

" The Miscellaneous Warlock" by Zui Juntian

Brief review of the work:

Ji Xuanyi , who is notorious and has many enemies, chooses to play a support role in the world's first holographic online game. Well, the purpose is to cultivate the body and mind and make more friends ... But the situation is unforgiving, and the enemies come one by one. In order to play the game quietly, he has to find a bound output! This article uses humorous language to tell the story of the protagonist looking for a partner in a holographic online game. After countless adventures, they trust each other, accompany each other, and finally reach the pinnacle of the game. The interaction between the two protagonists is very cute and full of cuteness, which makes people laugh.

Chapter 1

" No basic attack ! No basic attack ! Play as a support! No basic attack ! "

Ji Xuanyi swung the wooden staff in his hand and beat the monster in front of him with a ferocious expression.

hp-1-1-1-1-1-1.....

Along with the scream of death, the monster's health bar reached the bottom, and the wooden staff in Ji Xuanyi's hand finally broke into two with a click under the heavy weight.

Ji Xuanyi: "... Fuck! "

There is nothing that can be done about it, after all, it is just a novice staff.

In an era of rapid technological development, technological breakthroughs have finally allowed games to move from VR to the holographic field. Although the technology in Country C where Ji Xuanyi is located is not yet mature, foreign game companies have already launched the first holographic online game – "Domain".

Ji Xuanyi, who was addicted to online games, would certainly not miss this opportunity.

However, his previous gaming career of fighting and killing made him resistant to being a damage dealer, so in this game, he unprecedently chose the least favored auxiliary profession, the warlock.

The Warlock is different from a purely healing auxiliary like a Priest. Instead, the Warlock serves as a buff- type auxiliary that can both protect teammates and assist them in attacking.

Ji Xuanyi has always been a lone ranger. He deeply feels that he needs to improve his temper, make more friends, and it would be best if he could be a support who would be relied upon by countless damage dealers.

However, for this kind of holographic game where you can only have one account in your lifetime, most people are unwilling to be auxiliary. Ji Xuanyi didn't see many people in the Warlock Novice Village. He was a college student, and after being delayed for two days by exams and going online again, he was completely unable to keep up with the main group. Not to mention making friends, he couldn't even join a team to fight monsters, and could only kill them one by one by himself .

Then the problem arises.

The warlock is a weird profession that doesn't even have any offensive basic attacks , and its first skill isn't even a treatment, but a curse.

" The Lone Wanderer's Grudge " has the effect of causing 1.5 seconds of paralysis to the enemy target. As the skill level increases, the paralysis time will gradually increase.

To be fair, although this skill is not very good, it is not bad either. In the battle between players, control skills are still very important.

But as a starting skill, it is totally useless in leveling up and fighting monsters! It doesn't even do any damage!

Ji Xuanyi, in a fit of rage, stripped the monster's belt off its corpse, tied it with his staff, and managed to put the monster back together.

had changed from the original " wooden staff [white quality, magic plus 5 , physical plus 1] " to a " broken wooden staff [gray quality, magic plus 1 , physical plus 1] " .

Ji Xuanyi: " Fuck it ..."

It was so terrible right after leaving the novice village. After playing the game for so many years, this was the first time for him.

Ji Xuanyi stripped off two pieces of bronze armor from the monster and tied them to the front end of the staff. He lifted it up and saw that the label on it had changed to " Strange broken wooden staff [grey quality, magic plus 1 , physical plus 3] " .

Very good, from now on he will be a melee warrior.

Of course, it was a joke. Ji Xuanyi did not have the ambition to fight with others with a staff for the time being.

But this iron piece is quite interesting. Two pieces mean physical attack increased by 2. What will happen if you tie a few more pieces?

There were only two pieces of bronze armor on a small monster. Ji Xuan looked at his task. He had killed eight goblins and there were seven left. He could give it a try.

After putting on the new equipment, Ji Xuanyi's efficiency in killing monsters finally became faster. Although the paralysis effect only lasted for a moment due to the decline in the quality of the staff, the attack power increased, and he could knock off three points of blood at a time.

However, even so, it took him more than an hour to complete the task, because adding bronze armor to the staff did not increase the physical attack much.

But it's true, if you can increase the attack effect so easily, you don't need to obtain equipment from other channels. You can just add materials to the novice equipment infinitely.

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but imagine what would happen if he continued to add iron pieces to his staff ...

It will turn into a meteor hammer, Ji Xuanyi came to this conclusion.

" I'm afraid I've gone crazy from killing monsters ..." Ji Xuanyi knocked his head, sorted out the items in his bag, and went back to hand in the task.

Now it was just a novice mission, and the monsters they fought were all very low level, so a warlock like him who didn't have any normal attack skills could also kill monsters with the physical attacks of his staff, but when the level got higher and higher, the monsters' health would also get higher, and he couldn't fight with them for a whole day every time he killed a small monster, right? Otherwise, he probably wouldn't be able to reach the maximum level until the game was shut down.

The most urgent task is to find a bound output and upgrade together.

Although he was planning to change his temper and make friends, Ji Xuanyi was still resistant to the idea of being together. They had to do everything at the same pace. He had to do whatever the other person did. Once they were separated, they would be unable to do anything ...

Thinking of this, Ji Xuanyi's face turned darker than the bottom of a pot.

I really want to kill a lot of people.

After a long time, Ji Xuanyi finally calmed down, handed in the task, and stepped out of the Novice Village.

One point that has been repeatedly mentioned in the promotion of the game "Domain" is that there is no teleportation array, and all maps are connected together, almost like a second Earth, which is very realistic.

Ji Xuan walked for about half an hour before he saw a few players squatting on the roadside digging grass.

A girl in a white robe seemed to have finished digging. She stood up, held her waist and twisted it.

Although you won't really feel back pain in a holographic online game, many habits are difficult for everyone to change in a short period of time.

When the girl twisted her waist, she saw Ji Xuanyi, was stunned for a moment, and blurted out: "Warlock?"

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said unhappily, "What's wrong with the warlock?"

Although this profession is very stupid.

The girl smiled sheepishly and said, "Sorry, sorry, I didn't mean it. I just heard that many Warlock players have given up the game, so I was a little surprised."

Ji Xuanyi knew about this. When "Domain" was still in the pre-order stage, there was already a game forum. After the exam, he went to the forum and saw that it seemed that news from abroad had leaked in. Many players found that the warlock profession was very useless in the later stages and was almost beaten by other professions, so they protested to the game company, but were ignored.

However, for Ji Xuanyi, there is no useless profession, only useless players. He does not think that this profession is completely unplayable, so he does not pay special attention to this matter. Although Ji Xuanyi had a bad temper, his attitude towards girls was okay. He didn't say anything else, just said "Oh" and walked straight forward.

But this girl seemed to be very talkative. After saying goodbye to the people who were digging grass with her, she followed Ji Xuanyi and said in a very familiar manner: "From your appearance, you just came out of the Novice Village, right? Your staff has become like this. I also think that the warlock profession needs to be changed..."

Ji Xuanyi felt it was a bit noisy, but there was only one road like this and he couldn't stop others from going, so he simply cleared his mind and didn't listen to what she was saying.

Almost all games follow this routine. After coming out of the novice village, the first map you arrive at will be a relatively peaceful place. The sunny town in front of you meets this condition very well.

The girl next to him chattered for a long time. Seeing that they were about to enter the town, she estimated that she and Ji Xuanyi would go their separate ways, so she said: " My name is Yiduo Xiaohua, and I'm a pastor. What's your name? We are so destined to be together, how about adding each other as friends? "

Ji Xuanyi was looking at the buildings in this small town. After hearing what a little flower said, he couldn't help but ask: " ??? Are we destined to be together? "

A little flower nodded seriously and said as a matter of course: " I had just finished my mission when you passed by. Of course we are destined to meet! "

Ji Xuanyi was speechless. Seeing that the other party was determined not to give up until he added him as a friend, he had no choice but to say, " My name is Ji Xuanyi. "

A little flower's eyes lit up when she heard this: " Ji Xuanyi? Are you also a fan of Mu Xuanyi? "

Ji Xuan was stunned. Fans?

Before Ji Xuanyi could answer, a little flower said with a sad face: " But it's better not to choose such a name. Master Mu Xuanyi has many enemies, and he doesn't like to deal with others. We should just be in our own circle and don't bother him. "

Ji Xuanyi was silent for a long time before he said, " I don't know what Mu Xuanyi is. I just picked this name randomly. "

" Ah? Is that so? " A little flower was stunned for a moment, then said: " Then do you want to be recommended? Mu Xuanyi is very powerful, and he has a lot of male fans! "

Ji Xuanyi was speechless, there are still male fans!

Seeing that Yiduo Xiaohua was about to pull him to tell her about the past, Ji Xuanyi quickly declined, " I'm not interested in this kind of thing. I'm just a casual player. Let's talk about it later. I have to go level up! "

" Oh oh oh, okay, then go ahead and we'll talk next time. " A small flower expressed its understanding and waved goodbye to Ji Xuanyi.

After Ji Xuanyi trotted away, a little flower sighed and said, " Alas, the warlock profession can only be a casual player ... When you have time, go play with Xiao Ji more often, and let him know that Mu Xuanyi's big fan is so warm! "

Ji Xuanyi ran into the town, still feeling frightened.

He thought that the name Mu Xuanyi was only known by the people he had killed , but he didn't expect it to be so famous? He has both male and female fans. Doesn't he remember what he did?

However, what Yiduo Xiaohua said was correct. He did have a lot of enemies, so he had to find a bound output as soon as possible.

Ji Xuanyi is called Ji Xuanyi, which is his real name. After all, this is the first holographic online game, so the sense of immersion should not be too strong.

And Mu Xuanyi was his previous best horse.

He played a lot of games with this name, and of course, made a lot of enemies.

There is always overlap among online game players, and although Ji Xuanyi himself doesn't know it, he does have a small group of fans.

Unlike keyboard online games, holographic online games do not put the name on the top of the head. Thanks to this setting, Ji Xuanyi opened the door to a new world.

However, this also reminded him that it would be best not to reveal his identity before reaching the maximum level ... With his current profession, even for him, it is impossible for him to fight back and escape against a gang alone like he did before .

There is not much difference between Xinmu Town and Novice Village. After all, it is a transitional map for players to get familiar with the game. The tasks are very peaceful and simple. Most players have left the town and gone to the next upgrade location. Those who stay here are mostly newbies, or those who entered the game late, or those who don't have a gang behind them and can't rob monsters.

In addition to games, many gangs also have connections in real life. When changing games, dozens of people will change together and fight for resources together. Even in keyboard online games, there are people who fight gang wars every day for power, not to mention holographic online games.

However, Ji Xuanyi has always kept his distance from gangs .

The last task the Novice Village received was to go to the town to find the mayor and start a new experience.

There is more than one town called Xinmu. Otherwise, with the population of Country C , this place would probably be overcrowded if there were no models that could be inserted into each other like in keyboard online games. Ji Xuanyi just randomly chose a road and walked here.

But if you think about it this way, he and that little flower do have some kind of fate.

The mayor was standing on the side of the widest street, with the words " Mayor " written on his head . He was a sturdy, middle-aged man with a big beard.

If the words on the other person's head hadn't been too eye-catching, Ji Xuan would have thought he was a blacksmith just by looking at his appearance.

Ji Xuanyi walked up to him and said, " Excuse me, are you the mayor? "

Turning around, he said to Ji Xuan with a smile: " Yes, adventurer, is there anything I can help you with? "

Ji Xuanyi handed him the parchment in his hand and said, " A mysterious old man asked me to come to you. "

The guide of the Novice Village is covered in a black robe, and the title on his head is just five words: [Mysterious Old Man] . Before the plot of the game unfolds, no one knows his true identity.

The mayor took the parchment handed over by Ji Xuanyi and looked at it. His friendly expression suddenly changed to one of disgust, and he said, " Oh, a sorcerer. "

As expected of a holographic online game, this expression was spot on. Ji Xuanyi's face changed, and he almost couldn't help but take out his new weapon to hit him. To be precise, if the opponent hadn't been a yellow-named invulnerable one, Ji Xuanyi would have probably already started hitting him.

However, even the game has this attitude towards warlocks, so it seems normal for those warlock players to quit the game.

The attitude towards warlocks can be traced. The profession of warlock is set as a sorcerer who walks alone in the dark. Once someone provokes them, they will be cursed by them. It is normal for some people to be prejudiced against warlocks.

However, it is so obvious that if the mayor really encounters a powerful sorcerer, he would be very disappointed with his life.

Ji Xuanyi took several deep breaths, suppressed his temper, and then said to the mayor: " So what should I do now? "

Fortunately, the gesture of expressing prejudice was just an expression, and he continued normally: " Uncle Aesop at the blacksmith shop needs help, so you can go to him and train yourself. "

The mayor handed the parchment in his hand back to Ji Xuanyi, and the task on it had changed to " Go to the blacksmith shop . "

The parchment is the task system, which not only contains the tasks accepted by the player, but also simple direction pointers. In most cases, the player can find the task location according to the pointer, but there are some tasks that do not have pointers, so the player can only ask verbally.

Ji Xuanyi went to the blacksmith shop as instructed and found that the blacksmith standing behind the furnace looked familiar.

Ji Xuanyi: "..... ??? "

The burly middle-aged man with a big beard, isn't this the mayor just now?

Ji Xuanyi walked forward in a daze, handed the parchment to the blacksmith who looked exactly like the mayor, and told him that the mayor had asked him to come.

The blacksmith with the name Uncle Aesop on his head laughed out loud: " So it was your brother who asked you to come! "

So the mayor and the blacksmith are brothers? That's awesome, introducing a helper to your family ...

Ji Xuanyi was powerless to complain. He took the parchment handed over by the blacksmith and said, " Is there anything I can help you with? "

Uncle Aesop said, " It's like this. The iron ore here is almost used up. I need you to help me find some ore. Go south out of the town and there is a mine at the foot of the mountain. "

Ji Xuanyi looked at the parchment, on which the task instructions spoken by Uncle Aesop gradually appeared.

 " But you need to be careful, there may be a huge black snake in the mine, it always hides there, " Unlike the mayor, this uncle Aesop did not seem to be disgusted by Ji Xuanyi's identity as a warlock, and even reminded him with great concern: " You are a warlock, it is best to find a companion to go with you. "

Ji Xuanyi waited for a while, and when Uncle Aesop stopped talking, he nodded, put away the parchment, and said to him: " Thank you, I will go find a companion. "

Uncle Aesop smiled and said to him, " You're welcome. If you need anything else, you can come to me. "

This sentence sounds like a real person.

Although he said he was going to find a companion, it was still very difficult for Ji Xuanyi. He didn't know how to talk to anyone. He stood in the busy town for a long time before he remembered to try his luck at the quest point. Maybe he could meet someone with the same quest. Even if he couldn't form a team with damage output, he could form a team with a healer, and he could use his physical attack staff to slowly attack.

But when Ji Xuanyi followed the instructions and arrived at the entrance of the mine, he found that there was no one here at all. After all, the main force had already moved to another town. It was normal that there was no one here for such a novice mission among novices.

Ji Xuanyi stood in front of the huge cave entrance for a while, and then went straight in.

Just as he was about to step into the sunlightless darkness, he heard the sound of footsteps from behind him.

When Ji Xuan turned around, he saw a man wearing black tights, holding a dagger in his hand and covered in dust walking towards him.

Player? Or?

Ji Xuanyi was just guessing when the man looked up and saw him. He was stunned for a moment, then ran over with a happy face.

Oh, it's a player ... Ji Xuanyi thought disappointedly.

The man ran over happily and said to Ji Xuan: Are you here to " kill the black snake too ? Let's team up! "

Ji Xuanyi looked him up and down and felt a headache.

" Are you an assassin? "

" Yes, yes. " The man nodded repeatedly.

Ji Xuanyi gave him a strange look.

The man was a little embarrassed. He brushed off the dust on his body, wiped his face, and whispered, " I, I'm not very good. My hands and eyes are not coordinated. Although I have the stealth attribute that comes with an assassin, it only makes my movements lighter and my footsteps quieter. It's useless for killing monsters ... "

" so? "

" So I died many times ... and it became like this. "

Ji Xuanyi then realized that the guy in front of him was stuck on the mission for nearly two days because of his lack of experience. Two days ago, he was still so confident that he could do it. But when he found out that he couldn't and wanted to form a team, the main group had already left and there was no one to do the mission.

Simply put, I'm a newbie.

Ji Xuanyi has a very low tolerance for noobs and newbies, let alone the combination of the two. Normally, when he meets such people, Ji Xuanyi will turn around and leave, but the situation now is different.

Ji Xuanyi said: " Let's form a team, but I'm not here to fight the black snake, I'm here to mine. " The assassin was stunned for a moment, and actually said with disdain: " Ah? You just left the Novice Village? "

Ji Xuanyi held down his restless hand and said expressionlessly, " Shall we form a team or not? "

 " Group, group, group! "

After joining the team, the opponent's profession, name and health will be displayed. Ji Xuan looked up and saw that the assassin was called [Miao Shou Kong Kong].

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help it. Assassin was his main profession. He was also well-known for his strength in the assassin world. He even published one or two assassin tutorials. He immediately stabbed Miaoshoukongkong in the stomach with his staff and cursed: " Are you an assassin or a thief?! Miaoshoukongkong! "

Because the two were teammates, it didn't hurt when Ji Xuanyi's staff stabbed Miao Shou Kong Kong in the stomach, but he couldn't move forward. The man looked at Ji Xuanyi innocently and said, " This is my first time playing the game. I have some misunderstandings about this profession. I only learned about the settings after coming in. I can't change my name ..."

Does this have anything to do with the first time playing a game? It's obviously because he's uneducated! Ji Xuanyi poked him a few more times, pretending that he had killed this man once before taking back the staff.

Miao Shoukong rubbed his belly and said to Ji Xuanyi: " Your name is Ji Xuanyi? "

 " Ah. " Ji Xuanyi responded unhappily.

Miaoshoukongkong didn't know what he was thinking. After a long while, he said, " You are playing a warlock? What skills does a warlock have? "

 " paralysis. "

Miaoshoukongkong was stunned for a moment and said unhappily: " Why are you cursing at me? "

Ji Xuan looked up at him with a fierce look in his eyes.

Finally realizing that Ji Xuanyi had a bad temper, Miao Shou Kongkong didn't dare to say anything and just followed him obediently.

It was very dark in the mine, but no matter how realistic a holographic online game was, it would not reproduce such places that would affect the gaming experience. Wherever Ji Xuanyi and Miao Shou Kongkong walked, there would be a little light, allowing them to see the surrounding environment clearly.

Miaoshoukongkong is really a wimp. As an assassin, he can't even use his natural attributes well. There are always rustling sounds of footsteps, but Ji Xuanyi is too lazy to waste time on him. He goes all the way to the end of the mine and finally sees the large pieces of ore required for the mission and a huge black snake coiled next to the ore.

 " When there were many people at the beginning, we all fought this elite monster together. The ore was easy to pick up and it refreshed quickly, so the ore mission was easy to complete. But when it came to my snake gallbladder mission, I had to fight against the monster, "

Miaoshoukongkong whispered, " I got lost several times in the middle, and when I got here, I was left behind by the main group. "

At that time, there were actually a few people who wanted to do this task, but

Miaoshoukongkong was playing the game for the first time and didn't even think that there were monsters that could kill players. He thought those people were teaming up to kill monsters for convenience. He thought about using elite monsters to hone his skills, so he rejected the invitation to join a team.

Then I was killed so hard that my mentality collapsed.

In order to take care of the feelings of some players, most of the monsters with creepy images were castrated when they were introduced. The black snake here is the same. It is pitch black and not very clear.

Even so, Miaoshoukongkong shuddered. He had been sent back to the resurrection point by this black snake countless times.

Ji Xuanyi said: " You go ahead. "

 " ah? "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " I am an assistant, do you still expect me to hit it with my staff? " Miao Shou Kong Kong responded and walked forward reluctantly. Before he entered the black snake's sensing range, Ji Xuan grabbed him back.

 " Are you just going to face me like this? " Ji Xuanyi looked at him in disbelief.

Miao Shou Kong Kong was startled by Ji Xuan's sudden action and stammered, " No, what else? "

 " For an assassin, almost all of their skills have a bonus behind them. What do you think the assassin's inherent stealth attribute is for? To make it easier to race with others? "

Miaoshoukongkong was stunned: " I should sneak behind it? "

Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to pay attention to him and said, " The monsters' battle range is a fan-shaped area with a 120-degree angle in front and a side length of about ten meters. If you step into this area, the red-named monsters will automatically enter the battle. If you enter from outside the fan-shaped area, you will enter the battle randomly after entering ten meters. "

 " I guess it's probably because all professions have a hidden statistic that randomly triggers entering combat. I've tried it, and footsteps have no effect on this statistic, so your chance of being discovered should be as low as other assassins. For a monster of this level, you should have no problem getting around it from behind. "

Miao Shou Kong Kong was stunned by what he heard. It took him a long time to grasp the key point. He said in embarrassment: " But even if I go behind it and hit it first, it will still turn around and hit me later, right? I have very little blood. "

It is natural for an assassin to have less HP, but finding the angle to attack from behind, also known as the back-fighting technique, is a test of operation in keyboard online games, but in VR and holographic online games, it is a test of physical skills ...

Ji Xuan took a look at Miao Shou Kong Kong and felt that this person probably didn't have any physical skills.

After a moment's pause, he said, " Then you just stand there and hit it. If it hits you, you hit it back. "

Miaoshoukongkong said with a sad face: " I have little blood ..."

Ji Xuanyi finally smiled for the first time since he entered the game: " What are you afraid of? What am I here for? I won't let you die. "

Chapter 3

Shoukongkong held his breath and tiptoed around behind the black snake.

Ji Xuan took a look at his " strange broken wooden staff " and belatedly remembered that his magic bonus was only one. The paralysis effect could not last for 1.5 seconds, but only a moment. If he had to say it, it should be only 0.2 to 0.3 seconds.

It's a bit difficult.

Ji Xuanyi was shocked.

Miaoshoukongkong was in position and was not discovered as expected, but he was still trembling with fear and dared not move. He looked up at Ji Xuanyi stiffly.

Ji Xuan nodded at him, gritted his teeth, closed his eyes, held the dagger with both hands, used the skill " Steal Kill " , and stabbed the black snake hard on the back.

Although Black Snake, as an elite monster, discovered Miaoshoukongkong at the last moment, it did not have time to face him directly, and the assassin's back attack bonus was successfully triggered, causing its health to drop by one level.

But that cannot affect the outcome of the battle, the assassin's health is too low, and the back bonus is only triggered once, so there is no way he can beat the Black Snake in a single fight. Miao Shou Kong Kong remembered Ji Xuanyi's instructions and turned the assassin into a warrior. He stood there and slashed at the black snake. He was bitten twice and his blood volume dropped by one third. He immediately shouted at the top of his voice: " Heal me! Heal me!!! Heal me!!! "

Ji Xuanyi stared at the black snake's attack and said slowly, " I'm sorry, warlocks don't have healing skills. "

 " What?! "

Miaoshoukongkong paused, and the black snake seized the opportunity to bite him again. It raised its upper body high, leaned back to gather strength, and then suddenly pounced towards Miaoshoukongkong.

It's over. This unreliable sorcerer is going to kill him again!

Miao Shou Kong Kong was just thinking about it when he saw the black snake suddenly froze when it was about to bite him, and completed the attack without biting him. After a second, it raised its upper body high again and leaned backward.

Looking at Miaoshoukongkong standing there stupidly, Ji Xuanyi sighed and said dissatisfiedly: " If you don't hit it now, you really won't be able to beat it before your blood runs out. "

Miao Shou Kong Kong shuddered, and without caring that he had been bitten again, he quickly raised the dagger and stabbed the black snake again.

Ji Xuanyi caught the skill CD and paralyzed the black snake again before it launched its second attack on Miaoshoukongkong. He nibbled and numbed it, nibbled and numbed it again.

Miaoshoukongkong finally wore down the black snake until only skin was left.

But he himself has no blood left. Looking at the situation, he has to fight again. If he had not been dazed before, he should have been able to pass.

But it's not easy to have hope of completing the mission! Miaoshoukongkong thought to himself, looking at the black snake with only bloody skin left, waiting for it to give him the last blow.

But before he could wait, Ji Xuanyi rushed over and hit the snake's head with his staff.

hp-3 , black snake, pawn.

Miaoshoukongkong stared at the black snake's corpse on the ground in a daze. He didn't expect that the support had this way of finishing off the enemy.

" Well, the performance is not bad. " Having successfully completed the task, Ji Xuanyi was in a good mood. He even patted Miao Shoukong's shoulder before running to move the ore.

Miaoshoukongkong was stunned for a long time, and suddenly shouted: " Master! Please accept me as your disciple! "

Ji Xuanyi was startled by the shouting and almost dropped the ore on his feet.

Miaoshoukongkong ran over and said to Ji Xuan: " Master! The monster-controlling technique you just used must be amazing, right? Can you teach me? "

Ji Xuanyi twitched his lips and said, " Who is your master? Don't yell. This is just an elite monster in the novice town. The afterswing of its attack is so obvious that anyone with a little experience can control it. You don't need me to teach you. You will learn it slowly in the future. "

Miaoshoukongkong was stunned: " Really? Really? "

" Of course it's true. " Ji Xuan said without changing his expression.

If his staff was not broken, then this sentence would be true. In real life, one and a half seconds is very short, but in the game, anything longer than one second is very long. As long as the moment of the black snake's attack can be controlled within the duration of the paralysis effect of the skill, he can do what Ji Xuanyi just did. Conversely, the shorter the paralysis time, the higher the technical requirements.

Ji Xuanyi only had 0.2 seconds, and it was not easy to accurately hit the target.

However, Miaoshou Kongkong obviously didn't understand this, and Ji Xuanyi didn't want to accept a disciple at all, so he just casually evaded the question.

Ji Xuanyi was distracted just now and was about to pick up the ore. In fact, in this game, as long as you touch an item, you can put it into the backpack. He put the ore away, and when he found that the task was completed, he prepared to disband the team and leave.

Miao Shou Kong Kong who was standing by suddenly screamed.

Ji Xuan turned around and found that the black snake corpse on the ground had disappeared.

Miao Shou Kong Kong looked at him with a sad face and said aggrievedly: " The quest item was also removed ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

If he were an output now, Miaoshoukongkong would have been killed by him eight hundred times.

Miaoshoukongkong ran to his side, not daring to call him master, and whispered: " Brother, you will also do this task later, I will go with you, can you pick it up again later? "

Ji Xuanyi really didn't want to do missions with such a fool anymore, but the problem was that there was no one else except this fool ...

After a long while, Ji Xuan took a deep breath and said, "... Yeah. "

Playing holographic games is very tiring, and completing tasks is also very slow. Although it doesn't take much effort, you still have to take one step at a time. It took Ji Xuanyi a whole day to finally catch up with Miaoshou Kongkong's progress and complete the task of killing the black snake and taking the snake's gall.

When Miaoshou Kongkong and Ji Xuanyi handed in the task together, they almost knelt on the ground and cried. After two days, they could finally leave this town!

Ji Xuanyi also breathed a sigh of relief, finally he could get rid of this Xiaobai.

Before he could even breathe a sigh of relief, Ji Xuanyi saw a dialog box pop up in front of him.

"Miaoshoukongkong requests to add you as a friend, do you agree? "

Ji Xuanyi calmly declined.

Miaoshoukongkong received the message and said with a sad face: "Brother, please guide me. I am stuck in this kind of mission. Without you, I still can't level up ..."

"Someone will fall down later, so just form a team." Ji Xuanyi said, and was about to leave.

Miao Shoukong rushed over, hugged Ji Xuanyi's thighs, and shouted: "Take me with you, take me with you! "

In the past, if someone dared to cling to Ji Xuanyi like this, he would most likely have been resurrected by now. However, Ji Xuanyi is not without a way to deal with such people who cling to him by force.

He chose to go offline.

Currently, the only holographic online game equipment is a game cabin, which requires the person to lie down inside. After exiting the game, the person must climb out. Many people find this thing cumbersome, but no one knows when the holographic helmet will be released.

Ji Xuanyi had been running around in the game for a whole day. Although he didn't feel anything physically, he was very tired mentally. He almost fell asleep in the game cabin and lay there for a long time before crawling out.

He lived alone in the house and was too lazy to even make noodles. He just ordered takeout.

After eating, he just went to the bathroom, took a shower, and went to sleep.

When Ji Xuanyi woke up the next day, he didn't rush to play the game, but directly turned on the computer and went to the forum.

As the first holographic online game, the forum is also very lively. There are very few spam posts, and most of them are practical information about the game. In addition to popular science posts about various professions, there are also mission illustrations for new maps, etc.

There is no map system in this game, but the roads are very obvious. As long as you follow the road under your feet and the direction of the task prompts, you don't have to worry about getting lost if you are just doing tasks. However, there are also many casual players in the holographic online game, and many of them need a large map of the entire world for travel ... Before the official map of the game came out, people with this knowledge have already started to make simple versions of their own maps, and there are also live broadcast posts on the forum.

Ji Xuan was level 5 when he left the Novice Village. After a day of completing tasks in Xinmu Town, he was level 10 and then level 20. It should be time for the next map.

Ji Xuan opened the post and saw a huge picture of a kneeling person on the main page.

Original poster: I'm so screwed, it turns out that this game only provides protection for novices below level 20!

2I

The author of the post: The author of the post is a noob, the kind that can be killed even when doing quests in the Wind Town. After grinding for a long time, I finally reached level 20 yesterday, and I was so happy that I cried. But today, I just reached level 21, and I accidentally died once, and fell back to level 20 ...

3I

Original poster: Wow wow wow ... Why does this game have penalties for losing levels? My level is not high enough, so I can't even complete the missions on this map. How can I continue to level up ...

4I

The Great Hero: Wow, you just found out about this today. I died yesterday ...

5I

Leave it to me: Stay calm, you are not alone. If you don't have any quests, you can join a team to kill monsters and level up, or you can leave the map you are in and go somewhere else where there should be quests you can do at level 20.

6I

The author of the post: ... There are indeed monsters on my map that can give experience, but I'm a warlock and I can neither fight nor heal, and people won't team up with me. It seems I can only go somewhere else to do the quest. There is no map, and no quest guide. I have to look for another town in this vast world ... I burst into tears!

7I

Heroes of the World: Warlock, this is too tragic ...

8I

The author of the post: Now that I think about it, the profession explanation and skill names of the warlock are really ironic. The resentment of a lone traveler, I really have to wander alone in an unknown world. Everyone, I don't know if I will have found the way when this game is shut down ... Goodbye!

9I

Hero of the World: Farewell, OP!

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

It is expected that the holographic game will have a death penalty. After all, if there is no penalty at all, many people will fight all day long for trivial matters and vent their grievances in real life. However, all the faces of people in this game are the same as in real life, and the sense of substitution is so strong. If a grudge is brought out, it will be easy to get into trouble if they are recognized in real life. The death penalty will more or less restrict this behavior.

But considering the characteristics of this game, this punishment seems too severe, because it is really difficult to upgrade. It takes a whole day to complete tasks to upgrade to level 5 in the novice map. Later, it may take a week to drop a level, not to mention the unpopular profession like warlock. If you drop a level, you have to run around looking for tasks. It's too miserable ... Fortunately, his temper has improved now (?), and he doesn't kill people easily. As long as you don't get discovered by the enemy before finding the bound output, you should be able to play smoothly.

[Tree Hole] Mom! I think I met my man, Mu Xuanyi! He is in Xinmu Town!

Ji Xuanyi: " Poof!!! "

Chapter 4

Ji Xuanyi was almost choked to death by this stroke of genius.

I hurriedly clicked on the post and saw that the poster was cheering in the main post, reminiscing about how he knew Mu Xuanyi, and boasting about how awesome Mu Xuanyi was, like a newbie fan who had just entered the online game .

However, just when he was about to analyze why he felt that the person he met was Mu Xuanyi, several people popped up and spammed the thread, manually closing the post and asking the original poster to chat with them privately. After that, no one responded to this post.

Could it be that an enemy has come to visit? And he even chatted privately with the unknown poster in order to get his current name and coordinates?

Ji Xuanyi was overthinking it. His enemies would love to have more people come and kill him together. If they saw this post, they would not block it but push it to the top to attract more people's attention.

Fortunately, his enemies are now struggling on the front lines of upgrading and have no time to waste on the forum. The one who manually blocked the post was his fan, so in order not to reveal his coordinates and ID , the poster was taken to have a heart-to-heart talk.

But Ji Xuanyi didn't know this. In his opinion, the most important thing now was to find a bound output. However, even if he wanted to find a bound one, he had to upgrade his level first. He was too far away from the main force , so he would not be able to meet any masters, let alone ordinary and powerful people.

Thinking of this, Ji Xuan finished his breakfast and hurriedly climbed into the game cabin.

As soon as I logged into the game, a friend request popped up, but again, it was empty-handed.

Ji Xuanyi was sure that even if he had to fight his enemy alone with a staff, he did not want such a binding, so he rejected him very straightforwardly.

He came online at the place where he handed in the snake gallbladder mission yesterday, but Miaoshoukongkong had disappeared.

This is a medicinal field, with strange-shaped blue and purple herbs growing on the ground. Many vines extend out of the field and block the road, which looks a bit scary. But the person who lives here and issues tasks to them is a middle-aged woman who looks kind. She is the town's pharmacist, Mrs. Harman.

He was walking around aimlessly in the medicinal field. When he saw Ji Xuanyi, he walked towards him happily and said to him, " Thank you for helping me find the snake gall, adventurer. I need your help with something else. "

This should be the follow-up to yesterday's mission. Due to Miaoshoukongkong's entanglement, he logged off without hearing the follow-up.

Ji Xuan nodded, took out the parchment, and said, " What's the matter? "

Madam Harman took out a tube of green potion from her bosom, handed it to Ji Xuanyi, and said, " I still have potion boiling in my crucible. I can't leave. Please give this healing potion to the town guards. They are in the small square of the town. "

When completing tasks before, Ji Xuanyi had passed by the small square more than once. Even without task instructions, he could walk there. He remembered that there were indeed quite a few people wearing armor there.

Ji Xuan put away the medicine and said to Madam Harman, " I will give it to them, don't worry. "

Madam Harman smiled, handed Ji Xuan a silver coin, and said to him: " The guards have worked very hard, I will pay for the escape. "

Ji Xuan paused for a moment before accepting the silver coin.

When this quest first appeared, it sparked a heated discussion in the forum. Almost all novice towns have similar quests, and the reward is one silver coin.

Before this, the coins that players came into contact with were copper coins, and they were very scarce. Only a few tasks would pay players with copper coins. Moreover, considering the prices in the game, these copper coins could not buy anything from vendors, and many people complained about this.

Until this task appeared, one silver coin was equivalent to one hundred copper coins. Many people were shocked and thought they had triggered some extraordinary plot. However, nothing happened afterwards, and there was no task to obtain silver coins before level 20. Everyone just thought that this was a rare time when the official was generous and gave the players some small benefits.

Not to mention what will happen in the future, but until now, few players dare to spend money casually in the game. "Domain" is a point card game. Real-world currency can only buy game time, not game coins. No one knows the value of game coins. Most players who buy and sell game coins to obtain real-world currency in the later stages of the game dare not set prices at will. So at this stage, no matter how rich a person is, he has to level up with everyone else and suffer a lot.

At least we have to wait until the first copy appears and game equipment needs gold coins to be traded. Only then will the power of the rich be revealed in the game.

Ji Xuan put the silver coins into his backpack, made sure it was not a quest item, and then walked towards the small square.

Many people in Xinmu Town have issued tasks to Ji Xuanyi. In the game, Ji Xuanyi has helped many people in this town. On his way to the small square, almost every Xinmu resident he met greeted him with a smile.

A good mood is easily contagious. Even Ji Xuanyi, as he responded along the way, the expression on his face gradually relaxed.

However, as soon as they arrived at the small square, Ji Xuanyi's sour face appeared again. In addition to the guards guarding the small square, there was another man wearing light swordsman armor who was talking to someone.

This time, Ji Xuanyi did not doubt whether the other party was a player or not, because he recognized that face.

The man's name is Qi Qin.

Ji Xuanyi has had a bad temper since he was a child, and no one knows whether he inherited it from his father or his mother. Fortunately, although he has a bad temper, he has received a very good education and has his own principles. He is not the kind of person who would easily fight with others in real life.

But Qi Qin was the first person Ji Xuanyi beat up in real life.

Strictly speaking, Qi Qin was his senior. He was a famous tall, rich and handsome guy in school when he was in high school. Although Ji Xuanyi didn't see what was so handsome about him, it was true that he came from a rich family and was tall, and there was always a group of men and women following him.

Such unlearned people usually can't do anything good, and Qi Qin is the same. He acts arrogantly in school all day long, and the teachers and the principal can't control him. Ji Xuanyi has no interest in the other party's behavior of taking a group of students to strange places all day long because he has too much money to burn, but unfortunately, Qi Qin happened to offend him.

Qi Qin tore up his homework book and took the opportunity to beat up the class monitor who was in charge of the homework books and had explained the questions to Ji Xuanyi.

Although judging from the essence of this incident, it should be that Qi Qin led people to beat up the class monitor of Ji Xuanyi's class and tore up the homework of everyone in the class that he was keeping, but for Ji Xuanyi, it made no difference, either way, it was a provocation to him.

So the furious Ji Xuanyi took Qi Qin to the grove at school, broke his legs and spared two of his back teeth.

From then on, Qi Qin would avoid Ji Xuanyi whenever he saw him, and he didn't dare to attack anyone around Ji Xuanyi anymore.

Qi Qin is two years older than Ji Xuan. The two haven't met since Qi Qin graduated from high school. However, the ostentatious personality displayed by Qi Qin during that year made Ji Xuan think that the other party was a stupid second-generation rich kid, and this impression has remained until now.

So when he saw Qi Qin, Ji Xuanyi's first reaction was to classify the other party as an enemy. Still a rookie enemy.

Ji Xuanyi didn't know whether Qi Qin played games or not, but he knew that Qi Qin was not good at fighting. When he was in the first year of high school, he was only as tall as Qi Qin's chin, but he managed to overcome the one-head size difference and beat the other party so hard that he cried for his parents.

In holographic games, equipment and skills are certainly important, but what determines whether you can become a master is your combat awareness and reaction speed.

Ji Xuanyi felt that although he had changed from a sharp output to a half-baked auxiliary, it was still very easy to beat someone like Qi Qin, so he didn't even think about it and directly used the skill "The Lone Wanderer's Grudge" on Qi Qin.

Qi Qin turned sideways to face Ji Xuanyi, and had no expectation that someone would suddenly attack him, so he was hit hard.

The skills in the game have different effects on ordinary monsters, players, and boss monsters. Ordinary monsters have no resistance to player skills and can be fully affected by a skill, while boss monsters, due to different settings, are immune to some skills or resist some skills.

It is more troublesome for players. When players attack each other, the skill effects will be different due to the players' own professional attributes and equipment.

Qi Qin's swordsman profession has low resistance to magic, but his light armor itself has a certain defensive power. Ji Xuanyi is holding a gray-quality staff, and when the skill hits him, it only affects his right hand, but this is the effect that Ji Xuanyi originally intended to achieve. As expected, Qi Qin's right hand was paralyzed, and the sword he was holding fell out of his hand. Ji Xuan saw the opportunity and rushed directly to Qi Qin, swung the wooden staff with bronze armor on it at Qi Qin's face.

However, Ji Xuanyi failed to actually attack Qi Qin. When his staff was only a palm's distance away from the opponent's face, he felt a white flash before his eyes. When he regained his vision, he was already lying at the resurrection point.

Ji Xuanyi didn't react to what had just happened until the person at the resurrection point asked him if he was okay and handed him a bowl of water.

The one at the resurrection point was not particularly smart. As soon as Ji Xuanyi sat there without moving, he kept the posture of handing water.

It took Ji Xuanyi a long while to come back to his senses. He realized with a grim expression that this was the second time he was killed and sent back to the resurrection point after playing this game for so many years.

Regardless of who did it the first time, being killed and sent back to the resurrection point was too unfamiliar to Ji Xuanyi, so unfamiliar that he didn't know how to deal with it for a moment. According to his original personality, he would have been ready to fight back with a knife in hand, but he didn't know if his actions were really affected by his profession, but his first reaction was to think about what was wrong with Qi Qin.

Something is so wrong.

From Qi Qin's body of just a body without flesh, it can be seen that he was not sent to some strange training camp by his family in the past three years. However, Qi Qin's reaction speed in changing hands to pick up the sword after the greatsword fell from his hand, and his decisive counterattack against the person who attacked him, did not seem like something that the former idiot could do.

Ji Xuanyi took the bowl in his hand, drank the water in it, and his health bar quickly filled up. He stood up and decided to go and see what was going on with Qi Qin.

When Ji Xuanyi returned to the small square again, Qi Qin had disappeared, and only the town guards were left there.

Ji Xuanyi looked around and didn't see anyone wearing light armor. He subconsciously walked over to the person Qi Qin had just talked to and asked, " What did that person say to you just now? "

Of course, they will not answer such questions. When faced with players' conversations, they only have one answer: " Hello, how can I help you? "

Ji Xuanyi slapped his forehead, thinking that he was really stupid for asking such a question. Calm down, calm down ...

Ji Xuan took a deep breath and turned around, only to find that Qi Qin, whom he had just been looking for, was walking towards the small square from another path.

Ji Xuanyi saw Qi Qin, and Qi Qin of course also saw Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuan subconsciously took a defensive posture, but he didn't expect that Qi Qin was relieved after seeing him.

What kind of reaction is this?

While Ji Xuan was stunned, Qi Qin had already walked up to him.

Contrary to what Ji Xuanyi had imagined, Qi Qin gave him an apologetic look and said, " Sorry, I didn't mean it just now. Are you okay? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Now Ji Xuanyi could be sure that the person in front of him was definitely not Qi Qin.

Three years, not three hundred years. In such a short period of time, it is impossible for Qi Qin, the arrogant and domineering second-generation rich man, to have such a big change!

Ji Xuanyi's eyes twitched and he said, " Are you Qi Qin's twin brother? "

The other party was stunned and said, " I am Qi Qin. "

 " Impossible! " Ji Xuan shouted subconsciously.

Seeing the other party's confused expression, Ji Xuanyi restrained himself a little, coughed lightly, and said: " If you were Qi Qin, there is no way you don't recognize me. "

His legs were broken and his two back teeth were spared. With Qi Qin's personality, he would remember Ji Xuanyi for at least five hundred years. However, the other party's attitude clearly showed that he didn't know him.

Qi Qin was stunned and said, " I really don't know you, but I am indeed Qi Qin. However, I have a few questions that I hope you can tell me. "

Although the other party insisted that he was Qi Qin, Ji Xuanyi was sure that he was not the same person he knew, so his attitude became slightly better and he said, " Ask. "

Qi Qin looked as if he had been granted amnesty, and asked hurriedly: " Where is this? "

Such a question? Ji Xuanyi answered absentmindedly: " Xinmu Town. "

 " Xinmu Town? How far is it from Huashan ? "

 " Oh, if it's Huashan – wait, Huashan? " Ji Xuanyi looked at him in confusion.

Qi Qin nodded, bowed to Ji Xuan and said, " I am following my master's will to go to Huashan ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Noticing that Ji Xuanyi's expression was not right, Qi Qin hesitated and did not finish his words, and asked: " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi said indifferently: " Are you kidding me? "

 " Ah? " Qi Qin looked at him in confusion.

Ji Xuan was shocked and was about to tell this guy who was talking nonsense to get out, but suddenly he frowned and remembered all the things that were wrong with Qi Qin.

A rather funny thought popped into his mind.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and reached out to grab Qi Qin's arm. Qi Qin subconsciously dodged. Ji Xuanyi made an impatient " tsk " sound and said, " Don't hide! "

Qi Qin paused, and somehow, he actually stopped moving.

Ji Xuanyi grabbed his arm and found that he was still wearing gloves and couldn't take them off, so he asked directly: " Do you have a mole on the palm of your hand? "

That was what he saw when he pinned the original Qi Qin to the ground and beat him. If his guess was correct, this Qi Qin should be different. Unexpectedly, the Qi Qin in front of him was stunned for a moment and actually nodded.

Ji Xuanyi blinked in confusion and muttered, " No, no ... Wait, are you sure this is your body? "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, and then his face changed. He didn't know what he was thinking of. He suddenly struggled to break free from Ji Xuanyi's hand and hurriedly took off the messy armor, revealing his pale and thin wrist. Then he stood there with his eyes wide open. Seeing that the other party did not respond for a long time, Ji Xuanyi frowned and patted him: " Hello? "

Qi Qin finally came back to his senses, looking at Ji Xuanyi with a sullen face, and said with a slight tremor in his voice: " I'm not that thin, this is not my body ... What's going on? Where exactly is this? What's wrong with me? "

Ji Xuan's eyes twitched, and he didn't know how to answer. He saw that Qi Qin was mentally unstable and his figure began to become illusory. Most likely, the security equipment detected that his emotions were fluctuating greatly, and he was forcibly cut off from the game.

Judging from Qi Qin's appearance, if he was really the same as he imagined and had never been to the real world and was now forcibly ejected, he would most likely be sent to a mental hospital.

Ji Xuanyi grabbed Qi Qin's hand, held his shoulders stiffly, and said to him: " Hey ! Calm down, calm down. Come, learn to take deep breaths with me. Inhale – inhale – inhale – inhale – " Qi Qin was completely stiff. He wanted to get rid of everything and escape from here, but he knew that this would not solve any problems. Only Ji Xuanyi could help him.

Qi Qin, like a drowning man, subconsciously grabbed Ji Xuanyi beside him and breathed in rhythm with his breathing. After a while, he actually calmed down slowly.

Ji Xuanyi stared at Qi Qin intently until the other party's figure was no longer illusory like a projection, then he breathed a sigh of relief. He then realized that the other party was nervous and hugged his waist tightly.

Ji Xuanyi felt a little awkward, but thinking about what the other person had just experienced, he didn't care much and asked calmly: " Have you calmed down? "

Qi Qin was suddenly shocked and it took him a long time to nod.

Qi Qin's behavior didn't seem like an act. Moreover, even a great actor wouldn't be able to cause such a strong reaction in the security system of the game. Although it was unbelievable, Ji Xuanyi still confirmed his guess and asked directly: " How did you get here? What did you do before you came here? "

Qi Qin held Ji Xuanyi tightly, not even remembering to let go, and tried to recall: " I, I didn't do anything. I just remember that there was an earthquake when I was climbing up the mountain, so I had to spend the night in an abandoned thatched hut. I slept for a while, and when I opened my eyes, I was standing here. "

Ji Xuanyi: "... slept for a while? "

If Qi Qin did nothing in his original world, could it be the fault of the game warehouse? However, the game "Domain" has been launched overseas for more than half a year, and it seems that no similar news has been heard.

But now, besides the question of whether the game companies are going to be in big trouble, there is another problem.

Is the original Qi Qin still alive? Did the original Qi Qin die and lead this Qi Qin to come here, or were the two of them swapped?

A life might be involved, so Ji Xuanyi's first reaction was to call the police first. However, in this kind of situation, calling the police didn't seem to solve the problem.

When Ji Xuan looked up, he found that Qi Qin was looking at him with a pale face, and there was a faint light of tears in his dark eyes.

Qi Qin's face was actually okay, but it looked a little weird with that expression. When Ji Xuan thought about it, he felt like something was stirring in his heart.

But soon, he came to his senses again, thought for a while, and said to Qi Qin: " I roughly know what happened. Please wait here for me. I will think of a solution and come back soon. "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, and before he could say anything, Ji Xuanyi disappeared before his eyes.

Ji Xuan logged off, made a phone call, and half an hour later, he crawled back to the game cabin.

After going online, Qi Qin was still waiting for him there, but it seemed that he had almost digested it. Ji Xuanyi didn't worry much anymore and walked forward and said directly: " This is another world, you should be able to feel it, right? "

Qi Qin paused and nodded.

He had indeed had a feeling a long time ago, whether it was the local residents who could only talk in the same old way, or the fact that Ji Xuanyi reappeared safe and sound after being slashed by his sword, or the other party's sudden disappearance just now, all told him clearly that this was not the foreign country he had initially thought, but another world.

" But I have another piece of news to tell you. This is not the real world, but the game world. The situation in the real world is probably even more difficult for you to accept than here. "

Hearing this, Qi Qin looked up at Ji Xuanyi, forced a smile, and said, " I'm sorry, I made you laugh just now, but I'm ready now, and I won't be as embarrassed as before. "

Ji Xuan looked at him for a while and found that although their faces looked the same, he had a good feeling about this Qi Qin.

Qi Qin sat on the steps at the edge of the small square, with a half-man-high sword resting on his knees. Ji Xuanyi also sat down a little further away from him and said, " I guess you came here because of this game, so I tried to send a message to the game company. If it is really their fault, they will try to send you back, but they may not succeed. Can you understand this? " Qi Qin's eyes moved slightly, and after a long while, he nodded gently.

Ji Xuanyi continued, " Once the results come out, we will know whether you can go back, whether he will come back, and what to do next. "

Qi Qin thought for a moment and said, " I have no ties. The sword fight is just a mission for me. I can go anytime. I can wait, but you said there is a real world. Then what about the family of this person with the same name as me? "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment. He had lived alone for a long time and had never thought of this. After a long while, he frowned and said, " I remember that there seemed to be only his parents at home? "

Qi Qin didn't say anything. Ji Xuan thought for a moment and then said, " This matter has nothing to do with me. How you tell his parents is your own business. "

" If you want to tell them the truth, then tell them. If you want to keep it a secret because you're worried about getting in trouble ..."

Having said that, Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin and found that the other party had a conflicted look on his face and his brows were twisted into a knot.

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but raise his eyebrows and said, " If you want to hide it, just say that you were beaten by the Ji guy again. You don't want to deal with him and be a little rude. His parents have spoiled him since he was a child and won't ask any questions. "

Qi Qin responded hesitantly , then realized belatedly and asked, " Again? "

Ji Xuanyi: " Well ... this is not important. You must be very anxious now, right ? I used to have a psychologist. He was very annoying, but the method he used was not bad. I will talk to you before I go offline. You can calm down. "

In fact, Qi Qin is a man of the world. Although the situation is a little beyond his understanding, his ability to adapt is still good. During the time when Ji Xuanyi came online, his emotions had been adjusted almost completely, and he was more or less mentally prepared for what he would face next. However, in the face of Ji Xuanyi's kindness, he still cooperated with Ji Xuanyi and started chatting with him.

However, Ji Xuanyi is rarely so considerate to others, and he even uses the methods of a psychologist. No one knows what he is thinking.

Chapter 6

The two Qi Qins can be said to have completely opposite personalities.

This was Ji Xuanyi's heartfelt feeling after he knew what Qi Qin had done since he came to this world.

When Qi Qin opened his eyes, he found himself in a completely unfamiliar place. His first reaction was to ask someone for directions, but there were very few players here. The person he asked was someone who kindly asked him to help run errands. He agreed in a daze. But when he finished running errands, when he asked again, another person asked him for help. He kept helping until the quest chain was interrupted. He stopped at a small square and then met Ji Xuanyi.

He's totally a lawful good guy.

In contrast, when Qi Qin asked Ji Xuanyi in return, Ji Xuanyi was too embarrassed to speak and only vaguely said that he was still a student.

Ji Xuanyi originally wanted Qi Qin's real-life contact information so that he could find out more about the situation, but Qi Qin didn't know that, so Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to say, " Then add me as a friend in the game first. When you get to the real world, find a chance to learn about mobile phones and computers, and then come back to the game to find me. "

Qi Qin nodded.

Qi Qin didn't know the name of his game, so Ji Xuan had to direct him to add him as a friend. When the dialog box popped up, he almost choked.

Qi Qin's ID is Number One in the World.

However, considering the arrogance of the original Qi Qin, this name was already very good. Ji Xuanyi thought about Qi Qin in high school and felt that the other party would probably name himself Invincible in the Universe .

It seems that after three years, the other party has restrained himself ...

Ji Xuanyi chatted with Qi Qin for a while and then told him to log off.

Qi Qin looked a little nervous, and he silently repeated the method of entering the game several times, then looked up and said to Ji Xuan: " You will wait for me here, right? "

Ji Xuan looked at him for a while and nodded: " Yes. "

Qi Qin smiled with relief: " Thank you. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything, and Qi Qin went offline.

In fact, this matter had nothing to do with Ji Xuanyi, but he got involved in it out of impulse and tried his best to sort things out.

Ji Xuanyi was in a daze in the small square for a while before he remembered that he had not completed his task yet. Putting Qi Qin's matter aside, the situation he was facing was also very serious!

Ji Xuanyi stood up and handed Mrs. Harman's potion to the captain of the guard in the small square. The captain thanked him and expressed his hope that he could go to another place to run errands.

This is back to the normal quest chain.

Just like what people on the forum said, Mrs. Harman's one silver coin seemed to be just a small benefit given by the government.

Ji Xuanyi didn't think much about it and prepared to walk in the direction indicated by the mission pointer.

However, he had just left the small square when he received a message.

Private chat: [A Little Flower] : Xiaoji! What are you doing?

Ji Xuanyi paused for a moment.

He was not used to this kind of greetings in the game. After all, he had more enemies than friends. Most of the time, people chatted with him in private just to curse him. Later, those who cursed him were killed so many times that they dared not speak anymore, and his chat channel became empty.

This game has more restrictions. Apart from the world channel and map channel, long-distance text chat is only possible if you are friends with each other.

Ji Xuanyi took a moment to react before replying, " Mission. "

A little flower replied immediately: " I have a monster spawning point over here, do you want to come? "

Ji Xuan took a look at the level of a small flower. He was only halfway through level ten, while the small flower was already sixteen.

[Ji Xuanyi] : Has this level not left Xinmu Town yet?

[A Little Flower] : Ah? I have received the mission to leave, but won't there be a penalty for losing level after that? I plan to kill monsters here to raise my level before leaving.

This is also a way to upgrade, especially in games where upgrading is very difficult. You can first gain extra experience outside the quest chain to increase your level. Then when you do the quest next time, it will be easy because your level is higher than the quest requirement. Even less experienced players can rely on the level difference to complete more difficult quests smoothly.

There are not many people who would do this in other games, because compared to the experience gained from quests, the experience dropped by most monsters is not worth mentioning at all. Even if you find an elite monster with rich experience, the monotonous monster-killing action is too boring.

But in "Domain", the death penalty after level 20 is too severe. Rather than losing a level if you die accidentally, it is better to seize the opportunity, get as much experience as possible, level up first and then do the mission.

Ji Xuanyi, who understood this, was indeed a little moved.

But you need to team up to kill monsters, and in most cases, several people work together to kill monsters. Because of the notoriety of " Mu Xuanyi " , not many people would choose a similar ID , so Xiaohua had treated him as a fellow traveler in the beginning. Now that he is in the limelight, if he teams up with others again, isn't he worried that his identity will not be exposed quickly enough?

After weighing the pros and cons, Ji Xuan replied: " Forget it, you guys go ahead and I won't go. "

[A Little Flower] : Come on, Xiaoji, come on! We are all family!

[Ji Xuanyi] : ...

[一朵小花] : _(:зゝ∠)_ Well, we are short of manpower ...

[Ji Xuanyi] : No, I won't go.

[A Little Flower] : Come on, Xiaoji, come and feel the warmth of our Xuanyi Fan Club!

Everyone is very friendly and will not despise you for being a warlock!

Fan club? Ji Xuan paused and asked, Did you " tell them my ID ? "

[A Little Flower] : Yes, everyone wants to recruit you into the organization! Come on!

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

For some reason, he always felt that the place where Xiaohua was talking about was actually where ten thousand of his enemies were lying in ambush, waiting for him to arrive.

Before Ji Xuanyi could respond, a little flower had already sent over the application to form a team.

Ji Xuanyi hesitated for a moment, but finally clicked OK.

The team interface appeared on Ji Xuanyi's right hand side. There were already eight people in the team. Except for Miaoshoukongkong and a little flower, there were no familiar IDs .

This is something that needs to be paid attention to.

In the game, the account number can be changed frequently, but the name is different. A fixed name makes it easier for others to remember you. Most of Ji Xuanyi's enemies are the kind of people who are afraid that they will not be famous. In a game like "Domain", it is even more impossible to abandon an ID that they have managed for a long time, and the possibility of changing the name is very small.

However, the mere fact that he had no skills made Ji Xuanyi hesitate.

He didn't want to be flattered by others anymore, and the most important thing was that he couldn't just fight back, which was too frustrating.

Ji Xuanyi hesitated for a while, but decided to go and see the monster spawning point. People like Miaoshoukongkong could be ignored.

He opened his parchment. In addition to the yellow arrow guiding the task, there were eight blue arrows pointing in the same direction. The blue arrows were a whole circle smaller than the yellow arrows.

That is the arrow guiding the teammates. The smaller the arrow, the farther the distance .

But the distance is not too far . It takes about ten minutes to walk from Xinmu Town.

Ji Xuanyi took the parchment and went out of the town, only to find that the location of the little flower was actually in the deep mountains not far from the town, and there was no road on the mountain.

It looks like it will take more than ten minutes to walk.

Ji Xuan walked into the mountain step by step, and it took him half an hour to find a small flower. The trees on the mountain are tall and dense, and even the shorter plants are up to a person's chest. Only a small part of the mountain is relatively open, and it is difficult to see the surrounding situation from most angles.

When the arrows that were originally gathered together on the parchment became scattered, Ji Xuanyi pushed aside a plant and found a small open space. A small flower and the others squeezed into this open space to swat monsters.

Just as Ji Xuanyi approached here, before he saw Xiaohua and the others, he had already gained experience points dropped by monsters. He glanced at it quickly. This experience point was already high for this level. Most likely, someone had the bad luck to encounter a group of elite monsters hiding in the mountains.

This kind of monster gives a lot of experience, but also has high attack power and refreshes very quickly. If your level is just right, it will be very difficult to refresh it, and it requires several people to work together to improve efficiency.

Ji Xuan took a look and found that among the eight people, only Xiaohua was a healer. She was standing in the middle of the open space, waving her staff in a panic and throwing holy light balls at the people fighting monsters.

It seems that in all games with priests, the first skill is Holy Orb ...

Ji Xuanyi's first skill which can only paralyze the enemy, a little flower's Holy Light Ball can affect both the enemy and teammates. One causes minor damage, and the other causes a large amount of healing. Moreover, the cooling time is very short, so even if the operation seems terrible to Ji Xuanyi, he can still barely heal seven people.

Maybe the game company anticipated that there would be fewer people playing support roles, so they favored the priest in the settings, hoping that more people would experience this profession.

But in comparison, the situation of the offensive auxiliary warlock seems more like that of a stepmother.

Ji Xuanyi has a bad temper, but he is surprisingly tolerant of problems in this setting. Perhaps it is because he is absolutely confident in his own abilities, so he rarely complains about the strengths and weaknesses of his profession.

It's like he played a warlock and found out he didn't have a basic attack, so he just muttered a few words while killing monsters, and then made a melee staff for himself ...

When Ji Xuan appeared, a little flower, who was forced to keep an eye on all directions and listen carefully, immediately spotted him and shouted happily: "Little Ji is here!"

As soon as she lost her concentration, the skill rhythm that she could barely maintain was immediately disrupted. Those who had some experience began to move to avoid the attacks of the monsters, leaving only a familiar figure standing still and fighting with the monsters.

The food is so bad that it's unbearable to look at.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Five servers were opened during the public beta of "Domain", and they were almost fully occupied as soon as they were opened. The channels for creating accounts were closed one after another, and the server where Ji Xuanyi was located was also sterilized on the third day after the opening. They can be said to be the lowest level group on this server.

It's normal to meet acquaintances when a group of people get together to kill monsters.

Ji Xuan raised his hand and used a skill to accurately block the elite monster's attack. A small flower also reacted and began to recover blood frantically.

Miaoshoukongkong waited until his blood was raised before he began to imitate others' clumsy movements.

Ji Xuanyi noticed just now that Miaoshou Kongkong was the person who required the most treatment. For every three holy light balls thrown by Xiaohua, one would fall on Miaoshou Kongkong. Moreover, Miaoshou Kongkong's level was not much different from his, about level 11 or 12, so it was very difficult for him to kill monsters.

Ji Xuanyi walked over to a small flower and asked curiously, "Why did you bring this person with you to kill monsters?"

A little flower said righteously: "Because the code of conduct of the Mu Xuanyi Supporters Association is to help the weak and fight against the strong!"

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

He has indeed seen the ability to help the weak, but he probably lacks the ability to suppress the strong.

Chapter 7

Miaoshou Kongkong also noticed Ji Xuanyi coming. While fighting monsters, he kept stealing glances at him, looking as if he wanted to say something but hesitated.

Ji Xuanyi ignored him.

A little flower said with a smile: " Hey, actually this spawning point was found by Miaoshoukongkong when he was lost. He told us, so we came here. "

" Do you know each other? "

" Of course! " A little flower said with a smile, " Miaoshoukongkong is also a member of our fan club! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Damn, when I think about it this way, could it be that the person who posted on the forum is just a nobody? !

It's fucked up too.

Ji Xuanyi was in mixed feelings .

someone now ? Why does he always team up with this little white guy when he meets him?

Before Ji Xuanyi could say anything, a little flower burst into laughter and said, " You know what! After that little white guy Miaoshoukongkong met you, he came to us to share information in a noisy manner, thinking that you were Mu Xuanyi himself, hahahahahaha! "

Ji Xuanyi's mouth twitched, and he couldn't laugh.

A little flower laughed for a long time and said, " He doesn't even know how many people in the game have similar names. He just grabs one person and thinks he is Mu Xuanyi. How is that possible ..."

When Ji Xuan looked up at Miao Shou Kong Kong, he found that the other person's face had flushed red and he was too embarrassed to look up.

He probably didn't realize that he had already been on Ji Xuanyi's list of enemies.

Anyway, it's good as long as it's not exposed.

Ji Xuan took a look at the monster-killing team. Among the eight people, seven were girls and only Miaoshoukongkong was a boy.

Xiao Hua saw Ji Xuanyi's expression and said, " There are still mostly girls in the fan club, but if you join us, you will also have Miao Shou Kong Kong as your companion, there won't be only one boy! "

Ji Xuanyi said indifferently: " No, thank you. "

A little flower wanted to say something, but the archer girl, who was able to escape from the monsters more easily and had time to talk, said: " Xiaohua, if they don't want to join, then forget it. It's hard to force them to do this! But Xiaoji, don't just stand there and gain experience points. Help us! "

Xiaohua shut up. Ji Xuanyi wanted to help, but after taking a look at the messy and irregular monster-killing rhythm, he hesitated and didn't know where to start. After analyzing for a long time, he found that if Xiaohua and the other seven people didn't change their monster-killing methods, he would also be dragged into this strenuous rhythm and be as exhausted as Xiaohua. Ji Xuanyi made an impatient " tsk " sound, looked at the people standing in a circle with their backs to Xiaohua and said, " Can you guys change your positions? Is it difficult to gather in one direction? This is not a keyboard online game. You will get dizzy if you change perspectives too frequently. "

Ji Xuanyi's tone was not very good. Except for Miao Shou Kongkong who moved away after hearing what he said, several people didn't want to pay attention to him.

Xiaohua, who felt like she was spinning like a top, couldn't wait to speak up after hearing this: " Yes, yes, everyone, change positions. I'm about to vomit from spinning around so much ..." The girls looked at each other, and then some of them started to move, but one swordsman said, " If I go to the front of Xiaohua, I won't be able to reach the monster's spawn point. "

 " If you can't reach it, can't you just run a few steps? " Ji Xuanyi said.

The swordsman was unhappy and said, " It doesn't take any time to run a few steps? Of course, the faster you kill monsters, the better. Wasting time is just wasting experience! "

Ji Xuanyi curled his lips: " You also know that you are wasting experience? "

 " The healer in the team needs to constantly look for the person with the lowest health bar among you who are scattered around to heal him. Because of the frequent changes in perspective, sometimes even the skills are not cast correctly, causing someone's health to collapse. When the health line cannot be stabilized , you need to move around to avoid the monster's attack. Let me ask you, is moving around a waste of time? "

The swordsman choked.

Ji Xuanyi didn't look at her and said, " When a level 12 rookie like Miaoshou Kongkong kills a monster, it takes him only two seconds longer than you guys who are level 16 or 17 to kill a monster. That's because he doesn't move around and spends all his time fighting the monster. "

 " You are a swordsman, and you have built-in defense because of your job setting. It takes thirteen seconds to kill a monster, and five seconds of that time is spent avoiding damage. Taking two more steps is two seconds, and avoiding damage is five seconds. Don't you know which one wastes more time? "

The girl blushed, and after a long while she said unconvincingly: " Then what do you say? I'll just do as you say! "

Ji Xuan remained calm and said, " Okay. "

Swordsman: "..."

You are so rude!

But the words had already been said, and the girl was too shy to go back on her word. After dealing with the monsters in her hands, she immediately left the battle, ran to a small flower, and waited angrily for Ji Xuanyi's arrangements.

While the other people were finishing their battles, Ji Xuan looked up and observed them, and he had a rough idea of the level of this group of people.

When the last assassin finished dealing with the monster in his hand and came to gather, Xiaohua, who was finally freed, sat down on the ground, threw aside the staff in his hand, and shouted: " I can finally rest! I am so tired! "

" Oh my god! " A female mage hurriedly picked up her staff and put it back in her hand, cursing, " Weapons are thrown everywhere, aren't you afraid that they will be wiped out? You are so careless! "

A little flower was holding a staff and grinning foolishly.

However, Yiduo Xiaohua's shout also made everyone realize the other party's difficulties, and they were not so averse to Ji Xuanyi's arrangement.

The game officials should also be aware of the difficulty of upgrading, so they specially set up monster spawning points. However, it is not good to display them so obviously, as it seems to encourage players not to do quests. Therefore, they set the monster spawning points in remote places, and whether they can be found is purely up to chance.

Foreign news about this game is not like the later settings of Warlock, which can be revealed to China. No one knows that there will be such a thing as a penalty for leveling down. Most players only focus on the tasks when leveling up in the novice town, and ignore the monster spawning points in this mountain.

But it is still thanks to the good luck of Miaoshoukongkong. Maybe this is the legendary aura of a novice. The luck of this newbie will always be better than that of the old players.

Ji Xuanyi took his gray-quality staff, drew a few circles on the ground, and then called out the names in order of their professions, asking several girls and Miao Shou Kong Kong to stand in line.

The seven people were arranged in an evenly distributed fan shape. Ji Xuanyi pointed at them with his staff and said, " Mage, archer, go to the one over there that's farther away . You have high damage and there may be a gap before the monsters spawn, so I've reserved two for you over there. "

" Swordsman, assassin, hit the one that's close over there, walk over to lure the monsters, then walk back. Elite monsters react very quickly, so it won't take much time. "

" Little flower, just stand here and feed them one by one in order. "

A little flower blinked and whispered, " What if someone has a hemorrhage? "

" Oh, I forgot to tell you, " Ji Xuan glanced at her and said expressionlessly, " Everyone, don't avoid damage, just stand still and output. "

Everyone looked at him.

Ji Xuanyi calmly said to Xiaohua: " Don't worry about the blood loss, just use your skills in order, and I'll take care of the rest. "

A little flower nodded blankly.

The girls whispered to each other for a while, and another girl who played the swordsman raised her hand and asked: t it be helpful for future'but wouldn ,Moving is a bit of a waste of time " PVP if we practiced moving while killing monsters ? "

Ji Xuan glanced at her and said bluntly, " You think too much. PVP skills cannot be learned by killing monsters. A fixed rhythm will only make it easier for others to see through your routine. Just kill monsters, don't try to do two things at the same time. "

The girl stuck out her tongue and stopped talking.

Ji Xuanyi hadn't given orders to others like this for a long time. He glanced at the girls who were reluctantly willing to obey him, and Miaoshou Kongkong who had been as quiet as a chicken listening to his instructions the entire time, and said, " Start the monsters. "

The mage and archer pulled the monster first, followed by the quick assassin, and the slower swordsman was the last to bring the monster back to the point.

Although what Ji Xuanyi said made sense, theory is one thing and practice is another. Xiaohua did not dare to take it lightly and was concentrating on observing everyone's health bars.

When the monsters were first attacked, the seven people's rhythms were not unified, but Ji Xuan controlled the monsters from time to time and adjusted the rhythm manually. Not long after, a little flower discovered that the seven outputs were basically losing blood in order. She only needed to heal them one by one, and the blood of everyone was stable . It was so easy. Only Miaoshou Kongkong, who is at a lower level, still has a different rhythm from everyone else, but with Ji Xuanyi around, his blood line is still very stable .

This situation lasted for about five minutes, and a small flower discovered that Ji Xuanyi's skill suddenly went astray. Instead of controlling Miaoshoukongkong's target, it attracted a monster in the distance .

A small flower panicked for a moment and was about to remind him, but she found that Ji Xuanyi's expression was very calm.

A little flower was stunned, and saw the little monster running towards him aggressively, and then was beaten by Ji Xuanyi, which did not even affect his ability to help Miaoshou Kongkong control the monster.

A little flower was silent for a moment, and very tactfully included Ji Xuanyi in the output team, and healed them one by one.

Ji Xuanyi's level is lower than Miaoshoukongkong, and he is an auxiliary with an attack power so low that it can be ignored. He kills monsters incredibly slowly, but his blood line is much more stable than others . Almost all of his skills are used on Miaoshoukongkong's targets, but he himself relies entirely on movement to avoid damage. Only a few attacks can hit him, and he is easily healed.

Including a little flower, everyone couldn't help but secretly look at him. They finally realized that this guy, who was like a newbie who had just entered the game, didn't seem to be that new ...

Chapter 8

Because of Ji Xuanyi's joining, almost everyone felt the obvious increase in monster-killing efficiency, but at the same time, the negative effect of the monster-killing action being too simple also came up.

The monotonous movements made the outputs yawn continuously, only one little flower seemed quite energetic.

She could be said to be the most tired person before, constantly changing directions to look for the target, but now she can lie on the ground and use skills like counting sheep, feeling very happy and not feeling tired at all.

"Killing monsters is such a tiring job." Ji Xuanyi said calmly.
This time no one refuted him.
After brushing for four or five hours, the archer girl suddenly said: "Well, I'm hungry, I want to go eat..."
Others followed suit, feeling relieved: "Yes, yes, I'm hungry too."
"I was going to pick up my brother from school."
"I'm going to get off too."
After saying this, everyone, including the little flower who organized the monster spawning at the beginning, looked at Ji Xuanyi at the same time.
Ji Xuanyi was puzzled and said, "Why are you looking at me? If you want to eat, just log off."
The girls then dispersed.
Ji Xuan defeated the last monster in his hand, then put away his staff and prepared to leave.
Without any other output, it was a complete waste of time for him to assist in killing monsters.
He might as well use that energy to do more tasks.
A little flower called him and said with a smile: "Do you want to meet again tomorrow?"
Ji Xuan glanced at her and said, "Sure."
A little flower smiled with curved eyebrows and eyes: "Great, I'll call you tomorrow!"
Ji Xuan nodded.
A small flower fell down after saying this, and then Miaoshoukongkong, who had been silent all day, also came over.
"Um, boss..."
"I don't accept disciples." Ji Xuanyi said bluntly.
"That's not what I meant," Miaoshoukongkong's face was tangled, "I meant, yes, I'm sorry..."
Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment and realized that the other party might be apologizing for the post on the forum.
His face looked a little better: "It's okay."
Miao Shou Kong Kong blinked his eyes: "Well... well, can I ask for a friend status?"
Ji Xuanyi took a look at him and accepted the friend request.
Miao Shou Kong Kong's face flushed, and he said calmly: "Thank you! I... I will never reveal your identity!"
Ji Xuanyi: "... I think you may have misunderstood something."
Miao Shou Kong Kong looked at him seriously and said, "Although Xiao Hua told me about the ID, I still think you are Mu Xuanyi. You are exactly the same as the Mu Xuanyi I imagined!"
Ji Xuanyi looked at him coldly: "Oh, does that include playing a warlock?"
Miaoshoukongkong was stunned.
Would someone like Mu Xuanyi, who has enemies everywhere and no friends at all, play a warlock?
Miaoshoukongkong fell into deep thought.
Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows, ignored Miaoshoukongkong who was standing there in a daze, and went straight down the mountain.

His mission is not yet completed.

After an afternoon of killing monsters, Ji Xuanyi's level finally rose from level 10 to level 13, and he was only one level away from level 14. His efficiency was not much different from that of completing tasks, but he had to walk much less.

Ji Xuanyi quite likes this upgrade method.

He was running errands for people in the town again, and he kept doing it until he encountered a little flower digging grass on the roadside. Seeing that he was almost level 15, he logged off to rest.

Ji Xuanyi had classes the next morning. Although he was addicted to games, he did not fall behind in his studies.

The next day at noon, Ji Xuanyi returned home, and the first thing he did was to open the forum to see if there was any new news.

He originally thought that the discovery of the monster spawning point in Xinmu Town would be posted on the forum soon, but he didn't expect that not only the monster spawning point, but even the post that Miaoshoukongkong posted last time that exposed his identity had disappeared without a trace.

It may also be that the news about novice towns like Xinmu is outdated in the forum. The front page is the same as usual, with posts complaining about death penalties. He also saw the travel live broadcast post of the warlock who dropped from level 21 to level 20 last time ...

Before playing the game, Ji Xuanyi received a call about Qi Qin. The game company had some clues, but it was not good news.

When Ji Xuanyi came online, the name of Tianxiadiyi in the friend list was still dark. He looked at the offline time and it seemed that he had not been online since Qi Qin left last time.

I don't know what he encountered in real life.

But that was someone else's business after all. Although Ji Xuanyi was a little concerned about the other person for some reason, he would not travel thousands of miles to look for someone in real life.

As Ji Xuanyi was thinking, a small flower and Miaoshoukongkong's secret chat popped up at the same time.

[A Little Flower] : Xiaoji! Come and kill the monsters!

[Miaoshoukongkong] : Great! Do you want to spawn monsters?

Ji Xuanyi didn't waste any time and directly clicked to form a team.

Fortunately, he was digging grass outside the town, not far from the top of the mountain , so it didn't take long for him to find Xiaohua and the others.

It was still the same group of people as before, but instead of killing monsters like yesterday, they gathered together and chattered.

Ji Xuanyi asked curiously: " What are you doing? "

A little flower said: " We are waiting for you! We have been playing for the whole morning.

Seeing that you are online, we will take a break and wait for you to come over. "

Ji Xuanyi said " Oh " and asked, " You didn't tell anyone about the monster spawning location?

A little flower smiled mysteriously and said, " No, we plan to use this place as a secret base. When new members of Mu Xuanyi's support group enter the game, they will all come to Xinmu Town to upgrade. This territory will be ours! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

I always felt that a little flower was going to do something big, but Ji Xuanyi kindly reminded her: " Our server has been sterilized, no new people will come in, and we are the only ones at the bottom of the ranking. "

A little flower: "... Yes, is it? "

Seeing the other party's sad face, Ji Xuanyi said, " Maybe the server will be expanded in the future? Or open server transfer or something, there may still be new people. "

I just don't know how long I have to wait.

Ji Xuanyi didn't say the last sentence, but the little flower became happy. The outputs had already stood in the place that Ji Xuanyi had marked yesterday, looking straight at Ji Xuanyi. Ji Xuanyi was silent for a moment, then said, " Let's kill the monster. "

The output guys were diligently killing monsters, while a little flower was leisurely sitting on a wooden stake brought from somewhere, like an evil landlord exploiting the peasants, completely different from the little spinning top when I first saw it yesterday.

Because her standing position was fixed, after getting used to it, she could use her skills even with her eyes closed without losing focus. She even had time to chat with Ji Xuanyi.

" I remember this was the first holographic online game. Xiao Ji, how come you know so much about it? You seem to be very familiar with the evasion skills as well. "

Ji Xuan glanced at her and said, " Because I have played many games. "

All games have something in common, whether they are keyboard online games, VR , or holographic games.

In almost every game, Ji Xuanyi can be considered a high-level player, otherwise he wouldn't have so many enemies, and he wouldn't be able to live so freely, and he even had a fan club without knowing it ...

At first, Ji Xuanyi would answer a few of Xiaohua's questions, but later he was too lazy to pay attention to her. Xiaohua kept asking questions, so Ji Xuanyi threatened to delete her as a friend, and only then did the little flower calm down.

Because everyone except Miaoshoukongkong was level 20, the efficiency of killing monsters became higher. After killing for an hour, Ji Xuanyi didn't see Xiaohua and the others level up, so he asked: " No experience left? "

A little flower grinned and said, " Yes. "

Of course it is impossible to keep killing monsters in one place to the maximum level. When the level rises above the monster level, the experience will be reduced. If it is higher, the monster will not drop experience.

Ji Xuanyi said: " Then don't brush it. "

A little flower said: " You and Miaoshoukongkong can still gain experience. Look, this place was found by Miaoshoukongkong, and you chose a way to spawn monsters for us. How can we not spawn the two of you to the maximum? "

Ji Xuanyi glanced at Miao Shoukong and said, " You can do whatever he wants. I have other things to do and will probably have to stay in Xinmu for another week. I don't need this little experience, so I won't use it. "

Because he had spent the whole morning longer than Ji Xuanyi, Miaoshoukongkong was already level 18 at this time, while Ji Xuanyi was less than level 16.

Xiaohua was stunned for a moment and said, " Why are you staying here for so long? What's the matter? "

Ji Xuan said: " It has nothing to do with you. It's my own business. If you want to grind, help him grind it up before leaving. I'm going to do the task first. "

 " Hey! "

A little flower wanted to stop him, but Ji Xuanyi had no intention of stopping. The girls looked at each other for a while, killed the monsters in their hands , and stopped.

The swordsman girl who had quarreled with Ji Xuanyi once bit her lip and said, " Is he mad at me, so he doesn't want to kill monsters with us? I ... I'll go and apologize ..."

A small flower grabbed her and said with a smile: " Hongjiu, you have such a bad temper. You are still apologizing. Who knows, you might quarrel again. Don't worry, Xiaoji is not that kind of person. He is a very nice person. "

 " Xiao Ji said he is a casual player. Maybe he really has something to do. It must be boring for him to keep killing monsters. So he doesn't have to kill monsters. "

 " That's true. Ji Xuanyi is so powerful, he doesn't need to level up. He probably won't die. "

 " So what do we do now, leave here? "

A little flower smiled and said, " After leaving Xinmu, there are branching options for where to turn in the quest. We have a lot of people, so we can team up and leave wherever we want. " When the girls were holding parchment and discussing which way to go, Miaoshoukongkong said aggrievedly: " Don't ignore me, if you don't level up my thigh, why don't you level up me ..."

Chapter 9

As soon as Ji Xuan returned to the town, he continued his errands and waited for Qi Qin to come online.

Unexpectedly, the wait lasted for three days.

Because the news was important, Ji Xuanyi planned to tell the other party in person, so he did not leave. During this period, he had completed the upgrade task in Xinmu Town. Like everyone else, he received the task of leaving Xinmu Town and going to the next city.

After being delayed for such a long time, there are almost no other players in Xinmu Town. Ji Xuanyi, who is left here alone, really looks like a casual player.

However, Ji Xuanyi did not become a sightseeing tourist. After completing the ordinary tasks in Xinmu Town, several daily tasks appeared.

Daily tasks are a general term that refers to tasks that can be accepted and completed repeatedly, but not all tasks are refreshed daily. Some tasks can be accepted again immediately after completion, while others can only be completed again after a few hours.

The only similarity between these tasks is that the content is repetitive and the experience is very little.

Ji Xuanyi waited in Xinmu Town for three days, and reached level 18 by completing these tasks. Finally, he couldn't bear it any longer and was ready to leave.

However, just when Ji Xuanyi finished his last daily task and was about to leave the town, the ID [天下第一] flashed and lit up in the friend list.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi felt that his temper had been worn out by this man. Although he had already reached the town entrance, he had no choice but to turn around and walk towards the small square.

When Ji Xuan arrived, Qi Qin was indeed standing in the center of the small square, looking left and right, searching for him.

" I'm here. " Ji Xuanyi said.

In fact, he didn't need to say anything, Qi Qin had already heard his footsteps, turned around and saw him.

The moment Ji Xuanyi appeared, Qi Qin's expression immediately became relaxed. He strode up to Ji Xuanyi and said happily: " Ah, you are still here. "

" Um. "

Seeing Ji Xuanyi's expression, Qi Qin smiled bitterly: " Sorry, did I delay you for a long time? "

" Yeah, that's right. " Ji Xuan nodded.

Qi Qin didn't expect him to be so direct, and an uneasy expression appeared on his face.

Ji Xuanyi pretended not to see it, sat down on the steps next to the small square, and asked: " How is it? "

Qi Qin sat down next to him and answered, " After I quit the game, I wanted to use the excuse you told me to fool my parents ... but when I saw their faces, I couldn't say anything, so I had to tell them the truth. "

Ji Xuanyi had anticipated this situation. After all, Qi Qin's personality was too good, and it was obvious that he would not be able to lie to anyone, especially Qi Qin's parents.

" Then what? " Ji Xuanyi asked.

Qi Qin shook his head helplessly and sighed: " They don't believe me and think there's something wrong with my brain. "

" Oh, that's a normal reaction. "

" They took me to the infirmary— "

" Hospital. " Ji Xuanyi corrected.

"... Okay, the hospital, " Qi Qin frowned, " but it seems that they didn't find any problems.

After all, it's related to the power of ghosts and gods. How can an ordinary doctor find out what's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi: "... It has nothing to do with the power of ghosts and gods. In this day and age, we all believe in science. "

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi with a bewildered look on his face. The short five days from the time he went offline to now were obviously not enough for this person to understand what science was.

Ji Xuanyi gave up: " What happened next? "

" Later, they had a quarrel and said they wanted to see a psychiatrist. My mother wouldn't let them, so they took me back home. But no matter how I explained, they thought I was traumatized and wanted to help me regain my memory by caring about me ..."

Ji Xuanyi curled his lips and said, " Fortunately you didn't tell me that I hit you again. This situation is much more serious than a broken leg. They might really want to fight with my family. "

Qi Qin laughed dryly.

" So how did you feel in the next few days? " Ji Xuanyi asked.

Qi Qin's expression was confused for a moment, and he said, " I, I don't know. When I get along with them, I really feel like I have a blood connection with them, as if they are my dead parents. "

Ji Xuan looked at him and didn't say anything for a long time.

Qi Qin's face flushed a little: " Sorry, I'm just a guy with unknown origins. Isn't it a bit shameless to say such things ..."

" No, " Ji Xuanyi said slowly, " I think I know why you came here. It has nothing to do with this game. "

Qi Qin was stunned: " What do you mean? "

Ji Xuanyi did not answer him, but just said: " Are you willing to stay here? "

" Ah? " Qi Qin didn't react for a moment. After a pause, he smiled bitterly and said, " This place is great, but I don't belong here after all. What's more, if I stay, what will happen to the original Qi Qin? "

Ji Xuan looked at him and said, " This is what I want to tell you. "

" The game cabin monitors the player's physiological state in real time. I asked someone to check the records. Before logging into the game, Qi Qin's body stopped breathing for a period of time. In other words, the original Qi Qin was already dead before you came here. "

When he said this, Ji Xuanyi frowned: " Although I don't know the principle, if you must explain it, you can think of it as resurrection from the dead. "

Qi Qin was stunned for a long time.

" How did Qi Qin die? " Ji Xuanyi asked, " When you returned to reality, was there anything unusual? "

Qi Qin came back to his senses and said, " After I left, there was a strong smell of alcohol in the game room. "

Ji Xuanyi was speechless.

After all, holographic online games have just entered the market. Although there have been countless tests, it is difficult to say for sure about things like safety issues.

When "Domain" was releasing the game cabin, players were reminded to enter the game only when they were in good physical condition, and especially not to drink alcohol. The original owner, Qi Qin, actually killed himself. In this case, the game company did not even need to take responsibility, and at most they would just give a few hundred thousand in compensation.

" Then are you willing to stay? " Ji Xuanyi said: " Since you are here, you must have some relationship with Qi Qin, maybe it's from your past life or present life ... "

" Well, isn't it said that it has nothing to do with the power of ghosts and gods? " Qi Qin said cautiously.

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly.

Qi Qin didn't know why, but he was a little afraid of him, so he said timidly: " Yes, I'm sorry ..."

Ji Xuanyi continued, " It's almost impossible for you to go back. Even if you can, after you leave, the fact that Qi Qin is dead will be confirmed, and his parents probably can't bear this blow. "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment.

Ji Xuanyi said: " I think you can stay. Compared with Qi Qin, you are much more useful to this society. But it's up to you to decide what to do. This matter has nothing to do with me. "

Qi Qin was silent for a long time before he whispered, " Can you please wait for me for another day? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and repeated word by word: " Wait one more day? "

Qi Qin was shocked and said quickly: " Sorry! This is the last time. I know that Brother Ji has wasted a lot of time to help me. I am very grateful. After this is over, no matter what the result is, I am willing to work like a cow or a horse to repay Brother Ji's kindness! "

" Okay. " Ji Xuan agreed immediately, and his decisiveness left Qi Qin stunned for a long time.

Ji Xuanyi continued, " You don't need to be a slave to me anymore. You can stay here and be my slave. Wherever I go, you go. Whatever I do, you do. Whoever I say to kill , you kill . How about that? "

Qi Qin looked at him in astonishment.

What is a bound output? Why does it sound like signing a contract to sell yourself?

Seeing Qi Qin's reaction, Ji Xuanyi said unhappily, " If you want to regret it, it's not too late now. "

" No, I don't regret it! " Qi Qin said quickly: " Please wait for me for another day. I will be your bound output! As long as it does not violate the chivalrous code—— "

Ji Xuanyi could no longer bear it: "... Do you think you are Zhang Wuji? You are still bargaining with me. Do I look like I have a good temper? "

Qi Qin didn't know who Zhang Wuji was, but he still lowered his head, and was too frightened to speak.

" Go do what you need to do. I'll wait for you for another day. " After Ji Xuanyi finished speaking, he left Qi Qin and turned to complete his daily tasks.

Ji Xuanyi had seen a post about daily tasks on the forum before. To sum it up, it was useless. He didn't know what the official wanted to do by creating such tasks.

Because the monster spawning point had not been found at the beginning, some people speculated whether it was used to gain experience, but the experience gained from these tasks was too little, and completing a task was not as much as killing a monster.

Ji Xuanyi didn't know what the purpose of these tasks was. He just felt that he was about to change from a pvp player to a casual player. He just wandered around the town every day. It seemed that playing a support role could indeed make people lazy.

Ji Xuanyi yawned, and just like before, he took the task items he got from the mayor and delivered them to Mrs. Harman. He didn't know if it was his illusion, but the mayor's attitude towards him seemed to have improved a little.

Ji Xuanyi walked to the herb garden full of strange plants. However, Mrs. Harman was not wandering outside the herb garden as usual. There was no one in the herb garden.

His eyes fell on the open door of Mrs. Harman's house.

One of the excuses Mrs. Harman often uses is that she is busy brewing potions in the cauldron in the house and cannot spare the time, so she asks the player to run errands for her.

Did she go back into the house?

Ji Xuanyi took out his staff and walked into Madam Harman's room with a frown. There was indeed a crucible bubbling on the stove, but there was no sign of Madam Harman.

After searching the small room, Ji Xuanyi gave up and opened his parchment. Generally speaking, the task arrow can point directly to the location of the task.

But Ji Xuanyi discovered that the task arrow on the parchment had disappeared.

The daily task on the parchment was still there, [Bring the mayor's herbs to Madam Harman for identification], but below this task, a second line of translucent handwriting appeared.

Secret mission: [Find Madam Haman].

Chapter 10

The secret missions in "Domain" are the same as the adventure missions or hidden missions in other games. They can only be triggered after certain conditions are met.

The secret mission that Ji Xuanyi discovered in the Novice Town had simple triggering conditions.

The daily tasks in the town are not used to gain experience, but to gain favorability. As long as the favorability reaches friendly, the secret tasks can be triggered.

However, Ji Xuanyi didn't know this. He was stunned for a moment after seeing the task, and then he started looking for clues belatedly.

There are no instructions for the mission, and in most cases, the breakthrough will be somewhere else in the town, but this is a holographic online game, and Ji Xuanyi guessed that it is not that simple. There must be some information hidden in Mrs. Harman's room.

Ji Xuanyi walked around the room and found an open notebook on Mrs. Harman's desk with the recipes of various medicines written on it, but Ji Xuanyi's focus was not here.

There was a note tucked between the pages of the notebook, which contained a list of medicines that needed to be delivered today.

A palm-sized piece of paper was densely written on, almost full.

Ji Xuanyi picked it up and took a look, and found that in addition to the people mentioned in the daily tasks that Mrs. Harman usually issued to him, there were some other names on it, and the required potions were noted behind them.

Ji Xuanyi flipped through the notebook again and found that there was a faint pattern painted on the cover of the notebook. It could only be seen against the light. The pattern looked familiar, but he couldn't remember where he had seen it. After hesitating for a while, he put the note into his backpack and put the notebook down.

Mrs. Harman's room was simple and tidy, except for the area around the furnace where the crucible was boiling, which was a little messy . Ji Xuanyi searched around for a while and suddenly had an idea. He used his staff to push away the black ash accumulated beside the furnace. Sure enough, he found a piece of unburned paper inside. He could barely make out the words "healing medicine" and "red bottle grass" written on it .

It looked like the recipe for a potion, but I didn't know why Mrs. Harman wanted to burn it.

Ji Xuanyi thought about it and put the paper into his backpack. He did not touch the potion in the crucible. Mrs. Harman was the only pharmacist in the town. Even if he took the potion out, no one else would be able to identify it .

After Ji Xuanyi was sure that there were no other clues in Mrs. Harman's room, he left the medicine garden and began to search according to the first note, asking them about Mrs. Harman's whereabouts.

As soon as he asked the first question, Ji Xuanyi confirmed that the direction of this task was correct.

Although it is a holographic online game, it is ultimately just AI . Once players ask questions that are inconsistent with its settings, the answer is always the same, "Sorry, I don't understand what you are saying . "

But when Ji Xuanyi asked the question, "Excuse me, where is Madam Harman? " , they all showed surprised expressions. Some said, "Isn't Madam Harman in the medicine garden? " Some said, "I don't know. Madam Harman hasn't sent anyone to deliver medicine today . " But there were only these two sentences. When Ji Xuan asked from a different angle, such as "What is Mrs. Harman doing recently" or "Has Mrs. Harman dealt with strangers" , they no longer had any new answers.

Ji Xuanyi felt a little tired. Mrs. Harman dealt with a lot of people on a daily basis, and the names on the note included almost half of the people in Xinmu Town. He had only asked half of the questions when it was time for dinner.

Maybe it was because of hunger, but Ji Xuanyi finally realized that he wanted to pick out the people with special identities to ask first.

The first person to ask is of course the mayor. The mayor manages the affairs of the entire town. The daily tasks issued by the mayor are to randomly take a potion to Madam Harman for identification . Maybe he will know something.

Ji Xuanyi found the mayor on the road. Before he could speak, the mayor asked, "Ji Xuanyi, has the medicine been identified ? "

This is a reminder after seeing players who accepted their tasks but did not complete them. It has nothing to do with secret tasks.

Ji Xuanyi did not answer, but said directly: "Mrs. Harman is missing. "

The mayor showed the same surprised expression as before and said, "Isn't Madam Harman in the herb garden? "

Ji Xuanyi looked at the mayor and replied, "Yes, do you know where Mrs. Harman went? "

The mayor said sadly: "I don't know either. "

This sentence had never been said before. Ji Xuanyi's heart moved and he continued to ask: "Do you know if Mrs. Harman has come into contact with any strangers recently? "

" No, no, " said the mayor, shaking his head, " there are no strangers in the town. "

Ji Xuanyi asked several times, but the mayor kept repeating these words, as if there were no other clues to reveal.

Ji Xuanyi and the mayor stared at each other for a long time, but Ji Xuanyi finally gave in, sighed, and prepared to leave.

Just as Ji Xuan turned around, he raised his eyes and inadvertently saw a bottle of green potion on the windowsill behind the mayor.

Ji Xuanyi paused. At least when he came to the mayor today to accept his daily task, the bottle of potion was not there.

Ji Xuanyi seemed to be thinking about something, and walked over to take down the bottle of medicine.

After Ji Xuanyi got the potion, the mayor behind him suddenly said, " This is the potion that Madam Harman gave me. If you let it bask in the sun during the day, it will glow at night. "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment and turned to look at the mayor.

The mayor also looked at him with no expression, as if he was talking about something unimportant.

Ji Xuan took a look at the potion, hesitated for a moment, opened the bottle and smelled it. There was no odor, so he poured some on his staff. The sticky liquid slowly seeped into the wooden staff, leaving an inconspicuous light green mark.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and hurriedly took the bottle of potion back to Madam Harman's medicine garden. He checked the garden and the house thoroughly, but found no green traces like the ones left on his staff.

Could it be that this bottle of potion has nothing to do with the secret mission?

Ji Xuanyi's mentality was a little broken.

As it turned out, what he was best at was getting kills, fighting, and running away.

This kind of task of solving a case was still too difficult for him.

Ji Xuanyi took a few deep breaths and adjusted his mentality for a long time, but he still couldn't help it. He threw the potion away and went offline to eat.

After finishing his meal, Ji Xuanyi did not rush to play the game, but went to the forum to take a look.

The live broadcast building of the traveling sorcerer has reached more than a thousand floors. It is on the homepage and has been featured. Ji Xuanyi sighed and did not bother to click in to take a look. Instead, he directly searched for the keyword, " secret mission " .

There are not many posts, and the popularity is very low. Most of them are speculations about secret missions. There is only one slightly more popular one, which is the official introduction when the forum was first opened.

The official description is that there are many secret missions with different triggering conditions, different triggering probabilities, and different mission rewards. Some can be triggered repeatedly, some only once, and some even have several different results after being triggered depending on the player's identity and choices.

However, this was not what Ji Xuanyi wanted to know. He scrolled down, but was disappointed to find that no one had shared any strategies about the secret mission.

In addition to the fact that most people are desperately trying to upgrade, there may also be reasons why some people are unwilling to share. The difference between holographic online games and keyboard online games is too great. It can be called a second life. The rewards for secret missions are generous, and no one would be willing to make the secret treasure known to everyone.

Although Ji Xuanyi has not yet solved the mystery at hand, he doesn't mind sharing it. However, that would definitely put him in the spotlight and he would be exposed if he wasn't careful, so he decided to give up.

Ji Xuanyi browsed the forum for a while and felt that he seemed to have calmed down a little, so he slowly climbed back into the game.

He was still standing in the herb garden. It was getting dark, and the medicine bottle he had thrown away before logging off had not been refreshed. It lay in the herb garden, emitting a faint light.

But that was all. The darkening sky allowed Ji Xuanyi to clearly see that there were indeed no similar signs of glow in Mrs. Harman's medicine garden.

Ji Xuanyi exhaled heavily. At least this phenomenon could prove that the bottle of potion was indeed related to the mission.

Ji Xuanyi put the bottle of potion into his backpack. According to his plan before logging off, he should go to the small square to find the captain of the guard of Xinmu Town.

Madam Harman once paid a silver coin for the captain of the guard, and in subsequent daily tasks, she often asked Ji Xuanyi to help deliver healing potions to the captain of the guard.

It can be said that the captain of the guard is the person that Mrs. Harman has come into contact with the most through players, except for the mayor.

After determining the target, Ji Xuanyi ran all the way to the small square, but the small square was empty in the twilight. Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but be stunned.

The time in the game is consistent with the real time, but Ji Xuan rarely went online at night during this period. He only stayed up late once to complete the task of leaving Xinmu Town. He had not passed the small square, so he had no idea that the guards would leave the small square at night.

Ji Xuanyi stopped a passerby and asked, " Where did the guards go? "

Passersby without names above their heads are occasionally mistaken for players. Although they will not issue tasks, they will indeed answer some questions from players when they are stopped by them. However, when the players' questions are not within the settings, they will simply ignore them and leave.

Ji Xuanyi was lucky. After asking, the passerby replied: " The town guards only rest in the small square during the day. At night, they have to go outside to protect the town. "

Chapter 11

" Protect the town? " Ji Xuanyi frowned.

The passerby stood there for a while, and seeing that Ji Xuanyi stopped asking questions, he left on his own.

Until now, Ji Xuanyi has not received any mission related to protecting the town, and he doesn't know whether this is a setting or a clue.

There was no point in standing there and thinking, so Ji Xuanyi went straight out of the city and found the guard on duty at the entrance of the town. The captain's armor was more complicated than that of ordinary guards and could be identified with a little attention. He was standing at the main entrance of the town like a statue.

Ji Xuanyi walked up to him, but before he could say anything, the guard captain had already seen him and said worriedly, " Ji Xuanyi, don't leave the town at night. There are ferocious beasts and robbers outside. "

Regarding the secret mission, he will not actively talk to the player before he performs specific actions. This should be a randomly triggered interaction with the player. It seems that his information is too behind the times. Protecting the town is just a setting and has little to do with the secret mission.

However, this also means that the task is not as complicated as imagined . Ji Xuanyi breathed a sigh of relief and said directly: " Mrs. Harman is missing. "

The captain of the guard widened his eyes and asked in surprise: " Mrs. Harman is missing?! " The guard captain's reaction was much more intense than the others. Ji Xuanyi felt that he was not wrong this time.

Ji Xuanyi replied: " Yes, do you know where Mrs. Harman went? "

The captain of the guard frowned and said, " I don't know. Madam Harman didn't bring us any medicine today. "

This sentence is similar to the others. Ji Xuanyi thought about it and asked, " Has Mrs. Harman interacted with strangers recently? "

The captain of the guard did not answer, but looked straight at Ji Xuanyi. This question was not in his plan, and it seemed that it was a clue that could only be obtained from the mayor.

Ji Xuanyi was not discouraged and asked again: " Do you know what Mrs. Harman is doing recently? "

The guard captain's expression finally changed. He seemed to be in a dilemma, with his brows knitted together. After a long while, he said, " Mrs. Harman is researching a new healing potion recently. "

Ji Xuanyi's heart moved, and he took out the torn note he found in the ashes during the day from his backpack. Among the few remaining words on it, there were indeed the words " healing medicine " .

But why did Mrs. Harman burn the formula? Did the potion fail? Or was there some hidden secret?

Ji Xuanyi didn't know what else the guard captain knew, and couldn't think of a question for a moment. He looked at the note and asked casually: " What is red bottle grass? "

 " Red bottle grass is an evil herb that can make people lose their minds. Only warlocks will use it to curse those who offend them. " Unexpectedly, the captain of the guards answered the question.

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment and looked up at the captain of the guards.

The captain of the guards also looked at him quietly. Under the dim moonlight, his slightly worried face looked like a real person.

Ji Xuanyi frowned, as if something flashed through his mind, but he couldn't remember it, so he continued to ask: " Is there any red bottle grass in the town? "

The captain of the guard replied, " There is no red bottle grass in this town, but there is some growing on the hill over there. "

Ji Xuanyi seemed to be thinking about something.

From the mayor's attitude, it can be seen that most ordinary people are very wary of sorcerers. The words "red bottle grass" appeared in Madam Harman's new potion, so it is understandable why she burned the recipe. There was no red bottle grass in the town, and Madam Harman needed these herbs. Since she could not ask someone to run errands for her, she could only collect the herbs herself.

The next clue should be found where the red bottle grass grows.

Ji Xuan thought about it and prepared to go up the mountain to take a look.

" Are you going to look for Madam Harman? Ji Xuanyi, maybe I can help you. "

Before Ji Xuanyi turned around, he saw a dialog box pop up in front of him: The captain of the guard of Xinmu Town invites you to form a team.

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then his head was full of question marks.

Does this game have team settings?

Ji Xuanyi clicked "Agree" out of curiosity, and the guard captain's level and health immediately appeared in his game interface.

The captain of the guard is almost the pinnacle of combat power in the entire Xinmu Town.

Even so, as a novice in the town, he is only level 23 , but his health is almost twice that of Ji Xuanyi.

This is probably not good news. The fact that a combat-type person will join the team only means that there will be a battle next. Moreover, given the nature of covert missions, the captain of the guard may not be able to win the next battle.

Ji Xuanyi watched the captain of the guard instruct the other guards to stand guard well before leaving. He always felt that he should know something, but he just couldn't catch that flash of inspiration.

After the captain of the guard finished talking to the other guards, he returned to Ji Xuanyi and stood upright with a worried expression on his face.

Ji Xuanyi glanced at him and tried to take a step back. The guard leader did not follow him, but frowned and said, " Ji Xuanyi, the red bottle grass grows over here. You've gone the wrong way. "

As Ji Xuan walked in the right direction, the captain of the guards' expression relaxed and he followed him closely , saying " , Yes, that's the direction! "

It seems that the other party also has the responsibility of acting as the mission arrow.

It was a dark night, and the moonlight was not very bright, but fortunately, for the sake of the player's gaming experience, the game was set up so that the player could emit a faint light by himself in a pitch-black environment. Although he could not become a humanoid self-propelled light bulb, it was still no problem to see the road clearly under his feet. So Ji Xuanyi led the captain of the guard all the way down the mountain in the dark, and it did not take much effort. After reaching the foot of the mountain, the guard captain stopped. It must have triggered a plot prompt. Ji Xuan turned his head to look at him. He saw the guard captain raised his head to look at the dark mountain and said solemnly: " This is the mountain. The red bottle grass grows on the mountainside. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't even look at it. He was very familiar with this mountain. This was the mountain where he and Yiduo Xiaohua had killed monsters before. However, the way the captain of the guards pointed him in another direction.

After the captain of the guard finished his lines, he followed Ji Xuanyi closely. Ji Xuanyi drew out his staff and prepared to explore the way, but after raising it, he found that the front end of his staff was emitting a bright green light. He was stunned for a moment before he remembered that this was the result of an experiment he had done during the day using the fluorescent potion from the mayor.

I didn't expect that the effect of the potion hasn't worn off after so long.

Ji Xuanyi didn't think much about it. He used his staff to push aside the dense vegetation and walked towards the middle of the mountain.

At the beginning, Ji Xuanyi was prepared to take care of the captain guard. After all, his following state was a bit stupid and he could only walk in a straight line. He didn't know if he would lose him. When he found that the captain guard completely ignored the plants on the ground and even knocked down small trees as thick as his wrist, Ji Xuanyi ignored him. Because the trees blocked his view, Ji Xuanyi could hardly tell the direction. Fortunately, the captain of the guards was always behind him to remind him. After more than ten minutes, Ji Xuanyi felt that the plants around him became sparse and the road under his feet became flatter.

" Red bottle grass grows here. " The captain of the guard suddenly said.

Ji Xuanyi also noticed it. He felt a tingling sensation at the tip of his nose, and a red BUFF appeared under the health bar with the annotation " The smell of red bottle grass caused slight paralysis to you, but it is not serious . "

Ji Xuanyi originally thought that the red bottle grass should be wild, with one growing here and one there, but when he pushed aside the grass, he found that what was in front of him was actually a cultivated medicinal field, with plants shaped like red vases neatly arranged in it. This was obviously red bottle grass that was specially planted by someone. There was no other pharmacist in the town except Madam Harman, and Madam Harman was the only one who knew how to grow red bottle grass.

Ji Xuanyi suddenly thought of something, turned his head and looked at the guard captain, and said, " Madam Harman is a sorcerer? "

As if a switch had been pressed, the guard captain who had been following Ji Xuanyi like a puppet suddenly changed his expression. He looked a little helpless. Then, he sighed and replied, " Yes, Madam Harman is a sorcerer. "

Ji Xuanyi finally remembered what he had overlooked. The dark pattern on the cover of Mrs. Harman's notes was the complicated warlock professional emblem!

Ji Xuanyi's question triggered the captain of the guard's plot mode, and he began to tell the story of Mrs. Harman in a low voice.

The plot is very cliché. To sum it up, Mrs. Harman was seriously injured a long time ago and was rescued by the people in the town. She stayed in the town and became a pharmacist to treat the people in the town. Later, by chance, the captain of the guard discovered Mrs. Harman's identity as a warlock, but he knew that Mrs. Harman was a good person, and he could not resist Mrs. Harman's pleading, so he decided to keep her secret and even occasionally helped Mrs. Harman to find herbs on the mountain.

"I didn't expect her to disappear so suddenly," the guard chief whispered, "There are no strangers in the town, but there is a group of bandits hiding in this mountain. I am worried that something might happen to her."

Robbers? Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then thought, the group of robbers the guard captain was talking about, could it be the elite monsters that he and Yiduo Xiaohua had killed before? If that was the case, it would be impossible for a guard captain to rescue Madam Harman. You know, Yiduo Xiaohua had a team of eight damage dealers at that time, and they were only killing monsters outside the elite monster group. If they wanted to rush in to rescue people, at least a group of people would have to come, and there would have to be a healer and a tank .

It's just a secret mission in the Novice Town, it can't be that perverted, right?

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and threw the things out of his mind. It was useless to think about these things now. It would be better to find clues as soon as possible. He frowned and began to check if there were any clues left in the red bottle grass field.

There were many red bottle grasses with only half of the bottle left in the field. Mrs. Harman should have been fine before she collected all the herbs, but the footprints on the ground were so messy that it was impossible to tell which direction Mrs. Harman went.

Ji Xuan looked for a long time and felt like his eyes were going blind. He couldn't even tell the direction of a complete footprint.

It's too dark. Do I have to wait until tomorrow morning to come and take a look?

Ji Xuanyi squatted down impatiently, intending to take a closer look, but the moment he lowered his head, something bright flashed by.

Chapter 12

Ji Xuanyi originally thought that it was the fluorescence on his staff, but then he remembered that because it was dazzling, he turned the fluorescent side of the staff to a direction where he could not see it.

Ji Xuanyi immediately lay on the ground and looked to the right where his eyes were flashing. He saw the roots of the plants, which were relatively sparse compared to the branches and leaves. Spots of fluorescent light were scattered on the soil and rhizomes, forming a curved and hidden route.

It turns out that the clue to the potion is here!

With so much vegetation covering it, it would be impossible to find it if we waited until daytime.

Ji Xuanyi breathed a sigh of relief.

The guard leader was also triggered by Ji Xuanyi's discovery and exclaimed: " This is Madam Harman's fluorescent potion. She is showing us the way! "

" Let's go and take a look. " Ji Xuanyi said, and took the lead to walk towards the fluorescent light.

The mountain road was rugged. At the beginning, Mrs. Harman's marks were very dense. Later on, each bright light spot was far away and needed careful searching to be found. When the last light spot could not be found, Ji Xuanyi heard the sound of conversation.

Ji Xuanyi poked his head out from the shade of the trees and found a group of humanoid monsters chatting. But when he saw the costumes of those humanoid monsters clearly, Ji Xuanyi's heart sank. Those were indeed the elite monsters that he and Yiduo Xiaohua had used to upgrade and kill before. Moreover, from this direction, the distribution of monsters was much denser than the place where they killed monsters. If he had an assassin, he might be able to sneak in and complete the task, but he was just a warlock now.

Still a warlock with a grey weapon.

This is really puzzling.

Ji Xuanyi was thinking about how to get around these monsters when the not-at-all-intelligent guard captain strode past him and shouted, " You are the bandits who kidnapped Madam Harman?! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

No, when he was so angry that he was blinded by others and fought with two swords, he never thought that he could fight 200 people alone! This is too fierce!

Fortunately, the elite monsters were not that smart, and there were only five small monsters triggered by the Chief Guard. However, it was still tough. The six of them started fighting.

Although the Chief Guard was of a high level and had a lot of blood, he could not withstand the siege of five small monsters, and his blood was worn away bit by bit.

Ji Xuanyi couldn't bear to watch the captain of the guard being beaten to death, so he could only jump out of the bushes.

The captain of the guard is also a swordsman. His greatsword can attack three monsters at the same time. If there were no other two monsters, he could actually barely fight three alone.

Ji Xuanyi saw this in an instant, and immediately used a curse to control a monster, and used his pitifully low physical damage to attract the hatred of another monster that was not attacked by the Chief Guard. When the two monsters transferred their attacks to Ji Xuanyi, the battle on the Chief Guard's side immediately became easy.

A qualified auxiliary should make use of all available conditions to create fighting opportunities for the output, which of course includes his own life. When the auxiliary has no combat effectiveness, the most important thing is to keep the output alive as long as possible.

Although it was Ji Xuanyi's first time playing a support role, he still knew the basic concepts very well.

Fortunately, the captain guard was still very strong. When Ji Xuanyi's health dropped by half, he finally pulled his hand out to help Ji Xuanyi clear the monsters. When all five monsters were dead, Ji Xuanyi and the captain guard were left with only skin left.

Ji Xuanyi sat down on the ground, waiting for his health to automatically recover after leaving the battle. He also paid some attention to the movements of the guard leader, fearing that he would rush into the monster pile with low health. Fortunately, after the other party cleared the monsters, he supported his sword and half-knelt down, looking far away at the rear that was heavily guarded by elite monsters, and said sadly: " Madam Harman, I will find a way to get you out ..."

Ji Xuan heaved a sigh of relief, which probably meant that he would not try to force an attack now. The captain guard was in a state where he would die if he was touched by the monsters more times, and his health did not show any sign of automatically recovering. Ji Xuan took a look at the captain guard's state, which showed that he could not be treated.

I can only go back to town first and make long-term plans.

What Ji Xuanyi didn't know was that in this plot, there was a 90% chance that the captain of the guard would die directly, and the remaining 10% chance would only occur if the player's operation was very sharp. The survival of the plot characters also directly affected the difficulty of the next task and the final task reward.

When Ji Xuanyi brought the captain of the guard back to the town, it was already midnight. He couldn't bear it any longer, so he handed the captain of the guard to the panicked guards and went offline to sleep.

When he opened his eyes again, it was already noon. Ji Xuanyi was woken up by hunger. After cooking himself a very decent meal, he slowly crawled into the game cabin.

He was still standing at the entrance of Xinmu Town. Because it was daytime, the guards should have returned to the small square to rest, and the captain of the guard was not waiting for him at the town entrance.

[Number One in the World] online among his friends .

Anyway, Qi Qin is probably also in the small square.

Ji Xuanyi thought about it and quickened his pace.

To Ji Xuan's surprise, Qi Qin was not in the small square, but the captain of the guard was there. He was sitting where he usually stood, and his armor showed traces of battle and some blood stains.

Before logging off last night, the captain of the guard left the team. Because the level difference was more than five levels, Ji Xuanyi now had question marks when he looked at the opponent's health bar. Although he couldn't see the specific number, he could tell from the empty health bar that the captain of the guard's injuries had not recovered at all.

Ji Xuanyi walked forward, but before he could say anything, the captain of the guard said tiredly, " Ji Xuanyi, I'm sorry, I couldn't help you rescue Madam Harman. "

This tone was too real. Ji Xuanyi was a little affected. He coughed lightly and said, " Is there anything I can help you with? "

This is almost a universal golden sentence for players to accept tasks. As long as there is a task, most people will respond to this sentence.

The guard captain raised his head and said to Ji Xuan, " If you still need me, please help me find the healing potion at Madam Harman's house. After you recover from your injuries, I can help you again. "

Ji Xuan nodded and opened the parchment, but found that no task appeared. It might be that helping the captain of the guards find healing potions was directly included in the secret task of [Finding Madam Haman].

But there was no need for parchment anymore. Ji Xuanyi knew the route to Xinmu Town so well that he would not get lost even with his eyes closed. He put away the parchment and was about to leave, but he found that Qi Qin's level in the friend list had risen by one level. He was stunned for a moment.

Did that guy learn how to do the task? Or is he just helping out of kindness?

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but send a private message: "What are you doing?"

After waiting for a while, the other party didn't reply. Not knowing whether he didn't see it, Ji Xuanyi put the matter aside and went to the medicine garden first.

Mrs. Harman had been missing for a whole day, and the herbs in the medicine garden had no one to take care of them, so they were covered with some dirt. Ji Xuanyi ignored her and went straight into the room.

Because he helped Madam Harman with a lot of daily tasks, Ji Xuanyi was very sure that he could identify the healing potions. However, every time Madam Harman gave a task, she would take the task items directly out of her pocket, so Ji Xuanyi didn't know where Madam Harman stored the extra potions.

The last time he looked for clues in Madam Harman's house, he did not find anything like a storage cabinet. After all, Madam Harman was a sorcerer who could not reveal her identity, and the potions and medicinal herbs should have been hidden by her.

While Ji Xuanyi was searching the house, Qi Qin's reply came.

[Number One in the World] : Upgrade

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment. It was really upgrading? Ji Xuan was about to ask him what he thought when Qi Qin's message came again.

[Number One in the World] : Wait

[Number One in the World] : I

[The best in the world] : Typing

[No.1 in the world] : Slow

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Thinking about Qi Qin, who knew nothing but was still working hard to upgrade and type, it was not easy. Ji Xuanyi replied to him helplessly.

[Ji Xuanyi] : There is a speaker next to the input box, which is for voice input.

Qi Qin was silent for a long time, and finally another message came.

[Number One in the World] : Is that so?

[Number One in the World] : It's true, so convenient!

[Number One Under Heaven] : Ah, well, I have decided to stay and live a good life, take care of Qi Qin's parents, and also be your bound output.

[Number One in the World] : I learned how to surf the Internet last night and looked up what bound output means. Does it mean I have to be as high as you? I'm working hard to upgrade.

[天下第一] : Also, can you change the name? It's too ... too shameless ...

Ji Xuanyi could completely imagine Qi Qin's current expression, and couldn't help but curl his lips and replied: " You can't change it. You have to keep calling it this name. "

[Number One in the World] : Really?

[Number One in the World] : I don't want to ... QAQ !

Ji Xuanyi: " ??? "

[Ji Xuanyi] : Can the voice system also send emoticons?

[天下第一] : No, this is what I learned on the Internet QWQ .

[天下第一] : Doesn't it look very vivid? OvO

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi sent Qi Qin an invitation to join a team, and two seconds later, Qi Qin joined the team.

Ji Xuanyi glanced at the parchment and saw that the blue arrow indicating the position of his teammates had grown so large that it was almost covering Ji Xuanyi's own coordinates.

He poked his head out of Mrs. Harman's room and saw Qi Qin staring at the parchment as he walked past the medicine garden.

Ji Xuanyi threw the staff in his hand towards him and shouted in intolerance: " Can't you learn something serious? "

Chapter 13

" hidden weapon " thrown by Ji Xuanyi . When he saw Ji Xuanyi in the herb garden, his eyes lit up. He didn't care what the real thing was. He walked up to him and asked, " What are you doing here? "

Ji Xuanyi took the staff back from his hand and poked him. Qi Qin subconsciously wanted to dodge, but when he saw Ji Xuanyi's expression, he held back. He was poked hard, but when the other party took the staff back, he realized that it didn't hurt at all. He stood beside Ji Xuanyi and touched his belly curiously.

Ji Xuanyi: " Why, is it? "

 " Ah? " Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, then suddenly realized what was happening, quickly put his hand down, and said awkwardly, " Are you doing the mission? "

Ji Xuanyi said " hmm " and turned back to the house.

Qi Qin followed him in and said, " Can I help you? "

 " If you level up quickly, you'll be helping, " Ji Xuanyi said impatiently, then he suddenly stopped, looked at Qi Qin, and said, " Does your world often have secret passages and hidden compartments? "

Unexpectedly, Qi Qin shook his head innocently: " No. "

Ji Xuanyi was speechless, so he just waved his hand and said, " Okay, there's nothing for you to do here, go upgrade. "

Qi Qin didn't understand, so he said, " When you need help, call me. I'll watch the call channel. "

Ji Xuanyi looked through the things on Mrs. Harman's desk and nodded absentmindedly.

Qi Qin was about to leave, but was stunned after taking out the parchment.

Ji Xuan took the time to look at him and asked, " What's wrong? "

Qi Qin unfolded the parchment and showed it to him, then said hesitantly , " I can't find the mission. "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, and took his parchment to look at it carefully, and found that the other party's task arrow had indeed disappeared, and the ordinary task that Qi Qin was doing now was to find Madam Harman.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and asked, " Is the person who just handed in the task here? "

" Are you talking about the woman just now? " Qi Qin was also very surprised: " She was here when I came in just now, but she disappeared after talking to you. "

In order to avoid certain story missions affecting other players and causing them to get stuck because of one player, at certain times, the game is set up so that each player sees something different, such as Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin before they formed a team.

Ji Xuanyi's Madam Harman has been kidnapped by bandits, and the medicine garden is empty. But from Qi Qin's perspective, Madam Harman is walking around in the medicine garden as usual, waiting for the player to arrive.

But just after they met as a team, Qi Qin's perspective seemed forced to overlap with Ji Xuanyi's. Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin's parchment again before he saw a line of small words under his ordinary task.

Secret Mission: [Find Madam Harman] (Assist)

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Is there a setting where you are forced to assist each other when forming a team?

Ji Xuanyi dismissed the team directly, and after a while, he asked Qi Qin, who looked puzzled, " Did he show up? "

Qi Qin looked at the herb garden outside and shook his head.

Ji Xuanyi opened Qi Qin's parchment and found that the assistance mission was still there.

Ji Xuanyi said with a grim expression: " Log off and log back on. "

Qi Qin did not dare to object and did as he was told immediately. However, it was of no use as the assistance mission was still on the parchment.

Ji Xuanyi's expression looked terrible.

Although it was agreed that the binding should be done, Ji Xuanyi still found it difficult to accept when it really came to the point.

Qi Qin was frightened by Ji Xuanyi's expression for a while, but he still mustered up the courage to look closer at him and asked softly: " What's wrong? "

When Ji Xuan raised his eyes, he saw Qi Qin's dark eyes, and his own reflection in them.

Somehow, Ji Xuanyi suddenly calmed down.

He put Qi Qin back into the team and whispered, " Your mission has been synchronized with mine. We have to complete this mission together. "

" Synchronize? " Qi Qin didn't quite understand. After a moment's reaction, he smiled in surprise and said, " I can help you, right? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him, and was distracted by his smiling face. He did not answer him, and went back to look through his notes with a sullen face.

Qi Qin didn't know what Ji Xuanyi was angry about, so he had to follow him closely.

Ji Xuanyi said, " In my mission, Madam Harman, who you are going to complete, has been kidnapped by bandits in the mountains. We have to rescue her, but the captain of the guard was injured yesterday while helping to explore the way. The current mission goal is to find the healing potion in Madam Harman's house and treat the captain of the guard. "

Qi Qin listened carefully and nodded.

Ji Xuan stood up, turned his head to look at him, and said unhappily: " So don't follow me now, go to other places in the room to see if there are any mechanisms or something, the potion was hidden by Madam Harman. "

Qi Qin finally reacted, nodded repeatedly, and went to the other side of the room to search.

Ji Xuanyi felt aggrieved and could not help but snort. He turned around and touched the notebook on the table. He flipped through it hastily but could not read anything. After a long time, he finally could not help but said awkwardly: " Hey, am I too fierce? "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment before realizing that Ji Xuanyi was talking to him. He couldn't help but smile and said, " Not bad. "

Ji Xuanyi was silent for a while, then said, " You don't really like playing games, do you? If you don't want to, don't force yourself. Just treat the binding as something I just said casually. "

" This game? It's actually quite interesting, " Qi Qin looked up at Ji Xuanyi's back and said with a smile, " And it doesn't matter if you just say it casually. I want to help you not just because of that promise. "

" There are very few people in the world who are so kind as to help a stranger without asking for anything in return, especially a guy like me whose origins are unknown, " Qi Qin said sincerely from the bottom of his heart: " Because you are such a kind and helpful person, I want to help you and be friends with you. "

Be friends.

Ji Xuanyi: "... Oh. "

Qi Qin asked cautiously: " Are you unhappy? "

" Haha, I'm very happy. " Ji Xuan said expressionlessly with his back to Qi Qin.

Qi Qin: " Ah? Why did I ... " didn't you hear it?

Before Qi Qin could finish, Ji Xuanyi spoke first: " When I was in high school, I broke one of Qi Qin's legs. "

Qi Qin: "..... ? "

" Oh, there are two more back teeth, " Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " I'm looking for you to bind me because I have enemies all over the world. I killed them until they broke up and quit the game. There are at least fifty people on the list that I kill every time I see them. There are too many people who want to kill me in the game to count. "

" So I'm not a good person, and don't expect too much from me. I'm only helping you because I had a brain attack. " Ji Xuanyi said nonchalantly, If you " still want to help me after knowing this, then it's up to you. "

The room fell silent for a moment. After a while, Qi Qin I " , said understand . I will protect you well. "

After a moment of silence, Ji Xuanyi sneered, " Tsk ... idiot. "

But my heart gradually calmed down.

Ji Xuanyi searched the entire desk but couldn't find the mechanism, so he simply pulled out a chair and began to study Mrs. Harman's notes carefully.

The plot of this game is quite realistic, there are no logical loopholes, and the clues are all useful. Maybe you can find some use for them in your notes.

Qi Qin knocked on the wall inch by inch at the other end of the room, trying to find a hollow place.

Although the method is stupid, it cannot be said to be useless. It's just that the ding-dong sound is very annoying. The veins on Ji Xuanyi's forehead are almost knocked out by it. He had to take a deep breath, calm down, and try to focus his thoughts on the contents of the notes. Mrs. Harman's notes were very neat. The potions used for treatment , potions used to fight enemies, and special potions like fluorescent potions were all sorted into categories and even had a catalogue. Ji Xuanyi flipped through them absentmindedly and glanced at the " curse " column for potions used to fight enemies.

[Paralysis Potion] : Blue in color, with a very wide range of action. It is possible to accidentally injure yourself. If you are infected with the mild toxicity of red bottle grass, you can avoid the effect of this potion.

Ji Xuanyi's heart moved, but before he could grasp the inspiration, Qi Qin's voice came from behind him: " I found it! "

Ji Xuan turned his head and saw Qi Qin pointing at a wall and saying, " This is hollow. " It turned out that I just found where the secret compartment was.

" Oh, " Ji Xuanyi turned around unmoved and continued to read his notes: " Wait until you find the mechanism to open it ..."

With a loud " bang " , Qi Qin swung his sword and broke a hole in the wall.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Seeing Ji Xuanyi's dull eyes, Qi Qin realized belatedly and said, " Isn't this okay? "

Ji Xuanyi sat on the chair, looking at him with an indescribable expression. After a long silence, he said, " Okay. "

To some extent, Ji Xuanyi felt that Qi Qin was much more awesome than he was before, really.

What's the big deal about pvp cancer? There are many people like him who have enemies all over the world, but he has only seen Qi Qin who does the task like this.

Ji Xuanyi walked to the hole that Qi Qin had smashed and found that it was a secret compartment one meter square with a wooden box inside.

What made Ji Xuanyi feel relieved was that there was no lock on the wooden box. He moved the wooden box out and opened it. There were more than a dozen medicines neatly placed inside.

" Is this it? " Qi Qin asked.

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " That's it. Let's go to the small square. "

" Thank you so much, I am back to health. " In the small square, the captain of the guards, who had recovered his health, said: " But our strength seems too weak to rescue Madam Harman from the robbers' den. Ji Xuanyi, do you have any solution? "

Ji Xuanyi didn't expect that the question would be thrown to him so straightforwardly, and was speechless.

Qi Qin, who was standing beside him, saw that Ji Xuanyi was silent, so he interrupted and said, " Are there many robbers? If there are only a dozen or so, I should be able to handle them. "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " There are many of them. Your level is too low. Stop making trouble. "

Qi Qin touched his nose and stopped talking.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment, took out a tube of blue medicine from his backpack, and asked with a serious expression: " Is this useful? "

It was the paralyzing potion he had taken out of Mrs. Harman's box.

The guard leader's expression changed, and he actually reacted. He said happily: " This is a paralysis potion, Ji Xuanyi, you are so smart! "

Ji Xuanyi breathed a sigh of relief. That's great. It seemed that the clue was correct. If the paralyzing potion was used, the mission should be nearing its end.

He was really tortured.

" Let's set off now and rescue Madam Harman as soon as possible! " The captain of the guard stood up straight, joined the team again in high spirits, and was the first to walk out of the small square.

Although Ji Xuanyi briefly explained the previous mission, Qi Qin still couldn't keep up with the development of the plot. He followed behind in a daze, with a confused expression clearly on his face.

Ji Xuanyi's heart moved slightly, and he reminded: " There are many elite monsters on the mountain we are going to later. You are only level 14, remember to stand behind me. "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, then laughed and said, " Didn't you ask me to protect you? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " You are a binder, not a bodyguard, understand? "

“ Is there any difference? ”

There is a big difference. Ji Xuan glanced at him but didn't say anything.

The distance was not far , and Ji Xuanyi felt he was walking quite fast alone. But bringing Qi Qin along felt a little strange, and both of them were silent, feeling very awkward.

Ji Xuanyi's eyes wandered, and when he saw Qi Qin holding his sword under his arm, he asked, " Isn't this posture awkward? "

Qi Qin also nodded as if relieved and continued, " It's quite awkward. "

“ It's awkward why you keep holding it like this? Can't you put it in your bag? ” As he said this, Ji Xuanyi spread out his hands to show Qi Qin his empty hands.

Qi Qin smiled and said, " I put it in my backpack, so I couldn't find it for a while. The fight only took a moment, and if I was slow to draw my sword, I would have missed it. "

Ji Xuanyi was speechless: " You overestimate the abilities of the monsters and people here. If you have the ability to kill me in seconds, most people will not be your opponent. "

Qi Qin grinned: " Really? "

Ji Xuanyi thought the other party was mocking him for not being that powerful, so he raised his eyebrows and looked at him.

Qi Qin was stunned and quickly explained: " That's not what I meant. I meant that in the original world, my martial arts skills were only above average. I'm very happy that you praised me like this. "

Ji Xuan curled his lips: " I didn't praise you. "

Qi Qin smiled but said nothing.

Ji Xuanyi pointed at the guard leader in front and said, " You can actually learn to carry your sword behind your back. Some swordsmen also put their swords behind their waists. Either way, it's easier than holding it with your arms. "

Qi Qin shook his head and said seriously: " The most convenient place for me to draw the sword is the left side of my waist, but this sword is too big. Hanging it on my waist affects my movements, and it always seems to pull my pants down. It is more convenient to hold it between my legs. "

Ji Xuanyi ignored him and said, " It's up to you. Do whatever is convenient for you. "

In fact, Qi Qin wanted to talk to Ji Xuanyi for a while, but before he could think of a topic, they reached the foot of the mountain.

The chief guard said, " To use the paralysis potion, we must first find the red bottle grass, otherwise we will be poisoned as well. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Then let's go find the red bottle grass first. "

After receiving the player's reply, the guard captain responded and went to clear the way ahead. Maybe because the secret mission was not completed, the affected data in the game would not be refreshed. When they went up the mountain, they could still see the traces left by the guard captain's rampage last night. The vegetation was trampled to the ground, which opened up a shortcut for them. Not long after, they walked to the red bottle grass field discovered yesterday.

Ji Xuanyi felt the same slight numbness as last night. Just as he was about to speak, Qi Qin suddenly hugged him, covered his mouth and nose with his hands, and whispered, " Don't breathe! It's poisonous! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi elbowed Qi Qin in the abdomen, causing him to let go. He said with a sullen face, " Are you stupid? "

When Ji Xuanyi was struggling, Qi Qin also reacted and quickly let go of him, whispering: " Sorry, sorry, I forgot in a hurry. "

The fighting he learned was all real fights with real swords and guns. When he got emotional, he forgot that this was just a game.

Ji Xuanyi said dissatisfiedly: " Take some time to familiarize yourself with the buff . "

Otherwise it would be funny if he were to do the same thing when fighting with others.

Qi Qin quickly said " Oh " .

 " The mild toxicity of the red bottle grass can resist the paralysis potion ..." Ji Xuanyi said, and suddenly froze: " Huh? Why is it only five minutes? "

 " What's wrong? " Qi Qin asked.

Ji Xuanyi frowned, looking at the red buff that kept counting down under his health bar , and said: " I didn't seem to see the timer when I came here yesterday ..."

But then, Ji Xuanyi realized that the buff last night had no timer because it was a range buff . After leaving the growth area of the red bottle grass, the buff would disappear immediately.

Now it has become a timer buff , which means that they can use the poison of the red bottle grass to complete the task.

But there are only five minutes, how can that be enough?

Ji Xuanyi sighed and asked, " Can I carry the red bottle grass ? "

The chief guard replied: " No, only Madam Harman knows how to pick the red bottle grass. If you pick it the wrong way, you will be poisoned and pass out immediately. "

Although he didn't hold out much hope, after hearing this answer, Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but wonder if the difficulty of this mission had exceeded that of the Novice Town. Even if it was a secret mission, it was too much, right?

Seeing Ji Xuanyi frowning, Qi Qin asked, " Are there many robbers? "

Ji Xuanyi saw through his thoughts and said, " There are a lot of them, and if you kill one, another will appear soon, so don't even think about killing them directly . It's impossible. "

" Oh ..." Qi Qin didn't seem to be particularly willing.

However, Ji Xuanyi had no time to pay attention to him. The immunity buff only lasted five minutes, and there was only one paralysis potion, so this task required very high player operation skills. If it were someone else, they would have to wait until they were at least level 40 and could kill monsters in seconds before they could directly and roughly complete this task by killing monsters in seconds.

However, Ji Xuanyi himself is now almost the same as the so-called " other people " , so he might really have to put this task aside temporarily and upgrade.

But Ji Xuanyi was unwilling to give up just like that. He looked around, picked a very tall tree, and started climbing.

This action was a bit incomprehensible. Qi Qin walked to Ji Xuanyi, holding his butt and pushing him, and asked: " Why are you climbing a tree? "

Ji Xuanyi used Qi Qin's strength to move upwards, lifted up the hem of the warlock's robe that was in the way, put it on his shoulders, and said to Qi Qin: " Let me see how big the bandit camp is. "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, looked around, and started to climb the tree as well, leaving the captain of the guard standing alone, confused, under the tree.

As soon as Ji Xuan climbed to a place with a good view, he chose a thick branch to sit on, put his hands on his eyebrows, and gazed into the distance .

He is actually a little nearsighted, but luckily the game has built-in vision correction, so he can see things clearly in the distance .

The bandits in red clothes were densely packed on the ground, occupying almost half of the hill. Ji Xuanyi groaned , and seeing Qi Qin on the tree next to him, he asked, " If it were you, could you throw the potion in and smash it right in the middle of the camp? "

Qi Qin frowned, looked at it, and shook his head: " No, this camp is too big. If it were my previous body, I should be able to throw heavier objects, but now this body is not strong enough, and the potion is too light, so it will be thrown to the outside. " In that case, the areas where the monsters are most concentrated will be avoided.

Qi Qin, a swordsman, couldn't do it, let alone Ji Xuanyi, a weak and delicate sorcerer.

Just when Ji Xuanyi was frowning, Qi Qin said, " Although throwing it is not possible, if we rush in directly, we may be able to reach the center within five minutes. "

Ji Xuanyi put down his hand, looked up and looked at him as if he was a fool.

Qi Qin said helplessly, " I'm serious. The monsters' attacks have a certain rhythm. I'll go find two to adapt to. Although I can't kill them all , if I just defend myself, I can use the blade of this sword as a shield to block the attacks. I can walk to the middle of the camp alive. "

This statement is more reliable.

Seeing Ji Xuanyi's thoughtful expression, Qi Qin whispered: " Well, Ji, Ji Xuanyi ... if binding is different from bodyguard, shouldn't you also understand my abilities? "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then raised his head and saw Qi Qin looking at him with a cautious expression.

Qi Qin saw Ji Xuan looking at him, and quickly waved his hand and said, " No, it's okay if you don't understand. You will find out slowly ..."

Ji Xuanyi felt strange and couldn't help asking, " Why are you so afraid of me? "

Qi Qin was stunned, and said tremblingly: " I, I don't know ... Maybe the last Qi Qin left a psychological shadow on you? "

Ji Xuan had no expression on his face: " Oh. "

Chapter 15

Ji Xuanyi climbed down from the tree, and when he was almost reaching the ground, he jumped and was hugged by Qi Qin.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin laughed dryly and let go of his hand, but Ji Xuanyi was unusually not angry. He just said, " Hurry up and finish this mission. We are already far behind the main force . "

Qi Qin realized that he was talking about the level, and smiled and comforted him: " It's okay, you will catch up soon. "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said nothing.

They now have to go to the edge of the elite monster settlement to find two monsters for Qi Qin to practice with, and at the same time find the shortest straight line connecting the center of the settlement and the red bottle grass field to save time as much as possible.

When Qi Qin rushed into the bandit camp, Ji Xuanyi had to command him from the tree to ensure that he could find the right position and paralyze the elite monsters to the greatest extent. The two of them cleared the plants that blocked the way as they walked, and Ji Xuanyi was also looking around for the trees with the best view.

Near the edge of the bandit camp, Ji Xuanyi found a tree that was naturally designed for gathering intelligence. There were few branches and leaves blocking his view, and there were no other trees around, so the status of the entire camp was clearly visible.

Ji Xuanyi used his staff to carve a scratch on the tree with satisfaction.

Qi Qin glanced at the two little monsters wandering around not far away , and said to Ji Xuan: " I'm going. "

Ji Xuan nodded, and Qi Qin held the sword in both hands, trotted over to lure the two monsters, and started fighting with them.

Although they said they were fighting, in fact neither side caused any damage to the other. Qi Qin did not attack, while the monsters' every attack was blocked by Qi Qin's sword and Qi Qin was not able to lose any blood at all.

Ji Xuanyi leaned against the tree and watched Qi Qin's actions.

Although not as exaggerated as in the TV series, Qi Qin's movements are also very beautiful to look at. Not the kind of beauty that is flashy, but the beauty brought by the power contained in his every move.

The talents of the swordsman profession are added to strength and defense. Their speed is not outstanding, only slightly better than that of a warlock like Ji Xuanyi, but Qi Qin's movements seem very fast, and he can withstand the attacks of monsters every time with enough room to spare.

When Qi Qin found it easier and easier to resist the attacks of the two monsters, Ji Xuanyi finally noticed.

Qi Qin's movements were not actually fast. Each of his movements was completed using his entire body and the slightest displacement. This allowed him to break through the limitation of the swordsman's low speed and make more reactions in a limited time. When such reactions formed a rhythm, his movements seemed to become very fast in the eyes of others. Of course, in the eyes of those who fought with him, such movements were even more dazzling and difficult to deal with.

It's obviously not his own body, but he can so keenly sense the limitations and find ways to deal with them so quickly. He will definitely be a great help in the future, Ji Xuanyi thought silently. But in fact, the most suitable profession for Qi Qin should be an assault profession similar to an assassin. Being a swordsman is quite a waste. I don't know what Qi Qin was thinking at the time. Ji Xuan held the staff and watched for a long time, and Qi Qin finally got familiar with the rhythm and began to fight back.

He was only level 14, and the damage of his skills was not very high. Ji Xuanyi thought that the opponent would be restricted in attacking because of this, but he did not expect that Qi Qin did not use any skills at all, but instead used the greatsword very quickly to cause physical damage to the two monsters.

Unlike Ji Xuanyi who swung a staff to fight monsters, Qi Qin, as a swordsman, had his talent points added for physical damage. Although a single attack was not as high as the damage from skills, after multiple stacking, the damage exploded, and the swordsman's first attack skill " Sweep " became useless.

Qi Qinping without any resistance . The speed was even faster than that of a level 20 little flower .

So this is the correct way to open a holographic online game?

Qi Qin had completed a lot of tasks during this period. After killing two monsters, he squatted down and touched the corpses as if he was familiar with the process. He picked up two copper coins, and ran excitedly to Ji Xuanyi and gave them to him. He looked so happy that he was like a big dog asking for praise. Ji Xuanyi resisted for a long time before he controlled his desire to pat his head.

However, Ji Xuanyi still said from the bottom of his heart: " You are awesome. This is the first time I know that a game can be played like this. "

Qi Qin: " This ... are you praising me? "

Seeing the other party's tangled expression, Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but laugh: " I was praising you. If I wasn't playing a warlock, I might have come to you to learn a trick. "

Qi Qin also laughed when he heard this, then shook his head: " Even if I am willing to teach you, you won't be able to learn. Many things need to be practiced from a young age. I have been practicing martial arts since I can remember. I have studied for twenty years, but I am still just so-so. "

Qi Qin was right. The reason why he was so powerful now was because he spent twenty years learning martial arts. Thinking of this, Ji Xuanyi's resentment that had just arisen because of his profession disappeared.

" How is it? Are you familiar with the rhythm? " Ji Xuanyi asked.

Qi Qin replied: " It's no problem now. "

Ji Xuan said, " Okay, let's go back to the Red Bottle Grass Field now. Once you get the buff , come here immediately. You run inside, and I'll climb up the tree to direct you. When I type ' 1 ' in the private chat , you throw the potion down. "

Qi Qin nodded and was about to walk back when Ji Xuanyi suddenly thought of something and stopped him and asked, " Do you know Arabic numerals? "

Qi Qin: " eh? QUQ "

Ji Xuanyi: " ..."

Damn, that was a close call, luckily I remembered it!

After confirming several times that Qi Qin remembered what " 1 " looked like, Ji Xuanyi went back to the red bottle grass field with him.

When in the range of the Red Bottle Grass, the mild poisoning debuff would constantly jump back and forth between five minutes and four minutes and fifty-nine seconds. Ji Xuanyi exhaled lightly, and when the time became five minutes, he whispered: " Now! Let's go! "

Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi ran out of the red bottle grass field at the same time, following the path they had opened up earlier and rushing towards the bandit camp.

Five minutes was really too short. By the time Ji Xuanyi ran to the tree he had marked, more than a minute had passed.

Qi Qin raised his heavy sword and plunged into the pile of monsters, resisting the attacks according to the rhythm he had summarized before while moving forward with difficulty.

Before, Qi Qin thought that this was a game and everything would be fine as long as he was familiar with the rhythm, so he only found two small monsters to contact, but after entering the monster pile, Qi Qin knew he was wrong.

It's not that there's anything wrong with the rhythm he summarized, but that the holographic online game has no model intersperse, and the monsters are too stupid.

It would have been a good thing that there was no model penetration. The triggered monsters piled up and he only had to deal with a close circle of four or five monsters. However, without model penetration, the monsters without intelligence would collide with each other and many accidents would occur. He had originally expected a seamless routine, and the monster that should have stood behind him at the first moment was tripped by his companion and arrived at the position a few tenths of a second late.

When Qi Qin moved the sword behind him and did not feel the expected bump, he knew something was wrong.

If he resisted the attacks of a monster the whole time, could he reach the center? If he died halfway, would Ji Xuanyi think that his binding was unreliable?

Qi Qin didn't have time to think more. As the greatsword was retracted, the attack from behind should have fallen on him.

However, Qi Qin, who was mentally prepared, found that he did not lose any blood.

He was stunned for a moment and subconsciously turned around to look at Ji Xuanyi beside the tree. The other party had raised his staff and had not yet retracted it.

The little monster was controlled by Ji Xuanyi and the rhythm of his attack matched.

After Qi Qin was stunned, he couldn't help but feel warm in his heart.

Because he thought Ji Xuanyi would not understand, he did not explain his routines and rhythm to Ji Xuanyi. Without any knowledge, ordinary people who have never practiced martial arts would definitely not be able to interfere in the fight of a martial artist.

But the opponent saw his predicament at a glance in the chaos and immediately helped him regain his rhythm.

What does this indicate?

This is a tacit understanding!

Qi Qin's eyes sparkled, and he felt that Ji Xuanyi was a rare confidant in his life.

If Ji Xuanyi knew what Qi Qin was thinking, he would definitely say, " You think too much. The reason why I can provide such a good support is just because I am awesome. "

Although Ji Xuanyi could not understand the working principles of Qi Qin's tactics, he had some sense of rhythm. That was why he could tell at a glance that there was a problem with Qi Qin and gave him a hand.

But this was the only way he could help.

The warlock's talent points are such that he is weak and frail, with very low strength and physique. It is not easy for him to climb a tree, and he does not have much time left. He has no time to care about any problems that Qi Qin may encounter next.

By the time Ji Xuan climbed up to a tree fork that he had taken a fancy to, there were less than two minutes left. Although Qi Qin below was heading in the right direction, the road was blocked. As Qi Qin walked along, he attracted more and more monsters. The monsters in the inner layer would give way slightly due to the player's actions, but the monsters in the outer layer would not. They squeezed one after another and blocked Qi Qin's way forward.

There is one minute left. If the traffic jam continues like this, there won't be enough time.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and watched anxiously from the tree. He was hesitating whether to send a private message to urge Qi Qin, when he saw Qi Qin suddenly change his movements. He swung the sword, clearing a space, then took a step forward, jumped with the sword, and actually somersaulted into the air, stepped on the shoulders of the monsters, and stepped on those monsters and ran forward.

Ji Xuanyi was stunned. Is there such a thing? !

Before he could finish being surprised, Qi Qin had already run out of the encirclement of the monsters. Because he had no shoulders to step on, he fell to the ground. He was only a few dozen meters away from the center of the bandit camp!

Chapter 16

The swordsman's greatsword is not made of wood like the warlock's staff. Although it is not made of good materials such as fine steel as a novice's equipment, it is also made of ore with impurities . It is difficult for assassins with weaker physiques to hold it. A warlock like Ji Xuanyi, who is delicate and weak, cannot even lift Qi Qin's weapon.

No matter how powerful Qi Qin was, he certainly couldn't jump that high with a greatsword in his hand. After using the greatsword as a pole for pole vaulting, Qi Qin dropped his weapon without hesitation and ran through the monster pile with his bare hands.

Even if there are only a few dozen meters left, you can't be so careless!

After Ji Xuanyi came back to his senses from Qi Qin's actions, this sentence was the only thing left in his mind.

However, this was a choice Qi Qin made out of helplessness. Ji Xuanyi also knew that there was no other way to break through the encirclement of the monsters. He could only keep an eye on the direction and give Qi Qin hints. The rest was to trust the other party.

Qi Qin, who had thrown away his weapon, became more agile. All the monsters that touched him were instantly captured by him and thrown aside without any resistance. His speed increased, and in just a few seconds, he moved forward more than ten meters.

However, at this time, the poison debuff of the red bottle grass only had about twenty seconds left.

Ji Xuanyi stared at Qi Qin's position closely.

Although bare hands are flexible, they are still different from having weapons. Two fists are no match for four hands. What's more, the monsters in the game don't even have the fear of getting hurt. They rush forward like they don't care about their lives. Qi Qin's health bar has been reduced by half.

When they were less than five meters away from the center, Qi Qin's health bar had reached the bottom. Ji Xuanyi simply typed a " 1" in the private chat channel . Qi Qin did not doubt him and immediately took out the paralysis potion from his backpack and smashed it hard on the ground. The bottle shattered instantly. The blue potion atomized the moment it came into contact with the air and spread violently in all directions. All the monsters that came into contact with the mist were knocked down. Ji Xuanyi could see clearly from the tree that almost the entire camp was invaded by the light blue mist, but soon the mist dissipated.

It's just a bottle of medicine, isn't the effect too exaggerated?

Ji Xuanyi frowned, and after making sure that the paralyzing effect below had worn off, he immediately climbed down the tree and strode towards the center of the camp.

It's not that he is in a hurry to meet up with Qi Qin, but Qi Qin's weapon is still thrown on the ground. The refresh judgment of this game is very fast. If the weapon is refreshed, Qi Qin will have to fight the monster with bare hands before the next task to provide weapons arrives. However, things did not go as planned. When Ji Xuan stepped on the monsters on the ground and ran to the middle of the camp, Qi Qin's weapon had been destroyed.

Ji Xuanyi's face looked ugly. He didn't know who to vent his anger on. He almost got internal injuries from holding it in. When he found Qi Qin with a dark face, the other party was resting and recovering.

Qi Qin heard Ji Xuanyi's footsteps and was about to take credit for it, but when he looked up, he saw the other party's horrified expression. He trembled with fear and said tremblingly: " What's wrong? Did I lose it by mistake? "

Ji Xuanyi pulled the corners of his mouth with difficulty, revealing a very scary smile, and said: " It's not the wrong one, it's just that your weapon is gone. "

" So that's what it is ..." Qi Qin breathed a sigh of relief, patting his chest and forcing a smile, " It doesn't matter. Although I do practice swordsmanship, I never had the chance to use it before. When I fight for justice, I just use my fists. Whether I lose or not, it doesn't affect me much. "

Ji Xuanyi said quietly, " Are you going to use your fists to kill monsters? "

Qi Qin was stunned and said hesitantly : " My hand does hurt a little ..."

Ji Xuanyi pursed his lips and said, " Let's go and hand in the task. "

Qi Qin nodded, got up from the ground and followed Ji Xuanyi.

The captain of the guards also followed Ji Xuan as soon as he got down from the tree, and was now following behind them.

Although the place where the potion was dropped was different from what Ji Xuanyi expected, the range of the potion's effect was also beyond Ji Xuanyi's expectations. There was no awake monster in the thieves' camp. They took some effort to find the warehouse where the thieves stored the spoils, and Mrs. Harman was tied up there.

Before Ji Xuanyi could say anything, the captain of the guards had already rushed forward, cut the ropes on Madam Harman with his sword, and asked worriedly: " Madam Harman, are you okay? "

Mrs. Harman smiled weakly and shook her head at the captain of the guard.

Seeing the two of them entering the plot mode, Ji Xuanyi stood beside Qi Qin and took out the parchment.

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi's profile for a while, and found that the corners of his mouth were still tightly pursed, so he changed the subject and asked, " Is this mission almost completed? " uttered a low " hmm " .

" What are we going to do after completing this mission? "

Ji Xuanyi looked up at him and said expressionlessly: " It's not us, it's you. I have completed my mission in this town. "

Qi Qin scratched his head: " So I have to trouble you to wait for me again? "

" Um. "

Ji Xuanyi always talked a lot in places like this. Qi Qin opened his mouth, not knowing how to respond.

Fortunately, we finally finished the cutscene. Mrs. Harman stood up with the help of the captain of the guard and said to Ji Xuanyi: " Thank you, Ji Xuanyi, your generous help will be rewarded. "

After Madam Harman said this, the secret mission on Ji Xuanyi's parchment finally disappeared. At the same time, Ji Xuanyi also gained a lot of experience and directly reached level 22. Qi Qin, who assisted Ji Xuanyi in completing the task, also reached level 20.

It is worthy of being a secret mission, it gives so much experience. However, if the reward is just experience, it would be a bit of a loss.

Just as Ji Xuanyi was thinking, Mrs. Harman took out a cloth bag and a box from somewhere and handed them to Ji Xuanyi.

Before Ji Xuanyi had time to open it, a system secret chat popped up.

System private chat: Congratulations to player Ji Xuanyi for being ranked in the top 100 on the wealth list.

Ji Xuanyi: "..... ??? "

Ji Xuanyi opened the ranking interface that he had not opened since he logged into the game, selected the wealth list, and found that his name was ranked 25th on the wealth list.

It seems that RMB players have already started to exert their strength ...

No, that's not the point!

Ji Xuan stuffed the box into Qi Qin's arms and opened the bulging cloth bag. He saw that it was full of golden coins and the system instructions also popped up.

[A cloth bag filled with gold coins, a hundred in total] .

Qi Qin, who was standing by, stared in amazement and murmured, " So much gold! "

Ji Xuanyi's eyes twitched, and he handed the cloth bag to Qi Qin without hesitation.

Ji Xuanyi refreshed the page and saw that the name of the 25th person on the wealth list had become [Number One in the World] .

Qi Qin held the money bag and said helplessly: " Why give it to me ..."

" Because I have many enemies, " Ji Xuanyi breathed a sigh of relief, closed the wealth list, glanced at Qi Qin, and said in surprise: " Your family has much more money than this, why do you have this attitude? "

" Ah? " Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, and said a little embarrassedly: " Are you talking about those banknotes? I have never seen them before, so I have no idea ..."

For Qi Qin, real money is more impactful.

Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " That's RMB ... Never mind, there's no point telling you this, just open the box and have a look. " In order to avoid putting him on some weird ranking list again.

" Oh, okay. " Qi Qin put away the gold coins and opened the box.

" How about it? "

Qi Qin raised his head, looked at Ji Xuanyi, and said, " It said that you can choose a purple weapon of any profession. "

" Only one? " Ji Xuanyi frowned.

Qi Qin nodded.

" Then choose the swordsman's weapon. " Ji Xuanyi said without hesitation.
Qi Qin was stunned. If he remembered correctly, Ji Xuanyi's weapon seemed to be broken.
When he decided to bind Ji Xuanyi, he spent some effort to understand the basic settings of the game. Purple weapons should be very good things, and they are hard to come by at this stage.
Would Ji Xuanyi just give them to him?

Ji Xuanyi is a gentleman, but he can't be so shameless as to accept it!

Qi Qin's face was solemn, and he said solemnly: " Xuan Yi, I know you are kind-hearted, but such a valuable thing, I ..."

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly.

Qi Qin: " I, I, I, I'll take it ..."

Ji Xuanyi: " Yes. "

Qi Qin: " QAQ ! " That's not what I wanted to say!

No, is there any way to treat psychological trauma?

Ji Xuanyi knew what Qi Qin, the naive person, was thinking without even looking at him, and said, " I'm not giving you the weapon because I'm kind-hearted. It's just that compared to an auxiliary, the output will be more beneficial with this, so don't think too much about it. "

Although Ji Xuanyi thought he had explained it very clearly, to Qi Qin, it was no different from an excuse to avoid making him feel guilty. He was deeply moved and secretly swore in his heart that he must protect Ji Xuanyi well and not let his enemies touch him.

Qi Qin was moved by himself, while Ji Xuanyi looked at Mrs. Harman again.

Madam Harman took off a necklace from her neck, put it in Ji Xuanyi's hand, and said with a smile: " The previous gifts will help you in your adventure, but this necklace is a personal gift from me as a warlock to the younger generation. It will help you on your way to becoming a great warlock. "

" Warlocks are born lonely, but companions are indispensable for survival. Work hard, Ji Xuanyi. "

Chapter 17

The necklace that Mrs. Harman finally gave to Ji Xuanyi had only one attribute, which was to slightly increase resistance to curse, but it was actually of no use to Ji Xuanyi.

The Warlock profession is naturally endowed with extremely high magic resistance and curse immunity. Unless one is extremely unlucky, it is rare for one to be hit by too many curse skills in a row. This necklace can only be said to be the icing on the cake.

Ji Xuan turned around and glanced at Qi Qin, who was gesturing with the purple sword in his hand with a conflicted look on his face.

No, calling it a big sword is a bit of an injustice. The size of the sword can only be called a giant sword. It is as wide as a person and as high as Qi Qin's chest. It is really too big.

When Ji Xuanyi saw it for the first time, he thought Qi Qin had chosen a shield as his weapon. After all, with Ji Xuanyi's height, the sword was almost reaching his neck, and he could be blocked by just bending over.

This giant sword is named [Guardian]. There are subtle dark patterns on the purple sword body. It can be seen that it is the same warlock dark pattern on the cover page of Madam Harman's notebook. It grows on the swordsman's weapon, and it feels great no matter how you look at it.

The gay one among the gays ...

Ji Xuanyi was so shocked by his own imagination, it couldn't be that stupid. It should be just the game setting. Madam Harman is a warlock, and he is also a warlock, so the special reward of the secret mission was triggered.

The attributes of the Guardian are more inclined towards defense, especially physical defense, and the magic resistance is slightly weaker. However, as a swordsman's weapon, it is also very rare. In the later stage, it should be able to be used as a T weapon. However, now because of its quality, its attack power is relatively strong. In Qi Qin's hands, it should be able to exert great power.

Ji Xuanyi originally thought so, but when he saw Qi Qin's furrowed brows, he knew that it would be very difficult.

" What's wrong? " Ji Xuanyi asked.

Qi Qin raised his guard and waved it, sighing, " It's too big. Why are all the swords here so big? "

" You used to use a light sword? "

Qi Qin frowned and said, " There are very few people who use heavy swords in our area. The swordsmanship my master taught me is especially light and agile. Although I have never used it much before, if I can use a light sword, I will probably have few rivals in this game. "

Ji Xuanyi pondered for a moment and said, " Then you should really try another strategy. The swordsman's equipment will only get heavier in the later stages. If you want to use the flying and running moves you did today, you will probably have to throw away the heavy armor and sword together. "

" Eh? Is that so? " Qi Qin looked very frustrated.

Ji Xuan instinctively reached out to touch his head, but he suddenly came to his senses halfway through the action, patted his shoulder and said, " It's okay, even the most basic martial arts skills are enough here, at worst you can wait for other games to come out ..."

Ji Xuanyi stopped talking halfway.

Qi Qin asked: " Another game, then what? "

Then you can choose a new profession, Ji Xuanyi originally wanted to say this, but at that time he didn't know whether Qi Qin would still play with him, or maybe Qi Qin would stop playing games after quitting this game, so it's hard to say.

After thinking for a while, Ji Xuanyi just shook his head and said, " Nothing, let's go back to town, finish your remaining tasks, and go to another map. "

" Oh ..." Qi Qin nodded hesitantly .

When Ji Xuanyi accompanied him down the mountain, he found that the grass and trees on the mountain had been refreshed. He thought that Mrs. Harman would not have to face a wall with a hole in it when she returned home.

Qi Qin had actually completed the second half of his mission. Ji Xuanyi had been tortured by the secret mission for two days and didn't want to move anymore, so he found a tea stall in the town to cool off and watched Qi Qin running around the town to complete the task.

After Qi Qin finally received the task of leaving Xinmu Town, the two of them determined the next city to go to and went offline to rest.

After dinner, Ji Xuanyi went to the forum again. The post of the traveling wizard was still floating on the front page, and it was getting more and more popular. Ji Xuanyi scrolled down speechlessly and found a featured post that summarized the map.

1I

The author of the post: After much investigation, lurking in the forum, and asking friends in the three-dimensional world, I finally managed to summarize the maps that are currently open in "Domain"!

2I

I just want to travel: OP, do you want to cooperate with the travel wizard on the homepage ...

3I

I just want to eat: Add 1

4I

The original poster: Stop joking. What people are speculating is the world map. Do you bring a world map with you when you travel?

5I

I just want to travel: ... Oh, then I'm going to post it.

6I

OP: No thanks!

7I

OP: Let me tell you the information I have summarized now.

After coming out of the novice village, there are five novice towns with very old settings, such as water, fire, earth, wind and wood. After that, each town has three branch options, which is the second map we are upgrading now.

The question that puzzles me now is, from the Novice Village to the Novice Town and then to the city where we are now, are these locations distributed radially or in a fan shape?

8I

A bored casual player: Is it okay for the original poster to go off topic? Please put some useful information out there.

9I

Also wandering around in the game today: Row Upstairs.

...

The author of the post: I'm back. All the posts have sunk after a while of absence. I haven't abandoned the post nor have I gone off topic. I was just making pictures. I'll post them down below.

Ji Xuan took a look at the pictures posted by the poster. One was a map with Novice Town as the center and marked radially, and the other was a map with Novice Town as the apex and extended in a fan shape. Although the drawings were very simple, the poster wrote out the names of all the cities, and it seemed that he had spent some effort to summarize and ask.

30I

I was also wandering around in the game today: This picture is too confusing, is there a more detailed one?

31I

The original poster: How much more detailed can it be ? It's not easy to find so many city names, and not everyone will mark the name of the map where they are located on the forum.

32I

I'll just take a look: Can you change the popular science content in your post to spam? I can't stand it anymore.

There were more than a dozen posts below, and the poster of the thread finally couldn't sit still anymore, so he started talking about some things he had heard from others. Some of them happened to be the cities where the people in the thread were located, and he would pop up to add to or correct the situation. After talking about them one by one, there was actually a lot of useful information, no wonder it was featured.

Ji Xuan glanced at it briefly and continued to flip through the pages, finally coming to the city he and Qi Qin had chosen.

501I

Original poster: What were we talking about? Oh, Green Forest City. The name of this city sounds scary. It feels like there are 300 green forest heroes as soon as you enter. You will be robbed at any time. I heard that some people climbed over the wall to go abroad. This map is also rated as the most relaxing city suitable for retirement?

502I

Little Little Bird: There's nothing we can do about that. Green Forest doesn't mean this abroad.

503I

Original poster: Anyway, I only heard that a cavalryman in Green Forest City completed a hidden mission and got a horse?

504I

Green Forest Flower: That's right, I think everyone knows about this. That person rides a horse around the streets every day, it's so annoying ...

505I

A bored casual player: I want to know how to trigger the hidden mission, it sounds so cool.

506I

I also want to hide: Didn't that person send out the strategy guide?

507I

A Flower in the Green Forest: Even though that person is really annoying and acts so arrogant, he is lucky and it was triggered. Whether he shares it or not is his own business, so let's not say anything more.

The Knight class is somewhat similar to the Warlock class in some ways, but to be honest the situation is better than that of the Warlock.

When Domain was first released, many people chose the Knight role because they could ride a horse. Many people have never ridden a horse in their lives. How cool! However, when they entered the game, they found that the system did not give the Knight a horse at the beginning. To fully exert the Knight's combat power, the player had to find a horse by himself. However, there were not many equipment resources in the early stage, let alone horses? Knight players could only walk on the ground with a gun, and were jokingly called spearmen.

This setting of being born with a lame leg is in the same boat as the warlock who has no attack and no healing.

However, the spearmen have high attack power and are still more popular than warlocks, so they were ridiculed for a while when the server was first launched. Unexpectedly, when the large army was only in its twenties, some people got horses through secret missions.

Speaking of which, Ji Xuanyi felt that he could understand the mentality of that person who rode a horse and paraded through the city every day.

When the warlock profession is promoted, he probably won't be able to resist becoming high-profile and cursing whoever he catches.

510I

Newbie: What else? Everyone? Newbies can complete the mission of entering the city tomorrow. Is there anything else I need to pay attention to in Green Forest City?

511I

Xiaoxiaoxiaoxiaoniao: Hmm, it seems that there is no more? Oh, by the way, although the guild system has not been opened yet, there is already an offline guild in Green Forest City, called Wanshi Fengyu, with dozens of people. They say it is a small guild of relatives and friends. Try not to mess with them, otherwise you will be reincarnated to level 20. Although the level is not very high now, the monster spawning points are also theirs. If you can't spawn monsters, you can only find other maps ...

512I

Newbie: ... I know what you mean, I'm also following the warlock travel post on the homepage ... But, you, how do you tell who is the one who can handle all kinds of things?

513I

Little Little Bird: This is easy, they all write words on their faces ...

514I

Newbie: ???

Chapter 18

Ji Xuanyi was originally very puzzled by the idea of writing the gang name on the face, but later he thought that although it was an offline gang, it was impossible for dozens of people to know each other well, and it would be embarrassing if they couldn't recognize each other and caused friction. Although writing on the face was a bit embarrassing, there were few people who played holographic online games who were not immature, so the acceptance rate should be high, right?

However, this matter is not something Ji Xuanyi needs to consider for the time being . The section of road between Xinmu Town and Green Forest City is a mission plot that needs to be completed slowly. Even if Qi Qin kills monsters very quickly, the road still needs to be walked step by step. By the time they reach Green Forest City, it will be the third day.

Thanks to the previous secret mission, Ji Xuan was already level 24 when he arrived at Green Forest City, which was considered to be the average level of the large force, and Qi Qin was almost at level 23.

The scale of Green Forest City is much larger than Xinmu. After passing the road sign, we walked through a dense forest of about a hundred meters before we saw the walls of Green Forest City covered with vines.

The gate of Green Forest City is also very tall, guarded by two neat rows of guards. Their levels and health are all question marks, and they look very difficult to deal with.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin handed over the parchment with their mission written on it. The leading guard took a look and smiled at them, " Welcome to Green Forest City. "

Qi Qin's face became serious, and he was about to clasp his fists in return, but Ji Xuan nodded to the guards and dragged him directly into the city.

Although Xinmu Town was divided into three maps, because the level span of Green Forest City's missions was too large, except for one or two players at the top of the pyramid who went to the next map, almost everyone in the server was stuck in the map of this level.

As soon as Qi Qin entered the city, he was shocked by the colorfully dressed players coming and going, and couldn't help but say: " There are so many people ..."

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said nothing.

Like Xinmu Town, Green Forest City's first task is to report to the City Lord's Mansion, and they will stay here for a long time.

Ji Xuanyi brought Qi Qin into the city, but they were stopped after taking a few steps.

Ji Xuan looked up and found that it was a wizard, who wrapped himself tightly in a black robe, just like a vampire in an old movie or TV series, with shifty eyes, and approached him stealthily. This action was too suspicious, just like some weird pervert. Ji Xuanyi almost attacked him directly, but he held back and said, " What are you doing? "

The mage didn't notice the murderous intent in Ji Xuanyi at all, and laughed obscenely twice: " Brother, do you want a map? "

 " Map? " Ji Xuanyi was stunned.

 " Yes, it's a map, purely hand-drawn, and I guarantee that all the buildings and roads are marked for you. " The wizard said, looking around and lowering his voice: " Green Forest City is very large, and it is common to get lost. It will be much more convenient to have a map. "

It turned out that he was a map seller ... but looking at his appearance, what he said was really hard to believe. Ji Xuan frowned and looked at him.

 " I'm not lying to you, " the mage said helplessly, probably because he had experienced similar treatment many times before: " Why are you all like this? You shouldn't be so concerned about appearance. How about this, let's be friends and I'll give you a discount, one silver coin, how about that? "

In fact, it had nothing to do with the appearance association. It was just that he was too suspicious. However, Ji Xuanyi felt that the other party did not seem to have any bad intentions, so he threw out a silver coin and nodded, saying, "Okay, give me one."

Players who arrived at Green Forest City basically had some savings, but one silver coin to buy a map was enough to make some people feel troubled. When the mage received the silver coin, his eyes lit up. He probably didn't expect that business would be so good. But when Ji Xuan said this, his expression suddenly became nervous and he whispered, "Shh, brother, keep your voice down!"

Ji Xuanyi asked: "What's wrong?"

The mage looked around, crouched down and waved at Ji Xuan, then mysteriously led the two to a shadowy place on the side and whispered, "Seeing that you are a straightforward person who pays money, you won't sell me out for such a small amount of money, so I'll tell you."

"You know, the cost of drawing a map is just a piece of paper, and it depends purely on your skills. It's almost a business with no capital, so basically everyone who can draw will try to sell maps at the entrance of the city gate."

"But there is a gang called "Wind and Rain" in Green Forest City. There is also a guy in their gang who can draw. They also sell maps. Before, they just told us to stand aside and not affect their business. But a few days ago, a newcomer came in. His maps looked like they were printed. He took away their business. As a result, he was directly demoted to level 20 and kicked out..."

Qi Qin, who was following behind, curiously poked his head over Ji Xuan's shoulder: "Jealous?"

"Yes, hey, don't interrupt me, what happened next?" Ji Xuanyi stretched out his hand and pressed Qi Qin's head back, and continued to ask.

The mage replied: "Later, Wanshi Fengyu stopped us from selling the map, saying that we would be the first to get it if we caught it. Sigh... I have a pity for the blue staff in my favorite trading house. I only need 20 silver coins. I don't know if it will still be there when I save up the money."

Ji Xuanyi frowned and reminded, "If you have 20 silver coins, you'd better go do the quest. We are the last players in Xinmu Town, and there weren't many people on the road when we came here."

"Ah?" Upon hearing the news, the wizard's face fell, and he said in grief: "Then I will never get my staff again, right?"

"Didn't the mission on the way here give me a blue weapon?" Ji Xuanyi asked curiously, "Why do you want to buy a blue weapon? Are its properties good?"

That's right, because of the task of providing weapons on the road, Ji Xuanyi finally got rid of the gray staff.

The wizard said, "The properties are similar, but the one in the trading house is the best looking. I heard it was dropped by an elite monster. The shape is really cool. I'm an art student, and I'm not competitive. This is the only requirement I have for the game. Can't I satisfy my chuunibyou?"

Ji Xuanyi: "... Okay."

Qi Qin poked Ji Xuanyi's lower back.

When Ji Xuan turned around, he heard Qi Qin whisper: " What is touch? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

We've moved on to another topic, why are you still worrying about this?

However, it was not easy for Qi Qin to adapt to this world quickly. Ji Xuanyi patiently explained:

" Ch is a person who is very good at painting. "

Qi Qin suddenly realized.

Ji Xuan asked the mage, " Green Forest City is so big, is there only one Wanshi Fengyu? There are only a few dozen people. If you can get another gang, your situation will be much better, right? "

A gang can be said to be a shameless local tyrant, but when there are several more gangs and opponents, they will start to be hypocritical and find excuses for everything they do. They will casually kill people and it will be easy for opponents to seize the opportunity, arouse public anger and break them up.

The wizard sighed and said, " It's just that miserable ... There is only one Wanshi Fengyu in Green Forest City. But to be honest, there is no guild system now, and it's already amazing that they can gather dozens of people. Even in the guilds of hundreds of people in keyboard online games, the only people who really know each other are those in the management. I heard that there are many guilds in the neighboring Red Leaf City, all of which have more than a dozen people, like street thugs ..."

This does make sense. After all, it is a holographic online game, which is very different from a keyboard online game.

Ji Xuan nodded.

The wizard said, " Anyway, if you see someone with the words 'all hell breaks loose' written on his face on the street, just don't mess with them. They're not psychopaths who will kill anyone they catch. "

Ji Xuanyi, who used to kill anyone he caught for a while : "..."

Ji Xuanyi pondered and said, " You can't say that you are crazy if you kill anyone you catch ... It's too much of a map cannon. "

The mage looked confused: " Really? Is this considered a map cannon? "

 " Ahem, " Ji Xuanyi changed the subject and said, " I went to the forum to read the posts before I came here. Do they really write the name of the gang on their faces? "

 " Yes, " said the wizard, " it was designed by the guy in their gang who can draw. It looks pretty good. "

After saying that, the wizard untied his tightly wrapped robe, took out a map that had been folded several times, and stuffed it into Ji Xuanyi's pocket along with the silver coins, saying, " Since you have no hope of buying a staff, consider this map a gift from me. Let's add each other as friends, and you can ask me if you have any questions in the future. "

Ji Xuanyi took the map but didn't take the money: " Keep the money. After all, you took the trouble to draw it. What's your ID ? "

The mage didn't act pretentiously. When Ji Xuanyi said this, he put away the silver coins, bowed to Ji Xuanyi in an awkward manner, and said with a smile: " Okay, okay, I have a calf cramp. " Ji Xuanyi: "... what? "

I felt a little embarrassed about the cramp in my calf, scratched my head and said, " I'm bad at naming. When I was creating my character, my calf twitched a little, so I named it this way. I just wanted to follow the trend and play a holographic online game, but I didn't know I would fall into this trap. I have to bear this name for so long. Sigh ... what's your name? "

Ji Xuanyi twitched his lips and said, " Ji Xuanyi. "

" Oh, " Xiaotui nodded, added him, then looked at Qi Qin and asked, " Where is this big brother? "

" My name is Qi Qin. " Qi Qin answered subconsciously.

Ji Xuanyi: "...

Xiaotui checked and said, " That's not right. Qi Qin is an archer, not you, right? "

After all, the shield Qi Qin brought was so huge that anyone with eyes could see that he was a swordsman.

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, then he reacted and stammered, " Oh, yes, my name is not Qi Qin, I am ... I am ..."

Qi Qin hesitated for a long time, but was too embarrassed to tell his ID , so Ji Xuan had to help him out: " He is the best in the world. "

Qi Qin's face suddenly turned red and he wanted to cover his face with his hands.

Ji Xuanyi was speechless and said, " I'm not embarrassed when my calf cramps, why are you embarrassed? "

" Ah ... Ah ..." Qi Qin sighed repeatedly but couldn't speak.

Instead, the calf exclaimed in surprise and whispered, " The best in the world! The one ranked 25th on the rich list?! I'm hugging such a big thigh?! "

Chapter 19

Xiaotui was so shocked by the shock that her eyes widened into a ball, but she managed not to scream out loud. On the one hand, she was afraid of exposing herself, and on the other hand, she was worried that such big thighs would attract onlookers.

Moreover, this number one in the world seems to be very ashamed of his ID . What if he gets angry out of shame?

But after reacting, Xiaotui's eyes were still sparkling, and he said enthusiastically: " Wow, Thighs, you are so rich! To be honest, your ID is really cool! Do you want me to take you around Green Forest City? "

His calves were almost sticking to Qi Qin, which was very shameless.

However, the appearance of the calves was not pleasing to the eye, and Qi Qin repeatedly refused: " It's not that I don't have it ..."

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " You are, you have it. "

Qi Qin: " QAQ ! "

But the commotion ended after a while. After seeing Qi Qin's helpless look, Ji Xuanyi patted Xiaotui's shoulder and said, " Stop commotion. He and I haven't handed in our mission yet. Go upgrade yourself. "

Xiao Jiao saw it when he bought the map just now. Ji Xuanyi was actually the one who made the decision. He immediately let go of Qi Qin and said to Ji Xuanyi: " Wow, upgrading ... Xiao Ji, you say it's easy. You don't know how many tasks there are in Green Forest City. I left Xinmu very early, but I have been here for more than a week, and I'm only at level 22. "

This is normal. The monster spawning point in Xinmu has not been discovered by anyone except Xiaohua and his friends. Most of the players at the beginning received the quest at level 16 and left. They walked all the way to Green Forest City, which was only a little over level 20. With a low level, it was difficult to complete the quest, and the upgrade efficiency was naturally low.

" Didn't you go to kill monsters? There must be a monster spawning spot in Green Forest City, right? " Ji Xuanyi asked.

Although Xiaotui wasted a lot of time drawing maps and selling maps, if he had killed monsters more frequently, he would definitely not be at level 22 now.

Who knew that Xiaotui said confidently: " How boring it is to kill monsters! I am here to experience the power of Chuunibun, not to move bricks! "

" Besides, those who spawn monsters frequently are only at level 25 or 26 now, " Xiaotui sighed, " I think hidden quests are faster to level up. I heard that the top player on the level list, Yunzhongjian, was just lucky. He triggered several hidden quests in a row and was promoted directly! "

Ji Xuanyi remained noncommittal. It was true that hidden quests gave a lot of experience, but it was not easy to complete them. Besides, he knew that the man called Yun Zhongjian was already level 40. In addition to hidden quests, there would probably be a lot of monsters spawning.

As Xiaotui said this, he looked at Ji Xuanyi's level and was shocked: " How come you are already level 24?! Didn't you just come to Green Forest City? "

Ji Xuan remained calm and said, " Well, we found a monster spawning spot in Xinmu, and we came here only after it was full. "

" Oh, no wonder you guys came so late ..." Xiaotui suddenly realized: " Then what are you going to do now? "

" Go find the city lord. "

" Shall I lead the way for you? " the calf asked enthusiastically.

Ji Xuanyi waved his hand and said, " No, you should upgrade, otherwise you won't be able to keep up with the main force. "

Rejection was written all over the calf's face.

My calves didn't keep up, I guess they went to do a mission. After all, experiencing life is one thing, but in the game world, only by upgrading can you experience more fun.

Green Forest City is indeed a city suitable for retirement, with a great environment, sunshine, shade, breeze, not to mention greenery. If it really exists in reality, it must be a 5A- level scenic spot.

The only thing that is not so satisfying is that the tasks are extremely complicated and trivial, and experience is only given sporadically. Perhaps the official intention is to let players experience more of the life here.

Realizing that it was probably impossible to level up quickly in this city, and not having the courage to leave and travel around the world without any quest instructions, many players simply gave up, slowly leveling up while learning to set up stalls in the city.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked along the way. In addition to various grocery stores , they also saw many interesting players and vendors. In addition to the most common ring-tossing game, there were also singing or dancing performances, swordsmen breaking rocks with their chests, and archers shooting darts with their eyes blindfolded ...

Ji Xuan had a blank expression on his face, but Qi Qin was watching with great interest. But overall, this city is quite interesting.

After Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked through the busiest street, they were almost at the City Lord's Mansion.

The guards at the City Lord's Mansion were not as many as those at the city gate, but they were obviously more burly. They wore heavy armor and their faces were covered by helmets.

Although his expressions could not be seen, his murderous aura could be felt . Ji Xuanyi estimated that the opponent could kill five of him in one second with a single attack .

When Qi Qin approached, he couldn't help but frowned, and subconsciously walked in front, protecting Ji Xuan behind him.

Ji Xuanyi did not say anything. The awareness of output and support needs to be cultivated all the time.

After they entered, a servant took their parchment and led them to another person who was dressed more luxuriously.

Ji Xuan took a look and found that this was the steward of the City Lord's Mansion.

The butler smiled at them and said, " The city lord is busy with affairs, so I will entertain you. "

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows. What's so busy about that?

The butler smiled and said some polite words, then said: " Then please take a good tour of Green Forest City. "

At this point, the task on the parchment was completed, and no new tasks appeared, which meant that they had to go to the city to complete the tasks and upgrade themselves.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin looked at each other and left the City Lord's Mansion.

" Although this city is quite lively, the city lord seems to have a high air? " Qi Qin couldn't help but say.

 " It's the game setting, " Ji Xuanyi said, " I'm not angry. "

Qi Qin: "..."

Qi Qin turned to Ji Xuanyi's side and looked at him, and found that there was indeed murderous intent in the other's eyes.

However, this degree was still considered light, he was just fooled. When Ji Xuanyi was despised by the mayor in Xinmu Town, he almost fought with him.

Qi Qin said tremblingly: " Then where are we going now? "

Ji Xuanyi stopped and took out the map given by his calf from his backpack. He found that after unfolding the map, it was as big as a carpet. However, being big has its advantages. The map is very clear, and some interesting places are even marked with Q- version avatars and simple words.

Ji Xuanyi searched around and pointed at a gold coin symbol and said, " This one, the trading house. I want to go there first and take a look. "

Qi Qin looked at it and said hesitantly , " But there is a skull painted on the street that we have to pass to get to the trading house. It also says that newcomers should try not to go there. What does it mean? Is there any danger there? "

Ji Xuanyi blinked and said, " I don't know. "

 " Should we take a detour? " Qi Qin asked.

 " No beat around the bush. " Ji Xuanyi answered very straightforwardly.

Yes, Ji Xuanyi doesn't look like someone who would take a detour. It should be said that after seeing such a sign, he would want to see what's going on.

Qi Qin would not object to Ji Xuanyi's decision. He had learned martial arts for so many years. Although he had a good temper, he was not a coward. So the two of them walked straight towards the street.

Green Forest City is very large, so there is certainly more than one street suitable for setting up stalls. The place that Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin passed by was just like the street they had seen before. There were many shops here. Logically speaking, it should be suitable for players to set up stalls, but looking around, there were basically no players strolling around on this street, let alone setting up stalls. Most of them were people running quests.

This should be a normal scene, but compared with the previous street, it is inevitable that people feel that this place looks a bit weird.

Ji Xuan looked around and there didn't seem to be anything strange. Just as he was about to walk over, he heard a particularly exaggerated and eloquent scolding.

 " Go! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

A knight in light armor holding a silver-white spear rode a white horse in a very ostentatious manner and walked over from the other end of the street with a frivolous look on his face.

The man was not actually ugly, at least he was much better looking than Calf Cramp, but that expression made him look so annoying that Ji Xuanyi subconsciously took out his staff.

However, Ji Xuanyi did not take action in the end. After all, in his eyes, there were too many people who deserved a beating, and he did not have the time to kill them one by one.

Many people who were doing tasks on the road looked at the knight with surprise and envy. Some girls' eyes were shining, but there were also many people with blank expressions, their eyes were as still as if they were dead, and they even had a bit of disgust.

The former is obviously a newcomer who has only been here for a short time, while the latter is nothing new.

Ji Xuanyi looked at the knight again and found a silver-white pattern under his eyes. He didn't know if it was a tattoo or something, but the style was quite iconic.

Ji Xuanyi walked a little closer and took a closer look, and found that the pattern was actually made up of four words.

Everything is stormy.

It turns out that the knight who completed the secret mission was the man who dealt with all the hardships.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and didn't want to get involved in this matter. After all, the other party didn't provoke him.

The knight rode his horse slowly, looking down at the people on the road. Suddenly, his eyes lit up, and he rode a few steps faster. He came to a lovely female priest, bent down, performed an inappropriate knight's salute, and said: " My beautiful lady, would you like to ride with me? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Damn, so disgusting.

But the girl didn't necessarily think so. Her face turned red and she looked at the knight at a loss. Before Ji Xuanyi could make any move, he heard a girl next to him sniffle and curse in a low voice: " Scumbag ! "

Chapter 20

Half of the people on the street cast envious glances at the knight, while the other half looked disgusted. However, almost everyone kept silent, and the voice of the girl next to them was really curious.

Ji Xuan turned his head to look at her. She was also a female priest, and she was quite pretty. The knight did not try to flirt with her, most likely because she had rejected him once before. But that didn't mean he would call him a scumbag.

Noticing Ji Xuanyi's gaze, the female pastor looked back, was stunned for a moment, and then said in surprise: " Are you new here too? "

Her expression was so vivid, it was as if she was saying, oh my god, there are normal, disgusting and stupid new people appearing.

Ji Xuanyi was speechless for a moment, then nodded: " I've heard of this knight on the forum. Is he hanging around here all day? "

The female pastor showed an understanding expression and nodded, " Yes, this street was originally more lively than the street stalls next door, because there are many tasks here. Ever since that guy came here, he has driven everyone away. "

Ji Xuanyi: "... not that serious, right? "

The female priest said, " Of course it's not just annoying. That guy always harasses female players like this. Some idiots actually flirt with him. After he gets a girl, he takes advantage of his ability to handle any storm and walks around the street like a beggar, taking things from girls for free to please them. After a while, no one will leave him alone. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

He wanted to take back what he had said before, that he could understand this knight. He couldn't understand this kind of person at all. No matter how powerful the warlock was, he couldn't do such a thing.

Seeing Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything, the female pastor snorted coldly and said, " This guy is just lucky that he got a hidden mission. Otherwise, for a scum like him, no one would dare to recruit him no matter what. "

" What do you mean? " Ji Xuanyi asked curiously.

The female pastor asked: " Do you know Mu Xuanyi? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin curiously poked his head out from Ji Xuanyi's shoulder.

Ji Xuanyi moved uncomfortably and said, " No, I don't know. "

The female pastor was not angry and said, " My boyfriend is very low-key, so it's normal that he doesn't know. "

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but ask: " What does this have to do with Mu Xuanyi? "

The female pastor said seriously: " You don't know Mu Xuanyi, but you should know about the sensational 818 two years ago, right? "

Ji Xuanyi showed a confused expression.

The female pastor was very disappointed and said: " Hey, you guys, all you do is fight and kill . Can't you eat more melons?! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin: " Eat melon? "

The female pastor was stunned for a moment before she noticed Qi Qin. Before she could say anything, Ji Xuanyi had already pushed Qi Qin back and said to her, " You talk, and we listen. " The female pastor looked at Qi Qin suspiciously, then turned to Ji Xuan and said, " Two years ago, there was a sensational post about a scumbag in the gaming forum. The man hooked up with many girls, not only cheating them of their money, but also causing a death. Not to mention the girl who posted the post, there were more than 20 victims who followed suit! "

Ji Xuanyi seemed to remember something and said, " Is this the person? "

" Yes! " the female pastor was indignant: " It's this scumbag! Alas ... the automatic beautification effect over the network is too strong. Look at how miserable this guy is now. If it weren't for this horse, how could any girl be fooled! "

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but nodded in agreement. Before he could say anything, Qi Qin interrupted and asked, " What about Mu Xuanyi? "

The female pastor showed an expression that said " this young man is very sensible " and said, " When Mu Xuan heard about this, he immediately took action and killed this guy so badly that he disappeared without a trace. He also left a message saying that if he dared to cheat on me again, he would kill him and make him quit! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Did he say that?

Qi Qin nodded seriously behind him and said, " It seems that this Mu Xuanyi is also a man of character and chivalry. "

Ji Xuanyi was silent for a moment, and couldn't help but nudge him with his elbow.

Before Qi Qin could respond, the female pastor became unhappy and said to Ji Xuan: " What are you doing? He is right! I, Mu Xuan, am so kind! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin was scared at first, but when he saw Ji Xuanyi was silent, he became excited again and asked, " Since Mu Xuanyi is so powerful, why is this person so arrogant? "

Because Mu Xuanyi has become a support, Ji Xuanyi answered silently in his heart.

The female pastor said seriously, " It's because the setting of this game is too annoying! In the novice town, you have to choose one out of five, and after choosing one out of five, you have to choose one out of three. No matter whether people in the map go back or go to the side, there is no guidance and they get lost in a minute. Even Mu Xuanyi would have a hard time finding this place. If it weren't for this, Wanshi Fengyu would not dare to accept this scumbag into the gang. "

The female pastor looked as if Mu Xuanyi would kill this man and force him to quit in a matter of minutes.

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but say, " Mu Xuanyi has so many enemies that he might not even remember this kind of person. "

Hearing Ji Xuanyi's words, Qi Qin was stunned, as if he realized something, and suddenly turned around to look at him.

Ji Xuan glared at him, and Qi Qin quickly shrank back.

" Ah? I didn't think of that, but it seems possible ..." The female pastor nodded in agreement, then asked curiously: " Eh? Don't you know Mu Xuanyi? How do you know he has so many enemies? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " I just said it casually. Does he really have so many enemies? "

The female priest felt like something was wrong, but couldn't put it into words, so she could only say: s'lt " PVP , everyone has a few enemies, it's normal ... Hey! That girl rejected him! Not stupid! "

Ji Xuan turned around and found that the cute-looking girl blushed and waved at the knight. The man's face turned ugly for a moment, but soon he put on a smile again and whispered something to the girl. After the girl showed an embarrassed look, he pulled the reins as if nothing had happened and continued to pace away.

The female pastor said to Ji Xuan, " I'm going to add that smart girl as a friend! You guys can do whatever you want! "

Before Ji Xuanyi could say anything, the female pastor ran towards the girl like a gust of wind.

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi cautiously.

Ji Xuan glanced at him and raised his eyebrows.

Qi Qin said: " Um ... should we go to the trading house? Or should we chase after that scumbag? "

 " What do you think? "

 " Scumbag? "

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " Since you want to chase after a scumbag, I will reluctantly accompany you for a while. "

" Huh? " Qi Qin looked confused.

When the pastor first mentioned it, Ji Xuanyi actually didn't remember it. After all, it happened two years ago, and he was killing all day long during that time . How could he remember such a thing?

However, when he talked about the twenty or so girls who were cheated later, he remembered that this incident really happened.

The scumbag's name was Wu Jian. He didn't take the initiative to look for him at that time. After all, Wu Jian was famous for being a scumbag. He had little intersection with Ji Xuanyi's circle. The reason why he was targeted by Ji Xuanyi was because the girl who wrote the 818 was in the gang that Ji Xuanyi was preparing to break up.

It was a big gang. Generally, although such a big gang seems to have great power, the only people who are truly united are the management. Most of the people are there to enjoy the gang's benefits. They will help out during dungeons or fights, but they will leave without hesitation. The girl was one of them. In addition, Ji Xuanyi was in a good mood that day, and she was not very good, so it was boring to kill her. Therefore, after sending the few people who were doing the mission with her back to the resurrection point, he did not attack her. He just said to her directly: 'I won " kill you if you leave the gang . "

The girl was also very straightforward and quit the gang in front of Ji Xuanyi.

When Ji Xuan turned around and was about to leave, he was stopped.

" Can you help me kill someone? " The girl said, " How much is it? I'll give it to you. "

Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to pay attention to her at that time and just walked away.

As a result, when he ambushed the gang members again, he found that the number had been added back to the gang. He thought he was tricked, so he killed her . As a result, the girl was lying on the ground, and she still wanted to pay him to help kill people .

Ji Xuanyi realized at this time that he had blocked the private chat channel for a long time, and this person added back to the gang just to find him.

But Ji Xuanyi still didn't want to care. He was already in a mess at the time, so he didn't have time to care about others. He just said, " You guys are such a big help, it won't take me a minute to vent your anger. Why do you have to look for me? "

The girl said: " Because that person also has a gang, and now my gang is in a panic because of your killing . How could they be willing to cause trouble again for a nobody? You are the most powerful person I have ever met, please help me. "

After listening to this, Ji Xuanyi directly gave her the contact information of the most famous killer gang on the server and left.

All the people in the killer gang are assassins, and there are masters among them. Their daily routine is to take orders to avenge others. The prices of heads are clearly marked, and it is determined how much money is paid for each killing .

Ji Xuanyi thought that the matter was over, but a few days later, he was caught by that number again.

She said that the other party also bought members of the killer gang, and now she is being hunted .

killed by an assassin who appeared out of nowhere and fell in front of Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

The girl was very calm: " You see, that's it. He cheated me of a lot of money, and he knows that I can't compete with him in terms of money. Only you can help me. "

Chapter 21

The girl's name was Xilai, and in the end she managed to get Ji Xuanyi to help her despite his busy schedule.

However, when Ji Xuanyi was hunting Wu Jian all over the world, Xilai was also being hunted by the assassin hired by Wu Jian . Ji Xuanyi asked her whether she wanted to stop. After all, Wu Jian was already a little scared and proposed that if Ji Xuanyi stopped killing him, he could also stop offering a reward for Xilai.

Xilai seemed very happy. Although he was killed every day in the game and couldn't do anything, he still said to Ji Xuanyi: " It doesn't matter. I haven't A this game yet, just to see the appearance of that scumbag stray dog. It doesn't matter even if he stays dead. Just keep killing him. "

Do " you want to kill him and make him surrender? " Ji Xuanyi asked.

" Is it not possible? "

" No, " Ji Xuanyi said, " I plan to leave this level of treatment for someone else. "

If anyone could receive such treatment, it would seem that the hatred between him and the other party was not that deep. This was the only point on which Ji Xuanyi would not compromise no matter what.

" Then there's nothing we can do. " Xilai sighed regretfully.

The final outcome was that Ji Xuan disappeared without a trace after using Wu Jian and never dared to show up again. After that, Xi Lai also lost the game.

However, the reason why Ji Xuanyi could remember this incident was because Xilai later got his home address from somewhere and sent him a banner with the signatures of more than 20 girls on it ...

When Ji Xuanyi received the banner, he was in a daze for a long time. In the end, he did not throw it away but put it away. However, he was always impressed by the origin of the banner, which is why he could still remember it two years later.

In order to fully demonstrate his handsomeness, Wu Jian moved forward very slowly, almost letting the horse mark time on the spot. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin followed behind him as if taking a stroll, and they were able to keep the same pace with him.

Qi Qin glanced at the horse's butt not far ahead and lowered his voice and asked, " You are that Mu Xuanyi, right? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and asked curiously, " You don't know? "

Qi Qin said aggrievedly: " You only said that you have many enemies, how would I know? "

" Now you know, " Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " Don't tell anyone. "

" oh"

At the end of the street was an intersection, and the road directly ahead was hidden in a small woods. There was no game or mission items in it, and it was sparsely populated. Wu Jian also knew that it would be awkward to walk back and forth on a road in a short period of time, so he did not turn around and walk back immediately after reaching the end, but wanted to go through the woods and go to another street.

After Wu Jian walked onto the path, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin followed.

Qi Qin almost understood Ji Xuanyi's plan, and was also very disgusted with what Wu Jian had done, so he tactfully narrowed the distance between himself and Wu Jian.

However, as a swordsman, even if Qi Qin tried his best to control himself, even after changing out of his light armor and holding a big sword, his footsteps still made inconspicuous sounds.

He knew that he would make many enemies in the course of his life and that he might be put in a sack, so although Wu Jian was very ostentatious, he was still very alert when walking in deserted areas. After hearing the sound, he immediately realized that the person behind him was following him and wanted to look back.

The moment the other party turned his head, Ji Xuanyi released [Resentment of the Lone Walker] to Wu Jian . Qi Qin, who had walked all the way with Ji Xuanyi and had already developed a tacit understanding with him, immediately pounced on him and skillfully threw a series of monster-killing combos at the motionless Wu Jian.

Wu Jian's level was actually higher than Qi Qin's, but the gap in Zi Wu's equipment was there. As soon as the paralysis effect wore off, Wu Jian had no time to fight back and he went straight back to the resurrection point, leaving behind only an unwilling " Fuck you —— !!! "

After Wu Jian disappeared, his horse also ran away in one direction.

Qi Qin asked: " What should we do now? "

Ji Xuanyi unhurriedly opened the map sponsored by Xiaotui and said, " From the direction the horse ran away, the nearest resurrection point is here. "

Ji Xuanyi pointed to the green mark on the map and Qi Qin nodded.

 " There is another deserted forest between the resurrection point and where we are. It's not far away . Let's go there and wait for him. "

After Ji Xuanyi finished speaking, he put away the map and trotted off in that direction.

Qi Qin didn't really understand this kind of ambush , so he followed him and asked, " Won't he call for help? "

 " No, " Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " He will think that we relied on sneak attacks to defeat him, and he will be worried that we will escape. If we move in this direction as fast as possible, we will definitely pass through that forest. We can just ambush him directly. "

Qi Qin suddenly realized and flattered: " You know it very well! "

Ji Xuanyi slowly smiled: " Well, I've killed a lot, so I have some experience. "

Qi Qin: "..."

They arrived at the grove and waited for less than a minute. Sure enough, Wu Jian came running by on his horse with a menacing look on his face. He stared intently ahead without even glancing to the side.

Ji Xuanyi knocked on the tree trunk next to him and raised his staff expressionlessly: " Hey, over here. "

Wu Jian heard the sound and before he could turn his head, he was once again knocked off his horse by Ji Xuanyi's paralysis skill. He was then beaten by Qi Qin who followed him and turned into a streak of white light and disappeared.

This time it happened so suddenly that Wu Jian couldn't even curse.

Watching Wu Jian's white horse leave once again in a way that exposed its master's location, Qi Qin asked: "Where are we going next?"

Ji Xuanyi put away the map: "Go to the trading house."

Qi Qin was stunned: "Trading OK?"

The trading house is about to go back in the other direction.

Ji Xuan took a look at him and said, "He's not a fool. He's already dropped two levels but he still doesn't call for help. Let's go first and continue when we have time."

As for a person like Wu Jian, it's not necessary for Ji Xuanyi to make a deliberate plan to kill him. He can just kill him when he sees him.

After that, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were completely unaware of how Wu Jian had angrily led his men to search several woods many times.

The trading house in Green Forest City is large, with many windows, but few people. After all, most players nowadays are of low level and have no money. They have to pay a 5% handling fee when selling things in the trading house. It is not as cost-effective as setting up stalls on the street to sell things.

However, items in this game are rarely bound, and setting up a stall is risky. It's okay to sell some small things, but if the items are a little more expensive, it is better to choose a trading house.

Ji Xuanyi walked to a window and selected an item based on the price.

The trading house is connected to the entire server. As long as you list the items you want to sell in a trading house in any city, you can search for the item in all other trading houses, and after it is purchased, it will be sent to the buyer via email.

Of course, mail needs to be picked up from the postman or mailbox, it is not delivered directly to the backpack.

The most expensive item in the trading house right now is a purple mage weapon, which costs one hundred gold. The next few items with similar prices are basically purple weapons. If you scroll down, the price of the items drops sharply to a dozen gold. In addition to some jewelry dropped by wild monsters, there are also a lot of blue and purple materials, but obviously no one is interested in them.

It's still the same reason, the level is too low.

The game has just started and life skills have not yet been unlocked. Even if these materials are really precious and the drop rate is very low, no matter how much you price them, no one will want them.

Ji Xuanyi was of course not interested in those. He flipped through them and saw a white quality pendant. Its attributes were very rubbish, but it had a special lightening effect, increased movement speed and a low probability of erasing traces. It should be equipment for the assassin profession, but Qi Qin also needed a similar effect now.

The tasks on the road not only provided weapons but also equipment. After changing into blue-quality swordsman equipment, Qi Qin became much more clumsy than before.

Ji Xuanyi clicked the purchase button directly, calculating in his mind the rhythm of Qi Qin's attack after he got the pendant. However, after waiting for two seconds, the system prompted that the item did not exist.

It means that you were too slow and someone else bought it.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin, who was standing nearby, instantly noticed that Ji Xuanyi's state had changed. He shuddered and said in panic: " What happened?! What happened?! "

Ji Xuanyi: " It's okay. I'm not angry if someone else buys what I want first. "

Qi Qin: "... I'm glad you're not angry. Let's look at something else. "

Ji Xuanyi said with a gloomy face: " I won't watch it anymore. "

Obviously I'm angry ...

However, Qi Qin knew the other party's temper and said quickly: " Okay, let's not watch it anymore. Let's do the task. "

Ji Xuanyi threw away the search device, turned around and left. Qi Qin sighed and followed him.

The map given by Xiaotui is very cost-effective. It makes movement much more convenient.

The tasks that require more experience in Green Forest City are also marked out. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked directly towards the places on the map. However, just after leaving the street where the trading house is located, Ji Xuanyi saw five or six people who had experienced many things walking together on the road.

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows and said to Qi Qin: " Put away your weapons. "

Although he didn't know what Ji Xuanyi meant, Qi Qin still obediently put the sword into his backpack.

Ji Xuanyi took Qi Qin and walked past those people who were in trouble with everything as if nothing had happened.

After those few people, Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi encountered two more groups of people who were similar to the previous ones. Qi Qin realized it later and asked, " Are they here to help Wu Jian seek revenge? "

Ji Xuan nodded.

Qi Qin sighed: " When one person is targeted, so many forces are mobilized to help. Although Wanshi Fengyu is overbearing, it can be considered as affectionate and righteous. "

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but sneered: " You think too much, they are just afraid that someone wants to target Wanshi Fengyu. "

" In the final analysis, the reason why everything is so chaotic is that no ordinary individual player dares to stand up and oppose them at the risk of being demoted. Once someone takes the lead, the resentment will be deep. They only have a few dozen people, and it will only take a few minutes to be defeated. It was fine before, but now someone has taken action, it would be strange if they are not panicking. "

The leader of the Wanshi Fengyu gang is really panicking now. He regrets very much that he accepted Wujian into the gang in order to hide the mission. As a result, Wujian kept making excuses and was unwilling to tell them the conditions for triggering the mission. Now he got into trouble and got killed . What if other people in Green Forest City think that Wanshi Fengyu is nothing special and unite to attack them?

Speaking of which, Wu Jian is quite famous in the gaming world. Part of the reason is that he is a scumbag, but the bigger reason is that he was once hunted by Mu Xuanyi . At the same time, in addition to killing him, Mu Xuanyi also directly destroyed the largest gang in one of the hottest games at the time and became famous in one battle.

Mu Xuanyi did have a grudge with the gang, but Wu Jian was just a scumbag. Only girls would believe in him. Why did Mu Xuanyi kill him? Everyone was thinking about this question, and they all suspected that Wu Jian had stolen Mu Xuanyi's girl. After some discussion, they all agreed that he was an awesome person, and Wu Jian became famous.

But in fact, Wu Jian knew very well why he was killed , but he just didn't have the chance to say it out loud. When Mu Xuanyi let him go, he put forward a condition to him: never appear in any place where he could see him again, and he would kill him every time he saw him.

God knows if Mu Xuanyi visits the game forum. If he is found to be the real person, he will be dead. What's more, he is willing to be misunderstood. How awesome is it to steal Mu Xuanyi's girl! Even if he is a scumbag despised by everyone, it is very face-saving to say it out loud! However, this also resulted in few gangs being willing to take him in. On the one hand, they really despised his character, and on the other hand, they were afraid that the madman Mu Xuanyi would suddenly come knocking on their door.

The beauty of this holographic online game lies in the lack of information flow. Even the ID cannot be seen face to face. He was lucky enough to trigger a secret mission, which allowed him to get through.

Wanshi Fengyu seems to be quite powerful now, but actually it was just a gang of relatives and friends in the beginning, not very famous. However, the relationship between the members was really good, which is why they could change games together so unitedly.

The leader of the Wanshi Fengyu gang is called Wanshi Shengyi. He had no intention of fighting for power, he just wanted to build a gang of relatives and friends. Unconsciously, there were more people, friends of friends, friends of friends of friends ... As a gang of relatives and friends that values human relationships and loyalty, he really couldn't save his face to manage them, so it became like this.

But the Friends and Relatives Gang is a Friends and Relatives Gang after all. Not to mention Mu Xuanyi, who is a notorious PVP cancer. Wan Shishengyi has never won an ordinary gang war and is a complete coward.

However, even though he regretted it very much, for the sake of his face, Wanshi Shengyi still appeared calm.

It was indeed he who asked everyone to go out and find the person who killed Wu Jian twice. The original words were to have a talk and see what the problem was. Everyone just needed to talk it out.

But later on, for some reason, other people understood it as finding the person who killed Wu Jian, and this matter had to have an explanation.

Then they went out to the street together, looking for someone aggressively.

Although Wu Jian was killed from behind twice and couldn't even turn his head to see what Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin looked like, he could recognize the skills of the warlock and swordsman, so the information he provided was very simple: a warlock and a swordsman who were together. The swordsman profession may be very common, but the warlock is different. There are very few warlocks, and they are together with the swordsmen. As long as these two people do not walk separately, theoretically they can be easily discovered.

But that's just in theory.

On the journey from Xinmu to Green Forest, there will be a task of delivering equipment, and all players' white equipment will be replaced with blue equipment after that task.

However, except for the first set of equipment given by the system, which has the appearance of each profession's characteristics, the second set of equipment obtained by players is the same for the mage, warlock and priest, the swordsman and knight, and the archer and assassin. In other words, they look exactly the same. If you want to distinguish the difference between the professions, you can only look at the weapons.

But unfortunately, all three groups of magic professions use staffs, only the gems on the front of the staffs are different in color. Also, because the weapons are cumbersome to hold, most players who have woken up from their middle school mentality have become accustomed to putting their weapons in their backpacks.

So when those who have experienced all the ups and downs of life go out on the street, they find that almost everyone is dressed the same. Only a very small number of female players who love beauty will spend money to buy clothes dropped by wild monsters, or keep novice equipment.

But Wu Jian was very sure that the two people who killed him were both men, because he heard the voices.

This is very embarrassing. Where should we start? We can't just ask everyone to take out their weapons one by one, right? That would easily arouse public anger.

The man who had been through a lot of ups and downs came up with a solution out of desperation. When he saw someone suspicious, he would stare at them intently, and whoever was guilty would be the one who did it!

As a result, this method did not find the guilty person, but instead the newcomer who was unaware of the situation called him a psychopath.

The man who had dealt with all kinds of problems almost couldn't help but drag the ungrateful newcomer into the grove and have sex with him, but considering that there were still people who dared to attack them who had not been dealt with, it was not advisable to create more trouble, so he gave up.

Wu Jian also walked with the four people who had experienced all kinds of hardships. Even though he had been killed twice, he still did not forget to ride his horse, and his target was very conspicuous.

Seeing that Wanshi Fengyu couldn't find anyone no matter how hard he tried, Wujian cursed them a thousand times in his heart, thinking that they were indeed a worthless gang with no reputation and couldn't do anything right. If there wasn't only one Wanshi Fengyu in Green

Forest City, with the hidden mission information in his hand, there would definitely be many gangs vying for him, and he must be well protected now, so who would dare to attack him? Wu Jian was lost in thought, he had already imagined himself managing a large gang through covert missions and easily picking up girls, he had no idea that at the intersection ahead, the two assassins who were targeting him were also walking in the same direction, the two teams were about to meet.

It's not certain whether he recognized Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, but Ji Xuanyi was angry and would definitely not let him go if he saw him.

Both parties were heading towards the same intersection. Qi Qin suddenly frowned and said, " I always feel something is weird. "

" Hmm? Did something fall down? " Ji Xuanyi asked.

" No, " Qi Qin said confusedly, " It's just a feeling that something is about to happen. "

Ji Xuanyi blinked: " You still have this function? "

Qi Qin was about to speak when a girl's clear voice came from behind him: " Hey! It's you two again! "

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin turned around. At the same time, Wu Jian and four people who had experienced many ups and downs in life walked past the intersection.

It was a perfect chance to pass each other by, and Wu Jian narrowly escaped with his life, although he didn't know it himself.

Ji Xuanyi recognized the girl. She was the female pastor who had introduced Wu Jian to him. The girl who had been seduced by Wu Jian but rejected him before was also with her, holding hands and looking very intimate.

The female pastor pulled the girl and ran to Ji Xuanyi excitedly, saying happily: " Great, I see you again! I forgot about you because Ah Miao is so cute. In fact, I was going to add you as my friends! My name is Art Introduction and her name is Sleepy Meow! What about you? "

Ji Xuanyi: " Introduction to Art ..."

Art scratched his head: " Naming is useless. I failed this subject. Oh, don't worry about this kind of thing. What's your name? "

Ji Xuanyi reported his name with mixed feelings. Seeing Yishu's eyes light up, he added, " It has nothing to do with Mu Xuanyi. We just have the same name. " said " Oh " with regret , but soon perked up and asked, " What about this big guy? What's his name? "

Qi Qin was stunned and realized that the other party was looking at him. He immediately poked Ji Xuanyi's back with his fingers.

Ji Xuanyi slapped his hand away impatiently: " Speak for yourself. "

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi aggrievedly, but the latter remained unmoved, so he could only blush and stammer, " God, God ... the best in the world ..."

Art confirmed: " Three days? "

Qi Qin covered his face: " One. "

Art was speechless and said, " Are you still shy? Are you embarrassed about the name you chose yourself? "

Qi Qin thought to himself, this is not something I chose myself!

However, what he experienced was too weird after all, and only Ji Xuan would believe it if he told him about it, so he had to swallow the bitter fruit himself.

The four of them added each other as friends, and Yishu was the first to ask, " Where are you two going to go? I don't know what's wrong with Wanshi Fengyu, staring at people on the street like crazy, as if they're looking for someone. Although I don't know who they're looking for, it's very annoying. Ah Miao and I have already planned to go to the north of the city to do a mission during this time. "

Green Forest City is very large. There is even a forest in the middle of the city that spans the entire city. Therefore, players divide Green Forest City into two parts, the south and the north. The south is where Ji Xuanyi and his friends are now.

Conditions in the south of the city are much better than those in the north. Not to mention that the entrance to the city is in the south, the City Lord's Mansion is in the south, the trading house and the performance street are also in the south, and even the tasks and the south of the city are more than the north. Therefore, most players gather in the south of the city, and few people go to the north.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin looked at each other. They knew who Wanshi Fengyu was looking for, and it would be inconvenient to hide all the time. Going to the north of the city was also an option.

Ah Miao listened to Yishu for a while and whispered, " Well, there aren't many people in the north of the city, and those who are very careful rarely go there. Besides, I came here to buy things because of a mission – um! "

Art covered Ah Miao's mouth and said nervously: " How did you say that! "

Ah Miao took Yishu's hand off and looked at her in confusion: " Can't you tell me? "

 " Of course not! " Yishu said anxiously, " You've only known them for a few minutes! How can you casually say something so important? "

Ah Miao: " But I know you ... "

Art said cheekily: " That's different, you and I have known each other for almost two hours! "

Ah Miao: "..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin didn't think there was anything wrong with this, but asked curiously: " What's the matter? Can you please explain it more clearly? "

Chapter 23

Ah Miao said helplessly: " Art, wake up, this is really not a big deal, I just came here to buy a shovel. "

 " Shovel? " Qi Qin looked at her curiously.

 " Yeah. " Ah Miao nodded: " It's used for digging soil. "

Art, who was standing by, sighed and said, " Well, forget it. It's your job anyway. I don't have to worry about it. Just be happy! "

Ah Miao smiled and said, " I know you are doing this for my own good. Thank you, but this is just an ordinary task. "

" There is a farm in the north of the city. The uncle who raises pigs asked me to help him dig potatoes in the forest to feed the pigs, but he didn't give me any props. I didn't dare to use my staff to dig the ground, so I planned to go to the south of the city to see if there were any shovels for sale. "

Qi Qin thought he was going to hear a shocking secret: "... Ah? Why should the potato digging mission be kept secret? "

Ah Miao: " So I said ..."

Art came up to him unhappily and said, " How could we tell you it was a hidden mission from the beginning? You must have discovered the clues yourself. Think about it, why are there potatoes growing in the forest? Why didn't that uncle give Ah Miao the tools? "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything, only Qi Qin asked stupidly: " Why? "

Art said: " How should I know? These are all doubtful points! "

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi for help.

Ji Xuanyi was also speechless. This girl seemed a little stupid.

Ah Miao couldn't help but laugh and said, " I don't know if this is a hidden mission, but it must give you a lot of experience. If you guys want to go to the north of the city, you can do this mission together. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Okay, but did you buy the shovel? "

Ah Miao said: " I was originally planning to go to the trading house to have a look, but I saw someone selling it at a street stall. I don't know if he made it himself or where he got it from, but it looks pretty solid. "

" Is that enough for four? "

" That's exactly four, " Yishu took out two shovels from his bag and gave them to Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, saying, " Because I don't know the quality of the things that person sells, I bought two more as backup. "

It does look very sturdy. Ji Xuanyi took it and took a look. It was a grey object, [Uncle Jack's shovel].

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

It seems that the stall owner stole it from his backyard. It's not bad to get something for nothing ...

But judging by the appearance of their art, they probably didn't spend much money.

