped convey the message they wanted to convey. If nothing unexpected happens, when Wanshi Fengyu can't withstand the accusations of the Loose Alliance, Bancheng will jump out and naturally pull Wanshi Fengyu to their side. Although it is just a small gang, it is also a force.

But even the man behind Zuo'an probably didn't expect that a gang like Wanshi Fengyu could hold on, and didn't care at all about what the Loose Alliance said or did. After leaving the alliance, they turned around and attacked Bancheng, like a mosquito in a summer night, annoying Bancheng's troops.

Zuo An hated this kind of people the most. He hated the existence of this group of people even more than the actions taken by Wanshi Fengyu against Bancheng.

That's why what happened later happened. However, judging from the ending that Zuo An didn't see, if he knew that this group of people were still such good friends offline, he would probably be very angry.

However, the person behind Zuo'an doesn't seem to be a simple character either.

Resolving the Sanren Gang Alliance with minimal internal friction is just one point. Wanshi Shengyi also mentioned what Bancheng is doing specifically now.

They were gradually dismantling the Scattered Alliance, and even trying to win them over, allowing them to completely become the power of half the city.

From the very beginning, this matter was just a disturbance caused by the idiots on the left bank. Not only was it chaotic, but if one was not careful, half of the city would be in disarray, and the vitality of the Sun City would be seriously damaged.

And now, this incident has become the starting point for Bancheng to officially conquer the entire Day City.

It can be seen from the performance of those individual players in the world missions that they will obey orders from Zuo'an, but because Bancheng is the largest gang, even if they want to change the commander, they will not be able to convince the public and may be targeted by Bancheng. Obeying orders in this situation can only be said to be a higher level of obedience than the herd mentality of ordinary players. When they really encounter something, they will still make their own decisions.

But now, the Sanren Gang has joined Bancheng for one reason or another, and has to some extent become a subsidiary gang of Bancheng. It will gain some benefits and will be able to execute Bancheng's orders more efficiently.

Apart from the fact that Zuo An himself is a bit disgusting and everyone needs to be patient, this could be a win-win situation for Youri City.

But this is not a good thing for Star City.

The Star City is very peaceful. The three major gangs do not cause any trouble except maintaining order on weekdays. This makes the players, like the independent people in the Sun City at the beginning, only have the concept that the three major gangs are " the largest force in the Star City" , and they obey orders only because of " herd mentality " and " they don't know what to do if they don't obey orders " .

They are all free players and have not sold themselves to the three major gangs. Apart from events that can truly make people indignant and united, such as rescue, which will allow them to briefly burst out with motivation and combat effectiveness, they cannot give more support to the three major gangs at other times.

In other words, Star City is full of loopholes and is in disarray.

And Day City is about to leave this stage.

But speaking of it, the current situation in Star City should be what a normal game should be like. Guild players have the benefits of guild players, and individual players have the freedom of individual players. Everyone has their own way of playing and does not interfere with each other. It's a pity that normal game conditions cannot bring extraordinary combat power, and Ji Xuanyi will not bother to copy a Sun City.

The Day City is strong, but they are sick. This game is too tiring to play. Ji Xuanyi would rather the Star City be weak and play a game seriously than to be sick and strong, so tired that playing a game is like going to work.

So after seeing the news from Wanshi Shengyi and the current situation in Yaori City, Ji Xuanyi just sighed and began to rub his brows silently.

Even though the chaos in Sun City might still be coming to an end, Star City does not have the strength to proactively attack the other side. After all, individual players are unwilling to mobilize a large force to travel so far , and the people from the three major gangs would simply be sending their heads there.

The good news is that it may take some time for Bancheng to subdue the Sanren Gang, and they have enough time to deploy defensive forces. The bad news is that by the time the Sun City actually arrives outside the Star City, their strength may have increased a lot ...

" Well, I feel a little pressure from the rain. " Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but mutter to himself.

In this battle, if the weak wants to defeat the strong, it will most likely depend on the methods of him and Xu Chu!

 " Ahhh, Xuanyi! QAQ ! "

Ji Xuan turned around and looked at Qi Qin.

Qi Qin stood in front of the postman, holding a lot of packages in his hands, and some of them kept falling down. He said to Ji Xuan with a tearful look on his face: " I took too much stuff, and the package can't fit anymore. What should I do? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

This guy is so stupid!

Ji Xuanyi grabbed the things in his arms and said disdainfully: " Pick up the things on the ground, look through your bag, throw out the useless and worthless things, and put the useful things in first. "

Qi Qin hurriedly did as he was told, holding a few things he had picked up from the ground in one hand and taking things out of his backpack with the other.

Ji Xuanyi watched with a frown as Qi Qin threw out fruits, thread ends, hemp ropes, and rags. When there was only one square left, Qi Qin threw out a ball of paper.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " What is that? "

Chapter 102

Ji Xuanyi threw the pile of materials he was holding to Qi Qin , then bent down and picked up the piece of paper on the ground.

Qi Qin stuffed things into his backpack while thinking about it for a long time . Finally, he shook his head and said, " I don't remember when it was in the backpack. "

Ji Xuanyi opened the piece of paper and saw " The difference between soul gems and evil spirit gems in weapon manufacturing " written on it .

Ji Xuanyi recalled for a moment and remembered that this was waste paper dug out from the dwarf ruins and was of no use, so he stuffed it to Qi Qin. Unexpectedly, the latter had not thrown it away and kept it until now.

Ji Xuanyi was just about to crumple it up and throw it away , but when he glanced at it , he saw words like " life force " on it . He frowned and opened it again.

Qi Qin fiddled with it for a long time, but his bag still couldn't hold all the stuff. He said to Ji Xuan pitifully, " Xuan Yi, there's no room. "

Ji Xuan said without turning his head: " Please mail the items that can't be put in to me, and I will take them out later. If you don't need them, put them on the trading platform. "

Qi Qinyi stuffed all the things in his hand back into the postman's bag, and then he came to Ji Xuanyi and asked, " What is Xuanyi looking at? "

What was Ji Xuanyi reading? He himself felt that he could not answer this question, because apart from the title , he could not understand many of the things written on the paper – after all, this was the research result of the dwarfs , and it would be strange if Ji Xuanyi could understand it.

He was just looking for information on the paper related to the words he had just seen .

Although it was a bit silly, maybe he could really find a use for the " Branch of Life " that August gave him ? If it was a material for making weapons, then everything would make sense. Ji Xuanyi frowned, searching for the words he had just glimpsed among the dense handwriting.

" The difference between the Soul Gem and the Evil Spirit Gem is that the former can revive the dead, while the latter can only awaken the dead for a short time, at the cost of losing their sanity in exchange for a more powerful power, becoming a tool that can be used. "

" Undoubtedly, the latter is completely opposite to the former, and is evil and unacceptable. But what surprised me is that in order for these two gems to exert their power, they both need the support of huge life force. I don't know why the evil spirit gem needs life force. To be honest, isn't enough curse power enough? "

As soon as Ji Xuan read the entire paper, he only understood the two paragraphs explaining the Soul Gem and the Ghost Gem. The rest were just some " terms " that he could not understand at all.

But it is enough to understand these two paragraphs. As for the force of life, probably no material contains more of it than the branch of the Tree of Life. As for the purpose of the branch that August gave him, it seems that we can look for clues among the dwarves. Most likely it can be made into a weapon, and the quality should not be low. I just don't know if it will be okay to take only a branch.

Ji Xuan subconsciously glanced at his package. He had collected a lot of materials, but he didn't know if he could use them. Perhaps the branches of life could only be used to make designated weapons, so he had to continue collecting other materials.

Qi Qin saw Ji Xuanyi staring at the paper in a daze and asked, " What's wrong with this paper? "

Ji Xuanyi came back to his senses, shook his head and said, " Nothing, I need to talk to Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others about the matter in Sun City. "

Since they cannot defeat the Dayo City in a short time, they will have more time to arrange a more complete defense. In addition, while the Dayo City has not yet been settled, they may try to plant one or two " eyes " there . If they can know the exact movements of the Dayo City, it will make Ji Xuanyi and his team's life much easier.

However, all these things can be left to Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others. If there is time, Ji Xuanyi would like to go to the dwarf tribe first.

Although the minions of the evil god were temporarily repelled, the original homes of the five major races were destroyed and they could never return. In addition, the evil god still threatened the entire continent, so they had to be ready to participate in the battle at any time. Therefore, the five major races were still stationed in the five wild maps and did not leave.

After the reputation missions were opened for the five races, many players rushed to the wild map like crazy.

The most popular tribe among players is the elves of the Lost Forest.

Although the maze has become simpler, it is still not easy. Even so, players continue to pour in, wanting to gain the favor of the elves.

It's nothing, just because of one word.

beautiful.

All elves, regardless of gender, are beauties.

In this world where beauty is justice, reputation gains and the best order to gain reputation are all just empty talk! Only the favorability of a beauty is real!

In order to win the smile of the elf beauties, many players simply set up camp outside the elf camp. They would not leave even after completing the task, but would hang around outside the elf camp and do things like flirting.

" 5A – level tourist attraction " in "Domain" , and it's only a tourist attraction during holidays.

Apart from the elves, the second most popular tribe is the mermaids, who also have many beauties. However, since all mermaids are male, the players who go to improve their impressions are basically all female players. As a result, some male players with normal reputation needs can only go there secretly at night, for fear of being mistaken for gays.

But if I were discovered while brushing up on the reputation of the mermaids in the middle of the night, wouldn't I look more like a gay ?

Following them are the Centaurs and the Winged People. Although they are not as popular as the Elves and the more distinctive Mermaids, these two races with non-human attributes are still very popular.

The worst off are the dwarves.

They were abandoned by this world that only values appearance ...

The dwarves live underground, spending all day with copper furnaces. Their bodies are covered with dust, metal shavings and sweat. They all have big beards and even the women have very thick hair. Although their muscles are probably the strongest among the five races, their height is not good. They look no different from potatoes dug out of the ground. The strength of their muscles only affects whether they are a bigger potato or a smaller potato.

When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin arrived at Chongyan Volcano, the map was almost empty. After walking for a long time, they could see a few players completing quests.

Some of them are simply collectors who want to improve their reputation. Other maps are too crowded and too crowded, so they come here. Some of them come here for the rewards after their reputation with the dwarves becomes intimate.

That's right, although the dwarves cannot compete with the other four races in terms of appearance, their reputation is undoubtedly the most profitable among the five races.

After the reputations of the elves and centaurs are close, they can each provide a BUFF skill that slightly increases the hit rate of their skills. If the player applies this BUFF to himself before using the skills , he can get the system's attack correction to a certain extent. This skill is most obvious for ranged professions, especially for assisting archers, but it is of no use to melee professions.

The reward for increasing the reputation between the Winged People and the Mermaids is a slight permanent increase in Constitution and Agility attributes, which is a bonus for melee professions, but ranged professions do not really need these two attributes.

Only the reputation rewards of the dwarves are the most special – as long as you reach a certain reputation level, they can help players make weapons.

After the reputation reaches intimate level or above, the dwarves can forge weapons for the players, but the materials have to be provided by the players themselves, and the quality of the forged weapons is also random. After forging an orange weapon or three purple weapons, the dwarves will no longer provide the player with the benefit of forging weapons, even if the reputation bar is raised to gold.

Although this reputation reward seems to be a matter of luck, in terms of the highest return, it is definitely the best among the five major races.

However, not all players play games to become stronger. Compared with orange weapons, more people care more about the popularity of being handsome in the game ... Poor dwarves, despite having such good rewards, they are deserted and have become the least popular of the five major races.

Fortunately, it was not possible to intuitively feel the players' enthusiasm for them. When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin arrived at the dwarfs' underground stronghold, the dwarves looked very happy.

" These are our human friends who helped us defeat the Fire Giants! They are the guests of the Dwarf King! " said the dwarf pulling the small trailer proudly.

Upon hearing this, the surrounding dwarves rushed forward and surrounded Ji Xuanyi tightly. Qi Qin didn't react for a moment and was pushed aside by the crowd. He looked at Ji Xuanyi pitifully and said, " Xuanyi, what's going on? "

Ji Xuanyi was also stunned for a moment before he understood, and said awkwardly: " Tsk, I just accepted a task, I didn't help much. "

Qi Qin: " Ah? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " It was too late that day, and the cave entrance was too small. You couldn't hold on and got off the line. That night, Jian Xixinjiu and I went to Xinmu Town. I didn't have time to tell you the next day, so you didn't know. "

Qi Qin then remembered this and showed an expression of sudden enlightenment.

Ji Xuanyi entered the dwarf stronghold with Xu Chu and others that night and accepted the same mission, but Ji Xuanyi left after that and did not even participate in the final encirclement and suppression of the fire giants, which is why it is so embarrassing now.

Although he had done nothing, he still accepted the dwarves' thanks, which made Ji Xuanyi feel a little embarrassed.

But they don't care about this. Whoever accepts the task will be the one to help them.

Ze Yu Sishui was the most pitiful one. He clearly rushed back the next day, but because he didn't receive any task, he ran around for so long and only got a basic reward. It was so sad to hear about it and so heartbreakingly to see it!

But speaking of the fact that Qi Qin was unable to catch up with Ji Xuanyi that night, the reason was only partly because it was too late. The main reason was that the dwarf tribe's underground passage was indeed not very friendly to Qi Qin.

Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu were able to be pulled over on a small trailer, but Qi Qin was completely unable to do that. This time when he came in, Ji Xuanyi was very worried. Seeing Qi Qin trying to squeeze in several times but failing and with a lot of dirt scraped off his armor, it was not a good idea to let him get off the line here again, so he had to let Qi Qin lie half of his body on the trailer and the other half dragged on the ground, like a corpse being taken into the underground by the excited dwarves.

They surrounded Ji Xuanyi, chattering for a long time, and stuffed the materials in their hands into Ji Xuanyi's arms.

The rewards given in this situation would certainly not be very good. Most of them were blue materials, with a few white and purple ones as well. Although they were not of much use, they were the dwarves' kindness. Ji Xuanyi planned to collect them first and then bring them back to share with Xu Chu and the others.

After the dwarves stuffed the things, they dispersed to do their own work, leaving only Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin holding a pile of things, and the dwarf who had led them in before.

" The dwarves are so enthusiastic towards their friends! " The dwarf had a loud voice, and he said to Ji Xuanyi in a resonant voice: " Friend, are you here to visit us this time? Do you want to meet the king? Although he doesn't say it, he has been missing you all the time! "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " I came here to ask you for help, but I really need you to take me to see the Dwarf King. Thank you for your help. "

" Don't be so polite. You are a friend of the dwarves. If you want to see the king, just sit down and I will take you there! " The dwarf said, looking at the small trailer behind him with shining eyes.

No one knew what kind of temper this dwarf had. He was so helpful and attentive. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin had no choice but to curl up their legs and sit back on the small trailer, and were led by the happy dwarf's footsteps towards the Dwarf King's residence.

Not long after, Ji Xuanyi saw a familiar gate of normal size.

As soon as he got off the small trailer, the dwarf left them behind and ran inside. Ji Xuanyi, who was still outside, heard his shouting.

" Your Majesty! Your Majesty! Our human friends are here! "

This time the Dwarf King was not sleeping. When Ji Xuanyi entered, he had just stood up from behind a small wooden table and seemed to be drawing some drawings.

Although Ji Xuanyi had been slacking off in the mission, the Dwarf King still showed an excited expression when he saw Ji Xuanyi. He rushed towards them without any airs of a king and gave them a bear hug.

The force in this hand made Ji Xuanyi feel as if he was going to be split in half.

However, the Dwarf King was also very good at what he was doing. He stopped before Ji Xuanyi lost blood and said happily: " Long time no see, friend. I heard that you had something to ask me. Is there anything I can help you with? "

Unexpectedly, he got to the point right away. Ji Xuanyi breathed a sigh of relief, took out the branch of life from his backpack, handed it to the dwarf king, and said, " Do you know this thing? "

The dwarf king took the crystal box from Ji Xuanyi's hand, took a look at it, and then his expression became serious. He said, " A branch of the Tree of Life. This thing is too precious! " Ji Xuanyi's mind moved, and he said, " Do you know how to use this thing? "

" Of course I know! " The Dwarf King said dissatisfiedly, " The Dwarves are familiar with the usage of all materials in the world. If you were not our friend, I would challenge you to a duel for your offense. "

Ji Xuanyi had already felt the pride and stubbornness of the dwarves before accepting the mission, so he immediately apologized and asked the question he was most concerned about: " Is it used to make weapons? "

" It has many uses, of course, making weapons is one of them, " the dwarf king looked at Ji Xuanyi and said, " Do you want to use it to make warlock weapons? Logically speaking, given our current relationship, I can't help you for free, but since you helped us drive away the fire giant, I can make an exception this time. "

Ji Xuan was stunned. He didn't expect there would be such a benefit. He had already planned to stay in Chongyan Volcano to brush up his reputation after determining the use of the branches, and would not go back until there was any action in Youri City. He didn't expect that he could solve the problem today.

Ji Xuan immediately said: " Of course, please. "

The dwarf king said: " What kind of gem would you like to put on this staff? "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then he realized that almost all weapons of magic professions are inlaid with a gem. This gem must affect the quality, attributes and special effects of the staff to some extent.

But he only has a branch now, and the gem has not been found yet. Judging from the preciousness of this branch, it is very likely that an orange weapon can be made from it. If the gem is used poorly, resulting in a decline in the quality of the weapon, it will be too late to regret it.

The specific material ratios for synthesizing this kind of weapon, as well as the synthesis results and success probability, should all be sorted out through players' repeated experiments and collection in the later stages of the game, so that newcomers can avoid some detours. But at this stage, Ji Xuanyi does not have any similar reference – even in the later stages, it seems that materials such as the branches of life will not be easily obtained.

two types: " Soul Gem " and " Evil Spirit Gem " written on the piece of paper collected from the dwarf ruins .

It would be really fucked up if these two gems were like the Branch of Life, requiring you to complete a designated task to obtain them.

Ji Xuanyi frowned.

Should I continue waiting for the two gems which I don't know if I will ever get, or should I just pick a high-level material to make do with?

Have " you thought about it? " the dwarf king asked again.

Ji Xuan hesitated for a moment , then nodded and said, " Yes, wait a moment. "

The world of "Domain" is too big, and the repetition rate of tasks like this that can obtain high-level materials is too low. Even if no one has done the task first, he may not encounter it. Instead of waiting foolishly for a material and not knowing whether he can encounter a task before the game is shut down, it is better to change the weapon first.

His profession does not require too high attributes of the weapon itself, and there will be opportunities to change it in the future. Ji Xuanyi thought about it and decided not to pay too much attention to the attributes of the weapon after it is made. He will just go with the flow.

There was also a magic crystal in Ji Xuanyi's bag, which was sent by Wanshi Shengyi. Because it was a relatively high-end material and Qingfeng Bufu needed it, he picked it out directly during the simple sorting. He originally wanted to leave it for the latter to use as equipment. Now it seems to be the most high-end gem in his hand, so Qingfeng Bufu can only let it go.

As Ji Xuanyi was searching, he thought absentmindedly that magic crystal was a common material for magicians, and he wondered if it would have any strange effect on the properties of the staff, such as accidentally making the properties more like a priest or wizard's weapon.

Because they had sorted out the materials sent by Wan Shi Feng Yu before, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin's bags were in a mess. Ji Xuanyi's eyes were almost dazzled before he found the magic crystal. He handed it to the dwarf king and said, " Please help me inlay this gem on it and make it into a warlock's staff. "

Ji Xuanyi emphasized his profession, but he didn't know if it was useful.

The dwarf king took the magic crystal, nodded, and said, " I understand, but the power contained in these two materials is very huge. It will take some time to make weapons. " This is normal and happens in many games.

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " How long will it take? "

He and Qi Qin could wait here for half an hour. If it would take several hours, they would go and do the dwarf reputation mission. If it was not finished yet, they would go offline to have a meal. After getting the weapons, they would rush back to Fanxing City overnight. Xiaoxiao Yuxia was busy over there, so he couldn't be lazy all the time.

The dwarf king smiled and said to Ji Xuanyi: " It won't take too long. "

Ji Xuanyi just nodded, and then he heard the dwarf king continue: " Ten days will be enough. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Goodbye, bye!

Ji Xuanyi's forehead was filled with black lines. Ten days is not even a short time!

But generally speaking, the longer it takes to make a weapon, the better its quality should be.

Even if it is not an orange weapon, it will definitely be a purple weapon.

Thinking of this, Ji Xuanyi could no longer be angry. He sighed and said, " Okay, I'll come and get it in ten days. "

If it takes ten days, he won't be able to stay in Chongyan Volcano all the time. Not to mention when there will be any movement in Youri City, ten days will be enough for him to run back and forth between Chongyan Volcano and Fanxing City several times. It is such a waste to spend such a long time here. It would be better for him to go back to Fanxing City first and get it after it is done.

Upon hearing this, the Dwarf King immediately said reluctantly: " Would you like to stay here as our guest for a few more days? "

Although Ji Xuanyi didn't feel anything, he really regarded them as friends.

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " Sorry, I have something else to do and cannot stay. "

The dwarf king sighed and said, " Okay, I'll have someone take you away. "

Ji Xuanyi left, but failed to come back on time to get his weapons ten days later.

On the eighth day, when Ji Xuan was counting the days and preparing to set out for Chongyan Volcano, the spy under Xiaoxiao Yu finally sent a message.

The Sun City is gathering troops and preparing to set off.

Chapter 103

After the reorganization, the Day City troops were too large to fit in the city , so they had to gather outside the city.

gate closest to Fanxing City was crowded with densely packed and surging crowds . Such a huge group could be seen by anyone who was not blind. The spies from Fanxing City immediately reported it to Xiaoxiao Yuxia.

Although it might be too late, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia immediately notified all the scattered people on missions outside after receiving the news: " Daytime City is attacking , everyone return to the city to prepare for battle! "

When the team from Day City began to advance slowly, the players from Star City who received the news also dropped the tasks in their hands.

It's one thing to not want to waste time in the main city when the opponent is not attacking , but no one will sit idly by when the opponent attacks. That's their main city! If you want to take action, you have to ask these players first!

At that moment , countless players from Star City rushed back from all directions .

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia exhaled lightly and smiled bitterly, " Although we didn't gain much time , fortunately, Day City was exposed . In these few hours , I hope that as many people as possible can come back. "

Ji Xuanyi's face was expressionless . He glanced at Xiao Xiaoyu and said calmly, " Yao Ri City deliberately deployed personnel outside the city in such a high-profile manner. "

Even Xiaoxiao Yuxia thought of sending people to monitor outside the Daytime City. Could it be that the person behind Zuo'an didn't realize that the Starry City was monitoring them?

The so-called self-exposure is actually a kind of absolute confidence in our own strength and a silent provocation to the Star City – even if we give you a few more hours to prepare , you will definitely not be able to resist our strength . Sending back a few more people will just mean sending a few more heads. With the current strength of our Sun City, we don't need to engage in those conspiracies and tricks. Just go for it, whatever tricks we have.

Ji Xuanyi laughed and said, " It's hard to tell whether it was Zuo An or the person behind him who did this. "

Liu Tian rolled his eyes and said, " You can still laugh. Even Day City is so arrogant. Look at our Star City! It's still a mess! "

Jian Xi Xinjiu glanced at Ji Xuanyi and said speculatively, " There's nothing we can do about it. After all, dying with a smile is dying anyway, and dying with worry is also dying. It's better to laugh a little longer! Hahahahahahahahahaha ..."

Everyone looked at him. Jian Xi Xin Jiu's laughter became quieter and quieter, and finally stopped. He stammered, " No, that's not what I meant. "

 " I won't say you have a bad mouth, " Xu Chu said speechlessly, " Do you think Ji Xuanyi is such a cheerful person? Hahaha, you must have drunk too much. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Why isn't he cheerful?!

Ji Xuanyi felt that he was very cheerful!

Xiao Xiao Yu said with a frown on her face: " Please be serious, it's already this late! "

The people from Dayo City are coming to attack you, and you are still performing crosstalk here! Xu Chu said with a smile: " It doesn't matter what means we use. That's why they are so arrogant. "

 " Then use whatever means you can. "

The troops of Day City are advancing.

Thinking of being able to take revenge and kill those people in Star City, the smile on Zuo An's face continued to grow. He said to the knight beside him with a half-praise and half-complaint: " Zhao Chen, do you know that when you were not online, I was commanding the world mission alone, and I was badly betrayed by those shameless guys in Star City. There were also a lot of problems inside Day City. Those people were more courageous than each other. If you hadn't come back early, I think it would have been very difficult. "

The knight named Zhaochen responded and said, " Something happened in real life that delayed me. "

Zuo An said: " Then will you continue to be a temporary A in the future ? "

Zhaochen shook his head and said to Zuoan: " The matter has been resolved. It won't be an A anymore . Don't worry. "

Zuo An laughed and said, " That's good. With you here, those people in Star City are doomed! "

Zhaochen didn't say anything for a long time before he said, " How did you organize the gang without me? "

Zuo An was stunned and said, " What do you mean? Didn't we build a gang together? "

Zhao Chen glanced at him, suddenly laughed, and said, " That's right, maybe you are just lucky. "

Zuo An said unhappily: " Hey, although you are a little smarter, I am not bad either, okay? I also managed to maintain half of the city when you were away! "

Zhaochen looked at him with a smile but said nothing.

Zuo An made a " tsk " sound, knowing that he was in the wrong, and turned his head away without looking at him.

At this moment, the team from Dayo City suddenly stopped.

Zuo An and Zhao Chen were both at the back and couldn't immediately know what was happening in front. They frowned and asked angrily, " What are the people in front doing? Why did they stop? "

Looking at Zuo An's familiar angry expression, Zhao Chen sighed helplessly and said, " Calm down, someone will notify you soon. "

Zhaochen was right. As soon as he finished speaking, he and Zuo An received a secret message from the person responsible for clearing the way.

The one who contacted Zhaochen was the new captain of the Bancheng Knights, while the one who contacted Zuoan was Yugui who was sent to the front to explore the way.

[With Return] : Nails were scattered right in front of the team, and they stretched out for at least thirty meters, so the knights could not get through.

[Yugui] : No, it's not just the knight troops that can't get through. Except for the armored swordsmen, other professions have a hard time getting through. They scattered a lot.

[Yugui] : Damn it, I stepped on it, fuck!

When he uttered these words, he found an open space with Guizheng, took off his shoes, and pulled the " nails " out of the soles .

In fact, it was not a nail in the strict sense, but a very sharp piece of metal with a round ball in the middle and six sides covered with spikes that were half the length of a finger.

Yu Gui had seen this thing before. It was a " hidden weapon " sold by the blacksmith . Twenty of them cost one silver coin, and the upper limit of the stacking in one grid of the backpack was nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine. In other words, this thing had almost no cost and could be carried in large quantities.

Yugui looked at his foot with a hole in it, sniffed sadly, and whispered: " I am so miserable. " This " hidden weapon " was soon delivered to Zuo An. He carefully picked up the thorn on it and said in disbelief: " What the hell is this?!" "

Zhao Chen took a look and said, ' The " hidden weapons ' sold there in bulk have a chance to be dropped by humanoid monsters. "

Zuo An looked at Zhao Chen and said angrily: " Why is this thing here?!" "

Zhaochen said: " You should ask Star City about this matter. "

Zuo An was stunned for a moment, then he understood what was going on. He was so angry that he shouted, " How do we get rid of this thing? "

The assassins from Star City hid themselves and scattered these " hidden weapons " all over the ground. Whenever the troops from Sun City tried to move forward, they would be stabbed in the feet in various ways, making it difficult for them to move forward!

" We can't get rid of it, " Zhaochen said, " This thing will get stuck if you throw it on the ground. If we want to sweep it away, we have to pick it up one by one. Our movement speed will be greatly slowed down, and the people in Star City will continue to spread this kind of thing forward. There may still be some all the way to the gate of Star City. "

Zuo An said: " What should we do? Can we go around it? "

Zhao Chen touched his chin and said, " The knights and the two agile classes can rely on their speed to get around, but the other classes can't. The assassins from Star City are nearby. The other classes are slow, so no matter which direction they go, they can lay the nails in advance. " However, they certainly cannot let the knights and agility professions leave first. The two most critical professions in team battles – swordsmen and priests - both have short legs and cannot move. Once the vanguard troops and the swordsmen and priests are separated, what will greet them next will not be low-level obstacles like nails.

Before Zuo An could speak, a clear female voice said, " Should we wait for them to be automatically refreshed? "

The air was turbulent, and Yugui showed up, looking sad and saying to Zuo'an, " I stepped on several of them, and there are bloody holes all over the soles of my feet. Do you want to see them? "

Zuo An showed a look of disdain, rode his horse towards Zhao Chen, and said to Yu Gui: " You are still a girl, isn't it disgusting? "

Yugui was incredulous: " Come on, boss, you knew I was a girl, but you sent me to explore the way ahead! I was the one who got stabbed! "

Zuo An ignored her and said directly: " What did you mean by wait for refresh? "

Yugui snorted and said , Will the salary " increase or not? "

Zuo An said perfunctorily: " It's going up, tell me! "

Yugui then smiled contentedly and said, " Things dropped on the ground will be refreshed. It only takes three to five minutes. "

" If Star City wants to trap us, they will try to spread the nails over a wider area and with a higher density. We don't have to bother picking them up. We just have to wait for the system to refresh. After a few times, they will have used up all the stuff, and then we can pass through without any worries. "

After that, Yugui added: " It won't take even 20 or 30 minutes! If you feel bored, why don't we play Landlord? "

Zuo An hesitated for a moment and before he could say anything, Zhao Chen had already looked at Yugui with a smile.

Yugui showed an innocent expression and looked back at him strangely. It was not until Zhaochen looked away that Yugui's gaze turned cold.

Zhaochen smiled and said, " You and Zuo'an are quite a good match. "

Yugui: " Ugh— "

Left Bank: "..."

Yugui wiped his mouth calmly and said, " Okay, I've vomited everything in my stomach, you can continue talking. "

The veins on Zuo An's forehead popped out: " Hey!!! "

Both ignored Zuo An's protest. Zhao Chen said to Yu Gui, " Do you really not know or are you pretending not to know? "

And Guidao: " Know what? "

Zhao Chen glanced at her and said, " The items that players buy from there with game currency refresh every ten minutes. Even if the number of nails in reserve on the assassins in Star City is as you said, we will have to wait here for more than an hour. "

" Fanxing City certainly doesn't expect these nails to make us turn back. Their purpose is to delay our time, " Zhaochen looked at Yugui coldly and said, " No matter what they want to do with this time, ' Don't do what the enemy wants you to do ', you should understand this principle, right? "

Hearing this, Zuo An also reacted and looked at Yugui strangely, not understanding why the other party would make such a suggestion.

Yu Gui looked at Zhao Chen for a while, and just when Zhao Chen thought that he would refute his opinion, he suddenly said in surprise, " Is this true?! "

Zhaochen: "..."

Yugui scratched his head and said in confusion, " I thought they were just struggling to survive, so we should just delay it for a while. If we have to wait for an hour or so, then forget it. This method doesn't seem to work. "

Zhaochen came back to his senses and couldn't help but frowning.

Yugui looked at him and said, " But this method doesn't work. Do you have any other ideas? "

Zhaochen looked at her and said nothing.

" Taking a detour won't work, picking up items won't work, and waiting for the refresh won't work! " Zuo An pounded the saddle angrily and cursed with gritted teeth: " How could the people in Star City resort to such low-level and disgusting means? Do they have any shame?! "

" We've already started fighting, why bother saving our dignity, " Xu Chu said to Xiao Xiao Yu Xia with a grin, " Anyway, all of our assassins are hiding outside, let's see if they leave or not. If they do, we'll move forward, if not, we'll stay where we are, and talk about it after we've spread out all of them. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said speechlessly: " What are your plans for next time? Can you tell me first? Do you know how long I have been worried about this? "

Xu Chu said: " This method can only delay it for an hour at most, okay? Don't you think you won't be worried if you know this? "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "... I still will. "

Xu Chu shrugged with an expression that said " you see " .

Ji Xuanyi looked at Xiao Xiaoyu and said, " How is the specific defense arrangement going? "

Speaking of this, Xiao Xiao Yuxia couldn't help but wipe his sweat and said, " It's almost done, but in order to prevent it from refreshing, I have to check it every once in a while. "

 " Hurry up, " Ji Xuan said, " Xu Chu's little trick won't last long. "

Everyone was stunned, not knowing why Ji Xuanyi suddenly said this.

 " Why? " Xu Chu said dissatisfiedly, " Is there any way to crack this disgusting strategy? If they don't wait for the nails to refresh on the road, they will have to be troubled by this thing until they reach the outside of the city, and it will take at least half the time to get here. "

Ji Xuanyi looked at Xu Chu and said, " Does this thing have any substantial harm? "

Xu Chu was startled, revealing an expression of not wanting to look directly at it, and said: " No way, this thing is so scary, even if it doesn't cause much blood, aren't you afraid of it piercing your foot? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Do you think that kind of person would be afraid of this thing? Or, would he care whether others are afraid of this thing or not? "

Xu Chu frowned.

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia couldn't help it and said, " What are you talking about? What do you mean? "

Ji Xuanyi looked at him and whispered, " Those nails scattered on the ground are indeed scary. In real life, no one would step on them unless they were mentally ill. But this is a game. As weapons, their damage is too low. Even if they pierce the whole body, they may not be able to consume all the health of a fragile profession. "

 " So there's nothing to be afraid of, just walk over there. " At the same time as Ji Xuanyi, Zhao Chen said the same thing to Zuo An in the half-city team that had not yet left the scope of Yuri City.

Zuo An and Yu Gui both looked at him blankly.

After a long while, Zuo An's eyes twitched and he said, " This is too scary. Just walk over those things? "

 " This is the most time-saving and labor-saving method. We don't even have any losses, except for that little bit of health, " Zhaochen smiled and said, " The system can automatically restore it to full in three seconds. Is there anything else to hesitate about? "

Zuo An hesitated for a moment, then thought that he was a knight and there was actually nothing to be afraid of, so he nodded hesitantly.

Yugui couldn't help but say, " Hey, are you sick? Are you going this way? You two are willing but others are not! "

Zhao Chen glanced at her and said, " Those who were unwilling did not come with us. We had already discussed everything when we were organizing the team. "

The current Day City is no longer the Day City of the past. The number of individual people has been greatly reduced, and they have basically been incorporated into Half the City.

" Although I think not losing blood is not a big deal, it is normal to be reluctant. After all, this is just a game. Who is willing to risk their life so much? " Zhao Chen touched his chin and said, " Just make up some nonsense to encourage them. "

For example, how the Starry City provoked in front of the formation, how it mocked the Sun City and so on.

In short, it is enough to provoke the anger of the players in Day City. After all, many people find it difficult to suppress their emotions once they get too excited. They will also think, "It's not like I'm losing blood, so what's there to be afraid of?" If I back out here, it seems like I am really a coward!

After a period of communication, the team from Dayo City started moving forward again.

Inside the Starry City formation, after Ji Xuanyi said this, everyone else was stunned.

" This is too ... too ... too inhuman! " Liu Tian was so embarrassed that his face turned red and his neck became thick. It took him a long time to come up with this adjective and said, " What's the difference between this group of people and those garbage from the Wanzhi Gang? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " The difference is probably that half of the city has one person with a brain? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu sighed and said, " It's really scary when bad guys have brains. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was about to speak when she saw the secret chat coming from the assassin in front of her, and her face suddenly turned dark.

" What's wrong? " Xu Chu asked.

It would be quite embarrassing if the trick he had come up with with great difficulty was broken just like that. Although Ji Xuanyi had already told him how to break it, he still hoped in his heart that the other party was not as inhuman as Ji Xuanyi said.

It's a pity that Xu Chu's luck has never been very good. Xiao Xiaoyuxia said to him: " Just walk to Sun City. "

And it's very fast.

Originally, a few assassins saw them moving forward and wanted to continue to fill in the gaps, but they were directly rushed out by the Knights of Daylight City. Before they could react, they flew to the resurrection point.

Now is not the world mission period, and the resurrection point is not fixed in the main city. It is easy to die in an unknown corner. Those assassins will have a hard time tracking and interfering with the Sun City team, let alone sneaking back to the main city.

Xu Chu lost his temper, looked at Ji Xuanyi, and said, " I only prepared this one method, and I thought I could disgust them for a while, but I didn't expect the other side to be so inhumane. What should I do? Just let them come over like this? "

Ji Xuanyi had no intention of stopping them on the road, and said calmly: " Come if you want to. We are almost ready anyway, so there is no need to waste time. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia was confused and asked: " Ah? Are we almost ready? How come I don't know? "

Facing a strong enemy like the Daytime City , Xiaoxiao Yuxia felt that even if she prepared for another half a year, she would not be able to say that she was almost ready.

Very panicked.

Xu Chu sighed and said, " This is the gap. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said sincerely: " Yes, I have already felt it very clearly. "

Ji Xuanyi is the one who is going to do great things!

Ji Xuanyi was so annoyed by Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Xuchu's stares that he said, " Although the arrangements outside the city gates on both sides are almost complete, we still need to know where the enemy is coming from. Xiaoxiao Yuxia, do you have any news? "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia lowered her head and chatted for a while, then said, " It's not clear yet. They are still far away from Star City, and it's not time to turn around yet. "

Ji Xuan opened his mouth and was about to say something, but suddenly froze and frowned, " How many assassins are following them? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " There are many, what's the matter? "

Ji Xuanyi looked at him and said, " Can we take turns to monitor the other side? The kind that is online 24 hours a day. "

Xiao Xiaoyu was stunned, and suddenly remembered that the method they had used before to bypass the " eyes " of the Sun City would most likely be returned to them intact by the other party this time.

Xiao Xiao Yu patted his chest, feeling a little scared, and said, " Shit, I almost forgot about this. It would be hilarious if I was attacked later. I don't know how I would be ridiculed. "

Xu Chu also missed this and said with a bad look on his face: " Hurry up and have them arrange the shifts, and we can negotiate the price. "

It's raining so hard, so there's no need for him to remind me, the notice had already been sent out.

Ji Xuanyi lowered his eyes and said, " Leave two people outside of Day City to see if there are any other troops leaving the city. "

Ji Xuanyi took the map from Xiao Xiaoyuxia, unfolded it, searched with his eyes, pointed to one of the places and said: " Xu Chu, continue to disgust them with whatever methods you can think of. After they die, those who are too far away from the main city will be gathered here. "

" There aren't too many people, " Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " but it should be enough. "

Chapter 104

, Mi Yin actually couldn't quite understand the deep hatred between the camps. When he played the game , he enjoyed the sense of competition and the tacit understanding of cooperation with his teammates. No matter he won or lost , as long as he had a great time, it was something to be happy about for him.

the desire to survive between the camps, which wanted to suppress the other side no matter what means, even if it involved real life , and the obsession of the players who came from afar to attack the city.

But not understanding it doesn't mean it doesn't exist. Mi Yin knows that some players' way of playing the game is to cause trouble in the wild , fight, and kill people . Apart from these things , they don't want to do anything else. In fact , the gameplay of the game "Domain" announced so far is too peaceful . If no one causes trouble, this game will be very boring for these players.

It can be said that although people like Zuo An are disgusting, from a gaming perspective , these troublemakers are also an indispensable part of a game.

Zuo An and the man behind him definitely did not act for the so-called " camp ". Among those players who followed them across mountains and rivers to attack Star City, it was estimated that only a small number of them were truly for the sense of camp honor , thinking that Star City had overwhelmed them last time and they needed to fight back this time.

The real team consists of players who are born to love to stir up trouble and go wherever there is a fight, as well as those who were coerced and lured by Bancheng to become members of his affiliated gang.

The boss goes out to fight, will the younger brother follow? He says he is willing, but who knows if he will be expelled after returning to the city like before? Now Bancheng can be said to be omnipotent in Day City. As long as there is a good excuse, he can beat anyone he wants.

The so-called power of resistance – everyone has seen the ending of the Loose Alliance, and a few small gangs like Wanshi Fengyu were used as an example . Unless the fire burns on themselves, the gangs in Dayo City will no longer speak out against any decision of Bancheng. In any case, this complex team finally approached Star City slowly on the morning of the next day.

Perhaps realizing the difficulty of this battle, Xu Chu did not delay. When Ji Xuanyi came online, he was already looking at the map with Xiao Xiaoyu.

Ji Xuanyi also leaned over to take a look and said, " Are they here? "

Xiao Xiaoyu nodded and said, " At this distance, they don't seem to be turning. It seems that they are planning to attack from the southwest. "

Because it is the gate that leads most directly to the main road of Youri City, the Southwest District has also put a lot of effort into arranging the defense lineup. In addition, the stronghold of Tamajanghu is right there. Although it cannot be said that it can beat Youri City back, it is at least one of the four gates with stronger defense.

Ji Xuan looked at Xiao Xiao Yuxia and asked, " Has the cavalry of Dayo City started to speed up? "

Xiao Xiaoyu was startled, and after chatting with the spy outside, he looked up and said, " No. " Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Then go wait outside the northwest area. They won't attack from the southwest. "

The strengths of the knight troops lie in their mobility and impact. The location of the Sun City is actually not too far from the Star City . At this distance, if the knights wanted to attack, they would have already run away. Not to mention the impact, their mobility can also shake off the spies who are tracking them, making it impossible for the Star City to predict the specific time of their arrival.

This strategy, which is most suitable for knights, has only one problem, and that is the connection with the rear troops – if the knight troops arrive at the battle point and it has been a while since the priests and ranged troops behind have caught up, then the knight troops will suffer very serious losses.

Therefore, when using this strategy, the distance between the two points must be controlled within a certain range, which must be long enough for Star City to guess the timing of the knights' attack, and short enough for the rear troops to provide timely support.

Ji Xuanyi drew a line on the map and said, " This distance can be said to be the golden distance. The enemy's knights have not made any movement yet, which only proves that their target is not here, but somewhere further away. It is not yet time for them to charge. "

" I don't think the other party would be stupid enough to choose the Southeast District over the Northwest District. Whether it's the terrain or other factors, the Southeast District is not as advantageous to them as the Northwest District. "

Ji Xuan glanced at Xiao Xiao Yuxia and found that the other person was sweating profusely. He was speechless and said, " You don't have to be so nervous, right? "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia collapsed and said: " Normal people would be nervous at this time, okay? Look at them! "

Ji Xuan took a look and found that except for him and Xu Chu, even Qi Qin and Xue Piao Renjian looked nervous.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Your character has collapsed in "Xue Piao Renjian"!

Snowfall: "..."

Seeing Ji Xuanyi looking at him speechlessly, Qi Qin couldn't help but ask, " Xuanyi, aren't you worried? After all, plans and speculations are inaccurate. What if they really don't attack the northwest? "

Qi Qin said what everyone wanted to say. It can be said that except Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu, everyone else was worried about this matter.

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin and asked, " Worrying about this can solve the problem? "

After saying that, he also looked at Xiao Xiao Yu Xia.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia, who has been worried until now but has not figured out a solution, said: "..."

Ji Xuanyi snorted , straightened his back, looked at everyone coldly, and suddenly displayed an irrefutable aura.

" Their target is the northwest. Let's gather there. "

There was an inexplicable power in Ji Xuanyi's words that made people want to believe it involuntarily, and everyone calmed down for almost no reason.

Ji Xuanyi was right. The most likely target of Daytime City was the Northwest District, and it could only be the Northwest District. There was no need to worry about anything meaningless. They just needed to perform all the guarding actions they could.

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia took a deep breath and said, " Let's go to the northwest area! "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything and followed Xiao Xiaoyuxia and others to the traffic point.

As the crowd walked forward, Xu Chu lagged behind by two steps, walked to Ji Xuanyi's side, and said with great interest: " Is this the legendary turtle spirit? "

Ji Xuanyi: "... go away. "

There were only two people who did not show any worry, Xu Chu and Ji Xuanyi.

Xu Chu really wasn't worried. Although he wasn't late today, that was only because he put a lot of thought into it and it was rare for him to be serious. What he was serious about was only the process, and he didn't care about the outcome at all, so he didn't feel worried.

But Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu are different.

In fact, Ji Xuanyi was not sure whether Yueri City would really attack the Northwest Region. After all, no one in the world could take into account all the possible developments of a matter. However, Ji Xuanyi knew that all unnecessary worries would only affect his judgment. In addition to people like Xiao Xiao Yuxia, the team must also have someone like him who could stabilize people's hearts.

What's more, he was used to such confidence.

The worst that can happen is just a slap in the face, and then I can think of a solution later.

Xu Chu made a few " tsk tsk " sounds, circled around Ji Xuanyi a few times, and said, " I have a bold idea. "

Ji Xuanyi glanced at Xu Chu.

Xu Chu whispered, " You are not that Ji Xuanyi, are you? The eldest brother of the Ji family. "

Ji Xuanyi asked calmly: " Which Ji family? "

Xu Chu raised his eyebrows: " You don't know? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Do other people have to know what you know? You are sick. "

Xu Chu: "..."

Ji Xuanyi pushed Xu Chu away and pulled Qi Qin onto a carriage. Xu Chu was still trying to squeeze in shamelessly, but Ji Xuanyi kicked him down.

Qi Qin sat opposite Ji Xuanyi and looked at him cautiously.

Xu Chu didn't know, but he knew that Ji Xuanyi was indeed not an ordinary person. What was the situation between Ji Xuanyi and the Ji family, and why did Ji Xuanyi live in a rental house in such an old neighborhood? These were all mysteries.

Qi Qin thought about it, but couldn't help asking: " Xuan Yi, what Xu Chu said ..."

Ji Xuan looked over at him, and the sunlight outside the carriage reflected into his eyes from the side, making his look exceptionally cold.

Qi Qin choked and said timidly: " No, nothing, huh? "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything for a long time before he responded quietly, saying, " It has nothing to do with me anyway. "

As soon as Ji Xuanyi and others arrived in the northwest area, they received news that the team from Dayo City had indeed made a feint around the southwest area and then headed towards the northwest area.

Xiao Xiaoyu looked at Ji Xuanyi and said sincerely: " Boss, you are awesome! "

Although Ji Xuanyi felt relieved in his heart, his face remained calm, which made Xu Chu chuckle .

But no one cared about Xu Chu at this time. Everyone was concentrating on preparing for the upcoming battle.

The strategy of Daytime City is very simple. In fact, with their strength, they do not need overly complicated tactics. Going straight to the southwest area is just a cover. If the people of Starry City can be fooled, it would be good to transfer them to the southwest area at the last moment. Even if they are not fooled, it does not matter, because their original target is the northwest area. The geographical environment is suitable, and there is not even a large gang registered in the northwest area of Fanxing City. It is estimated that the three major gangs themselves are not very familiar with this city. It will save a lot of effort to repel the opponent after attacking. None of the other three city areas is more suitable for attacking than here.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia led the troops of the three major gangs and waited quietly in front of the city gate of the northwest district.

Soon, they saw the knight troops from the Daytime City rushing towards them with great momentum.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia couldn't help swallowing her saliva and said, " Have the number of people in their Knights increased again? How many gangs in Day City have been integrated into Bancheng? "

Xu Chu looked at the cavalry on the opposite side with a relaxed look and said, " I don't know about that. You should ask Xue Piao Renjian. He used to lead the knights of Bancheng. "

After saying that, Xu Chu remembered something and said, " Oh, it seems that Xue Piao Renjian is not here. Let's talk about it next time. "

Liu Tian, who was standing next to him, was startled and said, " Xue Piao Renjian is not here? Where is he? I told you he was an undercover agent, but you still didn't believe me! "

Xu Chu looked at him as if he were a fool.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said helplessly: " Xue Piao just left with Mi Yin, didn't you see? They also said hello to Ji Xuanyi. "

Liu Tian was stunned and said, " Is that so? "

After greeting Ji Xuanyi, it sounds like it will be more reliable? However, it doesn't matter where Xue Piao Renjian went. What matters is what to do with the Cavaliers team in front of them! Of course, there are knights in Star City as well, but they only have about one-third of the number of people in Sun City. If they rush forward like this, something bad will most likely happen. What's more, among the two team leaders, there is another one, Liu Tian, in addition to Jian Xi Xin Jiu. This is even more dangerous!

Liu Tian also knew that his strength was lacking, so his palms were sweating.

However, the team from Dayo City was getting closer and closer, but Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Xu Chu had no intention of letting Liutian and the others start a sprint.

Liu Tian couldn't help but said to Xu Chu: " Hey, what are you doing? Did you forget to issue the order? "

Xu Chu glanced at him, and for once did not insult him, but smiled and said, " Why are you in such a hurry? Wait. "

Liu Tian was about to speak when he saw Xiao Xiaoyuxia, who was nervous, suddenly heaved a sigh of relief. Xu Chu also said, " We're here. "

Liu Tian was stunned to see that the front row of the Day City Knights who were rushing towards them suddenly disappeared.

Liu Tian: "What the hell?!"

The knights of Day City also felt very frustrated.

Under normal circumstances, their attack would not only open the northwest city gate directly, but would also disperse the front row of the Star City troops. After that, they could break out from the side and use the high mobility of the knights to make another detour. After several rounds of this, by the time the priests and ranged teams came to support them, they would be able to clean up the mess.

The captain of the Daylight City Knights thought that there was only one problem to worry about in this plan, and that was whether the combat effectiveness of the Starry City, under the leadership of Xue Piao Renjian and the number one in the world, was strong enough to withstand their attack under such circumstances.

It turned out that the captain was overthinking.

Before he even had the chance to meet the Starry City team, he encountered an unbridgeable gap – what a fucking gap!

The wild area outside the northwest district of Star City is a grassland. The grass there is very dense, almost as high as a person's thigh. Of course, for knights on horseback, this thing does not hinder their speed at all, but what the captain never expected is that this thing will hinder his vision!

The people of Star City dug a long and deep trench outside the northwest area. By the time the knights of Sun City discovered the trench, the front hooves of their horses had already stepped into it. They had no time to react and fell in one after another!

The slower knights behind them had discovered the ditch in advance from the curses of their teammates in front of them, and quickly jumped over it on their horses – but before they landed, they found that there was another ditch under their feet! Another batch of people and horses fell into it!

The knight captain who rushed to the front and fell to the bottom couldn't help but curse: "Fuck! How can they do that? The ground doesn't refresh??? Are they digging every day?! Is Star City a fucking nest of groundhogs! "

But complaining is one thing, they have to climb out of the ditch quickly. Although the ditch in Star City is deep, it is just a layer of iron fence on both sides, and there are no terrible weapons such as spears and swords underneath. Although the fall was fierce, they only lost a small amount of blood. As long as they climb out and get back on their horses, they can still hold on until the reinforcements arrive!

However, they would certainly not be so stupid as to miss this opportunity in the rain. As soon as the captain of the knights stuck his head out of the ditch, he saw arrows and magic skills falling from the sky in dense masses like raindrops.

Knight Captain: "... Fuck! "

He only had time to say this one word before he was doused all over his head and face by the unavoidable skill. Together with most of the knights trapped in the pit, he turned into white light and flew to the nearest resurrection point – probably one of the two resurrection points that were thousands of miles away.

There are only a few tactics that cavalry fear the most, and anyone can think of them, but in this game, there are some tactics that do not need to be guarded against, including trenches and all traps made using the natural environment.

Just like what the knight captain said just now, this is a game, and there is a concept of refresh in the game. If something falls on the ground without being touched by the player, it will be refreshed and disappear in a few minutes. The same is true for the natural environment. If a player walks on the road and steps on a blade of grass, the grass will be refreshed back to its original state after a few minutes. Only if the player does not leave and keeps standing on the grass, the grass will not be refreshed.

Logically speaking, even if a trench is dug out, it is impossible for it to exist forever. Instead, it should be refreshed into a complete ground within a few minutes after Star City put it aside. This is why the Day City Knights were unprepared for this.

Unless Star City can accurately calculate the time of their arrival here and dig the trench at the refresh point, it will be possible for it to be effective – but the people of Sun City are not blind. If they see you digging the trench from afar and then jump in, wouldn't that be crazy!

But what Day City didn't expect was that the biggest effort of the defense made by Star City in advance was not in digging the ground, but in getting close to the blacksmith ...

Xiaoxiao Yuxia and others realized the refresh problem on the first day they tried to dig out the trench. After experimenting with countless methods, they found that no matter what was used to fix the ground of the dug pit, it was inevitable that players had to touch it.

Finally, they had no choice but to borrow a furnace from the blacksmith with all their might. This time they really borrowed it, not " took " it, because no one knew how to use it. Then, using very clumsy techniques, it took them half a month to make two huge iron fences. Perhaps their sincerity was so moving that these two iron fences even had a system description – a strange metal product, very rough and useless.

However, what seemed useless to the system was extremely useful to Xiao Xiao Yu Xia and his team. They connected very long iron sheets to both ends of the iron fence. After fixing the soil with the iron fence, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia and his team dug two more pits in the hidden places at both ends. Every day, they let two players take turns to touch the fence. It took almost half a month to keep these two trenches until now. In order to trap the Sun City, they worked very hard

...

Fortunately, all the hard work finally paid off. After a wave of skills were thrown, there were not many Day City Knights left who successfully came out of the two ditches. Moreover, they had lost their biggest advantage, the impact power. Without a commander, it was difficult for them to even form a decent team.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia then shouted loudly: " Starry City Knights, attack! "

Jian Xi and Xin Jiu all rushed out. Liu Liu, who was stunned for a long time, finally reacted. Not willing to be outdone, he led his team to rush towards the Knights of Day City, of which only about one third of the defeated soldiers were left.

Everyone knew that they couldn't fight head-on at this time. The Knights of Day City regrouped themselves a little, then immediately bypassed the trench and fled for their lives.

They are waiting for the next support. As long as the priests and the long-range team arrive, they still have the strength to fight against the Starry City!

Xu Chu admired the way the people of Dayo City were running away for a while, then lowered his head and whispered to Liu Tian: " Don't chase them too hard, just chase them casually, and when the time is right, send them back to the resurrection point. "

This isn't a world mission-like battle where you just kill and that's it. Although the resurrection point is not close to here, it's not far away either . The group of people who died still have a chance to come back.

A protracted war is fought when your team is not complete. Xu Chu has to wait for the remaining one-third of the team, the Day City Knights who have been to the resurrection point, to come. In front of them, he will send this one-third of the team back to the resurrection point, and then fight the remaining two-thirds who have just arrived from the resurrection point. Once a cycle is formed, if the commander of the opposite side does not realize that they need to wait for the assembly at the resurrection point, this team of knights will never be able to show their true strength and will be directly destroyed.

Xiao Xiaoyu let out a long breath and said absentmindedly: " What the hell, I was scared to death. If they hadn't stepped in, all our efforts would have been in vain! "

Xu Chu smiled and said nothing.

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said: " Although the plan is very good, is it true that their reinforcements will not arrive? "

Xu Chu shrugged and said, " What's the point of asking me this? Go ask Ji Xuanyi and the others. "

Chapter 105

" Sun City is not difficult to deal with . The difficult thing is actually the person behind Zuo'an, " Ji Xuan said. " Let's not talk about the ability of the layout. Who can be one step ahead of the other party? After all, we are far behind them in strength. If we continue to fight like this, we will suffer. "

 " So first of all , we have to make that person speechless. "

The countermeasure proposed by Xu Chu is already a classic strategy in the game. If the opponent is a little dumber and the timing is more accurate , he can even split it into three attacks – but that is too much of an underestimation of the opponent's IQ. Even with the current one-third and two-thirds approach , it can only work for three to five waves when the opponent is desperate.

However, the development of things always seemed to be worse than Xu Chu expected. The captain of the Day City Knights was indeed not very smart, but the captains of all the teams in Day City had a good habit , which was to consult the gang leaders and deputy gang leaders of half the city before doing anything.

, who was heading to the northwest gate of Star City with his ranged and priest troops, received a private message from the knight captain and yelled, " Fuck! "

Zhaochen asked, " What happened? Did something happen to the Cavaliers? " face turned pale and he cursed, " Fuck Star City , I don't know how they did it, they dug two trenches in the ground! "

Zhaochen frowned.

Zuo An said: " Fuck! This idiot asked me what to do if he came back to life. He should kill me again after he came back to life! He still needs my advice? "

Zuo An was about to lower his head to chat in private when he heard Zhao Chen say, " Did all the Cavaliers die? "

Zuo An was stunned and said, " What? "

Zhaochen looked at him and said nothing.

Zuo An had no choice but to lower his head and ask the captain whether the team was wiped out.

After a moment , he looked up at Chen and said, " Not bad , they are not wiped out. Almost two-thirds of them have died, and there is still one-third left. "

Zhao Chen looked solemn and said, " Half of the people dead is not a good thing. "

Zuo An said: " Nonsense, it's not a good thing if someone dies here! "

Zhaochen: "..."

Zhao Chen was at a loss for words for a moment, not knowing where to start explaining. After a long while, he sighed and said, " The reason why nearly half of the Knights survived is not because the Knights are strong, but because the opponent only wanted to kill half of the people. Star City wanted to take advantage of the uneven number of the Knights and use the time difference from the resurrection point to the battle point to split the Knights into two halves— "

Zuo An looked at Zhaochen in confusion.

Zhao Chen: "... Forget it. Anyway, tell him not to leave the resurrection point, but to wait for the team to gather at the resurrection point. The one-third who is still alive should find a way to die quickly and gather with the other two-thirds. "

Zuo An expressed his incomprehension. It was already bad enough that two-thirds of the people died, but the remaining one-third was still seeking death. Isn't this fucking insane?

However, since it was Zhaochen who said it, Zuo An listened unconditionally. Just as he lowered his head and was about to send a private message, there was a sudden cry of surprise from all around.

Zuo An was stunned, then looked up immediately, his pupils suddenly shrinking.

The assassin who had stabbed him eighteen times was now falling towards him from mid-air, looking at him with a smile.

Perhaps it was because he was stabbed so badly that it left a psychological trauma. Zuo An's mind was blank. It was not until Mi Yin suddenly disappeared that he screamed in shock: " Heal me! Fuck! Heal me!! He's going to kill me! "

The priests around him had also experienced the tragic moment when Zuo An was stabbed, and they quickly used healing skills on him, but Mi Yin did not appear behind him.

Zuo An was stunned, then immediately realized something and looked fiercely towards Zhaochen.

Zhaochen dismounted the moment he saw Miyin and tried to hide among other players: "..." Fuck! Look at what he's doing!

In fact, even if Zuo An didn't look for Zhao Chen, Mi Yin would have found him, because all the knights of the Day City had already rushed to the Star City. There were only two knights in this team composed of ranged warriors and priests. It was easy to imagine that besides Zuo An, the other person was probably the guy who had been hiding behind Zuo An and giving him advice. However, with Zuo'an's guidance, the identity of the target can be more certain.

Mi Yin instantly appeared behind Zhaochen. Zhaochen didn't even need to look back because he knew how big the flaw behind him was.

He is a brain-based player, not a physical player. His fighting ability is only enough to beat up a player from Zuo'an. When he meets a player of Mi Yin's level, he can basically only be beaten. However, his equipment is fully managed by Zuo An, and his health is still very considerable, not to mention that there are a bunch of priests around them.

Even though he was already within Miyin's most convenient attack range, Zhaochen still said calmly: " You can't kill me. "

Mi Yin said: t'I really can ,s true'That " kill you by myself . "

Just as he finished speaking, a horse neighed from outside the crowd.

Zhaochen's expression changed, and Miyin smiled at him and said, " You don't think I jumped so high by myself, do you? "

The assassin is very agile, but he is not a flea. Mi Yin almost " flew " in from outside. Who is helping him?

Zhaochen and Zuo'an had been hiding in the middle of the priest team. After the Knights left, they did not have time to adjust their formation. They were still surrounded by the weak priests. Moreover, due to the forced march, the two of them had moved to a relatively forward position, and the surrounding cover circle became thinner, so thin that even a master of Xue Piao Renjian's level could break through it by just one person!

That's right, Mi Yin alone had no way of killing either Zuo An or Zhao Chen under the protection of so many priests. But it was different with Xue Piao Renjian. The two of them cooperated so well, attacked so quickly, and dealt so much damage that the healer had no time to react and the DPS was killed . Similar battle scenes had appeared many times in the two people's teaching videos. Even now, with the cooperation of Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian, one of Zuo An and Zhao Chen would definitely die today.

However, their target is not Zuo An. After all, Zuo An's death or life has no impact on the battle situation, and there is no benefit in killing him. Their target is Zhao Chen!

Zhao Chen's expression changed for only a moment, and soon he calmed down and said with a smile: " It's not easy for you two to be together again. I'll kill you if I want to. It's not a loss to be killed by you two at the same time . "

Zhaochen certainly didn't think so. Not to mention Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian, even if the game producer came to kill him once, he would still lose! But in the final analysis, it was just a loss of a level. The situation this time was different from the world mission, and the resurrection point was not far away . He only needed to die once, not only could he avoid Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian, but he might even be able to reunite with the Knights. Even if he happened to die at the two resurrection points, he could easily return to the main force and continue to command. Of course it is a big loss to die in vain, but this death also has benefits, so it is not so difficult to accept.

Mi Yin couldn't help laughing and said, " Death? You're dreaming. "

Ji Xuanyi could certainly think of what Zhaochen could think of. If he wanted to make this smart commander never open his mouth again, he certainly couldn't just kill him. Not to mention that the resurrection point was nearby. Even if he was killed once and returned to Youri City, this person would still be able to guess the general situation of the scene from the details and give Zuo'an hints from thousands of miles away.

Ji Xuanyi certainly had other plans.

When Zhaochen heard Mi Yin's words, his face changed drastically.

However, before he could react, Mi Yin had instantly killed the last person who was blocking him behind Zhao Chen, and welcomed Xue Piao Renjian who had broken through the siege and was already prepared.

Zhao Chen glanced back and saw the hemp rope in Xue Piao Renjian's hand.

Zhaochen's eyes almost popped out: "... Fuck!!! "

Zhaochen didn't have time to say the next curse, as Miyin skillfully and roughly stuffed a ball of cloth in her hand into Zhaochen's mouth. Xue Piaorenjian swung the noose in her hand, just enough to circle Zhaochen. Miyin immediately caught the extra section and tied Zhaochen's hands.

Without waiting for everyone to react, Xue Piao Renjian wrapped the rope around the saddle with one hand, waved away everyone with the gun in the other, clamped his legs around the horse's belly, dragged the struggling Zhao Chen, and rushed out of the formation of Yuri City and ran away!

Not only did he run away, he also kidnapped Zhaochen, the core commander of Daytime City! Everyone in Day City was stunned by this scene. They never thought that this game could be played in this way?! Kidnapping?!

Mi Yin said to Zuo An with a smile: " I won't kill you today, come on, hehe. "

Zuo An came back to his senses, gasped in anger, and nearly fainted. He pointed at Mi Yin and cursed: " Fuck! Kill him!!! "

Mi Yin raised his eyebrows and disappeared. Everyone attacked towards the original place again, but they couldn't hit him because he had already run away!

Zuo An was so angry that his face turned green. He shouted in the direction where Zhao Chen was kidnapped: " Chase! Kill that traitor Xue Piao Renjian! Fuck! "

Of course he can chase him. Zhaochen is a knight. Although he wears light armor, he can carry a heavy load. Xue Piao Renjian cannot be registered in Fanxing City, nor can he join the Tamajualu gang. He cannot ride the world mission rewards of Tamajualu, so he can only ride an ordinary good horse sponsored by Xuchu. Carrying the struggling Zhaochen with him will still affect his speed.

But even if his speed has slowed down a little, a knight is still a knight, and he cannot be caught up by other two-legged professions. Now in the Youri City camp, only Zuo'an is a knight, and he can catch up with Xue Piao Renjian.

But no matter how stupid Zuo An was, he would never pursue Xue Piao Renjian alone. Wouldn't that be courting death? Xue Piao Renjian might just kidnap him on a whim. If the Sun City was leaderless and was attacked by the same method back to the main city, who would he go to for justice?

But Zuo An was just thinking too much. Xue Piao Renjian was too lazy to tie him up because the benefits were too low.

Zhaochen knew that Zuo'an's pursuit would definitely not save him from Xue Piao Renjian. He could only use long-range attacks on Xue Piao Renjian before the distance was too far.

Although Xue Piao Renjian would not be hit under normal circumstances, he was tied to his horse. Even if he gnawed at the ground with his teeth, he could at least affect the opponent's movement! In order to avoid the attack, Xue Piao Renjian had no choice but to let him go!

However, with Zuo An's brain, he would never think of this. Maybe he has already planned to give up in his heart. Zhaochen is in despair.

In the current situation, it is impossible to type in secret messages, and there is no way to shout directly as Mi Yin has blocked his mouth with a cloth. Zhao Chen thought about it, his face became serious, and he could only fight to the death!

Zhaochen gritted his teeth, and using the force of rolling, he struggled to knock his forehead against the game panel, and finally left the team before Xue Piao Renjian ran out of the long-range attack range.

Zhaochen, who has quit the Daytime City team, can be attacked by the Daytime City players. As long as Zuo'an realizes this and lets the ranged players launch attacks, Xue Piao Renjian will definitely let go in order to avoid damage. Although Zhaochen will die at that time, he will have escaped from another level. Even if Xue Piao Renjian is really stubborn and refuses to let go even if he dies with him, there are definitely more people in Daytime City than in Starry City at the resurrection point, so Zhaochen can already escape – in short, there can be no worse result than Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin kidnapping him unharmed!

Zuo'an, wake up quickly!!!

Zhaochen shouted in his heart.

Unfortunately, their brain circuits were really not on the same line. Zuo An's first reaction after discovering Zhao Chen had left the team was to be stunned for a moment, then stop and ask Yu Gui, who was running away with his two legs and had been following him till now, " Zhao Chen has left the team, what does he mean? "

He looked at the Day City team with hope, only to find that they suddenly stopped after he left the team: "..."

Heartbrokenjpg .

Zhaochen was almost dragged away by Xue Piao Renjian like a dead fish. The latter did not even notice the many actions Zhaochen made in order to escape.

Who cares? It's a failure anyway.

Yugui, who was being questioned by Zuo'an, could of course understand what Zhaochen was thinking. When he saw Zuo'an stop, he almost laughed out loud. However, laughing was a bit too strange in this situation, so he asked seriously: " Zhaochen quit the team? "

Zuo An frowned and nodded.

Yu Guidao: " It's possible that he has some plan that he must complete alone, such as being an undercover agent or inciting rebellion, and he can't let us follow him, so he left the team and asked us not to chase him. "

Zuo An was stunned and said hesitantly : " Is that so? "

But Zhaochen was tied up like that, and it didn't look like he was able to handle the situation with ease, let alone go undercover and incite rebellion?

Yugui asked seriously: " Don't you believe Zhaochen? "

Zuo An thought about it, nodded, and said, " I believe him. Since he did this, he must have his reasons. "

Yugui smiled and said, " That's right, we just need to wait quietly for his triumphant return! "

If Zhaochen knew that Yugui had slandered Zuo'an, the first thing he would do when he returned would be to tear her apart with his bare hands!

It's a pity that he is still being dragged on the ground by Xue Piao Renjian like a dead fish, and he can only let Yugui say whatever he wants!

Zuo An believed Yu Gui's words and did not go to rescue Zhao Chen. Instead, he went to support the Knights who had already arrived outside the gate of Fanxing City – they had dragged on for too long, and the Knights were probably about to collapse!

Zuo An: " But I always feel like I've forgotten something. "

Yu Guidao: " It's an illusion. "

Zuo An: " Really? "

Zuo An always felt that it was not an illusion, but he could not remember it. As he rushed towards the northwest gate of Star City and thought about it, someone suddenly shouted: " Hey – the idiot from Daylight City – "

All the members of the Day City Army instantly looked in the direction where the sound came from.

A man in a wizard's robe was standing on the branch of a crooked tree, holding a simple trumpet, and said lazily: " You are so slow-- "

In a place where Zuoan couldn't see, Yugui's eyes lit up when he saw who was standing on the tree.

That's right, that was Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi's life was actually not easy for him either. One of his words was not from the script but an exclamation from the bottom of his heart – they came too damn late from Dayo City!

He thought that after capturing the opponent's military advisor, Zuo An would rush here desperately because he was worried that he would not be able to control the battle in time. He did not expect that he would arrive here at this speed. It seems that Zuo An did not care that much about the person behind him? While Ji Xuanyi was waiting, he almost thought that Xue Piao Renjian and the others had kidnapped the wrong person and confirmed it several times.

Fortunately, he had thought of this possibility in advance. The direction that Xue Piao Renjian took Zhao Chen away was the same as the direction of supporting the Day City Knights. Whether Zuo An chased them or not, they would pass by this area, otherwise the ambush set up in advance would be useless.

I can only sigh that the battlefield is changing rapidly.

Ji Xuanyi didn't know that there was an undercover agent on his side in the enemy camp, otherwise this matter would definitely be much simpler than it is now.

Ji Xuanyi was alone, standing on a high tree branch, arms folded, mocking casually: "Awesome! You lost so badly last time, but you haven't learned your lesson yet? You came all the way from Sun City to Star City to be killed? Haha, wake up quickly, you'll have to wait until your next life to command so wisely. "

" Fuck !" Zuo An was so angry that he almost took his men to attack Ji Xuan on impulse. But maybe it was because he had experienced too many changes in such a short period of time, Zuo An's brain suddenly started working for the first time in a long time and he realized something was wrong.

Of course it was wrong! How could someone be standing defenselessly on a crooked tree that was exposed and looked like a target and provoked them in a meaningless way? This was obviously a trap! There must be an ambush around!

Yugui was eager to make a move and said beside Zuo'an: " Wow, this person is too much. He actually scolded you like that. He really doesn't take you seriously! We can't tolerate it! Let's go! Beat him up! Beat him up! Teach him a lesson! "

Zuo An's eyes twitched, and he couldn't bear it anymore. After a long while, he said, " No, this person is provoking us in a place like this. There must be an ambush around. If we rush in, we will be fooled! "

Yugui pretended to be stupid and said, " No way, how can we ambush here? I don't think there is anyone here! "

Zuo An frowned and cursed: " Can you use your brain? "

Yugui: "..."

Meow meow meow???

She was actually scolded by Zuo An to " grow her brain " ?! This wave can be said to be a heavy burden of humiliation, okay!

Yugui almost choked to death because he couldn't swallow it in one breath. After a long while, he rolled his eyes and said, " Okay, okay, I'll grow back when I get back. "

Ji Xuanyi is actually not good at swearing. He is usually the one who is scolded by others. In most cases, he would just kill someone if he was displeased with them. Now his temper has gradually improved, and he will not have conflicts with others. Therefore, it is a bit difficult for him to mock Zuo An.

Fortunately, Zuo An's anger point was not high. He was so angry that his blood boiled after being scolded by Ji Xuanyi, but he could only force himself to hold it back, thinking hard about how to break the ambush without stepping into it.

One of them was suffering from scolding, while the other was suffering from enduring. It could even be said that they hurt each other.

Just when Zuo An was trying desperately to ignore Ji Xuanyi, he suddenly heard a commotion in the distance , coming from both sides of the team.

Zuo An's face changed as he received a private message from the back that their team had been attacked from the side! In order to hurry, the extremely slow swordsmen were piled up at the back, with fragile archers and mages on both sides, and suffered heavy losses!

" Fuck! " Zuo An cursed, " This guy is a cover to attract attention and is lying in ambush on our side! "

Yu Gui was stunned and had not thought of this. He looked up and saw Ji Xuanyi had put away the trumpet and slowly began to climb down the tree.

This person actually came alone as bait?! What if Zuo An was really too stupid to react and rushed forward, what would he do alone?!

Yugui's heart tightened, and seeing Zuo'an's distorted face, he hurriedly said: " Turn around and repel the ambush. Although we have more fragile skins, they are outnumbered and cannot defeat us! "

Zuo An was a man of vengeful character, so he didn't care about this. He shouted angrily: " Let !Never mind !Fuck 's kill this idiot from Star City first . The resurrection point is full of our people, so let's kill him! "

Ji Xuanyi in front of him was just a sorcerer, but Zuo An was not afraid of him. Without waiting for Yugui to stop him, he took the lead and led the team to rush towards Ji Xuanyi. Even if the loss was heavy, he had to get rid of the man in front of him first to get rid of the hatred in his heart!

Chapter 106

" Wow , the people from Dayo City have no intention of chasing us, " Mi Yin looked at Zhao Chen, who was tied up like a dumpling by him and Xue Piao Renjian, in surprise, and couldn't help but sighed: " We almost thought we caught the wrong person. You must have had a hard time in Dayo City, right? "

Zhaochen, whose mouth was blocked by a piece of cloth: "..."

In a way, it is very bitter.

The rope that tied Zhaochen was still hanging on Xue Piao Renjian's saddle , so there was no need to worry about him running away. Mi Yin saw that Zhaochen's face was red and he looked like he wanted to say something . She looked around and found that there was no one else except them , so she mercifully took out the cloth ball stuffed in Zhaochen's mouth.

Zhaochen spat twice .

Mi Yin looked at him with a smile and said, " Don't worry, we don't abuse prisoners . This is material, not a household rag. "

Zhaochen: "..."

Although Zhaochen's mentality was a little broken because of that idiot Zuo'an , he still looked calm because he had his head clear .

Mi Yin looked at him curiously and said, " Are you the one who gave Zuo An advice behind the scenes? " will never let him go easily or kill him after they have tied him up like this .

Zhaochen looked at Miyin, smiled faintly , and said: " It's me. "

Zhao Chen glanced at Xue Piao Renjian again and said , " I don't meet people often . Are you Xue Piao Renjian? Actually, you only know me, but you haven't seen me. It must have taken you a lot of effort to tie me up among so many people. "

Mi Yin said frankly: " No, there is no such thing as wasting effort. I was watching you as soon as I entered Zuo'an. Who else should I catch if not you? "

Hearing this, Zhaochen felt a mouthful of blood in his throat. His mentality, which had just stabilized , almost collapsed again. Fortunately , he managed to stabilize himself . He smiled with difficulty and said, " Haha, it's useless even if you catch me. I have already told Zuo'an the order to issue. You plan to use the time difference to deal with the knights at the city gate, right? I have asked him to warn the knights to gather before attacking. You know the combat effectiveness of Star City better than me, right? "

Zhao Chen looked at Mi Yin and said calmly, " If we can't win on the frontal battlefield, no matter what tricks you use, it will be useless. Even if I am tied up here forever, Fanxing City will be massacred today. "

Mi Yin was stunned for a moment, then hesitantly asked Xue Piao Renjian: " Is he deliberately being mysterious? "

Xue Piaorjian shook his head, indicating that he didn't know.

" It seems like your people didn't receive the order, " Mi Yin looked at Zhao Chen and said sincerely, " Your knights have been killed twice, and now it's the third round. "

Zhaochen was stunned and shouted: " Impossible! "

Mi Yin spread her hands and said, " If you don't believe me, there's nothing I can do about it, but that's the fact, right, Xue Piao? "

Xue Piaorjian glanced at Zhaochen and nodded.

Zhaochen was a little unsteady , and said calmly: " I told Zuo An to issue the order. "

Mi Yin asked: " Is it possible that he forgot? "

Zhaochen: "..."

It's fucking possible!

Mi Yin looked at Zhao Chen and found that the other person looked like he was about to collapse!

Xue Piao Renjian squatted down beside Mi Yin and whispered, " Do you do this when you interrogate prisoners? "

Mi Yin gave Xue Piao Renjian a strange look and said, " What nonsense are you talking about? I don't care about trying a prisoner. "

Xue Piaorjian nodded silently and stopped talking.

After hearing the news about Mi Yin, Zhao Chen felt terrible and wanted to go back and stab Zuo An to death immediately. It was a pity that he was still tied up and couldn't move at all, otherwise he guaranteed that Zuo An would have died twenty times by now.

Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian had only one mission this time, which was to control Zhao Chen. Apart from this, the two had nothing else to do and seemed very bored. When Zhao Chen was still lying on the ground with his soul out of his body, the two actually started playing games! And it's a very stupid fighting game!

There was nothing that could be done about it. After all, neither of them had the habit of carrying playing cards or other things to pass the time. Although the current situation could be considered barely safe, it was not easy to fight with real swords and guns. If a few enemies suddenly appeared, even if it was Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin, it would be difficult to end the fight with low health.

You can only hit your hands, but it can also exercise your reaction and coordination. Sometimes the difference in strength is reflected in such small details. Mi Yin was beaten by Xue Piao Renjian and screamed in pain, but she couldn't hit Xue Piao Renjian no matter what. Xue Piao Renjian was also very straightforward. He started to fight as soon as he said he would, without holding back at all. Zhao Chen, who was standing aside, felt pain for Mi Yin when he saw this.

Zhao Chen looked at it for a while, then suddenly smiled and said, " It turns out that what they said is right, Mi Yin, the gap between you and Xue Piao Renjian is really more than just a little bit. If the two of you form a team, you really won't hold him back, right? "

Mi Yin was stunned and looked at Zhaochen.

Zhao Chen looked at him maliciously and said, " He is obviously stronger than you, but he still follows you around, stealing your limelight and trying to suppress you in every way. Let me think, is he doing this on purpose? He is trying to feel superior to you. Look, Mi Yin, who was once number one, is now – poof! "

Xue Piao Renjian stepped on Zhaochen's face and said with a sullen face, " It's so noisy. "

Xue Piao Renjian glanced at Mi Yin and remembered what Zuo An had done right after he and Mi Yin reunited. The more he thought about it, the angrier he became. He couldn't curse him, so he just beat Zhao Chen up and even beat him back for what Zuo An owed him. His actions were so brutal that Mi Yin was frightened and tried to stop the fight.

 " Be careful, don't kill him, we caught him with great difficulty! "

Alas, Mi Yin is just soft-hearted!

Zhaochen had never been beaten to the ground like this before, and he immediately became angry and cursed: " Xue Piao Renjian! Don't think that your Starry City will be defeated just because you won a small victory. As long as the Knights can hold on until the main force joins them, it will only be a matter of time before Starry City is conquered! "

Xue Piao Renjian didn't care about this. His main city was not Fanxing City. He continued to beat Zhaochen without any concern.

Zhaochen was furious: " Fuck you ma —— Mmmm! Mmmmm! "

Mi Yin calmly took her hand away, and Zhao Chen's mouth was blocked by the cloth again.

Zhao Chen glared at Mi Yin, "You don't torture prisoners! You two liars!"

Mi Yin grabbed Xue Piao Renjian's arm and stopped him, saying calmly, " Stop fighting. It's useless. I've heard that kind of talk too many times. "

Xue Piao Renjian looked at Mi Yin, his eyes moved slightly, and after a long while, he said: " I'm sorry ..."

Mi Yin smiled and said, " There's no need to say such things. You know you are not wrong. "

In the world of games, being bad is the original sin. It is not Xue Piao Renjian's fault that Mi Yin cannot defeat Xue Piao Renjian. Xue Piao Renjian probably said all he had to say in his life when speaking for Mi Yin. He has said more than once that he doesn't want to hear others compare him with Mi Yin, but in this situation, his words are of no use at all.

Hearing Mi Yin's words, Xue Piaorjian shook his head, lowered his eyes and stopped talking. In fact, neither of them was as indifferent to the matter as they let on, but caring about it was one thing, and being unable to resolve it was also true. After all, other people had their mouths, and they could only try not to listen or see.

After thinking about it, Xue Piaorjian beat Zhaochen again.

Zhaochen: "..... ??? "

Mi Yin said: " He is right about one thing. If the large force of Day City and the Knights meet up, there will be problems at the front gate. I wonder how Xuan Xiaoyi is doing now. "

Zhaochen was stunned and looked at Mi Yin in surprise.

Ji Xuanyi, who was worried about by countless people, had just climbed down from the tree, put the loudspeaker into his backpack, and was looking coldly at the Daytime City team led by Zuo An that was rushing towards him.

That's right, his task was to keep as many of this large group of long-distance teams as possible, and this was also the plan he finally made.

The Daytime City is indeed very strong, and with the think tank behind Zuo'an, there is basically no possibility of victory in normal combat. Even if they win, it can only be a victory in the city war. This kind of victory can only be described as a miserable victory, which is not what Ji Xuanyi wants.

There is only one way to stop the attack of Day City outside the city – take advantage of the opportunity when the knight team and the long-range support are out of touch during the siege, split the power of Day City into several parts, and then defeat them one by one, and everything will be solved.

Ji Xuanyi looked at them quietly. The moment Zuo An stepped into his attack range, Ji Xuanyi raised his staff and paralyzed him.

Of course Zuo An didn't have the ability to dodge Ji Xuanyi's skills, so he could only stand still with a ferocious expression, glaring at Ji Xuanyi.

He is just a warlock and has no attack power. After this skill is over, he will let this guy know the consequences of angering him!

Ji Xuanyi didn't care about Zuo An's eyes or what he was thinking. He just glanced at the team following Zuo An from behind, and thought the time was about right, so he typed a " 1" in the private chat channel .

Just as the team from Dayo City rushed to where Zuo'an was standing, they heard a loud noise from underground, and then their feet felt empty. They screamed and fell into a huge pit that was more than ten meters deep. Not to mention how much blood they lost, they couldn't climb out at all.

Moreover, the area of the pit was not big enough to trap all the players from Dayo City. Players from Dayo City who had escaped the disaster because they ran too slowly were constantly thrown down by the players from Star City and fell into the pit. For a while, people were crowded together and the bottom of the pit was full.

To Ji Xuanyi's surprise, Zuo An did not fall down with him. He must have been carrying some props that could reduce the effect of the curse, and he moved before the paralysis time ended. Because he was determined to kill Ji Xuanyi, he immediately rushed towards Ji Xuanyi after untying the prop, and unexpectedly avoided the trap on the ground.

But even so, Zuo An was stunned by the scene. He never expected that Fanxing City could create such a trap!

Are you groundhogs??? You just dig the fucking ground all day long!

However, in the current situation, he alone would definitely not be able to gather so many people. The people from the surrounding Star City had already surrounded them. Zuo An gritted his teeth and looked at Ji Xuanyi with red eyes.

Even if I die, I will take this guy with me!

Ji Xuanyi almost instantly saw what this person was thinking. He sneered and pointed his staff at the left bank.

If Ji Xuanyi could be killed by such a noob and idiot today, he would no longer have to bear the title of PVP cancer. Tomorrow he would go to the forum and post an apology to those who were killed by him.

However, before Ji Xuan could make a move, Zuo An, who was halfway through his run, was knocked off his horse by Qi Qin who suddenly appeared and hit him with a sword. He was stunned and beaten without any power to resist.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin was holding Zuo An and was about to make a finishing move when Ji Xuan hit him on the back with his staff. He immediately remembered their purpose and stopped awkwardly. When Ji Xuanyi proposed the bait plan, Qi Qin was against it. After all, Ji Xuanyi was just a support. If something unexpected happened and he had no combat capability, how could his safety be guaranteed?

However, it is obvious that Qi Qin's opposition was meaningless and was easily suppressed by Ji Xuanyi.

After all, Ji Xuanyi's mission was to be a bait, and what he wanted was to look powerless to resist. Zuo An and the others had seen Qi Qin before, and if they saw this man who even Xue Piao Renjian couldn't beat standing next to them, they would have to be crazy to be fooled. Poor Qi Qin, even his proposal to ambush and protect Ji Xuanyi was rejected! Ji Xuanyi arranged for him to sneak attack the rear of Day City, making Zuo An and his men mistakenly believe that the sneak attack behind was an ambush, and then stepping into the real trap without any precautions – the deep pit that Fanxing City had spent more than half a month preparing.

Because of this pit, for a period of time, members of the three major gangs would be suspected of being workers who had just come down from the construction site when they walked on the street!

Actually, it cannot be said that Dayo City was unprepared for stepping into this trap, because it was really carefully made, even more so than the two ditches outside the northwest district gate. In addition to preventing the pit from being refreshed by the system, the camouflage on it must also be able to support the weight of Dayo City players as much as possible without being exposed.

For this purpose, the three major guilds specially found players who were engaged in construction in the guild to study it together.

However, too many settings in the game are inconsistent with real life. Although this player can give certain reference data, he has no way to accurately activate the trap. In the end, Xiaoxiao Yuxia could only slap his head and come up with a method that sounded very stupid.

Let ten mages hold Xu Chu's big staff and set up a formation at the bottom of the pit. When the Day City passes by, just blow up the top from underground. Although these ten mages may not be able to be saved, there are more than ten people in this pit, and as long as there is no infighting , these people in the pit can't even go back to the resurrection point. It can be said that their combat effectiveness is completely destroyed!

Although this method is stupid, it does work. Among this wave of players from Sun City, apart from the swordsman, there are only weak magic professions and archers who are agile but not very strong. If nothing unexpected happens, only about ten people will be left here to ensure that none of these people can get out.

The players from Star City, who were previously at a disadvantage in numbers, were clearing out the Sun City troops, which had few people left around the big pit. The swordsmen had the skills to climb out of the pit, and those with high strength attributes could throw their teammates directly out of the pit. They could not leave them behind and would be killed directly. The magic professions and archers were thrown into the pit.

The players in Starry City cleared out the enemies left on the ground one by one, just like picking beans .

Ji Xuan glanced at Zuo An, who was being held in Qi Qin's hand like a rag, and said to Qi Qin, " Throw him down. " as Qi Qin was about to make a move, Zuo An immediately came to his senses, struggled vigorously, and yelled at Ji Xuanyi: " Fuck! If you dare to scold me, come and fight me! I think you are a loser. You need help in a fight. What kind of hero are you! "

A knight was vying to challenge the warlock in a duel. Zuo'an was a very courageous man. But Ji Xuanyi certainly wouldn't say such a thing. He glanced at Zuo An and said with a contemptuous smile, " Trash, I don't know how many people I've killed , do I need to prove it to a piece of trash like you? "

While saying this, Ji Xuanyi seemed to have suddenly returned to his original state of killing without blinking an eye . The confidence in his own strength and the sense of oppression that he subconsciously aroused when facing the enemy made his aura suddenly become very powerful. Qi Qin even shuddered subconsciously, not to mention Zuo An, he was so scared that he stared at Ji Xuanyi with his mouth open.

Ji Xuanyi reacted, blinked, and returned to his previous indifferent look. He slowly said to Qi Qin: " What are you doing here? Hurry up and throw him down. "

Qi Qin was startled and hurriedly dragged Zuo An towards the pit.

As Qi Qin moved, Zuo An also reacted. His face flushed red and he cursed angrily: " You are a piece of shit! I, I ..."

Perhaps because he couldn't think of any impressive PVP achievements, Zuo An got anxious and cursed with his neck stiff: " I even defeated Mu Xuanyi head-on, why would I be afraid of you? Trash! "

Ji Xuan glanced at him, curled his lips, and said with a smile: " I'm really sorry. "

I'll let you fall into my hands twice.

There were too many people who had fallen into Mu Xuanyi's hands, especially an arrogant guy like Zuo An. When Ji Xuanyi heard from him that he had been killed by him, he was not surprised at all. He forgot about it after hearing it and did not take it to heart at all.

Zuo An was still cursing, but as a knight, he was completely outmatched by the swordsman Qi Qin in terms of strength. He was no longer a rag, but a mop. Qi Qin grabbed him by the scruff of the neck and dragged him to the edge of the pit, where he heard the curses from the players of Day City below.

Basically, it's no different from Zuo'an's previous lines, except for some stupid stuff like letting them out to fight to the death.

If Xu Chu were here, he would probably say to them lovingly: " A bunch of idiots. "

But the person in charge here now is Ji Xuanyi, so he is much more straightforward. Without even looking at the people in the pit, he said directly: " Throw it down. After cleaning this place, there are other things to do. "

Qi Qin nodded and was about to throw Zuo An down. He didn't know whether this man was provoked by Ji Xuanyi or suddenly realized something from the shouting and cursing of the players from the Day City in the pit, but he suddenly came to his senses and grabbed Qi Qin's wrist.

Qi Qin also underestimated his enemy . He never thought that a newbie like Zuo An would actually resist. He did not use all the strength in his hands. In addition, Zuo An's equipment was really good, so he was actually pulled by Zuo An by the wrist.

Qi Qin subconsciously thought that Zuo An was trying to escape, and immediately placed the guard in front of him to stop him. However, Zuo An used his strength to slam into the guard in his hand. The guard, which originally only had a layer of skin, was completely drained of blood, and turned into a streak of white light and flew away.

Qi Qin missed his catch and looked back at Ji Xuanyi in confusion.

It wasn't a big deal that Zuo'an ran away. He couldn't cause any trouble by himself. The problem was that he discovered that suicide was a loophole that could be used to escape from the trap. And with his character that couldn't bear any loss, he would definitely ask other players in Day City to escape in the same way.

Even though not all players in Day City would obey his orders and drop a level, the combat effectiveness of the players in Day City who left would also be weakened, but the benefits of this trap that Star City had worked so hard to set up were reduced after all. If the combat effectiveness of Day City was weakened by 70%, now it is only 20% left!

Ji Xuanyi frowned suddenly and turned to look at the players from Dayo City in the pit. As expected, he found that some of them had quit the team and started attacking each other. Although some people secretly logged off because they did not want to be relegated, the white light of the players' resurrection was still flying away from above the trap.

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi and opened his mouth to apologize, but Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " It's okay. I didn't think this trap would hold them for long. " suicide escape. Ji Xuan's original plan was just to delay for half an hour so that the knights' strength could be weakened as much as possible at the city gate. Now the only thing lost was this half an hour.

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " I will not be without any backup plan. "

There are only two resurrection points outside the northwest area, and this pit is dug right in the middle of the two resurrection points. Even if they commit suicide and leave, it does not mean that the team can reunite intact!

" Let's go, " Ji Xuan looked at Qi Qin, smiled at him, and said, " Let's stop them again. "

Chapter 107

In fact, Zuo An never thought of committing suicide to get out of the situation . He was just overwhelmed by the excitement and refused to surrender . After returning to the resurrection point , he was completely stunned . It took him a long time to realize that he had escaped, and he showed an expression of sudden enlightenment.

After realizing that this was a way to escape, Zuo An immediately ordered the other players from Day City who had fallen into the pit to disperse and attack each other, and then gather at the resurrection point.

The average level of Sun City is now around level 55. The experience points required to upgrade to this level have reached a very scary number . After dropping a level , it may take more than a week of tasks to make up for it. Zuo An also knows that it is impossible for everyone to be willing to commit suicide to drop a level, but he did not expect that the number of people who gathered at the resurrection point was so small , only about a quarter of the number of people in the large army!

Zuo'an exploded on the spot. After organizing the people, he cursed them , saying that they would rather stay in the pit than die , and that they were all so cowardly and had no blood at all. After a long while , someone said in confusion in the channel: " That's not right, Commander. "

" I didn't see you guys at the resurrection point? "

Zuo An was stunned and quickly opened the parchment , only to find that the blue arrows on the paper were divided into three directions . The blue arrows in one direction were the people around him, the number of people in one direction was very small, probably the people still in the pit , and the number of people in the last point seemed to be almost the same as the people gathered around him , but they were separated from them by about half an hour's walk!

" Fuck! " Zuo An reacted and couldn't help cursing: " Fuck! Two resurrection points! Fuck! "

If Zhaochen was still there, with two resurrection points and two commanders, they could barely organize the fighting force. But now Zhaochen has been captured, and he is the only one left. What should he do?

But speaking of it, if Zhaochen hadn't been captured, the situation wouldn't be like this now. They might have already reached Fanxing City.

Zuo An felt sad, but couldn't help thinking that Zhao Chen had his own plans and was probably trying to incite Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin to rebel. Zuo An, you have to be strong too!

Zuo An didn't know that Zhaochen was being beaten for his bad mouth. After he managed to calm down, he thought of Yugui.

Since Zhaochen is not here, Yugui is probably the only other person he can rely on. Although this person's strength and planning ability are somewhat different from Zhaochen's, he is still a useful person.

Zuo An directly had a private chat with Gui and asked her where she was at the resurrection point.

Yugui, who was not dead at all and immediately turned invisible and ran away when he found out something was wrong: "..."

How to answer this question?!

After thinking calmly for a while, he replied, " I am helping you observe the movements of the Star City team! Isn't that super smart! "

Left Bank: "..."

Zuo An: " Bah! Do you think I'm a fool? You're such a coward, if you're not dead, then you're not dead. Why are you making up such a rubbish excuse? "

Yugui: " Ahahahaha ..."

Zuo An calmed down for a moment, and felt that if he knew what the next move of Fanxing City would be, he would be able to accept Yu Gui's behavior. After thinking for a while, he asked, " What is Fanxing City's current move? "

Yugui was silent for a moment, then replied: " I don't know, I don't know the way, I can't see ..."

Left Bank: "..."

And return: " QUQ . "

Zuo An looked at the emoticons sent by Yu Gui and almost vomited blood. He wished he could kill this man seventeen or eighteen times, but it was a pity that they were short of manpower, and Yu Gui had to stay alive and do his work.

Zuo An couldn't help but pound his chest before continuing, " Don't follow me if you don't know the way. Look at the map. Go to the resurrection point on the left when you die. Damn, those villains in Star City. The pit is where the two resurrection points overlap. Half of the people died on the left. I'm on the right. You go there and lead the team. "

Yugui was also stunned. He didn't expect that Fanxing City's plan was so thorough that they even thought of suicide. He couldn't help but mutter, " Mu Xuanyi is really awesome. "

Yugui rolled his eyes, looked at Ji Xuanyi who was not far away , and finally sighed, showed up, smiled and greeted Ji Xuanyi, saying: " Hello, Mu Xuanyi. "

Yugui had been invisible since the beginning when both sides were in the fighting stage, and since then he had been blending in with the team of Fanxing City. He only hid behind for two or three seconds when the invisibility effect was about to disappear. Because of his light figure and his movements were too covert, Ji Xuanyi and the others did not notice him for a while, and were all shocked when Yugui appeared.

Ji Xuanyi hadn't figured out who she was, but Qi Qin, who had always had a strong sense of crisis, immediately shouted, "It's you!"

Ji Xuanyi was stunned and asked hesitantly: "Do you know him? Who is this?"

That shouldn't be the case. Isn't Qi Qin following me every day? How could he have the time to meet a girl? Could it be that it happened during the world mission?

Yugui: "..."

Yugui looked at Ji Xuanyi in disbelief and said heartbrokenly: "Have you forgotten about me? I even said I would make barbecue for you!"

Ji Xuanyi: "... Is there?"

Ji Xuanyi really didn't remember. There were so many encounters in the game every day, how could Ji Xuanyi remember them all? He forgot them in an instant.

Qi Qin, however, heaved a sigh of relief when he saw Ji Xuanyi's puzzled expression. He quickly blocked Ji Xuanyi behind him and frowned, saying, "Why is the assassin here? Who are you on?"

Yugui covered his chest and looked at Ji Xuanyi with tears in his eyes. After a long while, he said, "I was forgotten so heartlessly. I probably won't survive ... That's right, I'm from Dayo City.

I was the one who was watching you during the world mission. Don't be polite, just kill me!"

Qi Qin was stunned, and before he could react, Ji Xuanyi had already held his hand, frowned and looked at Yu Gui and said: "Do you want to go back to the resurrection point?"

Before he could speak to Gui, Ji Xuan thought for a moment and said, "Although I don't know the meaning of you revealing your identity, but an 'eye', coming to seek death at this time ... It seems that Zuo An has resurrected at the resurrection point on the right. You want to go to the left to help him command, right?"

He smiled at Gui Chao but did not answer.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, "Catch her!"

Immediately, people from the three major gangs nearby pounced on Yugui. However, as an assassin, Yugui was not as easy to catch as Zhaochen. For assassins with teleportation skills, nothing could trap them. What's more, Yugui had a slender figure and was a natural assassin. He easily avoided the pursuit and blockade of the three major gangs and went straight towards Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi frowned, not because he was worried that the opponent would pose any threat to him, but because he couldn't help but start to judge the opponent's assassin skills – Yugui's positioning can be said to be very coquettish, and it seems that the attributes of his equipment are all added to agility. Coupled with his own innate conditions that can be called talents, he can even compete with an all-round master like Mi Yin in terms of positioning.

But this assassin's offensive power is very weak. Once he starts to fight, his positioning becomes disordered and his body is full of flaws. It is simply horrible to look at. It is estimated that he has not killed many people when playing the game. He might be a nurse who changed his job to become an assassin.

This huge gap between defense and offense made a high-end assassin player like Ji Xuanyi unable to help but feel restless. If she was a player from Star City, Ji Xuanyi might want to give her some pointers.

But since he is an enemy , there is nothing to say.

Although he didn't know why the assassin looked so excited when he rushed towards him, Ji Xuanyi still calmly took out his staff and paralyzed the opponent exactly, freezing him in place. Yugui originally wanted to get close to Ji Xuanyi's ear and reveal his identity in a cool way, and then die in a cool way, but he was turned into a statue just after he started: “...”

QAQ ! I haven't said anything yet! Don't kill me first! I'm one of you!

It's a pity that Yugui's voice could not be heard by anyone. People from the three major gangs rushed forward and turned poor Yugui into a beam of white light.

It was not until the white light flew towards the resurrection point that the people from the three major gangs realized that something was wrong and looked at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi: "... I'm really impressed by you guys! "

We agreed to capture him! Why did he kill him and bring him back to life? Just in time for us to reunite, right?!

But it's not the fault of the people from the three major gangs. After all, it's a game and once you start playing, it's easy to get carried away and forget to hold back!

Ji Xuanyi thought about it and didn't blame them too much. He just sighed and said, " Forget it. It's not easy to deal with the assassin if he is caught. He has skills and will run away sooner or later . Let's just leave it at that. "

Qi Qin, who almost took action as well, quickly put away his guard and stood behind Ji Xuanyi. Ji Xuanyi was considering which direction to go next, a member of the three major gangs who had just killed Yugui came over and said, " Hey, Commander, the assassin seemed to have dropped something. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned, looked at him, and said, " What is it? "

The man handed his hand to Ji Xuanyi, opened it, and inside was a crumpled note.

Ji Xuanyi took it and opened it, and saw a sentence written on it : " Do you still keep the banner we gave you? I heard that the scumbag died several times again?"

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment, and after thinking for a long time, he finally understood. He showed a helpless expression and said, " Fuck, it's her. "

Qi Qin immediately became alert, moved closer to Ji Xuanyi, and asked in a low voice: " Who? What? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head. Seeing Qi Qin's nervous look, he couldn't help but laugh. He handed the note to him and said, " Someone I knew before. I didn't expect it to be her. "

Recalling the expression on the other person's face just now, Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " Tsk, she must have something to say to me just now, it's too early to make a move. "

No, in fact the main reason was that he was too green. Even with such a green figure, he had not successfully calculated the difference in strength between himself and Ji Xuanyi, and tried to show off, which led to this tragedy!

Qi Qin looked at the note for a long time but didn't understand it, so he could only look at Ji Xuanyi eagerly.

Ji Xuanyi did not want the news that " Daytime City's ' eyes ' are actually on the side of Starry City " to spread, so he did not explain to Qi Qin, but said: " I'll tell you later. "

Although Qi Qin really wanted to know the origin of this " rival in love " , since Ji Xuanyi said so, he did not dare to ask any more questions and could only nod.

" So where should we go next? " The player from the three major guilds who picked up the note scratched his head and said a little embarrassedly: " The assassin went to the resurrection point on the left. Should we go to the left now? "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Well, let's move on. "

Qi Qin secretly didn't want Ji Xuan to get together with that girl again, so he whispered, " Although both sides have leaders, I feel that if Zuo An is on the right, it should be easier to stop him on the right. "

Ji Xuanyi looked at Qi Qin in surprise.

Qi Qin thought his little thoughts were seen through, and felt a little ashamed. He couldn't help blushing. Just as he was about to explain something, he heard Ji Xuan say, " I didn't expect that even you know that Zuo An is stupid and inexperienced. I'm afraid this guy has become famous in Star City, right? "

Qi Qin: "..."

What do you mean even he knows! Qi Qin is not that stupid now, okay! Under the training of Qi's father, Qi Qin will become the person in charge of the company in the future!

But speaking of it, Zuo An is also pretty famous in Star City. Everyone knows that he is the leader of half of the gang in Daylight City, and he is both inexperienced and stupid ...

Under normal circumstances, if both sides have commanders and one of them is Zuo An, Ji Xuanyi would indeed choose to block Zuo An, because no matter how you think about it, there would not be an enemy easier to deal with than Zuo An, but that is not the case now.

Not to mention how the friend at the resurrection point on the left will help sell out teammates in Day City, making this battle easier than the battle with the left bank, the key point is that Ji Xuanyi has to find the undercover of that stupid husband first to get her ID . The other party has never added him as a friend, but if he doesn't add him as a friend, the two of them will not be able to have a private chat, which is too inconvenient.

Just when Ji Xuanyi realized that he was meeting an old friend, he and Guizheng covered their faces in shame and squatted in the resurrection point.

It's so embarrassing. The scene of recognizing each other was so embarrassing. I don't know if Mu Xuanyi picked up the last note she dropped. He is so smart, he must have seen through my original plan. It's so embarrassing!

That's right, Yu Gui and Ji Xuanyi knew each other, and he was one of the few people Ji Xuanyi could remember.

Her original ID was not Yugui, but Xilai, the nanny girl who was willing to be killed dozens of times in order to ask Mu Xuanyi to help her kill the scumbag Wujian and make him quit. After Ji Xuanyi killed Wujian and made him disappear, she gathered a group of girls to give Ji Xuanyi a banner that read [Scumbag Nemesis] .

Sometimes it's really strange, once a girl falls in love with someone, her IQ seems to disappear completely. After Yu Gui completely got rid of the influence of Wu Jian on herself, she found out that Wu Jian was just a stupid scumbag. She couldn't understand how she could have fallen in love with such a person in the first place, and even been deceived.

Although Yu Gui had retaliated thoroughly with the help of Ji Xuanyi, he still felt disgusted when he saw news about this person again, especially when he saw the news that the other party exposed Ji Xuanyi in the forum. Yu Gui was instantly furious and wanted to roll up his sleeves to find trouble with Wu Jian.

It was a pity that although they were on the same server, she was not a player of Green Forest City, and the maps were not interconnected at that time, so Yugui could only bear it.

Fortunately, there was no news that Ji Xuanyi was being sought for revenge, so Yugui felt relieved.

It was not until they went to the Daytime City and met Wanshi Shengyi and his group from the Green Forest City that they heard from them that Wu Jian had been killed again and dared not show up, and that Ji Xuanyi was not in any danger either.

As for why I was undercover in Bancheng, that happened even longer ago.

At first, she was just playing the game normally with Guiyi. After all, she had never contacted Ji Xuanyi since then, and she didn't know that Ji Xuanyi was also playing this game and was on the same server with her. Later, he joined Bancheng, which was also partly because he met Zuo'an by chance in the second-tier city, which was the result of a series of coincidences.

It has to be said that Zuo An is always an idiot. It can be said that he has enemies everywhere. Yugui didn't take him seriously until he saw that Zuo An had a feud with an offline gang in a second-tier city. With the help of Zhao Chen, he disbanded the gang and said that he had a grudge against Mu Xuanyi.

Yugui realized that with the help of people like Zhaochen, this person who had a grudge against Ji Xuanyi might become the leader of a super gang in the future, so she deliberately approached him – otherwise, with Zuo'an's stupid personality, it would be a miracle for Yugui to help him! Yugui originally planned to be an executive, and when Bancheng developed, she would create internal strife and break up the gang. It was not until she found out that Ji Xuanyi was also on this server that she decided to hide in Bancheng.

Yugui knew that with Ji Xuanyi's temper, he couldn't keep his identity secret forever, and someone would find out about it eventually. Sooner or later , the news would reach Zuo An's ears. Zuo An was a vengeful person, and no matter how big or small the grudge was, he would definitely try his best to get revenge. Although she believed in Ji Xuanyi's ability, after all, one was in the light and the other was in the dark, so she had to find a way to help the other.

Yugui rubbed her face and stood up. Half of the gang members in the resurrection point recognized her and knew that she was Zuo'an's subordinate, so they came up to her and asked, " What should we do next? "

Yugui was stunned for a moment, and finally remembered to check Zuoan's secret chat. When she was talking to Ji Xuanyi before, Zuo An had already started urging her to commit suicide , but Yugui was always thinking about Ji Xuanyi, so she didn't have time to read it. Now when she opened the chat channel, she was overwhelmed by the long message urging her to " die quickly " .

The previous message was sent by Zuo An after he discovered that Yu Gui had finally reached the resurrection point.

[Left Bank] : Fuck, we finally got there. You're too damn slow. Is it so hard to die?! It's easy for you to die. Even if you're standing there are people who want to hit you. How can I compare with you? Yugui complained silently in his heart, rolled his eyes, and replied: " Boss, you keep brushing like a cursed doll, aren't you scary! "

[Zuo An] : Bah! Stop talking nonsense, bring your team to join me, I'm fucked up, I just wanted to let them die, but so many people just logged off and ran away, fuck, a bunch of cowardly losers, go back and find these people, and kill them all!

Yugui originally wanted to say, "Please stop doing this. It was Zhaochen who cleaned up the mess you made last time, and now you're doing it again!"

Later, she thought that what happened to Bancheng was none of her business, and she was not really on Bancheng's side, so she deleted all the words she had typed before and replied: " Okay! It's their turn to criticize! "

How can she be an undercover agent? She is just like the eunuchs around the tyrant emperor ... Thinking of this, Yugui couldn't help but get goosebumps all over his body.

Zuo'an meant that the troops at the resurrection points on both sides should gather together first. Fanxing City had dug two trenches and such a deep pit, so there would be no time and manpower to continue digging holes in other places. Groundhogs wouldn't play games like this. After they gathered, they could turn back and kill the people from Fanxing City .

Yugui knew that Zuo An was right. Even if all the players in Star City were marmots, it would be unlikely for them to dig a large trap in such a short time. The two resurrection points should be the last resort that Ji Xuanyi could think of.

What Ji Xuanyi wanted to do was to hold down one of the two resurrection points and beat them hard when there was only one commander.

One of the two resurrection points has no commander and will move very slowly. By the time they gather together, it is estimated that one side has been almost killed by Ji Xuanyi and his men.

In this way, even if the two sides join forces, the strength of Dayo City will be weakened, and with Zuo An's ability, it is impossible for him to quickly organize the team formation. Ji Xuanyi can still take advantage of this stage to kill another wave. By the time Zuo An can organize a decent resistance, Ji Xuanyi may have already waited for the reinforcements that arrived after solving the knights' problem at the city gate.

He could barely guess the tactics that Ji Xuanyi might adopt. Yu Gui would certainly not cooperate with Zuo An so easily to reunite the two teams. At the very least, he had to take the team on the left to meet Ji Xuanyi alone.

While Guizheng was responding to Zuo'an's words and occasionally directing the players of Youri City to arrange their formations, he saw Zuo'an suddenly sent a message.

[Left Bank] : Shit! I just remembered what I forgot! I haven't given the order to the Knights at the city gate yet!

Yugui: "..."

Damn, why did he suddenly become smart this time!

Chapter 108

Although Yugui has been undercover beside Zuo'an for such a long time and her trust value has been very high , compared to Zhaochen , who met Zuo'an earlier and is obviously much more reliable than her , if the two of them give Zuo'an two different opinions at the same time, Zuo'an will definitely choose to listen to Zhaochen first.

After all, in Zuo An's opinion, although Yugui is a useful person, he is often unreliable. In comparison , Zhaochen is more reassuring.

Although most of the time his unreliability was intended to sabotage Bancheng's plans, Yugui had to admit that Zhaochen's planning and coping abilities were not something she could compare to.

Since Zuo An remembered what Zhao Chen had asked him to do , Yigui had no way of making him change his mind.

Almost immediately , the captain of the knight team who was killed and returned to the resurrection point received a message from Zuo'an , asking them to gather their strength at the resurrection point and not to send any more heads to Starry City.

who had been stunned by the killing , immediately came to his senses and belatedly figured out the Star City's plan . He immediately cursed: " Fuck! This is too fucking disgusting! "

Under Xu Chu's deliberate control , the Knights had been completely divided into two groups of equal strength , half of them were at the resurrection point , and the other half were fighting with the Star City team.

While the Star City team had priests and ranged support, the Sun City knights had already suffered several deaths. Their current level and strength could be said to have been weakened to the same level as the Star City team , or even lower . Their only advantage at the moment was that they had more players than the Star City team.

In the previous rounds, the people of Star City could be said to be getting better and better at fighting, while the Knights of Day City were getting more and more confused. Now that the captain of the Knights has discovered the real situation, he is a little slow to react. After a long time, he said: " Stand by where you are. I will communicate with the group of people still at the city gate. "

The knights need fearless and resolute orders for the charge, and a deputy captain is only a burden, so the entire knights team has only one captain. It's a pity that this captain is now staying at the resurrection point and cannot fully see the scene at the city gate.

For the current Daytime City Knights, the best way is actually to wait where they are. As long as half of the people at the resurrection point do not go to the city gate, the people of Star City will not be able to automatically break the cycle and send the people at the city gate back. They can only keep dragging it out. What the Knights need is to delay time until support arrives. Even if the people of Star City are unwilling, they can only give up this cyclic plan of using the time difference of the resurrection point.

But the Cavaliers captain was not willing to just wait.

He became the captain after Xue Piao Renjian left. Although he was not arrogant enough to think that he could compete with Xue Piao Renjian in strength, he still felt that he was qualified to be the captain of the entire team.

But ever since Xue Piao Renjian left, the Knights of Dayo City have almost never won a battle against their once defeated rival, Star City. No matter what, as the captain of the Knights, he has been holding his breath.

His original plan of attacking Star City this time was to avenge his previous humiliation and let everyone know that even if Xue Piao Renjian was gone, he could still take on the responsibility of leading this knight team. The Knights of Dayo City would still be as invincible as before.

However, he never expected that the people of Star City would be so cunning. The Knights were defeated by Star City again, and it could be said to be a miserable defeat.

There are almost twice as many people as the enemy, and the average level is four or five levels higher than the enemy, but in the end the game ended up like this.

If he really had to wait for reinforcements in the current situation, he would have no face to continue doing this as captain.

There is probably no other knight team in this game that is more frustrated than them. After a charge, the opponent suffers almost no damage, but the average level of their own team is killed by four or five levels.

He had to at least gain some benefits before the reinforcements arrived, otherwise this team would have lost so many levels in vain and would be no different from trash.

The captain of the Knights thought so and issued an order to the remaining people at the city gate: "Don't run away and waste time anymore. Turn around and fight back. Quickly return to the resurrection point to gather. Before the reinforcements arrive, organize a final effective attack and at least break up the Star City team once."

Perhaps he had not yet recovered from his emotions. The order issued by the captain of the Knights was very impulsive, and contained a sense of venting anger and self-abandonment. If Zhaochen were here, he would definitely not choose to issue such an order.

The captain of the Knights had a simple idea. He had died so many times already, so this time wouldn't matter. He could turn around and fight, and maybe he could take down a few people. At such a close distance, everyone would be resurrected at the same resurrection point. Even if there were not many people, it would be good to vent his anger by grabbing a few people from the Star City and waiting for Bai's turn.

But in fact, let's not talk about whether the Daylight City Knights, who have no advantage in combat power and numbers , can take away the people of Star City, even if the Daylight City Knights at the city gate retreat first, the losses will definitely be smaller than turning back to fight back.

But the captain of the Knights' team couldn't think so much, and the Knights' team members who had been suppressed for so long couldn't think so much either. Almost at the moment of receiving the order, the Knights' team members of the Daylight City at the city gate immediately shouted angrily, turned around and rushed towards the Star City team behind them, scaring Liu Tian who was running in the front.

Liutian's horse is probably the horse with the best attributes in "Domain" at this stage. All its abilities are excellent. After discovering that Youri City was going to counterattack, it drifted without saying a word and turned around and ran away!

Jian Xi Xin Jiu , who was following not far behind him, said : "..."

Who said this guy was stupid? He was not stupid at all when he was running for his life!

Jian Xi Xin Jiu couldn't help but say: " You are too stubborn! "

Liu Tian ran past him and joined the troops behind him. He grunted, rolled his eyes, and said, " Go ahead if you have the guts! "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu followed his example and rolled his eyes, saying, " I'll go first. "

Ultimately, when you're fighting someone, your first reaction, whether to fight or run, still depends on your own strength.

I won't talk about Liu Tian, as his choice has already explained everything. However, Jian Xi Xin Jiu is still very strong. Although he is not as good as top-level masters like Xue Piao Ren Jian, in the current Fanxing City, the knight players are ranked from high to low in terms of strength.

Apart from Xue Piao Ren Jian, it is probably Jian Xi Xin Jiu and his group.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu rushed in first, and without saying a word, he blocked the attack of a player from the Dayo City in front of him. Relying on his good equipment and high strength, he twisted his waist and knocked him off his horse. Then he turned his horse around, used a straight stab on the Dayo City player on the other side, and immediately used a hoof lift on the Dayo City player behind him, instantly fighting three people at once, which made Xiao Cai's eyes pop out more than Liu Tian's.

Liu Tian was completely unable to understand the operations of a master of Xue Piao Renjian's level. On the contrary, Jian Xi Xin Jiu was more approachable. Liu Tian was stunned by what he saw and thought it was so awesome.

However, Liu Tian, who was so proud of himself, would definitely not say such words. He just made a " tsk " sound and, together with other knights from Star City, collided head-on with the team from Sun City.

Games are something that can easily get you excited once the fighting starts. Liu Tian watched Jian Xi Xin Jiu's operations and followed him after a few hits. He gradually got into the mood, as if he had become very awesome himself.

However, before Liu Tian could unleash his arrogance, Xu Chu gave the order: " Don't continue to tangle with the people from Day City. They want to die and return to join us. Turn around and walk them away. "

Liutian: "... meow meow meow? "

He just got into the groove, didn't he? As a rookie, it's not easy to get into the groove in a fight! He's going to retreat now?!

However, before Liu Tian could react, Jian Xi Xinjiu, who had also received the notice from Xiao Xiao Yuxia, had already put away his weapon and turned around and ran away.

Six days: "..."

What else could Liu Tian do? Although he still wanted to continue fighting, he was not Xue Piao Renjian after all, and could not take on several people at once. Jian Xi Xin Jiu had withdrawn, so he could only run away with them.

Suddenly, the whole battle situation changed. It went from Star City chasing Sun City with hammers to Sun City chasing Star City and begging for hammers . They really were begging for hammers! Many of Sun City's knights were chasing Star City from behind, yelling " Come and hit me! " and other phrases, which made the onlookers very confused.

How itchy are you people in Day City!

In fact, Xuchu hesitated for a long time before issuing this order. Having suffered a loss due to the difference in IQ, Xuchu has been thinking about what the captain of the Day City Knights is thinking ...

Logically speaking, the more advantageous response strategy for the current Day City is to delay time. After all, they have reinforcements. Although they are probably still blocked by Ji Xuanyi, the actions of Fanxing City on the first battlefield are actually based on the actions of Day City. If Day City does not move, Fanxing City will not move either, so there is a possibility that reinforcements will arrive.

The purpose of their counterattack is most likely to make Xu Chu mistakenly believe that they want to reunite and be forced to escape from the battle. This will not only delay the time, but also avoid the loss of combat effectiveness of Daytime City.

But the question is, can the captain of the Day City Knights really think that far ? Is it possible that the other side simply wants to join forces and launch a second attack?

Although a simple reunion would only require retreating, is it possible that the captain of the Daylight City Knights has such a low IQ that he can't even think of this?

Xu Chu couldn't help but fall into deep thought ...

This game is still very difficult to play, especially when your opponent's IQ is not equal to yours. You have no idea what is going on in the opponent's mind, just like Xu Chu has no idea why Liu Tian is such an idiot.

By the time Xu Chu finished his contemplation and realized that there was no solution to this problem except to find someone with the same thinking as the captain of the opposing Cavaliers team, the situation on the field was already not optimistic.

It's not that Fanxing City was badly beaten, but the number of deaths in Youri City was almost beyond the balance that Xu Chu could control. In desperation, he could only issue an order to delay time, try to stabilize the situation first, and then slowly consider what to do next.

Looking at the chaos on the field, Xu Chu could only look at Xiao Xiaoyu helplessly.

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "... What are you doing? "

Xu Chu said seriously: " If you were facing this situation and issued such an order, what would you be thinking? "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was immediately furious and said, " Fuck, if you can't figure it out, don't compare yourself to me, okay? I won't give such an order. In this situation, it's better to just retreat, right? "

Xu Chu heard this and showed a disappointed expression, saying: " It's not okay to ask you, shouldn't I ask Jian Xi Xin Jiu? "

After all, the other party is a captain. Even if he is stupid, he should not be as stupid as Liu Tian. The only thing stuck between Xiao Xiao Yu Xia and Liu Tian is Jian Xi Xin Jiu.

Just when Xu Chu was about to ask Jian Xixinjiu in private about his mentality, Xiao Xiaoyu said speechlessly: " No, why are you worrying about this? "

Xu Chu: " Ah? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " You don't plan to rely on this plan to kill them to level 20. Reinforcements will come sooner or later. If you want to delay time, just delay it. Just don't let them attack. "

Xu Chu was stunned for a moment, then suddenly realized: " That's right! Isn't Ji Xuanyi in charge of the reinforcements? "

Anyway, the number of people is here, the Knights will not get a turn for nothing, and the final situation will still depend on whether the reinforcements from Day City arrive or not, or what state they are in when they arrive – in other words, the final blame will be on Ji Xuanyi! He doesn't have to worry about anything, just drag the Knights!

Xu Chu suddenly became enlightened, smiling happily, and said to Ji Xuan in a low voice: " The situation at the city gate has reached a stalemate. It all depends on you. Come on, if we win, I'll have some credit for it, but if we lose, you'll have to take the blame, hahahahahahahahaha ..."

Ji Xuanyi who received the private chat: "..."

Has Xu Chu become a fool after playing with Liu Tian for so long?

Ji Xuanyi's face was full of black lines.

He was taking Qi Qin to reunite with He Yugui.

The starting point of the Star City troops is in the middle of the two resurrection points, while the starting point of the Sun City troops is on one side of the resurrection point. The professionals on both sides have short legs. Even if the speed of Star City is not faster than that of Sun City, it is definitely not slower. The first ones to contact Yugui and them must be Ji Xuanyi and others.

In fact, this was indeed the case. When Yugui was halfway there, he saw the team from Star City in the distance. After thinking for a while, he whispered to Zuo'an: " Oh my god! I ran into them. What should I do? "

If it was Zhaochen, he might be able to come up with some ideas, but Zuoan had no idea what to do. Seeing Yugui's secret chat, he could only say, " Hold on! I'll be there soon! "

Yu Guihui said: " If I can hold on, I won't ask you what to do! "

There was absolutely nothing wrong with what she said. Zuo An didn't know how to reply to her, so he simply didn't reply. He just concentrated on his journey, hoping to get the two troops together as soon as possible.

Since Zuo'an didn't have any instructions, Yugui didn't bother to act. He just gave some random commands, and half of the support team from Youri City was killed and sent back to the resurrection point.

Ji Xuan led the team to the resurrection point expressionlessly, and heard a thin voice in the air beside him: " Boss Xuan, long time no see, are you still accepting orders to kill scumbags? "

When Ji Xuan thought of the banner she had sent him, he felt helpless and amused, and said, " Well, long time no see. Which scumbag has deceived you again? "

Yugui laughed and said, " No, no, I will never be defeated by the same move twice. I am awesome . "

Ji Xuanyi: " What is your current ID ? "

Yugui then remembered that he was so excited that he forgot to add Ji Xuanyi as his friend. He was so stupid that he cried. Fortunately, he was in invisible mode, so his blushing face could not be seen. He quickly added Ji Xuanyi as his friend and said, " My name is Yugui now. You really don't remember me? We met halfway during the world mission before. "

Ji Xuanyi really didn't remember, but Yugui was not that petty. It didn't matter if he didn't remember.

Ji Xuan said, " How come you are in Bancheng? And you know I am in Fanxing City? Did you help Zuo'an with all the stupid moves before? "

" It's not all my fault, " Yugui said sincerely, " Zuo An is really stupid. He contributed a lot to the success of Day City. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Okay, the Sun City is in a miserable situation too. The gang leader's " ability " can actually make an undercover agent " convinced " . There may be no second one like him in the whole game!

Yugui told Ji Xuanyi how he came to Bancheng and said to him, " Although Zhaochen didn't say anything, I can see that he seems to know you. He is hanging out with Zuo'an and helping him so sincerely. I guess he is not in the same situation as me. He must be one of your enemies. Do you have any impression? "

Ji Xuan said without thinking: " No, I have so many enemies, how can I remember them all? "

Yugui: "... Yes. "

I almost forgot that Ji Xuanyi was a cancer. It seemed that most of the people who played that keyboard online game were killed by him. Ji Xuanyi didn't care about the IQ when he killed people, so how could he remember who Zhaochen was.

However, Zhaochen is indeed a smart man. If he stands on the side of Dayo City, it will be quite troublesome to deal with him.

Ji Xuan began to consider whether to use violence to solve the problem.

Ji Xuanyi's character was unknown to Gui. Seeing the other party fall into silence, he couldn't help but start to imagine it himself.

Zhaochen had already been captured by Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin, so would Ji Xuanyi just keep Zhaochen locked up in Fanxing City? Of course, tying him up all day wouldn't work, but just letting him move around in Fanxing City and level up daily would be fine, as long as he didn't leave the city ...

Yugui suddenly shuddered and said to Ji Xuan in a timid voice: " Boss, um, be careful. One misstep can lead to eternal regret. Don't step into the abyss of crime! Novels are not allowed to write about the theme of imprisonment and other sick and delicate subjects! "

Ji Xuanyi: "... No, what nonsense? "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " We'll talk about Zhaochen later. The current situation has not been resolved yet. Before Zuo'an and the others arrive, we must suppress the level of the troops here as soon as possible— "

Having said that, Ji Xuan stopped immediately when he thought of something.

But Yugui had already reacted and said, " If we want to lower the level, we must try to increase the number of encounters between the two teams before Zuo'an and the others catch up. I have to hurry up and bring people over to get killed, right? "

That's indeed the case. If Yigui could lead his team to encounter Ji Xuanyi and his men several more times in the shortest possible time, he would be able to weaken the strength of the support forces of Dayo City to the greatest extent.

But this also means that in order to unify steps with the Day City team at the resurrection point as soon as possible and gain command, Yugui must also die with them. The level that Yugui will drop will be the same as the level that the Day City support troops drop.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " No, that's not necessary. With Zuo An's stupid commander, we can win the battle without your help. "

Yugui realized Ji Xuanyi's idea and couldn't help but smile. He said, " But the price to pay will still be high, right? It doesn't matter. I won't lose if I die. "

Ji Xuanyi snorted coldly and said, " If I say no, then no. "

Yugui didn't say anything. After a while of silence, Ji Xuanyi felt that he was a little too harsh. He cleared his throat and said, " Games are not for others to play. I hope you can understand this. " Yugui should have her own gaming experience. She is a player of Day City and should not tie herself to Ji Xuanyi because of past events. This will only bring her losses and no gains.

Yugui heard this, smiled and said, " I know, I'm just playing the game I want to play. What's the matter? Has anyone stipulated that you can't be an undercover agent while playing games? "

Ji Xuanyi was about to say something else when Yugui stretched out his voice and said, " Master Xuanyi, you weren't so fussy before. If I had known, I wouldn't have come to recognize you as my relative— "

Ji Xuanyi frowned, and Yugui smiled again: " I'm kidding, I will still come. After all, Xuanyi is so handsome and cute, I like him very much! "

Before Qi Qin showed a vigilant expression, Yu Gui had already revealed his figure among the crowd of people in Fanxing City and shouted: " I will fight you! "

Before Ji Xuanyi could ask the players from Fanxing City to stop, Yugui had already turned into a streak of white light and flew away.

The system prompt rang, Ji Xuanyi lowered his head and found that it was a secret chat with Gui.

[Yugui] : Thank you for being willing to help me. I am really happy to help you as well, Pen Core!

Chapter 109

Ji Xuanyi has met many people in the game , and it is impossible for him to remember a person based solely on the game events.

Ji Xuanyi had such a deep impression of Yu Gui probably because the other party's set of silk banners was really too cheeky.

He also didn't expect that the other party would choose to sacrifice her own gaming experience to help her after meeting him in another game – in other words , after knowing his identity and clearly knowing the situation he would face when his identity was exposed, she still chose to stand on his side , which was already a very difficult thing.

At present, Ji Xuanyi has not taken off his vest yet , so he has many companions . Although Xiao Xiaoyuxia and others have heard of Mu Xuanyi's name, they don't know how many people have made enemies with Ji Xuanyi in the past , and how dangerous the situation is . When Ji Xuanyi turns back into Mu Xuanyi, the enemies who want to cause trouble for him will probably be able to line up for ten miles. At that time, whether Xiao Xiaoyuxia and others will still regard Ji Xuanyi as a friend and stand firmly on his side , Ji Xuanyi himself doesn't know.

But Yugui had personally experienced the situation in which Ji Xuanyi was troubled by others and caused trouble for others, and finally a mess . She also knew clearly that once she was associated with the name Mu Xuanyi , the gaming life of a normal player would probably have nothing to do with her anymore . However, she still wanted to help Ji Xuanyi, even if she would be demoted.

Ji Xuanyi didn't want to see Yugui like this. He helped Yugui just to vent his anger, not with any real desire to help. He felt that he was not worthy of Yugui's repayment.

But it was obvious that Yigui didn't think so, and she had completely figured out Ji Xuanyi's tactics of being tough on the outside but soft on the inside, and she would not be controlled by Ji Xuanyi at all. No matter what she wanted to do, Ji Xuanyi could not stop her.

Yu Gui knew clearly that although Ji Xuanyi didn't want her to make these sacrifices for him, in the face of the overall situation, Ji Xuanyi would never make an impulsive decision like " risking his life for the beauty and giving up his original plan . "

The most likely action the other party would take would probably be to capture her and prevent her from going to her death. At most, they would kill fewer reinforcements from Dayo City, and the battle would be a little more difficult in the end.

But unfortunately, Yu Gui was an assassin, and Ji Xuanyi could not reveal her identity, and had no way to order all the players in Fanxing City not to touch her. As a result, not to mention catching Yu Gui, he could not even see Yu Gui anywhere later, and was pushed all the way to the resurrection point on the far left.

Although with the cooperation of Gui, Ji Xuanyi's plan can be said to have been completed in excess, and this half of the reinforcements from the Day City are now even lower than the average level of the Star City, Ji Xuanyi's face has always been unsightly.

" Xuanyi, " Qi Qin whispered to Ji Xuanyi, " Are you okay? "

Ji Xuan came back to his senses and looked at Qi Qin, who had a gloomy look on his face and looked very listless.

Ji Xuanyi asked curiously: " What's wrong with you? "

It's only the afternoon now, it's not time for Qi Qin to doze off.

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuan for a long time and shook his head silently.

You can't say that I feel like I've met a strong rival in love and I'm being a little too jealous.

It was a rare time that Ji Xuanyi failed to see through what was in Qi Qin's mind – how could he see through it? He had no strange relationship with Yugui at all, so he would not even think about it that way.

If it were any other time, seeing Qi Qin like this, Ji Xuanyi would definitely find a way to ask something, but right now the things in Yuri City were obviously more important, so Ji Xuanyi could only put these personal affairs aside for the time being.

When Qi Qin saw that Ji Xuanyi just said " It's okay " and ignored him, his sense of crisis became more serious!

What should I do? Xuan Yi doesn't care about him anymore!

Although Ji Xuanyi said that he likes mature, tall, and sharp women , Yugui is a girl after all! And it seems that she knew Ji Xuanyi earlier than him. Even he has to admit that Yugui has indeed paid a lot for Ji Xuanyi. She is cute, good at talking, and has the courage to confess to Ji Xuanyi.

QAQ I feel like I can't compare to others in any aspect!

get it at all . He was directing the people from the three major gangs to prepare for an ambush. The left part of the reinforcements from Daytime City is now being pinned down at the resurrection point. Yu Gui is definitely not stupid enough to stay in it at this time. He must have gone into hiding somewhere. Ji Xuanyi is not worried about this.

But if they suppressed the resurrection point on the left, it also meant that half of the people at the resurrection point on the right, led by Zuo'an, would soon arrive.

How to say it, the opponent is Zuo An, and Ji Xuanyi is too lazy to make any more arrangements. He just lets some of the extra people after suppressing the resurrection point ambush on the side first, and when Zuo An comes over to gather people and prepare to arrange the formation, he will disperse the opponent's wave.

Ji Xuanyi believed that this move alone would keep Zuo An in a panic for at least fifteen minutes. By the time he had organized all the people, about half an hour would have passed . If he still couldn't suppress the strength of the reinforcements from the Day City in half an hour, Ji Xuanyi would have no need to continue his career, no need to level up, and could just be a sight to behold.

However, Ji Xuanyi did not wait for Zuo An to arrive, and the number of players from Dayo City, including those who were being held at the resurrection point by them, was decreasing.

This was a tactic that Star City had used several times before. Ji Xuanyi reacted almost immediately and said with a frown, " They're offline. "

At the same time, Ji Xuanyi also received a secret message from Gui.

[Yugui] : It wasn't Zuo'an's order, it was Zhaochen. He asked all of us to log off and discuss countermeasures in the offline group. I'll log off as well. I'll tell you when there's any news.

Before Ji Xuanyi could reply, he saw that Yu Gui's game avatar in the friend list dimmed. Then, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia also sent him a private message, telling him that all the knights at the city gate had gone offline.

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but frowned.

Let's not talk about how Zhao Chen, who was being looked after by Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian, got the news out. In the game, the method of collective offline is almost unsolvable. If it was just one person, it would be fine. With Xu Chu around, they could hire people to take turns to wait until that person comes online. But for a group of people, even if they could hire people to take turns to wait, when Yue Richeng comes online, the person who is waiting will pass the news back, and Ji Xuanyi and the others will organize people and rush to the place, but the people from Yue Richeng have already moved away, and it will be useless.

If you want to block the large army going offline, you must also use a large army to wait there, which is almost impossible – the reason why I say almost is mainly because there are idiots like Zuo An in the game who can really do such a thing as using a large army to block people, but it is obvious that the three major gangs will not do this, and they have much more concerns than Zuo An .

Ji Xuanyi hesitated for less than two seconds before decisively giving up this stupid idea and said, " Leave three people to take turns to wait, and go directly to Xu Chu for subsidies. The rest of you will follow me back to Fanxing City. "

When Mi Yin mentioned that the long-distance support team of Fanxing City was under the charge of Ji Xuanyi, Zhao Chen suddenly fell silent.

Of course, it doesn't mean that he wasn't silent before. After all, his mouth was blocked and he couldn't say anything even if he didn't want to be silent. It's just that before, he would at least glare at Xue Piao Renjian or struggle unwillingly on the ground. But when Mi Yin finished speaking, Zhao Chen lay on the ground with his eyes closed, as if he was asleep, without any reaction at all.

Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian played the punching game for a while and found that Zhao Chen was motionless. They were a little worried that something had happened to him, so they pushed him to see if he was still awake.

Of course Zhaochen was fine. If he had been in trouble, he would have been kicked off the line by the security system long ago.

When Mi Yin came to see him, he opened his eyes and looked at Mi Yin indifferently.

Mi Yin felt a little scared by his gaze, rubbed her arms, took the cloth out of Zhao Chen's mouth, and said, " There has been no news so far, and I guess everything has been arranged for you in Day City. Don't be too sad, just wait here for things to end. You were the ones who started the trouble in the first place, so our legitimate defense is not excessive. "

Zhaochen did not answer Miyin's words, but looked at him quietly.

Xue Piaorjian on the side frowned, walked over, pulled Mi Yin up and pulled her behind him.

Zhaochen then slowly spoke: " Xuanyi? "

Mi Yin was stunned for a moment, then immediately realized what she had said before, and pretended to be dumb and said: " Xuan Yi? What Xuan Yi? You must have heard it wrong. " This low-level trick certainly couldn't fool Zhaochen. He lowered his eyes and thought for a while, then said, " There is only one person who can be called that by Miyin, right? Is he also in Fanxing City? That's right, a person with that kind of personality can't be completely uninvolved. If he's not in Sun City, he won't be in Youyue City either, so it can only be Fanxing City. "

Mi Yin swallowed his saliva, not quite sure whether Zhao Chen was a friend or an enemy. He knew Ji Xuanyi had many enemies and many fans, but he had also done a lot of good things, and many people wanted to repay him. Zhao Chen's reaction seemed to be one of the three, but he didn't know which one it was. If it was the first one, did he sell out Ji Xuanyi just now ...

Mi Yin wanted to ask something, but was afraid of saying too much and making mistakes, so she could only stare at Zhao Chen, hoping to find some clues from his expression.

But for a stubborn arena player like Mi Yin, who only relies on his intuition, how could he accomplish such a high-end thing? Even if he could see a flower on Zhao Chen's face, he couldn't see anything.

There was no expression on Zhaochen's face, no joy, anger, sorrow or happiness, he just lowered his eyes, looking like he was thinking about something.

After a long while, he smiled and said, " How come I forgot this trick before? "

Mi Yin was stunned. Just as she was about to ask something, she heard Zhao Chen say to her, " Goodbye. "

Before Mi Yin had time to react, Zhaochen disappeared, leaving only a bundle of ropes on the ground.

Xue Piao Renjian was stunned for a moment, then exclaimed in surprise . However , Mi Yin, who had used the same method before, understood first and said, " He's offline. " what Zhaochen meant by " a trick I can't think of " . If he had logged off directly when Xue Piao Renjian caught him, there wouldn't be so many problems now.

It's a pity that he remembered it too late, and the defeat of Sun City was already decided.

But it was not easy to deal with this matter after going offline. Mi Yin subconsciously looked at Xue Piao Renjian and asked, " What should we do now? "

Xue Piao Renjian frowned and said, " As long as he can't take part in the command, it's fine. " Zhaochen's threat to Fanxing City lies in his planning ability. As long as he can't command on the front line, it doesn't really matter whether he is offline or not. In the current situation, the fighting should be intense in the front, and Zhaochen should not be able to contact anyone offline.

Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian thought so. In fact, this should be the case under normal circumstances. The situation on the front line of Dayo City is tense, and it is impossible for half of the people in the city to go online or offline at this critical juncture.

But what was a coincidence was that, at the place where Ji Xuanyi had set the trap before, because Zuo An asked everyone to commit suicide , a large number of people escaped and logged off. Among them, in addition to individual players, there were also several gang members from half of the city.

Zhaochen finally gave the order to go offline. Although Zuo'an and the captain of the knights at the city gate were unwilling to do so, they also knew that the combat effectiveness of Day City had been torn apart like sand by Star City. Unless there was a problem with the server and all members of Star City suddenly went offline, they would have no chance to reintegrate the scattered combat effectiveness.

Zhaochen's order was not wrong. Under the current circumstances, if they did not want to escape back to Day City in disgrace, they had no choice but to log off.

The battle outside the northwest gate of Fanxing City was settled in an instant, but no one cheered. They felt that after repelling the Sun City, the tactic of going offline was already the last thing Fanxing City had left. However, they did not have any better way to deal with it, and could only tense up.

When Ji Xuanyi walked back, almost everyone was chatting with him in private, but he ignored Xu Chu and the others, and chatted with Mi Yin first, asking: " Zhao Chen ran away? "

There are two forms of communication in the game. One is face-to-face conversation. Such conversations will not be displayed in the chat channel and are a communication method closer to real life. The other is text communication in each chat channel.

However, when Zhaochen was caught, his hands were tied while he was typing and his mouth was blocked while he was talking, so he couldn't even open the chat panel. Since Yugui said that the order was given by Zhaochen, the only possibility was that he escaped.

However, it doesn't sound realistic that he could escape under the supervision of Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian.

Could it be that Xue Piao Renjian is really an undercover agent?

Ji Xuanyi was overthinking this time. Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian didn't know that the large group of troops from Day City had gone offline. When Ji Xuanyi asked, Mi Yin said, " No, he's offline. " [Mi Yin] : We are guarding here. If he doesn't come online, there will be no way to contact Zuo An and the others, right?

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, and almost immediately realized what had gone wrong with Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian, but he could not blame them, because part of the reason for the current situation was that he was too confident and did not synchronize the information with the other two sides, which led to the current situation.

However, Zhaochen remembered to go offline, and they couldn't do anything to him.

Ji Xuanyi didn't say much, but said to Mi Yin: " I forgot to inform you that many of the people who fell into the trap here have gone offline. They should have contacted Zhaochen. Now all the members of Dayo City are offline. "

Mi Yin was also stunned. After a long while, she said to Ji Xuan: " Ah? What should we do? Do we still need to guard this place? "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Wait over there for a while. I'll find someone to replace you two. "

There is only one person on Zhaochen's side, and his fighting ability is not high, so he can be dealt with by one person. Of course, we have to defend if we can. Whether Zhaochen will use the same method to escape again, or whether Zuoan will rescue him first, that is something to consider later.

When Ji Xuanyi was thinking about how to fight the second wave of enemies gathered in Daytime City after returning to Starry City, Mi Yin asked in a private chat: " That Zhaochen seems to know you, and he doesn't look like your fan. Is he your enemy? "

Ji Xuanyi had heard the same words once from Yu Gui, so he didn't take it too seriously. He just replied " I don't remember " and continued walking towards Fanxing City.

The gate guards of Fanxing City did not go back to the city, but waited outside. Xu Chu was a little confused by this opponent whose IQ fluctuated. Although he knew that staying here was no different from wasting time, he still waited for Ji Xuanyi to come back, wanting to ask him what he planned to do.

However, Ji Xuanyi didn't have any good solution. After he arranged a few people to replace Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin, he took his men back to the city to rest.

No matter which game it is, the night is the time when the number of online players is the largest. The strength of Daylight City has been weakened to the point where it is not much different from that of Star City . They just have the advantage in numbers. They will definitely not attack when there are many people in Star City. If there is no one in the middle of the night, they will not come. If there is no news by about six o'clock, Daylight City will probably not come again today.

Xiao Xiaoyu saw that Ji Xuanyi looked serious and Qi Qin also looked distracted, so she couldn't help asking, " What happened to you two? "

Before Ji Xuanyi could react, Qi Qin had already glanced at him dimly and said with a forced smile, " Nothing. "

Ji Xuanyi had no idea what strange and bloody plot Qi Qin had imagined in his mind during this short period of time. When he heard Xiao Xiaoyu's question, he just said, " What's wrong? "

Xiao Xiaoyu looked at Qi Qin who was looking at Ji Xuanyi with resentment, then looked at Ji Xuanyi who looked puzzled, smacked his lips, and chose to pretend that he didn't notice anything, and said: " Uh, it's good that you're okay, it's good that you're okay. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and followed Xiao Xiaoyu's gaze to look at Qi Qin.

Qi Qin: " QAQ . "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuan subconsciously wanted to comfort Qi Qin, but before he could say anything, Xu Chu came over and patted his shoulder, saying with a sad face: " I seem to be a little stupid recently, what should I do? "

Ji Xuanyi was suddenly diverted from the topic and didn't pay attention to Qi Qin anymore. He turned to Xu Chu and said, " What are you thinking about? "

Xu Chu just smiled when he heard Ji Xuan say: " Aren't you always stupid? "

Xu Chu: "..."

Qi Qin who was ignored: " QAQAQQAQQAQ ! "

Xu Chu was speechless and said, " The word 'silly' is used to describe the rain, okay? Don't use it on me. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia, who was suddenly caught in the crossfire, said: "... Hey! "

Xiao Xiao Yu thought about it and felt that although she was not as smart as Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu, she was definitely not stupid! She immediately said unwillingly: " I am stupid, but what is Jian Xi Xin Jiu? "

Upon hearing this, Jian Xi Xin Jiu immediately wanted Xu Chu to shut up, but the latter had already said it very naturally: " Jian Xi Xin Jiu is an idiot. "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said unwillingly: " Isn't it Liu Tian who is the idiot?! "

Liu Tian on the side said: " ??? It's none of my business! "

Xu Chu said: " Hehe, Liu Tian is a big idiot. "

Liu Tian: " Fuck! So I said, it's none of my business! "

Jing Yunhan, who had an inexplicable conflict with Liu Tian, laughed out loud when he heard this.

Liu Tian cursed: " What the hell are you laughing at! What do you think you are in his heart?! "

Xuchu: " Naughty. "

Jing Yunhan: "..."

The topic had turned to a very strange place. There was a lot of noise where Ji Xuanyi was standing. Qi Qin, who had been left out for a while, finally couldn't help it anymore. He pulled Ji Xuanyi's sleeve and said, " Xuanyi! "

Ji Xuanyi turned around and looked at him: " What's wrong? "

Qi Qin opened his mouth to speak, but Mi Yin, who had just returned on the horse of Xue Piao Renjian, shouted: " Xuan Xiaoyi! "

Ji Xuanyi's attention was drawn away again, and he responded: " What's wrong? "

Mi Yin said: " It's still that Zhao Chen. I always feel that he is weird and something is wrong. My intuition has always been accurate. You have to pay attention to him ..."

Qi Qin who was ignored: "..."

Either explode in silence or perish in silence.

Qi Qin took out his guard with an expressionless face, pointed the tip of the sword at the ground, and exerted force suddenly!

The sound of metal and stone colliding was heard!

The huge and harsh sound made everyone quiet down and look in the direction of Qi Qin.

Xu Chu was frowning and wanted to ask Qi Qin why he was making so much noise, when he saw that half of the huge sword guarding the city was pierced into the thick marble floor of Star City by Qi Qin's sudden outburst. He shuddered and became silent.

Ji Xuanyi turned around and looked at Qi Qin.

Qi Qin: "..."

Qi Qin: " QAQ . "

I feel so wronged!!!

Chapter 110

" The news of the attack on Sun City has almost been notified to all the independent players who are doing missions outside . Tomorrow, some people should return to the city one after another. The day after tomorrow will be the day when the large group of independent players in Star City will return to the city. "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Sun City won't be so stupid as to wait until the day after tomorrow when all the players from Star City are almost gathered before going online. If they really want to continue the attack , they will definitely go online regardless of whether they are ready tomorrow , because that is their last chance. "

Xu Chu sighed regretfully and said, " I just arrived , and you're leaving so soon. "

Xiao Xiaoyu looked at him expressionlessly.

Xu Chu shrugged and said, " Don't look at me like that. I won't come to Day City again after this time . It's okay for me to feel regretful. "

What Xu Chu said was true . The Sun City was actually seriously damaged now. No matter whether they decided to retreat immediately after going online or continue attacking , after this battle , they would never have the chance to come to the Star City to cause trouble again. Not only because the players who had suffered losses again and again in Star City would be unwilling to do so , but also because after this battle, Day City no longer had the strength to travel thousands of miles to attack someone else's home turf.

During the world mission, Star City failed to bring the strength of the two main cities to the same level , but this time, Sun City helped Star City.

However, Xu Chu's remarks were still too despicable . Xiao Xiao Yuxia was very worried that this person would surrender to the enemy in order to cause trouble .

Ji Xuan said: " Anyway, everyone should pay attention tomorrow and go online early . Now you can do whatever you need to do. Once this is over, you can rest. "

Xu Chu and others dispersed, but Mi Yin stayed and prepared to talk to Ji Xuanyi about Zhaochen.

Qi Qin suddenly exploded just now and Mi Yin didn't have time to finish her words.

Having just been stroked, Qi Qin was now standing behind Ji Xuanyi like a young wife, wondering what she was thinking.

As soon as Ji Xuan saw Mi Yin coming over, he knew that he probably wanted to talk about Zhao Chen again. He couldn't help but frowned, wondering why Mi Yin was so persistent. It was just an enemy. He had so many enemies, some of whom were more powerful than Zhao Chen. He didn't take the other party seriously at all, but Mi Yin acted like she cared a lot and reminded him over and over again.

Ji Xuan glanced at Mi Yin, and before the other party could speak, he said, " Zhao Chen? "

Mi Yin was stunned and nodded like a chick pecking at rice.

Ji Xuanyi was speechless and said, " Why do you always tell me about him? Is he so worthy of attention? "

Mi Yin also felt that he had said it too many times. He scratched his head and said to Ji Xuan: " I don't know either, but I always feel something is wrong. My intuition is still very accurate. I think you need to pay attention to this person. "

Ji Xuanyi knew that he meant well. Although he didn't take it seriously, he didn't say anything. He just nodded and said, " I understand. "

Mi Yin could tell at a glance that Ji Xuanyi obviously didn't take it seriously, but she didn't blame him. After all, Ji Xuanyi had so many enemies. If each of them cared, there would be no point in playing this game.

If the other party was Xue Piao Renjian, Mi Yin could still try to persuade him, or help him if he couldn't persuade him. But in Ji Xuanyi's situation, he really had no place to intervene. After thinking about it, he looked at Qi Qin and said, " Tianxia, you should also pay more attention. "

Qi Qin came back to his senses and realized what Mi Yin was saying. His face became serious and he nodded.

Although he was a little distracted by Gui's matter, since it concerned Ji Xuanyi, Qi Qin immediately took it seriously.

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin and said nothing, " Okay, let's go. Xue Piao Renjian is still waiting for you over there. Go over quickly. "

Mi Yin looked back and saw that Xue Piao Renjian was indeed waiting for him with a horse. Xu Chu seemed to have gone offline. The two of them could take advantage of this time to level up. Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian left together, and the Northwest District city gate, which had been bustling just a moment ago, suddenly became deserted.

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi, hesitating and unable to speak for a long time.

Ji Xuanyi: " Are you going offline to eat? Or are you going to do the mission? "

Ji Xuanyi lives alone and arranges his own time, which is quite free. Although Qi Qin usually coordinates his schedule, Qi Qin looks a little strange today, so Ji Xuanyi is very considerate and plans to cooperate with him for once.

Qi Qin thought about it and said, " Let's eat first. Don't starve. "

Ji Xuan nodded and was about to log off when Qi Qin called him back.

 " What's wrong? " Ji Xuanyi asked.

Qi Qin glanced at him and whispered, " Um, Yugui, does she like you? "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then he immediately realized what was going on with Qi Qin's behavior today, and the corners of his mouth couldn't help but curl up.

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi's expression, not knowing what was going on in his mind, and suddenly revealed an expression that looked like he was about to cry, and said: " Xuanyi, do you like Yugui too? "

Ji Xuanyi coughed dryly, glanced at him, and said, " Well, it's okay. "

Qi Qin was shocked. It was OK?! What do you mean it was OK?!

Qi Qin subconsciously reached out to grab Ji Xuanyi and ask him something, but in this situation, how could Ji Xuanyi do as he wished? He intentionally or unintentionally avoided Qi Qin's hand. Ji Xuanyi just said " Goodbye " and went offline.

Qi Qin stood there in confusion for a long time, then stared at the floor blankly and squatted down pitifully against the corner.

Is he going to be finished?

Ji Xuanyi did not go online after dinner. Qi Qin stayed there until 8:30 in the evening. As a result, he could not help falling asleep because he was too sad. When he woke up in the game cabin the next day, it was exactly 6:30.

Qi Qin didn't even have time to rub his aching neck, and immediately took out his mobile phone in a panic, but there was nothing on it except the homework text messages sent by Qi's father and mother.

Ji Xuanyi was not online last night and ignored him.

Qi Qin was in a trance, and felt like the sky was about to fall ...

But it was only half past six, and he couldn't call Ji Xuanyi. Not to mention whether the other party would answer the phone, an ordinary person would explode if woken up by a phone call, let alone Ji Xuanyi, who would probably kick him away.

So scary!

Qi Qin climbed out of the game cabin, his eyes empty, and lay flat on the bed, looking like he was about to enter a coffin and was about to die. He felt weak, pitiful and helpless.

What would he do if Ji Xuanyi was with someone else?

Qi Qin was in deep thought until half past eight. Generally speaking, if something happened, Ji Xuanyi should be online at this time. Qi Qin hurriedly climbed back into the game cabin and started playing the game.

Ji Xuanyi had indeed just come online and was still standing at the place where he had logged off yesterday.

The morning sun shone through the gaps in the leaves, as if bits of gold powder were sprinkled on his fair face, making Ji Xuanyi's features look particularly delicate.

As soon as Qi Qin came online, he was completely stunned. He felt that the love in his chest was like a pot of boiling water, bubbling out, and he couldn't suppress it at all.

Ji Xuan looked up one by one and saw Qi Qin showed up on time even though he didn't check the time with him. He was stunned for a moment, then smiled and said, "Good morning."

Qi Qin swallowed his saliva and stammered, "Good morning."

He was originally planning to ask Ji Xuanyi why he didn't come online last night, but now he had forgotten all about it, and his mind and eyes were filled with only the present Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuan took a look at Qi Qin's silly look, curled the corners of his mouth, and didn't say anything first. Instead, he started looking at the friend list.

Xu Chu definitely couldn't come online at the moment, and he might have to wait until the game was over today before he could come online. Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Jianxi Xinjiu came online early, and after finding that Ji Xuanyi was online, they sent him private messages, asking him if he wanted to have a meeting or something.

Ji Xuanyi said: "No need."

After hearing this, Jian Xi Xin Jiu did not ask any more questions, but Xiao Xiao Yu Xia was still worried and asked, "Are you sure you don't need it? Although the strength of Dayo City has declined a lot now, it still has the advantage in numbers. It will still be difficult to win if we fight head-on, right?"

Ji Xuanyi smiled and replied: "Don't worry, I won't lose."

Ji Xuanyi was so calm that Xiaoxiao Yuxia didn't know what to say. She just told him to organize the team first, in case it was too late. It was the last day anyway.

As soon as Ji Xuan closed the chat channel, he saw Qi Qin still staring at him.

Ji Xuanyi asked: "What's wrong? Is there something on my face?"

Qi Qin shook his head and was about to say something, but when he thought of Yugui, he became dispirited again.

Ji Xuanyi ignored him and went straight to complete the mission. He had gone to Chongyan Volcano with Qi Qin before. He should have gotten weapons from the dwarves today, but because of the Sun City, he would probably have to wait another two or three days to get the new weapons.

After Xiaoxiao Yuxia had organized the team, she informed Ji Xuanyi of the meeting point, saying that he could go directly in that direction to find them when he got news.

Ji Xuanyi agreed casually. At about ten o'clock, Yu Gui came online again and told Ji Xuanyi that the people of Youri City planned to go online together at two o'clock in the afternoon. A small team of the Knights would go to support Zhaochen, and the rest of the people would gather not far from the gate of Fanxing City to launch the final attack.

"Zhaochen means that no matter whether we succeed or not, this is the last sprint. We can either go directly into the city or go home directly. All the dead people who have returned to the resurrection point do not need to wait for the main force, and can go directly back to Day City." Chatting with Gui Mi, Ji Xuan said: "This order makes me a little suspicious of what Zhao Chen is thinking. He just went back after dying once, and has no intention of sending reinforcements to the front battlefield. Doesn't that mean there is no possibility of entering the city at all? It would be better to go back home directly, at least he won't lose a few levels. He is giving away his life like this, is he an undercover agent?"

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, "Not likely."

Putting Miyin's intuition aside for now, Zhaochen's order is easy to understand.

The Day City has already fallen behind. Whether in terms of strength or momentum, to some extent, it can no longer compare to the Star City. Even if Zhaochen did not give this order and just let the Day City players frantically recruit people, the subsequent results would not actually change.

The reason why he gave such a contradictory order, which seemed like sending heads off, was, on the one hand, because those who would obey the order and leave were not the ones willing to stay and attack the city. They might be a force when they had the upper hand, but when they were at a disadvantage, they were of no use except slowing down the team's reaction speed. It would be better for them to leave than to stay.

On the other hand, he himself probably didn't have much hope for this battle. The so-called final attack was just a way to appease people's hearts.

Not to mention Zuo'an, even the warmongers among the individual players, and those players who want revenge after losing and feel aggrieved, will definitely not accept the fact that they have to retreat as soon as they go online.

The latter two could be forcibly taken back by order. If Zuo An got angry, who could do anything to him? Zhao Chen gave such an order to show Zuo An.

You see, our last desperate attack was useless. We were indeed not well prepared this time. In order to preserve our strength for the next attack, we can retreat first.

People like Zuo An just want a comforting reason. Using this excuse, he can be easily coaxed back.

Yugui understood what Ji Xuanyi meant and replied with regret: "What a pity! If Zhaochen was also an undercover agent, he could have directly persuaded half of the city to rebel. Then, Sun City and Star City would be one family and there would be no need to transfer household registration."

Ji Xuan said: "Youyue City is too miserable."

The three main cities are in competition with each other. If Star City and Sun City form a group, the players of Youyue City can only rely on the conscience of Star City to play the game.

After all, the event resources are definitely controlled by the two major cities. If they say they will give you some, that's fine, but if they don't, you can't do anything about it ...

From the perspective of the player's gaming experience, it is better for the three main cities to play separately and not to form an alliance.

[Yugui] : Let's not talk about Zhaochen, what do you think of this wave of information I revealed?

Ji Xuanyi smiled and replied, " Yes, very impressive. "

[Yugui] : Hehehe, how about it, are you planning to stop the main force from gathering next? I can help.

Ji Xuanyi thought about it and suddenly showed a malicious smile: " I do intend to stop it. "

[Yugui] : What do you mean? I help you hold back the ranged troops?

Ji Xuanyi said: " No, I want you to help hold back the knights who are supporting Zhaochen. Can you do it? "

[Yugui] : ... Okay!

It was easy to deal with the situation if you knew the time when the other party would come online and gather in advance. Ji Xuanyi led a large force directly to the place where the long-range team of Dayo City would pass and waited there. The group of people were leisurely waiting for the other party to come online.

Although the Day City side had not been online, the offline group was in a mess, especially the left bank, which criticized the Knights team, which suffered the most losses. Although the Knights team captain wanted to say Have " you got your long-range support in place? " , the other party was the gang leader after all, so he could only keep silent.

The morale of the people in Youri City was not very high to begin with, and Zuo An was about to drive everyone in the group crazy. Zhao Chen could only use the excuse of discussing tactics to pull Zuo An to a small window to talk about this and that and some meaningless details.

It was almost two o'clock when Zhao Chen put Zuo An, who was confused and had no idea what he was doing, aside and said, " You guys go online first. The large army of Fanxing City can't ambush you, but they will definitely send someone to ambush me. After you go online, immediately send someone to the coordinates I told you to meet me. "

It took Zuo'an a long time before he responded.

Zhao Chen warned with some concern: " Send more people. The ones blocking me are probably Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian. We may not be able to defeat them with fewer people. " Zuo An said: " Don't worry, your safety is definitely the most important thing. I will send a troop of fifty people over there. They can at least defeat six or seven Xue Piao Renjian. Don't be afraid. "

Zhaochen was relieved then. He watched the time reach two o'clock. Zuo An said, " I'm going to play games , " and then there was no response.

Zhaochen waited for nearly ten minutes. With the speed of the knight team, they would definitely be able to reach his location. Then he lay down in the game cabin and climbed onto the line carefully.

After the slight dizziness from going online passed, Zhaochen opened his eyes and found two familiar faces standing in front of him.

Mi Yin smiled at him and said, "Hello, I haven't seen you for a day. Did you miss me? "

Zhaochen: "..."

Although I had anticipated being stuck in traffic, when I actually found myself stuck in traffic, my mentality still collapsed.

Zhaochen's face was distorted for a moment, but he recovered quickly. He smiled faintly at Mi Yin and said, "Yes, I really miss you."

Xue Piao Renjian looked at Zhaochen coldly.

Zhaochen: "..."

What are you doing? He asked me first.

Unfortunately, before Zhaochen could say anything, Mi Yin had already taken out the hemp rope.

"This trick again?" Zhaochen did not show any panic expression, he even smiled, and stretched out his hands very cooperatively, allowing Mi Yin to tie him up.

Even if the Cavaliers have not arrived now, they will definitely arrive in less than five minutes.

He just needs to delay Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian here and wait for the reinforcements to arrive. He will pay back tenfold whatever Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian have done to him now!

Mi Yin, who had no idea what was going on, held the hemp rope and looked at Zhao Chen, who was extremely cooperative, with a confused look on her face.

He was ready to let Xue Piao Renjian resort to violence, so why was Zhao Chen so stubborn?

When Zhao Chen saw Mi Yin looking at him, he put his hand in front of him and raised his eyebrows at him provocatively.

Mi Yin: "... Did the machine route get stuck when you were offline, and your brain got burned out? "

Zhaochen chuckled and didn't bother with him at all.

Mi Yin: "..."

Mi Yin began to feel like a mentally retarded person for emphasizing Zhao Chen's threat to Ji Xuanyi several times yesterday.

Who could have known that just one day later, Zhaochen would become stupid!

But who knows if this was Zhaochen's strategy to relax their vigilance. Mi Yin still very seriously tied Zhaochen up like a dumpling again.

Zhaochen's expression was very contemptuous at first, but as time passed, this contempt turned into confusion.

It's already been half an hour, and the reinforcement troops are all knights. Let alone the horses carrying the men, even if the men were carrying the horses, they should have arrived by now!

Where are the people I promised to meet?! Why is there no one here?

Zongzi Zhaochen suddenly jumped up from the ground and shouted angrily: "What did you do to my support team?!"

"Huh?" Mi Yin looked at him strangely: "What are you talking about? What support troops? "

Zhao Chen thought that the other party not only knew about the reinforcement troops, but also kept silent about it. He looked at him as if he was laughing at a joke. He could not help but get angry and sneered, " Why are you playing dumb? Didn't you intercept the knight troops that came to reinforce me? "

Mi Yin was full of black lines on his face: " Are you sick? What knight troops? "

Zhao Chen looked at Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian and found that their puzzled expressions did not seem fake. He was stunned for a moment and said, " If it wasn't you, then where did the support troops go? "

Mi Yin said speechlessly: " Brother, can you clarify your position? Your troops are asking us? " Zhaochen was stunned, and instantly understood something. He subconsciously wanted to have a private chat with Zuo An, but he realized belatedly that he had been caught and fell into the same situation as yesterday!!!

grass!!!

Zhaochen couldn't help but curse and was about to say something to Mi Yin, but as soon as he opened his mouth, Mi Yin skillfully blocked his mouth with a cloth.

Zhaochen: " ??? "

Mi Yin said to Xue Piao Renjian worriedly: " This guy is going to swear again, let's stop him first. "

Xue Piaorjian nodded silently.

Zhaochen: " ... "

Not really, okay! ! ! He just said " Fuck " ! He just wanted Mi Yin to tell him what the situation was like on the battlefield ahead! He didn't mean to curse, okay!

Zhao Chen struggled for a long time, making " mmmmm " sounds, but no one was willing to pay attention to him. He could only glare at Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian angrily and logged off with hatred.

Mi Yin was stunned and muttered, " Ah, why is he offline again? Xuan Xiaoyi said he would stay online for a while longer. "

Snowfall: "..."

Although I don't know what happened, the other party looked like he was in a serious mental state.

Mi Yin lowered her head and chatted with Ji Xuanyi: " Zhao Chen is offline again, should we continue to wait? "

Ji Xuanyi, who was beating up the Sun City on the front battlefield, said: " Haha, he won't be online until the end, you can retreat and do whatever you want. "

He can inform Yugui to change the coordinates. Even if the support team from Youri City finds Zhaochen's correct location, they will not be able to find him.

Are you having fun using this offline tactic?

Chapter 111

Although Zhaochen was smart , he did not pay special attention to other people in Bancheng , so unfortunately he did not realize that Yugui, the person most relied on by Zuoan in Bancheng besides him, was actually an undercover.

In this situation , it would be easy for Yigui to trick him.

After the wild map was opened , "Domain" also opened a coordinate system to prevent players from getting lost without a map.

Three numbers can determine a coordinate, but because this system is very troublesome to open, the numbers are too long, and it is not easy to determine the direction , few people use it under normal circumstances.

But Zhaochen was in an unusual situation. He and the main force had different online times and could not determine his location by forming a team . He was also tied up by Miyin and Xue Piaorenjian and taken to a very remote place . After all, he was Zhaochen, so he would not use stupid information like " there is a tree nearby " to tell the Cavaliers his location.

Apart from the coordinates , Zhaochen had no way to let others know where he was , so as to let the support team come in advance to clean out the people who were waiting for him.

Zhaochen wrote down the coordinates and told Zuoan , but Zuoan was unable to remember such a long string of numbers after entering the game , so he asked Yugui to help him remember them.

This is very embarrassing.

's like a sleepy head meets a pillow . If Yugui doesn't do something here , he won't have to do this undercover job.

far away from the correct location . What's more, the number given by Zhaochen is so long , and Yugui's unreliable personality is also very mature , so it is normal to make some mistakes at this time.

Ji Xuanyi didn't even assign any manpower to do anything with the knight troops sent by Youri City to support Zhaochen . It was just that the knight troops had taken the wrong path from the very beginning.

After learning about the time when Day City would go online, Ji Xuanyi directly led a large force to block Day City's ranged forces. After killing this wave of people and sending them back to the resurrection point, he immediately attacked Day City's knight forces.

The last wave of attack originally planned by Daylight City didn't even meet the prerequisite of gathering for the attack, and was directly defeated by Star City.

The order Zhaochen gave before was to attack once and return to the city if they died, but now someone died before the attack even started. Should they return to the city or continue fighting? The players of Day City were confused, and Zuo An was completely unable to command them. Under the head-on attack from Star City, the entire team had completely lost its ability to move and was in chaos.

While Zuo An was doing his best to issue orders under the cover of the players from Day City, he angrily shouted, " How efficient are the people who are supporting the Knights? Where's Zhao Chen? Why hasn't Zhao Chen come back yet? "

There was chaos on Zuo'an's side. He didn't even have time to take a look at his friend list. If he found out that Zhaochen was not online at all, he would probably be so angry that he would vomit blood.

Gui Gang had just received a private message from Ji Xuanyi and learned that Zhaochen had fallen into a trap. He now pretended to move closer to Zuoan and said, " Could it be that we marked the coordinates wrong? There's such a long string of numbers. "

Zuo An was stunned, and hesitated for a moment, saying: " No way ..."

Yu Guidao: " I don't know, why don't you ask Zhaochen again? "

Zuo An frowned. Seeing that his command was no longer effective in this situation, he simply made a " tsk " sound and gave up his useless roar. He opened his friend list and found that Zhaochen was offline.

" Fuck him! " Zuo An was so angry that he was fuming, and he cursed: " Fuck! Can Zhaochen be trusted? He is not online at all! "

If Zhaochen knew what Zuo An said about him, he would probably not be so angry that he would smoke from all seven orifices, but would be bleeding from all seven orifices.

What the hell do you have the right to say that he is unreliable!!! There is no one more unreliable than you in this world, okay?!

Without Zhaochen, Day City lost its last support. No matter how unwilling and angry Zuo An was, he knew that he would never be a match for Star City. He could only say to the team: " Retreat! "

As soon as this order came out, the already chaotic Sun City troops became even more chaotic. They were disorganized and fled in all directions. Almost all of them were sent back to the resurrection point by the Star City.

After discovering that Day City showed signs of retreat, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin immediately set their sights on Zuo An, who was mixed in the team with a panicked look on his face.

The other players in Sun City can run away, but it would be unreasonable for Zuo An to not die. There was such a big fight between Fanxing City and Youri City, and so many players were losing levels, including the AFK of Wanshi Fengyu's group . It can be said that the source of it was all because of that idiot Zuo An. If this guy was allowed to escape back to Youri City, Ji Xuanyi would probably be disgusted to death.

Ji Xuanyi casually got on Jian Xixinjiu's horse and said, " Let's go find Zuo'an. "

Jian Xi Xinjiu was stunned for a moment, then immediately realized what he meant.

To be honest, it wasn't just Ji Xuanyi, Jian Xi Xinjiu also wanted to beat up Zuo An. Upon hearing that, he immediately drove his horse and rushed towards Zuo An.

Zuo'an's horse was actually better than Jianxi Xinjiu's, but he was mixed in with the retreating players of Day City and did not dare to stand out too much. He could only slow down and make sure he was in the middle. No matter whether there were ambushes in Star City or from which direction they attacked, he would not be exposed.

It was this mentality that made him hesitate for a moment when he found that the Star City was catching up from behind and someone had directly joined the Sun City team.

Should he run or not? Is the enemy coming for him? Has the enemy discovered him?

At this moment, Jian Xi Xinjiu had already brought Ji Xuanyi and chased Zuo An into the warlock's attack range.

Before Zuo An even had time to look back to see what was happening behind him, Ji Xuanyi's paralysis and deceleration technique knocked him off his horse.

The next person to catch up was Qi Qin, who almost knocked Zuo An into the ground with a heavy blow.

The players of Sun City were completely unaware that their commander had been captured – even if they had realized it they would not have stopped. It was already so late and everyone was busy retreating. What did it matter whether the commander was dead or alive?

The large army of Fanxing City continued to chase the people of Yueri City far away , but Zuo An was left behind and was surrounded by Ji Xuanyi and his group – except Xiao Xiao Yuxia who had to continue to command the pursuit, the leaders of the three major gangs were all here.

Zuo An looked at these people with horror. He was stepped on the ground by Qi Qin and was completely unable to move.

No matter how bad Zuo An's temper was, he knew that this was not the time to be mean. He could only look at the group of people in front of him with fear and horror, and said, " What do you want to do? "

Xu Chu said with a smile: " What do you think we can do? "

Liu Tian couldn't bear it any longer, and raised his foot to kick Zuo An, cursing: " Fuck! I've been fed up with this idiot for a long time! "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu stopped Liu Tian and said, " Shh! Shh! Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian haven't arrived yet, let them fight first! "

Left Bank: "..."

Fuck! Are these people devils?! Are they planning to beat him up one by one?!

A gentleman can be killed but not humiliated. Zuo An struggled desperately, but Qi Qin was already prepared and had put away his guard. He only stretched out one foot and stepped on him firmly. No matter how Zuo An struggled, it was useless. In the end, he could only lie on his back like a turtle with its shell turned over, and said to them hatefully: " Kill me now if you dare ! If you don't run away, I will pay you back a thousand times for what you have done to me! "

Everyone looked indifferent.

Xu Chu ruthlessly exposed Zuo An's immature speech and said coldly: " You can pay it back if you want. Why do you have to wait until now? "

Zuo An's face immediately turned red.

What Xu Chu said was absolutely right. If he could pay it back, he wouldn't be trampled on the ground like a turtle now.

Xu Chu shook his head in astonishment and said, " There are so many things to complain about this person, I don't even know where to start. "

Ji Xuan glanced at Zuo An and said expressionlessly, " Then don't vomit. Let's beat him up first. "

 " Didn't you say to wait for Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin? " Jian Xi Xinjiu was stunned and asked.

Putting aside the competitive relationship between the two main cities, Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin can be considered the biggest victims. The words that Zuo An said at the beginning made Mi Yin and the others very sick. If they wanted to fight, they should wait for them to come first. Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " I know, but I can't bear it. "

After saying that, Ji Xuanyi rolled up his sleeves and beat Zuo An.

Although everyone said that they would wait for Mi Yin and the others, when Ji Xuanyi started to take action, no one dared to stop him. They all stood aside and watched Zuo An get beaten.

Zuo An was a knight, no matter how weak he was, there was no reason for him to be pinned to the ground and hammered by a warlock. However, he was restrained by Qi Qin, and he had no way out. He could only be beaten by Ji Xuanyi like a target. It didn't hurt much, but the feeling of humiliation still made Zuo An's eyes red, and he stared at Ji Xuanyi.

How dare you glare at me! Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but kick him again, then whispered: " Do you still remember the wind and rain of all things? "

Zuo An was stunned for a moment, and it took him a long time to remember which gang Wanshi Fengyu belonged to. He immediately smiled as if he had found Ji Xuanyi's sore spot, and laughed loudly: " So you are their friend? I remember, of course I remember! Didn't I kill them all by myself, and forced them to disband and quit the game? What's wrong? You are here to avenge them. Do you know how pitiful they were when they disbanded? They didn't even resist, and were directly killed. Hahaha, just thinking about it makes me happy! "

Ji Xuanyi kicked him in the face and looked down at him coldly.

Zuo An gritted his teeth and stared at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuan looked at him for a while, smiled, and said, " They have retired from the game, but in real life, they are still very happy. They are still friends. Only you, from beginning to end, are the only one. "

Zuo An struggled violently, but was stepped back by Qi Qin. He looked at Ji Xuanyi with a look that seemed to want to eat him, which was very scary. He gritted his teeth and said, " Just wait and see, just wait and see, I will make you die miserably! "

Ji Xuan didn't take his threat seriously at all. He sneered and said, " I've heard this kind of thing a lot. Guess what? The person lying on the ground now is not me. How do you want to die? "

Zuo An looked like he was going crazy. If this were reality, Qi Qin would doubt whether he could hold this man down with strength alone. But fortunately, this was a game and the data would not change. No matter how much Zuo An exploded, he would still be unable to move. He could only scare people with his ferocious expression.

Ji Xuanyi calmed down, looked up, and found that Xu Chu and others were standing together, far away from him .

Ji Xuanyi asked in confusion: " What are you doing? "

As a weak and delicate mage, Xu Chu was pushed to the outside by a group of knights. Seeing that Ji Xuanyi's expression was not very good, he could only bite the bullet and said: " It's nothing, it's just that I feel that your sadistic soul has awakened. Everyone, please get out of the way ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Everyone felt that Xu Chu was very courageous to say such words, and they all looked at him with admiration.

" Um, Ji Xuanyi, " Jian Xi Xinjiu hid behind Xu Chu and whispered, " This guy is very annoying, but you should still restrain yourself a little. After all, this is a society ruled by law ..."

Ji Xuanyi was so upset that he asked, " Who do you think I am? "

Jing Yunhan stammered, " Aren't you the black something? "

Ji Xuanyi: "... what? "

Liu Tian was rarely a little timid and said, " It's that club or something? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Jian Xi Xin Jiu listened to what Jing Yunhan and Liu Tian said, and then he said very cleverly: " So, what will happen? "

Ji Xuanyi wanted to hit someone.

Xu Chu looked at Ji Xuanyi with a smile, and Ji Xuanyi said coldly: " What are you laughing at? "

Xu Chu choked and said depressedly: " I didn't say you were from a gang or something. "

Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to pay attention to them. He glanced at Zuo An on the ground and found that the other party was no longer struggling, but was looking at him in a daze.

Ji Xuanyi ignored him and asked, " Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian haven't come yet? If they don't come, we won't wait any longer. We'll just beat this guy up and kill him . It's disgusting just to see him like that. "

" I'll be here soon, " Xu Chu said, lowering his head to contact Mi Yin, then frowned, raised his head and said to Ji Xuan: " I can't come. "

" Um? "

" Mi Yin has something going on, so she has to log off, " Xu Chu spread his hands and said helplessly, " Xue Piao Renjian has also gone offline, so it seems like we won't be able to get beaten this time. "

When Ji Xuan heard this, he didn't say anything. Mi Yin's things in real life were indeed much more important than the game. In comparison, beating Zuo An was not something that had to be done.

" Then give them a beating and kill them back, " Ji Xuan looked at Zuo An and said coldly, " You can come back and try to get revenge next time. Maybe you can give Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian another chance. "

The muscles on Zuo An's face twitched, but he didn't say anything, just stared at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi waved his hand in boredom and left Zuo'an to Xu Chu and the others.