Ji Xuanyi was silent for a moment, put the shovel into his backpack, and was about to speak when another group of people with fierce eyes glared at him from the other end of the street.

" Ew ..." Yishu made an exaggerated retching sound, grabbed Ah Miao and ran away, saying, " Let's go, let's go to the north of the city, don't stay here! "

Green Forest City has a large area, but the forest in the middle takes up nearly one-third of the land. I don't know why the lord of Green Forest City planted such a large forest in the city. Is it just to match the name of the city?

Ji Xuanyi couldn't understand.

There are many roads in this forest from the south to the north of the city, but most of them are not easy to walk on. The fallen leaves that have fallen from the trees for many years are piled up on the ground, and there are pits where you step on them. Occasionally, small insects will run out. When the map was first opened, it drove many insect-fearing players crazy.

Fortunately, the two most commonly used roads were cleared by players later, and the fallen leaves were swept aside, revealing relatively hard ground.

One of these two roads is the shortest road to the north of the city, and the other is the road leading to the monster spawning point in the forest. Due to its frequency of use, the former is always covered with a layer of fallen leaves, and although the latter always has unwanted garbage dropped by players along the way, it is generally cleaner than the former.

However, Ah Miao had already cleaned the road once when coming from the north to the south of the city, so the road looked quite clean when Ji Xuanyi and the others arrived.

Ah Miao led Ji Xuanyi and the others into the forest and said, "There are very few people in the north of the city. They level up in the north for the quiet and secluded environment. They rarely go to the south of the city. But to be honest, if you want to level up to a level that allows you to leave Green Forest City, you still have to go to the south of the city to complete quests."

Otherwise, you can only go to the monster spawning point to rob monsters. There are many people who are willing to go through thick and thin there."

Ji Xuan glanced at Ah Miao and asked what he wanted to ask for a long time: "Green Forest City is so big, and Wanshi Fengyu only has a few dozen people. Although they are indeed a bit arrogant, there shouldn't be so many people who hate them, right?"

Before Ah Miao could speak, Yishu spoke first: "Green Forest City is big, but at this level, there are only two types of resources: upgrades and money-making. They always have a hand in everything, no matter how big or small. There are also a few particularly scoundrels who take advantage of small things and bully others. After a long time, of course everyone hates them."

Ah Miao smiled and said, "But the north of the city doesn't have many resources. Wanshi Fengyu only came a few times at the beginning, and then stopped coming. So although the people in the north of the city know about them, they don't feel anything. I was also scared by the man on horseback today."

Art corrected: "Scum on horseback."

Ah Miao readily agreed: "Okay, horseback scum."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

After leaving the forest, you can immediately see the difference between the north and south of the city. There are many streets and buildings in the south of the city, with people coming and going, while the north of the city is a completely wide flat land with only roads, no streets, and the buildings are all low wooden or stone houses.

Qi Qin was surprised and asked, "It's obviously the same city, just separated by a forest, why is there such a big difference?"

Ah Miao shook his head: "I don't know either. When doing missions, they occasionally mentioned things about Chengnan. They should know what the situation is like in Chengnan, but I have never seen them have any negative emotions towards Chengnan..."

Qi Qin guessed: "Maybe they live in the north of the city because they like quietness, just like you."

It could also be a plot-related setting that has not yet been revealed, Ji Xuanyi added in his heart.

Art didn't care what they were talking about at all, and said happily: " Where is the farm? Let's go find it first! "

Knowing that the other party had not given up the idea of hiding the mission, Ah Miao had no choice but to lead the way. On the way, the four of them met several players who were doing their missions leisurely. It felt like they were retired old people who drank tea and played with birds every day. It was very magical. Maybe this was the legendary Buddhist player ...

I guess it's because there are fewer people in the north of the city, so everyone knows each other. When they saw Ah Miao, they smiled and nodded at her.

After Ah Miao greeted them, he couldn't help but say to the other three: " Actually, if you think about it, it wouldn't be bad to come back here and live after reaching the maximum level. "

This time, except for Qi Qin who nodded without knowing what was going on, Ji Xuanyi and Yishu pretended not to hear anything.

Ah Miao: "..."

Forget it, everyone has their own aspirations.

The farm that Ah Miao mentioned was very big, with chickens, ducks, cows, sheep and pigs. They were all divided into fenced-off areas and each was responsible for their own work. The uncle who raised the pigs looked just an ordinary man with nothing special about him. When Yishu saw him, he was very disappointed, probably because he felt that his guess about the hidden mission might be wrong.

Ji Xuanyi walked up to him and asked, " How can I help you? "

The pig farmer glanced at Ji Xuanyi and said simply, " No. "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned and looked at Ah Miao.

Ah Miao was also stunned. Isn't this a task that everyone can take on?

Art became excited again: " This is a hidden mission! "

Ah Miao thought for a moment, then stepped forward and said, " Uncle Sam, can my friend come and help me dig potatoes? "

Ji Xuan looked at Ah Miao, then looked at her again, and with a completely different attitude, he gave Ah Miao a kind smile and said, " Of course. "

At the same time, all three of them received assistance tasks, [Help Uncle Sam collect feed] : 0kg/80kg of sweet potatoes in the forest .

" One hundred and sixty kilograms, so much? " Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but say.

Ah Miao said helplessly: " That's why I said that he must have a lot of experience. If you and Tianxia didn't come to help, Yishu and I might have to dig for a day or two. "

It took Qi Qin a moment to realize that the world was referring to him.

Art didn't care about the number at all. He just grabbed Ah Miao excitedly and said, " Is it a hidden mission? Is it a hidden mission? "

" No. "

" Huh? " Art looked confused.

Ah Miao smiled and said, " This kind of assistance mission has appeared several times in Chengbei before. Everyone has helped each other to do it. It's not a hidden mission. "

Is there such a thing?! Yishu was shocked, and almost cried after coming to his senses: " There is no such task in Chengnan, maybe you made a mistake? "

Ah Meow spread his hands.

Ji Xuanyi took out a shovel and said, " Don't worry about hiding it. Just do it after accepting the task. 80 kilograms of potatoes is enough for the two of us. If we want to finish it today, we'd better hurry up. "

Art then responded listlessly. On the way, he couldn't help but complain: " Di yams are sweet potatoes, right? How could such a thing grow in the forest? It's not even a hidden quest ..."

Ah Miao said helplessly: " Wake up, this is just a game. It's not surprising to see goblins growing in the ground, let alone sweet potatoes growing in the forest. "

After arriving at the location indicated by the mission arrow, Ji Xuanyi discovered that the plants in the forest were indeed sweet potato leaves, which he had planted in the yard of his home when he was a child.

The green leaves are connected to each other, bypassing the thick trees and covering all the ground as far as the eye can see.

But this kind of thing really shouldn't grow here. Maybe the designer was too lazy to invent another plant, so he just moved it here as it is?

Ji Xuanyi stepped on the shovel and dug up a layer of soil mixed with fallen leaves. Under the broken branches and leaves, the fat roots of the sweet potatoes were immediately exposed.

Ji Xuanyi blinked, as if he had thought of something, but it was vague and he could only say: " Let's start the mission. "

Chapter 24

Eighty kilograms of sweet potatoes is equivalent to one hundred and sixty kilograms. Ji Xuanyi himself does not even weigh one hundred and sixty kilograms. Among this group of people, Qi Qin might be the only one who weighs that much.

None of the four had done this kind of work before, and except for Qi Qin, the other three were all weak and frail magicians. They found it too strenuous to even hold a shovel, let alone dig the soil. After working for an entire afternoon, it was unclear whether the three had dug up a basket of dirt.

Fortunately, because it was an assisting mission, the mission items obtained by the four people were superimposed. However, even if Qi Qin's results were added, it was only 40 kilograms now, which was still halfway to completing the mission.

 " I can't do it anymore! "

Art yelled, dropped the shovel, and fell to the ground.

Ah Miao was also very tired, and was just about to ask Yishu to hold on a little longer when he saw Ji Xuanyi next to him also lying down with a calm face.

Ah Miao: "..."

The physical fitness of a warlock is actually much lower than that of a priest, and Ji Xuanyi has reached his limit.

Qi Qin looked at them in confusion: " Are you all right? "

Yishu said woodenly: " Strength bonus is good, it's okay, have you ever seen Xiao Ji like this? " Qi Qin turned his head and found that Ji Xuanyi's eyes had lost focus and his cheeks were red, as if he had completely lost the ability to resist.

Qi Qin: "..."

Art: " Fuck! Why are you blushing? Are you a pervert? Ah Meow, hurry up and protect Xiao Ji! "

Ah Miao said helplessly: " Stop making trouble. "

Ji Xuanyi also slowed down, slowly sat up, and said: " We are probably in the fatigue state that usually occurs when energy or physical strength is exhausted in the game. If the level is higher, there may be recovery potions that can be used. "

Art has played a lot of games, and he immediately realized: " Then everyone's energy and stamina bars should be the same length, so why is everything fine? "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Maybe because it's a holographic online game, there are additional settings for professions. I guess if it's a task that consumes energy, such as making medicine, we should have an advantage over Qi ... Bitianxia. "

Art nodded thoughtfully: " That makes sense ..."

Qi Qin barely understood what he said and said, " Then you guys take a rest first. I'll continue digging. "

Art lay down for a while and said, " I want to eat roasted sweet potatoes. "

Ah Miao said: " Then go offline and eat. The taste system hasn't been implemented in the game yet. "

Art sighed and said, " Oh, it's so sad. Even drinking plain water tastes bland. "

Ji Xuanyi also deeply agreed with this point. Generally speaking, he was also a food lover. He wondered when the taste system would be installed in this game.

After resting for a while, the three of them got up and continued to dig potatoes. They went offline to have a meal in the middle, and then worked until dark. At around eight o'clock, A Miao and Yishu went offline because they had to get up early the next day, leaving Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin online.

Ji Xuanyi was exhausted, Qi Qin said quickly: " You take a rest, I'll do it. "

Generally speaking, this kind of heavy work should be done by output. Even an assassin or an archer is stronger than a warlock.

Since Ah Miao and Yishu were not around, Ji Xuanyi hesitated for a moment before putting away his shovel, sitting on the ground and asking, " Aren't you tired? "

 "Not bad, " Qi Qin recalled, " I used to practice much harder than this. I could carry two buckets of water up and down the mountain more than ten times. But this body is a little weak. I'm not used to it yet. "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " You can go to the gym to exercise. It's not good to always look like a weakling. "

Qi Qin nodded and said, " I'll check it online later. "

Ji Xuanyi was silent for a while, and suddenly said: " But sometimes there are strange people in the gym. If someone takes the opportunity to touch you, remember to beat him up. Your family can afford the compensation. "

" Ah? " Qi Qin was stunned and asked nervously: " Has anyone touched you?! "

Ji Xuanyi: "... No, no, I just heard about it. "

Qi Qin breathed a sigh of relief.

Ji Xuanyi: "..." I always feel like something is weird.

Qi Qin didn't realize that his focus was wrong at all, and smiled and said, " Don't worry, I will pay attention. "

Thinking that the other party would not suffer a loss in such a matter, Ji Xuanyi stopped talking and sat aside watching him dig the soil.

Ji Xuanyi yawned.

Qi Qin said: " Do you want to go offline and sleep? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head: " I'll accompany you. "

More than an hour passed like this, and it was finally almost over. Because he didn't want to leave Ji Xuanyi too far away , Qi Qin kept digging around as much as he could. There was one last piece of ground, which was just enough to complete the task, but it was buried a little deep, so he squatted down and dug it bit by bit.

Seeing his movements, Ji Xuan gradually narrowed his eyes and slowly began to raise his head. Just when Ji Xuanyi almost fell asleep in the game and was kicked offline by the security system, Qi Qin suddenly shouted and woke him up.

" What's wrong? " Ji Xuanyi shuddered and asked incoherently.

Qi Qin was still holding a piece of sweet potato in his hand and said hesitantly : " It seems like there is something in the soil. "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then immediately came to his senses. His first reaction was, could it be that Art was right? This is a hidden mission?

Ji Xuanyi got up, took two steps at a time, walked to Qi Qin, squatted down and asked: " Where is the thing? "

Qi Qin dug the hole to the sides and revealed a piece of white stuff.

Ji Xuanyi picked it up and found it was a small piece of broken bone.

" Is it an animal bone? " Qi Qin asked.

" I don't know, " Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " I can't tell. The system doesn't give any hints. "

There doesn't seem to be any sign on the map that can identify bones.

" So what should we do now? Should we continue digging? " Qi Qin asked.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment, then shook his head and said, " The mission has been completed. Go offline and have a rest. This is Sleepy Meow's mission after all. When they come online tomorrow, hand it over to her and let her make the decision. "

Of course Qi Qin had no objection and followed Ji Xuanyi offline.

Perhaps due to mental fatigue, Ji Xuanyi slept until noon the next day. When he came online, the other three were already waiting there.

When Yishu saw him, he said happily, " You're here. Ah Miao and I left first yesterday. Thank you for your hard work. If there are any extra rewards later, I will share more with you. "

Ah Miao also smiled and nodded.

Ji Xuan looked up at Qi Qin and found that he was also looking at him.

Ji Xuan raised an eyebrow, took out the broken bones he had dug up yesterday and said to Ah Miao: " We'll talk about the reward later, but we found this in the soil last night. "

When Art heard that something else had been found, he immediately came over and asked, " What? "

" It looks like ... broken bones? " Ah Miao looked at it and said hesitantly .

Art was also stunned for a moment: " Broken bones, there are indeed broken bones in the soil occasionally. I dug them out when I went to my grandmother's house in the countryside when I was a child. Maybe someone ate them ... Hey, that's not right, there is no food in this game! " Yishu stared at Ji Xuanyi's hand with shining eyes.

" Maybe it was lost? " Ah Miao guessed.

Art shook his head and said seriously: " If it is meaningless, this kind of thing will be refreshed, how can it be dug out? "

Ah Miao said: " There's no point in having fallen leaves. They breed bugs and block the road. Aren't they brushed away? "

" How can they be the same? "

" How is that different! "

The two girls started arguing for no apparent reason. Ji Xuanyi was speechless and had to throw the broken bone to Yishu, saying, " If you are interested, you can try to investigate further, but now let's hand in the task first. "

Art snorted and said, Just " check it yourself. When the hidden stuff is revealed, I'll envy you guys to death! "

Ah Miao shook his head and said, " Wake up, Art. The probability of this happening is very small. How could we possibly run into this? "

Art was flipping through the broken bones in his hand, looking like he couldn't make sense of it and asked you to stop bothering him.

Ji Xuanyi simply walked ahead to hand in the task.

Perhaps because he had accepted the help, the pig feeder's attitude towards him became much better. He smiled and said, " Sleepy Cat, you guys are back? Have you dug enough potatoes? " Just like the mayor of Xinmu Town, this was just a polite remark to urge the task to be completed.

Ah Miao stepped forward and said, " We've dug enough. "

The four of them dumped the potatoes out of their backpacks and piled them on the ground.

They looked at them and said with a smile, " Thank you for your hard work. "

At this time, the tasks on the four people's parchments were marked as completed and disappeared. The experience bar immediately increased a lot. Qi Qin directly reached level 23, and Ji Xuanyi's experience bar also increased by about one tenth.

You know, although you get out of the novice protection at level 20, each level after level 20 will be doubly difficult. Ji Xuanyi's experience bar at level 24 is already increasing very slowly. This one task is equivalent to at least ten ordinary tasks. If it is replaced with a simple errand-delivery task, it will be even more.

Ah Miao said: " I didn't lie to you, did I? Although there are few missions in the north of the city, when you encounter missions like this, you will gain a lot of experience. "

Art, who had just argued with her, sang the opposite tune: " But it takes a lot of effort. If it weren't for Tianxia, we would have to do it for two days, which is not worth it. " Ah Miao was about to speak when he handed over a purse and said with a smile, " This is your reward, please keep it. " After Ah Miao received it, he was also surprised: " Why are there so many! " " How much? " Yishu forgot what he had just said for a moment and squeezed next to Ah Miao to peek.

Chapter 25

" Twenty gold coins! " Ah Miao shouted happily.
" Really?! " Art also shouted: " It's rich! " You should know that many players now have a total net worth of only five gold coins . Twenty gold coins divided among four people can be said to have doubled.
Qi Qin, who had seen the hundred gold coins, just looked at them curiously , but Ji Xuanyi found it a little strange.
Although this task is very tiring , it is just an ordinary task after all. Not to mention the experience , the money given is indeed a bit too much.
The girls didn't think too much about it. They had forgotten their past grudges and happily started to divide the gold coins with their heads against each other.
Ah Miao said: " Twenty gold coins , exactly five for each person. "
Art said: " You can't calculate it that way . Tianxia has put in the most effort, so we should share more. "

" How to divide it? "
Yishu thought for a moment and said, " How about this , five coins each. You are the one who discovered the mission, so you don't touch your coins . Xiaoji and I will each give two coins to Tianxia. That means you get five, I get three , Xiaoji gets three, and Tianxia gets nine . How do you think about that? "
Ah Miao said: " I don't care, what about you, Xiao Ji? "

" Hmm? " Ji Xuanyi had been distracted , and only came to his senses when he heard them calling his name , and said, " All right. "

Ah Miao handed the money to them . Ji Xuanyi was thinking about something and stuffed his three gold coins into Qi Qin's hand. Qi Qin also put the money into his backpack normally.

Ah Miao: "..."

Is there something wrong? Do good friends help each other with money?
Ah Miao turned his head and looked at Yishu for help.
Art was counting the three gold coins over and over again without even raising his head.
Ah Miao: "..."
Forget it, I can't count on you.
No matter what, these two people must have a good relationship.
Ah Miao said: " I know a few more missions that I have experience with. Can I take you there? "

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin nodded, but Yishu suddenly came to his senses, frantically took out the broken bone, and approached him and asked, " Do you recognize this thing? "

The pig farmer paused for a moment, and said to Yishu's expectant gaze: " Sorry, I don't understand what you are saying. "

Art's shoulders collapsed instantly, and Ah Miao said helplessly: " I've already said it ..."

Art bit his lip and said, " No, you guys go do the task, I want to go back to the forest to take a look. "

Ah Miao and Ji Xuanyi looked at each other and realized that they couldn't stop Yishu, so they had to let her go.

Yishu said he had a plan, but he disappeared for two days. Under A Miao's guidance, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin leveled up again. After completing the few high-experience tasks that A Miao mentioned, they started to do those scattered and trivial tasks.

In general, the past two days have been very peaceful, even a little boring. The time from Xinmu to Lulin was actually about the same, but at least he was on the road and it was good to see new scenery. Now he is always running around in the same place. Ji Xuanyi feels that he is so idle that he is about to grow hair.

" It would be nice if anyone comes to pick a fight ..." Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but mutter in a low voice.

" Huh? What did you say? " Qi Qin turned around and looked at him.

After Ah Miao gave them instructions on the task, he left the team, and now there were only two of them.

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " I'm so bored and want to fight. "

Qi Qin was stunned, then said in horror: " I, I won't fight with you ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "... Why would I fight with you? "

When Qi Qin heard that the other party didn't mean that, he immediately breathed a sigh of relief and said, " The people here are all very good-tempered. Maybe no one wants to fight. "

Ji Xuanyi's expression was gloomy.

Qi Qin: "..."

Qi Qin had no choice but to say pitifully: "... Well, forget it, just hit me. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi patted him on the back, causing him to shudder: " What are you fighting for? Go do your mission. "

Qi Qin responded tremblingly, followed him, and secretly opened the private chat channel.

He practiced typing a little, and although it's slow now, he can still hold a conversation with others.

After all, it is a private chat channel. How can it be called a private chat if we only use voice to talk every time?

[Number One in the World] : Are you there?

[Sleepy Cat] : Yes, I am. What's the matter? Are there any tasks that are stuck?

[Number One in the World] : It's not a task.

[Number One Under Heaven] : Xuanyi is bored, is there anything fun here?

Ah Miao: "..."

She wasn't overthinking it, the relationship between these two people was indeed a little too good!

Although he complained in his heart, Ah Miao still replied: " There is a singing and dancing performance at the altar. Why don't you take him to see it? I remember you have a map. Can you find the place? "

[Number One in the World] : Wait.

[Number One Under Heaven] : Okay, I got the map from Xuanyi. Where is the altar?

[Sleepy Cat] : The upper left corner of the farm.

[Number One in the World] : I saw it!

[Number One in the World] : Thank you QWQ !

[Sleepy Meow] : You're welcome!

Qi Qin raised his hand and gently patted Ji Xuanyi on the shoulder, saying: " Shall we go to the altar and take a look? "

Ji Xuanyi was suddenly slapped, and the irritation that had just been suppressed came up again. When he turned his head, murderous intent almost overflowed from his eyes: " Huh? " Qi Qin swallowed his saliva and said cautiously: " I heard that there are singing and dancing performances over there, which might be quite interesting. "

I've heard of no place Qi Qin could go, and he only knew a few people there. He just asked me for a map, so he probably went there specifically to ask for it.

Ji Xuan understood the other party's intention in an instant, his expression slightly changed, and he calmed down a little. He turned his eyes away and pretended to be nonchalant and said: " Well, it's okay to take a look. Which way are you going? "

Qi Qin quickly led the way: " This way! "

The two walked for a while in silence. Although they were so familiar with each other that there was no awkward atmosphere, Qi Qin couldn't help but bring up the topic: " Actually, something like an altar ..."

Halfway through his words, Qi Qin turned his head and found that Ji Xuan was squinting his eyes and looking forward, not listening at all.

Qi Qin: "... Xuan Yi. "

Ji Xuanyi ignored him and continued staring ahead.

Qi Qin couldn't help but pat him on the shoulder: " Xuan Yi. "

Ji Xuanyi rarely showed any impatience. Instead, he put his finger on his lips and said, " Hush ! ", " Look ahead, is there a person riding a horse? "

Qi Qin was startled, looked up, and found that there was indeed a person on a horse in the distance , slowly coming towards him. He immediately asked in confusion: " Is that it? Or ..."

" It's Wu Jian, " Ji Xuanyi showed an excited smile: " Okay, you came at the right time. "

Qi Qin: "... No, Xuanyi, the altar ..."

Let 's talk about it next time. " Ji Xuanyi said this and ran towards Wu Jian.

Qi Qin: " QAQ ! Wait for me! "

...

Wu Jian felt that he was very unlucky. He was inexplicably targeted and killed twice. He led people to look for the murderer but couldn't find him. He was also ridiculed by Wan Shi Shengyi openly and secretly.

Yes, the conditions he offered were a little hard to find, but he had tried his best, and there was only one gang like yours in the entire Green Forest City. It was your own territory after all, and you should have known everything. You couldn't even find two people, and you turned around and blamed him, the victim. You must be crazy!

Wu Jian had a few words with Wan Shi Sheng Yi. Wan Shi Sheng Yi, who had always disliked him, immediately stopped asking people to help him find the murderer, saying that it was a waste of time. Everyone in the guild was helping him find the murderer, and he hadn't completed any missions or killed any monsters. His level hadn't changed in two days.

There is nothing wrong with this reason, but Wu Jian knows that the other party just doesn't want to help him. But it doesn't matter. There are many simple-minded guys in the world, whose minds are full of brotherhood, and they will come to help if you just praise them a few words.

But what Wu Jian never expected was that the other people in the Wanshi Fengyu also felt that this matter was a bit troublesome. They wasted two days to help him find someone, which could be said to be the most they could do. Not to mention the upgrade, they were also scolded! They were unwilling to help him.

Wu Jian had no choice but to stop talking about this matter.

Wu Jian had triggered a hidden mission, and later on he took advantage of Wanshi Fengyu's resources to take advantage of their experience in killing monsters. Although he did not complete the mission diligently, Wu Jian was actually already almost level 25 or 26, and after dropping two levels he wanted to catch up quickly.

Killing monsters was too boring, so he could only do quests. But when he went out onto the street alone, he found that he seemed a little scared by what happened before ... If no one walked with him, he always felt scared, as if someone was watching him in the dark, ready to pounce on him and stab him at any time.

After staying in the south of the city for less than half a day, Wu Jian couldn't help it and went directly to the monster spawning point in the forest. As a result, the feeling did not go away even at the monster spawning point, so Wu Jian had to run to the north of the city again.

Because there had never been a similar incident before, Wu Jian guessed that the two people who killed him might be newcomers who had just arrived in Green Forest not long ago. Even if these people had a map, they would most likely complete the tasks in the south of the city before coming to the north of the city. In other words, the north of the city should be safe during this period of time. He would stay here to avoid the limelight for a few days before going back to take a look.

Of course, the best case scenario is that those two people can't find him, and they will directly fight with Wanshi Fengyu and both of them will suffer losses. Then he will go back leisurely to be the savior. Not only can he get the chance to see those two people off, but he will also be taken seriously by Wanshi Fengyu again.

So beautiful!

As Wu Jian thought about it, he became happy again, as if the matter had been resolved, and he even couldn't help humming a little tune.

Chapter 26

Wu Jian Zhengmei was walking unsteadily on the road when he saw two figures appear in front of him . They were running on the road at a speed completely different from most of the players in the north city.

Did something happen? Was there a monster chasing them? Or was there some rare item that spawned behind them? Wu Jian subconsciously slowed down his pace.

But when he came, he seemed to see nothing . Wu Jian was puzzled to find that the two people in front were almost running up to him, and there was no intention of slowing down. Moreover, he could also clearly see that there was nothing chasing them from behind.

That means there is a high possibility that there is something behind you!

Wu Jian immediately turned around and wanted to see what was behind him.

At the same moment , Wu Jian felt a familiar feeling of numbness.

When Wu Jian realized what this numbness meant, his brain was about to explode.

Oh shit! It's them! Why are they in the north of the city?

Wu Jian fell off his horse in despair . He even maintained the posture of looking back , exposing his neck to the murderer. The most important thing was that he turned his head too hard and he was about to get cramps!

In the holographic online game , when the player is attacked, the pain will not be too severe, but just looking at the frequency of his blood bar dropping , Wu Jian's heart sank. When the paralysis effect wore off , Wu Jian instantly burst into a miserable howl , which frightened Qi Qin so much that he didn't have time to add the last blow.

Wu Jian cried and howled: " Wait! Wait! I have a cramp! I have a cramp!!! It hurts!!! "

Looking at the other party rolling on the ground , it really didn't look fake . Qi Qin put down the sword in his hand in a daze and looked at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuan threw another paralysis spell at Wu Jian with an expressionless face.

Jian was frozen for two seconds, and immediately started to curse: " Are you a fucking human? I'm cramping! How have I offended you? Why are you killing me?! "

This time, there was no sign of cramps at all.

As soon as Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows at Qi Qin, Qi Qin immediately raised his sword.

" I was wrong, I was wrong!! Wait! Don't kill me yet! " Wu Jian saw that the other party was about to attack again, and quickly admitted his mistake: " I know I have offended many people, but no one hates me so much that they want to kill me three times! Two big brothers, let me go, I can tell you the triggering conditions of the hidden task! Really! "

Ji Xuanyi was in a good mood, he smiled and whispered: " Hate? Well, to be precise, I have no grudge against you. "

Wu Jian was stunned and shouted in disbelief: " No grudge? Why are you killing me if there is no grudge? You are-- " Wu Jian almost swallowed back the last three words. After all, if the other party had no grudge against him, maybe he could communicate with him and ask the other party not to kill him again. It is best not to offend the other party verbally at this time. However, Ji Xuanyi's next words immediately shattered his fantasy.

" You're crazy, right? It doesn't matter. This isn't the first time I've been scolded like this. " Ji Xuanyi smiled happily, but he looked even more terrifying in Wu Jian's eyes. What the other party said made him subconsciously think of someone.

No, no, it can't be that person!

Wu Jian looked at Ji Xuanyi in horror.

Ji Xuanyi stopped laughing and said seriously, " It's like this. Someone reminded me some time ago that I seemed to have told you not to let me see you again, or I 'll kill you every time I see you. Is that true? "

Wu Jian swallowed and stared at Ji Xuanyi.

There is no need to reason with this person. He has already tried every possible method two years ago, and the other party will never let him go.

Wu Jian gave Ji Xuanyi a trembling smile, then he rolled over and got up, turned around and ran, even forgetting about his horse.

Qi Qin reacted immediately, swung his sword back, and sent Wu Jian back to the resurrection point.

Watching the white light representing Wujian flying away, Ji Xuanyi took a deep breath and said happily: " Great! "

Qi Qin: "..."

Xuanyi, you need to change your pleasure point, it's so perverted ...

Of course, Qi Qin didn't have the courage to say it, so he could only ask: " Xuan Yi, does he know who you are? "

" Yeah. " Ji Xuan nodded.

Qi Qin worriedly asked, " Don't you have a lot of enemies? What if he tells others? "

Ji Xuanyi had already considered this . In this game, information was not circulated and there was no road between the two cities. Even if someone received the news, it was unlikely that they would come to Green Forest to find him. Most of his enemies were from big gangs, while Green Forest only had one Wanshi. Even if someone came to him, they would only be scattered people.

Ji Xuanyi thought about it, and was too lazy to explain the previous situation, so he said directly: " Don't we still have you? "

Qi Qin was stunned, and felt as if something in his heart was pinched. His face turned red, and he stammered: " Well, I, I will protect you well. "

Qi Qin had said this many times, and Ji Xuanyi nodded casually.

Qi Qin asked again: " So what are we going to do now? "

" Didn't you say there was an altar? Let's go and take a look. "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment: " Are you not going to kill Wu Jian anymore? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head: " He knows I'm targeting him, so he won't come looking for us impulsively. He will definitely run as far as he can and hide. It's a waste of effort to find him, so forget it. "

Yes, Qi Qin remembered that after Wu Jian recognized Ji Xuanyi, his first reaction was to run away.

Even in a game with a penalty for demotion, this is a very abnormal thing. If you die anyway, it means you just drop a level. If you can't avoid it, almost all players will choose to fight the enemy . Even if they can't beat them, it's better than running away directly.

Wu Jian didn't even hesitate and chose to run away immediately. It might have something to do with his personality, but most of the reason was that Ji Xuanyi left a psychological shadow on him ...

Qi Qin couldn't help but ask: " Two years ago, how many times did you kill him? "

Ji Xuan looked at him and said speechlessly, " How can I remember this kind of thing clearly? Two years ago, I killed 500 to 600 people every day. Sometimes they would come out in groups and exceed a thousand. Do I have to single out the number of times I killed him ? "

Qi Qin: "... So many? "

Ji Xuan replied absentmindedly: " At that time, I was busy collecting kills all day long and didn't play games at all. "

 " Why? How have they offended you? " Qi Qin couldn't help but ask.

Ji Xuanyi paused.

Qi Qin: " ? "

 " I'm happy to kill them, what's your business? "

Qi Qin was stunned, and found that Ji Xuanyi's face was very ugly, and he quickly apologized: " I'm sorry! "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything and said directly: " Go and complete the task. "

 " Ah? Not going to the altar? "

 " No! "

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin went to complete the mission again. It was a tough time for them. They dropped to level 22. After coming out of the resurrection point, they were trembling with fear, fearing that Ji Xuanyi would pop up from somewhere and kill them again.

Two years ago, he was deeply aware of Mu Xuanyi's cruelty. He couldn't believe it when he was inexplicably let go. After that, he had been keeping a low profile until he triggered a hidden mission in "Domain". Unexpectedly, not long after he was high-profile, Mu Xuanyi came back again.

Wu Jian looked at the white horse that had found his side again and couldn't help but think, he had worked so hard on the hidden mission for so long, was he going to have to live the same life of hiding as before just because of Mu Xuanyi?

Although the swordsman following Mu Xuanyi was indeed very powerful, after all, Mu Xuanyi was just a useless sorcerer. He was no longer capable of hunting down someone like before. On the contrary, he had to worry about his enemies coming to kill him.

Wu Jian's frown gradually relaxed. That's right, Mu Xuanyi always acted alone before, but now he found a swordsman as his follower. This proved from another aspect that Mu Xuanyi now had no fighting ability at all!

Wu Jian gritted his teeth, turned over and rode on his white horse. This time, he was going to take the initiative!

A madman like Mu Xuanyi who ruins the gaming experience of other players shouldn't play the game at all. He should find a way to get rid of Mu Xuanyi and drive him out. He can just be a homeless person until other players reach the maximum level!

Wu Jian avoided all places where there might be people, and almost stuck to the wall of Green Forest City, passing through the forest between the north and south of the city, and headed straight for the square in the south of the city.

The square in the south of the city is also a place where players like to gather. Occasionally, people will dance square dance here in the evening. There are quite a few people here now. If it was still morning, Wu Jian would probably be scared to death by his own suspicion if he appeared here. However, since he had already met Mu Xuanyi in the north of the city, he was no longer afraid. He rode his horse recklessly to the backyard of a house next to the square. This is where Wanshi Fengyu gathers. They looked at many shops and found that the one next to the square was the largest, so they decided to hold the meeting here. Usually there would be at least two people chatting or playing cards here. Wanshi Shengyi, as the gang leader, would come here to sit every now and then to prevent anyone from looking for him.

When Wujian rode in on his horse, Wanshi Shengyi was playing poker with his deputy Fengyu Xixi, using cards that were of course made by the players themselves.

Feng Yuqi seemed to be losing, but as soon as Wu Jian came in, he took advantage of the noise, threw the cards in his hand into the waste pile, and even stretched out his hand to make a tie.

Wanshi Shengyi frowned and was about to say something to him, but Fengyu Qiqi immediately said, " Wujian has something to ask you, can you get the point?! "

Chapter 27

Wanshishengyi certainly knows the important points , he just doesn't bother to care.

But since Feng Yuqi had already spoken , he couldn't just pretend he didn't hear it , so he looked at Wu Jian and said unhappily, " What are you doing? You even came in on a horse . Everyone in Green Forest City knows that you have a horse. Can you please stop showing off? "

Wu Jian's face turned pale, but he was not angry at Wan Shi Sheng Yi's words. Feng Yu Qi Qi seemed to realize something , but still said subconsciously: " Old Wan, what are you doing? He must be in a hurry. Wu Jian is not the kind of person who is impolite , right Wu Jian? "

Wanshi Shengyi and Fengyu Qiqi are always like this, when facing gang members who are not very satisfied with them, one plays the good cop and the other plays the bad cop, trying to win people over, but one of them is really irritating and the other can never comfort them enough, which is very embarrassing . Few people are willing to fall for their tricks, otherwise Wanshi Fengyu would not have become a bully now due to poor management.

But they didn't seem to realize this and kept enjoying it.

Wu Jian certainly didn't buy it , but at the moment , he couldn't express it, so he just got off the horse and said, " I'm sorry, I didn't mean it. "

Wanshi Shengyi nodded with satisfaction and asked, " What happened? "

Feng Yuxixi was a little smarter than Wan Shishengyi, and he immediately saw that Wu Jian was only at level 22, and he was surprised and said, "Those two people tried to kill you again?!"

Wu Jian pursed his lips and said as if he had made a great decision: "Yes, and I know who they are."

In fact, Wanshi Shengyi and Fengyu Qiqi didn't want to care about this matter anymore. After all, the other party was targeting Wujian, not Wanshi Fengyu. It would be a thankless task to care about this matter, and Wujian would not reveal the hidden clues because of this.

But Wu Jian was still a member of the gang after all, and it would be too disloyal to just abandon him. Wan Shi Sheng Yi didn't say anything, so Feng Yu Qi Qi had to bite the bullet and said, "Did you see it? Who was it?"

Wu Jian glanced at them and said, "Mu Xuanyi."

"Fuck!"

The two people cursed in unison, and Wanshi Shengyi almost fell off the stool. No wonder Wujian suddenly became so polite. He had just been scolded by him in the morning, but he learned to apologize in the afternoon. It turned out that it was because Mu Xuanyi came to him and wanted to drag him into the water!

Wan Shisheng's attitude can be seen from the idea of dragging him into the water. He didn't even think that Wu Jian was here to find help, but thought that the other party was here to frame him!

If there were a guild system now, Wanshi Shengyi would have probably kicked Wujian out in seconds.

Are you kidding! Mu Xuanyi had once single-handedly defeated a gang of a thousand people! He had never experienced such a lot, how could he withstand the torment of such a madman! Feng Yuqi looked at Wu Jian in doubt and said, "Are you sure it's Mu Xuanyi? You two haven't even met, how do you know it's his?"

Wu Jian Dao: "He told me what he said when he tried to kill me. I won't make a mistake. He is Mu Xuanyi."

Wanshi Shengyi and Feng Yuqi looked at each other. Feng Yuqi laughed dryly and said, "Um, Brother Wujian..."

Just by looking at the expressions of these two people, he knew what they were going to say. He knew how cowardly Wanshi Shengyi was. It was absolutely impossible for him to have the courage to go against Mu Xuanyi.

But it is impossible now, but we have to do it.

"I'll just say it directly," Wu Jian threw away his polite disguise and said nonchalantly, "Mu Xuanyi has already set his sights on you. He knows that I am your helper and that you have been looking for him one by one on the street for me. When he was trying to kill me, I told him that I would live and die with you all. I will not retreat until you leave. At worst, I will be reduced to level 20, and you can kill me however you want!"

"Fuck! Wu Jian, are you fucking sick?" Wan Shi was almost angry to the point of having a heart attack. He pointed at Wu Jian's nose and cursed: "We, Wan Shi Feng Yu, owe you anything? How many resources did we give you? When something happened to you, all the people in the gang went out to help you find someone on the street, and you just cheated us like this?! "

Feng Yuqiqi was also dumbfounded. It was he who persuaded Wan Shi Shengyi to bring Wu Jian over. He didn't expect things would turn out like this. If things were really as Wu Jian said, the gang they had worked so hard to build would be ruined!

Of course, Wu Jian was not telling the truth. Ji Xuanyi had no intention of doing anything to Wanshi Fengyu, but in order to get Wanshi Fengyu to help him, he had no choice but to say so. Now that his face was torn, Wu Jian had no more scruples and said directly: " There's nothing I can do. I've been targeted and I can't get rid of it. Of course I'll try to get people to help me. "

" Fuck you-- " Wan Shisheng was so angry that he wanted to draw his sword and chop him: " We're going to die anyway, so it would be a waste if I don't take your turn first! "

This effect only lasted for a little while, Wu Jian quickly said: " Hey! Don't rush to kill me, do you know what profession Mu Xuanyi is playing now?! "

Wanshishengyi was stunned.

That's right, Wu Jian mentioned before that there were two people who killed him, a swordsman and a sorcerer, but there was no mention of an assassin.

Wanshi Shengyi put down his sword and said, " Is he playing the swordsman now? "

Wu Jian smiled and said, " No, he plays a warlock. "

" How is it possible— " Feng Yuxi couldn't help but ask, " Is Mu Xuanyi crazy? He has so many enemies, and he wants to play a warlock? Does he want to be the one who can't even leave the Novice Village? "

" He is a madman! " Wu Jian cursed, " He is just a warlock now. If I hadn't found a binding, I would have killed him back to Xinmu by myself. Why would I need you! "

Wanshi Shengyi and Fengyu Qiqi looked at each other, and Fengyu Qiqi said, " The swordsman he found is also very powerful, right? " s'What " the use of a powerful swordsman? If he's surrounded by people, he can only wait for death. When Mu Xuanyi destroyed a gang of a thousand people, didn't he rely on the assassin's invisibility to kill when there were fewer people and run away when there were more people? The swordsman can't run away. Wanshi Fengyu has so many people, but he can't beat these two? "

Wu Jian persuaded them, " He's not going to let you go anyway. Instead of just sitting there and waiting to die, why not take the initiative and kill them both? Then when the news gets out, it will be so cool that Wan Shi Feng Yu killed Mu Xuan. Many people will rush to join the gang! "

If it was just a combination of a warlock and a swordsman, it would indeed be easier to deal with. Although Mu Xuanyi is famous, he is just an individual. The warlock profession cannot pose any threat unless he cheats.

Wanshi Shengyi was actually somewhat tempted, but he still said hypocritically: " We are just a gang of relatives and friends. The most important thing is unity. It is useless to have so many people. "

Wu Jian was shocked: " It doesn't matter if you don't want people, I'll just ask you for help, okay? After I take turns to criticize Mu Xuanyi and his followers, I'll tell you the conditions for triggering the hidden mission, how about it? "

Wanshishengyi and Fengyuqiqi looked at each other and acted as if they were very reluctant but had to agree.

Wu Jian knew it was done, and added fuel to the fire: " Everyone knows about Mu Xuanyi, the cancer. Everyone has been harassed by him. If we can kill him this time, it will be considered as getting rid of a threat to the players in Domain. It's a good thing! A good thing! Everyone will be grateful to you! "

Wanshishengyi and Fengyuqiqi then smiled and agreed, saying, " For everyone's gaming experience, it's our duty to contribute. It's our duty. "

" Oh my, the boss is too modest! " Wu Jian praised repeatedly.

In fact, both parties knew what kind of person the other was. One called the other a coward in his heart, and the other called him a scum in his heart, but they appeared to be in a happy mood on the surface.

Wansi Shengyi said kindly: " Brother Wujian, your current level is a bit low. Do you want us to take you to kill some monsters first and then level up twice? "

Wu Jian also humbly said: " No need, no need. My personal interests are not as important as the gang. The most urgent thing is to organize people and drive Mu Xuanyi out. "

When it came to killing Mu Xuanyi, Wansi Shengyi was a little scared again. Feng Yuqi saw it and quickly took over the conversation calmly: " Brother Wujian, do you know where Mu Xuanyi is now? "

Wu Jian also saw that Wan Shishengyi was getting scared. He was disdainful in his heart, but nodded seriously and said, " I met them when I was on a mission in the north of the city. They shouldn't leave the north of the city anytime soon. "

Go to the north of the city to do a mission? The north of the city is so poor, why go there?

Wansi Shengyi was stunned, and then immediately thought that Wu Jian was probably afraid that someone would be killed in the south of the city again , so he went to the north of the city. Unexpectedly, he ran into Mu Xuanyi who went to the north of the city.

Wansi Shengyi wanted to laugh a little, but the corners of his mouth twitched, so he held back and said, " He ran to the north of the city. He must be afraid of our previous search in the south of the city. This also proves that what Brother Wujian said is right. "

Wu Jian nodded quickly and said, " That's right, that's why I asked the gang leader for help. If I wasn't absolutely sure, I wouldn't have raised the banner of "everything will happen" and I would have definitely fought them alone. "

This is really shameless. Who the hell just said that it is better to kill more people than to kill one person? This time, Wansi Shengyi's mouth twitched. He held back an MMP for a long time, but finally held it in and said, " Thank you so much for your kindness! "

Feng Yuxixi saw that the atmosphere was not right, so he quickly came out to smooth things over: " Then let's call the people in the gang who are online first, and go to the north of the city together to take a look. "

Just as Wansi Fengyu was quickly gathering his men, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, who knew nothing about this, were watching a song and dance performance beside the altar.

Chapter 28

Perhaps because there were not many people coming from the north of the city , the buildings in the north of the city were drawn very sloppily on the map , and only those related to the mission were clear . Because of this , Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were both shocked when they found the altar.

In the north of the city, which is not as developed as the south, the altar is actually built very majestically. It is even larger than the central square in the south of the city. Many nameless people shuttle through it, holding silver plates filled with fruits and snacks in their hands.

There were singing and dancing performances everywhere. They gathered in groups around the altar , singing and dancing . Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin took a look around and found that there was not even a single repeated dance.

" You were so careless that you even planted the sweet potatoes in the forest. Why did you have to be so meticulous in such a completely unnecessary place? " Ji Xuanyi said with a frown.

They probably saw a dozen dancers along the way . In fact, if the moves were exactly the same, the players wouldn't say anything . Why bother to spend so much effort on choreography?

Qi Qin didn't think about these questions at all. He was looking around happily. A dancer passed by, swaying her slender waist . She gave him a coquettish look, which scared Qi Qin . He quickly withdrew his gaze and stared at Ji Xuan.

Ji Xuanyi was thinking and didn't notice his actions.

Qi Qin couldn't help but say, " I always feel like something is wrong. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything , because he had the same feeling . The moment he saw the altar, he felt a sense of incongruity.

But what's wrong? It's obvious, but I just can't figure it out ...

Ji Xuanyi pursed his lips, his brows were furrowed so tightly that they could almost pinch a fly to death. Qi Qin always had an urge to rub his lips.

He could see that Ji Xuanyi had indeed thought of bad memories because of his question, but after saying some angry words, he still accompanied him here to watch the show. This awkward concern made him feel warm in his heart.

He hasn't been taken care of by others for many years. After coming to this world, although he has the care of Qi Qin's parents, he knows very well that it is not his. The only one who knows his true identity and cares about him and treats him well from the bottom of his heart is Ji Xuanyi. With friends like this, what more could I ask for?

Qi Qin's gaze towards Ji Xuanyi became increasingly gentle, and finally attracted Ji Xuanyi's attention.

Ji Xuanyi said with a cold face: " What are you doing? "

Qi Qin suddenly became timid and stammered, " No, nothing ..."

Ji Xuanyi showed an impatient expression.

Qi Qin quickly tried to make amends, " I, I just feel that I am so worthy of knowing a friend like you! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin: " QAQ ! "

Why did Ji Xuanyi's expression become even more ferocious even though he was praising the other person?

Qi Qin panicked and randomly picked up a piece of fruit from the plate on the table next to him, handed it to Ji Xuanyi, and said, " Eat, eat, eat, eat, pear ..."

It was not until Ji Xuan looked at him strangely that Qi Qin realized that he was holding an orange, and that the food in this game had no taste.

In fact, although Qi Qin's body in this world is skinny due to his addiction to alcohol and sex, his skeleton is taller than that in the other world because of the good living conditions in his childhood.

Ji Xuanyi was half a head shorter than him, but every time the other party showed a scary expression, Qi Qin felt a pressure coming at him and couldn't help but feel his legs go weak. Just when Qi Qin was so nervous that he felt dizzy, Ji Xuanyi suddenly whispered: " So that's how it is. "

" Huh? What? " Qi Qin came to his senses.

Ji Xuanyi said: " There are fewer people here. "

Qi Qin was stunned: " Who is it? "

Ji Xuanyi picked up the orange in his hand and said, " There are fewer people eating this. "

Qi Qin was confused.

Ji Xuanyi said, " Although this is an altar, the layout is more like a celebration. There are singing and dancing performances and people delivering food all around. But it's strange. If it's a sacrifice, where are the people presiding over the ceremony? If it's a celebration, where are the people participating in the celebration? There are people serving here, that is, servants, but no one is enjoying it. That's why we felt strange when we came in. "

Qi Qin was confused and seemed to understand: " Maybe the game developer was careless ... "

Ji Xuanyi asked back: " Are you so careless that there is not a single repetition in the dozen or so dances? "

Qi Qin choked and shook his head, " Then I don't understand either. "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " There may indeed be a hidden mission in the north of the city, but I can't find the trigger point. But I can't say for sure. It may also be a foreshadowing of the subsequent plot of this game, a mission that has not yet been opened or something like that. "

Qi Qin couldn't listen anymore. He picked up the orange from Ji Xuanyi's hand, peeled it, put it to his nose and smelled it. As expected, there was no smell. Then he put it back on the plate next to him with regret. After dozens of seconds, the poor peeled orange was refreshed and a fresh orange reappeared.

Ji Xuanyi said, " I don't plan on doing any quests right now, so I'll just walk around and ask people I can talk to. Maybe I'll get lucky and it will trigger something. "

Qi Qin completely understood this sentence, and Ji Xuanyi asked him to have a conversation with him.

" Okay! What do you want to ask? OuO"

" Ask them who all this singing, dancing and food is for. "

However, there are at least several hundred people in this altar, some with names and some without, crowded together, and moving back and forth. It is not easy to get any clues from them. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin tried hard for a long time, but only found four or five people who could answer them. Their answers to their questions were all exactly the same, and they were prepared for God.

When Ji Xuan asked again and again what kind of god it was, they stopped talking again. Just when Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were at a loss, Sleepy Cat suddenly sent a private message.

[Sleepy Cat] : Xiaoji, are you there?

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, not knowing what the other party wanted him to do.

[Ji Xuanyi] : What's the matter?

[Sleepy Cat] : Hasn't Art been in the forest these past two days? She just sent me a message saying that a lot of people suddenly came from the south of the city.

[Ji Xuanyi] :?

[Sleepy Cat] : Yishu said that she was digging the soil, so she didn't see it clearly, but she saw Wujian riding a horse, and following behind him should be the person who made everything happen.

Ji Xuanyi blinked.

Qi Qin, who had been looking for someone to talk to, came up and asked, " Why did you stop? Is there anything wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " Ah Miao's private chat, Art saw that Wan Shi Feng Yu had gathered a group of people to the north of the city. "

" ah? "

[Sleepy Cat] : I don't know what these troubled people are doing in the north of the city. It's definitely not a good thing. You and Tianxia should be careful and don't provoke them.

[Ji Xuanyi] : Got it, thank you.

[Sleepy Cat] : You're welcome,ahaha, come to me if you have any problems!

[Ji Xuanyi] : Ah, then I want to ask you something.

[Sleepy Meow] : What?

[Ji Xuanyi] : What is this altar used for? Is there anything else related to this altar?

[Sleepy Cat] : Wow, you know this altar I told the world about? This altar is dedicated to a god whose name is unknown. I haven't heard anyone mention its exact name. There are a lot of things related to the altar. Almost everyone in the north of the city mentioned it during the mission. If you want to say something special, there is no one that is very special ...

This is really puzzling. If Ah Miao, a player who has been in the north of the city for so long, can't give any effective suggestions, then the clues to this hidden mission can be said to be buried very deeply.

Otherwise, it would really just be a foreshadowing of the plot that will be revealed in the next game, and there is nothing hidden at all.

Ji Xuanyi was deep in thought, and Qi Qin said nervously: " Did Ah Miao say how many people came to help him? "

Oh, yes, everything has its own destiny.

Ji Xuanyi almost forgot about this.

Seeing Ji Xuanyi's sudden realization, Qi Qin said helplessly: "They are looking for revenge on us, what are you thinking about? "

Ji Xuanyi said honestly: "I'm trying to hide it."

For Ji Xuanyi, the fact that someone was seeking revenge was actually a daily occurrence for a period of time. Besides, there were not many people who were willing to help him deal with all kinds of things, so he subconsciously did not take it seriously and forgot about it while chatting ...

Qi Qin held his forehead with his hand: "Xuan Yi, there are so many people in Wan Shi Feng Yu. If they surround the two of us, it will be difficult to escape."

There is no such thing as penetration in holographic games. The effect of dozens of people surrounding them is not the same as that of keyboard online games. When Ji Xuan heard this, he finally perked up a little and asked, "What? Can't you beat them? "

Qi Qin shook his head: "They are all reckless men who have never learned martial arts. There is nothing I cannot beat them. I am just afraid that I might accidentally make a mistake and let them hurt you."

Seeing Qi Qin's serious expression, Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but smile and said, "You've been practicing for twenty years, and you still fail? "

Qi Qin blushed and said, "This is a different situation. I would be nervous too."

Ji Xuanyi didn't know what he was thinking about, but he felt a little better and said, "Don't worry, the most basic job of an auxiliary is to ensure that you don't die before the output is pulled out to help. I can still do this."

Ji Xuanyi is indeed very powerful. Qi Qin has witnessed this when they were upgrading together. Moreover, Ji Xuanyi has so many enemies, which also proves his strength from the side.

"But speaking of which, are Wanshi Fengyu also your former enemies?" Qi Qin asked with some doubt: "If it's like what you said before, they shouldn't have gone to such a big fuss just because of Wu Jian, right? "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, and said with a guilty conscience: I should have "... never killed any of their people before ?"

Qi Qin: "..."

Why use such an uncertain tone?

Chapter 29

Judging from Qi Qin's experience in the underworld , for someone as notorious as Ji Xuanyi ... well , a well-known person , it is rare for him to bring his family with him to cause trouble , because it is not worth it. However , it was really beyond Qi Qin's expectation that Wanshi Fengyu would come to him with such a large force .

Ji Xuanyi couldn't remember whether he had any grudge against Wan Shi Feng Yu or not, so he just pretended to have one and said nonchalantly, "It's probably because Wu Jian spread the news that I played a warlock . It's okay . The game has just started and everyone's level is low. It shouldn't take long to kill them all. "

Qi Qin: "..."

" Xuan Yi , " Qi Qin said with mixed feelings , " It's like this. There's a saying in the martial arts world that it's better to resolve a feud than to create one ..."

Ji Xuanyi didn't react for a moment and showed a confused expression.

Qi Qin seemed to understand something and said in a tangled way: " Okay ..."

Ji Xuanyi: " ? "

Qi Qin asked: " What should we do now? Should we find a place to ambush them like before? "

Ji Xuanyi didn't think much about it and shook his head: " I'm not familiar with the world, I don't know where they will start looking for us , this place is not far from the forest ..."

Ji Xuanyi was just about to say that he would just wait there, but when he looked up , he saw a tall tree outside the altar.

so lush that if there is someone hiding inside , it is impossible to see.

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " How about this, let's go to the tree and rest for a while. "

Qi Qin: "..."

There were a total of thirty-eight people in the Wanshi Fengyu gang, eleven of whom were not online. The twenty-four people who were online, except for the three of Wanshi Shengyi, were all called together, formed into a team, and headed to the north of the city in a hurry.

After crossing the forest, Wan shishengyi realized that the north of the city is so big. If he keeps looking like this, how long will it take to find it?

Infernal Affairs: " I still remember the place where I encountered them . It has been more than an hour since I was killed. Maybe I can draw a line around it. "

Wanshi Shengyi said unhappily: " It's no use marking the area. They were still moving when we were looking for them. How could we possibly find them? "

A knight in the team interrupted and said, " Doesn't Wu Jian have a horse? He must be able to run faster than those two people. When he finds it, he can just notify us. "

When Wu Jian heard this, his face froze. He glared at the knight without leaving a trace and said, " I can go, I'm not afraid of death, but there is a warlock among them who can control people. It won't take him half a minute to kill me. Even if I tell you the coordinates immediately, they will be gone by the time you rush over. This won't work. "

In fact, it is feasible, because this method can at least use Wu Jian's mobility to shorten the distance between them. As long as Wu Jian is willing to die twice, the large force can meet Ji Xuanyi and the other two.

But Wu Jian is only level 22, and if he drops two more levels he will be killed. He will not agree to this no matter what. Moreover, the slogan of the Wanshi Fengyu gang is loyalty, and no one is willing to take the lead in saying that Wu Jian should die.

The situation suddenly became deadlocked.

After a long while, Feng Yuxixi spoke up to smooth things over: " How about this, we split up and look for it, and whoever finds it first can notify each other, how about that? " immediately said: " No! For Mu Xuanyi, less than fifteen people means being alone! "

This sentence also has its origin. When Mu Xuanyi broke up the gang of a thousand people, the method he adopted was the simplest but most effective method to kill off marginal players. After this attempt was discovered, the leader of that gang immediately organized the gang members into teams of five to do daily tasks and try not to be left alone. Unexpectedly, the team was directly wiped out by Mu Xuanyi, and he also saved the other party the time of looking for people. The gang leader had no choice but to form more people and send players with sharper skills to escort them. Only then was Mu Xuanyi completely helpless against them when they were in a team of fifteen.

But by that time, the Thousand Man Gang had almost dispersed. What players want in a game is freedom, not being forced to be tied to a dozen people to complete a daily task, and being unable to act unless everyone is together. If it was only for a short period of time, it would be fine. The gang couldn't do anything to Mu Xuanyi, so was it going to go on like this?

The Thousand Man Gang thus disbanded, and a legend was left on the game forum that for Mu Xuanyi, a group of less than fifteen people was equivalent to being alone.

But things are different now than they were before.

Feng Yu laughed sadly: " Brother Wu Jian, you are too sensitive. Have you forgotten that Mu Xuanyi is now a warlock? Only assassins with stealth can fight against many people. Warlocks can't even beat others in a one-on-one fight. "

Wu Jian was the first one to know about this. He didn't expect that the killing had left him with a trauma in his heart. He actually forgot about it when Mu Xuanyi was mentioned and even spoke it out subconsciously.

Wu Jian laughed dryly and said awkwardly: " Oh, yes, yes, that's right. "

Feng Yuqi said sympathetically, " But the swordsman that Mu Xuanyi brought with him should not be underestimated. We'd better not divide into too many teams. There are 27 of us here, so let's divide into three teams of nine. It happens that Lao Wan, I, and the Wujian brothers can each lead a team. If there is any discovery, just chat with the three of us privately. "

Nine-man team? Wu Jian hesitated, but he didn't dare to say that he was a bit cowardly, so he reluctantly said: " Okay ..."

Feng Yu looked around and saw no one objected to him, so he said to Wan Shi Sheng Yi: " Then let's arrange it this way. Lao Wan will be the team leader. "

There are things to pay attention to when dividing a team. Some professions can cooperate well even if they are not familiar with each other, while some professions cannot be combined at all and can only fight on their own. Whether in pvp or pve , dividing the team by profession is a very important thing.

But Wanshi Fengyu didn't understand this. Their guild had never fought in a guild war, nor had they participated in any large-scale dungeons. To put it bluntly, they were just a group of rabble gathered together. At most, they worked together to complete tasks and level up, and bully individual players or something like that.

As soon as Feng Yuxixi told him about the division, he didn't know what to do. His brain was not suitable for thinking about these things with rules and regulations, so he just waved his hand and said, " Then everyone can choose whoever you want to follow. "

Twenty-four people all stood behind Fengyuqiqi and Wanshishengyi. There was nothing behind Wujian and his face turned green.

Feng Yuqi subconsciously wanted to laugh, but held it back and said, " Hey, Lao Wan, the team is not divided like this! "

Wansi Shengyi scratched his head and said, " Then you divide it up. It's really annoying that you deliberately threw it to me. "

The relationship between the two of them was actually very good, and there was no dark speculation about each other's actions.

Feng Yu said sadly, " We don't need to worry about coordination. There are only two of them. In short, try to spread out your professions as much as possible. Don't crowd together people of the same profession to give them a chance to target you. "

" Including me, there are six mages, eight swordsmen, four knights, three archers, and six assassins. How about this, brother Wujian, you take a knight, two mages, two assassins, an archer, and two swordsmen to the bottom lane, and Lao Wan and I will divide them up. How do you think? "

Wu Jian counted and subconsciously said: " We don't have milk? "

Feng Yuqi gave an awkward smile.

Wansi Fengyu is a monk gang, consisting entirely of male players who are passionate-minded. Swordsmen account for about one-third of the gang members, and the rest all choose output.

No one even plays offensive supports like warlocks, not to mention priests who can only add blood most of the time.

However, Wu Jian has been in the gang for so long that he doesn't even know whether there is any treatment in the gang. It can also be seen that the other party is not so dedicated to everything.

I feel a little unhappy when everything goes well and when the wind and rain are sad.

But now is not the time to talk about this. Wansi Shengyi said, " Brother Wujian, it doesn't matter if you don't have a healer. The swordsman doesn't have one either, and there's also a warlock as a burden. So many people are enough. What's more, if you run into them, you don't need to really kill them. Nine people can buy some time until Fengyu and I arrive. With more than 20 people, what are you afraid of? "

Feng Yuxi also said: " Yes, no matter which of us encounters it, if we can't defeat it, we can just delay it for a while. "

That's easy to say ... Wu Jian thought, haven't you seen the speed at which that swordsman kills people ? He's using his life to delay. Anyway, if I can't beat him when we meet, I'll just run away.

Having made up his mind, Wu Jian relaxed a little and said with a smile: " That's good, let's do it this way. "

Wansi Shengyi and Fengyu Qiqi divided the remaining sixteen people into groups, wrote down the appearance characteristics of the two people mentioned by Wujian, and then divided them into three groups: upper, middle and lower, and went looking for people separately.

Wu Jian still remembered that he met Mu Xuanyi and the others near the road that Wansi Shengyi took, and he deliberately avoided them and walked down.

Although he had planned to use Wanshi Fengyu to get rid of the hidden danger Mu Xuanyi, Wu Jian did not actually intend to spend too much effort to help. After all, facing an enemy like Mu Xuanyi, the further he rushed, the faster he would die. He now hoped that Wanshi Shengyi and Fengyu Qiqi would find Mu Xuanyi quickly, and he could just hang around in the bottom lane. Not long after the Wujian team left, a wizard suddenly said, " Oh, I remember this place. I've been here before. "

" Hmm? " Wu Jian looked at him.

The wizard smiled obscenely and said, " There is an altar a little further to the left, with many dancing girls inside! "

Wu Jian's eyes lit up, then he cleared his throat and said, " We are here for a serious matter, you understand? What's going on at the altar? Are there any missions? "

The wizard scratched his head and said, " It seems not. I remember that those over there had no names. They were all passers-by. "

Wu Jian breathed a sigh of relief. Mu Xuanyi was a PVP maniac. He was either getting kills or preparing to get kills. At his current level, he was probably still obsessed with upgrading. If there were no missions, Mu Xuanyi would not go there.

But he still pretended to be confused and said, " Pedestrians? It's hard to distinguish them from players. They might hide there on purpose. Let's go and take a look! "

He led a group of people and walked towards the altar in a swaggering manner.

On this side, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were almost falling asleep waiting on the tree, but no one came. Ji Xuanyi was bored and teaching Qi Qin how to deal damage to different professions, when they saw a few ant-sized figures coming over from a distance .

It must be said that even if a person riding a horse is only the size of an ant, he is still very conspicuous.

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " Oh, an acquaintance is here. "

Chapter 30

After hearing Ji Xuanyi's words , Qi Qin turned his head back , wanting to see who the acquaintance was.

Ji Xuanyi held onto the tree trunk and kicked him . Qi Qin looked back in bewilderment. Ji Xuanyi asked, " Did you remember what I told you about targeting each profession? "

Qi Qin nodded and said, " I'll remember it. "

At this time, Wu Jian and his group came closer. Because they were worried that Ji Xuanyi and the other two would suddenly appear, they held their weapons in their hands, making it easier for the two people on the tree to see their professions . Ji Xuanyi asked: " How do we fight this wave? "

Qi Qin took a look and frowned, Both " close combat and long range combat? "

Ji Xuan nodded and looked at him seriously.

Qi Qin panicked and stammered, " How, how do you fight? "

Ji Xuanyi said with some amusement: " You ask me? "

Qi Qin awoke with a start and quickly asked, " Kill the archers first? "
Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Generally speaking, if there is a chance , the remote ones should be dealt with first. "

 " But your weapon is not for nothing. The attack power plus your own ability can kill people instantly , so the first person you want to kill now is not the archer. "

Qi Qin was stunned and asked: " Who is that? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " It's Wu Jian. "

 " Ah? Why? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Because I don't like him. "

Qi Qin: "..."

This reason can be said to be very sufficient and reasonable.

Wu Jian approached with a group of people . From a distance , they could see people moving around densely inside the altar . If a player sneaked in, it would be very difficult to be discovered.

He felt a little guilty again . Could it be that Mu Xuanyi and the others were really here?

The wizard from before asked: " Should we go in and look for it? "

Wu Jian coughed dryly: " No hurry, let's go around the side and take a look. "

It turned out that he was scared. The others exchanged glances secretly.

Wu Jian didn't think he was a coward. He thought it was being cautious. It was better to observe beforehand than to rush in rashly and be ambushed.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were hiding on the side of the road. They had originally planned to wait for Wu Jian and his men to enter first before attacking them from behind. However, the other team had assassins with high agility and reconnaissance capabilities, and a heavily armored swordsman like Qi Qin would be easily discovered. When the two were discussing how to reduce the sound of their footsteps, they found that Wu Jian's team was circling towards them.

Ji Xuanyi was shocked by this and asked, " Does he know we are here? "

Qi Qin was also a little unsure and said hesitantly : " It shouldn't be, right? "

As he was speaking, Wu Jian was about to pass under the tree.

Although he suspected that the other party was trying to give himself away on purpose, Qi Qin still jumped off the tree the moment Wu Jian passed by and pounced towards him!

Qi Qin himself must have weighed about 150 to 160 pounds, and with his heavy armor and chest-high giant sword, he must have weighed at least 300 pounds. He jumped down from a three-meter-high tree and landed on Wu Jian, crushing both him and his horse half to death.

Wu Jian only had time to show a shocked and angry expression before Qi Qin sent him back to the resurrection point with a single blow.

No one expected Wu Jian to die so quickly. Qi Qin himself was stunned for a moment, and the others were even more frightened. They reacted a beat late and cursed " Fuck " while throwing their skills at Qi Qin.

The only archer in the team wanted to take advantage of the chaos to distance himself. He was running out with his hands and feet trembling, but suddenly his body went numb and he couldn't move. Then he heard another voice coming from the tree where the swordsman was hiding: "Left hand, archer's sword."

The archer was unable to move, watching in despair as Qi Qin, who was originally surrounded by his teammates, suddenly found his target, waved away everyone and rushed towards him. In the split second before turning into white light and flying away, the archer came out of his paralysis and shouted desperately: "There's another one on the tree!"

In fact, he didn't need to remind others to know that Qi Qin was able to escape instantly because someone turned his target to the person in the tree.

The two mages threw fireballs at the tree at the same time. Ji Xuanyi had anticipated this and jumped down from the tree with a somersault. He even lost some blood, but fortunately he didn't feel any pain and it didn't affect his movements. Before they could react, Ji Xuanyi had already started running.

Qi Qin killed the archer in seconds and was fighting with several melee fighters. Unexpectedly, the next second after Ji Xuanyi came down from the tree, everyone abandoned him and chased after Ji Xuanyi.

In fact, when outnumbered, there is no need to worry about killing the auxiliary first. Just rely on your numbers to kill the output in seconds. However, as soon as they came into contact, the people from Wanshi Fengyu immediately discovered that Qi Qin's equipment was very good, with high attack and strong defense, and they could not beat him at all. If they kept attacking him, they would easily be killed by him and Ji Xuanyi.

If they kill the warlock first, although some people will be sent back to the resurrection point by Qi Qin in the chaos, they can slowly kill Qi Qin who has no support. In addition, attacking the auxiliary is also a way to break up the concentrated fire in a way. It can force the opponent's output to give up the attack and turn to save the auxiliary who is about to die. In this way, the situation can be reversed instantly, from passively being beaten to actively attacking.

However, this tactic has a condition, which is that they must at least attack the warlock in front of them first.

Ji Xuanyi had no idea how many assistants he had killed and was familiar with their output patterns. He distanced himself from them early on, but his own speed was very slow. Although it would be difficult for swordsmen and knights without horses to catch up with him, assassins did not have such worries.

The two assassins quickly ran behind Ji Xuanyi and activated the skill "Steal Kill" at the same time. However, at this moment, Ji Xuanyi suddenly turned around, startling the two of them. Then, facing them in an awkward posture, he rolled sideways and dodged one of the skills. But this is the limit of what he can do now. The attack of another person still fell on him, but because Ji Xuanyi turned back suddenly, the effect behind him was not triggered, and only about one tenth of his blood was reduced.

Two noobs.

Ji Xuan thought expressionlessly, and was relieved to find that Qi Qin listened to him and did not rush to save him, but was beating up the two mages who had no melee protection.

One mage had already turned into white light, while the other one was running for his life, cursing at his melee fighters: " What the hell are you doing! This swordsman has such a high attack power! Don't let him go! Come save me! "

The people chasing Ji Xuanyi hesitated for a moment, and Ji Xuanyi immediately pulled his hand out and released the " Curse of the Lone Wanderer " that he had been holding back on at the mage . The mage's escape froze and he was caught up by Qi Qin and killed with two swords.

The remaining five melee fighters finally realized something was wrong.

From the time Qi Qin suddenly jumped down from the tree to now, it was actually less than two minutes! Of the original nine people, only five were left, and all the ranged ones were dead! In other words, there was a high possibility that they had been wiped out by the swordsman before they could kill the warlock in front of them!

No one wants to be demoted for no reason, especially in a game where upgrading is difficult. The remaining knight noticed the stiff expressions on the faces of the others and shouted, " We can take as much blood as we can from them! We just need to hold on until the gang leader and the others get here! "

The other four people reacted immediately and continued to attack Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi had been running until now and had been harassed by two assassins. He had been caught up a long time ago and was being approached by five melee fighters. It was useless to hide now. Fortunately, Qi Qin rushed over while they were stunned, pushed Ji Xuanyi away, put up a guard, and blocked their attack amid the teeth-grinding sound of metal friction.

Ji Xuanyi staggered after being pushed, but he was not angry with Qi Qin. After he stabilized himself , he immediately distanced himself from them and stood about ten meters behind Qi Qin with his staff in hand.

Qi Qin waved away the five men, held the sword in both hands, and stood firmly in front of them. The faces of Wanshi Fengyu and the others all looked ugly. They had no long-range attacks , and the only two assassins could not be invisible due to their levels, so they had no way to sneak around. If they wanted to attack Ji Xuanyi now, they could only break through Qi Qin's defense line head-on.

But the swordsman's operation is really awesome, and his damage is inexplicably high. He killed a squishy with two slashes. Not to mention going around to kill the warlock, it's hard to say how long the five of them can hold out ...

The five people looked at each other, and after a moment of silence, they had no choice but to bite the bullet and pounce on Qi Qin.

Not to mention how several people were beaten by Qi Qin, Wu Jian flew to the resurrection point in the north of the city two minutes ago. Seeing that he was only one level away from the novice protection line, he was so angry that he cursed.

In fact, what made him most frustrated was not that he was killed by Qi Qin's sneak attack , which was not the first time anyway, but that when he died, he was first killed by Qi Qin's Heavenly Justice, which took away half of his blood, and then he was killed by Qi Qin's sword. Otherwise, he would have been able to fight back, so how could he be killed instantly!

It's so frustrating!

Before Wu Jian could utter a few words of curse, he saw another white light appear next to him, and the archer stood next to him with an embarrassed look on his face.

Wu Jian: "..."

Archer: "..."

The archer hesitated for a moment and asked, "Have you told the leader about those two people?"

Wu Jian: "You came too fast. I didn't have time to type."

Archer: "..."

Just when Wu Jian was informing Wan Shi Sheng Yi and Feng Yu Qi Qi of the news, two mages came out from the resurrection point one after another. One of them, who was pointing the way to Wu Jian at the altar, was still complaining that the melee skills of several of them were not good enough and they were outwitted by a warlock for so long, which led to his death. In fact, God is fair, no matter how awesome Ji Xuan is, he is only level 24 now, and it only took him less than a minute to outrun those melee fighters.

Wu Jian was now angry when he saw this mage. He was talking about the altar for no reason. He caused him to drop another level. If he hadn't died once, Wu Jian would have suspected that he was an undercover sent by Mu Xuanyi! Now his tone was not very good, and he said in a gloomy tone: "That was really a long time. It has been two minutes since I was resurrected!" What it means is that don't blame others for your own poor performance.

The mage was also very upset after hearing this, as if you had persisted in Wuxian for a long time, but you still died faster than him! Besides, wasn't it because of you that everyone was demoted in the first place?

Wanshi Shengyi and Fengyu Qiqi both wanted the hidden information in Wujian's hands, so they were usually polite to him. But it was different for other people in the gang. The mage frowned and was ready to quarrel with Wujian.

Fortunately, before this, news of Wanshi Shengyi's victory came back first, saying that he and Feng Yuqi's two teams were rushing towards the altar, so they were asked to hold on.

Yes, there are still five people alive now, they can definitely hold back Mu Xuanyi and the others, and when it is Bai Mu Xuanyi's turn and they go to the game forum to show off, this part will definitely be included!

Wu Jian's eyes lit up and he typed a response with both hands quickly. He agreed without thinking. Just as he was trying hard to exaggerate how much role he played in the time-delaying tactics, a white light flashed in the resurrection point again.

The four of them turned around at the same time and found two assassins walking out of the white light.

The four people in Wujian: "..."

Two assassins: "..."

The six people looked at each other, and when one of the assassins was about to speak, the resurrection point lit up again.

The six people looked at the knight in confusion as he walked out.

Wu Jian quickly deleted the words typed in the dialog box and said to Wan Shi Sheng Yi: " Mu Xuanyi and his swordsmen are so shameless! They actually attacked us by surprise. Now only two swordsmen are still alive! "

Wanshi Shengyi, who was rushing to the altar, frowned.

Although Feng Yuqiqi and he had gone their separate ways, they had always kept a very close distance to facilitate support. After receiving Wu Jian's message, they would soon reunite. Now, she was standing next to him, wondering, " What happened? "

Wanshi Shengyi's face turned grim: " There are only two people left from Wujian. "

Feng Yuqi was stunned: " How is this possible?! How long has it been since he sent the message? "

Wanshi Shengyi said irritably: " I told you, why are you looking for trouble with Mu Xuanyi! "

Feng Yu groaned: " He is just a sorcerer, he doesn't even have any attack power. Wu Jian and the others are in such a miserable state, right? It's because of that swordsman, right? "

No matter who it was because of, Wan Shishengyi was in a bad mood now. He really didn't want to fight with Mu Xuanyi. They hadn't even met yet, and six people in the gang had been demoted – he automatically eliminated Wu Jian, and when a real fight broke out, who knows what the result would be.

Wanshishengyi was feeling upset and when he glanced over, he found that Wujian had sent another message.

[Wu Jian] : Boss, the two swordsmen are now at the resurrection point ...

All the best: "..."

Okay, before the fight officially started, one third of the people had been demoted.

Fengyu asked sadly: " What's wrong? "

Wanshi Shengyi said with a sullen face: " The Wujian team was wiped out. "

Fengyu was stunned for a moment.

Wanshi Shengyi thought of the fate of the once glorious Thousand Man Gang and couldn't help cursing again: " Damn it, how the hell did I get involved with Mu Xuanyi! I don't even want to fight him! "

Feng Yu said helplessly: " Lao Wan, it's not a question of whether we want to fight or not, but Mu Xuanyi has already set his sights on us. "

Wanshi Shengyi now thought of Wujian selling them out, rubbed his hair irritably, and said, " Once this is over, I will kick that Wujian guy out right away. "

Although he didn't know whether the storm would still exist after this matter was over ...

Feng Yu patted his shoulder comfortingly.

[All the best] : Your team was wiped out?

[无间] : Yeah ...

[无间] : But it has nothing to do with me. They probably thought I was more threatening, so I was the first one to be attacked. Alas, I didn't expect that the rest of the people couldn't hold on.

Damn, you're passing the buck again ...

If Wu Jian were in front of Wan Shi Sheng Yi at this moment, he would probably be killed to level 20 by Wan Shi Sheng Yi himself.

Wanshishengyi endured it and continued to chat with him in secret.

[Wansi Shengyi] : What should we do? Are they still at the altar?

It took a while for Wu Jian to reply.

[Wu Jian] : Yes, Xiao Wu said that before he died, he heard Mu Xuanyi say that they were waiting for us there.

Finally, he added: " That's too much. Mu Xuanyi simply looks down on you. "

To be honest, Wan Shishengyi thought it was normal for Mu Xuanyi to look down on him, but Wu Jian, this guy who always wanted to cause trouble, was really annoying!

Wansi Shengyi tried to hold back, but couldn't help it and directly deleted Wujian's friend and turned to ask Xiaowu he had just mentioned.

Feng Xiaowu was a die-hard fan of Wansi Shengyi and had been in the gang for a long time. They both played swordsman classes, so they had a good relationship. He also disliked Wujian. After receiving the news from Wansi Shengyi, he said, " Yes, those two people did say they were waiting for us there. "

Everything will be fine, look at the wind and rain.

Feng Yu frowned and said, " There is no other way. We can only go up. "

Wansi Shengyi nodded and said to Xiao Wu: " You and Wujian come together. Fengyu and I will go first. "

The resurrection point where Wu Jian and his team are located is farther from the altar than Wan Shi Shengyi and his team . If Wan Shi Shengyi goes up first, they may not be able to arrive until the middle of the battle. If they can win by then, they can help Wan Shi Shengyi. If they cannot win, they can also retreat quickly.

Wansi Shengyi didn't consider whether he would lose due to the lack of people. He just thought that Feng Xiaowu and the others had already dropped a level and couldn't drop again. Feng Xiaowu could tell that Wansi Shengyi was taking care of those who had been demoted first, and he couldn't help but said with emotion: " Boss ..."

Wansi Shengyi sighed and replied in a rather tragic tone: " Stop talking. We don't know if this gang will still exist after this fight. If Mu Xuanyi wants to break us up, remember to quit the gang as soon as possible. "

Feng Xiaowu said firmly: " No, we will not quit the gang! Even if we are gang-raped and driven out of Green Forest City! We are still thirty-seven brothers together! "

Wansi Shengyi felt warm in his heart and said, " Good brother! "

[Feng Xiaowu] : Boss, be careful! We'll be there soon!

Wansi Shengyi took a deep breath and said to Fengyu sadly: " We must work together to overcome this difficulty! "

Feng Yuqi nodded solemnly.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin would certainly not really wait for them there. Wansi Fengyu had at least twenty people. Once they dispersed from a distance , a short-legged person like Qi Qin would be at a great disadvantage and could only passively take the beating, not to mention that there was also Ji Xuanyi, who was like a burden.

Ji Xuanyi did tell Qi Qin that if there were too many people, he would most likely die, and asked him not to worry and to concentrate on clearing out the people. However, Qi Qin had given up on saving Ji Xuanyi and went to kill the two mages only because he believed in Ji Xuanyi's ability. Now that Ji Xuanyi himself said he would die, he refused to agree to the battle that the other party had proposed.

" I'm here to protect you. How can I watch you get killed ? " Qi Qin was very determined this time.

Ji Xuanyi was helpless: " It's just a level drop, can't you just kill them all and help me get revenge? "

Qi Qin shook his head: " This is different. I will never take back the promises I made. "

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly.

Qi Qin felt his heart tremble, and he wanted to kneel down and admit his mistake immediately, but he stiffened his neck and held on, saying with great backbone: " This is the only thing that won't work! "

Ji Xuanyi: " ... "

Unexpectedly, Qi Qin was so determined this time. Ji Xuanyi felt strange, but he was not angry. He just said, " It's up to you. You will be happy when we die together. "

Qi Qin said seriously: " I won't let you die. "

Ji Xuanyi accidentally met Qi Qin's determined eyes, turned away in embarrassment, and said angrily: " Stop talking, I know. "

Because of Feng Xiaowu's reminder, Wanshishengyi and Fengyuqingqi checked carefully along the way to see if there were people hiding in the trees, or behind any bushes or stones. When they were almost at the altar, they even just walked on the empty road. Ranged professions such as mages and archers were also surrounded by swordsmen and knights very cautiously, for fear of sneak attacks.

Wansi Shengyi left Feng Yuqiqi behind him and led a dozen people to the outside of the altar at a snail's pace.

The open space outside the altar was empty, without a single person.

Wansi Shengyi was stunned: " Didn't you say you were waiting for us here? "

Feng Yu said sadly, " If a person like Mu Xuanyi didn't have a heart, he would have been killed a thousand times. How could he really tell the truth? "

Wansi Shengyi frowned and asked, " Could it be that he was worried about our large numbers and left just like that? "

Feng Yu sadly shook his head: " We only have so many people, it's impossible. He must be lying in ambush somewhere, preparing to attack us by surprise. "

This is the problem. Where are Mu Xuanyi and the swordsmen ambushing?

The mages and archers stretched out their weapons from the gaps left by the melee fighters and frantically attacked the surrounding trees and shelters, but they found nothing except leaves and dust.

He had clearly prepared to fight to the death, but when he got here he found no one there.

Wansi Shengyi felt suffocated and simply shouted to those around him: " Mu Xuanyi! If you are a man, come out! Let's fight it out in an upright manner! "

Feng Yu coughed awkwardly.

It's true that they want to decide the winner, but they don't seem to be very fair. After all, it's eighteen against two ... cough!

Chapter 31

The people who had nothing to do gathered in the open space . For a while , everyone turned their eyes to Wanshi Shengyi.

What to do now?

Wan Shishengyi's mouth twitched a little , he looked at Feng Yuqi sadly , and whispered: " We can't find it, are we going to leave now? "

Feng Yu shook his head sadly and said, " No , you absolutely cannot leave now. "

Wanshishengyi frowned.

This is the problem of a guild versus an individual. It's not that they can't win. If they all rush in, no one can defeat a hundred people alone , unless the GM comes to help them cheat . Even Mu Xuanyi, who had the ability to become invisible and kill people in seconds, was helpless against them after the opposing guild gathered 15 people.

A gang was broken up by one person . The problem lies in the gang's freedom and speed of action.

Individual players are very free and have high mobility. They may get tired of doing a task and come to kill you , or they may choke on their food and come to kill you again , or they may just meet you on the road and come to kill you again . There is no pattern at all and you cannot guard against them.

If they were just ordinary people , it would be fine. They might not be able to beat gang members in a one-on-one fight , and it would not have much impact on the entire gang . But people of Mu Xuanyi's level are different, because there are very few people who can beat him. He can kill anyone he wants . If a big gang messes with such an ordinary person, it will be in trouble.

Because when facing them, you can only win by numbers, and big gangs cannot always be in a state of assembly.

If Wanshi Fengyu fails to completely deal with Mu Xuanyi this time, then what will greet them next will be endless harassment. Anyone who is left alone will be killed in minutes , and by the time they gather people who can defeat Mu Xuanyi, the other party will have already escaped. If they insist on tying the entire gang together to act, they will repeat the mistakes of the Thousand-Man Gang.

When a game becomes a prison where players must act collectively, it is impossible for players who have lost their freedom to continue staying in the guild.

Wanshi Shengyi looked at Feng Yuqi, who whispered, " We only have two choices: find Mu Xuanyi here and beat him, or just give up and leave, and then be beaten by him. "

Wanshi Shengyi collapsed and said: " I just can't find it now! "

Feng Yu hesitated for a moment and said firmly: " He must be nearby. "

Who doesn't know this? Wanshi Shengyi sighed, looked around, and suddenly froze for a moment, raised his finger and asked: " Could they be in there? "

Feng Yuqi looked in the direction he pointed and found the densely packed doors on the altar. His scalp suddenly went numb and he said, " This kind of place ..."

 " Um? "

 " It's a perfect opportunity to be ambushed ..." Feng Yu said sadly and desperately.

Wanshi Shengyi also thought of this and his face looked very ugly.

Feng Yu said sadly, " They must be hiding in there. This place is perfect. If we go in, we'll be sending ourselves to death. If we don't go in, it'll be the same as surrendering. It's disgusting ..."

Wanshi Shengyi asked, " Is it possible to let the ranged players cast skills directly inside? "

Feng Yu sadly shook his head: " No, the altar is too big, it's useless. "

The two men pondered for a while, and Feng Yuqi's eyes lit up and said, " How about this? The melee fighters go in to search, and the ranged fighters gather below to provide support. Once a melee fighter sounds the alarm, the ranged fighters immediately use their skills in that direction. As long as the general direction is determined, the ranged bombing will definitely work! "

Wanshi Shengyi understood what he meant and said happily: " That's a good idea! But Xiaowu said that the swordsman has high damage. What if our brothers are killed before we can use our ranged skills? "

It is a bit short-sighted to say such things at this time. There is no need to hesitate to know which one to choose between a person being demoted and a gang being disbanded. However, Feng Yuqiqi knows that Wan Shishengyi is speaking from the heart and he is seriously worried about this issue. For the person who is demoted, even if he knows that he is the less important one, he will definitely not feel good. Feng Yuqiqi appreciates this point of Wan Shishengyi and becomes his brother.

Feng Yu smiled sadly and was about to speak when the melee fighters who heard their conversation said, " It's okay, it's just a level drop! For the sake of our guild, it doesn't matter if we get gangbangbed! "

 " Yes, yes, don't worry, boss! "

 " We can win, it doesn't matter! "

 " Just listen to the deputy, the brothers are all willing! "

Wanshi Shengyi was deeply moved, Fengyu Qiqi also nodded and said: " Everyone is right, if any of the brothers are demoted, we can help them to practice back, right! "

Everyone said in unison: " Yes! "

 " Is that all right? " Feng Yu said to Wan Shi Sheng Yi with a sad smile, " You lead the melee troops in, and I'll stay down below with the ranged troops , and we can work together. How do you think? "

Wanshi Shengyi suddenly became full of heroic spirit, nodded his head, and waved his hand: " Melee fighters, go to the altar together! Spread out and look for people! Shout immediately when you find the target! "

 " yes! "

Feng Yuqi also said: " Stand by on the remote location, pay attention, if someone shouts, use your skills immediately, understand! "

" clear! "

Wanshishengyi and Fengyuqiqi exchanged glances, and entered the altar with a group of melee fighters in a heroic and high-spirited manner.

In order to concentrate their skills, the ranged players still huddled together, staring intently at their teammates who were gathered in the middle, ready to provide support at any time.

Two minutes passed like this, and there seemed to be no gain. Staring at one place like this was really boring and tiring. An archer standing further back couldn't hold it anymore and lost his concentration.

There seemed to be some sound? The archer was stunned for a moment, and then there was a very light sound of clattering ... It seemed like the sound of armor colliding?

That's not right. The swordsmen and knights have all entered the altar, so where does the sound of armor come from?

The archer suddenly thought of something, his eyes widened, and just as he was about to turn around, he felt a pain in his waist and his health bar was almost at the bottom.

When the archer was about to be stabbed with the last blow, he shouted at the top of his lungs: " They are outside!!! "

Ji Xuanyi, who was far away , was shocked and thought unhappily that Qi Qin really needed equipment with a lightening effect!

That's right, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were outside the whole time. When Wanshishengyi and the others walked over and threw skills to both sides, in order to prevent the skills from making any noise when equipped with armor or swords, Ji Xuanyi stood on top of Qi Qin and took two fireballs, reducing one third of his blood. Qi Qin almost exploded at that time, but was held down by Ji Xuanyi.

When Wansi Fengyu split into two teams and exposed their fragile long-range weapons , Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi, who were hiding in the bushes, immediately took action and tiptoed towards them from behind .

Thanks to Feng Yuqi's order, the rangers were so focused that they didn't even hear Qi Qin's footsteps. It was not until Qi Qin launched the attack that someone noticed them.

The archer turned into a streak of white light, and returned to the resurrection point with him along with the two mages who were still standing beside him. Qi Qin used the swordsman's skill [Sweep] . With the attack bonus of the purple weapon guardian, this skill directly cut the three fragile ranged enemies to the bone. For Qi Qin, finishing off the enemies was just a piece of cake. While finishing off the enemies, he had already set his sights on the remaining three ranged enemies .

Feng Yuqi, who was standing in the front row, didn't realize the two people appeared behind him until the archer shouted, but it was too late. The ranged attacker was approached by the melee attacker, who had such high attack power. Feng Yuqi didn't even have time to throw a fireball before he flew away along with the three white lights.

The melee fighters on the altar finally reacted. Wansi Shengyi roared: " Wind and Rain! " and ran down the altar with the melee fighters at the fastest speed.

But it was too late. The remaining mage and archer had already been killed by Qi Qin's sword. Wan Shishengyi's face turned pale and blue. He looked at Qi Qin, then at Ji Xuanyi, and laughed in anger: "Okay, okay, it's you! If you want to beat us up, we'll see if you have the ability to do so!"

Six ranged players died among the eighteen people, and there are twelve people left on Wanshishengyi's side. Half of them are swordsmen with high defense. Even if they grind away, they should be able to kill this guy!

Qi Qin held the sword in both hands and stood firmly in front of Ji Xuan. After hearing Wan Shishengyi's words, he tilted his head and said with a smile: "How about giving it a try?"

In Qi Qin's opinion, Wanshi Shengyi not only shielded the scum Wu Jian who came to cause trouble for Ji Xuanyi, but also blew up half of Ji Xuanyi's blood in front of him. Even someone as good-tempered as Qi Qin could not tolerate it. He was going to get serious!

Wan Shishengyi and his melee fighters rushed forward yelling. Qi Qin did not give in. He held his greatsword in his hand and started fighting with them. Ji Xuanyi was very leisurely, standing behind and watching, almost holding a handful of melon seeds in his hand.

In terms of close combat, it is almost impossible for anyone to be Qi Qin's opponent. The only question is whether the enemy's health needs to be reduced by two or three cuts. Within two minutes, Ji Xuanyi had seen three or four streams of light flying away from the crowd surrounding Qi Qin. They were all fragile assassins.

Soon after, the two knights were also sent back to the resurrection point. Wanshi Shengyi's skills were actually at an above-average player level. He yelled and mixed his skills with random normal attacks. After a series of operations, he found that half of the melee team he led had been killed, and he was immediately disappointed.

Is this swordsman cheating? They had clearly used their skills, but all of them were blocked by the opponent's heavy sword. On the other hand, their own people were slashed every now and then, and if they were slashed a few more times, they were directly sent to the resurrection point ... Could it be that they really could not escape the fate of being beaten up by Lun Bai?

Wanshi Shengzhi was anxious and angry, and Qi Qin had even begun to focus on attacking the swordsman. Soon, the weakest swordsman among them could not hold on anymore, and turned into white light and flew away, while the remaining people were in the same situation.

Wan Shi Sheng Yi, who had no choice but to do anything about it, could no longer find the courage to blame Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi. He only regretted that he had not discovered Wu Jian's true identity earlier and kicked him out of the gang, leaving Wan Shi Feng Yu alive. Forced to this point!

Just when only three people were still struggling to support themselves, they heard the sound of horse hooves hitting the ground.

Ji Xuanyi immediately changed his position and ran to the side of Qi Qin, and his victorious eyes suddenly lit up.

Feng Xiaowu and Wu Jian finally arrived!

Although there are only nine people, they have three long-range attackers. If they attack Mu Xuanyi and break the swordsman's momentum to rescue him, maybe they will have a chance to escape!

However, Wanshi Shengyi's plan failed. Feng Xiaowu and his men had never thought of fighting Ji Xuanyi. Feng Xiaowu himself rushed up immediately upon seeing Wanshi Shengyi, shouting: " Boss! We must die together! "

All the best: "..."

Can't I just fucking live?

Just when Wan Shi Shengyi was distracted, Qi Qin used the skill [Sweep] again , sending Wan Shi Shengyi, who had no time to speak, and the other two back to the resurrection point. Then he turned around and faced Feng Xiaowu and others who were coming towards him. Ji Xuan raised his hand to control the archer in the distance and shouted: " Kill the long-range one first ! One sword for the archer! "

Qi Qin immediately swung his sword to shake off the melee fighters Feng Xiaowu and the others, and rushed towards the archers in the distance. Feng Xiaowu and the other five had to desperately block Qi Qin's movements to create time for the ranged fighters to distance themselves. However, the archers had already been paralyzed by Ji Xuanyi in advance, and could only watch Qi Qin come to them again. Before dying, they shouted unwillingly: Why " did you kill me first again ! "

There's nothing I can do. You're an archer, so who else should I target if not you?

After the archer died, everyone naturally turned their attention to the person closest to him. After seeing that person clearly, everyone couldn't help but curse, "How fucking shameless!"

A knight on horseback! He had actually been standing with the long-range since the beginning, hiding so far away ! This can no longer be described as cowardly!

Because he was always killed in seconds before, this was the first time that Wu Jian had the chance to see Qi Qin kill someone with his own eyes. The opponent's neat movement immediately made Wu Jian realize that this swordsman would not be weaker than Mu Xuanyi at the beginning, and all his plans were in vain.

The moment he realized this, Wu Jian made a quick decision and turned his horse around and fled without looking back.

" Fuck! Wu Jian, come back here! "

Of course Wu Jian would not listen to him. He rode his horse very fast, leaving Feng Xiaowu with only his horse's butt. Feng Xiaowu was so angry that he was half dead. At this time, Qi Qin had caught up with the other wizard and sent him away amid his shouting and cursing.

The other melee fighters looked at Feng Xiaowu at a loss, not knowing how to fight since Wu Jian had already run away. Were they really just giving away their heads?

Just as they stopped moving, the only remaining mage was controlled by Ji Xuanyi and then killed by Qi Qin.

There are only five of them left ...

Looking at Qi Qin walking towards them, Feng Xiaowu gritted his teeth and shouted: " The bastard Wu Jian ran away, but we can't retreat for the sake of the gang! Even if I die and return to level 20, I will not give up fighting with you! As long as we have brothers, we will always be there for you no matter what the weather! "

The other people were also hot-blooded, otherwise they would not have stayed in Wanshifengyu for so long. They immediately responded and rushed towards Qi Qin together.

Qi Qin was originally very angry because Ji Xuan Ichigo lost blood in front of him, but after hearing Feng Xiaowu's shouting, Qi Qin couldn't help but began to admire them.

Apart from shielding Wu Jian and doing some unethical things of bullying ordinary players, the relationship between Wan Shi Feng Yu and them is still admirable. Although it's a bit silly, there's actually nothing to criticize about such brotherhood. You have to know that this is just a game. It's very easy to give up on interacting with some people and just turn around and run away like Wu Jian, and no one will bother them in the future.

But these people are willing to stick with it for their brothers. This kind of feeling is really rare. If it were Qi Qin's time, even if he was a villain, he would most likely be praised as a loyal man. Qi Qin couldn't bear to kill them.

But Ji Xuanyi, who was used to seeing this kind of thing, was different. He was not moved at all. He just wanted to kill everyone in this annoying gang back to level 20, and then complete the mission to level up. So when he saw Qi Qin's hesitation, he said in dissatisfaction: " What are you doing? "

Qi Qin froze up, and while resisting the attacks of Feng Xiaowu and the others, he said guiltily: " I, I'm trying my best to fight them ..."

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly for a long time before he slowly said, " Do you think I'm stupid, or do you think I'm blind? "

Qi Qin thought, I wouldn't dare to do any of them!

But he really didn't want to kill the people in front of him, so he had to grit his teeth and keep silent.

Feng Xiaowu and the others certainly felt that Qi Qin did not use his full strength against them. They also heard his conversation with Ji Xuanyi, which seemed to have some disagreement, and they exchanged glances.

At this time, Ji Xuanyi's expression was already very scary, so scary that if Qi Qin could turn his head and look at him, he would immediately be so scared that his legs would go weak and he would kneel down and beg for mercy.

Qi Qin could almost guess this, so he didn't dare to look back at him, but Ji Xuanyi didn't want to endure it anymore and slowly walked towards him.

As a warlock, Ji Xuanyi's footsteps were very light, but every step seemed to be stepping on Qi Qin's heart. Qi Qin had already begun to tremble, and felt that his heart was about to explode because of Ji Xuanyi's fright. Before Ji Xuanyi walked to his side, Qi Qin had an idea, and he clenched the sword tightly, exerted force with his hand, and threw Feng Xiaowu and the other five who were pressing their weapons on the guard out, and whispered: " Go! "

Feng Xiaowu flew out before he could react, and at the same time he heard Qi Qin yelling exaggeratedly: " Oh! There's still blood on the skin! What should I do? "

Of course, a few people understood what Qi Qin meant. They got up from the ground and ran away without looking back.

Qi Qin looked at the backs of the five people running away and breathed a sigh of relief. When he turned around, he saw Ji Xuanyi's face standing right behind him. His heart suddenly skipped a beat and his body became unreal.

[System Security Alert] : Player's heart rate is too high, player's heart rate is too high!

Qi Qin covered his chest and smiled weakly at Ji Xuanyi: " Hehe ..."

Ji Xuanyi curled his lips coldly: " You are very powerful. "

Qi Qin's head was covered in cold sweat, and he whispered, " I, I, I'm not that good ..."

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly.

Qi Qin originally wanted to lie and say that he made a mistake, but he found it difficult to even open his mouth. After holding it in for a long time, he finally couldn't hold it in any longer. He didn't know who he learned this from, but he squatted down with his head in his hands smoothly, crying bitterly: " I'm sorry!! I was wrong!!! "

Will he be kicked to the ground and beaten next? Qi Qin was not afraid that Ji Xuan would beat him to death. He was afraid that Ji Xuan would think he was disobedient and abandon him to find someone else to bind him.

Thinking of this, Qi Qin couldn't help but feel a little regretful. Wanshi Fengyu and the others were indeed good, but if they were left behind by Ji Xuanyi, it would be too worthless. He couldn't help but reach out and grab Ji Xuanyi's ankle, whispering: " Hit me ..."

Qi Qin was too tall and was wearing heavy armor. Even when he squatted down pitifully, he still looked a huge mass and very clumsy.

Ji Xuan looked at him for a while, then used his magic wand to hit the iron shell he was wearing, making a crisp sound: " Stand up. "

Upon hearing this, Qi Qin quickly got up and stood in front of Ji Xuanyi with his head down.

 " Actually, I'm not particularly angry. " After a moment of silence, Ji Xuanyi suddenly said.

Qi Qin: "..."

If I remember correctly, I almost quit the game because of his expression? Qi Qin thought silently.

Although Ji Xuanyi said so, for safety reasons, Qi Qin apologized again: " I'm sorry ..."

Ji Xuanyi waved his hand: " It's okay. "

Seeing that Qi Qin was still cowering, Ji Xuanyi simply said, " In fact, when I started playing this game, I was planning to adjust my mood and cultivate my sentiments. Otherwise, I wouldn't have to play a warlock and find you to bind me. If I were still an assassin, everything would have been over by now. "

This statement is true. Compared to swordsmen, assassins are more convenient in pvp , especially when seeking revenge in the wild.

Ji Xuanyi said indifferently: " So it doesn't matter if we let them go. Didn't you say that it's better to resolve a feud than to create one? "

Qi Qin really didn't expect to hear these words from Ji Xuanyi in this life, and he was immediately moved and said: " Xuanyi ..."

Ji Xuanyi: " But if you're already married, don't hold back next time, or I'll kick you out and go find someone else to play with. "

Qi Qin quickly assured: " No, no! There won't be a next time! "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Okay, those Wanshi Fengyu people probably don't dare to come, let's go do our mission. "

Qi Qin couldn't help but ask: " You are not angry anymore? "

Ji Xuan frowned and said unhappily: " I said I'm not angry! "

Qi Qin shuddered and said quickly: " Okay, okay! I got it! "

Ji Xuanyi snorted softly, and Qi Qin said cautiously: " Then we won't fight them either? "

Ji Xuanyi said casually: " Let's talk about it later and see how they perform. "

What can all the storms and winds show?

Wanshi Shengyi is now sitting at the resurrection point with a gloomy face, surrounded by people like Wanshi Fengyu.

After Feng Xiaowu escaped, he sent them a message saying that Wujian had run away alone, and they had been released by the swordsman and were heading towards the resurrection point.

[Wanshi Shengyi] : What happened? Did the swordsman let you go?

[Feng Xiaowu] : The situation is a bit complicated , boss, I'm coming over to talk to you in person!

Chapter 32

it is really funny to hear Ji Xuanyi say " It is better to resolve a feud than to create one " , he is indeed serious about " cultivating one's sentiments " and " relaxing one's mind " .

Let's not talk about the reason for now . If it wasn't for this , why would he play a warlock ? His old profession of assassin is so cool. Why would he look for binding? It's not like he has nothing better to do.

However, Qi Qin didn't know what he was thinking. He was full of questions and looked absent-minded when he was doing the task next to Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuan glanced at him and couldn't help asking, " Is it really that strange? "

Qi Qin nodded subconsciously , then immediately shrank and shook his head.

Ji Xuanyi sighed: " To be honest, I almost attacked you when you let those people go. "

Qi Qin: "..."

Sure enough , the expression he saw was not fake ...

" According to my previous thoughts , your behavior is the same as betrayal. If it weren't for the special circumstances now , I would have asked you to get out. "

Qi Qin lowered his head in shame and said, " I'm really sorry ..."

" But it's only this time, " Ji Xuan said, " Everything is like that, just let it go . Next time, you don't have to admit your mistake, just treat me as your enemy and get out of here. "

Qi Qin quickly said: " No! "

He admitted his fault quite quickly . Ji Xuan glanced at him and asked, " Do you think that Wanshi Fengyu and his group are very loyal , so you don't want to kill them? "

Qi Qin nodded: " Hmm ..."

Ji Xuanyi sneered: " This is just a game . You can say anything . Can you tell the difference between true and false feelings? "

Qi Qin was stunned and looked at Ji Xuanyi. The emotion on his face was not as relaxed as his tone showed. He thought of Ji Xuanyi's unmentionable memory and couldn't help but whispered: " Those people you killed two years ago ..."

Did I deceive you?

Before he could finish, Ji Xuanyi turned his head and looked at him coldly.

Qi Qin swallowed and dared not speak.

As soon as Ji Xuan saw Qi Qin's expression, he knew that he couldn't hold back again. He rubbed his face and said in a muffled voice: " This is my business. None of your business. " Qi Qin felt a little uncomfortable, but he was too timid, so he had to respond. However, he still couldn't help but secretly glance at him worriedly.

You'll get beaten if you do this, Qi Qin ...

Fortunately, before Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but beat him, Yishu suddenly sent a private message.

[Introduction to Art] : A major discovery! A major discovery!!! Gathering!!!

After scrolling through the pages several times, Ji Xuan turned his head and saw Qi Qin staring blankly ahead. He asked, " Art secret chat? "

Qi Qin came back to his senses and nodded, " She said she had made an important discovery. "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Maybe they dug something up in the forest. Let's go and take a look. "

Introduction to Art had been digging in the forest for nearly three days and finally made a discovery. He was so happy that he gathered Ji Xuanyi and the other man with Sleepy Cat and excitedly showed them what he had in his hand.

It was a lapis lazuli ring, which had been carefully cleaned by an artist and was shining brightly. Ah Miao asked: " Is this equipment? Or a quest item? "

" Quest item! " Yishu said happily, " In addition to this, I also dug out a lot of bone fragments, but I can't put them together. But I'm sure this must be a hidden quest! Absolutely! " Ah Miao was also very happy for her. She smiled at first, then said with some guilt: " I'm sorry that I discouraged you so much before ... "

Art was in a very good mood, and simply shook his head and said, " It's hard to say what's going on with this kind of thing. You're helping me think about it from a different perspective . It's okay! "

Ji Xuan looked at the ring for a while and asked, " Have you received the mission? "

Art was stunned, shook his head and said, " No, but next we just need to find the right dialogue. Do you want to join us? "

Ah Miao seemed quite interested, but Ji Xuanyi said, " You guys do your best, we won't come. "

" Eh? " Art's face fell: " Come on, come on, it's so fun to be together! "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head: " We are still busy. If you need our help with anything else in your mission, please come to us again. "

Yishu looked at him for a while and found that Ji Xuanyi really didn't want to come, so he didn't force him and said, " Then Ah Miao and I will go first? "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " You guys go ahead. "

After Yishu and A-Miao left together, Qi Qin asked: " Where are we going now? "

Ji Xuanyi checked the time and said, " Go back to the south of the city. "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, and said: " South City? Are you not going to complete the mission in the north city? And the altar, are you not going to check it? "

Ji Xuan said, " It's almost dark. Let's talk about these two things tomorrow. Let's go to the trading house first. There was a necklace I didn't get last time, so I want to take another look. " Qi Qin nodded and couldn't help asking, " Is it for me again? "

Ever since he met Ji Xuanyi, the other party had piled almost all the good equipment on him. At the beginning, he always refused. One time, Ji Xuanyi couldn't stand it anymore, and said bluntly that as his bound output, Qi Qin's combat effectiveness was equivalent to his own, and he was just arming himself. He asked Qi Qin not to be self-indulgent. This choked him so much that Qi Qin was embarrassed to say anything more since then.

But I just did something that made Ji Xuan angry, should he still be so nice to me?

Ji Xuan glanced at him and found that the anxiety and guilt on Qi Qin's face were about to overflow. He couldn't help but feel sad, but his face remained expressionless and he said: " No, it's useless to give it to you. You don't listen to me. Buy it and throw it away. "

Qi Qin: " QAQ ! "

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but laugh, and tapped the armor on his chest with his staff. After doing this action before, he inexplicably liked it, and said, " This is for you. Follow me, we're leaving. " Qi Qin became energetic again and quickly followed behind him.

Ji Xuanyi was talking about the white necklace he saw when he went to the trading house last time. It had a lightening effect. Qi Qin's footsteps were too heavy, and Ji Xuanyi liked to launch sneak attacks because of his professional habits as an assassin. If he couldn't find a way to make Qi Qin's footsteps lighter, it would be very troublesome in the future.

When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin arrived at the trading house in the south of the city, Wanshi Fengyu was looking for them in the north of the city.

Feng Xiaowu told Wanshi Shengyi everything about Qi Qin letting them go, and said, " That bastard Wu Jian has already escaped, but I think there might be a chance for things to turn around. "

Wanshishengyi subconsciously looked towards the bleak wind and rain.

Feng Yu murmured, " Xiao Wu is right. Although Mu Xuanyi's intention is not clear, the swordsman let Xiao Wu and the others go because he doesn't want to be our enemy . Maybe we can negotiate with them. If the swordsman speaks well of us, Mu Xuanyi might let us go. " Wanshi Shengyi was a little uncertain and said, " Is this possible? Mu Xuanyi is so cruel. Why do I feel that if the swordsman lets Xiaowu and the others go, he will be hunted down by Mu Xuanyi ? "

Feng Yuqi was silent for a moment, and actually felt that what Wanshi Shengyi said made sense, and said with shame: " It shouldn't be possible. Since he can be bound to Mu Xuanyi, the relationship between the two should be very good, and they won't fall out because of us. No matter what, we should find a way to negotiate first. After all, Wujian is no longer our person, and we are just innocent. "

 " If Mu Xuanyi is willing to let us go, that would be great. If he doesn't let us go, the result will just be a fight. No matter what, it's better to try than not to try. "

This is the reason why everyone in Wanshi Fengyu dispersed and searched all over the mountains and plains for Ji Xuanyi and the other two.

Wan Shishengyi reminded us that when we see those two people, we must immediately raise our hands in surrender and not resist. We should try to make our negotiation intentions clear before we are killed. It doesn't matter if we lose levels, we can all help to make up for it.

This plan was passed very quickly. Who would want to be demoted for no reason?

Wanshishengyi and Fengyuqingqing were still walking together. It was almost dark. The Buddhist players in the north of the city had already logged off. Not a single person was seen. He said dejectedly, " Have those two also logged off? "

They had tried to add Mu Xuanyi as a friend before, but unfortunately there was no such person.

Unlike the name Qi Qin, no one dared to use the same name as Mu Xuanyi.

The wind and rain were so bleak that I couldn't tell what was going on. I could only shake my head.

The two were hesitating whether to go online again to look for someone tomorrow, when Wanshi Shengyi suddenly exclaimed, " Oh shit! "

" What's wrong! " Feng Yu asked sadly.

Wanshishengyi said: " Jingzhi met them! "

Gray Thorn is a mage in Wanshi Fengyu, but the difference is that he did not come online during the day today, that is to say, he did not follow Wanshi Shengyi and others to the north of the city, but stayed in the south of the city. He also had no idea that Wanshi Shengyi and others were going to negotiate with Ji Xuanyi. He informed Wanshi Shengyi that he met these two people because he saw the weapons held by Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin in the trading house, and confirmed that they were the warlock and swordsman combination that Wujian wanted to find before. Now they are taking credit in advance and secretly preparing for a sneak attack!

A sneak attack on Mu Xuanyi! Wanshishengyi was almost scared to death by him. He used his ultimate hand speed to stop Gray Thorn and repeatedly told him not to commit suicide, to greet those two people properly, and not to fight even if he was hit. They wanted to negotiate, they wanted to negotiate!

Although Grey Thorn didn't know why Wanshi Shengyi wanted to negotiate with these two people, he still listened to Wanshi Shengyi's words, and he didn't like Wujian that much, so he put on a smile, walked behind Qi Qin in a relaxed manner, and greeted: " Hi, hello! "

Logically speaking, Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi had never seen Gray Thorns before, so they were just saying hello and there would not be any reaction. The bad thing was that the people from Wanshi Fengyu wrote the name of their gang on their faces. Qi Qin saw the Wanshi Fengyu logo when he turned his head . He was just thinking that if the people from Wanshi Fengyu came to trouble Ji Xuanyi again, he would never let them go. But before he could react, the sword in his hand was already raised.

Gray Thorn never expected that the other party would hit him without saying a word, and he didn't even take out his staff. He hugged his head and kept saying, " Don't kill me! Our gang leader wants to negotiate! "

Qi Qin didn't react at all, but Ji Xuanyi shouted first: " Wait a minute. "

Although his consciousness was a little slow, he received Ji Xuanyi's orders quite quickly. The tip of the sword of protection stopped steadily above the gray thorn's head. After a second, Qi Qin blinked, reacted, and quickly retracted the protection.

Ji Xuanyi's face looked very ugly, he was about to explode at any minute. He just saw a blue quality necklace, which had a better body-lightening effect than the white one last time. He was about to buy it, but it was snatched away by someone. He was extremely furious at the moment. Seeing that Qi Qin was still standing in front of him, he was very unhappy and hit his waist with his staff. Qi Qin quickly dodged to the side, revealing Ji Xuanyi from behind him.

When Gray Thorn saw Ji Xuanyi coming out, he breathed a sigh of relief and put his hand down. Ji Xuanyi resisted the urge to hit someone and said, " Negotiation? "

" Ah! " Gray Thorn nodded quickly: " Our leader said that he wanted to make something clear to you, and it seems to be related to Wu Jian. "

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin, frowned and pondered for a moment, then said, " Okay. "

Gray Thorn breathed a sigh of relief and quickly sent a message to Wanshi Shengyi, saying to Ji Xuan: " Then please go to our gang's yard and sit for a while. The gang leader and his men will be back from the north of the city soon. "

" No, " Ji Xuanyi rejected him very straightforwardly: " Let your leader come over. "

Too arrogant! Gray Thorn couldn't help but think, if he wasn't the only one here, he would definitely rush up to make this guy admit his mistake. What kind of attitude is this! Don't you know who you are talking to! They are the largest gang in Green Forest City!

However, after taking a look at the tall and strong Qi Qin next to him, Gray Thorn became cowardly and angrily told Wan Shishengyi what Ji Xuanyi had said.

He originally thought that with Wanshi Shengyi's temper, he would most likely be very angry, and then these two people would have to bear the entire Wanshi Fengyu's wrath! Unexpectedly, after Wanshi Shengyi received the message, he immediately said: " Tell them that I will be there soon, and you can secretly see what they want to buy! "

Greythorn: "..."

That's not how the script is written!

[Gray Thorn] : Boss, why are you looking at what they buy?

Facing the ignorant Gray Thorn, Wanshi Shengyi didn't have the nerve to say that he was going to buy it for them as an apology gift, so he could only say: " Why do you care so much? Just take a look! "

Gray Thorn had to stretch his neck to see, but before he could see clearly, Qi Qin walked behind Ji Xuanyi and blocked him tightly.

Greythorn: "..."

He had no choice but to tell Wanshishengyi that he couldn't see it.

This is not the main purpose of Wanshishengyi. If they can't see it, then don't see it. Anyway, just don't provoke those two people. After notifying other people in the gang, he and Fengyuqiqi speeded back.

After just a few days, there were more things in the trading house. Ji Xuanyi searched for a long time, but he couldn't find any equipment with the effect of lightening the body. His face became darker and darker. Qi Qin stood behind him, pretending to be a wall.

After almost half an hour, Ji Xuan pushed the query device away and said angrily: " I don't want to watch it anymore! "

At the same time, Wanshi Shengyi and Fengyu Qiqi just ran in from outside. They were startled by Ji Xuanyi's voice and said while panting: " What? What happened! "

Ji Xuan turned around, pushed Qi Qin away, and looked at Wanshi Shengyi and Fengyu Qiqi with dissatisfaction.

Wanshishengyi laughed dryly twice and pushed away the bleak wind and rain.

Feng Yu cleared his throat and said with a smile: There " are too many people here , let's talk somewhere else. "

Although Ji Xuanyi himself was not aware of it, Wanshi Shengyi and the others knew that if the name Mu Xuanyi was really spoken out, there would definitely be people around who would know him. If it got out, who knows what kind of trouble he would get into.

Ji Xuanyi failed to buy something in this trading house for the second time and didn't want to stay there any longer, so he followed Wan Shi Shengyi and the others to the backyard next to the square.

Because Wanshi Fengyu had hardly stayed here for a day, many traces in the yard had been refreshed, and the tables, chairs and benches were all clean. Ji Xuanyi sat down without hesitation, and Qi Qin stood behind Ji Xuanyi like a guard.

Feng Yuqiqi had originally planned to sit next to Wan Shishengyi, but when he saw Qi Qin's look, he felt that Wan Shishengyi seemed to have lost face, so he stood behind him as well.

Wanshi Shengyi looked at him in confusion and wanted to say something to him, but Feng Yuqiqi winked at him, so Wanshi Shengyi shut his mouth and looked at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " If you have something to say, please speak up. If not, get out of here. "

All the best: "..."

Ever since he became the leader of the Wanshi Fengyu Gang, no one dared to speak to him like that. Alas, the situation is unforgiving ...

Wanshi Shengyi endured it for a moment and said, " Um, brother Mu Xuanyi ..."

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows and looked at him: " So you know me. "

Wanshi Shengyi laughed dryly and said, " Hey, who doesn't know you? "

It's okay that even your words came out.

Wanshi Shengyi sighed in a pretentious manner and said, " This matter is all the fault of that scumbag Wu Jian. He told us that you wanted to break us up and force us to help him. But thanks to this swordsman brother, who was kind-hearted and spared Xiao Wu and the others, we realized that something seemed to be wrong. In order to avoid more innocent casualties, please get together and talk it out. "

This should be very embarrassing to say, a gang couldn't beat two people, and was forced to surrender first. But since the opponent is Mu Xuanyi, there is nothing to be embarrassed about. After all, no matter how big the gang is, the result will be the same, so just go for it and win.

Ji Xuanyi curled his lips: " He just pulled it like that, and you fell for it, and even found so many people. "

Wanshi Shengyi laughed dryly and said, " Oh, it's my fault for being greedy. You see, you are famous, but my brain is not working well. I was fooled by that bastard Wujian, and I got fooled ..."

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " I really didn't intend to do anything to you at the beginning. " Wanshishengyi breathed a sigh of relief.

" But then you provoked me. " Ji Xuanyi continued.

All the best: "..."

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " But I've been cultivating myself lately, so I won't do this kind of fighting and killing stuff anymore. "

The half-breath of confidence that he had just raised to achieve success was lost again, and he felt very complicated . Of course, it was good not to have to fight, but it was also very mysterious to hear the words "self-cultivation" from Mu Xuanyi's mouth.

Cultivate your character ... Damn it, such words actually came out of the mouth of a cancer like Mu Xuanyi. How damn unfair it was for those people who were inexplicably killed by him!

Of course, Wanshishengyi didn't dare to say such words in front of Ji Xuanyi, so he could only say awkwardly: " It's good to cultivate one's character, it's good ..."

Even Qi Qin couldn't help but cough.

As soon as Ji Xuan glanced at him, Qi Qin immediately stopped moving.

We agreed not to pursue the matter, so the next step is to put forward conditions, and everything will go well.

As expected, Ji Xuanyi continued, " But everyone who knows me knows that I have a bad temper. Just letting it go is not in line with my personality. "

Wanshi Shengyi quickly said: " I understand this, if you have anything to say, please tell me! "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Wu Jian doesn't need me to solve it, right? "

" Of course! " When talking about Wu Jian, Wan Shi Sheng Yi was furious from the bottom of his heart. He didn't need Ji Xuan to tell him that after this matter was over, Wan Shi Feng Yu would not let Wu Jian, the bastard, go. He immediately said, " Leave that scumbag Wu Jian to us! He will never appear in Green Forest City again! "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Besides this, there is only one thing I need your help with. "

Wanshi Shengyi quickly said: " You say! "

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin and said, " I want an equipment with a lightening effect. Any quality is fine. Jewelry is best. Don't worry, I won't ask for it for free. I will pay for it. "

Wanshi Shengyi knew that this kind of equipment had dropped in the monster spawning area of Green Forest City, but the probability was very low and it seemed useless, so he sold it. If Mu Xuanyi wanted it, he and his men should be able to get it in a day or two, as they also needed to upgrade.

But why does Mu Xuanyi need this? One of them is a swordsman and the other is a sorcerer. Will the light body effect be useful?

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " When it comes to sneak attacks, the quieter the footsteps, the better. "

All the best: "..."

This is true, he has personally experienced the feeling of being ambushed!

just been killed by a surprise attack , and now I had to help others get equipment to facilitate a surprise attack. I felt mixed emotions and didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

Chapter 33

There is still no news about Wu Jian . Ever since he escaped that day , he seemed to have disappeared from the face of the earth . Wanshi Fengyu's people searched for him in Green Forest City for several days , but couldn't find any trace of him . Wanshi Shengyi speculated that Wu Jian might have been scared , so he fled out of the city. Ji Xuanyi did not comment. Green Forest City is so big, if Wu Jian is hiding in some corner , it is normal that he cannot be found with only thirty or so people . But in that case, Wu Jian must find a way to hide his horse , and from then on he will be no different from before.

Such a person is really not worth Ji Xuanyi's time wasting on him, so he directly told Wan Shi Shengyi not to worry about that guy and to deal with him when they meet him next time . He asked Wan Shi Shengyi to help him get the necklace first. Wan Shi Shengyi was also planning to quickly bring the people in the gang back to get the lost levels , so he agreed very straightforwardly and promised Ji Xuanyi that the goods would be shipped in about one to two days.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were completing tasks while waiting. Two days later , they didn't get the necklace , but they did get the news that the service would be shut down for maintenance. The parent company of "Domain" seems to have made a technological breakthrough . This update will open up the taste system and screenshot function, and make the game more realistic in every detail.

No one knows what the real truth is, so we can only wait and hope.

The updated version in China is different from that in foreign countries. In addition to technical updates, an additional level 27 copy will be opened. The twelve cities are still not interconnected, so this means that a copy will be opened in each city. In addition, all players who reach level 27 can learn new skills.

Because the update volume was so huge, the service was shut down for three days for maintenance. During those three days, all the players who had no games to play crowded into the game forum, and the entire homepage was very lively for a while.

Ji Xuanyi was of course among them. He didn't have many classes recently and was too lazy to go out, so he had to hang out in the game forum.

The posts on the homepage were refreshed every second. A post sent in the last second would be sunk to an unknown page in the next second. However, what Ji Xuanyi had not expected was that with so many speculation posts and intelligence posts about version updates, there would actually be two posts that remained standing on the homepage.

One was the warlock travel post that was popular throughout the forum. Although it could not be updated for the time being, there were still people who kept coming to support the post to join in the fun. However, the other post made Ji Xuanyi feel very, very bad.

That was a post from Wu Jian. In order to show the authenticity of the post, he didn't even use a pseudonym, but directly used his own real account. The content of the entire post was only one sentence: Mu Xuanyi played a warlock and is now in Green Forest City.

This post was constantly pushed up, half because of Mu Xuanyi and the other half because of Wu Jian himself. Most people rushed in to scold him, but it also indirectly led to the news that "Mu Xuanyi is a sorcerer and is in Green Forest City" always floating on the front page and unable to sink.

Ji Xuanyi could see that many of his fans were trying to persuade everyone not to reply to the post and not to fulfill Wu Jian's wish, but it was of no use. The forum had received too much traffic in recent days and they could not stop it at all.

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but snorted.

He was just a little angry, but he was not afraid of anything. Wu Jian didn't know his ID, and for some reason he didn't tell others that there was a Qi Qin around him. In the game "Domain" where information was not circulated at all, no one would come to him specifically based on this little information.

But it's disgusting enough to do this.

Ji Xuan closed the forum expressionlessly and was about to get a glass of water when his cell phone rang.

This was a rare thing for Ji Xuanyi. His family hardly ever called him and he didn't have many friends. The most calls he received on his phone were from delivery guys. He didn't order any takeout, so who would be so idle to call him?

Ji Xuan picked up the phone and took a look.

Oh wow, awesome, it's Qi Qin.

When Qi Qin had just arrived, Ji Xuanyi taught him a lot of common sense in life, but plans cannot keep up with changes. Who knows if Qi Qin will encounter some strange events that common sense cannot solve? In order to prevent this situation, Ji Xuanyi told Qi Qin his cell phone number and asked him to memorize it and call him if there is anything.

But he didn't think that the other party would really call him. After all, Qi Qin's family protected him so well, so why would he have to find Ji Xuanyi for anything?

Ji Xuanyi frowned, answered the phone, and said angrily: "What are you doing?"

Qi Qin on the other end of the phone sounded very helpless, and he didn't know where the person was. He lowered his voice and said to Ji Xuan: "Something happened..."

Ji Xuanyi could almost hear the emoticons QAQ from his tone. His temper, which was caused by Wu Jian, disappeared immediately. He said helplessly: "What's wrong?"

Qi Qin wanted to cry but had no tears: "A strange woman came to my house and insisted that I take her to buy a car and a bag. She wouldn't listen to anything I said and refused to leave."

Ji Xuanyi: "... Where are Qi Qin's parents?"

Qi Qin said: "He went abroad..."

Damn it, Ji Xuan was speechless, that woman was most likely the one that Qi Qin had hooked up with in the past. Qi Qin's private life was very indecent when he was in high school, and it was likely that it would only get worse after he entered college. He was lucky that someone had only come to him now.

Ji Xuanyi said: " Didn't you tell her that you have a brain problem and don't remember her? "

Qi Qin said: " I told her, she said it's okay, just get to know her again. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

That's right. In this situation, how could there be any woman who truly likes Qi Qin? She just wants to get some money from him. Although Qi Qin was a playboy in the past, he would spend money on women without blinking an eye. Even if he had lost his memory, those leech-like people would not let him go. They might even think that Qi Qin, who had lost his memory, would be easier to deceive.

But the current Qi Qin is indeed much more naive than before. Although she won't lose her virginity, she probably doesn't have the ability to drive someone away.

Should I ask him to call the police? Will the police take care of this?

Ji Xuanyi thought about it in confusion, and finally sighed and compromised: " Where are you now? "

Qi Qin paused for a moment, and asked in disbelief, " You're coming to see me? "

Ji Xuanyi said coldly: " Then why don't you accompany her to buy a car and a bag? Maybe if you have a good time shopping, you can even sleep together for a night. "

Qi Qin hurriedly said: " What?! I won't go! I won't go! Xuanyi, come and save me! "

 " So where are you now? " Ji Xuanyi asked again impatiently.

 " I'm at home. " Qi Qin said in a low voice.

As soon as Qi Qin settled down and knew his home address, he immediately told Ji Xuanyi everything. It turned out that it was not too far away . It was in the city next to Ji Xuanyi's residence, and it only took an hour or so by car. But at that time, Ji Xuanyi did not expect that he would really go to find Qi Qin in the future. After all, he knew so many people in the game, but only a few of them had met in real life.

Qi Qin didn't know how to deal with the woman, so he locked himself in the bathroom. It shouldn't be a problem for him to hold out for an hour. Ji Xuanyi packed up casually and went out.

Qi Qin's family is very rich, and they earned their money through business. Ji Xuanyi met his father when he was in high school. He was a tall, handsome man, but for some reason, his taste in beauty was very strange. He didn't know what he looked like when he was dressed formally. Anyway, when he came to school that day, the big gold watch and big gold chain on his body made people think that he was a nouveau riche, although he really wasn't ...

When Ji Xuanyi arrived near the address Qi Qin mentioned, he could find his house directly without Qi Qin's directions.

After all, with such eye-catching decoration and the aura of a nouveau riche, only Qi Qin's father could own a house in such a good location and paint the door with gold paint.

Ji Xuanyi stood in front of the door in silence for a while, then went up and pressed the doorbell. The sound of footsteps came closer and closer, the door was opened, and a woman with heavy makeup and revealing clothes faced Ji Xuanyi aggressively.

This outfit was so exaggerated and gaudy that Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but look away.

Perhaps she mistook the person who rang the doorbell for some other little demon who had received the news and came to visit. After seeing Ji Xuanyi clearly, the woman was obviously stunned for a moment, and then she hesitated and asked, " Who are you looking for? "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything, but tilted his head and looked inside. As expected, Qi Qin ran out after hearing the doorbell. He didn't care about the differences between men and women, and pushed the woman aside, saying excitedly and timidly: " Xuanyi, you're here? "

As soon as Ji Xuan raised his chin, Qi Qin immediately made way and welcomed him in very skillfully.

After the excitement, Qi Qin finally remembered the important things. He followed Ji Xuanyi and kept muttering in a low voice, asking how this woman had sneaked into the room when he was not paying attention. She also said a lot of nonsense that he could not understand and kept sticking to him, looking very aggrieved.

Ji Xuan sat down on the sofa naturally. When he looked up at the woman, he found that the way she looked at him and Qi Qin was very wrong.

Ji Xuanyi was silent for a moment, stretched out his hand to push Qi Qin, who was clinging to him, a little further away , and said to the woman: " This idiot has lost his memory, don't come to see him in the future. "

The woman was stunned for a moment, and immediately said: " Who are you! Why do you say such things? Do you know what the relationship between me and Brother Qi is? Brother Qi just lost his memory now. When he remembers ..."

Ji Xuanyi looked at her coldly and said in a deep voice: " He can't remember. "

It has to be said that although he was wearing a hoodie and looked like a student, Ji Xuanyi's aura was still there. When his eyes swept over, the woman was actually frightened and shrank back, with half of the words stuck in her mouth, unable to speak for a while.

Ji Xuan glanced at her and said, " How much money did you extort from him? Do you need me to report it to his father for you? "

The woman's face froze. Although Qi Qin had said something similar before Ji Xuan came, asking her to discuss anything with Qi's father, she felt that Qi Qin was definitely just talking and would never dare to tell his father about the things he did outside.

But it's different when it comes from someone else.

The woman realized that Ji Xuanyi's identity might not be what she imagined. She forced a smile somewhat stiffly and was about to say something, but Ji Xuanyi didn't even bother to look at her and said directly, " I'll give you two choices. One is to leave now, and the other is to settle the bill before leaving. Which one do you choose? "

The woman swallowed and looked at Qi Qin. She found that he was looking down at Ji Xuanyi and was obviously going to listen to what Ji Xuanyi said. She suddenly felt panicked.

Qi Qin had given her a lot of pocket money before, but she had squandered it all. If she really had to settle the bill, it would be like killing her! She didn't even have time to answer Ji Xuanyi's words. She picked up the bag that Qi Qin had bought her some time ago and ran away, not even closing the door in her haste.

Qi Qin was afraid that she would change her mind again, so he rushed over to close the door and locked it. Only then he breathed a sigh of relief and turned to look at Ji Xuanyi who was reclining on the sofa.

The sofa in Qi Qin's house was too soft. Ji Xuan was a little distracted when he curled up in it. He lowered his eyes, put one hand on his chin, pressed his thumb on the corner of his mouth, and unconsciously repeated in a low voice: " Brother Qi? "

Qi Qin overheard it accidentally, and his heart skipped a beat. If he hadn't been exercising recently, he would have almost fainted. His face flushed red, and he walked to Ji Xuanyi with his hands and feet together, stammering, " Xuan, Xuanyi ..."

Ji Xuan looked up at him and found that his hair was messy, he was wearing pajamas and slippers. It was obvious that he had just got up and was visited by that woman. After that, he hid in the bathroom and didn't even have time to change his clothes.

However, through the thin layer of pajamas, it can be seen that Qi Qin has gained a lot of weight recently and has grown some muscles.

Ji Xuanyi pinched his arm that was resting on the sofa and said, " When you're not online, do you exercise at home? "

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin are always connected online. Wherever Ji Xuanyi goes, Qi Qin follows. However, sometimes when Ji Xuanyi has classes, he will tell Qi Qin in advance that he will not be online the next day, and Qi Qin will not go online either.

The game is indeed different from reality. Qi Qin felt his arm was numb after being pinched by Ji Xuanyi. It took him a long time to come back to his senses. He said, " It's not at home. There is a gym nearby. "

Ji Xuan nodded. In the game, Qi Qin was wearing armor, so it was impossible to tell whether he had gained weight or not.

Qi Qin also felt that seeing Ji Xuanyi in real life was a little different from seeing him in the game. Apart from his clothes, Ji Xuanyi looked a little whiter and shorter than him in the game. Curled up on the sofa, he looked like a ball, looking very cute.

If Ji Xuanyi knew that Qi Qin dared to think of him like this, Qi Qin would probably be beaten. Qi Qin was fascinated by Ji Xuanyi. Ji Xuanyi had already stood up and said unhappily, " Next time you meet someone like this, just be a little more aggressive and firm in your tone. They owe you something, not you. Don't be so timid all the time. "

Qi Qin said aggrievedly: " I am not timid, it's just that she is a woman ..."

Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " What era is it now? There is no difference between women and men. Besides, I can't always come to your rescue. Next time, don't resist if someone sleeps with you. "

Qi Qin then nodded and promised pitifully: " There won't be a next time. "

Ji Xuan said, " Okay, the matter is settled, I'm leaving. "

Qi Qin was stunned: " Are we leaving now? "

Ji Xuanyi pulled at his hat, which was wrapped up in a ball, and said unceremoniously: " What else? You still want to keep me for dinner? "

Qi Qin didn't understand what Ji Xuanyi meant at all, and nodded sincerely: " Okay, okay. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Before Qi Qin could react, she felt that she was too casually dressed to accompany Ji Xuanyi. Her face turned red and she said, " Xuanyi, please sit down for a while. I'll change my clothes and come over later. "

Ji Xuanyi helplessly watched Qi Qin enter the room.

It can be seen that Qi Qin really wants to stay with Ji Xuanyi. If he leaves now, the other party might be sad. Anyway, there is nothing to do today. It is a rare opportunity to go out, so it doesn't matter if he takes a walk here.

Ji Xuan thought about it and sat down on the sofa.

Perhaps because he was worried that Ji Xuan would leave after waiting too long, Qi Qin came out in just five minutes, having changed his clothes, but his hair was still sticking up.

Seeing Ji Xuanyi curled up on the sofa again, Qi Qin breathed a sigh of relief and said happily: " Shall we go out? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and waved. Qi Qin obediently came over. Ji Xuan raised his hand, pressed down his raised hair, and asked, " Where are you going? "

Qi Qingang was flattered by Ji Xuanyi's pat on the head, but was choked by the other party's question.

After he came here, he has been to very few places. He basically played games at home, occasionally went to the gym, and ate at a fixed restaurant. He only knew how to go to the hospital. Even if Ji Xuanyi stayed, it seemed that he had nowhere to take him to.

As soon as Ji Xuan saw Qi Qin's expression, he knew what he was thinking, and kindly suggested: " Then let's go for a walk outside. "

Qi Qin nodded quickly.

Although he said he was just taking a casual walk, Ji Xuanyi still had a goal. There was a park in this city and he heard that the scenery was nice. He wanted to take a walk there to change his mood that was ruined by Wu Jian.

Qi Qin didn't even have time to eat breakfast in the morning. After he came out, Ji Xuanyi just bought him two buns to make do with, and Qi Qin ate them happily.

Ji Xuanyi hadn't walked outside like this for a long time. He felt dazed under the sunlight and couldn't even see the steps under his feet.

 " Xuan Yi, watch the road. " Qi Qin grabbed him.

Ji Xuan tilted his head to look at him, his brown eyes reflecting a clear light under the sunlight.

Qi Qin stuttered: " If you are tired, there is a shade tree over there. Let's sit there for a while? "

Ji Xuan nodded.

They sat there for a while.

Although it was early spring, there were not many people on the road. Most of them were in groups of two or three, talking and laughing. Qi Qin felt that the silence between him and Ji Xuanyi was too weird, and couldn't help but say, " I never thought it would turn out like this ..."

 " Um? "

 " It's about ... the time travel, " Qi Qin whispered, " When I was a kid, I practiced martial arts every day, hoping to make a name for myself in the martial arts world. Even if no one calls me a hero, they can still call me a hero. "

Ji Xuanyi was distracted at first, but when he heard this, he sneered, " What a mess ..."

Qi Qin saw him laughing and laughed too: " Because I was stupid at that time and didn't understand anything. "

Actually, you are not that smart now. Thinking of this, Ji Xuan nodded: " Well, what happened next? What level of martial arts did you have over there? "

Qi Qin shook his head and said, " I don't know either. Before coming here, I was planning to go to Huashan Mountain to compete with others for a place. "

 " Did the heroes in your area become famous through competition? " Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows.

Qi Qin blushed and said quickly: " Of course not, going to Huashan is just a martial arts competition. A true hero must uphold justice and eliminate violence. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " That's different from your dream. Why are you going to Huashan? " Speaking of this, Qi Qin's eyes dimmed a little: " At that time, I had just started out in the martial arts world, and my heart and eyes were full of good deeds. As a result, I encountered some things that hit me hard. Since then, I have been in a daze, feeling that I have hit a wall everywhere and I can't do anything well. At the same time, my master passed away. His last wish was to go to Huashan. I thought, there is nothing to do for me, so I might as well go for my master. "

 " Alas, I didn't expect that this thing would not be accomplished. "

 " It's not your fault, " Ji Xuanyi said, " After all, it was a force majeure factor. "

Qi Qin smiled and said, " Yes, it's a good thing I met you, otherwise I don't know where I would be now. "

Ji Xuan looked at him for a while, then suddenly smiled and said, " Well, meeting you is also very important to me. "

Qi Qin's heart skipped a beat, and he asked cautiously, " What do you mean? "

Ji Xuanyi stared into the distance for a while, then said, " You're right. I was indeed deceived. Well ... it's different from you. It was just something that happened in the game. But I was so immature and stupid at that time. I was so angry that I didn't care about anything else. I just focused on killing those people . I killed a gang and killed a person, but I still didn't feel satisfied. So I killed whoever I saw. I felt happy when others were unhappy. Later, you also knew it. Haha, in fact, I asked for so many enemies. "

Qi Qin was stunned and was about to speak when Ji Xuan smiled at him: " You are afraid of me now, right? In fact, I was even more unreasonable back then than I am now. I was suspicious all the time and even my family couldn't stand me. "

Qi Qin was at a loss as to how to react, so he mustered up the courage to hold Ji Xuanyi's hand. Ji Xuan glanced at him and raised his eyebrows.

Qi Qin froze, but held on without letting go.

Ji Xuanyi chuckled and said, " I wanted to play the game seriously, relax, make some friends, etc., but I found that I couldn't do it at all. If it wasn't you, I wouldn't have accepted it so easily if it was anyone else. "

Qi Qin was moved and said: " Xuan Yi ..."

"Yes," Ji Xuan nodded and said seriously, "If it wasn't you, someone else would have been in the hospital if they had dared to grab me like this."

Qi Qin choked and let go of his hand with a trembling hand.

Chapter 34

There are many things that can only be said after meeting in real life. Qi Qin was very happy to be able to exchange some things about their past with Ji Xuanyi.

The three days of maintenance passed quickly. The moment the server was opened, countless players swarmed into the game, almost causing the server to crash. Fortunately, safety measures were in place, and the system only automatically kicked out a few unlucky players who were not in good physical condition, while the rest of the players were able to go online normally.

As soon as Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin came online, they received several private messages. In addition to Wanshi Shengyi notifying them that they had found the necklace, there was also news that A Miao and Yishu had found the task.

Qi Qin glanced at Ji Xuanyi secretly and said, "Shall we go get the necklace first?"

Ji Xuan nodded and said to him, "After we get the things, we will go upgrade."

and is now almost level 26. Qi Qin has also just reached level 25. If they work harder, they will probably be able to check out the newly opened dungeon the day after tomorrow.

The meeting place that Wanshi Shengyi had arranged with them was no longer the shabby backyard next to the square, but a barbecue shop on the Performance Street. After the taste system was opened, many players rushed to taste the food in the game, and Wanshi Shengyi was of course no exception.

When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin arrived, Wan Shi Shengyi was already eating alone.

Qi Qin asked curiously, "Did Feng Yuqiqi not follow you?"

Wanshi Shengyi put down the meat in his hand and smiled at him: "Hey, Fengyu and I are different from you. We are both output, why should we be tied together all day? We only get together when there is something going on."

Ji Xuanyi sat down on the chair, and Wan Shishengyi subconsciously pushed the barbecue on the table towards him and said, "Hey, Brother Mu, try it, the barbecue in this restaurant is quite delicious."

Before the taste system was released, basically only equipment was sold, and occasionally some groceries, but the prices were all in silver coins. Therefore, many players thought that everything sold in the game was so unscrupulous. Unexpectedly, after the taste system was opened, food products were actually sold for copper coins. Many players were obsessed with buying and stuffed their backpacks full. Fortunately, the food in the game will not spoil and can be saved for later.

The barbecue that Wanshi Shengyi eats now only costs twenty copper coins a piece, but it smells delicious and is much better than most barbecue in real life.

Ji Xuan took a bite and pushed it to Qi Qin who was eager to try it.

Wanshi Shengyi understood what he meant, and hurriedly wiped his greasy hands on the lining of his armor, took out a necklace from his backpack and placed it on the table.

When Ji Xuanyi took the necklace, he couldn't help but exclaimed " Huh? ". He looked up and found Wan Shishengyi looking at him eagerly.

This necklace does have a slimming effect, but the quality is better blue than white.

Jewelry equipment is difficult to produce, let alone blue quality jewelry with special effects. The reluctance in Wanshi Shengyi's eyes was almost overflowing. If he didn't really want to make friends with Ji Xuanyi, he would rather postpone the delivery time for two days and then produce a white one. Blue jewelry is very cost-effective whether it is placed in the trading house or used by oneself.

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " Thank you for your hard work. "

Wanshi Shengyi quickly said: " Of course I should! "

Ji Xuan handed the necklace to Qi Qin. Qi Qin wiped his hands, took the necklace, and took out the purse from his backpack. Ji Xuan grabbed twenty gold coins and threw them to Wanshi Shengyi.

Wan Shishengyi hurriedly caught it, his eyes almost popping out of his head. This necklace only cost ten gold coins in the trading house, but Ji Xuanyi actually gave him twenty! No, the point is, these two people are so rich?!

In order not to disclose more information, Wanshi Shengyi only added Ji Xuanyi as a friend, so he didn't know Qi Qin's ID , nor did he know that he was on the rich list.

But it doesn't matter whether he knows it or not. Twenty gold coins are three times the money he saved up with great difficulty!

Ji Xuan said: " Since I'm bothering you to brush it now, ten gold coins can be regarded as labor fee. "

Wanshi Shengyi put the gold coins into his pocket and said with a smile: " Hey, how can I be so embarrassed ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin had already finished eating the meat and was putting the necklace on her neck when she exclaimed, " It's so delicious. I haven't eaten barbecue for a long time. Will there be other food stores like this in the future? "

Wanshi Shengyi found that although Ji Xuanyi was the one who made the decisions, Qi Qin was the one who managed the money, so he immediately became more friendly to him and explained, " We have only opened up the taste system now, and not the life skills. Although players can cook food, the taste is not enhanced. They can only rely on seasoning and heat. Unless you are a chef in real life, it is basically impossible to match his cooking skills. "

Qi Qin looked at him blankly.

Wanshi Shengyi chuckled and concluded, " So before the life skills are unlocked, you can probably only eat in the store. But if I find a player who cooks well and opens a store, I will notify you two. Wanshi Shengyi is well-informed about the news. "

I almost forgot that Wanshi Fengyu is still the local boss of Green Forest City. Before they came to Green Forest City, Wanshi Fengyu had been dominating this city for a long time.

Qi Qin thought of what Wanshi Shengyi had said before, that the people of Wanshi Fengyu drove a very good painter out of the city for nothing, and immediately lost his good impression of Wanshi Shengyi, and said to Ji Xuan: " Let's go. "

Ji Xuanyi glanced at him and said to Wan Shishengyi: " Thank you very much for this time. We still need to upgrade, so we'll leave first. "

Wanshi Shengyi was not so stupid that he could not see the change in Qi Qin's attitude. He just didn't know what he said had offended this man. Fortunately, Ji Xuanyi's tone was polite, so Wanshi Shengyi smiled and said, " Contact me if you have anything. "

Ji Xuan nodded at him, stood up and left first, and Qi Qin followed him.

After leaving the barbecue stall, Ji Xuan smiled and said, " Why, don't you admire their loyalty? "

Qi Qin choked and was speechless for a long time. After a long while, he stammered, " This is different ..."

" What have they done to touch your nerves? " Ji Xuanyi asked.

Qi Qin glanced at Ji Xuanyi and felt that he was a bit annoying, but he still said honestly: " The thing Xiaotui mentioned, a person who drew the map was kicked out. "

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but laugh: " Because of this? "

Qi Qin nodded.

" Maybe this was done by those people you let go last time. " Ji Xuanyi said.

Qi Qin was stunned, looking at Ji Xuanyi helplessly, without thinking about anything else, and whispered: " Are you still angry? "

Ji Xuanyi was speechless: " Is this the point I made? I'm not angry. "

Qi Qin finally reacted and said hesitantly : " Maybe it's not them ..."

" If so, do you regret letting them go that day? " Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " And it must have been done by Wanshi Fengyu. They may do similar things again in the future. Do you regret stopping me from taking turns to rape them? "

Qi Qin was already dumbfounded by the question. He stared at Ji Xuanyi blankly, and after a long while he said in confusion: " I ... I don't know ..."

Ji Xuanyi raised his hand and touched his head with an almost loving expression, and said to him: " If you don't know, don't think about it. You are so silly and cute. "

Qi Qin grabbed his hand and said anxiously: " Xuan Yi, stop teasing me. Tell me, what should I do at this time? "

Ji Xuan was thinking, should he tell him to just keep smiling?

However, Qi Qin's dilemma was too obvious, and that obsessive look in his eyes probably showed that he had encountered a similar thing a long time ago.

Maybe it was the thing he mentioned before that happened when he first started out in the underworld. With Qi Qin's stubborn way of thinking, it was normal for him to push himself into any state.

It's so hard to find a binding, but if you're stupid, you'll lose it.

Ji Xuanyi thought about it and said to him: " In fact, I have done things similar to Wanshi Fengyu, and they are much worse than them. "

Qi Qin said seriously: " That's different. You were deceived. "

" But it wasn't just those people. I killed a lot of passers-by later, " Ji Xuanyi said, " They just passed by me when I was in a bad mood. How do you think the name of PVP cancer came from? "

Ji Xuanyi looked at Qi Qin and said, " In fact, I am no different from the bad guy in your eyes. So , do you want to kill me? Betray me and rape me. Many people will be grateful to you. "

Qi Qin didn't dare to do that, fearing that Ji Xuan would misunderstand him, so he quickly shook his head and said, " I won't kill you. Whether they are grateful to me or not has nothing to do with me. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " That's about it. Things in this world are not black and white. Besides, this is just a game, so you just need to do it when you want to do it. "

Qi Qin still looked very embarrassed.

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " Well , if you want to kill me , then kill me. If you don't want to kill me , then don't kill me . If you are still undecided, just ask me and I will help you make the decision. "

This is very simple. Qi Qin nodded repeatedly and said to Ji Xuan: " What about those people who are in trouble? "

Ji Xuan said: " Are you stupid? They are helping us now, why do you want to attack them? If you don't like them, just tell Wanshi Shengyi. Does he dare not listen to you? "

Qi Qin suddenly realized, said, " Wait for me here , " and turned around and ran back to the barbecue restaurant.

I guess he went to give advice to Wanshishengyi.

Ji Xuan smiled. He was bored of waiting, so he opened the previous private chat message and started reading.

The message that Introduction to Art sent him was very long. He had only read the beginning before, and found that the first sentence was that she and A Miao found the task instead of asking him for help, so he didn't read it. The rest of the message went into a lot of details about the task.

The person who finally responded to the ring found by Yishu was a woman from the north of the city. She said it was her husband's ring. Her husband went to the south of the city to buy something a few days ago and never came back. Unexpectedly, he died in the forest. She asked Yishu and A Miao to help her find the murderer of her husband.

The two artists searched the forest thoroughly and finally found traces of the wild wolves. After retrieving a piece of fresh meat, they lured out the small boss wild wolf. On the night before the server was shut down, the two priests spent half the night healing each other and finally killed the small boss wild wolf.

Yishu complained that the wild wolf was obviously a boss , but it only dropped a piece of wolf skin and a strange plant root, but no equipment at all.

After they handed over the wolf skin, the task was completed, and they were given a lot of experience and fifty gold coins, which made the two girls very happy.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and asked, " Is this the only reward? "

After a long time, Art recovered.

[Art Introduction] : What do you mean by so little! Do you know how much experience me and Ah Miao have gained? I am almost level 26! Ah Miao is already level 27 and has obtained new skills!

That's a lot of experience, but in the game, experience is not a rare thing. It can only be said that it helps you save time. Others can catch up with you by putting in a little more effort. The reason why so many people are flocking to secret missions is because the rewards they give are very precious. In any case, experience is not enough to meet the reward standards for secret missions.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and was about to say something when news about art came again.

[Introduction to Art] : This mission is not too difficult for a secret mission. I think the reward is pretty good in comparison, right?

This is true. Compared to Ji Xuanyi's previous perverted mission that required one to break into the bandit camp alone, this mission, which only required two priests to heal each other and kill monsters, was really simple.

Thinking of this, Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything more, because considering the difficulty, the reward for this task was indeed generous.

Qi Qin was probably planning to have a long talk with Wanshi Shengyi, but he hasn't come back yet. Ji Xuanyi looked back in annoyance, but there was no one there, so he had to continue chatting with Yishu.

[Ji Xuanyi] : Ah Miao got a new skill?

[Art Introduction] : Yes!!! It is a hot skill with no CD , it should be a skill prepared for the new dungeon!

Hot skills refer to continuous blood-adding skills, which means that as long as you release this skill on a target, the target will automatically recover blood continuously in the next few seconds. It is a very useful skill when the priest cannot spare the time to throw Holy Light Balls to teammates one by one in the dungeon.

[Art Introduction] : [Holy Water Rain] : The target of this skill will recover 299 (plus 0) health points every three seconds for fifteen seconds.

0) at the end represents the numerical correction brought by the player's equipment. However, 299 health points in the case of bare equipment is not low. You know, now the health of most players is only maintained at 4,000 to 6,000, and as the player level increases, the skill value will also change.

[Introduction to Art] : Although the blood added at one time is not much, it is enough to save your life under normal circumstances. There is also the Holy Light Ball. Wow, the priest is really a favorite profession!

As if remembering the profession that Ji Xuanyi was currently playing, Art Introduction quickly added: " The Warlock will definitely be changed later. Who knows what kind of good skills will be given at level 27! "

Ji Xuanyi didn't feel anything about this, and just said, " It's all right. "

Art probably heard that Ji Xuanyi didn't care much, so he continued.

[Introduction to Art] : Ah Miao took a look and found that the new dungeon is a five-player dungeon. I am so angry. The configuration of the four of us is too crooked. We can't open the dungeon together ...

It's really crooked, with three assistants and one output, even if they want to fight the dungeon, they can only be divided into two or three groups. It is absolutely impossible for them to enter the dungeon together.

In the early stages, due to lack of understanding of the dungeon, the team that is pioneering may bring two priests into the dungeon, but after playing it once or twice, they will probably only bring one priest. In addition, the swordsman who can serve as a T is also a popular profession. Anyway, among the four people, Ji Xuanyi is the only one that no one wants.

Introduction to Art was also very worried about this matter, but she didn't dare to say it out loud, for fear that Ji Xuanyi would be unhappy. She could only complain covertly to see how Ji Xuanyi would react. If Ji Xuanyi really wanted to play the game, she still wanted to come and help.

Unexpectedly, Ji Xuanyi replied indifferently: " Then fight separately. "

Art was confused and asked subconsciously: " What are you going to do? "

[Ji Xuanyi] : I am with the world.

This is also a solution. Yishu thought that Tianxia's equipment seemed to be very good, and it was a popular profession. Maybe someone who was desperately short of people would bring Ji Xuanyi into the dungeon for Tianxia's sake ... But he was still a little worried.

[Introduction to Art] : If you need help, please call me and A-Meow. We both have time!

Ji Xuanyi smiled and replied, " I understand. "

Introduction to Art made a heart emoticon and stopped talking. At this time, Qi Qin finally finished talking with Wan Shi Shengyi and ran back happily.

Ji Xuanyi closed the private chat and looked back at him: " How is it? "

Qi Qin smiled and said, " Wanshi said that it was not his original intention to do that. He just couldn't bring himself to take care of it because there were too many people in the gang. After I told him about it, he decided to put in the effort to rectify it. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " That's all, there's nothing to worry about, Master Qi. "

Qi Qin blushed and said incoherently: " Why are you calling me like that ... No, you can't call me like that. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " I can call you whatever I want, you have no right to interfere. "

There was really nothing he could do about it, so Qi Qin could only look at him pitifully.

Ji Xuan pushed his face away and said, " Hurry up and level up, the new dungeons are open. "

After this updated version, the game is indeed more realistic. Even the sunlight has temperature, and in the shadows, you can even see the fine dust flying in the air. However, most players don't have the mind to experience these easter eggs. They are all busy upgrading for new skills and copies.

Ji Xuanyi was also a layman, who could not understand those tourists who came to the game specifically to enjoy the sights and sounds. He took Qi Qin to travel around the south of the city, and finally reached level 26 in the afternoon. Judging from the situation, it would be difficult for him to reach level 27 the day after tomorrow. Qi Qin was one level lower than him, which made it even more difficult.

Because the sunlight had become warm, the two people actually felt a little hot. Although all negative feelings were maintained at a relatively low level for the sake of the players' gaming experience, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin still planned to take a rest on the side of the road.

It has to be said that no matter what the conditions, there will always be players who come up with brilliant ideas. Wanshi Shengyi just said that only professional chefs can sell food, but he was immediately slapped in the face. Quite a few players have already started setting up stalls on this street. They don't sell food that needs to be cooked, but fruit juice.

Having life skills has no effect on something like juice, which is only related to the quality of the fruit. Since the shop only sells tea and milk, there are quite a few juice stalls set up within less than a day of the server opening.

Ji Xuanyi randomly picked a stall with a small wooden stool and sat down. He threw a silver coin to the stall owner and said, " Two glasses of juice. "

The stall owner took the silver coin, smiled, and asked, " Do you want change? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " No. "

The man was immediately delighted and said enthusiastically: " Wow, you are such a rich guy! Rich guy, do you want to drink it hot, cold or at room temperature? "

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows: " There are hot and cold ones? "

The man smiled and said, " If it's hot, there's hot water and a stove. If it's cold, there's ice. "

Ji Xuanyi was speechless for a moment, then said, " Two cold cups. "

The stall owner nodded: " Okay! Please wait! "

After a while, two copper cups were brought out from the back and placed in front of Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi. The light yellow juice exuded a refreshing aroma, and irregularly shaped crushed ice floated on the surface.

The stall owner explained: " The cups are also brought from home. They are thrown away after use and new ones are brushed out after a while. They are guaranteed to be clean and hygienic! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

If you call the police, none of you players will be able to escape.

Ji Xuan took a sip and found it very pleasant, sweet and sour, but he couldn't tell what kind of fruit it was. He subconsciously asked, " Where do you get your fruit? "

After not hearing any response for a while, Ji Xuan looked up and saw the stall owner looking at him warily.

Ji Xuanyi was speechless and said, " Forget it, I'm just asking casually. "

Qi Qin had already gulped down a cup of coffee and was chewing the crushed ice, making a crackling sound. He said to the stall owner in a daze, " Another cup. "

When Ji Xuan saw that the stall owner didn't take the cup and was still looking at him, in order to show that he really wasn't here to steal his business, he had no choice but to throw him another silver coin and said, " Another cup. "

The stall owner then cautiously took Qi Qin's cup and filled it with juice.

Ji Xuanyi didn't bother to pay attention to him and was just sipping juice. Qi Qin, who was originally looking around boredly, suddenly pointed behind him with his eyes wide open and shouted, " Xuanyi, art and calves are fighting! "

Ji Xuanyi: " ??? "

Chapter 35

Art Introduction and Calf Cramps are fighting each other? Why? Are they competing to see whose name is more bizarre?

Ji Xuanyi was nearly choked by the juice . Turning back , he found that he was really being beaten by Art Introduction with calf cramps , and there were other players watching the fun. Qi Qin stood up from the bench , his heavy armor making a sound of collision, and strode up to the two men , picking up one in each hand, and separated them.

The players, who had nothing exciting to watch, dispersed and left.

The cramps in his calves almost brought him back to life , but he still kept yelling in Qi Qin's hands: " Don't think I'm afraid of you . If you weren't a girl, you would have died long ago! Do you understand? "

Introduction to Art: " Bah! You wretched man, do you have any shame? Do you have any shame? Give it back to me. You are a weakling mage who can't even beat a priest. How dare you! "

The two men struggled in Qi Qin's hands, trying to throw themselves at each other , looking like they were mortal enemies.

Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " What are you two doing? "

The two of them then noticed Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, and shouted at the same time: " Little Ji! Tianxia! "

" It's you! Two big guys! "

Then they looked at each other warily at the same time.

However, the expression on Yishu's face was obviously more excited than Xiaotui's. From the way they addressed each other, one could tell who was closer to Ji Xuanyi and the others.

The calf muttered something quietly , but no one could hear it.

Ji Xuanyi said: " What's wrong with you two? "

Art spoke first: " This wretched man is so disgusting! I just passed by here and he vomited directly on my boots! "

The calf also said: " I didn't mean it , and I apologized! It was you who was unreasonable and hit me first! "

Art Introduction sneered: " What else? Do you think I got all this equipment to reason with people? If I wasn't a priest , you would have been killed at least three times, you know that? "

Xiaotui stiffened his neck and said, " I've already apologized! What can I do if you say that ?

You , just beat me to death! "

Introduction to Art said calmly: " Look, Tianxia, he said this himself. Let me down. I'm going to beat this rookie up today! "

Xiaotui hurriedly grabbed Qi Qin's hand and said, " Boss, don't listen to her. Don't let go! "

Art: " Bah! You shameless bastard! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin said helplessly: " Xiaotui said he didn't mean it. I think it's just a misunderstanding. Art, calm down. "

Seeing Qi Qin saying so, Yishu had no choice but to say: " Okay, I won't kill him first, Tianxia, please let me go. "

Qi Qin then let go of his hand, and wanted to run towards Ji Xuanyi with his legs nimbly, but after taking a look at Ji Xuanyi's face, he stopped his legs tremblingly and ran behind Qi Qin. Ji Xuanyi asked: " What happened? "

Art snorted and raised his chin towards his calf: " Ask him. "

Xiaotui said with a sad face: " I really didn't mean it. I just came here to drink some juice, but after I finished drinking it, I got a vomiting debuff , saying that I had an upset stomach, so I couldn't help wanting to vomit, and then this priest just happened to walk past me, so I ... I really didn't mean it! "

It's amazing! The official food with buffs hasn't come out yet, but players have made juice with debuffs themselves .

Thinking that he and Qi Qin had just drunk juice, Ji Xuanyi's face looked a little ugly.

The stall owner who was refilling Qi Qin's cup had already been waiting with the cup in hand.

Seeing Ji Xuanyi's expression, he quickly clarified: " What I made is different from what that guy drank. He drank it because he wanted to save money! "

Ji Xuan turned his head to look at him, and the stall owner said quickly: " My fruits are all freshly picked from the trees after much hard work. A cup of juice costs 20 copper coins. I just saw that mage drinking from a shop that costs 5 copper coins. The fruits are all picked from the ground, so who knows whether they are good or bad! "

When Xiaotui heard this, his face turned green and he turned around to find trouble with the unscrupulous vendor, but it turned out that the vendor had already packed up his stall and ran away, without even leaving a stool behind.

Xiaotui had no choice but to admit defeat, and explained to Yishu with a bitter face: " So I told you, I didn't mean it ..."

Knowing the whole story, Yishu waved his hand generously and said, " It's okay if it wasn't intentional. You should be more careful next time. It's not easy to meet someone as good-tempered as me. "

Calf: "..."

You have the nerve to say that you have a good temper. If you weren't a pastor, I would have been in trouble three times!

Seeing that the misunderstanding between the two was resolved, Qi Qin also breathed a sigh of relief and said with a smile: " That's right. "

Ji Xuan handed the juice he received from the stall owner to Qi Qin and said to the two of them, " Are you here to complete a mission as well? "

Xiaotui scratched his head and said, " Well, at my level, I can't catch up with the main group even if I start to complete the mission now, so I might as well be a salted fish. I heard that there are many food stores here, so I came here to eat. "

Since he separated from Ji Xuanyi and the others, Xiaotui did work hard to level up for two days, but it was only two days. He really couldn't stand the boring task, so he ended up going to the performing arts street to draw sketches for people, and has been a slacker ever since.

Until now, I am only level 23, so weak and inexperienced. No wonder I am beaten by Art.

Art said: "I am not here to complete a mission."

Ji Xuan took a look at her and found something wrong, so he asked, "Isn't Ah Miao with you?" Art nodded and said, "A-Meow is already level 27, so he will follow the wild team into the dungeon first. If he has some experience, he can teach us."

"Then what are you here for?" Ji Xuanyi asked. If Ah Miao could already enter the dungeon, Yishu should have seized all the time to upgrade and try to catch up with the other party as soon as possible.

"Because of this!" Yishu said, lowering his head and taking out a palm-sized object from his backpack, and handed it to Ji Xuanyi: "Do you remember? I told you that Ah Miao and I killed that wild wolf boss, and only its fur and a piece of plant root were lost."

"The fur was taken away, but she didn't touch the roots, so I kept them."

Ji Xuan took a look and realized that the strange-shaped thing in Yishu's hand could only be the rhizome of a plant. It was a very strange green color and had a unique plant smell, but it was very unpleasant.

Art said: "I was originally doing a mission, but after thinking about it, I felt that what you said made sense. Hidden missions shouldn't be that simple, so I decided to use this rhizome to look for it."

Ji Xuanyi asked: "Could it be something like material? Is there any description of the item?" Art shook his head and said, "It's probably not a material. The item description is [a piece of mysterious stuff, seems a little ominous], it's not very clear."

Ji Xuanyi frowned.

Qi Qin and Xiaotui also stood by and watched for a long time. Qi Qin said, "I have never seen this thing before. Why did it fall out of the wolf's body?"

Although some of the settings in "Domain" are too magical, the basic drops can still be traced. For example, animal monsters will drop meat and fur, plant monsters may drop flowers or seeds, and humanoid monsters may drop anything, but animal monsters will never drop plant materials.

Xiaotui looked at it for a long time, and suddenly exclaimed: "I know what this is!"

Art is delighted: "You know?!"

Xiaotui nodded and said seriously: "This is a tentacle. If you read enough books..."

Art: "I'll blow your fucking head off!"

Art, who was so happy for nothing, was so excited that she even forgot about the Holy Light Ball and swung her staff to hit Xiaotui. Qi Qin, who had no idea what Xiaotui was saying, quickly stopped her: "Calm down, calm down!"

Ji Xuanyi was speechless and said, "It shouldn't be that kind of thing, art, is there anyone here who can identify items?"

" dirty man " with resentment . Then he said to Ji Xuan: " Yes, there is a herbal medicine seller on this street. He might know something. "

 " Then let's go and look for it. " Qi Qin said hurriedly.

Seeing them leaving, Xiaotui, who was finally able to get rid of Art, said hurriedly: " Then you guys go find it, I, I'm going to level up first. "

Anyone who has seen the speed at which Xiaotui is upgrading would not believe Xiaotui's excuse, but Ji Xuanyi still said very considerately: "... Okay, go ahead. "

The calf said gratefully: " Then I'm leaving. Goodbye! "

Seeing the other party running away in a hurry, Yishu snorted coldly: " He is lucky. "

Qi Qin moved closer to Ji Xuanyi and whispered, " She seems to regard you as her idol. Did she learn her temper from you? "

Ji Xuanyi glanced at him coldly and said, " Do you want to know? "

Qi Qin: "... No, I don't want to ..."

Ji Xuanyi sneered and said to Yishu, " Let's go. "

 " Okay! "

Unlike a small town like Xinmu, in a place as big as Green Forest City, it is impossible for there to be only one thing related to medicinal herbs. However, Yishu had asked everyone else before coming here, and no one knew what that rhizome was.

 " If I don't know this, I can only put it aside for now, " Yishu said, " I still need to level up. It would be a big loss if I don't go through the dungeon first. Maybe I can get a Class 5. I've been playing games for so many years, but I've never gotten a Class 5 in a dungeon in any game. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " You can take it when the new server is launched. "

Art shook his head and sighed: " How is that the same? It's meaningless. The Five Armor is only meaningful when you get it during the land reclamation! "

Ji Xuanyi hasn't entered a dungeon for a long time, but he still agrees with the art.

As they were talking, they arrived at the herbal medicine shop. Art placed the root on the table and asked, " Excuse me, do you know what this is? "

This is the general dialogue for finding an item to be identified . Generally, if there is an identification function, there will be a response to this sentence.

Sure enough, he picked up the rhizome and looked at it, then said, " Oh, I've seen this before, in the Black Forest. "

The Black Forest is the name of the forest that separates the north and south of the city.

Art's eyes lit up and he asked excitedly: " Then do you know what this is? "

Said: " This is a kind of vine. "

 " What else? "

Looked at the art innocently: " No, I only see vines. "

Art: "....."

Isn't it the same whether this information is told or not? The vines in the Black Forest! The former has long been known, and the latter can be guessed by guessing ... It's completely useless!

Yishu took the root back dejectedly, stuffed a few copper coins into it as an appraisal fee, and said to Ji Xuan: " Wow ... It's so difficult. Is there really a mission behind this thing? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head: " I don't know. Secret missions still require a lot of luck. Maybe there is something that needs to be triggered. "

Yishu sat down on the ground, looked at the root in his hand, sighed, and said, " Is luck still needed? I think my luck ran out when I dug out the ring. I'm so angry ..."

Qi Qin comforted him: " It's okay, maybe you will meet him. " a while of being depressed, Art finally stood up again, put the roots back into the bag, and said to Ji Xuanyi and the others: " Thank you for accompanying me here. Alas, I didn't gain anything. Let's talk about it later. I have to upgrade. How about you? Will you come with me? "

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi, who said, " No, I'm going to log off for dinner and come back in the evening. "

Art looked at the sky and said, " Indeed, it's almost time. You guys go down first. I'll go do two tasks before I go down. Bye! "

Ji Xuan nodded.

It's not Ji Xuanyi's fault that he's lazy. The missions in Green Forest City are really boring and fragmented. After eating, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin kept running until logging off at night. His experience bar has only increased by one third, leaving him two-thirds away from level 27, while Qi Qin is still struggling to reach level 26.

Seeing that there was no chance of entering the game tomorrow, Ji Xuan simply looked through the strategy posts in the forum after logging off.

pvp gangs that fight all day long in the game , there are of course pve gangs that specialize in dungeons . Compared to the intrigues between pvp gangs, pve gangs are much more harmonious, although there may be internal conflicts due to equipment. disputes, but in most cases, because pve gangs need to work together to clear the dungeon, the relationship between the gangs will be much closer. What's more, there will also be cooperation between the two gangs, which is very peaceful. .

Apart from not participating in pvp events, pve guilds are actually a very large force. Their offline cohesion is much greater than that of pvp guilds , and it is easier for them to gather together in new games.

When Ji Xuan opened the forum, there were already at least three strategy posts with the prefix "pve big gang" floating on the homepage.

But unfortunately, there is only one pvp guild, Wanshi Fengyu, in the Green Forest City where Ji Xuanyi is located. Naturally, there is no professional pve guild to play the Green Forest City dungeon, let alone strategies.

Among those three strategy posts, two are about the wind-related city dungeons, and one is about the earth-related Thick Earth City dungeon. Among them, the Thick Earth City dungeon is also the one with the fastest progress.

Ji Xuan clicked in to take a look. The first boss of the Thick Earth City dungeon only had high health and defense, so he was easily defeated. The second boss would summon earth spikes, which dealt very high damage. The current progress was stuck at the second boss .

Ji Xuanyi looked at the other two posts again and found that even though both were copies of the Wind City, the boss mechanisms were very different. It seemed impossible to find some patterns from other copies.

Ji Xuanyi gave up. Besides a few serious strategy posts with the prefix "big gang" on the homepage, there were also many strategy posts for individual players who had reached a certain level and teamed up to go around the dungeon. Most of them were from sightseeing tour groups, and none of them had been able to defeat the first boss . However, there was a post about Green Forest City mixed in, so Ji Xuanyi just clicked on it to take a look.

The poster is a mage, and what he said is incoherent. Basically, the scene was very chaotic, and everyone died while fighting. Anyway, he went in to take a look at the scenery, and his body lay there several times, but he found that there was no way to pass it, so he quit. The final conclusion was that this dungeon could not be beaten at level 27, and he could only try at level 30.

Ji Xuanyi was very upset, but he also got some information.

The copy of Green Forest City is called Tomb of Ashes, which is obviously a reference to the word Green Forest. However, the first boss is not a plant or fire magic monster, but a group of humans. Yes, a group of humans.

Ji Xuanyi once suspected that the mage's team did not even reach the boss , but were wiped out by the plot monsters on the way. However, the mage swore that they had cleared a wave of plant monsters before encountering the boss , so that group of people must be the boss .

According to the mage, when they saw that group of people, they were just standing quietly on an altar. As soon as they got onto the altar, the group of people immediately came alive and started attacking them like crazy – it couldn't be called an attack, they just dragged the players who entered the dungeon to certain places on the altar, and the players who were dragged over would lose blood quickly and could not be healed at all. They would die in about two to three seconds.

The description of that mage was just like something out of a zombie horror movie. The priest girl in the team was so scared that she cried when she fought him for the first time.

Although those humanoid monsters did not cause any real damage, they were very strong, had a lot of health and thick defense, and could not be killed by just attacks. After the mage's team was wiped out several times, they discovered that while those humanoid monsters were dragging them, they would also die one by one over time. Therefore, it was likely that the player would need to hold on for a while. As long as the player did not die, the first boss would be defeated after a while when all the humanoid monsters died.

After summarizing this information, many people responded with suggestions, such as bringing a strong swordsman to directly shake off the humanoid monster, or bringing a few more priests to win by healing volume, but they were all rejected by the mage.

At the current stage, "Domain" does not have a point-adding system. Although it is not known whether it will be opened in the future, all players can only rely on equipment or level upgrades to improve their attributes. No matter how strong they are, they can only rely on equipment to resist those humanoid monsters. Even if they are ordinary, strong swordsmen, they can either wait until level 30 as the OP said, or they can only rely on equipment.

The author's theory is that, leaving aside the specific conditions, those who can afford non-mission equipment nowadays are all rich people, but there are no rich swordsmen in Green Forest City. The richest swordsman in Green Forest City is Wanshi Shengyi, the leader of the Wanshi Fengyu gang. Not to mention whether he can enter the dungeon for pvp or not, it is unlikely that he will spend money to buy equipment for a dungeon.

Seeing this, Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but feel that Qi Qin had been shot ...

But Qi Qin's current level is not high enough, so it's useless to say this.

As for bringing two priests, what the OP means is that, let alone two priests, with the speed of blood loss, unless all five people in the team are priests, they can't heal at all. But if there are really five priests in a team, there is no need to fight the boss later.

After refuting all the suggestions made by the people one by one, the author of the post summarized again that everyone should continue to upgrade and don't think about entering the game in the short term.

For Ji Xuanyi, there is still a way to defeat the first known boss , but he doesn't know what will happen next.

He scrolled down and the poster said he would visit the site again tomorrow and take screenshots for everyone to see.

Oh, I forgot that the screenshot system is now open. No wonder the popularity of the travel post ranked first has suddenly skyrocketed. There must be a lot of people who want to see what the scenery looks like outside the city map.

Ji Xuanyi exited the post and refreshed the page. He was caught off guard to see that the post from Wujian was pushed up again.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Who is so boring? A new version has been released, but you still don't let go of this news. Isn't that annoying?

Ji Xuan clicked on the post with an expressionless face, turned to the last page, and saw that the person who had replied the most recently had a familiar ID .

1896I

Smart and handsome Xiao Miyin: 6 Ah Wujian, you must have not been killed enough, and you dare to reveal the news about Mu Xuanyi here. Don't you think about it, does anyone dare to seek revenge on him? Rubbish!

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Oh, acquaintance.

After the person named Miyin pushed the post to the top, new replies immediately appeared below.

1897I

Did you level up today: Damn, the person upstairs is Mi Yin herself?! Group photo! Mu Xuanyi's best friend is here! Wu Jian, you can wait till you die ...

1898I

Fans of Miyin: Wake up upstairs! Although Miyin and Muxuanyi have a good relationship, his best friend is Xuepiaorenjian! Xue and Miyin cannot be separated!

1899I

Xue Mi Wang Dao: Look at my ID: Xie Xie.

1900!

I don't care who you are: Can you just be cute in the fan circle? It's an eyesore.

Then, following this strange topic, they started to build up a tall building.

Okay, now his information will be on the front page for several days again ... Ji Xuan thought expressionlessly.

Chapter 36

Mi Yin is also a master at playing assassins , but this person is different from Ji Xuanyi , who has been in the wild for a long time and is even called a pvp cancer . Although he is also very sharp , he spends most of his time rolling around in the arena. Being related to Ji Xuanyi can only be regarded as a bad fate.

How many people Ji Xuanyi had killed or how toxic he was had nothing to do with him. The reason they knew each other was because Mi Yin's regular arena teammate Xue Piao Renjian had something to do and had not been online for a long time. Mi Yin thought others were bad and would rather not play than make do with them . However, his daily life was too boring and he was itching to play, so he found Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi was in his violent period at that time , and Mi Yin could be considered a head delivered to his door, so he would be wasting his life if he was n't killed . So they started fighting , and the fight continued until Xue Piao Renjian came back online , and only then did Mi Yin stop bothering Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to look for Mi Yin and continued to be his cancer , but for some reason, rumors gradually spread that he was Mi Yin's good friend. I guess it was the psychopath Mi Yin who said that, but Ji Xuanyi himself didn't think so at all.

He felt that Mi Yin was a simply incomprehensible person.

However, there is a reason why Mi Yin regards Ji Xuanyi as his friend. As a person who has been in the arena for a long time, it is an instinct for him to make the acquaintance of masters. To Mi Yin, playing new cooperation with new professions and new people is the happiest thing about playing games. Although he already has a teammate Xue Piao Renjian with whom he has a very tacit understanding, this does not prevent him from continuing to look for new people. During the time when Ji Xuanyi was silent, Mi Yin once tried to persuade him to go to the arena with her to try his luck. Of course, he was rejected. However, Mi Yin was not angry at all. He even said something very childish like " Masters have the right to be willful " .

To put it simply, he is a guy who divides people completely based on their strength, and he is also obsessed with thinking that he has a good relationship with Ji Xuanyi. From time to time, he suddenly appears in places where Ji Xuanyi is mentioned, causing the uninformed crowd to really think that he has a good relationship with Ji Xuanyi.

In fact, they just exchanged a few words and had a few fights. Their friendship was one-sided ...

Ji Xuanyi stayed up a little bit the next night and reached level 27, while Qi Qin reached level 27 on the morning of the fourth day. By that time, Introduction to Art and Sleepy Cat had already been through the dungeon, and both of them looked pale when describing the first boss .

" It's so scary, it's just like a zombie horror movie! " Art said incoherently, " Those people all pounced on me like crazy, with so much strength. If I hadn't lost blood and felt no pain, I think I would have been scared silly ... They should put a rating sign at the entrance of this dungeon, no one under 18 allowed to enter! "

Ah Miao seemed to be fine, and said helplessly: " Wake up Art, this game is not for people under 18 years old to play, okay? "

Art looked at Ah Miao and said, " Aren't you afraid? "

Ah Miao blushed and was too embarrassed to say that she was scared and cried as soon as the fight started.

Ah Miao is actually doing pretty well. Some people in Green Forest City have already reached level 27. When they went to play the game, some people almost had a heart attack and were directly kicked offline by the security system.

However, so far, no one in Green Forest City has been able to defeat the first boss , while Thick Earth City, which has the fastest progress, has already reached the third boss .

As more and more popular science posts are published, everyone knows about the dungeons in various cities. The zombie horror movie in Green Forest City is not the most bizarre one. It is said that the most bizarre one is actually the underwater dungeon in Qingshui City. The boss is a mermaid. Although there are props for underwater breathing, players who can't swim are still slow in movement and are almost hung up and beaten by the boss . The PVE guild in Qingshui City has no choice but to call on everyone to learn synchronized swimming together ...

However, although it is not the most bizarre, horror movies are still quite popular. Many players said that they will definitely come to Green Forest City to see it once the cities are connected.

Art said: " You two are now twenty-seven years old, do you want to go to the dungeon and give it a try? "

At this time, Yishu no longer thought that anyone would reject Ji Xuanyi because of his profession, because most people in Green Forest City now have no expectations of defeating the first boss . They enter the dungeon just to fight casually and take a look, and it doesn't matter what profession they bring.

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " I want to go and have a look. "

Art didn't say anything, but Ah Miao said, " You can take a look at that altar. "

Ji Xuanyi looked at her.

Ah Miao frowned and said, " I always feel that the altar is weird. "

Before Ji Xuanyi could say anything, Yishu said, " Wow, you're starting to pay attention to these things too? "

Ah Miao blushed and said, " Yeah, what if there is something hidden? "

Art smiled and said, " That's how you play games. You never know when you'll get lucky. You have to have confidence in your luck! "

Ah Miao also laughed.

Ji Xuanyi said: " Have you entered the dungeon today? "

The CD of the five-person small copy is updated once a day. Anyone who enters the copy on that day will have his or her own CD and will not be able to team up with others to enter the copy.

Art nodded and said, " Today, Ah Miao and I found three more people to fight against a group of five priests. "

 " How about it? "

Art said with a frown, " What can we do? We've all been dragged away and running. Each of us can't heal enough. If I heal one person alone, the others will die, and the remaining person won't be able to hold on. It's all nonsense to rely on the amount of healing to pass the level. Even at level 30, I may not be able to heal enough. I think it still depends on the output. "

Ah Miao also nodded.

Ji Xuanyi probably had an idea in his mind: " I know. "

Art said: " Then you guys have fun, Meow and I are going to level up. "

The two groups waved goodbye.

Qi Qin knew that Ji Xuanyi's target was the new dungeon. He had also studied it offline for a while and had heard a little about the speculation of the local tyrant swordsman. He immediately asked, " Can we trade now? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said slowly, " In most cases, the better the swordsman's equipment, the heavier it is. If you put on purple equipment all over your body, your speed will probably be only 5%. You won't be able to run, not to mention that you may not be stronger than the boss . "

Qi Qin was confused and asked, " What should we do then? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Just go ahead and enter the level like this, you can pass it. "

Of course Qi Qin couldn't question Ji Xuanyi's decision. Ji Xuanyi said it would pass, so even though he didn't know the situation, he also thought it would pass.

The entrance to the Tomb of Ashes was at the edge of the Black Forest. When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin arrived there, they discovered that there were quite a few people waiting at the door. There were about a dozen of them, all squatting at the entrance of the dungeon, and no one knew what they were doing.

When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked over, several people saw Ji Xuanyi's magic robe and stood up to look in his direction. Qi Qin subconsciously walked a little ahead of Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi only showed half of his body behind Qi Qin, frowned and asked those people: " What are you doing? "

One of them asked, " Are you a pastor? "

 " No. " Ji Xuanyi said.

After hearing his answer, those people all showed dejected expressions on their faces, squatted down again, and whispered to their companions beside them: " Another mage. "

 " ... I am a warlock. " Ji Xuanyi said somewhat unhappily.

The warlock profession is so rare that those people were stunned for a moment and looked at each other, not knowing how to react.

Qi Qin said: " Are you waiting for the pastor? "

The person who asked Ji Xuanyi earlier answered: " Yes, there were originally several priests in Green Forest City who had passed level 27. They should have come here to form a team to enter the dungeon. I don't know what happened, but I didn't see any of them. "

Qi Qin: "..."

The man asked in confusion: " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuan said, " Don't wait any longer. Those priests have already defeated the five-priest team. They are out of cooldown . "

The dozen or so people squatting there were all stunned. They had never expected this to happen.

 " Five priests? Are they crazy ..."

 " I think five priests might be able to pass. "

 I heard " there was an announcement for clearing the boss , but I didn't see it. "

Seeing that several people were arguing, Qi Qin explained: " No, they said that the first boss is not about the amount of healing. "

Several people looked at each other.

Even if it's not the healing amount that counts, you can't win the game without a priest. You might not even be able to clear the monsters on the way to the boss . By then, you can't even be considered a sightseeing tour team, but just a team that dies suddenly at the entrance ... Since there was no priest, the game probably couldn't be won. Some people simply left, some thought that there might still be a priest to fight, so they continued to wait, and some directly formed a team of five output melee weapons and prepared to go in and fight.

Ji Xuanyi just stood there, watching this group of people coming and going.

After a while, an archer said to Qi Qin: " Are you two together? "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment. This was the first time that someone talked to him first instead of talking to Ji Xuanyi who looked more powerful.

He glanced at Ji Xuanyi and nodded cautiously.

The archer frowned, whispered to the two people behind him for a while, and said to Qi Qin: " That's perfect, there are three of us, you can go in with us. "

Qi Qin subconsciously looked at Ji Xuanyi. Ji Xuanyi had no expression on his face and nodded slightly.

Qi Qin then responded: " Okay. "

These three people are considered veterans. They have been in this dungeon for two or three days and are very clear about how many priests there are in Green Forest City. In addition to the five-man team mentioned by Qi Qin and others, there are two priests who have reached level 27 in Green Forest City, but they have already entered the dungeon with other teams. In other words, there will be no more priests today. If you want to enter the dungeon, you can only form a team with two output professions.

In fact, he only had his eyes on Qi Qin. After all, he was a swordsman and seemed to have good equipment. In his eyes, Ji Xuanyi was just a burden. Compared with the priest, the warlock's support was more oriented towards pvp , and skills such as control generally had no effect on bosses .

But unfortunately, these two people are actually in a binding relationship, and judging from the swordsman's attitude, he still listens to the warlock in everything. It is probably impossible for him to leave the warlock and join their team alone.

What he had just discussed with his two regular teammates was whether or not to put Ji Xuanyi into the team because of Qi Qin. After all, the latter had almost no role in the dungeon.

After discussing for a while, they decided to agree. After all, there were not many people in Green Forest City who had passed level 27. What's more, the big guy Qi Qin looked really strong, and a warlock could barely be considered a support. Maybe he had obtained some good skills at level 27?

To put it another way, even if they teamed up with two other output players, they might not be able to get through this dungeon. It would be better for them to just team up and go in and see. Although they had agreed to enter the dungeon together, the archer couldn't help but ask before sending the invitation to the two: " What is the skill of the warlock at level 27? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and replied indifferently, " Reduced treatment and treatment. "

The warlock's healing ability certainly cannot compare to that of a priest, but at least it can add blood, which is better than a team of kitchen knives. The archer then breathed a sigh of relief and sent an invitation to the two.

The new skill that Ji Xuanyi obtained at level 27 is called [Blessing]. There is nothing wrong with it. Whether it is healing teammates or reducing healing for opponents, it can be considered a blessing. However, this is still a skill that is biased towards pvp . Only half of its ability can be used in the dungeon, that is, to add blood.

However, due to the Warlock's professional setting and the two effects of a skill, the healing amount of this skill is destined to be tragic. It can only be said to be better than nothing.

After Ji Xuanyi accepted the invitation to form a team, he and Qi Qin immediately joined the other team and saw the levels, health points, and IDs of the other three people .

Well, ID .

Ji Xuan looked up one by one and found that the three people were looking at him with an indescribable look.

There was nothing that could be done about it. After all, during this period of time, the post that exposed Wu Jian's identity had been floating on the front page of the forum, and players who wanted to open up the dungeon would definitely not miss the strategy posts in the forum, and accordingly, it was impossible for them not to have seen that post.

Fortunately, among the three people he knew in Green Forest City, one was a lazy player who didn't care about the dungeon at all, one was a Buddhist player who didn't know Mu Xuanyi at all, and the other one saw the post and knew Mu Xuanyi, but he was too thick-skinned to think about it at all. For a while, his identity was not exposed much.

Oh, by the way, those who are involved in all kinds of things also know him, but they are afraid of offending him, so they keep their mouth shut.

But there is no way to play in a team. Among the people who know his identity, there is no one suitable to play with him. His ID will definitely be exposed to others. Whether he will be recognized or not depends on luck.

Obviously, he was not very lucky today.

Mu Xuanyi, Warlock, Green Forest City, just based on these three conditions, the identity can basically be confirmed. The three archers are already considering whether it is too late to quit the team and run away. Although the opponent's profession is just a warlock, but that is Mu Xuanyi! Such a cruel person, will he kill them to vent his anger after he dies once in the game! But if I quit the team now, it seems like I will offend the other party ... I'm trembling.

Ji Xuanyi pretended not to notice their expressions and said directly: " Let's go in. "

The archer laughed dryly and said, " Well, okay ... This dungeon is indeed a bit difficult. We don't need to clear it. If we can pass it, we'll pass it. If we can't, don't get angry. It's all normal, normal ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "... Yeah. "

Seeing Ji Xuanyi's response, the archer breathed a sigh of relief and said, " The official said that there is no teleportation array in this game, so the dungeon can be reached directly by walking. There is just a layer of mist at the entrance to monitor the CD . The CD of people who pass through the mist will be recorded. "

Ji Xuan nodded.

This setting is also the reason why the copy in "Domain" records the CD when entering the copy, instead of recording the CD after defeating the boss like in other games .

The passage leading to Tomb of Ashes is on the edge of the Black Forest, an inconspicuous underground entrance. If the authorities had not been considerate enough to mark the location in the update announcement, many cities might still not know how to enter the dungeon.

After the front team of kitchen knife soldiers walked into the dark underground entrance, the archers took the lead and called Ji Xuanyi and the others to follow.

The underground entrance was a very steep staircase slope, very narrow, only allowing one person to pass at a time. Apart from some sunlight near the ground, it was completely dark and cold further down. I don't know if it was because it was under the forest, but the air felt damp. When he first entered the passage, Ji Xuanyi could still see a group of people in front of him. But after turning a corner, only their group was left, and the group in front of him was completely out of sight.

In terms of the atmosphere, it really does feel like a horror movie.

The archer said, " Although there is no teleportation array for the sake of realism, it is impossible for all players to be crowded into one instance, nor is it possible for teams to line up to fight. The official still found a way to get the players to another instance without them noticing. "

“ Although it does look like a horror movie ... ”

Ji Xuanyi didn't think there was anything wrong, but Qi Qin, who had not received socialist education and had even been poisoned by feudal ideas, was a little panicked.

He didn't show it very obviously, but subconsciously moved closer to Ji Xuanyi, almost sticking to Ji Xuanyi's back, and his breathing was also very disordered.

Ji Xuan was silent for a moment, then grabbed his hand, and Qi Qin immediately held it back tightly.

Fortunately, no one could see their movements in the dark. Otherwise, someone would have been tempted to reveal the exciting news that Mu Xuanyi was gay, even if they were hunted to the ends of the earth ...

The stairs were straight and only bent at the end. After walking down for an unknown amount of time, the stairs finally disappeared. In front of the five people was a very wide underground world, filled with mushrooms emitting a faint blue glow, reflecting the vines that were spread all around, which were so dense and looked very scary.

When Ji Xuan saw those vines, he was stunned for a moment, as if something flashed through his mind, but he couldn't grasp it at once.

About ten meters in front of them was a cliff, and the other side was the road leading to the first boss . There was a stone bridge in the middle, about five meters wide and thirty meters long. Both sides of the stone bridge were covered with mushrooms like light bulbs, and under the bridge was a bottomless abyss.

" Those mushrooms are the monsters blocking the road. After we get on the bridge, they will come alive in rows. It's easy to defeat them if our damage output is enough. But last time we came here, there were still eight mushrooms piled up in the last few meters, and two people died before we got through. " The archer explained.

You will not lose levels if you die in a dungeon, but you cannot be resurrected immediately. You can only be resurrected after all your teammates have left the combat state or the assistant has given you the resurrection skill.

Of course, there is no such advanced skill as resurrection now. Dead players will return to the resurrection point in the dungeon after their teammates leave the battle.

After leaving the dark stairs that could make people disappear suddenly, Qi Qin had obviously recovered. After Ji Xuanyi let go of his hand, he did not stay with Ji Xuanyi, but went to the edge of the cliff to take a look, and asked curiously: " I didn't expect there is such a large space underground. How deep is it? "

The archer glanced at Ji Xuanyi and found that he didn't seem to have any expression, so he replied: " It's very deep. Someone was chased by mushrooms and fell down. It took about half a minute for him to hit the ground and die. "

After he finished speaking, he realized that Ji Xuanyi was also looking at him, and he made an awkward joke: " Haha, you can also experience the feeling of flying here ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Archer: "..."

To be honest, the archer didn't expect that he would live to see a look of disgust on Mu Xuanyi's face.

Ji Xuanyi felt that this person might not be very smart, but he was still his teammate to work with next, so he could just dislike him a little and not take it too seriously.

Qi Qin ignored the archer's awkward joke, looked down for a while, and asked, " Can we throw these mushrooms down there later? "

The archer shook his head and said, " Those mushrooms can be moved, but they grow on the bridge. They can't be easily removed, let alone thrown down. "

Qi Qin nodded and came back from the edge of the cliff.

Seeing that they were almost aware of the situation, the archer said, " The swordsman will lead the way, Xiaoqi and Xiaowu will follow behind me to deal damage, and the wood ... magician and the warlock will follow behind and just need to replenish blood. "

The archer's name is Lu San, and his two teammates are a mage and a knight, named Lu Wu and Lu Qi. They are obviously relatives and friends who came here to play together. I just don't know why the other Lu numbers are not with them.

Ji Xuanyi did not comment on Lu San's command.

It is impossible for a warlock to just hide behind teammates and heal them like a priest, because it is impossible. If a warlock wants to successfully assist teammates, there are many other things to do besides healing.

But he didn't say it, because with Qi Qin there, there wouldn't be any problem even if he just healed.

The stone bridge is about thirty meters long, with a pair of mushrooms growing every three meters, for a total of twenty. Last time, Lu San and his team piled eight mushrooms in the last few meters, which means that when they were almost halfway through, their output could not keep up with the speed of the monsters waking up.

Lu San's expression was also very solemn. First, he didn't want to be hunted down by Mu Xuanyi, who couldn't beat him. Second, he didn't want to be hunted down by Mu Xuanyi, who couldn't beat him. Finally, he didn't want to be hunted down by Mu Xuanyi, who couldn't beat him ...

So at least we can successfully clear the monsters that are blocking the way ...

Lu San swallowed his saliva, turned around to look at the nonchalant Ji Xuanyi, and said to Qi Qin: " Go ahead and kill the monster. "

Qi Qin half understood what Lu San said, which was that the mushrooms on the stone bridge were monsters. He immediately stepped onto the stone bridge. Lu Sanwuqi stood in a triangle behind him. Knight Lu Qi stood at the front holding a spear. Ji Xuanyi was in the fourth row of the entire team.

As Qi Qin stepped onto the stone bridge, the two mushrooms in front immediately squirmed to life, making chirping sounds and spitting venom at Qi Qin.

Lu San yelled, " Swordsman, be careful! Warlock, heal quickly. "

Ji Xuan didn't move at all. He saw Qi Qin sticking his sword to the ground, jumping lightly, and avoiding the venom. He also flattened the mushroom on the other side with two swords.

Lu Qi was not as skilled as Qi Qin. He was waiting for Qi Qin to help him block the damage in front, but he didn't even move and was directly sprayed by the venom. Ji Xuan had no choice but to raise his staff and start to use his pitifully low healing ability to help him heal.

Before Lu San had time to sigh at Qi Qin's high damage, he could actually kill a small monster with two swords, and immediately shouted to Qi Qin in a heart-wrenching voice: " You can't go that way! "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, and his feet had already landed on the ground.

Just now, in order to avoid the venom and kill the monsters at the same time, he jumped to the other side of the bridge. Obviously, Lu San's explanation was not in place. He forgot to say that although the monsters will wake up with time, if the player is too impulsive and walks into the sensing range of the monsters that have not yet awakened before the time is up, they will wake up immediately, and the next monsters will also have their awakening time shortened accordingly.

Lu Qi, who was sprayed by the monster, looked very unhappy. He didn't know it when he entered the dungeon, but as soon as Ji Xuan's blood-replenishing skill fell on him, he saw the speed at which his blood bar rose.

199 points! A non-hot, non-group-adding skill that only heals this much at a time, not even as good as a priest's hot jump! Using your head to kill monsters?!

Lu Qi subconsciously began to retreat and bumped into Lu San.

Lu San and Lu Wu were about to attack the monster that Qi Qin had missed, but were bumped by Lu Qi. They immediately asked, "What's wrong?"

Of course Lu Qi didn't dare to say in front of Ji Xuanyi that he couldn't breastfeed, so he had to lean over to Lu San's ear and whisper something.

Lu San was also stunned, his face turned pale and blue, he subconsciously looked at Ji Xuanyi and said: "Well, that..."

This amount of treatment was really too embarrassing. Ji Xuanyi's face was dark. He knew what Lu San wanted to say. He was too lazy to talk to these people. He stopped nursing Lu Qi and walked past them with big strides.

The mushroom monster spit out a mouthful of venom at Ji Xuanyi who was passing by. Ji Xuanyi dodged it by turning sideways without even blinking, and the venom spit out all over Lu Qi.

Lu Qi looked at himself and saw that he only had one third of his blood left. His face turned green and he quickly hid behind.

Ji Xuanyi ignored his actions, swung his staff and hit the monster on the head hard. After attracting its hatred, he immediately ran towards Qi Qin. Qi Qin had already killed the other two monsters triggered by him. Seeing Ji Xuanyi coming, he pulled him behind him with one hand and killed the monster that was chasing him.

Lu San looked at them blankly and was about to speak when he saw two more monsters waking up behind them. Ji Xuan moved left and right without changing his expression, dodged two attacks with a flirtatious move, and returned behind Qi Qin, who then slapped the monsters to death with a few hits.

He hasn't lost a drop of blood yet, but he still complains about the amount of treatment he receives. In fact, with his level of killing monsters, he doesn't even need to heal.

Lu San suddenly remembered a sentence, the output is really not enough ...

Look at Lu Qi's movement, and then look at Ji Xuanyi's ... I can only say that he is worthy of being Mu Xuanyi. Although he has no attack power as a warlock, his body movements and prediction are still awesome!

Ji Xuanyi turned around, looked at the three people, and said: "Why don't you catch up?"

Lu San then woke up as if from a dream and hurriedly followed.

After that, the monsters basically didn't wait until the time was up to wake up. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked straight over and cleared the monsters one by one. Occasionally, when Qi Qin made a mistake in his positioning, Ji Xuanyi raised his hand to help him control the monsters. Until they reached the other end of the stone bridge, neither of them lost a single drop of blood. On the contrary, the three people who followed behind and did nothing failed to avoid the venom spit out by the monsters and were accidentally injured twice. Lu Qi almost died directly back to the other side of the bridge ...

While Ji Xuanyi was healing Lu Qi, he whispered, " Hmm ... I'm really not suitable for team activities like dungeon raiding ..."

Qi Qin said " Hmm? " and said innocently, " I think it's great. "

" Really? " Ji Xuanyi thought.

Lu San, who was sitting on the ground waiting for his blood volume to recover automatically, burst into tears and thought to himself, of course you feel it's okay, you are people of the same level, a high-end warlock like Mu Xuanyi should not go into the dungeon with ordinary people like them, because he can't carry them at all!

The short thirty-meter journey had clearly made Lu San realize the gap between himself and the advanced players. He felt that people from two different worlds should not play together. The front players could easily kill monsters, but they had a hard time keeping their lives behind them ...

Ji Xuanyi used his joking healing power to madly heal Lu Qi for a long time, and finally got Lu Qi back on his feet within five minutes.

Lu San wiped the nonexistent sweat from his forehead and said, The first level " boss is ahead . "

Ji Xuan nodded.

Lu San thought about it, and said tremblingly: " If there is a priest, after being dragged into the magic circle on the altar, he can probably hold on for three seconds, but in this situation, uh ... he might die if he goes up. "

Ji Xuan glanced at him. Lu San's desire to survive made him add immediately: " Of course, it's not your fault. It's death whether you die early or late. It mainly depends on whether your output is poor ..."

This time it wasn't just Ji Xuanyi, Qi Qin also curiously leaned over to look at him.

Lu San was about to cry, and said: " Of course I'm not talking about Brother Swordsman. What I mean is that the three of us are just ordinary players. It is very likely that we can't hold on that long and will drag you down. So let me tell you first, if you don't pass, everyone must stay calm and don't get angry. This is all normal, normal ..."

Ji Xuan nodded and said, As long as someone survives " the first boss and holds out until the time is up, we'll be considered defeated. "

Lu San understood his implication and said with a bitter face: " No, there are twenty monsters on the altar. If we go up, four people will come to catch us separately. Once someone dies first, the people in charge of him will immediately change their targets ..."

Looking at Ji Xuanyi's gaze, Lu San's voice became lower and lower: " And the number of monsters killed every ten seconds is also based on the number of people still alive on the field ..."

boss easily , everyone must be sharp and not be dragged into the altar's magic circle for 40 seconds. And correspondingly, for every newbie in the team, the difficulty of defeating the boss will increase by a terrifying amount.

With the way they were walking across the bridge, it was impossible for them not to be a drag, and if they were dragged down and caused the whole team to be wiped out , it would probably be impossible for them not to be hunted down ...

Lu San was already heartbroken. Before they formed a team, he was the one who took the initiative to hook up with Qi Qin ...

Lu San thought that Ji Xuanyi, such a cruel person, would just give up on this game and kill the three of them first. Unexpectedly, after listening to him, Ji Xuanyi just nodded and said, " Oh, I see. "

And then nothing happened.

What does this mean? Does he mean he won't kill them? Or does he want to give it a try first?

Lu San thought tremblingly.

However, Ji Xuanyi had given up communicating with him and walked forward with Qi Qin. Although the road ahead was the same as before, with blue mushrooms growing everywhere, at least they did not suddenly come alive and attack them. The further they went, the denser and thicker the vines that covered the entire space became. Ji Xuanyi kept frowning, feeling as if he had overlooked something.

It was not until he saw the altar where the first boss was that he suddenly realized what he had overlooked.

The altar in front of him was not particularly large, but its style was exactly the same as the altar he and Qi Qin had seen in the north of the city. Even the magic circle that Lu San mentioned would make the player lose blood, the pattern on it was something he and Qi Qin had also seen on the altar in the north of the city.

Qi Qin obviously also noticed this and subconsciously looked at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi blinked and whispered, " Is this what Ah Miao thinks is wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi and the other went to the altar a few days ago, but Ah Miao had been there a long time ago and did not have a deep impression of the altar. That was why when she saw the altar in the copy, she always felt that something was wrong, but she could not remember where it was.

Qi Qin said: " Is it the same altar? "

Ji Xuanyi nodded slightly.

No matter which copy of the game, it is definitely not imagined out of thin air. Whether it is the altar in front of you or the name Tomb of Ashes, it means that this copy must be related to the plot that the official has not revealed.

Ji Xuanyi looked at the vines around him and said, " This should be the vine that the herb seller mentioned. It is also what Art found on the wolf boss . There are so many of them underground. "

Qi Qin asked: " What is the relationship between this thing and the altar? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " I don't know, but Chengbei said that this altar is a gift to God, but players will lose blood and die on the altar. There must be something wrong with Chengbei. "

Qi Qin was about to say something when he saw Lu San and the other two looking at them curiously.

Although Qi Qin didn't know much, he knew that information about secret missions was very valuable and couldn't be leaked out casually. So after looking at Lu San and the others, he moved closer to Ji Xuanyi, lowered his head, and whispered into his ear: " When we finish the fight and go back, we'll go to the north of the city to take a look. "

Ji Xuan slapped him away expressionlessly, rubbing his ears and saying, " Do I need you to tell me? "

Qi Qin chuckled twice and stopped talking.

Ji Xuan turned his head one by one. Lu San and others did not dare to look at the two of them. They looked at their noses with their eyes and their hearts with their noses, just thinking of themselves as wooden.

Ji Xuanyi raised his head and saw twenty men and women standing around the altar. They were wearing strange robes with white background and red patterns. Their faces were completely covered, leaving only a pair of lifeless eyes exposed. They looked very strange.

Just imagine that these twenty people will suddenly move and drag the player to death like they have lost their minds. It is really scary.

However, Ji Xuanyi had never been afraid of anything since he was a child, so he immediately walked towards the altar and said, " Don't waste time, start killing the monsters. "

The altar was not particularly large, but it could at least accommodate twenty people standing around it, with a distance of more than one meter between them. When Ji Xuanyi walked up to it, he found that not only the patterns, but also the distribution of the magic arrays on the ground were exactly the same as those he had seen on the altar in the north of the city. It seemed that the use of the altar here would not be much different from that of the altar in the north of the city. Before Ji Xuanyi could figure it out, Qi Qin and three other people also walked onto the altar. The moment they all stood there, the eyes of the twenty humanoid monsters all lit up red and they rushed towards the five of them, roaring.

Lu San shouted quickly: " Everyone be careful! They won't interfere with each other's goals. Look at which four people are chasing you, run, run! "

Ji Xuanyi, who was almost caught while trying to avoid the humanoid monster heading towards Lu Qi: "..."

This guy named Lu San always has a lot to say before a fight, but why can't he get to the point?

Chapter 37

No wonder it can scare people to tears.

The humanoid monsters on the altars were chasing them while wailing heartbreakingly . It was a chaotic scene and the emotions of the humanoid monsters would inevitably affect the players . As a result of their distraction , Lu Qi and Lu Wu were dragged into the magic circle. After being caught, the two of them did not struggle too hard or make any sound, perhaps because they had played this level too many times and were aware that their reactions in this situation would have a huge impact on their teammates. They were worried that Ji Xuanyi and the others would feel pressured, so they symbolically used a few skills on the humanoid monster and then lay dead on the ground with peace of mind.

Lu San was an archer , and his speed could be said to be the fastest in the team of five. With his face flushed red, he ran desperately on the altar . However, the area available for escape was limited to the altar. After the monsters were killed, the places outside the altar were blocked by an invisible air wall. Moreover, the speed of those humanoid monsters was not slow , and Lu San had no way to get rid of them.

The positions of these humanoid monsters were fixed at the beginning, and then began to change with the player's actions. Lu Wu and Lu Qi relied on their previous experience to survive the first ten seconds . Five of the twenty humanoid monsters had already fallen to the ground wailing , but soon after that, Lu Wu and Lu Qi lay down . The pressure on the remaining three people not only did not ease , but even became heavier.

Lu San's strategy of using speed to run in a straight line was obviously not going to succeed . After the second ten seconds, he was tripped by Lu Wu's " corpse ". The humanoid monster rushed up, grabbed him and threw him into the magic circle. His health bar was emptied almost instantly and he lay on the ground.

However, it was precisely because of the time freed up by lying on the corpse that he finally had time to observe the situation of Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin.

Due to his death, even though the twenty humanoid monsters had been reduced to only twelve, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin each carried six monsters, and because there were only two people left, they had to hold on for sixty seconds without losing any personnel. If someone accidentally fell down, the remaining one would have a harder time.

That's why we say that this boss cannot bring a noob with him. Once a noob appears in the team, the difficulty of clearing the level will immediately increase exponentially.

Lu San could be said to be extremely ashamed.

Unlike Lu San who has a faster speed, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin are both short-legged professionals. It is almost impossible for them to surpass those humanoid monsters in speed. It is a miracle that they can hold on until now.

This is what Lu San originally thought.

It was not until he had time to see how Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were doing now that he realized he was wrong. It was not a miracle, but a matter of course that they could hold on until now.

Ji Xuanyi moved very frequently, but rarely did he create a large distance, because it was of no use to him. He simply could not outrun those monsters. When he turned around and ran away, he had only one purpose, which was to make the six humanoid monsters gather in the same direction. The following movements could be said to be a show of skill.

Anyway, Lu San had never seen anyone who could dodge those monsters' hands so perfectly. No matter where the humanoid monsters tried to grab Ji Xuanyi, Ji Xuanyi would dodge it first. When the time was long enough and the monsters pounced on Ji Xuanyi directly or were about to surround him, Ji Xuanyi would turn around and run away, adjust the monsters' positions, and continue to use the same method to avoid the humanoid monsters' hands.

Lu San knew why Ji Xuanyi could do this, and he also knew clearly that he and Lu Wu and Lu Qi could never do the same thing as Ji Xuanyi.

Lu San is an old player who has played many games, so he knows there is a word called prediction.

The action of prediction once existed in PVE dungeons for a while. Team leaders needed to manually calculate the release time of boss skills, and then command the movements of team members in advance. However, plug-ins became popular later, and the word prediction almost disappeared in dungeons.

But this word has always been active in the pvp world.

In the arena, prediction can be said to be the most basic ability that players need to possess, because by the time you see the skill effects released by the enemy , you have basically been hit. You can only dodge or defend in advance before the enemy makes a move.

For most ordinary players, prediction is equal to luck. When they are playing, they make a defensive or evasive action, and the opponent happens to use a skill and they collide with him. Then they can brag about their awesome prediction and be happy for half a day. However, for some high-end players, their prediction is real prediction, which comes from thousands of battles they have experienced and is very reliable.

There are always some routines in the skill combination. According to the enemy 's equipment points, when the previous skill comes out, they can accurately guess what the next skill is and immediately dodge it. Occasionally, there are some things that can be called intuition. When a high-end player can trigger this wonderful thing called intuition many times, he can basically be called a master.

However, the prediction of high-end players will fail at certain moments. For example, when they meet a rookie who doesn't understand the routine at all, they predict that the opponent will not make any move even if they do 10,000 dodges. But when they are careless, the opponent will use skills in a confused manner and catch them off guard. However, skill prediction can be regarded as a kind of instinct of the body, and there is no way to adjust according to the level of enemy skills.

At this time, we have to talk about players like Ji Xuanyi who roam around in the wild.

The opponents of high-end players are often also high-end players, who rely more on predicting the tactics than on intuition. But unlike high-end players, people like Ji Xuanyi encounter a mixed bag of opponents , including awesome high-end players and naturally some novices. He has to kill hundreds of such opponents a day , which makes Ji Xuanyi rely more on his intuition than on tactics.

It is not easy to break up a gang of a thousand people. Ji Xuanyi's success rate in intuitive prediction has reached a terrifying level. Even in a holographic online game that is completely different from a keyboard online game, this predictive ability allows him to maintain his former reputation.

And it was precisely by relying on this strange intuition that he avoided the attacks of the humanoid monsters.

Of course, no matter how high the success rate is, it is not 100%, but Ji Xuanyi also has a paralysis skill. Every time he makes a mistake and is caught, he uses the paralysis skill to control the monster, and then immediately distances himself and proceeds to walk the monster away again.

However, this method still has risks. For example, the failure rate will collide and the paralysis skill will be on CD . Ji Xuanyi can basically lie down and relax. So even though Lu San and the others look at Ji Xuanyi as if he is very relaxed, in fact, Ji Xuanyi's nerves are always tense. It can be said that he is dancing on the edge of a knife.

However, compared to Ji Xuanyi's anxious avoidance, Qi Qin was a little more relaxed.

Like Ji Xuanyi, he dodged the attacks of the humanoid monsters like a prophet, but his success rate was not that high and he was often caught. When Lu San looked over, Qi Qin was just caught by a humanoid monster on the arm.

Lu San was shocked, thinking that all the burdens would be carried by Ji Xuanyi. Then he saw Qi Qin react very quickly, raised the heavy sword with one hand, and slammed it hard on the face of the humanoid monster. The humanoid monster screamed and was forced to let go. Qi Qin immediately ran out of the gradually formed encirclement and continued to repeat the actions of the previous round.

Lu San: "..."

This method of dealing with the problem is also very rough and simple. By the way, is this number one in the world Mu Xuanyi's disciple? He seems a little stupid.

In fact, Lu San was thinking wrongly. In a single round of prediction, Qi Qin could match two Ji Xuanyi, because he did not rely on intuition, but the movement of the humanoid monster's muscles, which was a prediction that he saw with his eyes and would never make mistakes. The reason why the success rate is so low is that the swordsman's speed is too slow, even slower than the warlock, which seriously limits his ability to move. So even if he saw it, he had no time to dodge. He had to be rough. Ji Xuanyi predicted when to dodge, and he predicted when to hit his face with the sword.

But no matter what, with these two big partners, defeating the first boss is almost a matter of course. Thinking of being able to get the first boss 's armor, Lu San couldn't help but shed tears of emotion!

Mu Xuanyi is still Mu Xuanyi, and the boss is still the boss!

The only shortcoming is that he is a little cruel. If he has a choice, he doesn't really want to cling to this thigh again!

As the last two humanoid monsters fell down wailing as time passed, the magic circle on the altar shone with red light. Before Ji Xuanyi could retract his movement to dodge backwards, the ground suddenly shook violently.

Ji Xuanyi almost fell down, but fortunately Qi Qin was right beside him and reached out to hold him up.

The vibration lasted for a long time before it stopped, and the red light on the altar gradually disappeared. However, the red patterns on the ground that formed a magic circle seemed to come alive and were very beautiful. However, they were a little too beautiful, and people could not help but feel a chill.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qinyi left the battle, and Lu Sanwuqi's resurrection option also lit up. The resurrection point was just below the altar.

Lu San ran in front and approached Ji Xuanyi and the others cautiously. He saw a treasure chest that appeared in the middle of the altar, filled with some miscellaneous things.

It seems that they didn't contribute much and just relied on Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi. Will these two let them share the reward?

But even if they tried their best, if Ji Xuanyi didn't let them go, there seemed to be nothing they could do ...