After the Youri City troops retreated, the spy troops that Ji Xuanyi had arranged to gather at the same resurrection point after dying halfway came in handy. When Xiao Xiaoyu and his team were chasing the remnants of Youri City from behind, the spy troops suddenly appeared. In fact, there were only a dozen people, and they were mistaken for an ambush by the frightened Youri City team. In the end, almost all of them were killed, and they flew to an unknown resurrection point before being let go by Xiao Xiaoyu.

Zuo An was beaten up one by one by the leaders of the three major gangs, and then was killed and sent back to the resurrection point. It was the next day when Xiao Xiao Yu Xia returned with the players of Fanxing City with a great victory. He was unable to catch up. He was so angry that he beat his chest and stamped his feet, accusing Xu Chu and Jian Xi Xinjiu of having no loyalty at all and not even leaving him the chance to beat Zuo An.

But not to mention the left bank, the operation of giving away heads for thousands of miles by Dayo City was also very impressive. Star City suffered almost no loss in strength and reduced Dayo City to the same level as itself. From now on, until there is another competitive big task, Dayo City probably won't have the strength to cause trouble for Star City.

When everything was settled and the three major gangs began to distribute bonuses according to contributions, they received news that their main city had been attacked. The large group of scattered people from Fanxing City who were rushing back angrily just arrived at the city gate. After hearing that the Sun City had been driven away, they were all confused.

No, they haven't arrived yet. Are they done fighting? What's the temper of Dayo City? Are they teasing them?

However, someone has sorted out the whole story and posted it on the forum. Although the individual players of Star City did not feel the pleasure of attacking Sun City head-on, at least they could laugh at the opponent on the forum and did not mind the wasted trip.

After the incident was over, Ji Xuanyi was probably most concerned about Yugui. After all, the reason why he was able to win so easily this time was that the actions of Yuri City were full of loopholes. Zhaochen was not stupid. Just from the speed of Fanxing City's actions after Yuri City went online, he should be able to tell that there were spies inside Yuri City. Although he might not be able to accurately suspect Yugui, he had to say that Yugui's position was also very dangerous.

Ji Xuanyi knew that Yugui was a stubborn girl who would never give up easily. Even if he said something, she would not listen. He could only say: " If it doesn't work, don't force yourself. Come to Fanxing City. You can still help me. "

Yugui was not too worried and replied, " Don't worry, Zuo An and Zhao Chen haven't returned to Day City yet. This is plenty of time for me to make arrangements. "

Ji Xuanyi and the others didn't know that Zuo An had distanced himself from the main force. Although they no longer cared about Zuo An after he was killed and returned to the resurrection point, he was still killed several times by scattered players from Fanxing City on the way back to Yangri City . When he finally took the small path back, his level was around level 50.

In comparison, Zhaochen was better off. After the battle, he finally contacted the support troops that were forgotten by both Zuo'an and the captain of the knight team. This troop was still wandering around the wrong coordinates and had no idea that the battle in front was over.

When they were contacted by Zhaochen, they were completely confused. In the end, they still escorted Zhaochen back to Youri City. On the way, they did encounter some scattered players from Fanxing City, but they were a knight team of fifty people. Not only were they not killed , but they also fought back several times.

This time, the attack on Sun City can be said to be a complete mess, and all the mistakes need to be carefully investigated.

After Zhaochen came online, he contacted Zuoan. The latter started cursing without saying a word, and his righteous look made Zhaochen stunned.

However, Zhaochen could still endure it usually, but this time, Zhaochen was in a tough situation. He felt no less aggrieved than Zuoan. The two of them started arguing and almost fell out. Zhaochen regretted very much that he had chosen to assist Zuoan, the idiot, but he had come this far and his real goal had gradually surfaced. He had to endure what he had to endure. Zhaochen knew that Zuo'an had been humiliated by the people from the three major gangs.

Now was not the time to communicate, so he could only bite the bullet and apologize to calm the other party down. He also said that he would sort things out slowly after returning to Yueri City to see where the problem lay and who the traitor in Yueri City was.

Zuo An was also very sure that there was a traitor in Youri City. Zhao Chen's plans had never failed so completely in the past. Apart from the traitor, there was no other explanation.

When Zuo An said this to Zhao Chen, Zhao Chen almost vomited blood.

Boss, please have some self-awareness. To be honest, the traitor is only part of the reason.

Another reason for my failure is, how are you!

However, if Zuo'an had self-awareness, he would no longer be Zuo'an.

Zhaochen and the knight team that supported him returned to Youri City the day after the battle, but Zuoan did not go back until the fourth day. By then, because of the defeat, Youri City was in chaos and voices against Bancheng began to emerge again, but Zuoan and Zhaochen did not care about these. Unless they pulled out the undercover in Bancheng, neither of them would feel at ease.

Zuo An had no clue. Everyone looked like an undercover agent to him. He even suspected Zhao Chen. He almost suspected that he had a split personality. However, Zhao Chen's goal was very clear. When Zuo An arrived at Day City and the internal meeting of the city began, he pointed directly at Yu Gui who was sitting next to Zuo An and said coldly: " I think it was Yu Gui who betrayed us. "

Zuo An looked at Yu Gui suspiciously at the first moment. Even though Yu Gui had actually been playing with him for a long time, he did not hesitate at all, or have any intention of defending him.

Yugui didn't know Zuo'an's character very well, and he didn't expect Zuo'an to believe him. When he heard Zhaochen's words, he immediately said in confusion: " What the hell? Me? Fuck, are you crazy? I betrayed you. In Bancheng, apart from Zuo'an and you, I am the third in command with a few others. What good will it do for me to betray you? "

Chapter 112

Yugui's acting skills are worthy of an award , but it's useless. Not to mention that Zhaochen will definitely not believe her , Zuoan is a very suspicious guy and will not easily believe her under such circumstances . If she wants Zuoan to put aside his suspicion of her, she must have a solid reason to prove her innocence.

Yugui frowned and said as if he couldn't stand it anymore: " I've had enough, Zhaochen, you said I was an undercover agent , you must have some evidence, right? Just one fucking sentence and you all believed him? I said he was from Star City! "

Zuo An looked at Yugui, who didn't seem to be lying . He then looked at Zhaochen, who was aggressive and looked a little strange , and a trace of confusion appeared on his face.

Zhaochen was also speechless. This guy really had no brains at all . If he really sided with Zuo An and saw the other person's expression , his heart would have sank.

But Zhaochen was certainly not that loyal to Zuo'an . Being suspected by Zuo'an was nothing to him. After hearing what Yugui said, he just sneered and said, " Evidence? I just want to ask you , how did Fanxing City know when we would go online and set up an ambush in advance? "

There are actually a lot of details that Zhaochen wants to talk about. In addition to the wave of "predictive" ambushes that ultimately led to the collapse of Daytime City, there were also some signs that something was wrong when he was separated from the main force and was ambushed on the left bank later.

But the problem is that all these traces can be explained by Zhaochen's own mistakes and Zuo'an's stupidity. Yugui, who is mixed in, seems like an ordinary unreliable member and has become the least important link.

It is actually difficult to convince Zuo An after mentioning these details, because the final results were actually caused by Zuo An's own decisions. Zhao Chen bringing up these things will be of no use other than making Zuo An feel that Zhao Chen has something against him.

I can only talk about the biggest flaw revealed by Yu Gui in the final stage. In fact, I only need to prove one point: with Zuo An's character, he will never let Yu Gui go.

Yugui was speechless when he heard this: "Brother, you ask me, who should I ask? How do I know how Fanxing City knew the time we would go online? Just like you said, there was an insider, so you also informed everyone of the time at that time? Why was it me who spread the news? No one else spoke, so I was the only one who could speak? "

"Of course you are not the only one who can speak," Zhaochen looked at her and said, "but you are the only one who can send the wrong coordinates, right?"

Yugui's heart skipped a beat.

This is indeed the only loophole she left that could be exploited. It's not that she can't get around it, but under the current circumstances, even if she could get around it, Zuo An would not let her go.

This failure was too tragic. Zuo An was traumatized. Even if it was excusable, he could not tolerate other people's mistakes except his own. The image of Yu Gui that was sometimes reliable and sometimes unreliable was at a great disadvantage in this battle. It can almost be said that he is bound to take the blame. It all depends on what Zuo An plans to do.

As long as his undercover identity is not confirmed, Lun Bai will definitely not do that. Kill him once? Or expel him from the city? In any case, Yu Gui actually has Ji Xuanyi as a backup.

But Yugui didn't want to leave just like that. Ji Xuanyi said that she could help him in Fanxing City, but there were already so many people with Ji Xuanyi in Fanxing City, even big shots like Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian were there. If she went there, she would just be like everyone else and could only be a runner and do odd jobs, which would not be cool at all.

It would be better to think of more solutions and stay in Youri City. At least Ji Xuanyi will have a deeper impression of her.

Yugui smacked his lips and asked tentatively with a guilty conscience: "Coordinate point? Really wrong?"

Yugui's guilt was not the kind of guilt that came with the fear of being caught betraying others, but a very ordinary guilt that came from doing something wrong. It looked like she had accidentally broken a plate at home. She felt so guilty that even Zhaochen, who had been cheated by her, couldn't help but start to doubt himself.

It is certain that the coordinates are wrong. It would be strange if Yigui acted as if he was justified. In this kind of situation, even an idiot like Zuo'an could not say in front of Zhaochen, the victim, that he did nothing wrong with a clear conscience.

But it was too coincidental that the wrong coordinates were transmitted and Fanxing City knew their online time in advance. When the two things happened together, Yugui was the most suspicious person.

What's more, Yugui has been slandering Zuoan a lot. Zuoan is already stupid enough, and with Yugui added to the mix, it's simply idiocy multiplied by the square. Even if Yugui didn't do it, Zhaochen feels that it is necessary to take this opportunity to shave Yugui away from half of the city, especially from Zuoan's side.

Zhao Chen sneered and said, "Don't you know whether the message was correct or not? If I had been able to meet the support troops at that time, the situation wouldn't have ended up like this."

Yugui frowned, and before he could say anything, Zuo An suddenly said, "Forget it. Even if you had come back then, the ending wouldn't have been different."

Yugui and Zhaochen were both stunned. They didn't expect Zuo An to suddenly say such a thing. This sentence clearly favored Yugui. He was still doubting Yugui just now, but after only a minute or two, how come he suddenly changed his stance?

Zhaochen's cheek twitched, and he began to suspect that Zuo An disliked him in some way and was acting unreasonably again.

Zuo'an's expression did look a little off. Yugui was stunned for a moment, then immediately stood on Zuo'an's side and accused Zhaochen, "That's right, it's the same with or without you, don't take yourself too seriously, okay!"

Zhaochen: "..."

Zhaochen had a swear word on his lips and almost cursed it out. His face turned green with anger, but he didn't expect Zuo An to actually look like he agreed.

Yugui seemed to have found a backer, and muttered quietly: "It can't be helped if it's really wrong. You told us the nine-digit coordinates offline. We don't have any other tools, so we have to use our brains to remember them online. Who doesn't have a habit of mumbling something?"

Zuo An nodded in agreement.

Zhaochen's expression now looked as if he wanted to eat Yugui standing opposite him alive, but Zuo An was standing in front of him. His face was twisted with anger, but he had no way out and could only take deep breaths madly.

Yu Guizheng wanted to add fuel to the fire and make this guy angry and offline, but Zhaochen slammed the table and said angrily: "Is it my fault that the coordinates were reported incorrectly?"

Before Yugui could say anything, Zhaochen said, "The Knights have already given me the coordinates you reported. I understand that you said you misread them, but you can remember the first few digits, right? Even if you made a mistake, it should be at the end. The Knights can still see me if they look around. You made a mistake in the fourth digit of the nine-digit number. You almost let the Knights run out of the surrounding area of Fanxing City, and you still say it wasn't intentional???"

Zhaochen was also furious. He slammed a piece of paper on the table and cursed: " Look for yourself! Zuo'an, look too! And you still think it's my fault?! "

Yugui swallowed her saliva and took the paper with trembling hands. Unexpectedly, Zuo An next to her glanced at her and turned his head away, showing no intention of reading it.

Yugui: "..."

Yugui seemed to understand something and immediately opened the paper. There were four strings of numbers on it. Two were Zhaochen's correct coordinates, one was the number Yugui was responsible for recording, and one was the number Zuoan recorded. The Cavaliers were also very considerate and wrote down the numbers that Yugui had secretly chatted with them and the numbers that Zuoan had secretly chatted with them separately to facilitate Zhaochen's comparison.

Yugui took a look at the paper and almost laughed, but luckily he held it back. He looked at Zuo An nervously and handed the paper in his hand back to Zhaochen.

Zhaochen frowned at her, and saw Yu Gui showing a strange smile, with pity and regret, and whispered: " I remembered it wrongly, I'm sorry, but this doesn't prove that I'm an undercover. "

 " Because Zuo An also got it wrong, and he got two numbers wrong. "

Zhaochen: "..."

Zhaochen grabbed the paper and compared it carefully, and found that Zuo'an had really remembered it wrong! He was so focused on getting Yugui that he actually forgot to compare Zuo'an's numbers!

Zhaochen looked at Zuoan in disbelief and found that the latter's eyes were flickering, as if he didn't dare to look him in the eye.

No wonder you were on the same side with him and suspected Yugui just now, but then you turned around and followed Yugui to attack me. After all this time, you even remembered it wrong!!!

Zhaochen felt like he was about to explode with anger. He thought he could get rid of Yugui this time, but he didn't expect that he would be held back by Zuo'an again!

 " Fuck! " Zhaochen cursed: " Fuck! Fuck! "

After cursing, Zhaochen went offline.

It was such an unexpected offline event that Yugui was a little slow to react. Zuoan was also stunned. After a long while, Yugui finally said to Zuoan, " Did he get kicked offline by the security system because of his emotional fluctuations? "

It was easy to guess who had made Zhaochen so angry. Zuo An was a little embarrassed and said with a fierce face: " Fuck, how should I know? This person is so hypocritical. "

Yugui thought to himself, this really wasn't just Zhaochen being pretentious. Every time she acted as an undercover agent, she got angry. It was already very impressive that Zhaochen could restrain himself until now and not be disconnected due to anger.

In addition, I hope Zuo An can continue to be the leader of this Bancheng Gang. Really, with Zuo An around, I'm afraid Zhao Chen won't be able to cause any trouble.

The meeting to catch undercover agents in Bancheng was aborted because one of the organizers, Zhaochen, almost had a heart attack due to the anger of the gang leader. He was kicked offline by the security system and ended up with nothing.

The only thing that is certain is that there is indeed an undercover agent in Bancheng, but the gang leader is so incompetent that no one can find out the undercover agent. At present, the entire gang is in a state of suspicion and no one trusts anyone else. They have no time to manage the scattered gangs in Youri City.

For a while, the Sun City seemed to be lagging behind the Star City.

It can be said that Yugui, the undercover agent, did his job conscientiously and did everything he should and shouldn't do, causing unrest in the entire Youri City.

However, no matter how awesome Yigui was, he couldn't follow Zuo'an all day long. After all, whether they were in love or not, Yigui had never thought of sacrificing himself to such an extent. Without Yugui knowing, Zuo An had actually looked for Zhaochen once in secret.

At that time, Zhaochen was still angry with Zuoan. He felt annoyed just looking at him and didn't want to pay any attention to him. However, Zuoan's words made Zhaochen stay.

Zuo An asked: " I remember that you were with me because you had a grudge against Mu Xuanyi just like me, right? "

Zhaochen turned around, looked at Zuo'an, and said, " Yes, why are you asking this? "

Zuo An looked at Zhao Chen without blinking, and said, " I just suddenly remembered the original intention of establishing Bancheng. Bancheng's current strength is indeed not enough to deal with Fanxing City, but it is definitely enough to deal with Mu Xuanyi alone. I was thinking, should we put Fanxing City aside first and target Mu Xuanyi? We already know that he came from Green Forest City and played a warlock. Although it is not certain, it is enough to check – do you know his current situation? "

Zhaochen's face was expressionless. He looked at Zuo'an and whispered, " I don't know. Do you have any news? "

Zuo An looked at Zhao Chen deeply and said, " No, I didn't. I just suddenly remembered to ask. "

" It's nothing, " Zuo An said, " Although Mu Xuanyi and I are sworn enemies, I know that the chaos in Day City is what needs to be resolved the most. Let's wait until Day City stabilizes before we talk about it. "

Zhaochen said nothing, just nodded.

When there was chaos in the Sun City, Ji Xuanyi's situation was not very relaxed either. It's not that something happened in Fanxing City. Fanxing City had just won a victory. Except for Xu Chu who bled a little too much, everyone else was happy. What bothered Ji Xuanyi was the things in real life.

Qi Qin, a guy as strong as a bull, actually fell ill.

Ji Xuan was a little confused when he heard the news. His first reaction was that the other party was teasing him. However, the hoarse voice of Qi Qin when he called him was not fake. It seemed that the other party was really sick.

She also expressed in a very fragile manner that she needed Ji Xuanyi's comfort and hug.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

No matter what, Ji Xuanyi went to the hospital.

Perhaps because they didn't expect Ji Xuanyi to come so soon, Father Qi and Mother Qi were still staying in Qi Qin's ward. When Ji Xuanyi walked to the door, he heard Mother Qi say to Qi

Qin sadly: " Silly child, if you don't know how to use the air conditioner remote control, just sleep in another room. You've got a fever like this, and your IQ is not high to begin with, what are you going to do next ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

No, Qi Qin's parents are originally drawn in this style???

Ji Xuanyi was so upset that he couldn't complain. What's more, Qi Qin, the big fool, was really sick, so he had to go and see him.

Ji Xuanyi knocked on the door of the ward, and it immediately became quiet. After a while, the door was opened. Mother Qi's eyes were slightly red, and she looked at Ji Xuanyi with a hint of inquiry and said, " Are you Xiao Qi's friend? "

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin, who was lying on the hospital bed receiving an IV drip. There was a red blush on his face from the fever, and his eyes were looking at him brightly.

Ji Xuanyi sighed in his heart, looked at Mother Qi, smiled politely, and said with some apology: " It's me, my name is Ji Xuanyi, hello, Auntie, I didn't know you and Uncle were here, and I didn't bring any gifts ... Is Qi Qin okay? "

Mother Qi said quickly: " It's okay, it's okay, Xiao Qi ..."

Mother Qi turned her head to look at Qi Qin and Father Qi. Father Qi winked at him. Mother Qi understood, turned back, sniffed, and said to Ji Xuan in a sad voice: " Qi Qin is not well, his fever has reached 40 degrees. The doctor said that if the fever continues like this, he will become stupid! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Mother Qi could actually whimper, which was amazing. Ji Xuanyi didn't know that the two of them were planning to assist him, so he didn't dare to easily reveal his feelings for Qi Qin.

Seeing that Mother Qi had given up her seat, he walked in first and asked politely, " Are you okay? "

Qi Qin did have a high fever. He didn't move when Ji Xuan asked him a question. He just stared at Ji Xuan stupidly. It took him a long time to react and he groaned softly.

Mr. and Mrs. Qi originally thought that Ji Xuanyi seemed a little cold towards Qi Qin, but seeing the love that could not be hidden in Qi Qin's eyes, the two of them felt helpless. After Ji Xuanyi walked over, Mr. Qi very consciously gave up his seat.

Ji Xuanyi still remembers Father Qi. When he broke the original Qi Qin's leg, it was Father Qi who went to the school to deal with it. Although Father Qi knew what kind of person Qi Qin was at that time and the two of them did not have a conflict, it is still inevitable that they feel a little awkward when they meet now.

Ji Xuan turned his face away, not wanting to look at Father Qi. Father Qi nodded at him seriously, as if nothing had happened, and said, " Qi Qin is now in your hands. "

Ji Xuanyi nodded at first, then felt something was wrong and asked in confusion: " Huh? "

Mother Qi came up to him and said, " We two have things to do, but Qi Qin can't leave his family even though he's in such a bad condition. Since you're here, I'll leave it to you. Xiao Ji, do you have time? "

Ji Xuan wasn't sure what the attitude of Qi Qin's parents was, so he nodded blankly.

Father Qi and Mother Qi breathed a sigh of relief. Mother Qi turned around and whispered something to Qi Qin. When Qi Qin responded in a low voice, she turned back and smiled at Ji Xuan with an apologetic and grateful look on her face, saying, " Then I'll leave this to Xiao Ji. We'll be leaving first, okay? "

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin, nodded to Qi's father and mother, and said, " Please go slowly. I will stay here. "

Hearing this, Mr. and Mrs. Qi, who had originally wanted to give Qi Qin a chance to be alone together, immediately strode out of the ward. When closing the door, they gave Qi Qin a gesture of encouragement, which made Ji Xuanyi frown.

Do Mr. and Mrs. Qi think he is blind?

Mr. Qi closed the door. Just like that, Ji Xuanyi didn't know whether the two were listening outside the door or had left first. After hesitating for a moment, he sat down on the bench next to Qi Qin's bed.

Qi Qin smiled at Ji Xuan foolishly and said, " Xuan Yi, you are here? "

Ji Xuanyi sighed and couldn't help but said, " Are you mentally retarded? How can you still get sick when you are so strong? What's wrong with you? "

Qi Qin was a little confused by the fever, and it took him a long time to react. He said in a hoarse voice: " The air conditioner is broken ..."

Mr. Qi Qin forgot the word air-conditioning and only remembered the word cold air. Fortunately, Ji Xuanyi could understand it roughly.

Qi Qin was actually just sleeping in bed normally, but who knew that the air conditioner suddenly turned on in the middle of the night, blowing Qi Qin cold all over. He slept soundly and did not wake up all night. When he woke up in the morning, he had a fever.

Qi Qin rarely got sick, and had no idea that he had a very high fever. It was only when Qi's father and mother went to Qi Qin's house that they found Qi Qin, who was unconscious due to the fever, and took him to the hospital.

The doctor said that the fever was very serious. It was a good thing that he was sent here. If Qi Qin had been left to sleep alone at home for a whole day, he would have either gotten cold or gone crazy.

Father Qi and Mother Qi were frightened, but they were businessmen after all, and they were ruthless and ruthless. They knew that they could not cry over spilled milk, but should make use of what had happened and gain benefits.

So with the help of Qi's mother, the unconscious Qi Qin called Ji Xuanyi and asked him to come over.

Anyway, the disease has been brought under control, so how can I not take advantage of it to improve my favorability?

Then the current scene appeared.

Ji Xuanyi touched Qi Qin's forehead and found that it was indeed terribly hot. He could not help but frown and said irritably: " You are an expert after all. You sleep so soundly at night. Aren't you afraid of a sneak attack? "

Qi Qin looked at him innocently.

He is indeed a master, but he has only been in the martial arts world for a short time. Even though he is alert, he is only alert to humans and animals. He will only wake up when there is a sound. This is not a fantasy novel, so how can he be alert to temperature?

Qi Qin's eyes were very dark, and because of his illness, his eye sockets were red and watery. Ji Xuan's heart softened at the sight of them, and he was reluctant to blame him. He sighed and said, " Go to sleep. I'll stay with you. You should be fine when you wake up. "

Upon hearing this, Qi Qin closed his eyes and grabbed Ji Xuanyi's hand with the hand that was pierced with the needle.

Qi Qin's hands were covered in cold sweat. Just as Ji Xuanyi was about to pull his hand out, Qi Qin groaned softly, " It hurts ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuan had no choice but to lie still and let him catch him.

Qi Qin opened his eyes slightly, looked at Ji Xuanyi, and whispered: " Xuanyi. "

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyes and looked at him: " What's wrong? "

Qi Qin muttered: " Can you please stop liking Yu Gui? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

After all this time, it turns out that she was waiting for him here!

Chapter 113

I don't know if it was because he was confused by the fierce high temperature , or because he realized that Ji Xuanyi would not be so cruel as to attack a patient with a high fever , Qi Qin suddenly became bolder and even went further.

after he finished speaking , Qi Qin said in an almost inaudible voice: " You, you like me, okay ..."

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, and looked at Qi Qin, and found that after the latter finished muttering this sentence , he didn't know whether it was because of fever or fear, his eyes had been closed, and he made a steady breathing sound.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

I can go to your place!

Ji Xuan looked at Qi Qin expressionlessly for a long while , restraining the desire to pick this man up from the bed and give him a good beating. Then he couldn't help but sigh , gently took the big hand off the back of his hand , and put it into the quilt.

Am I really going to be eaten to death by such a fool? This is such a fucking loss!

Ji Xuanyi thought for a long time, feeling soft-hearted but also somewhat indignant . When had he, Ji Xuanyi , ever been so passive?

Maybe it's because I've never been in a relationship.

Ji Xuanyi sat on the edge of the bed and looked at Qi Qin for a long time , but still couldn't help but reach out and touch the other's face.

The other person was not extremely handsome. Due to his unhealthy lifestyle, his body looked very haggard. No matter how gorgeous his clothes were , they could not conceal the decadence emanating from his bones . It was not until Qi Qin came and he started to exercise properly that he became energetic from the inside out. There was a sense of life and vitality between his eyebrows, and he could wear a white shirt very well.

But in the final analysis, apart from her vitality and her ability to fight, she doesn't have any other advantages. Ji Xuanyi himself doesn't know what he likes about the other party, a good figure?

Ji Xuanyi grabbed the flesh on the other person's face and pulled it.

Being cute seems to be an advantage?

But there was nothing he could do. Once he liked someone, he liked him. There was no room for regret. Even if Ji Xuanyi thought the other party was a fool, he couldn't think of a way to escape from the eyes of this fool.

Ji Xuan took his hand back and looked at Qi Qin for a long time before muttering, " You don't have to ask me to confess first. That would be too much. "

Ji Xuanyi sat for a while and couldn't help but look at Qi Qin again. The other party was still lying quietly on the bed, as if he was soundly asleep.

There was no one else around him, only him and Qi Qin, who was asleep and unaware of anything.

Ji Xuanyi hesitated , stood up, supported himself on the bed with his hands, and leaned towards the other person.

Ji Xuanyi was sure that at this distance, even if Qi Qin still had a little consciousness, he would definitely be exposed.

But until Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin's noses touched, the latter didn't react at all, even his breathing was not disordered.

He was indeed fast asleep.

After confirming this, Ji Xuanyi breathed a sigh of relief, lowered his head decisively, and kissed Qi Qin on the mouth lightly.

This was Ji Xuanyi's first kiss, at least its first kiss since he could remember.

Even Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but blush a little.

As soon as Ji Xuan stood up, he found that Qi Qin, who had been motionless just now as if he had fallen asleep, was still breathing rapidly with his eyes closed, his face flushed, and even the tips of his ears were stained with color. He looked like he was about to faint from excitement.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

" Me! Fuck! " Ji Xuanyi squeezed out two words from between his teeth.

Although Mr. and Mrs. Qi really wanted to gossip about Qi Qin's relationship problems, there are always such situations in the world where what you say comes true. It was obviously just a casual remark and an excuse to cover up, but it turned out that something really happened at the company. Mr. and Mrs. Qi had no choice but to leave first.

So a nurse didn't come into the ward until the time came to draw the needle.

When the nurse pushed open the door, the patient sitting on the bed was using toothpicks to pick up pieces of fruit and feeding them to a young man with a gloomy face beside the bed.

The nurse rubbed her eyes. She was not mistaken. It was indeed the patient who was feeding fruit to the visitor.

And for some reason, this patient, who was admitted to the hospital because of a fever, had purple eyes and looked like he had just been beaten up.

Nurse: "....."

It shouldn't be what she thought, right? Weren't the patient's parents still here just now? How could they let their son be beaten?

Qi Qin shamelessly fed the apple in his hand to Ji Xuanyi's mouth.

Ji Xuanyi said with a cold face: " Go away. "

Qi Qin didn't leave, and even rubbed against Ji Xuanyi, saying flatteringly: " Xuanyi, don't you like apples? Do you want to eat something else? I'll order takeout. "

Ji Xuanyi sneered and said, " You know a lot of things. "

They are all fucking good at pretending to be asleep! Fuck!

Qi Qin became thick-skinned again at this moment. He pretended not to understand what Ji Xuanyi was saying. With dark circles under his eyes, he looked at Ji Xuanyi pitifully.

The atmosphere between the two was really awkward. Although the nurse had seen a lot of messy things, she had never encountered such a strange scene. She came closer with some embarrassment and said, " It's time to remove the needle. "

When Ji Xuan heard this, he immediately stepped aside. Qi Qin subconsciously wanted to catch him, but failed.

The nurse came over and deftly pulled the needle out of Qi Qin's hand. She quickly put on some tape and handed Qi Qin's hand to Ji Xuanyi very naturally. She said, " Press it hard for a while. When the bleeding stops, you can tear it off. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

The nurse and Qi Qin both looked at him. Although he seemed very childish, Ji Xuanyi still said angrily: " Can't he press it himself? "

The nurse glanced at Qi Qin and saw that he was looking at Ji Xuanyi eagerly. She immediately understood and smiled at Ji Xuanyi, " The patient has been lying down for too long. His fever has just subsided and he has no strength in his hands. You should help hold him down. "

Qi Qin cooperated very well and showed a weak expression.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi almost couldn't help but beat the man up in front of the nurse, but even though Qi Qin had dark circles under his eyes, his dark eyes showed fatigue after recovering from a serious illness, and there was not much blood on his lips, Ji Xuanyi was still very soft-hearted.

Fuck! Ji Xuanyi couldn't help cursing in his heart, but after looking at Qi Qin, he walked up with a dark face, held his hand, and pressed his thumb on the needle hole.

Qi Qin's hand was still cold because he had been receiving intravenous drips for a long time, even though Ji Xuanyi had placed it under the quilt. Qi Qin was very sensitive to the temperature from Ji Xuanyi's palm. Qi Qin remembered Ji Xuanyi's unexpected kiss again, and felt that what Ji Xuanyi was holding was not his hand, but his heart. How its beat was controlled by Ji Xuanyi, as if it was no longer his control.

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi eagerly, put his other hand on Ji Xuanyi's wrist, and said: " Xuanyi, I -- um! "

Ji Xuan covered his mouth without changing his expression and said to the nurse: " Is there anything else? "

The nurse seemed not to notice the patient under Ji Xuan's hand, and smiled, " You need to come for an IV tomorrow and the day after tomorrow. You can go to the window to get the medicine you need to take. The dosage and frequency are written on the packaging. The medical expenses have been paid by Mr. Qi. You don't have to worry, you can take a rest before leaving. "

When Qi Qin was sent over, he was unconscious and still in his pajamas. Ji Xuanyi looked down and could see his chest and abdominal muscles directly from his collar. He couldn't help swallowing his saliva, but still pretended to be calm and sat down. He said to Qi Qin: " Can you leave now? If you can, I will take you home. "

Qi Qin had only finished speaking, and Ji Xuanyi didn't seem to want him to finish. However, after all, they were his loved ones, so Qi Qin felt more secure and less flustered. When he heard Ji Xuanyi say this, he asked, " What if you can't leave? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " If you can't leave, just rest here for a while. "

Qi Qin immediately said: " Then I can't leave yet. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi glanced at Qi Qin with a complicated expression and said, " I didn't say I would leave after sending you home. "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, then reacted and quickly changed his words: " Ah, then I'm fine, let's go home. "

Ji Xuanyi was speechless, but he still took Qi Qin, whose steps were still a little weak, to his home in a taxi.

Qi Qin's house was no different from the last time Ji Xuan came, except that Qi Qin had gradually become familiar with the life here, and many items showed signs of use. The broken air conditioner had been dismantled by someone sent by Qi's father. Ji Xuan had no choice but to take Qi Qin to the second bedroom and put him on the bed.

After all, it was a high fever. Although Qi Qin felt a little better after the infusion, it was not easy to recover.

Then there was the matter of Ji Xuanyi who lost control and revealed his feelings to Qi Qinxian. Ever since the latter woke up, he has never taken his eyes off Ji Xuanyi and has been glued to him. Even though he had just been beaten, he was still as happy as a fool, chuckling from time to time, which made Ji Xuanyi both irritable and regretful.

However, no matter how conflicted he was, Ji Xuanyi couldn't leave Qi Qin behind at this time. He could only resign himself to his fate, boil some water, feed the medicine to him, and then asked him if he wanted to drink porridge.

Qi Qin's eyes lit up and he said, " Xuan Yi, do you want to cook? "

Ji Xuanyi sneered and said, " I'm afraid I'll poison you to death. "

Qi Qin: "..."

Ji Xuan took out his cell phone and said, " Which takeaway do you want to eat? "

Qi Qin: "... Shaxian snacks? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin sat face to face eating mixed noodles. The scene was so disgusting.

Qi Qin had just recovered from his illness and had a small appetite, so he only ate two bowls. Ji Xuanyi cleaned up the garbage and asked, " When will your parents come back? "

Qi Qin stood up and wanted to help, but was pushed back by Ji Xuanyi. After hearing this, he said, " They don't live with me, so they probably won't come over. "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said nothing. He threw away the garbage, took out two ice cubes from the refrigerator, wrapped them in gauze, sat down next to Qi Qin, and waved to him.

Qi Qin was stunned, and seeing some impatience on Ji Xuanyi's face, he quickly crawled over. Ji Xuanyi put his arms around his neck, made him lie down on his lap, and applied ice to his face with an expressionless face.

Qi Qin rested his head stiffly on his soft thighs, and it took him a long time to relax. He stared blankly at Ji Xuanyi in front of him, feeling like he was dreaming.

It took a long time for Qi Qin to realize what was going on and he started laughing foolishly again.

Ji Xuanyi lowered his eyes to glance at him and said calmly, " The back teeth are showing. "

Qi Qin: "..."

Qi Qin closed his mouth and just looked at Ji Xuanyi. After looking for a long time, he found that the usually calm other party was actually blushing. He also knew that he couldn't say this, otherwise Ji Xuanyi would get angry and beat him up again. But after holding it in for a long time, he couldn't help but say: " Xuanyi, you are so beautiful. "

Ji Xuan glanced at him, snorted, and said, " Is this all you saw? "

Qi Qin quickly said: " No, Xuanyi is still very smart. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " What else? "

Qi Qin was stunned. He didn't expect Ji Xuan to ask this question. He quickly said, " You are very kind! "

Ji Xuan remained calm: " Well, what else? "

Qi Qin: "..."

Under Ji Xuanyi's questioning, Qi Qin stammered out several advantages, but many of them were far from Ji Xuanyi's , such as being friendly and having a mild temper. After Qi Qin finished speaking, he felt like he was here to make people laugh.

Fortunately, Ji Xuanyi was indeed amused by him, and his eyes became gentle.

Only then did Qi Qin realize that Ji Xuanyi really liked him. He was not daydreaming, nor was he having a one-sided love for him. Such a good Ji Xuanyi, the one and only Ji Xuanyi, also liked him. The feelings he had hidden for so long actually received a response he had never dared to imagine. He simply wanted to kneel down and thank the heaven and earth.

From one world to another completely unfamiliar world, helplessness, panic, and even resentment are inevitable. The same goes for Qi Qin. It was not until he fell in love with Ji Xuanyi that he vaguely understood what he wanted. It was not until this moment that he was completely relieved.

Qi Qin grabbed Ji Xuanyi's hand that was applying facial massage to him. He was excited and couldn't wait to tell him his feelings thoroughly. He wanted Ji Xuanyi to know how long he had liked him and how happy he was now!

Ji Xuanyi's movements were interrupted. He glanced at him and said, " Let go. "

Qi Qin: "..."

Qi Qin swallowed his saliva and let go of his hand timidly.

Even though you are sure of the other person's feelings, it doesn't mean you can be bold enough to do what you want.

Ji Xuanyi lowered his eyes and said while applying eye drops to Qi Qin: " I have a bad temper, don't make me angry. "

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi blankly, not knowing what the other party meant.

Ji Xuan looked at him and whispered, " I only have one request of you. "

 " Otherwise, if I hit you, I'll be sad again. "

Qi Qin, explode on the spot!

of Ji Xuanyi's words was so great that Qi Qin covered his chest, having the illusion that he was knocked unconscious. Not only his face, but also his eye sockets and the tips of his ears were red. He stared at Ji Xuanyi infatuatedly, looking completely dumbfounded.

Ji Xuanyi curled his lips and said, " If you haven't recovered yet, continue to rest. I'll stay here tonight and wait until you're better before leaving. "

Another critical hit! Is this the benefit of being in a relationship?! Qi Qin felt like she was about to pass out of happiness, her eyes glued to Ji Xuanyi, unable to be peeled away.

Ji Xuanyi moved his head off his legs and wanted to put it on the pillow, but Qi Qin was too tall and strong, and Ji Xuanyi couldn't move it. He felt a little embarrassed for a moment, so he had to pull the pillow over calmly and put it under Qi Qin's head. He then left with the gauze soaked in ice water.

I am so handsome.

Ji Xuanyi, who was in love for the first time, thought so and was very satisfied with his performance.

When Ji Xuanyi was about to leave the room, Qi Qin finally woke up from his pink bubble and shouted: " Xuanyi! "

Ji Xuanyi turned around, smiled at him and said, " What's wrong? "

Qi Qin was stunned for a long time, then stammered, " Can you ... stop liking Yu Gui ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

There's no way we can get over this, right?

To be honest, there is really nothing between Ji Xuanyi and Yugui, at least Ji Xuanyi doesn't have that kind of feeling towards Yugui. Yugui is a very rational girl and it is unlikely that she will like Ji Xuanyi. With Ji Xuanyi's personality, you can just admire him from afar as an idol or a big shot. If you really want to get close to him and have a romance or something, only someone as thick-skinned as Qi Qin can handle it.

However, Qi Qin thought Ji Xuanyi was a treasure, and he felt that everyone thought Ji Xuanyi was a treasure. He was extremely nervous, fearing that someone would come out of nowhere and snatch Ji Xuanyi away. He would not be willing to give up without confirming it.

Ji Xuanyi, a man with extraordinary self-confidence, could not quite understand Qi Qin's thoughts, but he still told him seriously about his relationship with Yugui, and patiently explained why he would not like Yugui, and told Qi Qin clearly that although he did not know what he liked about him, he liked him, and he would be responsible.

Qi Qin's illness didn't get better too quickly under Ji Xuanyi's care, but he was beaten a little more often. However, the heartache that Ji Xuanyi mentioned was also reflected to a certain extent. Qi Qin was surprised to find that he didn't feel any pain when Ji Xuanyi hit him, and his whole person began to evolve into a masochist .

Ji Xuanyi stayed at Qi Qin's house for two days and found that Qi Qin's illness had recovered. However, this person did not want Ji Xuanyi to leave so soon, and he actually had another idea and wanted to pretend to be sick. However, Ji Xuanyi simply exposed his plan. After contacting Qi's father and mother, he left without looking back.

After logging into the game again after two or three days, Ji Xuanyi had a feeling of being away for a long time. Qi Qin came up from the side, but was kicked away by Ji Xuanyi.

Anyway, it didn't hurt in the game, so Qi Qin came back and asked, " What are we going to do now? "

Ji Xuanyi frowned, and after a long while he remembered, he said, " I haven't got the finished weapons yet, let's go to the dwarves first. "

After the attack from the Sun City, Ji Xuanyi had time to get his weapon back. Then there was the celebration and sorting inside the Star City. Then Qi Qin fell ill. As a result, Ji Xuanyi has been delayed until now and has not found time to get his weapon back.

Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi both have short legs, so it would take at least two days to walk all the way there. Qi Qin thought for a moment and said, " Do we have to be the same as the others? "

Although the attack on Day City failed, who knows if they will have any strange actions on the left bank. If they leave without telling us first, they will be anxious to find them in the rain.

Ji Xuan nodded, lowered his head and chatted privately, saying: " Did you receive the email? "

Qi Qin was stunned, then shook his head and said, " No. "

Ji Xuanyi heard this and said, " I have an email. It doesn't look like it was sent by the system. I don't know who sent it. Let's go check it out on the way. "

Qi Qin nodded repeatedly.

The two walked all the way to a postman near the city gate. Ji Xuanyi walked up to him and said, " Get the mail. "

After playing for so long, we are no longer so unfamiliar with each other, and we can just use the simplest command statements to do anything.

As for the postman, he didn't mind at all. He smiled at Ji Xuanyi, and without further ado, he took out a long and narrow box from the cloth bag on his waist, handed it to Ji Xuanyi, and said, " This is a letter from the Dwarf King of the Chongyan Volcano Dwarf Tribe. Please check it. "

Ji Xuan was stunned. He had never expected that the Dwarf King would be so considerate and directly send the finished weapons to him, saving him and Qi Qin from having to travel back and forth for nearly a week.

But then again, do dwarves have postmen? With their short legs, it would be a bit difficult for them to deliver goods, right?

However, this is the setting of the game. It is great if it can be convenient for oneself. Ji Xuanyi did not bother about how the dwarves delivered the goods by express. After thanking them, he took the crystal box.

The crystal box no longer contained the branch of the Tree of Life, but an exquisitely crafted warlock staff. The gem on the staff was glowing with a faint blue light. Even if the attributes of this staff were not very good, there would probably be many players who would want to get it just because of its appearance.

Ji Xuanyi opened the box and took out the staff. The moment he touched it, he saw the system description of the staff shining with golden light.

[Evil Spirit Staff] : A divine weapon that can revive a friendly target within ten seconds after its death.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

what happened?

Ji Xuanyi opened his package with a confused look on his face.

The magic crystal that he should have handed over to the Dwarf King was lying quietly in the corner of the backpack.

Chapter 114

It had been less than a month , but so many things had happened in between , and they had happened so frequently that it took Ji Xuanyi a long time to remember what was missing from his bag.

After the summoned BOSS that was foreshadowed in the plot was defeated , all players received a random reward . At that time, he also opened a " Soul Gem ", but because he didn't know what it was used for , it kept gathering dust in his backpack, and later he forgot about it. When Ji Xuanyi went to Chongyan Volcano to ask the Dwarf King to make weapons, his package was overwhelmed by the " legacy " sent by Wanshi Fengyu . When he was sorting them out , he found the " Soul Gem " in the corner . In addition, he was a little absent-minded at the time , so he mistakenly gave the " Soul Gem " that looked very similar to the magic crystal to the Dwarf King, and he accidentally made a magical weapon!

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but have the illusion that all his luck in this life had been used up here. After realizing what had happened , Ji Xuanyi let out a long sigh and looked at the detailed explanation in the system instructions.

There is no need to talk about the attributes , those golden words have already explained everything . At least they are the best attributes Ji Xuanyi has ever seen.

The name of this staff is the Evil Spirit Staff , which proves that the gem that Ji Xuanyi opened was not the " Soul Gem " but the Evil Spirit Gem . From the information obtained before, it is difficult to distinguish between the two in terms of appearance and energy. It is estimated that because of this , the system description when the Evil Spirit Gem was obtained looked so harmless.

In fact, the resurrection skill of the evil spirit staff also clearly carries the attributes of the evil spirit gem.

The resurrection function of the staff is not a true resurrection, but a three-minute limited resurrection. The resurrected person will die again after three minutes, and there is a 50% chance of losing one level.

For example, a player dies at level 50. At this time, he is at level 49. He is resurrected by the Wraith Staff, and he is still at level 49. After the three-minute resurrection time is up, the player dies again and returns to the resurrection point. At this time, there is a 50% probability that his level will remain at level 49, but there is also a 50% probability that he will drop again and become level 48.

It can be said that this is a skill that is very unfriendly to the person being resurrected. When Ji Xuan saw this, he felt that the range of this skill should not be friendly targets, but enemy targets. It can be used as an attack skill.

However, when he saw the effects of the skills later, Ji Xuanyi understood why this staff had such serious side effects after using it.

When a friendly target is resurrected by the Evil Spirit Staff, within the three minutes of the limited resurrection, all attributes of the resurrected person will increase by 500%, and they will not be killed by external forces until the resurrection time ends.

Not to mention what would happen if this skill was used on other people, if the person being resurrected was Qi Qin, with a 500% attribute bonus, it means basically one kid can be killed with one sword . Not to mention fighting one against a hundred, you can even fight one against a thousand!

While Ji Xuanyi was shocked by the effect of this skill, he couldn't help but sigh that there must be a reason why a magic weapon is called a magic weapon. If this skill is used and there is a sharper teammate, it can be said that everything can be defeated.

However, the price is also obvious. The further you go, the harder it is to upgrade. There is a 50% chance of being demoted, so not everyone is willing to give it a try.

Ji Xuan took a look at the skill CD and it was half an hour long. It seemed that this staff was more like the last straw when trapped in a desperate situation than other skills that were used in daily life. It should not be used unless it was absolutely necessary.

Ji Xuanyi held the Evil Spirit Staff in his hand, and looked at the special effects staff he had originally obtained in the Green Forest City copy. After thinking about it, he decided to replace it with the Evil Spirit Staff.

Although the Wrath Staff only has one inherent skill and cannot add a slowing effect to all skills like the special effect staff, the attributes are there after all. As a fragile warlock, Ji Xuanyi can compete with the priest in terms of health after equipping it, and it is worth it even if it is just for defense.

At worst, when you need to kite, you can just take out the special effects staff in your bag. One of the more user-friendly aspects of "Domain" is that you can switch equipment at will during battle, as long as your bag can hold it and your movements are fast enough, you can change pants while fighting.

At this stage, no one would do such a weird thing for such a small attribute, but changing weapons is still a common thing.

After listening to Ji Xuanyi's explanation of the function of the staff, Qi Qin couldn't help but reveal an eager expression. He didn't care much about the level or anything like that. It didn't matter if it was lost. He really wanted to try the feeling of quintupling his agility. Although the equipment on his body had reached the fastest speed attribute that a swordsman could stack, Qi Qin's own speed had never been used. With the five-fold bonus, many moves that he couldn't use at all now could be used.

Ji Xuanyi tapped him and said, "Wake up, do you want to try this thing too?"

Qi Qin touched his chest and looked at Ji Xuanyi eagerly.

Ji Xuanyi was speechless. After thinking for a while, he said vaguely, "Maybe there will be a chance in the future. Let's talk about it later."

Qi Qin naturally would not object to Ji Xuanyi's decision. He nodded and said nothing more. The previous plan to go to Chongyan Volcano can be cancelled. Ji Xuan thought about it and decided to take Qi Qin to level up. Although they haven't done any serious tasks during this period, they have gained a lot of experience from previous activity tasks. They are leveling up quite fast and are almost level 60 now. If they work hard, they may be able to reach level 60 before anything goes wrong in Youri City or before the game launches a new event.

However, since leaving Green Forest City, Ji Xuanyi's upgrade plan seemed to have never been realized. He had just taken Qi Qin to take an errand task nearby when he received a secret chat from Xiao Xiaoyuxia.

[Xiaoxiaoyuxia] : Are you there?

Usually when someone asks these two questions at the beginning, they are either looking to borrow money from you or to do something for you.

Ji Xuanyi pretended not to see it and said to Qi Qin: "Let's go and find the package."

Qi Qin nodded, took two steps, then paused and opened the chat bar.

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment, and just as he reacted, he heard Qi Qin look up and say stupidly: "Xuanyi, Xiaoxiao is looking for you in the rain."

Ji Xuanyi:..."

You have grown more capable, it's raining!

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was a smart guy. He knew that Ji Xuanyi didn't want to pay attention to him, so he turned around and went to chat with Qi Qin in private. As long as Qi Qin responded, he would be able to contact Ji Xuanyi. Qi Qin, a fool, didn't understand and didn't think about why Xiaoxiao Yuxia contacted him instead of Ji Xuanyi, so he was fooled.

Ji Xuan looked at Qi Qin expressionlessly.

Qi Qin:..."

Qi Qin felt that something seemed to be wrong and swallowed. Although he didn't know what went wrong, it would definitely not be wrong to apologize first.

Qi Qin glanced at Ji Xuanyi and said hesitantly: "I'm sorry?"

Ji Xuanyi:..."

Ji Xuanyi sighed and said, "Fuck it, I regret it eight hundred times a day."

Qi Qin didn't understand, but it was a good thing that he didn't get beaten! He approached Ji Xuanyi with a shameless face and asked, "What did Xiaoxiao Yuxia want to talk to Xuanyi about?"

Ji Xuanyi said: "How would I know? Anyway, it won't be a good thing."

It is unlikely that Xiao Xiao Yuxia would look for him on a personal basis. He is not like Liu Tian or Jing Yunhan. He is still very opinionated and would prefer to solve problems with his own strength. Usually, when Xiao Xiao Yuxia looks for Ji Xuanyi, it is basically because the three major gangs need Ji Xuanyi's help with something.

After Xiaoxiao Yuxia had a secret chat with Qi Qin, she pretended to have another secret chat with Ji Xuanyi.

[Xiaoxiaoyuxia] : Are you there?

Ji Xuan replied expressionlessly: " If you have anything to fart, do it now. "

There is no need to be too mysterious when talking to Ji Xuanyi. He will help you if he is willing to help you, but it is useless to say that he is not willing to help you. Xiao Xiao Yuxia knows this very well, so she did not exchange pleasantries and asked directly: How do " you think we should defeat the World Boss ? "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned and asked, " World BOSS ? "

[Xiaoxiao Rain] :? You don't know?

Ji Xuanyi really didn't know. He hadn't played the game for only three days, so how did the world boss appear ? Did he travel through time? It felt like he couldn't keep up with the progress!

Ji Xuanyi replied: " I was busy before and didn't come. What's the situation? " [潇潇雨下] : Didn't you visit the forum? There is no update in the game yet, the news was released on the forum.

While Ji Xuanyi was accompanying Qi Qin to recuperate, the official announced the news of the next event.

It is time to announce a new event. It has been almost a month since the world quest was completed. According to the nature of this game, the world boss will most likely be the follow-up to the world quest. A month's interval has given players plenty of time to prepare.

this world BOSS has been marked in the announcement. The first stage is the preparation stage. Within seven days after the event starts, players can complete tasks in the race maps handed in during their respective world missions to accumulate strength for the race. The more power accumulated within seven days, the more help the race will provide to the players in subsequent battles.

This setting is probably to balance the strength of the three main cities. After all, if the help provided to the players is measured by the number of friendly races, then one of the three main cities must be at a disadvantage.

If the amount of help received is determined by missions, even if a main city only gains the trust of one race, as long as there are enough players participating in the mission, the help received by the main city will not be much less than that of the other two main cities.

After the first stage ends, the server will enter a short maintenance state. When the maintenance is over, all players will be refreshed back to their main city just like before the world quest begins. At the same time, the second stage of defense will begin.

clones of the World Boss will launch attacks on the three main cities at the same time. In addition to the races in the main city, the races allied with the main city will also refresh in the city to help players resist the Boss . At the same time, they will also issue various tasks to weaken the Boss or provide players with item assistance.

Because the three clones must be defeated before the final BOSS can be summoned , the official also thoughtfully stated in the announcement that the main city that repelled the BOSS in advance can provide help to other main cities and speed up the progress of the task.

However, Ji Xuanyi did not count on this. No matter how he looked at it, Youyue City did not seem like a city that could finish the battle in advance and help other cities, not to mention Yueri City. It was good enough that they did not come to help the BOSS attack the city. Compared to waiting for others to help, it was more likely that Fanxing City would be self-reliant and then help others.

After defeating the three clones , the second stage is over and the third stage begins. The real body of the World BOSS will be refreshed in the wild area right in the middle of the three main cities. Players from the three main cities need to work together to repel it. At this time, in addition to the attribute weakening of the BOSS by the five major races , it all depends on the players' own strength to defeat the BOSS .

Like the usual activities, after the BOSS is killed, very generous rewards will be given to all the players in the server. In addition, the World BOSS will become a permanent activity, which will be refreshed at a fixed location once every half a month. Rewards will be given out after the BOSS is killed , and the cycle will continue.

Xiao Xiao Yu gave a brief explanation and Ji Xuanyi almost understood it. The games he had played before also had this kind of routine, but the attack process of the first world boss in this game was slightly more complicated.

" But the official has already released the specific process, why are you still asking how to play? " Ji Xuan said: " Follow the process, do the tasks when you need to do the tasks, do the damage when you need to do the damage, is there anything else I need to pay attention to? " Seeing Ji Xuanyi's reply, Xiao Xiaoyuxia was also a little helpless and said, " Of course, the normal activity process is simple. Do we need to ask you for advice? But big brother, did you forget something? "

[瀟曉雨下] : Let's not talk about the first two stages. The third stage requires all players from the three main cities to participate. Don't you know what the nature of the Sun City is? Ji Xuanyi suddenly realized.

After a long time, Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others were worried that the Day City would stab them in the back, and they were not sure how to deal with it, so they came to ask him.

After getting the new weapon, Ji Xuanyi, who was confident that he could defeat everything, was not too worried about the problems in the Daylight City. However, if something went wrong in the Daylight City and the world boss was ruined, it would be very bad.

Although if Youri City dared to do this, it would almost mean that it would be in opposition to the other two main cities at the same time, which would be of great significance, but given Zuo'an's intelligence, Ji Xuanyi really couldn't figure out what was in the other party's mind.

I think it was because of this that Xu Chu pushed the matter to Xiao Xiao Yuxia and asked him to ask Ji Xuanyi what to do.

Although he heard that Zuo An Zhaochen had a grudge against him, and that he might be one of the reasons why they targeted Fanxing City, Ji Xuanyi actually didn't want to get involved in these trivial matters.

He had just confirmed his relationship with Qi Qin and planned to spend a few days developing his relationship skills. He didn't have the time to deal with those idiots on the Zuo An.

Ji Xuan didn't even think twice before saying to Xiao Xiao Yu: " I know about this. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia received the reply, her eyes lit up, and she said, " What are you going to do? "

[Ji Xuanyi] : Cold dish.

[Raining] : ???

Ji Xuanyi replied calmly: " What is the current strength of Sun City? Xu Chu can handle it alone, don't bother me. "

After saying that, he closed the chat channel and took Qi Qin to complete the task.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was chatting madly with Ji Xuanyi on the other end, but after just a few messages, she was blacklisted by Ji Xuanyi. She then turned to chat with Qi Qin, and it was even worse, she was deleted as a friend.

If Xiaoxiao Yuxia knew the real reason why Ji Xuanyi rejected her, she would definitely recite a poem.

But if the flying general of Dragon City comes, the king will no longer attend court early in the morning ...

Ji Xuanyi, wake up! Now is not the time to fall in love!

The current strength of Day City is indeed not much different from that of Star City, and it can even be said to be slightly weaker, but Xu Chu, who is responsible for the IQ of the three major gangs, also has some problems.

Of course it's not about being late . Everyone has become accustomed to this attribute. It is understandable that Xu Chu is late for a long time. If it really doesn't work, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia will also bite the bullet and hold on for a while.

The problem was that Xu Chu found himself trapped in a vicious circle of positive logic and negative logic, and he couldn't guess what level the enemy could think of with his intelligence . To put it simply, he suffered a blow when the trap he set in the Heavy Flame Volcano was almost ignored. Then in the attack on the Sun City, facing the enemy's magical knight captain, Xu Chu was unable to guess what the other party was thinking, which made him a little confused now.

But even though he was confused, Xu Chu was still very cocky and didn't look like he was hit at all. He just pushed everything onto Xiao Xiao Yu Xia, and spent the whole day with Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian, bullying Liu Tian Ba Jian to wash the new wine, and occasionally teasing Jing Yunhan, making the top leaders of the three major gangs dare not speak out.

If the other party hadn't really frowned when thinking about countermeasures, Xiaoxiao Yuxia would have suspected that the other party was deliberately making excuses to be lazy.

But speaking of it, Xu Chu doesn't seem to need an excuse for being lazy.

Xiao Xiao couldn't call Ji Xuanyi in the rain, so she had to go find Xu Chu.

When Xu Chu went offline yesterday, he told Xiao Xiao Yu Xia that he would be online this morning. It's almost one or two o'clock now, and I guess it's time for Xu Chu to go online.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia thought so and waited until after six o'clock in the evening.

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Xu Chu's skill in waiting for people to come back has become more and more proficient. Every time when everyone gets used to his pattern of waiting for people to come back and thinks they will not be waited for again according to his algorithm, he always makes those who are waiting for him feel what despair is.

The number one ace pigeon in Star City, disrespectful.

When Xiao Xiaoyu saw Xu Chu, she almost couldn't help but smash her heavy sword on his face.

However, Xu Chu was already used to this kind of situation, so he remained calm and said confidently: " Why did you come so early? "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: " I'll fuck you—— "

Xiao Xiaoyu's face was distorted, and it took her a long time to hold back the swear words.

Seeing that he had held back, Xu Chu knew that he would not do anything no matter what he said next, so he asked casually: " Is Ji Xuanyi online today? "

In fact, there are ways to contact them even if they are not online. They have an offline group, but although Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were pulled into it, they rarely show up, especially Ji Xuanyi, who hardly speaks. Xiao Xiaoyuxia suspected that he had blocked the group. When Ji Xuanyi was not online before, they had tagged Ji Xuanyi crazily in the group, but Ji Xuanyi completely ignored them.

In fact, Ji Xuanyi did block this group, because when there is no major accident, this group is not only useless, but also very noisy, basically filled with idiotic remarks from Liu Tian and others. However, the most important reason that led Ji Xuanyi to close the group was not because of the remarks and picture battles from Liu Tian and others, but because of the old people's emoticons that were posted in the group every day after Xue Piao Renjian was pulled in.

The colorful special effects blinded Ji Xuanyi's eyes. After mistakenly entering the group several times and getting hurt, Ji Xuanyi decisively blocked the group.

Snowfall: "..."

That's Xue Piao Renjian's only hobby besides games, okay!

Xiao Xiaoyu endured for a long time before saying, " He hasn't downloaded yet. Can't you see the friend list? "

Xu Chu opened the friend list and took a look. He found that Ji Xuanyi's profile picture, who had not been online for a few days, was indeed on. He showed a knowing expression, looked at Xiao Xiaoyuxia, and said, " What did he say? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " He said he doesn't want to care, you alone are enough. "

Xu Chu said: " Oh, as expected. "

Ji Xuan hasn't been online for a few days. He must have had something going on in real life. He just came back after resolving it, and then he was dragged to deal with Zuo An. He must be unwilling to do that.

Xiao Xiaoyu said expressionlessly: " It's expected, and you still want me to ask? "

Xu Chu said: " What if Ji Xuanyi is in a good mood? "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia said in disbelief: " ??? Do you know the probability that Ji Xuanyi is in a good mood? "

Xu Chu thought about it and said seriously: " Three hundred and sixty-five days, there must be one day, right? "

Xiao Xiao wants to hit someone in the rain.

Xu Chu saw it and quickly took two steps back. Fortunately, Xiao Xiao Yuxia was a short-legged swordsman and might not be able to catch up with Xu Chu, so Xu Chu was relatively safe. However, Xiaoxiao Yuxia had almost reached the limit of his patience, so Xu Chu stopped talking to him and turned around to have a private chat with Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were doing a mission together. They saw a pair of lovers finally get married. The two looked at each other and the atmosphere was ambiguous when the system prompt sounded.

Ji Xuanyi lowered his head and opened the chat channel.

[Xu Chu] : Are you there?

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

[Ji Xuanyi] : Not here, get out.

Chapter 115

Ji Xuanyi asked Xu Chu to get out , but what kind of person is Xu Chu? It is his nature to seek death. How could he just give up like that?

Xu Chu knew that Ji Xuanyi would not reply to his message, so he directly called Liu Tian to talk to Ji Xuanyi in person .

, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin strolled to the pedestrian street organized by the players . They were drinking juice while shopping . Halfway through their walk , they were found by Xu Chu and Liu Tian.

Xu Chu saw Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi walking close to each other on the road, both of them had a spring-like expression on their faces. He suddenly understood something and smiled knowingly . He quietly turned over and jumped off Liu Tian's horse , and even fell down.

But in Xu Chu's opinion , compared with what Liu Tian would encounter later, wrestling was not a big deal.

Liu Tian didn't know that Xu Chu had already run away . He stupidly rode his horse to stop Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin and said, " What are you two doing? You are wandering around here instead of doing your business . Do you know that there will be a World Boss event ? Come on , come with us to the meeting first. "

Ji Xuanyi, who was disturbed for the third time today, had reached the limit of his patience. He slowly raised his head and looked at Liu Tian with a fierce look in his eyes.

Six days: "..."

Although he was stupid, Liu Tian still felt that the atmosphere seemed a little wrong. He swallowed his saliva and subconsciously looked back at Xu Chu behind him ... Xu Chu? Where was Xu Chu?

Liu Tian's face turned green, and he instantly realized that he had been tricked by Xu Chu again. He immediately turned around and shouted: " I'm sorry, I was wrong-- "

Poor Liu Tian didn't even have the time to apologize before Ji Xuan caught him and beat him up. was hiding in the distance , saw that Liu Tian had been beaten to a pulp, and Ji Xuanyi didn't seem to be so angry anymore. He then calmly walked over from the corner and said to Ji Xuanyi with a smile: " Although I know it's not good to disturb you at this time, the World Boss is a big event for the whole server after all. I can't plan it alone, so I still need your help. "

Liu Tian was still a bloody skin, and he felt like he died with his eyes open. He lay on the ground and stared at Xu Chu, saying: " Fuck!!! "

Xu Chu pretended not to hear and just looked at Ji Xuanyi.

After beating Xu Chu for six days, Ji Xuanyi really had no intention of attacking Xu Chu again. He just said impatiently: " Get lost, do your own things, don't come to me for everything. "

This is a major life event that concerns real life, so why waste so much time on these messy things.

Xu Chu certainly wouldn't give up like that, he approached with a cheeky face and said, " How can it be our business? You are also a member of Star City! If something goes wrong in Sun City, we are all victims, right? "

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly.

Xu Chu blinked innocently.

Ji Xuanyi said: " I got a magical artifact today. "

Xu Chu didn't expect Ji Xuanyi to suddenly change the subject, and was stunned: "... What the hell? "

Ji Xuan posted the attributes of the evil spirit staff in the private chat channel and sent it to Xu Chu.

Xu Chu was stunned for a moment, not knowing whether to be surprised that Ji Xuanyi actually got the artifact, or to marvel at the amazing properties of this artifact.

Before Xu Chu could figure out what to say first, Ji Xuanyi waved the staff in his hand towards him and said, " Five times the increase. "

He tapped Qi Qin's black breastplate with his staff and said, " Number one in the world. "

Then he said to Xu Chu: " Understand? "

Xu Chu: "..."

Xu Chu understood.

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " Do I still need to consider what Day City is thinking? "

Xu Chu: "... No, no, no. "

Where did Ji Xuanyi get this magical tool?! He is too social!

Xu Chu looked at the staff in Ji Xuanyi's hand with shining eyes.

Ji Xuanyi knew what he was thinking and said, " It was made by the dwarves. If you complete the dwarves' world quest, they will definitely agree to make it for you. However, the materials are a bit difficult to get. You can do more secret quests, or brush up your favorability to see if there are any quests that can be triggered. "

Xu Chu thought for a moment and said, " Why go through so much trouble? I should be able to get it by spending some money, right? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

After all, they are RMB players, and everyone's thinking circuits are a little different.

Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to talk nonsense with him and said, " It's up to you. Anyway, I don't think that the current Sun City is a threat anymore. You can do whatever you want. There's no need to come to me. I'm busy talking ... talking about things. I don't have that much time to talk nonsense with you. "

When Xu Chu saw Ji Xuanyi's artifact, how could he care about the affairs of Daylight City? Not to mention that Ji Xuanyi had already said not to worry. Even though Daylight City was now outside the gate of Fanxing City, Xu Chu just wanted to find the dwarves to make a wave of artifacts first.

However, the divine weapon was not the most urgent thing. Xu Chu came to Ji Xuanyi, not only to ask for strategies on how to deal with the mischief in Day City, but also to ask Ji Xuanyi's opinion on another matter.

Xu Chu touched his chin and said, " What should I do if I always encounter opponents with low IQ and whose moves I can't figure out? I've been a little timid about thinking about things lately. "

Ji Xuanyi was just about to give Qi Qin the juice he hadn't finished. When he heard this, he looked at Xu Chu and said, " Are you still worried about this? "

Xu Chu was stunned and said, " What? Can't I worry about this? "

" This is a very simple matter for you, " Ji Xuanyi said seriously, " You can first classify the opponents into six levels, six-day-style enemies , Jing Yunhan-style enemies , sword-washing new wine-style enemies , and Xiao Xiao Yu Xia-style enemies . "

Then, according to this level and referring to the IQ of those people, wouldn't it be enough to make a plan?

Xu Chu: "..."

Xu Chu was confused and asked, " Is there such a saying? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Of course. "

Xu Chu thought about it and felt that it might actually work, so he nodded to Ji Xuan, turned around and left thoughtfully, preparing to collect materials to make the artifact.

Ji Xuan glanced at Liu Tian lying on the ground. The latter shuddered, climbed up, looked at Ji Xuan with lingering fear, and ran away hurriedly after Xu Chu.

Liu Tian is quite stupid. He gets cheated every day, but he is still willing to play with Xu Chu. He deserves to be the number one fool in Fanxing City.

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin, who was drumming next to him, and after drinking the juice, Qi Qin felt that the guys who still liked others this day were more stupid than six days.

Qi Qin finished his juice, put the two cups together, and said to Ji Xuan in a silly way: " Where did you throw it? "

Ji Xuan waved at him, motioning him to come closer.

Qi Qin didn't understand why the matter of losing two cups was so mysterious, but he still bent down obediently and moved next to Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi calmly pinched his chin, kissed him on the side of his face, and then said: " Throw it anywhere, it will be refreshed immediately anyway. "

Ji Xuanyi her ,and Qi Qin shuddered ,kissed her very loudly face flushed red. She looked at Ji Xuanyi shyly and restrainedly for a long time before she whispered, " Offline ... "

Ji Xuanyi said: " What? "

Qi Qin: " I want to kiss you back offline! >///< "

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were having their awkward yet sweet first love. Time passed quickly and soon it was time for an event update in "Domain".

World Boss event must be completed in five wild maps. Before the game entered maintenance, each main city had already allocated personnel to the wild maps and had already set off.

Generally speaking, players can complete this kind of quest wherever they want, but there are always some maps with too much contrast, such as the elves and dwarves in Starry City. It is obvious that almost everyone will choose to go to the elves. After all, the Lost Forest is not only beautiful, but the environment is also much better than the Heavy Flame Volcano.

But no one knows whether some strange plot will be triggered in this situation where there are two races as helpers at the same time, but the treatment of the two sides is completely different. After all, there are too many hidden plots in "Domain". Just in case, the three major gangs are still prepared to recruit as many people as possible to go to the Chongyan Volcano, even if it is just to provide some benefits.

Therefore, before most of the players headed to the wild map, the three major guilds divided the approximate number of people, and put almost all the players of the three major guilds, as well as some individual players who did not care about appearance, into one team, and headed to Chongyan Volcano together.

However, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin did not go to Chongyan Volcano with Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others, but chose to go to the Lost Forest.

It's not that these two people have any opinions about the dwarves. After all, Ji Xuanyi's weapons were made with the help of the dwarves. The most important reason for choosing to go to the Lost Forest is that Ji Xuanyi doesn't like the sultry temperature of the Chongyan Volcano.

They had just started dating, and Ji Xuanyi really didn't want to lose control of his temper. Moreover, if they go to Chongyan Volcano, they will definitely go the same way as the three major gangs. Ji Xuanyi, who has been annoyed by these people in Fanxing City, can't wait to think about his own world with Qi Qin.

Except for Jing Yunhan who was simply wondering why these two people didn't follow the main group, everyone else expressed their understanding.

After all, the atmosphere between Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin had changed too obviously. Anyone with eyes could see that their relationship had changed. Most people said it was expected, only Liu Tian and Mi Yin were surprised.

When Liu Tian learned the truth, he couldn't help but screamed in disbelief: " Are you two gay? " He was then severely beaten.

Mi Yin was totally unprepared. Although she did not show any resistance, she could not help but say, " I thought you two were good brothers like Xue Piao and I. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi didn't know what to say, so he could only say: " As long as you are happy. "

Miyin: " ? "

Snowfall: "..."

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin both have short legs, so if they set out with the others, they would not have enough time, so they had to head to the Lost Forest a day in advance.

At this time, there were quite a few individual players heading towards the Lost Forest, but most of them were swordsmen or similar professions, and three short-legged mages were not very common.

Ji Xuanyi was puzzled for a moment and asked a swordsman who was traveling with him. The swordsman looked at Ji Xuanyi and said, " You don't have to leave. You can go back now before you leave too far from the main city . You can rent a knight tomorrow. It's not very expensive. "

Ji Xuanyi was filled with black lines on his forehead. He didn't expect that the knight profession was so advantageous and there were even channels to make extra money.

No wonder there are so many swordsmen on the road, most of them are heavily armored swordsmen. Even if they have the money to rent a knight's horse, it is estimated that no knight's horse can carry them.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia recently changed his equipment, and Jing Yunhan can't carry him anymore. I heard that they discussed that when they set out, Liu Tian would use the system reward horse to carry Xiaoxiao Yuxia, and Jing Yunhan would bring Xu Chu.

Because the event hasn't started yet, some small monsters will still pop up from time to time on the road in the wild area, giving players experience and materials. Ji Xuanyi also saw a female swordsman being taken away because she triggered a special event. It will probably take some time for her to come back after she is done.

It feels like setting out one day in advance is too slow. Based on the speed at which the individual people are moving, it will probably take two days in advance to reach the wild map at the same time as the three major gangs.

Ji Xuanyi's side was fine, although there were some small monsters, but with Qi Qin here, it wouldn't take long. Ji Xuanyi didn't care about the special events at all. In his current situation, he actually didn't have much demand for such small rewards.

Before they knew it, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin had left the individual players around them behind and were at the front.

They had actually walked this road once before, but it was a world quest at that time, and there were people packed together, plus monsters and traps that kept refreshing, it was a complete chaos. Now walking this road again, Ji Xuanyi discovered that the scenery along this road was actually quite nice.

Qi Qin obviously had the same feeling. When he walked beside Ji Xuanyi, he couldn't help but look at him.

When Ji Xuanyi noticed Qi Qin's gaze, he was still happy in his heart, but he didn't show it. He just looked at him with squinted eyes and said, " What's wrong? "

Qi Qin has not been beaten recently, but he always likes to be shy. When Ji Xuanyi speaks and looks at him, he blushes and stammers: " No, nothing, I just think Xuanyi, Xuanyi is very good-looking. "

He could never get enough of looking at it, and he liked it more and more.

Ji Xuan smiled and said, " Is this all you can say? "

The last time Ji Xuanyi said this to Qi Qin, he kissed him. When Qi Qin heard it this time, he immediately stopped and looked at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi was also looking at him with a smile. When the breeze blew, there seemed to be starlight in his eyes, sparkling.

Qi Qin's heart trembled, as if he understood something, and tentatively moved towards Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuan just looked at him and didn't avoid him.

Qi Qin swallowed and moved closer to him.

Both of them closed their eyes at the same time.

 " Oh my god! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

I've already left Starry City, why is anyone still disturbing me!

Qi Qin bounced back suddenly and took four or five steps back. Then he reacted, his face flushed, and he blocked Ji Xuanyi behind him.

Ji Xuan looked towards the direction of the sound with murderous intent, and saw a man leaning against a tree. Judging from the robe he was wearing, he should be a magician. He had his face covered with his hands, with his fingers spread out over his eyes. He looked like he wanted to see but didn't dare to, looking very mean.

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything else. He took out the evil spirit staff and used the paralysis skill directly at the mage.

"Domain" has been open for a while, and many people have adapted to the combat method of the holographic online game. However, the dodging skill is still the patent of high-end players. Most ordinary players still rely on their own conditioned reflexes. Agility professions are okay, but magic professions basically cannot dodge skills, so Ji Xuanyi just threw that move out casually without caring at all.

But what Ji Xuanyi didn't expect was that the mage actually screamed " Ouch " and barely avoided the paralysis skill.

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment, then he immediately reacted, frowned, and said to Qi Qin: " Go ahead. "

Qi Qin didn't expect that anyone could dodge Ji Xuanyi's skills. He was just in a daze. When he heard Ji Xuanyi's words, he drew his sword and rushed towards the mage without thinking.

The mage had just avoided the paralysis and was about to say something when he saw Qi Qin coming towards him with a heavy blow.

Just by looking at the appearance of Qi Qin's equipment, one could tell that the damage must be high. The mage certainly didn't dare to take it head-on. He pounced on the ground, then rolled over and actually dodged it!

Although he dodged the sword, he still suffered the area damage. The man climbed up from the ground with a grunt, and hurriedly took out a staff inlaid with green gems from the package, and threw a holy light ball and a sweet rain to himself.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were both stunned and asked in unison: " Pastor? "

The pastor's face was not happy either, and he said, " What's wrong with you, pastor? Haven't you seen a male pastor before? You two are gay! "

Ji Xuanyi's face darkened and he sneered.

The pastor immediately realized something and his face changed. He saw that Qi Qin had understood Ji Xuanyi's instructions and was running towards him again.

This time Qi Qin did not use game skills. The priest could predict the swordsman's heavy blow based on his rich experience in being beaten, but he could only use his head to receive Qi Qin's improved swordsmanship. He was pinned to the ground and beaten violently. All his dodging actions became redundant because there was no way to dodge. The desperate priest could only run away, healing himself frantically while running.

Ji Xuanyi didn't even bother using his skills to make it more difficult for the priest to survive. Shi Shiran just stood there with his arms folded, watching the priest escape from Qi Qinjian.

Seeing that his health was getting lower and lower and he could no longer heal, the priest became anxious and said, " What the hell, big brother, I just accidentally saw you two fighting, is it necessary to kill you to silence you? "

Ji Xuanyi completely ignored him.

The pastor realized that what he said was wrong, and shouted again: " Please spare my life! Life is so difficult in this world, and it's not easy to get promoted. Please be magnanimous and forgive me! I don't discriminate against gays! "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything, but Qi Qin didn't stop. Seeing that he had no other choice, the pastor was very desperate. He simply threw himself on the ground, hugged Qi Qin's thighs, and said shamelessly: " I won't say any more nonsense. To be honest, I am actually a gay too. We are all gay. It's just a glance. Why bother making things difficult for each other! "

Qi Qin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin quickly shook his legs and threw the pastor off his legs. He distanced himself from Ji Xuanyi while stealing glances at the man warily.

Ji Xuanyi had never seen anyone who could be so shameless in order to survive. He was speechless for a moment and looked at the man, not knowing what to say.

Seeing that Qi Qin was not going to kill him, the priest heaved a sigh of relief, and quickly got up from the ground. While brushing off the dust on his robe, he looked at Ji Xuanyi and said, " Fuck warlock, so awesome! Is there still a warlock alive at this level? We are all hidden professions, can't we give each other some face? "

Qi Qin asked curiously: " Is priest also a hidden profession? "

I won't mention warlocks, as there are indeed few of them, and they are truly hidden professions. There are quite a lot of priests. To be precise, in this game, except for swordsmen and knights, priests should be the profession with the largest number of people.

The pastor said proudly: " That's different. Am I not hidden enough as a male pastor? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

What is there to be proud of in such a thing?

But having said that, this priest is quite powerful. You can tell from the way he dodged the skills twice that he is a high-end priest. Not to mention in the wild, if it is in the arena, he would probably be the kind of nurse who can be very powerful.

After being annoyed by the pastor, Ji Xuan was almost no longer angry. He was too lazy to pay attention to him and said to Qi Qin, " Let's go. We have to hurry. "

There was actually nothing wrong with this priest except that he was a little bit mean. Qi Qin didn't really want to make things difficult for him, so after hearing what Ji Xuanyi said, he put away his sword and walked to Ji Xuanyi's side.

However, the pastor did not intend to let Ji Xuanyi and his friends leave. He walked towards Ji Xuanyi with a shameless face and said, " Look, we are all gay when we are out here, can we take care of each other? "

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly.

The pastor subconsciously took a step back and laughed dryly, " Well, I don't mean to interfere with your world of two. I just want to ask, is this the way to the Lost Forest? "

This is a very strange question. There is only one road from Starry City to Lost Forest. As long as you start from Starry City, you can walk to the Lost Forest with your eyes closed. What's wrong with this person?

Qi Qin was puzzled. Ji Xuanyi frowned, looked at the man, and said, " Aren't you a player from Star City? "

Chapter 116

The pastor had no intention of hiding it , so when Ji Xuan asked , he answered openly, " I'm from Youyue City. "

The three main cities are actually in a competitive relationship to some extent, but unlike the rigid relationship between Sun City and Star City, although Youyue City doesn't get along well with Youri City because of the world mission , the relationship between Youyue City and Fanxing City is still relatively friendly.

In addition, this time the world boss does not actually have any competitive meaning . On the contrary , the official setting even tends to encourage the main cities to help each other . So although it is strange that the players from Youyue City appear here, there is generally no problem.

After learning that the other party came from Youyue City , Ji Xuanyi didn't want to ask any more questions . He just said " Oh " and wanted to leave.

The pastor quickly stopped the man and said, " Brother , I have already told you where I came from. Please show me the way. "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Which city do you think I am from? "

The pastor was stunned and asked hesitantly : " Starry City? "

Ji Xuanyi asked again: " So where do you think a Star City player is going now? "

The pastor suddenly realized: " The volcano is in flames! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Seeing that Ji Xuanyi's face was not looking good , the pastor smiled and said: " Hahaha, just kidding , it seems that I am lucky and I have found the way! "

In order to make it easier for players to find their way, the scenery around the main road leading to the wild map from the main city will be slightly different.

The road leading to Chongyan Volcano has a higher temperature , less vegetation, and the ground is relatively dry, which is completely inconsistent with the current scenery of lush vegetation and beautiful mountains and rivers . This priest does not seem to be the type of person like Liu Tian. He probably has already guessed most of it, and just wants to ask them to verify it just in case.

Ji Xuanyi usually doesn't like to talk to strangers, and he was even more unwilling in this situation. Seeing that the man had asked what he should ask and knew what he should know, he pulled Qi Qin up and continued walking forward.

Although he didn't know why the people from Youyue City came to the Lost Forest, Youyue City was definitely the main city that needed the least defense. Ji Xuanyi planned to turn around and inform Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others and then ignore the matter.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked away. Although the priest looked servile, he was not a masochist and did not follow them. Instead, he called out from behind, " Two good guys, although I won't go with you and disturb your world of two, can I add you as my friend? I think you two are both great people. Do you want to hug me or not? "

Qi Qin subconsciously wanted to turn back, but Ji Xuanyi pulled him back and said, " Ignore him. "

Qi Qin said " Oh " and turned his head back obediently.

The pastor behind him was unwilling to give up and continued to shout: " My name is Old Western Doctor! If you change your mind, you can add me as your friend! Meow – meow – da- "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Old Western Doctor, this ID is probably the weirdest ID after Calf Cramps and Introduction to Art , but it is quite appropriate to say, isn't the pastor an old Western doctor ...

Ji Xuanyi was so annoyed by the old western doctor that he was unable to complain. His expression was gone. Qi Qin didn't understand what was going on and asked, " What's wrong with the old western doctor? "

There probably wasn't a term called "old Chinese medicine doctor" in Qi Qin's world, so Ji Xuanyi didn't explain much. He just shook his head and said, " Nothing. He's just a passerby. Don't bother with him. "

Qi Qin nodded as if he understood, and thought about going offline to check what the joke was about online.

The two walked for a while until they could no longer see the old western doctor. Qi Qin belatedly asked, " Why are the people from Youyue City coming to the Lost Forest? Shouldn't their mission point be the Confined Sea Realm? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " I don't know, but Youyue City shouldn't be able to do anything weird. Even if they want to, it's useless for him to come alone, not to mention this kind of ..."

Ji Xuanyi thought about it, but couldn't find a good adjective, so he could only say: " It's normal for such a strange person to run away for some weird reason. "

Qi Qin said: " A weird reason? "

Ji Xuanyi pondered for a moment and said, " For example, you can't swim? "

After saying that, Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but laughed first. Although Qi Qin didn't quite get the joke, when he saw Ji Xuanyi laughing, he also laughed.

The rest of the journey was very peaceful. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked slowly for two days, killing monsters and saying some sour words. In the end, they were the first wave of people to arrive at the Lost Forest.

The mission starts tomorrow. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin did not go any further when they arrived outside the maze of the elf camp, but logged off directly. In the last half day, the two of them went out to watch a movie together offline, and then went home to wait for the game to be updated.

After arriving at the Lost Forest, Ji Xuanyi sent a message to Xiao Xiao Yuxia, telling them that he met someone from Youyue City. Xiao Xiao Yuxia was nervous, but Xu Chu, like Ji Xuanyi, felt that this was not a big deal. Even if Youyue City wanted to cause trouble, they wouldn't send a priest. Even if they were spies looking for intelligence, they couldn't just question someone halfway and introduce themselves. Isn't that stupid?

Most likely it's just an unreliable player who left the team without permission, which can be seen from the ID .

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was a little worried, so she tried to communicate with Youyue City indirectly. Youyue City said they were not worried and said that it was up to you, the two powerful main cities of Yangri and Fanxing, to fight for your things, and we, Youyue Village, would never get involved.

After getting the guarantee, Xiaoxiao Yuxia finally felt relieved.

In the game, the main cities are not allowed to be friendly with each other in front of others. If someone stabs you in the back or goes back on their word, they will be posted on the forum and despised. Since Youyue City has said that it will not take action, it will definitely not take action. On the day the event started, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin logged in at the opening time. There were many people who had parked their accounts outside the maze like them. After logging in, they only saw white light everywhere, and then the open space was crowded.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin's family both had good internet speeds, so they were able to go online faster than others and entered the maze first, thus avoiding the tragedy of being squeezed into a meat pie.

Ji Xuanyi walked in front and Qi Qin followed behind, carefully protecting each other and preventing the people behind from squeezing Ji Xuanyi.

The maze in the Elf Camp has changed again. Probably to facilitate the large influx of players, the shape of the maze has been further simplified, and Ji Xuanyi can walk out with his eyes closed.

As soon as they came out of the maze, they saw a group of elves standing at the entrance of the maze, waiting for them with serious expressions.

" Adventurers, you are finally here, " the leader said with a frown, " The evil god was frightened by our united strength and temporarily withdrew from the five elemental towns of mankind, but now it has re-condensed its dark energy and is preparing to launch a general attack on the continent. "

" To defend against his attack again, please help us! " To Ji Xuanyi: " You can go to the outskirts of the camp to find Green first, he will tell you what to do. "

This is a very routine explanation for a guide-type mission. The next person to be found, named Green, should give the players specific tasks. Because of the limit on the number of people, there will most likely be several branch missions that will disperse the players into several areas. According to the game routines that Ji Xuanyi has played, most of them are repetitive tasks. After completing the tasks, the total score is accumulated. After the end, the combat effectiveness and support strength of the elves are enhanced according to the score.

Ji Xuanyi opened the parchment and found that there was indeed an additional task on it: [Assist the Elves , Beginning].

The main group of players behind them had not arrived yet, so they still had time. Ji Xuan thought about it and gave up this task. Then he took off the elf necklace from his neck and hung it on Qi Qin's chest. Then he looked at them and their expressions had indeed changed.

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows.

He knew that for this kind of quest, there would definitely be a special quest line for players who had completed the prerequisites and whose favorability had reached a certain level.

The leader stepped forward and said to Qi Qin with a slightly excited look: " Warrior, are you here to help as well? "

Qi Qin was stunned. Ji Xuan bumped into him. He nodded quickly and said, " Ah, yes. "

After thinking for a while, Qi Qin blushed and said, " This, this is my boyfriend, he is here to help too. "

As the person who triggered the task, Qi Qin's words were equivalent to confirming Ji Xuanyi's assistant status. Ji Xuanyi opened the parchment and found that there was indeed another task on it.

[Aid the Elves , special mission <Assist>].

probably didn't understand the word " boyfriend " , but he glanced at Ji Xuanyi, still smiled at him, and said to Qi Qin: " It's great that you have a friend to help us. We need you. Please go to the camp. Wang must know what you can do for us. "

After saying that, a man stood up from the elf team behind him, nodded to Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, said " Please follow me " , and turned to go to the elf camp.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin looked at each other and followed that person.

When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin left, the next wave of players finally walked out of the maze. The player who had finished talking and received the task looked at the backs of Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin leaving and asked curiously: " Why didn't I get the guidance? "

Unfortunately, the quest player didn't understand what he meant and didn't respond. Instead, the players behind him shouted, " Please make way after you accept the quest. There are so many people coming over. I want to grab a good spot to do the quest! "

When the player heard this, he finally reacted and hurriedly ran towards the mission location.

The mission point was actually outside the elf camp, but Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin followed all the way into the camp and were brought to the presence of the Elf King.

The Elf King sat upright on the Elf Throne, the sunlight shining through the window shining on him, making his entire body reflect a faint light.

It's been a long time since we last met, but the Elf King is still as handsome and elegant as ever. With the previous experience of washing new wine with a sword , Qi Qin subconsciously glanced at Ji Xuanyi, fearing that he would be bewitched by her beauty. However, it was obvious that Qi Qin was overthinking it. If Ji Xuanyi liked the Elf King's type, he would not have fallen in love with him.

Ji Xuan looked at the Elf King, and his expression did not change.

Qi Qin couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief.

When the Elf King saw Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi, he walked down from the throne with a smile and said, " Thank you for your help. The elves have all recovered. "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then he thought that the Elf King was probably referring to the favorability mission. He actually discovered this when he entered the camp. The female and young elves had reappeared in the camp, and they must have finally recovered from their injuries.

However, during the time when Ji Xuanyi and the others were busy fighting with the Daylight City, and then they were busy dating, so they didn't come to the Lost Forest to do the mission at all. Although they were just saying set lines, it was still quite embarrassing.

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but cough dryly.

Fortunately, the Elf King only mentioned it in passing and had no intention of dwelling on it. He smiled and continued, " It's just that it's not time to relax yet. Someone should have told you the details, so I won't say more. "

" The elves were born from the mother tree. After the fruit fell to the ground, they turned into elves and grew freely. All their martial arts and combat instincts depended on the training of their guides. " For some reason, the Elf King suddenly changed the subject: " But in fact, thousands of years ago, the power of the elves actually relied on another plant that was equally important as the mother tree, the Tree of Life. "

he heard the word " Tree of Life " , Ji Xuan glanced at his evil spirit staff and felt something was strange.

However, he obviously doesn't care what the players' weapons are made of. The Elf King mentioned this, of course, not meaning that Ji Xuanyi should contribute his own weapon.

The Elf King took out an exquisite box. Ji Xuanyi noticed that the material of the box looked very familiar. It seemed to be made of branches of the Tree of Life. He couldn't help but be stunned for a moment.

The Elf King lowered his eyes, stroked the box, and whispered, " I don't think it's a bad thing for the elves to leave the Tree of Life, but now facing the final attack of the evil god, any power that can be used can no longer be hidden. "

The Elf King looked at Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, his eyes sparkling with stars. He handed the wooden box in his hand to them and said, " When the Tree of Life was destroyed, the King of the Elf Tribe actually got the seed of the Tree of Life, but he did not tell the other elves about it. Instead, he kept it and passed it down to each generation of Elf Kings for safekeeping. "

" Now, I hope you can help me find a place to plant it. It will give us strength in this battle and protect this continent. "

Ji Xuanyi really didn't expect that he would receive such an important task.

It's okay to plant the tree of life!

However, once this task is completed, the elves' task points will definitely increase significantly, not to mention the rewards.

Ji Xuanyi took the wooden box without hesitation and said, " We promise you. "

The Elf King smiled and nodded to the two of them.

Ji Xuan glanced at the parchment and found that the previous guidance task had disappeared and a new task appeared to replace it.

[Aid the Elves , Tree of Life <Assist>] .

The Elf King looked at the two of them quietly and said, " You can ask me any questions you have about the Tree of Life. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't know much about the Tree of Life, but it was not necessary to complete the task. He asked directly: " Where should the Tree of Life be planted? "

Ji Xuan just saw that there was no guidance for the Tree of Life mission. If the Elf King could not answer this question, Ji Xuan could only guess blindly or rent a knight and go back to the Mage Tower in Star City to look up information.

Fortunately, the difficulty of this task was not that high. After hearing Ji Xuanyi's words, the Elf King said to him: " The Tree of Life is not fragile, but it cannot be exposed to the outside. It must be planted inside the maze, in the place where the life force is the most concentrated. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Is there any difference between saying it and not saying it? Who knows where the life force is most concentrated? Do we have to take apart his staff and then stick the branch into the ground? I don't know if the branch of life that has been refined by the Dwarf King has any vitality.

Ji Xuan thought absentmindedly and continued to ask the Elf King: " Where is the place with the most concentrated life force? "

The Elf King smiled but said nothing.

It seems that this is the test of the mission. If the players are told everything, this special mission would be too easy.

Okay, inside the maze, where the life force is the most concentrated, Ji Xuanyi thought helplessly, it doesn't mean there is no direction at all.

Ji Xuan glanced at the Elf King and asked some other questions tentatively. He found that the Elf King would not reveal more specific information to them except for a general summary of some key points that need to be paid attention to in planting the Tree of Life.

This is really fucked up.

Logically speaking, at this time, everyone is eager to increase the power of the elves and work hard to fight the BOSS , but you, the Elf King yourself, come here to embarrass the players who want to help you.

But there's nothing we can do, this is the game, this is the mission.

Ji Xuanyi wasn't sure whether he could repeat the mission if he failed, so he was very careful. The question of where the life force is most concentrated is definitely not something that players can guess. Apart from obtaining information through books and other means, the only thing that can help is probably this.

However, there are quite a few in the elf camp, and some are standing guard in remote places. It is difficult enough to find them all, and it is even more difficult to find the right one that can help with the mission.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked around outside twice and got nothing after talking to a few people. At this time, some players had already completed the pre-tasks and started doing repetitive points-earning tasks. Many people passed by the elf camp and looked curiously at Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, who were standing still.

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " If the reward for completing this mission is not that high, I will ..."

Qi Qin shuddered, looked at Ji Xuanyi, and asked cautiously: " So, so what? "

Generally speaking, Ji Xuanyi's next words would probably be to beat Qi Qin, but now Qi Qin is his boyfriend, and he would feel distressed after beating him!

Ji Xuanyi pondered for a moment and said, " Let's go back and beat Xu Chu up. "

Xu Chu of Chongyan Volcano: " A-choo!!! "

Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian looked at him at the same time.

Xu Chu sniffed and said hesitantly : " Is someone missing me again? "

Miyin: "..."

You are so confident!

In fact, there is only one word difference between missing and wanting to fight, so there is not much difference.

After hearing that Ji Xuanyi was not going to hit him, Qi Qin felt relieved but also a little disappointed for some reason . He was undoubtedly a masochist .

Fortunately, Ji Xuanyi didn't see that Qi Qin wanted to beat him up. After he finished speaking, he thought for a moment and said, s'Let " ask someone familiar. Maybe there will be some clues. "

Qi Qin thought about it and realized that there were probably three people they were more familiar with in the elves. One was the Elf King, one was the strongest warrior BOSS of the elves , and the other was the elf girl Xiao Nuo.

The first one just said goodbye, and the second one didn't seem to talk much except when they were fighting. Is he going to go look for Xiao Nuo?

Qi Qin hesitated and asked, " Xiao Nuo? She is still a child in the elves, right? Would she know this? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " I don't know, but it's better to have someone ask than no one. Otherwise, why not go find the strongest guard? "

Qi Qin: "..."

If the person who finally got the clue was indeed the guard, they would probably have to fight again before telling Ji Xuanyi the truth.

Qi Qin hesitated and said, " I can try to fight him again ..."

Moreover, the prerequisite is obtained by defeating that person, so it is quite possible that we will have to fight again.

But a real fight would take a lot of time. Ji Xuanyi thought about it and said, " Forget it. Let's go find Xiao Nuo first. If she doesn't know anything, we can ask the guard later. "

Qi Qin of course nodded in agreement, and the two of them immediately went to the side to ask where Xiao Nuo was.

Fortunately, the population of the elves is not as large as that of humans, and there are many duplicate names. Ji Xuan mentioned Xiao Nuo one by one, and then he showed an understanding expression and said: " Xiao Nuo? Has she gotten into trouble again? "

It seems that Xiao Nuo has become a naughty kid in the eyes of other elves because he secretly ran away from the elf camp.

Ji Xuanyi explained for a while, then nodded and said, " Xiao Nuo is helping outside the camp. When you leave the camp, go left. There is a crossbow manufacturing area. She should be there. "

Ji Xuanyi knew where the target was, responded, and went out of the camp with Qi Qin.

The author has something to say: Ji Xuanyi: Beat Xu Chu if you are unhappy!

Qi Qin: ... To be honest, I want a good beating.

Chapter 117

The crossbow manufacturing area is also a mission point. When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked over , quite a few players had already gathered there.

This is the only inconvenience of holographic games . It is too realistic . Conversations have to be conducted one by one . The authorities have been prescient enough to set up all the crossbow manufacturing areas so that supplies can be handed in. However, Ji Xuanyi still saw several teams waiting for dialogue in the mission area that was as noisy as a vegetable market. , every player subconsciously raised their voices and talked , causing the noise in the mission area to become increasingly louder. Ji Xuanyi saw that some players couldn't hear what was being said , and his ears were almost touching the people's mouths, but he was pushed away by the elf , and was squeezed into a ball with the people queuing behind him, making a mess. The noise around was so loud that Ji Xuan felt his head buzzing and his face looked unhappy. Qi Qin walked beside Ji Xuan to protect him so that he would not be squeezed by other players . He struggled to find Xiao Nuo in the crowd.

Ji Xuanyi leaned in Qi Qin's arms and said, " The official should make some changes to this event. It's too chaotic. "

Qi Qin didn't hear clearly and said, " What? "

Ji Xuanyi raised his voice: " I think this activity is too chaotic, the official should make some changes! "

Qi Qin: " I can't hear clearly—— "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi remained silent , staring into Qi Qin's eyes.

After a moment , Ji Xuanyi lowered his voice and said, " Come here and give me a kiss. "

Upon hearing this, Qi Qin immediately came over with great joy and showed his big head.

Ji Xuan raised his head and slapped him on the forehead, cursing: " Fuck! You can hear it clearly now? Are you selectively hard of hearing! "

Qi Qin: " QAQ ! "

Qi Qin is innocent, okay? He just understood Ji Xuanyi's lip shape!

However, Qi Qin did not dare to protest to Ji Xuanyi, and had to continue to protect Ji Xuanyi with a wronged look on his face.

Xiao Nuo was one of the players in the crossbow manufacturing area. When Ji Xuanyi and his companions found her, she was surrounded by a group of players who wanted to hand in a task to her.

As the two approached, they heard someone in the crowd of players curse bitterly: " You have no humanity?! With so many crossbows, you only want to complete the task with this little girl, won't you be tired? She is still a child! Can you have a conscience and find someone else! "

Before Ji Xuanyi could react to this logic, he heard the man continue: " I am different. I have no conscience. Come on, kids, collect my crossbow arrows first ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi was just feeling that this despicable energy was somewhat familiar when he saw the person who was speaking being looked down upon by other players who were handing in tasks, and then being squeezed out by the crowd. He happened to bump into Qi Qin's arm that was protecting Ji Xuanyi, and was startled by Qi Qin's hard gauntlet, and bounced back with a howl. The man tried desperately to reach out to touch the back where he was hit, but the position was awkward and he couldn't reach it. He could only look at Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin angrily, but when he saw them, he was stunned where he was.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were both stunned when they saw the man's face.

This person was none other than the male pastor and old Western doctor whom they met on the road.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

No wonder he is so out of touch, even talking nonsense while doing a task.

If Xiao Nuo hadn't been here, Ji Xuanyi would probably have just taken Qi Qin away.

This old western doctor is too unreliable. There is only one use in talking to him – to perform crosstalk for the audience. Anything else is a complete waste of time.

Ji Xuanyi wanted to pretend that he didn't know this person, but the old western doctor obviously didn't think so. After seeing Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, he immediately came up to them enthusiastically and said, " What a coincidence, we meet while doing a mission! Why don't you add us as friends? "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " Who are you? "

The old western doctor didn't know whether he didn't see Ji Xuanyi's attitude or what, he patted his chest and said: " I am the old western doctor! No one who has heard of my name has forgotten me. Think about it again! "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " I don't want to. "

This is a clear rejection, and anyone should understand it.

But the old western doctor was not angry at all. Instead, he came up to me with a shameless face like a masochist and said, " Forget it if you don't want to. Hey, you two are here to complete a mission, right? I think you shouldn't mind whether she looks good or not. This one over here is a lolita. Although she is a little tall, she is quite popular. Everyone is handing in tasks over here. You can go find those men who look a little ordinary. There are fewer people over there and you can hand in tasks quickly. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't expect that this man could say anything useful. Although their mission was not about this, he couldn't help but look at him more and asked curiously, " How long has it been since the mission started and you know so much about it? "

The old western doctor said: " That's right, I'm awesome at doing tasks, okay! "

Ji Xuanyi looked at him quietly without saying anything.

After a while of stalemate, the old western doctor looked at Ji Xuanyi, then looked at Qi Qin, and said awkwardly: " It's not right to look at me like this in front of your boyfriend, even though I know I'm very handsome. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi felt that he probably couldn't have a normal conversation with this person, so he could only say speechlessly: " You are from Youyue City. Even if you come here to do a mission, you are just helping Fanxing City. What do you want? "

The old western doctor breathed a sigh of relief and said, " What can I gain from talking about this? Our Youyue Village—— "

He glanced at Ji Xuanyi, smacked his lips, and said, " Is the beauty of the elves a reason? "

Ji Xuanyi sneered and said, " Are the mermaids ugly? Or are there not enough gays? "

He was hinting at something. When the old western doctor was trying to escape from Qi Qin, he once said that he was a gay. According to this statement, he should be more willing to stay in the territory of the mermaids, who are indifferent to both men and women and want to drag humans into the water when they see them. Why would he come to the elves and have the cold face?

The old western doctor's face froze, and after a long while he said: " Okay, I was wrong.

Actually, I'm not gay. The mermaids were too enthusiastic, which made me a little overwhelmed, so I came to the Lost Forest to calm down. "

Ji Xuan snorted coldly, said nothing more, and stood at the end of the team with Qi Qin.

The old western doctor saw that Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi were in charge of Ji Xuanyi, so he stood behind them and spoke through Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi: " Why are you two still queuing here? I'm not lying to you. It's faster to hand in the task somewhere else. There's no special reward here. The main reason why the team is long is because there are many otakus. "

Ji Xuanyi ignored him, but Qi Qin saw that he had no ill intentions, so he turned around and said to him: " We are here to find this, not to do the event mission. "

The old western doctor was stunned, and said to Qi Qin: " Brother, what's your name, what's your ID , would you like to add me as your friend? "

Qi Qin: "..."

Qi Qin didn't expect that this man would start climbing up the pole just by being ignored, so he had to look at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi didn't want to care and just left him with the back of his head.

Qi Qin hit a wall, thought about it, and finally confessed to the persistent old western doctor: " My name is No. 1 in the world. "

At this time, Qi Qin had already gotten used to this ID . Although he was still a little ashamed in his heart, at least he did not show it on his face. Even though the old Western doctor was famous and was immediately shocked and looked at him with admiration, Qi Qin just glanced at him for a moment and did not say anything.

The old western doctor muttered to himself, " I thought my name was well-known enough, but I didn't expect there are people in the world who are even less particular than me . Awesome! "

The old western doctor originally wanted to say that he was shameless, but looking at Qi Qin's appearance and the way he beat him before, it seemed that he really had the potential to be the best in the world, so he swallowed the words that were on the tip of his tongue.

The old western doctor added Qi Qin as his friend and said incessantly: " Boss, you are so awesome, can you help me get to the next level when the arena opens? No, no, no, not 22 , I have the consciousness of a light bulb, we can get to 33 , me, plus your boyfriend, double support, awesome, really! "

Qi Qin felt that this person was thinking too far ahead . Even if it wasn't far ahead , it wasn't up to him to decide. He could only say, " Ask Xuan Yi. "

The old western doctor immediately said: " Xuan Yi? Your boyfriend's name is Xuan Yi? Add him as a friend! "

Ji Xuanyi's forehead veins twitched, he turned his head and said grimly: " Do you want to die? "

The old western doctor sensed the murderous intent and said quickly, " I don't want to. "

Ji Xuan said: " If you don't want to die, shut up. "

The old western doctor immediately stood up straight and said seriously: " Okay! "

Only then did Ji Xuanyi turn his head away.

The old western doctor was indeed quiet for a while, but before the short line reached the end, he couldn't help but start chatting with Qi Qin again: " Aren't you here to do the activity mission? Can you still brush up your favorability now? If I can brush up my favorability, I won't do it. This mission is so boring. "

Repeating tasks is indeed boring. The current task actually requires the player to go outside to collect dry branches, then come back to hand in the task, and then help polish the branches and make arrows. After a cycle is completed, continue to pick up branches.

Although there is a chance of getting various extra rewards or special items that can be used later when picking up branches, for some players with low patience, it can be boring to repeat this task over and over again.

The old western doctor was obviously one of them. Compared to continuing to do boring repetitive tasks, he seemed to be more interested in Ji Xuanyi and his team's mission.

Ji Xuanyi was almost certain that this old western doctor was a person with no organization, no discipline and was very boring, just like Xu Chu, who would go wherever there was trouble.

Although he didn't know the reason why he gave up the mission in the Confined Sea, as long as he did the mission in the Lost Forest, he was helping the Starry City, so he let Qi Qin and this man talk nonsense.

Hearing the old western doctor's words, Qi Qin hesitated and asked, " Favorability mission? "

" Ah, " the old western doctor nodded and asked, " Aren't you doing the perception mission? "

Not to mention Qi Qin, even Ji Xuanyi was a beat slow to react. This person was talking about the favorability tasks for the five races that were previously opened.

The favorability mission is also very boring. Most players do this mission just for the sake of novelty at the beginning. After they have completed it, they gradually stop doing it. Only some players who are more obsessed with it are still doing it every day.

But now that a new event has been launched, the daily favorability function has of course been temporarily closed, and it's not even in its original place anymore.

The old western doctor suddenly realized something, came closer, lowered his voice, and asked mysteriously: " Is it a hidden mission? "

Qi Qin shook his head.

It is indeed not hidden, this is just a special event mission, which is far from a hidden mission . But the old western doctor certainly didn't believe it, and still said shamelessly: " I'm so dark, and I haven't seen any hidden tasks yet. Can you take me with you? I promise not to cause any trouble, and I'll keep it a secret after I'm done! "

After saying that, he added: " I'm still a kid, and I'm good at playing! "

Qi Qin had no choice but to look at Ji Xuanyi. Fortunately, Ji Xuanyi did not leave him the back of his head this time. Instead, he slowly said to the old western doctor: " Let's not talk about hiding things. We have already accepted the task and it is impossible to give up and re-accept it. Even if you follow the whole process, you will not get the reward. "

The old western doctor didn't hesitate at all and said shamelessly: " I am a player with noble sentiments. The task process is what I pursue. The reward is not important at all! "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " It's up to you then. "

At this moment, Qi Qin suddenly remembered something and said to Ji Xuan tactfully: " Three people ..."

Ji Xuan gave him a cold look and said, " You also know three people, and you were chatting with them so enthusiastically just now. "

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi aggrievedly.

Ji Xuanyi was a little overwhelmed by his gaze, so he calmed down and said, " He's a pastor after all, maybe he can be of use. "

Things like life energy might be related to the healing profession. Although this was just Ji Xuanyi's guess, if it was true, with the old Western doctor here, there would be no need to call anyone else.

Ji Xuanyi looked at the old western doctor and said, " Ji Xuanyi. "

The old western doctor was stunned for a moment, then realized what Ji Xuanyi meant. He immediately smiled and said, "Hello, hello ... It's really not easy to get someone to show you your support. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything.

If Ji Xuanyi's thighs were so easy to hug, then his leg hair would probably be as thick as his autumn johns.

As they were talking, the team finally reached the end. After seeing Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, Xiao Nuo immediately jumped out of the normal mode of mechanical repetition, looked at them excitedly, and said: "Brother Warrior, are you here to help too? "

Ji Xuan nodded, and without further ado, he said to Xiao Nuo, "Do you know where in the maze the life energy is the highest? "

Ji Xuanyi's question was out of context, but Xiao Nuo reacted instantly. She looked at Ji Xuanyi strangely for a long time before she whispered, "Why are you asking this? Life energy ..."

Xiao Nuo thought for a moment and said, "The place with the most life energy should be near the mother tree. That's where the elves are born. "

Ji Xuan was stunned. He didn't expect to get the answer from Xiao Nuo so quickly.

What Ji Xuanyi didn't know was that the setting of this task was not that only Xiao Nuo could answer this question, but that only underage elves could answer this question. When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were questioning before, they subconsciously thought that children didn't know these things, so they artificially filtered out the underage people, resulting in the answer not being heard from Xiao Nuo until now.

However, Ji Xuan was stunned for only a second, and immediately came to his senses and continued to ask: "Where is the mother tree? Can you take us there? "

Xiao Nuo showed a hesitant expression on his face, and after a long while he said: "Although I am not the only one who can handle the affairs here, the mother tree of the elves is of great importance, and outsiders cannot be brought in casually. "

She looked at Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi and said, "Although they are the warrior brother and his companions, they still have to ask the king for his opinion first. "

They had to go back to the Elf King again, but Ji Xuanyi had already gone through so much trouble, so of course he didn't care about it anymore. He nodded and said, "Then please take us there. "

Xiao Nuo smiled at him, nodded, put down the dry branches in his hand, and said to Ji Xuan: "Okay, follow me. "

After saying that, he skipped ahead.

The players who were waiting in line behind the old doctor to hand in the task were all dumbfounded. They all stretched out their hands towards Xiao Nuo's back and asked in confusion: "No, what happened? How come my friend ran away while we were talking to him? What happened? "

The old western doctor raised his hand and said pretentiously: "It's just a normal operation. Don't be surprised! The girl's mother called her home for dinner. You should go somewhere else to complete the task. You will be back soon. "

The players waiting to hand in the task were all confused, but they couldn't go and get it back, so they had to accept their bad luck and take the dry branch with them, and then they changed to another one and continued to queue.

Ji Xuanyi and his group followed Xiao Nuo back to the Elf camp, but this time they didn't even see the Elf King. Xiao Nuo asked them to wait outside and went in to find the Elf King.

After a while, Xiao Nuo came out and said, "The king has allowed us to go and see the mother tree. He said that your mission is of great importance."

"Fuck, the mother tree of elves?"

Before Ji Xuanyi could say anything, the old western doctor asked in surprise, "What a great help I have! Even the Elf Mother Tree is open to the public. Is this such an awesome mission? What on earth are you two here for?"

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said slowly: "Save the world."

Old Western doctor: "..."

Come to think of it, what Ji Xuanyi said is true. Helping the elves here is also saving the world. The old western doctor was choked and speechless for the first time. After a long while, he said in admiration: "Awesome, awesome."

Ji Xuanyi said calmly, "Thank you for the compliment."

Qi Qin: "..."

Is this how awards are used?

The old western doctor was already lying dead and didn't want to talk anymore.

The Elf Mother Tree is not in the Elf Camp. In the past period of time when the elves were being hunted down by the minions of the evil god, the Elf Camp has always been the place most vulnerable to attack – in fact, this is indeed the case. At that time, half of the elves were severely injured. If the Elf Mother Tree had not been planted outside, the elves would probably be in trouble now.

The place where the mother tree is located is much more remote. When Xiao Nuo took them there, he was very careful to observe the surrounding situation, for fear that someone would follow and discover the secret of the elves.

Ji Xuanyi was not worried about this. The players were all busy doing the activity tasks, so they didn't have the energy to see what others were doing. Moreover, even if the players found out where the Elf Mother Tree was, except for people like Zuo An and Wan Ge Naizhi, probably no one would be so stupid as to do anything to it.

There are many trees in the Lost Forest, and they are extremely tall. The word "Lost" does not only refer to the maze built by the elves, but also includes the terrain within it.

If it weren't for Xiao Nuo leading the way, Ji Xuanyi felt that he would never come to such a place.

It feels like the same scenery is everywhere, and that's just the way it is. If another player were to come and rely only on their eyes to see the road, they would probably be stuck to death.

Xiao Nuo led them for a walk that took about half an hour, and they passed through a hollow, fallen tree. The moment they saw the sunlight again, their eyes suddenly opened up.

A huge lavender tree that was more than ten meters tall stood in front of everyone. Ji Xuanyi had obviously seen trees taller than this one, but in front of it, he felt inexplicably shocked.

" This is the Elf Mother Tree, " Xiao Nuo said softly, " The fruits on it are all babies of the elves. When the fruits are ripe and fall to the ground, the king will get a sense and ask the people of the tribe to come and welcome the new life. "

Everyone couldn't help but sigh quietly.

But it only took a second, and the old western doctor exclaimed: " This tree is really amazing, but what's with the dreamy special effects around it? It's so pink, just like a beauty camera turned on ..."

Ji Xuanyi also noticed that there was a kind of hazy starlight special effect around the mother tree, which drew everyone in. However, because of the atmosphere just now, he didn't feel anything. When the old Western doctor mentioned beauty filters, Ji Xuanyi was immediately distracted, with his mind full of beauty filters. No matter how he looked at it, he felt something was wrong.

This is because he didn't understand what the old Western doctor said, otherwise he would have been beaten up by the Elf King and his tribesmen, and then expelled from the Elf tribe and put on the blacklist.

Ji Xuan looked at the mother tree for a while, but still couldn't break it open. He gave up with a frown on his face and said to Xiao Nuo: " Is this the place where the life force is the most concentrated? "

Xiao Nuo nodded and said, " It's here. "

Ji Xuanyi responded and took out the box containing the seeds of the Tree of Life from his backpack.

Chapter 118

Because he didn't know how big the Tree of Life would grow and whether it would crowd out the mother tree , Ji Xuan took a look and specially chose the place farthest from the mother tree to plant the seeds of the Tree of Life.

The Tree of Life lived up to its name . As soon as it entered the soil , it immediately began to grow . The speed was so fast that Ji Xuanyi was startled . He hurriedly stepped back several steps to avoid being caught by the newly grown buds.

By the time Ji Xuanyi retreated back to Qi Qin's side , the Tree of Life had grown to the same height as a human.

Xiao Nuo looked at the Tree of Life and said in confusion: " I feel a little strange. What is this tree ? It looks so kind and familiar ... "

If the Tree of Life really disappeared thousands of years ago as the Elf King said, then except for the King who guarded the seeds , no one else in the Elves would know this tree. Xiao Nuo was still a child in the Elves , so she was even less likely to know it. It was just that after the Tree of Life grew up, it re-established contact with the elves , and Xiao Nuo had a vague feeling about it.

Seeing the Tree of Life gradually growing , Ji Xuanyi breathed a sigh of relief , at least the mission was completed.

As soon as Ji Xuan opened the parchment and was about to check the progress of the task, he heard the old western doctor yell, " Fuck! Something is wrong! "

Ji Xuanyi suddenly looked up, and saw the hazy beauty around him — Pah! The stardust began to gradually become thinner, the leaves of the elf mother tree began to turn yellow, and even the elf fruits on the tree began to shrink!

Seeing this, Xiao Nuo let out a shrill scream and shouted, " Stop it! That tree is absorbing the life force of the mother tree! "

The old western doctor said: " How the hell are we going to stop this? Are we going to pull out the tree? Then the mission is over! "

Ji Xuanyi knew that things would not be so simple! He uttered a sigh and looked at the depressed mother tree beside him.

The Tree of Life, which was once the elves' source of power, certainly would not suck the elven mother tree to death. It is probably just because it has just sprouted and needs to grow again, so it consumes too much of the mother tree's power. Once it grows up, it should be able to feed back to the mother tree, forming a normal cycle.

But the problem now is how to allow the life force of the mother tree to sustain until the Tree of Life grows into its complete form!

Is there any quest item they didn't get? But the Elf King didn't mention any clues!

Ji Xuanyi looked at the elf mother tree for a while, and in his ears were Xiao Nuo's screams, the old western doctor's mumbling, and Qi Qin's words of comfort.

Ji Xuanyi really felt that he was becoming more and more awesome. His brain could still work in this kind of environment!

 " I know – let's go! "

After thinking for a moment, Ji Xuanyi suddenly shouted something without any reason and started running forward.

When Qi Qin heard this, he subconsciously reached out his hand to let Ji Xuanyi hold it.

Unexpectedly, Ji Xuanyi pushed him away, grabbed the old western doctor's wrist, and ran towards the elf mother tree.

The old western doctor was stunned when Ji Xuanyi pulled him. He shouted, " What the hell? " and started running after Ji Xuanyi.

Qi Qin was also stunned. After he came to his senses, he chased after Ji Xuanyi and cried out sadly, " Xuanyi, you've got the wrong person! "

Ji Xuan said without turning his head: " You are right, this is the pastor I want! "

Qi Qin was stunned and stopped. He saw Ji Xuanyi and the old Western doctor running all the way to the mother tree, and they put their hands on the trunk of the mother tree together.

The old western doctor was just about to say " It's not clear what men should do " , but when he touched the Elf Mother Tree, he was stunned for a long time and said: " F --- this tree has a health bar?! "

The elf mother tree was too tall, with lush branches and leaves. From the angle where Ji Xuanyi and the others were standing before, they could not see anything except a few fruits. It was not until they came into contact with the mother tree that they saw the other party's thick blood bar.

The old western doctor could no longer count how many digits were on it. He only saw that the mother tree was losing blood madly. There were three layers of blood bars, and the first layer was almost empty, revealing the color of the second layer.

"What the hell! What the hell! What the hell! What the hell!..." As a nurse with professional ethics, the old Western doctor would feel uncomfortable when he saw other people's health bars were not full. Now, the speed and amount of blood loss of the Elf Mother Tree was so fast that he couldn't say anything except the word "what the hell". He stared at the health bar, dumbfounded.

Ji Xuanyi slapped him on the back of his head and said, "What are you still standing there for? Hurry up and give me milk!"

The old western doctor finally came to his senses, and while frantically using his healing skills on the Elf Mother Tree, he said, "Fuck, my healing is not enough! Look at how fast it's losing blood – huh?"

The player's healing amount compared to the mother tree's health is like the difference between an ant and an elephant. Logically speaking, the Elf Mother Tree should not react at all to the Old Western Doctor's healing skills, and it should continue to lose blood as usual. But somehow, after the Old Western Doctor started the treatment, although the Elf Mother Tree was still losing blood, the speed had visibly slowed down!

Ji Xuanyi also breathed a sigh of relief. The official would not make it too difficult for the players. Even a group of priests would not be able to heal the mother tree based solely on its health. It seemed that the player's healing skills should have a healing bonus if they were placed on the elven mother tree.

"Keep it like this," Ji Xuanyi said, "The player's healing skills can be used to reduce damage. As long as we hold on until the Tree of Life grows and the mother tree doesn't die, it should be fine."

"That won't work either!" The old western doctor said anxiously while throwing skills at the mother tree: "My skills have public CD, but it doesn't lose blood. If it loses blood this way, I can't protect it even if I sag my breasts!"

Hearing this, Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but glance at the old Western doctor's thin chest. The old western doctor was stunned, and immediately covered his chest, saying shyly: "Damn it!"

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi felt that his temper had really improved. He actually allowed a bastard like the old western doctor to live to this day!

Ji Xuanyi almost couldn't hold back the urge to roll his eyes, and after a long while he said, "It can be saved. You heal normally, and I will cooperate with your public CD."

The old western doctor was surprised, but he didn't doubt Ji Xuanyi's skills. He asked, "Do sorcerers have healing skills?"

There are actually many strategy posts about professional skills on the forum, but except for some arena players who have needs, most players rarely pay attention to the skills of other professions. At best, they just have a simple understanding of the same system. It is actually quite normal that an old Western doctor would know that a hidden profession like the warlock has no healing skills.

However, Ji Xuanyi had never met many people who knew about the hidden profession of warlocks. After hearing what the old western doctor said, he was still a little uncomfortable. He was silent for a while before saying, " The warlock doesn't have it, but I do. "

The old western doctor immediately reacted and praised: " Awesome! "

Ji Xuanyi only has one healing skill, which is the blood transfusion skill given to him by August. This skill is actually quite suitable for the current situation. The old Western doctor's skills have a public CD , but this skill does not, and it can continue to treat the target uninterrupted.

There is just one thing to note.

Ji Xuanyi experimented a few times during the public CD stage when the old Western doctor was unable to treat, and found that the degree of damage reduction of the Elf Mother Tree was related to the amount of blood he transferred per second. In other words, if he wanted to ensure the mother tree's basic survival blood volume, his treatment amount had to at least be maintained at the same level as the old Western doctor.

Ji Xuanyi silently crossed out his plan of solely nursing the elf mother tree.

The old Western doctor is a proper priest, and Ji Xuanyi is just a warlock. If Ji Xuanyi is forced to maintain the same level of treatment as the old Western doctor, Ji Xuanyi's own health probably won't last long enough for the Tree of Life to grow. Taking the big red potion won't work either, as the big red potion has a CD . Ji Xuanyi will be drained before he can recover. could tell something was wrong just by looking at Ji Xuanyi's way of blocking the CD , and immediately asked: " Your skill has no CD ? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Yes, but you have to draw my blood. "

The old western doctor didn't quite understand and asked again. Ji Xuanyi explained it to him casually, and the old western doctor laughed: " So that's it! You feed the tree and I feed you, then it's done. What medicine do you need to take? "

Ji Xuanyi had of course thought of this, but seeing the old western doctor's look, he was a little hesitant to ask the other party to feed him.

 " Come on, " the old western doctor said, " I will nurse you! "

Ji Xuan thought of the old western doctor's words " dead ghost " and his face darkened. He said, " No, just let it go like this. It's fine as long as it survives. "

The old western doctor said: " Oh, you must have worked so hard! " public CD only takes one or two seconds to spin, and it is very frequent. Although Ji Xuanyi is sharp, he will still get tired.

Ji Xuan said without thinking: " To save the world, it's not hard. "

Old Western doctor: " ... "

After hearing what was said, what else could the old western doctor say? He could only say, " Okay, if you change your mind, you can call me. "

Ji Xuanyi said " hmm " , but in his heart he felt that even if he was so tired that he died on the spot, he would never let the old Western doctor feed him. Who knows what other dirty words this man will say!

With the cooperation of Ji Xuanyi and the old western doctor, the health of the elf mother tree finally stopped when the last layer of health bar was only about 40%.

The tree of life has grown.

Xiao Nuo had already stopped screaming and was staring blankly at the huge Tree of Life in front of her.

The Tree of Life was larger in size and height than the Elf Mother Tree. Ji Xuanyi's efforts to plant the trees a little further apart for fear that the two would be crowded together were completely in vain. The huge crown of the Tree of Life stretched out, tightly protecting the Elf Mother Tree under its arms.

Immediately afterwards, the complete Tree of Life began to release its life force, and the stardust mist that the old Western doctor had previously complained about as a beauty camera reappeared, and became even thicker.

The old western doctor couldn't help but say: " Beautification and skin resurfacing are OK! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Can't this person just shut up?

The elf mother tree began to slowly recover under the nourishment of the surrounding life force. The withered yellow branches and leaves slowly regained their vitality. The fruits on the tree also swelled again and were a bit bigger than before. Ji Xuan noticed with a keen eye that the mother tree's There were even a few fist-sized green fruits on the branches.

" It's over this time, " the old Western doctor finally put down the staff in his hand, rubbed his chest and said, " My breasts are flattened. Is this kind of special mission so exciting? It doesn't feel very friendly to the heart"

The old Western medicine doctor sighed and said: " I have gained a lot of experience. This kind of task is not suitable for me. I'd better just be a salted fish quietly. "

People who can get and complete hidden tasks in this game are very powerful. Lao Xiyi thinks that if he was facing the situation of the elf mother tree losing blood crazily just now, he probably wouldn't be able to think of any solution.

This is the difference!

Ji Xuanyi had never played with breasts before, so he really couldn't understand the description of "concave breasts". He couldn't help but look at the old Western doctor again.

Qi Qin, who had been watching from the sidelines since the beginning, silently inserted himself between Ji Xuanyi and the old western doctor.

Ji Xuanyi: " ? "

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuan with a strange expression for a while, grabbed his hand and placed it on his chest.

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment, then immediately realized what the other party meant. He blushed, pulled his hand back, coughed dryly, and said, " What's so good about touching hard armor? "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, frowning and about to say something, Ji Xuan said: " Touch it for me offline. "

After saying this, Ji Xuanyi felt a little ashamed, and he and Qi Qin both blushed.

But then again, Qi Qin does have a great figure. If he were to play a healer, he probably wouldn't have to worry about having sunken breasts.

The two of them blushed for a while, and the old western doctor said dryly: " I feel like I have two kilowatts. "

Ji Xuanyi came back to his senses, cleared his throat, took Qi Qin's hand, and said to the old western doctor: " The tree has been planted, go back and hand in the task. "

There shouldn't be any changes this time. Ji Xuan took a look at the task information on the parchment and found that the progress had indeed reached " Reply to the Elf King " .

Seeing that the two were holding hands, the old western doctor felt embarrassed to stand there, so he ran to Xiao Nuo, who was still in a daze, and said, " Little sister – eh? "

The old western doctor stopped talking halfway. Ji Xuan looked at him and said, " What's wrong? "

The old western doctor frowned and said, " Has this little girl's level improved? "

In the game, not only do players have levels, but there is also a huge difference in levels.

People with low levels can only see a series of question marks when looking at people with high levels. Unless they are in a team or in other special circumstances, such as when Qi Qin first fought against the first warrior of the elves, under normal circumstances, players cannot know the exact level of the other party when facing high-level people.

However, now everyone's level is about fifty or close to sixty. In the elf camp, except for a few scattered people such as the Elf King and the First Warrior, the levels of the others can be seen, and they are all around forty or fifty. Xiao Nuo, as an underage elf, is only in his thirties.

Originally, things like levels are not easy to notice. Fortunately, the old Western doctor is a priest. The first thing he pays attention to when he sees a person is the other person's health bar. Xiao Nuo is no exception. He remembers the last few digits of Xiao Nuo's health, but when they are talking now, he feels that the numbers are wrong. He looked at the other party's level again, and then he found that the other party's level had changed.

When Ji Xuan heard what the old western doctor said, he was stunned for a moment, then he said: " The Elf King said that the power of the elves has always been dependent on the Tree of Life. It should be because the Tree of Life was planted that the power of the elves was strengthened. "

The old western doctor nodded thoughtfully and said, " The repetitive tasks now are to accumulate strength for the five major races. How many points will be added if this tree is planted? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " I don't know. I'll probably find out after I hand in the task. "

The old western doctor said to Xiao Nuo: " Little friend, take us out. "

Xiao Nuo glanced at the old western doctor, then looked at the tree of life in confusion. After a long while, he lowered his head and said, " Come with me. "

The life force in this area was getting stronger and stronger. It could no longer be described by skin smoothing and beauty. It should be like frosted glass. The visibility became very low. As soon as the old western doctor left, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin followed immediately, so as not to get lost in such a small place, which would be very funny.

Xiao Nuo was probably still young and didn't quite understand what the Tree of Life represented, so he was very confused. When they returned to the elf camp, the people inside didn't show any reaction to the sudden upgrade. It was even less likely that the players who were busy completing repetitive tasks would notice that their level had changed. Only the Elf King sighed softly when he saw Ji Xuanyi and the others.

" You succeeded, " the Elf King said with a complicated expression, " Thank you. "

Ji Xuanyi looked at the other person and suddenly understood something.

The Tree of Life can indeed bring power to the elves, but the elves who have obtained the power of the Tree of Life will probably never want to leave it again. The Elf King seems to think that the elves should be freer, and the power given to them by the Tree of Life is like a shackle to some extent.

This was probably the reason why he gave Ji Xuanyi the hint but did not directly tell Ji Xuanyi to find the mother tree. As the Elf King who had kept the seeds for so many years, he could not have been unaware that the Tree of Life should be planted together with the Elf Mother Tree. However, Ji Xuanyi felt that the elves' understanding of freedom was quite poor. Freedom should not have existed for the elves from the beginning. After all, being born from trees meant that their steps could only revolve around the elven mother tree. In order to protect the elven mother tree, they could not go anywhere, whether there was the Tree of Life or not.

This is a setting problem, and Ji Xuanyi can't make the other party accept it with just a few words – but even if he could, Ji Xuanyi probably wouldn't bother to care about such things. His goal is to save the world, so how can he waste time on such things.

As soon as the Elf King finished speaking, Ji Xuanyi's task on the parchment was completed, but there was no experience or monetary reward. Instead, the personal points displayed under the Elf points in the game interface increased by one thousand points.

At the same time, the total points of the elves also increased by three thousand points.

However, because there were so many players doing the task, these one thousand points were mixed in and were not very conspicuous, nor did they attract everyone's attention.

The old Western doctor couldn't help but exclaimed " Oh shit " again.

Ji Xuanyi looked at him and said, " What's wrong? "

The old western doctor looked at him blankly and said, " I also gained more than 300 points. Can I get this task without taking it? "

That's all? He thought the old western doctor had made some important discovery.

Ji Xuanyi shook his head speechlessly, indicating that he didn't know.

The old western doctor said: " Wow, big man, your calm expression makes me want to hug your thigh even more. Do you know what so many points mean? "

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were taken to find the Elf King as soon as they came in. They hadn't touched the mission at all, so how would they know this?

The old western doctor said with a " tsk tsk " sound: " I don't understand the big boss's world. Not to mention other mission areas, just take the bow and arrow manufacturing area I've been to. The points only increase by two points after completing a mission. To increase so many points at once is no different from completing a full seven-day mission! "

However, even though he was envious, jealous and resentful, the old Western doctor had to admit that it was normal for Ji Xuanyi to get so many points. After all, in the task of enhancing the combat effectiveness of the elves, the players only helped to pick up branches. After Ji Xuanyi completed the task of the Tree of Life, the level of the entire elves was upgraded. If Ji Xuanyi did not increase the points, who would?

Ji Xuanyi didn't feel anything when he heard this, he just felt a little relaxed. After visiting the mission area before, he didn't want to do this repetitive mission anymore. Now that he has points, he can slack off with more peace of mind.

The old western doctor had just been frightened while planting trees and felt very tired. He didn't want to go back to do the task at the moment. He hesitated for a moment before asking Ji Xuanyi and the others, " Where are you two going now? "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Anyway, instead of doing the mission, let's go check out the other people we met in the Elf Camp. What if there are any hidden ones? "

The old western doctor suddenly perked up and said, " I feel so sorry for not meeting you until now. Do you know any others? "

Thanks to the old Western doctor's help at the elven mother tree, Ji Xuanyi's attitude towards him became better. When he heard him ask this, he told him about the elven guard BOSS .

" A level 68 BOSS ? " The old western doctor was stunned for a moment and said, " What level should he be after the tree of life is planted? Isn't he an extraordinary BOSS ? "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment, and immediately looked at the old western doctor: " Exceptional BOSS ? "

The old western doctor was stunned for a moment, then laughed: " I almost forgot, I think everyone doesn't know yet, the highest level of this game is currently level 70. "

Chapter 119

As soon as the old western doctor finished speaking , Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin looked at him at the same time.

"exceptional BOSS" is actually not quite appropriate here , but Ji Xuanyi and the others could almost understand what the old western doctor meant.

There was a game before, in which the level of the BOSS was the same as the highest level of the player. The players had already gotten used to this setting, until a more powerful BOSS appeared later that was higher than the player's level. It was called an extraordinary BOSS . BOSS that exceeds the format of the game itself . However, most players have not reached the maximum level yet, and the setting of "Domain" is still unclear. What the old Western doctor calls an exceptional BOSS only refers to the surface meaning , that is, the BOSS level exceeds the player's highest level.

But at this point , the old Western doctor already knew that the highest level of players was level 70?

, the old western doctor doesn't look like someone who would work diligently to level up. Ji Xuan glanced at him and immediately checked the old western doctor's level on the team interface.

It is true that the opponent is only level 56.

Although this level should be the top level in Youyue City, it is still a long way from level 70. Now the levels of most troops are basically above level 55. After this event is over, they should be close to level 60. Level 70 doesn't sound too far , but in fact, the experience required for each level up is increasing exponentially. If you want to reach the maximum level just by completing tasks, even Ji Xuanyi and his team will need at least two or three months.

How did the old Western doctor know about this?

The old western doctor saw Ji Xuanyi's eyes and knew that he was looking at his level . He said, " I'm so lazy , there's no way I could reach level 70 so quickly. I just heard it from someone else – it's not a rumor, that person has indeed reached the maximum level. "

" That person? " Ji Xuanyi understood immediately. In the entire region and server, there was only one legendary figure in this game who was good at leveling up. He asked, " Yun Zhongjian? "

The name Yunzhongjian is not only known to the server where Ji Xuanyi stays. To be precise, it should be heard by everyone who started playing this game for the first time.

Although no one knows how the other party did it, his leveling speed is like a bug , which makes it impossible for people to even think about surpassing him. If there is someone who has reached the maximum level, it can only be him.

But speaking of it, although everyone knows him, everyone's impression of Yun Zhongjian has always been that he levels up very quickly. However, leveling up always has an end. Even if Yun Zhongjian reaches the maximum level earlier than others, his level advantage is only temporary.

kills all those who are about to reach the maximum level , by the time everyone catches up, Yun Zhongjian's characteristic of " fast leveling " will no longer exist, and he will become no different from other ordinary players.

But no matter from which aspect, this possibility does not exist, so except for the initial period when everyone was working hard to complete tasks to upgrade and everyone was sighing at how fast Yun Zhongjian upgraded, no one continued to pay attention to him afterwards.

Not to mention that there are activities one after another now, and level is no longer the most important thing. Basically, no one knows which main city this person is in, which guild he belongs to, and what he is doing.

Hearing Ji Xuanyi's words, the old western doctor seemed a little happy. He said, " It seems that some people still remember Lao Yun. It's hard to say whether this game has reached the maximum level or not, but Lao Yun's experience bar at level 70 is full, and he didn't reach level 71 after completing the task. If there are no other settings, the current level cap of this game should be level 70. "

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows at the old western doctor and said, " You actually know Yun Zhongjian? "

And judging from their addresses, it seems that the old Western doctor has a pretty good relationship with Yun Zhongjian. Yun Zhongjian didn't even announce the news that level 70 was the maximum level, but only told the old Western doctor.

The old western doctor smiled frivolously and said, " That's just the charm of his personality. There's nothing I can do about it. "

Ji Xuanyi had already learned to ignore the old western doctor's nonsense, and asked curiously: " Is Yun Zhongjian in Youyue City now? It seems that apart from some previous news, no one knows about Yun Zhongjian's movements. Is a person of his level not taken seriously by the dance gang in Youyue City? "

[God's Children Dancing] gang in Youyue City .

Although Youyue City is also dominated by one gang, it is completely different from the Half City of Youri City. The Half City of Youri City forcefully suppressed other gangs, annexed and integrated them, and finally became the largest gang in Youri City.

The reason why the Dancing Gang of Youyue City was able to monopolize the power of Youyue was actually similar to the reason why Jianxi Xinjiu became the gang leader of Mengtanggu – Youyue City had no gang that could take the lead, so the Dancing Gang was the only one left. The Dancing Gang was helpless. No one wanted to take any responsibility, they were all so fucking indifferent. As the gang with the largest number of members and the highest average level in Youyue City, they could only bite the bullet and be the boss, being at the forefront of everything. For this, they were beaten up by the Daylight City in a world mission – as the only organized and disciplined gang with mandatory requirements for the number of people participating in the battle, they suffered heavy losses in that battle.

Fortunately, the players of Youyue City are very Buddhist and considerate of the Dancing Gang. They will give up any benefits they have and are usually very nice to the members of the Dancing Gang. This is why the Dancing Gang is still willing to be the boss and continue to protect the players of Youyue City after suffering heavy losses in the world mission.

However, even if it is a Buddhist guild in the Buddhist main city, facing a famous player like Yun Zhongjian, it would not be without any intention of recruiting him, right?

Although Ji Xuanyi seldom attended the meetings of the three major gangs, he had some impression of these gangs. The leader of the Dancing Gang seemed to be Ye Linyu, a swordsman, but he had never heard of Yun Zhongjian being in the Dancing Gang, or the matter of Youyue City.

" It's normal that you don't know, " the old western doctor said, " Lao Yun is a relatively low-key person, but he is indeed in Youyue City, he just hasn't joined any gang. As for [God's Children Dancing] , they did try to recruit Lao Yun, but he was rejected. "

Ji Xuan nodded.

Ji Xuanyi had actually already guessed that the level cap was at level 70. The main storyline had already progressed to the World BOSS , and it was unlikely that anything new would happen next. The storyline came to an end here, and of course the same thing happened with the missions. The abrupt end of the missions meant that the player's level would no longer increase, and what would begin next should be ordinary daily life including the arena.

Ji Xuanyi originally guessed that the player level should remain at level 65 after the plot came to an end. Now it seems that there should be many post-war tasks scattered on the map after the plot ends. Level 70 is just right as the first end point.

"I've actually always been curious about a question," Ji Xuan said, "This is a question that everyone should want to know, but if it's inconvenient, you don't have to answer it."

The old western doctor understood what was going on and said, "That's the secret of Lao Yun's upgrade, right?"

Ji Xuan nodded.

Yun Zhongjian's upgrade speed is as fast as a rocket. There have even been strange speculations that "Yun Zhongjian is an uncle's party, and an insider directly told him the clues to the hidden mission." Although Ji Xuanyi did not take it seriously, after experiencing the torture of various upgrade tasks, everyone would want to know his upgrade secrets.

The old Western doctor hesitated for a moment.

Ji Xuan said: "If it's inconvenient, don't tell me. It's normal to want to keep the upgrade tips secret."

"That's not the case," the old western doctor looked at Ji Xuanyi and said, "It's not that I don't want to tell you, I'm just afraid you won't believe me if I tell you."

Ji Xuan looked at him and said, "Don't worry, I will believe you if you tell me."

Ji Xuanyi's words were still very reliable. Since he said he would believe it, he would definitely believe it. The old western doctor thought about it and said honestly: "Okay, then I'll tell you."

"Yun Zhongjian doesn't have any secret to leveling up. He just has good luck."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi was wrong. Ji Xuanyi wanted to take back what he had just said. He was not a man who kept his word.

Ji Xuanyi looked at the old western doctor speechlessly: "Are you kidding me? Are you so lucky that you can reach the maximum level all the way?"

The old western doctor spread his hands and said helplessly: "See, what did I say? I knew you wouldn't believe it."

Ji Xuan said: "It's not just me. No one would believe this kind of reason which is not even a reason, okay?"

"That's why I told you in advance, you wouldn't believe it," the old western doctor said with a sad face: "No one who heard me say this believed me, and some even deleted their friends out of anger!"

Ji Xuanyi said: "Actually, I have always wanted to delete you as a friend even without this reason."

Old Western doctor: "..."

"Anyway, this is the truth," the old western doctor gave up communicating with Ji Xuanyi and said directly, "Lao Yun is indeed lucky, and he is also quite smart, so he has completed many missions, including secret missions. Besides, if this leveling trick is replicable, I would not be only level 56 now. Isn't it good for Lao Yun and I to reach the maximum level at the same time and live together as a couple?"

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

And they live together and fly together ...

Ji Xuan looked at the old western doctor for a long time and asked sincerely: " Are you sure Yun Zhongjian doesn't hate you and doesn't want to play with you, so he used this nonsense to fool you? "

Old Western Doctor: " Not everyone is as aloof as you. I have a pretty good relationship with Lao Yun. The only difference between me and you and Tianxiadiyi is that we have different personalities, okay ..."

Although the old western doctor had no moral integrity to begin with, Ji Xuanyi couldn't say anything since he had even described him like that. The matter between the old western doctor and Yun Zhongjian had nothing to do with him. He was just curious about how Yun Zhongjian upgraded and had no intention of imitating him. Whether the reasons given by the old western doctor were true or false, Ji Xuanyi could actually accept them.

The three of them still went to see the elf guard BOSS . The guard's attitude towards Ji Xuanyi and the others was quite good, but Ji Xuanyi and the others saw the opponent's level as a question mark, and the blood volume was also a question mark. It was impossible for them to directly tell the player what his level was. In the end, the three of them returned disappointed. The preparations for the first phase lasted a full week. Although Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin had accumulated enough points, they did not run around, but continued to participate in activities among the elves.

Just like what Ji Xuanyi said, maybe because there were too many complaints, but the day after the mission was opened, the official simplified the mission process and removed the dialogue with players. As long as the players don't open their mouths to interrupt the conversation, they will only respond with a nod or a shake of their head when receiving mission items.

When Ji Xuanyi went to the mission area again after a short maintenance, it had become much quieter and more organized.

" It's still tolerable when the keyboard online game world is flooding the screen, but once the holographic online game starts to quarrel, it's really fucking terrible. " said the old Western doctor.

"... Why are you still here? " Ji Xuanyi looked over with a frown on his face.

The old western doctor said confidently: " I am doing the task. You two have enough to share, but I don't have it yet. If I don't do the task, will I use my head to get the reward later? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " You also know how to get rewards ..."

Qi Qin was originally hostile to the old western doctor because of the dirty talk he said to Ji Xuanyi yesterday . He logged off early yesterday and took a car to find Ji Xuanyi. He didn't know what the two did. Qi Qin suddenly seemed to be detached and didn't regard the old western doctor as an enemy at all. After hearing what Ji Xuanyi said, he also asked curiously: " You completed the first stage of the points task in the elves, can you get the reward? "

The old western doctor glanced at Qi Qin, smacked his lips, and said, " I don't know either, but isn't this activity to encourage the three main cities to help each other? Points and rewards and so on should be counted together, right? "

Qi Qin looked at him blankly and said, " What if we don't combine them? "

The old western doctor was stunned and said, " If they don't count together, then I can't do anything about it. What else can I do ..."

Speaking of this, Ji Xuanyi also became a little curious and said, " Forget about you just slacking off here in the first phase, but what about the second phase? Do you plan to do it in Starry City or Youyue City? "

The old western doctor was stunned and said, " I forgot to think about this, but the main reason I came to the Lost Forest to do the mission is because I don't know how to shui—— "

 "No what? " Qi Qin didn't hear clearly.

The old western doctor glanced at Ji Xuanyi, who seemed to be smiling, and coughed dryly, saying, " Well, I don't know anything. The main reason I came here to do the mission is because I don't like taking a bath in the same pool with others. You don't know that the Sea of Secrets is the smallest of the five outdoor maps, and it has to accommodate the entire main city's people. Tsk tsk tsk, it's like boiling dumplings when you go in the water. If you drink a mouthful by accident, it's all other people's bath water. It's so disgusting! "

Qi Qin: "..."

What the old western doctor said was indeed disgusting. Qi Qin couldn't help but imagine it in his mind and his face turned pale.

Qi Qin looked like he was about to suffocate. Ji Xuanyi rubbed his chest speechlessly and said to the old western doctor, " The area of the Confined Sea Realm is not small, it's because it's in the water. The map is three-dimensional, right? And aren't there medicines that increase the breathing bar after entering the water? Why are you drinking other people's bath water for no reason? "

The old Western doctor didn't want to admit that as a Youyue City player, he didn't know how to play, so he laughed and changed the subject, saying: " Anyway, there are a lot of messy factors in the claustrophobic sea that hinder me, so I came here to try to accumulate points. It should be possible to accumulate them. I still have to go back to complete the second stage of the mission. As for large-scale battles, Youyue City is a bit lacking- "

 "What do you mean? " Qi Qin asked.

Old Western doctor: " Point ... point ... point to the person who shows the way! "

Qi Qin: "..... ??? "

Why is there no one to show the way in a large-scale battle? Don't the people of Youyue City know the way?

Qi Qin had a confused look on his face. The old Western doctor looked at him for a while, and when he saw that the man didn't react, he immediately breathed a sigh of relief. Then he saw Ji Xuanyi looking at him silently.

Old Western doctor: "..."

The old western doctor asked guiltily: " What's wrong? Don't you know that the city roads are complicated and you need a guide? "

Qi Qin: " I don't know. "

Ji Xuanyi: " I know. "

Qi Qin was stunned, looked at Ji Xuanyi, and asked curiously: " Is this true? "

Ji Xuanyi said seriously: " Yes, we have made arrangements every time we plan, you just don't know it. "

Qi Qin really knew nothing except the situations where he was required to fight. When he heard Ji Xuan's nonsense, he believed it without thinking and said " Oh " stupidly.

The old Western doctor glanced at Ji Xuanyi and felt even more guilty.

Ji Xuanyi glanced at the old western doctor calmly and said, " I thought you came to Fanxing City to do the mission because of a conflict with Youyue City. If that's not the case, then it's quite convenient to go back to Youyue City. After the first stage, everyone will be transferred back to their home cities like the previous world missions. They don't even have to walk. As long as the points can be accumulated together, or the individual rewards are settled according to the stage, there shouldn't be any big problems. "

The old western doctor laughed twice and said, " Yes, yes. "

Ji Xuanyi curled the corner of his mouth and said nothing.

The old western doctor looked at the two of them again, then plunged into the crowd of players to complete the task.

I don't know if it was because he let the cat out of the bag or for something else, but the old Western doctor hasn't been around Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin since then. He didn't say he wouldn't get close to them, but when they occasionally met, he would just say hello and then run away as if he was so busy that he couldn't stop.

Ji Xuanyi had no interest in the other party's performance. He was just preparing to spend some time alone with Qi Qin, and the old western doctor's performance was exactly what he wanted. For some things, Ji Xuanyi was not in a hurry to find the old Western doctor to confirm. Anyway, the old Western doctor would definitely stay in the Lost Forest until the end of the stage and wait for teleportation, so it would be okay to talk to him on the last day.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin continued to slack off and date while completing their tasks sporadically, and it lasted until the sixth day of the first stage.

Although they were not as diligent as other players, after planting the Tree of Life, they accidentally found a few one-time small tasks. After completing them, their accumulated points still ranked them among the top few.

By the sixth day, Ji Xuanyi no longer wanted to deal with those repetitive tasks, and instead took Qi Qin directly to find the old Western doctor.

When the old western doctor saw Ji Xuan and his two companions coming towards him, he wanted to hide. However, because his actions were too obscene and looked like they were molesting him, he was dragged out by a female swordsman.

Seeing that there was no way to hide, the old western doctor could only stand there sighing, looking at Ji Xuanyi with a sad face.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin stood in front of him and said, " It's the last day. Is there anything you want to say to me? "

The old western doctor looked at Ji Xuanyi and said helplessly: " You already know everything, what else is there to say? I should have realized when I met you two that Starry City is not like Youyue City. With your skills, it is impossible for you two to have no status in Starry City. "

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " It's impossible for a priest of your strength to have no status in Youyue City, right? "

The old western doctor shrugged and said, " This has nothing to do with strength. The leader of our dancing gang is still a rookie. "

Ji Xuanyi: "... That's such a coincidence! "

Two of the leaders of our three major gangs are rookies!

The old western doctor didn't think about it. He was stunned for a moment when he heard this and said, " What's a coincidence? "

Ji Xuanyi thought about it and didn't want Liu Tian and Jing Yunhan to embarrass Fanxing City, so he smacked his lips and said, " Nothing, I just wanted to ask, are you from the Dancing Gang? Do you guys also call yourselves the Dancing Gang? "

The name " God's Children Are Dancing " is actually quite high-sounding, but it's too long. Not only is it hard to pronounce, but it's also suspected of being padded with words, so people generally call it the Dancing Gang. But this name sounds too rustic, as if it's a gang of square dance aunties. So even though everyone calls it that, the members of the Dancing Gang actually don't like this abbreviation.

Ji Xuanyi thought that the members of the Dancing Gang would pronounce the name of their gang very seriously, but he didn't expect that the old Western doctor would call it the Dancing Gang so smoothly.

The old western doctor didn't feel embarrassed at all, and said, " I had already reminded Ye Linyu not to choose this name, but he insisted on showing off. What can I do ? Wait, are we off topic? "

Ji Xuan was thinking that if you didn't mention the matter of the rookie gang leader, you wouldn't go off topic. It's all Liu Tian and Jing Yunhan's fault!

Ji Xuanyi coughed dryly and said, " Then let's get down to business. "

 " You feel so guilty after your identity was exposed. Does Youyue City know what Yaori City wants to do? "

Chapter 120

After hearing Ji Xuanyi's words , the old western doctor said: " Is it true? I , I don't feel guilty! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Brother , you are stuttering and you still say you have no guilt!

The old western doctor glanced at Ji Xuanyi and saw the mockery on his face. He knew that his behavior in the past few days was not justifiable, so he stopped pretending and sighed, " Did n't I tell you that you two are the ones who fight in the main city . We in Youyue Village don't want to get involved at all . Why do you have to drag us into it? Aren't you annoying? "

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows.

The old western doctor said timidly: " Of course , it's not you, it's all the fault of those idiots in Day City. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything.

He really hadn't expected what happened in Sun City.

His attitude when Xu Chu asked him to help plan the world boss's defense against the Sun City was due to two other reasons besides the fact that he was really afraid of trouble .

Firstly, with the divine weapon, they did not think there was anything left for Daylight City to fear . Secondly, the current situation in Daylight City was not suitable for launching another attack on Star City.

suffering such a huge setback at the hands of Fanxing City , there will definitely be no harmony within the city . If Zhaochen had a bit of brains , he would have known that he should not have taken action against the BOSS , Yueri City, this time . Resting and recuperating is the right thing to do. If they keep picking fights every other day and always get slapped in the face by others, Yueri City will be doomed sooner or later if it keeps doing this.

Therefore, Ji Xuanyi had been entertaining himself throughout the event, doing the tasks and taking the opportunity to watch the angry Yori City die while fighting the BOSS , and also to have fun by watching the helpless look on Yori City.

It was not until he realized that he and the old Western doctor had discovered each other's identities that he showed a strange attitude.

If the old western doctor was from Youri City, it would be normal for him to feel a little awkward when facing Ji Xuanyi, and it would be understandable for him to simply break off the friendship and no longer have any contact with Ji Xuanyi. However, the old western doctor is from Youyue City, and he is a commander. It is very abnormal for him to feel so guilty when facing Ji Xuanyi. To be a commander, in addition to the overall view, mentality is also very important. If Youyue City intends to trick Ji Xuanyi and others, the old Western doctor, as a commander, has a personality of talking a lot of nonsense, and you can definitely not see anything on his face.

They would feel guilty, which proves that Youyue City does not want to harm Fanxing City, but unfortunately they know something. If they tell it, it will offend Youri City. If they don't tell it, the old western doctor and Ji Xuanyi are still friends. He even took him to do special tasks.

Watching Ji Xuanyi and others being cheated, the old western doctor felt bad.

This man had no idea what to do and was so conflicted that he had no choice but to hide from Ji Xuanyi and the others like a turtle. He didn't want to get involved in this mess, but at the same time he hoped that Ji Xuanyi could be smart enough to find out that something was wrong with him . It would be even better if he could guess what plans Yori City had from a distance. He wouldn't even have to say a word, and if Yori City wanted to cause trouble for them, he could still deny it with a clear conscience.

But there are no such good things in the world. No matter how smart Ji Xuan is, he can't read minds. It's already the limit to infer that he knows the information about the Day City. To infer the plan of the Day City further, it's not speculation, it's just a blind guess!

Ji Xuanyi never guessed blindly in such situations. Although he vaguely knew what the old Western doctor was worried about, he didn't think it was a big deal, so he simply came to talk to him.

The old western doctor sighed and repeated, " It's all the fault of those idiots in Day City. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " You already know they are idiots, why don't you tell me their idiotic plan? "

The old western doctor said helplessly: " What can I do? The people in Day City are idiots, but they are more powerful than us. We can't beat them. What can we say? I can't say anything. "

" Boss, your Starry City is much more powerful than Sun City. You defeated the strong with the weak and made them stunned. At this stage, it should be enough to know that they have made some moves, right? Don't force me. I'll tell you, they can't beat you, but they are more than enough to beat us. "

Unlike Sun City and Star City, in the Buddhist Youyue City, the relationship between the Dancing Gang and the individual people is more harmonious. This represents the strong cohesion of Youyue City, but it also means that the Dancing Gang will consider the individual people more, so they will have more concerns when deciding certain things .

The Dancing Gang might not be unwilling to face the battle with the Sun City – after all, to some extent, fighting with the Sun City could be considered as revenge for the loss of the original world mission. But the problem was that the individual people in the Nether Moon City would suffer as a result. Considering this, the Dancing Gang could only back down and there was nothing they could do.

So now, even though he has been forced to be involved in the fight between Sun City and Star City, the old Western doctor has no intention of assisting either side. He only wants to quickly get Youyue City out and continue to be their spectator.

Ji Xuan looked at the old western doctor for a while, then suddenly smiled and said, " Don't force me? You are a commander, but you came to the territory of Fanxing City at this critical moment. Didn't your gang leader stop you? "

The old western doctor was stunned.

Ji Xuanyi touched his chin and said, " Your leader, the one called Ye Linyu, is a believer in fate, right? "

The old western doctor frowned and said, " What do you mean? "

Ji Xuanyi smiled at him and said, " It seems that I am lucky. If the leader Ye Linyu and Liu ... and Zuo An were not in the same group, he would have let you run to Fanxing City at this time. He is quite generous. "

As a commander, the old Western doctor would be troubled by this matter, and as the gang leader, Ye Linyu would be even more troubled. No matter which one he chose between Sun City and Star City, it would be wrong for him. He could only try his best to show a neutral attitude.

For Youyue City at this time, the so-called neutrality probably means pretending to be dead and not responding to Day City, and pretending to be ignorant of Fanxing City.

But at this critical moment, the pretentious old Western doctor refused to drink other people's bath water in the claustrophobic sea, and wanted to go to the Lost Forest to find the beauties of the elves to complete the mission.

As the commander, the old Western doctor would definitely make his destination clear to Ye Linyu. Regardless of the functionality of the old Western doctor as a commander or the neutral position that Youyue City should maintain, Ye Linyu should reject the old Western doctor's opinion and force his head to drink the bath water. He will get used to it after drinking too much anyway.

However, things did not develop like this. Ji Xuanyi and his companions did meet the old Western doctor in the Lost Forest. If the old Western doctor had not fought desperately and escaped from the claustrophobic sea, it would have been that Ye Linyu agreed to the other party's request.

Ji Xuanyi believed that the old western doctor would not be scared to flee by the bath water, and when he mentioned that he wanted to return to Youyue City for the second phase of the mission, he did not show any guilt or fear on his face, which proved that he had obtained the permission of the dance gang leader Lin Yu and walked out of Youyue City openly.

"Ye Linyu probably didn't consider that you would happen to meet the two of us," Ji Xuanyi said, "He probably just heard what you said, so he agreed to let you go to the Lost Forest and let you make a decision for him. If the news doesn't get out, he will continue to play dead and be neutral. If it gets out, that's his fate, and he will have no choice but to stand on the side of Star City."

Ye Linyu might not have known that such a scene would happen now, but among the several developments he speculated, this one must have been one of them.

Ji Xuanyi said: "So I said I'm lucky. Guess, in his deduction, did you tell me the truth in the end?"

The old Western doctor was not stupid. In fact, he vaguely understood what Ji Xuanyi was saying when he was halfway through.

Ye Linyu actually doesn't believe in fate, he just suffers from indecisiveness.

The old western doctor first pinched his teeth, despised Ye Linyu in his heart, and then faced Ji Xuanyi and couldn't help but sighed.

As the commander of Youyue City, he should know too much about Ye Linyu.

Ye Linyu said that he was in a dilemma and didn't know what to choose, but in fact, "helping Sun City" had never been one of his options. He was just thinking whether the benefits of standing on the side of Star City could offset the losses, or whether he could really stay out of it completely and not be affected in the slightest in a neutral situation.

From the beginning to the end, in Ye Linyu's eyes, the Daytime City was just a jumping clown. He knew in his heart that the Daytime City could not shake the Starry City in the slightest. The reason for his hesitation was simply because this jumping clown could not move the Starry City but could move the Youyue City.

And now, Ye Linyu's "dilemma" has also made the old Western doctor understand clearly that from the moment Ye Linyu agreed to let him go to the Lost Forest, Ye Linyu's inner choice has actually been more inclined to stand on the side of Starry City.

The old western doctor looked at Ji Xuanyi for a while and said helplessly: "Okay, okay, you are all awesome people, but I am a fucking idiot..."

Knowing this, why is he hiding secretly? Although Ye Linyu is a patient with severe indecisiveness, since he has made up his mind, even if the old western doctor didn't say anything until the end, Ye Linyu would probably spread the news secretly and put the blame on him in the end.

If it wasn't for Ji Xuanyi, the old Western doctor probably wouldn't have been able to react, and would have been blamed by Ye Linyu with an innocent look on his face. He might even have suspected that he had leaked the information while talking in his sleep!

The old western doctor thought about Ye Linyu's sinister intentions and couldn't help shuddering. He opened the chat channel and privately chatted with Ye Linyu: " Fuck your mother! "

I didn't expect that this bastard Ye Linyu would reply immediately.

[Ye Linyu] : Oh?

[Ye Linyu] : Were you caught by the people of Fanxing City? Were you tortured? Tell me, it's okay.

Old Western doctor: "..."

Damn, this guy had thought of this a long time ago! Fuck!

When Ji Xuan saw the old Western doctor's eyes staring blankly for a while and then suddenly holding his chest with his hands, as if he was about to faint from anger, he almost guessed what was going on and his face was immediately filled with black lines.

What kind of people are there in Youyue City? After thinking about it, Ji Xuanyi thought of the people in the three major gangs, such as Xu Chu, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia ... It seems that Fanxing City is not much better than Youyue City!

The old western doctor recovered and scolded Ye Linyu crazily, then deleted and blocked him as a friend in one go, and finally looked at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi looked at him for a while and said calmly, " We all go through this, just get used to it. "

Old Western doctor: "..."

The old western doctor didn't believe that someone like Ji Xuanyi would be cheated, but it was rare for someone to comfort him in a kind voice, so the old western doctor still appreciated it.

After a long pause, the old western doctor said, " I am indeed the commander of Youyue City and a senior executive of the Dancing Gang. Ye Linyu doesn't really care about group fights, but I know more about things related to Day City. "

" More clear? " Ji Xuanyi looked at the old western doctor and said, " It sounds like what Day City told you was quite detailed? "

The old western doctor also frowned and looked a little hesitant . After a long while, he said, " The situation in Day City is very strange ... In fact, anyone with eyes should be able to see that Day City is not suitable for causing trouble now. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " The leader and commander of Day City has no eyes. "

Old Western doctor: "..."

Ji Xuanyi glanced at the old western doctor and said, " He is a big idiot. Logically speaking, Sun City is not under his control alone. The guy behind him should have stopped him. I don't know what happened this time – but this is not what we need to consider . Just tell me what Sun City told you. "

Since Ji Xuanyi said so, the old western doctor did not think much about it and said, " We are a Buddhist village. We don't want to cause trouble. We didn't even add them as our friends. It was the Sun City who sent people to sneak into the city to find us. "

In fact, the best way is to prevent that person from finding Ye Linyu from the beginning, so that the message cannot be conveyed and it doesn't matter which side he takes. In this way, Youyue City can be truly completely neutral. But unfortunately, the Dancing Gang has a good relationship with the individual players of Youyue City. They were not on guard when they saw someone with an unfamiliar gang name. When they heard that he had something to do, they directly let him find the executives of the Dancing Gang and contact Ye Linyu.

Linyu? When he saw the people from Youri City, he immediately realized that something was wrong. His first reaction was to arrest the people first and then play dumb and pretend that he didn't know what was going on . Unfortunately, before he could do it, he remembered that this was a game and the news could not be kept secret forever. Playing dumb was useless, so he had to bite the bullet and listen to the other party's intentions.

What else could they be here for? Sun City came to Youyue City, it certainly wasn't a sudden change of heart, to contribute to the server, to discuss the activities of the World Boss with Youyue City . They came to Youyue City, and they came to Youyue City secretly, they could only have one purpose – to deal with Fanxing City.

But Ye Linyu was not blind. Couldn't he see which of the two cities, Sun City and Star City, was stronger and weaker, and which one was braver and which one was more evil? He didn't want to cooperate with Sun City at all, but he didn't want to irritate the other party, so he had to play dumb and said that he didn't know how to command, and then threw the secret chat of Zuo'an directly to the old western doctor, the scapegoat.

The old western doctor listened to Zuo An's plan seriously, but when the other party talked about cooperation, he jokingly pushed the matter to Ye Linyu. The two of them just passed the buck, kicking Zuo An back and forth.

Fortunately, Zuo An was really stupid. He just thought that there were so many trivial things in Youyue City. He didn't realize that Ye Linyu and the old western doctor were trying to evade him. In the end, he simply made the decision on his own and told Ye Linyu everything, letting him handle it.

Ye Linyu had no choice but to do what he could, and as soon as he did so, he passed the news to Ji Xuanyi.

The old western doctor frowned and said, " If you want to talk about plans, I can only tell you that Zuo An's plan was full of loopholes. At first I thought he was trying to trick us, but later I found out that he was sincere. I didn't really talk to him at the time. "

In fact, Zuo An didn't have any particularly sophisticated plans. He just thought that when it came to the third stage of the World BOSS , Youyue City could cooperate with Youri City to attack Fanxing City. The combat power of Youri City was almost the same as that of Fanxing City, and with Youyue City, there was no reason for them to lose.

However, when the old Western doctor asked about the details, including the positioning, how the two main cities coordinated, and whether the presence of the BOSS would have any impact, Zuo An became speechless and could not say anything.

The old western doctor was speechless: " He even thought of the shameless tactic of having Youyue City pretend to be on good terms with Fanxing City and then stabbing you in the back, but he didn't even think of a proper formation, fuck. "

The shameless thing that the old western doctor said was not referring to Youyue City in the tactics imagined by Zuo'an, but to Zuo'an who came up with this idea – Oh, you are fighting against your enemy, and then you get the biggest reward, Youyue City gets nothing, playing two-faced in the middle, and getting scolded after making enemies with Fanxing City, you are sick! Do you think Youyue City is a fool! Who can come up with such a shameless tactic!

" But to be honest, although the commander of Daylight City is stupid, their fighting power is still there. If they suddenly attack during the World Boss , even without the cooperation of Youyue City, you, Starry City, will be in a mess for a while, right? "

Ji Xuan smiled and didn't mention that he held the artifact. He just said, " Not bad. "

The old western doctor asked: " Are you okay? "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything. The old western doctor saw that Fanxing City had a backup plan, so he didn't say anything. He said, " Anyway, you just need to know what's going on. And since Ye Linyu has decided to side with Fanxing City, you don't have to worry about anything. "

They have been shirking the responsibility on Zuo'an because they don't want to give him any chance to blame. Even if they turn to Fanxing City now, Zuo'an will be so angry that he wants to scold them. Without the chat screenshots in which Ye Linyu or the old Western doctor promised to help him, Youyue City can still push the blame and refuse to admit it.

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " I understand. "

The old western doctor asked: " What's going on? What are you going to do? Do you need help from Youyue City? "

If possible, the old western doctor still hoped that Ji Xuanyi would refuse him. Although Ye Linyu decided to take sides and help, all the villagers in Youyue Village were Buddhist players. They just wanted to be spectators quietly and not get involved in these things if possible. They didn't want to fight unless it was absolutely necessary.

Ji Xuanyi saw what he was thinking, thought for a moment, and said, " It seems that we don't need you. "

The fact that Youyue City told them about this matter was actually a favor. It was a bit unreasonable to ask others to help in a fight. Although Ye Linyu said that he could help, Ji Xuanyi didn't want Fanxing City to owe Youyue City a favor.

The old western doctor felt a little embarrassed when he heard this. He just passed on the message and backed off from the fight, as if to make them look timid and cowardly.

However, it is true that this matter should not involve the entire Youyue City. The old western doctor thought about it and said, " When the time comes, I can help you in my personal capacity, and it will have nothing to do with Youyue City. It's just that Ye Linyu, that bastard, can't come. After all, he is the gang leader. Even if he doesn't want to represent Youyue City, everyone will associate him with Youyue City. "

Ji Xuan smiled and said, " Of course that's good. "

The old western doctor represents not only the combat power of sharp treatment in a large-scale battle, he is also a commander. Although he is a little mean and talks too much dirty words, Ji Xuanyi can see that he can still be serious when he needs to be serious. As a commander, his ability should be no worse than Xiao Xiao Yuxia.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " If possible, you can bring Yun Zhongjian over as well. "

He has never seen a maximum level player, so if Yun Zhongjian is willing to reveal his attributes, Ji Xuanyi is still very curious.

The old western doctor patted his chest and said, " It's simple. He was going to fight the World Boss anyway. Besides, he's just an independent player. It's okay for him to come with me to help. "

The two of them discussed and arranged the tactics, making clear arrangements for the people from Day City and Zuo'an, and then they dispersed with satisfaction.

After deciding on his next position and what to do, the old Western doctor finally didn't have to hide and could do his mission with peace of mind. However, Ji Xuanyi still had things to do.

Ji Xuanyi actually didn't care what happened in Yuri City. He only needed to think about how to beat up Zuo An and Zhao Chen. However, there was one person in Yuri City that he had to care about.

That is returning.

Logically speaking, if there was any action in Youri City, Ji Xuanyi would not have waited until the old western doctor came to his door before realizing that something was wrong. As the core figure of Bancheng, Yu Gui should have secretly informed Zuoan of the news when Zuoan decided to cause trouble.

However, in fact, Yugui said nothing, and he went online and offline normally every day. It didn't seem like he was threatened or controlled by Zuo'an and the others.

There is definitely something wrong.

No matter what happened in the game, Yigui, who had already seen Ji Xuanyi's most brutal side, would not suddenly betray him. The only possibility was that something went wrong inside the Day City.

Moreover, this problem is so serious that half of the city's top leaders are beginning to become divided.

Chapter 121

Qi Qin has been less jealous recently , but he is still wary of girls like Yugui who have confessed their love to Ji Xuanyi and are completely devoted to him.

But the matter was of great importance , so Qi Qin had to endure it no matter how bitter he felt.

Ji Xuanyi wanted to let Qi Qin know that his relationship with Yugui was honest and innocent , but unfortunately this game could not share the chat channel . Ji Xuanyi could not prove himself , so he could only hug Qi Qin's face and kiss him. The two of them were very affectionate and said a lot of flirtatious words to coax Qi Qin into submission , and then he sent a secret chat to Yugui.

" What's the matter? " Yu Gui was doing his task well , but suddenly received a private chat from Ji Xuanyi, and was confused: " Nothing, since we lost the fight with Fanxing City last time , the internal friction in Dayo City has been quite serious recently . We can't fight internally or externally anymore. We are preparing to recuperate for a while during the event. Zhaochen also said that he would give the Sanren Gang some sweet treats . Zuo'an that guy listens to Zhaochen in everything, and no matter how I encourage him, it's useless ... What's the matter? Is there any situation over there? "

Ji Xuanyi frowned as he realized that Yugui really knew nothing .

Judging from what Yugui said, she should not have been squeezed out of the upper echelons of Bancheng . If she couldn't get the news , there were only two possibilities.

One possibility is that because of the existence of the undercover agent, Zuo An and Zhao Chen no longer trusted anyone, so only the two of them planned the incident and excluded Yu Gui and the others. The second possibility is that Zuo An also suspected Zhao Chen, so he planned the incident alone and told no one.

In terms of the stupidity of the Left Bank plan, Ji Xuanyi is more inclined to the second one. This situation is not so bad. At least we know that Yugui has not been exposed and should be fine in Yueri City. Otherwise, Ji Xuanyi would probably ask someone to go to Yueri City to forcibly bring Yugui back to Fanxing City.

Ji Xuanyi hesitated for a moment whether to tell Yugui that Zuo An and Zhao Chen seemed to have become estranged. After thinking about it, he decided to tell him. In Yugui's situation, it was better to know more than less. Even if he let something slip, he could still fool Zuo An. Yugui was also shocked when she heard what Ji Xuanyi said. You know, Zuo An didn't reveal anything about such a big thing on the surface, and his usual behavior was exactly the same as before. Yugui didn't know what he was thinking, but it seemed that she and Zhaochen both underestimated Zuo An.

Yugui thought about it and said to Ji Xuan, " I still have to test Zhaochen's reaction. It's fine if he doesn't know about it, but if Zhaochen actually knows about it, then no matter if it's Zuoan's idea alone or something they decided together, Zuoan's current action may just be a cover to attract attention, and the real action is actually on Zhaochen's side. "

What Yugui said is a possibility, but Ji Xuanyi always feels that something is strange. At least in consideration of the current internal situation of Yaori City, he thinks Zhaochen should not stir up trouble again so soon. On the contrary, Yugui's previous order to recuperate and unite the Sanren Gang seems more true.

But why did Zuo An suddenly remove Zhao Chen from his plan? He had even learned how to act, but couldn't he see that it was impossible for the current Sun City to defeat the Star City? Why was he so sure that the Moon City would help him? Was his purpose just to avenge the Star City, or for the World Boss , or something else?

Ji Xuanyi couldn't think of it.

Perhaps this is the strategic advantage of people whose IQ fluctuates. As the saying goes, a random punch can kill a master. Ji Xuanyi has no idea what this person is thinking at all, and can't guess what he will do next. He can only wait quietly for the other party to swing out his messy fists before he can counter them.

Xu Chu was not online again, so Ji Xuan told Xiao Xiao Yuxia the news and told her not to be too nervous and just pay a little attention.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was indeed not nervous about this matter, but it was not because of Ji Xuanyi's instructions, but because he simply did not have time to worry about these messy things. The second phase of the World BOSS was about to begin, and he was busy. No matter how much trouble Zuo An made, it had to be put on the list of things to be dealt with in the third phase. Ji Xuanyi didn't have to wait long. Before the second stage started, Yugui sent him a message. Zhao Chen was completely unaware of Zuo An's secret moves. The plan to contact Youyue City and launch a surprise attack on Fanxing City was entirely planned by Zuo An alone.

" What on earth does he want to do? " Yugui was puzzled: " To be honest, ever since he hid it from Zhaochen and me, I've been a little unsure about this guy. "

Ji Xuanyi was just about to say that if he couldn't figure it out, he would just give up and come to Star City to play, when he saw Yu Gui saying, " But when Zuo An relaxes a little, I will go and get some information from him. No matter what he wants to do, it's a good thing that he can follow up on the plan. Wait for my good news! Bye! "

After saying that, without waiting for Ji Xuanyi to react, Yu Gui went offline directly.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuan had no way to deal with Yu Gui and could only let her go.

The plot and tasks of the second stage are a big project. After the first stage ended, the game was maintained. During the two free days, Ji Xuanyi went to play with Qi Qin, but Qi Qin did not have that much free time. In addition to dating and playing games, he also had to learn how to manage a company and cook with Qi's father and mother.

However, people in love will be satisfied no matter what they do as long as they can be with each other and look at each other. Although Ji Xuanyi never thought that he would have such a sour love one day, he is no exception.

On the day the game was launched, all the players who logged into the game were stunned by what they saw.

The sky in the game changed. It was around nine in the morning, and the bright sunshine had turned into a dim color. A semicircular protective shield appeared above the main city, like an upside-down bowl, protecting the entire main city. Magic balls with long tails like meteors kept coming from afar , hitting the " bowl " and causing slight ripples.

Looking at the city wall at the city gate, a dark, huge monster, like a monster in a special effects movie, is constantly hitting the magic barrier protecting the main city. What is disturbing is that under the impact of this monster, the barrier does not seem to be as simple as dealing with those meteor-like magic balls. The range of the ripples is very large, and it will take almost one-third of the " bowl " to spread before disappearing.

It's easy to imagine that if the players don't do something, this " bowl " won't last long.

The guards in the city lined up in neat rows, with serious expressions, and rushed towards the city gate in an orderly manner. Others had panic on their faces and evacuated to safe areas under the command of the patrol team.

The huge noise from the outside was blocked by the " bowl " , and only a faint muffled sound remained when it reached the inside of the main city. However, when the players heard it, it still felt like there was no difference from thunder. The sudden change in the environment and their sobbing were all so real that they made the players feel the same confusion and helplessness. If this were real life, everyone would be powerless facing all this, and they would be unable to do anything except cry like everyone else.

But this is a game, and they have the power to change everything. They are ordinary people in this game, and they are also the saviors of this game. They can protect everything they want to protect!

The shock was only temporary, and in a moment, it turned into anger. The players roared and roared, some followed the guards and rushed out of the city, some stayed, some helped with the transfer, and some looked around for tasks to strengthen the defense. Everyone became busy soon after coming online, racing against time and doing their best for everything they loved. Ji Xuanyi was no different from ordinary players. His middle school spirit was ignited as soon as he came online. Although he did not scream like the other players, he almost ran out of the city with the guards. Fortunately, Qi Qin quickly caught him.

Ji Xuanyi wanted to take Qi Qin out with him, but Qi Qin held his face and saw that he looked dazed. He couldn't help but kissed him first, then said, " Xuanyi, wake up. Have you forgotten that you just discussed it with Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others? You have a plan! "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment before he reacted. He felt a little embarrassed and took Qi Qin's hand off his face. He said, " I know. Let's go find Xiao Xiaoyu and the others first. The focus of the early stage of the second stage is not to attack the BOSS , but to activate the main city defense and find ways to weaken the BOSS . There is no point in running away now. Let's go. "

The last two sentences were actually more meant for Ji Xuanyi himself than for Qi Qin. He still had some passion in his heart that hadn't subsided, making him feel a little restless.

But to be honest, Ji Xuanyi looked more lively and energetic than usual, which made Qi Qin feel itchy.

When Ji Xuanyi was rushing to the inner city, he was teamed up with Xiao Xiaoyuxia who had arrived a step later. Xu Chu also arrived on time, which really surprised everyone.

In the current situation, not many independent players are willing to follow orders. The three major gangs had already anticipated this and were not caught off guard. Xiaoxiao Yuxia only sent four teams of 20 people to check the situation at the four city gates. When they encountered independent players who had cooled down and didn't know what to do, they would make arrangements. The others were directly divided into five groups, led by the five leaders of the three major gangs, to search for props and tasks to weaken the BOSS in the city.

The health bar of " the boss is thicker than the walls of Star City, and he has a damage reduction buff . You can't be so stubborn. He is definitely not trying to let us fight him head-on, " Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said, " There are many more elves and dwarves in the city. Not to say that all the key tasks are with them, but they must have key items. Everyone should focus on the dialogue with these two tribes and conduct a carpet search. Don't let any of them go! "

" Oh, right, " Xu Chu pointed at Liu Tian, then Jing Yunhan, and said, " Ji Xuanyi, can you and Qi Qin separate them? These two can't be released alone. They can do all kinds of stupid things. If they are unlucky and miss some key tasks, they won't know where to go. "

Liu Tian and Jing Yunhan looked at Xu Chu coldly.

But Xu Chu was telling the truth. They really couldn't go out alone, otherwise something bad would definitely happen.

However, Ji Xuanyi didn't want to help the three major gangs take care of the children. He glanced at Xu Chu and said, " I came here to see if there is anything I need to add. Xiao Xiaoyu's strategy is fine. I will take Qi Qin out to work alone. If you want to take care of others, you can divide yourselves and don't look for me. "

Xu Chu looked at Ji Xuanyi dimly and said, " How are we going to divide the people? There are only five people in the three major gangs. Are you going to cut Xiao Xiaoyu and me in half? " Jian Xi Xin Jiu saw Xu Chu chatting with Ji Xuanyi and couldn't sit still. He didn't have a serious case of Chuunibyou, but he had a strong sense of responsibility. He was not only a player, but also the people in the Northeast District were his to protect. He couldn't help but say, " You guys take yours. Anyway, it's not my turn. Can I take the others and leave first? We can't afford to waste time. The initial protective shield outside won't last long. "

What do you mean by "you cut your own pieces"? It looked like Xu Chu and Xiao Xiaoyu could not escape this. However, except for this sentence, Jian Xi Xin Jiu was right in everything else. He had nothing to do here, and if they wanted to cut it in half, it wouldn't be him who came first.

Xu Chu glanced at Xiao Xiaoyu, who then let Jian Xixinjiu go first and told him to contact him in time if he encountered any situation.

Jian Xi Xinjiu responded, picked up his gun, mounted his horse as soon as he went out, and with a shout, he led his men towards the northeast district.

Ji Xuanyi sighed, thinking that it would be great if he could coax the old western doctor to help in the first phase. However, he guessed that it would be difficult. The old western doctor also said that Youyue City was in great need of commanders, and he would definitely not be able to spare the time to help in the second phase.

When Ji Xuan took a look at Xu Chu, he really wanted to cut this man in half ...

Xu Chu was originally smiling, but when Ji Xuan looked at her, her smile froze and she trembled as she said, " Your eyes look so scary. "

Ji Xuanyi looked away as if nothing had happened and said, " You can give Mi Yin and Xue Piao to Liu Tian and Jing Yunhan. These two are not stupid and should be able to be used. " Xu Chu said, " That won't work. If they leave, what about my safety? If something happens to me, wouldn't there be no hope for Starry City? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Xu Chu is becoming more and more confident!

But now is the time to use people, and with Xu Chuliang gone, there is an even greater need for people. Ji Xuanyi had to resist the urge to beat him up, thought for a moment, and said, " I have a few relatively reliable people who can help. "

In fact, those are the only people Ji Xuanyi knows. Regardless of whether they are reliable or not, they are better than Liu Tian and Jing Yunhan working alone.

Of the six friends from Green Forest City, the group led by Ze Yu Sishui just followed Liu Tian. Anyway, they were also members of the gang Tamajwadi. The group led by Introduction to Art just followed Jing Yunhan. Although they were not as reliable as Ze Yu Sishui, Sleepy Cat was famous for his meticulous mind. Besides, although Jing Yunhan was arrogant, he was quite docile when facing girls, so there shouldn't be any problems.

Ji Xuanyi said, " If all else fails, just ask them to report any situation they encounter in a timely manner. One person may miss a mission, but four people will not. Even if they are asked to report to each other, it will be much more rigorous. "

Xu Chu looked at Ji Xuan for a while and said, " It will be much more convenient with you. Are you really not coming? "

Ji Xuanyi raised an eyebrow at him and said, " I have something to do, understand? "

Xu Chu followed Ji Xuanyi's gaze and looked at Qi Qin standing beside him, and found that this real killer had begun to look at him with dissatisfaction.

Xu Chu suddenly realized and laughed dryly twice.

Ji Xuan said, " If I have time to waste, I might as well think about what to do when facing the Sun City. Although Zhaochen's intervention may not necessarily make things easier, you all know how many people will be present at the World Boss . It will definitely be a mess, so make arrangements in advance. "

Xu Chu said yes timidly and did not even mention asking Ji Xuanyi to stay and help.

If you disturb other people's love relationship, you will be kicked by a donkey!

The people from the three major gangs came out in full force. Although their goal was to cover the entire map, they could actually lead Ji Xuanyi wherever he wanted to go. However, Ji Xuanyi, who wanted to spend some time alone with them, did not go with them. Instead, he waited until Qi Qin finished eating the fruit plate, then he slowly took his hand and said, " Let's go, let's go find August. "

Such a big thing happened in Starry City, and of course the elves and dwarves who came to help should be looked for, but it would be wrong to leave aside such a powerful figure as August. Ji Xuanyi guessed that August must be the person who knew the most about the elves and dwarves coming to help, so it would be right to ask him.

Among the five teams of the three major gangs, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia, Jian Xi Xin Jiu, and Liu Tian were responsible for the areas under the jurisdiction of their own gangs. Jing Yunhan went to the northwest, and Xu Chu went to the inner city – not because there were many people in the inner city and it was more important, but purely because the meeting place was in the inner city and Xu Chu was too lazy to walk more.

In fact, if Ji Xuanyi was not there, the person in charge of the inner city would preferably be Jian Xi Xin Jiu, because he has August's favorability. It's not that he is the only one who can see August. After all, after the event is opened, the ban on the Mage Tower is lifted, and everyone can go up to find August, but he may get more questions because of his high favorability. However, Jianxi Xinjiu is obviously more concerned about the Northeast region, and with Ji Xuanyi here, there is no need to trouble him.

Xu Chu knew that Ji Xuan would go to find August later, so when he led people to search for the mission, he did not look there, but started from the very edge and searched for the conversation. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin went straight to the Mage Tower, but because they were delayed by the previous meeting, they were already a little behind the other players. When they arrived at the Mage Tower, some players were walking inside.

Ji Xuanyi didn't fight for the first place. If the favorability was useful, the information August gave him would definitely be unique. If it was useless, it would be too late to rush forward now.

I don't know why, but the players who entered were all looking expectant, while those who came out of the Mage Tower all had frowns on their faces, and I don't know what news they had received.

However, Ji Xuanyi did not ask them. This kind of intelligence information, even if it was all nonsense, was related to the hidden mission that might be accepted, and could not be told to others casually.

By the time Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin arrived outside August's gate, the players had already formed a small line.

Ji Xuanyi was holding Qi Qin's hand and just stood there when he saw a player pushing open the door dejectedly and walking out of August's room.

The player looked up and saw so many people outside the door. He was speechless and said, "No need to go in. What the great magician said is no different from the official news. He only told us to find the elves and dwarves to do the quest. He didn't mention anything else. It's useless. I made a wasted trip."

The player had good intentions and didn't want everyone to waste any more time, but no one would believe him in this situation. Even if he was telling the truth, maybe August was just like that to him? Or maybe he wasn't like that to himself? Everyone came here with expectations, and it was impossible for them to give up just because of his words.

The player was asking for trouble, and said sarcastically: " You guys just wait here, it's just a waste of your own time. I have to go do the quest first, or go out and fight monsters ... Humph. "

No one paid any attention to him. He hesitated for a moment and left in embarrassment.

In fact, Ji Xuanyi really hoped that the person in front of him would listen to that person and give up queuing. He was getting a little impatient waiting, but if the other person didn't leave, there was nothing he could do. He was not the same Mu Xuanyi as before. Was he going to chop down everyone who stood in his way?

Ji Xuanyi felt a little depressed for some reason. Qi Qin noticed it from behind him and took out an orange from his bag, peeling it and giving it to him.

Ji Xuanyi was amused by this fool and said, " Why do you always carry these in your bag? "

Qi Qin looked at him for a while and said seriously: " Because Xuan Yi can laugh. "

Ji Xuan's face turned red, he cursed him, snatched the orange from him, turned around, ignored him, and peeled and ate it.

Qi Qin looked at the orange peel in his hand, feeling somewhat helpless, and approached him and asked, " Xuan Yi, are you angry? "

Ji Xuanyi's ears turned red. This fool asked such a question. Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but rolled his eyes and said in a rough voice: " I'm so happy! "

He was indeed happy. The slight irritability that had just arisen in Ji Xuanyi's heart disappeared after being coaxed by Qi Qin. He felt so sweet after eating the orange.

With someone by your side, waiting doesn't seem so difficult.

Before Ji Xuanyi could come out of the shock, he found that the people in front of him had already left and August's room door was right in front of him, waiting for him to push it open.

Chapter 122

August's face didn't look very good – in fact , as long as Mrs. Harman was not around him, he would have this expression when facing most players, but generally speaking, this majority of players did not include Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin.

And now August's expression was still so solemn when facing Ji Xuan , which only showed that the situation outside was indeed not very optimistic.

But even so, after seeing Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin , August's expression relaxed a little , and he curled the corners of his mouth reluctantly.

" Fortunately, I let Hamana leave before this. If something happened to her , I might not have the heart to protect anything anymore. " August said to Ji Xuanyi.

But even with Star City in such a state, Madam Harman did not come to help. It seems that the situation in Xinmu Town is not very good either. However, the game announcement did not mention the several novice towns, so Madam Harman should be fine.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Is there anything we can do? "

August looked at Ji Xuanyi and said, " You should have seen the magic shield that protects the entire Starry City. "

Ji Xuan nodded.

August said: " The item that launches the magic shield is at the top of the Mage Tower ... But this is not the point. Although this is the strongest means of defense for humans, a layer of magic shield cannot completely defend against the attack of the evil god 's clone outside . "

" We need help, " August said to Ji Xuanyi: " Our friends , the elves and dwarves , they should have another way of defense. "

" Only after we have done a good job of defense can we consider the next step . If the whole city is in a state of panic , many people who can help will be unable to do anything. "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment , and August blinked at him.

Ji Xuanyi understood that this should be one of the hints. In addition to the fact that the most important task for the two races to activate is the defense shield, there is also the real task mechanism of this activity – the key tasks and the tasks that can help players expel the evil god 's clones actually have a task chain system. The prerequisites must be completed before the affected ones will be issued the subsequent tasks.

Just like what August mentioned now, if you don't complete the task of activating the defense first, even if you find it, the player will be in panic and fright and will not be able to provide effective help.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and immediately told the other members of the three major gangs the news.

" Preliminary task? " Xiao Xiao Yu Xia asked, " So should we now focus on opening the protective shield? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " No, that's not what I meant. There is more than one quest chain, and the prerequisite quest is not just to open the shield. Other props and weakening buffs , anything that is slightly important, should all be required as prerequisites. "

" So your carpet search must be more detailed. As long as it is a mission, you must do it. After all, no one knows whether the mission hides a powerful item or something else. "

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : Are you crazy!!!

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : Do you know how many missions there are in Star City? You just do them one by one without even choosing? Do you think I'm not dying fast enough?

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was right. The Starry City was huge, and there were many, not only event quests, but also ordinary upgrade quests. The worst thing was that there wasn't even a difference between the two. Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others couldn't tell whether a quest was an event quest or an existing upgrade quest, so they could only do them together, which was equivalent to sweeping the entire Starry City.

Ji Xuanyi said: " So this is the activity of the entire main city. "

It would be strange if the three major gangs alone could complete all the activities in the main city, but there are other independent people in the city who are trying their best. In terms of completing tasks, they will actually contribute much more than the three major gangs.

" So everyone just do your best, " Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment, and then said, " But there are two protective shields. I plan to go check on the elves first, and you can send some people to look for the dwarves first. These two protective tasks are the starting point, and there should be no prerequisites. "

Xiao Xiao Yu thought for a moment, and said, " Wasn't it you and Xu Chu who were doing the world quest for the dwarves? The quests in this game have a great impact on the attitude in the later stages, so let Xu Chu go. "

Although there was suspicion of laziness and shirking responsibility, what Xiaoxiaoyu said was indeed correct. It would be much better for Xuchu to go than for Xiaoxiaoyu to go, but there was only one person on Xuchu's side, and if he left, there would be no one to lead the team in the inner city.

Ji Xuanyi thought about it, and finally informed Xu Chu and Liu Tian, and handed this glorious and arduous task to Ming Shao and Qing Feng Bu Fu, asking them to go find the dwarves, leaving Ze Yu Sishui, the clever little guy, alone to assist Liu Tian.

Liu Tian didn't care whether the two men left or not. He felt that his IQ was enough anyway. Although Ze Yu Sishui protested against this, he was just one step away from receiving the mission from the dwarves, and the dwarves didn't recognize him at all. Plus, Liu Tian was really short of people, so Ze Yu Sishui had no choice but to stay with grievance.

Ji Xuanyi could even imagine Ze Yu Sishui's expression. It was probably similar to that of a child who was forced to be left behind because his parents went out to work. However, Ji Xuanyi did not have much time to waste. The ripples that appeared when the magic shield outside was hit were getting bigger and bigger. He didn't know how long it could last. He had to activate at least one defense system of the elves or dwarves before the protective shield was broken.

Ji Xuanyi certainly would not rely on Ming Shao and his companions or the individual soldiers. He had to find the elves as soon as possible and complete the mission.

August stood there. As a player, without any questions from the players, he had no way of telling Ji Xuanyi everything he knew. He could only stare at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuan glanced at him and knew that there must be more information that he hadn't obtained, but he couldn't care less at the moment and could only ask: " Where are the elves' reinforcements stationed? "

August said: " The reinforcements from the elves and dwarves are scattered everywhere, but the main elf force is stationed in the southeast area. "

" But the elves don't look very well, and they may need your help, " August said, " If you encounter anything and don't know what to do, you can always come to me. "

The elves are in bad condition? Ji Xuan was shocked. You know, when he was doing the first stage of the mission with the elves, he even planted the Tree of Life for them. Why are the elves still in bad condition?

But since August said it, it must be true. Ji Xuan nodded at August and was about to leave when the other party suddenly called him.

" I have marked the elves' station on your parchment. I hope this can help you. "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then smiled at August, thanked him, and left with Qi Qin. When Ji Xuan went out, he found that there were fewer players guarding outside August's door. That's right, the players have no time to waste now. Compared to obtaining information from August, going outside to complete tasks seems to be much more direct.

Ji Xuan and Qi Qin walked out of the Mage Tower, took out the parchment, and headed towards the direction marked on it.

It must be said that August saved them a lot of time. The southeast area is not small. Although the area where the elves are stationed should not be too remote, it will still be difficult to find. With the markings, it will be much more convenient. It will at least save Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin one to two hours.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin arrived at the elven settlement very smoothly. August was right, the condition of the elves did not look very good. Ji Xuanyi remembered that after he planted the Tree of Life, the levels of all the elves had improved to varying degrees, but now it seemed that the levels of the elves had dropped back again.

Ji Xuanyi seemed to understand something, and stopped a patrolling elf guard who looked a little depressed and said, " Has your king arrived? Where is he? I want to see him. "

The guard raised his head and looked at Ji Xuanyi with his emerald eyes, then at Qi Qin, revealing an expression of sudden enlightenment. He managed to pull himself together and said, " It's the warrior and his friend. Of course, the king is here. He's over here. Please follow me. "

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin looked at each other and followed the guard.

Even when they were out fighting, the elves were very careful about their quality of life. They were unwilling to live in human houses, so they built many tents on the street with grown plants. Some of the tents were blooming with flowers and bearing fruits. When Ji Xuanyi walked into those tents, he always had a strange illusion that he was not in the front-line camp in the southeast area, but a flower and bird market.

In the center of the flower and bird market, there is a tent that is larger than the other tents and has more luxuriant branches and leaves. Needless to say, this must be the residence of the Elf King.

Sure enough, the guard brought them to the door, announced it, let them in, and left first. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin lifted the vine curtain and walked in. The Elf King was still wearing his gorgeous clothes. He was leaning on his " simple " throne, looking at Ji Xuanyi and the others with a smile.

His expression seemed very relaxed, but Ji Xuanyi keenly discovered that there was actually some fatigue in the other person's eyebrows. The Elf King's face was much paler, and against the backdrop of his still gorgeous attire, he became a little tired. Fragile, but also more touching. The elves are indeed famous for their beauty, and the one in front of him is the Elf King. Even Ji Xuanyi can't help but his heart beats faster. Fortunately, the area that Jian Xixinjiu is responsible for is in the Northeast District, otherwise he might do something to the beast. things to come.

The Elf King smiled and said: " We meet again, the warrior and his friends. The situation is very critical now. Are you here to help? "

If Ji Xuanyi said yes, then the Elf King would have issued them a task, but Ji Xuanyi could not be sure whether the task given by the Elf King was a defense-related task, so he did not dare to give the initiative to him, but said: " I want to activate the Elf Tribe's defense system. The main city has only one layer of defense, but it is becoming increasingly fragile. The evil god's clone outside is likely to break in. "

Somehow, after hearing this, the Elf King turned even paler. After a long while, he smiled bitterly and said, " Do you still remember what I said at the beginning? "

Ji Xuanyi blinked, looked at the Elf King, and said, " I remember that the elves depended on the Elf Mother Tree and the Tree of Life. You said that it was actually a shackle ... Now that shackle has taken effect, right? "

The Elf King looked at Ji Xuanyi with some admiration and said, " You are such a smart man. "

" Yes, that's right, " the Elf King said, " Both the Mother Tree and the Tree of Life grow in the Lost Forest, and we are too far away from there now . To be precise, we do have a way to open a protective shield, but now we can't even maintain our own combat power, let alone the protective shield ..."

The Elf King's worries were not groundless. The Elf Mother Tree and the Tree of Life did have a bonus effect on individual elves, making them stronger. But on the other hand, if they were too far away from these two trees , the elves would feel uncomfortable or even weak.

The way to make the elves exert their strongest fighting power in this battle is to dig up the two trees when the elves come to support, bring them here and plant them directly, then there will be nothing to be afraid of.

But apart from the size and safety issues of the two trees, as well as the difficulty of planting them, the most important thing is that the elves are here to help in the war, not to settle in human territory. They are crazy to bring along two trees that are more important than their lives.

" Although the current situation of the elven army is not my intention, " the Elf King said helplessly, " but there is no other way. We can't provide any help in defense, and even in battle, it seems that we can only use this state to deal with the evil god's clones – the Elf Mother Tree and the Tree of Life cannot have any problems. "

Ji Xuanyi deeply felt that in addition to their beauty, the elves also had another characteristic, which was entanglement.

It's so confusing!

It was you who asked me to plant trees to gain strength. Now it is you who are weaker after planting trees. What on earth do you want to do?

However, the game settings are here. Since there is a task of planting trees, there must be a task of solving the " shackles of the elves ". After all, if you want to defeat the evil god's clone, you must not let the elves go on the field in such a state of being drained of their energy.

Ji Xuanyi even felt that after this matter was resolved, the elves might be able to have true freedom.

Ji Xuanyi looked at the Elf King and said, " Is there any way to solve your current situation? " The Elf King seemed to want to say something after hearing this, but paused for a moment before continuing, " The elves rely on the Mother Tree and the Tree of Life. Unless they return to a place enveloped by the energy of these two, there is no way to recover. "

After saying that, he looked at Ji Xuanyi.

It was obvious from the Elf King's look that he had something unfinished to say, and what he said was that the elves must stay within the range of the energy of the two trees, not that the elves must return to the Lost Forest. So there must be something hidden in this.

But what is hidden ...

Ji Xuan couldn't think of anything, so he said, " I know. "

Elf Dynasty He smiled and said, " Do you want to stay in the elf camp to help? "

Ji Xuan thought about it and felt that even the Elf King couldn't explain it clearly, so the solution to the problem should not be in the elves' camp, so he shook his head and said, " No, we have other things to do. "

The Elf King did not force them. He only told them to be careful on the road and to come to him if they needed help. Then he called the guards and had them take them out.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin stood outside the elves' camp and couldn't help but sigh.

Qi Qin reached out and patted his back to comfort him.

It is normal to encounter obstacles when completing tasks. "Domain" is different from traditional online games. Many tasks do not have detailed prompts, and players must think for themselves to complete them. Otherwise, the upgrade speed of the large team would not be so slow – even the upgrade tasks are like this, let alone such important activity tasks.

Ji Xuanyi calmed down under Qi Qin's comfort, thought for a moment, and said, " It seems that I was thinking wrongly. The elves' mission should also have a prerequisite. The Elf King's expression just now shows that he must know something, but he can't or doesn't want to tell me. He can only say some ambiguous words to give me hints. "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a long time and said, " Is there a way to transport the energy of the two trees here without digging them up? "

Seeing Ji Xuanyi so distressed, Qi Qin also racked his brains to think about it, his face flushed. After a long while, he frowned and said, " No, even if there is something that can collect the energy, if there is no postman or something, it will take too long to get the things back and forth. "

There is no teleportation in this game, which makes it more realistic, but it also means that many things have become more inconvenient.

Ji Xuanyi certainly thought of this, which is why he was so worried.

Qi Qin touched his nose in frustration and said with emotion: " Speaking of which, I often worried about similar problems in my previous world. Since I came here, with so much technology, I no longer have to worry about it. I didn't expect to encounter such a thing in the game. "

Ji Xuan was stunned and looked straight at Qi Qin.

Qi Qin blinked and said, " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi grabbed him and said, " I know! "

Qi Qin was stunned: " What? You know something? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Black technology! "

It is certainly unrealistic to bring the Elf Mother Tree and the Tree of Life from thousands of miles away, but it is not to say that there is no way. After all, there is such a thing as magic in this world, and the race that can combine magic and black technology most closely happens to be in the Starry City!

" No wonder the Elf King hesitated to speak, " Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly, " It turns out it's because of the dwarves. "

The relationship between the elves and the dwarves can be described as being as hostile as water and fire – well, they are not really like water and fire, after all, one is of the wood element and the other is of the fire element. Although the elves can be said to hate the dwarves to their core, in fact the dwarves' malice towards the elves is not as strong as the latter's towards the former.

The dwarves just think that the elves are pretentious and like to look down on others. Although this is indeed the case, it may be because the elves look down on everyone, and the dwarves are just one of the five races they look down on, so the dwarves do not have such strong complaints about the elves.

The elves are different. They can find countless shortcomings in the dwarves, such as being sloppy, self-acquainted, short, destructive, bad-tempered, and ugly. The last one is the most ridiculous. Being ugly is also a shortcoming! Do you think the dwarves are willing to be ugly? But the elves don't care. Although the other four races have many shortcomings, they also have advantages. The only two advantages of the dwarves, enthusiasm and forging, are shortcomings in the eyes of the elves, especially the forging skills that the dwarves are famous for on the continent!

Forging means that trees are burned, waste is discarded, and many creatures living in nature are used as materials. You know, even when the elves were making bows and arrows, they would consult the trees before using their branches and leaves. How could they possibly look down on the dwarves!

Although Ji Xuanyi felt that the Elf King was the most reasonable person among the elves, he obviously did not like the dwarves that much, otherwise he would not have only spoken half of the words. He obviously knew that the dwarves were likely to be able to provide them with help. Ji Xuanyi sighed helplessly about the relationship between the two tribes.

But it's good to know the solution to the problem. Let the elves be awkward if they want to, and their psychological problems are not the players' business.

But it seems that Ji Xuanyi has found the wrong order for opening the two shields. The dwarves should be the first task, and also the prerequisite for the elves' task. He should go to the dwarves to do the task first.

Augustus was very thoughtful. In addition to the elves' station, the dwarves' station was also marked on Ji Xuanyi's parchment with an arrow of another color.

Ji Xuanyi opened the parchment and took a look at where he was going next, then he couldn't help but hold his forehead.

Qi Qin quickly put his palms together to make a fan, and while fanning Ji Xuan, he asked, "What's wrong? Are you okay? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head, raised his face, and said expressionlessly: "The dwarfs are stationed in the northwest area."

This means that Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin need to cross the entire Starry City, and they have to run diagonally ...

So how much hatred do these two races have? They dislike each other so much! They are all here to help, but their bases are so far apart!

Why did Star City choose these two races to conquer?

Chapter 123

When Ji Xuan was walking towards the dwarf encampment, he contacted Ming Shao and Qingfeng Bufu who had been assigned to carry out a mission there.

If these two people found anything, Ji Xuanyi would have to travel less distance.

But it is a pity that although Ming Shao and Qingfeng Bufu are capable, they are really not good at finding the way and completing tasks. When Ji Xuan had a private chat with them, they were entangled at a fork in the road, arguing over whether to go left or right, and they were almost divorced.

Fortunately, Ji Xuanyi arrived in time and managed to save the poor child Ze Yu Sishui from the brink of family divorce.

Although Ji Xuanyi has been spending less time with these two people recently and his temper has improved a lot, his influence is still there and the two people dare not provoke him. After receiving the news, they put other things aside and prepared to meet up with Ji Xuanyi first.

The whereabouts of the various parties were communicated to each other. Although Ming Shao and Qingfeng Bufu were very happy to have Ji Xuanyi's support, they were also wondering why the other party suddenly rushed over from the elves. Had he completed the mission?

Ji Xuanyi had nothing to do in the carriage anyway, so he told the two about his experiences with the elves and his speculation about the quest chain.

Qing Feng Bu Fu said: "Fuck, boss, you are awesome. It seems that you have done a lot of great things while we were away. You even went to the elves to plant trees?"

Planting trees is fine, but Ji Xuanyi felt that he had only planted one tree, which did not count as afforestation, so he was still modest.

Compared to Qingfeng Bufu, who focuses on talking nonsense, Ming Shao is much more reliable. He thought for a long time and said to Ji Xuan, " This quest chain is just a guess, and we don't know the length of the prerequisites and the specific tasks. Are you sure that the prerequisite for the elves' shield to be activated is the dwarves? "

They don't have much time left. The elves and dwarves' garrisons are still far away. It will take them at most two trips back and forth. If they don't open the shield, Starry City will be breached. If you go to the wrong place, the risk is actually very high.

Ji Xuanyi said: " I'm not sure, but this is the most likely option. "

Young Master Ming stopped talking. Ji Xuanyi was right. There was no guide for this game, so how could there be so many certain things? No matter what, he had to go and see the dwarves, even if it was a waste of time.

As soon as Ming Shao said that, Qing Feng Bu Fu remembered it. He said to Ji Xuan, " Boss, you said that not every server's main city has the same racial alliance configuration as ours. If it is really like you speculated that the dwarves are the first, what if other servers have conquered the elves but not the dwarves' main city? In this case, can we still go out of the city to other main cities to complete tasks? "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and replied, " The pre-tasks for each race combination are different. There is only one mermaid in Youyue City. They have much fewer pre-tasks and the tasks are probably the simplest. However, leaving the city is definitely impossible. After all, in this kind of emergency, it is almost impossible to obtain information from other main cities. "

The workload for the game developers might be a bit bigger, but since the big map and world line have been created, why should they be afraid of these? Moreover, Ji Xuanyi estimated that maybe some quest chains only have different copywriting at the beginning, and the subsequent quests should be similar, which is an old routine.

After Ji Xuanyi arrived in the northwest area, the blue arrows on the parchment symbolizing Ming Shao and Qing Feng Bufu became bigger and bigger, which meant that the two people were approaching him. Ji Xuanyi ignored them and walked straight towards the dwarf camp. He met the two people almost halfway.

" Xiao Ji! I miss you so much! " Qingfeng stretched out his voice exaggeratedly, opened his arms and ran towards Ji Xuanyi, wanting to give him a hug.

Qi Qin silently took out his guardian, passed it around Ji Xuanyi's shoulder, and pointed it directly at Qingfeng Bufu.

Qingfeng didn't change his expression. He turned around on the spot with his hands raised, ran to Ming Shao and gave him a bear hug.

Young Master Ming: "..."

Ming Shao kicked Qing Feng Bu Fu aside with a frown on his face, walked up to Ji Xuan, nodded, and said, " You are here. "

Ji Xuan said: " Let's go, hurry up. "

He and Qi Qin, two short-legged guys, had to finish their mission with the dwarves and then go back to the elves, so they were running out of time.

Young Master Ming nodded, picked up Qingfeng Bufu, and followed behind Ji Xuanyi.

It's good to have someone to show the way, and there's no need to worry about which way to go when encountering a fork in the road. Ming Shao and Qingfeng Bufu followed Ji Xuanyi and quickly arrived at the dwarf camp.

The scene here is completely different from the elves' encampment.

The temporary residences of the dwarves were also built very exquisitely, as if they were going to live here permanently. However, Ji Xuanyi knew that this was just the habit of the dwarves. They probably thought that only craftsmen with poor skills would live in shabby houses, and an ugly temporary residence would damage their reputation, so they built each house more beautiful than the last.

But this is not the point. Before, the dwarves lived underground and had limited space, so they could only live together and use the same smelting furnace. Now that they have come to Star City, the city lord has allocated a large area for them to settle down, and the dwarves have moved in and each has built his own furnace.

Having a furnace alone is actually nothing. The key point is that all dwarves are very obsessed with forging, and 80% of these furnaces are always burning.

As soon as Ji Xuanyi and his three companions arrived at the outskirts of the dwarf camp, they felt a burst of heat blowing towards them. Looking from the outside inside, the air inside the dwarf camp had become distorted.

Ji Xuanyi's face twitched.

There is a reason why the elves and dwarves don't get along. If these two races lived together in love, there would be a small fire every three days and a big fire every five days. They would also perish together during festivals, such as a mixed barbecue of elves and dwarves ...

This is terrible! You should live farther away !

Qing Feng Bu Fu looked at the scene in front of him and said quietly, " The last time I saw such a spectacular scene was in the summer. I was sitting in an air-conditioned room, looking through the glass door and seeing the air outside being distorted by the sun ..."

What he said instantly reminded Ji Xuanyi of the summer sunshine. He felt like the prickly heat on his body was about to explode. He got goose bumps all over and couldn't help but take a step back.

Qi Qin quickly supported him and rubbed his arms. It took Ji Xuanyi a long time to recover.

Ji Xuanyi looked at Qingfeng Bufu with an unpleasant expression, and there was a murderous look in his eyes that had not been seen for a long time.

Qingfengbufu: "..."

Qing Feng Bu Fu burst into tears and knelt down to admit his fault: " I'm sorry, I was too mean! " Not all dwarves are working on the ironwork. Twenty percent of them haven't started the furnace yet. Half of them are scattered outside, and the other half remain in the garrison to patrol.

One of the patrolling men saw Ji Xuanyi and his men and recognized them instantly. His eyes lit up and he ran out of the camp on his short legs. When he came to Ji Xuanyi, he asked in a rough voice, " I remember you! You came to help our tribe before and the king made a weapon for you. How is it? Is the weapon useful? "

This kind of setting of trying to get close to players is quite common. As it is the first holographic game, the sense of immersion is of course the most important thing. Taking the initiative to say hello and mention things that players have experienced before can greatly enhance the sense of immersion for players.

The same was true for Ji Xuanyi. Although he knew that he had only accepted a mission and did not contribute much when he went to the dwarf tribe to help, he still relaxed his expression when he heard about the dwarf king helping him forge weapons.

However, when the dwarf approached, Ji Xuanyi's expression became stiff again.

In addition to their body shape and forging, the most obvious feature of the dwarves is their luxuriant hair. They have a full face of beards, the shortest of which covers their belly, and the longest ones can reach their feet. The dwarf in front of him must have faced too much firepower before, and his beard was singed, which made Ji Xuanyi feel uncomfortable.

In fact, this discomfort was not entirely an illusion. The dwarf had just come out of the stove, and his whole body was hot. He brought the heat all the way to Ji Xuanyi, causing Ji Xuanyi to involuntarily step back and almost step on Qi Qin.

Ji Xuanyi is not afraid of cold, but he is very afraid of heat. The temperature of the Chongyan Volcano system is already high enough. The furnace array in front of him even makes Ji Xuanyi feel a little fear in his heart.

Ji Xuanyi's performance was too obvious, and the other three noticed it. Qi Qin said hesitantly : " Xuanyi, do you want to wait outside? Let's go in together? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said nothing.

Of course he didn't want to go in if he didn't have to, but none of these three people were reliable. If he didn't go in, the mission would have to be postponed until tomorrow.

Qing Feng Bu Fu said: " The authorities won't make it so difficult for us, right? Although this place looks very hot from the outside, there should be a system control after entering, just like the Chongyan Volcano. I think we can go in and try it first, and then come out if it doesn't work. " What Qingfeng Bufu said makes sense. In order to take care of the players' feelings, no map so far has made things difficult for players in this regard. It will definitely be hot after entering, but the temperature should not be that high. It all depends on Ji Xuanyi's patience.

Ji Xuan made up his mind, gritted his teeth, and said, " There is no other way. What is coming will come. I can't escape it anymore! "

Ji Xuanyi's words sounded as if he was going to fight a fateful battle, which made Ming Shao frown.

The patrolling dwarf still stood in front of Ji Xuanyi, looking up at him. Ji Xuanyi lowered his head, smiled at him reluctantly, and said, " Yes, the dwarf king has excellent craftsmanship and his weapons are very useful. "

" That's good! " He said happily, then his expression became serious again, saying: " The current battle situation is not very good. Are you here to help? We are short of manpower! "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " We have other things to do with the Dwarf King. Can you take us to see him? "

He was very enthusiastic about Ji Xuanyi. He nodded immediately after hearing this and said, " Of course, you can follow me. The king should be heating the stove. "

Qing Feng Bu Fu complained quietly: " It sounds like they are going to roast us. "

Ming Shao elbowed him in the stomach, silencing him.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and followed behind. Although the dwarves had short legs, they could still run quite fast. However, in order to accommodate Ji Xuanyi and the others, they slowed down their pace. Ji Xuanyi felt like he was going to be roasted as he walked in the dwarf camp.

Ji Xuanyi was walking when someone patted him on the shoulder. When he turned around, Qi Qin stuffed something into his mouth.

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, and saw Qi Qin looking at him with sparkling eyes, as if asking for praise.

That was a fruit-flavored ice ball that Qi Qin got from somewhere. It should have been made by the player himself. Although the taste was a bit bland at the end, the ice ball alone was enough to add points in the current environment.

Qi Qin said: " I bought it the last time I came back from Chongyan Volcano, and it has only come in handy now. "

When Qi Qin was freeing the package, he was reluctant to throw it away.

But to be honest, it's a good thing that this is in the game and the backpack has a protective function, otherwise it would have melted after being left there for so long.

Ji Xuanyi glanced at him with a smile and said nothing, but his steps became lighter and he soon arrived at the Dwarf King's temporary residence.

The dwarf king was indeed heating the stove. He was shirtless, revealing his muscular arms that were almost wider than his body. In one hand he held a huge hammer, and with the other hand resting on his leg, he bent over to watch the flame in his stove.

The dwarf patrol led them to the place and left directly, which was completely different from the elves, who had to report anything. The Dwarf King was much more down-to-earth than the Elf King, and the only difference between him and ordinary dwarves was the size.

Ji Xuanyi really couldn't tell for a moment whether he liked elves more or dwarves more.

After watching the fire, the Dwarf King straightened up and saw Ji Xuanyi and the other three standing in front of him. He reacted for a moment and laughed loudly, " You're here! Great! I need your help with something! "

Ji Xuanyi was so shocked by the rumbling voice of the dwarf king that he had a headache.

Before he could say anything, the dwarf king had already spoken to stop him. He said, " Help me get the ' fire from Kubo ' . Yes, that ' fire ' . It has been refined in Kubo's place for a long time. It is time to use it. It can't be too early or too late. Go quickly! "

" Not too early, not too late " Ji Xuanyi frowned at this and decided to put off the matter of the elves for later. He turned around and looked at Ming Shao and said, " Don't worry about anything else. Go get that ' fire ' . "

After the Dwarf King finished speaking, the four people present received their tasks, and Kupo's location was marked on the map.

Ming Shao responded, immediately opened the parchment, and ran towards the marked point. Qingfeng Bufu subconsciously wanted to follow him, but was grabbed by Ji Xuanyi's collar. Qingfeng Bufu was confused. Ji Xuan asked, " Why are you going with me on this kind of mission? Are you going to slow me down? "

Except for Ming Shao, the other four people present all have short legs. Rather than following Ming Shao to get the fire, it would be better for them to stay where they are and wait.

Qingfeng Bufu reacted and stayed where he was, feeling rather awkward.

The number of times that the three of them acted separately was relatively small. Although Ming Shao and Ze Yu Sishui, both of whom were agile professionals, often mocked Qingfeng Bufu for his short legs, they rarely left him alone. Even if one of them was not there, the other would team up with Qingfeng Bufu to do missions. Except for one or two times in Green Forest City, the cases where Qingfeng Bufu acted alone were rare.

Ming Shao was obviously a little uncomfortable, as if he had gotten rid of Qingfeng Bufu, the short-legged man, and had abandoned some responsibility he had to bear. He subconsciously looked back and found that Qingfeng Bufu was grabbed by Ji Xuanyi. Then he touched his nose, accelerated and ran, and disappeared from the sight of the three people.

Qing Feng let out a long sigh and said, " I miss my cub ..."

Ze Yu Sishui probably doesn't want to be missed by this person!

Ji Xuanyi didn't want to care too much about the chaotic relationship between Ze, Yu and Sishui's trio. After seeing Ming Shao finally use the true speed of an agile profession, he turned around and looked at the Dwarf King.

The latter was reaching directly out to pull out a half-burned piece of charcoal from the side of the stove and looking at it in front of his eyes.

Maybe dwarves really have thick skin and are not afraid of heat at all.

Ji Xuanyi's face twitched and he said, " Dwarf King, we need your help with something else. " The dwarf king threw the piece of charcoal back into the furnace, looked up at Ji Xuanyi, and said with a smile: " My friend, if you have anything to say, just tell me directly. Don't be polite with me! "

Ji Xuanyi breathed a sigh of relief and said, " The evil god's clone is attacking the shield of Star City. The Mage Tower has limited energy, and it probably won't last long with only one layer of shield. I heard that the dwarves also have something similar. Can you help us open the shield? "

The dwarf king looked at Ji Xuanyi, laughed, and said: " I know! Just wait a little longer, it will be fine! "

Ji Xuan was stunned. He didn't expect it to be so simple. He thought this task would be difficult and would require a lot of effort to persuade people.

But if you think about it carefully, this arrangement makes sense. After all, other players don't have as high a favorability with August as Ji Xuanyi does, and time is tight. Even if they know from August that the dwarves are coming, they still need to find the dwarfs' base on foot – and they may not even have the favorability of the dwarves. They may have to go into the furnace array to find people one by one. If they get there, they will face severe challenges. Not to mention whether there is enough time, the players' mentality will collapse. What a ridiculous activity!

Ji Xuan thought about it and was about to communicate with the Dwarf King about the elves when he heard Qingfeng Bufu suddenly exclaim " Oh shit " .

Ji Xuanyi didn't know what he was talking about. He was just wondering, when he turned around, he saw Ming Shao running back quickly with a bag in his hand. He couldn't help but exclaimed So " , fast ? "

Although they were all within the dwarf encampment and not too far away , they were not close to this extent either. It took Young Master Ming two minutes to go back and forth, or even three minutes. It was too fast. Ji Xuanyi even suspected that the other party had secretly obtained the teleportation skill.

Seeing the expressions of these three people, Master Ming knew what they were thinking, and said speechlessly: " Although I don't usually have the opportunity to show it, I am a fully sensitive archer. "

Ji Xuanyi's three short-legged professions had no way of understanding the speed of Ming Shao, the archer. Although Ji Xuanyi was familiar with the assassin profession and had Mi Yin who was often online by his side, the agility of an assassin and that of an archer were completely different things, which led to Ji Xuanyi being a little ignorant.

He really didn't expect the archer's legs to be so long.

Qingfeng Bufu was a little shocked, and said in a depressed tone: " I have been leveling up with you for such a long time, but I have never seen you run so fast. Am I holding you back? " yes!

Ming Shao almost blurted out these two words, but he held back. He and Ze Yu Sishui were already used to Qingfeng's speed. No matter how slow or how much of a drag, they were still their relatives and friends. A responsible man like Ming Shao would not abandon them easily. However, Young Master Ming was not very good at comforting people. He was silent for a moment, then said awkwardly, " It's okay. Don't think too much. Ze Yu Sishui and I don't dislike you. "

Qingfeng Bufu thought about it, cheered himself up again, and said: " That's right, although I have short legs, I am so handsome and cute after all, and some shortcomings can be tolerated. How could you and Ze Yu Sishui dislike me! "

Young Master Ming: "..."

Goodbye, he's going to die with this thing today.

You are so damn confident!

Before Ming Shao could finish his complaint, Ji Xuan said, " Stop talking nonsense. Did you get the fire back? "

Young Master Ming shook his bag and said, " It's inside. "

Something like fire needs to be refined with ordinary fire for a long time before the temperature will slowly rise. The dwarves were afraid that it would be affected, so they did not dare to use a container that could completely isolate the temperature. So they had to carve a lamp holder-like base out of fire magic stone and put it inside. However, it would still be hot if you held it directly with your hands, so they wrapped the base of the " lamp " in a fireproof bag and asked Ming Shao to bring it over.

In fact, the bag was a little hot because of the fire, but it was still acceptable under the control of the system. Ming Shao's attention was attracted by Qingfeng Bufu just now, and he also felt a little hot at the moment, so he hurriedly handed the bag to the Dwarf King.

The dwarf king quickly opened the bundle, grabbed the handle of the lamp holder, and shook the fire into his stove.

Chapter 124

As soon as the fire entered the furnace , Ji Xuanyi immediately felt the temperature around him rising again . The heat hit his face, but Qi Qin immediately blocked it with his hand.

The fire magic stone could not block much heat. Even the Dwarf King had a large area of the skin on his palm burned black when he grabbed the bottom of the lamp. Even smoke came out, which looked very scary.

But he didn't care . After the fire was put into the furnace, the Dwarf King immediately raised the huge iron hammer placed beside him with both hands and smashed it towards the smelting table next to the furnace.

There was originally a piece of black metal on the smelting table. Because of its inconspicuous appearance and its casual placement, Ji Xuanyi initially thought it was some kind of waste, so he didn't pay much attention to it. However, the moment the fire was put into the furnace , the black metal on the smelting table instantly absorbed the heat of the fire through the magic circle on the smelting table , and suddenly turned into a dazzling golden red color. The dwarf king's hammer immediately hit it, splashing sparks.

Sparks fell like raindrops, and the surrounding temperature was so scorching that Ji Xuanyi could hardly open his eyes, let alone see the movements of the Dwarf King. Qi Qin also saw that he was not in good condition , and hurriedly pulled him behind him to protect him.

" It's very dangerous. " said Ming Shao.

Ji Xuan turned his head one by one and saw that Ming Shao had hidden behind Qi Qin at some point, and Qing Feng Bu Fu was holding his back skillfully.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

It turns out that the idea of being reliable is just an illusion. There is no serious person in this trio! Forging is something that takes a very long time, and the game certainly won't waste players' time on such things. Isn't that crazy? Therefore, the Dwarf King's actions were greatly simplified. In about ten seconds, before Ji Xuanyi and the others could react, the Dwarf King had already forged the things.

" What is this? " Qingfeng Bufu looked at the thing in the dwarf king's hand and said speechlessly: " It doesn't look cool at all. "

Qingfeng Bufu was right. Even Ji Xuanyi could not feel the slightest bit of childishness when facing such a pitch-black iron rod – it just looked like an ordinary stick, and an ugly one at that. The Dwarf King didn't understand Qing Feng Bu Fu's words at all, but he didn't get angry.

Instead, he frowned and looked at the stick in his hand. He said to Ji Xuanyi and others, " Originally, we should polish it a little more and carve some patterns on it to make it look better. But now the situation is urgent and it's a disposable item, so we won't be so particular about it. "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, his brain being confused by the heat, and then he remembered the original purpose of their coming here.

The first thing is to ask the Dwarf King to open the protective shield, and then solve the problem of the elves.

Before Ji Xuanyi could say anything, the Dwarf King said, " I know what you want to say. The situation is urgent. Come with me. "

After saying that, he casually grabbed a dwarf from the side, handed him the fire lamp holder, told him to collect the fire in the stove, and then ran in front of Ji Xuanyi and others with his short legs to lead the way.

The place where the Dwarf King lives is not the center of the Dwarf settlement. Going further in, there is an open space. Although there are still Dwarf guards patrolling, there are no Dwarf houses.

Free from the heat, Ji Xuanyi's brain finally started working again. He thought of the magic circle in the dwarf ruins and seemed to suddenly understand something.

Sure enough, the Dwarf King led them not far before they saw a pitch-black tower about five meters high. At the bottom of the tower was a complex array of patterns, and the tower was covered with enchanted patterns, so densely packed that just one glance at it would cause claustrophobia.

The Dwarf King said: " We have thought of this since we obtained the evil god's clone and prepared to attack the human race. "

The dwarves are a passionate race. Once they made friends with humans, they liked them from the bottom of their hearts and were willing to consider everything for their friends . On the first day of arriving in Starry City, when they saw that the city lord had allocated such a large piece of land for them, the dwarves started building a tower without saying a word.

It was not directly announced in the game, but the plot inserted sporadically in some tasks can be pieced together. When the dwarves first came to Starry City, they took turns sleeping on the bare ground for half a month holding the bedding sent by their human friends. The light of the flames was always bright, and the dwarves' hard shouting could be heard day and night. They didn't even have time to build simple tents for themselves, and they were wholeheartedly building this " tower " to protect their human friends .

However, the switch to open the tower, that is, the stick in the Dwarf King's hand, contains so many materials and great energy that ordinary fire can only simply fuse them. It must have a " spark " burning vigorously to make it take shape.

It was during this period of time when the dwarves were maintaining the fire that they found time to build their own houses.

Although the dwarves are not good-looking, they are the friendliest of the five races, and their tasks are also the simplest. In the setting of this activity, even if the player has never thought of looking for the dwarves, at the last moment, the dwarves will automatically come to the door and take the player to complete the task of opening the protective shield.

In other words, conquering the dwarfs' main city is almost like getting a shield and a prerequisite for free.

Thinking of the scene when the Chongyan Volcano Gate was deserted when the favorability mission for the five races was launched, Ji Xuanyi felt inexplicably sad.

I hope that after this event, players can feel the enthusiasm beneath the rough appearance of the dwarves during the quests, and visit these friends at the Heavy Flames Volcano more often. The Dwarf King looked at the ripples in the sky caused by the evil god's clone, then turned back to Ji Xuan and said, " There are still many things to do after the protective shield is opened. You must come to help when the time comes. "

Ji Xuan nodded, and the dwarf king walked towards the tower. The muscles in his arms bulged, and he climbed up the tower with nimble and quick movements to the top, and inserted the stick in his hand into the groove.

In an instant, a light red beam of light shot out from the top of the tower and rushed straight into the sky. After touching the protective shield upside down above the Starry City, it immediately dissipated, dyeing the originally transparent "bowl" a light pink.

Almost in an instant, the "bowl" that was originally vibrating violently immediately stabilized, and the ripples caused by the attack of the evil god's clone also became weak again.

However, this was obviously not what the Dwarf King had expected. He jumped down from the tower, frowned and looked up at the sky. After a long while, he reluctantly said, "The effect seems to be a little weak. Sure enough, the time is still too short. Give us another month, no, half a month! This shield will be completely solid!"

Ji Xuan thought to himself, the game is set here, no matter how many more months you are given, the elves will need help in the end.

The dwarf king looked at Ji Xuanyi, his eyes flickering, and said, "Two layers of shields can last for a while, but they can't be said to be completely safe."

The dwarves don't like the elves very much. If you ask, every dwarf will tell you that they don't want to deal with elves with nostrils on top of their heads in their entire life. But there is no way. The shield has too much impact. If something goes wrong, not only the reinforcements of the two races stationed in Starry City, but also their human friends will be the ones who suffer the most.

After comparing, his friends were more important. Although the Dwarf King disliked the elves, he could only hold his nose and endure it. He said to Ji Xuan: "Time only allows us to do this. The next thing we need to prepare is to weaken the evil god's clone, but the shield cannot be placed here so unstable."

"You have to go find the elves. They should have a way to reinforce the shield. Although I think their technology is not very good, backward and old-fashioned, but with our shield in front, it's actually just a little short, so just a little repair will do."

The Dwarf King said this with some disdain, then frowned and looked at Ji Xuanyi, and warned him carefully: "The elves are not as kind as us. They have bad tempers and are pretentious. They look down on this and that. They are very annoying. You must be careful when dealing with them. If you are bullied, remember to tell me, I-"

The dwarf king raised his fist as big as a sandbag, and said halfway, probably remembering that it was time to unite against the outside world, he put his hand down angrily and said: "I will help you scold them! Humph!"

Ji Xuanyi was amused by him. If the dwarves really started quarreling with the elves, they would probably kill themselves with their violent tempers. It's better to forget it.

However, since this has been brought up, he will definitely react to what Ji Xuanyi is going to say next, which makes Ji Xuanyi feel a little relieved.

"I've been to the elves' camp." Ji Xuanyi said, "They ran into some trouble over there and were too busy to open the shield."

Hearing that the elves were in trouble, the dwarf king was stunned for a moment. His first reaction was to grin. Then he remembered that the elves were his teammates now! And they were a very crucial part of the battle! He tried his best to hold his mouth shut, and it took him a long time to hold back his laughter.

But he tried to hold back his laughter. The Dwarf King's face was distorted, and his thick lips under his beard were pouting, making him look maliciously cute.

The Dwarf King was so cute that Qingfeng Bufu couldn't help but hold Ming Shao's shoulders. He stood up again after being pushed a bit.

The Dwarf King rubbed his face hard, even pulling out a clump of his beard, and then he calmed down again. However, since he was not usually very calm, it was a bit strange.

The dwarf king sneered, " I knew those elves were going to fail. "

It was obvious between the lines of the other party's words what he actually knew, which surprised Ji Xuanyi a little. He thought that given the relationship between the two races, the dwarves should not be willing to know anything about the elves.

But if you think about it carefully, it is actually quite normal for the dwarves to know what happened to the elves.

The dwarves' talent for forging means they are destined to deal with all kinds of materials throughout their lives. Dwarves must understand both the people who bring these materials and the materials themselves. In terms of erudition, it can be said that apart from the Centaurs who are talented and wise, the dwarves rank second. A human of August's level may not know more niche knowledge than ordinary dwarves.

Just like the branches of the Tree of Life that Ji Xuanyi got, which August didn't know how to use, long before August collected them, some dwarves had already used them to make magic wands.

How could the dwarves, who had used the branches and leaves of the Tree of Life as materials, not know the elves' weak points?

The dwarf king exhaled a breath of air and said in a rather arrogant tone, " They look down on us, but I look down on them too. The so-called free elves are just guards raised by the Elf Mother Tree and the Tree of Life to protect themselves. They are no different from ants that build their nests in trees. They can't leave those two trees at all. "

This is not wrong. Even though the Tree of Life was destroyed, the elves still relied on the Elf Mother Tree. There was no other way. Without the Mother Tree, the elves would perish. And although they had briefly escaped from the control of the Tree of Life, it can be seen from the fact that the Elf King did not make a desperate move to destroy the seeds of the Tree of Life. Even the Elf King who saw through everything was not so firm in his belief in so-called freedom. After all, this race has been bound for so many years, and it is actually not easy to avoid replanting the Tree of Life.

The Dwarf King actually knew this, and in his heart he still admired the Elf King's decision to give up the Tree of Life. However, after all, they were disgusted with each other, so even if he had such an idea, he couldn't say it out loud.

The dwarf king sneered and said, " I thought they were so powerful, but I didn't expect that after all these years, they still haven't figured out a way to get rid of those two trees. "

What solution? Ji Xuanyi was confused for a moment. He thought that the elves had gotten rid of the Tree of Life, but how could they get rid of the mother tree? Would the elves have to give birth to children like humans? Logically speaking, the elves were divided into males and females, so they should have this function, right?

However, Ji Xuanyi was obviously overthinking it. How could the game setting think about the problem from this perspective? It was still the dwarf tribe ... If it was the mermaid tribe, which consists of only males, thinking about this matter, it would be more likely.

The Dwarf King glanced at Ji Xuanyi and said, " In fact, when we knew that the elves were coming to Star City to help, we had already considered this matter in advance just in case. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

The dwarves are really thoughtful. In order to help their friends, they consider every detail very carefully, even taking the guys they hate into consideration!

Ji Xuanyi was speechless. It seemed that the dwarf tribe could change their name and simply call themselves the Doraemon tribe . Everything had been prepared for them.

The dwarf king looked a little excited. He looked at Ji Xuanyi and said, " Could it be that they called you to ask us for help? "

How is that possible? The elves would rather go to the battlefield than ask the dwarves for help! When Ji Xuan thought of the Elf King's expression before, he could only shake his head.

The Dwarf King looked a little regretful, but this was also expected. Moreover, to him, the safety of Starry City was more important. It didn't matter whether the elves came to ask for help or not.

" It doesn't matter if it's not their request. I know they care about their reputation! " The Dwarf King said as if he didn't care about them. He completely forgot that the Dwarves care about their reputation more than the Elves. He said carelessly: " Anyway, given the current situation, they will still have to use it with a shameless face if we send it to them. "

Ji Xuanyi asked quickly: " Do you have a solution? "

The dwarf king said proudly: " Of course, dwarves can do anything! This is just a small matter, how can it be difficult for us? We have already prepared it, and it is in my room. Let's go! "

Seeing that the Dwarf King was about to become so arrogant because the elves needed his help, Ji Xuanyi laughed and led everyone to follow the Dwarf King back to the dwarf encampment.

Ji Xuanyi felt that his IQ was declining as the temperature rose.

Fortunately, before Ji Xuanyi completely lost the ability to think, the Dwarf King brought them to his residence.

One thing that makes the Dwarf King more people-friendly than other dwarves is that the size of his house is very friendly to humans. Except for Qi Qin who needs to bend down slightly, everyone else can walk in normally. The Dwarf King ran all the way to his bed, rummaged through a pile of materials, and took a long time to take out two emerald green potted plants. Ji Xuanyi's first reaction was that it was incredible that there were plants that could survive at this temperature. The next time he took a look, he discovered that the two potted plants were emitting a faint fluorescence. They were not real living plants, but were made by the Dwarf King using rare materials.

Qing Feng Bu Fu was surprised and said, " Wow, this craftsmanship is amazing. The setting of the dwarves is not just about forging weapons, it feels like all the craftsmanship skills are maxed out! "

Moreover, although the dwarves themselves are not particular about their appearance, their aesthetic taste is actually very up to date with the trend. Even if the weapons produced by the dwarves are of white quality, there will be a lot of players who want to collect them.

Ji Xuan thought about it and told Qingfeng Bufu and Ming Shao that if the favorability level was reached, the dwarves would help with making equipment. Both of them were stunned.

After all, this is a world where appearance matters. Many players don't want to know about the dwarves at all, let alone the fact that the dwarves' favorability has this kind of use.

Just when Ming Shao was seriously considering whether to collect strategy posts and think about which weapon to make, Qingfeng said seriously: " Can we only make weapons? Can we make action figures? I really want an action figure of a character, but it's too damn expensive. I can't get one in the three-dimensional world. Can I have some fun in the game? It's okay to exchange it for an artifact when it's available! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Sorry, he really couldn't understand Qingfeng Bufu's train of thought ... What the hell are these people! What on earth are you guys here for?

The veins on Ji Xuanyi's forehead were throbbing, and he felt that he was going to die from a burst blood vessel in the next second. Qi Qin saw that Ji Xuanyi was not in a good state and was about to coax him, but Ji Xuanyi could no longer bear it and drew out his staff to beat Qingfeng Bufu violently.

Qingfeng Bufu subconsciously wanted to go behind Ming Shao. Ming Shao was not stupid. Did he want to be beaten with him? He ran away without saying a word. Qingfeng Bufu could not catch up with him at all. Ji Xuan pressed him to the ground and rubbed him hard.

After Ji Xuanyi calmed down, Ming Shao ran back slowly, kicked Qingfeng Bufu on the ground, and asked coldly: " Are you still alive? "

Qing Feng looked at him with resentment and said, " My heart is dead since the moment you left me. "

Ming Shao: " Oh. "

Qing Feng Bu Fu said angrily: " What's your attitude? Divorce! "

Young Master Ming said, " Don't make a fuss. Ze Yu Sishui is still young. Let's wait until he finishes college. "

Qing Feng Bu Fu cried, " Last time you said you would wait until he got married, but now he's in college. Don't you love me anymore? Sob ..."

The two of them suddenly started to perform, which made Ji Xuanyi frown. He couldn't help but interrupt and said, " Can you two stop for a moment? Are you two performing crosstalk? "

Ming Shao and Qingfeng Bufu finally reacted, glared at each other, and stopped.

Qing Feng did not say anything more, but he still did not give up, and said weakly: " Um, the figurine ..."

Ji Xuan looked at him coldly. Qing Feng Bu Fu shuddered, but dared not say a word.

After a moment, Ji Xuan said, " Is it useful to ask me this kind of question? Go call customer service, or you can ask them yourself. "

Qingfeng Bufu was stunned for a moment, then his eyes lit up.

While the group of people were arguing, the Dwarf King had already come over with two potted plants.

" You send these two things to the Elf King, he will know how to use them. " The Dwarf King said, thinking that the elves must use their things, he couldn't help laughing again, his back teeth almost showing.

Ji Xuan nodded and was about to reach out to take it, but the Dwarf King said again: " Wait. "

Ji Xuanyi withdrew his hand in confusion, and saw the dwarf king squatting down, putting two potted plants on the ground, rubbing his hands together, and rubbing them on his dirty pants, then taking out a carving knife from the tool bag on his waist.

Before Ji Xuanyi could react, he saw the Dwarf King pick up a potted plant and start carving on the pot, laughing as he carved.

Ji Xuanyi walked around to the side of the Dwarf King and saw that there were a few more words on the originally smooth and flawless flowerpot.

" Produced by ordinary dwarf craftsmen . "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Dwarf King, is your setting so childish?

But it should be very useful. Ji Xuanyi has already imagined the Elf King's beautiful face and what kind of expression he would show when he saw these two sentences ...

Chapter 125

The shield of the dwarves has been opened , and Ming Shao and Qing Feng Bu Fu's mission has been completed , although the two of them did not contribute much except for the crosstalk ...

" We have done the preliminary work, but there are still many follow-up tasks. We have to return to the main force . It is too difficult for the gang leader to have only Ze Yu Sishui on his side. " said Ming Shao.

That's true. Ze Yu Sishui's little cleverness might not be able to fill the hole in Liu Tian's brain. Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Let's go our separate ways from here. "

" There's no need to split up for now, " Qingfeng Bufu and Ji Xuanyi couldn't see each other because of Ming Shao between them , so they had to stretch their heads and say, " Aren't you going to the southeast area? I don't know how the large group over there got there, but they're almost at the entrance to the inner city . It's actually closer for us to go all the way to the inner city with you guys. "

Ji Xuanyi glanced at Ming Shao, and Ming Shao nodded, indicating that Qingfeng Bufu was telling the truth.

They had agreed to start a carpet search from the edge, but why did Liu Tian suddenly run to the entrance of the inner city ? Ji Xuanyi expressed his incomprehension.

However, since the object includes six days , it is normal that he cannot understand it. Understanding it will ruin the dish. Ji Xuanyi gave up thinking and said, " Okay , then rent a four-person carriage. After arriving in the inner city, I will take another carriage with Tianxia. "

Qing Feng Bu Fu cheered and said, " Great , no need to pay for the ride! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Young Master Ming: "..."

So you said all that just to get a ride!

At the same time, Ji Xuanyi cast a suspicious look at Ming Shao.

Ming Shao: " I'm not, I didn't..."

Ming Shao felt so wronged. He really just thought that it would be fine if they walked together. He was not short of money at all! It was a pity that no matter how much he said, it was useless. Ji Xuanyi no longer believed him!

Mr. Ming, your reputation continues to suffer.

The four of them got on the carriage and headed towards the inner city together. Ji Xuanyi also did not forget to inform those who were originally responsible for the Jing Yunhan Dwarf Base in the northwest area that the mission was now open and they could go and do it.

After Ming Shao got on the carriage, he asked Ze Yu Sishui about the situation. Ze Yu Sishui said that the direction close to the inner city is also the edge of the southwest area, and many people are evacuating to the inner city, so there might be more tasks blocked from this end. It sounds somewhat reasonable, but the fact that there are more areas close to the inner city also means that the tasks and coordinate changes will be greater after the protective shield is opened. However, it was not Ji Xuanyi who was in a panic at that time, and he was too lazy to remind them.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin originally planned to separate from Ming Shao and the others after entering the inner city, but when they were halfway there, news came from Jing Yunhan that an important task seemed to have been found. Ji Xuanyi thought about it and decided that there was plenty of time anyway, so he decided to go with the two of them to take a look.

Speaking of time, it is also very interesting. The dwarves can only be regarded as an insurance to ensure that the task will be completed. In fact, in most cases, the time for players to complete the task normally should be when the shield is about to break. Only in this case can it bring the sense of mission and urgency that the official wants to achieve.

But in the original setting, even if a layer of protection is opened, the situation is still critical, and the player must rush to the elves, who are stationed somewhere unknown. While running around, the sense of saving the world will be very strong.

But no one probably expected that in this event, in addition to the helpful dwarves, Ji Xuanyi also had an omniscient August, which ultimately caused this important mission that was originally full of immersion to become like a spring outing. He had plenty of time to even look at what kind of messed up mission Liu Tian was doing.

When Ji Xuanyi and others arrived, Liu Tian and Ze Yu Sishui were leading a group of people to surround a woman, looking like villains who were going to rob her, which scared her out of her wits.

Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " What are you doing? "

When Ze Yu Sishui heard his voice, he stood up straight, stared at him with his big eyes, and said, " Xiao Ji! You're here! Come and see! "

" What are you looking at? Are you here to see how you rob people? " Ji Xuanyi complained as he walked over with the other three people.

Ze Yu Sishui originally wanted to refute him, but he forgot about it when he saw Ming Shao and Qingfeng Bufu behind him. He angrily complained to the two of them for leaving him behind and running out to play.

The three of them started chattering . Ji Xuan shook his head and hesitated for a moment. In order to save time, he let the six days pass with a silly look on his face.

Seeing Ji Xuanyi coming over, the people from the three major gangs very consciously made way for them. Seeing that there was space, they immediately wanted to rush out with the bags in their hands, but Ji Xuanyi happened to be walking over there, and they couldn't bump into them, so they had to retreat back, looking at him nervously and fearfully.

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows. This person is very intelligent, maybe he is really an important character. I don't know what kind of luck this idiot Liu Tian had to block him.

Liu Tian probably felt that he didn't look like a good guy, so when he saw Ji Xuanyi coming over, he explained awkwardly, " When Ze Yu Sishui and I came here, we met someone. After I ran errands for him, he gave us this prop. "

As he spoke, Liu Tian took out a dazzlingly bright spherical gem and said to Ji Xuan: " This thing can detect the magical power around it. "

After hearing what Liu Tian said, Ji Xuanyi understood that in this game background, if one wanted to defeat the evil god's clone, at least 70% of the props and tasks would be related to magic. Liu Tian was lucky, and the thing he got in his hand could be said to be a powerful tool for finding tasks.

Liu Tiandao: " This thing originally had no light, but it suddenly lit up when it passed by. There must be something in her bag, but no matter how I talked to her, she ignored me and was unwilling to open the bag. I was afraid that she would run away, so I had to block her here. "

It doesn't matter even if he runs away, just find someone to follow him. Why let so many people block him and prevent him from leaving, isn't this crazy?

Ji Xuanyi suddenly realized something and looked at Liu Tian with raised eyebrows.

Liu Tian smacked his lips and said, " Well, I just don't want her to run to the inner city. The inner city is under the control of Xu Chu. If he accomplishes this task, he will definitely show off in front of me again! "

I swear to God, apart from liking to call Liu Tian an idiot, Xu Chu doesn't really like to show off in front of Liu Tian. It's all Liu Tian's imagination.

However, Ji Xuanyi didn't want to get involved in the feud between him and Xu Chu, so he didn't say anything, only saying: " Did you really communicate well with him? "

Liu Tian rolled his eyes and said, " I usually have a bad temper, but I won't take it out on you. I've said all the good and bad things to you. Ze Yu Sishui was even shameless enough to act like a spoiled child to me, but it was useless. She just didn't want to open her bag. "

Ji Xuan glanced at Ze Yu Sishui, who was talking to Qingfeng Bufu.

Qing Feng Bu Fu exclaimed: " Wow, you haven't seen the Dwarf King's craftsmanship, it's amazing, if you increase his favorability, you can even ask him to help you make equipment! "

Ze Yu Sishui was really surprised: " Wow ... But I have enough equipment, and my craftsmanship is great, so can you make a figurine? If it's not free, I can pay for it! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

They are indeed mother and son!

Noticing that Ji Xuanyi was looking at this side, Ming Shao silently stood a little further away from Ze Yu Sishui and the others .

Ji Xuan pulled Ze Yu Sishui, who was still chatting nonsense with Qingfeng Bufu, over and asked him about that matter. Ze Yu Sishui was relatively reliable and confirmed with him that he had said everything he could, but he was very resistant.

Ji Xuan took a look and found that the other party was looking at them warily, looking up at the sky from time to time, with fear in his eyes. He almost understood what was going on.

" It's because the preparations haven't been completed yet, " Ji Xuan said, " This does have important items, but I guess we have to wait until the elves' shield is opened and she calms down completely before she will pay attention to you. "

Liu Tian and Ze Yu Sishui showed expressions of sudden enlightenment. In fact, if Ji Xuanyi had come a little later, the idiot Liu Tian would have been ready to snatch the package from their hands.

Ji Xuan said, " It's rare to find one. Pick a few of you to hold her steady . The rest of you can continue. We are about to open the elf's protective shield. You can talk to her directly when the time comes. "

After thinking for a while, Ji Xuanyi added: " Remember to tell her about the shield. Let her know that she is safe. Only then will she pay attention to you. "

Ze Yu Sishui's eyes lit up and he said, " Are you going to look for the elves? Just now, Ming Shao and Qing Feng Bu Fu went out to play, so why don't you take me with you now? "

Ji Xuanyi rejected him coldly.

Seeing Liu Tian in such a bad condition, Ming Shao and Qing Feng Bu Fu couldn't keep him stable , so it would be better for Ze Yu Si Shui to stay.

" There are relatively fewer dwarves and elves in the southwest and northeast regions, and your tasks should be less than those of the other two regions. When you are almost done, remember to send people to support the other two regions. " Ji Xuanyi gave his final instructions, and then pulled Qi Qin to the southeast region.

Because they had been to the elves' tribe once and were familiar with the route, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin met the Elf King again not long after.

The Elf King's face still looked pale, and when he saw Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin coming back, his eyes flickered, but he didn't say anything. Ji Xuanyi guessed that the other party should have known about the dwarves a long time ago, but as the Dwarf King said, he couldn't save face. Now that he knew that the solution was in Ji Xuanyi's hands, he still endured it and pretended to be calm.

In terms of personality, the dwarves are far superior to the elves, but there is nothing we can do about it, since the elves are beautiful. Humans are such superficial animals.

Even if the Elf King has no expression on his face, just looking at you with those eyes, few people can bear it, not to mention that Ji Xuanyi doesn't want to bear it either, he still has to complete the task.

Ji Xuanyi took out the two potted plants given to him by the Dwarf King from his backpack. The Elf King on the throne was stunned for a moment and subconsciously leaned forward. Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to walk forward and hand the two potted plants to the Elf King.

The Elf King's eyes, which had been glued to the potted plant, finally shifted to Ji Xuanyi. He looked at Ji Xuanyi with a gentle gaze and said, " Thank you, you really helped me a lot this time. "

He didn't mention anything about the dwarves, so Ji Xuanyi didn't mention it either.

The Elf King took two potted plants from Ji Xuanyi's hand. He seemed to remember something and had a complicated expression , not knowing whether he was happy or regretful. After a long time, he reached out his hand and carefully stroked the bottom of the flowerpot.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Finished.

As expected, when the Elf King touched the words on the flowerpot, he was stunned at first, then his face froze after he turned it over and saw it clearly.

The words of the Dwarf King were engraved quite large. Ji Xuanyi even chose the angle to prevent them from being revealed, but still couldn't hide it.

If another elf was here, he would probably smash the two potted plants. Fortunately, the Elf King was relatively gentle. He also understood how important these two potted plants were to the elves. His hands holding the potted plants trembled for a long time, but finally he stabilized them. Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but look away, coughed, and said, " Are you okay? "

The Elf King didn't even dare to put the potted plant on the table, so he placed it on his legs, rubbed his forehead with one hand, and said, " Ah, thank you, and thank the dwarves ..."

Just from the Elf King's expression, Ji Xuanyi could guess that the other party must be complaining in his heart.

But that's another matter. The dwarves are willing to help the elves in this situation. Although the elves don't like the dwarves very much, they are also a race that knows how to repay kindness. Although the two sides dislike each other, their relationship should ease up afterwards. Ji Xuanyi looked at the Elf King and said, " How do you use this thing? Do you need our help? "

The Elf King looked at him, shook his head, and said, " We can handle the rest ourselves. Once these two trees are working, we can open our protective shield. "

Ji Xuan nodded.

The Elf King carefully picked up the two potted plants and said to Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, " The next step is to find a way to weaken the power of the evil god's clone outside . You can stay in the elves to help. "

Ji Xuanyi and the others had also heard these words from the Dwarf King. No matter what, this meant that the preliminary protective tasks as a means of appeasement had been completed, and all tasks in the city, as long as they did not require any minor prerequisites, should have been opened.

Ji Xuanyi replied: " We understand. "

The most urgent task has been completed, and the next task is actually more casual. Time is not so tight. Ji Xuanyi has no plans to stay with the two reinforcements to continue the mission. He plans to hang out in other places with Qi Qin.

The activities in the three stages are calculated based on points, and rewards will be distributed after the end. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin's points are actually much higher than others, so he is not in a hurry.

After the Elf King spoke to them, he allowed them to move freely in the Elf Station, but he left first with the two potted plants. After a while, Ji Xuanyi saw a light green beam of light rising from the Elf Station, like the dwarf's shield, which dispersed when it touched the " bowl " and reinforced the shield again.

The pre-defense mission was launched, and the people in Star City who were originally in a panic finally calmed down and began to return to their posts to provide tasks for the players. Ji Xuanyi's private chat channel was flooded with messages from the people from the three major gangs. In addition to saying that he was awesome and completed the task quickly, there were also messages from Liu Tian's group, saying that they were really willing to pay attention to them and would give them the props in the package in exchange for a little money.

Liu Tian was so excited that he filled Ji Xuanyi's screen with just one " ha ". But it was not easy. This was probably the first time that this kid had surpassed Xu Chu in such a thing. He was almost going crazy with joy.

When Ji Xuan saw Liu Tian like this, he felt that he probably wouldn't meet people from the three major gangs for a while. He didn't want to see Xu Chu and Liu Tian's kindergarten-style quarrel at all.

What Liu Tian got was a weakening item, which can reduce the BOSS 's defense by 5% after use. Ji Xuanyi guessed that there should be another item of the same kind. According to the BOSS 's health, the defense reduction can be at least accumulated to 50%.

As Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked outside the elves' camp, he looked up at the gloomy sky and couldn't help thinking that the discord between the elves and the dwarves was truly reflected in various aspects.

The protective shield of the dwarves is red, and that of the elves is green. The two colors are injected into a transparent " bowl " and mixed into a very disgusting gray. Although it is safe, the sky above the Starry City is now overcast, even more apocalyptic than the previous apocalyptic color scheme. It is simply mental pollution. Although they have settled down because of the settings, the players all have pale faces, as if something strange will suddenly fall from the sky. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin also had this feeling. Ji Xuanyi only looked up from time to time, while Qi Qin almost walked with his head tilted back, relying entirely on Ji Xuanyi to hold his hand and almost bumped into the wall.

However, although the color is disgusting, the quality of the " bowl " is still fine. In the end, the players gradually got used to it and just treated it as a cloudy day with more clouds.

BUFFs and props one after another .

In addition to the people from the three major gangs, some players also contacted people from the three major gangs and said that although they could not hand in their own quest items, they could cooperate with the command and use them.

Not long after the shield was opened, Ji Xuanyi received seven or eight pieces of information about props from the three major gangs.

"The collection speed is no problem," Xiao Xiaoyu said to Ji Xuan, "but when do we start the attack?"

Ji Xuanyi said: "You can start when you feel it is enough."

Xiao Xiaoyu's cheeks twitched when she received the news. What kind of answer is this? No one has ever beaten this BOSS before. Who knows when it will be enough? What if we find that the buff is not enough when we start fighting? It will be too late to complete the task at that time!

Ji Xuanyi knew what the other party was thinking, and after he finished speaking, he explained: "There are many props that players can get. The independent players who contact the three major gangs actually only get a small part of the props. In fact, the props in the hands of players are much more than what you have, so as long as you think you have enough, it is definitely enough. Before the fight starts, just refresh the screen on the map channel to let the independent players know that you are ready to fight."

After all, this is a city-wide event. Although the three major gangs are the leaders of Star City, they only play a leading role and cannot fully represent the entire city. However, everyone seems to forget this point easily and regards these activities as their own responsibilities, taking them all on their shoulders. Every time, they have to wait for Ji Xuanyi to remind them before they can react.

Although everyone gets a lot of props and BUFFs, and many will take the initiative to chat with players and contribute their strength, the activity cannot be that simple. Among these props, except for the ones obtained in Liu Tian that can directly weaken the BOSS, most of them are actually ordinary attack props and healing props. The damage and healing amount are actually only slightly higher than the player's skills. It can only be said that it is better than nothing.

also some props and BUFFs that affect friendly forces, which can be used by both players and enemies. Ji Xuanyi suggested that they take these props and use them directly on the elf guard, or the kings of the two races, or August. In short, give them to whoever is the most powerful. If they must give them to players, then give them directly to Qi Qin at the beginning, or they can give them to Xue Piao Renjian.

Speaking of Xue Piao Renjian, this big brother is also very miserable. When the event just started today, when Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu were discussing the manpower, Xu Chu was unwilling to send him out, saying that Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin should protect his safety together. Unexpectedly, as soon as Xue Piao Renjian came online in the afternoon, he was spawned in Yueri City.

It was only at this time that everyone remembered that the household registration transfer function had not yet been activated, and Xue Piao Renjian was still a resident of Yueri City! Without saying a word, Mi Yin hid and went out through the northwest gate that had never been blocked by the BOSS to meet Xue Piao Renjian. Poor Xu Chu had to act alone in the end. Fortunately, the inner city was very safe and nothing would happen.

Ji Xuanyi estimated that the current situation in Fanxing City was probably the best in the entire region and the entire server. There was no shortage of time at all . If they wanted to be safe, Xiaoxiao Yuxia would schedule the fight to start tomorrow or the day after tomorrow at the earliest, and Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian would still be able to make it back.

Ji Xuanyi thought about it again and felt that it didn't matter whether Xue Piao Renjian could come back or not.

Anyway, Qi Qin is the most powerful person in the world, so having Qi Qin is enough!

Chapter 126

The progress of Star City is the fastest among the three main cities . Ji Xuanyi guessed that even if the progress of the entire region and server was compared, Star City on Server 2 would probably be at the forefront.

The three major gangs and individual players have a clear division of labor and are advancing the tasks in the map in an orderly manner . After Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian returned to the team, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia directly handed over the responsibility of the southeast area to them , and he himself was responsible for the statistics of the BUFFs obtained by the three major gangs and the individual players who were willing to obey his orders .

Although he didn't have to run missions outside, it was obvious that this job was more hair-draining . When Xiao Xiaoyuxia crawled out from the statistical paper dying and announced the cessation of the mission, and the whole city began to prepare for a counterattack, Ji Xuanyi seemed to be able to see the reflection on the other party's head!

If Xiaoxiao Yuxia gets bald from playing games , she will probably get an A, right? Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but think worriedly.

Members of the three major gangs quickly gathered together under orderly command, but the individual players were in some confusion. Some of them saw the map and shouted, some did not ; some knew where to gather , and some did not know the way at all. They were mixed together in a motley crowd , and many intersections were blocked.

If someone looked down at the Starry City from above at this time, they would see a large group of confused individual players , running around aimlessly like ants on a hot pot.

The open space inside the Starry City was not that big, and Xiaoxiao Yuxia didn't have the energy to line up the individual players again like she did for the previous world quest .

Fortunately, joining in the fun was an instinct, and although many individual players didn't know what was going on, when they saw a large group of people gathered together, they subconsciously followed suit. After a while, a team of sufficient size, although not very decent, was organized.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia looked at the situation from above, then came down and said on both the guild channel and the map channel at the same time: " Let's go! "

Led by the three major gangs, the Star City team moved in a mighty manner. The gloomy sky did not affect the players' fighting spirit. Everyone had an excited expression on their face and was full of anticipation for the upcoming battle.

In fact, the situation was pretty much what Ji Xuanyi had expected. After the player had used up all the items in his hand, the DEBUFF on the BOSS had already been arranged into three full rows. The defense, attack power, and movement speed had all been weakened to a very pitiful level. Coupled with the player's enhanced items, the BOSS 's terrifyingly high health volume was like nothing.

All the powerful ones, including the Dwarf King, the Elf King and August, stood in the front to attack the BOSS . The players were encouraged by them and seemed to be full of blood, attacking the BOSS madly . Qi Qin, who had received some buffs, served as the main tank in the front to carry the monsters. The whole battle was unexpectedly fast.

The final decisive battle was so easy that it was mind-boggling. It only took three hours from the start to the end. Except for some unlucky guys who stood too far away from the nurse and returned to the resurrection point, the casualties in Starry City were almost negligible.

the BOSS finally fell and the players accumulated points according to their contributions, everyone was stunned. They didn't expect everything to be so simple. After a long time, everyone cheered thunderously under the leadership of the Dwarf King.

" It's not over yet, " August said amid the cheers, as if he was in another world. He calmly held his staff, which was as tall as a man, and looked into the distance with deep eyes. He whispered, " There are greater challenges waiting for us. "

Ji Xuanyi glanced at August and realized that he was talking about the upcoming third stage, which was the final battle between the players and the final BOSS .

The next battle will not be as easy as this time. There will be no help from others, and no so many weird buffs . The next battle will be the players', and everything will require their own strength.

the BOSS in the other two main cities must be defeated first.

The Starry City has returned to its original state. Everyone has returned to their posts and the protective shield has finally been removed. Although the weather is not as clear as before due to the impending storm, it is still much better than the cloudy effect brought by the strangely colored protective shield.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia gathered everyone together again to discuss whether or not to go and help the other two main cities.

There will definitely be points rewards for assisting other main cities in completing tasks, but to some extent, Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others don't really care about these rewards.

" Anyway, there's no need to think about helping Day City. We're already good at not stabbing them in the back, so we can consider helping them ... Youyue City , " Jian Xi Xinjiu said, and after thinking for a while, he confirmed, " Youyue City's aid is all from the mermaids, right? "

Everyone looked at Jian Xi's new wine silently.

Jing Yunhan reminded: " The Elf King is still in Star City. "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

Jian Xi Xin Jiu coughed dryly, frowned and said seriously: " Who do you all think I am? Yes, I am a single gay man, but I am not a beast to the point of attacking you! "

Jing Yunhan whispered, " It's not time for you to give flowers to the Elf King. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu pretended not to hear.

Ji Xuanyi leaned towards Qi Qin and whispered, " He is indeed a beast. Fortunately, he didn't see the sick Elf King. "

Qi Qin nodded sympathetically.

Seeing that Jian Xixinjiu was about to lose face, Xiao Xiaoyu cleared his throat and said, " Youyue City can indeed help. With the current strength of the three main cities, there will definitely not be a three-way confrontation. Youyue City will definitely form an alliance with one of us or Day City. "

Xiao Xiaoyu glanced at Ji Xuanyi and said, " Didn't you come into contact with people over there during the first phase of your activities? It's reasonable for us to help them, right? "

Ji Xuan looked at Xiao Xiao Yu Xia and said, " There is nothing wrong with contacting people, but it is not reasonable for us to help them. "

Xiaoxiaoyu was stunned.

The points gained from helping the other two main cities were not actually a big gain. It would be a waste of manpower within Fanxing City, and some individual players might even be dissatisfied. The reason why he proposed to aid Youyue City was because Ji Xuanyi had informed him that Youyue City was ready to stand on their side. So, based on the alliance's position, he was ready to show his sincerity and go to aid Youyue City.

Unexpectedly, Ji Xuanyi, who delivered the message to him, actually said that he should not go.

" What does this mean? " Xiaoxiao Yuxia said in confusion.

Xu Chu propped up his chin and smiled, saying, " Maybe it's because he wants to cheat Day City? "

Xu Chu's face didn't look good. Liu Tian had been bragging in front of him for a long time about getting the first task before him. Although Xu Chu was usually quite calm, he reacted quite strongly to Liu Tian's matter. He hadn't skipped any games for the past two days, which made him a little exhausted.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was stunned for a moment when she heard this and looked at Xu Chu.

Xu Chu yawned and said, " He has already been in contact with the people of Youyue City secretly, how could he not have any plan at all? There is only one possibility for not helping Youyue City, and that is that he does not want to let Youri City know that Youyue City is actually on our side. When Youri City is ready to attack, Youyue City will suddenly turn against us, which will be much more effective than standing on our side from the beginning. "

Xiao Xiaoyu finally reacted and said to Ji Xuan: " In this situation, we really can't help Youyue City, but have you discussed this with them? "

Regardless of whether Youyue City has reacted or not, the most basic notification still needs to be given. If they don't react, it's a reminder, and if they do react, it's a sign of respect.

Ji Xuanyi didn't think so carefully. He hesitated for a moment before saying, " Okay, I'll just say it over there, but there's one thing I need to correct. "

" Youyue City is only temporarily on our side in this matter. Rather than helping us completely, their attitude is more inclined to not interfere, that is, not helping Sun City. The leader of the Dance Gang in Youyue City still has his own ideas. It can't be said that there is a three-way balance of power, but he would rather be a neutral party that does not participate in any disputes than to be a camp that is hostile to the other two main cities at the same time. "

Ji Xuan looked at Xiao Xiao Yuxia who was frowning and said, " But the commander of Youyue City is willing to help us in a private capacity, which shows his position. "

Ji Xuanyi was referring to this matter when he said that it was neither reasonable nor moral to help Youyue City. Morally, it was to avoid exposing Youyue City's true position. Emotionally, as they were the absolutely neutral party, Fanxing City had no obligation to help. And Youyue City probably wasn't willing to accept Fanxing City's help.

Xiao Xiaoyuxia was a little unhappy when he heard this. He thought that Youyue City had sided with them, but he didn't expect that the other party was still neutral. To be honest, if it weren't for Ji Xuanyi, Xiao Xiaoyuxia would probably be like the other gang leaders and try to pull Youyue City to their side completely. After all, Youyue City's strength was not enough to make Xiao Xiaoyuxia afraid of them. The so-called neutrality was also very dangerous. It was impossible to say what the situation would be like in the future. Of course, for a force like this, it would be reassuring only if they became one's own brothers.

But Ji Xuanyi said these words so calmly here, which means that he has no objection to Youyue City's position. If Xiaoxiao Yuxia wants to change the status quo, not to mention stopping him, but at least Ji Xuanyi will definitely not help him.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia had suffered a loss before, and although she was a little unhappy at the moment, she had no intention of challenging Ji Xuanyi's temper. She just frowned and comforted herself for a long time: " The command's position can also reflect the position of Youyue City to a certain extent. Although it is neutral, it is at least more inclined to us ... Oh, forget it, let it be. "

Xu Chu looked at Xiao Xiao Yu Xia and couldn't help but sneered, saying: " Xiao Xiao Yu Xia, what are you thinking about? I'm afraid your head is not bald enough? "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Xiao Xiaoyu looked unhappy, but what Xu Chu said was right. If he continued to worry about things so ambitiously, he would soon become bald .

Xiaoxiao wiped her face in the rain and shook her hands, indicating that she didn't want to get involved anymore. You should discuss it yourselves.

Ji Xuanyi didn't care what Xiao Xiao Yuxia was thinking. Xiao Xiao Yuxia was a smart man. After knowing Ji Xuanyi's strength and influence, she would not be so foolish as to make him angry. After Ji Xuanyi finished talking to Xiao Xiao Yuxia, he concentrated on contacting the old western doctor.

The protective shield in Youyue City had just been opened, and the old Western doctor was busy leading people to run around the map to complete tasks. Fortunately, he was a priest, so he didn't have to walk by himself, he could just sit on the knight's horse. After receiving Ji Xuanyi's message, he was still able to free up his hands to reply.

[Ji Xuanyi] : The mission of Star City has been completed, but we will not come to help this time, understand?

The old western doctor stared at the chat channel in silence for a while, then replied: " I understand. "

Ji Xuanyi's tone sounded more like someone who was looking for trouble rather than a notice. Fortunately, the old Western doctor had discussed it with Ye Linyu in advance, otherwise there might have been a quarrel.

After being sent back to Youyue City by the system, the old Western doctor's first reaction was to beat Ye Linyu up. However, Ye Linyu was a swordsman with thick skin and tough flesh, and the priest's strength had no effect on him. It was like a small fist hitting his chest. Ye Linyu just stood there and let the old Western doctor hit him, which made the old Western doctor very angry.

However, although he was angry, he still remembered the important matter. He reported to Ye Linyu everything that happened after he went to the Lost Forest.

" You were a little worried before that we could only get reinforcements from one race, so it would be hard to defeat the boss . Although our position is not so clear, if the Star City is defeated in advance, they will definitely be willing to help us, " the old western doctor patted his chest and proudly took credit, " I hope you can remember that this is the help I, who is loved by everyone, fought for. Be nice to me in the future and don't send me to do dirty, tiring and scolding work anymore! "

Ye Linyu looked at the old western doctor with a smile, and said without even a perfunctory answer: " That won't work. We are short of manpower in the city. If you don't go, no one will go. "

Old Western doctor: "..."

The old western doctor said expressionlessly: " The talks have failed. Goodbye. I'm going to tell Ji Xuanyi that Youyue City is preparing to break off relations with Fanxing City. Don't send reinforcements. Let Youyue City and the Dog Gang Leader die together. "

Ye Linyu just looked at him with a smile. The old western doctor had already opened the chat channel, and the other party had no intention of stopping him.

Old Western Doctor: "... Gou Biye Linyu, are you sure that I won't take risks with Youyue City? " Ye Linyu looked at him and shook his head, " No, everything you do is beyond my expectations. I didn't stop you not because I thought you wouldn't contact the other party, but because it doesn't matter whether you contact or not. "

" Youyue City does not need and cannot accept help from Fanxing City. If Ji Xuanyi is as smart as you said, then he would never have asked Fanxing City to help us from the beginning. It doesn't matter whether you contact him or not. "

The old western doctor was stunned, frowned and said: " What do you mean? "

Ye Linyu looked at him for a while, shook his head helplessly, and said: " Look, with your IQ, what else can you do besides doing dirty and tiring work and getting scolded? "

Old Western doctor: "... see you later! "

Of course it was impossible for him to meet with the old western doctor. Although Ye Linyu sometimes liked to make fun of the old western doctor, under such circumstances, he would still explain everything to the old western doctor, including the plans for the two main cities and the neutral position of Youyue City.

" If Ji Xuanyi could think of this, Fanxing City would not come to Youyue City to help, " Ye Linyu spread his hands towards the old western doctor and made a gesture of invitation: " If you want to contact him, just contact him, it's okay. "

Old Western doctor: "..."

Now that things have come to this, how could he possibly contact Ji Xuanyi again? Because he had personally worked on missions with the other party for a period of time, and since the other party had specifically mentioned Daytime City, the old Western doctor still had confidence in Ji Xuanyi's brain. In his opinion, if there was anyone smarter than Ji Xuanyi, it would probably be Ye Linyu, and it was unlikely that the other party would not consider this aspect.

The other person was not prepared to help in the first place, and he misunderstood it first. Now he ran over and told him not to come. Isn't this obviously telling the other person that he is being too sentimental?

It was so embarrassing that the old Western doctor refused to contact Ji Xuanyi.

However, even though he made his point clear, the old Western doctor still couldn't help but complain a little when he started the task.

I don't know whether he was blaming himself or Ye Linyu. In his opinion, what was the point of absolute neutrality? It would be better to call Ji Xuanyi for help!

Although Youyue City only has one aid and the BOSS 's weakening BUFF is one-third less than that of Starry City, this also means that their task is relatively simple to some extent – which is how it should be.

Unfortunately, the aid from Youyue City comes from the mermaids. The old western doctor dares to swear that this race is definitely the most difficult to deal with among the five major races.

Because the mermaids can only live in the sea, so when they were refreshed in Youyue City, all the passages in Youyue City were dug out halfway, becoming half land and half water. A ditch of more than ten meters was also dug outside the entire Youyue City, and it was filled with sea water. The old western doctor who couldn't swim walked on the road and felt that he was going to die.

In fact, the water route alone would not have made the old Western doctor become like this. After all, although the old Western doctor was a landlubber, he still had to take a bath every day. His fear of water was not so strong when the water was shallow. The bad thing was that the mermaids had a particularly bad habit.

They like to drag people into it.

In fact, the mermaids are good-looking, and under normal circumstances they will not do anything to harm the players after forming an alliance. They drag people into the water just as a joke. Even if some players are scared, they will definitely not be angry after seeing the mermaids' dazzling smiles, strong bodies, and beautiful silver tails.

You know, unlike the aloof elves, the mermaids are quite willing to get close to the players. However, if the players cross the line, they will unconsciously drag the players into the water and drown them. In addition, the system is not set to do strange things. Also, because there are only males in the mermaid tribe and the female players are relatively rational and don't get carried away, there are currently no players who are willing to sacrifice their own level for a little bit of benefit that is not even a benefit.

However, being dragged into the water by the mermaids proves that they like you, and most players will choose to touch their tails and forgive them.

But unfortunately, although the old Western doctor is shameless, he is a straight man. No matter how handsome the mermaids are, he remains unmoved. His fear of water makes him avoid the mermaids who love to suddenly drag people into the water.

When the world mission was going to the claustrophobic sea, Ye Linyu was late for something, so he took over the position of the commander-in-chief for a while, and was almost dragged into the water by the mermaids and made his concubine ...

The only thing that made the old Western doctor feel fortunate was that he happened to be the commander-in-chief at that time, and as a result, the protagonist was rumored to be Ye Linyu who was innocently caught in the crossfire. Another thing was that after the world mission was over, he would no longer have to deal with the mermaids – this was what he had thought before.

The old Western doctor at that time never expected that there would be a world boss event later!

After the activity started, the old Western doctor was trembling with fear as he walked on the road, fearing that two hands would suddenly stretch out from the ditch next to him and drag him into the ditch. At this time, he regretted very much having listened to Ye Linyu's lies.

What plans, what positions, get out of the way! Can you ask the people from Star City to help? He doesn't want to do the mission in this environment at all!

I wonder what Jian Xixinjiu, the leader of the gay gang in Star City, would think if he knew that there was an old western doctor in Youyue City who was so ungrateful for what he had ...

Although the old western doctor finally expressed his understanding of Ji Xuanyi's notice with resentment, the resentment could not be transmitted to Ji Xuanyi's mind through the network cable. After Ji Xuanyi finished talking with the old western doctor, he just said "Xiao Xiao Yu Xia" and took Qi Qin to his own world.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia had no choice but to announce that everyone should go their separate ways and wait for the tasks in Youri City and Youyue City to be completed, and then gather again to fight the final world boss .

While Sun City and Youyue City were still fighting bloody battles, Star City, which had completed its mission first, did nothing but watched from the sidelines. However, for the other two main cities, Star City's inaction was already the best move.

The second stage did not last too long, and by the fourth day, the bosses of the three main cities were all defeated. To everyone's surprise, Youyue City, a main city that was not as strong as Youri City and had only one reinforcement, actually completed the task half a day earlier than Youri City. Although there were many factors involved, this also made the players of Youri City feel very embarrassed.

World Boss is about to begin. At the same time, many people have already sensed the undercurrent beneath the calm sea.

Chapter 127

Although Daylight City consumed a lot of strength when fighting against Star City , in their own opinion , the strength of Daylight City is still comparable to that of Star City ... Although even Zuo An understands that this idea is somewhat self-consoling.

But even if they faced the reality, the players of Daylight City felt that they were at least ranked second , competing with Starry City for the first place, and they never took the third-rate trash main city like Phantom Moon City seriously .

The people of Youri City never imagined that such a third-rate main city could complete the task before them . It really slapped them in the face!

Ji Xuanyi was also quite surprised when he got the news. Judging from the low-key neutral route that Youyue City wanted to take, even if they could complete the task before Yueri City , they would probably deliberately delay the time. After all, the first bird to stick its head out gets shot, and Yueri City is a fucking gun without safety. If you don't stick your head out, they will dig up your nest and pull out your feathers . What will happen if you stick your head out?

However, what Ji Xuanyi didn't know was that this was not actually the original intention of Youyue City. Ye Linyu knew the nature of Youri City very well, and of course he would not compete with them for anything . The fact that he completed the task first was completely an accident – the accident was that Ye Linyu did not expect that Youri City would be so slow!

Because of the settings during the event , the progress information between the three main cities was not so well-informed. Ye Linyu could only estimate the time by himself. He waited until he felt it was just right, neither faster than the Day City nor lagging behind too much, resulting in too few points, before he started to attack.

Then, halfway through the fight, Ye Linyu got the news from a gang member who had just finished browsing the forum and came online that their progress was faster than that of Youri City. At that time, Ye Linyu's face turned pale.

The old western doctor was quite happy to see Ye Linyu being humiliated, but when he thought about the possible trouble he might face from the Day City in the future, he couldn't laugh anymore.

Ye Linyu's first reaction after learning about the situation was to fight slower and delay the progress. However, this method worked for Fanxing City, but it was very difficult for Youyue City. Their strength was not that strong to begin with, and with the BUFF , they would be lucky if they could try their best to defeat the boss in one go. If they delayed the progress, they would be afraid that the boss would be fine by then and they would be dragged to death!

Ye Linyu also realized this quickly and swallowed the order that was about to come to his lips. It's right for Youyue City to keep a low profile, but it's too cowardly to sacrifice all the efforts made for the World Boss event just to keep a low profile. That's not being low-key, that's being a soft persimmon. Let alone Sun City, even Star City will feel at a loss if they don't come and pinch it!

Between two evils, choose the lesser of two evils. It is better to be hated by a mad dog main city whose activity progress is slower than yours than to be targeted by two main cities stronger than yours at the same time. Ye Linyu could only sigh and bite the bullet to defeat the BOSS .

Even if Day City wanted to cause trouble for them, it would have to rank behind Star City. And even if Day City really decided to pick on the weak, Youyue City wouldn't be so easy to deal with – at worst, they could just cling to Star City's thighs! Ye Linyu thought shamelessly, without any psychological pressure.

However, the final outcome of things was pretty much what Ye Linyu had expected. The Sun City was indeed upset about being overtaken by the Moon City, and began to feel hostile towards them, but in the final analysis, the city that had the biggest grudge against them was the Star City. Although Zuo An was furious, he still pretended to have a private chat with him and confirmed the future arrangements with him.

This was completely an attempt to cover up one's own guilt. Ye Linyu could tell what this person was thinking at a glance, but he was really resistant to contacting Yuri City, especially Zuo'an, and did not want to show any favoritism towards them. Otherwise, he could have contacted Zuo'an in real time to discuss the progress of the event, and there would be no need to estimate the time himself.

So when Zuo An sent a confirmation message, Ye Linyu didn't want to reply to him at all. But if he didn't reply, he didn't know what kind of plot Zuo An would imagine. So Ye Linyu made up an excuse and left the person to the old Western doctor.

Old Western doctor: "..."

Dog Biye is here to rule!

By the time the old Western doctor had tricked Zuo'an away with his nonsense and bragging, the second phase of the activities had been settled, and the players in the three main cities were ready to set off for the third phase, which was the battlefield to attack the final world boss . The old Western doctor felt that he didn't want to speak anymore in his life.

The mobility of Youyue City is actually very strong, even surpassing that of Fanxing City. When they gathered and set off, Fanxing City was still waiting for people.

Xiao Xiaoyu said expressionlessly: "Forget it, let Xu Chuliang die, we will leave first."

Everyone: "..."

It feels like Xu Chu alone can reduce the average mobility of the entire Star City by half.

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but hold his forehead and said, "The main force certainly can't wait for him. Liu Tian will stay in the city alone for now. His horse is fast, so he can still catch up with Xu Chu and set off later."

The most important thing is, Liu Tiancai! There is not much use in following him, it is better to be a means of transportation to ensure that Xu Chu can keep up with the main group!

Xiaoxiao Yuxia thought that they probably wouldn't see each other for six days until they finished this activity ...

However, Liu Tian didn't know what Ji Xuanyi was thinking. He considered himself the leader of the Tamaju Jianghu gang. Although Xu Chu was an annoying guy, it was also his responsibility. After hearing Ji Xuanyi's decision, he agreed without saying a word.

Ji Xuan nodded and said to Xiao Xiao Yuxia: "That's enough. Let's go. We have to get there before Sun City and occupy a good place that can be used for both attack and defense."

Xiaoxiao Yuxia certainly had no objection. After finalizing the number of people, he led the players of Star City to set off.

Unlike Youyue City and Fanxing City, the situation in Youri City was not good – this could be seen from the time it took them to complete the second phase of the mission.

Logically speaking, Zhaochen reorganized the individual gangs in Yueri City, and Yueri City's current strength should not be so slow. However, the problem is that the problem this time was not with the individual gangs, but with half of the city's interior.

The matter of the unknown undercover agent had not been resolved yet, and Zhaochen, who had finally escaped from the affairs of the Sanren Gang, immediately noticed that something was wrong with Zuo'an.

Zhaochen is a very smart man. The reason why Zuo'an's previous tricks were not discovered was because he was overwhelmed by the affairs of the Sanren Gang and had no time to deal with him. When Zhaochen had time, it was very easy for him to discover that something was wrong with Zuo'an.

But discovery does not mean there is a solution.

Although Zuo An is the leader of Bancheng, and Zhaochen assists him in many things, once Zhaochen becomes tough, Zuo An is actually a little afraid of him. However, this time, even though Zhaochen has shown a very tough attitude, Zuo An has no intention of compromising. To some extent, this matter was beyond Zhaochen's control, and a rift was created within Bancheng. What made Zhaochen unhappy was that within this rift, not as many people were willing to stand on his side as he had imagined.

Of course, everyone knows that Zuo An is an idiot and Zhao Chen is a smart man, but at the same time, everyone also knows another thing: idiots have bad tempers, and smart people care more about their face. They don't know what happened, nor do they know whether the outcome of this incident will be a complete split between half of the city or whether the two will reconcile in the end.

If it is the latter, if they stand on Zhaochen's side in the conflict and annoy the people of Zuo'an, they will definitely be retaliated against afterwards, and Zhaochen, a smart man, may not be willing to help for this. But if it is the former, even if they stand on Zuo'an's side at the beginning and then go to Zhaochen's side when they find that something is wrong, Zhaochen will not refuse them for the sake of manpower.

What a reasonable plan!

But this situation also angered Zhaochen to some extent, but he did not show it. Rectifying the internal situation of Bancheng was not the most important issue at the moment. He needed to figure out why Zuo An suddenly changed his attitude. More importantly, what orders and decisions did Zuo An give behind his back?

He had no attachment to the idiot Zuo An, but he didn't want all his hard work, the entire half of the city, and the entire Day City to be destroyed because of Zuo An's inexplicable stupid move at this time!

Zhao Chen let out a long breath, looked at Zuo An and said, " It's almost time to leave. If you arrive early, you can get a better seat. "

Zuo An laughed in a sarcastic tone and said, " We can't even catch up with the people in Youyue City at this speed, and we are here early? "

Damn it, who is the reason why the progress cannot catch up with Youyue City? ! If you didn't make trouble, would Daylight City have fallen to this point? ? ?

Zhaochen wanted to strangle Zuo An to death, but he couldn't do it. He felt that if he continued like this, he would probably be angered to death by this guy ... But that's not right. If he had a heart attack, he should be kicked off the line directly.

Yugui, who was standing next to Zuo'an, was afraid that Zhaochen would be pissed to death, so he glanced at him and echoed Zuo'an in a strange tone, saying, " It's all because of someone, haha, he has no self-awareness at all, and now he's demanding of us. "

Yugui didn't mean to be vague in her inflammatory words, but in her opinion, Zhaochen had done nothing wrong except for the mistakes he made in the attack on Fanxing City. He had been working diligently to contribute to Yueri City, which made Zuo'an, who was always making trouble, far superior to him. As an undercover agent, Yugui didn't even know where to start when she wanted to say something bad about him.

However, because Zhaochen had begun to doubt her, Yugui had no other choice in this breakup but to stand firmly on Zuo'an's side. Although Yugui did not stand on Zhaochen's side, her purpose was the same as Zhaochen's.

She also urgently wanted to know whether Zuo An had any other backup plans besides the stupid alliance with Youyue City. Although the possibility was very small, Yugui did not want Ji Xuanyi to be threatened in the slightest. She excluded Zhaochen like this just because she hoped that Zuo An would trust her again, regard her as a confidant, and tell her anything.

It's a pity that Zuo An is really stubborn this time. Until now, Yigui hasn't been able to get anything from him. She can only work harder to squeeze Zhao Chen, hoping that Zuo An can see her sincerity!

Fortunately, although Yigui couldn't make any sense, women's voices are naturally higher than men's, and if she pinches her throat it is very easy for her to sound like she's asking for trouble. Her provocation was very effective, and it made Zhaochen so angry that he almost got off his horse to beat her.

Yugui hid beside Zuo'an and said in a very annoying way: " Oh my, what are you doing? You can't beat me if you can't argue with me? "

Zhaochen's face turned pale, but he finally resisted the urge to hit someone and said, " What's wrong with me? What's wrong with me? Explain your fucking thoughts to me! "

Zuo An glanced at Zhao Chen and sneered. Yu Gui stood beside Zuo An and, like a little eunuch, imitated him by glancing at Zhao Chen and sneering.

" Fuck your mother! " Zhaochen finally couldn't help but curse, and then went offline. Of course, he didn't do it voluntarily. The security system detected that Zhaochen's emotions were too volatile and kicked him down.

Yugui laughed, looked at Zuo'an, and said, " That idiot got pissed off! "

Zuo An frowned, not showing any sign of happiness.

Yu Guidao: " What's wrong with you? "

Zuo An glanced at her, shook his head, and raised his lips again, saying, " Let's go. We won't wait for him. Zhao Chen was right. We should really get to the battlefield as soon as possible. My plan also requires a good position. "

Yugui's eyes flickered when he heard this, and he pretended to be casual and said, " What plan? You are getting better and better at keeping me in suspense. You don't tell me anything at all. I even helped you fill in the loopholes in your plan before! "

Zuo An said impatiently: " Why ask so many questions? You will know when the time comes. "

Yugui raised his eyebrows, knowing that no matter how much he asked, he would get nothing out of it, so he stopped talking.

Although Lian Yugui didn't know the exact reason, after Zuo An and Zhao Chen broke up, he seemed to have become a little smarter because he didn't dare to trust anyone.

But it's just one point. There is still no way to deal with someone like Ji Xuanyi, Yu Gui thought, ignoring the faint uneasiness in his heart.

final battle point with the BOSS is located in the center of the triangle formed by the three main cities. After the second stage settlement, the exact refresh point of the BOSS is marked on the parchment of all players. This time the leadership role of the big gang is not that big, because everyone can actually find the correct location just by looking at the map.

Ji Xuanyi and his group were the second to arrive at the BOSS point. At this time, the full picture of the World BOSS had not yet appeared. It was just a ball of black gas, which was incredibly large and was constantly solidifying. Although a blood bar with dizzying numbers above its head had appeared, players could not cause damage to it yet. They probably had to wait until the BOSS had completely become a physical entity before they could start fighting. Youyue City had arrived first and even set up their battle formation. They occupied a very inconspicuous shadowed spot. Old Western Doctor and Ye Linyu were standing at the front of the team, looking towards the team from Fanxing City.

This was the first time that Ji Xuanyi met Ye Linyu. He was tall and thin, and looked very ordinary. The only bright spot was his pair of phoenix eyes, which seemed a little out of place on that ordinary face, but one could tell at a glance that he was a smart man.

Ye Linyu smiled at Ji Xuanyi, turned his head and whispered something to the old Western doctor. The old Western doctor glanced at him and walked to the team at the back.

After a while, two people with their faces covered like thieves came out from behind the Youyue City team and ran into the Fanxing City team.

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows and said to Xiao Xiaoyu next to him: " I'll go to the back to pick someone up. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia knew that the old western doctor would come to help, so she nodded and asked: " Which side should we take? "

When Ji Xuan heard this, he looked around for a long time. Then he smiled, pointed to one side, and said, " That's it. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia looked in the direction he pointed and was stunned.

Ji Xuan said, " Let's spread out a little bit, preferably closer to the intersection over there. When the fight starts, we can move a little bit over there and block the road, hehe. "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

the World Boss is next to a small hill. The shade occupied by Youyue City is also from that hill, and the plants on it are pulled out by the sunlight. Fanxing City is connected to Youyue City, blocking the spawn point of the World Boss so that there is only one intersection for Youri City to come in. When fighting the BOSS , all the remaining intersections will be blocked. Youri City can only fight monsters with its back to the hill, and if anything happens later, it will not be able to escape!

Xiao Xiaoyu looked at Ji Xuanyi with a complicated expression. Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " Don't worry, I'm not the kind of person who likes to stir up trouble. "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "... Oh. "

If you say something like this, Liu Tian won't fucking believe it!

Ji Xuanyi didn't know if he could see Xiao Xiaoyu's complaints, and said, " Whether I attack Sun City or not depends on their attitude. "

If Youri City doesn't launch a surprise attack now, it will have no way to fight Fanxing City. Even if it gets here and discovers Fanxing City's intentions, it can only pinch its nose and fall into the trap. Ji Xuanyi believes that as long as Zhaochen still has a little influence, he will never let Zuo'an do evil under such circumstances.

But it doesn't matter if Zhaochen really can't stop Zuo'an. Fanxing City can just do it on their own. The road has been blocked for you. If you make any more moves, you will be asking for trouble. You can't blame others.

After Ji Xuan finished speaking to Xiao Xiao Yuxia, he led Qi Qin to the back of the team.

I don't know if it's because the old western doctor is a pastor, but when he hid in the team, he went directly to the pastor team. Because it was not easy to reveal the old western doctor's identity, Xiaoxiao Yuxia did not inform everyone in advance that people from Youyue City would come. The old western doctor might have been surrounded in the team by now, and Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin had to rush to rescue him.

Ji Xuanyi was right. When the old western doctor and his men were about to join the team, they were stopped by the swordsman outside.

The old western doctor covered his face with a black cloth and said to the swordsman stealthily, as if giving a secret signal: " Didn't your leader say that there would be mysterious reinforcements coming? I am that mysterious person! Let us in! "

The swordsman grabbed the old doctor with a frown on his face and said, " What a mess. "

Not to mention that Xiaoxiao Yuxia never mentioned this at all. You covered yourself up like this, who can let you in? You are so careless!

" Our leader didn't say anything about this, " the swordsman said, " Go find whoever told you that. I can't let you into the team. "

The old western doctor wanted to say Ji Xuanyi's name, but was worried that the other party was not so well-known. It would be embarrassing if he was slapped in the face. So he had to chat with Ji Xuanyi in secret while he was entangled with the swordsman for a long time.

But what the old Western doctor thought was indeed correct. Although Ji Xuanyi had been involved in the three major gangs, most of the members of the three major gangs were only familiar with him but did not know him. If he were to give his name, it might really be embarrassing.

The man behind the old western doctor waited for a long time and couldn't help asking: " Is it reliable? "

The old western doctor said: " Don't be too reliable, okay? I just saw him in front of the team! We clearly agreed on this, unless he plans to abandon me and pretend to have lost his memory and not recognize me! "

When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin squeezed over here, they heard the old Western doctor say this.

Qi Qin: "..."

Qi Qin silently lowered his head and looked at Ji Xuanyi. Ji Xuanyi glanced at Qi Qin and said speechlessly: " Brother, is it a bit pretentious to be jealous? Can I look down on him? "

Qi Qin thought about it and it made sense. The old Western doctor had no other special features except for his good mouth . He was no match for other suspected rivals. Unless Ji Xuanyi poked himself blind with a finger, he would definitely not look down on this man.

Ji Xuanyi squeezed over and patted the swordsman on the shoulder. The swordsman turned around and saw Ji Xuanyi. He felt that he looked familiar, but he couldn't quite remember where he was.

Ji Xuanyi said, " This is the person Xiao Xiaoyu let in. You can confirm with him. "

Ji Xuanyi's tone of command was so skilled and confident that the swordsman responded in a daze. Before his brain could react, he moved away and let Ji Xuanyi drag the two old Western doctors in.

" Thank you. " Ji Xuanyi said, and squeezed into the line with the old western doctor and the man he was holding.

The old western doctor and Ji Xuanyi were actually quite happy to meet again after a long separation. However, because no one helped in the second stage, he was almost scared to death by the mermaid. In addition, he was blocked by the swordsman of Star City for a long time just now, so he complained a little and said, " You said you wanted to keep it confidential. I understand not informing me, but you are too late. Are you so slow? "

Ji Xuanyi was speechless and said, " You fucking came in from the middle of the team, and I couldn't go around to find you. If I squeezed in one by one, wouldn't it be slow? "

The old western doctor also said: " If I don't enter from the middle of the team, where can I enter from? You can't go around to find me. Can I run to the front to find you? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " No, so it's normal for you to wait so long. "

Old Western doctor: "... Bah! "

But Ji Xuanyi was not wrong. Underground connections are just that slow. All that matters is that they are kept confidential.

The old western doctor couldn't help but mutter, " That swordsman was so stunned just now. I talked to him for a long time, but he didn't respond at all. "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " That's because he saw that you came from the Youyue City team and was willing to talk to you. The treatment is already very good. "

If the old western doctor was a secret person from the city of Yaori, he would be beaten to death before he even got close to you and kept talking to you.

The old western doctor shuddered when he heard this and said, " We in Zhongli Village don't understand the deep hatred you have. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't expect him to understand. It would take too much time for the four of them to squeeze back the same way. They didn't know when the Sun City would arrive. Ji Xuanyi simply took him directly into the priest group, found a place to stand, and sent a message to Xiao Xiaoyuxia, asking him to adjust the team's position first.

After a while, the team from Fanxing City started to move. Ji Xuanyi and his companions mixed in with the group of priests and followed them. The female priests around them found out that they had cut in line and looked at them curiously.

As a hidden profession, the old western doctor has become accustomed to such stares, and he lets the girls look at him openly. Qi Qin, on the other hand, feels a little awkward, and sticks his whole body to Ji Xuanyi. Ji Xuanyi coldly glances at the girls who were looking at Qi Qin. The girls understand what is going on, and they look away with laughter, and only dare to glance at the two of them secretly from time to time.

Ji Xuanyi was not so resistant to this kind of gaze. He looked at the old western doctor, then at the people around him. Just as he was about to say something, a familiar voice called out: "Xiao Ji! It's really you. Why are you here in the pastor group? "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, turned around, and found that it was Art Introduction and Sleepy Cat whom he hadn't seen for a long time. The two of them were holding hands and struggling to squeeze over here.

They have been following the troops of the three major gangs to run around and do tasks during this period of time, occasionally teasing Jian Xi Xin Jiu. They haven't played with Ji Xuanyi for a long time. Just now, they were sharp-eyed and saw Ji Xuanyi's back when there was a gap in the team's movement, so they pulled Sleepy Cat over.

"Any new action?" Art Introduction asked excitedly, "Jian Xi Xin Jiu didn't inform us. Is it a secret plan? "

The old western doctor at the side raised his eyebrows. He didn't expect that someone like Ji Xuanyi could know a girl. He asked curiously, "Why don't you introduce them to each other? "

Ji Xuan glanced at the old Western doctor and for some reason, he had the idea that this person would be a good match for the Introduction to Art, probably because they both had weird IDs .

When Ji Xuan saw the general theory of art, he also looked at the old western doctor curiously. After thinking for a while, he pointed at the general theory of art and said, "She is the general theory of art, the pastor. "

Just as he smiled, he heard Ji Xuanyi continue slowly: "It's just average. "

Introduction to Art: "..."

However, the old western doctor didn't pay much attention to this. He clasped his fist towards the Introduction to Art and said seriously, "Awesome, Introduction to Art, I've heard of it for a long time! "

This name has probably been admired by everyone for a long time!

Ji Xuanyi pointed at the sleepy cat and said, "This is——"

The old western doctor clasped his fists again: "An outline of modern history? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Sleepy Meow: "..."

After hearing this, everyone saw clearly what kind of person this person was. Sleepy Cat said with a frown on his face: " No, my name is Sleepy Cat. If you find it troublesome, just call me Ah Meow. "

The old western doctor was not embarrassed at all for calling the wrong name. He groaned and said, " My name is Lao—— "

Ji Xuanyi glanced at him, and the old western doctor finally realized that although Introduction to Art and Outline of Modern History ... Bah! and Sleepy Cat were Ji Xuanyi's friends, so he wouldn't spread his ID everywhere , but his name was too easy to remember. Anyone who heard it would find it hard to forget. There were still many people around, so it would be a big deal if someone said it intentionally or unintentionally. To be on the safe side, it would be better for him not to reveal his ID .

The old western doctor looked at Art Introduction and Sleepy Cat, smiled and said, " Art Introduction is right. This is indeed a secret mission. Neither I nor this guy can reveal his name. "

The old western doctor patted the man next to him and said to the general theory of art: " How about this, you can call me Mao Gai, and call him ..."

Introduction to Art was quite happy that someone had the same ID as her . Upon hearing this, she asked excitedly: " Advanced Mathematics? "

The old western doctor said: "... No, no, Gao Shu's hatred is a bit too strong, let's call him Wangcai! "

" Wangcai " raised his leg and kicked the old western doctor. If Qi Qin hadn't been quick enough to grab the back of the old western doctor's collar, the old western doctor would have almost fallen to the ground.

Ji Xuanyi had actually already guessed the identity of this " Wangcai " . After all, although the old Western doctor was a bit of a talker, he was still quite reliable and would definitely do what he promised him.

Ji Xuan thought about it and in order not to attract attention, he left the team after saying a word to Xiao Xiaoyu and formed a team with the old western doctor and " Wangcai " .

Sure enough, there were three words clearly written on the ID position of " Wangcai " in the team interface : Yunzhongjian, Level: Level 70.

Although he was mentally prepared, Ji Xuanyi still took a deep breath and said, " It's really level 70. "

Yun Zhongjian turned his head to look at him, smiled at first, then found that his face was covered with a cloth and could not be seen, nodded again, and said: " Yes, I am lucky, haha. " The old western doctor had already told Ji Xuanyi in advance that Yun Zhongjian had completed the hidden tasks one after another and upgraded quickly because of good luck, but to be honest, this situation was still quite embarrassing when it came out of his mouth in such a humble tone ...

Fortunately, Ji Xuanyi has changed a lot now. He is not so irritable anymore. He didn't react much when he heard such words. He just said, " Can you lend it to me to see its properties? "

Yun Zhongjian was a little puzzled and asked, " Old ... Mao Gai said you are a warlock, what's the point of you looking at the full-level attributes of a swordsman? "

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin and said calmly, " I can't help it. My family is playing the swordsman. I'm worried. "

Qi Qin's face turned red and she couldn't help but cover it with her hand.

Ji Xuanyi said he was a family member! Oh my god!

Yun Zhongjian noticed Qi Qin's actions, but the old western doctor hadn't told him about Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin. He was a straight man, so he didn't see it at all. He thought Ji Xuanyi's girlfriend was a woman, so he just said blankly: " Well, as a sorcerer, you have to be careful about domestic violence. "

Ji Xuan smiled and said nothing.

Qi Qin stood behind Ji Xuanyi, feeling aggrieved. He was a domestic abuser, and it was good enough that he was not the victim of domestic violence himself!

Since most of Yun Zhongjian's experience in upgrading comes from hidden tasks, and his equipment is also very good, he discussed with Ji Xuanyi whether to look at the data of the naked equipment or the data of the wearing equipment, and how much data the equipment bonus of Ji Xuanyi's family members has.

Qi Qin didn't quite understand the game terms used by the two people, but he was still listening very seriously. The old western doctor next to him didn't care about it at all. Anyway, he had brought the person to Ji Xuanyi, and he was here too, waiting for Ji Xuanyi's order at any time. He had nothing to do at the moment, so he started bragging and chatting with the two people from the Introduction to Art.

After a while, the team from Star City lined up according to Ji Xuanyi's previous idea.

Fortunately, almost all the players from the main city had arrived, so the team did not look thin even though they formed such a large circle. Instead, it looked quite imposing. Ji Xuanyi and others also took this opportunity to bid farewell to Art Introduction and Sleepy Cat from the Priest Corps and walked to the front of the team.

Xuchu came online just when they reached the BOSS point. Xiaoxiao Yuxia was contacting Liutian, asking them where they were and how long it would take to get there. Liutian mumbled and couldn't explain clearly, and Xuchu had to come. However, Xiaoxiao Yuxia had been delayed and didn't want to talk to Xuchu at all. Since she couldn't get a specific time from Liutian, she said directly: " You can come anytime. You can also be a pioneer and help us snipe at the Sun City. Hehehe. "

Six days: "..."

Just let Xu Chu go alone to attack the Sun City! Liu Tian is innocent, okay?

Xiao Xiaoyu closed the chat interface expressionlessly, just in time to see Ji Xuanyi walking over from the side, and two masked men like thieves behind him.

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

When Fanxing City was still in the midst of a civil war, Ji Xuanyi and Mi Yin also wore robes to hide their identities, but it was obvious that the old western doctor was dressed much more vulgarly this time.

But thinking about it, the old western doctor is also a person who represents Youyue City's position. Although Xiaoxiao Yuxia dislikes his taste, she still puts on a smile and says: " You are here, this is the old doctor you told me about before- "

" No, " the old western doctor said solemnly, " I am Mao Gai, what can I do for you? "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Are you a fucking relative of Introduction to Art!

Xiao Xiaoyu's prepared expression broke down, and it took her a long time to pick it up, looking at Ji Xuanyi with a frown.

Ji Xuanyi did tell him that the old Western doctor was mean, but he never said that the other party was mean to this extent!

Ji Xuanyi said: " His name is very recognizable and easy to recognize. Let's just call him that. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia had no choice but to swallow the blood in his throat, raised his head and looked towards Yun Zhong Jian, and said: " Who is this? Gao Shu? "

Yunzhongjian: "..."

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but be silent for a while, and then he said, " He is also quite famous, but let's not call him Gao Shu. "

Ji Xuan looked towards Yun Zhongjian, who coughed and said in a calm voice, " Call me Wangcai. "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Xiao Xiaoyu approached Ji Xuanyi calmly and said, " Are you sure these two people can be used? "

Why do I feel like they are mentally ill?

Ji Xuan glanced at him and whispered, " Wangcai is Yunzhongjian. "

Yunzhongjian? Xiao Xiaoyu was stunned for a moment, then reacted and looked at Ji Xuanyi in disbelief: " Yun ... Wangcai? That Wangcai? "

Ji Xuanyi nodded solemnly and said, " That's Wangcai. He has reached the maximum level. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia took a deep breath. They had never even thought about reaching the maximum level!

At this moment, Xiaoxiao Yuxia no longer doubted that they were unreliable. He didn't know what the old western doctor was like, but the name Yun Zhongjian was known to everyone in the entire region and server. Although he was only famous for leveling up, he was still a very remarkable figure.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia didn't even bother to discuss anything with Ji Xuanyi, and walked towards Yunzhongjian with a smile on her face. It was estimated that she wanted to pull the other party back to the mortal world, or at least make him familiar to her!

Ji Xuanyi was shocked.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia is so out of control. She has been playing games with Mu Xuanyi for such a long time, but she is so happy to see Yun Zhongjian. Isn't she stupid?

Although Yun Zhongjian cannot be said to be a taciturn person, he doesn't talk much either. It is obvious that he cannot cope with Xiao Xiaoyuxia's enthusiasm. Fortunately, there was an old Western doctor next to him to interrupt, so the situation was not too awkward. Ji Xuan looked at it for a while and felt that it was boring, so he turned his head to look at the BOSS in the middle who was waiting to refresh .

World Boss began counting down after the second phase of activities in the three main cities was completed. Now there is only half an hour left, and the figure of the Evil God Boss can be vaguely seen.

Half an hour passed, and it was not known whether the Sun City could make it here. Ji Xuan thought that it would be fine if they came before or after the battle, but it would be annoying if they came in the middle of the battle. If Zuo'an attacked them at that time, it would still be very troublesome. However, since it affected the progress of the World BOSS activity, Youyue City could reasonably stand on their side to help.

Ji Xuan thought about it and felt that it was just a small scene and there was nothing to be afraid of.

The Sun City arrived in the last five minutes of the countdown. Their speed should not have been so slow. It was only after Zhaochen came back online and had a conflict with Zuo'an and Gui that their progress was slowed down.

There is infighting among the management, and ordinary players under the Sun City are also very tired. It's really fucking tiring to have to stop and go all the way.

When the large army from Daytime City arrived at the battlefield, their momentum was very weak. However, the people from Starry City and Youyue City, who had prepared for the battle in advance, felt a little surprised and couldn't help but look over there frequently.

There were still four minutes left in the countdown. Zuo An looked at the empty road of Fanxing City and was eager to lead people in. Zhao Chen frowned and said, " Wait a minute ... They want to block us under the mountain. If Fanxing City turns against us after defeating the BOSS ..."

Zuo An looked at him with a half-smile and said, " What should we do? Don't go in? How about you go and talk to Ji Xuanyi and ask him to move some space for us? "

Chapter 128

After hearing Zuo An's words , Zhaochen and Yugui's expressions changed at the same time. Yugui realized that she shouldn't have such a big reaction , so she immediately turned her head and adjusted her expression. Fortunately, Zuo An didn't have time to look at her , as he was staring at Zhaochen.

Zhaochen's expression was not anger, but one of disbelief that a secret had been discovered , and a kind of eagerness.

Zuo An quickly understood why Zhaochen was so anxious.

Zhaochen grabbed Zuo'an and asked nervously, " What on earth did you do? "

Zuo An laughed contemptuously and said, " You are so smart, can't you guess it? "

Zhaochen frowned, then slowly calmed down. He vaguely understood something , and said to Zuo'an with a sullen face: " I know what you want to do, but the plan you made has too many mistakes and omissions. It will definitely not work, and it will also cost the power of Day City. "

Zhao Chen glanced at the team from Fanxing City , then at the only remaining position , and turned his head to Zuo An and said, " Today's situation is not suitable for implementing your plan. Either you give up early and find another opportunity next time, or tell me your plan exactly as it is and I will help you find a solution. "

Zhaochen was also very anxious, and still regarded Zuoan as the stupid gang leader who used to listen to him in everything. However, Zuoan had already become suspicious of him.

Zhaochen 's words did not explain anything. To Zuoan, these words sounded more like the words of an exposed undercover who was completely shameless and wanted to make a final effort to get information rather than well-reasoned advice.

Zuo An looked at Zhaochen indifferently, with no expression on his face.

Zhaochen was already getting impatient. He lowered his voice and said threateningly, " Zuo'an, don't do anything stupid. "

Zuo An shook his head in disappointment, thought for a moment, sneered again, turned his horse around, and said as the team walked inside: " It's fucking funny, I thought you were someone important, but it turns out you're from Star City. Considering that you've done so much for Half City, I won't do anything to you. After today's matter is over, don't wait for me to kick you out, just quit the gang on your own. I don't want to see you in Daylight City anymore. "

Zhaochen was so angry that he wanted to pry open Zuoan's head to see what was in his mind! However, there are some things Zhaochen is unwilling to tell Zuo An. At this point, he also understands that Zuo An will no longer trust him.

Zhaochen looked coldly at Zuo'an's back for a while before he rode his horse to follow him.

Yugui glanced at Zuo An and said cautiously: " Ji Xuanyi? Who is the Ji Xuanyi you just mentioned? Is he related to Zhaochen? "

Zuo An didn't even look at her, he just sneered and said, " Oh, you all think I'm a fool, there's a huge relationship between these two people! Thanks to Zhao Chen, he actually found me from the beginning, and for that Ji Xuanyi, he ambushed in Bancheng for such a long time and made such a great effort. "

Yugui was sweating when she heard this. Wasn't this her script? How did it suddenly happen to Zhaochen? Zuo'an was so sure, and Zhaochen didn't look completely innocent ... But I didn't hear that Ji Xuanyi knew Zhaochen. Could it be that Zhaochen was really an undercover agent like her?

Yugui, the real undercover agent, was confused by what he heard. He was not sure whether to take this opportunity to put the blame on Zhaochen. After all, if Zhaochen was really on Ji Xuanyi's side, wouldn't it be a mistake?

After a long time, Yugui quietly opened the chat system and contacted Ji Xuanyi.

" Zhaochen? " Ji Xuanyi also frowned. This kind of person had never appeared in his memory. This person's actions seemed to show that he really wanted to go against him. What's more, according to Yugui, Zhaochen should have seen through his true identity, but the other party had no intention of contacting him at all.

Ji Xuanyi thought about it and replied, " I don't think he is on my side, but according to what you said, he is hiding things about me from Zuo An, so he is definitely not on Zuo An's side wholeheartedly. I don't know what this person wants to do. "

" But this guy is not the type of person like Zuo'an. No matter what his position is, you'd better not contact him easily. If you really don't know how to deal with him, just ignore him. " After saying that, Ji Xuanyi added: " If you come directly to Fanxing City, you don't have to worry about these things. "

When Yugui saw Ji Xuanyi's last words, he couldn't help but smile, but still closed the chat channel and did not reply.

In fact, she also felt that Zhaochen's malice towards Fanxing City and Ji Xuanyi did not seem false, but Zhaochen and Zuo An had now fallen out, so she did not dare to rashly put the blame on Zhaochen. If the latter was determined to drag her down with him, given Zuo An's personality, it would be very hurt regardless of success or failure.

Yugui thought about it and decided that it would be better for her to ignore Zhaochen now, as Ji Xuanyi said. Anyway, after the world boss was over, Zuo'an would definitely not allow Zhaochen to stay in Bancheng anymore. If the two of them broke up completely, Bancheng would either be left with only Zuo'an, the stupid gang leader, or it would split into two gangs. If there were more people to stir up trouble, it would not be impossible for it to just disband. In any case, the Yuri City at that time would be in real civil strife.

As a former executive of Bancheng, if things really get chaotic, she might be able to gather a small group of forces, which would make things easier for her ...

While Guizheng was absorbed in his thoughts, Zuo'an beside him made a displeased " tsk " sound and said, " What are you doing? This is your attitude towards the traitor Zhaochen who did such a thing? "

" Ah? " Yugui was stunned: " What attitude? I have already spit on him many times! " Yugui came back to his senses and said confidently: " It was me who made him go offline just now. Is there any bonus? "

Zuo An sneered: " You want a bonus for this? I'll make you poor! "

Yugui snorted and stopped talking .

The team from Day City passed through a small path squeezed out from Star City and finally arrived in position at the last minute.

the BOSS in the middle of the field expressionlessly.

, no one knows what he is thinking.

Yugui glanced at him and saw that the time for the BOSS to wake up had entered the final countdown. It should be that Zuo'an was seriously distracted and his vigilance was relatively low. He leaned over and asked in a low voice: " Zuo'an, what did you arrange? "

Zuo An opened his mouth, then looked back at Yu Gui, and finally smiled softly at Yu Gui's nervous gaze: " Why are you in such a hurry? You will know soon. "

With Yugui's disappointed expression, the countdown ended, and the World Boss in the center of the field let out an earth-shaking roar, suddenly gained entity, and stood up tall.

" Foolish ... foolish creature, " the evil god opened his mouth in the dark mist, revealing his snow-white fangs and scarlet tongue: " Why don't you submit to me? This continent, this continent will eventually be mine-- "

After the entrance line was finished, a layer of black fog suddenly spread out, and the health of all the players present dropped to half at the same time.

For fear that the BOSS would take advantage of this opportunity to make a final kill, the commanders shouted to the priests at the top of their lungs. While the health of all members slowly recovered, the main tanks of the three main cities , who had been prepared in advance , used their damage reduction skills and rushed towards the BOSS with their weapons raised.

Generally speaking, the rewards of the World BOSS should be available to all players in all regions and servers, but in the settings of some games, the team that takes revenge on the BOSS until the BOSS dies will receive additional rewards. Ji Xuanyi and his team didn't know whether this BOSS had such a mechanism, but in this case, it was better to take revenge than not, so this time Qi Qin was sent directly into the field as the first main tank .

Because there are not many dungeons now and there are few specialized T equipment, when the hatred coefficient is not much different, whoever has higher damage can get the hatred. Not to mention anything else, at least among swordsmen, no one can match Qi Qin's damage for the time being.

As Ji Xuanyi had expected, in less than a moment, Qi Qin successfully got revenge on the BOSS . The second in hatred value was held by Youyue City's main tank , while the main tank of Youri City , Brother Yang, the leveling maniac they had met before, seemed absent-minded. Although his level and equipment were much higher than Youyue City's main tank , his hatred was ranked fourth, even lower than that of Fanxing City's substitute tank .

Judging from the performance of Daylight City during this period, this seemed to be a normal situation, but Ji Xuanyi still felt something was wrong. While following the priest group to heal Qi Qin and several other tanks from Star City on the field , he was also paying attention to the situation in Daylight City.

What made Ji Xuanyi find it a little hard to believe was that although the output of the Daylight City was relatively low, it didn't seem to have any intention of causing trouble. Everyone was fighting the BOSS , even Zuo An, and no one even glanced towards the camp of the Starry City. What was going on? Could it be that Zuo An really realized that the situation was not favorable to them, so he learned his lesson and stopped committing suicide?

Ji Xuanyi frowned, but did not have time to think too much. After the main tank stabilized the hatred, melee DPS and ranged players also began to join the battle. The world boss attacked the crowd mercilessly. Although there were many people hurt and the damage was dispersed, so no one died suddenly, the pressure on the healers suddenly increased, and Ji Xuanyi had no time to take care of other things.

Old Western Doctor is also in the team of Star City to heal people. Compared with Ji Xuanyi, who is a latecomer and even has new skills, Old Western Doctor's operation is much more sophisticated. When he is raising blood, he never forgets to keep it sustained. Although the sustained healing amount is not high, it can barely maintain the blood line. The next priest who heals this person will have a certain amount of time buffer and will not be in a hurry.

However, this also means that the old Western doctor needs to expend much more energy than Ji Xuanyi. Even so, the old Western doctor who understands the working principles of Ji Xuanyi's treatment skills will take time out from time to time to nurse Ji Xuanyi next to him. However, Ji Xuanyi couldn't handle the frequent switching of targets for treatment, which was like playing whack-a-mole. When he played the assassin in the past, he would pin one person to death in a fight, or at most sneak attack another person to divert attention. It was not like now, slashing here and there.

Ji Xuanyi clicked his tongue impatiently, and found that there was indeed no movement in the Day City until now. He simply didn't bother to pay attention to that place and concentrated on supporting Qi Qin.

the World BOSS is very similar to the previous siege BOSS clone. Except that it has not been weakened, resulting in high damage and short skill intervals, there is no other difference.

Although it is a bit difficult for players to deal with it, it is not impossible to beat it.

However, the levels of the players who came to besiege the BOSS ranged from level 40 to level 70, with all kinds of high and low levels. Some of them were fragile and were killed by just one hit from the BOSS , and no one could heal them. White lights lit up in the crowd one after another. Fortunately, the losses were still within the estimation of several commanders, and the problem was not too big.

the World BOSS is its health. This battle lasted for about four or five hours, from noon to afternoon. Many players did not even have dinner and still insisted on fighting on the front line. However, even under the siege of so many players, the BOSS 's health has only dropped by half so far, with half left. If nothing unexpected happens, the fight will last until at least 10 o'clock in the evening.

Ji Xuanyi's face looked a little bad, not only because of the five hours of high concentration, but also because of Qi Qin who was T- ing the monster on the field.

The BOSS does not cause much damage to other players, not because it is weak, but because most of the damage is borne by the T.

tank of Youyue City, who is ranked second , is half a level lower than that of Qi Qin. Qi Qin is basically the main tank of this BOSS , but even if Qi Qin can dodge the physical attacks of the BOSS every time, the area magic damage attached to the BOSS 's attacks also makes Qi Qin's blood volume as thrilling as a roller coaster. Several priests plus Ji Xuanyi have a hard time watching over him the whole time. It can be imagined that if someone else comes to fight the monster, he will definitely die in minutes.

However, changing tanks is inevitable. The fight against the BOSS will last until 10 o'clock in the evening, and Qi Qin will be exhausted at 8 o'clock. This is not a battle that can be won by forcing oneself not to fall asleep. Qi Qin's combat effectiveness will be halved after 8 o'clock. If he does not retreat, he will probably be beaten to death by the BOSS , and no matter how many priests come, they cannot save him.

In Ji Xuanyi's opinion, the World BOSS is certainly not as important as Qi Qin. It's better to get less rewards. What's most important is that Qi Qin does not drop in level. The problem is that after eight o'clock, Qi Qin retreats. Even if he transfers the hatred to the T of Youyue City , can he withstand it?

tank of Youyue City . In order to grab aggro, the opponent seemed to be wearing all strength equipment and had little physical strength. In other words, his health was not enough. He might be able to tank other bosses , but he would probably die quickly if he tanked the world boss . you change the T , but it will matter if the replaced T can't hold the tank . After killing the main T , the BOSS will kill people one by one in the order of hatred , one kid at a time. I'm afraid that it will kill all the players before the players can wear it out .

Ji Xuanyi frowned and looked at Qi Qin in the arena. He wanted the other party to hold on for two hours? Qi Qin couldn't do it, right?

Obviously, in addition to Ji Xuanyi, everyone else thought of the same thing. Xiao Xiao Yuxia was fighting monsters in the front while sending a private message to Ji Xuanyi.

[瀟曉雨下] : This BOSS is quite tough. Can the world last till night?

Ji Xuanyi was still worried, and after a long while, he replied, " I don't know. "

[Ji Xuanyi] : If he can't hold on, you'll have to take over. Be mentally prepared and do your best.

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Xiaoxiao Yuxia felt that his hair was rapidly detaching from his scalp and moving away from him. Oh my god! They had made many plans for what to do if Day City suddenly attacked, but they had never thought about what to do if they couldn't defeat the BOSS . They only prepared three proper tanks , including Qi Qin, but now it seems that none of them will be of any use after eight o'clock!

Xiao Xiaoyu was scratching his head frantically, and was about to contact Xu Chu to ask if he had any rare swordsman equipment when something strange happened!

The first person to notice something was wrong was Ji Xuanyi. As one of the healers, he was standing on high ground with other priests and could easily see the people in need of treatment in the venue. Ji Xuanyi noticed it almost the moment that Day City began to change camps.

It turns out that the Sun City is not so peaceful, and Zuo'an is still as stupid as ever.

Ji Xuanyi sneered, and while chatting quietly with Xiao Xiao, he said to the old western doctor beside him: " Sun City has begun to take action. "

The old western doctor was busy nursing the patient, and with difficulty he paid some attention to Ji Xuanyi. He asked stupidly, " You, what did you say? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi knew that the other party's mind was not here at the moment. He would not hear him no matter how many times he said it, so he simply didn't bother to waste more words and said, " It's nothing. Just do your nursing. "

The old Western doctor said " Oh " like a mentally retarded person.

Ji Xuanyi was speechless. He originally thought that there would be more commanders in Fanxing City, but after all this time, all he got were more baby bottles. Tsk.

However, given the current situation in Daylight City, he could easily defeat Starry City with just one hand, and there was no need for the old Western doctor to help anymore.

Probably because the only commander was Zuo An, who everyone knew was an idiot, the players of Youri City moved very slowly . Ji Xuanyi could see that there was hesitation in every move of those players. After so many failures, the players of Youri City had instinctively begun to question Zuo An's orders.

Think about the Dayo City that wiped out the enemy's entire team over a disagreement. Now the Dayo City has lost all its fighting spirit, has no minions, and is even starting to split internally. It's like a joke.

Ji Xuanyi watched coldly and actually had a bit of a strange feeling. He wondered if anyone had thought the same thing about him when he was the leader of a gang of a thousand people but his gang was broken up and he could only open a small account to kill people one by one.

However, it was only a moment, and Ji Xuanyi put this feeling behind his mind. The members of the Daylight City had already begun to attack the Starry City. Ji Xuanyi immediately had a private chat with Xiao Xiao Yuxia . At the same time, Ji Xuanyi asked Qi Qin to pay attention to his surroundings when fighting monsters, so as not to be ambushed by the people of the Daylight City.

Since Youri City has decided to launch a surprise attack on Fanxing City while fighting the World Boss , it probably has no intention of defeating the Boss . Rather than being crushed by Fanxing City in the end, Ji Xuanyi feels that Youri City might become desperate and directly stand on the side of the Boss , trying to attack the main tank . After the tank is defeated , everyone will die together.

However, Ji Xuanyi still overestimated Zuo An. This guy had never thought of this. When Fanxing City realized that Day City had launched an attack on them and began to fight back, Zuo An immediately shouted: " People from Youyue City, what are you waiting for! Hurry up and attack them from behind!!! "

According to Zuo An's original expectation, once this sentence was shouted, the army of Youyue City would immediately respond and stab Fanxing City hard in the back, and then the two sides would work together to defeat Fanxing City and then they could even monopolize the world BOSS !

However, the scene that Zuo An imagined did not appear. After he shouted at the top of his lungs, no one paid any attention to him and the situation on the field did not change at all. Yugui wanted to laugh, but tried hard to hold it back. She looked up at him with her lips pursed, and whispered, " You also contacted the people in Youyue City? Was your voice too soft and they didn't hear you? "

Zuo An was stunned for a moment when he heard this, but then he seemed to realize something and immediately opened the chat channel, posting messages on both the map channel and the world channel: " People from Youyue City, what are you waiting for! Hurry up and attack Fanxing City from behind! "

However, the people of Youyue City remained silent. Everyone was attacking the BOSS with all their might. Some were healing, some were tanking , some were treating, and some were healing. It was as if they were collectively blind. No one responded to Zuo An's words.

But even if Youyue City backed off at the last minute and suddenly changed its mind, Fanxing City shouldn't have done nothing after seeing these words! At least they should have been distracted and looked back to see what was going on in Youyue City, right?

However, all the players from Star City were doing their own things, fighting monsters and humans very seriously, and no one cared whether Phantom Moon City was really going to launch a sneak attack on them.

No matter how dumb Zuo An was, he should have understood by now. His face turned purple with anger as he cursed, " Fuck those bastards from Youyue City! They promised to do something for me, but they turned around and sold me out! Fuck! When this is over, I'll hang them up and see what they say! "

Zhao Chen guessed the whole story when he saw this. He snorted coldly and said, " Hang them. Do you have any evidence? Did they definitely promise to help you in the chat? "

Zuo'an's cheek twitched and he looked at Zhaochen angrily, already regarding the latter as his complete enemy.

Zhaochen was too lazy to explain anything to this man. He had completely given up on this guy. Or rather, he should have done so a long time ago.

But giving up Zuo'an was one thing. Zhaochen didn't want to give up Day City and half of the city. He frowned and looked at Zuo'an, saying, " I just sent someone to steal the BOSS . While they are distracted, we can retreat back to Day City. The more we can save, the better. "

Zuo An was stunned for a moment when he heard this, then looked at Zhao Chen and said, " You sent someone to steal the BOSS ? "

Zhao Chen suppressed his impatience and said, " Well, he pieced together two or three pieces of T- suit. His hatred coefficient is much higher than other swordsmen. Even if his damage is not enough, he can still get some hatred. I asked him to escape in the direction of Youyue City. Even if all the members of Fanxing City don't chase after them, the manpower at the exit will definitely become weak ..."

Zuo An stared at Zhao Chen for a long time, then grinned and said, " I won't leave. My plan will come true. I won't leave. "

When Zhaochen saw Zuo'an like this, the string in his head finally broke. He jumped off his horse, pulled Zuo'an off the horse, and cursed hysterically: " Fuck your mother! Zuo'an! Can you wake up a little? You think you are so smart, do you know how stupid you are! Look at this team, it's still the same Half City, the same Dayo City?! The Dayo City now is like a lost dog, do you know why? It's all because of you! It's because of you! You, an idiot, made it like this! "

Zuo An was stunned for a moment, and he just looked at Zhao Chen stupidly. Zhao Chen didn't want to endure it anymore, and stared at him with red eyes, saying: " Fuck, I really don't want to endure you anymore, Zuo An, when we return to Dayo City, you should leave, and you should be kicked out. If you leave, the whole Dayo City will be better. It's all your fault, you know that! " Zuo An came back to his senses and his face flushed red. Every word Zhao Chen said pierced his heart, but how could he admit it? In his opinion, everyone was wrong except him!

" Even if Bancheng is disbanded and Day City collapses, it's all up to me! " Zuo An shouted loudly, not even noticing his voice breaking. He widened his eyes, a terrifying look on his face, as if he was eager to prove something, and shouted at Zhao Chen: " Bancheng is my gang, Day City is also the main city I lead, I can do whatever I want, even if I want them to disband on the spot now, that's my business alone, who do you think you are, yelling at me here?! "

Zuo An stared at Zhao Chen intently and said, " I still remember why I founded this gang. Now my goal is about to be achieved. Even if half of the city is lost, it will be worth it! "

Zhao Chen was stunned, and completely forgot how to teach Zuo An a lesson. He grabbed him and asked with wide eyes: " What do you mean?! What did you do? "

Zuo An grinned. He looked at Yu Gui who had been standing beside him with a frown on his face, and said, " It's almost time. Haven't you always wanted to know what my plan is? Then I'll tell you, and you too. "

" From the beginning, I didn't think this battle could be won, nor did I think that things would get better for Bancheng and Day City after I returned. I just wanted to completely defeat that guy I hated in the beginning, so that he would never be able to play this game again, " Zuo An's smile looked a little distorted: " As long as this matter is done, I don't care what happens to Day City next. Thank you for pulling off the T , which helped me a lot. You helped me do what Youyue City didn't do, which is also good. "

Zuo An's eyes flashed with an evil light, and he smiled and said: " You know who I'm talking about, right? "

Zhaochen and Yugui's expressions were synchronized for a moment, but soon they no longer cared about that.

In the battle to attack Fanxing City, Zuo An finally met Ji Xuanyi face to face. After knowing that Ji Xuanyi was Mu Xuanyi, he suddenly remembered what his original purpose was in establishing Bancheng.

Although the probability of playing the same game as your enemy, being in the same server, and meeting him is very small, Zuo An's desire for revenge on Mu Xuanyi makes him completely ignore this small probability. He knows that with Mu Xuanyi's personality, it is impossible for him not to play this game. Even if they are not in the same server, after the server transfer function is opened in the future, he can always bring his own forces to find that guy.

From the very beginning of establishing Bancheng, Zuo An told Zhaochen and Yugui that he established this gang in order to take revenge on Mu Xuanyi, hoping to find an opportunity to crush the other party under his feet in the future.

However, it took too long to establish the gang, and Mu Xuanyi had not shown up yet . Zuo An was actually a little tired. However, as luck would have it, he had a feud with Fanxing City, and Ji Xuanyi happened to be in the management of Fanxing City. To Zuo An, Ji Xuanyi seemed to be born to oppose him, and his vengeance made him absolutely unable to let this man go.

In fact, Zuo An had never thought about fighting to the death with Ji Xuan at the beginning and sacrificing the entire half city and Yueri City. What finally broke Zuo An's psychological defense was Zhao Chen's concealment.

It's not that Zuo An didn't feel something was wrong around him. He knew there was an undercover agent inside Bancheng. He even considered returning with him, but he hardly ever doubted Zhaochen. However, Zhaochen disappointed him. From then until now, Zuo An has seen Zhaochen protecting Ji Xuanyi more than once, or he thought that was Zhaochen protecting Ji Xuanyi.

But the details are not important. Zuo An has already hired people to sneak attack Ji Xuanyi when he was distracted by pulling away the T. After Ji Xuanyi was killed , there was still a group of people ambushing at the resurrection point to ensure that Ji Xuanyi could not leave the resurrection point until he reached level 20.

Zhaochen stared at Zuo An intently. He didn't seem as excited as before. After a long while, he said, " You were in the wrong in the first place. "

Zuo An suddenly looked up at him and said, " What do you know?! "

Zhaochen didn't say anything. He was silent for a long time before he said, " It's up to you. I won't let that guy stop . I want to see if he will die at the hands of an idiot like you. "

Zuo An sneered and said, " This isn't the first time that Mu Xuanyi has fallen into my hands, and you weren't by my side at that time. "

Zhaochen hunched and said nothing .

When Yugui heard that Zuo An was actually going after Ji Xuanyi, her hands began to tremble. But she knew that even if she killed Zuo An and Zhao Chen on the spot, it would be useless, let alone grabbing Zuo An by the collar and roaring at him. She could only force a smile and said, " An assassin going to kill Mu Xuanyi? That's not very reliable. He's so powerful and a veteran assassin player. Even if he's playing a warlock now, he can't be killed that easily. He's still in the priest group and is surrounded by healers. "

Zuo An glanced at Yu Gui and said with a smile: " Do you think I can't think of such a thing? " Yugui cursed inwardly, "You're the only one who thinks of this kind of thing most thoughtfully!" However, she did not dare to show it, but her palms were full of sweat, and she said: " It's useless for you to think of this. As long as he can withstand the first blow, the priests around him will heal him immediately. He has no chance at all. There is no solution to the healer lineup, okay? "

Zuo An looked at Yu Gui and said, " What if he can't withstand the first blow? "

Upon hearing this, Yugui's face turned pale.

In the game, it is very easy to beat someone who is slightly stronger than you, as long as you have better equipment than him. But if you want to beat a master who is much stronger than you, it will be difficult to make a difference in equipment. If a master can be easily killed by a noob, then the game is basically useless.

However, this situation generally refers to the kind of equipment that requires real money to get artifacts. If the presence of RMB players is too high, it will cause a very bad experience for ordinary players.

Although the game "Domain" does not have a system for charging money to get equipment, it does have a setting for artifacts. For example, the warlock artifact in Ji Xuanyi's hand, the Staff of the Undead, can be said to be an exceptional equipment. However, because it has side effects and depends on the player's combat skills, it is only slightly worse than cheating.

If there is a warlock artifact, there must be an assassin artifact as well. Zuo An actually only accidentally learned from the forum that someone on the second server had obtained the assassin artifact. With a half-believing and half-doubting attitude, he took a lot of effort to find this person. After confirming that the artifact did exist, Zuo An spent a lot of money to persuade this person to help him kill someone.

In addition, Zuo'an lost half of the city and Sun City for the plan. It has to be said that the cost was very high, but in Zuo'an's view, it was worth it.

The assassin's artifact is called Assassin's Dagger, and it has only one effect, which is instant death regardless of defense.

It can only be used on players. Once stabbed in the back by a dagger, no matter how much health the player has, no matter how many BUFFs the player has , or even if the player is in an invincible state, it will be useless. The player will die immediately and the penalty for demotion will be doubled.

The CD of this instant death effect is seven days, which means that the person who gets this dagger cannot take revenge on society and go on a killing spree , but can only kill one person with instant death every seven days. Compared with Ji Xuanyi's evil spirit staff, this artifact has many restrictions. After all, it has a CD of seven days . As long as your enemies know that you have used up your skills, they can kill you directly within seven days, and you will have no way to deal with it.

the T-shirt pulling out to attract attention on the battlefield, Ji Xuanyi was doomed to die!

After hearing Zuo An's words, Yugui became stiff and her palms were cold. She couldn't imagine what Ji Xuanyi would think if he was gang-raped. It might not even be something that could be solved by simply quitting the game.

Yugui tried to force a smile, but her cheeks just twitched, completely out of her control.

Zuo An said: " What's wrong? Are you unhappy? "

Yu Gui said in a choked voice: " Why should I be happy or unhappy? I have no grudge against Ji Xuanyi. I just feel a little ... "

 " What's the matter? " Zuo An asked with interest.

Yugui's mouth twitched: " I'm a little scared. You two quarreled so fiercely. I ... I am a girl after all. "

Zuo An didn't say anything.

Yugui said with a pale face: " I feel a little uncomfortable, can I leave for a while? "

Zuo An no longer wanted to care about these things. He just waved his hand and let it go.

Yugui turned around and trotted a few steps, then immediately disappeared and whispered to Ji Xuan: " Be careful! Zuo'an has hired someone to kill you! "

 [Ji Xuanyi] : Hmm?

When there was chaos inside the Sun City, Ji Xuanyi had actually been focusing on the World Boss .

The fighting desire of the players in Daylight City was extremely low. They only struggled hard when they were about to be killed . In addition, Phantom Moon City did not help them as Zuo An had thought, so the attack of Daylight City was suppressed by Starry City as if it was a tickle, without any effort at all.

Ji Xuan took a closer look and after confirming that Day City would never stand a chance of rising again, he turned his attention to the World Boss .

He also needs to come up with a way to replace Qi Qin T monster as soon as possible, otherwise, everything will collapse after eight o'clock.

But before Ji Xuanyi could come up with a solution, another ID that he had no impression of appeared on the BOSS 's hate list – no, to be precise, there was suddenly only one person's name left on the BOSS 's hate list, including Qi Qin. The names of several swordsmen who had previously had high hatred levels disappeared from the hate list in an instant!

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then immediately realized what had happened. The person on the hatred list used the Strong Hatred skill, which cleared the hatred of everyone else and forced the BOSS to set him as the first hatred target!

This is very common in other games, and almost all T classes have this skill. However, in Domain, the T class has not yet been completely determined, and even the PVP and PVE equipment have not been completely differentiated. As far as Ji Xuanyi knows, the swordsman has not yet obtained the strong revenge skill. How did that happen? !

However, this question only appeared for a moment, and was suppressed by Ji Xuanyi. How he did it was not important. What was important was that since that person could use such a skill, it meant that he must have come prepared. What was his purpose? Ji Xuanyi did not believe that the other party only showed up because he wanted to help the tank monster out of kindness. If so, where had he been before?

Sure enough, before Ji Xuanyi put down his hand that was treating Qi Qin, he saw that person grab the BOSS and immediately raised his feet to move towards Youyue City!

He wants to pull this BOSS off !

When Ji Xuanyi realized this, his eyes turned cold and he pointed the staff in his hand at the man without hesitation.

It's not easy to grab hatred, but isn't it easy to kill people ?

However, just as Ji Xuanyi was concentrating on predicting the man's next movement trajectory, the space behind him suddenly fluctuated!

Chapter 129

When Ji Xuanyi wants to do something , he is very focused.

Just like now , Ji Xuanyi's attention was all on the person in front of him who was pulling off the tank , and he didn't notice the changes behind him at all. The priests around him only had eyes for the health bars on the field dropping rapidly , and had no time to pay attention to the situation around Ji Xuanyi.

The moment the assassin showed up, the dagger in his hand had already been thrust towards Ji Xuanyi's vest . At the same time, Ji Xuanyi's paralysis skill also hit the T- shirt on the field . After using the skill , Ji Xuanyi actually reacted immediately. He sensed the murderous intent behind him, but the tip of the dagger was less than one centimeter away from him. He had no time to respond . Not to mention turning around, Ji Xuanyi didn't even have the chance to shout.

The next second, the dagger penetrated deeply into his body , instant death was triggered!

Ji Xuanyi felt a chill in his heart . It was the feeling of being killed and about to return to the resurrection point. Ji Xuanyi even broke out in a cold sweat at that moment!

Shit! He was ambushed! So the plan of Daylight City was aimed at him!

Before Ji Xuanyi could finish his thought, he suddenly felt the chill of being killed suddenly fade away from his body , but he was still in the same place and did not fly back to the resurrection point.

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, and immediately turned around to look behind him . He couldn't even see the assassin's face clearly, but saw him instantly turn into a white light and fly towards the resurrection point.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi: " ??? "

Before Ji Xuanyi figured out what was going on, he heard a system prompt. Ji Xuanyi lowered his head and opened the chat channel. It turned out to be a secret chat with Gui.

[Yugui] : Be careful! Zuo'an has hired someone to kill you!

Ji Xuanyi was confused and replied subconsciously: " Hmm? "

Yugui said nervously: " Watch your back! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Should he tell Yugui that her reminder came a little late?

Everything designed by Zuo'an this time was too coincidental. The artifact dagger, and Zhaochen's assist in pulling off the T , made it impossible for Ji Xuanyi to escape without knowing it. Yu Gui was trembling with fear, worried that Ji Xuanyi didn't understand what he was saying and would be negligent in guarding against it. He was also worried that he had said too much and would attract Ji Xuanyi's attention, making him unable to notice the approach of the assassin. He was completely tangled up.

After a long silence, Ji Xuanyi could probably guess what the other party was thinking, and said speechlessly: " It seems that the assassin you mentioned has been here before. "

Yugui: "... What the hell? "

Yu Gui was confused. Has the assassin been here? Is he really the assassin with the artifact? How could Ji Xuanyi still be chatting with him? Has he returned to the resurrection point? Has he escaped from the resurrection point? Or has he not been killed at all?

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Although I was stabbed, I don't know why I didn't die, but the assassin did. I'll take a look at the situation and tell you when I figure it out. "

Yugui responded in confusion, " Well, then you do your best ..."

Ji Xuanyi then closed the chat channel and began to check the BUFF on himself .

Could it be that August had cheated him without his knowledge?

Ji Xuan looked around at his condition and discovered that the elf necklace on his neck was out of service .

If he remembered correctly, the effect of this elf necklace seemed to be a 0.1% chance of reflecting five times all the damage suffered by the player ...

0.1% probability! Ji Xuanyi was completely embarrassed. He thought he would not be able to trigger this special effect until the game was shut down! That assassin was so damn unlucky! The sneak attack that the other party had painstakingly designed failed because of such a low-probability event, which made Ji Xuanyi, the person who was tricked, feel a little embarrassed. Ji Xuanyi didn't know that this was actually a perfect plan, but it was actually the result of several coincidences. It was not unfair that it was dismantled.

While Ji Xuanyi was sighing, Zuo'an also received news that the assassination attempt had failed.

Zuo An was completely dumbfounded. He never expected that Ji Xuanyi had an item that could rebound damage. He stared at the chat channel for a long time.

Zuo An couldn't even make an angry expression, he was completely dazed. When Zhao Chen saw him like this, he almost understood the result. He had just received the news from that Latuo T. After Ji Xuanyi used paralysis on that Latuo T , he was killed by the players from Youyue City and sent back to the resurrection point.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was a beat slow to react, but fortunately Ye Linyu noticed something was wrong and found that Latuo T was being controlled in place. After confirming that it was impossible to draw back the hatred, he directly ordered to kill that person, and then Qi Qin also took back the hatred very smoothly.

Everything on the battlefield was now back on track. Except for some players from Sun City still fighting with people from Star City, the commotion that had occurred before was almost unnoticeable.

Zhaochen's expression was very strange. He seemed to be recalling something, a little bit wanting to laugh, but also mixed with great resentment. He looked in the direction of Star City with flickering eyes. After a long time, he looked towards the left bank beside him with an expressionless face.

" You can't kill him, " Zhaochen said, " People like you can't kill him. "

Zuo An suddenly raised his head, glared at Zhao Chen, and cursed: " What the hell do you know! Mu Xuanyi's glory is all fake! His friends are all fake! With just a little trick, he will become like a stray dog-- "

Zuo An's voice stopped abruptly. He found that Zhaochen looked at him very strangely. He couldn't tell what was in that look, but he could see Zhaochen's contempt.

Zuo An's breathing paused for a moment, and then, as if he had been poked in some unspeakable pain, he roared: " What the fuck is that expression on your face?! "

Zhaochen retracted his gaze and said, " It's nothing, you saw it wrong. "

Zuo An wanted to grab him and have an explanation, but he was afraid that he would be even more embarrassed after explaining it. After hesitating for a long time, he angrily opened the chat channel.

Everything is over anyway, everyone will be ruined today, what is he afraid of!

Zuo An had completely lost his mind. He directly ordered the people he hired at the resurrection point to kill the stupid assassin who had failed in assassination with the artifact. After that, anyone who appeared at the resurrection point, anyone from the Dayo City who wanted to escape, would be killed!

Zhaochen has already given up on this guy. Now the Day City and half of the city have lost all their fighting spirit. Their overall strength has been reduced to one tenth of what it used to be.

He has played a good hand of cards so badly. What higher demands can Zhaochen have?

He looked at Zuo An again, and felt very complicated when he thought that he would have to say goodbye to this guy from now on .

"Just like I said before," Zhaochen looked at Zuo'an and said, "Leave Bancheng and don't show up in Daylight City again."

Zuo An, who was typing, was stunned and looked up at him: "What do you mean?!"

Zhaochen ignored him and directly ordered everyone to follow him to evacuate. Zuo An reacted immediately and ordered everyone not to leave.

In Zuo An's opinion, when he and Zhaochen were in a cold war before, so many people stood on his side, isolating Zhaochen. It must be the same now, no one will obey Zhaochen's orders. But he really didn't understand people's hearts, and probably couldn't see the current situation clearly. Regardless of their own ulterior motives, the players of Daytime City had already lost their fighting spirit, and no one was willing to stay, no matter if it was Zhaochen's order or Zuo'an's, even if it was Yugu's order, as long as they saw the word retreat, they would listen. The players of Dayo City, who were already being suppressed by Star City, retreated even faster. Under Zhaochen's command, the players of Dayo City huddled together and barely organized a formation.

Ji Xuanyi had just stabilized the situation on the battlefield when he saw the actions of Yaori City and frowned slightly.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia didn't know when she squeezed into the place where the two main cities were fighting. She also saw the actions of the Sun City and quickly chatted with Ji Xuan: "It seems that the Sun City suddenly has a commander. It should be that Zhaochen who took over. What do you say? Do you want to kill him?"

With the change of command and combat purpose, the momentum of the players in Sun City has changed. Although they can be held down by force, there is still a BOSS on the other side, so it is not good to waste too much strength.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and replied, "That's enough. Keep an eye on Zuo An and Zhao Chen and try to kill them. Don't force yourself on the other people in Day City."

Not all the players in the Sun City are like Zuo'an Zhaochen. Ji Xuanyi remembered Xiaoxiao Yuxia saying that during the world mission before, many players in the Sun City also stayed behind for their safety and helped to repel the BOSS.

Although it has come to this point now, in the final analysis, the antagonism between players is only due to the faction settings of the game, and the only people who really have grudges against Ji Xuanyi and his friends are Zuo An and Zhao Chen.

Not to mention that Ji Xuanyi is not so crazy as to massacre the entire Day City. In fact, as a main city in the game, Day City will actually have a steady influx of new players. They may not even know what happened between Star City and Day City. They just join in because they like the name of Day City, or like the scenery of Day City, or have relatives and friends in Day City ... various reasons.

Of course, Star City can indiscriminately target players from Sun City, but that makes no sense. Ji Xuan only wanted to peel Zuo An and Zhao Chen, two inexplicable people, out of the big concept of Yueri City and kill them. He had no interest in who would take over Yueri City and what it would become.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia, as an old player, could understand this matter very well. After Ji Xuanyi finished speaking, he responded, checked the number of people, and dispatched a small team to pursue the remnants of the Daylight City army. The main force remained in the original place to attack the BOSS .

" But speaking of that, " Xiaoxiao Yuxia said, " Ji Xuanyi, have you figured out who to send to take over the boss after eight o'clock ? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

I was just assassinated once, and I escaped with a 0.01% chance. I haven't recovered yet, and you're telling me this?!

Ji Xuanyi felt that he really shouldn't be working so hard. Just as he was about to pass the blame on, he suddenly saw Xu Chu sending him a private message.

[Xu Chu] : My mount and I arrived at the battlefield on time in six days! Do you need my help?

God knows, Xu Chu actually just wanted to act mean, but Ji Xuanyi was suddenly awakened and a smile appeared on his face.

" You're on time, " Ji Xuanyi said, " I need you just as I need you. "

[Xu Chu] : ... Hahaha, you are so interesting. I'm leaving first. See you later!

Of course Xu Chu didn't really run away. He had long seen through the character of this group of people. Every time they said they needed him, what they actually needed was his money!

Ji Xuanyi said: " It's not entirely true. I also needed someone like you. "

Just when I was on the world quest to conquer the elves.

Xu Chu said faintly: " Then you still need my money, thank you. "

In fact, Ji Xuanyi just wanted to ask Xu Chu if he had collected one or two pieces of T equipment. The reason why that person was able to clear the hatred list of the World BOSS and hold the hatred steadily was that no matter how Ji Xuanyi thought about it, he could only think of the equipment.

PVE gameplay of this game is not yet complete, and the so-called T equipment actually has no regular source of supply. At least it is not recorded in the equipment booklet that Ji Xuanyi got from the hidden mission in Green Forest City. I think the output of T equipment should also be through various strange tasks and wild BOSS drops. Other players will not care, but if it is Xu Chu, he might really have a few pieces.

the guy who pulled off the T- suit before was just so-so. He could grab Qi Qin's hatred by wearing several T- suits. If someone else wears the T -suit, he could probably replace Qi Qin and play the role of carrying monsters.

However, Xu Chu was going to disappoint Ji Xuanyi this time. Although he liked to collect some strange materials and equipment, those were all things with special effects. No matter how rare T- suits were in this game, they were just ordinary T -suits. For Xu Chu, there was no point in collecting them. In the games Xu Chu had played before, T -suits had always been the equipment with the least demand and the lowest price. How could he possibly spend money to buy this?

" So to sum up, " Xu Chu said innocently, " I didn't do that. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Xu Chu almost knew the importance of the matter. He remembered what Qi Qin did after eight o'clock. He thought about it and said, " I will go back to the main city trading house and auction house to see if there is anything to sell. But if I run back and forth now, I don't have enough time. "

More than that it was not enough. By the time Xu Chu ran back and forth, it would probably be early morning. The players from Starry City and Youyue City had no idea how long they had been at the hands of the BOSS . Moreover, things like T -equipment could not necessarily be bought in the trading house.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " I do know where I can buy T- shirts nearby. "

Xu Chu was stunned and asked, " Where? "

Ji Xuanyi: t that what the guy wearing'Isn " the T- shirt was wearing? Why don't you go to the resurrection point and take a look? Even though he is from Dayo City, I believe that with your financial resources, there is nothing you can't buy. "

Xu Chu: "..."

The equipment on the enemy must also be stripped! Ji Xuanyi, you are too cruel!

But what Ji Xuanyi said is right. This is the most convenient method recently, and there seems to be no other choice.

Xu Chu finally agreed. However, there must be a lot of dead players from Day City at the resurrection point. In order to ensure his own safety, Xu Chu called for a team from Xiao Xiao Yuxia to send him to the resurrection point to find people.

When Xiaoxiao Yuxia was assigning people to him, she told him seriously that at the current output speed, the fight would probably last until the early morning. If you don't bring back the T equipment before eight o'clock, you can just commit suicide outside to apologize.

Xu Chu pretended not to see it and hurriedly led his men to the resurrection point.

Xu Chu's guess was correct. The casualties in Youri City were indeed heavy, almost filling up the entire resurrection point. Before Xu Chu went there, there was a commotion there because of Zuo An's final crazy order. However, when Zuo An hired people, he hired them according to the ability of Ji Xuanyi, a warlock. Although a few people were killed in vain at the beginning, as more people died in Youri City later, the few people hired by Zuo An were killed in return . In fact, not all the players at the resurrection point were from Daylight City. There were also a few squishy players from Youyue City and Fanxing City who were beaten back by the BOSS . However, the players from Daylight City were already exhausted both physically and mentally. Except for the few people who took the initiative to provoke them, even when they saw the people from Fanxing City, they just looked at them with complicated expressions and had no intention of fighting.

After all, the two commanders in Bancheng had no intention of giving them any orders, so this group of people stayed at the resurrection point with peace of mind. Some of them logged off, while others simply sat down at the resurrection point to chat and daydream.

When Xu Chu and Liu Tian were leading their men over there, players from Fanxing City and Youyue City were running towards them, trying to rush to the battlefield. Xu Chu stopped them and asked about the situation, but they couldn't explain it clearly, only saying that there was no fight at the resurrection point.

After Xu Chu heard these words, he almost understood the current situation of the people in Day City. He was no longer panicked and slowly led his people to the resurrection point. Several players from Day City had already started playing Landlord and Mahjong. When they heard the sound of a large army coming, some of them hurriedly went offline, while others stood up to see what was going on. However, it was obvious that the former were much more than the latter, and when they saw clearly that the people coming were from Star City, more than half of the latter went offline again.

Xu Chu was afraid that the man in the T-shirt had also gone offline, so he quickly said, "Don't go, don't go. We don't want to fight. We have something to discuss with you!"

The people of Day City had been deceived countless times by the conspiracies and schemes of Star City. How could they possibly listen to him? They logged off one after another without even hesitation and completely ignored him.

Seeing this, Xu Chu had no choice but to use his trump card, pulling out a dozen bags of gold coins and throwing them out, shouting: "No one wants the money?!"

There is a saying that goes, "People die for money and birds die for food." When Xu Chu used this trick, the players from the Star City behind him were all shocked, not to mention the people from the Sun City. Even though they knew it was a trap, they still picked up a few bags of gold coins before logging off. That was all money!

Everyone stopped moving and rushed to the gold coin bags. Although Xu Chu was rich, he still felt a little pain in his heart to spend so much money. Seeing that no one was in a hurry to log off, he said quickly: "You know what's going on now. I'm not here to kill you all. I'm mainly here for the World Boss. Didn't you have a Latuo tank before? Where is he? I want to buy his equipment."

When the people in Day City heard this, they all looked at him strangely.

You, Star City, have already done so much to hurt Sun City, and now you want to buy our equipment? What's wrong with you?

Xu Chu smiled and said, "I am not as good as Xiao Xiao Yu Xia in winning people's hearts, but you should understand the truth. The rewards of the World BOSS are rewards that can be obtained by all regions and servers. If the BOSS is defeated, everyone can get the rewards together. If it cannot be defeated, everyone can only suffer together."

Xu Chu's words were sincere, without the slightest intention of deceiving, but the fact was that the World BOSS was an activity that united all players, and they would prosper together and suffer together. When some of the players in the Sun City heard this, the expressions on their faces changed, and only some of them were still staring at Xu Chu vigilantly.

Xu Chu spread his hands and said, "The truth is clear. If you think about it, you will understand the mentality of your commander Zuo An when he decided to take action. If you are like him, you would rather lose 3,000 of your own men than injure 800 of the enemy. Then I will not say anything. Let's go now. If you are willing, I can stay here to accompany you and have fun."

Xu Chu's words actually carried some threats, but he smiled amiably, and it looked like he was just joking: "Factions are just a way of playing, just a game, there is no need for so much hatred, if Zuo An is not here, will Day City and Star City still fight to the death? In fact, everyone knows what kind of game they are playing and what they want. If that Latuo T is here, you can come and talk to me, I promise that the equipment price will satisfy you. "

Xu Chu's words were very concise, and the players in Day City were almost all convinced. But when it came to the mention of the Latuo T , everyone looked at each other, and no one came out to respond to Xu Chu's words.

After a long while, someone finally said, " It was too chaotic just now. Before we came here, someone was maliciously taking advantage of the lone person. Maybe he's offline now, so we can't say for sure. "

Xu Chu's cheeks twitched. It was really fucked up that he was offline. Didn't all his words just now go in vain?

Liu Tian was also a little angry. He had waited for Xu Chu for half a day today and had been running around with him for so long without taking a break or doing anything. He was already in a bad mood, and now he couldn't even find anyone to buy equipment. Liu Tian felt like exploding.

However, game players are generally soft-hearted, so Liu Tian's explosion would probably ruin the game. Xu Chu quickly held him down, thought for a moment, and said to the players in Day City, " Don't you have someone who can contact that person offline? I won't take your information for free. If you buy equipment, I can pay an extra 30%. "

At this point everyone could see that Xu Chu was a wealthy man. T- suits were quite rare in this game. Although no one knew what the final transaction price would be, 30% of the money would definitely not be less.

Someone in the Sun City team hesitated , raised his hand, and said, " I know that person, and I can call him offline for you, but I'm only responsible for passing on the message. It's up to him whether to sell it or not. I can't guarantee that he will come up. "

When this person heard Xu Chu's words, he actually hesitated whether to go offline and call for help. However, he couldn't guarantee that what Xu Chu said was true. What if he was lying? He didn't get any benefits, and his friend was called online and cheated, so he had to take the blame.

But now that Xu Chu has promised benefits, we can give this a try.

Xu Chu heard this, smiled and said: " Okay, thank you for your help. "

The player looked at Xu Chu again, added him as a friend with concern, and asked Xu Chu to repeat his words in the chat channel and take a screenshot, then he logged off with peace of mind.

Going online and offline, as well as contacting people, all take time. Xu Chu could understand very well the feeling of needing time. He leisurely climbed down from the Six-Day Horse, found a rock to sit and wait, opened the chat channel to chat with Ji Xuanyi, and teased Xiao Xiao Yuxia at the same time.

Liu Tian got off the horse impatiently, stood next to Xu Chu, and said: " How long do we have to wait? I'm so annoyed. Isn't this activity about fighting the BOSS ? I'm ready, and I've wasted all my time on you, an idiot! "

Liu Tian has said similar complaints many times, but when something happens, he can only serve as Xu Chu's mount. Xu Chu now pretends not to hear him and just does his own thing.

Liu Tian was so angry that he wanted to die, but there was nothing he could do. He could only glance around at the group of people from the Day City with a gloomy face. Seeing that everyone avoided his gaze, he felt inexplicably happy.

Xu Chu looked up at him and thought, idiot.

Liu Tian couldn't hear what Xu Chu was saying in his heart anyway, and he was having a lot of fun playing by himself. After a while, he found a man sitting at the resurrection point, his face was pale, his expression was panic, and he was staring at them blankly.

Liu Tian glared at him fiercely, but the man did not react.

That's not right. Could it be that the murderous aura in his eyes has weakened? Liu Tian was a little confused and thought for a long time. He ruled out this reason and thought that there must be something wrong with that person.

Liu Tian squatted down, leaned close to Xu Chu's ear, and whispered: "Look at that guy, he's so fucking weird, he keeps staring at us, is he trying to provoke us?"

Xu Chu dodged and pushed Liu Tian's head away, then looked in the direction Liu Tian pointed, sneered, and said, "I'm provoking you, are you stupid? This guy has this expression, and he's still sitting at the resurrection point. You can tell at a glance that he was gang-raped. It must have been done by the group they mentioned before."

Liu Tian frowned and said, "Just go level up when your turn comes. What's the big deal..."

Liu Tian felt something was wrong. He turned around and found Xu Chu looking at him with squinting eyes. He said, "You want to level up when it's your turn? You have a very good attitude. Otherwise, I would have cut your level down a few levels. Why don't you try to level up?"

Liu Tian then touched his nose and felt that his thinking was a bit simple.

It doesn't matter if you are at level 20 or 30 in the early stage, it doesn't make much difference anyway, you can level up quickly. Now most of the troops are at level 50 or 60, and if you start from level 20 again, not to mention how far behind your former enemies and friends you are, all the effort and time spent in between will be wasted. It is not so easy to stand up again. Most people will probably choose to quit the game and delete their account in this situation. Maybe they will go to other servers to play in a different manner in the future, but for those who know this account, it is probably a farewell forever.

Liu Tian looked at that person and actually felt a rare sense of sympathy.

Liu Tian was hesitating whether to go over and comfort that person, but Xu Chu had already met that person's eyes.

Unlike Liu Tian, Xu Chu didn't have that much sympathy. His eyes were more curious. Rather than wondering what this person was like before, he was more curious about how this person had become so unlucky to be gang-raped.

Logically speaking, with this time difference, it is unlikely that those malicious people would wreak havoc here for too long. The victims are estimated to be only three or two, and if you consider the one who reacted in time and logged off, it is possible that this person was the only one killed at level 20.