Lu San and the other two stood behind Ji Xuanyi and the others, staring at the treasure chest on the ground.

Ji Xuanyi didn't know that Lu San had imagined that he was going to kill people and rob them. He looked at the three people strangely and said, " Aren't you going to pick up the equipment? " Lu San was immersed in his own paranoid delusion. He was stunned for a moment and didn't even understand what Ji Xuanyi was saying: " What? "

As soon as Ji Xuan showed an impatient expression, Qi Qin quickly repeated: " Pick up the equipment. "

Lu San finally understood and asked in disbelief: " Can we pick it up? "

Qi Qin was confused and asked: " Huh? Why not? "

Lu San subconsciously looked at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Has his reputation become so bad? He seemed to have only killed people before, and never robbed other people's equipment!

Seeing Ji Xuanyi's dark face, Lu San also understood instantly and laughed dryly: " Hahaha, well, we didn't contribute much, how embarrassing ..."

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " Then don't pick them up? "

Lu San quickly said: " Sorry, sorry! We picked it up! "

Although I am indeed afraid of Ji Xuanyi, I have to know that purple equipment may drop in the dungeon! That is equipment that is far ahead of current players! How can I not pick it up!

Moreover, Mu Xuanyi didn't seem to have any intention of stopping them from taking the equipment. Even though the other party was notorious , Lu San couldn't help but feel that he was really generous.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin didn't move, so Lu San bravely walked up and took the things in the box. Because it is only the first level, there are not many items dropped, only two blue materials and one blue equipment.

Lu San was a little disappointed that there was no purple equipment, but this blue equipment was for the archer, and its attributes were much better than the blue equipment for the mission. He couldn't help but look at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi stretched out his hand to him while he looked at her pitifully.

Damn it ... He has to take back his generous evaluation. He even didn't let go of the archer's blue equipment!

Lu San moved his hands holding the archer's equipment with difficulty, and then he heard Ji Xuanyi say, " Give me the materials. "

Lu San was stunned, and looked at Ji Xuanyi in confusion, stammering: " Material? "

It was still unknown when the life skills would be unlocked. Materials were the least valuable things in the game at this stage. Even purple materials were sold by copper coins, not to mention blue materials. Ji Xuanyi only wanted materials?!

Before Lu San could figure it out, he heard Qi Qin coughing. He looked up and saw Ji Xuanyi's hand still stretched out there with a very ugly expression. He quickly handed over the blue material in his hand, thinking that maybe a big shot like Mu Xuanyi could be useful.

In fact, he was overthinking. Ji Xuanyi had no use for the materials. He just didn't want unusable equipment, and he didn't want to waste his efforts ...

Ji Xuanyi took a look at the blue material in his hand, which looked like a piece of paper. The description on it was [Mysterious Talisman]. Its purpose was unknown, probably because the life skill had not been unlocked yet.

Since it was of no use for the time being, Ji Xuanyi just put it in the corner of the package.

The violent earthquake that occurred after passing the level shook off the rocks blocking the way ahead, revealing the path to the next boss .

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin's fighting style was obviously not suitable for them. Lu San and others were hesitating whether to go on, when they saw Ji Xuanyi had already taken the lead and walked to the front. The other party did not say anything, so Lu San and the others had no choice but to follow.

Generally speaking, the monsters leading to the first boss are used to warm up the players, so that everyone can have some idea of the difficulty of this dungeon, and similar situations will not occur before the next boss .

However, Lu San and his companions still walked very carefully.

After passing through an extremely dark tunnel, the group walked into another empty cave. The earth walls around the cave were covered with layers of vines. On the huge stone platform in the middle squatted a wolf-shaped boss who was two people tall . Behind it was the road leading to the last boss . Several vines were entangled across the middle. It seemed that the road would only be opened after defeating the wolf-shaped boss .

Lu San looked at the blood volume of the wolf-shaped boss and thought that this time it would be a real boss . At least if they wanted to go past it, they had to bring a real priest. Although Ji Xuanyi was awesome, his healing capacity was really pitiful. There was absolutely no way he could deal with this boss .

How can we persuade this killer to give up leading the three of them to fight this boss ...

Lu San was thinking hard when he heard Ji Xuan say, " Let's go. "

Lu San was startled, and when he looked up, he saw Ji Xuanyi walking back. He subconsciously said, " Are you not going to fight anymore? "

As soon as he said this, Lu San wanted to slap himself. Mu Xuanyi had already said he was leaving, so why was he still coming? What if he really answered " Okay, let's continue fighting! " ? ! After the whole team was wiped out, he would definitely be on Mu Xuanyi's enemy list! Just when Lu San was about to admit his mistake, Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Well, I can't defeat you. "

Lu San: "..."

After all, I am a veteran who has played many games. Although I have prepared myself mentally, I still feel a little upset when I hear such a blunt statement.

In fact, Ji Xuanyi has really changed. If he was the same as before, he would definitely tell Lu San more directly that you are too weak! However, now he just said euphemistically that he couldn't beat him. Lu San should actually be content.

they really couldn't defeat the second boss , and didn't plan to do so, so they had to return the same way they came.

In fact, if they successfully killed the third boss , a new exit would appear nearby and they could just go out from there. But now they haven't even defeated the second boss , so they had to spend a few more minutes walking back.

He re-entered the underground stairs, but this time he went up. After turning a corner, several players whom he had not seen before appeared in front of Lu San.

Compared to the altar in the first level, Qi Qin, who had personally traveled through it once, was actually more afraid of this kind of scene. He subconsciously reached out to grab Ji Xuanyi. Ji Xuanyi was speechless for a moment, then grabbed him, and Qi Qin calmed down.

Lu San explained: " Although it looks like the same road, in order to avoid the players going up and the players coming down from colliding with each other, they are actually two different paths. They should be connected to the exit after clearing the level. After we go up, we will be in a different place from the entrance. "

Ji Xuan raised an eyebrow.

Lu San smiled and said, " We just entered the dungeon from the south of the city near the Black Forest, but when we leave later we will be at the Black Forest in the north of the city. If we want to go back, we have to go through the Black Forest again. "

What Lu San said was indeed correct. When Ji Xuanyi and the others came out, although they were still on the edge of the Black Forest, their direction was obviously different. They were already in the north of the city.

After they got out safely, Ji Xuanyi had no intention of quitting the team to start a revenge killing. Lu San breathed a sigh of relief and said quickly: " Well, the three of us still have something to do. You guys can have fun. We'll leave first! "

Ji Xuanyi was watching the chat channel and had no time to talk, so he just said " hmm " . Lu San and others felt relieved and quickly left the team and fled.

Ji Xuanyi's private chat channel has been flooded with questions about Introduction to Art, and they have been asking about how they defeated the first boss , what the second boss looked like, and a lot of other things.

Ji Xuanyi then remembered that the system did issue a world announcement when they passed the level, but at that time he was concentrating on thinking about the relationship between this altar and the one in the north of the city, so he didn't pay attention to it. When he scrolled up to check the records, he found that it had been deleted by Yishu's private chat.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to open the dungeon achievement interface and switch to the option of [Green Forest City] Tomb of Ashes. Lu San's name was on the first armor position behind the first level [Sacrificial Ceremony] . Because he was the captain, he had to expand the first armor icon again to see the names of the team members.

But it's better this way. Probably not many people can see his ID . The world call function has not been opened in the game yet. Except for the players who are clearing the dungeon, not many people will notice the system announcement.

And there might even be some innocent people like Art among them.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and replied to Yishu: " The first boss can be defeated if you have good positioning. Also, your teammates can't be too weak. "

[Introduction to Art] : ... I think I should wait for a more serious guide. What does the second boss look like?

Ji Xuanyi frowned slightly and replied: " The second boss ..."

[Ji Xuanyi] : It's a wild wolf.

There was silence for a long time without any reply from the Introduction to Art. Ji Xuan thought that even a slow-witted person like the Introduction to Art should be able to see that something was wrong.

After a while, the reply from Introduction to Art came back.

[Introduction to Art] : I just handed in my assignment.

[Art Introduction] : What? Wild wolves? What a coincidence! Meow and I once killed a wild wolf in the Black Forest.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Forget it, you can't count on this girl's IQ.

Ji Xuanyi said directly: " The wolf in the dungeon should be the same one you met. Didn't you notice the vines in the dungeon? They are the same plant as the rhizome you are holding. "

[Introduction to Art] : ???

[Introduction to Art] : Is that so?! I was so excited when I entered the book that I didn't notice it at all! Thank you, Xiaoji, I'll go check it out tomorrow!

[Ji Xuanyi] : It's okay.

After thinking for a while, Ji Xuanyi sent another message: " Do you want to fight with us? You can go to the second boss and take a look. "

Perhaps it will help to hide the entanglement in the general theory of art.

[Introduction to Art] : Ah? Xiao Ji, are you going to curry favor with me?

[Ji Xuanyi] : ... Yeah.

[Art Introduction] : Thank you, but no, even if we pass the first level with two assistants, we won't be able to beat the next level, right? Xiao Ji, save your CD for the new level, clear the level first and then take me and Ah Miao with you!

What the Art Introduction said made sense. At this stage, Ji Xuanyi really wanted to complete this copy first. If he guessed correctly, there should be clues in the later levels that could explain the plot that the official didn't say.

Most likely it's hidden.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and stopped talking to Yishu. He said to Qi Qin who was standing beside him, " Let's go to the altar in the north of the city. "

Qi Qin was staring at Ji Xuanyi's profile in a daze. Ji Xuanyi suddenly spoke to him, which startled him. His face turned red, and he quickly looked away and said, " Okay, I also think there must be something wrong there. "

Ji Xuanyi looked at Qi Qin's red ears and couldn't help but curl his lips. Then he returned to his expressionless look and said, " Let's go. "

This was not the first time they went to the altar. They even had a fierce battle with the man called Wanshifengyu there. But when they went there again, they couldn't help but say that this altar was really big.

Too big.

Ji Xuanyi walked up first, bypassing those who were in high spirits, and carefully checked every part of the altar.

Exactly the same, whether it is the pattern and shape of the altar itself, or the magic circles painted with red paint on the ground, they are all exactly the same as the small altar in the copy. Qi Qin was also shocked. After walking around for a while, he said to Ji Xuanyi, " I'm afraid this altar is not dedicated to any gods, right? "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything, but frowned and said, " If I'm not mistaken, the altar in the copy probably means that human lives need to be sacrificed? "

Qi Qin thought so too and nodded when he heard this.

The reason why those humanoid monsters are chasing the players while making such shrill wails is probably because they know that if they don't use the players' lives to fill the magic circle, they will be the ones to die. And this is indeed the case. If the players don't die, they will fall down with the passage of time.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " There should be some clues on those humanoid monsters. I wonder if the dungeon has been refreshed. Let's go back and take a look after we finish checking here. "

Qi Qin kind of hated the underground stairs leading into the dungeon, but since Ji Xuanyi said so, he had no choice but to nod.

Ji Xuanyi looked at the joyous and prosperous scene around him again and said, " The function of these should be the same as those of the humanoid monsters in the dungeon, sacrifice ... No wonder there are only servants here and no masters. "

Qi Qin said: " What about those people in the north of the city? When we asked them last time, they almost all said that this is an altar for the gods. Do they have questions too? "

Ji Xuanyi said, " You are right. There must be something wrong with Chengbei. They are so sure about the identity of that god. They are probably the ones who created this kind of sacrifice. Even if they are not, they should be accomplices. "

Qi Qin's understanding of the game was still insufficient, and he felt too immersed in it. He said with some sadness: " Those people look pretty good, alas ..."

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and sneered, " You are here again. "

Qi Qin realized what he was referring to and quickly said, " I didn't. Although they look nice, I know they are not good people. I just sighed. "

Ji Xuanyi looked at him and said, " I don't know if you still remember that when Ah Miao first brought us to the north of the city, his attitude towards us was not very good. "

Qi Qin was stunned and found that it seemed to be true.

Ji Xuan said, " The people in the north of the city are very xenophobic. Ah Miao and the others only gradually became accepted after doing missions here for a long time and helping a lot. If there is nothing wrong with a peaceful place like the north of the city that has cultivated so many retired players, how could there be xenophobic sentiments? "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " Speaking of which, their attitude towards Chengnan is also problematic ..."

Qi Qin said: " Have you figured out anything yet? "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment, looked up at him, and shook his head: " There are many clues, but they are very confusing. I haven't figured it out yet. "

Qi Qin couldn't help but say: " You are already very good, really, you are the smartest person I have ever met! "

This is absolutely the truth. Anyone who is not blind can see the sincerity on Qi Qin's face.

Even Ji Xuanyi would be happy to be praised like this, and he couldn't help but smile. However, he immediately put on a stern face and said, " That's because you don't have much experience. "

Qi Qin wanted to explain, but Ji Xuanyi patted him and said, " Let's go find a few people and see if we can get anything out of them. "

Qi Qin immediately forgot what he was about to say and nodded.

Ji Xuanyi didn't feel it at all. At first, he hated this kind of task very much. When he was in Xinmu Town, he would even be so annoyed that he would log off directly because of the interruption of a clue. But now, facing so many messy clues, he didn't feel that way at all. Maybe this is the difference between having someone accompany him and having no one accompany him. Even if he was angry, he could just hit Qi Qin.

not far from the altar . Ji Xuanyi stopped a person and asked, " Do you know anything about the altar? "

His face became serious and he said, " Don't ask too many questions. That is a sacrifice to the gods! "

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin.

Qi Qin also frowned.

Their attitude towards them was different. At least before, when they asked who the banquet on the altar was prepared for, they all told them in a friendly manner that it was for gods. It looked like an ordinary belief, so they didn't care too much. But now their attitude was completely different from before.

He seemed to be in awe, or perhaps afraid of something.

After asking a few more questions, there was no new answer to similar questions. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin asked a few more people and found that most of them had the same attitude as the previous one, with only a few still being as friendly as before.

Qi Qin was a little confused and asked, " What on earth is going on? "

Ji Xuanyi pondered: " It may be because the official opened the dungeon. Although it was not explicitly stated and the players did not know, it has actually quietly changed with the development of the plot. "

Qi Qin was stunned and said, " Ah? Could it be that Green Forest City will really become the same as the situation in the dungeon in the future? "

" It shouldn't be that serious, right? " Ji Xuanyi hesitated and said, " Since there is already a copy, the big map shouldn't change much unless the game is updated to a new version. But the players haven't reached the maximum level yet, so this should just be a part of the main quest hidden during the upgrade. It can only be a hidden quest at best. "

Qi Qin didn't quite understand what he heard, but he heard that the hidden mission and the map would not change, and he felt a little relieved, and said, " There's nothing much to be said from the people in the north of the city, so should we go back to the dungeon and take a look? "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Well, let's go back and take a look. "

There is no way to enter the city from the exit in the north. You can only go around and enter from the entrance in the south.

There were still people waiting for the priest at the south entrance of the city. When Ji Xuan passed by, he heard them discussing that someone had defeated the first boss .

This is the advantage of holographic online games. The name is not above their heads.

Although these people are discussing it excitedly, they will not be aware of the person walking past them.

However, it is not completely without problems. Compared with an ID , a person's face and clothing are easier to remember, especially when the person's profession is a warlock.

One of the people waiting for the pastor recognized Ji Xuanyi and asked curiously, " Hey, didn't you go in with a few other people before? Why are you going again? "

Qi Qin was stunned and was thinking about how to get away with it, but Ji Xuan ignored the man and dragged Qi Qin into the studio.

The underground stairs were still dark. Qi Qin took a few quick steps, approached Ji Xuanyi, and whispered, " Was it not good for us to ignore him just now? "

Ji Xuanyi gave him a cold look: " There are many things in the world that can be solved with just two sentences. "

Qi Qin was stunned: " Which two sentences? "

 " It's none of your business or mine. "

Qi Qin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi said: " If you think it's not good to ignore someone, just tell him next time that it's none of your business. "

Then they would start a fight!

For the sake of innocent passers-by, Qi Qin quickly said: " Then let's just ignore them! "

Ji Xuan sneered and said nothing more.

After leaving the steps, the two men immediately ran towards the small altar. Fortunately, the corpse of the humanoid monster was not brushed away.

Ji Xuanyi turned the humanoid monster over and said to Qi Qin, " I don't know if these monsters will refresh after the copy CD is updated or after a few hours. Hurry up. "

Qi Qin responded and quickened his movements.

For female humanoid monsters, they basically took off their masks to look at their faces to see if they might be from Chengbei, and also to see their iconic jewelry or rings. As for male humanoid monsters, there was no need to be polite, and they were almost stripped naked by Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi.

After all, the north of the city is very large, and many of them only flashed by, so it was impossible to remember their appearance. These humanoid monsters also did not have anything on their bodies that could prove their identity.

Qi Qin asked: "Should we start from the direction where they are controlled? "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, "If they are from the north of the city, they may be willing. If you have to talk about the method of control, it seems that it is hard to tell ..."

There were no scars or signs of poisoning on these monsters. Even if there were, they could only be detected through examination. Ji Xuanyi was not so cruel as to cut off their flesh or blood and take them out for identification .

This is too crazy. If a game company makes such a setting, they will definitely be sued in court ...

Ji Xuanyi ruled out this option and said to Qi Qin: "Either they have something that can prove their identity, or I am wrong and they have no clues. "

Qi Qin sighed and turned over the clothes of the man in his hand.

Ji Xuanyi looked up at him, was stunned for a moment, and said: "What is that? "

Qi Qin was also stunned: "What? "

Ji Xuanyi walked over and turned over the clothes in his hand. Although it was not obvious, a layer was sewn on the clothes.

Ji Xuanyi pinched it, his eyes lit up: "There's something inside! "

Neither of them had any assassin's weapons like daggers, so Qi Qin had to take out his guard. Like a bear embroidering, he rubbed the interlayer of the clothes on the not-so-sharp blade of the guard, making a cut.

Ji Xuan shook it and poured out the contents of the compartment, which turned out to be a thin silver necklace.

It's a pity that due to the limitations of the game background, there are no photos or anything like that on it. It's bare and I have no idea where it came from.

Qi Qin said: "Should we take this thing to the north of the city and ask everyone one by one? "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment, then shook his head and said, "Since there are problems with the people in the north of the city, let's not ask them for now. Let's clear this instance first and see if there are any other clues. "

Qi Qin nodded.

They said that they would clear the dungeon first and then think of a solution, but it was not that easy. So many people were stuck in the first level, and the second level would be even more difficult. And no matter how powerful Ji Xuanyi was as a warlock, his healing ability was still a shortcoming. Even a veteran like Lu San could not cooperate with their style of play, and it would be equally difficult to find other people.

Otherwise, Qi Qin could only go through the customs alone, while Ji Xuanyi waited for his news. Regardless of whether Qi Qin can find clues or not, neither Qi Qin nor Ji Xuanyi want to act separately.

There is only one way – recruit teammates.

It has been said many times that the biggest problem with the game "Domain" is the lack of information flow.

In keyboard online games, recruiting teammates is a very simple matter. It can be done by just shouting in a world. However, in "Domain", the only way for players to communicate remotely is private chat. It is almost impossible to recruit strangers.

Ji Xuanyi would definitely not stand on the street and pull people one by one to ask their level, whether they are sharp, and whether they can beat half of the kitchen knife pioneering team. Even Qi Qin couldn't ask.

After much thought, there is only one way.

Ji Xuanyi: " How about this, I'll come back and let those who can't be killed join the team, how do you think? "

Qi Qin: "... Wake up! "

Chapter 38

Mu Xuanyi's plan to return to the martial arts world was too terrifying . Fortunately, Ji Xuanyi was a sorcerer now , so even if he had the intention , he didn't have the strength for the time being . Qi Qin breathed a sigh of relief.

In this matter, we can only ask Wanshi Fengyu for help.

Although Wanshi Shengyi is a PVP player who does not play dungeons , as a gang leader, he always has to be aware of the news in the game, so he also saw the system announcement. boss of Green Forest City ! I don't know what it means but it looks very powerful!

Wan Shishengyi, who originally had no idea about the copy, felt an inexplicable sense of pride about knowing Ji Xuanyi because of this rare world announcement. Therefore, when Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin came to him and said they needed help , he agreed without hesitation.

In fact, it was not a big favor for him, at least it was much smaller than what Wu Jian asked them to do! Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin hoped that they could help spread the news of finding teammates . After all , more people would be more reliable than Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin going out on the street to ask people one by one.

Feng Yuqiqi happened to be beside Wan Shishengyi. When he heard what the two were talking about , he immediately patted his chest and said, " I won't talk about other things . Just leave this matter to me. "

Wanshi Shengyi was stunned for a moment, then came to his senses and said with a smile: " Yes, yes, Fengyu is reliable in this matter! "

Qi Qin asked curiously: " Why? "

Fengyu smiled and said, " As for finding teammates , handing out flyers is always faster than asking everyone one by one . To be honest , I designed the logo for our gang . Isn't it easy for me to draw a recruitment picture for you? "

logo in Wanshifengyu .

" Thank you for your hard work, " Ji Xuanyi said, and put another twenty gold coins on the table: " This is your reward. "

Wan Shi Shengyi had distributed all the money he got from Ji Xuanyi last time to several people who helped to kill monsters. Feng Yuqiqi, who was busy at the time and did not attend, did not even see him. Later, he only heard from Wan Shi Shengyi that Ji Xuanyi was very rich. This was the first time he actually saw Ji Xuanyi take out so much money. His eyes widened and he could not help but exclaimed , " Holy shit! "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " That's it. Contact us if there is any situation. We will upgrade first. "

Wanshi Shengyi gathered the money on the table, nodded repeatedly, and said, " Walk slowly, walk slowly, be careful! "

After Ji Xuanyi and the other man left, Feng Yuqiqi stopped pretending to be so serious and grabbed a few gold coins from Wan Shishengyi's hand, saying non-stop: " Fuck, fuck, fuck ... Twenty gold coins are given as soon as I ask! Isn't this too fucking extravagant? Is Mu Xuanyi that rich? "

Wanshi Shengyi handed him half of the gold coin and said, " I told you that he is very rich, but you didn't take it seriously. "

Feng Yuqi said excitedly: " Didn't he buy equipment that time? Spending money on equipment doesn't count as being rich! The rich people who are willing to support the work of creators like us are the real rich people! "

Wanshi Shengyi said speechlessly: " What a mess ..."

Feng Yuqiqi took half of the money and said, " What are you going to do with the remaining ten gold coins? I need to hire an artist after I finish the design. Labor costs are not cheap these days. "

Wanshi Shengyi said with disdain: " There is no one selling paper in the city, and the paper sold in the trading house is extremely expensive. I can't make any money if I buy paper. I want to take my brothers to kill monsters. Painting is manual labor, but killing monsters is not? "

Feng Yuqi reluctantly said, " Okay, I'll add Mu Xuanyi as my friend. For designing, we still need to discuss it with him. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't have any requirements for the style of the flyer. He just needed Feng Yuqiqi to write down his requirements. After explaining his needs to Feng Yuqiqi, Ji Xuanyi leveled up with Qi Qin for a while and then went offline.

As expected, there is a new strategy guide for the Green Forest City dungeon on the forum, and the poster is Lu San.

It's not for the sake of showing off, but as a person who has been listed in the world announcement and whose name is marked at the top, if Lu San doesn't write out the strategy to pass the game, he will be despised by many people.

Although judging from this post, Lu San has been despised, because his first sentence was, I have been a dead body and I have hugged two thighs.

It can be said that he is very honest, but not many people believe him. You are clinging to others, but why do you think you are the captain? Do you think we are stupid?

Lu San couldn't explain it clearly. Could Mu Xuanyi's identity be casually revealed? In order to avoid being hunted down , Lu San had to say, "If someone doesn't want to be the captain, what can I do!"

There was another round of sighs and ridicule.

But no matter what, Lu San felt that he had sacrificed a lot by doing such a terrible thing as fighting the dungeon with Mu Xuanyi. As for the dungeon strategy, it was already very good that he could write down what he knew at the risk of his life. You ignorant guys can believe it or not! Ji Xuanyi took a look at Lu San's strategy and summarized it as follows: as long as the equipment is up to standard, you can pass the first boss. The first boss requires a high average level in the team, and there must be a master with good physical skills and prediction in the team. If you can't do that, you can only wait for upgrades or weakening of the copy.

After Lu San posted the strategy guide, more people started cursing at him. What the hell is this? All bullshit. If the people on the team were so awesome, who would want to read the strategy guide?

Lu San went silent directly, and Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to read it anymore and just left the post. Then he was dismayed to find that Wu Jian's post was still floating on the homepage ... It was all the fault of that stupid Mi Yin!

Apart from Ji Xuanyi's own identity post, the most popular post on the homepage is indeed the travel post. It is very rare to have stayed on the homepage from the beginning of the game to now.

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but go in and take a look out of curiosity, only to find that the post had become a towering building. He flipped directly to the last page and discovered that the poster had lost his way and had come across a yellow-named settlement, but there was no quest. The post speculated that it might be a high-level outdoor map that would be opened in the future, and advised the poster to avoid it to avoid encountering monsters that he couldn't defeat.

Because the screenshot mode is available in the game, the poster also posted a lot of pictures. The scenery in the wild is still very beautiful.

Ji Xuan watched it for a while and then logged off. As soon as he came online the next day, he received a private message from Feng Yuqi.

[风雨愁] : The recruitment flyers have already started to be produced, would you like to take a look, Brother Ji?

Before Ji Xuanyi could make up his mind, Qi Qin also came online at the right time and was right beside him. When he saw Ji Xuanyi, he immediately asked happily: " What are we going to do today? Continue investigating the situation in the north of the city? Go to fight? Or upgrade? "

Ji Xuanyi thought about it and felt that he didn't want to do any of these three things for the time being, so he said, " Let's go see how the painting of the wind and rain is going. "

Qi Qin had no objection to any of Ji Xuanyi's decisions, so he agreed immediately. The two of them walked towards the address given by Feng Yuqiqi.

Wanshi Fengyu has moved his base from the backyard of his home to the barbecue restaurant he opened, but he can't paint in the barbecue restaurant as it is too easy to be distracted, so Fengyu found a small workshop in a carpenter's house and called several painters who can paint in Green Forest City to come and work.

The reward was still very generous, two flyers for one silver coin. Although the price did not seem as expensive as the maps they drew at the beginning, the time spent on drawing a map could at least make four flyers. So when the painters in Green Forest City heard the news, they didn't care about Feng Yu's purpose and rushed to ask for the job. Feng Yu took a long time to choose before he found a few people with good painting skills to help.

When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked into the small workshop, they saw a dozen people lying on the tables and the floor in different postures, writing furiously. Feng Yuqi was the only one occupying a small wooden table, with two bamboo-like legs sticking out from under his wizard's robe, and he was writing and drawing at a very fast speed.

As an outsider, Ji Xuanyi felt for the second time in his life that others were very awesome. The first time was because of Qi Qin.

As soon as Ji Xuanyi walked up to Feng Yuqiqi, before he could say anything, Feng Yuqiqi noticed him first and said enthusiastically, " Brother Ji, you're here! Come sit down! "

Ji Xuan looked at the benches around him that were occupied by painters and said, " No, let's just say this. "

Feng Yu laughed dryly and said, " Our current goal is to print one thousand flyers. Lao Wan has printed three hundred sheets of paper. We are a little slower here and have printed two hundred copies. Do you have a look? "

Ji Xuan nodded and took a look at one of them. It must be said that although Feng Yuqiqi was always hanging out with Wan Shi Sheng Yi and it was hard for him to manage a small gang of more than 30 people, he was still quite good at design.

However, Ji Xuanyi couldn't make out the pattern, but the characters were big enough, so that was enough.

Sincerely recruiting teammates to help you upgrade to the first tier of dungeon!

Requirements: DPS, expert, any profession except swordsman.

Try to maintain the first place and strive for the second place to pass the level.

ps : There is no priest in the team, only one warlock, come if you have confidence.

Contact person: Wanshishengyi

It's a very simple recruitment process, but the conditions are a bit harsh. Most people probably won't care about the first one, but the warlocks in the supplementary content are very terrible. It can almost be said to be a kitchen knife team. Even if they are really masters, few people dare to try it.

However, since Ji Xuanyi had proposed the conditions himself, Feng Yu Qiqi would not bargain with him. After making some suggestions out of goodwill, Ji Xuanyi showed no intention of changing his words, so Feng Yu Qiqi had no choice but to write down the conditions as he had proposed.

Ji Xuan took a look and said, " It seems there are not 200 copies here. "

Feng Yu said sadly, " There are only 100 copies here. When the previous batch came out, the brothers took them out and posted them. Although the goal is 1,000 copies, we will stop drawing when we have enough people. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Thank you for your help. "

Fengyu said hurriedly: " It's not hard, it's not hard! "

Ji Xuanyi was about to say something when a cautious voice came from the side.

" Boss? "

Ji Xuan took a look and found that it was actually a calf cramp. This guy was actually drawing here.

Fengyu asked sadly: "Do you know him?"

His calf cramped and he chuckled, Ji Xuan nodded.

When we first met, I had calf cramps and complained to them about their tyranny. I didn't expect that they are helping me with the painting now. It seems that money really makes the world go round.

Ji Xuanyi was a little worried before that no one would dare to join a team because of Wanshi Fengyu's reputation. Now it seems that he was overthinking it. You know, the attraction of the first armor of the copy is much greater than a few silver coins.

As expected, someone came to the door immediately on the first day the recruitment flyer was posted. However, Green Forest City is a retirement city after all, and there are not many people who have reached level 27. So after eliminating a few guys who took advantage of the situation, there are only two people left, a mage and an archer.

But there was still one person missing, and this person hadn't shown up for several days.

Fengyuqiqi had finished drawing the thousand leaflets, and they were posted everywhere in Green Forest City. There were also people from Wanshifengyu handing out leaflets on the road ...

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were tired from completing the mission, so they took a rest in the barbecue restaurant occupied by Wanshi Fengyu. Wanshi Shengyi ate barbecue here while waiting for the recruits to arrive.

After sitting for almost an hour, Wanshi Shengyi felt full and said with a bitter face: "Brother Ji, I feel that after so long, the flyers are posted everywhere. If there really is someone who meets the requirements, he should have appeared by now. Is it possible that there are no more masters in Green Forest City?"

This is possible. After all, Green Forest City has such resources and even only has one gang, so it is normal that there are no experts.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said nothing.

Wan Shishengyi looked at Ji Xuanyi's expression, feeling scared. After a long while, he said, "Look, just waiting like this is not a solution. Brother Ji, do you want to think of a backup plan? For example, find a less skilled expert to make do ..."

Ji Xuanyi raised his head and glanced at him, then said quickly: "Of course, I'm not talking about myself, although I think it's really an honor to be the first in the team and be able to be on the system announcement ... ah, what I mean is that I don't know how to play the game, so ..."

Ji Xuanyi said in a deep voice: "For less skilled players, we can only find a priest as a substitute, otherwise there will be no benefit."

Wanshi Shengyi suddenly became depressed. As for the priest, not only him, but also their entire gang didn't have one. It seemed that there was no hope for them to enter PVE ...

Although Ji Xuanyi was talking to Wanshi Shengyi about serious matters and shouldn't interrupt, Qi Qin sat there smelling the aroma of barbecue for a long time and couldn't help it, so he leaned over and asked, "Xuanyi, do you want to eat barbecue?"

Ji Xuanyi was considering whether to find a priest to join the game. When he heard Qi Qin's question, he didn't react at all and said directly: " No. "

Qi Qin: " QAQ ..."

Qi Qin also became depressed.

One person was thinking hard, and the other two were listless. Just when the atmosphere in the barbecue restaurant began to become strange, a person strode in from outside and asked casually: " Is this the place? Who wants to recruit teammates to advance to the league? "

Ji Xuanyi and Wanshi Shengyi turned around at the same time and said, " It's here. "

The man had a baby face and looked like a junior high school student. He was wearing the same clothes as the mission clothes. It was unclear whether he was an archer or an assassin. Before Ji Xuanyi could say anything, Wan Shishengyi couldn't help but blurt out, " Fuck, are you eighteen years old? "

This statement is complete nonsense. You cannot play "Domain" if you are not eighteen years old.

As expected, the baby-faced man said " Pah " and said angrily: " I'm already thirty years old this year! "

Although the tone is fierce, but because of his cute face, this sentence is more cute. If Yishu or A Miao were here, they might even shout " So cute! "

But unfortunately, there are only three grown men here, and they are not weird perverts, so they don't have any feelings for the shota.

Ji Xuanyi was not interested in his age and asked directly: " Have you read the requirements on the flyer? "

The baby-faced man sneered, " Why else would I be standing here? Chatting with you guys? " Even a year ago, if someone dared to speak to Ji Xuanyi in this tone, blood would have been splattered everywhere.

However, Ji Xuanyi was in the most Buddhist period of his life at the moment. He was not angry at all. Instead, he said, " Then give it a try. "

The baby-faced man raised his eyebrows, put his hands on the backpack at his waist, and took two daggers in his hands.

It turns out that he is an assassin, and the weapon in his hand looks different from the blue weapon in the mission. It is either dropped by an elite monster or obtained from a hidden mission. But no matter which one it is, it proves that this guy does have some skills.

 " Are you coming? " The baby-faced boy raised his chin towards Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi was very familiar with the profession of assassin, but he couldn't test anything with the profession of warlock, so he could only knock on the armor of Qi Qin who was staring at the barbecue grill next to him and said, " You go up and try. "

Qi Qin was still thinking about barbecue. He was stunned for a long time before he nodded and walked out.

You can't fight in a barbecue restaurant.

Ji Xuanyi and Wanshi Shengyi also followed him out. Just as Ji Xuanyi was about to remind Qi Qin of the things he needed to pay attention to when fighting against the assassin, he saw Qi Qin took out his guardian angel towards the baby-faced man.

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, frowning and thinking, is this baby-faced guy really that powerful? Qi Qin actually used a weapon. You know, when testing other players before, Qi Qin went into battle empty-handed.

Actually, Ji Xuan was overthinking. Qi Qin was just thinking about barbecue and didn't react ... However, the baby-faced man frowned after seeing the guard. The characteristics of an assassin are stealth, extremely fast speed, and one-shot accuracy, which are most suitable for killing fragile professions instantly. Although it is not really a fight of life here, the defense range of such a big sword is too wide, which will seriously affect his performance.

The baby-faced guy couldn't help but glance at Ji Xuanyi. Was this guy deliberately targeting him?

Ji Xuanyi also noticed this, but did not say anything. Even though he was restrained, he could still tell if the assassin was really capable.

two people are PKing . The baby-faced man narrowed his eyes and rushed towards Qi Qin like an arrow from a bow, with an astonishing speed. Qi Qin was not panicked at all, and immediately raised his guard to block in front of him. However, the baby-faced man did not attack at all, but disappeared in front of Qi Qin in an instant.

Teleportation, the assassin's new level 27 skill, has a CD of 30 seconds, but it can move to any point within a spherical range with a radius of three meters, including above and below.

But if you choose the bottom, you will be stuck in the soil. When Ji Xuan was browsing the forum, he saw an idiot assassin who tried it. He was three meters underground and couldn't climb out. He suffocated to death and dropped back to level 26 ...

But it must be said that in addition to the cool operation of burrowing underground, this skill can be said to be like cheating. With the assassin's own speed, combined with instant movement, no one can catch them whether they are attacking or escaping. What's more, this skill ignores obstacles. Passing through walls is one aspect, the assassin can also use this skill to directly go around the enemy from behind and attack. You know, the assassin's attacks from behind have additional bonuses.

So even Wanshi Shengyi, who had seen Qi Qin's strength, couldn't help but become nervous. If he were facing an assassin's instant movement, he would definitely turn around immediately, or put the sword directly on his back to prevent the assassin's skill of " stealing and killing " . But after the baby face disappeared, Qi Qin just slightly turned his body.

Wan Shishengyi initially thought that Qi Qin was too slow to turn around because his equipment was too good, but he knew he was wrong the next second.

The place where the baby face appeared was exactly the direction Qi Qin was facing! Not to mention that everything went well, even Baby Face himself was shocked. You have to know that with the angle he chose, no matter whether the enemy turns around or not, he can enter the judgment range of triggering the effect behind him after a very slight movement. But he never expected that this person would actually face directly where he appeared. How is this possible!

The same thought as Wan Shishengyi emerged in his mind, that the swordsman just didn't have time to turn around, so he only turned halfway, and it was just a coincidence.

The baby-faced man looked at Qi Qin, who was completely out of his mind (still thinking about barbecue), gritted his teeth, and disappeared again.

This time, not only was Wanshi successful, even Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment.

The CD for teleportation is indeed thirty seconds, so how could that baby-faced guy be able to teleport twice within one second?!

However, at the moment when the baby-faced man disappeared, Qi Qin was not affected at all and raised the guardian in his hand. Without looking back, he slapped it hard behind himself. Just when the guardian passed right behind him, the baby-faced man also appeared there, and bumped into the guardian with an expression of disbelief. He was directly slapped into a white light and flew to the resurrection point.

All the best: " =□= !!!! "

Qi Qinye: " =□= !!!! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Wan Shishengyi and Qi Qin were stunned for a long time. Ji Xuanyi stood up speechlessly and walked towards the resurrection point.

Qi Qin finally reacted, put away the weapon, ran towards Ji Xuanyi, and said in panic: " I didn't mean to do that! I was distracted just now! "

Ji Xuanyi: "... Don't say that when you see him later. "

I was distracted and sent people back to the resurrection point. Baby-faced man is about to cry, okay?

Qi Qin said aggrievedly: " Why is he so fragile ..."

Ji Xuanyi: " Don't even say that. "

Qi Qin had no choice but to shut his mouth.

Wanshi Shengyi also followed them happily. When the three of them had walked only one-third of the distance, they saw the baby-faced man running towards them.

Qi Qin accidentally killed someone once, and for the first time he huddled behind Ji Xuanyi in fear.

The baby-faced man didn't look very angry. He stopped in front of them, glanced at Qi Qin, and then asked Ji Xuan directly: " How is it, did I pass? "

He was very sure that the standard for assessment was not to beat Qi Qin. After all, in his mind, if he couldn't beat someone, it would be impossible for others to beat him. If the standard was set so high, then it would not be recruitment, but a trick.

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Okay. "

The baby-faced boy smiled and said, " My name is Ze Yu Si Shui. "

Before Ji Xuanyi could say anything, Wanshi Shengyi couldn't help but ask, " Then why don't you go to the water map? "

Baby Face's attitude towards Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin improved, but he remained the same towards Wanshi Shengyi. He glanced at him and said bluntly, " Are you Wanshi Grassland? What are you doing in the Wood Map? "

All the best: "..."

Ji Xuanyi ignored their argument and said directly: " I am Ji Xuanyi, and he is the best in the world. "

Ji Xuanyi thought that Ze Yu Sishui would be more interested in defeating Qi Qin, but he didn't expect that when the other party heard his name, his eyes lit up and he said, " Are you Mu Xuanyi?!"

Ji Xuanyi blinked and said, " No."

However, his information had been floating on the front page of the game forum for so long that this kind of talk could no longer deceive people. Ze Yu Sishui did not believe it at all and said excitedly: " I have been killed by you ! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin suddenly came to his senses and pulled Ji Xuan behind him.

Ze Yu Sishui was really getting intimate with Ji Xuanyi at this moment. He grinned, revealing two dimples, looking very cute: " Mu Xuanyi! I became an assassin because you killed me once!"

It seems that Ze Yu Sishui does not regard Ji Xuanyi as an enemy.

In fact, there are quite a few people like this. Being killed in the game is a very normal thing. As long as you are not being killed by a target , it is difficult to make enemies. Although some people hate Ji Xuanyi very much because of this, most people just keep a passerby attitude. However, people like Ze Yu Sishui who became fans after being killed once are still very rare ... According to Ze Yu Sishui, he was still a novice in the game at that time. He was timid and didn't know how to play. After being killed by Ji Xuanyi once , a strange door suddenly opened up for him. He studied the assassin's gameplay painstakingly, and finally became what he is now. Although he is not famous, according to Ji Xuanyi's opinion, Ze Yu Sishui's current level can barely be regarded as a high-end player.

In fact, Ze Yu Sishui doesn't have any special obsession with PVE . It would be great if he could be the first to pass the level and get new equipment, but he will participate in the recruitment partly because he wants to try his luck. If the information in that post is correct, the person recruiting teammates may be Mu Xuanyi.

He originally wanted to compete with Ji Xuanyi, but seeing that the other party didn't even take part in the test himself, he thought that the warlock profession would greatly restrict him.

Although he felt a little regretful at this moment, he didn't say much.

Ji Xuanyi was about to tell him about the situation in the dungeon, but Ze Yu Sishui couldn't help but ask Qi Qin, " How did you know where I would appear just now? "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything. He also wanted to know this. Wan Shishengyi also looked at Qi Qin with eager eyes.

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi and replied, " Ah, this is very simple. When you disappeared for the first time, you subconsciously looked in one direction. "

Ze Yu Sishui was stunned: " Oh, so that's how it is. "

He did look at the place he wanted to teleport to, to make sure there were no obstacles or anything like that.

Ze Yu Sishui sighed and asked, " What about the second time? I didn't look anywhere the second time, how did you know I would appear behind you? "

Qi Qin scratched his head and answered more directly: " I was lucky the second time. If you hadn't been hit by the guardian behind me, I would have swung it around ..."

Ze Yu Sishui suddenly showed an expression that was difficult to describe.

Wanshi Shengyi took the opportunity to ask, " Then how did you teleport twice in a row? Did you cheat? "

Ze Yu Sishui came back to his senses from Qi Qin's speech, looked at him speechlessly, and said, " This game is not hacked, okay? The second time it was not [Teleport] , but [Trickery] , a skill that comes with my weapon. The CD is five minutes, and the effect is to appear right behind the target within five meters. "

No wonder he didn't look at where he would appear the second time, because there was no need, he knew where he would appear.

Ji Xuanyi said: " The weapon given in the hidden mission? "

In fact, revealing such a good weapon in front of others and even telling everyone about its effects can be considered very bold. As for the source of the weapon, even Ze Yu Sishui does not want to reveal it to others easily.

But it would be different if the person asking the question was Mu Xuanyi, because a fanboy doesn't need a brain.

Ze Yu Sishui answered without thinking: " This was dropped by an elite boss , but I didn't kill him. I bought it from someone else. "

When the game was first launched, the official also mentioned the elite boss , but whether the monster appeared or dropped good things, the probability was very low, so the players didn't pay too much attention to it. It can be said that Ze Yu Sishui was lucky to come across this weapon, regardless of whether he made it himself or not.

But since he can afford this kind of weapon, Ze Yu Sishui is probably a RMB player.

Wanshisheng looks at Ze Yu Sishui with the eyes of a local tyrant.

Ze Yu Sishui turned his back to him with disdain, looked at Ji Xuanyi, and complained: " The skill is very useful, but the properties of this weapon can only be said to be average. Although it is a purple weapon, the damage is not much higher than that of a blue weapon. And the worst thing is that this weapon does not increase physical fitness at all! "

Constitution symbolizes the player's health, and weapons, as the most important equipment, have the highest numerical bonus among all equipment. If this weapon does not add any constitution, Ze Yu Si Shui's health will be less than two-thirds of that of an ordinary assassin player, and assassins are notoriously fragile professions ... No wonder Qi Qin could send Ze Yu Si Shui back to the resurrection point with just a slap.

Qi Qin also realized that it was Ze Yu Sishui's fault that he was too fragile, and it was not his fault. He finally straightened his back and said to Ji Xuanyi: " Xuanyi, I want to eat barbecue. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

He thought Qi Qin had something important to say since he stood so straight.

Wanshi Shengyi also said: " Yes, it's so tiring to stand and talk, let's go back to the barbecue restaurant. "

Ze Yu Sishui also nodded.

When they were walking back, Ze Yu Sishui was reporting to Ji Xuanyi about his previous fight.

With Ze Yu Sishui's personality, he shouldn't have been so unknown. The main reason was that he spent all his spare time on leveling up, so he was also one of the first people in Green Forest City to reach level 27.

Ze Yu Sishui has entered the dungeon several times, but each time his teammates were too weak, and he was left alone in the end, being chased by a dozen monsters. He had nowhere to run and could only accept his fate. Before Ji Xuanyi sent a recruitment letter, he had been trying to study his positioning, hoping to last more than two minutes on his own ...

There was no way, his teammates were all killed in seconds, and one hundred and twenty seconds was a conservative estimate.

PVE by those weird teammates .

After hearing what he said, Ji Xuanyi said directly: " The first boss is not a problem. What we need to consider now is the second boss . "

Ze Yu Sishui, the poor little guy who was always dragged down by his teammates, had never seen the second boss . He looked at Ji Xuanyi eagerly and asked, What does " the second boss look like? "

" It's a wolf-shaped boss , very large. Judging from the size of the venue, it should have a skill similar to flying and ignoring hatred, " Ji Xuanyi glanced at him and said, " I'm a warlock, and the amount of healing is very low, almost negligible, so if this boss really has a skill that ignores hatred, you must rely on your own strength to dodge it, and I definitely can't heal it if it loses blood. "

Ze Yu Sishui pondered and said, " Who knows, with my HP, maybe there is no such thing as losing HP, and I will die immediately? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin couldn't help but glance at Ji Xuanyi and said, " I don't think he cares much about this. Can I tell you? "

Ji Xuanyi: "... Okay. "

Qi Qin looked at Ze Yu Si Shui and complained: " Why are you so fragile ..." "

Ze Yu Si Shui: "..."

In the eerie silence, the group finally arrived at the barbecue restaurant. Qi Qin excitedly ordered two servings of barbecue and brought one to Ji Xuanyi. Ze Yu Sishui had to go there to order by himself. Wan Shi Shengyi was already full, but seeing that everyone had barbecue in front of them but he didn't, he felt weird, so he ordered another serving.

Ji Xuanyi was chopping meat intermittently, and said to Wanshi Shengyi, who for some reason was still eating very enthusiastically even though he had already eaten one portion, " I'm sorry to bother you this time. Please inform everyone in Wanshi Fengyu that you don't need to make flyers anymore. "

Wanshi Shengyi finally reacted and quickly sent a message to Fengyuqiqi, saying that there was no need to make flyers anymore as all the people had been found. He also asked the brothers who were brushing the paper to upgrade themselves.

Ji Xuanyi said: " If that's the case, let's make an appointment tomorrow and go to the dungeon to take a look. "

Qi Qin nodded, but Ze Yu Sishui said, " No, I can't go tomorrow. "

" What's wrong? " Ji Xuanyi asked, " Any plans in real life? "

He remembered that Ze Yu Sishui seemed to say that he was in his thirties. Although this baby face was indeed a little too tender, a RMB player in his thirties must be very busy in real life.

I don't know where I get so much time to play games ...

Ze Yu Sishui opened his innocent eyes and said, " I'm fine in real life, but wasn't I killed by Tianxia just now ? Now I'm only level 26 left. I still have to upgrade. At least I have to wait until the day after tomorrow. I should be able to climb back to level 27 the day after tomorrow. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Everyone turned their eyes to Qi Qin. Qi Qin was stunned for a moment and looked at Ji Xuanyi with resentment: " I didn't mean to do that. He is too fragile ..."

It doesn't matter now whether it was intentional or not. Ze Yu Sishui must reach level 27 before he can enter the dungeon. Ji Xuanyi feels itchy in his legs seeing this guy still sitting here eating barbecue, and wants to kick him to do the task.

While we were eating, a man came into the store and shouted, " Lao Wan, did you find the person? "

Ji Xuan turned his head and saw Feng Yuqing coming. He seemed to have just rushed over from the small workshop. There was carbon ash from painting on his face, which made him look very funny.

Ever since Wanshi Fengyu sold the map, Wanshi Shengyi had already gotten used to Fengyu's sad look, so he didn't say anything. He just grinned and said, " Yes, yes, I found it. Come and sit down and have some meat! "

Feng Yuqi walked over here and asked curiously: " Who is the last person? Is it this person? " Ze Yu Sishui sat with his back to the door, and only his back could be seen in the wind and rain.

Wanshi Shengyi said: " Yes, it is him, a more powerful assassin! "

After Wanshi Shengyi said this, Feng Yuqiqi became even more curious. He walked quickly to Wanshi Shengyi's side. When he saw Ze Yu Sishui's face, he was stunned. It took him a long time to say, " Fuck! Brother, are you 18 years old?! "

They are indeed bad friends who hang out together all day long. Even the questions they ask are exactly the same.

Wanshi Shengyi was just about to say that the other person was already thirty years old, when Ze Yu Sishui said " Pooh " and cursed angrily: " I'm already forty! "

All the best: "..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin: "..."

Damn, this kid can't really be under 18 years old!

Chapter 39

Ze Yu Sishui was still ruthlessly kicked away by Ji Xuanyi to upgrade.

By the time he finally returned to level 27 , three of the five people in the team were almost at level 28 , leaving only Qi Qin at level 27 to keep him company . This made Ze Yu Sishui secretly suspect that Qi Qin had deliberately killed him by one level to avoid being too embarrassed in the team.

Qi Qin: " QUQ ? "

Ignoring the undercurrent between the two people, Ji Xuan waved his hand and took the lead to enter the game.

He is still an expert. Compared with the chaos when he entered the dungeon with Lu San and the others last time, this time was very clean and neat . The monsters on the road were cleared very quickly , and no one lost blood. The group did not stop for a second and passed the stone bridge at almost a normal walking speed.

After reaching the other side of the bridge , except for Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi, almost everyone showed an expression of "this level is so simple, why didn't I notice it before?"

Ze Yu Shishui's trance state was the most obvious. A fragile guy like him might have died several times when fighting with others. There was no way he could have such an easy time.

Ji Xuanyi stretched out his staff and knocked on Qi Qin's armor, making a clanging sound . Qi Qin stood there obediently and let him knock, which finally brought the others back to their senses.

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly, " Let's go. "

When they arrived in front of the first boss , almost everyone showed a horrible expression. Perhaps because he was betrayed so badly by his teammates, Ze Yu Sishui couldn't help but say: " It's here . I was chased by 18 monsters for more than a minute ..."

The archer was called Ming Shao , and he said angrily: " I was chased by sixteen monsters for two minutes , two minutes ... Humph! "

Even if his teammates were a little less weak, Ji Xuanyi would not have taken the boss 's armor.

The wizard Qingfeng Bufu next to him also said: " Then I am better than you. I was only chased for thirty seconds before I died. "

There's nothing we can do about this, mages aren't fast runners to begin with.

In short, except for Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, the other three people in the team all looked bitter and resentful, as if they had been badly cheated here.

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Open the monster. "

This time it was really easy. Among the five people, only the mage Qingfeng Bufu was caught in the last wave. It only took them fifty seconds to complete the level. Ze Yu Sishui and the others were stunned.

So " this is how you fight this boss ? " Ze Yu Si Shui was in a daze.

" It's over just like that? " Ming Shao couldn't believe it.

Qingfeng Bufu climbed up from the resurrection point and said excitedly: " It's been a long time since I felt like a drag! Damn it, I always carried the team before , and I was so tired that I couldn't get through. The feeling of dragging the team is so cool! "

Ji Xuanyi: "... Wake up, there are two more bosses behind us . "

Everyone then cheered up and went up to touch the rewards in the box.

Qingfeng Bufu said that he was a little red-handed and very lucky, so he ran forward first. Ze Yu Sishui also wanted to go up and touch the reward, but was stopped by Ji Xuanyi.

Ze Yu Sishui, who had an inexplicable desire to touch the box, did not intend to stop. He leaned forward, his clothes stretched straight, and looked back at Ji Xuanyi, and asked anxiously: "What's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi almost failed to grab him, and Qi Qin held him up before he said seriously, " You are actually faster than the archer, and your agility is not much worse, but when we were fighting before, you could only walk away from the monster for one minute, while he lasted twice as long as you. "

Ze Yu Sishui stopped pulling the corner of his clothes out of Qi Qin's hand and looked at Ji Xuanyi blankly.

Ji Xuanyi said: " You rely too much on your two displacement skills. You like to use them when the CD is on . In the fifty-second battle, you used displacement three times, but these three displacements were not used when you needed them the most. "

He really has this problem. Ze Yu Si Shui smacked his lips and said, " The CD is only this long. It would be a waste if you don't use it ..."

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " Your predictions have not yet reached the point where you can rely on intuition. In this chaotic situation, there will be more emergencies. The two displacements that are not in CD will bring you more benefits, instead of worrying about whether you lose or not. "

" The most important thing for an assassin is to be able to adapt to changing circumstances. You don't have the time to calculate too many things. If you can cope with it, you should hold back your skills for a while instead of using them right away. This may give you more chances to survive. "

The words of Ji Xuanyi, a benchmark in the assassin world, still carry weight. Ze Yu Sishui nodded, indicating that he understood. Then Qingfeng Bufu's excited voice came from the other end.

" I said I was Little Red Hands! Look! The purple hand guards that archers and assassins use! "

" I want it, I want it! " Ze Yu Sishui shouted, yanked his clothes, slipped out of Qi Qin's hand, and squeezed in front of the mage with Ming Shao.

In most online game copies, when there is a conflict in equipment requirements, a roll point model will be adopted. Whoever rolls the higher dice number will take the equipment. roll point setting in "Domain" . Ze Yu Sishui and Ming Shao argued for a long time and had to use the rock-paper-scissors method to decide the ownership of the equipment.

Then Ze Yu Si Shui lost ...

An expression of urge to cry appeared on that middle school student's face. If there were a few girls instead of four grown men here, they would definitely be soft-hearted and give the equipment to him.

But Master Ming just cruelly pushed Ze Yu Sishui aside and said disdainfully: " Go to the next boss , don't block the way. "

Seeing that pretending to be pitiful didn't work, Ze Yu Sishui immediately changed his expression and acted like a nouveau riche: " Thirty gold, will you give it to me? "

Young Master Ming: "..."

Ze Yu Sishui said expressionlessly: " Fifty gold coins, forget it. "

Young Master Ming handed over the gauntlet in humiliation.

Although his name contains the word " Shao ", he is actually a poor player.

In fact, Ze Yu Sishui also felt a little pain. Although the gold coins were not as valuable as at the beginning as the players' levels increased, fifty gold coins would still be a five-digit number in real life!

But I was still very happy to get the hand guard! After Ze Yu Sishui put on the hand guard, he felt very happy. On the contrary, Ming Shao, who got a large sum of money, felt a little depressed.

Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " This is just level 27 equipment, spend it rationally. "

Ze Yu Sishui didn't listen at all: " I don't care, I want it! "

Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to give up and said to Qingfeng: " Do you need any materials? If not, give them to me. "

Qingfeng Bufu shook his head and handed the two talismans in his hand to Ji Xuanyi.

Except for Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, the other three had never seen the second boss . After arriving at the location of the wild wolf boss , everyone showed a solemn expression.

Ming Shao and Ze Yu Si Shui didn't say anything. Qing Feng Bu Fu couldn't help but ask, " Can you really defeat this type of boss without a healer? "

Archers and assassins are both very fast professions, while the mage is just a high-attack turret. There is a natural difference in positioning, so it is normal to have such thoughts.

Ji Xuan raised his hand and swiped him with [Blessing], saying expressionlessly: " I can nurse. "

Qingfengbufu: "..."

Is this amount of treatment considered healing? Don't let me down!

Ze Yu Sishui said unhappily: " What does it say on the recruitment notice? Why can't we call you here? How about you leave and we find someone else? "

Just kidding, this team is made up of experts. If you miss it, there will be no next time. Qingfeng Bufu coughed dryly and said, The healing amount is not .you can fight ,you can fight ,s okay'lt " s quite'it ,bad stable after brushing . "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Even Qi Qin couldn't help but cast a strange look at him.

Qing Feng Bu Fu pretended not to see it and said, " Are we going to attack the monster now? "

Ji Xuanyi said to Qi Qin: " Open the monster. "

Qi Qin nodded, raised his guard, rushed up to the platform, and smashed the wolf in the face. The boss whimpered, raised his head and howled, then pounced on Qi Qin.

Although the wild wolf was as tall as two people, it moved very quickly. Its sharp claws flashed with cold light as it grabbed towards Qi Qin. Qi Qin did not dodge, but stood horizontally to block its claws directly. With the power of the boss's claws, he leaped back and avoided the boss 's sharp teeth that were biting at him.

After a fierce fight, Qi Qin didn't even draw a drop of blood. Ze, Yu Sishui and the other two were stunned and made strange noises like " Woo! ", " Ah! " and " Wow! "

You know, there are still many players in the game who can only stand and fight. Even Ze Yu Sishui and others are just using skills and speed bonuses to use ordinary dodging moves.

Actions like Qi Qin's, which rely entirely on his own strength, are like stunts.

Ze Yu Sishui couldn't help but ask: " Did the world come from Shaolin Temple? "

Young Master Ming sneered, " How old are you? You still believe this? This guy is obviously from an acrobatic troupe . "

Qingfeng Bufu was even more confident: " Don't be ridiculous, how can an acrobat perform such a move without rehearsal? He is clearly a special forces soldier! "

Qi Qin: "..."

When Ji Xuan saw Qi Qin was almost beaten to death because of being distracted by the discussion of several people, he said coldly: " Stop talking nonsense, output. "

The three of them looked at each other and didn't move.

Ze Yu Sishui explained: " We have carefully matched our equipment. Our output is much higher than that of people of the same level. We will fight OT now and let Tianxia output more for a while. We can stabilize the hatred before we go up. "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " None of you can do it , so go ahead. "

After Ji Xuanyi said this, the three people had nothing to object to, so they had to follow him up to the platform and start attacking the boss .

They didn't know before the fight, but after the fight started, the three of them found out why Ji Xuanyi was so sure that they wouldn't OT .

After the battle begins, the output players can see each other's DPS . The swordsman is set as a T , which is a profession with extremely high hatred. Qi Qin's damage is more than twice that of the mage with the highest output among the three. His hatred is so stable !

Ze Yu Sishui couldn't help but exclaimed, What the " hell ?" and asked, " What kind of equipment do you have? Why is the damage so high? "

Young Master Ming said coldly: " Don't even think about it. No matter how high the damage is, it's still a swordsman's equipment. You can't wear it even if you buy it. "

Having his thoughts exposed, Ze Yu Si Shui said shamelessly: " What are you talking about? That's not what I meant! "

Qing Feng Bu Fu said speechlessly: " Can you two open your eyes a little wider? The high damage in the world is not entirely due to equipment. "

That's right, Qi Qin's special attacking method that takes advantage of every opportunity is the most important reason for his high damage. Even if he changes to ordinary weapons, his performance will not be worse than these three people who have carefully equipped themselves. Qing Feng said seriously, " And he dealt this kind of damage while tanking the monster. Compared to the three of us standing still to deal damage, he also had to dodge the boss 's skills. If he had just stood still, his damage might have been even higher! "

Ming Shao also nodded and said, " Yes, I saw it. " the boss in order to trigger the back effect , poked his head out and jumped twice: " Where is it? I can't see it! "

All he could see in front of him was the boss 's big gray tail, and Qi Qin's figure was completely blocked.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

It's not that he thought what they said was wrong, but the venue was so small, and Ming Shao and the other man were still standing on each side. The sound of their conversations filled the entire venue. Qi Qin was so overwhelmed by their praise that his face turned red and he was almost slapped away by the boss .

Ji Xuanyi sighed and said , " Focus on output and stop chatting. "

Qingfeng Bufu and Ming Shao were quite obedient and shut up immediately. Only Ze Yu Sishui saw nothing and said unwillingly: " Xiao Ji, I don't need you anyway, why don't you come over to my side and talk to me? I'm alone with my butt, so lonely. "

He learned the name Xiao Ji from Yishu and A Miao when he met them together with Ji Xuanyi and the others when he was upgraded. Ji Xuanyi didn't care about it and just followed their lead. At this time , the boss 's health was still 70%. He howled again, gave up fighting with Qi Qin, jumped high, and pounced on Ming Shao.

The archer's level 27 skill is accelerated running, which is used to quickly create distance between oneself and the enemy . Ming Shao used it immediately and dodged quickly.

Ji Xuanyi immediately ran to the platform and said, " I'm needed now. "

As he was speaking, the boss had already pounced on Ming Shao. He howled again and turned around to pounce on Qingfeng Bufu.

Qingfeng Bufu hastily put on a level 27 protective shield for himself, but with his speed he couldn't avoid the pounce.

Just at the desperate moment when he thought he was dead, Qingfeng Bufu heard Ji Xuanyi's words. Thinking that he had some trick up his sleeve, he looked towards him expectantly, and saw Ji Xuanyi raised his hand expressionlessly and gave him a [Blessing] , and then he was slapped away by the boss .

Qing Feng Bu Fu looked at his health bar dropping rapidly and screamed: " So there is no need for you!!! "

Ji Xuanyi calmly explained, " This kind of boss usually only targets the ranged . If I don't come up, the probability of you being targeted is 1/2. If I come up, the probability of you being targeted drops to 1/3. "

 " Is this useful? " Qingfeng Bufu almost vomited blood.

Fortunately, Qingfeng Bufu put on his protective shield in time. After the boss knocked him away, he still had some blood left. He was not killed instantly . He quickly got up from the ground and ran towards Ji Xuanyi, saying, " Hurry, hurry, heal me! "

Now she no longer complains that Ji Xuanyi's milk supply is too low.

After the boss pounced on the two people, he returned to the middle of the venue to find Qi Qin. The three of them entered the mode of standing still and fighting monsters again, but there was one more Ji Xuanyi, who was far away and was healing Qingfeng Bufu.

Ze Yu Sishui said regretfully: " What? You didn't call my name? I was planning to show off my teleportation ... "

Qing Feng Bu Fu uttered a " Pooh " and said, " You three should fight slowly. I think it will attack again when its health is reduced by two-thirds. Wait for Ji Xuanyi to help me replenish my health before fighting! "

Ze Yu Sishui shouted from behind the boss : " Ah? Then how long do we have to wait to go? "

Qing Feng Bu Fu looked at his health and said hesitantly : " Wait another half an hour? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi stopped with a dark face.

Qing Feng Bu Fu looked back at him and asked in confusion: " Why don't you brush your teeth anymore? "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " Go to hell. "

I don't know if Qi Qin heard Ji Xuanyi's words. With one sword strike, the boss 's health was reduced to only 40%. He raised his head and let out a long roar, then pounced towards Qingfeng Bufu again.

 " Fuck, why is it me again! "

Qingfeng Bufu screamed and was knocked away again. This time the protective shield could not save him. His health bar was emptied and he fell to the ground.

As soon as the boss turned around, Ji Xuanyi realized that its next target would be him, so he immediately ran away with big strides. At the last moment before the boss landed, he rolled on the ground in a somewhat embarrassed manner and escaped from the opponent's attack range. If Ji Xuanyi hadn't come up, he would have been the one to be attacked. Seeing that his CD had just come to an end and he was running fast, Ming Shao said seriously: " Ji Xuanyi is still very important, really! "

Qingfengbufu: "..."

As he was speaking, the boss had entered the final stage. It stopped flying and started using its tail to attack, which greatly affected Ze Yu Sishui's output. He finally had the chance to use teleportation as he had expected.

However, the boss used its tail very frequently, and Ze Yu Sishui, who was standing behind it, had to dodge it very awkwardly, and his output was greatly reduced. In addition, with the lack of Qing Feng Bu Fu, it took a long time to pass the last stage.

When the boss 's health dropped to 10%, the empty cave suddenly shook violently. Ming Shao was caught off guard, lost his balance and fell to the ground. Just when he thought that he would be dead if the boss had a trick up his sleeve, two huge vines suddenly emerged from the earth walls on both sides of the cave, and swung towards the boss at lightning speed. Before anyone could react, they pierced into the wolf's belly.

The wolf howled miserably, opened its mouth and bit off the vines, jumped over Ming Shao who fell to the ground, jumped off the platform, and fled in the direction of the exit they came from.

Everyone was stunned and didn't even know when the treasure chest for passing the level appeared on the ground.

Ze Yu Sishui murmured, " What happened? The second boss was defeated? What kind of plot is this? "

Ji Xuan's expression was solemn. He knew what the plot was because he saw a small piece of vine embedded in the belly of the wild wolf boss when he escaped.

He was right in his expectation, this boss wolf was the same elite boss that Yishu and the others had encountered , which was why an animal monster would drop plant items. Because the unknown plant root was not its own dropped item, but the vines in the wound.

It is very rare for a dungeon to hide two plots. So this wild wolf should be the clue related to the altar in the north of the city. The broken bones in the black forest may not be caused by it. Now that I think about it, the quest for the ring that Yishu and A Miao received is indeed not a hidden quest. They may have been deceived by those problematic people in the north of the city and found the wrong direction.

It seems that he was wrong at the beginning. The reward that Yishu and the others got was not much, not because the difficulty of the hidden mission was too easy, but because the difficulty of this hidden mission was much higher than that of Xinmu Town. If they could really complete the mission, the reward would be terrifyingly large.

Ji Xuanyi frowned as he looked at the vine that was broken into two pieces on the ground. He didn't know if he could crack the plot this time. After all, he hadn't even received the mission until now.

While everyone was not paying attention, Qingfeng Bufu secretly climbed up from the resurrection point and rushed to the clearance treasure chest. Ze Yu Sishui, who had come to his senses, screamed: " I haven't touched it yet! "

Qing Feng Bu Fu ignored him and said in ecstasy: " Magic equipment!!! "

Ze Yu Shishui fell to the ground and burst into tears: " If I were to touch it, it would definitely be assassin equipment! "

Ming Shao sneered: " Wake up, someone like you who can't even win at rock-paper-scissors might just pull out the swordsman equipment. "

Qi Qin chuckled.

This time, the shoes dropped were common to both mages and warlocks. Qingfeng Bufu subconsciously looked at Ji Xuanyi.

The Warlock profession has very low healing and damage. The general magic equipment adds magic in a broad sense. Compared with the specific bonuses such as magic damage and healing amount, the benefits are not too high, not to mention the warlock who only has buff skills. To be honest, it is better for Qingfeng Bufu to take these shoes, but Ji Xuanyi is the one who organized this team after all. If he wants it, Qingfeng Bufu will not snatch it from him no matter how reluctant he is.

Ji Xuanyi said directly: " You take it. "

Qing Feng's eyes lit up and he smiled and said, " Thank you! "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head: " It's useless to me. At most it can improve my physique. "

But even so, many people will not easily give up the purple equipment they can get.

Qingfeng Bufu had a good impression of Ji Xuanyi. He smiled and changed his shoes. wild wolf boss also opened, and the door leading to the last boss was right in front of him. After defeating the last boss , I should be able to figure out everything, Ji Xuanyi thought, and said, " Let's go, the last boss , and get the first armor for clearing all levels today. "

If the underground stairs leading into the dungeon give people a dark and damp feeling, then the road leading to the last boss is simply double that dark and damp feeling.

The narrow passage was pitch black, and the player's built-in lighting system became dim. The surroundings were no longer humid, but rather the water vapor had condensed into fog, which was cool and wet.

Ze Yu Sishui, who looked the youngest in the team, didn't feel anything. On the contrary, Ming Shao, who had been steady from the beginning, was a little panicked. He bumped into Qingfeng Bufu and was pushed away with disgust.

Qi Qin had already held Ji Xuanyi's hand very skillfully, and walked at the end without seeming too scared.

After walking for less than two minutes, the road ahead suddenly became wider. Although it was still not very bright, the same mushrooms as those at the entrance began to appear around.

There were more and more vines around, entangled, and the soil on the wall was almost invisible. It even gave people the illusion of being in a woven fabric made of some plant.

After walking for another two minutes, the group finally saw the end of this copy. In a space that was so wide that it didn't look like an underground world at all, five thick vines that were more than ten meters long were waving and extending from the vertical earth wall. From the roots embedded in the soil, it could be seen that these ten meters were not even its main body. Deep in the soil, it still retained even more powerful power.

Qing Feng Bu Fu exclaimed " Wow " , and Ze Yu Si Shui exclaimed in amazement: " This is a fucking tentacle boss ! "

Everyone was silent for a moment.

Qing Feng Bu Fu couldn't help but say: " You know a lot at such a young age! "

Ze Yu Sishui said " Pah " and said angrily: " This year I have ..."

Qi Qin looked at him curiously: " Fifty? "

Ze Yu Sishui glanced at him and hummed, " That's about right. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

This kid is hopeless.

What people care most about are not the vines, but the rows of people standing neatly under the vines.

Ze Yu Sishui counted them carefully and found that there were forty of them, more than the number at the first level.

Young Master Ming was shocked and said, " Are they asking us to hide from these guys while fighting monsters? The authorities are crazy! "

Ze Yu Sishui couldn't help but say, " Being grabbed by someone and whipped by tentacles, I think if the official setting is this, it probably won't pass the review of Country C ..."

Qing Feng Bu Fu couldn't bear to watch it anymore: " Please don't be so filthy. Even if you are a hundred years old, saying such things with this face will make people lose confidence in the next generation of the motherland. "

Ze Yu Shishui spat at Qingfeng Bufu.

Ji Xuanyi said: " There are five vines. I don't know whether they will scatter to attack everyone or concentrate to attack the T monster. If it is the former, everyone should be careful. If it is the latter ..." "

Qi Qin thought about it and said, " It should be possible. "

Ze, Yu and Sishui stood up in awe and applauded.

Qi Qin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi ignored them and said, " It's OK. Let's talk about the specific situation later. Let's get started. "

This time, Ze Yu Sishui and the others didn't say anything about the possibility of OT . They screamed and rushed up with Qi Qin. Sure enough, when the first attack hit the boss , the hatred was firmly on Qi Qin.

It was the second situation as expected. The five vines were all concentrating on attacking Qi Qin alone. Even Qi Qin was a little flustered at the beginning due to the attack coming from all directions. He was almost OTed because he had no time to output .

Ze Yu Sishui and the others were confused for a moment when they saw Qi Qin, who was so at ease before. They were also scared to death, fearing that the boss would come towards them, so they stopped immediately.

Fortunately, Qi Qin soon became familiar with the boss 's routine and stabilized himself. Ze Yu Sishui and the others then began to attack frantically, fearing that something unexpected would happen again.

Among the four people, the one who was most dissatisfied with this boss was Ze Yu Sishui. fighting the second boss , his output was only behind Qi Qin and Qingfeng Bufu because he had the purple wristband. But here, he became the last.

Ze Yu Sishui couldn't help but grumble: " This monster is so annoying. It's nothing to be on the wall! It doesn't even dare to show its butt to me. The DPS is greatly reduced! "

Ming Shao grinned and said, " Don't you have teleportation? Maybe there is space behind the wall. Go and fight behind it. "

Ze Yu Sishui glanced at him and actually disappeared from the spot.

Young Master Ming yelled " Fuck !" , his voice almost breaking in panic: " Ze Yu Sishui, are you an idiot? You're really going! We can't pass the game without your output! "

It was obvious that he was thinking of the stupid assassin who burrowed into the ground and was suffocated to death.

But in just a moment, Ze Yu Sishui appeared again.

Young Master Ming was startled, looked at him for a long time, and said in horror: " You have the ability to turn invisible?! "

He thought Ze Yu was hiding like water to scare him.

Ze Yu Sishui let out a " Pah " sound while still in shock , and said to Ji Xuanyi: " What is that huge tentacle behind the wall? It's so disgusting. Fuck, I'm going to be squeezed to death ..." Ji Xuanyi frowned.

Ming Shao was incredulous: " Not invisible? You really went in?! Isn't the CD 30 seconds ? How did you get out? "

Ze Yu Sishui snorted and didn't bother to pay attention to him.

I can only say that it is worthy of being the final boss . The vines have a lot of health, about three times that of the second boss, the wolf. Qi Qin and his team fought for a long time, but the boss 's health only dropped by 20%.

At this moment, the vines suddenly gave up attacking Qi Qin and began to swing violently without any pattern.

Qi Qin shouted: " Be careful! "

Everyone thought that the vines were going to disperse and attack, so everyone dispersed immediately, and everyone stopped except for the two ranged ones .

However, the scene was completely different from what they expected. The vines did not come towards them, but stretched towards the forty people who had not moved since the monster appeared!

The five were rolled up high by the vines and disappeared amid the terrified swearing of Ze Yu Sishui and others, and the boss 's health was restored to 100% in an instant.

This time he really used swear words.

The four damage outputs joined the battle again. Ze Yu Sishui cursed: " There are forty of them. Do we have to fight them eight times with 20% health before we can really pass the level? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " No, after forty of them die, the boss is more likely to go berserk than to be killed. We should be wiped out immediately. "

Ming Shao shouted: " What should we do then? "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " You guys continue, I have a solution. "

Qing Feng Bu Fu said in horror: " Your method is not to stand with them, to be captured instead of them, and to reduce the possibility of the boss recovering health! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

After a long while, Ji Xuanyi finally said, " Of course not, just fight. "

Qingfeng Bufu had no choice but to continue attacking with fear, looking back at Ji Xuanyi's position from time to time, fearing that he would stand next to him if he was not careful.

Ji Xuanyi, who had already lost his credibility: "..."

Fortunately, before Ji Xuan could develop the intention to kill Qingfeng , the boss 's health dropped to 80% for the second time, and he raised his vines towards them again. This time, Qi Qin and the others did not dodge, but continued to attack the boss with all their strength .

Just when the boss raised five, Ji Xuanyi raised his staff and released the skill [Blessing] towards the boss . After the light, the boss 's health was only restored to 5%!

Healing reduction has been triggered!

Qing Feng was pleasantly surprised and said loudly: " Wow, this skill is awesome! "

Ji Xuanyi also breathed a sigh of relief.

You know, in addition to control skills, many buff -type skills are also ineffective against bosses . Whether the healing reduction can be triggered depends on Ji Xuanyi's luck.

Fortunately, it was successful. If we continue to fight like this, defeating this boss will be a piece of cake.

Thinking about the upcoming fifth level of clearance, Ze, Yu, Sishui and the other two became excited.

However, after all the excitement, some people thought about the serious matters. Qing Feng Bu Fu said, " The warlock's healing reduction is 75%? This data is too much. Isn't that going to make the priest suffer? "

Young Master Ming also said: " Yes, when the arena opens in the future, priests will be useless in a game with warlocks, right? "

Ze Yu Sishui said: " What do you know! This is called lowering the enemy 's healing amount to the same level as your own, and then using the rich experience to defeat the opponent! "

Another treatment from the black warlock!

Ji Xuanyi picked up a piece of gravel from the ground and threw it towards Ze Yu Sishui, making Ze Yu Sishui scream " Fuck " .

Ze Yu Sishui looked at Ji Xuanyi aggrievedly and said, " I'm not the only one who criticized your healing amount, why did you blame me? "

Ji Xuanyi said coldly: " Because I am unhappy. "

Since they met, Ji Xuanyi has always acted very cold, and one almost forgot that he was actually a violent murderer . Ze Yu Sishui sniffed and didn't dare to speak.

[Blessing] This skill has no CD , but it is impossible for the official to allow a ranged profession to have an uninterrupted 75% healing reduction. That would be a nightmare for players who play therapeutic support. All skills would be useless during combat, and the game would be impossible to play.

Therefore, the healing reduction of the skill [Blessing] is the same as its healing effect, which is a momentary buff . In other words, if you cannot release the skill precisely at the moment when the opponent recovers his health, there is actually no way to trigger the healing reduction effect.

Ji Xuanyi knew this, so he was not surprised by the high healing reduction effect of 75%. It should be said that this skill should have such a high effect, and there would not be any big problem even if the healing reduction was replaced by healing ban.

The only problem is that the threshold for ordinary players is too high for the warlock setting. Those who can play and those who can't play are almost two different professions, which is too extreme.

However, Ji Xuanyi was quite fond of this extreme, and for a moment he actually liked this profession a little.

he was thinking , the boss 's health dropped to 60%, and the vines stretched out again. Ji Xuanyi used [Blessing] again without hesitation , successfully stopping the boss 's health at 65%.

Young Master Ming couldn't help but ask, " Does a warlock have to defeat this boss ? There are so few warlocks in the game now, what should other players do? "

It's not that you can pass the level just by having a warlock, but you need a warlock who knows how to play it. Ji Xuanyi silently added in his mind and answered, " When the player's output is high enough, you can directly suppress the boss 's health before the boss starts to recover . "

then there are eight chances for ,If all 40 deaths are the cause of the boss going berserk " I guess as long as .the player to reduce its health the boss 's health is reduced to a certain level before it dies , it will not go berserk. "

Ming Shao was shocked: " That's difficult too. "

Ze Yu Sishui said: " If it's not difficult, then it's not the final boss ! We fought so hard, if others could pass it easily, I would be so angry that I couldn't sleep! "

Young Master Ming was speechless and said, " That's all you can do. "

What followed was a slow and steady process, with two stages cycled through, and finally the boss 's health was reduced to 5%. The boss raised the vines again, but this time it did not move forward, but spread out firmly and whipped towards Ji Xuanyi and the others.

Qingfeng was not careful and lost half of his blood. He screamed in fear and said loudly: " I don't want to die once for every boss ! "

While Ji Xuanyi was healing him, he said, " This should be the final stage! If you don't want to die, hurry up and output. This is the last 5%! "

The problem is that Ze Yu Sishui and the others are different from Qi Qin. They simply cannot dodge attacks and attack at the same time. Qi Qin, on the other hand, only has one vine to deal with, which makes it much easier. He almost single-handedly reduces the boss 's health.

With another tremor coming, the five vines fell heavily to the ground after struggling and waving, unable to move anymore, and a treasure chest for passing the level appeared in the middle of the venue.

At the same time, an enlarged version of the world announcement appeared in the chat bar of five people, a total of five times.

System announcement: Congratulations to the players: Ze Yu Shi Shui, Ming Shao, Qing Feng Bu Fu, Ji Xuan Yi, who are the first in the world to clear the Green Forest City dungeon [Tomb of Ashes] . The first armor reward for clearing the dungeon has been distributed to your backpacks, please check.

Qing Feng Bu Fu murmured, " Does this important thing have to be said five times now? "

Chapter 40

This announcement is different from the last one . Not only is the font size bigger , but the number of times has also increased , making it almost impossible for no one to see it.

After the announcement came out, Ji Xuanyi's private chat channel was flooded with messages , including Art Amiao, Wanshi Shengyi and others, and even a little girl he met in Xinmu Town before.

Looking up, he saw that Ze Yu Sishui and the others were also staring straight ahead. They were probably in the same situation as him ... No, it should be said that their situation might be even more serious than Ji Xuanyi's . After all, Ji Xuanyi was a person with very few friends.

Ji Xuan threw the secret chat aside and opened his backpack.

Although it is rare to get the first armor, it is not a very rare thing in the whole game . It is even worse than a hidden task, so he did not have high expectations for this so-called reward . You know, in some games, there is no reward or announcement for the first armor.

As expected , Ji Xuanyi only found a shiny box in the package. The instructions on it stated that by opening the box , one could randomly obtain equipment , materials , daily necessities and other rewards, depending on luck.

The rewards for everyone else are the same.

" What is this ..." Qi Qin looked at the treasure chest he opened in confusion.

Ji Xuanyi took a look at it and saw a strangely shaped , fist-sized black stone made of orange material , [Black Steel] . The instructions on it stated that this material could be used to create rare equipment.

" Wow, Tianxia, your luck is so bad, how come it's a material? " Ze Yu Sishui touched it, thinking he could see something good, but it turned out to be just a material. He said disappointedly: " Even if it's an orange material, it's not valuable. God knows when the life skill will be unlocked ..."

Qing Feng Bu Fu said: " It's hard to say. After all, it's an orange material. Maybe it's really valuable? "

Young Master Ming didn't say anything. He was secretly shedding tears at the ten gold coins he had opened.

He is here to fight and get equipment, not to make money!

Qingfeng Bufu opened a wizard's robe, which was dark purple and decorated with many sequins. He had already put it on and his whole body was shining.

Ming Shao said jealously: " Gay Zi, ugh! "

Qingfeng Bufu ignored him and happily reported the properties of the robe to everyone.

Ze Yu Sishui didn't know whether he was lucky or unlucky, as he got another purple weapon. Although its attributes were much better than the one he had now, it had no special effects. It was just an ordinary dagger. Ze Yu Sishui was very conflicted as he didn't know which one to use.

This time, it was Ming Shao and Qing Feng Bu Fu who looked at Ze Yu Si Shui with jealousy. Ji Xuanyi never had any hope for his luck, and he opened his box with an expressionless face. Inside was a piece of black steel that was exactly the same as Qi Qin's reward.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

" Hahahahahahahahaha! " Ze Yu Sishui who came to watch laughed wildly: " Why are you two like this? Did you discuss this with the system?! "

Ji Xuan's eyes flashed with ferocity.

Ze Yu Sishui was serious for a second: "... I'm sorry, I was wrong. "

Ming Shao and Qing Feng Bu Fu both made a " tsk " sound.

I thought I would see Ze Yu Sishui being beaten by Ji Xuanyi.

It doesn't matter if the first armor reward is not satisfactory, they also have a treasure chest dropped by a boss !

This time everyone was at the same starting line. Ming Shao, who was the fastest, accelerated and rushed to the front. Ze Yu Sishui directly activated the weapon skill [Strange Movement] and stuck behind Ming Shao. At the moment when Ming Shao was about to touch the box, he activated [Teleportation] again and touched the equipment first.

When he saw clearly what was in the box, Ze Yu Sishui subconsciously exclaimed " Oh shit " . the final boss were different from those given by the previous bosses . Ming Shao was annoyed for a moment because he didn't get the box, but his curiosity about the reward immediately overcame everything and he asked excitedly: " What happened?! "

Ze Yu Si Shui: "..."

At this time, Qingfeng Bufu also ran over and asked, " What happened? "

Ze Yu Shishui gave an awkward smile: " Mage robes and warlock weapons. "

Ming Shao's expression changed instantly, and he looked bored. Qing Feng Bu Fu wailed, " Why is it another mage robe ... Oh, give it to Ji Xuanyi. "

Ze Yu Shi Shui said with difficulty: " No, the last boss didn't drop universal equipment. This mage robe is a mage robe. The bonus is all magic damage. Only you can take it ..."

"... Fuck, " Qingfeng Bufu knelt down in front of him: " Are you unhappy with having two daggers? You have to drag me along to keep you company! "

Ze Yu Sishui pretended not to hear, threw the robe over his head, held the staff and handed it to Ji Xuanyi flatteringly, saying: " Look at my little red hand! A special warlock weapon! "

This is why he exclaimed " Fuck " just now.

Whether in a dungeon or dropped in the wild, the probability of a special effect weapon appearing is very, very low. Someone may play a game for ten years and never come across a special effect weapon once. Unexpectedly, a warlock special effect weapon appeared in the first playthrough ... Although it is a warlock weapon and the benefits are not as great as those of other professions, it can also make Ze Yu Sishui feel mixed emotions of sadness and joy!

Ji Xuanyi was also stunned for a moment, because he knew that the drop rate of special effect weapons was low, so when Ze Yu Sishui mentioned the warlock weapons, he didn't think about it at all.

This warlock weapon is called [Burning] , with a small letter "(Warlock)" at the back. Ji Xuanyi speculated that this might be a series of weapons. Not only the warlock weapon, but also the special effect weapons of other professions dropped by this boss should all be called [Burning] . The only difference is the different profession logo at the back.

Ji Xuanyi is still using the blue weapon given by the mission, and he changed it immediately. The special effect of this [Burning] is deceleration. When releasing any skill on the enemy , it will add an additional debuff of deceleration that lasts for three seconds .

It's not a particularly outstanding skill, at least not comparable to Ze Yu Sishui's pair of daggers that come with skills, but for a profession like the Warlock that has a hard time getting bonuses, it's already pretty good.

At least Ji Xuanyi himself was satisfied.

Qi Qin came up with the box in his hand and asked, " Xuan Yi, what should we do with this ..." Qi Qin could be said to be the worst off. Although he didn't think so, he was the one who contributed the most in the team, but he didn't drop any equipment. You know, even Ming Shao got 60 gold coins, but Qi Qin only got one material ...

Ji Xuan took a look and said, " Put it away for now and look at it later. "

Anyway, they are not short of money, so there is no need to sell the materials.

Qing Feng Bu Fu wrapped himself in two robes and said happily: " Okay, okay, we've passed the level, we can go our separate ways now! "

Ze Yu Sishui was both happy and sad: " We seem to be the first in the entire server to clear the new dungeon, right? I'm the team leader this time, so I have to write a guide to clearing the dungeon quickly, otherwise I will definitely be hung up and scolded. You guys play first, I'm going offline now. "

Ming Shao said, " Wait a minute, there are only a few of us who can play this dungeon for now. Can we arrange a time to clear the CD together later ? "

Qingfeng Bufu and Zeyu Sishui both agreed, but Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " We have other things to do, so we don't plan to do any more dungeons for now. You three can find teammates and don't have to wait for us. "

Qing Feng Bu Fu subconsciously asked: " Ah? How can we live without you? "

Before Ji Xuanyi could say anything, Ze Yu Sishui spoke first: " Please grow up a little, are you still inseparable from Xiao Ji and Tian Xia? The three of us can be considered the top PVE level in Green Forest City. Are you afraid that we can't pass the level together? They can find a way to complete the level without Xiao Ji, it's just a little harder. Haven't you ever opened up a wasteland? "

Ming Shao also sneered: " If you have this mentality, I will team up with Ze Yu Sishui. "

Qing Feng Bu Fu laughed dryly: " Hey, I just asked subconsciously. Our configuration is non-mainstream. How can we keep fighting like this? "

Ze Yu Sishui laughed bitterly: " Then you and Young Master Ming should discuss who to team up with. I'm going to go offline and write a guide. "

Everyone understood Ze Yu Sishui's pain very well and watched him go offline. Qingfeng Bufu and Ming Shao were anxious to find regular teammates. They said goodbye to Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin and left the dungeon together.

Ji Xuanyi did not forget the purpose of his hard work in completing this dungeon. The special effect weapons were just an unexpected gain, and the ultimate goal was to find clues related to the hidden plot.

At least you have to accept the hidden mission first.

Qi Qin looked around and said, " This place is so big, should we look for it bit by bit? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Let's go check those out first. "

Every time the boss at the end of the level recovers his blood, he will kill five people. In addition , Ji Xuanyi and his team made a mistake at the beginning, so now there are only fifteen left out of forty.

Ji Xuanyi walked forward and found that although the clothes they were wearing were exactly the same as those in the first level, their conditions were completely different.

If everyone in the first level was desperate and crazy, the expressions on the faces of the only fifteen remaining people here were completely numb. When Ji Xuanyi reached out and took off the masks on their faces, no one even blinked.

Qi Qin frowned and asked, " Were these people drugged? Or were they always like this? "

Ji Xuanyi understood what Qi Qin meant. Is it possible that the game setting is that this group of people has no AI control at all, but is just a rigid model. After all, the ones in the first level would scream when they died, but here they didn't even resist when they were killed by the boss .

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " I don't know. "

They checked all of them and tried to talk to them, but there was no response. They were all alive. Although it was just a game, they were too embarrassed to rip their clothes off to check. Ji Xuan had no choice but to say, " Look around for any clues. "

Qi Qin nodded, and he and Ji Xuanyi went to two different ends to conduct a carpet search of the entire venue.

But this is an underground cave after all. Ever since the death of the final boss , the surrounding vines have all turned yellow, leaving only the glowing mushrooms on the ground. They are short and fat and can't cover anything. If there are any clues, they can all be seen at a glance. But in the end, of course, nothing was found.

Ji Xuanyi frowned tightly and whispered, " It's impossible that there is nothing here ..."

Qi Qin turned around and looked at the group of people standing quietly, and said, " Should we still look for clues from them? "

Ji Xuanyi didn't know either, so he had to walk back to the group again.

Qi Qin pondered for a while and said, " Didn't you say before that this mission should be related to the ring that Yishu and the others dug out? Could it be that the ring is needed to wake them up? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and frowned, " But Yishu's ring has been handed over to Chengbei as a quest item ... By the way! "

Qi Qin was stunned and said happily: " Have you thought of anything? "

Ji Xuan smiled and said, " You reminded me, didn't we find a silver necklace in the first level? I didn't take it to talk to Cheng Bei because I was worried about being deceived. It's still in my backpack now. "

" Items found in the same instance are most likely used here. "

As Ji Xuanyi spoke, he took out the necklace from the package, held it in his hand, walked up to them one by one, and watched their reactions.

Sure enough, when she passed the third-to-last woman, her eyes followed the movement of the necklace in Ji Xuanyi's hand.

Qi Qin discovered it immediately and said in surprise: " It really works. This person knows this necklace! "

Ji Xuanyi also saw it, of course, and immediately stopped in front of it and asked, " Is this your necklace? "

He stared at the necklace for a long time, then slowly opened his mouth and uttered an indistinct sound.

Ji Xuanyi frowned, and Qi Qin's face also looked unhappy.

Although it's just a game, the sense of reality is too strong. I wonder what this person has been through to become like this.

Ji Xuanyi was not in a hurry to get an answer. He just stood in front of her and watched her slowly take the necklace from his hand. After a long while, she squatted on the ground and began to sob.

At this moment, Ji Xuanyi's task parchment flashed. Ji Xuanyi immediately opened it and saw that there was an extra task on it.

[Sasha's Request] : Sasha, the tailor shop owner's wife, hopes you can help her.

There is no sign of a secret mission.

Qi Qin also received this task. He glanced at Ji Xuanyi and said cautiously, " It seems to be different from the last time? "

Ji Xuan nodded, squatted down and said to Sasha: " Excuse me, is there anything I can help you with? "

Sasha raised her head, with very realistic tears in her eyes, and said sadly: " Thank you, kind man, I think I should tell you about me and my husband. "

What follows is a plot dialogue. Sasha and her husband originally opened a tailor shop on Artemisia Street. One day, her husband went to the north of the city to buy new fabrics, and he did not come back for three days. Sasha was worried that something had happened to him, so she planned to go out to find him. As a result, she suddenly fainted when passing by the Black Forest, and woke up in this place.

Sasha cried and said, " This is hell. That demon has been eating people – yes, and those accomplices. I can't understand why they do such things when they are obviously human beings! "

Ji Xuan thought that she was probably talking about the people in the north of the city.

Sasha said: " This is the necklace I gave to my husband. Have you met him? Is he still alive? "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, then looked at Ji Xuanyi. Ji Xuanyi paused, lowered his eyes and said, " Sorry ..."

Sasha was startled and started crying again.

Qi Qin sighed. He knew that Ji Xuanyi would not hide the truth. Instead of lying, he would definitely choose to let the other party know everything.

But as the deceased wife, Sasha also has the right to know the truth.

Sasha cried for a while, then sobbed and said, " I can't go back either. They planted seeds in the bodies of those of us who were captured. As long as we are exposed to the sun, we will die. Kind people, can you do me a favor? "

Finally getting to the point, Ji Xuan blinked and said, " Of course, how can I help you? "

Sasha whispered, " I want you to help look after our child. I don't know how long it has been since I was captured. We can't see the sun here ... but he is already thirteen years old and can live on his own. I'm just a little worried. I hope you can help me look after him. If he encounters any trouble, please help him ..."

Ji Xuanyi found that the task on the parchment had been updated, [Sasha's Request] : Sasha, the wife of the tailor shop owner, hopes that you can visit her children.

Ji Xuanyi stood up, nodded and said, " I understand. I will help you. "

Sasha finally smiled: " Thank you, kind man, thank you. "

After passing the level, a passage similar to the entrance appeared next to the venue, leading to the outside. Ji Xuan stood up and walked straight there.

Qi Qin followed behind him and said regretfully: " Can't we really take her back? "

Ji Xuanyi said, " I know what you're thinking, but it's useless. If she just said that she would die if she saw the sun, we could still think of a way, but the mission to visit her son on her behalf has already been issued, which proves that in the game setting, she can't get out. Even if we force her out, it's useless. She will die if she doesn't see the sun. "

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin and said, " It's just a game. To be precise, the story of this mission is not that touching. It's just that the holographic online game is a big plus, so there's no need to show that expression. "

Qi Qin: " QAQ ! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Forget it, I'll give up communicating with this sentimental young man.

Aicao Street is actually the real name of the stall street, but the latter is so vivid that the first name was ignored.

There is indeed a tailor shop on the street, but it has always been closed. Some players simply occupied the space and set up stalls under the sunshade in front of the tailor shop.

When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin found the tailor shop, they saw players blocking the door and shouting.

Unable to help but say it again, Ji Xuanyi's temper has really improved a lot now. He walked up to the player and said, " The mission, let me take over. "

The player was a little unhappy at first, but when he looked up and saw the tall and strong Qi Qin behind Ji Xuanyi, he immediately became scared and rolled up his bedding and hid aside. Ji Xuanyi walked straight to the door of the tailor shop and knocked. After a while, the sound of footsteps could be heard from inside. The wooden door was opened, and a young man's face appeared in the gap. He looked at them timidly and whispered, " My parents are out. Please come back later if you have business. "

The players who saw Ji Xuanyi's actions were all amazed and said, " Fuck, can you knock on doors in this game? "

 " A hidden mission? "

 " Is this true? "

 " There's a kid inside, so cute! "

Many players who came here to shop couldn't help themselves when they saw this, and ran to knock on the closed doors on the street one by one, hoping to receive hidden tasks. Even many players who set up stalls put away their things. If they couldn't grab the goods from others, they would run to the next street to have a look.

Ji Xuanyi was speechless for a moment, then he lowered his head to look at the little face and said, " You are Little Jiedi, right? We came to see you at the request of your parents. "

Jedi was startled, then immediately smiled, opened the door and welcomed Ji Xuanyi and the others in, saying, " Thank you! Do you know where mom and dad are? When will they be back? "

Qi Qin once again showed that expression: " QAQ ! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi hit Qi Qin in the abdomen with an elbow, then dragged him into the tailor shop and closed the door. He then turned to Jedi and said, " Your parents ..."

Qi Qin said quickly: s true that'lt " your parents are away on a long trip , but they probably won't be back for a short time! "

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin, and Qi Qin showed a pitiful expression.

Ji Xuanyi could only sigh and said, " Yes, your parents went out to visit relatives. It seems that they have something very important to do and they won't be back for a short time. "

Jedi sat there for a while, probably because the AI was reacting to their long list of answers.

After a long while, he showed a frustrated expression and said, " Why don't they take me with them? "

Qi Qin: " Uh ... uh ... "

Qi Qin was really not good at lying. After trying for a long time, he couldn't utter a word. He had to look at Ji Xuanyi, only to find that Ji Xuanyi was frowning with a very serious expression.

Qi Qin was startled and whispered, " What's wrong? Is there something wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " It's actually quite normal for a dungeon to have ordinary tasks related to the outside world. "

Qi Qin nodded, not quite understanding.

But why is " the AI of a common task so high? " Ji Xuanyi looked at Qi Qin: " The lies we just told have nothing to do with common dialogue sentences, not to mention that he can answer according to what we said. "

" This is a very important transitional mission. The truth may be hidden in secret, but the official does not want players to get stuck here because of the non-standard dialogue, so they set such a high AI for this . "

Ji Xuanyi showed a determined smile.

Qi Qin was confused: " Huh? Are you saying that he is too smart for a game character? "

That's what I mean, " Ji Xuan looked at Jedi and said calmly, " Because you are already thirteen years old, your parents think you need training. When you can live on your own, they will come back. "

Jedi suddenly realized: " So that's how it is! "

Ji Xuanyi looked at him quietly, and saw Jie Di said happily: " I understand, thank you, I will prove to my parents that I have grown up! "

At this time, the parchment on Ji Xuanyi's waist flashed again, indicating that the task had been completed.

As soon as Ji Xuanyi opened the parchment, the task disappeared in front of him and gave him a lot of experience points, which directly allowed him to reach level 28.

If other players who were lucky enough to reach this point, they might think that everything was over, but for Ji Xuanyi, this mission was not the end.

Ji Xuanyi looked at the excited Jedi and slowly asked the question he had been thinking about for a long time.

" Are your parents the only ones who left during this period? "

The room was quiet for a moment.

Jedi raised his head and said to him innocently: " No, besides my parents, many neighbors around me went out. I didn't see them come back. "

Ji Xuanyi's eyes lit up, and he saw the parchment in his hand flash, and a line of faint handwriting emerged.

Secret Mission: [Find out the truth about people's disappearances] .

Qi Qin at the side took a breath. The same task appeared on his parchment, but it was an assisting task. He couldn't help but admire and said: " It's really here, so amazing, Xuanyi, if you go to our place to be a head of the police, you will definitely be famous all over the world! "

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " That's not necessary. "

Qi Qin was still marveling at Ji Xuanyi's wit. Ji Xuanyi asked Jedi a few more questions.

Although he answered them fluently, he could not say anything about the disappearance of residents in the south of the city.

Ji Xuanyi said: " It seems that there is no information here. We have to look somewhere else. "

Qi Qin nodded, and then asked curiously: " If it is the truth of the residents' disappearance, then we already know it. The people in the north of the city built an evil altar and kidnapped the people in the south of the city as sacrifices. Is there any other hidden secret? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " The mission in Xinmu Town can be said to have a clear purpose, but the conditions for completing this mission are too general. I don't know what the answer the system wants, so I can only try my best to uncover the truth. "

Qi Qin asked in confusion: " Where should I start? There are so many things to think about ..."

Standing aside obediently, Ji Xuanyi said to him: " Jedi, you can go do your own thing. "

After jumping away, Ji Xuanyi sat down at the table, and Qi Qin quickly sat down opposite him. Ji Xuanyi took out the blue staff he had replaced and used the purple crystal on the top of the staff to draw on the old table without any care: " Green Forest City is divided into three parts, the south of the city, the north of the city, and the Black Forest. "

Qi Qin nodded.

" The south of the city is where we are now. A lot of people are missing. Now we know that they were used as sacrifices in the dungeon under the Black Forest, so there is no doubt about the south of the city now. "

" The first clues found in the Black Forest were actually broken bones and a ring. I speculate that the broken bones were the remains of some missing residents in the south of the city, and the ring was stolen by someone in the north of the city. But we already know what happened in the dungeon. The direct clues in the Black Forest point to the south of the city, so we don't need to worry about them. The clues in the dungeon point to the north of the city. "

" The north of the city is the most suspicious area. We can solve them one by one. "

" After removing the altar that the dungeon points to, the strangest thing about the North City is actually their attitude towards the South City. The people of the North City have no feelings about the South City, which is several times more prosperous than themselves. Now we know that this is because they use the Black Forest as a barrier to classify the people of the South City as sacrifices, so no matter how the people of the South City develop, they have no feelings. "

" There is one more thing. Do you remember the sweet potato digging mission we did when we first went to the north of the city? "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, then said, " I remember, it was the one who gave me a lot of gold coins. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " The gold coin was given to us by the uncle who raises pigs on the farm. Have you ever thought about why a person on a farm is so rich? "

Qi Qin thought for a moment and said, " It's the farm owner's money. "

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " No matter how rich you are, would you be so generous in paying me? Besides, have you ever seen a wealthy businessman in the south of the city who is this rich? "

Qi Qin was stunned and shook his head.

They had also done missions in the south of the city. The food and accommodation of the rich businessmen in the south of the city were much better than those in the north of the city.

However, the rewards given when issuing missions were only slightly more generous and were still within the reward range of ordinary missions.

Ji Xuanyi said: " The authorities have already given players some hints on some details. "

" Based on the missions we completed in the north of the city, the attitude of the north of the city towards the south of the city, and the undisguised prosperity of the altar, I suspect that the people of the north of the city are actually much richer than those of the south of the city, and have much more power. They disguise themselves as they are now just to deceive the people of the south of the city, so that they can kidnap people when they let their guard down, just like the tailor couple. "

After thinking for a while, Ji Xuanyi added: " Of course, it can also deceive careless players to prevent the main plot from being exposed too early. "

Qi Qin said tactfully: " I think that even if they don't cover it up, it won't be exposed ..."

Ji Xuanyi concluded: " The south of the city is a complete sacrifice, and the Black Forest is the area for sacrifice and capturing sacrifices. All the remaining questions, including why they did this, their purpose, and the identity of the instigator, are all in the north of the city. Let's go to the north of the city to take a look. "

Qi Qin was about to speak when there was a knock on the door.

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then walked over and opened the door.

A player poked his head out and asked, " How can I help you? "

This door-knocking craze ... I don't even know where it started, but I actually took them for granted!

Ji Xuan's face darkened, and the player realized something was wrong. This seemed to be a person. He smiled at him awkwardly and hurriedly slipped away.

Ji Xuanyi even raised his staff. Fortunately, this was an assassin who ran fast, otherwise he would have been beaten.

Qi Qin's armor got stuck in the gap between the table and chair. It took him a long time to pull it out. He also pried off a large piece of wood from the tailor's table. He ran to Ji Xuanyi in a panic and said, "Are you okay?!"

Ji Xuanyi tapped his armor with his staff unhappily and said, "It's okay, let's go to the north of the city."

Qi Qin followed behind him and said, "Isn't it because of their faith that they do this? I remember when I asked about the altar before, they said it was a sacrifice for the gods. Sometimes people who believe in cults are so unreasonable."

Ji Xuanyi said: "But after the dungeon was opened, when we went there for the second time, we already had a fear of this god, which shows that this belief did not evolve slowly, and someone must have spread it."

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment and said, "Is the ultimate goal of the mission to let us find this person?"

"I don't know," Ji Xuanyi said helplessly, "There are too many possibilities. We can only take one step at a time ... To be precise, given the difficulty of this mission, we are already very lucky to actually receive the mission. Whether we can complete it depends on fate. Anyway, let's try it first. If we can find it, it will be great. If we can't find it, there is nothing we can do."

Qi Qin looked at him and said, "You can definitely find it."

"Um?"

Qi Qin whispered: "Xuan Yi is so powerful."

Ji Xuan tried to hold back, but couldn't help laughing.

When he came to the north of the city again, Qi Qin no longer had the same feeling as at the beginning. He only felt that those who looked kind were very scary.

Ji Xuanyi picked one at random and said to him: "Do you know what happened in the Black Forest?"

Hearing this, he showed a sad expression and said, "Yes, I know. This is terrible. There are wild wolves in there. Poor Luna. Fortunately, there are warriors who helped us to eradicate it. Thank God."

The setting of the wild wolf actually continued here. Ji Xuanyi was more certain of his speculation. He stared at him and said, "Don't lie. I know what happened in the Black Forest." There was a moment of panic on his face, but he quickly recovered. He looked at Ji Xuanyi innocently and said, "I don't understand what you are saying."

Ji Xuan frowned and asked him several questions in a roundabout way, but he was fooled every time. However, when he asked him the direct answer, he would say the universal golden sentence to refuse to answer the question. I don't understand, I don't understand, I don't understand.

Ji Xuan was so angry that he almost started a fight, but fortunately he was stopped by Qi Qin. The two of them had to change their target and continue questioning.

This time they chose those who looked a little fearful on their faces.

As soon as Ji Xuanyi stopped him, the man immediately showed a defensive expression. It seems like there is hope. Ji Xuanyi thought about it and asked, "Do you know what happened in the Black Forest?"

Startled, his eyes wandered, and he said in panic: " No, isn't it a wild wolf? I heard that it can eat people ..."

Ji Xuanyi sneered and said, " Don't lie, I know what happened in the Black Forest. "

His eyes widened and he cried out in surprise: " How do you know? You don't know! "

Ji Xuanyi said sternly: " I know! You used them as sacrifices to feed the evil god! "

He screamed, turned around and ran away, shouting: " I didn't say that! Don't eat me! I didn't! I didn't do those things! Let me go! Let me go! God!! "

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin chased after him in a hurry, but they didn't expect that he could run so fast. They couldn't catch up after a long time. It was he who muttered something like " God " and slowly stopped. When Ji Xuanyi and the others walked up to him and looked at him again, he had returned to the way he was when they stopped him at the beginning. He seemed to be afraid of something.

Qi Qin said unwillingly: " This means that no clues have been revealed. "

Ji Xuanyi was also a little unwilling and repeated the previous questions again, but this time the reaction was exactly the same as before, with no difference at all. After Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin caught up with him for the second time, he returned to his original appearance. Ji Xuanyi had to change a few questions, but still could not get anything out of this person.

Ji Xuanyi exhaled heavily and said, " It seems that this is not a clue to solve the mystery, but just to tell us that our speculation is indeed true, and it is indeed Chengbei who did these things. "

Qi Qin said: " What should we do now? "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Let's go to the altar. I remember there are a few people on the altar who we can talk to. Maybe they, as sacrifices, will know something. "

Although some residents in the north of the city became neurotic after the opening of the dungeon, those on the high altar continued to sing and dance as they did at the beginning, never stopping and looking very happy.

Qi Qin took a look and couldn't help but say, " Maybe they don't even know they're going to be sacrificed. "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " They are very likely to know. They don't look like people from the south of the city in this state. And judging from the situation on the altar, they are so skilled in arranging everything. They look more like servants of those powerful residents in the north of the city. "

Qi Qin's eyes became more complicated : " You clearly know what you are about to face ..."

Ji Xuanyi tapped him and reminded him, " This is just a game, don't take it too seriously. "

Qi Qin: " QAQ ! I'll try my best ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Fortunately, Ji Xuanyi and his friends had been to this altar before , and they had some impression of which ones they could have a conversation with , so they found one without much effort.

Qi Qin still remembered this . He looked like one of the managers in charge of setting up the altar , calling the dancers and servants carrying food to their proper places.

The last time they came to talk, he proudly introduced to them the size of the altar , where they could go to see what kind of performances, or what kind of food they could find. But now , his brows were furrowed and his whole face was covered with a shadow. What remained unchanged was that he was still directing those ignorant and still cheerful dancers and servants. Ji Xuanyi glanced at Qi Qin.

Qi Qin blinked and said innocently: " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " You go and have the conversation. "

Otherwise, if he says something hurtful later, this person will look at him with a QAQ expression again.

Qi Qin wanted to look at him like that now, but under Ji Xuanyi's cold eyes, he still didn't have the courage , so he had to step forward and said: " You know this altar ..." He said halfway, but felt a little reluctant , and looked back at Ji Xuanyi helplessly.

Ji Xuan expressionlessly whipped him with his staff.

Qi Qin touched his head which was a little painful from being hit, and said with gritted teeth: " Do you know what the real purpose of this altar is? "

Hearing this , he immediately revealed a sad expression and said: " This is our fate , the fate we were born with . There is nothing we can do about it . We cannot go against it ..."

It seems that he is an insider. Qi Qin subconsciously looked at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and asked: " Who used you as sacrifices? "

Perhaps because Ji Xuanyi's words did not quite meet the standards of the conversation, he took a while to react before saying, " We cannot disobey the master's orders. "

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin looked at each other and realized that they were indeed servants of the residents in the north of the city.

Ji Xuanyi asked again: " Who is your master? "

Shaking his head sadly, he said, " I'm sorry, but I can't tell anyone my master's name. "

Qi Qin was anxious and couldn't help but said: " I know you are a loyal servant, but your master no longer regards you as a human being, why don't you resist! "

Without any movement, Ji Xuanyi looked at him speechlessly.

Qi Qin then remembered that he could not understand what he was saying at all, so he shut up dejectedly.

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but glance at him, and then asked: " So your master is the one who presided over this ceremony? "

This time he shook his head clearly and said, " No, my master is not qualified to preside over this ceremony. "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and asked, " Then who is the person who presided over this ceremony? "

Replied: " Sorry, I don't know that. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and asked again: " When did this god appear? Who told you about this concept? "

She looked at him blankly and said, " I'm sorry, I don't understand what you are saying. "

It seems that this clue cannot be obtained here.

Ji Xuanyi asked a few more questions, but the answers kept revolving around the information he wanted to know. Once it came to the key points, he knew nothing.

Because they had been taking the opportunity to have a conversation with this person, the dancers and servants who were waiting for instructions had already crowded together. Ji Xuan glanced at the bewildered people behind him and had to pull Qi Qin aside.

Qi Qin perked up a little and asked, " He won't say anything, what should we do now? "

Ji Xuanyi did not answer this question, but just said: " Have you ever encountered such a problem before? For example, you helped others with good intentions but got a cold shoulder. " Qi Qin's face froze, and he smiled bitterly: " Xuan Yi, you ... sigh, it's been a long time since that happened. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Then we won't talk about it. "

Qi Qin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " Why do you look like that? "

Qi Qin held it in for a long time before saying, " No, nothing ..."

Ji Xuan said calmly, " If there's nothing else, just continue. I remember there are still a few people on the altar who I can talk to. "

Qi Qin: "..."

QAQ Is this person really not going to listen? His words are on the tip of his tongue!

Qi Qin had no choice but to hold back the words on his lips, and grunted as he accompanied Ji Xuanyi around the altar.

But it was obvious that nothing would be gained, as what the others said were mostly similar to what the first one said. One or two of them didn't even feel sad after learning the news, and they had a fanatical attitude, as if being a sacrifice was such an honor. But again, no information could be pried out of them at all.

The clue ends here.

Ji Xuanyi sighed for the first time and said, " It seems that there will be no progress in the mission until a breakthrough is found. "

Qi Qin, who had been holding back his past story for a whole day, looked at him pitifully.

Ji Xuanyi pretended not to see it and said, " It's getting dark, go offline and take a rest, and come back tomorrow to check. "

Qi Qin: " QAQ ! "

However, Ji Xuanyi actually went offline so ruthlessly. Qi Qin stared at the air in front of him for a long time before he went offline dejectedly.

After Ji Xuan logged off, he took a look at Ze Yu Sishui's strategy. Although Ze Yu Sishui looked unreliable, it had to be said that as a game veteran, his strategy was still quite good.

The key points of passing the level and how to deal with skills were all laid out one by one, but because of Ji Xuanyi's identity, he deliberately marginalized the roles played by Ji Xuanyi and

Qi Qin in the dungeon, only saying that the tank was very powerful, and mentioned the issue of reduced healing when facing the last boss .

As the first strategy post for completing the dungeon in the entire region and server, it was pushed to the top of the list the moment it was posted.

Ji Xuanyi flipped through it and found that the replies under the post were quite normal at the beginning, all of which were discussions about solutions to the dungeon mechanism. But it became chaotic later on. The cause of death was that a warlock came out and said that Ze Yu Si Shui was deceiving people. The warlock's healing reduction was difficult to trigger, and it was almost impossible to pass the level so easily.

Then the discussion started about the configuration issues that Ze Yu Sishui and the others needed to pass the level.

What about a single warlock as an assist, and clearing the level without a healer? The more everyone discussed it, the more ridiculous it seemed. With this kind of configuration, let alone opening up a new area, even if the dungeon is later on so that anyone can clear it, it would be difficult to fight against it.

Therefore, later on, many people suspected that Ze Yu Sishui didn't want everyone to be able to pass the level, so he made up a nonsense guide.

Ze Yu Sishui obviously knew how to deal with these people. He directly replied, " Don't think that awesome people can't do it just because you're bad . " After causing a huge uproar, he calmly posted an advertisement to recruit teammates to change configurations and open up new areas, then disappeared.

When Ji Xuan took a look at his advertisement, he was suddenly at a loss whether to laugh or cry.

recruit:

Try your best to pass Greenwood City's Tomb of Ashes and get the first and second place. Then come an awesome swordsman, or a knight who thinks he's more awesome than the awesome swordsman, or an awesome priest, or a warlock who thinks he's more awesome than the priest.

Contact: Ze Yu Sishui.

It's very simple and crude. I just don't know if there are any swordsmen or knights in Green Forest City who can tank monsters without any help , or if they can suppress the monster's health simply by output in the last level?

Ji Xuanyi thought about it and thought that maybe if Qi Qin didn't dodge the attack and exerted his full strength, he might be able to do it.

But it seems like he is totally useless ...

Ji Xuanyi was lost in thought, so he closed the forum and went to sleep.

The next day, Ji Xuan had classes in the morning. When he came online in the afternoon, Qi Qin was already waiting on the side. When he saw him coming online, he immediately came up and said, " Ze Yu Sishui and the others talked to me a lot. They came online so quickly that I couldn't see clearly. "

Ji Xuanyi understood it completely because his chat bar was also scrolling wildly, and it was all private chats between those three people.

But Ji Xuanyi was different from Qi Qin who would carefully read the records one by one. He completely ignored the private chats that drifted past and said to Ze Yu Sishui: " I saw your post yesterday. "

Ze Yu Sishui sent a reply within a second.

[泽于似水] : Really? Did I write a great guide?

[Ji Xuanyi] : Just make do.

[泽于似水] : Xiao Ji is always so strict!

[泽于似水] : Did you see the private messages I just sent you? I really can't stand it anymore!

Ji Xuan replied expressionlessly: " I didn't see it. "

[泽于似水] : Go and see, go and see!

[Ji Xuanyi] : Young Master Ming and the others are too noisy. I don't want to turn over.

[泽于似水] : Don't be so lazy! Just move your fingers! I've already told them to shut up, just move your fingers!

[Ji Xuanyi] : Don't move.

Ze Yu Sishui fell silent. Ji Xuan thought to himself, this guy is more courageous than Qi Qin. Qi Qin still had an expression of wanting to say something but not being able to say it yesterday when he came online today. It seems that he is very frustrated.

Who knew that just after I finished thinking this, news came from Ze Yu Sishui.

[泽于似水] : Although so many idiots scolded me yesterday, a lot of people rushed to me as soon as I released the recruitment! Ming Shao and I screened people all morning and barely picked out two not-too-bad guys, just like you, a warlock and a swordsman. I know you are too lazy to move your fingers, and with these few sentences, this paragraph should just fill up the chat bar, so you don't have to flip through it, muah! Let me continue.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

He took back what he had just said. People like Ze Yu Sishui simply had no backbone. Qi Qin could tolerate much more than him!

Ji Xuan expressionlessly pulled Qi Qin to find a shady place and continued to wait for Ze Yu Sishui's report.

[泽于似水] : Then those two people, wow ... I don't want to say anything, they were too weak, the first boss only lasted for twenty seconds before he was defeated, and Qingfeng Bufu that guy was also a fucking weakling, he just embarrassed Ming Shao and me, he was defeated in forty seconds too, Ming Shao and I were so upset about those two colored pens, luckily Ming Shao and I were there, we persisted and finally got through it, actually I missed you and Tianxia so much at that time.

To be fair, the players who can hold on for twenty seconds can no longer be considered as talented players. They should be considered as ordinary players who are quite powerful. But if you insist on comparing them with Ji Xuanyi and the other two, it would be totally unfair.

However, there is no other way. There are really not many talents in a retirement sanctuary like Green Forest City. It is difficult to recruit Qi Ze, Yu Sishui and the other three. It is basically impossible to recruit people who are strong enough to pass the level below them.

[泽于似水] : Then the second boss was just too horrible to watch. The swordsman was killed in two seconds. He couldn't do the absolute defense of the world at all! But he was the toughest swordsman we could find, so we had to replace the warlock first. Fortunately, there was a priest who didn't care that the first boss had been beaten, and was willing to black out the dungeon CD to join the team.

dungeon CD has been mentioned before. People who have entered the dungeon cannot team up with people who have not entered the dungeon, because the CD is different. The dungeon map will be like a parallel space. You can see the coordinates of the other party on the parchment, but you cannot see the other party with your eyes even though the coordinates are right next to you, because in fact two different CDs are equal to two different spaces.

There is only one way to enter the dungeon at the same time, and that is to overlap the CD . One of the parties is required to be someone who has not entered the dungeon that day. After the overlap, this person's CD will be exactly the same as the other person's. The cost is that the levels he has not experienced before will also be synchronized, which is equivalent to missing out on part of the experience and rewards for passing the level.

CDs because of these two things , but in the case of Ze Yu Sishui and his friends who are exploring new dungeons, there are also many people who would rather synchronize CDs and want to see or learn how to pass the level.

Ji Xuanyi was just about to say that with a priest, the second level would be easy to pass, but he didn't expect Ze Yu Sishui's complaints to follow.

[泽于似水] : After the healing, the swordsman did stand still. But when the boss came to the next stage and started to attack people, the first one he targeted was the priest, and then he died ...

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

I didn't expect this.

[泽于似水] : I didn't even ask him to dodge it, but that priest was really unlucky! We played more than ten games, and we targeted him every time. He was killed every time. It was not until the seventeenth game that Ming Shao and I were so exhausted that we finally stopped targeting him. We targeted Ming Shao and Qing Feng, and finally Qing Feng didn't sacrifice himself and suppressed the stage.

Ji Xuanyi was also very tired after hearing this, and asked directly: " Is it over? "

[泽于似水] : It passed. During the boss 's final frenzy phase, the swordsman and I were both killed. In the end, Ming Shao and the priest sneaked around and killed the boss .

Ji Xuanyi said: " It's fine once it passes. "

[泽于似水] : It feels like it's a completely different dungeon from yesterday, QAQ ! We didn't even touch the third boss , it's too tiring, when will you two finish your work and come back to play the dungeon? They are too weak, we don't want to play with weaklings!

Ji Xuanyi said cruelly: " I won't fight anymore. I've got the special effect weapon. Why should I fight again? "

[泽于似水] : QAQ ! Don't! Big! Thighs!

[Ji Xuanyi] : It's no use shouting anything.

[泽于似水] : So what are you and Qi Qin busy with? Tell us and we will help you fix it, and then you can come back and help us with the book!

Of course, hidden tasks cannot be disclosed casually. Ji Xuanyi said directly: " You can't help. "

[泽于似水] : What's going on? Did the enemy come looking for us? You don't have to worry about dragging us down, just let me do it. I've always wanted to fight alongside you!

Ji Xuan replied expressionlessly: " The last person who told me that we would fight side by side was defeated by me. I advise you to be cautious. "

[泽于似水] : You are indeed my idol, you have personality! If you have any problems, come on, I will cheer for you from behind!

[泽于似水] : But if you really have any troubles, you can still tell me. Maybe I can help you think of a solution!

Ji Xuanyi was about to mock him, but suddenly felt that what he said seemed to make some sense.

Anyway, his train of thought has been stuck, and Ze Yu Sishui's weird train of thought might really be able to discover something.

[Ji Xuanyi] : Okay, then let me ask you a question.

[Ji Xuanyi] : If in the same city, one group of people keep another group of people in captivity like livestock.

[泽于似水] : What?! What are you doing? I don't do anything illegal!

[Ji Xuanyi] : ... This is the background, I haven't finished yet.

[泽于似水] : Oh ... then you continue.

Ji Xuanyi was speechless for a while, then continued: " If you were asked to find the culprit who caused this incident, where would you start? "

[泽于似水] : I would probably start by calling the police!

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

His brain must have been blocked by Qi Qin, which is why he asked Ze Yu Sishui such a question!

Ze Yu Sishui was still explaining to Ji Xuanyi the importance of calling the police in time, but Ji Xuanyi had already closed the chat box and was completely ignoring him.

Qi Qin asked hesitantly, " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head.

Qi Qin looked as if he wanted to say something but hesitated.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi said: " You really have been holding it in until now, come on, tell me, I admire you. "

Qi Qin breathed a sigh of relief and no longer dared to show a bitter and resentful look like he did yesterday. He quickly told the story of what he had experienced before, fearing that Ji Xuan would interrupt him halfway and stop him from speaking.

The general situation is that when Qi Qin first entered the world of martial arts, he helped an old man who was abused by his own son to teach his son a lesson, but was reported to the government by the old man instead.

Fortunately, the county magistrate was a good man, and many people knew about the son's unfilial behavior. It was just that the old man himself refused to stand up for himself, so the matter had been delayed until now, and Qi Qin just had to pay some money to settle the matter. However, a shadow remained in his heart. From then on, Qi Qin hit a few walls again and gradually became indecisive. In the end, he did not become a great hero, but became more mediocre than when he first entered the world of martial arts.

Qi Qin said helplessly, "I was young and hot-tempered at the time. In fact, the old man had clearly told me not to meddle in his family's affairs, but I was so angry that I beat up his son. The man we met yesterday was the same. He knew clearly that his master was wrong and that he would die, but he still refused to reveal anything. I really can't understand why these people are like this? "

Ji Xuanyi did not answer him, but pinched his chin and looked at his face carefully. Qi Qin did not understand, so he turned his head obediently and asked, "What's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything. What he was thinking was, if Qi Qin hadn't had the misfortune to encounter those messy things, would he be a chivalrous man who was full of vigor and said what he meant? Anyway, it would be much better than the inexplicable saintly and indecisive look he had now.

People always do things that are hard to tell whether they are right or wrong. If they do not touch the bottom line, then it is actually harmless. On the contrary, those who have taken everything into consideration are gradually smoothed out and cannot even express themselves normally, and no longer have the slightest characteristics that can be appreciated by others. If Qi Qin wasn't a time traveler with martial arts skills, with such a soft personality, Ji Xuanyi felt that he would probably feel tired even looking at him for one more second. However, it was not easy to say such words, lest Qi Qin's fragile heart be hurt.

Ji Xuanyi said slowly: "Nothing, although I don't think this may be useful, but sometimes you can be more assertive. "

Qi Qin was stunned.

Ji Xuanyi said seriously: "For example, when you are in the government office, you should answer like this: I am not happy with him, so I will beat him up. Just tell me how much compensation he wants, and I can afford it. "

Qi Qin couldn't help but burst out laughing.

Ji Xuanyi also laughed and whispered, "There are indeed people in the world who excessively regard sacrifice as a virtue. They think this way even for trivial or unnecessary matters, even when it comes to national justice. They voluntarily become victims, and then bite back when others save them. In the end, they only move themselves and disgust others. In fact, they are just as hateful as the perpetrators. "

"You don't need to care too much about other people's attitudes, especially the attitudes of people like this. Just do what you want to do and be confident. I am a bad person, so what? It's enough to be true to your conscience," Ji Xuan said with a smile: "If you understand it in a different way, 'disrespectful' is not a derogatory word. "

Chapter 42

Qi Qin stared at Ji Xuanyi in a daze , and felt that the heart in his chest was beating faster and faster , and his face turned red without him realizing it.

Ji Xuanyi: " No , I just said so much , what's your reaction? "

What reaction? Qi Qin thought in a daze, what is my reaction?

Seeing the other party's confused face, Ji Xuan said speechlessly: " It seems that I just thought too much. You are a fool. "

Qi Qin came back to his senses and said quickly: " No, no , I just think ... I think Xuanyi you are so good. It would be great if I could meet you earlier ..."

Ji Xuan said: " It's not too late now . If you can change, you can change. If you can't change , you can't change even if I met you earlier. "

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi innocently.

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " But I finally see what kind of person you are. You are so boring . I don't know when I will dump you . I'm going to say this first. Don't blame me for being cold-hearted when the time comes. "

Qi Qin was stunned, and said anxiously: " No, who will protect you without me?! "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Then I will get rid of you when I find someone to replace you. "

Qi Qin couldn't help showing a QAQ expression , but immediately forced himself to put it back and said: " It doesn't matter , even if you get rid of me , I will follow you . I said I will protect you! "

Ji Xuanyi: " Wow, do you have any shame? People don't want to play with you anymore but you still insist on following them. "

Qi Qin blurted out: " I have no shame! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi was so tired of holding back his laughter that the corners of his mouth twitched. He said with a straight face, " It's okay if you're shameless, but I can't do anything to you. Just follow me. "

Qi Qin, who got benefit for being shameless for the first time: " QUQ ! "

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows and said, " Don't be too happy yet. We still have no clue about the real matter. "

That's right, regarding the hidden mission in Green Forest City, they have almost used up all the clues and suspicious locations at hand, but still can't find a breakthrough. Is there something they missed, or does the next clue depend on luck again?

If the Black Forest had not been divided into an area where clues were known, Ji Xuanyi would have wanted to continue digging the soil in the Black Forest to see if there was anything else buried in the ground.

Qi Qin was also trying to think of a solution, but the crazy scrolling chat bar made it impossible for him to concentrate, so he had to say to Ji Xuanyi: " Xuanyi, what did you say to Ze Yu Sishui? He kept asking me to remind you to check the chat bar. "

It would have been fine if he hadn't mentioned this, but as soon as Ji Xuanyi mentioned this, his face darkened and he said, " Ze Yu Sishui, this idiot, actually said something about calling the police ..."

Because of Ji Xuanyi's previous remarks about the substitution, Qi Qin, who had been worried, immediately pricked up his ears and said vigilantly: " Hold tight?! "

Fortunately, Ji Xuanyi didn't understand what he said. He just thought that he probably couldn't react well enough, so he explained, " It means reporting to the police. "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment and said, " Why report to the police? "

Ji Xuanyi told him what had happened before.

Qi Qin laughed and said, " You didn't tell him the whole story, so this answer is a normal reaction. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin: " Ze Yu Sishui is really too much! How can a person be so stupid! I won't play with him anymore! "

Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to pay attention to him.

Qi Qin said with a bitter face: " But speaking of it, where can we report to the authorities in the game? "

Ji Xuan sneered and was about to say something when he was suddenly stunned.

Qi Qin saw him stop and asked in confusion: " What's wrong? "

" Why didn't I think of this ... " Ji Xuanyi murmured.

Qi Qin was confused: " Which point? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " If you report to the police in the south of the city, where would you go? "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, then suddenly realized: " The City Lord's Mansion! "

Ji Xuan smiled and said, " That's right, the City Lord's Mansion! The City Lord must be the most powerful person in Green Forest City. The entire south of the city was used as a sacrifice, he must know that. Moreover, the City Lord's Mansion governs the entire Green Forest City, but it is not built in the north of the city, but in the south of the city. In addition to hiding the truth, it must also play a surveillance role. "

" I have a feeling we'll find some clues there! "

Unlike the north of the city which has gradually shown some gloom, the south of the city which knows nothing about anything is still as lively as before, with people coming and going with happy smiles on their faces.

Qi Qin couldn't help but say, " Fortunately they don't know yet. The atmosphere in the north of the city is too depressing. "

Ji Xuanyi snorted and said , " If a disaster were to happen to me, I would definitely not want to die in such a confused state without knowing anything. "

Qi Qin sighed: " That's true. "

Although he knew it was just a plot of the game and that the city might always be stuck in this state of impending storm and would not change, people always have an illusion in their hearts that they can change something. Although Ji Xuanyi did not say anything, he silently quickened his pace towards the City Lord's Mansion.

The two of them walked through the street of street performers and just as they turned a corner, they heard someone shouting, " Fuck off! Who started this habit of knocking on doors?! This is crazy! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin hugged Ji Xuanyi who had taken out his staff and whispered, " Calm down! Calm down! Let's first listen to what's going on! "

Ji Xuanyi: " Fuck! Is he too proud or am I, Mu Xuanyi, too weak to lift a knife? The last person who dared to curse me like that was killed by me over 200 times. He knelt down and apologized to me! "

Qi Qin quickly said: " He doesn't know it's you, calm down! "

From the killing of Wu Jian to now, Ji Xuanyi has been calm for nearly half a month. He had been very Buddhist before, but now he was suddenly scolded and he couldn't control his anger at all. Fortunately, the sorcerer was weak and frail, and after being hugged by Qi Qin, he couldn't break free at all, so he could only punch Qi Qin angrily.

Qi Qin quickly smiled at him ingratiatingly, trying to ignore the pounding of his heart, and hugged him tighter.

The man continued to complain: " Damn it, isn't it enough to knock on the doors on the street? The stupid assassin went to knock on the door of the City Lord's Mansion, and the two guards in front of the City Lord's Mansion turned red in an instant, fuck! "

Another slightly smaller voice asked: " Then why did you lose a level? "

The man was mad, " That's why I said fuck it! It wasn't me who knocked on the door. I was just standing on the street and those two guards were chasing the assassin and passed by. They rushed up and killed me instantly. Damn it! I was about to reach level 27 and could go play the dungeon, but now I'm back to level 25! "

" How about filing a complaint? Does the GM care about this? "

?s possible'Do you think it " The GM didn't care about the assassin who was suffocated to death in the field ... Fuck, it's my bad luck. I won't say anything more. I'm going to upgrade. "

" Come on ..."

Ji Xuanyi frowned. The guards of the City Lord's Mansion turned red? He remembered that the last time he went to the City Lord's Mansion to report, the housekeeper there also said that if he encountered any problems in Green Forest City in the future, he could go to the City Lord's Mansion to ask. How come the guards turned red just by knocking on the door? Was it a setting after opening the dungeon? Or was it like this before?

No matter which situation it is, the City Lord's Mansion is more suspicious!

Ji Xuan struggled and found that Qi Qin was still holding him tightly, so he could only look at him speechlessly.

Qi Qin was staring at him with a red face.

Ji Xuanyi: "... let go. "

Qi Qin came to his senses and quickly let go of his hand.

Ji Xuanyi didn't know what he was thinking. His eyes wandered as he said, " There must be something wrong with the City Lord's Mansion. As the place that manages the entire Green Forest City, it is impossible for them to not allow players to enter. It is even more impossible for them to hunt down players just by knocking on the door, and even not let go of passers-by. Even Chengbei didn't do this. I suspect the biggest secret is in there. "

Qi Qin nodded blankly and said, " Shall we go now? "

Ji Xuan said: " Let's go and have a look first. If we can't get in, we can think of a way. "

The two guards at the gate of the City Lord's Mansion were of very high levels, and even their health bars were question marks. It only took one sword to kill the unlucky passing mage. As a warlock, Ji Xuan's health would not be that high.

After the two arrived at the gate of the City Lord's Mansion, Qi Qin immediately stood in front of Ji Xuanyi.

Unlike the first time he came here, Qi Qin can now fully feel the danger from these two. Except for when facing Ji Xuanyi, this is the first time he has felt this nervous since coming to this world.

Ji Xuanyi saw that something was wrong with him and asked, " What's wrong? "

Qi Qin said: " These two are very powerful. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned: " More powerful than you? "

Qi Qin really wanted to say yes, but he suddenly remembered what Ji Xuanyi had said to him before. In his original world, he had avoided many things because of the word " yes " in this situation. He was cowardly, mediocre, and embarrassed.

This can't go on any longer. If this doesn't change, Ji Xuanyi will really abandon him.

Qi Qin smiled and said to Ji Xuan: " Not necessarily, let's give it a try. "

Ji Xuanyi suddenly understood something, looked at him deeply, and said, " Don't try to be a hero. "

Qi Qin thought for a moment and said, " We have to give it a try anyway. Don't worry, I will never let anything happen to you. "

Ji Xuanyi curled his lips and said slowly: " Since you said so, let's give it a try. "

Qi Qin nodded, held the guard horizontally in front of him, and said to Ji Xuan: " Hide behind me. "

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows: " Yeah. "

Maybe the news that someone knocked on the door of the City Lord's Mansion and anyone passing by would be beaten to death had spread. There were not many players on this street near the City Lord's Mansion. Ji Xuan thought that when Qi Qin couldn't hold on any longer and ran away, he would not be easily blocked.

Two heavily armored guards were standing in front of the city lord's mansion. Ji Xuanyi was hesitating whether they would turn red after knocking on the door, or after approaching a certain distance. Then he saw Qi Qin suddenly raised his guard. At the same time, the two heavily armored guards suddenly drew out the swords at their waists with incredible speed and hit the guards heavily, making a teeth-grinding sound.

Ji Xuanyi's pupils shrank, and he saw that Qi Qin's hand holding the sword trembled for the first time.

This is inevitable, there is no such thing as violent seed in the game , only the data is real.

These two have absolute suppression in level. It is absolutely impossible for a normal swordsman to draw the sword so quickly. It can only be said that their level has reached a stage that they are completely out of reach now.

In fact, Ji Xuanyi's guess was not wrong. The level of these two guards was level 70, which was the pinnacle of the current level of this game. In addition to their speed, their strength was also beyond imagination. If Qi Qin was not holding a guard with extremely high physical defense, he might have been declared dead as soon as he received the attack.

After the first attack, the two immediately swung the second and third swords at Qi Qin without stopping. Qi Qin held the guard and blocked the two attacks again, but was forced to retreat three steps by the huge force. He stopped with gritted teeth less than one meter away from Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi asked: "Do you want to withdraw?"

How is it possible! Qi Qin's hands were shaking and his heart was beating non-stop, but the long-suppressed fighting spirit that overflowed from his heart made him not want to retreat even a step!

He even laughed and said, "It's okay, just watch."

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, and then he saw Qi Qin shouting in a deep voice, and actually dragged the guard forward a step, and inserted it directly between the two. The guard was also stuck in the gap between the two swords, and when he slashed hard, it even sparked visible sparks. Then Qi Qin turned around, exerted force with his waist, and actually directly picked up the swords in the two hands and flew them out!

Perhaps the official has not yet set a response for those who have their swords knocked away by players. At that time, the two of them paused for a moment, and Qi Qin immediately waved his guard and knocked the two heavy armored men to the ground.

With Qi Qin's current level, it is of course impossible for him to kill these two. It is already very impressive that he can knock them down. Ji Xuanyi immediately took this opportunity and strode towards the gate of the City Lord's Mansion.

Ji Xuanyi pushed the door hard, only to find that it was locked. He didn't know how long Qi Qin could hold on. Ji Xuanyi didn't have time to think of any other solutions, so he had to bang on the door. However, the warlock was weak and frail, and he couldn't even move an important box, let alone break open the locked door. Ji Xuanyi was cursing this useless profession in his heart, when he suddenly felt a chill at the back of his head. Without time to think, he instinctively rushed to the side!

"Crash!" With a loud noise, a big hole was smashed in the wooden door of the City Lord's Mansion, and just where Ji Xuanyi had just stood, something heavy flew over.

Ji Xuan turned around with lingering fear and found two people standing in the front yard of the City Lord's Mansion, but Qi Qin was nowhere to be seen.

Okay, at least now he knew what had just flown by.

Without waiting for the two to catch up, Ji Xuanyi quickly got into the large hole that was as tall as a person. As expected, he saw Qi Qin, whose skin was still bloody, in a pile of sawdust on the ground. He quickly cleaned his blood and pulled him up. Although he was a little happy in his heart, he still said, "I told you not to be a hero. You almost died!"

Qi Qin, who had lost the fight, looked a little wilted, but his temperament had changed a lot from before. If Ji Xuanyi were to describe it, it would probably be like a black and white photo finally having some color.

He struggled to get up from the ground and said unwillingly: " I didn't try to be a hero. They are not good at swordsmanship. They just rely on their high level and great strength ... Hey, why don't they catch up with us? "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, and stuck his head out of the cave to look, only to see that the two men really did not continue to chase them, but staggered out, their heavy armor rubbing against each other, making a rattling sound with every step.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Maybe this is the setting. Once we enter the gate, they will not chase us. If we are chased by two such perverts even when we go up to find the city lord, this mission will be too much. The reward may not be enough for us to reach the maximum level directly. "

Qi Qin nodded and said, " That's true. "

Ji Xuanyi was puzzled again and asked: " But if they didn't chase us, why did they go out? "

Qi Qin thought for a moment and said, " It seems that their swords were sent flying by me ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin: "..."

After a long while, Qi Qin asked cautiously, " They won't kill people out there, will they? "

Ji Xuanyi: " Can't ... right? "

The two looked at each other, and when Qi Qin met his gaze, she blushed again.

Ji Xuanyi: "... Forget it, let's go up and take a look first. "

Qi Qin nodded shyly.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

The City Lord's Mansion is a tall building. When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin first entered Green Forest City and came here to report, they had seen the housekeeper here. At that time, there were still a few servants in the City Lord's Mansion, but now when they come in again, it is empty, with no one left.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " The City Lord's Mansion has never been open. It is the least likely to be discovered if we kidnap people from here. Those people are probably in the dungeon. "

Qi Qin sighed and said, " The last time I came here, the butler said that the city lord was busy. I don't know if it was an excuse. The city lord might not be here any longer. "

Ji Xuanyi said, " There must be other clues. Let's look for them first. "

The City Lord's Mansion has several floors. The last time Ji Xuanyi and his friends met the butler, he was on the second floor. This time, after hurriedly searching the first floor, they went straight to the second floor.

What the two did not expect was that the butler of the City Lord's Mansion was still in his room. When he saw the two people breaking into the room, he was not in a hurry and said with a smile: " Ji Xuanyi and Tianxia Diyi, did the two adventurers encounter any problems in Green Forest City? I can answer them for you two. "

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi and whispered, " Does he have a problem too? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Otherwise, the City Lord's Mansion is already in such a state, and this person is still so calm, he is either an accomplice or the mastermind. "

Ji Xuan looked at the housekeeper and did not ask about the sacrifice, but asked: " Where is the city lord? "

This time he did not say that the city lord was busy, but said: " The city lord is upstairs, do you want to go find him? Please follow me. "

As he spoke, the butler slowly walked past Ji Xuanyi and the others, went out the door, and went up the stairs.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin hurriedly followed.

Normally, even if people are in good health and can climb stairs easily, they will still exert some effort. The holographic game simulates human strength very realistically, so almost everything is the same as that of a normal person. However, the butler's pace when climbing the stairs is very strange. Although he is also climbing the stairs, he is not exerting any effort at all, and it feels like he is floating up. Qi Qin is worried that he will suddenly attack them, so he takes two quick steps cautiously and protects Ji Xuanyi behind him.

When they reached the fifth floor, the butler stopped in front of a door with exquisite carvings and said to Ji Xuan, " It's in here. "

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin, who immediately understood and stood between him and Ji Xuan. Ji Xuan reached out and pushed the door open.

There was indeed a middle-aged man sitting behind the long wooden table in the room. When he saw Ji Xuanyi, he immediately showed an expression of excitement and pain.

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, and felt that Qi Qin behind him bumped into him. He staggered into the room without any preparation. When he was about to turn back to settle the score with Qi Qin in anger, he saw that Qi Qin was also standing unsteadily , and the butler behind them looked unrecognizable.

All of his exposed skin had completely turned the color of vines, and what stucked out from his trouser legs were no longer feet, but several thick vines. The weird cackles he made were simply mental pollution.

Qi Qin must have been pushed suddenly by him and was caught off guard. He didn't have time to release the force and bumped into Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi was so disgusted that before he could say anything, he heard the middle-aged man who seemed to be the city lord sighing: " It's my fault, it's all my fault ..."

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, realizing that this was entering the plot mode. By the time the city lord finished telling the story, their secret mission should be completed.

" Twenty years ago, I had just taken the position of city lord. I only wanted to make some achievements and make everyone's life better. However, I was bewitched by the evil god and brought this monster into the city. In the end, I watched helplessly as the city's dignitaries were brainwashed and moved to the other side of the Black Forest, using the remaining ordinary residents as sacrifices ..."

The city lord raised his head, looked at Ji Xuanyi, and said in a deep voice: " I have been afraid of death for twenty years. Adventurers, the next thing is left to you. "

Before Ji Xuanyi could react, he saw the city lord take something out of his arms and pour it into his mouth, then he roared and pounced on the butler. After a flash of light, the city lord disappeared, but the butler howled miserably, and several vines broke off. A blood bar appeared on his head, and his level changed from a question mark to a level 30 elite boss .

Chapter 43

When Ji Xuanyi first saw the question mark above the butler's head, he thought he was going to fight a monster of a higher level again . Fortunately, he suddenly got an assist . The level 30 elite boss was strong , but it was not a serious problem for them.

Qi Qin's attacks were much more fierce than before. Ji Xuanyi guessed that it was the previous fight with the two maximum-level masters that triggered the kind of mental breakthrough mentioned in martial arts novels.

In short, not long after, the monster that the butler turned into let out a miserable howl, collapsed to the ground , and its entire body began to wither away.

The butler howled miserably and shouted unwillingly: " The gods will not die like this. This continent will eventually be ours! We will come back—— "

As soon as he finished speaking, the butler's body turned into black ash and disappeared. Just as Ji Xuanyi frowned , he saw the parchment on his waist began to flash wildly, so he had to unfold it first.

The secret task on the parchment disappeared the moment he unfolded the paper, and what followed was a large amount of experience . Ji Xuanyi watched his level soar from just over level 28 to more than half of level 32. In addition , there was a generous reward of 300 gold coins.

What? It turns out that completing the real main quest only gives you experience and gold coins as rewards ...

was just about to be shocked when he suddenly remembered something and opened his package . He saw a shiny object in the compartment in the corner .

Since there were no rewards , were they just thrown into the bag?

Ji Xuanyi's eyes lit up and he took the thing out. After it appeared in the game space, the item no longer glowed, but revealed its original appearance.

A book.

To be precise, it should be an atlas.

Ji Xuanyi stared at the [Equipment Forging Manual] in front of him in a daze.

Qi Qin had just finished clicking on his task rewards, and seeing Ji Xuanyi staring blankly at a book, he came up to him and asked, " What's wrong? What's this? "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " Life skills ..."

This is such a bummer. Ji Xuanyi has always been the type of person who buys whatever equipment he needs and has never used his life skills. I didn't expect that he would fall to this point in a holographic online game ...

Qi Qin asked cautiously: " Don't you like it? "

Ji Xuanyi came back to his senses, sighed, and said, " It's okay. I was hoping it could give me a skill or something, or equipment, but it gave me this ... Never mind, let's talk about it later. What did you give me? "

Qi Qin stared at him with his eyes wide open: " Three hundred gold coins, and experience points. I am now level 32. "

Qi Qin is also level 32 ... There was obviously a big level difference between them before, but now they are at the same level. It seems that the experience required for upgrading will only increase.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and asked, " What else? "

 " No more. " Qi Qin said innocently.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Although it was different from the last time, both of them received rewards, and the experience and gold coins were several times that of the first secret mission, but this was after all a mainline secret mission. From the housekeeper's words, it could be heard that the mainline plot would continue to reveal related settings. After all the hard work, they were only given a booklet of life skills ...

All the divine tools and skills in his head flew away. Ji Xuanyi sighed, gave some of his gold coins to Qi Qin, and said, " That's it, it's finally done. Let's find a way to leave first, and then go back to see what's going on with that booklet. "

Qi Qin nodded and asked eagerly: " Should we go through the main gate again? "

Ji Xuanyi: "... If you don't leave through the main gate, you might not be left alive if you get thrown in again. Let's try another method. "

 " After all, this is a quest that can be triggered at level 20 or above. Going through the two max-level quests at the gate is definitely not the normal quest process. There should be another, slightly simpler way. "

Ji Xuanyi was about to leave the room when he suddenly caught sight of the tightly drawn curtains and stopped in his tracks.

Qi Qin reacted very quickly, stopped and said, " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head, pushed him away, walked to the curtains, and suddenly pulled them open. Bright sunlight suddenly poured in, causing Ji Xuanyi to close his eyes.

Then he looked outside and saw the back garden of the city lord's mansion below. Several rows of guards were patrolling back and forth, and outside the high walls was an empty street.

 " It should be here, " Ji Xuanyi pointed down through the window: " There is a sensing range. As long as we find the pattern of these patrols, we can sneak in when there is a gap, break the window from this side to enter the first floor, or use plants to climb to the second or third floor. It's all possible. "

 " Although it's a little difficult and troublesome, compared to forcing my way through the front door, at least there's a chance of success. This should be the normal way. "

Qi Qin looked over and said sincerely, " I think the front door is simpler. "

Ji Xuanyi: "... You are the only one who thinks this way in the whole game. "

Qi Qin looked at him innocently.

In the end, the two men slipped out from the backyard.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin returned to the barbecue restaurant to eat meat and take a break. Just as they were about to take out the booklet to study it, they saw their chat bar starting to scroll again. There will be no world announcement for secret missions, but the player's level will be updated instantly in the friend column. Everyone saw that he suddenly became level 32. Apart from secret missions, there is no other way to upgrade so quickly, unless cheating is used.

Ji Xuanyi simply ignored Wanshi Fengyu and the other two people, and only told this hidden thing to Yishu. After all, the initial clue was found by Yishu.

Yishu was furious about the fact that she and A Miao were deceived. She didn't expect the hidden missions in this game to be so complicated ... But when she thought about it, she probably wouldn't be able to complete the dungeon and reason about the plot like Ji Xuanyi did. In the end, she could only sigh to the sky. This was all fate!

They didn't dare to provoke Ji Xuanyi, and they knew that Ji Xuanyi would not reveal the secret mission to them. He just congratulated them and then disappeared.

Only Ze, Yu and Sishui were chatting madly and filling the screen with messages.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin saw the murderous intent in Ji Xuan's eyes and shuddered with fear. He quickly said, "Let's take a look at what's written in that book! "

Ji Xuanyi then calmed down a little and took out the "Equipment Forging Manual".

Just like the Great Sword Guardian, although the "Equipment Forging Manual" is also something that everyone will get in the life skills that will be released in the later stage of the game, this book is a reward for a secret mission, and its content is unique. In addition to the simple equipment forging and enchantment that everyone can learn, it also contains some equipment with exceptionally good attributes, which can be regarded as pseudo-god-level equipment. Just based on its value, it is actually quite in line with this secret mission.

The main reason is that Ji Xuanyi is really not that interested in life skills, and most of the materials mentioned above have not been released yet, and they can only be found after the next map is opened.

Ji Xuan flipped through the booklet expressionlessly, while Qi Qin comforted him, " Materials are cheap right now, so we can prepare some first. We can look for the missing materials for whatever equipment you want to make later. "

Ji Xuanyi sneered. The biggest bonus for a profession like Warlock in combat does not actually come from the attributes of the equipment itself, but from various strange special effects, such as the necklace that increases curse resistance that he got in Xinmu Town, and the weapon with slowing special effects that he obtained in the dungeon.

Apart from that, magic attacks among the three major magic bonuses are useless to him, and the healing effect is minimal. The only magic effect bonus applicable to warlocks is only used to increase the duration of the debuff , such as increasing the paralysis effect from 1.5 seconds to 1.6 seconds. I don't know how many magic effect attributes are needed to fill this 0.1 second gap, and the benefit is extremely low.

The biggest benefit of him changing his equipment is actually the increase in health and mana ... and at this stage no one can deplete his mana, so the only thing left is the increase in health.

Although being able to withstand a beating is very important for a support, Ji Xuanyi has no feeling about it.

I don't want to be beaten at all.

So the warlock is really a unique profession. You can't say it is weak, nor can you say it is strong. It is another highlight of this game besides holograms.

But because of this, Ji Xuanyi couldn't think of any reason why he wanted this booklet. Was he going to arm himself into a blood-bull type warlock?

Ji Xuan flipped through the booklet expressionlessly. Qi Qin watched from the side in fear, fearing that he would find it useless and go crazy after flipping through it. When he saw a piece of armor, he shouted, " Ah, this! "

Ji Xuanyi's hand stopped.

Qi Qin also saw the armor clearly, swallowed his saliva and said: " This looks pretty good. "

Ji Xuan took a look and found that it was actually a black swordsman's light armor.

Generally speaking, the better the swordsman's equipment, the heavier his armor will be, because the swordsman's positioning is defense and strength, and heavy armor can fully demonstrate the swordsman's ability, while light armor is very rare and can only be seen at low levels. After the level becomes higher, the use of light armor by swordsmen will gradually disappear. Even if it does exist, it is the same equipment as the knights, and its attributes are slightly worse than the swordsman's special equipment.

Qi Qin's skills cannot be wasted. Ji Xuanyi originally planned to get Qi Qin a set of general light armor in the future, but he did not expect that this booklet actually contained light armor specifically for swordsmen.

Ji Xuan took a look and found that it was the same as the Guardian, and could be used up to the full level of equipment. The attributes were surprisingly good. Although the defense and strength were slightly worse than the equipment of the same period, there was a speed bonus. To other swordsmen, this might be a piece of junk that is neither fish nor fowl and can only be worn to look good, but to Qi Qin, it is perfect. This light armor allows him to perform many actions that he cannot do now.

Ji Xuanyi nodded with satisfaction and said, " It's really good. "

This piece of light armor is divided into five parts: head, hands, feet, chest, and waist. A lot of materials are needed. In addition, each part requires two pieces of orange material, [Black Steel].

Ji Xuanyi glanced at Qi Qin.

Qi Qin had already very obediently taken out the piece of black steel in his hand.

Ji Xuanyi: "... Although we are lucky and already have two pieces, we can only make one part of the equipment first. Which part do you want? "

Qi Qin thought for a moment and said, " The waist. Although the power comes from the feet first, most technical movements still require the movement of the waist. "

Ji Xuan nodded, checked the required materials again, and said, " Let's go to the trading house.

With the increase of player levels and gold coins, the trading house finally became a little more lively. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin actually queued up separately before they could touch the trading house controller.

Because the official had no intention of opening life skills for the time being, the materials were sold very cheaply. Ji Xuan only spent five gold coins to buy all the materials for making waist armor, and also spent another ten gold coins to buy some materials for other parts. He did not buy any more.

Because there are not enough slots in his backpack. Although many materials can be stacked, there is an upper limit to the stacking. If the upper limit is exceeded, additional slots will be occupied. This is why so many players sell the materials instead of keeping them for unlocking life skills. It is more cost-effective to put some other task items in the bag than to put these temporarily unused waste in the bag.

Ji Xuanyi searched for the material [Black Steel] accurately again , and unexpectedly there was actually a piece of it. The seller probably couldn't estimate how much this thing was worth, so he only marked it for ten gold coins. Ji Xuanyi bought it directly, but he still couldn't get enough for the other part.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin went to the postman to get the things. The two of them shared the things, and at least they made some space in Ji Xuanyi's backpack. The next step was to forge equipment.

In some games, forging equipment is very troublesome. In addition to gathering all the materials, you also have to find a forging table. But in some games, it is very simple and only requires one-click synthesis. "Domain" is considered average in this regard. After Ji Xuanyi chose forging, a palm-sized screen appeared in front of him, which contained a small movement game. It is also very boring to play games in the game.

Ji Xuanyi played for thirty seconds with a frown on his face and completed the game perfectly. The screen flickered and disappeared, and a system prompt appeared in the chat bar, indicating that the forging was successful, the quality was perfect, and the forging skill experience was increased by 2000 (invalid).

It may be because the life skill has not been unlocked yet.

But these are not the point. A set of pitch-black waist armor appeared in Ji Xuanyi's backpack, reflecting a cold light. It was very handsome, making Ji Xuanyi a little moved.

Should I wait until I have enough materials to make myself a set of this light armor? Even if the attributes don't match, it's okay to wear it to look good. There are people on the street who wear equipment with rubbish attributes just to look good ... Ji Xuanyi completely ignored that most of these people are girls who only care about appearance.

However, when he really took out the waist armor, Ji Xuanyi gave up the idea.

It's too heavy. If he really wears this, he probably won't be able to stand up. It is indeed a light armor specially designed for swordsmen. Even if a knight wears it, he will probably find it a bit heavy.

When Qi Qin took it from his hand, he didn't seem to feel the weight at all and put it on happily.

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but ask: " What's your strength attribute? "

Qi Qin was stunned, not knowing why he was asking this, and answered honestly: " Before changing this, it was two hundred and seventy-three, after changing it, it is four hundred and one. "

Ji Xuanyi looked at his attribute column, Strength: Five.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin said: " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuan hit him on the chest with his staff, which scared Qi Qin. He looked at him with fear and innocence.

Ji Xuanyi: " I'm not happy with you. "

Qi Qin: " Why? QAQ ! "

Qi Qin was beaten for no reason and felt very aggrieved, but he couldn't get angry with Ji Xuanyi, so he had to follow him silently.

However, this also made Ji Xuanyi clear about one thing, that at least this booklet was not as useless as he had imagined, and in addition to equipment, the booklet also contained some records of enchantment enhancements.

Enchantments are similar to gems embedded in equipment, which can give additional bonuses to equipment attributes. However, after Ji Xuanyi took a look, he found that the enchantments in this game are very troublesome. Not only do you need to make patterns with materials first, but you also have to manually engrave them on the equipment – the robes of mages are embroidered with needles. Of course, it won't be too difficult for players. Just draw a rough idea and it will be fine. However, if it is completed well, there will be additional attribute bonuses, similar to the perfect quality that appeared when Ji Xuanyi synthesized equipment before.

However, the official is really boring to come up with such a weird thing. I guess there will be more life players like professional enchantment engravers in the game in the future?

Ji Xuanyi flipped through it speechlessly and found that in addition to the ordinary strength and magic bonuses, there was also a speed bonus. It was mostly prepared for archers and assassins, but it was just right for Qi Qin.

All enchantments require materials [mysterious talisman paper], and one enchantment requires ten pieces. Ji Xuanyi happened to have ten pieces in his hand, so he combined one, went to the grocer to buy a carving knife, and said to Qi Qin: " Let's go, I'll find a place to install the enchantment for you. "

Seeing that he was no longer angry, Qi Qin followed him and said, " Aren't you pretending? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " The benefits are not great, it's too much trouble, forget it. "

They went to the barbecue restaurant anyway. Knocking on doors was a popular activity now. It was easy to be disturbed if you just picked a house. The whole barbecue restaurant was occupied by Wan Shi Feng Yu. No player would ever go to that restaurant to eat. Even passing by had to be cautious. It was so quiet.

However, Ji Xuanyi thought that he was enchanting Qi Qin's waist armor. Although Qi Qin was tall, he was not tall enough. Ji Xuanyi raised the carving knife, but it was not working. After a long time, he said with a dark face: " Sit on the stool. "

Qi Qin had no choice but to sit down obediently. Ji Xuanyi squatted between his legs, pushed his breastplate to let him lean against the wooden table, exposing his waist armor. Then it became a little easier. He pressed the enchantment on it and slowly drew on it with a carving knife through the paper.

As a warlock with a strength of only five, Ji Xuanyi found it really difficult to do this kind of work. After a lot of effort, he could only leave shallow marks on the waist armor. Fortunately, the system was not picky. The marks he made were glowing slightly, which probably meant that he was barely qualified.

Ji Xuan heaved a sigh of relief and was about to continue when he heard the door of the barbecue restaurant being pushed open with a "bang", followed by a scream.

Ming Shao & Qing Feng Bu Fu: "Fuck!!!"

Ze Yu Si Shui: "What the hell?! What are you two doing?! Why are you covering my eyes! "

Ji Xuanyi's hand trembled, and the carving knife drew a long stroke on the waist armor. The mark left in the front flashed, and then retreated and disappeared in Ji Xuanyi's horrified eyes. Looking at the intact black waist armor in front of him, Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi held the scrapped enchantment in one hand and a carving knife in the other. He slowly stood up and looked back at the three people who suddenly broke in with a fierce look in his eyes.

Ming Shao and Qing Feng Bu Fu shivered with fear, and their hands covering Ze Yu Si Shui were torn away. Ze Yu Si Shui was afraid of missing something, so he quickly looked at Ji Xuan Yi and Qi Qin on the stool, smacking his lips regretfully and said, "What? It turns out you are not doing something disharmonious..."

Qi Qin was stunned. Thinking of the posture between him and Ji Xuanyi just now, his whole face suddenly turned red and he almost fainted. He stood up hurriedly.

Ji Xuan looked at Ze Yu Sishui and the other two expressionlessly for a while, raised his hand and knocked on Qi Qin's breastplate behind him with a carving knife: "One level per person." Qi Qin immediately understood what he meant, took out his protective shield, and rushed towards Ze, Yu Sishui and the other two.

Seeing that the situation was not good, Ze Yu Sishui moved away in an instant. Qing Feng Bu Fu and Ming Shao were a beat slower, and Qi Qin cut off half of their blood with a single blow. They screamed in unison: "Fuck! Are you serious? "

Ming Shao immediately accelerated and left Qi Qin behind. Qing Feng Bu Fu, who could only rely on his own legs to run at a constant speed, was about to cry. He shouted in despair while running: "I was wrong, I was wrong! Damn it! I just said one word, "Fuck it!", and the rest was said by that idiot Ze Yu Si Shui! I am innocent! Ze Yu Si Shui! Ming Shao! Fuck it! Please help me! I am going to be hacked to death!!! "

Although Ji Xuanyi really wanted to cut down one level of these three people, fortunately Qi Qin was not that cruel. He just chased Qingfeng Bufu for a while, pretended to cut a few times, and his sword narrowly passed by Qingfeng Bufu's ear, which scared him so much that he could not run anymore. He lay on the ground and cried bitterly, regretting that he made bad friends!

Of course, I'm not referring to Ji Xuanyi.

Ming Shao: "It's my fault that my legs are short."

Ze Yu Si Shui: " I don't have the invisibility skill yet ..."

Chapter 44

Qing Feng Bu Fu lay on the ground , hugged Qi Qin's calf , and burst into tears: " I won't run away , just chop me to death , wuwuwu, Ze Yu Sishui and Ming Shao, those two bastards, it turns out that there is no real friendship between short legs and long legs, wuwuwu ..."

Although he had already condemned it so painfully, the other two parties had already hidden away somewhere and could not hear it at all , leaving Qingfeng Bufu alone to face Ji Xuanyi's wrath.

In fact, Ji Xuanyi was not that angry anymore, so he said to Qi Qin, who was looking at him eagerly with his guard in his hands, " Forget it. "

Qi Qin breathed a sigh of relief and quickly put away the Guardian . He then reached out and gently pulled Qingfeng Bufu up.

Qingfeng Bufu is still crying.

Ji Xuanyi was very upset: " I won't kill you. "

Qing Feng Bu Fu replied: " I know , these are the tears of surviving a disaster. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qing Feng Bu Fu really shed a tear when he was being chased and hacked by Qi Qin .

Although he knew it wouldn't hurt and that he would only lose a level if he died , the visual effect of guarding such a huge sword was still terrifying!

At this moment, Qingfeng Bufu was resentful of Ming Shao and Ze Yu Sishui, two disloyal guys. He originally planned to take advantage of the situation and sobbed and leaned on Qi Qin's chest , ready to make some slanderous remarks , but was avoided by Qi Qin in disgust.

This was the first time that Qi Qin felt disgusted , and he moved away without thinking . If it was Ji Xuanyi crying and falling into his chest, it would be almost the same ... Ji Xuanyi ... Qi Qin couldn't help but look at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi looked back coldly.

Qi Qin: "..."

Forget it, just think about it.

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly, " I'll go with you guys to do some dungeon work these few days. I need some materials. "

Qingfeng was stunned for a moment, but before he could say anything, Ming Shao and Ze Yu Si Shui jumped out from nowhere and asked in surprise, " Really?! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ming Shao coughed dryly, and Ze Yu Sishui muttered, " How can you blame me for this? It's you who are too careless, okay? When I walked in, I saw Tianxia splitting her legs, looking like she was enjoying it, and you were in that position ..."

Ji Xuan was so shocked by Ze Yu Sishui's shamelessness that he was speechless.

" Fuck! Can you, a junior high school student, behave like a junior high school student? I was enchanting his belt, okay?! " Ji Xuan came back to his senses after a long while. As he spoke, he turned to look at Qi Qin, wanting Qi Qin to say something to prove their innocence, but he found that the other party was already blushing with shame because of Ze Yu Sishui's question.

I didn't do anything! Why are you so shy?

Ji Xuan, who had given up hope on Qi Qin, turned and glared at Ze Yu Sishui.

Ze Yu Sishui relied on his agility to hide behind Qing Feng Bu Fu, saying non-stop: " Who can you blame for thinking the wrong thing? You two are always gay . Besides, can't you just take the equipment off and enchant it? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Damn it, didn't I forget?

However, Ji Xuanyi would never admit that there were times when his IQ dropped, so he could only say expressionlessly: " Do you want to die? "

Suddenly realizing that Qingfeng was too small to block any attacks for him, Ze Yu Sishui said: "... I'm sorry, I was wrong, I was just talking nonsense. "

Young Master Ming: "..."

This guy is really a coward!

Anyway, everyone calmed down. Ji Xuan said, " I went to the trading house earlier, but no one is selling talisman paper at the moment. If you want to get it, you can only go to the dungeon. I'm afraid I'll have to trouble you during this period. "

Ze Yu Sishui asked in confusion: " I wanted to ask just now, you are enchanting the world? Where did it come from? Aren't there any life skills yet? "

Ji Xuanyi simply said, " A forging manual given in a hidden mission. "

Ze Yu Sishui was stunned: " What the hell? When did this happen? You were separated from us for only one day, and you found a hidden mission in such a short time? "

Young Master Ming was speechless and said, " Please use your brain. Have you forgotten? They said they had something to do before and that's why they didn't join us in the dungeon. Obviously, they were hiding something at that time, right? "

Ji Xuan nodded: " It has actually been almost half a month since the first clue was discovered. It's not a short time. "

Ze Yu Sishui smacked his lips and said, " Complete a task in half a month? That sounds difficult. "

" It's not difficult, what's the point of calling it hidden, " Ming Shao said, and couldn't help looking at Qi Qin's waist armor: " Is this also given for the hidden mission? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Yes, I did it according to the forging manual. "

Ze Yu Shishui's eyes also drifted to the waist armor.

There's no way around it. The appearance is really too handsome. Although it looks a bit out of place when worn with Qi Qin's current blue breastplate, it only makes the high-end and classy look of the waist armor more obvious.

" Wow, it looks great, what properties does it have ..." It would have been fine if he hadn't looked at it, but as soon as he looked at it, his eyes were glued to it. Ze Yu drooled and stretched out his claws to touch Qi Qin's waist.

Ji Xuanyi slapped his claws away: " Don't touch me. "

Although Ji Xuanyi's strength was only five and it didn't hurt when he hit someone, Ze Yu Sishui still subconsciously touched his claws and looked at Ji Xuanyi with resentment.

Qi Qin didn't know why he was a little happy. He reported the attributes of the belt with a smile, and saw that the other three people's eyes lit up green when they heard it.

Qingfeng Bufu came up and said, " Although the attributes of the swordsman's equipment are a bit wrong, the data is too high, right? What level of equipment is this? "

In fact, there is no clear definition of the level of equipment in "Domain", nor is there any restriction on the use of weapons by players. No matter your level, as long as you can obtain the equipment and can wield it, you can use it. Even if your profession does not match it, you just cannot use the skills, and the damage of ordinary attacks is still there. That's why Ze Yu Si Shui would ask about attributes instead of levels first.

The main reason why Qingfeng Bufu asked such a question was because he was too shocked. Ji Xuan said, " It can be used until it reaches level 60 or 70 at least. We'll see when the time comes. If there are better equipment, we'll replace it for Tianxia. "

Ze Yu Shishui popped his head out and said faintly, " You still say you are not gay ..."

All the good things are given to the world.

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " He is bound to me, how can I give it to you if I don't give it to him? "

Ze Yu Sishui nodded repeatedly: " Okay, okay, give it to me! "

Young Master Ming pushed him aside, coughed dryly, and said, " It's just a binding. Look at me, I am also a high-end player in Green Forest City, right? "

Ze Yu Sishui said disdainfully: " Come on, you? You are such a jerk, can you beat the world with just one hand? "

Before Young Master Ming could speak, Qing Feng Bu Fu followed up and said, " It's useless to force short legs and long legs together. Forget it, Young Master Ming. Ji Xuanyi might as well ask me to do the binding instead of you! "

Authentic binding Qi Qin: "..."

I'm not dead yet!

Ji Xuanyi waved them away like flies, his head full of black lines, and said, " One of the hidden tasks is to clear the dungeon. You guys have helped, so I can help you make equipment. "

" Really?! "

" Fuck you, big boss! Great guy! Such a good guy! "

" I'm about to cry! I'm so moved! "

" But ..." The three people immediately fell silent. Ji Xuan said expressionlessly, " I can help you make equipment, but you have to gather the materials yourself. "

The three of them breathed a sigh of relief. They thought it was some incredible condition, but it turned out to be about finding materials. That's easy!

Then Ji Xuanyi took out the forging atlas and showed it to them.

Three people: "..."

How on earth are we going to get so many materials?!

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " This waist armor from Tianxia has used up the two orange materials from our first armor treasure chest. If you want to collect the other four parts, you have to wait until I go offline and go to the forum to collect some. What are you going to do? "

Qing Feng Bu Fu asked timidly: " How much do the materials cost? "

Ji Xuan said: " Now that I haven't opened the life skill, the materials are cheap, and the total cost is less than 20 gold. "

The poor people are not disappointed: "..."

Ming Shao was quite happy. He had earned a lot of money in the dungeon, so he could still afford twenty gold.

Ze Yu Sishui glanced at him and said quietly, " Don't even think about it. The orange materials needed for the equipment of the agility profession are all thousand-year-old sunken wood. You can't get them from me. "

Young Master Ming: "..."

Damn assassins! Damn rich people! Bah!

Qingfeng Bufu trembled as he went to Ming Shao to borrow money. Although the materials needed for the magic profession did not bother Ming Shao, Ming Shao did not want to be the only one among the three who did not have good equipment, so he ruthlessly rejected him. Seeing the full-level equipment right in front of him but without the chance to get it, Qingfeng collapsed to the ground and burst into tears.

Qi Qin kindly reminded: " You can ask Ze Yu Sishui to borrow money. "

Qing Feng Bu Fu said coldly, " That's impossible. He won't lend it to you. It's enough for you and him to have good equipment. If you have it everywhere on the street, you won't have any capital to show off. "

Qi Qin was just about to say that Ze Yu Si Shui was not such a person, when he heard Ze Yu Si Shui looking up to the sky and laughing: " Ha! Ha! Ha! You still understand me, Qing Feng! "

Qing Feng Bu Fu muttered softly: " Because I thought so too, but unfortunately I don't have any money ..."

Qi Qin, who heard it clearly, said: "..."

This group of people are really bad together!

Qi Qin gave up the idea of asking Ji Xuanyi to lend him money with a frown on his face.

Ji Xuanyi said: " You haven't defeated the last boss yet, right? Let's go and kill him together. I need some materials. "

The three of them immediately perked up and said yes.

Ji Xuanyi accompanied them to defeat the last boss , he took Qi Qin to complete a few tasks and then went offline.

Ze Yu Sishui no longer competed with Ming Shao for equipment. She only wanted the high-end goods made by Ji Xuanyi. Ming Shao was finally able to change his equipment, but his face was full of resentment.

It's really fucked up to have the same attributes as the rich. He has no share in anything except money.

As soon as Ji Xuan logged off, he went straight to the forum and prepared to post a thread to collect materials. Although face-to-face transactions were not possible, all the trading houses in the main cities were connected, so those who were willing to sell could just put the materials up for sale.

However, before Ji Xuanyi had time to edit the content of the post, he saw a row of large red words on the forum homepage.

[News] Tragic! Why is there such a bloodbath on the streets?

Before Ji Xuanyi clicked on it to read it, the preview image outside the post had already exposed the content.

A very familiar silhouette, a swordsman wearing heavy armor, holding a sword, with a white light in front of him, probably the player who died unjustly.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi clicked on it with a guilty conscience, and found that the main floor was full of screenshots of killings , and the second floor was the poster's tearful accusation.

2I

The author: That's right, Green Forest City, it's our Green Forest City again, the place where Mu Xuanyi is! It's the Green Forest City where the first dungeon was cleared in the entire zone and server!

3I

Original poster: Wow ... Ours is just a retirement map. It's already difficult for everyone to upgrade, and then suddenly something like this happens. It's like we've gone back twenty years!

4I

Lu Renjia: Front row

5I

I'm on the 5th floor: Please stop it, this game didn't exist twenty years ago. Can you please get to the point?

6I

To join in the fun: queue upstairs!

7I

The onlookers: You have so many onions in Green Forest City. Let's get ready to eat them.

8I

The author of the post: I won't keep you in suspense and will just get straight to the point. This is what happened. A few days ago, knocking on people's doors suddenly became popular in Green Forest City.

9I

Lu Renjia: ... Are you Green Forest City players poisonous?

10I

Arriving a step late: You can't say that to the person upstairs. It's just knocking on the door. Maybe there is a mission.

11I

This is okay: Knock on the door? There is such a way to play? Speaking of which, there are houses with closed doors in Chongyan City, but they are all stone doors. It hurts to knock on them, and I don't know if the sound can be transmitted. I will try it later ...

12I

Crowd of spectators: I've long thought there's a suspicious house here, you guys eat this melon first! I'll go knock on the door and take a look!

13I

Come from behind: Can the people upstairs wait a moment? Just look at the main building and you will know that you can't just knock on the door!

...

The original poster: I just went to pour a glass of water, how come you have so much water ... Well, it's because someone saw two people knocking on the door and a child came out, and it seemed like they had received a mission, so everyone started knocking on doors looking for tasks.

In fact, the people on the streets of our Green Forest City are very friendly, and those hiding in the rooms are not that fierce either, at most they just put on a sour face. Most of them will even ask you if you can help them with anything, and occasionally they will actually give you a task. but!!!!

36I

Lu Renjia: ... The OP's segmentation is really terrible.

37I

Just arrived: Upstairs

38I

Come from behind: 1st

38I

This is OK: Rank 10086

...

53I

OP: But please don't knock on the door of an important place like the City Lord's Mansion, okay? ! ! Blood and tears! ! !

54I

Lu Renjia: ... The City Lord's Mansion is okay, pretty awesome.

55I

Come from behind: 666 , the people outside our Chongyan City Lord's Mansion are all made of stone magic guards, they will attack people if they disagree with something. Or is it that Green Forest City is too peaceful, so they can be so mean!

56I

Arriving a step late: I understand where the picture in the main building came from. The one who knocked on the door was also sacrificed, right?

57I

Those who join in the fun: The one who knocks on the door will not survive, he is so fierce!

...

78I

Original poster: In fact, no one saw the people knocking on the door. Before the two appeared, two swords suddenly fell from the sky and stabbed a poor guy to death!

79I

Lu Renjia: Please don't talk as if the other people who died were not unlucky, okay?

80I

The author: But this is extremely unlucky! It's so unlucky to be suddenly met with justice from heaven while walking on the street!

81I

Come from behind: Actually, I think this is justice sent from heaven. Did you do anything immoral?

82I

The author: Bah! Bah! I have never done anything bad, okay! Anyway, those two swords were really cool, and they were high-end equipment at first glance. Everyone thought they were official airdrops. After all, there are a lot of hidden easter eggs in this game, so everyone rushed over to grab the swords.

83I

Lu Renjia: Wait ... is that the sword you're talking about the one you're holding in your hand?

84I

Join in the fun: I think so.

85I

Crowd: I'm back! No one's home! The poster is a liar!

86I

Come from behind and win: A moment of silence for the author of this post.

87I

Author: Yes, that's right, it was the sword. I don't know why, but the two threw the sword out, and then came to pick it up, and bumped into us, the innocent onlookers. It was a horrible scene. You can refer to the screenshots on the first post ...

88I

Just for fun: It's very tragic.

89I

Crowd: Wait! If that's the case, it doesn't prove that this incident has anything to do with knocking on the door!

90I

Come from behind and win: Yes, isn't this a normal event that the OP and his friends were greedy and ended up being taught a lesson?

91I

One of the victims: Justice from heaven is not a normal thing!!!

92I

Crowd of spectators: Oh shit, the person involved has appeared!

93I

Arriving a step late: It seems that he is still the one who is punished by justice from heaven!

94I

I am on the fifth floor: Why is Brother Lu Renjia missing?

95I

The author: Don't go off topic! The reason why I knew I went crazy was because someone knocked on the door. That was because I risked my life and went outside the City Lord's Mansion after I came out of the resurrection point. Do you know what I saw? There was a hole in the door of the City Lord's Mansion!

96I

This is still okay: ... The OP is probably Shi Lezhi, there is a hole in the gate of the City Lord's Mansion?

97I

Onlookers: The OP doesn't think that the hole was made by knocking on the door, right?

98I

A step late: You ... if there weren't screenshots, I would have thought you were dreaming, there was nothing at all.

99I

Come from behind: There are victims up there, that must be true, but the hole in the door, it really can't be caused by knocking, right? You are Green Forest City, not Green Paper City, is the door of the City Lord's Mansion made of paper?

100I

Join in the fun: occupy the 100th floor!

101I

Original poster: I'm telling the truth! Otherwise the page refreshed too quickly and I didn't have time to take a screenshot ... I really am telling the truth!

102I

Lu Renjia: To be honest, if the poster hadn't taken screenshots and there were no victims with different IP addresses, I would have really thought it was a green post.

103I

I am on the fifth floor: Brother Lu Renjia is back!

104I

Lu Renjia: The setting of this game is very reasonable. As can be seen from the screenshots posted by the original poster, these two are both swordsman professions, but a swordsman absolutely cannot have the skill to throw the sword. Even if the player would do this for a long-range attack, it is absolutely impossible. Therefore, we can only conclude that the action of throwing the sword is not based on their subjective will.

105I

I'm on the fifth floor: Holy shit! Big Brother Lu Renjia means someone knocked my sword away?! Who is so badass! Is he a max-level character that traveled from the future? ? ?

106I

Come from behind and win: ... That's impossible.

107I

Join in the fun: I also think it's impossible, but what Lu Renjia said makes sense ...

108I

The onlookers: Well, I've seen this before. Isn't there a Mu Xuanyi in Green Forest City?

109I

Come from behind: Are you crazy? Mu Xuanyi can't do such a thing, and isn't Mu Xuanyi a warlock now? It definitely can't be him!

110I

The author: This guess is too scary! And why did they start guessing about people? Impossible!

111I

Lu Renjia: The gate of the City Lord's Mansion was broken down in front of these two people. It's not impossible to knock the sword away. You Green Forest City are really awesome ... How many characters are hidden there?

112I

I am the fifth floor: It is extremely scary to think about it ... The OP should be careful when traveling in the world in the future, and don't offend people casually, or someone like the Sweeping Monk might appear ...

113I

Crowd: Row upstairs

114I

Come from behind: 1st

115I

Arriving a step late : Rank 2

Ji Xuanyi, who had climbed the entire building, said: "..."

I didn't expect that the two of them really went to kill someone . Fortunately, the loss should not be too great, otherwise Green Forest City would have been in chaos a long time ago, and there wouldn't just be a complaint post on the forum.

Lu Renjia's analysis was pretty much the same, except that the door was not broken down by someone else, but was smashed down by Qi Qin. No one would have thought of that ...

Anyway, no one suspected him of the matter, so Ji Xuanyi closed the post and sent out an anonymous post to collect materials.

[Collecting Materials] Server 2 is collecting orange material Black Steel. You can receive the goods at the trading house from 2:00 to 2:30 tomorrow afternoon. Each one costs 15 gold. You will not want them after you have collected 8. Sell them quickly if you want.

Chapter 45

Perhaps it was because the average level of the players was not high enough , so even if the entire server collected orange materials such as black steel, they only got two .

After seeking Qi Qin's opinion , Ji Xuanyi helped him make the leg armor.

Qi Qin's original words were that anything that the hands can do can be done with the displacement of the lower body , but things that can be done by displacement may not be done by the hands, after all, the length is fixed.

Ji Xuanyi actually felt that considering the challenges they were facing now , Qi Qin's abilities were already sufficient , and it didn't matter if he did anything, after all, it wasn't easy to get a full-level one.

But Qi Qin insisted on having leg armor, so Ji Xuanyi didn't raise any objections.

After that, Ze Yu Sishui's comment on Qi Qin's look was that the upper and lower body seemed to be put together by two people , which was very awkward.

" Let me ask you one more question. Don't you feel your upper body is heavy? Won't you fall if you walk like this? " For the first time in his life, Ze Yu Sishui showed such a serious expression.

Qi Qin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi: " That's why I said it might be better to do the hand first. Even though it won't look that good , at least the center of gravity will be stable ... "

Qi Qin's lower body was covered in neat light armor, while his upper body was covered in thick heavy armor. From a distance , it looked like a large piece of armor on his two long legs, like a hammer.

Qi Qin, the stickman: "... Jiang , the sons and daughters of the rivers and lakes, don't care about trivial matters! QAQ ! "

Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to comfort her: " Strength is the most important thing . This is also good. "

Qi Qin was about to cry.

Among the three people in the group of Ze Yu Si Shui , only Ze Yu Si Shui received two thousand-year-old sunken wood and asked Ji Xuanyi to help him make a leg armor. Facing the eager eyes of the other two, Ji Xuanyi had to promise that as long as they collected the materials and could find him in the future, he could help them at any time. Only then did the two people feel relieved.

In addition, Ji Xuan went to the dungeon with Ze Yu Sishui and the others day after day, and finally collected enough enchantments, which he engraved on Qi Qin. Both of them were used to increase agility. Although Qi Qin's speed could not catch up with Ming Shao, he had left Qingfeng Bufu far behind. The next time Qingfeng Bufu made Ji Xuan angry again, he probably would not have a chance to escape.

Qingfengbufu: "..."

Is the whole world targeting me?

Apart from the secret mission that Ji Xuanyi had dug out before, the atmosphere in Green Forest City was really peaceful. Every day when he went online, he would do dungeons, complete missions, and visit the trading house. There were no disputes between gangs, and there were no special missions or anything. Ji Xuanyi thought he could finally relax and cultivate his sentiments.

But it's just a thought.

After about a month of peace, when Ji Xuanyi finally reached level 38 after working so hard, he received a private message from someone about Introduction to Art.

She is lost.

In an unopened area outside the city.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

To be precise, it is not just Yishu, but Yishu, A Miao and Xiaotui.

Because she missed the chance to hide, Yishu has been paying special attention to the movements around her since then. Once she finds the slightest abnormality, she will immediately rush to investigate. However, she was not lucky and only encountered one or two incidents like her wife cheating on her husband.

Because of what happened before, Ah Miao is very supportive of Yishu's work. Even when he found out that his wife had cheated on him, he still encouraged Yishu not to be discouraged. This resulted in Yishu subconsciously following the sneaky legs on the path, and Ah Miao did not stop them.

Calf Cramp is just a lazy guy who doesn't even do his missions. I don't know what he is wandering around for all day. The majority of the troops are already level 30, but he is still at level 25 or 26.

But even so, Xianyu Xiaotui usually walked around in a very open manner, and Art had never seen him shrink his neck and move in such a strange manner.

Could it be that this guy finally realized that his appearance is a bit disappointing to the audience and started to behave himself?

With such doubt, Yishu and A Miao followed Xiaotui all the way. They never expected that the other party would go straight out of the gate of Green Forest City.

Art and A-Miao were both stunned.

bug fixes . Therefore, the unopened wild maps outside the cities are still terrible monsters in the eyes of players. Once you go out, it seems like you can never come back.

You know, although the scenery in the wild is beautiful, the traveling warlock on the forum is still only level 20!

In fact, as long as the city gate can be seen in the field of vision, it is okay to walk around outside for a while, but who knows if there will be any unexpected events, such as the sudden appearance of wild beasts that kidnap people ... Unless it is necessary, most players are unwilling to even go out of the city gate.

And Xiaotui, a loser who was not even as good as most of the players, just walked out so brazenly!

This really dropped Yishu and A Miao's jaws.

a little hesitation , Yishu decided to continue following. Although Ah Miao had some doubts , after that hiding experience, she listened to Yishu more between the two of them, so she agreed and followed Xiaotui out of the city gate.

Calf Cramp walked along the city wall for about half a circle, and then started to walk out again, but he didn't go very far away . He stopped where he could still see Green Forest City.

Yishu and A Miao saw a little girl in front of him, who looked to be about ten years old, or so. She didn't look like a human yet, with pointy ears and was very cute.

Xiaotui handed a bundle to the man, then handed him a few silver coins, said something, then waved at Xiaotui, turned around and left with a jump. Xiaotui counted the silver coins without even raising his head, and walked back with a silly smile, but was stopped by Yishu and A Miao. Xiaotui originally wanted to hide it, but the whole process was seen clearly by Yishu and A Miao. Under the threat of the two girls, Xiaotui had to compromise and tell the story.

He is an art student, and the homework assigned this week is to describe the scenery from memory. As he is a otaku and doesn't want to draw pictures, he has to find inspiration in the game. After all, there is a vast forest outside the Green Forest City, which is simply too exciting. The calf looked and walked all the way, and unknowingly walked to the place where he had just been, and unexpectedly met a man with pointed ears.

People who play games are curious, and Xianyu is no exception. What's more, it doesn't look like a human being. Who knows if there will be any special rewards!

Xiaotui went up and talked to her, but he only knew that the girl was called Xiaonuo and wanted food. She didn't want to reveal any other information. No matter how Xiaotui asked, she only said one sentence.

Not telling you.

Xiaotui had no choice but to take out the barbecue from his bag. But the girl said she didn't want to eat meat. Xiaotui had to go back to the city and spend more than ten copper coins to buy bread, cakes and fruits. Only then did she satisfy him. As a reward, she gave Xiaotui ten silver coins.

Although Xiaotui didn't need much experience, he did need money! After learning that this would appear here for ten days, Xiaotui stocked up on food and prepared to make a fortune! One hundred silver coins! That's one gold coin!

Although the net worth of most players has already climbed into double digits, they can still earn as much as they can, because it's all money!

That's why the calf appears here sneakily.

After learning the news, Yishu listed to Xiaotui the possibilities that this was a hidden mission, such as his inhuman appearance and saying " I won't tell you " instead of " I don't understand what you're saying " to questions he didn't want to answer . Xiaotui was so annoyed that he couldn't even raise his head.

A hidden mission, just thinking about making money, how hopeless!

However, the calf also raised a question immediately afterwards.

If he was really lucky enough to encounter a rare hidden mission, then where was the trigger point of this mission? After staying in Green Forest City for so long, Xiaotui was completely sure that there was nothing in the city related to this non-human little girl. The other party was just passing by and wanted to exchange food, just as she said.

Art doesn't know this either.

She definitely put in more effort in Green Forest City than Xiaotui. Xiaotui was just wandering around, but she and A Miao were actually investigating. But just like Xiaotui said, there were indeed no clues related to the little girl in Green Forest City.

And the most important point is that Xiaotui was sure that he had asked the girl all the questions he could think of, but apart from wanting food and requiring it to be vegetarian, he did not get any clues.

If this is really a hidden thing, it is hidden too tightly, like an iron barrel, and I have no idea where to start.

The three of them gathered together and thought for a long time, and Art suggested following that one.

Since they want to get food, there must be someone who wants to eat it, and it is definitely impossible that only the little girl is eating it. If we can successfully track that person, we will definitely find clues.

Xiaotui and Amiao were both terrified. You know, he walked straight outside, into the wild unopened map where Green Forest City could not be seen. He might get lost and never come back. He could only wander around like the traveling warlock in the forum, waiting for the official to open a function that would allow him to return to the city.

But here lies the problem. No one knows when the official will open similar functions. What if you have to wait until the maximum level to open the wild map? What if the official map function is not opened until the game is shut down? Wouldn't they be useless then? !

Xiaotui refused repeatedly, and even Ah Miao, for the first time in such a long time, expressed his disapproval of Yishu's decision.

Art wasn't too worried about this. She suggested that we could mark the way as we went, or simply buy a few bundles of rope and put them out as we walked. If there wasn't enough, we could tie a knot with another bundle and keep walking. If we bought a few more bundles, we would always be able to get to the destination.

If they didn't stop until the rope ran out, they would just go back the same way and give up their hiding place.

Balls of string are a great way to solve a maze, and they should work just as well for getting lost! Because Yishu's proposal was so reliable, Xiaotui and A Miao were shaken. Coupled with the hidden temptation and the natural desire for adventure of gamers, the three of them finally agreed to the tracking plan and implemented it immediately.

According to Xiaotui's information, tomorrow will be their last day here. That is to say, if they fail to succeed in one try, this possible hiding place will say goodbye to them completely.

To this end, the three of them cleared out the empty space in their backpacks and filled them with ropes. After Xiaoti made the last transaction with him, they followed behind him secretly. Ji Xuanyi was speechless and said, " Since you are so well prepared, you should be able to succeed, right? "

[Art Introduction] : Yes! We successfully followed them to the outskirts of the settlement, but then we lost them ...

[Ji Xuanyi] : Then you just go back the same way. Are you continuing to look for it because you are unwilling to give up?

Art Introduction is indeed not someone who gives up easily, and she really wants to keep looking, but Ah Miao is more rational, and Xiaotui is also timid, the odds are two to one, and Art Introduction has also made a promise before that she will give it a try and withdraw if it doesn't work, so Art finally compromised reluctantly.

They began to walk back along the rope obediently.

The settlement was far away from Green Forest City . Along the way, they placed about a dozen bundles of ropes, and tied each one to the previous one to prevent them from being taken away by animals in the forest on the way.

But after walking back a short distance , Art discovered that the rope that was supposed to connect them together was broken.

When they pulled up the empty end of the rope, the three of them were stunned.

[Introduction to Art] : At that time, I was even more certain that it was carrying a hidden mission. Someone must have secretly cut our rope without our knowledge and wanted to trap us there!

[Ji Xuanyi] : ...

[Introduction to Art] : What's wrong?

[Ji Xuanyi] : Have you ever thought that even if you tie two ropes together, will the system recognize that they have become the same object?

[Introduction to Art] : ???

That's right, in addition to quest items, including equipment obtained by players, if they have no direct contact with the players and are dropped on the ground, they will be directly refreshed after a period of time.

That is to say, if the system determines that the ropes left by the artist have not become the same object held in the artist's hand, the ropes they left behind will be refreshed one by one.

Art: They were not discovered and then ambushed.

Just stupid.

Although she didn't know why the rope broke at first, Yishu knew that the three people were trapped here fundamentally because of her decision, so she immediately began to think of ways to bring A Miao and the others back.

When they came, they not only put down ropes, but also made marks on the trees. However, there was no way, as the area was refreshed. Yishu had to team up with the people in the city and wanted to walk back according to the blue arrows indicating the location of his teammates, but the parchment indicated that they were not in the same area and could not be observed.

After trying countless methods without success, Yishu even committed suicide once, trying to get back to the city through the resurrection point, but unfortunately, even the unopened areas have their own resurrection points. If it weren't for the team blue point, Yishu would have almost gotten lost with A Miao and the others because the resurrection point was too far away, and he would have had to wander around the world alone at that time.

In fact, before contacting Ji Xuanyi, Yishu and the others had already stayed in the wild map for a day. In order not to leave anyone behind, they also exchanged real-life contact numbers, WeChat and Message , so that they could agree on the time to go online and not get separated. It was already the second day, and Yishu had even posted a request for help on the forum, but to no avail. He had run out of options and was left with no choice but to seek help from Ji Xuanyi. In her opinion, the only person in her friend list who could possibly help was the big shot Ji Xuanyi.

Qi Qin saw Ji Xuan standing there expressionlessly for a long time, so he came up to him and asked, " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi simply told him the whole story. Qi Qin was stunned and asked, " What should we do? "

He was not as white as he used to be, but he knew the seriousness of getting lost in the wild without an open map.

Ji Xuanyi did not answer him, but directly replied to Yishu: " How do you want me to help you? " Art probably knew that this was a bit too much to ask, so it took a long time before he replied.

[Introduction to Art] : I don't know either. I'm just desperate and trying all kinds of methods ... Oh, it's all my fault. I've also implicated Ah Miao and the others. I just hope that at least Ah Miao and the others can go back. It doesn't matter if I have to wander around outside alone.

[Introduction to Art] : But if you really have no other choice, then forget it. Don't try to be stubborn. If I end up dragging you down again, I will be truly responsible!

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and replied, " Don't put all the blame on yourself. After all, the decision was made by the three of you together, so don't blame yourself too much. "

[Ji Xuanyi] : But there is nothing I can do about the situation you described. If I want to save you, I at least need to know where you are. But according to your information, I cannot see your location if I am not on the same map with you. That means that the prerequisite for saving you is that I have to get out first.

[Ji Xuanyi] : Can you understand what I mean?

After a while, Art recovered.

[Introduction to Art] : Oh, I get it. Thank you, Xiao Ji, for comforting me. Okay, you guys continue to play, and we will think of a solution. Maybe we can come back with luck, or we can just be a landscape party for a year or two. There is always a way.

However, if they really want to be a scenery party for a year or two, even if they can return by then, they will not be able to catch up with the progress of the entire server in terms of art, and then they will have to be treated the same as newcomers.

Ji Xuanyi hesitated for a moment, and reminded: " Hidden missions are not hidden in this way. They will never be hidden in places where you can't get information, especially in unopened maps. After all, the game should be fair to most players. The trigger points should be accessible to everyone, but the trigger conditions are different. Under the condition that most players cannot leave the city, there should be no hidden tasks in the wild maps at this stage. That should only be related to the unopened plot of the main line. "

[Ji Xuanyi] : Hidden missions are indeed fun, but don't make this mistake again next time.

After a long while, [Introduction to Art] replied: OK, if I have a next time ...

It sounds extremely miserable.

Qi Qin didn't know that Ji Xuanyi was no longer going to help. Seeing Ji Xuanyi close the chat box, he immediately asked: " How can we save them? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " I'm not going to save them. "

Qi Qin was stunned and asked subconsciously: " Why? "

" Because I have no other choice, " Ji Xuan said, " After all, we don't even know where they are. If we insist on rescuing them, we might get killed as well. "

Qi Qin showed an expression of disbelief: " Xuan Yi has no solution?! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

After a long while, Ji Xuan said, " Your expression easily makes me impulsive. "

Qi Qin subconsciously shrank his neck and said, " Do you feel the urge to hit me? "

Ji Xuanyi was silent for a while, then said, " In the future, play less with Ze Yu Sishui and the others. "

It has distorted my thinking process.

This is very innocent. Qi Qin has always followed him. If Ji Xuanyi didn't get together with Ze Yu Sishui and the others, Qi Qin would never have the chance to contact them!

Qi Qin did not refute, looked at Ji Xuanyi innocently, and said: " What kind of impulse is that? "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said seriously: " Maybe it's just an impulse to show off. "

Qi Qin was stunned, Ji Xuan said: " I changed my mind, let's go save them. "

Qi Qin was stunned and said, " Isn't there no solution? "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " Yes, it's just too troublesome, so I'm just too lazy to do it. "

Qi Qin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi said: " What's that expression on your face? "

He was ready to save people because of what Qi Qin said, so he should at least show an expression of being touched or shy, right?

Qi Qin thought for a moment and asked politely, " Isn't art our friend? "

In his opinion, if the person is a friend, he should help no matter how troublesome it is.

" Friends? " Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then shook his head and said, " Just friends in the game, right? "

Even though he was a little immature, he really hadn't used the word "friend" for a long time. Not only about Art, but also about Ze Yu Sishui and the others. In his eyes, they were just friends.

He could help out occasionally, but it was not worth it if he had to put in a lot of effort. After all, he still remembered the feeling of being stabbed in the back.

Qi Qin saw Ji Xuanyi's expression and realized something. He hesitated for a moment and then comforted him awkwardly, " People are different. Some people cannot be close friends, but some people can trust each other with their lives. If you miss another group of people who can become true partners just because of a group of unworthy people, isn't that not worth it? "

Chapter 46

Ji Xuanyi had a bit of invisible chuunibyou after all , so after hearing what Qi Qin said, he just curled his lips and said, " Well , let's talk about it later. "

Qi Qin looked at him for a while and whispered, " In fact, I sometimes think that it would be great if Xuanyi only trusted me, but Xuanyi ... I hope you can have more friends. It would be great if everyone likes you. "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment and looked at Qi Qin.

Qi Qin smiled at him.

Ji Xuanyi turned his head away as if nothing had happened and said, " Wake up, I'm not RMB. "

Qi Qin: " ??? "

Ji Xuanyi said indifferently: " Are you still going to save people? "

Qi Qin quickly put aside his doubts and said, " Is there really a way? If it's too dangerous, then don't go . I'll go alone. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " It's not dangerous, the safety factor is off the charts , and it shouldn't be difficult to implement – provided we have enough manpower. "

Qi Qin subconsciously said: " Go find Wanshi Fengyu? "

When it comes to needing manpower , Wanshi Fengyu immediately comes to mind. There is nothing that can be done about it . After all, Wanshi Fengyu is the only gang in Green Forest City . Apart from them , there is no other organized and disciplined group in Green Forest City.

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " That's right , go find Wanshi Fengyu. "

Qi Qin nodded, and suddenly froze, then suddenly realized: " Xuan Yi , do you want everyone to line up in a line , with each looking at each other , so that ..."

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly.

Qi Qin's voice gradually became quieter: " In this case, it seems that there are not enough people? "

 " If all the people from Wanshi Fengyu come, it should be enough if they are a little further away , " Ji Xuanyi said, " But if we rashly let people set foot on the wild map, probably not many people will agree. After all, if something unexpected happens, they can't come back. "

 " And there's no need to go through so much trouble. The teammate tracking function of the parchment is only available in the city and the wild, but not in the wild, " Ji Xuanyi said, " Just put two people who can see each other in the area separating the city and the wild, and put another person in the city as a guide. The person standing on the wild map will team up with Yishu and the others and guide them in the right direction. That's it. "

Qi Qin suddenly realized and said, " Then we don't need that many people. One in the city, two at the boundary, a total of three people are enough. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Do you know where the dividing line is? "

Qi Qin: "... I don't know. "

 " I don't know either, " Ji Xuanyi said, " So we need people to help us find it. If there are many people, we can see each other, and it won't be easy to lose it even if it crosses the line. Do you understand? "

Qi Qin nodded repeatedly: " I understand. "

Ji Xuanyi contacted Wanshishengyi BBQ restaurant to meet, and at the same time contacted Introduction to Art, asking them to stay where they were and not move around casually.

Art Introduction's first reaction was to tell Ji Xuanyi not to take too many risks. Only after Ji Xuanyi explained it to her briefly did she feel relieved and promised to stay where she was and not run around.

Wanshi Shengyi has always been willing to respond to Ji Xuanyi's requests, because not only can he gain favor in front of the boss, but more importantly, he can make money every time! However, this time the situation was obviously different from what he had imagined. When Ji Xuanyi said the words "field map", the expression on Wan Shi Shengyi's face changed.

 " The field map ..." Wanshi Shengyi showed an embarrassment: " This is too dangerous. If you ask us to help you and we have to lose levels, we can agree to it. We can get back to normal with some effort. "

" But the outdoor map is really not suitable. If you are not careful, you will not be able to come back. By then, it will not be a matter of one or two levels. You may not be able to keep up with the entire upgrade progress. "

Wanshi Shengyi looked at Ji Xuanyi tentatively and said, " I know you don't like bargaining, but this time, um ... can you change the conditions? "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything, Qi Qin couldn't help but say: " If everyone is within each other's field of vision, there shouldn't be any problem. "

Wanshi Shengyi sighed and said, " Brother Tianxia, you also said, " should " , this is not a small matter. I am the leader of the gang. Although the brothers all give me face and listen to my command, I also have to be responsible for them. "

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin, Qi Qin sighed, took out a bag of gold coins that he had prepared long ago, and placed it on the table.

Ji Xuan had expected that given his idealistic character, he would not easily agree to go on this trip, and he had prepared all the backup plans.

There were so many gold coins that they were heavy. As soon as the bag was put down, they immediately slipped out of the bag and spread all over the table.

" Fuck! " Wanshi Shengyi couldn't help but curse, and hurriedly gathered up the gold coins that were about to slide off the table.

Ji Xuanyi said: " One hundred gold, is it enough? "

Wanshi Shengyi said with a bitter face: " Boss, can we please stop using this method of throwing money at someone when we can't reach an agreement? "

Ji Xuan raised an eyebrow.

Wanshi Shengyi sighed and said, " Okay, I'll ask the brothers in the gang, and those who are willing to come can come, but there is one thing I need to make clear in advance, we are just seeing if we can help, and we can withdraw at any time if the situation is not right. "

Qi Qin quickly said: " Okay, that's enough! "

Wanshi Shengyi added: " We are also friends. I can't agree to this right away. We won't charge you so much. We will give you two gold coins each, and you can take the rest back. How about that? "

This made Ji Xuanyi look at him with higher regard.

Wanshi Shengyi chuckled and said, " Maybe we will be of use to you in the future. We have to earn money slowly! "

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but smile and said, " Okay, that's it. You go find someone. "

Wanshi Shengyi agreed immediately and began to contact people in the gang. He even took out a small notebook and a charcoal pencil and started to write down people's names.

That little notebook was made with the leftover paper after Ji Xuanyi asked them to distribute advertisements last time. Later, Wan Shi Shengyi found it very convenient to record things in this way, so he kept it.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin ordered some barbecue and ate while waiting. Qi Qin was also chatting privately with Yishu, informing them of the current stage of the rescue organization.

Ji Xuan cut a piece of meat and put it in his mouth. Qi Qin came over and said, " Yi Shu said he would return the money to you when he came back. "

Although she is not as rich as Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, Yishu and A Miao made a small fortune from the half-hidden mission they completed before, and can be considered a wealthy woman in Green Forest City.

Ji Xuan nodded.

He had not intended to spend the money in vain. If Wanshi Shengyi really accepted all the 100 gold coins, and Yishu and the others could not pay him back, they would have to become his younger brothers and pay him back in the future.

Not counting the useless Xiaotui, the two priests Yishu and A Miao are still very useful. Even if they are not around every day like Qi Qin, it is very convenient to summon them when something happens.

However, if Wanshishengyi offered such a price, even if all the people from Wanshifengyu came, it would only be more than seventy gold coins, which Yishu and the others could still pay back if they contributed enough.

Ji Xuanyi was lost in thought while thinking. When the second plate of barbecue was served, Wanshi Shengyi, who was sitting opposite him, wiped his sweat and said awkwardly: " This, this number seems a bit small, but there are still many brothers in the gang who are not online. I will go offline to contact them. Please wait a moment. "

As expected, Ji Xuan, who had ordered two plates of barbecue and was ready, nodded.

Qi Qin looked at him and said, " Xuan Yi, don't eat too much. You will feel uncomfortable. "

There is indeed such a setting in the game. After turning on the taste system, players can eat without restrictions. However, in order to avoid giving players an illusion, players buy food in real life according to their in-game meal intake, which leads to food waste. Therefore, after crossing a line, players will feel full, which means they are bloated.

Of course, you can continue to eat if you really want to, and it won't have much impact on your character, but the duration of the " full " debuff will increase as you eat more, which is very annoying.

Many players have complained about this setting and hope that the official can consider canceling this debuff , but the official has been playing dead.

Ji Xuanyi was not far from being full , so he took a few bites and pushed the food to Qi Qin, because the stupidest thing about this setting was that the amount of food you eat was determined by your body shape, and a big guy like Qi Qin could eat two and a half servings of barbecue by himself.

After that it was Qi Qin's turn to eat, and Ji Xuan looked at him in a daze.

After a while, Wanshi Shengyi climbed up and said, " Okay, a few brothers offline have also said they want to come. "

Ji Xuanyi asked: " How many people? "

Wanshi Shengyi carefully took out twenty gold coins from the table and said to Ji Xuan: " Including Fengyu and me, that's ten in total. "

Qi Qin almost choked and asked, " So little? "

Just as Wanshi Shengyi's face fell, Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " It's a lot. I thought there were only five or six. "

Wanshi Shengyi chuckled and said, " Brother Ji is a wise man. There are many loyal brothers in my gang. Brothers all over the world, I'm not saying that if you change to another gang, there will really only be five or six! "

Qi Qin: "..."

This guy dared to say that because there were no other gangs in Green Forest City ...

Ji Xuan threw the remaining gold coins on the table to Qi Qin, and said to Wan Shi Shengyi: " That's it, you notify them to gather at the city gate. "

Wanshi Shengyi agreed and said, " Do you want to make any additional preparations? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " No need to do anything. Just stay focused and don't get separated from the main group. "

 " Okay! "

Everything was gathered together quickly. After all, one had to go to the city gate to collect the money, so who wouldn't be enthusiastic?

When Ji Xuanyi and his companions arrived at the city gate with all their hopes of success, there were already several people waiting there with the "Wind and Rain" mark painted on their faces, and there were some familiar faces among them.

Qi Qin leaned close to Ji Xuanyi's ear and whispered, " That archer looks so familiar. It seems I killed him twice ..."

It was indeed twice, you remembered correctly.

When the archer heard Qi Qin's words, he turned around and looked at Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi with a resentful look.

Ji Xuan expressionlessly pushed Qi Qin away with his elbow, saying, " That's normal. I often see familiar people, but I usually don't say it out loud – Stand still! "

Qi Qin, who had been sticking to Ji Xuanyi, quickly stood up straight.

Ji Xuanyi looked at the archer coldly.

Archer: "..."

Suddenly I had an urge to kneel down and admit my mistake!

But I was the one who was killed! Why should I admit my mistake?

The archer turned his head away with tears in his eyes, not daring to look at them again.

Wanshi Shengyi gathered them together, told them what to do next and gave them money. After waiting for less than two minutes, the remaining few people gathered. Fengyuqiqi ran over, still panting, and no one knew where he came from.

After a few people talked to each other and almost understood what their tasks were, they all formed a team and prepared to set off.

Wanshi Shengyi said cautiously: " Brother Ji, didn't you say that you would leave one person in the city? Who will stay between you and Brother Tianxia? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " We two will not act separately. I will just team up with another person. "

Wanshi Shengyi laughed dryly and said, " Is that so? Then you can form the team. "

Apart from the three artists who were stranded outside, the only people Ji Xuanyi knew in Green Forest City were Ze Yu Sishui and the other three, and of course they were the ones to form a team now.

Fortunately, these three people had finished the dungeon today and were running quests outside. After receiving Ji Xuanyi's application, they immediately agreed. However, after coming in, they were shocked by the number of people in the team and asked Ji Xuanyi what big thing he was going to do.

Ji Xuanyi simply replied to the three people: " We will go to the wild map to rescue people, and you three will serve as coordinates in the city. " [Ming Shao] : ??? What the hell? Where are you going?

[Qing Feng Bu Fu] : Xiao Ji, are you crazy? That's a wild map! Isn't it good to be alive?!

[泽于似水] : What?! Wilderness map? I want to go too! I want to go too!

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Although Ming Shao and Qing Feng Bu Fu's performance was a little exaggerated, it was at least a normal person's reaction. Ze Yu Si Shui, who are you? Are you three years old this year? You have to learn everything others do!

Ji Xuanyi was hesitating about what to say to them when he saw Ze Yu Sishui's reply coming again.

[泽于似水] : They won't let me go! QAQ !

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi really wasn't overthinking it. He often felt that when these three people were together, it was like a parent taking their child out on the street, and Ze Yu Sishui was the mentally retarded son.

Ji Xuanyi replied simply: " Then don't go, stay in the city and wait for me to send you news, then go to the city gate and wait for us. "

Ze Yu Sishui was silent for a long time, probably because the three of them had started arguing. Ji Xuanyi had seen these three people quarreling before. They could say anything, including the dwarf pretending to be young, the short-legged rookie, the stingy poor guy, and any other heart-wrenching words. But after the quarrel, they could actually make up as before, which was amazing.

Ji Xuanyi estimated that he would not be able to win this argument with Ze Yu Sishui, because Ming Shao and Qingfeng Bufu together spoke much more frequently than Ze Yu Sishui alone. Sure enough, after a while, message from Master Ming arrived.

[Ming Shao] : We have taught that little brat Ze Yu Sishui a lesson. We won't bother you anymore. Go ahead and be careful.

Among the three, Ji Xuanyi likes Ming Shao the most because he doesn't talk much.

Ji Xuan responded and said to Wanshi Shengyi and the others, " Let's go. "

A group of people marched out of the city in a mighty procession. Feng Yuqi took out a small notebook of the same model as the "Wan Shi Sheng Yi" in a nervous manner, and wrote and drew on it with charcoal pencil as he walked.

Qi Qin asked curiously: " What are you doing? "

Wanshi Shengyi sighed solemnly and said, " Feng Yu is using sketches to record the places we pass by. If anything goes wrong, we can walk back based on his drawings! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

What kind of emotion must Feng Yuqi have? A human camera? Wan Shi Sheng Yi agreed to his commission, didn't he have been brainwashed by Feng Yuqi ?

Ji Xuan thought expressionlessly that just based on the trust between companions, he still admired the other party very much.

Qi Qin: " Wow! Is Feng Yuqi so powerful? If you were there when Yishu and the others got lost, they would have definitely found you. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

No, he should have overthought it. Feelings have nothing to do with trust. It mainly depends on IQ.

To be honest, I really need to find some time to check Qi Qin's IQ. Did his brain get damaged when he traveled through time ?

Qi Qin and Wan Shi Sheng Yi were still holding their breath and watching the wind and rain while painting frantically. Ji Xuan could no longer bear it and said, " At least wait until you can no longer see the city wall before you start. "

The three of them were stunned, and Qi Qin was the first to react: " Xuan Yi is right, there is no need to draw the places where we can see the city wall, right? "

The wind and rain are bleak: "..."

It seems to be true ...

Wanshi Shengyi coughed awkwardly and said, " Let's go, let's hurry up. "

At this moment, Qi Qin regained his intelligence and said to Wanshi Shengyi and the others with a worried look on his face: " It's really not dangerous this time. We won't get lost. There's no need to go to so much trouble ..."

Ji Xuanyi blocked out the noise, lowered his head and opened his friend list, added Yishu and the others to his group, and said to Yishu, " We are already heading out. If you see an arrow on the parchment, send me a private message. "

[Introduction to Art] : Great!!! Thank you so much, Xiaoji! Woohoo ... I almost thought I could never go back.

[Ji Xuanyi] : Well, wait.

When they looked back and could only see the tip of the city wall, everyone slowed down.

Ji Xuanyi said: " To be on the safe side, let's leave one person here, and the rest of us will continue to move forward. "

The people who had been through all the ups and downs discussed it and chose one person to stay.

Ji Xuan looked up and saw that it was the archer.

Archer: "..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi's eyes twitched and he said, " Change it. "

Wanshi Shengyi subconsciously asked: " Ah? Why? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him.

Wan Shishengyi immediately understood what was going on. It turned out that he was worried that the archer would take revenge on him ...

However, Wanshi Shengyi said tactfully: " In fact, almost everyone here has been killed by you two. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin: "..."

Wanshi Shengyi smiled awkwardly and said, " We are also moving forward. It's okay. Our brothers in Wanshi Fengyu will not betray their brothers even if they want revenge! "

After saying that, he quickly added, " Of course, we don't want revenge. We are all brothers, hahahahahaha ..."