To say that only innocent people were affected, isn't that a bit too tragic?

The man also noticed Xu Chu's gaze. After a long time, he seemed to think of something. His silent eyes suddenly moved, as if they came alive for a moment, and a look of hesitation appeared on his face.

Xu Chu was stunned for a moment, raised his eyebrows with interest, and gave the man a harmless smile.

Liu Tian was frightened by Xu Chu's malicious smile, but unfortunately, most people didn't know Xu Chu as well as Liu Tian did.

The man was obviously deceived, but when he saw Xu Chu's smile, he seemed to have finally made up his mind. He first looked down at his backpack, then looked at the situation around him, and finally gritted his teeth, stood up from the ground, and walked towards Xu Chu with somewhat unsteady steps.

Xu Chu kept looking at the man until he came in front of him. Then Xu Chu smiled and said, "What's wrong? Is there anything I can help you with? "

The man looked at Xu Chu for a long while, his face flushed, and he said, I just heard you "collecting T- shirts here . "

Xu Chu nodded and said, " That's right. What's the matter? Do you have it too? If it doesn't overlap with the equipment on the person later, I can take it. "

The man frowned, although it was only for a moment, but Xu Chu noticed a hint of disdain on his face for what he said.

Oh my, it looks like I've found a treasure.

Xu Chu suppressed the subconscious desire to curl up the corners of his mouth and said: " Hmm? "

The man then said, " No, what I have in my hand is not a T- shirt, it is much better than that. " After saying that, the man hesitated again, as if he couldn't decide whether to say it or not.

Xu Chu smiled and said, " It's okay. I really like collecting those weird equipment. Tell me what you want to sell. The price is negotiable. "

The man swallowed his saliva, stared at Xu Chu and said, " I'm afraid you can't afford it. "

Not to mention Xu Chu, Liu Tian who was standing next to him was also amused. He snorted and said , " Except for other people's boyfriends, I have never seen anything that this guy can't afford! "

" Ah? Boyfriend? " The man subconsciously covered his chest and looked at Xu Chu vigilantly.

Xu Chu: "..."

Six days, I'll knock your grandma!

Although the boyfriend Liu Tian was referring to was Qi Qin, this misunderstanding was still serious. Xu Chu gritted his teeth and glared at Liu Tian before explaining, " It's just a metaphor. Anyway, you don't have to worry about the price. I'm not the only one with money here. "

The man then put down his hand doubtfully and looked at Xu Chu with a frown.

Xu Chu spread his hands towards him and said, " I can't prove this to you. If you want to sell it, then sell it. If you don't want to sell it, that's fine too. "

There was still hesitation on the man's face . Xu Chu guessed that he would still struggle with it for a while, so he just let him be.

But to be honest, for a person to be gang-raped and become so entangled, it must at least be an orange weapon. I don't know if it has any special effects. Xu Chu is still very interested. After six days of secret conversations, he was told to be careful with the other party, so he turned his attention to the players in Sun City.

The Sun City player who had just logged off to look for someone came back and brought the Latuo T with him.

Xu Chu put on that amiable smile again and walked towards the two people.

The Lato T's face was not very good. The fact that he was sent to Lato actually proved his status and character in Zhaochen. However, in the current situation, he also knew that the situation in Yuri City and Bancheng was probably not good. Now, no matter whether he changed jobs or did something else, it was unlikely that he would be held accountable. But after all, he couldn't save face because his equipment was prepared by Zhaochen. Selling it now would not be a good thing in any way.

told him what the Latuo T was concerned about.

said to the pull-out T : " This is very simple. How much did you pay for those pieces of equipment? I will give you double the price. You return one to him and make a profit from the other. Isn't that enough? "

Nalatuo T didn't expect Xu Chu to say such a thing at all, he was a little stunned. In fact, he didn't have a strong sense of morality in his heart. He thought it would be reasonable if Xu Chu gave him a little more money. But he didn't know if the other party was stupid or what, he just doubled the money and gave another 30% to his relatives and friends. No matter how you look at it, he made a fortune. He didn't hesitate or delay , and nodded quickly. When Xu Chu took out the money, he took off his equipment quickly.

Xu Chu is certainly not stupid, he also knows that he can capture the person by spending a little more money. The reason why he looks like a fool with a lot of money is actually for the person next to him to see. Xu Chu is sure that he has something good in his hand, so how could he let it go!

Sure enough, when that person saw Xu Chu taking out the money, the hesitation on his face disappeared, and he instead showed a hint of eagerness.

Xu Chu smiled calmly, put away the T -suits, sent the two Sun City players away, turned to look at the man, and said, " Well, have you made up your mind? They're still waiting for us to send the equipment over. If you don't sell it, I'll have to leave. "

When the man heard this, he immediately said, " I'll sell it! "

Xuchu smiled and said, " What do you want to sell? "

The man frowned and took out a pitch-black dagger from the package with great care. The dagger was very worn out, but there was a faint black aura lingering around it, which gave people an ominous feeling.

Xu Chu's eyes moved, he looked up at the man and said, " What is this? "

The man seemed a little unhappy with Xu Chu's ignorance, but he touched the sharp blade of the dagger that was glowing with black light, and finally lowered his voice and said in a barely audible voice: " The assassin's artifact, the Assassin's dagger. "

Xu Chu's pupils shrank.

...

After all, it was a divine weapon, and it took a lot of time to negotiate the price. The players from Day City who were waiting at the resurrection point waited for a long time but received no response or instructions. In addition, they had already dealt with the people from Star City, so they lost their last bit of persistence, and soon they all went offline one after another.

The unfortunate assassin sold the artifact for a large sum of money. The income from the three-dimensional world was enough to offset the hurt he suffered from Lun Bai's withdrawal from the game, and he logged off with great satisfaction.

Although Xu Chu spent a lot of money, it must be said that it was worth it.

Unlike Ji Xuanyi's evil spirit staff which has its own skills but can only be used by magic professions, the instant death attached to Assassin's dagger is actually an effect. It does not require the holder to be an agile profession. It is a special effect that can be triggered as long as the right place is attacked. In other words, Xu Chu, a rookie mage, can also use this dagger.

Just ask yourself, who would always watch their back when facing a rookie mage?

The only thing that made Xu Chu feel regretful was that this special effect could only be triggered once a week. The dagger was useless in his hand for at least six days, twenty-three hours, fifty-nine minutes and fifty-nine seconds every week. Moreover, this was a close combat weapon. Xu Chu was confident in his own strength. By the time the enemy got close to him, he would have been killed at least five times.

All I can say is that this thing is just something to keep in mind for emergencies, and it's not very useful in combat.

But even so, Xu Chu didn't regret buying it at all. This is a godly weapon! There is only one for each profession in the whole server! It's worth it just as a collection!

Liu Tian couldn't stand Xu Chu's happy look anymore. Just when he was about to remind him that someone was waiting, a white light flashed at the resurrection point again, and an old acquaintance appeared in front of them!

Chapter 130

When Xu Chu and Liu Tian saw Zuo An appear at the resurrection point with a confused look on his face , they were stunned for a moment.

They only received the news that they had to come to the resurrection point to buy equipment , but they didn't hear that they had to block the left bank.

However, although they didn't understand the situation, they certainly couldn't let Zuo An go. Liu Tian immediately led his men to surround him , and Xu Chu began to contact Xiao Xiao Yuxia to see if he had any plans . It would be very embarrassing if he accidentally disrupted Xiao Xiao Yuxia's plan.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia responded quickly . There was no grand plan. Just kill Zuo'an right where he was.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia had never expected that the Sun City had been consumed by internal strife to such an extent. The remnants of the defeated army were simply vulnerable , and even the resistance to retreat was very reluctant. If it weren't for the fact that Fanxing City did not intend to kill them all , the Sun City would probably have collapsed even faster.

But speaking of it, Zuo An was still a knight and his horse was very good , and it was Xue Piao Renjian who rushed into the team of Youri City and defeated him.

They had originally thought about whether it would be possible to capture him alive and humiliate him, but there were too many people and the chaos was so great that Zuo An fell off his horse , rolled twice on the ground, and was hacked to death by the players of Star City.

Xiao Xiaoyuxia didn't force it since he had already been sent back to the resurrection point. In fact, even if Xu Chu didn't contact Xiao Xiaoyuxia , Xiao Xiaoyuxia would still look for him. He knew that Xu Chu and his team were at the resurrection point, so they could just block the left bank.

Zuo'an's mentality had collapsed. He was blocked at the resurrection point by Liu Tian and his men, but he had no intention of logging off and running away. He just stood there looking at them with resentment.

Zuo An's expression was quite twisted. If it were someone else, they might be disgusted. But Liu Tian, the idiot , didn't get it at all . He said happily, " Haha! Now you've fallen into our hands, how do you want to die? "

Zuo An stared at him without saying anything.

After Xu Chu and Xiao Xiao Yu finished talking, he came over, looked Zuo An up and down, shook his head, and said, " Maybe this is our farewell forever. It's not easy for you to do this for so long. Let's put an end to everything today. "

Xu Chu looked at Liu Tian and said, " They said to just kill him, don't hold back. "

Liu Tian responded and surrounded them with his men. Zuo An's cheeks twitched and he could not help but take a step back, but then he stopped abruptly.

Just as Zuo An was about to close his eyes and die, a familiar voice suddenly rang out.

 " Wait a moment! "

Zuo An was stunned, and when he opened his eyes, he saw Yugui appeared at the resurrection point at some point – she had clearly been with the large army from Dayo City, and the fact that she appeared here so soon meant that she was probably accidentally hacked to death.

Yugui was standing in front of the left bank and couldn't help swallowing.

She was killed and brought back to the resurrection point because of a mistake, and it was just a coincidence that she encountered the scene of Zuo An being surrounded. But now Zuo An still has some value in recycling, and since she saw it, she couldn't let the other party be killed so easily.

However, wanting to stop it is one thing, but being able to do it is another. Yigui also doesn't know whether Ji Xuanyi has told other people in Fanxing City about her situation. If not, the two people in front of them don't know her and of course won't listen to what she says. There is a high probability that they will regard her as an idiot who is loyal to Zuo'an and take advantage of her together.

Yugui was not ready to sacrifice herself to this extent for Zuo'an, so when she saw Xu Chu's playful look, her heart sank.

The other party didn't know her. That's right, for undercover purposes , the fewer people who know about it, the better. For her safety , Ji Xuanyi would not reveal her identity casually. This time he really shot himself in the foot!

The people from Fanxing City were getting closer and closer, and it was too late to contact Ji Xuanyi now. After thinking about it with Gui Lue, he made a quick decision, turned his back to the left bank, and winked at Xu Chu.

Xu Chu was stunned for a moment, then thought of something and immediately said, " Wait a minute. "

" Huh? " Liu Tian, who was suddenly stopped, said unhappily, " What are you doing? Didn't you say you could kill him ? "

Xu Chu smiled and said, " That girl seems to have something to say. " the wink Yu Gui gave Xu Chu , and said in dissatisfaction: " What are you doing? You fell for me just because I winked at you? "

Xu Chu: "..."

It can only be said that it is a good thing that Xu Chu also came. If Liu Tian was the only one here, even if Yu Gui blinked her eyes, this fool probably would not understand what she meant at all!

Xu Chu held his forehead helplessly and said, " No matter how you interpret it, they are about to say goodbye to this game, so just let them finish their last words. We in Star City are still very humane, okay? "

Liu Tian muttered something in dissatisfaction, but since Xu Chu said so, he didn't stop him. They were all people playing games, and although they had hatred and grudges, it had come to the end, so this mentality was understandable.

Liu Tian stepped back, Xu Chu raised his eyebrows, spread his hands towards Yu Gui, and made a gesture of " please start your performance " .

Yugui breathed a sigh of relief, and then he heard Zuo An behind him say, " Why are you here? "

When Yugui turned around, he saw Zuo'an looking at him with a complicated expression: " I didn't expect that you would be the most loyal to me in the end. "

Yugui: "..."

Yugui has so much to complain about. Loyalty and all that is just a game. Brother, you think too highly of yourself!

She couldn't help but steal a glance at the eyes of the people around her, and found that the players of Star City looked at her as if she were a mentally retarded person, and she couldn't help but feel a pain in her heart.

But there was no other way. She couldn't take the blame right now. Zuo An could still use it for the last time. The loss would only be temporary ...

Yugui tried desperately to comfort himself, then pretended to be heartbroken, grabbed Zuo'an's shoulders and roared: " How can you be so self-destructive! If you really get raped here, Day City and half of the city will fall into Zhaochen's hands! "

Zuo An hadn't responded yet. Xu Chu was stunned for a moment, then he frowned.

He was indeed not sure whether Yu Gui was a friend or an enemy just now . He gave him a chance just because of Yu Gui's abnormal behavior with a watchful attitude. But now, he can be sure that Yu Gui is indeed on their side.

Because Yigui reminded him of something he had missed – if Zuo'an died here, Bancheng and Yuericheng would fall into the hands of Zhaochen, a smart man. Zuo'an as an enemy is not scary, and Zuo'an and Zhaochen as enemies at the same time are not scary either, but if Zhaochen is the only one, it would be very troublesome.

Although the current situation in Daytime City is very bad, Xu Chu believes that once Zhaochen is allowed to develop in Daytime City without any burden or constraints, a counterattack is only a matter of time.

Xu Chu touched his chin and looked at Yugui thoughtfully.

Yugui looked back at him calmly and continued to say to Zuo An: " Half of the city can collapse, and Sun City can be abandoned, but are you willing to let these things be taken away by Zhao Chen? They are all your things. The Zuo An I knew before would not be like this. He would accept his fate once he failed! Even if you want to leave, you have to destroy all the things of Zhao Chen's men before you leave! "

Zuo An stared at Yu Gui in a daze. Yu Gui frowned and looked at him seriously: " Zuo An, cheer up. I believe in you. "

The expression on Zuo An's face gradually changed. He grabbed Yu Gui and glared at Liu Tian and Xu Chu angrily, shouting, " Don't think of letting me get ganged up on like this! Even if I die, I won't let Day City fall into your hands! Just wait for me to drag Zhao Chen into the water! "

After saying that, without waiting for everyone to react, Zuo An logged off and ran away.

Yugui, who was left behind, said: "..."

Damn, this guy ran away without even notifying her. If she was really Zuo'an's accomplice, she would have wanted to kill him!

However, Yigui guessed that the person opposite him had also figured out his identity, so he let out a long sigh and sat down on the ground.

Liu Tian was stunned by Zuo An's yelling. He was completely confused. After a long while, he asked Xu Chu, " No, what does he mean by that? Why does he look like he is going to offend Zhao Chen just to offend us? "

Xu Chu was also confused by Zuo An for a moment, but then he reacted and applauded Yu Gui sincerely.

Awesome, they actually put the blame on Zhaochen. The division of the Day City was actually due to the undercover agent!

Yugui saw Xuchu understood and smiled helplessly. He reached out to put the strands of hair that had fallen in front of him behind his ears and said to Xuchu, " It has nothing to do with me. It's mainly because Zuoan is too good an enemy . If he wants to doubt Zhaochen, I can't stop him. "

Xuchu walked over, pushed away Liutian who subconsciously wanted to stop him, stretched out his hand to pull Yugui up from the ground, and said: " My name is Xuchu. "

He smiled at her and said, " I'm going back. "

Xu Chu raised an eyebrow.

Liu Tian was confused: " No, what's going on? Isn't this girl from Day City? Wait, she was just being affectionate with Zuo An, what enemy ? What are you talking about? "

Yugui looked at Liutian curiously, and Xuchu said with a fake smile: " It's okay, he's a fool, don't worry about him. "

Liutian: " I understand this sentence! "

In the end, Xu Chu still spent some time helping Liu Tian sort out his logic and told him the reason for letting Zuo An go. Only then did he convince Liu Tian to go back with him to find the main force.

Xu Chu and Yu Gui talked about it. Although they decided to let Zuo An go back to cause trouble for Zhao Chen, neither of them actually thought highly of Zuo An. The other party had lost the support of the people and was no match for Zhao Chen in other aspects. It was very likely that they would just make Zhao Chen troubled for a while and then the problem would be solved.

But even if it only causes Zhaochen some trouble, it is actually worth it. After all, they don't have to pay anything for letting Zuo An go. It can be said that it is a decision that only brings benefits. Yugui estimated that she would not be able to stay in Yuri City for long. Zhaochen would definitely not let her go after Zuo'an's downfall, so she did not hide anything and told Xuchu about her relationship with Ji Xuanyi.

Xu Chu touched his chin and said, " Ji Xuanyi is still very tight-lipped. Although I always have a problem with his intelligence, I guessed that he had someone in Day City, but I didn't know it was you. If you knew, you could have acted more naturally just now. "

Yugui smiled and said, " My acting skills are enough to deal with Zuo An. "

Xu Chu also smiled and said, " Do you want to go back with us? Ji Xuanyi's personality probably doesn't want you to stay in Sun City. He should be very happy to know that you are willing to come to Star City. "

Yugui looked at Xuchu for a while, and said happily: " Xuanyi is usually very fierce. I thought you wouldn't understand him. I'm really happy to know that you understand him so well. He is such a gentle person, but he never says it- "

Xu Chu looked at Yu Gui with a smile and thought, why is there another Ji Xuanyi blowing? Xuchu's rank was still high, and he and Gui were completely unaware of each other's complaints. After a long while of chattering , Ji Xuanyi finally got to the point: " Although things are almost over, I can't go back yet. "

Xu Chu raised his eyebrows and said, " Do you still want to accompany Zuo An to fight against Zhao Chen? "

Yugui nodded.

Zuo'an is a weakling in combat. If there is no one to help him, the impact he can cause to Zhaochen is really low. But if used well, he can cause Zhaochen a lot of trouble.

Since he has been kept here, of course we have to make the best use of him. With this mentality in mind, Yugui wants to follow Zuo An to make one last trip to Yuri City no matter what. Xu Chu looked at her and said, " The idea is correct, but it should be quite dangerous. It doesn't matter if Zuo An and Zhao Chen are going to perish together, but what if you are implicated? Zhao Chen is not stupid, especially since he took the blame for you. He will not let you go. "

Yugui smiled confidently and said, " Although my assassins are definitely not as good as Xuanyi at killing people, there are not many people who can escape better than me. I don't want to die with Zuo'an at all, don't worry. "

And even if she was accidentally gang-raped, Yugui was not really afraid. Her original intention of playing games was different from everyone else. Level and equipment were not what she cared about. As long as she could happily play games with Ji Xuanyi and the others, it didn't matter what level she was at. What made her happy was not the game itself, but the people she cared about.

Xu Chu touched his chin and said, " I guess Ji Xuanyi should have advised you before, but you didn't listen to what he said, so what I said is of no use. "

" I won't stop you, " Xu Chu said, " Let's add each other as friends. When Ji Xuanyi is not around, you can ask me for help if you have any problems. Also, if anything happens, remember to log off first to protect yourself. "

It is one thing that Gui himself is not afraid of being gang-raped, but Ji Xuanyi's reaction is another.

Ji Xuanyi's influence within Fanxing City is quite large. Not to mention that he can get a lot of support from everyone, but there are definitely many people who support him in a show of hands vote. If he were to use the full force of Fanxing City to attack Yaori City, regardless of the consequences, if word got out that he was willing to risk his life for his beloved, Ji Xuanyi and Tianxia Didi would probably have internal family conflicts.

That would be really fucked up, Xu Chu thought, if Ji Xuan goes crazy, there's still No. 1 in the world who can keep him steady , if both of them go crazy together, no matter how many people can stop them!

Thinking of this, Xuchu couldn't help but grab Yugui's hand and said sincerely: " Don't let anything happen to you! "

Yugui: "..... ??? "

Yugui didn't understand Xuchu's sudden change, but after all, the other party said nice things and expressed good intentions. Although Yugui was a little confused, he still accepted it with a smile. Then he logged off and went offline to find Zuoan.

Xu Chu was still a little scared, and walked back with a worried look on his face. Liu Tian squeezed over and said casually, " Are you interested in that girl? "

Xu Chu was stunned. After being reminded by Liu Tianyi, he actually thought about it for a while, but finally shook his head and said, " That Yugui is pretty and a nice guy, but it's obvious that his heart is with Ji Xuanyi. He's just a flatterer of Ji Xuanyi. It's not acceptable to accept him. "

Liu Tian looked strange, and after a long while he said, " A rich man like you is definitely not sincere in your relationship, so just let the girl go. "

Xu Chu: "..... meow meow meow? "

the T -suit was safely returned to the main force.

Ji Xuanyi took a look at the equipment attributes and said, " Let the deputy tank take a rest first. The world will have to retreat in an hour or two. He has to hold on from 8 pm to 2 am, which is quite tough. "

Xu Chu nodded, notified Xiao Xiaoyuxia, and then smiled at Ji Xuan.

Now the pace of the boss has slowed down a bit, and Ji Xuanyi's milk is not that important.

Seeing Xu Chu's expression, he simply stopped and asked: " What? "

Xu Chu said: " I met Yu Gui, and she asked me to release Zuo An. "

When Ji Xuan heard this, he was stunned at first, then frowned: " She wants Zuo An to cause trouble for Zhao Chen again? Where is she? "

Xu Chu shrugged , and Ji Xuanyi understood.

He looked very unhappy.

Xu Chu said: " I know you are unhappy, but the girl is just being kind to you. If you mess up, you might end up hurting her. I think she is quite sensible. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything for a long time before he said, " I know, I won't stop her. "

Xu Chu muttered softly: " As if you can stop it. "

Ji Xuanyi pretended not to hear and raised his hand to continue treating Qi Qin, who was unaware of everything and focused on fighting the monster.

Suddenly, Ji Xuanyi had an idea and pulled his staff behind him. He heard Xu Chu scream " Oh shit " and hurriedly squatted down to pick up something from the ground.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " What are you doing? "

Xu Chu was holding something and suddenly stabbed Ji Xuanyi from behind, but his movement was too slow and the amplitude was too large, so Ji Xuanyi didn't even turn his head before he was knocked down by the hammer.

Xu Chu stood up, spread his hands, and said, " Here. "

Ji Xuanyi looked at the pitch-black dagger, stunned, and said: " What? "

Xu Chu smiled: " The assassin's weapon, Assassin's dagger, do you want to try it? "

Ji Xuan was stunned. As a former assassin, he looked at the dagger with his eyes wide open and his saliva almost dripping.

Seeing this, Xu Chu smiled and said, " I can exchange this for your evil spirit staff, how about that? "

Ji Xuanyi almost nodded, but managed to hold back his words. He came to his senses and asked, " Where did you get this? "

Xu Chu saw that Ji Xuanyi had come to his senses and had not been fooled. He felt a little regretful, but he still told him the story. Ji Xuanyi didn't know that this artifact was the assassin who tried to assassinate him but was bounced back to the resurrection point. He sighed and said, " You are so lucky. "

After saying that, he looked at the dagger being put away by Xu Chu with some reluctance, and it took him a long time to move his eyes away from Xu Chu's backpack.

There's no way. He is a warlock now, and he can't use the assassin's weapon no matter how good it is.

Xu Chu and Ji Xuanyi exchanged some information, and the sky gradually darkened.

The departure of Youri City did have some impact on the battle situation. Fortunately, because Youri City had been slacking off before, the impact was not that great. Everything was still proceeding in an orderly manner, but the time to capture the BOSS was extended.

At eight o'clock, Qi Qin retired, changed into a T-shirt, and ran to find Ji Xuanyi in a daze. Because he had been separated from Ji Xuanyi for almost the entire day, Qi Qin stuck to Ji Xuanyi as soon as he met him and couldn't get off him.

Ji Xuanyi touched the back of Qi Qin's neck with amusement and whispered, " Fortunately, you gave me the elf necklace again. "

During the second stage of the activity, because they had to come into contact with the elves, the elf necklace was always hanging on Qi Qin's neck. Ji Xuanyi himself actually forgot about it, but after it was over, Qi Qin took off the necklace and put it back on Ji Xuanyi.

" That will make me feel more at ease. "

This is what Qi Qin said at that time, and in fact it did work. Now that he thinks about it, being able to trigger a special effect with such a low probability, maybe it wasn't Ji Xuanyi's good luck, but Qi Qin's good luck.

Ji Xuanyi had no intention of hiding anything and told Qi Qin what had happened before. When the latter heard it, he became alert. In the dark night, he looked at Ji Xuanyi nervously with a pair of eyes and tightened his grip on Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi: "... Ahem, it's a bit tight! "

Qi Qin then hurriedly let go of his hand, touched Ji Xuanyi's back, and said, " Is Xuanyi okay? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Can I still stand here and talk to you if I have something to say? "

The two of them didn't avoid others when they talked. After the T in formal T-shirt took on the monster, the pressure on the healers also decreased. The old western doctor stuck his head out like a turtle and said in a loud voice: " Ji Xuanyi, you were stabbed? How come I didn't know? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

You still have the nerve to say that, the person standing next to you was stabbed and you didn't react at all! You are also a piece of shit!

Ji Xuanyi didn't even bother to pay attention to him.

The old Western doctor touched his nose and had to retract his head.

I thought there was going to be a big war, so they said they would come to help, but it turned out that the Sun City itself collapsed, and the old Western doctor was of no use except for healing people. It was very embarrassing.

World Boss was finally killed at around three in the morning. Ji Xuanyi had classes the next day, so he logged off at ten o'clock. Not to mention Qi Qin, who was kicked off by the security system at around nine o'clock. Neither of them got to touch the reward right away. Fortunately, the World Boss's treasure chest would remain for a week, so both of them had time to log on the next afternoon.

It should be said that Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin arrived at a good time. When the BOSS fell in the early morning, everyone went crazy and scrambled to touch the boxes. No matter what the gang leader said, everyone was like fucking zombies, just squeezing forward, and many people were even squeezed back to the resurrection point.

The situation is much better now than yesterday. Although there are still a lot of people, it is much less than yesterday, and they are all queuing up in an orderly manner without any congestion.

this world boss are linked to the contribution points of the three stages. In addition to the most basic general rewards, special rewards are ranked according to points.

Players with scores between 300 and 500 can only randomly draw blue and green equipment and materials. Players with scores between 500 and 1,000 can randomly draw blue and purple equipment and materials. Players with scores between 1,000 and 3,000 can draw purple and orange equipment and materials. Players with scores above 3,000 can be sure to draw orange equipment or materials, and there is a very small chance of drawing an artifact that has not yet appeared.

However, basically most players' points are stuck between one thousand and three thousand points. Many players who work day and night to complete tasks only have a few hundred points. While they complain that this setting is making things difficult for them, they can't help but think that it would have been better if they had worked harder in the beginning.

In fact, if you want to reach above 3,000 points, you can't just focus on completing tasks.

According to the official design, even if players use all their time to complete ordinary tasks, it is impossible to reach 3,000.

After all, there is a chance of getting a divine weapon above three thousand, and being linked to a divine weapon, even if it is just a chance, is not so easy to get.

To get 3,000 points, you have to complete at least eight small hidden tasks, or one large hidden task. In fact, only players who can meet either of these two conditions are eligible to touch the artifact.

It may not be possible to touch it.

There is no other way. After all, each profession only has one artifact. If it were so easy to get, it would be too worthless.

Ji Xuanyi saw the reward mechanism rolling on the world announcement and took a look at his own points, which were more than 2,300. The majority of them were earned when he was doing tasks in the Lost Forest in the first stage. In the second stage, he was basically just hanging out, and apart from turning on the shield, he didn't do anything serious. Ji Xuanyi himself was a little surprised that he could get more than 2,000 points.

However, Qi Qin seemed to have earned more points in the Lost Forest than himself. Ji Xuanyi's heart moved, and he looked at Qi Qin and said, " How many points do you have? " Qi Qin had been staring at Ji Xuanyi in a daze since a while ago, and he didn't even look at the world channel. He was stunned for a moment when he was asked, and looked at his points column stupidly, and then said: " Three thousand five. "

Ji Xuanyi's eyes lit up.

Seeing that he seemed quite happy, Qi Qin also became happy and asked, " What's wrong? " Ji Xuan told him the announcement and said, " Although you may not be able to get the artifact, it would be good if you can get an orange weapon. "

Although the light armor on Qi Qin's body is of orange quality and has good attributes, his Guardian has been used from level ten to now. As a purple weapon, its attributes are actually a bit behind. There is no forging method of orange weapons in Ji Xuanyi's booklet, so he has never found a chance to replace it for him.

Qi Qin smiled and said, " It's a matter of luck. You can't get whatever you want. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't think so. Qi Qin's luck had always been good. From the time he started playing this game until now, he had basically never lost. If he wanted a weapon, he should be able to get it.

After a while, Qi Qin finally couldn't help but speak out his true feelings: "Actually, I still like to protect."

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but look at him.

Although Qi Qin has been here for a long time and many traces of another world have been erased from his body, but in the final analysis, he is still a swordsman in his heart. Every swordsman is very focused and loyal, not only to the person he likes, but also to the sword they depend on.

At the beginning, Qi Qin really didn't like the Guardian, a weapon that was more like a shield than a sword, and it was not very convenient to use. But as time went by, he had developed feelings for it. Changing to another weapon might not necessarily make it more convenient for Qi Qin to use than the Guardian. Moreover, thinking that the sword had done nothing wrong and was still usable, it was about to be replaced, Qi Qin felt a little reluctant.

Although Ji Xuanyi couldn't quite understand Qi Qin's mentality, he had watched a lot of martial arts movies and could still sympathize with him.

After thinking for a while, Ji Xuan said: "Of course you can continue to use the Guardian, but its properties are indeed a bit insufficient ... Or you can try the dual sword style?"

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi in bewilderment: "Two-sword style?"

When this was mentioned, Ji Zhonger Xuanyi suddenly became excited, took out the staff he had replaced before, and used it together with the evil spirit staff to make a sword flower, posing in a very handsome and Zhonger posture, and said to Qi Qin: "Two swords style!"

Qi Qin: "..."

Qi Qin didn't even have the heart to tell Ji Xuanyi how easy it would be to get beaten in this position.

Qi Qin just looked at Ji Xuanyi hesitantly, wanting to say something, for a long time, and Ji Xuanyi was annoyed.

Ji Xuanyi suddenly realized that there was something wrong with his immature behavior. His face flushed red, and he angrily thrust both staffs at Qi Qin, saying angrily: "What are you looking at! You don't even know the two-sword style, and you still say you are a martial arts master, bah! Bumpkin!"

Qi Qin found Ji Xuanyi's reaction adorable – so adorable! Qi Qin's heart was almost melted by the cuteness, so he couldn't say anything against it. He stretched out his long arms and hugged Ji Xuanyi in his arms, saying: "Yes, yes, yes, I am ignorant. Xuanyi is right. I will try it later. It should be very useful."

Ji Xuanyi punched him again angrily, then pushed Qi Qin away, barely suppressing the sudden feeling of shame. However, the blush on his face had not faded yet, and although his expression was very calm, he looked like a proud person no matter how you looked at him.

Qi Qin was threatened by Ji Xuanyi and told him not to tell anyone what happened today. Qi Qin nodded repeatedly, thinking that Ji Xuanyi had never appeared in front of others like this, so how could he tell anyone.

The two of them waited in line for about half an hour and finally arrived at the box. The box was full of gold and nothing could be seen clearly. Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to reach out and grab it because the basic rewards were also inside. There were quite a lot of things, and Ji Xuanyi took three tries before he finished taking them all.

The result was as Ji Xuanyi had expected. In addition to the basic rewards, he only got three purple materials, which were of no use.

But it was also true that after triggering the Elf Necklace's 0.1% chance of counterattack, Ji Xuanyi felt that he might have used up all his luck, and it was normal to only find purple materials – there were still three more! He should be content.

Ji Xuanyi made way and let Qi Qin touch it.

Qi Qin had big hands and he grabbed all the basic rewards in the first go, including experience, gold coins, enchantments, and materials. Except for the experience points which were different due to points, everything else was the same for everyone. When he grabbed the things in the box for the second time, Qi Qin frowned.

Ji Xuanyi asked: " What's wrong? "

Qi Qin said with a strange look on his face: " It really seems to be a weapon. "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then saw Qi Qin straighten up and take out a weapon from the box. It was a swordsman's weapon. Although the appearance was a bit strange, when the sword was taken out, the golden light that appeared on the sword for an instant showed its quality.

The players who were still queuing around stared in amazement, and after a long while someone said, " Wow, buddy, you're so lucky! Here comes the orange weapon! "

Ji Xuanyi was a little disappointed. Orange equipment was a must for Qi Qin at this level of points. Apart from being a weapon, he couldn't really say he had good luck. Only if he got a divine weapon would he be considered lucky!

I don't know why Qi Qin's good luck suddenly became useless ... But as long as it is an orange weapon, I can make do with it. Anyway, no one has heard of anyone getting the swordsman's weapon now. Ji Xuanyi thinks there is still a chance to find it for Qi Qin.

The reason why the appearance of this swordsman orange weapon is strange is mainly because it has a blade only on one side. It looks more like a huge knife than a sword. However, for a profession like a swordsman, what the weapon looks like is actually not very important.

The weight alone is enough to cause damage.

Qi Qin took the orange weapon out of the box. After Ji Xuanyi's reminder, he felt around at the bottom of the box to make sure nothing was missing. Then he straightened up and walked aside. When Ji Xuan saw Qi Qin weighing the orange weapon in his hand, he frowned and asked, " What's wrong? Doesn't it work? "

Qi Qin shook his head. To him, none of these heavy swords were very useful. Compared to weapons of that size like the Guardian, this orange weapon was still pretty good.

 " What's that expression on your face? " Ji Xuanyi asked.

Qi Qin thought for a moment and answered seriously: " It's a bit heavy and inflexible to carry it with one hand. "

Ji Xuan nodded: " Well, then what? "

Qi Qin said: " It's not easy to practice dual swords with Shugo. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi's face flushed red, and he pushed Qi Qin to the ground and beat him up, warning him in shame and anger: " Don't mention the two-sword thing again! "

Qi Qin, the masochist , was so touched by the hammer that he nodded repeatedly, indicating that he would never mention it again. Only then did Ji Xuanyi snort and stopped talking to Qi Qin in a cold manner.

the World BOSS , but the official announcement almost made it clear. Although the evil god was defeated, a trace of his dark power has not given up. It will awaken once every half a month in the middle of the three main cities, and players need to seal it again. The five major races will not leave the wild map for fear of the evil god's comeback, and everyone can still go to the wild map to visit them.

In other words, the World Boss will become a permanent activity held every half a month. Its intensity will be weakened, and the rewards will definitely not be as much as they are now.

However, the random acquisition of materials or equipment will be retained, but the probability will be lowered. In general, you can still participate when you have nothing to do.

The world boss ended at three in the morning. There was no commander or gang leader to organize the players, so the players basically dispersed. Anyway, the direction back to the city was marked on the parchment, and there would be no more activities for the next two days, so everyone walked back slowly.

After Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin touched the rewards, they logged off to have a meal and were about to return to Fanxing City. However, as soon as they came back online, they suddenly received a private message from the old western doctor.

[Old Western Doctor] : Ji Xuanyi!!!!!!

Ji Xuanyi was so upset, thinking what this guy was up to, he replied: " It's a power leveler online, not me. "

[Old Western Doctor] : Thank you, big brother. Is it okay to log in to this game with DNA testing? You also use proxy training to try to evade me, so please be more serious!

Ji Xuan replied expressionlessly: " Since you know I am trying to fool you, please be more conscious. Goodbye! "

[Old Western Doctor] : No, no, no! I'm not here to tease you. Anyway, there are no activities recently, and Sun City doesn't have the energy to make trouble. I want to invite you to our Youyue City to play for a few days, and by the way, tell you a super awesome news!

Ji Xuanyi thought about it and realized that he had never been to Youyue City, and he really had nothing to do recently, so going out for a trip with Qi Qin seemed like a good choice.

After making the decision, Ji Xuanyi said, " You can be my guest, but you don't have to be my tour guide. I have some great news. What is it? "

I don't know what the old Western doctor was doing and it took him a long time to reply.

[Old Western Doctor] : Hahahahahaha!!!!!!

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

What kind of news could make the old Western doctor so happy?

Ji Xuanyi was about to tell the old western doctor to get out when he heard the latter say, " Old Yun has found the swordsman's magic weapon! Hahahahaha!!! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Fuck! No wonder Qi Qin couldn't find it out, it turned out that Yun Zhongjian had taken it away!!!

Chapter 131

Ji Xuanyi now truly believes that Yun Zhongjian is someone who can rapidly upgrade by relying on luck.

He is simply a living European emperor!

The old western doctor actually didn't know that the latter had quietly accumulated so many points . He raised his hand and touched the artifact . Although he showed off to Ji Xuanyi, the old western doctor himself was actually shocked by Yun Zhongjian.

But leaving aside the matter of the divine weapon, in fact, only a small part of inviting Ji Xuanyi to visit Youyue City came from the will of the old Western doctor himself , and the rest was the invitation from Ye Linyu.

In the current situation , there are no activities and no one is making trouble . As a neutral party , Ye Linyu invited Ji Xuanyi to Youyue City for fun. It is estimated that he really wanted to play. At most, he was curious about Ji Xuanyi , or he had some thoughts of making friends with Fanxing City. He didn't have any other thoughts. Ji Xuanyi understood this , so he accepted the invitation of the old Western doctor so easily.

Youyue City was quite sincere and invited Ji Xuanyi and his friends to visit . They even sent a few knights to pick them up, but Ji Xuanyi was fine. Qi Qin, who was carrying a heavy load , almost pushed their horses into the ground.

The self-deprecating name of Youyue Village is not without reason . Youyue City is indeed very poor compared to Fanxing City and Yueri City. The Dancing Gang can't even pick out a knight who can carry Qi Qin on his back – although there are only a few people in the three major gangs of Fanxing City who can let Qi Qin mount his horse.

But even so , the actual scene was too embarrassing. Qi Qin put away his weapon, and only then could a knight shakily carry him on his back, which made Ji Xuanyi feel a little embarrassed.

It's too sad that Youyue City is struggling to survive and is so poor!

Several knights discussed and even came up with a plan of having two people walk side by side with Qi Qin standing horizontally in the middle. Ji Xuanyi was so upset when he heard this that he quickly declined their good intention.

They are not in a hurry, so they don't ride horses, so it's fine for them to walk slowly.

The knights of Youyue City were also a little embarrassed, but they came out to pick someone up, and it was not convenient for them to go back like that, so they simply got off their horses and left with Ji Xuanyi and the others.

A circle of people surrounded Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin tightly. Fearing that they might be bored, they specially found topics to liven up the atmosphere. Ji Xuanyi, who had originally planned to spend time with Qi Qin, was left in a dilemma. However, he could not chase them away, so he had to accept the knights' kindness with his head held high.

They chatted awkwardly all the way to the gate of Youyue City. The knight who came to pick them up and Ji Xuanyi both breathed a sigh of relief. Ji Xuanyi said that they had already arrived and there was no need to trouble them anymore. They could contact the old western doctor on their own. Upon hearing this, the knights nodded repeatedly and hurriedly dispersed.

Ji Xuanyi leaned against Qi Qin tiredly.

Qi Qin was like a wall, not even shaking. He held Ji Xuanyi with one hand and unconsciously touched his new weapon with the other. There were people watching him the whole time, and he couldn't be affectionate with Ji Xuanyi, so he was studying how to use this thing most efficiently along the way.

But now it was obvious that Ji Xuanyi was more important. Qi Qin let go of the hand holding the sword, supported Ji Xuanyi with both hands, and asked: " What's wrong? Don't you want to contact the old western doctor? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Am I crazy? Contacting him because he's not noisy enough or annoying enough? "

What I said to those knights just now was just an excuse. Although they had just arrived in Youyue City and didn't know many things, for Ji Xuanyi, exploring on his own was much more interesting than having someone explain it to him, especially when the tour guide might be an old western doctor.

Qi Qin agreed with Ji Xuanyi's decision, and the two of them didn't contact each other and just entered Youyue City.

Unlike the Starry City which also needs to be wary of the Sun City, the city gate entrance of the Dark Moon City is only for welcoming newcomers, and there is no player specifically used to check the identity of people entering the city. Ji Xuanyi originally thought that he would need the old Western doctor and others to help say hello, but he didn't expect that he could go in directly. It can be seen that Youyue City is really very open and has made up its mind to remain absolutely neutral.

The buildings inside Youyue City are actually not much different from those in Fanxing City. It's just that the materials and styles used to build the city are different. After all, the " poverty " of Youyue City only refers to the players. As one of the main cities in the game setting, Youyue City will definitely not be that shabby.

Most of the main city upgrade tasks require players to complete the prerequisite of registering their household registration in the main city before they can accept them. However, there are some tasks that do not have this requirement, and there are even some tasks that can only be accepted by players from other main cities. I think the official has already made preparations in advance for some players who like to travel around.

Ji Xuanyi took on a few tasks casually, most of which were ordinary greeting tasks. In addition, the curious people of Youyue City would ask him about things in Fanxing City. Coupled with the immersive feeling of the holographic online game, it was quite interesting. When Ji Xuanyi chatted with them, he would even subconsciously praise Fanxing City.

However, it is enough to do a few tasks of this kind for fun. As a pure dialogue task, it does not give much experience. Ji Xuanyi's main goal is to go to the Mage Tower in Youyue City to take a look.

In fact, all three main cities have wizard towers, and there are great wizards with extremely high reputations in them. However, the styles of each wizard tower are different, and the wizards have different personalities.

There might be hidden missions in Youyue City, but Ji Xuanyi understood that it was impossible for an outsider like him to find hidden missions in Youyue City, let alone rely on hidden missions to obtain information.

The only thing he could do was to go to the Mage Tower in Youyue City and talk to the great magician there. At least this person must be related to August. Not to mention whether he could get close to the other party by using August's face, even if they just said a few words, the great magician would definitely know more than others.

Ji Xuanyi always felt that there must be some hidden plot between the three main cities, or the three great magicians, and he also vaguely felt that he should have touched upon some of the clues, but there were too many things piled up at the same time, and he could not remember at all the flash of inspiration that had appeared before. He could only hope that this trip to Youyue City could bring him some inspiration.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin asked for directions from the guards along the way and it took them some time to reach the outskirts of Youyue City's Mage Tower.

Logically speaking, as a weaker main city, Youyue City's population is definitely not as large as that of the prosperous Fanxing City. However, there is a long queue outside the Mage Tower in Youyue City. Looking at the relaxed and peaceful expressions of the players in the queue, everyone seems to have gotten used to it.

The atmosphere in Youyue City is really good, Ji Xuan thought, and lined up at the end of the line with Qi Qin.

As the weakest main city in the past, Youyue City is sandwiched between Youri City and Fanxing City. It is very low-key and has a weak presence. Sometimes, except for the players of Youyue City themselves, other players on the second server can't even remember that this server has a third main city besides Youri City and Fanxing City.

Apart from making Youyue City increasingly low-key and increasingly inferior to the other two main cities due to lack of fresh blood, this incident is actually not without benefits. At least people who want to cause trouble will never come here. Those who choose Youyue City are basically Buddhist players. The atmosphere in the city is harmonious. In addition to server-wide activities, ordinary players can be said to have received the best gaming experience in this main city.

Ji Xuanyi was also lucky enough to experience it. The players in the queue were very friendly and quiet. Each one was as amiable as if they were about to become Buddhas. Ji Xuanyi also received snacks from kind players from the first row of the line to the last one.

What Ji Xuanyi found most difficult to understand was that there were people who came here to queue up just to have someone to chat with, and when it was almost his turn, he walked out and queued again ... Are the players of Youyue City still okay?

After waiting in line for a while, Ji Xuan felt completely stunned. He thought, if he had known about this main city before playing the game, why would he play a warlock? Even if he played a berserker, he would not be able to get angry in such a place!

Fortunately, although the players in Youyue City are very Buddhist, they seem to have normal personalities. Otherwise, if Ji Xuan saw a smiling and amiable guard when he entered the door, he might really not be able to accept it.

Because Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were not registered players of Youyue City, they were not allowed into the main gate of the Mage Tower after passing three checks. Instead, they were taken to another road. When the players of Youyue City saw them walking along the small road, they looked over curiously, but no one came up to question them.

Ji Xuanyi suspected that as one of the players in Youyue City, the old Western doctor's noisy personality was either mutated or he was just holding it in.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were brought to the side door of the Mage Tower by the guards – Ji Xuanyi didn't even know that the Mage Tower had a side door. The Mage Towers in various main cities should have the same settings except for their different architectural styles. It seems that the Mage Tower in Star City should also have a side door for players from other main cities to use.

However, regardless of whether the current atmosphere in Star City and Sun City would allow players from other main cities to enter the city, it would be difficult for local players in Star City to meet August, and players from other main cities would probably find it difficult to even enter through the side door.

Since Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin entered the side door so smoothly, it seems that the great magician of Star City has a good temper – at least better than August.

After leading the two into the side door, the guard left. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked in and found that the space inside the side door was very small, but the walls were lined with built-in bookshelves, which looked more like a library. There was a counter on the right hand side after entering the door. A white-haired old man wearing a monocle stood behind the counter, looking at them expressionlessly.

Perhaps because of the Buddhist atmosphere of the Youyue City players just now, Ji Xuanyi did not seem to be angry at all when being looked at by such eyes. Instead, he said: "Hello."

The old man's expression relaxed a little, and he stretched out his voice and said: "Where are you from?"

"Starry City." Ji Xuanyi replied.

The old man nodded, opened a notebook in his hand, wrote something on it with a brush, and asked Ji Xuanyi and the other man's names, wrote them down, and finally asked them whether they came to borrow books from the library or to look for someone.

The effect of the Buddhist influence only lasted for a short while. Ji Xuanyi could no longer hold back. When he heard the old man finally get to the point, he said, "We are here to find the great magician."

Although they don't even know what the great magician here is called.

When the old man heard this, he looked up at them again, nodded, closed the book in his hand, pointed to a small door on the right, and said, "Go that way."

Ji Xuan nodded at him and pulled Qi Qin over there.

Ji Xuanyi originally thought that the great magician here lived on the top floor of the Mage Tower like August, and there should be an elevator or something behind the small door. After entering the door, he found that it was a passage, which was very spacious and very short. The exit was reached in just a few steps. Behind the exit was a lecture hall. The great magician of Youyue City was sitting behind the highest desk reading a book.

The great magician of Youyue City is a woman. She looks a little younger than August, but much cleaner than August. Her robe is neat and tidy, and her snow-white hair is combed into a simple bun and tied behind her head, revealing her forehead with fine wrinkles. Her eyes are kind and wise. When she noticed someone coming in, she put down the book and looked towards Ji Xuanyi.

" Guests from Star City, " she smiled, with fine lines forming at the corners of her eyes: " Youyue City welcomes you. "

It seems that this person is much easier to talk to than August. Although as the leader of Youyue City, her favorability will definitely not be easy to gain, but her gentle attitude still makes it easier for people to like her.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked up and greeted him.

Smiling, she said, " Don't be so polite. I know you have a good relationship with August. Although he has a bad temper, he is a good person. If you can get along well with him, he must not be a bad person. Just call me Irene. "

Irene doesn't look like a tall and powerful magician at all. If it weren't for her unusual temperament, her appearance would be no different from an ordinary old woman who issued a task to find bread in the Novice Village.

Ji Xuanyi followed suit, found a place to sit down, and said, " Hello, Irene. "

Irene nodded and smiled, " I'm glad you came to see me. Is there anything I can help you with? "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " It's nothing serious. This is my first time in Youyue City. I heard about your story and I'm a little curious. There's a great magician in each of the three main cities, and it seems like you guys have a good relationship. I want to know, are you just ordinary friends? Or is there something else going on? "

The smile on Irene's face gradually faded, but she did not show any hostility , nor did she seem to be angry. She just looked a little embarrassed. After a long while, she sighed softly and said, " Three main cities, three wizard towers, and three great magicians sitting in the wizard towers. This is certainly not a coincidence. Our relationship is indeed ordinary friends to a certain extent, but from another perspective, it is far more than that. "

Sure enough, there is a plot behind this setting! Ji Xuanyi perked up a little and continued to ask: " Is the relationship between you two similar to an alliance, or an opposing relationship? " Irene smiled and said, " I'm really surprised by your question, but my answer may disappoint you. Our relationship includes both of the two forms you mentioned. At some point, we are indeed an alliance, but at the same time, we also have a competitive relationship. "

Answering this question is the same as not answering it. Ji Xuanyi was indeed a little disappointed, but from Irene's words, he could hear that the relationship between the great magicians is exactly the same as the relationship between the three main cities. They need to unite when fighting against foreign enemies, and have internal competition when nothing happens. It sounds quite harmonious, like a virtuous circle. However, this setting is too boring for a large-scale game. Ji Xuanyi always feels that there must be something behind it. But this matter is probably related to the plot in the later stage, so it is definitely impossible to ask. Ji Xuanyi thought for a long time and asked from a different angle: " So are you in an alliance or an opposition relationship now? "

This question is very straightforward to some extent, and is basically seeking spoilers from Irene. According to Ji Xuanyi's inference above, if Irene's answer is the former, then it proves that a major event has occurred in the main storyline that requires the three main cities to unite. If it is the latter, then it proves that the main storyline may be very peaceful for a long time in the future, and most of the time it will be a struggle between cities.

Both ways of playing are actually quite interesting. Ji Xuanyi can't really say which one he prefers more. It mainly depends on the specific settings.

Irene looked at Ji Xuan for a while, smiled mysteriously, and said, " We are now in an alliance. " Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then asked: " Is it related to the evil god? " the World Boss was defeated. Irene's answer may not necessarily refer to the subsequent plot. It is very likely that she is still referring to the previous World Boss . Ji Xuanyi has to rule out this possibility before he can confirm his own speculation.

Unexpectedly, Irene, who had answered all the questions just now, just smiled after hearing Ji Xuanyi's words, and then said: " I'm sorry, kid, I can only answer three questions for you every day. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

What kind of setting is this? Why didn't you tell me earlier?

But no matter how devastated you are inside, since they have already told you the setting, there is no point in asking again. If they say they don't want to answer, then they don't want to answer. What can you do?

Ji Xuanyi let out a long sigh, said goodbye to Irene, and left with Qi Qin.

Anyway, the requirement was to answer three questions a day. At worst, he could just bring Qi Qin to ask tomorrow.

Ji Xuanyi originally wanted to return the same way he came, but found that the side door he had come through was closed and could not be opened. Instead, the main door was open. As soon as they went out, they arrived at the first floor of the Youyue City Mage Tower. The local players of Youyue City were slowly looking for tasks to do. When they saw someone coming out of Irene's lecture hall, they just glanced at it and didn't care much.

Ji Xuanyi felt something was strange. After leaving the Mage Tower, he opened the favorability and reputation list and found that Irene's favorability was actually friendly, and all the forces in Youyue City also appeared in his reputation list, but their reputations were basically just a little more neutral.

Ji Xuanyi frowned, and then thought incredulously, is it possible that the way to win August's favor is to answer his questions, and the way to win Irene's favor is to ask her questions? This is too weird!

Ji Xuanyi looked at the favorability points again and estimated that most of the credit for the friendly effect was probably due to August. After all, even if August's favorability points were successfully increased, they were only one or two points each time. No matter how amiable Irene was, it was impossible for her to achieve friendly status in one go. It was too exaggerated. Qi Qin came up to Ji Xuanyi and asked, " What are we going to do now? "

Youyue City is very big, and there are many places to go. However, since he had already been to the Mage Tower, which was his favorite place, Ji Xuanyi didn't want to wander around anymore. After thinking about it, he said, " Let's contact the old Western doctor first and go to the dance club. Ye Linyu called us here to play, so he must want to see us. "

When they arrived at the city gate, the knights who came to pick them up must have told Ye Linyu and the others the news. According to the old Western doctor's personality, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin had been here for so long without any news, he would definitely not be able to help but contact Ji Xuanyi. However, until now, Ji Xuanyi has not received any screen-sweeping attacks from the old Western doctor, so it is easy to imagine that Ye Linyu had stopped the other party. I have to say that the leader of this dancing gang is quite good at dealing with people. From the feedback of those knights, it can be seen that they want to go around on their own. In addition, Ji Xuanyi and his friends had just arrived and had not taken the initiative to contact the old Western doctor, so he knew it even more clearly in his mind. He did not send anyone to cause trouble, and also detained the old Western doctor. He probably is now waiting for them to come to him.

The main reason why Ji Xuan came to Youyue City was because of the invitation from the Dancing Gang, and he did get some gains. It would be unreasonable not to go to the real owner to take a look. Ji Xuan made up his mind at once, and after a secret chat with the old western doctor, he took Qi Qin to the base of the Dancing Gang.

The Dancing Gang, as the only big gang in Youyue City, has its base not in the inner city of Youyue City, but in the more remote southwest area – which is understandable, after all, the boss of the Dancing Gang is the one who takes the blame. In the Buddhist main city and the Buddhist gang, no one is willing to be stationed in the base in the inner city. The selection of the Dancing Gang's base was probably done before they were made the boss. There is nothing they can do about it as the location is so remote.

At first, Ji Xuanyi thought that he could walk there since he was in the inner city. But after hearing the news, he was speechless. Well, he had to find a transportation point and take a carriage.

The old Western doctor didn't expect that Ji Xuanyi and the others would stroll into the inner city. He was still waiting near the city gate. After receiving the news, he could only go directly to the southwest area and then tell Ji Xuanyi where the exit of the inner city was.

But this is a bit difficult. In the game "Domain", the main city is very large, and the old Western doctor is not someone who often goes to the inner city. Even if he leads the way in person, he may not be able to go in the right direction, and it is even more unreliable to give directions from a distance.

Under the guidance of the old Western doctor, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked around twice and returned to the original place for the third time.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi looked at the familiar scenery around him and really hoped that there would be another Mi Yin around him. At least when he followed Mi Yin, he never went around in circles. Ji Xuan expressionlessly told the old western doctor to die, then closed the chat channel and prepared to ask someone for directions directly.

If you are in Sun City or Star City, everyone is basically busy upgrading or completing tasks and rarely has time to deal with others. If they are nice, they will just point you in a direction, and then you will have to continue to find someone to ask for directions yourself.

However, the situation in Youyue City was completely different. When Ji Xuanyi asked casually, not only did someone answer his question, but someone even took out a map and wanted to give it to him. Ji Xuanyi knew that maps cost money, and it would not be good for him, as an outsider, to get the main city map of Youyue City, so he declined. The man did not get angry, but said in a good mood that he could directly take Ji Xuanyi and the others to the nearest transportation point.

Ji Xuanyi seldom dealt with such people and felt a little embarrassed, but the atmosphere in Youyue City was like that, so Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to thank the man and followed him away.

When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin arrived at the transportation point smoothly, in addition to sighing at the kindness of the players in Youyue City, they had to say that this kind of behavior was really a bit stupid. This was only him and Qi Qin. If a malicious guy like Zhao Chen came in, he could get the main city map with just a shout, and even know the resurrection point clearly after asking. No wonder Zuo An was able to find Ye Linyu so easily.

Fortunately, Youyue City is extremely poor and does not fight for anything, so there is no benefit for others to attack them. Otherwise, it would be too dangerous.

Ji Xuanyi took out the gold coins and was about to explain that he was going to Southwest City when he heard a hesitant voice behind him.

"Xiao Ji?"

If the voice had not been vaguely familiar, Ji Xuanyi would have almost failed to react. He paused for a moment before turning around, only to see two girls who looked very familiar looking at him.

Seeing him turn around, one of the long-haired girls shouted happily, "It's really Xiao Ji! Are you also in Youyue City? Why haven't I seen you before?"

Ji Xuanyi frowned for a while, still couldn't remember where he had seen this girl before. After a long while, the smile on the girl's face became a little stiff, and she said awkwardly: "Excuse me, who are you?"

The girl's face fell suddenly, and after a long while she said, "That's too much. Although it's been almost half a year, Xiaoji's memory is just too bad. I'm so sad!"

Ji Xuanyi was also very embarrassed. He certainly didn't forget about her on purpose, but he had experienced so many things since he started playing this game that he couldn't even remember how he met Qi Qin. How could he possibly remember this girl?

Seeing that Ji Xuanyi really couldn't remember, the girl said in frustration: " I am a little flower. We met in Novice Town, along with Miaoshoukongkong. You led us to kill monsters at that time. "

When Yiduo Xiaohua mentioned the matter of spawning monsters, Ji Xuanyi had a vague impression of it. In fact, Yiduo Xiaohua was still in his friend list, but they had hardly been in contact since Green Forest City, so Ji Xuanyi had never thought about it.

But to be honest, the reason why Yiduo Xiaohua was able to remember Ji Xuanyi for so long was mainly because Ji Xuanyi's ID coincided with her idol's ID , and he was also quite sharp. Otherwise, if it was someone else, Yiduo Xiaohua would not be able to remember him.

" It's you, " Ji Xuanyi smiled at her a little embarrassedly and said, " It's been too long, I can't remember it, sorry. "

Hearing Ji Xuanyi's words, the little flower's eyes widened in surprise, and she couldn't close her mouth for a long time. After a long while, she smiled foolishly and said, " Oh my God, Xiao Ji, what happened to you? You have changed a lot! I thought you would only say one sentence, ' Oh, it's you ', or simply think I'm annoying, but you actually apologized to me. I was scared to death. "

The female swordsman next to a little flower also had an expression of seeing a ghost. She looked Ji Xuanyi up and down for a long time before whispering to the little flower: " Did we recognize the wrong person? How could Ji Xuanyi have such a good temper? Not to mention that he can't remember a person, I don't think he would apologize even if he killed the wrong person! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Is he really so cruel?

Ji Xuan turned his head and looked at Qi Qin, who gave him an affirmative look in return.

Ji Xuanyi in the past was really scary, otherwise he wouldn't have trembled like a sieve when he saw Ji Xuanyi before, and he wouldn't have been too scared to confess for so long.

Seeing that Yiduo Xiaohua began to show a hesitant expression after hearing what the female swordsman next to her said, Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " Yiduo Xiaohua is still in my friend list. I should be the Ji Xuanyi you know. "

Even if the IDs overlap, the friend lists cannot overlap. A little flower was sure that the Ji Xuanyi in front of her was indeed the Ji Xuanyi from before. She sighed and said, " Is the atmosphere in Youyue City really suitable for retirement? Even Xiao Ji has become so Buddhist. Come to think of it, I don't think I've seen you in Youyue City. Have we missed each other? "

Even a small flower has this idea. It seems that Youyue City is really contagious. However, Ji Xuanyi still shook his head and said, " No, I am not from Youyue City. I came from Fanxing City. "

A little flower and the swordswoman beside her were both stunned for a moment. The first thing they asked was not why Ji Xuan came to Youyue City, but " You are not from Youyue City? Then how come your temper has become so good? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Can we avoid the topic of temper?

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " Maybe it's because we can't kill people anymore. "

This sentence was a bit like what Ji Xuanyi said before, and Yiduo Xiaohua then smiled and changed the subject.

But the reason Ji Xuanyi said was not wrong. In the past, he would chop down anyone he was unhappy with and he was never afraid. Now he is angry but he can't kill anyone, so he can only hold it in. Plus, there are so many idiots around him, wouldn't it be better if he just holds his temper in?

Yiduo Xiaohua didn't mention this matter, but just roughly recounted what happened after she and Ji Xuanyi separated.

A little flower is just an ordinary player. What she has experienced is no different from that of most people and can be described in a few words.

After saying goodbye to Ji Xuan, a little flower took Miaoshoukongkong and several other girls to Zihua City, where they leveled up and fought monsters in a normal way, and then came to Youyue City.

A little flower and her friends leveled up very slowly. It was only after the world quest was opened that they took advantage of the opportunity to refresh a large number of experienced monsters in the second-level city to reach Youyue City. At that time, the world quest was already halfway through. However, they were lucky because they could not keep up with the main force and did not encounter the fierce battle with Youri City.

After the world mission was completed, Yiduo Xiaohua established a small gang of relatives and friends in Youyue City. Of course, they didn't dare to call it the Mu Xuanyi Support Association so directly. After all, Ji Xuanyi still had a lot of enemies, and their safety could not be completely guaranteed in Youyue City. So they just called it "Mu Support Association", which sounded weird, and there were no benefits, so there were very few members.

However, although there are only a few people joining, almost all of them are fans of Mu Xuanyi, and this small group of relatives and friends is still very united.

A Little Flower said, "Besides, when we were in the Novice Village and the Secondary City, didn't we have many people scattered? After arriving in Youyue City, many of us have gathered together again."

However, correspondingly, many people also dispersed, including the archer girl that Ji Xuanyi had taught at the beginning, and Miaoshou Kongkong.

A small flower sighed helplessly and said, "We heard that the atmosphere in Youyue City was better at the beginning, so we were all planning to come to Youyue City. However, when we were halfway through the world quest, Youyue City was attacked by Youri City. Miaoshou Kongkong said that the gaming experience in Youyue City might not be very good, so he went to Youri City. We were in touch at first, but later we lost contact. He even deleted my friend list. I don't know what's going on now."

Ji Xuanyi understood. He did not have such a deep memory of Miaoshoukongkong, but the main reason why he and Yiduo Xiaohua got together was because of the fan club. But in Youri City, it was impossible to establish a fan club for Mu Xuanyi, not to mention other fan clubs.

Besides, Ji Xuanyi himself had not used the name Mu Xuanyi for a long time. His popularity was gradually declining, and it was normal for fans to lose interest.

Ji Xuanyi could only comfort them, " Everyone has their own way of playing the game, so let's part ways in peace. "

A little flower nodded and smiled, " Let's not talk about this anymore. How have you been doing these days, Xiaoji? And this person, won't you introduce her to us? "

Ji Xuanyi recalled what happened after he left Novice Town, and found it speechless that it was really difficult to explain clearly. In the end, he could only say: " Well, it's just like that, no different from you. "

After saying that, he looked at Qi Qin beside him again. In the other's expectant eyes, he pinched his fingertips with a bit of amusement and said to a small flower: " This is a family member. "

A little flower was stunned for a moment, and said stupidly: " Is this your brother? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " No, this is my boyfriend. "

A little flower was also stunned, and it took her a long time to react. But the female swordsman next to her came over and said, " Fuck , it's great, you've got a partner, I wish you 99. "

Ji Xuan smiled and said, " Thank you. "

The female swordsman heard this and rubbed her arms awkwardly, saying, " It's really uncomfortable to hear you talk like that. "

Ji Xuan had no expression on his face: " Oh. "

This person is probably a masochist .

The female swordsman said: " I know you definitely don't remember me. You were even mean to me when we were killing monsters before. My name is Red Wine. Can we play together when you are free? "

Ji Xuanyi really didn't remember the red wine. Hearing her say that, he just nodded and said, " It would be great if we could play together, but I'm from Starry City and I'll probably be back in a few days. If you have nothing to do, you can go to Starry City for a stroll. "

A little flower came back to her senses at this time, and couldn't help but look at Qi Qin again before saying to Ji Xuanyi: " Isn't Star City in conflict with Sun City? The leader of our Dancing Gang has notified us not to go to the other two main cities casually during this period, so as not to cause trouble. "

Ji Xuan nodded, and then said: " There is a conflict, but it is almost over. You can wait until it is over before going. "

Red Wine said eagerly: " Actually, I think this kind of game with passion and conflict is the real game. Youyue City is too peaceful and boring. "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Actually, fighting and killing isn't that good. "

At least he quite likes Youyue City now.

However, as soon as Ji Xuanyi said this, the three people, including Qi Qin, all looked at him.

Ji Xuanyi: "... If you keep looking at me like this, fighting and killing will become very enjoyable.

Everyone withdrew their gaze, looking at their noses with their eyes and their hearts with their noses.

A little flower looked at Ji Xuanyi and asked curiously, " Are you planning to take a carriage? Where are you going? "

Ji Xuanyi thought about it and felt that there was no need to hide this matter from Xiaohua, so he said, " We are going to find the leader of the Dancing Gang. "

A little flower was startled, then laughed and said, " What a coincidence! We are also planning to go to the Dance Gang to find the leader Ye Linyu. Do we want to go together? "

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin, and then at the two girls who were waiting eagerly for him.

He had been especially kind to girls when he was still very cruel, and now he would not refuse anyone, so he could only sigh and say, " Okay, let's go together. "

So the two-person carriage was changed into a four-seater. Ji Xuanyi was squeezed by Qi Qin so that half of his body was pressed on him. He began to doubt what kind of naughty things he was thinking about in his mind at the beginning.

What's the good of cultivating your body and mind? Aren't you happy to continue to be a cancerous murderer ? ? ?

Chapter 132

When a little flower asked Ji Xuanyi why he went to see Ye Linyu , Ji Xuanyi said that he knew an old western doctor , and since he was in Youyue City, he would visit his friend.

The old western doctor was indeed very famous in Youyue City. When Yiduo Xiaohua and the other girl heard the old western doctor's name, they immediately laughed. Ji Xuanyi thought that they would also find the old western doctor noisy and annoying , but he didn't expect that the two girls actually liked the old western doctor and thought he was very interesting.

But it's true , this kind of sleazy guy is good at talking and is quite popular when it comes to flirting with girls.

Ji Xuanyi was not very interested in the reason why Xiaohua and the others went to find Ye Linyu , but before he could say anything, Hongjiu could no longer bear it and told Ji Xuanyi everything they had encountered.

Although Youyue City is generally very Buddhist, there are always some people who are not so Buddhist no matter where you are.

A Little Flower's Mu Fan Club is in the northwest district of Youyue City. At first, they just chose the district where they entered without thinking much about it, but they didn't expect that the follow-up of the world mission would open up favorability missions for the five races . The gate of the northwest district is right next to the intersection leading to the two popular maps, Claustrophobic Sea and Lost Forest , and it suddenly became lively.

As the number of players increased, it became easier for the guild in the northwest area to recruit members, and it gradually developed after a short while.

Originally, in this Buddhist main city, it was nothing for the independent gang to develop . Ye Linyu even hoped that someone could replace their dancing gang. But things in the world are never as planned. Some time ago, the gang in the neighboring base of Yiduo Xiaohua and her gang accepted a newcomer . The newcomer had some skills and was proactive, and soon he became the deputy gang leader. Then, without waiting for the gang leader to react, he kicked the other party out and became the gang leader himself.

This was nothing. The leader of the gang next door to Yiduo Xiaohua was also a Buddhist player. He was quite happy to be promoted from a gang leader to a gang member. He felt that the newcomer was motivated and it was a good fit for him to be the gang leader. Although Hongjiu felt unhappy, the newcomer had no complaints, so she couldn't say anything.

" That new guy is really too arrogant! " Red Wine frowned and said unhappily: " I said he was not a quiet guy, but a little flower didn't believe it! "

A little flower smiled helplessly and said, " After living in Youyue City for a long time, I thought everyone was the same. "

The newcomer was not a Buddhist player, but rather ambitious. In other words, he was indeed aiming to kick out Ye Linyu, but he was still in the process of developing his power, so it was a coincidence that he would clash with Yiduo Xiaohua and the others and expose his purpose in advance.

A Little Flower's Mu Fan Club is a gang that only accepts fans of Mu Xuanyi. Since there are only a small number of people in the gang, they will never let go of like-minded people once they meet them. A few days ago, a female mage wanted to join them, and after she answered several questions about Mu Xuanyi correctly, A Little Flower and others happily accepted her. But the other party had only joined the gang for one day when someone from the neighboring gang " Sunny Rain " came to their door and asked Yiduo Xiaohua and her gang to kick out the mage.

" Why? " Qi Qin asked curiously, " If they were seeking revenge, they would have to hand the other party over, or come to fight directly. What do you mean by asking you to kick them out? "

A little flower said helplessly: " Because their purpose is not to seek revenge. "

That wizard girl had no grudge against the Sunny Rain Gang. She just joined the Sunny Rain Gang before joining the Wood Support Club, but only stayed there for one day. After hearing about the Wood Support Club next door, she quit the gang.

Changing guilds is very common in the game. You don't pay people, and you don't make any sacrifices, so why should you let people stay in your guild? It can be said that every guild leader will prepare for the other party to leave the guild when accepting a person as a guild member. No guild has ever mobilized a large number of troops to ask for a member because an ordinary guild member ran away to another guild. I guess even Zuo'an knows that they can't afford to lose this person.

It would be even more strange if it happened in Youyue City, a main city full of Buddhist players. The gang members were all happy after the gang leader abdicated. If he was really a senior executive, it would be fine, but why would the original gang go to so much trouble to find an insignificant gang member who had only been in the gang for one day and was just changing gangs?

When Xiaohua said this, her face wrinkled. Seeing her like this, Hongjiu said, " It's because that silly girl, like Xiaohua, thought there were no bad people in Youyue City. She got a clue about a hidden mission, and when someone asked her about it, she blurted it out. "

Although the mage girl got the clue, she hadn't figured it out yet, so she spoke incoherently when asked by the people from the Qingyu Gang. The current leader of the Qingyu Gang knew that she had clues to the hidden task, and originally thought that since she was here anyway, she could slowly inquire around, and if that didn't work, she could try some trickery, and she would eventually get the task or reward.

As a result, within less than a day, the mage girl ran to the Mu Fan Club. The Qingyu Gang leader's plan failed, so how could he let her go? He threw aside his shamelessness and ran to the Mu Fan Club to ask for her.

The mage girl was just not very wary of others, but she was not stupid, otherwise she would not have gotten the clue of the hidden mission. After thinking back and forth about the action of the Qingyu Gang, she guessed what they were planning. Seeing that Yiduo Xiaohua and the others were different from the leader of the Qingyu Gang and were real Buddhas, the girl told Yiduo Xiaohua and the others everything.

The nature of the Mu Fan Club is different from other gangs, it is a fan club, after confirming that they are their own people, everyone will protect them very much. When the Qingyu Gang came to demand the person, they were not very willing, and after hearing what the mage girl said, it was even more impossible for them to hand the person over, and the two gangs started to fight. But how could a Buddhist gang like the Mu Fan Club, which has no benefits and even has requirements for recruiting members, possibly defeat the Qingyu Gang, which has begun to develop slowly and aims to replace the Dancing Gang?

Although due to the rules of the Dancing Gang, the Sunny and Rain Gang did not really attack the Wood Support Group, but Yiduo Xiaohua and her group were blocked in the base for a whole day and could not complete any tasks. Seeing that the Wood Support Group was dragged down like this by her alone, the Mage Girl felt embarrassed to stay there. Although Yiduo Xiaohua and her group tried their best to keep them and said that they were not afraid of these things and that the Sunny and Rain Gang did not dare to do anything to them as long as the Dancing Gang was there, the Mage Girl finally quit the gang and left with the Sunny and Rain Gang.

Most of the hot-tempered people like Hongjiu in the Wood Fan Club were unwilling to accept this, and Yiduo Xiaohua and the others were just forced to bow their heads. However, this was the decision made by the Mage Girl herself. She also expressed the hope that everyone in the Wood Fan Club could continue to play the game well and stop going against the Qingyu Gang for her. She would feel very guilty if anything happened. Hongjiu also knew that with the strength of the Wood Fan Club, going against the Qingyu Gang was like a moth to a flame. There would always be unhappy things when playing games, so in the end the matter was left unresolved.

Ji Xuanyi still felt a little complicated after hearing this . After all, the Mu Fan Club was his fan club, and he seemed to have the obligation to help find redress when someone bullied him. But after all, he was not Mu Xuanyi now, and in the final analysis, this was Youyue City's business, which was under the jurisdiction of Guiye Linyu and the others. As a person from Fanxing City, he actually had no right to interfere.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment, looked at a small flower, and said, " Is this the reason you went to find Ye Linyu this time? Do you want him to help you make the decision? "

If that was the case, Ji Xuanyi had to say that Yiduo Xiaohua and the others were a little naive.

In the final analysis, the Qingyu Gang did not make any principled mistakes in this matter.

Although it involved the ownership of the hidden mission, it went against the will of the mage girl herself and was a coercive action, but they did not use force against the Wood Support Association. In the end, the mage girl voluntarily returned to the Qingyu Gang. The Dancing Gang actually had no reason to interfere, not to mention that their gang leader was so lazy that he probably didn't have enough energy to uphold justice in such trivial matters.

Even if Ji Xuanyi is with them this time, Ye Linyu is willing to help Yiduo Xiaohua and the others for the sake of Fanxing City, but what reason should he use? How should he do it? Just let the Qingyu Gang hand over the people? What's the difference between that and the previous Qingyu Gang? Moreover, the Qingyu Gang's base is right next to the Mu Fan Club, so it's not easy to trip them up. You, the Dancing Gang, can help the Mu Fan Club for a while, but can you help them forever?

Ji Xuanyi shook his head slightly and said, " If you want to go to the Dancing Gang for this matter, I think you might as well go back and spend some money to break up that gang, or develop it yourself. The struggle between gangs cannot be resolved by relying on the help of others. "

Xiao Hua showed a helpless smile and said, " We understand what you said. Besides, for a gang like ours, things have already happened. How could we suddenly want to take revenge now? "

Ji Xuanyi frowned. What Yiduo Xiaohua said was right. If it was really because of the previous incident, they had given up at that time. Why would they suddenly take action now? Yiduo Xiaohua and the others were not Ji Xuanyi. It was not enough for them to just let it go at that time. They went back and stabbed someone in anger. This was not the first time they had encountered such a situation.

 " What happened next? " Ji Xuanyi asked.

A little flower nodded and said, " After Xiaoxiao returned to the Qingyu Gang, she heard some news. "

Xiaoxiao is the name of the wizard girl. Although she returned to the Qingyu Gang, she was actually very resistant to this matter in her heart. She wanted to take revenge on the Qingyu Gang, but she couldn't implicate Yiduo Xiaohua and the others. Finally, she decided to stay in the Qingyu Gang first, use their power to crack the hidden mission, and then jump to other larger gangs, hand over the hidden mission to others, and make the Qingyu gang angry to death.

But Xiaoxiao's plan was less than halfway completed when she unexpectedly learned of the ambitions of the leader of the Qingyu Gang.

Xiaoxiao's first reaction at that time was that the Qingyu Gang must not be allowed to develop. The Dancing Gang was only pushed to the top position out of helplessness. In fact, they were not so willing to be the boss. If the Qingyu Gang developed, there would be no need to kick Ye Linyu and the others out. As long as they showed this intention, Ye Linyu would probably happily hand over the power to them.

But Xiaoxiao knew clearly that the leader of the Qingyu Gang was not suitable to lead Youyue City. Such a person would never be able to have the Buddhist mentality of Ye Linyu and others from the Dancing Gang. If he wanted to be number one, he would definitely destroy the current peaceful Youyue City.

Although she was cheated once, Xiaoxiao still likes the current atmosphere in Youyue City very much. She doesn't want everyone who plays games happily every day to be involved in all kinds of messy and tiring fights, so she told Yiduo Xiaohua and the others the news as soon as possible, and asked them to tell the leader of the Dancing Gang, Ye Linyu, and ask him to pay attention to the Qingyu Gang. It would be great if they could kill them directly.

"So you went to find Ye Linyu to report this matter?" Ji Xuanyi asked.

A little flower rubbed her hands awkwardly, then nodded.

In Ji Xuanyi's opinion, this matter is even more unreliable than the previous one. Although the general atmosphere in Youyue City is good, there must be many gangs eyeing Ye Linyu's position, but those gangs are not capable enough. Although Ji Xuanyi is not sure how big the Qingyu Gang is, it is obvious that a gang that is forced to abide by the rules set by the Dancing Gang will definitely not have the power to fight against the Dancing Gang.

Even if Ye Linyu heard about this, he would probably just laugh it off, then pretend to thank them, and finally coax the two girls back in a nice way. As for really attacking the Qingyu Gang, that would be absolutely impossible.

The Dancing Gang is such a big gang, but they killed a small gang whose scale and combat power were no match for them just because of the selfish information reported by two little girls. Not to mention that Ye Linyu could not do such a thing, even if he did, the scattered people in Youyue City would probably label the Dancing Gang as warmongers who exclude dissidents, and it would be difficult for them to trust the Dancing Gang to bring them peace.

Seeing Ji Xuanyi's expression, Hongjiu said anxiously, "Xiaoxiao has already cheated the evidence. We also have screenshots of the chat! It's not just nonsense!"

Ji Xuan thought to himself, what's the use of the chat records? Even if you drag the leader of the Qingyu Gang in front of Ye Linyu and ask him to tell him everything he wants to do, Ye Linyu will not do anything to him. He might even say that the young man is ambitious and should do a good job.

Hongjiu also saw Ji Xuanyi's attitude, and immediately said angrily: "You are worse than before with a bad temper. You would have exploded when you heard this!"

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

If he still has the bad temper he used to have, he would definitely explode, but it is not certain whether it would be directed at the Qingyu Gang or at you.

Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to care about the red wine. He leaned most of his body in Qi Qin's arms and closed his eyes to rest.

Qi Qin reached out and pushed back the loose hair on Ji Xuanyi's forehead.

Seeing that Ji Xuanyi refused to pay attention to him, Hongjiu looked at Qi Qin angrily and said, " Big guy, you are his boyfriend, you judge for yourself, should we go find Ye Linyu? "

It was the first time that Qi Qin heard someone say that he was Ji Xuanyi's boyfriend. He couldn't help but blush a little. After a long while, he said in Hongjiu's expectant eyes: " I am Xuanyi's boyfriend, of course I will listen to Xuanyi ... "

wine: "....."

Hongjiu was so angry that she was about to die. A little flower quickly patted her on the shoulder to comfort her and told her to calm down. No matter whether it was useful or not, they still had to go and see Ye Linyu and try their best to communicate with him before they could know the result.

Ji Xuanyi pretended to sleep, and Hongjiu was also angry and didn't say anything, and the car of people quietly arrived at the southwest area, a transportation point near the Dancing Gang's base.

After the carriage stopped, Qi Qin helped Ji Xuanyi up, and Ji Xuanyi got off the carriage. Hongjiu followed behind and without saying a word took out a few gold coins from his pocket and handed them to Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuan raised an eyebrow and looked at her.

Red Wine said in a hoarse voice: " The fare! "

This is a situation where people with different ideologies cannot work together. I must draw a clear line between myself and Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi didn't bother to be polite with her. He let Qi Qin take the call, then walked to the front and headed towards the place the old Western doctor said.

No matter how unhappy Hongjiu was, she and a little flower had the same destination as Ji Xuanyi and the others, so in the end she had to follow Ji Xuanyi and the others reluctantly.

The old western doctor didn't pick up the person, so after contacting Ji Xuanyi, he went back to the dance gang to wait. When Ji Xuanyi arrived, he was looking around at the door of the base. When he saw Ji Xuanyi coming, his eyes lit up and he immediately went to meet him, calling out: " Ji Xuanyi! "

Ji Xuanyi wanted to hold his forehead with his hand, but he held back and said " hmm " lightly. The old western doctor complained: " What a jerk you are. You didn't even inform me when you came. You really don't want me to be a tour guide. I'm not that annoying. Oh , why did you bring two girls with you? They look familiar. Are they from Youyue City? Do you know them? "

A small flower and red wine came out from behind Ji Xuanyi. The former just smiled and didn't say anything, but the latter said unhappily: " I don't know him. We are not from the same group. "

A little flower bumped into her when she heard that. Red Wine snorted and stopped talking. The old Western doctor is a shrewd man, how could he not see that there is something fishy? However, he knew that Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were in love, so how come two more girls suddenly appeared?

The old western doctor chuckled, approached Ji Xuanyi in a lewd manner, and said in a very annoying way: " Four people? "

Ji Xuanyi: "... If you want to die, just say so. "

The old Western doctor coughed twice, stood up straight and stopped talking.

Ji Xuanyi looked up at him and said, " I know them, but they are definitely not in the same group. They have something to ask Ye Linyu. "

The old western doctor was stunned for a moment. He was about to say that if he knew someone who needed help, why did he need to ask Ye Linyu? Couldn't you, Ji Xuanyi, help yourself? Then he realized that Ji Xuanyi was trying to avoid suspicion. It was not appropriate for a person from Fanxing City to interfere in the affairs of Youyue City. He immediately became serious and said, " Okay, since we are all here to see the leader of the Goubi Gang, let's go together. "

A little flower smiled and said, " Does the boss know that you call him that? "

The old western doctor was something of a socialite in Youyue City, and had boasted and talked nonsense to so many people. Although he had some impression of a small flower and red wine, he couldn't actually remember their names. This time, when he saw that the two of them knew Ji Xuanyi, he was a little more attentive.

Originally, he would not answer this question for Ye Linyu's sake, but with the previous premise, plus the fact that Xiaohua was a pretty girl, the old western doctor answered nonchalantly: " That's nothing, I'll call you that in front of him. "

Red Wine also laughed and said, " Isn't he angry? " snorted angrily and said, " He has the nerve to be angry ! "

This was a personal grudge between the two people. Red Wine and a Small Flower smiled and did not ask any more questions.

The old western doctor looked at Ji Xuanyi again and said, " Ye Linyu asked me to prepare and take you around Youyue City to see the scenery. Today, the knights who came to pick you up came back and talked to him for a few words. He didn't let me contact you, so I waited in vain at the city gate for a long time! "

A Little Flower and Red Wine, who were listening to the old western doctor's words, were a little surprised. Ji Xuanyi first said that he was looking for Ye Linyu, and later said that he was looking for the old western doctor. They still thought that he was just a friend. But after hearing what the old western doctor said, and even sending someone to pick him up, it sounded like he was a guest invited by the gang leader.

Ji Xuanyi refused to explain what happened to him after he left the Novice Village. Could he be the leader of some big gang in Star City? Was Youyue City going to form an alliance with Star City?

Although the leaders of the three main cities have participated in many activities, ordinary players cannot recognize the gang leaders and gangs of other main cities unless they go to the forum to find out. For example, Yiduo Xiaohua and Hongjiu only know half of the city of Youri City and the three major gangs of Fanxing City. Most of the information they know is vague, such as that Youri City is very bad and is in conflict with Fanxing City.

Seeing that Ji Xuanyi was so valued by Ye Linyu, the two girls even imagined some strange thing, such as Ji Xuanyi was the chief leader of the three major gangs.

Hongjiu couldn't help but feel a little uneasy, and whispered to a little flower: " Will Ji Xuanyi be angry about what I said before? What if he tells Ye Linyu not to help us? "

A little flower hesitated and said, " If it were Xiao Ji, he would definitely be angry, but he wouldn't be so petty as to make Ye Linyu not help us. "

Hearing this, Red Wine muttered, " He is different now. What if his temper has improved but he has become more stingy? "

Ji Xuanyi, who heard everything clearly in front, said: "..."

Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " Next time you two say bad things about others in front of others and don't want others to hear it, you can try private chat. If nothing else, the private chat function of this game is quite useful. "

A little flower: "..."

wine: "....."

Ji Xuanyi turned around and looked at the red wine, and said, " And if I don't say anything, Ye Linyu won't help you. Remember this, don't blame me if you get rejected later. "

Hongjiu was a little embarrassed, and after a long while, he said, " It was wrong of me to make random guesses about you. I apologize, but how can you be so sure that Ye Linyu won't help us? There was nothing wrong with the Qingyu Gang's choice in robbing people, but they were thinking about squeezing out the Dancing Gang and becoming the boss themselves, and they were so aggressive. We should take care of this, right? "

After that, Red Wine added: " We have evidence! "

The old western doctor walked by and listened for a long time. He understood the general idea now. Ji Xuan didn't need to talk to him again. The old western doctor said: " There are many people who covet the position of the boss, but they don't have the ability to convince others. I have never heard of the Qingyu Gang you mentioned. It is probably just a small gang.

Ambitions? Want to seize power? That's something they will do after they develop. We can't care about it now. Isn't that bullying the weak? If we all do this, how can we manage other independent gangs in Youyue City in the future? "

After listening to this, Hongjiu choked. What the old western doctor said was indeed right. In order to maintain the peace in Youyue City, the Dancing Gang did set down many rules such as prohibiting internal fighting. If they themselves did not abide by them, they would not be able to convince the others.

" We already know that someone has this idea, do you want to wait until they grow as big as you do before you fight them? " Red Wine frowned, not understanding, " By then, how much more effort will be wasted, and many people will be demoted! "

The old western doctor grinned and said, " That can't be helped. Dark hero memes are no longer popular. I know I made the right choice. If we delay for too long, the damage will be greater . We will be scolded, and there will be no benefit to gain. It's better for us to act uprightly and follow the code of conduct. "

What the old western doctor said was absolutely right. Red Wine and a Little Flower were in no position to ask the Dancing Gang to do something that would lead to them being accused of bullying the weak and fighting for power.

Hongjiu sighed dejectedly, realizing that their trip might be in vain. The information Xiaoxiao had worked so hard to find out was actually of no use at all.

Ji Xuan looked at the red wine and a small flower behind him, and his heart moved slightly. He used to think that he had nothing to do with the so-called fan club. Those people just liked the person they imagined one-sidedly. Now he has become more Buddhist and his heart has softened. He actually cares about these girls a little.

As long as the feelings are not too over the line, a person's love for others should always be accompanied by gratitude.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " After all, he is someone I know. Does Ye Linyu mind if I take care of this matter? "

The old western doctor looked at him in surprise and said, " Why do you care? Well, I don't think it's a big deal, but if you expose a gang in Youyue City, wouldn't it be a bit bad? It seems like Fanxing City is going to fight with us. I don't think Ye Linyu will agree, right? "

No matter how ambitious the Qingyu Gang is, they are still strictly abiding by the rules set by the Dancing Gang. If the Dancing Gang acquiesces to Ji Xuan's disbanding of their gang and does not provide them with any protection, what will the other individual gangs think?

Ji Xuan said, " I didn't say I was going to overthrow that gang. The reason these two girls came to find Ye Linyu was mainly because someone from their gang was kidnapped by the Qingyu Gang. "

Ji Xuan told the old western doctor about Xiao Xiao's incident and said, " Anyway, what they both wanted in the beginning was for the girl to return to their gang. I will stop after I accomplish this and won't go too far. "

The old western doctor hesitated for a moment. Ji Xuanyi said that it would not be excessive, but he was not sure whether his subordinates had any skills, so he could only say vaguely: " It's useless for you to tell me about this matter. My words don't count. Anyway, you will see Ye Linyu later, so you can discuss it with him. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't expect the old Western doctor, who was always cheated by Ye Linyu, to make the final decision. After hearing what he said, he nodded and didn't mention it anymore.

On the contrary, Red Wine and a little flower who had been following behind became more energetic and came up together, saying with emotion: " Xiao Ji~ "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi rubbed the goose bumps on his arms caused by the two girls' coquettish voices, leaned closer to Qi Qin cautiously, and said, " I have a partner. "

Qi Qin cooperated and put his arms around Ji Xuanyi.

A little flower and red wine no longer came closer, both looking very happy, as if the problem had been solved since Ji Xuan agreed to help one by one.

I don't know where this mentality came from, it seems that when we were in the Novice Village, everyone had the foreshadowing that they would only follow Ji Xuan's lead. The other party was so reliable, it seemed that there was nothing he couldn't solve.

When Hongjiu thought of this, he couldn't help but feel a strange emotion in his heart, but when he looked at Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, he suppressed the emotion and said with a smile: " Xiao Ji is still as warm-hearted as before! It's great that you are willing to help! "

A little flower also laughed and said, " I told you, Xiaoji hasn't changed in this respect! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Was he very enthusiastic before? How come he didn't know it?

It was fine outside the stronghold, nothing much. Ji Xuanyi thought that the people from the Dancing Gang had all gone out to complete quests, but when he walked inside he found that there were still quite a lot of people. The players in Youyue City leveled up very slowly. Rather than killing monsters and completing quests, they were more like people who came to the game to retire. They were always chatting and eating melon seeds in groups of three or four. The people from the Dancing Gang were no exception. Ji Xuanyi also saw a group of people playing mahjong and chess in the stronghold. He was immediately furious. They were really living the life of an elderly person!

Although the atmosphere was good, for Yiduohua and Hongjiu, this was an unfamiliar place after all, and there were many people around, so they couldn't help feeling a little nervous and hurriedly caught up with Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin.

The old western doctor took Ji Xuanyi and the others to the gang hall in the stronghold. Ye Linyu was playing Landlord with two other people Ji Xuanyi had never seen before, and there was a note stuck on his face.

When the old western doctor saw the other party's expression, he remembered that he forgot to give Ji Xuanyi a private message after receiving him. He quickly stretched out his arms, trying to block Ji Xuanyi's sight, and ran towards Ye Linyu, shouting: " You bastard! Ji Xuanyi is here! " Ye Linyu's reaction speed was also very fast. After hearing the voice, he didn't even raise his head. He wiped away all the papers with his hand, and raised his head with a smile. It was the elegant and strategic Ye Linyu again.

Ji Xuanyi, who saw it clearly, said: "..."

The two people standing nearby saw Ye Linyu's reaction and realized that the guest was an important one. They quickly picked up the messy little wooden table, bent over with their heads down, and ran away.

Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " Youyue City has quite a variety of entertainment activities. "

Ye Linyu smiled calmly and said, " It's just so-so. "

The old western doctor coughed, and Ye Linyu raised his head, only to find that there were two girls following Ji Xuanyi.

Ye Linyu was stunned for a moment, frowned and thought for a while, then looked at a small flower and said, " Are you the leader of the Wood Support Association in the Southwest District? "

A little flower was stunned. She didn't expect that a big gang leader like Ye Linyu would remember her. She nodded quickly like a chicken pecking at rice and said, " It's me. "

 " Fuck, " the old western doctor standing next to Ye Linyu squeezed out these two words from between his teeth and said, " How the hell can you remember this? "

Ye Linyu smiled and said, " Of course I will be impressed by a pretty girl. "

This is all nonsense. Although a little flower is pretty, she is not memorable enough. The reason why Ye Linyu could recognize a little flower is mainly because he remembered the names of many gang leaders of scattered gangs when he organized large-scale activities. Youyue City is not like Fanxing City, which has so many people, so Ye Linyu has to do many things by himself.

But there are so many independent gangs in a main city. Ji Xuan estimated that Ye Linyu might be able to compete with Mi Yin in memory.

But even though she knew it was just a polite remark, Yiduo Xiaohua couldn't help but blush and said, " Boss Ye is really good at joking. "

Ye Linyu didn't come here specifically to flirt with the little girl, so he stopped talking about this topic and just smiled at a little flower and said, " What do you want to talk to me about? "

Originally, Ji Xuanyi was a guest, so he should have been placed in the front, but he had a lot to say to Ji Xuanyi, and it was not good to let Yiduo Xiaohua and the others wait by the side all the time. Besides, Yiduo Xiaohua and the others' things should be relatively simple. It seemed that Ji Xuanyi already knew them, so they probably wouldn't mind waiting for a while.

Yiduo Xiaohua thought that Ye Linyu would talk to Ji Xuanyi first, so that Ji Xuanyi could tell everything at the same time, and they wouldn't have to say it again. She didn't expect that the other party would ask her first. She couldn't help but look at Ji Xuanyi anxiously.

Ji Xuanyi raised his chin to her, meaning that she should just speak frankly.

A little flower got some courage from Ji Xuanyi, so she let out a breath and briefly explained the whole thing.

Chapter 133

Ye Linyu's reaction after hearing what Yiduo Xiaohua said was exactly what Ji Xuanyi had expected. He didn't want to get involved in this matter.

Although Yiduo Xiaohua and Hongjiu were mentally prepared , they couldn't help but show disappointment when they saw the other party's performance .

A little flower bit her lip and looked at Ji Xuanyi on the side.

Ji Xuanyi glanced at her , then said to Ye Linyu: " Master Ye, do you mind if I intervene in this matter? I won't go too far. I will just ask the Qingyu Gang to return the mage to the Mu Support Association. "

The old Western doctor shook his head secretly . Ye Linyu looked easy to talk to, but in fact his attitude towards some things could be said to be very firm. In his opinion, Ye Linyu would most likely not agree to this matter . However, the old Western doctor felt that he and Ji Xuanyi were good friends . If Ye Linyu refused Ji Xuanyi's request, he would probably cover for him and secretly solve the matter with Ji Xuanyi behind Ye Linyu's back.

Actually, it was just a small matter. If it was discovered, he would just take the blame . Thanks to Ye Linyu's training, the old Western doctor has become very skilled in taking the blame for others.

Just when the old western doctor was about to have a private chat with Ji Xuanyi to tell him not to fight to the death with Ye Linyu , he heard Ye Linyu next to him say: " Okay. "

Old Western doctor: "..... ??? "

How come Ye Linyu suddenly became so easy to talk to? !

Ji Xuanyi was also stunned for a moment . He did not expect Ye Linyu to agree, and agree so readily. He thought that even if the other party agreed, it would only be after he had coaxed and persuaded him and ceded land and paid compensation!

Ye Linyu was pleased by the expressions of the old western doctor and Ji Xuanyi. He leaned back on the leader's throne and smiled lazily: " Anyway, whether I agree or not, the old western doctor will definitely help you behind my back, so I won't be the bad guy anymore. "

Old Western doctor: "..."

Ye Linyu really knew this old Western doctor too well, otherwise he wouldn't have been fooled by him every time.

The old western doctor gritted his teeth when he heard this and was about to deny it, but thinking that Ye Linyu might continue to follow his words, he swallowed his words and said, " Haha, you understand me quite well! "

Ye Linyu said modestly: " That's not the case. For example, I thought you would say that you didn't even think about helping me, and I was ready to really not let you go. "

Old Western doctor: "..."

Shit! Sure enough, there was a trap! It was so damn thrilling, luckily he didn't say it!

The old Western doctor looked at Ye Linyu with lingering fear, then ran to Ji Xuanyi with his short legs, making his position very clear.

Ye Linyu raised his eyebrows regretfully and said, " I can indeed leave the matter to you, but I still hope that you can really grasp the right measure. After all, it is not easy to achieve peace like Youyue City in the game. "

After hearing this, Ji Xuanyi understood. Ye Linyu had never thought of not letting the old Western doctor follow him. After all, Ye Linyu didn't know Ji Xuanyi, and he would not feel at ease if he let him act alone. Only when the old Western doctor followed Ji Xuanyi, would Ye Linyu feel a little more at ease.

Ji Xuan glanced at the noisy old western doctor beside him and thought that it was no wonder that this man was always tricked by Ye Linyu and could never escape from the other party's control.

But this is Youyue City's business, and Ye Linyu's subordinate Youfang has nothing to do with Ji Xuanyi, so he just nodded to Ye Linyu and said, " I understand, thank you very much. "

Seeing that the matter was settled, Yiduohua and Hongjiu also showed happy expressions, thanked Ye Linyu again, and then ran behind Ji Xuanyi and the others.

Ye Linyu said to Ji Xuan, " I wanted to chat with you about some small talk, but since you are busy, I won't waste your time, and I won't keep the two girls waiting. If you want to take action now, go ahead. But the God's Child Can Dance will not help you in this matter, and you, the old western doctor, don't think of secretly transferring people. "

The old western doctor, whose thoughts were exposed, stiffened his neck and said, " I won't use anyone from the gang! "

Ye Linyu smiled and said, " That would be great. "

The old Western doctor snorted angrily and left with Ji Xuanyi and the others.

When the group walked out of the stronghold, the old Western doctor collapsed.

A little flower smiled and said, " So you have this look. "

When she dealt with the old western doctor before, he always looked servile and complacent. Although he looked very slick, he always gave people a feeling that they could be trusted and relied on. Unexpectedly, when he came in front of Ye Linyu, he couldn't be servile at all, and looked like he was being suppressed.

The old Western doctor was also very depressed. Ye Linyu was a man with too many thoughts and too calculating. He always fell into the opponent's trap. Occasionally, when he was a little smarter, Ye Linyu could always predict that it would be another trap with each step. After a long time, the old Western doctor no longer had the heart to resist.

"Ye Linyu is such a bastard!" the old western doctor thought and couldn't help cursing again.

Ji Xuanyi shook his head. Ye Linyu was indeed a terrifying person. It was only because he was in Youyue City, a Buddhist city, and he himself was also a Buddhist, that it would have been so easy for the Sun City to defeat the team led by Ye Linyu! Fortunately, Ye Linyu was now in a neutral position towards them, otherwise, if he got involved with Zhaochen, it would have been very troublesome.

Red Wine said speechlessly: "Can everyone please think about the serious matters? We want to get the person back, but we can't go too far, and we also want the other party to never trouble us again. With only a few of us, what should we do?"

Hearing this, everyone looked at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

So out of so many people, he's the only one with a brain, right?

Ji Xuanyi was so upset that he said after a long while: "If you could come up with a solution so quickly, I wouldn't have waited for you to find Ye Linyu. Didn't I tell you halfway on the carriage?"

Upon hearing this, Yiduohua and Hongjiu became a little depressed again.

After a while, a little flower managed to cheer up and said, "Don't worry, Xiaoji. We are already very happy that you are willing to help us. Whether the problem can be solved depends on the situation."

Ji Xuan glanced at her and said nothing.

It's very simple to get people, just hand over the clues from the wizard and there will be no trouble. But not to mention that the wizard and Yiduo Xiaohua are unwilling to do so, Ji Xuanyi himself actually hates the feeling of being controlled by others.

If he wants to pull Xiaoxiao out of the Qingyu Gang without any trouble, he cannot do it directly. He can only understand the internal structure of the Qingyu Gang first. Ji Xuanyi remembered that Yiduo Xiaohua and the others mentioned that the current leader of the Qingyu Gang kicked the previous leader to the position, and the previous leader is still in the gang. He wondered if there was anything he could do about this.

Before Ji Xuanyi could think clearly, he heard the old western doctor say carelessly: "Hey, Xiaohua said there's no rush for this, but I remembered something else."

When Ji Xuan heard him say this, he simply gave up the messy thoughts in his mind and asked, "What's the matter?"

The old western doctor smiled maliciously and said, "You have come to Youyue City but you haven't met Lao Yun yet, right? After all, we are all friends now. You can meet him and his god at the same time—"

The old western doctor saw the two girls next to him, and he chuckled and swallowed his words. He winked at Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin and said, " How is it? "

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly.

What other things? What friendship? It was obvious that the old western doctor just wanted to show off in front of Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, and show off his lucky friend and his friend's luck! Fortunately, Ji Xuanyi's temper has improved, otherwise if he met a seal like the old Western doctor, he would have been crushed to death.

Ji Xuanyi was originally a little interested, but the old Western doctor was so arrogant, he didn't want to let the other party succeed. Just as he was about to refuse, Ji Xuanyi suddenly remembered something and turned around to look at Qi Qin.

Sure enough, Qi Qin's eyes were sparkling with anticipation. Although he himself did not have much need or desire for divine weapons, as a martial artist, Qi Qin still had a great curiosity about powerful weapons, and he wanted to go and take a look.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi felt that he must have owed Qi Qin a lot of money in his previous life, otherwise how could he lose so much money in this life!

Ji Xuanyi rubbed his brows helplessly and said to the old western doctor: " Okay, you contact Yun Zhongjian and we will go see him. "

" And his new weapon. " Ji Xuanyi looked up at the old Western doctor and added slowly. The old western doctor laughed, " Hehehe . "

Ji Xuan looked at the two girls next to him, his expression relaxed a little, and said: " I will find a way to deal with this matter, you don't have to worry too much. I have a friend here, you heard it, I will go to see him first, and then come to you. "

Yiduoxiaohua and Hongjiu were not fools. After hearing what Ji Xuanyi said, they understood that everyone in Yunzhongjian knew him. They also knew that his household registration was in Youyue City, but they had never seen him. Or maybe they had seen him but didn't know that he was Yunzhongjian. However, such a big man must have secrets. Ji Xuanyi's statement meant that it was not convenient to take them there.

A little flower smiled and said, " Well, we understand. Although we don't know if it can be used, for the sake of what's coming next, we should hurry up and level up. When you're done, you can go directly to the base of the Mu Support Association to wait for us, or you can directly join us. " A little flower left Ji Xuanyi the coordinates of the Mu Fan Club's base, then left with the red wine, wanting to say something else.

The old western doctor here also contacted Yun Zhongjian. He knew that the other party was low-key. If he heard that they were looking for him to show off the artifact, he would definitely refuse to come out to see people. So he simply said that Ji Xuanyi and the others came to Youyue City for a tour, and he brought Ji Xuanyi and the others to chat with him. As expected, Yun Zhongjian joined their group very readily.

The old western doctor grinned and said, " Let's go find him! "

Yun Zhongjian has reached the maximum level, so there is no need to do any more ordinary upgrade tasks. However, most of the troops are still at level 50 or 60, and the official has not yet officially launched the various gameplay after reaching the maximum level. Yun Zhongjian, who has reached the maximum level ahead of time, has nothing to do all day and is extremely bored. If Yunzhongjian was in a main city like Fanxing City or Youyue City, it would be fine, with constant frictions of all sizes every day, and it would not be completely free of things to do. But he happened to be in the most peaceful Youyue City. Under the management of the Dancing Gang, there were no fights in Youyue City, not even people to learn from each other. As a result, after Yunzhongjian reached the maximum level, he could only complete tasks on a daily basis. When he got tired of completing the tasks, he would find a place with beautiful scenery to daydream, enjoy the breeze, bask in the sun, and live a very leisurely life.

When the old western doctor and his companions found Yunzhongjian, he was enjoying the shade in a small forest. He spread a piece of floral cloth on the ground, put out a few side dishes for sale, and had a picnic alone.

When the wind blew, Yun Zhongjian was so flustered that he couldn't hold down the corner of the cloth and looked very lonely and forlorn.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin couldn't help but look at Yun Zhongjian's only good friend, the old Western doctor.

When the old western doctor saw Yun Zhongjian's appearance, he couldn't help but cough dryly, feeling a little guilty. As a friend, he had indeed failed in his duty.

But it's not like this every day. Although the old Western doctor is usually busy, he will still try his best to make time to take Yun Zhongjian out to play. The reason why Yun Zhongjian was left alone today was mainly because Ji Xuanyi and the others had come and took up all the old Western doctor's time.

The old western doctor touched his nose, walked forward with Ji Xuanyi and the other two, and said to Yun Zhongjian from a distance : " Old Yun, we are here to play with you! "

Yun Zhongjian paused while arranging the flowered towel, raised his head and looked at the old western doctor and the two people behind him, smiled and said, " It's just right that you're here. Sit down and have something to eat. "

The old western doctor didn't bother to be polite with him. He strode up, sat down, picked up the fruit and put it into his mouth. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin also sat down. Qi Qin was still reserved for a moment, but when Yun Zhongjian handed the barbecue to him, he lost his composure. He glanced at Ji Xuanyi, and seeing that the other party had no intention of objecting, he started to eat with confidence.

Yun Zhongjian looked at them with a satisfied smile on his face.

Ji Xuanyi looked at the other person and his heart couldn't help but move.

As for games, no matter how rubbish they are, as long as you have friends around, you can continue playing happily.

It is not easy for Yun Zhongjian, who has been at the center of public opinion without knowing why, to find a true friend like Lao Xiyi. After all, Ji Xuanyi also had the experience of being a celebrity, and had many close friends with different thoughts. He could still understand how difficult it was for Yun Zhongjian.

Yun Zhongjian, as a player who reached the maximum level ahead of time, could still laugh even when he was so bored. It seemed that getting along with the old western doctor really made him happy.

Qi Qin was eating beside him without even raising his head. The old western doctor was not as greedy as him. He couldn't really eat the food in the game, so just tasting it was enough. After taking two bites, he stopped and looked at Yun Zhongjian with an itchy heart.

Yun Zhongjian also ate two mouthfuls. Seeing that the old western doctor was staring at him, he asked curiously, " What's wrong? "

The old western doctor laughed again and made a face at Yun Zhongjian.

Yun Zhongjian was speechless and said: "... What on earth are you going to do? "

" Wow, come on, brother, I've hinted so much and you still can't see it? " The old western doctor said, patting Qi Qin's shoulder and said, " This brother is also a swordsman. He got an orange weapon on the day he touched the world boss , but didn't get a divine weapon. I brought him here to broaden his horizons! "

The old western doctor thought he had made a perfect excuse, but Yun Zhongjian could see through his true nature and was speechless. It turned out that this man came to show off to him after all.

Yun Zhongjian was actually a little unhappy in his heart, but the unhappiness soon subsided. He knew the old western doctor's character very well, so it was very easy for him to forgive him. Although the old western doctor was so mean, Yun Zhongjian had never scolded him before, all because of his good temper.

Yun Zhongjian shook his head helplessly and said, " You are such a jerk. If it were someone else, they would definitely beat you up. "

The old western doctor came forward with a shy face and said: " That's right, our old Yun is so gentle! "

Yunzhongjian: "..."

Yun Zhongjian was too lazy to say anything and pushed him aside. The old Western doctor, a frail pastor, rolled several meters away after being pushed by Yun Zhongjian.

Qi Qin also reacted at this time, put down the meat in his hand, and said to Yun Zhongjian: " Um, is it inconvenient? "

The old western doctor came back and said with a shameless face: " That's true. We are all sending a few people. What's so inconvenient about it? "

Yun Zhongjian glanced at the old Western doctor, sighed, and actually shook his head.

The old Western doctor never expected that he would be rejected by Yun Zhongjian. He was stunned for a moment, thinking that he had gone too far and made Yun Zhongjian unhappy. For a moment, he didn't know what to do.

Yun Zhongjian was not really angry, and he did not wait for the old western doctor to speak up for him. Instead, he said directly: " It's not that I don't want to show it to you, but something happened yesterday and the artifact was lost. "

When these words came out, the other three people including Ji Xuanyi were all stunned.

The old western doctor was even more incredulous and shouted: " What happened?

Yesterday? Lost? The box we touched the day before yesterday afternoon, wasn't that a magical artifact that disappeared before it even got warm in your hands?! "

Yun Zhongjian nodded, and the old western doctor's face wrinkled into a ball, and he kept muttering: " What's going on? What's going on? How could it be lost? "

It's no wonder that the old Western doctor would have such a reaction. Yun Zhongjian's loss obviously did not mean that the item was lost somewhere due to carelessness, but that it fell into the hands of someone else.

But you have to know that in the game "Domain", although the equipment is not bound, unless the player hands over the equipment himself, no other player can forcibly snatch other people's equipment. Once this behavior is reported and verified, the account will be directly blocked, and even legal responsibility in real life will be pursued.

Most of the players in this game would not even lose their ordinary weapons, so it was unbelievable that Yun Zhongjian could lose a magic weapon.

Yun Zhongjian sighed and told him what happened yesterday.

Yun Zhongjian is the legendary lucky guy who doesn't even realize it. He never expected that he would get a magic weapon. Moreover, as a nonchalant ppx , his daily routine is just to complete tasks and enjoy the scenery, so it's useless for him to get the magic weapon.

Yun Zhongjian was indeed happy for a while because of the magic weapon, but it was only for a while. He didn't fight or do any raids, so he could only use the magic weapon to show off his appearance. He might also continue to be approached by people with ulterior motives. Thinking of this, Yun Zhongjian was no longer happy.

He doesn't like the feeling of being high-profile at all.

After thinking about it, Yun Zhongjian decided to sell this magic weapon so that he could buy some snacks.

" Sold it?!?!" The old western doctor's eyes widened, and he grabbed Yun Zhongjian's shoulders, shaking him and roaring: " That's a divine weapon! What the hell are you thinking about! "

But unfortunately, as a pastor, the old Western doctor couldn't shake Yun Zhongjian at all. Yun Zhongjian stood there motionless, but the old Western doctor himself was shaking badly.

Yun Zhongjian held the old western doctor and said helplessly: " I knew you would react like this, so I didn't tell you. "

As a result, without the experienced Western doctor to check on him, Yun Zhongjian was cheated.

He found this person on the forum and met him in the game. The person said that he didn't have enough gold coins of equal value, so he transferred the money offline. His words were sincere and genuine. Since the number of bad guys in Youyue City was indeed relatively low, the little fool Yun Zhongjian believed it and was cheated.

Yun Zhongjian sighed helplessly and said, " Maybe the weapon wasn't meant for me to take. It's not a big loss if it's lost. I didn't tell you about it and made you two make a wasted trip. I'm really sorry. "

Ji Xuanyi and the other two were speechless.

What the hell is Yun Zhongjian like? He even got his artifact stolen, and he still says it's no loss! What the hell is your apology?

The old western doctor was so angry that he almost spat out a mouthful of blood. He poked Yun Zhongjian's chest armor with one finger, making a bang, and cursed: " You are crazy! Someone cheated you out of a magic weapon! Do you know how much a magic weapon costs?! "

Yun Zhongjian exclaimed, " Ah! " and asked, " How much is it? "

The old Western doctor choked. He had never bought it, so how would he know!

Seeing the two of them still staring at each other, Ji Xuan said speechlessly, " My friend bought it. It cost six figures. It was in RMB. "

Hearing this, the old western doctor and Yun Zhongjian both gasped.

Yunzhongjian: " So expensive?! "

Old Western doctor: " So rich?! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

There are so many complaints!

Before Yun Zhongjian could say anything, the old western doctor came up to Ji Xuanyi and asked in a sticky voice: " Who is your friend? Is he from Star City? Can you introduce me to him? I'm a very popular person, your friend will definitely like me! "

Ji Xuan pushed the old western doctor away expressionlessly, looked at Yun Zhongjian, who was a little uneasy after learning the amount of money he was defrauded, and said speechlessly: " You sell things yourself, don't you know the price? How much did you sell it for? "

Yun Zhongjian said somewhat awkwardly: " Five thousand. "

Everyone present was silent.

To be honest, at this price, it would be considered a rip-off no matter how you sell it!

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but wipe his face, and continued for a long time: " If you really sell it for six figures, maybe no one will dare to cheat you. After all, the amount involved is so large, and you actually ... actually sold it for five thousand ..."

How stupid! It would be strange if I didn't get cheated!

In fact, when Yun Zhongjian knew the real price of the artifact, his face turned a little ugly. With such a large sum of money, even the most Buddhist person couldn't remain calm. The old western doctor couldn't bear to blame him anymore, so he said, " Forget it, the thing has been cheated. It's useless to discuss how stupid Old Yun is now. It's better to discuss what to do next! "

Ji Xuanyi said, " What else can I do? Call the police. I happen to have a friend who does this. I can ask him for help. Five thousand is too little. I'll ask the person who bought the artifact for the transaction record. A larger amount should attract more attention. "

The old western doctor nodded repeatedly after hearing this, and then asked Yun Zhongjian: " Did you call the police before? "

Yun Zhongjian shook his head and said, " I thought it wasn't worth much, and it was my fault for being too stupid to call the police. "

The old western doctor sighed heavily again and said, " What era is this? I didn't know you still had such a stupid idea. If I had known, I would have corrected it earlier. Why wait until now? "

Before Ji Xuanyi could say anything, Qi Qin, who had been standing aside for a long time, suddenly said, " This is not right. "

Yun Zhongjian and the old western doctor were fine, but Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment. Except when he was alone with him, Qi Qin usually didn't talk much, and rarely expressed his opinions so bluntly.

Qi Qin looked at Yun Zhongjian and said seriously, " You are indeed not vigilant enough, but if you don't call the police, the scammer will think that there is no price to pay for cheating, and the next victim will appear soon. If being cheated is a mistake, then not reporting the case in order to punish yourself and make yourself remember is a mistake on top of a mistake. If he commits the same mistake again next time, you will be an accomplice. "

Yun Zhongjian was a little stunned by what Qi Qin said, and subconsciously looked at the old Western doctor for help.

The old western doctor smacked his lips and said to Yun Zhongjian: " Old Yun, don't look at me like that. Tian Xia is absolutely right. This is what I want to tell you. You really need to change this weird way of thinking. "

Hearing the old western doctor say this, Yun Zhongjian was a little dazed. He was also taught that " suffering a loss is a blessing " since he was a child. This was the first time he heard Qi Qin's theory. It took him a long time to slowly understand it. He couldn't help but sighed and said, " Tianxia is right. I made a mistake on top of a mistake. No matter how much the amount is, I should call the police if I was cheated. Even if it's not to recover the loss, it's for the next possible victim. "

The old western doctor exclaimed, " Eh !" and said with a smile, " That's right! We just happened to get the thing back, and it can also open the eyes of the world.

Hahahahahaha ..."

Yunzhongjian: "..."

In the end, it's all just for showing off.

Ji Xuanyi was a little surprised by Qi Qin's action. He looked at him several more times. Qi Qin pursed his lips and smiled, then leaned close to his ear and whispered to him that this was what his father Qi taught him when they were chatting before.

Qi Qin's eyes were sparkling, which made Ji Xuanyi feel a little itchy. However, the old western doctor and Yun Zhongjian were still the two light bulbs here, so Ji Xuanyi was too embarrassed to do anything to Qi Qin and could only curl his lips at him.

The two straight men, the old western doctor and Yun Zhongjian, could not see the pink bubbles on Ji Xuanyi and the others' side, and asked in a very unpleasant way: " What did your friend say? "

Ji Xuanyi was upset and said unhappily, " He hasn't replied yet. "

He just sent a message to Mi Yin, but Mi Yin didn't know what she was doing and didn't reply. Xu Chu, the pigeon king, was not online, so if he wanted to get the transaction records from him, he would have to wait until offline.

It took a long time before Mi Yin sent a reply.

[Miyin] : I just saw it when I was sparring with Xuepiao.

[Miyin] : Did your friend get scammed? But this is not my business. I only know one thing ... offline transactions don't seem to be protected by the game. It's also very troublesome to call the police. After all, this is a holographic online game and it's not easy to collect evidence. Ji Xuanyi looked up at the old western doctor and Yun Zhongjian, and found that both of them looked very nervous. He frowned, lowered his head and continued to chat: " Why are you not in charge of anything? What do you do? "

[Miyin] : ... secret!

Ji Xuanyi suspected that Mi Yin was a member of some strange army, and said, " What was cheated out of him was the divine weapon. "

[Miyin] : What the hell is this a magical tool? It's so awesome?! It must be worth thousands of dollars!

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Damn, should I say that it's a good thing Mi Yin didn't get the artifact?

Ji Xuan was completely speechless, so he had to tell Mi Yin again how much money Xu Chu spent on the artifact. Sure enough, the latter started screaming and making a fuss again.

Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to pay attention to him and said directly: " No matter how difficult it is to raise this amount, it should be filed, right? "

Mi Yin said: " Of course they will prove it. Anything over 2,000 yuan will prove it. The problem is that it's hard to prove it. This is a holographic game. It's very troublesome to check the data. It's not easy to prove that your friend was really cheated. "

Ji Xuanyi was speechless and said, " What should we do? You are a public servant, and this is difficult for you. It's like you are trying to persuade us not to call the police. "

Mi Yin quickly protested: " I didn't say that. What I meant was that we should call the police, but just in case, while they are collecting evidence, you can also take action in the game. "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment and said, " You mean ..."

Mi Yin said quickly: " I didn't say anything, I didn't say anything, Xue Piao called me to spar, I left first! "

After that, no matter how much Ren Jixuan chatted with her privately, Mi Yin did not reply.

Although it was just a game, Mi Yin still felt very guilty for teaching others to do bad things.

When Ji Xuan saw Mi Yin being so cowardly, he was speechless. He closed the chat channel and looked at the two old Western doctors.

The old western doctor asked: " What's the matter? "

Ji Xuan said: " It's definitely right to call the police. It depends on whether you want to do something else. "

The old western doctor was stunned at first, but then he immediately reacted and said excitedly: " Do it! Why not! "

Yun Zhongjian asked: " What? What for? "

The old western doctor cleared his throat and said seriously: " Calling the police means that the country's laws will punish him, but personal grudges in the game should still be avenged in the game! "

Yun Zhongjian was stunned for a moment, then he realized what was happening. Just when he was about to say "no need" he saw Qi Qin looking at him sternly.

Yunzhongjian: "..."

What's so righteous about this!

pvx , Yun Zhongjian really doesn't want to cause trouble, but the people around him are all pvp . As long as there is a grudge, even if you don't want to take revenge, they will force you to take revenge.

The old western doctor patted his chest and said, " Don't worry, I will make sure to arrange everything for you. Look at me, I'm number one in the second server – ugh, second assistant, number one is here! "

As he spoke, the old western doctor pointed at Ji Xuanyi, then at Qi Qin, and said, " This is the top output in Server 2. Don't be afraid, okay! "

Yunzhongjian: "..."

This is not a question of being afraid or not!

Yun Zhongjian wanted to say something, but the old western doctor and Ji Xuanyi had already put him, the victim, aside and were discussing how to find the person.

Ji Xuan said, " There is no such thing as an alt in this game. If you play, you must play with a main account. In addition, if the person who was cheated yesterday wants to sell it, he should be looking for a buyer now. Go back and check the forums and other places where other players gather to see if there are any posts about artifacts. If not, maybe that person wants to use it for himself. "

The old western doctor nodded and said, " It's possible. However, since that person is a player from Youyue City, if it doesn't involve other things, maybe Fatty Ye Linyu can help. "

Ji Xuanyi looked at him silently. The old western doctor hesitated for a moment and said, " Forget it, let's not do it. Let's do it ourselves. "

Yun Zhongjian interrupted weakly and said, " What exactly do you want to do? Don't go too far. It would be bad if the other party is desperate and does something desperate. "

Ji Xuanyi and the old western doctor were both experienced PVPs , so they would definitely not fail to think of this. The old western doctor comforted him, " Don't worry, it's okay. We will just put a sack on him and kill him a few levels. We won't let him do anything desperate. "

Yunzhongjian: "..."

He doesn't understand the world of pvp .

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment, looked at Yun Zhongjian, and said, " You have traded with him in person. Even if you haven't added him as a friend, you must know his name, right? "

Yun Zhongjian's memory is actually average, and he forgets many things as soon as they happen. However, this incident happened yesterday and he was troubled by it for a while, so he still remembers the other person's name.

Yun Zhongjian hesitated for a moment, then nodded and said, " That person's name is quite funny. That's why I let my guard down. "

Ji Xuanyi asked: " What's his name? "

Yunzhongjian said: " I'm itching for a hammer. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi was silent not because the name was funny, but because this was the second time he heard this name today.

The current leader of the Qingyu Gang, also known as Piyangqiuchuichou!
What a fucking coincidence!

Chapter 134

What on earth was this person thinking when he chose such a name? Ji Xuanyi said he didn't understand, but he still sent a private message to a little flower and red wine who were still waiting for them , telling them not to worry about it.

A Little Flower and the other two were bewildered and didn't understand what was going on . The incident in Yunzhongjian had nothing to do with them . Ji Xuanyi simply said, " You've offended others and are asking for trouble , " and let the two of them do what they were supposed to do.

The old western doctor wondered, " Why let them stay apart? Not only do we not want Ye Linyu to help , but we also don't need the Mu Support Association? It's just the few of us? "

As a senior executive of the Dancing Gang, Old Western Doctor had basically experienced all kinds of fights, including being ganged up on and beaten up. Moreover, as a pastor, he couldn't fight anyone one-on-one , so it was hard to imagine how these few people could go against an entire gang.

You know , although Pi Yang Qiu Chui has been booked by the police, he is still the leader of the Qingyu Gang. In order not to alert the gang, they can't just rush up to the Qingyu Gang and say things like your leader is going to go to jail soon and hand him over if you know what's best for you.

If they want to ask for a hammer, they will definitely be obstructed by the Qingyu Gang.

" What should we do? " asked the old Western doctor.

Ji Xuanyi glanced at the old western doctor, smiled , and said, " You don't have to think too much , just follow my instructions. I have a lot of experience in this kind of thing. "

The leader of the Qingyu Gang, Piyangqiuchui, has been too proud of himself lately. A hidden mission is right in front of him and it won't take long to crack it , not to mention that he also got a magic weapon yesterday!

Hidden quests! Artifacts! The standard for high-level players! He never thought that he would have this day, all thanks to those silly players in Youyue City. His decision to come here when he heard that Youyue City had a good atmosphere was indeed the right one. When he developed Sunny Rain, kicked away the Dancing Gang that was in the way, and then took advantage of the fact that Starry City was not prepared to kill Youyue City, Youyue City became the first main city, and he was the first person in the second server!

By then, you will have everything you want, including money, power, fame, and girls. It will be so cool!

I'm so itchy that I want to get a beating. I can't help but laugh out loud just by imagining what will happen next.

Even though the person whose artifact he had been cheated of yesterday was a fool and gave up after receiving no response from him in private chats several times, there was no way he could just show off the artifact like that. If something of this level suddenly came into the world, someone would definitely ask how he got it.

boss event two days ago where a divine weapon was dropped , which was just enough for him to deal with it. But unfortunately, the world boss happened to touch the orange material, and he couldn't help showing off. In addition to Qingtian Yu, many other players in the trading house also heard it. If he used this as an excuse, he would easily be exposed.

If others asked Pi Yang Qiu Chui about the source of the weapon and he couldn't explain it clearly, those who were jealous of the artifact would definitely attack him for this reason. Pi Yang Qiu Chui thought he understood those people's mentality very well, and he did feel a little guilty, so he planned to find another opportunity to use the artifact with a legitimate reason. But it just so happened that when I was sleepy, there was someone in their gang who happened to have the clue to the hidden mission. Hidden missions were something that very few people had encountered, and only artifacts were rarer than them.

Piyangqiuhammer has never done a hidden quest, but no matter whether the hidden quest that the mage in the gang gets is big or small, and whether the reward is good or bad, it is not too important to him. He just takes this opportunity to display the artifact and publicize it. It would be best to let everyone know that he got the artifact by completing the hidden quest. In this way, no one can question him. Even if the unlucky guy he met yesterday reacts and wants to confront him, no one will believe him!

Although the artifact does not mean that he can be very powerful, it will definitely attract many inexperienced players to join their guild, and Sunny Rain will also be able to develop as quickly as possible. It is really killing two birds with one stone!

The more he thought about it, the happier he became. He couldn't help but urge the mage to analyze the task quickly so that he could reach the peak of his life.

After Xiaoxiao was forced to join the Qingyu Gang, she received quite good treatment. In addition to studying hidden tasks, someone even took her to kill monsters to level up, so she didn't have to do it herself.

Of course, it was not because she felt guilty and wanted to compensate Xiaoxiao, but after removing the filter on the players of Youyue City, Xiaoxiao regained her previous IQ. She did not hand over all the clues, but only revealed some information in a vague way, and then said that what followed was all speculation and could not be counted. There were also some details that needed to be recalled, which could only be supplemented when she could remember them. Of course, Piyangqiuchui could see her little trick of delaying time, but he was not in a hurry for the time being, so he did not force her – fortunately, Piyangqiuchui walked towards the place where Xiaoxiao often went, thinking, who knew that I got the artifact yesterday! If I had done the hidden task in advance, I don't know how to find an excuse now!

Xiaoxiao rarely left the base except when she was killing monsters and leveling up. She stayed in the small room of her own request. Although the people in the Qingyu Gang knew that she did not stay in the gang voluntarily, they had leverage over her, so they did not take any action to monitor her.

After all, this is a game, not a plot in a TV series. If you stand guard outside the house and don't even know that someone has logged off to travel, wouldn't that be stupid? Besides, even if Xiaoxiao wants to get rid of the Qingyu Gang, she must quit the gang. As long as she quits the gang, they will go to the Mu Fan Club next door to make trouble, and they are not afraid that she will not come back obediently.

When Piyangqiuchui found Xiaoxiao, Xiaoxiao was chatting with someone.

To be precise, it should be that person who was chatting with Xiaoxiao, but Xiaoxiao had a stern face and didn't want to pay attention.

When Piyangqiuchui saw the man, he couldn't help but feel annoyed. It took him a long time to suppress the displeasure and impatience on his face, and he said in a hard voice: " Boss, why are you here? "

When the man heard Piyangqiu's voice, he stood up quickly, turned to look at him, smiled helplessly, and said, " Why are you calling me that again? You are the gang leader. "

That's right, the person who was talking to Xiaoxiao was the former leader of the Qingyu Gang, Qingtian.

Qingtian is a typical Buddhist player. Everything about him is good except his bad luck. He recruited the bad guy Piyangqiuchui into the gang. After being forced to give up the position of gang leader, he couldn't even become a senior executive and just became an ordinary gang member.

Piyangqiuchui originally wanted to find an excuse to kick him out, but Qingtian was such a good guy that he even gave up the position of gang leader. He searched for a long time but couldn't find a decent excuse to convince the gang members, so he could only try his best to exclude Qingtian.

Qingtian is a man with a strong personality. He founded this gang and he is reluctant to leave. No matter what Piyangqiuchui does, he remains unmoved. From being the gang leader to being an ordinary gang member, he is still having fun playing games. Piyangqiuchui has no way to deal with him and can only accept it. Every time he sees this man, he feels annoyed and calls him gang leader in a sarcastic way, hoping that he can have some understanding and quit on his own and not waste his time.

Qingtian said it doesn't matter, go ahead and scream, I don't feel anything.

Seeing Qingtian's attitude, he was so itchy that his face twitched.

Xiaoxiao didn't know the complicated relationship between the two . She had only been in Youyue City for a short time, and the Yiduo Xiaohua and the others had never told her about it. In addition, Qingtian always kept telling her how great the Qingyu Gang was, so she thought Qingtian and Piyang Qiuchui were in the same group. Now that they were fighting, she sneered very harshly and said with a gloating look: " He doesn't like you, can't you see that? "

Qingtian was really wronged. Although he didn't want to argue with Piyangqiuchui, they were indeed not of the same kind. The reason why he kept telling Xiaoxiao how good the Qingyu Gang was was certainly not to make Xiaoxiao tell the clue of the hidden task, but because he really liked his gang, and he also wanted Xiaoxiao to truly integrate into this big family after joining the gang.

However, Qingtian missed one point. The current Qingyu Gang is no longer the same Qingyu Gang as when he was the gang leader.

After Xiaoxiao finished speaking, Qingtian stood there awkwardly. Of course he knew that Piyangqiuchui disliked him, but he was just being shameless.

Xiaoxiao thought that Pi Yang Qiu Chui would refute her words to some extent just for the sake of face, but unexpectedly, Pi Yang Qiu Chui remained silent. She looked up at Qingtian and realized that the relationship between the two seemed to be different from what she had thought before.

However, in order to avoid being fooled, Xiaoxiao just looked at the two of them in confusion and did not say anything rashly.

Piyangqiuchu said: " What are you doing here? Xiaoxiao is still looking for clues to the hidden mission, don't disturb her. "

Qingtian said somewhat awkwardly: " I saw that this new person had just arrived and seemed to have a hard time fitting in, so I wanted to talk to her more. "

Piyangqiuchui snorted . This mage named Xiaoxiao didn't want to join the gang in the first place, let alone integrate into the gang. In his opinion, as long as the mage could hand in the hidden task, nothing else mattered. He immediately said, " I don't care about her-- "

Qingtian and Xiaoxiao both looked at Piyou and asked for a punch. He paused for a moment, swallowed his words, and changed the topic to say: " Integrating into the gang is not something that can be done by just talking about it. It takes time. Just don't bother them. "

Qingtian looked at Piyangqiuhammer helplessly, then looked at Xiaoxiao.

Xiaoxiao looked at him and vaguely understood something. She said casually, " I don't like going out anyway. Come if you want. It doesn't matter if there's anyone to talk to or not. "

Piyangqiuchui just frowned, Xiaoxiao said: " Maybe chatting can give me more inspiration. I seem to be a little stuck in thinking about the task recently. "

Piyangqiuchui really didn't dwell on this matter any more. He asked, " It's blocked? How did it get blocked? "

Xiaoxiao glanced at Qingtian, who was stunned for a moment, then reacted and smiled awkwardly at Piyangqiuchui, " You guys go ahead and talk, I'm leaving first. "

Piyangqiuchui wished that he would never appear in his sight again, so he immediately waved his hand and told him to go away. Qingtian then let out an almost inaudible breath and walked away .

Piyangqiuchui said to Xiaoxiao: " What's going on over there? Don't play tricks on me, the Mu Fan Club is right next door. "

Xiaoxiao looked at him coldly and said, " Do you think I still care about this? The Mu Fan Club can't protect me, why should I join them? I'm not stupid, can you stop being so self-righteous? "

Piyangqiuchui raised his eyebrows and was about to get angry, but he smiled and said, " I'm talking to you seriously. After this task is completed, don't bother me anymore. "

Piyangqiuchui said disdainfully: " You are not an expert, why would we bother you? Don't worry, after the mission is completed, you can go wherever you want, we will definitely not cause you any trouble. "

Xiaoxiao's expression improved a little, and she said, " I have some clues about the mission, but I don't know if they are correct. I need your help. "

This was of course an excuse. Xiaoxiao just wanted to play a trick on these idiots. It seemed like that guy just now had some hidden secret. The disgust was written all over his face, but he didn't kick him out. There must be something wrong with that guy's identity. Xiaoxiao planned to let this group of people be busy first, and then go find that guy to ask what was going on.

Piyangqiuchui judged others by his own experience and thought that there was nothing wrong with Xiaoxiao's words. He hesitated for a moment before believing it and asked, " What are you going to do? "

Xiaoxiao actually just had this idea suddenly and she hadn't thought it through yet. When asked this question, although she was thinking frantically in her mind, she couldn't help but show some hesitation on her face.

Of course, if you want help from others, you will blurt it out without asking. Why would you hesitate ? Piyangqiuchui knew this, so he showed a skeptical look on his face.

Xiaoxiao was just thinking something was wrong when she saw Piyangqiuchui suddenly pause and stretch out his hand to make a left-swiping motion.

This is the chat bar that is open. Someone just chatted privately and asked for a fight!

Xiaoxiao breathed a sigh of relief, but at the same time she was feeling scared and frantically thinking about what to say next.

But Xiaoxiao didn't know that since Piyangqiuchui accepted the private chat, she would never have the chance to question her again.

Because the person who sent the secret message to Piyangqiuchui was none other than the old western doctor who was with Ji Xuanyi!

Piyangqiuchui had no idea that the old western doctor had become good friends with the fool he cheated yesterday, and had also gotten together with the real leader of the next door Mu Fan Club. In his eyes, the old western doctor still represented the Dancing Gang. Although his goal was to replace the Dancing Gang, in the current situation, he still had to listen to the Dancing Gang's orders.

The old Western doctor neither mentioned Xiaoxiao nor the ambitious matters of the Qingyu Gang. He just told Piyang Qiuchui in a very formal tone that the Dancing Gang had cooperated with the three major gangs and obtained intelligence about the next worldwide event. They wanted to gather all the leaders of the individual gangs together for a meeting to decide on the next strategy. This was a matter of great importance, and the Qingyu Gang, as a separate gang that had gradually begun to develop recently, had to make a trip.

The world boss event has only been over for two days, how come we already got information about the next event? Piyang Qiuchui was confused, he didn't know what was going on.

Logically speaking, the interval between events in this game should be at least more than a month! But the news from a big gang like the Dancing Gang, and from an executive among executives like Lao Xiyi, couldn't be a lie!

Piyangqiuchui muttered in his heart, but decided to go. World-class events are not only beneficial to big gangs, but also to small gangs like them, such as the world boss this time . If the Qingyu Gang can get more benefits in the next event, it will be one step closer to his goal! This kind of event information should be obtained.

Piyangqiuchui glanced at Xiaoxiao and said, " The Dance Gang asked me to go to a meeting, but I'm busy right now. If you need us to help you, go find the executives directly. "

Xiaoxiao was stunned: " Dancing Gang? "

Piyangqiuchui looked at her and said, " What's wrong? You don't know anything about the Dance Gang, do you? "

Xiaoxiao certainly couldn't be unaware of the Dancing Gang. She had previously asked Yiduo Xiaohua and the others to go and tip off the Dancing Gang! But Yiduo Xiaohua and the others had informed her of the Dancing Gang's attitude, and told her that although the leader of the Dancing Gang didn't want to get involved in the matter, their friends from Fanxing City and a senior executive of the Dancing Gang were willing to help.

In this case, why did the Dancing Gang contact Piyang Qiuchui to attend a meeting? Even if they didn't care about their executives, they should still care about the person from Star City, right? No matter how you look at it, they should have given the Qingyu Gang the cold shoulder! Xiaoxiao was stunned for a moment, then suddenly thought of something. She stared blankly at Pi Itchy Begging for a Hammer, wanting to laugh but not daring to, and her whole face twitched as she could not hold it in.

Piyangqiuchui didn't know what her expression meant, and said speechlessly: " Fuck, you really don't know about the Dance Gang? Tsk, I don't have time to explain it to you, just ask the executives when you find them later. "

Xiaoxiao couldn't help it and lowered her head quickly. Piyanqiuchui thought she was unhappy, so he snorted and said, " You know what's going on. You think we're annoying, but we think you're a burden. Finish the task early and leave early. It's good for both you and me. Don't try to play any tricks. Understand? "

Xiaoxiao struggled to hold back a " hmm " .

Piyangqiuchui snorted again and then walked away with a swagger .

Xiaoxiao raised her head with a grin, looked at the back of Piyanqiuchui, and immediately lowered her head to chat with a little flower, asking her the name of the person who helped her. Hongjiu was a little unhappy when she heard Ji Xuanyi told them to leave it alone. She took Yiduo Xiaohua back to the Mu Fan Club base to organize people and be ready to support Ji Xuanyi at any time. Yiduo Xiaohua was also helping at the moment. After receiving Xiaoxiao's private chat, she was stunned for a moment and said, " His name is Ji Xuanyi. Why are you asking this? "

When Xiaoxiao heard the name Ji Xuanyi, her first reaction was her idol Mu Xuanyi. However, looking at Xiaohua's reaction, it was definitely not the same person. They probably knew each other because of the similar names, so she said, " It seems that they have already started to act. I will add him as a friend and cooperate with him! "

A little flower was also very happy to hear that. Since they couldn't help here, it would be good if Xiaoxiao could help. So she said happily: " Then you can do your best! We are also ready. You can call us at any time if you need us. We are all here! "

Xiaoxiao responded and added Ji Xuan as a friend.

If she guessed correctly, the Dance Gang would never interfere in this matter, so the person who contacted Piyang to ask for a hammer just now could only be the senior executive of the Dance Gang who stood on their side.

But why did they trick Pi Yang Qiu Chui into going to the meeting? When Pi Yang Qiu Chui arrived and saw no one, he should have known that he had been tricked. After being buried, he would definitely blame the executive and then take the opportunity to drag the entire dance gang into the water.

In this case, the Dancing Gang cannot stay out of it. Their internal reasons cannot be used as an excuse. After all, they are not in the right, and they owe Piyang Qiuchui something. Not to mention that they will be forced to change their stance and help Piyang Qiuchui solve the matter, they will at least have to kick that executive out. Wouldn't that be a huge loss! As an executive of the Dancing Gang, the old Western doctor certainly sees the gang's stance more clearly than Xiaoxiao. When Ji Xuanyi asked him to send this private message, he had already asked the same question.

Ye Linyu had already said that the Dancing Gang would not intervene in this matter. Although he was a senior executive, he could only help in his personal capacity. How could he send a private message under the banner of the Dancing Gang? If they were found out, even if they had already gone all out to get hammered, the Dancing Gang, who were in the wrong, would probably have to help the Sunny and Rainy Gang settle the matter. Wouldn't that be picking up sesame seeds and losing watermelons?

Ji Xuan glanced at the old western doctor and said coldly, " Did I tell him to get him to the Dancing Gang's base safely? "

The old western doctor was stunned.

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " As long as he can't get to the base, won't he never know whether the meeting took place or not? "

The old western doctor suddenly realized and said, " Awesome! "

Yun Zhongjian heard the murderous intent in Ji Xuanyi's words and trembled in the corner. Qi Qin swallowed his saliva, rubbed against Ji Xuanyi, and whispered to remind him: " Xuanyi, your expression is a bit scary ..."

Ji Xuanyi touched his face and said, " Is there? "

Qi Qin: "..."

Yes! Xuan Yi showed a very perverted and murderous smile on his face!

Qi Qin was scared to death!

Ji Xuanyi actually seldom adds friends, but he has rejected many friend invitations, especially when a pop-up window suddenly pops up when he has not done anything.

In holographic games, many players add friends based on appearance. Even if they don't know you at all, if they see that you are good-looking, they will still want to try adding you as a friend. Maybe there will be a story behind it!

Fortunately, Yiduo Xiaohua and her friends had told Ji Xuanyi about Xiaoxiao before, and had also praised Xiaoxiao's intelligence, which made Ji Xuanyi have some impression of this mage girl. So when Xiaoxiao's friend request came over, Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment and then accepted it.

Xiaoxiao told Ji Xuanyi her speculation in a very clear and logical manner, and then said that she could provide support.

Ji Xuanyi saw that this wizard was indeed smart, and immediately smiled: " That's quite a coincidence. With your help, things will probably be a little easier. "

At this time, Piyang Qiuchui, who knew nothing about his future, was on his way to the Dancing Gang's base.

He was thinking about what the intelligence of the event was, and whether the Qingyu Gang would be able to perform more reliably in the next event. If he wanted to kick out a behemoth like the Dancing Gang, it would certainly not be as easy as he kicked out someone like Qingtian. He had to start with his left and right arms.

The next step is to find out what the leader of the Dancing Gang is thinking. It is not easy to usurp the throne. If the leader has no intention to continue, it would be great if he can give up his position automatically! However, the Dancing Gang cannot be let go after giving up the position. If they don't like his actions and want to stop him, it is easy to get support. Even if he gives up his position, he has to find a way to discredit and suppress the Dancing Gang.

Piyangqiuchui thought about it and felt that he couldn't do it too obviously, otherwise it would easily lead to gossip. It would be best to trick them and leave the people of the Dancing Gang in the dark, so that they wouldn't even know who killed them! Hahahahaha!

Piyangqiuchui was happily imagining things when suddenly his vision went dark, and before he could react, he was stabbed in the back!

Piyangqiuchui was a swordsman with a lot of health, and he was least afraid of sneak attacks. But when he looked at his health bar, he realized that the previous blow had caused him to lose a third of his health! If the opponent hit him twice more, he would be demoted!

Piyangqiuchui was frightened out of his wits. He was completely stunned and could not see anything. He stood there in a panic like a blind man, unable to draw his weapon, and cursed: "Fuck! Who is it! How can you be a hero to attack from behind——"

Before he could finish his curse, the man behind him stabbed him several times again in rapid succession. He could only watch his health bar empty, and then he turned into a streak of white light and flew back to the resurrection point.

After returning to the resurrection point, his eyes were still dark! He was afraid that someone was ambushing him, so he immediately frantically touched his eyes. After pulling it off, he found that someone had put a black cloth bag on his head. How could he not be blinded!

" Fuck! Fuck! " He was just thinking about putting a sack on someone and stabbing him with a knife, but in the blink of an eye, the sack was put on his head. He was so itchy and wanted to be beaten that his mentality collapsed. He sat at the resurrection point and cursed. However, Piyangqiuchui also knows that the level lost is lost. Instead of sitting on the ground and regretting, it is better to think about how to retaliate, or think about the serial pursuits that may be faced next .

But the problem is that Piyangqiuchui has done so many bad things, and he has so many enemies, big and small, that there are so many people who might hire someone to take revenge on him that he himself can't even count them all!

Piyangqiu had no choice but to look at the situation around the resurrection point, at least to make sure that there would be no more blockades in the future – generally speaking, there shouldn't be any more blockades. After all, things like blockades require everything to be arranged in advance. Unless he knew in advance that he was going to take this route, the sneak attack just now was just an accidental sighting by his enemies on the road, and the other party just decided to kill him on a whim.

Of course, Piyangqiu had never expected that Lao Xiyi, the executive of the dancing gang, actually wanted to confront him. He immediately concluded that he had met an enemy and was killed on a whim . After looking around and seeing no suspicious people, he angrily cursed his bad luck and walked out of the resurrection point.

However, three minutes later, Piyangqiuchui returned to the familiar resurrection point, with a headdress of the same style as the cloth bag on his head.

Piyanqiuqiu: "... Fuck your mother!!! "

Pi Yangqiu was so angry that he was about to explode, but he still did not doubt the old Western doctor. Instead, he thought that the man who killed him probably had a deep grudge against him, and after killing him once, he ambushed there and would not leave. He was unlucky enough to bump into him again, and was killed again .

Piyangqiuchui threw the bag in his hand to the ground angrily and started calling people in the gang channel, cursing: " Fuck, little bastard, don't let me know who the hell you are. When I catch you, it's no use kneeling on the ground and calling me grandpa! "

He actually didn't know whether the man would continue to block him after killing him twice, but no matter what, he had to call the gang members over first. He had already dropped two levels and his heart was bleeding. If he dropped any more, he didn't know when he would be able to recover.

Piyangqiuchui carefully looked around and contacted the executives of the Qingyu Gang, saying: " What are you doing? Several people came to pick me up, and I was blocked by my former enemies. "

The executive of the Qingyu Gang sent a message after a while, saying: " What? You are blocked? We can't get through for the time being! "

Piyanqiuqiu was so crazy that he said, " Can't get through? What do you mean by can't get through? "

The superior said: " The mage named Xiaoxiao asked us to accompany her to the Mage Tower to look for information. You know how many layers of information there are in the Mage Tower. Didn't you ask us to cooperate with you? I called all the living people in the gang here, and now everyone is in the Mage Tower! "

Piyangqiuchui only remembered this at this time. If he had known, he would wait until he came back to do the hidden task. He regretted it so much that his intestines turned green. He asked: " Then you have to come too! How long will it take to get to my place from the Mage Tower? "

The executive added Piyangqiuchui to the team, looked at the coordinates, frowned, and said, " You are still in the southwest area? Our large group needs to leave the Mage Tower. We have to wait for at least ten elevators, gather together, and then go to your side. It will take more than half an hour. Even if we are fast, it will be past midnight when we find you. "

 " Half a point?! " Piyangqiuchui shouted with his voice breaking, " Half a point, I'm already level 20, okay! "

The executive then noticed that Piyangqiuchui had dropped two levels, and suddenly panicked, saying, " What should we do? "

Pi Yangqiu said: " Waiting for the elevator, what are you waiting for, what are you gathering for, if there is no elevator, just take the stairs down, don't gather, just come to my side! "

The executive thought, if someone really wants to block you, it's useless to fly over such a long distance, why bother mobilizing so many people ...

But there was no other way. Piyangqiuchui was the gang leader. If he was killed and returned to level 20, the Qingyu Gang would have no face left. So they had to mobilize manpower and let everyone evacuate from the Mage Tower.

Xiaoxiao, who was pretending to turn the pages of a book but was actually watching the executive's movements, saw the other party giving orders with embarrassment on his face, and knew what had happened. While chatting with Ji Xuanyi about the current situation of the Qingyu Gang, he stood up, walked to the executive with a sullen face and said, "What are you doing? You said you would help, why did you let them go? Do you think hidden missions are easy to complete? "

The executive's face was not looking good either. Just because he was nice to Piyangqiuchui didn't mean he had to smile at Xiaoxiao. He was promoted to an executive by Piyangqiuchui, and his temperament was very similar to Piyangqiuchui's. He immediately said fiercely: "You really think you are such a big shot. What do you care what I tell them to do? Just do what you have to do! "

Xiaoxiao was not timid at all. She knew that this kind of person only bullies the weak and fears the strong. She raised her chin and sneered, "I can't do anything about it. If you can't complete the mission, you can see what your gang leader will do to you. "

"Hey!" The executive laughed in anger: "You know shit! It was the boss's order to transfer the people away. Who will he blame if the task cannot be completed? "

"It's your fault, you idiot!" Xiaoxiao's contempt was about to overflow, she said: "If it's done well, it's his wisdom, if it's not done well, it's your fault, don't you know what it's like to beg for trouble? What is the role of a senior executive like you? Don't you have any idea? "

The executive was stunned by Xiaoxiao's aura. In addition, he knew exactly what kind of person was like, so he was speechless after hearing her words.

Xiaoxiao looked at him with disdain and said, "Damn it, I'm just giving you a good warning, but you're still so arrogant. If you're ever used as a scapegoat, it's all your own fault, you idiot!" The executive knew that what Xiaoxiao said made sense, but he still felt embarrassed to be scolded by a little girl. After a long while, he said angrily: "You are awesome! Fuck! Tell me, what should I do now? It is definitely not possible for all of us to stay and help you find clues. I am itching to get a beating for that fucking bastard, and he is going to explode. "

Seeing that he had been fooled, Xiaoxiao couldn't help but smile and said, "These people are not tied together. Either all of them leave or all of them stay. You can just send two or three of them out. Can he still count them? "

The executive showed some hesitation on his face. Xiao Xiao saw this and said, "Anyway, as long as the hidden task is completed, he will be happy and won't blame you even if he finds out. I have confidence. Don't worry, I can finish it today. If not, I will take the blame for you. "

The executive hesitated for a moment, then nodded and said, "Okay. If he's really stuck in traffic and doesn't have enough time to get there, it doesn't matter if there are a lot of people or a few people. "

Xiaoxiao smiled in agreement and nodded.

Chapter 135

At the beginning, the Qingyu Gang was just a gang of relatives and friends. Most of the people who joined the gang were friends who invited each other to join . With the addition of some newcomers who had just started playing the game , the number of gang members was only slightly better than that of the Mu Support Club next door , with about sixty or seventy people. After Pi Yang Qiu Chui became the gang leader , the Qingyu Gang developed rapidly. However, this rapidity is only relative. No matter what force it is, it takes time to develop. In addition, it is really not easy to recruit people who are willing to make trouble in a Buddhist main city like Youyue City. Even if Pi Yang Qiu Chui is more active , up to now , the Qingyu Gang has only about 200 people, which can only be regarded as a not-so-small gang of individual players. Some of these 200 people were Qingtian's former gang members, and they all didn't like to cause trouble. They just stayed in the gang because Qingtian hadn't left yet . However, they didn't really like Piyangqiuchui's daily behavior, so they didn't come online very often , and most of the time they just lay there like corpses in the gang member list.

Excluding these people , there are not many people left in the Sunny and Rainy Gang. But it must be said that after all, the Sunny and Rainy Gang recruits people according to the standard of causing trouble. In fact, the online rate of their gang is higher than that of the Dancing Gang. With a base of more than 150 people , the average number of people online is as much as one-third.

It's no wonder that Piyangqiujiu is so ambitious. The online rate of the Dancing Gang is usually only about one-sixth to one-seventh. It is only because they have a large number of people that they appear to be strong.

When it comes to the online rate of gang members, Piyangqiuchui is very proud.

But he didn't know that half of his fifty-plus reinforcements had been left behind by Xiaoxiao. After that, he was killed five more times. His level, which he had finally reached in the world boss event, was 55, but now it's stuck at 48!

Level 48! Not much different from the newbies who just entered Youyue City ! I can't even imagine how long it would take to level up again if I could survive this narrow escape!

Piyangqiuchui died seven times in a row, but he never saw who killed him once . He was completely mentally broken. Now he was hiding in a remote corner trembling with fear, fearing that someone would stab him again.

He considered himself a smart player, not suited to such fighting and killing , not to mention that his magic weapon could not be used – it was not that he was afraid of being exposed, but he was afraid that the person who wanted to kill him would be tempted by the money and steal the magic weapon. He knew that the penalty for stealing equipment in this game was very severe, but judging by himself, he felt that this possibility was not completely impossible.

However, even if he took out the artifact, he would probably not escape death.

Piyangqiuchui felt that his hiding place was quite safe. He was just planning to stay here and wait for reinforcements to arrive when he heard the system prompt sound in his ears.

Piyangqiuchui was startled and looked around nervously. Then he remembered that only he could hear the system prompt sound, and he couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief.

After a pause of one second, Piyouqiujiu could not help but curse in a low voice again.

He hasn't experienced this kind of panic-stricken situation for a long time since he changed the game. He doesn't know what bad luck he has this time and which fool he bumped into who is forcing him like this!

Piyangqiuchui was thinking angrily and opened the chat channel. He heard the system prompt sound just now. It turned out that the executives of the Dance Gang were chatting with him again.

The meeting at the Dancing Gang seemed very urgent and was about to begin. He was the only one missing, and the executive kept urging him.

He couldn't help but grit his teeth in desperation.

He couldn't tell the people in the Dancing Gang about the situation he was facing right now. The atmosphere in Youyue City was very good, and it was unlikely that he would be blocked at the resurrection point and killed . After the Dancing Gang knew about it, although they would help him, they would also get to the bottom of the matter. If what he had done in the past was dug out, there was no doubt that the people in the Dancing Gang would beat him up personally and kick him out of Youyue City. He didn't even have a chance to argue with sweet words.

But the problem was, how could he get there in this situation? Could he just tell the executive that he had something urgent to do and couldn't go?

Thinking of this, Piyangqiuchui felt a little unwilling. The rewards for activities in the game "Domain" were really too generous. If he wanted to surpass other forces, he could not miss any activity. If he lagged behind others in the news of the activity and led to the failure of the activity, it would be very difficult to catch up. He absolutely could not miss this meeting.

The executives of the Dancing Gang were urging him again. Piyang Qiuchui looked down and saw that most people had left. The gang leader Lin Yu didn't want to wait any longer and was ready to have a meeting.

Piyangqiuchui cursed inwardly, this Ye Linyu looked so righteous, but he was in such a hurry to hold a meeting, wasn't it because he didn't want these small gangs to take advantage, ugh!

Hypocrite!

Ye Linyu, who was playing cards at the Dancing Gang, said: " A-choo! "

But scolding Ye Linyu was one thing, but he couldn't let them leave him behind, so he quickly said, " I'll be there soon, I'll be there soon! Wait for me a moment! Big brother, please tell the boss of the Ye Gang for me! "

The old western doctor on the other end almost fainted from laughing. He took a long time to send the message and said with reluctance: " Alas, the mobility of individual soldiers is not strong. Can you guys be faster? Tsk, okay, okay, I'll go tell the gang leader, how long will it take you to get here? "

Piyanqiu thought, how the hell do I know how long it will take me to get there? I should ask the idiot who blocked his way!

But that being said, the senior executives have asked, you can't not answer, Piyqiuqiu was hesitant for a long time and said: " One, one hour? "

The old western doctor was so angry at this idiot that he laughed. Are you crazy? Wait for you for an hour?

The old Western doctor stopped talking and sent three question marks.

Piyangqiuchui knew that the time he said was quite annoying, so he quickly changed the subject and said, " It was just a joke, it was just a joke. Um, how about 30 minutes? "

The old western doctor said, " Thirty minutes? Do you think it sounds shorter if you change hours into minutes? Do you know how many gang leaders, big and small, are sitting here? You let all of them wait for you for thirty minutes? Brother, you think too highly of your Qingyu Gang, don't you? "

Piyangqiuchui knew that the Qingyu Gang was not big, but knowing it was one thing, and being told by others was another. Piyangqiuchui was very upset and almost couldn't help but fight back. After typing out the words, he remembered that the other party was not someone he could afford to offend. He could only pinch his nose and pretend to be a grandson, laughing and saying: " No, no, I am the leader of a scattered gang, I dare not let you wait like this. "

The old western doctor said: " Ten minutes, that's the limit, come here quickly. "

When Piyangqiuchui heard this, he felt bitter in his mouth. The Dancing Gang's base was the same as other gangs, near the city gate, and he had just entered the southwest area from the side door not long ago. Even if a knight ran over at full speed without any hindrance, it would be difficult, not to mention that he was a swordsman and was being chased !

Piyangqiuchu had no choice but to bite the bullet and said: " Twenty minutes, twenty minutes is okay? I'm a swordsman, I really can't run fast, and the transportation point is still a bit far from me . "

The old western doctor was speechless: " You come here to buy Chinese cabbage and you want to bargain? I don't care about you. It will be open soon anyway. If you can make it, then make it. If you can't, forget it. "

He was itching for trouble and called the old western doctor several times, but the old western doctor had already got the script given by Ji Xuanyi and ignored him completely.

Piyangqiuchui was really unwilling to give up the information about this activity. For his future ambitions, the importance of personal level did not seem to be so high. Besides, the transportation point was only six or seven minutes away from him if he ran at full speed. As long as he got on the carriage, that person would definitely not be able to catch up with him, and he would be safe!

Piyangqiuchui thought about it and decided to take a gamble. Maybe he could run fast enough and the man's sword wouldn't be able to catch up with him!

Piyangqiuchui poked his head out from the corner and looked around.

No one.

Piyangqiuchui gritted his teeth, ran out from the small corner where he was hiding, and headed straight for the traffic point.

But the saying that if you run fast you won't be caught up is obviously just a flag . Just after he ran a dozen steps, he felt the attack from behind again, and his health bar dropped by another one third!

Piyouqiuchu was almost on the verge of collapse, he was about to kneel down to the man behind him, saying: " Fuck, big brother, just tell me what grudge I have against you! I have something to do now, can't you just let me go?! You can kill me after I finish my work! "

Of course, this is false. After he finishes his work, he will definitely bring 20 gang members with him every time he goes out. He will never let go of the guy who killed him four levels!

But basically no one would listen to such lies. I was so itchy and eager to get a hammer that I was ready to go back to the resurrection point again, but I didn't expect that the opponent didn't even hit me with the next two blows!

Piyangqiuchui was stunned for a moment, and when he opened his eyes, he saw a young man in a robe and holding a staff standing in front of him, with the staff in his hand pointing at his back.

Piyqiuqiuchui subconsciously wanted to look back, but the young man had already grabbed him and said, " What are you looking at? The paralysis effect only lasts for five seconds. The two of us combined can't beat him. Hurry up and leave! "

Piyangqiuchui finally reacted and hurriedly ran after the young man.

Sure enough, five seconds later, the sound of armor colliding came from behind him, and the man who had been chasing him was coming again!

However, the heavy footsteps still made Piyangqiuchui breathe a sigh of relief. Although he was not running fast, the man behind him sounded like a swordsman, and he probably couldn't catch up with them.

Pi Yangqiuchui had a narrow escape from death, his mind was blank, and he followed the young man into an alley after many twists and turns. He stopped only when the voice behind him died down.

Piyangqiuchui's heart was beating like a drum. It took him a long time to calm down. He barely concealed the panic in his eyes, looked at the young man in front of him with a flickering gaze, and said: " Who are you? Why are you helping me? "

Guess what?

Ji Xuanyi thought to himself, looking at Pi Yangqiu with a smile, and said nothing.

Piyangqiuchui looked at Ji Xuanyi suspiciously for a long time and said, " From the Dancing Gang? No, people from the Dancing Gang wouldn't come so quickly. Who are you? "

The questions in Piyangqiuchui's mind were not the only ones he asked. He had great doubts about the timing of Ji Xuanyi's appearance, Ji Xuanyi's identity, and Ji Xuanyi's purpose.

Of course, he didn't think that his popularity would be so good that someone would come to save him. Compared to this, the atmosphere of Youyue City itself made it more likely that people would come to help others for such strange reasons as seeing injustice.

Piyangqiuchui frowned and thought for a long time, and could only conclude that the person in front of him was either a passerby with an overflowing sense of justice, or he had a conflict with the person who was chasing him.

In his opinion, Ji Xuanyi could not possibly be in the same group as Qi Qin. After all, the purpose of the man who was chasing him was to kill him. If the man in front of him was in the same group as that guy, there was no need to do so many useless actions. He could just resurrect him directly!

I never thought that there would be such a character as the dramatic spirit in the world! But just in case, Piyangqiuchui still put one hand in his backpack, ready to take out his weapon at any time. At the same time, he looked at Ji Xuanyi vigilantly, waiting for the answer from the man in front of him.

Ji Xuanyi glanced at his hand, smiled, and said, " Interesting, did you realize that I'm here to kill you too? "

Piyangqiuqiu had never expected to get such an answer. His whole face twitched and he immediately took a step back, wanting to get away from Ji Xuanyi. He didn't even think of drawing his weapon and almost stuck to the wall like a gecko.

Ji Xuanyi laughed, winked at him, and said, " Don't worry, I'm a sorcerer, I can't kill you alone. " Piyangqiuchui's brain was numb. After hearing Ji Xuanyi's words, it took him a long time to react. His first reaction was to run away. Ji Xuanyi raised his hand and stopped him in his tracks, saying, " Forget it. If you go out, there will be people who will kill you, and they are more fierce than me. You can stay here for another minute or two. My teammates will be here later. " Piyangqiuchui was so angry that he froze in place. Then he remembered that there was someone outside who wanted to kill him!

It's fucked up too!

As soon as Ji Xuan turned to face Piyangqiuchui, he saw the other party's ferocious and tangled expression, and immediately laughed and said: " I have seen many people like you. I don't know why so many people suddenly want to kill you, right? "

When the paralysis time was up, Pi Yang Qiu Chui sat down on the ground. He had completely given up. The man in front of him was indeed here to kill him. He didn't notice him when he was running just now, and now that he had stopped, Pi Yang Qiu Chui realized that Ji Xuanyi was taking him away from the traffic point. If he went out now, he would definitely be found before he could reach the traffic point.

And just as Ji Xuanyi said , the man outside who wanted to kill him didn't say a word, and he chopped him down with his knife without showing any mercy. Not only could he live two more minutes by staying here, but the sorcerer in front of him was at least willing to talk to him.

Hearing Ji Xuanyi's smug question, Piyangqiuchui thought about it and suddenly felt a little relieved. He raised his head , looked at Ji Xuanyi with a complicated expression, and said, " Someone has offered a reward for me? "

After being a swindler for so long, how could he not know the methods used by the local tycoons?

In addition to the built-in function of some games, there is actually an organization that applies to all offline games and directly uses RMB. If you have any grudges or want to earn some pocket money while playing games, you can post or accept rewards through this organization. For someone who is itching to get a bargain, he used to use a small account in other games. It didn't matter if he was bountied, he could even use two accounts to get the bounty. He was not afraid even if his main account was caught occasionally. He could negotiate with those who accepted the bounty and stand there for the other party to kill him . If the other party thought it was not easy to beat him just by looking at his equipment, he could automatically give up his life and maybe get a share of the profits.

But there is no way to do this in this game. He only has one account , and he will be demoted if he is killed. What's more, his rookie nature has been exposed. He doesn't even have a chance to give away kills. It's good enough that he doesn't be forced to collect kills, let alone dividends. He was almost driven into a dead end.

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows and said, " Oh, you sound familiar. No wonder the bounty is so high this time. I came here from Star City to discuss something with the Dancing Gang, and I even took the time out of my schedule to come find you. "

Upon hearing this, Piyangqiuchui couldn't help but curse a thousand times in his heart. The man in front of him was actually from Fanxing City. He was most likely the one who told the Dancing Gang about the event. Such a big shot was attracted by the bounty to take his head. Who on earth had such a big grudge against him!

Piyangqiuchui's face was livid for a while, but he didn't have the nerve to ask any more questions about the activity information. The person from Fanxing City in front of him was connected with Ye Linyu and knew that he was wanted. If he got the news that he was the leader of a gang of scattered people and mentioned it to Ye Linyu, then he would be finished. Although he is about to be played, it is no different from finishing the game.

If it was Zuo An who was blocked here, he would probably fight Ji Xuan to the death, and would drag someone down with him even if he died. However, he was different from Zuo An in terms of IQ. Even in desperate situation, he would not give up so easily.

Piyangqiuchui rolled his eyes and said, " You just saved me ... No, not saved me, should I say you stopped that person just now, because you wanted to steal my head? "

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " That's pretty smart. That's right, your bounty is calculated per head, level one –"

Ji Xuanyi stopped talking abruptly, as if he suddenly thought of something. He snorted and chuckled, and stopped talking.

Piyangqiuchui showed a look of understanding.

He knew that this was the rule of the bounty. The person who received the bounty could not tell the person being bountied about the bounty, because it was easy for them to bribe him/her back, which would ruin the reputation of the bounty list. It would be fine if this situation of bribery was not exposed. Once it became known, not only would the original person who issued the bounty refuse to pay the bounty, but the team that maintained the bounty list would also issue additional bounty orders to hunt down the person who broke the rules.

When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin mentioned this part in the script, Qi Qin was stunned and asked, " Xuanyi, how do you know so many things? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " I have taken on many bounty-offering jobs before, so don't be too clear about the process. "

If Pi Yang Qiu Chui had not done so many bad things, he might not have understood the foreshadowing that Ji Xuanyi had deliberately set up, and he would not have been so easily fooled. Unfortunately, as a person who had been wanted for a long time, Pi Yang Qiu Chui was already familiar with the rules of these bounties. When Ji Xuanyi showed them one by one, he immediately believed that he was wanted.

He thought for a long time. The biggest order he had cheated recently was the artifact worth 5,000 yuan. He thought about it and understood what the price would be. He looked at Ji Xuan for a while and laughed. He said, " One hundred for the first level? I guess it won't be more than that. "

Ji Xuanyi showed a somewhat surprised expression and said, " How do you know the reward? " Then, as if realizing that he had said something wrong, Ji Xuan pursed his lips and his eyes were a little evasive.

As soon as he got this reaction, Piyangqiuchui knew that his guess about the bounty price was correct. He immediately became arrogant and no longer scared. He grinned at Ji Xuanyi, got up from the ground, and said, " Hey, I just tricked you, and you really believed it? "

Ji Xuanyi frowned, raised his staff and pointed it at him, saying, " What's your attitude? Do you want to die? "

Piyangqiuchui was frightened by Ji Xuanyi's aura and took a step back. When he hit the wall, he remembered that he didn't need to be afraid anymore. He stiffened his neck and said, " What's your attitude? "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and was about to take action, but Piyouqiuchui immediately shouted: " Wait a minute! "

Ji Xuanyi looked at him hesitantly , then he chuckled and said, " I already know the bounty. If you kill me, I will post a post about you on the bounty list, saying that you asked me to pay a higher price than the bounty, and you killed me because we didn't reach an agreement . "

Ji Xuanyi sneered in his heart, but a somewhat panicked expression appeared on his face. He said in a hard voice: " Do you know who I am? Why are you hanging me? "

Piyangqiuchui said proudly: " What a coincidence! If you were any other profession, it would be really hard to kill you. A warlock, and a warlock who accepts bounties, it's too easy to pick you out, okay? "

Ji Xuanyi's face was filled with reluctance and anger, but he slowly put down the staff in his hand. He looked coldly at Piyang Qiuchui, whose smile was getting bigger and bigger, and suddenly laughed and said, " It's my fault for talking too much. I won't earn the bounty today. Anyway, the man outside wants to kill you, so I'll just go and tell him where you are. "

Piyangqiuchui was shocked and dared not laugh. It would be fine if there was only one person who accepted the reward, but if there was one more, he could not fool them with the reward money. The two people had a conflict of interest. If the man in front of him and the man outside testified against each other, his so-called method of using the reward money to hang people would be like a piece of paper that would be torn by a poke.

Piyangqiuchui said quickly: " No, no, no, brother, leave some room for error so that we can meet again in the future. Let's discuss a business deal. "

Ji Xuanyi stopped, looked back at him, and said, " Business? "

Piyangqiuchui nodded repeatedly and said, " Look, I was killed starting from level 55 , and when I was level 20, it was only 3,500. Don't you think this price is a bit too cheap? "

In fact, being able to earn three thousand five hundred in the game is already a very cost-effective thing for most people who play games. Piyangqiuchui said this just to let Ji Xuanyi know that he despises the three thousand five hundred and can offer a higher price.

Ji Xuanyi of course understood what was in this man's mind, and immediately asked: " You want to bribe me? "

" Tsk, you know the rules of the bounty, right? " Ji Xuanyi was obviously reluctant to accept this deal, but he seemed a little tempted and said, " If I'm discovered, I won't have the chance to make money from this in the future. "

" You also said that if we were discovered, " Piyang Qiuchui saw an opportunity and quickly struck while the iron was hot, saying, " There are only two of us here, no one will know. If I tell others, it will be easy for you to retaliate against me. "

Seeing that Ji Xuanyi really hesitated, Piyangqiuchui couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief and said, " If you promise me, you don't have to give up the three thousand five hundred. I can double the price. But if you don't agree, brother, then I have no choice. I really can't go out and be seen by the person who wants to kill me, but I can go offline directly. If I hang you now, there will be no one who can testify for you. "

Pi Yang Qiu Chui had already explained everything clearly, using threats and inducements to perfection. Ji Xuanyi didn't need to act anymore and just went with the flow and agreed to the deal.

Seeing Ji Xuan nodded, Piyangqiuchui laughed happily and said, " This is a smart man. Um, have your teammates arrived? Are they reliable? Can you help me deal with the man outside? I still have things to do. Don't make it too much trouble. Just take me to the transportation point. " Ji Xuanyi took out the parchment and took a look at it, then said, " I was just kidding you, but he will be here soon. It's okay to send him to the transportation point, but I have one thing to remind you. "

Piyangqiuchui relaxed now and said, " What's the matter? "

Ji Xuanyi said, " Your bounty is an indiscriminate bounty, so there are more than just a few of us who will surround you. Even if we stop that person, there will be others who will continue to kill you on your way to the traffic point until you are killed one by one, or until the bounty expires. I think your best choice now is to log off directly, wait until the bounty time is up, and then come back to continue the activity. "

Piyangqiuchui was stunned for a moment and said, " How long is the bounty? How long is the bounty? "

Ji Xuanyi said, " He offered a reward for you for a week, maybe just for revenge, or maybe he didn't want to pay so much money? "

Piyangqiuchui immediately frowned and said, " A week? No, I can't wait that long, I still have to go-- "

Piyangqiuchui was halfway through his words when he suddenly froze and looked at Ji Xuanyi. Ji Xuanyi looked at him innocently and asked, " What's wrong? "

Piyangqiuchui grinned and said, " Hahaha, I'm stupid, you are from Starry City, right? "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " Yeah, what's wrong? "

Piyangqiuchui asked: " Are you here to discuss the information of the next event with Ye Linyu from the Dance Gang? "

Ji Xuanyi was surprised and asked: " You know all this? "

Piyangqiuchui smiled mysteriously, like a complete liar: " What don't I know? What news do you bring? Tell me quickly. "

Ji Xuanyi was a little reluctant, he said: " I've already suffered a lot, why should I tell you the information? "

Piyangqiuchui laughed and said, " We are the ones who follow each other ..."

Ji Xuan looked at him coldly, and then he said with an unbearable look: " Hey, okay, okay, I won't let you suffer any loss. Two thousand for one piece of information, okay? Is that enough? "

Ji Xuanyi knew that Piyang Qiuchui was a habitual liar who could easily lie. He would even cheat for a five thousand yuan artifact, and of course he would not pay for the information. However, his purpose was not to rob Piyang Qiuchui and get a decent excuse, so he continued the act and said, " That's good enough. Remember to transfer the money to me when you go offline. "

" Together with the reward money. " Ji Xuanyi added worriedly.

Piyangqiuchui nodded repeatedly.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment, and said in a tone that seemed to be true or false: " The next event will be world-class again, but it requires the three main cities to unite. Our information is not that accurate, we only know that it is related to the three magic towers and the three great magicians. You can pay attention to whether there are any changes in the magic towers, or brush up your favorability or something, maybe it will help. "

Piyangqiuchui had completely regarded Ji Xuanyi as someone he had deceived, and had no doubt about the authenticity of the information Ji Xuanyi had given him. He nodded, and while sending a private message to the old western doctor that he would not attend the meeting, he said to Ji Xuanyi: " Okay, thank you for the message, I'm going offline now, see you again if we're lucky. "

Seeing Ji Xuanyi stunned, he was itching to get a hammer and quickly logged off.

What transfer, what money transfer, none of that exists! Piyangqiuchui thought complacently, isn't it just waiting for seven days! Wait for him to come online after seven days, and he will be another hero without a bounty! The warlock from Star City has probably returned to his main city a long time ago, so there is no chance to trouble him!

After logging off the line, Pi Itchy Qiu was feeling very happy, and Ji Xuanyi finally breathed a sigh of relief. It turned out that playing a mentally retarded person was too challenging for him. Qi Qin came out from behind the wall and said to Ji Xuan: " I only killed him seven times. "

Ji Xuan said, " There's nothing we can do. Killing him too many times will make him desperate. If he gets angry and destroys the artifact, we won't be able to get it back. "

Youyue City is not Fanxing City, and there are a lot of rules, which restrict Ji Xuanyi's actions. He originally wanted to kill the people from Qingyu Gang as well, but was stopped by the old Western doctor in a panic, who said that this was too much and that they could not attack the entire gang. If things went wrong, it might turn into friction between the two cities. Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to abandon the plan and take part in the battle himself.

Being detained in jail is actually the greatest punishment one can get. What Ji Xuanyi and the others can do now is to give him a little mental blow before that.

" He won't be online or make trouble for the next seven days, " Ji Xuan said, " This period of time should be enough to do something. "

The old western doctor understood what Ji Xuanyi meant. People like Piyangqiuchui were just small-time characters who occasionally gained power in an environment like Youyue City. For people who were used to cheating and defrauding others of their property, the most intolerable thing was for the same thing to happen to themselves.

If the stolen items were simply returned to their original owners, it would not be that difficult for them to bear, because they did not actually suffer any loss. The items originally belonged to someone else, and they have probably experienced the situation of their stolen items being recovered many times.

But for Pi Yang Qiu Chui, the Qingyu Gang is different. The Qingyu Gang is probably the only thing that Pi Yang Qiu Chui has truly invested a lot of his energy in. To him, it is more important than his own level. He would even risk being demoted to go to the Dancing Gang for a meeting in order to better continue to develop the Qingyu Gang.

It is not possible to blame Piyang Qiuchui for nothing, nor is it easy to suppress Qingyu Gang directly. The only price Ji Xuanyi could think of for Piyang Qiuchui to pay was to see with his own eyes that the gang he had worked so hard to develop returned to its original owner before he was arrested.

The gang belongs to someone else, the hidden mission he wants also belongs to someone else, and the artifact he cheated also belongs to someone else. If he just lets him go in and ask for a hammer, it would be too easy for him. Ji Xuanyi thinks it would be better to let him see these things with his own eyes before that.

The old western doctor said tremblingly: " If it were me, I would rather be gang-raped. "

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly and said, " Didn't you say that we shouldn't let him take turns? "

Old Western doctor: "... Yes. "

The Qingyu Gang exploded. The executive pulled Xiaoxiao out and said anxiously, " The gang leader has been killed and is offline! "

Xiaoxiao said calmly: " Why are you afraid? Just log off. Did he say anything harsh to you before he logged off? "

The executive was stunned and said, " That's not the case. "

He smiled and said, " That's it. "

After that, Xiaoxiao said hypocritically: " He might have something to tell you offline. I think you'd better go and confirm it. "

The executive frowned and thought about it, and felt that Xiaoxiao was right, so he hesitantly let the people who left the Mage Tower continue to go to the southwest area, and the rest of the people continued to look for books, and then he went offline to find Piyang to ask for news.

Xiaoxiao watched coldly as the executive turned into white light and disappeared. After hesitating for a moment, she added Qingtian as a friend.

The system prompt sounded softly, and Qingtian sent a message.

[sunny] :?

Xiaoxiao hesitated for a moment and said, " I'm sorry, I misunderstood you before. "

[Laughing] : " Do you want to take back the Sunny Rain guild? I can help you. "

Chapter 136

To be honest, with Qingtian's saintly personality , Xiaoxiao was really afraid that the other party would say he didn't want to , because then all their efforts would be in vain to get rid of Piyangqiu and his executives.

However, what made Xiaoxiao feel relieved was that Qingtian only hesitated for a moment and then expressed his willingness to accept Xiaoxiao's help.

In fact, when Qingtian gave up his position as gang leader, besides the reason of wanting to coerce them , he also wanted to unload a heavy burden and feel relieved.

Qingtian was a very conscientious gang leader at the time. No matter what he did, he would consider the feelings of the gang members first. He also had to mediate conflicts between gang members from time to time . He was in charge of more things than the aunties in the neighborhood committee . But it must be said that under this kind of procrastinating management style, the Qingyu Gang was indeed a family-like gang as Qingtian said to Xiaoxiao.

For ordinary members of the Qingyu Gang , this is probably the best gang they have ever joined in their gaming career. It is warm, friendly , helpful , and has no conflicts. But for Qingtian, this game takes up too much of his energy.

In the past, the Qingyu Gang had no deputy gang leader or senior executives, and all of them had a free-spirited personality . No one wanted to take care of these things. It could be said that Qingtian alone silently carried the entire gang on his shoulders. Although he was happy and satisfied every day, he had to admit the fatigue and hardship hidden under this mood. This was also the reason why Piyangqiuchui was able to find the flaws of the gang so quickly and take over its position.

Due to the limitations of the management method, when other gangs were thriving, the Qingyu Gang almost never recruited any new members because Qingtian did not have that much energy to pay attention to new members. However, Qingtian, who was willing but unable, still wanted to develop the gang, and it was at this time that Piyangqiuchui came to the door.

It is very easy for a swindler to pretend to be well-behaved. Plus, the players in Youyue City are all very good-tempered. For Piyangqiuchui, it is simply a novice level. Before long, he becomes the second-in-command of the Qingyu Gang and starts to help Qingtian manage the gang.

What happened next was a natural progression. He recruited people, built up his own power, and when he grew up, he directly squeezed Qingtian out.

To be honest, Qingtian would not have nodded when Xiaoxiao made this suggestion, because after losing the position of gang leader, he actually felt a lot more relaxed and free. When he first wanted to be the gang leader, he even felt a sense of relief.

The main blame should be on Piyang Qiuchui himself for being too cocky. Although Qingtian has a good temper, he is not so good that he allows people to ridicule him every day. He doesn't say it and doesn't show it on his face, but it doesn't mean that he is not unhappy in his heart. Even a clay man can have some temper. The most important thing is that after Piyang Qiuchui became the gang leader, the previous group of people basically stopped coming online and became a row of gray corpses in the gang list.

Qingtian was indeed relieved, but every time he thought of the old days and looked at the current gang which was nothing like what he expected, he could not help but feel a little bitter. This bitterness accumulated and fermented deep inside, slowly giving rise to a kind of resentment.

In fact, his true thoughts can be seen from the fact that he refuses to quit the gang. Qingtian's going to chat with Xiaoxiao, a newcomer, is actually a way for him to work hard.

In fact, Qingtian has been waiting to witness this gang getting better, or when it is hopeless, to muster up the courage to fight to the death and take back everything he owns.

But Qingtian is just an ordinary man with a good temper after all. If it weren't for the appearance of Xiaoxiao, Ji Xuanyi and others, his desperate fight and his throwing of money into a flame would actually be the same thing.

He himself understood this, so when Xiaoxiao offered to help, he responded after a brief hesitation .

The current Qingyu Gang is not yet at the level he imagined, where he needs to fight against it, but it is indeed moving in that direction, and if he misses the help of Xiaoxiao once, he may never get it again.

Qingtian's idea was indeed correct. Although Xiaoxiao felt that it would be a waste of effort if Qingtian refused, she didn't know that Ji Xuanyi's plan was to directly push Xiaoxiao to the stage if Qingtian disagreed and make the Qingyu Gang a subsidiary gang of the Mu Support Association.

Ji Xuanyi still has great confidence in the abilities of Xiaoxiao, his little fan.

The next things were relatively simple. Piyangqiuchuhammer would not be online for the next seven days, and the ability to control the gang was greatly reduced. Xiaoxiao and Qingtian immediately contacted the former members of the Qingyu Gang. Those players were disheartened and half- quit the game at first because Qingtian was willing to give up the position of gang leader, which they couldn't understand. Now that Qingtian took the initiative to take back the gang, how could everyone be unwilling to help? They all went online with their hands full.

The first person to be turned was a senior executive under Pi Yang Qiu Chu's command. All means of coercion, inducement and inducement were used. In addition to playing the role of a bounty hunter, Qi Qin also made a friendly guest appearance and played the role of Xu Chu in his daily life, and bribed the senior executive into obedience.

Piyangqiuchui and others were offline, listening to the safety messages sent to them by the executives every day, completely unaware that they had been sold out. Meanwhile, the Qingyu Gang online was undergoing earth-shaking changes.

However, all this had little to do with Ji Xuanyi. After he kicked Piyangqiuchui off the line, he left everything to Xiaoxiao and Yiduo Xiaohua and only helped them when they needed help.

Speaking of Yiduo Xiaohua and the others, they were also quite confused. After hearing that Ji Xuanyi was going to deal with Piyang Qiuchui, the girls stopped doing their missions and leveling up. They gathered together, waiting for the Qingyu Gang to attack and would risk their lives to protect Ji Xuanyi and the others. Unexpectedly, they gathered together and stared at the Qingyu Gang stronghold next to them for a long time, but nothing happened. Then Ji Xuanyi sent them a message saying that Piyang Qiuchui had been dealt with and asked them to go and help Xiaoxiao.

A little flower: "..... ??? "

In the end, the team had to be disbanded again. Everyone went about their business, leaving only her and Red Wine to help.

All matters were left to the girls of the Mu Fan Club, and Ji Xuanyi's Youyue City tour activities returned to normal. The next day, he went to the Mage Tower to find Irene to ask the questions he had not finished asking.

However, perhaps because Irene's favorability had reached friendly, the Mage Tower was no longer so polite to them. The special channel for guests that was available yesterday was no longer open to them when they went there today. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin had no choice but to line up like other players and complete the four test tasks outside the Mage Tower before they could enter the lecture hall inside.

Perhaps because Irene's temper was much better than August's, the test missions in Youyue City were not that difficult. Only one of Qi Qin's missions had problems. The other missions were relatively simple and concerned the details of material output and some daily tasks.

The question given by Qi Qin in that task was very obscure, so Ji Xuanyi could only go to the library in the Mage Tower to look for the book, but he still couldn't find it after spending almost an hour there. Fortunately, the players in Youyue City were good-tempered and no one said anything even though he had to queue for an hour. If it had been in Fanxing City, someone would have come up to kill Qi Qin long ago.

Qi Qin failed the test, and Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to leave Qi Qin outside the door and go in alone.

Ji Xuanyi walked towards the lecture hall with a very unhappy look on his face. He and Qi Qin were used to going in and out of the Mage Tower in Star City, but this was the first time he had to deal with the treatment of ordinary players. He was very annoyed. This was still his luck.

What if there were too many side quests, even he wouldn't be able to get in!

August is still the best, Ji Xuan thought, he must ask all the questions today and never come again tomorrow.

Irene was still sitting behind the desk in the lecture hall. Compared to August, who occasionally changed his position, Irene seemed to have never moved.

But there shouldn't be anything that requires her to move. The players of Youyue City come to the Mage Tower more to go to the library rather than to brush up Irene's favorability, which they don't know when it will be fully restored. Therefore, Irene's lecture hall is very deserted.

When Ji Xuanyi came in this time, there was no one else there except him.

Irene's favorability towards Ji Xuanyi has now become friendly. When she sees him, she will give a simple reaction. She smiled at Ji Xuanyi and said kindly, " Now that you are here, have you prepared any wild questions for today? "

Ji Xuanyi understood that this was just an opening remark and he was not really expected to answer, but he still couldn't help but nodded. Then, under Irene's gaze, he found a seat and sat down.

Irene looked at him tenderly and said, " If you have any questions for me, please ask me, child. "

Ji Xuanyi forced himself to shake off the annoyance of separation from Qi Qin, sorted out his thoughts, and said, " Yesterday you said that the three of you magicians are not in a state of opposition but cooperation. So is your current state of cooperation due to the previous invasion of the evil god? "

Irene looked at Ji Xuan for a while and smiled mysteriously: " No, of course not, kid, the evil god has been suppressed, and this matter is over. "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, and immediately realized that his previous guess was indeed true. Although there was no preview or reminder yet, the foreshadowing of the next event, or the plot, had actually begun to develop in secret.

Whether or not one can seize the initiative actually depends on whether the player can dig out enough details.

Ji Xuanyi immediately perked up and asked without hesitation: " So why did you start working together again? "

As soon as he asked this question, Ji Xuanyi felt a little bad. No matter how powerful he was, he couldn't just reveal the spoilers to the players so easily. August might still have a chance to get some subtle hints, but his favorability with Irene was just friendly, it would be strange if she told him!

As expected, Irene shook her head at him and said slowly, " Kid, you are too impatient. This question is not for you to ask, and it is not for me to answer. This question is invalid. You have one more chance today. "

Ji Xuanyi felt that he was probably spoiled by August, and subconsciously thought that he was easy to talk to. Unexpectedly, he fell flat on his face ... Never mind, it seems that he can only ask August this question when he returns to Fanxing City. However, the last question cannot be wasted.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Where is the target of your cooperation? The main city? The elemental town? The secondary city, or the wild map? "

Ji Xuan was afraid that Irene's answer was too vague, so he listed the options for her one by one, but Irene still shook her head and refused to answer the question.

Ji Xuanyi had no choice. After asking the three questions today, he could only leave.

When Qi Qin waited until Ji Xuanyi came out, he found that he had been thinking about something with his head down, and his face did not look very good. He immediately understood and hurriedly went up to him and whispered to comfort him: " It's okay, we can ask again tomorrow. "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " No need. There will be the same test tomorrow. You didn't get in today, but what if I don't get in tomorrow? Will you go in with my message and ask questions? "

Speaking of this, Ji Xuan remembered that Qi Qin should have been able to ask three questions when they walked through the guest passage yesterday, but they forgot about it because they didn't know the rules at that time. They didn't expect it would be so difficult to get in today.

Ji Xuanyi said unhappily, as if he was just complaining about the sour grapes. "Forget it. Since Youyue City is not willing to say anything because of their low favorability, we might as well go back to Fanxing City and ask August. We still have a lot of time, so it doesn't matter."

Qi Qin noticed his awkwardness and couldn't help but smile.

Ji Xuanyi was about to explode at this moment. Seeing Qi Qin like this, he asked fiercely: "What? Are you happy to see me unhappy?"

Qi Qin quickly shook his head, and when he saw Ji Xuanyi calmed down a little, he said, "As long as I see Xuanyi, I am very happy."

Although they have been together for a while, Ji Xuan still felt a little embarrassed when he heard such words, but he didn't feel awkward. He just hummed " : in a low voice You are sensible . "

When Qi Qin saw Ji Xuanyi like this, he really wanted to kiss him, but he was even more shy than Ji Xuanyi, so he just thought about it in his mind. When Ji Xuanyi couldn't bear it anymore, he would try hard to kiss him back.

Ji Xuanyi stayed in Youyue City for five days. In fact, he had visited all the places he wanted to visit in the first three days. However, he still had some things to worry about, so he waited until the fifth day when everything was settled, and then he set off with Qi Qin.

Qingtian's group acted fairly quickly. After returning, the old members of the Qingyu Gang understood Qingtian's difficulties and spared no effort to help him regain the position of gang leader. They also said that they would share the pressure of maintaining a gang with Qingtian in the days to come.

The day after Piyangqiuchui was offline, Qingtian found his old subordinates, took control of some of the voice in the gang, and put Xiaoxiao back into the Mu Fan Club. As for Yunzhongjian, with the help of Miyin, the offline progress was also very fast, and it ended almost at the same time as Qingtian's.

Mi Yin was a little confused after hearing Ji Xuanyi's plan. He didn't expect him to make it so complicated . He thought it would be over after killing a few times. However, he was not a victim, so he had no right to say whether Ji Xuanyi did a good job or not. Moreover, it was a foregone conclusion that Ji Xuanyi had committed a crime, and there was nothing to argue about. In the end, he still cooperated.

After Qingtian confirmed the time, he started the action right away.

During this period, Piyangqiuchui mainly relied on offline QQ groups and WeChat groups to direct the gang activities offline , but he basically talked to himself, with occasional bribed executives joining him in the fun.

In addition to the position of gang leader, Qingtian also handed over the position of group leader of two offline communication groups to Piyangqiuchui. After stabilizing people's hearts, Qingtian immediately asked everyone to quit the group and create a new one.

I had just woken up from a nap and was half asleep when I touched my phone and saw a reminder to quit the group. I was instantly awake. I didn't even have time to wipe my eyes. I immediately turned over and sat up, saying in the group: " What are you doing? Why are you all quitting the group? Are you rebelling?! "

The only response he got was a stream of people quitting the group one after another, which not only did not stop but became even more intense.

I'm so confused, he hasn't played the game for a week, what the hell is going on? !

Piyangqiuchui didn't know what was going on, and could only ask blankly over and over again in the increasingly empty group what happened, even asking if there was a bug in the chat software.

Perhaps because he felt sorry for his former boss, the executive did not leave so quickly. Instead, he said in the group: " Boss ... No, itchy, don't you know what you did in the past? You should return the things you have taken for so long. "

Piyangqiuchui was stunned for a moment, then reacted.

Someone else's stuff? He built the Qingyu Gang with his own hands, so it's his own stuff! Even if the shell was taken from Qingtian at the beginning, after so much time and after he spent so much time on it, it's already his stuff!

Piyangqiuchui didn't even want to defend himself with flowery words like he did before. He wanted to seriously talk reason into this stupid executive, but the executive didn't give him a chance and left the chat group with everyone else.

Piyangqiuchui stared at the phone for a moment, then suddenly came to his senses, threw the phone on the bed viciously, and cursed: " Fuck! Even if I stole it, robbed it, or cheated it, so what?! Fuck! How dare this thing say that about me? Are you any better than me? "

He jumped out of bed and wanted to play the game, but when he lay down in the game room, he remembered that today was only the fifth day, his bounty was still up, and there were still people waiting to kill him in the game! Although the warlock from Star City had probably gone back, he didn't know whether he had told others where he was offline. If he was killed as soon as he went online, wouldn't that be stupid? !

But he thought about it, his guild was about to be lost, so why should he care about this level? He gritted his teeth, closed his eyes, and logged in.

He was worried that someone was ambushing him at first, but when he logged on, he found that there was no one around. What happened? Was his bounty withdrawn? Or did the warlock think he was unlucky and didn't pursue the matter, and the others let him go because he didn't log on? Piyangqiuchui felt that something was wrong, but he couldn't tell what was wrong. He could only put the bounty aside and rushed to the gang base. He had to find out what happened! He didn't believe that Qingtian, the coward, would have the guts to take over the entire gang in just a few days when he was offline!

However, it was no use not believing it. When he arrived at the gang base and saw the executive who used to work under him saying something flattering to Qingtian, his heart sank. Piyangqiuchui originally wanted to suppress Qingtian with toughness, but when he opened the gang list, his heart sank.

Today can be said to be the day with the highest online rate of the Qingyu Gang. There are two hundred people, more than one hundred are online, of which more than sixty are former veterans of the Qingyu Gang. And among the remaining fifty, no one knows how many have not been turned over.

Even if he wanted to disband the Qingyu Gang directly, he would need the consent of 30% of the gang members. Piyangqiuchui thought to himself that he couldn't even disband the Qingyu Gang now!

When Qingtian looked up, he saw Piyang Qiuchui standing in the stronghold. He hesitated for a moment before walking up to him and saying hello: " Boss. "

When the executive next to him heard the greeting, he couldn't help but glance at Qingtian, thinking that this man might be a black-cutting gang leader. He was not wrong to call him gang leader. The guy who was itching to get a hammer did still have the title of gang leader on his head!

Piyangqiuchui gnashed his teeth as he looked at Qingtian and said, " Hello ... hello! I didn't expect that after so long, you have become so capable. If I had known, I should have kicked you out of the gang! It's because I was too soft-hearted that this day has come to this! " sunny: "....."

Sunny also admires this man's thick skin, it's ok for you to be kind and soft-hearted.

The executive next to him couldn't stand it any longer and said sarcastically, " Oh my god, please have some shame and be soft-hearted. I don't know who told me that if I kicked them out, there would be 50 to 60 less bodies in the Sunny Sky Gang. It would be embarrassing if we couldn't make up the number of people. It would be best if they were willing to retreat and appease their hearts ... Now you are being soft-hearted. "

The itchy face turned the color of liver, he pointed at the senior and said: " Shut up! You are a piece of shit! What a shameless person you were when you followed me, now you are fking licking this idiot, get out of here! "

The executive's face changed and he was about to take action, but Qingtian stopped him, sighed, and said, " Things have come to this point now. You should also understand that there will be no turning back. Give up the position of gang leader and don't make yourself look too bad. "

Piyang Qiuchui had said something similar to Qingtian before, and now it was almost exactly the same. Piyang Qiuchui was so angry that he almost vomited blood. He stared at Qingtian with his eyes almost popping out, and shouted: " Do you think I will be like you? Idiot! Don't even think about it. I built this gang with my own hands. It's mine! I will not give up my things! "

Seeing him like this, Qingtian couldn't help but shook his head and said, " Now you should understand the mentality of those who lost their things by you, right? "

" You understand my ass! " Before Qingtian could finish, Piyangqiuchui shouted, " They don't need it anyway! Look, I cheated them out of their things, and I'm still standing here safe and sound. Doesn't that explain everything? They don't need those things that much anyway. They didn't need them anyway, so what's wrong with giving them to me?! "

Qingtian was speechless and said, " What kind of weird logic is this? What belongs to others is theirs, no matter if they need it or not. Besides, there are many people who have come to you to ask for their belongings back. Are you going to give them to them? "

Piyangqiuchui said: " If I don't give it to them, they will stop chasing? This is because they are not sincere. I shouldn't have given it to them in the first place! "

Because of the great stimulation, Piyangqiuchui's face twitched and his whole body seemed to be twisted. Qingtian felt that he probably had no way to communicate with this person. He took a step back defensively and said, " It's up to you. Anyway, this gang is no longer yours. Even if you don't hand over the gang leader, it's useless. No one will listen to your orders anymore. "

Piyangqiuchui stared at Qingtian for a long time, then suddenly burst into laughter and said, " Yes, I can't disband the gang, but as the gang leader I still have other powers! "

Qingtian was stunned for a moment, then immediately reacted. As the gang leader, Piyangqiuchui could directly kick out ordinary members. He could kick out all the people in the gang who did not obey his orders. Although Qingtian did not mind establishing a new gang, if the gang was reorganized, all the strongholds and other things would have to be rebuilt from scratch, which was very troublesome.

Qingtian wanted to stop Piyangqiuchui, but didn't know how to do it. Piyangqiuchui had already opened the guild interface and started to check the players to be kicked out. He had only selected halfway when a loud voice came from the door of the stronghold.

The old western doctor who came to visit with Yun Zhongjian and Xiaoxiao shouted in a hoarse voice: " Qingtian! Hey Qingtian! I heard from Xiaoxiao that you guys are done here? I brought Old Yun to visit-- "

Piyangqiuchui suddenly turned around and saw the old western doctor hugging Yunzhongjian, with the wizard Xiaoxiao beside them.

When Piyangqiuchui was still the leader of the Qingyu Gang, he had worked with the Dancing Gang several times. He knew the old Western doctor, and of course he also remembered the silly and innocent face of Yunzhongjian! Add to that Xiaoxiao next to him, what else is there to not understand!

They are all in the same gang!

Piyangqiuchui was completely dumbfounded. No wonder he got the " event information " that he had " hard to get " in Fanxing City so easily . No wonder he was not hunted down when he ran all the way to the Qingyu Gang's base . The event information was fake, and the bounty was also fake! All of this was fake! Everyone was lying to him! This was a huge scam!

Piyangqiuchui didn't care about the gang kicking people, pointing at the old western doctor, his fingers shaking with anger, and said: " You, you know them, you are lying to me!!! You are such a big gang, is this how you bully the independents?! "

The old western doctor exclaimed, " Fuck !" He never expected that he arrived too early and was just in time for the confrontation. He quickly covered his face with his hands, turned his back, and said in a pinched voice: " Hey, who are you talking about! What dancing gang? I don't know them. You've got the wrong person~ "

Yunzhongjian: "..."

Xiaoxiao: "..."

sunny: "....."

Even though he was facing a big crisis, Qingtian couldn't help but want to laugh!

However, Piyangqiuchui couldn't laugh at all. He pointed at the old western doctor and then at other people. He was about to collapse. He never expected that he would be deceived to this extent.

No, he couldn't just give up like that. Yes, at least he had to get rid of those idiots in the gang first. The Qingyu Gang was still his, still his ...

Piyangqiuchui's legs went limp and he sat down on the ground. As soon as he opened the gang interface, his vision suddenly went dark.

Piyangqiuchui's eyes went dark, but to others it was just a flash of white light, and Piyangqiuchui was offline.

The old western doctor trembled and peeked out one eye from between his fingers, and said fearfully: " He, why did he log off? Did he go to the forum and hang me? "

Qingtian frowned and said, " No, even if he wanted to kill you, he would have to kick us out of the gang first. But we are still here. He must have been emotionally unstable and was kicked offline by the system. "

Xiaoxiao was shocked and said, " It's impossible. He has been cheating for so many years, and he doesn't even blush or feel nervous when facing the owner. How can he not have this kind of mentality? "

Qingtian thought for a moment and said, " Maybe it's because you are too hypocritical? You can't stand it when something happens to you, and you will be greatly shocked? "

Everyone shook their heads, saying that they didn't understand the mentality of people who were itching to be beaten up.

However, Qingtian and the others guessed all wrong. As a liar, Piyangqiuchui had a very stable mentality . He was indeed furious, but he would not trigger the security system.

Piyangqiuhammer was also confused after being disconnected. He was still lying in the game cabin and wanted to reconnect immediately. However, he failed several times and the system kept prompting that his game account was abnormal.

I didn't know whether it was because of the security system or something else, so I could only climb out of the game cabin angrily.

At this time, he had calmed down a little. He definitely couldn't go online now, let alone kick Qingtian and his gang out of the gang.

Piyangqiuchui thought about it and realized that, in the final analysis, the reason why he ended up in this situation was all because of the false information given by that old western doctor! Of course he knew that the old western doctor's information was probably due to his good personal relationship with that naive person, so he joined the scam and sent him a message. But who made the old western doctor mention the name of the Dancing Gang in the private chat and use the Dancing Gang as an excuse!

Since you've already exposed the flaw to me, can't I take advantage of it? !

Piyangqiuchui turned on the computer with a vengeful and happy smile on his face.

He had already thought about how to choreograph the dancing gang. Even if he couldn't pull them down from their leadership positions in Youyue City, he would make them pay the price!

Piyangqiuchui was editing the post in the forum at a very fast speed. In addition to describing the incident with exaggeration, he also made up some miscellaneous things that could not be verified at all.

There was a hideous and twisted smile on Piyangqiuqiu's face. After this post was sent out, at least the old western doctor would definitely not get away!

However, when bad luck starts to happen to a person, it's as if the whole world is against you. I had just edited the last paragraph when there was a sudden knock on the security door outside the cheap rental house .

Piyangqiuchui was annoyed by the noise. He cursed the rubbish sound insulation and had to stop what he was doing. He shouted impatiently: " Who is it?! "

A male voice outside the door said: " Check the water meter! "

" Check the water meter ..." Piyangqiuchui gritted his teeth and muttered, " Why check the water meter at this time? Wait a minute! "

The person outside the door started knocking on the door again , with impatience in his voice: " Hurry up! Open the door! Check the water meter! "

Piyanqiuqiu was so annoyed that he had no choice but to put the post down . He stood up impatiently and walked towards the door, cursing: " Fuck! Here I come, stop knocking, are you in a hurry to reincarnate?! "

Behind the itchy beggar, the computer screen was still on, with a post about to hang someone up, with only the last sentence left to be typed.

"The children of the God of the Youyue City Gang in the second server can dance. You are the most powerful gang in the world!"

It's a pity that in the end the old Western doctor and his friends didn't see this post.

Qingtian and his group have been worried for several days because of the sudden offline of Qiu Ba. Some old members have already expressed that they don't mind starting over. Instead of being kicked out, it would be better for everyone to quit the guild together and start over.

Qingtian almost agreed to this proposal, but fortunately, Piyangqiuchui did not come online for several days, so the proposal was shelved.

After several days, the old Western doctors who were staring at the forum with trepidation also found that something was wrong. Just when they began to suspect that Pi Itchy Asking for a Hammer was simply angry to death, the official news was released.

The account of Piyangqiuhammer has been banned because of his bad behavior of cheating everywhere. All the stolen goods that were kept on the account have been returned, including the spent gold coins and other game data, which have been compensated by the official. As for equipment and other things that are not out of print, they can be compensated directly. Players who only have one copy can contact the GM to recover them after cooperating with the investigation or negotiate with the new owner.

As for the Qingyu Gang, because the account "Piyangqiuhammer" had been permanently banned, the position of gang leader could be decided by voting, and Qingtian of course won with a unanimous vote. Those players in the gang who were determined to stir up trouble also decided to stay or quit the gang after discussing with Qingtian.

Qingtian's former friends also expressed that they would work with Qingtian to run the gang in the future.

The matter was resolved satisfactorily and everyone breathed a sigh of relief.

Ji Xuanyi and the others had no idea what happened next in Youyue City. After confirming the news with Mi Yin , the two of them hurried back to Fanxing City without even inspecting the fruits of victory .

Ji Xuanyi originally planned to stay in Youyue City for two more days . After all, they were so busy that it was not good to involve the Dancing Gang. In order to avoid suspicion , Ye Linyu had not talked to him. After waiting for a long time until the matter was over, Ye Linyu had a lot of things to say to Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi also understood this. What's more , he still remembered that he was invited by Ye Linyu . Even if he was not interested in what Ye Linyu wanted to say, he had to show his attitude.

But things don't always go as planned. Ye Linyu stared at Ji Xuanyi and the others, and was about to speak after he understood the situation , but Ji Xuanyi received a message from Fanxing City, saying that there was something important and he couldn't delay for a moment , so he had to leave first.

Ye Linyu: "..."

What could Ye Linyu do ? He was also desperate. Ji Xuanyi had already said that it was a very important matter, and he couldn't force them to stay at this time without any tact. He had to let the two of them leave, and even asked very considerately if he needed to send a knight to take them back.

Ji Xuan was tempted but refused , saying that Youyue City seemed to have no knights who could carry the swordsman for the time being, so it would be better to let the two of them walk back by themselves.

Ye Linyu: "..."

Youyue Village is very poor and weak, but could you please not say such self-esteem-damaging words in front of the village chief?

Forget it, let's just call the old Western doctor over to have some fun and have some fun.

Ji Xuanyi didn't know that the old Western doctor suddenly took the blame, and he took Qi Qin and went to Fanxing City without looking back.

He had indeed received very important news, and it was not an excuse he made up to fool Ye Linyu.

Yu Gui returned to Starry City.

Ji Xuanyi didn't know what the situation was like in Fanxing City, but judging from the fact that Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Yugui were having a confusing and unclear conversation, he thought it wouldn't be any better. He could only ask the two of them to sort out their thoughts first and then have a face-to-face talk after he and Qi Qin returned.

The two people's private conversation quieted down, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin concentrated on their journey, and finally returned to Fanxing City on the second night.

It was already past nine o'clock. Qi Qin leaned on Ji Xuanyi, making Ji Xuanyi feel like he was going to be crushed.

Ji Xuanyi supported Qi Qin with difficulty, saying, " Hey, wake up, we are almost there, we are almost there, just hold on a little longer. "

Qi Qin also wanted to hold on! But Ji Xuanyi felt so comfortable that he was in a state of confusion and was stuck in a quagmire, unable to pull himself out!

Ji Xuan dragged Qi Qin for two steps. As soon as they entered the city gate, they felt their body relax. Qi Qin fell asleep and was kicked off the line.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

What's the use of a boyfriend like this!

Ji Xuanyi didn't know what was the point of persisting for so long. If he had known earlier, he would have just left Qi Qin halfway and walked back by himself!

But this is also a kind of relief ... Ji Xuanyi rubbed his shoulders, sighed helplessly, regained his spirit, and walked towards the city.

Nine o'clock is actually a small peak of players online. There is no one else as weird as Qi Qin in the three major gangs. Including Xu Chu, almost everyone is online.

Ji Xuan took a quick look and saw that Yu Gui was also online, so he chatted with her privately: "I'm in Star City."

Yugui had probably been chatting with Ji Xuanyi for a long time, and replied almost immediately: "We are all in the inner city base! Come quickly!"

Ji Xuan glanced at the broad road in front of him, and at the distant Mage Tower, which was hidden in the lights and darkness, and vaguely revealed its shape, like an embroidery needle. He said expressionlessly, "Tell them to ask Liu Tian to pick me up at the inner city entrance. I don't even want the snowy world. Hurry up."

Yugui: "..."

It seems that Ji Xuanyi is tired of rushing on the road.

On this side, Ji Xuanyi got on the carriage to the inner city, and on the other side, Liu Tian, riding the fastest horse in the current stage of the game, also set off from the stronghold.

More than an hour later, Ji Xuanyi successfully arrived at the gate of the inner city stronghold.

Liu Tian dismounted after Ji Xuanyi and said pretentiously, "Alas, you always think of me at this critical moment when you are in a hurry. I really can't do anything about you."

Xu Chu mercilessly pointed out: "I didn't think of you, I thought of your horse."

Liu Tian said with a sour face: "The horse is part of the knight, and my horse is also part of me. Thinking of my horse is the same as thinking of me!"

Xu Chu was too lazy to argue with him. He walked up to Ji Xuanyi with a smile and said, "How is it? Come on? I'll lend you my mount today. Later, you can lend me your boyfriend—"

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly.

Xu Chu saw the murderous intent in the other person's eyes, cleared his throat, stood up straight, and laughed dryly, "Just kidding, just kidding, I already have Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin, I don't need a boyfriend like you, hahahaha..."

Xu Chu smiled like a stupid rich kid, and Ji Xuanyi didn't even bother to pay attention to him. He walked in and asked, "Where's Yugui?"

Just as the people around him were about to speak, the air in front of Ji Xuanyi twisted, and Yu Gui dived into Ji Xuanyi's arms, shouting happily: "Xuanyi! I'm here to join you!"

Ji Xuanyi was knocked back two steps by her before he could stabilize himself . He patted her back helplessly, tore her off his body, and said, " What's the situation in Day City? Why did you come back so suddenly without telling me in advance? "

At this point, before Yu Gui could reply, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia beside him said, " Ji Xuanyi, you are too cautious. I am your undercover agent, but you really didn't tell anyone. When she came to us, she was almost chased out as a spy from Dayo City. Fortunately, Xu Chu recognized her, otherwise she would have been in trouble for many days! "

However, despite saying so, Xiaoxiao Yuxia actually knew that it was not easy to talk about undercover matters casually. He was also shocked by the fact that he almost treated Yugui as an enemy , so he couldn't help but complain.

Ji Xuanyi frowned, but didn't say anything. He smiled and said to Gui: " It doesn't matter. I'm back now. Let's go in and talk about it. "

It was indeed a bit stupid for a group of people to be standing in the yard of the stronghold and talking. Upon hearing what was said, everyone crowded back into the house.

The reason why everyone gathered together was of course not to wait for Ji Xuanyi to come back, but they were originally discussing something. Ji Xuanyi thought about it and understood almost everything, so he said, " Is the situation in Day City not good? "

As expected, everyone frowned when this was mentioned.

The expression on Yugui's face was also not very good.

Yu Guilai's move to Fanxing City was very hasty, otherwise he would not have been unable to contact Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu, and was almost thrown out by the members of the three major gangs. After Xu Chu recognized Yu Gui by accident, he was surprised to find that Yu Gui, who was at level 60 before, was now only level 55.

world boss event ended, the Sun City was severely damaged. Zuo'an and Zhaochen split into two groups and returned to the main city. Basically, the attitudes and positions of the two sides could be seen.

After Yugui rescued Zuo An, she stood firmly on Zuo An's side. She didn't expect Zuo An to do anything to Zhao Chen, but if Yue Ri City could be completely divided, it would be a good thing for Fanxing City and Ji Xuanyi, who was regarded as a thorn in the eyes of the two leaders of Yue Ri City.

But Yugui didn't expect that Zhaochen's movements would be so swift and accurate. She and Zuo An had almost no power to resist and were directly defeated.

the world boss event just ended, Zhaochen did not take any action when Zuoan had just returned to the main city and his foundation was unstable. Yugui did not notice this. She thought that Zhaochen showed mercy to Zuoan because they had been together for such a long time.

But Yugui was wrong. Zhaochen had no feelings for Zuo An. Even if he did, he wanted to strangle the other person's feelings. The reason he didn't do anything was because the time was not right.

At that time, the players of Sun City had just experienced another defeat, and they had completely lost all their fighting spirit. Most of them were just thinking about whether they could get the rewards after the players of Star City and Moon City got the rewards from the world boss

, or simply sneak in. In short, as long as they could get the rewards, it didn't matter whether they would lose levels or not.

In this situation, if the players were forced to gather together and a civil war broke out, the final result would only be that Zuo An would escape again, which would definitely not achieve Zhaochen's goal of killing Zuo An directly.

Zhaochen had no intention of playing the cat-and-mouse game with Zuo An, letting the other party escape again and again and bother him again and again. What he wanted to do was to hit the target with one blow and make Zuo An disappear from this game forever.

He did it.

While Zuo'an and Yugui were trying hard to consolidate their forces, Zhaochen had already reached a consensus with many individual gangs and most of the senior executives in Bancheng. He made those people clearly see his determination to break with Zuo'an, and let those people know that it was impossible for such things as fence-sitters to continue to exist, because he, Zhaochen, was going to tear down this wall completely.

The next moment after Zhaochen gathered his strength, which was two days ago, he finally launched the final attack on Zuo'an.

At this point, there are not many people who would stand with Zuo An, and they are either weirdos who have conflicts with Zhao Chen, or mentally retarded. Yu Gui alone cannot turn the tide. At the last moment, she can only make the move to escape with Zuo An again.

But unfortunately, Zhaochen is not Xuchu. He has no good feelings towards both Yugui and Zuoan, and he will not let the people who are besieging him show mercy. Yugui saw that Zuoan's situation was hopeless, and he had no choice but to abandon him and run away.

As an assassin, Yugui's concealment ability is very strong. Even Qi Qin was startled by her sudden appearance, not to mention other ordinary players. But even so, under Zhaochen's carpet search order, Yugui dropped four levels before she could barely run to the range of Fanxing City. The pursuit troops of Youri City did not let her go and left until they could see the gate of Fanxing City.

This is also the reason why Yugui has not been able to contact Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu, and was almost thrown out of the city as a spy.

It's hard enough to escape, let alone send a secret message when someone comes!

Yugui ran into Fanxing City. It was self-evident who the undercover agent was. However, Yugui didn't have time to care about these things at this time. Let her be exposed. Anyway, Zhaochen couldn't chase her into Fanxing City to cause trouble for her.

" I've tried my best, but there's no way, " Yugui said helplessly, " Zuo'an's influence in Day City is like bubbles. It dissipates as soon as Zhaochen makes a move. Even Zuo'an himself has been beaten by Zhaochen. From the time I fled to Star City until now, Zuo'an has never been online. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was still relatively cautious. He thought for a moment and asked, " Are you sure Zuo An was raped? After all, you left him and ran away. Is it possible that he and Zhao Chen reached a consensus again ... "

Yugui looked at Xiaoxiao Yuxia expressionlessly and said, " Are you stupid? I have a good friend on the Left Bank. "

The level can be directly viewed in the friend list. Zuo An is indeed only level 20, and he has never been online. He must have been hit hard by Zhao Chen, so he simply quit the game. There is no such thing as a smurf in this game. Zuo An will probably never come back.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia coughed awkwardly. This game was too real. Sometimes it was not good to get too immersed in it and forget about the friend list.

Liu Tian listened for a long time and said solemnly, " Level 20 could also be a trap. Look, Zhao Chen knows you are an undercover agent, so you can explain everything to Zuo An, right? You can still practice again at level 20. If they unite again— "

Everyone looked at Liu Tian as if he was an idiot.

Liu Tian was furious and asked, " What are you looking at?! "

Xu Chu shook his head and said earnestly: " Not everyone is like me, who will stick with a mentally retarded leader and never leave him. "

Liu Tian: "... Fuck! "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia saw that the two were about to quarrel, so she quickly tried to smooth things over, saying: " Liu Tian, stay calm! But Xu Chu is indeed right. Zuo An is a complete burden to Zhao Chen and has no use at all. You can still be used as a mount for Xu Chu, but Zuo An can only hold Zhao Chen back. "

Liu Tian angrily said, " What do you mean I can be used as a mount? Is that what I am in your eyes? I still have many uses! "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "... Okay, okay, okay, okay, I'll do as you say, I'll do as you say. "

Liu Tian then sat down reluctantly, glaring at Xu Chu beside him.

Xu Chu drank his tea calmly.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia suddenly felt that Jing Yunhan was really nice. Although he was as stupid as Liutian and was also a rookie, he was obedient! He was well-behaved! What a lovely little brother!

But then again, what Xiaoxiao Yuxia said was indeed correct. It would be great if Zuo An and Zhao Chen were really like what Liu Tian said. In that case, all they have to deal with is the former Yuri City – no, it should be said that it is a Yuri City that is several levels weaker than the former Yuri City. It is simply too easy.

The current situation is obviously much worse than what Liu Tian had imagined. Yuri City has now completely fallen into the hands of Zhaochen alone. From now on, Zhaochen will no longer have any concerns about any of his actions and he can completely let go.

Everyone at the table who could use their brains a little bit looked unhappy, except for Xu Chu who liked to watch the fun. To be honest, he would rather there was only one Zhao Chen opposite him, so that he wouldn't have to adjust his IQ up and down when considering things, and he wouldn't be able to understand the other party's thoughts at all.

Ji Xuanyi lowered his eyes and thought for a while, then said to Yugui: " If I remember correctly, Zuo An is the leader of Bancheng, right? "

Yugui was stunned for a moment, then nodded. She understood what Ji Xuanyi wanted to say, and said helplessly, " Bancheng is now just an empty shell. Zuo'an did think of using the title of gang leader to threaten Zhaochen, but Zhaochen acted much faster than him. Almost when Zuo'an was about to kick him out, he quit the gang on his own and quickly reorganized another gang. "

Half of the people in the city who followed Zhaochen also followed suit and left the gang. However, in less than an hour, the gang that originally had a full membership of a thousand people instantly became an empty shell with only more than a hundred corpses left. What made Zuo An most upset was that among the 80 to 90 percent of people who left, more than half of them came online specifically to quit the gang, and after quitting, they went offline again. They also did not forget to delete him as their friend, the former gang leader. How fawning they were in the past, how arrogant they were now. Zuo An had no way to deal with them.

Yugui swiped right, opened the guild interface, and said helplessly: " I haven't quit the guild yet. Didn't I say there were about a hundred bodies just now? Now there are only about thirty. "

Everyone was silent.

Ji Xuanyi didn't expect Zuo An to lose so easily and miserably, but considering Zuo An's personality, this seemed quite reasonable.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said, " What should we do now? Daylight City has completely fallen into Zhao Chen's hands. According to you, he is much more difficult to deal with than Zuo An. If he plots against us again, what should we do? "

" Should we target Zhaochen alone? " Xu Chu thought for a moment and said, " For example, we could offer a reward, or directly send Mi Yin to sneak into Day City to take his head ... or something like that. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said speechlessly: " What's the use of this? This is a game. It's not like you can just kill once and it's over. "

Xu Chu said: " Then just kill him a few more times. Money is not a problem. Besides, even if there is only Mi Yin, as long as he is killed every now and then , he will drop faster than he gains level. Sooner or later , he will be killed. "

Mi Yin thought for a moment and said, " It's possible to kill this guy every now and then , but I guess he might have already attacked Star City before he reaches level 40. "

" Killing him is useless, " Ji Xuanyi interrupted them and said, " If someone like Zhaochen is determined to deal with someone, it's useless to kill him back to level 1, let alone level 20. He uses his brain. As long as he can play games and command others, his own level is actually meaningless. "

Ji Xuanyi was right, and everyone quieted down again.

After a while, Xu Chu exclaimed: " Ah, this is the annoying thing about games. If only it were like in real life, where I could just kill them once and everything would be solved. "

Everyone looked at Xu Chu with horror.

Xiao Xiaoyu looked at Xu Chu in bewilderment and said, " Fuck, last time you said Ji Xuanyi was the one who knew everything about black stuff, but it turns out you are the one? Rich man, your money can't be ..."

" Puh, puh, puh! " Xu Chu said with a frown on his face, " My family runs a legitimate business, okay? We have never evaded taxes, what are you accusing me of? Please don't cause me to be banned, okay? "

Everyone then laughed and looked away.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " You can offer a bounty, but Mi Yin shouldn't take the risk, lest you fail to kill someone and lose another. With the current strength of Daylight City, it won't be able to become a demon for a long time. No matter how powerful Zhaochen is, if he wants to deal with Starry City, he has to wait until the strength of Daylight City and Starry City is almost the same before he can take action. "

But to be honest, with the current situation of Daylight City, it is still far behind Youyue City. If it wants to catch up with Starry City, it is even further away. If they make things a little difficult for Daylight City during every event, it is possible that Daylight City will not be able to catch up until the game is shut down.

Thinking of this way, everyone felt a little more relaxed. There was no need to make any big moves. They could just use whatever tricks they could to disgust the Sun City. They were not in a hurry anyway.

After a meeting, it was basically eleven or twelve o'clock. Ji Xuanyi had classes tomorrow morning, so he didn't chat with them anymore. Seeing that there was nothing else to do, he logged off.

It was already afternoon when Ji Xuanyi came online the next day. After Qi Qin woke up in the morning and contacted Ji Xuanyi, he came online early at noon. He ran to the inner city stronghold and waited for Ji Xuanyi outside the door.

As soon as Ji Xuan went out, he glanced at Qi Qin, who looked like a young wife, and didn't know what to say.

Do you want the other person not to go to bed early? It's not good enough that you have an irregular schedule, but you also want to drag others into it.

In the end, Ji Xuanyi could only sigh helplessly, took Qi Qin's hand, leaned forward, and gave the other a good afternoon kiss.

" Wow~ "

There was a strange cry from behind, Ji Xuan turned around and saw Xu Chu covering his face with one hand, and then insincerely opened a gap between two fingers, revealing a pair of eyes. Qi Qin screamed " Ah " and was so scared that he immediately raised his head and separated from Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

This person and the old Western doctor will definitely become good friends.

Xu Chu seemed not to notice Ji Xuanyi's ugly expression and said, " It's a rare chance for me to be accurate, and you guys are just feeding me dog food like this! "

Ji Xuanyi stood next to Qi Qin and said expressionlessly: " Being online after three o'clock is considered punctual. Are you also attending class? "

Xu Chu said with a playful smile: " Brother, I graduated many years ago. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't bother to pay attention to him, and pulled Qi Qin out, saying, " Get lost. "

Xu Chu of course would not leave, he followed them shamelessly and asked curiously: " Where are you going? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " It's none of your business. "

Xu Chu said: " It's nothing, I'm just curious. By the way, I have some news from my uncle's party about the next event. Do you want to hear it? "

Ji Xuanyi paused for a moment, turned around and looked at Xu Chu, and said, " Activity news? "

He had just been talking nonsense in Youyue City before, but he didn't expect that Xu Chu actually had news of an event.

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows and said, " What activity? "

Xu Chu said: " It's not easy to be an uncle party these days. The news is quite vague. I only know that it seems to be a pure PVE activity. "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment and said, " Pure PVE activity? Is it world-class? "

Xu Chu looked at Ji Xuanyi strangely and said, " What are you thinking? How can a PVE activity be world-class? Among all the games, the largest dungeon is only a 50-player dungeon. It has nothing to do with world-class. "

Ji Xuanyi showed a disappointed expression. He thought that the event Xu Chu mentioned was related to the information he got from the Mage Tower in Youyue City, but it turned out to be just a PVE event. It seems that the new world-class event he had thought of before would probably be launched later.

" What's wrong with your expression? " Xu Chu asked, " What kind of activity do you think this is? "

Ji Xuanyi's guesses were just guesses. He couldn't explain them clearly, and it was not good to mislead others. He could only shake his head and said, m just'l .Nothing " not that interested in PVE . "

Xu Chu looked him up and down, and seemed to see something, but he didn't ask any more questions. Instead, he said, " Okay, but if you're not interested, then you're not interested. Can you lend us your boyfriend? "

Ji Xuanyi immediately and vigilantly blocked Qi Qin behind him. Qi Qin also cooperated very well and half squatted down, trying his best to hide himself behind Ji Xuanyi.

Xu Chu: "..."

What kind of weird tacit understanding do you two have?

Ji Xuanyi frowned and asked, " What do you want to do? "

Xu Chu was speechless: " What the hell can I do? If the event is really a dungeon, I have to bring a tank with me to open up the land . Can this Star City find another swordsman who is more awesome than the world? "

Ji Xuanyi relaxed after hearing this and said, " If you need help , look for Xue Piao Renjian. Isn't he also good enough? "

Xu Chu said: " Xue Piao Renjian is a knight after all, how can he be as stable as a swordsman ? I want him and Tianxia to be a secondary t and a primary t..."

Seeing that Ji Xuanyi still looked reluctant, Xu Chu said, " Although this is not a competitive activity between the main cities, we can't let the Sun City surpass us. It's just a matter of getting the first armor. It won't take much time. "

When Ji Xuan heard what he said, he couldn't refuse. However, if Qi Qin was going to be a tank , he would definitely go with him. After thinking about it, he reluctantly gave in and said, " The event hasn't been released yet, and it's not certain whether it will be a copy yet. Let's talk about it when the time comes. "

Xu Chu was satisfied with this sentence. Ji Xuanyi was a man who would firmly refuse anything he was told. Now that he had made a small concession, he basically agreed. He smiled and said, " Okay, we'll talk about it later. You guys do your thing. I'm going to upgrade. "

After saying that, Xu Chu left first. Ji Xuanyi estimated that he would go to look for his mount for six days, so he took Qi Qin to the Mage Tower.

He still remembered the vague information he got from Irene in Youyue City. If he could ask August, maybe he could learn more.

Ji Xuanyi had originally planned to do so, but just as he and Qi Qin had walked a short distance out of the base , they heard a crisp system prompt sound.

There's mail in the mail.

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then realized that it was probably a ruby mission from the Star City Auction House ...

The mission of the disappearing ruby is quite annoying, especially when you receive it every now and then and still can't complete it. Even if the final reward is the fragments of the auction designated ticket, Ji Xuanyi doesn't have the slightest good impression of this mission.

Because apart from the good luck that Ze Yu Sishui and his companions had just arrived in Fanxing City and happened to encounter the ruby inside the Mage Tower, Ji Xuanyi received seven or eight ruby missions in total, but he didn't complete any of them!

After all, it is an auction ticket that can be used to specify an artifact, so this level of difficulty is actually quite normal.

When Ji Xuanyi encountered the ruby mission again later, he basically just went with the flow. Instead of wasting that time, he might as well upgrade and fall in love.

the email icon prompted by the system, Ji Xuanyi snorted coldly and continued to go to the Mage Tower with Qi Qin.

Ten minutes later, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin appeared in front of the postman.

Qi Qin: "..."

So delicious!

Ji Xuanyi looked calm, not even blushing, and walked up to the postman and said, " Take the trust. "

The postman grinned, revealing two rows of white teeth, and said, " Okay! You have two letters, one from the system and one from a player. Do you want to pick up both? "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned. Two letters? He had guessed that the system letter was probably about the ruby quest, but what about the player letter? Who sent him the letter?

Ji Xuanyi was confused. Could it be that someone else was doing this again ? They were doing fine with the little flower in Youyue City!

After thinking for a while, Ji Xuanyi said, " Take both. "

He nodded and took out two letters from the cloth bag on his waist. One of them was, as Ji Xuanyi expected, a ruby task letter sent by the system, while the other letter was sent by the old western doctor.

Ji Xuanyi didn't know what the old Western doctor was up to, and was about to open the letter, but he didn't stop and continued to reach into the cloth bag around his waist. besides?

He took out a box half the length of a person from the unremarkable cloth bag, handed it to Ji Xuanyi, and said with a smile: " There is another package, please keep it. "

Ji Xuan stretched out his hand to take it in a daze, and as soon as he got it , he screamed " Oh shit " and almost fell down because of the box!

Qi Qin had been staring at Ji Xuanyi and would not let him fall, so he immediately held Ji Xuanyi in one hand and held the box steadily with the other hand.

Qi Qin felt the weight of the box and was stunned. He asked, " Is this ... a weapon? "

Ji Xuanyi pushed Qi Qin away with a frown on his face, thinking that the setting of strength five was really enough.

Qi Qin didn't know that Ji Xuanyi was unhappy again. He held the box in his hand and didn't dare to open it without Ji Xuanyi's permission. He just said stupidly: " This looks like a weapon. Who sent it? "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and felt something was wrong. The old Western doctor was a pastor and only slightly stronger than Ji Xuanyi. Where did he get such a heavy weapon? He quickly opened the letter sent by the old Western doctor.

At first glance, as expected, this weapon did not belong to Lao Xiyi, but to Yun Zhongjian. It was the artifact he got from the world boss reward, the Sword of Ares.

Yun Zhongjian is a Buddhist pvx player. Although it is not nice to say so, Ji Xuanyi actually feels that it is a bit of a waste for Yun Zhongjian to have the artifact in his hands. For Yun Zhongjian, this equipment is like a decorative flash stick and it can't play any role at all.

Ji Xuanyi was actually thinking about whether he should collect some money, or simply persuade Xu Chu to buy this artifact from Yun Zhongjian, but he didn't expect that Yun Zhongjian would directly send it to them after recovering the equipment.

Yun Zhongjian meant that he couldn't use it anyway, and it was Ji Xuanyi and the others who persuaded him to call the police to get the thing back, so it would be better to give it directly to Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin as a thank-you gift. He had heard the old western doctor bragging in front of him that he had found a magic weapon, while Qi Qin only found an orange weapon, so he guessed that Qi Qin might need this sword, so he sent it to him.

At the end of the letter, Yun Zhongjian shyly expressed that he also wanted to be friends with Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, and this sword could be given as a gift for making friends.

The old western doctor was of course against this inexplicable thing, but Yun Zhongjian had made up his mind, and even the old western doctor couldn't persuade him. What's more, there was one thing he said that was true, that Yun Zhongjian didn't need this thing ... So in the end the old western doctor agreed and helped Yun Zhongjian send the things over.

" That's so embarrassing, " Qi Qin touched the box reluctantly, but still didn't open it. He said to Ji Xuan, " It's better to send it back. It's such a valuable item. "

Ji Xuanyi also felt that he couldn't take Yun Zhongjian's things like this. If it was someone as cheap as the old western doctor or Xu Chu, it would be fine. Although Yun Zhongjian was a European emperor that everyone hated, he was an honest man! Ji Xuanyi was really embarrassed to take his things.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, "I guess we'll have to sell the stuff when we return it to Yunzhongjian. Rather than letting him get tricked by someone like that, it's better to just treat it as a sale to us. You don't need that orange weapon anyway, so just send it over to pay off the debt and then find a way to raise some money ..."

Having said that, Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but look at Qi Qin, who was staring at the box with drooling eyes.

Although it has never been shown, this person is actually a rich second-generation, a very rich one.

The author has something to say: Qi Qin actually saved a lot of pocket money. After all, his only expenses after coming here were the travel expenses to find Ji Xuanyi ... Oh, and the takeaway of Shaxian snacks.

Chapter 138

The Sword of Ares is different in appearance from most swordsman weapons. Compared to the heavy sword of the Guardian that is as big as a shield , the Sword of Ares is much smaller and more flexible.

But that was only in comparison . Compared with the ancient Chinese sword that Qi Qin was most familiar with , this artifact was still much heavier and thicker.

Qi Qin took the half-man-high sword and danced with it easily . He said happily, " It's just right. My size has changed a lot since I came here . Although there are still some differences, I'm familiar with it and can at least exert 80% of my strength. "

Ji Xuanyi was originally looking at the sword that he couldn't even lift with envy. He was stunned when he heard this and said, " Eighty percent? How many percent did you use as a guardian before? "

Qi Qin pursed his lips a little embarrassedly and said, " About 30%. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

He knew that Qi Qin's fighting power was high, but it was only 30% before? Meow meow meow? Ji Xuanyi was bewildered. Qi Qin gestured twice, then touched the sword carefully before putting the weapon away. He wanted to talk to Ji Xuanyi about the two-sword style, but thinking of Ji Xuanyi's previous reaction , he swallowed his words silently.

Ji Xuanyi came back to his senses and looked at the two letters in his hands. He put away the ruby letter and decided to leave it to fate. He destroyed the other letter from the old western doctor directly, then added Yun Zhongjian as a friend and sent him the unused orange weapon in Qi Qin's hand.

There was also the issue of the price of the artifact. It was obvious that the honest man in Yunzhongjian would not be willing to take their money, so Ji Xuanyi went straight to the old western doctor. The man was not vague and immediately handed over Yunzhongjian's Alipay account to Ji Xuanyi. Qi Qin went offline and completed the transaction in minutes.

Ji Xuan breathed a sigh of relief. In this way, Qi Qin's weapon problem was finally solved.

"Let's go," Ji Xuan said, "Let's go to the Mage Tower to find August."

Qi Qin did not ask Ji Xuanyi why he did not do the ruby mission. After all, he and Ji Xuanyi had run all over the Starry City together and had experienced situations where they could not find the gem no matter how hard they tried, and where they clearly saw the gem but it was refreshed somewhere else the second before they picked it up.

His attitude towards the mission of the ruby is actually a kind of Buddhist attitude of letting things take their course ...

The two looked around and arrived at the Mage Tower almost at a leisurely pace.

Given the favorable impression, the guards of the Mage Tower in Star City were much more friendly than those in Youyue City. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin entered the Mage Tower very smoothly, passed by the players of Star City who were queuing up to do tasks, and entered the elevator with the guide's enthusiastic smile.

Ji Xuanyi sighed deeply and said, "It's better to have your own main city!"

Qi Qin nodded sympathetically.

There have been no activities recently, and the players of Star City seldom bothered August. Except for one or two newcomers who came to report for registration, Ji Xuanyi and the other two hardly had to wait in line and successfully entered August's house.

After not seeing each other for a few days, August became more enthusiastic. He made tea for the two of them and asked them what they wanted with a smile.

Ji Xuanyi glanced at August and was very suspicious whether Mrs. Harman had sent him a letter recently.

But this is the thing. Even if there really was a mission, Ji Xuanyi was in Youyue City for the past two days, so there was nothing he could do about it if he didn't make it.

Ji Xuanyi put all the mess behind him and said to August: "I went to Youyue City a few days ago and met the great magician of Youyue City, Madam Irene."

The name Irene was indeed a key word for August. The moment he heard it, he showed a very complicated expression.

Ji Xuanyi saw that there was something going on and immediately asked, "Do you have a bad relationship with her?"

August looked at Ji Xuanyi awkwardly, then shook his head and said, "No, it can't be said to be bad..."

He hesitated for a moment and said, "It's OK, but since everyone has different research directions in magic, it's normal to have some conflicts."

Ji Xuanyi was stunned. His first reaction was to ask what kind of magic they were researching. However, he thought that this question was only related to the setting and had no meaning, so he did not continue. Instead, he said, "I heard from Madam Irene that the three magic towers in the three main cities are cooperating on something. What exactly is this thing?"

August was surprised when he heard this. He said, "That Irene guy even told you this?"

He seemed to want to say something, but the words came to his lips and he swallowed them back. He looked at Ji Xuan for a while, and finally said in a puzzled manner: " No, no, no, kid, other things are fine, but I can't tell you this. It involves too many things, and it's not a good thing for you to know now. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and was about to ask again, but August said, " But you are my favorite child after all. There is one thing I can tell you. In this plan, you actually already know the content I am responsible for. "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned and asked, " What? "

August looked at him and shook his head, but was unwilling to say anything more.

Ji Xuan was speechless for a moment.

His guess was correct. August did give him a hint, but the hint was too vague. Did he already know it? He knew so many things about August! How could he tell what it was?

But August was a stubborn old man. Although he particularly favored Ji Xuanyi, he would never reveal anything he had decided not to say. In the end, Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to leave the Mage Tower with Qi Qin while repeatedly thinking about what August knew.

If this matter must unite the three great magicians, is the last clue in Daylight City? Then he can't go to Daylight City to ask questions. Even if they have no feelings about the friction between the two main cities and are willing to help him solve the problem, the players of Daylight City will not let them go! What's more, Daylight City is now in Zhaochen's hands ...

Wow, although I don't know what the old hatred is, the new hatred alone is enough for Zhaochen to find ways to retaliate against them.

Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to throw aside this clue that had no beginning or end and might be about the next big event.

There were other things waiting for him to do.

Although Xu Chu is not very reliable, he is a wealthy man after all, so the credibility of the information he told about his uncle's party is still very high. If nothing unexpected happens, the next small activity may really be a team copy.

Qi Qin's situation is more complicated , but as the main tank of the pioneering team , he also needs to practice his skills and instincts as a tank .

Team dungeons and squad dungeons are different.

There are only five people in the team dungeon, and the venue is large enough to move freely. With three DPS and one healer, it is no problem to slide on the ground and deliver damage. As a T , of course, you can do whatever is comfortable for you.

However, the maximum number of people in a team dungeon can be as few as ten or as many as fifty. Moreover, there is no such thing as video game penetration in holographic online games, so the venue becomes very crowded. Even the output needs to pay attention to its movement and position and cannot bump into teammates, not to mention the main tank .

Whether it is the direction of the boss or the distance between the boss and the main tank , there may be restrictions. As a " dodge tank" who can perform various actions , these restrictions undoubtedly increase the difficulty of carrying monsters for Qi Qin.

No matter what the mechanism of the next copy is, Qi Qin definitely needs to be educated on what he can and cannot do.

After finishing his daily tasks, Ji Xuanyi would take Qi Qin to the base in the inner city, and together with the PVE consultant invited by Xiao Xiaoyuxia, he would explain to Qi Qin the differences between team dungeons and squad dungeons.

That's right, Xiaoxiao Yuxia even specially invited a PVE consultant for this event!

In most games, the two groups of pvp players and pve players are separated very clearly and basically do not interfere with each other.

Pvp players kill people , pve players play dungeons, and the two sides have almost no interaction. If a pvp player suddenly has a brain attack and starts playing dungeons, or if a pve player suddenly goes crazy and starts killing people , it will become big news that attracts everyone's attention.

But there is no way. The game "Domain" has just started, and pvp and pve have not yet been differentiated. As the leading figures of Star City, although the leaders of the three major gangs define themselves as pvp gangs, they have to bite the bullet and get involved in the pure pve activities launched by the official .

The only problem is that among Xiaoxiao Yuxia's group of people, except Xu Chu who has some understanding of the dungeon because he has been the boss of the group in other games for a long time, the others don't even know which direction the door of the dungeon opens.

Xu Chu: " But my understanding of the dungeon is limited to knowing which way the door opens and that we need a commander. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi looked at the group of pure PVPs in front of him and couldn't help feeling confused.

Who am I? Where am I? What am I doing?

For the five-man dungeon, there is no need for coordination. As long as everyone's individual strength is strong enough, they can easily pass the level. However, for the team dungeon, individual strength is only icing on the cake. If the coordination is not good, they still have to fight. Moreover, not all the people that the three major gangs can gather have individual strength! For example, Jing and Liu, Xu and Xiao ...

If you count like this, there are no useful people at all!

Among this group of players, it seems that only Ji Xuanyi has played the dungeon seriously.

Even Mi Yin changes color when he hears about the dungeon!

In view of the fact that the PVE forces in the three major guilds are almost non-existent, Xiaoxiao Yuxia had no choice but to seek help from individual players.

Fortunately, there are thousands of talented people in the online gaming world, and Xiaoxiao Yuxia easily found two people who were said to be very good at PVE . They were called to the inner city stronghold and explained the general routines of the dungeon and things that might need attention to a group of PVPs every day.

Generally speaking, there is more than one way to solve the dungeon mechanism, and each commander has different ways of playing the dungeon. Calling on two commanders to explain the dungeon mechanism at the same time can easily lead to disagreements and contradictions, resulting in a situation where you get half the result with twice the effort.

So when Ji Xuanyi knew that Xiaoxiao Yuxia had invited two PVE commanders to provide guidance at the same time, he was quite puzzled. It was not until he saw the two commanders with his own eyes that he understood why Xiaoxiao Yuxia was so excited when she first told him that there were two commanders.

These two pve commanders are actually twin brothers!

" Fuck, that's awesome ..." Jian Xi Xin Jiu couldn't help but look at the twins a few more times and said, " This is the first time I've seen twins alive in my life! "

These two people look exactly the same, even their height, weight and body shape are exactly the same, as if they were copied and pasted!

The twins had obviously seen this kind of exaggerated reaction many times. They looked at Jian Xi Xin Jiu with a smile on their faces. They didn't seem to be offended at all. Instead, they seemed to be showing off. The two brothers winked at Jian Xi Xin Jiu at the same time and said in unison: " Isn't that awesome? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu started yelling again, and the look in his eyes when he saw the twins was a little strange. Xu Chu quickly blocked him behind him and said vigilantly: " Threesomes will be censored, don't make mistakes, Jian Xi Xin Jiu! "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

Does he look that horny?!

On the first day the twins came to teach, almost no one cared about the copy. They all gathered around these two people, making a fuss.

It's not their fault. Twins are rare, and those who are as tacit as this pair are even rarer. Even Qi Qin was a little surprised and couldn't help but look at the two of them frequently. He seemed very curious, as if he had a lot of questions to ask.

It seemed that among so many people, Ji Xuanyi was the only one who seemed to have no interest in those two people.

Qi Qin noticed this and thought that his attention was distracted and Ji Xuanyi was unhappy, so he quickly approached to ask what was going on. Unexpectedly, Ji Xuanyi did not lose his temper. Instead, he looked at him strangely and asked, " Are twins rare? "

Qi Qin didn't know why he asked that, but after thinking about it, he nodded honestly.

Ji Xuanyi looked at him for a while, and instead of getting angry, he actually smiled. But it only lasted for a second, and then Ji Xuanyi returned to his expressionless look and said , " Oh ."

Qi Qin felt something was wrong and couldn't help asking: " What does Xuan Yi mean? What's wrong with you? "

Ji Xuanyi pursed his lips and said with a smile that seemed to be unable to hold back: " I remember the first time I saw you, I thought you were the twin brother of Qi Qin. "

Although not, it's almost the same. Judging from the degree of overlap in the two people's appearance and experiences, Ji Xuanyi actually suspected that they were the same person in two different worlds, but their personalities had changed because of their different growing environments.

But there is no point in thinking about these things now. Qi Qin is the Qi Qin in front of him, the Qi Qin he likes.

So in the end, Qi Qin still didn't understand what was going on with that weird feeling in his heart, but getting a kiss from Ji Xuanyi was not a loss at all.

After everyone became familiar with the twins, science popularization got on track.

The IDs of the two twins are also very annoying. One is called Ritian and the other is called Yuetian. At first glance, they look completely indistinguishable. People who add both of them as friends at the same time are simply screwed. They can't even find the right person for private chat or letter sending.

The only difference between the two people is probably their professions. Ritian is the older brother and his profession is a priest, while Yuetian is the younger brother and his profession is a swordsman. Both are indispensable professions in PVE .

There is a reason why these two people are called very awesome commanders in PVE . They have very good understanding with each other. The younger brother Yuetian is the main commander. He mainly observes the boss 's skill mechanism and directs players to respond in advance, while the older brother Ritian is the deputy commander. He mainly observes the team's blood line and is responsible for averaging the treatment amount of the nurses in the team to prevent some people in the team from overflowing with treatment while others are directly left to die.

There is almost no difference between the two people's voices, and their words don't collide with each other or interrupt each other. They give commands just like one person.

In fact, two people, two pairs of eyes, can see, hear, and think much more than one person. The combination of these two people is also well-known in the PVE world of other games. People who have followed their team have said that as long as they have ears and can understand the commands, they don't need to use their brains to play with this pair of commanders, they just need to be obedient.

how awesome this pair of brothers are in the PVE world, they would have to scratch their heads when they met Xiao Xiao Yu Xia and a group of pure PVP players .

" Generally speaking, even if we want to explain the mechanism, we can only do so after the development is complete and the gameplay has been basically figured out, " said my brother Ritian, looking confused after hearing Xiaoxiao Yuxia's request. " Now we don't even know what the dungeon looks like or which way the gate opens, what are we going to explain? " Xiaoxiao Yuxia had never thought about this question. He had never played this game before. When asked this question, he could only look at Xu Chu.

Xu Chu said: " Why are you looking at me? I just lay down on the ground after paying the money. I know nothing. "

Xiao Xiaoyu had no choice but to look to the almighty Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi was speechless and said, " Look at me? Is it useful to look at me? "

However, despite saying so, Ji Xuanyi still took over the conversation and said to Ri Tiandao: " What needs to be popularized now is not the mechanism. The next activity may be about the dungeon. Right now, almost only the people in the three major guilds know about it. What we want is to organize a team that can open up the land before the activity starts – select people from the three major guilds. "

Ji Xuanyi emphasized the last sentence.

Although there were no competitive rewards in this event, Fanxing City had just taken the top spot. Even for the sake of face, it had to become the main city that got first place. For this reason, Xiaoxiao Yuxia and others unanimously rejected the plan to join forces with Youyue City.

It's no use joining forces to get the first armor. You have to rely on your own strength to get it! When Ritian and Yuetian heard Ji Xuanyi's words, they both showed an expression of "you're kidding me".

The pioneering team! You want us to choose from the pvp guild?!

Ji Xuanyi also found it incredible, but he still forced himself to remain calm and said, " Right now, the PVP and PVE of this game have not yet been differentiated, and the equipment is not much different. It is still possible to select people from the PVP guild to set up a pioneering group. "

Ritian and Yuetian looked at each other, and Yuetian said, " Equipment is not a problem. Insufficient DPS or HPS are minor issues. What a pioneering team needs is tacit understanding and patience, and tacit understanding is something that needs to be cultivated. "

Xu Chu immediately said: " We have this kind of tacit understanding! We are brothers who have been through life and death many times, right Liu Tian? "

Liu Tian was eating his fruit plate with great grunt and didn't hear anything.

Xuchu: "... Isn't that right, you idiot? "

Liu Tian immediately raised his head, looked at Xu Chu warily, and replied: " You are the idiot, the big idiot! "

Twin brothers: "..."

There is still a long way to go !

Forget about tacit understanding, everyone can listen to the command and can passively synchronize, but patience is very important. Do people with patience still play pvp ? People who can play pvp are basically grumpy guys. Except for Miyin and Xuepiaorenjian, a pair of teammates in the arena who have experienced the torture of gaining points, other people basically have no patience.

Even though they were twin brothers, they couldn't help but sigh heavily when they saw the group of people in front of them.

Even Ji Xuanyi wanted to say to Xiao Xiaoyu, why don't you just give up and leave the PVE matters to the PVEs .

But Xiaoxiao Yuxia and others were very determined to go through this muddy water. No matter what they said, Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to let them go.

To build a team, you must first start by selecting people. Because we don't know what the final maximum number of people will be when the dungeon comes out, so we can only select as many people as possible, at least fifty people.

" I think it's easy to choose, " Jing Yunhan said, " Look, there are more than ten people in our group alone. Wouldn't it be enough if we each find someone we think is reliable? "

Ji Xuanyi made a stop gesture and said expressionlessly: " Sorry, Jing Yunhan and Liutian are not included without us. "

Jing Yunhan and Liu Tian were immediately dissatisfied and asked: " Why? "

This sentence can be said to be said in unison, the two people's expressions and movements are exactly the same, Ritian and Yuetian clapped their hands at the same time and said: " This kind of tacit understanding is very good, it can surpass the two of us. "

Ji Xuanyi glanced at them and said, " There is a difference between playing the game in unison and being stupid in unison. "

Liu Tian and Jing Yunhan's simultaneous stupidity can drive everyone crazy, especially in the dungeon.

The twin brothers were silent.

Jing Yunhan and Liu Tian expressed their dissatisfaction with Ji Xuanyi's prejudice, but no one spoke for them, so the two were kicked out of the team with hatred.

However, Liu Tian was obviously unwilling to be eliminated like this, and he was determined to drag someone down with him. He pointed at Xu Chu and said, " What about this person! Not only is he a wimp, he's also a coward. Would you still take on such a person? "

Seeing Ji Xuanyi 's hesitation , Xu Chu quickly said, " Hey! I brought money into the group! I paid for the commander! "

The twin brothers also ran to Xu Chu in a very servile manner, sat down beside him for six days, and called him "boss" all the time, fawning him without any dignity at all.

Ji Xuanyi: "... whatever you want. "

Lian Xuchu was included in the group, so the subsequent member requirements became much more relaxed. In addition to Ji Xuanyi's several friends from Green Forest City, more than 30 players with outstanding PVP abilities were selected from the three major guilds to barely form a team.

The only problem encountered was with Mi Yin.

Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian can be said to have a tacit understanding, patience, and personal abilities. They have everything they want, but for some reason Mi Yin is very resistant to playing a dungeon. On the contrary, Xue Piao Renjian even said that he had experience in playing a dungeon before, and it was a mainstream dungeon that was famous for its high difficulty in a certain game.

" I went there because I heard I could make money there, " Xue Piao Renjian explained calmly, " but it was too dark, so I didn't go. "

At that time, Xue Piao Renjian heard that he could make money by playing the dungeon, so he went to play it. However, after playing for more than seven hours, no good equipment was dropped. The money he earned was not enough to buy game cards, let alone repair equipment. Xue Piao Renjian felt cheated and never touched the dungeon again.

Mi Yin's story is even simpler.

He got lost in the dungeon when he first entered it.

That's right, get lost.

That was the first time that Mi Yin got lost in all his life. His teammates were clearly not far away , but he just couldn't find the way to get there. More than 20 people waited for him for half an hour. At the urging of his teammates, Mi Yin, who felt what it was like to be lost for the first time, left the team in a panic. From then on, he was traumatized and never entered the dungeon again ...

When Mi Yin talked about this, there was a look of fear on his face, as if he was not lost but had seen a ghost.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

As long as you are happy.

Finally, after persuading Xue Piao Renjian, he also persuaded Mi Yin, and this PVE pioneering team composed of strange PVP players was finally completed.

At that moment, Ji Xuanyi seemed to see his own ending.

He will probably die young!

But a more interesting thing is that Qi Qin was originally placed in the main tank position by Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others, but after the twins saw Qi Qin's equipment and DPS , they said that it was a waste for Qi Qin to be a tank . They could gather together a few pieces of T equipment, and then let the younger twin brother Yuetian be the T , and Qi Qin could just concentrate on output.

The artifact that Qi Qinxin got can be said to be of great use. Compared with Ji Xuanyi's Soul Staff and Xu Chu's Assassin's Dagger, the artifact special effect of the Sword of Ares is actually not that conspicuous. It just has a passive defense-breaking special effect with no CD .

This special effect is that after each attack, the target will be given a 50% defense-breaking effect that lasts for ten minutes, which can be stacked up to six layers. That is to say, when Qi Qin uses this sword to attack the opponent for the seventh time, his damage will be three times the initial normal damage.

This special effect is not particularly useful for Qi Qin. After all, according to Qi Qin's current attributes, most people will be killed after three cuts from him . This special effect can only shorten three cuts to two, and it is not a particularly powerful auxiliary.

But the difference from the other two artifacts is that the effect of the Sword of Ares can be applied to everyone, that is to say, the boss is also affected by this defense-breaking special effect, but this effect is only limited to Qi Qin alone, and other people cannot benefit from the triple output effect, which is a pity.

But it is normal. If everyone can benefit from this special effect, it will basically reduce the boss's health to one third, and the boss will not have any gaming experience at all.

Ji Xuanyi had no objection to Qi Qin's change from T to DPS . No matter what position Qi Qin played, as long as he joined in, Ji Xuanyi would definitely follow.

Instead, the two brothers welcomed Ji Xuanyi's joining.

It is very easy to encounter situations in the dungeon that require certain special professions. They originally wanted to assemble all seven professions and were worrying about where to find a warlock. Unexpectedly, Ji Xuanyi solved this problem.

The most important point is that Ji Xuanyi has played dungeons before, so the two brothers don't need to spend any more time telling Ji Xuanyi what needs to be done and what does not need to be done.

However, although Ji Xuanyi escaped the twin brothers' small class, the other selected players did not. Those who were tested on output were tested on output, those who were tested on treatment were tested on treatment, and there was also the twin brothers' small PVE lecture. A group of people who were used to fighting and killing others in PVP , they were so confused about what they could not do and what they could not touch that they were overwhelmed.

This went on for three days. Xiaoxiao Yuxiali began to regret the big talk he had said. He wanted to get the first armor in any copy. He didn't want it at all!

However, as one of the leaders of the three major gangs, and the one who always makes the final decision, it is really unbecoming for him to go back on his word. Even if Xiaoxiao Yuxia regrets it so much, he can only put on a smile and act nonchalant, telling everyone that he can do it, he is not an ordinary person.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

You guys just do it!

However, Jing Yunhan and Liu Tian, who were kicked out of the pioneering team early on, said that it was a good thing that Ji Xuanyi did not let them into the team. Looking at these people, each of them had a pale face, as if their yang energy had been sucked dry. Both of them were secretly glad in their hearts.

More than a month has passed like this, and the update announcement for the new event is finally coming out. Everyone is waiting with bated breath. The tormented Xiaoxiao Yuxia says that if this event is not a pve copy, he will show everyone how to eat Xu Chu alive!

Xu Chu: "..."

If this event was not a PVE copy, not only would Xiaoxiao Yuxia want to eat him alive, he would also eat alive the uncle party who leaked the news to him!

Fortunately, Xu Chu managed to save his life in the end. The players from the three major guilds' pioneering groups welcomed the new event with half relief and half fear.

[Sprint! The last hope of the world line, save the element town!]

The name of the event update is long, but it also clearly expresses the purpose of this event, which is to give a last chance to those players in the server whose world line goes to the be ending and all five elemental towns fall into the hands of the evil god due to civil war or mistakes in the world event mission.

By clearing a team dungeon consisting of five small town bosses , you can reverse the world line, change the be ending back to a he , and welcome back those who left!

As soon as this news came out, all the players whose world lines were in be were excited, and everyone asked for a quick update, as they couldn't wait to complete the dungeon!

However, there are also players in the HE world line who said that everything in their world line is fine, so how should they play this activity?

The official has certainly thought of this. Regardless of whether it is the he world line or the be world line, the copy will be opened in the form of memories. Even players in the he world line can go back to the original time and personally repel the boss who threatens the elemental town .

After the event ends, this copy will also be a permanent copy and will always be open to players. However, since it is an event, it must be different from the normal copy clearance.

During the event, the equipment and experience drops after defeating the boss will be twice as much as normal, the rewards for clearing five armors will also be doubled, and if the player is lucky enough, some mysterious items may also drop in the dungeons during the event. Maybe you don't know how to use it now, but in the near future, these items will definitely play unimaginable roles.

After reading the announcement, Ji Xuanyi was completely unmoved by the mention of doubling the reward. He only cared about one thing.

What are the mysterious items and how do they relate to future events?

Now, even if Qi Qin doesn't join the pioneering team, Ji Xuanyi must go into the dungeon to take a look.

However, this activity was not opened as quickly as Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others had imagined. Instead, it was not officially updated until a full month after the announcement. boss level in this dungeon is level 67, and the threshold to enter the dungeon is level 64. The extra month is actually for players to level up.

Many players don't quite understand what the official means by this. Why are there sudden level restrictions on the activity? Even if it is a dungeon, it is okay for players who are not at a high enough level to enter and travel.

But Ji Xuanyi, who knew the current level cap of the game, completely understood why.

This is the last activity before reaching the maximum level in this game, and it is also a springboard for players to reach the maximum level, allowing players to easily obtain equipment for the last time.

If I'm not mistaken, after this event ends, the official will announce the level cap, followed by overwhelming daily activities at the maximum level, including new maximum level dungeons and the arena that Mi Yin and the others have been looking forward to for a long time.

But one thing that puzzled Ji Xuanyi was that if the authorities really arranged it this way, then what about the intelligence he had obtained from Irene and August? Two important actions confirmed at the same time could definitely not be false news.

This activity is very likely to affect the entire world background, where does the official plan to place it?

The author has something to say: Ji Xuanyi: My head hurts

Chapter 139

Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others studied the PVE precautions for a month, but they didn't find out until the announcement that the first condition they needed to meet was actually the level! A group of people had no choice but to run around the map to complete the tasks , and they were so busy that their feet hit their heads.

Compared to Xiaoxiao Yuxia, Xu Chu and others who were in a hurry and couldn't keep up with the pace of upgrading , Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were much more relaxed.

the world boss event, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin gained a lot of experience . In the following month, the two of them often used completing missions as an excuse to go out and enjoy their own world. Although they didn't take it too seriously, they did complete a lot of missions.

While this group of people under Xiao Xiao Yu had just passed level 60 and were still moving towards level 61 , Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin had already reached level 63.

There is still one month left . Even if Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin only go online every day to drink tea at August's place, they can still reach level 64 before the event.

I don't know if it's because of their level and they feel confident, but while Xiaoxiao Yuxia was busy , she also noticed that Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin seemed to be online less frequently recently.

Is it because the same old tasks before the event start are too boring?

I have to say that Xiaoxiao Yuxia thought too much. Although Ji Xuanyi used to be a pvp cancer , it doesn't mean that he only likes fighting and exciting game methods . When he has nothing to do, he also enjoys hanging out with friends and watching the scenery.

The reason why the number of online visits has decreased during this period is simply because there are more troubles offline, and they are all piled up together. Even Ji Xuanyi is overwhelmed and can't separate himself.

Ji Xuanyi was promoted to a junior this semester. Although he was not worried about internship, he had to start preparing for his graduation thesis. Ji Xuanyi had already prepared himself mentally for being busy with such things. Unfortunately, the landlord who rented the house to him suddenly said that his relative's son would also come here to attend college, so the landlord could not renew the lease after the expiration of the lease agreed with Ji Xuanyi, and the house had to be vacated for his relative's son.

In fact, there was only one month left in the contract signed by Ji Xuanyi and the landlord, which meant that Ji Xuanyi had to find the next rental house within this month. But before Ji Xuanyi could catch his breath, the school's professional teacher suddenly got angry and assigned several assignments in a row.

Originally, Ji Xuanyi was not unable to cope with all these messy things. He had a good ability to withstand pressure. It was the last thing that ruined him.

Ji Xuanyi's family contacted him.

Although Ji Xuanyi said that he had a falling out with his family, in fact he did not completely cut off contact with them. Everyone had each other's phone number, so it was easy to say a few words to each other. After such a long time, Ji Xuanyi had actually calmed down a little. It was impossible to say that he didn't miss his family at all. Although he had no intention of giving in, Ji Xuanyi was also prepared to communicate with them in a good tone.

However, Ji Xuanyi had not expected that the first sentence of his family, whom he had not contacted for a long time, called him and asked him arrogantly whether he regretted his decision. Ji Xuanyi's anger, which had been dormant for half a year, suddenly erupted, and he exploded like a firework. He had a lot of curse words in his mouth, but he didn't say them in the end and just hung up the phone.

Although this phone call did not cause any actual trouble to Ji Xuanyi, it directly broke down Ji Xuanyi's mentality. In the explosive state, Ji Xuanyi had no ability to think or handle things except the desire to destroy. In his eyes, the piled-up things instantly changed from " small problems that I can handle " to " get out of here, fuck you " .

Ji Xuanyi's brain was completely frozen, and he couldn't even remember that there was a game he hadn't logged into for a long time.

Ji Xuanyi never brought such offline matters online, so he did not tell Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others during the few times he went online.

In fact, it wouldn't matter if he didn't tell Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others, after all, they were not related to Ji Xuanyi. But Ji Xuanyi forgot that she had a boyfriend without paying attention.

Qi Qin knew nothing and was left out by Ji Xuanyi for three days. When he called him, Ji Xuanyi seemed absent-minded, which made Qi Qin toss and turn, feeling uneasy, fearing that Ji Xuanyi was unhappy again.

On the fourth day that Ji Xuanyi hadn't contacted him, Qi Qin couldn't help but take a bus and went to Ji Xuanyi's house.

The old residential building where Ji Xuanyi rented looked even more shabby than before. Qi Qin looked up at the floor where Ji Xuanyi lived, sighed softly, resignedly stretched out his long legs, and began to climb the stairs.

After a while, Qi Qin arrived at Ji Xuanyi's door. Although he had prepared himself mentally before coming, he felt a little guilty when he thought about facing Ji Xuanyi, who was in an unknown state.

But feeling guilty couldn't solve the problem. Qi Qin hesitated for a while, then nervously knocked on the familiar security door in front of him, and whispered, "Xuan Yi, Xuan Yi, are you there?"

No response.

Qi Qin swallowed and repeated the same action twice, but there was no sound at all.

Ji Xuanyi might be sleeping again, but this time Qi Qin would not be like last time, where he could only squat on the mat at the door like a big dog, with the key to Ji Xuan's family in his hand.

Qi Qin took out the brand new key from his pocket and rubbed the sweat on his sweaty palms on the clothes he was wearing, which he had no idea how much money he spent on them. Then he carefully inserted the key into the keyhole and turned it gently. He heard the crisp sound of the door lock opening.

"Um, Xuanyi, am I coming in?" Qi Qin said in a low voice and pushed open the door.

Ji Xuanyi's house, which was originally not very big, was in a mess, with clothes and garbage piled together. It looked as if it had just experienced a typhoon. No matter how Qi Qin looked at it, he felt that the road ahead was dangerous.

The last time he came, Ji Xuan's family was not like this. Something must have happened.

Qi Qin closed the door and walked and cleaned up as he arrived at Ji Xuanyi's bedroom door. He awkwardly put the messy things in his hands aside and then opened the door of Ji Xuanyi's bedroom.

Ji Xuanyi was indeed sleeping, and sleeping very soundly. He did not even react when someone sneaked into the room. His whole body was buried in the quilt, with only half of his face exposed. His brows were slightly wrinkled, his face was pale, and there was a dark circle under his eyes. He looked very fragile.

When Qi Qin saw his appearance, his heart broke. He didn't understand why Ji Xuanyi suddenly became like this in just a few days.

Qi Qin was originally feeling a little guilty for entering Ji Xuanyi's room without permission, and he walked with his hands and feet trembling. But when he saw Ji Xuanyi like this, he suddenly became normal, walked quickly to Ji Xuanyi's bed, and squatted down carefully.

Qi Qin was very tall, and when he curled up completely, he looked particularly aggrieved. He moved closer to Ji Xuanyi and touched Ji Xuanyi's temple with his thumb.

Logically, Ji Xuanyi should not be able to wake up, but for some reason, when Qi Qin touched him, Ji Xuanyi opened his eyes a little. He tried to identify it and recognized it was Qi Qin, so he closed his eyes again and said in a hoarse voice, "Why are you here? What time is it?"

Qi Qin didn't know where to start, so he just said, " 11:30. "

" Yes, " Ji Xuanyi responded softly, and said, " I'll sleep a little longer. Wake me up at two o'clock. "

After saying this, he fell into a deep sleep again.

Ji Xuanyi looked really tired. Qi Qin felt sorry for him so he didn't call him. He climbed up from Ji Xuanyi's bed without making any sound and began to clean the room for Ji Xuanyi without complaint.

Ji Xuanyi has been getting more and more irritable since he received the call from home. Last night he stayed up all night doing homework, looking for a house and checking information for his graduation thesis. He was so exhausted that he didn't lie down until after seven in the morning. That's why he was so listless when Qi Qin came.

By two o'clock in the afternoon, when Ji Xuanyi was woken up by Qi Qin in a daze, the house had been almost cleaned up by Qi Qin in a clumsy way, and even the meal was cooked.

Ji Xuan looked at Qi Qin, who was wearing an apron in front of him, in a daze and bewilderment, and inappropriately imagined the scene in which Qi Qin shyly asked him whether to eat first or to eat him first.

However, Qi Qin would not be so shameless. When she saw Ji Xuanyi's eyes, her first reaction was to blush. She hurriedly took off her apron and asked stutteringly: " Xuan, Xuanyi, do you want to eat? "

At least one second before going to sleep, Ji Xuanyi was still in a state of volcanic eruption. However, as soon as he saw Qi Qin, Ji Xuanyi calmed down as if he had taken a big gulp of ice soda.

Ji Xuanyi used his brain, which seemed like a paste, to react for a moment, and then calmly opened his hands towards Qi Qin.

Qi Qin was stunned, then her face turned red. She threw her apron aside, bent down, and picked up Ji Xuanyi along with the quilt.

Ji Xuanyi, who just wanted to give a hug and a kiss: "..."

Ji Xuanyi was suddenly sobered up by Qi Qin's hug. The desire for tenderness just now disappeared. He pushed Qi Qin's shoulder with a frown, kicked him through the quilt, and said, " Put me down! "

Ji Xuanyi was after all a 1.80-meter-tall man, so he was quite heavy. Qi Qin was shaken by his struggle and quickly put him back on the bed, fearing that he would fall.

Ji Xuanyi pushed him away, sat on the bed, pushed his feet into his slippers, and said, " Why are you here? And you cooked? "

After saying this, he muttered in a speechless voice: " I thought I was dreaming. "

Qi Qin saw that he had put on his slippers backwards and was trying to stand up unconsciously, so he quickly squatted down and changed his shoes. He said, " Xuan Yi hasn't contacted me for a long time, and he hasn't played games. He seemed absent-minded when he called me. I was a little worried, so-- "

Qi Qin said, and raised his head, and found that Ji Xuanyi was looking straight at him, with a light flashing in his eyes. He was choked up all of a sudden, not knowing what he wanted to say, and stammered: " So, so ..."

" If you don't want to come out, then forget it. " Ji Xuanyi said, leaning forward, hugging Qi Qin's head, and kissing him on the forehead.

Qi Qin was confused, Ji Xuan smiled and said: " Get out of the way, you haven't brushed your teeth yet, brush your teeth and then brush another one. "

Qi Qin reacted and almost crawled to make way for Ji Xuanyi. He sat pitifully and shyly beside Ji Xuanyi's bed like a big dog, waiting for him to come back after washing up so that he could give him another kiss.

However, after the sound of water splashing in the bathroom , Ji Xuanyi did not enter the bedroom, but went directly to the living room to eat. Qi Qin waited in the bedroom for a long time but Ji Xuanyi did not come in. Finally, he had to take the apron that had been rolled into a ball and walked out of the bedroom disappointedly.

Qi Qin knew that Ji Xuan liked to eat noodles after he got up, so he cooked them for him in time and added two runny eggs. Ji Xuan was very satisfied with the meal and didn't notice how different he was from himself seven hours ago.

Qi Qin was also a little puzzled. He was sure that something must have happened to Ji Xuanyi, but now it seemed that nothing was different from usual.

After Ji Xuanyi finished eating and washing the dishes, Qi Qin asked cautiously: " Xuanyi, what happened? "

When Ji Xuanyi heard this, he subconsciously wanted to complain to Qi Qin, but after organizing his words, he realized that those things didn't seem particularly annoying and could be solved. He was puzzled for a long time. Facing Qi Qin's worried eyes, Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to say, " Nothing, it's just a bunch of miscellaneous things that came together, and I'm a little irritated. "

Qi Qin was a little confused. He was ready to face Ji Xuanyi's fire-breathing dinosaur state, but he didn't expect that the other party had no intention of exploding at all and seemed quite calm. What was going on?

The two of them stared at each other for a while, and Ji Xuanyi couldn't stand it anymore and spoke first.

He scratched his still-standing hair and said, " It's nothing else, the main thing is that the lease of this house can't be renewed, and I need to find another place to live, which is quite troublesome. "

Although Qi Qin was stupid, he was particularly smart in some ways when facing Ji Xuanyi. He immediately said, " My house is empty! Xuanyi, do you want to live in my house? "

Ji Xuanyi looked at him speechlessly for a while, then said, " Brother, your family is in the next city, can I go to school? "

Qi Qin finally reacted and showed a somewhat lost expression.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " But the main reason I couldn't find a house is because of the rent. Houses for one person are either too small or too expensive. If you think the scenery here is nice ..."

Qi Qin didn't understand and stared at Ji Xuanyi blankly.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " You are not smart again now? If you have nothing to do at home, you can rent a room with me here, and you don't have to run around all the time. "

After saying that, Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and then said, " But I have to tell my uncle and aunt, if they miss you and still want you to live there, I'd better go find a house myself. "

Upon hearing this, Qi Qin immediately said, " No, no, my parents support me moving out! "

Father and Mother Qi, please stop caring too much about Qi Qin's relationship issues! Recently, when teaching him, they began to ask him indirectly why they haven't seen each other for so long even though they have started dating. What? Game? Can meeting in the game be considered meeting? Even holographic video is not allowed! Can we kiss, touch, and applaud? Qi Qin was scolded by his father and mother at home until his face turned red and he couldn't even open his mouth.

If she could live with Ji Xuan, not to mention the opposition, Qi's father and mother would be so happy that they could not contain themselves!

Qi Qin said so. Although Ji Xuanyi was a little skeptical, he didn't say anything and just let him make his own decision.

After discussing the renting of an apartment, Ji Xuanyi turned on his computer and started working. Qi Qin moved a small stool, sat next to Ji Xuanyi, and asked, " Xuanyi, is there anything else I can help you with? "

When Ji Xuan heard this, he glanced at him and said, " I'm doing my homework, would you like to take a look at the house? "

Qi Qin didn't know how to do this, and immediately showed a nervous expression, which made Ji Xuanyi laugh. He said, " I know you don't know how to do this, I was just kidding. "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " You don't have to do anything, just stay with me. " With you here, I can feel at ease.

Ji Xuanyi calmed down, but he still had to do what he had to do. Fortunately, his family didn't call him strangely or make him angry again. Ji Xuanyi finally handed in his homework smoothly and found a house with Qi Qin.

After Qi Qin came to find Ji Xuanyi that day, he simply did not leave and continued to live with Ji Xuanyi, planning to help Ji Xuanyi move after finding a house.

After Qi Qin came to Ji Xuan's family, the life skills that Qi's mother taught him played a huge role. Ji Xuanyi's daily routine became regular along with Qi Qin's. Except for the fact that Qi Qin refused to sleep with Ji Xuanyi because she was afraid that he would do something strange, Ji Xuanyi's life during this period can be said to be very perfect.

Not long after, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin moved out of the old residential building and moved into a new house.

To be honest, the area of this new house and its decoration specifications do not actually meet Ji Xuanyi's current consumption level, but its rent is really outrageously low. When Ji Xuanyi saw it in rental advertisements countless times, he firmly believed that it was a false advertisement posted by a liar, until he found out that the owner's name was the same as Qi Qin's father's.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Well, the father-in-law has gone to such lengths that the only thing left is to stick the advertisement in his face. Ji Xuanyi really doesn't want to refuse the old man's kindness, so he finally takes Qi Qin with him and moves in, pretending that he knows nothing.

Ji Xuanyi, who had some free time, spent a lot of time dating Qi Qin. At the same time, he finally remembered that there were still things waiting for him to do in the game.

At this time, there is only one week left before the copy is opened.

The team dungeon is about to be opened, but Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin's level is still at level 63.

Xiao Xiaoyuxia, who has worked hard to reach level 64, is so anxious that she is about to get acne on her face. She talks about Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin in the offline group every day.

However, Ji Xuan had blocked the group a long time ago, so he couldn't see it at all. Qi Qin didn't block it and read the message as well. However, every time he wanted to talk to Ji Xuan about the game, he would be distracted by Ji Xuan's flirting. After a while, they would forget about the matter. It was not until the official promotional advertisements were posted on the streets that the two of them remembered that such a thing had happened. They hurried back home, opened the dusty game cabin, and climbed into the game.

I have to say, being in the real world makes people feel like a loser!

Ji Xuanyi logged into the game after a long absence and almost forgot where he had logged off before. It was not until Qi Qin climbed up that Ji Xuanyi remembered that he was in the Mage Tower.

He had just received the news about the homework at that time, and was planning to go online every day to drink some tea and reach level 64. Unexpectedly, something went wrong in the middle, and he has not been able to come online since then. After a long time, he forgot about it. Qi Qin obviously remembered it too, and looked around the empty area, wondering, " Why does it seem like there's no one here? "

In the past, there was always a large group of players queuing up to enter the Mage Tower. But this time, after he and Ji Xuanyi came online, there was no team or even a single person around. What happened? Did something happen when he and Ji Xuanyi were away?

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " Nothing should have happened. If anything had happened, Xiaoxiao Yuxia would have told us immediately. There are few people in the Mage Tower. It may be because the dungeon is about to open, so everyone is working hard to upgrade. "

Qi Qin glanced at Ji Xuanyi and seemed to be hesitant to speak.

If there is any news, Xiaoxiao Yuxia would like to tell you. Please remove the block on the offline group!

However, Ji Xuanyi did say something right by accident. The Mage Tower was suddenly deserted because everyone was working hard to level up.

Not everyone is like Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, who reached level 63 before the event started. Most of the players on the server are like Xiao Xiao Yuxia and the others, who were only level 60 or 61 before the announcement was released. Players like Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin who are level 63 are already close to the top of the pyramid.

There is only one week left before the event opens, and everyone is working hard to level up. Those who are not at level 64 are all aiming for level 64, and those who have reached level 64 think that dungeons may be easier to play at a higher level, so they are rushing to a higher level.

Who has time to go to the Mage Tower and chat nonsense, as August won't give them any experience points.

The reason why Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin would appear in the Mage Tower was because August would give them experience points ...

Let's not talk about this kind of thing. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin went up the tower and drank a cup of tea with August. Then they went to do the task in the private chat urged by Xiaoxiao Yuxia belatedly. There were only seven days left, so they had to catch up on the progress.

On the day the event was opened, although the players were not forced to refresh back to the main city like before, when Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin went online, they saw a sea of people.

Players gathered together in a crowded place, shouting at the top of their lungs, refreshing the map and world channels. Everyone was calling out for a team, intending to rush into the newly opened event as soon as possible.

However, even in the world channel where all players are mixed, the three main cities are clearly distinguished from each other. Whether it is an advertisement for recruiting people or looking for a team, basically the first sentence describes one's main city, followed by occupation and attributes.

It is obvious that not only the leaders of the three main cities, but also individual players, do not want to cooperate with players from other main cities to conquer the dungeon.

Anyway, the world line of the second server is HE , and they are not in a hurry to get back like other servers, so they don't force themselves to deal with people from the other two main cities. However, what made Xiaoxiao Yuxia and others laugh and cry was that some PVE teams that were once famous in other games specifically marked in their recruitment advertisements that they only wanted experienced PVE players, which caused many PVP players to develop a rebellious mentality. The map channel began to intensively appear with recruitment advertisements for the new wasteland that only required experienced PVP players to join.

It seems that Xiaoxiao Yuxia is not the only one who wants to challenge PVP . The curiosity of the majority of players is still very strong.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin did not hesitate for long, as they immediately added the two to the team. Ji Xuan took a look and saw only twenty-five people.

" Is this a copy for 25 people? " Ji Xuanyi asked in the team channel.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " Yes, don't you know? "

Of course I don't know. Recently, Ji Xuanyi has been leveling up in the game and flirting with Qi Qin outside the game. He has never visited the forum or the official website of the game. It can be said that he knows nothing about the upcoming event copy.

But Ji Xuanyi certainly would not admit that he was so obsessed with beauty (?) that he forgot everything. He just calmly replied: " Well, I was too busy offline, and I was only focused on upgrading online, so I didn't learn about it. "

Qi Qin was also in the team. When he heard Ji Xuanyi's words, he couldn't help but lower his head and laughed.

Ji Xuan raised his leg and kicked him, and Qi Qin quickly held back his laughter.

The excuse of having too many things to do offline is still easy to resonate with. Xiaoxiao Yuxia immediately believed it and said sympathetically: " It is really annoying to be busy. No wonder you haven't been online for a while before. "

Ji Xuanyi was too embarrassed to say that he was only annoyed for three days and spent the rest of the time on dating, so he just dealt with it with hmm and aah, and urged Xiaoxiao Yuxia to quickly explain the mechanism of the activity.

The dungeon will be open in ten minutes, so Xiao Xiao Yu Xia didn't waste any time and said directly: " I won't talk about the event benefits mentioned in the first wave of announcements. Let's talk about the dungeon directly. "

Because the original gimmick of this game was the large map and the lack of portals, there would certainly not be a teleportation point specifically opened for the dungeon now.

According to the official statement, this copy is about things that happen in memories, achieving a happy ending, and helping players on certain servers to return, which is also an additional plot. In Ji Xuanyi's server, there is no additional plot, and the copy setting is much simpler.

Three mysterious warlocks appeared in the central squares of the three main cities. They have the power to connect the dreams of different people. If the player wants to change the scenes in his memory but is troubled by the fact that one person's power is too weak, he can team up with friends and have the captain talk to the mysterious warlock. It only costs one gold coin. After the captain drinks the wine he gets, he can bring all team members into his dream and defeat the monsters in the dream.

It sounds nice, but in fact it is just a different method of teleportation, the same trick as the entrance and exit of the five-person second-level city dungeon that was opened at level 37 or 38. Xiao Xiao Yu Xia was not interested in this official information and said, " But this information is all fake and meaningless. It's just the official setting to make it clear. The situation in the dungeon was only briefly mentioned, saying that there are six bosses . "

" Six? " Ji Xuanyi was stunned: " Aren't there only five element towns in total? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " Who says it's not true? The more reliable theory in the forum right now is that the sixth boss may be a nightmare-like setting, and may be related to the Be world line. "

Ji Xuanyi also felt that this speculation was reliable, but if it was true, then it had nothing to do with them. The sixth boss was just one more drop for them.

Ji Xuanyi said: " Didn't you tell me the specific characteristics of each boss ? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia replied: " No, but according to the nature of this game, I guess it will be similar to the bosses encountered during the world quest. At most, it will have a few more skills and its health will be reduced. When you were away, Xuchu and I talked to the twin commanders and converted some of the world quest boss 's skill effects to those of the dungeon. We made a guide that looks pretty reliable. "

After saying that, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia couldn't help but say, " I just don't know what a real fight would be like. "

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows and said, " Strategy? Give me a copy. "

After saying that, Ji Xuanyi felt a little dumbfounded. Xiao Xiao Yuxia wanted to show it to him, but with so many people around, not to mention that they didn't know each other's whereabouts, even if they knew, there was no way she could hand the strategy to him unless Xiao Xiao Yuxia flew up.

As expected, Xiao Xiao Yuxia replied: " Boss, you think too highly of me. I am not the world, and I can fly. Do I have to use brain waves to pass the strategy to you? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi didn't want to receive any of Xiao Xiaoyu's brain waves at all.

Ji Xuanyi said with a sweat: " Forget it, let's talk about it after entering the game. "

Each dungeon is a separate map. Once inside, there are only 25 people in their group, so it won't be so crowded.

" But speaking of which, after the refresh, there should be a lot of people trying to get in. Have you arranged for the people to take up seats? " Ji Xuanyi asked.

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia laughed and said, " How could I not think of such a thing? Apart from the two of you, the twenty-three members of the group are scattered in various corners of the central square. No matter where they spawn, there must be one of us who is very close to them. We can get there with a little squeeze. "

Ji Xuanyi nodded at first, but then felt something was wrong: " Twenty-three people in the group? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " Yes, what's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi was silent for a moment, then said, " Have you ever counted how many magic professions there are in our group? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said inexplicably: " Law professions? Probably half of them, what's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi: " Haha. "

What's wrong? Stupid swordsman, do you think everyone is like you, who can knock anyone down? Haven't you ever thought about how fragile the magic profession is? Of the 23 occupied points, at least half are invalid. Do you believe that even if they hit the face, the mages and priests in the group will be carried away by other players in an instant ...

Ji Xuanyi didn't have time to explain too much. Just when Xiao Xiaoyu was about to ask Ji Xuanyi what he meant, the refresh time came!

In almost a second, a mage in the team frantically refreshed the screen: " Here I am, here I am! Give the captain to me!!!! "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia was about to be handed over to the mage by the captain, when the mage continued to say: " No, I was pushed up and flew! "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "..... ??? "

What is this operation of squeezing so hard that it flies up? !

However, the wizard was not exaggerating, he was indeed squeezed into the air!

Although the surrounding swordsmen and knights wanted to throw away all the weak professions that stood in their way, they were players from the same main city after all, so it was not a good idea to do so. Therefore, they chose to pick up the other professions that stood in their way and put them aside.

But once a person is lifted up, there will be an empty space immediately, and the people behind will squeeze in, and the lifted person can't be put down! What should we do?

The swordsman and the knight said they didn't know either.

They could only let go of their hands casually. Those people with magic and agility professions who were squeezed in the front either lay on other people's shoulders or sat on other people's heads. Their feet couldn't touch the ground. Wouldn't they be squeezed into the air?

By the time Xiaoxiao Yuxia handed over the captain, the mage started crying. He clung to a swordsman, thinking that he could talk to him even without touching the ground. However, the swordsman lost track of the direction and was squeezed further and further back. The mage who was clinging to him was spinning and was hopelessly taken out of the center area. Not to mention talking to him, he couldn't even see his shadow!

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Xiao Xiao Yuxia cursed a thousand times in her heart and finally understood what Ji Xuanyi meant. Now she could only sigh and asked the other magic and agility classes to take care of themselves and the strength classes to move towards the coordinates provided by the mage. At the same time, she quietly started a private chat with Ji Xuanyi.

[Xiaoxiao Rainfall] : Ji Xuanyi, look ...

Is it time for Qi Qin to take over?

Chapter 140

In the current situation, Qi Qin is the only one who can take action . Otherwise, if we rely on those few swordsmen to squeeze in , it will take who knows when we can enter the game. However, Ji Xuanyi did not go with Qi Qin this time . First , there was no need to go because entering the dungeon only required the captain and the dialogue. If he went along, he would be a burden . Second, he still remembered that stupid post on the forum. It was not easy to get popular and no one remembered it anymore. If someone saw it again , he would not be able to stay in Fanxing City.

However, it was easier to get people flying this time than last time , and it wasn't so conspicuous. After all, many magic-type or agility-type professions that couldn't dodge in time were carried up into the air, floating above the crowd. Some were lying down , some were sitting, and of course some were trying to stand up and walk. Qi Qin was not so conspicuous as he ran over.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia tiptoed in the crowd , jumped a few times , and finally saw Qi Qin running towards the refresh point as if walking on flat ground. He immediately breathed a sigh of relief, and quickly asked the mage in the group who had been squeezed away somewhere to transfer the captaincy to Qi Qin. After that, he went with the flow and was squeezed here and there, waiting to enter the dungeon without any resistance.

Perhaps thinking of the enthusiastic scene that will come after the refresh , the official specially arranged a very small air wall to enclose his small wooden table. Only players can reach out to hand over things, and players cannot enter.

After all, the character is set to be a delicate and weak warlock, and the official is still very afraid that he will be squeezed and flew away to an unknown place by players in the chaos.

When Qi Qin arrived, he saw that many players were already stuck to the air wall, their faces were squeezed crooked, but they were still persevering and shouting to talk.

Even Qi Qin couldn't help but be deeply shocked by this obsession.

A player under Qi Qin's feet had just finished a conversation with him. He took the small cup of wine handed to him tremblingly and tried to put it into his mouth with trembling hands. However, it was squeezed crookedly every time and his teeth were almost knocked out. He couldn't drink it at all and couldn't enter the dungeon no matter what. He was so angry that he looked up to the sky and roared.

Seeing this, Qi Qin bent down, pressed the copper cup with only the bottom left in his hand, and poured the wine into his mouth. The player choked, and before he could even curse, the whole person instantly turned into a white light and disappeared.

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry!" Qi Qin said as he squeezed in when the other person disappeared. He supported the air wall with one hand and slapped a gold coin in front of him with the other hand. He hurriedly said, "Give me a glass of wine, thank you."

He looked up at him and without saying anything, took out a wine bag, poured a cup and pretended to hand it to him.

Qi Qin was quick-witted and quick-handed. He pulled out the Guardian from his bag with one hand and thrust it into the ground with force. The sword partially sank into the floor tile, and the Guardian stood firmly.

Taking advantage of the small space separated by the guard, Qi Qin took the wine handed to him and drank it in one gulp. Just as he was wondering why the wine tasted like water, his eyes blurred and when he regained his sight, he was already in a place completely different from the crowded square.

The crowded crowd just now seemed like an illusion and disappeared completely. However, according to the official statement, this place should be an illusion.

This is a circular platform with an ancient shape, and five intersections are evenly distributed around it. There is a sign at each intersection, which shows the end of the road, which is the five element towns.

Qi Qin didn't care what the team's goal was. His first reaction was to find Ji Xuanyi.

The area of this circular platform was not small, but with twenty-five people standing on it, it still seemed a bit crowded. Everyone looked frightened, obviously scared to death by the huge crowd. After finding out that they had successfully entered the game, the mage who was originally standing nearby but was squeezed out almost knelt on the ground and cried.

"Fuck, that's fucking scary..."

"To be honest, I really miss the setting of clipping."

"This game is too unfriendly to magic professions. I almost thought I was going to be squeezed out of the inner city!"

Everyone was noisy and talking at the same time. This was one of the bad things about holographic online games. Most people couldn't help gossiping even when they were in class as students, let alone when they were playing games. They could talk nonsense and couldn't stop at all.

It's okay for squad dungeons, but team dungeons require a commander, and if everyone is talking, the commander's words can't be heard at all.

Fortunately, there were two people in charge this time. The twin brothers shouted at the same time: " Quiet! "

This voice finally drowned out everyone else's voices, and the scene suddenly became quiet. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin finally saw each other, breathed a sigh of relief, and walked together. Almost half of the 25-member group this time were people Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin knew. In addition to the three people from the three major gangs and the twins, there were also the Green Forest City trio and Mi Yin and Xue Piao.

From the distribution of the number of people in the seven professions, it can be seen that the twin brothers are indeed pve veterans. When selecting people, except for a few necessary people, they try to choose the four professions of swordsman, priest and long-range output. As for the three professions of warlock, knight and assassin, there are only five related people: Ji Xuanyi, Jian Xi Xinjiu and Xue Piao Renjian, Ze Yu Shishui and Mi Yin.

By the way, Yugui actually wanted to join in, but because he dropped a level on the way from Youri City to Fanxing City, although he had tried very hard to kill monsters and level up, when the dungeon was opened, he had only just reached level 62, and was still some distance away from level 64.

However, this made the twin brothers feel relieved. Melee professions are really not very popular in dungeons except for tanks and professions that require special skills. The shortcoming of attack distance makes it easy for them to die suddenly when facing bosses , and the occasional displacement of the boss will also affect their output.

It can be said that unless it is a gold group that requires a certain profession to pick up equipment that others cannot use, in most cases, the team leader is unwilling to form so many melee teams, as that will affect the difficulty of their copy control.

Not to mention that it is still in the pioneering stage. It is already very difficult to form a team of two assassins and two knights. If there is another assassin, the twins are really not sure they can beat this dungeon. Even though Xiaoxiao Yuxia has emphasized to them many times that these four people are first-class pvp masters, the twins still have doubts about the strength they can display in the dungeon.

The first thing Xue Piao Renjian and Jian Xi Xinjiu did after entering the dungeon was to summon their horses. As knights, they would feel really insecure without horses.

However, the horse did not appear after the summoning action was completed. The two then remembered that it seemed that they could not ride horses in the copy.

No wonder the twins were so embarrassed when Xiaoxiao Yuxia reported to them that there were two knights. A knight without a horse would have his strength reduced by at least 70%. Jian Xi Xinjiu had a dying expression, and Xue Piao Renjian also frowned, but because they had to listen to the twins' instructions, they couldn't interrupt casually, so neither of them said anything.

Mi Yin walked to Xue Piao Renjian with some worry and patted him on the shoulder. Xue Piao Renjian shook his head at him, signaling that it was okay.

The new wine with sword washing that no one cares about is: "..."

Is there no one to comfort him?!

If Xu Chu was in a good mood right now, he would probably join in the fun and talk to him, but today Xu Chu had to put in a lot of effort to keep his promise, and was squeezed hard in the huge crowd. After entering the dungeon, he was completely dazed, and now he was walking towards the twins like a sleepwalker.

The twins were discussing in a low voice which boss to fight first. When they saw Xu Chu coming over, they were stunned for a moment and asked in unison as if they were the same person: "What's wrong?"

Xu Chu: "How much is the tour package? Let's pay first, and then arrange a nanny to take me there. I want to be the first to touch the reward, money is not a problem——"

Twins: "..."

Yuetian said with a frown on his face: "Boss, wake up, we are just starting to explore new land. Can we talk about the tour group in two days?"

Xu Chu finally came to his senses from his daze, as if he was not the one who had just said that money was not a problem. He smiled politely and said, "Oh, sorry, I brought my previous habits with me."

Twins: "..."

Yes, judging from your actions, you are definitely an experienced tour guide.

The twins organized the team and finally decided to start the expedition from Xinmu Town. This setting of interconnected bosses will definitely affect the difficulty of the strategy due to the order of the strategy. Although there are still some differences, the order of mutual promotion and mutual restraint is the most likely method of cracking the dungeon that can be thought of now, so you still have to give it a try.

It doesn't matter if mistakes are made. After all, we are a pioneering team, and making mistakes is necessary to understand the mechanism.

Ji Xuanyi didn't care at all. He mixed with Qi Qin among Xiao Xiao Yuxia and others, and followed the large group towards the intersection leading to Xinmu Town.

After leaving the circular platform where everyone appeared together, the scenery began to move closer to the real Xinmu Town. In the end, Ji Xuanyi almost thought that he had returned to the Novice Town.

Except that everything that should have existed was gone, all the buildings and plants were exactly the same as those in the Novice Town. The surrounding area was filled with the black mist that Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xi Xinjiu saw when they returned to the Novice Village, and there was an ominous feeling.

Jian Xi Xinjiu subconsciously looked towards Ji Xuanyi, only to see that he was walking side by side with Qi Qin, holding hands with him. He immediately received a critical hit of 10,000 points and withdrew his gaze with a frown on his face.

Life is so fucking lonely!

Unlike the black fog that Ji Xuanyi encountered at the beginning, the black fog that Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xi Xinjiu saw in the Novice Town in the world mission would only have an impact on them, but not long after the team of 25 walked into the black fog, they began to lose blood one after another.

The amount of blood lost was not much and could be easily healed, but if there was no treatment, such a large amount of blood loss would be very uncomfortable. The priest in the group had to heal non-stop. The shadow of the boss had not even been seen yet, and the priest in the group already began to feel tired.

The group-add skill has a CD and does not have a hot effect . After the addition, the health will start to drop immediately. The priests can only use hot skills on people one by one. Twenty-five people are mixed together, just like counting stars. As they go on, they can't remember who has had a hot effect and who hasn't.

The older brother of the twins is also a priest. Although his hands were not sore due to the game settings, his eyes were tired. He immediately said, " No, if this black fog is also at the boss point, we can't overcome the boss with this kind of continuous damage . We won't be able to heal it. The error tolerance rate is too low. "

Seeing his brother say this, Yuetian nodded and said, " Generally speaking, if you encounter this kind of situation in a dungeon, you must first clear the fog before attacking the boss . There should be a guide nearby. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia frowned and said, " It's such a big place, where can we find it? And we can't act separately. "

Although the blood loss rate is slow, but without treatment, people will definitely die in three to five minutes. Even if death in the dungeon does not result in a level loss, the time wasted is huge.

My brother Ritian has already started planning to allocate priest resources. The team has started looking for them. Ji Xuanyi suddenly said, " Let's go to the small square. The guide should be there. "

The twins were startled and looked at Ji Xuanyi at the same time. Jian Xixinjiu also reacted and said quickly: " Yes, all the people in this town are in the small square. "

Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xi Xinjiu had been here before during a world quest. If the situation in the dungeon was exactly the same as it was back then, then they definitely hadn't moved.

However, the reason why Ji Xuanyi was so sure that the place to solve the black fog was in the small square was not entirely because everyone in the town was there. After all, you couldn't say whether the official would arrange new ones in the copy like they did with the three mysterious warlocks.

Ji Xuanyi was able to determine that the target was in the small square because of the routine problem. Generally speaking, there are two ways to solve the blood loss setting in the copy. One is to dispel the black fog here, and the other is to obtain some kind of immunity buff . There is no need to think about the former, because the black fog comes from the evil god. If the evil god does not take any action, the black fog will never retreat. The latter is much simpler. Ji Xuanyi remembered that Mrs. Harman had a potion that could temporarily make people immune to the influence of the black fog.

After hearing Jian Xi Xin Jiu's explanation, the twins couldn't help but exclaimed: " You guys even came to Novice Town at that time? That's awesome! "

The two people didn't say much. Everyone was basically familiar with the routine of this game. Intelligence was the most important thing. It was better to know more than nothing. You never know when the information you have might come in handy.

Now there was no need to worry about the team's search. Everyone walked directly towards the small square. Sure enough, they saw Mrs. Harman and the people behind her in the center of the small square. It was exactly the same scene that Ji Xuanyi had seen at the beginning. However, Mrs. Harman did not react much to the player's arrival as she did during the original mission.

Perhaps in the real world, they had already been rescued, their expressions looked very peaceful, and Mrs. Harman even smiled at them when she saw them.

" You are here. " Mrs. Harman said with a smile.

In addition to Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, the team that left Xinmu Town also included an unknown archer. He had not been back to Novice Town for a long time, and when he saw the familiar people, he was actually moved to the point of a tear in his eye.

The twins were from the Windy Town, so they didn't have any special feelings for Mrs. Harman. They walked up to her and talked to her directly, explaining their purpose.

Brother Ritian said: " We want to defeat the monsters that are causing trouble in the town, but the black fog along the way has a bad effect on us. I wonder if you can help us solve this problem? "

Madam Harman nodded in understanding and said, " I do have a potion that can resist the invasion of black fog, but I can only provide five bottles to each of you. Each bottle can only last for one hour. I hope you can hurry up. "

Even if we put aside the original plot, Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but complain. Five bottles per person, that's one hundred and twenty-five bottles. Mrs. Harman, when did you open a wholesale medicine store behind August's back?

But after all, it's a game, and a copy, so we can't worry too much about the logical conflicts. Having found the correct guidance, the twins were very happy and started to let other people in the team line up to come here to get the medicine.

While everyone was collecting medicine, the twins were discussing whether to calculate the equipment according to DKP or directly bid in a gold group. Xiao Xiaoyuxia, who was standing next to them, had learned about this in the PVE class and suggested: " Let's just roll . "

The dkp is definitely high for Ji Xuanyi and his group, and there are rich people like Xu Chu in the gold group. The other people in the group basically don't have to think about getting equipment, they might as well roll and rely on luck.

If Ji Xuanyi knew what Xiao Xiao Yuxia was thinking, he would probably laugh out loud. You probably don't know the power of the European Emperor.

However, how the equipment is distributed has nothing to do with Ji Xuanyi. The drops in the team dungeon are based on professions, not universal equipment. He is the only warlock in the whole team, so the warlock equipment can only be given to him, otherwise it will be wasted. Pvp , the purpose of dungeon is more about entertainment than equipment. As commanders, the twins don't have much demand for equipment. When they heard Xiaoxiao Yuxia say this, they nodded in agreement.

After everyone received the potions, they headed towards where the boss was. The twins specifically reminded them to drink the potions when they were ready to fight the monster, as the priest was there to heal them, so they shouldn't waste time on potions while on the road. The twin brother was a little nervous about entering the dungeon for the first time, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said: " It's normal to have no progress in the first exploration. Compared with clearing the level, it's more important to understand the skills and mechanisms this time. We can still have time to think about how to deal with it when we go back. So if this boss hasn't been defeated by the time the potion is up, we have to switch to another boss . "

Five bottles of potion, five hours, if you don't count the hidden sixth boss , it takes exactly one hour to fight a novice town boss .

Xiao Xiaoyu was stunned and said, " Ah? Can't we defeat him today? "

The twins were speechless and said, " How can it be that fast? Even if it comes every day, it will take at least a week. "

Xiao Xiao's face turned pale as the rain fell.

But he couldn't regret it now, all the people were gathered, their levels were raised, and he had attended classes for more than a month, so you couldn't just stop fighting.

The rain was drizzling and the PVPs at the back knew nothing and were whispering about what equipment they wanted. Only Ji Xuanyi, who saw through everything, sighed silently.

PvP is too unreliable.

The first boss soon appeared in front of everyone. The familiar eye-catching color scheme and the shrunken size made everyone breathe a sigh of relief.

After fighting it several times, everyone is very familiar with this boss , and the nervousness when entering the dungeon for the first time has also been slightly alleviated.

Mi Yin's relaxed expression was particularly obvious. Ze Yu Si Shui, who was also an assassin and followed closely behind Mi Yin, immediately rushed in front of him and asked enthusiastically: " Mi Yin, what's wrong? Have you thought of any good strategies? "

Mi Yin was a little embarrassed to say that she was relieved because she successfully and safely reached the boss with the main force , so she could only smile awkwardly and said, " No, can't I just attack from behind? "

Ze Yu nodded like a little chick pecking at rice: " Mi Yin is right! "

Miyin: "..."

Did I say anything?

Ze Yu Sishui is the perfect example of the saying "things smell good from a distance but stink up close". Ji Xuanyi was his idol in the beginning, but after spending some time together, he became a bad-tempered man who loved to order Qi Qin to beat people up. On the contrary, Mi Yin, although he worked for the same deputy gang leader, was still very tall in Ze Yu Sishui's heart because they had little contact.

Mi Yin didn't know this, so she thought that this kid who looked like a junior high school student was weird, so it was better to stay away from him.

As players of Star City, the twins also went on the expedition when the world quest was carried out. They felt a little relieved when they saw the familiar appearance of the boss . Before this, they had made a strategy for skill evolution for the bosses encountered in the world quest , and taught this strategy to the twenty or so pvp players present like teaching primary school students. They thought that this boss should not be too difficult for them, and if they are lucky, they may be able to defeat it directly.

But only at this time did Ji Xuanyi remember that he had forgotten to ask Xiao Xiao Yuxia for the strategy guide.

It's because it was too crowded outside. Everyone was distracted when they came in and had no time to think about this matter.

The priests had been maintaining the health of the entire group. Ji Xuanyi was embarrassed to let everyone wait for him to study the strategy alone, so he had to bite the bullet and act as an actor.

He wasn't too worried about Qi Qin. With his skills and reaction speed, he should be able to handle any situation. Although magic professions all have short legs, he is a warlock after all. Maybe he can just paddle his way through?

Ji Xuanyi didn't know what would happen next, but his face remained calm. On the contrary, Xiao Xiaoyu, who was familiar with the strategy guide, was panicking.

He was obviously a commander and the leader of one of the three major gangs. He was usually very smart, but he became so cowardly after entering the game. Ji Xuanyi could not help but be amazed.

It seems that the reason why PVPs become PVPs is not just because they think dungeons are boring. There are also people like Xiaoxiao Yuxia who are allergic to dungeons.

The twins walked around the boss , carefully observing the terrain, and looked around to see if there were any unusual items.

You know, sometimes you will need to use some surrounding props when defeating the boss . As long as there are some relatively abrupt items, they may come in handy.

However, this boss might not be that difficult. The twins almost dug up a layer of the ground, but they still didn't find anything. They could only arrange the players in the group one by one according to their usual positions.

The younger twin brother, Yuetian, stood right in front of the boss , ready to attack at any time. In order to prevent the boss 's normal attacks from being area attacks, the four melee output players stayed away from the main tank and stood behind the boss , at a distance that was just enough to attack the boss with a single move of their hands. The other three swordsmen were distributed on both sides of the boss to facilitate the succession of hatred. Qi Qin occupied one side, Xiaoxiao Yuxia and another swordsman were on the other side. The ranged and healing players huddled together, standing far away on the side, where it was easiest to avoid damage.

" Everyone take medicine, I'm going to attack the monsters, " the boss of the Yuetian Dynasty raised his heavy sword and said with a frown, " But don't start. Do it when I say the fight will start. Wait until I have secured the hatred, and don't OT . "

Everyone responded.

Yuetian didn't waste any time and immediately launched an attack on the boss , using all the available attack skills in his skill bar.

T-suit that Xu Chu had kindly provided him. In addition to the equipment that the world boss had collected from the players in Day City, Xu Chu had also put in a lot of effort in the trading house, auction house and even forums, and finally collected a complete set of equipment. At this stage where there is no differentiation between PVP and PVE, it is not easy to get a complete set of equipment. When Yuetian saw such a neat set of T equipment, he could fit an egg in his mouth, and he almost pulled his brother to hug Xuchu's thigh and beg for support. But this is all irrelevant. The key point is that the hatred coefficient of a complete set of T equipment is very high, and the blood volume is almost twice that of an ordinary swordsman, not to mention the already excellent defense. It's just that the damage amount becomes very low, which is only slightly higher than that of a priest.

However, the hatred coefficient was there, and Yue Tian thought that after throwing a set of skills, the hatred should be very stable, so he shouted loudly: "Start fighting!" used their skills at the boss. The clanging sounds of weapons colliding with the boss' body and the explosion sounds of skills hitting the boss were heard continuously.

When the boss was attacked, of course he would fight back. His thick leaves as big as a roof came directly down on Yue Tian's head. When Yue Tian felt the boss's damage, his face changed immediately and he shouted, "The two swordsmen on the right, take the damage!" This boss's skill is indeed an area damage skill, but just like the original world quest boss, the more people this area damage attacks, the more dispersed the damage will be, and the easier it will be to heal. But if only one person is attacked, there is a high probability that he will be killed instantly.

Yuetian was already wearing a T-suit, and the boss slapped him so hard that only a quarter of his health was left, which scared him so much that his face turned green.

When Qi Qin heard the word "Chengshang", he subconsciously wanted to go over, but after realizing that Yuetian only called two people on the right, he stayed where he was again. His output was very high, and Yuetian didn't want him to risk sudden death by carrying the monster. With the arrival of Xiaoxiao Yuxia and another swordsman, the pressure on the priests was immediately relieved a lot. The roller coaster-like health of Yuetian just now scared them so much that they had to use up several large-scale healing skills.

Yuetian thought about it and asked Xue Piao Renjian and Jian Xi Xinjiu to fill the positions of the two swordsmen. If there was a need to take on injuries later, Qi Qin could not be allowed to go, so Xue Piao Renjian and Jian Xi Xinjiu had to go.

Snow Falls on the World & Sword Washes New Wine: "..."

Qi Qin, you are such a sweetheart!

As long as the boss doesn't use skills at the beginning, it will probably be safe for a period of time after the fight begins. But just in case, Yuetian still observes the boss's condition and health bar very nervously, for fear that any abnormal situation will suddenly occur.

Yuetian was staring at the boss when he heard his brother Ritian shouting, "Fuck! That swordsman! The one on the left! Stop! Stop! He's done!"

Yue Tian was shocked and thought, "What the hell?" He looked up and almost vomited. In just seven or eight seconds, Qi Qin's hatred had already suppressed him. If it was a little longer, the boss would change his target! He was the only one standing on Qi Qin's side. He would be dead if he was slapped!

Yue Tian also quickly followed and shouted: " Number One in the World! Stop, stop, stop, pay attention to your hatred! "

Upon hearing this, Qi Qin hurriedly stopped and subconsciously looked at Ji Xuanyi in the long-range team. Ji Xuanyi didn't know what to say at this time, so he could only use a healing skill on the full-health one as a consolation.

But this was enough. Qi Qin immediately calmed down, stood upright, looked up at the hatred list, and waited for his hatred value to slowly drop.

Without the OT risk, Yuetian now has time to find out where the problem lies.

Logically speaking, with a full set of T equipment, there should be no problem of OT . His hatred coefficient is almost two hundred times that of other professions. Even if he OTs , it is impossible that he OTs seven or eight seconds after he has stabilized the hatred . It is either before the hatred is stabilized , or in the later stage because of his movement that the hatred cannot keep up . How can he be suddenly suppressed by hatred in this situation?

Could it be that he wore the wrong equipment? But the hatred of others was clearly suppressed !

I searched around for questions until I saw the dps ranking.

Yue Tian: "..."

Okay, case solved.

It's no wonder that he treats people like precious eggs and puts them in the back, not letting him go in any dangerous situation. Qi Qin's DPS is higher than the sum of all the people in the group. What's the use of a high hatred coefficient? It's already very impressive that he can approach OT in seven or eight seconds!

However, the output was too high. Just as Yue Tian was hesitating whether to put Qi Qin in the front, risking sudden death while taking the injury and outputting with all his strength, or to let him stay where he was, looking at the hatred list and restraining the output, the boss suddenly vibrated unnaturally.

Yuetian was stunned and took a few steps back before he saw a synapse sticking out from the flower on the boss's head, swaying and pointing in the direction of the long-range group.

Yue Tian: "..... ?"

What the hell is this?!

Yuetian immediately began to observe the long-range team. After a while, he discovered the changes in the long-range team and immediately shouted: " The one with the flower on his head! Get out of the crowd! "

All the remote people looked at each other in confusion, as if there were flowers growing on their heads?

Ji Xuanyi was also stunned. He roughly understood what Ritian meant. This boss was calling out a name, but because the plant monster could not speak, it marked the person it named in its own way, which was to make that person suddenly grow flowers on his head.

But I didn't see anyone with flowers on their hair. Ji Xuanyi took advantage of his height to look around and thought puzzledly.

was not far away , suddenly couldn't remember the name, so he could only shout heartbreakingly: " That warlock, get out of the crowd-- "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Fuck! No wonder I haven't seen flowers growing on other people's heads. After all, it's on his own head!

Ji Xuanyi hurriedly ran out of the crowd. Just when he was halfway through, the flower with strange colors that suddenly appeared on Ji Xuanyi's head rolled to the ground. With Ji Xuanyi as the center, the area within seven or eight meters around him was instantly dyed black, the grass withered, and Ji Xuanyi began to lose blood.

If Ji Xuanyi had not run out of the remote team, this black circle would have been placed in a group. One can imagine what a chaotic scene it would be. If the priests were not careful, they would immediately lose members. Yue Tian was scared and broke into a cold sweat.

However, if it happened to only one person, this level of blood loss would not cause a person to die suddenly. Ji Xuanyi was healing himself intermittently while staggering back to the remote queue.

not far away, withdrew his gaze from Ji Xuanyi, looked up at the hatred list, and swung the heavy sword at the boss again.

After that, the boss called out names a few more times, all of which were remote . Yuetian had a rough idea of what he was calling out.

But speaking of it, Ji Xuanyi is also a bit dark. He was named three times out of five times. The same eye-catching flowers as the boss grew on his head one after another. Is he so favored by the boss ?

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Never mind, it's not the first day that he knew he was dark.

But what Ji Xuanyi didn't know was that Qi Qin had recently learned how to take screenshots in the game. He had taken countless screenshots of the scene with the flower growing on Ji Xuanyi's head, and was just waiting to upload and save them later. He didn't know if he would be beaten up by Ji Xuanyi ...

Chapter 141

The screenshots were discovered and Qi Qin was beaten by Ji Xuanyi , but that was all in the future . Right now, everyone was concentrating on trying to defeat this boss .

Qi Qin is such a violent output , it is such a waste and frustrating that he has to look at the hatred list to deal damage . Yue Tian actually wants to let him do the frontal output. After all, for now , the amount of treatment is enough and the possibility of sudden death is not too great. But he is worried that after such a desperate move, he will need to pull the boss's hatred. By then, the hatred has been on Qi Qin for so long , it will not be so easy for him to get it back . After thinking about it, in order to avoid mistakes in the next stage, Yue Tian reluctantly sealed Qi Qin's output, letting him slack off on the sidelines and attack sporadically.

Qi Qin has no interest in DPS dominance. He just plays the way God tells him to. If he is slacking off, he can still find time to watch Ji Xuanyi . How great!

Yuetian silently memorized the boss 's skills. After naming the ranged ones , the boss started targeting the melee ones.

With the boss itself as the center, a circle of green light suddenly appeared under his feet, covering all melee attacks!

The circle of light appeared too quickly and without any warning . After Yuetian and Ritian shouted at the same time, the green circle exploded.

Apart from two knights and two assassins who reacted quickly and ran out without any command as soon as the green circle appeared, among the four swordsmen, only Qi Qin, Yue Tian, and a member of the three major gangs whose name was unknown managed to dodge it. The heavily armored warrior Xiao Xiaoyuxia, who was equipped with full strength equipment, could not keep up with the displacement speed. After taking a step, he found something was wrong and could only jump subconsciously, like skipping rope, trying to avoid the circle under his feet.

It would be fine at other times, but in the early stages of development, once there are casualties, it means there is basically no hope. Yuetian was already prepared to treat this as a test of his skills, but he didn't expect that after the green circle exploded, Xiaoxiao Yuxia was confused and stood there unharmed.

Yue Tian was also stunned for a moment, then suddenly realized: " This circle is instant ground damage, you can avoid it by jumping up, no need to hide! "

The setting that allows instant damage to be avoided by jumping is not that low in the dungeon, but because the way to deal with it is too simple, it is rarely taken seriously. The twin brothers even forgot to explain it to the pvp players during the lecture , and now when they suddenly heard it, half of the people only understood half of it.

Fortunately, there was no need to understand this setting. Yuetian was confident and returned to the boss with the melee fighters , saying, " No need to hide in the circle, just attack where you are. When I say jump, everyone just jump up. "

Everyone walked back in confusion and started to output on the spot according to what Yuetian said.

Yuetian is a very experienced commander. He knows that many players do not react that quickly when playing the game, especially when facing this kind of instantaneous skills, so he usually calculates the time difference and issues orders in advance. By the time the people in the team react and take action, they have just avoided the damage.

Yuetian did the same here, but what he didn't expect was that the reaction speed of pvp players was completely different from the pve players he had been dealing with before. You know, in many pvp battles, a misjudgment of 0.01 seconds will result in a kill or being killed . The more sharp the pvp player, the faster his movements. Even before his brain can react, his body will move on its own.

Of course, the same is true in dungeons. For high-end PVP players, it is like instinct.

Yue Tian uttered the word " jump " with the sound of "t" , Qi Qin and Xue Piao Renjian immediately jumped up on the spot, followed by Mi Yin, Jian Xi Xin Jiu, and Ze Yu Si Shui. By the time Yue Tian had finished saying the word " jump " , all the melee fighters in the group were already in the air.

Yue Tian: "..."

Damn it, that's not what the script says!

in PVP is a good thing, but being too quick in PVE is a big deal! Everyone jumped up at the wrong time, and when they landed, the green circle exploded, and the whole group exploded! Yuetian's entire scalp suddenly felt numb, but it was too late to shout "stop jumping". He could only watch a group of people about to step on the green circle.

It's over. I don't even have a chance to test my skills this time. I'll just pull away ...

While Yuetian was thinking in this self-deprecating way, Xue Piao Renjian, Qi Qin and others had actually discovered something was wrong. Jumping was just a conditioned reflex after they heard the command. Their brains started to work only after they jumped. They also realized that they jumped too early and would be finished if they fell.

Qi Qin took a heavy blow in mid-air without running outside. He used the time in the air to avoid the explosion. Snow Piao Renjian was even easier. The knight's dismount skill straight stab included displacement. Although the distance was not long, it was enough to get out of the circle. Jian Xi Xin Jiu was in a rather embarrassing situation, his reaction was not as quick as Xue Piao Renjian, so he could only do a pole vault with his weapon, the spear, and almost broke the spear shaft, but at least he dodged it. This made it even easier for the two assassins, as the skill of teleportation made it very easy to run in any direction.

In the end, although there were timing errors in issuing and executing the orders, no one was hurt except Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the other swordsman.

However, they happened to be the two people who took the direct damage besides the tank . When the poison circle exploded and the boss hit them, the two people were almost killed instantly. The five priests in the long-range team were scared to death and frantically threw skills at the two people and rescued them.

Yuetian had not expected this result, and said in a daze: " Is this what it feels like to play against a PVP player? No, that's not right. Why did I think that PVP players were all fools before? "

Xu Chu squeezed into the remote team and laughed loudly: " Because this is the feeling of playing against a sharp PVP player. Look at the two people next to you, they are also PVP , but they are different from others, right, Xiaoxiao! "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was so angry that she said, " I am the commander! Fighting power is only a small part of my strength, okay! "

To put it bluntly, it's just a dish.

Xuchu shrugged and said nothing, but Yuetian did have a certain change of heart towards PVP players. He even began to think that if leading PVP players in a dungeon was so worry-free, then in the future when starting a group, shouldn't we treat PVP and PVE players equally, or even form more groups ...

Oh my god, wake up, you will regret it!

However, the boss was still being attacked, and Yuetian didn't have time to think about his PVPPV mixed dungeon team plan, so he took the lead in saying to the others: " Don't jump so fast, after I say jump, stop for a beat before jumping, at least show some tacit understanding! " Although Yuetian tried very hard to express his meaning, his words were really confusing. Pause for a beat ... How long is a beat? A few tenths of a second? Or a public CD ? pvp players who had never entered a dungeon and had no coordination could only look at the ground, listening to instructions and observing the boss's movements.

With the cooperation of the two, there were finally no problems. Moreover, as the number of times the boss's skills were released increased, they could actually be said to have a tacit understanding. At least they did not make any mistakes after that, and finally got the rhythm of the Suntian command.

defeating the boss was finally on track. After that, the boss used several skills, mixing name calling and explosion circles, but they were all dodged one by one. With Qi Qin, the violent DPS , the boss's health was about to drop by half.

this boss a little too simple? Ji Xuanyi thought as he walked slowly to the outer circle of the crowd.

Apart from the setting that area attacks require taking damage, there is only one skill that targets specific targets, and one skill that targets melee combat but can be avoided by just jumping. As a boss for the early stages of development, isn't this a bit too easy?

What Ji Xuanyi didn't know was that the reason why they fought so easily was mainly because Qi Qin's damage was really high. The speed at which they pushed the boss was almost twice that of other normal teams. The other teams didn't make even a single mistake. In the same amount of time, they only took away a quarter of the boss's blood. Before the rampage time came, it was difficult to suppress the blood line.

Ji Xuanyi's team survived several crises of casualties like a roller coaster, which was actually not easy. However, as a warlock, Ji Xuanyi had been slacking off, and apart from lining up in circles and healing people, he was not very busy, so from his point of view, it was not too difficult.

Apart from being surprised at the smooth progress, Yuetian did not have any doubts about the difficulty of the dungeon. After all, he had been leading a team for so many years and had played a lot of dungeons, both difficult and not difficult. He had encountered sharp teammates and also encountered bad actors. He had long lost the ability to tell the difference between the difficulty of a dungeon. As long as he could pass it, it was fine.

Seeing the boss 's health dropped by 50%, Yue Tian breathed a sigh of relief and at the same time he became more alert. The boss didn't make any noise when his health was decreasing before. According to the usual routine, when the health is below 50%, the boss will definitely start to change.

Just when Ritian was tense, the familiar green circle appeared under the boss's feet again. Yuetian didn't think much and immediately said, " Jump! "

Everyone jumped up in an instant, and Ji Xuanyi, who had been distractedly looking at this side, suddenly realized something was wrong.

The green circle under the boss's feet is different from the green circle that appeared before!

In addition to the expansion of the range, the color was also slightly different. After seeing that the green circle did not explode after Ri Tian shouted the order, but was still flashing in the same place, Ji Xuanyi became more certain of his judgment.

Obviously, the rule of not interrupting the command was ignored at this time. Ji Xuanyi immediately frowned and shouted: "Wrong circle! Get out!"

Compared to Yuetian's orders, several melee players were obviously more familiar with Ji Xuanyi's voice, not to mention Qi Qin. As soon as Ji Xuanyi opened his mouth, he immediately withdrew from the circle. The others also chose to obey Ji Xuanyi's orders without hesitation between the two almost overlapping voices and quickly left the circle.

Only Yuetian was a person who was not so sensitive to other people's orders because he was used to issuing instructions. He was a beat slow and still remained in the circle!

Almost the next second after the others retreated, Yuetian's brain reacted and he realized that the circle under his feet was wrong, but it was very difficult to retreat at this time!

As soon as Yuetian landed on the ground, he only had time to take a step back when half-man-high spikes suddenly emerged from the ground in the green circle under his feet, piercing Yuetian through the heart.

Although it was just a game effect and the player didn't feel any pain at all, the visual impact was too great. When Yue Tian looked down, his cheek twitched and he couldn't help but curse: "Fuck you!"

Ritian was also scared to death and almost yelled something like "No! Brother!" like in a TV drama . Fortunately, he immediately realized that this was a game and he was still in a copy, so he managed to hold it back and almost choked on his saliva.

But not feeling any pain is one thing. Putting aside the visual effects, the damage of these spikes is still very high, and as long as you stand on them, you will continue to lose blood. Although Ritian has a lot of blood, after standing on the spikes for a second, it's like a water bag with a big hole in it, and it's instantly drained out!

Yuetian cursed, and used the swordsman's barrier skill to make up for the loss, putting a shield on himself and began to retreat. Yuetian, who was standing in the long-range team, also shouted: "Don't hold back on your skills, heal the tank !"

In an instant, the priests' healing skills fell on Yuetian one after another.

If it is in a pvp situation, with five priests healing a person at the same time, no one can kill this person unless he is stabbed by the Assassin's dagger, the artifact in Xu Chu's hand.

However, the boss 's damage is really not comparable to that of ordinary players. The damage reduction shield on Yuetian's body is almost broken in seconds, and the priests' treatment is like a drop in the ocean.

Fortunately, although the damage of that circle was high, the area was not too large, and Yuetian finally walked out. Just when everyone had no time to breathe a sigh of relief, a circle appeared under the boss 's feet again, covering the place where Yuetian was standing again. This time, there was no need for Ji Xuan to shout, Qi Qin and others immediately ran out of the circle, and Yue Tian also hurriedly wanted to retreat, but unfortunately, the place where he was standing was right in the middle of the boundary line between the boss and the circle. He had just taken two steps when he was stabbed again!

Yue Tian: "..."

I can't even utter a fucking curse word!

Fortunately, the mages in the group were very aware of protecting their teammates as PVPs , and they immediately followed up with the damage reduction. However, the priests' big bonuses were on full CD , and the healing amount was weak. Yuetian's health was still approaching the bottom of the health bar. It was not until Ji Xuanyi took over the last damage reduction that the earth spikes finally disappeared.

Generally speaking, if the boss creates two circles of different ranges in a row, there will definitely be a third time.

When facing this skill, the most common routine is one out, two out, three in. In other words, the range of the third circle will be extremely large, even covering the remote location, and the only safe spot is at the boss 's feet.

Yuetian had obviously thought of this as well. After the ground spikes disappeared, knowing that his movement speed was slow, he immediately walked towards the boss' feet. He didn't even think of giving orders to other players . It had been a long time since the last time he was in such an embarrassing situation. He had witnessed the tragic scene of being " pierced by thousands of thorns " twice . His mental state was really bad, and he began to have trouble keeping up with the pace.

Ji Xuanyi originally thought that there was nothing wrong with Ritian's response method, but just as he was about to let others follow in, a third green circle appeared under the boss's feet.

Not to mention long-range attacks , this circle didn't even include melee attacks. It was exactly the same as the first circle, with only the unlucky Yue Tian standing in it.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

What the hell! How come the sky is darker than him?

Yue Tian didn't even have time to curse before he was pinned to death on the ground by the boss's spikes ...

It's so sad to hear it and so moving to tears to see it. Who the hell could have thought that this boss , who had been playing cards according to the routine for so long, would suddenly change his mind!

However, Ji Xuanyi also expected that this was probably the difficulty of this boss as a pioneering boss , including the two green circles that confuse the player's vision, and the three-stage aoe that does not follow the moves .

However, if the three circles are in and out, then the setting of the three-stage AOE is probably half useless. Ji Xuanyi estimated that the rhythm of the in and out of this AOE is likely to be triggered randomly, which completely tests the player's reaction ability.

Yuetian was also miserable, he was completely pitted by his own routine consciousness, and was stabbed three times in a row! Although the main tank 's duty is to attract hatred and take the fight for the whole group, and being knocked down by the tank can happen at any time, this way of death is too tragic!

When Ji Xuan thought of this, he suddenly reacted.

Oh my god ! They are doomed !

And not only was the one who fell was a t , but he was also a fucking conductor!

As a holographic online game, "Domain" is very realistic in many aspects.

For example, the dead cannot speak or type.

However, generally speaking, this situation rarely happens. After all, although players will die from time to time, they will be resurrected at the resurrection point the moment after death. In fact, there is no real time of death, so no one has ever discovered this setting.

It was different in the dungeon. Before everyone left the battle or died, the player who died first could not be resurrected at the resurrection point. He could only lie quietly on the ground as a corpse, with his eyes closed peacefully. He could neither open his mouth to speak nor stretch out his hands to type. The only way to communicate with others was probably to communicate with thoughts ...

Yue Tian: "..."

What the hell is telepathic communication? He and his twin brothers have never successfully communicated with each other through telepathy!

When they found that Ritian was lying on the ground and unable to get up, everyone realized belatedly that they had no command!

Ji Xuanyi's first reaction was to think of his resurrection skill, but his resurrection was fake. Even if Yue Tian stood up, he would have to lie down again after five minutes. Moreover, Ji Xuanyi didn't know whether the passive level-down side effect would be triggered in the copy. What if Yue Tian got up and lay down and still lost level? It would be hard to say.

At the level 60+ stage, it would take at least half a month to upgrade to the next level. Not to mention whether Yuetian cares about this half month, he is exactly level 64 now. If he drops back to level 63, the activity will probably end right after he has just upgraded. What's the point of starting a new level!

Ji Xuan thought about it and put down his half-raised hand again, looking at Ri Tian next to him. They have two commanders, although this one is the deputy, but it should be okay for him to take over, right?

Ji Xuanyi was not the only one who had such thoughts. At the moment of falling , Xu Chu and Xiao Xiao Yuxia also looked at Ri Tian at the same time.

Ritian panicked and said, " I am only responsible for seeing the blood and the details that my brother missed! I am the main commander and I can't see it all! "

Hearing this, Xu Chu could only shrug helplessly and said, " Okay, just do it. It's just a land reclamation, so it's normal to fail the first time. "

Ji Xuan glanced at Xu Chu and said, " You can still fight. Follow my command. "

Everyone was stunned, but Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " The world is ready to take revenge, everyone should stay away from the boss 's next move. "

Ritian didn't say anything and lay on the ground again. Everyone naturally obeyed Ji Xuanyi's command. After all, it was not the first time that the other party had given orders.

It should be said that compared to the orders of Yuetian, the unfamiliar PVE commander, everyone should actually trust Ji Xuanyi a little more.

Xu Chu touched his chin, looked at Ji Xuanyi, and said: " Why didn't you use the first move? Is there any reason for it? "

After the boss released three AOE's , he began to sway meaninglessly, probably as a sign of arrogance and provocation. However, this should also be the time set by the official to give players time to react. Only then did Ji Xuanyi take the time to look at Xu Chu and answer his question.

If the boss 's normal attack is only aimed at the main tank , or if it is a normal aoe , Ji Xuanyi's current instructions are actually unnecessary.

But from the beginning, Ji Xuanyi discovered one thing. The boss 's attack was not aimed at Yuetian and Xiaoxiaoyuxia. Strictly speaking, the boss 's attack was more like regularly hitting a small piece of ground in front of it. Yuetian had been standing there from the beginning and had taken the damage every time since then, so he hadn't noticed it.

But if this is really the case, the boss 's attack can be said to be very easy to dodge, and in this case, there is also a setting that requires at least three people to bear the damage of the attack, which seems particularly unnecessary.

Based on the nature of previous dungeons, Ji Xuanyi suspected that if the boss 's attack missed, it might cause certain damage to the entire group.

But what happened to Yue Tian just now has proved one thing: empiricism is not acceptable, so Ji Xuanyi did not dare to define it like this.

" Let's test how the boss 's attacking skills are judged, " Ji Xuanyi said, " If it is avoidable damage, with Tian Xia here, we don't have to worry about the problem of the healer not being able to keep up. "

Ji Xuanyi's words made sense. As a professional tour group boss, Xu Chu pondered for a long time before saying, " What if this skill really inflicts damage and there is no way to avoid it? What if the whole group is wiped out by a slap? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Then we know that we can't dodge the boss 's normal attacks. "

Isn't this the point of exploring new lands? Clearing the level is one thing, but they also have to fully understand the boss 's mechanics.

Xu Chu smacked his lips and stopped talking.

Anyway, if Ji Xuanyi hadn't stood up, they should have been able to escape. Next, of course, they would fight as much as they could, and they would get as much as they could. In short, they would not lose anything.

At this moment, the boss finally came out of his showing-off state. Just as Ji Xuanyi had expected, after waking up, the boss 's attack was not directed at Qi Qin, who had replaced the dead Yue Tian and became his nemesis, but directly towards the place where Yue Tian and the others stood at the beginning, which was in front of the boss .

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " The priest is ready to raise the team's blood. "

As soon as he finished speaking, the boss's thick and huge leaves slammed heavily to the ground, causing a huge vibration in an instant, and the health of the entire group dropped a lot! If the boss hit them again, the whole group would really be wiped out!

Ji Xuan did not think twice and immediately gave the order loudly: " Three swordsmen start to reduce damage and take revenge, the knights wait for a public CD to catch up, the priests temporarily delay the group's health, and do their best to restore the three tanks and the knights. Once the tanks are stable , they can heal the group! "

The players on the field moved instantly. Qi Qin was the fastest among the three swordsmen. He reached the injury point almost the next second after Ji Xuanyi gave the order. Xiao Xiaoyu saw Qi Qin standing there alone and was so scared that his face turned green. He was afraid that Qi Qin would be beaten to death, so he hurried in. Soon, the third swordsman also arrived. After all, Qi Qin is not Yuetian who is dressed in a T- suit. Although the three of them barely withstood the attack, their blood volume was suppressed to a very low level. The priest was almost scared to have a heart attack. Fortunately, Xue Piao Renjian and Jian Xi Xinjiu also stepped in and the blood line was evened out.

With a main commander, Ritian breathed a sigh of relief and began to assign tasks to the priest, healer and group. Soon, the health of the entire group was stabilized .

Yuetian was lying on the ground. Although he had his eyes closed, he could still see the situation on the field from a third-person perspective. He couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief when he saw that the team was not wiped out because of his mistake.

Qi Qin got the position of main tank . In addition, the boss 's normal attacks did not absorb hatred at all, and he did not restrain himself. He output madly, and the boss 's health began to drop rapidly. A group of PVPs did not think there was anything wrong, but Ri Tian stared with his eyes wide open.

In his lifetime, truly in his lifetime, he has never seen anyone with such a DPS !

It's a pity that he is a pvp , and it seems that he is from one of the three major gangs.

Otherwise, it would be great if he could be recruited back to their pve gang to be a regular member of the group.

Ritian couldn't help but look at Ji Xuanyi again, thinking, this one is also very good, he feels that he is okay in all aspects, except that his profession is a bit useless, there is really no disadvantage. It is very hurtful for a fixed group to have only one commander. If Ji Xuanyi also goes over, he and Ritian will be much more relaxed.

As he thought about it, Ritian couldn't help but look at Xu Chu again.

The boss of this package tour is also good ...

Wake up, Ritian!

Ji Xuanyi didn't know that Ritian had already drooled over each of them one by one, and was seriously directing the players on the field.

After the boss's health dropped below 50%, he started to target people more frequently. Occasionally, both melee and ranged attackers would attack together . The three stages of AOE would target people every four enemies. The high-intensity movement greatly reduced the DPS output. Everyone was busy and even Qi Qinzai couldn't speed up the process of lowering the boss's health.

Ji Xuanyi was also very annoyed. Every time the boss called out the remote name, he would pull his hand out to feel if the flower was growing on his head. His action was so stupid that not only Qi Qin who was always distracted, even Xu Chu's eyes were not right when he looked at him!

Ji Xuan had a blank expression on his face and only wanted to kill someone .

But in this situation, Ji Xuanyi can only think about it.

When the health reached about 10%, the boss entered the final burst stage. Originally, Qi Qin and the other five were injured, and the amount of blood lost each time was only about a quarter of their full health, but once the boss entered the burst, the damage immediately soared! With a slap, the five people were left with only blood skin, which immediately frightened the priests and threw their skills at them as if they were free.

Ji Xuanyi was also shocked. He didn't expect the damage during the burst phase to be so terrifying. Seeing that the five people's health had just been restored to full, they were knocked down again. He hurriedly shouted: " Everyone, go and take the damage together! Assassins and archers, those who run fast will fill in first. Mages should give up output and move first. Priests should restore health while walking. Quickly! "

Everyone started moving immediately, rushing towards the injured point as fast as they could! The last 10% of blood is left. If we lose members and die at this moment, goodbye, I won't live anymore!

all PVP players was revealed at this critical moment. Any skills that could be used, such as damage reduction and displacement, were all used very consciously without being commanded to name them. Qi Qin, as the main output player, had a triple shield on his body, and finally held on until the remaining dozen players arrived to take the damage.

More than twenty people huddled together, some were attacking as hard as they could, some were healing as hard as they could, and finally they reduced the last 10% of the boss's health. The boss twisted his body desperately, and finally turned into a black mist and disappeared, leaving only a golden treasure chest.

The moment the boss disappeared, everyone felt like they had survived a calamity ... Even though they only lost a tank with no output , they still fought for nearly twenty minutes. If they were wiped out in the middle and had to start over again, they would probably explode on the spot.

However, this feeling only appeared for a moment and was thrown behind everyone's mind. Everyone looked at the treasure chest that suddenly appeared where the boss disappeared. Everyone was silent for a second, and then they all burst out with their strongest displacement abilities and rushed towards the treasure chest!

" Do you want to die? " Ji Xuanyi said indifferently.

Everyone: "..."

Everyone stood still out of guilt. Ze Yu Shishui's hand was almost touching a corner of the box, but he stopped abruptly, turned his head, opened his big watery eyes, and looked at Ji Xuanyi with tears in his eyes.

Ji Xuanyi sneered: " Sorry, I'm not a pedophile . "

Ze Yu Si Shui: "..."

Ji Xuan glanced around and saw that Ritian was teleported to a resurrection point not far away the moment the battle ended. Ritian went to pick up his brother. The rest here were all acquaintances from the three major gangs.

Then there is nothing to hide.

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows and said, " Tianxia, go open the box. "

Ze Yu Sishui failed to act cute, and burst into tears, saying: " The conductor is too partial! This is a backdoor, it's wrong! "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Little friend, open your eyes and count how many times his DPS is greater than yours, okay? "

Without waiting for Ze Yu Sishui to speak, Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Besides, even if he was just slacking off the whole time, what's wrong with him being open and aboveboard with his boyfriend? "

Ze Yu Sishui was stunned by his self-righteousness and stared at him, while Xu Chu chuckled beside him.

But even if Ze Yu Sishui wanted to touch the box again, when Qi Qin came up with the Sword of Ares, he still timidly retracted his little paws and ran to Ming Shao with a wronged look on his face.

Qi Qin has recently gotten used to Ji Xuanyi saying that he is his boyfriend. Although he feels happy in his heart, he still looks reserved on the surface. Only the roots of his ears hidden under his hair are still red. Ji Xuanyi wants to laugh when he sees him like that.

Ji Xuanyi still believed in Qi Qin's luck. Apart from Yun Zhongjian, there was probably no one more famous than Qi Qin.

It is really tedious and troublesome to open up a new area and fight the boss . Ji Xuanyi hopes that Qi Qin can find clues related to the next activity in the first box. Once he figures out what the thing is used for, whether it is a big use or a small use, Ji Xuanyi will almost know whether he needs to continue to brush this dungeon.

Qi Qin put the Sword of Ares into his backpack, bent down and opened the treasure chest in front of him. When everyone saw the box open, they immediately gathered around, wanting to know what was inside.

Qi Qin knew what Ji Xuanyi wanted. He reached out and dug into the box for equipment and weapons. After searching for a while, he took out a bag.

Everyone had no interest in the bag that Qi Qin took out. When they saw Qi Qin walking away, they crowded over to look through the equipment. Qi Qin carried the bag all the way to Ji Xuanyi and handed it to him.

 " Only this, " Qi Qin said, " the rest are equipment. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and took the bag. It was heavy, as if it was filled with gold coins.

Is this just a normal reward from the boss ?

Ji Xuanyi lowered his head and opened the bag, and found that there was indeed a pile of golden coins inside, and he immediately showed a disappointed expression.

It seems that the mysterious item did not drop.

 " What are you doing? " Xu Chu came over and asked curiously, " Dividing the money? Family conflict? Are you getting a divorce? "

Chapter 142

Xu Chu lay on the ground, dying.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu came over and said sadly: " Ge Chu was a respectable man when he was alive . Give him a proper burial. "

Ji Xuan expressionlessly retracted his foot that was on Xu Chu's stomach . Seeing this , Qi Qin also retracted the Sword of Ares that was against Xu Chu's forehead. Xu Chu was no longer restrained , and he rolled up from the ground and beat Xi Xinjiu with the sword.

Although the mage's strength was weak, he could still feel the blows. Jian Xi Xin Jiu cried out " Ouch !" for a while , then held Xu Chu down and said, " What are you doing? Why did you suddenly start fighting? "

Xu Chu straightened his clothes and said, " Isn't it normal for Ji Xuanyi to hit someone? "

Not to mention beating people , is it normal for Ji Xuanyi to kill people?

Jian Xi Xin Jiu nodded seriously and said, " It would be very abnormal if I didn't beat you to death. "

Xu Chu: "..."

Seeing that the two were about to quarrel again, Ji Xuanyi interrupted and said, " Stop it , what's in the box? "

The second half of the sentence was about asking Jian to wash the new wine , and then he squeezed out from the box.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was stunned when he heard this and said, " Didn't Tian Xia tell you? "

Qi Qin said honestly: " I didn't look at the equipment. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said: " Yes, you really don't need to look at your equipment. "

Seeing Ji Xuanyi's impatient look, Jian Xi Xin Jiu said hurriedly: " Eight pieces of equipment were dropped, four of which are for swordsmen , one for assassins, two for mages, one for knights, and no weapons. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu saw Ji Xuanyi frowning, thinking that he was unhappy that he didn't get the warlock equipment, and hurriedly said: " The attributes are just so-so, not much better than what you have, it doesn't matter whether it comes out or not. "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Don't you have anything else besides the equipment? "

Jian Xixinjiu was stunned and shook his head, " No. "

It seems that either Qi Qin missed it or something, it just didn't come out.

Ji Xuanyi looked at the bag of gold coins in his hand again and exclaimed in amazement.

Xu Chu glanced at Ji Xuanyi and said, " What's going on with this bag of gold coins? I wanted to ask you just now, if you're not dividing the money, what are you two doing in secret? "

Ji Xuanyi casually threw it into his hand and said, " It's nothing. The gold coins dropped by the boss . When Ritian and Yuetian come, let them see whether to split it equally or roll it together with the equipment . "

Xu Chu weighed the bag of gold coins, raised his eyebrows in surprise, and said, " This boss is quite rich, why did he drop so much money? "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, as if he thought of something, but it was only a flash of inspiration and then he disappeared.

" What's wrong? " Qi Qin asked with concern.

Ji Xuanyi shook his head, took the bag of gold coins from Xu Chu, opened the bag, took out one and examined it carefully.

Xu Chu was just about to ask Ji Xuanyi if he was planning something shady, but when he saw his actions, he was stunned for a moment, then moved closer and looked at the gold coin. After a while, Xu Chu said in surprise: " Something is wrong. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu also came over to join in the fun and said, " What? What's wrong? What are you doing? "

" There's something wrong with this bag of gold coins. " Ji Xuanyi suddenly said.

It is normal for a copy to drop money, but this bag of gold coins is too much. Even if the amount is distributed equally among twenty-five people, it seems a bit too generous.

Ji Xuanyi has been playing games for so many years, and except for the cases where the officials made big mistakes and had to compensate the players, he has never seen any official being generous.

As it turned out, Ji Xuanyi's suspicion was indeed correct.

" This gold coin is different from the gold coins currently circulating in our game. " Xu Chu said with a frown.

" Ah? Different? " Jian Xi Xin Jiu asked curiously, " What's different? Why can't I see it? "

Xu Chu said: " Maybe it's because you are poor. "

Poor people wash new wine with swords: "..."

Not to mention anything else, when it comes to dealing with gold coins, Jian Xi Xin Jiu really can't catch up with RMB players like Xu Chu.

Ji Xuanyi also noticed something was wrong. He took out a gold coin from his backpack and compared it with the one in his hand.

The currency that is now circulated between players in "Domain" is of the same standard, including the other five races. Although they rarely interact with the human race, they also use the same gold coins.

Ji Xuanyi had seen it in a popular science post when he was browsing the forum before. The pattern engraved on the universal gold coin was the leaf of a plant that grows everywhere on this continent. The shape of the leaf was very unique and it was hollow in the middle, so it could be recognized at a glance.

The gold coin in Ji Xuanyi's hand was not only larger than the common gold coin, but also had the pattern of an ugly demon's head on it.

" This is not a common gold coin, " Ji Xuanyi said, finally showing a smile on his face: " It seems that this is the mysterious item that the official said. "

Upon hearing this, Xu Chu immediately reached out to take it, but was ruthlessly kicked away by Ji Xuanyi.

" Hey, at least we found it together, okay? " Xu Chu said helplessly, " Give me a chance, boss. Can't I pay for it? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " You don't have to pay for it. "

When Xu Chu heard that there was a play, he immediately became excited and asked, " What do you mean? "

Ji Xuanyi thought about it and it seemed that he didn't need anything in particular, so he could only ask for a blank check reluctantly and said, " If I need anything later, please lend me Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin. "

In Ji Xuanyi's opinion, the only redeeming feature of Xu Chu, apart from his wealth, was that he had two bodyguards.

Xu Chu didn't even think about it and said, " Hey, what do I think I am? No problem, no problem. Just take it and use it however you want. I can even give you six days for free! "

Ji Xuanyi calmly and decisively refused: " No, six days is not enough. "

...

Six days of playing Landlord with Jing Yunhan outside the dungeon: " A-choo! "

...

Xu Chu showed a regretful expression for not letting Liu Tian go, but it only lasted for a moment. Then he became energetic again and looked at Ji Xuanyi expectantly.

Ji Xuanyi reached into the bag of gold coins and gave half to Xu Chu out of loyalty. After Xu Chu put away the gold coins, he said nonchalantly: t cheat you'l won .ll give you half of this bag' I " Everyone .later rolls based on their own abilities . "

Xu Chu said unwillingly: " You don't want to shoot? "

Ji Xuan gave him a cold look.

If a group bid was made, this crazy guy Xu Chu would probably be able to buy all the items in the entire dungeon.

Xu Chu also knew what kind of person he was, so he just said it casually. Seeing Ji Xuanyi's expression, he smacked his lips and fell silent.

It was only then that the two of them realized that Jianxi Xinjiu, who had been watching them all the way, was still staring at them eagerly.

Although Jian Xi Xin Jiu was not an honest man, he had been working hard for a long time. Ji Xuanyi hesitated for a rare time, but before he could speak, Xu Chu said to Jian Xi Xin Jiu: " You want it too? "

Nonsense, who wouldn't want the props related to the next event? Besides, although they are not universal in the game, they are still gold coins!

Jian Xi Xinjiu stared at the bag of gold coins in Xu Chu's hand and nodded repeatedly.

Xu Chu smiled slightly and said, " Come on, keep thinking. "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

The two people had a disagreement and started fighting again.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, the two people who caused the dispute in the first place, stayed out of it and walked to the side. The twin brothers finally came back and began to take charge of the situation and prepare to roll the equipment.

Except for the two tycoons, Ze Yu Sishui and Xu Chu, no one else raised any objection to the roll point mechanism. After all, everyone had no idea how rich they were , but they knew the depth of their own wallets.

We are all poor people, why should we make things difficult for each other?

Although Ze Yu Sishui wanted to object, but when he thought that the only one competing with him for equipment was the great Mi Yin, he became quiet. Whether he or Mi Yin got the equipment, it was acceptable to him.

However, Mi Yin felt uncomfortable under Ze Yu Sishui's admiring gaze, and walked silently to the side of Xue Piao Renjian.

When the level was still low, Ji Xuanyi was not quite sure how long the equipment he made for Qi Qin could be used. After all, the full level data had not been announced. Now that he saw the equipment produced by the last copy before the full level, Ji Xuanyi had a better idea in his mind. Although a large part of Qi Qin's current attributes are stacked up by the artifact Sword of Ares, the attributes of his suit are actually not low. At least it is better than the equipment dropped in this dungeon, and there is also a suit bonus. Ji Xuanyi estimates that he can use it until the maximum level.

In short, Qi Qin can't use the equipment in this copy, but if there are good special effect weapons or jewelry, he can take them.

But unfortunately, the four pieces of swordsman equipment that Qi Qin took out were not as good as the one he had, so he did not participate when the time came to roll .

Yuetian's luck was indeed bad today. He didn't get any of the four pieces of equipment.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia, the unlucky guy, also only got one piece. The remaining three were taken away by the unknown swordsman from the three major gangs.

When Ji Xuan saw that Xiao Xiao Yuxia looked at him with a strange look in her eyes, he said speechlessly: " Will this person not retaliate? "

Xu Chu smiled and said, " No. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu nodded and said, " Xiao Xiao Yu Xia shouldn't be that kind of person. "

Xu Chu glanced at Jian Xi Xin Jiu and said, " You probably have some misunderstanding about Xiao Xiao Yu Xia. He is just that kind of person. "

After a pause, Xu Chu said, " I mean, we helped that man, so Xiao Xiao Yuxia couldn't retaliate against him. "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

Is that really how it is?

Jian Xi Xin Jiu has always had bad luck and thought he couldn't roll for that piece of knight equipment. Unexpectedly, Xue Piao Ren Jian was even more unlucky than him. After Jian Xi Xin Jiu rolled out three points out of a hundred points, he only rolled out two points, and the equipment was taken away by Jian Xi Xin Jiu.

Xue Piao Renjian seemed calm, after all, he had experienced a difficult level where his salary was not enough to repair his equipment, and he probably had come to terms with his luck.

Ze Yu Sishui got the assassin's equipment, and then begged to give it to Mi Yin, which made everyone frown. If you want to give it to Mi Yin, can't you just not roll it? Ze Yu Sishui refused to do so. He felt that the equipment should be passed through his hands before giving it to Mi Yin to show his sincerity. Mi Yin thanked this little fanboy with a smile and accepted the equipment. Xuchu didn't roll for the mage equipment at all . After the other two mages got it, he directly paid for it. Although it is forbidden to bid for equipment in the team, it does not say that you can't buy it from others! Everyone compared it and expressed contempt.

Damn rich people!

After everyone divided the spoils, they moved on to the next boss .

Ritian was holding a small notebook, muttering to himself as he recorded the boss 's skills and mechanisms, fearing that he would forget something. Ritian looked at Xuchu, then at Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, and finally came to Qi Qin and said, " Are you two pure PVP players ? " said " hmm " lightly .

Qi Qin looked at Ritian, then turned his head towards Ji Xuanyi.

Ritian choked after hearing this, and then said, " I see that you seem to be quite skilled in commanding. Are you interested in developing in the PVE field? Our guild is in need of people, and you can directly become a senior executive ... No, a deputy guild leader is also fine. "

Ji Xuan didn't even look at him and said, " We don't join any gangs. "

Ritian persisted and said: " It doesn't matter if you don't join a guild, just join a fixed group.

When the PVE gameplay develops in the future, it will be much more convenient to have a fixed group to play. "

Ji Xuan glanced at Yue Tian, who seemed to be writing a strategy guide seriously, but was actually listening to the noise here, and said speechlessly: " I know what you mean, but I have no interest in PvE . "

Ri Tian seemed to want to say something else, but Ji Xuanyi interrupted him and said, " I have a lot of enemies, so I am not suitable for a small PvE group like yours. You can't afford to be pursued by others. If you have the time to find me, you might as well go and pry that rich guy. "

Ji Xuan looked at him and added: " The world is the same as me, so you don't have to waste your breath. "

Things have come to this point, and if you continue to cling to the other person and refuse to let go, it would seem very tactless.

And what Ji Xuanyi said was right, a pve guild cannot withstand revenge from others.

Compared with pvp guilds that are tightly bound together because of factions or other reasons, and share the same fate, a pve guild that only gathers together to make it easier to find a group to play dungeons, or to make it less likely to be trapped in the early stages of development , the internal conflicts caused by dungeons or team factors alone are enough to cause trouble, not to mention revenge.

pure PVE world is very simple, with only dungeons and daily tasks. Fighting is beyond their cognition, let alone revenge killings . They do not have the ability or awareness to deal with such things.

Even though he felt that Ji Xuanyi was indeed a good candidate to be a commander, and that Qi Qin's DPS would be wasted if he didn't use it in PVE , facing this situation, Ritian could only retreat.

Ritian couldn't convince Ji Xuanyi, so he had to harass Xu Chu – of course he didn't want to recruit Xu Chu to their group, he just wanted to get close to him so that Xu Chu would give priority to them when he was planning a group in the future .

Xu Chu didn't care about such things. Besides, the two brothers Ritian and Yuetian were indeed well-known in the PVE world, so Xu Chu agreed very readily.

Qi Qin looked at Xu Chu, then looked at Ji Xuanyi again.

Ji Xuanyi does have many enemies, but because he has been hiding his identity for some time, the only enemy who knows Ji Xuanyi's identity and is still active seems to be Zhaochen.

Moreover, for some reason, the latter seems to have a weird attitude towards Ji Xuanyi, so he probably won't rashly announce Ji Xuanyi's identity.

Having too many enemies was just an excuse. Did Ji Xuanyi really dislike PVE ? But if that was the case, why was he so familiar with the dungeon and how to command it?

When Qi Qin encountered something related to Ji Xuanyi, he seemed to suddenly become smart. He hesitated for a while and called out, " Xuanyi. "

Ji Xuan turned his head to look at him and said, " What's wrong? "

Qi Qin said: " Have you ever been a PVE leader before? "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment, looking at Qi Qin for a while with a half-smile, until the other party's eyes began to dodge, then he pursed his lips and said: " Yes. "

Everyone's impression of Mu Xuanyi seems to be only words closely associated with pvp, such as mad dog and cancer. This kind of guy who is completely self-centered and doesn't care about others, you don't even need to think about it, you know he has no affinity with pve that requires cooperation, tacit understanding, and obedience to orders .

PVE for quite a long time before becoming Mu Xuanyi . However, even for Ji Xuanyi himself, it was a long time ago that he served as a PVE commander in a dungeon.

This happened long before he became the leader of the Thousand Man Gang. At that time, his friends were just friends, and no one could have imagined what would happen later.

I also learned my " PVE commanding skills at that time. I thought I had forgotten them, but they came in handy, " Ji Xuanyi said. " It was worth it. "

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi's nonchalant face and couldn't help but reach out and hold his hand. Ji Xuanyi always behaves very coldly, but Qi Qin knows that he actually cares a lot about the relationship between himself and others, otherwise he would not have been so upset after being deserted by his friends and relatives.

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin and said, " You don't have to be like this. You can't say that they are completely to blame for what happened back then. After all, I have a bad temper and I am very arrogant. I probably can't stand it now, and they probably ..."

" Um. "

Ji Xuanyi almost thought he had misheard. He raised his eyebrows and looked at Qi Qin, saying, " What did you say? "

Qi Qin looked at him for a long time and said, " I said, ' Hmm . ' "

Ji Xuanyi gritted his teeth, but Qi Qin didn't seem to notice his change of mood at all and continued, " I know Xuanyi has a bad temper. He often changes his face when he is not satisfied. He is unreasonable, gets angry easily, and likes to hit people. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuan had a blank expression on his face. He was about to put into practice what Qi Qin said about his shortcomings, when he saw the other party looking at him with his dark eyes and said seriously: " But I still like Xuan Yi very much. I also like Xuan Yi's shortcomings. "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned. Qi Qin had already stopped, turned around and hugged him, and whispered: " So I won't be like those people. I won't leave Xuanyi. "

Ji Xuanyi was held in Qi Qin's arms, with his head buried in his chest, but his throat seemed to be blocked by something and he couldn't speak.

After a long while, Ji Xuanyi rubbed his slightly sore nose, exhaled lightly, reached out and punched Qi Qin, and said disdainfully: " Don't hug me casually, your equipment is so uncomfortable! "

Qi Qin quickly let go of his hand and went to see if Ji Xuanyi was hit anywhere, but Ji Xuanyi turned his head away and didn't let him see. He just held his hand and went forward to catch up with the main group, saying, " Fortunately, we walked behind, otherwise we would have been surrounded by onlookers. "

Qi Qin, however, was able to feel justified for once, thinking, let people just watch, is there really no reason in this world that lovers are not allowed to talk about love?

defeating the first boss , in addition to the way you came, four more intersections appeared around, leading to the other four bosses .

Ji Xuanyi was not quite sure what the mechanism of this dungeon was. What did the order of attacking the five bosses affect? Was it the difficulty of the next boss , or the mechanism to unlock the hidden boss ?

It is rare that the two brothers Ritian and Yuetian have different opinions on this matter. Yuetian thinks that these five bosses may be in a mutually beneficial relationship. After the death of the wood boss , the fire boss should be weakened, and the fire should be eliminated after the wood is defeated. Ritian said that there is no such algorithm, their attributes are mutually restraining, and no matter how you think about it, it should be wood that restrains one of water, earth, and wind, and one of water, earth, and wind should be eliminated after the wood is defeated.

The two argued for a while, and finally chose to believe in Ritian's judgment. After all, if it was a counter-reaction relationship, this boss would definitely drop items or buffs that could help them defeat the next boss after death . However, the spoils were divided up, and there was a blank space under everyone's avatar, with nothing.

If the bosses are really related to each other, then of course the inference of mutual generation is more reliable.

Now everyone is walking on the road leading to Liehuo Town, and they should be not far from the town .

Ji Xuanyi had never been to Liehuo Town, so he didn't express any opinion. He just followed the main group and occasionally chatted with Qi Qin.

Fortunately, the unknown swordsman in the group happened to be from the Fiery Town. After a little search, he found the location of the boss .

This boss was exactly the same as the fire giant, except that it was a little smaller. Ji Xuanyi had happened to be away with Jian Xi Xinjiu during the world mission at that time, so he had never seen this boss . He stood not far away and marveled at it.

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia couldn't help but sigh: " When I saw this boss , I felt a sense of familiarity. "

Ji Xuanyi asked curiously: " Friendly? With the boss ? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia recalled with nostalgia: " Back then, the Flame Giant helped us deal with a lot of people from Day Sun City ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

After all this time, it turns out to be this intimate!

Xu Chu obviously felt the same way. He shook his head and sighed, " I didn't expect that we would have to fight each other today. Sigh ..."

' Ai "" bullshit ! " Ji Xuanyi cursed with a frown on his face.

Yuetian said somewhat awkwardly: " My brother and I didn't go to the battle with the fire giant. " Xu Chu smiled and said, " That's normal. Many people didn't make it, but the mission was accomplished, and that's enough. "

Not to mention the players who left along the way, there was also the impact of the subsequent heavy volcano environment, plus the last wave of players who were trapped and logged off. In the end, there were actually only a few hundred players from Starry City who actually fought against the fire giant. Even Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xi Xinjiu were not in the team, so it was understandable that the twin brothers left the team.