No one joined in his laughter, and the situation became even more awkward.

After a long while, Ji Xuanyi finally said, " Okay, let's go. "

Wanshi Shengyi finally breathed a sigh of relief and told the archers to stand still and not run around, then he led Ji Xuanyi and the others forward.

Everyone slowed down and dispersed under Ji Xuanyi's command, always paying attention to the position of their companions and tentatively moving forward. Ji Xuanyi did not look at the road, but held Qi Qin with one hand, staring at the chat bar, waiting for the news from Sleepy Cat.

After about ten minutes, Wanshi Shengyi had already started wiping his sweat, and the people around him also looked at Ji Xuanyi frequently. It was obvious that they had gone too far , and everyone no longer felt safe. Even though the blue arrow showing the coordinates of teammates was still on the parchment, some people were unwilling to move forward.

Wanshi Shengyi looked at the small notebook in his hand, his face pale and miserable, and finally couldn't help but said: " Brother Ji, this ... this seems a bit too far , should we go back? "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment, looked up at him and found that the other party did look very nervous.

Although I told you that you can retreat at any time if you feel something is wrong, but you have come so far , it won't be long before you run into him ...

Just as Ji Xuanyi was hesitating , he saw a private chat about Introduction to Art in his chat bar.

[Introduction to Art] : I see arrows!!! I see them!!! Aa ...

Ji Xuanyi breathed a sigh of relief and said to Wanshi Shengyi, " We have found the border line. Thank you for your help. "

Wan Shishengyi was worried that Ji Xuanyi would get mad because of his retreat at the last minute, so he heaved a sigh of relief when he heard this, and almost sat on the ground, saying repeatedly: " It's not a bother, it's my duty! "

Ji Xuanyi looked down at the parchment. The blue arrows representing Ze, Yu Sishui and the other two were still on the paper. He said to Qi Qin, " Stand here and don't move. "

Qi Qin nodded, and Ji Xuanyi let go of him and strode forward until he crossed a certain point. The arrows on his parchment belonging to Qi Qin and his team suddenly disappeared, leaving only the three on the outside and the one next to them. Then he said to Wan Shishengyi: " Thank you for your hard work. You can go back first. The two of us will stay here. "

After hearing Ji Xuanyi's words , Wanshi Fengyu and several others said hello to Wanshi Shengyi and started running back in a hurry , fearing that some unexpected event would suddenly occur and the blue arrow on the map would disappear.

Feng Yuqi looked sincere as he handed his notebook to Ji Xuanyi from a distance and said seriously, " If anything goes wrong, you can follow this and walk back. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi's mouth twitched, and he almost told Feng Yuqiqi to get out . Fortunately, before he exploded , Qi Qin came over, took the small notebook with a puzzled look on his face, and said to Feng Yuqiqi: " Thank you so much , we will be careful. "

Fengyu nodded at him sadly and said sincerely: " I hope it can help you. Take care! "

Qi Qin was about to say something to express his thanks , but he was facing Ji Xuanyi, and with a strong desire to survive that could clearly see the other party's expression, he interrupted their conversation, interrupted , grabbed Feng Yuqi's arm, and said repeatedly: " That's it, that's it , we're leaving first, good luck to you two, brother Ji , chat with me if you have anything else! Bye, bye ..."

Feng Yuqi was dragged away by Wan Shishengyi all the way . Ji Xuanyi could vaguely hear the other party's dissatisfied voice , but the physique difference between the mage and the swordsman was too big. Under the pull of Wan Shishengyi, Feng Yuqi was taken away like floating catkins.

Qi Qin also realized something, turned his head and looked at Ji Xuanyi, and was frightened.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi walked over, raised his leg and kicked Qi Qin on the calf. Qi Qin did not feel Ji Xuanyi's strength through the leg armor. He stood straight, stunned for two seconds, and then as if he suddenly realized something, he quickly made an unstable movement.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Fuck Power Five!

Ji Xuan hit Qi Qin with a hammer, and then walked back to his original position while Yishu was panicking and saying " , The arrow is gone! "

Although the two people were standing face to face, there was no arrow belonging to each other on the parchment, which was a bit strange.

Ji Xuan focused his attention on the three artists who were closer to the outside. He didn't know what was wrong with them and how they had walked so far . Wasn't it said that the camp was actually quite close?

Ji Xuanyi waited there for nearly ten minutes. Lian Ze and Yu Sishui sent messages to ask them why they hadn't returned yet. Only then did he see the private message from Introduction to Art.

[Introduction to Art] : Xiao Ji, no, we can't get through!

Ji Xuanyi was stunned and asked, " What do you mean? "

There is an arrow pointing the direction, why can't I get there? It's not a maze.

[Introduction to Art] : I don't know what's going on!

The three artists followed them to the outskirts of the camp where they were stationed. The reason they suddenly lost them was that there were high walls made up of trees outside the camp. They went a little deeper and lost them.

After that they went back a little, but then because the rope broke and they were unsure of the direction, they stayed where they were.

Yishu had committed suicide once, so it didn't take her long to go back and find Ah Miao and Xiaotui. She was very sure that the place where the three of them were was actually very close to the outskirts of the camp. It could be said that they could get outside by just passing through two walls.

But why are these two walls so difficult to pass through!

They walked in the direction of the blue arrow on the parchment, and they were clearly going around the wall when they encountered it. However, after walking for ten minutes, there was still a wall in front of them.

Introduction to Art told Ji Xuanyi the current situation of the three people, and Ji Xuanyi was a little unsure.

This really is like a maze.

Generally speaking, if players accidentally come across an unopened plot or map, the normal situation should be that they will not be able to trigger the tasks and dialogues that could have been triggered. How could they be forced to stay in one place like Yishu and the others?

This was obviously not the online game routine he had experienced before.

But it's also normal. If the settings of a holographic online game were the same as those of a keyboard online game, it would be so boring, Ji Xuan thought.

Although most players avoid wild maps, it is only because the maps are not open and they will get lost. The wild maps themselves do not have any danger except for the unknown existence of high-level monsters. Because even if there are dangers in the plot, they should not be triggered by them at this time. Since the three people in Introduction to Art were left there, it proves that there must be some task or easter egg there.

Ji Xuanyi told Yishu his speculation and asked them to calm down and stay still.

Art really calmed down quickly and asked immediately: " Is it hidden? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

If this person was in front of him now, let alone a girl, even if she was a futanari, she would be killed and sent back to the Novice Village!

Ji Xuanyi replied coldly: " Okay, you take your time to find the hiding place, I'll go back first. "

[Art Introduction] : I was wrong! I don't dare anymore! Xiao Ji! Boss! We'll just wait here and not go anywhere! Please lead us out quickly ...

Ji Xuanyi replied: " I don't even know what the wall you're talking about looks like, how can I give orders? "

[Introduction to Art] : QAQ !

[Ji Xuanyi] : ... you are not allowed to learn from the world.

[Introduction to Art] : I won't learn it! Xiao Ji, I know you must have a way, help me!

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and replied, " How high is that wall? Is it possible to build a human wall and climb out? "

[Introduction to Art] : It's not too high. For the three of us magic professions, the plan of building a human wall seems to lack the strength attribute to implement ... Let's try it first, wait! After a while.

[Introduction to Art] : Stacked up!

[Introduction to Art] : No!

Ji Xuanyi frowned and asked, " What's wrong? "

I don't know if the person fell or something, but it took a long time before they responded.

[Introduction to Art] : The wall is not high, but there is an air wall above it, which seems to only allow us to walk out with our legs.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and replied, " I understand. Stay where you are and wait. "

Qi Qin was far away , looking at Ji Xuanyi with a frown and anger, and asked cautiously: " What's going on? Why haven't Yishu and the others come yet? "

Ji Xuanyi sent a message to Ze Yu Sishui and replied: " They are trapped and can't get out. "

" Ah? " Qi Qin asked worriedly, " What should we do? What is trapping them? "

" Labyrinth, " Ji Xuanyi looked up at him and said, " Let Ze Yu Sishui and Ming Shao come here to help us as signposts. Let's go to the art area to take a look. "

Qi Qin was stunned and asked with a strange look on his face: " We are going to find art? "

" Yeah. " Ji Xuanyi finished sending the message, put his hand down, and looked up at him: " What's wrong? "

Qi Qin had a complicated expression : " I am very happy that Xuanyi is willing to take such a big risk for his friend, but this is too dangerous. It is better for me to go alone. Xuanyi, you and Ze Yu Sishui just wait here. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Seeing the other party's indescribable expression, Qi Qin hesitated and said: " What's wrong? Did I say something wrong again? "

Ji Xuanyi was silent for a moment, then said, " I have two questions. "

Qi Qin: " Ah? "

" First of all, if you're going alone, are you sure you're not going to get lost with Yishu and the others? "

Qi Qin: "..."

That makes sense. If it was really in the wild, Qi Qin could still use his experience of traveling around to figure out the direction. The problem is that this is in a game, and whether that common sense is useful or not is another matter. The most important thing is that Art and the others are locked up in a maze-like place. If Qi Qin goes in, he will just be sending food ...

Maybe they won't even see Art and will get lost. If things go wrong, Ji Xuan might have to run to two places to pick up the two people ...

" There is one more important thing, " Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " You are too happy too early. Don't get my purpose wrong. I just want to see what the Easter egg over there is. "

Qi Qin: "..... QAQ ! "

Ji Xuanyi pretended not to notice his expression and said, " Although it is unlikely to be hidden, it is hard to say whether there is any unusual reward. "

Qi Qin said firmly: " It doesn't matter. Even if it's just a casual friendship, I believe Xuan Yi will change. "

Ji Xuanyi: " Oh, then you should do your best. "

Qi Qin: "..."

Because of his short legs, Qingfeng Bufu was not suitable for traveling, so he stayed in the city as a coordinate, while Ming Shao and Ze Yu Sishui took advantage of their long legs and quickly rushed towards Ji Xuanyi and the others.

At first, Ming Shao was very reluctant to set foot on the wild map. He was not a junior high school student and was not that curious. The main reason was that Ji Xuanyi promised to help him enchant all his equipment without him having to provide the materials. So he gritted his teeth and followed.

There was no other way. Although he was rich now, he had a rich man around him who had the same agility attribute as him, so he couldn't get top-notch equipment at all. Of course, he couldn't miss out on rare things like enchantments.

Not to mention Ze Yu Sishui, he had dreamed of taking a look at the wild map from the beginning. Qingfeng Bufu and the others had originally told him to continue dreaming, but he didn't expect Ji Xuanyi to suddenly summon him. He was so happy that he seemed to fly to the sky. When he ran out, he was running at full speed, using the teleportation skill desperately.

Ming Shao's speed was not as fast as his, but fortunately the CD of the accelerated run was only 25 seconds, so he could barely catch up with him. This prevented Ze Yu Sishui from getting lost in his complacency.

But not getting lost is one thing, but letting it fly away to the point of staring at the parchment instead of looking at the road is another.

When Ji Xuan saw Ze Yu Sishui, the other party was staring at the parchment, running forward with his head tied up. Ming Shao was trying very hard to ask Ze Yu Sishui to run slower, but the latter completely ignored him.

When Ji Xuan saw Ze Yu Sishui's speed, he frowned. He just raised his hand and was about to tell Ze Yu Sishui that he could stop, but he saw the other party teleported and rushed forward three meters, then without slowing down, his big head slammed into Qi Qin's armor with a bang.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Even Qi Qin couldn't hold it in and swayed for a bit. Let alone Ze Yu Sishui, the fragile little guy almost turned into white light and flew back to the resurrection point, then fell to the ground with a thud .

" Fuck! " The noise was so horrible, just like a car accident. Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but curse: " Don't kill anyone! "

Ming Shao arrived two seconds later and said quickly: " It's not that serious! Ze Yu Si Shui! Hey! Are you okay? "

Qi Qin also quickly turned around and pulled Ze Yu Si Shui up. He saw that the other party was already stunned. He was frightened and shouted: " He seems to be stupid! "

Ming Shao and Ji Xuanyi were both shocked. Before they could say anything, Ze Yu Sishui recovered and opened his eyes to hear these words. He said " Pooh " with a frown on his face: " You are the stupid one! "

Although Qi Qin was stupid, Ji Xuan was upset when he heard others say that, and said, " How can you be so smart as to bump into a tree? "

Qi Qin: "..... ??? "

Ze Yu Sishui wanted to say something, but smacked his lips. He still didn't dare to argue with Ji Xuan, so he had to get up from the ground.

Judging from the sensitivity of the movement, it seems that there is indeed nothing wrong.

That's right, if the injuries sustained in the game could affect real life, there would be no point in playing this game.

Young Master Ming also breathed a sigh of relief and said, " If you really get into trouble, what will I do ..."

" Did He Qingfeng live up to his promise? " Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but ask.

Ming Shao frowned: " What are you talking about ..."

Ji Xuanyi looked away as if nothing had happened: " It's nothing, you two just stand where Tianxia and I are standing and wait for us to come back. "

Ze Yu Sishui immediately ran to Ji Xuanyi's side and stood there, watching the blue arrow in the city on the parchment disappear, and shouted excitedly.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ming Shao also took over Qi Qin's position and said to Ji Xuanyi: " Don't forget the enchantment on your whole body. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " I'll do it for you when this is done. Ze Yu Si Shui, don't run around, especially don't leave Ming Shao's sight, do you hear me? "

Although Ze Yu Sishui was very curious, he understood what Ji Xuanyi said. If he did something stupid here, he might lose all these people. He was serious for a second and said, " Don't worry, I won't run around! "

Ji Xuanyi nodded, waved to Qi Qin, and said, " Let's go. "

Looking at the blue arrows on the parchment representing the three artists, the further he walked, the more Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but feel that Introduction to Art was really brave. It was almost half an hour's journey from here to the city gate. When everyone was being secretive about the wild map, she actually dared to run so far just for a hidden place .

But then again, everyone has their own way and goals of playing games. A PVP cancer like him who kills people all day long may not have as much fun playing games as Art Introduction, so he has no right to complain about others.

Just when Ji Xuanyi felt that he had walked too far, Qi Qin looked around and said happily: " I saw it! "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment and looked up. Sure enough, not far in front of them, there appeared a towering wall of trees, about three or four meters high, completely surrounded by trees, with some green branches on it. Because it was too similar to the surrounding vegetation, it was easy to overlook its existence if you were not careful.

Ji Xuanyi lowered his head and sent a message to the Art Overview: " We saw the tree wall. "

[Art Introduction] : See, it's not that high, right? But the air wall is really annoying.

[Ji Xuanyi] : Yeah.

After a while, Introduction to Art responded.

[Introduction to Art] : WTF ?!?!?! Did you see that?! You came over here?! Holy shit!
Don't come in, Xiaoji, you can't get out if you come in!

[Ji Xuanyi] : I'm already in.
[Introduction to Art] : No!!!

Yishu sent out a lot of nagging words again, and Ji Xuanyi simply stopped reading them. He had already stepped into the entrance of the tree wall and was looking around.

There are roads in front, on the left, and on the right, and there are corners. It's definitely a maze.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment, tapped Qi Qin, and said, " Where is Feng Yuqi's book? "
Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, and as he was pulling out the map, he said, " He only drew the part from the invisible city wall to the border line. It won't be used here, right? "

Ji Xuanyi: "... I'll send you a box of walnuts tomorrow, remember to eat them on time. "

Qi Qin didn't care why Ji Xuanyi suddenly changed the subject. His eyes lit up and he asked, " Why did you suddenly buy me food? "

Ji Xuanyi: " It nourishes the brain. "

Qi Qin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi took the notebook from Qi Qin and found that as he had guessed, Feng Yuqiqi subconsciously put the charcoal pencil in the notebook after finishing the painting.

He could draw a simple map. As long as his sense of direction was correct and there were no other settings in the maze, he could easily lead the three people out.

Ji Xuanyi flipped through the last few pages before he found the paper that had not been drawn on and began to record the roads on all sides.

Qi Qin looked down, but didn't understand what Ji Xuanyi was drawing, so he had to try hard to follow Ji Xuanyi to avoid getting lost.

After walking about two intersections, the two of them vaguely heard the sound of someone talking.

A female voice said: " He stopped replying to me, he must have closed the chat channel ... It's all my fault, this time Xiao Ji and the others were also tricked into it. "

Another female voice said: " I've said it so many times, the three of us are all responsible, don't always blame yourself, and you have to believe in Xiao Ji, he is so capable, there must be a way. "

There was another man, his voice was very weak: " Now we can only rely on the big guys. Although I am salty, I have never thought of playing the holographic online game as a wilderness survival game ... "

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin looked at each other and raised their voices slightly: " Art? Ah Meow? Calf? "

There was silence for a moment on the other side of the tree wall, and then a burst of screams broke out immediately. Xiao Ji, Big Brother, Big Thigh, all kinds of names popped up, it was a mess.

Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " Be quiet, this is their territory, you don't think they have no hearing, do you? "

The screaming stopped abruptly.

Ji Xuanyi was not in a hurry to move forward. He slowly drew the surrounding path, then took Qi Qin around two corners and found three people huddled together in a blind corner.

Art The way they looked at Ji Xuanyi was as if a girl who had married far away and suffered injustice suddenly met her family. Their eyes were filled with tears. They rushed over with a cry , some hugged their arms, some hugged their thighs, and began to cry.

Although the three of them were all delicate magicians, Ji Xuanyi was also a warlock, and he was almost knocked down by this pounce. Fortunately, Qi Qin was right behind him and quickly caught him and hugged him tightly.

Ji Xuanyi fell into Qi Qin's arms, frowning as he pulled the three men off him.

Art cried, " I thought I would never see you again! "

Ah Miao also whimpered: " We have been trapped in there for two days, and our art grade has dropped a level. This is terrible! "

Xiaotui wanted to cry too, but Ji Xuanyi kicked him away in disgust.

It took Yishu a long time to finally calm down. He looked up at Ji Xuanyi and the others, was stunned for a moment, and said strangely: " Tianxia, why are you ..."

Qi Qin was confused and asked: " What? "

Introduction to Art: " How can you dress like a fool? "

Qi Qin: "..."

The three artists had not met Ji Xuanyi and the others for a long time. In the past period of time, Ji Xuanyi and the others had been obsessed with dungeons with Ze Yu Sishui and the others, so they did not know that Qi Qin had changed his equipment.

Qi Qin thought that the three days of being laughed at by Ze Yu Sishui and the others was over! Unexpectedly, it was brought up again by the Introduction to Art! How angry!

Facing Yishu's strange gaze, Ji Xuanyi coughed twice and said, " He just changed his equipment ... Are you guys going to leave or not? "

" Let's go, let's go! " Xiaotui hurriedly squeezed up and said, " I don't want to stay here anymore. It's even more boring than doing a mission! "

Qi Qin was stunned and said, " Shall we leave now? "

Ji Xuanyi didn't react and said, " You still want to celebrate the New Year here? "

 " No, " Qi Qin wondered, " You are not here to look for Easter eggs ... Oh! "

Qi Qin quickly said: " Nothing, let's go! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

So what does that knowing look mean?

In order to prove that he was not hypocritical, Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " Send them out first, and then we will go in to look for the Easter eggs. "

Qi Qin nodded immediately: " Okay. "

Art said: " How do I get out? I clearly remember that this place is very close to the outside, but I just can't get out. "

Qi Qin and Ji Xuan looked at each other, and Ji Xuan said, " You are right, this place is indeed very close to the outside. "

Yishu said: " That's the problem! There are arrows on the parchment pointing the way. We have been walking for so long, there is no way we can't get out. After all, we hardly ever turn back. We have been moving forward most of the time. There is no way we can't get out! "

Chapter 48

Introduction to Art was so exciting that she said the same sentence twice . Ji Xuanyi certainly would not disbelieve her.

But no matter what , you still have to give it a try.

Ji Xuanyi took out a small notebook and said to them, " If you can't get out , either there's something wrong with my sense of direction or there's something wrong with this maze. "

Art Introduction said categorically: " There must be something wrong with the maze! "

The calf also followed the dog leg and said: " That's right, that's right, how could there be a problem with the boss! "

Introduction to Art: "..."

Introduction to Art: " Although I usually like to play the song "Xiao Ji La", the one I just said is not true. "

Shank: "... Okay. "

" But what Xiaotui said is not wrong, " Art Introduction leaned over to take a look at Ji Xuanyi's drawing, but didn't understand it: " I think you can rule out the first condition. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said calmly: " Well, I was just saying it , I don't really think so. "

Introduction to Art: "..." Okay. " hesitate at all , and led Qi Qin and Art Introduction through the maze. However, after just two or three minutes , he stopped.

Art Introduction expected it , sighed, looked at her, and said to Ji Xuan: " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuan closed the notebook expressionlessly: " I am sure I am not in the wrong place. "

But the place where the exit was supposed to be turned into a solid wall of trees.

Art said dejectedly: " What should we do ... Are we really going to be locked up in here and never be able to get out? "

Ah Miao didn't know what to say , so she just patted her shoulder comfortingly.

Ji Xuanyi was not worried at all , and said calmly: " It's easy to get out. "

Art was stunned and asked hurriedly: " How do we get out? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Go out and die. "

Art was stunned for a moment , then immediately reacted: " Ah! Yes! The resurrection point is outside! "

Ah Miao was startled and said, " But if you die, you will lose a level. We are all over level 30. Losing a level is really a loss. If we just complete the missions, it will take three or four days to level up again, right? "

The calf raised his hand weakly and said, " It doesn't matter. I don't have enough experience to level up. "

This is true. Xiaojiao is now level 25. When he was at this level before, you might think that dropping a level is terrible, but considering the average level of players now, there is no difference between Xiaojiao dropping this level and not dropping it.

It's all salted fish anyway.

Ah Miao: "... Okay, it's up to you to decide. "

Art had already dropped a level before, and if he dropped another level, he would be at least a week behind the rest of the group. He didn't know how long he would have to work overtime to catch up, so he asked, " Is there no other way? "

" Yes, " Ji Xuan said, t be such a'There won " bug -like deadlock in the game . We will be complained about. Since the maze won't let us out, it certainly won't stop us from entering. "

" The second method is to go in, figure things out, and then come out, " Ji Xuanyi said, " After all, the worst outcome is to be demoted. "

As soon as these words came out, all three of them, including Xiaotui, breathed a sigh of relief. Levels are accumulated by completing tasks bit by bit. No one wants to die unless it is necessary. Although Ji Xuanyi said that you may lose levels if you go in, it is better than having to die before you can get out.

After two ups and downs in his mood, he no longer had the urge to jump around, so he whispered, " Then let's go inside? "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " I don't know how long it will take. I'll let Ze Yu Sishui and the others know first. "

Ji Xuanyi did not explain the matter too clearly, fearing that Ze Yu Sishui would go crazy again and that Ming Shao would not be able to control him alone. He only said that he might be back late, and then promised them a wave of benefits and asked them to hold on for a while.

After making sure there were no problems with the road signs back to the city, the five of them changed direction and started walking inside.

Just as Ji Xuanyi expected, they returned to their original place very easily. If this maze really wanted to trap them to death, then no matter which direction they walked in, they would be trapped in a maze. Since it was so easy to walk inside, then the setting of this maze should be that the people entering must go to the base.

Even if you don't get any rewards this time, you should be able to get a glimpse of the subsequent game plot, which may help you find hidden tasks in the future.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and asked Yishu, " What do you think of this place? "

The purpose of the Art Introduction Course was to hide, and although the preparation time was very tight, she should have some simple guesses.

Art nodded and said, " Because we have seen that child. Didn't I tell you that her ears are pointed and don't look like a human's? "

Ji Xuanyi said " hmm " .

Art said: " And when she traded food with Xiaoshan, she specifically said she didn't want meat, which means that their race should be vegetarian. This is the only thing I can think of. A Western fantasy background, pointy ears, good looks, living in the forest, and a vegetarian diet ... It must be a fairy or an elf or something like that. "

" But I'm more inclined to think it's an elf, " Yishu said seriously, " After all, the child looks about eleven or twelve years old, but he's already almost taller than his calf. "

He was shot in the knee and quickly straightened his back, emphasizing: " I am hunchbacked. You know what hunchback is? My real height is not much different from my thigh! "

Ji Xuan, who is 1.78 meters tall, looked at his calves expressionlessly.

Calf: " Okay, even if it's ten centimeters, I'm still 1.7 meters tall when I wear shoes! "

Art said: " You are only taller than Ah Miao. I am 1.7 meters tall even without shoes. "

Suddenly, Ah Miao, who was at the bottom of the list, said: "..."

Ah Miao was speechless: " Is this the time to attack each other's height? Can we discuss something serious? "

Art came to his senses, dropped his calf, and said to Ji Xuan: " Anyway, a height of nearly 1.7 meters is definitely not the setting for a petite race like fairies, so they must be elves. "

Ji Xuan nodded. There were many mentions of the elves in some of the games he had played. In addition to being the basic race for players and being a choice for all professions, some of them were directly set as archers.

If the elves in this game were also set as archers, it would be very unfriendly to Qi Qin, especially when his level could crush them.

Not to mention the weak and delicate mages and the strength-type knights, Qi Qin should not be too relaxed when killing these professions, but it is different for the agility-type.

There is no need to mention the assassin. Although he is fast, he is a melee profession. For other swordsmen, they can also fight him if they figure out the routine. For Qi Qin, it is even easier. The only difference is that if the assassin wants to run, Qi Qin can't catch up.

The problem lies with the archer profession. They are long-range . If it is not a sneak attack, Qi Qin will not only be unable to catch up with them, but will also be attacked like a kite.

Forget about ordinary archers. Ji Xuanyi believes that even if Qi Qin can't catch up with them, he can at least dodge their arrows. But it's different for high-level archers. Just look at the two maximum-level swordsmen at the gate of the Green Forest City Lord's Mansion, you will know that their attributes have great bonuses, whether it is strength or speed. It will be difficult for Qi Qin to block the attacks of those two swordsmen. The appearance of a profession like archers will only make things worse.

Now I can only hope that I won't have to fight once I get in.

Ji Xuan thought about it and asked again: " Anything else? "

Art thought for a moment and said, " I still have one question that I can't figure out. "

" explain. "

" The one who told Xiaotui that she would come here to exchange food for ten days, and then she would leave after ten days, " Yishu said, " When she said leave, did she mean she would come back after a while, or did she mean she would leave here completely? "

Ji Xuan looked at her for a while and said, " I guess it's the latter. "

" No matter what work it is, elves would not be reduced to trading food with humans.

Moreover, this settlement is too close to Green Forest City. Even if it is an unopened wild map, elves should not appear in such a place. Something must have happened, " Ji Xuanyi thought for a while and speculated: " Maybe it is related to the main storyline. The evil god invades the magic continent or something. The elves will definitely suffer. "

Yishu looked at him in astonishment: " As expected of a big shot, you already know the main plot? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Isn't it like this in novels? "

Art: "....."

Ji Xuanyi pretended not to see the other person's eyes and said, " Anyway, the elves probably ran to this kind of place because they were in trouble. I suspect there are other races in other places. Just like in the dungeons, every city – no, that's a bit too much. It should be three cities in each series. There will probably be similar plots. The elves, dwarves, and other messes will all seek help from the players in slightly hidden places, probably to remind us that the main storyline is developing. "

" These elves have been here for ten days. If they decide to leave, they will probably go to the other two cities under the Wood City, Red Leaf City or Purple Flower City. "

The crowd was dumbfounded and had no idea how he could come up with so much information. Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " This is all a routine. You will understand it after playing the game more. "

Art sighed: " Is this the difference between the big guys playing games and me playing games? What have I been playing for all these years ..."

" But how does this help our current situation? " Qi Qin, who didn't understand a word, couldn't help but ask.

Everyone looked at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi: " If it doesn't help, can't you tell me? "

Qi Qin quickly said: " Yes, yes. "

Ji Xuanyi said, " There's nothing much to say about their current situation. The fact that the little girl would go looking for humans to trade with proves that they don't hate humans that much, but they didn't seek help from humans when they were forced to wander outside, and they kept their information hidden, and even built a maze outside their base. They definitely won't be very friendly to intruders like us. "

The calf asked fearfully, " Will they attack us? Is the level of the wild map very high? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " There's a high probability that they will attack us. It's hard to say what their level is. Who knows if they are set to be ordinary soldiers or elites? "

Xiaotui said with a sad face: " What should I do? "

Ah Miao comforted him: " Don't worry, you can get back on track in a day or two, don't be afraid. "

Calf: " I'm not comforted ..."

Art suddenly remembered something and said to Ji Xuan: " Oh, I almost forgot how much money you spent on hiring someone to help you. I'll pay you back. "

Ji Xuanyi looked at the road and said, " Twenty gold. "

Art: "....."

Twenty gold coins almost took up half of her small treasury.

However, he had brought this upon himself and he had to bear the consequences. Yishu gritted his teeth, took out the money, and handed it to Qi Qin while covering his eyes.

Ji Xuan laughed, and Yishu sniffed and said to Ji Xuan: " Little Ji, let's save some money in the future, okay? "

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows: " This is the money I spent to save you. Do you think your account is not worth twenty gold? "

Art said without hesitation: " Of course not! "

Ji Xuanyi: "... Okay."

Xiaotui looked at the large transaction between the two and said tremblingly: " Boss, next time I ask you for help, remember to refuse me. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " That's what I've always planned. "

Calf: "..."

Somehow it was even more desolate.

Walking in is much easier than walking out. Ji Xuanyi even has the illusion that every road leads to the end.

The five people walked for less than ten minutes before they saw the exit of the maze, and behind it were lush vegetation and countless busy adult elves.

It was indeed similar to what Ji Xuanyi had guessed. They seemed to be packing their luggage and preparing to go to the next place.

" So many people? " Xiaotui whispered, " Then the food that the little girl asked me to exchange for food is not enough. "

Ji Xuanyi said, " Maybe there is another plot, but it's not important. Anyway, I want to tell players that something like this is happening. If you don't follow along with Yishu, when the main plot is announced, you will suddenly realize something and go to the forum to brag about how awesome the details of this game are. Understand? "

The calf opened his mouth and nodded stupidly.

Yishu and A-Miao also had their mouths open, but unlike Xiaotiao, their mouths were almost drooling.

" Oh my god, " Yishu slurped his saliva, grabbed Ah Miao and said excitedly, " As expected of the elves, there are so many long-legged handsome guys ... Xiaoji, Xiaoji, do you think it's possible to bring one or two back and keep them in the room? "

Ji Xuanyi was so shocked by this idea that he was speechless for a moment. After a long while, he looked at them with strange eyes and said, " Wake up, this is not an otome game. Have you read the game agreement? You will be sued if you do that kind of thing. "

Ah Miao was not giving up and said, " We are not doing anything, can't we just keep it for fun? "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly, " No. "

The two girls sighed in regret.

" But he's really handsome ..." Yishu said, his eyes glued to the handsome face.

To be honest, it's really handsome. It's no wonder that Yishu and the others reacted like this. Ji Xuan thought to himself that when the elves' plot really came out, many male players would probably be heartbroken. At least half of the female players in this game would settle down in the elves' territory, give up on upgrading, and live a life of drunkenness and dreams.

It sounds a bit weird ... Ji Xuanyi was shocked by the brothel scene he imagined in his mind. Ji Xuan shook the scene out of his mind and when he turned around, he found Qi Qin looking at him warily.

Ji Xuanyi: "... What? "

Qi Qin said solemnly: " Those people aren't that good looking, are they? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly, " Oh. "

Qi Qin: "..." So what does " oh " mean?

Ji Xuanyi said to Yishu: " Don't look at it anymore. We have to find a way to get in and find out what's going on. "

Art finally came to his senses and asked, " How do I get in? "

There were guards outside the elves' camp, but there was only one man, carrying a bow made of plants on his back, and his health bar and level were all question marks.

It is the profession that Ji Xuanyi least wants to encounter, the archer.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " This kind of yellow-named guard will most likely turn into a red-named guard when they see an intruder. We definitely can't go through the main gate. Let's go around and see if we can go in from the side. "

Xuanyi took the lead, followed by Qi Qin. The five of them lined up in a line and tiptoed out of the exit of the maze.

Ji Xuanyi walked in front, slowly pushing aside the dense vegetation to determine the direction to go, while carefully observing the situation in the elf camp, looking for a place where they might be able to sneak in.

They had not moved far when suddenly Ji Xuanyi stopped. Art, who was following behind Ji Xuanyi, almost bumped into him. After stabilizing himself , he asked nervously, " What happened? "

Ji Xuanyi sighed and whispered, " I saw a shorter man entering the camp from another direction. "

Yishu's eyes lit up, and just as he was about to speak, he heard Qi Qin behind him say, " We've been discovered! "

Ji Xuan paused and looked back immediately, only to see that the elf archer who had been standing at the gate of the camp had followed them and was drawing his bow towards them. They discovered it too late. Ji Xuanyi already knew that the arrow was aimed at A Miao, but he was too late to take them to dodge it. The elf's fingers loosened, and Qi Qin had already drawn out his guardian to block in front of A Miao.

The various skills in holographic online games rarely have special effects because they are too fake and can easily distract players from the game, but the arrow shot by the elf brought out a green light.

It's easy to tell with your toes that this proves that this arrow is awesome.

If it was the Qi Qin who entered the City Lord's Mansion at the beginning, he would probably have died even if he took the arrow. But the current Qi Qin was different. He waved his guard at the arrow with all his strength and activated the swordsman's first skill, Sweep.

The huge heavy sword hit the arrow that was less than a finger thick, and it actually made a teeth-grinding sound. If it weren't for the data settings in the game, such a scene would never have happened in real life. Even if Qi Qin went to block the bullet, it would have been useless. Even though Qi Qin tried his best, the arrow finally fell crookedly to the side, creating a one-meter square hole in the ground. However, Qi Qin himself was thrown by the force and hit the wall of the maze on the side.

Fortunately, this wall is stronger than the door of the city lord's house, and no holes were knocked into it.

But it was still difficult. One third of Qi Qin's body was embedded in the wall, and it took him some effort to get up.

Realizing that this monster was more powerful than the guards in front of the City Lord's Mansion and was probably a boss- level monster, Qi Qin immediately shouted, " I'm stopping you, run! "

Ji Xuanyi said without hesitation: " Two priests, heal them fully and continue. Let's go! "

Upon hearing this, A Miao and Yi Shu immediately threw two Holy Light Balls and two Sweet Rains at Qi Qin, and then turned around and ran after Ji Xuan.

Qi Qin who stayed where he was thought he was going to return to the resurrection point, but he didn't expect that two Holy Light Balls would directly heal him to full health with only half of his blood left, and he was still hot from the continuous blood replenishment .

Qi Qin couldn't help but say: " Xuan Yi's healing amount is a bit low ..."

After saying this, Ji Xuanyi's terrifying expression immediately appeared in Qi Qin's mind.

Qi Qin: "... High healing amount is useless, I don't need it, Xuan Yi is better, yes, Xuan Yi is better. "

As he spoke, Qi Qin raised his guard and rushed directly towards the elf archer.

Ji Xuanyi crouched down, trying to hide in the bushes, and walked quickly forward, with the three artists following behind him.

After a long while, Ah Miao couldn't help but worry: " Is the world okay? Should we go back to help him? That monster looks so fierce. "

 " If there is something wrong with him, we will die together when we go back. " Ji Xuanyi said calmly, and glanced at the expressions of the three people behind him. He found that they were all looking at him, with the word " heartless " written on the left cheek and the word " scumbag " written on the right cheek .

Yishu looked up at him and said quietly, " Don't people say that we should die together ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi couldn't stand this kind of look any longer, so he had to explain: " That arrow was obviously an attack using a skill. As long as it's a skill, there will be a CD , understand? Tianxia can block that attack, so the following ordinary attacks are no problem. And to prevent accidents, didn't I ask you to put a hot on him ? "

The three of them just breathed a sigh of relief when Ah Miao said, " That's not right. What if the skill CD is ready? We can't kill him before then, right? "

Everyone came to their senses and started looking at Ji Xuanyi as if he were a heartless man.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

After a while, Ji Xuanyi said slowly: " I don't know if he will die, but I am sure that after you get out, the three of you will die. "

Three people: "..."

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly, " Don't worry, he will definitely find a way to get out. I believe him. "

The three of them nodded quickly, expressing their agreement, and highly praised the mutual trust and tacit understanding between the two.

Ji Xuanyi waved his hand, signaling them to stop.

Art patted his chest and said, " Xiao Ji's aura is so strong, I feel like he can compete with my idol. "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then he remembered that he had not taken off his vest. He had been with Ze Yu Sishui and the others for a long time, and sometimes he didn't pay much attention to what they said. Fortunately, the Introduction to Art was relatively stupid.

Ji Xuanyi was thinking about it and was about to ask them to keep going forward, when suddenly a familiar chill came from the back of his head. Without time to think more, Ji Xuanyi suddenly rolled to the ground. With a loud " bang ", a huge object brushed past his hand and fell to the ground.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Introduction to Art They were all shocked.

Ji Xuan waved away the soil and looked out. It was indeed Qi Qin. His whole body was almost buried in the ground. Fortunately, he was still breathing. The guardian was not in his hand, and the heavy armor on his upper body had cracks, but the black steel light armor underneath didn't even have a scratch.

Yishu and A Miao also reacted. They had never seen Qi Qin in such a miserable state, so they quickly started to heal him.

Ji Xuanyi stretched out his hand towards Qi Qin. Qi Qin smiled, grabbed his hand and tried to get up. However, he exerted force and pulled Ji Xuanyi down on him. The two of them stared at each other and almost kissed each other.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin: "..."

Art Mu Ran poked Ji Xuanyi's leg with his staff: " Little Ji, make way. You are blocking the Holy Light Ball. "

Ji Xuanyi climbed up from Qi Qin's body with a frown on his face, made way for him, and asked, " Where's the sword? "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment before reacting, and said: " In the bag, I ran to him, and then he used the green skill. Because the distance was very close, the arrow exploded directly. I blocked it with my guard and put it away, and flew here with the force. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Did he see you flying over here? "

Qi Qin said: " No, the force of the arrow blew him away, and I also hit his face with my sword, so he probably didn't see it. "

Before Ji Xuanyi could say anything, the three people who had seen how powerful he was couldn't help but exclaimed, " Fuck, that's awesome ..."

" Is there anyone who can do this? "

" If I hadn't seen you fall down with my own eyes, I would have thought you were telling a story! "

" What Xiao Ji said is true. You really have a way. It's amazing. "

Art couldn't help but say: " I don't even know where to start praising you ... I feel like none of these moves can be done by a human being. "

Qi Qin smiled a little embarrassedly, and Ji Xuan said: " I thought you would first talk about the incident where he slapped his face crooked. "

Yishu was stunned, remembering the size and weight of the guard, and he and Ah Miao reacted at the same time and screamed: " How could you slap someone's face crooked! "

Qi Qin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

For the first time in his life, Ji Xuan couldn't help but roll his eyes and said, " That's enough. Tianxia, are you fully healed? Do you have any other questions? If not, let's go. "

Qi Qin climbed out of the pit, shook off the dirt in his armor, and said, " It's okay, but the equipment seems to be a little broken. "

Equipment breaking down is also something that players often encounter. In addition to situations like Qi Qin where equipment was damaged because the level of the opponent in battle was too high, ordinary deaths and battles will also consume the durability of equipment. However, the durability of equipment in "Domain" is very high. As long as you don't report to the resurrection point every day, the old equipment will generally not break down before replacing it with new equipment.

Correspondingly, if it breaks, the cost of repairing it is also very high. How high is the cost? The money spent on repairing the equipment can almost buy a piece of equipment of the same quality at the trading house.

Although Ji Xuanyi was rich, he was not stupid enough to repair these blue equipment. He looked at the poor blue heavy armor on Qi Qin's body that had several cracks on it and said, " Well, I'll get you a new one when I get back. "

Qi Qin nodded.

The five of them packed up and continued on their way.

Ji Xuanyi did see a shorter figure entering the camp from a distance . It might be a child who had secretly escaped from the elf camp.

But that also proves that there is indeed a way to enter the camp from another direction.

Ji Xuan looked in the direction of the camp. There were people moving around, but they were quite far away and no one noticed them. Also, it seemed that the guard had no intention of informing them. If they were careful, they should be able to sneak in.

As Ji Xuan began to move in the direction he had chosen, Yishu whispered behind him, " Xiao Ji, what are we going to do after we get in? "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and replied, " You can do anything, eavesdrop on the plot, or find out how to get out of this maze, or if you are brave, you can try to chat with him? "

Art was stunned and said, " Should we split up after we go in? "

Ji Xuanyi said as a matter of course: " What else? Do you know how big a target we will be if five people stay together all the time? "

Art frowned and said, " What if we each find intelligence? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Art: "....."

Art covers his face: " I'm sorry, I was so immersed in the game that I forgot it was a game. I'll private message you if I find anything. "

Xiaotui came up and said, " Can I wait for you guys outside? It feels like a horror escape game once I get in there. I hate horror games the most ..."

Ji Xuanyi said indifferently: " It's up to you. "

Ah Miao said: " I think it's best to go in. At worst, I can just go back to the living place. At best, I might be able to find out some information. Don't you want to know the main storyline? "

Xiaotui hesitated for a moment, gritted his teeth and said, " Okay, I'll go in and take a look too! "

As he was speaking, Ji Xuanyi stopped and said, " Look, there it is. "

He raised his hand and pointed, and everyone saw it.

Outside the camp, a hole of moderate size was drilled into the plant fence, through which one could see a lot of linen and wooden debris covering the inside.

Xiaotui thought of something and said, " Walking from here? Could the kid you just saw have sneaked out? "

" He must have sneaked out, and he was most likely the one you exchanged food with, " Ji Xuan said. " This setting is too cliché. The child is either ignorant or too sensible, and sneaked out, and ended up attracting bad guys. "

Calf: "..."

Art: "....."

Ah Miao: "..."

Ji Xuan glanced at them and added expressionlessly: " The bad guys also called their companions. "

Yishu laughed dryly and thought, you are not a companion, you are a boss !

Ah Miao also said: " Let's go in quickly. "

Qi Qin showed a hesitant look on his face and said, " This hole is too small. I can't seem to get in ..."

Ji Xuan glanced at him and learned his lesson this time. He said, " Take off your equipment and put it back on when you go in. "

Qi Qin: " I feel like I can't get in even if I take it off ..."

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment and looked him over.

Qi Qin is over 1.9 meters tall, and looks even taller after he built up his muscles. It is indeed possible that he cannot get in.

However, it is impossible to leave Qi Qin's combat power outside. If the four of them with weak and delicate magic professions go in to take risks, it would be no different from delivering food.

Ji Xuanyi hesitated for a moment and said, " Let's try it first. If it doesn't work, widen the hole a little. "

Only then did Qi Qin nod.

Starting with the smallest, sleepy cat, they crawled in one by one.

The child was estimated to be about 1.7 meters tall, so it was quite easy for the three of them to get in, especially Ah Miao and Xiaotui. There was still a lot of space when they got in, and it was also okay for them. From the beginning of Ji Xuan, they felt a little stuck.

Fortunately, the fabric of his warlock robe was smooth, so although it was a bit tight, he could still get through with a little effort and tilt his shoulder to the side.

Finally, it's Qi Qin.

After Qi Qin took off his armor, there was only a white shirt left inside. He thought that the less he wore, the better, so he was about to take it off. Just as he revealed his abdominal muscles, Ji Xuanyi heard strange noises from three people next to him.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

day!

Ji Xuanyi said with a dark face: " That's it. You can't get through with your clothes on, and you can't get through without them on. Let's try it. "

The three artists were about to protest when they saw Ji Xuanyi's ferocious eyes and immediately fell silent, not daring to speak anymore.

Qi Qin squatted down and just as he put his head in, he got stuck and said quickly: " No, no, I can't get in. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " Lie on the ground, put your hand in, and we will pull you out. "

Qi Qin had no choice but to do as he was told. She passed her hands through the cave entrance to Ji Xuanyi, and Yishu hugged Ji Xuanyi's waist while the other two hugged hers, preparing to pull her in with force.

But there was no way. Qi Qin was so big and his arms were not thin, so he got stuck halfway in.

Ji Xuanyi couldn't believe it and said, "... How did you gain so much weight? "

Qi Qin: " QAQ ! I, I'm exercising! "

It was Ji Xuanyi who asked him to find time to exercise!

Ji Xuanyi also remembered and couldn't help but sigh and said, " There's nothing we can do.

Cut the fence and you go out first, Tian Xia. "

Qi Qin retreated feeling aggrieved, lying on the ground as he watched the four people inside cut the fence to make way for him.

The tool for cutting the fence was taken out by Ji Xuanyi from a mess of materials. It was a very thin and sharp stone called a sharp stone. It was originally used to make equipment for Qi Qin, but now it was just right for cutting the fence.

However, this kind of stone also has a disadvantage, that is, it does not have a handle like a knife, so it is easy to prick your hand. Yishu was in a trance for some reason, and while he was cutting, blood spurted out from his hands. He threw himself a holy light ball without any care and continued cutting.

It took half an hour to finally widen the entrance of the cave and let Qi Qin in.

Ah Miao looked at Yishu's bloodstained sleeves with a frown on his face and said, " You haven't even scratched your hands a few times on your calves. Yishu, what are you thinking about? Why are you so absent-minded? "

Yishu pondered for a moment and said, " Xiaoji also has abdominal muscles on his stomach ..." "

Everyone: "..."

The artist was fascinated: " The waist is so thin ..." "

Everyone: "..."

Qi Qin: " QAQ ! "

Let go of his Xuanyi!

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " Do you want to die? "

Art: " I'm sorry I was wrong! "

Ah Miao quickly said: " Can everyone get back to the main point? Now is not the time to discuss this! "

Xiaotui suddenly said calmly: " That's right, let's find a way out of the maze as soon as possible! "

Ji Xuanyi let Yishu go for the time being and said, " Let's take a look at the situation outside first.

The others all nodded.

The place where they were now was a wooden house. The space was small and it was very crowded for five people to stand together. Judging from the size, this should be the place where the elf child lived alone. No wonder he could sneak out from time to time.

There is only one window in the room, which is probably sealed to prevent people from seeing what's going on inside the room. The only thing left is the door.

Five people crowded together to the door. Ji Xuan opened the door a little and looked outside.

The adult elves were still packing up, but none of them even glanced over here.

Ji Xuanyi whispered: " Strange ..."

Qi Qin said: " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " Why are there no female elves? There are only men here. "

The calf said: " Are they all gay—— "

Art slapped him on the head and whispered, " How can there be such a weird setting! Besides, didn't you see the little girl? How can a gay man have a baby! "

The calf said aggrievedly: " Don't novels say that elves grow from trees? "

Art choked and said, " But there can't be no girls! "

Ji Xuanyi suddenly saw a shorter figure among the busy elves. He patted his calf's head and said, " Look! "

Xiaotui muttered something about patting his head, and looked in the direction Ji Xuan pointed.

An elf girl was looking around among the busy adults, not knowing what she was looking for.

Xiaotui said excitedly: " It's her! The girl who asked me to buy food! "

Yishu couldn't help but glance at Ji Xuanyi, and found that he was also looking at him. He immediately understood what he meant and asked tentatively: " Try to see if the little girl can talk to you? "

Whether she will pay attention to them depends on how much she likes her calves.

Xiaotui patted his chest and said, " There will be no problem! We have been together for ten days . She must still remember me and know that I am the one who gave her food! "

Art said coldly: " It's not giving , it's selling, and it's selling at a high price . My God, what if she always thinks you are a profiteer? "

The calf retorted: " How could you do business with me for ten days if you think I'm a profiteer? "

Art: " You were the only one running outside, weren't you? "

The calf choked and said, " What do you know ... I'm just doing the mission , how can I say I'm selling it! "

Ji Xuanyi: " Kong Yiji, please control yourself. "

Calf: "..."

I feel very wronged.

Ji Xuan said: " It's better to have someone to talk to than to run around like a headless fly. You can give it a try, Xiaotui. "

" That's what I said ..." Art muttered, " But I always have a bad feeling. "

The four of them hid behind the door, leaving Kong Yiji ... Pah! Leaving Xiaotui alone near the crack of the door , with half of his face exposed, praying desperately in his heart that he would look over when he was discovered.

This is really a test of courage. There are elves walking around outside . If you are seen by accident, you will most likely be gone.

Xiaotui held on for ten seconds and didn't see him , so he retracted his face tremblingly and looked at the four people behind the door.

Ji Xuanyi said: " It's only been a short while , continue. "

My calves were about to cry, thinking that I should have just said that I was not familiar with it , why was I arguing with art?

Qi Qin held up the guard and encouraged: " Don't worry , if someone finds you and comes over, I will knock him out! "

The calf said with a sad face: " Boss, he is an archer, he won't come over to kill me! "

That's right ...

Qi Qin put down the guard awkwardly.

Ah Miao said: " It doesn't matter. Only half of your face is exposed. If someone sees you, just close the door immediately. Then, if you flash past, I don't think they will recognize you as a stranger. "

Art said: " A-Meow, please speak with your conscience. With the appearance of Xiao Jiao, he is very recognizable among ordinary people. Among the elves ..."

Ah Miao took one look at Xiao Jiao's moon-like face and couldn't help but be convinced.

Shank: "... Men don't look at faces, okay? Stop attacking my looks! "

Ji Xuanyi said: " It's good that he's recognizable. Other elves may not recognize him, but that little girl will definitely recognize him. Come on, little leg. "

The other three also gave Xiaotui encouraging glances and said in unison: " Keep going, Xiaotui! "

Xiaotui gritted his teeth, thinking that it was no use just hanging his face here, it was too passive. Instead of hanging on the line of death, he might as well give it a try!

Xiaotui opened the door a crack, revealing half of his face, and called out, " Xiao Nuo! "

The doors outside stopped and looked around for the source of the sound. Xiaotui immediately closed the door and leaned against the wall, covering his throbbing chest.

They didn't expect him to be so brave. The other four looked at him in amazement.

The calf was completely weak, and he said with a weak breath: " Were you not discovered? "

This blur was not an exaggeration. His heart was beating too fast and he was almost kicked off the line. Ah Miao hurriedly said, " Shh! Shh! Calf! Hold on! We haven't been discovered! Relax, relax! "

Xiaotui took a deep breath quickly, and after a long time, the system finally lifted the alarm.

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief. If the calf had fallen off the line, it would have taken a long time to crawl back.

Art said: " What's going on outside? "

The calf sniffed: " I'm the one watching again? "

All four of them had an expression of " what else? "

The calf had no choice but to open the door a crack again with grievance.

Perhaps because they didn't see the calf, they returned to their previous behavior, moving things and walking around busily.

" It seems to be okay. " said the calf.

Ji Xuanyi touched his chin and said, It seems that " the AI here is not very high ... The guard at the door should be a boss- level monster, and the ones inside are all miscellaneous soldiers . " Xiaotui looked at the question marks on their heads and couldn't help but say, " Even if they are just ordinary soldiers , monsters of this level are very scary. I can probably kill them one by one. "

This is true.

Ji Xuanyi said: " See how the little girl is doing. "

Xiaotui also reacted and quickly opened the door again, looking for Xiaonuo, only to see that the girl was still standing in the same place as at the beginning, but she was no longer looking around, but was staring at Xiaotui.

Xiaotui was stunned, and happily retracted his head, saying to Ji Xuan: " She saw me! She recognized me! "

Ji Xuanyi asked: " Is she here? "

Xiaotui was stunned and said hesitantly : " It seems not? Let me take another look! "

Ji Xuanyi frowned, and saw the calf sticking out half of its head, looking for a long time, and then retracting it, saying in confusion: " It's gone ... "

" Gone? " Art asked, " What did she do? "

Qi Qin said: " Could it be that she recognized Xiaotui as her benefactor, so she is looking for a way to send us out? "

Ah Miao said: " Not so smart ... "

Ji Xuanyi also said: " She is indeed not that smart. Even if there is a story behind her, she should have only two reactions to our presence here. The first is that she has a high degree of favorability towards Xiaotui and thinks we are lost, so she comes over to ask if we need help. The second is that she has a low degree of favorability towards Xiaotui and thinks we are invaders, so she goes to inform the upper elves. "

Everyone looked at the calf.

The calf said aggrievedly: " Isn't there a third type that's neither too high nor too low? "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " It's impossible for them to ignore us. After all, their function is to advance the plot when necessary. If there really is a moderate favorability, they will probably round it up. Do you think you are 4 or 5? "

Calf: "..."

Art said angrily: " You are allowed to take other people's money! "

The calf fell to the ground, muttering: " You have to pay for what you have done. Let me die. One level for one gold coin. It's worth it. "

Everyone: "..."

Ah Miao said: " Don't give up treatment! We can still save him! "

Ji Xuanyi also said: " That's right, let's go somewhere else before they come. "

The calf said: " Where are you going? There are so many people outside. "

Qi Qin asked: " Shall we go out from the cave again? "

Art said: " If we block the hole, how can we get in? We have to get out of the maze! "

Calf: " Just go back and die! "

Ah Miao: " Don't give up on yourself ... "

The cabin was in chaos, noisy and noisy. Ji Xuan could no longer bear it and said, " Shut up! "

Everyone suddenly became quiet as a chicken.

Ji Xuan said, " All those outside are at the level of miscellaneous soldiers . Although their levels are high, they won't kill anyone instantly. Only Xiaotui and I need to be careful. Let's go out directly. Ah Miao and Yishu should heal as much as possible. Tianxia, you know what you have to do, but be careful, no one should attack. The elves should be a friendly force in the later stages of the main story. Killing them here will affect your reputation. "

Art immediately asked: " What should we do after we get out? "

" Look for someone you can talk to. It's impossible for everyone here to be aggressive. There must be someone you can talk to, " Ji Xuan said. " Everyone, walk in a group. The calf stands in the middle, and the three of us stand on the outside. The world is around us. If anyone attacks us, try to block it. If you can't block the attack, Ah Miao and Art, it's up to you. "

Ah Miao nodded and said, " Okay. "

" Are you ready? " Ji Xuanyi asked.

" alright! "

Ji Xuanyi opened the door, and five people rushed out together, almost breaking the door frame. As expected, the people who were carrying things turned red as soon as they saw them, roared, took out wooden bows and arrows from their backs, and attacked them.

However, the fighting power of these people was obviously not comparable to that of the one at the door. Qi Qin blocked a large number of them with a wave of his guardian. Occasionally, a few that were missed were knocked away by Ji Xuanyi's staff. But his calf was unlucky and was hit by an arrow on the forehead, which almost scared him to death. Fortunately, he still had some blood left and was beaten back by Yishu and Ah Miao in a second.

Ji Xuanyi walked in the front, and the five of them moved forward in a crowded manner. However, there were so many miscellaneous soldiers and monsters in this camp that they could not see clearly where the green names were. Just when Ji Xuanyi was almost irritated by the continuous attacks and was about to go crazy, they suddenly stopped.

The five of them were stunned.

Art said: "The green name appeared!"

Everyone looked towards Yishu, and saw that the little girl who had run away earlier came back, accompanied by a man who was dressed gorgeously and looked noble.

Ah Miao took a breath and said, "Is this the legendary elf prince?!"

Art also said: "The king is also possible, after all, there shouldn't be old people among elves ... Really handsome!"

The three men present: "... Can you please wake up a little."

These two girls are like they will immediately surrender to the enemy if the other party smiles at them !!

Art laughed dryly: "It doesn't exist. It doesn't exist."

Ah Miao also quickly agreed.

At this time, the man next to the little girl started talking, probably in plot mode, and the expression on his face was very vivid.

"The minions of the evil god are spreading across the continent. The proud elves are willing to contribute their strength to fight against the evil god," said Yishu and Ah Miao, with a worried look on their faces. "But the time has not come yet. We are displaced and can only wander around trying to recover. Intruders, you should have paid the price with your lives, but now, I will give you a chance."

"As long as you defeat our most heroic warriors, you can leave here and receive our gifts. Otherwise, please die here!"

Art suddenly woke up and said, "Shit! Their most heroic warrior is not the one at the door?!"

Ji Xuanyi's face also looked ugly.

Generally speaking, if the level is not high enough, the plot cannot be triggered, unless it is an Easter egg or something like that, but now it seems that this is obviously not an Easter egg, it is a life-threatening thing!

If you connect it to the background just mentioned, you will understand that the elves are hiding to recuperate. I guess the setting of this place is that players who break in early will have to die. Only after the level is improved in the later stage or the correct plot is opened can the task here be completed.

The maze that cannot be exited is probably to ensure that it is not discovered in advance by curious players. Otherwise, if the maze can be entered and exited at will, many players will definitely come to see it, but if they enter, they will die. Unless they are fanatical fans of the plot, most of the remaining players will not approach here.

The calf trembled and said: " Didn't you say there would be an Easter egg? Why do we suddenly have to fight the boss ? "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " Didn't you hear what he said? There's a gift for winning. If this isn't an Easter egg, what is it? "

" We have to win the fight ..." said the calf.

Yishu took a deep breath and said to comfort himself: " Let's think of it this way. Just treat him as a wild boss . Aren't wild bosses difficult to defeat? And even if you defeat a wild boss , you may not get any loot. The things given here must be good things! "

Xiaotui said: " I heard that the wild bosses drop money. Do they give money away? "

Ah Miao said seriously: " Xiaotui, you should check out the forum more often. This rumor has been debunked a long time ago. The wild boss just has a higher chance of dropping money, but there are times when it doesn't drop money! "

Calf: " Okay, no matter what's lost, thank God if you can win. Thigh! Thigh! It's up to you! "

He stopped talking. He probably knew they couldn't get out unless they committed suicide, so he just waited there for them to come up and talk to him.

Too arrogant ... Ji Xuan thought expressionlessly.

Every time this happens, I feel annoyed that I am not producing anything.

When the little calf saw that they were not moving, he immediately ran to the little girl and said with a sad face: " Xiao Nuo, we are friends after all, right? Can't you help us beg for mercy and ask your uncle to let us go? "

Xiao Nuo didn't react and looked at him with a frown.

Ah Miao was speechless and said: " Xiaotui, wake up! I can't understand what you are saying! " Xiaotui glanced at Xiaonuo who was looking down at him, swallowed his saliva, and said to Xiaonuo: " Um, please, can you help me? "

I understood this sentence.

Xiao Nuo showed a hesitant look on her face. After a long while, she raised her head and said to the man, " Wang, they are not bad people ..."

Xiaotui's face showed joy and he made a gesture of success to Ji Xuanyi.

Art was dumbfounded: " How can this be possible? Wasn't this man called by the little girl? Why is he begging for mercy now? "

Ji Xuanyi said, " Maybe I guessed wrong. This Xiao Nuo obviously has a personality setting. Maybe she thinks that calling people here is helping us? Otherwise, if it were someone else, they would have been shot to death when they came out of the house. "

Art smacked his lips and said, " That's not right. This is obviously asking us to die ..."

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " If you are at a high enough level, then it won't be a problem. However, at our level, it is very likely that we will be killed by the plot . We will die anyway, whether we beg for mercy or not. "

Art said: " Then if we lose the fight later, let's commit suicide together and return to the living world. We can die with dignity ..."

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything. He felt that with Qi Qin around, there was still a chance. Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin who was frowning, and thought, if only I had helped him change his upper body equipment before coming ... Or maybe it was just my own fault for being lazy. As Ji Xuan was thinking, the man spoke: " Noel, I haven't investigated the matter of you sneaking out yet. "

The little girl shrank back and said, " I'm sorry, Wang, but they are really not bad people. " My calf was almost moved to tears by this little girl.

The one called Wang said to the girl gently: " Okay, I believe you, but you know that the rules cannot be broken. "

The king clapped his hands, and a man walked out from the crowd behind him, still covered in dust. It was the boss- level elf archer that Ji Xuanyi and his friends met at the gate.

Obviously, his face has recovered and he no longer has a crooked nose or squinting eyes. However, even the two artists had no time to be happy about this matter. They were completely disheartened. After all, this monster could knock Qi Qin away, so killing them was just a matter of moving one's fingers.

Fortunately, the one who didn't attack them directly, Wang Dao who was standing in the middle, said: " I want you to answer a question for me. "

" Ah? " Xiaotui was stunned, and just as he was about to respond, Ji Xuanyi threw the staff in his hand out, hitting him and making him scream " Fuck !"

This kind of question is mostly asked to give players some slack. It should be that the little girl's words helped them to win. If they answer it wrong, there won't be a second time.

Xiaotui also realized this immediately. He picked up Ji Xuanyi's staff with one hand, covered his mouth with the other hand, and hurriedly ran back behind Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi took the staff handed over by his calf, looked at it, and received: " What's the problem? "

Wang shifted his gaze from his calf to Ji Xuanyi's face and paused for a moment, perhaps trying to determine whether he could continue to take over the job. Then he said, " I want to ask you, which one is more important, family, love, or friendship? "

This is really annoying. Other questions in the same series include which one to choose among money, beauty, and wisdom.

Xiaotui didn't dare to speak, so Yishu came closer and whispered, " Do you think it's possible that all of them are important? Generally speaking, the protagonist's script is written like this, and the correct answer must be unexpected! "

Ah Miao said: " I think it's possible too. "

The calf covered his mouth and nodded desperately.

Qi Qin was already confused, mumbling: " Family, friendship, love ... friendship, love ... "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Most people like Qi Qin have difficulty making choices. Before he pushed himself to death, Ji Xuan hit him on the back with his staff, which made him sober up a little. Then he said to the three artists, " There is no such thing as a protagonist in an online game. This is not a stand-alone game. If you become the protagonist, what will happen to other players? "

That's true. The background setting of the protagonist in most online games is a passerby. Art said: " What should I do? Do I really have to choose one? Which one should I choose? There is no hint at all? "

That's right, for questions like this that have a correct answer, there should definitely be a hint.

Ji Xuanyi looked at the girl named Xiao Nuo, who was looking at him worriedly.

Ji Xuanyi said: " Do you think, if there is a clue here, it might be that Xiao Nuo? "

Xiaotui was stunned and said, " Will she tell us the answer? "

Art was full of black lines: " What are you thinking about? You are not deaf, can't you hear her telling you the answer? "

The calf said aggrievedly: " The boss said she was a hint! "

Art: " Is this the hint? "

Ji Xuanyi was annoyed by the noise and said, " If you can't think of the answer, I'll tell you. If I'm wrong, we'll die together. Don't blame me. "

The other three people hurriedly said: " Don't blame me, don't blame me, I dare not ..."

Ji Xuanyi said directly: " I think it is family affection. "

Wang looked at Ji Xuanyi and smiled: " Good answer. "

As Wang finished speaking, the health bar and level above the head of the guard standing beside him changed. Although it was still red, symbolizing the gap between the player and him, at least the question marks had disappeared.

The three artists screamed: " Fuck! Level 68! "

" I can't take it anymore, I'm going to faint, " Xiaotui held onto Yishu's shoulders and said weakly, " How many zeros are there after his health bar? "

Art said with difficulty: " Six ... five million blood ..."

You know, there are already several teams that can barely clear the Tomb of Ashes, and the last boss only has 3 million HP ...

" Are we going to die here? " cried the calf.

Art said calmly: " Yes, but before I die, I will molest all the handsome guys here, at least I won't lose anything. "

Ah Miao suddenly realized: " What you said makes sense. I want to go too. Will they suddenly attack us? "

The calf said: " I don't know, but I want to go too because of what you guys said. Even though they are all men, it doesn't matter if they are so good-looking. Big Boss, do you want to come with us? "

Qi Qin said quickly: " Xuan Yi is not going! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin took a look at his expression, and said with fear and grievance: " Are you going? "

Ji Xuanyi: "... Fuck you! "

Chapter 50

In fact, Ji Xuanyi was just taking a gamble.

Wang asked the questions after Xiao Nuo pleaded for them . Judging from the image of the elves in most works , questions about love, family , and friendship did not seem like questions they would specially prepare.

That was the question that was asked of them based on what happened to Arnold himself.

If they are really good people, they should at least know what is bothering Xiao Nuo now.

This is the only explanation that makes sense.

That's very simple. At Xiao Nuo's age, the only things that can influence her are family and friendship. If it was friendship, she wouldn't sneak out to buy some food alone. It can only be family , and it may also be related to the fact that there are no female elves here.

But that has nothing to do with what is happening now.

But even if he answered the question correctly , Ji Xuanyi actually had no confidence in his heart . After all, a health bar of five million was really a bit too much.

But he wouldn't commit indecent assault to make his death less painful.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " Since we can see his level and health bar , it proves that he has been weakened . We still have a chance. "

Art leaned against the one who kept rejecting him and said, " What chance? I don't think we have any chance at all. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

He strongly suspected that the Introduction to Art was just an excuse for him to do something indecent. This person had absolutely no fighting spirit!

However, in most people's eyes, this situation is a death sentence , and this mentality of art is understandable.

But Ji Xuanyi is not like most people. He knows clearly how strong Qi Qin is . In his opinion , this battle is not impossible to win.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and asked, " Can we team up and fight? "

The king shook his head and said to Ji Xuan, " The duel must be fair . You can choose one person to fight him. "

 " Bah! " Yishu said faintly, " Don't you even look at the health bar and level? It's not fair at all! "

However, despite saying this, everyone's eyes were on Qi Qin.

Not only because Qi Qin is awesome, but also because they have no choice at all. The only other output left here is the calf, and he can't even beat Art ...

Qi Qin also took a step forward and said directly: " Let me do it. "

Wang Dao: " Number one in the world? I understand. Then you will be the opponent of the number one warrior. If you win, you will get a gift from the elves and leave with your companions. If you lose, I'm sorry, you and your companions will die here. "

After saying that, Wang smiled and stared at the two girls: " If you are ready, please let me know at any time. "

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi said: " Are you sure you can win? "

Qi Qin shook his head and said honestly, " I was already half dead after receiving his arrow. Even if there was a gap between his skills, I couldn't deal 5 million damage in such a short time. "

After saying this, Qi Qin said with some sadness: " Xuan Yi, I'm sorry, I can't protect you. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything.

Qi Qin looked up at him and said, " Although we can't beat him, we can still fight our way out of here in a short period of time. I can help you escape alone ... "

" Then what about the maze and reputation? " Ji Xuanyi asked.

Qi Qin was stunned and even more sad: " Then we can only die together ... "

Ji Xuanyi tapped his breastplate with his staff, making a noisy sound that startled Qi Qin.

" This is just a game, " Ji Xuanyi whispered, " Although I don't like it, losing a level doesn't really have that much of an impact. Sober up. "

Qi Qin looked at him pitifully.

Ji Xuan took a look at him and said, " It is certain that he has been weakened, but I don't know to what extent, and whether we can win. Just try your best. "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and added, " You are already my best choice. What you can do, others can't do. What you can't do, others can't do either. I am very satisfied with you, so don't worry too much. "

Ji Xuanyi took off the necklace given by Madam Harman from his neck, put it on Qi Qin's neck, and said: " Although this thing only has a curse resistance, it is the only protective gear I have. Wearing it is better than nothing. "

Qi Qin touched the necklace and looked at Ji Xuanyi with both emotion and shyness.

I always feel that this act of giving a token of love has some other meaning ...

Ji Xuanyi: " I have to pay it back. "

Qi Qin: "... Okay. "

Seeing Qi Qin in low spirits, Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " Come on, I'll treat you to hotpot later. " Hearing that Ji Xuanyi was going to play with him again, Qi Qin suddenly became energetic and said, " Okay! "

Ji Xuanyi was just about to take Qi Qin there to start the fight, when the three artists finally had enough and surrounded them.

Yishu thought for a moment, took off a ring from his finger, and said, " If Xiaoji hadn't mentioned it, I would have forgotten about it. This ring increases physical defense by 5%. Tianxia, wear it. " Qi Qin was stunned, and said artistically: " Our lives depend on you, come on. "

Ah Miao seemed to remember something, hesitated for a moment, took off a bracelet from his wrist, put it in Qi Qin's hand, and said: " The properties of this bracelet are to increase all defense by 20%, reduce damage by 20%, and increase the upper limit of health by 20%. Tianxia, use it well. "

Upon hearing this attribute, Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment, and Art and Xiaotui were even more shocked . Art said, s a'l t ?What level of equipment is this " divine weapon, right?! It's so awesome ... It's all percentage bonuses, and it can be used until the server is shut down! Ah Miao, you are too much! You never told me such a good thing, I told you everything! "

Ah Miao quickly smiled apologetically and explained, " I had this equipment before I met you, but I never used it and forgot about it. I just remembered it when I saw you take out the ring. I didn't hide it from you on purpose. "

Seeing that she was sincere and had not lied, Yishu sighed and said, " Okay, I forgive you. "

The calf said weakly: " I only have a ring that reduces damage by 50 points. Do you want it? "

" Why not? " Yishu took the ring from his hand and put it on Qi Qin's hand, saying, " Pile as many as you can! "

After saying that, Art smacked his lips and said, " It's a pity that the three of us assistants don't have any offensive jewelry, and our calves are also magic. "

Ji Xuan said: " That's about it, let's go. "

Qi Qin looked at the three people with deep eyes, put on all the rings and bracelets, and said solemnly: " Thank you, Qi ... Tianxia will definitely fulfill the mission! "

Art smiled and said, " It's okay, just do your best. Xiaoji, let's go, get ready first. "

Qi Qin was stunned: " What preparations? "

The three artists pulled Ji Xuanyi to the side of the king, posed, and said, " Be prepared for indecent assault. Wow, this king is so handsome and the leader of the elves. If you lose, we will die. It would be a great pity in life if you don't touch him! You can't reach him, Xiao Ji, you have to experience it! Right, Xiao Ji! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

He who didn't understand what these players were saying looked at the four people who gathered around him with pure and gentle eyes.

Qi Qin: " I won't lose! Xuan Yi, take your hands away!!! "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Yes, I know, keep going. "

Qi Qin: " QAQ ! "

Then why don't you take your hand away? You're almost touching his chest!

Qi Qin had no choice but to raise his guard.

Ji Xuan said: " Stand close to that guy first, otherwise it will be difficult for you to chase him later. "

Qi Qin suddenly realized what was going on, and hurriedly walked up to the motionless man and put the guard around his neck.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin has changed!

Where is the upright young man you promised me? That's not how you take the initiative!

The three artists exclaimed: " Wow, it's worthy of the world, awesome ..."

Ji Xuanyi was very upset and said, " Okay, let's get started. "

Hearing the specific phrase, he glanced at Ji Xuanyi, then turned to Qi Qin and said, " Number one in the world, are you ready? "

Qi Qin stared at the motionless opponent in front of him seriously and said in a deep voice: " Okay. "

The king smiled slightly, and the elves around him retreated, leaving a large open space.

The king said, " Then let's get started. "

As soon as the king finished speaking, Qi Qin and the guards moved at the same time. The guards were extremely fast, and they were simply incomparable to the two swordsmen in front of the city lord's mansion. They drew their arrows in almost an instant and launched an attack towards Qi Qin.

The three artists couldn't help but scream.

They had never seen that guy's speed head-on, and they never expected that the guy's speed was so fast that they couldn't see clearly with their eyes. How did Qi Qin manage to block the opponent's attack before!

But they soon found out how Qi Qin did it.

Qi Qin's movements were a little slower than He's, but he just crossed the guard at the right time and blocked the arrow. He even used the size of the guard itself to attack while defending. The blood bar numbers that Yishu and the others saw had begun to drop.

Although it is still more than 4.996 million, it is already impressive!

Yishu had only shouted halfway " Awesome! " when he had already put the second arrow on the bow, with a faint green light flashing on the arrow head!

Ah Miao yelled: " He used his skill! "

However, the prompts outside the field obviously could not keep up with the actions inside the field. Before Ah Miao finished speaking, the green arrows had already exploded between Qi Qin and him. Qi Qin held on tightly to guard against it, and because of his own weight he did not move backwards far . Instead, he used the power of the explosion to retreat lightly, while launching attacks at Qi Qin one after another in the air.

Ji Xuanyi breathed a sigh of relief.

The power of that green arrow was obviously reduced a lot, and with the protective gear supported by A Miao and the other two, Qi Qin was only scratched off a layer of skin. In this way, there is still a chance of success!

Qi Qin waved his hand casually to block those insignificant ordinary attacks, raised his guard and jumped high, activating the swordsman's level 27 skill, the heavy slash!

This is a pursuit skill. It is designed to take care of short-legged swordsmen and give them a chance to catch up and fight when they are being kite-dropped from a distance . The activation range of this skill is twenty meters, which is almost the longest activation range of all known skills .

However, Qi Qin didn't care much about its automatic target locking and high attack power. What he was most satisfied with about this skill was that it could ignore gravity and allow him, who was wearing nearly 300 kilograms of armor, to jump up ...

When Qi Qin launched a heavy attack, he had already landed and raised his bow and arrow towards Qi Qin again.

This is a very friendly point.

They are not like real archer players who would use their speed to kite the short-legged profession, avoiding damage while slowly using skills to wear down the enemy 's health. Compared with surviving, those with 5 million health points are more concerned about how to deal the highest damage in the shortest time, so even if there is a good opportunity to escape, they will just stand still and attack the enemy .

This time, the tip of the arrow was once again covered with green light.

Art screamed: " What's going on! Another skill! Is the CD ready?! "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said in a deep voice: " No! It's not the same skill! This is another kind of attack! "

Qi Qin also noticed this, but he was in mid-air and had no way to move, so he had to move slightly sideways to take a defensive stance.

The arrow in my hand has already left my hand!

To Qi Qin's surprise, this arrow did not simply fly towards him like an ordinary arrow, but split into two, then into four, and continued to split several times in mid-air. By the time it reached him, one arrow had turned into a rain of arrows!

If he went straight at it, he would be unable to move in the air and would be pricked like a hedgehog!

Qi Qin had no choice but to interrupt his skill, landed not far away , kept waving his guard to knock down the arrows, then took a step forward and ran towards him awkwardly.

Xiaotui looked at Qi Qin's smooth movements, opened his mouth wide, and was completely dumbfounded. He murmured: " Am I watching an action movie? "

Art was also shocked, but compared to Qi Qin's inhuman skills, she was more surprised by his speed: " How could he be so slow when fighting an archer! "

Actually, Qi Qin was not that slow. In fact, he was slightly faster than an ordinary mage.

However, in comparison, his speed seemed a bit horrible ...

Ji Xuanyi said helplessly: " I have tried my best. This speed is the limit of his current attribute. " Ah Miao couldn't help but say, " This is too amazing. He was obviously so much slower than the opponent, how did he manage to completely block the opponent's attack! "

Art asked the question that everyone who had seen Qi Qin fight had asked before: " Isn't it possible that Tianxia learned Kung Fu at Shaolin Temple? "

Ji Xuanyi: "... No. "

Xiaotui quickly came up and said, " Then how did he become so powerful?! "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Go to bed early and get up early, and exercise. "

The three of them showed expressions of sudden enlightenment.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

They actually believed it. These three people must have never gone to bed early and gotten up early, or exercised!

Qi Qin had successfully approached and started to attack like crazy! He didn't even have to defend against the arrows, but instead, he would dismantle the opponent's movements before nocking the arrow.

As an archer, although he does not have as flexible attacking skills as Qi Qin, the action of drawing the bow is a must-do in his instructions. Coupled with his speed and strength, he and Qi Qin immediately turned a Western fantasy online game battle into an Eastern martial arts movie.

The three artists made strange cries in different tones.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

To be honest, when I was fighting monsters in Tomb of Ashes with Qi Qin, I didn't feel anything. After all, the bosses were all monsters. At most, I could see that Qi Qin was fast and skilled, but once I faced this kind of humanoid boss , the sense of incongruity became very strong. Especially he also knew Qi Qin's true identity.

It was like watching Voldemort fighting Sun Wukong, full of disobedience ...

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but hold his forehead.

Because of the abnormal amount of blood, this battle was destined to be a competition of time. Even Ming Shao, who was squatting at the dividing line, couldn't help but send a message, asking them how long it would take. Ji Xuan had no choice but to let them wait a little longer, saying that it was almost over.

However, in reality, the boss 's health was only less than one million.

Yishu said happily: " For so long, Tianxia only loses a little blood when using that high-damage skill, and only now has his blood skin worn down a little! As long as Tianxia holds on, he can kill this guy! That's awesome! I must go to the forum and write a post to praise him! "

" Wake up, Art. No one will believe this unless they see it with their own eyes, " Ah Miao smiled and said, " But Tianxia is really powerful. It feels like the more you hit him, the higher the damage. The boss's health drops faster. Is Tianxia familiar with his tactics? "

The calf said: " I also think that the boss seems to have become more powerful than at the beginning. "

After saying that, Xiaotui looked at Ji Xuanyi, wanting to see if he was in a better mood because of the current situation. But when he looked up, he found that Ji Xuanyi was frowning.

Xiaotui was stunned and asked, " Boss, what's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Tianxia can't hold on any longer. You can start thinking about where to touch this later – the lower three roads are absolutely not allowed. If you are found out, your account will be blocked. "

The three of them were all stunned. Yishu asked anxiously, " Xiao Ji, what are you talking about? Isn't it true that the more you fight, the braver you become? What do you mean you can't hold on? How can you tell that? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " He is not getting braver as the battle goes on, his rhythm is messed up. "

The best thing about holographic online games is that no matter how long the battle lasts, your body will not get tired.

At this stage, most players fight by standing and hacking at monsters or bosses , you hit me with a sword, and it is more convenient to use skills. With a thought, or a silly spell, the body will move automatically. It can be said that there is no problem standing and fighting for hours, at most you will feel a little sleepy.

But Qi Qin's level of battle is different. Every move he makes requires his full concentration. In addition, most of his attacks are repetitive. Although his body will not get tired, his mind will get tired very quickly, just like when Ji Xuanyi led Xiaohua and the others to kill monsters in Xinmu Town before.

Can this be done? Yes.

Is it simple? Yes.

How long can it last? Not long.

When it comes to killing monsters, it's okay even if you're distracted. You can just kill them with one blow. You'll have healing and you won't die. But that's not the case for Qi Qin. He has no support, and once he's distracted, he'll die quickly.

As the art says, the more you fight, the braver you become. In fact, it was an illusion created by Qi Qin's mind being a little confused and he was barely holding on, wanting to inflict as much damage as possible.

Ji Xuanyi didn't know how long Qi Qin could hold on, but he definitely couldn't deplete his five million health points.

In the end, after all the hard work , the plot still happened and there was no way to avoid it.

But there was nothing that could be done about it. After twenty years of hard training, Qi Qin's concentration was actually several times stronger than most people. If it was Ji Xuanyi alone, he estimated that he would have surrendered twenty minutes ago. Even in the entire online gaming world, there probably wouldn't be a second person who could fight a one-on-one like this. All he could say was that he tried his best.

Ji Xuanyi thought about it and wondered whether he should go back to Qi Qin to eat hotpot.

Should he eat Sichuan hotpot or northern mutton hotpot? He didn't know if there was chili in Qi Qin's era. Should he eat mandarin duck ?

The battle in the field was exactly as Ji Xuanyi had imagined. When Qi Qin used the rain of arrows for the umpteenth time, he failed.

He failed to block three arrows, but because of his equipment, he only lost about one-fifth of his blood.

The three artists outside the field all gasped when he was shot by an arrow, and they felt relieved when they found that he didn't lose much blood.

But it's just a slight relief.

This was the first time Qi Qin failed after fighting for so long. According to Ji Xuanyi, there would be a second and third time.

Art said with a sad face: " Is it possible to not fight anymore? "

Ah Miao said helplessly: " There is no way, Xiao Ji has already said that ..."

Xiaotui was the only one besides Ji Xuanyi who was relatively calm: " Ah, I was already prepared for the loss, so I don't feel much. "

Art said: " Of course you said that. If I were only level 25, I would say the same thing! "

Ah Miao said: " The problem now is not this. I always feel that Tianxia is so powerful. If I lose, will I be sad? "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment and looked up at Qi Qin.

I don't know if it was a telepathic connection, but even though he was clearly fighting, Qi Qin turned around for some reason and looked at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi's heart was slightly moved, and he raised his voice: " Tianxia! I will go to you to eat the shabu-shabu pot tomorrow? "

Qi Qin was stunned.

Double-boiled pot?

mandarin duck?!

Chapter 51

Ji Xuanyi saw that after he finished talking about the double-flavored hotpot , Qi Qin immediately became energetic, his previous tired state completely disappeared, and he fought with him again.

Ji Xuanyi: "... Do you really like hot pot? "

The three artists also noticed Qi Qin's change , and looked at Ji Xuanyi and asked, " What is the principle behind this? Is the Yuanyang pot something special that can be used to boost morale? "

Ah Miao sighed and said, " The shabu-shabu pot is a compromise . Maybe the world has also realized the depth of Xiao Ji's friendship with him. "

Seeing Ah Miao's sympathetic eyes , Ji Xuanyi frowned: " I'm not from Sichuan or Chongqing ..."

Yishu had also heard of this statement. When Ah Miao brought it up, she thought it was probably true . But Ji Xuanyi said it was not true . She was surprised and asked, " What's going on? "

Ji Xuanyi asked: " How should I know? "

Xiaotui analyzed: " Is it possible that the boss is hungry and just wants to eat hot pot? "

Art said: " According to Xiao Ji , the current situation in the world will not last long . The same trick cannot be used a second time . How about you name the dishes later, Xiao Ji? "

Xiaotui said quickly: " I know how to do this, I know how to do this! Roast duck, roast chicken, roast goose ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi: " What a mess! "

Ji Xuanyi felt that if he announced the dishes to Qi Qin , there was a high chance that the other party would be distracted and killed directly ...

In fact, Ji Xuanyi said that before mainly to make Qi Qin relax a little. Losing a level in the game is not a big deal and there is no need to force yourself.

But now it seems that the effect is counterproductive.

There is no use in cheering up temporarily. You have already reached your limit. No matter how hard you try , you can't hold on for too long , and you won't get tired . In this situation, even Qi Qin is doomed to lose.

Ji Xuanyi stopped talking and just looked at the field with a frown.

As he expected, when the boss had more than 3.7 million health left, Qi Qin showed signs of fatigue again.

Ji Xuanyi let out a light breath and was about to look away when he was suddenly stunned. The one who was fighting against Qi Qin frowned, and a hint of annoyance appeared on his handsome face that didn't look like a real person.

Xiaotui looked at Ji Xuanyi and found that he was in a daze. He asked curiously, " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi blinked and said, " Is this the expression at the beginning? "

Hearing this, Art and A Miao, who were originally watching Qi Qin's fight, turned around and looked at him.

Xiaotui frowned and thought hard for a long time before saying, " I don't remember ... Why would a straight man pay so much attention to another male's face? "

Art said speechlessly: " Thank you, straight men generally don't call themselves ' other people , ' okay? "

Ah Miao said: " Why is Xiao Ji asking this? But I do remember that he had no expression on his face at first. I even called him a cold-faced iceberg in my heart ... uh ... "

Art: " President? "

Ah Meow: "... Warrior. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

There are so many things to complain about that I don't know where to start.

But knowing this is enough.

Ji Xuanyi ignored the arguing between Yishu and Ah Miao, frowned and looked at the situation on the field carefully, saying: " Tianxia! Hold on a little longer! "

When Qi Qin heard Ji Xuanyi's voice, he realized that the other party must have discovered something. However, attention is not something that can be controlled just by wanting to, especially when he has been fighting for more than an hour.

But since it's Ji Xuanyi, he will do it even if it costs his life!

Qi Qin let out a low shout and blocked the rain of arrows again.

Ji Xuan watched without blinking, counting the opponent's skill CD in his mind .

From the very beginning of the battle, Ji Xuanyi had already calculated the intervals between his skills. Up to now, he had only used three skills, one was the explosive arrow, one was the rain of arrows, and the other was the arrow that could turn. Ji Xuanyi guessed that the arrow should have a relatively low AI , and would make two or three dodge moves when facing enemy obstructions. It was of no use to Qi Qin, of course, but it was a relatively useful skill for other players.

The CDs of these three skills are one and a half minutes, one minute, and forty-five seconds respectively.

If the status changes, then there will definitely be changes in the skills, either the skill damage increases, the skill CD becomes shorter, or new skills appear.

No matter which of these three situations occurs, it proves that the opponent has entered the rampage stage before being defeated. In this case, it means that 5 million blood is not the blood line to pass the level, but it is enough to reduce the opponent's blood volume to 3.5 million or 3 million.

Ji Xuanyi stared at the field, his lips moving slightly.

Fifty-five seconds have passed since the last time the Explosive Arrow was used.

Fifty-six, fifty-seven, fifty-eight, fifty-nine.

sixty!

A green light flashed in his eyes, and the nocked arrow shone with green light again! on the CD of Arrow Rain , and twelve seconds left on the CD of Tracking Arrow !

That was an explosive arrow with a cooldown of one and a half minutes! The cooldown time was shortened by one third, and it really went into rampage!

Ji Xuanyi shouted: " No matter what method you use, reduce his health to 3.5 million! "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment. He was completely unable to distinguish the skills and was fighting entirely based on instinct. Otherwise, before Ji Xuanyi reminded him, as the person fighting on the field, he should have discovered that there was something wrong with the skill CD .

After hearing Ji Xuanyi's words, Qi Qin had no choice but to block the explosive arrow, gritted his teeth, and pounced forward again.

The three artists all heard what he said.

Art said: " Three and a half million? Didn't you say you couldn't win the fight? Why did you insist on grinding the world down to three and a half million? "

Xiaotui also said: " I think so too, sir. If we really can't beat them, we shouldn't waste time and just die. We'll only drop a level anyway. We can use this time to practice and get back on track. "

Yishu glared at him and said, " Do you think everyone here is as useless as you? Xiaoji is already level 38! "

Ah Miao looked at Ji Xuanyi and said, " Little Ji, are you worried that he will be sad if he can't win the game? It's useless to persuade him verbally in this situation. It's better to set a goal for him. If he achieves it, he will win. Is that right? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and briefly expressed his speculation about entering the rampage stage, which stunned the three of them.

Art said happily: " Then is there a way for us to avoid losing a level?! "

Xiaotui also said: " Yes, the boss is so awesome, now we are only a few hundred thousand away from 1.5 million, we will definitely pass! "

Ah Miao looked at Ji Xuanyi's expression, which showed no sign of relaxation, and asked tentatively, " Xiao Ji, are you worried about whether the blood line you passed is 3 million? "

Ji Xuan glanced at her and nodded slightly.

If it was 3.5 million blood, just like Xiaotui said, there was only a difference of 100,000. With Qi Qin's condition, he could still fight and should be able to pass it. But if it was 3 million blood, there would still be a difference of more than 600,000. Not to mention that there was a high probability that Qi Qin could not hold on that long, even if Qi Qin forced himself and held on to finish the fight, it would definitely have a great impact on him afterwards.

Ji Xuanyi was definitely not willing to pay the price of being stupid for half a year after the end. What he was considering now was, if the health volume dropped to 3.5 million and he still hadn't passed the level, should he just let Qi Qin stop and let everyone die.

Although Ah Miao is the most considerate person among the three , she can't figure out what Ji Xuanyi is thinking. However, without Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, the three of them would have been relegated long ago, so it would be great if they can win, but losing is no big deal, she has already prepared herself mentally.

Among the three people, Art was the only one who had to die twice, which was a big loss ...

Ah Miao cast a sympathetic look at Yishu, who was watching Qi Qin's fight stupidly and very seriously.

Ji Xuanyi had also been watching. Qi Qin made two more mistakes, but fortunately, his health was still half left, while his health was only 3.52 million.

Art shouted loudly: " Come on, world! "

Xiaotui and A Miao also shouted: " Come on! Tianxia! "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything. Qi Qin gritted his teeth and attacked again.

He began to reduce his defensive actions, which made him more vulnerable to injury, but also made his offense extremely ferocious. The last 20,000 blood points were reduced to 8,000 in the blink of an eye.

Xiaotui whispered: " Oh my god, is it the boss who went berserk or the big guy who went berserk! "

While Yishu was cheering, he took the time to reply: " Everyone is going crazy! "

That's right, both sides really went berserk, and both sides were attacking each other almost desperately!

At the same time as Qi Qin slashed down with the last blow, he once again raised an arrow flashing with green light towards Qi Qin's defenseless chest.

" Oh my god! I can't bear to watch it anymore! " Yishu screamed, grabbed Wang's clothes and covered his eyes with them.

Ji Xuan opened his eyes and stared at the field.

Qi Qinhe's movements stopped, as if time had stood still.

Qi Qin gasped and looked at the blood bar above his head.

Three million, four hundred and ninety-nine thousand, nine hundred and ninety-four.

He won.

The light of the arrow in his hand gradually disappeared. He smiled at Qi Qin, put away the bow and arrow, and nodded slightly at him: " Good fight, warrior. "

Ji Xuanyi finally let out the breath he had been holding.

Art was stunned for a long time before he screamed, threw off the king's clothes, hugged Ah Miao and said happily: " The world won! The world won!!! The world is awesome!!! "

Xiaotui also moved forward to hug, but Yishu pushed him away.

Qi Qin didn't look and subconsciously turned his head to look at Ji Xuanyi.

All the names around him changed from red to yellow. Ji Xuanyi walked forward, smiled at Qi Qin, and said, " Very impressive. "

Qi Qin put away his guard, smiled as if relieved, and then tentatively put his hand on Ji Xuanyi's shoulder.

Ji Xuan raised an eyebrow, took a step forward and hugged him.

Qi Qin's ears turned red. He buried his face in Ji Xuanyi's neck and took a deep breath without making any sound.

Ji Xuanyi knew that he had worked hard, so he patted his back and said, " Just hold me, don't push me down, I can't hold you up. "

Qi Qin hummed and whispered, Double " - flavored hot pot? "

Ji Xuan thought, do you still remember this? Then he said, " I'll find you tomorrow, wait for you. "

Qi Qin couldn't help but laugh softly.

Ji Xuanyi's face was full of kindness. Silly child, you are so happy even when eating hotpot. The king looked at Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi and smiled, " Warriors, you have won. Please come and claim your gift. You and your companions will no longer be restricted by the maze. "

Ji Xuanyi patted Qi Qin's waist and said, " Go get your mission reward. "

Qi Qin hummed, " Hold me for a while longer. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything.

Qi Qin: "..."

Qi Qin raised his head and found Ji Xuanyi looking at him expressionlessly.

Qi Qin: " QAQ ! "

Why are you still so fierce! Was your gentleness just now all an illusion?!

Ji Xuanyi said: " Go get the reward. "

Qi Qin: " QAQ ! Hmm ..."

In fact, I am just mentally tired and can't help but be distracted. Physically, I don't feel anything at all.

Qi Qin let go of Ji Xuanyi's hand and went to Wang to receive the reward with a wronged look on his face.

The so-called reward was not given to him by the king himself, but by the girl named Xiao Nuo, who carefully held out an emerald green necklace.

Ji Xuan, who was walking behind Qi Qin, twitched his mouth. Another necklace?

By the way, there is no limit on the number of jewelry you can wear in "Domain". As long as you don't feel tired and are not afraid of inconvenience in movement, it doesn't matter if you wear ten rings on one finger. It's just that the bonus of the same attribute will only be the highest and cannot be stacked. For example, if one defense is increased by five and the other defense is increased by ten, then the final effect is defense increased by ten, and the one with defense increased by five will be useless.

But if you are a priest and wear a ring that adds five defense and a ring that adds five healing, then they can be effective at the same time.

However, the drop rate of jewelry in "Domain" is low, and the bonuses are mostly not high.

Except for the god-level bracelet that Ah Miao got from somewhere, the one in Art that adds 5% defense is already considered a very good jewelry. Most of the jewelry is like the ring on the calf, which can only reduce 50 points of damage or increase healing, and some are even in single digits.

Therefore, many people are too lazy to buy jewelry just for this tiny property, let alone wearing a large string of jewelry. Most jewelry is worn by girls for beauty, or has some special effects or very good properties.

By the way, I don't know what the use of this necklace given by the elves is.

When Xiao Nuo took out the necklace, Qi Qin remembered that he had other people's equipment on him, so he quickly took it off and returned it to them one by one.

Holding his tattered ring, Xiaotui said nervously: " I think this skill of yours will definitely be very popular in the future! I'll keep this for when you become famous, maybe I can sell it for a gold coin! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

You really have a bright future.

Art also looked at his ring and said, " The original price of my ring was five gold coins. After it became famous, the price must have increased tenfold! It's fifty gold coins now! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Should I praise her for being more promising than her calves?

Ah Miao also lowered her head to look at her bracelet. Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " Don't estimate the price. Without the world, your bracelet is worth three hundred gold and above according to the current market price. "

Before Ah Miao could say anything, Art and Xiaotui stole envious glances at him.

Xiao Nuo walked up to Qi Qin, handed him the necklace, and said, " Thank you for your companions helping me. This is a gift from the elves. "

Qi Qin took the necklace and was stunned for a moment.

Ji Xuanyi looked at him and asked, " What attribute? "

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi and whispered, " When attacked, there is a 0.01% chance that all damage taken by the wearer will be reflected five times, ignoring defense and invincibility effects. CD is one hour. "

Ji Xuanyi blinked and asked, " Is that all it said? "

Qi Qin nodded.

Ji Xuanyi frowned. The description of this necklace was too general. There was no time or amount limit for the concept of damage. It seemed that players had to figure it out on their own. However, the five-fold rebound would definitely not be low. It was just that the probability was unknown whether there was a lucky value that would trigger it once before the game was shut down ...

Art's face twisted into a ball and he said, " What kind of a ridiculous attribute is this? It sounds awesome, but the chance of triggering it is only one in ten thousand? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " The lower the trigger probability, the more powerful the attribute of this equipment is. "

However, this equipment is very similar to the Warlock class. It can be said to be invincible garbage ... It is invincible when the effect is triggered , and garbage when it is not triggered.

Although it is garbage most of the time ...

But the equipment is definitely good equipment. Strictly speaking, it may be of the same level as Amiao's bracelet, or even one level higher.

Ji Xuanyi asked: " What color? "

Qi Qin replied: " Orange. "

Sure enough, Ah Miao's bracelet is also orange jewelry.

Ji Xuanyi was looking down and thinking about something. Qi Qin shook out the thin necklace and hung it around Ji Xuanyi's neck.

Ji Xuanyi was stunned.

Qi Qin looked at him and smiled, " This is the first time I give Xuanyi equipment. In the past, you were the one who found things for me. Thank you, Xuanyi. "

Ji Xuanyi pondered for a moment and said, " It's true that this piece of equipment is better for me. After all, you are a swordsman with strong defense. Most people will choose to attack me first when fighting against the two of us. Even if they are fighting with you, they will not use their killing moves on you, but will save them to kill me first . If the rebound effect is triggered on me, the benefits will indeed be greater. "

Qi Qin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi raised his head: " What's wrong? "

Qi Qin: "... No, nothing. What I mean is that this necklace belongs to you, so this ..."

He pointed to the curse-resistant necklace given to him by Lady Harman.

Ji Xuanyi: " Of course it belongs to me. It's useless for you to take it. Your resistance to curse is naturally low, so it will be the same even if you wear it. "

Qi Qin: "..... QAQ ! "

I know it's useless for me to wear it! Can't it be a gift?

Ji Xuan looked at him for a while and found that Qi Qin was really reluctant to give it back to him, so he raised his eyebrows and said: " Okay, then you wear it and give it to me when I need it. "

Qi Qin was suddenly overjoyed, smiling and nodding repeatedly.

Wang Chaoqiqin smiled and said, " You can leave now. The maze will not stop you anymore. "

Art was a little reluctant to leave the handsome guy here, and asked: " Can we come in again? "

Wang: " Sorry, I don't understand what you are saying. "

Art: "....."

This probably means that it is not allowed. After all, before the main storyline begins, a group of players have explored the old nest thoroughly. This does not have a good impact. Maybe people will accuse them of cheating ...

Everyone in the camp turned yellow, clearing the way out, and a group of people walked out. Although he couldn't see the handsome man again for a while, he was still very happy that he could finally go back to Green Forest City. He jumped twice and suddenly said, " Hey, I suddenly remembered, Xiao Ji, can other people do this task when the level is higher in the future? Then won't everyone be able to have that good equipment? "

Ji Xuanyi was sending Ze Yu Sishui a message that the problem had been solved and they would be arriving soon. When he heard her question, he answered absentmindedly, " This kind of equipment would not be distributed in batches unless there were special circumstances. Maybe there won't be any such mission. Even if there is, the mission reward will probably be changed. "

Ji Xuanyi closed the chat bar and said to Yishu: " Let's not talk about the fact that we are the first team to come to this place, and we also have a prerequisite for coming here, which is that little girl, so our mission should be special. Others will not have the little girl to plead for them. " Xiaotui smiled and said, " Oh, that's great. This is the first time I've done a mission with a big guy without just lying down! "

Ah Miao smiled and said, " Congratulations! "

Art said happily: " Anyway, this trip is not a big loss! An awesome necklace! Plus the levels of the five of us! And I touched a lot of handsome guys! I'm so happy! "

Ji Xuanyi sighed and said, " In fact, we suffered a huge loss. "

Art was stunned and asked, " What do you mean? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " If my guess is correct, there will definitely be a reputation system in the later stages. After this fight, the elves should be in a friendly state at least. As a result, because it is not open, they are only restored to a yellow name that does not actively attack. Hmm ... I guess there will be more tasks to do in the future. "

Art couldn't help but say, " There are so many handsome elves ... I'm so angry. What you said is making me sad. "

Ah Miao said quickly: " Being contented is the best way to be happy. Being contented is the best way to be happy. "

Art took a deep breath, and suddenly thought of something, and said: " By the way, Xiaoji, do you know what happened on the forum? "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, thinking that someone had hung him up again?

Art said: " The authorities have released the news about the three main cities. "

Chapter 52

Because Green Forest City is too full of elderly people , the peak level is Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, two people at level 38. However , it is different from other cities and Green Forest City . Now some people have reached level 40 and started to enter the three main city maps.

The three main cities can be said to be the three most important maps in "Domain". As the initial version of a game, the current "Domain" does not have very high level or equipment limits. The three main cities allow players to directly upgrade to the full level in the map and obtain a set of not-too-bad full-level equipment. After that, it is the time for various gameplays to shine. It can be said to be the real starting point of this game.

The authorities, who usually remained silent like a dead fish in the face of any situation , suddenly came back to life and announced information about the three main cities to make it easier for players to choose their favorite cities .

But in the final analysis, it is just a very official and general introduction , and there is no scene that players expect, such as guidance on hidden tasks or adventures.

Art said: " Xiao Ji , you and Tianxia are probably the first group of people from our Green Forest City to go to the new map. Didn't you read the introduction carefully? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " I took a quick look. "

Art's eyes lit up and he said, " How is it? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head: " The official information is just a travel guide , there is nothing interesting to see. "

Art: "... If you put it that way, it does look like it. "

Basically, the official guide introduces the attractions and delicious restaurants in the three cities and does not mention anything else.

Ji Xuanyi said: " Maybe it is related to the main storyline , it's hard to reveal , and the area of the three main cities should be very large. "

You know , there are fifteen cities now , and there are quite a few players in them. If they are all concentrated in three main cities at once, and there is no such thing as model interlacing, if the main city is built too small, it will be directly crowded.

In addition, it is impossible for the server to remain sterile all the time, so the areas of these three main cities must be larger than the area of the fifteen cities combined.

“ A main city of this size contains too many things. Even if the official wants to say something, they don’t know where to start. They can only give a random summary. Players still have to figure out the rest on their own. ” Ji Xuanyi said.

“ That’s right, ” Yishu said, “ Have you and Tianxia decided which main city to go to? ” Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, “ No, there are still a few days to upgrade, so let’s talk about it later. ”

Art nodded.

The five people got out of the maze. The three who had escaped death were so happy that their faces were overflowing with joy. Even Ah Miao, who was usually more calm, walked as briskly as a child.

When Ji Xuanyi followed the blue arrow indicating the position of his teammates and found Ze Yu Sishui and Ming Shao, the former had fallen asleep on the ground, while the latter was sitting on the ground with a notebook in his hand, not knowing what he was reading.

When Ji Xuanyi walked over, he kicked Ze Yu Sishui. The other person sat up with a start and muttered, “ Who? Who? Looking for trouble?! ”

Ji Xuanyi folded his arms and looked at him. Ze Yu Sishui slowly came to his senses, laughed dryly twice, and said flatteringly: “ It’s Xiao Ji, you are back? How are you? Are you tired? ”

Ji Xuanyi was in a good mood, he smiled, ignored him, and said directly to Ming Shao: “ I will give you the things the day after tomorrow afternoon. ”

Young Master Ming nodded and couldn’t help but ask curiously, “ What’s been holding you back for so long? ”

As soon as he finished speaking, he saw Qi Qin’s tattered armor and was stunned.

He knew Qi Qin’s strength. Although the opponent did not drop in level, his equipment was worn out like this. He must be a very powerful opponent.

This is a wild map. After a little thought, Young Master Ming understood and couldn’t help asking, “ Fighting monsters above your level? ”

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, “ That’s enough. Let’s go back. ”

Ze Yu Sishui was extremely curious about the wild map and did not dare to harass Ji Xuanyi. Qi Qin seemed to be daydreaming, so he had to betray his looks and act cute in front of the two girls. Only then did he get to hear what had happened.

Introduction to Art and Ze Yu Sishui sighed together, feeling that they had met too late, and even planned to go to the forum together to praise Qi Qin, but Ji Xuanyi beat them back mercilessly, so they gave up reluctantly.

Ji Xuanyi had a lot of things to do, such as the two sets of enchantments promised to Ming Shao, and the three upcoming main cities. There were not too many things to prepare, but before that, the most urgent thing for Ji Xuanyi was the hotpot appointment with Qi Qin.

Ji Xuanyi actually had an elective course the next afternoon, but compared to the hotpot appointment, the elective course was not that important. He simply asked someone to help him answer the question and went directly to the next city to find Qi Qin.

The second time he came to Qi Qin's house, he was still dazzled by the golden door. As soon as Ji Xuan pressed the doorbell, he heard hurried footsteps coming from the other side of the door. Qi Qin was afraid that he would get impatient waiting, so he kept saying, " I'm coming, I'm coming! "

With a " click ", the door opened.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin asked cautiously: " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi was speechless.

Ji Xuanyi was wearing an ordinary blue hoodie, a very simple attire for a face-to-face meeting. In fact, he was just going to have a hotpot. But Qi Qin was different. He was wearing a very formal three-piece suit. It looked like he must have spent a lot of time searching various search engines last night. However, this suit was obviously bought by the previous Qi Qin, and it was tightly tied on the current Qi Qin, who was at least twice as strong as before, making Ji Xuanyi feel suffocated.

Forget about eating hotpot. Ji Xuanyi felt that as soon as he sat down in the restaurant, the buttons on Qi Qin's chest would fall into the pot.

Ji Xuan pushed Qi Qin back into the house and said helplessly: " We are going to eat hot pot, not to have a meeting. Change your clothes. "

Perhaps he didn't expect that all his efforts of the whole night and the whole morning would be wasted. Qi Qin was stunned for a moment and said, " You're not going to wear this? "

" Well, I'm not wearing any clothes, " Ji Xuanyi said, " Where is your room? Let me see your closet. "

Qi Qin looked both happy and disappointed.

Because he was going out with Ji Xuanyi today, Qi Qin, who was worried that he didn't know anything, searched a lot about shabu-shabu on the Internet after he went offline yesterday. Of course, he found out that this shabu-shabu was not the same shabu-shabu, and he was sad for a while. But when he thought about it, a date was not bad, and it was second only to the word shabu-shabu in his heart, so he cheered up and chose such an outfit.

The condition he proposed at the time was to express his importance to the date, but it was obvious that the netizen who gave him the advice had a different train of thought from him ...

But by chance, it's nice to have Xuan Yi help him choose clothes personally!

Qi Qin followed Ji Xuanyi and watched him pick out clothes for her.

Ji Xuan took a look at Qi Qin's neatly arranged wardrobe and the clothes that were obviously smaller than Qi Qin's size, and said speechlessly: " Don't you usually go out? "

Qi Qin said: " If Xuanyi doesn't come online, I will go to the gym to practice. "

This means, don't go anywhere else except the gym.

Ji Xuan sighed, feeling like an old woman, while searching for clothes, she asked, " What about meals? "

Qi Qin said: " There is an old lady at home who comes to clean the house and cook every day. "

" Auntie ..." Ji Xuanyi frowned: " But speaking of this, do you eat spicy food there? " Qi Qin nodded and said, " Eat it, but I checked and it's different from the peppers here. " This is the convenience of modern society. As long as you can type, you can find the answer to anything on the Internet. Otherwise, Ji Xuanyi would not have the patience to teach Qi Qin daily knowledge bit by bit.

Ji Xuanyi couldn't find any particularly satisfactory clothes in Qi Qin's closet. They were either too flowery, too small, or both flowery and small. Looking at these clothes, Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but think of the Qi Qin who deserved a beating in the past, and felt his fists itching to move. Qi Qin didn't know yet, so he leaned forward and asked, " Did you find it? "

Ji Xuanyi suddenly turned around and looked at him.

Qi Qin was frightened and trembled, saying: " What's wrong?! "

Ji Xuanyi stared at him intently for a while, then his gaze gradually softened and he said, " Nothing, I found it. "

Although the dress in his hand still has some patterns on it, it is still not too tight for Qi Qin to wear.

After Qi Qin changed his clothes, Ji Xuanyi realized that different temperaments can really make people look very different in appearance.

At least Qi Qin looks very pleasing to the eye now, and he exudes a kind of vitality. The exaggerated color of that dress doesn't look so eye-catching anymore.

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows and said with satisfaction: " Let's go. "

Qi Qin was delighted and followed quickly.

The hot pot restaurant that Ji Xuanyi booked was about half an hour's drive from Qi Qin's home. There was a traffic jam on the road, and it was almost afternoon when the two arrived.

Because he was worried that Qi Qin would be shy in front of others as it was her first time eating hotpot, Ji Xuan directly booked a private room, and when they went in, there were only the two of them.

As soon as Ji Xuanyi sat down and looked up, he found that Qi Qin was blushing.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

What's wrong with this?

Qi Qin was thinking that it was awkward for the two of them to be alone together.

While waiting for the waiter to serve the food, Ji Xuanyi called him, " Qi Qin. "

Qi Qin was frantically imagining things, and was startled by the call. He quickly looked up at Ji Xuanyi and asked shyly, " Ah? "

Ji Xuanyi said seriously, " I have found the main quest to leave Green Forest City. I will do the enchantment for Young Master Ming after I go online tomorrow. Then we won't clear the quest and will go directly to kill monsters. Although it's a bit boring, it will be more efficient. For large main cities, the sooner we get in, the better. "

Qi Qin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi: " What's wrong? "

Qi Qin: "... No, that's what you're talking about? "

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows: " What else do you want to hear? "

Qi Qin was too embarrassed to say what he wanted to hear. When Ji Xuanyi asked him this, he could only whisper, " Let's talk about things in the game. Now let's talk about things that are relevant to the present. "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Oh, then let's wait for the waiter to serve the food. "

Qi Qin: "..... QAQ ! "

It's better to talk about something in the game!

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " If you want to know something, just ask me directly. "

Qi Qin looked at him for a while, then mustered up the courage to ask: " Xuan Yi, you, you ... you, you hate, that, gay man? "

When Qi Qin said the last three words, he almost lost his voice and felt very guilty. He was a tall man of about 1.9 meters, but he had a hunched back and almost curled up into a ball.

It took Ji Xuan a moment to understand what he said. His expression was a little subtle. After a while, he said slowly: " Are you gay? "

Qi Qin sat up straight and said quickly, " No, no, no, I'm not. I just saw it online, so I was curious and asked. "

Ji Xuanyi said " Oh " and said, " It's OK. "

After a while, he asked again: " I came out to dinner with you and you want to discuss this? "

Qi Qin didn't understand what " not bad " meant. He was stunned for a moment before saying, " Ah, no. "

Ji Xuanyi stopped talking.

The room was silent. Qi Qin was in great torment. He didn't dare to speak out his messy thoughts, and he really couldn't figure out what Ji Xuanyi was thinking. He just felt like a pot of extremely hot oil, and his enthusiasm could only produce tiny bubbles.

Oh, what a coward ...

The waiter brought the pot and the dishes, one side was red, the other side was white, bubbling, steaming, and hot.

Ji Xuan said, " Eat it. "

The excitement that Qi Qin had when he first arrived was long gone. He forced himself to cheer himself up and started eating.

Ji Xuanyi loved eating so much that he ignored Qi Qin while eating. His chopsticks almost never stopped. Qi Qin couldn't help but secretly look at his lips which were red from the spiciness as he chewed the meat in his mouth without any appetite.

After the meal, Ji Xuanyi was full, but Qi Qin felt completely relaxed.

Ji Xuanyi is actually not very good at dealing with people, especially in real life. He originally thought that it would be better to be with Qi Qin, but there seemed to be no difference. At least after dinner, Qi Qin did not look very happy.

In most cases, Ji Xuanyi would not force himself to take care of other people's feelings, but Qi Qin was different. After sending Qi Qin home, Ji Xuanyi thought about it and said tolerantly and kindly: " If you don't like hot pot, you can eat something else next time. "

Qi Qin was distracted and subconsciously said " hmm " . After coming over, he quickly said: " I don't dislike it! "

Ji Xuan raised an eyebrow.

Qi Qin had no choice but to say: " I just feel a little unwell. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

At least find a more reliable excuse. You are almost as strong as a bear, and you have the nerve to say that you are not feeling well.

Qi Qin was completely unaware of his poor lying skills. He looked at Ji Xuanyi for a while and couldn't help but ask, " Xuanyi, can I hug you? "

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows, took a step forward and hugged him.

In fact, the last hug was not long ago. Just yesterday, in the game, after defeating the elf guards, Ji Xuanyi hugged him.

But the Ji Xuanyi in my arms now is indeed much more real than in the game.

Qi Qin could even smell the scent of shampoo on Ji Xuanyi's hair.

Qi Qin held Ji Xuanyi's back with one hand and put the other on his waist, thinking, it's just as what the Introduction to Art said, so thin ... It's a pity that I don't have a chance to touch the front in this position. I wonder if Xuanyi really has abdominal muscles.

Thinking of this, Qi Qin's hand moved and accidentally placed it on Ji Xuanyi's butt.

Where is this ... Qi Qin didn't react and pinched it subconsciously.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin: "..."

He reacted, but it seemed a little late .

...

Ming Shao was really excited. You know, ever since he met Ze Yu Si Shui and had to bind himself with him because the others were too bad, he hasn't got equipment better than Ze Yu Si Shui for a long time!

But this time! He could get two sets of enchantments from Ji Xuanyi before Ze Yu Sishui! Two sets!

The most important thing is, because of Ji Xuanyi, Ze Yu Sishui will never forcefully buy the enchantment from him, so he doesn't have to endure the test of money and conscience anymore!

Just thinking about it makes me happy!

Ze Yu Sishui originally insisted on coming over to see the enchantment made by Ji Xuanyi, but was scared away by Ming Shao using Ji Xuanyi. He then went to upgrade with Qingfeng Bufu in a wronged manner. Ming Shao was alone to go to the barbecue restaurant to meet Ji Xuanyi. As soon as Ming Shao opened the door of the barbecue restaurant, he found that the atmosphere was a little strange.

Ji Xuanyi was sitting on a chair with a sullen face, while Qi Qin was standing beside Ji Xuanyi with his head lowered.

Young Master Ming looked at the two of them, not knowing what was going on, and said cautiously, " Uh, um, I'll take the enchantment? "

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin looked up at him at the same time, and Ming Shao took a breath.

Ji Xuanyi was fine except that there was a bit of murderous look on his face. Qi Qin was different. He had two huge black eyes and blue eyes on his face, making him look like a panda.

Ming Shao cried out, " Fuck! Tianxia, did you overdo your smoky makeup or did you stay up all night? "

Qi Qin swallowed and dared not speak.

Ming Shao glanced at Ji Xuanyi, who had an expressionless face, then looked at Qi Qin and whispered, " Were you beaten offline? "

The injuries sustained in the game will not affect real life, but the injuries sustained in real life will appear in the game in their entirety, and even some of the pain will react in real time.

Qi Qin coughed dryly.

Young Master Ming said in disbelief: " How is that possible?! Aren't you a special forces soldier who learned martial arts at Shaolin Temple? "

This was the conclusion that Ming Shao and the other two came to after discussing for a long time, and for a long time, the three of them firmly believed in this inference.

Qi Qin's eyes twitched, and he lowered his voice and said, " Who told you I was a special forces soldier! "

Ming Shao said: " You can't be a special forces soldier! Your skills! Damn, you are not a human being, okay? Is there anyone in the world who can beat you into a-"

Ming Shao's words came to an abrupt end.

He thought of something.

Young Master Ming looked at Ji Xuanyi standing beside him.

Ming Shao's expression changed instantly. He looked at Qi Qin with a look of disappointment and said in a bitter voice: " You must have done something immoral! This is too much! I despise you! "

Qi Qin: "..."

With Qi Qin's physique and skills, it is unlikely that anyone offline could have hammered such neat and symmetrical black eyes on his face.

Unless Qi Qin doesn't dare to fight back at all.

Apart from Qi Qin's parents, Ming Shao could only think of Ji Xuanyi as such a person.

I don't know what this silly kid Qi Qin did to make Ji Xuanyi mad. Ming Shao thought, at least he's still alive. You know, there's no such thing as a resurrection point in reality.

Qi Qin didn't dare to speak and looked at Ji Xuanyi pitifully.

Ji Xuan ignored him, knocked on the table expressionlessly, took out a stack of enchantments, and said to Ming Shao: " Here, take it and go. "

Ming Shao laughed dryly, took the enchantment, and boldly did not leave. Instead, he asked Ji Xuanyi: " Have you decided which city to go to? "

Ming Shao and his two companions could be said to be the second wave of people from Green Forest City to go to the three main cities, following Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin.

When people go to other places, they always have a sense of fellowship with people who come from the same place as themselves. Ming Shao guessed that there would be a situation where major cities would band together in the main city. If possible, the three of them would of course still want to be with Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin.

In fact, in Ji Xuanyi's opinion, as the end point of this version of "Domain", there shouldn't be much difference between the three main cities. Even if there is any difference, it is mostly because of the players. It is actually unpredictable which main city is good or bad, so he drew a lot last night and now told Ming Shao the result directly: " I plan to go to Starry City. "

I have to complain about the naming of this game again. The three main cities are very simple and crude, namely, Sun, Moon, and Stars.

Young Master Ming didn't ask him why he chose Xingcheng. After hearing the news, he said " OK " and prepared to leave to inform the other two people.

Before leaving, Ming Shao glanced at Qi Qin, and finally couldn't help but say: " Tianxia is a little stupid, Xiao Ji, don't be too picky with him ... "

Ji Xuanyi raised his head and glanced at him.

Young Master Ming: "..."

Ming Shao: " I'm sorry, I was wrong. I shouldn't have said too much. Please continue! "

After saying that, he slipped away without looking back.

Ji Xuanyi glanced at Qi Qin.

Qi Qin shuddered: " QAQ ! "

Chapter 53

When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin just arrived in Green Forest City , a man named Yun Zhongjian broke through level 40 and became the first player in the entire game to enter the three main cities.

how Yun Zhongjian reached level 40 so quickly , and what his current situation is.

Ji Xuanyi was the same , but he didn't care about that . He only knew that in the end countless players would move into the three main cities , and there would be a mix of good and bad players , and a lot of messy things would happen , especially in the early stages when all forces were in chaos , and there would definitely be many guys who would take advantage of the situation.

, Ji Xuanyi had been trying to replace Qi Qin's equipment before entering the three main cities . If he was not mistaken , with so many players gathering in the same map , the official would definitely launch a guild system . At that time, forming various gangs, fighting and killing , and enhancing one's own strength would be the most important thing.

And things were exactly as Ji Xuanyi had thought. Three days before he and Qi Qin planned to enter the three main cities, the official announced a one-day update and maintenance , opening the guild system , team chat system , and character creation.

In other words, the server stops being sterilized and new players can continue to join the game. Ji Xuanyi did not expect to open the server at this time. Most games close the creation of new characters because there is too much player data and it is difficult to handle. Ji Xuanyi initially thought that "Domain" was for the same reason, but now it seems that he guessed wrong. After all, the opening of the three main cities is the time when players are most active. Suddenly opening the creation of new characters at this time, the server's ability to withstand pressure must be very strong.

After thinking about it, there is only one explanation: not enough land ...

After all, holographic online games don't have any penetration. If the server really has to be sterilized until it can't bear it anymore, the Novice Town and Green Forest City will probably be crowded with people, and the roads may not be passable, let alone completing tasks and playing games.

The official probably saw that some players moved to the three main cities as their levels increased, and they opened up character creation to make room for newcomers.

It's really sad to think about it.

On the day when Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi reached level 40 and received the mission to go to the three main cities, Ji Xuanyi finally received another piece of black steel and replaced Qi Qin's breastplate.

In addition to the improvement in combat effectiveness, what made Qi Qin happiest was that he had finally gotten rid of the club-shaped appearance and looked like just a swordsman wearing big gloves. However, Ji Xuanyi was not very satisfied with this new breastplate.

The blue equipment used to make a tinkling sound when knocked, but this one now only makes a dull sound when knocked, with no feel at all.

Ji Xuanyi: Disdain.

After Ji Xuanyi got the task, he originally wanted to leave directly, but Qi Qin couldn't help but send a message to Ze Yu Sishui and the others. As a result, when they left, six people came to see them off.

Yishu grabbed Ji Xuanyi's hand and said earnestly, " Little Ji, you are the first person to leave Green Forest City. You must do well and bring honor to our Green Forest City! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin quietly pushed Yishu aside, took Ji Xuanyi's hand in his own, and said, " Don't worry, I will protect Xuanyi well. "

Ze Yu Sishui also came up and said, " We have been working very hard to upgrade. I estimate that in less than a month, we will be able to go to the main city. Xiao Ji, remember to hug me again when the time comes! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin: " Okay, okay. "

Others also rushed forward to speak, and the feeling of scrambling to be the first made Ji Xuanyi feel as if he was leaving the village to go to Beijing to take the imperial examination.

Ji Xuanyi broke away from the crowd, frowning and said, " Can you guys please sober up a little? If you have anything to say, please talk in private. We still have a long way to go from Green Forest City to the Starry City. It will be dark by the time we get there! "

" Alas, that's not what I meant, " Qing Feng Bu Fu said as he squeezed forward, " How can a private chat be as interesting as a farewell party? It's okay for us to get together and talk for a while. Oh, by the way, do you want to sing a song or perform some other show? I think it would be nice to have a farewell party before we leave! "

Ji Xuanyi tried to hold back, but couldn't help it, and said very tactfully: " You can't run away from the world now, I advise you to be cautious. "

Qingfengbufu: "..."

Qing Feng said seriously: " You guys! What are you doing pulling and tugging at each other? You just want to waste my time! It will be dark soon! Go away, disperse, disperse, don't block the way, we are about to set off! "

Everyone booed and looked down on him .

But to be honest, Qi Qin is indeed running fast now. Among the people present, only Ming Shao and Ze Yu Sishui can run faster than him. However, if the swordsman's pursuit skill is taken into account, the speed of these two squishy people is of no use.

So everyone moved out of the way.

Ji Xuanyi's expression relaxed, and he finally sighed and said softly, " See you in Starry City. " Everyone laughed and said, " Okay, see you in Starry City! "

...

Unlike the time when they walked from Xinmu to Green Forest, it didn't take too much time to walk from Green Forest City to Star City. There were no tasks on the way, so they just had to concentrate on getting on with their journey.

The last mission of Green Forest City was accepted from the acting city lord. The goal was to go to Starry City and hand a letter to the great magician of Starry City.

In connection with the previous tasks, it can be seen that the main storyline of the game has entered a small climax . Probably in order to make players feel the urgency of time, there are no will-killing side stories along the way.

However, simply rushing on the road will obviously make players feel boring, just like everyone can accept " rushing for a day " or " walking for half a month " in novels , but will never want to experience it themselves. The official has of course considered this. Ji Xuanyi suspected that they used the same technology as the entrance and exit of the Tomb of Ashes to shorten the distance from Green Forest City to Star City. He and Qi Qin walked for about an hour and arrived at the road leading to Star City.

After reaching the main road, Ji Xuanyi finally realized the difference between the Green Forest City retirement map and other maps.

At a glance, there were probably dozens of players on the wide road, some walking in groups of three or four, and some alone. Most importantly, more players kept setting foot on this road. In comparison, only two of them came out of Green Forest City, and as expected, the next group of people would not appear for more than half a month, which made them seem very backward. Qi Qin looked at the players on the road curiously. Many of them had already been stained with the characteristics of the city they were in. For example, the players from Yellow Sand City wrapped thick scarves around their necks to cover their faces at any time because of the severe sandstorms. There were also players from Swamp City who always wore homemade rain boots because there was too much mud and water in the city. Of course, there were also players from Green Forest City like Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin who were dressed very casually because the weather was fine in their location ...

All I can say is that after all, it is a retirement city, the tasks are so scattered, so it is reasonable that the environment should be a little comfortable.

Qi Qin had never seen so many people who obviously lived in different places gathered together. He watched with great interest and from time to time leaned close to Ji Xuanyi's ear to guess with him where these players came from.

Occasionally, someone would hear it and would not feel offended. They would come up to Qi Qin with a laugh and tell him that he guessed wrong. They would then ask where the two of them were from, and sigh that the environment of Green Forest City was really suitable for retirement. They wondered when the maps would be connected so they could go on a trip to Green Forest City.

It was not until he arrived at the gate of Star City that Ji Xuanyi realized that his imagination of the main city was far from enough.

The gate of Star City is a hundred meters high, and the city walls are all made of white magic stones rich in magic power. When the sun shines on it, you can see densely packed reflections as fine as hair on the stone – those are carved words. Others can't understand them, but Ji Xuanyi can recognize them. They are lines of enchantments, densely carved on the magic stones that make up the city wall. For a city wall of such a huge area, the number of enchantments attached to it is estimated to be hundreds of millions.

I can only say that experience limits imagination, it is worthy of being the main city.

Ji Xuanyi, who recognized the enchantment, was surprised by the grand main city. Other players who did not recognize what those reflective words were were also shocked by the grandeur of the city wall. Almost everyone was stunned for a long time after approaching the entrance of Starry City before continuing to walk inside.

As one of the three main cities, the guards at the gate of Star City are of course different.

Like Green Forest City, there were only two rows of guards at the city gate. When Ji Xuanyi and his companions left, they could already see their level clearly, which was only level 35.

However, guarding the gate of Star City were twenty silver-armored swordsmen and five mages. Ji Xuanyi noticed that they also had enchantments on their bodies.

There are question marks on their levels and health points. They are probably boss- level characters and are not easy to mess with.

When players pass through the city gate, they have to show their parchment to Xiang. When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin passed by, they happened to meet a smart player who asked Xiang: " Why do we need to verify our identity? Has anything happened recently? "

" What happened? " is a common trigger phrase. Sure enough, a mage with clothes made of better material and a more arrogant expression glanced at the player and sneered, " This is not something you commoners should know. Go into the city honestly and don't cause any trouble! "

Except for Ji Xuanyi, a warlock who was not popular in the setting, it was obviously not a common thing for players to be answered in this tone. The player was stunned for a moment, his face changed, and he put away the parchment and said unhappily: " What are you showing off? Fuck, this setting is most likely a cannon fodder villain. I will come back to take your life after I accept the mission! Bah! "

Fortunately, he couldn't understand what he said. The wizard ignored him and let him go.

However, it can also be seen that the main storyline is indeed progressing. The three main cities received intelligence from another fifteen cities and discovered the evil god who coveted this continent.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin entered the city and looked at the parchment in their hands.

The direction of the mission was right in front of the road, and their goal was the Mage Tower in Starry City.

From the magic stones outside the Starry City, it can be seen that this main city relies heavily on magic, and the Great Magician is the most powerful of all the magicians, and can be said to be the one standing at the top of the continent. In order to facilitate the magic research of the magicians, the city lord of the main city built a 300-meter-high magician tower in the middle of the Starry City. The great magician of Ji Xuanyi's mission is in the magician tower.

"A three-hundred-meter-high building ..." Ji Xuanyi muttered in a low voice.

Qi Qin looked at him and asked, "What's wrong?"

Ji Xuanyi said: "Can you see the Mage Tower from here?"

Qi Qin tried to look into the distance and said, "It seems that I can't see it..."

Ji Xuan nodded and said, "The Mage Tower is in the center of the main city, and it is three hundred meters high, but we can't see anything from here."

Ji Xuanyi frowned: "It seems that Starry City is much bigger than I imagined. Not to mention five times the size of Green Forest City, it's ten times as big."

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment and said, "Wouldn't it take us a long time to walk there?"

Ji Xuan nodded and said, "It's too far. The authorities have said that there will be no teleportation array in this main city, so we must have a means of transportation."

Qi Qin didn't care. In his opinion, it didn't matter how long he walked with Ji Xuanyi. However, Ji Xuanyi was a weak warlock after all, and the game had been updated. If some strange buff suddenly appeared while they were walking, it would be a bit too much for him to handle.

Qi Qin thought about it and nodded, "Let's walk and look around. There should be some means of transportation."

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything. Qi Qin was afraid that he would worry, so he thought for a moment and added, "If you can't find it, I'll borrow some planks, put together a trailer, and carry you away."

Ji Xuan looked at him and said speechlessly: "Then why don't you just carry me on your back?"

Qi Qin's eyes lit up and he nodded repeatedly: "Okay, okay!"

Ji Xuanyi: "... You're so good!"

The two had not walked far when a swordsman suddenly rushed out from the side and asked enthusiastically: "Brothers, are you new to Star City?"

Qi Qin was stunned and subconsciously wanted to answer, but Ji Xuan frowned and said, "No, what do you want to do?"

The swordsman chuckled and said, "Hey, brother, don't lie to me. I saw you two come in..."

"You looked at us and asked us questions," Ji Xuan said expressionlessly, "You're crazy."

Swordsman: "..."

The swordsman's face twitched, he laughed dryly twice, and continued to speak with difficulty: "Hahaha, don't be so fierce, I mean, look at this. "

The swordsman knocked on a bronze badge on his chest. Ji Xuan frowned, and when he saw the word "worldly" written on it, he immediately showed a look of understanding.

He should have expected this. When the guild system was activated and the maps were not interconnected and there was no way to expand outward, no guild would give up any player who entered the Starry City. This swordsman came to recruit people on behalf of the guild. He also noticed that there were actually two or three other people who were about to come up and talk to him, but left after seeing the swordsman. It was estimated that this Mortal World guild was quite powerful.

Ji Xuan looked around and found that almost everyone had a badge on their chest indicating their gang identity. The half sentence that the swordsman had not finished saying before was probably about looking at the gang badge to determine whether the person was a newcomer to Star City.

The swordsman also saw that Ji Xuanyi was someone who understood these things, and said with a smile: " Brother, you can tell from the looks of it that you play games all the time. Got it? Do you want to join our Mortal World Gang? "

Ji Xuan didn't even look at him and said directly: " No. "

I thought the swordsman had already started taking out the badge as usual: "..."

The swordsman said helplessly: " Don't be so arrogant, brother, which city are you from? Maybe there are fellow villagers of yours in our gang. People from the same city should always help each other, right? Come on, come on. "

Qi Qin glanced at Ji Xuanyi's expression and kindly advised: " We are the first two people to leave Green Forest City. We don't have any fellow villagers. Don't say anything, Xuanyi will get angry. "

The swordsman didn't take Qi Qin's words to heart at all, and said warmly: " Wow! Green Forest City! Fellow countryman! "

Not to mention Qi Qin, Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment. Qi Qin wondered, " We are the only two who came out of Green Forest City. Who says we are from the same hometown as you? "

The swordsman patted his khaki armor and said, " I am from Houtu City. Trees grow on the soil. I am half a fellow countryman, half a fellow countryman! "

Qi Qin: "..."

It would be fine if this person said he was from Red Leaf Purple Flower, but he is from Houtu City and also wants to claim kinship with us. We are not from the same department anymore!

Ji Xuanyi's face was full of black lines.

The swordsman probably felt that his relationship was a bit forced, so he said: " Brothers, I don't mean to say that you have to join a guild. Our guild is the most powerful in this area. We have all kinds of benefits. When you encounter troubles, everyone can help you together. There are also guild mission rewards in the later stage. The conditions are already very good. It's better to join our guild than to join other guilds! "

Ji Xuanyi knew all these things without him saying them, but regarding the gang, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin had already discussed it. Ji Xuanyi had clearly stated that he hated gangs and would never join any gang, so Qi Qin directly said to the swordsman: " We won't join any gang, as long as we have each other, that's enough. "

The swordsman was stunned and said, " So gay? "

Qi Qin: " ??? "

The swordsman was willing to do anything to attract people. He gritted his teeth and said, " It doesn't matter if you're gay. Our gang is very friendly. We welcome gays and lesbians alike! If you two break up in the future, you can pick any guy in the gang! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi took out his staff and used his first skill [Grudge of the Lone Wanderer] on the swordsman .

Ji Xuanyi changed into a set of equipment that was better than nothing, and with the increase in level, the duration of the paralysis effect of this skill has reached five seconds. Facing the swordsman profession who has no resistance to curses, he directly turned the opponent into a statue.

Ji Xuan pulled Qi Qin over expressionlessly, walked around the swordsman, and left.

Five seconds is not a long time, and they can still catch up if they want to. However, this action has clearly told the swordsman that they really don't want to join the gang, and there is no point in forcing it.

The swordsman also understood this. After sighing that there was actually a warlock who had reached level 40, he shouted to Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin from behind: " It's okay not to join a guild! But the main city is much more dangerous than retirement cities like Green Forest City! I mean more than that! You two should be careful! "

Qi Qin was led by Ji Xuanyi, and turned to him and said: " Thank you! We got it! "

Although Ji Xuanyi ignored the swordsman, the expression on his face eased a little.

Not all guilds are as friendly as the swordsman when recruiting people. When they are extremely short of people, many guilds will use their own power to threaten or even force new members to join, not to mention giving friendly reminders after failing to recruit people.

Even Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but feel a little favorable towards the Chenshi gang.

But then again, if that swordsman had shown even a little tendency to force someone to take him in, blood would have probably already been splattered all over ...

After hearing what the swordsman said, Qi Qin was alert, but he couldn't help but say, " After I came to this game, I felt that everyone was very friendly. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Well, because I can't beat you if I'm not friendly. "

Qi Qin: "..."

That's true.

Ji Xuan said, " Don't forget, although Wanshi Fengyu is very loyal and has helped us, they are not good people. They didn't cause any big trouble in Green Forest City, not only because Green Forest City itself is too old, but also because they themselves have no ability. It's different in a large main city like this. The forest is big and there are all kinds of birds. "

Using the example of all things happening in the world makes it very clear, Qi Qin nodded.

Ji Xuanyi had seen too many things while playing games. Although holographic online games were too real and had a certain sense of morality that constrained players, after becoming familiar with them, it was only a matter of time before things that had appeared in other online games would also appear in holographic online games.

Qi Qin didn't think too much about it. After writing down what Ji Xuanyi said, he continued to look for his original goal – a means of transportation.

After all, he would not let anyone hurt Ji Xuanyi. The most important thing now was not to let the latter get tired.

Well ... if he really can't find him, he can only offer his broad arms and carry Xuanyi all the way to the bottom of the Mage Tower. Just thinking about it makes me happy!

Qi Qin: Hehehehe ...

Chapter 54

There are four entrances to Star City . The road that players will be assigned to after coming out of their city is random. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin are in the southeast area of the entire city .

Compared with the huge area of the main city, the number of players entering the main city is actually not that many.

When everyone first entered the city, they were walking on the same road, which seemed a bit crowded. After walking a short distance , those who were not in a hurry to complete the quest dispersed within the city. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked all the way there, and only one third of the players who entered the city at the same time remained.

So when they saw a long dragon-like team stretching across the street, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were both stunned.

A player who was walking by was shocked and said, " There's a milk tea shop here too?!"

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

" Milk tea shop? " Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi curiously: " Why is this a milk tea shop? "

Ji Xuanyi said with a frown on his face: " No, you don't need to know this, and this shouldn't be a milk tea shop. "

Putting aside whether there would be something like a milk tea shop in the background of this game , the people queuing here actually have one thing in common – they are all wearing light armor , and some of them are holding spears in their hands . Obviously , this is a team of knights.

Another new knight on the road immediately noticed the characteristics of this team, and quickly ran to the end of the team and joined the queue.

Qi Qin looked at the man's actions in confusion, wondering: " Didn't that man come into the city with us? Why does he know what's going on here? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " What else could cause the knight profession to be queued up like this ? It must be a task related to horses. "

Qi Qin understood it all at once.

Ji Xuanyi said: " The authorities can't let knight players be spearmen for life , so they must issue basic mounts. "

At this time , the player at the front of the team finished talking , and left from the other side with a bundle of hay in his arms , grunting.

" It's probably the daily task of feeding the horses , " Ji Xuan took a look and said, " I thought the official would delay it for a longer time. It seems that the new skills of the knight profession at level 40 or so will be horse riding skills, otherwise they wouldn't be in such a hurry to give horses. "

Qi Qin nodded repeatedly after hearing this.

The road was almost blocked, so the two had to walk directly through the middle of the team. When the knight first saw Qi Qin, he was very alert, thinking he was here to cut in line. But when he saw his heavy armor and gloves, he realized he was a swordsman. His expression relaxed and he let the two of them pass.

After passing through the team, the two saw the other side blocked by those knight players. Next to where they were talking was a stable. Although it was located relatively far outside, it was a building in Star City after all. The stable was very clean, and there were magic patterns engraved on the walls, probably used to remove odors and reduce noise. They had been standing at the other end of the team for so long and didn't hear the sound of horses. But this is not the point. Not far from the stable , there is another exquisite small shed with different kinds of means of transportation, including individual horses and carriages. Several players have been asking for prices, probably players who want to report to the Mage Tower as soon as possible.

Ji Xuanyi's expression relaxed and he said, " Let's go and take a look. "

Qi Qin: "..."

Qi Qin: " QAQ ! I don't want to go! "

Ji Xuanyi looked at him strangely.

Qi Qin had no choice but to bear the humiliation and said: " Nothing, let's go and take a look. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Your expression doesn't look like nothing happened at all.

However, Ji Xuanyi had a general understanding of Qi Qin's inner world, so he didn't say much and walked straight towards the shed.

Qi Qin followed behind him, mumbling something quietly, but no one knew what he was saying.

Before Ji Xuanyi reached the place, another person came out and stopped them.

Judging from the way he dresses, it's a sensitive profession.

Before Ji Xuan showed his impatient expression, Qi Qin said to the man, " Sorry, we don't join the gang. "

The man chuckled and said, " I didn't ask you to join a gang. "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment and said, " Then why did you stop us? "

The man looked around with a mysterious expression, and said in a low voice: " It's hard to talk here, come with me. "

Qi Qin was unsure of this man's purpose and looked at Ji Xuanyi hesitantly .

Ji Xuan glanced at the people around him calmly and found that some of the knight players in the queue had an expression that seemed to want to say something but hesitated. However, after looking at the guy who was blocking his way, he turned his head away.

Ji Xuanyi blinked and said, "Lead the way."

The man smiled happily, then immediately retracted the expression on his face, coughed twice, and led Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin to the side, saying: "There is a hidden treasure in Star City, but it requires many people to complete it. We have been looking for players with stronger abilities, and we plan to conquer this hidden treasure together."

Qi Qin asked curiously: "What is hidden?"

The man said without even turning his head: "I'm not sure if you two are really capable of this, how can you tell me now? Just follow me."

Ji Xuanyi looked at him coldly without saying a word.

The man led them through twists and turns for five minutes, until they reached an empty alley and stopped.

Ji Xuanyi said: "Are we there yet?"

The man turned around and said with a smile: "Yes."

Ji Xuanyi said: "Where are your accomplices?"

Qi Qin hadn't reacted yet, and said slowly: "What accomplice?"

The man laughed at Ji Xuanyi and said, "Little brother, your binding output is not good. Why can't you react to this?"

After hearing this, Qi Qin finally realized who he and Ji Xuanyi had met.

It's not Qi Qin's fault. Although the swordsman who was recruiting members of the gang had reminded them before, Qi Qin really didn't have the awareness to put himself in the position of a victim. Not to mention his own martial arts skills, at least with his physique, few people would come up to provoke him, let alone treat him as a robbery target. He was very speechless at the moment.

However, this situation is also possible. After all, the ability in the game is not based on appearance, but only on data. It's just that ordinary people can't kill one or two, and it's unknown how many accomplices this guy in front of him has.

The man slapped the backpack on his waist and took out his weapon. He turned out to be an assassin. At this time, a group of people, about seven or eight, gathered at the entrance of the alley. Most of them were of agility professions, and there were two priests standing at the back, with only one head showing. They were all in the same group with the assassin.

Qi Qin glanced at Ji Xuanyi, then took out his guard and turned sideways to protect the latter behind him.

The assassin came up with a grin, pointed at Qi Qin and said, "Brother, your equipment is pretty good. Wow, it looks really impressive. You were planning to rent a carriage at the transportation point? You have money, brother!"

The people blocking the entrance of the alley also started laughing.

The assassin pretended to be serious and said, "How about this? You two are new here. It's not easy for you to come all the way to the main city. I won't make things difficult for you. All the equipment on this swordsman will be left. You pay 90% of the money. The remaining 10% is enough for you to live in Star City. Isn't that a sign of loyalty? "

Before Qi Qin could speak, Ji Xuanyi sneered and said, " That's quite a loyal person. "

The assassin nodded complacently. Just as he was about to speak, he heard Ji Xuan say, " What if you don't want to give it to me? "

" Not giving it to you? " The assassin smiled, " The resurrection point is now full of our people, understand? "

What this means is that if you don't give it, you will be reincarnated to level 20 directly.

In some games, there is a chance that equipment will drop when a player dies, which is also a form of PVP gameplay. However, in "Domain", there is no similar setting. It's just that most equipment will not be bound to the player. Therefore, no one can say whether this robbery behavior of using levels to threaten players to hand over equipment is normal or abnormal. Most novice players would choose to surrender at this time, hand over their equipment, and bargain. There might also be some stubborn newbies who would rather die and return to level 20 than hand over the equipment they worked so hard to get. However, people who even do things like robbing will obviously not let their target go just because he died and returned to level 20. They will most likely keep staring at him and killing him until he surrenders or quits the game directly.

If this happens on a small scale, it can be said to stimulate PVP gameplay, but if it goes too far and causes too bad an impact, discouraging players from playing, it is definitely not what the official wants to see.

The new system has just been opened and the situation is still a bit confusing. Once the situation stabilizes a little, the official will be able to see how much impact this behavior has caused. At that time, whether it is a one-size-fits-all approach or some strange patch for this behavior, the official will definitely take action.

But that is a matter for the future and obviously has no bearing on the current situation.

The assassin saw Ji Xuanyi frowning and thinking about something, so he thought he was afraid and was considering his conditions. He grinned and said, " If you have a good attitude and speak sweetly, it's not impossible to bargain. How about it? "

Ji Xuanyi smiled when he heard this and said, " I think it's pretty good. "

The assassin just smiled when he heard Ji Xuan say, " It would be great if someone picked you up. You won't be too lonely when you return to the resurrection point. I'm really considerate. "

Before the assassin could react, Qi Qin's guard was already in front of him.

It has to be said that this robbery gang completely relied on their numbers and had no skills at all. Qi Qin's sword hit the face, but the assassin didn't even use teleportation. He just stood there and was chopped into a streak of white light and flew away.

It was not until Qi Qin's guard landed that the seven or eight people blocking the door realized what had just happened and their faces turned pale.

This was their first time working out and they had encountered a difficult problem. They wouldn't be able to explain themselves when they returned!

The leading archer gritted his teeth and said, " We have more people and more breasts! Don't be afraid! Let's attack together! "

Ji Xuan sneered, but before he could say anything, he heard another voice coming from behind the group of people.

" You have treatment? Why didn't I see it? "

The people blocking the door were all startled and immediately turned around to see that the two healers they brought were gone! A thin, unfamiliar assassin was standing behind them, looking at them with a smile.

" Who are you! " Although the leader knew that the other party had bad intentions, he still shouted.

The assassin ignored them and said with a smile: " Has anyone ever told you that cowards who go out with a healer should pay close attention to their own treatment? If you don't have this ability, then don't try to rob others, right? "

For people who play games, especially PVP players, the thing that can easily make them angry is probably being called a noob. You know, when Ji Xuanyi was attacked for killing people at will, no one dared to call him a noob for fear of being hated. Of course, this person was the same. He didn't know what he was thinking about, his face turned red, and he didn't waste any more words. He just said hello, let Ji Xuanyi and the other two go, and rushed straight towards the assassin.

The assassin teleported between them, hacking at people while wondering, " Hey, are you taking me for granted? What's going on? Is there a Mu Xuanyi or a Xue Piao Renjian blocking this alley? Even if it was these two, they wouldn't choose me so decisively, right? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Hearing this line, he almost knew who the assassin was, so he knocked on Qi Qin next to him and said, " Beat him. "

Qi Qin was stunned: " Who to beat? "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly, " I have a grudge against that stupid assassin. "

" Ah? " Qi Qin asked stupidly, " What grudge? "

Ji Xuan gnashed his teeth and said, " Revenge for the top post! "

Qi Qin: "..."

Although he didn't quite understand what the vengeance of the top post was, Qi Qin still went up with his guard.

Of course, he would not help the robbers to beat people. He chose to kill those robbers first . After all, according to Ji Xuanyi's hatred list, those robbers were still at the top.

As soon as the robbers fought with the assassin, they immediately realized that this man was a master. They felt bitter and knew that they had found the wrong person. However, after hearing what the assassin said, they still couldn't help but curse.

This game doesn't put names on your head, so who the hell knows who you are! If you are an expert who can call out names, why don't you just say your name! We will definitely get out of here quickly!

But since the fight had already begun, there was no need to say any more. Half of the remaining six people were killed by the assassin , and the remaining half were sent back to the resurrection point by Qi Qin who followed behind.

When the assassin saw the last person turn into white light and float away, he breathed a sigh of relief in an exaggerated manner and said to Qi Qin: " Wow, brother, not bad— "

Before he could finish his words, Qi Qin, who had just killed the last man, swung his sword at him without hesitation!

The assassin screamed " Oh shit " and hastily stretched out his hand, trying to block Qi Qin's sword with a dagger, but the difference in strength was too great, and he was directly slapped away by Qi Qin.

This was the first time someone caught Qi Qin's sword. Qi Qin himself was stunned for a moment, but the assassin disappeared immediately after flying out. Qi Qin's face tightened, and he withdrew his guard and blocked the knife coming from the right rear.

The dagger slid off the sword with a sharp sound.

" Awesome! " The assassin exclaimed in surprise and attacked Qi Qin again.

This man's skills were so agile that Qi Qin even suspected that he was his fellow villager. However, after exchanging more than ten moves with the assassin, Qi Qin realized that he had overthought. This assassin was indeed very powerful and a master, but he just relied on his speed being faster than the swordsman. After ten moves, the assassin could no longer keep up with Qi Qin's rhythm and began to fend off in a panic, saying, " Fuck! So awesome! Sorry for disturbing you, I shouldn't have tried you, I'm not your opponent, can you stop now! "

He also felt that it was almost time to stop. While dealing with the assassin, Qi Qin secretly glanced at Ji Xuanyi and found that the latter was crossing his arms and looking at him coldly. If you let him go again, you will die together with this assassin.

Qi Qin understood this emotion and was frightened to death. When he looked at the assassin again, murderous intent appeared in his eyes for the first time.

Assassin: "..."

What's going on!

Qi Qin did not hold back at all in his next attack. He swung away the dagger that the assassin wanted to block and slashed at the assassin, leaving only blood on the skin. The assassin was so scared that his face turned green and he shouted, " Fuck you, are you serious? I have no grudge against you, brother! "

Qi Qin continued to attack mercilessly. Seeing that the situation was not good, the assassin teleported behind Qi Qin and ran straight towards Ji Xuanyi without looking back.

He had already seen that this ferocious swordsman cared very much about his auxiliary companion. As long as he could control this guy who was not sure whether he was a mage or a priest, this crazy swordsman would definitely stop!

The assassin was very fast, but no matter whether he continued to fight with Qi Qin or turned around and ran, this speed was not enough for him to survive. Fortunately, Ji Xuanyi was standing very close to where they were fighting. The assassin was confident that his speed was enough to control Ji Xuanyi before Qi Qin used the pursuit skills to kill him. In this way, not to mention maintaining a good relationship, it would be no problem for him to survive!

The assassin felt like he had unleashed all the potential that had been hidden in his body for so many years. When he teleported to the ground and rushed towards the swordsman's companion, the man glanced at him.

Did he discover his intention? The assassin smiled. At this distance, it was useless to discover. Although he only had half of his health left, the equipment of the man in front of him was not very good. Even if he was a mage, a magic bullet could not deplete his health.

Then he saw the man raising a staff towards him, on the top of which was inlaid a purple magic crystal representing a warlock.

Assassin: "..."

Holy shit! Is there a warlock who has reached level 40 so quickly?

Although the warlock has no attack skills, if he is paralyzed and immobilized in this situation, he will die!

The assassin desperately turned his body sideways with difficulty while moving at high speed, praying frantically in his heart that the warlock's eyesight was not good and his skills were thrown in the wrong direction.

However, before the warlock could release his skill, the assassin felt a chill on his cheek. He was confused to see a familiar sword flying past his body. With a loud bang, half of the sword was inserted into the wall.

Assassin: "..."

If the warlock had not raised his hand as if to attack, and he had not dodged, he would probably have been nailed to the wall by the sword and had to report to the resurrection point.

what kind of expressions those robbers who were killed will show when they see him appear at the resurrection point ...

The assassin was lost in thought. He thought the warlock was a rookie protected by the swordsman. Now he thought that the person he was looking at just now was not him, but the swordsman behind him.

The assassin stopped, his hand holding the dagger about a meter away from Ji Xuanyi .

Although Ji Xuanyi did not really use his skills on him, he still put away the dagger with a helpless look on his face, spread his hands and said: " Okay, you win, you can kill me or chop me up, it's all up to you. "

Ji Xuanyi ignored him and glanced at Qi Qin, who had a blank face, and said speechlessly: " Why are you in a daze? Go pick up the guardian and wait for it to refresh? "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment before he reacted and ran to draw his sword.

He himself had not expected that he would be so nervous because someone attacked Ji Xuanyi that he directly threw his sword away.

If this was not a one-on-one fight but a group fight, even if he saved Ji Xuanyi once, he would be sent back to the resurrection point together with Ji Xuanyi without a weapon ... and he would have to sacrifice a guard.

It's easy to guess that Ji Xuanyi will probably teach him a lesson again soon.

Qi Qin became depressed.

The assassin watched the interaction between the two curiously and said to Ji Xuan: " Wow, he listens to you so much? Are you his master? "

Ji Xuanyi snorted and said, " You are the only one who likes to cause trouble for yourself, okay? Don't think that everyone else likes to take in disciples just because you like to. "

The assassin was stunned and said, " Do you know me? "

Ji Xuanyi did not answer his question, but asked: " Xue Piao Renjian didn't follow you? He finally came to his senses and decided to abandon you? "

The assassin immediately looked as if he had eaten shit, and said, " Who the hell are you? I've explained it many times, we are a normal master-disciple and teammate relationship, don't talk like a gay , okay! "

Ji Xuanyi said " Oh " : " So he really doesn't want to hang out with you anymore, right? "

The assassin was obviously touched in a sore spot, and said angrily: "... Damn, you are so annoying! You must know me! How could I know such an annoying guy! "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly, " You're too kind, Mi Yin. When you annoyed me back then, you were a hundred times more annoying than you are now. "

The assassin named Mi Yin was stunned for a moment, and then he was horrified: " What the hell?! Are you Mu Xuanyi?! "

Chapter 55

Mi Yin's eyes almost popped out!

He circled around Ji Xuanyi and said in disbelief: " Oh my God, I thought Wu Jian was talking nonsense and trying to trick your enemies into looking for you! Are you really playing a sorcerer? "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " You've seen it all , why are you still asking? "

Mi Yin smiled and said, " Warlock is not bad . You are a master and you are the top level in any profession. Do you want to team up with me to play in the arena? "

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows and said, " I have bound it. "

Mi Yin glanced at Qi Qin behind Ji Xuanyi and said shamelessly: " I can't beat this big brother, but the cooperation with the swordsman warlock and assassin warlock is different, let's give it a try! "

Mi Yin has always been this kind of person. When he meets a master who suits his taste, he will insist on pestering that person to play in the arena together. Ji Xuanyi was annoyed enough by him back then, so of course he will break the other party's fantasy without hesitation now.

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Wake up, if this game had an arena now, would you still be here? "

Miyin: "... You are so annoying. "

That's right, Mi Yin is a player who lives in the arena and rarely runs around. However, because the system of "Domain" has not been fully opened and even the players have not reached the maximum level , the arena certainly does not exist.

Now Mi Yin is like a poor little child who has lost his home and can only wander around.

 " But the arena will open sooner or later , so it's no problem to find teammates in advance , "

 Ji Xuan pointed at Qi Qin behind him and said to Mi Yin , who was looking listless, " I thought you would want this guy to accompany you to the arena. "

Mi Yin suddenly perked up and said, " If you agree, I'd like to try it, too! "

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " I don't agree. "

Miyin: "..."

If Mi Yin was full of energy and spirit when he just appeared, he now looked like a cabbage that had been through frost, and his whole body was not feeling well.

Ji Xuanyi said: " My current ID is Ji Xuanyi, this guy is number one in the world. "

When Mi Yin heard Qi Qin's name, her eyes lit up and she said, " So you have a dream? Oh, no, what you are doing can't be called a dream, it should be called a goal. I think it's possible! " Qi Qin had just been listening to the conversation between him and Ji Xuanyi, and he was very disgusted with his attempt to steal someone's girlfriend! It was the first time he heard his name being called out by someone else, so he snorted with a sense of righteousness .

Ji Xuanyi hit him with his staff, and Qi Qin reluctantly added Mi Yin as a friend.

Ji Xuanyi said to Mi Yin, " Why are you here? If the arena wasn't open, you should be working hard to level up, right? Why are you here to meddle in other people's business? "

" Oh, this ..." Mi Yin was about to say something, but when she looked at Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin's chests, she was stunned and said, " Were you two kidnapped here just after you entered the city? Didn't you join a gang? "

Ji Xuanyi said coldly: " I don't want to join a gang. "

Mi Yin didn't notice anything wrong, scratching his head and said, " If you don't want to join, then don't join. The southeast is Chenshi's territory, and this gang is okay ... Well, let's not talk about this. You just got here, right? The first task is to report to the Mage Tower. Anyway, I have nothing to do now, so I'll go with you and tell you about the situation here. "

It would be good to have a guide who is familiar with the situation as a companion. Ji Xuanyi did not refuse his suggestion, and the three of them walked out of the dark alley together.

Mi Yin walked in front and seemed to be very familiar with the terrain here. She didn't even look left and right to distinguish the landmark buildings. She led the two of them forward all the way. This gave people the illusion that Mi Yin had stayed in this area for a very long time. However, Ji Xuanyi knew that this might be Mi Yin's first time here.

This person has an excellent memory.

Mi Yin is famous not only because he is a master. To be honest, in a one-on-one fight, he is no match for Ji Xuanyi – of course, the premise is that Ji Xuanyi is an assassin, but the difference in strength between the two is not that far , otherwise he would not have been able to escape every time when he went to harass Ji Xuanyi.

Mi Yin is most famous for his omnipotence.

No matter what game it is, no matter which profession he chooses, he can quickly and steadily display the strength of a master after a short period of contact. This is the reason why he has been active in the arena, and the reason why he can do this is because of his memory.

The reason why Ji Xuanyi knew this was that Mi Yin had performed it for him in order to convince him to go to the arena with her. He only needed to look at a series of numbers that had no pattern at all, and he could recite them fluently half an hour later.

Because it was a keyboard online game, Ji Xuan initially thought that this person had copied the numbers to play a trick on him, until he started the voice test and then he believed it.

But it was no use believing it. After Ji Xuanyi clapped his hands symbolically, he swung his knife and chopped Mi Yin away.

Mi Yin did not bring Ji Xuanyi and the other man back to the entrance of the southeast area, but found another transportation point where they could rent a car. There was a building here that was similar to the stable not far from the entrance, and even the people's clothes were exactly the same.

Mi Yin glanced at Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin's expressions and said with a smile: " Did you see the group of knights queuing up when you came in? In fact, there are many mission points in the city, but no one has been able to draw a map yet. They are afraid of getting lost, so they have to queue up for the mission at the point they are most familiar with. "

" This kind of transportation point is the same, most of them are built next to the stables, and occasionally there are independent ones, " Mi Yin walked up to talk skillfully, and said to Ji Xuanyi: " This main city is really too big. If there is no means of transportation, players will spend most of their time walking, and the official will be complained about for cheating game card money. "

He smiled politely at Miyin and asked softly, " What kind of transportation do you need? "

Mi Yin suggested to Ji Xuanyi: " Let's rent a large carriage. There are four seats, just enough for the three of us! "

After saying that, Mi Yin looked at Qi Qin.

Qi Qin: "..... ??? "

Ji Xuanyi also glanced at Qi Qin and said, " Just rent a carriage for three people. "

Qi Qin just showed a touched expression, and then he heard Ji Xuan said: " Tianxia and I will take the car, and you can walk. "

Qi Qin: "..... QAQ ! "

Mi Yin said pitifully: " Don't be so stingy, you can rent a three-person car. I'm skinny anyway, so I can squeeze in with Tianxia! "

In the end, Ji Xuanyi paid for the rental of a four-person carriage, and Qi Qin sat alone in a carriage with two people, feeling very aggrieved.

In fact, Qi Qin is not fat, it's just that he is a bit tall, so the seat for one person is a bit crowded. For someone with a height like Mi Yin, half a seat is enough.

Mi Yin got a ride in a carriage, looking very happy. Ji Xuan looked at him and said, " You said you would tell us about the situation? If I remember correctly, the guild system has only been open for three days, less than four days. What can be the situation now? "

Mi Yin said: " It's true that the guild system has only been open for less than four days, but the guilds have not only been around for three or four days. Besides, before that, some hardcore players had already come to the main city. The guild system was only opened to make it easier for them to determine the number of players and benefits – you see. "

Ji Xuan looked in the direction Mi Yin pointed, and saw a faint line.

Mi Yin took back her hand and said, s'It " too far , and it's still a little unclear. However, Star City is not divided into four separate areas. With the Mage Tower as the center, there is also an inner city surrounded by a slightly lower wall. The four areas of the outer city are where players ride horses to complete missions, and the inner city is where important buildings are gathered. "

" In addition to the Mage Tower, the inner city also has the Adventurer's Guild, the Auction, and other places. You know, the gameplay is pretty much the same, " Mi Yin said, " But these are not the main points. The most annoying thing is that if the guild has enough funds, they can buy a piece of land in the inner city as a guild base. Of course, there are also places in the outer city that can be used as guild bases. The bases in the inner city have more bonuses and benefits. "

" However, there are countless outposts in the outer city, but only one in the inner city, " Mi Yin exclaimed, " It is because of this one outpost that the Star City is in such a mess. These people are so boring. "

In fact, this is very normal. Although the inner city strongholds are not much better than the outer city strongholds, the number limit certainly represents the level of strength to a certain extent. Anyone who can establish a large gang will not miss such a symbol, especially when the gang system is just opened and it is difficult to distinguish who is strong and who is weak.

Ji Xuanyi said: " But when we entered the city, we didn't seem to see any gang fighting. "

" No, I don't mean the chaos or the gang fights, " Mi Yin said, " After all, the penalty for losing a rank is too severe. Even if you are the leader of a gang, you can't just ask other players to risk their lives for you. No one will listen to you. "

What he said made sense. Qi Qin, who had been listening, couldn't help but ask: " Then why did you say that Star City was a mess? "

Mi Yin glanced at him and said, " Didn't you just meet? "

Because he didn't think of himself as a victim at all, Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment before he reacted: " Are you talking about the robbers? "

Mi Yin nodded and said, " I'm there because I'm going after them. There are four big gangs in Star City right now. One is Chenshi in the southeast, one is Tamajianghu in the southwest, one is Mengtanggu in the northeast, and the other is Wanzhi, which is where the group of people you met earlier belong to. "

" Meatballs? " Qi Qin said, " They sound delicious. "

Mi Yin coughed and said, " It's called this name because the leader of their gang is called Wan Ge Nai Zhi. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin: "..."

After a long while, Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but ask, " Won't this name be censored? "

Mi Yin said helplessly: " Wan is the Wan of Wanku, and Zhi is the Zhi of branches and leaves. "

Qi Qin held it in for a long time before he finally thought of a word and said, " Too vulgar! "

" It's really vulgar, " Mi Yin sighed, " It's simply the epitome of vulgarity. "

" Although this assassin named Wan Ge Nai Zhi is despicable, he can be considered a master, " Mi Yin said, " I fought him once, and he ran away. "

Qi Qin said: " This gang controls the Northwest District? "

Mi Yin shook her head and said, " No, this gang is scattered, and there are members in every district. In addition to leveling up every day, they look for targets and then rob them. "

Qi Qin asked in confusion: " Are there many people in this gang? "

Mi Yin sighed and said, " This gang has the largest number of members among the four gangs. "

Qi Qin couldn't help but shout: " How is this possible? "

Although the sense of morality in the game will be slightly reduced, that is only in terms of killing . In a holographic online game, how could there be so many people in a robbery gang?

Ji Xuanyi figured it out after a little thought and said, " Forced to join the gang, right? "

Mi Yin nodded and said, " At first, the people who joined Wan Ge Nai Zhi were just a bunch of scum. Later, they began to force other players to join. Those who joined the gang shared money and equipment, and those who did not join the gang had to take turns to join. Of course, there were also those who would rather take turns to join than join. However, there were also many people with bad character or weak moral sense who joined. Gradually, more and more people joined the Wan Zhi Gang. "

" Although the other three gangs are also powerful, they adopt a voluntary membership model, so they are far behind that gang in terms of number of people, right? " Ji Xuanyi asked. Mi Yin nodded.

" This shouldn't be the case, " Ji Xuanyi pondered, " A gang with so many bad records like this wouldn't be able to survive even in a keyboard online game, unless it was a gang with a very small number of members and very uniform professions. Otherwise, as long as any influential gang made up a random excuse, countless people would rush over and break them up immediately. "

Mi Yin raised an eyebrow.

Ji Xuanyi was silent for a moment, exhaled, and said, " So that's how it is. "

Because of the gang stronghold in the inner city.

The three gangs mentioned by Mi Yin probably didn't take the Wanzhi Gang seriously. They knew very well that as long as someone took the lead, it would be too easy to eliminate this disgusting gang. But the problem was that even for such a gang, there would be troubles after it was disbanded. Guys like Wan Naizhi would constantly harass the gang that took the lead in disbanding them.

What's more, taking the lead does not only mean making a call from a high place, they also have to rush to the front to fight. In this game with penalties for demotion, as long as there is a battle, the gang itself will inevitably lose its strength, affecting the competition for strongholds, and then, they will lose the opportunity to become the largest gang in the stars.

So no matter how much they hate the Wanzhi gang, none of the three gangs will take the risk to take down the Wanzhi before taking over their stronghold.

" The Wanzhi Gang has also noticed this, " Mi Yin said, " When they rob people, they will try to find newcomers who are not affiliated with any gang, or whose gangs are very small. They will not touch people who have the badges of the three major gangs on their chests. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " The three major gangs themselves have not been harassed, and they can use this opportunity to recruit a group of people, so they will not attack them. "

Mi Yin tugged at her clothes on her chest, which were empty. " I was wandering around not far from the entrance , originally intending to conduct a sting operation, but I ran into you two and followed you all the way. The group today should be newcomers. If they were veterans of the Wanzhi Gang, they would be much more cunning, at least they would not be wiped out by us. "

Ji Xuanyi noticed that most of the people in that group were of agile professions. If they had a little better skills and some awareness of wild robbery, they would split up after breaking through. Even if Qi Qin and Mi Yin joined forces, they might not be able to stop them all.

"There is another problem," Mi Yin sighed, "This kind of fishing expedition doesn't always work. You can't change faces in this game. I've killed three groups of people. If I continue like this, they should know me and probably won't be fooled anymore."

Ji Xuanyi said mercilessly: "Not being fooled is the least of the problems. I think based on your description, after that naughty girl realizes your existence, she is more likely to take advantage of your trick and set a trap for you. After sending you back to the resurrection point, she will gang up on you. If you fail, you might even be hung up and mocked by them."

Mi Yin scratched his face, and said with lingering fear: "What you said is quite possible... The assassin's skills are not fully used yet. If there are too many people, they can't get out of the encirclement even if they teleport. Wow, if it really fails, it will be a disaster."

Ji Xuan looked at him, raised his eyebrows, and was about to say something, but Mi Yin said with a bitter face: "Okay, I know you are going to mention him again, why don't you follow me, I know."

Ji Xuan said, "That's good to know. With Xue Piao Renjian and you having fought in the arena for so many years, you are not afraid of these things at all, right?"

Mi Yin said: "What can I do? The goals we both want to achieve are completely different. It is normal for us to go our separate ways."

"Oh?" Ji Xuan said, "I thought your hand was shaking and you chose the wrong area."

Mi Yin: "...Am I such an unreliable person!"

Ji Xuanyi's eyes told him yes.

Mi Yin curled her lips and said, "Anyway, don't ask me about him anymore. I even deleted him as a friend. I have no idea what's going on with him now."

Ji Xuanyi said, "I'm not familiar with Xue Piao Renjian, why would I ask him?"

Mi Yin nodded repeatedly: "That's right!"

Qi Qin didn't listen to their discussion and said worriedly, "Although the Wanzhi Gang is not a big deal, when will the other three gangs take action to deal with them?"

"Haven't you heard a saying?" Mi Yin complained: "The triangle is the most stable shape."

Qi Qin looked at him in confusion.

Ji Xuanyi said, "The family that attacks the stronghold first will surely be attacked by the other two families at the same time, and will be eliminated first in this fight, so none of the three families will attack first."

Mi Yin sighed and said, "Either something unexpected happens, or we can only see which of the three gangs will be the first to get upset. The Wanzhi Gang will be able to fish in troubled waters for a long time."

Qi Qin frowned and asked, "Are we just going to sit here and wait?"

"Of course not," Mi Yin smiled and said, "I showed up in the Southeast District today for another purpose, which was to discuss something with the leader of the Chensi Gang."

Although the leader of this gang is very arrogant, their deputy is pretty good. We chatted for a while. "

" How is it? " Qi Qin asked with concern.

Mi Yin said: " Their deputy gang leader is easy to talk to, but their gang leader is not very willing to quit just like that, and asked me to show some sincerity. "

" Sincerity? " Qi Qin was stunned.

Ji Xuanyi said, " Such a big gang wants sincerity. Can you, a guy who hangs out in the arena every day, show it? "

Mi Yin said with a bitter face: " How should I know? We are planning to go to the inner city to have a look. This map can be regarded as a sincere thing, and it can only be found in the inner city. "

Ji Xuanyi said " Oh " and said, " So you went to the inner city to find sincerity, not to accompany us to complete the mission. "

Mi Yin's face froze, and just as he was about to speak, Ji Xuan raised his hand to freeze him, and said to Qi Qin: " Throw it down. "

Qi Qin was stunned, but still raised his hand to pick up Mi Yin, and threw her out hesitantly .

Qi Qin was about to ask Ji Xuanyi why he did this, but Mi Yin suddenly returned to the car, patting her chest and saying, " Fuck, this teleportation almost got stuck on the car ... Well, I'm just a hitchhiker, and you've already let me down once, calm down! "

Ji Xuanyi really didn't let Qi Qin throw him again. It was unknown whether it was because his skill CD was running out or he really decided to let him go. He said, " Actually, this matter will be resolved eventually. It's just a matter of waiting a little longer. You don't have to go through so much trouble to get a ride and look for ' Sincerity .' Are you always so bored when you're not playing JJC ? "

Mi Yin smiled and said, " Hey, after all, I am a ..."

Ji Xuan raised an eyebrow.

Mi Yin covered her mouth for a long time, then smiled awkwardly: " Let's not talk about things in real life, huh? "

Ji Xuanyi withdrew his gaze.

Mi Yin looked at the streets outside the carriage for a while, then sighed and said, " To be honest, I'm just a floor cleaner in the arena, and I really don't know what level of sincerity the big gangs want. "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Then forget it. "

Mi Yin pretended not to hear and came over to Ji Xuanyi and said, " Hey, since the guild system has just been opened, it shouldn't be too difficult to create another guild. I heard that you used to be the leader of a very large guild. Are you interested in returning to your old job? "

Ji Xuan looked at him for a while, then laughed in anger and said, " My old job also has a PVP cancer, the kind that kills everyone I see, and it's pretty easy to deal with, what do you think? "

Before the carriage reached the entrance to the inner city , Mi Yin was kicked off. This time, the enemy was paralyzed the moment he kicked down . In five seconds, even an assassin with full agility equipment could not catch up.

Ji Xuanyi sat in his seat, looking out the window with an expressionless face.

Qi Qin sat obediently against the wall of the carriage, his eyes on his nose and his nose on his heart, not daring to make a sound.

After a long while, Ji Xuanyi looked at the scenery outside the window and whispered, " Mi Yin is well-informed. I thought no one had remembered her. "

Qi Qin couldn't help but look at him.

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Do you want to know? "

I'm going crazy to know!

Qi Qin was anxious, but when he looked at Ji Xuanyi's pale face in the game , he suddenly felt sad. After a long while , he said in a voice as soft as a mosquito: " If Xuanyi wants to talk, I will listen. If he does n't want to talk , don't talk. "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head: " Now that I think about it, it doesn't seem like a big deal. "

His expression was somewhat complicated : " Three or four years ago, I was only a teenager, with a bad temper, like gunpowder , which could be ignited at any time. "

Qi Qin imagined Xuan Yi being even younger and extremely angry , and it almost made him bleed from his nose.

Ji Xuanyi: "... What's that expression on your face? "

Qi Qin rubbed his face quickly , looked at Ji Xuanyi as normally as possible , and said: " Yes , I'm sorry! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi did not ask Qi Qin to remove the blush on his face, and lowered his eyes and said: " I did have a gang before. It was one of the largest gangs in the game I played at that time. It had a thousand people in the main gang and several branch gangs. "

Qi Qin was stunned. As for Ji Xuanyi's past, he only knew that he was a very cruel person who broke up a gang, and then was criticized for killing people indiscriminately. He had never heard that Ji Xuanyi once had such a big gang.

It should be said that other players don't seem to know about this matter.

Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " I wasn't called Mu Xuanyi at that time, so of course they didn't know. What Mi Yin said was just a guess. Everyone knows that Mu Xuanyi has a grudge against the gang, but few people know what the grudge is. After all, it's been more than a year since my gang disbanded. "

 " I was actually quite surprised that someone could actually dig up something that happened a year ago and link it to me, " Ji Xuan said, " but the time interval was too long, so most people don't think this guess is correct. "

Qi Qin paused and asked cautiously, " Was Xuanyi's gang defeated in the fight with that gang? "

Ji Xuan looked at him and showed no sign of anger. He said calmly, " The leader of that gang bribed the core members of my gang ... All the big gangs started out as family and friends gangs. The core members have a lot of emotional ties with each other. Once someone has a different mind, the situation will be hard to control. "

During that period of time, Ji Xuanyi could be said to have heard all the heart-wrenching words he had heard over the years, such as how he was too dictatorial, how he had no friends, how being with him every day was like endurance, how stressful it was, how disgusting ... all kinds of words.

Any one of these words alone would be enough to make Ji Xuanyi explode ten thousand times. When they came all at once, Ji Xuanyi was stunned. He didn't even have time to feel angry, but began to doubt whether he was really that bad.

In that battle, Ji Xuanyi's gang, which had several times more people than the opposing gang, was almost crushed to the ground amid chaos at the top.

Since then, the gang has disbanded, with one group of people setting up their own gangs and another group being merged into one, forming the second gang of over a thousand people in the game.

That was the gang that was later disbanded by Ji Xuanyi.

The thought of irritating the little, hot-tempered Ji Xuanyi to the point where he couldn't even breathe and was stunned made Qi Qin feel distressed. Qi Qin squatted down, gently supported Ji Xuanyi's knees, looked up at him, and whispered, "Did they do this on purpose? "

Ji Xuanyi looked down at him and shook his head: "I don't know. "

In fact, he now understands that even if some of these people received benefits and were transferred, there is more or less real emotion in their words.

He really is someone who shouldn't have friends. He is arbitrary, has a bad temper, and puts a lot of pressure on others – not to mention managing a gang. Even if he attracts followers because of his personal ability, something will happen sooner or later.

Even if it wasn't someone from that gang who tampered with their people, there would definitely be other situations that would arise later.

Ji Xuanyi now knows this clearly and calmly.

But he didn't think about these things at all at that time. After he found out that the reason for his gang disbanding was because his friends were bribed, he was furious. He wanted to throw money at those people's faces and tell them that you guys are blind!

Unfortunately, something happened in Ji Xuanyi's family at that time. Not to mention throwing money at others, he didn't even have time to play games. In the eyes of others, he became a complete loser.

And in fact, it was not far off . After Ji Xuanyi's family affairs were settled, he moved out and no longer relied on his family. A year later, Mu Xuanyi appeared and single-handedly broke up the Thousand Man Gang and killed the bribed guy until he surrendered – the situation at the time did not make Ji Xuanyi very happy, so later he took his anger out on other people in the former gang.

But the gang he used to belong to was so big that, to be honest, he couldn't even remember who was in it . He had no choice but to kill anyone he saw until he was tired.

By that time, Mu Xuanyi had already become famous, so Ji Xuanyi simply took this as a pretext and played the game for two years, making many enemies. It was not until the launch of "Domain" that he decided to throw everything away and play the game again.

Ji Xuanyi glanced at Qi Qin and said, "It's been a long time. In fact, I can't remember some of the details."

Qi Qin looked at him for a while, then slowly stood up, wanting to hold Ji Xuan in his arms and tell him that everything was over.

But just as he sat down next to Ji Xuan, Qi Qin heard Ji Xuan say expressionlessly: "Get out of the way, you're squeezing me."

Qi Qin: "..... QAQ!"

Qi Qin sat back in his seat with a wronged look on his face.

Ji Xuanyi looked out the window and said calmly, "It's all over. I've killed everyone I should have killed, but that's just my temper. I can't change it in this lifetime, so forget about gangs and friends."

Qi Qin could understand Ji Xuanyi's feelings. Although he still felt that Art, Ze Yu Shishui, and even Mi Yin, whom he had just met, were different from the people Ji Xuanyi had met before, mentioning these things now would definitely make Ji Xuanyi unhappy, so he had to change the subject.

"If you don't want to form a gang, then do you still want to help Mi Yin find a way to deal with the Wanzhi Gang?"

Ji Xuanyi glanced at Qi Qin and said, "Didn't I tell you that we don't need to intervene in this matter. It will be resolved sooner or later. Mi Yin has an occupational disease. He can't help but meddle in other people's affairs. Do you also have an occupational disease?"

Qi Qin opened his mouth, but before he could say anything, Ji Xuanyi suddenly said, "Oh, by the way, you do have an occupational disease."

As a hero, it is his duty to help the weak and punish the strong.

Ji Xuanyi had finished speaking, so Qi Qin had no choice but to shut up.

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said with a smile: "It's rare that you have a goal, so if you want to help, then help me."

Qi Qin's eyes lit up, and he immediately said, "With Xuan Yi here, there will be no problem!"

Ji Xuanyi pulled the corner of his mouth and said, "You seem to have misunderstood something? Mi Yin just made me angry, and I don't want to help him at all."

"Ah?" Qi Qin was stunned.

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows: "You can come up with your own ideas on how to solve this matter. I can help you when you fight, but forget about the rest."

Qi Qin was stunned.

The carriage in the game was moving very fast. Ji Xuanyi estimated that it could catch up with a car. It only took about forty minutes for the two of them to reach the outside of the inner city. The walls of the inner city are relatively short, only about ten meters high, and not as thick as the walls of the outer city. However, Ji Xuanyi noticed that the walls of the inner city are black, and the texture looks very similar to Qi Qin's light armor.

As expected, it should be made of black steel.

They actually used orange material to build the city wall ... Even Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but sigh, these people are so rich!

If there hadn't been any patrols around, Ji Xuanyi felt that he might not be able to resist secretly knocking off a few pieces to complete the equipment for Qi Qin.

Qi Qin stood behind Ji Xuanyi, his eyes were blank, and he looked stupid.

Ever since Ji Xuanyi asked him to find a way to help Mi Yin, he has been in this state, even including the last ten minutes or so in the carriage. He had no time to find Ji Xuanyi to act cute and enhance their relationship.

Ji Xuanyi showed the parchment to the person at the entrance and then entered the inner city. There is actually not much difference between the architectural style of the inner city and the outer city, but after careful observation, you can see that the building materials here are much more expensive than those outside.

However, what surprised Ji Xuanyi was that there were not too many players here. But think about it, not everyone is like the players in Green Forest City, who can enjoy even setting up stalls.

Most players are working hard to upgrade in the outer city. Although there are some tasks in the inner city, it is essentially an activity area. It is not until the later stages of the game when everyone has basically reached the maximum level and begins to fight for various equipment and merit points that more people will come here.

At this distance, the wizard's tower in the distance can be clearly seen . Unexpectedly, this tower looks much more rustic than other buildings. Apart from the large magic crystal on the top of the tower, there is almost no other decoration.

However, no matter how big the tower is, it is still a building standing in the center of the city. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin have to walk the rest of the way on their own.

In fact, the inner city is not entirely composed of trading houses, exploration guilds and other gameplay buildings. There are still some rich and noble people living in the inner city. Ji Xuanyi has seen it all the way and has a better understanding of this main city.

When passing an intersection, Ji Xuanyi suddenly stopped.

Qi Qin was still distracted and almost bumped into his back. After barely catching himself, he asked vaguely, " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything and looked at the street across the intersection.

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, then he also leaned over to take a look.

I saw a group of players gathered there, looking at each other warily.

" What are you doing? " Qi Qin asked.

Ji Xuanyi said, " Look up and take a look at the sign on the building. "

Qi Qin looked at it as he was told and found that it said [Gang-related matters] .

Ji Xuan said, " This group of people should be from the three major gangs. They all knew that the one who took action first would be besieged, but they still sent people here to watch. How boring. "

It's quite boring ...

However, what Qi Qin was thinking was, how could these three gangs be so bored? I wonder how long this meaningless stalemate will last.

Qi Qin said: If I rush up and " kill them all now, will it be useful? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said calmly, " For this kind of action, we should at least finish the task of reporting to the Mage Tower first, so as to avoid being hunted down by the three gangs and not being able to find the way. "

Qi Qin: "... Okay. "

Qi Qin followed Ji Xuanyi away with a depressed look.

The area of the inner city is much smaller than that of the outer city. The two men walked for twenty minutes and reached the outskirts of the Mage Tower. To go further in, they needed to go through another identity check. Only after confirmation was they were allowed in.

Qi Qin sighed: " We don't even know where the City Lord's Mansion is in the main city. We have to pass through so many guards to enter the Mage Tower. "

Ji Xuan looked up at the Mage Tower and felt a little dizzy because of how high it was. He lowered his head again and said to Qi Qin, " Because the operation of the main city mostly relies on magic, there is a situation where the Great Mage is more honorable than the City Lord. After all, if the City Lord is gone, we can just choose another one to take over, but if the Great Mage is gone, it's not that easy to find a successor. "

This made sense, Qi Qin nodded.

Before officially entering the Mage Tower, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were examined again, and Qi Qin became a little nervous.

Ji Xuanyi tapped him and said, " Calm down. The plot of the game should be developing to a tense stage at this stage. This repetitive checking action is to let the players feel the undercurrent. "

Ji Xuan looked at Qi Qin and couldn't help but smile, saying: " Do you feel like you are in deep trouble now? "

Qi Qin frowned and responded.

The Mage Tower covers a large area, but there are not many people. Apart from the players like Ji Xuanyi who come to hand in tasks, there are only a few busy people, some drawing, some doing experiments, and occasionally small explosions occur, which looks very interesting.

Qi Qin took a look and followed Ji Xuanyi upstairs.

Of course, it is impossible for players to climb up the 300-meter-high Mage Tower in circles, so a guide appears on the second floor, indicating that there is a magic device in the tower that can allow adventurers to go to the residence of the great magician.

Ji Xuanyi walked over to the magic device and took a look. He was immediately shocked. This was just an elevator, and it was a magic device ...

In addition to him, there were three other players who entered the elevator. Together with the big guy Qi Qin, the elevator suddenly became crowded.

At a height of 300 meters, the elevator would take a while to go. The three players gradually started chatting happily. One of them saw Ji Xuanyi and wanted to raise his hand to touch him and talk to him. Ji Xuanyi slightly turned sideways, and Qi Qin stretched out his hand to block the man.

The man looked up and found Qi Qin frowning at him. He was startled and quickly withdrew his hand. The elevator suddenly became quiet.

Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to pay attention to them. He grabbed Qi Qin and crawled behind him like a little animal. He then pushed him from behind, asking Qi Qin to separate him from the three players.

Qi Qin was extremely touched by Ji Xuanyi, but he knew rationally that he would be beaten if this feeling was exposed, so he put on a stern face and protected Ji Xuanyi behind him. When the other three people in the elevator saw that he and Ji Xuanyi had exchanged positions, they quickly shrank into the corner, fearing that they would be close to him.

Of course, he didn't notice the atmosphere between the players. After the elevator stopped, he smiled and said, " We're here. "

As soon as the elevator door opened, the three players rushed out in a hurry, almost knocking me off balance.

He was not angry, and led the five people directly to a quaint wooden door and said, " Please enter August's workshop in an orderly manner and do not make loud noises. "

August is the name of the great magician of Star City. When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin entered the tower, they saw his portrait on the first floor.

The three players looked at each other and gave their seats to Qi Qin.

Qi Qin couldn't help but look at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " They have already given way to us. It would be too disrespectful not to go in. Let's go. "

Three players: "..."

If possible, they don't really want to give in!

However, since Ji Xuanyi had already said that, Qi Qin had no choice but to walk in front and entered the great magician's workshop. Ji Xuanyi took a step forward and found that no one was stopping him, so he followed in.

I guess that's why they formed a team.

The three players saw the two of them go in together and were muttering to each other when they heard Qi Qin say to Ji Xuan in a somewhat aggrieved tone: " Do I look fierce? "

Ji Xuanyi comforted her perfunctorily, " She's not fierce, she's very cute. "

The three players couldn't help but remain silent again.

Cute as hell!

When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin entered the room, they saw a dirty old man lying on a large wooden table which was cluttered with all kinds of odds and ends, with his head buried in drawing something on a piece of paper.

Just as Ji Xuanyi took a step forward, the old man suddenly made a " tsk " sound, crumpled up the paper into a ball, threw it on the ground, licked the black quill pen in his hand, and continued to paint on the next piece of paper.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin looked at each other. Qi Qin felt that this person's temper seemed to be not very good. If Ji Xuanyi could not help but beat the old man, it would be bad. He rushed to the front and asked: " Are you the great magician of Star City? "

Without even raising his head, he said irritably: " No, no! I am August! Not some great magician! "

Qi Qin was stunned and subconsciously looked at Ji Xuanyi, and found that the latter was frowning. He picked up a notebook from the corner of the table and stared at the cover in a daze, not knowing what he was thinking about.

Qi Qin had no choice but to continue: " We are from Green Forest City. The city lord asked us to bring you a letter. "

Hearing this, he finally looked up. He muttered something and seemed unhappy. Qi Qin thought he would scold him directly after he looked up. But after seeing Qi Qin, August was stunned for a moment, as if he was reacting to something. After a while, he stammered, " Oh, oh, put it on the table. "

This abnormal reaction was so obvious that even Qi Qin noticed it, but he couldn't figure out whether it was a setting of the main plot or something else, so he leaned close to Ji Xuanyi's ear and said, " Xuanyi, there seems to be something wrong with this great magician. "

Ji Xuanyi originally felt that the notebook on the table looked familiar, but after looking at it for a long time, he couldn't remember where he had seen it. He was concentrating on recalling it when he was startled by Qi Qin's sudden words, which sounded right next to his ears. He immediately glared at him.

Qi Qin noticed that Ji Xuanyi's ears were red, and he felt itchy inside, but he still held back and repeated under Ji Xuanyi's gaze: " There seems to be something wrong with this great magician. "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, turned his head and saw that the dark face had a pair of eyes open, fixed on Qi Qin.

Something is indeed wrong. If you are someone of the same profession, you could say that you saw a genius and couldn't help but want to take him as a disciple, so you send him on a secret mission or something. But why are you, a mage, staring at a swordsman?

Ji Xuanyi looked at it a few more times in confusion, and suddenly realized that he was not looking at Qi Qin, but the necklace hanging around Qi Qin's neck.

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment, and instantly remembered where he had seen this notebook in his hand.

This is the notebook that Madam Harman used to record potion prescriptions. Although the color and pattern are different, if you look closely, you can see a pattern similar to the warlock profession logo on this notebook .

Ji Xuan smiled and put the notebook back on the table.

Qi Qin asked: " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows and said, " Nothing, give me back my necklace. "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, then reacted: " QAQ ! Didn't you give it to me? "

Ji Xuanyi said coldly: " This was given to you in a dream, right? Take it down quickly. "

Chapter 57

Staring at Qi Qin with a somewhat dull look in his eyes , Ji Xuanyi guessed that it was because Qi Qin's profession did not match the channel for obtaining the necklace, causing the AI to be unable to keep up.

Qi Qin took off the necklace with a wronged look on her face and put it on Ji Xuanyi. Ji Xuanyi looked back and saw that his expression had indeed changed. He looked Ji Xuanyi up and down , then walked out from behind the table and said to Ji Xuanyi: " A warlock ... You , have you seen Hamana? Is she doing well now? "

It is easy to guess that the Hamana mentioned by August should be Mrs. Hamana from Newwood Town.

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Mrs. Harman is doing well. "

Tears suddenly welled up in August's cloudy eyes, fell on his dirty face, and were wiped away by his rough hands . He sobbed like a child , mumbling words like " I'm sorry " and " I shouldn't have done that " . Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin had to watch from the side. After a long time, he finally stopped.

Ji Xuanyi noticed that the color of the name above his head changed from yellow, representing neutrality, to green, representing friendliness.

August looked at Ji Xuanyi gently. His face was rubbed black and white, looking a little funny , but his temperament was completely different from the grumpy old man when he first came in . He looked like an elder who doted on his grandson.

" My dear , " August whispered, " Thank you, thank you, child. I promised not to see her again. Thank you for telling me about her recent situation. This necklace is her work. I can recognize it. You are a good child who is trustworthy. And your companion, yes ..."

He muttered: " She said that warlocks need companions, but they are much more powerful than magicians. Oh, she is such an arrogant little girl. Whatever, I don't care about it anymore. "

August looked like he wanted to cry again, but he held back and whispered to Ji Xuan, " The Mage Tower welcomes you, kid. You and your companions can come visit me anytime. No one will stop you. "

Ji Xuanyi noticed that the word used was "see", not "call". It seems that he has a close relationship with Mrs. Harman, so much so that she loves him and Qi Qin as her own family.

" If you run into any trouble in Star City, you can always come to me, " August muttered, " Although I can't handle everything, such as those reckless adventurers ... well, but apart from them, you can come to me for anything else. I have plenty of time. "

Adventurers obviously refer to players. August's words mean that except for the players I can't control, if anyone recruits you, feel free to come and complain! If you don't understand any tasks, feel free to ask!

It can be said to be very domineering.

Ji Xuanyi had never expected that he would meet such a powerful backer as soon as he entered the city. If there weren't still a Wanzhi Gang causing trouble in Fanxing City, he and Qi Qin could be considered the winners in life in Fanxing City!

However, it is not so easy to get this backer. What Ji Xuanyi has experienced requires both strength and luck. It can be said that under normal circumstances, at least at this point in time, no player can get August's favor.

After August finished speaking, he looked at Ji Xuanyi pitifully and whispered, " Oh, it's been a long time. Am I nagging too much? Are you guys leaving? "

Now he doesn't look like the eccentric great magician who supports the entire main city, but just a poor empty-nester who hopes that his children can stay and spend more time with him. Qi Qin almost couldn't help but say that he wanted to stay with him, but was stopped by Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi hasn't seen his family for a long time, and he actually feels a little touched. However, by saying this, the game designer is actually reminding them that they still have other tasks to do, so they should stop monopolizing the space and make room for other players.

If he guessed correctly, even if he stayed and continued to talk, he would probably just say some repetitive nonsense which would be meaningless.

Ji Xuan nodded to August and said, "Yes, we should leave now, but we will visit you again next time."

Augustus regained some spirits after hearing the last sentence. He walked forward, lightly touched Ji Xuanyi's forehead with his hand, and said lovingly, "Oh, I know. Go ahead, kid. The goddess of magic will bless you."

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, looking at him with a strange expression as he walked tremblingly back to the stool where he had been sitting originally, and continued to write and draw with the dirty feather pen.

Ji Xuanyi turned around and started walking out the door.

Qi Qin followed and asked in a low voice: "What's wrong?"

He had been looking at Ji Xuanyi, so he noticed the other person's instantaneous change in mood.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, "Well, I just got a title."

The title system has existed since the game was released, but so far we have hardly heard of anyone getting a title. It is also possible that someone has gotten a title but has not revealed it. After all, player information in this game will not appear above their heads.

Therefore, Ji Xuanyi still found the title very strange.

Qi Qin had no idea what a title was, so he asked curiously, "What title?"

Ji Xuanyi replied: "Auguste's guest."

"What's the use of this?" Qi Qin asked.

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, "I don't know, it's not written there."

Qi Qin thought for a moment and said, "It doesn't matter. This title is also very valuable. That old man..."

Ji Xuanyi glanced at him with a half-smile, and Qi Qin quickly changed his words: "August's setting doesn't look easy. Such a prosperous city, such a big tower, but he is dressed like that, and his temper is also weird. He must be very lonely."

Ji Xuanyi did not refute him, and said: "From the way he spoke, he should be doing well in Star City. As for his dress... maybe all mages have this kind of quirky personality. His relationship with Madam Harman looks like that of a relative. Most likely, it's a story about a mage and a warlock having a conflict and never seeing each other again."

"That's also very pitiful." Qi Qin couldn't help but say.

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything, because this plot was too similar to his own experience, and it felt like anything he said would just be a slap in the face...

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin went out and found that there were a few more people queuing outside. Someone even complained in a low voice: " Shouldn't this task be completed in just a few words? Why is it taking so long? Are you stalling for time on purpose? "

Ji Xuan glanced at the man, who was startled and quickly turned his head away, pretending that he had not said anything just now.

Qi Qin stared at Ji Xuanyi nervously, afraid that he would be unhappy.

Fortunately, Ji Xuanyi was a little distracted and didn't think about being angry. He went straight to the elevator downstairs.

The guide was standing next to the elevator. After seeing Ji Xuanyi, the smile on his face immediately became even sweeter. He came up to him warmly and said softly, " Please come this way. I'll take you down. "

This annoying tone was so obvious that almost everyone looked over here, wondering why their attitude towards Ji Xuanyi and the others had changed so drastically.

You know, although this is always friendly and cordial to all players, it has never been enthusiastic.

Ji Xuan heard someone whispering, " Did he get his favorability boost? "

Another person said: " I don't know. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned. Hearing this, it seemed that Fanxing City could help improve favorability? However, the attitude towards him should not be affected by the favorability, but the title given to him by August.

Ji Xuanyi's guess was confirmed. After going downstairs, almost everyone smiled at him, and some even came up to talk to him. Even when he was leaving the house, the originally cold and stern guards nodded slightly at him.

It seems that August's influence in Star City is indeed huge, it's like he has a cheat code.

As soon as Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qinyi left the Mage Tower, they saw Mi Yin squatting on the side of the road.

This guy actually followed me.

As soon as she saw Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, Mi Yin revealed a resentful expression: " That's too much. You just left me behind like that. If I hadn't run fast, I would have been left behind by you. "

Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to pay attention to him. But Qi Qin, when he saw Mi Yin, remembered that Ji Xuanyi had asked him to find a way to deal with the Wanzhi Gang on his own, and he suddenly felt a headache.

Mi Yin didn't know about this yet, so she came up to him shamelessly and asked, " Have you completed the mission? Where are you two going to go next? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Don't you have something to do? Why are you following us? "

Mi Yin chuckled and said, " I'm sorry, I won't mention gang matters anymore. You know, I'm just a floor cleaner in the arena. How can I know so much about these outdoor and gang matters? I have no other choice but to ask you for help. "

Ji Xuan raised his hand and pointed, saying: " Stop, if you need help, don't look for me, look for him. "

Mi Yin looked in the direction he pointed and found Qi Qin who was daydreaming.

Mi Yin rushed over and said excitedly: " Big Brother! Are you willing to help me?!"

Qi Qin was stunned, and just as he nodded, he heard Mi Yin said happily: " Then please help me persuade Xuan Yi! Let him change his mind! "

Qi Qin: "..." That's not the way to help!

Mi Yin looked at him expectantly: " Will he listen to what you say? "

Qi Qin had no choice but to say: " If what I said was useful, you wouldn't be thrown off the carriage ..."

Miyin: "..."

Qi Qin sighed. It would be great if Ji Xuanyi could really listen to him and kiss or hug him whenever he wanted ...

Qi Qin started to daydream again.

Mi Yin said disappointedly: " What? You've grown so tall, don't you think your words count? "

Before Qi Qin could say anything, Mi Yin said, " You are a swordsman, and your job is to suppress him. Why don't you just grab him and coerce him? "

To be honest, there is indeed professional suppression, coercion and so on ... Qi Qin couldn't help but imagine it in his mind, and then couldn't help but look at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi was crossing his arms, looking at him with a half-smile. Qi Qin was immediately frightened and said righteously: " I am loyal to Xuanyi! How could I do such a thing! "

Mi Yin was speechless and said, " It's fine if you're loyal ... but are you really the only one helping me? "

He didn't think this big brother looked like someone who could come up with a solution. If anything, he felt that Qi Qin was more like him and Xue Piao, the kind who knew nothing but fighting ...

" It can't be considered a one-man gang, " Mi Yin was disappointed. When she heard Ji Xuanyi's voice, her eyes lit up and she heard him continue, " When necessary, I can support you with force. "

Miyin: "..."

You're just a warlock, what kind of military support can you provide?

However, due to Ji Xuanyi's temper, it was obvious that she couldn't say such words. Mi Yin sorted out her words and said against her conscience: " Although your fighting ability is very strong, this kind of thing cannot be solved by two or three masters relying on fighting ability alone ..."

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows and said, " Since you dislike it, forget it. "

After saying that, he raised his leg and was about to leave.

Mi Yin quickly stopped him and said, " Don't despise me, don't despise me! My God, just use force to support me. I thank you on behalf of the people! "

Only then did Ji Xuanyi stop.

Qi Qin scratched his head and said to Mi Yin: " What should we do now? "

Miyin: "..."

You ask me, who should I ask?

The two looked at each other for a while, and then looked at Ji Xuanyi together.

Ji Xuanyi looked around and said, " I want to walk around the inner city first. I just arrived, so I should get familiar with the terrain, right? "

Mi Yin said quickly: " Of course I should! "

Mi Yin came up to him like a lackey and said, " Where do you want to go? I know the inner city well. I'll take you there! "

Although Ji Xuanyi actually always felt that Mi Yin was annoying, he had to admit that at times like this, Mi Yin was still very useful.

There is no map for Star City yet. Most players are familiar with a small area, but will still get lost if they go somewhere else. Mi Yin is different. His memory allows him to know every place he has been to like the back of his hand. It is like a human map, which is so convenient.

However, Ji Xuanyi did not ask for directions, but said: " There is no rush to go anywhere, tell me first, is there any favorability mission in Star City? "

Mi Yin was stunned for a moment, then said: " Oh! By the way, I forgot to tell you, this is what happened. "

" In addition to the upgrade missions, there are indeed favorability missions in Star City, but these missions are difficult to complete, and there are no rewards except for the favorability.

Now no one knows what the favorability is for, so not many people do it. "

Mi Yin asked: " Did you meet him? "

Ji Xuan nodded.

" Is it in the Mage Tower? " Mi Yin understood, and then said: " But speaking of it, the mission is difficult, but if the concept of favorability is similar to reputation, then it should be of some use. "

In most games, when a faction has a high reputation, it will provide players with some conveniences, such as daily tasks with rich rewards, or special shops and the like.

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " Favorability and reputation are not the same thing. We accidentally went to the wild map before and met another group related to reputation in the main quest. "

If he mentioned the elves, given how annoying Mi Yin was, it would take a lot of time to explain them, so Ji Xuanyi simply skipped the topic.

Mi Yin really didn't care, she just exclaimed: " Field map? You are really brave ... But if it has nothing to do with reputation, what is the use of favorability? Is it like getting a discount when buying something? "

" It's hard to say. " Ji Xuan said.

Mi Yin suddenly became excited and said, " Wow, then I have to get along well with the equipment repairman, but he doesn't seem to have any impression missions ..."

Not everything in Starry City is conquerable. In fact, there are only a few missions that have favorability tasks. After discovering that the tasks are difficult and do not provide experience or money, almost no players waste their time on them. Instead of wasting time on these tasks, they might as well complete the missions quickly to level up. If favorability is really useful, it won't be too late to level up after you reach the maximum level .

In the current Starry City, there is probably only one character's favorability mission that has not been abandoned.

When Mi Yin said this, Ji Xuanyi almost knew: " August? "

Mi Yin took a moment to realize who he was talking about, and said, " Yes, the great magician in the Mage Tower. This foreign name is too difficult to remember, so no one calls him that. "

" This mage's quest is really annoying. Other favorability quests are difficult because the monsters are high level or the map is difficult to navigate, but this guy is really too much, " Mi Yin said, " His quest is a quest chain. You have to complete five quests at a time. If you interrupt it, you have to start all over again. "

" He has four apprentices under him, plus one of his own. Most of the tasks are puzzle-solving, asking about enchantments, medicine making, magic circles and the like. Life skills haven't been unlocked yet, so how can anyone know this? We just have to rely on guessing! " Ji Xuanyi was a little embarrassed to say that he cheated by relying on the secret missions in the Novice Village. He said calmly, " Multiple choice questions? There is a probability of guessing five times, right? "

Mi Yin said with a bitter face: " No, I guessed four times, and when I got to the mage level, it was a quiz. "

This is really fucked up, isn't it ...

Mi Yin said: " I think this mage's favorability may be to mess with us players. When the apprentices don't give us multiple-choice questions, they will ask the players to go out and find materials. However, you can only enter the mage tower once a day. If you encounter a task to find materials, you have to split it into several days to complete it ... No, not to complete it. No one has completed this task yet. They all failed. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin couldn't help but say: " This is too difficult. Is there anyone who would do it? "

Mi Yin nodded sympathetically and said, " Yes, they seem to think that the mission is so difficult that their favorability will increase as long as they succeed once. It's easy to imagine that this is impossible. "

Mi Yin was right. With August's status, it was impossible to increase his favorability so easily. The probability of his favorability suddenly increasing after completing a task was about the same as helping an old man up on the street and finding out that he was the boss of a Fortune 500 company.

Mi Yin sighed, " If you have this much time, you might as well just level up. These people are really obsessed with currying favor with others. Brothers, you must not learn from them! "

Of course Qi Qin didn't want to learn, because he and Ji Xuanyi had both shown their faces in front of August!

Ji Xuan glanced at Mi Yin who was pretending to impart her experience and said coldly: " You are quite familiar with this mission. Have you read the walkthrough? "

In fact, there is no such favorability strategy on the forum at all, otherwise Ji Xuanyi would not be unaware of this.

Mi Yin laughed dryly and said shamelessly: " It's all gossip, gossip. "

Ji Xuanyi almost couldn't help rolling his eyes. With Mi Yin's annoying personality, it was impossible for her not to chase him up the Mage Tower now that they were already there. He was still squatting on the side of the road, and it was obvious that he had entered the Mage Tower once today and couldn't enter again.

You are clearly doing the task yourself, yet you are pretending to educate others!

Mi Yin also knew that he was exposed, and said with a shameless face: " Let's not talk about this. Didn't you say that you wanted to familiarize yourself with the environment in the inner city? Let's go to the auction house first. The auction house is different from the trading house. The items in the trading house are all posted by players, while the items in the auction house are all posted by the system, and each one is a fine product! "

Ji Xuanyi knew that Mi Yin actually wanted to go to the auction house to see if there was anything that could be used as a token of " sincerity " , but he was also interested in the things posted by the system, so he didn't expose it and followed Mi Yin out.

After walking a few steps, I ran into two people.

One of these two people is an acquaintance, the mortal swordsman who had recruited people at the entrance of Starry City before. Next to him is a shorter knight who looks younger, who is looking at Mi Yin with a frown.

Mi Yin seemed to know these two people and was stunned for a moment.

At this moment, the knight spoke first, and said in a very impatient tone: " What's going on? Didn't I say we should talk about this later? Why did you follow me here? Are you annoying? Do you know how to ask for help? "

Mi Yin frowned and was about to speak when the swordsman quickly stopped the knight and smiled at Mi Yin, saying, " Sorry, are you here to do the favorability quest in the Mage Tower? " The knight who was stopped was stunned for a moment, and found that he seemed to have misunderstood something. However, he was too embarrassed to apologize, so he just snorted coldly.

As soon as Ji Xuan took a look at Mi Yin's expression, he almost knew who these two people were.

Before Mi Yin could speak, Ji Xuan said, " No, he is here to wait for you. "

The knight raised his brows when he heard this.

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly, and before he lost his temper, he said calmly: " This kid isn't going to help anyway, so let's just let the swordsman be the leader, won't the problem be solved? "

Chapter 58

As soon as Ji Xuanyi finished speaking , the knight's face changed and he immediately looked at Mi Yin. It was obvious that he knew the other party's strength and was afraid of him.

The swordsman quickly protected the knight behind him, smiled at Ji Xuanyi, and said, " I'm sorry, Xiaohan is not very good at talking, but he doesn't mean any harm. "

He had dealt with Ji Xuanyi and his gang at the entrance to the main city. It could be seen that the two had a good impression of the Chenshi Gang at that time. Now it was obvious that he and Jing Yunhan were at a disadvantage. If he could make the other party remember a little, even if he couldn't get close to them , he could at least delay time.

However, Ji Xuanyi had a cold face and didn't seem to want to reminisce with him at all , so the swordsman could only sigh helplessly.

The knight was obviously afraid , but he still gritted his teeth and snorted behind the swordsman , saying stubbornly: " Xiaoxiao, what are you afraid of! Even if they kill me, I will never go to war with Wanzhi! "

" Xiao Han! " the swordsman called him with a frown.

Ji Xuanyi looked at him coldly and said, " Oh, you won't help anyway , so it would be a waste if I don't kill you . Go ahead , Tian Xia. "

This happened so suddenly that the swordsman thought he could continue the conversation .

Before he could react , Qi Qin rushed up with his guard in hand.

The swordsman had no idea how strong Ji Xuanyi and the other two were when they were able to work together with Mi Yin, but the current situation obviously did not allow him to think too much, so he was forced to draw his weapon and face Qi Qin.

Battles between people of the same profession are not too easy for Qi Qin. The advantages of a swordsman lie in strength and defense, but these two points are not a problem at all for Qi Qin, whose equipment crushes the opponent. However, when the opponent's swordsman's speed shortcoming is exposed to Qi Qin, it is very fatal.

Almost as soon as they met, the swordsman on the opposite side was left with little health and was knocked away by Qi Qin, revealing the knight behind him.

The knight was stunned for a moment, then screamed heartbreakingly: " Xiaoxiao! "

The scene was very moving.

Then he looked at Qi Qin hatefully, took out a shiny spear, shouted loudly, and attacked Qi Qin.
Ji Xuanyi: "..."

He had anticipated that this kid might not have much strength, but he really didn't expect that this guy could be so weak!

He was a complete newbie, he just stood there and attacked Qi Qin the whole time, he even tried to do some gun dance like in martial arts movies, but Qi Qin just slashed him twice and he fell to the ground with only a bloody skin left.

Qi Qin inserted the Guardian diagonally into the ground, with the not-so-sharp sword blade across the knight's neck. Although he knew that the blood lost from colliding with it would not necessarily allow him to return to the resurrection point, human instinct still made the knight calm down under the sword.

Mi Yin, who had been so frightened by Ji Xuanyi's amazing display that she had been frozen in place the entire time, suddenly let out a very loud gasp and said in disgust, " What the hell! "

The knight's face suddenly turned red.

Mi Yin reacted, rubbed her face quickly, changed her expression, and said nervously: " Did I do that again just now?! "

Ji Xuanyi looked at him speechlessly.

Mi Yin is a very easy-to-talk to person. When facing masters of the same level as him, his temper can be said to be at service level. In contrast, he has completely uncontrollable temper when facing noob players. Even different from Ji Xuanyi's temper that he would restrain a little when facing female players, his disgust for noobs is indiscriminate, no matter whether the person behind the network is a man or a girl, even if you are a disabled person with a strong will who presses the keyboard with your tongue, a noob is a noob, and there is no difference in his eyes.

The only people who can still be treated kindly by Mi Yin even though they are newbies are those who can be seen to be promising, have high comprehension, and can achieve great success with a little guidance, such as Mi Yin's apprentices No. 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5.

However, this bad habit was later corrected by Mi Yin. Ji Xuanyi remembered that on the day when Mi Yin repented and reformed, she said to him that nothing is temporary, and a person without talent can be called a master through hard work and practice, and there should be no discrimination or anything like that.

In fact, Mi Yin did change his attitude towards the rookie players later on. At most, he would have a bad expression when talking to them, but he would no longer be arrogant and ignore them.

The reason why this bad habit was suddenly exposed this time was probably because this knight was so weak that he couldn't bear to look at him. He was actually a gang leader. Are all the people in his gang blind? !

Thinking of this, Mi Yin said a little worriedly: " They won't call anyone, right? "

Chensi is not a small gang. The current number of people is at least over a hundred. If they really surround him, he can run away. But Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin both have short legs, so what will they do if they are surrounded?

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " They won't call anyone. "

Regardless of whether the knight had exposed his strength in front of his gang members, the scene of the gang leader being knocked to the ground and unable to get up must never be seen by ordinary gang members.

If you want to call for help, you can only do so before the fight starts. In the current situation, even if the gang members are already on the way, they will desperately find excuses so that they don't need to come.

In fact, this was indeed the case. The swordsman had just sent a message in the guild channel saying " The crisis has been resolved, no need to come over " . He climbed up from the ground leaning on his sword and looked at Ji Xuanyi helplessly.

" If I had known you two were so powerful, when you first entered the city, I would have persuaded you to join the gang even if I had to hang on your legs. " The swordsman sighed half-seriously.

This sentence was said with a high degree of flattery, but Ji Xuanyi ignored him and said expressionlessly: " Then I guess you would have died once by then. "

The swordsman laughed dryly twice, but before he could say anything, the knight, whose shame had subsided a little, glared at Mi Yin and said, " Didn't you ask us to help you? Can you solve the problem by killing us? "

He had already seen that if Mi Yin really wanted to ambush them here, the person who took action just now would not be Qi Qin. The matter was completely instigated by Ji Xuanyi!

Mi Yin opened his mouth, not knowing what to say. After all, the current situation was completely out of his control, so he had to look at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi said calmly, "Don't talk nonsense to me. For something like this, those who want to help would have helped a long time ago. Why do you still need sincerity? How can sincerity compare to the importance of the gang's status?"

To put it bluntly, this kid was obviously teasing Mi Yin. As for the Wanzhi Gang, the gangs that really couldn't stand it had already withdrawn from the fight and focused on fighting Wanzhi. The fact that they were still deadlocked now proved that the gang was more important in his heart, and this importance was obviously not something that could be shaken by so-called "sincerity". Let alone equipment or materials, even if Mi Yin found him clues to ten or eight hidden tasks, these two people would probably just smile and tell Mi Yin that this was not the sincerity they wanted.

Because in fact, their goal is just to defeat the other two gangs and become the largest gang in Star City.

When the knight heard Ji Xuanyi's words, he gritted his teeth and said viciously: "I just don't want to help, so what? Does the world owe you anything? Is there anything wrong with my own guild wanting to be number one? Why should I give up the competition for something that won't interfere with my own business!"

"It's so easy for you to say that. You just want us to help you with a few words. Won't we lose levels if we fight? I'm a rookie, but no matter how rookie I am, I'm still the leader of a gang. I have to be responsible for my brothers! We fought with the Tama Jianghu Mengtanggu for the benefit. There is a reward for the brothers to lose levels. Why do we fight against Wanzhi? Fanxing City is not ours to build now. It's not our responsibility. Why should we fight to the death? Tell me!"

The knight was not very old, and as he spoke, his eyes turned red, and he looked very aggrieved, as if Ji Xuanyi and the other two were bullying a child. Qi Qin could hardly bear it anymore and couldn't help but look at Ji Xuanyi.

There was no change on Ji Xuanyi's face. He just suddenly missed Ze Yu Sishui. If the latter was here, he would have a face-to-face crying scene with this knight. It was unclear who would feel embarrassed first.

Well, it's probably this knight. After all, Ze Yu Sishui is used to being shameless.