Yuetian didn't expect that the leaders of the three major gangs could be so considerate of them, the independent people. He was a little surprised, but it only lasted for a moment, and his thoughts immediately returned to the matter of conquering the boss .

" That's true, " Yue Tian said, " but we two have never fought this boss before , so we can only guess its skills and mechanisms based on the records posted on the forum. There will inevitably be some deviations, and this boss may not be as smooth as the previous one. "

Although Xiaoxiao Yuxia and others were players who had faced this boss directly and had successfully defeated the fire giant, these PVPs didn't even know how to look at the boss' skills, let alone the mechanism. They just mindlessly used skills on the boss , and when they died they ran back from the resurrection point to continue using skills. Yuetian asked a few questions about the details, and Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Xuchu were both confused. He didn't expect these two people to provide any accurate information.

" A post on the forum? " Xu Chu became interested and said, " Is it the post that records the beginning and end of the world missions in the three main cities? I remember it was highly voted up. The post was well restored and the parts that were edited were also well-written. "

Yuetian nodded repeatedly and said, " Yes, yes, that post has a lot of valuable information, but speaking of this, I have a question for you. "

" What's the problem? " Xu Chu patted his chest and said, " As long as I was there at the time, I will tell you everything. "

When Yue Tian heard this, his face became excited. Before he could speak, Ri Tian beside him also squeezed over and said, " We saw that post saying that there is a super awesome master in our Star City who fell from the sky with a beauty in his arms-- "

Ji Xuanyi: " Puff!!!! "

" Cough cough cough cough cough ..." Ji Xuan's face turned red and he almost choked to death on his own saliva. Qi Qin supported him with both hands and avoided his gaze.

When Xu Chu heard Ritian's words, he almost laughed out loud, but Ji Xuan glared at him, and he managed to strangle the laughter in his throat, making a strange " ji " sound and almost choking.

Other people who knew about the incident also showed expressions of being unable to bear to watch, some tried to hold back their laughter, and some covered their faces.

Ritian and Yuetian looked at the reactions of the crowd and asked in confusion: " What's wrong? Why are you all reacting like this? We are just curious about who that person is, can't we tell us? "

Xu Chu cleared his throat for a long time before he stopped choking, and said with a smile: " I can't say it, I can't say it ..."

Ri Tiandao: " Just tell us two, and we won't tell anyone, right? "

Xu Chu shook his head: " No, no ..."

The twin brothers looked at each other, and Yue Tian said unhappily, " I saw someone commenting on the thread saying that the three major gangs promised to introduce these two people to everyone, but you guys broke the promise. "

What's more, Xu Chu just patted his chest and promised to tell him everything he knew.

Xu Chu said earnestly, " Little brother, I'm not telling you this for your own good. If that beauty gets angry and loses her temper, the master will pin you to the ground and beat you up. So be careful with the gossip! "

The twins were stunned and muttered, Are " you guys so brutal in PvP ? "

I just wanted to know my identity, but I was beaten to the ground ...

However, after Xu Chu said this, they really gave up the idea of digging deeper and started to discuss in a low voice how to beat this boss .

From the beginning, Ji Xuanyi had been looking at Xu Chu with a warning look, and only when he saw that the other party did not sell him out did he retract his gaze.

Even though the twin brothers swore not to reveal anything, secrets, once revealed, would be known to countless people. Would Ji Xuanyi still be able to stay in Fanxing City?

The other few people were also very well-behaved and quiet as chickens, saying that they would never reveal a single thing to anyone.

Perhaps because the information was so confusing that it was hard to tell whether it was true or false, the two brothers Ritian and Yuetian discussed for a long time before deciding on their respective positions.

" Fire bosses usually have high attack power, as well as a series of specific skills such as infection and explosion, " Yue Tian said slowly, and it was obvious that he was a little hesitant : " Everyone, spread out and stand. There is no need to make a special request to clear the level. Just fight as many as you can. "

pvp players responded weakly.

The twins probably had some misunderstanding about them, and no one expected to pass the level. It should be said that successfully defeating the first boss was already a miracle for them, not to mention that the nearly one-hour dungeon time had actually exhausted some people's energy. In fact, most people already had the mentality that they would most likely not be able to defeat this boss .

And in fact, this is indeed the case. The damage of the smaller version of the Fire Giant is actually higher than that of the World Quest version of the Fire Giant. Even when they start fighting and the system prompts that the wood boss has been defeated and the fire boss's health and attack power have been reduced, the opponent's damage is still outrageously high. It's not that the normal attack is very powerful. No matter how high the damage of a normal AOE attack without a damage-bearing setting is, it will not kill the tank instantly . It's just that the priests will be more tired. The more troublesome thing is that the boss has a naming skill, which names the whole group indiscriminately, including the tank and the healer.

Fire circles will continue to appear under the feet of the named players, and they need to keep moving to avoid the cumulative damage of the fire circles. But even so, they will still lose blood while moving, and the blood loss will be severe.

An assassin like Ze Yu Sishui is a fragile character. If he is not treated, he will die after being burned by fire three times. When he was targeted for the first time, Ze Yu Sishui directly used double teleport to avoid it. When he was only left with a skin of blood and was healed, his face turned pale.

Even the fastest agility professions are like this, not to mention the others. Basically, they have to go out to queue for the fire circle despite the damage reduction. Every time they are called out, it feels like a life-and-death separation, and if they are not careful, they will die.

the boss's mechanism better . Loss of manpower is nothing, just keep fighting.

The most annoying thing is that the roll call even includes the t !

It was a bit of a stretch for Yuetian to carry the monster. After all, the boss's damage was there. Once he was targeted and got out of the fire circle, he would basically die instantly. The priest had no chance to heal him at all, and Yuetian just lay on the ground.

The Fire Giant has a different mechanism from the Wood Boss and does not need to take damage. Ji Xuanyi of course made a prompt decision to let Qi Qin go up. However, although Qi Qin could dodge the Fire Giant's physical attacks, he could not dodge the range damage of the flames. In addition, without the bonus of a T- equipment, his health was even more like a roller coaster than Ritian's, and he couldn't hold on for a while.

Of course, Qi Qin would not just stand there and be beaten to death by the boss . When he saw that his health was too low and the priest could not heal him, he simply flipped over and kicked the boss , then jumped out of the battle range.

As soon as he escaped from the battle, the boss left directly, restored his original health, and stood at the starting place again.

Except for Ritian who was happily running to the resurrection point to pick up his brother, everyone else breathed a sigh of relief and collapsed to the ground.

This boss was really hard to fight. Qi Qin had to concentrate on dealing with the boss 's attacks, so he had no time to output. When he had to rely on others, everyone suddenly felt the horror of the boss's health.

From the time they encountered the monster to the time they escaped, they didn't even reduce the boss 's health to 10%!

Xiao Xiao Yu took a breath and said, We could still think of a way to deal with " the previous boss , but this one seems hopeless. Isn't the damage from the targeted attack too abnormal? "

" As long as the person being named handles it well, the naming mechanism doesn't actually have much impact. The most important thing is that it will point to T , which is too troublesome. " Ji Xuanyi frowned. He had experienced similar dungeons before, but usually if they pointed to T , they would just pull out and start over, and they could only gamble their lives. But the situation is different now, this is a new dungeon, there is no such thing as having to be lucky to pass it, that is to say, there must be a way to solve it if you click T , but it may be very complicated , and they haven't found it yet.

Ji Xuan looked at the twin brothers who were running towards him from the resurrection point not far away , thought for a moment, and said, " If you are a t in the world , if you are lucky, you may not be singled out. "

Xu Chu had been targeted once before, and his movement speed was very slow. He survived only because of his good equipment and high health. He was lying on the ground to rest. When he heard Ji Xuanyi's words, he sat up and said, " Relying on your luck? Is that okay? "

Ji Xuanyi said, " What's wrong with that? But this is a new game after all. Should we find the correct solution or rely on luck to pass the game? Let's discuss it. "

Chapter 143

The twin brothers returned to the team again. Yuetian's foot was stabbed and burned , and the expression on his face was a little collapsed.

a tank in a holographic online game really tests the player's psychological endurance , and anyone who is not a bit masochistic needs to think carefully .

Ji Xuan looked at Yue Tian and said, " What do you mean? "

Yuetian wiped his face and said, If " the tank is also targeted, we can only play with two tanks . If they are targeted, we can take turns to attack. If the damage reduction is cyclical, the nurse will also be much easier. "

Although it was said that double T was needed , everyone's first reaction after hearing this was to go see Xu Chu.

Xu Chu: "..."

Xu Chu was also really screwed. Couldn't these people think about him at other times? ? ? If Liu Tian were here , he would definitely tell Xu Chu that he would think of him every time he wanted to hit someone.

But Xu Chu probably wouldn't like to be remembered like this.

There is no shortage of swordsmen. There are plenty of them. Even in this group of only 25 people, there are four swordsmen , including masters like Qi Qin. The only problem lies in the equipment.

Xu Chu said helplessly, " If you had told me about this a month earlier, it would still be possible. Now everyone, whether they are good at fighting or not, wants to enter the dungeon to explore . The few T- suits have been snatched up long ago . The set I gave to Yuetian was barely put together before the announcement was made. It is basically impossible to get another set, okay? "

Actually, it's not really impossible. After all, what can't you buy with money? It's just that now everyone knows that you need to wear T- suit when you open up new land. Even if someone wants to sell it, they don't plan to sell it after they finish the new land . They are just going to raise the price. No matter how rich Xu Chu is, he can't resist this!

Xu Chu is just a person whose name is on the rich list, but he does not dominate the entire rich list. He would never buy equipment when he knows he will be a sucker.

who play PVE generally have a certain understanding of prices, and the twins also know the current situation. After Yuetian said this, he felt a little shameless and said awkwardly, " That's right. Players can't get equipment, and the auction house is probably full of people scrambling for it. Besides, there's not enough time, so the double tank configuration probably can't be played. "

At least it can't be played during the event phase.

Ji Xuan had thought of this a long time ago, but he did not interrupt them. After seeing Yue Tian and Xu Chu finish their conversation, he asked, " Is there any way to pass without playing double tanks ? "

Yuetian frowned and said, " I don't know, but it might be possible. "

 " Maybe? " Xiao Xiao Yu Xia asked curiously, " If it is, then it is. If it is not, then it is not. What do you mean by maybe? "

People here had rarely played dungeons, so Yuetian could only explain patiently: " It depends on the settings. From the dungeons I've played before, some game officials tend to consider the players' way of thinking and set double tanks as the normal and only way to pass the level. In this case, you will definitely not be able to pass the level without two tanks . "

 " However, there are also some officials who will set up a set of easy ways to pass the level, instead of considering the players' playing methods too much. In this case, the double tank playing method derived from this can only be said to be a method that players come up with to be lazy or avoid complicated ways to pass the level. In fact, you can still pass the level without double tanks , but the prerequisites or playing methods are generally very complicated . "

Yuetian looked at Xiaoxiao Yuxia, who barely understood what he said, and said, " I don't know what the setting of this copy is, so I said it might be possible. "

Xiao Xiaoyu's frown was so tight that it could probably kill a fly. Jian Xi Xin Jiu didn't quite understand Yue Tian's theory, and said blankly: " So is it there or not? If there is, then find a way to find it. If not, then just go out. It's not a good idea to just waste time here. "

Some of the crowd were worried, while others didn't care much and just sat down to rest. It all depended on the twins and Xiao Xiaoyu's decision.

Ji Xuan glanced at Xu Chu, who was lying on the ground and preparing to rest for a while, then walked up to the twins and said, " I have a solution that is not really a solution. "

Yue Tian was stunned for a moment, then immediately became alert and asked, " What's the solution? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Do you believe in the power of the European Emperor? "

Yuetian: "... What the hell is this? " play PVE who don't believe in metaphysics and fate. After all, whether or not you get good equipment depends entirely on luck. If you encounter a group with stronger obsessions, the group leader might even bathe, burn incense and worship Buddha before entering the group. There are all kinds of metaphysics. I won't say that I have personally experienced it, but I have always seen others do this kind of thing.

But to be honest, luck and metaphysics are both terrible. I have never seen either of them be very accurate. Can Africans clean themselves up by burning incense and bathing? It is still very dark when entering the game. Nothing you want will come out. Even if a good thing comes out occasionally, maybe no one in the group wants it, so it can only be sold as garbage ...

For someone like the Emperor of Luck, even if he wants to get equipment, he can only do so with sincerity. How can he use it to defeat the boss ?

Ji Xuanyi said: " Tianxia's luck has always been good. If he were to be the tank , he might not be named. "

There was a message written on Yuetian's face: Stop joking!

" Even if you have good luck, you can't use it this way. " Ritian said speechlessly.

Ji Xuanyi actually felt that this method was not good enough when he proposed it. After all, luck is hard to predict. However, there is really no better way at the moment. What if Qi Qin is really that amazing? After all, there is the precedent of Yunzhongjian, which shows that luck is still very useful in this game.

 " I feel like you seem to have overlooked a problem. " Xu Chu, who was lying on the ground, suddenly spoke.

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment and asked, " What's the problem? "

Xu Chu said: " Without Tianxia, this group's DPS is not enough. Even if Tianxia is lucky enough to last an hour or two without being targeted, the others will be exhausted after grinding for so long. They will definitely make mistakes when they are targeted, and if they make mistakes, they will lose members. Even if the healer who is most easily tired holds on to the end, the loss of DPS will cause the battle line to be stretched, and it will fall into a vicious cycle. "

Yuetian also nodded and added: " And the boss ' rampage time limit is thirty minutes. If we don't finish the attack within thirty minutes, the whole team will be wiped out. "

Ji Xuanyi glanced at Qi Qin, and Qi Qin looked back at him innocently.

DPS also needs Qi Qin, and tank also needs Qi Qin, but Ji Xuanyi can't just split his boyfriend in half ...

Ji Xuanyi rubbed his forehead and said, " It seems that my solution is no longer useful. "

Xu Chu thought for a moment and said, " But it's not like there is no way out. After all, considering the drop rate of T equipment, it's still difficult to get two sets in advance. You can't just start an event and end up with no team that can beat it. And according to the setting of the game "Domain", I actually tend to believe the second situation that Yue Tian mentioned, that is, it should have a self-contained method to pass the level. "

" You're right, " Ji Xuan nodded. " No matter how difficult the activity is, it won't be impossible for anyone to defeat it. There should be other ways to crack it. "

The twins looked at each other and said, " Let's spread out and look around to see if there's anything special. Generally speaking, the props that can unlock the boss's skills should be nearby. Or look around to see if there's anything you can talk to, or anything that can be triggered. "

The items that help players pass the level in the dungeon exist in various forms. Even the most experienced team leader cannot find the key item so quickly, so everyone can only cross the river by feeling the stones together.

Hearing this, Xu Chu yawned and said, " Everyone, take your time to look for it. I can't help you anyway. I'll go offline and take a nap first. Don't worry, I'll be back on time ..."

Everyone: "..."

You are still on time! Everyone in Fanxing City knows that you are late, okay? If you go offline this time, it might be a farewell forever!

Xiao Xiao Yu grabbed him with a frown on her face and said, " Slow down! "

Xu Chu looked at him innocently and said, " What's wrong? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said speechlessly: " How dare you ask? Everyone in this group can log off, but you can't. "

Xu Chu frowned and was about to speak, but Ji Xuanyi took Qi Qin's hand and said calmly: " If that's the case, let's go offline and have a meal first. "

Xu Chu: "..."

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " You said so. Except Xu Chu, everyone can log off. Okay, no need to see us off. We are leaving. Bye. "

As Xiao Xiao Yuxia stretched out his Erkang hand towards Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, the two of them turned into a beam of white light and disappeared.

Ze Yu Sishui, who was watching, was stunned and said, " Is this possible? Then can we also ..."

Xiaoxiao rain: " Don't even think about it! "

Ze Yu Sishui had no choice but to shrink behind Ming Shao and Qing Feng Bufu with a wronged look on his face.

Xu Chu probably knew that his procrastination was a bit serious, so he didn't log off in the end. He sighed and started to explore the surroundings with others. It's not that no one in the group had opinions about Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, but these two people were MVPs in the previous boss , after all, and they had no demand for equipment, so they gave them all to them and no one said anything.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were not looking for excuses to avoid the mission, but they were really hungry.

The copy opened at 11 o'clock in the morning, and it was almost one o'clock now. Most people who had eaten breakfast and lunch were not actually hungry at this time, but Ji Xuanyi's daily routine had recently become similar to Qi Qin's. He had eaten at six or seven in the morning, so he felt a little hungry at this time.

The two of them are now in a relationship of roommates and lovers, or in other words, living together. The game cabins are also one large and one small. The two are placed side by side, which actually looks a bit cozy.

After Ji Xuanyi's game cabin was opened, he lay there blankly, motionless. Qi Qin crawled out of the game cabin and reached into Ji Xuanyi's game cabin. Ji Xuanyi grabbed his two strong arms and was pulled up.

Ji Xuanyi patted his arm and said, " I'm so hungry. "

Qi Qin said: " I'll go and make fried noodles. It will be ready soon. "

Ji Xuanyi then let go of his hand, watched Qi Qin leave the room, sat for a while, then slowly got up and moved to the living room.

When Qi Qin cooked noodles for Ji Xuanyi in the morning, he cooked an extra portion and put it aside. Now he added oil to the pot, heated it up, beat three eggs into it, and waited until the eggs were just formed before pouring in the noodles that he had specially reserved in the morning.

Just stir-fry the secret sauce made by Mama Qi, ham, and vegetables, and you will smell the fragrant aroma.

Ji Xuanyi really liked this fried noodles. Qi Qin thought about it, scooped some of the noodles in his own bowl into Ji Xuanyi's bowl, and then took it out.

The thing that Ji Xuanyi was most satisfied with about Qi Qin was probably his cooking skills. While eating, he would occasionally have magical thoughts like " , Qi Qin's cooking is so delicious, am I really worthy of him? "

However, ever since being fed by Qi Qin, Ji Xuanyi has made up his mind not to let Qi Qin slip away from his hands!

Mother Qi won a great victory in the battle!

Qi Qin didn't know what kind of scenes in the harmonious small dark room Ji Xuanyi was imagining every time he ate, and foolishly picked the eggs and ham in his fried noodles and put them into Ji Xuanyi's bowl. Ji Xuanyi also reciprocated by picking the vegetables in his bowl and gave them to Qi Qin.

Qi Qin: "..."

Qi Qin frowned and raised his eyebrows again, saying seriously: " You can't not eat any vegetables at all, you need a balanced diet. "

Ji Xuan ate a mouthful of noodles expressionlessly, thinking that Qi Qin was becoming more and more like a local and even knew the term "balanced nutrition."

When Qi Qin finished his meal and was about to clean up the dishes, Ji Xuanyi sent him to rest. Qi Qin took the dishes to the kitchen to wash them, and then they went to play the game hand in hand.

As soon as I logged in, I saw Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Xuchu looking pale, and the twins also had frowns on their faces, looking constipated.

Ji Xuanyi licked his lips, as if he could still smell the aroma of fried noodles, and said: " What's wrong? Not going well? Or did you find a way but it's too difficult? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was in a daze. When Ji Xuan started talking, he realized that he and Qi Qin had returned. He breathed a sigh of relief, then frowned, shook his head, and said, " I can't find it. " It took Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin almost half an hour to go offline for dinner. During this period, everyone relied on the effect of Madam Harman's potion and dispersed. The twenty-three people each went to check the situation around, but found nothing.

Yue Tiandao: " Let's not talk about props. This is a novice town with fire attributes. Basically, the things you can find are things that can help fuel the flames. There is nothing about props that can suppress flames. It's the same. I searched the whole town inside and out, but there is no trace of a single person. "

" I didn't encounter any triggerable events, " Xu Chu shook his head and said, " I tried all the interactive items, took turns sitting on the chairs, and drank milk that had been outside for who knows how long, but it didn't work. "

Ji Xuanyi also frowned. After a long while, he hesitated and asked, " Is it possible that there is something wrong with the order of the strategy? "

Everyone was stunned. Yue Tian, who suggested attacking the fire boss first , said first: " There is definitely no problem with the attack order. The wood boss does not drop items or buffs , and the system does indicate that the boss here has been weakened because the wood boss has been defeated. "

At first, Ritian had an argument with his brother about this matter, but now he stood on Ritian's side and said, " The system prompts have been issued, and the order must be correct. "

Xu Chu thought for a moment and said, " Is it possible that the item is in another boss 's location? "

" That's possible. " Yue Tian said.

One of the advantages of being a team leader is that you can come into contact with all kinds of weird mechanisms that you think are impossible. Yuetian has indeed experienced a situation where the key props needed to defeat a boss appeared in front of another boss . It's not that the setting is weird, but that there were seven bosses in that copy at the beginning , and there were no arrows with order, which resulted in everyone having to run back and forth in the end, which made Yuetian want to roll his eyes.

However, the mechanism of this copy should not be so stupid. Yutian estimated that the thing might really be with another boss .

" So we should go to the town with water attributes to get the items? " Ritian said, " That seems to work. If we can't defeat the fire attribute, we can only look at other bosses . If we can find the items in the spring town, that would be great. If not, we can just fight the boss there first . "

Anyway, it's on the way, and it's good enough to defeat a boss . The rest of the time can be spent just traveling. No one questioned Ritian's words. After thinking about it, Yuetian nodded and said, " Let's leave the fire giant here for now. Let's go and attack the water-attributed boss first . " bosses like in the previous Xinmu Town . The group could only withdraw from the Fiery Town along the original route, return to Xinmu Town first, and then turn to Quanshui Town.

The journey alone took nearly half an hour. Although no one said anything, the PVP players were already a little uncomfortable with the pace of the raid where they worked for a long time but didn't even get a single kill. They all had expressions of anxiety or fatigue on their faces. Ritian and Yuetian also noticed this. PVE players are quite patient with this kind of situation.

Basically, they can handle a dungeon for four or five hours. It is rare for this situation to occur so quickly. They don't know what to do, so they can only keep moving forward.

Xu Chu's newbie town was the Spring Water Town. Before he even got there, he suddenly said, " I just remembered that I forgot to mention that the Spring Water is quite similar to other water maps. "

Everyone was stunned, not knowing why he suddenly said that.

Ji Xuanyi suddenly thought of something, his face changed, and he said, " What do you mean? It won't be the same as the Confined Sea Realm, right? "

The claustrophobic sea realm is entirely water, and the real main city is underwater. Just like what the old Western doctor said, if we all go down together, those who can't swim will choke on the water, which is like drinking someone else's bath water.

Unfortunately, Ji Xuanyi's swimming ability is not very good, and the same goes for Qi Qin. His original self was actually a good swimmer, but the current Qi Qin grew up in the mountains and has never been in the water since he came here. He only splashed around in the bathtub. If the situation in the Spring Town is the same as that in the Claustrophobic Sea, then they can go back home. Even if they can defeat the fire giant, Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi will never be able to defeat the boss in the water .

When everyone heard Ji Xuanyi's words, they all showed nervous expressions.

Xu Chu said: " That's not the case, it's just very similar to Qingshui City ..."

Qingshui City is one of the secondary main cities. The whole city is surrounded by water and there is very little land. Everyone goes out by boat.

" However, the scale of Quanshui Town is much smaller than Qingshui City, so the boat is also small. If you move too much, it will capsize, " Xu Chu smiled with interest and said, " Let me know in advance so that you won't be caught off guard when the time comes. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Even after being reminded, I still don't feel relieved at all.

There were many landlubbers among the 25 people in the group who had never been in water. Some of them had their faces turned green. It would be okay if the boss was on land, but if he was underwater, they could retreat now.

Ji Xuanyi thought of the five-person dungeon in Qingshui City, where a group of PVE team leaders organized everyone to learn synchronized swimming. He thought that he had gloated over the incident at the time, but he didn't expect that he would suffer the consequences now. Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but feel a little regretful.

Not to mention how worried a group of players were, they finally arrived at the Fountain Town.

Just like Xuchu said, before entering the Spring Water Town, the first thing everyone encountered was water . They didn't know how to describe it, river? Lake? Or sea? In short, they couldn't see the other side, and could only vaguely see the Spring Water Town hidden in the black fog and water vapor.

Xiao Xiaoyu squinted her eyes and gestured, and couldn't help but say: " How far is this? From here, Quanshui Town is not even as long as a stick of gum. "

 " Very far away ..." Xu Chu said.

Ji Xuanyi's face turned green when he looked at the vast expanse of water.

Yue Tian said speechlessly: The most important " thing to consider now is not how far the distance is, but how are we going to get there? Are we going to swim? Even if everyone can swim, they will be unable to swim halfway through this distance, right? "

Mi Yin, who had been watching the water, touched his chin and said, " Even if you can't swim, you should be able to float on the water. There's no wind or waves, so you won't drown. "

Xue Piao Renjian walked over and tugged at Mi Yin's sleeve. Mi Yin turned around and looked at him, suddenly realizing: " That's right, you can't swim ..."

Ritian also said: " Yes, the important thing is that there are still many people who can't swim. Do we have to go together as a group? "

This is even more impossible. Although there is no fatigue in this game, there is weight. With Qi Qin and Xue Piao Renjian, it seems that they will not get wet even if it rains. If they are tied together, these people in armor will be like a weight when they go into the water, pulling everyone down.

While everyone was discussing, Xu Chu clapped his hands helplessly. Seeing that everyone was looking at him, he said, " Everyone, I haven't finished what I said. It's indeed very far from here , but there are boats. "

 " Boat? " Xiaoxiao Yuxia looked at him and said, " Then no one knows how to row it? "

Xu Chu shook his head and said, " No need to mark it. This map has traffic points. "

Xu Chu had chosen this spring town as his novice town because he had heard the news from somewhere else. He was too lazy to walk, so having a transportation point would be great.

But Xu Chu only realized afterwards that there must be transportation here! If there is no transportation in this terrain, do players have to row the boat themselves? It would be faster to jump into the water and paddle!

When everyone heard this, they all breathed a sigh of relief. It was good enough that there was a transportation point. They almost thought they were really going to go into the water.

 " But it's hard to say, " Xu Chu suddenly changed the subject, probably because he found everyone's reaction too boring, and said, " After all, Liehuo Town is completely empty, so whether the spring water is still there is also a question. "

Xu Chu is not exaggerating . What he said is actually possible. After all, the official IQ of "Domain" is sometimes high and sometimes low. You can't say whether he will really regard rowing or swimming as a dungeon challenge.

Ji Xuanyi couldn't stand this atmosphere of guessing anymore, and said with a sullen face: " Whether they took a boat or swam over, we can't figure it out just by doing this. Let's spread out and look for clues. Whether there is a boat or not, report it. "

Ritian showed an awkward expression and said, " It's not a big deal to find something, but we don't have enough priests and we're not fast enough. "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " If it's not enough, take some medicine. "

Ritian was stunned for a moment and said, " The medicine is not ..."

Keep it for fighting the boss ?

There was no need for Ji Xuanyi to say this, Xu Chu said: " What else is there to keep? We have already wasted one at the Fire Giant. Do you still expect to pass the level? "

Well, there is no hope of passing the level anyway, so instead of wasting time keeping the medicine, it is better to use it where it should be used.

Yuetian also understood this principle, so he nodded and said, " Okay, everyone, split up and tell everyone in the team channel when you find a ship. "

Everyone agreed, took the medicine, and dispersed to look for things.

Ji Xuanyi certainly did not separate from Qi Qin. The two of them walked directly along the shore. If, as Xu Chu said, there were both a boat and equipment, they would not have run into the woods with the boat. They must have been waiting on the shore.

As a native of Quanshui Town, Xu Chu certainly knew this. He originally wanted to follow the path of Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, but when he saw the two of them holding hands and feeding each other dog food, he finally curled his lips and changed direction and walked away alone.

Qi Qin, this little country bumpkin, had never seen such a large body of water in his life. While holding Ji Xuanyi's hand, he stared eagerly at the shadow of the spring town in the middle of the water.

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said with a smile: " Do you like it? "

Qi Qin was a little embarrassed and said, " I have lived in the mountains since I was a child. After I left home, I only walked inland. I have never seen such a scene. I am a little curious. "

Qi Qin's embarrassed expression was particularly adorable. Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but curl his lips and said, " When we are free, we can go to the beach to play. "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, then his eyes lit up and he said, " Really? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " I'm still lying to you? But if you don't go into the water, you can only play with sand. "

Qi Qin just laughed. He was probably very happy just playing with sand.

However, if Ji Xuanyi wanted to go out and play, he had to at least settle the things at home first. Thinking of this, Ji Xuanyi's face became a little gloomy.

Qi Qin rarely noticed Ji Xuanyi's mood changes, his attention was attracted by the things in front of him.

He squinted his eyes and carefully identified it, and finally confirmed that he was not mistaken.

He couldn't help but shook Ji Xuanyi's hand and said excitedly: " Xuanyi, look! "

Ji Xuanyi was awakened from his thoughts by Qi Qin. He looked up and was also stunned for a moment.

In front of them, there was a vague figure. It was impossible for them to walk away separately and fall behind the players. That was one person!

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but feel pleasantly surprised, and he pulled Qi Qin forward and said, " Let's go and take a look! "

The two of them ran all the way closer and found that it was indeed one person! The man who looked quite old, with a hunched back, looked far away at the spring town across the water. He bent over and coughed from time to time. Because of the black fog surrounding him, his complexion also looked very bad. However, what surprised Ji Xuanyi was that there was actually a small boat under his feet. If he guessed correctly, this should be the transportation point that Xu Chu mentioned. Ji Xuanyi asked Qi Qin to send a message to the other members of the group, and he walked up to him and said, "Old man, are you okay?" Ji Xuanyi thought that he would tell him everything that happened here immediately, but he just looked at him and fell down. Ji Xuan instinctively reached out to help the man, but he forgot that he was at Strength Level 5, and was dragged to the ground with him. Qi Qin was typing, and had no time to support him. Seeing this, he was frightened and hurried to pull him up. Ji Xuanyi shook his head and asked him to continue sending messages, while he frowned and looked at this. Even Madam Harman, a warlock, needs potions to withstand the black fog around her. It's easy to imagine that this boatman is in trouble. But there was no one else around except this one, so could it be that this last will taught them how to row a boat? Now is not the time to think about this, the most important thing is to find a way to keep this thing alive. Ji Xuanyi looked around and there was nothing useful. Then he looked at the health bar and tried it. It worked. Ji Xuanyi breathed a sigh of relief. I have to say that Ji Xuanyi still hasn't developed his healing instinct. If Ri Tian were here and saw someone dying, his first reaction would definitely be to treat him first. Ji Xuanyi nursed for about seven or eight minutes before the rest of the team came over. The first to arrive were the fastest archers, followed by Ze Yu Sishui and the others. By the time the priest team was the last one to come running over, Ji Xuanyi wanted to vomit blood in front of them. Xuchu, a short-legged man, arrived later than some pastors. After seeing Ji Xuanyi, he said, "Oh my God, Ji Xuanyi, are you being scammed?" Ji Xuanyi: "..." Everyone's head was filled with black lines. Xu Chu's cheering tone might make people who didn't know him think that he and Ji Xuanyi had a huge grudge against each other! "Stop talking nonsense," Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly, "A priest should come and nurse the man. This should be a traffic point. We need to find a way to revive him." A priest in the crowd immediately took over Ji Xuanyi's position. Ji Xuanyi then helped Qi Qin get up from the ground and said, "When I was healing him just now, the system gave me a prompt saying that he was debuffed by the black fog and that we needed to find a plant to save him." "Plants? What plants?" Yue Tian asked.

Ji Xuanyi also said very straightforwardly: "Forgot."

Yue Tian: "..."

It's really not Ji Xuanyi's fault. It's their fault for being slow. The system prompt only appeared for two seconds and was quickly passed. The name of the plant was a long one. If Mi Yin could remember it specifically, Ji Xuanyi had no way of doing it. He did try to memorize it, but soon forgot it.

But just remembering the name is useless, Ji Xuan said: "That plant is probably nearby, leave a priest to take care of it, and we will go around and take a look."

Looking for something again, Xiao Xiaoyu couldn't help but sigh and said, "I thought all I had to do to win the game was stand still and shoot."

Yuetian was also somewhat annoyed, but when he saw Xiaoxiao Yuxia saying this, he inexplicably felt a bit gloating and said, "Now you know, pve is not that simple."

Especially in the early stages of development, there are no clues and you have to figure everything out on your own, which is simply worse than death.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia shook her head and stopped talking. A group of people went to look for the antidote again. After a lot of effort, they found a flower in the woods not far away. The air within a range of less than one meter around the flower was surprisingly clean, with no signs of being contaminated by the black fog. They knew without even having to match the name that this must be the antidote.

Sure enough, after eating the flower, he slowly woke up.

A group of people gathered around him and said happily: "You're awake!"

After Xu Chu finished speaking, he couldn't help but say, "Why is this scene so weird?"

Ze Yu Sishui also looked pale: "I think so too."

Yue Tian was frowning. Although he also felt a strong sense of déjà vu, he still said, "Don't be like this. Can you be more serious?"

Fortunately, he didn't notice anything wrong. After waking up, he got up and said in confusion: "You saved me?"

Ji Xuan nodded and said, "That's right, old man. We want to go to Quanshui Town. Can you give us a ride?"

Everyone looked at this expectantly, but unexpectedly the other party showed an embarrassed expression.

Chapter 144

Ji Xuanyi knew that it would be impossible for them to pass this copy so easily.

He glanced at them and said, "After all, you saved me. I am willing to take you there, but the dock of Fountain Town is occupied by monsters. If we don't get rid of those monsters first, the boat may capsize before we reach the shore."

"We still need to clear the monsters," Xiao Xiao Yu said speechlessly, "What should we do?"

Yue Tiandao: " Generally, in this situation, you need a tank , a healer, and a dps to go to the other side first , clear the monsters, and the traffic point will be opened. "

" Everyone knows this, " Xiao Xiaoyu said, although this was actually the first time he had heard of it. " But the question is how are we going to get there? "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said to him, " Can you take us there? "

He shook his head and said, " The monsters at the dock on the other side have not been eliminated yet. I can't take you there. "

No matter how many times I ask, this is the only thing I can say.

Ji Xuanyi said helplessly: " It seems that we can only go and clear the monsters by ourselves. "

Yue Tiandao: " If we can get there by ourselves , why are we looking for this? "

Everyone fell silent for a moment.

After a while , the mage who had first tried to scan his face but was swept away by the crowd raised his hand timidly and said, " Well ..."

Everyone looked at him and asked, " What's wrong? "

The wizard smiled a little embarrassedly and said, " My family grew up by the lake. I learned some rowing skills from my grandfather , but I haven't practiced much ..."

Everyone's eyes lit up, and Jian Xi Xin Jiu even said, " Why didn't you say so earlier! "

The mage said aggrievedly: " I am not familiar with rowing. It would be so embarrassing if the boat capsized. "

There was really no other way now. If he didn't come out, this group of people would have to go back home. So he spoke with gritted teeth.

As the leader of the group, Yuetian was about to go home when a talented person who could row a boat suddenly appeared. Yuetian treated him like a treasure and approached him with his two brothers. He said in a sweet voice, " It's okay, it's normal to capsize. At worst, we can just swim back. "

The mage was confronted with two identical faces, and blushed a little. It took him a long time to say, " I'm glad you don't dislike me. We can give it a try. If it doesn't work, we can think of another way ... Anyway, don't hold too much hope in me. "

 " No, no, " Ritian said quickly, " Just go with the flow. It doesn't matter whether you can make it or not. Don't feel pressured. "

After Ritian said this, the mage felt relieved, straightened his chest, and said, " Can I use this small boat? I just happen to know how to row a boat this big. "

Upon hearing this, Ji Xuan immediately turned around and shook his head, saying, " Of course, you can, but you have to make sure that you bring my ship back intact. "

Ji Xuanyi immediately said: " We promise! "

Then he nodded and said, " Okay, take it if you want to use it. "

Ji Xuan breathed a sigh of relief and bent down to move the small wooden boat.

Everyone looked at him silently.

Ji Xuanyi maintained the towing action for two seconds, then calmly straightened up, kicked Qi Qin, and said, " Why are you just watching? Get the boat into the water. "

Qi Qin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi always forgot his strength of five, and Qi Qin could do nothing about him. He could only pick up the boat and put it in the water not far away .

Xiao Xiao Yu looked at the boat and frowned, " Can this boat carry three people? And there needs to be a swordsman. I think it's hard to carry two people. "

Xuchu walked over cautiously, put one foot on the boat, and felt her feet swaying, as if she would flip over at any minute. She felt very unsafe, so she took her foot back in dismay, walked to the back, and said, " No matter how many people can get on, I'm not going anyway. "

Although Xu Chu is not good at it, his equipment is the best among those present except Qi Qin. As a mage who only needs to stand still and output, his DPS is also the highest. Yue Tian didn't know what the situation was on the other side, and wanted to let Xu Chu go over to be on the safe side. He didn't expect the other party to retreat so quickly. He could only sigh with regret. The wizard calculated and said, " This boat can only carry three people, including me, at most, and it can't be too heavy. "

As the person rowing the boat, the mage must definitely be on the boat, so that the DPS slot is taken up. The next person who can be on the boat is only a priest and a swordsman.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia asked: Is " your DPS enough? "

The wizard blushed.

It seems that it is not enough.

boss before , this mage's DPS was at the bottom. If he was the only one dealing damage, it's unclear whether he could successfully clear the monster.

Xu Chu thought for a moment and said, " How about I give out some equipment? "

The mage's face turned even redder when he heard that. His equipment was not that bad actually, it was just that his technique was not good and he was easily nervous. Even if Xu Chu gave him all his equipment as it was, this mage probably wouldn't be able to achieve much DPS

Yuetian was worried. He had finally found a breakthrough, but this situation would happen again. Could he teach this mage a lesson now? The problem was that there didn't seem to be any super sharp mages among their group. A casual instruction could increase someone's DPS by several levels ...

Seeing this, Ji Xuan said, If " the DPS is not enough, then don't use the tank . Qi Qin and I will go over there. "

Yue Tian was stunned and said, " Don't want to tank ? How can I not tank ? In some dungeons, the small monsters blocking the way are more painful than the boss ! "

Ritian also said quickly: " Yes, and you can't tell whether it will be one monster or a group of monsters when you get there. You can just go slowly without DPS, or you can go there without a healer and bring a violent DPS . How can you not have a tank ? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia didn't know how to play PVE , so she listened to the twins in everything after entering the game. But now she smiled and said, t know if'l don " others can do it without a tank , but one person is enough in the world. "

Ritian and Yuetian were stunned. They didn't expect Xiaoxiao Yuxia to suddenly say such a thing.

Yue Tian thought Xiao Xiao Yu Xia didn't understand, and couldn't help but said: " You don't know how much damage this kind of monster can do! "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia said calmly: " You don't know how awesome being the best in the world is! " Seeing that the twin brothers didn't believe it, Xiao Xiao Yuxia wanted to tell them that the awesome master who came down from the sky was Qi Qin, but as soon as she said this, it would be clear who the beauty was. Xiao Xiao Yuxia wanted to live for two more years, so she finally held back and said, " Don't worry, Tian Xia is really okay. "

How could the twins feel at ease? In their concept, there was no such person as Qi Qin. Even though everyone else in the group except Xiaoxiao Yuxia said that Qi Qin could do it alone, the twins just felt that it was difficult to explain it to this group of PVPs who had never entered the dungeon .

They didn't know that this group of PVPs were also thinking about it and couldn't explain it clearly to these two PVEs who had never seen a master before !

After all, there were only two twins, and Xuchu hired them at a high price. He had no way to object to their decision. In the end, he had no choice but to say, " Okay, then you three go and try. If it doesn't work, don't delay. Come back and we'll find a way. "

Seeing that the twins were still so pessimistic, everyone stopped trying to persuade them and rushed the three of them onto the boat.

In fact, the second after Ji Xuanyi stepped onto the boat, he wanted to back out. He was really not a good swimmer. The boat was small and floating, swaying all the time. It felt like it would capsize if he sneezed. No wonder Xu Chu reacted like that just now. Ji Xuanyi was stiff all over and his face turned green. If he hadn't seen Qi Qin behind him, he would have gone back to the shore in a second.

Although we can't go to the beach for the time being, going boating on the lake is also acceptable.

The wizard had to row at the stern, so he was the last one to get on. When Ji Xuanyi stepped on, he could only help by stepping on the boat to steady his center of gravity. The rest had to rely on Ji Xuanyi alone. When he saw Ji Xuanyi standing firm , he breathed a sigh of relief and looked at Qi Qin beside him.

Qi Qin looked at the mage, then at Ji Xuanyi, feeling a little guilty. He was wearing light armor – although it was called " light " armor, it was only light compared to heavy armor. In fact, it was still very heavy. Coupled with his big body, he was really afraid of sinking the boat.

Seeing Qi Qin 's hesitation , everyone understood what he was worried about. The mage hurriedly said, " Go ahead, it's okay. The boat can handle it. "

Upon hearing this, Qi Qin had no choice but to stretch out one foot and step on the boat.

Ji Xuanyi, who was standing in the middle of the boat, clearly felt his feet sink, and his heart suddenly skipped a beat.

The wizard said quickly: " Warlock, go to the front, quick! Swordsman, go to the middle! "

When Ji Xuan heard this, even though his feet were shaking violently, he had to bite the bullet and take two steps forward until he stepped on the bow of the boat. Then he held his breath and stopped.

Qi Qin was even worse off. He had never been on a boat in his life, and he was being tossed around so hard that he felt dizzy. Subconsciously, he wanted to do a heavy weight or jump back to the shore. But when he saw Ji Xuanyi's back, he suddenly remembered his current situation. If he used a heavy weight, Ji Xuanyi would fall into the water!

Qi Qin suppressed his instinct again. Although he was extremely agile, he took two shaky steps forward like a toddler who had just learned to walk and reached the center.

The wizard, as expected of someone who grew up by the lake, immediately spotted the opportunity, stepped onto the boat in two steps, and stood at the stern.

For a moment, there were waves under the boat. Although the three people were shaking, they actually stabilized slowly.

Not only the three people on the boat, but also the remaining twenty or so people on the shore breathed a sigh of relief, as if the people who went into the water were not Ji Xuanyi and the other two, but themselves.

The three people on the boat also breathed a sigh of relief, especially the wizard. It was his first time leading people and he was afraid that something might go wrong.

" Well, if you are afraid of shaking, sit down first, " the wizard touched his nose and said a little embarrassedly, " Besides, I am rowing in the back, and the swordsman is too tall. I can't see what is happening in front of me when I stand. "

Although the mage only mentioned Qi Qin, in fact Ji Xuanyi was not short. If he stood alone, the mage would have to tiptoe to see the road. But Qi Qin was really tall. No matter who stood here, they would look very tall in comparison with him. Of course, Ji Xuanyi also looked petite in comparison.

After hearing the wizard's words, the two men sat down carefully again.

more stable after sitting down than when standing up , and although the boat is small, it is quite clean, so Ji Xuanyi can still accept it.

The mage heaved a sigh of relief when he saw the spring town in the distance , and bent down to pick up the two oars on the boat.

In fact, oars are very heavy. Logically speaking, a mage cannot lift them with his strength. But I guess the game officials took this into consideration, so they set the weight of the oars to be very light, so the mage has a chance to lift both oars.

Seeing the boat slowly sailing away from the shore, everyone was worried that the boat would capsize in less than three seconds. Fortunately, the wizard's skills were stable and nothing happened after the boat sailed out seven or eight meters. Everyone was finally relieved and began to howl at the top of their lungs on the shore, asking them to be careful on the road and come back soon.

Ji Xuan was so upset when he heard this, thinking, is this how you set a flag for your teammates ? But it was difficult to move on such a small boat, and he dared not speak loudly. He could only look at the people on the shore who were dancing the most happily with a stiff face.

Xu Chu pointed at Ji Xuanyi and laughed loudly, and said to Xiao Xiao Yuxia: " Look at Ji Xuanyi, hahahahahaha, he's so stiff, hahahahahaha! "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia also wanted to laugh, but he wanted to live more, so he held it back, and said with twitching cheeks: " Don't do that, or he'll jump back and hit you. "

Xu Chu glanced at Ji Xuanyi and found that he really meant it, so he quickly shut up and muttered, " I can't afford to offend you. "

Ji Xuanyi really almost jumped back to beat this bitch, but fortunately the boat was moving fast and soon he could no longer hear clearly what these people were saying.

The wizard rowed the boat and exclaimed in amazement: " There is no wind and no waves, but this boat is going quite fast. "

Ji Xuanyi said, " The authorities should have adjusted the data. If it is really set according to the speed in real life, it would be difficult for someone like you who can row to reach the other side. What about those who can't row? If there is a speed bonus, players who can't row should have a chance to get across after dawdling for a while. "

Upon hearing this, the mage couldn't help but nodded.

This level can only be said to be a small test set by the authorities. If you really can't row a boat, you can't complete the level. What do you think those players who grew up inland should do?

Do they all have to rely on the thighs of players near the coast and lakes?

As they were talking, the boat had already sailed some distance away. Because of the water vapor and black fog, the group of people on the shore could not be seen clearly.

Because of the low visibility, Ji Xuanyi actually had some doubts as to whether this copy would have a maze or something like that. But then he thought that if the official set up so many messy and idiotic links, he would probably be scolded, so he finally put this speculation aside.

Ji Xuanyi was squinting his eyes to see what was happening in the Quanshui Town on the other side of the river, when suddenly Qi Qin, who was sitting in the middle of the boat, said in a panic, " Our boat seems to be leaking! "

Ji Xuan was startled and quickly turned around to look. Sure enough, there was a pool of water where Qi Qin was sitting, almost reaching his ankles!

Ji Xuanyi was startled, thinking that if he had discovered this problem when the boat was just sailing, there would still be a chance to repair it. But now there is no way to land, what if the boat sinks? !

Before Ji Xuanyi could speak, the mage leaned over in panic to take a look, then smiled helplessly and said, " It's just this little, don't panic, it's normal. The workmanship of this boat is not that good, and the draft is deep, so it's normal for it to seep in a little water. It won't sink. "

Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi breathed a sigh of relief after hearing what he said. Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " We can't let the water continue to seep in, can we? "

" It's true that it can't be found, " the wizard said, looking down under the wooden board at his feet, and pulled out a small wooden barrel. He said in surprise, " Ah, there really is one. "

After that, he handed the small wooden bucket to Qi Qin and said, " Just scoop out the water. Don't worry, we will reach the shore very quickly. You won't need to scoop for a long time. "

It was the first time that Qi Qin heard that one had to scoop water while riding a boat. He felt it was very novel, but did not find it troublesome. He happily began to pour out the water in the boat with a bucket.

Ji Xuan glanced at the fool and shook his head helplessly.

Qi Qin poured it for a few seconds and suddenly asked: " Why is this water also black? "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then looked down.

They didn't notice it on the shore before, but when Qi Qin poured out the water, he found that the water under the boat was also black, and the color was darker than the black fog in the air, which looked very strange.

" poisonous miasma " debuff appeared under his avatar .

Ji Xuanyi withdrew his hand and took a mouthful of red medicine in silence.

 " What's wrong? " Qi Qin asked with concern.

Ji Xuan glanced at him, then looked at the mage who was rowing seriously with a frown on his face, hesitated for a moment, shook his head, and said, " Nothing. "

Not to mention the problem of poison in the water, it can't be solved. If this wizard, who is not very courageous to begin with, gets frightened and makes some mistake, that would be really unfair!

Ji Xuan thought about it and didn't say anything. He just talked to Qi Qin in private about the strangeness of the water. He also informed Xiao Xiaoyuxia and the others and asked them not to go into the water casually.

Fortunately, they did not plan to swim over at that time. If the water near the shore was fine, but they found out it was poisonous halfway through, they would have been unable to escape.

With Ji Xuanyi's reminder, Qi Qin became much more careful. Although the water seeping into the boat didn't seem to be a problem, he was very careful not to touch the water surface outside the boat when pouring the water.

Nothing strange happened next, and the three of them soon approached the port of Quanshui Town.

Seeing the land gradually becoming clear, the mage rowing the boat breathed a sigh of relief. His mission was finally completed. If anything happened next time, he would not be the one to take the blame.

Before the boat drifted to the shore, the three people saw a row of ferocious-looking monsters on the dock. They probably couldn't go into the water, so they just stared at Ji Xuanyi and the others from the shore.

 " Fuck! So many monsters! " the mage shouted, and the boat spun around under his control and was about to drift back.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, who were already ready to go ashore: "..."

Ji Xuanyi was so upset that he said, " What are you doing? Why are you walking back? "

The wizard quickly stopped the boat and said aggrievedly: " There are so many monsters, we can't defeat them. "

Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " You don't have to go up, just watch us on the boat. "

The mage exclaimed, " Oh! " and said, " That's so embarrassing. "

That being said, when Ji Xuanyi said he didn't need to go on board, the wizard was still very honest and turned the boat back and continued to move towards the dock.

Ji Xuanyi was also speechless. He could die in the dungeon without losing levels. How could this person be so cowardly?

However, the mage did not row the boat over just because Ji Xuanyi said he didn't need to get on board, but because he also remembered Yuetian's instructions.

Don't waste time if you can't win, die as soon as possible and then think of a way. If he rows the boat back like this, it will waste at least ten minutes. Although this mage is not good, he will still try his best to complete the tasks he receives, just like he was pushed away before entering the dungeon but still wanted to talk to the enemy.

Now he is ready to die heroically!

However, the development of the matter was completely different from what the mage had imagined. He had just rowed the boat to the dock when Qi Qin stepped forward, held Ji Xuanyi in one hand, pulled out the artifact Sword of Ares with the other, activated the skill Heavy Slash, and jumped directly from the small wooden boat to the shore!

The wooden boat was nearly capsized by Qi Qin's push, and the wizard was so frightened that he lay down on the boat, barely keeping his balance and not falling into the water.

Before the mage could stand up, he saw Qi Qin had already put Ji Xuanyi on the shore and rushed into the monster pile alone.

The wizard's heart was in his throat!

Tian Tian has said that this kind of monster is more ferocious than the boss . One knife can kill one kid. With so many monsters gathered together, Qi Qin will die in seconds?! Did the two of them also see that they can't beat them and decided to die directly?

The wizard thought he might have discovered the truth, so he hurriedly climbed to the shore. Just as he was about to say " Wait for me, I'll die first " , he realized that seven or eight seconds had passed and Qi Qin was still alive!

The mage was stunned and subconsciously looked at the team interface.

Holy shit, the health of this number one in the world is still full? !

The mage almost thought he was hallucinating. He looked for a long time before making sure he was not mistaken. He then looked at Qi Qin who was fighting with the monsters in confusion.

Next, he made the same exclamation as everyone who had ever seen Qi Qin's battle scenes.

Am I watching a fucking martial arts movie?!

The monsters attacked Qi Qin without any rhyme or reason, and it wasn't even like in martial arts movies, where they attacked one after another while the others just stood there and watched.

They really rushed forward, biting the legs and scratching the arms, and no one knew how Qi Qin danced with the sword in his hand. His movements were sharp and concise, and he was able to block the attacks of the monsters every time and even deal some damage from time to time.

Ji Xuanyi just stood aside, occasionally raising his hand to help Qi Qin who was fighting to control the monsters. The mage was sure that he definitely did not heal Qi Qin.

But Qi Qin has always been at full health, which can only prove one thing.

He was not attacked once!

The wizard's mouth is so wide that an egg can fit in it!

Mom! I saw a real martial arts master!

No wonder they were so confident just now, they didn't need a t ! It's more than just not needing a t ! They don't even need milk! One person can do the work of three people!

The mage was completely stunned, with his upper body hanging on the dock and his feet still on the boat. He watched Qi Qin's fight in that weird posture. It was not until Ji Xuan came over and patted him on the shoulder that he realized that Qi Qin had already dealt with that group of monsters by himself!

" Fuck me, fuck me, fuck me, fuck me!!! " The mage came back to his senses and yelled, " Awesome!!! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

This person's reaction is too big.

Ji Xuanyi didn't remember that when he first saw Qi Qinguai flying, his reaction was actually not much different from that of the mage in front of him.

However, the mage's reaction was indeed a bit too loud. His howl scared Qi Qin, who had just defeated a monster, so much that he took a step back.

Seeing the other person's red face due to excitement, Qi Qin took two steps at a time and walked to stand behind Ji Xuanyi, unable to resist asking, " What happened to him? "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " Stupid. "

Qi Qin: "..."

The wizard climbed up the dock with a grunt, but because he was too excited, his hands went limp and he fell to the ground.

But he didn't care about this anymore. He got up from the ground with his hands and feet together and was about to shake Qi Qin's hand.

Qi Qin immediately dodged and cautiously put both of his hands into Ji Xuanyi's arms for safekeeping. He turned his head and looked at the mage with a frown.

The mage took a look at Ji Xuanyi's face, and was so excited that he didn't dare to snatch Qi Qin's hand from his arms to shake it. He could only hold his own hand, looked at Qi Qin with starry eyes, and said: " I know! You are the master mentioned in the post, right? There will never be another person like you in the world! Hero! Hero, are you still accepting disciples?! "

Qi Qin was stunned and subconsciously looked at Ji Xuanyi. He couldn't react whether he should deny his previous words first or reject his question first.

How could Ji Xuanyi let his identity as a " beauty " be exposed, so he said with a dark face: " No, I won't accept it. "

The mage probably didn't expect that Ji Xuanyi would answer his question. He was stunned for a moment. Just when he wanted to speak again , Ji Xuanyi's aura was fully open, his eyes were fierce and murderous , and he said grimly: " Do you want to die? If you dare to say another word of nonsense, I will send you back to the Novice Village. Whoever tries to stop me will be killed ! "

Mage: "..."

Ji Xuanyi was in this state, and Pi Ruxuchu didn't dare to say a word, let alone such a poor little mage! He almost knelt down to Ji Xuanyi on the spot, shut up with tears in his eyes, and said that he would never talk nonsense again. Then he was let go by Ji Xuanyi and shrank in the corner without making any noise.

Qi Qin couldn't help but look at the cowering mage, and whispered in Ji Xuanyi's ear: " Will he be traumatized? "

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly.

Qi Qin: "..."

Qi Qin thought, probably, after all, he had one himself.

Qi Qin hadn't been looked at like this by Ji Xuanyi for a long time. His immunity was weakened, and his legs suddenly became weak. He quickly said spinelessly: " Of course not. We are just talking about reason. What's there to be afraid of! "

Ji Xuanyi snorted coldly and said nothing more.

After clearing out the monsters here, Ji Xuanyi sent a message to the other side, telling them that they could try to talk to them and see if they could come over.

They waited for about 20 minutes under the drizzle of rain, and were so bored that they started playing Landlord. When they heard the news, they immediately became alert, threw the cards on the ground, and said, " Okay, Ji Xuanyi has cleared all the monsters! "

Yuetian still had a royal bomb and a pair of two in his hand, ready to win, but then he saw Xiaoxiao Yuxia throw away her cards. He was about to protest, but when he heard what he said, he was stunned and said, " What?! All cleared?! "

He was planning to wait for those three people to die and come back to find a solution, but they had already cleared it out? !

The twins were both stunned. The others either knew well the strength of Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi, or they had no idea how difficult the monsters in the dungeon were. After hearing what Xiao Xiao Yuxia said, they all stood up in a mess and prepared to set off.

Yuetian still couldn't believe it, and said: " Finished it? Really finished it? Didn't they lie about the military intelligence? In fact, there is no need to be so stressed if it can't be finished. Let's think of a solution together-- "

Yuetian's words came to an abrupt end. Xuchu had already finished talking to him. Without saying anything else, he waved his hand, and a large ship appeared in front of everyone.

" I didn't expect you guys to be able to defeat those monsters. It looks like saving Fountain Town depends on you. Get on the boat. I'll take you to the other side. "

The twins froze at the same time.

If they were still suspecting that Ji Xuanyi and his men might have lied about the military intelligence because they had been gone for so long and could not withstand the pressure, their current performance clearly told them that the monsters on the opposite side had indeed been defeated.

" How is this possible?! " Yue Tian said in disbelief: " Tianxia's DPS is high, but there is not even a tank , how can they withstand the damage from the monsters?! "

" You really don't know anything about power. I've told you that the world is awesome, but why don't you believe it? " Xiao Xiao Yu said helplessly: " Stop talking, get on the boat. "

The twins then followed everyone onto the boat in a daze.

In fact, we can't really blame them. After all, any normal person would probably not believe that there are such people in the world before seeing Qi Qin fight.

Different from the small wooden boat that Ji Xuanyi and his two companions took, the boat that was brought out this time could be said to be a luxurious ship. It had two floors and could carry more than twenty people without seeming crowded at all!

"It seems that this person is also a powerful person," Xu Chu said, touching his chin, "The game "Domain" is very particular about some strange places. He can take out such a big ship with just a raise of his hand. He must not be a passerby character."

Xiao Xiao Yuxia nodded upon hearing this and said, "That's right, Xinmu is being protected by a sorcerer, and Liehuo is nowhere to be found. How can he wait here for us to come and rescue him? There must be something fishy about the background setting ... No, aren't you from Quanshui Town? Don't you know him? "

Xu Chu glanced at Xiao Xiaoyu, then slowly lowered his eyes and thought for a long time. Finally, he shook his head and sighed, "Oh, no, when I was in the Novice Village, I was thinking about how to find a booster for this game, but I didn't deal with any of them at all. Later, I found a monster spawning point and paid someone to help me get there. I really can't remember what this setting is."

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

What use is there for you?!

Xu Chu spread his hands and said, "Oh, forget it. Don't worry about it. We can talk about it later when there are things or activities."

Xiaoxiao Yuxia doesn't want to care about this person anymore. See you later!

The ship was not only large in size, but also very fast. The mage rowed for nearly twenty minutes before he and Ji Xuanyi and the others got ashore. The big ship here sailed through the wind and waves and arrived at the dock in less than ten minutes.

Ji Xuanyi on the shore looked at the luxurious ship coming from afar, and remembered the small boat they were on before that was shaking and capsized, and his eyes twitched.

Screw you! This is such a huge difference in treatment!

The big ship docked at the pier, and the players in the team filed out and went ashore steadily one by one, which was in stark contrast to the previous situation of Ji Xuanyi and his team, who seemed to be in a cool but actually embarrassed state.

Ji Xuan felt upset and walked aside without saying anything.

The twins couldn't wait to see what was happening on the other side. When they came out, they almost pushed Xu Chu, who was walking in front of them, away. They were scrambling to get ashore first.

You don't know until you see it. You will be shocked when you see it. They thought Qi Qin was able to pass the level because there was only one monster and its strength was not very strong. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin each had a damage reduction, so if the DPS was enough, they could indeed force their way through the level. However, they didn't expect to see the corpses of small monsters all over the ground as soon as they got ashore. They couldn't close their mouths for a moment.

"Fuck, fuck ..." Yue Tian couldn't help but curse: "There are so many monsters, how the hell are we going to survive? Are you guys cheating?!"

The poor little wizard standing by knew how they were doing. He was about to say something, but Ji Xuan gave him a cold glance and he immediately shrank back in fear.

" Awesome, really fucking awesome ..." Ritian also murmured. He mainly played the healer and was not very clear about the situation of DPS and tank so he was more able to accept this matter than Yuetian. After he reacted, he looked at Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi with shining eyes.

" Are you really not considering playing PVE ?! Come to our team! The treatment is negotiable, really! "

Chapter 145

Ritian also has a short memory. When Yuetian pulled him , he remembered that they are awesome , but they, a group of PVE players, have no way of playing against these two PVP players who have so many enemies on them!

Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to pay attention to them at all . When he saw that everyone had arrived, he went to talk to them . Ritian could only sigh with regret.

Yuetian also felt very sorry, but he was a little more rational than his brother. Seeing that Ji Xuanyi ignored them, he kept silent.

When Ji Xuanyi came up to them , he didn't care about the other party using the boat to trick them , and said, " Can you take us in? "

But it was obvious that this was not the plot, he was just a traffic point. After hearing Ji Xuanyi's words , he just shook his head and said, " No, I have to stay here and wait for you to leave before I can pick you up. "

There was no other way . Ji Xuanyi could only nod and turned to the twins and Xiao Xiaoyu and said, " Let's go. We have to go find the boss ourselves . "

The group walked along the empty pier into the town. Ritian and Yuetian kept glancing at Qi Qin with their glasses, and even tried to pry some information out of the mage . Unfortunately, the mage had been frightened by Ji Xuanyi and didn't say a word.

The land area of Quanshui Town is indeed very small, so if you want to move forward quickly, the best way is to take a boat.

But not everyone has the courage to sit on that wobbly little boat. The authorities probably understand that some people are born afraid of water, so they are very considerate and have prepared land routes. However, these roads are very narrow and remote, and winding. Going back and forth between two places is at least three times faster by boat than by walking.

Although Ji Xuanyi and his companions were in a hurry, they had no way to take a boat. The only one that still functioned as a transportation point stayed at the entrance. They could not let the mage row the boat back and forth alone, nor could they go swimming directly in the water. They had to move forward slowly along the path that was only wide enough for one person to pass.

" Where is this boss ? "

After walking for a while, Jianxi Xinjiu couldn't stand it anymore. Three or four hours have passed since they entered the dungeon, and except for the first boss , there has been no progress at all. Now, they can't even find the boss . Why is pve so frustrating?

The twin brothers couldn't explain it clearly, so they could only look at Xiao Xiao Yuxia. Xiao Xiao Yuxia's cheeks twitched and he looked at Ji Xuanyi again.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " What's the point of looking at me? You might as well look at Xu Chu instead of me. He came from Quanshui Town, so he probably has some points for where he encounters the boss . "

This time Xu Chu didn't even need to speak, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia finished the words for him, and said helplessly: He started looking for a ?what do you expect him to know ,He looks like a jerk " How can he remember where .booster in the Novice Town the boss might spawn for you when he's too lazy to walk ? It's already pretty good that he can remember that his Novice Town is a fountain! "

For a moment, Ji Xuanyi actually felt that what Xiao Xiao Yuxia said made sense.

I really can't understand the way people like Xu Chu play games and the fun they have in games.

Xu Chu looked at Xiao Xiao Yu Xia, then looked at Ji Xuan Yi, and said slowly: " Although I am not very familiar with Quanshui Town, I still have some ideas about this boss 's situation. "

Xiao Xiaoyu was stunned and asked, " What idea? "

Xu Chu smiled and said, Think about the dungeon " boss in Qingshui City , and then think about the world quest in the Confined Sea Realm. Do you understand? "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " I don't understand. "

In fact, Xu Chu had already made it very clear that the boss might respawn underwater. Ji Xuanyi said he didn't understand, but he was just evading reality. In fact, he had already thought of this.

But the problem is, how to fight the boss underwater? Ji Xuanyi is not good at swimming, Qi Qin also sinks to the bottom of the water, and there is no player in their group who can swim in synchronized swimming.

Ji Xuanyi said: " If this boss is really under the water, there is no need to fight him. Let's disband. I won't go into the water, and neither will the world. " pvp players heard that the group was disbanding, they were actually a little happy. Some of them even wanted to laugh, which made the twins frown.

You guys in the pvp game are really interesting. You're the ones who want to fight, and you even paid money to hire those two. Now you're so happy when you hear that you don't want to fight anymore. Are you stupid?

Although Xiaoxiao Yuxia was also very happy that they could finally disband, he would not admit that he was stupid. As soon as a smile appeared on his face, he tried hard to suppress it, coughed twice, and said, " It's hard to say. We haven't confirmed it yet. Maybe the boss is on land. Let's look for him first and then we can say it after we confirm it. "

In fact, the area of the Novice Town is not very large. They have been walking around for so long that they have already visited most of the Spring Town. If the boss is really on land, he should have been discovered by them. How could he still be missing?

It can be said that the probability of the boss being in the water is at least 70%, and only 30% is left on land.

Ji Xuanyi was aware of this, but he also knew that Xiao Xiaoyu would be embarrassed, so he did not expose him directly, but just kept a sullen face and said nothing.

Qi Qin hurriedly walked up and rubbed Ji Xuanyi's hands. Seeing that Ji Xuanyi was attracted by his attention and was no longer unhappy, he relaxed and smiled at him.

Ji Xuanyi looked at Qi Qin, his expression changed slightly, and just as he was about to speak, suddenly a melodious singing voice came over.

The singing didn't seem to have any specific melody. It was just a voice that was unclear whether it was a man or a woman humming intermittently. The tune was not that amazing, but the voice was so soft that it seemed to scratch the most itchy spot in the heart, making people unconsciously indulge in it.

The sound was mixed in the water vapor and black fog. For a moment, it seemed to come from all directions at the same time, enveloping everyone.

"The surround sound effect is pretty good." Xu Chu suddenly said.

Everyone: "..."

Originally everyone was very addicted to this sound. To put it in a more childish way, it was like sailors bewitched by the sirens' song. But then Xu Chu suddenly said this, dragging everyone off the boat and back to the cinema. It totally ruined the atmosphere!

As soon as the word surround sound came out, the song didn't seem to sound so high-end anymore. The mermaids that everyone imagined turned into speakers, and everyone looked indifferent.

Only Qi Qin, who didn't understand what stereo and speakers were, foolishly wanted to praise the singer for his popularity and the lingering sound of his songs. But just as he opened the conversation, Ji Xuan kicked him one by one, and he was too cowardly to say anything.

The singing was still going on, but after losing its mysterious layer, it sounded no different from noise. Ji Xuanyi's forehead was throbbing with veins, and he said, "Can this sound stop for a moment?"

Xu Chu answered seriously: "This game doesn't seem to have a volume adjustment system. Next time, you can give them some suggestions and make a one-click mute or something..."

Yue Tian said speechlessly: "Can you guys be more normal? This sound is definitely a reminder of the boss's spawn point. Stop talking nonsense and look for the boss!"

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was still hoping that the boss would spawn in the water, so that he could disband the group with a clear conscience. He immediately expressed his full support for Yuetian's words and said, "That's right, don't waste any more time, and quickly find where the boss is!"

When Yuetian heard the other party's relaxed and joyful tone, he felt something was wrong. He looked at Xiaoxiao Yuxia expressionlessly. Xiaoxiao Yuxia laughed dryly and stopped talking.

"From which direction did the sound come?" Ritian asked.

Xu Chu shook his head and said, " I can't hear it. "

Ji Xuanyi realized that ever since this voice was heard, Mi Yin had been listening with her ear tilted, looking very serious.

If it was Xu Chu, Ji Xuanyi would not ask, because the other party might tell him that he was listening to the lyrics, but Mi Yin was much more reliable, so Ji Xuanyi asked directly: " Mi Yin, did you hear anything? "

Because of the nature of his job, Mi Yin not only has a good memory, but his five senses are actually much better than those of ordinary people. Just now, he vaguely heard the direction. When Ji Xuan asked him one by one, he hesitated for a moment, then nodded and said, " I heard it, but I'm a little unsure. I don't know if I heard it correctly. "

" It's good that you can hear it, " Xiaoxiao Yuxia said, " It's better to have a direction than no direction. If you are wrong, we can talk about it later. "

What Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said was correct. Mi Yin responded, recalled the road they had just taken, and teleported to the back of the team, saying, " Go this way. There is a fork in the road in the direction we just came from. It seems to go to the direction I heard. "

Everyone responded and turned around to follow Mi Yin. The twins who were leading the way fell behind and said in confusion: " Is there a fork in the road where we just came from? Why didn't I see it? "

And this skill of identifying the position by listening to the sound is really amazing!

Although Mi Yin is not from the mortal world, it is still very face-saving to be on the same front with such an awesome person. Xiao Xiao Yuxia said proudly: " Mi Yin is just so awesome , he is also a good assassin. " get this point . After all, assassin was not a very popular profession in the dungeon, hovering between picking up trash and having special needs. In their minds, they didn't have a very intuitive concept of what it meant to be a good assassin. They just thought, oh ... another master.

Mi Yin was indeed reliable. Under his leadership, in less than five minutes, everyone arrived at an open area that looked very much like the boss spawn point.

But the place like the refresh point has been found, but where is the boss ?

The singing was still going on, but everyone could clearly feel that the sound was louder than what they had heard before. It was three-dimensional, but the surround feeling was gone. It must be nearby.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia quickly came up to Miyin and asked, " Where is the boss ? "

Mi Yin showed an embarrassment, looked at Ji Xuanyi and then at the twins, finally sighed and said: " It seems to be in the water ..."

Xiaoxiao was so happy in the rain, in the water! It was time to go home!

Twins: "..."

See you in debt!

Xiaoxiao Yuxia couldn't show it so obviously, so she said hypocritically: " What can we do if we get stuck in the water? Our group can't fight in the water! "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " We can't fight in the water. The water is poisonous and will cause us to lose blood continuously. There should be other settings. "

Although Ji Xuanyi had no interest in PVE and did not want to go swimming, he had a need for the extra mysterious items dropped. As long as there was a little hope, he still wanted to defeat this boss .

Xiao Xiao Yuxia understood what Ji Xuanyi meant when she heard what he said. She sighed inwardly, but finally pulled herself together and said, " What other settings? "

The twins were relieved to see that there were serious people in the group. After hearing Xiao Xiao Yu Xia's question, they said, " In this case, either there is a buff that allows us to go underwater without losing blood, or the main battlefield is not underwater. "

After thinking for a while, he said, " I think it's more likely that the main battlefield is not underwater. After all, if underwater output is really needed, there is no need to set up such a large open space here. Twenty-five of us can stand here without feeling crowded. Since there is such a large space, the boss should be able to go ashore. I just don't know where the mechanism to trigger the plot is. "

What Yuetian said coincided with what Ji Xuanyi was thinking. After playing many copies, many settings can be seen by eyes alone. The current boss is very likely to be amphibious. He will either go ashore and into the water in the change phase, or he can be fought both on land and water. Ji Xuanyi prefers the latter.

But the most urgent problem now is that either the boss has to come ashore, or they have to go into the water. Both of these will definitely trigger plots or props, and they also have to find things.

As soon as this order came out, everyone instantly showed a look of loss of fighting spirit. Yuetian also knew that this kind of thing was boring for PVP , and said awkwardly: " Exploration is the key to opening up new land, and exploring the map is also a part of it. Think about it, everyone. After we clear the game, we will make today's experience into a guide and publish it. Everyone has contributed to the development of PVE in this game . Players will remember you. Aren't you happy? " these pvp players ' faces told Yuetian that they didn't think so.

Yue Tian: "..."

Well, if he's unhappy, then he's unhappy. There's nothing he can do about it.

Even though everyone felt they were going to die in the dungeon, the mission had already been assigned and they had to do it no matter how unbearable it was. Everyone dispersed and began looking for clues to kill the monster.

Unlike most people, Ze Yu Si Shui has been running around for three or four hours since he entered the game and has remained active. Except for the time when he was fighting the fire giant and was almost burned and got a little scared, Ze Yu Si Shui was as energetic as if he had been injected with chicken blood. No one knew what he was so happy about.

At this moment everyone dispersed to look for clues. Ze Yu Sishui also left Ming Shao and Qing Feng Bufu and ran around alone.

When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were about to walk towards a small path, they suddenly caught a glimpse of Ze Yu Shishui lying on the shore, doing something unknown.

Although it was just a game and one could be resurrected after death, Qi Qin was still a little worried about the child falling into it when he saw this scene, so he took two steps over there and said, " Ze Yu Sishui, what are you doing? "

When Ji Xuan saw Qi Qin like this, he simply pulled him to the shore, grabbed Ze Yu Sishui by the back of the neck and lifted him up.

Ji Xuanyi's strength was of course not enough to lift Ze Yu Sishui, but Ze Yu Sishui knew that if he didn't get up, Qi Qin would reach out and lift him up next – and he would really lift him up, just like he was holding the cub of some animal, and Ze Yu Sishui's toes couldn't even touch the ground!

Because of this, after sensing Ji Xuanyi's effort, Ze Yu Sishui readily climbed up and said, " I'm trying to see if I can see the boss in the water . "

After saying that, Ze Yu Sishui said hesitantly : " Master Mi Yin is talking about this place, right? "

Ji Xuanyi had no objection to Ze Yu Sishui calling Mi Yin "big brother" but showing no respect for him. He even agreed with it. He hoped that Ze Yu Sishui would not bother him. It was perfect to have Mi Yin to take the blame. Hearing this, he said, " It's over here. If you get wet, you'll bleed. Be careful. "

Ze Yu Sishui didn't care much about it. Although he was a little fragile, he was not afraid of losing a little blood. However, he also understood that his action just now looked a little dangerous. If it were in the three-dimensional world, he would have been pinned to the ground and beaten by his parents. He said obediently, " I know. "

 " Where are Ming Shao and Qing Feng Bu Fu? " Ji Xuanyi asked.

Ze Yu Sishui pointed to one side and said, " They walked towards the path over there. "

After that, Ze Yu Si Shui waved his hand again and said, " Hey, what else can they find? "

If Young Master Ming went alone, at least he could be more serious. With the addition of Qingfeng Bufu, their combination is no less than that of Zhaochen and Zuo'an. Their strength is estimated to be halved. Qingfeng Bufu will annoy Young Master Ming to death.

Ji Xuan thought that everyone was in the same situation and he was afraid that he really couldn't beat this dungeon.

Seeing that Ji Xuanyi stopped talking, Ze Yu Sishui teleported to the roof of a small house by the water, stood up and looked into the water.

Although Ze Yu Sishui is already an adult, he looks like a junior high school student. He seems to understand nothing and insists on being watched by adults from behind. His actions make people feel annoyed unconsciously. Ji Xuanyi was about to ask him to come down when he heard Ze Yu Sishui suddenly gasp.

Ji Xuanyi was stunned and asked, " What's wrong? "

Ze Yu Sishui pointed at the water and said, " Boss ! I saw the boss ! "

Ze Yu Sishui's voice was not small. When he howled, people around who heard it wanted to gather around, but were driven away by Xiao Xiao, who was nearby in the rain, like chasing away geese . They were asked to go look for clues, but Ze Yu Sishui ran to Ji Xuanyi and the others and looked up at the roof.

The swordsman has a flying skill that can do heavy slashes, but this small house can't withstand the pressure from a heavily armored swordsman like Xiao Xiao Yuxia. Xiao Xiao Yuxia has no choice but to watch Qi Qin helplessly.

Ji Xuanyi said to him, "Find a way to go somewhere else. This roof is too small to stand on." After saying that, without waiting for Xiao Xiao Yuxia to react, Ji Xuan tied up his sorcerer's robe, stepped back a distance, took two quick steps, jumped more than one meter high, kicked the wall and jumped, and his hands were hanging on the eaves.

Ji Xuanyi's moves were indeed handsome, and he had already gone to the room in real life. It was a pity that the warlock's points in the game were not focused on speed and strength. He grunted twice, but couldn't use any strength with his hands.

Ji Xuanyi was hanging on the eaves with a frown on his face. Seeing this, Qi Qin quickly raised his hand to support his butt and sent Ji Xuanyi to the roof. Ji Xuanyi was touched on the butt and didn't hesitate. He climbed up and kicked Qi Qin.

Qi Qin touched his nose, jumped easily, grabbed the eaves, and went up in two or three steps. Left alone on the ground in the drizzling rain: "..."

Damn, do you guys look down on the heavy armored warriors? !

The heavy rain could flatten the ground and flatten the small house, but it was absolutely impossible to climb up so easily. For the moment, he could only forget about the roof and sigh, and walk to the side to think of a solution.

Ji Xuan patted his butt and stood up, looking at the water surface from Ze Yu Shishui's angle, only to see that under the originally dark water surface, there was an area that was darker than other places, and not even light could penetrate!

Ji Xuanyi closed his eyes and listened. The singing in his ears was indeed coming from that direction. If he was not mistaken, the black shadow in the water was indeed the boss .

Ji Xuanyi casually threw a skill over there, but it hit the water surface without even a splash. It is impossible to attack from the shore. It seems that we can only fight in the water or find a mechanism to bring the boss up.

Although they saw the boss 's location, it was of no use in conquering the boss . The three of them climbed down from the roof in disappointment. Just as they were about to discuss the situation with the twins, they saw Mi Yin suddenly sent a message in the team channel.

" We found a stone tablet with words on it. "

When Ji Xuan saw the news, he took Qi Qin to the coordinates sent by Mi Yin without saying a word.

Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian walked together. They were originally pure arena players and had never struggled so much in a dungeon. After avoiding everyone, the two of them couldn't help but start to be lazy. While others were working hard to find clues, the two of them were discussing cooperation and skill connections in the arena.

Xue Piao Renjian couldn't get on the horse and could only explain the knight skills to Mi Yin verbally. He was speaking happily when he slapped the stone tablet and almost dented his gauntlet. However, he also noticed the words on the stone tablet and immediately realized that he might have found the key point, so he quickly called everyone over.

When Ji Xuanyi and others arrived, Xue Piao Renjian was silent and indifferent. It was impossible to tell that this man had discovered the clue accidentally because he was lazy. If you didn't know, you would think he was really serious and hardworking!

Of course Mi Yin didn't say anything. She just led people to the stone tablet and showed them the words on it.

Everyone stood around the stone tablet and looked at it for a long time before Xu Chu spoke first.

Xu Chu frowned and said, " What an ugly handwriting. "

Everyone thought he had some brilliant ideas: "..."

Ji Xuan pushed Xu Chu aside expressionlessly and tried hard to identify him.

The words on the stele were indeed ugly, crooked, and carved very lightly, even looking like a child's handwriting. Ji Xuanyi had to use a lot of effort to figure out what was written on it.

" The mermaid loves beautiful songs. When I sing, it will come ashore to play with me. "

After Ji Xuan finished reading, he stood up and looked at everyone.

The official is so awesome, one step they are rowing, and the next step they are singing a duet?

The words on the stone tablet confirmed that the boss could indeed be defeated by going ashore, and also clearly stated the conditions for the boss to go ashore.

It's enough if you just sing well!

Everyone: "..."

Goodbye!

Xiaoxiao looked around the group in the rain, and was not sure if there was a microphone master among them. After a long while, he asked anxiously: " What should I do? "

When Ji Xuan saw him looking at him again, he immediately distanced himself from the matter and said, " I'm tone-deaf. "

No one was willing to sing in public, and they all declined.

Yuetian looked at the stone tablet for a while and said, " This is incoherent, and it looks like there should be another inscription. She seems to have some relationship with this boss . Apart from other things, the plot of this game is generally very complete, so there should be other clues around it. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " How about we look for it again? "

Although everyone felt it was troublesome, it would be great if they could find clues to prove that singing was not necessary. They all nodded as if they had been injected with chicken blood, and dispersed, each of them working hard to search in the bushes.

Facts have proved that as long as they want, this group of people are very motivated. In less than five minutes, some people found other stone tablets one after another.

Ji Xuanyi and others went over to take a look and wrote down the words on the stone tablet.

" It's gentle, like the moonlight at night, just like my mother. "

" The mermaid's song is so beautiful. When I sing along with it, I feel like I'm in heaven. "

" It's dark, it's changed a lot, but it still loves me, and when the singing stops, it leaves. "

There were more things on the stone tablet than Ji Xuanyi and the others had imagined.

Basically, they all talked about making friends with mermaids. But what made these people collapse the most was not the touching relationship between him and the boss , but the fact that two out of three sentences were related to singing. Seeing that they could not escape this disaster, everyone felt very fucked up.

Not to mention the heavy rain, the twins were already wanting to go home!

Everyone looked at each other in bewilderment, never expecting that they wouldn't even be stopped by the boss 's brutality, but would be persuaded to leave in such a weird place.

Just when everyone was filled with despair, wondering whether they should disband on the spot and go back to their homes to find their mothers, Ze Yu Sishui, who had been full of energy, suddenly let out a strange cry , which scared everyone.

Ming Shao frowned and asked: " What's wrong? "

Ze Yu Sishui's face turned pale, and he was so scared that he couldn't even speak clearly. He stammered, " Shit shit shit shit ... Shit! "

Everyone was shocked and hurriedly ran towards Ze Yu Si Shui. Ze Yu Si Shui finally came to his senses and ran behind Ming Shao and Qing Feng Bu Fu, then followed everyone to look into the bushes.

There was a pile of snow-white bones, emitting a faint fluorescence. Although there were no medical students here, the human skull clearly told everyone that someone had died here.

It is normal to see skeletons in the game. As players, this group of people have done too many grave-digging missions. However, holographic online games and keyboard online games are completely different. The feeling of seeing human bones with your own eyes is different from seeing a picture in the game. Everyone couldn't help but feel a chill in their hearts.

Ze Yu Sishui held Ming Shao in one hand and Qing Feng Bu Fu in the other, and nervously said to Xu Chu: " Hey, will this work? "

Xu Chu was well-informed and was not scared by the bones. He touched his chin and said, " This may be the one that carved the stele. "

Mi Yin also frowned and nodded, and said with a bad look on her face: " Looking at the skeleton, it is indeed a child. "

The lettering was weak, the handwriting was twisted, the language was incoherent, but it all matched up.

Yuetian couldn't help but mutter, " Oh my god, am I playing a game like this? Why do I feel like I'm playing one of those horror puzzle games that are not allowed for minors? "

Ritian held his brother tightly and said in a cowardly voice: " No, no, no, sorry for disturbing you, bye! "

However, after hearing this, other people suddenly became interested, especially Xu Chu, who was even a little excited and said, " Why are you saying goodbye? This is contributing to the development of the PVE business of this game! You should be happy! "

The twins are about to cry. Can you guys go and make a contribution? They just want to play the game in peace!

Ji Xuanyi's family is definitely not involved in any gangs, and you can tell from his current expression. He is actually a little scared, but Ji Xuanyi is very proud and doesn't show it at all. He just holds Qi Qin's hand tightly and says calmly, " What are you afraid of? It's not like they're going to fake their deaths. Think about how to use this thing first. "

The skeleton that appears here must be used to deal with the boss , but I don't know how to use it.

Yuetian and Ritian, who were standing next to them, were huddled together and had already started muttering that if they had to use this item as a prop in this copy, there would definitely be a situation in the future where " subsidies would be given for opening props . "

Everyone looked at each other for a while, and no one was willing to speak first. After a long while, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia felt that as the leader of the gang, he couldn't be so irresponsible, so he bit the bullet and said, " No matter how to use this thing, take it to the boss first . "

This is a good point, but the question is who takes it?

Seeing that everyone was silent, Qi Qin was helpless. After all, he was a man who had been in the underworld and had seen fighting and killing. It was not appropriate for him to remain silent any longer. He was about to take the initiative to help the person collect the bones when he saw Mi Yin had walked out of the crowd. With a complicated expression, she took out a piece of cloth from her backpack and reached out to pick up the bones.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia then remembered that with the nature of Mi Yin's work, she might have seen similar situations before, so she should not be afraid of this. She immediately breathed a sigh of relief and said flatteringly, " Excuse me, please help me. I will turn down your request first later, Boss . "

Everyone nodded repeatedly without any objection, and admired Mi Yin very much.

However, as an assassin, Mi Yin's needs did not conflict with others, so Xu Chu added, " Okay, he's a talent, give him a raise! "

Mi Yin looked at him helplessly, carefully put away the skeleton, wrapped it into a cloth bag, and said, " Don't hang around, let's go to the boss . "

Everyone dispersed and started to move towards the boss in a hurry .

boss 's song that had just been ringing in her ears suddenly stopped.

Everyone was stunned and hadn't reacted yet. The next second, another voice rang out.

The untune singing in my ears changed from the lewd music that could not distinguish between male and female to the clear and loud voice of a child.

I have to say, this singing voice is much more lively and cute than the original one, but it sent a chill down the spine of everyone in the group!

Because everyone heard clearly that the sound came from the cloth bag in Mi Yin's arms from behind!

In an instant, everyone screamed in fear, as if they were watching a horror movie together .

They shouted " Woo, ah, ah " and huddled together like frightened quails, looking at Mi Yin tremblingly.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu, this idiot, who usually looks like a grown man, was almost frightened to tears. He hugged Xu Chu tightly and said to Ji Xuan in a tearful voice: " Didn't you say you wouldn't come back to life?! "

Ji Xuanyi was originally frightened to the point of his scalp numbing, and he and Qi Qin were huddled together, but now Jian Xixin's drunken breath made him laugh, and he pointed at him and said, " If you use a little more force, the one in your hand can also come back to life. "

Xu Chu was not afraid at first, but was suddenly grabbed by Jian Xi Xin Jiu. As a mage, he had no power to resist the knight. He rolled his eyes and shouted at the top of his voice: " Fuck you, Jian Xi Xin Jiu, let go, let go, I'm going to be kicked offline by the security system!!! "

Jian Xi Xinjiu came to his senses and quickly let Xu Chu go. Xu Chu coughed for a while and then beat Jian Xi Xinjiu up.

Mi Yin was the person holding the cloth bag, so it was the most terrifying when the song sounded. Xue Piao Renjian, who was walking next to him, reacted the first time. He grabbed him with one hand and wanted to throw the cloth bag away with the other hand, but no one knew what Mi Yin was thinking. Goose bumps appeared all over his body, but he still held the cloth bag tightly and did not let go.

Everyone looked at each other in silence for a while, and finally they recovered and relaxed a little.

They have been scared to this extent. If they don't defeat this boss , they will suffer a huge loss. Mi Yin hypnotized herself for a while, pretending that she was holding a speaker, and said with a green face: " Boss is not singing anymore, this little girl's bones must be useful, hurry up and go back first. "

Chapter 146

After experiencing the terrifying incident, the PVPs who had originally lost interest in the dungeon and had lost their fighting spirit became energetic again , partly because they were scared , and partly because they felt it was too embarrassing . They couldn't just let it go like this, they had to fight this boss !

Most of the conflicts among PVPs are due to a matter of face . Their determination to fight to the death with those who make them lose face can be seen from the various continuous vendettas and conflicts.

At this moment, they were so scared that they were screaming and running around. How could they let this hateful boss go !

On the contrary, the twin brothers were so frightened that they wanted to go home peacefully and did not mention anything about contributing to the PVE business.

At this moment, except for the twins , everyone has returned to the way they were when they first entered the dungeon. Except for Mi Yin who tacitly stayed away from the speaker, they all seemed to be treating pve as pvp .

Ji Xuanyi also felt a little scared, but he was after all a socialist successor who grew up under the red flag and a staunch atheist. He was scared, but he managed to remain calm.

Qi Qin was different . He was very feudal and superstitious . Moreover, he was a resurrected soul from a dead body. At this moment, he was even more scared than Ji Xuanyi. He walked closely with Ji Xuanyi while muttering, " Don't blame me, don't blame me. We didn't do it on purpose. We just had no choice . We used it to save the world. We will put it back and bury it immediately after use. We will burn paper money for you during festivals ..."

Ji Xuanyi was so angry that he laughed.

The group returned to the open space where they could see the boss from the roof . It was still empty. The only difference from before was that Mi Yin had a speaker in his hand and helped everyone change a song.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia hadn't recovered from the shock yet, and asked with a green face: " What should we do now? "

Xu Chu had learned his lesson, and fearing that he would be used as a pillow again, he was pinched back to the resurrection point without any care. He stood alone among the mages and priests, far away from the power professions , and said calmly: " Didn't the stone tablet say that if you sing a good song, the boss will come. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia opened her mouth when she heard this, and was about to say something when she suddenly remembered something. She looked at Mi Yin who was standing at the end of the team and said, " Is that bone not okay? "

Mi Yin was already numb, and said with a straight face: " Don't call it bones, please call it sound, thank you. "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "... Okay. "

After all, Mi Yin is the one who made great sacrifices, so Mi Yin has the final say in everything! It's not easy for Mi Yin. He didn't get scared and disconnected when the speaker sounded. He is indeed the people's guardian. Xiao Xiaoyu was in awe! Thumbs up for him!

Ji Xuanyi was also shocked. It took him a long time to regain some of his intelligence. He said, " This bone ... speaker must be useful. It can't be used to play drums. It's probably to attract the boss . But the boss is not responding now. Either there is a preamplifier, or you are standing in the wrong position. "

" There probably won't be any pre-requisites, " Yuetian realized that he and his brother probably wouldn't be allowed to leave before defeating this boss , so he accepted his fate and forcibly suppressed his fear of horror games and said, " This dungeon already has a lot of pre-requisites. Even if there are any small moves or special gameplay, they should only appear in the process of defeating the boss , not on the way to unlocking the boss . Otherwise, this is not a dungeon, but a single-player puzzle game. Although the official is a rip-off, the game developers should not be so confused about this. "

" That sounds reasonable, " Xiaoxiao Yuxia wondered, " but why do I always feel like there's a hint of flag in it? "

" Don't talk about this anymore, " Mi Yin swallowed, sweat almost seeping out of his forehead, and said in a trembling voice: " I always feel that this speaker in my hand is getting heavier and heavier. Why don't you think about what to do? "

Hearing Mi Yin's words, everyone felt a chill on their backs. What does it mean that the sound is getting darker and darker? !

Mi Yin's job requires a high level of physical fitness, and a person like him would never have such an illusion. He said it was getting heavier, so it must be that the sound system was really increasing in weight. Ji Xuanyi's hair stood on end, fearing that some strange plot would occur again, and hurriedly said: " Don't stand there, come to the water and try it! "

It was clearly marked on the stone tablet that the boss of this level was indeed a mermaid – mermaids were different from the mermen. Ji Xuanyi remembered that he had flipped through a book in the library of the Mage Tower. The mermen and mermaids seemed to be two branches. However, mermaids were already extinct because they were not as aggressive as mermaids. No one knew where the evil god got this mermaid from.

The boss and the speaker in Mi Yin's hand must have a deep relationship or emotion. Perhaps being close to the water will affect it more.

When Mi Yin heard what Ji Xuanyi said, she immediately ran towards the water.

His steps were already staggering and he was almost falling. It seemed that the speaker was indeed getting heavier and was almost heavier than the assassin could bear, otherwise Mi Yin would not have deliberately made such a move.

Just when Mi Yin reached the water's edge, the weight of the speaker in his hand finally exceeded what he could bear. Mi Yin still tried to lift it, but failed. The speaker fell out of his hand and fell to the ground.

It might not be quite right to say that it was smashed. It seemed that it only became heavy in Mi Yin's hand, and it was still very light when it fell to the ground. The pile of bones wrapped in cloth did not even make any collision sound, and the girl's singing did not stop at all, but still radiated happily from the cloth bag.

The moment the sound slipped out of his hand, Mi Yin knew that he would never be able to pick it up again, so he immediately used two teleports and retreated directly behind Xue Piao Renjian. Xue Piao Renjian also immediately held the spear across his body, protecting Mi Yin, who had used two escape skills, behind him, and observed the water surface with a frown.

Everyone looked at the shore with bated breath. The speaker was still singing alone in the same place, and the water was calm.

Is this a mistake? Isn't this how the speaker is used? Ji Xuanyi frowned, and just as he was about to doubt his own judgment, he heard a suppressed cry from the surroundings.

Suddenly, tiny ripples appeared on the calm water surface, as if a broken mirror, and everything changed. The ripples grew bigger and more violent as the girl sang. At the same time, large pieces of foam surged up from the bottom of the water!

Even if such a scene cannot be said to be beautiful, it is definitely not very scary. However, due to the water quality, the bubbles are of a muddy black color and look very dirty and disgusting. Combined with the boss under the water, it looks as terrifying as a disaster movie.

Ri Tian said with his last breath, "I feel like a monster will suddenly pop out from below, one bite at a time, crunchy and chicken-flavored..."

Seeing his brother was frightened and unconscious, Yue Tian was so angry that he said, "Just shut up."

Yuetian is still more confident than Ritian. After all, if the holographic game is made like this, it will not be playable by people over 18 years old, but by people over 25 years old!

Fortunately, the official did not make a mistake in the classification. After a large piece of strangely colored foam floated up, what emerged was not a monster that could eat a person in one bite, but a mermaid covered in black.

It flapped its tail violently, jumped out of the water, and landed in the open space that Ji Xuanyi and the others had previously guessed was the battlefield, right in the middle.

a boss that could be conquered after going ashore , and everyone breathed a sigh of relief.

This mermaid was at least ten meters long and barely looked good, but no one present had any favorable impression of it.

It did not look in good condition, with broken scales, and only half of the fins on its elbows and ears left, hanging on its body with great difficulty. There were also wounds on its exposed upper body, its face was dark blue, and there was only the whites of its eyes, and it looked like it had lost its mind.

The mermaid did come up with the singing, but she was not as gentle as written on the stone tablet. The singing did not make her happy. Instead, it brought her pain. She howled to the sky, making a sharp and shrill howl that made everyone's scalp numb.

Just when everyone thought that the plot had just begun and they could start preparing to figure out how to fight monsters, the mermaid boss suddenly attacked and rushed towards Bu Bao who was still singing on the shore.

“ When the singing stops, it leaves. ”

Ji Xuanyi suddenly remembered this sentence and immediately shouted: " We can't let it break the bones! "

However, before Ji Xuan could say anything, someone in the team had already rushed out. It wasn't Mi Yin. Although he had thought of this, he hesitated for a moment because he was worried that he would not be able to hold those bones. The first one to run out was Ze Yu Sishui, who had been following the plot and was eager to try!

However, Ze Yu Sishui was in a tough situation. Although he relied on teleportation and speed to pick up the bundle of cloth before the boss , he was actually very scared. As soon as Ji Xuanyi opened his mouth, he cried out in a crying voice: " What bones! This is obviously a speaker! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Okay, whatever you say is what it is.

Ze Yu Sishui dodged the boss and ran towards Ji Xuanyi holding the bag of speakers. Ji Xuanyi's face changed and he glared at him!

Ze Yu Si Shui: "..."

Ze Yu Sishui was still timid. He turned a corner and ran towards Ming Shao and Qingfeng Bufu. Ming Shao was as agile as Ze Yu Sishui and dodged him. Ze Yu Sishui stuffed the cloth bag in his hand into Qingfeng Bufu's hand without saying a word.

Qingfengbufu: "..."

Qingfeng Bufu was about to scream when Ze Yu Sishui covered his mouth. He wanted to throw away the things in his hand, but Ming Shao immediately grabbed his arms.

Qingfeng Bufu was held hostage by two people, unable to move, and his mouth was blocked.

He sobbed and cursed: " Pry your grandmother!!! "

Ming Shao and Ze Yu Sishui remained unmoved and held him firmly .

After the boss missed the attack, he became quiet, returned to the center of the open space, and looked in the direction of Qingfeng Bufu with his eyes that could not see the pupils.

Qingfeng Bufu didn't care about this boss at all . To him, the bones in his hands were more lethal . He cried , " This speaker has become heavier ... "

Yuetian had never seen a boss suddenly attack before a fight, so he was startled. However, he thought that this would only happen for a moment, and it was unlikely that the boss would always attack like this, so he said, " Put it down first. The boss won't move again. "

The commander had spoken, and Ze Yu Sishui and Ming Shao could only let Qingfeng Bufu go with regret. Qingfeng Bufu immediately let go and threw the bag on the ground.

As a mage, his load capacity was much lower than Mi Yin's, and after just a moment, he could no longer hold on.

The boss is still standing there, not moving. It seems that it is just as Yuetian said, there will be no more tricks.

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief and looked at the twin brothers.

Can we start the fight now? Let's defeat this supernatural boss quickly !

The twin brothers did not arrange any personnel immediately, but looked at Ji Xuanyi first.

Ji Xuanyi was looking at the bundle on the ground that was still singing, his brows furrowed. It was unknown what he was thinking about. It took him a long time to meet the twins' eyes.

Yue Tiandao: " This ... this bag should have more than one use. "

Ji Xuan nodded.

If the bag can only sing and attract the boss 's attention, it would be fine. It is just a key item to unlock the plot. It can be put aside after it is opened. At most, another plot will appear after the fight is over.

But judging from the situation of Mi Yin and Qing Feng Bu Fu just now, this burden will also be superimposed with the weight buff , that is to say, it needs to be carried by different people, so its positioning cannot be so simple.

It's not just a plot item, it's estimated that it will have other uses in battle.

Ji Xuanyi told the two people his speculation, and the twins indeed agreed.

I have indeed seen many situations in the dungeon that are similar to this baggage setting, especially the stacking of buffs . Generally in this case, the baggage will be an important item.

" I still have to hold this when I'm attacking? " Xiao Xiao Yuxia was completely confused: " How do I fight this? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu also said quickly: " Yes, yes! "

The most important thing is that not everyone is so brave. What if someone tries to hug someone and then gets scared and kicked off the line by the security system? Wouldn't that be a disaster?

The twins knew that this was difficult, but they had no idea how to use it, so they said, " It's just a new land, if you don't mind the trouble, you can put it aside and try it out first, and then come back to solve the problem when it occurs. "

Everyone said that it was no trouble, no trouble, as long as they didn't have to fight with the bones, it wouldn't be a problem if they pulled it off twenty times.

Seeing that everyone's opinions were so unanimous, the twins had nothing to say. Ji Xuanyi thought about it, nodded, and said, " Then let's open it like this first. "

It was still the Lord of Heaven , but this time no one stood behind the boss . The mermaid's tail was not easy to deal with and would most likely cause damage. Everyone was divided into two groups for melee and ranged attacks, standing on both sides of the boss . Mi Yin and Ze Yu Si Shui were stuck on the side, but they could still benefit from the blind spot behind them and prepare to attack.

Yuetian took a deep breath and said, " Let's get ready. "

" Three, two, one – burst out, output with all your strength! "

Upon hearing this, everyone worked extremely hard, vowing to avenge their previous defeat and return all the shocks they had received to the boss ! For a moment, the dps was unexpectedly high, and the boss 's health steadily dropped, which made the twins breathe a sigh of relief. It would be great if you had this fighting spirit earlier!

The first stage went unexpectedly smoothly. The boss only had two skills, one was a tail swing, and the other was a water column to target. With everyone working together, it was not a problem at all. After a short while, the boss's health was reduced to 70% in the second stage. Just as the blood line dropped, the singing coming from the bag outside the field stopped. the BGM for such a long time , it suddenly became quiet and everyone was stunned for a moment.

However, before they could react, the completely unconscious boss in front of them suddenly spoke!

It still had that androgynous, soft and lilting voice. It opened its mouth and whispered softly, " Snow is falling on the earth, please sing a song for me ..."

As it said that, the boss stopped attacking Yuetian. The water column and tail wagging stopped. It lowered its head towards Xue Piao Renjian and brought its broken ear fin in front of Xue Piao Renjian.

Everyone was stunned. Mi Yin tried to stab the boss , but found that the boss was invincible and could not be attacked. It seemed that only if Xue Piao Renjian sang a song for it could the battle continue.

But here comes the question, Xue Piao Renjian can't even speak, how can he sing? !

the boss 's face expressionlessly and said: "..."

It's an unexpected ending!

The boss had stopped in front of Xue Piao Renjian for two seconds. The latter had no intention of opening his mouth. Yue Tian said anxiously, " It's not easy to get to 30%. Xue Piao Renjian, you sing! Just hum a few words! Quick! "

Xue Piao Renjian also felt that it had not been easy for everyone to be together for so long, so he held his breath and opened his lips slightly when he heard that.

Snow Falls on Earth: "....."

No! I can't do it!

Xiaoxiao Yuxia immediately looked at Miyin and shouted, " Miyin, let him sing! "

Mi Yin was watching Xue Piao Renjian, and when he heard this, he said angrily: " If I could have made him open his mouth, would he be considered a gay now?! "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Snowfall: "..."

That makes so damn sense!

It's hard to get Xue Piao Renjian to speak, let alone sing. It's impossible!

Xue Piao Renjian just stared at the boss blankly . The stalemate lasted for five seconds. The boss didn't hear the song, and straightened his body angrily. He let out a sharp scream, turned around, and swung his tail to send Xue Piao Renjian flying.

Xue Piao Renjian wanted to hide, but unfortunately he had no horse and his movement speed was not fast enough, so he could only take the hit. However, it was not so easy to withstand the backlash from the boss . Even Yue Tian, who was wearing a T- suit, had a hard time here, let alone Xue Piao Renjian, who was directly hit to all his health and lay on the ground, unable to move.

Mi Yin was startled and subconsciously ran towards Xue Piao Renjian. However, the boss did not return to the battle after the attack, but remained invincible . He stared at Mi Yin who was halfway through the run and said again in that siren-like voice: " Mi Yin, please sing a song for me ..." "

As soon as Mi Yin heard this, he felt his feet sink and his whole body was fixed in place. At the same time, the boss lowered his head towards Mi Yin and put the ear fins in front of him.

Miyin: "..."

Mi Yin is a carefree person who rarely gets shy and is never stage-frightened when performing singing. But the problem is that he is worried that after he finishes singing, the boss will get so angry that his ears will be poisoned that he will kill everyone .

Seeing that Miyin was also silent, Yuetian said anxiously: " Fuck, can you guys stop being so withdrawn? Be more cheerful! It's just a song! "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia knew that Miyin was not an autistic person, so she also said: " It's better to sing than not to sing! Miyin! Hurry up! "

Seeing that everyone was persuading him like this, Mi Yin couldn't refuse, so he could only sigh and said, " Okay, then I'll sing ..." "

At this time, the boss had stayed in front of Mi Yin for four seconds. In the last second before the boss went crazy, Mi Yin opened his mouth and started singing.

To be honest, Xiaoxiao Yuxia didn't know how those few seconds passed. He just felt his brain was blank and his heart was clamoring.

Shut up! Shut up!!! Shut up!!! Let me die! Let me die!!! Let me die!!!

Miyin! Please stop singing! Please let us go! Your fucking lethality is higher than that of the boss !!!

After Mi Yin finished singing, the place was silent. Everyone's face looked pale, as if they had just died. They stared blankly at Mi Yin and the boss in front of her .

No matter what, Mi Yin sang after all, and the boss slapped Xue Piao Renjian away in the fifth second last time, but this time he paused in front of Mi Yin for more than ten seconds because Mi Yin started singing. Maybe the boss has no aesthetic sense at all and doesn't care whether the singing is good or not?

Although everyone was shocked by Mi Yin's singing and had completely lost hope of passing, Mi Yin herself was not aware of this and looked at the boss expectantly .

The boss was no longer listening attentively, but turned his head and looked at Mi Yin expressionlessly.

Miyin: " quq ? "

There was silence on the field. Just when everyone thought it was over, the boss suddenly stood up, let out a sharp long howl, and cursed: " Disgusting!!! "

Miyin: "..."

After saying that, the boss turned around and swiped his tail, knocking Mi Yin away. He then lay side by side with Xue Piao Renjian, unable to move.

Everyone was stunned for a moment. They didn't expect the boss to say such an apt comment as " Disgusting! " and when they saw Mi Yin, the noise maker, being knocked to the ground, they couldn't help but applaud.

Mi Yin couldn't speak at this moment. If he could speak, he would definitely jump up and curse: " Whose side are you bastards on!!! "

This wave of applause was so heartfelt! Even Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin joined in unconsciously, which showed how powerful Mi Yin's noise attack was!

However, although it was gratifying that Mi Yin was lying down, the boss 's invincible state still had to be broken. Everyone was worried that they would be called out by the boss , especially those who were tone-deaf. Ji Xuanyi was sweating in his hands.

The invincible boss glanced at the remaining twenty-three people, looked around, and finally, under everyone's frightened gaze, stopped in front of the long-range team and put his face between Ming Shao and Qingfeng Bufu who were standing together.

Ming Shao's heart twitched and he immediately looked at Qingfeng Bufu, only to see that the other party had a frightened expression. He immediately felt that he had lost hope.

No matter whether the boss chooses him or Qingfeng Bufu, it is estimated that they are finished.

The boss opened his eyes with only the whites of his eyes open and whispered: " Qingfeng Bufu, please sing a song for me ..."

Ming Shao didn't move, and looked at Qingfeng Bufu nervously.

Qingfeng Bufu was also looking at Ming Shao. He never expected that he would be so unlucky. He was the only one called out among the twenty-three people. His brain suddenly went crazy and he had no idea what to sing.

Yuetian and Xiaoxiao Yuxia were about to urge him, but Qingfeng Bufu had already looked at Ming Shao, swallowed his saliva, and spoke first.

The song is melodious and extremely sad!

 " My old father, the person I love the most ..."

Young Master Ming: "..."

Ming Shao's eyes told Qing Feng Bu Fu that after publishing this book, you will die.

Qing Feng Bu Fu was about to cry while singing. He originally wanted to sing a song about brotherhood, but when he saw Ming Shao's face and thought of Ze Yu Si Shui, the only thing he could sing was "My Old Father"! What could he do!

Regardless of the song selection, Qingfeng Bufu actually sang very well, all in tune, and he could even hit the high notes! Everyone never expected that there was actually a master in the group. After laughing at this lyric, they only had admiration for Qingfeng Bufu.

Qing Feng Bu Fu couldn't help but feel sad when thinking about the miserable situation he encountered after the song was released. His emotions were very touching. After the song was over, the boss didn't move at all, and the stiff expression on his face seemed to relax.

Yuetian kept muttering to himself: " Fuck, this is awesome, it looks like it will work! "

Anyway, he had already sung and could not escape death. Qingfeng decided not to give up and did not go to see Ming Shao. After singing, he looked at the boss nervously , wondering if the other party was satisfied or not.

Everyone held their breath, thinking that Qing Feng was an expert at this level, and the authorities couldn't be so perverted and not let him pass even though he sang like that. Does that mean he will have to form a team with a professional singer to complete the game in the future?

In fact, the official is not that perverted. At least the boss 's current expression is much more pleasant than the expression it had when it looked at Mi Yin before. I think Qingfeng Bufu's singing should have made it very satisfied.

Just when everyone breathed a sigh of relief and felt that they could pass this time, the boss suddenly raised his body, looked around blankly, and whispered in a voice that made people feel itchy: " You are good, but it's not right, it's not right ..."

After saying that, he slapped Qingfeng Bufu, who had just felt relieved, with his tail.

Before everyone could react, the boss had already left them behind, turned around, jumped towards the water, and ran to the bottom of the water without looking back.

Everyone who had suddenly left the battle was bewildered. At this moment, the girl's singing began to sound from the small cloth bag again. Except for the obvious water marks in the center of the open space, the situation here was exactly the same as when they first arrived.

Yuetian sat down on the ground, sighed, and said, " It seems that the three roll calls just now were just for judgment. If the judgment fails, the boss will leave directly. It is exactly the same as what is written on the stone tablet. "

When the singing stops, it leaves.

The boss appears on the shore because of the little girl's singing. When the little girl's singing stops during the judgment phase, and it can't hear a satisfactory song, it will directly leave the battle and return to the water.

Young Master Ming got the chance and immediately jumped up and rushed over to beat Qingfeng Bufu up, making him cry for his parents. After a long time, he realized something was wrong and asked curiously: " Why didn't you return to the living point? "

Qing Feng Bu Fu raised his head and said pitifully: " I'm not dead, why should I go back to the living place? "

Young Master Ming looked at the place where Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin were lying, and it was empty.

Ji Xuanyi was extremely worried. He rubbed his forehead and walked over, saying, " The boss should attack according to its satisfaction level. Qingfeng Bufu sang well, so it didn't put in too much effort. Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin, one didn't open his mouth, and the other sang like that, so it's normal for them to be beaten to death. "

If Mi Yin heard Ji Xuanyi's words, it was normal, she would definitely say, "Is there no way out if you can't sing well these days?"

However, Ji Xuanyi's guess was correct. The boss did launch attacks according to his satisfaction with the song. What Ji Xuanyi didn't know was that although both of them died, the damage suffered by Mi Yin was actually higher than that of Xue Piao Renjian.

In other words, it would be better not to sing.

If Mi Yin knew about this, she would probably cry to death.

Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin, a pair of brothers in distress, were rushing here from the resurrection point, but to be honest, they really had no advantage at all when it came to attacking this boss , so everyone didn't wait for them and started discussing it.

" Although Qingfeng Bufu only lost a little bit of blood, he indeed failed. He sang so well but still didn't pass. The official won't really let us form a group of singers to break through, right? " Xiaoxiao Yuxia said puzzledly.

Others felt the same way. If Qingfeng Bufu couldn't pass it, no one else in the group could.

Xu Chu shook his head and said, " The boss didn't say that Qingfeng Bufu didn't pass the test. Before he left the battle, he gave Qingfeng Bufu a very good evaluation, which means that he was satisfied with Qingfeng Bufu. "

" But it said ' wrong ' , " Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " Qingfeng Bufu sang well, but it was not right. Since there is a judgment of right or wrong, it means that the boss should have a designated melody. "

Everyone was stunned when they heard this, and then they all looked at the bone bag that was still singing tirelessly.

After what happened just now, everyone seemed less afraid of this pile of singing bones. But it was obvious that Qingfeng Bufu was not a " big shot " . This coward was still very scared and he refused to come over. Ming Shao and Ze Yu Sishui had no choice but to take one side each and carry the crying Qingfeng Bufu to the side of the bone bag.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia advised: " Why don't you learn this tune? Let's all learn it together, and at least we can defeat the boss . "

Qing Feng Bu Fu clung to Ming Shao, shook his head desperately, and said, " No, no, I am very superstitious. If I sing along with the songs sung by ghosts like this, something bad will happen! "

Ming Shao said with a frown on his face: " What the hell, this is a game, what are you afraid of? "

Qing Feng Bu Fu said: " There are ghosts in the game! Ghostland! "

Young Master Ming was about to resort to domestic violence again, and everyone hurried to stop him.

Qingfeng Bufu is now also a technical talent, and there is no replacement if he is broken.

Seeing everyone's attitude, Qing Feng Bu Fu started to show off again, frowning and saying, " Besides, her singing style is totally out of tune, it's so high and so low. If she could learn it, she would have learned it long ago after listening to the BGM for so long . Why did she have to wait until now? "

Qingfeng Bufu was right. Everyone had been listening to the BGM for so long , but when the singing stopped, they couldn't remember it at all. Under normal circumstances, when the boss calls the name at a tense moment, those who can't remember what to sing will subconsciously sing the melody they heard recently. However, Qingfeng Bufu even sang "My Old Father" and didn't remember the BGM that had been ringing in his ears before . It can be seen how difficult it is to learn this.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Maybe this is the reason for the weight setting? Because the boss will use this when calling out names? "

Yuetian frowned and said, " It's possible. "

But because of the weight setting, this thing cannot be held in the hand all the time. It seems that I can only pick it up in advance before the next stage and then hand it directly to the person named after the next stage.

The good thing about this stage is that although the boss is invincible , it will not attack the players. Except for the people who are named, everyone else can move around freely. It may not be a big deal for DPS and tanks , but several priests quite like this stage and can take the opportunity to increase their health – as long as they are not named.

Ji Xuanyi discussed it with Yuetian and had no objection to his arrangement. He said, " It's just a land reclamation anyway. It doesn't matter if we make mistakes. We can prepare for the reclamation when Miyin and Xuepiaorenjian come back. "

Speaking of these two people, Yue Tian immediately looked like he had a stomachache, and after a long while he said, " No, if these two people are named, why do I feel that it will be useless even if I hold those bones ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

What Yuetian said was so right that he couldn't even refute it.

One of them, Miyin, couldn't speak fully, the other, Xuepiaorean, couldn't open her mouth, let alone holding a pile of bones, even holding the boss 's thigh wouldn't work!

Ji Xuan held his forehead with his hand.

It's really a headache.

The author has something to say: The reason why I didn't write what Mi Yin sang was not because I intentionally didn't want to give him a role, but because no one could hear what he was singing. Ji Xuanyi suspected that he was performing a ventriloquist performance of sawing wood.

Chapter 147

When Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin rushed back, Ji Xuanyi told them about his and Yue Tian's speculation.

" Although I don't know whether the bone is really useful or how to use it , " Ji Xuanyi said hesitantly , " but singing is always right . When the time comes , you should try to open your mouth and sing if you can. "

Snowfall: "..."

After what happened just now, Mi Yin felt that she had seen through the fickleness of the world . She pointed at herself expressionlessly and said to Ji Xuan: " Are you sure? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

He is not sure!

Mi Yin's singing was really deadly. If possible , Ji Xuanyi hoped that he would never have to hear it again in his life . But in the current situation, no matter how bad it was, he had to deal with the boss first . Ji Xuanyi could only say vaguely: " Let's talk about it later. The boss may not choose you. "

Mi Yin was hurt by Ji Xuanyi's evasive words!

Mi Yin couldn't stand it anymore , looked at Xue Piao Renjian, and said with an expression of incomprehension: " Is it really that bad? "

He himself didn't realize it! He even felt that every sentence he said was in tune!

Xue Piaorjian hesitated for a moment, not sure whether he should lie or not , but in the end , he chose to nod honestly.

If he hadn't been lying on the ground at that time, he would have felt that his health bar would be directly depleted by Mi Yin.

Miyin: "... see you later! "

The friendship between Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin was in jeopardy and on the verge of breaking up, but that had nothing to do with Ji Xuanyi. He discussed it with Yue Tian and rearranged the positions, dividing the team into two triangles with the boss as the apex.

" Miyin, " Ji Xuanyi called him, " carry the bone to the water's edge and lure the boss out. "

Mi Yin was stunned for a moment when she heard this, and said, " Me again? But I can't hold her anymore. "

Ji Xuanyi did not answer him, but just said: " Try it. "

Mi Yin had no choice but to walk over and pick up the cloth bag on the ground.

He had been prepared to handle something heavy, but the cloth bag suddenly became as light as it was at the beginning. He was unable to retract his strength and nearly fell on his back.

Ji Xuanyi gently helped him up and said, " It is true. The weight debuff cannot last forever. It will disappear after a while. So it is possible that someone will be named twice. "

Mi Yin then realized that Ji Xuanyi wanted to try out the debuff mechanism. She shook her head helplessly and said, " Shall we carry him now? "

Ji Xuan nodded.

Only then did Mi Yin walk towards the water.

Maybe because it was the second time, the boss didn't make everyone wait too long like last time. He climbed out of the water very quickly and launched an attack on Bones just like he did the first time.

There was no need for Ze Yu Sishui this time. Mi Yin, who had been prepared, dodged the attack and placed the cloth bag in the circle drawn by Ji Xuanyi and Yuetian.

"Everyone, take a look!" Yue Tian shouted loudly, "Put the things behind me. Be careful when you move around, don't break them. The person standing closest to this side before the next stage will take them according to my instructions, and then hand them to the person named. Understand?"

Everyone responded in unison.

Yue Tiandao: "Okay, then I'm ready to start the fight!"

"Three, two, one, everyone explode!"

This time the boss's health was not as fast as last time, but it was normal. Yue Tian had expected this and was not panicked. When the boss's health was still 71%, Yue Tian shouted, "The person closest to the bone, pick it up quickly!"

It happened that a priest had just been called out by the water column and was standing not far from the bones. Upon hearing what was said, he hurried over and picked up the pile of bones. At this moment, the boss came down from the stage and entered the invincible state! Instantly, everyone was on edge!

The boss looked back and forth, hesitating for a while, and glanced at everyone one by one. Everyone was screaming wildly in their hearts, like a poor junior high school student in class.

Don't click on me, don't click on me, don't click on me ...

But there was always someone who had to stand up to answer the question. Ji Xuanyi was lowering his head, not knowing whether he should pray in his heart that the boss would call on him or not, when he suddenly felt his scalp tingling.

Ji Xuanyi was very familiar with this premonition. He raised his head resignedly, and sure enough, the boss stopped in front of him.

The pastor holding the pile of bones now realized who was called, and he ran towards Ji Xuanyi frantically with his short legs.

The boss has already lowered his head towards Ji Xuanyi: "Ji Xuanyi, please sing a song for me..."

Ji Xuanyi's face was covered with sweat. He glanced sideways and saw that the priest could no longer run because of the weight debuff. Seeing this, Ming Shao next to him snatched the cloth bag from his hand, started sprinting, and ran towards Ji Xuanyi. Finally, he stuffed the cloth bag into Ji Xuanyi's hand the second the boss stopped in front of Ji Xuanyi.

When the boss's health drops to 70%, the pile of bones in the cloth bag will stop singing, and the boss's naming and judgment phase will begin.

When Ji Xuanyi took the cloth bag, he couldn't figure out how to use it. Should he give it to the boss? But the boss didn't seem to want to help him!

Another second passed, and the boss raised his face without hearing the singing. Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to bite the bullet and prepare to open his mouth.

I guess his singing is only slightly better than Mi Yin's. I hope the boss won't hit him so hard... Just when Ji Xuanyi was about to give up, he suddenly heard a very subtle voice.

It was very, very soft. If Ji Xuanyi hadn't been very close to the sound, he would definitely not have heard it.

It was still the little girl's voice, still coming from the package in his hand. It didn't stop singing, but the sound became smaller!

Ji Xuanyi suddenly realized and finally understood how to use this cloth bag. He looked at the boss and tentatively hummed along with the cloth bag in his hand.

When Ji Xuanyi said that he was tone-deaf, he was not being modest. He was truly tone-deaf. Even with a cheating device in his hand, he could only barely keep up with the rhythm. It took him almost ten seconds of singing before people could tell what tune he was humming.

However, the official settings are certainly not too strict. The boss listened for a long time with its ears tilted, until Ji Xuanyi almost hummed out of tune, it slowly straightened up and continued to patrol the field without saying a word.

Ji Xuanyi, who had escaped a disaster, was sweating. Although the boss didn't say anything, he didn't attack Ji Xuanyi either. It should be considered a success.

The bones in his hand were getting heavier and heavier. Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to let them fall to the ground. He then said loudly, "The bones actually make a sound, but it's very small and can only be heard when you hold them. The people who are named just need to sing along with the bones! "

When Yue Tian heard this, he immediately asked, "What if I can't sing it correctly? Will it have any impact? "

Ji Xuanyi replied: "It should be fine. I didn't sing it correctly, but the judgment was successful!" Just as Yuetian breathed a sigh of relief, Miyin next to him asked, "Can I do it, too? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Miyin: "???"

Ji Xuanyi was silent for two seconds, but he couldn't escape his conscience and said, "It's hard to say."

Miyin: "... Okay, see you later! "

In fact, Ji Xuanyi was also very curious about what would happen if Mi Yin was targeted, but unfortunately, the boss was probably afraid that Mi Yin's magic sound would pierce his ears, so he didn't target him, but instead targeted Xu Chu. Ji Xuanyi picked up the cloth bag, but found that he couldn't pick it up, probably because the weight debuff had not disappeared. He could only say to Qi Qin next to him: "I can't pick it up, give it to Xu Chu quickly."

Upon hearing this, Qi Qin immediately picked up the cloth bag and ran towards Xu Chu quickly. Xu Chu took the cloth bag and quickly passed the judgment based on Ji Xuanyi's instructions. The last person I clicked was an unknown wizard. Although he was a little nervous, he passed smoothly.

After three judgments were completed, Xiaobubao's singing finally became louder again, echoing throughout the entire open space. The boss showed a painful expression, hugged his head, and let out a sharp cry.

Invisible sound waves spread out, and everyone began to lose blood like crazy. The priests used their skills like crazy and finally managed to get through this stage.

The boss was lying on the ground, with black air coming out of his body. Only the whites of his eyes were left, and pupils gradually appeared. He moaned softly : " Annie , Annie ... what am I doing? What's wrong with me? "

Before Ji Xuanyi could hear what the boss was saying, Yue Tian had already seen the 12-second weakness debuff that appeared on the boss , and immediately shouted: " Everyone, violent output, violent draw! Hurry up! The boss is in a weak state now! "

After hearing this, everyone suddenly reacted and started using their skills on the boss . As expected , the boss ' health began to drop madly.

Although everyone was fighting with all their might, the weak state only lasted for twelve seconds, leaving two seconds for everyone to react. Within ten seconds, the boss 's health was reduced from 70% to 55%.

The boss, who had been lying on the ground and had not fought back no matter how hard he was hit , immediately climbed up with a scream after he came out of his weakened state and began to attack Yichou frantically.

In order to suppress the health of the enemy, Qi Qin failed to control the hatred and suddenly became the target of the boss . He was almost killed. Fortunately, he dodged it and cooperated with Yuetian to divert the hatred.

After waking up, the boss has an extra layer of crazy buff , and his attack power and movement speed are obviously higher, but it is still acceptable.

After Yuetian held on for about thirty seconds with some difficulty, the boss once again entered the naming and judgment stage.

With the previous experience, it would be difficult to make mistakes in naming and judging. After the rain fell, the sun shone, and the swordsman sang a song, the boss entered a weak state again. This time everyone reacted quickly. After the weakness ended, the boss still had 33% of his health left.

However, after the boss woke up for the second time, the crazy buff on his body became two layers, his attack power increased by 60%, and his movement speed increased by 25%. With a slap, Yuetian's health was reduced to only one third!

" Fuck! " Yue Tian shouted while holding up the damage reduction, " I can't handle another layer of crazy buff ! "

Ji Xuanyi also almost understood this mechanism. This is a boss that relies on DPS . If the DPS is enough, this boss will be defeated very quickly. It should be considered one of the more popular bosses in the future.

But if the team's DPS is not enough, this boss that stacks a crazy buff every time it weakens will become a disaster. If the boss is not defeated after three or four times of weakness, this boss will not even have to wait for the rampage stage and will directly become a killer weapon that can kill any kid with one blow.

Fortunately, there is Qi Qin in this group, and the DPS is sufficient. When the boss is weakened for the third time, he can almost be directly suppressed.

Ji Xuanyi's prediction was correct. After the boss was successfully judged for the third time and entered a weakened state, the PVPs with an extremely strong desire to survive simply used all their strength to attack crazily. He even saw a priest using a holy light ball and a staff for physical attacks at the same time ... and he was not afraid of breaking the weapon.

In short, when the boss was weakened for the third time, the countdown had not yet ended, and his health was directly reduced to 10%, forcibly ending his weakened state.

After being forcibly ended from the weakened state, the boss only brought out two layers of crazy buffs , and then superimposed the rampage stage of 10% health. Yuetian had a hard time bearing it. Basically, he had to rely on the damage reduction of mages and warlocks throughout the whole process to stabilize his blood. Otherwise, his blood volume would go up and down like a roller coaster, and he had no idea when he would suddenly die.

Fortunately, this situation did not last long. After the boss 's blood was reduced by another 3%, the boss howled and fell to the ground.

Everyone did not dare to relax easily and still wanted to continue to reduce the blood, but the boss entered the invincible state again and there was no way to attack.

" Annie, Annie ..." The boss kept calling out this name. Large patches of black fog emerged from its body, making it almost impossible for Ji Xuanyi and the others to see the situation clearly.

Just when everyone had no idea what to do, the cloth bag that had been thrown aside by everyone after the judgment phase suddenly began to flicker.

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment, and immediately said: " This is the scene where the battle ends. Quickly bring the bag of bones over and open it! "

When Ze Yu Sishui heard this, he was the first to jump out, leaving behind the others who were planning to take the bones. After picking up the cloth bag, he ran back and placed it in front of the boss , then carefully untied the knot that Mi Yin had tied, revealing the pile of snow-white bones.

the boss thanks to the little girl's singing , and now they were not as scared as before. Jian Xi Xin Jiu, the coward, even said, " The little girl's bones are quite clean ..."

Xu Chu kicked him expressionlessly, and Jian Xi Xinjiu dared not say a word.

The glowing pile of bones gradually condensed into the figure of a little girl. Her figure was very blurry and her face could not be seen at all, but she bent down, gently hugged the boss 's head, and hummed softly in its ear. After a while, the boss calmed down, listened to the song, and gradually stopped moving.

The black mist continued to pour out of its body. After a while, the huge but lifeless body of the mermaid disappeared, leaving only a pile of broken bones.

It's impossible for the bones to continue to crawl up and attack them, and the health bar has disappeared. This should be considered a pass, right?

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief.

The little girl's figure did not disappear. She seemed to be able to only hum a song and could not speak, so she had no way to express her wishes. She could only point to the mermaid bones on the ground, then pointed to her own bones under her feet, made a hugging gesture, and finally pointed in the direction where they found her, and then disappeared.

The plot ended, and a golden treasure chest appeared in the middle of the open space.

Everyone was stunned for a moment, then burst into cheers and rushed towards the box.

Ji Xuanyi was thinking about something, and when he came to his senses, the box was surrounded by people. He frowned, but in the end he didn't say anything. He just sighed and sent Qi Qin to see if there were any special props in the box.

Xu Chu had no interest in what was in the box. Regardless of whether the equipment came out or not, it would be his in the end. He stood next to Ji Xuanyi, looking at the two piles of bones on the ground, and said, " What does that little girl mean? "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " He probably wants us to help bury her back at the stone tablet, along with the boss ' bones. "

Xu Chu rubbed his hands and said, " Are you going? "

Ji Xuan glanced at the people behind him who were fighting for their equipment, sighed helplessly, and said, " Go ahead. "

So when everyone was pushing and shoving each other for equipment, Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu picked up the bones of the little girl and the boss , and silently went towards the group of stone tablets.

In fact, there is no need to explain it too clearly. If you think about it according to the routine, you should be clear about the story behind this boss .

The mermaid who had developed feelings for the little girl fought to protect her after the evil god came. However, the mermaid's fighting ability was not high. Not only did she fail to save the other party, she was also turned into a puppet. She only woke up again at the end of her life, but it was too late.

Ji Xuanyi said: " It seems that the plots of this kind of game are all tragedies, and there are very few happy endings. "

Xu Chu smiled and said, " Because be is unforgettable and makes people remember it deeply ... Besides, we have already reached the happy ending, so it's okay. "

Ji Xuanyi's brows also relaxed. Indeed, August and Mrs. Harman had a happy ending. At least on his server, the plot was already very good.

The two men walked to the group of stone tablets. Xu Chu stroked his chin and asked, " Where did we find the bones? "

Ji Xuanyi looked around and saw the same wild grass and stone tablets everywhere. He was shocked and said, " Tsk, I forgot to call Mi Yin over. "

Xu Chu was speechless: " What do you think Mi Yin is? A fully automatic video recorder? If you can't remember something, just call him over to rewind it. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " If you have the guts, don't use it this way. "

Xu Chu stopped talking.

The two of them searched around and almost forgot which direction to go back. They opened the parchment and looked at the direction of their teammates. Only then did they return to the starting point in a panic.

Xu Chu said: " Forget it, we can't find it with just the two of us, let's just find a random place to bury it. "

Ji Xuanyi also felt the same way. The two of them found a place close to the center, dug a hole together, and buried the two piles of bones together.

Digging a hole is not an easy job for a magic profession. After the two men finished, they sat on the ground and prepared to take a break.

Ji Xuan took a breath and looked up in the direction they came from. Just when he was about to leave, his eyes swept across something and he was suddenly stunned.

Xu Chu pushed him and said, " Shall we go? "

Ji Xuanyi stood up without saying anything, frowning, and said, " Did we have that thing when we came here? "

Xu Chu didn't understand: " What? "

Ji Xuan raised his hand and pointed, and saw a small mound of earth very obviously raised on the ground not far ahead, which was clearly telling others that I am special and there is something underneath.

Xu Chu was also stunned. Although their memory was not as good as Mi Yin's, it was much better than that of ordinary people. When the two of them walked over here, the small mound definitely did not appear!

What's more, even if they didn't rely on their memory, when they saw such an obvious pile of earth, they would definitely dig it up and have a look!

The two looked at each other, and Ji Xuan said, " This thing must have just been refreshed. "

Xu Chu touched his chin and said, " Hidden treasure chest? Because we buried it? "

Ji Xuanyi couldn't think of a second possibility, so the two of them trotted forward and dug up the pile of dirt. They saw a box underneath, which was also golden, but a few sizes smaller than a real boss treasure chest.

Xu Chu murmured, " It's a good feeling to find a mysterious treasure chest. Let's open it and take a look! "

Need Xu Chu tell me? Ji Xuanyi quickly opened the lid of the treasure chest and saw three things inside: a bag of demon gold coins exactly the same as those produced by the first boss , a water-blue crystal ball, and a box.

Ji Xuanyi weighed the bag of demon gold coins, threw it to Xu Chu, and said, " Divide it equally. "

Xu Chu originally wanted to say that he bought it with money, but thinking that Ji Xuanyi was not short of money, he had to take the bag and divide it up.

After arranging the devil gold coins, Ji Xuanyi picked up the small box and saw the instructions on it that a piece of purple jewelry could be randomly opened.

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows.

Compared to equipment, the output of jewelry is relatively low. Even if there is any, most of them are blue and green jewelry. The orange jewelry in Sleepy Cat's hand is basically out of stock. It is very good that this box can produce a purple jewelry. No matter which part it is, it is probably worth a lot of money.

Ji Xuanyi held it and shook it towards Xu Chu, saying, " Do you want to take it back? "

Xu Chu rolled his eyes and said, " What the hell, did they dig a hole? The hidden treasure chest is ours, okay? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " How do we divide it? Rock, paper, scissors? "

Xu Chu originally wanted to say that he bought it with money, but the pleasure of winning was much greater than that of buying it. After hearing what Ji Xuanyi said, he agreed without saying a word.

Then Ji Xuanyi put the box into his bag.

Xu Chu: "..."

The last item was a water-blue crystal ball. Ji Xuanyi's first reaction was that this might be a weapon material, just like the branch of the Tree of Life that August gave him. But when he touched it, he found that it was a prop.

A prop used to defeat the Fire Giant, and it is an enhanced version.

"Unlike ordinary blue crystals, the crystal ball does not just make the wearer immune to the fire giant's attacks to a certain extent, but it can effectively reduce the overall attack power of the fire giant." Ji Xuanyi said: "That's what it says in the system description, and there is a line of small print at the end."

Only produced during the event.

Ji Xuan suddenly realized that it seemed that the official also knew that it was not easy to clear the game, so they specially created this thing to help players clear the game.

of the wood-attributed boss decreases after being defeated, and coupled with the weakening of its attack power, the fire giant is almost the same as a free gift.

Ji Xuanyi won the game of rock-paper-scissors against Xu Chu, and was in a good mood. He tossed the crystal ball and said, "Okay, let's go back."

Xu Chu took half a bag of gold coins, and he was not in a good mood. He thought to himself that it was more satisfying to throw money at people, and said, "Let's go, let's go, they will really divide the equipment later."

The two of them went back the same way, and halfway through they met Qi Qin who had come all the way to look for Ji Xuanyi because he couldn't find him. Xu Chu couldn't help but tease him, "Are you the big dog raised by Ji Xuan's family? You followed me when you couldn't find him."

Qi Qin didn't care about what others said. Ji Xuan glared at Xu Chu, and after Xu Chu apologized, he asked Qi Qin: "Did anything come out?"

Qi Qin knew what he meant, shook his head and said, "No, only equipment."

Ji Xuanyi was shocked: "That group of shady people ... next time the box comes out, run faster."

In fact, it's useless for Qi Qin to run fast. Although his equipment has speed attributes, he is just a swordsman. How can he compete with agility professions in speed?

But since Ji Xuanyi had spoken, Qi Qin could only nod and said obediently: "Okay."

Xu Chu simply couldn't bear to watch it, so he ran a few steps and walked to the front.

When they returned to the open space, everyone was preparing to roll for equipment. In fact, Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu did not participate, they just looked at the requirements.

Two pieces of knight equipment, three pieces of priest equipment, and one piece of mage equipment. Ji Xuanyi had no needs for them, so he let them roll whatever they wanted.

While everyone was distributing equipment, Ji Xuanyi went over and talked to Yuetian about the situation, and then handed him the crystal ball.

Yuetian didn't expect the item to be hidden in such a place, so he quickly wrote it down and said, " Then let's go and defeat the Flame Giant. It's getting late, so let's log off right after we defeat it and fight again tomorrow. "

It takes a long time to complete a dungeon, but the time actually spent on defeating the boss is only a small part. Take this dungeon for example, it took nearly five hours in total to defeat two bosses , but in fact only more than half an hour was spent on output. The remaining four hours were spent on traveling, solving puzzles, and distributing equipment.

Although it is troublesome, these are problems that the dungeon cannot avoid. PVEs have long been accustomed to them, and PVPs are simply rioting and wish to die together with the official. As long as there are no more scary plots, the twins can actually play for another five hours, until late at night. However, considering the fragile pvps , they can only shorten the time of clearing the wasteland.

defeating the free boss, the Fire Giant, everyone agreed on a time to gather tomorrow and went back to their homes to look for their mothers.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin had the same schedule. They didn't bother to do any tasks at this hour. They just logged off to have dinner and prepare to go to bed.

While Qi Qin was cooking, Ji Xuanyi went to the game forum for the first time in a long time. As expected, it was full of wailing.

The help posts are mixed with popular science posts and recruitment posts, it's a complete mess.

However, what surprised Ji Xuanyi was that, from the official data, it can be seen that the progress of their group, although far ahead and unique in the second server, is only ranked third in the entire region and server. There are two groups ahead of them, one has already completed the story of the fourth boss , and the other has already reached the fifth boss !

Ji Xuanyi looked at the two groups in confusion, only to find that they all belonged to the servers of two be world lines.

In order to welcome back the players of the Novice Town, the players of the two servers were united as one. Under the command of the leading guilds in the three main cities, everyone contributed all their strength and formed several neatly equipped teams with complete professional equipment, double T, triple T , violent output, big-breasted nurses, and everything they wanted.

It would be strange if a team like this played slowly!

It seems that the players of these two servers are determined to seize this opportunity and welcome them back. No one cares about gains and losses anymore, and no individual players are causing trouble. Even when the dungeon is refreshed, there is no one else in the square except for a few teams preparing to enter the dungeon.

In this situation, it really is unacceptable not to pass the level.

When Ji Xuan first saw the ranking, he was a little dissatisfied. But when he looked at the current situation of the two servers, his dissatisfaction turned into satisfaction. In this atmosphere of unity, Ji Xuan didn't even have the thought of competing for victory.

Ji Xuanyi originally wanted to look through some posts about strategy guides, but this was only the first day the dungeon was open, and most people were still struggling in the dungeon.

Besides, there were only two groups that were progressing faster than them, and it seemed that these two groups had no time to write strategy guides. Ji Xuanyi felt a little bored after looking through it for a while.

It happened that Qi Qin called Ji Xuanyi over to taste the food, so Ji Xuanyi turned off his computer and went to recharge.

When we went online the next day, there were crowds of people again, but overall, the number of people was actually much smaller than yesterday. It seemed that most of the people who came to join in the fun had given up on this activity that was obviously not suitable for them and continued to be idle.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin formed a team with Xiaoxiao Yuxia and others, only to find that the team was not full yet.

Xiao Xiaoyu looked like a late mother and said, " Xu Chu, the pigeon king ..."

Everyone: "..."

Jian Xi Xin Jiu asked in the group: " What should we do? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " What can I do? Just wait. "

After hearing Xiao Xiao Yuxia's decision, Ji Xuan hesitated for a moment and said, " Okay, we can go home today. When we go online tomorrow, Ge Chu might be online. "

Everyone felt that what Ji Xuanyi said made sense and prepared to log off.

Xiao Xiaoyu's face was full of black lines, and he quickly said: " I told Liu Tian to go offline and call him to death . No matter whether Xu Chu can come up or not, Liu Tian will definitely come up later. Don't be so impatient, just wait a while. "

Liu Tian didn't know if it was because he had been with Xu Chu for a long time, but although he was stupid and unreliable, he was very punctual in his sense of time. Since Xiao Xiao Yu Xia had set a time with him, he would definitely come up later.

Thinking of this, Ji Xuanyi stayed reluctantly.

But there was one thing he was very curious about: " Did Xuchu give you his phone number? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " No, a QQ phone is also a phone! "

Ji Xuanyi: "... I'm leaving first. Goodbye! "

In the end, Ji Xuanyi still did not log off, because Liu Tian came back soon and brought with him Xu Chu, who was sleeping in a daze.

Fortunately, Xu Chu's QQ was still on, and the six days of life-threatening QQ calls actually worked, pulling Xu Chu out of bed.

Liu Tian carried Xu Chu all the way to the square very diligently, and after placing him next to Ji Xuan, he ran away with a gloomy face.

Although he knew that the dungeon was very hard, Liu Tian still felt resentful for being kicked out because of his bad skills.

Xu Chu was so sleepy that he looked at Ji Xuan for a while before he reacted. He yawned and said, " I'm online? "

Ji Xuanyi: "... Where else do you want to see me? "

Xu Chu frowned and said, " I don't want to go anywhere ... I won't say any more. I'm going to log off first. "

Ji Xuan grabbed everyone and said, " Wait a minute! Why are you going offline again? "

Xu Chu struggled and said, " I forgot to pick out the mucus from my eyes. Let me off the line and I'll come out after rubbing it! Really! "

However, Xu Chu's credibility had already been reduced to zero. Ji Xuan said expressionlessly, " Then let it stick. You are not allowed to log off. "

Xu Chu: "... I can't even pick the shit out of my eyes?! "

Ji Xuanyi sneered: " Blame me? "

Xu Chu: "..."

It's all my fault for loving the pigeon man. Who knows if you will pick your eye boogers and take a nap after logging off? Just hold it in!

Xu Chu was added to the team with a gloomy mood. The twenty-five people from yesterday were finally together, and they could embark on the PVP exploration journey again!

Chapter 148

This time, the people in the square were not so dense, and they were organized into an orderly team . After everyone gathered, they sent team leader Xiao Xiao Yuxia to line up , and the others gathered together and waited.

The twins had been organizing the strategy after logging off yesterday , and had been working until midnight . They had not slept well at all, and were now leaning against each other and yawning . The others had been rolling around in the dungeon for several hours and had not recovered from the whole night. They also looked as if they had been drained of energy and were listless.

Pvp and pve doing dungeons together is simply hurting each other.

Jian Xi Xinjiu, who was sitting opposite Xu Chu, was fidgeting , looking as if he wanted to say something but was hesitant.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was gone , and the twins were dying. Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to take on the responsibility of coordinating the team members and asked, " What's wrong with you? "

Jian Xi Xinjiu opened his mouth and closed it again.

Ji Xuanyi almost jumped up and punched him directly . After a long while, he endured it and said: "... Speak. "

Perhaps it was because Ji Xuanyi's eyes were really unfriendly, Jian Xixinjiu swallowed his saliva, and finally lowered his head with a complicated expression and sent a private message to Ji Xuanyi.

[剑洗新酒] : Do you think Xuchu has been acting like a gay these past few days ?

Ji Xuanyi: "..... ??? "

Did I hear you right? You're a fking gay , and you 're calling someone a f  k ?

Before Ji Xuanyi could react , Jian Xixinjiu said seriously, " He just kept winking at me and flirting with me in public. It was really too much! Do you think I should have a good talk with him? I don't like his type! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

This guy has so much inner drama!

Ji Xuanyi raised his head woodenly and said to Jian Xixinjiu: " You think too much. He just didn't clean his eye mucus cleanly. He's not interested in you. "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

Xu Chu at the side said: " What are you talking about? Are you talking about me? Can I log off? I really only came back in a second! "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " No. "

Xu Chu wanted to say more, but Xiao Xiao Yuxia had already lined up at the front. With a flash of white light, everyone entered the dungeon.

They returned to the circular platform. The bosses of the three elemental towns of wood, fire and water had been conquered, leaving only the wind and earth towns.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was the first to say, " Let's go to Huangtu Town first. "

Ji Xuanyi recalled that Xiao Xiao Yu Xia seemed to be from the Earth Element Novice Town.

She had tried to get close to him when they first met. At that time, Ji Xuanyi thought Xiao Xiao Yu Xia was a good person.

There are indeed quite a few people in the team who came from the Earth-type Novice Town. When they heard this, they all expressed their agreement and everyone wanted to go back to their own Novice Town to take a look.

The twins originally thought that it would be better to go to the Wind direction first. After all, the Earth element sounded thick-skinned and difficult to beat, and this group of PVPs only had a short-lived enthusiasm. If the Wind element used up all their energy in the Earth element town, it would be difficult for them.

However, although they are commanders, they are ultimately only used when fighting monsters. Before yesterday, everyone would at least listen to their orders, but after getting to know each other, without the mystery of PVE commanders, they are completely unable to defeat this group of people in the team.

Everyone wanted to go to the soil first, so the twins nodded and followed suit.

Ji Xuanyi understood the twins' concerns , but he didn't have much opinion on which side to go first.

Yesterday, the fire giant dropped another bag of gold coins, which he kept for himself. In other words, he now has two bags of gold coins in his hands. Ji Xuanyi is not quite sure what these gold coins will be used for next, and how much he should collect to be enough, so now he has a mentality of going with the flow.

Ji Xuanyi originally thought that they would have to go to Xinmu Town again to get five more bottles of medicine from Mrs. Harman. Unexpectedly, when they entered the dungeon for the second time, the medicine box was refreshed directly next to the circular platform. After everyone got the medicine, they headed directly to Huangtu Town.

The situation in Loess Town seems to be more serious than in other towns, because there are no plants to block the sunlight. The sun is hot on weekdays, and the air quality is worrying due to the invasion of black fog.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia walked in front and led the way, saying, " When I was doing a mission in Novice Town, I found a cellar in the mayor's house. However, the hidden mission there seemed to have been completed by someone else in advance, so there was nothing there. But the space is large and very suitable for hiding people. Maybe we can find something or a prop if we go there now. "

Since it is a place related to the hidden mission, there might be something there. After all, Madam Harman, who was related to the hidden mission that Ji Xuanyi came into contact with, is also an important figure in the copy.

Facts have proved that in this game, intelligence and information are indeed important. Under the leadership of Xiaoxiao Yuxia, everyone found the survivors in the mayor's cellar.

There are quite a few bosses in the cellar, but their AI is not very good and they can only answer some fixed questions. Ji Xuanyi and others took some effort to learn from them the location of the boss in this town , as well as some of the boss 's skills and settings.

this boss sounds quite ordinary. He is just a traitor under the evil god. Unlike the mermaid, he does not have a background story. Therefore, his skill tree is also very popular, with names mentioned and out of the circle. The only characteristic he has is his thick skin as guessed by the twins before.

" But isn't it too simple? " Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said in surprise: " If it's just because you have thick skin, then it won't just take a little more time, right? "

Yuetian is well-informed. Hearing this, he said disapprovingly: " Not all dungeon bosses are so difficult. Basically, in most dungeons, there are one or two bosses that are easy to deal with. You can beat them with your eyes closed. Maybe this boss is one of them. There's nothing strange about it. "

This makes sense. Xiaoxiao Yuxia doesn't have much experience in this area, so I won't say much.

Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu were still talking to each other one by one. Neither of them was confident in the other's conversation skills. After finishing their own conversation, they asked the other person's question again.

Yuetian felt that he had already collected enough information and had even designed a strategy in his notebook. Seeing that the two were still dithering, he couldn't help but ask, " Are you two still not done yet? "

Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu happened to ask the last question, and said in unison with some impatience: " Alright, alright. "

Xu Chu squeezed out of the pile with great effort and said dissatisfiedly: " Do you think we are willing to waste time here? We just want to help you find more clues to avoid accidents! "

Yuetian was helpless, but Xuchu was the boss and he couldn't afford to offend him, so he could only laugh dryly and said, " Sorry for the trouble. "

Xu Chu then stepped forward and checked with him again the possible skills.

Ji Xuanyi was also squeezed in the crowd, but he was much more relaxed than Xu Chu. Qi Qin was like an iron tower, guarding behind him all the time. There were people coming whether he was walking forward or backward. As long as they were not the meat mountain devil type, there was basically no chance of squeezing him.

When Ji Xuanyi came out, Xu Chu and Yue Tian had almost matched their skills, but they seemed to be arguing about something.

Ji Xuanyi asked curiously: " What's wrong? "

Xu Chu saw Ji Xuanyi and asked quickly: " Did you hear a word? "

Ji Xuanyi was speechless and said, " They said so many things, which one are you referring to? "

Xu Chu said: " Xingxing's words! "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment, thought for a moment, and said, " The one about the monster being surrounded by stars? "

Xu Chu said: " You heard it too? "

Ji Xuanyi showed a hesitant expression on his face.

He did hear what Xu Chu said, but he heard this from a person who had become somewhat unconscious due to inhaling too much black fog. Compared with other boss attributes that were spoken with certainty, it was really hard to guess what this incoherent sentence symbolized.

Xu Chu couldn't figure it out either.

Moreover, Ji Xuanyi did pay special attention to this sentence at the beginning. After all, this was different from other normal ones and might be a special clue. However, after asking, he found that there were several other people who were unconscious and their words were all meaningless. So he did not take this sentence to heart.

When Xu Chu brought it up again, Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but start thinking about it again.

The monsters are surrounded by stars. Does that mean it is the boss 's special buff ?

Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu together couldn't figure it out, let alone the others. Everyone stayed in the cellar for a while and decided to go take a look at the boss first.

To use the words of "washing new wine with a sword", it means: " Who cares if it's the stars or the moon? Once you see it, you'll know what's going on. "

The location of the boss was also revealed by them, and the group found the place without much effort – in fact, it didn't matter much if they didn't say it, the area of the Loess Town was spacious, the buildings were not very tall, and the boss was big. After leaving the cellar, they saw the boss 's big forehead from a distance after only five minutes of walking.

Why do we say it is a big forehead? Because this boss has no part except the head. He is just a round stone ball without hands, eyes or nose, only a mouth. He looks like the protagonist of some old stand-alone mobile game.

Xu Chu said with a sigh, " Maybe the game company's artists have run out of ideas. "

Xu Chu complained, but no one responded and everyone looked unhappy.

This boss 's appearance is indeed very simple, but the buffs on it alone are enough to make everyone present feel depressed.

Yue Tian's face turned pale and he said, " I'm going to take back what I said about giving away the boss for free . 80% damage reduction? Why doesn't the official post it? "

Although Xiaoxiao Yuxia doesn't know how to do PVE , she can see buffs . After seeing the effect of the solid wall buff under the boss's avatar , she almost rubbed her eyes out and couldn't believe that what she saw was real.

Is this a bit thick-skinned?! This is like practicing the golden bell and iron cloth shirt!

" But considering the boss 's shape and strong damage reduction, he shouldn't need a tank, right? " Ritian looked at his younger brother.

Yuetian nodded and said, " It's quite possible. We can try it without a tank . We can get more DPS . "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said speechlessly: " It's useless to have more DPS on this boss . "

When Yuetian heard this, he looked back and found that the PVPs already had miserable expressions, as if they were attending a funeral.

Even if this boss was a wooden stake, they would have to stand and attack for two to three hours. Thinking of this, everyone wished they could die right there on the spot.

Yue Tian said with a frown: " Hey, you are the ones who wanted to come here desperately, can you please stop? "

Ritian also said: " Don't be discouraged, the buff can definitely be removed. We can find a way once the fight starts. It's impossible for us to fight for three hours. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia was the organizer after all. Although he felt very depressed, he still pulled himself together and said, " Everyone, hold on a little longer. These are the last two bosses . We will be free after we defeat them! "

Forget about the twins, Xiaoxiao Yuxia is the leader of three major gangs after all, so everyone still responded to him out of respect.

Xu Chu sighed and said, " When can we let that idiot Liu Tian try PVE ? "

Ji Xuanyi: "... Why hurt each other? "

As usual, Yuetian checked what props were around before starting the fight.

The battle field in the Loess Town was very empty. Except for the area around the boss where a circular platform was built with stones, the rest of the place was empty except for a lot of gravel on the ground.

Yuetian looked at it for a while and felt something was wrong. He muttered, " Why are these stones so regular? "

Ji Xuanyi didn't understand and asked, " What rules? "

Yue Tiandao: " It is very regular. You can come and take a look. "

Hearing this, everyone came forward.

It was only after Ji Xuan saw it that he realized what Yue Tian meant by rules. The stones on the ground were indeed shaped in a regular pattern, just like the picture books that children use to learn things, with triangles, circles, squares, and rectangles. It looked very strange.

Qi Qin followed behind Ji Xuan and took a look. Suddenly his eyes lit up. He walked to a heart-shaped stone and wanted to lift it up to show Ji Xuan. However, when he tried his best, he found that he could not lift it!

Ji Xuanyi noticed Qi Qin's action, looked up, and immediately laughed: " What kind of cheesy love words are you going to say? "

Qi Qin looked at him somewhat embarrassedly.

Ji Xuanyi blinked his right eye at him and said, " No need. Whatever you want to say is in my heart. "

Qi Qin gasped at Ji Xuan's teasing and almost bent over. It took him a long time to shyly move closer, and the two of them stayed in a cozy relationship for a while.

Fortunately, everyone's attention was attracted by those strange stones. Except for Xu Chu who silently turned his back and made a vomiting gesture, no one else noticed these two people.

Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi were bored for a while before they remembered that they had something to discuss. They said seriously, " There's something strange about that stone. "

Ji Xuanyi looked at Qi Qin and asked absentmindedly: " What's strange? "

Qi Qin said: " I have become very strong in this game, but I can't even lift that small stone. I suspect it may have something to do with this monster. "

Ji Xuanyi finally came back to his senses and frowned as he asked, " Is it possible that only a small part of the stone is exposed, and a large part of it is actually buried underground? "

Qi Qin shook his head: " I've seen it before. A finger can be inserted from the edge of the stone. "

This is very strange. Qi Qin's attributes are enhanced by artifacts. Even if he is wearing light armor, his strength should be comparable to that of a heavy armored swordsman. How could he not be able to lift a stone?

the boss without interest .

Based solely on the information provided by Qi Qin, Ji Xuanyi had no way of asserting how these stones were used. He could only remind Yuetian first and be cautious in his heart before he caught up with the main force.

Yue Tian looked outside the venue again because of Ji Xuanyi's words, then he retracted his gaze and began to organize his men.

The melee fighters form an inner circle, the ranged fighters form an outer circle, and everyone stands apart.

Although " the boss has no arms or legs, it has a mouth and has the skill of calling out names, " Yue Tiandao said, " Everyone spread out and be smart when calling out names. The priest should also output at full strength and heal people when they lose blood. "

Upon hearing this, Ji Xuanyi silently stood in the melee team, next to Qi Qin, and by the way replaced his artifact evil spirit staff with the previous deceleration staff.

Yue Tian was stunned and said, " Aren't you a remote operator ? "

Ji Xuanyi curled his lips and said, " Warlocks don't have basic attacks . "

Yuetian: " Is that so ..."

Ji Xuanyi also took up a kill in the team. If he didn't output, there would be one less DPS . Right now he could only make do with what he had and make up for it with the physical damage of his staff. In order to prevent the staff from being broken, he even specially replaced it with an old staff.

Seeing Ji Xuan's expressionless face, Yue Tian felt embarrassed to ask him to withdraw from the melee team. He couldn't let Ji Xuan stand far away and pick up pebbles from the ground and throw them at the boss . That would be embarrassing!

Seeing everyone in their positions, Yue Tian did not wait any longer and immediately said, " Everyone, get ready to attack the monsters! "

 " Three, two, one, violent beating! "

At the command, everyone started attacking the boss .

As the twins expected, the boss did not attack anyone, but stayed there quietly like a real stone.

However, the damage was reduced by 80 percent, and it was really depressing when the number appeared. After everyone fought for about ten minutes, when many people began to feel their hands sore, the boss 's health was barely reduced to 98 percent.

The boss, who had been unresponsive to everyone's attacks, finally moved lazily and opened his big mouth.

The long ten minutes before really made Yue Tian have a terrifying illusion " : Am I really going to keep fighting like this despite the damage reduction? " It was not until the boss started to move that Yue Tian cried out with joy: " The boss is moving! The boss is moving! "

This was probably the first time in his life that Ritian was so happy to see a boss move. After all, in most cases, the boss's movement meant that it was going to attack people ... However, the boss in front of him was really flawless when it stayed still. Only when it moved, Ji Xuanyi and the others would have a chance to break its defense.

Sure enough, just as Ritian thought, the boss opened his mouth and let out a low cry.

Just when Ritian hadn't realized what the sound meant, the stones of various shapes and a pile of soil outside the battle field flew up, as if guided by a strange force and attracted to the boss . Finally, less than three meters away from the boss , the stones and soil were squeezed together by an invisible force, turning into indistinguishable spheres that began to slowly rotate around the boss .

It turns out that those stones are the boss 's skills! Ji Xuanyi first had this idea in his mind, and then something suddenly flashed through his mind, and he blurted out: " The monster is surrounded by stars! "

" The monster is surrounded by stars! "

The same words were heard from another direction at the same time. Ji Xuan turned his head and saw that it was indeed Xu Chu. The two looked at each other and confirmed their guesses. That person was not talking nonsense because he was insane. What he said was true. The boss was indeed surrounded by " stars " !

what are these " stars " made up of stones of various shapes used for?

Just when Ji Xuan was lost in thought, the boss spoke again. This time it spoke human language, its voice low and confused.

" Can you tell me which one is the circle? "

This time, there is no need to think about it. Players who have seen the group of stones outside the battle area will understand what the boss is asking – but it is useless! Just understanding the question is of no help at all!

Those stones had long been wrapped in mud into an identical ball, surrounding the boss . Although the rotation speed was very slow, no one knew this situation would happen in advance, so no one paid attention to which was which. How could they be told apart at this time?

Xiao Xiaoyu's eyes followed the pile of dirt around the boss , and she felt dizzy. She looked at Yue Tian in confusion and said, " Can we reopen Latuo? "

Yuetian's face turned green, and he said, " It will take another ten minutes to pull it off and reopen it ... Let's try the mechanism. Does anyone remember which one has a circle inside? " No one said anything. No one took these things seriously. Why would anyone pay special attention to them?

Ji Xuanyi and Yue Tian did notice it, but they didn't pay attention to this aspect and couldn't say anything.

There was nothing he could do, so he said, " Just guess at random. "

The boss had no eyes, and they couldn't point to the boss . Yuetian thought about it, called a mage at random, and asked him to use skills at the dirt ball next to the boss .

The mage didn't know which one to attack. After a long time, he closed his eyes, made up his mind, raised his hand and randomly threw a skill at the boss .

The concentrated soil ball really " popped " apart and fell to the ground, revealing the rectangular stones inside.

The mage looked at Yuetian tremblingly.

Yuetian had expected this, so he smiled at him and said, " It's okay. It's normal to not be able to choose from more than 20 options. "

The wizard finally breathed a sigh of relief and ran back to where he was originally standing with his neck shrunk.

However, choosing the wrong one would not be without consequences. The boss was silent for a moment, then asked in a voice full of curiosity: " Is this a circle? "

This is certainly not a circle, but Yuetian didn't know whether he should answer truthfully, so he had to look to Ji Xuanyi and Xuchu for help.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Sorry, this is not a circle. "

Upon hearing this, the boss immediately became angry and shouted: " You are a bunch of liars! " the boss , who had been as quiet as a real stone from the beginning until now , suddenly shook violently.

As soon as Yue Tian saw it, he immediately understood what the boss wanted to do. He was so scared that he almost lost his shape and shouted at the top of his voice: " Everyone! Run, run, run! Run! Run! Run! Run! "

After hearing this, everyone knew what was going on! They immediately scattered like birds and beasts, each running away!

As soon as they started running, the boss also started moving. The spherical boss shook violently and finally left the place where it had been at the beginning. It made a loud noise, rolled over, and crushed everything in front of it to the ground!

“ What the hell!!! ”

Everyone screamed in horror!

This boss is not light, and you will probably die if you are crushed by him. Even if the damage is not fatal, it is still scary enough!!! This is a holographic game!!!

“ Whisper in my ear, you liar! ” the boss shouted and rolled towards the mage who had just knocked down the earth ball.

The wizard was so scared that tears came out of his eyes, and he ran for his life frantically. Everyone immediately stood ten meters away from him . No matter which direction he ran, someone would shout at him to go away and run farther .

The mage who whispered in the ear almost cried, and couldn't help but said loudly in grievance: " Don't chase me! It's none of my business! It was Tian who told me to fight! "

He was just being chased to his death and felt that he couldn't bear such injustice, so he shouted. Unexpectedly, after hearing it, the boss immediately turned around and rushed towards Ritian fiercely, shouting loudly: " Ritian, you liar! "

 " What the hell?! "

Yuetian never expected that this boss could actually understand human language. He was so stunned that he didn't even think of cursing the mage who betrayed him. It was not until the boss rolled in front of him that he reacted and ran away.

But Yuetian was a heavily armored swordsman, and his speed was not as fast as that of the mage, and he would be caught up in a few minutes.

Although Yuetian is a professional t and is used to being beaten, he is not a masochist after all ! Even if he is, no masochist would like to be crushed by this thing. The shit will be crushed out! Ritian's heart was filled with despair. While he was thinking about how to beat up the wizard when he got back, he was also frantically thinking of ways to save himself.

Just when the boss was about to catch up with Yue Tian, Yue Tian suddenly had an idea and shouted at the top of his voice: " I am not Yue Tian, I am Ri Tian, you are chasing the wrong person, Yue Tian is over there! "

After saying that, he pointed at his brother who was standing aside eating melon.

Ritian: "..... meow meow meow???"

This is his fucking brother!!!

In fact, Yuetian was just trying to save the situation. Since the horse was going to be crushed to death anyway, he just shouted casually to give it a try. In fact, he didn't hold much hope. But I don't know if this boss 's IQ is really low, or it's due to the judgment mechanism. After hearing what he said, the boss immediately turned to Ritian and shouted: " Ritian! You liar! "

 " Fuck! Who the hell did I fool? " Ritian shouted in despair, turned around and started running, shouting: " You've been fooled! The person you were chasing just now was the right one! It was Yutian! I am Ritian! Stop chasing me! "

However, somehow, the boss who had just said who would chase whom ignored Ritian's shouting, and still chased after him, getting closer and closer to him!

Is this the end of my life?! Ritian thought desperately, and then he looked up and saw Yuetian gasping for breath.

Ritian: "..."

Yue Tian: "..."

As expected of twins, they have a tacit understanding. As soon as the two brothers looked at each other, Yuetian knew what he was going to do and ran away immediately.

As expected, Ritian rushed towards Yuetian with the boss , shouting angrily: " Let's die together! Let's be twins in the next life! "

Yuetian: " Get lost!!! "

Yuetian wanted to kick Ritian away, but he really didn't have the energy to do so. The two twins chased each other with all their might, leaving everyone else stunned.

Xu Chu sighed and said, " It's terrible, terrible, brothers are at odds with each other, it's a misfortune for the family ..."

Ji Xuan glanced at Xu Chu, Xu Chu smiled at him, Ji Xuan snorted coldly and retracted his gaze.

Of course, you are not certain to die when the boss calls you out, although he is very fast, but if you move smartly enough, you can still survive.

PVE , Ritian , perhaps because of the stimulation from his brother, actually used the legendary snake-skin movement, and brushed past the boss twice , saving his life, but he was so scared that his face turned pale.

Yuetian was in trouble too. In terms of speed, he was not as fast as the priest Yuetian and was almost knocked down by the latter. It was really a case of brothers working together and dying together.

Fortunately, before the two of them died together, the boss 's chase time ended, and he let them go, rolling back to his original position.

There was no time to analyze the mechanism of the boss 's calling out names. The two brothers had already rolled into a ball, fighting and cursing at each other, taking the blame for wetting the bed when they were children, taking the blame for eating candy, taking the blame for hitting others, and all the old accounts were brought up again.

But to be honest, this kind of scapegoating incident happens between ordinary brothers, and it probably happens more frequently between twin brothers. After all, even if there are eyewitnesses, they can't tell clearly who did it. Even if they point out who it is, they may get beaten up in the end!

Everyone was amazed at the sight. If it weren't for the different appearance of their equipment, they wouldn't be able to tell who was who!

The two brothers fought each other, and there was no one to stop them. The whole bunch of dogs were just watching the fun, and in the end the two of them had to get up in disappointment. Jian Xi Xin Jiu said with lingering fear: " I thought they had a good relationship, but I didn't expect them to fight like this. "

Ji Xuanyi was so angry that he said, " You are still freaking out. Besides, isn't it normal for brothers to fight? "

Qi Qin was a little curious and asked, " Is it normal for brothers to fight? "

He was an orphan in his previous life, and after coming here he was also an only child. He really didn't know what it was like to have brothers. Logically, shouldn't brothers be friendly and loving to each other?

Ji Xuanyi sneered: " When you have to give half of everything you have to others, you won't think so. "

Qi Qin hadn't been scolded by Ji Xuanyi for a long time. He was stunned for a moment, but couldn't help but said, " Split it in half ... Split it in half, I think it doesn't matter. "

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyes and glanced at him. He was about to get angry, but when he saw the silly expression on his face, he looked like a balloon that had been punctured. He said helplessly, " You think it's okay, but how do you know your brother thinks it's okay too? "

Qi Qin was stunned and didn't know how to answer.

Ji Xuanyi said seriously as if explaining something: " It is normal for brothers to fight, as long as their arms and legs are not broken ... "

When Qi Qin heard the words "arms and legs", his face turned green.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

It seems that the psychological shadow is really deep.

Ji Xuanyi stopped talking and turned to look at the twin brothers who had remained silent after the fight but seemed to have reconciled. He said, There seems to be something wrong with " the boss 's naming mechanism. "

The twins nodded at the same time. Anyone with eyes could see this.

Ji Xuanyi was about to explain in detail, but the boss who had returned to his original position did not give them the chance and spoke again.

It seemed to have really encountered a century-old problem that was difficult for it to understand but could not be put down no matter what. It asked again: " But in this case, which circle is it? "

The ball of earth around the boss was still spinning slowly, and everyone looked at the twins, waiting for them to make a decision.

Yuetian frowned and was about to speak, but Xuchu beside him raised his hand first and knocked away a ball of dirt.

The soil scattered and a five-pointed star-shaped stone fell to the ground.

Yue Tian took a breath of cold air and was about to grab Xu Chu to ask him what he was doing, but Xu Chu smiled nonchalantly and said, " Oh, bad luck. "

The boss also asked a question at this time, hesitantly asking: " Is this a circle? " Everyone's heart was in their throat, and they all left the vicinity of the boss and Xu Chu, leaving the open space for them, for fear of being accidentally injured.

Xu Chu glanced at the boss , smiled harmlessly, and said, " Yes, this is Yuan. "

Chapter 149

No one dared to make a sound, and just stared at Xu Chu and the boss .

Xu Chu, you are so brave! You even fooled the boss !

, then showed a thoughtful expression.

Just when everyone thought Xu Chu would be pursued by the boss until the end of time , the boss said foolishly: " So that's how it is , thank you ..."

Afterwards , the boss stopped moving, but the dirt balls were still rotating around it.

Everyone looked at each other , not understanding what was going on. Even the twin brothers who had just been chased to death were dumbfounded.

Is that all? This boss is so damn easy to talk to!

So they were chased for so long in vain? !

Yuetian and Ritian were so upset that they couldn't even speak. It was Xiaoxiao Yuxia who reacted first . She coughed and said, " Uh ... continue? "

Yuetian came back to his senses, looked at the 80% damage reduction on the boss , and said angrily: " Go on! Hit it! "

The commander had spoken, and everyone looked at each other , sighed in their hearts, and continued to output.

Another ten minutes passed after the fight . The boss 's health was down to 96% . Everyone looked at the long health bar and wanted to vomit blood.

Not to mention others, even Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian were beaten pale and looked like they were about to die.

" I will never enter the game again ..." Mi Yin said with his dying breath: " If I enter the game again, I will be a puppy! "

Xue Piao Renjian also looked gloomy and said, " He will become a mess. "

Xiao Xiaoyuxia, who was standing by, heard this and came up to him nervously, saying, " What do you mean? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and explained, " In addition to routines and skills, the most important things in PvP are feel, intuition, and reaction speed. PvE is a completely repetitive action. After playing for a long time, all three will be affected, and it is normal to become worse. "

After saying that, Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and added, " But this shouldn't have a big impact on you, since you don't have the three elements I mentioned. "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "... Hey! "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was about to protest to Ji Xuanyi when the boss let out another dull groan and entered the judgment stage.

Everyone was already aware of the boss 's tactics, and upon seeing this they immediately stepped back ten meters and observed the boss 's movements from a distance.

The boss opened his mouth again and asked in confusion: " Can you tell me which one is the heart? "

Everyone was stunned when they heard this. Yue Tian was confused and said, " What is it saying? The heart of love, or the star of stars? What's wrong with the dubbing? The front and back nasal sounds are not clear?! "

In fact, the boss 's voice was like muffled thunder. You couldn't hear it clearly even if you distinguished it. Yuetian simply couldn't react and was completely distracted.

Xu Chu thought for a moment and said, " I have knocked off the star of Xingxing. We have no choice. "

Ji Xuanyi sneered and said, " There is no choice of stars. It seems as if you know which one is which. "

This is quite true. No matter what the boss asked, they seemed to be able to only guess at random.

Xiao Xiaoyu was disappointed and said, " How the hell do we fight this? "

Just when everyone was wondering whether they should just randomly hit one down to count the balls, Qi Qin raised his hand hesitantly and said, " If it's a heart, I think I know which one it is ..." "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned and looked at Qi Qin. Qi Qin smiled at him a little embarrassedly and said, " I don't know why, but I remembered it because I wanted to show it to Xuanyi. "

Ji Xuanyi said with a complicated expression: " What kind of cheesy love talk is this ..."

I actually sounded a little fucking happy!

Before Qi Qin could say anything else, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said, " There is no better way now. Let's try it out. The world is yours. "

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi, who nodded and said, " Go ahead. It doesn't matter whether you make the right choice or not. "

Upon hearing this, Qi Qin walked forward with the Sword of Ares.

He raised his head and followed the ball beside the boss . Finally, he found the right opportunity, jumped up, and gently slammed the sword on the ball of earth, breaking up the outer layer of soil and revealing a heart-shaped stone.

the boss impatiently , wondering how the other party would react.

The boss suddenly shook slightly and shouted in an excited voice: " It's love! I recognize it, it's love! Thank you—— "

After saying that, the boss stopped moving again.

Everyone was puzzled, wondering what this reaction was, when they saw Yue Tian yelling, " The boss 's damage reduction has become 70%! "

Qi Qin also said: " I have an extra layer of attack buff . "

Everyone suddenly realized that this was how the boss was fought!

Yue Tian was speechless and said, " This is just a wooden boss with a judgment . It's really given away for free. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " Don't do that, big brother. If you fail to judge, are you really going to go all the way with 80% damage reduction? "

That's true. If the boss 's buff cannot be eliminated, no one can stand and play for eight or nine hours. After all, even if they can go without eating, they can't go to the toilet!

Xu Chu also said, " Another point is that the shapes around the boss don't appear again after they are destroyed. In other words, if you keep making the wrong choices, the boss may stop asking questions or even go berserk after the dirt piles are destroyed. But no matter which situation it is, its damage reduction buff will always exist. Even if the boss doesn't deal any damage from beginning to end, you can only pull away and fight again. "

Yue Tian also understood and frowned, Then this is a " boss that depends entirely on luck , right? "

The official released this kind of boss . Is it asking for criticism, criticism, or criticism?

Ji Xuan glanced at him and denied it, " Of course not. If Tianxia can remember a shape, then others can too. Didn't you look at the stones outside the venue before? There are about twenty or so of them. We have exactly twenty-five people. If one person watches one, the probability of error will be greatly reduced. "

Yuetian thought for a moment and said, " Although it sounds a bit silly, it is indeed a solution. " Ji Xuanyi shrugged and said, " If it's a keyboard online game, there should be plug-ins to look at. Holographic online games are indeed a bit troublesome. This boss may be changed. "

Xu Chu said, " Changes will be made in the future. The most important thing is now. Although it has been proven that we can indeed avoid being called out by fooling the boss , in fact, being called out is equivalent to giving us a second chance to answer the same question. When we can't remember the answer, it is actually a better way to choose to tell the boss the truth and survive the pursuit. " this boss is actually very easy to deal with. If the last time he named someone, it was not a coincidence, then the boss should have named the person according to the name given by the player. In other words, you can change your enemies during the pursuit. If it is arranged properly, you can completely avoid harm.

Xu Chu stroked his chin and said, " But I feel that it doesn't matter if the arrangement is not appropriate. This boss 's naming mechanism is really suitable for personal revenge ... I will bring Liu Tian to play with it later. "

Everyone: "..."

Yuetian remembered Liutian, a very mentally retarded person, but if his memory was correct, this person seemed to be the leader of Xuchu. What hatred or grudge ...

hate relationship between these two people has nothing to do with Yue Tian. Although he also thinks that this boss is suitable for revenge, he still said seriously: " Then arrange two people to take revenge? "

" Two people shouldn't be enough, " Ji Xuan said, It seems that " the boss 's roll call cannot be repeated. After all, Ritian failed when he transferred the revenge to you. We should only pass it on one by one. It would be best if three people relayed it, and the agility professions were given priority. "

The archers and assassins present were all startled.

Upon hearing this, Yue Tian looked towards the people in the agile professions.

Everyone avoided his gaze, even Mi Yin pretended to look down at her equipment.

Yue Tian said helplessly: " Forget it, forget it. Anyway, the mechanism has been figured out. Everyone here is a sharp PVP player. As long as you don't click on my and my brother's names, everyone can come. Try to click on the names of teammates who are farthest away from you and have few people in between. "

Everyone then responded in a heroic and high-spirited manner.

The boss currently has 70% damage reduction left, and Qi Qin, who has the highest combat power, has obtained an offensive enhancement buff . Although no one has a clear idea of which one is which, thinking about the previous 20 minutes wasted, they don't want to do it again, so they just continue fighting.

Since we had figured out the mechanism pretty well, no one died afterwards, and we all tried hard to guess the boss ' problems with our eyes closed.

But the accuracy of blind guessing is indeed limited. After more than 20 earth balls were hit, some people were nearly killed several times, and they only answered two correctly. The boss's damage reduction buff was still 50%, but his health was only 50% left.

At this time, more than two hours had passed since everyone entered the game and started fighting. Xiao Xiaoyu's face was pale, as if he would faint in the next second.

This kind of thing that repeats over and over again is really too mentally polluting. This boss has a really good temper and there is not even a countdown for his rampage. Every time this group of people are on the verge of giving up, they think of their previous efforts. The result of not being able to make up their minds is that the fight takes longer and longer ...

Yuetian saw the situation of the crowd and hesitated to speak.

Ji Xuanyi's staff was almost broken, and he said expressionlessly: " If you say you want to pull out the test mechanism now, I will beat you to death. "

Yue Tian: "..."

Yuetian had no choice but to shut his mouth again.

It took them more than an hour to beat the boss to death despite the 50% damage reduction.

The moment the boss disappeared, half of the people in the group logged off immediately without even touching the boxes, while the others also said they would fight again tomorrow. Seeing Xiaoxiao Yuxia also exhausted and about to log off, Yuetian said helplessly: " Rest again, don't you want the first armor anymore? "

Xiao Xiao Yu rolled her eyes and said, " It doesn't matter who loves the first class. It's good enough if they can pass all of them. "

Yue Tian said speechlessly: " I fucking said that the wind should be beaten first, and I really don't believe it! "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia didn't even have the energy to argue. He was exhausted both physically and mentally after being beaten by a boss . He had no idea what had gotten into him to get involved in PVE . He even wanted to travel back two months to pin himself to the ground and beat him up!

PvE is really terrible ...

Xiaoxiao Yuxia thought so and logged off silently.

Although Ji Xuanyi looked pale, at least he had Qi Qin by his side to support him, so he didn't fall down like that.

The two men walked to the box bravely and felt something.

Qi Qin reached out and took out a bag of gold coins from the box, saying, " Great, it's out! "

Ji Xuanyi snorted. If this boss didn't come out, he would explode on the spot!

The two of them didn't even look to see what else was in the box. They just put the gold coins away and logged off.