Faced with such a situation, even though he knew he was being tricked, Mi Yin couldn't get angry. He wanted to talk to this kid about the bad effects of robbery, and even the possible threats that habits in holographic online games could bring to the real world ... But think about it, this is just a game after all, and everyone has their own pursuits. Even if he said all this, the boy probably wouldn't listen, so he could only sigh.

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, "Did you hear that?"

Mi Yin nodded.

Ji Xuanyi said: "Actually what this kid said is right, that's why I don't want to help you."

Mi Yin is an arena player who doesn't understand these things and imagines everything to be very beautiful. However, after hearing what he said, Ji Xuanyi immediately realized that the other party's efforts were completely in vain, so he has never expressed his opinion on this matter and even said something like letting Qi Qin come up with his own ideas.

In Ji Xuanyi's opinion, the three gangs all have their own positions, and there is nothing wrong with their approaches. Persuasion is definitely not a solution to the problem.

In order to make Mi Yin less anxious and not rush into someone's turn, he agreed to let Qi Qin help. However, in fact, he expected that these two simple-minded people would eventually rely on him, and then he would delay the time and wait for the matter to be resolved automatically. It's just that the gang leader of this mortal world had to knock on his door on his own initiative, and Ji Xuanyi couldn't bear it anymore.

The swordsman also sighed and said, "Actually, when everything is settled, even if you don't come to find us, we will deal with the Wanzhi Gang, no matter whether we win or lose. It's just that we really can't spare the time now."

Mi Yin frowned and said, "I know, but the problem now is that your three guilds have been in a stalemate. Individual players without guilds and players from small guilds are all threatened by the Wanzhi guild. I can't just sit there and do nothing!"

After a long while, Mi Yin sighed and said, "Oh, forget it. I thought things were too simple and made things difficult for you ... Brothers, let that little brother get up."

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi, and Ji Xuanyi nodded at him.

Only then did Qi Qin take back the guard. The knight climbed up and was obviously still resentful of Mi Yin for calling him a loser. He glared at him fiercely and then ran back to the swordsman.

Mi Yin was not angry, she smiled at him and said, "Sorry, just pretend that I never came to look for you."

The swordsman looked at Mi Yin and said, "It's okay. It's always good to help others ... What are you going to do next?"

Mi Yin scratched his head and said, "Well, since you are so good-tempered and you didn't agree, I guess it's useless to ask the other two families. I will just continue to be my ranger and rescue everyone I see, or continue to conduct fishing enforcement."

Qi Qin said anxiously: "Ah? Didn't Xuan Yi say that sting enforcement would backfire? As long as they set up an ambush to kill you once, they can directly reincarnate you to level 20!"

Hearing this, the knight who had been having a sullen face just now couldn't help but look at Mi Yin again.

Mi Yin smiled and said nonchalantly: "Ah, there's nothing I can do about it, I'm just not as skilled as others!"

The knight couldn't help it and shouted: "Are you sick? Can't you just ignore this? You are so powerful that the Wanzhi Gang can't rob you no matter how hard they try. Why are you wasting your energy? You are just asking for trouble!"

Mi Yin said subconsciously: "Ah, I have to take care of this matter, the people's servant ... cough cough cough ... I mean, uh ... I don't have an arena to fight in, I'm bored!"

Mi Yin's words were so off-putting that the swordsman looked at him with a wrong look in his eyes. The knight was so dumb that he didn't notice it, and said angrily: "You are so bored that you have to die! You are really hopeless!"

Miyin smiled foolishly.

The knight sniffed, looked at Mi Yin again, and said, " Hey, you're pretty awesome, right? Do you want to join our guild? "

Mi Yin looked at him in surprise.

The knight blushed and said, " I don't have any other intentions. I just think you are powerful and want to take you in as my younger brother. Do you understand? If you come to our gang and wear our seal, Wanzhi will definitely not dare to ambush you. We have a lot of people in our gang and they are very powerful! "

Mi Yin laughed and said, " Thank you, but I can't catch any fish with your gang's badge. If I save people too many times, it will cause trouble for you. You still want to fight for the title of the largest gang in Star City. Let's forget it at this juncture. When the matter is over and I haven't returned to the Novice Village, I will bring up this matter again. "

Mi Yin was right. If he wanted to go against the Wanzhi Gang, the current world would not be able to protect him and he would get into trouble.

After hesitating for a long time, the knight said to Mi Yin: " Okay, just hold on for a while, our gang is very strong and will defeat Tamajianghu and Mengtanggu as soon as possible! "

Mi Yin smiled and said to the knight: " Thank you very much! "

The knight snorted and said nothing.

The swordsman touched his head with his backhand, took his hand away before the knight got angry, and gave Ji Xuanyi and the other two a helpless smile. His expression seemed to say, see, I told him he is not a bad person.

Mi Yin and Qi Qin smiled back at him out of courtesy, but Ji Xuanyi still ignored him.

Mi Yin said: " Okay, let's leave it at that. Xuanyi, you don't have to help me. I can go by myself. "
" No, I will help you. " Ji Xuanyi said.

Mi Yin said helplessly: " Forget about the military support. Xuanyi, you have short legs and can't cooperate with me in the wild. If we were in the arena, we could try. "

" I didn't say it was military support, " Ji Xuan looked at him and said, " I will find a way to help you break the deadlock as soon as possible. After all, your plan was ruined by me, so compensation is what I deserve. "

Mi Yin was stunned, and then she said in ecstasy: " Really?! Xuanyi, you are so kind! "

Mi Yin wanted to rush towards Ji Xuanyi, but was stopped by Qi Qin. She was not angry, but happily circled around Ji Xuanyi a few times and said, " How can I help? "

Ji Xuanyi looked up at the knight and said slowly, " Breaking the deadlock is not that easy. Just help one side win. "

The eyes of the swordsman and knight on the side suddenly lit up. Although Ji Xuanyi's strength was unclear, Mi Yin and Qi Qin behind him were both real masters. They had seen them before. If these three could join them, Chen Shi's strength would definitely increase a lot! But before they could even open their mouths, they heard Ji Xuan say, " Take me to see the leaders of Tamajanghu and Mengtanggu, and let's pick which one is better. "

Knight: "..."

The knight was so angry that he asked, " Am I not good enough?! "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " No, I like mature, tall, and skilled men ..."

Qi Qin straightened his back behind Ji Xuanyi, feeling very proud!

That's right! I'm talking about me!

Ji Xuanyi added calmly: " And she won't cry easily. "

Knight: "..."

Qi Qin: "..."

Knight: " QAQ ! "

Qi Qin: " QAQ ! "

The scene suddenly became chaotic.

Ji Xuanyi pretended not to notice Qi Qin's tears that were about to fall, and said, " Anyway, I have to shop around. I have to look at the other two before deciding which one to help, right? " The knight hadn't recovered from Ji Xuanyi's blow yet, and the swordsman nodded quickly and said, " Yes, yes, but in order to facilitate contacting us, let's add each other as friends, right? I'm Xiaoxiao Yuxia, the deputy leader of Chenshi, and this is my cousin, Jing Yunhan, the leader of Chenshi. "

It turns out they are cousins. No wonder Xiaoxiao Yuxia protects Jing Yunhan so much.

Ji Xuanyi showed an understanding expression and said, " Miyin is the best in the world. "

Then he pointed at himself: " Ji Xuanyi. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Jing Yunhan were both stunned. After Jing Yunhan reacted, he almost pointed at Ji Xuanyi's nose and shouted " You are Mu Xuanyi! "

Thanks to Mi Yin appearing in posts mentioning Mu Xuanyi all the time, everyone thought that he and Mu Xuanyi were good friends, and even a cult organization called Mu Mi Mi Mu appeared. Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Jing Yunhan were also deeply affected by it. When they met Ji Xuanyi, whose name was so similar to Mu Xuanyi, around Mi Yin, they immediately recognized him!

However, Xiaoxiao Yuxia knew that Ji Xuanyi's information had been exposed and posted on the forum. She understood that the other party did not want to reveal his identity too much, so she quickly covered Jing Yunhan's mouth to prevent him from shouting out.

Jing Yunhan also reacted immediately and looked at Ji Xuanyi in disbelief. He never expected that he could escape after Mu Xuanyi decided to kill !

Jing Yunhan looked at Ji Xuanyi's magic appearance and thought, it turns out that the rumor that he played a warlock was true. It seems that playing a support role can really make people's temper better!

Unlike Mi Yin, the name Mu Xuanyi can be said to be well-known in the wild and among major gangs. When Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Jing Yunhan met an arena master like Mi Yin, they could even lie to him without hesitation, but when they met Mu Xuanyi, they had a completely different attitude.

Ji Xuanyi looked at Jing Yunhan's confused and stern expression and raised his eyebrows.

Jing Yunhan pried open his cousin's hand, tremblingly approached Ji Xuanyi, and said hesitantly: " You are that someone, right? "

Ji Xuanyi: "... Yeah."

Jing Yunhan asked cautiously: " Can I ask you a question? "

Ji Xuanyi: " No. "

Jing Yunhan: "..."

Jing Yunhan seemed to be possessed by a thick skin. He pretended not to have heard Ji Xuanyi's answer and continued to ask, " I have been curious about this for a long time, but I have never had an answer. Is what they said true? About you and Mi Yin being a couple. "

Mi Yin: " Puff!!!! "

Qi Qin: " No!!!! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin pushed Mi Yin away, almost sticking to Ji Xuanyi, and said excitedly: " No! He has nothing to do with Mi Yin! They are not a couple! They are not even bound together! "

Mi Yin also quickly came over to clarify: " That's all nonsense from the fans! Xuan Yi and I are just ordinary good friends! "

Qi Qin's eyes widened, and Mi Yin quickly said " Pooh " and said, " Ordinary friends! Friends! " Jing Yunhan acted as if he couldn't hear anything and just looked at Ji Xuanyi, waiting for his answer.

Ji Xuanyi was silent for a moment, then said, " If I were to be a couple with Mi Yin, what would happen to Xue Piao Renjian? "

Mi Yin: " ??????? "

Jing Yunhan showed an expression of sudden enlightenment.

Mi Yin grabbed him and said, " Hey! Don't listen to his nonsense! Why don't you study hard at such a young age? You keep talking about the basics all day long. Which school and class are you in? I'm going to notify your teacher! "

Jing Yunhan said coldly: " I'm in college now, and the teachers don't care about this. "

Mi Yin was stunned, and almost burst into tears, saying: My reputation is .s over'lt " ruined . Mu Xuanyi, you better explain to him clearly! I'm a straight man! "

Ji Xuanyi certainly knew that Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian were innocent. They just had a good understanding of each other when they played in the arena, and they were also master and apprentice.

But there is no way, no matter how important Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian's innocence is, it is not as important as his own, Ji Xuanyi thought calmly.

Chapter 59

After confirming the incredible news , Jing Yunhan followed his brother into the Mage Tower in a daze , but judging by his mental state, he was likely to fail again.

However, before Xiaoxiao Yuxia left, she said to Ji Xuanyi , hoping that Ji Xuanyi could come to the mortal world to help the two brothers.

Ji Xuanyi remained noncommittal.

Mi Yin was like a ravaged young wife, sobbing and crying.

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Anyway, this isn't the first time you and Xue Piao Renjian have been involved in a scandal , so just get used to it. "

Mi Yin said resentfully: " Can what Fan said have the same effect as what you said? I feel like Xue Piao is going to come and kill me directly ..."

Ji Xuan raised an eyebrow.

Mi Yin sighed and said, " Forget it , reputation is just a passing cloud. Let's get down to business. Didn't you say you wanted to go see the gang leaders of Tamaijianghu and Mengtanggu? Let's go. "

" There's no rush for this , " Ji Xuan said, " I said I would take a tour of the inner city first – I'm not wasting your time this time. I have something to buy, take me to the auction house. " Only then did Mi Yin retract her suspicious look and began to lead him.

Qi Qin followed behind Ji Xuanyi, frowning and wondering which of the three gangs he should support: " I don't know what the other two gangs are like. Doesn't Xuanyi like the world? "

 " It's okay. " Ji Xuan said.

Qi Qin asked curiously, " I thought you would hate them. "

After all, although Jing Yunhan was not a bad person , he was really annoying , and even Qi Qin sometimes couldn't help but want to beat him up.

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " There are so many people I hate . Look , there is a living person leading the way for the two of us. "

Mi Yin: "... just talk to each other, don't bring me along, okay? "

Qi Qin smiled foolishly and said, " The two brothers in the mortal world are not bad people. "

Ji Xuan kept looking forward and said, " Well , he can be said to be a good person . After all, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia has made a promise that after the incident, no matter whether he wins or loses, he will deal with Wan Zhi. If it were someone else, if he lost the fight, let alone taking care of Wan Zhi, it would be good enough if he didn't deliberately cause trouble when the winner dealt with Wan Zhi. "

Qi Qin nodded and said in a somewhat tangled tone: " Actually, I quite like their gang, but why do they want to keep Mi Yin hanging? If they can't spare the time to help, wouldn't it be better to explain the situation to Mi Yin? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and shook his head, " Have you ever thought about a situation? "

 " What's going on? "

 " What would happen if Miyin had the same temper as me? "

Qi Qin was stunned and couldn't help but imagine what the scene would be like if Ji Xuanyi ran to find someone for help and was rejected.

Ji Xuanyi: " Help. "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: " Sorry, no. "

Ji Xuanyi: " Oh, well, then I can only kill you and send you back to the Novice Village. "

Qi Qin: "..."

As soon as Ji Xuan took a look at Qi Qin's expression, he knew that he understood.

 " Although Mi Yin is an arena player and has no famous deeds in the guild or in the wild, no one will deny that he is a master, " Ji Xuanyi said lightly: " A master who plays an assassin and seems to have a good relationship with Mu Xuanyi. If you were a guild leader, at this critical juncture of the three-legged tripod, and he came to you to do something, would you dare to refuse directly? "

Qi Qin's mind was automatically brought into Ji Xuanyi's mind. Hearing this, he shook his head like a rattle.

Ji Xuan said, " That's right. Xiao Xiao Yu Xia and Jing Yun Han didn't dare to do that either. Fortunately, Mi Yin is a fool. Although they can't refuse, it's still easy to fool her. "

Mi Yin, who was caught in the crossfire for the second time, could no longer bear it and said: "... So can you please not take me with you again! "

Ji Xuanyi pretended not to hear and continued, " In fact, this method did work. If I hadn't shown up, they would probably drag Mi Yin until the winner was decided. At that time, they would say that they saw Mi Yin's sincerity in insisting and turn around to beat up the Wanzhi Gang. Mi Yin might even be very touched and think that these two people are really great, and then join them or something. "

Miyin: "..."

Although she was very unhappy about being called a fool, Mi Yin knew in her heart that if Ji Xuanyi had not appeared, the plot would most likely have gone this way.

" This method of killing two birds with one stone without delaying anything is definitely not something that the brat came up with, " Ji Xuan said expressionlessly, " That Xiaoxiao Yuxia may look like a good guy on the outside, but he is actually quite capable. Otherwise, how could they have built such a big gang in the world with this combination? "

Is Xiaoxiao Yuxia such a person? Qi Qin felt a little confused when he heard this and said, " Then shouldn't we help them? "

Ji Xuanyi said, " Why are you in such a hurry? I told you to compare prices from three different stores. Let's check out the other two stores first. "

Mi Yin glanced at him and said, " Do you want to help based on your preferences or do you want to find the most powerful one? "

According to Ji Xuanyi's personality, he would definitely ask the party he likes for help. However, this matter is an emergency after all, and Ji Xuanyi may not be willing to do it. He may be lazy and choose the strongest party to break the deadlock with as little effort as possible.

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows: " Among the three gangs, is there one that is obviously more powerful? "

If there really is such a company, it would have been squeezed out by the other two companies long ago.

" It's not that they are obviously stronger, " Mi Yin said anxiously, " The number of people in their gangs is about the same, but when I was fishing for law enforcement in the Northeast, I met the leader of Mengtanggu, a very strong knight. In comparison, the strength of the leader and deputy leader of Tamajanghu and Chensi is a bit lacking. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " A typical arena player's perspective. "

Miyin: "... Hey! "

Ji Xuanyi felt that it was a waste of time to listen to Mi Yin's analysis of which of the three guilds was stronger. After all, for Mi Yin, distinguishing the strength of a guild was equivalent to comparing the combat power of each player in the guild. Whoever was stronger overall would be stronger ...

Before Mi Yin had time to refute, they arrived at the auction house.

Generally, the architectural appearance of places like auction houses in games must be very luxurious, the kind that dazzles the players' eyes.

"The Domain" has undoubtedly inherited this tradition. At present, the entire building of this auction house is golden, as if to prevent others from noticing that this place is rich.

Qi Qin looked at the golden door of the auction house and said absentmindedly, " Why do I feel a little familiar? Have I been here before? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Doesn't it look familiar? Isn't it exactly the same as your front door? "

Qi Qin: "..."

That's true.

Mi Yin heard this and couldn't help but ask, " What? Tianxia, is your home's decoration taste a bit-- "

Too strange ...

Qi Qin covered his face and said, " When they come back, I will talk to the old man about this. "

Qi Qin's parents are still abroad and I don't know when they will come back.

There is also a guide at the door of the auction house. When players enter for the first time, they will be instructed on how to participate in the auction.

However, there are not many people in the inner city now, and even fewer people will come to the auction house. When Ji Xuanyi walked in, there were only three of them, and no other players.

Mi Yin said, " The auction house holds an auction every Saturday at 8pm. Items that have not been sold will be listed at the reserve price for a week. All players who come here can bid at will. The highest bidder wins. If no one bids after a week, the item will be taken down on the second Saturday, and the cycle continues. "

Today is Tuesday, and the items that can be purchased at the auction house are those that failed to sell last Saturday, so it is normal that there are few people.

As soon as Ji Xuanyi walked in, Jie Yin came to greet him. She nodded slightly to Ji Xuanyi and said softly, " Welcome to the auction house. Is this your first time here? Next, I will tell you what you need to pay attention to when buying items at the auction house. "

Ji Xuan nodded and followed her.

Mi Yin whispered, " Is it my illusion or has the game been quietly updated? Why do I feel that her attitude has become better than before? She was not like this when I came here last time. " What Mi Yin meant by "again" is that "Domain" suddenly had an update some time ago. Players cannot touch it casually unless it is a special mission. This update was not announced but was changed quietly. It was later discovered by players and posted on the forum, and then the official acknowledged it.

However, Ji Xuanyi knew that the attitude problem that Mi Yin mentioned was not his illusion, nor was it an official update, but the effect of the title [August's Guest]. Although it was not as obvious as in the Mage Tower, it was obvious that the one in front of him was also affected by this title.

The items sold officially are completely different from the items listed by players in the trading house. When they took them to look, the wall was full of purple and above equipment, and there were also many orange materials. But unfortunately, there was no black steel that Ji Xuanyi wanted.

Ji Xuan took a look and found that in addition to equipment and materials, there were also some life skill products in the auction house, such as enchantments, food and medicine with effects. He didn't know whether this meant that the opening of life skills was not far away , or whether the official just released them so that players could have more props to use.

However, Ji Xuanyi noticed that although there were a lot of these things, they were all offered at a very high price by the same person, and it seemed that he was planning to buy all of them.

" Xu Chu, " Ji Xuan asked, " Who is this person? "

Mi Yin was stunned when she heard this and exclaimed: " Wow, no way, you don't know this person? "

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly.

Mi Yin coughed dryly and said, " This guy is one of the top ten richest people on our server. Don't you know that? "

I really don't know about this. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin seldom look at these messy ranking lists that come with the system.

Ji Xuan opened the rich list and saw that, as expected, the tenth place was the mage named Xu Chu, while Qi Qin's name had been squeezed out of the top 100 of the rich list by the RMB players who appeared one after another.

Ji Xuan raised an eyebrow.

Mi Yin said: " This Xu Chu is still the deputy gang leader of the Tama Jianghu. His strength is average, but he has good equipment, a lot of health, and his hits hurt a lot. But to be honest, if you really want to kill him, he is still easy to kill . "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi looked at him speechlessly.

Mi Yin asked innocently: " What's wrong? "

" Why didn't you tell me there was such a rich man in the damn world? "

Mi Yin scratched his head: " You have to say that? He's not that powerful. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't know what to say to this man, so he pointed at the entire auction wall that had been booked and said, " See this? What do you think he wants to do with these things? Is he going to use them alone? "

Miyin: "..."

Even a fool knows that one person can never use up so many medicines and enchantments. It should be said that before he uses them up, the life skills will be unlocked, and by then the prices of these things will drop. It is a complete waste to buy so many now, unless he is not using them alone, but a group of people ...

Mi Yin said in disbelief: " No way? He plans to arm the entire gang with these things? "

Ji Xuanyi said coldly: " He hasn't even taken over the wall of equipment yet. "

" Fuck! " Mi Yin couldn't help but yelled, " He's crazy! This is not the way to spend money! "

Ji Xuanyi left Jie Yin behind and walked back a few steps to the wall where the equipment was hung. As expected, although Xu Chu did not buy all the items at a high price like he did on the enchanted wall due to price reasons, he also bid for most of the equipment.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " Equipment and medicine have different enchantments, so they will definitely not be distributed to the entire gang. They should be planning to equip a stronger team. "

Mi Yin was already shocked. You know, any piece of equipment on this wall of equipment would cost him nearly half a month's salary, and that Xu Chu actually bid for half of the wall!

Mi Yin choked for a long time before saying, " Fuck, how much does this cost? Is this guy crazy? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " This is just a common operation for RMB players. I once saw an individual RMB player who, after being offended by a gang, directly bought 300 graduated accounts and paid people to log in to the accounts to disband the gang that offended him ... Xu Chu has already done it very low-key. "

Mi Yin murmured: " I'm sorry, poverty limits my imagination ..."

Ji Xuanyi touched his chin and said, " It seems that among the three gangs, the Daming Jianghu is the strongest. After all, if the RMB players are pushed into a corner, who knows what tricks they will use. "

Mi Yin said tremblingly: " This ... what other tricks do you have? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " It depends on how rich he is. If he is generally rich, he can pay to bribe the executives of the other two gangs. If he is relatively rich, he can pay to hire experts. "

At this point, Ji Xuan glanced at Mi Yin and commented: " If it is the second method, your method is the best. It looks cheap and can still be used. "

Mi Yin: "... Fuck you! If you want to hire me for a fight, you have to pay me at least three months' salary! "

Ji Xuanyi said with a sigh, " So you still don't believe me when I say you're cheap. "

Miyin: "..."

Mi Yin was choked and speechless. After a long while, she said, " That's not right. I always feel that the first of the two methods you mentioned seems to have higher returns for those who have money, right? "

Ji Xuanyi's expression suddenly turned cold, and after a long while he said, " You are right, the former does have high returns, but it has a bad reputation and is easy to get into trouble, so only people with money and bad character will use it. "

It's understandable that Miyin has a bad reputation, but why did she get into trouble?

Mi Yin glanced at Ji Xuanyi's frightening expression and didn't dare to ask, so she could only say, " Just these two? "

" No, " Ji Xuanyi came back to his senses and continued, " There are also methods that very rich people will use. "

" What method? " Mi Yin asked curiously.

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said calmly, " Just pay to buy out the other two gangs, and everything will be solved. "

Miyin: "..."

After a long silence, Mi Yin asked, " Can it be like this? "

Ji Xuan nodded: " However, there is no precedent for this kind of thing yet, because when there is a conflict, in most cases the two guilds are in a hostile state. Doing so would be too easy for one's enemies , so at most, they would just spend money to buy out ordinary players under the hostile guild. "

 " But the current situation is uncertain ..." Mi Yin murmured, " The three gangs are not in a hostile state, but in a competitive state. What should we do? "

Ji Xuanyi looked at Mi Yin speechlessly.

Mi Yin looked back at him blankly.

Ji Xuanyi said, " Are you stupid? There's nothing to worry about. It would be great if Xuchu could really do such a thing. Our goal now is to break the stalemate between the three parties, decide the winner as soon as possible, and then go and fight Wanzhi instead of overthrowing the Tamajang Gang, okay? "

Mi Yin finally reacted and said stupidly: " Yeah ..."

Qi Qin, who was listening to this, didn't quite understand what was said, so he came up and said, " If the three gangs really don't use weapons and become one, that would be the best scenario, right? "

Ji Xuan nodded, then shook his head: " This is indeed the best case scenario, but as it stands now, it is unlikely to happen. If Xu Chu is the leader of the Tama Jianghu, it is possible, but if he is only the deputy leader, the current situation is probably all the contribution he has made. After all, it is not his own guild, and the money of RMB players is still money, so he will still feel sorry for it. "

Mi Yin opened his mouth, and Ji Xuanyi knew what he was going to say, and immediately said: " Cousins are impossible, brothers have to settle accounts clearly. "

Mi Yin had no choice but to shut her mouth again.

 " But the appearance of Xu Chu is still quite useful. " Ji Xuanyi pondered.

Mi Yin said: " Do you want to help him? If Dama Jianghu's strength is so strong, maybe he can fight two of them alone . "

Ji Xuanyi said directly: " I can't get along with this kind of RMB players. "

Mi Yin was stunned for a moment, and before she could react, Ji Xuan smiled and said, " And don't you think two against one is much easier than one against two? "

Mi Yin was stunned for a moment, then suddenly realized.

Ji Xuan said, " If Mengtanggu and Chensi knew that Xuchu was buying equipment on a large scale, they would definitely be restless. As long as this triangle is broken, things will soon come to a conclusion. "

The other two gangs are not fools. After Xu Chu's move, they will definitely not sit there and wait for Tama Jianghu to defeat them one by one. Instead, they will unite and take the lead in repelling Tama Jianghu. After that, the remaining two sides will have an assessment of the other's strength. Whether to continue fighting or take a step back and take second place is their own business. In short, after everything comes to an end, the Wanzhi Gang will definitely not be able to escape.

Finally getting to the point, Mi Yin's spirits lifted, and she quickly said, " Then I just need to inform both parties of the news, right? "

Ji Xuanyi did not answer him, but said: " Contact the mortal world first and see what they say. Well, contact Xiaoxiao Yuxia, don't contact Jing Yunhan, that kid can't make the decision. "

Mi Yin responded, happily pulled out the chat bar, and started chatting with Xiao Xiao Yu Xia. Qi Qin sensed something was wrong and approached Ji Xuanyi and whispered, " Are there any other variables? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head: " It's not a big change, but Xiaoxiao Yuxia saw that Mi Yin was more anxious than him, so he would probably ask Mi Yin to run errands for him more and try to pull Mi Yin to their gang's side. "

After all, Xiaoxiao Yuxia's ultimate goal is to be number one in Fanxing City, not just to defeat Tama Jianghu.

Sure enough, after a while, Mi Yin said happily: " Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said that they will take action, but we have to make another trip to the northeast district to find the leader of Meng Tanggu. "

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows at Qi Qin and said, " Look. "

If Ji Xuanyi and his two companions went to see the leader of Mengtanggu, they would definitely not only talk about Xu Chu's affairs, but also tell him about Chensi's intention of cooperation.

From the perspective of the leader of Mengtanggu, Ji Xuanyi and his two companions were from Chensi's side. After all, they conveyed the attitude of that side.

Even though they later revealed their identity as free men, in the heart of the Mengtanggu gang leader, their position was biased towards the mortal world. Otherwise, why would he look for the mortal world first and then for their Mengtanggu?

Cooperation is cooperation, but caution is also necessary. Once you have this mentality, when the two sides fight in the later period, even if Ji Xuanyi is more satisfied with the leader of Mengtanggu and wants to help him, the leader of Mengtanggu will not dare to accept the three of them.

In other words, as long as you agree to help deliver the message, it is equivalent to being forced to be bound to the world.

Ji Xuanyi didn't feel anything about this. In his opinion, as long as the problem could be solved, it was OK . Qi Qin was a little unhappy and said to Mi Yin: " Why don't they send someone themselves? This kind of thing should be discussed by both parties, right? "

" Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said that if their people were discovered by the Ta Ma Jiang Hu, they might take action in advance, " Mi Yin waved her hand nonchalantly and said, " It's just a trip anyway, it's not a big deal. "

Qi Qin smacked his lips, not knowing what to say to him, so he had to look at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuan raised an eyebrow: " It's useless to look at me. Mi Yin doesn't care whether he is being used or deceived. To him, it doesn't matter which side he stands on. As long as the Wanzhi Gang can be wiped out as soon as possible, nothing else matters. "

Qi Qin still looked a little uncomfortable, Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " You can change your perspective. In fact, Mi Yin also wants to use the power of the world, but it will only work after the dust settles. Before that, it is reasonable to put in some effort. "

Qi Qin muttered: " Xuan Yi is right, but I just wonder why Xiao Xiao Yu Xia is such a person ..."

" What kind of person? " Ji Xuanyi asked with a bit of amusement.

Qi Qin thought for a long time before he finally came up with a word: " Scheming? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia is indeed a little different from his cheerful and friendly personality.

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows: " Do you think he is a bad guy? "

Qi Qin thought of the promise Xiao Xiao made to him, and after a long while, he frowned and said, " No ..."

" That's all, " Ji Xuan said, " Just because he's scheming doesn't mean he's a bad person. If you can't stand him, just hate him. Why bother with so much and keep wasting time? "

Qi Qin also knew that he was procrastinating . He glanced at Ji Xuanyi and found that he did not seem to be impatient. He hummed and moaned for a long time and said, " Don't you like people who procrastinate? "

Ji Xuanyi simply said: " I don't like it. "

Qi Qin: "..... QAQ ! "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said with a smile: " Oh, I was wrong. I don't like anyone except you. "

Qi Qin: " !!!! "

Chapter 60

Mi Yin suddenly had something to do , so she went offline first . She made an appointment with Ji Xuanyi to go to the Northeast District to contact Meng Tanggu tomorrow.

Ji Xuanyi didn't find what he wanted at the auction house, so he and Qi Qin left directly.

As soon as he walked out of the auction house, Ji Xuanyi received a reminder that a letter had been sent in, which contained limited-time items, reminding him to check it as soon as possible.

The postal system in the game is very convenient for players. Even if they are in two different cities, as long as they know each other's names and add each other as friends, they can mail items to each other, and it will be delivered in just half an hour . System letters obtained by purchasing items at the auction house or trading house will arrive instantly , which is even faster.

However, Ji Xuan was sure that he did not buy anything , and it was impossible that it was something sent by Ze Yu Sishui and his group , as they had only been gone for a day.

Fortunately, in order to facilitate the removal of purchased items, there are postmen stationed near the auction house and the trading house. Otherwise, as he was unfamiliar with the place, Ji Xuanyi would not dare to run around looking for a postman.

There was a postman standing at the door of the auction house . Ji Xuanyi walked up to him and said, " Please help me get the letter. "

The young postman smiled at Ji Xuanyi , responded , took out a letter and a booklet from the package around his waist , and handed them to Ji Xuanyi.

That booklet is the limited-time item that Ji Xuanyi received.

Ji Xuanyi flipped it over and saw that it was a brochure with a very eye-catching cover, with a few huge words arranged on it – "Star City Auction House Transaction Manual".

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi turned around to look at the novice guide standing at the door of the trading house, and gave him a nice and polite smile.

Ji Xuanyi's forehead was filled with black lines. He should have realized from the moment he saw the auction house's decoration, which was very much in the style of the Qi Qin family, that this was not a high-end, classy place at all!

Ji Xuanyi opened the manual and took a look, and found that it was full of the items he had just seen in the auction house. Even the names of the players who had bid were marked on it, and the prices were even updated in real time, which was very convenient.

Ji Xuanyi hesitated for a moment and asked Qi Qin: " Did you receive the email? "

Qi Qin was still immersed in the surprise that Ji Xuanyi had confessed to him (not really). He was stunned for a moment before he realized what Ji Xuanyi was talking about. He looked at his message reminder and shook his head: " No. "

If this kind of thing could be obtained by anyone who left the auction house, it would definitely not be given to only one copy because of the two teams. This thing was most likely given to him alone.

Ji Xuanyi opened the letter that came with the manual and found that the sender was also signed [Fanxing City Trading House]. It briefly described the purpose of this booklet, which was to keep track of changes in the items in the trading house at any time. The booklet would disappear after the items in the trading house were updated. At the same time, the trading house would send Ji Xuanyi a record manual for the next wave of auction items.

Ji Xuan took a look and found that the time limit for the booklet in his hand was only four days. That is to say, on Saturday night, when the new round of auction began, the booklet would automatically disappear.

This item is very convenient for Ji Xuanyi who wants to buy black steel from the auction house. However, what Ji Xuanyi cares more about is that the letter sent by the trading house also mentioned the title of " Guest of the Mage Tower ". It seems that this benefit was also obtained thanks to August.

Ji Xuanyi's guess was correct. The auction house's item trading manual was actually something that only players with close reputation were eligible to obtain after the auction house's faction missions were opened in the later stage. The reason he could get it now was indeed because of the title of August's guest.

After understanding what was going on, Ji Xuanyi simply used the remaining time to take Qi Qinman on a tour of the inner city. Unfortunately, August's influence did not seem to be indiscriminate. Afterwards, there were no forces or entities that directly gave away items like the auction house did. Most of them just treated them slightly better than ordinary players.

The inner city is not small in area, and there are no means of transportation like the outer city. After walking for a while, it was dark and Qi Qin was yawning.

It is indeed late today.

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin and said, " Are you so sleepy? "

Qi Qin sniffed and said, " Well, I've been getting up early to practice recently ..."

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but look at him a little more, and said tactfully: " It's hard to buy clothes for you because you're too strong. "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, then said aggrievedly: " It's just practicing martial arts, I won't get fat, I've been controlling my food intake recently. "

To be honest, Qi Qin is not fat, he just built up his muscles. It's just that the nutritional value of food nowadays is different from that in his time, so he eats too much without realizing it. He has been trying to lose weight recently.

Actually, getting up early is a good thing. We can't force others to follow the schedule of game geeks like us. Ji Xuan nodded and said, " It's quite late. Let's get off. "

Qi Qin rubbed his eyes and nodded. Just as he was about to log off, Ji Xuan hugged him and said, " Good night. "

Qi Qin: "..... ?!?!?!"

Qi Qin woke up with a start, and before he could say anything, Ji Xuanyi disappeared.

It's over, how can I sleep like this ... Qi Qin thought sadly.

In fact, this was indeed the case. Qi Qin did not sleep well that night, and went online the next day with dark circles under his eyes. When he saw Ji Xuanyi, he dodged and did not dare to look him in the eye.

Ji Xuanyi didn't think there was anything wrong. He talked to him as usual and didn't mention the goodnight hug last night.

Mi Yin didn't know what happened, because he was not online when Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin came online.

Ji Xuan thought about it and took Qi Qin to the Mage Tower to report. They already knew the importance of August's favorability in Star City yesterday. No matter what, it would never hurt to punch in at a fixed time every day.

After saying hello to the dirty great magician, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin went out to complete their mission.

They have been in Star City for a day and have been running around the map. Apart from the registration task which is not considered a mission, they have not done any serious tasks.

But then again, compared to running around the map, completing tasks is still easier. At least you don't have to worry about getting lost. There are task guides anyway, so it doesn't matter if you just lower your head and walk around aimlessly.

During the mission, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin ran into another group of people from the Wanzhi Gang, and sent them back to the resurrection point without any delay or conversation.

During this period, Jing Yunhan also sent a message, asking them if they had found the leader of Mengtanggu. It was not known whether it was Xiaoxiao Yuxia who instigated it or he came to ask on his own initiative. Ji Xuanyi directly told him that Mi Yin was not online and they didn't know the way, so they sent him away.

After Jing Yunhan came to his senses from yesterday's meeting, he didn't have the courage to run up to Ji Xuanyi and say that he could lead the way. He just quietly disappeared.

The experience points given by the missions in Starry City were more than ten times higher than those in Green Forest City. It was not known whether it was because Green Forest City itself was too rewarding or because the experience points in the main city were inherently high, but in just one morning, Ji Xuanyi's experience bar was only halfway to level 41.

By the afternoon, Mi Yin finally came online.

"Wow, suddenly working overtime is really fucked!" As soon as Mi Yin found Ji Xuanyi, they began to complain crazily: "Can't those people be a little more obedient and give us and them a day off!"

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said speechlessly, "Come on, aren't you doing the same thing in the game? What's there to complain about?"

Mi Yin was stunned for a moment and said, "Yes..."

Then he said with a sad face: "Isn't it even more miserable when I think about it this way? I'm so angry. The game won't let me level up quietly. I won't interfere in other people's business until the Wanzhi Gang is disbanded and the arena is opened!"

Ji Xuanyi said coldly: "If occupational diseases are so easy to cure, they are not occupational diseases."

Mi Yin burst into tears and said, "What you said makes sense. If I meddle in other people's business again in the future, please wake me up!"

Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to pay attention to him and said directly: It would "be easier for me to kill you back to level 20 right now."

Mi Yin wanted to talk more, but Ji Xuan said directly: "Are you going to the Northeast District or not? If not, I will continue to do my mission."

Mi Yin hurriedly said: "Go, go, go!"

If you want to go to the Northeast District, you have to go through the inner city and reach the entrance to the Northeast District. This is not something you can do just by looking down at the parchment. What Ji Xuanyi said to fool Jing Yunhan was actually the truth. If Mi Yin was not there, he and Qi Qin really didn't know how to get to the Northeast District.

Mi Yin took Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin for a walk. Because they had wasted too long, she was anxious and hurried all the way. She kept urging Ji Xuanyi to hurry up, and she also said things like "Why are the warlock's legs so short?" and "Xuanyi, you need to exercise more" to poke at Ji Xuanyi. Qi Qin always took time to see Ji Xuanyi, fearing that he would suddenly attack her.

A terrible thing happened. Although Ji Xuanyi's eyes were fierce throughout, he did not explode! Qi Qin felt uneasy, thinking that after arriving at the destination, Ji Xuanyi would most likely ask him to send Mi Yin back to the Novice Village.

But then again, if it was Bai Miyin's turn, it would be very difficult to execute given the other party's fleeing speed and familiarity with the terrain. I wonder if Ji Xuanyi would despise me if I couldn't catch up ...

Wake up! Is being disliked by Ji Xuanyi the point? You have decided to take your companions' place so straightforwardly. Qi Qin, your image as an upright young man is going to collapse! until they saw the entrance to the northeast area that Mi Yin finally calmed down and breathed a sigh of relief. She said to Ji Xuan, "We're here, we're finally here. Oh my god, that's the northeast area. Let's split up and look for it. This way it's more efficient!"

Ji Xuanyi, who had been despised for his short legs, looked at him coldly and said, "No hurry."

After what happened in the mortal world, Mi Yin already trusted Ji Xuanyi very much. It can be said that she followed Ji Xuanyi's lead. When she heard him say there was no rush, she calmed down and asked very obediently: " What? Is there anything else you should pay attention to? " Ji Xuanyi suppressed his anger and said, " No hurry, I'll go offline and have a drink of water to calm down. "

Mi Yin said innocently: " Huh? Calm down? Calm down what? "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " If you say one more word, I won't be able to calm down. "

After saying that, he went offline without waiting for Mi Yin to protest.

Miyin: "..."

Mi Yin looked at Qi Qin who was standing aside. Qi Qin breathed a sigh of relief and said to Mi Yin happily, " That's great. Xuan Yi has held back! I don't have to kill you and send you back to the Novice Village! "

Miyin: " ??? "

Could something worth filming have happened when he was not aware of it?

Ji Xuanyi felt that staying with Mi Yin was a test, so he went offline and drank a cup of tea, suppressing his murderous intent towards Mi Yin. After making sure that nothing bloody would happen after he came online, Ji Xuanyi went online reluctantly and found that only Qi Qin was there.

" Has Mi Yin gone to find someone first? " Ji Xuanyi asked without waiting for Qi Qin to speak.

Qi Qin, whose mouth was half open, quickly closed it and nodded.

" Running fast is a good thing, " Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Then let's go too. "

Finding the leader of Mengtanggu is not a particularly difficult task. You just need to find a player belonging to the Mengtanggu guild in the northeast area. There is a specific chat channel between guild members. If the leader of Mengtanggu is online, he should be able to see the news in the guild channel.

However, the number of players in the main city is increasing every day. Even if the northeast area is the main activity area of Mengtanggu, the players of Mengtanggu are not everywhere. Ji Xuan calmed down for half an hour after logging off. Mi Yin still hasn't sent him and Qi Qin any news about finding someone.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked around the northeast area for another ten minutes, but did not see any player with the Mengtanggu badge on his chest. However, there was finally news from Mi Yin, saying that they had found a person from Mengtanggu and were trying to persuade him to send a message to the leader of Mengtanggu.

Since Mi Yin has found the person, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin don't have to waste any more effort.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin stopped where they were, estimating how long it would take Mi Yin to convince people. Should they go and complete a few tasks now, or go to Mi Yin to meet him first? Before Ji Xuanyi could come up with a conclusion, a passing archer looked at him and Qi Qin for a few more times, hesitated for a moment, walked up and asked: " Are you lost? "

Ji Xuanyi's train of thought was interrupted. He looked up at him, his eyes wandering over his empty front. He immediately smiled and said, " Do you know the way? "

The archer felt a little uneasy for some reason, but after looking at Qi Qin again, he smiled kindly and said, " Yes, I'm tired from the mission and have nothing to do. I'll take you wherever you want to go. "

Ji Xuanyi also smiled at him and said, " We want to go back to the inner city. Could you please take us to the nearby transportation point? Thank you. "

The archer nodded, walked ahead without saying a word and began to lead the way.

Qi Qin glanced at Ji Xuanyi, a little hesitant . When Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows at him, he showed an expression of sudden enlightenment and followed him.

The people of Wanzhi are not stupid. Almost everyone who has lived in Fanxing City for a period of time knows the name of their gang. Very few people will be deceived and taken to the alleys, so when their people walk outside, they will not pin the badge on their chests, but hide it inside their sleeves, or in other places that others cannot see, to deceive those players who have already integrated into Fanxing City but do not have a gang and have not been deceived. Seeing that the archer was taking them further and further off the road, Qi Qin leaned close to Ji Xuanyi's ear and whispered, " Isn't this happening too often? "

You know, this is the third time they have been robbed in the two and a half days since they came to Star City.

" Let's make do with it, " Ji Xuanyi replied calmly, " After all, we both have good equipment and we don't have any gangs, so it's normal for us to encounter each other more frequently. " However, this also shows that the situation in Star City is indeed not optimistic, and it is not unreasonable for Mi Yin to be so anxious.

" So far ? Haven't we arrived yet? " Ji Xuanyi asked casually, t walked'I feel like we haven " this far since we came out of the inner city ? "

When the archer heard this, he became anxious, laughed dryly and said, " It's almost there, we'll be there soon. "

Just as they passed a corner, something strange happened. The archer had just turned a corner, and before Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin could catch up, a man and a horse suddenly rushed out from the empty street opposite and galloped towards them. Qi Qin was startled and immediately pulled Ji Xuanyi behind him and took out his guard.

But before Qi Qin could make a move, the horse drifted away, raised its hind legs, and kicked hard at the archer who had no idea what was happening and didn't even turn his head.

The strong horse leg hit the archer on the back of the head. If this happened in real life, the archer would have had his brain burst and died. However, this is just a game. The archer did lose a lot of blood, but he did not die. Instead, he wanted to turn back in shock and anger. Even if he could not escape death, he wanted to see who killed him so that he could take revenge. The knight on the horse probably didn't expect that he was one step away from being hit, and was stunned for a moment. But just when the archer was about to turn his head, Ji Xuanyi stretched out his staff from the gap blocked by Qi Qin and used the skill [Resentment of the Lone Wanderer] on the archer . The knight was also very aware and immediately raised his hand to fire another shot, sending the archer back to the resurrection point.

Just as Ji Xuanyi was about to speak, the knight turned his horse around in a chic manner, looked at Ji Xuanyi, and whispered: " It is not advisable to stay here for long, let's talk about it somewhere else. "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned. The knight had treated Qi Qin as a piece of wood. He rode his horse flexibly around him, grabbed the hand of the unsuspecting Ji Xuanyi, and with a little force, he pulled Ji Xuanyi up and put him on his horse.

This action finally made Qi Qin, who had been stunned for a long time, react. This man wanted to take Ji Xuan away!

Qi Qin raised his hand without hesitation and grabbed the knight's arm, pulling him off the horse. Ji Xuan was still in a daze and fell back into Qi Qin's arms.

The swordsman was still stronger than the knight, and the knight didn't expect Qi Qin's reaction to be so quick. He was caught off guard when he was pulled off the horse. He staggered and almost fell, but fortunately he managed to stabilize himself .

The knight looked up and saw Qi Qin hugging Ji Xuanyi. He was stunned for a moment, touched his nose awkwardly, and muttered softly: " Fuck, they are actually a couple ..." "

Neither Ji Xuanyi nor Qi Qin heard this. Qi Qin, who was hugging Ji Xuanyi tightly, was still thinking " Xuanyi is so soft ", " Xuanyi is so small " and " Xuanyi smells so good " . Ji Xuanyi reacted and pushed him away, frowning and saying to the knight: " What are you doing? "

The knight was in his thirties and looked very handsome, but now he was no longer as serious and handsome as he had been at first glance. He smiled in a somewhat frivolous way and said, " Sorry, sorry, I thought you were single, but it's really not convenient to talk here, let's go over there. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned. What do you mean by thinking he was single? He was single! But that was not the point. He noticed the badge on the knight's chest with his sharp eyes. He was slightly stunned, and his anger subsided a little. He asked, " Are you from Mengtanggu? "

The knight smiled and said, " I am the sword washing new wine. "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, Will you not cause trouble for the Wanzhi Gang if " you kill them? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu saw Ji Xuanyi's reaction, raised his eyebrows, and seemed to want to say something, but when the words came to his lips, he changed his mind: " You knew that he was from the Wanzhi Gang? Why did you follow him? "

Qi Qin always felt that this person's attitude towards Ji Xuanyi was strange, so he squeezed next to Ji Xuanyi and said in a hard voice: " Haven't you heard of fishing enforcement? I will protect Xuanyi! "

The term "entrapment enforcement" was learned from Mi Yin, and he used it quickly this time. Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin and wanted to laugh.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu looked at the two men and couldn't help showing a weird expression. He waved his hand in front of his nose and said helplessly: " Well, you are really powerful. Even if you are surrounded, it won't be you two who die. I am meddling in other people's business. "

He glanced at Ji Xuanyi and said, " Thank you for your concern, but our gang leader is also very unhappy with the Wanzhi Gang, so I just killed him from the back. It would be fine if the Wanzhi people didn't see it. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu got back on the horse, pulled the reins, and said to Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin: " You are also dealing with the Wanzhi Gang members, right? Please keep the fact that I killed the Wanzhi Gang members a secret, otherwise it will be a bit troublesome. Although the gang leader will not blame me, the gang members may not blame me. "

Hearing his words, Ji Xuan showed a puzzled look. At this time, the chat bar moved. Ji Xuan glanced at it and saw that it was a message from Mi Yin.

Jian Xixinjiu gently nipped the horse's belly and was about to leave when Ji Xuanyi called out, " Wait a minute. "

" Ah? " Jian Xixinjiu turned around, a little listless: " What? "

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows and said, " Take a look at your guild channel. Someone is looking for you. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was stunned. He opened the guild channel and saw someone shouting his name like a soul: " [Jian Xi Xin Jiu][Jian Xi Xin Jiu][Jian Xi Xin Jiu] !!! Gang leader! Someone said that the Daming Jianghu is preparing to fight us! They are asking us if we want to form an alliance with Chenshi! Gang leader! Gang leader, are you there?! [Jian Xi Xin Jiu] ! "

Chapter 61

Although Star City has opened up the task for knight players to obtain mounts , not many people can get the horse so quickly.

Mi Yin, the unreliable guy , forgot to tell them the name of the leader of Mengtanggu, he mentioned that the other party had obtained a horse and was a very powerful knight.

Of course, this only made Ji Xuanyi have a vague guess when he saw the other party's gang badge . The most important point is that no one would report his name when someone asked about his gang, unless he represented the gang himself.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu replied in the guild channel with a frown on his face: " Stop shouting! It's too noisy! Got it!!! "

After saying that, he didn't care what the guild channel said, he looked at Ji Xuanyi and said in a depressed tone: " You recognized me? "

Ji Xuan raised an eyebrow.

" Okay, " Jian Xi Xin Jiu said, " I am the leader of Meng Tang Gu. Are you and the informant mentioned by the gang together? "

Otherwise, even if the other party guessed that he was the gang leader, they would not know that someone was looking for him. It must be his companions who revealed the news to him in advance.

Ji Xuan nodded and repeated his previous words: " The gang leader also dislikes the Wanzhi Gang? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu scratched his cheek awkwardly and said, " Yeah , yes , I do dislike them, otherwise I wouldn't have come here to ambush them ... Wait , are you from the mortal world? F*ck! "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was slow to react.

If they were people from the mortal world , then they would be competitors . If these two people spread the news that he secretly killed members of the Wanzhi Gang , the Wanzhi Gang would definitely come to cause trouble for him . Then, wouldn't the mortal world be able to easily kick him out of the competitive circle?

Jian Xi Xin Jiu looked at Ji Xuanyi and the other two in a state of despair. In the gaming world, silencing someone was impossible. Meng Tanggu was poor and couldn't afford to give them any benefits ...

After struggling for a long time, Jian Xi Xin Jiu sighed and chose the most useless method of " appealing to emotions and explaining things to them with reason " : " Aren't you guys here to sting the law? You must also be disgusted with those people in Wan Zhi ... Oh, please help me, don't tell anyone about this, okay? "

The misunderstanding about Jianxi Xinjiu can be said to be exactly the same as Ji Xuanyi had expected at the beginning. It was hard to say whether it was right or wrong, but Qi Qin had already put on tinted glasses because of the other party's previous actions towards Ji Xuanyi, and immediately looked at Jianxi Xinjiu with the eyes of a fool.

Sword washing new wine: "..... ??? "

Qi Qin was about to tell him that they were not from the mortal world, but Ji Xuanyi spoke first: " You are such an interesting person. If you are so afraid of being discovered, why would you kill them? "

Ji Xuanyi's tone of voice was not good at all, it could be said to be sarcastic, but Jian Xi Xinjiu was inexplicably very patient with him. He just sighed and explained: " Didn't I say that the leader has no objection, but the gang members do. "

" I don't mind a direct fight with the Wanzhi Gang, but I was promoted to the top for no apparent reason, and the gang was also established for no apparent reason. Everyone wants to compete for the top spot, so how can I object? " Jian Xi Xinjiu said a little depressed: " I'm not someone who often fights against the Wanzhi Gang in the Northeast District. I just saw them when I walked here last time, so I got involved today. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu looked at Ji Xuan Yi with some resentment: " How should I know that you don't need help at all? "

And in turn, someone caught him.

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows: " You can't decide whether to attack Wanzhi or not, but can you decide to form an alliance with Chenshi? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was speechless: " Oh, I formed an alliance with Chen Shi and beat back Tama Jiang Hu, and then Chen Shi turned around and exposed the fact that I disliked Wan Zhi, and then worked together with Wan Zhi to beat me back? Do I look stupid? "

Ji Xuanyi pulled the corner of his mouth and said, " I have three good news for you. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu stretched out his hand and made a gesture of invitation.

" The first good news is that Damn Jianghu is indeed preparing to fight you, " Ji Xuanyi took out the auction house's trading manual and handed it to him, saying, " RMB players should check it out. "

Jian Xi Xinjiu took the manual and took a look. He was immediately shocked by the large amount of [Xu Chu] and his face turned pale: " Fuck ... this is also good news! " Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows: " To the members of Mengtanggu, it's not true, but to the leader, it is true. "

Jian Xi Xinjiu was stunned for a moment, then seemed to react.

" The second good news, " Ji Xuan said, " the leader of the Chenshi Gang is also very unhappy with the Wanzhi Gang. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu had a slightly weird expression on his face.

Ji Xuan raised an eyebrow and continued, " If you can reach an agreement on an alliance, you can crush the Wanzhi Gang first after defeating the Tama Jianghu, and then decide the winner. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu waved his hand and said, " Forget about this. None of the three gangs want to see Wan Zhi happy. If they don't unite to deal with Wan Zhi first, they will just worry about each other stabbing each other in the back. "

" I won't talk about the damn Jianghu. It's not like I haven't seen the two in the mortal world before. Little Jing Yunhan is quite cute, but his brother, tsk, " Jian Xi Xinjiu glanced at Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin and said, " That guy has too many tricks. He is simply a sesame-filled bun. You guys won't be fooled by him, right? "

For the first time, Ji Xuan hesitated , not knowing whether he should talk about his own topic first, or ask Jian Xixinjiu how he saw the word "cute" in Jing Yunhan.

But it was only for a moment, Ji Xuanyi continued: " Oh, this is the third good news. "

" Both of us, including the other person, are not from this world, " Ji Xuanyi looked at Jian Xixinjiu's stunned expression and said, " In fact, the goal of the three of us is just to get rid of the Wanzhi Gang as soon as possible. "

The fact that " you killed the Wanzhi gang members will not be revealed. After dealing with the Tama Jianghu, even if you don't cooperate to eliminate the Wanzhi first, you can still fight fairly and impartially. "

" With the current death mechanism, there can be no protracted war, " Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " Who is stronger between you and Chenshi, and who will be the first, will soon be decided. "

" After the results come out, you can deal with Wanzhi without any scruples. Moreover, the leader of Chenshi has also promised us the same thing. After everything is over, regardless of whether we win or lose, we will attack Wanzhi. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu looked at Ji Xuan for a while, then said slowly: " You are right. These three are indeed good news for me. "

" But you are not from the mortal world, how can you guarantee their next actions? " Jian Xi Xin Jiu said: The fact that " I killed the Wanzhi members is certainly a handle, but isn't it easy for Xiao Xiao Yu Xia to stab me? It's the same without this handle. How can you guarantee the fair duel you mentioned? "

Ji Xuanyi said as a matter of course: " The three of us are here to guarantee that if Xiao Xiao Yu Xia really plots against you behind your back, the three of us will join Meng Tang Gu and help you deal with him. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was speechless for a moment, then said: " You have a lot of people ... Well, I can see that the little brother next to you is very powerful, but the strength of a gang is not calculated in this way. "

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " You should have met the third person on our side. We even fought against each other. He is an assassin. "

Jian Xi Xinjiu was stunned, as if he remembered something, and his face suddenly turned green. Ji Xuanyi said, " Yes, you lost the fight, but it's not something to be ashamed of. After all, the assassin was Mi Yin. Even if you searched the entire Starry City, you could count the number of people who could beat him on one hand. If you squeeze your numbers, you can still be considered one of the top 5 in Starry City . "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu really didn't know about this. He was stunned for a moment before saying, " Mi Yin? He is Mi Yin?! "

Ji Xuan nodded and was about to speak when he saw Jian Xi Xin Jiu's eyes widen and pointed at Qi Qin and said, " Are you Xue Piao Renjian?! "

Qi Qin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Jian Xi Xin Jiu seemed to collapse and murmured: " How could Xue Piao Renjian be with someone else? Did I stand in the wrong place? "

Inexplicably being mistaken for someone else, Qi Qin didn't know what expressions to make on his face, and could only look at Ji Xuanyi with grievance.

Ji Xuanyi also stayed where he was, not knowing for a moment whether he should tell the other party that he had the wrong person, or complain about the other party, a grown man in his thirties, trying to imitate a girl's cuteness.

After a long while, Ji Xuanyi was speechless and said, " He is not Xue Piao Renjian, he is called Tianxia Diyi. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu looked at them suspiciously and said, " Doesn't Xue Piao Ren Jian have a nickname called the best in the world? "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then he remembered that Xue Piao Renjian seemed to have such a nickname!

1v1 duel competition held by the game officials every season , and Xue Piao Renjian won the championship for ten consecutive years. For the players who participated in the competition at that time, it was like an insurmountable mountain. It was not until he stopped participating in the competition that he stepped down from the first position.

Although other people became champions later, and everyone knows that there are still hidden masters who have not appeared on the stage of that competition, this does not prevent Xue Piao Renjian's fans from praising him as the best in the world.

In addition to Xue Piao Renjian's fans, there are also many of his haters who call him by this nickname, so the nickname is quite widely circulated.

However, Ji Xuanyi didn't care much about these things. He just heard them once and forgot about them. Now that Jian Xi Xinjiu brought them up, he remembered them and was immediately upset.

"Xue Piao Renjian is not an all-round player like Mi Yin," Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly, "The profession he specializes in is more like a knight in Domain. Is he crazy? He plays a swordsman and gives himself a stupid name like No. 1 in the world?"

Qi Qin was suddenly shot again and protested quietly: "The number one in the world can't be that stupid..."

Ji Xuanyi pretended not to hear and said to Jian Xinxinjiu: "Besides, if he is really Xue Piao Renjian, he will only act with Mi Yin. What's the point of following me?"

Jian Xi Xin Jiu hesitated for a moment, but chose to trust the one he stood for. He asked doubtfully, "There are only three of you? If he is not Xue Piao Ren Jian, then where is Xue Piao Ren Jian?"

"I don't know," Ji Xuanyi said, "He and Mi Yin had a conflict. Let's not talk about that for now. Can we get back to business?"

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was stunned for a moment, and finally put his mind at ease, and said: "If it is Mi Yin's assassin, he does have such great power to threaten a guild... But he is an arena player after all, so there are still some restrictions for him in the wild guild war, right?"

"So there are three of us," Ji Xuanyi tapped Qi Qin's chest armor and said calmly, "Although he is not Xue Piao Renjian, he is stronger than Xue Piao Renjian. If the three of us join Meng Tanggu, Chenshi will definitely not stand a chance of winning."

Jian Xi Xin Jiu showed an expression of disbelief: "This little brother is indeed very strong, but is he stronger than Xue Piao Renjian? Impossible."

Ji Xuan said: "Whether he is as powerful as Xue Piao Renjian, you can ask Mi Yin and you will know."

That's true! Although Xue Piao Renjian is not here, Mi Yin is here! In addition to being able to help, you can also ask some gossip!

Jian Xi Xin Jiu suddenly felt eager to go home and wanted to have a good chat with Mi Yin right away!

The horse sensed his thoughts and turned around in place a little restlessly, snorting.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu calmed down for a moment, pulled the reins, and said to Ji Xuan: "Okay, let's go find Mi Yin first. With the three of you here, the possibility of cooperation is still very high. Do you want to ride my horse? This is not an ordinary horse given for daily tasks. It is obtained from secret tasks. It has a high load capacity. It can run very far with two people on it."

I couldn't help teasing again.

Before Ji Xuanyi could speak, Qi Qin poked his head out and asked, "Can three people sit down?"

Jian Xi Xin Jiu took a look at Qi Qin's size and the heavy equipment on him, twitched his lips and said, "Forget it, let's walk back slowly."

Qi Qin's load must weigh at least 200 to 300 kilograms. If he sits on it, he will be fine, but his horse will probably be in trouble.

Although Jian Xi Xinjiu became the gang leader for unknown reasons, he was quite competent in his job. He was familiar with the roads in most places in the Northeast region. After Ji Xuanyi and Mi Yin agreed to meet at the temporary base in Mengtanggu, he took Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin and walked back leisurely.

The three of them chatted all the way. Jian Xi Xin Jiu mentioned his skills. He was already level 43 and had acquired the knight's third skill. This skill could only be used with a horse. It was the same skill he had just used on the archer.

In layman's terms, it is called "Kicking the Hoof". In "Domain", this skill is called " Raising the Hoof " .

This skill should be good. After all, Jianxi Xinjiu's equipment is only above average, but he can beat an archer to the point of being left with only a thin layer of blood in one blow. This only shows that the damage of this skill itself is very high.

" Horses actually have combat attributes, " Jian Xi Xin Jiu said, The " attack just now also had a horse bonus, but I didn't complete the task to a high degree at that time, so the attributes of the rewarded horse were not the best. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said this while stroking the horse under him: " But it's better than the horses obtained from daily tasks. The ordinary horses given from daily tasks can't carry much weight and have certain requirements for the knight's equipment. "

At this point, he glanced at Qi Qin and said, " He is also wearing light armor, right? But if this set of light armor is worn by a knight, most people can't even get on the horse. It's too heavy. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " This is the light armor used by warriors. Although it is not as heavy as heavy armor, it is definitely heavier than the light armor used by knights. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu smacked his lips. From his point of view, it was a little hard to understand why a warrior would choose light armor, even though this number one in the world did seem very powerful.

Mengtanggu's temporary base is located in the northeast district, closer to the entrance of Fanxing City, which is convenient for receiving new members. Because the final target base is actually in the inner city, the base in the northeast district has not been formally registered with the system. It is just the place where gang members usually gather. Other small gangs in the northeast district also know about this, and no one would be so blind as to register this base. When Jian Xi Xinjiu and Ji Xuanyi arrived at the stronghold, Mi Yin had already started playing mahjong with the people from Meng Tanggu.

Mahjong is made by the players themselves with the materials. When Ji Xuan entered the city, he saw someone selling it for thirty silver coins a set, which was not too expensive considering the current prices.

Mi Yin seemed to have won money, his face was flushed and he didn't look serious at all.

Ji Xuanyi was silent for a moment, then said, " Gathering people to gamble ? "

Mi Yin came back to his senses with a start, looked up and found that it was Ji Xuanyi, laughed dryly and said: " It's not a gamble, it 's not a gamble ... "

Ji Xuan said: " You are familiar with this matter, but I don't understand it. "

Mi Yin muttered softly: " I don't care about this ... "

Ji Xuanyi didn't bother to pay attention to him, and said to Jian Xixinjiu: " Well, the person is here, if you have anything else to ask, ask it. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu got off his horse, nodded to the gang members who greeted him, looked at Mi Yin, and asked curiously: " Are you really Mi Yin? "

Mi Yin also stood up from the card table at this time. He took a look at Jian Xi Xin Jiu and recognized that he was the leader of Meng Tanggu. His face suddenly became serious.

Regarding the cooperation between Mengtanggu and Chenshi, there are indeed many details that need to be confirmed, whether it is the attitude of Mengtanggu or the guarantees that need to be made to the other party after the cooperation.

Mi Yin stood up and said to Jian Xi Xin Jiu: " Yes, I am that Mi Yin, the leader of Jian Xi Gang. Is there anything else you want to know about the cooperation with Chen Shi? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu nodded, thought for a moment, and asked very seriously: " Did you have any conflict with Xue Piao Renjian? "

" Xue Piao Renjian and I ..." Mi Yin said halfway, and the expression on her face suddenly collapsed: " What's going on? Why do you all ask this kind of question? What kind of conflict do I have with Xue Piao Renjian? Does it have anything to do with this?! "

" Of course there is! " Jian Xi Xin Jiu confidently made excuses for his gossiping heart: " If Xue Piao Renjian was here, would we still need to consider any details? With the combined strength of the four of you, we don't have to consider anything, okay? "

Ji Xuanyi felt that Jian Xi Xinjiu was actually right. If Xue Piao Renjian was also here, the four of them would stick together and not have to worry about anything . Not to mention Fanxing City, they could almost dominate the entire Domain.

Mi Yin almost vomited blood. She had never expected that Jian Xi Xin Jiu, a seemingly serious guy, was actually such a person. After a long while, she said, " It's just that people with different beliefs cannot work together. Xue Piao Ren Jian is not in Fanxing City either. Don't think about it. Let's talk about something serious. "

Seeing that there was no hope of getting any sweets, Jian Xi Xin Jiu was disappointed for a moment, but he still said seriously: " Even if I don't want to cooperate, there is no way I can do it. "

" I already know what Tama Jianghu is doing. RMB players are still awesome, " Jian Xi Xin Jiu sighed, " We can't defeat them with our gang's strength alone. We have no choice but to form an alliance with Chen Shi first. It's too much trouble to convey the details through you. I'll add Xiao Xiao Yu Xia as my friend. "

" Will you help in the battle with Tama Jianghu later? " Jian Xi Xin Jiu looked at the three of them: " Or will you wait until the battle with Wan Zhi Gang before you take action? "

Hearing Jian Xixinjiu's words, Mi Yin's eyes lit up and she said, " I can do it anytime, as long as you take action against Wan Zhi as soon as possible. "

Jian Xixinjiu looked at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuan was tired of standing, so he leaned on Qi Qin and said lazily: " I think Mi Yin is enough, but if you really can't beat the RMB players, you can come to us. With Tianxia's strength, it's not a problem to kill an elite team of 20 people. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu thought to himself, this guy is bragging again.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu looked at Qi Qin speechlessly and said, " Brother, he praised you like that and you didn't react? "

Aren't you afraid of making enemies?

When Ji Xuan heard this, he also looked at Qi Qin, who immediately responded: " No problem! "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

You really dare to agree!

He remembered what Ji Xuanyi said before, so he had to say to Mi Yin: " I heard that the number one in the world is more powerful than Xue Piao Renjian? "

Mi Yin gave him a strange look and said, " How would I know? Anyway, they are both better than me. "

It's not easy for Mi Yin to say this. You know, before Xue Piao Renjian won the 1v1 competition championship for two consecutive years, Mi Yin was the first place in every session!

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was stunned for a moment before he said, " No way, is it really that powerful? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu looked at Qi Qin, who was tall and strong but had been carefully supporting Ji Xuanyi, and said in disbelief: " Number one in the world? Let's have a competition? "

Qi Qin's eyes lit up.

Is this finally a chance to beat this guy up?

Ji Xuanyi stood up quietly, walked to Mi Yin and sat down, making room for the two of them.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu saw Qi Qin accept the challenge and said with a smile: " Don't hold back. "

Qi Qin took out his guard and answered from the bottom of his heart: " Don't worry, it won't happen. "

Chapter 62

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was pressed to the ground and rubbed hard by Qi Qin in front of his gang members.

If Ji Xuanyi had not shouted " stop " early , he would probably have been sent back to the resurrection point by Qi Qin's " accident " .

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was at least a friendly character , and he had to lose a skill if he dropped a level, so Ji Xuanyi was still paying close attention to his situation.

Jian Xi Xinjiu no longer dared to say that Ji Xuanyi was bragging about Qi Qin. After all, the opponent didn't even use his full strength and knocked him and his horse to the ground. Maybe he could even fight against an elite team of twenty people alone!

Jian Xi Xinjiu was recovering his health while sitting far away from Ji Xuanyi . He could already see that Qi Qin had some personal emotions when he beat him.

" I'll contact Xiaoxiao Yuxia, " Jianxi Xinjiu laughed dryly and said, " He shouldn't dare to do anything weird if you're here. "

Finally it was confirmed, Mi Yin breathed a sigh of relief and asked: " Can you guys move faster? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said: " Let's discuss this with Xiao Xiao Yu Xia today . At least we have to notify Tama Jiang Hu tomorrow. "

Seeing Jian Xixinjiu consciously moving away from Ji Xuanyi , Qi Qin felt a little relieved and asked curiously, " Do you still need to notify them? Aren't you planning to attack directly and catch them off guard? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said speechlessly: " It's just a fight over territory, it's not a deep hatred, and there's no surprise attack. In this game, if someone dies, you'll lose a level. "

That's true.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said: " Xiao Xiao Yu Xia and I will send a notice to Tama Jiang Hu together . If he knows what's good for him , it would be great if he withdraws on his own. If he doesn't , we can only arrange a fight. "

In this kind of game with penalties for demotion , faced with a one-on - two battle that is almost impossible to win , very few guilds would stubbornly choose to fight head-on. In fact, the best way to deal with it is to give in and retain strength.

But after all, Dama Jianghu has a RMB player like Xu Chu. If he really goes all out and comes up with some tricks, Chenshi and Mengtanggu combined will not be able to defend against him. In short, negotiate first, and talk later if you can't reach an agreement.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu started to contact Xiao Xiao Yu Xia, Mi Yin stayed in Meng Tang Gu to help him, while Ji Xuan Yi and Qi Qin planned to do the task upgrade first. Ji Xuan Yi was not interested in the agreement between Meng Tang Gu and Chen Shi, and did not intend to waste his brain to help Jian Xi Xin Jiu come up with ideas.

" If you want to stay in the Northeast District to upgrade, I can ask someone who knows the way to take you there. " Jian Xi Xinjiu suggested.

Ji Xuan thought about it, then shook his head and said, " No need. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu showed an understanding expression and said, " Well, the two of them are good, very good. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..... ??? "

The roads in the four urban areas of Fanxing City are very complicated , and the same is true for the northeast area. When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were brought to the temporary base by Jian Xi Xinjiu, Jian Xi Xinjiu once gave them simple directions. Ji Xuanyi remembered a little bit and didn't get lost with Qi Qin.

They took on a very simple mission of delivering a message, and were walking towards the mission completion point while looking at the parchment when Ji Xuanyi suddenly stopped.

 " What's wrong? " Qi Qin asked.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " I received another letter. "

 " Ah? " Qi Qin was stunned: " Is it sent by the system again? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head: " I don't know. "

The system prompt will only tell him that a letter has been received, but will not show the sender's name.

Qi Qin thought for a moment and said, " Is it possible that it was sent by Ah Miao or Yi Shu? We have been out for two days. "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly, " I've been out for two days and I'm not called ' du ' , I'm called ' cai ' . Hand in the task first. I remember there's a postman position. "

It would take at least another week for the friends from Green Forest City to come to Star City, and Qi Qin still missed them a lot.

After completing the task, Ji Xuanyi took Qi Qin and turned a few corners. Sure enough, they found a postman. When the postman saw Ji Xuanyi coming, he gave him a very professional smile.

" Help me get the letter, thank you. "

The postman nodded, took out a thin piece of letter paper from the bag around his waist and handed it to Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi could now confirm that the letter was indeed not sent by those people from Green Forest City.

If you only have a few words to say, just chat in private. If those people from Green Forest City send a letter, there will definitely be a package.

As soon as Ji Xuan opened the letter, he saw that the sender's signature was [Fanxing City Auction House] again .

There are quite a lot of things going on in this auction.

But since it is a letter sent by a force in the game, it must be useful.

Ji Xuanyi continued to look down.

Star City Auction House:

Dear guests of the Mage Tower, we have encountered a little trouble and you may be the only one who can help us, so I am sending this letter with the audacity of hoping that you can take some time to decide whether to help us.

[Daily Quest] : Disappearing Ruby.

Accept / Reject

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment. It was the first time for him to encounter a task issued by sending a letter. However, the auction house is a force after all, not an independent one. In the absence of a representative, sending a letter is indeed a safer way.

Qi Qin also came over to take a look and said, " The missing ruby? Do you want to take it? "

Ji Xuanyi did not say anything. Forces usually did not give much experience in daily life.

Reputation rewards were more common than item rewards. It seemed a bit of a waste of time to do such tasks at this stage.

" The tasks of finding things seem to be quite simple. " Qi Qin said.

At least the item-finding missions they encountered during the upgrade missions were simple.

The parchment would directly mark the location of the items, and they just had to pick up the items and send them back there.

However, faction missions are different from upgrade missions. After thinking about it, Ji Xuan decided to take it. As for daily missions, if it is not cost-effective, he would just do it once.

After accepting the mission, the information explanation immediately appeared on the parchment.

[Disappearing Ruby] : The magic ruby treasured in the auction house in Star City suddenly disappeared. I hope you can help find it back.

Task instructions: None.

Mission scope: Starry City.

Mission countdown: 6 hours , 29 minutes and 25 seconds.

The current time is 5:30 pm, which means that after 12 o'clock tonight, this task will be automatically cancelled.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

So who are you kidding with this condition?

Ji Xuanyi has only encountered two tasks without instructions so far, and both were hidden tasks. He didn't expect that daily tasks would also have such a cool operation, and it was even time-limited. It was really fucking stupid.

However, when Ji Xuan saw the mission reward, he understood why this mission was so demanding.

The reward for this daily task is a fragment of an auction designated ticket. Gather ten fragments to combine into a designated ticket. The function of this designated ticket is to designate an item that will appear in the next auction. If the designated item already exists in the next auction, the quantity of the item will be increased by one.

The items that can be designated include god-level weapons, mounts, materials, and everything else that appears in the auction house. It can be said that as long as you have money, this voucher can turn the auction house where items randomly appear into your store, and you can buy whatever you want.

And even if you don't have money to buy items, you can take this voucher to find rich people and make a fortune. After all, although the voucher is a bound item, the designated item is not bound. Rich players can offer any price for the equipment they want.

However, god-level equipment is not that easy to obtain.

In fact, this daily reputation quest will only appear in the very late stages. Only those who have reached a close reputation in the auction house will have a certain probability of receiving the quest, and the completion conditions are very harsh. The probability of collecting ten fragments is actually not much different from the probability of directly obtaining god-level equipment in the game.

Ji Xuanyi realized the difficulty of this task almost instantly, and now everyone is working hard to upgrade. If he chooses to do this task, he will most likely run around for this task for a whole day without any gain.

Qi Qin couldn't see the conditions of Ji Xuanyi's task, and asked curiously: " How about it? Do you want to do it? "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " This task is a bit difficult, I can only do it as I wish ... I'll go offline to eat first, and then come back to take a look. "

It was time to eat at this time. Qi Qin had been controlling his food intake recently and got hungry quickly. When he saw Ji Xuan log off, he quickly followed suit.

Ji Xuanyi climbed out of the game cabin, ordered a takeout, and sat on the bed to browse the forum on his phone.

Because the guild system was opened, most people went to the new map and became busy in the game. There were no more strange things in the forum. Even the popularity of the traveling warlock post dropped a little. Most of the people on the homepage were newcomers who entered the game because of the server reopening, asking about some gameplay in the game.

However, there are popular science and strategies in the forum, and you can just search for them. Ji Xuanyi is too lazy to read the questions asked by newbies.

He casually searched for posts related to Star City and found that someone had already mentioned the Wanzhi Gang in the forum. However, in the online gaming world, there are even worse things. So apart from the players in Star City who had been harassed, there were few responses and the post soon fell silent. Most of the posts were players calling on the illustrators to quickly produce a map, as they really couldn't recognize the road and had to run for half a day to find a transportation point.

In fact, some people have already started making maps, but the area of any urban area in Star City is larger than previous cities, so it is difficult to draw it so quickly.

Ji Xuanyi searched directly for posts related to reputation and daily life on the forum. The former only contained players' speculations about reputation and the main storyline, while the latter were all irrelevant daily matters, and even included favorability tasks.

This was also expected. Even if other people were as lucky as Ji Xuanyi and triggered the reputation of a certain force in advance, they would not expose it rashly.

Speaking of the favorability missions, they are also quite confusing. Those who have the missions seem to be randomly drawn from a lottery barrel. There are bards, great magicians, and even fishermen near the sea. There is no connection between them at all, making it difficult to figure out what all these favorability are used for.

Ji Xuanyi didn't find the information he wanted, so he went online after having a casual meal.

It is now 6:45, and there are still five hours and fifteen minutes until the mission is cancelled.

Qi Qin had been waiting on the side long ago. Ji Xuanyi told him the content of the task, hesitated for a moment, and said: " This kind of task depends on luck, you can't force it, but the letter mentioned the Mage Tower, we can go there while completing the task. "

Qi Qin didn't quite understand what all that thank you was about. He only knew that this task was difficult. But since Ji Xuanyi said to just go with the flow, then he would just go with the flow.

" But where does the letter mention the Mage Tower? " Qi Qin asked puzzledly.

He couldn't read Ji Xuanyi's parchment, but he could read the letters he sent. He didn't see any mention of the Mage Tower on them.

" I was called a guest of the Mage Tower, and the last time the auction house sent a letter, except for the mention of the Mage Tower guest, they always called me an adventurer, " Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " But this is just a guess, I can't say whether it is correct, but one thing is definitely true. "

" Ah? What's going on? "

" August said that if you don't know how to complete a mission, you can go to him. " Ji Xuanyi replied.

Qi Qin also remembered that August did say this, and there was no limit on the number of times they could enter and exit the Mage Tower every day. Otherwise, they would not be able to enter now after reporting in once during the day.

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " Well, it feels good to be able to help. "

However, even with August's help, Ji Xuanyi didn't think that this task would be easy to complete. If August helped them find the ruby just by asking a question, then this golden finger would be too much.

So Ji Xuanyi really intended to do this task casually. He did not rush to take Qi Qin to the Mage Tower. Instead, he found a transportation point while doing the task, and then got on the carriage and went to the inner city.

When the two arrived at the inner city, it was almost nine o'clock, and they had to walk to the mage tower in the middle.

Qi Qin yawned, which made Ji Xuanyi want to yawn as well, but he held it back.

In fact, Qi Qin had already started to feel drowsy when he was in the carriage. His daily routine was to go to bed at 8:30 in the evening and get up at 6 in the morning. Now was the most sleepy time for him.

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin and thought that if Qi Qin suddenly fell down while walking, he might not be able to catch him, so he said, " Anyway, we are in the inner city now and there are no tasks to do. Do you want to log off and rest first? "

Qi Qin nodded in a daze, then suddenly realized what Ji Xuanyi was saying, and quickly shook his head and said, " It's okay, I want to accompany Xuanyi! "

Ji Xuanyi said helplessly: " I can do it alone, you go ahead. "

Qi Qin didn't say anything, his eyes were wide open, indicating that he was very sober!

Ji Xuanyi: "... Okay, let's go. "

Qi Qin breathed a sigh of relief, then became listless again, following Ji Xuanyi in a daze. It was almost ten o'clock when we arrived at the Mage Tower. There were glowing gem lamps on the road in Starry City, and there were quite a few players walking under them. However, some of those who were originally wandering on the road went to take a rest, causing the road to become much emptier.

Qi Qin was like a wilted pickled vegetable, staggering behind Ji Xuanyi. He almost bumped into the wall several times and was held back by Ji Xuanyi helplessly. After passing the first guard's inspection, Qi Qin half leaned on Ji Xuanyi, almost unconscious.

Fortunately, Qi Qin also knew that Ji Xuanyi could not support him, so he persevered and did not put all his weight on Ji Xuanyi.

The Mage Tower was as busy as it was during the day. After seeing Ji Xuanyi, Jie Yin still greeted them warmly and led them to the elevator.

At this time, no players were running to the Mage Tower, so Ji Xuanyi didn't have to wait in line to see August.

At night, August did not sit behind the desk and write or draw as he did during the day. Instead, he wore glasses and read a book.

After noticing Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin coming in, August immediately stood up and said happily: " Child, you are here again, I am so happy, but it is very late now, do you need my help with anything? "

Ji Xuan placed Qi Qin on a chair in August's small room, took out the letter sent by the auction house, and said, " Yes, I need your help. It's about the ruby in the Star City auction house. "

August took the letter from Ji Xuanyi and looked at it. After a long while, he said, " Oh, I know this. The ruby in the auction house was given to them by me. "

Ji Xuanyi showed an expression of "as expected", but this is a daily task, which means that all players can accept this task in the later stage. If the players have not yet gained August's favorability by that time, they probably can only look for it by chance.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and asked, " Why did the ruby suddenly disappear? Was it stolen? "

" No, no, " August muttered, shaking his head. " This ruby is not an ordinary gem. It is the product of a failed experiment of mine ... Well, although it failed, it does contain some spatial magic power. It will suddenly disappear and suddenly appear in another place. It is really too common. "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment, and subconsciously asked: " Space magic? "

" Yes, don't you know? It's the kind that can make people go from here to there in a flash ... Oh , sorry, I shouldn't say that, " August covered his mouth and looked at Ji Xuanyi pitifully: " This is a secret, the agreement of the three wizard towers, I, I seem to have said too much ..." Of course they won't say too much, their lines were all written in advance. The official game officials of "Domain" once said that there are no teleportation arrays or the like in this world, it is just a whole large map, but why is space magic mentioned here?

Ji Xuanyi guessed that this might be an easter egg or foreshadowing for the later plot. After all, August said that this was his experiment, which meant that this magic had not been used yet ... and the agreement on the three wizard towers he mentioned should be a plot for the later stages.

Ji Xuanyi asked a few more questions about space magic, but August refused to give any answer. Ji Xuanyi asked a few more questions, and the poor old man looked at him aggrievedly with his already somewhat cloudy eyes. Ji Xuanyi really couldn't withstand such an attack, so he had to give up digging.

It was getting late, so Ji Xuanyi brought the topic back to the point: " So the ruby moved automatically because of the magic it carried? Can we find where it is? "

August finally put down his hand that was tightly covering his mouth, exhaled, and then said: " Yes, the ruby is quite naughty. It moves once every three hours, but unfortunately, I can't find its exact position. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned. It was impossible for August to only play the role of explanation and revealing easter eggs in this ruby mission. There must be other information that could be revealed.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and asked directly: " How can you help me with this task? " August didn't seem very happy. After a long while, he muttered, " Oh, sorry, I can't help you. I'm really not good at this ..."

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment. Before he could react, he heard August take a breath and continued, " But you can go downstairs to find my student, Puxi. He is very good at divination. Yes, better than me. I can't do anything about it. Divination is something that always requires a certain amount of talent. Unfortunately, I don't have that talent. This is really annoying. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

He was panting so hard that he thought he had made a wasted trip.

August was still nagging: " Go, child, he will tell you the approximate location of the ruby, but he doesn't know when the ruby will move again, and divination is always biased. Sometimes the range may be large, and sometimes it may be small. You have to be more tolerant of him. "

Ji Xuanyi waited helplessly for August to finish his nagging, then said: " Then shall we leave first? "

August blinked and said to Ji Xuan, " Okay, go ahead, kid. It's getting late. Remember to go to bed early. "

Ji Xuan nodded and was about to call Qi Qin to leave. When he turned around, he found that the chair where Qi Qin had just been sitting was now empty.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

If you fall asleep in the game, it seems that you will be kicked off the game directly.

Are you really that sleepy?

Chapter 63

As soon as he left Ji Xuanyi , Qi Qin fell into a coma and was kicked offline by the system without Ji Xuanyi noticing . He had no choice but to go downstairs alone to find August's students.

Ji Xuanyi remembered the man named Puxi . Among the many people on the first floor, he was the only one who did not say hello to Ji Xuanyi. He had been hiding in the corner, staring at a magic star map that kept changing and muttering to himself.

As soon as Ji Xuan went downstairs, he found Puxi in the corner . Sure enough, he was still looking at the star map there. The others nodded and smiled at Ji Xuan, but he was the only one with his back to Ji Xuan , unmoved.

Ji Xuanyi stepped forward and asked, " Can you do me a favor? "

Puxi raised his head in a daze and said, " Help ? What help? Oh, by the way , you are the teacher's guest , do you want me to help you predict your fortune? Romance? Oh no , not that ..."

He muttered for a while and said, " You are here to find something. "

Although he knew that this was a set line, Pusi's feeling of " I am not a mortal, I live in a different world from you " was still too strong, making Ji Xuanyi sigh at the convenience and intuitiveness of holographic online games in character shaping.

Ji Xuanyi said: " Yes , I want to know where the magic ruby in the auction house is. "

Puxi was slow to react for a long time before he said, " Oh , okay, I think I know where it is, wait a moment. "

He muttered to himself for a while at the blue star map that kept changing, and took out a small notebook. After a long while, he said to Ji Xuan in a mysterious voice: " It is in the southeast of Starry City. The weather is bad today, and the stars are not bright enough. This is all I can see.

This should be the deviation of divination that August mentioned. The direction of the southeast area is too large. Although the scope of the entire Starry City has been reduced to one-fifth, at this point, let alone looking for it, even if you walk out of the inner city, there is not enough time and the mission will be cancelled halfway.

It seems that this task really depends on luck.

This result was exactly what Ji Xuan had expected. He was not very upset, but he was a little tired after running for such a long time. Ji Xuan thanked Puxi and left.

After Ji Xuan went offline, he called Qi Qin. Fortunately, although this hero fell asleep quickly, he still maintained basic alertness at night. He picked up the phone after two or three seconds, and said "Hello" in a hoarse voice while feeling very sleepy.

Qi Qin's voice was a little low, and he was still sleepy, so Ji Xuanyi's ears were almost numbed through the phone. Ji Xuanyi said, "Go to bed," and hung up the phone.

Although Ji Xuanyi's schedule was not as healthy as Qi Qin's, it was time to go to bed. He put down his phone and went to wash up.

When he went online again the next day, Ji Xuan saw Qi Qin online and asked him to join a team. This was a rare occasion when the two of them were not offline at the same place.

Fortunately, with the guidance of the parchment, Qi Qin quickly found out that Ji Xuanyi was downstairs and ran out of August's small room in a panic.

Some players came to the Mage Tower early to complete the quest. When they saw Qi Qin suddenly run out of August's room, it took them a long time to react. They patted their chests and said with a weird look on their faces: "Fuck, I almost misunderstood something... He worked so hard just to avoid the queue. It would be fine if he logged off right in front of me!" Qi Qin didn't intend to explain this and hurried to the first floor, where Ji Xuanyi was talking to Puxi.

Puxi was originally squatting in the corner. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin always stayed away from him when they passed by, so he didn't react much. But today, Ji Xuanyi came online right in front of him, and this always slow-witted guy actually took the initiative to talk to Ji Xuanyi.

It seems that he is not without interest in his teacher's guest.

"Do you need divination every day?" Puxi smiled at Ji Xuanyi in a friendly way and said slowly: "Don't worry, it won't affect the number of times you can do divination for other things. You are the teacher's guest, you are special."

Anyway, it doesn't cost any money, so it's a waste not to use it. Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows and said, "Of course I need it."

Puxi nodded, and finally let go of the star map. He took out a palm-sized crystal from his leather bag, looked at the sunlight coming in from outside, and said for a long time: "You are really lucky today. You can pick up money."

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but laugh. The divination result sounded a bit silly. He thought it would be more profound, but he didn't expect it to be so straightforward.

But in fact, it is impossible to really predict what the player will encounter today. His divination is more of a system reward than a prediction of the future. Since Puxi said that he will pick up money, then the system will definitely let him pick up money.

Puxi put the crystal away seriously, nodded to Ji Xuan, and said, " You can go pick up the money now! "

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " Thank you. "

At this time, Qi Qin finally came out of the slow elevator, ran to Ji Xuanyi in two steps, and said nervously: " I'm sorry! I accidentally fell asleep last night. I won't do it again! Really! "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and saw that his face had flushed red. He spoke his apology in an orderly manner, and it was unknown how many times he had practiced it since he got up in the morning.

However, Ji Xuanyi did not mean to be angry. It was not like he had not experienced the feeling of being extremely sleepy. It was normal for him to fall asleep.

He looked at Qi Qin with great interest and said to him, " You can also do some divination. "

Qi Qin pointed at himself with a question mark on his face, and was then pushed to Puxi by Ji Xuanyi. Puxi's attitude towards Qi Qin was not as good as towards Ji Xuanyi, and he lazily said: " Do you want to do divination? "

This time he did not mention the number of divinations, probably because he was too lazy to explain it to anyone except Ji Xuanyi.

Qi Qin first looked at Ji Xuanyi, then nodded.

Puxi took out the crystal again, took a look at it, and said to Qi Qin: " How unfortunate, how unfortunate, you will fall down today. "

Qi Qin was confused.

Ji Xuanyi burst out laughing and said, " This is so interesting, let's call Mi Yin and the others over to play with us ! "

Qi Qin still didn't understand why he was about to fall. Seeing Ji Xuanyi's high interest, he didn't ask any more questions and just asked: " Did you complete the task of finding something yesterday? "

Ji Xuanyi was chatting privately with Mi Yin, while shaking his head, saying, " No. "

The first thing he did after coming online was to look at the parchment. Sure enough, the ruby quest he received yesterday had disappeared.

Normally, daily tasks should be refreshed in the early morning, but yesterday's task suddenly appeared at dinner time. I think it should be triggered randomly. I don't know when I will receive it next time. I just know that I have to find Pusi for divination. I will have more experience next time than this time.

Ji Xuanyi's message to Mi Yin's editor had not been sent out yet, but Mi Yin sent a message first.

[Miyin] : Xuanyi! What kind of rhythm is it that Damn Jianghu accepts the challenge!

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment and asked, " Did you accept the challenge? "

[Miyin] : Yes! After you left yesterday, Jianxixinjiu got in touch with Xiaoxiaoyuxia, and today they sent a message to Tamajianghu together.

[Miyin] : As a result, Dama Jianghu directly decided to fight, which put Jianxi Xinjiu and Xiaoxiao Yuxia in a difficult situation.

If Tamajujianghu dares to fight two at once, it proves that they must have a trump card that can help them fight two at once. In this case, Mengtanggu and Chenshi will not know whether they should accept the challenge.

But he only hesitated for a moment. After all, the position of the boss is not so easy to give up, otherwise there wouldn't be so many troubles now. What's more, they are two gangs, and two against one will definitely have the advantage.

So after Tamajuhu accepted the challenge, Mengtanggu and Chenshi also agreed. The three gangs are now agreeing on the time and place.

After all, it's not a deep hatred, and there's no need to resort to any messy means. Just agree on a time and place, and fight to see who's the better.

[Miyin] : What should we do?

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Let's fight. "

There will be a fight sooner or later. Even if Dama Jianghu doesn't fight with Mengtanggu Chenshi, there will be a fight between Mengtanggu and Chenshi in the future. At least after this fight, Mengtanggu and Chenshi will have a better understanding of each other's strength. Maybe there is no need for a fight between the two and the problem can be resolved peacefully. But what kind of trump card does Dama Jianghu have? He responded to the challenge of one against two so arrogantly without any hesitation.

Ji Xuanyi didn't have the heart to ask Mi Yin to come over to play divination again. After asking Mi Yin to remember to tell him any latest news, he took Qi Qin out of the Mage Tower and went to the southeast area.

Mi Yin is watching over Jian Xi Xin Jiu, so he and Qi Qin can go over to Xiao Xiao Yu Xia to take a look.

After a private chat with Xiaoxiao Yuxia, the other party told them about Chenshi's temporary base in the southeast area. Like Mengtanggu, Chenshi's base was also very close to the entrance. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin passed by it once when they entered the city, so it was not difficult to find it this time.

There aren't many people in the mortal world's stronghold, most of them have gone out to upgrade. I guess it's because Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others have told them that they're going to fight, so the gang members should upgrade as much as possible to increase their combat power.

From Ji Xuanyi's point of view, Chenshi should be the weaker one among the three gangs. After all, there is a RMB player Xu Chu in Tamaju, and the gang members of Mengtanggu are all followers of Jianxi Xinjiu. Their pvp abilities are pretty good. As for Chenshi's side ... the only advantage that can be considered is that Xiaoxiao Yuxia can win people's hearts. Just look at what happened to Jingyun Hancai and you will know that. The strength of the gang members should be average.

However, it was inappropriate for Ji Xuanyi to say such words. Besides, with Xiao Xiao Yuxia's personality, she might not be unaware of the situation. Perhaps after this battle, she would know whether to advance or retreat.

Jing Yunhan was scratching his head in the base. Fortunately, this was in a game, otherwise, if it were in reality, he would have been bald by now.

It can be seen that this guy is still very anxious about the upcoming battle, but when he saw Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, he forced himself to remain calm.

When Ji Xuan saw his disgusting expression, he knew that he must have come over the shock of finding out his identity last time.

Ji Xuanyi really didn't know how blind Jian Xi Xin Jiu had to be to find Jing Yunhan cute.

Xiao Xiaoyuxia was quite calm. Seeing Ji Xuanyi and the others, she smiled and said, " Thank you for making the trip. "

Ji Xuan looked at him for a while and decided to take back what he had just said. If compared with Xiao Xiao Yu Xia, Jing Yunhan could indeed be said to be cute.

However, apart from being cunning, Xiaoxiao Yuxia is a pretty good person, otherwise there wouldn't be so many of them left in this world, and Ji Xuanyi doesn't hate him that much.

" Yes, " Ji Xuanyi responded, and said, " I know the current situation. Are you sure you want to fight? "

" Of course we have to fight! " Jing Yunhan jumped up and said loudly: " Are we in the mortal world afraid of them? "

Ji Xuanyi ignored him and looked at Xiao Xiaoyu.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " If we want to compete for the first place, this fight will have to happen sooner or later. Being able to stand on the side of Mengtanggu is already a great advantage for Chenshi. It will only be more difficult to fight in the future. If we retreat now, we might as well quit directly. "

Ji Xuanyi asked: " What do you think of the current situation of the Damao Jianghu? "

Xiao Xiaoyu's expression became solemn. After a long while, he said hesitantly , " I can't say for sure. If it's an empty city plan, then Dama Jianghu agreed too quickly. But if they have the strength ... it's hard to say. For a RMB player, there are too many variables. Who knows when he started buying equipment? Although he should have only been in the auction house for two weeks at most, the trading house was opened a long time ago. "

Before Xiaoxiao Yuxia could figure out what was going on, Jing Yunhan suddenly shouted, " The people in the damn Jianghu said they wanted to fight in a round-robin battle! "

Although Deputy Gang Leader Xiao Xiaoyuxia actually has the final say on matters in the mortal world, he has to give face to Jing Yunhan after all. Therefore, when Tamajujianghu exchanges messages with them, it is Jing Yunhan who is contacted. Jing Yunhan has a bad temper, and Xiao Xiaoyuxia doesn't dare to ask him to reply. He always asks Jing Yunhan to read the messages to him after receiving them. Xiao Xiaoyuxia then combines his own opinions with Jing Yunhan's, and then asks Jing Yunhan to reply in his own words.

However, most of the time, Xiaoxiao Yuxia didn't need to specifically ask Jing Yunhan for his opinion. After all, she could tell his attitude towards these words from the tone of Jing Yunhan's voice when he read the message.

For example, in this sentence, Jing Yunhan's voice was very high, and there was a hint of disbelief, which meant that even though two people were fighting against one in the damn world, they still had the guts to make conditions!

You know, you won't feel tired in the game. It's much more efficient to rush in all at once than to fight in a round-robin battle. It's an advantage to require a round-robin battle in the Damangjianghu.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia frowned and said, " Reply to him, since you have accepted the battle, don't pick a method. "

I'm just bullying you because you have fewer people!

Although Jing Yunhan was stupid, he knew that his advantage was that he had more people, and he would not try to be a hero and fight alone. After hearing Xiao Xiaoyuxia's words, he began to concentrate on sending messages.

After a while, Jing Yunhan started shouting again. This time, not only was his voice high, but his throat was broken. He was in disbelief and furious: " They said that if we force a two-on-one fight, they will consider cooperating with the Wanzhi Gang! "

This time, not to mention Jing Yunhan and Xiao Xiaoyuxia, even Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin frowned. Jing Yunhan shouted at the top of his lungs: " Are they crazy?! "

Cooperating with the Wanzhi Gang is not only a matter of stance, but also a serious problem in terms of strength.

In Ji Xuanyi's mind, if the three gangs were to be ranked in terms of strength, the first should be Tamajhu, the second should be Mengtanggu, and the third should be Chenshi. Mengtanggu and Chenshi together are indeed stronger than Tamajhu, but if Tamajhu and Wanzhi Gang were to be combined, it would probably not take much effort to crush Mengtanggu and Chenshi.

After all, the Wanzhi Gang is the gang with the most members in Fanxing City. Even without mentioning its strength and gang cohesion, just based on the number of people, it is an opponent that the other two gangs need to be careful of, not to mention cooperating with Tama Jianghu.

The most important point is that if Tamajhu really cooperates with the Wanzhi Gang, then after they become the largest gang in Fanxing City, they will never attack the Wanzhi Gang that once helped them. At that time, even if the defeated Mengtanggu and Chenshi are willing to unite to deal with the Wanzhi Gang, after the Wanzhi Gang asks for help, Tamajhu will most likely obstruct them.

However, since Tamajujujianghu uses this as a negotiation condition for the round-robin battle, it at least proves that their temporary attitude is that they would rather have a round-robin battle with a lower chance of winning than go along with the Wanzhi Gang, and things have not yet developed to such a bad point.

Although Jing Yunhan was already furious at this threat and howled loudly in the room, Xiao

Xiaoyuxia did not hesitate for long and said directly: " Promise them, a round-robin battle. "

Jing Yunhan was almost pissed off and said angrily: " I don't! I don't want to agree! This is too shameless! We fight our own battles! Why do we have to cooperate with the Wanzhi Gang! "

Xiao Xiao Yu said calmly: " Calm down, Xiao Han, we are still outnumbered, at most it's just mutual. Besides, even if he agrees, we still have the advantage. "

Jing Yunhan was anxious and worried.

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia had no choice but to patiently comfort him, " Think about it, we won't suffer much if we agree to this. Xu Chu has probably spent hundreds of thousands of dollars preparing to launch a surprise attack on us. Now that he's been discovered, he can only fight two people alone. He'll probably be even angrier. We won't suffer any loss. "

Jing Yunhan miraculously calmed down after hearing what Xiao Xiaoyu said. I don't know what he was thinking about, but he actually smiled triumphantly and said, " Yeah, they wanted to launch a sneak attack on us, but we found them first. They must be furious. Hahahahaha, they even mentioned cooperating with Wanzhi, hahahahahahaha! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin: "..."

After a long while, Qi Qin leaned close to Ji Xuanyi's ear and whispered, " Is he a little stupid? " Ji Xuan had a blank expression on his face: " You just found out about this? "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia showed a helpless expression and said, " Okay, Xiao Han, send the message quickly. If I'm not mistaken, Meng Tanggu should have agreed. We can start discussing the time and place of the battle. "

Jing Yunhan laughed so hard that he twitched, and sent the message of acceptance. As expected, Mengtanggu had already agreed, and Tamajujianghu immediately sent the details of the challenge.

Time, place, and sequence are all things that need to be determined, but now there is no other group chat channel in "Domain" except the guild channel, so communication is cumbersome and troublesome. Xiaoxiao Yuxia even took out a notebook to record the key points.

Ji Xuan looked around and saw that it didn't seem like he had anything to do, so he said, " Let's go out and do the mission first, and notify us when it's done. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia responded and asked, " Do you need someone to help lead the way? "

" No need. " Ji Xuanyi said, and left with Qi Qin.

He will tell Xiaoxiao Yuxia what to do, which means they will stay and help in this battle.

With the strength of Tamajhu, they may not necessarily lose in the round-robin battle. If Ji Xuanyi didn't care who won or lost among the three parties before, after Tamajhu said that he would cooperate with the Wanzhi Gang, Ji Xuanyi could only help Mengtanggu and Chenshi to win.

Even if it was just mentioned as a negotiation condition, before the Wanzhi Gang was completely disbanded, Tamajhu would never be the boss.

Mi Yin also sent the news from Meng Tanggu to Ji Xuanyi at this time. Just as Xiao Xiaoyuxia thought, Meng Tanggu agreed earlier than Chenshi, not only because of the combined strength of Tamaju and Wanzhi, but also because Jianxi Xinjiu did not want to give the Wanzhi gang any chance to intervene.

For him, fighting for the first place is the expectation of all the gang members in Mengtanggu. He will try his best. After the end, whether he wins or loses, he can accept it together with the entire Mengtanggu, but wiping out the Wanzhi Gang is his bottom line, and the Wanzhi Gang must die.

Ji Xuanyi and Mi Yin exchanged some energy, and then continued to upgrade with Qi Qin. If he went fast, he should be able to reach level 41 today. There was still a lot of mission experience in Fanxing City.

The three major gangs discussed for a long time, until the evening, when Qi Qin could no longer hold on and was about to log off, Xiao Xiao Yuxia told him the agreed upon rules.

The time was set for the weekend afternoon, not only because everyone was free at that time, but also because Tamaju Jianghu was unwilling to give up any chance of winning and had to wait until the batch of supplies arrived from the auction house on Saturday.

The location is in an open space not far outside Star City . There are too many enemies and players in Star City, which will affect the battle.

However, the order of the battle was something Ji Xuanyi had not expected.

He thought that with Xiao Xiao Yuxia's mind, Meng Tanggu would fight with Tamajhu first, and Chensi would come out to take advantage later. However, he did not expect that the final result was that Chensi took the lead and Meng Tanggu followed behind. For a moment, Ji Xuanyi was a little confused about what Xiao Xiao Yuxia was thinking.

Chapter 64

Ji Xuan couldn't figure it out , so he asked directly why Xiaoxiao Yuxia agreed to put Chensi in the first position to fight against Tama Jianghu . Based on his understanding of both parties, if a stalemate came to a head, Jianxi Xinjiu would definitely be the first to compromise.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia also answered very readily.

It's not some sudden kindness, but because the world can only be the first to come on stage. While the three guilds were discussing the details of the battle, Xiao Xiao Yuxia received news that what Xu Chu had bought was not only the auction house supplies from the past three weeks , but also the trading house equipment from a long period of time in the early stages. It seemed that a batch of enchanted supplies had also appeared in the trading house recently , which meant that someone must have received a reward for a hidden mission.

The emergence of this reward now can be said to be an even greater boost to Tama Jianghu , and neither Chensi nor Mengtanggu have the financial resources to intercept these supplies , and can only watch Tama Jianghu take them into their pockets.

To put it in the words of Jian Xi Xin Jiu, " Fuck the RMB players! "

In addition , there are some equipment that Xu Chu received directly from the players.

According to the result calculated by Xiaoxiao Yuxiapa , Tamajianghu can at least arm 50 people , and then all of them will be enchanted and given small medicines. Almost everyone can get one or two pieces of purple equipment.

Not to mention the combat effectiveness, such benefits are already in front of us . The momentum and cohesion of Tamajianghu are unimaginable.

Even though it was raining heavily , he couldn't help but curse at the end: " Fuck the RMB players! "

It's not that he doesn't want to fight for the interests of the mortal world , but in this situation, in a round-robin battle , only Mengtanggu, which has stronger combat effectiveness , can have a chance to defeat Tamajhu. And the mortal world must be the vanguard and try its best to weaken Tamajhu's combat effectiveness.

This time he really is making things difficult for others. Although Xiaoxiao Yuxia is unhappy, there is nothing he can do. Tamajhu must not be the boss. He really wants to break up the Wanzhi Gang. If he backs down now and lets Tamajhu become the number one, then the subsequent plan to break up the Wanzhi Gang will most likely be obstructed.

It would be great if both the goal of being the number one in Fanxing City and breaking up the Wanzhi Gang could be achieved at the same time. If they cannot be achieved, we can only try our best to achieve one of them. Xiaoxiao Yuxia has no choice but the latter. That's all.

Qi Qin rested his head on Ji Xuanyi, listened to the general idea in a daze, yawned, and whispered: " I thought he had changed his personality, but it turns out he didn't? "

" Does he have to be selfless? " Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows: " I think he is doing well the way he is now. "

Qi Qin never contradicted Ji Xuanyi. He responded drowsily and muttered, " When are we going to log off? I'm so sleepy. "

Speaking of this, Ji Xuanyi immediately perked up and whispered, " Don't worry, just hold on for a while, it will definitely be before twelve o'clock ..."

Qi Qin: " Hmm? What? "

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " It's nothing, just bear with it. "

Qi Qin: " Hmm ..."

Of course, Ji Xuanyi did not forget the divination given by Pusi this morning. He did pick up money when he left the Mage Tower and walked towards the southeast area during the day. However, he was a little anxious at that time, so he put the purse away and left. Later, when he opened it, he found five gold coins in it. Although it was nothing to him, for an ordinary player, five gold coins would be considered a small fortune.

From this, it can be seen that Puxi's other divination should also come true. However, Qi Qin only tripped a few times along the way and did not really fall.

Ji Xuanyi guessed that Qi Qin's reaction was too fast, and the little obstacle set by the system failed to stump him. However, before today was over, in order to maintain the settings, the system would definitely make Puxi's divination come true.

QAQ after he fell .

So give it some strength, system!

Ji Xuanyi comforted him like he was coaxing a child: " Come on, let's do one more task, and then we'll log off. "

Qi Qin first responded in confusion, then reacted slowly , looked at Ji Xuanyi with resentment, and said: " You have said this before ..."

" Really? No? " Ji Xuan said calmly, " You must have remembered it wrongly because you were too sleepy. Let's go, let's finish this task and then leave. "

Qi Qin: "... You also said this. "

One of them insisted on leaving, while the other was whining and didn't want to leave. The two of them were pulling each other on the street, causing many players to cast strange looks at them.

Is homosexuality so blatant these days?

Ji Xuanyi was dragging Qi Qin to move forward when Mi Yin's voice suddenly came from behind him.

" Xuan Yi! The world! "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment and turned his head, wondering why Mi Yin came to the Southeast District at this time. At this moment, Qi Qin suddenly shouted and pressed down towards Ji Xuan.

Ji Xuanyi's strength was only 5, so there was no way he could hold him up. He was directly thrown to the ground. The two of them fell to each other, face to face.

Qi Qin felt that he might be sleepy or crazy. He looked at Ji Xuanyi who was so close to him, his mind went blank. He paused for a second, closed his eyes and kissed Ji Xuanyi on the mouth. Mm, fragrant and soft ... the back of my hand.

Qi Qin glanced at Ji Xuanyi's hand that had been covering his mouth at some point: " QAQ ! "

Ji Xuanyi looked back at him grimly.

The players around were stunned by this scene. They stopped and watched this bloody scene.

Qi Qin was totally unaware of the gazes of passers-by. He just felt that he was about to be frightened to death by Ji Xuanyi's eyes. He just wanted to evaporate in an instant. He had no idea how he had the guts to molest Ji Xuanyi.

" I ... I ..." Qi Qin stuttered for a long time, unable to think of any words to explain. He swallowed, rolled his eyes, and fell on Ji Xuanyi, pretending to fall asleep.

Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly for a while, and said, " If you lose consciousness in the game, you will be kicked off the line by the security system. "

Qi Qin's figure flashed and disappeared.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Damn retard!

The surrounding onlookers also booed in disappointment.

Ji Xuanyi sat up and glanced at the passers-by around him with an expressionless face.

Everyone lowered their heads and left in a hurry.

Ji Xuanyi got up and dusted off his body, then he saw Mi Yin squatting in a corner on the other side of the street, trembling with fear, afraid that she would be silenced because she had seen something she shouldn't have.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi walked over and asked, " Why are you here? Aren't you with Jian Xixinjiu? "

Mi Yin looked up at Ji Xuanyi tremblingly and found that his face looked normal, as if nothing had happened just now. Suddenly, she felt as if she was in a dream and was in a mess.

" Just now ..." Mi Yin started cautiously.

" What's wrong? " Ji Xuanyi asked indifferently.

" No, no, no, nothing, nothing, " Mi Yin said, and stood up with a dry laugh, saying, " I didn't see anything. "

Ji Xuanyi ignored him and asked directly: " Why are you here? "

Mi Yin then came back to the point, grabbed Ji Xuanyi, and said excitedly: " Jian Xi Xin Jiu is a gay, a gay! "

Ji Xuanyi: "... Oh. "

Mi Yin suddenly remembered something and said with a sad face: " No, you also ... "

Ji Xuanyi interrupted him and asked, " Did Jian Xi Xin Jiu do anything to you? "

It's no wonder that Ji Xuan asked such a question. Mi Yin was very thin and her face could only be considered decent. Jian Xi Xin Jiu wasn't as beastly as this, right?

And attacking Mi Yin ... this is not a matter of life or death in the game.

Mi Yin was stunned and said, " That's not the case ... but I saw him flirting with other men ..." "

Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " He didn't do anything to you, why are you afraid? "

Mi Yin collapsed and said, " He hasn't done anything to me yet, but I always feel like he has some opinion about my current relationship with Xue Piao Renjian, do you understand?! "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly, " I don't understand. "

 " I don't care, " Mi Yin cried, " Anyway, I'm not staying in Mengtanggu anymore! "

Ji Xuanyi said, " You came to this side of the mortal world. Aren't you going to be coaxed into joining a gang by Xiao Xiao Yu Xia? "

Mi Yin stretched his neck and said, " That's better than being in Mengtanggu! "

Ji Xuanyi said: " It's up to you. "

Mi Yin thought about what happened before and felt a little scared. She asked anxiously, " Then I won't go to the mortal world either ... Anyway, this will only take a few days. You guys are going to upgrade in the next few days, right? I will go with you and Tianxia? "

Ji Xuanyi looked at him with a smile.

Mi Yin patted his back pretentiously and said firmly: " I saw your actions. I believe you are innocent, Xuan Xiaoyi, I will protect you! "

Ji Xuanyi thought about it, but still didn't tell Mi Yin, the poor straight man, the truth. He said, " It's up to you, but Tianxia won't be online for long, so I'm going to log off now. Let's talk about the upgrade tomorrow. "

Mi Yin was stunned, and saw Ji Xuan flash and disappear completely, and the avatar in the friend list also turned gray.

But then again, there's something wrong with Ji Xuanyi's attitude. Is he too calm?

Mi Yin didn't dare to think too much, shuddered, and left in disappointment.

The next day, after Qi Qin came online, he kept his head down almost the entire time. He didn't even dare to look at Ji Xuanyi. He almost retracted his head into his collar.

He thought Ji Xuanyi would beat him up, but he didn't expect Ji Xuanyi to act like he had lost his memory and didn't even mention what happened yesterday.

This would be worse than getting a beating ... Qi Qin thought with a sense of loss. It can be said that he is very masochistic .

During this time, Qi Qin couldn't help but muster up the courage to ask Ji Xuanyi what he thought. Unfortunately, Mi Yin, the big light bulb, was always standing between the two of them, so Qi Qin couldn't ask any questions. He could only look at him and Ji Xuanyi with resentful eyes.

In his opinion, Mi Yin seemed to be a helper specially found by Ji Xuanyi to separate the two people.

Ji Xuanyi had no intention of explaining, so Mi Yin kept her promise and tried her best to shine like a light bulb to protect Ji Xuanyi's innocence.

Qi Qin: "..."

But no matter what, because of Mi Yin's joining, and the war that will come soon, the efficiency of these three people in completing tasks has become much higher, especially in terms of combat effectiveness. Coupled with the rich experience of the Star City mission, Ji Xuanyi's level has risen like a rocket.

By Saturday night, Ji Xuanyi was just one step away from reaching level 43.

Mi Yin had already reached level 43 and obtained the most important skill of an assassin, invisibility.

However, there are many restrictions on stealth in "Domain". In addition to revealing yourself when attacking and being attacked, players can also be touched by other players because they have physical bodies. Sometimes, if there is a lot of loose soil on the ground, it may even leave footprints.

But even so, stealth is a core skill of the assassin profession, and no one will underestimate it. Three people were carrying out a search mission in the southeast area. After completing this mission, Ji Xuanyi would be able to reach level 43. However, after finding the target and handing in the mission, Ji Xuanyi suddenly stopped and asked, " Is it almost seven o'clock now? "

Mi Yin was stunned and said, " Yeah, what's the matter? You have to get off so early today? "

Qi Qin also hurriedly said: " I'm not sleepy yet, Xuanyi. "

Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " What are you thinking about? There is an auction tonight. Have you forgotten? "

The two were stunned for a moment before they reacted.

Ji Xuan said, " Let's go to the auction house and take a look. If we go to the inner city now, we should be able to catch up before eight o'clock. "

Upon hearing this, Mi Yin and Qi Qin quickly put their tasks aside and went to the nearest transportation point with Ji Xuanyi.

It was almost eight o'clock when they arrived at the inner city. The three of them could be said to have pushed their speed to the limit. Mi Yin almost couldn't help but want to carry Ji Xuanyi on her back and run. Finally, they arrived at the auction house just before the auction started. The opening words were being spoken on a tall and magnificent stage. The auction seats were already densely packed with players from Star City, and many people had to stand in the corridor due to lack of space.

Not everyone intends to bid here, it's just that the entry requirements for the auction are very low. As long as all the money in your pocket can cover the cheapest reserve price of all the items, you can put your money in. Only a small number of players who enter early and sit in the front row are really here to buy things, and most of the rest are here to watch the fun and gain some experience. Some are also prepared to pick up a bargain or something.

After all, these are items given by the system, and they are almost all good things.

After Ji Xuanyi and the other two entered the room, a man dressed in very luxurious clothes came up to them, bowed to them, and said to Ji Xuanyi with a smile: " Dear adventurer, you seem to be a little late. There are special seats on the second floor. Do you want to go and take a look? "

Everyone around turned their eyes over, even Mi Yin looked at Ji Xuanyi in surprise. They had never heard that there were seats on the second floor!

Ji Xuanyi was used to this kind of situation, and said calmly: " Well, it's troublesome. "

He smiled and nodded, saying, " Please follow me. "

Ji Xuanyi led the other two and followed them into a small door. Whispers from other players could be heard around them, all discussing how Ji Xuanyi had obtained such great privileges in the auction house.

You know, although the guides for novices at the auction house are very friendly, in essence, money is everything here. Could this person be the number one on the rich list? But I heard that the number one on the rich list is in Day City, and the map hasn't been opened yet. How could he come all the way to Star City to participate in an ordinary auction?

Ji Xuanyi completely ignored the discussion and followed him into the small door. After the door was closed, the sounds from outside could no longer be heard, including the passionate speeches at the auction table, which were only faintly audible.

Mi Yin came back to her senses at this time, and quickly walked up to Ji Xuanyi, saying in surprise: " When I first brought you here, I felt that my attitude towards you was not right! It turns out that it was not an illusion! "

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows: " What else? "

Mi Yin said sadly, " I thought the game had been updated, and the officials finally realized that even in places like the auction house, they have to take into account the self-esteem of poor players. "

This is really overthinking. Whether it is from the perspective of making money from the game itself or from the game settings, this place is destined to only welcome wealthy players.

Of course, apart from Ji Xuanyi, although he is also considered one of the rich players, he was welcomed here not only because of his wealth.

Ji Xuanyi briefly explained to Mi Yin the current relationship between him and August, which made Mi Yin so amazed that she couldn't close her mouth.

The path was not very long. After all, the final destination was just a specially built guest room on the second floor, and they reached it by climbing two flights of stairs.

The voices outside gradually became clearer. Someone handed Ji Xuanyi a booklet, bowed again, and left.

The words downstairs were finally spoken, and the auction of the first item had begun. However, it was not something Ji Xuanyi was interested in, so he still had some time to look through what was written in the booklet.

The three of them sat around a square table. In front of Ji Xuanyi there were five buttons for raising the price and abandoning the bid, while in front of Mi Yin and Qi Qin there were only cakes and fruit baskets.

But this was exactly what they wanted. The two of them hadn't planned on buying anything and they were just happily eating with the fruit basket.

Ji Xuan took a look at the two silly guys, shook his head helplessly, and opened the booklet in his hand to start reading.

This booklet was the same as the one the auction house had sent him when he first came. It contained all the items that would be auctioned at this auction. The players on the first floor did not know all the items, so they could only wait for the item names to be announced one by one. Ji Xuanyi flipped through the booklet and felt something was wrong. He said, "There seem to be too many things on it. According to the speed of the auction below, it will take until tomorrow, right? "

Mi Yin held the fruit basket and moved to the window, looking out curiously. The window was one-way, so one could not see up from below, but one could see clearly what was happening below from above. This was also the benefit of the special room.

Hearing Ji Xuanyi's question, Mi Yin said, "Because some items are repeated, they will not be auctioned a second time. Some items are relatively cheap, such as enchantments and medicines, and they will not be auctioned. They will be left to be hung on the wall and sold casually, unless there are special effects, such as enchantments such as bloodsucking, the reserve price is a little higher, and they will be auctioned."

"But even so, there are too many things," Mi Yin said, "usually the shooting will last until late at night. I participated in one before, and someone raised the price. My god, the shooting lasted until after 1 a.m. and almost got into a fight."

When Qi Qin heard it was one o'clock in the middle of the night, he immediately widened his eyes and looked at Ji Xuanyi nervously.

Ji Xuanyi flipped through the booklet and said, "It's okay, just go to sleep. I'll call you to go back to bed when I'm offline."

Qi Qin felt a little relieved.

Mi Yin couldn't help but look at Ji Xuanyi again.

Ji Xuanyi looked back nonchalantly, with an expression that said, "I am innocent, but you are looking at me with your perverted eyes."

Miyin: "..."

Mi Yin had no choice but to look away and continue to look at the situation downstairs.

Ji Xuan continued to flip through the book with an expressionless face, while Qi Qin continued to eat fruits crazily while holding the fruit basket.

Ji Xuanyi actually only wanted to find one thing, and that was black steel. Qi Qin's current equipment was still missing two parts, a gauntlet and a helmet, which required a total of four pieces of black steel. However, since leaving Green Forest City, Ji Xuanyi had never received any black steel in the trading house.

After all, it is orange material. Maybe the Green Forest City will empty the players' stocks when it collects materials. Moreover, the levels and plots are advancing, and the system is updated very quickly. Maybe life skills will be released at any time. The enchanted items in the auction house give players hope, and some people have begun to try to hoard materials. Orange materials are not as easy to sell as before.

Moreover, because most players have settled in the main city, the rate of obtaining gold coins has increased and the price of gold has been falling. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin's current deposit amounts are no longer as confident as before.

Thinking of this, Ji Xuan hesitated at first whether to make a batch of enchantments to sell after dealing with Wanzhi. It seemed that it was time to stock up some gold coins.

Just when Ji Xuan was trying to do three things at once, thinking about making money, looking at the manual, and listening to the noise downstairs, Mi Yin suddenly called out.

Qi Qin was eating fruit and was almost choked by Mi Yin. He coughed for a long time. Ji Xuanyi patted his back, looked at Mi Yin, and asked, " What's wrong? Why are you making a fuss? "

Mi Yin looked back at him, holding the fruit basket in one hand and pointing out the window with the other, and said, " Xu Chu is also here to attend the auction! "

Chapter 65

Ji Xuan didn't even blink when he heard this.

It was normal for Xu Chu to come to the auction . After all, they had postponed the battle to Sunday , so the opportunity to get another batch of equipment on Saturday certainly could not be missed.

However, this " can't be missed " is for the entire Tamaju Jianghu guild, while for a deputy guild member of a RMB player guild , it is actually enough to buy some unsold equipment as a contribution to the guild after the auction. It is not cost-effective to buy things at the auction by yourself. Could it be that Tamaju Jianghu has no confidence in tomorrow's battle?

Shouldn't it?

Ji Xuanyi walked to Mi Yin with the booklet, and Mi Yin quickly gave up his seat.

" The one in the middle of the first row is Xu Chu, " Mi Yin pointed out, " The one to his right is Liu Tian, the leader of the Tama Jianghu gang. "

In fact, Ji Xuanyi had already seen it without Mi Yin saying anything.

The person sitting in the middle of the first row didn't show any impatience , but he was obviously absent-minded . It was obvious that he had no interest in the auction, but he still sat in the most important seat. On the contrary , the person next to him frowned and looked at the stage nervously.

It seems that it is just as he thought. As a deputy gang leader, Xu Chu is not very interested in this matter. He simply pays money to buy supplies. The leader of Tamaju Jianghu, Liu Tian , is the one who decided to come to the auction to buy the last batch of supplies.

I don't know how Dama Jianghu got Xuchu's support. Could it be that Xuchu owed Liutian a favor? Ji Xuan thought to himself.

After all, if Xu Chu was not the leader of the Tamaju Gang but just an independent player in a small gang , things would be much easier than they are now . In fact, most of the RMB players are independent players . Their attributes determine that they cannot interact with large numbers of people. One or two is fine, but if there are too many people, there will always be some strange people who want to get something from them.

For example, Xu Chu now, if he has no interest in these things, then Tamaju can be said to be treating him as a cash cow.

But it's hard to say, maybe he is just interested in competing for the first place.

Ji Xuanyi looked at them silently for a while and sat back.

" What a real rich man ..." Mi Yin sighed, wishing she could stick her eyes on Xu Chu. Ji Xuanyi didn't tell Mi Yin that there was actually a wealthy person in the room. He took a few grapes from Qi Qin's almost empty fruit basket and ate them while saying slowly, " It's a big loss to buy things directly at the auction. "

Mi Yin didn't understand, and turned around and said, " Ah? Why? I feel that buying things at the auction is more cost-effective. You see, when buying things at the auction, you only need to compete with the people present here, but if you buy after the auction is over, you will have to compete with the entire Star City! "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Too naive. "

Before Mi Yin showed an unconvinced expression, Ji Xuan said: " Didn't you mention the word raising the price before? "

Mi Yin was stunned.

" In addition to players who really need the auction, most people come here just to join in the fun. There are quite a few people who enjoy watching the fun, " Ji Xuan flipped through the booklet in his hand and said calmly, t want others to get'They don .Some people are like this " t'a rich man like Xu Chu won ,Anyway .t get'what they can OT no matter how much he raises the price . In this case, why not let Xu Chu pay more? Even if all the money ends up belonging to the system and he doesn't get a penny, that kind of person will happily repeat this action over and over again. "

Ji Xuanyi glanced at Mi Yin and said, " Compared to the auction, the bidding after the auction is much more friendly. First of all, the bidding for the items is open to the whole city, and no one knows when Xu Chu will bid. If someone waits for Xu Chu at the auction house for a week, it is not a good person, but a person with a deep hatred. Secondly, the bidding after the auction requires advance payment of gold coins. After the settlement, the part of the gold coins that failed to bid will be returned to the player. Even if there is a person with a deep hatred for Xu Chu, the money in his pocket can't raise the price much. "

" At an auction, where you can bid with just your mouth, the losses you incur won't be too great, " Ji Xuanyi concluded.

Mi Yin stared at Ji Xuanyi in amazement, and after a long while she said, " Is there such a thing?! Well, what if it goes OT ? "

If you " don't have enough money, just pay it back slowly, " Ji Xuan said. " It's easy for the system to ask you to pay it back. Just deduct the amount of gold coins you earn from your wallet until you pay it back. "

Mi Yin swallowed her saliva and said, " If you bid against the rich, the money you get should be quite a lot, right? "

Ji Xuanyi seemed to have thought of something, smiled, and said, " Well, maybe I won't be able to pay it off even if the server is shut down ... But speaking of it, the debt repayment setting of the game "Domain" may not be the same as other games. I don't know the specific situation. Maybe there are additional penalties, such as giving you a bad face or something. "

Mi Yin frowned and said, " No need to impose additional punishment. Just thinking about how much debt I have on my shoulders is enough to overwhelm me. "

" Well, " Ji Xuan said, " but have you ever seen someone who doesn't care how much debt he has on his shoulders? "

" Ah, that's true, " Mi Yin said, " There are quite a few people like this ..."

As the two were talking, the people downstairs actually raised the price.

However, the protagonist is not Xu Chu, but another person, also a player sitting in the first row, a girl. She wanted to bid for a piece of light armor with good attributes and a more feminine appearance. The starting price was only fifty gold, but it was raised to more than five hundred gold. In the end, she gritted her teeth and bought it. She was so angry that she rubbed her chest. Unfortunately, she was sitting in the first row, and when she looked back, she couldn't tell who was raising the price.

Ji Xuanyi and Mi Yin saw the man on the stage pack up his light armor and hand it to the girl.

After paying, the girl left angrily, and no one dared to sit in the empty seat she left.

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows, as if to say, look, what did I say?

Mi Yin also said: " Really ... Wow, if I was overpriced when buying something, I would probably be pissed to death! "

Ji Xuanyi was very calm. After all, apart from when he was facing Qi Qin, he was rarely angered to death. Usually, those who annoyed him would fly back to the resurrection point directly.

Mi Yin suddenly remembered something and said, " That's not right. If the auction is so shady, why did you come here? "

Ji Xuanyi said confidently: " I'm here to join in the fun. "

Miyin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi ignored him and continued watching the movement downstairs.

Ji Xuanyi certainly didn't come here to join in the fun. He wasn't that free. He came to the auction to look for black steel. He had just flipped through the item manual for this auction, and there were indeed two pieces of black steel on it. Considering the value of the orange material, one of them should appear at the auction.

The best case scenario is that the auction fails. After the auction, Ji Xuanyi can go to the auction house to bid, but if someone has made a bid in advance, Ji Xuanyi will have to make a bid now. But as far as the current situation is concerned, orange materials are just materials. No matter whether the price is raised or the bid is high, it will not be excessive because the value is there and it is easy to OT .

So Ji Xuanyi doesn't feel any pressure.

The auction of the next item started downstairs. It was a knight's lance with average attributes but a weak team bonus. To be honest, it was a bit useless. If it were for a single person, this lance could even be said to be scrap. However, it could be barely used in a group fight.

Ji Xuan glanced at Liu Tian, the leader of the Damai Jianghu Gang who was sitting next to Xu Chu. He indeed became a little excited, but he suppressed himself and said something to Xu Chu in a low voice.

Xu Chu half-opened his eyes and listened in a disjointed manner. Finally, he moved slightly and it looked like he nodded.

Liu Tian breathed a sigh of relief, sat up straight in his seat, and looked at the gun on the stage with determination.

Ji Xuan wiped the window with his hand expressionlessly and said softly, " With this expression, let alone those guys who have nothing to do, even I would like to raise the price of this guy. "

Mi Yin frowned and said, " Although we are now considered to be an enemy camp, I always feel that even if you raise the price of the gang leader, he will not feel bad at all. "

Of course I don't feel bad, because you can tell at a glance that no matter whether it's Liu Tian or Xu Chu who bids, in the end it's Xu Chu who pays.

The person on the stage finished introducing the background of the gun, but Ji Xuanyi didn't pay much attention. It seemed like a relic of some general, with blessings or something. Anyway, the starting price was thirty gold.

In Ji Xuanyi's opinion, this gun is actually not worth the price. After all, the base price of the entire set of light armor with good appearance and attributes is only fifty gold. In the final analysis, this gun is just because it comes with the same special effect.

Still a pretty mediocre special effect.

After the bidding was announced, no one was interested in the gun. Only Liu Tian, the leader of the Tamaju gang, could not help but look at Xu Chu with an urging look.

Looking at the silent auction hall, he showed a regretful expression in a very human way and began the countdown to the failure of the sale.

At the last second of the countdown, Xu Chu finally uttered two words slowly: " Thirty. "

He suddenly became excited and shouted: " Thirty gold! Someone has made an offer! Thirty gold! "

Although no one knew at this point that the person who made the bid was Xu Chu, everyone heard the voice coming from the front row, and someone immediately said, " Thirty-one! "

From Ji Xuanyi's angle, he could clearly see Xu Chu raised his eyebrows: " Fifty. "

" Fifty-one! " Someone at the back continued to make a fuss.

" one hundred. "

" One hundred and one! "

" Two hundred. "

" Two hundred and one! "

During the bidding process, Xu Chu's expression did not change at all, and Liu Tian beside him also looked indifferent.

Ji Xuanyi just watched Xu Chu bid up to five hundred. Someone at the back noticed that the person bidding was Xu Chu, who was sitting in the middle, and without even a second thought, he immediately bid up to five hundred and one.

Xu Chu opened his eyes, sat up a little straighter, and said, " One thousand. "

One thousand gold coins, converted into RMB, is already a considerable five-digit number. For this gun, it can be considered a sky-high price. The entire auction hall was silent for a moment, and then more than three different voices shouted out one thousand and one at the same time.

Ji Xuanyi laughed out loud .

Mi Yin looked at Ji Xuanyi as if he was a monster. Ji Xuanyi pretended not to notice and concealed the expression on his face.

Xuchu continued to raise the price: " One thousand five hundred. "

At this time, some people finally realized that the price was no longer at a level where they could risk raising it, and they all quieted down.

After a long time, when the countdown had already begun, someone in the back called out hesitantly, "One thousand five hundred and one."

Xu Chu didn't even look back to see who was bidding, and directly said, "Two thousand." He seemed really determined to get the gun. Even though he knew the price had been raised, he had no intention of giving up. It seemed as if he wanted to scare those people away with the terrifying price.

Ji Xuan showed a smug expression when he saw Liu Tian sitting next to Xu Chu.

However, Xu Chu's unhesitating bidding encouraged the malicious intent of those who secretly raised the price. Immediately, someone in the back shouted, "Two thousand and one!"

"Three thousand."

"Three thousand and one!"

"Four thousand."

"Four thousand and one!"

The atmosphere in the venue became very strange. This was no longer an auction, but rather it seemed as if someone was possessed by a demon. It was just unknown whether that person was Xu Chu or the one who raised the price.

Ji Xuan heard rapid breathing coming from the side, he turned his head and found Mi Yin holding a fruit basket, looking like she was about to faint.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Mi Yin covered her chest, looking like she was about to suffocate, and said, "Four, four thousand gold, how much is this?"

Ji Xuanyi calculated and said, "According to the current gold price, it should be more than 200,000."

"How much?!" Mi Yin's voice was about to break: "Over 200,000 RMB for one piece of equipment?!" RMB?!"

Ji Xuanyi rubbed his ears and said unhappily: "What are you doing?"

Mi Yin tried to help Ji Xuanyi up, but halfway through she felt something was wrong, so she leaned against the wall and said with her dying breath, "So much money, are these people crazy? When will they finish? I'm almost dying. I've never been so nervous even when facing someone with a gun..."

Ji Xuanyi was speechless and said, "What kind of mentality do you have? It's not you who's bidding, why are you so nervous?"

"I have a good mental state!" Mi Yin retorted firmly: "I have been an undercover agent before! But this is too much money for just one piece of equipment. It's too scary!"

After that, he added: "Can they finish it soon? I think I'm going to be kicked out of the game!"

Ji Xuanyi: "... You're overthinking. Your condition is stable ."

In fact, it is not Mi Yin's fault. Wherever Ji Xuanyi's eyes looked, most of the people whose faces he could see clearly had nervous expressions. This level of bidding can indeed easily make people mentally unstable .

" How long will this take to end? " Mi Yin asked again.

" Don't worry, it will be soon. " Ji Xuanyi said calmly.

The bidding showed no sign of stopping. Xu Chu had already called out five thousand, sounding very relaxed. The person who had raised the price immediately followed suit and shouted, " Five thousand and one! "

At this moment, Xu Chu suddenly stopped without warning, and the entire auction hall fell silent. After about seven or eight seconds, someone seemed to finally realize something. There was a small commotion in the auction hall, but it soon quieted down. The person in the back row who was bidding finally realized what was going on and shouted in panic, " No! I called the wrong number, p ! I want p ! p ! "

There are actually auctions among players. When forming a multiplayer dungeon, equipment is usually auctioned within the group using gold coins. This way, after the equipment comes out, players with conflicting needs have a way to compare the winners. Players who are unlucky and don't get their own professional equipment can also use gold coins as rewards, so that they don't work in vain.

However, even if there is someone in charge, the spontaneous auctions by players are too chaotic, and the countdown really wastes time, so everyone bids on their own. Those who are distracted and don't hear will be blamed. When everyone except the highest bidder types the letter p, which means giving up bidding, the item will belong to the person with the highest bid. Unfortunately, in the hosted auction, there is no command similar to " p" after the auction starts . They only have an unchanging countdown. The abandon bid button is used before the auction of the item, with the purpose of helping players save unnecessary time.

Moreover, the most important point is that, whether in a spontaneous auction by players or in an auction organized by the system, giving up the bid is never the right of the person with the highest bid.

The player at the back who had raised the price had already stood up in panic, shouting that he had made a mistake, but no one paid any attention to him. Ji Xuanyi lowered his head and saw Xu Chu, who was sitting in the first row, was laughing so happily that his whole body was shaking in his seat.

However, Liu Tian, who was sitting next to him, did not look very happy. It seemed that in his opinion, Xu Chu should have taken a picture of the gun.

The relationship between the gang leader and the deputy gang leader doesn't seem to be very good.

Ji Xuanyi looked at them quietly.

Mi Yin stood aside, not daring to utter a single word, until she saw Xu Chu's reaction, she trembled and said, " No, we won't shoot anymore? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Does he look like he's going to continue filming? "

Mi Yin swallowed her saliva, looked at the player behind her who accidentally raised the price and got OT , and said, " What should I do? "

" He just had an accident, " Ji Xuan glanced at the man and then lost interest in looking at him. He said, " He's lucky. He was accidentally hit by the system. It's a way to recycle virtual currency. If he quits the game directly, the system won't pursue it in real life. If it's an auction between players ... haha. "

Mi Yin couldn't help but shiver.

Ji Xuanyi looked at him in confusion and said, " Can you please stop? It has nothing to do with you. Why are you so scared? "

Mi Yin reacted and threw the blame back, " It's all your fault for saying such terrible things! "

Ji Xuanyi: "... It's none of my business! "

Xu Chu stopped bidding, and the people below began the final countdown. Unfortunately, the window on the second floor was too far from the back row , so it was not very clear. However, the person who raised the price probably didn't look very happy.

In fact, this was indeed the case. After realizing that no one paid attention to him, the player stopped shouting in vain. Rather than continue to embarrass himself, it was better to be calm in the end. The man sat in his seat with a pale face and became quiet.

Just like that, in an eerie silence, the countdown ended. Not understanding what was happening below, everyone smiled and congratulated the player who had obtained the gun that came with a blessing. Ji Xuanyi smiled even more happily when he saw Xu Chu sitting in the first row, and ignored the gang leader Liu Tian who was sitting next to him with a sour face.

However, Liu Tian did not have the courage to question Xu Chu why he did not take a picture of the gun. Ji Xuanyi could see that Xu Chu was almost the core of the Tamajwag gang. If Xu Chu turned against Liu Tian, Tamajwag would not only disband immediately, but most of its members would have left. By then, let alone being the leader of the three major gangs, it would just be a third-rate gang, no different from the Sanren Gang.

The power of RMB players.

Speaking of this, Qi Qin seems to have a rich second-generation personality?

Ji Xuan turned around and glanced at Qi Qin, and found that the latter was staring at the empty fruit basket on the table with a well-behaved look on his face, waiting for it to refresh.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

It's so stupid that it's bubbling!

They are all rich people and can all be RMB players, so why is the one upstairs so different from the one downstairs!

After the countdown ended, the two men walked down holding the spear. After receiving the player's payment, they would hand over the equipment to him.

The man looked at the approaching enemies with a pale face and could not help but stand up. However, after looking around, he could not see any place for him to escape. The two finally arrived in front of him, but before he could open his mouth, the player could no longer bear the psychological pressure. He closed his eyes and disappeared in an instant.

He is offline.

With this kind of psychological endurance, he probably wouldn't have the ability to continue playing the game while facing the system's debt collection. Ji Xuanyi guessed that this person would probably never come online again.

The two of them froze for a moment, probably because they didn't realize how the player suddenly went offline after buying something. After a long while, one of them finally reacted and shouted angrily, " Player Jiu Jing has been blacklisted by the Star City Auction House. This is announced to the entire territory. From now on, you are not allowed to receive any services! I hope all adventurers will take this as a warning and don't make the same mistake again! "

Ji Xuanyi noticed that what he said turned into a system announcement, which was repeated several times in everyone's world channel. It seemed that this was the additional punishment for owing money to the system.

Chapter 66

Thanks to Xu Chu's move , no one dared to raise the price anymore , and the equipment and items were sold out at a very fast speed.

Ji Xuanyi noticed that Xu Chu always waited until an item was about to be sold out before bidding. He didn't know whether it was because he simply didn't want to bid for equipment that was to be given to others, or if he took the needs of other players into consideration.

However, thinking about this person's previous performance, Ji Xuanyi felt that the former was more likely.

He doesn't look like the kind of guy who would consider others.

But thanks to him, the black steel that Ji Xuanyi had his eyes on was bought at the reserve price. He had originally planned to let it go unsold to prevent a price hike , but later he made a bid based on the situation. Sure enough , even though people knew it was someone on the second floor who made the offer , no one dared to raise the price.

I guess the auction in Star City will be quiet for a while.

The auction went on in an orderly manner because no one disrupted the bidding . Except for one weapon that took a little longer because there were two people bidding on it, the rest of the items were sold very quickly. An auction that was supposed to last until one or two in the middle of the night ended before twelve o'clock.

Mi Yin had already eaten all the fruit basket in her hand twice. She felt a little uncomfortable and leaned against the wall whining , which annoyed Ji Xuanyi a lot.

The ending words had already been spoken downstairs , and the players began to leave one after another . Ji Xuanyi saw Xu Chu and Liu Tian both stood up from their seats . Liu Tian seemed to want to leave , but Xu Chu did not move.

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows , and as expected, Xu Chu raised his head and looked towards the upstairs.

" Hey, how did he know the room was here? " Mi Yin said vaguely while stuffing fruit into her mouth.

Ji Xuanyi: "... If you're almost full, stop eating, okay? "

Mi Yin said nonchalantly: " What's the point of being full in the game? It's really unreasonable to dictate the amount of food you can eat based on your body size, okay? Are we going to leave? "

Ji Xuan glanced at the two people still standing downstairs and said, " Everyone is waiting for us. It would be rude not to go down. "

Ji Xuan turned around and was about to call Qi Qin to leave together, but found that the seat behind the table was empty.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Mi Yin also turned around and asked in surprise: " Eh?! When did Tianxia leave? "

Ji Xuanyi: " He didn't leave, he just ... Never mind, it's nothing, let's go down first. "

Mi Yin seemed to have realized what was happening, and said speechlessly: " It's not even twelve o'clock yet ..."

 " Okay, let's go. "

When Ji Xuan opened the door, someone was already waiting outside. After seeing the two of them, he smiled and bowed, saying, " Please come this way. "

Although the distance is short, there is more than one room on the second floor, and the arrangement is also very strange. In addition, there seems to be more floors above, which are probably available to players after the auction house reputation is opened in the future, so it would be more convenient to have a guide.

Ji Xuanyi and Mi Yin reached the first floor, and Xu Chu and the other person were indeed waiting at the corridor. They walked past them nonchalantly, but Ji Xuanyi and Mi Yin were stopped.

After walking a short distance , he looked back and found that Ji Xuanyi and the other two had not caught up with him, so he stopped quietly.

Xu Chu stroked his chin and looked at Ji Xuanyi thoughtfully. Ji Xuanyi looked at him calmly, as if he had not come down on purpose, and asked: " What's the matter? "

Before Xuchu could speak, Liutian, who was standing beside him , looked at Miyin hesitantly for a while, then suddenly realized, " Ah, we've met before. You're that ... Miyin! "

Ji Xuan turned his head and glanced at Mi Yin.

Mi Yin took a step forward and said, " It's me. "

After confirming his memory, Liu Tian took a deep breath and pointed his finger at Ji Xuanyi with trembling hands.

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows. Was he recognized so quickly this time?

However, even if the people in the martial arts world knew that he was Mu Xuanyi, they probably wouldn't react much. This Xu Chu didn't look like someone who would give in for a title.

Ji Xuanyi was just thinking about it when Liu Tian said in a trembling voice: " Snow is falling on earth?! "

Miyin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi said with a frown: " I am not! "

Mi Yin couldn't help but hold his forehead.

Hearing this answer, Liu Tian showed a disappointed expression and whispered something to Xu Chu. Ji Xuan only heard a few words, which seemed to mean that if it was Xue Piao Renjian, there was no need to win him over and they could withdraw.

The leader of the Liutian Gang has a rather high vision. Mi Yin is a top-notch master after all, but hearing what he said, it seems as if no one except Xue Piao Renjian is worth his time and effort to make friends with.

Ji Xuanyi looked at Xu Chu with a smile, but the latter ignored Liu Tian's words and continued to stand there. Liu Tian's face showed a trace of unhappiness, but he didn't say anything. Instead, he continued to stand next to Xu Chu, but he was obviously absent-minded and it seemed that he didn't want to waste his energy to deal with Ji Xuanyi and the others anymore.

Xu Chu smiled and said, "How's the view from the second floor?"

Ji Xuanyi said: "It's OK."

Xu Chu glanced at him and said, "I remember you also bid for something and the price didn't go up. Shouldn't you thank me?"

Ji Xuanyi said: "Oh, thank you."

Xu Chu:..."

Xu Chu looked at Ji Xuanyi in silence. With Mi Yin around, he didn't believe that Ji Xuanyi didn't know him. Wouldn't a normal person take advantage of the situation and try to get close to him? What kind of trick was it to kill Tian Chat?

Ji Xuan glanced at him and stopped pretending. He said directly: "Why do you stay in the damn world? Don't you feel bored?"

Xu Chu probably didn't expect Ji Xuanyi to be so abrupt in his conversation, and was stunned for a moment. Liu Tian immediately showed hostility after hearing Ji Xuanyi's question, and said vigilantly: "What do you mean? It's none of your business what Xu Chu is willing to do!"

This reaction is very interesting.

Ji Xuanyi's question was indeed very rude, but as a gang leader, the normal reaction when someone poached him in front of him should be to be furious, "I'm not dead yet! What do you mean, don't you take me seriously?!" Liu Tian didn't have that intention at all. Compared with his own face problem, he was obviously more worried that Xu Chu would really feel bored and choose to leave. It can be said that he completely treated Xu Chu as a thigh, and didn't act like a gang leader at all.

It seems that although Xu Chu is a great help to Tamajualu, he also brings about considerable internal problems.

Xuchu ignored Liutian and said, "Thanks for your concern, but I don't feel bored yet. Compared to this, I think you should pay more attention to the guild battle tomorrow – I thought you came to the trading house to steal my equipment, but it seems that you only took an orange material?"

Liu Tian was stunned for a moment before he realized what Xu Chu meant and asked defensively, "Are you from Chenshi and Mengtanggu?"

"We are just here to take pictures," Mi Yin replied when she saw Ji Xuanyi remained silent. She could not help but ask Xu Chu curiously, "Why do you say we are from Chenshi and Mengtanggu?"

Perhaps not expecting that their meeting was just a coincidence, Xu Chu raised his eyebrows, but in response to Mi Yin's question, he still explained patiently: "Because you came to Liu Tian for Wan Zhi's matter, but was rejected. Next, you will definitely go to the other two gangs. Even if the people in Mengtanggu don't say anything, Chenshi will definitely find a way to keep you. What's more, you appeared at the auction. It was probably you who leaked the news that I bought the equipment, right? In order to speed up the fight between the three gangs, let us free up our hands to deal with Wan Zhi, right? "

" Since you didn't come to us after the three major gangs declared war, you must have joined the other two gangs, " Xu Chu shook his head and said with some regret, " You seem to think that the two gangs will be stronger if they join forces? You are wrong. Although the two gangs are good, their organizational ability is not very good. If you choose to join the Tama Jianghu, you may be able to solve this matter more quickly. "

Mi Yin felt that Xu Chu might be a leader in real life. He had an inexplicable persuasiveness when speaking. If Ji Xuanyi hadn't been standing here, he would probably have been persuaded to surrender ...

Fortunately, Ji Xuanyi was here, and Mi Yin could still be considered calm, but she couldn't help but shrink behind Ji Xuanyi.

Xu Chu smiled and looked at Ji Xuanyi, saying, " To have an assassin of Mi Yin's caliber standing behind you, you two must have a very good relationship. "

This sentence is no different from " Let Mi Yin walk behind you. Who are you? Tell me your name . "

However, Ji Xuanyi ignored him and lied with his eyes open: " Nothing special, I just met you today. "

After these words were spoken, even Liu Tian showed an expression of disbelief on his face. Xu Chu certainly didn't believe it, and said, " A player of Mi Yin's level, is this his attitude the first day you met him? "

Ji Xuan glanced at Xu Chu and said with a smile: " Why, this is only the second time you've met him, do you want to show some respect? "

Mi Yin, who was shot for no reason, said quickly: " No, no, I am just an ordinary person, an ordinary person ..."

You two are both big guys, I can't accept your respect, please let me go!

Xu Chu raised an eyebrow.

Just because Liu Tian couldn't see anything doesn't mean he couldn't see it either. It was obvious that between Mi Yin and Ji Xuanyi, the latter was in a dominant position. Even if they cooperated with the other two gangs, it must have been decided by Ji Xuanyi's will. If one wanted to know something, it would be best to start with Ji Xuanyi, but this guy was obviously more difficult to deal with. After talking on the phone for a long time, he didn't reveal anything, and it seemed there was no point in continuing the awkward conversation.

Xu Chu thought for a moment, then said to Ji Xuanyi: " I am Xu Chu, you should know me. This is Liu Tian, the leader of the Tama Jianghu gang. Would you like to add me as your friend? "

Ji Xuanyi knew what the other party meant. If his ID was exposed, it would only take a few minutes for his identity to be known. So he smiled and said directly: " Sorry, I don't add friends casually. "

Xu Chu: "..."

Ji Xuanyi seemed not to notice the other person's expression, and said to himself: " It's almost twelve o'clock, I have to get off. Goodbye. "

After saying that, his figure flashed and he actually went offline.

Xu Chu and Liu Tian looked at Mi Yin who was alone.

Mi Yin didn't stay up too late. Twelve o'clock was nothing to him. But when facing Xu Chu alone, he was really afraid that he would lose control and be persuaded to surrender to the enemy . He said quickly, " Ah, it's getting late. I'm going to leave too. You two should go to bed early and we'll talk tomorrow! "

After saying that, he followed Ji Xuan and logged off, leaving only Xu Chu and Liu Tian standing there.

The auction venue was empty, and even the person who had led Ji Xuanyi and the others had left at some point.

After a moment of silence, Liu Tian glanced at Xu Chu and said, " What should we do now? "

There was no expression on Xu Chu's face. He looked the same as when Ji Xuanyi and the others first met him, with no interest in anything and absent-minded.

He said: " You are the gang leader, why are you asking me? "

Liu Tian was stunned for a moment, and seeing that Xu Chu seemed to be in a bad mood, he had no choice but to say: " Then let's go too. We will have a gang battle tomorrow afternoon, and get up early in the morning to practice the formation. "

Xu Chu hummed and said, "I'll be up!" at noon, no need to wait for me. "

The two of them did not log off at the auction venue, but left the auction house.

After Ji Xuan logged off, he took a shower and went to bed. When he logged on the next day, he realized that he seemed to have forgotten something the night before.

Qi Qin rubbed his neck and stood with Mi Yin waiting for him. When he saw him come online, he immediately cast a resentful look at him.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

He said yesterday that he would ask Qi Qin to sleep on the bed after he went offline, but because of Xu Chu's matter, he suddenly forgot about it. Qi Qin probably slept in the game cabin all night yesterday and had a stiff neck.

Ji Xuanyi was a little embarrassed. He coughed dryly, went up to help Qi Qin rub his neck, and said, " Sorry, I was a little busy yesterday and forgot. "

Although Qi Qin's neck hurt, he felt a little better after being touched by Ji Xuanyi's hand. He shook his head and said with concern: " It's okay. I heard from Mi Yin that those two people didn't embarrass you yesterday, right? "

Mi Yin said sourly, " Please, even if you're not here, I'm still here, okay? Do I look like a loser? Can anyone make things difficult for him? "

That's true. Although he is not as powerful as Qi Qin, there are not many people who can beat Mi Yin, so there is no such thing as a dilemma.

Qi Qin also realized that he was too concerned and smiled embarrassedly.

It's only morning now, and they still have time to hand in yesterday's tasks. Ji Xuanyi will soon be level 43 and will be able to obtain new skills, but Qi Qin is still some distance away from level 43, so he probably won't have a chance today.

The door of the auction venue was closed. The person who led Ji Xuanyi and the other two yesterday appeared again and led them out of the venue through another small door with a smile. The main entrance of the auction venue was not open to players except on Saturdays.

It took some time to hire a carriage from the transportation point to the southeast area. Fortunately, after completing the task, Ji Xuanyi reached level 43, and the other two were very happy.

Mi Yin said excitedly: " You are probably the first level 43 warlock in the entire region and server. How is it? What is the effect of the new skill? Is it amazing? "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Great. "

It's not that Ji Xuanyi is not humble, but his skills are indeed very powerful. It can be said that they are aimed at all players indiscriminately. The warlock's new level 43 skill is still unrelated to healing damage, but jumps to another level and directly affects the player's skill CD .

Warlock's third skill, [Disappearing Time] : Reverses the skill CD of the enemy target , or advances the skill CD of the friendly target .

the CD time of each skill is very precious to them. Once the cycle is broken, it can be said to be very uncomfortable. What's more, this skill of Ji Xuanyi does not have a trigger limit like the previous healing reduction. Instead, you can use it whenever you want. When the fight is intense, he will just hit you with it and the rhythm will be disrupted immediately.

Qi Qin, who didn't rely much on skills, didn't react. Mi Yin's eyes lit up immediately after hearing this and said, " The position of the warlock is PVP support? This skill is awesome! Xuanyi, when the arena opens in the future, do you want to ..."

Ji Xuanyi: " No. "

Miyin: "... Can't you show a little hesitation?! "

Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to pay attention to him.

Even though they know that warlocks are pvp auxiliary and no matter how powerful their skills are, most ordinary players will not choose warlocks when choosing teammates. After all, healing is a hard flaw, and there is also the difficulty barrier. Warlocks are destined to be a profession that only experts can play.

Mi Yin rubbed his hands and said excitedly: " Let me try it, let me try it? Let me see the effect of this skill! "

Ji Xuan kicked Mi Yin out of the team without saying anything, raised his hand and released a new skill on him. A hazy mist swept over Mi Yin's body and then disappeared immediately.

Before Mi Yin had time to react to being kicked out of the team, he shouted: " Fuck, awesome! All my skills are on cooldown ! "

Ji Xuanyi added him back and asked, " How is it? "

Mi Yin said excitedly: " What a great skill! My skill was blacked out for one second before it regressed. It should be the common CD ? I don't know how it was calculated, but after that, all the CDs were three seconds! "

If you add up the time, it is four seconds, which is enough for an expert to do a lot of things. Besides, Ji Xuanyi is not at the maximum level yet and his equipment is average, so this time should be able to be extended.

Mi Yin said happily: " Your new skill may come in handy this afternoon. I guess the opponent with the best equipment must be Xu Chu. When the time comes, you can hide in the crowd and use your skills on him quietly! "

Ji Xuanyi thought Xu Chu probably wouldn't fight in person, so he just raised his eyebrows noncommittally and said to Qi Qin, " Let's try this skill together, otherwise it will be wasted if you can't react in time when I give you the bonus. "

Before Qi Qin could say anything, Mi Yin had already shamelessly come up to him and said, " Come and try it with me, come and try it ..."

Qi Qin pulled Mi Yin aside with a stern face and said mercilessly: " Go and try it with Xue Piao Renjian. "

Mi Yin: "... Tian Xia, you have become a bad person. "

Qi Qin said, "You've already snatched Xuan Yi from me, and you're still saying this?"

Ji Xuanyi casually tried it with Qi Qin and found that the other party seemed to adapt well, so he took the other two people and got on the carriage to the inner city. Mi Yin didn't know where he was going, but he didn't care about it. Anyway, they just had to participate in the gang battle in the afternoon.

But when it comes to guild battles, Mi Yin has another question: " Should the three of us fight together with Chenshi or Mengtanggu? I feel a little uneasy about Mengtanggu finishing the fight if we fight together with Chenshi, but if we fight together with Mengtanggu, I feel that Chenshi can't take away much of Damingjianghu's strength ... How about we split up? I'll go to Chenshi for the first round, and you two will go to Mengtanggu for the second round? Tianxia is stronger than me, so it feels more stable . "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything, Qi Qin said: " Can't we play both games? First help Chenshi to play one round, and then help Mengtanggu to play one round. "

Mi Yin was stunned for a moment and said, " No way? I remember there is a CD for joining a gang. If you join the mortal world first, you have to wait 24 hours after you quit before you can join Mengtanggu again. "

Qi Qin was also stunned for a moment. He glanced at Ji Xuanyi and said hesitantly : " Do you still want to join the gang? Is it okay not to join? "

He remembered that Ji Xuanyi was very resistant to joining a gang. If one had to join the gang to help, Ji Xuanyi would probably just give up.

Mi Yin didn't know why he was looking at Ji Xuanyi, and said, " It's not good to help without joining the gang, right? Besides, the damn Jianghu is not stupid. Although the three of us can't be said to be the main force in killing the enemy , we are definitely more prominent characters. If we fight twice in a row, they will definitely not do it. "

Qi Qin actually asked: " Didn't they say in advance that we can't ask for outside help? "

After saying this, even Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but look at Qi Qin.

After all, it was a bit shameless to say this. Qi Qin seemed to be quite shameless except when facing Ji Xuanyi. This time he said it so frankly, which sounded a bit strange.

Mi Yin choked for a moment before mumbling, " I said I didn't say that ... No, do I need to say this in advance? "

Qi Qin looked at him with a righteous face, saying that such words should be said in advance, otherwise it would not count!

Mi Yin was a little overwhelmed, so she had to look to Ji Xuanyi for help, hoping that he could explain things to Qi Qin.

However, Ji Xuanyi himself was not a reasonable person. After receiving Mi Yin's gaze, he said calmly: " Well, the last two times should be no problem. "

Mi Yin: "..."

He then realized belatedly that they were a gay couple. How could anyone speak up for him? Just as Mi Yin was considering whether to jump out of the carriage and escape from this place full of gays, Ji Xuanyi said slowly, " It doesn't matter even if they see that we had sex twice. The leader of the Tama Jianghu may protest, but Xu Chu is probably just there to watch the show. As long as he doesn't say anything, there will be no problem. "

Mi Yin couldn't help but ask, " How do you know he can't speak? Xu Chu is a deputy gang leader after all, so he must consider the interests of the gang! "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said slowly, " If Xu Chu really wanted to consider the interests of the gang, this fight would not have happened and it would have ended long ago. The Daming Jianghu has probably been stationed in the inner city for more than half a month. This farce is probably carried out according to the will of the gang leader Liu Tian. Xu Chu is just paying to watch the fun. "

Mi Yin was stunned.

Ji Xuan said, " The idea of arming the entire gang was definitely not proposed by Xu Chu. If he wants to be first, he can just go and unite with Jian Xi Xin Jiu. That person is as ruthless as you are, and you can win him over with just a few words. First squeeze out the weakest and most cunning Xiao Xiao Yu Xia and his men, and then deal with Meng Tang Gu. Don't take it too easy. There's no need to go through the trouble of fighting two people alone. What's more, he didn't even change his name when he bought the equipment. If he asked an unknown person in the gang to buy equipment at the auction house, even if we saw the abnormal situation of the auction house at that time, we would never associate it with Tama Jiang Hu. "

" I guess he was just waiting for someone to discover Tama Jianghu's actions, " Ji Xuan smiled and said, " He stopped us last night. I think it had nothing to do with the gang war, but he was more interested in me, the one who went up to the second floor. He didn't stop us when we were in the limelight today. "

Mi Yin opened her mouth, but before she could react, Qi Qin had already heard something very alertly and asked nervously, " What?! Who is interested? Who? "

Mi Yin reacted, looked at him speechlessly, and said: " Can you grasp the key point? "

Qi Qin said calmly, " I think I have grasped the key point. "

That's right. He doesn't need to consider other things . For him, the key point is that someone is interested in Ji Xuanyi.

Mi Yin looked at Ji Xuanyi and found that he had changed his posture. He leaned against the wall of the carriage leisurely, crossed his arms and looked at Qi Qin with a half-smile, and said: " This point is very unique. Do you have anything to say? "

When Ji Xuan looked at him like this, Qi Qin's face flushed instantly. He opened and closed his mouth like a thirsty fish, as if he wanted to say something. He stared at Ji Xuan for a long time, and finally asked cautiously: " Are you interested in him? "

Ji Xuanyi was so angry that he almost laughed. How could someone in the world be so cowardly? He kicked Qi Qin and opened his mouth to curse, but when he looked at that face, he couldn't curse at all. After holding it in for a long time, he rolled his eyes and said, " No, I have no interest in him at all. "

Qi Qin was kicked for no reason, but he was quite happy. Looking at Ji Xuanyi, he looked so beautiful that he seemed to be bubbling. Ji Xuanyi showed a helpless expression opposite him. Miyin: "..."

Mi Yin felt restless and really wanted to open the car door and jump out immediately. Even if she had to run to the inner city on her own two legs, it would be better than sitting here and being a light bulb!

However, the car door was on Ji Xuanyi's side. If he wanted to go out, he would have to pass between Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin. Mi Yin felt that he might be burned to death by Qi Qin's gaze. Forget it, just look at your nose with your eyes and your heart with your nose, treat yourself like a piece of wood and pretend that you don't exist ...

The carriage went all the way to the inner city, and three people got off. Mi Yin followed Ji Xuanyi for a while before realizing that he seemed to be preparing to go to the Mage Tower.

" Are you going to the Mage Tower for divination? " Mi Yin asked.

Ji Xuanyi had taken him to try Puxi's divination before, and he thought Ji Xuanyi went there to pray for good luck.

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " No, the divination might go wrong. If it is a negative prophecy, it will be too troublesome if it comes true during the fight in the afternoon. "

Qi Qin knew what Ji Xuanyi was thinking, and said to Mi Yin: " Xuanyi comes here to greet Augustus on a daily basis. If it takes too long, he probably won't be able to come. "

Ji Xuanyi indeed had this idea. Since coming to Fanxing City, he seemed to have never stopped signing in at the Mage Tower.

Mi Yin hadn't done the daily favorability check for the Mage Tower today, so she could just give it a try. Maybe for Ji Xuanyi's sake, she'd let him pass if she was in a good mood!

It was almost noon when the three people finally entered the Mage Tower. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin went upstairs to greet August, while Mi Yin answered questions downstairs.

Unfortunately, it seemed that he didn't think that Ji Xuanyi should be given some leniency just because he had a good relationship with Mi Yin. The questions he read were very long and Mi Yin didn't understand them. He could only face the four unfamiliar options that appeared on the parchment.

Mi Yin stared at the parchment for a long time, picked one at random, smiled, and said, " Congratulations. "

Mi Yin's eyes lit up.

: " Wrong answer, please go back. "

Miyin: "..."

Do you think you are the host of some weird quiz show? You're panting for a turn! Pah!

Mi Yin sat down angrily opposite and waited for Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin to come downstairs.

It didn't take much time to say hello. Not long after, the two of them came out of the elevator. Qi Qinzhao said to Mi Yin, " You can go now! "

Mi Yin just stood up, but saw Ji Xuanyi suddenly walking towards her. She was flattered and said, " I'm coming, I'm coming, no need to come pick me up. "

Ji Xuanyi looked at Mi Yin as if he was an idiot, brushed past him, and walked towards the wall behind him.

That wall should belong to the fortune teller Puxi. There were a lot of random things hanging on it . Among them was a black cloak with faint dark star patterns on it. Ji Xuanyi walked over and touched the cloak, lowered his head and asked: " Can you lend it to me? "

Puxi, who was squatting in the corner, didn't say anything. After all, he was just a human and couldn't answer questions that were beyond his procedure.

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows, took off the cloak and put it on.

The brim of the cloak was very low, but the collar was very high, almost covering Ji Xuanyi's entire face. Ji Xuanyi turned around and showed it to Mi Yin and Qi Qin.

Mi Yin was startled, and immediately realized what Ji Xuanyi was going to do. Before she could say anything, she heard Qi Qin beside her clapping and saying sincerely: " Xuanyi looks really good in this outfit! "

Miyin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Mi Yin discovered in despair that Qi Qin was not praising Ji Xuanyi, but he really thought Ji Xuanyi looked good in the clothes, even though he couldn't see Ji Xuanyi's face clearly ...

Ji Xuanyi gave up on Qi Qin speechlessly and said to Mi Yin: " What do you think? "

Mi Yin nodded, and then asked in confusion: " Didn't you say it's okay to be recognized? Why are you wearing this? "

Ji Xuan said, " It's okay to recognize him, but we have to cover it up. There's a saying that if you're too blatant, it'll be hard for Mengtanggu and Chenshi to talk about it in the future. "

Mi Yin actually thought that Ji Xuanyi just wanted to wear this cloak, but his reasons were very sufficient, and he himself actually wanted to try this cloak that looked a bit childish, so he nodded and said, " Okay. "

The three of them waited for a while, and another cloak appeared on the wall. Ji Xuanyi took it down and handed it to Mi Yin.

Puxi had been squatting on the ground, looking like a small ball. However, as a Westerner, he was not small in stature. Ji Xuanyi's cloak even dragged on the ground a little, while Mi Yin's was just right. Qi Qin ...

Qi Qin's height problem is not particularly serious, he just shows his ankles. The more troublesome thing is the width. Although his recent weight loss plan has achieved some results, his shoulders are broad, so it is very difficult for him to wear the cloak.

Ji Xuan had no choice but to pull up the cloth on his shoulder to prevent the cloak from bursting when Qi Qin moved, but the price was that half of Qi Qin's calf was exposed.

It would be too stupid to just walk out like that, as they would probably be stared at by passers-by, so the three of them put away their cloaks and planned to put them on again when they got to the agreed venue.

In order not to alert other players in the city, the three guilds did not act collectively, but the guild members went to the agreed battle location on their own – this also shows the strength of each of the three guilds.

Because it's not over after this battle, they still have to save their strength to deal with the Wanzhi Gang. Also, in this kind of game with penalties for demotion, you really can't get too excited about fighting, so the three gangs have a rule that gang members who die and return to the resurrection point in this battle cannot join the battle again, but can only watch from the sidelines. Whoever's people die first will be the loser. However, if you feel that the losses are too heavy and don't want to fight anymore, you can just admit defeat.

When Ji Xuanyi and his companions arrived at the open space outside Fanxing City, there were already quite a few people standing there. Three of them squatted in the dark and put on the black cloaks they had taken from Pusi.

Mi Yin said excitedly: " I feel like this piece of clothing has a really high psychological bonus. My middle school soul that has been dormant for ten years is about to awaken! I think I can beat ten people now! "

Ji Xuanyi was actually a little excited, but he still said calmly: " If it were Wanzhi's mob, you could beat ten of them even without wearing this. "

After saying that, he helped Qi Qin lift the stuck shoulder part, turned around and walked towards the gathering place of the mortal world.

Mi Yin was about to catch up when Qi Qin, who was at the end, suddenly pressed his shoulder.

Mi Yin was startled, turned around and asked: " What's wrong? "

Qi Qin half showed his face from the shadow of the cloak and asked: " Can you help me point out who the person named Xu Chu is later? "

Miyin: "..."

Mi Yin shuddered, feeling as if she had sensed the legendary murderous aura !

This guy was so cowardly and harmless in the carriage! So this was his plan all along!

Mi Yin laughed dryly and said, " When the fight breaks out it will be so chaotic ..."

Qi Qin looked at him quietly.

Mi Yin: " Don't worry, I will find it for you! "

Qi Qin reached out and tugged at the collar of his cloak that covered the lower half of his face, revealing a somewhat shy smile: " Thank you. "

Mi Yin: "... No thanks, no thanks. "

Ji Xuanyi shouted impatiently from the front: " Can you two hurry up?! "

Before Mi Yin could say anything, Qi Qin was startled by Ji Xuanyi's voice and trembled. He instantly turned back to his previous cowardly look and hurriedly responded, " We are here! "

Miyin: "..."

Before Mi Yin had time to sigh at the wonderful relationship between people, Qi Qin grabbed her arm and pulled her up, running towards Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi said unhappily: " What are you two talking about in the back? "

Qi Qin was so timid that he dared not lie to Ji Xuanyi. He also couldn't say that he was going to take action against the person he was interested in, so he had to look at Mi Yin.

Mi Yin laughed dryly and said, " The cloak is hanging. "

Ji Xuanyi said " Oh " and didn't ask any further questions. His attention was now more focused on the open space not far away .

Only about half of the people from Chenshi and Mengtanggu have arrived, while the people from Damajhu have almost gathered.

Gang cohesion is a problem, and on the other hand, Ji Xuanyi discovered that there was a vague formation on the side of Tamajanghu.

From the name of Tamaju Jianghu, we can tell that this gang should be a gang mainly composed of knights. In fact, it is indeed the case. Except for the gang leader Liu Tian who is a knight, nearly 70% of the people in the Tamaju Jianghu team that Ji Xuanyi can see are knights. More than half of them have completed their daily tasks and are riding on horses. Some people even ride horses that are different from others. It is not known whether they were bought or given as a result of completing other tasks.

But no matter what, including the equipment that Xu Chu prepared for them, this team of knights was not something that Chenshi and Mengtanggu could confront head-on with the same number of people. What's more, Ji Xuanyi also saw the ranged warriors such as priests, mages and archers behind them .

What Xu Chu said before was correct. If it weren't for Ji Xuanyi and the other three, Mengtanggu and Chenshi combined would not be a match for Tamajyuhu.

Ji Xuanyi saw from afar the solemn expressions of Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Jian Xixinjiu, and Jing Yunhan's face was also a little pale.

Ji Xuanyi, Qi Qin and Mi Yin sneaked over from behind the Mortal World team. Because they had been warned that strangers would come to help, although the Mortal World gang members looked at the three of them with strange eyes, they did not shout or scream.

Ji Xuanyi and the others arrived behind Xiaoxiao Yuxia quietly.

Ji Xuanyi patted Xiao Xiaoyu's shoulder and said, " We are here. "

Xiao Xiaoyu recognized Ji Xuanyi's voice, his tense shoulders relaxed, he turned his head and said happily: " Great, you guys finally ... Shit! "

Ji Xuanyi and Xiao Xiaoyu met each other's eyes.

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said with difficulty: " What? Are you cosplaying as Death Eaters? "

Chapter 67

Mi Yin said disdainfully: " Have you ever seen Harry Potter? Death Eaters have to wear masks, okay? "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "... Okay, I think I understand why you guys dress like this. "

Ji Xuanyi nodded with satisfaction . This was the best way, as it would save him from having to explain anything further.

Jing Yunhan came over and looked at them eagerly, with a bit of envy in his eyes, and said: " Where did you get your robes? They look familiar. "

Although Jing Yunhan was a newbie , he was very interested in the adventures in the game. He went to the Mage Tower every day to check in . He probably had seen this robe before , but didn't pay much attention to it.

Mi Yin said: " It's on the wall on the first floor of the Mage Tower. Don't you know? "

Jing Yunhan thought about it, revealed an expression of sudden enlightenment , and said dejectedly: " I went in today, I have to wait until tomorrow ..."

Qi Qin also interrupted: " You go there every day and you didn't notice it? "

Jing Yunhan said: Every time I go there ?t they say that sincerity is the key to success'Don " , I take notes and answer questions seriously . I don't have the time to look at things on the wall . Even if I saw something , I wouldn't dare to take it . What if my favorability drops? "

This concern makes sense.

Jing Yunhan asked carefully: " Is it really okay to take this? "

Ji Xuanyi and the other two shook their heads in unison . Jing Yunhan suddenly became happy and said, " I'm going to get one tomorrow too! "

" Don't worry about tomorrow, " Xiao Xiao Yu looked at Jing Yunhan helplessly and said, " Can we think about the present first? "

Jing Yunhan suddenly remembered the current situation and his face turned pale.

Even he knew that if they lost this gang war, Chenshi would not only fail to become the boss or the second in command, but they would probably not even be able to maintain their original status quo. Unlike the Mengtanggu gang that was organized purely because of Jianxi Xinjiu's personal charm, the reason why these people in Chenshi gathered together was more utilitarian. If they lost, they would be finished .

After all, if the previous three-way situation had been lost, there would have been an explanation, but if they lost in a two-on-one situation, it only meant that Chenshi was weak, and the two gang leaders of Chenshi were incompetent. Good people could not be used as welfare, and at least one-third of the people in the gang would leave.

At that time, Chenshi could only be considered a second-rate gang. I don't know how much effort it would take to become first-rate again with the other two gangs.

Jing Yunhan pursed his lips and said to Ji Xuanyi and the other two, " I know I'm a weakling and I'm bound to lose a level. When the fight starts, even if I'm in danger, you must not be distracted because of me ... "

Mi Yin, the straight man, was stunned and said, " Ah? We don't plan to control you. "

Jing Yunhan: "... "

Jing Yunhan's face turned green, but after a while, he calmed down and said with difficulty: " No matter if I am right, you guys should do your best and kill as many as you can. "

Mi Yin didn't feel anything was wrong at all, and patted his chest and said, " Don't worry, just leave it to us. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia didn't say anything. He was checking the status of Tamajuhu on the opposite side.

The people on the opposite side are almost all here, and the neat team looks very intimidating. Even if we ignore their strength and only look at their execution, Xiao Xiaoyuxia already feels bitter.

Mi Yin muttered quietly, " How exaggerated! Xu Chu wouldn't pay the people in their gang a salary, would he? "

Even he, who had little contact with gangs, knew that this kind of execution could not be achieved by a normal gang. After all, this was just a game, and many people had their own things to do in real life, so they often had to miss gang activities.

Generally speaking, for a gang of 200 people, it is quite good if it can gather 50 to 60 people during an event. Even if the gang leader has a high prestige, 70 to 80 people is the limit. But now, there are at least 150 people in Tamajangu. Even because of the strong sense of immersion in the holographic online game, there are only more than 100 people from Mengtanggu and Chenshi respectively. If counted separately, each gang is only two-thirds of the size of the opposite side.

Xu Chu's confidence is not without reason.

Xiao Xiaoyu's face looked unhappy. For this battle, he even called on the gang members to train for two or three days and barely cooperated to form a formation. However, compared with the opposite side, the formation of the Chenshi side was just like a child's playing house game. Among the more than 150 people in Tamajima Jianghu, more than 100 are knights, and about 60 to 70 of them have horses – think about it, this is one of the reasons why Tamajima Jianghu postponed the time of challenge. Not to mention whether they have obtained the 43rd level skill, the horse's charging ability alone will make other players subconsciously dodge. Under the iron hoof of the opposite side, it is impossible to organize the formation of the Chenshi side.

What's more, the formation of Ta Ma Jiang Hu is obviously more rigorous, with the knights on horseback neatly arranged in the front, followed by the knights without horses, and two rows of swordsmen on both wings. Protected by the swordsmen in the back are the archers, mages and priests, among which the number of priests is the largest. It is obvious that they will use their horses' hooves to trample on your face. Those who can't withstand it will disperse, and those who can withstand it will come again, until you can't withstand it anymore.

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia sighed and said, " I am now beginning to doubt whether this gang war should really continue. "

Ji Xuan glanced at the Mengtanggu team next to him. Although Jianxi Xinjiu, who was standing at the front, was not as depressed as Xiaoxiao Yuxia, the expression on his face was not good either.

Ji Xuanyi's face was hidden under his cloak, so nothing could be seen, but his voice was still calm: " If you don't want to fight, it's not too late to admit defeat now. "

Xiao Xiao Yu smiled bitterly and said, " What's the difference between admitting defeat now and agreeing to let the Jianghu enter the inner city? If you admit defeat now ... I guess you don't even have the courage to fight Wan Zhi. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything.

Mi Yin, who was standing beside him, was also a little worried, but Qi Qin was completely out of the situation and didn't notice the tense atmosphere at all. He grabbed Mi Yin and asked who Xu Chu was. Mi Yin looked around and whispered, " Xu Chu doesn't seem to be here. Maybe he won't come until the fight starts. "

However, just as Ji Xuanyi said, Xu Chu did not seem to take this gang war seriously. Until the gang war started and the players on both sides were ready to fight, Xu Chu did not show up as Mi Yin expected.

However, now is not the time to care about this. Although Qi Qin was a little unwilling, facing a powerful enemy , he still managed to hold himself back and prepared to finish the battle first. Although they also expected that there would be gang wars to be fought, Chenshi was not as picky about the professions of the players joining as Tamajima Jianghu. They recruited people more randomly, and except for warlocks, other professions could be said to be evenly distributed.

The proportion of each profession in their guild is not too far from the overall proportion of professions in "Domain" , with mages and archers being the most numerous, followed by assassins and swordsmen, then knights, and priests at the bottom. Most of the players are female.

This lineup is too easy to be trampled on by Tamajima Jianghu. Only swordsmen can withstand the attack of the knights' army head – on. However, there are only two rows of swordsmen in the front. The magic professions after the breakthrough are basically giving away heads, and although the agility professions can dodge some attacks, their speed is useless in front of the four-legged horses. Archers can still shoot two arrows before being caught up, and assassins can only eat dust behind the horses if they rush forward.

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia thought for a moment, and said to the guild members who were going to participate in the battle, " Don't be too rigid about the formations that we rehearsed before. Once the front line of swordsmen and knights is broken, disperse immediately and try to disperse as much as possible. Each team leader should determine the target to focus on. Close combat should focus on attacking knights, and swordsmen should be ignored. Ranged combat should focus on attacking the opponent's fragile professions. In short , kill as many as you can. Our main goal is to consume the strength of the Tama Jianghu, not to defeat them. Don't put too much psychological pressure on everyone, just do your best. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia originally wanted to say that since it was Mengtanggu that was the one who ended up doing the damage, she could just pass the blame on to others and let those who participated in the battle relax a little. But after thinking about it, it wasn't very fair. After all, the two companies were allies, and they had to shoulder the responsibility together.

Xiao Xiaoyu let out a long breath, looked at his companion with trusting eyes, and pulled away the fig leaf without any care, saying directly: " I know that if we lose this gang war, everyone here may not stay in the world, but I still cherish the relationship during this period. Even if we have to separate in the future, please fight for our gang with all your strength today, now, and finally. Even if you think about it in the future, you can say without guilt that you tried your best and have no regrets. "

Everyone was looking at him. Xiao Xiaoyu smiled helplessly and said bitterly: " I'm sorry, I can't give you my promise this time. "

Although they knew that the enemy was almost invincible, this was the first time that Xiao Xiao Yuxia showed weakness in front of the gang members of Chenshi. Many people in the team showed moved expressions, and some people's expressions became more determined. If Chenshi was still lifeless when they saw the team of Tamajujianhu just now, now almost everyone has regained the will to fight.

I have to say that Xiaoxiao Yuxia did a good job in inspiring people. Ji Xuanyi found that Mi Yin beside him became excited, as if he was ready to sacrifice his life for the world.

Ji Xuanyi pulled out his staff and hit Mi Yin. Mi Yin hissed, came back to his senses, touched the place where he was hit, looked at Ji Xuanyi in confusion, and said: "What are you doing? Why are you hitting me all of a sudden?"

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: "Promise me that when the arena opens, you must live in the arena and never come out."

Otherwise, someone might kidnap you and use you as a thug with just one word, and sell you out before you can react.

Miyin: "..... ??? "

Seeing that he couldn't react, Ji Xuan sighed and warned him, "Don't get too excited when we fight. We'll have to fight for two more rounds, and then we can call it a day."

Mi Yin nodded in confusion.

At this time, Ji Xuanyi missed Ze Yu Sishui again. It was not that he missed him as a person, but that he missed his weapon. Although Mi Yin's equipment was good, it was just good. If Ze Yu Sishui could lend his weapon with built-in skills to Mi Yin, Mi Yin's safety factor and combat ability would be greatly improved.

But it's just a thought. Ze Yu Sishui and the others will have to wait another two days before they can come to Star City. The missions in Green Forest City are too unfriendly to players. After a brief communication, members from both sides entered the venue, deployed their formations, and prepared for battle. Ji Xuanyi and his two companions squeezed among the players with equipment of different appearances, so they did not stand out too much.

Mi Yin whispered, "It should start soon. I will hide and find a convenient place for a sneak attack."

As soon as Ji Xuan responded, he saw Mi Yin's whole figure gradually distorted, and then disappeared completely like a phantom.

Ji Xuanyi thought about it, and suddenly said with a frown: "Actually, you don't need that cloak. Anyway, the other side may not be able to see you."

Mi Yin's voice came from the air: "Just in case. Besides, if only the two of you wear it and I don't wear it, people who don't know would think we are fighting because of the unfair distribution of the spoils."

Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: "Okay, just go now."

Mi Yin responded.

The stealth state can last for a full three minutes as long as you are not attacked or launching an attack. At the same time, the stealth skill will not have a CD. The stealth skill only has a CD in combat, and the duration is very short, about less than two seconds.

If Mi Yin sneaks out and sets up an ambush now, the people in the underworld won't be able to find him.

However, there was a problem. The other assassins in the mortal world were all standing on the periphery. After entering the field, they immediately became invisible and found places to ambush. But in order to act with Ji Xuanyi, Mi Yin, like Qi Qin, stood in the middle of the magic professions with Ji Xuanyi. It was crowded at the moment and it was a bit difficult to get out.

Ji Xuanyi also noticed this and was about to ask Mi Yin to come out and hide again after he got to the edge, when he heard Mi Yin's voice in the air beside him: " Brother, please make way. I'm going to go out for a while. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

When Ji Xuanyi saw a player from the mortal world next to him, he was stunned at first, then he reacted and took a step back with a frown on his face. Then, the clothes of the person next to him moved, as if someone pulled him, and then Ji Xuanyi heard Mi Yin's voice again.

" Brother, please make way. "

Ji Xuanyi's expression was blank for a moment, and he had no idea how to connect with the train of thought of someone like Mi Yin.

In short, Mi Yin just kept " giving way " all the way to the outside. If you look at it from the perspective of the spectators, you can find that for some reason a certain row of the Mortal World team suddenly took a step back one by one, just like a pantomime, which was very weird. Mi Yin finally got out, but Qi Qin was in trouble too. He stood in the middle of the magic professions with Ji Xuanyi, and soon they were resisted by the priest girls.

This one said: " There are not many swordsmen in the gang. You are so big, why don't you go to the front to block it? Why are you hiding in the back? "

The other said: " Don't be so afraid of death. Just hold on. We can take care of you. "

There was also a lesson for Qi Qin, telling him that it was not a big deal to die once, as it would only cause him to drop a level, and he would be able to catch up quickly. It was a complete mess.

Qi Qin was blushing at what the girls said, but she still held Ji Xuanyi tightly, refusing to move a step, and weakly retorted: " No, I can't leave. It's too dangerous here. Xuanyi is not safe. "

Before the girls launched the second wave of attack, Ji Xuanyi said, " We are not from the mortal world. We are scattered people who came to help. This is my binding. He is worried about me being here alone. "

The girls finally reacted, some apologized, some thanked, and some even whispered, " Wow, you two have such a good relationship, happy 99. "

Qi Qin didn't react to what Zhu Jiujiu meant, and the girls were already laughing.

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows and said nothing.

The girls seemed to have something else to say, but before they could open their mouths, a male priest, a little green among the red flowers, said, " Watch the guild channel, it's about to start. "

Everyone suddenly became quiet, and then within a few seconds, they dispersed. Ji Xuanyi's vision suddenly widened and he saw the knights and swordsmen in the front row.

The two of them did not join the mortal world, so of course they could not see the news in the so-called gang channel. Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Jing Yunhan were both at the forefront, and it was already very good that they could give commands to the gang members. The private chats of Ji Xuanyi and the others could only be handled by Jian Xi Xinjiu.

However, Meng Tanggu could not interfere in the battle between the mortal world and the Tamajima Jianghu, and was not very sensitive to the information in it. He could only judge with the naked eye. About ten seconds later, Ji Xuan saw that the expressions of the people around him were serious, and then the secret chat of Jian Xi Xin Jiu came.

[Sword Washing New Wine] : The Damn Jianghu has begun its charge, and it seems that the mortal world has no intention of moving forward. You can be prepared to disperse!

As soon as Ji Xuanyi uttered the words Swords washed with new wine " " , he heard the rumbling sound of horse hooves hitting the ground. Looking up, he saw Liu Tian , who was the most gorgeously equipped, rushing in the front with a spear in hand. Behind him was a large group of knight players on horseback, all rushing towards them with the force of thunder.

The battle area was not large, and it only took a few seconds for the gangsters to run over. Ji Xuan heard the girl next to him whisper " How scary !" and another girl said, " Don't be afraid, just fight them! "

As soon as he finished speaking, the swordsman standing in the front came into contact with the knights who were rushing to the front. It was too late to type commands at this time. Ji Xuan heard the heartbreaking sound of Xiao Xiaoyu and shouted: " Priest, add blood! Those with short legs, quickly disperse! "

The priests and mage players around Ji Xuanyi cast their skills forward while running to both sides, trying to minimize the damage from the collision. However, after the swordsman players blocking the front turned into white light and flew away one by one, many magic players were still taken away by the knight legion that followed closely.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia, as the commander and gang leader, received special protection from the priests and survived the first wave of attacks, but was thrown aside. At this moment, he was loudly commanding his gang members to disperse and fight. Ji Xuanyi saw six or seven surviving worldly players gathered together and attacked the hostile players closest to them. Some of them encountered elite soldiers with good equipment and skills and were dispersed, while others successfully pulled some cavalry off their horses and sent them back to the resurrection point.

The surroundings were filled with players shouting in an immature manner, and the place was in chaos.

Ji Xuan glanced and found that the female pastor who had been talking to them just now was standing aside. She seemed to be frightened and crying, sobbing softly. She was wearing a white pastor robe, was thin, and had waist-length hair. She looked very pitiful.

A knight on horseback came over and was about to attack her. The girl raised her face in fear and looked at him in terror.

I have to say that the girl was quite cute. The knight hesitated and stopped. The female priest sobbed and said, " Little brother, please don't hit me. I'm a wimp ..."

No male player could stand a cute girl acting like that. The knight softened his heart all of a sudden and leaned down. Just as he was about to say something to the girl, the girl suddenly jumped up, hugged his neck, twisted her slender waist, and actually threw the knight off the horse. Ji Xuanyi even suspected that he might have heard the crisp sound of a neck being broken.

The knight yelled, but before he could even say "despicable! ", the girl who Ji Xuanyi originally thought was a priest had already pulled out a big sword from her bag, and together with the worldly players who had gathered around, sent the poor knight back to the resurrection point. Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Xiaoxiao Yuxia is really trying hard to even use the trick of honey trap.

However, this time Ji Xuanyi still wronged Xiao Xiaoyuxia. Although Xiao Xiaoyuxia was cunning, he still had some dignity. He just asked the people in the gang to fight in groups, and the specific tactics were decided by the gang members themselves.

Of course, this also includes the honey trap ...

Ji Xuanyi saw the female swordsman in the appearance of a priest put away her sword, moved to another place and continued to act pitiful. However, her luck was not very good. The second person who came to her door had no mercy on her and stabbed her with a gun. The female swordsman cursed "CNM!" and stopped pretending. She took out her sword and slapped the enemy directly in the face. Her teammates also rushed up to help her fight head-on.

However, the Knight Corps was not all that Tama Jianghu had. When Ji Xuanyi was assisting Qi Qin in sending the surrounding knights back to the resurrection points one by one, he suddenly heard a loud noise.

At the same time, a secret chat with Jian Xi Xin Jiu appeared in Ji Xuanyi's chat channel.

[Sword Washing New Wine]: Holy shit!!!!!!!!!!!!

[Sword Washing New Wine]: Look up!!! Run!!!

Ji Xuanyi looked up suddenly and saw a large piece of thunder like fireworks falling towards them from the sky.

"Fuck!" Even Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but curse: "What the hell did Xu Chu do to the Jianghu!!!"

Fortunately, the center of the thunder was not so close to Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin. They ran desperately for a while and only suffered damage on the edge. Qi Qin lost some blood, and Ji Xuanyi lost about one-third of his blood.

"Fuck," Ji Xuanyi cursed, "After this is over, I'm going to go get a set of equipment with more HP."

Qi Qin frowned and responded. Without time to say anything more, he waved his guard and knocked a knight player who was rushing towards them to the ground with his horse. He then stabbed him twice and sent him back to the resurrection point.

The damage of the thunder just now was not too high. Even if it was at the center of the skill, players with more health would not be killed instantly, and could be healed if there were priests around to support them. But for fragile professions such as assassins and archers, the blow was too great. Not only would they be sent back to the resurrection point after two or three hits, but more importantly, the assassin's invisibility would be exposed under this kind of attack.

Originally, the strength of the mortal world is not as good as that of Tamajū Jianghu. With the addition of this strange attack method that came from nowhere, the damage caused by the mortal world to Tamajū Jianghu will be even lower.

We can't let this thunder continue to fall.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and was about to ask Jian Xixinjiu if he saw what happened, but he saw that the latter had already sent a private message to him.

[Sword Washing New Wine] : On the right side of you facing the Tama Jianghu! They are a formation of ten mages, and the mage in the middle is holding a particularly large staff, which seems to be the skill of that staff!

Ji Xuanyi frowned.

If this Thunder was a skill obtained by the player from a hidden mission, it would be fine. He could use his newly acquired level 43 skill to directly affect the opponent's CD , and then let Qi Qin take the opportunity to kill the person controlling the Thunder and return him to the resurrection point. But if it was an equipment skill, not to mention whether his new skill was still useful, even if one person was killed , another person could continue to use the equipment. It could be said that there was no good way to deal with this Thunder.

Ji Xuanyi was hesitating whether to take the risk and go to the rear of Tamajhu to solve this problem, when he saw that Jianxi Xinjiu sent another message.

[Sword Washing New Wine] : Wait wait wait!

[Sword Washing New Wine] : The information is wrong! The mage in our gang said that the thunder is very similar to the mage's new skill at level 43, but the range and power are much greater, so I don't know what the situation is!

[Sword Washing New Wine] : Maybe it's the skill of the weapon itself! Maybe the effect of the weapon is a skill bonus! Maybe it has something to do with the camp of the ten mages!

[Sword Washed New Wine] : The mages on our side don't seem to be too sure either ... Never mind, I won't cause you any more trouble. In any case, you better hurry up, as the main force of the Mortal World won't be able to hold out for much longer!

Jian Xi Xinjiu has tried his best. He sent messages to Ji Xuanyi and the others almost non-stop. His hands probably flew away from typing.

However, this information is enough. Maybe the player's skills are always better than weapon skills. At least it gives Ji Xuanyi a direction to deal with this thunder.

It seemed that someone in the Damingjianghu noticed Qi Qin's fierce fighting ability of knocking down more than ten knights by himself, and arrows and fireballs began to hit this side. Qi Qin frowned and used his guard to deflect those attacks one by one, and said to Ji Xuan: " How is it? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Let's go and give it a try. "

He took two steps forward and saw a priest next to him – this time he was sure it was a priest. She was waving her staff to heal the players in the mortal world.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin ran over in two steps and said to the girl, " Give us a sip of milk. "

The pastor was probably standing not far from Ji Xuanyi and the others . After hearing this, he did not hesitate and immediately gave Ji Xuanyi a big thumbs up. Then he gave the two of them a HOT and said, " Be careful! "

Ji Xuan nodded and ran to the right with Qi Qin.

They knocked down several knights along the way and also killed a scavenger huntsman assassin. When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin approached the mage formation, they were besieged by five or six swordsmen.

Ji Xuanyi could already see ten mages standing in a group at the back. Just like Jian Xi Xin Jiu said, the man in the middle was holding a staff that was as tall as a person. The gem on the top of the staff was as big as a basketball. The nine mages surrounding him were holding smaller versions of the huge staff in his hand. It looked like these ten staffs were a fucking set. No idea where Xu Chu got it from.

A group of wizards gathered together and chanted something. If this wasn't a holographic online game, it would have looked like a cult ritual, very childish.

These swordsmen from Tamajanghu are basically fully armed and wearing purple equipment. Even for Qi Qin, it is impossible for him to win by brute force like before when dealing with five of them at once.

After blocking the first wave of attacks, he retreated immediately, hugged Ji Xuan and led him out of the encirclement, fighting and retreating to find a safer blind spot, the side that could not be reached by the long-range attacks of Tamajianghu and the rear that could not be detected by the vanguard knights, and then turned around to fight the five swordsmen.

Qi Qin blocked the five people very tightly, so Ji Xuanyi didn't need to waste time on moving. He glanced at the ten mages not far away and casually threw a paralysis spell at the opponent in front of Qi Qin. After Qi Qin got rid of that person, he used the CD-free healing reduction skill and the weapon's special effect to slow down everyone, and then ran towards the direction of the ten mages without looking back.

"Xuan Yi!" Qi Qin was so frightened by Ji Xuan Yi that his heart almost jumped out of his throat. He kicked a swordsman away and chased after him.

The swordsmen were well-equipped and very strong. Their mission was to protect the ten mages in the back. Seeing Ji Xuanyi running over, they were extremely anxious. One of them cursed, "Fuck! Why is this swordsman so difficult to deal with? No one ever said there is such a master in the world! Feng Jian has already died and returned to the resurrection point. If we take one person to chase the warlock, can the remaining three still stop him?"

Another said, "Don't you feel how strong this guy is? His equipment is much better than ours. Three people definitely can't stop him. Anyway, he's a warlock and has no attack skills. If we go, we'll just be killed. Let's hold him back first. You guys can privately chat with the gang leader and call for help!"

One person agreed, and the other used a heavy blow to force Qi Qin to stay.

Ji Xuanyi had no time to take care of Qi Qin's fragile heart. Besides, the latter would not be sent back to the resurrection point so easily. His current target was the ten mages. He noticed that before the thunder was released, a ball of light would form first, staying on the staff of the mage in the middle for more than ten seconds, getting bigger and bigger, and then it would be launched.

Ji Xuanyi sent a private message to Jian Xi Xin Jiu: "Ask the mage in your gang, does the new skill at level 43 take a long time to read?"

After about three seconds, Jian Xi Xin Jiu's response came back.

[Sword Washing New Wine]: Yes, yes, you have to read it, and it has to take five seconds. How did you know?

Ji Xuanyi smiled and replied: " Then ask him again, what happens if the skill reading bar is interrupted? "

This time it took a little longer, almost five seconds, before Jianxixinjiu sent a reply.

[Sword washing new wine] : It will explode.

Thunder is the 43rd level new skill of the mage. As the mage profession is known for being a fragile turret, the second skill is a defensive skill called shield, which has actually made some players dissatisfied. After the third skill came out, it directly made up for the gap of the second skill in output. It not only has high damage and short CD , but it is also an AOE skill that can affect multiple enemies at the same time.

However, it is impossible for the official to give an invincible skill to players. It must have some flaws, and that is the excessively long reading time, a full five seconds.

Five seconds is enough time for the mage's enemies to do a lot of things.

In order to prevent this skill from becoming a completely unusable skill due to frequent interruptions, the five-second reading bar of Thunder is set to a movable reading bar. In other words, even if the mage reads the bar while running, or reads the bar in the air after being knocked away by others, the skill can still be used successfully. As for the means of interrupting the skill, the only way everyone knows at this stage is for the mage to stop the skill himself.

However, some people speculate that the warlock may be the only enemy that the mage faces now that can interrupt the casting of this skill . But after all, the number of warlocks is small, and they have not appeared in the main city yet, so there is no way to experiment. Although everyone agrees with this idea, it is just speculation at this stage.

This skill is quite powerful, and if the mage stops reading the bar himself, there will be a side effect – the small thunder that appears above the staff while reading the bar will explode.

If it stops early, the thunder is still small, and the explosion is similar to a balloon exploding, with only a loud noise. If it stops late, the thunder is a little bigger, and the explosion will cause numbness in your hands, or your face will also feel numb if you hold the staff too close, but you won't lose any blood.

But no one knows what the effect would be if the thunder created by ten mages, plus the weapon bonus, exploded in advance.

Ji Xuanyi was very interested in this.

Ji Xuanyi ran over carelessly, and of course he was seen by the ten mages. They had just started a round of spellcasting, and were very nervous. They immediately showed alert expressions. One of them stopped chanting and shouted loudly to the four swordsmen in the distance : " What are you doing! Someone is coming! "

One of the swordsmen was kicked away by Qi Qin and flew two meters away . He yelled at the mages angrily: " What the hell are you yelling about! Can't you see that we can't get our hands free?! That guy is just a warlock! He doesn't even have an attack skill, what are you afraid of! "

After the swordsman finished speaking, he thought the group of mages would calm down.

However, after hearing him say that the person who ran over was a warlock, the vigilant expressions on the faces of several mages turned into fear. Obviously, they remembered that speculation.

The mages looked at Ji Xuanyi with the same expression as if he was looking at a monster. The mage shouted loudly: " FK — Warlock!!! "

The sound was so tragic that the wizard's throat was broken, and it finally attracted the attention of the swordsman.

The other mages couldn't even shout, they could only stare at Ji Xuanyi in shock and fear. This bonus set of weapons required some childish chanting, and only one person could stop to communicate with the others. If anyone else stopped, Ji Xuanyi wouldn't have to take any action, or the thunder in their hands would explode!

The swordsman realized something was wrong and asked hurriedly, " What's wrong with the warlock?! "

The mage was about to cry, and cursed loudly: " Fuck! Why is there a warlock here? Warlocks can interrupt the casting! It will explode!!! "

The swordsman had no idea about this. Even the group of mages themselves probably didn't expect that there was a warlock hiding in Starry City, and even joining the battle on the enemy side.

But just looking at the expressions of the group of mages, the swordsman knew that something was wrong and hurriedly wanted to chase after them. However, Qi Qin also heard that Ji Xuanyi was going to do something big and would never let him go. He spotted the flaw behind him and sent him back to the resurrection point. Seeing the miserable state of their companions, the other three swordsmen became more cautious and dared not act rashly.

Seeing that there was no way to get help, the ten mages trembled in fear, like a nest of newborn quails, looking at Ji Xuanyi who was getting closer and closer to them.

Do you know that feeling of fear when a balloon is getting bigger and bigger, and there is a needle sticking up next to it, but you can't stop? These ten mages are probably feeling this way now.

The only one who could speak was already exhausted, and shouted to Ji Xuan: " Don't come over! Big brother! I beg you! Don't come over! We are wrong! Wait until we finish using this skill! Retreat immediately! Never show up again! Really! "

Ji Xuanyi raised an eyebrow at him.

The wizard almost cried and knelt on the ground to apologize, saying: " I'm sorry! Don't interrupt us, this thing will explode later, and you will be in trouble if you are so close to it! "

Ji Xuanyi was considering whether it would be better to interrupt them with paralysis or with a new skill.

The wizard still tried to stop Ji Xuanyi with words, and his saliva was almost spitting out while he spoke. The wizard standing next to him didn't seem to dislike him at all. If saliva could extinguish Ji Xuanyi's explosive fuse, he would have wished he could spit along with him.

But obviously that doesn't work.

Ji Xuanyi looked at the ball of light between them that was growing bigger and bigger, and slowly raised his staff towards them. The wizard was so scared that he could not speak clearly and could only yell " CMN " at the top of his lungs .

At the last second before the skill was cast, Thunder used its most powerful power. Ji Xuan smiled at them and used his new skill on the person in the middle, and the CD went backwards.

Under the horrified gaze of the mages, the jumping ball of light, surrounded by them, froze for a moment.
explode!

Chapter 68

Ji Xuanyi was not actually sure whether his new skill could interrupt the casting , so he also prepared a paralysis control as a backup . Anyway, these two control skills had no shared CD and could be used at the same time.

After testing Mi Yin last time, he was a little concerned about what Mi Yin meant by the skill bar being black for a second. Now that he thinks about it, it was probably the effect of the skill being swallowed, otherwise the thunder would not have exploded so refreshingly.

The explosion was so loud that almost half of the people on the battlefield looked over here . Liu Tian, who had received the news from the swordsman and led a small team of knights to support, understood what had happened in the mage's position in an instant. His face turned green and he quickened his pace to rush over there.

However, he also knew that even if it passed , it would probably be too late .

Ji Xuanyi was not prepared for the thunder to explode so quickly, and he was caught off guard and felt the force of the explosion head-on. Fortunately, he was not very close to him , so he only lost some blood. However, the ten mages at the center of the explosion were not so lucky. The wizard in the middle holding the staff was directly blown back to the resurrection point . The staff, as tall as a person, was thrown alone on the ground , and the basketball-sized gem on it was covered with cracks.

Ji Xuanyi estimated that even if the staff could be taken there to be repaired , it would probably cost a fortune . But since Xu Chu was rich , he could afford it.

Ji Xuanyi was worried that the staff lying on the ground would be refreshed . The other mages at the center of the explosion – at least they did not come into close contact with the thunder, they were just blown stupidly, and in fact there was still a trace of blood left. Some of the mages came back to life, squatted down trembling, and picked up the big staff back into the bag.

But it seems that it will be difficult for these mages to organize this formation again. Anyone who comes into contact with an explosion at such a close distance will have psychological trauma! Ji Xuanyi was just wondering if the physical attack he launched with his staff could possibly kill a group of mages. Qi Qin had already killed two of the remaining three swordsmen. He dragged the remaining swordsman and hurriedly ran to Ji Xuanyi, asking nervously, " Xuanyi, are you okay? "

" I'm fine ..." Ji Xuanyi raised his hand speechlessly to control the swordsman who was about to attack from behind him, and said, " Can you clean up the mess first? "

Qi Qin sent the immobile swordsman back to the resurrection point, and said aggrievedly: " I am worried. "

The swordsman who was about to die but was shown off: "..."

Before he died, the swordsman struggled hard, grunted, and rolled his eyes at Qi Qin.

Ji Xuan said, .Stop talking so much " Kill those mages before they can react . " Even if they cannot form a thunder formation, the remaining nine mages are all well-equipped and powerful, and ordinary attacks on them are quite devastating.

Upon hearing this, Qi Qin immediately dragged his guard and pounced on the mages like a hungry tiger pouncing on sheep!

At this moment, the mages also came to their senses, but they couldn't remember how to respond for a moment, and they ran around like a group of frightened chicks. Ji Xuanyi stood aside and slowed them down one by one, and Qi Qin sent them back to the resurrection point one by one.

Qi Qin caught up with the last wizard, and in the wizard's desperate look, he raised his hand and chopped him down with a knife. However, after the wizard opened his eyes, he found that he had not returned to the resurrection point, but was still standing in front of Qi Qin.

The mage was stunned, but saw Qi Qin looking behind him with a frown.

For some reason, the priests who had been focusing on healing the knights in front of them suddenly turned their attention and started healing this poor, weak and helpless mage. When Qi Qin made that slash just now, at least five holy light balls floated onto the mage's body at the same time, instantly filling up his blood.

The mage was stunned, and instantly realized that his chance had come. Although the swordsman in front of him was ferocious, it seemed that he could not kill him instantly with full health. With so many priests as backup, he would not die even if he just stood there and fought! The poor mage, who had been frightened too much in such a short period of time, curled his lips like a twitch, and finally remembered to replace the matching staff in his hand with his own weapon. Just as he was about to counterattack, Qi Qin used his skill to sweep, and instantly completed the kill with the guardian's normal attack. Before the priests' holy light balls could take effect, the mage turned into a white light, crossed the sky, and flew to the resurrection point

This might be a relief for him ...

However, Ji Xuanyi still felt very strange when he saw Qi Qin easily dealing with the mage. No matter from which perspective, this mage should not have received so much support. After all, his greatest function had been destroyed. Strictly speaking, it didn't matter whether he was dead or alive. As a separate mage, his role in this gang war would not be much more than that of a knight without a horse. Why should those priests waste their treatment to heal him?

Before Ji Xuanyi could think clearly, he saw Qi Qin looking behind him in fear and screaming heartbreakingly: " Xuanyi!!! "

Ji Xuanyi turned around suddenly and saw that Liu Tian had appeared behind him at some point, with his warhorse's hind hooves raised high.

He knew very well how fragile Ji Xuanyi's blood was. He would definitely be killed by one blow from a fully armed knight like Liu Tian.

However, the opponent's sneak attack was indeed well done. The battlefield was too noisy , and the sound of horse hooves was so frequent that people were used to it. Only then did they realize something was wrong. Ji Xuan didn't even have time to raise his staff, let alone move.

It's nothing to lose levels, but the resurrection point is too far from here , and judging by the situation in the mortal world, he probably won't be able to hold on for too long. He may not be able to come back before the next battle between Meng Tanggu and Tama Jianghu begins. If there are only Qi Qin and Mi Yin, something bad might happen in the battle between Meng Tanggu and Tama Jianghu.

Ji Xuanyi closed his eyes and analyzed the situation calmly. When he was about to calmly greet the scenery at the resurrection point, a force suddenly came from the side. Someone rushed over and knocked him to the ground. He even rolled twice and almost kissed him.

Ji Xuanyi quickly opened his eyes and saw Mi Yin pressing on him with a frightened expression.
Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Damn, I don't know who is suffering more!

Qi Qin suffered from his short legs and failed to catch up. Now seeing Mi Yin saving Ji Xuanyi, he felt mixed emotions and didn't know whether he felt more grateful or jealous. He was very conflicted.

But one thing is certain, the instigator is Liu Tian. If you have any anger, just find this person to vent it!

Qi Qin shouted loudly, relying on his tall stature, he raised his hand with the protective guard and waved it, knocking Liu Tian, who was stunned after his attack missed, off his horse and beating him up.

However, it was also clear at this time why the group of priests suddenly took such good care of the mage. In fact, their main force was on the healing leader and commander Liu Tian. When Liu Tian came here, their attention also followed here. The mage was just lucky and received some treatment that had nowhere to go.

Although Qi Qin could rely on his skills to instantly finish off the mage and send him back to the resurrection point, this kind of finishing blow did not have much effect on the knight, whose health was only lower than that of the swordsman in the entire game. Every time Qi Qin reduced Liu Tian's health to just a trace, the priests' holy balls would follow and instantly heal Liu Tian. However, it is hard to say whether this is a good thing for Liu Tian. After all, he is just an ordinary player. He is so powerful only because he has better equipment and healing support. His strength is not even better than Jian Xi Xin Jiu. When fighting with Qi Qin, he was basically pinned to the ground and beaten without any chance to fight back. No matter how much treatment he received, it just prevented him from dying and had no effect on the battle situation at all.

Mi Yin finally climbed up from Ji Xuanyi's body with her hands and feet crossed, and said in horror: " You didn't kiss me, did you? You didn't kiss me, did you? "

Ji Xuanyi: "... Fuck you! What were you doing just now?! "

Just think about it, if they really kissed, Ji Xuanyi would definitely not react like this. Mi Yin finally breathed a sigh of relief and said with a bitter face: " After the fight started, I sneaked behind them and killed a few archers first, and then prepared to kill the healers. As a result, their priests all huddled together. I just killed one or two, but my clothes were pulled and I was beaten violently. It took a lot of effort to escape! "

Ji Xuan glanced at Mi Yin and saw that the opponent was indeed half dead, probably because he was beaten badly by that group of priests.

The situation is not very good now. Although the gang members of the mortal world have exerted all their strength to consume the strength of Tama Jianghu, the strength gap is there after all. There are not many people left in the mortal world. The battle is getting faster and faster, and it is not far from the end . They must cause more damage to Tama Jianghu's formation in the shortest possible time.

The best targets are of course the priests.

But the priests who stick together are really strong. Just like Qi Qin couldn't kill Liu Tian who had no power to resist no matter how fierce he was, Mi Yin couldn't easily kill another priest who was surrounded by a group of priests.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " If you go now, you should be able to gain something. "

Mi Yin was stunned.

Ji Xuan pointed to Qi Qin and said, " They don't have time to heal themselves. Compared to the priest's own life, command is obviously more important. If Liu Tian is sent back to the resurrection point, the next battle will be a mess. "

" That makes sense, " Mi Yin smacked his lips and said, " But Xuan Xiaoyi, please take a look at my health. If I fail to hit you again, I'll be done for . "

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows and said, " Wealth and honor are sought in danger. "

Mi Yin: "... So where does wealth come from? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Don't ask me, ask yourself, it's not my idea to get involved in this matter. "

Miyin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi frowned and took a look at the battle that was almost over. Some knights from all over the world had already freed up their hands and were going to go to Qi Qin to provide support for six days.

Ji Xuanyi wasn't sure about Qi Qin's limit, but with so many people surrounding him, it was definitely not a good thing.

Ji Xuanyi said seriously, " If you don't go, you should quickly inform Xiao Xiao Yuxia that we have decided to retreat. If there are too few people in the mortal world, we will be easily surrounded. At that time, Xiao Xiao Yuxia will talk about retreating, and it is not impossible that the people in the Damingjianghu will ' accidentally ' besiege us and return to the resurrection point before stopping. "

Mi Yin took a look at the priest team that suffered almost no losses in Tamajianghu and couldn't help but frowning.

If he didn't fight now, Liu Tian, who was on guard in the next battle, wouldn't give Qi Qin such a good space to suppress himself, not to mention creating another opportunity that might destroy the priest team.

Even though the consumption of the Mortal World is relatively easy now and the Priest Corps has not played a big role, the healing profession has always been the stronger the ability to survive the fewer teammates. With the reduction of treatment targets and the unchanged treatment amount, Meng Tanggu may end up facing a team of 20 to 30 knights who will hardly die, just like Liu Tian now. By that time, it is really hard to say how many people are left in Meng Tanggu itself. Even with the strength of Qi Qin and others, it is really hard to say whether they can win.

Although Mi Yin didn't think as clearly as Ji Xuanyi, he also vaguely realized that the opportunity should not be missed. He was an arena player and had done all kinds of situations where he was isolated and had a similar strength to his opponents, such as one against two or three. Some things seemed difficult or even impossible to cook, but Mi Yin knew that he could do it. Mi Yin licked her lips, and her aura suddenly changed: " I understand. You stay here to buy time for Tianxia, and I'll go and try. "

Ji Xuanyi's expression relaxed and he said, " Don't force it. Saving your life is the most important thing. "

" I know, only when you are alive can you output! " Mi Yin grinned: " Don't worry, my skills are very stable . Well, although the number of priests is indeed a bit too much ... I'm going! "

Ji Xuan nodded one by one, knowing that he didn't need to worry about a veteran like Mi Yin, and he didn't have the time to worry about him. The situation on Qi Qin's side was not too good, and five or six people had already surrounded him, so he had to go and help.

Mi Yin activated invisibility and disappeared. Ji Xuanyi raised his hand to control a knight who was about to sneak attack Qi Qin. When Qi Qin used a combo and his target's health dropped to the lowest, he instantly reduced the healing. At the same time, the priest who came up to heal only raised the knight's health to half. Qi Qin realized that it was Ji Xuanyi who made the move, and he immediately perked up. He slashed again on the spot, killing the knight instantly before the priests could make up for the healing.

Unfortunately, that knight was not Liu Tian. After the support arrived, Liu Tian transferred the pressure of fighting Qi Qin to others, and he just stood by and finished off the enemy.

Qi Qin's expression just relaxed for a moment, but after the knight died, two other gangsters immediately came up to replace him, leaving him no time to breathe.