They gathered online at 10 a.m. and logged off at 2 p.m. Ji Xuan sent Qi Qin to cook, and he suppressed his nausea and opened the forum to search for strategy posts about earth-type bosses .

Most of them are players who have been tortured by this boss and are crying for help, but there are indeed some who have already figured out the complete mechanism.

Ji Xuanyi read the strategy post carefully and found that this boss was indeed a pure wooden boss . Except for the calling out and leaving the circle stage, it would not attack the players throughout the whole process. Ji Xuanyi and his friends had already understood the former , but the latter would only appear when the boss 's damage reduction dropped to 30%.

Ji Xuanyi guessed that the authorities didn't want players to think that this boss was too easy and was given away for free, so they reluctantly installed a mechanism to make it stand out. Ji Xuanyi has been fighting for so long, and considering the boss 's dialogue settings, one can only conclude that this boss is a big fool, and the out-of-circle mechanism is completely unsuitable for it.

There is another mechanism in the strategy that Ji Xuanyi and his friends have not encountered, which is that the boss will only ask ten different questions in total. If the player frequently uses the method of deceiving the boss to avoid being called out, after ten times, the boss will go into a rampage and roll randomly on the field with no clear trajectory. Players who fail to dodge in time will be crushed to death, and even players wearing T- shirts will not be spared.

This is probably the boss's most lethal skill.

After reading some of the weird posts about ghosts howling and pulling off, Ji Xuan actually felt that their experience of passing the game was not so painful. In addition, after reading the complete mechanism, he found that they had avoided some pitfalls, so he didn't feel so unhappy.

Pretend that you are playing a style that avoids going out of the circle. The most you can do is to suppress it to 40%, and theirs is 50%, which is about the same ...

Ji Xuan had learned to deceive himself all his life, but his mood had indeed improved. He continued to scroll down the posts with great interest, and actually found some background stories that some players had specially speculated and summarized for several bosses .

Ji Xuan went in and took a look, and found that it was a familiar writing style.

It's the same OP who compiled the world mission experiences for the three main cities!

Ji Xuan was expressionless as he tried to close the post. His mouse was already on the red cross when he suddenly remembered something and shouted, " Qi Qin! "

Qi Qin responded from the kitchen: " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi asked: " How long will it take for dinner to be ready? "

Qi Qin said: " Ten minutes. "

After that, Qi Qin asked again with concern: " Are you hungry, Xuanyi? Do you want to eat a few bites of food first? "

 " I'm not hungry, no need, go ahead and do your work! "

After hearing Qi Qin's response, Ji Xuanyi turned back to look at the post.

Forget it, there's nothing else to do anyway, so let's just watch and eat!

bosses that Ji Xuanyi had encountered , including the fire giant who died without a sound, all had a very tragic background story. When Ji Xuanyi saw the words " innocent and fragile little flame " , he almost wanted to blame the fire giant's damage on that person.

But then again, the story posts are not completely without any useful information.

Ji Xuanyi noticed that the poster had actually written down the skills and some information of each boss in the story post. He didn't know whether he had asked everyone who had played the game for information in order to restore the authenticity of the story.

"As the adventurers' final attack fell, the stone, which had an empty mind but a desire for knowledge that it shouldn't have, said happily and contentedly: 'Thank you.'

It finally turned back into that ordinary piece of gravel growing on the mountain, ignorant and unconscious, without any worries anymore.

The meteor shower in the sky stopped as it died, and the adventurers indifferently opened its treasure chest, looted its relics, and left without looking back.

Ji Xuanyi: "... what a psychopath!"

It made him feel a little guilty. What a mess it was. These players were all the bad guys. Bah! When Ji Xuan found out that some people were also cursing along with him, he became a little less angry.

Ji Xuanyi skipped over the mermaid boss behind him and went straight to the boss of the last Wind Town.

Skip all the descriptions of scenery, skip all the whining, skip all the wind, trees, and air, skip, skip, skip!

Ji Xuan read through it quickly until he saw the boss's direct description, then he stopped. According to this person's description, the boss of Windy Town is a bird. Bait and traps need to be set up beforehand to make the boss land. After being injured, the boss will be in a weak state like the mermaid, but the weakness is only a slight defense break. The boss can still attack the player with his mouth. After the weakness ends, the boss will be suspended in the air, and there will be a large-scale aoe and naming. You need to attack the boss's wings remotely. After being shot down, it will enter a weak state again, and repeat this process.

"The bird uttered a mournful cry, raised its long neck, and looked straight at the blue sky with its dark eyes!

That is its place of freedom and its lifelong pursuit!

It desperately flapped its wings that were shattered by the adventurers' attacks, but those wings could no longer support its weight.

The adventurers are approaching, but it is an elf in the sky, how can it be willing to be buried in the earth!

The wind heard its call, came along, embraced its wings, and took it up to the sky!

How could the adventurers let it go! They followed closely behind with ferocious faces, chasing it relentlessly!"

Ji Xuanyi:..."

You have a hideous face, and your whole family has a hideous face!

But I understand what it means. It means that there is a pursuit mechanism in the last wave after the health line is low. They have to catch up with the boss to kill it, otherwise it will most likely escape the battle.

Ji Xuanyi felt exhausted. This story post was actually more detailed than the strategy post, but it was written just like a reading comprehension passage. If he knew who the poster was, he would definitely beat him up!

After Ji Xuan watched with an expressionless face how cruel, heartless and unreasonable the players were, he scrolled directly to the bottom of the post.

the bosses of the five elemental towns in the copy , there seemed to be a hidden boss . He wondered if it was mentioned in this article.

But Ji Xuanyi didn't see it until the end. The poster said that no one has seen the sixth hidden boss yet , including the team that has already cleared all the levels on server 4, so there is no material to describe. If anyone has conquered the sixth boss , please feel free to contact the poster.

What followed was a wave of clichés asking for collection and attention.

Ji Xuanyi hesitated for a moment, but still clicked to follow.

Even though the poster always talks nonsense, he is really well-informed. Putting aside his random whining and only looking at the process, the accuracy of his information is definitely greater than 80%, including the experience of the world mission of the three major gangs last time. The remaining 20% is the tactics that Ji Xuanyi and his team have not passed on.

He is a big shot, Ji Xuan thought. If he had the chance to meet him, he would definitely beat him up.

However, what surprised Ji Xuanyi was the four servers mentioned by the OP. Ji Xuanyi had an impression of this team. Their progress was ranked first in the entire server and region. They had completed all the levels but did not see the sixth hidden boss. In other words, the hidden boss was not counted as a real boss .

Ji Xuanyi was now a little curious about what the boss would drop, but the team from server 4 entered the dungeon to welcome back the boss. If there was a boss that had not been defeated, they would definitely try their best to find it. They still couldn't find it. Ji Xuanyi felt that the possibility of their nondescript pvp team finding it was quite low.

Qi Qin prepared dinner and called him in the living room. When Ji Xuan heard the voice, he closed the forum and went out.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were so exhausted by the boss of Loess Town that they had no interest in playing games. Ji Xuanyi didn't want to go out, so the two of them snuggled at home watching TV. Qi Qin, whose entertainment was always monotonous, laughed so hard that Ji Xuanyi leaned on him and fell asleep.

It was midnight when Ji Xuan woke up. Seeing that he had fallen asleep first, Qi Qin wiped his body with clean water and put him on the bed. He then went to sleep on the sofa outside.

Qi Qin has been in this state since moving in, as if he was afraid that he would not be able to control himself and do something bad, which made Ji Xuanyi speechless.

Ji Xuan suddenly woke up in the middle of the night, not because of unsatisfied sexual desire, but because the cell phone under his pillow kept vibrating wildly, waking him up.

Ji Xuan half opened his eyes and had a very bad premonition.

This premonition became even stronger when he discovered that the phone number was from abroad.

Ji Xuan stared at the screen for a while, half asleep and half awake, then turned it off and continued to sleep.

However, the person on the other end of the phone would certainly not give up communicating with Ji Xuanyi and continued to call him.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi was in a terrible mood when he woke up. He answered the phone with a gloomy face. As soon as the other party said "Hello", Ji Xuanyi asked coldly: "Have your legs grown back?"

The other side suddenly became quiet.

Ji Xuanyi said: "Get lost."

Then he hung up the phone with a snap.

This time the person on the other end didn't dare to call again, but unfortunately, as soon as Ji Xuan hung up the phone, he found that he couldn't sleep.

"... Fuck!" Ji Xuanyi cursed through gritted teeth and subconsciously wanted to throw the phone. When he started to swing it, he realized that the situation was different now and threw the phone onto the bed with a grim face.

Ji Xuanyi sat on the edge of the bed, trying to suppress his anger. However, if he could do this alone, he would not have become a cancer with enemies everywhere.

Ji Xuanyi sat in the dark for a while. The more he thought about it, the angrier he got. He was so angry that he almost exploded. Finally, he stood up and went to find trouble with Qi Qin.

Poor Qi Qin did nothing and just curled up on the sofa and slept silently. Ji Xuan suddenly pounced on him and woke Qi Qin up.

Ji Xuanyi was quite heavy, and Qi Qin grunted under his pressure. He reached out his hand to touch him in a daze, and asked, "Xuanyi? What's wrong?"

He probably thought Ji Xuanyi was having a nightmare or something, so he stroked his back with his hand while muttering, "Don't be afraid, don't be afraid..."

After saying that, he felt something was wrong. Ji Xuanyi seemed to have never been afraid of anything. He silently changed his words and said, "Don't be angry, don't be angry..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin was somewhat sober at this time, fumbling to straighten up half of his body, and said: "Would you like some water?"

Ji Xuanyi arched his back, wrapped his arms around his strong waist, buried his face in Qi Qin's collarbone, and said in a muffled voice: "No!"

Qi Qin didn't know what was wrong with him, so he could only pat him on the back gently.

Ji Xuanyi said unreasonably: "It's all your fault. If you had slept with me, I would have let you answer the phone just now!"

Qi Qin finally realized that Ji Xuanyi was woken up by the phone call. He was helpless and patted his back and asked, "Who's calling?"

Ji Xuan opened his mouth, swallowed his words, thought for a moment, and said, "I sell health products."

Qi Qin had no doubts, but he really had no way to deal with this kind of harassing phone calls, so he could only say: "Turn off your phone? Or leave it with me?"

Ji Xuanyi said: "No, I will sleep here with you today."

Qi Qin was stunned, but this time he came to his senses and said shyly, " How can I do this? This is not good ..."

Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " It's not like you haven't slept with me before, why are you pretending now? "

Qi Qin blushed and could only say: " No, this is not good ..."

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly and said, " It would be fine if it happened normally, but I'm in a bad mood today, you know? "

Qi Qin: "..."

Qi Qin finally succumbed to Ji Xuanyi's tyranny, but he refused to go to the bed, saying that the sofa was safer.

Ji Xuan thought to himself that it was quite safe. Qi Qin couldn't even stretch his legs on the sofa, so it was really difficult for him to do anything.

However, the sofa was indeed a bit narrow for two people, so Qi Qin could only lie on his side, with most of Ji Xuan's body pressed on him, and the two of them slept side by side.

But how could there be no movement when two grown men were pressed against each other? As a result, neither of them slept well that night. When they woke up in the morning, they both had dark circles under their eyes and one of them had fallen asleep on the pillow. When Ji Xuan got up, he felt that all the bones in his body were creaking.

Qi Qin's neck was still crooked, so he asked Ji Xuanyi to pinch it first. Then he straightened his neck with a hissing breath and went to make breakfast for Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi sat on the sofa in a daze, and it took him a long time to remember what happened yesterday.

At this moment, Qi Qin went to the kitchen, and Ji Xuanyi had another attack.

As the saying goes, the more you hold back, the angrier you get. How could Ji Xuanyi hold back? He took out his cell phone and called back last night's number expressionlessly. The person on the other end almost couldn't wait to pick up the phone, but this time he didn't even say " hello ". Ji Xuanyi sneered and said, " You're already dead. Don't let me see you in China. "

The person opposite: "..."

What happened?! What happened?! What on earth did he do?! Didn't he just say " hello " ?!

How did he die?! His death was so unjust! qaq !

After Ji Xuanyi finished speaking, he hung up the phone and went to the bathroom without caring how nervous the person on the other end was.

After dinner last night, Ji Xuanyi sent the post in the forum to Xiao Xiaoyuxia, who then sent it to the twin brothers through Xiao Xiaoyuxia, who were amazed by it.

Ji Xuanyi is really awesome as he can find clues in such a weird post.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin got up early, and there was still a long time before they had to go online to gather. Ji Xuanyi ran to the kitchen to tease Qi Qin, and finally made Qi Qin so ashamed that she covered her face and ran to the toilet. Ji Xuanyi went outside to eat noodles alone, holding the bowl in his hand.

The gathering time has been getting longer and longer these past two days. When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin came online, there were still four or five people who had not arrived.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was looking at the sky with empty eyes, as if he had transcended something. The twins said with a complicated expression , " We really didn't expect the consequences of PVP would be like this. If we had known, we would have firmly rejected you. "

Xiao Xiaoyu smiled sadly and said, " You firmly reject us? How is that possible? You don't know how rich Xu Chu is. "

Twins: "..."

Why does this sound so strange? Do you want them to reject you or not?
But then again, if Xu Chu really raised the price, even if they knew that PVP was a disaster, the twin brothers would definitely still come ...

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked over together and said, " What happened? Why haven't all the people arrived yet? "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia looked up at him and was about to speak when she suddenly frowned and said, " What's wrong with your neck? "

Jian Xi Xinjiu, whose mind was full of strange things, immediately stretched his neck to see Ji Xuanyi's condition. After discovering that the other party's neck was covered with white and there was nothing on it, he regretfully remembered that this was a game and nothing strange would happen.

But then again, Jian Xi Xin Jiu asked curiously, " Why are your necks crooked? "

Qi Qin explained: " Last night ..."

Ji Xuanyi looked at Qi Qin speechlessly. Qi Qin looked back at him and then realized that the people present were all old drivers with strange things in their minds, who would make up something out of nothing.

Never mind what they did, just these four words from last night were enough to make them imagine a big drama.

As expected, Qi Qin had only said half of his words when everyone showed expressions of sudden enlightenment and looked at Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi with very meaningful smiles.

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly, then suddenly sneered. Before he could say anything, everyone immediately lowered their heads, not daring to provoke this old man again.

When Ji Xuan saw that everyone had turned their gazes away, he stopped talking, tried to straighten his neck, and walked to Xiao Xiao Yu Xia with a slightly crooked step, and said, " What's going on? Why haven't all the people arrived yet? "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia sighed and said, " In a dungeon, they almost beat someone up . They said they were mentally hurt and needed to take a break. "

Ji Xuanyi was quite sympathetic. After all, he himself felt a little reluctant to go online, not to mention that he had played PVE before . For those PVPs , the two-day dungeon journey was simply spiritual pollution. After finishing the journey, they would become disillusioned with the world and want to become monks.

Ji Xuanyi said: " What should we do? Find someone else? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " It's so easy to find people, but the problem is that we can't really give them a beating . I'll make a list of their names and go offline to give them psychological counseling one by one ... Anyway, we'll save those who can be saved. "

Ji Xuanyi looked around and said, " Xu Chu is not here again? "

When Xiaoxiao Yuxia mentioned this person, she was completely calm and said, " As for Gechu, everyone is used to him. Let Liutian go and call him later. "

" Who are you calling? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was just talking when Xuchu came over from the other direction with a smile on his face and said, " I logged off early yesterday and had a good rest – Hey, Ji Xuanyi, what's wrong with your neck? Did you have a fight with someone yesterday? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Chapter 150

Xu Chu was a decent man when he was alive ... Hasn't this been said once before?

Ji Xuan raised his chin towards Qi Qin expressionlessly, very socially , and was about to attack Xu Chu. Xu Chu realized that he had been mean, and immediately burst into a strong desire to survive , laughing dryly and saying, " Wait wait wait wait ... We are all civilized people, no no no , I'm not saying that it's uncivilized for you to beat me up. "

Ji Xuanyi walked over with a gloomy face, and Xu Chu said helplessly: " Don't be like this, it's not easy for me to come back on time, don't you want to think about why? I have something to tell you. "

Ji Xuan thought it was Xu Chu's way of survival and didn't care at all . He just crossed his arms and sneered: " What's the matter? "

Xu Chu looked like he had encountered something that made him very happy. After Ji Xuanyi asked, he couldn't hide the smile on his face at all.

He looked at Xiaoxiao Yuxia, Jianxi Xinjiu and others who were peeking over here, then leaned close to Ji Xuanyi's ear and said something.

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then looked at Xu Chu with an indescribable look. After a long while , he said with a complicated expression : " Fuck , I knew that people like you would only be so active when there is something to do. "

Xu Chu smiled and said, " Don't worry, I'm on your side. "

Ji Xuanyi snorted coldly and said, " I don't know that you cheated Liu Tian when the three major gangs were not united. "

Xu Chu said: " How can they be the same? "

Ji Xuanyi also knew that it was different. Since Xu Chu told him the news, it showed his position. What's more, Xu Chu was a man who knew the current affairs. He could see that Ji Xuanyi was the more reliable one.

The matter that Xuchu mentioned still requires a long time for the other party to prepare, so there is no need to pay attention to it now. Ji Xuan waved his hand and said, " Let's put it aside for now and finish the dungeon first. "

Xu Chu heard this and said angrily: " Everyone hasn't arrived yet. I never wait for others. I'll go downstairs and sleep for a while. "

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly.

Xu Chu: "... Haha, just a joke. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia looked at the situation of Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu, and knew that she couldn't get a word in, so she went offline to talk to someone, and she didn't know when she would be back. Ji Xuanyi looked at the twins who were lamenting the impermanence of life and said, " Did you read the post I posted yesterday? "

Yuetian raised his head and said, " I see, we don't have many mages and archers. It might be difficult to fight them in the next stage. "

Yue Tian said it was difficult to fight, not that it would be difficult, and his expression was very calm. Ji Xuanyi had an idea in his mind, but what he wanted to ask was not this matter, but something else.

Ji Xuanyi looked at him and said, " Where do you think the hidden boss is? "

Yuetian was stunned for a moment, then shook his head. Of course, he had seen what Ji Xuanyi had seen: " The team that cleared the game must have searched the entire map. They didn't find it, so I don't know where it is either. "

Ji Xuanyi originally wanted to ask Ritian if he had any tricks after playing so many games, but the other party said he didn't know. It seems that the hidden boss is really hard to find.

Ji Xuanyi was a little disappointed. He responded and said nothing more.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia is very good at winning people's hearts. After a while, he brought a few people who didn't come online together.

However, even though Xiao Xiaoyu was eloquent, Ji Xuanyi could clearly see the pale faces of those people online.

PvP is really annoying.

But it was the last boss , and Xiaoxiao Yuxia mustered up some strength, and finally made those people cheer up a little.

There were even fewer people in the square today than yesterday. They entered the base without much effort and headed straight towards the Windy Town.

There was indeed wind in the Windy Town, and it was not small. This also resulted in the black fog in this town not being as serious as in other novice towns. When Ji Xuanyi and his companions walked along the way, they could see many people with haggard and sick faces standing on the roadside.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was holding a small notebook in her hand, reading it and saying, " According to the plot in that post, we should now go find the hunter in the town and ask him for the location of the trap. "

Ji Xuanyi had already walked out and talked to , and under 's guidance, they soon found the hunter who lived on the edge of the town.

The hunter was exactly the same as described in the post. He immediately told everyone that he had already set up the trap and needed help to kill the monster, but before that, he needed their help to find bait.

The bait is actually twenty rabbits. There is a small grassland to the east of the Wind Town, where many rabbits live. However, these rabbits have been demonized by the black fog and have sharp teeth that bite people and it hurts.

Everyone went to the pasture to catch rabbits. Yuetian absentmindedly drove the rabbits huddled together and said, " I feel like after reading the guide, I don't have the heart to explore new lands. It's so boring to follow the routine. " pvp players shook their heads one after another. They thought the strategy was great, and that as long as they didn't get hung up on it, everything would be fine.

Yuetian shook his head helplessly.

With the strategy in hand, basically all the actions can be done step by step, and there is no need to look for hidden or plot details. Everyone opened the boss 's plot very smoothly, and the next step is to defeat the boss normally .

But basically everyone is clear about the mechanism and judgment. It's a rare opportunity for everyone to play an ordinary PVE . They just need to obey the command of Yuetian and Ritian and pass the level without using their brains.

the wind-attribute boss that made everyone flustered was probably the final chase.

This pursuit was really relentless. The boss flew faster than a horse, not to mention that riding a horse was not allowed in the dungeon. Ze Yu Sishui and other agility-type characters tried their best but still couldn't catch up. Finally, Qi Qin was quick-witted and picked up Ze Yu Sishui and threw him towards the boss . Ze Yu Sishui then connected two teleports in mid-air, plus a back-moving teleport that came with his weapon, and finally caught up with the boss .

Ze Yu Sishui suddenly experienced a chase like in a Hollywood action blockbuster. He was almost scared to death when he fell from the sky with the boss . Qingfeng Bufu was so distressed that he went up and scratched his hair twice before he came to his senses.

It took the short-legged guys a long time to get there and they were exhausted.

Yue Tiandao: " This boss is too well designed. How can a boss's speed be set so fast when chasing? If it weren't for Tianxia, how could we pass this level? "

Ji Xuanyi pondered for a moment and said, " I don't know if the real fighting method is swordsman plus assassin or swordsman plus archer ..."

All the people with sensitive professions present felt a chill on their backs and looked at Ji Xuanyi warily.

Ze Yu Sishui climbed down from the boss . After everyone arrived, the boss started the last plot. After the plot ended, the boss disappeared. A treasure chest appeared on the ground. At the same time, the first armor for passing the level also jumped out, followed by a world announcement that was repeated three times.

[System Announcement] : Congratulations to the team led by player Xiaoxiao Yuxia for being the first to clear the 25-person dungeon [Save the Elemental Town] ! The first armor reward for clearing the dungeon has been sent to your mailbox, please check it.

After the announcement, the world channel went wild. A long line of people were posting 666 , and a group of players from Star City were proud of it. They were frantically posting some childish slogans on the world channel, saying things like Star City is number one, Star City is awesome. After that, they also stepped on Sun City. How could the Sun City players just let it go? They posted again, and the two groups of people started arguing in the world.

However, compared with the quarreling crowd, the brain activities of this group of people in the copy were very clear and concise.

Just three words.

Freed!

They are finally free!

What PVE , what dungeon! Goodbye! I won't see you again in this life!

Everyone was so excited that they were dancing wildly. They quit the team and left the dungeon one after another. They didn't even have the desire to celebrate. They just wanted to go out and fight and cause trouble immediately, and never touch the dungeon again!

Ji Xuanyi originally wanted to find the hidden boss , but in the blink of an eye, half of the people were gone, and he was speechless.

Yuetian saw his helplessness and said, " Do you want to find the hidden boss ? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Yes. "

Yuetian looked at it and said, " We don't have enough people, so we can't fight, but we can still find the coordinates. The blood-reducing fog in the dungeon has disappeared. Do you want to go together? "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Okay. "

Just as he finished speaking, Ji Xuan turned around and saw a familiar guy. After thinking for a while, he remembered that this was the mage who rowed the boat before. He hesitated for a moment and said, " That mage, don't leave yet. "

The mage was just about to go out to do a quest. The quest had been stuck before he entered the dungeon, and he had never had a chance to finish it, which made him very anxious. Now he had finally finished the dungeon, and he thought to himself that even if the gang leader Xiao Xiaoyu asked him to do something, he would not do it and he would definitely refuse. However, as soon as he looked up, he was stopped by Ji Xuanyi.

The mage looked back at Ji Xuanyi and was about to refuse, but suddenly remembered the other party's look when he was angry. His heart trembled, and finally he stayed with grievance. Yue Tiandao: " This mage looks familiar. What do you want him to do? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " This is the mage who can row a boat. "

“ I don't think it's accurate to say that the team that cleared the instance searched all over it, ” Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, “ Who knows if they went to look in the water? ”

Yue Tian was stunned for a moment, then fell into deep thought: " That's possible, they may not really think of looking for it in the lake surrounding Quanshui Town. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " There must be many places on land that they have already searched. Let's go directly to Quanshui Town. "

Yuetian responded, pulled Ritian over, and prepared to leave with Ji Xuanyi and the others. However, there was more than one person who was up to no good in the group. When Xu Chu saw Ji Xuanyi and the twins were about to team up to cause trouble, he immediately came over and said, " What are you doing? What are you planning to do? Take me with you! "

Xu Chu's excitement made Ji Xuanyi suspect that even if they said they were going to eat shit, this person would happily say, " Let me have a bite too! "

Ji Xuanyi was so disgusted that he was about to kick the man away. Xiao Xiaoyuxia, who had just finished collecting the equipment dropped by the boss , also came over and said, " Where are you going? "

Ji Xuan had a blank expression on his face. Just as he was about to ask, "Do you want to eat shit too?", two more heads came over.

Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian also came over.

The two of them were originally going to act with Xu Chu, but the latter suddenly ran away, so they had to follow him. Besides, these two people also had a friendship with Ji Xuanyi.

Mi Yin glanced at Ji Xuanyi and said, " Do you need help? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

There are nine people now. Ji Xuanyi just frowned. The trio of Jian Xi Xinjiu and Ze Yu Sishui, who had all quit the team, also came over because a lot of people gathered here, and rejoined the team, asking what they were doing.

Ji Xuanyi had no way to evade them, so he could only say: " We plan to find the hidden boss . " As soon as this sentence came out, half of the people had a hesitant look on their faces. It was Xu Chu who spoke first: " Although there are already quite a few people, it's only half a regiment. We can't fight. "

It was Xuchu who attracted so many people. Ji Xuanyi looked at him coldly and said, " We didn't plan to fight. We just went to find the coordinates. "

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief, Jian Xi Xin Jiu said: " It's just to find the coordinates. It scared us. We can help. "

They were going to go to the lake, and they might need to rent a big boat or a small boat. It would be difficult for five people to carry so many things. Ji Xuanyi was about to refuse, but Ritian, the naive man, said, " Okay, okay. There is strength in numbers. We will definitely find it together. "

So everyone joined in with confidence, and Ji Xuan kept wanting to hold his forehead.

Qi Qin saw that Ji Xuan had a headache, so he reached out and rubbed it gently. Ji Xuan looked at him and could only sigh and accept it.

The world is not worth it, but Qi Qin is worth it!

Only half of the team of 25 people was left, and the visual effect still looked quite grand.

Everyone went directly to the Spring Water Town through the fork in the road that branched off from the Wind Town, and saw the old man at the dock from a distance .

Ji Xuanyi walked up to him and said, " Old man, can you lend us a boat? "

As the dungeon was cleared, the black fog disappeared and he looked much better. He became friendly towards Ji Xuan and said, " If you want to go to the other side, I can take you there directly without borrowing a boat. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " We are not going to the other side, we just want to take a look at the lake. "

Hearing this, he smiled with an indescribable smile and said, " Want to go take a look at the lake? "

Ji Xuanyi's heart moved, as if he realized something, and said, " Is it okay? "

He nodded and said, " Usually I would charge money to rent a boat to someone, but since you have helped Quanshui Town, I will lend you one for free. "

After saying that, he pointed towards his feet.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

It's that leaky boat again! It's hard to fit three people in it!

This is too stingy! This kind of boat, with more than a dozen people, is it really necessary to let the wizard row it one by one? !

Ji Xuanyi frowned and was about to speak, but smiled at him and said, " This boat is mine. If you find the shore, I will know. Just let your companions know and I will send them to you. "

Ji Xuanyi immediately realized that this meant that they would find a small island in the lake and open a traffic point after arriving.

Since he said this, it proves that Ji Xuanyi's speculation is indeed correct. There is indeed something in the lake outside Quanshui Town, most likely the hidden boss !

Ji Xuanyi shared with everyone what he had found out from the conversation. Xu Chu and Ze Yu Sishui immediately raised their hands high, indicating that they wanted to go.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia also coughed pretentiously and said, " Actually, I can help take a look. "

Before Ji Xuanyi could say anything, the mage said quickly: " No, no, you are too heavy, the boat can't hold you! "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Ze Yu Sishui and Xu Chu just laughed, Ji Xuan said: " What are you laughing at? You two are not allowed to go either. Tianxia, you come with me. "

Upon hearing this, Qi Qin immediately straightened his chest and raised his head and stood up straight.

Ze Yu Sishui was stunned, with a tearful expression on his face, and cried loudly: " This is a shady deal! A shady deal! Ji Xuanyi only favors his relatives, you tyrant king! "

Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to pay attention to him, so he kicked him away and walked away with Qi Qin.

Ze Yu Sishui cried softly, and Ming Shao and Qingfeng Bufu covered her mouth and dragged her to the back.

Xu Chu certainly wouldn't throw a tantrum like Ze Yu Sishui. He just shook his head helplessly and said to Ji Xuanyi seriously, " I'm really disappointed with your choice. "

Ji Xuanyi sneered and said, " Are you sure? "

Xu Chu suddenly remembered Ji Xuanyi's explosive state after leaving Qi Qin, and immediately coughed dryly and said: " It's good for you to take Tian down, um, it's quite suitable ... Please! " Xu Chu even said the word " please " , so Ji Xuanyi didn't bother with him and took Qi Qin onto the boat skillfully. The mage immediately followed and picked up the oar at the stern.

Ji Xuan thought about it and was about to remind everyone that they could log off and take a break if they felt the waiting time was too long. But when he turned around, he found that this group of people had already taken out two decks of cards and were ready to play Landlord. Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian picked an open place and prepared to start competing.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

He really worried unnecessarily.

The wizard picked up the oar and rowed the boat out. After drifting only two or three meters, he exclaimed " , Eh! "

Ji Xuanyi asked: " What's wrong? "

The wizard said: " The previous speed bonus of rowing is gone, it has become slower. "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment before saying, " After all, the previous one was a prerequisite for finding the boss , and the difficulty was not too great. The hidden boss was not counted as a boss for clearing the level , so it was completely a spontaneous action of the player, so it is normal that there was no bonus. "

The wizard showed some helplessness on his face. It was normal, but it meant that more time and energy would be consumed.

Ji Xuan took a look at the team list and said, " Your name is Yuye? "

The mage was stunned and felt flattered. He knew Ji Xuanyi. This man was not a member of the three major gangs, but like the nominal elders in fantasy novels, he mingled with the leaders of the three major gangs and even played a leading role in many activities. He led them to repel several attacks from the Sun City.

It would be a lie to say that he had no feelings of longing, especially since this master had a good relationship with the master he wanted to be his disciple. The mage rubbed his hands with a blush and said, " Well, yes, because when I started playing this game it was an afternoon evening. "

This kind of words is actually quite romantic, but unfortunately Ji Xuanyi has heard similar sentences before. Now when he heard Yuye's explanation, his mind was filled with the sentence " because I had a calf cramp when I was naming it "...

Ji Xuan's face turned green, and he wished he could drag Calf Spasm out and give him a good beating, but unfortunately, Calf Spasm and Art Introduction and Sleepy Cat were both not at the same level, so they were unable to enter the game.

Ji Xuan calmed down and said, " Yuye, isn't your home by the lake? Is there any way to find land? "

Yuye laughed when he heard this and said, " If we could find land just by looking around, we wouldn't have had an accident at sea and drifted for several months. "

Ji Xuanyi thought about it and sighed helplessly.

They had rowed very far out and could no longer see the people on the shore, but as far as they could see, there was only a vast expanse of water. Apart from the opposite bank, there was nothing that resembled land.

Yuye said: " If the hidden boss is really on the island in the lake, then the area of the island should not be very large. "

Ji Xuanyi also thought of this. After all, the area of Quanshui Town itself is not very large, and the houses are not particularly tall, but the shape of the island can be seen from afar on the opposite bank. If the island where the hidden boss is located is not particularly small, they should be able to see it vaguely at a glance.

The vision in the game is corrected, and even sesame-sized black dots can be seen clearly from a distance .

Yuye said helplessly: " I can only close my eyes and guess blindly. "

Qi Qin was struggling to scoop the water out of the boat. Hearing Yu Ye and Ji Xuan Yi's conversation, he suddenly said, " That may not be the case. "

Ji Xuanyi looked at him and said, " What do you mean by not sure? "

Qi Qin said seriously: " I think there may be a larger island that we haven't seen yet, if that island is just behind the Spring Town. "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment, then reacted immediately.

Qi Qin was right. There was another possibility that they did not see the island. That was when the island was behind the Quanshui Town. As long as it was smaller than the Quanshui Town, it would be completely blocked.

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help laughing and praised: " You are very smart. You can think of this. "

Qi Qin felt a little embarrassed, and looked at Ji Xuanyi with sparkling eyes.

Ji Xuanyi's heart moved, and he raised his finger and said, " Look what that is? "

Yuye subconsciously looked in the direction Ji Xuanyi pointed, and Qi Qin was about to turn his head. Ji Xuanyi leaned over, held his face in his hands, and quickly kissed his nose while the other party was stunned, then retreated without changing his expression.

Yuye turned around at this time and asked in confusion: " What is that? Why can't I see it? "

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin, whose face was red, and said calmly to Yu Ye: " Oh, it's nothing, I misread it, sorry. "

Fortunately, Qi Qin had his back to Yu Ye, so the latter could not see his expression clearly. He just responded foolishly and then asked, " So where are we going now? "

Although he was the rower, he didn't dare to take the responsibility of choosing the direction as there were a dozen people waiting for them at the dock.

Ji Xuan said, " Then let's go to the back of the Spring Town. There's no need to row all the way to the middle. If the land area is really large, we should be able to see it if we turn around. "

Upon hearing this, Yuye agreed and started rowing by paddling hard.

The difference between having a destination and having no destination is still very obvious. Yu Ye's speed was about five points faster. It didn't take long before they reached the side of the spring town.

Yuye squinted his eyes for a while and said, " It seems not? "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and didn't see it either.

Only Qi Qin pointed in a direction and asked, " Is that it? "

Ji Xuanyi followed the direction he pointed, squinted his eyes again and again, and wished he could get off the line and put on his glasses. Only then did he see the direction Qi Qin pointed to – it was too small, it was almost just a line. If Qi Qin hadn't reminded him, Ji Xuanyi would probably have thought it was a floating piece of wood.

But in terms of distance, if it were a piece of wood, it would be too long.

Ji Xuanyi slammed the table and made a final decision: " Go and take a look! "

Although it seemed a bit far on a rainy night , we had already circled half of the spring water town, so we didn't care about the distance and rowed the boat tirelessly towards that small piece of land.

Twenty minutes later did Ji Xuanyi and his companions finally step onto the shore. After ten minutes of walking, the situation on the land gradually became clear to Ji Xuanyi.

No wonder this piece of land is so inconspicuous. There is not even a tree on it. It is full of low vegetation. It looks bare. How can it be conspicuous!

But precisely because it was unobstructed, when Ji Xuan got closer, he could see the black figure standing in the middle of the island at a glance.

Hidden boss ! He is in the water!

Because Ji Xuanyi was too excited, he almost capsized the boat when he stood up from the boat. Yu Ye and Qi Qin took a lot of effort to stabilize it . After everyone got off the boat, Ji Xuanyi immediately walked towards the boss impatiently .

Yuye was so scared that he kept saying, " Be careful, be careful, be careful! If you get killed and go back to the resurrection point, you'll have to paddle back again! "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Didn't you notice that the boss is Huang Ming? "

Yuye was stunned for a moment, then he realized that the name on the boss's health bar was indeed yellow.

This means that as long as you don't talk to the boss or take the initiative to attack him, the boss will not attack the player.

this boss consists of only one word, " Xu " . Ji Xuanyi doesn't quite understand what it means, but he has a vague feeling that if players from other servers want to turn the world line back to a happy one , they must defeat this boss .

Ji Xuanyi walked around the boss and found that the other party was just a human-shaped black fog and there was nothing special about it. Then he sent a message to the people who were still waiting at the dock, telling them that they could talk and that the hidden boss had been found.

A group of people waited for nearly an hour in the drizzling rain. They were almost tired of playing Landlord. After receiving the news, they immediately rushed over without stopping.

To be honest, they really didn't expect that Ji Xuanyi could really find the hidden boss . After being sent to the island, they immediately surrounded him, just like watching monkeys in a zoo, and surrounded the boss tightly.

The first thing Yue Tian looked at was the boss 's name and health bar. He was stunned for a long time before saying, " The boss doesn't seem to have much health. It's only half of other bosses . "

Xu Chu was also quite curious and asked, " Could it be that the mechanism and skills are very tricky? "

Ritian shook his head and said, " No matter how tricky the mechanism and skills are, they can't reduce the health to this level. Maybe this hidden boss is just very easy to beat. "

Ji Xuanyi always felt something was wrong until he packed up the boat and walked over to remind him: " If you want to destroy this monster, you have to act quickly, because he won't be here soon. "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment, then suddenly realized: " This boss is very weak, but it's just hard to find. If you don't defeat it quickly, it will be refreshed somewhere else. "

Everyone was stunned when they heard this. Needless to say, everyone knew what Ji Xuanyi was thinking. At the beginning, there were only five of them looking for the hidden boss . It was obvious that he wanted to mark the coordinates first and then organize people to fight it later. But now they found that the location of the hidden boss was randomly refreshed and would move every once in a while. It was purely luck that they found it this time. It was too late to form a group to fight it now.

Just when everyone didn't know what to do, Ji Xuanyi made the decision: " Let's just use these dozen people. "

Yue Tian seemed to want to say something, but Ji Xuan said, " We only have half of our people, but his health is also only half. We still have tanks, healers , and DPS . What are we afraid of? " After Ji Xuanyi said this, everyone was speechless. Besides, there was nothing to be afraid of with this group of PVPs . Just fight. If you can't pass, you die. You won't lose a level if you die.

Why panic?

Yuetian and Ritian seemed to have more to say, Xuchu smiled slightly, and the two of them had no choice but to go ahead.

Yuetian got ready, not knowing how to deal with this yellow-named boss , so he just hacked at him. The boss didn't react and didn't lose any blood. He looked at Ji Xuanyi hesitantly .

Ji Xuan blinked, walked forward, and said to the boss : " Hello? Hello? Xu? "

Generally speaking, when the player initiates a conversation, as long as they say words with specific instructions, they will be responded to.

In order to take care of the players' real experience, most ways to start a conversation are very simple and colloquial. You just need to call out his name, or let him realize that you are calling him. Hello, good morning, hello, these short sentences are all fine.

Only some special ones will pay attention to you only after you tell them something related to them.

Obviously, the boss in front of him is special.

But what's annoying is that Ji Xuanyi doesn't have the time to think about what's going on with the other party.

Seeing that Ji Xuanyi's expression was not right, Qi Qin quickly led him away. Xu Chu and others took this opportunity to put down their weapons, surrounded him, and started to talk to each other to find a way to make the boss move.

But if this boss could react so easily, he wouldn't have to hide. Everyone was talking until their mouths were dry, but they didn't hear any instructions from the boss .

No one knows when this boss will refresh to another place, but every extra second they spend, the time to refresh the boss will be reduced by one second.

to find this boss , and everyone was a little crazy. Xu Chu saw that there was no progress for a while, so he took out the fruit wine he sold from his bag and distributed it to everyone to moisten their throats.

Jian Xixinjiu took the glass, thanked him, and then put one hand on the boss's shoulder, holding the wine in the other hand, and said to the boss jokingly : " Brother, wake up, do you want to drink? "

After Jian Xi finished talking about the new wine, he poured the wine into his mouth with a silly smile.

At this moment, Jian Xi Xinjiu suddenly felt his subordinate's body move. Before he could react, the boss had already pushed him away and launched a fierce attack on him!

, besides Jian Xi Xin Jiu, there was also a group of crispy ranged players surrounding the boss ! Everyone scattered instantly under the voiceover of Qing Feng Bu Fu, leaving Jian Xi Xin Jiu alone to be beaten by the boss !

Jian Xixinjiu had half a cup of fruit wine pushed into his nose by the boss . There was no paper at the moment and he was still being beaten by the boss . He covered his face, and neither blowing his nose nor sucking it in knew it was a problem. He was choked and suffocated, and he couldn't even shout. He felt terrible!

Seeing that Jian Xixinjiu was unable to move, Qi Qin immediately kicked him away and faced the boss himself .

Fortunately, Jian Xi Xin Jiu only put his hands on the boss and did not molest him ... Pah! He did not attack the boss , so Qi Qin easily pulled back the hatred and then cooperated to transfer it to Yue Tian.

Everyone got ready and the battle officially got on track!

But no one noticed that poor Jian Xi Xin Jiu was kicked over by Qi Qin, and rolled into the lake, and then was dragged down by the armor, spitting bubbles – and sank to the bottom ...

The author has something to say: Washing the sword with new wine: Plurk – Plurk – Plurk – Hiccup ...

Chapter 151

hidden boss 's combat power is actually not very high, and there is no special naming mechanism . Everyone basically stands still and outputs . With Qi Qin's violent DPS bonus , he was finally killed successfully before the boss moved .

But to everyone's disappointment , this hidden boss didn't even have a treasure chest. After disappearing , a piece of paper fell lightly.

Ji Xuanyi walked forward and picked it up, and found that the paper was yellowish in color and very old. The pattern on it was incomplete and looked like just a piece of debris.

" What is this? " Xiaoxiao Yuxia came over and asked.

Ji Xuanyi shook his head first , then hesitantly said: " It seems to be a map fragment? "

Ze Yu Sishui suddenly jumped over and said excitedly: " Is it treasure? Put together the map and you can dig for treasure! "

Ji Xuanyi said: " I don't know. "

" This is too much trouble, " Xiao Xiao Yuxia couldn't accept this kind of garbage drop , not to mention that they had spent nearly two hours: t'Isn " this boss setting too useless? "

Yue Tiandao: " This boss may be specially prepared for those servers who want to turn the world line back to HE . This drop may just be an easter egg? Or an additional reward? "

No one is very clear about what is going on. In fact , Ritian's guess is not too far from the truth. This hidden boss is indeed specially prepared for players of the be world line , so the difficulty is very low. The only difficulty is that it is a bit troublesome to find.

But this boss is not completely useless to players in other HE world lines. When this boss is defeated, he will definitely drop weapons.

You know, with seven professions , seven equipment slots, plus miscellaneous jewelry and the like, it's not an easy task to get the most important weapons from the drops.

hidden boss will definitely drop a weapon. For players who don't have a suitable weapon, the probability of getting a professional weapon changes from one in fifty to one in seven. If this boss can be found, it is still worth fighting.

However, the situation of Ji Xuanyi and the others is obviously different now. The boss did not drop a weapon, but an unknown fragment. The reason for the appearance of this fragment was of course a mysterious drop during the event, and it replaced the weapon that was supposed to appear.

To a certain extent, getting this fragment cannot be said to be good luck or bad luck. After all, it is just a fragment. If it cannot be pieced together, as a useless fragment, it is certainly not as good as a weapon. But if it can be pieced together, what is the reward and whether it is worth a weapon is hard to say.

Everyone looked at the fragment eagerly. Ji Xuan looked around and said, s'Let " roll . "

Everyone agreed, but Mi Yin waved her hand and said, " Xue Piao and I don't want it. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " That's fine too. If you don't want it, don't roll it . If you want it, roll it . The one with the higher score takes it. "

Everyone didn't understand the power of Europe, and they all nodded. In the end, Xiao Xiao Yuxia was lucky enough to roll 99 points , and Qi Qin rolled 100 points.

Xiaoxiao Rain: "... See you later! "

After everyone had distributed the spoils and packed up to leave, Ji Xuanyi was about to start a conversation when Xiao Xiaoyu suddenly said, " That's not right. Why is there one person missing? "

Everyone was stunned, then looked at each other and counted.

There is indeed one person missing, but who is missing?

After a long while, Xu Chu suddenly realized: " The sword wash and new wine are gone! "

If Jian Xi Xin Jiu could hear what they were saying, he would definitely cry out: " You just found out???" "

Ji Xuan glanced at Jian Xi Xin Jiu in the team list and asked in private: " Where are you? "

The sword-washed new wine at the resurrection point: "..."

It was so sad that he disappeared at the beginning and was not found until half an hour later!

But Jian Xi Xin Jiu didn't want to say that he sank into the lake and drank a bellyful of water and drowned. It was too damn embarrassing. Who would drown in a game?

I was just refreshed back to the resurrection point after the battle ended. I thought about an excuse for a long time, but I couldn't come up with a cool one – after all, being beaten to death was not cool enough.

At that moment, he had no choice but to escape directly, saying: " I'm going to log off and have a meal first, you guys keep working hard, bye! "

After saying that, the name of Jianxi New Wine darkened, and everyone looked confused.

Xu Chu thought about it, understood, and said with a smile: " He should have returned to the living place. "

Everyone suddenly realized that Jian Xi Xin Jiu died quietly ...
But what makes people happy is that the last boss was finally defeated, and this nightmare-like PVE journey is finally over!

Great news!

Everyone dispersed contentedly. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin logged off to have a meal, then logged back on to collect the reward for being the first in the class from the postman.

Because they completed the level within the event period, all rewards were doubled, including experience, gold coins, and some special materials. In addition, there would be certain experience rewards after defeating the boss in the dungeon . Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin's levels jumped directly to level 66 .

Only four levels away from the maximum level.

Ji Xuanyi still wants to collect props related to the next activity, so he is still doing activities with his two brothers Yuetian and Ritian. It must be said that it is good to have group leaders and relatives, otherwise a profession like Ji Xuanyi may not be able to find a group.

However, other people had little interest in this dungeon activity and had no desire to participate at all. They were like a group of salted fish, completing tasks and upgrading every day.

One person who deserves extra mention is Xu Chu. He actually also wants to collect props for the next event, and it is much easier for him than Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin. At least he can directly charter a group, while Ji Xuanyi and the other two have to fight slowly on their own.

But something strange happened, and Xu Chu was not particularly enthusiastic about participating in this event.

He went out traveling.

Of course it's not real life, but in the game – this is even more strange. Traveling in the game is different from reality. There is no food or fun, only sightseeing. Everyone knows that Xu Chu will never go to see the scenery. To him, these are all boring things. If you force him to do it, he would wish to die in front of you.

What's unbelievable is that this happened right in front of everyone!

When Xu Chu left, he gathered everyone together with great fanfare and asked them to see him off.

When everyone first heard the news, they thought Xu Chu had lost his mind and no one paid any attention to him until Xu Chu said he wanted to give out red envelopes before leaving. Then everyone rushed to the city gate to see Xu Chu off.

Xu Chu's face was glowing and he seemed to be in a very good mood. He walked with such a breeze that he was almost stumbling. Except for Ji Xuan who had a slightly gloomy expression, everyone was a little confused.

Xu Chu didn't say much. He smiled and told everyone that he was going out to see the scenery of the game and might not be back for ten days or half a month, so everyone should not miss him.

Everyone cooperated very well and said that they didn't want to, absolutely not!

Only then did Xu Chu give out red envelopes to everyone with satisfaction.

Xiao Xiao looked around and said curiously, " Why didn't Liu Tian come? Aren't you going out with him? "

The probability of Liu Tian and Xu Chu appearing together is still very high. After all, in most cases, Liu Tian stays with Xu Chu as a mount. If Xu Chu wants to go out to travel and see the scenery, how could he not take Liu Tian with him?

And the fact in front of him was indeed like this. Xu Chu really didn't plan to bring Liu Tian with him. He smiled and said, " Yes, I won't go with him. He didn't come because he was angry about this. You can give him the red envelope on my behalf. "

Xiao Xiaoyu took the bag of gold coins from Xu Chu with a confused look on her face. After a long while, she said, " You are not taking Liu Tian with you. Are you going to take Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin with you? "

Xue Piao Renjian's household registration problem has not been resolved yet. Although his horse is good, it cannot carry both Mi Yin and Xu Chu.

Xu Chu glanced at Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin beside him, shook his head and said, " They are both on holiday too. I want to go out and travel alone. "

Xiao Xiaoyu subconsciously wanted to touch Xu Chu's forehead. Was this guy stupid?

In fact, if they had not discussed it in advance, and if Xu Chu was still as annoying as before in some aspects, Ji Xuanyi would probably have thought that what happened to Qi Qin happened for the second time.

Because anyone who is familiar with Xu Chu would not believe that one day this man would take the initiative to go out for a trip to see the scenery for ten days or half a month, and appear very happy and excited. The most important thing is that this lazy man left his mount behind, and he wanted to walk the journey of ten days or half a month on his own two legs!

The other party's current state doesn't seem like he's going out to see the scenery, but rather like he's going to do something big!

In fact, Xu Chu was indeed going out to do something big.

Ji Xuanyi looked at the red envelopes being handed out one by one with a slightly gloomy expression, and finally to Xu Chu who was standing in front of him and Qi Qin.

" Thank you, boss " with a silly smile, just like the others who came to send Xu Chu off. Xu Chu looked at Ji Xuanyi next to him with sparkling eyes, as if he was expecting to hear the same words from him.

If Ji Xuanyi would speak like this, he would not be Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi looked at Xu Chu coldly and said, " What kind of airplane are you working on? "

On the third day of their dungeon expedition, Xu Chu arrived at the gathering place on time, and after talking nonsense, he told Ji Xuanyi a piece of news.

A piece of news that made Xu Chu so itchy that it became so abnormal.

Zhaochen contacted Xuchu secretly.

" He seems to hope that I can go to him for help. " When Xu Chu finished speaking, a look of contempt appeared on Ji Xuanyi's face.

Seeing that the other party seemed to regard Zhaochen as someone like Zuo'an, Xuchu kindly reminded him: " Of course he didn't intend to bribe me with money. He just saw that my talent was suppressed by you and I could only be inferior to you. He also asserted that even if I can tolerate this situation now, you will definitely make it worse in the future and make me unbearable. "

Xu Chu poked Ji Xuanyi with a grin and said, " He also told me with all his heart that the end would be that both of us would perish together. "

Ji Xuanyi's face was expressionless at the time. Xu Chu couldn't figure out what he was thinking, so he pretended to say, " Oh, it really doesn't feel good to not be able to stretch your arms and legs ..."

Then, he saw what expression was on Ji Xuanyi's face.

That was an expression that made me want to pin him to the ground and rub him ...

So Xu Chu quickly gave in and told Ji Xuanyi his position.

However, it was different from what Ji Xuanyi thought. Xu Chu did not decide to stand with Ji Xuanyi because he felt that Ji Xuanyi was more reliable, or because he vaguely sensed the identity behind Ji Xuanyi. The reason why Xu Chu stood on Ji Xuanyi's side was just because he liked Ji Xuanyi more, there was no other reason.

But for Xu Chu, this reason actually made him much more determined than what Ji Xuanyi thought.

Ji Xuanyi didn't know this, and he didn't dare to think about it, so after knowing the news, although he appeared to be very calm, he actually felt uncomfortable.

Although the current Ji Xuanyi is completely different from the Ji Xuanyi of the past, he always feels that something is happening again.

Zhaochen's words were not wrong to some extent. If it was the previous Ji Xuanyi, the ending might really be the same as Zhaochen predicted. Although Ji Xuanyi knew that he had changed, he still felt some inexplicable guilt and worry.

What puzzled Ji Xuanyi the most was who exactly was Zhaochen? Why was he so sure of the ending he had arranged, and told Xuchu about it in such a confident tone? Could it be that Zhaochen was the leader of the former gang? It was hard to say ...

What Xu Chu said was that Zhaochen seemed to have some plan and needed his help to carry it out, but the plan was just a prototype and not yet fully prepared, so there was no need to worry for the time being.

So Ji Xuan put this matter aside for the time being and focused on conquering the dungeon, but he didn't expect that Xu Chu would set off just after the conquest was completed, and in such a high-profile manner.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and looked at Xu Chu.

Xu Chu smiled and took out a bag of gold coins that was twice as big as the others and stuffed it into Ji Xuanyi's hand, saying, " Don't you want to say ' thank you, boss ' ? "

Perhaps it was because Ji Xuanyi's expression was not very good, Xu Chu only said one sentence, and when he got no response, he withdrew his hand in dismay.

Ji Xuanyi said with a sullen face: " Just leave if you want to. Why are you making such a big fuss? Are you afraid that they won't suspect you? "

Xu Chu spread his hands and said, " I am so wronged. This is not what I wanted to do. Do you think I am willing to give out red envelopes? My family does not own a mine. "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned when he heard this, and said: " What do you mean, according to ... "

Ji Xuan glanced at the three gang members who were eager to receive the red envelopes, lowered his voice and said, " Did the other side make you so arrogant? "

Ji Xuanyi thought that no matter if he was an undercover agent or a defector, he had to leave secretly. He didn't expect that the other party would send Xu Chu to them for suspicion? What did he mean? Was it a provocation? Wait until the last moment to slap him in the face?

Xu Chu said: " How can this be called arrogance? This is called appearance. How can someone of my status not have such appearance when traveling? "

Ji Xuanyi was speechless and said, " Who the hell are you? "

Xu Chu hesitated and said, " The deputy leader of the damn Jianghu? "

Ji Xuan had a blank expression on his face.

Xu Chu said with certainty: " The richest man in Star City! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi had nothing to say, he rolled his eyes and said, " Stop talking nonsense, what the hell is going on? "

Xu Chu really became serious, smiled slightly, and said, " That person said that if I left quietly, you would be suspicious, but if I left openly, you wouldn't take it to heart. Even if you took it to heart, you wouldn't ask too much about it because you want to save face ... Is this person he was talking about you? "

Xu Chu asked the last sentence with doubt in his heart.

In his opinion, with Ji Xuanyi's personality, he would not be questioned if he left quietly. After all, Ji Xuanyi seldom meddles in other people's affairs. Moreover, he also understood the principle of not asking about privacy. On the contrary, making a big fuss would attract Ji Xuanyi's attention. In Ji Xuanyi's opinion, this action meant that Xu Chu wanted to tell him something. Ji Xuanyi does care about his reputation, but in this situation, face is obviously not as important as friends, so he won't care about it.

However, after hearing Xu Chu's words, Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment, and then his face darkened.

Xu Chu was incredulous and said, " Brother, what's with that expression on your face? Don't tease me, is he really talking about you? "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything.

That's right, what Zhaochen said is indeed what Ji Xuanyi is very likely to do, but not the current Ji Xuanyi, but the Ji Xuanyi from a long time ago – and also mixed with the malignant elements of Mu Xuanyi.

According to Zhaochen's speculation, Ji Xuanyi now seems to be a sensitive, suspicious, pretentious, and face-conscious person.

Ji Xuanyi took a deep breath and said, " It's so strange. This person knows me very well, but the news is a little delayed ..."

He looked at Xu Chu with a complicated look in his eyes, and Xu Chu actually saw a hint of insecurity and cowardice in them.

Mu Xuanyi was just Ji Xuanyi's helpless outburst and madness after being betrayed, but this does not mean that Ji Xuanyi was really fine after experiencing those things.

From the time he met Qi Qin to the time he made so many friends, Ji Xuanyi has actually changed a lot and has been healed a lot. But once the past events are brought up, without the protection of Mu Xuanyi, the cracks in his heart will reappear.

Ji Xuanyi is actually not as strong as everyone imagines.

Qi Qin has always known this, so he has been trying his best to protect him. Now Xu Chu seems to have vaguely sensed something.

Ji Xuanyi noticed the change in Xu Chu's expression, and immediately concealed those flaws, saying expressionlessly: " Anyway, you are not talking about the current me, so you don't have to worry so much. "

Xu Chu smiled playfully and said nothing.

Ji Xuanyi didn't want to pay any more attention to him, but after a moment's hesitation , he said, " That guy might be a bit problematic. I thought he was an enemy that I had provoked at some point, but now it seems that something is not right. "

Ji Xuanyi looked at Xu Chu for a long time before he said, " He seems to be an old acquaintance of mine? At least he should have experienced the things that happened before I became Mu Xuanyi. I'm not sure if he was a member of my gang or the leader of the Thousand Man Gang. "

After hesitating for a moment, Ji Xuanyi said, " The latter is more likely. After all, he is already trying to use the same method. "

Xu Chu had heard about Ji Xuanyi's past, and when the alliance of the three major gangs had not yet been established, he had specifically checked it out of curiosity about Ji Xuanyi, so he understood what Ji Xuanyi meant.

Now, the choice he faces is the same choice that those who betrayed Ji Xuanyi once faced. As Xu Chu looked at Ji Xuanyi, he couldn't help but think distractedly, what he was facing now, no matter how you look at it, should be the drama of the world, right? Betrayal or not, one step to heaven, one step to the abyss ... But think about it, if Zhao Chen really contacted Qi Qin, he would definitely be rejected outright, how could it be more suspenseful and exciting than him being pried away?

But Xu Chu himself really likes this kind of thing that can cause trouble, and doesn't mind walking thousands of miles to do it on his short legs.

Xu Chu said slowly: " I just wanted to play a trick on him, but it seems that you have other needs? "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " I want you to help me find out his identity. "

“ I want to know who this person is. ”

Xu Chu raised his eyebrows and said, " I understand. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything, just looked at him.

Xu Chu understood what he was thinking, smiled slightly, and under Qi Qin's vigilant gaze, he leaned close to Ji Xuanyi's ear and said helplessly: " I told you, I am on your side. "

Ji Xuanyi's eyes moved slightly, Xu Chu stood up straight, and said with a playful smile: " Don't you want to say ' thank you, boss ' ? "

Ji Xuanyi: "... get out. "

Xu Chu shrugged and rolled away quickly .

Xu Chu always walked in a sloppy manner, as if he could lean against the wall at any time. But perhaps because the purpose of this trip was too exciting, Xu Chu's steps became brisk, and he soon walked out of the city gate under the gaze of everyone.

As soon as Xu Chu's figure disappeared, everyone dispersed and went about their business, which was really stupid.

Ji Xuanyi looked at it for a while longer before leaving with Qi Qin.

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi and said, " Xuanyi seems a little happy? "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment, curled his lips, and said, " I'm not happy. "

I can only say that I have put down a huge stone in my heart. Maybe he is not as hopeless as I imagined, although Xu Chu is also a freak.

Ji Xuanyi's steps became faster and faster. Qi Qin tried to hold back for a while, but couldn't help it anymore and whispered, " I am the one who likes Xuanyi the most. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't expect the other party to be so sensitive. He looked up at him in surprise, only to see Qi Qin looking at him seriously and repeating: " No one likes Xuanyi more than me. "

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help blushing, and after a long while he said, " I know. "

After saying that, he gently hugged Qi Qin and said, " You are also my favorite person. "

Qi Qin held Ji Xuanyi in his arms and said worriedly: " Xu Chu ..."

Ji Xuanyi decisively lied: " Didn't Xu Chu have an affair with Jian Xixinjiu? "

Qi Qin was stunned and subconsciously asked: " What about the six days? "

Ji Xuanyi hesitated for a moment and said, " It's not easy, let's do a threesome ! "

Qi Qin: "..."

Xu Chu who has not yet left the Star City & Liu Tian who is angry in the gang base & Jian Xi Xin Jiu who is innocently caught in the crossfire because of being single: " A-choo!!! "

Xu Chu: " Alas, you told me not to miss me, and you promised me that, but you've already started missing me before you even leave the map. "

Liu Tian: " It must be Xu Chu who is saying bad things about me again! Stupid Xu Chu! "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu: " Finally someone is thinking about me. When will I be able to find someone? ..."

There are so many different kinds of beings, so many different kinds of beings ...

However, Xu Chu did privately ask Ji Xuanyi to help keep an eye on Liu Tian. He didn't want to find out that the Damn Jianghu had been ruined by the idiot Liu Tian when he came back. He was quite comfortable sitting in the position of deputy gang leader.

In addition, Xu Chu said that Zhao Chen was not easy to deal with. It was possible to inquire about his identity, but it was very dangerous. Ji Xuanyi needed to pay a certain amount of compensation, such as helping him collect some demon gold coins. One bag for one CD was enough.

Ji Xuan thought he and Xu Chu had become close friends at first, but then he turned around and started to settle accounts, which made the veins on his forehead almost pop. He replied: " Didn't I help you watch for six days? It's not considered as compensation? "

Xu Chu said: " Liu Tian, that idiot, is not even enough to be a bonus, let alone a reward. Doesn't it count? "

Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " Don't you usually collect this kind of things directly after the fact? "

Xu Chu immediately said, " The landlord doesn't have any surplus food. Even though I have a mine, I can't afford to spend it like this. Let's save as much as possible! "

Ji Xuanyi thought to himself, you are saving money, I don't know how many more copies I should play, but Xu Chu did help him a lot, let alone one bag, even if Xu Chu asked for three bags of CDs , Ji Xuanyi would have to give it to him.

If you can't beat him, just beat him up afterwards.

However, from then on, whenever Xu Chu mentioned the matter of being the richest man in Fanxing City, Ji Xuanyi would sneer at it.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were in Fanxing City, leveling up while doing dungeons. Occasionally they would look after Liu Tian and help him clean up the mess. Xu Chu was not idle either.

In order to prevent Ji Xuanyi and others from discovering that Xu Chu was going to Yaori City, Zhaochen did not send anyone to pick up Xu Chu. During the time when Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were fighting, Xu Chu was trying to hurry on his way.

The distance between the main cities is not close, but not far either . After calculating the time Xu Chu goes online and offline, and taking into account the problem of the mage's naturally short legs, Zhaochen and Xu Chu finally agreed on three days after Xu Chu leaves the city.

Three days later, Zhaochen will welcome Xu Chu at the gate of Yueri City. In order to show his sincerity, Zhaochen also plans to bring a few more managers from Xinban City to pick him up.

Things developed as Zhaochen had arranged. On the third day, Zhaochen brought more than a dozen senior executives and waited at the gate of Yueri City early.

The wait was two hours.

The agreed time had long passed. Zhaochen frowned and sent a private message to Xuchu, asking him how long it would take him to arrive.

Xuchu replied seriously: " Right away! "

If Xiaoxiao Yuxia and others were here, they would definitely go offline quickly to eat, take a shower, and sleep, and then go online the next day to see if Xu Chu had arrived.

However, poor Zhaochen did not know Xuchu's nickname, and foolishly believed the other party's lies. He took his men to wait for more than an hour – there was nothing he could do about it, after all, the nickname Gechu was only circulated in Fanxing City and had not yet spread to Youri City.

However, judging by the situation, it is only a matter of time before the players of Day City know this.

Zhaochen waited for an hour and asked again, and Xuchu still answered: " Right away! "

Zhaochen: "...

Zhaochen didn't believe it this time, and asked very cautiously: " What time do you think you can arrive? "

Xu Chu looked at the sky and answered very seriously: " Eight o'clock in the evening. "

Zhaochen believed it.

The group dispersed and gathered again at the city gate at eight o'clock. They waited for an hour. Just when Zhaochen couldn't bear it anymore and wanted to send Xuchu a private message, Xuchu sent him a private message first.

" I made a mistake in my estimation. I'm going to go offline and sleep. I'll be there at 10am tomorrow morning! "

After saying that, Xu Chu's profile picture turned black.

Zhaochen: “...”

Zhaochen felt that Xu Chu might be playing a trick on him, but it had come to this point, and even if he was sure that the other party was playing a trick on him, Zhaochen could only suppress his anger.

No matter what, when Xu Chu arrives in Youri City, if they are playing a trick on him, he won't have to think about leaving anymore.

When Zhaochen came online the next day, he did not ask anyone to go with him, but arrived at the gate of Yueri City alone at ten o'clock.

Sure enough, Zhaochen waited until twelve o'clock, but Xuchu was not even online.

Zhaochen felt no emotion at all, and even wanted to log off on the spot.

But he can't.

He has waited for so long. No matter what, he must wait until Xu Chu comes to Yueri City. First, his plan requires Xu Chu. Second, even if Xu Chu is not on his side but on Ji Xuanyi's side, he must find a way to win Xu Chu over – or just kill him in Yueri City.

Xu Chu didn't come online until two in the afternoon. Zhao Chen had already finished his nap. When he came online, he found that Xu Chu was also online. He immediately asked him where he was.

This puts Xu Chu in a very difficult position.

Xu Chu never looked at the road before he went out. Anyway, there were six days left. He went out alone this time and didn't know where he was. He could only be sure that he was heading towards Day City. Seeing Zhao Chen's secret chat, he could only say innocently: " I don't know either, but don't worry, I'll be there soon! "

Zhaochen: “...”

If I believe you again, there's something wrong with me!

Zhao Chen had a gloomy face and directly added Xu Chu to the group. When he opened the parchment, he saw that the blue arrow of Xu Chu on the parchment was not even as big as a sesame seed!

We're almost there. Did you just leave Star City?!

Zhao Chen could no longer bear it and typed: " Xu Chu, if you are willing to be humble under Ji Xuan and have no intention of cooperating with me, just say it directly. There is no need to play tricks on me like this. "

Xu Chu said innocently: " How did I play tricks on you? Am I not heading towards Day City? "

If Xuchu was in front of Zhaochen now, Zhaochen's saliva would spray directly on his face. Isn't this a joke? ! You've been late for a whole day and a whole night! ! !

Zhaochen was still too young. Xuchu sighed slowly and typed: " You are too impatient. I am just like this. Everyone in Star City knows that I am a dork ..."

Xu Chu almost called out his nickname Ge Chu, but quickly deleted it and continued, " Everyone knows that I have a serious procrastination problem. When I was in Star City, no one ever rushed me. What are you talking about? I walked here on my own two feet! "

Zhaochen rolled his eyes widely and wanted to beat Xuchu up, but first of all, he couldn't reach him. Secondly, whether Xuchu was really interested or not depended on whether he would come to Yueri City in the end. As long as he came there, Zhaochen was sure that he would be able to make him change his mind!

He knew how hateful Ji Xuanyi was and how aggressive he was.

I don't know what's going on in his mind, but Zhaochen stubbornly believes that people around Ji Xuanyi will eventually be unable to tolerate him. No one will be willing to live with Ji Xuanyi for a long time. No matter when, under the same means, Ji Xuanyi will get the same ending.

" If you don't believe it, just wait and see. " Zhaochen looked at the palm of his hand and said softly, not knowing who he was talking to.

But Zhaochen finally learned a lesson and that is not to take Xuchu too seriously. As long as you don't take him seriously and don't think that this person can be on time from the beginning, then your feeling of being stood up will be much lighter.

But having said that, Zhaochen still needs Xuchu to do things. Although he no longer goes to the city gate to wait for his husband every day (?), every day when he sees Xuchu online, he will still team up with him and observe his movements on the parchment.

What comforted Zhaochen a little was that although the movement speed was very slow, Xu Chu's blue arrow was indeed getting bigger, which means that he was indeed coming towards Yuri City.

He was right. Ji Xuanyi's ending had already been written. How could anyone be willing to be friends with him?

On the tenth day after Xu Chu set out, he finally arrived at Youri City at a snail's pace – and was not greeted, even though he had privately chatted with Zhaochen twenty minutes ago that he would be there soon.

This is really too much and very impolite!

Xu Chu thought angrily.

Chapter 152

Zhaochen went out to pick him up only after he heard the player standing guard at the city gate say that Xu Chu had really arrived.

Zhaochen didn't ask anyone else to go with him, fearing that Xuchu wouldn't be there when he got to the city gate, so he rode his horse alone. Just as he got to the city gate and had n't dismounted yet, he saw Xuchu saying to him with dissatisfaction on his face: " You said so nice things before I came, but now you're here alone? And you made me wait for ten minutes, isn't that too rude? "

After hearing this, Zhaochen almost spat out a mouthful of Lingxiao's blood. You are not satisfied at all! You delayed him for a whole week! A week!!! How can you do anything?! Did you crawl here?!

However, no matter how much Zhaochen felt choking on his heart, he couldn't say it out loud. Dealing with Xu Chu was something he could only do later. The other party's current position was ambiguous, and he needed to let the other party see his sincerity.

Although it took Xu Chu ten days to get here, he actually walked such a long distance. For Xu Chu, who never touched the ground, this amount of activity was far beyond his tolerance. He collapsed the next second after entering the city, and he had been sitting on the ground while talking just now . This was one of the reasons why Zhao Chen did not turn hostile to him directly.

Although it is a little slow , people are really trying their best to get on the road!

Zhaochen pursed his lips, jumped off his horse, and politely lifted Xu Chu up from the ground . He did not let go until the other person stood firm.

Xu Chu glanced at his horse, his eyes full of desire.

Zhaochen: “...”

Zhaochen cursed in his heart with an expressionless face , but finally cooperated and helped Xuchu onto the horse. Xuchu even said pretentiously that Zhaochen's horse didn't fit his butt, but Zhaochen pretended not to hear it.

There was no ceremony when welcoming him, and there was no need to make any fuss when discussing things. Zhaochen directly brought Xu Chu to the base in the northeast area of Xinban City.

Because it was still during the world line dungeon activity, the people in the guild were either too busy doing dungeons to come back, or they didn't like pve and were afraid of being drafted and dared not come back, resulting in the entire stronghold being empty. Although it was well built, it still looked very desolate due to the lack of popularity.

Xu Chu was a man with a very sharp tongue. When he saw this scene, he said, " It's too shabby, isn't it? Where is your inner city stronghold? "

Zhao Chen got off his horse, glanced at him, and said, " Didn't Yugui tell you? He didn't hand over his position as gang leader when he was in Zuo'an A , so of course he couldn't take back the inner city base. But we have contacted the last person some time ago. After he left, there were not enough people in the old half of the city. If no new people join within three months, it will be passively disbanded. "

Zhaochen smiled, as if what he said before had nothing to do with him, and said very easily: " The base will be vacant by then, and we can return to the inner city in a month or two. "

Xu Chu compared himself with Zhaochen and felt that Liu Tian was really lucky.

But to be honest, Liu Tian is still a little less stupid than Zuo An. If Xu Chu and Zhao Chen swapped positions and faced Zuo An, he would probably have lost his patience long ago and would have kicked the other person away, become the gang leader himself, and then just walk away when he got tired of playing for a while.

Zhaochen got off his horse, and Xuchu followed him. The location of Zhaochen's stronghold was good, very close to the city gate, so he was able to reach Xuchu within ten minutes. It was enough to show that the other party was very cautious in choosing this stronghold – this stronghold was located in the northeast area of Yori City, and the road outside this area led to Fanxing City.

Xu Chu raised an eyebrow.

As soon as the two entered the conference room, Xu Chu got straight to the point and said, " What you said about Ji Xuanyi before ..."

Xu Chu thought for a while before reluctantly picking out a word and said, " Very interesting. "

Zhao Chen looked at him, smiled, and said, " Interesting? You don't really think so, do you? "

Xu Chuxin said, you know whether I am sincere or not, so what else can I say? But since they were not at the home court of Fanxing City at the moment, Xu Chu was not so arrogant anymore. He picked a chair at random and sat down, looking at Zhaochen without saying a word.

Zhaochen seemed to want to stare at Xuchu to put pressure on him, but Xuchu didn't even look at him. He lowered his head to study the fruit plate. Zhaochen's line of sight couldn't reach him, so he could only withdraw his gaze in dismay and said, " Only those who have been with Ji Xuanyi know this feeling. Whether you have it now or not, you will definitely reach this point in the future. I think you have also felt this, otherwise you wouldn't have come to Sun City to find me so simply. "

Xu Chu glanced at him, laughed, and said, " Aren't you afraid that I'm here to help Ji Xuanyi? " Something strange flashed across Zhaochen's eyes, but he soon said with inexplicable certainty: " You won't. "

This made Xu Chu very interested. He raised his eyebrows and said, " Why are you so sure? Do you know me so well? "

" Because I ..." Zhaochen almost subconsciously wanted to blurt out something, but in an instant, he realized that something was wrong, and immediately swallowed the unfinished words, sneered, and said: " I don't understand you, I just understand Ji Xuanyi. "

" People like Ji Xuanyi are indeed talented, but they are too sharp, arrogant and irritable. No one can stay with him for long, especially someone as smart as you, " Zhaochen seemed to remember something, with a complicated expression , and then said: " Before Ji Xuanyi appeared in Star City, you were the number one figure in Star City. Now you are suppressed everywhere and almost become his little brother. Don't you feel anything at all? "

Xuchu didn't say anything, but just looked at Zhaochen with an inexplicable look, which made Zhaochen feel that his words had an effect. He smiled slightly and said, " No one will feel happy, and you are the same. You are not the kind of guy who is willing to be inferior to others. "

Xu Chu tapped the table with his fingers, propped up his chin with one hand, and said listlessly: " Isn't it me? I'm even the deputy of the gang leader. You think too highly of me. "

Zhaochen shook his head helplessly and said, " You probably forgot that my status was the same as yours at first. Is there any difference between the leader of the Tamaijianghu and Zuo'an before the Old Half City? "

The difference is quite big, Xu Chu thought, but a smile appeared on his face, and he said: " You found out all this? "

Zhaochen also smiled and said, " You and I are the same kind of people. Of course I understand what you are thinking. "

Xu Chu revealed a smile that was in tacit agreement with Zhao Chen.

Seeing this, Zhao Chen said seriously, " I have no grudge against Star City. It was only Zuo An who issued those stupid orders. To be honest, after the dissolution of the Old Half City, I actually had no intention of going against Star City. The relationship between the main cities should not be so tense. "

" I just have a grudge against Ji Xuanyi, " Zhao Chen said with a helpless look, " He just happens to be in Fanxing City, so it looks like I'm targeting Fanxing City. But you can't stand him either. As long as we get rid of him, Fanxing City and Yaori City can actually put aside their past grudges and become friends from rivals. "

" I promise that no matter what Tama Jianghu wants to do in Star City, we will fully support him! "

The conditions offered by Zhaochen were good and he showed sincerity. Xu Chu thought that if he really did what Zhaochen thought, he might actually agree to it. After all, Zhaochen didn't ask for anything, he just hoped that Xu Chu could help him deal with Ji Xuanyi.

Xu Chu smiled noncommittally and said, " After all, Ji Xuanyi has never done anything to offend me. Although I do not like him, I still want to ask, what do you want to do with him? Do you want to rape him? "

Zhao Chen showed a hint of hesitation on his face, but soon he said, " Lun Bai is just a piece of cake. I know where his weakness is, and I will make him deserted by everyone. "

Xu Chu keenly sensed the uncertainty in Zhaochen's words. He didn't really want to do what he said, but the position he showed and the actions he had taken did show that he was targeting Ji Xuanyi. What was this man thinking?

Xu Chu finally couldn't help asking, " You keep saying that you know Ji Xuanyi, and you speak so confidently. How do you know so much about things that I, who have been with him for such a long time, don't know at all? Who are you to Ji Xuanyi? You can't be just an enemy, right? "

Zhao Chen didn't expect Xu Chu to suddenly change the subject. He was stunned for a moment before he said unceremoniously, " You don't need to know so much about me. It's enough for you to understand that our target is Ji Xuanyi. "

Xuchu raised his eyebrows and was about to say something else, but Zhaochen was obviously unhappy. He said, " Let's stop here for today. You just came to Sun City. I'll find a few people to take you out to play. "

Xu Chu didn't expect the other party to hide so easily, and said helplessly: " What about you? "

Zhaochen glanced at him and said, " I have been anxiously waiting for someone for ten days. I need to take a rest. "

Xu Chu immediately played dumb and said with concern: " Go ahead, go ahead. Next time, you must combine work and rest. Wait for a while and rest for a while. Don't take care of your body like this anymore. "

Zhaochen's cheeks twitched. Even though it was just an excuse to fool the other party, he was really tired of Xu Chu. He realized that he would not hear Xu Chu's words of apology or surrender, so he wordlessly called someone over and logged off.

Xu Chu had no intention of shopping in the game. He was too lazy to even shop in real life. He just dealt with the people sent by Zhao Chen and ran to a corner to start a private chat with Ji Xuanyi.

" I think you might be able to figure out who this Zhaochen is, " Xu Chu said speechlessly, " He's too complicated . It's not enough that he raped you, he also wants to make you deserted by everyone. He talks a lot, but he doesn't seem to be that way. "

Ji Xuanyi's reply was simple.

[Ji Xuanyi] : ???

He didn't understand what Xuchu was talking about. Not to mention him, Xuchu himself was in trouble. He couldn't even figure out whether Zhaochen really wanted to do something to Ji Xuanyi. You said, Zhaochen's words were not so sincere. You said, he was indeed targeting Ji Xuanyi. Could it be that he was pretending to target Ji Xuanyi, but actually plotting against the entire Star City? That's not right!

Xu Chu thought for a long time before saying, " He's not one of your old lovers, is he? He wants to punish you but can't because of love. Why don't you meet him and talk it out? He might even point at your chest and call you ' little enemy ' or something ... It's really unfair to the world. Why don't you ask him if he minds a threesome ? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

After Ji Xuanyi received the message, he subconsciously closed the chat interface immediately, then carefully glanced at Qi Qin next to him. Qi Qin looked back at him and said, " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head with a guilty conscience, remembering that players in this game could not see each other's chat interface, and finally he breathed a sigh of relief. He quickly cursed: " Are you sick? Do you think I can't hit you because the road is too far ?! If you have the guts, don't come back to Star City in this life! "

Xu Chu said innocently, " Why are you scolding me? I really think so. You weren't here, so you didn't see Zhao Chen's reaction when he mentioned you. Damn, that complex expression, so many twists and turns, saying that he knows you, as if he was targeting you. Don't blame me for thinking the wrong thing! "

Ji Xuanyi pouted at him and said, " That's impossible. This is the first time Tianxia and I have been in a relationship. I have never been ambiguous with anyone before, not even with a woman, let alone a man. It's impossible. "

Xu Chu didn't give up and said: " Maybe he has a crush on you and you don't know it? "

Ji Xuanyi said with a frown on his face: " It's none of my business if he has a crush on me. Think about it in a different way. If you continue to talk nonsense and let the world see it, then don't come back. I will send you back to the resurrection point as soon as you enter the city. Do you believe it? "

Xu Chu saw that Ji Xuanyi was really anxious, so he stopped talking and just said, " I always feel that the development of things after coming here is not what I imagined. "

Ji Xuanyi said indifferently: " You are the one who wants to cause trouble. If you are unhappy, just come back. As long as you guys don't waver, Star City is not afraid of them. "

Xu Chu said: " Don't you want to know who Zhaochen is? And didn't you say that he did know your past? What if he doesn't get a response and uses it against you? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " No matter who he was, it's all in the past. I didn't have anyone worth staying with before. It's not necessary to know who he is. I wanted you to help me find out his identity before, but after listening to what you said, I'm not particularly curious anymore. "

If Zhaochen was the leader of the Thousand Man Gang, it would be absolutely impossible for him to be so kind to Ji Xuanyi as Xu Chu said. That person would wish Ji Xuanyi to die completely.

The only people who knew Ji Xuanyi so well and yet were so hesitant could only be the group of people back then.

If Ji Xuanyi had not met Qi Qin and Xiaoxiao Yuxia and his group, he would have found a way to kill Zhaochen without hesitation. But for Ji Xuanyi now, the past is not that important.

" You don't need to worry about dealing with me, " Ji Xuan said, " The me he knew was gone eight hundred years ago. "

Ji Xuanyi had already said so, so Xu Chu couldn't insist any more. The main person didn't care, but he was still making trouble. It seemed that the eunuchs were anxious while the emperor was not. So he immediately started to think about ways to get out of this situation.

Ji Xuan said, " If you come back, I'll ask Liu Tian and the others to pick you up. It just so happens that the event hasn't ended yet. The groups I've found recently are all very bad. You can come back and play dungeons with me. It won't take too long every day. Four or five hours will be enough. "

Xu Chu: "..."

Xu Chu suddenly said righteously: " It's not that I'm too lazy to do the dungeon, it's mainly because of the situation in Day City. Sooner or later, they will have to fight us. Rather than passively taking the beating, it's better to take the initiative. I'll stay here for a while and collect intelligence. I'll go back after the event is over! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

If Xu Chu was in front of Ji Xuanyi, he might be beaten.

Fortunately, he was far away , and before Ji Xuanyi had the chance to scold him, he closed the chat channel. After that, no matter how the system prompt sounded, he would not open it. Let's talk about the beating when we get back!

Zhaochen did not reveal his identity to Xu Chu, but Ji Xuanyi had already guessed most of it and was not willing to pay attention to what was happening here.

Zhaochen knew nothing about this and only discussed his plans with Xu Chu every day. He didn't know Ji Xuanyi's identity at first, and he did think that the leader of Fanxing City was a powerful figure. But since he found out that the person behind Fanxing City was actually Ji Xuanyi, he felt that Fanxing City's performance should have been like this.

If it were him in the past, he would probably be angry and want to compete with Ji Xuan to determine the winner, but now, he has no such intention at all.

In his eyes, there was Ji Xuanyi, and of course the group of people surrounding Ji Xuanyi. He looked at them in the rain as if he was looking at his past self.

Especially Xu Chu.

Regardless of what others said, in his opinion, Xu Chu should be the same as he was in the past, suppressed by Ji Xuanyi and unable to make any progress. He would betray the other party without hesitation at the first opportunity.

Zhaochen knew what he wanted to do.

At the beginning, he was with Zuo An because he really wanted to take revenge on Ji Xuanyi, but later when Ji Xuanyi appeared, he changed his mind.

He wanted to prove something.

As long as the same situation happened again, he would probably understand, Zhao Chen thought.

Xu Chu sat in the conference room eating fruit carefreely.

Because Zhaochen had something for him to do, he had been treating him like an old Buddha for the past two days. The fruits he ate were all picked from the trees by the gang members of Xinbancheng, and he lived a very luxurious life.

The senior executives of Xinbancheng still remembered that this man had stood them up for a week. Whenever they returned to the base and saw Xu Chu occasionally, they would look down on him. Xu Chu was a nobody, and these people couldn't do anything to him, so they didn't take it to heart at all. They ate and drank as usual, and lived a much more comfortable life than in Fanxing City.

Without Ji Xuanyi's violent threats and six days of stupid entanglement, it would be so wonderful. Zhaochen's cheeks twitched as he looked at Xu Chu's eating habits.

After a long while, Xu Chu finished eating the fruit, wiped his hands, and said slowly: " I have been here for so long, and you haven't told me your plan yet. "

The veins on Zhaochen's forehead jumped. Who the hell could he blame? Every time they arranged a meeting, Xuchu would be late for three or four hours at best, or even the next day. He would go offline before saying a few words. If Zhaochen hadn't really sent someone to find out about Gechu's reputation in Fanxing City, he would have thought that this person was deliberately playing a trick on him!

But then again, Xu Chu deserves a beating so much, but Ji Xuanyi actually let him live until now. His temper has really improved!

Zhao Chen was lost in thought and didn't say anything. Xu Chu immediately took advantage of him and sighed, " I'm not saying anything. It's just a meeting. You guys in Sun City are too inefficient. I've been here for so many days. Can't you be more proactive? "

Zhaochen: "..."

Zhaochen silently swallowed the blood in his throat. If it wasn't for dealing with Ji Xuanyi, he would definitely pin Xu Chu to the ground and wipe the entire floor tiles of the Day City!

Seeing that Zhaochen still didn't speak, Xu Chu smiled and shook his head, thinking that this guy was still of low level. Look at Xiaoxiao Yuxia, she was already so angry with him, and she always accepted the rejection with a smile on her face.

Seeing that Zhaochen couldn't recover for a while, Xuchu took the lead in bringing up the topic: " Tell me, what exactly is your plan? How will you attack Day City? I'll help you sell Ji Xuanyi out. As long as you get rid of the swordsman next to him, you can directly capture him and do whatever you want. "

Of course, if Zhaochen revealed all his tactics, Xuchu could also sell out Zhaochen and then directly take him back to Fanxing City and do whatever he wanted.

It's a pity that Zhaochen disappointed Xuchu. In fact, capturing Ji Xuanyi and locking him up in a small dark room was attractive to Zhaochen, but he was not stupid. He certainly knew that this tactic might be betrayed by Xuchu. What's more, his ultimate goal was not to capture Ji Xuanyi and then tell the other party that he had been betrayed.

What he wanted was a repeat of the original situation, or in other words, a situation even more tragic than the original one.

" Daytime City will not attack Starry City, " Zhaochen looked at Xuchu and smiled, as if to say, "Don't play those little tricks in front of me. I'm not Zuo'an, I won't be fooled. " And I've already told you that my target is not your Starry City, but Ji Xuanyi. "

Xu Chu blinked and finally realized that Zhaochen was indeed different from Zuo An. Even though he could vaguely see some of his thoughts, in a way, Zhaochen could also see some of his thoughts and perfectly avoid the traps he set.

Xu Chu put down his hand, sat upright, looked at Zhao Chen seriously, and said, " Daytime City won't take action? Then where is your support for me? "

Zhao Chen said, " My support for you is not in eradicating Ji Xuanyi, but in the future, I will help you deal with the other two gangs, so that Tama Jianghu can monopolize the entire Star City. " After hearing this, Xu Chu almost rolled his eyes to the sky in his heart. It would be strange to rashly agree to such a stupid condition. He laughed and said, " If there is no Ji Xuanyi, the three major gangs will fall apart. Without your help, Damaojianghu can still be the boss. Your condition is too insincere. It's not the way to get something for nothing. Even if I want to deal with Ji Xuanyi, it doesn't mean I'm willing to work for you for free. "

Zhaochen was not surprised by Xuchu's attitude. He knew that this condition was too shameless. He proposed it just as a test. When he saw that the other party disagreed, he did not get too entangled. Instead, he said directly: " What conditions do you want? In the next event, Sun City will give some rewards to Star City? In short, it is impossible for us to attack Star City by force. "

Zhao Chen finished speaking, thought about it, and said directly: " I believe in your determination, but I will not hand over such a big handle to you. It is not easy for Day City to recover. If I send troops and get betrayed, I will have nothing. "

Zhaochen made his words so clear that Xuchu could no longer play dumb, but he could not think of any way to trick Zhaochen into giving him his cards, so he had to say, " Since you said so, I am not an unreasonable person. I still want your help and I will not turn hostile just because you said that. Let's put this condition aside for now and talk about it later. "

Zhaochen had no expression on his face and just looked at him quietly.

This guy is really difficult to deal with, Xu Chu thought, it would be better to have an opponent like Zuo An who can only use the turtle punch.

However, Zuo An had been gone for so long, and no matter how much Xu Chu missed him, he couldn't force Zuo An, who was at level 20, to come back, so he had no choice but to bite the bullet and negotiate with Zhao Chen, saying, " Just tell me what you want me to do, and we'll look at each other's conditions and compromise. It would be best if we can come to an agreement, but if we can't, we can talk about it later, okay? "

Zhao Chen nodded and said calmly: " What I want you to do shouldn't be difficult. All you need to do is drive Ji Xuanyi out of Fanxing City. "

Xu Chu: "..."

Xuchu thought Zhaochen might be so angry that he was disappointed. This is not difficult?!

Xu Chu said speechlessly: " I won't ask too much about you and Ji Xuanyi, but there is one thing I must remind you. If I can expel Ji Xuanyi, why would I look for you? Your condition is even more unreasonable than mine. If you know him, you should know who he is. Moreover, even if Ji Xuanyi has no power to resist, his position among the three major gangs is quite special. He has not joined any gang, but he has a close relationship with all three gangs. Regarding his affairs, I am not the only one who has the final say. "

Zhaochen was stunned for a moment and said, " He doesn't have a gang? "

Xu Chu nodded: " When the three major gangs in Fanxing City were still fighting among themselves, Mengtanggu and Chenshi actually invited him, but he did not agree, and he did not set up a gang himself. "

Zhaochen knew better than anyone why Ji Xuanyi refused to have a gang anymore. He looked a little uncomfortable. After a moment of silence, he said, " You alone have no say, but what if the other two gangs have the same attitude? The other people in the three major gangs will have the same idea as you. You are a smart person, so you probably know how to instigate them. It shouldn't be difficult for you to do this. "

" You make it sound so easy, " Xu Chu couldn't help but say, " You make it sound like dealing with Ji Xuanyi is easier than drinking water, why don't you do it yourself? Even if the three major gangs all unanimously decide to kick Ji Xuanyi out, Ji Xuanyi won't just go away like that. It turns out that he won't kill half of the people in the city. Do you know the people around him ..."

Xu Chu suddenly stopped talking here, and Zhao Chen asked: " What's next to him? "

Xu Chu suddenly laughed. He looked at Zhao Chen and said, " I know how to compromise. "

Zhaochen looked at him without comment.

Xu Chu smiled and said, " Ji Xuanyi is now a sorcerer. No matter how powerful he is, he can't kill anyone. If it's just him, it won't be easy to drive him out of Star City. But there is a problem. "

Zhao Chen frowned and said, " Is the swordsman next to him the best in the world? "

Xu Chu smiled and said, " You know quite a lot. "

Zhaochen didn't say anything.

Xu Chu suddenly became interested, lying on the table, and said to Chen: " Come to think of it, you said you wanted to make Ji Xuan deserted by all his friends. Although we are his friends, we are just small fry after all. We are nothing to him. The swordsman next to him is the best in the world, but he has been with him since the Novice Town. He is not only his bound DPS , but also his boyfriend. Have you ever thought about trying to pry him away? His killing power is much stronger than mine, right? "

Zhaochen's expression turned a little ugly. He glanced at Xu Chu and said nothing.

How could Xuchu just give up? He kept on nagging, as if he couldn't continue the conversation unless you answered. Zhaochen was cornered by him and could only say with a sullen face, " I haven't even opened my mouth yet, and that idiot has blocked me. "

 " Ha! Ha! Ha! " Xu Chu couldn't help but laughed three times towards the sky.

Zhaochen looked at him expressionlessly.

Regardless of whether it is true or not, Zhaochen is now considered Xuchu's ally. Zhaochen suffered a setback at the hands of Qi Qin, and it was not good for Xuchu to be so happy. Xuchu managed to hold back his laughter, his face flushed as he looked at Zhaochen.

Fortunately, Zhaochen was gradually familiar with Xuchu's behavior, and he didn't think there was anything wrong with it, just a little embarrassed. After a moment of silence, he said, "After all, he is my boyfriend in real life. That guy is really good to Ji Xuanyi."

Xu Chu sighed, even Zhao Chen said so, Qi Qin's title of a good boyfriend was really secure. This behavior of thinking that even breathing is wrong because the other party is Ji Xuanyi's enemy, and directly blocking him before he even opens his mouth, is really satisfying!

But what needs to be done still needs to be done. Xu Chu said: "Ji Xuanyi's boyfriend is not only loyal to him, but also a master. His fighting ability is no less than that of Ji Xuanyi in the past."

Zhao Chen didn't take what he said to heart. After all, he was just a man of wisdom and strategy. He only had the combat effectiveness of a team in his mind, but knew nothing about the power of a single master. In his worldview, Ji Xuanyi, who had killed a gang of a thousand people alone, was already the most powerful person. Even Xue Piao Renjian had to take the back seat, let alone such an unknown swordsman.

Zhao Chen sneered and said, "He is just a swordsman. Ji Xuanyi's assassin can defeat a gang of a thousand people by himself. No matter how powerful he is, what can he do? One against ten?"

Xu Chu didn't know that Zhao Chen had such a messy ranking of combat power in his mind. After hearing this, he could only say, "If you say he can beat ten people alone, he will probably think you are insulting him."

Zhaochen felt no wavering in his heart, he just looked at Xuchu.

Xu Chujian couldn't make sense of him, so he didn't want to waste his energy. He just said, "I can only tell you that the three major gangs are wary of Ji Xuanyi, only half of it is because of this guy's brain, and the other half is because of his boyfriend. Ji Xuanyi is indeed very powerful. There are many reasons why the three major gangs have formed the current situation because of his mediation. But in the final analysis, he is just a warlock. He has skills but no fighting power. No one will care about him if he is alone."

"But Tian Xia Di Yi is indeed the best expert in the world. He may not be able to break up a gang like an assassin, but he can definitely kill an entire group. With him around, even if Ji Xuan Yi can't stay in Fanxing City, he can go to Youyue City to make a comeback. Not to mention that if Ji Xuan Yi really gets into trouble, he will definitely not let us go."

Xu Chu spread his hands and said, "Even if I get the entire Starry City, I can't play if I'm reduced to level 20. If you don't deal with him, I can't do anything to Ji Xuanyi."

Zhao Chen glanced at him and said, "Your condition is that I help you deal with the number one in the world?"

Xu Chu nodded and said, "Yes, there is only this one condition. If you don't have the best in the world, let alone driving Ji Xuanyi out of Fanxing City, even if we help you to rape him, it's fine." As soon as Xuchu finished speaking, Zhaochen immediately said, "I am the only one who can move Ji Xuanyi, so don't touch him."

Xu Chu heard this and raised an eyebrow at Zhao Chen. He was a little suspicious. Zhao Chen had tolerated Zuo An for so long and didn't do anything. At that time, he killed Zuo An with thunderbolts. Was it not just because Zuo An suspected that he was an undercover? Maybe it was because Zuo An had made a move on Ji Xuanyi and almost succeeded?

Xu Chu smiled at Ji Chen without any flaws on his face, and his hands under the table had already begun to secretly send a message to Ji Xuanyi.

[Xu Chu] : Are you sure that you don't have a story with Zhao Chen? You have to be worthy of the world!

Ji Xuanyi, who was enjoying the scenery and dating Qi Qin: "..."

[Ji Xuanyi] : Die in Daylight City and don't come back.

Chapter 153

After hearing Xu Chu's words, Zhaochen actually felt a little relieved.

A large-scale attack on Star City is certainly not reliable . The Sun City has finally recovered some of its vitality , but if things go wrong it will all be lost , and then it will enter a vicious cycle . Even Zhaochen will not be able to clean up this mess.

But if it was just against one person , and that person was a swordsman without any escape skills, he thought he could still do it.

After all, no matter how strong a master is, he is only one person. Can he fight ten people alone ? Can he fight a hundred people alone? Even if something goes wrong with a team of a hundred people , Zhaochen can afford the price.

But he still had a question: " Even if the number one in the world is really that powerful, Xue Piao Renjian has already run to your side. He should be working under you, right? Can't he do anything to the number one in the world? "

After Xu Chu heard this , his mind began to spin wildly. Should he say that Xue Piao Renjian Mi Yin and Ji Xuanyi have a good relationship or should he say that they really can't beat them? Both of these answers might make Zhao Chen send more forces, but they might also make Zhao Chen suspicious . Which one is safer ?

Although Xu Chu had analyzed the pros and cons over and over in his mind , he did not show it on his face. He just sneered, took an apple from the fruit plate next to him, took a bite, raised an eyebrow and looked at Zhao Chen: " What do you think? "

Zhaochen didn't say anything.

Xuchu blinked, moved closer to him , and said, " No way, don't you know? "

Zhaochen frowned and said, " Know what? "

Xu Chu said, " Xue Piao Renjian lost the duel with Tianxia Diyi during the world mission, so Zuo An was furious and killed him as cannon fodder . Later, he felt that he had no future here, so he defected to Fanxing City. "

Zhaochen's eyes twitched.

He really didn't know about this. He was busy in real life during that time and was not online, so he just gave Zuo An a few tricks and let him figure it out on his own. Of course, he didn't expect him to do very well.

However, when he came back, he found that Xue Piao Renjian was missing. The idiot Zuo'an told him that Xue Piao Renjian defected to the enemy because he saw Mi Yin . He never mentioned that he let Xue Piao Renjian fight against Tian Xia Di Yi, nor did he say that he killed Xue Piao Renjian once later.

Although Zhaochen felt it was a bit strange at that time, Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin's " gay love " was very famous after all, so it was understandable if he had to explain it. But now it seems that most of the idiot Zuo An was afraid that Zhaochen would blame him, so he directly put the blame on Xue Piao Renjian.

Xu Chu saw Zhao Chen's expression and couldn't help laughing. He said, " Tsk tsk tsk, Zuo An is really awesome. He is probably the most capable person who hinders others I have ever seen in my life. "

The fact that he was able to bring a city like Zhaochen Yaori, which had almost no reason to fail, to this point shows how profound his skills are!

Zhaochen's face turned pale when he heard this, and he said in a deep voice: " Did you come to Day City just to tell me this? "

Xu Chu laughed enough and said, " Of course not. I just want to tell you that Xue Piao Renjian is not the best opponent in the world. He and Mi Yin together might be able to fight, but Mi Yin has a good relationship with Ji Xuanyi. "

Zhao Chen knew this. He was still paying attention to Mu Xuanyi's news, so he also knew that Mi Yin and Mu Xuanyi had a good relationship so that they could create this (misunderstanding). The most important thing is that Mi Yin has been with Xue Piao Renjian for such a long time, and there is no sign of a conflict. The only conflict was that he did not play the game with Xue Piao Renjian at the beginning, and they reconciled later. I think this person will not feel too much resentment when facing Ji Xuanyi.

Xu Chu also meant this: " Mi Yin has been through everything and is very open-minded. It's not easy to persuade him to go against Ji Xuanyi. Apart from the combination of him and Xue Piao Renjian, there is really no one in Fanxing City who can fight against the number one in the world. "

Xu Chu spread his hands and said, " It's easy to find a way to squeeze Ji Xuan out, but we can't just go after the world's number one. That would be handing him a handle. Ji Xuan's group would be enough to keep Fanxing City busy if they were to post on the forum. No matter what, you have to find a way to get rid of the world's number one first. "

Zhaochen nodded and said, " I understand. "

Xu Chu said: " Anyway , this is the only concern I have. Once you have resolved this matter, I will take care of the positions of the other people in Star City. "

Zhao Chen responded, and then said: " I don't know much about the number one in the world. In your opinion, how many people should I send? Is a hundred enough? "

Xu Chu laughed and shook his head, " One hundred ? "

I went through so much trouble to get to Day City after walking for ten days, and I'm just screwing you 100 people? My appearance fee is too low!

Zhao Chen said unhappily, " One hundred aren't enough? No matter how powerful that number one is, he's only one person, with two hands, and he can't even use the Shadow Clone Technique. How can he fight one hundred? "

At that time, there were only fifteen people or less and there was nothing they could do to Ji Xuanyi!

Xu Chu shook his head and said, " Although Tian Xia Di Yi is very powerful, he cannot defeat a hundred people at once. However, if you send a hundred people to kill him, the cost will be very high. Although Tian Xia Di Yi is a swordsman, he is very fast. He can still escape by running and fighting at the same time. "

" What's more, if there are a hundred people, and they want to take turns to beat him, they need to have fifty people guarding the resurrection point, right? If fifty people fight him, it's hard to say whether they will win or lose. "

Xu Chu only wanted to trick Zhao Chen into sending troops, and since Zhao Chen's personal combat capability was really not that good, and it was hard to tell whether it was real or fake, he simply exaggerated Qi Qin.

Zhaochen really believed it. He frowned and said, " One hundred people are not enough. How many people do you think are needed? "

Xu Chu was not going to be polite with him, and he asked directly: " One thousand people. "

Zhaochen looked at Xuchu with a look of idiocy and said, " One thousand people??? Are you crazy? One thousand people! Am I trying to catch Sun Wukong? "

Xu Chu lied calmly, " That's far from enough . It takes 100,000 heavenly soldiers to capture Sun Wukong, and you only have 1,000. It's far from enough! "

Zhao Chen looked at him expressionlessly and said, " A thousand people is impossible. I can only offer three hundred at most. "

Xu Chu muttered in a mysterious voice, " The two of the three hundred will run away. You have no idea of their strength. The fight is like a fucking martial arts movie, one sword kills one kid, and they can even fly. I don't know how fast they will run. There must be at least five hundred people. We need to surround them tightly. "

The two men bargained back and forth like they were buying cabbages at the vegetable market. In the end, they each made a concession and decided on four hundred.

But to be honest, Xu Chu's initial goal was about four or five hundred. He shouted out a number like one thousand just to shock Zhaochen and play a psychological game. Zhaochen was also an old fox, so how could he not see Xu Chu's calculations? After the decision was made, his face was always not looking good.

Perhaps seeing Zhaochen's displeasure, Xuchu changed his previous nonchalant attitude and said seriously: " It's not that I insist on you sending so many people out to waste your energy. The main reason is that you have never come into contact with the world's number one, and you don't know his methods. If you can't kill him in one go, he will turn over. The barefoot are not afraid of the ones wearing shoes. Not only me, you can't escape either. Didn't Ji Xuanyi's incident prove this truth a long time ago? "

Xu Chu looked at Zhao Chen and said, " Since you are going to do it, you must do it perfectly. Don't you understand the principle that if you fail to kill the snake, you will suffer from it? " This is the truth, but Zhaochen still looks very reluctant. After all, he cannot use the power of the Sanren Gang for such a personal grudge. Four hundred people are neither too many nor too few, but they are all the forces of Xinbancheng. Any loss will be his own. It would be strange that he is willing to do so.

But now that he had come to this point, he could not go back. Zhao Chen lowered his eyes and said, " I understand what you mean. Don't worry, I will definitely do what I promised you. Four hundred people, right? Once the number one in the world comes out, don't even think about going back. "

Xu Chu nodded and said, " You are right to think so. I will play here for two more days and then go to Youyue City. Youyue City's neutral attitude is quite stable . It will not be easy for me to arouse their suspicion when I go back from there. After I go back, I will find a way to trick Ji Xuanyi and Tianxia Diyi out. Then it will be up to you. "

Zhaochen responded, and then couldn't help asking: " How long have you been out? "

Xu Chu was stunned, rolled his eyes, calculated, and said: " About half a month, what's wrong? "

Zhao Chen was somewhat speechless and said, " Will you play for a few more days, then go to Youyue City, and then return to Fanxing City? "

I'm afraid by the time you get to Star City, it'll be New Year's Day!

Xu Chu understood what he meant, hesitated for a moment, and said: " Yes, it seems a bit far , but there is no other way, it can only be done this way. "

Zhaochen asked, " You came out alone, and didn't you tell them when you would be back? "

Xu Chu said: " Yes, I said ten days or half a month. "

Zhaochen looked at him silently.

Xu Chu smiled and said, " Don't worry, not everyone is as young as you. They are used to it and won't doubt it. It would be strange if I went back on time! "

Zhaochen: "...

Is that really the case? The people of Star City are also suffering ...

Zhaochen thought that why Ji Xuanyi didn't beat Xu Chu to death might become a mystery that would haunt him for the rest of his life.

Xu Chu continued to act arrogantly in Yaori City for a few days. He was treated like a Buddha and could ignore people as he pleased. He didn't have to worry about being beaten by Ji Xuanyi. He lived a life like a god and almost didn't want to leave.

In the end, Zhaochen came forward and urged him eight hundred times, buzzing in his ear like a mosquito all day long. Xu Chu couldn't stand it anymore, so he set off for Youyue City.

The dungeon activity was halfway through, and Xu Chu didn't receive any special reception when he arrived in Youyue City. Ye Linyu and the old Western doctor were all floating in the dungeon, and they could not be seen at all.

For the Buddhist players of Youyue City, although their DPS and HPS are not enough, they are patient and can stay in the dungeon for a whole day. If the boss had emotions, they would be the first to get impatient when facing the Youyue City players.

What Xu Chu liked was never the scenery, but the people. The roads in Youyue City were empty and there was no fun to stay there. Xu Chu, who originally wanted to play for a few more days, set off back to Fanxing City in disappointment.

Even when he wasn't deliberately delaying anyone, Xu Chu's speed was still shockingly slow. It took him almost a whole month to get back to Fanxing City.

Although he informed everyone twenty minutes in advance that he would be back soon, no one greeted him at the city gate.

After all, we are all old hands who are used to being delayed, so how can we take Gechu's words seriously? We have to wait at least two more days to see if Xuchu has arrived!

Xu Chu: "..."

Suddenly I miss Sun City!

Xu Chu walked into the city like a pickled vegetable, bent over and listlessly. Just after he took two unsteady steps, he saw four horse legs appear in front of him.

Liu Tian looked at him with a sour face and said, " Are you happy to go out alone? Did you break your legs? "

Xu Chu looked up at him and said, " Stupid Liu Tian, you're here? "

" Fuck! " Liu Tian said angrily, " I waited for you for 20 minutes! And you scolded me! "

After saying that, Liu Tian grabbed Xu Chu and put him on the horse's back, saying, " Where are we going? To the inner city base or to our own base? "

" You actually still believe what I said? " Xu Chu lowered his eyes and said after a long while: " There is a big difference between you and Zuo An. You are much dumber than him. "

" Fuck! Who are you comparing to?! " Liu Tian got angry and said, " Don't compare me to someone who is mentally retarded. If you keep saying that, I will get angry! Let me ask you, should we go back to the gang or to the base? "

Xu Chu stopped talking about Zuo'an and said, " Go to the inner city stronghold. Do you need me to tell you that? I told you that you are an idiot and you still don't believe me. "

" Am I the worm in your stomach? How the hell do I have to know where you want to go?! " Liu Tian was so angry that he screamed and started swearing at Xu Chu on the spot, but the horse under his crotch did not stop and went straight to the inner city stronghold.

While Xu Chu was arguing with the elementary school student Liu Tian, he was thinking to himself that Zhaochen was also unlucky. Not only did he have a problem with his mentality, but he also had to deal with Zuo An. He thought that everyone was the same as him. If he wasn't unlucky, who would be?

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin had just come out of the dungeon, exhausted. They were just about to log off and take a rest when they received a private message saying Xu Chu was back.

Only three out of ten messages from Xu Chu can be believed. If it is related to time, none of them can be believed. Ji Xuanyi didn't want to take it seriously at first, but Xiao Xiao Yuxia had a private chat with him again, and he knew that Xu Chu was probably really back, and Xiao Xiao Yuxia planned to hold a meeting today. He had no choice but to say goodbye to Qi Qin and the twin brothers Yue Tian and Ri Tian, and went to the inner city stronghold.

It's not that Xiaoxiao Yuxia is unwilling to sympathize with Ji Xuanyi, the poor guy who just came out of the dungeon. The main reason is that if she doesn't catch Xu Chu to hold the meeting today, it will be even more difficult to make an appointment with him next time. There is really no other way.

After Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin arrived at the inner city stronghold, they went straight to the conference hall.

Xu Chu was sitting in his seat, arguing with Liu Tian enthusiastically. Ji Xuan took out four bulging bags of devil gold coins from his backpack with an expressionless face and threw them at Xu Chu's head.

Fortunately, Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin were there too, and the two of them caught the gold coins, otherwise Xu Chu would have died in the conference room.

Ji Xuanyi had a cold face, pulled out a chair, sat down, and said, " One month, four CDs , four bags of gold coins, keep them. "

Xu Chu was frightened by Ji Xuanyi. He was still thinking that he owed Ji Xuanyi a lesson. He couldn't help but say, " Wow, you have such a bad temper. No wonder Zhao Chenfei thinks I'm not done with you. "

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows and said, " That's because you haven't seen my really bad temper. You should go to the resurrection point when I enter the door. "

Xu Chu made a " hush " sound and showed a guilty expression.

As for Xu Chu's bad mouth, it just happened that Ji Xuanyi's temper had improved.

Seeing that Ji Xuanyi didn't seem to intend to pursue the previous matter, Xu Chu also stopped while he was ahead, not daring to waste time, and directly asked: " Is everyone here? "

Liu Tian snorted coldly and said, " You are already here, how can you not be together? "

Xu Chu pretended not to hear him and looked around at the people before nodding with satisfaction and telling them what he had experienced during the past month away. Although he had been walking alone for more than twenty days during this month, his conversations with Zhao Chen were enough to amaze everyone.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said with a complicated expression: " When you went out so happily before, I was worried that you were possessed by some strange thing. After all this time, you went out to cause trouble, and you went to Day City to cause trouble. No wonder you were so happy that you even did something like walking for twenty days. I really underestimated your desire to cause trouble ..."

Xu Chu knocked on the table expressionlessly and said, " Friend, can you figure out what the point is? What's wrong with me making trouble? Isn't the point that I screwed over Zhao Chen's group again? "

Speaking of Zhaochen, Jian Xixinjiu couldn't help but be excited. He had pursued Xuemi before, so how could he let go of such a big melon? He immediately leaned forward, stretched his neck, and said gossipyly: " What's going on with Zhaochen? Is he so familiar with Ji Xuanyi, an old friend? And he looks like he wants to target Ji Xuanyi but can't do it. Could it be that he has a crush on you, but can't get you, so he turns love into hate! "

As the words "wash the sword with new wine" were uttered, everyone subconsciously looked towards Ji Xuanyi. Half of the people looked at Ji Xuanyi, and the other half looked at Qi Qin. Ji Xuanyi was almost furious, and if he had not been strong enough, he would have overturned the table on the spot!

But even though Ji Xuanyi didn't overturn the table, the expression on his face was scary enough. After looking around, everyone withdrew their gazes and became silent, not daring to make a sound.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu thought of Ji Xuanyi's cruelty and wished he could go back a few seconds and sew his mouth shut. He stared at the cracks in the bricks in the conference room, not daring to raise his head.

There are plenty of opportunities to clean up the new wine. After everyone quieted down, Ji Xuanyi immediately looked at Qi Qin who was looking aggrieved, and said, "Xu Chu has already told me about this matter. Zhao Chen is probably my old friend, but you have seen his character. He stabbed me so happily at the beginning. You also call this a secret crush on me?"

"His attitude is probably just because he feels guilty," Ji Xuanyi sneered, "He doesn't even dare to say his original name. Who he is and what he wants have nothing to do with me. I have already avenged the hatred and resentment in the past. If he dares to provoke me again, I will never let him go."

After saying that, Ji Xuanyi looked at Qi Qin, opened and closed his lips slightly, and said with his mouth: "I only like you."

Qi Qin blushed and was about to speak when Jian Xi Xin Jiu, who was standing next to him, shouted without any tact and applauded: "Good! Ji Xuanyi said it well!"

Everyone: "..."

It seems that Jian Xi Xin Jiu's lack of a partner is not just due to bad luck!

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly, wanting to kick the man away.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu finally realized that something was wrong and fell silent.

Before Ji Xuanyi could hold back and kill someone, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia quickly tried to smooth things over, saying, "Who is Zhao Chen and what he wants to do to Ji Xuanyi? These are not important. What's important is that we know what action he wants to take, and we can use this to launch a counterattack. If we can kill this man directly, that would be great."

Xu Chu said: "It is unlikely that Zhaochen will be killed directly. After all, this time they just agreed to target Tianxia, and it has nothing to do with Ji Xuanyi. It is unlikely that he will come out in person."

Xiao Xiao Yu thought for a moment and said, "There's nothing we can do about this. It's not him, but only 400 people from Dayo City – no, it should be said that half of the city's people are enough. With this wave of attacks, Dayo City will be fine, but half of the city will be seriously injured. By then, it will be easy for them to have internal turmoil. Didn't those scattered gangs have a fight with them before?"

That's what happened. After the first world mission, Zuo'an got angry and had a conflict with the Sanren gang after returning. However, the Sanren gang was a mob after all. After Zhaochen came back, they immediately fell apart, and even Ji Xuanyi's friends were involved.

Although the Sanren Gang in Youri City now obeys Zhaochen, it is because the strength of Bancheng is too strong. If these 400 people are killed, it will almost weaken the combat effectiveness of Bancheng by one third or even more. It is very likely that the Sanren Gang will want to replace it.

Xu Chu heard this and smiled, saying calmly, " Not four hundred people. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was stunned and said, " Not 400 people? Didn't you just say that you had agreed with him that it would be 400 people? "

Xuchu just smiled and said nothing, but Xiaoxiao Yuxia seemed to understand something after thinking about it. Ji Xuanyi said, " Xuchu is right, it can't be 400 people. "

" Zhao Chen is a man who is too suspicious. He will definitely not send out 400 people just based on Xu Chu's one-sided story. The risk is too great. Once Xu Chu turns against us, these 400 people will be finished. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said: " What should we do? Hasn't he made up his mind to target Ji Xuanyi? And he has already made an agreement with Xu Chu, is it possible that he will only send out one or two hundred people? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and shook his head.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu hadn't figured it out yet, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia frowned and said, " You mean, he might just send out seven or eight hundred people? "

Ji Xuanyi chuckled and said, " If there is an ambush, 400 people are free, so are 100 or 200 people also free? Will he just swallow the loss? He told Xuchu that there are only 400 people, but in fact he will send at least 600 people. It would be good if Xuchu is sincere in cooperation, and his plan to encircle and kill Tianxia will be more secure . But if Xuchu wants to turn against us, the number of people we will send here is about 500 to 600. The people he sends can fight with us. If there are 700 to 800, they can even kill us , which is even better. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu finally reacted after hearing this and said, " He thinks so much? "

" What else? " Xu Chu shook his head helplessly and said, " Do you still think you are dealing with Zuo An? "

Jian Xixinjiu smacked his lips, not wanting to say that he actually had no idea what was going on in Zuo An's mind.

However, he would not be laughed at for saying this. Among those present, perhaps only Jing Yunhan and Liu Tian could get a glimpse of Zuo An's thought process. It was normal that he didn't know. Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu didn't know either!

Xiao Xiaoyu nodded and said, " Zhao Chen is indeed much harder to deal with than Zuo An. What Xu Chu and Ji Xuanyi said is quite possible. No, it should be said that the other party will definitely do this. But correspondingly, if we want to deal with at least 600 and at most 800 people, we have to spare at least 800 people. If there are more, it will be in the four digits. "

The three major gangs actually have no shortage of internal personnel. After all, they have three gangs with four to five thousand internal members. However, to mobilize so many people, not to mention the time it takes, it will also cause a lot of noise.

Xu Chu said, " I can't do anything about this. Zhao Chen won't believe me if I try to evade him, but I can help delay the process. He's counting on me to pry open everyone here. I'm good at making up lies and making up stories. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia nodded and said, " Okay, then you can drag it out. We'll spend more time on this side and try to get the team together quietly ... But there's a problem. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia frowned and said, " You told Zhao Chen to find an excuse to trick Ji Xuanyi out. Have you thought of a specific excuse? Zhao Chen will definitely ask in advance. An excuse that is too contrived will definitely not work. Zhao Chen knows Ji Xuanyi very well, and he will definitely see through it. "

Everyone pondered for a long time, and Jian Xixinjiu said: " Is it possible that Ji Xuan will go out with Tianxia to see the scenery ..."

Xiao Xiaoyu thought subconsciously: " Don't they both enjoy the scenery every day? "

Ji Xuan looked at him, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia coughed twice and changed the topic: " What I mean is, this is too accidental. They couldn't have been sent out by us to see the scenery. We can't let Xu Chu tell Zhan Chen that he calculated with his fingers that they would go out to see the scenery that day, right? "

This is also the reason why Zhaochen could not arrange manpower in advance.

Liu Tian thought about it and said seriously: " Then we said we lied to them that there was a treasure outside! They believed it and went treasure hunting together! "

Everyone: "..."

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " Don't think my IQ is the same as yours. You think I can't go to school just because I can. "

Liu Tian didn't dare to call Ji Xuan a fool, Qi Qin was still sitting next to him! He could only curl his lips, snort, and stop talking.

Everyone pondered for a while, and Xu Chu spoke slowly.

" Although I think this is not a good idea, since none of you can find a good excuse, I have to do it, " Xu Chu sighed, and imagined in his mind the situation where Ji Xuanyi took the opportunity to take revenge. He said, " I deliberately pissed off Ji Xuanyi, and he ended up hunting me down. How about this plot? "

When everyone heard this, they almost applauded for this flawless and legitimate excuse! But before that, everyone couldn't help but look at the other protagonist of this scene, Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi seemed very calm. He ate a piece of fruit slowly and said, " This is a very good reason. After all, it is something I have wanted to do for a long time. But there is a problem. If you piss me off, why would you run out of the city? "

Xu Chu: "..."

Ji Xuanyi wiped his hands, looked at Xu Chu seriously, and said, " Shouldn't I have killed him in the city? "

Ji Xuanyi said " press " very forcefully, and everyone felt pain in their bodies when they heard it, and they all looked at Xu Chu again.

Xu Chu's face also turned green! He swallowed his saliva, then looked at Liu Tian and said, " I don't only have two legs. "

Liu Tian's eyes twitched: " This is the only time you can think of me. "

Xu Chu shook his head seriously and said, " I'm not thinking about you, I'm thinking about your horse. Don't be so self-indulgent. "

Six days: "..."

The two people almost started a fight in public.

But this excuse is enough to fool Zhaochen ...

It's more than enough! If it were someone else, Zhaochen might even get suspicious, Xuchu! Wow, this person's ability to commit suicide is so strong that anyone would want to beat him to death, not to mention the hot-tempered Ji Xuanyi. Why Ji Xuanyi hasn't beaten Xuchu to death until now has become a question in Zhaochen's mind!

When Xuchu told Zhaochen about this plan, Zhaochen simply slammed the table and said that your plan is so damn reliable! It is simply perfect. If you act like a jerk, Ji Xuanyi will be so angry that he will lose his mind. Not only will he chase you out of the city, chase you out of the server, and even out of the game!

Xu Chu: "..."

Zhaochen's words made Xu Chu fall into deep thought.

How many lives had he escaped from Ji Xuanyi's hands when he didn't know? Fortunately, Ji Xuanyi's temper had improved, otherwise he would have returned to Novice Town by now. No matter what, Xu Chu was still alive and safe. He did not return to the Novice Town or go to the hospital. After discussing some details with Zhao Chen that would attract Ji Xuanyi's hatred, the two had an in-depth discussion on the ambush location, number of people, and layout. Of course, Xu Chu only believed half of what Zhao Chen said. Compared with the other party's expressed wishes, Xu Chu believed more in the results he inferred from the other party's mentality.

The two men had their own ulterior motives and said a lot of things. Except for the part where Xu Chu was ready to sacrifice himself to lure Ji Xuanyi to kill him, which deeply resonated with Zhaochen, no one on either side took the rest of the words seriously and they all planned to do what they wanted.

But Xu Chu didn't care much about this. If you try to get the skin of a tiger, does it depend on the tiger? Of course, it depends on your own ability. Whoever can plan one step further will be the winner.

Zhao Chen said, "I have been preparing for this since you left Day City. Now, almost all the people have been gathered. You don't need any preparation to piss off Ji Xuanyi. Can we start right away during this period?"

What Xu Chu was worried about happened. He had not thought of it before and went to Youyue City for a walk with the intention of having fun. But when he arrived in Fanxing City and discussed the matter with Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others, he suddenly realized that he had provided Zhaochen with a big handle.

It took Xu Chu ten days to travel from Yuri City to Youyue City and then to Fanxing City. These ten days became a very advantageous time difference for Zhao Chen. They had not started preparing yet, but Zhao Chen had already started gathering people. If he wanted to give Xiao Xiaoyu and the others time to prepare, Xu Chu had to delay.

But the first thing Xu Chu thought of was not how to delay or how to give a sufficient reason. After all, his reputation as the pigeon king was now well-known throughout the Sun City, so it was normal for him to drop off the line and not come back.

His first reaction after Zhaochen said this was, Zhaochen is ready? How many people can he gather in ten days? The mobility of game players is not as good as that of office workers, and even the gang members are not good enough. Can four hundred people be gathered in ten days? Is Zhaochen really planning to send only these people? Or is this just a test?

But it is interesting to play with people like this. If the opponents are all like Zuo An, then it would be no different from playing house.

Xu Chu couldn't help but smile and replied, " Of course I'm available anytime, but Ji Xuanyi can't. You know about this event, right? He's been in the dungeon the whole time, and I can't see him at all. He doesn't reply to my private chats at all. I can't block him at the entrance of the dungeon. That's too deliberate. At least I have to wait until he finishes his CDs for this week , then he'll probably pay attention to me. "

This is indeed what Ji Xuanyi would do. He is arbitrary and will not pay any attention to others. Only after he has finished his own work will he give you his attention as a alms.

After Xu Chu finished speaking, Zhaochen fell silent. It was unclear whether he was lost in memories or something else.

Chapter 154

Xu Chu's skill of procrastination was so perfect, coupled with his own dodging personality , it turned out that every excuse he made seemed so logical.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia expressed her admiration for Xuchu , and Xuchu said modestly: " It's all thanks to everyone's practice with me . Without you as my practice partners , I wouldn't be able to be so confident and flawless in my practice. "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Xiao Xiao Yuxia said seriously: " There is no need to find other excuses. Just tell Ji Xuanyi this sentence, and he will really chase you out of the city. "

Xu Chu: "... Then let's not do that. If he can't hold back and turns his fake behavior into reality, you probably won't be able to see me again. "

Xiao Xiaoyu said expressionlessly: " It sounds like good news. "

Xu Chu sometimes couldn't help but wonder whether it was Sun City that had more malice towards him , or Star City that had more malice towards him.

If Zhaochen were here, he would definitely tell Xu Chu seriously that it is the same, you deserve a beating no matter where you are , there is no need to compare.

In short, with Xu Chu's trickery, he finally succeeded in dragging the time until the staff of Fanxing City were ready. Then he pretended to inform Xu Chu , telling him that the high-level personnel of the three major gangs in Fanxing City had been persuaded by him during this period of time, and once the number one in the world was deposed, Ji Xuanyi would be immediately expelled from Fanxing City.

Zhaochen didn't comment, but just asked him when he would start.

Xu Chu thought for a moment and said, " You still have to rush over from Day City, so let's do it the day after tomorrow. "

Zhaochen asked: " When is the day after tomorrow? "

Xu Chu said, " It was one o'clock in the afternoon. The sun was at its highest at this time. Ji Xuanyi was about to log off to eat. When he was hot and hungry, his temper was at its worst. He would explode at one o'clock. "

Zhao Chen had to admit that Xu Chu was really talented at making people angry. He nodded and said, " Let's do it this time. Don't be late again. This is a rare opportunity. If you miss this opportunity, it won't be so easy for me to arrange manpower again. "

Although players are willing to contribute to collective activities, if you fail to show up, no one will be willing to come again the second time.

When Xu Chu heard this, he couldn't help but want to postpone it again, but after thinking about it, he thought that trust could be regained by some means, so it would be more useful to directly reduce the combat effectiveness. So he forced himself to hold back and said, " I've never been late for anything , don't worry! "

Of course Zhaochen agreed.

The place Xu Chu and Zhao Chen booked together was a location outside the northwest area of Fanxing City.

Outside the northwest area of Star City is a large wasteland. In addition to the flat ground suitable for knights to charge, there are waist-high wild grass on both sides, which are very suitable for hiding. As long as people hide in the grass, no one can see any problem. It is a good place for ambush and counter-ambush.

Zhaochen didn't like this place at first. After all, they had failed here last time, and it left Zhaochen with very bad memories. But after all, this was indeed a very good ambush site. After thinking it over again and again, Zhaochen finally agreed.

Xu Chu couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief. Apart from the northwest area, there was really no other place that could hide so many people. If Zhao Chen insisted on moving to another place, it would be really difficult to deal with.

In short, the matter was settled. On the agreed day, Xu Chu kept in touch with Zhao Chen throughout the whole process and broadcast the conversation live to others.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin went to the northwest area to prepare for the performance. Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Jianxi Xinjiu were busy running around arranging personnel. Liutian and Jing Yunhan, two mentally retarded children, were like idiots, watching the broadcast given to them by Xuchu while cracking melon seeds.

At one o'clock in the afternoon, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were shopping and sightseeing in the northwest district. Qi Qin didn't know how Xu Chu would come later, and seemed a little nervous.

" What if I made a mistake and failed to stop myself, and ended up beating Xu Chu to death? " Qi Qin said worriedly.

Ji Xuanyi grabbed a handful of melon seeds and said calmly while eating them: " Just beat him to death, he should have died a long time ago. "

It was unknown whether it was because Guazi was angry or because he was really hungry due to the hot weather, but after Ji Xuanyi finished speaking, he couldn't help but sneered again and said, " If it was the old me, would he still be able to jump around until now? "

Qi Qin hurriedly whispered in Ji Xuanyi's ear: " Calm down, Xuanyi, Xuchu hasn't come yet, don't be angry now! "

After hearing this, Ji Xuan barely suppressed his anger.

Qi Qin carefully walked with Ji Xuanyi for a while, hoping that Ji Xuanyi could calm down.

But this is obviously impossible. After all, it's getting hotter and hungrier the longer he walks. Ji Xuanyi's mood will only get worse and worse. There is no possibility of him calming down! Qi Qin vaguely discovered this and just hoped that Xu Chu could come earlier, maybe he could still save his life.

At this moment, not knowing whether Qi Qin's prayers moved heaven and earth, Xu Chu actually appeared in front of Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin sitting on a six-day horse.

According to the original script, Liu Tian should come jogging over, Xu Chu should bend down and whisper something in Ji Xuanyi's ear, and then Liu Tian should run away immediately.

But when Liu Tian was halfway there, he saw Ji Xuanyi with a gloomy face. He threw the melon seeds in his hand to the ground, clapped his hands, rolled up his sleeves, and strode towards them.

Liu Tian's hair stood up on his back, and he said to Xu Chu behind him: " Why do I feel like something is wrong? Did you secretly talk to Ji Xuanyi? Don't trick me, or we'll all die together! "

" What are you talking about? Why should I have a secret chat with Ji Xuanyi? What's wrong? " Xu Chu said as he poked his head out from behind Liu Tian.

The moment he met Ji Xuanyi's gaze, Xu Chu understood what Liu Tian meant.

The desire to survive made Xu Chu hit Liu Tian hard and shouted: " Fuck it, run! Ji Xuanyi is angry! "

Upon hearing this, Liu Tian immediately turned around and ran away, saying as he ran: " How could he be angry if you didn't provoke him! You must have secretly chatted with him and wanted to plot against me! "

Xu Chu cursed: " Am I fucking sick! I was sitting on your horse and plotting against you! I didn't even open my mouth, okay?! "

Liu Tiandao: " It could only be that he has been pent up with anger for a long time, and he has been suppressing the urge to beat you to death every day, but today he didn't have to suppress it and just exploded directly. "

Xu Chu was surprised and asked, " You have been angry for a long time, how could you know so much? "

Liu Tian said calmly, " Because I have had this feeling for a long time. For example, right now, I really want to throw you off the horse. "

Xu Chu slapped him on the back of the head and said, " Fuck! Throwing me down has wasted all the preparations for half a month! Run! Tianxia and Ji Xuanyi are chasing us! "

In a flash , Qi Qin hugged Ji Xuanyi and leaped directly to Liu Tian's horse with a heavy slash. The Sword of Ares chopped down along Liu Tian's arm, smashing a large piece of the floor tiles of Star City!

Liu Tian was so frightened that he twitched, kicked the horse's belly, and rushed out with Xu Chu, cursing loudly: " Fuck! Are you serious? "

Qi Qin showed an apologetic expression. He had been very restrained. If he didn't even try to scare them, Ji Xuanyi would really confront him later.

In comparison, Qi Qin of course chose to let Xu Chu and Liu Tian suffer the loss.

However, Liu Tian was almost scared to run away. It was only after Xu Chu reminded him that he remembered his mission. He controlled his speed so that Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin could keep up with them but without letting Ji Xuanyi beat the two of them to death.

In this way, the four people chased each other and rushed out of the northwest gate of Fanxing City, heading straight for the ambush place agreed upon by Xu Chu and Zhao Chen.

Because he needed to leave some space for Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others to deploy personnel, Xu Chu set the location very far outside.

Seeing that there was still a long way to go, when Qi Qin's weapon brushed past Xu Chu for the umpteenth time, Xu Chu looked at Ji Xuanyi's expression and couldn't help but said to Ji Xuanyi: "Lululu, I can't catch it!"

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi's eyes flashed with a fierce light! Xu Chu immediately felt something was wrong, but before he could react, Ji Xuanyi took out his staff!

"Fuck! Don't!" Xu Chu had just finished shouting when he saw an almost invisible ray of light shooting out from Ji Xuanyi's staff and accurately hitting Liu Tian, who had no idea that Xu Chu was suddenly trying to commit suicide.

Liu Tian froze, and the horse under his crotch stopped instantly. The huge inertia threw Liu Tian and Xu Chu out directly. They fell to the ground with a loud bang and were knocked unconscious.

Xu Chu bumped into Liu Tian's armor and almost lost blood. He opened his eyes dizzy and saw Ji Xuanyi standing in front of him with an expressionless face.

Xu Chu: "... Okay, good man, spare my life!"

It was obviously useless to beg for mercy after the trick. Xu Chu was just about to remind Ji Xuanyi that it was not easy to lose the big picture for the small one in order to beat him up, when he heard a familiar voice saying, "You are really punctual. I thought you were going to be late again."

The four people present were all stunned and turned their heads to look. They saw Zhao Chen pulling away the grass with a smile on his face and walking out. His eyes were fixed on Ji Xuanyi. Half of the city's players appeared one after another behind him. There were at least four or five hundred of them. Together with the people at the resurrection point, there were at least eight hundred people, if not a thousand.

As expected, he brought extra people with him, and set out in advance, appearing in front of the location agreed upon with Xu Chu!

Ji Xuanyi frowned, and Qi Qin immediately stood in front of him.

Zhaochen's vision was blocked. He glanced at Qi Qin and then slowly looked at Xu Chu again.

Zhaochen suddenly changed his plan. Xuchu's expression did not change, but he showed a little surprise. He looked at Zhaochen and the people behind him, then spread his hands helplessly and said, "It seems that you don't believe me. I have brought the people to you. You are really making me sad."

Xu Chu had expected Zhaochen to bring more people with him. There were only so many people who could be organized quietly inside Fanxing City, and it was really not easy to round up Zhaochen. In the end, they could only adopt the strategy of sending some people to the most important resurrection point first, and then quickly organizing people to the ambush point outside the city after confirming that Zhaochen had gone outside the city and the news was cut off. After all, Xu Chu could delay Zhaochen's side for a while.

But what Xu Chu didn't expect was that this guy Zhao Chen even changed the location and time, and stopped him and Ji Xuanyi in advance. This was very embarrassing. The people at the resurrection point should have just arrived, and the rest of the people who should come here are still gathering in the city!

It's up to Xu Chu to take on the responsibility alone!

As soon as Liu Tian saw Zhaochen, he couldn't control his urge to curse. Xu Chu knew him well, and just a look made Liu Tian calm down.

Generally speaking, Liu Tian shouldn't have bought into Xu Chu's account, but before he came out, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia and Jian Xi Xin Jiu took turns brainwashing Liu Tian, saying things like "a little impatience can ruin a big plan" and "do you want to learn from Zuo An?" Liu Tian, in order not to be on the same level as Zuo An, immediately patted his chest and said, "Isn't it just playing dumb? I just looked at Xu Chu the whole time and didn't say anything! Leave it to me!" Now that I remembered the promise, I was able to hold back.

Liu Tian still has a strong sense of shame and is determined not to be classified as the same kind of person as Zuo An.

Although Ji Xuanyi was angry, he was also very sensible. He still had some acting skills when he needed to. When he saw Zhaochen, he was confused and surprised. After hearing Xuchu's words, he became sick. He suppressed his anger and sadness, pointed at Xuchu in disbelief and asked: " What are you talking about? You?! And him?! He is Zhaochen! He is from Dayo City. How are you connected to him?! "

Before Xu Chu had the chance to act out a scene with Ji Xuan, a tragic scene of friends turning against each other, he heard Zhao Chen saying, " Why can't he contact me? "

Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu looked at Zhaochen at the same time.

It would be impossible to say that there was no sense of incongruity at all. Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu did not study acting professionally. Zhao Chen actually felt vaguely that something was wrong in his heart. But as soon as he saw Ji Xuanyi and the negative emotions on his face, he immediately became excited and completely forgot about that sense of incongruity!

" Ji Xuanyi, " Zhaochen almost couldn't wait to call out the name: " You should know, isn't it normal for someone like you to be betrayed? After all, you've already experienced it once, why don't you learn from it? "

When Ji Xuan heard this, his expression changed instantly. If he was pretending to be heartbroken just now, now he was really furious.

He still doesn't know who this Zhaochen is. He only knows that no matter who this Zhaochen is, he will never be able to walk out of here safely!

Although Zhaochen spoke provocatively and loudly, he was still afraid when he saw the look in Ji Xuanyi's eyes. He subconsciously took a step back, then he remembered that Ji Xuanyi could not kill anyone now. He quickly stood back and looked at Ji Xuanyi with gritted teeth.

Qi Qin was afraid that Ji Xuanyi would be sad again because of the past events, so he stayed by Ji Xuanyi's side every day as if he was guarding a precious gem. But Zhao Chen was so tactless that he talked nonsense in front of Ji Xuanyi at this time, so Qi Qin immediately wanted to kill him.

Zhaochen was probably on edge because of Ji Xuanyi's presence, and he immediately sensed Qi Qin's murderous intent. Without any hesitation, he waved his hand and wanted to get half of the people in the city to surround him.

Right here, Xu Chu hurriedly shouted: "Wait, wait, wait! I haven't come over yet. If you wait until I come over before you do anything, you might accidentally hurt me too!"

When Xu Chu said this, Zhao Chen suddenly remembered something. He slowed down his movements and showed an annoyed look on his face. Seeing this, Xu Chu immediately seized the opportunity and ran towards Zhao Chen. Just when Liu Tian was hesitating whether to follow him, Xu Chu had already trotted into the camp area of Bancheng.

Zhaochen ignored Xu Chu at all. Even though he was a rookie and couldn't tell how good a master was, he still knew how bad a rookie was. In his opinion, Xu Chu posed no threat to him. He came with a healer, so if it was an assassin or some other explosive profession, it would be fine. But what was there to be afraid of a mage?

Zhao Chen struggled to look at Ji Xuanyi, his expression extremely ugly.

This was not his original plan.

Xu Chu's words were ambiguous, and it was absolutely impossible to tell exactly how much was true and how much was false. He could only strike first and take control of the rhythm in his own hands, which led to a situation that was completely different from the plan Xu Chu had formulated at the beginning.

But it shouldn't be like this now.

He really wanted Ji Xuanyi to be betrayed by the people in Fanxing City, but he shouldn't be standing here now. He should stand up after everything is over. He should let Ji Xuanyi know that it was Ji Xuanyi who was wrong. Everyone would betray him under the same circumstances. He shouldn't be as cruel as he was at the beginning.

Then he mercifully accepted the desperate Ji Xuanyi into Yaori City and told him that Zhaochen had forgiven him, and that Ji Xuanyi should remember his magnanimity. Then they reconciled and were still the same as they were three years ago. As long as Ji Xuanyi restrained his edge and was no longer so dazzling, they could still be good friends.

But he couldn't stand here and let Ji Xuanyi know that the person who attacked him and the number one in the world was Zhaochen. If that happened, Ji Xuanyi would never be willing to reconcile with him no matter what.

But Zhaochen had no choice. He had no choice. As soon as he heard Ji Xuanyi's name and saw Ji Xuanyi, he could not suppress the impulse in his heart. He wanted to come out and show off in front of Ji Xuanyi and see his frustrated look. It seemed that only in this way could Zhaochen feel better and feel that he was not so unbearable.

No one knew what was in Zhaochen's mind, including Xu Chu, who had been talking to him for so long. He only knew that Zhaochen wanted to take revenge on Ji Xuanyi, but he didn't know that Zhaochen actually held the ridiculous idea of going back to the past with Ji Xuanyi.

But it's a good thing not to know about this stupid thought, at least it won't disgust yourself.

From Xu Chu's perspective, he only knew that Zhaochen suddenly became dazed and then revealed a flaw.

If you don't exploit the flaws, you wouldn't be Xu Chu!

Xu Chu stood behind Zhao Chen with a smile, feeling itchy for the scene that would appear next. As soon as Ji Xuan saw Xu Chu's position, he understood what he wanted to do. In addition, the anger in his heart was not so pure, and even carried a bit of helplessness and sadness. At this time, he actually calmed down.

Ji Xuanyi pulled Qi Qin away, looked at Zhao Chen quietly, and said: " I still don't know who you are. "

Zhaochen came back to his senses and was about to speak, but Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " Don't say anything. In my opinion, it doesn't matter who you are. "

" You do know me well in the past, but I am different now, and the people around me are also different from you in the past. "

Ji Xuanyi held Qi Qin's hand, smiled gently, and said: " No one will betray me. All my friends trust me and are loyal to me, and so am I. "

" Sorry, before you could make a move, the Ji Xuanyi of the past was gone, " Ji Xuanyi looked at Zhaochen, who looked bewildered, and said loudly, " Xu Chu, how long are you going to wait! "

Zhaochen was stunned and looked back subconsciously. Xuchu, the newbie, had just taken out the assassin's weapon, the Assassin's dagger, from his backpack. He was trembling and didn't know how to hold it. When Ji Xuan yelled at him, he immediately closed his eyes and stabbed Zhaochen in the back.

Who would have thought that it was a coincidence that Zhaochen turned around and hit Xuchu's hand with his elbow. Xuchu, a mage with just double-digit strength, failed to grab the dagger and watched the artifact slip out of his hand.

Ji Xuanyi originally played the role of an assassin, and he almost vomited blood when he saw this scene. He wanted to rush up and beat Xu Chu up, and then do it himself. Unfortunately, he was slower than Qi Qin, and it was obvious that he could not catch up.

It happened in a flash . Just when Xu Chu was about to be taken down by Zhao Chen who had reacted quickly before he could even take out his staff, the air around him and Zhao Chen suddenly twisted. A hand caught the artifact that was almost falling to the ground, and then stabbed the dagger directly into Zhao Chen's waist at a very tricky angle.

Before Zhaochen could even say a word, the special effect of the artifact was triggered. He turned into a beam of white light and flew towards the resurrection point.

Mi Yin touched the artifact reluctantly, then stuffed it back into Xu Chu's hands. Her habit of being a teacher came back, and she took the time to explain: " Hold the dagger like this. You see, if you hold it like this, you can use it from many angles, and it won't fall easily. You can stab, poke, or slash like this. In short, you don't need to worry too much about the damage of the dagger itself, as long as you attack from behind and trigger the special effect, it's fine! "

Xu Chu was so upset that he couldn't help but say, " Although I am very grateful that you saved my life, can you please consider the situation before you do such a thing? "

Mi Yin also reacted at this time, looked at Ji Xuanyi who was standing not far away , smiled at him and said: " I have always been worried that you would feel sad because of the past. After hearing what you said today, I am finally relieved. "

He didn't feel it in front of Zhao Chen, but when Mi Yin said that, his words suddenly had an inexplicable sense of middle school. Ji Xuan suddenly felt ashamed, his face flushed, and he said angrily: " Shut up! It's none of your business! "

Mi Yin smiled kindly and was about to say something, but half of the players in the city couldn't stand it anymore.

Fuck! He just stabbed our leader to death, and instead of being afraid of these ambushes, he is now putting on a weird little show! Do they think they are all dead? This is unbearable!

Zhaochen sent a message that no one surrounded here today should be let go. Half of the players in the city immediately rushed up and launched an attack on everyone.

Needless to say, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin's opponents were no match for most ordinary players, as they could not withstand more than two hits from Qi Qin. Liu Tian was not so bad too, although he was still very weak after getting on his horse, but few melee fighters dared to step forward after a few random kicks. Even though there were ranged players throwing skills at them, with Ji Xuanyi around, no one would die for the time being.

The problem lies on Mi Yin's side. As an assassin and a master, he is certainly not afraid of this kind of situation. The difficulty lies in the fact that there is a rookie Xu Chu beside him. Xu Chu is a mage who can only stand still and cast skills. Mi Yin himself is a squishy and cannot cover him at all.

Just when Xu Chu was thinking that at worst he would die a level, and when he returned to the resurrection point everyone would be theirs, and there was absolutely no chance of them suffering any loss, a man on a white horse suddenly cut a path and rushed to their side.

It's snowing on earth!

Mi Yin breathed a sigh of relief, patted Xu Chu's shoulder, and said, " I don't have any skills left. Just hold on for two seconds. I'm leaving. "

After saying that, he immediately turned invisible and slowed down his skills.

In a pvp fight, the situation changed too quickly. Xu Chu didn't react at all. He didn't hear clearly what Mi Yin said. Xue Piao Renjian had already arrived. The horse under his crotch raised its hoof and kicked away the assassin who was about to attack Xu Chu. He then waved his gun to force away an archer who was standing nearby. He reached out and picked up Xu Chu, who had been dragging Mi Yin down for a long time, and was about to put him on the back of his horse.

Liu Tian saw it from afar and immediately said in displeasure: " This way! "

He had long seen that Xue Piao Renjian, who was also a knight but a rookie and a master, was unhappy. Now this man wanted to take his mount, how could he just give it up like that? !

Xue Piao Renjian had no idea what this man was thinking. When he heard Liu Tian make this request, he waved his hand without changing his expression and threw Xu Chu directly towards Liu Tian.

What a loss! They were several meters apart! If Xu Chu hadn't replaced his equipment after Xue Piao Renjian came to Fanxing City, he wouldn't have been able to perform such a move with his previous strength attribute.

Poor Xu Chu never expected that he would be treated like this after changing someone's equipment. He was completely shocked and screamed subconsciously when he was thrown out.

There were also six days who were called out at the same time. He thought Xue Piao Renjian would pick up Xu Chu and hand it to him like a plastic bag, but he never expected Xue Piao Renjian to be so stunned! He just threw Xu Chu over like that!

He can't fucking catch it!

Liu Tian controlled the horse awkwardly, stretching out his two hands, moving two steps to the left, two steps to the right, walking forward and backward, and finally watched helplessly as Xu Chu fell heavily on his buttocks!

" Fuck! " Xu Chu didn't know whether to cover his waist or his butt. Although the pain was reduced due to the game settings, it was still very embarrassing!

Xu Chu cursed: " Fuck! What the hell are you doing?! "

Xue Piao Renjian was also very puzzled, so puzzled that he even spoke: " Why are you moving? "

This is talking about Liu Tian. If Liu Tian didn't move, according to Xue Piao Renjian's prediction, Xu Chu would have fallen directly on Liu Tian. Liu Tian took a few blind steps and threw Xu Chu to the ground.

The expression "Snow is falling on earth" is really confusing, but although Xuchu didn't understand it, Liutian, who made the mistake, did. Without waiting for Xuchu to lose his temper, he immediately came up to Xuchu and pulled him up, saying righteously, " Now is not the time to discuss these trivial matters. We should beat them back quickly. Where are Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others?! "

Mi Yin showed up and said, " I left first, and Xue Piao went to meet Xiao Xiao and Yu Xia. Now Xue Piao is here, and the people behind must be here soon! "

Xue Piao Renjian nodded when he heard this, confirming Mi Yin's speculation.

" Just hold on for a little longer, " Ji Xuanyi stuffed a big red pill into his mouth, while adding blood to everyone, he said: " Xiao Xiaoyuxia just sent a message that the resurrection point has been controlled by us, Jian Xi Xinjiu will lead people here soon. "

However, it is easy to say "hold on for a while" but difficult to do. Half of the players in the city have discovered that the group of people they surrounded are all masters. Fighting in close combat is thankless and laborious. Although there is no command, everyone has tacitly retreated together and very cunningly let the ranged players who were covered at the back attack Ji Xuanyi and his group.

Xue Piao Renjian, Qi Qin and the others were fine. Liu Tian blocked Xu Chu behind him and he was hit by several skills without realizing it.

Ji Xuanyi was losing blood while healing others, and his face turned green from giving blood transfusions to the rookie duo of Liu Tian and Xu Chu.

Qi Qin was also very distressed, but he couldn't teach Liu Tian how to become a master, so he had to put away the Sword of Ares, and took out the Guardian with a larger sword body, protecting Ji Xuanyi and retreating to Liu Tian and Xu Chu, and said concisely: " Dismount! "

No matter how stupid Liu Tian was, he could tell what he meant. He immediately got off the horse and hid behind Qi Qin with Xu Chu.

Seeing this, Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin also tacitly went around to the direction behind Qi Qin and launched an attack on the players who surrounded half of the city.

Although some of the people in Xinbancheng are newcomers who have just entered the main city, there are also many old people who know Xue Piao Renjian. When they saw the two masters Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin rushing towards them, they became scared and retreated before they even started fighting.

Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin drove all the people to the front, making Qi Qin's back extremely safe.

Half of the city's archers and mages were still throwing skills at them from a distance . What was even more speechless was that there were even some priests' Holy Light Orbs mixed in. It was simply too much!

However, no matter whether it was the skills of the archers and mages or the holy light ball of the priest, with the cover of the guardian, basically only a few of them could hit everyone, and Ji Xuanyi's pressure was suddenly reduced.

Jianxi Xinjiu's side was also very powerful. Since the ambush area outside the city was originally planned to be arrived later, all the troops organized this time were cavalry. Although they were of varying quality, it was still easy for seven or eight hundred cavalry to repel the mismatched group of five hundred people.

Ji Xuanyi, Qi Qin and their men could only hold out for three minutes before the sound of cavalry hooves shook the ground. It seemed as if the people in half of the city had received some orders. Just as Jian Xi Xin Jiu and his men were about to arrive, the people in half of the city immediately began to evacuate.

Originally, this drama was performed to target these half of the city's population. How could Jianxi Xinjiu let them go? He didn't even have time to say hello to Ji Xuanyi and others who passed by, and he led his men to chase after them.

Only when half of the players in the city and the cavalry led by Jianxi Xinjiu had all run away did everyone breathe a sigh of relief.

Ji Xuan, who had the most exercise besides Qi Qin, sat down on the ground, not forgetting to stuff himself with another mouthful of red pill.

Xu Chu also reacted at this time, frowned, and was about to speak, but Mi Yin, who had already seen Xu Chu's miserable buttocks, climbed onto Xue Piao Renjian's horse with a dry laugh and said, " We still need to help check if there are any fish that have slipped through the net, so we will go ahead and you guys chat ..."

After saying that, regardless of the fact that Xue Piao Renjian was still frowning in confusion, Mi Yin patted him on the back and whispered, " Are you stupid? Go away! "

Xue Piao Renjian still didn't understand why he was stupid, but when Mi Yin asked him to go, he pursed his lips, rode away in silence.

Xu Chu saw that the two men had found excuses to leave, so he could only turn his attention to the other instigator, Liu Tian.

Six days: "..."

Liu Tian said seriously: " You guys chat first, I'll go help too-- "

" Help your sister! " Xu Chu slapped Liu Tian on the head, and the two immediately started fighting like elementary school students.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

I don't bother with these two people.

Ji Xuanyi was just about to invite Qi Qin back to the city when he saw that the other party was looking at him silently.

" What's wrong? " Ji Xuanyi asked curiously.

Qi Qin couldn't help but laugh. He said, " I've always been worried that Xuan Yi would be sad because of what happened in the past and would not be willing to treat others sincerely in the future. I still remember when I first met you, you seemed to have thorns on your body. You didn't care about anything. You would prick anyone who wanted to get close to you before you would talk to them. "

Ji Xuan felt a little uncomfortable when he heard this and said, " What a lousy metaphor! "

Qi Qin said: " Xuan Yi seems to have changed without you noticing. Those things will no longer affect you. That's great. "

Ji Xuan glanced at him, but in the end he was too embarrassed to speak.

He wanted to say, why are you saying this now? Aren't you a bunch of idiots the reason why I'm like this now?

Chapter 155

Although there were some unexpected events during this operation, the final result was still good.

Just as Xu Chu expected , the average level of half the city dropped by about five or six levels after the battle . Although some people in Starry City accidentally returned to the resurrection point in the melee , the total level drop of all people did not exceed double digits , so it can be said that they made a big profit.

The only regrettable thing was that Zhaochen was not pushed back to level 20 , but ran away under the cover of other players in the city after dying twice. After all, he was a knight, and his horse was pretty good. After he ran away, only three people in Fanxing City could catch up with him , but these three people were either not there , or were dragged down, or they might not be able to beat him even if they caught up, so in the end they could only watch Zhaochen leave.

" Wow, the leader of the gang is running away in this situation? " Jing Yunhan screamed, " If I were Bancheng, I would curse him to death! Shouldn't the leader lead the way at a time like this , and die with everyone else?! "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia touched the little idiot's head lovingly and smiled without saying a word.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said helplessly: " Don't mention it. If you were from Bancheng , you would have been fooled by Zhao Chen and lost your way! "

What Jing Yunhan said was actually correct . The guilds in online games are all about loyalty. Anyone who deserts the battlefield like Zhaochen would be called a coward!

But the strange thing is that no one knows what kind of love potion Zhaochen had used on the players in Bancheng. When Xiaoxiao Yuxia was leading people to bury the resurrection point, the players in Bancheng found that they could not win , and they all became crazy and insisted on letting Zhaochen go first. Zhaochen was stimulated by Ji Xuanyi at that time, and he could not react at first. He was forcibly put on the horse and then ran away.

Xu Chu was so upset that he said, " How can there be such a mentally retarded person? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia sighed: " It would be great if the members of our three major gangs were all so selfless. "

After saying this, he also looked at the group of people sitting at the conference table.

Everyone booed in unison , and Liu Tian even threw a fruit at him to coax him off the stage.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia caught the fruit that had broken off her breastplate, put it into her mouth nonchalantly, took a bite, and sat down while chewing.

Putting Zhaochen's matter aside, he suffered a double blow this time, both physically and mentally. He probably won't be able to recover in a short period of time, and it is estimated that he will not make any moves to pry into the three major gangs again.

As for the serious matter, the dungeon activity officially launched has been coming to an end after two months.

Probably because they didn't want to offend anyone, with the official's deliberate release, several other servers that had their world lines in BE mode due to disputes also returned to the HE path. In addition, there was a mysterious drop in the dungeon.

Ji Xuanyi has already collected more than twenty bags of demon gold coins, which seems to be the universal currency to be used in the next event, so the drop amount is not too small. Some other players who are obsessed with PVE also found opportunities to hoard two or three bags. In comparison, Xu Chu, who is obviously a rich man but only got five bags of gold coins, looks a little shabby.

Xu Chu also thought about spending money to collect a hundred bags of gold coins and hoard them, but the event had not started yet, and no one knew whether these gold coins would be more valuable when the event started, so he didn't dare to throw them away easily. Xu Chu spent a lot of effort and only received three bags. He was in a bad mood because of this, and he had several fights with Liu Tian in a row.

However, the official recently issued an announcement that although the dungeon activity is about to end, the channel for obtaining demon gold coins will not be closed. In addition to the small amount of scattered gold coins produced by the dungeon, ordinary daily tasks and upgrade tasks can also earn a small amount of gold coins.

When Ji Xuanyi saw this trace amount, he almost couldn't help rubbing his eyes, wondering if they had made a typo.

How many gold coins can be described as a tiny amount?

However, the official side has a very convincing argument that the activity will be open for a long time, and little by little, there will definitely be enough gold coins for you to use by then!

Although I have some doubts about the official statement, since they have said so, I can only wait and see what happens.

In addition, the official also gave an explanation for the blueprint fragments dropped by the hidden boss .

This is indeed a fragment of a map, and there is no duplication in the drops on each server. In other words, even if everyone who has the fragments on each server gets together, they can only piece together a complete map in the end.

As soon as this sentence was said, basically the possibility of the three main cities cooperating became very small. Although there are many talented players and it is not difficult to replicate the map, no one can say for sure whether there are secrets hidden in the original map that can only appear when water is poured on it or fire is raging. Even if the map can be pieced together complete, the other two will not feel at ease no matter who holds it. It is very likely that the three main cities can only use the incomplete map to complete the activity tasks.

And judging from the current situation of the second server, it is possible that Youyue City will have the most complete map, after all, there is a magical European emperor like Yunzhongjian. I can only say that fortunately, Yunzhongjian has reached the maximum level, and I have completed a lot of upgrade tasks when I was bored. Otherwise, I estimate that after completing a day's tasks, I might only get three or five fragments ...

Ji Xuan felt a chill at the thought.

To some extent, enemies like Yun Zhongjian are really scary.

Even with a little red hand like Qi Qin, after two months and eight CD copies, Ji Xuanyi only got two fragments. And judging from the few fragments, this map should not be small, and the number of fragments is likely to be close to three digits. After learning the official news, Ji Xuanyi began to consider the possibility of forming an alliance with Youyue City.

If we can really form an alliance with Youyue City, the fragments in the hands of Youri City will probably be dispensable.

The purpose of their meeting this time, in addition to everyone laughing at Zhaochen who was driven back to Youri City, livening up the atmosphere and enhancing cohesion, was also to discuss the cooperation with Youyue City.

" We can just use Zhaochen as a joker for fun, " Xiaoxiao Yuxia said, " If we want to form an alliance with Youyue City, we still have to find a few people to go there in person. After all, according to what Ji Xuanyi said, they can gather more than half of the map by themselves this time. We are the ones who are eager to cling to their thighs, so we have to show some sincerity. Just a few polite words in a remote private chat will definitely not work. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was puzzled and asked, " Is it so troublesome? Don't Youyue City have a good relationship with us? "

Xu Chu glanced at him and shook his head, saying, " It would be great if the leader of the dancing gang in Youyue City was as stupid as you. "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

Jian Xi Xin Jiu knew that he couldn't win the argument with Xu Chu, so he could only snort angrily , and thought to himself, no matter how stupid I am, can I be as stupid as the leader of your damn Jianghu gang?

Except for following the rhythm when he was laughing at Zhao Chen, Liu Tian was in a daze the rest of the time. He didn't understand what they were saying at all. He just stared at Xiao Xiao Yu Xia, then at Xu Chu. In short, he looked at whoever was talking. He was so stupid that his saliva was almost dripping from the corners of his mouth.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu added in his heart, "So stupid and so useless!"

In fact, Jing Yunhan, who sat at the same table with Liu Tian, was in the same state. He was even dumber and less skilled than Liu Tian! However, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia did not attract that much hatred, so he would not be criticized by others.

Seeing that Jian Xixinjiu didn't understand, Xu Chu had to explain: " Youyue City does have a good relationship with us, but they have never said publicly that they are on good terms with us. They have always said that they are neutral. Neutral, do you understand what that means? "

Jian Xi drank the new wine with a chuckle and said dissatisfiedly: " I don't understand! "

Xu Chu sighed and said, I " told you you're stupid, but you still don't believe me. What this neutrality means is that he will take advantage of any advantage, but he won't suffer any loss! "

" When we were fighting with Daylight City, they claimed to be neutral but secretly sided with us. They knew Daylight City was unreliable, so they asked us for protection. Now that there is no disaster and no goods, they don't ask for help anymore. Neutral means real neutrality. Daylight City and Starry City are the same to them. They both have something to ask for, so it depends on which one is more competitive. Although they are unlikely to cooperate with Daylight City because of the friendship they had in the past, they still have to give Starry City the benefits it deserves, because Starry City is neutral! "

As soon as Xu Chui finished speaking, Jian Xixinjiu was shocked and said, " So shameless?! " Xu Chu nodded and said, " It's so shameless! "

But they are justified and it is a neutral main city. What can you do?

Ji Xuanyi actually agreed a little with what Xu Chu said, but he felt that Youyue City would not be too shameless.

First of all, there is the old Western doctor. Although this guy is silly and always gets teased by Ye Linyu, Ye Linyu will still take care of his feelings to some extent. The old Western doctor is shameless, but he would never do such a shameless thing when it comes to matters related to friends. He will definitely buzz in Ye Linyu's ear like a fly, and keep annoying him until he gives in.

Although Ye Linyu is cunning and sly, he also knows how to make " friends " . The game has just reached the maximum level, and there will be many places that require alliances in the future. It is obviously not a wise move to let Fanxing City have a grudge against him at this time. He should also be able to grasp the degree, and this degree will be adjusted down under the influence of the old Western doctor. Generally speaking, it will not be too excessive.

The most important point is Yunzhongjian.

After the itchy-skinned begging-for-hammer incident, Yun Zhongjian, the naive man, had a very good relationship with Ji Xuanyi and the others. He would often send them small gifts and would occasionally say hello to each other.

After seeing Yun Zhongjian's European emperor physique, Ji Xuanyi dared to bet that at least 80% of the map fragments that Youyue City could get were obtained by Yun Zhongjian alone. If Ye Linyu really used the fragments to threaten them and ask for benefits from them, wouldn't Ji Xuanyi just ask Yun Zhongjian for it?

Even now, Ji Xuanyi could imagine how Yun Zhongjian would smile innocently and hand over all the fragments in his hand after hearing his request ...

But then again, betraying the trust of such a naive person is still a very difficult choice. At least Ji Xuanyi would not do such a thing as deceiving Yun Zhongjian. He would not resort to such a desperate measure unless it is absolutely necessary.

If Qi Qin could hear Ji Xuanyi's inner voice, he would definitely expose Ji Xuanyi's cold disguise in his heart. Even if it came to the last resort, Ji Xuanyi would never lie to Yun Zhongjian.

" Ye Linyu is indeed a difficult person to deal with, " Ji Xuanyi confirmed Xu Chu's statement: " But there are still a few people in Youyue City who have a good relationship with me, so the situation should not be too bad. But as Xiaoxiao Yuxia said, this time we need help from others, so we still have to show basic sincerity, and we will definitely go to Youyue City. " Since Ji Xuanyi had spoken, everyone had no objection to this matter.

" Although there is still some time, let's decide on the candidates who will go to Youyue City today. " Ji Xuan said.

When everyone heard this, they all raised their hands straight, especially Jing Yunhan. The dwarf almost stood on the table.

To be honest, apart from world quests and the main storyline later on, these people in the three major gangs rarely go out, and even the number of times they go to the wild map to brush up their favor is very few. After all, there are still a lot of things to do in Star City, and they also have to guard against the Sun City that suddenly appears to make trouble from time to time. The leaders of the three major gangs must stay in Star City at all times.

Now that the Sun City has stopped fighting, we can justifiably push the city's affairs to others, or we can travel to Youyue City, which we have never been to before. Everyone is eager to go out and see the world.

Xu Chu raised his hands high, looked around at everyone, and said in disgust: " Look at you country bumpkins, it's just Youyue City, why are you all so anxious! "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said speechlessly: " When you say something like this, you should put your hands down. "

Xu Chu pretended not to hear and raised his hands even straighter.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin sat calmly eating fruit. No matter how Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others chose people, the two of them would definitely go. Not only because of the old western doctor and Yun Zhongjian, they were also the only two among so many people who had visited Youyue City and dealt with Ye Linyu face to face. Even Xu Chu had only stopped by Youyue City for a while and had never taken a close look at it.

There's nothing I can do. Who knew something like this would happen after I came back?

Xiao Xiao Yuxia just raised her hand and found that in addition to Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, even Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian, who were sitting next to Xu Chu and listening, had raised their hands. She could only sigh and put her hands down silently.

There has to be a reliable person in charge of Fanxing City. Xu Chu and Ji Xuanyi will not stay, and Jian Xi Xinjiu also seems to be determined to go, so the hard-working Xiao Xiaoyu has to take the lead.

Xiao Xiaoyu glanced at the people who were glaring at each other like fighting cocks, neither of them willing to put down their hands, and helplessly tapped the small notebook in front of him, saying: " Well, since we are the ones who are rushing to seek an alliance, those who are easy to offend should not go. "

As soon as Xiao Xiao Yuxia finished speaking, Liu Tian and Jing Yunhan's faces changed immediately. Although the two of them had no intuitive concept of their own IQ, they both knew that they had bad tempers. After hearing what Xiao Xiao Yuxia said, they all felt that they were excluded.

In fact, not only the two of them, but everyone else, including Ji Xuanyi, looked at Xu Chu at the same time.

When it comes to offending people, Liu Tian and Jing Yunhan combined are not as good as Xu Chu. If he cancels his promise to Ye Linyu once, the alliance will be in trouble.

Xu Chu looked back at everyone with a righteous look on his face and said, " Why are you looking at me? Are you obsessed with my beauty? "

Everyone was speechless, and Liu Tian made a loud vomiting sound.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was so upset that he said, " Can you be a little more self-aware? "

Xu Chu said seriously: " I have always been very self-aware. "

Liu Tian couldn't help but say, " Come on, you are the most shameless person at this table. "

Xu Chu said calmly: " I refuse to talk to idiots. "

Six days: "..."

Seeing that the two were about to quarrel again, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia quickly acted as a peacemaker and interrupted them, saying, " Alright, that's enough. We are almost tired of you two repeating this plot every time. Can you please talk about something serious? "

Xu Chu said: " The important thing is that I have to go. "

After saying that, Xu Chu calmly took out a bag of gold coins from his backpack and threw it on the table. The bag of gold coins slipped and slid to Xiaoxiao Yuxia.

Liu Tian said angrily: " How can you bribe others in front of us! How shameless! "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Xu Chu looked at Liu Tian with disdain and said, " I bribed him? Is there anyone at this table who needs my bribe? I mean, I have money, I can cover the expenses of going to Youyue City, and don't we have to give Youyue City benefits? In addition to the concessions on paper activities, we can also give some tangible benefits. "

Xu Chu rubbed his fingers together, revealing an expression that showed he was well aware of this.

Everyone moved their chairs away from him.

Jing Yunhan leaned on Xiao Xiaoyuxia and whispered, " I have a feeling that Xu Chu might be taken to the police station tomorrow. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu also said earnestly: " Xu Chu, corruption is being dealt with very strictly now, you should not break the law! Don't you agree, Mi Yin? "

Everyone looked at Mi Yin, who touched her nose awkwardly and opened her mouth. Before she could say anything, Ji Xuanyi calmly replied, " Isn't this your business? "

Upon hearing this, Mi Yin nodded repeatedly like a chick pecking at rice.

Everyone couldn't help but ponder for a moment. What on earth does Mi Yin manage? But this is not the point. Xu Chu angrily slammed the table and said, "Wake up, I have never done anything like that, okay?!"

The crowd moved further away from him.

Jing Yunhan said in horror: "Is this because he was so angry after being exposed? Should we call the police?!"

Xu Chu: "..."

Xu Chu almost rushed over and strangled Jing Yunhan to death. Fortunately, Ji Xuanyi still had his wits about him. He knocked on the table with a frown on his face and said, "Can you guys be more serious? Sit back down!"

The last three words Ji Xuanyi said were filled with murderous intent, and even Qi Qin, who was sitting next to him, was shocked. Of course, no one dared to disobey, and they all returned to their original seats, as quiet as chickens.

Ji Xuanyi himself had once been suspected of being a member of a gang, so he couldn't help but feel a sense of sympathy for Xu Chu's suspicion, and immediately decided: "Xu Chu can go."

Everyone nodded in agreement: "Go, go, go."

If Xu Chu leaves, Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin will also have to go, and Jian Xi Xinjiu will also go. In this way, the only high-level internal personnel of the three major gangs left are Liu Tian and Jing Yunhan.

Liu Tian's face changed, he slammed the table and stood up, saying: "Why! Last time, Jing Yunhan and I were not allowed to go in the dungeon, and this time they don't allow us to go either. This is too much!"

Jian Xi Xin Jiu's face turned pale when he heard about the dungeon, and he said, "Playing a dungeon is not a good thing. It would be a good thing if I don't go."

Liu Tian was not willing to listen to this, but before he could get angry, Xu Chu said, "Liu Tian has to go with me, otherwise I have to walk alone when I go out."

Liu Tian was delighted when he heard this and immediately said, "That's right! Xu Chu has to ride a horse when he goes out!"

Jing Yunhan almost understood his fate at this time, but he was unwilling to be left alone, so he immediately said: "Isn't there Xue Piao Renjian? There are horses in Xue Piao Renjian too!"

Liu Tian immediately said: "How can it be the same? Xu Chu rode on Xue Piao Renjian's horse, what about Mi Yin?"

Jing Yunhan was not convinced, and seeing that they were about to quarrel again, Xiao Xiaoyu said helplessly: "That's it, Xiaohan, you stay with me, and the others should prepare for departure during this time."

When Jing Yunhan heard this, he was immediately stunned and looked at Xiao Xiaoyu in disbelief. After a long time, he let out a "wow" and cried. He turned around and ran out with his feet turned inward, muttering and cursing Xiao Xiaoyu as he ran.

Everyone: "..."

The people present actually felt a rare sense of guilt for bullying a child!

However, it was Ji Xuanyi who reacted first. After all, no matter how young Jing Yunhan was, he was not as young as Ze Yu Sishui. He had bullied Ze Yu Sishui for so long, so would he still feel guilty because of Jing Yunhan?

It's impossible, it's all an illusion.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was restless, afraid that Jing Yunhan would do something evil. Seeing this, Ji Xuan said, " You go first, we can discuss it ourselves. "

Although more than half of the people doing it are useless, Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu together are still reliable. Xiao Xiaoyu nodded and went to chase Jing Yunhan.

In addition to Ji Xuanyi and the other five people who were going to Youyue City, of course they had to find a few more people to go with them, otherwise it would be too lackluster. Ji Xuanyi selfishly brought a few friends from Green Forest City, and the others also selected some people and made preparations.

Ji Xuanyi had informed the old Western doctor and his group in advance that they were going to travel to Youyue City. The old Western doctor initially thought that Ji Xuanyi was coming to play, but after hearing the number of people, he realized that something was going on, so he told Ye Linyu directly.

After listening to this, Ye Linyu smiled and said, " Come if you want to. Our Youyue City is not crowded. "

The old Western doctor was of course very happy that Ji Xuanyi and the others came, and he replied immediately. However, before he could finish chatting with Ji Xuanyi, Ye Linyu called him again.

The old western doctor looked up and asked, " What's wrong? "

Ye Linyu said, " Call your friend Yun Zhongjian over later. I have something to discuss with him. "

The old western doctor immediately showed a defensive expression and said, " What are you going to do to Lao Yun? "

Ye Linyu wondered, "... What kind of image do you have of me in your mind? What can I do? "

" I just want to remind him not to let Ji Xuanyi and his group trick him into handing over all the clues, otherwise he won't be able to participate in the next event. "

Ji Xuanyi and his friends had no control over the situation in Youyue City. Before the agreed date of departure, they could only bite the bullet and clear the dungeon CD .

We have already started planning for the next event. Although it is about to end, the dungeon activity has not yet ended. This is the last activity CD . Even if it is in vain, we have to go in and fight just for show and try to get as many props as possible.

Because of this mentality, the dungeon entrance square, which had been deserted, suddenly became crowded again. Fortunately, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin had already cleared this week's CD with the twins , so they didn't have to squeeze in. It was only hard for the PVPs , who had neither good teammates nor good commanders, so they had to cross the river by feeling the stones, getting half the result with twice the effort, and going through life and death, which was really tragic.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin had some free time. They didn't even have to complete the upgrade tasks. They would leave them for after the event was over. They could also continue to get props for the next event. Every day when they went online, they would go to Auguste to drink tea, stroll around, take in the scenery, and then log off.

After all, dating in games is not as good as dating in real life, where you can kiss, touch, and clap your hands – after Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin slept on the sofa several times and both of them were exhausted, Qi Qin finally moved to the bed. Every morning when she woke up, she found Ji Xuanyi in her arms, and she was in a very dangerous state.

When Qi Qin woke up for the first time, Ji Xuanyi touched him and he fell off the bed in panic. When he went to the bathroom in a hurry, he broke the glass door. It took the two of them a lot of effort to clean up the house, which made Ji Xuanyi laugh and cry. He never dared to tease him again.

Qi Qin, this upright young man, is not as romantic as described in martial arts novels. Instead, he is very shy about some things. He even wants to do those things after marrying Ji Xuanyi. Ji Xuanyi feels helpless when he learns of his thoughts. Although he shows a noncommittal attitude, he has actually been trying very hard in secret to make Qi Qin give up this idea, but with little success.

Ji Xuanyi is going to school this afternoon.

Although the weather has gradually turned cooler, the afternoon always makes people mysteriously tired. Ji Xuanyi didn't want to go to school with a confused look on his face, so he decided to walk directly to school to wake up.

Thanks to Mr. Qi, their current residence is not far from the university , and Ji Xuan can get there in just ten to twenty minutes.

After finishing the game today, Ji Xuanyi cooked a meal. The taste was mediocre, but the responsibility of washing the dishes fell on Qi Qin. As soon as Qi Qin put the bowl into the sink, he heard the sound of Ji Xuanyi taking a shoe out of the shoe cabinet and throwing it on the ground.

Qi Qin was stunned, and asked from a distance in the kitchen: " Xuan Yi is going to class? "

Ji Xuanyi was still a little confused and responded softly.

Qi Qin remembered what he said about going there, thought about it, wiped the water off his hands on his apron, walked out to change clothes, and said: " I will go with Xuanyi. I haven't been to the place where Xuanyi studied yet. "

Ji Xuan suddenly came to his senses, looked at Qi Qin with interest, and said, " You want to go? "

Although he had jokingly told Ji Xuanyi that he wanted to go to college, Qi Qin had never been to a proper school. He learned how to read and write from his master. After coming here, he became mostly illiterate. So when he passed by places like schools, he always felt inexplicably shy, as if he shouldn't be in such places.

Before, Ji Xuanyi also asked Qi Qin to accompany him to school, but Qi Qin went back when they were still far away from the gate. Although he did not tell Ji Xuanyi, Ji Xuanyi knew that he had such emotions.

Qi Qin understood what Ji Xuanyi said, his face flushed, and he stammered, " It's not safe on the road these two days ..."

This is true. Recently, the news reported several incidents of revenge against society. Many passers-by did nothing wrong and were killed for no reason while walking on the road. Although it was not in their city or even in the same province, Qi Qinlian was so good at protecting Ji Xuan in the game that he was even more frightened in real life, fearing any accidents. You know, there is no such thing as a resurrection point in real life.

Qi Qin still felt inexplicably shy, but compared to Ji Xuanyi's safety, this little concern was nothing.

Ji Xuanyi understood what he meant when he heard it, but he felt that there were not so many people who wanted to take revenge on society. Besides, he was a young man of 1.8 meters after all, and not thin. Probably only people with a hole in their brains would provoke him. But being cared for by a lover never makes people feel uncomfortable. Ji Xuanyi was still very happy that Qi Qin had this heart, so he didn't say much. He just said: "Okay, let's go together. Go change your clothes."

Hearing this, Qi Qin smiled and went to change his clothes.

Qi Qin never brought any of those fancy clothes from the past. What he wears now is very simple and inexpensive. If it weren't for his height, he and Ji Xuanyi might have several sets of couple outfits.

After they packed up, they went out to the street. The sun was not too scorching, but rather warm. When the wind blew, it felt like they were floating.

Ji Xuanyi was walking when Qi Qin suddenly said, "It feels like a dream."

"Hmm?" Ji Xuan tilted his head to look at him.

Qi Qin looked at him tenderly and said, "I feel like I was that down-and-out wanderer yesterday, running into obstacles everywhere, with a bruised face and a swollen nose. Holding on to the last glimmer of hope, I went to a mountain I had never been to and met people I had never met before. Everything made me feel anxious and uneasy."

"Today I have you," Qi Qin's black eyes seemed to have stars twinkling, he said to Ji Xuanyi: "It seems that with Xuanyi here, I am not afraid of anything. I have my own belief in my heart. It seems to be what my master once said to me. Even if I face a huge wave, as long as you are here, I have the courage to fight it."

Ji Xuanyi looked at Qi Qin and couldn't help but feel moved.

"Xuan Yi..."

Qi Qin called out softly, and was about to continue speaking when Ji Xuan asked, "Are you not afraid of anything?"

Qi Qin nodded seriously.

Ji Xuanyi said: "Then accompany me to school today. I need to move textbooks and I'm in need of a laborer."

Qi Qin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, "Xuanyi is here, don't be afraid, huh?"

Qi Qin: "qaq!"

He hasn't made this expression for a long time!

When Qi Qin thought of the loud sounds of reading, the neat academy students, and various old gentlemen, his scalp felt tingling, the hairs all over his body stood up, he was filled with shame and didn't know where to put his hands and feet.