While Ji Xuanyi was assisting Qi Qin from the side, he was urging Mi Yin to move faster in his heart.

Mi Yin had tried his best. He almost ran to the rear of the Tamaju Jianghu priest team. Because of his previous failed sneak attack, several priests were paying attention to the battle situation in front of them while taking time to observe the movements around them. However, they did not have much time to spare. The pressure from Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi combined was too great. Most of their energy was focused on treating Liu Tian and the others.

You know, the first battle is just a war of attrition. Next they will have to face Mengtanggu, who is full of energy and ready to go. If they lose too many people in the first battle, it will not be so easy to win the next battle.

For an assassin's profession, one must wait for an opportunity to kill someone instantly. Mi Yin observed carefully for a while, and finally found an opportunity when all the priests were concentrating on looking ahead. He pounced forward silently and killed the last priest instantly. Here I have to mention the power of RMB players again. The blood of these priests was simply too thick. Mi Yin used a stealth kill and stabbed the priest four or five times in the back before sending her back to the resurrection point.

During this time, the pastor girl had already shouted loudly, telling others that she was attacked, and grabbed Mi Yin, even scolding him for being a villain and stabbing a girl so many times? ! Mi Yin himself was also very embarrassed, but he had no choice, because all the priests were girls, and there were only two men in the priest group of Dama Jianghu. When he came to steal people last time, he sent them back to the resurrection point. Now he had no choice but to kill the girls!

But speaking of it, the last time he was caught, it was the same plot. He wanted to sneak attack the girl, but the girl screamed and grabbed him. Before he could kill the girl in a second, the other girls reacted immediately and filled up their breasts. Then they surrounded him and beat him up. He had to teleport before he could run away.

Fortunately, this time the others did not react so quickly because of the tight treatment supply before, and Mi Yin managed to kill the priest in one second. After being scolded, the priest turned into white light, and the strength that was holding him was gone. Mi Yin narrowly became invisible and escaped from the pile of holy light balls that arrived a step late.

However, this also proves that what Ji Xuanyi said was correct. It is feasible to launch a sneak attack now. The fewer the number of priests, the greater his chance of success. Since he succeeded the first time, there is no reason for him to fail later.

Under Mi Yin's harassment, the healing power in front was obviously reduced, but Qi Qin's situation did not improve. With the reduction of the number of players in the mortal world, more and more knights came to besiege them, and some even bypassed Qi Qin and went straight to Ji Xuanyi.

Qi Qin barely managed to stop a few, but he couldn't handle the large number of people. Ji Xuanyi was forced to move, and the support was just barely maintained. He had to use his skills to protect himself.

After not persisting for long, the pressure became greater and greater. Ji Xuanyi felt that something was wrong, so he quickly chatted with Xiao Xiao Yuxia and asked him what the situation was and why there had not been a ceasefire yet.

After about four or five seconds, Xiaoxiao Yuxia sent a reply in a frustrated tone.

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : Fuck! I got tricked! I was killed when I called for a stop just now . You guys hurry up and leave the battle area. We have an agreement that if the leader doesn't call for a stop, all the gang members will automatically admit defeat if they leave the battle area. If they chase you outside, Jian Xi Xin Jiu will see it and will definitely not agree!

Ji Xuanyi made a " tsk " sound. It was obvious to him that Xiao Xiao Yuxia was planning to prolong their presence on the field for the longest time and cause as much damage to Tamajhu's formation as possible. However, Xiao Xiao Yuxia was not them and had no idea about their situation and combat effectiveness. They had no choice but to wait until Ji Xuanyi couldn't hold on any longer and chatted with him privately before calling for a ceasefire. They didn't expect that Tamajhu had no intention of following the rules and got out of control.

Ji Xuanyi wanted to say something like, "How come you are so cunning and still get tricked!" But now he obviously didn't have the time, so he swallowed his complaints, slowed down the knight chasing him, dodged his attack, and shouted to Qi Qin, " Retreat!!! "

One of the knights' horse hoof was about to step on Qi Qin's face, but Qi Qin blocked it with his guard. The other two knights wanted to attack from the side, but Qi Qin happened to hear Ji Xuanyi's shout, and he pushed the horse and the knight aside, knocking the two men away, and just in time to get away and run towards Ji Xuanyi.

Liu Tian understood their plan the moment Ji Xuan shouted " retreat " and shouted, " Stop them! Don't let them get away! "

Ji Xuanyi knew that his legs were short, so he started running in advance. The knight chasing after him was knocked off his horse by Qi Qin's heavy blow. He was lucky because Qi Qin had no time to finish him off. He left the knight with low health aside and ran towards Ji Xuanyi's direction.

Qi Qin's light armor had a speed-up attribute, and he caught up with Ji Xuanyi very quickly. Seeing that he was running hard, he said, " Can I carry you? "

Ji Xuan turned his head to look at him and found that Qi Qin was blushing even at this time.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Can you take a look at the atmosphere?

Ji Xuan refused without a second thought and said, " What if they throw out the gun? Then I will be the one blocking the knife behind you, right? "

Qi Qin choked, and before he could say anything, Ji Xuan said, " They are catching up! You hold them back, I'll run first! "

Qi Qin: "..."

Although this is normally the procedure, it always feels strange when Ji Xuanyi says it at this time.

Isn't the correct way to open it that we must die together?! What do you mean you stop me from leaving first?

Qi Qin covered his fragile little heart, braked suddenly and stopped, then used his strength to swing his guard violently, knocking the knight in the front away with his horse.

The knight was already low on health and fell to the bottom. It was not known whether he was hit by Qi Qin or crushed by his own horse, but a streak of white light slipped out from the gap under the horse and went to the resurrection point.

The visual effect was really scary. All the knights couldn't help but pull the reins and stop. Qi Qin decided to stop and immediately turned around and ran towards Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi slowed down, and while running he did not forget to slow down for Liu Tian and the others. He turned around and continued running only after Qi Qin was about to catch up with him.

Running and blocking at the same time, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin finally approached the boundary line of the battlefield. Seeing that more and more people were chasing them, but there seemed to be no chance to kill anyone, the knights led by Liu Tian gradually felt like giving up.

Qi Qin breathed a sigh of relief, but Ji Xuanyi kept frowning, feeling that something was wrong. I seem to have forgotten something.

What did you forget?

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

" What's wrong? " Qi Qin asked.

" Fuck! " Ji Xuanyi said with a sullen face, " Forget about Mi Yin! "

Ji Xuanyi quickly sent a private message to Mi Yin, and without caring about the screams and howls over there, he grabbed Qi Qin and stopped not far from the border.

Qi Qin was still confused. He glanced at the knight not far away and asked, " We're not going out? "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " We can't let them go back. If Mi Yin gets tripped by those priests, they will probably run into her when they go back. We should delay here as long as possible. Anyway, this place is close to the border. We will have enough time to leave after Mi Yin leaves. "

They didn't know that Ji Xuanyi had left someone in the venue for six days. They were wondering why Ji Xuanyi and his men had stopped, so they reined in their horses and stopped. The two groups looked at each other from a distance, and the atmosphere suddenly became very strange.

All the people in the mortal world have returned to the resurrection point in the past few minutes. Now only the people from Tamajujianhu and Ji Xuanyi are left in the venue. Everyone's eyes are on them, making the scene very funny.

One of the knights behind Liu Tian guessed, " Are they trying to tease us? Once we get past them, they'll step out and everyone will watch, and we won't be able to kill them! "

Another person said: " I think so too ... but the fight won't be over until they leave. "

Liu Tian stared at Ji Xuanyi and the others, frowning and asking, " Do they have any other tricks up their sleeves? "

Someone agreed: " It's hard to say. What if it was a self-destruction? If the gang leader dies, wouldn't that be a big loss? "

This speculation was so terrifying that Liu Tian's cheeks twitched and he couldn't help but step back a few steps on his horse.

The other knights followed Liu Tian's actions and took a few steps back.

From the angle of Jian Xi Xin Jiu, a bunch of knights were retreating, as if the large group of people from Liu Tian were afraid of Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi. They were puzzled and asked: " What's going on? Why are they retreating? "

A low laugh came from the side, and someone responded: " Because the brain is not good. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu turned around and found that a mage had come to his side out of nowhere. He didn't recognize him and asked curiously, " Who are you? "

The man said: " Oh, I am from the Damn Jianghu. I am late . I can't get in now, right? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu immediately showed a defensive expression and said, " You can't get in. This is a round-robin match. You can't get in the next round either! "

The man said " Oh " and didn't seem to care at all that he couldn't take part in the war.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu looked at him for a while and found that although this man was not very conspicuous, his equipment was top-notch and he did not look like an unknown person. He could not help but ask: " Who are you from Tama Jianghu? Do I know you? The gathering point of Tama Jianghu is across the street. It's a bit strange for you to stand here. "

" I think you should know me, " the man looked at Jian Xi Xin Jiu, smiled, and said, " I'm Xu Chu. It's too troublesome to go around. I want to wait until they finish fighting and then go straight through the middle. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu took a breath and stepped aside. He didn't expect that this person was Xu Chu, the legendary RMB player who supported the Tama Jianghu ... RMB players can't be so late ! The first game is already over! Aren't you the deputy gang leader of Tama Jianghu!

Jian Xi Xin Jiu thought with some trepidation, if this man bribed him with several million to let him go, should he agree or not? It is said that the local tyrants should have good equipment, and the vegetables should be vegetables, right? It should be no problem to let him in?

However, Jian Xi Xin Jiu thought too much. Xu Chu did not intend to leave. He stood and watched for a while, sighed in distress and said, " There is no way to cure a bad brain. After so long, can't you see that those two people are stalling for time? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu exclaimed, " Ah !" and said, " I can see that Ji Xuanyi is stalling for time, but why are they stalling for time? "

Xu Chu glanced at him and said, " No matter why he wants to delay, just don't let your enemy do what he wants to do. "

This statement does make sense, but for Jianxi Xinjiu, Ji Xuanyi is a friendly member. Since he wants to delay time, he must have his reasons. Jianxi Xinjiu sneakily avoided Xu Chu and asked everyone in the guild channel to be quiet and not to talk, trying to let time pass without any sound.

On the field, Qi Qin supported Ji Xuanyi and stared at Liu Tian and his group across from him. His face was almost frozen, and he whispered, " Has Mi Yin not left yet? "

Ji Xuanyi was also a little annoyed. Mi Yin hadn't sent them a message yet. He couldn't help but take another look at the empty chat bar on the left.

Outside the court, Xu Chu laughed.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu looked at him warily, silently saying in his heart, money is all dung, dung, dung ... However, Xu Chu did not want to bribe him as Jian Xi Xinjiu thought. He just smiled, pulled out the chat bar, and sent a private message to Liu Tian.

Ji Xuanyi on the field was hesitating whether to send a message to Mi Yin under Qi Qin's cover, when he saw Liu Tian on the opposite side suddenly startled and said with a sullen face: " Look back, they-- "

He said half of his words, looked at Ji Xuanyi warily, gave up on them without hesitation, and ran to the field.

Ji Xuanyi was stunned by their reaction for a moment, then he realized something and cursed: " Fuck! How did they find out! They shouldn't have thought of contacting the priest group at this time! "

It was no use saying this now. He and Qi Qin would definitely not be able to catch up with Liu Tian and the others. They had no choice but to leave the venue first and run around in a circle towards the group of priests.

As Ji Xuanyi ran, he sent a message to Mi Yin, asking him why he was so bad! Why hasn't he come out in such a long time?

Mi Yin finally had time to reply to his message and said angrily: " You are the one who forgot about me, okay?! Can you not be so self-righteous? I even saved your life! "

Ji Xuan said: " Don't worry about it now! The Knights of Damn Jianghu are coming back to look for you, quickly hide! "

[Miyin] : Fuck! Why didn't you say so earlier!

[Miyin] : My fucking invisible CD !

Mi Yin was still obsessed with playing hide-and-seek with the priest ladies when he received the news from Ji Xuanyi! He was wondering why it was getting harder and harder to win, because his teleportation and combat invisibility were all used up. Later, he found out that it was because there was no pressure from the treatment at the front, and everyone began to concentrate on dealing with him!

It was already difficult to escape at that time. Mi Yin was almost scratched to death by the priests who were itching with hatred. Fortunately, he managed to use up the teleport CD at the last second and escape. However, because he used invisibility in the battle, the CD of invisibility was not over yet and there were still more than ten seconds left.

I hope the people in the underworld don't discover him so quickly!

Obviously, Mi Yin's prayers could not make Liu Tian and the others blind. The venue was so small, all the damned ones were dead, and the rest were all huddled together. Mi Yin was running around alone, which was too conspicuous. What's more, Liu Tian were riding on horses, standing high and seeing far . He saw Mi Yin almost soon after he turned around, and immediately spurred his horse to chase after him.

Although Mi Yin was an assassin, he couldn't be faster than a horse. His legs were almost leaving afterimages, but he still couldn't stop Liu Tian and the others from getting closer and closer.

Ji Xuanyi and the others also saw Mi Yin from the side. Mi Yin was only about two meters away from the boundary of the venue, and Liu Tian and the others also caught up at this time.

The distance between Mi Yin and the knight running in front was less than one meter. They didn't even need to use any skills. With Mi Yin's current health, he only needed to stab him with a random shot and he would be directly restored to life.

Ji Xuanyi stared at Mi Yin intently. The knight behind him had already raised his spear. If he stabbed it out, Mi Yin would definitely be dead.

The most important point is that at such a close distance, even if Mi Yin is really lucky and manages to run out of the boundary line, the people of Ta Ma Jiang Hu may " lose control for a moment " and fail to stop the car, just like they did to Xiao Xiao Yu Xia, resulting in a tragedy.

In Ji Xuanyi's eyes, time seemed to stand still. He was desperately thinking about any possibility for Mi Yin to escape. However, apart from the fact that one of Mi Yin's two escape skills suddenly worked, and the best one was teleportation, Ji Xuanyi could not think of any other way. I can only pray that Mi Yin's skill CD will be ready soon, otherwise Mi Yin might be really finished this time!

Just before the knight handed over his spear, Mi Yin suddenly bent his waist and rolled forward.

His whole body flashed and twisted and disappeared.

The knight then thrust his spear out, but it hit nothing, nothing happened.

Miyin's stealth CD is finally ready!

Ji Xuanyi suddenly breathed a sigh of relief, his legs actually felt a little weak, and his head leaned back on Qi Qin in a daze.

Qi Qin was originally fine, but when Ji Xuanyi leaned on him, he almost collapsed. He managed to hold on firmly and stood up while holding Ji Xuanyi's shoulders.

Liu Tian on the field had a grim face, unwilling to miss any possibility. He led the remaining knights to walk back and forth near the border line, waving his gun from time to time, trying to knock Mi Yin out before he went out.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu, who was standing outside the arena, was almost scared to death by Mi Yin's extreme invisibility. He was watching Liu Tian and the others' actions with trepidation when he heard Xu Chu beside him shaking his head regretfully and saying, " You're looking in the wrong direction. The assassin, who was forced into this situation, would definitely not consider the border as a safe zone. After taking a breath, his first reaction would definitely be to find his companions. He should go to the other two black-robed men. If we search that side, we'll find them in no time. "

As soon as Xu Chu finished speaking, Jian Xi Xin Jiu saw a figure lying on the ground next to Ji Xuanyi's feet. It was indeed Mi Yin! He actually did exactly as Xu Chu said. He did not choose the border line closer to him, but went towards Ji Xuanyi and the others!

Jian Xi Xinjiu stared at Xu Chu in amazement, but the latter seemed a little bored. He curled the corners of his mouth and walked towards the venue.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was just about to say that latecomers could not enter, but suddenly he remembered that the other party had said that it was closer to the gathering place of Tamaju Jianghu from the middle of the venue, so he reluctantly withdrew his hand that was stretched out to stop the person.

Ji Xuanyi was frightened half to death. After he recovered, he kicked Mi Yin at his feet and cursed: " Fuck! "

Mi Yin yelled, " Fuck! Be gentle! You're so bloody! You forgot to inform me to retreat, and you're right! You're the one who's doing the wrong thing! Fuck you! "

Ji Xuan rolled his eyes and cursed: " Didn't you come out already? "

Mi Yin raised an eyebrow and cursed with a smug smile: " That's because I'm awesome! Extreme operation! Do you understand? "

Ji Xuanyi stopped arguing with him and wanted to pull him up, but he only had five points of strength. It was Qi Qin who helped him up.

The three of them walked around exhausted and headed towards Mengtanggu.

Ji Xuanyi said: " If I had known this would be so troublesome, I would never have bothered with you! "

It's too late to say this now. Ji Xuanyi has already walked halfway through the muddy water and is in the middle. It's the same whether he goes forward or back. It's impossible to fly out of thin air without getting any dirty water.

Of course Miyin also knew this, and said confidently: " Lue Luo Luo. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi regained his composure at this moment, took out his staff and slapped Miyin hard, scaring Miyin's soul out. He was afraid that he would die unjustly in Ji Xuanyi's hands, and screamed: " Bloody skin! Bloody skin, do you understand? "

Ji Xuanyi sneered, but before he could say anything, Mi Yin suddenly stopped, pushed him aside, and pulled Qi Qin who was walking behind him hard, pointing at Xu Chu who was passing by in the middle of the venue and shouted in a low voice: " It's him! It's this person! "

Chapter 69

The first battle was over . Liu Tian counted the losses and his face turned pale.

According to his original idea , after defeating Chen Shi , at most the vanguard knight troops would suffer some losses. If luck is good , most of the losses might be knights without horses , and the main force would not have too many problems.

However, six days after reorganizing the team , it was discovered that the number of people in Tamaijianghu was only half of what it was before.

The mage corps was completely wiped out , only one-third of the archers were left , half of the priests were left , and only half of the swordsmen were left. The ones who suffered the least losses were the knights who were at the front and far away from the rear , but only two-thirds of them were left.

Liu Tian was of course clear about how things turned out like this. Almost all the people in the world combined could barely wipe out twenty or so fully armed knights. All the remaining losses were caused by those three guys in black robes!

Liu Tian was so angry that his teeth were itching , and he thought that after this matter was over , he would catch those three people and send them to the Novice Village for reincarnation!

Xu Chu stood next to Liu Tian , with behind him the knight corps that could barely form a formation. The long-range team in the rear was in a miserable state , but fortunately they were blocked by the knights and could not be seen.

Xu Chu looked a little regretful and said, " I seem to be late. I didn't see anything. "

Liu Tian thought to himself, you still know you are late , we agreed to be online at noon, and it's already fucking afternoon, if you are two hours late, it's time for dinner, okay!

However, Liu Tian did not dare to provoke Xu Chu. After cursing a few words in his heart, he still said, " It's okay. It's the second half now! Just watch us beat the shit out of Mengtanggu! "

Xu Chu glanced at the remaining people behind him and said " Oh " .

Liu Tian's eyes twitched, and he said, " We can still fight even if there are so many people left! After all, the knights are our main force. The three black-robed men from the mortal world have already died. Meng Tanggu will definitely not be able to beat us unless there are three more black-robed men! "

Xu Chu couldn't help but burst out laughing.

Liu Tianzei hated him for this, but he didn't dare to curse him out loud. He frowned and said, " What are you laughing at? "

Xu Chu stopped laughing and said, " Why do you think those three people wore black robes? "

Liu Tian was stunned and asked, " Why? "

Xu Chu glanced at him and said slowly, " Of course, it's to get on the field a second time without revealing my identity. "

" What did you say?!"

Ji Xuanyi and his two companions returned to Mengtanggu's team with great difficulty. After taking off their robes, they felt like they were about to die.

Mi Yin ran to Jian Xi Xin Jiu impatiently and asked, " Where is your priest group? Is there anyone who can give me some help? "

His current health level is really worrying. If it recovers slowly after leaving the battle, it may not be fully restored until the second game starts.

Hearing Mi Yin's words, Jian Xi Xinjiu showed a somewhat embarrassed expression.

Mi Yin was startled and asked suspiciously: " What's wrong? Don't tell me there is no priest in your gang? "

" Yes, yes, " Jian Xi Xin Jiu touched his nose. It would be a shame if they didn't even have a priest for such a big gang. The problem was another aspect: " Although there are priests, I don't know where they are ... How about you go into the team and shout a few times? Someone should pay attention to you. "

Mi Yin was dumbfounded: " What? You don't know where it is? "

Ji Xuanyi's eyes twitched as he said in disbelief, " Forget about the formation. You didn't even form a formation, did you? "

The embarrassment on Jian Xi Xin Jiu's face became more obvious. He coughed twice and said, " Well, although the gang is a collective, it also needs freedom. Although I am the gang leader, I don't have the qualifications ..."

Ji Xuanyi: " Bah! "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu: " ... I'm sorry, this is my first time as a gang leader and my first time fighting a gang war. I really didn't know how to arrange the people! "

He thought that gang warfare was just like a street fight between thugs, all they had to do was charge forward with weapons in hand!

Ji Xuanyi thought desperately that Xiao Xiao Yu Xia had even risked his life for this battle, and was willing to be a stepping stone for the sword to wash the new wine, but he never expected that the person who stepped on it would be so heavy! The stepping stone was fucking stepped into the ground! It was useless!

Ji Xuanyi said quietly, " If Xiaoxiao Yuxia were here and heard what you said, she would probably eat you alive. "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

Jian Xi Xin Jiu also knew that he had let down the team. He felt fine when he first came today, but the more he came, the more he felt something was wrong. Why were the teams of Chen Shi and Daming Jiang Hu so neat? When he found out that they had a formation when fighting, Jian Xi Xin Jiu was stunned. However, he did not dare to show it on his face to dampen the morale. He still looked steady . In fact, he was chatting crazily with the gang members in private, hoping to organize a team.

However, the leader of Jianxi Xinjiu Gang had a different way of running the gang from the other two gangs. Although his gang members were all strong, they obviously did not have the mentality of obedience and cooperation. They just reluctantly formed groups of three or four and looked after each other.

Mi Yin went into the team to look for the priest who was hiding somewhere. Ji Xuanyi sighed and said, " Just make do with it. It's useless to form a formation against so many knights. Xiao Xiao Yuxia also dispersed after the first charge. The individual combat capabilities of your gang are relatively strong, so they can still fight. "

Fortunately, the knight team of Tamajujianghu was just a ragtag group of players, and their formation would be dispersed after a charge. If they were really well-trained, there would basically be no need to fight, and no matter how many Mengtanggu came, they would all be wiped out.

In the current situation, with the cooperation of Ji Xuanyi and the other two, we can still win.

" Oh, by the way, " Jian Xi Xin Jiu suddenly perked up and said happily, " I have good news to tell you! "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Do you have any good news? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said: " Wow, I know I'm a rookie gang leader, but I still completed the mission of watching! There's news! "

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows: " What news? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said mysteriously, " Just now when you were still on the field, I saw Xu Chu, the deputy gang leader of Tama Jianghu! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi looked at him as if he were a fool and said, " We all saw it. "

" Ah? You all saw it? " Jian Xi Xin Jiu said foolishly: " Then you are not happy? "

Ji Xuanyi felt that it was a shame to continue talking, so he turned around and tried to leave with a blank expression. Qi Qin beside him said excitedly, " I'm very happy! "

I can take revenge with justification, so I can't help but feel happy!

Jian Xi Xin Jiu also said excitedly: " Is that so? Xu Chu is the deputy gang leader, and he seems to be the one who makes plans in their gang, but he is late ! He can't participate in the battle!

The fighting power of Dama Jianghu must be greatly reduced! "

Qi Qin: "..."

The smile gradually froze.

Sword Washing New Wine: " What's that expression on your face? "

Qi Qin struggled to say: " Did you remember it wrongly? That's not the case? Why can't latecomers enter? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said, " Of course those who are late cannot enter the arena. The number of people is fixed before the battle begins. Otherwise, if they fight and recruit at the same time, they will definitely get bloodied. By that time, the Wanzhi Gang has not been disbanded, and the three major gangs have become enemies for life! "

Qi Qin said: " I think the other side can be a little unreasonable. Look, the three of us have been on the field twice, why can't the other side squeeze in a deputy gang leader who accidentally arrived late ? "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

It took Jian Xixinjiu a long time to realize what Qi Qin meant. He immediately looked at Qi Qin with the eyes of a traitor and asked warily: " How much money did Xu Chu give you?! "

Qi Qin: "..... ??? "

At this moment, Qi Qin was almost as innocent as Xu Chu!

Ji Xuanyi really couldn't bear to see these two people's loss of intelligence. They were simply so stupid that he let out a click of his tongue, left them behind, and went to look for Mi Yin.

Of course Qi Qin was worried about Ji Xuanyi being alone. Anyway, it was not Jian Xi Xinjiu who had the final say on whether Xu Chu would go up or not. So he abandoned Jian Xi Xinjiu who was confused, and caught up with Ji Xuanyi with his remaining IQ.

Mi Yin found a priest, filled up his own blood and milk, and then squeezed back, intending to meet up with Ji Xuanyi. After he had taken a few steps, he was bumped by someone.

If it were Ji Xuanyi, he would probably get furious, but Mi Yin had a good temper and just looked over, wanting to know if the other party did it on purpose.

The person who bumped into Mi Yin was also an assassin, with the badge of Mengtanggu pinned on his chest, and was looking at Mi Yin with a smile.

Mi Yin was stunned for a moment, and felt that this person looked familiar. And for some reason, she always felt that there was something strange about him, so she had to ask tentatively: " What's the matter? "

The man didn't say anything, just shook his head with a smile and made way.

Mi Yin took two steps forward hesitantly , then turned back and asked, " Have I met you before? "

But he has a very good memory. If it is someone he has seen before, he will definitely remember where and why he met him, unless the other person is just a passerby who happened to pass by. But if it is a passerby, he should have no impression of him at all. How could he have a vague sense of familiarity?

The man still just smiled and didn't answer.

Mi Yin frowned and was about to ask something else when Ji Xuanyi came over, called him and said, " Mi Yin, are you not done yet? "

Mi Yin turned around and responded: " It's done. Wait a minute, I met someone here—— "

Mi Yin said this and turned her head back to see that the man had disappeared.

Ji Xuanyi came over and asked, " Who is it? "

Mi Yin frowned: " I don't know either. He looks familiar to me, but I can't remember where I've seen him before. "

Mi Yin has a good memory. If it is really an important person, she will definitely remember it. Ji Xuanyi knew this, so he felt a little strange and asked, " Where is the person? "

Mi Yin said: " I don't know where he went. I'll turn around soon. "

If you really have nothing to hide, why would you hide away?

Ji Xuanyi felt that there must be something wrong, and said: " From Mengtanggu? Why don't you ask if anyone knows him? "

Mi Yin nodded. Everyone in Mengtanggu was crowded together. Many people should have seen the assassin just now. He asked the people around him, but some said they didn't notice him, and some said they didn't know him.

Mi Yin looked at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi was frowning as he thought about something, when a bystander kindly reminded him, " We are very casual in recruiting people for our gang. The gang leader himself doesn't know all the people, so it's normal that no one recognizes the newcomer. "

Ji Xuanyi had never seen that person in person, and although he believed in Mi Yin's memory, since everyone in Mengtanggu said so, he was a little unsure.

Mi Yin scratched his head and said, " Maybe he was just a unique passerby I met somewhere, so I only remembered a little bit of him? After all, he is from Mengtanggu, so there shouldn't be any problem, right? "

Qi Qin's imagination was opened up: " Didn't Mengtanggu recruit people casually? What if they recruited an undercover agent? "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly, " With Jian Xi Xin Jiu's level, he doesn't even have a formation. Sending an undercover agent really overestimates him. "

This statement is true. If that person is really an undercover, he doesn't have to do anything. After all, Jian Xi Xin Jiu is already so stupid, why would he bother to steal any secrets?

Because he was very confident in Jian Xi Xin Jiu's level, Ji Xuanyi put this matter aside and said, " Mi Yin, once you are done, we can go. Although Meng Tang Gu is in complete chaos, their individual strength is good. We can just find an opportunity to snipe Liu Tian. "

They can return to the resurrection point once every six days. Without a commander, the Tamajujianhu are just a group of well-equipped scattered soldiers, which is at the same level as Mengtanggu in terms of combat awareness. Ji Xuanyi and the others can just do some paddling, watch when the wind is favorable, and help out when the wind is unfavorable.

After being reminded by Xu Chu, Liu Tian on the opposite side also stared at Meng Tanggu's team with wide eyes, trying to identify whether there were any familiar figures among them.

Ji Xuanyi and the other two had no intention of concealing anything. They walked up to the front and discussed tactical coordination with Jian Xi Xinjiu, and were immediately seen by Liu Tian.

Ji Xuanyi and Mi Yin were not exposed, but Qi Qin's height! Don't stand out too much, okay?

Liu Tian pointed at them from afar, gritting his teeth and said to Xu Chu: " Shit! It's really them! The swordsman's weapon is so conspicuous, isn't he going to change it?! "

Xu Chu also saw the three people in front of the Mengtanggu team and couldn't help but blink. Before, Ji Xuanyi and the others were wearing black robes, and he didn't see Qi Qin that night, so he didn't recognize them at first. It was only after Liu Tian reminded him that he realized that they were the people on the second floor of the auction last night.

He knew Mi Yin, and the swordsman looked like a thug. Then Ji Xuanyi mentioned in Jian Xi Xin Jiu should be the leader. He was actually a sorcerer, which was interesting.

Xu Chu touched his chin and looked at the three people opposite him with interest.

Liu Tian angrily opened the chat bar and typed: " Fuck, Chenshi and Mengtanggu are so fucking shameless, how can those three people play repeatedly! "

Xu Chu glanced at him and said, " No? Is there anyone who is repeating the performance? " Six days: " ??? "

Liu Tian looked at Xu Chu in bewilderment and said, " What's wrong with you? Can't you see that these three people are on stage again? You just told me that the three people were trying to repeat themselves! "

Xu Chu said without blinking, " I'm just guessing, but these three people are obviously different from the previous three. "

Six days: "..."

Liu Tian was almost going crazy and asked, " Are your eyes broken?! These three people are obviously the same group as the previous three. How are they different? "

Xu Chu said calmly: " The three people before were wearing black robes, but these three people are not wearing them. "

Six days: " ??????????"

Liu Tian suspected that Xu Chu was beaten stupid on the way here because he was so annoying. How could he lie with his eyes open!

Xu Chu frowned and looked at him, saying, " What's wrong with you? You're just a bit stupid normally, but why are you so stupid today? Did you get kicked in the head by a horse in the last game? "

Xu Chu's disdain could be said to be genuine. Liu Tian also knew that the other party was smarter than him. After being disdainful of him like this, he even wondered for a moment whether he had really recognized the wrong person.

But it was only a moment. After all, he was a man who had been pinned to the ground and beaten by Qi Qin. He didn't have a clear idea of what a guardian looked like. He reacted in a daze. There must be something wrong with Xu Chu's reaction.

But is Xu Chu an undercover agent of the other side? Was he turned against by the other side? No, if Xu Chu was turned against, then there is no point in playing Jianghu! Just disband it!

Liu Tian fell into deep self-doubt, completely unaware that the other side also had a main force who was suspected of being an undercover agent.

It can be said that they are " undercover " to show respect to each other.

Liu Tian glanced at Xu Chu and couldn't help but ask, " What do you mean? "

Xu Chu said slowly, " What I mean is that the other party didn't send the wrong person. There's no need to argue about it. There's no evidence, and you won't get anything out of it. It's a waste of time. "

Liu Tian's eyes twitched and he said, " Aren't weapons evidence? Everyone saw it! "

Xu Chu said quietly: " Can't weapons be lent to others? Has anyone seen it? "

Liu Tianyi choked and said angrily: " If we use the Wanzhi Gang to threaten them, they will not deny their debts! "

Xu Chu shook his head and said, " Although you usually do a lot of stupid things, using this excuse to force them to fight in a round-robin manner was the worst move you made. If you hadn't said that you would cooperate with Wan Zhi before, these three people wouldn't be here now. "

Liu Tian said dissatisfiedly: " Anyway, it's all my fault. You don't have to worry about anything and you don't have to bear any blame! Right?! "

Xu Chu smiled and looked at him.

Liu Tian stopped talking for a moment, fearing that he might annoy the other party, and quickly said, " That's not what I meant. I meant ..."

Xu Chu shook his head and said, " You didn't say anything wrong, but I advise you not to use the excuse of the Wanzhi Gang again, otherwise it won't be like today, where you can just fight a game, drop a level, and be done with it. "

Liu Tian gritted his teeth and said unwillingly, " I understand, but are we going to let those three people go on the field again? What if we lose? "

If I lose, I lose. Xu Chu thought so in his heart, but he was the deputy gang leader after all, so he still had to pretend to be good. He casually said, " Why do you have so little confidence in yourself? "

When Liu Tian heard this, he immediately sneered and said, " I have great confidence in myself! I'm just playing it safe , okay? "

Xu Chu stopped talking.

After a while, Liu Tian said, " Hey, there are three more people on the other side now. Do you want to come and help? They probably won't say anything to you. "

Xu Chu glanced at Liu Tian.

Liu Tian said to him, " All the mages on our side are dead, and there are very few ranged ones . Anyway, you have good equipment, so it's better to fight casually than to have no one at all. "

Xu Chu didn't have much time to play the game. When he leveled up, all the thugs in the world would gather together to kill monsters for him. He would sit on a recliner on the side, eating and drinking. As for fighting, he had never participated in it. Although he was confident in his IQ, he felt that his fighting ability was just average.

Do you want to go on stage?

Xu Chu hesitated for a moment. He felt that if he chose to go on stage, he would have a bad feeling. It seemed that something he didn't want to encounter would happen ...

After hesitating for a moment, the desire to survive prevailed, and Xu Chu shook his head and said, " Forget it, I won't go. Go for it, you guys. "

Liu Tian responded with some regret.

Whether from the perspective of combat effectiveness or personal psychology, Liu Tian actually wanted Xu Chu to play.

I want to see Xu Chu get beaten up.

Very much!

Ji Xuanyi went to Jian Xi Xinjiu to discuss the six-day sniping plan. When they were almost done, they received a message saying that they could start.

After entering the venue, Ji Xuanyi stood behind Jian Xi Xin Jiu and said, " Are you not very strict in recruiting people? I heard that some people don't know each other? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said: " Hey! How can we know each other right after joining the gang? We just get to know each other while playing together. In most cases, you know me and I know him. We can recognize each other by shouting in the gang channel. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Does no one recognize the newcomers? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said: " Of course not, the person who recruited the person knows him, so he must remember his ID . But why are you asking this? "

Before Ji Xuanyi could say anything, the battle had already begun, and the Knights of Tamajanghu once again rushed towards them aggressively.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu grinned, and the horse under him raised its front hooves high: " I have been wanting to fight with the opponent for a long time! The majority of professions in our guild are knights! Oh, it's a good thing that I didn't train a knight group, otherwise a wave of hedging – no more words, let's get started! "

Jian Xixinjiu was about to rush forward when Ji Xuanyi shouted, " There's someone in your gang who looks a bit strange, he seems to be a newcomer! "

It was not known whether Jian Xi Xin Jiu heard it or not, as he had already run alone towards Liu Tian who was in the front. After a while, Ji Xuanyi received the other party's secret message.

[剑洗新酒] : It must be an illusion. When the stalemate just now came, our gang stopped accepting new members. We were afraid of trouble and didn't notify the people below.

Ji Xuanyi was stunned.

Even if we push it to the time when the guild system was just launched, it should have been almost half a month when the three major guilds were deadlocked. There were no new members in such a long time, so how could there be so many old players in Mengtanggu who didn't know him? Or was it really just a coincidence that they didn't ask anyone who knew that person?

Ji Xuanyi did not have time to think too much as the two sides had already made contact. Unlike in the mortal world, most of the players in Mengtanggu avoided the first wave of charge from Tamajanghu. Of course, there were also some who dodged in the same direction as their companions and bumped into each other, stepped on each other's feet, and were accidentally taken away, but they were only a minority.

After a wave of charges, the formation of Tamajianghu became scattered, and the players of Mengtanggu rushed forward like hungry tigers and fought with the lone Tamajianghu knights. Ji Xuanyi and his two companions' target is Liu Tian. As the commander and gang leader, he is always surrounded by seven or eight well-equipped knights protecting him. They may not win if they fight him, but it is easy for them to run away. It is not so easy to send him back to the resurrection point.

Jianxi Xinjiu had a horse with the strongest mobility. After dodging the charge, he charged towards Liutian without hesitation . Liutian knew that he could not beat Jianxi Xinjiu, so he immediately stepped aside and let the two knights protecting his flanks fight against Jianxi Xinjiu. Ji Xuanyi and the other two seized the opportunity and rushed forward! Qi Qin took advantage of Liu Tian's unpreparedness when he was dodging the sword and washed the new wine, and knocked him off his horse with a heavy blow. Before the other knights could cover him, Ji Xuanyi raised his hand and paralyzed Liu Tian on the spot. Mi Yin had already teleported behind Liu Tian and waited. With a grin, he raised his hand and activated the skill Steal Kill . At the same time, he showed up.

Ji Xuanyi knew Mi Yin's techniques . If he carried out an assassination under such circumstances, Liu Tian would be dead for sure.

Just when Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to see whether Mi Yin succeeded and was about to turn around to help Qi Qin deal with the remaining knights, he discovered that Mi Yin was not the only one behind Liu Tian.

To be precise, another assassin appeared behind Mi Yin.

The assassin had a creepy smile on his face. He raised the dagger in his hand high and stabbed towards Mi Yin's back!

Ji Xuanyi's pupils suddenly shrank, and he shouted: " Mi Yin! Behind me! "

However, the assassin was very fast, and when Ji Xuanyi shouted, his attack had already landed on Mi Yin! Mi Yin's combat reflex made him turn around immediately and stab the assassin back!

However, the assassin was a master. He predicted Mi Yin's movements in an instant. Before Mi Yin's dagger could touch him, he teleported to Mi Yin's front and swung the dagger quickly without hesitation, attacking five or six times in a row.

Although it was a frontal attack with no back-attack bonus, Mi Yin was just a fragile assassin after all. Ji Xuanyi only had time to give him a useless blessing before his health bar was reduced to the bottom and he turned into a streak of white light and flew back to the resurrection point.

Before Mi Yin's health bar reached the bottom, the assassin laughed in his ear and said, " Awesome, Boss Mi Yin. Didn't you have a great time chasing me last time? Why did you die this time? Hehehe! "

Mi Yin's eyes widened and she instantly recognized the man's identity. However, before she could warn Ji Xuanyi, she had no choice but to return to the resurrection point.

Jian Xi Xinjiu was busy with the knights and had no idea what was going on. However, Qi Qin saw Mi Yin being attacked and was shocked. He immediately shook off the knights and ran to Ji Xuanyi.

Qi Qin's actions were correct. After killing Mi Yin, the assassin was put on CD by Ji Xuanyi at the moment of invisibility . The effect of forced invisibility during the battle was reduced from two seconds to less than one second, but his speed allowed him to easily approach Ji Xuanyi. When he was about to kill Ji Xuanyi again, Qi Qin arrived, blocked his attack with his guard, and with a wave of his hand, knocked him away.

Qi Qin protected Ji Xuanyi and asked nervously: " Are you okay? "

 " It's okay. " Ji Xuanyi replied casually, looking up at the assassin angrily.

After being knocked out by Qi Qin, the assassin rolled on the ground. Realizing that he was no match for Qi Qin, he looked at Qi Qin hatefully, then ran quickly into the crowd and disappeared. Ji Xuanyi's chat bar flashed, and only then did he receive Mi Yin's private message.

[Miyin] : The one who attacked me was the one I met at the Mengtanggu gathering point before! I remembered, he was that bastard! The last time I met him, he had half of his face covered, and I only remembered his eyes, so I felt that he looked familiar, but I couldn't remember where he was no matter what!

[Miyin] : Ahhhhhh, I'm so angry! I should have recognized it! The Mengtanggu badge on him is thinner than other people's badges! It must be fake! Why didn't I recognize it!

[Miyin] : I've dropped to level 42, and I have lost all my skills! Xuan Xiaoyi! Help me get revenge!!!

Ji Xuanyi had never expected that the man was actually the leader of the Wanzhi Gang, Wan Ge Nai Zhi, whom they had tried so hard to deal with! How could that man appear here? Did the Daming Jianghu really form an alliance with Wan Zhi? The so-called round-robin duel was just a cover, and they were actually planning to catch them all in one fell swoop? !

That's not right! If that was really the case, regardless of whether Liu Tian's acting skills were up to par, he believed that Wan Ge Naizhi would definitely not be a person with concerns. Why would they go to the trouble of fighting in the wild? They must have started the battle directly in the city!

What on earth is going on?!

Liu Tian had been standing still, and had no idea what was happening behind him. He also didn't see clearly what Wan Ge Naizhi did afterwards. He only knew that Ji Xuanyi's attempt to finish him off after he controlled him failed for some reason. As soon as he came out of the paralyzed state, he immediately climbed back onto his horse in a hurry, as if he had escaped from death.

Qi Qin giving up the attack was a good thing for the knights. The knights around Liu Tian immediately returned to his side. Ji Xuanyi took a step forward, suppressed his anger, and asked loudly: " Didn't Damn Jianghu say that he would not cooperate with Wan Zhi?! Liu Tian, what did you do? "

Liu Tian was stunned and almost didn't react. He thought to himself, I haven't even told you guys about repeating the game yet, but now you're spitting blood at me. He immediately shouted angrily: " What did I do?! What Wanzhi Gang! Didn't I use this excuse to scare you guys before? What nonsense are you talking about?! "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and asked, " You didn't cooperate with the Wanzhi Gang? "

" No! I'm fucking crazy! I'm working with that kind of gang! " Liu Tian just finished cursing, and suddenly froze, and said: " Why are you asking me this suddenly? "

Ji Xuanyi said with an unpleasant expression: " Wan Ge Naizhi just appeared behind you and killed Mi Yin . Someone leaked the news of the war between the three major gangs! "

Liu Tian's eyes almost popped out of his head: " What did you say?! "

" Wan Gezhi took such a big risk to appear here, he definitely didn't do it just to kill Mi Yin to vent his anger. If he wanted to sneak attack Mi Yin, there would be too many opportunities. No, no ... He did n't want to kill Mi Yin ..." Ji Xuanyi muttered for a long time, and suddenly thought of something, his face turned pale: " If he didn't know the strength of Tianxia, then he killed Mi Yin just to kill someone he felt was a threat! He has another step! "

Liu Tian was shocked and shouted: " What do you mean! "

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyes to look at him and said in a deep voice: " If I'm not mistaken, you want to wipe out the three major gangs here! "

Ji Xuanyi's guess was really scary, and Liu Tian had never really seen Wan'er's grandmother, so of course he couldn't recognize whether the person who appeared just now was him. Just before he didn't know whether to believe Ji Xuanyi, a large group of assassins suddenly appeared out of thin air on the battlefield within his sight. The group of assassins broke out of their invisible state and attacked the people from Mengtanggu and Tamajui indiscriminately. Many people had been ambushed in the stalemate battle and turned into white light and flew away.

Even though he was not sure just now, Liu Tian now understood that what Ji Xuanyi said was true, and immediately shouted: " Stop! Stop!!! The Wanzhi Gang is attacking us! "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was close to the scene and heard Liu Tian's words first, but he did not react to what they meant. He thought it was a way for Tamaju Jianghu to distract him, so he did not stop. However, in fact, most of the Mengtanggu players who heard this sentence had the same reaction. Although the people of Tamaju Jianghu knew that what Liu Tian shouted was not a trap, they could not stop fighting because of the attack from Mengtanggu.

Ji Xuanyi whispered, " He saw this clearly. At the final moment that determines success or failure, no matter which side says this, it will be regarded as a deception. The chaos caused by the battle cannot be stopped so easily. "

Qi Qin also realized what had happened from Ji Xuanyi's conversation with Liu Tian, and immediately shouted, " Sword Washing New Wine! Stop! The Wanzhi Gang is attacking us! " Although he had joked before whether Qi Qin had accepted Xu Chu's money, Qi Qin's words were definitely more credible than Liu Tian's. Jian Xi Xin Jiu stopped immediately and found that the two knights who had been fighting with him did not attack him after he stopped. He immediately realized that Liu Tian was telling the truth.

There was no time to react. Jianxi Xinjiu and Liutian opened the chat panel almost at the same time and notified the ceasefire in the guild channel.

However, before they could even send their words out, they and Ji Xuanyi received a secret message from the resurrection point.

Everyone at the resurrection point dropped a level, and most of them lost their new level 43 skills, causing their combat effectiveness to be damaged. The large force of the Wanzhi Gang took this opportunity to block everyone inside the resurrection point!

Ji Xuanyi's guess was correct, the Wanzhi Gang was indeed planning to wipe out the three major gangs in one fell swoop!

They received news that the three major gangs would arrange a battle outside the city, and they also knew that the nearest resurrection point was more than an hour away from the battlefield. They even knew the detailed rules that participants could not rejoin after death.

So they deliberately started the second battle. Chenshi was almost wiped out, Tamajhu was seriously injured, and Mengtanggu was eager to win, so they intervened when everything was in chaos.

Because dead players cannot come back, some players will disperse immediately after returning to the resurrection point. Only a small number of gang diehards will stay at the resurrection point. Although the quality of the members of the Wanzhi Gang itself is uneven, it is still enough to defeat those players who stay at the resurrection point, have lost their skills after dying once, and have no command over a group of scattered players!

The main force blocked those who had died once at the resurrection point, while the second force with a smaller number of people took advantage of the chaotic battlefield to collect heads. To be on the safe side, Wan Ge Naizhi even went on the battlefield personally and sent Mi Yin, who might be a hidden danger, back to the resurrection point.

If Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin had not been present, by the time the people on the battlefield realized that something was wrong and that there were other enemies , more than half of them would have been killed or injured in the fighting, and there would be no way to save the situation. The people at the resurrection point would have been almost all dead and returned to level 20 or 30. Even if the three major gangs wanted to mobilize the people who had been dispersed before at this time, it would be too late!

According to Wan Ge Naizhi's idea, the three major gangs at this time were basically powerless to resist. It would only take him a week to completely wipe out the power of the three major gangs in Fanxing City!

The one who will eventually occupy the Star City is their Wanzhi Gang!

Unfortunately, this was just his idea.

Because before the first battle began, the three gangs had to take roll calls, including the one he planned to infiltrate, Meng Tanggu, who recruited the most chaotic people.

So he kept hiding in the dark and spying on Meng Tanggu's team looking for an opportunity. It was not until the end of the first battle that he hid himself and squeezed into the team without anyone noticing.

Little did he know that it was because he missed the first battle that he missed out on two of the most important pieces of information.

One is that the person who posed the greatest threat to them on the field was not Mi Yin, but Qi Qin who suddenly appeared.

The second is that the commander of the mortal world, Xiaoxiao Yuxia, also returned to the resurrection point.

The battle between Meng Tanggu and Tamajanggu on the field had stopped due to the emergency notice from the two gang leaders. Many players who had been stabbing each other before stood back to back, guarding against possible assassins from the Wanzhi Gang.

At the resurrection point, Xiaoxiao Yuxia's fussy and agitating personality not only made him stay at the resurrection point, but also kept all the mortal players and most of the players from Mengtanggu and Tamaijianghu who had returned to the resurrection point.

Now in the resurrection point, there is not only a group of disorganized and confused players, but a huge team that is still alive and can fight!

Ji Xuanyi looked down at his chat channel.

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : Hahahaha, I was planning to keep the gang members here for a meeting, to stir up some emotions, so that even if we lose, they will be reluctant to leave this world! By the way, I also wanted to pull a few people from Mengtanggu and Tamaijianghu over! I didn't expect to be so lucky!

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help laughing: " With so many people in Wanzhi, can they hold on? "

After a while, Xiaoxiao Yuxia sent a message.

[Rain falls] : Steady !

Chapter 70

Many people on the field returned to the resurrection point because of the first wave of sneak attacks by the Wanzhi Gang . After quickly reacting , the members of Tamajhu and Mengtanggu immediately united and began to counterattack Wanzhi's sneak attacks.

Fortunately, Wanzhi is less particular about recruiting people than Mengtanggu . Not only do the people who join the gang have bad character, but their strength also varies a lot . They are simply a bunch of rabble . In addition, because of the needs of the operation , Wan's grandmother branch only brought single-professional assassin players , and their strength is even more watered down . They are okay at sneak attacks , but rarely have a chance of winning in head-on combat . After Mengtanggu and Tamajanggu lost manpower in the first wave , they quickly stabilized the chaotic situation.

All the people from the Wanzhi Gang are assassins . The most disgusting thing about the assassin profession is that even if he can't kill you, it is difficult for you to find a chance to kill him . Almost all of their skills can be used to escape.

After clearing out a wave of relatively weak assassins, the remaining people were more or less powerful . Although Meng Tanggu and Tamajanghu did not have as many people as they had because of the priest , the high mobility and high concealment of the Wanzhi Gang also made them difficult to kill , and the two sides were deadlocked for a while.

Liu Tian and his knights did not stand back to back like the other players . Assassins did not pose much of a threat to the knights on horseback. It was not just a matter of speed , but their preferred attack direction happened to be the direction that the knights' most powerful skills could defend against . Furthermore, it was difficult for assassins to reach the knights on horseback .

Liu Tian asked his men to disperse and help those players whose configurations made it difficult for them to resist the assassin profession, but he himself frowned and ran out of the field without saying a word.

In this situation, Jian Xi Xinjiu was about to find him to discuss what to do next, but when he saw the other party riding away, he had no choice but to ride his horse and walk to Ji Xuanyi's side, helping Qi Qin block the empty space on the other side of Ji Xuanyi.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu complained: " What is this guy doing? I just stopped a little late, but now it's already so late, why is he still throwing a tantrum? "

" He's not in a bad mood, " Ji Xuanyi said, " There's another person who was left alone outside the venue. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was stunned, and immediately remembered that Xu Chu, the deputy leader and the biggest local tyrant of Tamama Jianghu, had been staying alone on the sidelines since the war started!

No wonder Liu Tian was so anxious. If Xu Chu died like this, he would be unhappy and feel that Jianghu was useless. He would kick them away and Liu Tian would no longer be the gang leader.

But that was Liu Tian's own business, and Ji Xuanyi didn't care much about it.

The danger on the battlefield should be gone now, but Ji Xuanyi didn't know the situation at the resurrection point. While the situation was still stable , Ji Xuanyi opened the chat bar and sent a message to Xiao Xiao Yuxia: " We have held our ground, so we shouldn't lose too many people. What's the situation on your side? "

It took a long time for Xiaoxiao to find time to reply.

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : Not bad!

In fact, the situation at the resurrection point was not as good as imagined. Although there were nearly two hundred players, they were from different guilds after all, and it took a lot of effort to appease them under the rain.

Apart from their bad behavior, the most famous thing about the Wanzhi Gang is probably their number. Wanzhi brought nearly a hundred people to the battlefield, and there were more than two hundred people surrounding the resurrection point, most of them were archers and assassins, followed by priests, and other professions were only scattered among them.

One side is a mixed bag , the other side is difficult to command, and when the two sides face off, it is hard to say who will win.

The location of the resurrection point was not empty, and there was no problem of clipping through the model. Four hundred people were crowded in it, and the people who were handing out water next to the resurrection point were squeezed against the wall.

In addition to commanding the players of Chensi in the guild channel, Xiaoxiao Yuxia could only yell at the players of Mengtanggu and Tamajianghu. Although the players of Chensi, who had the largest number of players, were very cooperative and as quiet as chickens, the shouting and cursing of the Wanzhi Gang also made the scene chaotic. Xiaoxiao Yuxia almost suffocated from shouting.

After finally organizing a resistance formation, the Wanzhi Gang also launched an offensive. Due to space issues, the assassin has no way to insert into the resurrection point to attack, so the opponent has to let all the archers and sporadic mages carry out long-range attacks on the players at the resurrection point.

At this time we have to thank Mi Yin. He sent half of the priest group from Tamajianghu to the resurrection point, which came in handy at this moment. Together with the priests from Chensi and Mengtanggu, they managed to withstand this wave with their healing power. However, there were also some squishy players among them who almost dropped another level. Xiaoxiao Yuxia knew that level was the combat effectiveness now, and was afraid that they would fall out of level 40, so he quickly asked the squishy players to move back.

However, before the formation was completely changed, another wave of people appeared at the resurrection point.

The first wave of people that appeared before the resurrection point were the players from Mengtanggu and Tamajianghu who were ambushed by the Wanzhi Gang. After that, the people from the Wanzhi Gang immediately appeared and started the attack. However, the other group of people that appeared now were the rookie assassins who were sent back from the battlefield of the Wanzhi Gang.

Of course, Wan Ge Naizhi knew the level of his men, and he also knew that even in the chaos, there would be assassins who would be sent back to the resurrection point, which was also part of his plan.

Even if the players at the resurrection point managed to barely form a team in a critical moment, the assassins from the Wanzhi Gang who suddenly appeared at the resurrection point behind them could help the Wanzhi Gang's large force quickly break up the fragile alliance of the players at the resurrection point.

But what he didn't expect was that Xiaoxiao Yuxia, this lunatic, actually left two hundred people at the resurrection point just by talking!

After dropping a level, the invisibility was definitely gone. When those assassins returned to the resurrection point, their first reaction was to teleport. However, before they could even raise their hands, they were squeezed like a sardine can by the team led by Xiao Xiao Yuxia. They couldn't even move, let alone cooperate with the troops in front to attack.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was a swordsman, standing at the front, and he didn't even know that a wave of cans suddenly appeared behind him ... bah, a wave of assassins. It was the worldly players behind him who told him about it in the guild channel.

After knowing the number of those assassins, Xiaoxiao Yuxia immediately realized that the situation on Ji Xuanyi's side must be stable , and he immediately ordered everyone to concentrate on resisting the pressure in front, and the ranged DPS should focus their output on the Wanzhi personnel in the resurrection point to deal with those assassins first!

The assassins were squeezed and unable to move. They were all weak and fragile. How could they resist the attacks of so many players? For a moment, the resurrection point was filled with white light. The Wanzhi Gang assassins trapped in it were often killed just after they opened their eyes and immediately lost another level. There was nothing they could do. After they were resurrected, their health could not be fully restored. They were also squeezed against the wall! The props used to restore the health of the players at the resurrection point were scattered all over the floor. There was no dignity at all!

This rate of level dropping is really unbearable. After all, everyone has worked hard to train from the Novice Village, and every level has its own pains.

Some players of the Wanzhi Gang logged off immediately when they saw that the situation was not good. Others were slow to react and were reincarnated twenty levels before they could even log off. They screamed and wanted to fight with the players in the resurrection point, but were grabbed by the players with their hands, legs, and hair, and thrown out of the crowd like goods on an assembly line. After returning to the space occupied by the Wanzhi Gang, they were still despised.

The entire resurrection point was in chaos, but the only thing that was known was that the Wanzhi Gang's plan to kill all the people from the three major gangs would never be realized.

Of course, Wan Ge Naizhi, who was on the battlefield far outside the city, also received the news from his subordinates. He did not expect that the originally perfect plan would have such a big flaw. His face suddenly turned pale, and he looked crazy.

It's no wonder that he would go crazy. If the plan to sneak attack the three major gangs fails, what he will face is a counterattack launched by the three major gangs. Even if the Wanzhi Gang has no stronghold and its members are scattered throughout the entire Fanxing City, with the combined manpower of the three major gangs, they can use a carpet search to catch all the members of the Wanzhi Gang and make sure that there will be no Wanzhi gang in Fanxing City anymore.

And now this barely maintained stalemate will be ruthlessly broken when all the men from the three major gangs who have not yet come online are summoned. It can be said that the Wanzhi Gang is almost finished.

Wan Ge Naizhi has never appeared on the battlefield. After leaving the battle, he has remained invisible.

He is strong enough to send Mi Yin back to the resurrection point directly after a successful sneak attack. Facing those ordinary Mengtanggu and Tamajujianghu players, he is also equivalent to a killing weapon. Most of the defenses are useless to him, but he did not go to harvest the heads of those players, but hid in the dark.

Ji Xuanyi knew that a man like Wan Ge Naizhi would never be afraid of death. There were only two possibilities for his not showing up. One was that he wanted to preserve his strength, and the other was for greater gains.

Ji Xuanyi prefers the latter.

Since Wan Ge Naizhi was able to take the lead and attack Mi Yin in the chaos, he positioned himself to deal with masters and would not risk exposing himself because of other ordinary players. His target must be Liu Tian, Jian Xi Xin Jiu – and now it also includes Ji Xuanyi, Qi Qin, Xu Chu and others.

Ji Xuanyi felt that his current situation should be relatively safe. No matter whether it was Qi Qin or Jian Xi Xinjiu, Wan Ge Naizhi would have a hard time against any of them. The best person to attack now should be Xu Chu, and also Liu Tian, who was a knight but had average strength and was alone.

Ji Xuanyi looked at Jian Xixinjiu and said, " Let's chat in secret for six days. What's going on with him? "

The place where Xu Chu was standing was at the gathering point of Tamajyuhu on the other side. It was a bit far from here and he couldn't see what was going on at all.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu also knew that now was not the time to worry about gang disputes, so he quickly sent a private message to Liu Tian. After a while, Liu Tian replied that he had received a call from Xu Chu, and did not meet Wan Ge Naizhi.

Someone from the Wanzhi Gang did see Xu Chu outside the venue, and because the opponent's equipment looked very valuable, they got an occupational disease and attacked him. However, although Xu Chu's strength was not that great, his equipment was really good. When the assassin slashed at him, Xu Chu didn't lose much blood. He just took the damage and killed the assassin while standing.

Liu Tian met Xu Chu halfway, who was running towards the center of the battlefield with his short legs. His speed was really slow, and almost all of his equipment attributes increased health and damage.

Xu Chu seemed quite happy about Wanzhi's sneak attack. Liu Tian almost thought that he was the one who leaked the news to the Wanzhi Gang. But think about it, if a rich man like Xu Chu entered Wanzhi, he would be like a sheep walking into a tiger's mouth. He would definitely be stripped of his pants by those people in the Wanzhi Gang. Unless Xu Chu was crazy, he would not cooperate with the Wanzhi Gang.

In fact, this is indeed the case. Xu Chu is very innocent. He has not colluded with Wanzhi, nor has he surrendered to the enemy Mengtanggu. He also did not expect that the Wanzhi gang would suddenly show up and want to " mediate the fight " . The reason why he was so excited was simply because he wanted to watch the fun. In Liutian's opinion, he really had a very annoying character.

If Xu Chu wasn't a rich man, he would be beaten up if he walked on the street. Liu Tian's horse could just carry one more person, so he carried Xu Chu directly back to the battlefield. After the two gangs joined forces, the balance had gradually tilted, and the people of the Wanzhi Gang could not hold on for long. This situation was really strange. Ji Xuanyi didn't believe that Wan Ge Naizhi had planned for so long, mobilized so many people, and had such a big goal, so she would just give up like that? Xu Chu had the same idea, but he was much more relaxed than Ji Xuanyi. Compared to Ji Xuanyi, who was more focused on how to deal with Wan Ge Naizhi's follow-up move, he was more curious about what Wan Ge Naizhi would do next.

But there was no rush for this kind of thing. Xu Chu jumped off Liu Tian's horse, slowly walked towards Ji Xuanyi, and said with a smile: "I know your name, Ji Xuanyi, right? What are the three characters? Let's add each other as friends? "

Qi Qin: "..."

Qi Qin was about to lose control of his Qilin Arm! The guardian in his hand was ready to move! Jian Xi Xinjiu, who had suffered Qi Qin's revenge head-on, could see through Qi Qin's restraint at a glance. Just as he was about to say something to ease the tense atmosphere, he saw Qi Qin suddenly raise his guard and swung it towards Xu Chu!

Sword washing new wine: "=□= !!!"

Please at least hold on until you crush the Wanzhi Gang to death!!!

However, before Jian Xi Xin Jiu could even shout out this sentence, he saw Ji Xuanyi also raised his staff towards Xu Chu at the same time.

Jian Xi Xinjiu looked at Ji Xuanyi in horror, not knowing whether he really doted on Qi Qin so much or was just so ruthless towards his suitors!

Although Xu Chu was not Ji Xuanyi's pursuer.

Before Liu Tian made any move, Jian Xi Xin Jiu stretched out his gun first, subconsciously trying to block the attack of the two men. After all, for now, the alliance between Tamaju Jianghu and the other two gangs could not have internal strife.

However, before his spear could block Ji Xuanyi's staff, Qi Qin's sword had already swept past Xu Chu's face, and a figure emerged from the air behind Xu Chu.

At the same time, Ji Xuanyi's CD- added skill also hit the figure. Just when Ji Xuanyi wanted to add a five-second paralysis and cooperate with Qi Qin to send the man back to the resurrection point, Jian Xi Xinjiu's gun was too late to be retracted, and his staff was knocked off track. With just this one second left, the figure used his speed to quickly distance himself from them.

Qi Qin didn't dare to leave Ji Xuanyi behind to chase after that person, so he stood at a safe distance. It was none other than Wanzhi Gang's leader, Wan Ge Naizhi!

Even though he was clearly defeated and had just barely escaped, this person still had a smile on his face and praised: "Sword washing new wine? Great marksmanship, great cooperation, thank you!"

Jian Xixinjiu's face turned red with anger, and he couldn't help but look at Ji Xuanyi, stammering, "Well, I'm sorry, I'm a wimp."

He really didn't notice that there was someone behind Xu Chu, and seeing Qi Qin's fierce expression, he actually thought he was going for Xu Chu.

Thinking of this, he glanced at the motionless Liu Tian again and wondered why this man was not moving at all. Even if he showed a little nervousness, it would make his mistake not seem so embarrassing!

In fact, Liu Tian didn't find Wan's milk branch. He didn't try to stop Qi Qin, just because he also wanted to see Xu Chu being beaten up ...

Although Qi Qin was aiming for Wan's breast, he really wanted to smash Xu Chu's head the moment he swung the Guardian over. However, considering the overall situation, he had to hold back.

At this moment, Qi Qin was comforting himself in his heart. Xu Chu was a mage, and he couldn't get very far at this speed. He would still have enough time to deal with the Wanzhi Gang.

Ji Xuanyi, whose offensive rhythm was disrupted, had no time to get angry. He just said to Wan Ge Nai Zhi expressionlessly: " You have already lost. Gangs like the Wan Zhi Gang should not exist in the first place. Give up. "

“ He won't give up. ”

Before Wan Ge Nai Zhi could answer, Xu Chu had already answered for him. He was frightened by Qi Qin's murderous aura just now, and now he was finally a little further away from Ji Xuan. He looked at Qi Qin up and down with a strange look, and then turned to Ji Xuan and said: " Can't you see the character of this guy? Even if the fight is to the death and the Wan Zhi Gang is completely scrapped, he will not give up. "

Ji Xuanyi could of course see that Wan Ge Naizhi was the kind of person who would do anything to harm others, even if it meant harming himself. He was not afraid of failure, but was only afraid that the world would not be in chaos. Otherwise, he would not have established a gang like Wan Zhi.

He said that before just because he hoped that his grandmother could be a little more normal. He didn't know what other tricks the man in front of him had. What if it was a self-destruct skill or something else? Wouldn't that be the end of him?

The smile on Wan Ge Nai Zhi's face suddenly disappeared. He looked at Ji Xuanyi quietly and said, " Wan Zhi's gang has indeed lost. My plan was originally perfect, but there was nothing I could do about the loopholes you guys had. I admit this. "

Ji Xuanyi's expression had just eased a little when he saw Wan Ge Nai Zhi suddenly burst into laughter again and said loudly: " The Wan Zhi Gang lost, but I didn't. You guys wait and see my performance! Hehehehe ! "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, and the girl rushed towards him from the front in an instant. This was an assassin after all. Even if the horses of the two knights present were fast, it did not mean that the people on the horses were also fast. In almost an instant, the young man rushed to their vicinity!

Ji Xuanyi immediately made an evasive move, but Wan Ge Naizhi also instantly used the teleportation skill and appeared right in the middle of them.

Xu Chu shouted loudly: " Oh no! He is going to self-destruct! "

The skill of self-destruction has not yet appeared in the game "Domain", but since Xu Chu said this, it proves that he must have seen equipment or materials with such effects. With his financial resources, he might have bought them himself.

At such a close distance, any defensive actions were useless. After everyone subconsciously dodged for a moment, they immediately used their skills towards Wan Ge Naizhi, hoping to kill him before he really exploded.

They actually did it. The milk branch did not self-destruct as Xu Chu said. Instead, it turned into a white light and flew away before that.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was still in shock, and said with a pale face: " Did he say anything before he died? "

Liu Tian also said with an unpleasant expression: " He said ' thank you ' . This isn't some damn villain changing his ways before his death. Why did he say thank you? "

Ji Xuanyi was startled, and suddenly turned back to look in the direction of Star City, and shouted: " Oh no! He is not going to self-destruct! He wants to return to the resurrection point! " Xu Chu also reacted immediately. He was really judging ordinary players by his rich mentality! Not to mention whether Wan Ge Nai Zhi had the channel to get the props with self-destruct function, based on the price he bought the self-destruct props, most players like Wan Ge Nai Zhi could not afford it!

Therefore, the flawed action that Wan Ge Naizhi just made was not to self-destruct, but to use their hands to return to the resurrection point!

But what would Wan Ge Nai Zhi do when he returned to the resurrection point? Would he lead the mob of Wan Zhi Gang to try to crush Xiao Xiao Yu Xia? But he had just admitted that the Wan Zhi Gang had lost, which also proved that the Wan Zhi troops at the resurrection point really couldn't cause any trouble. Ji Xuanyi felt that Wan Ge Nai Zhi's personality would not lie about such a thing.

Ji Xuan couldn't figure it out, but no matter what, he had to contact Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Mi Yin quickly. Even if Wan Ge Naizhi had no backup plan, in order to prevent future troubles, he had to kill the other party completely at the resurrection point!

Ji Xuanyi quickly contacted Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Mi Yin, while Jianxi Xinjiu and Liutian commanded the players of Mengtanggu Tamajianghu, whose battle was about to end, to first transfer some people to Fanxing City for support.

Most of the horses that the knights of Ta Ma Jiang Hu originally used to fight against Meng Tanggu have now become means of transportation. The knights will pull the priest players who contribute the best to the battle onto their horses, so that they can get to the city faster with their short legs. For a while, all kinds of double-riding and girl-carrying postures appeared, and only some knights whose horses were carrying heavy loads were left, running towards the city alone with tears in their eyes.

Ji Xuanyi contacted Xiaoxiao Yuxia and said, " Wang Ge Naizhi has come back to life. It seems that there is a backup plan. What's the situation on your side? "

At the resurrection point, the players led by Xiao Xiao Yuxia had actually begun to push outward gradually. The situation was very good. After receiving Ji Xuanyi's secret chat, Xiao Xiao Yuxia was shocked and immediately sent a message to Mi Yin, asking him about the situation later. Mi Yin was a fragile assassin who couldn't stand in the front, nor could he effectively output in a small space. He had to go to the resurrection point in the back to take over Bai Wanzhi's assassination and maintain order. After receiving the private chat between Xiao Xiaoyuxia and

Ji Xuanyi, he immediately looked around at the resurrection point with wide eyes. After a long time, he wondered: " Didn't I see Wan Ge Naizhi's people? Could he be offline? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia asked again: " Be careful! There are so many people here, don't make mistakes! "

Mi Yin said depressoedly: " Fuck, I will never forget that face of my grandmother in my life, okay? I definitely wasn't wrong, he's just not here. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia had no choice but to report the news back to Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi frowned.

Xu Chu said, " It's easy to find out whether he has logged off the Internet or not. Aren't there people from the Wanzhi Gang here? Just ask them and you'll know. "

It doesn't matter if you don't add the gang members as friends, the online status of the gang members will be displayed in the gang channel.

Liu Tian was very responsive to Xu Chu's normal remarks. He immediately joined several other players in the Daming Jianghu to grab an assassin from the Wanzhi Gang and asked viciously, " Is your gang leader still online? "

It is estimated that there are no backbone people in the Wanzhi Gang except Wan Ge Naizhi himself. When Liu Tian asked, that person immediately said honestly: " Here, here, here! He is online! I didn't mean to come to fight you. The main reason is that if we don't come, he will kill us. We can't do anything! Guys, I was wrong. The Wanzhi Gang has lost. Let me go! "

Liu Tian was too lazy to pay attention to him. After asking him, he sent him back to the resurrection point. After all, this man must have killed someone from Meng Tanggu or Tama Jianghu to survive until now. The fight had already started, so why would he talk about letting him go? It was impossible. The red names were all monsters.

Wan Ge Naizhi did not log off, and no one could be found on Mi Yin's side. The most likely possibility was that Wan Ge Naizhi was actually level 44, and he still retained the invisibility skill after dropping one level. There was still a difference of two or three seconds between Ji Xuan sending the message and him returning to the resurrection point. He should have taken advantage of Mi Yin's inattention at that time and turned invisible as soon as he returned.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and sent another message to Xiao Xiaoyuxia, saying: " Wan Ge Naizhi is not offline, he is at the resurrection point, he should be invisible, he will not give in so easily, he must be causing trouble, you guys should pay attention over there, tell us immediately if there is any situation. "

Not long after Xiaoxiao Yuxia started, she also sent a message.

[Xiaoxiao Yuxia] : Don't worry, we are fine here, and the situation will not change now.

Ji Xuanyi felt relieved and said to the others, " Let's arrange the gang war another day. First, we need to kill the Wanzhi Gang, and then you can fight however you want. "

There is basically no need to worry about the situation on the battlefield. The biggest hidden danger, Wan Ge Naizhi, has now gone to the city. There is no point for Ji Xuanyi and the others to stay here.

Ji Xuanyi walked towards the city and said, " Let's go support the inner city first, and when this is over – what the hell, what is this?! "

Just as Ji Xuanyi took a step forward, the ground suddenly shook slightly. The two people on horseback did not react because they were a bit far from the ground , but the other three looked in the direction of Star City at the same time.

far from the Starry City , but they can still see the high city walls, which prevents them from getting lost on the wild map. But now, in addition to the city walls, they can vaguely see something taller than the city walls moving in the city.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu and Liu Tian both yelled out in shock: " What the hell! What the hell is this! " At this time, Ji Xuanyi also received a private message from Mi Yin and Xiao Xiao Yuxia, and they were using the same word.

“ What the hell!!! ”

Liu Tian shouted, " What's going on? Is this a holographic online game or Ultraman fighting monsters? Why would something so big appear in the city? "

An impossible thought came into Ji Xuanyi's mind. He quickly typed and asked Mi Yin: " What is that monster in the city? Don't tell me it was created by a bitch! "

It took a long time for Mi Yin to send the message, and Ji Xuanyi could imagine how angry the expression on the other person's face was!

[Miyin] : F*ck it!!! It was that bitch who made this flower! What the hell is this big flower! I wasn't paying attention! That bitch suddenly appeared and threw this thing out. It grew this big in just one second! F*ck!

Just as Ji Xuanyi was about to ask in detail, Xiaoxiao Yuxia sent him another message.

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : People in my guild said this thing! This big flower! It's the dungeon boss of Purple Flower City ! Is it a plot boss or a wild boss ? Why did it suddenly appear at the resurrection point of Star City?

The conclusion drawn from the two people's intelligence was simply unbelievable to Ji Xuanyi. How could a little girl summon the evil god boss of Zihua City , and it was so big?! Is this a joke?!

Just like what Ji Xuanyi said at the beginning, there are no protagonists in online games. Apart from those in the settings, every player is just a passerby, doing the same tasks and experiencing exactly the same plot. Even if some people have adventures, they are just data that have been set long ago, and the reward items will not make you surpass players of the same level by much.

But what Wan Ge Naizhi has created now has exceeded this scope. The evil boss from Zihua City should never appear here. At least one player can never influence the development of the entire game, nor does he have the ability to trigger a large-scale game plot that affects the entire main city.

the boss who was supposed to appear in the plot now appears in Starry City.

Ji Xuan's face turned pale and he asked, " What's the situation in the city now? "

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : It's too chaotic!!! That flower appeared from the resurrection point. More than 400 people crowded together here were crushed to death in an instant. I ran slowly and died twice. Now I'm only level 40. Damn! The people who resurrected at the resurrection point are almost piled up into a mountain. Now the monster is moving out. Players and people on the road are all dead. Fortunately, the walls and buildings of Star City are very strong and have not been knocked down!

Ji Xuan was shocked and asked: " What did you say?! He died too?! "

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : Yes! A lot of people died! They haven't refreshed yet, I don't know if they will refresh later!

The fact that Lian died can only prove one thing, that everything they are experiencing is indeed part of the plot!

Ji Xuanyi just wanted to say, this game is too fucking messed up! The game plot is actually handed over to the players! And it's in the hands of a single player! Is he crazy!

Just as Ji Xuanyi thought, not long after this boss appeared, the players of Star City reacted. They went offline one after another, flooded the game forums and official websites, and countless people frantically contacted the game customer service and GM , but they only got one answer.

This is a normal gaming experience. What they are experiencing is the plot that should have happened, but the triggering conditions are different from other online games.

What a fucking normal gaming experience!

The resurrection point where the three major guilds gathered was not far from the entrance to Star City. Many new players were crushed to death by the monster as soon as they entered the city gate!

But since the official has already responded in this way and the attitude is very firm, players can only bite the bullet and climb back into the game besides complaining.

Since it is a plot, it means that if no one intervenes, this boss will continue to exist and the entire Starry City will be destroyed by it sooner or later .

In order to protect their main city, players can only roll up their sleeves and do it themselves! Countless big and small gangs as well as individual people were passing on the news to each other, and players scattered throughout Star City began to rush to the area where the boss appeared.

This is a battle that belongs only to the players of Star City. In the absence of map interconnection, they cannot even expect reinforcements from players of other main cities. They can only gather everyone and fight with all their might!

Xu Chu frowned for the first time. He looked at the still unaware Star City from afar and said in a deep voice, " There is a penalty of losing levels upon death in this game. If everyone's levels drop to the point where they can no longer cause damage to this thing before defeating it ..."

" Starry City is finished, " Ji Xuanyi said, " The good news is that the maps are not interconnected. This monster will most likely disappear after destroying Starry City and all the players in Starry City, leaving us with the ruins of a main city and a group of players who died back to level 20, instead of running out along the main road and ravaging the entire Domain . " Xu Chu's mouth twitched and he said, " I think the authorities are sick. "

" I think so too, " Ji Xuanyi said, then he suddenly sighed and said, " But I have to say that players will be unprecedently united in this situation, and the sense of immersion will be the strongest they have ever experienced in a game. For the officials, it is worth it no matter how much criticism they receive after the incident is over. "

Xu Chu said: " What if things go wrong? What if Star City is really destroyed? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " The authorities will do their best to maintain the middle point between the sense of immersion and the sense of frustration, so there must be a correct way to defeat this monster, it is in the city, and it must be very obvious. As long as we find this method, we will not lose! "

" You're right, " Xu Chu took a deep breath and said, " But even so, this official is so damn bold! "

Ji Xuan smiled and said, " Don't be afraid. After all, this is the only holographic game. Are you afraid that there will be no players? "

Xu Chu wanted to say something else, but Qi Qin, who had been listening to the two people's question and answer and singing in unison, interrupted with a grievance, " I don't understand what the official opinion is, but I still think that Wan's milk branch is too hateful. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was very upset and said, " Now we are not worried about the issue of milk branches. What should we do now? You said there is a correct way to fight monsters. What is it? "

At this time, Ji Xuanyi received a private message from Xiao Xiaoyuxia. The players in the city had organized an orderly resistance. The commanders and gang leaders also added each other as friends and started to exchange information. However, the monster had too much health and the current resistance was minimal. But the good news was that more players were coming, and many players who were not online were called online. Even QQ was attacking the monster. If it kept going like this, there was still hope that the monster could be killed before everyone died and returned to level 20. I just didn't know if the buildings in Fanxing City could be saved.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said that if the official allowed the players to rebuild the Starry City by themselves after it was destroyed, he would definitely send knives to the official!

Logically speaking, the official of this kind of online game should not allow players to build buildings, but this is the official of "Domain" after all, and monsters with the power of nuclear bombs are handed over to the players. It is really hard to say whether the players will be allowed to repair the damage.

The city was barely stable , and Ji Xuanyi was relieved. He said to Jian Xixinjiu, " I don't know what the correct way to fight monsters is, but there is one person ... no, there is one person who must know. "

Qi Qin caught up with the topic this time, his eyes lit up, and he said, " August?! "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu and Liu Tian were not able to react for a moment to who August was. Xu Chu said, " The great magician in the Mage Tower? Doesn't he usually ignore people? Are you sure it will help to ask him? "

Of course it is useful. I went to say hello to him at noon today!

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Under the current circumstances, August will definitely accept the players' requests for help. Starry City is not just the players' Starry City. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said: " Then let's go to the Mage Tower quickly! The boss is still wandering around the outskirts of Star City, so we should still have time! "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " It's too far to walk or ride a horse. I have another way. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was stunned and asked, " What method? "

" Just like that little girl, " Ji Xuanyi said, " She went back to die. "

Chapter 71

Jian Xi Xinjiu was stunned for a moment , opened his mouth to say something, but didn't say anything.

Dying and returning to the resurrection point is indeed the fastest way to move , and now is not the time to worry about losing levels.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu thought for a moment, then immediately dismounted and said, " Let's hurry up. " The five people disbanded their team . Ji Xuanyi looked up at Xu Chu and said, " Add your friends . We will split up later. "

Xu Chu glanced at Qi Qin slowly and smiled at him.

Qi Qin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi also looked at the two of them and said, " Tianxia , I'll leave the task of sending Xuchu and Liutian back to the resurrection point to you. "

" Okay!!! " Qi Qin agreed with great joy and happiness.

Xu Chu: "..."

But soon Qi Qin stopped laughing . Ji Xuan said, " Xu Chu and Liu Tian will be in one group . Didn't you have the Thunderbolt Formation before? Reorganize and go to the front battlefield to provide support. Jian Xi Xin Jiu and I will be in one group . We will go to the Mage Tower to find August. If anything happens, quickly exchange information between the two sides. "

Qi Qin was stunned and said, " What about me? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " You will be in a group by yourself. Both routes require speed. Liu Tian and Jian Xi Xin Jiu both have double horses , which will allow Xu Chu and I to move faster. "

As a swordsman , Qi Qin only has two legs . Even if he is a swordsman with increased speed, it won't change anything ...

Qi Qin was completely depressed. He looked at Jian Xixinjiu weakly and said, " Is it really impossible to carry three people? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was full of black lines on his head: " Boss, this is a horse, not an elephant. When the elephant mount is released in the game, I will definitely carry you two. "

Qi Qin: "..."

Jian Xi Xin Jiu raised his hands and said, " Please rest assured, I will never touch a hair of Ji Xuanyi! "

Ji Xuan couldn't stand it anymore and said, " It's settled. Tianxia, you send Xuchu and Liutian back to the living point. Jianxi Xinjiu, you kill me first, and then Tianxia, you kill Jianxi Xinjiu. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said in horror: " I'm going to kill you? That's not good, right? "

After saying this, he kept glancing at Qi Qin, and the words " I'm afraid of retaliation from this guy " were almost written on his face.

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " Now, immediately, right away. "

Ji Xuanyi's attitude is very clear. If it drags on, he will really let Qi Qin " retaliate " against Jian Xi Xinjiu!

There were wolves in front and tigers behind Jian Xixinjiu, so he had no choice but to raise his spear against Ji Xuanyi.

When Ji Xuan opened his eyes, he found himself at the resurrection point which was in a mess. Compared to the vague shadow seen outside the city, at this place, one can more intuitively feel the size and terrifyingness of this BOSS . Its height is definitely over 100 meters. Ji Xuanyi can see the contrast between it and the city wall of Fanxing City not far away . The city wall that was obviously tall and majestic when he first saw it now looks much shorter.

Fortunately, the BOSS had left the resurrection point and walked a little outside during the time that Ji Xuanyi and the others were figuring out what had happened, so the place where Ji Xuanyi was was still relatively safe. However, many players who were resisting the BOSS turned into white light and appeared at the resurrection point, so the resurrection point seemed a little crowded at the moment.

Ji Xuanyi found Jian Xixinjiu with great difficulty, and squeezed out of the crowd with him to a slightly open place.

However, this slightly empty place probably wouldn't last long. Ji Xuan could see with his naked eyes that on the road leading to the inner city, countless players were rushing towards the boss

Jian Xi Xin Jiu blew a loud whistle, and his white horse immediately ran over from a hidden street – obviously, the distance the horse had traveled from outside the city was very considerably omitted by the system.

Jian Xi Xinjiu mounted his horse and pulled Ji Xuanyi behind him, saying, " Remember to tell the world that I was the one sitting in the front and I didn't take advantage of you! "

Ji Xuan expressionlessly stabbed Jian Xi Xin Jiu's back with the tip of his staff, causing him to scream: " Shut up and leave! "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu felt that he must have been blind to find Ji Xuanyi cute ...

Jian Xi Xinjiu shook the reins and the horse under him immediately started running.

Ji Xuanyi said: " Let's go to the traffic point first to see if it's still there. "

In fact, he didn't need to say it, Jian Xi Xin Jiu also planned this. The carriage at the transportation point has a system bonus. In addition to the fixed coordinates, its speed is actually faster than the player riding a horse himself. Ji Xuanyi and he were in a group not only because there was no transportation point in the inner city, but also in order to speed up when looking for transportation points.

However, the transportation points closest to the resurrection point are all empty. There is nothing that can be done about it. After all, these transportation points are very close to the battlefield, and it is impossible to allow a monster to do whatever it wants in Star City.

They had no choice but to continue running towards the inner city, and finally met someone who was still holding his post at the fifth traffic point.

Ji Xuanyi breathed a sigh of relief, immediately rented the fastest carriage, and rushed to the inner city with Jian Xi and the new wine.

Jian Xixinjiu took a look at the scene outside the car and couldn't help but sigh: " There are so many people. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Yes, all the players who can go online in Star City are probably out. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said: " How strange! This will lead to a downgrade. Aren't they afraid of death? " Ji Xuanyi looked outside and said, " Who knows? Maybe they want to join in the fun, maybe they are going for the rewards that may appear after the game, or maybe they are suffering from a second-year syndrome ... After all, a holographic online game is a holographic online game, and the sense of immersion is too strong. Probably no one can leave this city and those in the city alone. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was about to say something when Ji Xuanyi looked at him and said, " Aren't we the same? Whether it's for the players or for this city. "

Ji Xuanyi was right. This group of people who were originally outside the city didn't need to rush over. After all, the BOSS in the city would not go out. Strictly speaking, it posed no threat to them. They only needed to log off and wait for the people online to finish the fight. However, they had now run into the city and even lost a level for this.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu murmured, " I can't back down at this point. It would be like being a deserter. " The virtual world will magnify the players' emotions, and this feeling is the same. If Jian Xi Xin Jiu was not in the carriage now, but was fighting on the front line with thousands of players who were fighting bravely like Xiao Xiao Yu Xia and the others, he would probably understand. The carriage suddenly became quiet. Jian Xixinjiu and Ji Xuanyi were looking at the crowd outside the carriage running in the opposite direction of them.

Before this, they had never imagined that there would be so many players in Star City. The carriage arrived at the transportation point outside the inner city.

After getting off the car, Jian Xixinjiu walked quickly towards the inner city while whistling to call his mount. After pulling Ji Xuanyi onto the horse, he said with full fighting spirit: " Hold on to me, I'm going to speed up! "

Ji Xuanyi grabbed the light armor on his waist and said, " How long will it take to get there? "

 " Fifteen minutes is enough! "

Jian Xi Xinjiu's horse rushed out like an arrow, and Ji Xuanyi was almost thrown off the horse. It seemed that Jian Xi Xinjiu took good care of him when he took him to find a transportation point. But now Jian Xi Xin Jiu suddenly became excited and had no other thoughts. He was running on the road at lightning speed. Ji Xuanyi was worried that he would have a car accident and hit other players. However, he didn't know whether it was because of the system's built-in avoidance function or Jian Xi Xin Jiu's riding skills were really superb. Along the way, let alone hitting anyone, he didn't even touch the corner of the player's clothes.

When they were about to reach the entrance of the Mage Tower, Ji Xuanyi saw at least a dozen people running towards the Mage Tower like them. It seemed that they were all players who had figured out the key point and wanted to ask August for help.

However, Jian Xi's new wine was still being washed quickly. When Ji Xuan arrived at the entrance of the Mage Tower, those players had not arrived yet.

At this time, the guards at the door of the Mage Tower had disappeared, most of them had gone to support the front line. After all, they were real guards, unlike those who had no reaction when they were far away from the traffic points. If anything happened anywhere in Star City, these guards would definitely go to support.

However, this also means that the Mage Tower is now unguarded, and the rule of only being able to enter once a day has been broken, so all players can now go looking for August.

This is exactly what Ji Xuanyi guessed. August in the plot state will probably not be as difficult to deal with as before. He should help all the players who come to him. After all, if only people like him who have gained favorability can trigger it, what if he is offline for some reason? Then Star City is doomed.

The official wants players to experience the tense sense of immersion and the sense of accomplishment after solving the incident, leaving a deep memory of the game, but not to force players to quit the game, so this battle must have a solution, and the answer is also very obvious, after all, so many people have already figured it out.

It seems that even if he didn't come to the Mage Tower, the problem would be solved.

However, it is obvious that after completing this kind of plot, there will be city-wide rewards, and the player who finds the answer first will receive an even richer reward. Ji Xuanyi, who lost a level for this, will definitely not let go of this opportunity.

Ji Xuanyi walked in quickly and reached the first floor of the Mage Tower. Everyone there had obviously entered the plot state. Even Pusi was no longer squatting in the corner. Instead , he looked out the window into the distance anxiously, his slender fingers sliding nervously on the window. He was probably using a strange method to tell fortunes again.

The person who led the player to find August also looked worried. After seeing Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xixinjiu, he immediately came up to them and said, " Adventurer, come with me quickly. The great magician is waiting for you. "

Ji Xuanyi noticed that the way she addressed herself had changed. She was no longer a guest, or a guest of the Mage Tower, but an adventurer. In other words, her words actually applied to all players. The influence brought about by Ji Xuanyi's favorability and title temporarily disappeared due to the influence of the plot.

Ji Xuanyi followed him into the elevator and whispered, " I thought favorability would have an effect on the rewards, but it seems that doesn't happen. "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

After Ji Xuanyi thought of a solution, he no longer felt nervous at all. He was scared when the boss first appeared, but now he started thinking about the reward.

However, Jian Xi Xin Jiu couldn't help but start to guess his reward. Although he was not the leader of this mission, he did run errands, which was more or less an assist! He didn't know what reward he would get after completing it. And the city-wide reward after defeating the boss mentioned by Ji Xuanyi , could it be combined with the reward for finding August?

Before Jian Xi Xinjiu could figure out what was going on, the elevator had already stopped.

Without any guidance or further words, Ji Xuanyi immediately went into August's room, and Jian Xi Xinjiu hurriedly followed.

August, who had been sitting at the table, was now standing by the window. The small wooden window that had been tightly closed was opened. From the height of the wizard tower, he could clearly see the monsters crawling near the outside of the city.

As soon as Ji Xuan entered the room, August turned around and straightened his hunched back. Although his face was still dirty, his eyes were shining.

He looked at Ji Xuanyi with a very serious expression, which was completely different from the way he looked at Ji Xuanyi before.

This is also the influence of the plot. For him, it doesn't matter which player arrives, and favorability will not play a role for the time being. For August now, Ji Xuanyi is no different from other players. His task is just to follow the plot after the players arrive.

" I know what you want to say, " August took out a palm-sized crystal ball from his wide sleeves and held it in his hand: " The monster in the city is just a phantom of the evil god, a clone . It is not that difficult to weaken its power. "

He looked out the window at a distance , his eyes deep: " But its owner will come to find it sooner or later , just like someone was bewitched by the evil god today and released it. This is just a precursor, the real battle has not yet begun. "

Ji Xuanyi actually wanted to complain that Wan Ge Naizhi was not bewitched by anything, but simply couldn't win and wanted to drag everyone in the city to death with her.

But the plot must have an explanation. No matter what the reason is, the girl let this thing out anyway.

" Adventurers, are you willing to fight for Starry City and this continent? " August looked at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi said: " We are willing. "

August's eyes softened all of a sudden, and he even smiled kindly, looking as if he had left the plot and was back to being very fond of Ji Xuanyi: " Then, I, and all the creatures on this entire continent, will do our best to help you. "

After saying that, he threw the crystal ball in his hand out of the window. As soon as the crystal ball flew out, it exploded and turned into a large piece of sparkling dust. Under the sunlight, it emitted a dazzling light and flew quickly towards the battlefield.

August turned to Ji Xuan and said, " Go and fight. Victory will definitely belong to us! "

As soon as August finished speaking, Ji Xuanyi saw that his level suddenly returned to level 43, and even the experience bar was longer than before. There was also an extra BUFF above his head , August's blessing, which increased all attributes by 100% and lasted for two hours.

The situation of Jian Xi Xin Jiu was the same as his. In addition to a lot of experience and August's blessing, he also received another reward.

" Fuck! August has turned into a green name! " Jianxi Xinjiu exclaimed.

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment. It turned out that completing this plot would reward August's favorability. It seemed that his favorability should have increased. However, August was in the plot state now, and he didn't know if his attitude towards him would change.

Let's come back and take a look.

Ji Xuanyi thought about it, lowered his head and sent a private message to Xiao Xiaoyu: " I found August to trigger the plot dialogue, and he seems to have weakened the BOSS . Can you see if there are any changes to the boss ? "

After four or five seconds, a message came from Xiaoxiao Yuxia.

[瀟雨] : The boss's health has become lower, only one tenth of what it was before, and its damage and defense have also become lower!

[瀟雨] : There are still people coming in continuously. At this rate, we can defeat this BOSS before 7 o'clock tonight !

You know, according to the damage and health of the previous boss , Xiaoxiao Yuxia had already planned to fight a fierce battle for three days and three nights.

Speaking of which, Xiaoxiao Yuxia can be considered a great contributor this time. No matter it was a gang battle or a boss battle, he was always at the forefront, and his level dropped the most among the few people. Ji Xuanyi even thought that this guy was a little cute.

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : I guessed it was August. I wanted to go find him, but I had to give orders in the front and couldn't spare the time, so I had to let Xiaohan go. It seems that you are one step faster than him. What is the reward?

Ji Xuanyi replied: " Experience, buff , and favorability. "

[Xiaoxiaoyuxia] : buff ?

Ji Xuan said, hour-A two " buff that increases all attributes by 100% . August is still in the plot mode, so everyone should be able to ask him for this buff . If you are not in a tight spot, you can send some people to claim the buff and then go back to fight. "

Two or three seconds passed.

[Xiaoxiaoyuxia] : Got it.

The boss has been weakened. Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xi Xinjiu left August's room and rushed to the front battlefield.

When the two of them were going downstairs, they happened to run into a few other players who had finally arrived and were all stunned.

Someone asked: " Are you here to see August too? How is it? Is it useful? "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " The BOSS has been weakened. You can get a buff that doubles all your attributes if you go up now . You can notify someone you know to get it. We are going to fight monsters in the front now. "

Hearing that the boss had been weakened, everyone breathed a sigh of relief. The man said, " Thank you. You go first. We will be here soon. "

Another person clenched his fist towards Ji Xuanyi and said in a childish way: " We will protect Star City! "

Ji Xuanyi nodded, not knowing whether to laugh or cry, and said, " You guys go up, we're leaving. "

Under normal circumstances, strangers wouldn't communicate so cordially with each other, but when disaster strikes, everything is different. I think this battle will be on the forum for a long time.

When Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xi Xinjiu arrived at the edge of the main city, they discovered that the boss had shrunk. Compared to its previous height of a hundred meters, the current boss was only about four or five stories high. It no longer moved and attacked aimlessly, but stopped in one place, just like an ordinary wild boss , or a world boss , regularly launching skills and attacking players.

As long as it is not a plot like Ultraman fighting small monsters, players are still very experienced in dealing with this kind of boss . The meat shield profession stands in the front, the priest transfuses blood crazily, and other players output desperately. Almost few players die, the resurrection points are almost empty, and the boss 's blood bar is slowly decreasing. However, because too many players came, the boss was surrounded by three layers inside and outside, and Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xixinjiu couldn't squeeze in.

Ji Xuanyi didn't care, since he didn't deal any damage anyway. Jian Xi Xin Jiu was so anxious that he scratched his head and said, " What should I do? I have taken the buffs , but I can't reach the monsters! "

Ji Xuanyi was speechless and said, " No wonder even though the news had spread, there were still few people going to the Mage Tower to get the buff . Are they worried that they won't be able to touch the monsters after getting it? "

This kind of boss will definitely have rewards, but I don't know the range and amount of the rewards. If only those who have dealt enough damage or touched the boss can get them, then those who haven't touched it will lose a lot!

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said: " I think it's also possible that the people who wanted to get the buff couldn't squeeze out. If there was no such thing as lack of oxygen in the game, it would probably cost someone their life. "

At this point, Jian Xi Xin Jiu remembered something and asked, " What about Xu Chu and Liu Tian? And Tian Xia, how are they doing? "

He didn't need to ask, Ji Xuanyi was already in the secret chat.

After sending them back to the resurrection point, Qi Qin also asked a player from Mengtanggu who had not yet left the gang battle to help him come back to life . After hearing that Qi Qin wanted to commit suicide, the person from Mengtanggu almost thought he was a psychopath and it took him a long time to agree to help.

Qi Qin came back relatively early, and players had not yet gathered in large numbers. In addition, the boss had not been weakened at that time and its damage was terrifying. When a swordsman like Qi Qin wanted to go to the front, players consciously made way for him. tank in the front to fight monsters because of his good equipment, high health and agility . Although he really wants to come out and talk to Ji Xuanyi, he can't let go and has no way to leave.

[The best in the world] : QAQ !

Ji Xuanyi: "... Keep going, I support you mentally. "

[The best in the world] : QUQ !

Apart from translating the rather confusing voice input, he also had time to send some emoticons.

Ji Xuanyi had another private chat with Xu Chu and Liu Tian.

Xu Chu still failed to organize the magic circle again. The big magic staff was broken by Ji Xuanyi. After Xu Chu gathered the people holding the small magic staffs, he took great pains to find a repairman who was about to go to the front line. He spent a lot of money to repair the ten magic staffs.

[Xu Chu] : But everyone's levels have dropped so much that even with me, there aren't enough people to activate this staff.

Xu Chu was also level 44, but the Mage Corps was formed in a hurry, and almost all of its members were level 43. They all lost a level due to gang battles, and were killed by bosses after returning , so they were almost all only level 41 or 42.

Besides, there was not enough time at that time, and the players came too quickly. Xu Chu thought that if they delayed looking for people, they would be completely squeezed out. Not to mention fighting monsters, it would be another question whether they could reach enough.

Moreover, he was sure that Ji Xuanyi's action would work. Anyway, the boss would die, so he did not lack this output. So he decided to give up reorganizing the magic circle and occupy the position first.

It can be said to be a very original idea.

Before Ji Xuanyi finished complaining, he saw Xu Chu sent another message.

[Xu Chu] : What on earth did you do to my mage group when I wasn't there? Not only did the big staff break, but someone actually wanted to quit the mage group, saying they couldn't do it?

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

He didn't expect that less than an hour later, Damn Jianghu would suddenly become a friendly party. If he had known, he wouldn't have been so ruthless when he punctured the balloon ... Xu Chu and Liu Tian were now squeezed in the middle of the front row. Liu Tian still couldn't reach the BOSS , so he could only stand beside Xu Chu and silently watch him use spells to fight monsters.

I'm very angry.

Ji Xuan looked up and saw that the boss 's health had dropped by almost one tenth. After being weakened by August, there should be no rampage stage. It is estimated that he can be defeated by just grinding at this speed.

As for this sudden BOSS battle, for Ji Xuanyi, the biggest gain is the hint of the main storyline. According to what August said, the main storyline to be experienced later is probably the invasion of the evil god, and then the whole continent unites to resist. It is estimated that there will be many more BOSSes like today , and the whole map will definitely be open by then.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was very anxious because he couldn't defeat the monster.

Ji Xuan smacked his lips and said, " I'm not needed here anyway, I'm going to log off and have a meal. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was stunned and asked quickly: " Wait a minute, you're offline now? "

" What else? " Ji Xuan said, " I don't have any output. Even if I did, would I be able to reach it? Anyway, everything has been resolved. What's wrong with having a meal? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said awkwardly: " Although this BOSS is indeed about to be defeated, don't forget Wan Zhi! "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Wange Naizhi's final trump card is here, and the three major gangs joining forces is a foregone conclusion. Whether you can completely crush the Wanzhi Gang is your business. I have already taken care of what I promised Mi Yin to take care of. "

That seems to make sense ... Jian Xi Xin Jiu looked at Ji Xuanyi in confusion.

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows: " That's it, I'm leaving. Come on, if you really want to kill the monster, you can try throwing a javelin. Do you have any unused weapons you've replaced? "

Jian Xi Xinjiu was stunned and showed an expression of sudden enlightenment.

Ji Xuan ordered takeout as soon as he logged off. Although he said that he had taken care of all the things he needed to take care of, he still had to pay attention to the battle situation. Most of the posts in the game forum that were flooded with posts from the Star City players had sunk, leaving only three posts on the front page, one was a live broadcast of the battle situation, one was a guess about the plot, and the other was gossip about the cause of the incident.

Ji Xuanyi hesitated for a moment, then went to read the gossip post first.

The poster is a member of Meng Tanggu ... and can only be a member of Meng Tanggu. The gang management of Chenshi and Tamajianghu is very strict. In order to avoid too many people talking and leaking information, gang members can only know the general direction and situation. Specific matters are in the hands of the gang leader and management.

Mengtanggu basically shares information. After all, Jianxi Xinjiu himself doesn't know how he became the gang leader. Ji Xuanyi has never seen their gang have deputy gang leaders or managers. It is estimated that under the gang leader are the gang members.

the one who saw the entire process of Wanzhi releasing the boss .

This person is probably a die-hard fan of Jianxi Xinjiu. He first criticized the Wanzhi gang for being a cancer – which was indeed true. Then he praised Jianxi Xinjiu – Ji Xuanyi didn't know how he could finish his praise, saying that Jianxi Xinjiu was risking his life and fighting bravely on the front line for all the players in the city, blablabla ... Ji Xuanyi felt that if this game didn't have security monitoring, this person would have almost said that Jianxi Xinjiu had a high fever of 40 degrees but stayed online.

Didn't you see Ji Xuanyi, who was with Jian Xi Xin Jiu throughout the entire battle except for the first one? I don't know how this person who died and returned to the resurrection point at the beginning came up with this idea.

I really want to see what Jianxi Xinjiu thinks after seeing this post.

However, not many people cared about the Jianxi Xinjiu mentioned in the post. Most people were criticizing the Wanzhi Gang and Wan Ge Naizhi, and also criticized the officials for being crazy and letting the plot props fall into the hands of people like Wan Ge Naizhi.

However, Ji Xuanyi feels that if the rewards after defeating the boss are in place, there will not be any big problems this time except that the official is a little bold. After all, toxic players are also players. Apart from his personal stance, the rights that Wan Ge Naizhi has to the official should be no different from those of other players. Of course, this also includes getting plot props, which is also his right as a player. The official's control over such players should not be reflected here.

The next floors were all the same, but Ji Xuanyi himself hated that bitch, so he enjoyed watching them even though they were all the same old insults.

After reading the gossip posts, Ji Xuanyi opened the live broadcast post, wanting to see how things were going after he went offline. As soon as he scrolled to the bottom, he saw a screenshot.

the densely packed crowd fighting the boss , a large number of javelins appeared like a rain of arrows, falling towards the boss .

Ji Xuanyi: "..... ??? "

What did Jian Xi Xin Jiu do???

Turning the page further down, there are eight words written by the poster in tears: " Boycott the knights! Boycott the javelin! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

After Ji Xuanyi logged off, Jian Xi Xinjiu was inspired and touched the monster by throwing weapons. Feeling that he had obtained the qualification for the reward, Jian Xi Xinjiu followed Ji Xuanyi offline to eat with peace of mind.

Who knew that the other knights on the periphery saw his action, and they all abandoned their useless weapons and threw them at the boss . Of course, if they threw accurately, there would be no problem, and they could also help reduce the pressure on the front-line output. But if they threw inaccurately, it would be a big problem! The weapon did not hit the boss , but the player! Some people were stabbed in the head. Although the damage was low, the visual effect was too scary! Some timid people were kicked off the line out of fear!

However, this also gave the players in the back row an opportunity, and they squeezed into the vacant positions and started to output crazily.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi finished his meal while watching the live broadcast. When the fight was almost over and the boss only had 2% of his health left, in order to prevent some players from not being able to touch the monster and getting the reward, leaders of big gangs such as Xiaoxiao Yuxia had begun to maintain order. They asked the players who had defeated the monster to disperse or go offline first, and let the players behind touch it. Then Ji Xuanyi slowly climbed up.

Most of the crowd had dispersed, and the front was no longer so crowded. Someone kept passing on orders from inside, shouting loudly: " Is there anyone who hasn't touched it yet? Hurry up and move over here, touch it, or you'll be killed. We won't wait any longer! "

As Ji Xuan walked over, he was caught by the people on the outside. Then, the people outside pushed him and the people inside pulled him. One by one, the players who were maintaining order sent him to the boss .

As soon as Ji Xuanyi entered, he saw the rain falling. Liu Tian and Jian were washing the new wine, one on each side, both of them were anxiously shouting at the top of their voices: " Hurry up! No more waiting! "

They look like three small vendors selling things.

Ji Xuanyi walked forward and used his staff to hit the boss , knocking off three points of health. He turned back to look at Xiao Xiaoyu and said, " You haven't finished yet? "

Xiao Xiao didn't notice him until it was raining, and she almost choked, saying, " Fuck, you've already finished your meal? "

Most likely it was Jian Xi Xin Jiu who told him.

Ji Xuanyi said politely, " It's past seven o'clock. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia: "... No more waiting! Start attacking and kill the monster! "

So many people gathered here were waiting for this sentence. There were also people who came late and shouted, "Save the sword, save the sword!" But no one paid any attention to them. Within a few tens of seconds, the BOSS 's blood was emptied.

The flower-shaped boss let out a sharp scream towards the sky and turned into a large cloud of black smoke that drifted away.

The moment it disappeared, white light lit up on the players all over the city. In the scene with the largest number of people, it was so bright that no one could open their eyes.

Ji Xuanyi knew this kind of light. Every player would have this kind of light when they leveled up, but it was very faint and almost invisible. But now, for most people, it was so bright that it was no different from a light bulb.

A system announcement with huge fonts appeared in the chat channels of all players.

World Announcement: Congratulations to all Star City players for working together to successfully defeat the plot warm-up BOSS . In addition to a large amount of experience rewards associated with contributions, all Star City players will receive a random reward box, as well as compensation for this panic, a random gold coin red envelope, please go to the postman to collect it.

The whole scene was silent for a second, and then everyone started running frantically, their target: the postman!

Chapter 72

It's hard for everyone to feel that city-wide rewards are fair , especially when the boss is so difficult to beat.

If everyone gets the same reward , some people will definitely wonder why? Some people didn't even participate in the battle, so why do they get the same reward as me who lost several levels?

rewards linked to contributions are mostly to make up the levels of players who have been demoted in this battle , and then distribute experience rewards throughout the city . As we all know , basically the players who have lost the most levels in the battle are the ones who confronted the undeviated boss head-on from the beginning. In addition to DPS , contributions also include the heads given away by players, so making up the levels is a must. Secondly , there are two random rewards.

Things like experience can be calculated into a data , but materials, equipment and props cannot be calculated. They have to be all random . What you get depends entirely on luck, and luck plays a big role. As long as you don't put some junk props in the bag, players won't have too many objections.

And to be honest, it's really fun to open random packages.

All the players flocked to the nearby postman point , but unfortunately , the postman here was gone . He might have been refreshed in the previous battle . Some players stopped in confusion, while others ran to another postman point.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was standing in the middle of the team giving orders, and was nearly swept away by the rushing torrent of players. It took her a long time to say with lingering fear, " Fuck! These people are like crazy! It's just two random pack rewards ..."

After saying that, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia felt a little itchy, and added: " Let's wait until there are fewer people before going. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't respond.

Xiaoxiao looked at Ji Xuanyi under the rain. Ji Xuanyi tilted his head towards him speechlessly and said, " Liutian and Jianxi Xinjiu have already rushed out on horseback. "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

It's amazing how long your legs are!

Xiaoxiao Yuxia now also wanted to go to the messenger to queue up, but the words had already been said, and it was not easy to go back on her word, so she could only stand there with a smile on her face, looking very calm.

" Where is Xu Chu? " Ji Xuan looked around and asked.

It seemed that he hadn't seen Xu Chu since he was brought in just now. Shouldn't he be with Liu Tian?

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " Xu Chu logged off when the boss was almost defeated. As a rich man, things in real life must be much more interesting than games. "

Ji Xuan nodded, and just as he was about to say something, he heard a faint voice coming from the side: " Xuan Yi, why didn't you ask me where I went? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin appeared at some point in time and was looking at him sadly, like an abandoned young wife.

" Oh, that's right. Brother Tianxia has always been the main tank and has put in a lot of effort. Ji Xuanyi, why don't you ask him first? " Xiao Xiaoyu looked at Ji Xuanyi with an expression as if she was looking at a scumbag.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

That's enough.

Ji Xuanyi hesitated for a moment and said to Qi Qin: " I didn't look for you because I believed you would come back to me. "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, then her heart blossomed with joy. Her face flushed, and she leaned towards Ji Xuanyi softly.

Ji Xuan turned around expressionlessly, leaving his back to him, and said to Xiao Xiao Yuxia: " The city-wide rewards of course also include those people from the Wanzhi Gang. Although their levels dropped before fighting the boss , the general experience rewards are still there. You three major gangs should hurry up. "

Speaking of business, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia also became serious and said, " The three of us will have a meeting tonight to discuss it. We should have a set of rules tomorrow. In addition to the members of the Wanzhi Gang, there is also Wan Ge Naizhi. I don't know where he ran off to. He disappeared after the chaos. I don't know if he went offline or ran away. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Besides that, there are traitors in the three gangs who need to be eliminated. The reason why they were attacked by the Wanzhi Gang this time was largely due to information leaks. "

Hearing this, Xiao Xiao Yuxia's first reaction was: " It was leaked from Meng Tanggu, right? "

Ji Xuanyi: "... Has the reputation of Jian Xi Xin Jiu being unrefined spread this far ? "

Xiaoxiao laughed twice in the rain and said nothing.

Ji Xuan said: " Anyway, that's your business, I don't care. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia asked: " So are you going to queue up to get the mail now? "

Ji Xuan said: " No, there are too many people. I'll take it tomorrow. I'll finish the task in a while, and the world will go to sleep. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia: " What you said sounds a bit ..."

The gay part is gay .

Ji Xuanyi pretended not to understand and handed his hand to Qi Qin. After the other party impatiently took it, he left.

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: " Holding hands is fine ... Is this a direct admission? "

Ji Xuanyi had classes the next morning. When he went online in the afternoon, there was still a queue in front of the postman, but at least not as many people as last night. Ji Xuanyi took Qi Qin to queue for a few minutes.

The red envelopes that the system mentioned really were red envelopes. This was clearly a game with a Western fantasy background, and the agent from Country C had even prepared a thin red envelope. However, because everyone was already used to red envelopes in real life, no one felt there was anything wrong when they received them at first.

Ji Xuan looked at the people who had received red envelopes in front of him. Most of them opened them and got ten gold coins. This amount of money was not a small amount as a compensatory reward.

also people who, when they opened the red envelope, gold coins gushed out from the mouth of the red envelope like a fountain, rolling all over the ground. There must be at least thirty or fifty coins, which made other players envious . Players who had opened the red envelope sighed repeatedly, and those who had not opened it were all eager to try, thinking that they would be the next person to win the prize.

Ji Xuanyi was waiting in line when he saw his private chat channel flashing.

[泽于似水] : Xiao Ji! We came to Star City to play with you! We arrived last night, but unfortunately you were not online!

Ji Xuanyi blinked and stopped moving forward.

Qi Qin came over from behind and asked: " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuan said, " Ze Yu Sishui and the others are here. "

Qi Qin was happy to hear this. He had a good relationship with his friends in Green Forest City. " Really? When did they arrive? Where are they? "

Ji Xuanyi said, " They arrived after we logged off yesterday. They are probably in the southeast area now. They should have reported to the Mage Tower last night. Without a map, they must have found a place they are familiar with when doing a mission. "

Ji Xuanyi directly asked Ze and Yu Sishui to form a team, but was rejected.

[泽于似水] : We have accepted the team cooperation mission! We can't form a team casually before we complete it! Xiaoji, tell us the name of the place and we will ask for directions.

Ji Xuanyi then sent over his coordinates.

Qi Qin said from behind Ji Xuanyi: " Xuanyi, it's your turn to get your stuff. "

Ji Xuan looked up and saw that there was indeed no one in front of him, so he took two steps forward and said, " I'm here to get the letter. "

The postman smiled good-naturedly and said, " Do you want to take out all three? "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned. Three letters? Aren't there only two?

As soon as Ji Xuan responded, the postman took out a gift box, a red envelope, and a letter from his waist bag.

As soon as Ji Xuan saw the letter, he knew what was going on. It was a random daily task of the auction house. After successfully finding the ruby, he would be given a fragment of a designated ticket.

But why is it afternoon again ... He didn't come when he was free before, but came at this time.

Ji Xuanyi knew with his toes that the three major gangs must have something to ask him today. Whether to help or not is one thing, but Ji Xuanyi was in a bad mood and didn't want to look for anything. He felt that he might explode on the spot.

Ji Xuanyi had just left the messenger and was thinking about it when a team-up invitation popped up.

It comes from the drizzling rain.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi accepted Ruby's daily job, and at the same time rejected Xiao Xiao Yuxia as a way of venting his anger.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia tried hard to form a team but was rejected five times in a row before being accepted into the team by Ji Xuanyi.

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : Are you picking up the packages? Xiaohan and I are here to see you.

Ji Xuanyi said coldly: " Don't come. "

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : " You spent so much effort to deal with the Wanzhi Gang, and you still don't want to hear the results of the battle? "

Ji Xuanyi hesitated for a moment, but still said, " Okay. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia didn't reply and probably started walking towards this side. The last time Ji Xuanyi saw Jing Yunhan in a gang battle, this guy was still riding the inferior horse given for the daily task. After carrying Jing Yunhan, he could only carry a bag of rice at most. It was absolutely impossible for a heavily armored swordsman like Xiao Xiao Yuxia to do that. The two of them would probably have to take a car and then walk over here, so they happened to be waiting together with Ze Yu Sishui and his group.

Qi Qin also received his things and stood beside Ji Xuanyi. He curiously tore the seal of the red envelope, and a large number of gold coins immediately overflowed from the mouth of the red envelope, pouring out continuously, which scared Qi Qin. Fortunately, his hands were big and the gold coins did not fall out. However, if they continued to pour out like this, it was only a matter of time before they fell to the ground.

Qi Qin held the gold coins tremblingly. Ji Xuanyi immediately took out a bag of gold coins from his backpack and put it under his hand to catch it. Qi Qin then breathed a sigh of relief, spread his hands apart, and put the gold coins into the gap. After more than a minute, the gold coins stopped coming out of Qi Qin's red envelope.

Ji Xuanyi looked at the bulging bag of gold coins and raised his eyebrows. He heard the envious voices of a group of players nearby.

Qi Qin asked happily: " How many are there? "

Ji Xuan glanced at the other players staring at him, tiptoed slightly, leaned close to Qi Qin's ear and whispered, " One hundred. "

Qi Qin's face turned red, not because of the one hundred gold coins, but because he supported Ji Xuanyi's waist when he was standing on tiptoe just now.

After Ji Xuanyi finished speaking, he let go of his hand and said to Qi Qin: " Speaking of which, the gold coins have depreciated recently, and we don't have too much money. I plan to make some enchantments to make some money. "

Qi Qin was stunned and said, " I think it's okay. "

As soon as Ji Xuan heard this, he knew that this person had eaten very seriously at the last auction and probably didn't hear the auction bid at all.

Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to explain it to him in detail. Anyway, Qi Qin didn't need to put in any effort to do the enchantment, so let him be stupid.

When Qi Qin saw Ji Xuanyi's expression, he knew that he had made up his mind, so he said no more and concentrated on opening the random box in hand.

Ji Xuanyi saw the random box this time. Just like the gold coin red envelope with a guaranteed minimum of ten gold, the lowest reward in the random reward box was also purple material . Now that life skills are not far from being launched, purple materials are not as worthless as before. However, the most rewards are still enchantments of various attributes. Many players have never seen this thing. After reading the instructions, they ran away excitedly, probably wanting to try it on their own equipment.

Qi Qin has always had good luck, and this time is no exception. After opening his box, he found another piece of black steel. Together with the piece he got from the trading house before, and the piece that he could only get from the auction wall of the trading house this Saturday, Qi Qin was only one piece of black steel away from completing his full set of equipment.

Ji Xuanyi took the black steel handed over by Qi Qin and said, " Do you want the head or the hand this time? "

Qi Qin immediately said: " I want your hand! "

After all, it is the part that holds the sword, and Qi Qin is confident that his strength will not allow him to be beaten in this game.

Well, except Ji Xuanyi's attack.

Ji Xuan put away the black steel and began to open his two random packages. The first one was a red envelope, with a guaranteed ten coins. Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows and began to open the second gift package.

This time the gift package was not a guaranteed gift, but an orange material that Ji Xuanyi had never seen before.

It was a piece of transparent crystal. The system explained the power of the crystal in a mysterious way, and finally concluded that it could awaken the souls of the dead. But it was useless. The system instructions did not tell Ji Xuanyi how to use this thing, or where to use it.

Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to put the stone away in confusion, intending to look back at the equipment manufacturing manual to see if there was any place where this stone could be used. In general, the combined benefits of the four random gift packs are quite good, which can be said to be very lucky.

Ji Xuanyi watched the postman handing the gift packages to the players one by one. After the players opened the gift packages, some were happy while others were sad. Just when he was getting a little impatient, Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Jing Yunhan finally arrived, followed by Jian Xixinjiu. Ji Xuanyi saw from afar that Jian Xi Xinjiu was riding on a horse and said something to Jing Yunhan. Before Jing Yunhan could react, Xiao Xiaoyu almost beat Jian Xi Xinjiu up with his sword.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was certainly not defeated by Xiao Xiao Yu Xia, but he did not fight back. With a shake of the reins, the horse under him nimbly dodged Xiao Xiao Yu Xia's attack. Then, very proudly, it ran to Ji Xuan Yi's side with a thumping foot and a bounce.

Ji Xuan knew at a glance that this person had probably flirted with his cousin and made him angry, so he said expressionlessly: " Sooner or later , someone will break his legs. "

Jian Xixinjiu couldn't hold back his excitement and asked with a smile: " Which leg? "

Ji Xuanyi looked at him as if he were a dead man.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu: "... Yes, I'm sorry ... Will an apology be of any use now? "

When Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Jing Yunhan approached, Jian Xixinjiu had been hammered by Qi Qin to the point where only bloody skin was left, and he was lying on the ground like a corpse. Jing Yunhan ran up and kicked him, then said to Ji Xuan awkwardly: " Thank you. "

He also knew that if it weren't for Ji Xuanyi and the others who accidentally destroyed the plan of the Wanzhi Gang, he and his brother would have been gang-raped and driven out of Fanxing City, let alone the mortal world.

Ji Xuanyi misheard and said, " No need. People like this deserve to be beaten. "

Jing Yunhan was stunned and said blankly: " I mean Wanzhi ..."

It's not the sword washing new wine!

Ji Xuanyi: "... Oh. "

Ji Xuanyi changed the subject somewhat awkwardly and said, " What's the situation now? Tell me. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia also ignored Jian Xi Xin Jiu. He originally wanted to step over the latter, but thinking about his weight, he might just send him back to the resurrection point, so he stepped over and said, " The city's universal experience reward is still cheap for some people in the Wanzhi Gang. It seems that the recipients of this reward are all people who are recognized by the system as being from the Starry City, including those who just left their original city last night and chose the Starry City as their main city. They have all been upgraded. "

By the way, in addition to the experience Ji Xuanyi gained in the Mage Tower yesterday, the three points of blood he hit the BOSS also added some experience for him. Combined with the experience rewards from the whole city, Ji Xuanyi is now level 45. Because of Qi Qin's greater contribution, his level has also caught up with Ji Xuanyi, and is even much higher than him.

"Actually, those Wanzhi members who have reached level 20 are not that troublesome," Xiaoxiao Yuxia said, "After they gain experience points, they will return to level 30. The more troublesome ones are the Wanzhi members who logged off in the middle of the fight yesterday. They are almost back to level 40 or above. This morning, the people from our three gangs were running around to wipe out these guys."

"But many players in Star City know that this group of people is up to no good, and they can't wait for them to get out of Star City! When we meet members of the three major gangs, they will help us find the way!" Jing Yunhan said proudly: "The results of this morning's battle are still good! Although our strength in the world is not the strongest, our contribution can be said to be the first! The main force of the Wanzhi Gang was also blocked by us yesterday!" This guy Jing Yunhan, when he started talking about his skills, he completely forgot about the nearly one hundred other players from Mengtanggu who had joined the Tamajianghu yesterday. Jian Xi Xin Jiu recovered some of his blood and got up from the ground, wanting to say something. Jing Yun Han turned around and said to him, "Hey, we played as forwards for you yesterday. I say, why don't you give up the first position to us!"

Jian Xi Xin Jiu looked confused: "Ah?"

Ji Xuanyi now hopes that Ze Yu Sishui will come over soon and teach this little fool how to become smarter.

"Stop it, Xiaohan," Xiaoxiao Yuxia reluctantly pulled Jing Yunhan aside and said to Ji Xuan, "The Wanzhi Gang is almost scattered now, and it will be very easy to wipe them out. It will be done in a few days, but there is still a problem."

Ji Xuanyi looked at him with understanding: "What the hell?"

Xiao Xiaoyu nodded: "This is an assassin whose strength is only one level lower than Mi Yin. We are all very wary of him, worried that he will appear before ... uh ..."

Ji Xuanyi's face was expressionless, and he said, "My previous situation? Don't worry, this person can't do it with his ability."

Ji Xuanyi is not bragging. After all, Wan Naizhi can't even beat Mi Yin in a head-on battle, let alone replicate Ji Xuanyi's past deeds.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia coughed twice and said, "Anyway, we have always been concerned about this person's whereabouts. After all, he even created a plot boss, so we really need to be on guard. However, according to the intelligence brought by the Wanzhi Gang members we captured, Wan Ge Naizhi has transferred the position of gang leader to one of his subordinates and quit the gang himself, so there is no way to monitor whether he is online or not."

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything. He had already expected this. After all, the meaning of Wan Ge Naizhi's words yesterday had completely separated him from the Wanzhi Gang.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: "Now I'm not worried that he will create a Wanzhi Gang 2.0. The probability of him acting alone is relatively high. If he really wants to take revenge, he will probably target us."

Having said that, Xiaoxiao Yuxia seemed to have something to say but hesitated for a moment.

Ji Xuanyi knew what he meant, and continued, " You five are all gang leaders, with a lot of people around you, and some of your companions are knights, or you are knights yourself. In addition, except for Xuchu, the RMB mage, all of you are high-health professions, and are not very friendly to assassins. So the most convenient person for him to retaliate is me, right? "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said quickly: " We have been trying very hard to find his whereabouts, and Mi Yin also said that he would find a way to get rid of this person. "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " Oh, where is Mi Yin? "

Xiao Xiaoyu's voice weakened: " Offline ..."

He also knew that Ji Xuanyi had helped but ended up getting into trouble with an assassin enemy, which was a big loss.

However, Ji Xuanyi was not really worried about this matter. To him, revenge killings were commonplace. He had seen many people like Wan Ge Naizhi and killed even more of them, so he didn't care at all.

Seeing Xiao Xiaoyu showing an apologetic look, Ji Xuanyi waved his hand and said, " It's okay, people like this can't get close to us— "

Ji Xuanyi was halfway through his words when he suddenly reached out and grabbed his shoulder. He then turned around and instantly took out a magic wand from his bag with his other hand. He paralyzed the air behind him and then used the magic wand to hit something hard. The crowd, who were originally stunned, saw the air behind Ji Xuanyi fluctuate, and immediately took out their weapons and pointed them at Ji Xuanyi's back. Even Jian Xi Xinjiu climbed up from the ground, but when the assassin showed up, it turned out to be a strange face.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was stunned and said, " Isn't this Wan Ge Nai Zhi? Could he be a hidden figure of the Wan Zhi Gang? "

Ji Xuanyi loosened his tightly clenched hand with a frown on his face. The other party suddenly put his hand on his shoulder, which made him react just now.

But now you should understand it, which assassin would put his hand on your shoulder to greet you before killing someone ? Wouldn't it be more convenient to just stab you directly?

The identity of the person who came surprised Qi Qin a little. He shouted, " Ze Yu Si Shui? "

That's right, the assassin who suddenly appeared behind Ji Xuanyi turned out to be Ze Yu Sishui who had secretly found him at some point in time!

The paralysis time was up. Ze Yu Sishui rubbed his face . He had just been hit in the face by Ji Xuanyi's staff. He looked at Ji Xuanyi with tears in his eyes and cried, " Is this how you welcome me? "

Ji Xuanyi couldn't explain it clearly at the moment, so he could only say: " Misunderstanding, I thought it was someone else. "

At this time, Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others also reacted and said, " Do you know him? "

Qi Qin nodded and said, " Friends from Green Forest City. "

At this time, two people ran out from the street corner. They were Qingfeng Bufu and Ming Shao. Qingfeng Bufu looked at Ze Yu Sishui's miserable condition and said, " I told you not to commit suicide, but you didn't listen. "

Ze Yu Sishui was angry and said: " Please stop making sarcastic remarks at this time! "

Ji Xuanyi was speechless, thinking, he was planning to let Ze Yu Sishui teach Jing Yunhan a lesson, but now it seems that Ze Yu Sishui has become a lot more naughty when he was away! It must be the fault of these two parents, Qingfeng Bufu and Ming Shao!

Ze Yu Sishui looked at Ji Xuanyi in disbelief, and said tearfully, " Someone else? In just half a month, you already have another assassin partner?! "

There really is one, isn't it Mi Yin? But she's offline now.

Before Ji Xuanyi could say anything, Jian Xi Xin Jiu asked in surprise, " Fuck, is this kid even 18 years old? A junior high school student, right? "

Ze Yu Sishui had been in Green Forest City for so long and hadn't heard this sentence for a long time. He immediately said angrily: " Bah! I'm fucking—— "

" Fifty? " Qi Qin asked curiously.

Ze Yu Si Shui: " Fifty ... fifty is a bit old, right? How about forty-five? "

Young Master Ming was speechless and said, " You are buying cabbage, and you are still bargaining? "

Ji Xuanyi didn't bother to pay attention to them and said, " Anyway, I'm over 18, otherwise I can't enter the game. "

After saying that, Ji Xuan looked at Jian Xi Xin Jiu suspiciously and said, " What do you mean? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu didn't react at first, but later he realized it and said awkwardly: " Am I such a beast in your heart? I don't like little brats, okay! "

Only then did Ji Xuanyi withdraw his gaze.

Ze Yu Sishui looked around and asked Ji Xuan, " Is this your new friend from Star City? "

Except for Ji Xuanyi who shook his head, everyone else nodded.

Ze Yu Sishui pondered for a moment and said, " Could this be the legendary superficial brother? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Others: "..."

Ji Xuanyi felt that Ze Yu Sishui had become a bit naughty after not seeing him for a while. He was just hesitating whether to give him a beating before talking to him properly. Qingfeng Bufu stepped forward and said, " I am Qingfeng Bufu, this is Ming Shao, and this is Ze Yu Sishui. Since we are all Xiao Ji's superficial brothers, why not add each other as friends! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Xiaoxiao Yuxia and others actually nodded in agreement and started adding each other as friends.

Ji Xuanyi refused to speak any more. After adding them as friends, Qi Qin stepped forward and asked Ze Yu Sishui and the others, " How are Ah Miao and Yishu? And Xiaotui, Wanshi Shengyi and the others? Didn't you come with them? "

Ze Yu Sishui said: " No, we did a small hidden mission when the three of us were on a mission together, which gave us a lot of experience, so we came here first. Artistic Legs and the others have to wait for two days, and Wanshi Fengyu and the others are going to develop in Day City. "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " You also got the experience rewards from the whole city? "

"Yes!" Qing Feng Bu Fu said, "We were on the road last night, and suddenly we leveled up. Later we found out it was because of the plot boss . We were really lucky. Plus we completed all the tasks today, so the three of us are now level 43."

Ze Yu Sishui probably just got the invisibility skill today, so he came to tease Ji Xuanyi and almost got beaten.

Speaking of this, Ze Yu Sishui felt sad again and looked at Ji Xuanyi with resentment: "So who is the assassin? You mistook me for him."

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia had a cousin like Jing Yun Han, and because Ze Yu Si Shui looked younger, she had a favorable impression of him. She smiled and said, "Don't be sad, he is our enemy." Ze Yu Sishui was stunned when he heard this, and then admired: "6 6 6 , you have an enemy so soon, you are worthy of being the boss Xuan!"

Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to pay attention to him.

Young Master Ming lost his temper and said coldly, "When can you guys talk about the serious matters? Are we here to talk nonsense?"

Qing Feng was stunned for a moment, and immediately said: "Oh, right, I almost forgot about the main thing. Xiao Ji, can you recommend a better gang to us? The three of us don't have a gang yet!"

Unlike guys like Ji Xuanyi who like to be independent players, Ze Yu Sishui and his gang are normal players after all. For normal players, guild benefits are something that would be a waste if they didn't take them. Even if they don't participate in guild activities much, they have to find a guild to affiliate with. Such players also account for the majority in most guilds. After all, the benefits are issued by the system, and it would be a waste if they didn't take them.

Under normal circumstances, Ze, Yu, Sishui and the other two should have been recruited into the gang by the people from the mortal world when they just entered the city gate. However, there was no way. The three major gangs were so busy suppressing the Wan branch that they had no time to recruit people. Other small gangs did not dare to grab resources too much, so when they recruited people, they just stated the conditions truthfully.

Ze Yu Sishui and the others were all veterans who had played many games. Of course, they could tell at once that these were small and inferior gangs, so they were not willing to join them. So they simply waited until Ji Xuanyi came online, and wanted to ask Ji Xuanyi, who had arrived first, which gang he should join.

Hearing this, Xiao Xiaoyu laughed, patted Jing Yunhan beside him and said, "It just so happens that we are the chief and deputy chief of the Southeast District's No. 1 Gang, Chenshi. We have all the gang benefits, and our strength ranks among the top three in Fanxing City. Do you want to join?"

Ze, Yu, Sishui and the other two were stunned for a moment. They never expected that there was a leader of a big gang here.

Ji Xuan nodded and said, "Yes, that's right. The leaders of two of the three major gangs in Star City are here."

Ji Xuan pointed at Jian Xi Xin Jiu and said, "This is the leader of Meng Tang Gu."

The three of them looked at Jian Xi's new wine again.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu didn't know why, but after talking about the gang, he looked a little off. He laughed dryly and said, " If you are willing, you can come to Meng Tang Gu and try it. " Ji Xuanyi frowned and looked at Xiao Xiaoyu.

Xiao Xiaoyu shook her head slightly without saying anything, but quietly sent a private message to Ji Xuanyi.

[The rain is falling heavily] : an internal response.

Ji Xuanyi suddenly realized that the three gangs must have gone back to discuss and checked the people in the gangs, and found that the traitor was in Mengtanggu. Judging from Jian Xi Xinjiu's current condition, either there were a lot of traitors, or the traitor was someone he trusted. No matter which one it was, it was a big blow to Jian Xi Xinjiu. Although he was a confused gang leader, the enthusiasm to participate in the gang war was given to him by his gang members. Now there is a traitor ... No wonder he behaved a little strangely before, and he was so eloquent. He must be feeling bad.

Ze, Yu, Sishui and the other two seemed a little hesitant, so they had to look at Ji Xuanyi. Qingfeng Bufu said, " Xiao Ji, we just got here and don't know anyone. Which gang do you think we should join? "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Let's go to Mengtanggu. The atmosphere is pretty good and very free. "

The three of them nodded in succession. Just when they were about to say "OK, let's join Mengtanggu", Ji Xuanyi suddenly changed his mind and said, " Jian Xi Xinjiu is a gay and single. You can consider it. "

Qingfeng Bufu and Ming Shao immediately pulled Ze Yu Sishui back from Jianxi Xinjiu, shaking his head like a rattle and saying, " No, no, it hurts your body. "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

Jian Xi Xin Jiu is about to die of depression, okay! Although he is a gay, gays don't just sleep with anyone they see!

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Then let's go to the mortal world. The deputy gang leader speaks very nicely. "

Xiao Xiaoyu just smiled when she heard Ji Xuan say, " It's just that people's hearts are hard to predict, the leader is a bit clumsy, and the gang is a bit weak. "

Jing Yunhan: "... I will fight you! "

Jing Yunhan suddenly jumped up and tried to pounce on Ji Xuanyi with his teeth and claws, but was hugged by his brother, who covered his mouth with one hand and held it tightly under his armpit. Although he struggled desperately, he could not get free due to the flaw in his professional points.

Ze Yu Sishui and the other two asked awkwardly: " Where is the last of the three major gangs? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " Damn Jianghu, the strongest one, there is a local tyrant inside, I heard that in addition to the gang benefits, he also pays me a salary to buy equipment, the treatment is first-class. "

The three of them held their breath, trying to hear what it was.

Ji Xuanyi said: " It's just that the leader is a little stupid. For a gang member rather than a manager, there are no other shortcomings. "

The three of them immediately decided: " Let's go to the martial arts world! "

Ji Xuanyi raised his head and glanced at them.

Qing Feng Bu Fu said seriously: " After all, it is a gang that pays salaries and buys equipment! Don't say the gang leader is stupid, even if the gang leader is a pig, I will still go! "

Chapter 73

Hearing Qingfeng Bufu's answer , Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but fall into deep thought.

What kind of image does Liu Tian have in the eyes of the Tamaju gang?

After all, Xu Chu is here, and there are probably many people in the world who hold the same idea as Qingfeng Bufu!

Think about it this way , even though it is the largest gang, Liu Tian is still miserable!

Hearing that the three of them had made up their minds to go to the Jianghu family for the welfare , Xiaoxiao Yuxia could only shake her head and said nothing more.

For these three people , what he cared about more was actually their identity as Ji Xuanyi's friends. After all, this might affect Ji Xuanyi's position in the future when there was a dispute of interests among the three major gangs. But Xiao Xiaoyuxia thought again . Ji Xuanyi had just fought with Tama Jianghu yesterday , but today he could promote Tama Jianghu to his friends without any hesitation . Does it also mean that he has decided to remain neutral in the fight between the three major gangs?

Ji Xuan looked at Xiao Xiao Yuxia and said, " Did you come here just to remind me to be careful of Wan Ge Naizhi's sneak attack? "

Ze Yu Si Shui: " Who?! Such a bad name?! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuan looked at Ze Yu Sishui expressionlessly.

Ze Yu Sishui wanted to jump again, but Qingfeng Bufu and Ming Shao held him down.

Young Master Ming broke out in a cold sweat and said to Ji Xuan, " You tell him to shut up. "

Ji Xuan turned his head back and raised his eyebrows at Xiao Xiao Yuxia.

Ming Shao's reaction finally reminded Xiao Xiaoyu of Ji Xuanyi's other identity. She laughed dryly and said, " Yes, that's it. "

Ji Xuanyi certainly wouldn't believe it. He could just send a private message about this matter, why would he come to his house specially ? Even if he was really worried about him , why didn't he let Jian Xi Xin Jiu join the team when he met him halfway? He was probably planning to shake him off and talk to himself alone , but Jian Xi Xin Jiu had long legs and followed him desperately, so he had no choice.

If he guessed correctly, Xiaoxiao Yuxia was planning to win him over before the other two families could react, so that even if their gang was not the strongest, it would definitely not be the weakest. But for some reason, he suddenly stopped when the words were on the tip of his tongue.

Seeing Ji Xuanyi's unhappy expression, Xiao Xiaoyuxia changed the subject and said, The " news about our city's preheating plot BOSS has been blowing up the forum all day and night. I thought that Starry City would be forcibly weakened, but the rewards turned out to be so high. People in other cities and other servers are now trying to find ways to trigger this plot BOSS . " Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows. He was quite interested in this: " Did they find it? "

Xiao Xiao Yu nodded: " It is true that other players have obtained items of the same nature as the item in Wan Ge Nai Zhi's hand, but they are very rare. According to the current information, it seems that the bosses are all corresponding to the upgraded city maps, and there are no duplicates. "

there is no server that has all the ,for now ,However " BOSS props from the fifteen cities . Most of them only have one or two, occasionally three, and the most is one server, with four. " Xiaoxiao Yuxia said.

" How to get it? Has anyone told me? " This is what Ji Xuanyi cares about most.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia nodded and said, " A person from the first server came out and said that the way to obtain it is through a secret mission. It seems that he made a wrong choice in the middle of the mission and came into contact with the evil god. In the end, he became an accomplice and was given the summoning item. He said that he must reach level 43 before he can use it, and the place to use it must be the main city. "

It's no wonder. Ji Xuanyi knew that every main city had hidden tasks related to the main storyline. It was not easy to find them, not to mention that he had to stand on the side of the evil god in the plot ... Now that he thought about it, if his position in the secret mission in Green Forest City was more inclined towards the residents in the north of the city, he would probably also be given a summon?

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " The player who posted the message said that the item description told him that the evil god 's clone has extremely strong destructive power and does not distinguish between friend and foe , so he never thought of using this thing, unless he was forced to die with the people in the city ... "

Ji Xuanyi: "... the situation with my daughter is probably similar. "

Xiaoxiao shrugged and said, " Because we don't know if there will be any system punishment for summoning the BOSS , most of the players who have summoned items don't want to use them. But they probably have no choice. After all, everyone in the city is looking forward to the BOSS reward, and the big gangs in the main cities are also uniting to bribe them with benefits. "

" As far as I know, the Sun City on our server has already negotiated the terms. They have two players holding summons and are preparing to fight the BOSS tomorrow or the day after tomorrow . However, Youyue City doesn't seem to have any players holding summons. It may become the weakest of the three main cities in the future. "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " What about you? "

Xiao Xiao Yu said helplessly: " We are chasing the Wanzhi Gang, and we can't let it go. If we do, it will be easy to let a few people go. Anyway, there is no rush. Those who enter the Starry City can't escape. After we finish chasing them, we will investigate the matter of the summoned creatures. "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " You don't have to worry. I think the possibility is very small. After all, hiding is not so easy to find. And even if they are found, most people will subconsciously choose the side of justice. There are only one or two summons in each server in fifteen cities. There is a reason for this. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia sighed and said, " What you said makes sense, but we still have to investigate. Who knows whether the main city is divided into three parts to divert players and reduce their burden or for some other reason? What if there are confrontational tasks in the later stages? Wouldn't that be stupid? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia is right. If you want to formally establish a pvp system in an online game, in addition to places like the arena, opposing forces are also necessary. The fight against the evil god in the main storyline is obviously a pve- type gameplay, so the pvp gameplay may really be a competition between the three main cities.

If you calculate it this way, after defeating the two bosses in Sun City , Star City will definitely fall behind. It can only be said that it is slightly better than Youyue City, and will not be at the bottom.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia frowned in embarrassment and said, " So many things. "

Ji Xuan nodded.

There is no way around it. Once a guild becomes powerful, it needs to protect not only its own guild members, but also other players within its jurisdiction, and even the interests of all players in its main city. These are all things it needs to consider .

However, as far as the current situation is concerned, the good news is probably that the three major gangs do not have the time to determine who is the superior.

After such a long time, Jing Yunhan finally calmed down and just stared at Ji Xuanyi. He had no intention of fighting him. Xiao Xiaoyu let go of his hand and let him stand on the ground. He said to Ji Xuanyi, " That's about all the information we have. We still have a lot of things to do. We have to leave first. "

Ji Xuanyi glanced at Jian Xixinjiu, who was not in a good mood and seemed not to want to care about these things. However, after seeing Ji Xuanyi's gaze, he sighed and smiled helplessly: " This matter about Wanzhi has nothing to do with my gang members. It is something I want to do myself, so I have to do the hard labor. "

Perhaps because of similar experiences, Ji Xuanyi even understood the situation of washing the new wine with a sword. He thought about it and said, " Do what you want to do. Your gang members may not want to follow you who are tied up by them. "

Jian Xixinjiu was stunned for a moment, then smiled at Ji Xuanyi and said, " Thank you. "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head, said goodbye to them, and watched them leave.

Ze Yu Sishui said quietly behind Ji Xuanyi: " So what happened when we were away? I feel like I missed ten thousand wonderful scenes. "

Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to pay attention to him, so the good-tempered Qi Qin took the initiative to step forward and explained it this way and that. The three of them screamed in surprise with exaggerated expressions, and his acting skills were extraordinary.

But it's not their fault. In a small place like Green Forest City where there is only one gang, it is absolutely impossible to experience such exciting things.

Ze Yu Sishui said with a sigh, " If this didn't happen in the middle of the game, but after reaching the maximum level, the next plot should be a faction war or something like that! "

Ji Xuanyi ignored him. Ze Yushishui had had a hole in his head for a long time. He said expressionlessly, " Didn't I tell you to join a gang in the damn Jianghu? What are you still doing here? "

Ze Yu Sishui said nonchalantly: " There's no rush to join the gang. "

In fact, Qingfeng Bufu and Ming Shao were quite anxious. After all, if they went one day late, they would get paid one day late. However, Ze Yu Sishui was also a small rich man. He was not short of money. Of course, he could not feel the anxious mood of the other two friends.

Ji Xuanyi said: " What else do you have to do? "

Qingfeng Bufu squeezed in and said, " Equipment! Have you forgotten, Xiaoji, you promised to make equipment for us? "

Ji Xuanyi had almost forgotten about this. He said, "Oh," and said, " Have you gathered all the materials? "

Hearing this, Qingfeng Bufu and Ming Shao were about to shed tears, especially Ming Shao!

Ze Yu Sishui said happily: " Although it's not complete, it's almost there! "

Ming Shao looked at Ze Yu Sishui with resentment.

Ze Yu Sishui used his financial resources to collect five thousand-year-old sunken woods, two of which were even purchased offline with RMB. He then generously gave one to Ming Shao, leaving him with four, which he could use to make two parts of equipment.

Ming Shao said in a gloomy voice: " What do you mean by points? You clearly exchanged a piece of sunken wood for a set of enchantments from me. "

Because of the incident at the elf camp on the wild map before leaving, Ji Xuanyi gave Ming Shao two sets of enchantments. Ze Yu Sishui had been coveting them for a long time. Finally, when Ming Shao was about to go crazy because he couldn't get the sunken wood, he exchanged a sunken wood for a whole set of enchantments. At least at this stage, it was a huge profit.

However, Qingfeng Bufu was not much better than Ming Shao. Ming Shao at least had money and enchantments, but he had a devilish teammate. But Qingfeng Bufu was simply poor, extremely poor. He had seen magic crystals, materials for magic equipment, in the trading house and in the hands of other players more than once, but he was really poor, extremely poor. He couldn't even make money from Ze Yu Sishui like Ming Shao did. So until now he had completely spent all his money to buy two magic crystals, and even owed Ming Shao a foreign debt of ten gold.

At this point, I really have to say that Young Master Ming is the conscience of the trio! The only one who is willing to lend money ...

According to Qingfeng Bufu, he now has no gold coins, not even a single silver coin in his backpack, just thirty copper coins. He is as poor as a player who has just left the novice village. Ji Xuanyi expressed his sympathy to Qingfeng Bufu in a very perfunctory manner, and then put away the materials of the two people, as well as Ming Shao's painful and angry eyes.

It just so happened that he had originally planned to make equipment for Qi Qin and also make some enchantments to sell.

Ji Xuanyi was collecting talismans while enchanting, and he took the three people who had just arrived to visit the trading house and auction house. The three people seemed to have just come to the city from the countryside, and they were sighing the whole time.

As a main city for upgrading, Star City also has monster spawning points. However, compared with the settings of other cities, Star City is much safer and more advanced. Monsters do not exist and cannot be found outside the city. There is only a large training ground in the southwest area, which is full of red-named guards. It is used to train the player's combat ability. The experience is average. Unless it is like Xu Chu, where half of the guild members spawn monsters at the same time, otherwise it is very inefficient as a monster spawning point.

The main reason why Ji Xuanyi brought them to this place was that he didn't want to waste all the time he had spent on the quest to make equipment and enchantments, so he simply let the four people do the hard work of killing monsters, while he was on the rest platform outside the venue, doing the enchantments and gaining some experience as his labor fee.

Ze, Yu, Sishui and the other two had no objection to this. After all, the experience of killing monsters was shared by everyone, and they could also level up.

Qi Qin was casually wandering around the training ground with the Guardian in his hand, occasionally stealing a glance at Ji Xuanyi outside.

Ze Yu Sishui went up to talk to him, exchanged some information, then happily put away the dagger and ran outside to find Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi looked up at him and said, " Being lazy? "

" No, no, no! " Ze Yu Sishui quickly shook his head. No matter how naughty he was, he would not dare to be lazy in front of Ji Xuanyi!

Ze Yu Sishui said: " I heard from Tianxia that you accepted a mission to find something, and it's a daily task for the power, why don't you do it? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " What a waste of time. "

 " That's not what I meant! " Ze Yu Si Shui leaned on the rest platform and said excitedly: " It's the designated ticket for the auction! I can directly use it to buy artifacts! It's worth wasting time! "

Ji Xuan didn't even look at him, and said, " The booklet given in the last hidden quest has a lot of orange equipment in it. Isn't that what I made for you? Last time I saw an orange bracelet from Ah Miao. Although artifacts are very good, I think it's probably not that difficult to get a full set of orange equipment in this game. "

Although what Ji Xuanyi called "not that difficult" was already difficult for ordinary players.

 " To be honest, with the drop rate of orange equipment at this level, I think it's a real waste to spend so much effort collecting fragments. " Ji Xuanyi concluded.

Ze Yu Sishui scratched his head and said, " Where are the weapons? "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned and looked down at him.

Ze Yu Sishui said: " Until now, I haven't seen any orange weapons, right? "

Ji Xuanyi frowned, but before he could say anything, Ze Yu Sishui continued, " Although it seems that the best equipment in all games is of orange quality, it doesn't necessarily mean that the best equipment in this game is also orange. Maybe it's colorful. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi pondered for a moment and said, "Although the game's official is stupid, they wouldn't come up with such Mary Sue equipment, right? "

He was indeed a little trapped by the default rules of the online game, and the description of the task reward only mentioned that the function of the designated coupons included god-level weapons, rather than orange weapons. He really didn't dare to deny Ze Yu Sishui's guess.

"Who knows?" Ze Yu Si Shui said seriously, "Before getting the designated ticket, no one knows what the best equipment is. I think Xiao Ji, you really should give it a try! Anyway, there is no rush to make things. We have a lot of people today, so let's go look for it together!"

Ji Xuanyi was also a very decisive person. After weighing the pros and cons, he decisively put away the things and said to the people in the training field: "Let's not do it today. Let's go do the ruby mission."

Of course Qi Qin would not have any objection. He would help Ji Xuan with whatever he wanted to do. Ze, Yu and Sishui always liked to join in the fun, so they followed along.

Ji Xuanyi had already figured it out last time. If he wanted to complete the ruby mission, the first thing he had to do was to go to the Mage Tower to ask Pusi for divination. It was only less than three o'clock now, so they still had a lot of time.

The group of five people rushed to the Mage Tower, but they were stopped when they entered. Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, and suddenly thought of something, and asked: "What time did you arrive last night?"

Ze Yu Sishui was hugging the guard's thigh and begging him to let him in. When he heard Ji Xuanyi's words, he was stunned for a moment and said, "I don't seem to remember clearly, Qingfeng, what time did we arrive last night?"

Qingfeng Bufu was about to say that he didn't care, but Ming Shao said calmly, "It was almost eight o'clock. The city was in chaos at that time. The streets were full of people, blocking us at the entrance."

Ji Xuanyi said: "So you came to the Mage Tower after twelve o'clock?"

"I remember when to report!" Ze Yu Si Shui looked at Ji Xuan with resentment, "Do you think we want to report at 2 a.m.? There are still many people claiming their rewards at 2 a.m. What can we do? We are desperate too!"

Qingfeng Bufu also said solemnly: "I also think that the authorities should solve the problem of excessive population density in the map!"

This really can't be blamed on the authorities. No matter which game it is, there is absolutely no way to control the enthusiasm of players when facing rewards!

Ji Xuanyi said helplessly: "The Mage Tower has a limit of only one entry per day. You guys wait outside. We will go in and do the divination before coming out."

Since there is such a restriction, no matter how much you beg, you won't be given face. Ze Yu Sishui calmly let go of the thigh in his hand and stood up.

Ji Xuanyi took Qi Qin into the Mage Tower and found Puxi on the first floor. the boss of the plot was defeated, everything here returned to its original state. Pusi was still huddled in the corner, muttering something in a low voice.

As soon as Ji Xuan walked over, Puxi raised his head and smiled at him: "You're here?"

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " I would like you to divine where the ruby in the auction house is now. "

Because Ji Xuanyi did not go to Auguste first like he did last time, Puxi could not predict the future like he did last time . He paused for a while before saying, " Ruby ... Oh, the ruby from the auction house. I see. I will help you. Wait for me. Wait for me for a while. "

Ji Xuanyi remembered that the other party had given a very general range last time because " the weather was bad and the stars were not bright " , and hoped that he could give a little more help this time.

After all, it's still daytime now, so there shouldn't be a situation where the stars are not bright, right?

Just as Ji Xuanyi finished thinking, he heard Puxi slowly say: " Oh ... I know where it is. It's in the center of Star City, but the weather is bad today ..."

Ji Xuan looked at the warm sunlight outside the window expressionlessly.

However, without paying attention to his expression, Puxi finished his lines slowly and said to Ji Xuan: " The scope is a bit large, please try harder ..."

After saying that, he smiled at Ji Xuanyi, foolishly.

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin, and his anger faded away in the other's confused eyes. He said helplessly: " It seems that in most cases, the location of the ruby is designated as a city district. Maybe when you win the jackpot, you can get a precise location. "

Qi Qin thought for a moment and said, " Can you ask him a few more times? I remember Xuan Yi didn't seem to have a limit on the number of divinations he could do. "

Ji Xuanyi's eyes lit up. Why didn't he think of this? Puxi did tell him that he could do divination as many times as he wanted. If that was the case, as long as he kept doing divination, he would be able to get a more accurate result, right?

Ji Xuanyi said to Puxi for the second time: " Can you help me divine where the ruby in the auction house is? "

Puxi looked at Ji Xuan blankly, and indeed did not refuse, but said: " Okay. "

However, before Ji Xuanyi had time to be happy, he saw Puxi, who was squatting in front of the star map, suddenly fall to the ground with his eyes closed.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were both startled. Just as they were about to go up to August to ask what was going on, they saw Puxi slowly open his eyes, get up from the ground, and whispered, " Hmm? Did I fall asleep? Or did I do too many divinations just now? "

Ji Xuanyi understood what this meant. Although he would not refuse Ji Xuanyi's request, his ability was limited and he would faint when he divined the ruby for the second time.

Ji Xuanyi sighed. There was nothing he could do about it. After all, the official would not allow you to easily obtain equipment through such a big loophole.

Qi Qin didn't know what to do, so he said, " This rather large central area refers to the inner city, right? Why don't we go out and look for them? We have five people anyway. "

It seemed that there was no other way. Ji Xuan nodded and was about to leave. The dizzy Puxi sobered up a little and looked at Ji Xuan and asked: " Ah, it's you? Do you need a fortune-teller for today? "

Ji Xuanyi stopped walking again.

Puxi's promise must be valid. Although it cannot be done by divination with the ruby twice, ordinary divination should be possible, right?

After all, this is a task that depends on luck. If possible, Ji Xuanyi still hopes to get more luck bonus from the system.

Ji Xuanyi walked back and said to Puxi: " Yes, I want to predict my luck today. "

Puxi smiled and said, " Okay, I'll help you. "

He took out the crystal ball, muttered to himself for a while, then looked up happily and said to Ji Xuan: " You are so lucky today! One of the things you want to do will definitely be accomplished! "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment. After he understood what the other party meant, he immediately took out his parchment and deleted all the tasks on it, leaving only the ruby task.

Thank you Mrs. Harman, thank you August, thank you Pusey!

Every time he came for divination, he got mostly good news. He strongly suspected that it was because of August. However, this time the good news was really luck, almost the same as precise positioning!

What Pusi said he wanted to do should be referring to the task in the hands of the player. This level of divination BUFF should be very rare and it is very difficult to appear. It is a divination effect specially tailored for this level of difficulty task.

I thought I had no choice but to run all over the inner city, but unexpectedly, there was a sudden turn of events. Ji Xuan looked at Qi Qin happily and said, " Do you want to have a divination too? "

Ever since he was cursed and fell down during the last divination, Qi Qin never dared to come to Puxi for divination again. Even when Ji Xuanyi brought Mi Yin to play later, Qi Qin never joined them.

To be honest, even now when Qi Qin thought about what happened, his heart beat faster and he felt like he was going to faint.

Faced with Ji Xuanyi's invitation, Qi Qin inevitably recalled the incident of his own attempted molestation. He was suddenly ashamed and depressed, mixed with sadness and joy, and was in a panic, not knowing what to do.

What if there are other negative divinations? For example, if I fall down again, or kiss someone uncontrollably , etc.

A kiss or something ...

Wuwuwu Qi Qin, you can't be such a beast! Xuanyi didn't say he likes you! How can you be so reckless! Hold it in!

Although Qi Qin's mind had experienced so many ups and downs, there was still a dull expression on his face.

Ji Xuanyi was getting a little impatient and said in a harsh voice: " What are you daydreaming about? Are you coming or not? "

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi with tears in her eyes, but finally said timidly: " No, no ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..... ??? "

Ji Xuanyi had no idea what the man in front of him was thinking. He only knew that he was a real coward. He felt that the staff in his backpack was about to stir, and he just wanted to beat this man up.

However, Ji Xuanyi still endured it with an expressionless face. After all, if he was beaten silly, he would still be his own person in the future. It was not worth it.

"Forget about divination," Ji Xuanyi said helplessly, "Let's go, Ze Yu Sishui and the others are still waiting outside."

Qi Qin followed Ji Xuanyi with grievance and said, "Do you still want to look for it?"

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, "It probably won't be necessary, but I can't do other tasks before the Ruby Quest is completed ... No, it's best not to do anything, so as not to accidentally waste the bonus. Just hang up and go out and tell Ze Yu Sishui and the others about it." Anyway, Pusi said that the ruby was in the inner city. In order to make the ruby appear quickly and complete the task, Ji Xuanyi planned to wander around the inner city next.

Ze, Yu Sishui and the other two were mentally prepared to walk around the city for three weeks. However, when Ji Xuanyi came out, he said that there was no need to look for it, and the system would automatically complete the task. The three were stunned.

Ze Yu Sishui was confused and said, "Fuck, is this true? Is there such a good thing?"

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: "Yes, there is."

After all, he had personally tried the divination of picking up money on the road.

Ze Yu Sishui had no choice but to say: "Okay, what are you going to do now?"

Ji Xuanyi said: "Hang up."

Ze Yu Si Shui: "???"

Ming Shao and Qingfeng Bufu were also confused.

Is there such a thing as AFK in this game? The feeling of holographic online games is similar to real life. Don't you feel bored when you just sit there? You will be kicked off the line when you sleep. How can you AFK?

Ji Xuanyi did not answer, and said, "I will send you the equipment when it is finished. You can go to Tamajianghu to report now. Their gang base is in the southwest area, near the entrance. If you can't find the way, just ask someone."

Tamajujianhu is well-known enough that people in the southwest region should know where their base is.

Ze Yu Sishui had come to join in the fun, but now he was leaving, feeling rather reluctant to leave. Qing Feng Bu Fu said, "We can just go over and say Xiao Ji's name, right? Will there be a pay raise?"

Ji Xuanyi looked at him strangely, shook his head and said, "I don't think you will be treated this way. If you say my name, you will probably be kicked out directly."

Qing Feng Bu Fu: "..... ??? Why?"

"Because their leader is stupid ..." Ji Xuanyi finished speaking, then felt that he was too straightforward, so he changed his words: "I mean, their leader is not very smart, he might think you are our undercover agents, if you have any questions, it is better to talk to the deputy leader."

"Undercover ..." Young Master Ming pronounced these two words in a complicated tone.

Ji Xuan said calmly, " It's nothing. We just had a gang fight yesterday. It's not a big deal. " Qingfeng Bufu complained: " Is gang war still a small matter? Gang war is already the largest conflict now that there is no faction war! Xiaoji, do you think it is possible for us to join the gang you are in, even if it is a solo gang! "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " I don't have a gang. "

Ze Yu Sishui was stunned, opened his mouth, and was about to say something, but was interrupted by Ji Xuanyi: " I don't know how to set up a gang either, you guys can go out and play in the martial arts world. Just don't mention me in front of the gang leader. Your rich deputy gang leader is a smart guy and will pay you on time. "

There was no other way. Since the topic came up, Ze, Yu, Sishui and the other two had no choice but to give in!

Ji Xuanyi, who thought he would have to spend some time talking, said: "..."

I overestimate these three people!

Qing Feng said in a frivolous way: " Anyway, if this gang really fights Xiao Ji, we might as well be undercover! "

Ze Yu Sishui said quickly: " Yes, yes! Xiao Ji, although we went to Tamajianghu, our hearts are with you! "

Even Young Master Ming nodded!

What could Ji Xuanyi do? He could only say, " Just be happy. "

The three of them left in a hurry. Qi Qin stood for a while, lowered his head and said to Ji Xuanyi: " Where are we going? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him, thought for a moment, and said, " Just take a stroll. Where do you want to go? "

Qi Qin hesitated for a moment and said, " Haven't we visited August yet today? "

That was indeed the case. They went online this afternoon and received the package.

Afterwards, they chatted with Ze Yu Sishui and the others who came to Star City for a while. Until just now, they went in to do divination for the ruby mission. Also, because Ze Yu Sishui and the other two were waiting outside, they did not go upstairs to see August.

If they wanted to stroll around the inner city, they might as well go to the top floor of the Mage Tower to visit August first. After all, the Mage Tower was right behind them and they didn't have to run around.

Ji Xuanyi recalled that when he and Jian Xi Xinjiu came to August yesterday afternoon to weaken the boss , August seemed to have increased their favorability. He wondered whether August's attitude towards him would change now, or if it was possible for him to reveal more information about the future main storyline?

Ji Xuanyi took Qi Qin back to the Mage Tower and went all the way to the top floor.

Most people realized the importance of August because of yesterday's warm-up plot boss .

Even though the favorability mission was really difficult, the number of people who came to the Mage Tower to do the mission still increased a lot. There were even one or two people who were lucky enough to pass the test of apprentices and were waiting outside August's room to be summoned.

As soon as Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked out of the elevator, they heard August's angry roar coming from behind the wooden door.

" How did Ram and his group of idiots let you up here! You don't know anything at all! Get out! Leave here! Today! Tomorrow! This week! Don't come to the Mage Tower! "

Chapter 74

A player opened the door and walked out dejectedly.

What he said was true . He would be stopped outside the Mage Tower by the guards for the next week . He had no idea whether he was gaining favorability or hatred.

It's very miserable.

After seeing this player come out, the two players outside the door immediately started pushing each other.

This one says: " You go in first! "

The other said: " No, no, no, you go first! "

It is obvious that these two people must have thought of figures like their homeroom teachers during school, and were afraid that the one who went in first would be swept by the tail of the typhoon.

Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " Okay , both of you stop arguing , let's go in first. "

The two players were stunned for a moment , then looked over with admiration and made way for the two.

You know , because people came to the door one after another and couldn't answer the questions, August's patience was exhausted . He was like a fire-breathing dragon, one after another . Two people have been banned from entering the Mage Tower within a week. .

But they finally got the four questions downstairs right and were really reluctant to leave, so they stayed stuck here and didn't dare to go in.

Although they felt that Ji Xuan's entry might not have any impact on the current situation , they could only wait for a while!

stabilize their mentality after entering ... Well, at least they wouldn't be banned for a week.

The two players watched the warriors Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin enter the room, and began to silently count how long it would take for these two to be sprayed out, but to their surprise , there was no loud noise in the room.

One of them was confused and asked, " What happened? August didn't lose his temper? "

Another said: " Is it possible that they knocked him out as soon as they entered ..."

Not to mention how the two people outside were panicking and guessing , after Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin entered the door , they saw the old man August, whose beard was flying up because of the players , and he glared at the door aggressively.

However, after discovering that the two people at the door were Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, August's demeanor suddenly changed. He even hurriedly smoothed his beard, then coughed dryly and said to Ji Xuanyi with a smile: " You guys are here? "

Ji Xuanyi also smiled at him and nodded, " Yes, we came to see you. "

Augustus immediately showed a touched expression and said to Ji Xuan softly: " Oh, you came to see me again. I am very happy, really very happy. Please sit for a while and I will make tea for you. "

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment and looked at Qi Qin.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin never do the favorability quests in the Mage Tower, not because they feel that their favorability is already sufficient and there is no need to do it, but because the favorability quests that other players can see and accept do not exist for them. It may be that the system defaults to the relationship between them and August, so they don't need to do such entry-level quests, so it is not displayed to the two of them.

However, the more frustrating thing is that although Ji Xuanyi and his friends do not have to do the same tasks as other players, the system does not give them any other favorability tasks, so the two of them can only come to August every day to show their faces. On the one hand, they feel sorry for this lonely person, and on the other hand, they also hope that it will help them gain favorability.

However, every time they come to show their faces, they just say hello. Generally, after the first round of conversation, August will ask them if they need any help. At this time, if they answer " No, just a simple visit " , he will be very happy. Then, Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin can leave.

But whether it was because of the increase in favorability or because they had come enough times, August did not ask if they needed help after the conversation this time. Instead, he simply assumed that the two people came to visit him and invited them for tea.

The attitude towards them has changed, and I don't know what other plots will happen next. Qi Qin moved the two wooden chairs by the wall to August's messy long table, and August came over with a transparent kettle and two crystal glasses.

August rudely pushed away the mess in front of Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin's seats, then carefully brewed a pot of sweet black tea for them. He returned to his seat and looked at the two with a kind look, as if he was looking at his two children, and said, " Drink it. If you like other flavors, you can tell me. "

Ji Xuanyi was a little uncomfortable with such a look. He turned his face away slightly, observed August's wooden table, took a sip of black tea, and then was stunned.

Qi Qin came over and whispered to Ji Xuanyi: " You seem to have experience in drinking tea! " Ji Xuan nodded.

The tea that August brewed for the two of them did contain experience points. It was estimated that the experience points gained after drinking a cup were equivalent to completing two or three tasks. I guess this was also a benefit given to players after their favorability reached a certain level.

Qi Qin was not good at tasting tea. He drank it all in one gulp and poured himself another cup. Then he said to Ji Xuan, " I don't have any experience in refilling the cup. "

Ji Xuanyi said " hmm " , it was expected, after all, a kettle of tea couldn't give so much experience, other players would still stop playing!

August had been looking at them. Ji Xuanyi was too embarrassed to look up, so he had to lower his head to look at the messy little gadgets on the table, strangely shaped wood, rusty coins, broken crystals, glass bottles filled with strange liquids, and ... a piece of letter paper covered with dense handwriting?

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, looked up at August, and tentatively reached out for the letter paper. After seeing his action, August showed an uneasy expression. He seemed to want to stop Ji Xuanyi, but after leaning forward slightly, he forced himself to sit up straight, like a child who had done something wrong, and did not dare to look at Ji Xuanyi.

The only person who could have caused August to react like this was Mrs. Harman.

Ji Xuanyi was a little hesitant about whether to take the paper. He still had Puxi's divination on him, waiting for the ruby to appear automatically. However, after taking the paper, it was very likely that a task would be brought out. If the divination BUFF used to complete the ruby task was used up ...

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said to Qi Qin: " Come and take a look at this paper. "

Qi Qin put down the teacup, leaned over to take a look, and asked curiously: " What's wrong? It's just a blank piece of paper? "

Ji Xuanyi understood that this was probably a plot that only he could trigger.

He raised his head and glanced at August, who was still looking at him with that look. Ji Xuanyi was in a stalemate with this gaze for a while, but finally gave in. He sighed and picked up the piece of letter paper.

" Dear father, I'm sorry. Even if you said that, I will never give up my dream. I know everyone is prejudiced against warlocks, but I like this profession and hope to change everyone's impression of this profession. I know you are angry about this. I will leave Starry City and never appear in front of you again. Of course, we will no longer quarrel because of the conflict between warlocks and mages. I hope you can take good care of yourself. "

The signature is " Love, Hamana " . This is a letter written by Mrs. Hamana to August. They turned out to be a father and daughter.

Ji Xuanyi looked at August in a daze.

He looked very sad. He wiped his red eyes with his hand and said, " It's my fault, oh, I'm such a stubborn old man. There's nothing wrong with being a warlock. Hamana is my daughter. No one can bully her. "

August let out a loud sob, and said, " I'm an old bastard. I'm not a good father. Hamana insisted on becoming a warlock, and I actually told her that I would break up with her. The letter in your hand was the last letter she sent me. I never found her again, and I couldn't say sorry. I hope she can come back to Starry City. No matter what she wants to do, I won't oppose her ..."

Ji Xuanyi lowered his eyes, not knowing what he was thinking about.

August finally made his request: " I know you have met Hamana. Where is she now? I ... I know that I cannot leave Starry City. The people here need me. I just want to send her a letter. Can you help me? "

At this time, a system message pops up, do you want to accept the task [August's request] ?

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

This is really annoying. August's quest actually collided with the Ruby quest. If they accept it, it might replace the Divination BUFF , and they can only find the Ruby by themselves. If they don't accept it, who knows if there will be any follow-up to this quest? After all, this is a quest that extends from the Novice Town to the Main City, and it will definitely not end so easily.

Ji Xuanyi felt like he was totally unwell.

However, after only a moment's hesitation, Ji Xuanyi still took on August's task.

Not only because in terms of benefits, August's mission is much more important than Ruby's mission, but also because Ji Xuanyi himself is more inclined to August's side. Not to mention that this mission has a slight overlap with his own experience, August and Mrs. Harman have actually helped him a lot.

Ji Xuanyi exhaled lightly and said to August: " I will help you. "

Qi Qin was sitting next to him with a confused look on his face, because this mission had no place for him to intervene. He couldn't even see the props, let alone understand the conversation between the two. It wasn't until Ji Xuanyi said this universal golden sentence for accepting the mission that he reacted and said, " Ah? Accept the mission now? What about the ruby mission? We haven't found the ruby yet. "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said to Qi Qin: " As for the ruby, it's fine. August's mission seems to have a follow-up, which is much more important than the ruby. "

Qi Qin understood a little after hearing what he said. He scratched his head and said, " Actually, I also think August's mission is more important. "

Ji Xuanyi knew what he meant and smiled.

Hearing Ji Xuanyi's words, August said excitedly: " Thank you, kid, thank you for helping me! " Before Ji Xuanyi had time to pull out the parchment and see what the specific requirements of the task were, he saw August groping in his arms and taking out a wrinkled envelope that looked like it had been there for a long time, and handed it to Ji Xuanyi.

He looked at Ji Xuanyi with eager eyes and said, " Please write down Hamana's current address and give it to Ram downstairs. He is my errand runner and will help me deliver the letter to the postman in Star City. "

This is the advantage of having a high favorability. If it were someone else, he would not have time to order you around, so he would definitely let the player run to find the postman himself. Ji Xuanyi would just go along the way and let another person do the errands. It can be said that it is very easy.

Of course Ji Xuanyi agreed.

August handed the envelope and the quill pen to Ji Xuanyi, who wrote on it " Xinmu Town, East Street, Medicinal Garden, to Mrs. Harman . "

August seemed to have accomplished a great thing in his life. He relaxed and smiled softly, " That's great. Thank you. "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " You're welcome. "

As soon as Ji Xuan opened the parchment, he found that this task did not have any complicated follow-up. The person who would hand in the task was Ram downstairs. He then stood up and left August's room with Qi Qin.

The two players outside the door waited for a long time but did not hear August's roar. They were stunned when they saw Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walk out so calmly. The one in the front line poked his head to open the wooden door and found that August was sitting behind the table very calmly, not angry at all. He quickly took the opportunity to run in. The other one asked Ji Xuanyi curiously, " Did you answer the question correctly? What did he ask? How did you answer? "

Ji Xuanyi calmly asked back: " What's the problem? We are new here. "

It turned out that they were newcomers who had just come to Fanxing to complete their registration mission. No wonder August didn't get angry at them. He probably just didn't bother to pay attention to them ... The man said " Oh " regretfully and stood back.

After easily getting rid of the curious players, Ji Xuanyi took Qi Qin downstairs and found Ram, who was also August's apprentice. He had been standing at the front of the long table downstairs. Every time Ji Xuanyi came in, the other party would give him a cheerful smile.

Ji Xuan handed him the envelope and said, " August asked you to give this to the postman. Please. "

Ram gave him a good-natured smile and said, " Well, I'll go there in a minute. "

Ji Xuanyi took a look at his experience bar and found that it had not increased much. The experience gained from this mission was much less than that of other missions in Star City. However, Ji Xuanyi was more certain that there would be follow-up to this mission. Maybe Mrs. Harman from Xinmu Town would really come to Star City. By then, he would have another acquaintance, which would be very convenient.

Ji Xuanyi took out the parchment and checked it. August's request had indeed disappeared, but for some reason, the font of the ruby mission was flashing slightly.

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then suddenly realized what was happening and said to Qi Qin, " Look around quickly, the ruby should be in the Mage Tower! "

Upon hearing this, Qi Qin immediately turned around and started searching everywhere. Ji Xuan cast his eyes towards the wooden tables on the first floor that were just as messy as those on the top floor.

To be precise, the long wooden table on the first floor is even messier than August's long wooden table. After all, four apprentices' things are piled here, while August is the only one on the top floor. The messy things on the long wooden table on the first floor have been piled up into a small mountain.

Ji Xuan glanced at them and tried to dig at the pile of debris . Some small pieces of wood rolled all the way to the ground. Although two of them looked at him, they still smiled and had no intention of stopping him.

Ji Xuanyi felt relieved, waved to Qi Qin, and said, " Come over here and look for it. "

When Qi Qin heard the call, he came over and accompanied Ji Xuanyi to search through the mountain of debris .

But these wizards are really good at making trouble. No one cleaned up the table. It is really difficult to find a ruby from it.

Ji Xuanyi remembered that August said that the ruby would teleport once every three hours. When they came to divine, Pusi said that the ruby was in the center of Star City. If he was referring to the Mage Tower at that time, then there was no telling how many hours the ruby had stayed in the Mage Tower.

If they had to move again within two minutes, their efforts would have been in vain.

Ji Xuanyi took out the parchment with some worry, and found that the ruby writing on it was still shining, and then he relaxed a little.

Maybe it was due to the mission, but the objects on the table did not refresh back to their original locations after a long time. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin searched for more than an hour. Just when Ji Xuanyi was about to run out of patience and wanted to explode and overturn the table, Qi Qin shouted in surprise: " I found it! I found it! "

Ji Xuan looked up quickly and saw that Qi Qin was holding a red gem in his hand. The gem was shining beautifully and it was obvious that it was a very precious thing.

You know, the apprentices' wooden tables are not like August's. Although they look messy, they are all made of precious materials. What is placed on the apprentices' wooden tables are really worthless groceries . This kind of ruby should never appear here. It feels very incongruous. It must be the ruby from the auction house!

Ji Xuanyi took the stone and looked at the parchment. The task on it had indeed been completed. The person who handed in the task was the well-worn postman. It was written on it that he should just mail the stone back.

I didn't expect that this task would be completed with so many twists and turns. Whether it was because of the divination BUFF or just their good luck, it was finally completed.

Ji Xuanyi was worried that the ruby would continue to automatically respawn after three hours, so he immediately took Qi Qin to hand in the task. After the postman accepted the ruby with a smile, less than a second later, Ji Xuanyi received a reply to the task reward and got the first designated ticket fragment that could be used to refresh the artifact at the designated auction. But it was already difficult enough to get one, and there were still nine missing. Ji Xuan had a blank expression on his face and didn't look happy at all.

...

Mei Su is an ordinary assassin player in Star City. However, after working so hard to level up and enter the main city, she became lazy and had no motivation to level up anymore. She just wandered around the city every day and chatted with people.

Although many of them have a favorability system, and players all agree that only favorability tasks can increase the intimacy with the enemy, Mei Su always feels that if he keeps showing his face in front of the enemy, it seems to be of some use.

She met a guard in the southeast district. That guard was different from the other guards. She was a girl. During the chat, she proudly told Mei Su that she was the only girl in the entire Star City who was a guard. The way she spoke was not like a girl, but a real person, sunny and enthusiastic. Mei Su liked her very much and would go to chat with her when she was tired of doing tasks every day.

BOSS appeared in Star City from nowhere . As a member of the guards in Star City, the girl also rushed to the front line of the battle. At that time, the BOSS had not been weakened yet, so the girl naturally died in the battle.

Mei Su waited for a whole day at the place where the girl originally stood guard before finally waiting for the refresh. However, what made Mei Su sad was that the girl was not in the refreshed list.

A holographic online game is a holographic online game after all. They are probably used to making everything look real, right?

Mei Su endured it for a long time, but finally she couldn't stand the anger and sadness of never seeing that person again. She posted a message in the forum full of resentment, blaming the official for being cruel. Unexpectedly, there were many people who thought the same as her, and her post was pushed to the first page, where it didn't sink for a long time.

However, amid the voices of resentment and blame, someone gave a response.

1576I

Ji: I said, didn't you guys go to other places in the city to look for them? I saw the ones from the southwest district when I passed by the northeast district yesterday. They seemed to have moved to another place to stand guard after the refresh.

In an instant, the entire post, including Mei Su himself, exploded.

Ji Xuanyi refreshed the interface twice expressionlessly in front of his computer, and found that a lot of people said thank you to him, and then went online to look for him. Then he closed the post, poked the almost melted sundae in his hand with a spoon, and took a bite.

The official is obviously trying to whet the players' appetite. After all, you don't know how precious many things are until you lose them, and it would be difficult for the game to leave a lasting impression on players if the plot is not tragic.

First, there is a wave of sacrifices, and then a wave of refreshes when the players are worried. Then, the positions are changed again and again – after all, many players are upgrading in fixed areas, and it is difficult to find that their favorite ones have been moved to other places.

Then, when the players are being abused to the point of being unbearable, they are stuffed with candy. At this time, even if the players want to scold the official for being mean, they have to say from the bottom of their hearts, thank you for the happy ending !

Even if I am being played around by the authorities, it is still much better than seeing my favorite character die.

Ji Xuanyi estimated that Lian's favorability and familiarity with the players should not have been cleared. If he went online at this time, he might be able to see a spectacular scene of a large number of players hugging each other and crying bitterly.

Ji Xuanyi slowly finished eating the ice cream that had turned into a milkshake, washed his hands, and then climbed up the line.

It's not that he really went to watch the player and the recognition drama, but A Miao and Yi Shu had a private message with him yesterday, and today they are going to Star City with Xiao Tui. In addition to him and Qi Qin who is probably already waiting online, Ze, Yu and Sishui's trio are also going to the city gate to pick people up.

Speaking of Ze, Yu and Sishui, they are quite successful in the Tamajima world because of their great abilities. However, Qingfeng Bufu complained to Ji Xuanyi that there is no salary in the Tamajima world, and they just give out red envelopes frequently in offline groups.

Ji Xuanyi told him to quit if he was not satisfied. Qingfeng Bufu said that the red envelope from the rich man was actually no different from his salary, it was just that he was more greedy.

Others would grab a thousand, but he would grab a dollar ... and it was real that he bought equipment for them in Jianghu. Except for the equipment specially made for them by Ji Xuanyi, the three of them had already changed into purple clothes.

The three major gangs have finished their cleanup of the Wanzhi Gang. Up to now, the only one who has not been killed is Wan Ge Nai Zhi. It is said that Liu Tian and Xu Chu had encountered Wan Ge Nai Zhi once, and the opponent was only level 40. The two noobs, Liu Tian and Xu Chu, could not defeat him at all and fled on horseback. When they called everyone back to look for the place, Wan Ge Nai Zhi had already disappeared.

And until now, no one has seen Wan Ge'naizhi again, including Ji Xuanyi, let alone revenge. No one knows whether the other party is acting in stealth every day or simply A-ed.

After wiping out the Wanzhi Gang, the three major gangs began a carpet search for summoned creatures. In addition to the summoned creatures from the three cities that had already appeared, Ji Xuanyi also helped them rule out the Green Forest City – the hidden mission had been completed by Ji Xuanyi, and it was impossible for the summoned creatures from Green Forest City to appear again.

However, this exclusion was not very useful. After explaining the possible competition between the three main cities to individual players, almost everyone cooperated with the investigation of the three major gangs in order to affect the interests of their own main cities. However, the second person holding the summoning creature was not found in the Starry City.

Although people from the three major gangs continued to search for newcomers who might be carrying summons at the city gate entrance, everyone knew that the possibility of finding them was not high.

The only good news worth celebrating is that because of the gap that has emerged between the main cities, the three major gangs have given up on fighting for the top spot.

To be precise, after a traitor appeared within Mengtanggu, Jianxi Xinjiu no longer planned to fight. He just wanted to be a gang leader quietly and do his part to protect everyone when Fanxing City encountered trouble. After he told his plan to his gang members, to his surprise, no gang member wanted to leave, but expressed their support for him. Because of this incident, Jianxi Xinjiu finally cheered up again.

Although Liu Tian still did not want to give up his grand ambitions, after Xu Chu talked with Xiao Xiao Yuxia, he no longer had the ability to object to the peace talks.

The three major gangs registered at their original strongholds, confirming their determination not to fight for the inner city strongholds anymore, and peace returned to Star City.

Congratulations! Congratulations!

The only one who expressed sadness was Ze Yu Sishui: "I was ready to go undercover and help Xiao Ji pass on the message! How can I cope with the sudden peace talks?"

Ji Xuanyi: "Please go away."

As soon as Ji Xuan came online, he saw Qi Qin with his back to him, scratching his head and looking at one place, looking like he didn't know what to do.

Because the opponent was so huge, Ji Xuanyi couldn't see what was happening, so he had to go around and asked, "What happened?"

When Qi Qin heard Ji Xuanyi's voice, he stepped aside while teaming up with him and showed him the scene in front of him.

A guard stood there in confusion, in front of him were two players, a man and a woman, who were tearing each other apart.

The man was a mage and the woman was an assassin. Because of the risk of losing levels, the two did not really use their skills to fight, but instead used their fists. Due to professional restrictions, their strength attributes were too low, and the 1.80-meter-tall male mage was pinned to the ground and hammered by the female assassin who was less than 1.6 meters tall. It was a terrifying scene.

Ji Xuanyi initially thought it was a relationship issue between the players, but when he got closer, he realized something was amiss. The male mage was being hammered by the female assassin while still shouting, " This is my wife! Mina, my wife! You're finally alive! "

The female assassin went up and slapped him in the face, cursing: " Fuck you, you bunch of otakus! Who the hell is your wife! How can a otaku like you get your hands on my goddess Mina? Die, die, die! "

The male mage tried desperately to fight back, but was held down by someone with one hand. He couldn't even get up, and cursed: " Even if Mina is not my wife, she is not someone a lesbian like you can like! Let me up and fight to the death! "

The female assassin went mad after being scolded and started pulling the male mage's hair frantically. The male mage raised his hand to poke her eyes, and the two of them started fighting like street thugs.

At this moment, another female player came over. After seeing that, she burst into tears and rushed over to hug her and said, " Wow, my Mina, you were spawned here! I missed you so much! "

The two people on the ground raised their heads and yelled at the same time: " Mina is not yours! Let go! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Normally, this group of players would go to different places to chat, so they didn't know that there were other people who were on good terms with them besides themselves. But after a refresh, everyone came to me at the same time. I guess there must be the same Shura scene in other places ...

The three of them were already in a mess, not knowing what to do. Qi Qin looked back at Ji Xuanyi in confusion and said, " What's going on? Should we go up and stop the fight? "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly, " No need. Bai Xue's scenes are always like this. Let's go to the city gate in the southeast district and wait for someone to pick us up. "

Qi Qin didn't understand what it meant to learn in vain, so he nodded doubtfully and said, " Ah Miao and the others said they would be here in an hour or two. "

It took them about the same amount of time to take a carriage from the northeast area to the entrance of the southeast area. Ji Xuanyi took Qi Qin and dodged the three people who were fighting and got on the carriage.

She is too much like a real person, and it is really easy to cause disputes ... When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were on the road, they saw several people quarreling in pairs in front of them. It was very scary. I hope that after this wave is over, everyone can be sober and there is nothing wrong with treating her as a wife. But you have to know that she is not your wife alone, but everyone's!

When Ji Xuanyi and the other two arrived at the city gate, Ze Yu Sishui and his gang were already waiting there, foolishly holding up a sign that read [Green Forest City Pickup], with the IDs of "Introduction to Art", "Sleepy Cat", and "Calf Cramps" written on it .

Many pedestrians stopped to watch, marveling at the originality of the names given. Some couldn't help but squat down and stroke their calves a few times before leaving, while others hugged their companions and burst into tears, shouting " Dead! Dead ! "

However, Ze, Yu, Sishui and the other two stood there straight and still as a mountain.

Ji Xuanyi said with a pale face: " I don't want to stand with those three idiots. "

Qi Qin didn't hear clearly, and happily raised his hand and waved to Ze Yu Sishui and the others, saying loudly: " Ze Yu Sishui! Xuan Yi and I are here to see you! "

Qing Feng's eyes lit up, and he waved his hand and said, " This way, this way! "

At least 80% of the passers-by who were originally watching Ze, Yu Sishui and the other two turned their eyes to Ji Xuanyi and the others, whispering to each other.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuan grabbed Qi Qin and beat him up!

Qi Qin was hit by a hammer for no apparent reason. Although it didn't hurt, he still looked at Ji Xuanyi with tears in his eyes.

Ji Xuan gave him a slap on the head expressionlessly and took him towards Ze Yu Sishui and the others.

Ji Xuanyi's aura was too strong, and he had a ferocious expression as if he would kill anyone who stared at him. The newcomers who had just entered the city turned their eyes away and walked into the city.

When Ji Xuanyi walked over with that expression, the smiles of Ze, Yu, Sishui and the other two gradually froze, and finally they looked at Ji Xuanyi tremblingly.

Ji Xuan took a look at the signs in their hands and said, " You three bastards came here to grab resources. Did Chen Shi say anything? "

Qing Feng Bu Fu laughed dryly and said, " It's a peaceful time now. We have informed Deputy Gang Leader Xiao Xiao in advance. "

Ze Yu Sishui nodded repeatedly and looked at Ji Xuanyi pitifully, as if to say, "How could you bear to hit me when I look so weak, pitiful and helpless?"

Ji Xuanyi was completely immune to Ze Yu Sishui's trick. Just when he was about to beat up the naughty kid, a familiar voice suddenly came from behind him.

 " Xiao Ji! Tianxia! Here we come! "

Ji Xuanyi turned around and found the three artists standing at the city gate, looking at them excitedly.

Ji Xuanyi turned sideways, and Qi Qin followed suit, revealing the three mentally retarded people behind them and the mentally retarded pick-up signs in their hands.

Art trio: "..."

How embarrassing! Is it too late to go back to Green Forest City now?

The three men, Sleepy Cat , went through untold hardships and even brought Calf Cramp along with them. They didn't know how much effort they put in , but they were almost persuaded to return to Green Forest City by Ze Yu Sishui and the other two at the city gate.

Fortunately, Ji Xuanyi still seemed as reliable as he was in Green Forest City, so Sleepy Cat and the other two finally stayed.

After receiving the news that Ji Xuanyi had another friend coming to Fanxing City, Chenshi came again to recruit people . Although it is a peaceful period for the three major gangs now, any more strength can be added!

However, although Sleepy Cat and his two companions refused to join the same gang with Ze Yu Sishui and the others , they did not rashly join the mortal world, but finally chose Meng Tanggu. Especially after Ze Yu Sishui told them in a fuss that Jian Xi Xinjiu was a single gay man , Sleepy Cat and Yishu became more determined to go to Meng Tanggu!

" Well , I understand why Ah Miao and Yishu went to Mengtanggu. These two are half gay, half gay , " Ze Yu Sishui looked at Xiaotui in disbelief and said, " Why are you going there too? Could it be – "

The calf said calmly: " No , I just think I look safe. "

He has been single for 20 years! Even girls don't like him, so is there any man who would like him? No way.

Ze Yu Sishui felt that what Xiaotui said made sense ...

The friends from Green Forest City finally gathered in Star City . However, the arrival of this group of people from Art also meant that the veteran players in Green Forest City finally began to move towards the main city on a large scale. Wanshi Fengyu, the former tyrant of Green Forest City, also went to Sun City before Art and the others left.

Ji Xuanyi had no objection to this. As far as the current situation was concerned, the Sun City, which had fought two plot bosses and was currently the strongest, was indeed better than the Star City , which only had a few acquaintances but might not necessarily help them.

From then on, every day was a boring upgrade routine . Occasionally, I received a ruby mission , or a letter delivery mission from August. However, the former rarely had a chance to be completed, and for the latter, it seemed that every time I delivered a letter, I never received a reply.

Ji Xuanyi thought that such peaceful days would continue until the new main storyline was released, but he didn't expect that something went wrong with Qi Qin before that.

Because the time for the two to play the game is usually agreed offline, although Ji Xuanyi has classes from time to time, Qi Qin is always at home, so he can always coordinate his schedule. Occasionally, Qi Qin will log off early to go to bed, and Ji Xuanyi will stay there to do enchantment for a while to save some money.

But one day, after Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin confirmed the time to go online, it was postponed!

Ji Xuanyi! Was! Stand Down! By Qi Qin!!!

Ji Xuanyi's first reaction was confusion. He didn't even think about being angry. He waited there for a while, and when he went offline, he found the missed call from Qi Qin.

Mr. and Mrs. Qi suddenly came back with a lot of luggage and called Qi Qin to pick them up at the airport.

Generally speaking, in this situation, the original Qi Qin would drive there himself. However, now the car in Qi Qin's garage is almost covered in dust. How can Qi Qin drive?

He could only hurriedly use the search software to determine how to get a taxi to the airport and how to get back. Because Qi's father and mother were urging him, Qi Qin made a plan in a panic and ran out to get a taxi. After getting in the car, he remembered that he had an appointment with Ji Xuanyi to level up, so he quickly called Ji Xuanyi.

After hearing the whole story, Ji Xuan fell silent.

Isn't it a bit unsafe to let Qi Qin do such a difficult thing? If he had known earlier, he would not be so addicted to games. He should have taken more time to take Qi Qin out for a walk ...

However, the incident happened so suddenly that even if Ji Xuanyi wanted to run to the next city to help Qi Qin, it was too late. He could only remind him of some details and told him to be careful about his own safety. If he encountered something he didn't understand, he should check it online, and if he couldn't find it, he should call him. He would not play the game for the time being and would wait until Qi Qin safely brought Qi's father and mother home.

Qi Qin responded repeatedly.

Ji Xuanyi: "... Wait a minute, forget about taking a taxi when you go there, but what are your plans for returning home? "

When Qi Qin heard Ji Xuanyi's question, he quickly took out the note from his pocket. Although he could understand simplified Chinese characters, it was easy for him to forget when writing. Half of the crooked characters on the note were in traditional Chinese, and it was very difficult to read as they were squeezed together.

" Come back? Let me see, " Qi Qin blinked hard, staring at the note and said, " When you come back, take the airport bus directly, turn left at People's Square and take bus No. 211 ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi was thinking about when was the last time Qi Qin's parents took the bus, thirty years ago? Were there buses thirty years ago?

But this plan was the result of Qi Qin's hard work after all. Ji Xuanyi said tactfully: " The bus is a bit crowded, and your parents are carrying things. Even if you can't drive there by yourself, you should take a taxi if you can. "

Qi Qin agreed, took out a pen, crossed out route 211 , and laboriously wrote the words " take a taxi " .

Ji Xuanyi talked to him for a while. Fortunately, there were only a few steps to pick someone up at the airport, and no matter how outrageous it was, it couldn't be that far-fetched. After confirming that Qi Qin's plan was the best and safest plan he could implement, Ji Xuanyi hung up the phone.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

I'm still so worried!

Qi Qin was actually quite reliable. Except for the fact that taking the bus didn't quite match his family's situation, to be precise, it was a normal route for him to get home from the airport. After talking to Ji Xuan, Qi Qin's actions went very smoothly. He arrived at the airport, got to the pick-up gate with the help of signs and staff, and then waited for the arrival of Qi's father and mother. Qi Qin even did not forget to hold up a makeshift sign like Ze Yu Sishui and the others!

It can be said that the only mistake was that Qi Qin's parents did not recognize that he was their son when they saw Qi Qin for the first time.

After all, Qi Qin's body shape has changed so much ... The first thing Qi Qin's mother said when she recognized him was: " Son, is boxing your latest hobby? "

Qi Qin: "... I just suddenly came to my senses and thought that it would be better for people to exercise more. "

Father Qi: " Are you sure you just exercised a little more? "

Qi Qin nodded randomly, and seeing that the two elderly people wanted to say more, he immediately picked up their luggage and walked in front with big strides.

Mother Qi's eyes welled up with tears as she asked, " Why do I think our son is just like the workers carrying heavy bags at the dock? "

Father Qi also felt the same, but he still managed to remain calm and said, " It's all an illusion! "

Then they followed Qi Qin and boarded the airport bus to People's Square.

Qi Qin's parents: "..."

Qi Qin's parents then realized that there seemed to be something wrong with their son's brain. It was not easy for him to show up safely at the airport to pick them up and take them home!

In the end, I took a taxi and arrived safely at Qi Qin's parents' home.

It was because Qi Qin had an accident before. In fact, Qi Qin's parents did not live with him.

Qi Qin's original life was very chaotic and he didn't want his parents to disturb him. Qi Qin's parents also spoiled him. Qi Qin didn't let them live with him, so the old couple bought another house in the city and lived not far from Qi Qin .

Although Qi Qin intended to take good care of the two elders after he arrived, it would be easy to be exposed over time, so he had to maintain the status quo.

Qi Qin got off the car and carried his luggage into the house like a dock worker. Qi Qin's parents still treated him as a child and bought him a lot of snacks for him to take home.

It was rare that their son was willing to stay with them instead of rushing out to hang out with a bunch of bad friends. Mother Qi kindly held Qi Qin's hand and sat on the sofa to talk. Father Qi took out his cell phone to check how much money his son had spent after he left, and whether he had bought a lot of cars and bags again.

You wouldn't know until you check, and you'll be shocked. During the time they were abroad, Qi Qin's most common spending, apart from game cards and gym memberships, was Shaxian snacks from XX takeout!

Father Qi: "..."

Even if you're eating takeout, Shaxian snacks are too much!

Qi Qin was confused by his mother's nagging, and then he was criticized by his father. The main idea was why he had to put himself in a difficult position! The pocket money they gave him before was not enough for Qi Qin! This time when they came back from a trip abroad, the most money Qi Qin spent was 5,000 yuan for an annual gym membership ...

After hearing what Father Qi said, Mother Qi's face changed drastically. She hugged Qi Qin and cried distressedly, " My son has suffered so much! "

Qi Qin: "..... ??? "

Qi Qin had no idea what was going on, but the current situation didn't seem to give him a chance to call Ji Xuanyi, so Qi Qin had to pretend that he understood and looked at Qi's father and said, " I'm fine. "

Father Qi: " It's good. Why are you eating Shaxian snacks? And why did you order so many times? "

Qi Qin: "..."

In fact, Qi Qin had been losing weight for a while because Ji Xuanyi disliked his weight. But he didn't expect that losing weight would consume one's will so much that even Qi Qin, who had practiced martial arts for 20 years, couldn't resist it! He was awakened by hunger in the middle of the night, and the housekeeper was not at home, so Qi Qin had to order takeout. He had heard of the place name Shaxian in that world, and ordered it once out of curiosity.

Unexpectedly, the mixed noodles tasted good! So he ordered from this place every time.

Facing Mr. Qi's questioning, Qi Qin had no choice but to say, " Mixed noodles are delicious ..."

Father Qi: "..."

Mother Qi cried even louder.

But in the final analysis, although Qi Qin's parents usually go along with him in everything, it is definitely a good thing to study hard. Qi's father and mother gradually accepted this fact while feeling sad that Qi Qin suddenly became frugal.

Qi Qin's mother looked at him carefully and said, " Do you want to stay for dinner today? Mom will cook for you, okay? "

In the past, Qi Qin's mother would never dare to make such a request to Qi Qin, and the latter would usually refuse mercilessly, but now Qi Qin looks so much better, she couldn't help but want to try.

Qi Qin had only eaten the dishes cooked by Qi's mother during the short period of time after he arrived, so he happily agreed and almost moved Qi's mother to tears again.

While Qi's father and mother were cleaning the table and cooking, Qi Qin finally found the opportunity to run to the bathroom and call Ji Xuanyi.

After Ji Xuan heard Qi Qin's account of what happened, he was silent for a while and said, " The original Qi Qin was not a good person. Although his parents were very strong to the outside world, it must have been very hard for them to deal with him. You can show more respect to them on behalf of the original Qi Qin. "

Qi Qin thought of the two people outside who were obviously wealthy but still cooked and cleaned the house for their sons, and nodded slightly.

 " Son, who are you calling? " Mr. Qi said outside the bathroom door.

When Ji Xuan heard the voice on the other end, he hung up the phone very considerately, and Qi Qin hurried out.

Father Qi looked at Qi Qin with a frown. He knew that Qi Qin had attracted many questionable women, but as long as it did not affect his health, he did not impose many restrictions on Qi Qin. But it's different now. Qi Qin is dumbfounded. If someone wants to take the opportunity to deceive his feelings, Qi's father will not allow it.

" Which girlfriend of yours is this? " Father Qi thought for a moment and said in a gentler tone, " Dad is not against you. Bring her home so that your mother and I can take a look at her, okay? "

Girlfriend ...

Qi Qin thought of Ji Xuanyi and her face suddenly turned red. She said, " No, no ... No, not my girlfriend ..."

God knows how much he wanted to nod and say yes!

She was blushing even though it wasn't her girlfriend, which made Mr. Qi even more worried!

However, Qi Qin kept being evasive in his words, and Qi's father didn't dare to ask too much, so he had to go into the kitchen to discuss it with Qi's mother.

Although Father Qi is different from other fathers, Qi Qin subconsciously believes that the role of father is more dignified, so after coming to this world, he communicates with Mother Qi more often. Father Qi and Mother Qi are both experienced in the business world, so of course they can see this.

While eating, Mother Qi looked at him with a kind gaze and asked, " Son, who were you talking to on the phone just now? Can you tell me? "

She noticed that Qi Qin seemed to be quite vulnerable to this trick.

This was indeed the case. Qi Qin didn't want to say it at first, but when he saw the look in Qi's mother's eyes, he immediately felt distressed and guilty. In the end, he whispered, " Ji Xuanyi. " If he remembered correctly, Qi Qin's parents should know Ji Xuanyi. After all, the original body had one leg and two back teeth broken by Ji Xuanyi when he was in high school. The two parents who doted on their son to this extent must have remembered this deeply.

Sure enough, as soon as he said this, both Qi's father and mother were stunned, looked at each other, and then showed complicated expressions.

Mother Qi asked carefully, " How did you end up playing with him? "

Qi Qin was just about to say that they met while playing games when he suddenly remembered something.

If he wants to complete the life of the original Qi Qin, then he must complete what he should complete. Although this sentence seems to be unpopular now, Qi Qin knows that there are three types of unfilial behavior, and the worst is to have no descendants. If nothing unexpected happens, Qi Qin's parents are of course looking forward to their son getting married and having children.

But he couldn't do it.

Qi Qin knew that the person he liked was Ji Xuanyi, and it was impossible for him to start a family with another woman. Even if Ji Xuanyi didn't necessarily like him, he didn't want to betray his feelings.

Qi Qin stared blankly at Father Qi and Mother Qi for a long time before he stammered and said in an almost inaudible voice: " I, I like him ... "

As expected, Mr. and Mrs. Qi showed shocked expressions. Mr. Qi raised his hand somewhat at a loss, and the chopsticks almost rolled off the table, and he caught them in a panic.

Qi Qin originally thought that he would be greeted with sad and angry eyes, but after a closer look, Father Qi and Mother Qi seemed to be just surprised and embarrassed. After a moment of silence, Mother Qi actually said: " It's okay to like men, but can you change one ..."

Qi Qin: "..... ??? "

Qi Qin didn't know that Qi's father and mother had started from scratch and earned such a huge fortune. Their original idea was to let their son live a freer life. Of course, they would not force Qi Qin's sexual orientation. Apart from being surprised that Qi Qin used to like women but suddenly became fond of men, they didn't really have any other ideas.

But it's too strange to say it this way. It's not like I'm buying furniture online!

" We know that relationships are hard to force, but it's mainly about the person ..." Father Qi said with some embarrassment: " I've also met Ji Xuanyi, does he like you? "

Qi Qin: "..."

This question was too heartbreaking. Qi Qin almost couldn't hold back her tears and said aggrievedly: " I don't know ..."

Upon hearing this, Mr. Qi picked up the bowl worriedly and took a mouthful of rice.

The atmosphere at the dinner table became a little strange, but it didn't seem as sinister as imagined. Qi Qin followed Qi's father and started eating for some unknown reason.

After finishing the meal, Father Qi said to Qi Qin: " I have seen Ji Xuanyi before, he should be a good person ..."

He broke his own son's legs and still said that he had a good character. It seems that Mr. Qi knew what kind of person Qi Qin was in the past.

" With your current physique, I'm not worried about you getting beaten, " Father Qi said with a frown, " But Ji Xuanyi, if you want to be with him, you can only work hard on your own. The situation at home can't help you ..."

Seeing Qi Qin's confused face, Qi's father said, " Your father had some connections back then, so it's impossible for him to beat you up like that and nothing would happen. But you've seen the facts. Regarding this matter, your mother and I know that we can't persuade you or help you. You still have to work hard and make progress, otherwise you won't be worthy of him. "

Qi Qin nodded inexplicably. From what Qi's father said, it seemed that Ji Xuan's family had some extraordinary background, but Ji Xuanyi had never told him much about it. He didn't know if Ji Xuanyi would tell him if he asked.

Or if Ji Xuanyi got mad, it's possible that he would be beaten up ...

Father Qi said, " We didn't want to force you, but since you want to date Ji Xuanyi, it would be best if you could spare some time to come here and learn some skills in managing a company. " After taking a look at Qi Qin's dazed expression, Qi's father was silent for a moment, then tentatively asked, " If you have time, why don't we go back to college? "

Qi Qin: "..."

When Qi Qin came online again, he told Ji Xuanyi the whole conversation between himself and Qi's father, and tactfully asked about the possibility of going back to college.

Ji Xuan walked and enchanted with an expressionless face, and said: " Well ... Let's not talk about other subjects. You are pretty good at Pinyin. I don't know about math, but if you can only speak English QAQ , I think it would be better to start learning from junior high school. "

Qi Qin didn't understand and asked: " What do you mean? "

Ji Xuanyi: " It means that I feel it is inappropriate. "

Qi Qin: "..."

The materials bought earlier were used up. Ji Xuanyi sighed , put the finished enchantment back into his backpack, and said, " Father Qi should think that your brain is not that bad, but with your current knowledge, you probably won't understand any class in college. It's better to let your dad give you extra lessons. He might be able to explain it in a more understandable way. Anyway, don't you want to spend more time with them? "

This is true. Qi Qin nodded, looked at Ji Xuanyi carefully, and said, " Xuanyi, what's going on at home? "

Ji Xuanyi didn't react and said casually: " What's going on? How would I know? I've moved out and lived alone for so long. "

After a pause, Ji Xuanyi suddenly realized what Qi Qin meant and looked at him with raised eyebrows: " Why are you asking this? "

Qi Qin swallowed his saliva and said, " No, nothing ..."

Ji Xuanyi knew that he might have asked his parents about his situation, but he didn't say it out loud. He just said, " Let's go to the trading house. I'll put the things up. There's also a letter that was confiscated. I wonder if the auction house has issued another task. "

Qi Qin didn't dare to ask any more questions. He nodded and followed Ji Xuanyi.

Now because of the possible faction war, people from all the gangs are concentrating on upgrading. Although Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin are a little salty, they can go to August to have a cup of tea every day, so they can still keep up with the progress. Now they are almost level 50.

However, as time went by, everyone became a little tired. Some time ago, we heard that the game might be updated again, and everyone was looking forward to it. All kinds of rumors emerged one after another, including but not limited to the delayed opening of life skills, faction battles, and wild maps ... all kinds of strange speculations.

Ji Xuanyi, a player who has seen through life and death and has lived in seclusion for a long time, doesn't care about these news at all. In fact, he is more interested in the main storyline, and he doesn't know whether he has switched from pvp to pve or pvx .

Maybe he has more pvx , after all, he has mastered his life skills very well.

The trading house and the auction house in the inner city are separated by just one street.

Because it is positioned to be more user-friendly, it is not as magnificent as the auction house, but it covers a large area and is crowded with many players.

Ji Xuan threw Qi Qin into the queue expressionlessly and said, " I think we should open another trading house in the inner city, or add a few more operation windows ... I'll go to the postman to pick up the mail first, you wait in line and wait for me to come back. "

Qi Qin nodded, and Ji Xuanyi walked to the door to get the letter.

There was also a queue in front of the postman at the trading house. Most of the players who had bought things wanted to pick up their goods. Fortunately, considering the number of players, there was more than one postman. In addition, the players who sold things would not be in a hurry to pick up their things, so the number of people outside was more acceptable to Ji Xuanyi than the number of people inside the trading house.

After about five minutes, Ji Xuanyi received his letter, but to his surprise, this letter was not a random letter from the auction house. The sender on the envelope was actually Mrs. Harman from Xinmu Town.

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment. Even if it was a reply to August, Mrs. Harman shouldn't have sent it to him. What was going on?

Ji Xuan tore the envelope open in a few seconds, revealing the yellow paper inside. The side edges of the paper were uneven, and it seemed to be torn from a notebook. Ji Xuan couldn't remember clearly, but it seemed to be the paper from Mrs. Harman's notebook.

When the letter was unfolded, Mrs. Harman's beautiful notes could be seen.

" Brave adventurer, I learned about your recent situation from my father's letter. It seems that you have arrived in Starry City. You must have experienced a lot of hardships. Starry City is a warm and kind city. I hope you have a good time there. "

" I know what you want to ask. Yes, although I received my father's letter, I did not reply because the chance of us meeting again is too small. Not only because we both have the responsibility to protect a town, but also because the dark forces are gradually invading this continent. To be honest, the situation in Xinmu Town is not optimistic. I don't know what will happen in the end. Maybe I will die, or maybe I can survive. "

" But if it's the former, there's no need for me to contact my father again. It's better to let him know that I'm still alive and I'm just angry with him and don't want to talk to him than to let him know that I'm dead. If it's the latter, I'll go to Star City to visit him when Xinmu Town regains its former peace. It won't be too late to talk about everything then , so I hope you don't tell my father about my current situation. "

" I have rashly sent you this letter to explain the matter between my father and me, and also to tell you that you may have seen the evil of the evil god, but that is not all. In addition to humans, other races have also been persecuted. All living beings on the continent will unite to drive out the evil god. I hope you can prepare for the battle in advance.

From your Lady Harman. "

Ji Xuan was stunned after reading it. What does this letter mean? ... It's a spoiler?

Ji Xuanyi carefully read the letter several times, then looked inside the envelope, and found that there was indeed nothing else. Then he fell into deep thought.

From the information provided by Mrs. Harman, it can be seen that the Xinmu Town in this timeline may have come into contact with the power of the evil god. Since the difficulty of the Novice Town can only be fixed at that level, it will definitely not change. It is very likely that there will be overlapping maps with different timelines in the next update, or simply a copy will be made. Ji Xuanyi is not sure how big the official plans to make this main line, so he doesn't know which of the two it will be.

Secondly, judging from the ambiguous words of Mrs. Harman that she might die or not, the following plot should change with the degree of the player's strategy. The specific factors that affect the outcome are impossible to guess because the official has not revealed any information. It may be the time spent on the strategy, or it may be the success or failure of the strategy, which will affect the survival of several novice towns.

will not be refreshed like the previous warm-up BOSS . It will be a real death in the plot timeline, and if it appears again, it will only be a memory killing .

From the scenes we saw of those " fake deaths " last time , we can tell that as a novice town, players will never allow them to die like that. If they really do that in the next plot activities, the game will probably be overwhelmed by players rushing to go online.

Then came Mrs. Harman's last words, uniting all living beings on the continent.

As far as Ji Xuanyi knows, the elves in the wild map are definitely one of them. If the elves are to appear, the wild map will definitely be opened. In addition, there will definitely be other races, so there will definitely be a major update this time!

I don't know if it will be useful for them to make themselves familiar to the elves last time.

Ji Xuanyi was wondering if there was any hidden information in the relationship between Mrs. Harman and August when someone suddenly patted him on the shoulder.

Ji Xuan turned around and found that it was Yishu and A Miao.

Art smiled and said, " Xiao Ji? What are you looking at? You look so engrossed! "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " It's a spoiler of the plot. I gave it to you. "

Art laughed out loud: " Don't be ridiculous! The uncle party hasn't even come out yet, and you're still giving away spoilers! "

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows and said, " What are you doing here? "

Art pointed at the sign above his head and said, " Shopping, Xiaoji, you've been a little slow to react lately! "

Ji Xuanyi then remembered that he still had some things to hang up and he had to buy some more materials. He didn't know where Qi Qin was in the queue.

Ji Xuanyi said, " What do you want to buy? Tianxia is already queuing up. If it's ordinary materials, I can help you get them. "

Art and A-Miao looked at each other, A-Miao smiled and said, " Thank you, but we are here to buy appearance equipment, so we have to choose by ourselves. "

Not every piece of equipment in the game looks good. In addition, due to the penalty for demotion, the game atmosphere is relatively peaceful, so many female players are unwilling to wear the same equipment all the time. Even if the attributes of some equipment are not very good, but the appearance is good, they are willing to wear it to play the game.

However, buying appearance equipment is just like buying clothes, which is very time-consuming. Even considering the mood of the players behind, it will take at least ten to twenty minutes to buy appearance equipment once.

Many players have encountered the situation where they wanted to buy appearance equipment but the queue did not move for half an hour, and they have raised objections to this. However, in the game world, whoever has the bigger fist is right. There are still many appearance players, including some experts. In the end, they can only make room for one position in the trading house for appearance players. The queue at this position is often very short, with only a dozen people, but the speed of advancement can be said to be the slowest in the entire trading house. Ji Xuanyi glanced at the short line in the corner. There were only eight people, but A Miao and the others would have to wait for at least two or three hours. Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but respect the two girls.

" Oh, by the way, speaking of spoilers, Xiao Ji, do you know about the Mage Tower? " Ah Miao went to take a seat first. Yishu did not move, but approached Ji Xuanyi very gossipyly, lowered his voice, and spoke mysteriously.

Ji Xuanyi should not be too familiar with the Mage Tower, go there for tea every day, okay? But Art said this, as if there was something in the Mage Tower.

Ji Xuanyi blinked and said, " What happened to the Mage Tower? "

Yishu frowned and said, " Someone on the forum said that the wall behind the elevator of the Mage Tower can be used to see the other floors of the Mage Tower. Some people saw people walking inside and there seemed to be a lot of books. They suspect that the next update may open up other spaces in the Mage Tower besides the first and top floors. It is very likely to be a place like a library. "

Every time the players go to find August, there is an operated elevator, so no one has ever stopped at the middle level of the Mage Tower, and no one knows what the remaining 290 meters of the Mage Tower are except for the bottom six meters and the top four meters.

But this time, someone saw it.

Art said anxiously, " The most infuriating thing is that I saw this news when I was offline for lunch today. Everyone was doing their daily tasks in the morning, but they couldn't get in in the afternoon. Xiaoji, did you do your daily tasks today? Can you go in and take a look? Are they cheating or is it real? "

Ji Xuanyi never left things unfinished, and he had already finished his daily work, but in response to Yishu's question, he still said, " Well, I can still go in. I'll go take a look after I finish buying things. "

Art then nodded and said anxiously: " Remember to be the first to tell me after you finish reading it! "

Ji Xuan responded and watched her run to the team to find Ah Miao.

If the news brought by Art is not false, then now, including the intelligence he saw in Mrs. Harman's letter, there will be at least four or five major updates appearing at the same time, and there will be some connection among them ...

Ji Xuanyi: "... My head hurts. "

Chapter 76

Ji Xuanyi was very interested in the " remaining 290 meters of the Mage Tower " mentioned by Yi Shu . He squeezed into the trading house and took away Qi Qin who was already in the middle of the line.

Qi Qin looked at his seat occupied by someone else and said, " Are you not queuing anymore? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and shared some information with him . Regardless of whether Qi Qin had reacted or not , he said, " We'll come back to hang things when there are fewer people at dinner time . Let's go to the Mage Tower to check the situation first. "

If the rumors are true, then the remaining 290 meters are probably the real meaning of the Mage Tower to most players.

Ji Xuanyi led Qi Qin all the way into the Mage Tower, and under the guidance of the guide , they entered the elevator.

As soon as the elevator opened, Ji Xuanyi discovered something was wrong . The elevator material that was completely impenetrable this morning had now turned into a thick frosted glass texture . Although he couldn't see outside clearly, he could indeed vaguely make out some outlines.

Qi Qin also noticed this , looked at Ji Xuanyi in surprise, and said: " The elevator has really changed! "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and nodded, then took Qi Qin to the elevator. After hesitating for a moment, he asked before the elevator started: " Can you go a little slower? "

She was always very enthusiastic towards Ji Xuanyi , and Ji Xuanyi thought she would be willing to do whatever he asked . But she smiled and said, " Sorry , the great magician August likes assistants who are efficient at work. "

This is what rejection means.

Ji Xuanyi: "... Okay."

Under the operation , the elevator rose slowly and gradually accelerated. At the beginning, Ji Xuanyi could only see the moving figures behind the glass and large areas of color blocks, which looked like bookshelves. Halfway through, the speed was so fast that he could not see anything. It was not until he reached the top floor and slowed down when it was about to stop that Ji Xuanyi saw the same scene behind the glass as on the lower floor.

The middle section of the Mage Tower seems to have the same layout. If such a large space is used to store books, some perverted daily tasks will probably appear.

However, correspondingly, since there is such a place, the background setting and main storyline of this game may also be found there.

As Ji Xuan was thinking, the elevator arrived. He smiled at the two of them and made a " please " gesture.

Ji Xuanyi walked out and Qi Qin followed behind.

The sudden change in the elevator must mean that the official is planning to reveal some updated information to the players. In this case, August may be able to answer questions in this regard.

Ji Xuanyi took the time to send a private message to Yishu to confirm that the rumor was true, and then he pushed the door and walked into August's room.

Since no one could answer August's questions, and his favorability might even turn negative, the number of players coming to August to report in finally decreased during this period of time. But August didn't seem to be in a very good mood.

Ji Xuanyi knew why Mrs. Harman had never replied to his letter, and August was very worried about it.

However, even though he now had Mrs. Harman's letter in his backpack, he was a little unsure whether he should take it out and show it to August.

Rather than a quest item that triggers the plot, the letter is more like an ordinary hint to the players, and there is nothing wrong with what Mrs. Harman said in it about her and August's thoughts.

The most important thing is that a major update is approaching, and August is of extraordinary significance to Starry City. No one knows whether he will really abandon the entire Starry City and run away when he learns that his daughter may be in danger of her life, and whether it will affect the subsequent plot.

Ji Xuanyi is not afraid of taking risks, but Fanxing City is. Even though he used to be a self-centered gaming toxic person and has now turned over a new leaf, he still has to consider his other partners .

Ji Xuan thought about it again and again, but still did not take out Mrs. Harman's letter. Instead, he said to August, who was frowning, " Hello, we are here again. "

Because Ji Xuanyi and his friends had already had tea in the morning, August did not stand up to entertain them. Instead, he looked up at them and said, " Hamanna still hasn't replied to my letter. "

Ji Xuanyi and his team would hear this sentence every time they came to interview. Once, they even heard August repeating this sentence unconsciously when facing other players. After an innocent player asked him " Who is Hamanna " , he scolded the player.

August muttered this sentence more than once or twice. Some players thought this was a breakthrough in the affection quest and specifically looked up Hamana. However, in Western fantasy games, there are occasionally duplicate names, and it is even more difficult to avoid in large-scale games like "Domain". There is a flower shop owner named Hamana in Star City, who is quite beautiful. Some people speculated whether August was going to have a sunset love ...

However, after spending several days experimenting with the conversation, the player discovered that the flower shop owner and August had no connection at all, and ultimately had to put this information aside.

As far as Ji Xuanyi knew, this question was also included in the popular science summary post [Unsolved Mysteries – Starry City] on the forum.

As for whether August is planning to have a serious sunset romance or be a domineering magician to support the little boss of the flower shop ...

August's reputation is being harmed!

However, Ji Xuanyi knew the truth. Facing August's question, he hesitated for a moment, then comforted her: " Maybe there will be a reply in a while. "

August sighed and muttered, " Maybe she's still mad at me ... It was my fault back then. After all these years, you still don't plan to forgive me? "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything. August looked up at them and said, " What do you want to do? "

Ji Xuanyi lowered his eyes, not knowing what he was thinking. He came back to his senses after hearing August's question and said to him, " I want to know what the middle floor of the Mage Tower is? Is it the library? "

As expected, August responded to the question. He shook his head and corrected, " That's not a library. That's my private library. The books in it were collected when I was young. They cover almost everything on this continent. "

In other words, if you have any questions or guesses about the main storyline or settings, you can find the answers there.

Ji Xuanyi's eyes lit up slightly, and he said, " Can I go in and take a look? " August said, " Other people need to pass my test before they are allowed to enter the library, but you are different. You can enter at any time ... "

At this point, August showed a somewhat embarrassed expression: " But not now, child, because it has been too long. The library is being repaired and tidied, and it may take some time before it can be opened. I am sorry. "

This is also to be expected. After all, it is the setting data of the entire game. If one can obtain it so long earlier than others, it would be no different from cheating.

Ji Xuan nodded, thanked August, and left with Qi Qin.

If he guessed correctly, he didn't have much time left to save money.

After the frosted glass elevator in the Mage Tower was exposed, players who had become numb from doing tasks began to frantically search for possible update hints in various maps. However, this madness did not last long, and the official update announcement was released. The overlap rate was very high with the inferences made by Ji Xuanyi in advance, but to Ji Xuanyi's surprise, this update did not mention the story missions related to the world line that he guessed. Instead, it only opened the libraries in the three wizard towers in the three major maps, life skills, more specific reputation and favorability systems, and the wild maps that players have been thinking about for a long time.

To be precise, it should be the entire world map.

Just a day ago, the map makers who had exhausted their efforts had just launched the full maps and zone maps of the three main cities. After hearing that the world map was fully open, an internal member of the map making organization reported on the forum that the organizer of the team sat alone in the room that night.

Just after they finished drawing the main city, five new outdoor maps were released. I also heard that there were forks in the roads connecting the maps. In other words, what they are going to prepare next is not just five new maps, but even a map of the entire world.

The map makers said: " No, no, it hurts your body, let's just use our brains to remember the route, or we can just wait for official news ... "

In addition to the new outdoor maps, the interconnection between maps is also open, but only people in high-level maps can go to low-level maps. For example, people in Starry City can go back to Green Forest City, but people in Green Forest City who have not reached level 40 still cannot visit Starry City in advance. The same is true for the five novice towns. However, because the novice towns cover too small an area, old players who plan to go back for nostalgia will need to queue up.

But in fact, there shouldn't be many people who will really go back to the Novice Town. After the maps were opened to each other, the official " travel cheat " that existed in the game before was gone. For example, it is no longer possible to walk from Starry City to Green Forest City in half an hour like when you came here. Instead, you need to walk the road that should exist on the map seriously and down to earth. Some people speculate that it may take a day or two to get there, unless you are a sensitive profession or a knight, then it may be faster.

However, the official also explained that while players are on the road, they may pick up some materials needed for life skills, and they may also encounter wild bosses that drop rich rewards. Although the experience gained is less than doing tasks in the main city, the fun can completely make up for this loss.

In addition, the official has also imposed restrictions on possible large-scale massacres . Any large-scale player who returns to a low-level map cannot attack players with a level difference of more than ten levels. If players on low-level maps are maliciously harmed by players on high-level maps within a level difference of ten levels, they can also report this to the official. After verifying the situation, the high-level players will be punished accordingly.

This wave of update announcements can be said to be full of sincerity. Although players have to wait for another three days, almost no one complained, and everyone was eagerly waiting for the day when the server would be opened.

Ji Xuanyi attended classes honestly for three days. Since Qi Qin's parents had returned home, he didn't have to rush over to help just because the other party did something stupid.

Qi Qin was also learning. During the three days of game maintenance, he learned company management techniques from Qi's father. After three days, Qi's father looked at him instead of looking at his son as a fool, and told Qi's mother with tears in his eyes that in the future he could only buy a few houses for Qi Qin and let him collect rent to live.

Mother Qi smiled kindly while cutting vegetables and said, " I think our son may not be able to calculate the rent clearly, so he might as well go to the construction site to carry bricks, which he is good at. "

Qi Qin: "..."

After figuring out Qi Qin's true nature, Qi's father and mother no longer concealed their complaints!

Qi Qin was also wronged! He wasn't that stupid! He just didn't understand what Qi's father was saying!

Xuanyi wouldn't dislike him so much! QAQ !

That's right. Usually when Ji Xuanyi saw that he didn't understand, he would just give up explaining and let everything go. He just had to follow his instructions.

However, it was impossible for Qi's father to really let Qi Qin collect rent or move bricks, so he could only find time in various places to explain in great detail. Qi Qin could only half understand it, and three days passed.

Mr. Qi knew that Qi Qinxue's company management was only a supplementary means, and the main focus was still to pursue Ji Xuanyi. He waved his hand and told him to go back and play games.

Although Father Qi didn't know that his son was so cowardly that he never confessed his feelings ...

On the day of the server opening, Ji Xuanyi skipped class again and climbed into the game. By the time Qi Qin also climbed up, the streets of Star City had become much emptier.

Although players cannot occupy every street and alley due to the large area of Star City, in most cases, the more popular streets are not only crowded but also lively.

However, now Ji Xuanyi and his companions were standing on a street not far from the trading house and the auction house. The original bustling scene was gone, and there were only a few passers-by on the road, which looked very desolate.

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment before he said, " Hasn't the server been open for a while? What's the situation now? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " With so many new activities, how many people will stay in the city? I guess they've all gone out to explore the new map, right? "

Qi Qin thought of their adventure in the wild map and said happily: " Shall we go too? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head. It would not be easy to come back from this trip. The official said that the distance had been restored to normal data. Who knew how long it would take to reach the new map?

Compared to this, Ji Xuanyi would rather go to the open library in the Mage Tower. According to the information provided by August, the five newly opened maps should also be recorded in the library. Instead of spending so much time walking step by step, it would be more convenient to go directly to look at the information.

But before that, Ji Xuanyi wanted to take a look at the new favorability and reputation system added to the player control interface.

The measurement methods of the favorability system and the reputation system are the same. From low to high, there are six stages: hatred, disgust, neutrality, friendliness, enthusiasm, and intimacy. The only difference between the two is that favorability is relative to an individual, while reputation is relative to an entire force.

According to the system's explanation, the favorability of a single person under a force may also affect the reputation of the force based on its own position in the force. For example, if you have a good relationship with the guide of the auction, she has a high favorability towards you, and the reputation of the auction force will increase slightly, but only a little bit, and it will not have much impact on the overall situation.

But for someone like Ji Xuanyi, whose favorability with August has reached the intimate level, the entire Mage Tower's reputation with Ji Xuanyi is enthusiastic. Also, because of August's status in Star City, most of the forces in Star City have a high reputation towards Ji Xuanyi. Except for the Star City Auction, which also has a similarly enthusiastic level, the lowest reputation of other forces with Ji Xuanyi is friendly.

Ji Xuanyi looked at the various Star City forces densely packed in his reputation list. Only then did he realize what August's favorability represented and why it was so incredibly difficult to brush.

August represents the entire Starry City to some extent, and this setting is indeed reasonable. What is more peculiar about Ji Xuanyi is that, although he didn't seem to gain favorability the last time they were in the elf camp, the reputation of the elves now appears in his reputation list, and the neutral bar is full, almost reaching friendly. In addition, perhaps because of the hidden main quest, his reputation in the Green Forest City Lord's Mansion is also enthusiastic.

In terms of favorability, besides August who has the highest, the second is Madam Harman, the third is the captain of the guard of Xinmu Town, and after that are a bunch of people from Star City. It is estimated that their favorability is also brought by August.

Ji Xuanyi took a quick look and found that each level of favorability and reputation would bring some privileges. He had experienced these at August and the auction before the reputation system was opened. However, based on the descriptions he had seen, these privileges were not unified like those in other games, but were given to players within their capabilities.

For example, if Ji Xuan gains August's favor, he can do a lot of things, including but not limited to various intelligence and the privilege of unlimited entry into the Mage Tower. But if a player gains the favor of the florist, the privilege the florist can give him may be to send him a bouquet of fresh flowers every morning.

The same goes for faction reputation, such as the special rooms in the auction and random daily events. From what Ji Xuanyi has seen, if you get the guild stronghold faction in Star City, the guild stronghold benefits will increase, and there may even be guild-exclusive daily events. Probably because the concept of faction itself is quite large, Ji Xuanyi has not yet discovered which faction's privileges are more useless. Basically, they are all very useful privileges.

However, corresponding to the size of the privilege is probably the difficulty of the favorability mission. Ji Xuanyi did not dare to say for sure. After all, as of now, there are not many forces in Fanxing City that have opened ways to increase reputation, and only a small part of the favorability missions are open. The subsequent situation will have to wait until all are opened to know.

Ji Xuanyi went through the reputation and favorability system, then took Qi Qin to the Mage Tower again.

As one of the four major updates, the scene at the entrance of the Mage Tower is much more lively than usual. Many players are queuing outside the Mage Tower, waiting for the guards to check them and let them in.

The guards would occasionally pick up one or two players and throw them out. It seemed that they had either entered once before and then ran out again for some unknown reason, or they were unlucky enough to have offended August before the announcement was made and were banned from entering for a week.

Just as Ji Xuanyi was about to line up, he heard the guard say to the person in front: "The Mage Tower is full. Please wait a moment before entering."

The player's face suddenly fell and he sighed with a sad face. The players behind him also heard it, but perhaps the same scene had happened before, so no one expressed dissatisfaction, but continued to queue outside. Some people at the end of the line left directly after hearing what was said in the front row, probably because they didn't want to wait and wanted to look somewhere else.

Ji Xuanyi didn't expect that anyone would satisfy this situation, but the area of the Mage Tower was indeed not large, and it was unlikely to accommodate so many players.

But speaking of it, if the remaining 290 meters of the Mage Tower were also opened, it could accommodate some people if necessary, right?

God knows how long it will take for the people inside to come out. Ji Xuanyi didn't want to wait any longer, so he walked to the front and said to the players in front of him: "I have the reputation of the Mage Tower. Can I try to see if I can get in?"

The player seemed to recognize Ji Xuanyi, was stunned for a moment, and said: "It's you?"

Ji Xuanyi then discovered that this man had a Mengtanggu badge on his chest. He thought that he must have seen him during the war between the three major gangs.

Ji Xuanyi nodded at him. The player from Mengtanggu also knew that Ji Xuanyi had a good relationship with their leader. He scratched his hair, stepped aside a little, and muttered, "Okay, then you try it."

Ji Xuanyi thanked him, walked forward and said to the guard: "Can I come in?"

When the guard saw that it was Ji Xuanyi, he smiled. Influenced by his reputation, he said without any principles, "Of course."

Ji Xuan heard the player from Mengtanggu behind him say "Fuck..."

Not only Ji Xuanyi, but even Qi Qin could go in. Seeing Ji Xuanyi was about to leave, the player from Mengtanggu hurriedly said, "How do we gain reputation in the Mage Tower?"

Ji Xuanyi didn't know how to answer. He couldn't say that the hidden task he completed in the Novice Village led to the popularity of the Mage Tower, right? Who would believe that?

Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to say, "You can gain reputation in the Mage Tower by improving August's favor."

Mengtanggu player: "..."

Isn't this bullshit! If August's favorability was so easy to increase, would he even ask this question?

Faced with the player's complicated look, Ji Xuanyi had no other choice.

After all, what he said was true. At this stage, the reputation of the Mage Tower can only be increased by August's favorability. There is no other way.

After Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin entered the outer perimeter of the Mage Tower, they finally understood why, although there were so many floors of library rooms open inside the Mage Tower, it still could not accommodate many people.

Because most people were not able to enter the library.

Just as August had said to Ji Xuanyi before, if one wanted to borrow his library, one had to pass his test. All the players that Ji Xuanyi could see were walking around outside the Mage Tower, squatting down from time to time to pull out a blade of grass, as if they were looking for something.

Ji Xuanyi felt that with this number of players, it was fortunate that the plants outside the Mage Tower refreshed quickly, otherwise he would have been completely plucked out by this group of players.

In addition to the players weeding outside, there was also a team on the first floor of the Mage Tower, which lined up straight outside the door. Ji Xuanyi took a look and found that the first floor of the Mage Tower was also crowded with players. They were talking to August's four apprentices. Some of them ran to the elevator happily after they finished talking, some had sad faces and held on tightly and refused to leave, and some may have different tasks, so they came out of the tower after the conversation and joined the army of weeding outside.

It's too messy...

Before Ji Xuanyi could react, he sighed. Qi Qin had already patted his back very skillfully and whispered to him, "Don't be angry, don't be angry..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

He wasn't really angry, he just felt a little tired for no reason.

But then again, it's a good thing he didn't queue up outside, otherwise, considering the situation in front of him where he answered the question incorrectly but still refused to leave, it would be really inefficient.

Ji Xuanyi bypassed the queue and went straight in to wait for the elevator.

Some players who noticed that they were not doing the task looked at them strangely. Ji Xuanyi responded very skillfully and calmly: " Newcomers reporting in. "

Everyone showed expressions of sudden enlightenment and no one was watching them anymore.

This excuse is really useful, Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but think.

Because there were only three people who entered the elevator in the last round, the elevator came down quickly. After Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin went in, another player who had answered the question hurriedly shouted " Wait, wait, wait! " and ran in.

Qi Qin moved closer to Ji Xuanyi and made room for him.

The elevator guide did not take people away without saying a word as before. She smiled at the three people and asked: " Which floor do you want to go to? "

Places like the Mage Tower won't be so considerate as to help you classify books, tell you which floors contain which types of books, and where to start looking for the books you want. All the books are mixed together. Judging from August's personality, let alone sorting out the types of books on each floor, I guess even each bookshelf has not been sorted out. Who knows which floor to start from.

The player who ran in later certainly didn't know either. He was so absorbed in answering the questions that he didn't even hear Ji Xuanyi say that he was a newcomer. After hearing the guide's question, he could only look at Ji Xuanyi eagerly, hoping that this man's answer could give him some reference.

But he was going to be disappointed. With Ji Xuanyi's explosive temper, if he went through the books layer by layer, he might explode and burn down the wizard tower. So he didn't plan to go to the library now, but planned to find August first to see if he could ask him anything.

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " I'll go to the top floor. "

The player who came in later: "..."

This works too!

The guide got the answer and smiled at the player, who had no choice but to say, " Then I'll go to the fifty-first floor. "

There are fifty floors newly opened in the middle, plus the first floor, the fifty-first floor is the floor below the top floor.

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows.

The guide responded and started the elevator.

This time the frosted glass has changed, and the entire elevator is as transparent as crystal.

Considering the wealth of Star City, it is not impossible that it is really made of crystal.

Ji Xuan looked at the neatly arranged bookshelves on the floor for a while, as well as the patrols who were preventing players from damaging or taking books out. Among them were some players flipping through books.

The number is not large, but it is not particularly small either.

Ji Xuanyi looked at the player next to him who was feeling a little uncomfortable being in the same room with a stranger, and said, " Is the question this time very easy? It seems like many people got it right. "

Although there were more wrong answers.

The player glanced at Ji Xuanyi. Perhaps because he was blinded by his magic robe, or because Ji Xuanyi looked really friendly, he smiled at Ji Xuanyi and said shyly, " This is much simpler than the previous questions. "

The player explained, " When I came here to do the goodwill quest before, in addition to guessing four multiple-choice questions, I also had to go to the top floor and answer a quiz. However, the questions to enter the library were only the apprentice questions on the first floor, and those completely incomprehensible questions were mixed with some questions that could be answered, such as about the drop and collection of materials that have appeared now, and the answers to some questions can also be found in the new life skills that were opened today. " I won't mention material drops and collection, as those who are interested can still remember them. However, as for the life skills that were only opened today, it is not so easy.

After all, no one has reached the maximum level yet, and most players are not willing to waste time on life skills. After all, the opening of life skills means the depreciation of items such as enchantments. If they want to use them, they can just buy them directly. At most, they will quickly scan the new interface. Who would look at it carefully?

Ji Xuan glanced at the player and said, " You are very careful. "

The player blushed and whispered, " Thank you. "

Ji Xuanyi wanted to say something else.

Qi Qin: " Ahem!!!! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi turned his head speechlessly and said, " What's wrong? "

Qi Qin said pitifully, " My throat hurts. "

Ji Xuanyi: "... I'm going to go eat some Pangdahai after logging off. "

Qi Qin nodded repeatedly.

Just as he finished speaking, they arrived at the fifty-first floor. The player said goodbye to Ji Xuan and got off the elevator.

It wasn't until the elevator door closed again that the player was stunned and confused. Was that person a newcomer or an old one? If he was a newcomer, he would have asked questions so smoothly, right? But if he was an old one, how could he have entered the elevator without answering the following four questions?

Ji Xuanyi didn't realize that he had made the player he had just met suspect that he had encountered a high-end imitation, so he got off the elevator after reaching the top floor.

It was really busy today, so the guide smiled at him quickly, then walked back to the elevator and went down.

However, although the Mage Tower was very busy today, the door outside August's was empty and there was no one waiting. Ji Xuanyi pushed the door open and walked in.

August was writing a letter that would not receive a reply. He looked up and saw that it was Ji Xuanyi. He smiled at him and said, " You are here? "

Ji Xuan looked at the paper and pen in his hand, his eyes dimmed slightly, and he nodded at him and said, " Yes. "

August stood up. The wide wizard robe on him made the old man look very thin. He made a cup of tea and handed it to Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin as usual.

However, Ji Xuanyi did not drink it, but looked at August seriously.

August sat back down, crumpled up the piece of paper he was not satisfied with, threw it aside, took out another piece of paper, smoothed it carefully with his skinny fingers, and said to Ji Xuan: " What do you want to see me about? "

Ji Xuan looked at him for a while, lowered his eyes, and said, " I want to ask you, on which floor of the library are the materials about other races on the continent kept? "

The information mentioned in Mrs. Harman's letter must be true, but the official has not released the story mission until now, but has first opened the new map and library. The only possibility is that the official also knows the difficulty of this mission. This update does not mean that the story mission will not be released in a short time, but to give players some time to familiarize themselves with the situation, which is the so-called warm-up. When the players don't know, the challenge is actually approaching.

Mrs. Harman's suggestion of " all living creatures on the continent " , combined with the five new wild maps released by the official, is likely to refer to the five races that may exist in these five wild maps, including the elves. The task of stopping the invasion of the evil god must be closely related to these five maps and the five races.

Ji Xuanyi is determined to rescue Mrs. Harman, and he must obtain as much information as possible within the final time given to them by the authorities. In this way, no matter what will affect the world line next, whether it is the speed or progress of task completion, Ji Xuanyi can increase the possibility of Mrs. Harman's survival to the greatest extent.

It's fake, but Ji Xuanyi believes that their story must be true, so he will do his best to make it a happy ending!

Chapter 77

After hearing Ji Xuanyi's words , August looked at him seriously, as if he had known something for a long time.

Ji Xuanyi looked back calmly.

August lowered his eyes and whispered, " Oh ... Fortunately, my memory is pretty good, otherwise I would have been stumped by your questions . The information about other races on the continent is on the 25th floor, on the third row of bookshelves on the left hand side of the entrance – if those guys didn't move it without permission , it's on the bottom floor. "

Ji Xuanyi thought the other party would only tell him the floor, but he didn't expect that he could even tell him which row it was. He couldn't help but be stunned for a moment.

August said slowly: " Child , the tentacles of darkness are spreading across the continent , speed up. "

Although it was out of place , when August mentioned the word " tentacles " , he thought of calf cramps and Ze Yu Shi Shui ...

Fuck your tentacle book!

Ji Xuanyi's eyes twitched , and he nodded to August, " Okay, we'll go first. "

August nodded , and Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked out one after another. When Qi Qin turned around to close the door , he saw August staring at the blank piece of letter paper.

To be honest, Qi Qin would rather August be the one who is stuck than have a premonition of something.

Qi Qin told Ji Xuanyi what he had discovered in a listless manner, but Ji Xuanyi said nothing. After a long while, Ji Xuanyi said, " Do what we can and bring Madam Harman back . That's enough. "

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qincai stood beside the elevator , and the guide came out with a smile . She was as efficient as she said before.

The elevator was empty. Perhaps because August had just finished talking with the guest, they hurried up without having time to load the next wave of players.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked in and said to the guide, " Twenty-fifth floor. "

She smiled and nodded, then controlled the elevator to stop on the 25th floor. Before Ji Xuanyi walked out, she said to him, " There are stairs connecting the library to the other library. If you want to go to the first floor, please press the button on the door and I will pick you up. "

After all, there are so many newly opened floors in the Mage Tower. If you can only use the elevator to climb up and down, it will definitely be very crowded in the later stages.

Ji Xuanyi said " hmm " , indicating that he understood, then closed the door and left.

Ji Xuanyi turned around and saw that the 25th floor was empty with only patrol officers walking around.

Although the problem is simpler than when brushing up on favorability, it seems that not many players can enter the library.

Ji Xuanyi walked all the way to the third row of bookshelves that August mentioned, and as expected, he saw a book at the bottom that was at least thirty centimeters thick. There were a few large, mottled characters written on the spine – "Humanity and the Five Major Races".

Five new maps, five major races, it seems his speculation was correct.

Ji Xuanyi stretched out his hand to take the book out, exerted some force, then made way with a frown on his face, and said to Qi Qin: " Take it out. "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment before he reacted and pulled the book out of the bookshelf with one hand.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi frowned and asked Qi Qin to hold the book for him to read.

The book collection room is not a library. There are no desks for players to use. The other players that Ji Xuanyi saw in the elevator were sitting on the floor reading.

However, there was a lot of dust on the ground, which Ji Xuanyi disliked.

He will definitely remember to bring a small stool next time he comes.

Ji Xuanyi took Qi Qin's hand and began to read it carefully with a frown.

This book roughly talks about the relationship between humans and the other five major races. Because humans occupy most of the continent's territory, their relationship with the other races is not very good. Only the mermaids live in the sea and have less conflict with humans.

However, the mermaids have a tradition of abducting humans into the sea. Although they have no ill feelings towards humans, humans don't like them very much.

Although there is a powerful enemy at hand, considering the relationship between humans and them, it is not an easy task to unite these five races.

Ji Xuanyi frowned. There were five major races, but only three in the main city ...

No, now is not the time to think about that.

Ji Xuanyi forced himself to pull his thoughts back and continued to flip through the book in front of him.

Because it is a game, the player's body will not be tired. Qi Qin did not feel it difficult to support Ji Xuanyi by holding the book with one hand. It's just that he couldn't see what was written in the book from this angle, and he became distracted after a long time. He saw a book on the bookshelf next to him with the words "God of Cookery" written on it, so he pulled it out curiously. Ji Xuanyi said unhappily, " Don't move. The words on this book are small and my eyes are getting tired. "

Qi Qin froze for a moment.

Ji Xuanyi looked up at him and found that he was holding a book called "The Secret Book of God Eaters". He was immediately upset and said speechlessly: " August's scope of interest was a bit wide when he was young, right? He also collected books like this? "

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi and couldn't help asking, " Can I take a look? "

Ji Xuanyi knew that he was bored, so he lowered his head again with sympathy and said to him, " Just don't move your hand. You can watch whatever you want. "

Qi Qin could still do this, but he didn't pay attention to it just now.

Qi Qin opened the book and read a few pages, then found that he couldn't understand it. He flipped through the pages until the end, and saw the words " Cooking skills have reached specialization " written on the bottom page .

Qi Qin was stunned. Before he could understand what it meant, the line of words disappeared.

 " What does it mean to reach mastery in cooking skills? " Qi Qinchao asked Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi answered absentmindedly: " It's a new life skill, one of which is cooking ... Why are you asking this? "

Ji Xuanyi raised his head and looked at Qi Qin.

Qi Qin opened his life skill interface and found that among the row of green words on it, the word "cooking" was emitting a shining golden light.

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi innocently and said, " My cooking skills seem to have become more specialized? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

The books in the library not only introduce the background of the game and reveal information about the plot missions in advance, but they can also help you pass August's favor mission questions, as well as give players some life skill recipes that cannot be given elsewhere. Some books will even drop gold coins and experience directly after being opened.

All in all, this place can be regarded as a treasure trove, but you just need some luck to get in. While Ji Xuanyi was finding a skillful carpenter player to customize a small stool and bookshelf and was spending time in the library, the three major gangs in Star City did not relax.

The full opening of the world map and the interconnection between various maps are, in a way, a precursor to contact between the three main cities. Although Star City is not a weak one among the three main cities, it is not a strong one either. They have a lot to guard against. Although Xu Chu didn't have much information, he, like Ji Xuanyi, felt that this update was not as simple as it appeared.

The three major guilds had offline communication when the game was still being updated. Xu Chu and Xiao Xiao Yuxia's first reaction was to find out the situation of the five new maps first. If these five maps were contestable like strongholds, then their competitors would no longer be guilds of a hundred people, but two entire main cities. In this case, getting the first-hand information could be said to be of utmost importance.

In order to speed up the journey, the three major gangs jointly formed five cavalry teams. Those with heavy loads brought assassins or archers, and those with light loads served as light cavalry. They must reach the new map as quickly as possible.

After this period of recuperation, the number of members in the three major gangs has increased to 500, and the gang positions are all full. Except for Mengtanggu, Tamajujianghu and Chensi are considering opening branch gangs. The reason why Fanxing City is so empty during this period is also partly related to the fact that the three major gangs have almost come out in full force.

Originally, before they left, Xu Chu and Xiao Xiao Yuxia had suggested taking Ji Xuanyi and Mi Yin, who were not on the staff, along as well. However, Ji Xuanyi was obsessed with the library, and Mi Yin expressed no interest in exploring the new map, so the two gave up the idea.

Today is the third day after the game update was completed.

Ji Xuanyi was in the library early again. He had not done any tasks to upgrade for three consecutive days. He relied on drinking August's tea to reach level 51 and obtained the fourth damage reduction skill.

However, this skill has no use for the time being. For Ji Xuanyi, the subsequent battle for the main city is secondary.

If his inference was correct, the main quest that was about to be opened was to win over the other five races. He had to find the most effective strategy before the second update of the game.

When Ji Xuanyi was reading the information about the dwarves, he received a secret message. Ji Xuan opened it absentmindedly and took a look, and found that it was sent by Xiao Xiao Yuxia. It only had one sentence, asking him if he had time now.

The three major gangs did not all leave Starry City. On the one hand, it was because the maps were interconnected. After all, Starry City was the base camp, and they could not abandon their home even if they wanted to explore new maps. On the other hand, there was indeed a profession that could not keep up with the pace of the cavalry. Not only were their legs short, but they were also heavy ... That's right, it was the swordsman.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia, as the only swordsman among the five spokespersons of the three major gangs, was naturally left in Fanxing City to look after the house. Although he had some complaints in his heart, the current overall situation forced him to stay in Fanxing City with peace of mind, working hard to absorb the continuous influx of newcomers joining Fanxing City.

In fact, he has more things to do than the other four people who are running around outside combined. He is extremely busy. If he has nothing to do, he would definitely not come over to have a private chat with Ji Xuanyi.

" I'm busy. " Ji Xuan replied.

[Rain falls] : ...

Ji Xuan replied expressionlessly: " What's the matter? Tell me. "

[It rains hard] : Three of the cavalry teams that went out encountered problems. Only one-third of the people from two teams survived, and the rest are retreating. There is also one team that was completely wiped out. All the people who came back to the resurrection point from the three teams reported that they encountered the team from Daylight City.

Sun City?

Ji Xuanyi frowned. The Sun City was indeed the most powerful of the three main cities, but Ji Xuanyi did not expect that they would be so arrogant. After all, the battle of the main cities could only be regarded as a guess so far. How could the people over there directly kill the people of the Star City?

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and replied, " After all, the new map is a resource that all three major cities can compete for. It is normal for conflicts to occur. It's just that the Sun City is a little more arrogant. What's the point of telling me this? I can't help you drive them away. "

It took a while for Xiaoxiao Yuxia to reply.

[Xiaoxiao Yuxia] : The Sun City had to fight one more BOSS than us , so it was normal that we couldn't win. However, the team that was wiped out was originally our strongest team, led by Jian Xi Xin Jiu, and almost all of them were elite knights who had been equipped with equipment by Tamama Jianghu ...

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment. After the baptism of the auction during this period of time, the current strength of the Knights of Tama Jianghu is no longer the half-completed state during the gang war. Even Qi Qin would feel a headache for the current Tama Jianghu Knights, not to mention that the leader is Jian Xi Xinjiu, the most capable of the three gangs.

Furthermore, with a sword washing away the temper of new wine, even if he cannot win and has to fight to the death, he will not let the people who follow him die together. The knight may not be invincible , but he is definitely the fastest in running away. How could he be the only team to be wiped out?

No matter how powerful the Sun City is, it can't be so outrageously strong, right?

Ji Xuanyi asked: " What's going on? "

[潛曉雨下] : Jian Xi Xin Jiu said that in the team of Youri City there was a knight with top-notch equipment and strength, absolutely a top-notch master. He knew he was no match for them after just a few moves, but because they were all knights, he couldn't run away. The Knights of Tamajianghu were also dispersed by the Youri City team, and were chased and killed one by one by that knight master .

A knight master? So powerful that he made Jian Xi Xin Jiu not even have the will to fight back, and chose to run away immediately after the fight?

You have to know that this is not a fight between friends. Although Jian Xi Xinjiu will lie down without any resistance when facing Qi Qin, but facing a hostile force like Yao Ri City, it is not impossible for Jian Xi Xinjiu to fight to the death. Moreover, his team is the strongest among the five teams.

Don't you even have the desire to try ?

Ji Xuanyi always felt that something was wrong and asked: " Even if you say so, there is nothing I can do. The person has already died and returned. Can he take the world with him to seek revenge now? "

There was silence for a while on Xiaoxiao Yuxia's end, and it took a long time before he sent a message.

[Xiaoxiao Rainfall] : Ji Xuanyi, I have something to say to you, don't be angry.

Ji Xuanyi: "..... ??? "

Ji Xuanyi replied: " If you know I will be angry, then don't say anything. It's not a good look for a deputy gang member to be beaten to the ground. "

[Rain falls] : ...

Xiaoxiao Yuxia didn't want to bring bad luck to Ji Xuan, but there was no way she could not help but say this.

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : There's nothing I can do. I'll lie on the ground first. But I still have to tell you that if the identity of the man guessed by Jianxi Xinjiu is true, even the whole world may not be able to defeat him.

What Xiaoxiao Yuxia said was not necessarily true, but generally speaking, it is not necessarily true in this context. It is actually no different from assuming that Qi Qin cannot beat that person. It must be said that Xiaoxiao Yuxia was very foresighted, and Ji Xuanyi was indeed unhappy because of this sentence.

But there was no way to hit Xiaoxiao Yuxia now, so Ji Xuanyi angrily hit Qi Qin next to him.

Qi Qin: " ??? "

Qi Qin, who was suddenly beaten, looked at Ji Xuanyi in confusion, but the latter ignored him.

Ji Xuanyi calmed down a little. There was only one person who made Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Jianxi Xinjiu feel stronger than Qi Qin.

Snow is falling on the earth.

Ji Xuanyi said: " Do you think that is Snow Falling on Earth? "

[潛曉雨下] : Jian Xi Xinjiu thinks so. He is a first-rate master after all, and he has fought with Mi Yin before. Since the opponent is so strong that he can't even muster the will to fight, I think it can only be Xue Piao Renjian.

In fact, the profession that Xue Piao Renjian used to play was very similar to the positioning of the knight. If he really entered the second server with Mi Yin, then this knight might really be him.

No wonder Xiaoxiao Yuxia suddenly came to him to talk about this matter. You know, Ji Xuanyi has ignored the three major gangs for a long time, and as one of the decision-makers of the three major gangs, Xiaoxiao Yuxia is not willing to come to Ji Xuanyi for help in every matter. There was really no way out this time, and Ji Xuanyi also knew what Xiao Xiao Yuxia's real purpose was.

I want to know if the opponent is Xue Piao Renjian, and if so, how to deal with him. Regarding this matter, there is only one person in the entire Star City who can help.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia actually didn't come to find Ji Xuanyi, but hoped that Ji Xuanyi could help him contact Mi Yin.

Mi Yin had been offline for two days. On the day the update was completed, he climbed up to take a look, rejected the invitations from the three major gangs, and went offline again. He did not come online for the next two days. Xiaoxiao Yuxia felt that as a good friend of Mi Yin with whom he had a scandal, Ji Xuanyi must have the other party's offline contact information.

Although Mu Mi Mi Mu is not as popular as Xue Mi, she still has a lot of fans! That's pretty telling, isn't it?

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

He originally thought Xiaoxiao Yuxia was a normal person!

Ji Xuanyi replied to Xiao Xiao Yuxia coldly: " Go away. "

[潇潇雨下] : ... I'm sorry, I was wrong. I know you and Miyin are innocent, but at least there should be offline contact information, right? Not good friends, but good friends, right?

Ji Xuanyi replied: " No, it's not. "

Since Ji Xuanyi has given a clear answer, it means that there really is nothing.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was a little disappointed. If she couldn't contact Mi Yin, then this map exploration would be a huge loss.

Three teams were killed when they were about to reach the edge of the map , and among the remaining two teams, only one actually obtained map intelligence independently. The other team met the team of Youyue City on the way, but Youyue City was relatively weak and did not choose to go to war with Fanxing City. Instead, after discussion, the two teams entered the map together.

That is to say, among the five new maps, Starry City only collected intelligence on two, one of which was shared with Youyue City, while Sun City monopolized intelligence on three new maps.

BOSS in Youri City , their strength and financial resources would not be too far behind .

However, they did not expect that a person who looked like Xue Piao Renjian would suddenly appear .

At least nearly a hundred knights were lost on this trip, a large number of whom were elite. Even if there is no information about the new map, it would be enough to find out whether the mysterious knight is Xue Piao Renjian or not.

However, at this critical moment, Mi Yin had disappeared and she was very upset.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia finally had to ask: " Then do you know where Miyin is going? When will she be back? "

Ji Xuanyi replied: " You know what he does for a living, right? If it's a big mission, let alone when he'll come back, he might even get an A. How would I know? "

That's true. Mi Yin's job in real life is much more important than the game. If he really has something to do, you can't force him to come back even if the three major gangs are disbanded.

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : ... Okay, we can only go with the flow. If a fight breaks out, will you and Tianlai come to help?

Ji Xuan replied absentmindedly: " Come when you are free. "

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : When are you free?

Ji Xuanyi: " When you are free, you are free. "

Ever since he knew that the enemy might be Xue Piao Renjian, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia became very uneasy and couldn't let go of his worries. He continued to ask: " What have you been busy with recently? "

Ji Xuanyi: " Mission. "

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : When will you finish your work?

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi was surprised to find that he had actually had four meaningless conversations with Xiao Xiao Yuxia!

It seems that his temper has really improved a lot!

Thinking of this, Ji Xuan replied expressionlessly: " Get lost, or I'll kill you and send you back to the Novice Village if you keep talking nonsense. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia didn't dare to talk anymore , and Ji Xuanyi immersed himself in the book again. The news that three out of the five teams from the three major gangs returned empty-handed was not spread, not only because of the face of the three major gangs, but also because the maps were interconnected and the main city battle could break out at any time. The three major gangs could be said to be the biggest support of the players of Star City. No matter whether it was the Wanzhi Gang or the original plot BOSS , the three major gangs had used their strength to support the players of Star City. Under the current circumstances, telling the players of Star City that your three major gangs could not beat the people of Youri City at all would be of no use except to increase their worries and troubles.

Therefore, the people from the three major guilds unanimously kept this secret, and only told the players in the city to be careful when traveling to the other two main cities, especially the Sun City, as they were very powerful and not friendly to the Star City.

The areas of the five newly opened wild maps are not as large as Starry City, but they are not particularly small either. It will still take some time to figure out what is there.

The two surviving teams were investigating within the map while sending messages back to Star City. Just when they were halfway through their tour and had not even had time to discover where the hidden forces in the five maps were, the official released a second update announcement.

Open map chat channels, world chat channels, and the world-class main storyline event – Assembly Call.

The update time is July 29th 09 : 00 - July 30th 09:00 . After the update, all players will be refreshed back to their main city by the system and prepare to go on the expedition .

Update content: 1. There are five races in the five new maps that will help in the final battle.

Players from the three main cities are requested to unite and gain their recognition. For each race recognized, all players in the main city with the greatest contribution will receive a reward, and the guild members with the greatest contribution in the main city will receive an additional reward.

The mission ends when all five races have acknowledged and agreed to unite to fight the evil god.

It should be noted that on the road to the five new maps, there will be believers of the evil god and traps they have set in advance, and there are no resurrection points along the way, so players must not fall behind.

2. The tentacles of darkness are spreading across the continent. Many experienced evil god soldiers will be refreshed in the fifteen second-level cities. Players in the second-level cities are requested to work hard to defeat them, accumulate experience, and reinforce the three main cities as soon as possible.

3. This update will add overlapping maps with different timelines. The five elemental towns are located on the edge of the continent and are also on the front line of the invasion of dark forces. The once beautiful and peaceful towns are in danger, but adventurers have the power to change everything. If they can complete the [Assembly Order] within ten days , the frightened evil gods will give up attacking the towns and prepare for the final battle. But if the [Assembly Order] takes more than ten days to complete, the five towns will be swallowed up by darkness and destroyed.

The companions who once led the adventurers through the ignorant period are now in crisis.

Only you can save them and change the world line. Please fight hard for this continent!

The update started during the day on the 29th, and it is now the 27th, which means players have more than a day to prepare online.

However, although it happened suddenly, the official has solved the most important issue, which is the refresh back to the main city after the update. Otherwise, with so many players wandering around outside, when the mission starts, they will not have time to rush back to the main city, which would be very disappointing.

Most players feel that this world-class mission is a bit rushed, but overall it is acceptable. It is like a spring outing, where everyone goes out together to travel, explore, and level up. It is still very interesting! There are also rewards!

But for the three major gangs and Ji Xuanyi, such a task was too much.

This is indeed a world quest, but it is also a main city confrontation quest.

Although the three major gangs had anticipated that the new five maps would cause contention among the three main cities, they never expected it to be such a contention. Not to mention the gang rewards, the three major gangs are now in a truce period. Everyone works hard to make contributions, and whoever contributes the most gets it. There is nothing wrong with that. But as for the main city rewards, will Youri City let it go?

If it's just a fight for territory or resources, there are only so many people in Day City, just like they only sent three teams out to collect intelligence, they won't be able to get more than that.

Even if the three major gangs can't beat the people of Day City head-on, they can discuss it, present facts, and reason, and still get some benefits for Star City.

But as for mission rewards, there is no such thing as not having enough people to get them. As long as Sun City wants to, and they are fast enough, they can rush in and snatch the rewards that you should have received before Star City and Youyue City complete their missions.

In fact, among the five maps and three cities, there will always be people who get more and people who get less. Both two-two-one and three-one-one are possible. It doesn't matter!

What I'm afraid of is that if Daylight City is even more shameless and throws all the eggs in one basket, who cares what happens to your Novice Town? I don't care whether you live or die! I'll send people from Daylight City to tie up the people from Youyue City and Fanxing City. The rest of the people won't be afraid of wasting time and will take all the rewards one by one. What can you do to me?

The three major gangs are very worried about this, and this is also what Ji Xuanyi is worried about.

He originally thought that if there was a confrontation outside the main city, you three major gangs would just go, I will go and complete the task first, pick up Madam Harman, and then go to help when I am free, but the current situation has entangled the main task and the confrontation in the main city.

In fact, ten days is enough time. If the three main cities do not fight or compete, but attack from three sides and compete for rewards based on the speed of completing tasks, the possibility of completing five side quests within ten days is still very high. Ji Xuanyi believes that under peacetime conditions, 80% of the servers should be able to save the Novice Town.

But the current situation is that from the attitude of Day City in attacking Star City without hesitation, it can be clearly seen that they have no intention of playing a peaceful game.

Even if they didn't use the most shameless and disgusting way to get the reward, they would definitely do everything they could to prevent the people from Star City and Youyue City from completing the task. Once the progress was slowed down, Madam Harman would be in danger. Ji Xuanyi now has only one hope for Youri City, that is, to at least complete the two tasks belonging to them before causing trouble, instead of running out to stir up trouble without completing his own task. If it is the former, Ji Xuanyi feels that there is still a possibility of trying to rescue Madam Harman. As for the latter ... After the matter is over, Ji Xuanyi will probably be so angry that he will go straight to Youri City and make them unable to live in peace!

It's so cool to have snow falling on earth!

The current situation is that if Ji Xuanyi wants to rescue Mrs. Harman, it is definitely not enough for him and Qi Qin to go out alone. He must once again unite with the three major gangs to complete this world mission.

While the players of Star City were happily preparing for the new event, the people from the three major gangs were already preparing for the meeting with great concern.

Apart from Jian Xi Xinjiu who came back from the dead and Xiao Xiao Yuxia who never left the city, only Jing Yunhan returned to the city two days ago because he was a member of the two defeated teams, while Xu Chu and Liu Tian were the leaders of the two teams still outside and did not come back.

The spokesperson for the most important of the three major gangs was not present, so it looked like this meeting could only be held half-heartedly.

Among the three people, only Xiaoxiao Yuxia had some experience in setting up plans. He was hesitating whether to just ignore the two idiots sitting in front of him and discuss things directly with Xu Chu. At this moment, he received a message.

[Ji Xuanyi] : I'm free now, do you want to chat?

Xiao Xiaoyu's eyes lit up. Although it was not Mi Yin's killing weapon that might be able to solve the problem of Xue Piao Renjian, the combination of Ji Xuanyi and Tianxia Difyi was also very good!

Best of all, you don't have to think about planning alone!

Xiao Xiao Yuxia immediately reported the address to Ji Xuanyi and replied: " Let's talk! We are now meeting at the headquarters in the inner city, waiting for you! "

There is only one stronghold in the inner city. In order to prove that the three major gangs will live in harmony from now on, they did not set up their strongholds there, but instead established strongholds in their respective jurisdictions. However, as time went on, everyone felt that the stronghold in the inner city was empty and it was a pity to leave it there. Therefore, every time there was a collective activity of the three major gangs, they would come here to discuss.

Ji Xuanyi happened to be in the inner city, and he immediately took Qi Qin to the inner city stronghold. When Xiaoxiao saw him pushing the door in under the rain, she immediately greeted him enthusiastically, but was rejected by Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi: " We've known each other for such a long time, and you're still using this trick, are you looking for a fight? "

Xiao Xiao Yu laughed dryly and said, " I'm speaking from the bottom of my heart. Look at this configuration. "

As he spoke, Xiaoxiao Yuxia pointed at the sword and washed the new wine.

He was still very partial to Jing Yunhan and did not mention his cousin.

But Jing Yunhan was too stupid to realize it. He thought his cousin was introducing the people at the meeting, so he pointed at himself and said, " And me! "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Ji Xuan glanced at Jing Yunhan, then at Xiao Xiao Yuxia, and said seriously: " Okay, I believe you. When people are desperate, they can't control their inner feelings. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was speechless, and after a long pause, she said, "... Okay, sit down. "

Ji Xuanyi thought that he had lost the battle this time and even failed to escape. Jian Xi Xinjiu would be greatly shocked when his entire team was sent back to the resurrection point, just like when he had caught a spy from the gang before. Unexpectedly, Jian Xi Xinjiu looked in good spirits.

Ji Xuanyi couldn't help asking, Jian Xi Xin Jiu chuckled in a very pretentious manner and said, " That's Xue Piao Renjian, it's not a loss to lose to him. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Damn, that's all you can accomplish.

Chapter 78

Ji Xuanyi asked curiously, " Are you sure it's Snow Piao Renjian? "

Ren Miyn hasn't come online yet.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said with great confidence: It " must be Xue Piao Renjian! There is no one else who can play the role of a knight so well except him ! "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said speechlessly: " This is not the focus now. It doesn't matter whether it is Xue Piao Renjian or not. Anyway, he is a master who is almost as good as the world . The specific situation depends on whether Mi Yin can come back . This is not what we should discuss now. "

Jian Xixinjiu glanced at Ji Xuanyi , suddenly sobered up, laughed dryly and said: " Xiao Xiaoyuxia is right, let's discuss business first , the overall situation is more important! "

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked to the table and sat down. Xiao Xiaoyuxia hadn't said anything yet . Qi Qin looked at him with his eyes wide open and said, " Is there no fruit plate? "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

He asked Guo Pan'er right away . This guy is very accurate in his self-positioning ...

Xiao Xiaoyu looked up and found that Jing Yunhan and Jian Xixinjiu were also looking at her with longing eyes.

The facilities and buildings in the inner city stronghold are much better than those in the outer city, including the treatment. There is a fruit plate , of course, but in order to avoid distracting the other two people at the table, Xiaoxiao Yuxia did not put it out.

But now that Ji Xuanyi was here, the other two were of no use. Xiao Xiaoyuxia had no choice but to notify the gang members in the stronghold and ask them to bring up some fruit plates for them.

" I've sent someone to get it , " Xiao Xiao Yu said helplessly, " Let's talk business first. "

The three people who were not participating in the discussion sat upright.

Ji Xuanyi said: " Your goal is to get as many rewards as possible , and my goal is to complete this world mission as quickly as possible . Judging from the current strength of Daylight City, our goals are not conflicting. We both hope to obtain five rewards and form a situation where three cities have 221. "

Xiao Xiaoyu coughed twice and said awkwardly: " In fact, before you came, we had already started to think about how to guarantee 311 or 401 ..."

The look Ji Xuanyi gave him said it all.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said helplessly: " We don't want to be so useless, but if you and Tianxia don't join us, we won't be able to do anything against the person who looks like Xue Piao Renjian. "

The most capable fighter among the three major gangs is Jianxi Xinjiu – let alone the three major gangs, a player of Jianxi Xinjiu's level is also a first-class master in Fanxing City.

Apart from Qi Qin, Mi Yin, and the missing Wan Ge Naizhi, the most powerful output profession in Fanxing City can only be said to be comparable to Jian Xi Xin Jiu. It is difficult to find the best ones.

Even the Ze Yu Si Shui trio, who have decent skills, can only be considered experts in Green Forest City. Although Ze Yu Si Shui has talent, it has not been fully developed. Coupled with his professional disadvantages, if he fights against Jian Xi Xin Jiu, his chances of winning are less than 10%.

Judging from the gap and disparity in strength, even if the three major gangs gathered all the people in Fanxing City who could fight against Jianxi Xinjiu, the probability of winning against the Youri City team led by a person suspected to be Xue Piao Renjian is very low – one Xue Piao Renjian can definitely beat five Jianxi Xinjiu.

Putting aside whether Fanxing City can muster five sword washes for new wine, the level of the Youri City team is also higher than that of Fanxing City. Without a leading master to hold back the man who looks like Xue Piao Renjian, the three major gangs really cannot consider a 221 situation.

If Fanxing City wants to get two rewards, the only possibility is that Youri City suddenly changes its mind and is satisfied with taking three rewards, and does not interfere in the affairs of Fanxing City and Youyue City. Then Fanxing City can plan to take over Youyue City.

However, let's not talk about how likely it is that the Sun City will be reformed. Now the competition among the three main cities has begun to emerge. With the Sun City becoming bigger, the right choice for the Star City should be to form an alliance with the Youyue City. It is obviously not the best idea to tear its face with the Youyue City for a reward.

Considering all these circumstances, the only choice the three major guilds can make is to guarantee themselves a share of the basic rewards, at least to not let the players of Star City wait in vain.

But that was before Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin planned to join. Now Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin are obviously here to help. With Qi Qin here, how can they compete with Xue Piao Renjian? Even if Day City wanted to stop them, they couldn't send out all their troops, not to mention that the leader was a master suspected to be from Xue Piao Renjian, so the number of people allocated would definitely be even smaller. It would be best to underestimate the enemy again , and then take advantage of Qi Qin's opportunity to hold Xue Piao Renjian, and then use the main force to disperse the other people from Day City who were supporting Xue Piao Renjian, and then turn around to help kill Xue Piao Renjian back to Day City's resurrection point, and complete the mission before the people from Day City could react! All done!

I was so happy thinking about it in the rain that my saliva was almost dripping.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

What tactics are they discussing? This guy is almost out of ideas.

Someone knocked on the door and brought in a fruit plate.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia immediately came to her senses and smiled kindly: " Thank you, I'm so sorry to trouble you. "

The guild member immediately looked flattered and said, " No problem, no problem. The deputy guild leader and the guild leader are discussing the tactics for the next event. All the players in Star City are in your hands! "

Xiao Xiao Yu said sincerely: " This is the result of everyone's joint efforts. We are just doing what we should do! "

The gang members were moved and said: " Deputy Gang Leader Xiaoxiao! You have worked hard! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Qi Qin: "..."

The other two people looked as if they were used to it.

Xiaoxiao stood up in the rain, saw the person out, and then came back after being reluctant to leave.

Ji Xuanyi looked at him in disbelief and asked, " Aren't you tired? "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia smiled and said, " It is also the deputy gang leader's responsibility to appease people's hearts. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Jian Xi drank some new wine and ate a fruit plate, saying expressionlessly: " He really isn't tired. He's been coaxing me into a daze for six days. Xu Chu has given up treatment for six days. "

Ji Xuanyi: " Did Xuchu try to treat it for six days? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu rolled his eyes and thought for a while, then answered, " No. "

If Xu Chu had tried to treat Liu Ri, Liu Ri would not have been as stupid as he is now.

Back to the topic.

Ji Xuanyi said: " Your method of making up the story is not far off. Without knowing what the outside environment will be like after the update, this is the most basic tactic after the contact with the Sun City team, but there are still many details that need to be supplemented. "

' s not talk about whether the 'Let " evil god believers and their traps ' mentioned by the authorities will affect the battle situation. In fact, engaging in battle with Daylight City can be said to be the worst option. "

The worst option that Ji Xuanyi mentioned refers to his goal. What he most hopes to gain is time. If a battle breaks out with the Day City, whether the opponent chooses to attack the other two cities right from the start, or starts to harass the other two cities after completing one or two waves of tasks, it will not be a good thing for Ji Xuanyi.

Although Xiaoxiao Yuxia felt that as long as he could win and get the reward, the prerequisite for winning was to cooperate with Ji Xuanyi . What the other party wanted to consider was what he needed to consider , so he nodded to what Ji Xuanyi said.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " First, we have a chance to seize the initiative in choosing the target. There is no teleportation array in this game, and there is no resurrection point in the wild. The speed of this battle will be calculated in days. If we can avoid the target that Day City wants most among the five maps, then it is relatively safe to take the first reward . "

Hearing this, Xiao Xiao Yuxia frowned and said, " What you said does make sense, but the reason why we first considered the battle method rather than the map is that we are actually afraid that Sun City will not rush for the rewards at the beginning, but will come to block the troops of Star City first, crush the people of the two main cities, and then slowly move forward to get the five rewards. "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " It's possible, but it's very small. "

Xiao Xiaoyu was stunned and asked, " Why? Why is it said that the possibility of getting all five rewards is very small? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " The troops in Day City were able to be organized, so they must have been led by a gang. Gangs, as long as they are not like the Wanzhi Gang, will be wary of things like public opinion. "

" The authorities probably wanted to prevent one of the three main cities from becoming too strong and taking all the rewards, so they set up a setting that linked the time to complete the task with the survival of the novice town. If Day City blocks the other two cities, it would be no different from directly saying, ' I don't care about life and death, I only care about the rewards . '

" There are fans. You should have seen the previous Star City refresh event, not to mention Novice Town, a place that represents nostalgia. "

" Some players may think it's nothing, but most players will feel disgusted by it. Even if they make such a plan regardless of public opinion, they may not be able to implement it. I am sure that there are many players in Day City who would rather give up their rewards in exchange for their lives. "

Ji Xuanyi looked at Xiao Xiaoyu and said, " But according to your way of thinking, you probably don't have such feelings. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia smiled but did not deny it.

Ji Xuanyi did not mean to blame Xiao Xiao Yuxia. Everyone has his own way of playing the game, pvp , pve , or pvx . They care more about friends, strength, or experience in the game, and how much emotion they have. These are the rights that everyone should have to choose. There is no high or low, noble or not in the way of playing the game. If you have any opinions on other people's playing methods, just fight back if you don't agree. Strength speaks for itself. This is the true meaning of game social interaction.

However it's quite surprising that none of the leaders of the three major gangs noticed this. Xiaoxiao Yuxia is PVing his scheming, Jianxi Xinjiu is PVing his gang members, Xu Chu is PVing trouble, Jing Yunhan is PVing his cousin (?), Liu Tian ... Who knows what Liu Tian is PVing , even he himself may not know.

But even if there is only one person in charge of Daylight City, when the update is completed and they are ready to go on the expedition, it will be difficult for him to command those players who have feelings for this game.

However, as the implementer, Daylight City would most likely take into account the consequences of blocking the city gate and causing the complete destruction of the Novice Town. This is why Ji Xuanyi said that the possibility of them adopting the gate blocking tactic is very low.

" Rather than coming right up and blocking the city gates with an obvious goal, I think they would prefer to do the tasks first. Assuming the three cities have the same time to complete the tasks, they should send people to slow us down when they have completed the first task in full and completed two-thirds of the second task. After all , Youyue City doesn't have much strength, and it's good enough for them to get a reward. So the only ones who are doing the second task at this time are us. Then, after the second task is completed, they will immediately transfer people to compete for the task that has been slowed down. "

" In terms of overall strength, Star City is indeed inferior to Sun City. If both sides fight with all their strength, Star City is very likely not to be the opponent. They are much more likely to squeeze us out and get the mission reward. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia nodded first, then said: " But if this is the case, isn't it just wasting time? "

Ji Xuanyi said, " That's right. We should wait until the two main cities have decided which is better before we proceed with the mission. Or we will complete half of the mission while they start from scratch. There is a high probability that the time will not be enough, but they will have a reason to take the blame. "

" For example, knowing that time would run out, why didn't you, Star City, retreat? Why did you keep pestering Sun City? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia immediately understood and frowned.

Qi Qin was eating a fruit plate when he overheard something and said in a daze, " But anyone with a discerning eye can see that they were the first to grab the mission, right? "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia explained: " When the fight starts, who can tell for sure? Even if someone knows that they started it first, this is a game after all. They are faster and more powerful, so of course they have the position to fight for more resources. "

" The most important thing is, " Xiao Xiaoyu frowned, " No matter when, there will always be people who think that ' both sides are wrong ' and ' everyone else is drunk but I am sober ' . These two types of people will confuse people to a certain extent and make Fanxing City a target for sharing responsibilities. When the time comes, no matter how we explain it, Fanxing City will have to bear part of the blame for the downfall of Novice Town. "

Ji Xuan nodded: " Once the two main cities are blamed, the firepower of public opinion will be dispersed. In addition, there will be players in the two main cities who are biased towards their side. In the end, it will most likely be left unresolved. After a while, no one will remember what they did at this time. "

Jing Yunhan didn't quite understand what he was saying, and cursed, " This is fucking disgusting! "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything, because the truth was so disgusting, and this disgusting method had a very high success rate.

" And the plan I mentioned is the most ideal situation, " Ji Xuan said. " Based on the attitude of Sun City, it is absolutely impossible for them to discuss the five maps with us and Youyue City , such as ' you go where, they go where, I go where ' . In other words, they don't even have to wait until the end to send people to block us. If we are unlucky, the first map we choose will be the same as Sun City, and we will fight directly. We don't have to think about the next thing . Regardless of your goal, my goal will definitely not be achieved. "

" So the first thing we have to do is to avoid colliding with the two maps they choose. " Ji Xuanyi said.

Xiao Xiaoyu glanced at him and said, " If you want to achieve your goal, then Youyue City should not collide with Yueri City, right? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " It is impossible for Youyue City to collide with Yueri City. "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: " What do you mean? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " If anyone in Youyue City has any brains, they will choose [Secret Sea] among the five new maps , but people in Day City will definitely not choose this map. "

" Everyone knows the nature of this game. The five new maps correspond to the five elemental starter towns, which also correspond to the fifteen level 2 maps. [Closing Sea] corresponds to water, " Ji Xuanyi glanced at Xiao Xiaoyu and said, " If you still remember when the large group was opening up the level 2 map dungeon, you should know that someone once complained on the forum that the water-attributed map dungeons were almost all underwater, and the leader of the PVE guild had to gather players to learn how to swim in order to pass the dungeon. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia did know about this matter. Because it was so funny at the time, this post was quite popular.

" You should know what the map name [Clostrilian Sea] means just by hearing it once, " Ji Xuanyi was actually confident because he knew about the setting of the mermaids in advance, but he still pretended to be reasonable and said, " This is most likely an underwater map. Regardless of whether Daylight City has sent people to explore [Clostrilian Sea] , I believe it is not the best choice to buy time. In order to complete the two tasks at hand as quickly as possible, Daylight City will definitely choose the two maps they think are the simplest, and these two maps will definitely not have [Clostrilian Sea] . "

" As long as Youyue City has a good idea of its own strength, it will definitely choose the most difficult map among the five maps. Because neither Day City nor Star City will choose that map, they have enough time to complete the task without worrying about the reward being snatched away. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was stunned by what he heard, and said stupidly: " It sounds like You Yue City is very pitiful. "

How can it not be pitiful? They can only take things that others don't want. They are just trying to survive in the cracks! Youyue City is not easy!

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia didn't care about You Yue City. He felt that Ji Xuanyi's analysis made sense, but there was still one question: " What if You Yue City can't figure it out? "

You know, the exploration team from Youyue City met one of their teams in the Death Swamp! Ji Xuan looked at him expressionlessly and said, " Although I think they went to [Death Swamp] because the name of this map looks dangerous, but just in case, isn't the knight unit still with them? Send a private message to them and ask them to discuss it with the people of Youyue City – wait a moment. "

Ji Xuanyi said solemnly, " The leader of the Death Swamp is not Liu Tian, right? "

If it's six days, it's ruined! Not to mention cooperating with others, it's also possible to talk to them and make them lose their temper!

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia quickly said: " No, no, it's Xu Chu! If it was Liu Tian, how could he go with the people from Youyue City? That guy would probably have fought with the Youyue City team directly, okay! "

Ji Xuanyi heaved a sigh of relief and said, " That's safe . Let Xu Chu talk to the people of Youyue City. They should know what this means. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia quickly lowered her head and sent a message to Xu Chu. Fortunately, Xu Chu was smart and understood their plan without Xiao Xiao Yu Xia's explanation. He agreed and asked one more question at the end: " Is Ji Xuanyi here to help? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia: " You say that as if I'm stupid and can't figure it out ... But yes, Ji Xuanyi is here to help. "

[Xu Chu] : Haha, that's fine.

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

But there is no way, Xiaoxiao Yuxia's strength is not here.

Xiao Xiao Yu looked up at Ji Xuanyi helplessly: " Youyue City's choice has been resolved, but what about us? "

Ji Xuan smiled and then said, " Our first choice is also very simple. "

“ A new wood-attributed map, [Lost Forest] . ”

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia didn't understand and asked: " Why is that? Is it because you are from Green Forest City? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " It's not just because I'm from Green Forest City, but because the people who are most familiar with the [Lost Forest] and the races hiding in it are all in Starry City. "

Xiaoxiaoyu was stunned.

Ji Xuanyi said: " There is a maze in the Lost Forest. If I am not mistaken, its area should be much larger now than when I first went there ... Xuchu is in the [Death Swamp] , where is Liutian? "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said quickly: " He is in [Chongyan Volcano] . "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " In that case, the people in Day City should have seen the maze in the Lost Forest. In addition, almost all the people who know about the Lost Forest are on our side, and the maze is too time-consuming. It is unlikely that they would choose this map. In addition to the volcano and the swamp, there is also the Howling Wind Valley ... "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " So, two of the three maps they explored are unusable. In addition to the valley, they might choose one from the volcano and the swamp, but that's a matter for later. We'll talk about it later. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " In other words, our first target is the [Lost Forest] ? "

Ji Xuan nodded.

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia was puzzled and asked, " Let's not talk about the fact that they don't have anyone familiar with the map. What do you mean that all the people familiar with the map are in Starry City? The people we sent to the Lost Forest were killed and no one has ever entered. "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " I didn't say I became familiar with the map after it was opened. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was stunned at first, then said in disbelief: " You went to the wild map before the map was opened?! Are you crazy?! "

How terrible the wild map was before it was opened! The Warlock Travel Post is a bloody precedent!

But then again, after the wild map was opened, there were many more roads in the wild. The warlock followed the road to the outside of the main city. Although he was not at a high enough level to enter the city, he strolled along the main city wall and finally found the way back to the second-level map. He thanked all the players who had been with him for so long, and finally posted a screenshot of the second-level city gate and never posted again.

The last time Xiaoxiao Yuxia was reading a post on the forum, she was stunned for a moment when she found that the post had sunk.

This is getting off topic , but he really couldn't believe that someone would be brave enough to go to the wild map before the world map was opened, and come back safe and sound!

It's amazing! Xiao Xiaoyu looked at Ji Xuanyi up and down as if he were an animal in a zoo.

Ji Xuanyi: "... Do you want to die? If you look at me again, I'll dig your eyeballs out."

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia had no choice but to close his eyes and said, " You are pretty awesome, but the map didn't have a name at that time. Although it is a wood map, are you sure that the place you are at is the [Lost Forest] ? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " To be precise, what we are familiar with is not the map, but the forces in the map. At that time, we met the elves. Although the world line has been changing, the elves can't still stay in the same place, but at least I know what their maze is like. "

Xiao Xiao Yu said honestly: " Although your words sound very believable, they are a bit far-fetched. "

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows and said, " At that time, the people who entered the elf camp were also the current students of Mengtanggu Art Introduction, Sleepy Meow and Calf Cramps. All three of them knew about it. If you don't believe me, you can ask. But no matter from the perspective of ' avoiding the Sun City ' or ' completing the mission as soon as possible ', our best choice is [Lost Forest]. "

" Okay, " Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said helplessly, " No matter how much you say, I still believe you. So what is our second goal? "

Ji Xuanyi pondered for a moment and said, " The second target can only be chosen from the volcano and the swamp. One of them is also the target of Sun City. We can see when the time comes. I have a way to get intelligence. Right now, we have people exploring the two maps, so we can prepare for both. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " I think the swamp is better. Xuchu went there to explore the way. "

Ji Xuanyi did not comment, but said: " If Day City also chooses the swamp, it will be meaningless to explore the way. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia nodded.

Ji Xuan said, " I won't get involved in the specific number control and battle strategy. That's the business of your three major gangs. You can't be unable to handle even this kind of situation. As for organizing the individual players in Star City, people like us who don't have much influence won't say anything. If Mi Yin can go online, maybe he can help a little with his fame. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said sincerely: " You are quite famous. "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " Do you dare to use it? "

Xiaoxiao Rain: " Don't dare, it will hurt your body! "

Ji Xuanyi has countless enemies, and he can't afford to offend them ...

Now the tactics have been discussed and everything is going well. The only thing that Xiaoxiao Yuxia feels is that there is a flaw in the perfection is the lack of Miyin.

Not only can it be used as a signature to attract more individual players, Mi Yin can also be used to deal with Xue Piao Renjian!

Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Ji Xuanyi stood up at the same time, which meant that the tactical meeting was about to end.

Qi Qin and the other two didn't quite understand what was said, but seeing this, they began to put the remaining fruits in the fruit plate into their backpacks.

Xiao Xiaoyu looked at the useless appearance of the two gang leaders of the three major gangs and her eyes twitched.

However, he couldn't control Jian Xi's new wine, but Jing Yunhan could still control it.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was like a worried parent with a child. She reached out and slapped the fruit in Jing Yunhan's paw back into the fruit bowl.

Jing Yunhan wanted to get angry, but when he saw that it was his cousin, he had to withdraw his hand with grievance. He looked with envy and jealousy at Jian Xixinjiu, who was left unattended, and Qi Qin, who was attended to by someone but the person who attended to him doted on him.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said to Ji Xuan, " After the update, everyone will be sent back to the city. I have to arrange the transfer of the three major guilds in advance, and sort out the announcement to recruit individual players. I guess I will be very busy next. If you meet Mi Yin, can you help him talk to him about it? "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " But his relationship with Xue Piao Renjian doesn't seem to be very good right now. I'm not sure if he can really help. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " It's better to have one than not. He can also serve as a benchmark for recruiting individual players! "

 " Okay, " Ji Xuan nodded: " I'll go first, you keep going. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia thought of Xu Chu who was far away in the sky , and the two idiots around him who were of no help at all, and sighed deeply.

After saying goodbye to Xiaoxiao, Yuxia and the other two, Ji Xuanyi walked towards the Mage Tower again. He had not finished reading the book in the library yet. He still had a day and a half to do so, so he could finish reading it by skipping through the pages.

Qi Qin was completely out of his mind, peeling an orange while walking, and asked Ji Xuanyi sideways: " Xuanyi, do you want to eat? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and raised his eyebrows, " You still have the mood to peel oranges? People say you may not be able to beat that expert. "

Qi Qin was stunned for a moment, and looked at Ji Xuanyi helplessly, worried that he was angry.

Ji Xuanyi said: " Can you beat him? "

Qi Qin looked at him carefully and found that Ji Xuanyi was asking this question in a very ordinary way. He breathed a sigh of relief and handed the orange to Ji Xuanyi, saying seriously: " You can beat him. "

Ji Xuan smiled, peeled a petal and put it in his mouth, looked at him sideways and said, " No one has ever seen this before. You were not like this before. "

Qi Qin blushed when he looked at her, and after a long while he said, " Should I be more modest? "

Although he felt that there should be no one he couldn't beat.

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " No, it's fine now, keep it up. "

Qi Qingang couldn't help but laugh. Ji Xuanyi stuffed the orange back into his hand and said disdainfully, " It's so sour. Eat it. "

Qi Qin took a bite and wondered, isn't this quite sweet?

He turned his head to glance at Ji Xuanyi's face, but did not dare to raise any objection, so he had to carefully finish eating the sweet orange that seemed to be sour.

Ji Xuanyi whispered: " Stupid enough to burst ..."

Qi Qin: " What? "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " What what? "

Qi Qin said timidly: " Nothing, nothing ..."

Ji Xuanyi slowed down his pace and walked back to the Mage Tower with Qi Qin.

Miyin went online on the morning of the 29th.

In order to gain the last bit of time, Ji Xuanyi got up at 6:30 in the morning on the 29th and continued to study the book in the library, intending to continue until the server was shut down. It was past eight o'clock now, and Ji Xuanyi was so sleepy that he kept yawning. Qi Qin, who was used to getting up early and was extremely sober, was staring at Ji Xuanyi's rare confused and dazed expression.

However, when Mi Yin's avatar lit up in the friend list, Ji Xuan suddenly came to his senses.

Mi Yin probably found out that Ji Xuanyi was online so early after logging in, so she immediately sent him a private message and asked in surprise: " You woke up so early?! "

Ji Xuanyi deleted the words he had typed earlier and said, " You too? "

[Miyin] : How can I be the same! I just came back from a mission and saw on the official website that there will be maintenance and updates at 9am this morning, so I quickly ran up to take a last look.

[Miyin] : What's going on? It's only been updated a few days ago? Why is it updating again? What happened while I was away?

Mi Yin was confused. Questions came one after another. Ji Xuanyi was still asleep, so he didn't have the mood to answer them one by one. Besides, time was running out, so he said directly: " Anyway, the world quests are going to be updated. Everyone in Star City has to do the quests. Although it's a bit late now and Xiao Xiao Yu Xia probably won't have time to hear the answer, he asked me to ask you. He wants to use your name to gather individual players in Star City. Do you agree? "

[Miyin] : What? My name? That's not good. That's so embarrassing. Why don't you just use yours? I think you are more famous than me!

Ji Xuan sent three question marks.

Mi Yin reacted and replied: " Oh, I forgot, using your name is indeed not a good influence. "

[Ji Xuanyi] : ?????? ?????? ?????

It's fine to say his name attracts enemies, but what do you mean by a bad influence?!

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " If you don't agree, forget it. "

[Miyin] : I agree! It's just a name!

Ji Xuanyi sneered and said, " There is one more thing I want to tell you. "

[Miyin] : What's the matter?

[Ji Xuanyi] : When you were away, Xue Piao Renjian came to look for you.

[Miyin] : ... What the hell?!

Chapter 79

Ji Xuanyi looked at Mi Yin's reply and imagined the other person's shocked face. He couldn't help but curl the corners of his mouth . He was about to tell him the truth when suddenly his eyes went dark. When he regained his sight , he was already back in the game cabin.

Maintained.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuan glanced at his phone , which showed that it was eight forty-five . It might be that the maintenance time was moved forward, or it might be that the holographic online game was undergoing maintenance and the players had to be kicked offline early. In short, it was too late to resolve the misunderstanding.

It's so embarrassing.

He was kicked offline before he got a reply from Ji Xuanyi . He and Ji Xuanyi had no offline contact information. It seemed that he would only know the specific situation after the maintenance was over in a day .

Mi Yin scratched his hair , wondering why Xue Piao Renjian came to find him. Did he encounter any difficulties? With his strength, it shouldn't be possible.

Mi Yin climbed out of the game cabin and took out his cell phone hesitantly .

Although they had agreed to go their separate ways, he, as both his master and teammate, still cared about him very much . If the latter encountered any problems , he would certainly go to help.

After thinking about it, Mi Yin sent a message to Xue Piao Renjian: " You came to see me? " I don't know if the snow has started at this time . Mi Yin sent another message: " What happened? "

Almost five minutes later , Xue Piao Renjian's reply came.

[Snow Falling on the Earth] :?

[Miyin] : Mu Xuanyi said that you came to Fanxing City to find me.

[Snow Falls on Earth] : ...

[Miyin] : That's not the case?

[Snow Falling on the World] : No.

Miyin: "..."

Xuan Xiaoyi, how could you lie to me? It's so embarrassing now!

Mi Yin had no choice but to say: " It's fine , just do your best. If you have any problems, remember to ask me for help. You don't have to carry it alone. "

[Snow Falling on the Earth] : Okay.

End of conversation.

That's right, Xue Piao Renjian is actually a taciturn person who can't say a word even if you hit him with three sticks. Another reason why Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian are so popular is that Xue Piao Renjian is a very talkative person and often remains silent when others ask questions. For example, when some people who like to watch the fun asked them what they thought of Xue Mi, Mi Yin replied " This is brotherhood! " and Xue Piao replied "... "

It looked like he had some opinion on Miyin's answer.

Although no one knows what "雪飘" means, there are still many people who are willing to imagine in this direction!

In fact, neither of them showed any offense because of this, but things that don't exist just don't exist. Mi Yin is always the only one explaining that they are innocent and that they have a legitimate master-disciple and teammate relationship, while the other party would just remain silent, making his explanations seem particularly weak. Sometimes Mi Yin would be forced into a corner and urge Xue Piao to speak up to clarify, but Xue Piao would still be six points, and at this time someone would say that Mi Yin was bullying Xue Piao again.

During that period of time, Miyin almost broke the question marks on his keyboard by typing them himself, but there were always only ellipsis marks in Xue Piao Renjian.

Later, Mi Yin also came to terms with it. He realized that it was better for one person to explain something than for two people to explain it. Whenever he was asked similar questions later, he would kick away Xue Piao Renjian and answer the questions alone.

Xue Piao Renjian responded: " ? "

However, this time in "Domain", the two people parted ways, and it was indeed not because of any problems in their relationship, or some gay incident like Xue Piao Renjian suddenly confessed his love to Mi Yin.

It's just because the two people want to move in different directions.

Although Mi Yin found it a little hard to accept at first, which led to him childishly deleting Xue Piao as his friend in the game, he is an adult after all, and later he thought it through. Xue Piao did nothing wrong, he was just too impulsive. However, the two of them have different goals and ideas, so separation is an inevitable result. All they can do is to part ways in peace.

On the day when the maintenance ended, countless players adjusted to the jet lag in advance, got up early, and waited in the game cabin for the server to open. However, the game cabin is also for lying down, and many people fell asleep while waiting, and didn't know what time it was when they woke up.

Ji Xuanyi was fine. He went to bed before ten o'clock the night before, woke up at half past seven, and waited in the game cabin until nine o'clock, just in time to go online.

After Ji Xuanyi came online, he saw white lights frequently lighting up around him. Not only the players who had previously logged off in the wild map, but even Ji Xuanyi who was kicked off in the Mage Tower, were refreshed to the large square in the southeast area of Fanxing City.

Ji Xuanyi frowned, and when he saw Qi Qin's avatar light up in the friend list, he immediately formed a team with him.

Qi Qin, who was originally dizzy because of the sudden change of coordinates and the bustling players around him as soon as he came online, seemed to have grabbed a lifeline. He immediately followed the blue arrow on the parchment to find Ji Xuanyi and held him tightly without letting go.

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said nothing.

More and more players are coming online. Although the large square in the southeast area is large, it can no longer accommodate them if things continue like this.

Although some of the people gathered together were members of the three major gangs who had received arrangements in advance, most of the individual players didn't know what to do now. They didn't know whether they should go out of the city to complete the task by themselves, or wait in the square for someone to give them some instructions.

Fortunately, this period of time only lasted about five or six seconds. Ji Xuan saw that the avatars of Xiao Xiao Yuxia, Xu Chu and others lit up one after another.

After the update, the world channel and map channel were opened. Although there are no such things as teleportation arrays and map boundaries in this game, the map areas are divided invisibly. Only within the divided areas can map messages be received and sent.

When Ji Xuanyi first came up, many people had already flooded the map channel and the world channel with messages. This meant that although Xiao Xiaoyuxia and the others no longer had to shout pitifully when giving orders, the messages they sent out could easily be brushed aside by the meaningless chatter between individual players.

However, it was obvious that this was not the first time that Xiao Xiao Yuxia had faced this situation. Not long after, Ji Xuanyi saw that the map channel was suddenly flooded with a large number of repetitive messages.

" All individual players in the southeast area please disperse first. The members of the three major gangs are scattered in four areas and need to gather in the southeast area. All individual players in the southeast area square please disperse first. "

Ji Xuan raised an eyebrow.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia first sent the notification he wanted to send to the members of the three major gangs, and then asked all members to send it at the same time, causing the screen to be flooded. In this way, even if the map channel was noisy, everyone would be able to see the message he sent.

Ji Xuan saw that the individual players who did not have the badges of the three major gangs on their chests began to walk out one after another. Some people reminded those who did not see the notice what message had just been sent. In order to obtain the rare world mission, even the individual players had very high execution ability. After a while, the South City Square became empty.

Most of the remaining people who haven't left are from the Dust World Guild. It seems that in order to avoid too many players and not enough space, the system has refreshed the players in four different urban areas according to the areas they entered the city.

When Ji Xuan walked towards the gathering place of the mortal world, he saw A Miao and Ze Yu Sishui who were originally affiliated with Meng Tanggu and Tama Jianghu.

Although they are usually unruly, when it comes to collective actions like this, these people still obey orders.

Ji Xuanyi walked up, greeted Xiao Xiaoyuxia, and told him the long-overdue news that " Mi Yin doesn't mind you using his name to recruit people ". Xiao Xiaoyuxia was speechless for a moment, and asked Ji Xuanyi to wait for him for a while. In addition to the arrangement of the formation and the command of individual players, the three major gangs must send a team of light cavalry out to scout the situation as soon as possible. Although the road has been explored once, no one knows what the road conditions have become after the update, and how many people are needed to reach the Lost Forest as safely as possible.

Ji Xuanyi knew that these things were very difficult, so he stood aside calmly, with no intention of intervening at all.

In fact, before reaching the Lost Forest, unless there was any major trouble on the road, Ji Xuanyi should be able to paddle all the way there.

Suddenly, Qi Qin shook the hand that was holding his. Ji Xuanyi turned around and looked at him. Qi Qin came over and whispered, " Ze Yu Sishui seems to have something to say to you. " Ji Xuan turned his head one by one and found Ze Yu Sishui winking at him.

Ji Xuanyi: "... What are you doing? "

Ze Yu Sishui stood among a small group of Damajangjianghu players who had entered the wrong zone, and exaggeratedly made a " come over and talk ~ " mouth shape to Ji Xuanyi. Ji Xuan opened the private chat channel expressionlessly: " If you have anything to fart, come on. "

Ze Yu Sishui was stunned for a moment, and immediately replied: " Xiao Ji! Did you know that the pioneers who explore the way will receive subsidies! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

He just knew it.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and asked, " Are you short of money? "

[泽于似水] : I don't need it, but it would be a waste if I didn't make some money! In fact, many people in the vanguard have very good horses, so it's not hard for them to carry me, and I'm so agile! Even if I encounter danger, I won't die! It would be a real loss if I don't go!

Ji Xuanyi replied speechlessly: " Then go ahead. "

[泽于似水] : They discriminate by profession! They only want knights, not assassins. I burst into tears! Xiao Ji, I heard that you have a good relationship with the deputy gang leader, so please help us get in through the back door! Not many, just me, Qingfeng, and Ming Shao!

Ji Xuanyi was really shocked this time: " Forget about you and Young Master Ming. You can run away when you encounter trouble. Qingfeng is not as good as a short-legged wizard. What can you do if you go there? "

[泽于似水] : I can't do anything, but he is one of our three people after all! Ming Shaofa and I can't abandon him!

Ji Xuan raised his head and glanced at Ze Yu Sishui, and found that the other party's expression was actually quite righteous!

Ji Xuanyi: " I thought you would say that he is your mother after all. "

[泽于似水] : ... What the hell?

Ji Xuanyi replied: " Nothing. "

[泽于似水] : So have you agreed? Xiao Ji, you have to know that whether the three brothers can seize this opportunity to rise to prominence depends on you!

Ji Xuanyi replied coldly: " I refuse. "

[泽于似水] : QAQ !

Ji Xuanyi's eyes twitched and he closed the private chat channel.

Because the authorities have assigned players to four different areas, it is a bit difficult to gather them together. Their first target is the Lost Forest, which is closer to the city gate of the southeast area, while the light cavalry are mostly in the Tamajang in the southwest area, which is equivalent to the distance across the entire Starry City. It takes nearly two hours to get here.

However, starting one minute late now means falling behind by one minute. When Ji Xuan saw the heavy rain, he was so anxious that his mouth was about to get blisters. However, he still had to bear the pressure and contact the leaders of those individual gangs through private chats to give orders to the individual gangs who were willing to obey his commands.

Ji Xuanyi walked up and said, " Light cavalry is indeed the best choice for exploring the way, but in the current situation, I think we can send out a group of independent people who have good communication and high professional survivability in advance to get some information in advance, which is better than everyone standing and waiting now. "

Xiao Xiao Yu looked at Ji Xuanyi, sighed, and said, " I know, but ... Alas, this is the only way now. I will go to Xu Chu to discuss the welfare of independent explorers, so that someone will not spread rumors that we are sending independent explorers to die. "

However, once such a decision is made, rumors are inevitable, and no amount of compensation will be of any use. This is why Xiaoxiao Yuxia would rather be anxious than let Sanren take the lead.

But then again, it's really useful to have a rich man among your friends!

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was taking three approaches at the same time. On the one hand, he was discussing compensation with Xu Chu, on the other hand, he was contacting the leader of the Sanren Gang who was willing to follow his orders, and on the other hand, he was communicating with the Sanren Gang which had not yet decided whether to cooperate with the three major gangs. He was extremely busy.

Ji Xuanyi was standing nearby watching the fun, when suddenly the system alert rang, reminding him that he had not received a letter.

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, and said to Xiao Xiao Yuxia: " I'll leave for a while, and come back later. We can talk in private if we have anything to say. "

Xiao Xiaoyu responded without raising her head, and Ji Xuanyi left with Qi Qinxiang.

The players who left the square did not go too far . They just waited around for orders. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin had a hard time squeezing through the crowd when they went out.

not far from the big square in the southeast area . Ji Xuanyi walked over to pick up the letter and found that it was from August. It said that he hoped he could go to the Mage Tower, as August had something he wanted to entrust to him.

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment, then realized that August was looking for him this time probably because of the development of the plot. He knew about the crisis in Xinmu Town and hoped that he could help bring back Mrs. Harman.

After a moment's hesitation , Ji Xuan took Qi Qin to the transportation point and got on a carriage to the inner city.

Anyway, it would take at least an hour and a half for the advance troops to leave the city, not to mention the main force. This was enough time for him to go to the Mage Tower and back.

The players were gathered in the large squares of the four urban areas. The roads were empty. Ji Xuanyi kept frowning slightly, staring out the window in a daze.

Qi Qin glanced at him, mustered up the courage to stretch out his hand, and waved it in front of Ji Xuanyi's eyes.

Ji Xuanyi turned his head and looked at him: " What are you doing? "

Qi Qin was a little timid, but still said seriously: " Don't worry, Xuanyi, I will help you rescue Madam Harman. "

Ji Xuanyi raised an eyebrow at him.

Qi Qin nodded and said, " With me here, Sun City can't stop us. "

Ji Xuanyi burst out laughing.

Qi Qin blushed and said, " I'm serious. "

 " Well, I know, " Ji Xuanyi looked at him softly and said, " I believe you. "

Ji Xuanyi's gentle eyes were so devastating that Qi Qin's breathing stagnated and he almost died on the spot. It took him a long time to regain his consciousness. His face flushed and he said in a panic, " Thank you ... Thank you. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Is this what you want to say?

Qi Qin adjusted his mood and when he looked up at Ji Xuanyi again, he found that the other party had lost interest. He was looking out the window and not looking at him. He suddenly felt lost.

The players who had gathered at the entrance of the Mage Tower and wanted to go in to see the library were no longer there, and Ji Xuanyi was actually a little uncomfortable with it.

They arrived at the top floor of the Mage Tower without any obstructions. Outside August's room, Ji Xuanyi let out a light breath, then pushed open the door and walked in.

August no longer sat at the table to write letters. He stood by the small wooden window, looking at the sky in the distance . His hunched back made him look short and weak. Even in the wizard robe, it was impossible to associate him with his noble status.

Ji Xuanyi said softly: " August, we are here. "

August paused for a moment, then slowly turned around and smiled at Ji Xuan, " Thank you for coming. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything.

 " She was right not to reply to my letter, " August whispered, " Halmana is in danger now, and I, as a father, have given up trying to save her. "

Ji Xuanyi's eyes welled up with tears when he saw this. August choked up and said, " No one knows when the darkness will spread here. I can't abandon the people of Star City. I am the guardian of this place. This is my responsibility ... But, she is my daughter ..."

Qi Qin turned his face away reluctantly.

Ji Xuanyi looked at August quietly.

August said softly, " I am not qualified to be her father. If this catastrophe is over and we are still alive, I will never bother her again. "

 " She hasn't thought about it that way. " Ji Xuanyi said.

August raised his head and looked at Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi sighed, took out the letter from his backpack, and handed it to August: " If she survives, she plans to come back to Star City to visit you. She doesn't mean to hate you. "

Ji Xuanyi lowered his eyes and whispered, " I'm sorry, I thought you would take impulsive actions because of Madam Harman, so I didn't tell you before, but she still loves you. "

August looked at the reply letter from Mrs. Harman, was stunned for a long time, and then sobbed like a child.

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin stood aside, watching August stroke the letter again and again. After a long time, he finally calmed down and said to Ji Xuanyi, " Thank you, child, thank you for showing me this letter. I know you are going to go to the war to unite all the lives for this continent ..."

August raised his head, looked at Ji Xuanyi with an almost pleading look, and said: " I know this request is unreasonable, but if possible, can you please rescue Hamana? I will give you everything you want, as long as Hamana is alive! I ... I can't lose her ..."

Hearing August's words, Ji Xuanyi nodded without hesitation and said to August: " I will help you rescue Madam Harman, for sure. "

At the moment Ji Xuanyi said this, he received a system prompt indicating that he had accepted the task issued by August. At the same time, Ji Xuanyi acquired a new skill: [Live and die together].

The effect of this skill is to exchange the user's health with a friendly target at a ratio of one to two. The exchange value is controllable and there is no CD .

Ji Xuan was stunned for a moment. He thought that rewards could only be obtained after the task was completed, but he didn't expect that this time the reward was given when accepting the task.

For this reason, Ji Xuanyi also carefully looked at the skills in the skill column. They were not limited-time skills, but permanent skills.

Ji Xuanyi couldn't figure out whether this was a system feature designed to help him complete the task faster, or whether he could already claim the reward at this point in the story. However, this skill was already a very rare and applicable skill for Ji Xuanyi, who currently had no healing skills to show off.

The most important thing is the no CD and health ratio. At least if the target is Qi Qin, Ji Xuanyi has the ability to assist in continuous combat!

Moreover, now that life skills have been opened up, the trading house has already seen the appearance of inexpensive and high-quality big red medicines. Ji Xuanyi was calculating whether he still had time to make a trip to the trading house. It would be best if he could buy a hundred or eighty sets of blood medicines from him, and then collect some materials and go back to buy himself a set of blood-cow-type equipment.

Anyway, the benefits of other attributes are not high, Ji Xuanyi is determined to make himself a big blood pack that can infinitely support Qi Qin's blood!

Qi Qin hadn't realized that he might have to rely on Ji Xuanyi, a famous person, in the future, so he asked stupidly, " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " Nothing, August gave me a skill. "

 " I hope this can help you, " August looked at Ji Xuanyi gratefully and murmured, " Thank you, thank you ..."

Ji Xuanyi nodded to August, took out the parchment and looked at the task, which read [Separated Father and Daughter] :

August, the great magician of Star City, asks you to rescue his daughter Hamanna (Mrs. Hamman) from the dangerous Elemental Town.

Mission Rewards:

One thousand gold coins, three million experience points, and five thousand August's favorability.

Combined with the skills given before, it can be said to be very generous.

But then again, Ji Xuanyi remembered that August's favorability towards him was already close, and it was only 4,000 points away from the upper limit. How could he add 5,000 points? Was this the legendary favorability explosion?

Ji Xuanyi frowned and retracted his divergent thoughts. No matter what, the reward for this task was indeed very high. You know, although Ji Xuanyi had been working hard to make money some time ago, he and Qi Qin only had less than 2,500 gold coins in their hands. He was given 1,000 for this task, which fully showed August's sincerity. In addition, the amount of experience that could at least allow him to level up by two levels, so even if this task was not for the sake of his relationship with August, he had to complete it.

Ji Xuanyi looked at Qi Qin and said, " Have you received any assistance? "

Qi Qin nodded and said, " I got it. "

However, because he was only assisting, all his rewards were only half of Ji Xuanyi's. He had finally gained some more experience than Ji Xuanyi, but it wasn't long before he was overtaken again.

August looked at Ji Xuanyi gently and said, " Thank you. The horn of departure has sounded. Don't be late . Go quickly. I will wait for you to come back in Star City. "

Ji Xuan nodded and took Qi Qin out of August's room.

When going downstairs, Ji Xuanyi originally wanted to go to Puxi for another divination, but thinking that the time seemed not enough, he finally pulled Qi Qin and quickly ran to the trading house.

When Ji Xuanyi was halfway through scanning materials and red medicines in the trading house, Xiao Xiaoyuxia sent him a private message.

[Xiaoxiao Yuxia] : The vanguard has already left the city gate, where are you?

Ji Xuanyi replied: " I'm buying things at the inner city trading house. "

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : ... Why did you run to the inner city? Can you come back now? We will set off when you arrive.

Ji Xuanyi went out to get something from the postman and replied: " Can you come back? Did the vanguard of the scattered people bring back any news? "

[Xiaoxiao Yuxia] : The situation is not very good. There are many monsters on the road, and there are traps for horses. If it takes two days for all members to reach the Lost Forest, it will probably take at least three days now.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and replied: " We have to go faster, otherwise we may not have enough time. "

[潇晓雨下] : I know. I'm already adjusting the formation. Not to mention the traps, the speed of clearing monsters will definitely increase. If there are no major problems, we can get there within three days. If the individual players are more motivated and log off later every day, maybe we can get there in just over two days.

This should be enough. Ji Xuan stuffed the things that couldn't fit in his bag to Qi Qin and said to Xiao Xiaoyu: " What are you going to do, individual soldiers? It's definitely not all of you who are online today, and it's impossible for the entire team to move in unison, right? "

[瀟曉雨下] : Yes, we have found several gang leaders with relatively high organizational skills. Because we don't know whether the obstacles on the road will be refreshed after they are cleared, one player will stay in the city to organize the players who are willing to listen to orders and may die on the way and return to the resurrection point in Star City. Then the other players will be mobilized in different time periods. Now the large force is acting together, and the individual players can go offline to rest at will. When the game comes online, those who are quick will catch up with the large force, and those who are slow will wait for the subsequent small waves of players.

[曉曉雨下] : Everyone has things to do in real life, so the number of people walking in the front will definitely decrease. However, we have rest time at noon, afternoon and evening. When the main group goes offline, some of the people behind can still catch up.

There is no way around it. Games are games after all. They are different from real life. It is impossible for us to stay in the game all the time. If we are in a hurry for a long time, we can only move forward in this slow and sluggish way.

But the time should be enough. After all, it is impossible for an ordinary player to walk to the Lost Forest and travel all day long, so in terms of time calculation, it is still acceptable.

[Xiaoxiao Yuxia] : But the problems we face are definitely the same problems faced by the other two main cities. From this perspective, the combat effectiveness of Sun City should not be as high as last time.

Ji Xuanyi took Qi Qin to a transportation point, got on the carriage, and said to Xiao Xiao Yuxia: " Are you not afraid of snow falling on earth? "

[Xiaoxiao Rainfall] : Don't be afraid, Mi Yin is coming.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

There seemed to be some misunderstanding between him and Mi Yin.

It took Ji Xuanyi a lot of effort to return to the Southeast District Square.

The light cavalry organized by the three major gangs have already left the city. Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Xu Chu , who arrived late, were organizing the formation while sending the message of gathering in the southeast area to the map channel. All the individual players in Fanxing City were moving towards the southeast area, and Ji Xuanyi was relying entirely on Qi Qin's brute force to squeeze forward.

Ji Xuanyi opened his eyes and stared at the front where he could not see anything except the back of his head. He missed the keyboard online game that allowed him to play through characters.

It's obviously a game, but why does it feel like a long vacation trip to a tourist attraction, it's full of people!

Ji Xuanyi stood on tiptoe unwillingly, but he could only see a few more heads besides the back of the head.

In fact, Qi Qin, who was at a higher altitude, was not much better than Ji Xuanyi. Although he could see much more than Ji Xuanyi, when he looked around, the densely packed black heads were moving and undulating. Qi Qin felt dizzy and almost suffered from claustrophobia.

Ji Xuanyi said with a sullen face: "Don't you know how to step on shoulders? Can you take me with you and walk on it? "

Qi Qin was stunned and said with his mouth open: "No, it's not good, right? "

It is possible to do it. The first time he showed his skills in front of Ji Xuanyi, he stepped on people's shoulders and heads. But those were all monsters. Everyone here is a player. How rude!

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: "I'm going to be squeezed to death. "

After all, Ji Xuanyi is a weak warlock with a strength of five. If he encounters two swordsmen standing together, he might really be crushed to death.

Qi Qin: "..."

The swordsmen and knights in the front row were arranged to rotate, the output formation of the DPS in the back was also set up, and they made sure that the healers would not slack off.

They worked from nine o'clock until almost twelve o'clock, and they were finally ready to set off! Xu Chu looked at Xiao Xiao Yuxia and said, "Ji Xuanyi hasn't come yet? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia shook her head and said, "No, I didn't reply to the private chat either. "

Liu Tian said impatiently: "We have made all the preparations. If we set off one second later, we will be one second slower. We can't waste time because of these two people! Let's go first! "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia asked: "Don't you know what kind of temper Ji Xuanyi has? "

After a pause, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said helplessly: "Yes, you really don't know. "

Six days: "..."

Xiaoxiao Yuxia explained: "If we don't wait for him, he might get angry. If he gets angry, he might quit. Without him, there will be no number one in the world. Without the number one in the world, we can't defeat Daylight City— "

"Wait a minute!" Liu Tian interrupted, "Everything depends on Tianxia No. 1, what is Mi Yin here for? Didn't they tell him to deal with Xue Piao Renjian? "

Mi Yin, who was standing nearby, saw herself being mentioned and said helplessly: "Although I don't know if the man you are talking about is Xue Piao, but if he is, you may be disappointed. I have been unable to beat him for a long time. "

"It doesn't matter. You don't have to use your strength to defeat him. You can use your feelings." Jing Yunhan came over and encouraged Mi Yin seriously.

He still remembered the scandal between Mi Yin and Xue Piao Renjian that Ji Xuanyi spread last time.

Miyin: "..."

Mi Yin didn't have the mouth to explain! She could only say to Xiao Xiao Yu with a blank expression: "Take care of your naughty child. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia caught Jing Yun Han behind him, laughed dryly, and said: "The relationship between master and disciple is also a relationship! "

Mi Yin refused to speak.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said to Liu Tian, " It's definitely right to prepare for both situations. If Mi Yin can persuade Xue Piao Renjian to rebel, that would be great. If not, we can let Tian Xia Di Yi go head-to-head with Xue Piao Renjian. But Ji Xuanyi must wait, otherwise it will be useless for us to leave the city early. "

When Mi Yin heard that his job was to incite Xue Piao to rebel, he couldn't help but look up at the sky and sigh.

He is also an expert, okay? What about the online game skills? Why does he feel that his positioning is a little wrong?

Seeing that Liu Tian was about to quarrel with Xiao Xiao Yu Xia, Jing Yun Han was useless, and Xu Chu was still watching the show, Jian Xi Xin Jiu had to interrupt and said: " I think Xiao Xiao Yu Xia is right, and Liu Tian is also right. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Liutian looked over at the same time, with two words written on their faces: " Nonsense! "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said helplessly: " How about I go pick them up? I think it might be because Ji Xuan's legs are too short that he's so slow. Tian Xia's speed is still acceptable. "

Xu Chu said slowly, " I don't think they were late because of their speed, and I don't think you can get out on horseback. "

" I agree with Liu Tian's opinion. It's better to set off first, " Xu Chu said, pointing to the densely packed crowd outside: " The players in Star City are basically gathered here. If you want to get in, you have to grow wings – what the hell?! What the hell! "

Chapter 80

After 6 Xuchu shouted , everyone looked in the direction he pointed , and then everyone screamed: " What the hell is that!!! "

In fact, they were not the only ones shouting " Fuck ! " . Some people in the crowd also kept shouting " Fuck! ", but the following sentence turned into something like " Who stepped on me! "

Qi Qin was like an actor in a TV drama , holding Ji Xuanyi in one hand and running quickly towards Xu Chu and the others, following the players below.

Everyone's expression: " =□= !!! "

Ji Xuanyi looked at everyone with the same expressions as he had at the beginning, and felt secretly happy.

Everyone was stunned . After a long while, Jian Xi Xin Jiu was the first to come to his senses . He asked worriedly, " How much do the two of them weigh together? "

Everyone: " ??? "

No, you want to say this when you see a scene in a martial arts movie ?!

You really can't blame Jian Xi Xin Jiu . After all, he is a knight who needs to consider the weight of his mount, so it's reasonable for him to think of this. Although no one usually uses players as mounts , players in the game actually do have weights, which are linked to their strength and physique attributes. Most of the weight comes from strength, and physique can only allow professions with slightly higher talents such as priests to carry a little more weight than mages and warlocks.

So the solution to this problem is actually very simple. Just step on the swordsman and the knight . Qi Qin is very particular about every step he takes . His eyes, ears, hands and feet all need to be coordinated properly to be able to run over the player's shoulders like this . If he accidentally steps on a player other than a strength-based profession , the player will not be able to bear enough weight, and he and Ji Xuanyi will fall down directly.

However, when they ran to the inside, they saw players from the three major gangs gathered together. Their formation was different from the scattered players. Swordsmen and knights were at the front, and those near Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin were all archers. Qi Qin ran to the end and had no place to step on, so he had to walk a few more steps sideways before he found a less crowded place. He held Ji Xuanyi in his arms and fell to the ground.

As soon as Qi Qin landed, the people behind him immediately crowded over. More than one person saw him running on the players' shoulders. After being stunned, the people who were stepped on did not intend to cause trouble. They all excitedly wanted to squeeze up to make friends with this god-like man who seemed to be hanging on a wire.

Qi Qin was startled by the sudden movement of the crowd behind him and forgot to put Ji Xuanyi down. He quickly picked him up and ran away.

Many people from the three major guilds knew them, and although they were all very excited and wanted to add them as friends or something, their focus right now was still on the world mission. Knowing that they were people invited by the guild leaders to help, they quickly made way for them and helped to block the players behind them.

Fortunately, not many people saw Qi Qin 's " Qinggong " , and only a small group of players were a little out of control. After Xiaoxiao Yuxia refreshed the map several times to complete the world mission and introduced this god to everyone, the situation finally calmed down gradually. However, there are still some confused players who didn't see Qi Qin and were asking who the god was and what was going on?

After squeezing into the middle of the line of pastors, Ji Xuanyi struggled to get out of Qi Qin's arms, tidied his clothes, and calmly walked forward with Qi Qin.

Among the priests, there were also some mortal players they had dealt with before. A little girl saw Qi Qin hugging Ji Xuanyi and said enviously: " He's really my boyfriend, that's great ..."

Qi Qin and Ji Xuanyi both heard these words, one continued walking calmly, while the other blushed with flickering eyes.

When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked to the front of the team, Ze Yu Sishui, who was arranged at the outermost edge due to his profession, was telling Xu Chu and his group the story of the best in the world (which he and the other two had imagined together) in a very emotional way.

The contents were varied, including A few things " about learning martial arts in Shaolin Temple " , " A few things about learning skills in the Acrobatic Troupe " and " A few things about training in the Special Forces " – except for the last one which made Mi Yin look skeptical, the other two stories stunned the group of people including Xu Chu.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

No, Ze Yu Sishui has a hole in his brain. It's fine if other people believe it, but Xu Chu is a rare sober person, why did he believe it too! He even nodded seriously, as if he was planning to find a master to learn some skills himself! Wake up quickly!

You really can't blame Xu Chu. After all, before today, he didn't believe that anyone could perform that kind of action without wires or special effects. Anyway, his worldview has been shattered once, so it seems there's nothing wrong with letting his imagination run wild.

Ji Xuanyi was very worried that Xu Chu would end up thinking the same way as Ze Yu Sishui, so he walked closer, coughed, and said, " What are you doing? "

Ze Yu Shishui's story came to an abrupt end. He didn't even dare to look back at Ji Xuanyi, knowing that Qingfeng Bufu and Ming Shao were not around, and Ji Xuanyi would definitely teach him a lesson after finding out that he was talking nonsense. So he simply turned his back to Ji Xuanyi and used invisibility, and ran away to an unknown place.

The other few people looked at Ji Xuanyi with an unsatisfied look, as if they were not satisfied with the story.

Ji Xuanyi: "... behave a little more normally. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu looked at Ji Xuanyi hesitantly, Xu Chu looked at Qi Qin thoughtfully, Jing Yunhan and Liu Tian had not yet recovered, standing there in a daze, and finally Xiao Xiao Yu Xia smiled warmly and greeted them, saying: " Little Ji ..."

Ji Xuanyi said coldly: " Go away. "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Xiao Xiaoyu rubbed his face, looked at Ji Xuanyi helplessly, and said: " Why didn't you say earlier that there are people with this skill in the world, whether they are acrobats , Shaolin disciples or special forces soldiers—— "

Mi Yin raised her hand: " Let me tell you, special forces soldiers usually don't act like this. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia: " Okay, no matter what the world is for, as long as we have this strength, we don't have to worry about the snow falling on the world. "

After thinking for a while, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia specially explained to Mi Yin: " Of course, I'm not saying that Xue Piao Renjian isn't amazing. "

Mi Yin: "... it doesn't matter what you say. "

Xiaoxiao showed a touched expression in the rain, as if saying " That's great, this is a reasonable person " .

Miyin: "..."

Ji Xuanyi: " ??? "

In any case, what Xiaoxiao Yuxia said is indeed based on facts. Compared with other online games, this game does not have many skills so far. In addition to skill damage, you also need to rely on normal attack damage in battle.

The reason why keyboard online game masters like Ji Xuanyi are still masters in holographic online games is that what supports them is the common consciousness of online games.

However, there are some other masters who are obviously unknown but suddenly emerge, such as Wan Ge Naizhi, who rely on their own combat consciousness.

It's not that no one had fought with Qi Qin before, but Qi Qin had never used his full strength in front of others. The only time he fought alone against many people in a gang war was seen by the thick-skinned Liu Tian.

In fact, some ordinary defensive actions that came from combat instinct seemed to be no different from predictions, so even Mi Yin had not realized how strong Qi Qin was until today. Fundamentally speaking, "Domain" is actually an online game with skills and data. The consciousness common to online games is actually stronger than the combat instinct, but the holographic setting gives the latter a certain amount of room to play. However, even if you break it down, there are people like Mi Yin who have both consciousness and certain skills because of their real profession, but Qi Qin's ability to "fly" seems to be beyond the reach of anyone.

To sum it up simply, Qi Qin is strong and invincible .

Ji Xuanyi: "Okay, I'm very satisfied with this wave of blowing. "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Xiao Xiao Yu sweated and said, "As long as I'm satisfied, it's fine. Anyway, our chances of winning will be better. Maybe we can consider letting Tian Xia go up and defeat Xue Piao Renjian first, and then let Mi Yin persuade him to surrender ..."

Mi Yin said quietly, "Can I have a proper use? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia looked at Mi Yin in surprise: "Isn't it proper to persuade people to surrender? "

Mi Yin: "... No, it's quite serious. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't bother to pay attention to them and said, "Stop talking nonsense and let's go. " It's almost afternoon now. If we don't set off now, we won't have to wait for them in Sun City and we can complete the third mission directly.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia nodded. It had indeed been delayed for a long time. Now that everyone was here and they had gained a lot of confidence, it was time to set off!

Thus, the entire Star City, a densely packed team consisting of thousands of players, finally slowly moved towards the city gate!

After spending more than two months drawing the main city map only to have the world map opened up overnight, the map makers have since given up the job, and there is currently no accurate world map circulating.

However, when the wild map just came out and the three major gangs were preparing to send people to explore, Xiaotui Cramp, as a former map maker, had already proposed to Jianxi Xinjiu to collect the route map, but it must be said that it was too hasty.

The three major gangs mobilized players in Star City who could draw to go out and collect maps, half of which were simple drawings and half were sketches. In the end, they picked and chose, and with great difficulty found a few maps that had a high degree of overlap with other drawings and were more reliable, and pieced together a world map.

Although the proportions may still be wrong, we can still barely see the direction of the path. The three main cities are located in the center, surrounded by fifteen secondary cities. Although no one has ever been to the outer areas, they should be the five elemental novice towns located on the edge of the continent. The five wild maps are distributed in a relatively irregular manner between the three main cities and fifteen secondary cities, and are closer to the fifteen secondary cities.

There is not only one road connecting these maps, but also many forks that lead to unknown places, as well as small roads that lead to the same map as the main road but are much more rugged. Some of these roads lead to the end, while others do not, extending into the distance . This tells players that although the world map has been announced, it has not been fully explored , and there are unknown challenges in further places.

But for now, Ji Xuanyi and his team only need to focus on the road leading to the Lost Forest. When the players were leaving the city gate, the guards on both sides of Star City saluted them. Ji Xuanyi remembered that there was a guard at the city gate, who seemed to be a mage. He was very arrogant to the players at first, but now he looked at everyone with a serious face and kept repeating to the players passing by him: " Please be careful. Thank you for everything you have done for Star City. "

Many players were moved by their actions. For them, this was a world quest to compete for rewards, and failure or not had no effect at all. But for them, it was a matter of life and death, a major crisis that affected their families and partners.

Ji Xuanyi heard the players from the three major guilds talking around him, and the general idea was that they all wanted to work hard to complete the task and not let the people of Star City down.

Ji Xuanyi, who did receive the instructions and tasks, couldn't help but feel a little stressed. The formation of the three major gangs is like a bullet , with a layer of knights in the outermost circle, followed by swordsmen, followed by priests who are wrapped in the innermost circle, and behind the priests are mages. Archers with the widest attack range are at the end and connected with individual players. As for the assassin profession, there is no strict requirement to occupy a position. They are scattered in the middle of the team, and some even run directly to the outside.

In order to facilitate communication, the heads of the three major gangs gathered in the same place, behind the swordsmen and before the priests, so that they could quickly learn about the dangers ahead and ensure safety. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, as members of the think tank and the most important lethal weapons, also gathered with Xiao Xiao Yuxia and the others.

Jian Xi Xinjiu looked around. Jing Yunhan's horse was carrying Xiaoxiao Yuxia, Liu Tian's horse was carrying Xu Chu, and only his horse was empty.

Jian Xi Xinjiu glanced at Ji Xuanyi and was about to say something when Qi Qin looked at him. Sword washing new wine: "..."

Jian Xi Xin Jiu scratched his head and said to Mi Yin beside him: " Come up? "

Mi Yin was stunned for a moment, then said cautiously: " It's not a good thing, forget it. "

Sword washing new wine: " ??? "

The team's marching speed was consistent with the maximum speed of an ordinary heavy-armored swordsman, so it was not difficult for Ji Xuanyi to keep up. Qi Qin wanted to ask Ji Xuanyi several times if he needed him to be carried or backed, but after taking a look at Ji Xuanyi, he shrank back cowardly.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi angrily hit Qi Qin with his staff.

Qi Qin was confused and didn't understand how he had made Ji Xuan angry again.

Xu Chu was watching with great amusement. Although he was the smartest one among the three major gangs, he was too lazy to put in any labor other than for the money, so almost all the dispatching work was done by Xiao Xiaoyu. Now he was just as idle as Ji Xuanyi.

Model worker Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "..."

The main force had just set out, and the vanguard had not sent back any alarm messages. Xu Chu was very bored at the moment, so he wanted to chat with others.

He didn't want to pay any attention to Liu Tian. Although Liu Tian didn't want to pay any attention to him, other people didn't mean anything to him either. Seeing that Ji Xuanyi didn't seem very happy, he said to Qi Qin: " Did you really learn Kung Fu in Shaolin Temple? "

It was the first time that Qi Qin was asked this kind of question. He was stunned for a moment and subconsciously looked at Ji Xuanyi.

Xu Chu smiled and said, " Why are you looking at him? Could it be that he taught you? "

Qi Qin didn't know how to react, but Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Why are you looking at me? I didn't teach you that. "

Qi Qin was confused. He looked around and found that Ji Xuanyi was indeed not going to help him out. Xu Chu also looked like he was enjoying the show and had no intention of letting him go. He held his breath for a long time and said, " No, it's not. "

After answering, Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi again, wanting to know if there was anything wrong with his answer. However, the latter had no expression on his face, but Xu Chu laughed.

" Interesting, " Xu Chu said excitedly, " Actually, I'm not interested in where you learned your skills. How about this? You come to work for me. How much salary do you want? "

At this point, Xu Chu seemed to be worried that Qi Qin was stubborn and would not let it go, so he added: " You have a good relationship with Ji Xuanyi, so you can buy things for him with the money you earn. It's a great deal! "

Ji Xuan , who was walking nearby, chuckled .

Seeing Ji Xuanyi's reaction, Qi Qin seemed to finally have something to rely on, and said seriously: " No need, I have money. "

Indeed, it might not be certain if it was the Qi Qin of the past, but the current Qi Qin is a rich second-generation after all. He can eat one bowl of Shaxian snack noodles after another. How could he be short of money!

Xu Chu raised his eyebrows and was about to say something else when Ji Xuanyi said, " That's enough. "

Xu Chu shrugged and had to shut his mouth.

Seeing that Ji Xuanyi didn't seem angry anymore, Qi Qin quickly squeezed towards him. Ji Xuanyi was almost knocked over, but he didn't blame him. He just muttered something in a low voice. Qi Qin didn't hear it clearly, but guessed that he was calling him stupid again.

When the last players had almost left the city gate, the people from the three major gangs in the front row finally set out on the journey to the Lost Forest.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " Except for the few maps with names and surnames now, there are no map channels for other parts belonging to the wild, only world channels. When you speak, please be careful not to let the Sun City know our movements. "

Everyone who heard it responded, and Xiaoxiao Yuxia lowered her head again and sent the words to the leaders of the Sanren Gang.

Most of the independent gang leaders with greater influence, including Ji Xuanyi, Qi Qin and Mi Yin, were formed into a team with Xiao Xiao Yuxia and others to facilitate the spread of news.

" Go a little further and monsters and roadblocks will randomly spawn. It's not a big deal, but they will spawn. Everyone be prepared for battle. "

With the news sent back by the light cavalry, Xiaoxiao Yuxia knew the road conditions ahead very well: " The monsters are all experienced, and there is a very low probability of dropping materials and equipment. The loot is distributed by the team's roll points, or the team can decide the distribution method by itself. If someone has a conflict over such a small amount of things, no matter if they are from the three major gangs or individual players, the former will be kicked out of the gang and the latter will be the same as the latter, leaving the team and doing whatever they want, and they are not allowed to follow the main force anymore. "

The order was quickly passed down, and about two minutes later, the knights and swordsmen in the front row encountered the first wave of refreshed monsters.

To be precise, it should be an elite monster. It is not the kind that can be killed with just a single blow. Instead, it is a monster that requires players to use skills and even priests cannot slack off. The team's pace of progress stopped for two seconds. Xiao Xiaoyu frowned and immediately said, " Don't linger in the battle. Don't stop moving forward. There are still many of us behind us who can kill the monsters. The front row should not focus all their attention on killing monsters . Keep going. We need time! "

" Mages and archers from the three major gangs, use your skills to both sides, be careful not to cause accidental injuries. The scattered troops at the back, prepare for battle – Damn it! Who the hell is throwing skills randomly! " A bolt of lightning flew over from behind and exploded in the group of priests, causing screams. Xiao Xiao Yuxia couldn't help but curse loudly.

Members of the three major gangs can all hear the command directly. Xiaoxiao Yuxia checked and found that it was not a gang member. She had to contact the leader of the Sanren Gang again. After the first Thunder, more idiots threw their skills into the teams of the three major gangs.

Ji Xuan took a look at the conversation in the team. It turned out that some of the individual players in the back thought that the monsters would be killed by the three major gangs in the front , and they would not be able to get any experience or drops. So they anxiously threw skills forward to touch the monsters, but it turned out that the range was not enough, and the skills were thrown directly onto the heads of the priests of the three major gangs.

Those people couldn't see what was happening in front of them, they only saw the damage jump and thought they had hit a monster, so they continued to use their skills forward.

Fortunately, the people who had such thoughts did not have very good equipment and did not cause much damage, so they did not cause much impact. However, Xiao Xiaoyu had been busy for several days and something went wrong as soon as the fight started. He could no longer control his temper and immediately asked the leader of the individual group to pick out and drive out those who did not obey orders and used skills at will.

Afterwards, Xiaoxiao Yuxia once again emphasized in the channel that there would be no such thing as stealing monsters, and asked everyone to use their skills to the side. After three to five minutes, the scattered troops at the back finally calmed down.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia cursed: " People who are afraid of having their rewards taken away should not have listened to orders and joined the group in the first place. Wouldn't it be better for them to get their own rewards? Damn it, fuck! "

Jing Yunhan himself often gets angry, but this was the first time he had seen his cousin so angry. He quickly and carefully smoothed Xiao Xiaoyu's chest and asked worriedly, " Will those who were kicked out spread the news about us? "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was also too busy and a little angry. After calming down a little, she said to Jing Yunhan: " No, except for some people from the three major gangs and a few tight-lipped leaders of the Sanren Gang, I didn't tell anyone else who our targets and guards against are. Those people didn't know what to say and who to tell them to. "

Most of the people in the three major gangs have experienced the situation where they were almost surrounded by the Wanzhi Gang. They know the seriousness of leaking information and they are very tight-lipped.

Xu Chu smacked his lips and said very sincerely and seriously: " It's a good thing that you are one of the three major gangs. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia can be said to be the most reliable, serious and hardworking one among the five leaders of the three major guilds. Xu Chu feels that if Xiaoxiao Yuxia is not in the three major guilds and he is needed to take charge of things, he will probably just leave and become a free and easy individual player ...

Xiaoxiao Yuxia smiled weakly and said nothing.

Xu Chu touched his chin and said, " It seems that Chen Shi was the one who should have been the boss in the first place. "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "... No, no, it will hurt your body. "

He now doesn't understand why he wanted to be the boss before. He was just too bored. If he could travel back in time, he would definitely pinch his past self's neck and tell him not to fight for the boss position! Not to join the three major gangs! Not to be the deputy gang leader!

Wouldn't it be better to just enjoy the game peacefully? You have to be so tired as a dog!

Especially when he saw another guy who obviously had a brain but was waving his hands around and doing nothing, Xiaoxiao Yuxia felt like vomiting blood.

But there is no way, they have money, Xiaoxiao Yuxia can only keep comforting herself, I am a responsible person, I am a responsible person, I am a responsible person ...

The monsters spawn in waves and are not very densely packed on the road, so although the speed of advancement is affected, it is not too much. The real trouble is the traps and roadblocks that are about to come.

Three knights in the vanguard were thrown off their horses, and one was killed by monsters and sent back to the city. Although the vanguard knew that these traps were troublesome, it was not their responsibility to repair them, and they didn't know whether these things would refresh again even if they were filled or moved away, so they could only report the situation to Xiaoxiao Yuxia and continue running forward.

Although not many people were killed and returned to Star City due to the large number of people and sufficient firepower, the individual teams at the back were somewhat out of touch due to the impact of the monsters and the drop distribution. Xiao Xiaoyu urged them twice, which had some effect, so he stopped urging them. After walking for a while, he started to notify them to slow down. Not far ahead was the trap section reported by the vanguard.

The assassins who were inserted in the team and were extremely agile in their movements and positioning ran to the front conscientiously, clearing out the monsters while moving the trip spurs that were blocking the way to the side, and also collapsed several larger traps to reveal the pits, making it easier for the large army to advance.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia commanded: " When we reach the trap section, I don't know if the cleared roadblocks will be refreshed. Individual players should pay attention to their feet when walking and don't fall into the pits. "

However, individual players tend to be more relaxed when playing games, and rarely have their attention fully focused. Xiaoxiao Yuxia also knows that her announcement probably cannot completely prevent players from " slipping " , but it is better to say it than not to say it.

Sure enough, not long after the troops of the three major gangs reached the trap section, Xiaoxiao Yuxia received news that a player behind them had fallen into the pit.

What can we do in the rain? We can only say: " Be more careful. "

However, it has been less than two hours since they left the city gate, and the scattered troops that were originally quite neat have become a little sparse.

Some went offline due to some matters, some fell behind, and so on. Fortunately, there were constant reinforcements from the back, and the Starry City team was still very spectacular.

Ji Xuanyi glanced at Xiao Xiaoyu and said, " Being careful won't solve all problems. Ask if anyone has an unused breastplate, heavy sword, or something else that can plug the hole. Plug it in. "

When Xiaoxiao Yuxia heard this, she nodded and immediately issued the order.

Among the three major gangs, except for Tama Jianghu, members of the other two gangs did have some unused equipment. Some of the gangs with larger areas took them out to block the holes. There was also a man from Mengtanggu who had practiced cooking skills and was preparing to set up a barbecue stall to make money. He contributed a huge round wooden table, and everyone looked at him with admiration.

Someone asked, "It must have taken a long time to get such a big table. Should I apply for public funding?"

The man smiled shyly and said, " It's not a big deal. I can just take another one out when I get home. "

Everyone suddenly understood.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

If you call the police, none of you players will be able to escape!

Ji Xuan took a look at his bag and found that there was nothing inside except materials. Well, he was not a newbie in online games, so how could he be so stupid as to leave unused equipment in his backpack taking up space.

Qi Qin took out two sets of breastplates, one was the light white armor for beginners, and the other was the heavy blue armor for missions. Because of his body shape, the two sets of equipment he had worn were quite large, and they were just right for use here.

Jian Xi Xinjiu and Xiao Xiao Yuxia also took out a blue outfit. Jing Yunhan was small, so he didn't move. Then everyone looked at Xu Chu and Liu Tian.

Xu Chu said calmly: " I have equipment, but I'm afraid you'd feel bad if I took it out to use as a foothold. "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

This person's equipment is probably all purple and orange, maybe even with special effects. Xiao Xiaoyuxia felt that she might be more distressed than Xu Chu himself, so she could only say weakly: " You take a rest, we will ..."

An hour later, the Star City troops finally passed this trap area safely, leaving behind a pile of white and blue equipment as well as wooden and iron plates, which looked very uncivilized.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was worried that those things would be refreshed soon, so he sent a message to urge the leader of the scattered gang who stayed behind in Fanxing City to notify the following troops to quickly pass that section of the road. The players who were walking behind and preparing to catch up with the main force could recycle them appropriately, as they might be useful later.

BOSSes began to appear among the refreshed elite monsters . As the leader of a PVP guild, Xiaoxiao Yuxia was not sure whether he should send people to kill them or leave them for later. If the troops in the front attack, the marching speed will definitely be slowed down. If the scattered troops in the back attack, it will be even worse. Their mobility is not very good to begin with, and they will lose people along the way while walking for a while. If there is a BOSS left at the back, they will probably be out of touch.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia told the others about the matter . When they were considering whether to pick two teams to go out and fight, Ji Xuanyi kicked Qi Qin and said, " Go, kill the monster . "

Qi Qin touched the place where he was kicked, responded honestly, took out his guard, jumped high with a heavy slash, and smashed out from the side.

Everyone looked at Ji Xuanyi in confusion. Mi Yin touched his nose, put away his dagger, and said, " I thought I had to leave. "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Even though it's a small BOSS , it still needs healers and tanks , okay? How come you experts are so good at it? You only think about the one-on-one fight , have you ever considered the feelings of ordinary players like us?

Jing Yunhan was not only an ordinary player, but also a rookie. In his opinion, if he was asked to fight this kind of BOSS , he would not only need a healer and a tank , but also two DPS . He looked at Ji Xuanyi stupidly and asked, " Aren't you going to help him? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " That's nothing, it's enough for Mi Yin to go. "

Mi Yin said: " Don't compare me, thank you, I'm just an ordinary person. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was also helpless about Ji Xuanyi's indecisive attitude and said, " With Tianxia's skills, he really doesn't need help, but the monster's health bar is nearly one million. When Tianxia kills it, we don't know how much we will lose-- "

" I'm back. "

Qi Qin did not use the heavy blow this time, for fear of hitting someone. He pushed aside the swordsmen and knights outside and squeezed in.

Everyone looked at Qi Qin in shock.

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Ji Xuanyi asked: " What fell? "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was silent for a moment, then said, " No, nothing ... it's good, I'll leave the next small BOSS to Tian Xia! "

Qi Qin just came back and asked in confusion: " What do you want for me? "

Ji Xuan smiled and said, " I won't give you anything. "

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi innocently and asked, " Why are you all looking at me? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Look at how good you are. "

Xu Chu couldn't help but ask, " BOSS was killed? "

Qi Qin nodded and said in surprise: " Yeah, I dropped something. "

The monsters on the road will drop things, and of course the boss will do the same, but I don't know what the quality of the things they drop is.

" What fell? " Jian Xi Xinjiu leaned over curiously.

Qi Qin took out his backpack and held out his hand. There was a lapis lazuli ring, which was emitting a faint light and looked very beautiful: " A ring that increases the upper limit of health. "

Ji Xuanyi casually put the ring on his hand on his middle finger, shook it in front of him, and said, " Confiscate it. "

Everyone was stunned, then realized something and looked at Qi Qin together. The atmosphere suddenly became tense.

Qi Qin was completely unaware of what was wrong. He stared at Ji Xuanyi with his mouth open for a while, then leaned over and said in a low voice, " Isn't this a bit bad? Didn't Xiao Xiao Yu Xia just say that equipment should be distributed according to team drops? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

I am not worthy of you! Get lost!

Chapter 81

Qi Qin was beaten up by Ji Xuanyi. He felt weak , pitiful, helpless, and so wronged that he wanted to cry.

However, none of the onlookers wanted to help him. Everyone watched with their eyes and noses, pretending not to see the atrocities that were happening.

After being beaten, Qi Qin didn't dare to mention anything about team assignment . He just looked at Xiao Xiaoyu quietly.

Xiaoxiaoyu thought to herself that it had nothing to do with me if you got beaten, you asked for it! However, Qi Qin's eyes were too resentful. Besides, this was the killing weapon that Star City used to defeat Sun City . It was not easy to offend him . Xiao Xiaoyu looked at Ji Xuanyi who was pulling the ring off his hand expressionlessly, coughed twice , and said: " Ahem , our group should distribute this drop freely. "

Hearing this, Qi Qin thought he could get Ji Xuanyi's forgiveness , and said to Ji Xuanyi happily: " Xuanyi , Xiaoxiao Yuxia said that it can be distributed freely . If you like—— "

Everyone around sighed heavily.

Qi Qin: " ??? "

Ji Xuanyi said coldly: " Shut up. " and go crazy and do something irrational.

Qi Qin: " QAQ ? "

The journey after that was relatively peaceful . The regularly refreshed monsters had no effect on the marching speed of the large group . The trap sections did not seem to appear again. The occasional refreshed small BOSSes were directly dealt with by Mi Yin and Qi Qin. In the afternoon, they all logged off to have lunch, gathered together forty-five minutes later, and continued on their journey.

The sky gradually darkened, and Ji Xuanyi said to Xiao Xiaoyu: " If there are any obstacles ahead, it's best to speed up now. "

Xiao Xiao Yu was stunned for a moment and said, " Ah? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " At half past eight, the world will start to feel sleepy. At nine, it will lose half of its fighting power. At ten, it will be almost useless. So if there are any obstacles ahead, we should quickly overcome them while he is still awake and can contribute. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia was surprised by this healthy schedule. She checked the time on the operation interface and saw that it was almost eight o'clock. Xiao Xiao Yu Xia glanced at Qi Qin who was full of energy and couldn't help saying, " I think he is in good spirits now. "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Because you don't know what to do , just listen to me. If you have it, hurry up. If not, forget it. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia had no choice but to say: " Okay, everyone speed up. "

Ji Xuanyi asked: " What's ahead? "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia sighed and said, " There's a piece of wood blocking the road. We can't get around it, so we have to move it out of the way. "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned.

Ji Xuanyi had seen the setting of giant trees blocking the road in other games, but because the game settings only allowed one way to go, there was no way to go around it. How could a holographic online game have obstacles that could not be bypassed?

Twenty minutes later, Ji Xuanyi knew why.

He hadn't seen the tree that was blocking the road yet, but he saw the water.

There was a huge lake ahead. The road they were going to take next was actually more like a " bridge " , and a huge tree was across the middle of the " bridge " . If they wanted to go around it, they could either swim or go around the entire lake.

Ji Xuanyi complained: " I think this setting is more suitable for the claustrophobic sea environment rather than the lost forest. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said with a smile: " Although there are things blocking the road, it is still a road. The people of Youyue City may be rowing boats now. "

However, let alone rowing, even if Youyue City were to advance by diving, it would not be of any help in solving the problems they were facing now.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia has already begun asking for help from the individual troops and mobilizing the swordsman and knight players in the individual troops.

Ji Xuanyi jumped on the spot, wanting to see what was happening ahead, but it was already dark and he couldn't see clearly, so he had to ask, " Did the vanguard go around? "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia shook his head and said, " The lake is too big, and it's hard to say whether it leads to other places from the other end. It's possible that they can't get around it even after several days of wandering, so they just climbed over the giant tree. "

Fortunately, the horse setting in this holographic game is not too realistic. The knights can summon the horses again after climbing over. Otherwise, it would be too much to ask the horses to climb the tree as well ...

" But the diameter of that wood is very long, almost five or six meters. A few knights are a bit uncoordinated and can't climb up, so they are waiting for us in front. After we meet up and solve the problem, I have to organize a second team to go out. " Xiaoxiao Yuxia couldn't help but sighed as he spoke, as if lamenting his hard-working life.

Ji Xuanyi pretended not to hear and said, " It looks like this piece of wood can only be pushed over by brute force. "

Xiao Xiao Yu nodded and said, " Yes, I don't know how wide the road ahead is. If there is not enough space, I can only try to pick swordsmen with high strength attributes. "

After walking for about 20 minutes, the group finally saw the true face of the giant tree. Xiaoxiao Yuxia couldn't help but Why ", exclaimed is it so fucking big ? "

The huge tree was indeed as reported by the vanguard. It was five or six meters high lying on the ground, and more than half of its dense crown was submerged in the lake water beside the road. No one knew where the tree came from in such an empty plain.

Compared with the giant tree, the three knights standing under the tree looked very small. When they saw the Starry City players emitting faint light in the darkness and appearing densely like fireflies, they immediately turned their horses' heads and ran over here.

Probably to allow the players to concentrate on dealing with the problem at hand, the monsters blocking the road had not been refreshed for a while. Xiao Xiaoyu gave an order, and the "bullet" heads in front separated , letting the three knights in.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " You guys should go back to the team first, push the wood away, and then go out as the second team to collect the intelligence that the first team missed. "

The three knights nodded, all feeling a little embarrassed.

After all, all their equipment was issued by the gang, and they were also given bonuses, but they ended up turning back halfway, which was a bit embarrassing.

Xiao Xiaoyu smiled and said, " It's okay. We still need your help next. Let's work together. "

Maybe it was because the leader of the Liutian gang was usually a bit irritable, the three knights couldn't help but smile at Xiaoxiao Yuxia, and one of them was a bit stunned and said, " The leader of the Xiaoxiao gang is really nice. "

Liu Tian: "... cough cough cough cough!!! "

Is it good that he, the genuine gang leader, is still alive?

The three knights then saw Liu Tian and rode back to the team in silence.

Liu Tian stared and watched the rain falling.

Xiaoxiao gave a fake smile under the rain.

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " Can this palace fighting drama stop for a while? The world can no longer bear it. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia quickly turned around and saw that Qi Qin, who looked energetic just now, now had his eyes half closed. He really fell asleep in an instant!

Xiao Xiao Yuxia's face was filled with black lines. He said, " All knights stand by, swordsmen assemble— "

 " Wait a moment. "

Xiao Xiaoyu looked at Xu Chu who suddenly spoke and said, " What's wrong? "

Xu Chu shook his head and said, " Aren't we in a hurry? Let's not send a group of people to see if it works. With so many people, we need to organize them and change the formation because of their positions. Not to mention pushing the wood, it will waste at least an hour. If we want to do it, we should just use our greatest strength. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia frowned and asked, " Should all the strength-based professions go forward together? "

It would be too crowded and there wouldn't be enough room to stand, and I guess not many people would be able to give their full strength.

Ji Xuan, who had been silent the whole time, said, " I have a way, and it is guaranteed to be the greatest strength we can exert right now. "

Among the scattered troops, because the front suddenly stopped advancing and no orders had been issued, the players began to get restless and whispered to each other.

Suddenly, the guild channels of all individual players lit up, and the commands displayed in them were simply confusing.

 " Knights, come. You need leather, you need to be able to climb trees, and you need to be able to carry as much weight as possible on your horses. Gather at the front. If you have ropes or cloth or other materials, please hand them over to the front. The three major gangs will buy them at twice the market price. Hurry, hurry, everyone move! "

A random person asked weakly: " Does it only require me to be able to climb trees? Or does my horse have to be able to climb trees too? "

【Guild Channel】 :

 [Gang Leader] : ... that's all you need to do, quick!

Under the urging of the gang leaders, the scattered people finally acted at a faster speed. After arriving at the gathering place of the three major gangs, the knights were required to equip themselves with unused garbage weapons. Some of them did not have replacement weapons, and the thoughtful members of the three major gangs handed over various unused weapons including arrows and daggers.

Then, the weapons were tied to ropes and cloth collected by the three major gangs, and then handed over to the heavily armored swordsmen one by one.

One knight asked in confusion: " Didn't you tell us to put on the equipment? "

The members of the three major gangs who came to organize the staff said: " Yes, you take this. "

As he said this, he handed the other end of the rope to the knight.

Knight: "..... ??? "

The swordsmen took the weapons on the other end of the rope, pulled the knights, ran to the bottom of the giant tree, and while climbing up, they nailed the weapons in their hands deeply into the tree trunk.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia shouted from below: " Nail it higher, and make it more even! Otherwise, it will be hard to bear the force later – make it more even! What's wrong with you, man? Move up! It's too low here! "

The heavy-armored swordsman who was singled out felt very aggrieved. He was fully equipped with strength equipment, and it was difficult for him to walk normally. How could he rush up? ! Xiaoxiao Yuxia had no choice but to go up and take the spear himself. He climbed up more than four meters with great effort. When he was about to fall, he exerted force with his hands and inserted the spear halfway into the tree trunk.

When the weapons were almost nailed, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said again: " All the knights who have the rope, climb over to the tree, mount your horses, and tie the ropes to the horses. Hurry up! We can't afford to waste time! "

As the leader of one of the three major gangs, the orders Xiaoxiao Yuxia gave directly in person sounded much more severe than the orders issued by the leader of the Sanren Gang. All the knights, including the members of the three major gangs, immediately moved and scrambled to climb up the tree. In less than ten minutes, they all reached the other side of the giant tree.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia shouted: " Five minutes! Get on the horse! Tie the rope! "

In an instant, the neighing of the summoned horses came through the trees one after another.

Xiao Xiaoyu said, " Five minutes left. All swordsmen, get to your positions! "

The swordsmen who had just made way for the knights to climb the tree ran under the tree. Xiaoxiao Yuxia only waited for five minutes. When the five minutes were up, without confirming whether everyone was in place, he immediately said, " Listen to me count down. Three! Two! One! Push hard! "

All the swordsmen and knights understood the meaning of these orders as soon as they took their positions. When the shouts rang out under the rain, the swordsmen immediately put all their strength into pushing the huge tree forward, and the knights also shook the reins and drove the horses forward. For a moment, the roars of the swordsmen and the neighing of the horses mixed together, making it very lively.

Xu Chu stood beside Ji Xuanyi and commented: " I feel like I'm watching the daily life of ancient slaves. "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Then what are you? "

The profiteers who exploit the poor working people?

Xu Chu smacked his lips and said nothing.

The two of them are now the two people standing at the front of the team. The knights and swordsmen from the three major gangs have all gone to the front, including Xiaoxiao Yuxia, Jing Yunhan, Liu Tian, and Qi Qin.

Ji Xuanyi originally thought that the weakest link in this plan would be the ropes and cloth used to fix weapons and for pulling. Unexpectedly, the system material was quite strong and there were no signs of breakage. On the contrary, although everyone exerted force together in the regular shouting of the drizzling rain, the giant tree seemed to move slightly and had no intention of rolling forward.

Xu Chu touched his chin and said, " I've already made it this far, but I didn't expect that I still lack a little strength. If I had used the simple and crude method of Xiao Xiao Yu Xia before, I don't know how much time would have been wasted ... "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " It would be a waste of time if we don't do anything now. "

Xu Chu glanced at him and said, " Let's go take a look ahead? "

Ji Xuan nodded.

The two walked forward a little and could see the things in front of them more clearly. Xu Chu frowned and said, " Should we nail those weapons higher? It would be best to nail them right above the ground, so that the wood will be subjected to the greatest force. "

Ji Xuanyi certainly knew this, but the efficiency would be very low . He would need to re-nail the weapon after not being able to push it very far, which was very troublesome. But if the wood couldn't move at all, changing the force point seemed to be unavoidable. Low efficiency was better than being unable to move at all.

The huge tree was shaking due to the power of the players, and it seemed that it was just a little bit short of being able to be destroyed, but it still did not move.

Xu Chu's eyes swept over the swordsmen who were struggling forward, and suddenly he paused, frowning and asking, " Is that Tianxia? What is he doing? "

Ji Xuan looked in the direction Xu Chu pointed, and saw Qi Qin, who was wearing a pitch-black armor, with his hands on the tree, as if he was exerting force. However, as the tree swayed, his head moved noisily ...

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuan opened the time and looked at it. Sure enough, it was already nine o'clock.

Xu Chu looked at Ji Xuanyi and said hesitantly : " Is he sleeping? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " No. "

Xu Chu: "... This is clearly sleeping, okay? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " If you fall asleep in the game, you will be kicked off the line. His current state, to be precise, is that he is dozing off, not sleeping. "

Xu Chu: " ??? Is there any difference?! "

Ji Xuan nodded and said seriously: " Yes! He hasn't fallen offline yet because of falling asleep. He has tried very hard! "

Xu Chu looked at Ji Xuanyi as if he was meeting him for the first time today: " You don't usually treat others like this! "

Such a far-fetched excuse! That's too much!

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " He is not someone else. "

Xu Chu: "..."

Xu Chu felt that he was about to suffocate to death!

Xu Chu looked at Ji Xuanyi with resentment and said, " If I die one day, it will be because I choked to death on your dog food. "

Ji Xuanyi sneered and said, " Don't worry, before you died, I was already pissed off to death by this stupid guy. "

Xu Chu thought of what Qi Qin had said before, that the rings should be distributed according to the teams, and couldn't help but feel a sense of sympathy for Ji Xuanyi.

But now is not the time for a sentimental interview. Xu Chu glanced at the front, which was still working hard, and said, " If this continues, I'm worried that the wood will roll back. "

Ji Xuanyi said speechlessly: " Not really, but we just lack some strength. We can't just sit there and wait. Let's get two more people up. "

Xu Chu suddenly thought of something, grabbed Ji Xuanyi who was about to walk back, and shouted: " Xuanyi, why did you kiss me so casually? "

Ji Xuanyi was confused: " ??? "

However, just a moment after Xu Chu shouted this sentence loudly, a loud shout came from the front, and the huge tree suddenly moved and rolled forward.

Ji Xuan thought of something and turned around. Sure enough, he saw that Qi Qin, who was originally drowsy, was now as energetic as an early-rising rooster, with bright eyes, staring at him and Xu Chu eagerly.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Fuck him! He only knows when he's jealous, but normally his brain is like being eaten by zombies, what's the point!

Ji Xuanyi held his forehead in despair. Xu Chu hugged Ji Xuanyi and said loudly: " We agreed on a bet. If you can't push the wood down within 20 minutes, you owe me a kiss! "

Qi Qin didn't react yet. Although he couldn't climb over the tree, Liu Tian, who was well-equipped, was also used as a swordsman. He collapsed and cursed: " Fuck! I'm so angry, I'll never talk to this gay again! Bah! "

Qi Qin: "..."

Of course Qi Qin knew that Ji Xuanyi would not give a kiss to others, and Xu Chu said it deliberately to provoke him, but who can say what the right thing to do when it comes to betting? He was still nervous, and now he couldn't just kill Xu Chu and send him back to Fanxing City, so he had to cheer up and push the wood with all his strength.

Perhaps it was this bit of energy that was really lacking. Coupled with the fact that Liu Tian felt inexplicably sad and angry for some reason, it was as if his " potential " had exploded , and the action of pushing the wood really became smooth.

Finally, half an hour later, the huge broken tree that was blocking the road was pushed to a flat area, leaving a large road for the Starry City army to pass through.

All the knights and swordsmen who had worked hard for half an hour cheered in ecstasy, and Xiaoxiao Yuxia collapsed directly on the ground.

However, the model worker Xiaoxiao's task has not yet ended. He needs to reorganize the team, and then separate the second light cavalry pathfinder team. Then, he will lead all the players to continue moving forward until eleven o'clock, when everyone can log off.

Xiaoxiao Rain: " I really want to die ..."

A mortal swordsman nearby said, " What did you say, Boss? "

Xiaoxiao smiled warmly under the rain: " It's nothing, cheer up, we still have a long way to go! "

The earthly swordsman was moved and said: " It's all because of the leader who supports us! "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia also showed a moving expression and said: " You are also supporting me! "

The swordsman was about to cry: " Boss! "

Smiling silently in the drizzling rain.

Just when Xiao Xiaoyu was completely unable to restrain his instinct to win people's hearts, Qi Qin had already hurried to Ji Xuanyi's side, and with a wronged look on his face, he tore off Xu Chu, who had deliberately hung on Ji Xuanyi's body, and threw it aside.

Xu Chu said with a smile: " Half an hour, the time is over, Xuan Xiaoyi, remember to owe me a kiss."

Qi Qin looked at Ji Xuanyi with horror and sadness. His dark eyes seemed to be accusing Ji Xuanyi, how could he really bet with a kiss!

Ji Xuanyi wanted to provoke him, but he couldn't hold back after seeing those eyes. He rubbed his forehead and said helplessly: " I really owed you in my last life. Can't you tell that he is talking nonsense? "

Of course Qi Qin could hear it, but after hearing Ji Xuanyi's words, he finally confirmed it and relaxed.

Xu Chu crossed his arms and raised an eyebrow at Ji Xuan. Ji Xuan glanced at him and ignored him. Just as he was about to say something to Qi Qin, he saw Qi Qin's silly look of complete relaxation, closed his eyes, and disconnected.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia led a simple team of swordsmen and knights from the three major gangs and walked over to Ji Xuan, saying, " Hey? Where's Tian Xia? I just saw him talking to you. "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Fell asleep, offline. "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "... What the hell???"

Ji Xuanyi said: " The line is off . Do you understand? "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia was directing the members of the three major gangs to return to their positions, while frowning and saying: " What should we do? The main force cannot leave the line now, and there is not enough time. "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " You guys keep going. I'll stay and wait for him. He gets up early. I'll catch up with you guys tomorrow morning. We'll still be in time. "

The main force's unified online time is nine o'clock. Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin can get up at seven or eight in the morning to start their journey. It doesn't matter if they are separated from the main force for an hour or two now.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was about to say what to do if she went alone and killed monsters on the way, but when she thought of Qi Qin's fight against the boss in the monster group , she swallowed her words and said, " Okay, you go offline and rest first. I will lead the others to continue moving forward. According to the information from the vanguard, it is estimated that there will be no more difficult problems until after eleven o'clock. "

Ji Xuan nodded, without further ado, and logged off directly. Under the drizzling rain, they lined up the team and set off again.

Xu Chu walked to Liu Tian and reached out to get on the horse. Liu Tian looked at him coldly, motionless.

Xu Chu said: " What do you want to do? "

Liu Tian rolled his eyes and angrily cursed: " Faggot. "

Then he reached out and pulled Xu Chu onto the horse.

Xu Chu sat firmly , snorted , and said, " Idiot. "

Liu Tian was furious, but he couldn't do anything to Xu Chu. He could only stare at the back of Xu Chu's head angrily.

After another team of about twenty light cavalrymen set off, Xiao Xiaoyuxia led the large army to bypass the huge trees that blocked the road and walked forward. Those individual knights and swordsmen were not lined up by Xiao Xiaoyuxia and still stood under the huge trees. When the individual troops passed by, they found their original positions after seeing the familiar faces and returned to the team.

In the darkness of the night, this team of Star City players advanced silently like a swarm of fireflies.

After Ji Xuan went offline, he did not forget to call Qi Qin and asked him to go to bed. After washing up, he lay on the bed and browsed the forum on his mobile phone for a while.

There are not many posts that seriously discuss world quests. Almost all the big guilds in the main cities of almost all servers have realized that this is not only a world quest, but also the first competitive quest between the main cities. No one is willing to share information and plans.

Although some servers have reached an agreement between the three main cities and divided the ownership of map tasks in advance, no one is stupid enough to really believe the so-called agreement.

Although it was not known how many servers could save the five novice towns, Ji Xuanyi had already seen people complaining that the fourth server had monopolized the Youyue City with two summons and was blocking the other two cities, preparing to take all the five rewards for itself.

There was a lot of curses under the post. In addition to the players from server 4, there were also players from other servers condemning the actions of Youyue City in server 4 for ignoring the safety of the Novice Town, and said that the other two cities in server 4 should unite and make Youyue City pay the price.

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows. It seemed that the world mission had just begun and the fourth server would be in a bloody storm for a while. He didn't know when the official would release the server transfer system. After all, there were also some players who had no interest in fighting and just wanted to play PVX quietly .

The next morning, Qi Qin called to wake Ji Xuanyi up. Ji Xuanyi had been browsing the forum for a long time last night and was still dazed when he logged into the game. He leaned on Qi Qin, unable to open his eyes.

Qi Qin hugged Ji Xuanyi and wanted to touch his face, but he didn't dare. He just stared at him stupidly, as if he was very happy just like that.

When Ji Xuan woke up and opened his eyes, he saw Qi Qin staring at him stupidly.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

You can figure out what just happened with your toes.

Ji Xuanyi was too lazy to get angry. He stood up, shook his head, and said, " What time is it? "

Qi Qin said: " Seven thirty. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Let's go. "

When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked forward, they also met people who had fallen behind like them and wanted to catch up with the main group. Ji Xuanyi thought that these people would walk in a group, but he didn't expect them to be scattered.

Ji Xuanyi said to a wizard who was passing by: " You are walking alone? Aren't you afraid of encountering monsters on the road? "

The mage stopped and looked at Ji Xuanyi, and asked curiously: " You don't have a gang? "

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows: " What's wrong? "

The mage was in a good mood. He smiled and said, " No, no, no, it's nothing. But you'd better join a guild so that the news can reach you faster. "

Ji Xuan thought about it and understood: " Has your gang issued a notice? "

The mage nodded and said, " Originally, it was stipulated that at least ten players from Star City should gather before chasing the main force, because there are monsters everywhere on the road. However, when I logged in today, I found that the notification on the guild channel had been changed, saying that those who logged off after the monsters spawned could continue on their own until the monsters spawned at the place where the main force logged off to rest. "

So that's how it is. Ji Xuanyi said " Oh " , nodded, and said: " I see, thank you. "

The wizard smiled and said, " You're welcome. Do you want to join our guild? Although our guild doesn't offer many benefits, it's a small guild for relatives and friends. Everyone is very friendly. If you run into any trouble, everyone will help you. "

The atmosphere of the small gang of relatives and friends is indeed very good, but if Ji Xuanyi encounters trouble, ordinary people can't help him.

Ji Xuanyi curled his lips and said, " Thank you, but no thanks. I have many enemies. I won't cause you any trouble. "

The mage said regretfully , " Well, good luck to you guys, see you later. "

Although he had a good impression of Ji Xuanyi, they could not afford to make friends with a big boss with many enemies, the mage said, and quickly walked to the front.

He must have fallen behind a little too early and didn't know where the main group was now, so he had to catch up with them as fast as he could.

Being able to roughly estimate how far the group of people could go after they went offline , Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin maintained a steady pace and rushed forward.

At around nine o'clock, the area around Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin was still empty, with no signs of a large number of players coming online.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " Either we went too far ahead, or we haven't caught up yet. "

Qi Qin said: " What should we do now? "

Ji Xuanyi glanced at his friend list and said, "Wait for Xiaoxiao Yuxia and the others to come online. We'll know where they are when we form a team."

Ji Xuanyi looked around and found a stone on the side of the road that looked quite clean. He walked over and sat down, opening his backpack to check what was inside.

Qi Qin also sat down next to him and took out his backpack.

After a while, Qi Qin took out a bunch of grapes and asked Ji Xuanyi: "Xuanyi, do you want to eat some?"

Ji Xuanyi: "... Why is there still fruit in your bag?"

Qi Qin said innocently, "I took it from the gang base in the inner city last time."

When Ji Xuan saw it, he complained that the oranges in the base were not tasty.

Ji Xuanyi was very upset: "You haven't finished eating yet? It's been a few days?"

Fortunately, they were things from the game. Even though the bunch of grapes had been in Qi Qin's messy backpack for so long, when he took it out, they still looked as fresh as if they had just been picked.

Qi Qin said: "I was too busy after that and forgot to eat."

After the meeting at the base, Ji Xuanyi returned to the library in the Mage Tower to read. Qi Qin, because he accidentally gained expertise in cooking skills, also began to flip through books in the library, but he read them intermittently and forgot what he had read.

Although Ji Xuanyi felt a little disgusted, he still ate a few of them. After a while, Xiao Xiao Yuxia was the first to come online, followed by Jing Yunhan, who was probably woken up by Xiao Xiao Yuxia's phone call .

Ji Xuan looked at the time. It was nine o'clock. As the first organizer of this operation, Xiao Xiao Yuxia was still very punctual.

Ji Xuanyi didn't say much and directly clicked on the team formation. It took two seconds to pass. At a glance, the blue arrow representing Xiao Xiaoyu was far behind them .

The blue arrows on the parchment increased one by one. Ji Xuanyi knew that Xiao Xiao Yuxia had begun to organize the team, and immediately chatted with him in silence: "Why are you guys so far behind?"

As luck would have it, Xiaoxiao Yuxia's secret chat message was also sent at the same time.

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : How come you guys are running so far ahead?

Before Ji Xuanyi could reply, Xiaoxiao Yuxia sent another message, saying: "Oh, by the way, I forgot, we got off at around 10 o'clock last night and didn't walk until 11 o'clock."

Ji Xuanyi:..."

Xiao Xiao Yuxia quickly replied: "There is enough time, really enough, you wait in front for a while, we will be here soon, more than half of the main force has been online, and now only Xu Chu has not been online in our main force!"

Ji Xuanyi thought about the time when Xuchu was late during the gang war, and said from the bottom of his heart: "Xuchu, don't wait any longer, hurry up and leave."

But whether to wait or not, what Xu Chu and Ji Xuanyi said didn't count, and Xiao Xiao looked towards Liu Tian in the rain.

Liu Tian said expressionlessly: "Do you know that Xu Chu has a nickname in the gang?"

Xiao Xiaoyu was stunned, not knowing why he said this, but she still cooperated and asked: "What nickname? "

Day 6: "The beginning of the pigeon season."

Chapter 82

Although we gave up waiting for Gechu , assembling the team is also a very time-consuming task.

After waiting for ten minutes and finding that the blue arrow representing the Star City team was still motionless , Ji Xuan said to Qi Qin expressionlessly: " Didn't you say before that you are an expert in cooking? Just make something to eat. "

In the morning, Ji Xuanyi drank a bowl of cereal in a hurry in order to save time. Now he regretted it very much and wanted to smash Xiao Xiaoyu's dog head.

Although there is no room in my stomach for another breakfast , it is still okay to satisfy my craving for food in the game . I don't know whether cooking expertise affects the properties of food more or the taste of food more.

Ji Xuanyi is more looking forward to the latter.

Qi Qin usually eats a lot. Although he has not tried cooking himself after obtaining the cooking skills , he has collected a lot of ingredients in his bag. After hearing what Ji Xuanyi said , he immediately said excitedly: " Xuanyi, do you want to eat barbecue? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Are you not tired of eating barbecue every day in Green Forest City?

But looking at Qi Qin's stupid face, Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but sigh and said, " The barbecue is good. "

Qi Qin immediately started working . With fire and firewood in his backpack, he built a bonfire in minutes. Ji Xuanyi stepped back because of the heat coming towards him.

Qi Qin took out a piece of meat from an unidentifiable animal from his bag , poked it roughly onto a wooden stick, and then put it on the fire and began to roast it.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Games are games after all, and it is impossible to be so serious about certain things. It is like a big piece of meat, it is impossible for it to be crispy on the outside and tender on the inside , dripping with oil, after being roasted on the fire for five minutes.

But it still smelled quite good . Ji Xuanyi pretended to be calm as he looked at the barbecue.

Qi Qin said: " There are still twenty seconds before the reading ends. "

" Well , " Ji Xuanyi swallowed calmly, " I'm not in a hurry. "

Just as the reading was about to end , a girl's voice came from the side, saying softly: " It smells so good, what are you doing? "

The sound came too suddenly and was too unpredictable. Not only Ji Xuanyi, but even Qi Qin was startled. They subconsciously threw away the barbecue and pulled out their guard, pointing the tip of the sword in the direction where the sound came from.

Ji Xuan watched helplessly as the barbecue and the wooden stick fell onto the fire, instantly turning into a piece of black charcoal with its own mosaic, emitting an unpleasant burnt smell. Apparently, this is what cooking fails.

Ji Xuanyi, who was already ready to eat: "..."

Ji Xuan looked at the man who suddenly appeared with a fierce look in his eyes and shouted in a low voice: " What are you doing?! "

The girl was startled, raised her hands, and said with a sad face: " I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I didn't mean it! "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and looked at the girl.

She was very thin, with arms as thin as a bamboo pole, and she was not tall. The clothes she wore made her look like an assassin. Her natural figure probably brought her assassin's talent for concealment to the extreme. The noise she made when walking on the grass was probably smaller than that of a grasshopper. No wonder Qi Qin didn't notice her approaching.

Ji Xuanyi was angry again, but he didn't want to attack such a thin girl, so he hit Qi Qin angrily. Qi Qin was so used to being hit that he didn't even bother to show his innocence with a confused look on his face. He put away his guard, touched the place where Ji Xuanyi hit him, looked at the girl helplessly, then looked at Ji Xuanyi, and finally asked the girl: " Are you a solo player from Star City? "

The girl's eyes had been fixed on Ji Xuanyi. When she heard Qi Qin's question, she suddenly said, " Ah, yes, I came here to chase the main group, but I didn't meet anyone all the way here. I just saw you two and smelled the barbecue, so I came over to take a look. "

At this point, she showed an apologetic expression again, clasped her hands together towards Ji Xuanyi's back, and said: " I'm sorry, I didn't mean it. I just wanted to take care of you. I really didn't mean it ..."

However, Ji Xuanyi stared at the mosaic on the ground and had no intention of looking back at her.

Qi Qin was about to explain for Ji Xuanyi when he saw the thin girl walk around in front of Ji Xuanyi without fear of death and said with a smile: " You like barbecue? I am also an expert in cooking. I have some ingredients here. Do you want to try it? "

Qi Qin: "..... ??? " Something seems to be wrong?

Before Qi Qin could figure out what was going on, Ji Xuan glanced at the girl and coldly refused, " No need. "

Logically speaking, if an ordinary girl was treated like this, she would have left long ago. Although she accidentally scared them and knocked over Ji Xuanyi's barbecue, the sincerity of her apology was more than enough. There was nothing she could do if Ji Xuanyi refused to accept it. This was not the right way to flatter someone, not to mention that she was a girl! But the girl's reaction was totally different. Seeing Ji Xuanyi like this, she seemed even happier. She said in a friendly tone, " You're welcome. My cooking skills are pretty good too. Um, my name is Yugui, what's your name? "

Qi Qin finally realized what was wrong! He immediately rushed forward alertly, blocking Ji Xuanyi behind him, and replied: " My name is No. 1 in the world! "

Yugui was stunned for a moment, then smiled and said, " Number One in the World, what an interesting name. What about you, little brother? What's your name? "

The girl named Yugui was still looking at Ji Xuanyi and was unwilling to give up asking his name. Ji Xuanyi frowned and looked at her, then said impatiently, " The main force is behind us. If you want to go, go quickly and don't bother us. "

Yugui blinked and looked at Ji Xuan for a while, then looked at Qi Qin, sighed sadly, and said: " I .t bother you anymore'I won ,Okay 'll go find the main force first. What are you guys doing here? "

Ji Xuanyi said angrily: " It has nothing to do with you. "

Yugui pursed his lips, turned around and left, kicking the grass every two steps and mumbling something. Qi Qin couldn't hear clearly, only heard words like " definitely " , " no change " , " very fierce " and so on.

Qi Qin was stunned for a while, then lowered his head and asked Ji Xuanyi: " Does that person know you? "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " How is that possible? "

Although his previous ID was very well-known, not everyone had seen his face.

Qi Qin whispered: " She seems to really know you. "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " In this situation, only my enemies can recognize me. "

However, the assassin named Yugui had no intention of attacking Ji Xuanyi. Instead, he acted overly affectionate.

" Most likely he's just a person with a bad brain. " He had seen people who would stick close to him even though they knew he was a fierce person. Most of them wanted to curry favor with him, but after discovering that he had a really bad temper and being killed by him a few times, no one dared to approach Ji Xuanyi anymore.

Ji Xuanyi spoke with such certainty that Qi Qin couldn't figure it out, so he had to sit down next to Ji Xuanyi.

This time there was not even any barbecue to eat. The two of them stared blankly at the air in front of them.

About twenty minutes later, after the barbecue and bonfire on the ground that had turned into an unidentified object were refreshed, the team from Star City finally arrived .

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin walked to the front of the team without any hindrance, and were surprised to find that Xu Chu, also known as Ge Chu, was sitting steadily on Liu Tian's horse .

Ji Xuanyi said to Xiao Xiao Yuxia with a dark face: " Are you still wasting time waiting for this person? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia knew that Ji Xuanyi had waited for him for so long, but he didn't just come up and blow his head off. It can be said that he was very considerate of the overall situation. If he admitted this now, not to mention whether it would directly trigger Ji Xuanyi's explosion, the most important thing was that he really didn't wait for Xuchu, and he couldn't get beaten in vain. He immediately cried out in injustice and said, " I really didn't wait! Xuchu wasn't that late today! "

Not long after the main force set out, Xu Chu came online, just in the middle of the individual team. His equipment made the other individual players look at him sideways. The old man had a private chat with Liu Tian, who then went to the back and picked him up.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said helplessly: " I really didn't waste any time. I have tried my best to hurry on my way. "

There were no monsters or traps along the way, so we really went at our maximum speed.

Mi Yin came over and said, " I can testify that what Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said is true. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu also nodded, and Ji Xuanyi then resisted the urge to smash Xiao Xiao Yu Xia Dog's head with a hammer.

I wiped away a handful of sad tears in the drizzling rain.

It feels like there's no one in the entire Star City who's more miserable than him.

Ji Xuanyi soon integrated into the team and calmed down completely, but Qi Qin was still worried about the female assassin who suddenly appeared and looked very familiar with Ji Xuanyi.

Qi Qin tried to hold it in for a while, but couldn't bear it anymore, so he quietly walked up to Xiao Xiao Yuxia and asked, " Did a girl join the team just now? "

Hearing this, everyone except Ji Xuanyi looked at Qi Qin in shock, and then looked at Ji Xuanyi in shock.

Oh my god! Qi Qin actually went to Xiao Xiao Yu Xia to ask about a girl in front of Ji Xuan Yi! I'm afraid he will be beaten up again?! Maybe even the innocent Xiao Xiao Yu Xia will not be spared!

Ji Xuanyi: "... Do you want to die? "

Everyone quickly looked away.

Xiao Xiaoyu swallowed his saliva and said cautiously: " Brothers, beauty can mislead people, think twice! "

Qi Qin was stunned and said, " What? "

Xiao Xiaoyu sighed and was about to say something to Qi Qin, but Qi Qin reacted and said with a frown: " What are you thinking about! "

After that, he told Ji Xuanyi about the girl he had just met, and said speechlessly: " I just felt that there was something strange about that female assassin, so I just asked. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia breathed a sigh of relief, glanced at Ji Xuanyi, and said, " You scared me to death, I thought – no, it's nothing, no, why do you think I would know such a thing! We have met many independent players from Star City along the way. If I have to take care of them one by one, wouldn't that be exhausting? "

This statement is also true. It is already troublesome enough for Xiaoxiao Yuxia to command such a large team. If he has to register every new member who joins the team one by one, he will probably give up the game and fail before completing the task .

Xu Chu said: " Are you sure you asked this because you think that female assassin is weird? Or is it because she is too enthusiastic about Ji Xuanyi? "

Qi Qin blushed and stammered, " I, I ... I didn't, I just thought she was too weird. "

In fact, there were both reasons, and the latter accounted for 80%. He always felt that the female assassin had ill intentions towards Ji Xuanyi.

Liu Tian rolled his eyes and said, " Which woman? You must be blind to fall for Ji Xuanyi, who is so fierce. " He still acted like a gay .

Qi Qin frowned and said: " Xuan Yi is not vicious! "

Liu Tian: "... if you have the guts, say it again when you get beaten. "

Qi Qin: "..."

Mi Yin came over and said, " Maybe it's Xuan Yi's fan club. I remember you have a lot of female fans. Maybe they recognized you and wanted to get close to you or something. "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Impossible. "

He has been playing this game from the Novice Village until now, and not a single female fan has recognized him. Even someone like Art Introduction who has been in close contact with him for such a long time didn't feel anything. But the male fan Ze Yu Sishui recognized him.

However, Ji Xuanyi suspected that Ze Yu Sishui might not be his male fan. He might be a fan of all the males who were good at playing assassin. He had seen him getting close to Mi Yin before.

Qi Qin was still very concerned about the female assassin who was suspected to be a female fan, but no one else had witnessed the situation at the time. They couldn't tell what Qi Qin was talking about, and they all blamed it on Qi Qin being jealous. They were so unreasonable and made a fuss that Qi Qin didn't dare to say anything.

Ji Xuanyi just looked at Qi Qin quietly, glancing at him from time to time with flickering eyes.

Ji Xuanyi has already given up. Anyway, this idiot won't say anything.

The journey for the rest of the day was very peaceful, so peaceful that even under the drizzling rain I felt a little uneasy.

The officials of this game are not really friendly to the players. Xiaoxiao Yuxia feels that the longer the peace lasts, the greater the challenges they will face next.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia's idea is right.

At three o'clock in the afternoon, the first team of light cavalry sent a message that after another hour's journey, the large army would encounter a road-blocking monster comparable to a world boss , and the first team of light cavalry had been wiped out and all returned to Star City.

Xiao Xiaoyu's heart sank, and he immediately notified the second light cavalry team to return along the same route and reunite with the main force, and sent the message of preparing for battle to every gang leader.

In fact, Xu Chu had already reminded Xiao Xiaoyu that there were five map tasks, divided into three main cities. If the goal was just to complete the persuasion task, the three main cities could completely divide the team into five groups and fight on their own. Even the monsters on the road would not have any impact on these teams.

But in this case, the world mission will completely become a competition mission. Even if it is not contrary to the official intention, it is definitely not overlapping.

Therefore, the tasks will definitely not be set so simply. In the later stages, there will definitely be levels that require the united strength of at least most of the main city players to pass.

This is also why individual players are so difficult to organize and manage, and their mobility is so weak, and the three major gangs would rather slow down and gather everyone to act together.

This is a world quest, which requires players from the entire main city to unite and fight, and contribute their own strength to the game, instead of just doing it to get a reward.

The most important issue now is that they have been away from Star City for a whole day, and they have already gone halfway. Although there are many experience monsters in the second-level city and new players are constantly coming in, if these old players, who are generally around level 50, die like this, it will still have a huge impact on the team.

To get here from Star City, the fastest knight would need to ride a horse for most of the day, not to mention the other swordsmen and two magic-class players. Basically, by the time you set out from Star City and catch up with the main force, the mission has been completed.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia reminded again and again in the channel that they were going to fight the BOSS next, so they should pay attention to their own safety, not be greedy for output, and retreat when they should, and don't force themselves.

After thinking about the execution ability of the scattered people, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia couldn't help but add: "But you can't just stay back and not output. The slower you fight, the more people will die. Come on, everyone."

After the order of the large army was passed down, Xiao Xiaoyu looked around at the people around him and said, "Tianxia, Miyin, Xuchu, and Ji Xuanyi, when the fight starts, the four of you stay in the priest group in the back and don't show your heads."

Qi Qin and Mi Yin were both stunned. Liu Tian, who was standing beside them, frowned and said, "I understand Xu Chu and Ji Xuanyi. As a commander, you can't just stay back. If you die, they can help you. Tian Xia Di Yi and Mi Yin are nothing. They are both powerful output. If you don't go up, I don't know how many more people will die."

Xiao Xiao Yu looked at Liu Tian and said, "Many people are not as important as these two. If they go back to Fanxing City, who will deal with Xue Piao Renjian?"

Choking every six days.

That's right. If Qi Qin and Mi Yin, two top-notch masters, accidentally died while fighting a BOSS that could be defeated with collective strength, they would really regret it. Even if they left a hundred more individual players, it would be useless. If no one could stop Xue Piao Renjian head-on, it would be difficult for them to defeat Yue Ri City.

"So, you two stay behind and never go to the front," Xiao Xiao Yuxia frowned and said seriously, "I have spent so much effort to get here. If I fail because of the death of you two, I will--"

Jian Xi Xin Jiu looked at him curiously and asked, "What about you?"

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was silent for a moment, then slowly said, "Not so good. Anyway, I'm not the one who will be most anxious if this thing fails."

Jian Xi Xin Jiu blinked and said stupidly: "If it's not you, then who is it?"

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: "I."

Sword washing new wine: "..."

Mi Yin, who was just about to say that she was agile and would have no problem getting out, said: "..."

Mi Yin shrank her neck and said, "Forget it, I won't go. If it's really hard to get through, we can still make it in time if you call us."

Qi Qin also nodded repeatedly.

Xu Chu yawned and said, " It doesn't matter. I won't go to the front anyway. You guys try your best. I will support you financially. "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "... Thank you! "

Xu Chu waved his hands in a very pretentious manner.

It was past three o'clock now, and it would be past four in an hour. It was estimated that when the fight with the BOSS started, most people would be having dinner. In order to prevent players from fighting the BOSS on an empty stomach , Xiaoxiao Yuxia was very considerate and logged off earlier. He rested on the spot for an hour before continuing on the road.

The reorganized team of Star City advanced while slowly changing its formation. The swordsmen and knights among the individual players began to move forward and slowly merged into the lineup of the three major gangs. The priest team that was originally in the front was also retreating. The mages and archers moved to both sides and surrounded the priest team. The players took out their weapons, ready to fight at any time.

The time predicted by the vanguard was not accurate. In fact, because the road was smooth, less than an hour after they set out again, the Starry City team encountered a large monster that was as big as a world boss .

The first to appear were the tentacles that were familiar to Ji Xuanyi's group of Green Forest City players. They emerged silently from the dense grass and short trees, then grabbed the swordsmen on the outermost edge of the team, lifted them high, and threw them out. Before the priests could even start treatment, more than a dozen swordsmen turned into white light in the roar and flew back to Starry City.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia immediately shouted loudly: " Mage! Archer! Attack! "

Rain of arrows and gorgeous magic skills flew out in an overwhelming manner. Some tentacles were shot off directly, while others were burned black and fell to the ground, unable to move anymore. However, most of the tentacles were still waving, attacking the players on the outside of the Starry City team.

Just as the mages and archers fought hard with the tentacles for more than ten minutes and killed most of them, the ground shook, and the real body of the BOSS finally slowly emerged from the ground and was exposed to everyone.

BOSS in three wood-type second-level city copies grown together.

The green vines, purple flowers, and thick red leaves were a very eye-catching combination. Ji Xuanyi clearly heard Xu Chu moaning as if she was being raped .

But Xiao Xiao Yuxia couldn't care less, no matter how terrible the boss was, he had to fight! He shouted loudly, leading the swordsmen to rush forward. They had to attract the boss 's hatred at the front and stop it from moving towards the back to output damage and nurses.

The high hatred of the swordsmen really made the BOSS stop. It began to crush the swordsmen under its feet with leaves and petals. The priests squeezed to the front and raised their staffs to heal the swordsmen.

this BOSS 's attack is a range attack, the damage is fixed. As long as enough people are hurt at the same time, the average damage each person receives will become lower.

After the BOSS 's attack, only three swordsmen with less health returned to Starry City. The loss was even less than when dealing with the vines, and the other swordsmen immediately recovered their health under the treatment of the priest.

Xiao Xiao Yu shouted at the top of his lungs: " All swordsmen, try to stay together. Those with good equipment and high aggro should move forward! Those with low attribute bonus and low aggro should not crowd together! Stand at the back and take the damage! Move, move! " Just after the swordsmen stabilized their hatred , the mages and archers in the rear finally launched their attack, throwing a barrage of skills at the BOSS , hitting the BOSS and causing brilliant light effects.

Ji Xuanyi and his three companions stood relatively far back. From their perspective, this large-scale battle looked like a fireworks show, which was extremely unrealistic. However, the roars of the players in their ears made their blood boil.

Ji Xuanyi looked at the scene in front of him quietly and grabbed Qi Qin's hand.

Qi Qin turned his head to look at Ji Xuanyi for a long time, and whispered: " If Xuanyi doesn't tell me, I won't go up. "

Although he was indeed eager to move in such an environment, the most important thing to him was Ji Xuanyi, so if Ji Xuanyi didn't move, he wouldn't move either.

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said calmly, " I'm not afraid that you'll run away. "

He was afraid that he would lose control and run up in a fit of excitement.

The situation of the others was not much better. Mi Yin also looked very agitated and excited.

He stood on tiptoe to look forward repeatedly, and the dagger kept turning in his hand.

Xu Chu, who was standing aside, suddenly chuckled and snapped his fingers in a very pretentious manner. Then the crisp snap was drowned out by the numerous shouts.

Ji Xuanyi looked at him silently.

Ignoring Ji Xuanyi's strange look, Xu Chu calmly opened the chat box and started typing.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Just have a private chat, but you have to pretend to be cool first. What kind of person is this! However, it must be said that Xu Chu did have the capital to show off. Not long after he closed the chat bar, Ji Xuanyi saw a huge and very familiar thunder flying towards the BOSS .

Xu Chu smiled at Ji Xuanyi and said, After " the last warm-up BOSS , I reorganized the magic formation. "

Ji Xuanyi: "... Have they finally overcome their psychological trauma? "

Xu Chu's eyes twitched and he said, " No, I changed people. "

Not only have the personnel been replaced, the new magic formation also has different ways of usage due to the improvement of the magicians' levels.

Ji Xuan saw a bolt of lightning as thick as a bucket suddenly appear under the clear sky. Compared with it, the lightning summoned by other mages individually was as small as a toothpick. The lightning struck the BOSS directly , causing the BOSS's health bar to move visibly.

This is the mage's new level 51 skill. The damage coefficient is worthy of the name of the mage's turret in all games. It can be said to be the skill with the highest damage among all professions of the same level and equipment at this stage.

Coupled with the bonus of Xu Chu's big magic staff, the damage of this lightning is very high. With the help of the local tyrant, after twenty minutes, the BOSS 's health reached 80%, but Xiaoxiao Yuxia did not relax. As the person at the front, he could obviously feel that the BOSS's attack on the swordsmen was more powerful.

Only 20% of the blood was lost, and he was going to go berserk? !

Xiao Xiaoyu had no time to think about what this question meant, because the BOSS 's rampage was not aimed at their group of swordsmen. The green vines turned red in an instant, and their size and length increased instantly. With a sound of breaking through the air, they fiercely lashed towards the team behind.

In just a moment, dozens of archers turned into white light and flew back to Starry City.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was shocked when she saw this and almost had a heart attack. She immediately opened the team channel and issued new instructions. However, it would take some time for the Sanren Gang leader to contact the gang members. During this time, Xiao Xiao Yuxia watched helplessly as the vines tore the support troops in the rear to pieces. She almost felt sick!

But there was no other way now, Xiao Xiao Yuxia could only force herself to be strong and screamed heartbreakingly: " Knight troops! Assassin troops! Protect the ranged ! Focus on protecting the priests! The mage group will attack the BOSS with all their strength and suppress the stage! Archers cooperate with melee to deal with the vines! Quick!!!! "

No matter how well the commander understands the overall situation and gives the correct orders, if the troops carrying out the actions cannot keep up with the pace, the commander will have no choice but to watch the situation unfold helplessly.

The large army finally began to operate slowly according to Xiao Xiaoyuxia's command. Every second, Xiao Xiaoyuxia felt like his heart was being roasted on fire, fearing that he would receive a secret message from Mi Yin and Qi Qin in the next second, and they would foolishly tell him that they had been killed and sent back to the city.

Fortunately, what Xiaoxiao Yuxia was worried about did not happen. Although there were occasional vines that targeted the priest team, they were basically dodged by Qi Qin and Mi Yin flexibly. Qi Qin even cut off two vines.

With Qi Qin's cover and his own skillful positioning, Ji Xuanyi didn't have any major problems. Only Xu Chu was a little embarrassed. He was scratched by a vine, but because of his good equipment, he did not die and was healed by the priests around him.

Xu Chu was a little frightened, frowning and saying to Mi Yin: " Number One in the World is hiding with Ji Xuanyi, can you at least take care of me? "

Mi Yin said speechlessly: " Brother, I am just an assassin. I am not much stronger than you, okay? You are well equipped, you will not die. "

Xu Chu sighed and said, " It's time to hire a bodyguard ..."

Miyin: "..."

You are really a big shot!

With the help of the Knights and assassins, the damage caused by the red vines was finally barely controlled. Although most of the long-range weapons were saved, the loss of members of the Knights, who the three major gangs relied on the most, also made Xiao Xiaoyuxia feel heartbroken.

Xiaoxiao carried the monster bravely in the rain, while spitting out three liters of blood in his heart.

Fortunately, the remote team had strong output, and soon the BOSS 's health dropped to 70%. The vines turned green again and gave up attacking the remote team.

Xiao Xiaoyu heaved a sigh of relief, but the BOSS was still fighting with them vigorously. It was easy to imagine that the opponent would have at least one more wave of rampage before leaving the field, and then another wave of people would die.

Xiaoxiao Rain: " My heart no longer hurts, it has become numb ..."

A nearby swordsman didn't hear clearly and thought it was an order, so he asked quickly: " What did you say? "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said woodenly: " Nothing, I'm going to smash this BOSS 's head to pieces today! "

Xiao Xiao rained down crazily, and the long-range team in the rear also reorganized and increased the intensity of the attack. Before long, the BOSS 's health reached 60% and entered the final rampage stage.

The only thing that Xiaoxiao Yuxia found acceptable at this stage was that the BOSS 's no-hatred rampage attack was directed at the person closest to it, which meant that the swordsman profession would suffer the most damage, and the team at the back would be safe.

However, the damage of the rampage attack is too high, and taking the damage is equivalent to committing death, so the swordsmen can only avoid the damage by moving.

Except for swordsmen like Qi Qin, movement is a very distant thing for most swordsmen. After all, they are bulky, slow in movement, and have high defense. The benefits of movement for them are too low. It is better to use this time to chop monsters a few more times. Usually, when fighting monsters, they just stand still and fight each other. There is no such thing as avoiding damage.

But in the current situation, if they don't move, they will die, so this group of heavily armored swordsmen had no choice but to stretch their legs and move at a snail's pace.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia shouted loudly: " Don't run to the long-range side! Everyone stay away from each other. The BOSS is targeting a single person! If you can't dodge, then die. Don't take others with you. Try to reduce the casualties! "

Although he said so, Xiaoxiao Yuxia himself did not move.

Because just now, he suddenly had an idea. If he let the boss send him back to Star City, he wouldn't have to worry about anything else. He wouldn't have to worry about the dead, the traps, or the Sun City! He just needed to stay in Star City and wait for the mission to be over! Not only that, Xiaoxiao Yuxia even wanted to give up the struggle for power and winning people's hearts. After returning to the city, he would hand over the mortal world to Jing Yunhan and the three major gangs to Liu Tian. They would all be idiots together and he would no longer be involved in anything!

The more Xiaoxiao Yuxia thought about it, the more she felt that life was beautiful. Not only did she not move, she even wanted to have a close contact with the BOSS !

However, in this case, the behavior of shirking responsibility seemed too obvious. Xiao Xiaoyu hesitated for a moment, but still stood there without moving, pretending to give the orders seriously and forgetting to move, but in fact he was waiting for the BOSS to come and send him home.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia: I'm so fucking smart!

Chapter 83

When everyone was panicking and trying to avoid harm , there was one person standing there motionless , standing out.

Mi Yin said anxiously: " It's too dangerous to do this in the rain! If you get hit by the BOSS 's attack, you will be killed instantly ! "

Ji Xuanyi also frowned and said, " What is Xiaoxiao Yuxia doing? Did he find anything? "

Only Xu Chu smiled calmly and said, " Maybe I found the correct way to paddle. "

Only Xu Chu could guess this kind of weird thinking . Ji Xuanyi was confused for a moment , and then he realized what Xu Chu was talking about with a frown on his face.

However, the pressure has been really high these past few days of drizzling rain, and it has not been easy to hold on until now.

Ji Xuanyi was just about to send Xiao Xiaoyu a private message, asking him to calm down and stop seeking death, when he saw one of the BOSS 's tentacles suddenly whip towards Xiao Xiaoyu.

Xiao Xiaoyu didn't dodge or evade, but looked up at the tentacle, her eyes emitting the light of impending freedom!

The next second , the boss 's health was reduced to 55% by the ranged players who desperately output damage for their companions.

The huge composite BOSS let out a shrill scream , retracted its tentacles , and squirmed away from the battlefield at an extremely fast speed.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia, who was almost able to go home: "..."

Could this be the legendary fate?

Xiao Xiao Yuxia couldn't help but reach out her hand to retain the BOSS from behind, but the BOSS didn't notice Xiao Xiao Yuxia's intention and quickly disappeared from everyone's sight. When they found that the BOSS was defeated, all the players burst into enthusiastic cheers. Ji Xuanyi and others also squeezed out of the priest team and picked up the distraught Xiao Xiao Yuxia.

Xu Chu's face was almost crooked with laughter , and he said with gloating: " Xiao Xiao Yuxia's escape was still amazing , as if there was divine help , awesome. "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "... Go to hell. "

Xu Chu smiled and said, " Okay , please take me back. "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " Shut up, hurry up and organize the team and get on the road. It's raining heavily, so calm down. "

Things have come to this point, and there is no other way. Xiao Xiaoyu sighed and said, " Maybe this is fate! The greater the ability, the greater the responsibility. It seems that I am destined to be this commander! "

Mi Yin quickly praised him, " That's right, keep it up, the whole Star City will remember you! " Xiao Xiao Yu Xia persuaded himself, adjusted his mentality, and said: " Okay, let's count the losses first and see the situation. "

Although he didn't want to discourage Xiao Xiao Yu Xia, Ji Xuanyi still said, " We can talk about the casualties later, but the BOSS didn't die with zero health, but escaped with half health. We should encounter it again in the later stage, but we don't know whether it will be halfway or after reaching the Lost Forest. "

Xiao Xiaoyu's face looked unhappy. It was tiring enough to fight this BOSS once, and fighting it twice would be too much!

Ji Xuanyi glanced at Xiao Xiaoyu and said, " I would rather meet it again before reaching the Lost Forest and kill it directly. There are too many plants in the Lost Forest and the vision is very limited. In a place like that, the vines of the BOSS will be very troublesome. "

Xiao Xiao Yu said woodenly: " Stop talking. If you keep talking, I'll want to die again. "

Ji Xuanyi: "... Okay. "

He was still very considerate of Xiaoxiao Yuxia's fragile little heart.

But his understanding was of no use, as the boss did not understand Xiao Xiao Yuxia's intention.

In order to save time, the reorganized second light cavalry unit set off first, while the main force of Star City continued to advance after barely forming a formation.

Not to mention the casualties of the large army, even among the leaders of the three major gangs, Jing Yunhan and Liu Tian were sent back to Fanxing City because of protecting the long-range team when the BOSS went berserk in the first stage . Among the three knights, only Jian Xi Xinjiu stayed because of his excellent skills and timely evasion.

Xu Chu, who had lost his mount for six days (?), naturally climbed onto Jian Xi Xin Jiu's horse. Jian Xi Xin Jiu paused for a moment, but couldn't help saying, " I always feel like I've been cheated on for six days. "

Everyone: "..."

Your idea is quite bold!

Xu Chu looked at him speechlessly and said, " Just because you are gay, don't you think that others are also good? In most cases, there are more heterosexuals than homosexuals ... But then again, aren't there too many gays in our team? "

As Xu Chu spoke, he couldn't help but look at Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin. Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows and looked back calmly, so Xu Chu turned his gaze to Mi Yin as if nothing had happened.

Miyin: "..."

Mi Yin said numbly: " I know what you want to say, but I don't want to explain it anymore. "

No one would believe him even if he explained it.

Xu Chu spread his hands and said, " Anyway, I'm not gay, and Liu Tian is just an ordinary idiot, so you don't have to be so embarrassed when Jian Xi Xin Jiu comes. "

Sword Washing New Wine: "... Okay. "

Xiao Xiaoyuxia had no time to deal with the jokes of this group of people. Having lost her cousin, she did not look very happy. Add to that the battle damage data reported by several gang leaders and members of the three major gangs, and Xiao Xiaoyuxia's face had almost turned as green as a bunch of leeks.

Ji Xuan, the only one among the group who cared about the progress of the mission, glanced at him and asked, " How is it going? "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia looked like he was going to vomit blood at any moment, but he still held on firmly and said, " Not good. The casualties are quite serious. At least a quarter of the people were sent back to Star City. Although most of them are independents, the knights of the three major gangs also lost a third of their lives during the rampage phase. "

There was no way around it. Under the circumstances at the time, both melee professions, knights and assassins, could not get close to the BOSS to cause damage. Not only Ji Xuanyi and his four companions hiding in the priest group, but other ranged output was more important than these two professions, so they could only be asked to help curb the runaway vines.

However, because it is a close combat, both of them are too easy to get hurt. The assassin is okay because he can teleport, but if the knight's prediction is not accurate enough, he will be a target. The white light of the knight's death in a wave of rampage is like a fucking firework, which shattered Xiaoxiao Yuxia's heart.

You know, the greatest combat power among the three major gangs is the Knights, and one-third of them are gone in one go, which is no different from cutting off flesh in the rain.

Speaking of this, Xiao Xiao Yuxia felt like vomiting blood again. In fact, it was not just that he wanted to, his mentality was also fluctuating so much that his body shape began to twist, and he looked like he was about to be kicked off the line.

Mi Yin quickly supported him, patted his back, and said, " Calm down, calm down! You must control yourself, Xiaoxiao! "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia took a few deep breaths, calmed down, and said, " Luckily it's the Knights. I've resurrected them and assembled them into a team to rush here quickly. If they log off later tonight and log on earlier during the day, they should be able to catch up with us before tomorrow night. "

Mi Yin frowned and asked worriedly, " What if we encounter the BOSS a second time before that ? "

We were able to save so many ranged enemies before because of the Knights' cover . If we encounter the BOSS again for the second time , how can we fight when our army has lost so many members?

Hearing this, Xiao Xiaoyu said with a pale face: " Are you going to use the Knights to block the attack the second time? "

Ji Xuanyi said to Mi Yin, " Before, we had the Knights and Assassins cover the long-range because the attack was too sudden. In order to prevent the large army from collapsing due to the inability to organize an effective resistance, we used the relatively less important Knights and Assassins to fill the damage and output. The second time we encounter that BOSS , we will know how to deal with it, and we don't have to rely on taking damage to deal with it. "

The arena player Mi Yin suddenly realized.

In fact, both knights and assassins are more inclined towards pvp professions, especially knights. Although they are easy to take damage if they are too close when fighting BOSS , and cannot hit the BOSS if they are too far away, but when the enemy is a player, once the knights form a team, the damage they cause is difficult to resist.

In addition to the role of exploration, the knights of the three major gangs are more importantly prepared for the battle with the Day City. The one-third of the knights who unfortunately return to the city only need to return to the team before the main force encounters the Day City troops, and the impact on this operation will not be that great.

Apart from the knights, the swordsmen suffered the biggest losses. There was no way to change this, after all, they were the profession that rushed to the front, and the second wave of rampage killed instantly . Before the second wave of rampage, most of the swordsmen gathered together, which delayed their movements , resulting in heavy losses for the swordsman troops. However, there were many swordsmen, and such losses would not have much impact on the next tank monster. Facing the Sun City, except for Qi Qin, the swordsmen of the other professions could only be said to be icing on the cake and could not play a decisive role, so it was barely acceptable in the rain.

the three ranged teams are similar, not too high, and their output and healing are definitely enough. However, the one with the highest survival rate is the assassin who goes with the knight to cover the ranged assassin.

There is no way. There are too many life-saving skills. I can't die even if I want to. The new skill of the assassin profession at level 51 has a life-saving effect. The five-hit combo plus the teleport refresh are simply too useful.

However, right after the game, he checked messages with the people in his friend list. As far as Ji Xuan knew, in addition to Introduction to Art and Calf Cramps, Ze Yu Sishui also came back to life. It wasn't because he was bad, after all, he had a weapon skill that could allow him to teleport, plus the new skill, a total of three teleports. If this was a keyboard online game, he wouldn't die even if he rolled his face on the keyboard!

What's more, Ze Yu Sishui is not a weakling either. He died to protect Qingfeng Bufu, the unlucky short-legged man. Qingfeng Bufu even told Ji Xuanyi tearfully that he gave his shield skill to Ze Yu Sishui, but Ze Yu Sishui was too fragile and couldn't hold on. He was killed after being hit once.

Ji Xuan was silent for a moment, unable to give any other comment except " deep love between mother and son " .

Ah Miao was lucky and was not attacked. Ming Shao had good positioning and dodged the attack. With Qing Feng Bu Fu's help, at least half of the friends in Green Forest City survived. After counting the casualties, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia asked the leader of the Sanren Gang who stayed behind in Fanxing City to speed up the organization of personnel, and asked the leader of the Sanren Gang of the large force to recruit the players who caught up from behind as soon as possible. They must restore their strength as much as possible before reaching the Lost Forest.

After defeating the BOSS and moving forward for more than two hours, monsters finally began to appear intermittently to block the way. We had already gone more than half the way, which seemed to mean that the half-blood BOSS would not appear again on the road later.

BOSS inside the Lost Forest , it would obviously be a tough battle. Moreover, after that, they would be close to a head-on battle with the Sun City . It would definitely be too late to replenish their combat power. They could only try their best to reduce the losses.

This time, as there were no sudden roadblocks, Qi Qin staggered, and finally with the encouragement of Ji Xuanyi, he followed the main group and persisted until after eleven o'clock before logging off. It was useless for Ji Xuanyi to call him. He probably slept in the game cabin all night without even taking a shower. Sure enough, when he went online the next day, his head was tilted.

However, judging from the number of people in this large army after one night, Xiaoxiao Yuxia's plan to replenish combat power failed.

It is true. The team of Star City has come all the way to this point, and it is already a very good situation that the number of people leaving and being added is equal. It is simply a fantasy to expect to replenish the combat effectiveness by relying on the return of individual players after losing some combat effectiveness.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia also realized this and stopped forcing himself, leading the large army to continue forward.

The " bullet " formation of the three major gangs in the front was obviously thinned out, and the casualties of the knights and swordsmen in the outermost layer were quite severe. However, this did not affect the speed of the team's advance. To be precise, the speed of the large group's marching became faster.

The surrounding scenery was constantly changing, from the plains just outside the Starry City, to low bushes, to lakes and hills, and now, Ji Xuanyi and his companions had finally stepped into a place that could be called a forest.

The trees were getting taller and denser, and many players who had never seen such a view expressed their admiration. When the sun was about to set, the Star City troops finally entered the map, [Lost Forest].

The mission was accomplished, and the knights of the vanguard returned to the team. Xiao Xiaoyu breathed a sigh of relief. No matter what, the fact that they were able to walk all the way to the Lost Forest without any obstacles (?), proved that Ji Xuanyi's inference was not wrong. At least the first target of Day City was not the Lost Forest. They could at least get the guaranteed reward first, so that so many players from Star City would not make a wasted trip.

After entering the Lost Forest, the roads on the ground began to appear and disappear from time to time, and there would occasionally be forks in the road. To be honest, the exploration team from Star City only successfully reached the [Clausophile Sea] and [Heavy Flame Volcano] . They had no idea what the road was like in the [Lost Forest] . Xiaoxiao Yuxia had to give the responsibility of leading the way to Ji Xuanyi and let Ji Xuanyi take the blame.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi had encountered the elves before. Regardless of whether the map had been changed at that time, he did not come from this direction. How could he know the way? But there was no other way. The map was designated by him. Although he successfully avoided the Sun City, he still had to take the blame. Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to bite the bullet and pull Mi Yin to the front to lead the way.

Mi Yin: "... So it's obviously your fault, why should I take the blame too? Can't you find someone to lead the way with you? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " You have a good brain, don't you know how to remember the way? Remember the wrong way, and we won't have to go around in circles. "

Miyin: "..."

He said a swear word but didn't know whether he should say it or not.

Mi Yin collapsed and said, Boss " ! This is a forest! It's called the Lost Forest. If you take a camera and take a few pictures , you won't be able to tell what is what if you put them all together! How can you be so confident in me! "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Didn't you say that teammates need to have absolute trust in each other in order to play a perfect match? "

Miyin: "..."

He actually said this in the guide!

No, Ji Xuanyi, what's your temper? Aren't you famous for your bad temper? Why are you still reading my guide? Are you free?

Mi Yin covered her face and said, " But this isn't an arena! What's the point of cooperating? Finding the way, is that something that can be done by cooperating? "

Ji Xuanyi patted his shoulder calmly and said, " Just let it out for a while. You can do it. I believe in you. "

What could Mi Yin do? It was all because of his good temper. He could only find a way with Ji Xuanyi!

Fortunately, although Mi Yin himself was a little uncertain, his memory and intuition were indeed very powerful. After dark, he finally led the players of Star City to the outside of the maze that Ji Xuanyi was familiar with.

This maze was dozens of times larger than the last time Ji Xuanyi saw it. It surrounded the innermost elf camp and stretched as far as the eye could see. The tree walls that made up the maze also became very high. In the dark night, the branches and leaves swayed in the wind, rustling, and cast terrifying shadows on the players' faces.

Ji Xuanyi heard a burly swordsman behind him say timidly: " It's so scary, like a haunted house ..."

There were even a lot of male voices echoing the sentiment nearby.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

What courage do you have!

Xiaoxiao Yuxia and others also walked from the back to the front.

The maze is not suitable for a large group to enter together. Once you take the wrong path and want to turn back and change direction, the players blocking the way behind you will become obstacles to your action. When you start to get anxious, you will basically be trapped to death in the maze.

So only one team can go in with a rope to explore the way, and the rest of the people wait outside. After the maze is solved, they can go in one after another.

The last time Ji Xuanyi came to this maze, the solution was very simple. As long as he kept moving forward, he would definitely pass through here. However, that was because the map was not open, and the official prepared a plot kill for the players . Now that the map is officially open, it is obvious that the maze will not be as easy to get in and difficult to get out as before, but it will be reversed, easy to get out and difficult to get in.

Xiao Xiaoyu glanced at Ji Xuanyi's expression and immediately realized something. She whispered, " Has the maze changed? "

Ji Xuan nodded.

Xiao Xiao Yu frowned and asked: " What should we do then? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Just solve it again. "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "... So awesome? "

Ji Xuanyi could indeed solve the maze, but this maze was too large and it was dark, so he would probably go blind if he tried to solve it by himself.

Ji Xuan turned his head to look at Xu Chu, who was pretending to know nothing and refusing to drink the new wine, and said, " Stop slacking off. Can you solve the maze? "

Xu Chu pretended to be dumbfounded and said, " Ah? What? No way. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was still upset about Xu Chu's previous mockery of her, and said hypocritically: " Wow, Xu Chu, you are so smart, just make a little contribution to the players of Star City, everyone will remember you! "

Xu Chu: "..."

After a long while, Xu Chu calmly said, " There are not many people in Star City who don't know me. "

This statement is correct. He is a well-known tycoon on the rich list. People who pay a little attention to the rankings in this game don't know him.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia wanted to say something else, but Ji Xuan said, " That's enough. You've been paddling for so long, it won't kill you to exert a little effort. "

Xu Chu said with a dull face: " Please look at this light. It won't kill you if you exert some strength, but you will go blind, okay? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " You have a lightning and thunder magic formation, what are you afraid of? "

Xu Chu: "..."

Ji Xuan said: " After you clear the maze tonight, log off and go to sleep. We will gather at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. "

Xu Chu: "... Deal! "

Gechu didn't do it voluntarily. It was very painful for him to get up every morning, okay? As a rich man, he has been trying hard to integrate into this game!

Everyone should love pigeons!

It is not difficult to pass the maze, but it is not easy either.

Mazes are divided into two types of difficulty. The simple one is a simple maze. Many people have heard of its solution. You just need to put your hand on the right wall and keep walking along the wall, and you will be able to find the exit. The difficult one is a complex maze. It has many ways to pass through it, but at the same time, there are also many ways that will make you circle around in the maze infinitely, or even go directly back to the exit.

Judging from the nature of this game and the area of this maze, it definitely cannot be the first type of simple maze, but the second type of complex maze that is like a haunted house.

The complex maze is indeed difficult, but apart from luck, there is a solution. The most important point of this solution is that it is composed of countless single mazes.

As long as you can separate the single maze in the complex maze, you can find the correct path to the exit.

After listening to it, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia couldn't help but say from the bottom of her heart: " It sounds difficult. "

Not to mention dismantling the maze, just Ji Xuanyi's words just now had the other people confused, only Mi Yin looked like he understood.

Ji Xuan glanced at Xiao Xiaoyu and said as a matter of course: " It's not difficult for the two of us to go. "

Xu Chu had already gotten off his horse. Upon hearing this, he folded his arms and sighed to the sky.

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

I really want to hit someone!

Ji Xuanyi took out a piece of paper and pen from his backpack, gave one to Xu Chu, and said to Xiao Xiao Yuxia: " We need to find the highest place with the best view. You can prepare the ropes we will use to pass the maze later down there first – there should be some ropes left, right? "

Ji Xuanyi remembered that he seemed to have used a lot of it when pushing wood before.

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said quickly: " Yes, yes, after pushing the wood, let the people behind collect it. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " That's fine. After we go up, listen to our instructions and have the mages below cast their skills into the maze to help light up the way for us. Can you do that? "

Xiao Xiaoyu nodded and said, " Okay, don't worry. "

Then there is nothing to worry about. What they need to consider now is which tree is the tallest around and which has the best view from the treetop. If they cannot clearly see the entire maze in their direction, then if Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu's route inference is wrong, then it will be GG .

Xiaoxiao Yuxia began to direct the collection of ropes. They didn't know how big the maze was, and it would be very troublesome if they ran out of ropes halfway through.

Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu took Qi Qin and the other two to look for trees that were tall enough.

Mi Yin acted quickly, had good eyesight, and could teleport. Soon he saw a crooked tree on the side. He quickly called Ji Xuanyi over to see if it would work.

Ji Xuanyi looked at the height of the tree, nodded, and said, " That's it. "

Qi Qin was already feeling a little sleepy, and said, " Xuan Yi, do you want me to help you get up? "

Ji Xuanyi looked at the tree, tucked the hem of his wizard robe into his waist, rolled up his sleeves, and said, " No need. "

Xu Chu said: " I don't think it's necessary either. You are not sober right now, and you are helping Ji Xuanyi up. Don't let him fall down later. "

Ji Xuanyi seemed to remember something, glanced at Xu Chu, and said, " Can you climb a tree? "

Xu Chu glanced at Ji Xuanyi, snorted complacently , and said , " No. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

No, you are so proud! There was a " hiss " sound! Is there a leak?

But in the current situation, Xu Chu is not enough. It is too dark, and Ji Xuanyi might make mistakes if he looks at the maze alone.

Ji Xuanyi suppressed his murderous intent and said, " Then how do you plan to get up there? "

Xu Chu spread his hands, looking nonchalant, and said, " You ask me? You asked me to help, isn't this something you should consider? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " I have thought of a solution, but I am afraid you cannot accept it. "

Xu Chu had never climbed a tree in his life, and he was quite interested in what Ji Xuanyi said.

He said, " Oh? What's the method? As long as I don't die, I can accept it. "

Ji Xuanyi smiled slightly: " That's great. "

Xu Chu: "..."

Why do I feel like something is wrong?

Xiaoxiao Yuxia took the rope handed over by the leader of a Sanren Gang, tied a knot with the rope in his own hand, and held them together in his hand. He was about to ask the people behind him to pass the rope to him when he suddenly heard a shrill scream coming from a distance and was immediately frightened.

" Ji Xuanyi —— I fuck your uncle —— !!!! "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Why does this voice sound like Xu Chu?

A person who was handing over the rope said in confusion: " What is this guy yelling about?

Who the hell is he yelling about? "

As if knowing what happened, Xiao Xiaoyu said calmly: s ok'lt " if it's not your uncle. After handing over the rope, hurry back to the team. We still have to go through the maze later. "

The man quickly responded twice, handed the rope to Xiaoxiao Yuxia, and ran away without looking back.

The reason why Xu Chu wanted to fuck Uncle Ji Xuan was mainly because of Qi Qin.

The method Ji Xuanyi thought of for him to climb the tree was very simple. He just needed to take off the bits and pieces of equipment on his body, let Jian Xi Xinjiu and Qi Qin hold him on each side, and throw him up.

" It's just like a rocket launch! " said Ji Xuanyi.

Although the tree is a bit high, this is a game after all. As long as the equipment and attributes are good enough, even things beyond common sense can be done. At least Ji Xuanyi thinks that it can be done with Qi Qin's attributes, and Jian Xi Xin Jiu, his equipment is not bad anyway, and Xu Chu can contribute a few more pieces, which will be enough.

What Xu Chu had to do was to grab the tree fork in front of him in time after flying up and hang on it, and then Mi Yin would help him adjust his position and sit down.

Although the first step didn't sound very reliable, the following steps did sound like they were really intended to let him go up, so Xu Chu couldn't help but hesitate.

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " The first step does sound unreliable, but with Tianxia here, even the most unreliable things will become reliable. "

This sentence seemed to make sense, and coupled with the fact that Qi Qin had used Ji Xuanyi's " Qinggong " to catch up with the main force before, Xu Chu couldn't help but believe Ji Xuanyi's lies!

However, Xu Chu obviously forgot one thing, that is, it is almost half past eight, and Qi Qin is already starting to feel a little confused!

The moment Xu Chu was thrown up by Qi Qin and Jian Xi Xinjiu, he heard Jian Xi Xinjiu on the right exclaim " Oh shit ! "

Before Xu Chu figured out what " Fuck " meant, he found that he was not only flying upwards, but also starting to rotate to the right.

The confused Xu Chu heard the complete words spoken by Jian Xi Xinjiu.

 " Fuck! You used too much strength! You threw it in the wrong direction! "

Xu Chu: "..... ???? "

The spinning Feitian Xuchu finally realized that he had been tricked, and screamed miserably in the air: " Ji Xuanyi – I fuck your uncle – !!! "

Ji Xuanyi said indifferently: " Oh. "

Qi Qin was really strong. Xu Chu flew out with a " biu ! " and got stuck diagonally on a tree fork. He was dizzy and cursed: " Fuck your uncle Ji Xuanyi, my waist hurts so much ... I'm almost bleeding out, fuck ... "

Mi Yin had been waiting on the tree for a long time, but Xu Chu's landing point was a bit far from the location they had originally planned , so she had to teleport from one end of the tree to the other with a frown on her face, and helped Xu Chu up, patting his back and chest, and it took a long time for him to recover.

At this moment, Ji Xuanyi had already climbed halfway.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu shouted upward from below: " Xu Chu, are you okay? Tian Xia is a little sleepy! It's not intentional! "

Xu Chu didn't know whether Qi Qin did it on purpose, but he knew Ji Xuanyi must have done it on purpose, and said sadly: " I can't do it anymore, I hit my head and I can't see clearly. "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said cruelly, " Then just hang there. I'll go down after I finish reading it myself. "

Xu Chu: "..."

Damn it, why did he have the stupid idea of climbing a tree to have a look?

It must have been infected by the stupid six days!

Six days on the way to the main force: " A-choo! "

Facing the surprised looks from others, Liu Tian said in horror: " Shit, how can I sneeze in this game? Am I suffering from a terminal illness? "

Everyone: "..."

Is this person an idiot ...

Xu Chu stared at Ji Xuanyi quietly and said nothing.

Mi Yin looked at the direction Ji Xuanyi was going to, frowned, and said to Ji Xuanyi: " Is the place where Xu Chu is staying now okay? "

Ji Xuan didn't even look up and said, " Don't you see how far away from the original location you are? Do you think it's okay? "

Mi Yin looked at the place where she had just stood in the distance and said hesitantly : " Maybe ... not? "

Ji Xuanyi sat down on a tree fork and rested for a while, then said, " You can remove two of the words. "

If Liu Tian was here, he might have answered without the " no " , but Mi Yin was not stupid, and understood Ji Xuanyi's meaning, so she had to lower her head and say to Xu Chu, who looked like a ravaged young wife: " Let's take a few more steps? "

Xu Chu glanced down at his feet and said woodenly: "... just beat me to death. "

At least before today, Xu Chu didn't know that he was afraid of heights.

Of course, Mi Yin couldn't beat Xu Chu to death, and Xu Chu couldn't stay hanging on the tree forever. After Ji Xuanyi arrived at the original location, Xu Chu finally moved tremblingly to Ji Xuanyi's side with the help of Mi Yin.

Ji Xuanyi calmly took out a pen and paper. Xu Chu approached from behind eagerly, wanting to push him down from the tree.

Mi Yin coughed dryly and whispered, " Ji Xuanyi's positioning is amazing. I advise you to think twice. "

If you attack me like this, who knows who will go down ...

Xu Chu: "..."

Xu Chu sat back down with an expressionless face.

If you want revenge, don't use too many methods.

Ji Xuanyi said: " If you are found to be scribbling on the blueprint, you can forget about going down today. "

Xu Chu: "..."

Okay, you win.

Chapter 84

The sky had become completely dark. Although there was some starlight and moonlight , it could only allow Ji Xuanyi to see the outline of the maze a little bit , but the details were blurry. However, what Ji Xuanyi knows now is that this maze is bigger and more complicated than he had imagined .

Ji Xuan looked solemn , and Xu Chu said quietly, " I'm going blind. "

Ji Xuan glanced at him, ignored him , and went straight to the private chat with Xiao Xiao Yu Xia: " Are you guys ready? "

[Xiaoxiaoyuxia] : Ready.

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : But what on earth did you do to Xuchu ... Well , take it easy, the three major gangs still need him!

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

He felt that Xiaoxiao Yuxia might have missed a word. What the three major gangs needed was probably not Xu Chu, but Xu Chu's money!

Ji Xuanyi replied: " He is still alive. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was also very unpicky and immediately replied: " That's fine! "

Ji Xuanyi was speechless for a moment, then said, " Prepare to use your skills, divide them into batches, and use them in waves . It's best to keep the light on all the time. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia was very cautious about this matter . She thought of this without Ji Xuan's reminder and said directly: " Everything is ready . Shall we start now? "

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows and said, " Open. "

Just at the moment after Ji Xuanyi sent the message , a large number of skill light effects lit up in the Star City troops , like fireworks , illuminating half of the night sky . The skills of the Mage Corps were neatly thrown above the maze, exposing the situation inside the maze clearly to Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu's eyes.

Ji Xuanyi immediately took advantage of Liang'er's hand to draw in the air and said to Xu Chu: " That half is yours, and this half is mine. If there is a single-type maze in the middle, the single part is mine, and the plural part is yours. "

He is not such a bully. The singular can only be more than the plural. He is so lazy that he still doesn't steal.

Xu Chu said faintly: " Can't everything in the middle belong to you? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him.

Xu Chu: "... Okay. "

Xuchu made an OK gesture listlessly, and Mi Yin beside him was confused. She wondered, what's the difference? What's the matter? How do we divide it? Why can't I understand what they are saying?

But it doesn't matter if Mi Yin doesn't understand, as long as Xu Chu understands.

The magic cast by the Star City team continued to flicker in the air. Ji Xuanyi and Xuchu used this brief and blurry light to quickly draw lines on the paper. Mi Yin squinted her eyes, looking like someone with severe myopia and astigmatism. She looked at the maze, then at the paper in Ji Xuanyi and Xuchu's hands, then at the maze, then at the paper. After repeating this process several times, she had to admit that she and these two people were probably not living in the same world ...

His memory is indeed very good, which is why Ji Xuanyi asked him to catch up, but now Mi Yin feels that his eyesight and comprehension ability seem to be insufficient.

Ji Xuanyi and Xuchu wrote and drew for a while, and Ji Xuanyi asked: " Is it done? "

Xu Chu said faintly: " I'm almost going blind ..."

Ji Xuan nodded and whispered to Xiao Xiaoyu: " We've finished looking at the periphery, let's use our skills a little more inside. "

Xu Chu: "..."

Does Ji Xuanyi really not intend to treat him as a human being?

Under the command of Xiao Xiaoyuxia, the magicians of Star City threw their skills further away . In order to get down from the tree as soon as possible, Xu Chu had to lower his head and diligently start painting again.

Mi Yin initially tried to remember the terrain of the maze, but if the terrain of the maze was so easy to remember, it would not be a maze. There were too many meaningless twists and turns. After trying it once, Mi Yin gave up and began to silently appreciate the skill special effects that were like fireworks.

Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu quickly dismantled the maze in front of them, but this maze was too big. In the end, the mages of the Mage Corps were almost taking turns to throw skills in.

Mi Yin also saw someone use too much force and throw the staff and skills directly into the maze. However, in this case, they should receive compensation from the local tyrant Xu Chu, at least a purple weapon, which is not a loss at all!

Many magic skills fly too far after leaving the hand . Although they still have special effects, they will lose attack power. Therefore, although the magic profession has long hands , the combat range must also be considered.