However, Ji Xuanyi's words had already been spoken, so Qi Qin had no choice but to obey. While on the way, Qi Qin had some bad thoughts. He wondered whether he should pretend to have a stomachache on the road, but he was worried that he would be discovered or beaten. However, Qi's father bought a good house, which was very close to the university. Before Qi Qin could figure out what was going on, they arrived.

The facts were of course different from what Qi Qin had imagined. There were no sounds of reading or old teachers in the university, let alone neat students. Except for the fact that there was a doorman who was the same whether there was one or not, the university that Ji Xuanyi attended looked no different from a small garden from the angle of the gate.

In fact, there is really no difference. Every evening, there are old men and women who live nearby coming here for a walk.

Qi Qin let down his guard a little.

Ji Xuanyi said, " There aren't many classes in the third year. This time I'm here mainly to do some odd jobs and collect credits. You can come with me. After we're done, let's have a hot pot before we go back. "

When Qi Qin heard that he was here to work, he completely relaxed, but he still followed Ji Xuanyi closely, fearing that he would get lost.

Ji Xuanyi lived off campus, and after taking the time spent on the road into account, he arrived earlier than the students who lived on campus. When he arrived, the senior student who was in charge of supervising and recording the names of those who came to help was still lying on a small stool eating her lunch box.

After seeing Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin behind him, the senior student blushed, stood up, wiped her mouth, and said embarrassedly: " You came so early? "

This senior sister actually had dealt with Ji Xuanyi several times, and she liked him a little bit, but she was not interested in him. Ji Xuanyi only felt that she looked familiar, and he couldn't even remember her name, so he could only say: " Yeah, I came after dinner. "

The senior student glanced at him, blushed, and wrote down Ji Xuanyi's name neatly in the notebook. Then she asked Qi Qin, " What is this student's name? Which department is he from? "

Qi Qin had just relaxed when he was asked this question. He almost jumped behind Ji Xuan like a rabbit, but Ji Xuan grabbed him with a quick glance and said calmly, " My friend has graduated and is here to help. "

The senior student glanced at the two people holding hands and uttered " Oh " softly.

Chapter 156

Helping to move books at school is not like carrying heavy bags at the dock, where points are calculated based on the results of your work . Instead , as long as you arrive and help , your name will be recorded and given credits together . In other words , there is no difference between doing more and doing less.

Ji Xuanyi was not stupid, so of course he would not do more work foolishly. He took Qi Qin to move things back and forth several times, did his share of the work , said hello to his senior sister , and prepared to go home.

" very positive " written behind Ji Xuanyi's name on the notebook in the senior's hand . In fact, judging by the number of books moved, these four words can be said to be well-deserved. After all, Ji Xuanyi moved the amount he was supposed to move, and Qi Qin, who followed right behind him, moved twice as much . Qi Qin was not a student in the school, so the credit can only be attributed to Ji Xuanyi. The two of them together completely exceeded the task . Not to mention being very active , they can even be written as the most active.

However, Qi Qin's radar still allowed him to detect something, and he squeezed towards Ji Xuanyi again very vigilantly.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi was squeezed sideways by him and looked at him speechlessly. He found that there was something wrong with the expression on Qi Qin's face. After he understood what was going on, he silently withdrew his gaze.

Forget it , just squeeze in ...

Ji Xuanyi said to the senior student: " Can I leave now? "

The senior student had actually been secretly looking at Qi Qin. After hearing this, she was stunned for a moment before coming to her senses. She subconsciously glanced at the remaining books and then said, " Ah, yes, you have already moved a lot of them. Leave the rest to others. "

Ji Xuanyi nodded and was about to leave, but the senior student seemed to remember something and said hurriedly: " Ah, wait, Ji Xuanyi, wait a moment. "

Qi Qin, who had just relaxed, thought he could leave, but he tensed up again. Ji Xuanyi pinched his stiff arm, turned around and looked at the senior, and said, " What's wrong? "

The senior student blushed again and said, " Your instructor said that if you came this afternoon, he would ask you to go to the office on the second floor to see him. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " I see. Thank you. "

The senior student shook her head and said, " It doesn't matter, it doesn't matter. I just want to say something. "

Ji Xuan nodded and was about to leave when the senior student said, " That ..."

Ji Xuanyi suppressed his impatience and said, " Is there anything else? "

The senior student blushed a little, she said: " Well, tonight, do you have time? Do you want to go out for supper together? No, not just me, there are others. "

Ji Xuanyi said with no expression on his face, " Sorry, I don't have time. "

 " Oh, so that's it, " the senior student's expression became dejected, and she said, " Then next time ..."

Ji Xuanyi said: " I'm sorry, I won't have time next time. "

The senior was startled and looked up at him. Ji Xuanyi's eyes were very cold. She finally realized something and felt embarrassed and awkward. After a long while, she whispered, " Well, sorry to bother you. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything, just nodded at her. After all, he was in a relationship, so it would be better not to give others any strange misunderstandings.

On the contrary, Qi Qin, the big fool, walked a few steps and suddenly sympathized with his rival . He whispered in Ji Xuanyi's ear: " After all, she is a girl ..."

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Then I'll go and apologize to her, and then have a midnight snack together? "

The big fool shook his head like a rattle and said seriously and uprightly: " The girl is an adult now, she will definitely be able to be strong! "

Ji Xuanyi was amused by him.

At this time, there were finally more people coming and going outside. Although they had no school uniforms and no books, they were students after all, and their temperament was somewhat different from that of people in society. A man wearing glasses walked past Qi Qin, and his bookish air gave him goose bumps and made him look very cowardly.

Qi Qin said uneasily: " Aren't we going back now? "

Ji Xuanyi said, " The instructor wants to see me for something. I have to go check it out. "

The teaching building was very quiet, not to mention the offices on the second floor. Ordinary students with poor psychological quality were afraid to go there. Ji Xuanyi was worried that Qi Qin might not be able to stand that atmosphere, so he said in front of the teaching building gate: " You go wait for me outside. "

Qi Qin really wanted to go out, but after looking at Ji Xuanyi, he gritted his teeth and endured it, saying: " I'll go in with you. "

Ji Xuan glanced at him, smiled, and said without forcing him, " Okay, let's go. "

Qi Qin was stunned.

In fact, he was not that determined in his heart. If Ji Xuanyi had persuaded him twice, he might have really stayed outside. However, the other party was so impolite that he just nodded. He was unable to react at once. It took him a long time before he followed Ji Xuanyi in listlessly at his urging.

It was not yet time for class, so there were not so many people in the teaching building, with only one or two teachers passing by occasionally. However, this did not give Qi Qin much comfort, as sweat broke out on his hands.

Fortunately, the office was on the second floor. Ji Xuanyi knocked on the door very neatly, left Qi Qin outside, and went in himself.

Qi Qin leaned against the wall, not daring to move. He could only listen to Ji Xuanyi's voice with all his attention, so as to distract himself and relax a little.

However, the soundproofing in the office was very good. Even if Qi Qin listened attentively, he could only vaguely hear a few ambiguous words.

Ji Xuanyi kept saying " OK ", " I understand ", " No, thanks ", " Yeah ", " Thank you ", and nothing else. However, Qi Qin inexplicably heard a hint of suppressed anger in Ji Xuanyi's tone.

This made Qi Qin very uneasy. He wanted to break in and comfort Ji Xuanyi, but he was worried about delaying the conversation between them as teacher and student. He was conflicted, but he managed to get rid of some of his nervousness.

After a while, the office door lock clicked lightly and the door was pushed open.

Qi Qin heard Ji Xuanyi's footsteps at the door and knew that it was him coming out. He immediately reached out and hugged him, whispering to comfort him: " It's okay, it's okay. Don't be angry. "

Ji Xuanyi was indeed very angry. He was so angry that if he had a bomb remote control at hand , he would press it without hesitation. However, when Qi Qin hugged him, his anger was like being poured with a basin of ice water. It disappeared with a " chi " sound, without even a puff of smoke.

The stiff look on Ji Xuanyi's face gradually disappeared. He raised his hand and hugged Qi Qin back, saying, " It's okay. "

Qi Qin was about to ask what happened when he saw Ji Xuanyi's instructor walking out behind him.

The counselor was about forty years old. He was probably shocked by the scene of two grown men hugging and comforting each other, and looked at them in amazement.

This is Ji Xuanyi's teacher. Qi Qin suddenly felt a little embarrassed. He took back his hands that were behind Ji Xuanyi's back, and didn't know where to look.

Ji Xuanyi didn't have a good look towards his instructor, which was completely different from the politeness he showed when he first entered the room.

Qi Qin thought, with Ji Xuanyi's personality, if he had this attitude towards his teacher, he should have refused the girl very coolly when she asked him to come over, right? After all, he saw Ji Xuanyi's impatience, and he didn't know why Ji Xuanyi's attitude suddenly changed.

But Qi Qin soon found out. The instructor's surprised expression only appeared for a moment, and then he said to Ji Xuan in a very kind, even greasy way: " Student Ji, your parents specifically told me ..."

Ji Xuanyi grabbed Qi Qin's hand tightly. Qi Qin realized that the other party was trying to restrain his anger, so he immediately held his hand.

Ji Xuanyi managed to calm down, and without caring about what the instructor was saying, he said directly, " I understand. I will contact them. "

The instructor stopped talking as if he had been pardoned, looked at Ji Xuanyi, then at Qi Qin, and looked as if he wanted to say something but hesitated.

Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to pay attention to him and said, " Please go ahead and do your work. We'll leave first. "

The instructor wanted to say something, but Ji Xuanyi had already turned cold and dragged Qi Qin away without even turning his head.

Because of Ji Xuanyi's abnormal behavior, Qi Qin put aside his chaotic emotions and asked carefully: " Xuanyi, what's wrong with you? Did your family look for you? "

Ji Xuanyi's pace slowed down for a beat, and then he suddenly sneered: " Looking for a fart! "

Qi Qin was shocked by the anger and sarcasm in these three short words. He wanted to ask more questions, but when he saw the fatigue on Ji Xuanyi's face, his heart suddenly ached. He patted Ji Xuanyi on the back and said, " If you are unhappy, don't think about it anymore. I will take care of everything. "

Ji Xuan looked up at Qi Qin and saw that he was serious. He couldn't help laughing and said, " You stole the electric bike to support me? "

Qi Qin's face flushed immediately, and he said, " Xuan Yi, what nonsense are you talking about? I, I'm trying very hard to learn from my father ... "

Although the progress is slow, Qi Qin is indeed studying very hard. Qi's father also said that although the kid is stupid, he is really dedicated. At least before he retires, Qi Qin will definitely be able to make a breakthrough. Not to mention making further progress after inheriting the family business, he can definitely maintain the success. As long as Ji Xuanyi is willing to be with Qi Qin, Qi Qin can really support him.

Ji Xuanyi didn't expect that he was so easily amused, so he quickly waved his hand and said, " I was just kidding. "

Seeing that he finally laughed, Qi Qin didn't care about the joke anymore and said happily: " Going home? "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " It's a good time to go out. We can go watch a movie and go back after dinner. "

Qi Qin really liked going to the cinema. Just as he was about to nod, he saw Ji Xuanyi frowning. " What's wrong? " Qi Qin asked.

Ji Xuanyi pulled out his buzzing cell phone from his pocket and showed it to him.

There is a phone call.

However, when he saw the caller ID, Ji Xuanyi's face sank.

He was really about to explode. It wasn't enough for him to ask his counselor to pass on the message before, and now the younger one didn't learn his lesson and called him.

Knowing that there would be another call later, Ji Xuanyi simply picked up the phone. Before he could say anything, the person on the other end called out happily, " Brother! "

Ji Xuan replied expressionlessly, " Hmm. "

Fortunately, the man went to elementary and middle school in China. After a moment of hesitation, he reacted and replied, " Get lost? "

Ji Xuanyi sneered, hung up the phone and blocked it.

However, Ji Xuanyi had just completed the operation when the other party changed their mobile phone number. He didn't dare to call and could only send a text message.

 " My legs have grown back. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Damn, is this a provocation?

Ji Xuanyi's face turned pale, and Qi Qin asked cautiously: " Are you still going to the cinema? "

How could Ji Xuanyi still be in the mood to go to the cinema? He said with a gloomy face: " Go home and watch TV! "

Qi Qin responded timidly and accompanied Ji Xuanyi home.

Ji Xuanyi was in a very bad mood, and the situation of other people in the game was not very good either.

Unless the boss is killed , his CD will always be there. It's the last few days of the event and no one dares to slack off. Even if they can't beat the boss , they have to fight to the death. The PVEs' CD has been cleared and they can't fight even if they want to, while the PVPs seem to be struggling in hell, dreaming about output and avoiding circles at night.

At this time, many people complained about the settings of the holographic game. There was no small account, and no one could log in to the account. You had to clear your own CD by yourself, and you were the one who suffered the loss if you couldn't get the props.

It's so bitter!

The entire Starry City – no, not just Starry City, it can be said that the entire area and server of "Domain" are shrouded in a gloomy atmosphere.

However, the day that made the PVP players excited and regretful has finally arrived. Tomorrow is the last day of the event. They will finally not have to fight the bosses that they haven't finished defeating, but correspondingly, the demon gold coins and fragments that can be obtained will be greatly reduced.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin went online to the Mage Tower to drink tea as usual, but they received a private message from Xiao Xiaoyuxia, asking them to discuss visiting Youyue City.

Although ordinary tasks will also give demon coins after the event, the amount is very small, so there is no rush to complete the tasks. After all, things can change over time, and who knows whether Zhaochen will take action against Youyue City before them. They can go to Youyue City in advance to discuss things, and then slowly contact remotely .

Ji Xuanyi thought so too. In fact , at the latest tomorrow, if Xiaoxiao Yuxia didn't look for him, he would have to go find them.

Because the matter was not very urgent, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin drank tea first, and then slowly walked to the stronghold.

On the way, the two men also met the twin brothers named Ritian and Yutian. When they greeted each other, the two brothers behaved a little strangely. Ji Xuan was about to ask them in detail, but the two men seemed to have done something wrong and left the line with guilty looks on their faces.

" What's going on between them? " Ji Xuanyi looked at Qi Qin strangely.

However, how could Qi Qin know something that Ji Xuanyi didn't know? He could only shake his head at Ji Xuanyi in confusion.

Xiao Xiaoyu sent a private message to urge them, saying that everyone had arrived. Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to put the matter aside and take Qi Qin to the base.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia did not lie. It was true that Ji Xuanyi and the others were late this time. Even Xu Chu had already sat down in his seat. He even winked at Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin when they came in.

Ji Xuanyi suppressed his desire to hit someone and said to Xiao Xiaoyu: " Didn't you say you were not in a hurry? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was also speechless and said: " We are not in a hurry, who knew they would come so fast! "

There was no way. The group of people sitting at this table had actually been busy in the dungeon these days. As representatives of the three major gangs, they couldn't afford to slack off. They had been in the dungeon both online and offline during this period. They all looked pale, and when they finally heard Xiao Xiao Yuxia's call, of course they ran over in a hurry. People who used to think meetings were troublesome and a waste of time now want them to last as long as possible. If they could just wait for the first three hours at the beginning, that would be perfect!

But there are not so many perfect things in the world. Who could have expected that Gechu would not be late today and would arrive early!

For the first time in his life, when Xu Chu entered the door, he was not greeted with cheers of relief from the crowd, but sighs of disappointment.

Although he acted a little naughty as soon as he entered the room, Ji Xuanyi could see that Xu Chu's condition was not very good and his face looked a little gloomy.

Ji Xuanyi didn't know that it would be strange if Xu Chu wasn't gloomy. He spent a lot of money, and it could no longer be considered a group tour. Instead, he hired twenty-four thugs and worked hard himself. It took him four days and only today to complete the task. Among the six bosses , only one dropped demon gold coins, not to mention fragments. Xu Chu was in a terrible state!

The reason why I arrived on time today without any trouble is because I was hit so hard that I was completely devastated ...

As soon as Ji Xuan looked around the table, he had a rough idea of what was going on.

But this game doesn't allow you to help others log in. They can suffer their own pain, and Ji Xuanyi can't help them. So he sat down calmly and said, " Okay, can we start now? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia nodded. He was really busy during this period, with things to do both online and offline. It was no easier than playing a dungeon, so he did not enter the dungeon. The situation seemed the same as usual.

Although it's not that good usually.

" If we go to Youyue City for negotiation, the most important thing is the conditions we offer them, " Xiaoxiao Yuxia flipped open a small notebook and said, " I have thought of a few plans. Can you help me take a look ..."

Xiaoxiao Yuxia's plan was still very clear. After all, the important things in online games are nothing more than equipment, gold coins, resources, concessions in the later stages of the event, or the subsequent alliances.

Xu Chu took on all the first three items. He had hoarded a lot of things, but had no place to use them usually, so his backpack was full. He also had a lot stored with the postman. This time he could give them all to Ye Linyu and the others. Good things, such as orange weapons, one or two would be enough, and the rest of the purple equipment, no matter how good it looked or what the special effects were, would be given away as garbage, and Xu Chu wouldn't feel bad about it.

The latter two points are more important. As for the former, the reward form of the event has not been announced yet, so we will not mention it for now. As for the latter, they are willing to continue to form an alliance with Youyue City in the future. However, it is obvious that if they keep making concessions in terms of rewards, no one can bear it. This needs to be carefully considered.

Ji Xuanyi, Xu Chu and Xiaoxiao Yuxia talked for a long time, during which Liu Tian and Jing Yunhan also joked around, and finally made a decision. They still have to see what the rewards for the next event are. If it is something important that they must get, they can only overdraw the rewards of the next events a few times to cooperate with Youyue City. But if it is not that important, just an ordinary special item, or experience or something like that, they might as well pay it back in this event.

In fact, there is not much difference between saying it and not saying it for the final decision. After all, Ye Linyu is not like Zuo'an Liutian. He is even smarter than Xuchu and will definitely not suffer any loss. What the final agreement will be depends on the performance of Ji Xuanyi and Xuchu.

The group of people were talking until their mouths were dry. After Xiao Xiao Yu Xia distributed juice to everyone, they surrounded Xu Chu and went to look for the rubbish gifts to send to Youyue City.

Purple and orange equipment were thrown on the table one by one. People were afraid that they would be refreshed, so they hurriedly picked them up. Ji Xuanyi looked a little bored and suddenly remembered the matter of the twins. He glanced at Xu Chu who was busy, turned around and patted Xiao Xiaoyu's shoulder, saying: " I have something to ask you. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia handed the equipment notebook in her hand to Jian Xixinjiu, asking him to help write it down, and then followed Ji Xuanyi to the side and said, " What's the matter? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " I met the twins on my way here today. There was something wrong with them. Did they do something bad? "

Xiao Xiaoyu was stunned and asked in confusion: " What? Doing something bad? What bad things can two PVEs do? Did they steal other people's equipment? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " No, their CDs were cleared together with Tianxia and I, there are no black CDs . "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia shook her head and said, " Then I don't know. "

 " You really don't know? "

 " I really don't know! " Xiaoxiao was getting anxious as the rain fell.

 " That's weird, " Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but stroke his chin and said, " If they didn't do anything, why do they feel so guilty? As soon as they saw us, they logged off, as if they were running away from their debts. "

Ji Xuanyi was very observant of people, and Xiao Xiao Yuxia knew this, so when Ji Xuanyi said this, he believed it and frowned, " Guilty? Maybe they really did something? Could it be that Zhaochen got hold of them? That shouldn't be the case. They are just independent players, not famous in the PVP world at all. Can't Zhaochen know them? "

Ji Xuanyi couldn't think of anything either, so he could only shake his head and said, " Forget it, I'll say hello to them next time I see them. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " What are you saying? Will they tell you if you ask them? I'll have someone keep an eye on it later and tell you when there's news. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Okay, thank you for your help. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia said calmly: " It's no trouble. "

Anyway, too many lice won't itch, too many debts won't worry you, and he's almost bald, so one or two things won't matter to him.

The amount of Xu Chu's collection is outrageous!

The holographic online game "Domain" seems to use a lot of resources in strange places. For example, in the game that Ji Xuanyi and his friends have played before, many things like letters have a time limit. No matter what is in the letter, if a letter is not picked up for one or two months, it will be returned directly. If no one picks it up after it is returned, it may be deleted directly.

But in "Domain", although the warehouse system has not been opened yet and everyone's backpacks are very crowded, the letters containing items here by the postman are permanent. That is to say, if someone sends you something, as long as you don't take it out, the postman will keep it for you. For players who don't have enough space in their backpacks, the postman is equivalent to a warehouse manager.

The most gratifying thing is that the post office in "Domain" is apparently well-staffed. The postmen are distributed in the most places except for transportation points, and it is also quite convenient to queue.

The topic seems to have gone a bit off topic , but all of Xu Chu's collection, except for what was in his own bag, was left with the postman and sent over in the name of Liu Tian.

Everyone knows that wealth should not be shown to others, so they followed Xu Chu stealthily and found the postman in a corner where there were fewer people, waiting for Xu Chu to talk to them.

" Get something. " Xu Chu said.

He didn't know if it was Ji Xuanyi's illusion, but he felt that Xu Chu's smile seemed particularly kind.

" Okay, you have a total of 3,327 letters, which contain 832 pieces of purple materials, 1,221 pieces of orange materials, 1,156 pieces of purple equipment, and 118 pieces of orange equipment. Do you want to take them all out? "

Before Xu Chu could say anything, he heard everyone gasp behind him.

Is this the world of the rich? Poverty limits imagination series!

Jian Xi Xin Jiu couldn't help but ask, " Are you a hamster? Why do you have so many equipment and materials? Do you need to change and wash the equipment you are wearing? " Xiaoxiao Yuxia said numbly: " The one who cultivated melon seeds is called a hamster, and this one is called a giant dragon. Xuchu, tell me quickly, do you use RMB to make your bed when you sleep offline? "

Even Ji Xuan couldn't help but gasp when he heard the number reported, and couldn't help asking: " Are you an equipment dealer or a local tycoon? "

This is the first time Ji Xuanyi has seen a rich man who loves to hoard equipment so much! Xu Chu's face was filled with black lines. He looked at everyone and finally set his eyes on Liu Tian. He said speechlessly: " Fuck, forget about their expressions. You personally sent me something. Why are you so surprised? "

The surprise on Liu Tian's face was really not fake, it was too funny. After being asked by Xu Chu, he couldn't help but curse: " Fuck! Didn't you tell me to send it in two days, and then in two days? How did I know that the total amount would be so much! "

Xu Chu looked at him with disdain and stopped talking. Liu Tian became angry and ignored him. Actually, Xu Chu remembered that most of these things were sent from trading houses and auction houses, and some were sent by him offline. So it had nothing to do with Liu Tian. He would be in the wrong if he continued to argue, so he kept silent, which made Liu Tian not know how to argue with him.

Xu Chu didn't remember what he had collected, so he could only say: " Purple equipment is randomly selected ..."

Ji Xuanyi said: " Five hundred. "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: " Three hundred! "

Liu Tianda frowned and said, " Give them face! Fifty is enough! "

Xu Chu rolled his eyes and said, " Take out five hundred and pick one. "

It was completely useless for Ji Xuanyi and the other two to take so much trouble. Of course, they just listened to the words of the player who was talking to them, and immediately began to put equipment into their coats from the cloth bags around their waists one by one. Everyone hurriedly gathered around to help.

With five hundred pieces of equipment, his backpack was filled to the brim and his body was also full, and he could barely hold them all. Each piece of equipment had special effects, which dazzled everyone's eyes.

Xu Chu sat down on the ground and said, " Pick out two hundred of the less useful items. Are these enough? "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia said with a sigh: " It's more than enough. I feel like there's no need to give up on any rewards later. These are more than enough! "

Ji Xuanyi piled his equipment on Qi Qin, sneered and said, " If Ye Linyu really accepts these things, it will be enough. "

However, in Ji Xuanyi's opinion, Ye Linyu would not be stupid enough to take all these equipment directly. He would most likely just take two orange equipment as a token of his appreciation. After all, there was such a precious map in the activity road, and no one knew what the final reward would be. These two hundred pieces of special effect equipment were certainly good things, but compared with some rewards, they were worth nothing.

After a busy day, everyone packed up their things and logged off, while those who were working on the game continued playing.

On the third day, the event ended, and all the PVP players, whether they had completed the game or not, were finally freed from the dungeon. Their gaming life returned to normal, and everyone was overjoyed!

On this day, all areas and servers of "Domain" were in chaos. The pvp players were like dogs that had just been released from a cage, causing troubles without restraint. They did not care about losing levels and had to find someone to fight with in order to relieve the resentment they had been feeling during this period of time. It took the three major gangs a lot of effort to calm them down and prevent too much damage to Fanxing City. However, the original plan to set off today was forced to be postponed for two days, as they had to settle the individual gangs in Fanxing City before they could leave.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin waited for another two days. When they went online on the third day, Xiao Xiao Yuxia was still busy as hell, but she finally managed to free the other people. They all looked pale and as if they were exhausted from diarrhea.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu couldn't help but say, " These people are so annoying. They are all looking for trouble. I want to have a fight with someone. When will the arena or the venue be open? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Isn't it easy to fight? "

After saying that, he tapped Qi Qin beside him, raised his chin towards Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian, and said, " Pick one? "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

Jian Xixinjiu said timidly: " No, no, it will hurt your body. "

Ji Xuanyi sneered and said nothing more.

However, there are really a lot of people looking for trouble recently. If Ji Xuanyi didn't have Qi Qin by his side, he would probably easily get into arguments with others for weird reasons like " What are you looking at? " or " What's wrong with me looking at you? "

Xiao Xiao Yu said with his dying breath: " Stop joking, get ready to gather and set off. You can each notify the people. Xiao Han, tell the people in Chen Shi who are going to go, and gather at the inner city square. "

Seeing that Xiaoxiao Yuxia looked like he was about to die, everyone didn't dare to worry him any more and quickly went to contact people.

Because of their gang affiliation, Ji Xuanyi didn't need to contact his friends in Green Forest City. He was just about to go to the inner city square to wait when he heard Xiao Xiaoyu calling him.

 " What's wrong? " Ji Xuan asked.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia frowned and said, " It's about the twins. "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned, he almost forgot about this matter because he didn't have time to compete with the twins online.

 " Any news? " Ji Xuan asked.

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia shook her head and said, " There is indeed something wrong with the twins, but there is nothing abnormal about them. Although the private chat cannot be monitored, it is hard to say whether they have contacted Zhao Chen and other guys, but they did not do what spies should do. They just completed tasks every day and rarely went to the trading house. "

This is very strange. Why did they feel guilty about Ji Xuanyi the last time they saw him?

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " Could it be that he said something bad about me behind my back? "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia shook her head and said, " It's unlikely. They are not children anymore. They wouldn't feel guilty even if they said something bad about you. Besides, I ran into them the day before yesterday and they also looked very guilty. "

And it wasn't just a guilty feeling. Xiao Xiaoyuxia recalled that when she met them, there seemed to be something wrong. It was exactly the same feeling as Ji Xuanyi said, but Xiao Xiaoyuxia just felt that something was wrong. When she thought about it more carefully, she couldn't figure it out.

Ji Xuanyi couldn't think of anything either, so he could only sigh and say, " Let them be. They are guilty of everything. It's impossible that they have buried bombs under the ground of Star City. Maybe they have done something strange offline. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia also felt that no matter how the twins thought about it, they would not be able to do anything strange, so she just said casually: " If it's offline, how about asking Mi Yin to check it out? "

Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " Forget it, it won't be his responsibility in the future, why bother with this effort? "

Upon hearing this, Xiaoxiao Yuxia nodded in agreement and simply put the matter aside and stopped thinking about it.

Because there weren't many people, only about twenty in total, it was no different from an ordinary dungeon group. The most important thing was that Xu Chuyi arrived at the very beginning, so they gathered very quickly. In less than half an hour, everyone was ready to set off.

Ji Xuanyi lowered his head and sent a private message to the old Western doctor.

[Ji Xuanyi] : Let's set off.

[Old Western Doctor] : Monkey!

Chapter 157

The delegation from Fanxing City arrived safely in Youyue City two days later. This time, Ye Linyu was very considerate and brought the executives of the Dancing Gang to warmly welcome everyone.

Xu Chu came to Youyue City for the second time , but he didn't feel anything different . He didn't even look at the gang leader Ye Linyu . He just sighed and said, " As expected, you still have to ride a horse when you go out! "

Liu Tian smiled smugly , and was about to show off and ask Xu Chu if he finally knew his own advantages , when he heard Xu Chu say, I " should have known I should have played a knight earlier. "

If it wasn't for the fact that they had to fight among themselves in front of Ye Linyu and the others, Liu Tian would probably have kicked Xu Chu off his horse immediately.

Ji Xuanyi originally wanted to contact Yun Zhongjian secretly, but after looking around, he found that he was not there , so he asked the old western doctor: " Where is Yun Zhongjian? "

The old western doctor was just about to catch up with Ji Xuan , but he didn't expect that he would ask Yun Zhongjian right away. He was speechless and said, " Fuck, you have forgotten your old love now that you have a new love. What is my relationship with you ? What is Yun Zhongjian's relationship with you? Why are you asking him instead of me? "

Ji Xuanyi subconsciously glanced at Qi Qin when he heard this, and found that he was also looking at him, so he couldn't help but said nervously: " What are you talking about ? What about new love or old love ? Can you be more polite? Where is the person? "

Seeing that he had no intention of repenting, the old western doctor could only say: " Lao Yun is not an executive. He is not even a member of the dance gang. Why is he here? "

Ji Xuan thought about it and said, " Where is he now? I'm not a member of the three major gangs, so I don't need to chat with them. Just take me to find him? "

The old western doctor waved his hand and said, " We can't find him now. He's busy. The leader of the Goubi Gang sent him to do a mission. He was afraid that he wouldn't kill monsters fast enough and would delay the completion of the mission. He also arranged several people to help. If Youyue Village wasn't so poor that it didn't even have a good horse, he would probably have been equipped with a knight! "

Ji Xuan was so upset when he heard this that he said, " Has Ye Linyu made up his mind to squeeze Yunzhongjian's luck? "

" Who said it wasn't true? " the old western doctor said worriedly, " I hope Lao Yun can hold on and not use up all his energy all at once. I plan to rub his little red hand in the future. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

It turns out that you are friends with Yun Zhongjian because of his luck. I really see through you! If the old Western doctor knew what Ji Xuanyi was thinking, he would probably spit back at him. You talk as if that's not why you're here!

Ji Xuanyi didn't give up and had a private chat with Yun Zhongjian, but the latter didn't reply. It seemed that he was really being exploited as the old western doctor said. So he had to put the matter aside for the moment and followed everyone to the Dance Gang's base.

It was said that they were discussing cooperation with Youyue City, but in fact it was just a negotiation between the three major gangs and the Dancing Gang. As a semi-outsider, Ji Xuanyi couldn't intervene too much, so he had to let Xu Chu take the lead, while he and Qi Qin sat on the side and ate fruit.

Xu Chu logged in at 10 o'clock this morning. After arriving here, he had not had time to log off to rest. He did not want to waste time talking to Ye Linyu, so he said directly: " Boss Ye should know why we are here. We all know the interests involved, so let's just talk about the price. "

Ye Linyu looked at Xu Chu with a smile but said nothing.

Xu Chu also smiled at him, and then said: " The event rewards are nothing more than that. We will divide them equally after it's over. Of course, Ji Xuanyi also said that your Youyue City's amazing European emperor must have gotten more maps. We certainly won't take advantage of it for nothing. "

" Two hundred special-effect purple weapons, three hundred orange materials, and two orange suits, what do you say? "

As soon as Xu Chu announced the price, the old Western doctor sitting next to Ye Linyu immediately gasped. The " hissing " sound gave Ye Linyu a headache.

Before the old western doctor had finished breathing in the cold air, Ye Linyu raised his hand and half-patted and half-covered his mouth, saying with a fake smile: " Sorry, I'm sleepy, I yawned. "

The old Western doctor reacted immediately and cooperated by changing the " hissing " sound into a yawn. He almost choked on his saliva, but at least he seemed less of a bumpkin.

The old Western doctor yawned , cleared his throat, and sat up straighter to appear less weak. Ye Linyu raised an eyebrow at Xuchu and said, " More than 200 special effects are given away without blinking an eye. You are indeed a person on the rich list. You have more in your hands, right? No wonder the prices of special effects on the second server are higher than those on other servers. "

Xu Chu smiled and said, " It's OK. It still depends on whether the boss is satisfied or not. "

The old western doctor was sitting next to Ye Linyu, looking very excited. Ye Linyu didn't even need to turn his head to look, he knew that this person must be desperately winking at him and muttering: " Satisfied, satisfied, satisfied, satisfied ..."

I don't know where I recruited this fool from in the first place, Ye Linyu couldn't help but think. If the old western doctor knew his thoughts, he would definitely defend himself. After all, he was indeed very smart. Look at Zuo An! Look at Liu Tian! Compared with them, the old western doctor was simply a genius!

However, the old Western doctor has one advantage that Ye Linyu likes most, that is, whenever he encounters something related to the gang, he will not make a decision on his own, but will give priority to seeking Ye Linyu's opinion. He also trusts Ye Linyu's decision very much, and will do whatever he is told to do without any ambiguity. Even though he is now blinded by money and excited as if he has turned on the vibration mode, he did not speak for Ye Linyu. In fact, Ye Linyu really didn't like the equipment that Xu Chu took out.

The game level is improving, the plot is updating, and the equipment is the same. Special effects are of course good, but how long can they be used? With Yunzhongjian, Ye Linyu certainly knows that he will reach the maximum level soon. After the event is opened, there will definitely be more ways to produce new equipment. No matter how outstanding the special effects of special effect equipment are, under the suppression of attributes, they can only become dispensable transitional equipment and will soon be replaced.

What's more, there is something more important.

Ye Linyu smiled and said, " The prop for this event is a map. "

He put emphasis on the word " one piece " and said, " Do the three major gangs know what this means? "

Xu Chu pretended to be stupid and said, " A new map is going to be opened again? "

Ye Linyu glanced at him and did not expose him. Instead, he explained very seriously: " Of course the new map will be opened, but the rewards for this event are very likely not as simple as the last world mission. "

 " The authorities are marking out our territory and preparing for faction gameplay. "

Ye Linyu dropped a bomb calmly, and everyone present except him, Xu Chu, and Ji Xuanyi was shocked.

Everyone looked at Ye Linyu in amazement. They never expected to receive this news here! Liu Tian couldn't help but yelled: " What?! This activity is for the territory?! "

Ye Linyu spread his hands and said, " The entire server can only piece together one complete map. Apart from this explanation, I can't think of any reason why the official set the event props so harshly. "

Ye Linyu looked at Xu Chu and said, " No matter how precious the equipment and materials are, how can they compare to the real territory? I will never agree to split the event rewards equally. "

Xu Chu sighed.

I have to say that Ye Linyu is really a smart man.

As for what the final reward of this event would be, Xu Chu actually had a private chat with Ji Xuanyi to discuss this issue. Simply throwing out a map and marking the territory was one of the results they came up with.

However, although this possibility exists, it is not big nor small. Ye Linyu mentioned this possibility at this time, of course, it does not mean that the reward will be this, but it is just to lay the foundation for the sky-high price that will be asked for later. After all, the possibility is already here. If you, Fanxing City, really want to take advantage of such a big price without bleeding some money, is it possible?

Xu Chu was helpless and said, " Now that Gang Leader Ye has said it, I don't need to play tricks anymore. Let's be frank. However, these equipments are nothing to me. Just consider them as gifts to Youyue City. There is no need to refuse. Just accept them. "

That's more like it. Ye Linyu smiled, nodded, and asked the old Western doctor to go upstairs and collect the things.

Originally, when Ye Linyu refused, the old Western doctor had already prepared to say goodbye to these special effects. He didn't expect a sudden turn of events and he would actually accept them as gifts. He was so happy that he couldn't stop grinning. He took two executives to hand over the equipment and materials to Liu Tian and others. Liu Tian's face turned pale, but he had to hand over all the equipment and materials reluctantly.

Forget it, territory is still more important, Liu Tian comforted himself in his heart.

There is a saying that goes, "A man who eats someone's food will be soft-hearted, and a man who takes someone's money will be obliged to return the favor." Ye Linyu had been very firm in his words before, but now he accepted the things so readily. It was obvious that he had never intended to refuse cooperation from the beginning, and he was just pretending to raise the price before.

Xu Chu didn't know much about this person. Although he heard from Ji Xuanyi that the other party was very scheming, he was still one step behind in defense and lost a lot of equipment. He was so embarrassed.

Ye Linyu seemed to think it was not enough, he smiled and said, " In fact, I also know that with the strength of Youyue City, even if we get more fragments and take the initiative, we may not be able to successfully mark the territory. Even if we mark it, whether we can keep it in the future is also a problem. With the official promotion of faction gameplay, neutrality is actually not suitable for a main city like us. We still have to find a good ally. "

Xu Chu smiled and secretly ground his back teeth.

Ye Linyu said: " The size of the territory occupied by the camp will definitely affect the benefits of the camp's gameplay later. Its importance is self-evident, so this time I will not say anything polite. Cooperation is fine, and I have also laid out the conditions. At least in the next five activities, Starry City must cooperate with Youyue City and share the rewards equally. If the rewards cannot be shared equally, then we will postpone it for one period. Correspondingly, if the event rewards are very generous or important, we can also use one for two or one for three as appropriate. How about that, very fair, right? "

Xu Chu almost slapped Ye Linyu in the face. Is this fucking fair?

The previous activities were still not full-level activities, and the rewards were very considerable. After this activity, they will face full-level activities, and the rewards will only be better than before the full level! Moreover, according to the time of the activities not being full-level, the five activities spanned nearly a year, which means that during this year, Star City was in debt and needed to coax Youyue City. If Youyue City encountered any small problems, Star City would have to help!

Even if Ye Linyu said that it was possible to get one for two or one for three, who has the final say on whether the event rewards are important or not, and whether they are worth it? At least it is definitely not the case that Fanxing City has the final say! Looking at the old fox Ye Linyu's appearance, will he automatically give in and say that a certain event is indeed important and can be worth two for one?

If Ye Linyu really had a change of heart and said something like this, Xu Chu didn't dare to imagine how much benefit they had given up in such an important event.

It's so scary!

When the old western doctor came back with his things packed up, he saw Xu Chu's expression that looked like he wanted to eat Ye Linyu alive, but he had to force a smile. He couldn't help but think in his heart that it seemed that he wanted to beat the leader of the Dogbi Gang to death every time. The problem was really not with him, but because the leader of the Dogbi Gang was too dog-like!

I can contact my friend Ji Xuanyi later and see if I can secretly put a sack on the leader of the Dog Gang ...

The old western doctor was plotting in his mind, completely forgetting to consider how two magic professions were going to put on a swordsman's sack.

Xu Chu had never been so angry before. After all, in most cases he was the one who made others angry. It took him a long time to calm down. Just as he was about to speak, he heard Ye Linyu suddenly laugh.

Xu Chu frowned and looked at him, saying, " What's wrong with Gang Leader Ye? "

Ye Linyu was fine. He just found it a little funny when he saw the old western doctor's expression of sympathy when he looked at Xu Chu.

After the old western doctor absentmindedly returned to his seat, Ye Linyu said to Xu Chu: " I know what you want to say, but I must have my reasons for proposing such a condition. "

Xu Chu said " Oh? " and looked at him with a half-smile.

You took my stuff and set such unreasonable terms. You tell me you are right? Are you afraid that I can't help but beat you?

Ye Linyu had a confident smile on his face and said, " For this event, Youyue City and Fanxing City are cooperating. The rewards will not be split in half, but 40% and 60% respectively.

Youyue City gets 40% and Fanxing City gets 60%. How do you think? "

Xu Chu was stunned for a moment, then he felt relieved. Then he couldn't help but curse Ye Linyu for being cunning in his heart.

If the territory is divided into 4:6, then the equipment materials, as well as the concessions made in the five collaborations, although it would still be a bit painful for Fanxing City, it is indeed a worthwhile price. Just as Ye Linyu said, his conditions were very fair.

The cunningness of Ye Linyu lies in that if he first says that the reward after cooperation is 40% to 60% and then starts to propose conditions, Xu Chu will definitely bargain with him in order to establish a cooperative relationship, and Youyue City will definitely make some concessions in the end.

But this person first proposed an unacceptable condition, then took a step back and said a 40-60 decision. With the concession first, Xu Chu couldn't bargain at all! If he continued to talk, it would seem that Fanxing City was pushing for more!

This person has a very bad conscience!

After Xu Chu figured it out, he almost couldn't help rolling his eyes at Ye Linyu. After a long while, he said dryly: " It's fair to say so, but there is a condition to be put in front of you. "

Ye Linyu nodded without hesitation and said, " Youyue City will certainly not take advantage of Fanxing City for nothing. Whether the cooperation conditions set this time will take effect depends on whether the reward for this event is a territory. If it is, we will do as we said today. If not, Youyue City will certainly not mention this matter again. We will cooperate and divide the things equally. "

After that, Ye Linyu said hypocritically: " If Fanxing City doesn't want to, we can return the previous batch of equipment. "

Xu Chu almost vomited blood, thinking that you have already said everything, what the hell can I say! At that moment, he could only bite the bullet and said: " How can I do that? Since it is a gift, of course there is no such thing as taking it back. Just keep it, boss. "

Upon hearing this, Ye Linyu smiled harmlessly and said, " Thank you, Star City. It is indeed the largest city. It is so impressive! "

Xu Chu was speechless and just waved his hand. The two of them went to draft the contract together, took screenshots, and made backups.

Although the old western doctor usually cursed Ye Linyu as a bastard every day, the latter was indeed capable and the old western doctor admired him. Seeing that he had settled the matter in no time, the old western doctor followed him like a lackey without even saying goodbye to Ji Xuanyi.

Liu Tian and his group had no idea what was going on. They only knew that Xu Chu looked very unhappy. Now that the important people on the other side had left, they all came to Ji Xuanyi and gossiped, " What happened to Xu Chu? He doesn't look well? "

Ji Xuanyi sighed, shook his head, and chatted with Xiao Xiaoyu who chose to stay in Star City: " The enemy was too cunning, Xu Chu was defeated and suffered a great loss. In addition to the equipment, he also lost a year's activities. "

After a while, Xiaoxiao Yuxia responded.

[Rain falls] : ...

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : Fuck! I knew he was a bully!

According to Xiaoxiao Yuxia, Xu Chu should postpone his meeting for ten days or half a month.

Once Ye Linyu is no longer confused, everything will be easy to discuss.

However, in Ji Xuanyi's opinion, regardless of whether Xiao Xiaoyuxia's hindsight is useful or not, when it comes to a guy like Lin Yu, you really can't say whether he will lose his composure at some point.

When Xu Chu came back, he looked completely listless, without any spirit at all. It made people feel so sorry for him.

Even Ji Xuanyi, who was ready to beat him up at any moment, couldn't help but go up to him and ask with concern: " Are you okay? "

" Not good, " Xu Chu said with a sad face, " This damn Ye Linyu is too difficult to deal with. Talking to him is more tiring than talking to my dad. "

Ji Xuanyi thought about it and felt that the situation in his family might be much more serious than Xu Chu's.

Ye Linyu also came in with a smile. If the person who said this just now was the old western doctor, he would definitely be arrogant and would definitely acknowledge the father-son relationship. However, Xu Chu was a guest from Star City after all, so Ye Linyu didn't pretend to be naughty and said, " Is this everyone's first time in Youyue City? I can ask someone to take you around. "

After saying that, he looked at Xu Chu. Xu Chu was the leader of the team, so it would depend on his decision as to what would happen.

Xu Chu secretly rolled his eyes, waved his hands, and said, " Everyone can do whatever they want. We have to go back to complete the mission after playing for a few days. "

After saying that, he went offline directly. He never wanted to deal with Ye Linyu again.

Ye Linyu didn't think Xu Chu was impolite, and he smiled and arranged for other people. The old Western doctor of course knew that he had taken advantage, and stood aside with a red face, ready to help Ye Linyu.

Ji Xuan couldn't stand it anymore, so he grabbed the old western doctor and said, " Don't get involved. It's better to take me and Tianxia with you instead of taking them out to play. Let's go. "

Ye Linyu took the time to glance at the old Western doctor, but since he was caught by Ji Xuanyi, he ignored him.

Ji Xuanyi is not a bad person, and the old western doctor knows this well, so he won't be cheated.

The old western doctor felt that Youyue City had taken advantage, and he couldn't help but be friendly when facing Ji Xuanyi, saying: " Hey, when can you introduce me to your representative, we can stand together to deal with the dog gang leader! "

Ji Xuanyi didn't bother to pay attention to him and said directly: " Take me to find Yunzhongjian. "

The old western doctor was a little reluctant when he heard this. Yunzhongjian was the great treasure of Youyue City, how could he show such a treasure to others casually? What if Ji Xuan had some bad intentions? What should he do then?

Ji Xuanyi understood his concerns and couldn't help but scold him: " We have already formed an alliance and signed the terms. What are you afraid of? "

The old western doctor then reluctantly formed a team with Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin and took them to Yunzhong Jianqing's mission location.

" In fact, your Fanxing City didn't suffer much, " the old western doctor couldn't help but mutter as he walked on the road: " Let's not talk about our Youyue City, isn't Fanxing City most worried about the Sun City? With us here, the Sun City will definitely not get one-third of the map. Even if we divide it 40% and 60% on both sides, the first main city will still be yours. If you don't cooperate, then it's not good. Although our conditions are high, it's worth it! There is no such thing as a cheap deal in the world! "

Ji Xuanyi pretended not to hear anything. He still wanted to find Yun Zhongjian first. If nothing unexpected happened, Yun Zhongjian must have several puzzle pieces in his hands after working on this task for so long. He just didn't know if they could be put together with the two pieces in his hands. It would be great if he could find some clues.

Ji Xuanyi still remembered the information he had obtained during the conversations in the two wizard towers, but the information and the map were both incoherent and difficult to connect together, otherwise Ji Xuanyi would be able to barely guess something now.

" By the way, didn't you help drive away that itchy guy who was begging for a hammer last time you came? " the old western doctor suddenly mentioned.

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, and only after hearing the impressive name of Piyangqiuchui did he remember that incident. His expression softened a little, and he said, " Oh, that incident. He went back without seeing the tail. What happened to the Mu Houfan Club? " Although Ji Xuanyi appeared not to care about these false reputations, in reality, who doesn't have some vanity? The first thing he asked was whether his fan club was still there.

The old western doctor didn't know this and thought Ji Xuanyi was quite sympathetic and caring towards girls, so he immediately said, " I only told you about the punishment for asking for a hammer before, and forgot to tell you about what happened between the two gangs. Actually, it wasn't a big deal, they just went back to their own homes and are still neighbors, but their relationship has improved a lot, and they still help each other. Also, I heard that the mage girl named Xiaoxiao seems to be in love with the leader of the Qingyu Gang, I don't know if it's true or not. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't have the leisure to gossip about other people's love lives. When he heard that his fan club was fine and Yiduo Xiaohua and the others were fine, he didn't ask any more questions.

The place where Yun Zhongjian was doing the quest was quite remote. When the old western doctor brought Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin to find him, he was squatting with a few players from the dancing gang, doing a quest to help bake potatoes.

How could a Buddhist player like Yun Zhongjian not practice some life skills? The roasted potatoes were so fragrant that Ji Xuanyi was a little greedy, and Qi Qin behind him couldn't help swallowing his saliva.

The few players who were helping with the quest beside Yunzhongjian were also roasting the food in their hands while looking at Yunzhongjian eagerly.

Yun Zhongjian is a man with extremely good luck. No one knows where he got the cooking secrets from. The potatoes he baked are so delicious that they can be sold at a stall.

Yun Zhongjian was also very considerate. When he noticed that everyone was looking at him, he immediately asked those players if they wanted to eat.

However, even though those players wanted to eat, they would definitely not nod their heads.

After all, these potatoes were to be used to complete tasks. Their task was to help Yunzhongjian complete the task as quickly as possible and get more activity props. How could they eat Yunzhongjian's potatoes and hold them back now!

But just because they don't eat it doesn't mean no one else eats it.

The old western doctor raised his hand from a distance and said, " Give me one portion, and also Ji Xuanyi and Tianxia's, let's roast them together! "

When Yun Zhongjian heard the old western doctor's voice, he immediately stood up and said happily: " Why are you here? And Xuan Yi and Tian Xia are here too. "

The old western doctor said: " I didn't want to disturb you, but Ji Xuanyi came and insisted on seeing you. Alas, it was very troublesome, so I had no choice but to bring him here. "

Yun Zhongjian smiled, looked at the three of them, and chose to hand the baked potato in his hand to Qi Qin, who looked the hungriest.

Qi Qin was flattered and thanked him. He swallowed his saliva, peeled the skin while it was still hot, and fed it to Ji Xuanyi.

Old Western doctor: "..."

Yun Zhongjian smiled and asked the old western doctor if he wanted more, he could continue to roast. The old western doctor looked at Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin with disdain and said: " I'm not hungry anymore, all you do is feed me dog food every day, don't single dogs have human rights? "

Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to listen to his nonsense. Just as he was about to talk to Yun Zhongjian, a few dancing players came over.

They originally wanted to remind Yun Zhongjian to do the task, but when they came over and saw the old western doctor, they realized what was going on and said, " Old western doctor, what are we doing now? Should we continue to accompany Yun Zhongjian to do the task? "

The old western doctor glanced at them, hesitated for a moment, and thought that Ye Linyu had been anxious to let Yun Zhongjian do the task in order to increase his bargaining chips. Now that the negotiations were over, there was no need to rush, so he said: " No need, just do what you need to do. "

The players nodded and dispersed.

The old western doctor did not forget to tell Ye Linyu that he had taken Yun Zhongjian away. As expected, Ye Linyu did not object and just let them play around.

Yun Zhongjian was still thinking about going back to continue roasting potatoes for Qi Qin, Ji Xuan said: " Wait until he is full, it will be dark, and the smell will fade away and he won't be greedy anymore – but your potatoes are too fragrant, is it a special recipe? "

Yun Zhongjian shook his head and said, " No, it's a skill effect that I accidentally found in the library of the Mage Tower. The food I cook has a flavor bonus, but it only makes you happier when you eat it, and the food properties are no different. "

Ji Xuanyi nodded when he heard that, but didn't ask him which book it fell from. After all, Yun Zhongjian was not Mi Yin, so it would be strange if he could remember it.

Yun Zhongjian asked somewhat embarrassedly: " Are you coming to Youyue City for the event? "

Since Ye Linyu helped him with the task, Yun Zhongjian also knew a little about the situation. Ji Xuan nodded and said, " The conditions have been negotiated. Now the two main cities have decided to form an alliance. "

The old western doctor felt that there was something wrong with what Ji Xuanyi said. He was about to interrupt when he heard Ji Xuanyi say before him: " So we can exchange information in advance and see how to piece together the map fragments. "

Old Western doctor: "..."

I knew you wanted to deceive our Youyue City's naive darling! Ye Linyu hasn't even seen the map fragment in Yun Zhongjian's hand!

The old western doctor was about to get mad, but Ji Xuan looked at him and said, " What's the matter? Haven't we already decided to cooperate? Can't we share information? "

The old western doctor was silent for a long time before he said, " Sharing is sharing, the boss hasn't seen the dog yet! "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Must Ye Linyu look at it before giving it to us? Then how can I be sure that he didn't secretly withhold one or two? "

This was too much of a blow to the old western doctor's reputation. He was about to get angry, but suddenly he remembered that with Ye Linyu's level of idiot, he might really be able to do such a thing. He immediately lost his confidence and stepped down like a deflated balloon, saying in a mosquito-like voice: " That idiot is not that kind of person. "

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows and said, " Next time if you want to say something against your will, you can pretend to be more confident. This kind of excuse is too insincere. "

Old Western doctor: "..."

He wanted to defend himself sincerely! But Ye Linyu was such a jerk that he didn't even give him the chance to defend himself!

At that moment, he could only give in obediently, but still said: " Of course we can see the fragments of Yunzhongjian, but we also want to see your fragments. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Of course. "

After that, he casually arranged three map fragments and said, " These are all what I got from the dungeon. I came here as soon as the dungeon activity ended, and I didn't do many quests. " When Ji Xuan mentioned the copy, the old western doctor's eyes twitched.

Other pvp players are just incompatible with the dungeon. Old Western Doctor really is incompatible with the dungeon. He just wants to sleep as soon as he enters the dungeon.

Originally, Ye Linyu planned to let him help with the opening up of the dungeon, but Old Western Doctor fell asleep in the dungeon while playing and was disconnected. After that, he was severely scolded by Ye Linyu. He is still scared when he thinks about it now.

However, because of this, he didn't contribute much in the dungeon activity, let alone fragments. He didn't even get any demon gold coins. Now he only had a dozen gold coins saved from completing tasks in the past two days. If he wanted to give them to Ye Linyu, Ye Linyu wouldn't even have the nerve to accept them.

Although he had never played this game before, the old western doctor couldn't help but exclaimed when he saw the three fragments that Ji Xuan had taken out: " Only three? "

The veins on Ji Xuanyi's forehead jumped as he said, " Don't think everyone is lucky just because you've been playing with Yun Zhongjian for so long. If you were to play by yourself, it would be another matter whether you have a card or not! "

The old western doctor touched his nose, but he had to admit that Ji Xuanyi was right. He looked at Yun Zhongjian and said, " Old Yun, how many do you have? "

Yun Zhongjian smiled a little embarrassedly. The main force in the development of Star City was the three major gangs, and the main force in the development of Youyue City was of course the Dancing Gang. Yun Zhongjian was not from the Dancing Gang, and he could not be ranked in terms of strength. Although the old Western doctor wanted to lead him, passing the level was the first factor. No matter how lucky you are, it is useless if you can't beat them. So since the start of the event, he has been hanging out in a wild group.

Although Yunzhongjian has the bonus of luck, when faced with weak teammates, the European Emperor can only say that he can't carry them.

Whenever he touched a box, there would most likely be something inside, but no one in the group he joined could defeat the boss , so he only hastily started collecting fragments with the help of the dancing gang players after the event ended.

Yun Zhongjian seemed to have failed everyone's expectations. He took out his backpack with shame and said, " I have been working on the task for several days, but only fourteen cards have been issued ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Otherwise, how can he be called the Emperor of Europe? When people are compared, they die; when goods are compared, they are thrown away. Sometimes he even wishes he could eat Yun Zhongjian alive, but he doesn't know if that can replenish his luck.

The old western doctor had been with Yunzhongjian for a long time and had lost his ability to understand the drop rate. He didn't have any special reaction at the moment, but he felt that he might be at a disadvantage. He scratched his head and said, " Remember which three cards you brought. Let's try to see if we can put them together. "

Chapter 158

There are seventeen fragments in total, but no one knows how big this map is . The most annoying thing is that Yunzhongjian's luck seems to only affect the drop rate of the fragments , but does not automatically select the location of the fragments.

Everyone knows that the easiest part of a puzzle is the edge part, because there will be one or two sides that are fixed , and only two or three sides need to be compared with other puzzle pieces.

But the fourteen pieces that Yun Zhongjian took out, including the three that Ji Xuanyi took out, all had irregular middle parts. The four people were almost scratching their heads bald , and they tried to put the pieces together in different directions , but they couldn't match them up.

" Hiss! " The old western doctor took a breath and said to Yun Zhongjian: " I have just tried this piece! Didn't I tell you? "

Yun Zhongjian just smiled apologetically when Ji Xuanyi slapped the old western doctor on the back. Then, in front of the old doctor's confused gaze , he snatched the fragment from his hand and said coldly: " You took this from my pile. "

Old Western doctor: "..."

The old western doctor kicked his legs and said angrily: " I won't fight anymore! What the hell is this! "

Ji Xuanyi pushed him away and said coldly, t want to fight anymore'If you don " , just go away . I'm so annoyed. "

The old western doctor muttered, " This is so fucking annoying. The officials are sick. They are still trying to put the puzzle together! You are also sick. You haven't found all the pieces yet. It's strange that you can put the puzzle together! "

As soon as Ji Xuan glanced at him , the old Western doctor fell silent and rolled away.

It is indeed very troublesome to put the puzzle together like this. In fact, Ji Xuanyi was a little impatient, but Qi Qin was next to him, so his impatience did not break out for the time being, and he managed to keep his rationality.

But this was not a solution. Yun Zhongjian sighed, stood up and said, " Why not just forget it? I'll go and complete the tasks for another two days and collect some fragments. Doesn't Xuan Yi have to stay for another two days? "

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin compared the fragments together and said without looking up: " That's true, but there aren't many tasks for us to do here, not to mention that no one else can get the fragments as efficiently as you do. We've already visited all the places we should have visited, and we have nothing to do, so we might as well just put the puzzle together here. "

What Ji Xuanyi said was indeed correct, and now Fanxing City and Youyue City have formed an alliance, the evidence has been preserved, and everyone has the same goal. Rather than living in Youyue City and doing nothing, it would be more practical to lend a hand.

Seeing how determined he was, Yun Zhongjian did not say anything to stop him. Instead, when he saw Ji Xuanyi comparing a corner of a puzzle piece with several other pieces, he could not help but squat down and help him pick up a piece that the old Western doctor had thrown far away .

Ji Xuanyi looked up at him, took it and said, " Thank you. "

Yun Zhongjian smiled and said, " I'll go finish the task at hand first, you guys keep working hard. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything. There were many small dots on the map in his hand, and there were similar small dots on the corner of the map that Yun Zhongjian handed to him.

Is the European Emperor's physique so good? Ji Xuanyi thought to himself, and put the two map fragments together in disbelief.

It actually closed!

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

The old western doctor was just clamoring to help Yun Zhongjian. Ji Xuanyi sighed and said, "Two pieces match."

Everyone was stunned when they heard this. The old western doctor almost stumbled. He hurriedly came to Ji Xuanyi, looked at him eagerly, and said, "Where is it? Where is it?!"

Yun Zhongjian also came over, not realizing that the piece of paper he had put together was the one he had handed to Ji Xuanyi, and asked curiously, "What's on it?"

There isn't much information contained in the two small fragments. It's the same when they are put together. There are only small dots that can be considered to have a regular pattern, and nothing else.

"What could this be?" The old western doctor's face wrinkled.

Yun Zhongjian also said: "It feels like anything is possible. This piece is too small, and we don't know how big the entire map is."

Ji Xuanyi felt a headache when he looked at those sesame-sized dots.

Qi Qin was sitting next to Ji Xuanyi. He leaned over to take a look and then said hesitantly, "Could this be water?"

The old western doctor and Yun Zhongjian looked at him at the same time and said, "Water?"

Qi Qin was startled and subconsciously moved closer to Ji Xuanyi. After a long while, he said, "Well, I've seen this kind of pattern used to represent water on some maps before."

When the old western doctor heard this, he suddenly realized, "Yes! There was indeed a map in an ancient style game before, and the water was also drawn like this, but the game was too realistic and the setting was so realistic that it was impossible to play. It turned yellow very quickly, so I didn't even remember it for a while."

After the old western doctor's shouting, Ji Xuanyi also remembered and nodded, "I have the same impression. Tianxia is right. This may indeed represent water."

"But it's useless to know this," the old western doctor suddenly became depressed again: "What can water tell us? Is there a lake or a river in the new map? It's useless."

Qi Qin thought for a moment and said, "This kind of pattern is usually used to represent water, so the area of water should be quite large."

Yun Zhongjian said: "Does this mean that the new map might be very similar to the Prisoner's Sea?"

The old western doctor said quickly: "Forget it. Are you going to publish another stupid map like the one about the claustrophobic sea? Not everyone can do synchronized swimming!"

Ji Xuanyi also said: "It shouldn't be. If it's the same as the Confined Sea, then there's no need to draw a map. Since the water is specifically marked, there must be land. However, this land is likely to be more like the Quanshui Town, which is surrounded by water –"

When Ji Xuanyi said this, he was suddenly stunned.

Neither the old western doctor nor Yun Zhongjian noticed it. Only Qi Qin asked with concern: "What's wrong, Xuanyi?"

Ji Xuanyi looked up at him and blinked.

The old western doctor also looked over and said, " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said slowly: " I have an idea, which may be strange. "

 "What idea? " Yun Zhongjian asked curiously.

Ji Xuan looked at them and said, " This map may not be a map, but a sea chart. "

 " Sea chart?! " everyone shouted in unison, staring at Ji Xuanyi with wide eyes.

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " You should know that since the development of this game, the official has never produced an official paper map for any city. Of course, opening up new maps is important, but is this map important enough for the official to make a special topographic map for this purpose? There is even only one complete map for each server. This setting is completely meaningless unless the goal of the next activity is treasure hunting. But even if it is treasure hunting, the limitation of one map makes it an activity that cannot be participated by all people. No matter how stupid the official is, would they be so stupid? "

 "There is only one explanation, " Ji Xuanyi smiled, " This is not a map that introduces the new map terrain, but a sea chart that helps us find the new map in the vast ocean! "

Everyone was stunned. After a long while, the old western doctor stammered, " This, this, this ... this is too unreliable! Going out to sea?! From these few points, you can tell that the activity is to go out to sea to find a new continent?! "

Ji Xuanyi put down the two puzzle pieces in his hand and said calmly: " It's just a guess, but I think there is a high possibility that this guess is correct. "

The old western doctor's face was almost wrinkled like pickled cabbage: " No way, no way! Going out to sea?! I'm seasick, I don't think the authorities would target me like this, it's impossible! "

In fact, the logic of Ji Xuanyi's speculation is really reasonable, but the old western doctor is born with a bad relationship with water. Yun Zhongjian has already believed most of Ji Xuanyi. Seeing the old western doctor's evasive look, he can only comfort him: " At least going out to sea is on a boat, which is better than being confined in the water. "

The old western doctor said expressionlessly: " I chose the claustrophobic sea realm. Damn it, the claustrophobic sea realm is just drinking other people's bath water. If I fall into it when I go out to sea, I might end up drinking my own vomit. "

When everyone heard this, they were disgusted by him. Ji Xuan's face turned green and he said, " Can you be more polite? "

The old western doctor shouted: " Be particular?! You're going to be particular even if your life is gone?! Did I say anything about drinking water in a confined sea environment? "

Yun Zhongjian whispered, " You say this every day. "

The old western doctor glared at him, and Yun Zhongjian quickly made a zipper motion on his mouth.

The old western doctor then continued to insist, " If this is really going out to sea, I will definitely not participate. How long does the claustrophobic sea mission last? Going out to sea, sea! Yes, sea! I have to stay on the boat for several days. I will die in this game! "

Yun Zhongjian comforted him, " No, no, there is a security system in the game that will kick you offline directly. "

The old western doctor was very upset and said, " Then I will die in the game cabin too! Are you trying to comfort me? "

Yun Zhongjian smacked his lips and stopped talking.

Ji Xuan couldn't stand it anymore and said, " You only know how to bully Yun Zhongjian every day, why don't you go and confront Ye Linyu! "

The old western doctor bullies the weak and fears the strong. He is going to confront Ye Linyu? He is afraid that he will be confronted ten times more. However, he does not dare to confront Ji Xuanyi. He snorted angrily and leaned heavily on Yun Zhongjian as if in protest.

But he was a pastor, so how heavy could he be? Yun Zhongjian didn't even shake at all, and he even held him steady with a silly smile on his face .

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi pointed at the two of them and said, " You two can just fight and be beaten! "

The old Western doctor was unhappy because the upcoming activity might be going out to sea. However, this matter could not be solved just by being unhappy. Since it might be going out to sea, even if there is no boat, you have to swim out to take a look.

Ji Xuanyi said, " Give Ye Linyu a call and see what he says. "

The old western doctor was stunned for a moment, climbed up from Yun Zhongjian's body, and said: " This is what you found. Have you told those people in Fanxing City? "

Ji Xuanyi glanced at the old Western doctor. He thought that the old Western doctor was trying to avoid reality and was unwilling to tell Ye Linyu this speculation directly. He didn't expect that it was because the information was thought up by Ji Xuanyi, so he wanted Ji Xuanyi to tell the people in Fanxing City first.

Although this old Western doctor always puts the dancing gang first in everything, he is actually quite loyal.

Ji Xuanyi was a little amused and said, " I've already told you that we're an alliance, so why are you still acting like we're rivals? This kind of intelligence is the same no matter which side gets it. "

What's more, the party that gets the information first must take action first. Fanxing City has suffered a small loss in terms of alliance conditions. There is nothing wrong with letting Youyue City take a trip into this muddy water first.

The old Western doctor heard that there was nothing wrong with it, nodded, and told Ye Linyu this speculation.

Ye Linyu had just finished chatting with Liu Tian and the others, and Liu Tian was provoking Ye Linyu, but Ye Linyu gave him a silent speech. He was so angry that his companion Jian Xi Xin Jiu couldn't stand it any longer, so he hurriedly He ran away with Liu Tian.

Ye Linyu was stunned for a moment after reading the message from the old Western doctor.

Then he couldn't help but touch his chin and said to himself: " Going to sea? "

It's not impossible. The map of "Domain" is very complete, with all kinds of terrains. It's just that some maps have not been opened yet and there is no gameplay, so they appear particularly desolate. In fact, there are players who go to those places specifically to see the scenery.

In fact, the sea has always existed and its area is not small.

In this game, the maps closest to the sea are several water-attributed maps, including the Claustrophobic Sea, where the sea water flows in through an underground passage leading to the sea.

And Youyue City is the closest to the sea among the three main cities.

In fact, no matter whether the news reaches Fanxing City or Youyue City first, Youyue City will definitely be the first to go into the water in the dark.

In fact, Ye Linyu had already anticipated that he had made a small calculation for Fanxing City, and he would have to contribute more in the activities in the future. When he received this news, he just shook his head helplessly.

The old Western medicine doctor told Ji Xuanyi's speculation to Ye Linyu. Ye Linyu thought it was reliable, but going to sea was not that easy.

You know, human curiosity is endless, especially for players who are addicted to playing games. There is a sea in front of you, how can no one go and take a look? Since the wild areas were fully opened, people have long discovered and explored the sea. There are even posts about sea fishing on the forum.

However, the player's ability lies here. Although it is said that there is no need to eat or drink, and you can float on the sea for a long time while holding a piece of wood, but so far, no one has discovered the New World. After all, the sea gameplay is not open, it is too boring, and curiosity is at best It can support players to float on the sea for three to five days, but it will not be able to support it for any longer.

Even if the event really involves going to sea, if you send people out blindly without a sea map, you will have to drift at sea for at least ten days and a half, no matter whether you can find the new map or not.

Now they only have two maps with small dots on them. If they confirm that they must go to sea and send a large number of people out, if they make a wrong judgment, the resources would be wasted too much.

Ye Linyu thought about it again and again, and could only reply: " I understand. We will send some people to the beach to have a look first. However, things have not been confirmed yet, so the number of people in this group should not be too large. You should try to collect as many fragments as possible. Once everything is confirmed, I will send a large force out to have a look. "

The old western doctor told Ji Xuanyi what Ye Linyu had said. Ji Xuanyi snorted and said , " How inconsiderate. "

In fact, this sentence was just trying to find fault. Ye Linyu's arrangement couldn't be said to be indecisive, he was just cautious.

But who can blame Ye Linyu for his good negotiation skills? Not only did he not get fooled, he also made Fanxing City suffer a little loss. It doesn't matter if he gets criticized a few times now, so just bear with it.

The old western doctor also understood this, and not only did he not refute Ji Xuanyi, he also cursed like a lackey: " That's right! Humph! Ye Linyu, you big dog! "

Ji Xuanyi looked at him speechlessly.

This person is simply seeking personal revenge.

Ji Xuanyi picked up his three fragments and put them away, then returned the rest to Yun Zhongjian and said, "Take them. You are the main force in getting the fragments. The rest of us are just icing on the cake. We will help as much as we can."

Yun Zhongjian smiled embarrassedly.

After the old western doctor finished speaking, he went to help roast potatoes. Ji Xuanyi glanced at him from a distance and said to Yun Zhongjian, "Since the faction gameplay is open, there will definitely be a household registration system in the future. You are not staying in the dance gang, so you will not have good things. I think of you when I need to work. Do you want to consider going to Fanxing City to join us? Fanxing City is not bad. There are two people from Dayo City on our side now."

Yun Zhongjian was stunned for a moment when he heard this, then he smiled and said, "Why do you suddenly ask this ... I, I haven't thought about leaving Youyue City. This place is more suitable for me. Everyone is very kind, and the old western doctor is still here."

Yun Zhongjian was not wrong in saying this, the players of Youyue City were indeed very nice. If we just talk about the atmosphere, it is probably impossible to find a main city in the entire region or server that is more Buddhist than Youyue City on the second server.

"I can't say what the players are like, but your relationship with the Dancing Gang seems to be average? After all, the Dancing Gang is the leading gang in Youyue City. Did Ye Linyu squeeze you out?" Ji Xuan asked.

Yun Zhongjian shook his head repeatedly upon hearing this, and said in surprise: "Why do you say that? Why would the boss of the Ye Gang bully me?"

Ji Xuanyi looked at him suspiciously and said, "No?"

In Ji Xuanyi's opinion, not bringing Yun Zhongjian with him to the game and asking him to do hard labor, isn't this called a run? The reason why he was so anxious to see Yun Zhongjian, in addition to wanting to get information about the map fragments from him, was also because he was worried that Ye Linyu, that bastard, would use the old western doctor to squeeze Yun Zhongjian to do this and that.

Yun Zhongjian shook his head very seriously.

This time Ji Xuanyi was really wrong. Ye Linyu did not bully Yun Zhongjian. At most, he just didn't get along well with Yun Zhongjian and didn't like people with this kind of personality. But as a gang leader, or even the leader of the entire main city, he still had the most basic courtesy towards ordinary players. When he saw Yun Zhongjian, he would smile amiably and say hello. Yun Zhongjian has a good relationship with Lao Xiyi. Lao Xiyi once invited Yun Zhongjian to join the Dancing Gang, and Ye Linyu agreed. Although he himself did not believe in things like luck, he had to admit that Yun Zhongjian was indeed lucky, and joining the Dancing Gang would be of certain help to the gang's development. It's just that Yun Zhongjian himself refused because he was not used to the sense of restraint in the gang.

For example, now, if he was a member of the dancing gang, then if Ye Linyu asked him to work, he would have to do it, but now he is just an individual, Ye Linyu can only ask him for help and send people to help him. Yun Zhongjian can agree if he wants to, and not agree if he doesn't want to. The reason for agreeing is indeed partly because of the old western doctor's request, and the other part is because Yun Zhongjian himself is also willing to help.

As for the copy, it was the old Western doctor who first proposed an invitation to Yun Zhongjian, but Yun Zhongjian knew his own abilities and was afraid that he would be held back because of his bad skills, so he refused. Ye Linyu thought about it and realized that although luck was important, passing the level was the first priority, so he told the old Western doctor not to force Yun Zhongjian, and that's when he gave up.

" My relationship with the Dancing Gang is indeed not that close, and it cannot be compared with your relationship with the three major gangs in Star City, " Yun Zhongjian said a little embarrassedly, " but it's not because of the gang leader, it's just because of my own personality. I only get along with the old Western doctor. "

I became familiar with Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin thanks to my itch for help.

When Ji Xuan heard this, he knew there was nothing more to say, so he could only say: " Okay, since you said so, I won't force you. "

Yun Zhongjian nodded and said with a smile: " If I have time in the future, I will go to Fanxing City to visit you. "

Ji Xuan responded and said, " If you have any worries, you can come to me and I will help you. "

Ji Xuanyi's words were actually mostly polite. After all, if someone like Yun Zhongjian got into trouble, it might not be easy to resolve. If possible, Ji Xuanyi still hoped that the old Western doctor could help Yun Zhongjian resolve the problem directly, so he wouldn't have to go to Fanxing City to find him.

However, when Ji Xuanyi said this, Yun Zhongjian actually showed a conflicted look.

Ji Xuanyi's heart tightened, thinking that this big brother might have secretly stolen the artifact again and then been cheated by someone?

Ji Xuanyi was struggling when he heard Yun Zhongjian say, " Actually, I do have a question I want to ask you. "

Ji Xuanyi silently spat out a mouthful of blood in his heart, and then asked: " What's the matter? "

Yun Zhongjian's face actually turned red, and then he whispered: " It's a relationship matter. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then he said subconsciously: " I can't help you with heterosexual matters, I'm a gay – er, what is it? "

Ji Xuanyi almost stopped talking and didn't say anything embarrassing.

Yun Zhongjian was stunned for a moment before saying, " Heterosexual? No, not really ..."

Ji Xuanyi frowned even more tightly: " Homosexual? "

Yun Zhongjian: " Homosexual ? No ! "

Yun Zhongjian said with a frown on his face: " It's not about feelings, it's about brotherhood, brotherhood! "

Ji Xuanyi suddenly realized what was going on, and then he looked at the old western doctor and said, " What happened between you and the old western doctor? Did he suddenly find out that he was gay and confessed to you? "

Yun Zhongjian almost knelt down in front of Ji Xuanyi and said, " What does this have to do with anything? It has nothing to do with these things, but it does have something to do with the old Western medicine. "

Yun Zhongjian and Lao Xiyi have a very good relationship. They met when the second-level city was opened. Although Yun Zhongjian and Lao Xiyi got along well with each other, Yun Zhongjian upgraded as fast as a fucking immortal and ran to the main city in no time. Later, when Lao Xiyi was alone and slowly upgrading in the second-level city, he met Ye Linyu, a big dog.

The plot is extremely melodramatic. If it were a love story, many people would watch it if it were made into a TV series. However, the story about brotherhood is just as good.

After arriving at the main city, the old Western doctor still has a good relationship with Yun Zhongjian. After all, it's a game, and even if they can't play face to face, it's fun to chat and talk dirty, and the relationship between the two has not faded. And because Ye Linyu, this bastard, only knows how to trick the old Western doctor and doesn't bring him happiness, the old Western doctor prefers to stay with Yun Zhongjian when he has nothing to do.

Until this time, Yun Zhongjian's gaming life was still very fulfilling.

But then, the problem arose. Although Ye Linyu was not as warm-hearted as Yun Zhongjian, and the old Western doctor was not that interested in playing with him, Ye Linyu was not fighting alone. The guild system was open!

Although the old Western doctor is a naughty person, he is very responsible. After happily becoming a senior executive of the Dancing Gang, he spent much less time with Yun Zhongjian and always put the gang first in everything.

Yun Zhongjian said dejectedly, " If I wasn't very familiar with you guys, I wouldn't have said this. I know it's not nice, and even unmanly, nagging, but it's really boring to play games alone. I didn't tell the old western doctor about it because I didn't want to spoil his fun. But I still hope that the old western doctor can do more tasks with me, or just chat with me. "

Just a while ago, the old Western doctor was unable to participate in the dungeon activities, so he went to Yunzhongjian more often. As soon as the dungeon activities ended, the old Western doctor could no longer be found in Yunzhongjian.

The old western doctor was too busy and didn't even have time to chat with Yun Zhongjian. Yun Zhongjian was so lonely that he almost felt like he was going to grow mushrooms.

After Yun Zhongjian finished speaking, he felt very embarrassed and stammered, " So, is there any way to improve this situation? "

Ji Xuan was so annoyed when he heard this that it took him a long time to say, " Your triangle relationship——"

Yunzhongjian said: " Ah? "

Ji Xuanyi rubbed his forehead in pain. With Ye Linyu's personality, he couldn't expect them to develop a family relationship like the Ze Yu Si Shui trio. He could only say dryly, " I can't do anything about this. The old western doctor is really busy, and he's busy for a reason. How about you make a few more friends? "

Yun Zhongjian looked at Ji Xuanyi with an innocent face.

If he had the ability to make more friends, why would he still be clinging to an old Western doctor and forcing others to play with him?

Ji Xuanyi was also helpless, and said: " It's no use for you to tell me this, why don't you go and talk to the old western doctor yourself? The old western doctor may have more ideas in this regard, and maybe he can help you. "

Yun Zhongjian said " Oh " in disappointment and said, " Okay. "

Ji Xuanyi thought about it and reminded: t express it'But don " in such a gay way when you talk to him , or he will think you are gay. "

Upon hearing this, Yun Zhongjian nodded repeatedly.

The old western doctor was getting impatient waiting, he had already lit the fire to roast potatoes and said: " What are you two talking about? Come over and roast potatoes, the task here is not finished yet! "

Yun Zhongjian ran over quickly, and Ji Xuan said, " You two should do the task. I have to go discuss things with other people in Fanxing City. "

As a tourist from Fanxing City, Ji Xuanyi could not receive ordinary upgrade tasks in Youyue City. Old Western Doctor and Yun Zhongjian could complete the tasks together, but he could only watch. He might as well go and discuss the activities with the other people. In his opinion, his speculation about going out to sea was still very reliable.

The old western doctor grumbled , " You said you wanted to help, but you ran away as soon as you saw you were going to work. "

Yun Zhongjian seemed to want to say something. He opened his mouth, then swallowed it with a sad face and said, " Xuan Yi is also busy. "

The old western doctor said: " You just have a very good temper. "

Yun Zhongjian thought silently, who said it wasn't true? It would be better if he had a bad temper, like Ji Xuanyi, and then he could pin the old Western doctor to the ground and beat him up.

Xu Chu was deeply shocked by Ye Linyu's scolding, so he went offline to recuperate. Ji Xuanyi ran back and only found a few people from Green Forest City, Dasha Liutian, and Ersha Jianxixinjiu.

These two people are useless, what the hell are they discussing?

Ji Xuanyi was speechless. He glanced at the Ze Yu Si Shui trio and said, " Why are there only the three of you? Where are the others? "

Ze Yu Sishui answered quickly: " Introduction to Art Theory, they met a gang called the Wood Support Association, and they hit it off right away, and a group of girls ran out to play! "

Qing Feng Bu Fu said with some jealousy: " That wretched guy with calf cramps has also sneaked in, there are only girls there, and he is not ashamed to be alone! "

Ming Shao looked at him speechlessly.

This is so fucking sour, as if you would be embarrassed if you were asked to go. If those girls called out, Qingfeng Bufu would run faster than the Hong Kong reporters!

Ze Yu's eyes twinkled as he said to Ji Xuan, " Wow, I didn't expect that Ji's fan club has been opened! It's full of young ladies! "

Although Ze Yu Sishui and the other two knew Ji Xuanyi's true identity under his pseudonym, for some reason, they did not tell the silly Art Introduction and others about this news. Seeing them talking happily with a few girls from the Mu Fans Club, Ze Yu Sishui almost laughed out loud.

This guy was a fan of Ji Xuanyi at first, but after getting to know him for a short while, he switched to Mi Yin's side. Ji Xuanyi didn't even bother to pay attention to him.

Ji Xuan looked at these people and said, " If Xu Chu comes online, tell him and ask him to contact me. "

Liu Tian responded stupidly, but Jian Xi Xin Jiu was smarter and asked, " What's wrong? Any new discoveries? "

There is no point in telling you about my new discovery. Ji Xuanyi didn't want to explain to them any more, so he pushed the matter onto Xu Chu and said, " I'll ask Xu Chu later. You guys go have fun first. "

After Ji Xuanyi said this, no one asked any more questions, especially Liu Tian. He knew he couldn't understand anyway, so he simply stopped forcing himself and rode his horse to wander around Youyue City.

Ji Xuan informed Xiao Xiao Yuxia who was far away in Fanxing City of the news, which shocked Xiao Xiao Yuxia so much that she was speechless for a long time.

" Going to sea? Is it true? " Xiaoxiao Yuxia couldn't help but confirm again.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Conservatively speaking, I have at least a 60 to 70 percent chance of success. "

Xiao Xiao Yu rubbed his forehead and said, " This is fucking too much trouble ... I understand. I will recruit players with sea experience or good water skills in advance. But if this is really the case, you don't have to come back after the matter in Youyue City is over. "

Compared to Fanxing City, Youyue City is actually closer to the seaside. Instead of running back to Fanxing City, gathering and then going to the beach, it would be better for Ji Xuanyi and the others to go directly to the beach after leaving Youyue City and gather there.

Ji Xuanyi said: " I think so too. "

After saying that, Ji Xuanyi hesitated again.

This hesitation comes from two things.

The first is that he is not very good at swimming. This thing is innate. Although he has practiced swimming, he has always remained at the stage where he can barely keep himself afloat. If he moves, he will sink to the bottom. After the last dungeon was completed, Qi Qin went back and practiced swimming secretly. It's a pity that the conditioned reflex left to him by the original owner of this body can only allow him to use the dog paddle skill flexibly, and it is still difficult for him to swim properly.

What's more, he is wearing a set of armor in the game. Although this armor is very high-end and his body is relatively large, it should not sink to the bottom like a sword washed in new wine, but it is still a bit of a stretch.

Going out to sea would definitely not just require them to stay quietly on the boat and travel.

There would definitely be other tests. Ji Xuanyi didn't know if he could handle it.

In addition, Ji Xuanyi has a question that he has been thinking about for a long time.

That was the news he got from August and Irene. Was it related to this event? He didn't have much information in his hands now. He learned from Irene that the mages from the three mage towers were uniting together to do something. He also learned from August that Ji Xuanyi had already received the news about the part that August was in charge of. This is very general news, but how do these two things relate to going overseas and the new map?

Ji Xuanyi couldn't understand.

He also considered whether he should go back to Star City first and ask August about the matter, but thinking of August's previous secrecy, he felt that August probably would not tell him the content of the event before it was launched.

Maybe he will always use the excuse " You already know that " .

If this is really the case, going back to Star City and then to the beach will waste at least nearly a week, and he will miss a lot of things.

Comparing the two, Ji Xuanyi still thinks it is better to go directly to the beach. After all, practice makes perfect.

Ji Xuanyi did not hide their movements after leaving Youyue City from Ye Linyu. Ye Linyu was quite surprised when he heard it. After all, in his opinion, things were not certain yet, and it was a pity to waste the main force. But think about it, didn't he believe in the conclusion of the territory he speculated? It was understandable that Ji Xuanyi was so serious about his speculation about going to sea.

Ye Linyu thought for a moment and said, " I have already sent a dozen people who are good at water. If you want to go, there are still a few people. Bring a few people from Youyue City with you. "

Ji Xuanyi did not refuse. After all, they were going out to the sea, and they didn't know if there were any boats on the beach. If not, they would have to do it themselves. It would definitely be a good idea to bring more people.

" In addition to someone who knows how to water, we also need someone who knows how to do carpentry work. " Ji Xuanyi added.

Ye Linyu thought that this man was really rude, but he still nodded and agreed.

The last few days in Youyue City were not spent leisurely. Apart from a few gang members who took a tour, Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xi Xinjiu were helping Ye Linyu select people. Xu Chu, this guy, never came back since he went offline that day. He looked so arrogant, which did not affect Ye Linyu at all, but made Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xi Xinjiu very tired.

Ji Xuanyi selected the players with an expressionless face, and thought to himself that when Ge Chu came online, he would definitely beat him up severely.

When they finally left Youyue City, Ji Xuanyi said that they would go explore the way first, but if a new map that could be pieced together appeared, they still hoped that Youyue City could share the news.

Ye Linyu knew how to stop when he saw a good opportunity. After all, the terms had been negotiated and he had already obtained the benefits that he should strive for for Youyue City. He waved his hand generously and said, " The fragments are all in Yun Zhongjian's hands. I don't want them. You can just pass the message on. If other players in Youyue City get the fragments, I will give them directly to the old doctor. "

After saying that, he glanced at the old Western doctor with a smile.

The old western doctor blushed when he looked at her, knowing that she probably guessed what she thought of him, and that was why she was so generous. He felt embarrassed, so he dryly coughed twice and said to Ji Xuanyi, " Don't worry, Yun Zhongjian and I will tell you as soon as possible, but you have to add us as friends offline, otherwise it will be inconvenient if we can't meet online. "

Ji Xuanyi nodded when he heard this and said, " That's it, we'll leave first. "

Chapter 159

Although Xu Chu was upset because of the failed negotiations with Ye Linyu , he still went online on time when leaving . He knew that with Ji Xuanyi's temper , if he dared to be lazy before leaving , Ji Xuanyi would just throw him here and not even give him six days.

He who knows the times is a hero . Xu Chu felt that he was quite a hero, but when Ye Linyu sent them away, he still looked at him with his nose in his eyes the whole time.

This game does not have a map system yet. If you want to get from one place to another conveniently and purposefully , in addition to following the coordinates , there is also a simplest method, which is to directly form a team with someone at the destination. Although there is no guarantee about the terrain you may face next, with the guidance of the blue arrow , you will definitely take the shortest straight line.

In fact, many people in "Domain" have discovered this convenient method. People often contact kind people at the destination in the world channel to form a team. If the distance is far and it takes more time , they will occasionally pay some rewards.

However, it would be more convenient for Ji Xuanyi and the others. Ye Linyu had already sent a group of people to the beach before, so they could just group those people together.

The nearest road from Youyue City to the seaside requires passing through Qingshui City. Yes , it was the unfortunate second-level city where the five-person copy was underwater.

The average level of a second-tier city is only around 30, and most people haven't been able to access the later quests that provide various equipment. Except for some people who occasionally go to the trading house to buy some cheap appearance equipment, almost everyone is wearing blue quest equipment. Although the levels of Ji Xuanyi and his group cannot be seen directly, the equipment they wear is enough to make low-level players sigh.

Liu Tian's tail was almost up to the sky. After all, he not only had cool equipment, but he also had a very handsome horse – when the second-level city was still the mainstream map, the knight's horse was an equipment that could only be obtained in advance through hidden tasks.

When Ji Xuan saw Liu Tian's showy look on his horse, he couldn't help but think of the scumbag Wu Jian. Fortunately, Yu Gui had learned his lesson from not being able to participate in the last dungeon activity because of his low level, and stayed in Fanxing City to level up hard this time and didn't follow along, otherwise he would have definitely beaten Liu Tian.

But to be honest, the envious eyes of low-level players can still satisfy everyone's vanity. After all, after returning to the main city, even if others' equipment is not as good as yours, the eyes that look at you will not be envy, but jealousy that wants to poke a few holes in you with their eyes.

A few hours after Ji Xuanyi and his companions passed through Qingshui City, there were still low-level players who wanted to come up and curry favor with them. Fortunately, although the other people didn't know how to deal with it, Ji Xuanyi came out with a cold face and looked at him a few times, and the man left very tactfully.

Xu Chu sat on Liu Tian's horse, watching the man leave. After thinking for a while, he said, " I think it's better for us not to be so ostentatious. People in second-tier cities can also spread the news. If the people in Day City find out, even if they don't know the map or the content of the event, they will definitely follow suit and send people here. It's the most annoying thing to have others copycat things like this. "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " Sorry, you are the most ostentatious person in the whole team. Do you dare to change all your equipment? "

Xu Chu has collected so many equipments that he could buy a set every day as spare parts. Therefore, he is very particular about the appearance of his equipments and wears them so shiny that you don't need to look at the properties and levels of the equipments. As long as you glance at Xu Chu, you will know that the equipments on this person are very good and expensive.

Upon hearing this, Xu Chu immediately changed his tone and said shamelessly: " Actually, it's good to be a little more ostentatious. Even if they are discovered by Day City, it doesn't matter. They are here just to be guinea pigs. We can let them try out any plans we have first. "

Everyone: " Ah ...

After all, the local tyrants are local tyrants. Xu Chu was booed by everyone but remained calm. He said to Ji Xuan with a smile: " Both have their own advantages. Let's just go with the flow. Let's go quickly. "

Ji Xuan rolled his eyes and continued to move forward with his men.

The area of a second-tier city is not large, but Qingshui City is surrounded by water. If you don't want to swim in some places, you can only take a boat. Although the boats in Qingshui City are not smaller than those in Quanshui Town, they are not that big either. At most, only three to five people can go on board at a time.

Because they had to transport people back and forth, although the players in Qingshui City had been very considerate and made room for everyone and took a detour , Ji Xuanyi and his companions still wasted some time before they left Qingshui City.

There is no other way. After all, even if you don't enter the city and walk around it, the time you spend will only be more, not less.

On the second night after leaving Youyue City, Ji Xuanyi and others finally saw the sea from afar .

At this time, everyone's impression of this sea area can be summed up in two words: " desolate " .

There is no city by the sea, so naturally it is not brightly lit at night like in the city. After nightfall, there is only darkness. The only light that can be used for illumination comes from the stars and the moon above, and from the little candlelight cast by the surrounding fishing villages.

The sea was pitch black, and when a gust of wind blew, everyone had the illusion that they were a little cold.

Ze Yu Sishui and the others were ready for a good time, but they lost interest when they saw the scene in front of them. It was pitch black and even the shells could not be seen. They might as well go offline and take a shower.

In fact, it is almost time for Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin to go to bed.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin had the same schedule. They felt a little sleepy, but they barely managed to hold back a yawn in front of everyone. They said calmly, " Let's find a beach near a forest. Once we find a place, we can log off. We'll come back tomorrow when it's light to see if there's anyone who can help us get out to sea. If not, we'll have to build a boat with our bare hands. " Everyone responded, and like ants huddled together, they walked along the coast for more than half an hour, until they finally found the place at almost nine o'clock, and then logged off, exhausted.

Ji Xuanyi and others did not come online until ten o'clock the next morning.

" It's probably going to be a hassle to find it, " Ji Xuanyi said to Qi Qin as he climbed into the game cabin, " The seaside is too large. In addition to the fishing villages, there must be many people wandering along the coast or even going out to sea. It will take at least a whole morning to find a boat. If we really can't find a boat, we'll have to start thinking about building one in the afternoon, which will take a long time. "

Qi Qin also lay down. He was not that troubled. After all, he only needed to listen to Ji Xuanyi's instructions and exert his strength. Hearing Ji Xuanyi's words, he did not feel embarrassed and even said excitedly: " This is my first time to the beach! "

For him, it doesn't matter whether it wastes time or not. It's already very happy to play at the beach, and he will have the opportunity to go out to sea later. How great!

Ji Xuanyi shook his head helplessly, opened the game cabin, and prepared to face the scorching sun and the hot sand.

In fact, in some ways, Ji Xuanyi's prediction was not a big problem. There was the scorching sun and the hot sand. The problem was that Ji Xuanyi forgot to anticipate one thing.

Tourists at the seaside.

Ji Xuan stood there expressionlessly, surrounded by various running players who were grinning and saying lines like " Ahaha, come chase me! " and " Run slower, I can't catch up! "

No one even wore any equipment, the men were in shorts and the women were in bikinis, happily enjoying the sunshine and sea breeze here. There were even various small stalls such as barbecue stalls, fruit stalls, beverage stalls, and cool-off stalls.

It's too real, is this really the fantasy game world?!

The expression on Ji Xuanyi's face froze for a moment.

Even Ji Xuanyi couldn't react to this situation, let alone Qi Qin. As soon as the latter came online, he saw big white arms and legs everywhere. He screamed, covered his face and threw himself into Ji Xuanyi's arms.

Ji Xuanyi was almost knocked over by Qi Qin. He hugged him with a frown on his face and said, " You—— "

Ji Xuanyi was about to scold him, but suddenly he remembered how innocent Qi Qin was. He couldn't utter a word of curse. Damn, in Qi Qin's eyes, this scene was probably more terrifying than a horror movie!

Before Ji Xuanyi could figure out how to comfort Qi Qin, the trio of Ze, Yu, Sishui and others, who had taken off their equipment and were only wearing shorts, walked over.

Ze Yu Si Shui and Qing Feng Bu Fu were still holding grilled skewers in their hands. When they saw Ji Xuan Yi and Qi Qin coming over, Ze Yu Si Shui flattered them, " Xiao Ji! Would you like to eat grilled squid? There's juice over there! We came here early to take a shady spot. Do you want to take a rest? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Damn, are these people here on vacation?!

Ji Xuanyi's face turned pale. He snatched the skewer from Ze Yu Sishui, stuffed it into Qi Qin's hand and pushed the latter aside.

Ji Xuanyi's expression just now was so ugly that Ze Yu Sishui almost thought that the other party was going to stab him to death with a squid skewer. He was scared to death. Fortunately, the other party still wanted to appease Qi Qin and did not attack him. He was relieved.

However, it was obviously too early to relax. Although Ji Xuanyi did not cruelly stab him with a wooden stick until blood splattered everywhere, he did grab Ze Yu Sishui and scold him harshly.

" What are you doing here? Are you going on vacation?! Have you found a boat? You've already changed into your shorts, what are you doing?! You're still wandering around, are Xuchu and the others online?! "

Ze Yu Sishui looked listless as Ji Xuanyi pinched the back of his neck in his hand. Qingfeng Bufu and Ming Shao came to help, saying " he's still a child " repeatedly , which almost made Ji Xuanyi angry to death.

" What's wrong with you two? Ze Yu Si Shui is fooling around, you-- " Ji Xuanyi first pointed at Qing Feng Bu Fu, then found that this guy also looked innocent, so he had to change direction and pointed at Ming Shao, saying with great sorrow: " It's okay for the two of them to fool around, but what's wrong with you?! "

Ming Shao was also very ashamed of what he said. He didn't want to play around with Qingfeng Bufu and Ze Yu Sishui, but it was his first time at the beach. Plus, these two people kept egging him on. Ming Shao couldn't control himself and fell.

At this moment, Qi Qin had finished eating a few skewers. He came to Ji Xuanyi pitifully and handed him the remaining skewers.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi almost couldn't help but stab him to death, but he was his boyfriend after all, and he would be the one who would suffer the loss if he stabbed him. Ji Xuanyi angrily snatched the skewer from Qingfeng Bufu's hand, stuffed it into Qi Qin's hand, and told him to continue eating. Qing Feng Bu Fu pursed his lips and stood dejectedly with Ze Yu Si Shui.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were still wearing complete equipment. Although it was not too hot due to the system settings, the curious looks of other players still made Ji Xuanyi frown.

" What's going on? Where are the others? " Ji Xuanyi asked.

They logged off from the same place yesterday, but since he and Qi Qin logged on, no other players have been online around.

Ming Shao opened his mouth and was about to speak, but suddenly noticed that Ji Xuanyi was looking at his big shorts. He immediately smiled awkwardly, quickly put on his equipment, coughed dryly, and said, " The others have already come online. You and Tianxia seem to be the last two people to come. "

Although the agreed time was ten o'clock, a large part of these people had never seen the sea in reality, and some had never seen the sea in the game. In short, it was as if they had telepathy. Except for Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, everyone else came online early, even Xu Chu. They had also met up with the Youyue City players who had arrived at the beach before. Even the group of players and stall owners at the moment were gathered before their eyes.

But the problem was that Ji Xuanyi didn't come, and the only one left at the head of this group was Xu Chu. Xu Chu was an unreliable guy, and because he wanted to have fun, he simply let everyone move freely. As a result, even the players from Youyue City who had arrived here first and were ready to cooperate with them in the search had now run away and no one knew where they were.

Ji Xuanyi was almost furious and wanted to pin Xu Chu to the ground and beat him, but unfortunately this guy was very cunning. He knew he would be held accountable, so he logged off as soon as Ji Xuanyi came online. He probably wouldn't come back without waiting for a day or half.

Ze Yu Sishui and the others had all put on their clothes. When they saw Ji Xuanyi's appearance, they were afraid that he would get so angry that he would combust, so they quickly surrounded him and sent him to a cool place, and even kindly handed him some ice juice.

Ji Xuan took a big gulp and calmed down a little.

Qi Qin ate two handfuls of skewers and barely adapted to the environment here. He came over and was about to sit next to Ji Xuanyi, but was kicked away by Ji Xuanyi.

It's not that Ji Xuanyi was angry with him. Qi Qin was wearing armor made of black steel and had been exposed to the sun for a long time. He himself didn't feel hot because of the system settings, but the temperature of the armor had risen. Ji Xuanyi felt that he might lose blood if he was touched, so he immediately stayed away from him , making Qi Qin feel very aggrieved.

Seeing that Ji Xuanyi seemed to have calmed down, Ze Yu Sishui approached him again with a shameless face and said, " Actually, it's really fun here. There's no news about the event yet, so we can still find someone while playing. There are so many players here, maybe we know someone there. "

Ji Xuan looked at him coldly, and Ze Yu Sishui shrank back behind Ming Shao in embarrassment.

" You guys came online so early and didn't do anything? You just played around? " Ji Xuanyi asked.

Young Master Ming quickly said, " No, no, we took the opportunity to check out the situation on the beach while we were strolling around. "

After all, Ming Shao is a reliable man. He did not forget his business while playing. The area of the beach occupied by the players is quite large. It took them a long time to walk around. However, there is really nothing here. Even the fishing village is quite far away from here . Although the players themselves are wearing big shorts and bikinis, they are still a little shy in front of them, so they bypassed them and chose an open place.

Who could have expected that Ji Xuanyi was also thinking of gathering in an open place, but he ran into it as soon as he came online.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " Is there any nearby? "

Young Master Ming shook his head with certainty and said, " No, we've already looked for it. At least not on the beach. Even if it's really there, there are only two possibilities. One is that it could be on the sea, and the other is that it could be hidden in the woods. We haven't been to either of these two places. "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " We are looking for a boat. It is unlikely that we will find it at sea. The forest is a bit suspicious, but it is not the time to search the forest yet. Aren't there a few small fishing villages around? Look along the coast, or at least go to the fishing villages. If we can't find it, we can consider going into the forest. "

Young Master Ming nodded.

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " There's nothing nearby, so there's no need to stay. Find those people, gather them together, and get ready to work. "

Ze Yu Shishui and Qing Feng Bu Fu both expressed their disappointment.

There were girls, skewers and juice on the beach. Ze Yu Sishui was planning to touch crabs and shells, but he was about to leave now, and he was really reluctant.

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Finish your work, then you can have fun however you want. "

Ze Yu Sishui muttered quietly: " I have heard this kind of thing ten thousand times. "

Ji Xuan laughed, and Ming Shao's hair stood on end. He grabbed Ze Yu Sishui and Qing Feng Bufu in each hand and ran away.

Ji Xuanyi watched them leave, pushed the juice in his hand to Qi Qin, and said, " Drink some to cool down. "

Qi Qin took a sip and looked at him.

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Do you have any new equipment? " killing weapon after being exposed to the sun . He could no longer wear it.

Qi Qin said honestly: " No. "

Ji Xuanyi also knew that he probably didn't have it, so he just said, " Wait. "

He lowered his head and started sending private messages to people.

Qi Qin didn't know what he was waiting for. After a while, he felt that the equipment on his body should not be hot anymore, so he moved closer to Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi didn't kick him this time. Instead, he lay on him, making Qi Qinmei burst into tears.

Ji Xuanyi said while sending a private message: " I feel that traveling in real life is not as fun as in the game. I feel like I don't need to go out anymore in the future. "

Qi Qin looked down at him and said, " In some places you don't have to go out, but in some places it's different. "

After all, this is a game with a Western fantasy background, and some domestic attractions are not available here.

Qi Qin looked at him and said with a smile: " I want to see all the rivers, lakes, seas, famous mountains and rivers with you. "

Ji · Otaku · Xuanyi, with a wooden face, thought for a while and said: " Well, wait for the Chinese style holographic online game to come out. "

Qi Qin: "..."

Qi Qin angrily bent over and kissed Ji Xuanyi, which made Ji Xuanyi's face change and he almost jumped up and hit him.

Fortunately, Qi Qin was not destined to die. Just when Ji Xuanyi was about to turn over, screams suddenly came from all around.

Ji Xuanyi was stunned and immediately looked up, only to see that the originally calm waves at the edge of the beach suddenly became agitated, rolled up high, and then suddenly hit down.

The place where Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were located was relatively far away from the coastline , and the sea water that was originally at an unknown distance away from them now hit Ji Xuanyi's feet directly!

Ji Xuanyi cursed with a gloomy face.

Mage boots are not waterproof like swordsman boots. They got completely wet when hit by the waves.

Ji Xuan put his shoes into his backpack, stood up barefoot, and said, " What's going on? "

Qi Qin didn't know either.

The place occupied by Ze Yu Sishui and the others was filled with a large parasol made by players. When Qi Qin heard Ji Xuanyi's question, he wanted to go out and ask people. But just as he ran out, he remembered that he couldn't be exposed to the sun, so he turned back. With a little effort, he picked up the parasol like picking mushrooms, held it up, and ran with Ji Xuanyi to ask people.

This scene was really a bit funny, but Ji Xuanyi didn't have the time to roll his eyes at Qi Qin. He just grabbed someone and asked, " What's going on? "

This person was a girl, a pastor. She was sunbathing in a bikini just now, but now she put on her equipment in a panic, and she didn't have time to care about the cloth that got half of her body wet.

When Ji Xuanyi suddenly grabbed her, the girl was ready to lose her temper, but when she saw that he was a handsome young man with delicate features, she felt that he was a bit fierce, but her face still blushed and she said softly: " Well, there is a monster in the sea. This has happened before, but logically speaking, this monster should not appear today, and even if it appears, it should be at night ..."

In short, although this sea area is occupied by players, bosses from the sea appear every weekend night . Occasionally they come ashore during the day, but basically they rarely appear from Monday to Friday. It's just that I don't know what happened recently, and the time when the boss appears has become a little disordered.

" Today is Thursday, " the girl said with a frown, " It appeared once on Monday and Wednesday respectively. The first time, everyone thought it was due to maintenance that caused confusion between Saturday and Sunday, and it appeared on Monday by mistake. But within two days, it happened again on Wednesday, and it happened again today ... Someone went to find GM to report the error before, but GM said it was normal. "

The girl looked a little regretful and said, " If this monster comes to cause trouble every now and then, we probably won't be able to come and play in this place anymore. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned, looking at the players who were running away like passers-by in a disaster movie, and said incomprehensibly: " If a monster appears, why don't we just kill it? Why are you running? "

If I had known this was a game, everyone would have a bit of a chuunibyou syndrome. When encountering a monster, your first reaction would definitely not be to run away!

The girl heard this and said, " Is this your first time here? "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned and asked, " What's wrong? "

The girl smiled and said, " If you are going to travel to the beach, it is better to read the guide on the forum first. "

She paused, but continued to explain: " It's not that we can't defeat this sea monster, but it's not that easy to defeat. It requires many players to work together in an organized and disciplined manner to avoid casualties. You know how difficult it is for individual players to organize themselves, right? "

" And organizing the manpower is not the biggest problem. The biggest problem is that this monster didn't drop any items. "

The girl shook her head and said, " When we first discovered this monster here, we thought it was a rare wild boss , so we took great pains to organize people and kill it . However, it didn't drop anything, so we were all dumbfounded at the time. The person who first attacked it was scolded by many people. "

It is already very difficult to organize individual players to kill monsters together, not to mention that this is a monster that has no drops. In other words, everyone is working in vain, wasting so much time and getting no benefit at all. Are you crazy?

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " If you beat it away, can't you continue playing here? "

The girl glanced at Ji Xuanyi and said helplessly, " No, as long as it's time for this monster to come ashore, even if it is killed , it will refresh again after half an hour. "

That's why players will evacuate directly after they find the monsters coming ashore, instead of fighting them here, because there is no benefit at all.

Ji Xuanyi was also speechless. He let go of the girl's hand and said, " Thank you. You can go now. "

After wasting a while here with Ji Xuanyi, the girl's wizard robe had been soaked and stuck to her legs. It was so thick and heavy that she couldn't even move her feet. She had no choice but to put her staff back into her backpack, lift up the hem of her skirt and walk through the water.

Ji Xuanyi was still barefoot. When he was thinking about why the boss suddenly behaved abnormally and whether it might be related to the activity, a small crab rolled across the back of his feet.

Ji Xuan felt itchy and kicked the little crab aside. He said to Qi Qin, " Let's kill this boss and see. "

Of course Qi Qin had no objection to Ji Xuanyi's words and nodded quickly.

At this time, most of the players on the beach had run away, and the figures of a few groups running towards this side were particularly obvious.

Liu Tian rode his horse and came up to the front first, asking: " What's the situation? What happened here? Why is it flooded? Where are the people? "

Xuchu was not there. Zeyu Sishui sat behind Liutian's horse and muttered , " What's flooding? You think it's a flood? This is called high tide, high tide! "

Liu Tian was annoyed with him, so he grabbed him by the scruff of the neck and threw him off the horse into Ming Shao's arms, then turned around to look at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi said: " It's hard to tell right now. Isn't Xuchu here yet? "

When Liu Tian heard this, some guilt appeared in his eyes. After all, Xu Chu asked him to cover for him, and he never thought about what kind of cover Liu Tian could provide for him in front of Ji Xuanyi?

Liu Tian was hesitant and couldn't speak. Ji Xuan said, " Not online? Go offline and call him up. We need his help here. "

Liu Tian hesitated for a moment and looked at Ji Xuanyi.

The veins on Ji Xuanyi's forehead jumped, and he said, " Let him come up, I won't hit him. "

Liu Tian finally breathed a sigh of relief and went downstairs in a hurry.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu also rushed over with the others. Seeing Qi Qin carrying a parasol, he couldn't help but teased, " Your logo is really too obvious. We can see a big mushroom from a distance . Hahahaha ..."

Looking at Ji Xuanyi's expression, Jian Xi Xinjiu stopped laughing and finally fell silent, like a kindergarten kid, lowering his head and preparing to be scolded.

Ji Xuanyi didn't bother to pay attention to him and said, " A boss is about to come ashore. Organize the people and prepare to kill the monster. "

As soon as Ji Xuanyi finished speaking, a short man in the team said vigilantly: " Ah? Monster hunting? Aren't you here to be a carpenter? I can't beat you! "

Ji Xuanyi thought of this person, the carpenter sent to him by Ye Linyu. It is said that he is a master of handcrafts in real life, and he often makes props by himself for cosplay . In short, his hands-on ability is very impressive. After receiving the task from Ye Linyu, he also specially studied how to build a boat. It can be said that he is very reliable when it comes to carpentry work.

Just one thing, this guy is very bad at playing the game. He is a new player in the server and is only level 41 now. He lost the previous 20 levels in the fight with the monsters in the quest. It is said that when Ye Linyu found him, he was fighting with a monster and was pushed so hard by the monster that he couldn't tell which way was which and his head was covered with lumps. If Ye Linyu hadn't rescued him in time, the person standing in front of Ji Xuanyi now might be a brand new level 40 monster.

Everyone here is a big character over level 60, so this friend is really useless. Ji Xuan had a headache and assigned another knight to protect him. The rest of the people packed up and prepared to go kill monsters.

this boss came ashore, with water coming up in waves. No one was seen for a long time, until even Xu Chu followed Liu Tian and climbed ashore, and then Ji Xuanyi saw a huge tentacle breaking through the water.

Ze Yu Sishui shouted in disappointment: " Another tentacle monster! "

Ming Shao slapped him on the head and told him to shut up.

However, there was nothing wrong with Ze Yusi's attitude towards the sink. The tentacle monsters he and Ji Xuanyi faced were really too many.

But this time it wasn't something like vines. What came up from the water was a giant octopus, which was comparable to the legendary sea monster.

Seeing this, Qi Qin put down the parasol in his hand, rushed out first, and the others followed closely.

Xu Chu approached Ji Xuanyi cautiously and said, " What do you want to ask me? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him, and Xu Chu felt so guilty that he hesitated for a long time before saying, " Liu Tian said you wouldn't hit me if I came up. "

Ji Xuan thought to himself, are you still afraid of being beaten?

Ji Xuanyi didn't bother to pay attention to him. He simply told him about the sea monster and said, Do " you think this boss has anything to do with the event? "

Xu Chu stroked his chin and said after a long while: " I can't say for sure. "

This was their first time in this place. They knew nothing about the missions, forces, etc. They had never seen any guides on the forum. The sea monster might have come ashore at a disrupted time as a prerequisite or clue for an upcoming event. It might also be because someone nearby triggered a hidden mission, and the plot was progressing , but he himself was unable to solve it, leading to the current situation.

 " But if you ask me, I'm more inclined to the possibility that it's related to the event. " Xu Chu said.

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Why? "

Xu Chu grinned and said, " It's better to believe that this thing is good for us than to believe that this thing is someone else's monster. "

Ji Xuanyi was speechless and said, " Stop talking nonsense. "

Xu Chu smacked his lips, turned serious, and said, " Actually, there's no point in you asking me this kind of question now. After all, haven't you already used the most direct way to prove it? "

Ji Xuanyi curled the corners of his mouth and said nothing.

If you want to know whether this boss is an activity task, there is a simple way, which is to kill the boss directly .

According to the information provided by the girl before, when this boss came ashore at a regular time in the past , there was no drop when it was killed. If there is a special drop after they kill the boss this time, it proves that this boss must be related to the activity.

Because if the boss is related to a hidden quest, then only the person who triggered the hidden quest can get the kill rewards. These people who arrived here on the first day don't have any prerequisites. Except for the fact that the kill took place during the pre-activity period , they are no different from those who killed the boss before.

No matter how stupid the authorities are, they will not come up with a setting where only outsiders can get drops when killing monsters.

" But have you ever thought that it's possible that there's still no drop after killing it? " Xu Chu said, " Although abnormal things are demons, the boss may not use the form of dropping to show that it is related to the activity. "

Ji Xuan glanced at Xu Chu and said, " Do you think I've thought about it? "

Ji Xuanyi had certainly thought about this. If this boss was really related to the event, there were still many possibilities for why it appeared here. The two most prominent reasons, in addition to dropping event items, were that it served as a test for going out to sea.

It is very likely to be the last obstacle before players go out to sea. It will not drop items, but it is possible that the rewards will be calculated based on a points system like the second phase of world missions.

If that were the case, it would be very depressing, because nothing could be seen, and without being sure whether it was useful or not, Ji Xuanyi and others could not kill it again and again. Their plan to conduct an exploration on this beach would have to fall through.

After all, when the boss may appear at any time, even a master of handcrafts cannot safely build a boat in this place, let alone take it out to sea ... If you encounter such a big boss in the sea, it will be difficult for a luxurious ship to survive, not to mention the small boat of a master of handcrafts.

Ji Xuanyi frowned, looking at the people struggling with the octopus monster, and said, " Maybe someone will lose a level this time. "

Xu Chu said nonchalantly, " Don't worry, you will definitely lose your level. If the boat capsizes and you fall into the sea, you won't be able to swim out, and you may drown. The monsters in the sea are not easy to deal with. "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment, raised his eyebrows, and said: " You have been to the sea? How do you know there are monsters in it? "

Xu Chu said innocently: " I have never been to the sea, but I ate barbecued skewers. "

As he spoke, Xu Chu took out grilled squid, grilled crab, grilled conch, and grilled fish skewers from his bag, handed them to Ji Xuanyi, and said, " Although I appear to be playing around, I am actually completing the task seriously. "

Hearing this, Ji Xuan sneered. You are supposed to complete the task seriously. You are clearly playing seriously. You are just completing the task on the surface, but don't be so guilty in front of me. You've even gone offline!

Xu Chu felt guilty when Ji Xuanyi looked at him. He cleared his throat and said, " The raw materials for these skewers are not sold nearby. It's too troublesome to catch them one by one. They sell them at such a cheap price that they will lose money. "

" So I went to ask around, " Xu Chu smiled and said, " These things are what they found while holding their breath to fight monsters in the shallow sea. Some are dropped by monsters, and some are simply the corpses of small monsters that they fished out. The small monsters in the shallow sea are relatively small, and their levels are about 40 to 50. There are large seafood in deeper waters, but they are all over level 60, and even their health bars are question marks. "

" There are so many shrimps, crabs, fish and shellfish in the sea. Even if I haven't seen them with my own eyes, I'll let them go in the animal world, " Xu Chu held a piece of snail meat in his mouth, chewing it with a crunching sound, and said to Ji Xuan while smacking his lips, " If we really go out to sea this time, it's going to be dangerous, my friend. "

Either don't go out to sea, or don't fall into the water if you go out to sea. Once you sink to the bottom, it's not like you can drown peacefully in the dungeon. The monsters below will surround you and send you back to the resurrection point in minutes.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and watched the fight between Qi Qin and others, wondering what he was thinking.

Xu Chu finished the skewers in his hand, looked at Ji Xuanyi, and said: " Do you want to eat more? If not, give it to me? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him, and when Xu Chu was about to reach out to take it, he calmly put the skewer into his mouth.

Xu Chu: "..."

It has to be said that the risk of this activity is really high, but high risk also means high reward. Even though they know that the sea is full of monsters, they have no choice but to go for it.

Chapter 160

Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu didn't just stand there and talk nonsense. They didn't have many people , and it would still take some effort to defeat this boss . Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu had to devote themselves to the battle.

The octopus boss has a thick health bar , but its attack power is not that high . Eight tentacles are nothing to Qi Qin. After all , Qi Qin is experienced in fighting tentacle monsters. The only difficult part is probably the boss 's suction cup.

The suction cups on the octopus' tentacles have a very strong ability to absorb things. Although the official has not fully restored this feature in the game due to considerations of the boss's strength , the boss 's suction cups will not cause any trouble for magic and agility professions , but for strength professions with shiny armor, this setting is very troublesome.

Once a knight or swordsman is sucked onto the suction cup, there is no way to get him off. The boss will swing him around like a meteor hammer , which is a fate worse than death.

Qi Qin was not familiar with seafood and was almost hit at the beginning. Fortunately, his first reaction was to use the guardian to resist the attack . After finding that he could not pull it back, he decisively let go , so only the guardian was sucked away, and he himself was spared.

This battle made Qi Qin very embarrassed because of the need to limit the time and area of contact with the boss . The main output fell on the long-range players, and it took nearly two hours to defeat the boss .

The moment the giant octopus fell down, everyone breathed a sigh of relief and ran up to rescue it.

Liu Tian, the newbie, was sucked onto the tentacle at the first attack and was used as a weapon to hit people several times. He was in a terrible state when he came down. If it weren't for the slight anti-stun setting in the game, he would probably have just fallen to the ground and vomited.

Qi Qin also picked the guardian off the boss 's body. Fortunately, the official did not restore the boss too much, and the guardian was not stained with mucus or other dirty things. He could just shake it and put it back into the package.

The rising sea water finally receded. Ji Xuanyi wiped his feet, put on his shoes, and asked, " Did you drop anything? "

The boss 's body did not disappear after his death, so they had to search for it to see if anything was dropped. After everyone had been busy for a long time, Jian Xi Xinjiu turned over a tentacle and saw a small box the size of a palm under the boss 's body. He immediately called Ji Xuanyi over.

To be honest, this box is really too small. Ji Xuanyi has never seen such a small box in his entire life of playing this game. He even suspected that this might be garbage thrown away by a player who was playing on the beach before.

But if it was really garbage, it should have been washed away when the tide rose just now. How could it have stayed here all this time?

Ji Xuanyi picked it up hesitantly .

Xu Chu glanced at Liu Tian, and without hesitation , he excitedly came to Ji Xuanyi's side and said, " Something dropped?! What dropped? Why is this box so small? "

Ji Xuan looked at Xu Chu, shook his head, and said as he opened the box, " I wonder if it was dropped by the boss . This box is too small. "

When the players around saw them opening the box, they came over too. When the box was opened, everyone exclaimed!

Although the box was only the size of a palm, the thing inside was also the size of a palm. It turned out to be a round pearl!

" Fuck! " Xu Chu screamed, and said, " Go ahead and bid, we all got this drop together, let's bid with gold coins, whoever bids the highest gets it, I'll bid 10,000! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi kicked Xu Chu away and said, " Shut up! "

Even a rich man like Xu Chu was drooling over it, let alone others. Everyone's eyes were almost glued to the pearl, and they were exclaiming in admiration.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu also stretched his neck and opened his mouth, staring without blinking. After a long while, he suddenly realized and said in surprise: " No, this is a drop from the boss ? Octopuses also produce pearls? "

Ze Yu Si Shui tiptoed and said, " I've seen wolves drop hoof flowers in some games, so what's wrong with octopuses dropping pearls? "

Ji Xuanyi ignored them, picked up the pearl and took a look at the system description. There was only a very brief sentence on it.

The sea monster's pearl, a treasure from the sea, possesses unknown mysterious power. Perhaps he realized that this explanation was too perfunctory, so he added another sentence.

How to use: Carry.

If there were no instructions for use, this pearl might be mistaken for a rare material, but since there are instructions for use, it can only be a quest item.

The specific usage may only be known after the event starts.

No matter what, Ji Xuanyi breathed a sigh of relief.

If the boss drops something, it proves that their previous inference was correct. The octopus boss is indeed related to the activity. By analogy, it can also be confirmed that the direction of the sea chart is correct. As for the division of territories on the new map, the possibility has also increased.

Everyone looked eagerly at the pearl in Ji Xuanyi's hand. Although they didn't know whether this thing was mass-produced, at least it was definitely the rarest now. Ji Xuanyi didn't want to hold this hot potato. He was thinking about whether to find a reliable person to keep it. When he looked over, he found that there were only Xu Chuliu Tian and Jian Xi Xin Jiu here ...

At this time, I missed Xiaoxiao Yuxia very much. It was a pity that the model worker was still in charge of the situation in Fanxing City. Ji Xuanyi couldn't just send this thing to him directly.

Maybe they could still use it.

But none of the remaining three are reliable ...

Ji Xuan thought about it for a long time, but really couldn't find anyone to help him hold the thing, so he had to bite the bullet and put it away himself.

" According to the information I just received, under normal circumstances, the boss should continue to refresh half an hour after his death. We can wait and see here. "

If the boss really refreshes, they can continue to farm pearls. If not, they can only look for someone who may help them go out to sea.

But no matter what, they probably won't leave this beach. When the boss is not here, they can study the sea-going matters here. If the boss continues to come ashore, they can take the opportunity to collect more props.

Ji Xuanyi's intuition told him that this pearl would play a big role in the event.

Everyone dispersed and found a place to rest while waiting for the boss to refresh. Ji Xuanyi found a dry reef, sat down, and took off his shoes.

He had wiped the soles of his feet very hastily before, but did not wipe off the sand. The refresh mechanism in "Domain" was too weird. The sand stuck to Ji Xuan's feet and could not be refreshed, which made him feel very uncomfortable.

There was linen material used to make equipment in the backpack. Ji Xuan put his feet on his knees and started to wipe them seriously.

Qi Qin picked up the parasol again, and moved to Ji Xuanyi like a big mushroom. He stuck the umbrella into the ground, then squatted down, trying to pick up Ji Xuanyi's feet.

Ji Xuan gave him a heart-warming kick expressionlessly and said, " What are you doing? Go away. "

Qi Qin said innocently: " I'll help you wipe your feet. "

Ji Xuanyi was unwilling and said angrily, " I have my own hands. "

Qi Qin didn't know what he had done to make Ji Xuanyi unhappy, so he had no choice but to sit down next to him.

Ji Xuan looked at him, remembered something, and shouted in a long voice: " Wash the sword with new wine! "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu, who was standing nearby, heard the shout and ran over, saying, " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi had a secret chat with him before, but when he rushed over, he happened to see the boss coming ashore. It was so chaotic that he forgot about it for a moment.

Ji Xuanyi said solemnly: " Lend me your equipment. "

Jian Xi Xinjiu thought that Ji Xuanyi was of great use to him, so he took off his clothes and handed them to Ji Xuanyi without any doubt. He then changed into a new set of equipment and looked at Ji Xuanyi eagerly.

Ji Xuanyi calmly turned around and changed the equipment for Qi Qin.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu: "... Hey!!! "

" That's too much! You called me just for this! " Jian Xi Xin Jiu shouted in disbelief, " You don't value women over friends this way. You're taking away all your equipment? "

Ji Xuanyi pretended not to hear and said, " The sun is too strong. The black steel sleeves are as hot as a fucking frying pan. The aroma of meat can be scalded out. What's wrong with you making a sacrifice? "

In fact, Ji Xuanyi could also borrow equipment from others, but the knights were all very showy and the armor they wore were mostly light-colored, making them look more like " Prince Charming ". At times like this, their light armor was particularly sun-resistant, so if he didn't take their equipment, whose would he take?

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said aggrievedly: " Why don't you ask Liu Tian for it? He wears much whiter clothes than me! "

Liu Tian's armor was indeed snow-white, and its properties were better than Jian Xi Xin Jiu's, but the problem was that Xu Chu was difficult to deal with. Ji Xuanyi didn't want to argue with him, so he had to bully Jian Xi Xin Jiu who had no backing.

When Jian Xi Xin Jiu heard this reason, he almost vomited blood.

No matter how many mistakes there are, they are all mistakes that do not exist. He understands and says goodbye!

The group rested for more than half an hour, and after nearly forty minutes, there was still no movement in the sea.

Xu Chu said disappointedly: " It seems that it won't refresh ..."

Ji Xuanyi had expected this and said, " It's normal. It would refresh repeatedly if there were no drops before. Now that there are drops, it continues to refresh. Isn't that the same as giving away equipment? I guess this boss just wants to covertly tell players that the event is about to start. It won't appear too frequently in the future. "

Ji Xuanyi stood up, patted the sand on the corner of his robe, and said, " Okay, everyone, split into teams and start looking. The boss shouldn't spawn again today. "

Everyone responded and was about to move when suddenly a voice said, " Wait, wait, wait! Are we just going to leave like this? Don't you think it's a waste?! "

When Ji Xuanyi looked up, he saw that it was the carpenter who was talking. He was standing next to the boss 's body, with Ze Yu Shishui's head sticking out from behind him. Both of them were looking at Ji Xuanyi eagerly.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi had a bad feeling, but he was a technical talent after all, so he didn't want to offend him, so he patiently asked, " What's wrong? "

The carpenter looked back at Ze Yu Shi Shui, who still had one claw on the boss . He said to Ji Xuan in a babbling voice, " It's such a big octopus, don't you want to taste what it tastes like? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ze Yu Sishui set his eyes on the boss's plump tentacles the moment he came ashore! When everyone was resting after beating the boss , he dragged the carpenter with him and stood next to the boss for more than 40 minutes, just to prevent the boss 's body from refreshing, waiting for Ji Xuanyi to say that everything was fine and they could disband, so that everyone could eat octopus skewers together!

Such a big octopus, lying down, is as high as two stories. Not only can they eat it to their heart's content, but they can also pack it up after eating! When they return to the inland Star City, they will have the opportunity to continue eating seafood. What a wonderful thing!

Ji Xuanyi originally wanted to say that he had other things to do, so why eat seafood? But when he turned around, he saw everyone's eager eyes.

No one has ever eaten such a big octopus. There is absolutely no chance to have it offline, but can't we satisfy our craving online?

Even Xu Chu, a rich man who should be used to seeing good things, showed an expression of eagerness to try.

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but hold his forehead with his hand, and finally waved his hand helplessly, saying: " You guys can do whatever you want. "

Everyone cheered and immediately rushed towards the poor boss 's body. After a short while, a fire was lit on the beach. Many players who had learned cooking skills showed off their skills and started grilling the octopus.

Qi Qin glanced at Ji Xuanyi and ran to join in the fun. After a while, he came to Ji Xuanyi with two skewers.

The cooking system of "Domain" is relatively traditional. It is the cooking materials that affect the basic effects of food, and the cooking level affects the taste of food and the bonus of the basic effects. There are also some relatively precious cooking secrets that can continue to enhance the effects of food above the cooking level, such as the cooking secrets that Yun Zhongjian got from the library in the Mage Tower.

Qi Qin also got a cooking secret book in the Mage Tower, but the effect was still not comparable to that of Yun Zhongjian. If Yun Zhongjian's secret book of color, fragrance and taste enhanced the taste, then Qi Qin's secret book only enhanced the color. Qi Qin's cooking secret book could only enhance the potency of food by a small amount and make the things he made look more beautiful.

Actually, it's not too bad. It's better than Xiang. If a player only gets Xiang's cheats, the things he makes will be like instant noodles.

The skewers in Qi Qin's hand looked very good in color, with a layer of moist oily luster on the surface and the aroma of chili powder and cumin. Ji Xuanyi felt that he had begun to drool. Although he still felt it was a waste of time, Ji Xuanyi's attitude had softened and he took a bite under Qi Qin's eager gaze.

After eating, Ji Xuanyi was stunned.

Qi Qin was worried that he hadn't baked it well, so he asked, " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi blinked and said, " Special effects ..."

Qi Qin was stunned and didn't understand: " What? "

Ji Xuanyi smiled widely and said, " This octopus meat has a special effect when grilled! "

All food in the game has special effects, most of which are health-restoring effects, and occasionally there will be an effect of increasing a little bit of attributes for a limited time, but they are basically useless.

The most important thing is that players mostly eat to satisfy their appetites, and rarely take a special look at the effects of food before eating. Ji Xuanyi also discovered the special icon under his avatar after he put the food in his mouth.

Ji Xuan took a look at the grilled octopus in his hand, which had a system description on it.

Delicious Grilled Octopus: Increases underwater breathing time by five minutes.

The bottom of the sea is full of ferocious high-level monsters. You're basically dead if you go down there. If it's just to increase your breathing time, it won't be of much use.

Ji Xuanyi changed another string and found that the system instructions on the other string were different again.

Delicious grilled octopus: In two minutes, you can be walking on water as if it were flat ground.

Ji Xuanyi's eyes lit up. It seemed that the authorities were not so heartless. With the addition of these special foods, the risks of going out to sea would be greatly reduced!

Ji Xuanyi immediately stood up and shouted, " Don't eat any more! Look at the effects of the food and keep everything that's useful! "

Everyone was stunned and didn't understand what Ji Xuanyi was talking about until they saw the effect of the food in their hands, and were immediately shocked!

If you really go out to sea, these special effects can save your life! Eating is too extravagant now!

Everyone began to pack up the skewers in a panic.

Ze, Yu, Shishui and the other two were sitting around a fire with the carpenter. After hearing Ji Xuanyi's words, Qingfeng Bufu was trembling as he tried to put the octopus meat he had just stuffed into his mouth, which could keep him underwater for ten minutes, back on the skewer. However, Ming Shao slapped him away and cursed, " Are you disgusting? It's all saliva! "

Seeing this, Ze Yu Sishui silently swallowed the meat he had chewed for a few bites.

If Ming Shao hadn't beaten Qing Feng Bu Fu, Ze Yu Si Shui would have spit out the meat and packaged it.

There were many people who had the same idea as these two people, and suddenly the beach was filled with curses.

" Fuck! "

" Ah! "

" How disgusting! "

" Get out of here! "

Ji Xuanyi was so upset after hearing this.

Fortunately, it was discovered in time, and everyone didn't see the string of buffs on their heads until they were almost done eating . At that time, they really wanted to cry but had no place to cry!

Ji Xuanyi originally thought that although the octopus was so big, the number of people going out to sea could only be more, not less, and these skewers of meat would definitely not be enough to eat. But in fact, the situation was worse than Ji Xuanyi thought.

Not all of these skewers can be used. Some have no special effects, but are just ordinary short-term bonuses to health and attributes. Some have special effects, but they only last for a few seconds, and eating them is the same as not eating them.

In the end, only about one-third of the grilled skewers were usable.

Xu Chu was eating a bunch of useless skewers, and he came to Ji Xuanyi and said, " The duration of the effect seems to be only related to the size of the meat, but the specific effect of a piece of meat seems to be completely random. "

Ji Xuanyi also realized this.

Qi Qin whispered, " Besides grilling, can we try other methods? "

Ji Xuanyi rubbed his brows and said, " Maybe, but the boss should refresh after a while, so there's no need to save the meat. You guys can do whatever you want. Xu Chu, collect the food that can be used. I need to tell Xiao Xiao Yuxia about the news here. "

Xu Chu responded and took everyone to deal with the boss 's body. Ji Xuanyi told Xiao Xiaoyu about what happened here and notified Ye Linyu.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said that if the number was not enough, they could still leave some behind secretly to prioritize the survival rate of the players in Star City.

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything. The things were just there. They didn't force them to hand in all of them. Although the players in Fanxing City could keep the things, the players in Youyue City might not have done nothing at all. There was no need to say such things. No one wanted to be demoted, so it wouldn't hurt to prepare a little more insurance for themselves.

In addition, Ji Xuanyi also told Xiao Xiao Yuxia about the dropped pearls, and said that the content of the activity can almost be focused on going out to sea to find a new continent.

The situation of the task of collecting fragments and gold coins within the Star City can only be described as average so far. Xiaoxiao Yuxia only purchased one fragment from individual players, and another one was obtained by an internal member of the three major gangs.

" It feels so inefficient, " Xiao Xiao Yu said depressedly, " I don't even know what to do in the city. It would be better to send the main force to your side first. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia knew that there was an awesome person named Yun Zhongjian in Youyue City. Just think about it, he completed the mission alone and got more than a dozen fragments in less than a week, while the people in their city only got two fragments in a week. Although there must be some people who got the fragments but did not contact Xiaoxiao Yuxia, the contrast was too tragic.

My mentality is gradually collapsing.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia also asked Ji Xuanyi if there was any way to dig Yun Zhongjian over from Youyue City. Ji Xuanyi said that there was no way because Yun Zhongjian's gay friend was in Youyue City. Xiaoxiao Yuxia said, then dig him and his gay friend over together!

Ji Xuanyi said there was no other way, as his best friend's best friend was also in Youyue City. Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "... What a messed up triangle relationship! Three people digging together! "

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " It still won't work. His best friend's best friend is Ye Linyu. "

There is no other way. Ye Linyu would not bring the entire dancing gang to Fanxing City for a job change.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was very depressed about this.

Xiao Xiaoyu was in a state of mental breakdown, and Ji Xuanyi had no way to comfort him, so he could only say: " Then send the main force here first, and leave the scattered people in the city to do the tasks and collect the fragments. The bulk of the map fragments will still have to be handled by Youyue City. "

The rain started to fall.

After Ye Linyu heard the news from Ji Xuanyi, his first reaction was to send more people to the beach.

Although the two parties are in a cooperative relationship, there will still be issues of taking advantage of each other on certain details. For example, Xiaoxiao Yuxia suggested leaving more food, and Ye Linyu would of course take this into consideration.

Now that the content of the event has been confirmed, he will certainly not be timid anymore. Those who arrive first will definitely be able to seize the opportunity. Although he doesn't know what this opportunity is, who cares? He will just arrive first and see.

Ji Xuanyi had no objection to this, as they were short of manpower to begin with.

After finishing off an octopus, it was already afternoon. The sea was calm and no monsters appeared. It was probably because once this boss appeared, it would not go back for a long time. Until now, the players who came here for vacation have not returned.

It's better not to come back.

Ji Xuan said, " Let's form a team. Don't go to the sea for now. Divide into three teams and search along the coastline and in the woods inland. "

The crowd responded sporadically and started moving in a disorderly manner. After a while, they were divided into the Youyue City team and the Fanxing City team with clear positions – no, maybe it was the friendship that came from protecting the octopus corpse from being refreshed. The handcraft master in charge of the carpentry work was mixed in with the Ze Yu Shi Shui trio.

Ji Xuan took a glance and said nothing, " Send another team out to look for people in the woods. "

There was no sound.

After all, the forest is full of trees, and there might be monsters. The road is not easy to walk on, not to mention you have to find someone. How can it be as convenient as the beach?

Everyone looked left and right, and finally Jian Xi Xin Jiu and others took the lead and walked out first in order to take the lead.

Afterwards, a few more people came out from the Youyue City team, and they seemed to be in charge of the command.

Ji Xuan nodded and said, "Okay, then you guys go."

After saying that, he took Qi Qin to Ze Yu Sishui's team.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said with a frown: "We are short of people here, can't you have a little bit of sacrifice? Xu Chu has come here!"

As soon as he finished speaking, Jian Xi Xinjiu turned around and saw Xu Chu sneaking towards the main force of Fanxing City!

Sword washing new wine: "..."

There was no need to talk about washing the sword with new wine. Liu Tian took the lead in pulling Xu Chu back. Xu Chu was furious and beat Liu Tian up, but Liu Tian refused to let go. This man knew that it was difficult to walk in the woods and that one couldn't ride a horse. How could he let go of such a good opportunity to make Xu Chu suffer?

Xu Chu's resistance was futile and he could only accept his fate.

Ji Xuanyi ignored them and said, "Okay, let's split up into teams. If you come across anything that may be related to the event, let's talk to the team channel. Let's go."

Everyone greeted each other and left in their own directions.

There was a small fishing village in the direction Ji Xuanyi chose, so he went straight there. Everyone understood what he meant and walked quickly, and they reached the edge of the village in less than 20 minutes.

There were several people outside the village, some drying fish, some washing clothes, and some weaving nets. They looked very busy.

Ji Xuanyi just went up and asked someone a few questions, and without saying anything, he asked him to help dry the fish. Ji Xuanyi glanced at the task list and found that it was just an ordinary upgrade task.

Ze Yu Sishui and the others also came back after the conversation. Their experiences were similar to Ji Xuanyi's. They were either just told some irrelevant words, or given ordinary upgrade tasks. Judging from the current situation, this small fishing village seemed to have nothing to do with the event.

Ji Xuanyi frowned, and without further ado, he said directly, "Excuse me, do you have a boat? We want to go out to sea."

I don't know which word is the key word, "ship" or "going out to sea". The man who was busy drying fish just now suddenly straightened up and asked: "Are you going out to sea?" Ji Xuanyi immediately realized that there was a way, nodded quickly and said: "Yes, we are going to go to sea."

He showed a worried expression, glanced at Ji Xuan, but shook his head and said nothing. When Ji Xuanyi asked again and again, she completely ignored him.

"What's going on?" Ze Yu Si Shui asked curiously, "Why are you leaving your words half-said? Is she related to the event or not?"

Ji Xuanyi was also confused, but he quickly reacted and said, "Maybe the preparations are not enough. It seems that we have to finish the tasks in this village first."

This is normal, just like in the north of Green Forest City, he is actually very indifferent to the player at the beginning. Only after you help him complete the task will he be friendly to you and trigger the next plot.

Fortunately, this fishing village is not big, with only about ten people. After working for a long time, the group finally completed the task before dinner.

Just as Ji Xuan expected, after completing the task, she became much friendlier to them. Ji Xuan repeatedly asked about going out to sea, and she answered.

"It's best not to go out to sea today," he said with concern, "It may be dangerous at sea. If you have something to do, you can go out at another time."

Ji Xuanyi guessed that the danger she was talking about might be the boss, but the boss had already been made into a skewer, so there was nothing to be afraid of. He avoided the question and said, "Okay, I'll change the time, but I don't have a boat. Do you know where there is a boat?"

It seemed that Ji Xuanyi was very happy to hear her advice. When he asked about the boat, she also answered very cooperatively: "We have one at home. If you want a boat, we can lend it to you. However, we only have two small boats at home, and we need to use them ourselves. After you use them, you must return them as soon as possible."

Small boat? Ji Xuanyi frowned. Although they had expected that there might only be a small boat, that was the only solution. Going out to sea in a small boat, not to mention how many people could be on it, the safety factor was not high enough.

Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to ask again: "Are there any big ships? We have more people." He showed an embarrassed expression and said, "Big ship? There is no big ship. We only have this kind of small fishing village here. We go out to sea just to make ends meet. Where can we find a big ship?"

There is no big ship ...

Ji Xuanyi asked several more times without giving up, but he got only one answer, that is, there was no big ship.

Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to let him take them to see the boat at home.

Everyone was surprised when they saw the boat.

Is this a fucking boat?! This is a canoe! It's even smaller than the boat that the stingy old man lent them to clear the way in the dungeon! Looking at it in the water, it can only carry one person. He said there was no other choice, as they needed a slightly larger boat to fish, so he could only lend them this small boat.

Ji Xuanyi immediately asked where the slightly larger ship was. He guessed that the official had seen through the banditry of these players and was sure that bad things would happen if they saw the big ship, so they refused to take them to see the slightly larger ship.

In other words, if you must use a boat, the only option is a canoe.

Ze Yu Sishui couldn't help but complain: "If it's a boat like this, I might as well just hold on to a piece of wood and float over."

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but be amazed. He lowered his head to contact the people on the other two sides to see what their situation was.

You wouldn't know unless you asked. The Youyue City team heading in another direction had the same experience as Ji Xuanyi and his team. They found the fishing village and completed a lot of tasks, but unfortunately they could only borrow a canoe, which was of no use.

Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to go and ask Jian Xixinjiu again. They were heading into the woods, so it couldn't be a fishing village with canoes, right?

Jian Xi Xin Jiu's answer did not disappoint Ji Xuanyi. They really did not encounter a fishing village. Not only did they not encounter a fishing village, they did not even see anyone! There were too many trees in the forest, and the grass was deep, making it difficult to walk. Moreover, they had to concentrate on finding something they did not know existed. Jian Xi Xin Jiu's progress was so slow that it was outrageous.

Ji Xuanyi felt powerless and didn't want to care about them anymore. He said, " Then you guys keep looking. The Youyue City team and our team will take the boats we can borrow back to the gathering point to see if we need to build a boat ourselves. You can talk to us when you have news. "

There was no sound from the other side of the sword washing new wine.

They kept working hard until the evening, and no one had figured out whether to go out to sea in a canoe or continue to watch. However, it was time for Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin to go to bed, so everyone was allowed to move freely. After gathering on time at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, Ji Xuanyi went offline.

Since he learned about the event, he has found quite a few props that can be used, but Ji Xuanyi always felt that something was missing. After a day, he was exhausted and went to bed early.

The next day, before Ji Xuan opened his eyes, he heard someone calling him.

" Xuan Yi. "

" Xuan Yi, wake up. "

" Xuan Yi? "

Ji Xuan opened his eyes, slapped the big head in front of him, and frowned and said: " What are you doing? "

For someone who is grumpy when waking up, this reaction is already very mild. Qi Qin was not particularly timid. He leaned back and carefully handed his phone to Ji Xuanyi, saying, " Look at this. "

Ji Xuanyi had actually developed the habit of waking up on time at six o'clock. The reason why he was woken up by Qi Qin this time was mainly because it was only a little past five forty.

Ji Xuan estimated his sleepiness and knew the time. He took the phone expressionlessly and said, " What? Let me see what time it is. Is it convenient for me to call you? "

Qi Qin swallowed his saliva, lay back in the quilt, put one hand on Ji Xuan's arm, and said, " No, no, it was the message sent by Jian Xi Xin Jiu last night. "

" It seems that we have found a big ship. "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment and immediately turned on his phone.

It was past five in the morning, still dark, and the lights were not on in the room. The light from the cell phone made Ji Xuan squint his eyes, and it took him a long time to see the screen clearly.

This is a chat record from around 1:00 a.m.

After they went offline, other players also went offline one after another, but Jianxi Xinjiu and others in the woods continued to search.

Just when they could no longer hold on and were about to go back, a translucent figure with white light all around appeared on the originally empty road.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu let out a scream immediately and was so scared that he dropped off the line. The others were also in a state of panic. Half of them were scared by the sudden appearance of the ghost-like creature, and half were scared by Jian Xi Xin Jiu's scream.

After Jian Xi Xin Jiu went offline, Xu Chu was the only one who had a say in the team.

Xu Chu was worthy of being the captain of the trouble-making team. Even in this situation, he could still muster up the courage to talk to that figure. Liu Tian was so scared that he hugged those players from Youyue City together, inseparable.

Fortunately, when the team was divided, Xu Chu was not allowed to leave for six days, otherwise this group of cowardly guys would have missed something important.

The translucent figure was indeed a ghost, but also a person. He told Xu Chu that he had a huge merchant ship, but it was robbed by pirates, all the crew members were killed , and he himself had his limbs broken and was thrown on the shore, where he finally starved to death. But God has eyes. Although he died, the pirates did not survive. Just when the pirates abandoned him and were about to leave, a sea monster suddenly appeared in the sea and dragged the entire ship to the bottom of the sea.

When Ji Xuan saw this, his eyes twitched: " No way? A ghost ship? "

Qi Qin had also seen some pirate-themed movies, and he said, " I don't know. If it's really a ghost ship, can it only be operated at night? "

But when night comes, he feels sleepy and feels like he has no chance to participate in any activities at all?

Ji Xuanyi also frowned and continued to scroll down the chat history.

According to Xu Chu, after he finished talking to the man, he was told that at twelve o'clock every night, the ghost ship would appear on the coast with the pirates. If he could defeat the pirates at that time, he might be able to take control of the ship.

Ji Xuanyi scrolled down again and found that after Xu Chu finished speaking, Jian Xi Xin Jiu actually popped up in the group and asked Xu Chu shamelessly whether he had waited for the ghost ship.

Xu Chu washed the sword with new wine and damaged it until the other party bowed his head and admitted his mistake. After a long time, he replied: " I've been waiting for you. "

Chapter 161

It was said that a ghost ship would appear, so even if there were not enough people , Xu Chu would not miss the opportunity to watch it and waited on the beach for nearly two hours.

Hard work pays off , and finally Xu Chu got what he was waiting for.

When the translucent ghost ship appeared on the pitch-black sea , the players who were originally frightened by the ghost instantly forgot the fear in their hearts. Instead, they were filled with excitement and curiosity . Everyone almost rushed towards the direction of the ghost ship. Because the ship is too large, the ghost ship cannot stay in the shallows, but in the deep water area some distance away from the shore. Xu Chu and his friends standing on the shore can only see the silhouette of the ghost ship , but the details are completely unclear.

" The ghost ship appeared for about an hour and then disappeared, " Xu Chu said with great regret, " because the sea was too dangerous and we didn't have a boat , so we could only stay on the shore and watch. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu sighed again, and then because it was too late and they had to meet again the next morning , the two of them went to sleep , not caring how surprised others would be when they saw the chat history after waking up.

Qi Qin whispered, " I'm not that afraid of these weird things, but if they only appear at night, I probably won't be able to do much. "

Ji Xuanyi knew this. Not to mention Qi Qin, even he himself was unconscious at night.

But the ghost ship is now their only breakthrough point, and they cannot let it go at all.

Ji Xuanyi frowned, then thought of something. While typing on his mobile phone, he reached out and tucked the quilt around Qi Qin's neck.

Qi Qin obediently let Ji Xuanyi tuck in the corner of the quilt for him. After that, he reminded him hesitantly : " Xuanyi, it's six o'clock. We should get up and go for a morning run. "

Ji Xuan turned off his phone, threw it on the bedside table, and said, " I won't run around today. I won't do anything. I'll sleep all day and go online at night. "

Qi Qin understood what Ji Xuanyi meant. He wanted to go see the ghost ship tonight and sleep during the day to adjust to the jet lag.

Qi Qin said weakly: " I can't sleep. "

Ji Xuanyi stroked his back like he was coaxing a baby and said, " You can fall asleep just by closing your eyes, dear. "

Qi Qin had no choice but to close his eyes.

Ji Xuanyi continued to touch his back. After a while, Qi Qin's face turned red and he whispered, " Stop, stop touching me ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi kicked Qi Qin in the quilt, turned his back and ignored him.

As Ji Xuanyi had expected, everyone saw the message in the group after dawn. In addition to the ghost ship mentioned by Xu Chu, they also learned that Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin would not go online during the day to adjust to the time difference, and would come online to meet them in the evening.

Since Ji Xuanyi is not online, the best thing for others is that they can finally enjoy the seaside scenery to their heart's content. Players have set up stalls on the beach again, enjoying the sunshine, sea breeze, barbecue, and beauties!

Jian Xixinjiu sat next to Xu Chu, looking pale.

Xu Chu's expression was also very heavy.

Liu Tian asked innocently, " What's wrong with you? Why do you all have such expressions? "

Xu Chu said sadly: " Haven't you noticed yet? Without our knowledge, a tragedy has quietly occurred! "

Liu Tian was confused and asked, " What the hell is this? "

Jian Xixinjiu swallowed his saliva, looked at Liu Tian, and said, " This morning's chat record was sent by Tianxia ..."

Xu Chu immediately said, " Don't you feel familiar with that kind of imperative sentence that is taken for granted? "

Liu Tian was full of questions: " What on earth do you want to say???"

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said sadly: " That is definitely not a message from Tian Xia, it must be Ji Xuan Yi, it must be Ji Xuan Yi! "

Liu Tian said inexplicably: " What happened to Ji Xuanyi? They have always had a good relationship and are in love. Using each other's phone to send a message ..."

At this point, Liu Tian also realized something was wrong.

At six in the morning! Ji Xuanyi took Qi Qin's phone and sent a message!

Oh my god! They slept together last night! That's horrible!

Although everyone had speculated about this a long time ago and even joked about it, the truth was suddenly laid out in front of everyone and it was a little overwhelming!

The scene then became one where all three of them were in a trance.

Xu Chu shook his head and sighed, " A great master was defeated by Ji Xuan just like that. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was disappointed: " Although he has a bad temper, Ji Xuanyi is also a handsome young man, and he is already taken ..."

Liu Tian said with a frown on his face: " That's enough, you two. "

The original morning gathering was changed to an evening gathering. After hanging out all day, everyone finally waited for Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin after nightfall.

Ji Xuanyi's mind was a little unclear due to sleeping too much, but overall it was slightly better than staying up late. The same was true for Qi Qin. He looked a little listless, but fortunately he was sober and not as confused as before.

 " It's so rare, " Xu Chu couldn't help but say, " I didn't expect that I would be able to see a sober world after 10 o'clock at night in this life. I have no regrets in this life. "

Ji Xuanyi glanced at him speechlessly and said, " Didn't you say he would show up after ten o'clock? Take us to find him. "

Xu Chu responded and handed the " torch " in his hand to Ji Xuanyi.

Because it was too dark, with only the faint light from the moon, it was easy to trip in the woods if you were not careful. Xu Chu found the brightest material in his bag, tied up some branches, and made a very simple " torch " .

Although that little light cannot cover a large area, it can still be helpful for seeing the road from below.

The group entered the forest with the torches sponsored by Xu Chu.

Xu Chu didn't remember the way very well, and he led everyone around several detours before finally seeing the ghost.

Ji Xuanyi left the crowd who were hugging each other and shivering, walked up to the ghost and greeted him.

Ghost told Ji Xuanyi his story again, just like he did with Xu Chu before, but this time, he did not mention the ghost ship.

Ji Xuan turned around and glanced at Xu Chu, who shook his head, indicating that he didn't know what was going on.

Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to ask himself: " Where is the ghost ship? When will the ghost ship appear? Can we go out to sea on it? "

He glanced at Ji Xuan, shook his head and sighed, but said nothing.

Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to let Xu Chu try again.

Perhaps because he had already told Xu Chu about the ghost ship, he did not refuse to say anything like he did to Ji Xuanyi. Instead, he said to Xu Chu: " They will not show up today. You don't have to wait. "

Xu Chu was stunned and asked, " Ah? Why? "

Why did he suddenly disappear? It made it seem like he was lying about military intelligence. Without any explanation, he just told them that he would not show up today and asked them not to wait.

Xu Chu was about to argue with him, but Ji Xuan stopped him, thought for a moment, and said, " Maybe just like the boss refresh, this ghost ship also refreshes by chance or by rules, right? "

Xu Chu was stunned when he heard this and said, " If you say that, it seems that the boss didn't refresh today. "

They played on the beach for a whole day without any incident. After it got dark, the players who had originally gathered on the beach logged off in groups of two or three.

Qi Qin also came over and said, " Is it possible that the ghost ship only appears when there is a boss ? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head, not sure.

They've only been here two days and don't understand anything yet.

Xu Chu said: " I did take some time to look at the forum. "

Since the game was launched, there are more and more players and more and more posts in the forum. Because so many posts are crowded together, it is very inconvenient, so the forum has set up a special area. Players who want to find a certain type of information can search in the corresponding area.

However, the information about this beach is scattered in the pvx area and the easter egg area. It is no wonder that Ji Xuanyi and the others have never seen it. They usually look for things in the main line area and the pvp area.

" I've read all the posts about this beach. In addition to the description of the scenery here, there are also mentions of sea monsters. Just like what you heard from others before, they only appear on weekends. However, there are also several new posts saying that the sea monsters come ashore at irregular times. It seems that the main cities of other servers have noticed this place. I guess it is related to the event, but at least for now, no one in our server, Sun City, seems to be aware of this. "

" But these are not the main points, " Xu Chu pointed at the ghost next to him and said, " The main point is that in this place where pvx and Easter egg parties gather, there is not a single post mentioning this ghost, let alone the ghost ship. "

Upon hearing this, Ji Xuan looked at the person beside him thoughtfully.

Liu Tian bravely stepped forward and said, " Could it be that no one dares to walk into this forest at night? "

Xu Chu shook his head and said, " Don't underestimate pvx and Easter egg parties. There are people in the forum who jump directly into the volcano to test how much damage the lava of the heavy volcano can cause. "

Six days: "..."

After a long while, Liu Tiantian said, " Awesome! I will never be able to catch up with this level of awareness in my lifetime. "

In fact, what Liu Tian was thinking was, what enlightenment! How could there be someone in this world who is more stupid than me?!

Xu Chu knew Liu Tian very well, so he didn't expose him. He just smiled at Ji Xuanyi and said, " What do you think? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " If he had not been discovered, then he could only have appeared recently, and he did not exist before that. "

Xu Chu looked at Ji Xuanyi and said, " Pre-event. "

Ji Xuan nodded: " Although we didn't see the ghost ship today, it at least proves that our direction is correct. "

That's enough. They came to the beach to look for information related to the activities, and there is still a lot of time.

Although they were told that the ghost ship would not appear, everyone still waited until twelve o'clock to see if any other situations would occur. Unfortunately, there seemed to be no other settings for this plot. Xu Chu could only stand on the shore and point to the direction where they saw the ghost ship yesterday, and then everyone dispersed.

Three days passed in peace and tranquility before the boss of the sea appeared on the beach for the second time . However, this time Ji Xuanyi and his friends were not so lucky.

The boss only left a corpse and did not drop any pearls.

" It seems that the pearl is indeed a rare item, " Xu Chu said, touching his chin, " Is it possible to ask Ye Linyu to cut the Yunzhongjian into two parts and give us half to help us find the lost pearl? "

Ji Xuan was so upset when he heard this.

Forget about a piece, Ye Linyu probably won't even give you a piece of nail.

But it's good to have a corpse, at least we can increase the supply of special food, so it's not a complete loss. And at night we will finally have the chance to see the real appearance of the ghost ship.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin quickly logged off and took a nap, then climbed back up very reluctantly at night.

This time, they finally saw the ghost ship.

Ze Yu Sishui couldn't help but said excitedly: " This is exactly like what happened in the movie! " The ghost ship was floating in the deep water not far from them. Fortunately, like the previous ghost, it was also glowing. Thanks to the vision adjustment in the game, everyone could vaguely see the ghost ship's historical hull, the large seaweed on the sidewalls and the rusty metal, which made boarding this ghost ship an extremely exciting thing.

The passion of the second year disease finally dispelled the fear of non-physical things, and everyone expressed that they must go up and take a look.

Only Jian Xi Xin Jiu Mian had a look of food. Amid the excited cheers of the crowd, he whispered, " I want to know what the pirates up there look like ..."

Although the sound of Jian Xi's new wine was small, his words were like a bomb , and everyone fell silent in an instant.

The ghost clearly said that the ghost ship can only be controlled after defeating the pirates on the ship. The pirates on the ship are definitely not immune to attacks. They are most likely the same as ordinary monsters, with some special buffs at most .

But the problem is not whether it can be defeated, but the visual effect. If the monsters above are all like those in the movies, half-rotten skeletons with stinking meat and internal organs hanging on them, and a bunch of bugs will splash out when you chop them with a knife ...

Everyone's faces turned pale, and they were disgusted by their own imaginations. There was even a girl with mysophobia who said " sorry ", " goodbye ", and " goodbye " three times in a row and prepared to log off.

Ji Xuanyi quickly stopped the person and said, " The authorities shouldn't restore it so well in a place like this. Holographic games are not horror games. They should still consider the psychological state of the players, okay? " boss that Ji Xuanyi and his team had ever seen was the mermaid boss in the Fountain Town in the Elemental Town dungeon , but that one was still okay and not too scary.

boss they fought on the beach before has also been beautified. I think the official considered similar issues when making the ghost ship and made some changes. In this way, the monsters on the ghost ship will not be too scary.

Only then did everyone hesitantly quiet down.

The monsters you might face are scary, but the ghost ship is pretty cool! You'll miss out if you don't get on it!

After hesitating for a moment, everyone finally decided to go on board and take a look first. After all, with so few people, it seemed impossible for them to bring down the entire ship.

They also had with them the canoes they had borrowed there before, a kind with nine legs, which could accommodate nine people.

Ji Xuanyi calculated and said, " You guys in Youyue City took three or four? We seem to have too many people here. "

The representatives from Youyue City looked at each other, and one of them stepped out and said, " Three will do. "

Those who came from Fanxing City are the gang leaders and deputy gang leaders and the like. They are all small managers here, and may not even be senior executives. They are just responsible for tipping off Ye Linyu. It is useless if they go too many times.

Ji Xuanyi nodded when he heard that, and picked out three for Youyue City to distribute themselves. On their side, there were six people going: Ji Xuanyi, Qi Qin, Xu Chu, Jian Xi Xinjiu, Xue Piao Renjian, and Mi Yin.

Four out of the six people have relatively high-end combat capabilities. If they go up to fight, at least the possibility of being demoted is relatively low.

Liu Tian protested against this, but was ruthlessly suppressed by Xu Chu, so he could only stay on the shore feeling aggrieved.

Ji Xuanyi was just about to set off when Ze Yu Shishui popped up and looked at him, saying, "Can I get on the same boat with Master Mi Yin? I'm very light and won't take up much space. " In fact, not only is he very light, Mi Yin is also very thin. If the two of them were to take the same boat, the load might really be enough.

Ji Xuanyi hesitated for a moment and said, "Ask Mi Yintong if she agrees. If the boat capsizes, you two can handle it on your own. Don't look for me. "

Ze Yu Shishui cheered and went to find Mi Yin.

After a while, everyone was ready and set off in high spirits.

Ji Xuanyi had previously thought that borrowing a canoe was too tricky, but now he realized that it still gave them a way to survive. This canoe should have a system bonus, and it did not require the rower to have very skilled techniques to make the boat move forward very quickly. In less than ten minutes, they were very close to the ghost ship.

Observing the ghost ship up close made everyone feel even more shocked. Ze Yu Sishui subconsciously touched the wet and slippery hull, but ended up touching his hands full of dirty algae, which made him feel disgusted.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu fell to the end and lowered his voice, fearing to alert the monsters on the boat, and whispered: "How do we get up there? "

The deck is at least five meters above the sea surface. In this case, the only way to get on board is to climb up the life ladder, but the problem is that it is obvious that the pirates on the ship will not be kind enough to lower the life ladder.

Everyone was puzzled for a long time. Ji Xuanyi washed the new wine with his sword and said, "Didn't we buy a lot of hemp rope when we were doing the world mission before? Do you still have it with you? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was startled, then immediately reacted, and hurriedly lowered his head to look through his bag, saying, "I have it with me ... but how do I use it? Do you want to make a flying claw yourself? "

Ji Xuanyi took the bundle of hemp rope, nodded, and said, "This is the only way. "

In the end, Xu Chu provided a strange-looking staff, which together with the hemp rope formed a flying claw.

But the second problem arises again. Agility-based professions can climb up along the flying claw, especially Mi Yin, who must have undergone similar training in real life. She was able to climb up in a few seconds. Ze Yu Sishui also climbed up quickly with the help of teleportation, but magic-based professions and strength-based professions had no way to deal with it.

Ji Xuanyi found that his strength attribute was not enough to support his weight, so he could only hang himself on the rope. It was impossible for him to go up. It seemed that he could only let the knight or swordsman go up first, and then directly pull the magic profession up.

But a problem arose. Even Xue Piao Renjian, the knight with the lightest load among this group of strength-based professions, broke the connection between the rope and the staff when he was halfway up and fell directly into the water.

Mi Yin was horrified and thought that the world was going to be cold because of Xue Diao. Fortunately, the man floated up by himself after a while.

Xue Piao Renjian was still quick. The moment the rope was released, he took out the grilled octopus he had taken before. After falling into the water, he took a bite of it mixed with sea water, and then came up directly by stepping on the water without alarming the monster below. However, this experience was really terrible. Xue Piao Renjian held the boat and relaxed for a long time before he uttered a word in a low voice with an ugly expression.

" salty."

The meat eaten with sea water must be salty!

Ji Xuanyi's face was gloomy. He never expected to be stuck here. It was probably because he had too little experience.

Ze Yu Sishui lay on the bulwark, poking his head out to look down, and whispered, " Xiao Ji, the two of us, Mi Yin and I, should be able to drag you and the deputy leader up. Why don't we leave them down there and you guys come up and take a look first? "

It seems that this is the only way.

Ji Xuanyi, Xu Chu, and a priest from Youyue City got on the boat with the efforts of Mi Yin and Ze Yu Sishui, and finally saw the scene in front of them.

Thank God, the pirate monster on the ghost ship was not like the one in the movie. It was the same shape as the one in the woods before, except that it was glowing white and had no legs. The wet deck was filled with patrolling pirate ghosts. They didn't seem to notice the few people squatting by the side of the ship and continued to drift along the predetermined trajectory.

Ji Xuan took a look at the monster's health and said, " It doesn't look like it's particularly difficult to fight? "

Mi Yin also nodded and said, " Didn't Xu Chu say that the ship would disappear in an hour? Maybe the difficulty lies in the time limit. "

Ji Xuanyi pondered for a moment and said, " We have healers and output, so it looks like we don't need a tank for now . Let's try it first. If anything happens, we can be prepared next time. "

Everyone responded, and the three magic professions ate the meat with the floating effect first and prepared to run away. The two melee professions, Mi Yin and Ze Yu Si Shui, were ready to attack the monsters.

Ze Yu Sishui lowered his body, suddenly teleported, appeared behind the pirate ghost, and thrust the dagger straight to the back of the monster – and then nothing happened.

The monster didn't lose any blood. Not only did it not lose any blood, it didn't even enter the battle. It seemed as if it didn't see Ze Yu Sishui at all.

Everyone was stunned.

Ze Yu Sishui didn't believe it and stabbed the monster twice again. He even walked up to the monster and greeted it, but there was no reaction at all.

Ze Yu Sishui could only look at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and looked very unhappy.

Mi Yin hit the monster twice casually, but just like Ze Yu Si Shui, there was no response. She asked curiously, " What's going on? "

" What's going on? " Xu Chu said helplessly, " The monsters don't respond to the players. Either we haven't done the pre-processing, or it's not the time to trigger the plot yet. The setting of this ghost ship may have to wait until the event starts before it can be used. "

Ji Xuanyi was shocked, stood up, and said directly without holding back his voice: " At least we know how to get the boat after the event starts. Since we can't start fighting now, let's take a look around the boat and see if there are any other props or settings. "

There is nothing else to do.

The group wandered around the ship for more than half an hour and found another green-named pirate on the ship. They didn't figure out what he was doing before the time was up. In an instant, everyone's feet felt empty, and Xu Chu's scream had just escaped his throat when he fell into the water with a splash.

I won't talk about the situation of rescuing people from the water. Fortunately, everyone was prepared and no one was demoted. However, they were all confused after returning to the shore.

Everyone exchanged some information randomly and then went offline one after another, going to take a shower or go to bed.

Ji Xuanyi also informed Xiao Xiaoyuxia about the ghost ship. Although they were unable to get the ship now, to be honest, being able to discover these things in advance was already a great help. The only pity was that they had to take Youyue City with them and could not take the lead and dominate the crowd. But after the event is opened, they will definitely be able to leave Youri City eight thousand meters away .

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was very satisfied with this. The collection of gold coins and fragments on their side was also going smoothly. Basically, all the collected fragments were saved and screenshots were sent to Ji Xuanyi.

Over in Youyue City, with Yun Zhongjian there, the progress was even faster. With the unremitting efforts of Ye Linyu and Lao Xiyi, they could even piece together a quarter of the map. Soon after, reinforcements from Youyue City and Fanxing City arrived one after another and stationed on the beach, scaring the pvx players who were originally partying here. However, they were basically players from the three main cities, and after realizing that something was wrong, they temporarily gave up pvx and joined the team.

When the players from Dayo City among the pvx players found out that Youyue City and Fanxing City had both come, but their main city had not, they hurriedly passed the message to Zhaochen and others who were still collecting event items in Dayo City.

On the tenth day after Ji Xuanyi arrived at the beach, the players from Dayo City finally hurriedly arrived at the beach.

It's a pity that the best places have been taken by Starry City and Youyue City. The Youri City team doesn't have the ability to go against the two main cities, so they can only stay on the rocky coast in a wronged manner . At first, they wanted to go into the woods, but Xu Chu was worried that they would discover the ghost at night, so he ordered the players of Youyue City and Starry City to intentionally or unintentionally exclude them.

Ji Xuanyi commented on Xu Chu's behavior: " This is only because Zhao Chen didn't come. If Zhao Chen was here and saw Youyue City and Fanxing City ostracizing them together, he would definitely insist on living in the forest and not leave. "

It's not that I'm arrogant or angry. There is a saying that goes, if the enemy tells you to do something, you should never do it. The same is true in reverse. If the enemy tells you not to do something, you should do it. Even if Zhaochen doesn't know what is in the forest, he will never leave there.

Xu Chu uttered a humiliating " tsk " and said, " Is it possible that I just don't like him? Do I have to make things difficult for him wherever he is? "

Ji Xuan thought to himself, there is no need to move, Zhao Chen will have no choice but to fight with you. After all, he can't even breathe properly, how can he survive if I don't kill him?

This was the only time Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu had an argument. After that, everyone spent another half a month busy looking for the event precursor and obstructing Yuri City from finding the event precursor.

Things are starting to get weird.

The lead time is long enough, and all players are waiting for the official announcement of the start of the event or the update, but until now, the official has not made any movement, not even a fart, as if it were dead.

Everyone was questioning the issue of the long lead time, especially people like Ji Xuanyi. In their opinion, this matter has nothing to do with the length of time, but rather that something must have gone wrong.

Because completing quests in Yunzhongjian no longer drops map fragments.

" In fact, I suspect that all the map fragments may have fallen. After all, the fragments we have already pieced together nearly three-fifths of the map, " Ye Linyu said to Ji Xuan in a private chat, " I can send you a screenshot offline later, and you will know for yourself when you see it. "

Ji Xuanyi took a look and found that the map of Youyue City was indeed quite complete. Combined with the map collected from Fanxing City in his hands, the degree of restoration was almost close to four-fifths. The remaining one-fifth should be in the hands of Youri City and Sanren.

Just like Ye Linyu said, the map fragments should have dropped, but even the map has been released, so why hasn't the lead time ended yet?

Is there some hidden prerequisite? Is this activity just for players to start it themselves?
Stupid official!

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but curse in his heart again.

Just when Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but want to go back to Fanxing City to find August to see if he had the clue to start the event, someone on the forum reported that the event for the fourth server had already started!

Everyone was stunned.

Generally speaking, activities are open to all regions and servers at the same time, and everyone is on the same progress. Even if new regions are opened later, old activities will not be reopened to new players.

This is the first time that an activity is open on a single server while other servers are still stuck! At this time, the official announcement finally came , stating that this event was an activity for each server to create its own independent world line, so it was not open at a unified pace, but the opening situation was determined by the actions of the players. There were many conditions for opening, and any one of them could be met, so everyone can work hard.

The official said a lot of words to calm people down, and said that the rewards for this event were very generous, and because it was the first time to open an event in this form, there would be additional compensation after it ended. Only then did the official calm down the rioting players.

However, everyone is almost aware of the official's character, and they didn't have much hope. After the official promised to give compensation, everyone turned their attention to the players on the four servers around them, and asked them how to start the activities on their servers.

It's funny to say that Server 4 was one of the servers that failed the world mission and wiped out the novice town due to infighting in the main city. But after the guilds that caused the total destruction were disbanded, the guilds that took over the main city learned their lesson and united as one. Not only did they complete the next world mission very quickly, they also welcomed it back very smoothly in the previous dungeon activity, turning the world line back to HE .

The atmosphere between the three main cities of the four servers has become unprecedentedly united because of the return of , and they are closer than family members. In this event, the three main cities of the four servers have made persistent efforts and continued to cooperate. Even when they later inferred through the sea chart that the new map might be divided into territories, the three main cities unanimously decided to divide it equally, with no intention of intrigue at all.

Therefore, they became the first server to unite as one and collect all the chart fragments! After the representatives of the three main cities gathered together to piece together the sea map into a complete one, racking their brains, gradually becoming bald, and almost turning against each other because of different opinions, the sea activity of the four servers began.

Obviously, the complete sea chart is a clue to start the activity.

But knowing this news is of no use to Ji Xuanyi and his friends, because judging from the current situation of the second server, it is absolutely impossible to piece together a complete sea map. Even if they have Xu Chu, who can buy up all the fragments in the hands of individual people at a high price, there is absolutely no way for them to get the fragments from the Daylight City.

Even if we don't talk about the past, after the fragments are put together, who should the sea map be given to? Youyue City can give it to Fanxing City, can you give it to Sun City?

Even if we take a step back and say that even if the Sun City really compromised and gave up the sea map and joined the alliance of Youyue City and Fanxing City, Ji Xuanyi would still be unwilling to take them to play for Zhaochen's sake.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was even having a wild idea because of this. He wondered if it was possible to use the condition of launching the event to threaten the people of Youri City and force them to drive Zhao Chen out of office?

Ji Xuanyi sneered at this. There is more than one way to start an event. Zhaochen will not step down because of this. The people of Xinban City have been bewitched by him and are determined to escort him away first. Doesn't he have the eloquence to convince them to transfer the hatred and anger for not being able to participate in the event to Fanxing City and Youyue City?

to let Ji Xuanyi go and annihilate Zhao Chen. If more than 30 people hadn't stepped forward to stop him, he would have been beaten to death by Qi Qin ...

The servers with relatively harmonious relations between the other three main cities began to gather together to complete the puzzle. Not long after, another server launched an activity using the puzzle.

Just when Ji Xuanyi and the others were anxiously thinking about whether there were any other methods besides puzzle map, the event started on server 1.

This server is the same as the second server. The relationship between the two main cities is extremely tense, almost like the hatred for the murder of one's father . It is the type that absolutely cannot cooperate. So after they launched the event, a large wave of people flocked to ask them for solutions.

Compared with the four-server method, the one-server method seems very powerful.

They didn't put the pieces of the puzzle together. They sent more than a hundred people out to sea in homemade boats. After losing more than sixty people, one person drifted directly to the target map, which is the New World!

Although he was soon sent back to the resurrection point by the monsters on the new continent, the activities of the first server were also opened!

Everyone: " Sorry to bother you. Goodbye! "

This triggering condition that relies entirely on luck is too unreliable!

However, Ji Xuanyi suggested that maybe he could capture Yun Zhongjian and give it a try. Ye Linyu had no objection to this, since the map fragments had been collected anyway. After hearing this, the old western doctor almost grabbed Ji Xuanyi by the collar and roared, saying in disbelief: " Are you worthy of Yun Zhongjian?! He treats you as a friend! And you sell him out like this! "

Ji Xuanyi imagined Yun Zhongjian's pure, innocent, and naive eyes, and couldn't help but feel a pang of conscience ...

It seems that this method is not suitable for them either.

Ji Xuanyi thought about it for a long time and opened the active servers one after another.

Finally, he made up his mind to go back to Fanxing City.

When you are in doubt, let August take over!

Ji Xuanyi was going to find August. The preliminary preparations had been completed, and there was no reason for August to hide everything anymore. He was very sure that the three wizard towers were related to this event, and August could definitely help.

So after discussing with everyone, Ji Xuanyi left Qi Qin behind and rushed to Fanxing City with Liu Tianma without stopping.

The six-day horse is currently the best horse in the game. If it goes at full speed, a journey that would normally take four days to travel slowly can be completed in just one and a half days.

After traveling for two consecutive days in the past six days, he ran like crazy, carrying Ji Xuanyi all the way into the inner city without slowing down at all. If he had not been pulled off the horse by the guard when he was about to rush into the mage tower, he might have been able to ride the horse directly into the elevator.

Without taking time to care about Liu Tian who was pinned to the ground by the guard, Ji Xuan ran into the Mage Tower which seemed a little deserted because of the players rushing to the beach, and found August under the guidance of the guide.

The skinny and dirty magician smiled at Ji Xuanyi: " Kid, why did you come just now? "

There was a soft " ding dong " sound, and everyone looked at their chat interface.

System announcement: The clue has been triggered, [The Great Magician in the Mage Tower] , congratulations to all players, the [Our Journey is the Sea of Stars] event is now open!

Chapter 162

soon as Ji Xuan heard the words " just arrived " , he felt something was wrong. Sure enough , the next second , August told him the whole cause of the event like pouring beans , and kindly helped him to start the event.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

What the hell was he doing before?

Ji Xuanyi almost spat out a mouthful of blood on August's face . He was almost having a heart attack from anger. It took him a long time to calm down while holding on to the table.

August smiled and brewed a pot of tea for Ji Xuanyi and placed it in front of him.

Ji Xuanyi picked up the cup and took a big gulp.

The moment the announcement of the event came out, Ji Xuanyi's private chat channel exploded. People who knew that he had come back to see August were frantically asking him questions about details. Ji Xuanyi was in no mood to reply to them , so he blocked them all and sat down on the chair in front of August's desk.

Now that I'm here, it would be a shame to leave as soon as the event starts. I have to get more information to bring back.

Ji Xuanyi had actually found out a small part of the background plot of the event, but this small part was too vague and fragmentary , and he was unable to make an effective inference.

Otherwise, he would have gone to look for August as soon as the prelude was opened.

What the Great Magician Irene of Youyue City mentioned about the three magician towers joining together to discuss was actually the matter of retaking another continent , which was the new map in this event.

and expelled all living beings during the last invasion of the evil god due to internal strife among humans and failed to defend the continent .

Because the evil god is too powerful and there is an ocean between the two continents, once a war breaks out, it will be difficult to obtain both manpower and supplies, so it is almost impossible for humans to retake this continent.

Because of this impossibility, people who had no other options could only accept their fate and gradually forget about the lost continent.

Originally, the matter of the Lost Continent might have been gradually forgotten by everyone, but when the evil god attacked the Elemental Continent again, the players successfully protected the Elemental Town and repelled the evil god. So the great magicians of the three magician towers rekindled their hope of regaining the Lost Continent. They formed an alliance again, hoping to successfully take the Lost Continent back from the evil god.

August's role in this alliance is almost technical support.

"Child, I once told you that you had already come into contact with the part I was responsible for, but you didn't seem to guess it?" August said.

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly and thought to himself, I have come into contact with so many things, who knows which one you are responsible for?

August seemed to know Ji Xuanyi's answer. He laughed, clenched his hand into a fist, moved his fingertips slightly, and when he opened his fist again, there was a ruby in the palm of his hand.

Ji Xuanyi was so familiar with this ruby that he felt really bad every time he suddenly received a message from the system in the afternoon. The damn task of the disappearing ruby had made Ji Xuanyi so angry that he would grit his teeth whenever he saw it.

But soon, Ji Xuanyi realized what August meant.

When he first received the ruby mission, August once told him that this ruby was a failure in his research on space magic. It was uncontrollable and would randomly trigger teleportation at intervals.

Space magic? Ji Xuan stared at August in a daze.

August looked very happy. He said, "Being able to defeat the evil god does not mean that we can recover the lost continent. The ocean is a natural barrier. If we cannot overcome it, then no matter how powerful we are, we will not be able to drive the evil god across the ocean."

"But fortunately, my space magic experiment finally succeeded," August said excitedly with a childlike smile, "Although Irene and the old man from Day City also helped a little, of course, only a little, but this is undoubtedly my masterpiece! I created teleportation magic, which can ignore the distance and teleport people from one place to another! With this magic, replenishing resources is no longer a difficult task!"