Fortunately, what Ji Xuanyi and his team wanted was just a beam, so attack power was secondary. With the skills thrown out by the mages, Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu squinted their eyes, found the exit of the maze with difficulty, and recorded it.

To ensure accuracy, Ji Xuanyi did not let the mage group stop after he finished drawing, but asked them to continue lighting up. Taking advantage of the light, he compared the half of the drawing in his hand with the drawing in Xu Chu's hand, and reorganized it into one copy. The two of them whispered to each other about the data and found that there was no discrepancy between what they saw. Then they both breathed a sigh of relief and asked the mage group to stop.

Mi Yin blinked and asked curiously: " Is the painting finished? "

Ji Xuan nodded and handed him the paper. Xu Chu lay on the tree trunk and rubbed his eyes like a dead fish.

Mi Yin looked at the drawing and found that she could only understand that there were a dozen lines, and then a long winding line passed through the lines and reached the place marked as the end point.

Mi Yin was confused and said: " No, it's that simple? "

What he saw was a maze made up of densely packed walls! How come a few lines could solve it?

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said calmly, " If it's not easy to dismantle it, then what's the point of dismantling it? "

Mi Yin: "... That's true, but I don't understand this? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him, sighed, and said, " What a waste of such a good memory ... I just need to understand it. "

Xu Chu lay on the tree with his last breath, and said faintly: " I can't understand it anymore. I have forgotten everything. If anything goes wrong with Ji Xuanyi, don't look for me. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuan put the paper away, patted his trouser legs, stood up, and said to the people below: " Swords wash new wine, the world, are you ready? "

From under the dark tree came the sound of a sword washing new wine: " I've been waiting! " Ji Xuanyi: " Oh, catch it. "

Xu Chu looked at Ji Xuanyi, frowned and said: " Are you going to jump down? "

It's so dark down there, they may not be able to see clearly how the sword washes the new wine.

Ji Xuan smiled and raised his leg towards him.

Xu Chu: "..... ??? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was making a note of the individual player who accidentally dropped his weapon while lighting the room.

He suspected that there were people here who took advantage of the situation by using white weapons. How was it possible that more than 20 people threw away their weapons? But since Xu Chu paid for it, he didn't feel bad.

Thinking of this, Xiaoxiao Yuxia wrote down the gang names of those people one by one. As he was writing, a familiar scream was heard from afar .

" Ji Xuanyi —— Fuck you!!! "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Xiao Xiaoyu looked at the compensation list in her hand with some hesitation , and began to worry whether she should first confirm Xu Chu's safety with Ji Xuanyi.

Xu Chu at least returned to the ground alive. Although he was very depressed, he had no reason to blame Ji Xuanyi. After all, the latter jumped down in the same way, but the psychological feeling of jumping by oneself and being kicked by others was different.

Ji Xuanyi climbed up from the dazed Qi Qin, fearing that he had fallen asleep on the ground, so he patted his face to wake him up, and then pulled him up.

Seeing that both of them had landed safely, Mi Yin followed suit and teleported as he was about to land. He stood up straight and said, " Mission accomplished. Let's go back quickly. "

Ji Xuan nodded.

After all, due to limited conditions, the split diagrams he and Xu Chu drew were all simple sketches, and most of the details were memorized temporarily. If it takes too long, it is easy to forget some things.

The five people walked quickly towards the main force.

Because the players glowed at night, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia quickly spotted them, happily approached them, and said, " You're back, how are you? "

Ji Xuanyi nodded slightly and said, " Okay. "

Xiao Xiaoyu stared at the piece of paper in Ji Xuanyi's hand.

Mi Yin kindly reminded: " Their drawings are very simple, you can't understand them. "

Still watching in the drizzle.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi handed the blueprint to Xiao Xiaoyu in silence and said to him, " The five of us will go in first. You wait outside. Also, if the rope is knotted, the system may not determine that it is the same object. It may be refreshed. The road will be long. Remember to send someone to stand at the knot. "

Xiao Xiaoyu nodded and took the drawing to look at it.

Two seconds later, Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: "... Okay, I really don't understand, I'll leave it to you. " Mi Yin spread her hands: " I told you everything but you still don't believe it. "

Xiao Xiao Yu coughed dryly and said, " Hurry up, I think the world is almost exhausted, let's get through the maze quickly, and everyone should log off and rest early. "

Xu Chu still remembered the conditions Ji Xuanyi had offered him, and hurriedly said, " Hurry up, I want to sleep. "

Ji Xuan nodded, took one end of the rope from Xiao Xiao Yuxia, wrapped it around his hand a few times, and entered the maze first. Qi Qin and the other four hurriedly followed closely behind him.

Ji Xuanyi's drawings did not show the specific appearance of the maze. He and Xu Chu simply found a simple maze within the complex maze, identified the entrances and exits, and then recorded them. There is a universal way to crack a simple maze, so there is no need to draw a way through, so his drawings look so simple.

However, Ji Xuanyi needed to remember all the details and data in his mind. For example, there were so many intersections, and which one was the exit of this single-type maze? There were even some openings that were obviously detour traps. Ji Xuanyi also needed to fill in the walls that a single-type maze should have in his mind.

This was something that could easily lead to mistakes if one was not careful. Even though Xu Chu said that he didn't remember anything and didn't want to care about anything, in order to log off and rest as soon as possible, he had been carefully observing the situation around him so that when Ji Xuan made a mistake, he could plug the loophole as soon as possible.

However, Ji Xuanyi was obviously very sober and confident. He kept moving forward along the wall, occasionally pausing for only one or two seconds, and then immediately continued to move forward. The group wandered around in the maze for half an hour, and Mi Yin felt a little dizzy and said, " Is this really the way? We've been walking for a long time, I feel so dizzy ..."

Jian Xi Xin Jiu smiled and said, " I'm not dizzy at all, Mi Yin, can you? "

Xu Chu so of course ,t even look at the road'You didn " : laughed you won't feel dizzy . "

Jian Xixinjiu smacked his lips awkwardly and stopped talking.

Mi Yin indeed felt dizzy because she was memorizing the way. After all, these walls were refreshed by the system, and each one was exactly the same except for the length. Even a camera couldn't tell the difference, let alone Mi Yin.

Xu Chu said: " Ji Xuanyi's approach was correct. I would have walked the same way if I were in his place. It's just that the maze is too big, and it's easy to waste time using a universal solution to a single maze, so this is the case. "

Mi Yin nodded when she heard this, and finally gave up trying to remember the way and just followed him contentedly.

After walking for about twenty minutes, Ji Xuanyi's expression finally relaxed. He looked at the blueprint in his hand and said, " This is the last single maze. After we finish it, we will reach the exit. "

The other four people finally breathed a sigh of relief. Qi Qin swayed and almost fell asleep on the spot.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi sighed helplessly, took Qi Qin's hand, and said, " Let's go out. "

The other three people responded and followed Ji Xuanyi, walking along the wall.

The last single maze also had many confusing wall faults, and if one was not careful one would walk into another maze. Fortunately, because it was the last maze, Ji Xuanyi observed it very carefully. He did not even stop when encountering a fault, and led everyone straight through it. When they finally saw another night at the exit, Mi Yin and Jian Xi Xinjiu could not help but cheer at the same time.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu couldn't understand how Ji Xuanyi and the others did it, but he knew that this was really awesome, and he kept saying, " Fuck, awesome, awesome, you two are awesome! " Xu Chu said in a very pretentious manner: " It's just a normal operation, no need to be so exaggerated. "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

To be honest, even though Liu Tian was stupid, it was not easy for him to stay with Xu Chu for such a long time without hitting him.

Ji Xuanyi ignored them and said to Xiao Xiaoyu in a low voice: " We are at the exit, come over here. "

Xiao Xiaoyuxia at the other end of the maze was cheered up and shouted, " Depth, we found the exit, get ready to go! "

There were waves of responses from the Star City team, like the tides of the sea, and they moved quickly, forming a long and slender team that could pass through the maze. Under the leadership of Xiao Xiao Yuxia, they followed the ropes and headed towards the exit of the maze. After successfully completing the task, Xu Chu glanced at the time and his eyes twitched: " Are you kidding me? You logged off early after completing the maze. It's already past ten o'clock. Did you log off early? "

Ji Xuan leisurely handed the rope in his hand to Jian Xixinjiu, yawned, and said to Xu Chu: " If you continue to talk nonsense with me, the extra hour tomorrow will be wasted. "

Xu Chu: "..."

Xu Chu glanced at Ji Xuan with resentment and logged off silently.

Ji Xuanyi washed the new wine with his sword and said, " It will take them at least an hour to get here. The world can't hold on any longer. We'll leave first. "

Jian Xixinjiu held the rope, nodded to Ji Xuan, and said, " Thank you for your hard work. "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and pulled Qi Qin offline.

And the Star City team continued to advance in the night.

When Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin went online the next day, not to mention Ge Chu, there were only a few other players from Fanxing City. After asking, they found out that it was too dark last night and some people took the wrong path by following the rope. They had to stop and slowly gather the team under the drizzling rain. In the end, they didn't log off until a little after twelve o'clock. Although the online time was delayed today, it was still difficult to get up.

Ji Xuan looked at his friend list and found that Xiaoxiao Yuxia and himself were not online. He was probably too tired yesterday, plus he had a mental breakdown the day before yesterday, which was quite difficult.

It was almost half past ten when we finally climbed up in the drizzle. By the time we had organized the team, it was almost twelve o'clock.

Xu Chu also climbed up the line at twelve o'clock and returned to the team.

Ji Xuanyi looked at Xiao Xiaoyuxia who was sending a message to the leaders of the scattered gangs and said, " Have the ropes in the maze been put away? "

Xiao Xiao Yu nodded: " Because you said the rope might refresh, so we had someone hold it all the time. But it's not realistic to have someone standing guard in the maze all the time, so we sent them back to the team. "

Qi Qin couldn't help but ask: " What about the people following behind? "

When he and Ji Xuanyi were chasing the main force, they met many independent people who were chasing the main force like them. Many of them left the team outside the maze. If there was no one standing guard in the maze to show the way, those independent people would definitely be stopped outside.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia nodded and said, " We have already considered this . The final challenge in the Lost Forest is probably the BOSS that blocked the road before . We should have enough manpower now. Support is not that important. Compared with the BOSS , we should be more vigilant about the forces of Daylight City. So we decided to let the later people go offline and rest after arriving outside, and regroup after we get out. "

Ji Xuanyi said: " But if there were no individual players who caught up later to make up for the loss, our team would actually have been losing people all the time. "

Hearing this, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia smiled and said, " Everyone has seen the maze last night. I can guarantee that no one wants to be left behind in the Lost Forest, especially when they have no idea how to get through the maze. The loss of manpower can basically be ignored. "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Okay, let's get ready to go. "

Xiao Xiaoyu nodded, and once again issued the warning not to fall behind, and then shouted: " Let's go! "

The knights and swordsmen at the front responded one after another, and the Starry City team started moving again.

According to Ji Xuanyi's experience the last time he came here , they should be able to reach the elf camp if they walk a short distance from the exit of the maze. However, the elves' attitude towards them was not friendly when they first came here last time. This time, they brought almost one-third of the players from the main city, so the elves' vigilance is likely to be even greater.

Ji Xuan had always told Xiao Xiaoyu about the elves' BOSS- level guards, and asked him to be prepared to start reducing the number of people before entering the camp.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was frightened when she heard this, and quickly asked the players to keep their noise down when walking, to be more restrained, and to be careful of possible attacks around them. Even if they saw someone attacking them, they must not fight back.

They came here to seek cooperation with the elves, not to make enemies. If they accidentally kill them, then they're done for !

In fact, Ji Xuanyi's guess was correct. Before they saw the elves, the troops from Star City were the first to experience a wave of elves' traps. Fortunately, everyone already had experience in dealing with traps. Although they were a little flustered, there was no casualty.

However, this is only the most basic means. After vaguely seeing the fence wall outside the elf camp, the large army of Star City finally ushered in the first formal wave of attack.

An overwhelming rain of arrows fell from the sky. Although the damage was not enough to kill people instantly, the speed at which the players lost blood was really alarming. Xiao Xiaoyu hurriedly asked the players to hold their weapons and armor on their heads to reduce the damage, and called in the priests from the scattered troops to start healing the front-row players who were hurt.

The advance of the Star City team stopped, but the rain of arrows did not stop, one wave after another, without even a break.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia put his sword on his head and asked Ji Xuanyi in frustration: " Are these elves done yet? We haven't even said a word to each other, what are they doing! "

Ji Xuanyi stood under the huge sword and said calmly, " Elves are such an unreasonable race – that's what the book says, but personally, I don't have such a bad impression of the elves. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia: "... It looks good. You should think of a solution! It won't work if the opponent keeps shooting like this! "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " Let's keep going forward. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was stunned for a moment, and said hesitantly : " If we continue to move forward, the troops behind us will also enter the attack range of the rain of arrows. I am afraid that the treatment will not be enough. "

Ji Xuanyi looked at him silently and said, " Then let the people in the back row stay where they are, and the people in the front row go forward with the pastor. "

This doesn't sound very safe, but given the current situation, it seems that there is no other way. They couldn't just stand there and wait for the arrows to run out. Who knew how quickly the system would refresh their weapons ...

Xiao Xiao Yuxia hesitated for a moment, then agreed with Ji Xuanyi's idea and said, " Okay, let's go over and take a look first – do you and Tianxia want to stay behind? Otherwise, Xu Chu and Tianxia can stay behind too. "

Before Ji Xuanyi could say anything, Xu Chu said slowly, " No, no, it's just a couple, and one of them is gay. It will have a bad influence. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Sword washing new wine: "..."

After a long while, Jian Xi Xin Jiu said in silence: " That's not what you said when you rode my horse before. "

Xu Chu said: " Really? That's different, you are a single gay man. "

Sword washing new wine: " ??? "

What's wrong with singles? Did they eat your rice?

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin, who looked confused, sneered, and said, " You think too highly of him. "

Xu Chu: "... That's true. Then Tianxia and I will stay behind? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and said, " Tianxia can't stay behind. The BOSS guarding the gate is a level 68 monster. No one can stop him except him. If Tianxia doesn't go, these people will die if they go to the front. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia frowned and said, " What should we do? The world still has to deal with Xue Piao Renjian, we can't take any risks. "

Mi Yin, who was standing beside him, immediately perked up when she heard this and said with a smile: " If the world can't do it, then let me go. "

Xiao Xiaoyu was stunned and looked at Mi Yin, who looked back at him with a chuckle.

Two seconds later, Xiao Xiao Yuxia showed an expression of sudden enlightenment: " Yes, we still have Mi Yin. If Tian Xia can't do it, just let Mi Yin take over! "

Mi Yin nodded repeatedly, and just as she was about to say something about the BOSS , "Leave it to me to fight, too," she heard Xiao Xiao Yu Xia say with a sigh of relief, " Then let Mi Yin and Xu Chu stay back together. If anything happens, let Mi Yin go and persuade Xue Piao Renjian to rebel! "

Miyin: "..."

That's not what he meant!!!

Before Mi Yin could speak, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia had already made a decision. She grabbed Mi Yin and Xu Chu's hands and said, " If anything happens to our group, the rest of the matter will be handed over to you. You are the hope of the entire Fanxing City! "

Mi Yin: "... Okay. "

After saying this, Mi Yin wanted to slap herself, Mi Xiaoyin! Why are you so good-tempered! However, the words had already been spoken and could not be taken back. Mi Yin retreated dejectedly, but Xu Chu said sincerely: " Please come back safely. This burden is too heavy for me to bear! "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Except for the people from the three major gangs in the front row, all the individual troops of the Star City team retreated more than ten meters. After making sure that they would not be attacked by the rain of arrows, Xiao Xiaoyuxia, leading the people from the three major gangs and the substitute priests gathered from the individual troops, began to move forward in the rain of arrows.

After noticing their movements, the rain of arrows stopped for a moment, and then shot towards them even more fiercely. Xiao Xiaoyu had to shout loudly: " Heal, heal!!! Don't stop using priest skills!!! "

In fact, the young girls in the priest group have been working very hard to add blood. One of them had an arrow stuck in her forehead, but she didn't even have a hand to pull it out. She was very tenacious in adding blood to her companions around her.

The place where Ji Xuanyi was was considered very safe. The area he was guarding was very large, like an umbrella over his head. Occasionally, arrows would be shot at him at tricky angles, but Ji Xuanyi would just knock them away with his staff without losing any blood at all.

However, in fact, this fierce rain of arrows only lasted for about ten meters before stopping. Xiao Xiao Yuxia was stunned for a moment, then tentatively put down the weapon and asked curiously: " They are not shooting anymore? Will we not be attacked after walking here? Is the previous section of the road a test of courage or something like that? "

Ji Xuanyi didn't look at him, but stared straight at the familiar figure at the entrance of the elf camp, and said in a deep voice: " No, they didn't shoot because they didn't need to do anything at this distance. "

Xiao Xiaoyu was stunned, and saw a slender figure appear at the gate of the elf camp. The elf, who looked very powerful, pulled out an arrow from his back with an expressionless face, put it on the bow, and aimed at them.

Xiao Xiaoyu swallowed her saliva and said, Is that " the boss of the elves ? "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " No, to be precise, he is a guard of the elves. "

Even though Ji Xuanyi is now at level 52 – the monsters that spawned on the road gave him a lot of experience, allowing Ji Xuanyi to level up, but when he looks at this BOSS again , his level and health bar are still full of question marks.

Ji Xuan said, " If we go any further, he will probably attack. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " What should we do? You shout to him from a distance? Will he still recognize you? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " I don't think he knows me. I wasn't the one who fought with him at the beginning. "

At this point, Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin and said, " The opponent's attack is very high. We can't group together to take the damage. It's useless for others to stay here. Let everyone disperse so as not to affect Tianxia's movement. He will go alone. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia quickly ordered everyone to disperse and said to Qi Qin: " Tianxia, you should take it easy. If you can't do it, just retreat. Don't force yourself. We are still counting on you to make snow drifts across the world! "

Qi Qin scratched his head and looked at Ji Xuanyi.

After leveling up and replacing equipment during this period, his attributes have increased a lot, but he still remembers the terrifying power of the BOSS 's attack and is not sure if he can defeat it.

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " Why are you looking at me? "

Qi Qin said cautiously: " Xuan Yi, you seem a little unhappy recently? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

How the hell can I be happy!

Ji Xuanyi sighed and said to himself in his heart that he should stay calm and be Buddhist.

Getting angry with such people would only make himself die of anger.

After a long while, Ji Xuanyi calmed down, glanced at Qi Qin, and said, " I'm not unhappy. Go ahead and we'll talk after the fight. "

Qi Qin held it in for a long time, and said to Ji Xuanyi: " For Xuanyi, I will win! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Fool.

Ji Xuanyi's expression eased, and he said, " This BOSS is very difficult. Last time, it was only because of the weakening that I could barely reduce 30% of its health. Obviously, it is impossible for every main city in this game to have a you. And if the BOSS is not weakened , basically anyone who hits it will die except you. The consumption of the number of players is too great, so the condition for passing it will definitely not be to defeat it. "

" What is that? " Qi Qin asked.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and shook his head, hesitantly saying: " I'm not sure either, but it should be that certain actions can trigger the plot. Maybe I just need to stay under his control for a while? "

" That's no problem, " Qi Qinchong smiled at Ji Xuan and said, " It's easy to do if you just persist for a while. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Be careful. "

Qi Qin responded, and after Ji Xuanyi walked to the side, he raised his guard and slowly took a step forward.

Just as Qi Qin took that step, a gleam of light flashed in the elf guard's eyes, and the arrow in his hand shot towards Qi Qin with a familiar green light!

Not far behind him was the scattered team of Star City. Qi Qin could not dodge, so he had to swing his guard vigorously and hit the arrow heavily from the side.

The moment the heavy sword and the arrow came into contact, a familiar huge force was transmitted along the sword. Facing this force, Qi Qin, who was over level 30, could only be passively knocked away. But now Qi Qin just took three steps back and barely stood. The green arrow was deflected to the side, and an exaggerated pit with a diameter of four or five meters was blasted on the ground.

Ji Xuan heard Xiao Xiaoyu gasp from the side.

Not only was it raining heavily, but almost everyone who saw this scene had an expression as if they could fit an egg in their mouth.

At least today, no one knows that the BOSS 's skills can be blocked in this way!

Someone recognized Qi Qin as the flying astronaut and his face turned red with excitement. Ji Xuanyi even heard a suppressed scream from a girl nearby.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia exclaimed " Fuck " repeatedly , saying: t the damage of Isn " this BOSS a bit terrifying? If there is no world, how are others going to survive? "

Ji Xuanyi looked at Qi Qin seriously and said, " There must be other ways to get through, but since we can get through it in a simple and rough way here, let's just get through it in a simple and rough way. "

After the BOSS failed in its first attack, it immediately shot the second and third arrows at Qi Qin. Qi Qin was a little awkward at the beginning, but later on, he recalled the feeling during the battle and his movements became more fluent. However, the power of the BOSS was really too great. Although Qi Qin blocked every attack and did not hurt other people by mistake, he was forced to move all over the field, jumping up and down, and occasionally being blown away, which was terrifying to watch.

Ji Xuanyi completely trusted Qi Qin's ability, so he just watched quietly. However, some people didn't know that Qi Qin was still able to handle the situation with ease. A priest girl in the substitute team saw that Qi Qin was in danger of receiving an arrow, and she became anxious and shouted loudly: " Be careful! "

After saying that, he subconsciously raised his staff, and a ball of holy light hit Qi Qin. Qi Qin was stunned, and saw that the elf guard suddenly changed its target. An explosive arrow instantly shot towards the direction of the substitute group. Before Qi Qin could even react, a white light exploded in the substitute group!

Chapter 85

Before Ji Xuanyi could say anything , Xiao Xiaoyuxia beside him screamed " Fuck !" and covered his chest with his hands, looking like he was about to vomit three pounds of blood.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Xiao Xiao Yuxia said with tears in her eyes: " My priest substitute team ..."

Ji Xuanyi was very upset . Seeing that Qi Qin was distracted , he was a little flustered for a moment . He said to Qi Qin helplessly: " Just fight , don't worry about anything else. "

Only then did Qi Qin slowly regain his own rhythm cycle.

Four or five priests flew back from the priest substitute group , and the remaining girls hugged each other and trembled, looking at the BOSS who was fighting with Qi Qin in horror .

Ji Xuanyi said helplessly to Xiao Xiao Yuxia: " Not many people died , calm down. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia covered her chest and said with her dying breath: " Every time someone dies, it's like stabbing me in the heart. Fewer deaths doesn't mean it doesn't hurt, do you understand? "

Ji Xuanyi: "... I don't understand. "

 " If you don't understand, don't blame me , " Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said sadly, " What the hell is going on ? It's OT after just one mouthful of milk ? "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly, " No one in the world is attacking that guard . Although he is the main target of the BOSS , he actually has no hatred . Although the hatred of the healing skill is low , it is still hatred. Of course, he will be OT . "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia didn't want to hear these, he just felt that his life was so miserable!

Ji Xuanyi said: " But if that's the case , I seem to have some idea of how to pass this level if there are other main cities here and there is no world. "

Xiaoxiao looked at him in the rain.

Ji Xuanyi said: " If the condition for passing the level is the duration of the battle , in addition to the main tank , you can pick a few death squads , preferably assassins , and have them constantly switch targets . If there is always someone with a higher hatred than the target, it will make it impossible to attack the target and it will be impossible to escape the battle. As long as there are enough people and the dodging movements are fast enough, the battle can last a sufficient amount of time. "

" But this is just one possibility. There may be other conditions to pass this level, " Ji Xuanyi said, " For such a large-scale mission, the conditions for passing the level should not be too rigid. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said in a daze: " Anyway, we already have the world, so it doesn't matter how we pass through. There's no need to study this kind of thing. "

Ji Xuanyi: "... Okay."

Ji Xuanyi felt that Xiao Xiaoyuxia's mental state seemed unstable , so he should not provoke him ...

Ji Xuanyi's guess was correct. The level here did not require defeating the BOSS . Three minutes later, the guards stopped their attacks and stepped aside. The king of the elves that Ji Xuanyi and his team had seen last time walked out of the camp.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was so moved that she almost cried and said, " Fuck, so many people died, it took so long, and so much effort, and finally I met the real culprit! "

Jian Xi Xinjiu, who was standing next to him, also gasped when he saw the queen of the elves. Ji Xuanyi was speechless and said, " I've never seen you care so much about a mission before. Why are you so angry? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said in a trance: " Fuck, this is so fucking handsome. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Damn, you fag!

Wang's attitude was completely different from the last time they met. It might be because Ji Xuanyi and the other five people did not pose any threat to the elf camp last time, but now there are so many players from Star City entering the maze. The expression on Wang's face was cold and arrogant.

" Intruders, you are quite powerful, and you have not harmed the elves here at all, " the king's eyes softened slightly when he said this, but only for a moment, and his eyes immediately turned cold: " Then please tell me the purpose of your coming here. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia hurriedly stepped forward and said, " Well, sorry, we are here to seek an alliance with the elves. "

" Alliance? Sorry, " Wang looked at Xiao Xiaoyu deeply and said, " The elves will not form an alliance with humans. Please go back. "

Xiao Xiaoyu was stunned. She didn't expect the talks to fall apart. The king turned around and wanted to leave with a group of elves. Jian Xixinjiu shouted, " Wait a minute! "

The king stopped and looked at the sword washing the new wine.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu blushed and said shyly, " Well ... are you elves still hiring? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Wang: "... Excuse me? I don't understand what you are saying. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu showed a disappointed expression. Ji Xuanyi came over, took off the emerald necklace around his neck, put it into Qi Qin's hand, held his hand and raised it, looking at the Elf King tentatively, and said: " Do you still recognize this? "

Some parts of the game carry data on past encounters with the player, while some parts do not record these things at all. However, the Elf King is a relatively advanced person after all. August can recognize Madam Harman's necklace, so there is no reason why the Elf King cannot recognize the necklace he himself gave away.

As expected, the Elf King recognized Qi Qin holding the necklace, and his expression softened instantly, as if spring breeze had melted the ice. He smiled and said, " So it's the heroes from before. Come in and tell us what you want to say. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu looked at Qi Qin in disbelief and said jealously: " What's going on? Why is he so nice to you? "

Ji Xuanyi: "... Wake up, that's just a joke. Don't be so desperate just because Xu Chu attacked you for being single, okay? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said: " What do you mean by being hungry and not being selective with food? Look at the girls around you, doesn't this explain the problem?! "

Ji Xuan took a look and found that the female priests who followed him were so excited that their eyes were shining, hugging the ball and screaming, and they almost ran over, just like the Introduction to Art and Sleepy Cat at the beginning.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Jian Xi Xin Jiu grabbed Qi Qin and asked, " What's going on between you and the Elf King? "

Qi Qin was confused and asked: " Ah? What's going on? "

Ji Xuanyi pushed Jian Xinxinjiu's hand away, protected Qi Qin behind him, and said expressionlessly: " If you can defeat the guard boss just now in a duel , you can also gain the favor of the Elf King – in a duel. "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

Is he destined to be single?

That's not right. Is falling in love a good way to get out of being single?

Jian Xi Xin Jiu became a daylily because he could not win the favor of the beauty due to his lack of strength. Ji Xuanyi had already walked towards the Elf King with Qi Qinchoa.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia hesitated for a moment, but still followed and said to the others: " The main force will stay where they are and wait for us to come back. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu also wanted to go forward, but a few female priests from Meng Tanggu grabbed him and said excitedly, " Boss, take us there, take us there, there are so many handsome guys there! "

Sword Washing New Wine: " No ..."

A girl said: " We are not competing with you for the Elf King. Really, I like that guard just now. Damn, he has high combat power and looks handsome. He is so fucking awesome! Take me in and let me touch him! "

Another girl said: " If you can't touch him, you can touch other guys. The elves are full of handsome guys! Ah~ I'm going to faint—— "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was full of black lines on his face and said: "... No, I was brought in by others, okay? How can I bring you in? What if there are too many people? What bad things will happen? You just wait here obediently, I will come out and tell you what is inside! "

After saying that, Jian Xi Xin Jiu broke off the hands of the girls who were holding him, and chased after Ji Xuanyi and the other three without mercy, leaving only a group of female priests who stretched out their hands to stop them, calling out with all their might: " Boss! Boss! Boss, come back and look at us! Jian Xi Xin Jiu, you big dog! You gay bastard! Come back! "

Seeing this scene, one might have thought it was the farewell between Jian Xi Xin Jiu and his harem. After hearing the crazy shouts of his own gang members, Jian Xi Xin Jiu jumped even faster, fearing that he would be caught and miss the opportunity to have close contact with so many handsome guys.

When the figures of Jianxi Xinjiu and the other three disappeared at the camp gate and were never seen again, sighs of regret were heard from the priests.

They also want to enter the elf camp ...

Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin had been here once before, and they didn't feel much about the elves coming and going in the camp. Xiao Xiao Yuxia, as a straight man, was also very calm, and his mind and eyes were full of ideas on how to conquer the elves. Only Jian Xi Xinjiu, the gay guy, had his eyes on his body and was absent-minded.

Ji Xuanyi took a look at the surrounding buildings and found that not only the maze outside, but also the scope of the elf camp had expanded a lot compared to the last time they came.

They were brought to a tall tree house. Ji Xuanyi still remembered that the last time they came to the elf camp, they entered a small wooden house through a gap in the fence. This tree house was much larger than the previous small wooden house and was more gorgeously decorated, with flowers and fruits everywhere. There was a huge round wooden table in the middle of the house, and they were invited to sit down.

The Elf King smiled and said, " Welcome back here again. The elves welcome you. "

After saying this, Ji Xuanyi discovered that the row of numbers representing the elves in his power list moved forward slightly and became friendly.

It seems that the previous data has been added.

Including the Elf King, the names around them also turned green, and the elves who always had stern faces softened their expressions a little when facing them.

Although the Elf King's eyes were on Qi Qin, who had actually completed the challenge, Ji Xuanyi still said, " We are here on behalf of Star City to seek cooperation from the elves. "

The Elf King glanced at Ji Xuanyi with an apologetic look on his face: " I'm sorry, although you are all our guests, the elves will not cooperate with humans. This is a rule that has been passed down for a long time. Even though the elves have been displaced, we still retain our pride and never ask for help from anyone. "

Xiao Xiaoyu frowned and said, " What's going on? Even Ji Xuanyi's negotiation with them is not working? "

Jian Xixinjiu was already obsessed with beauty and lost the ability to answer. Qi Qin shook his head and said, " I don't know either, but Xuan Yi must have a way. "

Xiaoxiao looked at Ji Xuanyi in the rain.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and continued, " I know that the relationship between the elves and humans is not good, but the tentacles of darkness have spread across the continent. We must unite all the creatures on the continent to defeat them. If you don't fight with us, the entire continent will be destroyed. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia quickly clapped her hands and whispered, " Well said, you are a cultured person! "

However, the Elf King did not buy it. Although he showed a hesitant look, he insisted after a moment: " Sorry, the elves will save this continent in their own way. If we can't do it, then we will perish with it. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said nothing.

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia couldn't help but say: "... What kind of broken logic is this! "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said, " Logic is secondary. The planner probably wants to tell us that words alone cannot solve the problem. Those nonsense words are just a way of shirking responsibility. There must be other ways to convince them in the elf camp. "

" That's what you said, " Xiaoxiao Yuxia said, " but what's the solution? Can we let other people in to look for it as well? "

If other people could come in, the team from Star City would probably fill up the entire Elf Camp, and by then no mission would escape their eyes.

" I think the possibility is not high. " Ji Xuanyi said, hesitating for a moment, and then asked the Elf King: " Can we bring other companions in? "

The Elf King smiled and said, " I'm sorry, but if they can defeat the strongest warriors of the elves, then they can also become guests of the elves. "

This sentence is no different from a rejection. If there was a second Qi Qin in Fanxing City, he wouldn't be so entangled at the entrance.

Xiao Xiaoyu looked at Ji Xuanyi and said, " What should we do now? "

Ji Xuanyi lowered his eyes, thought for a while, and shook his head, saying: " I don't know either. After all, the way we came in is really special. Maybe if we came in normally, there would be some hints for the subsequent tasks, right? "

Everything was fine before, but it got stuck at this stage. Xiaoxiao was scratching her head frantically in the rain.

However, it is obvious that the story of the elves should have continued from the time Ji Xuanyi and his team first found this place. Perhaps there would be some clues pointing to this mission in the previous discoveries, but they were ignored.

What clues are there ?

Ji Xuanyi rubbed his brows vigorously, the force seemed to be to open a hole in his head. Qi Qin quickly came over, took his hand away, and whispered: " If only Xiaotui hadn't died, he would be very familiar with the little girl here, maybe he could be of some help. "

Ji Xuan was stunned and looked at Qi Qin.

Qi Qin was confused and asked: " What's wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " It's nothing. Actually, you are not that stupid. "

Before Qi Qin could react, Ji Xuanyi said to the Elf King, " Why don't you see Xiao Nuo? She helped us a lot last time. "

Hearing Xiao Nuo's name, the Elf King showed a helpless expression and said, " That child is too stupid. I don't know where she has gone now. If you want to see her, I will send someone to find her. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Yes, I want to see her. Please help me. "

The Elf King called an elf behind him and said something to him. The elf nodded slightly, bowed to him, and left the tree house.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia whispered: " Who is Xiaonuo? "

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and said, " She was the guide who led us to the elf camp. After all, there are only so many clues in the elf camp. It's better to ask her about the situation than to sit here and think about it. "

Xiao Xiaoyuxia couldn't help much, so he could only sit there and wait. After a while, Xiao Nuo came in with the elf who had left before.

When Ji Xuan noticed that she looked up at him, he lowered his head again and stood silently behind the Elf King.

I don't know if Xiaotui's absence will have any impact on Xiaonuo's conversation.

But there is no point in considering this now. After all, it is impossible to get Xiao Cai in now. We can only hope that Xiao Nuo's appearance can help them find clues to conquer the elves.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and asked, " Why did Xiao Nuo go outside the city where humans live to buy food? "

Not to mention that the elves don't eat meat and don't like humans. There are a lot of fruits displayed as decorations in the tree house where Ji Xuanyi and the others are sitting. The elves also have a talent for planting, so there shouldn't be a problem of food shortage. Then it was very strange that Xiao Nuo appeared outside the Green Forest City at that time. It couldn't be that he did it simply to show the players the way. Even if his logic was touching, his behavior must have his reasons.

After Ji Xuanyi asked this question, Xiao Nuo immediately looked at the Elf King.

The Elf King did not look at her, but at Ji Xuanyi. After a long while, he whispered, " All members of the elves are excellent archers, but unfortunately, although we can sense nature, we are not so good at magic. "

" Xiao Nuo didn't want to buy food, " the Elf King sighed softly and said, " She wanted to obtain human food that contains magic. We know that humans have magic items similar to food and medicine. "

He looked at Ji Xuanyi and said helplessly: " Many people in the elves were injured by the evil god's attack and are unable to heal themselves. "

Ji Xuanyi and Xiao Xiaoyuxia both breathed a sigh of relief after hearing this.

Here is the key point. The elves cannot heal themselves. This should be the task of conquering the elves. As long as these people are rescued, the task should be completed.

Ji Xuanyi said to the Elf King: " Can you take us to see them? Maybe we can help them. "

The Elf King showed some hesitation, but after a moment, he nodded and said, " Then I'll leave it to you. Nothing is more important than our people. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia felt that she had never been so perceptive in her life, and immediately asked: " If we save them, will the elves cooperate with us? "

The Elf King looked at him for a while, and finally nodded in compromise, saying sadly: "Yes, if you can cure them, the elves are willing to cooperate with humans."

Xiaoxiao Yuxia clenched his fist and made a "successful" gesture.

Victory is finally in sight!

Xiaoxiao Yuxia live-broadcasted the mission progress to the players of Star City who were waiting outside, and followed the Elf King and his companions out of the door. The injured elves did not stay with the healthy elves, they were placed somewhere else.

After arriving at the destination, Ji Xuanyi suddenly remembered that he had once wondered why the elf camp was full of male elves. If there were no female elves, Xiao Nuo was obviously a girl.

It turned out that all the women and children in the elf camp were injured and were placed behind dense bushes in a hidden corner of the camp. It was thought that if an enemy attack occurred, these wounded who had no time to be evacuated could rely on the hidden terrain here to escape.

After following the Elf King here, Xiao Nuo trotted all the way and threw himself into the arms of a female elf. The elf was pale and did not look well, but she still smiled gently and stroked Xiao Nuo's hair.

"She is Xiao Nuo's guide," the Elf King explained: "The elves were born from the mother tree, and the guide is like another mother."

"The number of males and females in the elves is absolutely balanced, so when we fight, we are divided into two groups according to gender. When the men are fighting outside, the women will defend the territory with their children, and vice versa," the Elf King's handsome face was stained with sorrow, which broke Jian Xixinjiu's heart: "The minions of the evil god led the male warriors away and attacked our territory. Although the mother tree was taken out of the seeds at the last moment, the female elves and children who fought desperately in the territory were cursed."

"The injuries they suffered have never healed, and it is difficult for them to even stand. That is why Xiao Nuo disobeyed orders and left the camp without permission to seek help outside the human city."

Perhaps he could recognize the professions of these people, so the Elf King did not look at Qi Qin this time, but directly said to Ji Xuan, the only magician: "Please help us."

Before Ji Xuanyi could say anything, Jian Xi Xin Jiu patted his chest and said, "Leave it to us, no problem!"

Ji Xuanyi:..."

Xiao Xiao Yuxia saw the hope of completing the task, and now she was in high spirits, and said speechlessly: "Jian Xi Xin Jiu, you should wake up. You will not be happy if you fall in love with a paper man!"

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said calmly: "No matter what, as long as they look good, paper figures are much better than real people!"

Ji Xuanyi could only sigh that Jian Xi Xin Jiu looked like a winner in the three-dimensional life and was used to flirting with men, but as expected of a fan of Xue Mi, he was also quite involved in the two-dimensional world and had no pressure in switching.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia gave up on communicating with Jian Xi Xin Jiu. After the mission was over, Jian Xi Xin Jiu would leave here with the main group anyway. Whether he could be saved or not would be decided later. He looked at Ji Xuanyi and said, " I heard that warlocks also have healing skills. Do you want to give it a try? "

Ji Xuanyi, who was suddenly stabbed in the heart: "..."

The warlock's healing skills are really too cruel, but fortunately he has a new skill supported by August, so it's not too embarrassing to use it.

Ji Xuan looked at those pale-faced people. Their health bars were basically only one-third left. There was also a very obvious debuff under their avatars . The description read [Unhealable Wounds: Can be removed by defeating the minions of the evil god] .

If he guessed correctly, the evil god's minion was most likely the composite BOSS with the very eye-catching color scheme they encountered halfway . However, before that, Ji Xuanyi still wanted to try other methods. After all, his healing skills and the priest's healing methods are somewhat different. What if they are useful?

As Ji Xuan thought about it, he put a big red pill in his mouth, raised his staff, and started to give blood transfusion to the one in front.

This one was considered a relatively minor injury. Others' health was only one-third, while hers was almost half. Ji Xuanyi easily filled her health.

Although his health bar was dropping rapidly, this amount of treatment still made Ji Xuanyi, whose healing capacity had always been insufficient, feel very satisfied.

However, as soon as Ji Xuan stopped treating the patient, the patient's health dropped rapidly. Xiao Xiao couldn't help but frowned in the rain, but Ji Xuanyi, who had expected this, was very calm.

Ji Xuanyi took out a big red pill from his backpack and handed it to the man. The man glanced at Ji Xuanyi, said thank you in a low voice, and then swallowed the big red pill.

The moment the big red medicine took effect, her health increased and her complexion looked much better, but in less than two seconds, her health bar dropped again.

Ji Xuanyi looked at Xiao Xiaoyu and said, " There is no other way. We can only kill the boss by force . Let's prepare to count the people. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia sighed.

He really didn't want to waste any more manpower. After completing the elves' mission, no matter which map they chose next, they would definitely encounter the Sun City. If one person died at this time, one point of strength would be lost. Even if Qi Qin was there, he could fight ten people at once, but he couldn't fight a city at once.

But there is no other way at the moment. If you want to conquer the elves, you have to kill the BOSS .

Xiao Xiao Yuxia started to contact the people waiting outside with mixed feelings. Ji Xuanyi turned to the Elf King and said, " Magic treatment is useless to them. They are cursed by the minions of the evil god. Only by defeating the minions of the evil god can they be saved. "

The Elf King nodded, as if he had expected this. He said, " If they were fine, the strength of the entire elf race would actually be enough to fight against the evil god's minions. But now the elves only have half of their strength left – are you willing to help us? "

This was a very clear statement of issuing a mission. Ji Xuan nodded and said, " We are willing. "

As soon as he finished speaking, the four people present received the task of [Assisting the Elves] at the same time .

Ji Xuanyi opened the parchment and took a look. The reward for this task was quite standard. In addition to a large amount of experience and gold coins, it also gave him the favorability of the elves.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu suddenly became energetic. You know, he still thinks the Elf King is a yellow name now. If he can get this wave of favorability, it will definitely become a green name.

Xiao Xiaoyu confirmed the mission and was mobilizing personnel. Ji Xuanyi said to the Elf King: " Do you know where the evil god's minions are? "

The Elf King smiled and said, " We have the ability to communicate with plants. Unless it is in a barren desert, we can always find it. "

Ji Xuan nodded: " Our team is still outside, it will take some time, I'll trouble you from now on. " The Elf King responded.

" Wait a moment, " Xiao Xiao Yu Xia nudged Ji Xuan Yi with her elbow and said, " The elf camp is too small. If all the troops come in, it will be difficult to turn around. What should we do? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " They should come out with us. There are still injured people here. They shouldn't let so many people in. "

Ji Xuanyi guessed correctly. After talking with them, the Elf King followed him, just like the captain of the guard in Xinmu Town. As the main person for dialogue and accepting tasks, Ji Xuanyi was the one who followed him wherever he went. Moreover, the surrounding elves also gathered around him, forming a team.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu looked at Ji Xuanyi silently. Ji Xuanyi pretended not to notice his gaze. Seeing that there were more elves around, he said to Xiao Xiao Yuxia: " We can't stand here any longer. Let's go out first and transfer people as we go. "

Xiaoxiao responded in the rain.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a moment and added, " Remind them not to tease or touch you. Tell them that doing so will make them lose favor. "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: " Are you still going to talk about this? "

Ji Xuanyi looked at Jian Xi and the new wine.

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "... Yes, that makes sense. We have to be on guard! "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu: " ??? Am I this kind of person in your mind? "

Ji Xuanyi and Xiao Xiaoyu said in unison: " Yes. "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

It is not easy to get Ji Xuanyi and Xiao Xiaoyuxia to reach a consensus on something.

The Star City players who were waiting anxiously outside saw four of their representatives go in and a large group of people come out.

Looking at the long legs and handsome faces of the elves, the priest girls of Mengtanggu went crazy, screaming one by one: " Ahhh, you are worthy of being the gang leader! So awesome! I knew that joining Mengtanggu would be rewarding! Sword Washing New Wine, we love you!!! "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

That's not what you said when I fucking went in!

Jian Xi Xin Jiu coughed twice and said seriously: " You can only look, you can't touch or tease me, or you will lose your favorability! "

The priests all sighed with regret, but it was nice to see more, and everyone became happy again.

The other female players were also very excited, and Xiaoxiao Yuxia was so scared that she quickly sent several messages, asking them to think carefully. If they molested them here, they would lose their favorability, so it would be better to wait until the map is opened in the future and then slowly brush it off.

The female players managed to remain calm, but the attitude of the male players was completely at the other extreme. They all complained about the poor eyesight of the female players, saying that they were not handsome at all, they all looked the same, and were effeminate.

While the players were arguing, Xiaoxiao Yuxia put them into the team and surrounded them by the priests, while the Elf King and several leaders stood in the safest place.

I have to say, among these people standing together, the one who looks the most compatible with the Elf King should be Xu Chu. Both of them are dressed very luxuriously and have shiny equipment.

Xu Chu stroked his chin and looked at the Elf King, saying, " That's awesome. You brought back so many in one trip. I like this. Your taste is as high as mine. "

The Elf King probably understood that Xu Chu was praising him, so he tilted his head slightly and gave him a smile.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu rode his horse to separate the two of them, and said to Xu Chu tactfully: " It's not good, you've been here for six days. "

Xu Chu: "..."

Xu Chu said expressionlessly, " Go away, gay, don't disturb me from discussing fashion tastes with this new friend. "

Mi Yin teleported to Ji Xuanyi's side and whispered, " What's going on with Jian Xi Xin Jiu? Why does he look so gay ? He wasn't like this when he went in? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " He is originally a gay, and now he is just caught in a one-sided love-hate relationship with her. "

Mi Yin was confused and asked: "... there is still love and hate entangled? "

Ji Xuanyi: " So it is one-sided. "

Miyin: "..."

Suddenly I remembered that among so many people who are " gay " , Jianxi Xinjiu, who is obviously gay, doesn't even have anyone to form a group with. He can only date others, which is very miserable.

Mi Yin glanced at Jian Xi Xin Jiu who was arguing with Xu Chu, and said from the bottom of her heart: " If possible, I would like to let Xue Piao Ren Jian be his wife, and let him have a scandal. I can do that! "

Ji Xuanyi: "... what did Xue Piao Renjian do wrong? "

Mi Yin burst into tears: " What did I do wrong again! "

Ji Xuanyi patted his shoulder comfortingly and said, " It's okay. After this is over, maybe we can meet Xue Piao Renjian. Then you can ask him to explain it together. You can use the world channel or the map channel. People from both main cities will be there by then, so there won't be any problems. "

Mi Yin recalled the last time she and Xue Piao Renjian cleared things up together.

Miyin: " Xue Piao, tell them that we are innocent! Hurry up and tell them! "

Snowfall: "..."

Miyin: " Speak up!! "

Snowfall: "....."

Miyin: " QAQAQAAQ say it!!!! "

Snowfall: "..... Yeah. "

Everyone: " Wow, Mi Yin is bullying Xue Piao again, what a scumbag ..."

Miyin: "..... ??? "

The memories are over.

Mi Yin said to Ji Xuan with a pale face: " Forget it, I'll do it alone. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..... ??? "

Miyin, are you really a gay?

Chapter 86

The feeling of having a large team sandwiched between a large group of players was really novel . Individual players at the back kept coming to the front to take a look and then went back . Some female players simply stayed in the front row, and the formation suddenly became very chaotic.

But this was something Xiao Xiao Yu Xia should worry about. Ji Xuanyi calmly said to the Elf King: " We are ready. "

Elf Dynasty He smiled and said, " Then , let's go. "

The elves sent out an elf to lead the way , and the three major gangs followed in an orderly manner with other individual members.

The elves did not lead them out of the maze, but stopped in a dense forest outside the elf camp. As soon as they stood firm , Xiaoxiao Yuxia quickly pushed the individual players who had joined the three major gangs in order to get close to the handsome guy to the back, barely keeping the formation stable .

The Elf King looked solemnly into the depths of the dense forest and said in a deep voice: " It has actually come in. "

Ji Xuanyi looked over and asked, " Where is it? "

The Elf King stretched out his hand , and a starlight flashed on his fingertips . Then, he gently raised his index finger, and the starlight flew out.

The Elf King whispered, " Everyone, be on alert , and set off. "

The elves immediately and in unison took off the bows from their backs, held them in their hands, and strung the arrows in one second.

Look at this execution ability!

After Xiaoxiao Yuxia sighed, she began to have a private chat while shouting at the players to prepare for battle.

The three major gangs were still okay , but the sight of the scattered troops drawing their weapons sparsely made Xiao Xiao Yuxia feel sad.

The team had not gone far before they encountered vines summoned by the BOSS using the same old trick . Fortunately, with the warnings from the elves and the precautions of the players, even in the dense forest, the tragic situation like last time did not occur. Only two heavily armored warriors with no agility at all were caught up. With the help of the elves' arrows, they were quickly rescued without losing much blood.

The BOSS, who found that the vine attack was ineffective , screamed hoarsely and appeared again. It was indeed the same one as before, and its health bar was still at 55%.

The Elf King was delighted and said happily: " It's injured! Take this opportunity to not let it escape! "

Xiao Xiaoyu responded and immediately led the swordsmen to rush towards the BOSS again. They also used the rain of arrows on the BOSS that they had used on the players before.

Dense arrows fell on the BOSS . Although the damage was not as high as that of the players, it was also a help.

The most exciting thing is the gatekeeper of the elves. This strong and handsome warrior stood there expressionlessly, shooting arrows with green light at the BOSS. Every time an arrow hits the BOSS , the latter's health bar will drop at a speed visible to the naked eye.

When a well-known strong person stands by your side to help you, it always gives you an indescribable feeling of security, as well as a girl's heart beating " thump thump " .

The female players were losing blood and screaming excitedly, looking like they were about to faint, shouting things like " So handsome! "

Ji Xuanyi clearly saw that the Elf Guardian had at least twenty HOTs from different priest players , as well as layers of mage shields. The skill special effects on the body never stopped lighting up, almost blinding Ji Xuanyi's eyes.

A female player screamed: " Fuck, so handsome! I'm going to fucking blow it up when the favorability system comes out!!! "

It immediately aroused waves of agreement.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Don't treat the holographic online game as an otome game!

Thinking back to the original dislocation refresh event, I don't know what kind of tragic Shura field will appear at that time ...

Xiao Xiao Yuxia heard something wrong and turned around to see the condition of the Elf Guard. She shouted in anger, " Can't you use all your skills to the front? What's the point of healing that guy? His health is even a question mark! "

A female priest from Mengtanggu immediately responded loudly: " Don't worry, Master of the World, we are all veterans in healing, your health line is very stable , there will be no delay! " Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

He is at the front, so of course he knows that his blood line is stable and won't cause any trouble, but the treatment is too different. Isn't it okay to feel unbalanced?

But there's nothing that can be done about it. He has a handsome face and is so talented, so it's normal for him to have fans.

this BOSS were really nothing new, and Ji Xuanyi and his team also got help from the elves. As they were prepared for the rampage phase and skills, the Starry City team repelled the BOSS without much effort , and even the casualties were controlled within double digits. None of the elves died, and all survived under the careful care of the priestesses. Until the end, the elf guards were still shining with the light of shields and healing spells.

Xiao Xiao Yu sighed: " Look at these pastors, what happened to those dozens of brothers who returned to Star City? "

Ji Xuan said: " Those who died and came back seemed to be crispy. "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: " I don't want to listen! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Xiao Xiaoyu saw Ji Xuanyi's eyes and immediately came back to his senses. He coughed very seriously and said, " The boss has been defeated. Let's see how the mission is going. "

Ji Xuanyi withdrew his gaze and opened his parchment, which showed that the mission had been completed, but he needed to find the Elf King to hand in the mission.

The Elf King was right next to them. He had not moved during the battle just now. Ji Xuanyi was about to talk to him when he saw the Elf King striding towards the direction he came from.

Ji Xuanyi realized that the other party should be confirming the status of the other half of the elf. If there was no problem, the mission should be completed.

Qi Qin had not rushed to the front just now because he still had to deal with Xue Piao Renjian.

Now he was a little free, so he came to Ji Xuanyi and said something to make conversation: " Is the mission almost finished? "

Ji Xuanyi responded.

Qi Qin asked again: " So where are we going next? Are there two more maps? "

Speaking of this, Ji Xuanyi frowned.

Although the team from Star City was advancing at the fastest speed, the level gap was there. If he guessed correctly, the team from Sun City was probably already doing the second mission.

Ji Xuanyi lowered his eyes, thought for a moment, and said, " To be precise, apart from the [Lost Forest] where we are now and the [Secretive Sea] that Youyue City is heading to , there are three more unknown maps. One of them has probably been completed, and the other one should be in progress. Our next target is the remaining one, and there is a high possibility that we will encounter Youri City halfway. "

For Star City, only one of the three options is correct. If you choose the wrong one, everyone will be dead , Ji Xuanyi's mission will not be completed, and the players of Star City will only have one guaranteed reward.

However, for Day City, the action of sniping Star City is also a choice between two options. As long as the news of the action in Star City is not exposed, the unknown maps of Day City are actually two maps including [Lost Forest] in addition to [Clostrate Sea] and the two maps they have already set foot in.

However, judging from the way Ji Xuanyi plans to obtain intelligence about the Sun City, it is almost impossible for the whereabouts of the Star City not to be exposed.

Qi Qin was stunned and asked: " How do you know the information about Day City? "

Ji Xuan glanced at him and calmly opened the private chat channel.

You whisper to [Wanshishengyi] : Are you there?

After a while, a reply came.

[Wansi Shengyi] : Here! Brother Ji, do you still remember me? How are you doing in Star City? Is anyone bullying you? If you have any problems, just call us and we will come to you immediately !

Ji Xuan raised an eyebrow at Qi Qin.

Qi Qin: "..."

It's that simple?!

But it is also true that from the secondary city to the three main cities, players can choose the city according to their preferences. Some, like Ze Yu Si Shui, go to live with relatives and friends, and of course, there are also people like Wan Shi Sheng Yi who go their separate ways. Although the three main cities are now in a competitive relationship, there are no problems in the relationship between most of the people who separated at the beginning. Many things are not confidential to them, or even if they are confidential, they will not hide them from their friends. It is very easy for the news to leak out.

Just like now, Ji Xuan asked which map of Youri City had not been visited in just one sentence.

" [Heavy Flame Volcano] , " Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " The race there is the dwarves who love forging weapons. However, it is easier to find out than I thought. Sun City must know where our next target is. "

Qi Qin said: " Does that mean there will definitely be a battle next? "

Ji Xuan said: " It's highly likely. After all, we only know the destination. If the itineraries are different, we might miss each other. "

" But I think the probability of missing it is a little small, " Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " The scattered troops are too chaotic. It is too easy for a few spies to sneak in. Even if it rains heavily, there is no way to check everyone one by one. The other party may know everything about our current progress. "

Qi Qin frowned.

" But that's all, " Ji Xuanyi smiled, " I'm just telling you the way. With you here, we can stop the enemy and block the water. "

When Qi Qin heard this, he blushed and laughed, saying, " Yes, no matter what happens, I will help Xuan Yi do it. "

Ji Xuanyi looked at him with a complicated expression and said, " Okay, keep going. "

Qi Qin looked confused.

The Elf Camp was soon reached. Even though they had fought side by side before, it was obvious that the Elf King would not allow a large force to enter the Elf Camp. After leaving the elves guarding at the door to block a group of players who were still infatuated with the camp, the Elf King, along with Ji Xuanyi and the other six, quickly rushed to the corner where the wounded were hiding.

After entering the camp, the elves dispersed quietly just as they had gathered before, returning to their posts. Xu Chu was amazed at what he saw, but he did not forget to criticize Xiao Xiao Yuxia and said, " When did the people from the three major gangs become like this? "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "... Please wake up, we are playing a game, not military training, okay? "

It would be fine if he just arranged the formation for the activity, but he also had to make it look the same. Is he playing the game or is the game playing him? If he really did this, the three major gangs would be broken up!

Xu Chu raised his eyebrows and stopped talking.

The Elf King led everyone to a hidden place and waved away the dense branches and leaves.

Then he saw that the injured elves were either sitting or standing. The DEBUFF under their avatars was gone, their health bars were slowly recovering, and their faces looked better.

The Elf King showed an excited smile and turned to Ji Xuan and said, " Thank you, adventurers. You will be the elves' friends forever! "

As soon as he finished speaking, a soft white light began to shine on Ji Xuanyi and the others, and their levels rose. Ji Xuanyi clearly felt that the attitude of the elves around him became warmer, from expressionless faces at the beginning to smiling faces now. He guessed that it was because of the increase in reputation.

The Elf King smiled and said to Ji Xuan, " Thank you for your help. The elves are willing to form an alliance with humans to fight against the coming dark forces! "

After a long silence, Xiao Xiaoyu, who was staring at the world channel, asked: " Is this the end? "

Ji Xuan looked at Xiao Xiao Yu Xia and said slowly: " What else do you want? "

" No, " Xiao Xiao Yuxia frowned, " If this is considered mission accomplished, at least make a world announcement! "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " Then the whole of Dayo City will know where we went and what we did. "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " Although Sun City probably knows our whereabouts very well, this is the first main city competition mission after all. The authorities will definitely not easily reveal the information of any of the cities. They will probably have to wait until all five missions are completed before issuing a world announcement. "

" That's true, " Xiao Xiaoyu said sadly, " but I still feel disappointed when I can't see the world announcement. It feels like I've been busy for so long but got nothing in return. "

Although in fact the system has already sent the rewards to them, in addition to the experience given by the task, there are also letters from the postman, only the guild rewards have not been sent out, and it is estimated that they will have to wait for the final settlement.

Ji Xuanyi patted Xiao Xiaoyu's shoulder comfortingly and said, " There is still one more task. "

Not only is there a mission, but you also have to confront the Daylight City head-on.

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "... Can I choose death? "

Before Ji Xuanyi could speak, Xu Chu grabbed Xiao Xiaoyu's hand and said earnestly and affectionately: " Promise me that you will live well. "

Xiao Xiaoyu said expressionlessly: " Get lost. "

The general rewards were distributed, and the Elf King came to Qi Qin again. The emerald green necklace was still hanging on Qi Qin's chest, flashing a faint light.

The Elf King smiled and extended his hand to Qi Qin.

When Qi Qin was about to be touched, he stepped back repeatedly, looking at Ji Xuanyi and muttering softly: " It's a bad influence, a bad influence. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

I don't know whether to be angry or to laugh.

Fortunately, he didn't care about these things. He still put his hand where it was and smiled at Qi Qin: " Warrior, if you are willing, I think I can add the elves' blessing to the necklace again. "

Qi Qin then showed an expression of sudden enlightenment, took off the necklace from his neck and put it into the hands of the Elf King.

The Elf King whispered a series of spells to the necklace, and when the emerald green necklace glowed brighter, he returned it to Qi Qin. However, Qi Qin found that the properties of the necklace did not change much, except that the chance of rebound damage increased from a pitiful 0.01% to 0.1%.

However, this data still seems to be useless ...

But it is true that the appearance has become more beautiful. Qi Qin took the necklace and hung it on Ji Xuanyi's chest without hesitation.

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin and found that the latter was staring at another necklace on his chest that he had obtained from Mrs. Harman.

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Don't even think about it, they're all mine. "

Qi Qin: " QAQ ! "

In order to facilitate the players of Star City to leave, the elves opened the passage of the maze. The Elf King said that once the injured members of the tribe recover, the elves will once again be active on the front lines against the evil god. If a crisis occurs in Starry City, the elves will definitely go to help.

Ji Xuanyi showed a look of understanding.

It is estimated that after the world quest [Assembly Order] is completed, the BOSS will attack the city. It seems that the races they have conquered will be able to assist the main cities at that time.

It took Xiao Xiaoyu a lot of effort to organize the team and leave the elf camp. Not only were many female players reluctant to leave the handsome elves, but many male players were also obsessed with the beauty of the female elves.

Actually, that's all fine. After all, they don't keep their word and they have to leave. The bad thing is that Jian Xi Xin Jiu is also bewitched by beauty and has lost his will to fight.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu is flirting with the Elf King madly, but the latter has been in a state of being moved but rejected. That is to say, now that their power and reputation are friendly, when it was still in the yellow name state, Jian Xi Xin Jiu would have been hammered into the ground.

Xiaoxiao Rain: "... How embarrassing."

Xu Chu smiled and said, " I think it's okay. I feel like there are a lot of people who want to conquer me. It's not shameful. "

Xiao Xiaoyu sighed: " Fortunately, there is only one Jian Xi Xin Jiu. If my brother and Liu Tian were here, we would be doomed. "

Jing Yunhan is also a person who cares about appearance. If he sees someone this good-looking, he might throw a tantrum and ask his cousin to get him one, or he might even plan to live here.

Xu Chu felt that it was unlikely that Liu Tian would stay here and not leave. After all, the latter had become so stupid that he apparently had no appreciation of beauty or ugliness.

Mi Yin suddenly came over and said hurriedly: " Stop talking nonsense and leave as soon as you can. Xuan Yi seems to be in a hurry. I think he's not in a good condition. "

Upon hearing this, Xiao Xiao Yuxia immediately looked at Ji Xuanyi and found that the latter was indeed looking at the mess in front of him with an expressionless face, with murderous aura oozing from his body, as if he would suddenly explode in the next second.

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

If Ji Xuanyi explodes, he will be responsible for all the losses, okay!

Xiao Xiao Yuxia immediately toughened up and told the leader of the Sanren Gang to reorganize the team immediately and leave behind those who refused to leave. Only then did the team from Fanxing City begin to slowly gather together.

However, it is easy to deal with individual soldiers and gang members, but what about Jianxi Xinjiu?

Xiao Xiaoyu subconsciously looked at Mi Yin. Mi Yin was stunned for a moment and took out a dagger.

" Isn't it not good to learn from Ji Xuanyi like this? " Xiao Xiao Yu Xia hesitated and said, " Why don't we talk to him about the reason first? The time for you and Xue Piao Renjian to meet is not far away. I believe he will know the trade-offs. "

Miyin: "..."

I almost forgot to wash the sword and drink the new wine!

Mi Yin said expressionlessly: " Ji Xuanyi's method is quite useful. I decided to learn from him. " After saying that, Mi Yin left Xiao Xiao Yu Xia and pounced on Jian Xi Xin Jiu, beating the latter up.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu finally came to his senses after being beaten by Mi Yin, and he kept saying, " I know, I know! Are we going to leave? I know, don't hit me anymore! "

Seeing that Jian Xixinjiu was really sober, Mi Yin finally breathed a sigh of relief and said to Ji Xuan: " It's all right here too, we can go now. "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " The Lost Forest and Heavy Flame Volcano are not very far apart , but whether you encounter system monsters or people from Day City on the way, it will still take a lot of time, so hurry up. "

It has been four days since the server was opened, and nearly half of the ten-day deadline has passed. Next, he will have to face the obstruction of the Daylight City. Ji Xuanyi doesn't know whether he can really complete the task within the deadline.

Thinking of August who was still waiting in the Mage Tower in Star City, Ji Xuanyi couldn't help but frowned.

The elves escorted the Starry City team all the way to the opening of the maze. The Elf King stood at the front and said goodbye to Ji Xuanyi and the others.

There were only a few farewell words, and Ji Xuanyi didn't want to listen to them anymore. He whispered to Qi Qin on the side. Xiao Xiao Yuxia, as the leader who had brought all the players of such a big city here with great difficulty, cherished this very much.

Every word he says now is the reward for all his efforts! It would be a shame if he didn't listen carefully!

After Xiao Xiao Yu Xia finished speaking, Jian Xi Xin Jiu rode his white horse and walked to the side of the Elf King in a very dashing manner.

She raised her head innocently and looked at him with a smile.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu sighed, took out a small pink flower from his backpack, bent down, and inserted it into the Elf King's hair, saying: " Although we are about to part, this is only temporary. When we defeat the Sun City, I will come back to marry you-- "

The Elf King smiled, plucked the flower off, threw it on the ground, and said frankly: " Sorry, I don't understand what you are saying. "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

The Elf King continued to smile: " Goodbye. "

Jian washed the new wine and said: " Goodbye. "

The main force had already turned around, and Jian Xi Xin Jiu said goodbye to the Elf King. He rode his horse and chased after him, shouting: " Wait for me! "

When the main force walked out of the maze, the wave of knights who had been sent back earlier also hurried up. As they had communicated beforehand, many people were waiting for the main force outside the maze. When they saw someone coming out, they hurriedly joined the main force and found their own positions.

Jing Yunhan and Liu Tian also returned to the team. After seeing Xiaoxiao Yuxia, Jing Yunhan immediately rushed over and called out " Brother! " His tone was so sweet that Ji Xuanyi shivered. However, Jian Xinxinjiu showed a strange expression.

Liu Tian came back on his horse, the first thing he said was: " Xu Chu is not dead yet? "

Xu Chu glanced at him and said slowly, " I'm not you, a wimp. "

Six days: "..."

How dare you call others bad?

However, Liu Tian's cause of death was indeed vegetables. After all, in the same situation, Jian Xi Xinjiu was still alive. Liu Tian had no choice but to keep a sour face and keep silent, just watching Xu Chu climb onto his horse's back with a grunt.

Liu Tian moved back in disgust.

Xu Chu raised an eyebrow.

The large force began to slowly change its direction of advance.

Ji Xuanyi held up a crude world map and said, " There are roads connecting the five field maps, but there are a few dotted lines representing small paths. If Day City intends to ambush us, they will most likely choose these places with dotted lines. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia scratched his head and said, " Do you have an idea of the current situation? "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " We set out from the Lost Forest. The field map next to it is the Heavy Flame Volcano. There is also a claustrophobic sea between the volcano and the Wind Howling Valley where the Sun City army is currently located. In terms of the speed of the large army, we should have an advantage. "

Ji Xuanyi looked up at Xiao Xiao Yuxia and said, " But the mission in Day City was completed so quickly. They must have divided their forces before that. They completed the simplest Death Swamp first, and then gathered a large force to do the second mission. Now it is probably just the beginning, or only halfway. In short, it is impossible for them to transfer all their forces to snipe us. It is most likely a knight unit with a small number of people but very high combat effectiveness and mobility. "

" The distribution of the five outdoor maps is irregular, and we cannot rule out the possibility that they have found a way to take a shortcut. This knight army will most likely reach the Heavy Flame Volcano before us. However, most world quests are related to PVE . The knight profession is as useless as the warlock in PVE . They have absolutely no way of handling this quest alone, so they will not stop at the Heavy Flame Volcano and will definitely head straight for the Starry City army. "

" Their goal is to trip us up and try to cause as much damage as possible to the Starry City team. If Xue Piao Renjian is also here, the other side might even hope that Xue Piao Renjian can find a way to send us all back to Starry City. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said speechlessly: " Although Xue Piao Renjian is very awesome, I am mainly worried about this problem because of the strength of Daylight City itself. If, as you said, the number of people coming is not large, then this goal is too exaggerated. Although we have lost a lot of people from the beginning to now, we still have thousands of people in our team, if not ten thousand. How many knights can Daylight City form? "

Ji Xuanyi shook his head and said irresponsibly: " That's something you should be concerned about. How could I know so much? "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " Anyway, I'll just remind you of two things. First, pay attention to the dotted lines on the path. When you're outnumbered and have the advantage of speed, it's absolutely impossible not to launch a sneak attack. Second, think of a way to deal with the full knight lineup, otherwise we can only wait for the opponent to rush the group of individual players behind us into a mess. Even if we catch up in time, we may not be able to complete the task with the remaining strength we have. "

Xiao Xiaoyu swallowed her saliva and said, " Is there any chance that we won't encounter the other party? I feel like there are a lot of blank areas on the map where we can go. We can take a shortcut or something ..."

The sound of the rain gradually became quieter and quieter, and finally disappeared.

Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " I won't comment on the idea of taking such a large group of people to take a shortcut without a map and with full confidence. As for not encountering them ... I know that their main force is now in the Howling Wind Valley. Don't they know where our main force is? "

Xiao Xiaoyuxia had also thought about the intelligence aspect. To be precise, before the event started, he had considered contacting his old acquaintances to get information. However, Xiao Xiaoyuxia's actions to win people's hearts were too perfect. Except for two people who went to Youyue City because of their good friends, the other friends Xiao Xiaoyuxia met in the Novice Town and the secondary city were basically in the Chenshi Guild, and there was no one to ask at all.

Most of the information about Fanxing City was actually obtained from Ji Xuanyi!

Xiao Xiao Yuxia thought about it again, his face suddenly turned ugly, and he said: " Could it be that someone from Day City has sneaked into our team? "

Ji Xuanyi gave him a cold look and said, " What do you think? "

The answer is of course yes. Although Star City has no intention of monitoring the movements of the other two cities, Sun City can be said to treat Star City as prey. Even if it takes some effort, it will definitely mark it first. If there is any player from Sun City mixed in the Star City team, as long as he teams up with the people from Sun City, the entire movement of the Star City team will be clearly and clearly marked on the parchment in the form of a blue arrow.

Xiao Xiao Yu said with a bitter face: " So we have actually been exposed for a long time? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Yes. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia asked: " Why didn't you say it before? "

" I thought you knew, " Ji Xuanyi said sincerely, " I'm sorry, I overestimated you. "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

In fact, it is not Xiaoxiao Yuxia's fault. He would definitely be aware of this at normal times, but he has too many things to worry about during this period of time. He has to maintain the stability of such a large team. He hasn't solved all the internal problems yet, so how can he have the time to consider external troubles!

Ji Xuanyi said, " But it's useless to tell this kind of thing. There are so many scattered people in Star City. Do you want to find them one by one? Even if you really have the energy, what if they sent an assassin? Can you still find the invisible person? "

The rain was drizzling and choking.

Ji Xuanyi lowered his eyes and said, " So there is no need. This kind of thing cannot be defended. This battle must be fought, and the only way is to solve the problem from the root. "

" First, how to deal with sneak attacks, and second, how to deal with the knights' group attacks, " Ji Xuanyi looked at Xiao Xiao Yuxia: " If these two points are solved, we will not lose. "

Xiao Xiao Yu looked at him with resentment and said, " It's easy to say, everyone knows these two points, the problem is that I can't think of them. "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " We still have at least a whole day before we encounter them. Don't be in a hurry. Think about it slowly. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was so worried that she was about to go bald, but Ji Xuanyi was still as calm as ever. It was almost afternoon when Xiao Xiao Yuxia suddenly came to her senses.

No, the one who should be most anxious is Ji Xuanyi! He has already received the guaranteed reward, why is he so anxious! One reward is already very difficult to get, and it is worthy of the players of Star City who came out for this trip. Whether or not to get the next reward is up to fate! The drizzling rain was like a sudden enlightenment for me, and I suddenly woke up. I was suddenly filled with joy.

Xiao Xiaoyuxia had just relaxed when Ji Xuanyi suddenly said, " If the mission fails, I will sacrifice you to the gods. "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

" No, why? " Xiao Xiaoyu said in confusion: " Why not Liu Tian and Xu Chu! "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " I like you. "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Boss, please let me go!

But it was of no use. Ji Xuanyi was not a reasonable person. Xiaoxiao Yuxia could only feel aggrieved and continue to work diligently as a laborer.

far from the Lost Forest , at least one third closer than walking from Star City to the Lost Forest. The good news was that they spent less time on the road, but the bad news was that after half the journey, the closer to the Heavy Flame Volcano, the hotter it would become.

The game "Domain" retains the temperature system, but of course it will not display extreme temperatures such as severe cold or scorching heat. After all, players do not come to the game to suffer. The temperature system in "Domain" can only allow players to feel ordinary cold and heat, cool river water, or warm sunshine. Even if the map environment changes, the temperature changes are within everyone's acceptable range.

But even if you don't feel particularly uncomfortable, it is actually very tiring to stay in a relatively hot state and have to rush on the road.

As for Ji Xuan alone, he was about to explode.

Chapter 87

Xu Chu: " Ji Xuanyi—— "

Ji Xuanyi: " Get lost. "

Xiaoxiao Rain: " Ji Xuanyi ..." "

Ji Xuanyi: " Shut up. "

Sword Washing New Wine: " Ji Xuanyi ah ..."

Ji Xuanyi: " Do you want to die? "

Qi Qin: " Um , Xuan Yi ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi was silent for a moment , frowned and looked at Qi Qin: " What are you doing? "

Qi Qin looked at the people around him who were affected by Ji Xuanyi's sudden explosion and said timidly, " Are you okay? "

Ji Xuan said expressionlessly: " It's okay. "

There's something fishy going on!

Ji Xuanyi's patience, which was already very limited , was finally exhausted during the journey. The hot temperature made Ji Xuanyi like a firecracker that would explode at the slightest touch . From the time they set out in the morning till now, except for Qi Qin, no one else had been able to speak a complete sentence to Ji Xuanyi , and most of them were blown away by him.

Ji Xuanyi tugged at the collar of his warlock robe in annoyance , but the equipment was too close to his body and could not be torn open at all, which made Ji Xuanyi even more annoyed. In fact, wearing more or less clothes in the game does not affect the temperature. Ji Xuanyi also knows this , but he can't control himself at all.

Others didn't actually feel that hot. Seeing Ji Xuanyi's expression, they were all hesitant to speak . Qi Qin came over and fanned him with his hands, chanting: " If you keep calm , you will feel cooler . If you keep calm, you will feel cooler ..."

Ji Xuanyi stopped what he was doing and looked at Qi Qin blankly. Qi Qin shut up awkwardly. If Ji Xuanyi could be calm whenever he wanted , he would not be Ji Xuanyi.

Qi Qin had no choice but to silently and obediently fan Ji Xuanyi at the side . Although it had no physical effect , Ji Xuanyi actually showed signs of slowly recovering.

However, before Ji Xuanyi could calm down, Xiao Xiaoyu came over with a sly look on his face and said, " Ji Xuanyi, we're about to reach the dotted line section that's prone to ambush. Can you make some arrangements? "

Ji Xuan was furious in an instant: " What the hell are you planning? Kill them! Fuck Xue Piao Renjian! "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Ji Xuanyi has completely lost the ability to think. He is in the state of a fire-breathing dinosaur and only wants to fight with people!

Xiaoxiao Yuxia had no choice but to run to Xu Chu to discuss it.

Xu Chu thought for a moment and said, " To be honest, I've experienced similar situations when playing games before. "

Xiao Xiaoyu's eyes lit up and she said, " Then what? How did you solve it?! "

Xu Chu said seriously: " I talked to them and bought their gang. "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Xu Chu touched his chin and said, " This method doesn't seem to work right now. There are too many people in Day City. I don't have enough money to buy it this way. "

Xiao Xiao Yu almost knelt down to him and said, " You know it too! Come up with a proper solution quickly. Now Ji Xuanyi can't be relied on. This team depends on you and me! "

Xu Chu said: " Did the vanguard find anything when they passed through the dotted line? "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia shook her head and said, " The Knights' mission is to explore the official checkpoints on the road, not to look for the ambushed Day City troops. Moreover, even if they find them, the Knights will probably be wiped out. The enemy will change the ambush point and the same will happen. So we didn't let them waste time patrolling the surroundings. Besides, there are too many monsters on the road, and it is not convenient for them to stop. "

The road that the Starry City troops are taking now is still infested with monsters sent by the evil god. Especially after approaching the Heavy Flame Volcano, the monsters' attacks begin to have a burning effect, causing the players to lose blood continuously for dozens of seconds. It is very annoying. It is okay for the large troops to have the support of priests, but if the knight troops stop and are attacked, they may lose blood and die from the burning effect.

That would be too unfair.

Xu Chu pondered and said, " Should we send the assassination troops out to investigate the situation first? "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said: " It has been sent out, but there is no news yet. "

The environments near the Heavy Flame Volcano and the Lost Forest are completely different. The latter is surrounded by abundant vegetation and the vision is unclear, so ambushes are the most difficult to guard against there. However, the former has very few obstacles blocking the view, mostly rocks and bare hillsides.

In this case, the dotted line on the map in Xiaoxiao Yuxia's hand already explains a lot of problems.

Both sides of that road are steep slopes that are higher than the road section, and there are a lot of gravel all around. There is no vision at all. The path is long and narrow. If the large army of Star City wants to pass, they can only change their formation and reduce the number of people lined up in a row. When the team becomes thinner, the defensive ability on the side will be instantly weakened. The cavalry of Day City can even split up and easily cut the large army of Star City into several sections from the side.

The geographical location is so good that it can be said to be a textbook ambush terrain. When a large army passes through there, everyone will want to attack them even if they have no grudges against them. What's more, it is the Sun City that has been eyeing the Star City for a long time.

Xu Chu frowned and thought for a while, then said, " If the troops from Day City stay in one place and wait for us, they will be discovered by our assassins sooner or later . The problem is that it will be useless even if they are discovered. The knights are too mobile and can move at any time. A large army will definitely not be able to catch up with them if they encircle and suppress them in advance. But if we passively defend, we don't know when the enemy will launch an attack, and where their target is. "

" I know where their target is. " Ji Xuanyi walked up to the two of them at some point, followed by Qi Qin who was fanning himself with his hands.

Xiao Xiaoyu looked at Ji Xuanyi, smacked her lips, and didn't dare to speak.

Ji Xuanyi said irritably, " Some people may die, but the main force will be fine. Just follow my method. "

The scattered troops of Star City are also very salty today.

Because of the experience and drops from monsters along the way, the level of the large army in Star City increased by an average of one to two levels. However, the closer they got to the Heavy Flame Volcano, the lower the level and health of the monsters seemed to be. They were almost beaten by the three major gangs in front of them. They could not gain any experience or drops, and the weather was dry. The scattered people complained and kept reporting their dissatisfaction to the leaders of the scattered people gang.

Probably seeing that something was not right, the leaders of the three major gangs had no choice but to give the order to advance the break time, which was originally scheduled for an hour later. They asked everyone to go offline now to drink some water, eat something, take a break before leaving, and go back online two hours later.

Two hours later, the individual players who came online were reorganized into teams and continued to move forward without any awareness.

This time, the people from the three major gangs finally learned their lesson and did not kill all the monsters on their own . Many small monsters were put within the attack range of the individual troops. Everyone killed the monsters and picked up the dropped items and had a great time.

Soon, the large army of Star City reached an area where no monsters spawned, and the leaders of the Sanren Gang gave the order to change the formation.

They were about to prepare to cross the long and narrow path.

At the same time, a team in the dark also received the same news.

" The Starry City team will soon pass through the canyon. We can start preparing now. "

The man at the head of the team raised the flag in his hand and waved it gently. Then he shook his reins silently and galloped towards the target direction. The hundred or so knights behind him slowed down a bit and followed his footsteps and galloped away.

The Starry City assassin squatted behind the horse's butt and ate a mouthful of dust: "... Pah, pah, pah! "

" The Knights of Day City have set out and are heading towards the canyon! "

The knights of Day City did not ambush near the canyon. Firstly, it was too easy to be discovered. Secondly, they already had " eyes " and did not need to observe the movements so closely. Furthermore, the mobility of the knights was not too strong. Even if they were far away, it would not take long for them to run from the ambush site to the canyon.

In fact, it took a lot of effort for Fanxing City to find this ambush point. If it weren't for Ji Xuanyi's reminder, Xiaoxiao Yuxia would probably have allowed the assassins to search around the canyon and find nothing before the main force started to pass through.

The Knights team of Day City has not encountered any rivals in PVP until now . In fact, their only real opponent is Star City, and the first time they faced the team of Star City seriously was before the world quest began.

At that time, the team from Daylight City had not expected that the combat effectiveness of Star City was so much inferior to theirs. They basically collapsed at the first touch and had no power to resist. This also gave them extremely strong confidence in this battle. They felt that with just over a hundred people, they could kill the entire team of Star City .

If Star City is defeated by Sun City during this mission, then Sun City will not only get an extra reward, but will also rightfully become the strongest of the three main cities!

With this thought in mind, the knights of the Day City Knights rode their horses and ran faster. The person leading the way pursed his lips and said nothing.

This is the speed that the knight troops need. The faster they run, the stronger their impact capability will be when they come into contact with the enemy , and the higher the damage will be.

However, the leading knight inexplicably had a bad premonition, just like the feeling he had every time before his attack missed when sparring with others.

If this was also a competition, he would have probably stopped attacking and switched to defense, but not now. The speed of the galloping horses made it impossible for him to stop, and the order issued by his employer forced him to move forward regardless of success or failure.

The leader clicked his tongue slightly and threw away his premonition.

It doesn't matter if he can't stop. Even if something goes wrong, he can just fight his way out.

This is his confidence as a strong man.

The troops of Star City have entered the canyon, with the two gang leaders from the three major gangs leading the way, followed by the troops of the three major gangs, and further behind them are a group of scattered people who have no idea what is happening in front of them.

Jing Yunhan swallowed his saliva, looked at Liu Tian next to him, and whispered: " I always feel that something is wrong. The look in my cousin's eyes before he went offline was so painful. Is it possible that Xu Chu is trying to trick us? "

Liu Tian hesitated and said, " Xu Chu will definitely cheat me, but your cousin won't sell you out, right? "

Jing Yunhan said: " I think so too ..."

The two looked at each other, and Liu Tian said, " Is it too late for us to turn back now? "

Jing Yunhan turned his head and glanced at the sea of people blocking the road behind him: "... It's probably too late. "

The two gang leaders felt sympathy for each other and were trembling with fear, almost bursting into tears. However, at this moment, something strange happened. The rumbling sound of horse hooves suddenly appeared, and a team of fully armed knights seemed to descend from the sky, shouting and swooping down from the high ground nearby, and charged towards the main force of Star City, the formation of the three major gangs !

Liu Tian yelled, " Fuck! An ambush in Dayo City! "

However, before Liu Tian and Jing Yunhan could react, the leader of the Dayo City Knights immediately realized that something was wrong.

There are too few people in the three major gangs! Besides, except for the two leaders who may be the gang leaders, they are all archers! The real fighting power of the three major gangs is not here at all!

However, it was too late to call a halt. He could only try his best to inflict damage on Fanxing City, at least to replace the two people who were suspected to be the gang leaders. Even if there was an ambush, it would not be a loss!

If Liu Tian and Jing Yunhan knew what he was thinking, they would definitely cry and tell him that you are at a big loss! Although they are indeed the leaders of the gang, their death or not has no effect on the main force, okay!

Unfortunately, Jing Yunhan and Liu Tian did not have the ability to read minds. The Knights of Dayo City did not choose to retreat after discovering that the number of people in the three major gangs was not right. Instead, they went straight towards them without hesitation.

At the same time, another wave of horse hoofbeats sounded, and the knights of the three major gangs, led by Jian Xi Xin Jiu, rushed out from the other end of the canyon and headed straight for the flank of the Day City Knights! Even on both sides of the canyon, troops from the three major gangs appeared and launched an attack on the Day City Knights who were trapped in it! There was an ambush indeed!

Now is not the time to think about how the three major gangs in Star City bypassed them. The leader of the Day City Knights frowned, wielded his spear to send the screaming Liu Tian and Jing Yunhan away, then immediately turned his horse around and rushed to the flank of the Knights alone, intending to resist Jian Xi Xinjiu's attack from the front.

The attack of the Knights was certainly fierce, but the leader had fought with Jian Xi Xin Jiu, so he recognized this knight and knew that even with the Knights' speed advantage, this person would definitely not be his opponent. As long as they stopped the people in front and slowed down the speed of the Starry City Knights, they could suppress them with their strength.

Although there would be some losses, the Knights of Sun City could still break out of the siege. It was worth it to replace two gang leaders.

However, at this moment, a horse's whine suddenly sounded from the Knights of Star City, and a swordsman in black armor suddenly jumped out, pulled out his weapon in mid-air, and pressed straight towards him.

The swordsman's strength, plus the impact of the fall, if this move was hit firmly, at least half a tube of blood would be lost. The leader's pupils suddenly shrank, and he immediately pulled the reins and dodged it narrowly.

But even so, the impact of the skill caused him to lose some blood.

Qi Qin blinked and confirmed that this person was indeed as powerful as Jian Xi Xin Jiu said. You know, most people would not be able to dodge when a swordsman suddenly jumped out of the crowd and used a heavy blow on them.

Qi Qin immediately swung his second sword at him, but the man used his spear to hit the sword from the side near the lower blade, which was the weakest part of the heavy sword – successfully deflecting the sword, and coupled with the movement of the horse, it was dodged for the second time.

Qi Qin was stunned. Before he could swing the third sword, the man shook the reins and shouted, "Retreat!"

This swordsman is quite powerful. Although he wants to decide the winner, he has been entrusted by someone and cannot waste time here now. He can only wait until next time.

The flank of the Daylight City Knights had been broken up by the knights of the three major gangs plus the siege from the other three sides. Only about half of the people could still barely form a formation. Hearing the shout, they ignored their teammates who were submerged in the crowd and followed the leader closely, climbing up the side slope with him. After paying the price of more than a dozen white lights, they killed their way out of the mage army's formation. This was really a helpless situation. If he ran from the front, the knights could still chase him. If he ran from the side, he could not expect those short-legged guys in the Mage Corps to stay.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was also entangled in the battle of the large army and could not get away. He could only watch the team run away. There was nothing he could do.

However, the current situation was not too bad. After clearing out the remaining Day City knights who were trapped in the crowd and unable to break through, Xu Chu and Xiao Xiao Yuxia reorganized the team while counting the number of people.

Including the sacrifices of Jing Yunhan and Liu Tian, only eight people died in Fanxing City! Chu said happily: " Eight people exchanged for sixty or seventy elite knights, it's not a loss at all! "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: " QAQ my cousin wow ..."

Xu Chu was even happier: " Among the eight people, there are two noobs. Wow, I'm making a fortune! "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was already speechless. He was busy trying to comfort Jing Yunhan, who was chatting with him madly. He couldn't believe that the brotherhood between them was so plastic. Liu Tian was actually also chatting with Xu Chu privately, cursing him madly, but Xu Chu directly deleted him as a friend. After typing for a long time and finding out that he had been deleted, Liu Tian angrily opened the world channel.

[World Channel] :

[Six Days] : Xuchu you bastard!!! @Xuchu !!!

[Xu Chu] : Liu Tian is a big idiot, hehe.

Seeing the rain on the world channel: "..."

Considering the relationship between these two people, why on earth did he believe Xu Chu's lies and betray his own brother?

Ji Xuanyi's plan was simple. After knowing that the Knights of Day City were not lying in ambush nearby, they found an excuse of " appeasement " to let the main force go offline and rest for two hours. In fact, the people from the three major gangs who received the order directly only rested for an hour and a half. When no one was online, the main forces of the three major gangs had already quietly climbed online half an hour in advance and set up a counter-encirclement. The most severe test for this counter-encirclement is probably the high ground on the side where the Sun City launched the surprise attack. How can the mage troops ambushed there escape the eyes of the Sun City Knights?

The method proposed by Ji Xuanyi was to walk to a slightly farther place and then lie down. That's all.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia questioned this strategy, and Ji Xuanyi said: " E-sports does not require vision. " After thinking about it, Ji Xuanyi felt something was wrong, and added: " Holographic online games don't need it either. "

In fact, the galloping knights did not notice the mages who were lying on the ground trembling with fear, but went straight to the path in the middle of the canyon.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia breathed a sigh of relief when she learned this.

Ji Xuanyi was considering this plan, the one he paid the most attention to was the insider who had sneaked in from the Daytime City. He took advantage of the information asymmetry between the scattered troops and the main forces of the three major gangs to cover the " eyes " of the Daytime City .

In order to prevent the spy from not going offline with the main force but waiting in the same place, he deliberately extended his rest time and went offline only after making sure that everyone else was offline. When going online, Xiaoxiao Yuxia would come online first to see if there was anyone there before deciding to go online. In this case, even if the other party was an invisible assassin, Ji Xuanyi didn't believe that anyone could stay hidden and wait in an open space for an hour and a half.

If someone could really do it, Ji Xuanyi could only say that he was convinced of his defeat because someone could play a game to such a professional level.

In order to prevent the individual troops from noticing that something was wrong with the three major gangs, Ji Xuanyi and his men specially left behind the last four rows of archers connected to the individual troops. They also went online early and lined up under Xiao Xiaoyu's remote command to prevent the individual troops in the rear from feeling that anything was wrong. In addition, the formation had to be changed on the small path behind, so looking from the back, it was even more difficult to tell what was wrong.

As for poor Jing Yunhan and Liu Tian, it was a supplementary bait plan proposed by Xu Chu. After all, in order to facilitate queuing and command, the three major gangs and the individual groups actually maintained a short distance. Although it was difficult to detect from behind, it was easy to see from the side that the number of people was wrong. If they found out that it was a trap and cautiously chose to give up the attack, wouldn't they lose money!

Therefore, there must be bait to motivate them to fight. Just think about it, what could be more tempting than the two leaders of the three major gangs!

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said that although it did not matter whether the two gang leaders existed or not, one of them was his cousin after all, so it did not seem a good idea to do so. Besides, Yaori City did not know the two gang leaders, so would it be okay to just find two people to replace them? Xu Chu said he didn't know what the undercover agent in Day City was like, maybe he took a screenshot cautiously? To show his sincerity, the two gang leaders should do it themselves! Therefore, under Xu Chu's argument, the two poor little guys, Jing Yunhan and Liu Tian, were tricked to the front of the team without knowing anything and became the victims of the annihilation of the Day City Knights ...

But it was a worthy death. Thanks to the efforts of Jing Yunhan and Liu Tian, the knights of Dayo City were crippled in one fell swoop, and the large army of Star City safely passed all the subsequent dotted line sections.

As the road progressed, the only problem facing Fanxing City was that Ji Xuanyi in the command group was becoming more and more irritable, and he was almost shooting sparks. Xiaoxiao Yuxia and Xu Chu stayed away from him . Only Qi Qin stayed next to him, but he didn't dare to say much.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia walked to Mi Yin's side, afraid of disturbing Ji Xuanyi, and asked in a low voice: " Did you see it? Is that person really Xue Piao Renjian? "

Mi Yin had been frowning since the beginning. When she heard Xiao Xiao Yu Xia's question, she sighed and said, " It was indeed him. "

The leader of the Sun City Knights is indeed Xue Piao Renjian.

If it were someone else, Qi Qin would have stopped him and killed him long ago.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia smacked her lips regretfully.

Mi Yin is an assassin, not a profession suitable for charging into battle, so he did not send Mi Yin to the front in that situation. He just asked him to watch nearby and confirm Xue Piao Renjian's identity. If the battle became stalemate, Mi Yin would go up.

But no one expected Xue Piao Renjian to be so decisive. He chose to retreat immediately before even deciding who was stronger than Qi Qin. Mi Yin was of no use at all.

Mi Yin glanced at Xiao Xiao Yu Xia and said helplessly: " I don't know where you get your confidence from. It's fine if you fight head-on, but why do you always think I can distract him? " Xiaoxiao looked at him with her eyes open in the rain, as if to say, "You can't distract him, no one can distract him."

Mi Yin sighed and said, " Xue Piao and I do have a good relationship, but we are not gay. If we were really a couple, would he still part ways with me? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia hesitated and asked: " Is there a crack in your relationship? "

Mi Yin said expressionlessly: "... Why don't you go up to the sky? I've told you so many times that it's just because the goals are different. We've all been playing in the arena for many years, so it's not easy to be distracted. Unless I'm reporting skills next to him, it's impossible to disrupt his attack rhythm. "

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia immediately said: " It's OK to report skills! "

Mi Yin looked at him speechlessly and said, " You have no shame, but the world still needs you. "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Mi Yin shook her head and said, " Which side I stand on has no impact on Xue Piao Renjian's position. What's more, the Tianxia and he haven't decided the winner yet. You don't have to worry so much. If you have the time to bother me, you might as well go and talk to Xu Chu. "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "... Forget it, chatting with Xuchu is bad for your health. "

He was afraid that the other party would be so angry that he would vomit blood.

Mi Yin shrugged and walked aside.

The Starry City team didn't actually reach the Heavy Flame Volcano until the seventh day. Although the temperature was only slightly higher and could not be compared with a real volcano, the red and black colors everywhere, coupled with the distorted air from time to time, still made the Starry City players feel the pressure.

Especially Ji Xuanyi's side.

This person is emitting a murderous aura from head to toe, and it seems like he will turn into a thug at any minute.

Fortunately, although Ji Xuanyi is ferocious now, his fighting power mostly comes from Qi Qin beside him, so everyone can still talk to him occasionally.

However, the safest way is to ask the good-tempered Qi Qin to help relay the message.

Qi Qin took out a grape from his bag – Xu Chu couldn't stand Ji Xuanyi's temper, so he bought it from individual players for a large sum of money to appease him – and stuffed it into Ji Xuanyi's mouth.

The sweet, sour and cool taste calmed Ji Xuanyi down a little.

Qi Qin fanned him and said, " We have entered the map of the Heavy Flame Volcano, but we haven't found any trace of the dwarves yet. What do you think? "

Ji Xuan heard the tone of Xiao Xiao Yuxia's question, glanced at Qi Qin, and said, "No." Qi Qin nodded honestly, lowered his head and ended the conversation, and replied: "No." Xiaoxiao Yuxia, who was standing next to him, said: "..." Xiaoxiao felt like she was really going bald in the rain. Because of the map environment, the Starry City players were falling behind quite a bit. However, what was even more serious was that they hadn't even encountered the BOSS of this map, nor had they encountered the dwarves who were supposed to live on this map. Because she was worried that the people from Day City would make a surprise attack, Xiao Xiao Yuxia did not dare to send too many people out to look for the dwarf camp. The entire large army from Star City had been wandering around Chongyan Volcano without a clue for most of the day. Not to mention Ji Xuanyi, Xiao Xiao Yuxia felt that she was beginning to feel a little anxious.

Ji Xuan swallowed a handful of grapes, exhaled, and said, "Liu Tian was in charge of running the map of Chongyan Volcano, right? Didn't he bring back any useful information?"

Seeing that Ji Xuanyi was willing to talk, Xiao Xiaoyu quickly came over and unfolded the map for Ji Xuanyi to see: "I brought it back. It turned out to be just a topographic map. After the world mission was released, he marked this area and said that there was no one there, so we didn't need to go there."

Ji Xuan took a look and found that there seemed to be something drawn sporadically in the circled and crossed out areas on the map, but they were too simple and childish to make out anything.

Upon hearing this, Xu Chu also came over, looked at the map, and said while stroking his chin, "Liu Tian said we don't have to go? I think the dwarves might really be there."

Xiao Xiao Yuxia frowned and said, "That's not the case. If the dwarf is really over there, Liu Tian would never say that there is no one there."

Xu Chu said: "Because you don't know how stupid he is. He would say something like 'no one'. Maybe it means that dwarves are not considered human in his eyes."

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "... Don't do it."

Mi Yin saw the four people gathered together, listening to the general idea, and now squeezed over and said: "Can you discuss anything by talking here? Why don't you just ask Liu Tian himself?"

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Xu Chu said calmly: "It's probably because Liu Tian was just sacrificed to the heavens in the last plan."

Xiao Xiao Yu Xia said in disbelief: "As the instigator, how can you say this so naturally!"

Xu Chu said solemnly, "Because I think the last plan is worth it."

Xiao Xiaoyu collapsed and said: "... What should I do now!"

Xu Chu said calmly, "I don't think we need to think about the answer for six days, nor do we need to send people to search everywhere. We can now go straight to the place drawn on the map. The dwarves must be there."

Xuchu's tone was too confident, and Xiaoxiao Yuxia couldn't help but start to wonder, what kind of existence is Liutian in Xuchu's heart? Is it a wrong option that doesn't even need to consider the element of luck? It feels like Liutian's existence is the elimination answer that Xuchu uses to solve all problems ...

But having said that, in the current situation, I still have to find Liu Tian to confirm it. The friendship between Xu Chu and Liu Tian has been deleted, so Xiao Xiaoyu can only bite the bullet and ask.

Liu Tian was almost furious with Xu Chu, but he couldn't really turn against him, so he held his anger for a long time. When Xiao Xiaoyu came to his house, he was scolded by him and said that he would never travel thousands of miles to return to the main force like last time. However, he was sacrificed like a fool after only two days.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia had already heard another version of this sentence from Jing Yunhan with a similar meaning. Now she was very calm. After comforting him for a while, she got down to business.

There are so many empty spaces, why did Liu Tian choose to draw that one area and tell them that there was no one there?

Liu Tiandao: "Are you stupid? The map is completely blank. I only remember that place. Why don't you draw it?"

Xiaoxiao had a bad feeling in the rain.

[Six Days] : That place was a ruin, with junk everywhere. I brought people to search it carefully, but there was nothing. It wasted a lot of time!

To be precise, more than half of the time spent on exploring the Chongyan Volcano was wasted in the ruins. When Xu Chu brought back the complete information, the painter on his side hadn't even drawn the entire road. It would have been fine for others, but Xu Chu was so angry that he had to tell Xiao Xiao Yuxia the only news he had obtained : "there is no one over there . "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Xu Chu looked at him and said nothing.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said seriously: " You must have spent a lot of money to be able to stick to Tamaijianghu until now. Thank you for your hard work! "

Xu Chu waved his hand with a vicissitudes of life.

Fortunately, they had not actually explored that area yet, so it was not a miss for them, just a waste of time. On the bright side, Liu Tian's behavior accidentally reminded them where the clue was, otherwise Xiao Xiao Yuxia felt that she might be so angry that she would fight with Liu Tian. Ji Xuanyi's face didn't look very good. When he thought about how he had wasted time on the road even though the clue was right in front of him, he wanted to explode!

Fortunately, before Ji Xuanyi exploded, Qi Qin quickly took out another grape and stuffed it into Ji Xuanyi's mouth.

Cool, sour and sweet.

Ji Xuanyi: "... Stop talking nonsense. Now that we know where the clue is, let's go quickly. "

Xu Chu was wealthy and powerful , and the fruits he had collected were estimated to last until the main force returned to Fanxing City. In addition, Qi Qin was diligently serving him, so Ji Xuanyi was able to remain calm.

To be on the safe side, Xiaoxiao Yuxia did not recall the knights and assassins who were looking for clues outside. Instead, after informing them of the movement of the main force , he went directly to the place where Liutian had drawn a cross on the map.

It can only be said that Xu Chu had his reasons for thinking that Liu Tian was an idiot .

Everyone looked at the shabby house in front of them, which was obviously several sizes smaller than where normal people lived , and they couldn't help but feel damned.

This is not a ruin! It is obviously a place where the dwarves once lived!

Xu Chu said: " What did I say? Although the dwarves are not here, they are almost here. I said he is an idiot , but you still don't believe me. "

Xiao Xiao Yu almost knelt down: " I believe it, I believe it. "

Ji Xuanyi didn't care about Liu Tian's IQ, and said directly: " Are you done talking nonsense? If you are, start looking for clues quickly. "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia came back to her senses and said, " How do we find it? Should we go in with the whole group , or just a few of us? "

When a large group of people go in together, it is inevitable that some people will be careless and break things , and the key mission items will not be refreshed. In addition, although the Knights of Dayo City have been crippled, the spies of Dayo City are still mixed in the individual groups , and who knows what tricks they will do. The saying that there is strength in numbers is definitely not applicable to the current situation.

But if only Ji Xuanyi and his group were to look for it, the progress would be too slow . Although the dwarf ruins were not as large as the elf camp , it was still not something that could be found by five people.

Ji Xuanyi didn't say anything , Xu Chu said: " Then pick a few tight-lipped people from the three major gangs who are guaranteed not to suddenly rebel and send them in together – forget about the people from Mengtanggu. "

Xu Chu glanced at Jian Xi Xin Jiu and added slowly, " The people in Meng Tang Gu are just as stupid as their leader. They like to act recklessly and don't even know when they are being tricked. "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

Although I know that the patch at the end was meant to prevent him from recalling the past incident of a traitor in the gang, I was still angry.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu said unwillingly: " Yes, you guys are so loyal in the Jianghu that you may not even remember what the gang leader looks like. "

This joke also has a history. Before the three major gangs decided to use the inner city stronghold as the meeting point, they had been taking turns to discuss matters in the three strongholds.

One time they went to the southwest Tamajhu stronghold for a meeting. Gechu was late again, and only Liutian led them in. As a result, the Tamajhu player guarding the gate didn't recognize Liutian and refused to let them in. In the end, it was a passing stronghold that shouted something like " Welcome, gang leader " to resolve the misunderstanding.

I heard that he lost face in front of the other two gang leaders – Jing Yunhan and Jian Xixinjiu laughed out loud on the spot and almost went crazy with joy. The furious Liu Tian even held a special gang meeting and asked everyone in the gang to come up and recognize him one by one.

" . This joke could only make Liu Tian furious. After Xu Chu heard this, he even laughed out loud .

Anyway, the unrecognizable gang leader is not him.

Xu Chu was still very happy for a while, until the other three people looked at him with frowns, he slowly calmed down and said: " It's hard to be in the damn martial arts world. It's not that I will surrender to the enemy , but the main reason is that I don't know anyone in it, and I don't know who is suitable for this job. "

Xu Chu looked at Xiao Xiao Yu Xia and said, " I guess you must have known all the 500-plus people in the world. You must know who is smart and won't do something like ' betrayal . ' "

Xiao Xiaoyu, the most reliable deputy gang leader among the three gangs, chuckled and said, " Yes, I do know. "

Ji Xuanyi made a prompt decision and said, " Then I'll leave the task of organizing the manpower to you. We'll start the search in ten minutes. "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "..... ??? "

Why does it feel like something is wrong? Why is he working alone again?!

Xiao Xiaoyuxia opened his mouth to refuse, but Ji Xuanyi had already refused to communicate with him. After repeating " ten minutes " seriously , he turned around and talked to Jian Xixinjiu. What can it do if it rains so much? He is so outstanding. He can only go and organize people. Fortunately, he was selecting people from his own gang, the process was much simpler, and no one would disobey orders, otherwise Xiao Xiao Yu Xia would really be killed here.

After Ji Xuanyi gave Xiao Xiao Yuxia instructions, he turned to Jian Xixinjiu and said, " I still have three people. I met them in Green Forest City. One of them is in your gang now. His name is Sleepy Meow. Do you remember him? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu hesitated and said, " It seems a little bit. I'll shout it out in the guild channel. "

Ji Xuan nodded.

Half of the friends from Green Forest City died in the battle before entering the Lost Forest. Although they failed to catch up with the main force because they were not knights, fortunately, except for Ze Yu Sishui, the attributes of the other two were not very suitable for the current matter, so it was not too pity – Yishu and Xiaotui would have cried if they heard this, but fortunately, the ones who stayed were A Miao, Ming Shao and Qingfeng Bufu. These three people can help more or less, especially A Miao and Ming Shao. They can be said to be the reliable ones among the two trios of Green Forest City.

Ji Xuanyi said to Xu Chu again: " Qingfeng Bufu and Ming Shao, who you helped, should be able to help. "

Xu Chu glanced at him and said, " Aren't those two your friends? It's too troublesome to talk in the guild channel, why don't you just have a private chat? "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly: " Because if it is your request, there will be a bonus. "

Xu Chu was speechless and said, " Why can you speak so confidently? "

Ji Xuan raised his eyebrows: " Because someone else told me. "

Xu Chu showed an expression of understanding.

This is what happened. In fact, when they were discussing which gang to pick people from, Ji Xuanyi was already chatting privately with Qingfeng Bufu. Qingfeng Bufu suggested that he let Xu Chu call them. In this way, they would be considered contributing to the gang, and because it was not a direct order from the gang leader Liu Tian, Xu Chu would even give them an extra bonus!

There is a reason why the Tamajianghu has a gang leader like Liu Tian and such strong cohesion and strength!

At Qingfeng Bufu's repeated requests, Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to let Xu Chu go and call for help, and by the way, asked Jian Xixinjiu to also trouble someone to call Sleepy Cat.

However, as expected, Xu Chu saw through Qingfeng Bufu's little thoughts in an instant, and Ji Xuanyi was not vague and directly sold Qingfeng Bufu.

However, Xu Chu didn't care about these. It was quite interesting that someone could get Ji Xuanyi to cooperate in doing such a thing. It was enough for him to observe that Ji Xuanyi's behavior was different from usual, so he started calling people directly in the guild channel.

One thing that needs to be corrected is that Xu Chu thought that Qingfeng Bufu and Ming Shao asked Ji Xuanyi to do this. In fact, it was only Qingfeng Bufu. Ming Shao and Ze Yu Sishui had been fighting for equipment for so long that they had already calmed down and regarded money as dirt ...

Xiao Xiaoyu's ability to act was still very strong. Ten minutes later, everyone was in place.

Together with Ji Xuanyi and the other five, there were about thirty people in total. After they divided themselves into groups, they carefully entered the ruins.

Although many houses and buildings in this ruin have collapsed, the exposed areas are not seriously damaged. It can be said that they all look very solid. After all, they are residences created by dwarves who are proficient in forging and smelting. Although they may not look good in appearance, they are first-class in practicality. Except for the part close to the ground that is buried underground, in fact, only most of the external objects used for decoration appear to be badly burned.

Ji Xuan took a look at the volcano not too far from them, and he could almost guess why the dwarves came here, rebuilt their homes, and then left in a hurry.

Although the books in the library of the Mage Tower record that the dwarves are very heat-resistant because they have been forging weapons for many years, that does not mean that they can take a bath in magma.

But where did the dwarves move to?

The height of dwarves is only about the height of human thighs, and their houses are also several sizes smaller. With such obvious characteristics, I wonder how Liu Tian's brain circuits work.

Ji Xuanyi squatted down and with the help of Qi Qin, half of a door made of unknown material was opened, revealing the dark interior of the room.

Ah Miao was originally slacking off in the priest group, and she didn't know what was happening ahead, so she just followed the main group, walking and stopping from time to time. After Yishu died and returned to Star City, he didn't stop to chat with her, so she wasn't bored.

As a result, I was chatting with Yishu when I was suddenly called to the front of the team and asked to help look for clues about the dwarves in the ruins. I haven't recovered yet and have no idea what to do. I was wandering among the ruins, seemingly looking for something, but actually wandering in my mind.

She turned her head and saw Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin squatting together, sticking their heads out in the dark, doing something unknown. She walked over in a daze, dropped a gem to illuminate, and floated away in a daze again.

When Ji Xuan heard the sound, he picked up the gem and was about to say thank you, but he only saw Ah Miao's back. He could only sigh and go on with his business.

Ji Xuanyi bent over and pushed the gem into the room, illuminating most of the room.

The dwarves probably did not expect a sudden volcanic eruption, and they left in a hurry. Many things in the open house that Ji Xuanyi had found before were knocked over. They watched helplessly as an iron book that might contain clues was half embedded in the ground, but they could not get it out no matter what. It was a really painful feeling.

Fortunately, this house did not disappoint Ji Xuanyi. The table seemed to be made of some special material. It was not washed away when the lava flowed in, but stood firmly in place. Even a part of the table top was raised. An iron book was placed steadily on the table. Except for being covered with a thick layer of dust, it was not damaged.

Ji Xuanyi didn't mind the dirt, he just lay on the ground, stretched out his hand, and took out the book.

The protective iron shell was melted by the high temperature. Even Qi Qin couldn't open it with his bare hands. He could only use his guard to pry open a gap that was almost invisible to the naked eye. The cover was also stuck to the shell and was charred black. Ji Xuan flipped through many pages before he finally found the text that he could see clearly.

Thanks to the fact that there is no such thing as foreign languages in this game, and thanks to the official translation, the dwarf's diary is also written in Chinese.

Ji Xuan took a look and found that apart from the smelting formula which he couldn't understand at all, the diary mentioned the word " fire " .

From the dwarves' cautious choice of words and attitude in the diary, it can be seen that this " fire " is not an ordinary fire, but more like an important item that the dwarves have been pursuing for a long time. However, the diary only mentioned that they seemed to have found a way to obtain the fire. After that, what the method was and whether they actually got it were all black and could not be seen clearly.

Ji Xuan brushed off the dust on his body expressionlessly and threw the diary to Qi Qin.

Other people in the team also gradually found doors of buildings that could be opened. Some houses had second floors, and those who were not so particular simply broke the windows and stuck their heads in to look. However, the information everyone obtained was similar. Almost all the dwarves were in their homes, excitedly leaving behind more or less messages related to the word " fire " .

But could these dwarves have left more complete information? All the messages I saw were about how awesome the fire was, but I didn't get any information on how to get it, how to use it, or whether they actually got it.

Qi Qin had already fed Ji Xuanyi a bunch of grapes within ten minutes, which showed how angry he was about the repeated clues.

Ji Xuanyi fumbled to open a window on the second floor, reached in and searched around, and actually found a intact piece of paper outside!

Ji Xuanyi thought he had finally found useful information and was getting excited, but when he took a look, he realized that the piece of paper actually described the difference between " Soul Gem " and " Ghost Gem " in weapon manufacturing. He immediately lost his spirit and threw the piece of paper dejectedly into Qi Qin's hands.

Qi Qin didn't know what it was, but he just put away what Ji Xuanyi gave him.

After searching for more than half an hour, when the individual players could not help but start logging off in large numbers, someone finally shouted, " Here is a complete copy! "

When Ji Xuan looked up, it was actually Ming Shao. He was holding a booklet and was about to walk towards Xu Chu.

Ji Xuanyi strode forward, took the booklet, and flipped through it quickly. At the end of the booklet, he discovered that the dwarves were trying to find fire by igniting a volcano.

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

This is really a case of asking for death. The volcano was actually ignited by the dwarves themselves. They probably didn't expect the power to be so great that it directly flooded their homes, so they had to flee.

But then again, the dwarves are so obsessed with " fire " that they probably wouldn't complain if their house was flooded.

Ji Xuanyi frowned tightly. After the booklet said that they were preparing to ignite the volcano, it did not record anything further. No one knew what method they used to ignite the volcano.

Xu Chu came over to take a look, then stroked his chin and said, " Although this is a Western fantasy setting, to ignite a volcano, the only way is to create an earthquake or artificially heat it? Which one do you think it is? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Eighty percent of the time it's the second one. "

The five maps correspond to five attributes. The Heavy Flame Volcano corresponds to fire, so the plot that takes place in it is unlikely to be related to earth. The dwarves probably used heating methods to melt the rocks in the volcano, which then caused an eruption.

Xu Chu said: " I think so too, but even if it is a method used in the Western fantasy world, physical heating is unlikely. What's more, what the dwarves originally needed was something like ' fire '. They should have used magic to ignite the volcano. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia saw Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu huddled together and whispered, and realized that they probably had some ideas. Like a student who was studying hard for fear of falling behind in class, she hurried over and listened to what they were saying.

 " Ignite the volcano? " Xiao Xiao Yuxia frowned and said, " Do we have to climb up the volcano to take a look? "

Qi Qin said worriedly: " Isn't it too dangerous? If the volcano erupts, will it cause harm to us? "

Ji Xuan glanced at Qi Qin and said, " If it is the magma that already exists in the map environment, it probably won't cause much damage. But if it is a volcanic eruption caused by other reasons-- "

Xu Chu smiled and said, " Then we can meet again in Star City. "

The damage caused by the volcanic eruption absolutely ignores defense and can kill everyone in an instant. Xu Chu found the scene spectacular just by thinking about it.

Thousands of players from Star City were halfway up the mountain when a flood of magma suddenly poured down, and white light looked like a meteor. When everyone opened their eyes, they were all back in Star City.

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: "... Stop talking, I'm a little confused. "

Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " Then make yourself rounder. We probably don't need to climb the mountain, and the dwarves can't run to the crater to light the volcano. After all, the dwarves who cherish the ' fire ' will definitely not want to miss any step to get the ' fire ' , even if it means lighting a volcano. "

" If that's true, then the dwarves should have been wiped out the moment the volcano was ignited. After all, they were right on the crater, and no one could escape. The game officials are a rip-off, but they wouldn't ask us to look for something that doesn't exist. "

Ji Xuanyi said slowly, " So the dwarves must have used very powerful magic to ignite the volcano somewhere far away from the volcano. After discovering that the volcano was more powerful than they imagined, they left here in a hurry, and they didn't even have time to pack up many things, leaving them all over the room. "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu listened for a long time, and finally couldn't help asking: " What does this have to do with where the dwarf went? "

Everyone looked at him.

Jian Xi Xin Jiu had done nothing, but being watched by so many people, he couldn't help but feel guilty. He held his weapon upright in front of him, took a step back, and said, " What's wrong? Did I say something wrong? "

Ji Xuanyi retracted his gaze, shook his head, and said, " You are right. Let's keep some people to continue looking for direct clues to the whereabouts of the dwarves. We can try to reconstruct what happened at the time. At worst, we can find a way to ignite the volcano again. If we can be in the same situation, we will probably know what kind of evasive measures the dwarves would take at that time. "

Xiao Xiao Yu was confused and asked, " What the hell? Ignite a volcano? "

Xu Chu touched his chin and said, " I think what Ji Xuanyi said makes sense. We can give it a try. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia immediately said: " Come on, you just want to watch the fun, what the hell are you trying? "

Ji Xuanyi knew what Xiao Xiao Yuxia was worried about, and said, " The clues are not clear yet, so we don't necessarily have to light the volcano. Once we find it and are sure there is a way to light it, we can move the main force in advance and then light it later, okay? "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia hesitated for a long time before reluctantly saying, " Okay, let's look for it first, but I prefer to look for clues that directly point to the dwarf's whereabouts. "

Ji Xuanyi said indifferently: " Then let the main force stay here to search, and Tianxia, Xuchu and I will go look elsewhere. "

Xiao Xiaoyu nodded, and then, worriedly, warned: " You two should keep a close eye on Xu Chu. He is a wizard himself. If he can light the volcano with the dwarf method, there will be no way for so many people to escape. "

Upon hearing this, Ji Xuanyi looked at Xu Chu.

Xu Chu looked back at him innocently.

Ji Xuan nodded, took out a rope from his bag, and said to Xiao Xiao Yuxia: " What you said makes sense. I will keep an eye on him. "

Xu Chu saw that the situation was not right and turned around to run, but was grabbed by Qi Qin.

Although Xu Chu was well-equipped, his strength was less than ten points at most. After being grabbed by Qi Qin, he struggled twice but could not break free. He could only watch as Ji Xuanyi tied a knot around his waist with a rope and held both ends of the rope in his own hands. After making sure that Xu Chu had to alarm him before untying the rope, he nodded with satisfaction and signaled Qi Qin to let go.

Xu Chu: "... not really? "

Ji Xuanyi: " As for that. "

He did not forget Xu Chu's eager expression when he mentioned how spectacular it would be for everyone to be drowned by the lava together.

I just enjoy watching the fun and don't mind the big deal.

I don't know how Liu Tian managed to survive until now ... Well, when there was a civil war among the three major gangs in Fanxing City, Xu Chu deliberately exposed the clues of buying equipment and preparing for a sneak attack. It can be said that he is an expert at betraying his teammates!

Ignoring Xu Chu's protests, Ji Xuanyi took Xu Chu for a walk like a dog and walked quickly through the ruins.

It is not easy to activate a volcano. Even with the help of magic, all the dwarves are masters of forging, but there is no wizard of August's level, so a large enough magic circle is needed to complete this action. So when Ji Xuanyi searches, he doesn't need to pay attention to those low houses. Such a large magic circle must be very conspicuous and can be recognized at once.

Ji Xuanyi was walking briskly in front, while Xu Chu was jogging behind. Fortunately, the speed of the two was not much different , so there was no tragic scene of one dragging the other, although Ji Xuanyi could not drag Xu Chu either.

The number of dwarves might not be much different from that of the elves , but because of their size, the area of this ruin is not very large. If Ji Xuan walks in a straight line, he can reach the border in ten minutes. His search was also very fast. In less than half an hour, he found a strange open space.

The reason why this open space is weird is not because it has any strange features. It is actually just an ordinary open space. The problem lies in the architectural style of the dwarves. Although every household often uses furnaces to forge items, the dwarves have some distance between their houses to facilitate movement, but Ji Xuanyi knows that the dwarves are a very united race. Although their houses are separated from each other, they are not too far apart . The open space in front of him, inside the dwarf ruins, has a radius of more than 20 meters, which is very unusual.

Perhaps because of the excitement, Xu Chu rarely showed a serious expression and said, " It should be here. Damn it, the magic circle is probably buried under the magma and volcanic ash. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and rubbed his feet on the ground.

However, the volcanic ash was so thick that, despite the high temperature, a thin layer of tough-looking plants still grew on the surface.

Ji Xuanyi knew that the roots of this layer of plants underground must be very strong, firmly fixing this layer of soil.

But there was no other way. There were only three days left. In order to rescue Madam Harman, he had to dig up the land that had grown with great difficulty in the harsh environment!

Ji Xuanyi pursed his lips, took out his staff, and thrust it hard into the ground.

...

It's about five or six centimeters in?

Xu Chu leaned over to take a look and clapped his hands: " Awesome! As a warlock, it's not easy to penetrate this deep. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi glared at Qi Qin fiercely, scaring the latter so much that he trembled and quickly took out his guardian jar to dig the ground.

Ji Xuanyi was not in a hurry to help, and turned around to fight with Xu Chu.

A warlock and a mage, their strength attributes are similar. Xu Chu, a rich man who has never even climbed a tree, is no match for Ji Xuanyi. He was pinned to the ground and beaten so badly that his nose almost bled. He had to apologize repeatedly and was let go after a long time. Qi Qin and Shouhu also had a hard time. The former had done everything and was not picky, while the latter, as a heavy sword, was used to cut clothes and dig the ground. It was almost used to crack walnuts ... But if Ji Xuanyi wanted to eat walnuts, it probably wouldn't be able to escape.

After beating Xu Chu, Ji Xuanyi felt refreshed. He glanced at Qi Qin, who was digging the ground with a sword, and said to Xu Chu, " Do you have a shovel? "

Xu Chu was also very stubborn. After being knocked down by Ji Xuan, he lay there and couldn't get up. After hearing this, he dug his ears and said, " What do you want from me? A shovel? " As a wealthy man, Xu Chu has a lot of equipment and materials of all kinds, but a shovel is not within his collection!

Ji Xuanyi said: " If you don't have a shovel, anything that looks like a shovel will do. Go find it quickly. "

I don't know where Ah Miao is now, otherwise she might really have a shovel with her.

Xu Chu was asked such an unreasonable request, and he had no way to resist, so he had to rummage in his backpack for a long time. He threw out a knight weapon that looked like a shovel, and then threw out two staffs that looked like colanders, and said, " Are these okay? "

The knight's weapon is a purple weapon with a penetration effect that ignores defense. The two colanders are the priest's twin weapons, similar to the previous one, which is a large amplification staff with nine small ones. When used at the same time, the healing amount is doubled, and one priest can use two weapons. They are both very powerful special effect weapons.

However, now it can only be used as a shovel for digging soil ...

Ji Xuan looked at it critically, nodded after a long while, and said, " Almost. "

Then, he threw the knight's weapon to Qi Qin, and he and Xu Chu picked up the two colanders. As he was speaking, Qi Qin's guards had already dug beneath the soil, revealing a small piece of intact jade slab.

When Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu came over, they saw the messy scratches on the stone slab made by the guardian. Xu Chu screamed: " Fuck, it's not buried! Be gentle, be gentle, or it will be scratched and unusable! "

Qi Qin and Ji Xuan turned around and looked at Xu Chu at the same time.

Xu Chu was stunned for a moment, and after controlling his expression, he smiled and said, " Of course I'm not the one who's going to use it. I'm just going to take a look. Good luck to you guys. "

Ji Xuanyi then turned his head and said to Qi Qin: " Be careful. "

Qi Qin nodded and carefully dug the soil with the " shovel " provided by Xu Chu.

This was indeed the magic circle that the dwarves used to ignite the volcano. After Qi Qin dug out a jade slab one or two meters long, a red gem embedded in it was revealed. There was also some magic power in it, and it was shining and extremely beautiful.

Ji Xuanyi exhaled lightly and sent a private message to Xiao Xiaoyuxia: " We found the magic circle, it's buried, please help dig the soil. "

Xiaoxiao was still groping around the house in the rain, covered in dust. Before getting any definite clues, he saw Ji Xuanyi's secret chat and could only sigh that this was his fate.

Xiao Xiaoyuxia did not give up and left a few people to continue searching. He turned back to find a few swordsmen and knights in the formation of the three major gangs, collected a wave of shovels from the individual groups, and went in the direction of Ji Xuanyi in a mighty manner. With people, it would be much easier to dig out the magic circle. After repeatedly reminding them not to damage the ground, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia walked over to Ji Xuanyi and the others with a shovel and asked tentatively, " Do you really want to light a volcano? If you do it again, it feels like the entire ruins will be buried, and I guess we won't be able to find any clues. "

This is a problem. If it happens again, the ruins will definitely be buried deeper. You can't expect the player's artificial volcanic eruption to refresh it. It's purely a matter of luck.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " Then let the troops tear down the ruins and take away everything with words or paintings. It's useless to light a volcano. Let's study it slowly. "

Maybe he was too irritated, but Ji Xuanyi wanted to blow up the volcano. Xiao Xiaoyu didn't know how to persuade him, so she could only ask, " Aren't you afraid of losing the clues? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Xu Chu has money, why not offer a reward? "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia immediately looked at Xu Chu.

Xu Chu stroked his chin and said, " If you can blow up the volcano, fine, I'll pay for it! "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Don't be so generous at this time, okay! Trapped between two troublemakers, Xiao Xiaoyu felt powerless to save the situation.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia looked back at the group of people whose numbers had dwindled due to the long wait. Some of them were so bored that they started to play Landlord and Mahjong. She nodded helplessly and said, " Okay, you two have already made your decision. What can I do? You guys keep digging while I lead the people to demolish the house. "

Xu Chu waved to Xiao Xiao Yu Xia and said, " Goodbye, model worker. "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Xu Chu is such a disgusting person!

Although Xu Chu said that he could offer a reward for clues, Xiao Xiaoyuxia himself was reluctant to spend so much money, so he asked people from the three major gangs to cordon off the venue to prevent the invisible assassin from sneaking in. He also honestly asked the leader of the Sanren Gang to claim the gang members, registered them one by one, and then let them in to start demolishing the house.

As the creation of the dwarves, the solidity of those houses is self-evident. Xiao Xiaoyuxia's work progress is very slow, and Ji Xuanyi's work is not much faster either.

After digging a few meters , grooves of various shapes appeared on the jade floor. It seemed that something had to be put into them to activate the magic circle, but these grooves were also filled with mud. I don't know what effect it would have on the operation of the magic circle, so I have to get it all out bit by bit.

A group of people were busy clearing the dirt. An hour later, a player from the mortal world straightened up in confusion and said in a daze: " What? Where is this? Am I not accompanying my mentor to dig for burial objects in the tomb? "

Another one was also confused: " It's so strange, it's like going back to the time when we were sorting out dinosaur fossils ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

What kind of messed up players are these!

It was not until nightfall that the entire situation of the magic circle finally appeared in front of everyone. All the players rubbed their waists and collapsed to the ground. Those who still had the energy to cheer were probably people who did similar jobs in real life.

Ji Xuanyi was also very tired, and it was Qi Qin who helped him out. He also pulled the rope to bring out Xu Chu, who was lying on the ground.

The entire magic circle is oval in shape, with a jade slab as the base and fire-attributed rubies inlaid to form the array pattern. There are ten grooves of different shapes in it, and I don't know what to use to fill them.

This period of time will not allow players to search the map for materials they have never seen before. Most of them are precious materials that have already appeared.

Ji Xuanyi thought about it and looked at Xu Chu.

Xu Chu: "..... ??? "

Chapter 89

Ji Xuanyi stared at Xu Chu silently.

Xu Chu: "... What? "

Ji Xuan raised his chin towards the magic circle and said, " Try to identify what should be placed in those grids. "

Xu Chu leaned over to take a look , and instantly understood what was going on . He frowned and said, " This is the only time you guys can remember me. "

Ji Xuanyi pretended not to hear.

Xu Chu glanced at him , raised his eyebrows, and sighed in a very pretentious manner: " Alas , there is nothing I can do . After all, this is my character setting. "

Ji Xuanyi: "... You accept it really quickly. "

Xu Chu could be said to be the first person Ji Xuanyi had seen in all these years who was so content with being a sucker.

Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu walked to the edge of the formation together and studied the grooves.

" This shape is too irregular, " Xu Chu squatted down and touched the groove , saying, " Although I am familiar with equipment and other things , the materials are not very valuable. Even if it is orange, I can't remember it clearly. "

The orange material that Ji Xuanyi came into contact with the most was black steel , but the groove in front of him was obviously not prepared for black steel . Not to mention the shape, judging from the function of this formation, the properties were also wrong.

When the others saw Xu Chu's actions, they seemed to understand what the current purpose was and began to observe.

However, world quests were opened not long after life skills were opened. Players left their homes one after another for the quests. Not to mention those who spent all their time on the quests and followed all the way here, even if they stayed in the main city, players who wanted to do life skills probably had no impression of the materials , especially the high-level materials . But there are always exceptions.

When Ji Xuanyi was looking at the groove in deep thought , someone called him.

Ji Xuan turned his head and saw that it was Qingfeng Bufu and Ming Shao.

The two men had a relationship with Xu Chu, with the latter paying the former's salary. They obviously had a strange feeling of superiority and inferiority towards Xu Chu. In short, they did not dare to call him first, but quietly asked Ji Xuan: " Are you looking for something to fit into the groove of the thank you? "

Ji Xuan nodded and said, " Do you have any clues? "

After getting a positive answer, Qingfeng Bufu immediately turned to Xuchu and said to him: " I know what is embedded in it! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

You'll be poor to death!

Xu Chu almost laughed out loud when he saw Ji Xuanyi's expression, but luckily he managed to hold it back. He coughed dryly and said to Qing Feng Bu Fu in a very serious tone, " What is it? "

Qingfeng pointed at one of the grooves and said, " The orange magic crystal should be placed in it. "

The magic crystal was the material that Ji Xuanyi needed to make the equipment for them. Qingfeng Bufu had missed it countless times because of poverty, and each time was unforgettable! So he was very familiar with the appearance of the magic crystal. Although it was just a relatively abstract groove, he recognized it after just a few glances.

" And this, " Qingfeng Bufu pointed to another groove: " This is a thousand-year-old sunken wood. "

Upon hearing this, Ji Xuan looked at Ming Shao.

Ming Shao, who also remembered this deeply, nodded solemnly.

He recognized him at a glance. After all, Qingfeng Bufu missed the magic crystal. If Ming Shao had not snatched it from Ze Yu Sishui, he would have to watch the latter showing off in front of him every day. For such a long time, there was no psychopath who did things like murder and robbery . This shows that Ming Shao is really an upright young man!

Xu Chu had a vague impression of it originally, and when Qingfeng Bufu said it, he remembered it. With sudden realization, he took out a magic crystal from his backpack, adjusted the direction, and put it into the groove.

There were so many grooves that it wouldn't take much to activate the magic circle just by placing one. Ji Xuanyi didn't stop it. He saw the piece of sunken wood easily fit into the groove, and it was exactly the same. The ruby array pattern connected to the groove suddenly lit up, and the giant ruby in the middle of the magic circle also flickered slightly.

Knowing the function of this magic circle, Ji Xuan subconsciously turned around and looked at the volcano in the distance .

The latter stayed quietly in the distance , with no intention of exploding.

Ji Xuanyi relaxed, quickly slapped away the second piece of sunken wood that Xuchu had taken out and was about to put in, and said, " Xiaoxiao Yuxia should not be there yet, let's notify her first. "

Xu Chu said " Oh " with some regret.

Ji Xuan handed the rope holding Xu Chu to Qi Qin expressionlessly and said to him, " Watch him and don't let him mess with the magic circle. "

Qi Qin quickly tightened the rope and nodded.

Ji Xuanyi lowered his head and sent a private message to Xiao Xiaoyuxia, asking him how the demolition of the house was going.

[Xiaoxiao Rain] : Almost done. Are you guys ready over there?

Ji Xuanyi replied: " Yes, please speed up. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia responded, and Ji Xuanyi lowered his head to look at Xu Chu.

There are more than thirty grooves on the entire magic circle. In addition to the thousand-year-old sunken wood and magic crystals that have been identified, there are seven or eight small grooves, which should be materials of slightly lower rarity, tending towards wood, fire attributes and magic. Xu Chu is taking out materials one by one for comparison.

In fact, there are not many types of materials in this game at this stage. Not long after, Xu Chu excitedly said: " Found it! "

The remaining seven or eight grooves correspond to the purple material flint. Xu Chu didn't have much purple material left, but fortunately Ji Xuan had a few in his hand, so he took them all out and piled them together.

At this time, Xiaoxiao Yuxia had also completed the house demolition work and had begun to command the large group to move out.

Xu Chu began to take out thousand-year-old sunken wood and magic crystals from his bag. Twelve of each of these two materials are needed. If they are made into equipment, a complete set will be made up with one extra part. Xu Chu is worthy of the title of rich man. He has hoarded a lot of them and took out a small pile. Qingfeng Bufu and Ming Shao on the side were so amazed.

Qingfeng Bufu swallowed his saliva and said, " Can these be recycled after use? "

Ji Xuanyi said cruelly: " No, it will turn into ash after use. "

Young Master Ming: "..."

calm Ming Shao showed a heartbroken expression.

If they can be recycled after use, the generous local tyrant Xu Chu will definitely give them these materials generously! It just so happens that Ze Yu Sishui is not here yet, and he can't even use money to shake Ming Shao. This is a godsend opportunity!

It turns gray after use!

Young Master Ming sighed and said, " Maybe we are not destined to meet in this life! "

Xu Chu turned his head and looked at them, and said with a smile: " Are you two short of these materials? "

As a detached person who regarded money as dirt, Ming Shao subconsciously showed a hesitant expression, while Qingfeng Bufu, as a poor man, said decisively: " Yes, yes! Super short of money! "

Xu Chu raised his eyebrows, picked out a few from the pile of materials, threw them to Qingfeng Bufu, and said, " This is your reward this time. "

Qing Feng Bu Fu caught it and said happily: " Thank you, Deputy Assistant! "

Xu Chu waved his hand and continued to rummage through his bag.

The players from the surrounding mortal world and Mengtanggu all showed envious expressions.

It's good to have a rich deputy gang leader. He gives orange materials to you without blinking an eye. I wonder when the three major gangs will be able to unify in a friendly manner ...

The Star City army evacuated, and when everything was ready, it was already past eight o'clock. Qi Qin was beginning to feel sleepy, so Ji Xuanyi loosened his rope under Xu Chu's gloomy gaze and said to him, " Alright, go ahead. "

Xu Chu: "..."

Please don't use that "let the dog out" tone!

However, no matter how rich one is, one still has to bow down to force. As the only rookie among the three, Xu Chu could only live at the bottom of the food chain. Carrying two bags of materials, he resigned himself to his fate and walked into the magic circle.

Ji Xuanyi and others stood on the side of the magic circle away from the volcano, carefully observing the movements of the volcano.

Xu Chu was running busily around the magic circle, putting the materials in his hand into it one by one. Just after he put the last flint in place, the entire magic circle suddenly lit up, and those rubies with fire attributes seemed to be burning, emitting intense light.

Xu Chu felt the power of the magic circle in an instant, and he began to lose blood crazily. Fortunately, there were three priests around him, who immediately realized Xu Chu's situation. They gave him damage reduction and HOT , while frantically healing him. In addition, Xu Chu's own equipment was good enough, so he managed to escape from the magic circle with little blood, and collapsed next to Ji Xuanyi.

Ji Xuanyi didn't have time to care about him. He frowned and stared at the volcano in the distance .

The magic circle in front of him vibrated violently, and soon, the ruby in the center of the magic circle was suddenly ejected by the gathered magic power, hanging in the air, and at the same time emitted a red beam of light as thick as a bucket, which contained enormous power and pointed directly at the volcano in the distance .

Xuchu struggled to get up from the ground, put his hands over his eyes, looked into the distance , and said: " Is this all right? "

Ji Xuanyi did not speak. About five minutes later, a dazzling light suddenly lit up on the hillside of the volcano! At the same time, smoke began to come out of the crater.

Qi Qin asked in a daze: " What is that? "

Ji Xuanyi said, " The dwarves should have set up some kind of device in the volcano to ignite it ... It's going to erupt soon, so you should be more alert and don't run away. "

Upon hearing this, Qi Qin hurriedly forced himself to cheer up.

After a while, they felt a slight vibration under their feet, and after a while, in the night, accompanied by faint explosions, they clearly saw the bright orange-red magma suddenly pumped out of the crater.

Xu Chu sighed with regret and said, " This is a bit far . I can't feel the momentum of a volcanic eruption at all. I always say it's best to climb a volcano— "

Ji Xuanyi: " And then we'll all be drowned by the lava? "

Xu Chu shrugged .

From their angle, they could see that magma was constantly gushing out from the crater like a fountain, and soon it flowed to the foot of the mountain, flowing towards them without stopping. Some people couldn't wait to leave, but Ji Xuanyi didn't move.

Ji Xuanyi frowned and waited for a while, until the lava was only a hundred or two hundred meters away from the dwarven ruins. He glanced at the magic circle next to him that had not stopped yet, and then said: " Now that the dwarves have realized that this lava will flood this place, where should they run? "

Xu Chu immediately looked around, then pointed in a direction and said, " There! "

There was a high ground over there, and perhaps because the volcano in that direction was not heated enough, the magma spread more slowly. From any perspective, the dwarves at that time had to evacuate in this direction.

Ji Xuan nodded and immediately shouted: " Go this way! "

At this time, the magma was very close to the dwarf ruins. As soon as Ji Xuanyi's words came out, the players who didn't want to bathe in the magma at all immediately ran in that direction. Many knights had already taken the lead. Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu both had short legs. Seeing that the speed was not fast enough, Qi Qin hugged Ji Xuanyi with one hand and held Xu Chu's collar with the other hand, and quickly entered the middle section of the team's transfer.

Ji Xuanyi was fine, but Xu Chu was dragged to the ground, rolling his eyes and saying, " Fuck! Can you change your position? I'm going to be hanged by my collar. "

Qi Qin had no choice but to exert force and throw him up, then grabbed his belt and lifted Xu Chu in his hands as if he were lifting a bundle of onions.

Xu Chu just hung there, and said weakly: " My abdominal muscles ..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

How dare someone who can't even climb a tree like this say he has abdominal muscles!

But now is not the time to worry about this, what matters most is escaping.

The night was pitch black, and although the players had their own halos, the range they could illuminate was less than one meter in front of their eyes. In the case of such a fast run, it was of no use at all. Even Qi Qin was tripped by pebbles several times. He was carrying two people in his hands. If he hadn't been agile, he would have fallen many times.

The high ground is right in front of us. As long as we run up, we will most likely be safe. Looking down at the overall situation, we should be able to roughly understand the next movements of the dwarves.

However, before Qi Qin could get closer, Ji Xuanyi heard screams from the players in front of him one after another, the neighing of horses in pain, and the sound of an unknown object falling to the ground.

Ji Xuanyi was startled, patted Qi Qin, and said, " There seems to be a ditch ahead, be careful. " Upon hearing this, Qi Qin immediately slowed down his pace and slowly stopped.

Qi Qin could vaguely hear the players cursing in the front. He walked forward a few steps and looked down. Sure enough, there was a dark pit under his feet. Almost all the players in front had fallen into it.

Qi Qin took a step back, and was just feeling lucky that Ji Xuanyi had reminded him early, when he suddenly heard a heavy " Fuck! " behind him , followed by a huge force. Qi Qin was caught off guard and was knocked off his feet. He stumbled and fell down with Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu. From the sound of the player coming out from the bottom of the pit, one could tell how deep the pit was. Not to mention going back to Fanxing City directly after falling down, Ji Xuanyi would at least lose half of his health. Thinking of this, Qi Qin threw Xu Chu out without hesitation, protected Ji Xuanyi with both hands, rolled on the ground, and then ran away immediately. Sure enough, several more people fell from above. The sound of one of them landing was particularly loud. He was the heavily armored soldier who failed to brake in time and knocked Qi Qin down.

Also landing on the ground with the heavy-armored soldier was Xu Chu, who was abandoned in an instant before he could even react. He was thrown aside by Qi Qin. Although he was not pinned down by the people who came after him, he also hit the earth wall and rolled down, covered in dirt.

Xu Chu: "..."

The moment he was thrown out, he naively thought that Qi Qin would be kind enough to turn around and catch him after saving Ji Xuanyi!

Xu Chusheng lay on the ground helplessly, determined not to work with Ji Xuanyi and Qi Qin, the gay couple, anymore.

The other players were also very smart. They had seen similar scenes many times in various channels. They immediately hid to the side after falling down. Those who did not fall at the same time basically did not lose blood due to the second impact.

But now is not the time to talk about this. The magma is still spreading here. If the magic circle activated by those materials lasts too long and continues to be heated, the magma may flow directly over and pour into this space. By then, no one who falls in here will be able to escape.

Ji Xuanyi frowned, pushed Qi Qin away, took out the lighting gem that A Miao had given him before, and looked around in this huge underground space.

This space is probably several hundred square meters and more than ten meters high. It is very large. Although there are no visible traces on the ground, the earth walls are too neat for a naturally or unnaturally formed hole, as if someone has repaired it.

Ji Xuanyi suddenly thought of something, bent down, stretched out his hand, and began knocking on the earth wall at leg height.

Everyone else knew that this team was led by Ji Xuanyi and Xu Chu, and seeing that they were concentrating on finding something, they just stayed quietly and didn't make any more trouble.

Xu Chu was sitting on the side, looking dusty and dusty. Seeing Ji Xuanyi's actions, he said, "Do you think the dwarf is in here? "

Ji Xuanyi said: " Maybe. "

Xu Chu said: " Why do I feel like this pit was dug by dwarves to stop the magma? "

Ji Xuanyi turned around and looked at him, raising his eyebrows.

Xu Chu leaned against the wall in despair and said, " Okay, I know it's unlikely, but is there anyone who can heal me? I'm losing blood. "

Just as he finished speaking, someone in the crowd threw a ball of holy light, which hit Xu Chu on the head and filled up his blood milk.

Xu Chu: "... Thank you. "

Whether this pit will be submerged by this wave of magma is one thing, but it is absolutely impossible that it was dug by the dwarves in the past to prevent the magma from advancing. On the one hand, this cave did not show any traces of cooled magma like those in the dwarf ruins. On the other hand, even if the magma would spread through here, the dwarves who fled in panic at the time did not have the time and energy to dig such a large pit here to stop the magma – not to mention the powerful tools used by the dwarves, they could not do it even if they drove two excavators.

There are only two situations in which this pothole will appear here.

First, the dwarves dug a pit here after the volcanic eruption ended, and repaired the walls here like an obsessive-compulsive person. So Ji Xuanyi couldn't think of a second possibility other than that they intended to use this place as a stronghold.

Second, this pit was originally here. When the dwarves were fleeing, they all fell down like them. However, the magma happened to stop outside, so for some unknown reason, the dwarves repaired this place. Maybe they lived here for a while and then moved away, or they stayed. It is hard to say.

Regardless of whether the magma comes in or not, at least the people inside can't find a way out for the time being. Rather than waiting for fate, Ji Xuanyi prefers to look for a secret base of the dwarves here, maybe he can find a place to hide. Of course, it would be even better if he could find the dwarves of the dwarves directly.

Ji Xuan knocked and hammered for a while, and felt that he could not figure out the meaning of this strength attribute, so he pulled the confused Qi Qin over and asked him to try.

Xu Chu on the side shouted weakly: " Ji Xuanyi, in the rain, I'm asking you if you're dead or not. "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment, then he remembered to open the chat channel. Xiao Xiaoyuxia chatted with him for a long time, and seemed very anxious.

The large group that left ahead of them also vaguely saw the volcanic eruption from afar , and some people were there making wishes with their eyes closed. Perhaps in their eyes, a volcanic eruption had the same effect as koi fish or something like that.

Xiao Xiaoyu didn't have time to care about these things. He just hoped that the three people who stayed there would not cause any trouble. Qi Qin was the hope of Fanxing City against Yaori City, and if anything happened to Ji Xuanyi and Xuchu , there would be no one to take over after he died! Fanxing City would be leaderless and completely finished !

Sword washing new wine: "..... ??? "

Aren't any of the leaders of the three major gangs treated as human beings? !

In short, in Xiao Xiaoyuxia's opinion, Ji Xuanyi and the other two must not get into any trouble. If anything happens to them, this mission of the Heavy Flame Volcano will be almost half failed!

Ji Xuan had a private chat with Xiao Xiaoyu and told her what had happened before and what they were doing, asking them not to worry.

After all, if the lava spreads over, the damned won't be able to escape, so worrying about it is a waste of emotion.

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

However, from Xiaoxiao Yuxia's perspective, the volcanic eruption seemed to have begun to slow down slowly. Perhaps the magic circle opened by Ji Xuanyi and others had begun to close due to exhaustion of energy, and there was no more heat to produce magma.

In other words, Ji Xuanyi and the others are probably safe now. Even if there is still magma flowing forward, there shouldn't be much. After all, the temperature is not high enough and the magma will slowly cool down.

After Xiaoxiao Yuxia told Ji Xuanyi the news, the latter did not feel very happy.

After all, if it is the first case, it is almost certain to find the dwarves here, but now it has become the second speculative case. This pit was formed naturally, so whether the dwarves still stay here has become an unknown.

Ji Xuanyi was just thinking about it when Qi Qin was confused and failed to control his strength, and smashed the sword on the earth wall. A large piece of mud and dust fell down, and a series of ,Puh " Puh " sounds suddenly rang out around him.

Ji Xuanyi also lowered his head and spat twice, then looked up and found that Qi Qin, who was originally standing in the corner, was suddenly gone. He panicked and hurriedly took two steps forward. Only then did he see Qi Qin's two feet sticking out with the help of the lighting gem in his hand.

Qi Qin fainted from sleepiness, and he was knocking on the wall while bent over, so he lost his balance and fell into a dark cave that had just been broken. At this time, there was a group of dwarfs in the cave. They were only as tall as Ji Xuan's thigh, with haggard faces and beards. They held huge axes and hammers in their hands, and looked at Qi Qin on the ground warily. Ji Xuanyi was startled and couldn't help but exclaimed " Oh shit " .

The dwarves were startled and all looked at Ji Xuanyi. However, Qi Qin heard Ji Xuanyi's voice in a half-asleep state. He forced himself to wake up and climbed up from the ground in a daze. They pointed their weapons at Qi Qin again with caution.

Xu Chu and the others also heard the noise and came over one after another. After seeing what was in the cave, they all exclaimed in surprise. They didn't expect that the dwarves were hiding here!

The dwarves were frightened by the players who appeared one after another. They stared with their eyes as big as copper bells and asked in a muffled voice: " Humans? What do you want to do? Get out of here quickly! The dwarves do not welcome you! "

The dwarves puffed their beards and glared, swinging their axes with an expression that said, " If you don't leave, I'm going to beat you up. " In fact, compared to the elves, the dwarves' verbal threats were very mild.

Ji Xuanyi had seen information about the dwarves in the library. They were good at forging, enthusiastic and brave, and never afraid of fighting. The reason why he did not attack them directly was actually because a long time ago, the dwarves had a good relationship with humans. Later, when they were doing arms transactions, they were cheated several times by black-hearted human merchants. The straightforward dwarves angrily decided not to associate with cunning humans anymore.

However, they also know that humans are not all bad people, they are just too stubborn and unwilling to admit that they fired the wrong shots out of anger, which is why they have not resumed interacting with humans until now.

Of course, there would be some underground sensing of a volcanic eruption. Now seeing Ji Xuanyi and his gang of players, the dwarves could probably guess why these humans appeared here based on their own experiences, so they just put on a ferocious expression but did not rush up to fight.

Ji Xuanyi found their ferocious looks funny and said, " Sorry, we didn't mean to disturb you. " A dwarf at the back asked, " Were you driven down by the volcanic eruption? Are you looking for our help? "

The one standing in front said angrily: " Don't talk! Volcanoes don't erupt on their own. Even if they come to us for help, we will refuse! "

The one behind said: " What do you care if I say something or not? It's your business if you want to refuse. I have no intention of refusing! "

When the one in front heard this, he immediately became unhappy and turned around to fight with the one behind him.

It was the first time that Ji Xuanyi saw two Huang Ming fighting, so he quickly said, " We used your formation to ignite the volcano, but we came to you for something else. "

The two dwarves stopped pulling each other's beards, and another dwarf who was not involved in the quarrel came up and said, " What's going on? "

Ji Xuanyi looked at them and said, " It's about the evil god who persecuted you here. "

When they heard the word "evil god", they all shuddered, stared at each other for a long while, and then said with a frown: " What persecution! We are not being persecuted! You humans, leave quickly! "

Xu Chu listened for a long time and saw that their reactions did not seem like those of people who had not been persecuted. He was speechless and said, " They have dug holes to live in, and they have not been persecuted yet ..."

Ji Xuanyi knew that the dwarves were very proud, and when they heard Xu Chu's words, their faces changed. He pushed him behind him and said, " I know the dwarves are fine, but the tentacles of darkness have appeared everywhere, and the entire continent is in danger. The dwarves are brave and good at fighting, and they will definitely lend a helping hand to all living things. This is why we found this place. "

The dwarves finally relaxed their expressions, and one of them raised his axe and shouted, " That's right! The brave dwarves will definitely fight for the entire continent! "

The other covered his mouth with his hands. Although he showed some caution, he still couldn't suppress the urge to try. He said to Ji Xuan excitedly: " You, a human, know us very well. You must have wanted to be friends with us a long time ago. But we can't make the decision on this matter. Our king is inside. Come in and talk! "

According to the routine of the previous elf mission, meeting with the leader is basically the beginning of the mission. If nothing goes as expected, the next step is to find out from the leader what the main content of the mission is.

Ji Xuanyi asked Xu Chu to tell Xiao Xiaoyuxia about the situation here first, and then he was at a loss about the dwarves' invitation.

It would certainly be a good thing to be able to go in and see the Dwarf King, but this door is a little small. The dwarves are about one meter tall, and the door of the passage is only about one meter and two meters wide. It would be difficult for Ji Xuanyi to go in even if he had to bend over. Judging from the lighting objects that the dwarves were actively lighting up, this tunnel is quite deep. By the time Ji Xuanyi reaches the location of the Dwarf King, he will probably be exhausted.

As if they knew what Ji Xuanyi was thinking, the dwarves scrambled to take out metal plates and tools from behind them, and soon they put together a small trailer.

One of them said proudly: " I have been saying this for years, there will always be humans who will come and make friends with us. Look! It works, right? "

Another pushed him and said, " We don't know whether they are good or bad! Go in and show them to the king! "

The small trailer was not small, but it could only seat four people at most. Ji Xuan pointed at the heads and looked at the dizzy Qi Qin.

With Qi Qin's physique, it would be easy for him to get stuck on the wall if he squatted down to sit on the trailer. Besides, he was not very sober to begin with, so it seemed that he would be of little use if he was brought in. After hesitating for a moment, Ji Xuanyi let Qi Qin go offline to rest. Qi Qin originally wanted to hold on a little longer, but he took a look at the dwarf's door and silently logged off.

Ji Xuanyi didn't know much about the players from the three major gangs who followed him, so he simply took Qingfeng Bufu and Ming Shao with him and Xu Chu and got on the dwarf's small trailer.

Fortunately, Xu Chu knew someone and asked him to help manage the team, and then he got on the bus.

Although the dwarves are short in stature, they have strong muscles all over their bodies due to long-term forging and ironworking. They pulled the small trailer with four big men sitting on it, and ran very fast as if there was no one behind them. However, the four people sitting in the back had to spend some effort to maintain their balance, and Xu Chu even lay directly on Ji Xuanyi's back.

Ji Xuanyi was almost knocked over by Xu Chu. He pulled Xu Chu's hands away from his waist and frowned, " Do you want to die? "

Xu Chu was a little stronger than Ji Xuanyi, and the feeling of losing balance was really scary. He couldn't pry Ji Xuanyi's hand away at all. He even went a step further and buried his face in Ji Xuanyi's back, saying shamelessly: " You can kill me, I won't let go! "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuan took out his staff expressionlessly, pressed the gemstone that released the skill on the back of Xu Chu's hand, and said coldly: " I'll give you one more chance. "

Xu Chu: "..."

Xu Chu swallowed, withdrew his hand, turned around and hugged Ming Shao behind him.

Behind him was a young and honest man named Ming: "..."

What did poor Young Master Ming do wrong again!

Qingfeng lived up to Ming Shao and could beat him up, but Xu Chu, a local tyrant , couldn't even touch him, let alone beat him up! Ming Shao could only silently try his best to keep his balance and not let himself be dragged out of the car by the two rookie mages.

Ji Xuanyi sat steadily on the small trailer. After passing through a long tunnel, the place where the dwarves currently lived came into view.

The underground stronghold of the dwarves is much more spectacular than the ruins on the ground. The originally empty sky has become a dome, which brings more inspiration to the dwarves' creations. Various chandeliers hang down from the exquisitely decorated dome above their heads, making the underground dwarf caves as bright as day.

Because the dwarves are obsessed with forging, in order to save the limited space underground for placing casting tables and furnaces, the dwarves' homes are built into five- or six-story buildings like human buildings. In fact, after the tunnel ends, the height of the underground cave is enough for Ji Xuanyi and others to stand and walk.

However, the enthusiastic dwarf guide did not intend to let Ji Xuanyi and the others walk on their own, but continued to run, as if he wanted to use a small trailer to take them directly to where the Dwarf King lived.

The busy people around saw the four humans on the trailer suddenly appear, and looked at them in surprise and curiosity. Half of the reason was because the dwarves had not interacted with humans for a long time, and the other half was because the dwarves had already hidden underground, and they didn't know how they found this place.

Xu Chu sighed: " Is this what it feels like to be a monkey in a zoo? "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Can't this guy use a better metaphor?

Chapter 90

The Dwarf King's residence is different from that of other dwarves.

This is a single-family house located in the very center of the dwarf stronghold . It is about the same height as other dwarf buildings around it, but it has only two floors. The height of the door frame is about the same as that of an ordinary human door frame , but the width is a few sizes larger – after all, although dwarves are short, they have a lot of muscles in their arms . In terms of width, it is one size wider than a normal human.

The stove erected next to the Dwarf King's residence was the largest and burned the most vigorously. When Ji Xuanyi and the other three approached , they felt a wave of heat coming towards them.

Fortunately, there are no physical sensing settings such as air pressure in this game , otherwise there is a furnace burning in the underground space, and even if the dwarves built a lot of vents , it would probably be stuffy.

Ji Xuanyi felt like he was going to explode just by imagining that feeling .

, they stopped before the explosion . Ji Xuanyi barely suppressed the irritation in his heart and looked at them.

A dwarf pointed proudly at the stove , then pointed at the " tall " house in front of him that could accommodate four humans standing upright , and said to Ji Xuan: " Look! This is the masterpiece of our king! "

Another dwarf pushed him and said unhappily, " You make it sound like our king is the best at building houses! The dwarves are best at casting weapons, okay? "

Perhaps because he felt that he had said something wrong , the dwarf was not angry at all . He knocked his head and said, " Yes, yes , yes , the king is the most powerful dwarf . If he has fire, he can definitely forge the artifact again! "

Ji Xuanyi immediately looked over at him and asked, " Fire? "

The dwarf immediately covered his mouth, and the others also suddenly fell silent. After a long while, they spoke in muffled voices, saying: "It's nothing, it's nothing. Let's go in and see the king. You have something to ask him, right?"

Xu Chu had just let go of Ming Shao and got out of the car. When he heard this, he couldn't help but say, "Big bastard is not bad..."

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuan looked back at him expressionlessly, until the latter made a zipper-like motion on his mouth, then he turned his head back.

Putting aside Xu Chu's inappropriate complaints, this conversation was a complete free-point question. His reaction was clearly reminding them that the triggering conversation for the task later was related to fire.

If Ji Xuanyi's guess was correct, the competitive dwarves were defeated by the evil god's men, but they did not want to escape in humiliation, so they moved to the harsh environment of the Heavy Flame Volcano, wanting to find the "fire" here, forge a magic weapon, and then return with the magic weapon to fight the evil god to the death. Unfortunately, the volcano erupted, but the dwarves did not seem to achieve their goal.

Judging from what the dwarf said just now, they didn't even get the fire and were forced to live underground. The task of uniting the dwarves is probably to help them get the fire.

But where exactly is this fire and how to get it? No one knows whether there will be any clues. If they just search on the map like a headless fly, it will be too difficult. You know, there is a Sun City that is eyeing them covetously!

Ji Xuan glanced at the dwarves who were walking in a hurry, and knew that this group would definitely not provide any other clues at the moment. He did not make things difficult for them. After greeting the other three people, he followed them into the Dwarf King's house.

Dwarves are a very unpretentious race. They have no guards or soldiers. As soon as you enter the room, you will see the Dwarf King, who is a size bigger and stronger than the other dwarves, lying on his back on a big dirty bed, snoring loudly and sleeping soundly.

Ji Xuan took a look at the surrounding furnishings. The Dwarf King was more or less a big king, but except for the size, this room was no different from the rooms of other dwarves. It was just as dirty and dusty, with all kinds of tools thrown all over the floor. He could be said to be the most people-friendly leader among several races, including humans.

A few dwarves left Ji Xuanyi and the others behind and quickly ran to the dwarf king's bedside, shouting in a voice as loud as a bronze bell: "Your Majesty! Your Majesty!"

Qing Feng Bu Fu couldn't help but say in a hoarse voice: "Oh no! A monk with a hairy face and a thunder god's mouth came to our door!"

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Ji Xuanyi and the other two turned their heads to look at him at the same time.

Qing Feng Bu Fu covered his face and said, "I'm sorry, the memories of my childhood are too vivid."

Xu Chu patted his shoulder in understanding.

Ming Shao raised his leg expressionlessly and walked to Ji Xuanyi's side, clearly drawing a line between himself and the two people behind him.

Ji Xuanyi patted his shoulder woodenly.

Of course, they would not be distracted by the drama and enter another world. They did not hear Qingfeng Bufu adding to the drama at all. After shouting a few times, he finally drowned out the snoring of the Dwarf King. The Dwarf King's snoring became louder, and he stuttered a few times and woke up with a grunt.

The dwarf king's voice was rougher and louder than the other dwarves. He rubbed his eyes and said in a rough voice: "What are you doing?"

His tone sounded like he was in a rage, but Ji Xuanyi, who had come into contact with several other dwarves, could tell that the other party was just asking a question in a very ordinary and calm manner.

The dwarves also said in a gruff voice: "Some humans have come to see us. They have something to tell you."

When he heard the word "human", the Dwarf King suddenly woke up. Of course, he also saw Ji Xuanyi and the other four standing in the middle of the room.

Qing Feng Bu Fu whispered behind Ming Shao: "The dwarves seem to have complicated feelings towards humans. Will he suddenly become a red name? There are only four of us and no milk. Isn't that too bad?"

In fact, when the Dwarf King saw them, Ming Shao had already secretly touched his bow. Once the Dwarf King was about to attack them, he was confident that he could distance himself from the opponent and gain hatred in the first place.

OT players in the dungeon. Their hatred coefficient is the highest among all professions except swordsmen and knights, and their damage is much higher than that of swordsmen and knights wearing T equipment. If the two power professions of the T monster are a little weaker, if they are not careful, the hatred will be snatched away by the archers and it will take a long time to get it back.

But because of this, combined with the archers' various skills to create distance, in the absence of a T, the archers can barely be counted as one-fifth of a T, and can use their flexible movements and positioning to kite the BOSS. However, this situation usually cannot last long. After all, the BOSS is very fast, and the archers' skills also have CD. The OT archers can only flutter for a few dozen seconds, and they will still be killed.

OT is risky, please be cautious when outputting!

Xu Chu seemed relaxed and asked curiously, "Although I don't think they will attack us, why don't we have milk? Isn't Ji Xuanyi a milkman?"

Qing Feng Bu Fu looked at Xu Chu in confusion: "Is that the amount of milk Xiao Ji produces also called milk?"

He still remembered how he died and came back to life in the Tomb of Ashes in the Green Forest City dungeon!

Xu Chu was about to ask in detail, but Ji Xuanyi coughed dryly with a dark face, Qingfeng Bufu quickly closed his mouth, and Xu Chu immediately quieted down.

As expected, the Dwarf King had no intention of attacking them. He just sat up from his big bed and looked at them with sharp eyes.

This is waiting for the player to speak first. Ji Xuan understood and said directly: " We are here to form an alliance with the dwarves. You should know that the minions of the evil god are wreaking havoc on the entire continent. Only when all the races on the continent unite can they be defeated. "

Of course the Dwarf King knew about this. He came to the map of the Heavy Flame Volcano just to defeat the evil god.

He glanced at Ji Xuanyi and said in a rumbling voice like thunder: " The dwarves once severed ties with humans, but we did not hate humans . Until the last dwarf king died and I became the dwarf king, he told me that humans are not all bad people. Not only should we be careful to guard against them, but we should also find a way to break the deadlock and make the two tribes friends again. The appearance of the evil god is indeed a good opportunity. "

Ji Xuanyi raised his eyebrows. Usually, this kind of line would be followed by a "but". Although the dwarves were a relatively easy race to conquer, it would not be so easy for players to complete the task.

As expected, the Dwarf King said, " However, the Dwarves are a proud race. We will only make friends with others when we have the corresponding strength. The Dwarves are too weak now. Even if we form an alliance with other races, we cannot provide much help. Even if we win in the end, the Dwarves are not worthy of sharing the glory! "

Xu Chu sighed and said, " What kind of thinking do these people have? "

An Elf King and a Dwarf King, that's enough, just form an alliance, this is just looking for trouble! However, the game's plot is set up to find trouble, otherwise where would there be so many tasks for players to do.

Ji Xuanyi said: " Then what will it take for the dwarves to agree to the alliance? "

After hearing this, the Dwarf King slowly lay back down and muttered, " This is the Dwarfs' own business. You don't have to worry about it. You just have to wait patiently. When we get it ... well, anyway, we will come to you ourselves. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned and said, " But we don't have time. If we keep dragging this on, who knows how many more lives will be killed! "

The dwarf king showed a hint of hesitation , but only for a moment. He immediately shook his head and said stubbornly: " No, this is the pride of the dwarves. "

Qing Feng Bu Fu couldn't help but say: " What a pride! Is pride more important than human life? "

The dwarf king immediately sat up and shouted angrily: " The pride of the dwarf race is more important than life! "

The Dwarf King's voice was already very loud, and his roar was even more powerful. Qingfeng Bufu was stunned by the roar and looked at him in confusion.

After a long while, the dwarf king lay back down angrily, muttering, " You humans don't understand. Cunning humans only care about profit and don't care about pride. "

The dwarves are outspoken and the dwarf king is even more amazing. It was normal for them to have a falling out with humans because of this map cannon.

Ji Xuanyi had no choice but to say, " I know what you want to do. The way you said to make the dwarves stronger is to obtain fire, right? "

The Dwarf King woke up suddenly , and his eyes as big as copper bells swept over the dwarves beside the bed.

The dwarf who accidentally revealed the news about the fire at the door immediately covered his mouth.

The Dwarf King was about to get angry at him, but Ji Xuan said, " It has nothing to do with him. We found the ruins left behind by your volcanic eruption. There are your materials on fire in the ruins, which is why we came here. We used the magic circle you left behind to ignite the volcano again. "

The dwarf king blinked and looked at Ji Xuanyi blankly.

Ji Xuanyi smiled and said, " Even if you don't tell us the method, we will help you find the fire. If there are casualties due to unclear circumstances, it is your responsibility to blame the dwarves for not protecting their companions who helped them. "

" I think dwarves value friendship more than pride, right? "

" Oh ... cunning human, cunning human ..." The Dwarf King kept muttering, and finally sighed and said: " You are right, friendship is more important than pride. Even if you are so cunning, we still like you very much. The dwarves are willing to accept help from friends. "

As soon as the Dwarf King finished speaking, the four of them received the mission of [Helping the Dwarves] . They all breathed a sigh of relief. Qingfeng Bufu even clapped silently and said, " Xiao Ji, it's been a long time since we last met. You're still so awesome! "

Before Ji Xuanyi could say anything, Xu Chu said modestly: " It's just a small scene, a small scene, just a normal operation. "

Ji Xuanyi: "..."

Are you the one being praised? Why are you making so much drama?

Ji Xuanyi didn't bother to pay attention to him and asked the Dwarf King directly: " What happened after the volcano erupted? "

The dwarf king's expression became serious. He said, " After the volcano erupted, fire did appear. We left our previous residence not just because the magma spread over here . We have come into contact with this thing enough times that we are not panicked by it. "

The Dwarf King looked at Ji Xuanyi and said in a deep voice, " But the moment the fire appeared, it was swallowed by the Flame Giant and became its core. As a result, the Flame Giant's strength increased greatly. We couldn't resist it, so we were forced to leave there. "

Ji Xuanyi was stunned for a moment and said, " Flame Giant? "

The dwarf king nodded and said, " It is a minion of the evil god and our long-standing enemy . " Ji Xuanyi frowned. According to the nature of this game, the existence of the Fire Giant should be similar to the composite BOSS in the Lost Forest . The dwarves wanted the fire, and the fire was in the body of the Fire Giant. The next task was to defeat the Fire Giant.

However, this fire giant is also different from the previous BOSS . The last BOSS was only half dead because he had encountered it once on the way. With the help of the elves, he was able to pass the level easily.

As for the Fire Giant, perhaps because they did not take the road from Starry City, but came directly from the Lost Forest, they did not encounter it. In other words, what they now need to face is a BOSS with full status and full health and completely unknown skills .

The most important thing is that this volcano is their home ground, and the number of troops in Star City has even shrunk a lot due to the map environment. If a fight really breaks out, it can be said to be very disadvantageous.

Xu Chu also realized this and frowned, " If this BOSS is as strong as the previous one, with its current combat power, it will be difficult even with the addition of the dwarves. How can we defeat it? "

Ji Xuanyi also had a solemn expression on his face, and he even thought about whether he should try to unite with Day City. However, given Day City's character, they would not be willing to cooperate with Fanxing City. Even if they did, they would most likely stab Fanxing City in the back halfway through the fight to ensure that they could get the reward.

Ji Xuanyi thought for a long time, and finally looked at the Dwarf King who was unmoved. Even when the dwarves were fleeing, they were running for a place where they could fight back. Even if they were hiding underground now, they would never give up the fight. They must have a backup plan, and from what the dwarf king had said before, it could be seen that it was only a matter of time before they prepared a backup plan.

Ji Xuanyi immediately asked directly: " What can the dwarves do about the fire giants? "

Upon hearing this, the Dwarf King laughed loudly and said, " Cunning human, yes, we have found a way to weaken the Fire Giants. Otherwise, even if all of them died in battle, the Dwarves would not stay here and muddle through! "

The dwarf king's eyes sparkled. He said, " There is black ice in the far north. It is the coldest thing in the world. In order to forge a weapon that can maximize the power of black ice, I have not slept for ten days and ten nights! "

The dwarves assist the Dwarf King in forging weapons and they take turns to rest, but the Dwarf King has no way to rest and can only stay by the fire all the time. It can only be said that the Dwarf King is the Dwarf King for a reason.

When the four heard this, they all showed expressions of understanding. No wonder they saw the Dwarf King sleeping as soon as they entered the room. No matter how unrefined the dwarves were, a king would not sleep like this.

The dwarf king smiled and said, " The weapon has been forged. Now we just need to find the black ice. "

Ji Xuanyi had never heard of Xuanbing, at least as a material. He looked at Xu Chu, the rich man who was very willing to collect precious items, and shook his head in confusion.

Even Xu Chu doesn't know, so Xuanbing is definitely not a life skill material that players can use. It can only be a quest item that no one knows where it will appear.

Ji Xuanyi immediately asked: " Where is the black ice? "

The dwarf king yawned and said in a muffled voice, " There should be another piece in the dwarf's material warehouse. I have asked someone to look for it. Once they find it, we can set out to defeat the fire giant. "

So simple?

Ji Xuanyi didn't think the official would be so friendly to the players, so he asked again: " Is there really black ice in the warehouse? "

The dwarf king frowned and said unhappily, " The dwarf's warehouse is the most precious treasure house in the world. It contains everything. It's just a piece of black ice ... "

At this point he hesitated again and muttered, " I remember there was. Several decades ago, a human warlock came to the dwarves and asked us to help him make a soul staff. The reward was a piece of black ice. He also confused the soul gem with the evil spirit gem. In the end, he handled it incorrectly and the gem exploded. But he still gave us the black ice. He was a good man – I remember, yes, there was such a thing, it must be right. We have a piece of black ice in our warehouse. "

Ji Xuanyi frowned, but before he could figure out what he meant, he saw a dwarf running down the narrow staircase leading to the second floor, shouting at the top of his voice: " My king! My king! This is not good! "

Thanks to Qingfeng Bu Fu, the following words echoed in the four people's minds at the same time.

Xu Chu hesitated and said, " The monk with the hairy face and thunder mouth came to our door? "

Ji Xuanyi: "... Shut up! "

Fortunately, that person was not affected by them, but anxiously said to the Dwarf King: " The black ice is gone! "

The dwarf king was startled and shouted: " What? Gone? "

The dwarf said, " We searched the warehouse thoroughly, but couldn't find the box of black ice! "

The Dwarf King became anxious, so he jumped off the bed and strode upstairs. Ji Xuanyi and the other four quickly followed him.

The second floor of the house where the Dwarf King lives is where materials are stored. It is said to be the warehouse of the dwarves, but in fact most of them are the Dwarf King's own collection, and only a small part is the common property of the dwarves. The rule of the dwarves is that whoever forges the weapon gets the reward, and if it is forged by everyone together, it belongs to the entire dwarf tribe. Except for the Dwarf King who has to keep the reward of the entire dwarf tribe, other dwarves also have their own places to hide materials, and they guard their own treasures. This is how the dwarves think.

Ji Xuanyi and others went up to the second floor and were shocked by the crowded space. Several dwarves were moving around, anxiously looking for the box containing the black ice. The Dwarf King also strode over and began to search around.

In the past, dwarves were very careful with the materials used to forge weapons, and they handled them with care for fear that they would be bumped or scratched. However, now that something important was happening, no one cared about that. Countless materials rolled to the ground, and no one was willing to pick them up.

According to the usual settings of the online game world, Ji Xuanyi didn't even need to look for it to know that Xuanbing must not be here. However, he also knew that the dwarf was stubborn and would not waver no matter how much he tried to persuade him. So he had no choice but to ask, " Besides your warehouse, is there any other place to find Xuanbing? "

The Dwarf King was rummaging through the boxes while saying, " Didn't I tell you that there are some in the Far North? Yes, there is also one in the possession of that human warlock, but that was fifty or sixty years ago. According to human life spans, he is probably dead now. Even if he is still alive, who knows where he is now? Don't think too much. Come and help us look for it. It must be in the warehouse. "

Ming Shao and Qing Feng Bu Fu were urged by the Dwarf King to go forward to help, but Ji Xuanyi did not move. He frowned and said, " Apart from these two sources, is there no other place to get Xuan Bing? "

The dwarf king paused for a moment and said, " If that's the case, then there may be other places where we can find Xuanbing. "

Ji Xuanyi blinked and asked, " Where? "

 " The confined sea. " said the dwarf king.

Ji Xuan was stunned.

The progress of the strategy for the Heavy Flame Volcano was actually related to the Claustrophobic Sea. He could probably understand what the authorities meant.

The ending of this world quest is related to two world lines, one is a happy ending, and the other is a BAD END in which the novice town is completely destroyed . Almost all players will prefer the former, but the official must have made more settings based on the latter, so the official is more inclined to the latter.

But ensuring the completion of the plot is one thing, and the players' demands also need to be met. Therefore, the official connected the task progress of the two maps together in the process of players completing world quests. Which of the two world lines to take depends entirely on the players' own choices.

Players in some servers first conquered the Claustrophobic Sea, and their second choice was the Heavy Flame Volcano, so their world line can enter the first state of a happy ending.

However, players in other servers, because of the different conquering order, will embark on the second world line in which the novice town is completely destroyed, thus gaining more different gaming experiences.

In fact, this setting cannot be said to be official wrong. If the three main cities in a server reach a peace agreement, when they choose to conquer the map under completely unknown circumstances, they will most likely think of the factor of attribute restraint, and the possibility of choosing to conquer the Claustrophobic Sea first and then the Heavy Flame Volcano is still very high. Only those servers with disputes between the main cities cannot think from the attribute point of view, and can only choose the order of strategy according to strength and difficulty, which will make it easier to enter the second world line.

Peace is more likely to lead to a happy ending, while disputes are more likely to bring destruction. This setting is reasonable and there is nothing much to say.

Unfortunately, however, Ji Xuanyi's server was the latter.

Ji Xuanyi couldn't blame anyone, because some things are just like that, no matter how powerful a person is, there are many things that he cannot change, just like the relationship between the three main cities and the current situation.

Of course Xu Chu also understood what the Dwarf King's words meant. He knew that Ji Xuanyi was helping the Star City team so hard because he wanted to complete a happy world line, so he immediately looked at Ji Xuanyi.

There was no expression on Ji Xuanyi's face.

Xu Chu raised his eyebrows and said, "Are you okay?"

Ji Xuanyi hummed and took out his parchment, which had two tasks on it. One was [Help the Dwarves], and the other was the task [Separated Father and Daughter] issued by August . August, the great magician of Star City, asks you to rescue his daughter Hamana from the dangerous Elemental Town.

Although he had tried his best, it seemed that some outcomes were already predetermined. Ji Xuan read the task introduction for a while and was about to delete it, feeling depressed, but suddenly he thought of something and was stunned.

Xu Chu saw that his expression was not right and asked, "What's wrong?"

"Save, save ..." Ji Xuanyi muttered several times, and suddenly came to his senses and shouted: "Fuck! Am I a fucking idiot! Fuck! I wasted so much time!"

Xu Chu was stunned: "Huh?"

Ji Xuanyi didn't have time to explain to him. He strode forward and said to the dwarf king: "I'm sorry, I still have things to do. Can you send me out first?"

The dwarf king looked at him and said, "Of course you can. Just go downstairs and find the dwarves who brought you in. They will take you out."

Ji Xuanyi immediately turned around and walked away. When he reached the stairs, he turned back and grabbed the confused Xu Chu and said, "There are only two days left. I don't know if I have enough time to get to Xinmu Town. You must use all your means and do your best to complete the task within two days. I'm counting on you!"

Before Xu Chu could respond, Ji Xuanyi turned around and ran down the stairs.

Xu Chu was half a beat slower, and said to the air in confusion: "What? Why did you leave it to me? Where are you going?"

Although the air would definitely not answer him, Xu Chu would not ignore Ji Xuanyi's rare entrustment. After all, it was not easy to make Ji Xuanyi owe him a favor.

Xu Chu sighed quietly and began to chat in secret under the rain.

In order to complete the task, Ji Xuanyi has already found out the method. Xuanbing is in the Claustrophobic Sea. If you want to get Xuanbing, of course, you can only contact Youyue City, which is doing the task in the Claustrophobic Sea. It has been eight days, and they must have completed the task. If you are lucky, you may just rush to the map where the last task has not been completed, the Heavy Flame Volcano.

I just don't know if the time is enough.

Xu Chu began to miss the game where you could become stronger by paying money, go to the sky and the earth with money, and even buy a spaceship.

If there were spaceships that could be purchased for a fee in Domain, they would probably be on their way back now ...

After Xiaoxiao Yuxia received the news from Xu Chu, he immediately started to contact the people in Youyue City. Just as he started typing, he saw Jianxi Xinjiu, who was looking for the props, asked for a few ropes and pulled the reins to prepare to leave.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia asked curiously: " Where are you going? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu was also confused and said, " I don't know. Ji Xuanyi called me and asked me to go find him. "

Xiaoxiao Yuxia said: " Didn't you say anything? "

Jian Xixinjiu walked out and said, " No, I just said it was urgent. "

Xiao Xiaoyu said " Oh " and said loudly: " When will you come back? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu had already run far away , and also shouted: " I won't come back! "

Xiaoxiaoyuxia: " What the hell?! "

However, Jian Xi Xin Jiu had already run far away and could not hear what he said at all.

Xiao Xiaoyu looked dazed. It was fine if Jian Xixinjiu left. It was useless anyway. What if Ji Xuanyi left? Although there was Xu Chu, Tianxia Diyi – Oh, Tianxia had been offline before, so he probably wouldn't leave with Ji Xuanyi.

That's fine, let's go, it's okay. Xiaoxiao Yuxia continued to communicate with Youyue City calmly.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia obtained three pieces of information through communication with Youyue City.

The first news was that Youyue City had indeed obtained the mission item, Xuanbing, in the Secluded Sea. They didn't know what it was used for. The system only said that the temperature of that thing was very low and it had a miraculous effect on fire, so Youyue City tentatively headed towards the Chongyan Volcano.

The second piece of news was that when Youyue City was heading towards Chongyan Volcano, they ran into a large group of people from Dayo City and were wiped out. Xuanbing was also snatched away by Dayo City because it could not be stored in the backpack.

The third piece of news is that the large army of Day City may have arrived at the Chongyan Volcano.

With Xuanbing.

Xu Chu couldn't help but laugh after receiving the reply.

It seems that it's okay if I don't recharge to buy the spaceship, because Day City has already brought the things.

 " Then let's call, " Xu Chu said happily, " It's a good time to receive a package! "

Ji Xuanyi urged Jian Xixinjiu almost like calling his soul, and the latter was forced to run towards where Ji Xuanyi was as fast as possible, and then conscientiously pulled Ji Xuanyi up with a rope.

There were many other players in the pit. When they saw Jian Xi Xinjiu coming to rescue people, they all wanted to go out. Ji Xuan ignored them and threw the rope in Jian Xi Xinjiu's hand into the pit. Regardless of the complaints of the players below, he grabbed Jian Xi Xinjiu who couldn't help but look back frequently and left.

There are still members of Mengtanggu's gang in the pit!

But Jian Xi Xin Jiu also knew that Ji Xuanyi's reaction must be due to some important matter, and it was urgent. He didn't say much at the moment. He climbed onto the horse, pulled Ji Xuanyi up again, and asked, " What are you doing? It's so late. In more than an hour, the main force will be offline. Where are you going? Will you make it in time? "

Ji Xuanyi urged Jian Xixinjiu to go in the direction he pointed, and asked, " Are you free tomorrow or the day after tomorrow? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu drove his horse and said, " Yes, what's the matter? You want to date me? Don't do it, Tian Xia will cause trouble for me. I don't have to pledge my love to you even if I thank you. Let's try another method. "

Jian Xi's new wine habitually slurred his lips for a moment, then he remembered who was sitting behind him, his back suddenly stiffened, and he said repeatedly: " Sorry, sorry, I said too much, don't take it to heart. "

However, something strange happened. Ji Xuanyi actually didn't seem angry at all. Instead, he said calmly, " It's okay. I'll be fine as long as I have time. "

Ji Xuanyi's reaction was too abnormal! Jian Xixinjiu felt hairy and couldn't help but said, " Don't be like this. Just tell me where you are going. I won't blame you even if you lose a level ..."

Ji Xuanyi hummed and said , s'That " good . I want to go to the Wood Novice Town, the New Wood Town. Can I get there within two days? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu: "... What the hell is this???"

Two days! Newbie town??? Brother! Do you think you are on a plane?

Chapter 91

The locations of the five wild maps are between the main city and the secondary city , more inclined towards the secondary city . In addition, the distance between the two wild maps is actually shorter than the distance from the main city to the wild map . Therefore, for Ji Xuanyi , the fastest route is to run directly from the Heavy Flame Volcano to the Lost Forest, then from the Lost Forest to the secondary city, and then go to the Novice Town.

It's very troublesome and very far , but there is no better way.

Jian Xi Xinjiu complained bitterly . Although his horse had been replaced with the fastest horse in Fanxing City by Xu Chu, it was still impossible to travel a thousand miles a day. How could he possibly reach Novice Town within two days?

Ji Xuanyi said calmly, " What's the matter? Have you never played games all night? "

Sword washing new wine: "..."

That was all when I was young! You are still working all night at your age, aren't you afraid of sudden death?

However, sudden death cannot be used as an excuse . Ji Xuanyi and Jian Xixinjiu finally decided to travel all night to rescue Madam Harman . Xu Chu and Xiao Xiaoyuxia gathered people and planned to take the initiative to cause trouble for Youri City.

The leaders of all the individual gangs tried their best to gather their individual players online , and the large group waited in place for most of the day , which gave the players time to rush over here . When they counted the number of people under the drizzle the next day , they found that the team from Star City had actually recovered some of its previous strength.

Although they are probably still no match for the large army of Daylight City, it is much better than the previous scattered situation.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia was adjusting the team. Mi Yin, who had logged off very early yesterday and missed a lot of plots, looked around and asked, " Where is Xuan Xiaoyi? "

Qi Qin, who had just come online and received the news of Ji Xuanyi's " separate actions " , said dejectedly: " He went to another place to complete the mission. "

Qi Qin's depressed mood was so serious that Mi Yinhan said, " Why didn't he take you with him on the mission? That's so strange. "

Qi Qin looked at Mi Yin dimly: " I find it strange too. "

Xiao Xiaoyu lowered his head , chatting with a few gang leaders, and said absentmindedly: " What's so strange? You can't stay up late, and you don't have a horse-- "

Qi Qin: "..."

Xiao Xiaoyu glanced at Qi Qin's expression, laughed dryly, and said: " The most important thing is that your fighting ability is so strong, you have to stay and help us fight. If he takes you away, we will collapse! "

Qi Qin refused to listen to these reasons!

Mi Yin listened to most of it, nodded in understanding, and said, " Why isn't the Jian Xi Xin Jiu here? "

Qi Qin's eyes became even more resentful, which made Mi Yin feel uneasy.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia whispered: " The sword is washed and the new wine is made, and the thief can stay up late, understand? "

Miyin: "... Okay, I understand. "

Mi Yin glanced at Qi Qin and comforted him: " Don't worry, when he comes back, I will help you beat him up! "

Qi Qin looked at Mi Yin with a moved expression.

...

Washing the new wine with a sword while riding a horse: " A-choo! "

Ji Xuanyi: " What's wrong? Did you catch a cold? "

Jian Xi Xin Jiu wondered: " Can you catch a cold from the wind in the game? "

...

Xiaoxiao Yuxia thought that it was not easy to wash the new wine with a sword. Now he didn't know why he was being exploited by Ji Xuanyi. He would be beaten when he came back. What kind of world is this!

After asking about Jian Xi's new wine, Mi Yin calmed down. Xiao Xiao Yu Xia had already mentioned the fact that they would have to fight a head-on battle with the Daylight City as soon as they came online. He knew how difficult it was to deal with Xue Piao Renjian, not to mention that they had to add the large army of the Daylight City. He had to stay in the best condition to face the upcoming battle with peace of mind.

Xiao Xiao Yuxia was chatting with several guilds in secret, and couldn't help but look up and ask: " You even asked where Jian Xi's new wine went, why didn't you ask Xu Chu? "

" Ah? " Mi Yin was stunned and asked curiously: " Xu Chu? Xu Chu is still asking? Didn't he cancel again? "

Xiaoxiao Rain: "..."

Mi Yin hesitated and asked: " What's wrong? Is there something else going on? "

Xiao Xiaoyuxia shook her head with a complicated expression and said, " It's nothing, he just stood aside. "

Mi Yin turned her head around in confusion and explained to Qi Qin about the matter concerning Xue Piao Renjian.

The reason why Xue Piao Renjian became the so-called number one master is not only because of his talent, but also because he is very hardworking.

Mi Yin took Xue Piao Renjian as his apprentice by chance. In fact, he didn't teach him much. The other party had grown up through constant practice in a very short period of time. The so-called guidance he gave later was actually just some reminders given by a teammate.

Therefore, Mi Yin did not often mention their master-disciple relationship. In his eyes, Xue Piao Renjian was more like a teammate.

They knew each other very well and knew what the other was thinking without much verbal communication, and Xue Piao Renjian was a naturally quiet person, so when the two of them worked together in the arena, Mi Yin didn't speak and there was silence in the voice channel. But despite the silence, the cooperation between the two has never been wrong. The video of their playing in the arena was even recorded and studied by many people like a textbook, but not many people have successfully learned it.

For an arena player like Mi Yin, having a teammate with such tacit understanding is probably the happiest thing in the world.

Qi Qin looked at Mi Yin for a while, and gently reminded her: " Shouldn't you tell me about his fighting characteristics? "

Just bragging about each other and reminiscing about how you used to get along is not going to help him defeat Xue Piao Renjian!

Mi Yin reacted, smiled awkwardly, and said, " Well, it's like this when you get older. "

Qi Qin nodded, pretending to believe it.

Mi Yin said: " Xue Piao's strength is not the same as yours. In fact, I still think you have the advantage in a fight. "

Qi Qin listened carefully.

" Xue Piao's strength lies in the game routine. He can fully understand and use all the available states in the game, including skill effects, positioning and other factors. Moreover, his reaction ability is very quick, and his intuitive prediction is stronger than Ji Xuanyi. He can make the right choice without much thinking. "

Mi Yin said, " In fact, the cooperation between me and him is partly more dependent on him. It's said that the cooperation is 50-50, but in fact I'm not even 50, it's almost 40-50. Moreover, in this situation where he is more of a supporting role, he is still the main output and kill . In other words, he not only has to observe the movements of the enemy , and provide strong enough output and timely finishing blows, but also observe my situation so as to provide timely support and cooperation. "

Mi Yin said with some depression: " It seems like I've always been clinging to him ... But it's almost the same. This situation is also clearly reflected in my and his personal strength. If we fight one-on-one with the same profession, my winning rate is basically only 30%. Now with the professional restraint, my winning rate is probably less than 10%. "

After Mi Yin finished speaking, she looked at Qi Qin and found that he had a strange expression on his face. She couldn't help but ask, " What's wrong? "

Qi Qin glanced at him and couldn't help but remind him: " You're praising him again. "

Miyin: "... I'm sorry. "

Qi Qin shook his head and said, " It's okay. "

Mi Yin cleared her throat and said, " There's really not much to say. Xue Piao is almost unrivaled in his use of skills and grasp of timing . In a serious game routine, there may be players who can fight him equally, but there is definitely no one who can defeat him. However, this is just a serious game routine. "

" Domain is a holographic online game. Your tactics are completely different from those in normal online games. Even your skills are only a kind of auxiliary or bonus for you. He can't see your tactics and can only fight you based on his intuition. In addition, he probably isn't very familiar with fighting with melee attacks, so you still have a great chance of winning. "

Mi Yin didn't say anything definite, and it was unclear whether she was worried that Qi Qin would take it lightly, or if she still subconsciously had the idea that Xue Piao Renjian was invincible.

Qi Qin did not comment on this. He did not think he would lose, but he would not force others to feel the same way. For him, as long as Ji Xuanyi trusted him, it was enough.

Thinking of this, Qi Qin couldn't help but lower his head and sent a message to Ji Xuanyi: " Xuanyi, what are you doing? "

It took a long time for Ji Xuanyi to reply.

[Ji Xuanyi] : Ride a horse and hurry on the road.

The answer was very concise and a bit perfunctory, and it was obvious that the other party was in a hurry.

Qi Qin immediately replied: " Then be careful on the road and come back early. "

After Qi Qin finished sending it, he felt a little silly. What was going on in the game? Why didn't he come back earlier?

He stared at the chat bar for a while, and sure enough, Ji Xuanyi didn't reply either.

Qi Qin sighed somewhat disappointedly.

While Qi Qin was still troubled by his love affair, Xiaoxiao Yuxia was busy and exhausted.

The team was almost organized, but he still had no idea where Day City was! He still remembered that there were spies from Day City mixed in his team. If he couldn't find Day City's team in advance, Star City would have to passively take the attack.

There was originally a gap in strength between the two. If the Sun City took the initiative in the first wave of contact, then it would be GG . The Star City would then be pinned to the ground, unless Qi Qin from two more groups came, then there might be a chance for a comeback.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia sent out all the assassins he could trust except Mi Yin, but he didn't know whether he could get a response in time.

The group stood there and waited for a while. When most of the people in the group began to whisper and discuss the chances of winning this battle, Xiaoxiao Yuxia finally received a piece of news that the large force of Day City had indeed arrived at the Chongyan Volcano and was circling their side, as if intending to launch a surprise attack from behind them.

Xiaoxiao opened the map in the rain and saw the blue dot that was moving with the large army of Day City. He silently turned the team around.

The blue dot on the map stopped.

The scene was very awkward for a moment.

The Sun City probably also received the news that the Star City suddenly turned around, and knew that their movements had also been discovered.

However, the Daylight City did not make any stupid moves to find out the spies lurking around. Their strength was there, and they were fearless. If they were discovered, they simply changed direction and walked straight towards the front of the Starry City.

Even if a head-on war breaks out, it will only result in a few more losses, which is nothing. The Day City has absolute confidence in itself.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia heard the discussion coming from the scattered troops. After the previous ambush of the Daylight City Knights, many players felt that Daylight City could not beat them at all, and there was also a god-like person in their city who could fly over eaves and walls, so their chances of winning were even greater.

Only Xiao Xiaoyuxia, who had known the true fighting power of the Daylight City, knew how difficult this battle would be. Listening to the waves of poisonous advice coming from behind, Xiao Xiaoyuxia felt his lips dry.

I don't know whether it was a good thing or a bad thing that the three knight troops were not announced to the players of Star City, including the strongest gang leader Jian Xi Xinjiu who was driven back to Star City.

If I lose without knowing how strong the opponent is, will I be scolded when I return?

Xiao Xiaoyuxia glanced at Qi Qin beside her and found that he was not in a very good mood. She immediately said with a bitter mouth: " Tianxia, please don't let me down at this time ..."

Qi Qin was stunned and was about to say something when he suddenly heard the system prompt sound. Someone sent him a private message.

Qi Qin lowered his head and opened the chat channel to take a look.

[Ji Xuanyi] : Okay, you should do your best too.

Xiao Xiaoyuxia was shocked to find that as soon as she finished speaking, Qi Qin immediately became energetic, his eyes full of fighting spirit, and he looked like he could beat a hundred people alone.

What he said shouldn't have such a big impact on the world! I don't know why I feel so panicked! Xiaoxiao Yuxia was thinking too much at the moment, and couldn't help but take small steps to the side, away from Qi Qin.

Fortunately, Qi Qin's mind and eyes were full of Ji Xuanyi's reply, and he didn't notice him at all. Instead, Mi Yin, who was standing next to Xiao Xiaoyuxia, was suddenly squeezed and looked at the other party in confusion.

However, there was no time for them to clear up the misunderstanding. Soon, the sound of horse hooves could be heard and the silhouette of a large army could be vaguely seen in the distance . The individual players of Star City could not help but quiet down and wait quietly for the arrival of the large army from Sun City.

The number of people in Day City is actually not more than that in Star City. Not only because of the map environment, there is a serious loss of individual players, but also because they have been marching quickly all the way, many people fell behind, and there is still a small force left in the Death Swamp to do the finishing tasks.

However, just from the momentum of the opposite side, one can clearly feel a certain difference. Just now they were talking about how Sun City got two summoned BOSSes for nothing, but that was all, nothing to be afraid of. The individual players were now all tense and did not dare to be careless at all.

The largest gang in Day City is called Bancheng. Unlike the three major gangs in Star City, almost all decisions in Day City are made by Bancheng's gang leader Zuo'an alone. Now he is riding a horse, stopping right in front of the team, looking at this side from afar.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia certainly couldn't lose the battle, so she took Mi Yin and Qi Qin and walked to the front, looking at each other with a smile.

" Interesting, " Half City's gang leader Zuo An smiled and said, " You are the representatives of Star City? Three people? Hahahaha, I thought others were joking. Are you playing house? "

Xiao Xiao Yuxia raised her eyebrows and said, " It seems that there is no benefit for one person to hold power alone. Didn't anyone teach you how to have a decent chat? You just graduated from elementary school, and you still have to use this method to scold others before going to war? "

Zuo An's face darkened, and it looked as if he wanted to directly call for people to attack them. Qi Qin and Mi Yin subconsciously took a step forward.

But for some reason, he still held back, and instead laughed and said loudly: " Since you are the one in charge, you should also be aware of the gap between us. Just be straightforward and hand over all the clues and tasks to us. Time is running out. For the sake of this server's world line, no one wants those people to leave like this, right? "

Xiao Xiaoyu's face darkened and he immediately realized what the other party was planning. They were clearly trying to steal the mission, but they had to make it sound so righteous. They just wanted to put half of the blame for the failure to complete the mission and the BE of the world line on Fanxing City. It was really disgusting.

Xiao Xiao Yu snorted coldly and said, " Sorry, we have already received the mission and it is not far from completion . If it is really for the world line, you can leave now. We promise to complete the mission within two days! "

The Day City originally came to grab the mission, so they wouldn't care about these things. What they said was just polite talk, and they didn't want to talk at all. Even if the Star City really handed over the mission and clues, Zuo'an would not allow them to leave like this. Xiaoxiao Yuxia's refusal now just gave them an excuse to take action.

Zuo An immediately sneered, " Then we can't reach an agreement. You brought this upon yourself. "

As soon as he finished speaking, a figure riding a horse walked out from the team behind. It was Xue Piao Renjian.

Xue Piao Renjian was originally looking towards the direction of Fanxing City with an expressionless face. When his gaze passed by Mi Yin, he paused slightly, then lowered his eyes and looked at nothing.

Finally, Mi Yin lost her temper and shouted, " The snow is falling. "

Xue Piao Renjian looked up at him, then nodded slightly.

Zuo An looked at Xue Piao Renjian, stopped preparing to issue an attack order, and said with a smile: " Do you know him? "

Xue Piao Renjian glanced at him and said nothing.

Zuo An was already used to the other party's silence, and he didn't get angry. Instead, he raised his eyebrows and said, " I know you so well, maybe we are old friends? "

Xue Piao Renjian finally spoke, and he said somewhat unhappily: " It has nothing to do with you. "

" That's not necessarily true, " Zuo An said with a malicious smile, " I really like this kind of plot where friends turn against each other, you know that. "

Xue Piao Renjian frowned and looked at him coldly.

Zuo An didn't care about his gaze. He stroked his chin and looked at Mi Yin, saying loudly: " Hey! That person over there isn't Mi Yin, is he? Are you also from one of the three major gangs? "

Mi Yin glanced at Xue Piao and vaguely sensed that she was in a bad mood. She instantly realized that Zuo An probably didn't like Xue Piao Renjian very much, so she replied unhappily, " It's me. "

Zuo An laughed loudly and said, " It's really you! What a coincidence! Xue Piao Renjian is on my side. Do you want to fight? "

Mi Yin frowned, but before she could respond, Zuo An said loudly: " Oh, I forgot, you can't beat him, right? Didn't you lose to him many times in that singles competition and finally withdrew in disgrace? "

Xue Piao Renjian saw Mi Yin's expression and his face changed. Before he could say anything, Zuo An had already shouted in the world channel: " Isn't it awesome? The coordinates are Chongyan Volcano. Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin are in a one-on-one duel. Anyone want to bet on the outcome? Among the original master and apprentice and teammates, I wonder who is more powerful? "

Before Xue Piao Renjian even had time to stop it, someone had already started discussing the issue on the world channel.

" Are you stupid? Of course Xue Piao Renjian is more powerful. Mi Yin is far inferior to him! "

" The snow is falling on the earth, isn't the music of the past a thing of the past? "

" Although they are master and apprentice, the gap between them is quite big. In the arena, isn't it always Xue Piao Renjian who gets the MVP ? "

" The people above must be stupid, Mi Yin is proficient in all professions, super awesome, okay? I choose Xue Piao Renjian! "

" No more words, the snow is falling on earth. "

" Xue Piao Renjian must be the strongest. Mi Yin has long been unable to defeat him. "

During the discussion, some people asked who Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin were, and some asked why they fought since Xue Piao Renjian and Mi Yin had a good relationship. However, they were basically overwhelmed by the one-sided comments that Mi Yin was no match for Xue Piao Renjian.

The faces of everyone in Fanxing City were very ugly, and even the scattered troops could vaguely hear that Mi Yin was indeed no match for Xue Piao Renjian. If the opponent was Xue Piao Renjian, would they lose? Xiao Xiao Yuxia was so angry that he chatted with the scattered gang leaders frantically, asking them to keep their gang members under control and not cause trouble at this time.

Xue Piao Renjian breathed a little hurriedly as he looked at Mi Yin's gloomy face. He opened his mouth, but was completely speechless. For the first time, he was so angry at his poor eloquence. He could only frown and look towards the left bank beside him.

Zuo An gave him a fake smile and said fearlessly: " What's wrong? Are you angry? "

Xue Piao Renjian clenched the silver spear in his hand and said nothing.

Zuo An said hypocritically: " Being strong is a good thing. Everyone is praising you, but you are not happy. You are really hard to please. "

Xue Piao Renjian still frowned and remained silent.

Xue Piao Renjian is like this. Even if he is angry, he only shows it for a moment and does not say anything. It is very boring. Zuo An withdrew his gaze without interest, looked at Mi Yin opposite him, and suddenly said loudly: " People from Fanxing City, why don't we do this? It is not easy for everyone to fight and kill to level up. It just so happens that both sides have famous masters. I have said it, why don't we just use a one-on-one duel to decide the winner! "

The intention of this sentence was very sinister. If Xiaoxiao Yuxia agreed, almost everyone would reach a consensus that Mi Yin could not beat Xue Piao Renjian, which was equivalent to handing the task over to them. The players of Fanxing City would definitely be dissatisfied. But if Xiaoxiao Yuxia did not agree, it would be as if he was publicly confirming that Mi Yin was not as good as Xue Piao Renjian in front of everyone, which would greatly hurt Mi Yin's feelings.

Whether he agreed or not, it was a dilemma.

However, the premise for this question to be valid is that there is only one master, Mi Yin, in Fanxing City. In fact, Xiaoxiao Yuxia, who has Qi Qin by her side, is not afraid of a one-on-one fight.

But even so, Xiao Xiao Yu Xia was disgusted by this man's actions and couldn't help but curse: " Fuck, how can this idiot be more mentally retarded than a bitch! "

Mi Yin exhaled lightly, forced a smile, and said, " The forest is big, there are all kinds of birds. "

Qi Qin said with some concern: " Are you okay, Miyin? "

Mi Yin shook her head and said, " What he said is actually not that wrong. Xue Piao is better than me. I already knew this. "

It's just that knowing it in one's heart is different from others emphasizing this matter over and over again. Even Mi Yin felt a little upset for a moment. After all, he was once at the top of the online gaming world, and he would not feel good in this situation anyway.

The only thing that made Mi Yin calm down a little was that he knew that Xue Piao Renjian didn't mean what Zuo An said. As long as they were still good friends, other rumors were not that scary.

Xiaoxiao Yuxia couldn't help but sigh, Mi Yin is indeed an arena player who has seen many storms and waves, his mentality is still stable . If it were him in this situation, he would have collapsed long ago.

Seeing that there was no response from Star City for a long time, Zuo An guessed that his conditions were too insincere. After all, whether Star City agreed or not, wouldn't it be a loss in the end? There was no motivation at all.

He looked at Xue Piao and complained, " Look, they're not talking, Mi Yin is unwilling, maybe she's mad at you? The relationship between you two isn't that good, and yet there are still people saying you two are a couple? The fans' imaginations are really scary. "

Xue Piao didn't even look at him this time. She was silent and motionless like a statue.

Seeing that he didn't respond, Zuo An raised his eyebrows and said to Xiao Xiao Yu Xia again: " How about this! I only have one Xue Piao Renjian here, you can send as many people as you want, we'll fight in a round-robin battle, as long as you can beat him, you win, how about that! Look, you have Mi Yin, if you use up some of your strength, you can still kill him, right? "

There was still no sound from Star City.

After waiting for a while, Zuo An sighed and said, " If you don't agree to such conditions, then I can only use force. Are you sure? "

Although Xiaoxiao Yuxia was furious, she knew she couldn't let go of this opportunity, so she immediately said, " Then let's do as you say! "

Zuo An grinned and said, " One on one? "

Xiao Xiaoyu snorted coldly, thinking to herself, we have the best in the world here, what are we afraid of! Just as she was about to agree, she was stopped by Mi Yin.

Mi Yin raised her head and said loudly: " Didn't you say that? In a round-robin battle, it will be fine as long as I can beat Xue Piao. "

Zuo An laughed out loud and responded, " You really know your own limitations! Hahahaha! Okay, let's have a round-robin battle! "

Xiao Xiao Yu frowned and whispered, " Mi Yin, what are you doing? Why are you fighting in a round-robin battle? "

Qi Qin also said: " Yes, Miyin, I really won't lose. "

Mi Yin smiled at Qi Qin and said, " I'm not afraid of you losing, but there are some things I want to make clear to Xue Piao in person. Besides, it's been a long time since we had a proper fight. I know I'm no match for him, so you go in the second round. "

Hearing Mi Yin say this, Qi Qin had no choice but to nod. He didn't think that the competition required both parties to be fair and square, and both had to face each other's strange baggage in the best condition. For him, it was enough to complete the task assigned by Ji Xuanyi perfectly.

Xue Piao Renjian didn't know what to feel when he heard Mi Yin's initiative to start a round-robin battle. He knew that there was another very powerful swordsman in Fanxing City. Since he had only fought for two moves, he couldn't tell who was stronger. So he said to Zuo An, " I may not win. "

Zuo An looked up at him and raised his eyebrows: " What? Want to let go? "

Xue Piao Renjian shook his head.

Zuo An said: " Just don't let me win, you won't lose, I believe in you. "

Xue Piaorjian glanced at him and said nothing.

Zuo An smiled and said, " It doesn't matter if I lose. I never keep my word anyway, hehe. "

Xue Piao Renjian frowned slightly.

Zuo An raised his chin towards Fanxing City and said, " Look, Mi Yin is here, go quickly, and don't let him down. I know you won't lose to a defeated opponent like him, right? "

Xue Piaorenjian glanced at him, shook the reins, and the horse under him trotted towards the middle of the two groups of people.

Mi Yin twirled the dagger in his hand, walked to the center, raised his head slightly, and looked at Xue Piao Renjian riding a horse towards him.

Xue Piao Renjian looked at him and was silent for a long time before saying, " He has no intention of keeping his promise. "

Mi Yin couldn't help but laugh: " After not seeing each other for so long, is this all you want to talk about? "

Xue Piao Renjian showed an embarrassed expression. After a long while, he whispered again: " I didn't say anything those people said ... Don't take it to heart. "

Mi Yin looked at him gently and said, " I know. I've been playing with you for so long, how can I not know what kind of personality you have? I'm not angry, nor am I sad – well, a little bit, but it doesn't matter. We are still friends, and that's enough. "

Xue Piao looked at Mi Yin deeply and nodded slightly.

 " Are you okay over there? " Mi Yin asked.

Xue Piao fell silent for a long time, then shook his head.

Mi Yin sighed and said, " I won't interfere with your decision, but this guy called Zuo An is not a good person. If possible, you should leave there as soon as possible. "

Xue Piao nodded, then shook her head and said, " I took his money. "

He thought for a moment and added, " At least until this is over. "

 " This matter is almost over, " Mi Yin said, " Do you want to come and work with us? I know a man who should be very interested in you, and he's not a bad person. "

Mi Yin hesitated for a moment and said, " Not too bad ... "

Xue Piao rarely smiled and said, " Okay. "

Mi Yin also smiled and whispered, " Wait for you to come back and play in the arena with me. "

Xue Piao nodded.

Mi Yin smiled at him, her eyes full of warmth. Xue Piao Renjian couldn't help but lean over and stretched out her hand to him. Mi Yin also moved forward. The two seemed to want to shake hands or hug each other after a long time. Then they heard Zuo An shouting in dissatisfaction from behind: " What are you two doing? Are you going to fight or not? Mi Yin, you are a master after all, have some shame, you can't win and you still play the emotional card? "

Xue Piaorjian frowned and wanted to look back, but Mi Yin grabbed his hand, so he held back and looked down at Mi Yin.

Mi Yin smiled and said, " Let's have a fight, don't let me win. "

Xue Piao knew what Mi Yin meant. When he fought with Mi Yin before, he never let Mi Yin go. This was the most basic respect between masters for each other.

But in this situation, a hint of hesitation appeared in Xue Piaorenjian's eyes.

Mi Yin raised her eyebrows and said, " I can't beat you, but we have another expert on our side. Be prepared, you are bound to lose. "

Xue Piao Renjian guessed that the person Mi Yin was talking about was the swordsman, and a fighting spirit suddenly lit up his face, and he said: " Let's give it a try. "

Mi Yin smiled and disappeared in an instant.

This means that the fight is about to begin.

In any one-on-one situation, as long as the assassin has the stealth skill, they will definitely take the initiative. In order to defend against the assassin's initiative, many players will make some very funny moves when fighting against the assassin.

For example, you can use your weapon to swing it around you infinitely, or you can stay still for a while and then suddenly launch a surprise attack into the air.

There are also those who completely give up on taking the initiative and only care about avoiding damage, such as standing with their backs against a wall, or if conditions permit, standing with their backs to a cliff.

Generally speaking, the former is okay, there is no risk if you stick to the wall, but the latter is quite dangerous. This is a holographic online game. The assassin doesn't even need to hit you. He can just push you from the front and you're done.

But no matter which method of response is used, it is useless and very funny to the assassin hiding in the dark.

However, a master like Xue Piao Renjian did not take any action when facing Mi Yin's invisibility. He sat quietly on his horse, looking at the ground and listening to the sounds. These details might not be of much use when facing a master like Mi Yin, but he still did it out of habit. There was silence all around, and everyone was watching the rare duel between masters on the field, even breathing lightened unconsciously.

Suddenly, Xue Piao Renjian moved at a speed that no one could react to. The silver spear in his hand spun a circle and suddenly stabbed at his right rear. Everyone stretched their necks and stared at his movements nervously. Is Mi Yin there?

Chapter 92

Xue Piao Renjian's stab did not knock out the invisible Mi Yin , but instead exposed his left side . When the air behind his left side stirred up ripples on the water, people on the field cheered!

Xue Piao Renjian was not affected by this . His movements were smooth as if he had anticipated everything. Without even turning his head, he immediately put away his gun and shot Mi Yin who suddenly appeared with the butt of the gun.

Logically speaking, hitting someone with the butt of a gun, no matter how good its attributes are , will not cause much damage. Mi Yin also thought so . He did not even waste time trying to block this move. However, it was not until the butt of the gun stabbed him and he saw his blood dropping rapidly that he realized that this move was not just a casual one from Xue Piao Renjian.

However, before Mi Yin could figure out what was going on, the horse under Xue Piao Renjian had immediately adjusted its position after he was hit , with its butt facing him.

Generally speaking, the adjustment of the horse's body means that the knight is ready to launch the attack with the highest damage . Now if Xue Piaoren adds a [Raising Hoof], the fragile little assassin Mi Yin will most likely be dead !

Mi Yin's face tensed and he immediately used his skill to teleport away .

However, it was not until Mi Yin stood firmly on his feet that he realized that the horse in Xue Piao Renjian just shook its tail and had no intention of raising its hooves.

Mi Yin was stunned, and then he realized that he had been cheated of a skill, a very important life-saving skill.

Although the assassin's new skill can reset the teleport, the three-hit combo that comes with the skill also means that he will be at a very close distance to the opponent – it's not that Mi Yin has no confidence in himself, but when the opponent is Xue Piao Renjian, this behavior is indeed no different from suicide.

Xue Piao Renjian did not take the opportunity to launch an attack. Instead, he turned his horse's head and looked at him with a smile in his eyes.

Mi Yin showed a helpless expression and said, " I haven't seen you for a few days. You have become stronger again, huh? "

Xue Piao smiled and said nothing.

Mi Yin lost half of his blood and was tricked into using a life-saving skill, while the opponent didn't lose any blood at all. For an assassin who can usually take the initiative, this situation is not much different from being pinned to the ground and beaten to death.

Mi Yin put away his weapon and said, " I lose again. "

Xue Piao Renjian got off his horse, shook his head at him, and said, " An assassin shouldn't fight a knight in single combat. "

Whether in sparring, in the arena, or in the wild, the assassin profession is always at a great disadvantage against the knight. No matter under what circumstances, the assassin should not and cannot fight the knight one-on-one.

However, as an arena player, you never know what profession your enemy is. To Mi Yin and Xue Piao, such words are meaningless.

So Mi Yin also understood that Xue Piao still cared about what Zuo An had done before, so she subconsciously comforted him.

Mi Yin smiled and walked forward, patted his shoulder and said, " You said this to me? "

Xue Piao showed an embarrassed expression.

Seeing that he didn't know what to say, Mi Yin changed the subject and asked, " What was that move you just used? Why did the tail of the gun have such high damage? "

Xue Piao breathed a sigh of relief and said, " Knight's skill, straight stab. "

Suddenly realizing that this game doesn't allow multiple characters to be created, Mi Yin probably doesn't know the knight's skills, Xue Piao explained: " You can use it in any direction, not just the tip of the spear. "

Mi Yin showed an expression of sudden enlightenment.

However, just this one point also shows Xue Piao Renjian's meticulousness. Not to mention players of other professions, most knight players probably haven't thought about it. Using the knight's gun in a different direction can also trigger the skill effect. Such unconventional moves can often create unexpected effects when used in battle, just like Mi Yin who was suddenly hit. After Mi Yin understood, he smiled and said, " You told me just like that. Aren't you afraid that I will reveal the secret of this move to our fellow swordsmen? "

Although Xue Piao Renjian has already said that Zuo An will not keep his promise regardless of winning or losing, in Mi Yin's opinion, the significance of the fight between Xue Piao and Qi Qin is definitely not just a promise that no one knows whether it will be fulfilled, but also represents who is the real number one in this game.

The large armies of Star City and Sun City basically represent nearly one-fifth of the population of this game world. The outcome of this battle will surely spread, affecting the undefeated status of Xue Piao Renjian in everyone's hearts.

Although Xue Piao Renjian might not care too much about this status, being defeated would never make people feel better.

Xue Piao Renjian thought for a moment, tilted his head and said, " Not telling him? "

Mi Yin burst out laughing .

Xue Piao also smiled. He raised his hand and hugged Mi Yin, then mounted the horse again and stretched out his hand to Mi Yin.

This is to send him back to the Star City camp.
